

Encyclopedia of Television Shows, 1925 through 2007

Vincent Terrace

ENCYCLOPEDIA OF TELEVISION SHOWS,
1925 THROUGH 2007

ALSO BY VINCENT TERRACE
AND FROM MCFARLAND

Experimental Television, Test Films, Pilots and Trial Series, 1925 through 1995: Seven Decades of Small Screen Almosts (1997; softcover 2008)

Television Specials: 3,201 Entertainment Spectaculars, 1939 through 1993 (1995; softcover 2008)

*Encyclopedia of Television Subjects,
Themes and Settings* (2007)

*Television Characters:
1,485 Profiles, 1947–2004* (2006)

Radio Program Openings and Closings, 1931–1972 (2003)

*The Television Crime Fighters Factbook: Over 9,800
Details from 301 Programs, 1937–2003* (2003)

*Crime Fighting Heroes of Television: Over 10,000
Facts from 151 Shows, 1949–2001* (2002)

*Sitcom Factfinder, 1948–1984: Over 9,700
Details from 168 Television Shows* (2002)

*Television Sitcom Factbook: Over 8,700
Details from 130 Shows, 1985–2000* (2000)

*Radio Programs, 1924–1984:
A Catalog of Over 1800 Shows* (1999)

*Television Character and Story Facts: Over 110,000
Details from 1,008 Shows, 1945–1992* (1993)

ENCYCLOPEDIA OF TELEVISION SHOWS, 1925 THROUGH 2007

Vincent Terrace

Preface; Entries 1–2501 (A–E)

McFarland & Company, Inc., Publishers
Jefferson, North Carolina, and London

Volume 1

[LIBRARY OF CONGRESS ONLINE CATALOG]

Terrace, Vincent, 1948–
Encyclopedia of television shows, 1925 through 2007 / Vincent Terrace.
p. cm.
Includes index.

4 volume set—

ISBN 978-0-7864-3305-6

softcover : 50# alkaline paper

1. Television programs — United States — Catalogs. I. Title.
PN1992.3.U5 T463 2009 791.45'750973 — dc22 2008032753

British Library cataloguing data are available

©2009 Vincent Terrace. All rights reserved

No part of this book may be reproduced or transmitted in any form or by any means, electronic or mechanical, including photocopying or recording, or by any information storage and retrieval system, without permission in writing from the publisher.

Cover: background ©2008 Shutterstock

Manufactured in the United States of America

*McFarland & Company, Inc., Publishers
Box 611, Jefferson, North Carolina 28640
www.mcfarlandpub.com*

Table of Contents

• Volume 1 •

Preface

The Encyclopedia, A–E 3
(entries 1–2501)

• Volume 2 •

The Encyclopedia, F–L 473
(entries 2502–4923)

• Volume 3 •

The Encyclopedia, M–Si 921
(entries 4924–7492)

• Volume 4 •

The Encyclopedia, Sk–Z 1391
(entries 7493–9375)

Name Index 1709

This page intentionally left blank

Preface

From the earliest days of experimental, standard analog broadcasting to the current technology of high definition digital broadcasting, television has struggled to provide entertainment for the American public. Not many programs are a success; most are failures and quickly forgotten. This book is the first and only attempt to capture, in one source, those programs broadcast from the long forgotten days of the 1920s and 30s to the programs telecast during 2007.

Coverage begins at a time when only a handful of television receivers existed; at a time when broadcasting blurry images of comedian Milton Berle (1927) and the cartoon character Felix the Cat were considered a pioneering success. You will see many examples of courageous efforts at pushing forward with the medium in entries with “Experimental Programs” in the descriptors following the program title.

Entries are organized alphabetically by program title and cover network, cable, syndicated prime time, late night, daytime and Saturday morning programs. In addition to regular series, aired and unaired pilot films are also included — the one-time-only programs for potential series that never achieved a weekly commitment.

Entries reflect detailed storyline information and performer and character casts. Because of the tremendous amount of information involved in compiling 9,375 programs, additional information had to be limited to program dates, network and genres. Pilot film entries contain, in addition to the proposed series cast, the guest casts for the episode. An index completes the book.

Whether you are looking for the first reality show (TV Wedding, 1931), the first kids’ show (Jack and the Beanstalk, 1941) or who played Victor Newman on The Young and the Restless (Eric Braeden), you’ll find it here and countless other facts. It’s a new look at an old medium with entries written in a style to foster not only memories but provide an accessible and thorough accounting of what has been broadcast over the 82 year period.

Titles that appear with a 2008 premiere date were scheduled to air in the fall of 2007. A writers’ strike (October 2007 to February 2008) delayed their premieres until 2008.

Vincent Terrace • October 2008

This page intentionally left blank

The Encyclopedia

1 A&E Biography. (Series; Documentary; A&E; 1994–2005). An in-depth, well produced series of biographical celebrity profiles (but also, on occasion, non show business figures).

Host-Narrator: Jack Perkins, Peter Graves, Harry Smith, Bill Mumy.

2 Aaron's Way. (Series; Drama; NBC; 1988). Aaron Miller, his wife, Sarah, and their children, Roseanne, Martha and Frank, are an Amish family who own a farm in Pennsylvania. When Aaron's oldest son, Noah, is killed in a sailing accident, he uproots his family and moves to California's wine country to help Noah's pregnant girlfriend, Susannah LoVerde, and her family (her mother, Connie and her brother Mickey). Stories relate the Miller's struggles to adjust to a lifestyle that contradicts their religious ways.

Cast: Merlin Olsen (Aaron Miller), Belinda J. Montgomery (Sarah Miller), Samantha Mathis (Roseanne Miller), Erin Chase (Martha Miller), Scott Curtis (Frank Miller), Kathleen York (Susannah LoVerde), Jessica Walter (Connie LoVerde), Christopher Gartin (Mickey LoVerde).

3 The Abbott and Costello Cartoon Show. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1966). An animated series based on the characters of comedians Bud Abbott and Lou Costello, stars of vaudeville, radio, movies and television. Unlike their 1950s series (The Abbott and Costello Show) the situations in which Bud and Lou become involved are not drawn from their movies; instead, the new series involve Bud and Lou in a variety of predicaments.

Voice Cast: Bud Abbott (Bud Abbott), Stan Irwin (Lou Costello).

4 The Abbott and Costello Show. (Series; Comedy; Syn.; 1952–1954). The Fields Rooming House at 214 Brookline Avenue in Hollywood, California, is owned by Sidney Fields, a patient and understanding man who tries to run "a nice, quiet and decent" establishment. He tries but the tenants complain about "those two hoodlums you have living here." Those "hoodlums" are Bud Abbott and Lou Costello, out of work actors who are struggling to survive on what jobs they can find (or more aptly put, what jobs Bud can find for Lou).

Lou was born in Paterson, New Jersey, and mentioned that he helps support his sister and three nieces. Bud, who gets the hiccups when he's nervous, mentioned that he was a professional loafer (one who makes bread; not, as Lou believes, one who gets paid for doing nothing). Lou was also a Junior G-Man (a graduate of a through-the-mails detective school) and carried a toy cap pistol around with him for protection.

"We've got to raise some money" is often said by Bud, as he and Lou are always behind in their seven dollar a week rent and finding work becomes a priority. (When they can't find work they sell what little valuables they have at Hock Shop Harry's.) Bud and Lou did have a number of jobs throughout the series run. These mostly one-day employment opportunities included being waiters at Brodie's Sea Food Restaurant; wallpaper hangers; pest exterminators; pet store owners; delivery boys for the Susquehanna Hat Company on Fluegel Street and soda jerks. When there is a situation that involves a friend (or stranger) who is in trouble, Bud always remarks "Costello will get you out of this." Bud and Lou also tried their hand at becoming cops by attending police rookie school.

While the rules of the rooming house are quite strict ("no cooking cabbage in the apartment; no door slamming; no loud radio playing after 9:30; no pets; no babies") Lou most often breaks the no-pet rule with Bingo the Chimp, a chimpanzee he adopted while working in the pet shop. Bingo dresses like Lou (trademark checkered jacket and gray hat).

The six-year-old Bingo and Lou argue each night over who is going to take their bath first. Lou mentioned that Bingo's mother was working with a circus and his father was in the Belgian Congo.

When Bud and Lou are out of town, Lou's girlfriend, Hillary Brooke, baby sits for Bingo. Hillary, a gorgeous blonde, held jobs in accordance with what the episode called for (for example, nurse, dental assistant, waitress, lawyer's office receptionist, owner of the B-Bar-B Ranch in Texas, and owner of a haunted castle at Goblins Knob, which she inherited from her Uncle Montague). When Hillary calls on Lou she brings him cream puffs.

While Sidney Fields was primarily the landlord, he also played a number of relatives who were supposed tops in their fields (for example, Professor Melonhead, the judo expert; Lawyer Claude Melonhead; Judge Melonhead).

Mike Kelly is the neighborhood police officer called “Mike the Cop”; Stinky Davis is Lou’s friend, a 30-year-old “kid” who loves to play games like football and hopscotch with Lou; Mr. Botchagalupe is the neighborhood’s enterprising street vendor (seen selling fruit, vegetables, ice cream — whatever the episode called for).

The song “The Jazz Babies Ball” is used as the show’s second season theme (over which a montage of Bud and Lou’s movie clips is seen).

Cast: Bud Abbott (Himself), Lou Costello (Himself), Hillary Brooke (Herself), Sidney Fields (Himself), Gordon Jones (Mike the Cop), Joe Besser (Stinky), Joe Kirk (Mr. Botchagalupe). Regulars: Joan Shawlee, Veda Ann Borg, Joe Sawyer, Joyce Compton, Gloria Henry, George Chandler, Lucien Littlefield.

5 Abby. (Series; Comedy; UPN; 2003). Abigail “Abby” Walker is a young woman with a somewhat complicated life. She is single but lives with her ex-boyfriend, Will (as a roommate only) so they can both afford their inexpensive, rent-controlled San Francisco apartment. At work Abby is the producer of “The West Coast Sports Report,” a show that airs at 10 P.M. (with repeats at 2, 4 and 6 A.M.) and has to constantly deal with her overbearing boss (Roger), and is unknowingly the secret crush of Max, her best friend, the host of “The West Coast Sports Report.” Further complicating Abby’s life is her flirtatious sister, Jo, who feels that Abby needs a man in her life. Stories follow the events in Abby’s life that make her sometimes wish she were an entirely different person. Abby has a bad habit of sharing all the intimate details of her love life with Max; Will is a photographer and his first public showing was a nude photograph of Abby that he took when they first moved in together.

Cast: Sydney Tamiia Poitier (Abby Walker), Kadeem Hardison (Will Jeffries), Randy J. Goodwin (Max Ellis), Tangie Ambrose (Jo Walker), Sean O’Bryan (Roger Tomkins).

6 The ABC Afterschool Special. (Series; Anthology; ABC; 1972–1995). A long running series of monthly specials geared to teenagers that aired on Wednesday (then Thursday) afternoons at 4 P.M. EST. The stories (mostly dramas) are designed to teach lessons — from responsibility to caring to moral decisions and featured name stars in top quality (and often Emmy nominated) stories.

Stars Include: Tammy Lauren, Cloris Leachman, Felicity Huffman, Megan Follows, Loretta Swit, Red Buttons, Jodie Foster, Lance Kerwin, Jim Backus, Jerry Van Dyke, Helen Slater, Concetta Tomei, David Huddleston, Michele Greene, Carrie Snodgrass, Brooke Bundy, Beau Bridges, Tim Conway, Ruth Buzzi, Shelley Fabares, Dick Sargent, Danny Aiello, Laura Dean, Edward Albert, Cathy Rigby, Richard Roundtree, John Savage, Patricia Kalember, Kristy McNichol, Della Reese, Tracey Gold, Patty Duke, Martha Plimpton, Melba Moore, Marisa Tomei, Melissa Sue Anderson, Marion Ross.

7 ABC Album. (Series; Anthology; ABC; 1953). A collection of pilot films and other dramatic and comedic productions. For information on the pilot films that aired, see the following titles: Colonel Humphrey J. Flack, Jamie, Jet Fighter, Justice, Mr. Glencannon Takes All and Sketchbook. The other presentations were A Tale of Two Cities (May 3rd and May 10th, 1953 with Wendell Corey, Charlton Young, Wanda Hendrix and Judith Evelyn), Hogan’s Daughter (May 17, 1953, with Sheila Bond and Joshua Shelley), Split Second (June 7, 1953, with Geraldine Fitzgerald, Alan Webb and Fredric Worlock), Baby and Me (June 14, 1953, with Janis Paige and Robert Preston) and Turning Point (June 21, 1953 with Neva Patterson, Richard Ney and Johnny Stewart). The series is also known as Plymouth Playhouse.

Host: Donald Cook.

8 ABC Funfit. (Series; Children; ABC; 1985–1986). A five-minute series, broadcast twice a day during ABC’s Saturday morning cartoon schedule, that features exercises and tips for children that are designed to help them learn about and appreciate the benefits of physical fitness. 1984 Olympic gold medalist Mary Lou Retton hosts the series; four “ABC Funfit Kids” who perform exercises with her assist her.

Host: Mary Lou Retton. Fun Fit Kids: Ericka Pazcoquin, Bradley Kane, Melissa Kern, Efrain Bracero. Choreographer: Lynne Taylor-Corbett.

9 ABC-Powers Charm School. (Series; Women; ABC; 1946). Beauty tips, fashion advice and other topics of interest geared to women. The first television series to be taken over by an ad agency for a thirteen-week run (October 2, 1946 to December 25, 1946).

Host: Peggy Allenby. Regulars: Pat Hosley, John Robert Powers, Walter Herlihy.

10 ABC Presents Krofft Late Night. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 4/5/91). A comical look at television news reporting as seen through the antics of a live anchorman and a group of puppets (the Krofft Marionettes) who assist him.

Anchorman: Leslie Nielsen. Puppet Voices: Maurice LaMarche, Bethany Owen, John Roarke.

11 ABC Stage ’67. (Series; Anthology; ABC; 1966–1967). The overall title for a series of original television productions; a noble, but failed attempt to revive the glory of the anthology drama (so popular in the 1950s) on TV. Listed below are some of the more outstanding productions.

1. Olympus 7000. A comedy about a football coach and his efforts to organize a professional team from a group of misfits. Aired October 12, 1966. Cast: Larry Blyden (Todd), Donald O'Connor (Hermes), Phyllis Newman (Mary), Fred Clark (Dean Severance), Eddie Foy, Jr. (Casey).

2. The Canterville Ghost. A musical version of the Oscar Wilde story (adapted by Jerry Bock and Sheldon Harnick) about an American family who move into an English home that is haunted by a ghost. Aired November 2, 1966. Cast: Douglas Fairbanks, Jr. (Ambassador Otis), Michael Redgrave (Simon de Canterville), Natalie Schafer (Mrs. Otis), Tippy Walker (Virginia Otis).

3. The Love Song of Barney Kempinski. A comedy about a bachelor's last fling — a tour of New York City — before he marries. Aired September 14, 1966. Cast: Alan Arkin (Barney Kempinski), Lee Grant (Laura), Arlene Golonka (Mary), Leonardo Cimino (Dino), Philip Coolidge (Farley), Rex Everhart (Kevin).

4. I'm Getting Married. A two character musical satire by Betty Comden, Adolph Green and Jule Styne. The story of a young go-getter who is about to marry but thinks only of getting ahead in the business world. Aired March 16, 1967. Cast: Anne Bancroft (Virginia), Dick Shawn (Paul).

5. C'est La Vie. A musical review of songs from Broadway, films and various fields of popular culture. Aired February 23, 1967. Host: Maurice Chevalier, Diahann Carroll.

6. A Time for Laughter. A review of black humor in America. Aired April 6, 1967. Guests: Harry Belafonte, Sidney Poitier, Diahann Carroll, George Kirby, Redd Foxx, Diana Sands, Richard Pryor, Pigmeat Markham, Moms Mabley.

12 ABC's Matinee Today. (Pilot; Anthology; ABC; 12/3 to 12/7/73). A proposed series of week-day dramas. Five 90-minute stories were presented:

1. I Never Said Goodbye (12/3/73). The trial of a doctor who is accused of hastening the death of a woman afflicted with a terminal disease. Cast: June Lockhart (Katherine Telford), Jack Stauffer (David Laughton), Renne Jarrett (Alice Laughton), John Lupton (Dr. Morton), Philip Clark (Mike Rodman), DeForest Kelley (Dr. Goldstone), Anne Seymour (Judge Micklin).

2. The Other Woman (12/4/73). The story of Liz Cunningham, a pregnant, unwed librarian, as she struggles to keep her child despite the embarrassment the birth will bring to the child's married father (Dave Collins). Cast: Katherine Helmond (Liz Cunningham), Joel Fabiana (Dave Collins), Pat

O'Brien (Dr. Miller), Beverlee McKensy (Lorraine Collins).

3. Alone with Terror (12/5/73). A police lieutenant's widow (Susan Maroni) risks her life to prove that her husband was not on the take at the time of his apparent suicide. Cast: Juliet Mills (Susan Maroni), Virginia Vincent (Marian Webb), Colby Chester (Leonard Walters), Sam Vickers (Joseph Bernard), Charles Schull (John Ryan).

4. My Secret Mother (12/6/73). A young woman's (Nora Sells) search to find her real mother. Cast: Sondra Locke (Nora Sells), Lola Albright (Mary Fiske), Rue McClanahan (Carol Babcock), Marge Redmond (Mrs. Sells).

5. A Mask of Love (12/7/73). The story of John Connors, a biographer, and his search for a deceased novelist's personal papers — now jealously guarded over by his last mistress. Cast: Harris Yulin (John Connors), Barbara Barrie (Tina Bordeaux), Cathleen Nesbitt (Juliana Bordeaux), Geraldine Brooks (Mary Prest), Naomi Stevens (Maria).

13 ABC's Nightlife. (Series; Talk; ABC; 1964–1965). A late night attempt by ABC to put a dent in the ratings of NBC's Tonight Show Starring Johnny Carson. While the ABC show followed the same basic format (celebrity interviews) it also featured a rebel host (Les Crane) who tried to run the show the way he wanted — not the way he was told to do. Les was a capable and entertaining host, but his lack of respect for television tradition did not fare well with viewers — or critics and the show was canceled after a year. The series is also known as The Les Crane Show.

Host: Les Crane. Announcer: William B. Williams. Regular: Jimmy Cannon.

14 Abe Burrows Almanac. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1950). A live program of music, song and comedy featuring the performances by guests. Abe Burrows and Alan Dinehart are the producers.

Host: Abe Burrows. Music: Milton DeLugg.

15 Abe Lincoln in Illinois. (Experimental; Stage Play; NBC; 1945). A television adaptation of the three-act Broadway play by Robert E. Sherwood about Abraham Lincoln: his campaign for the position of U.S. Senator, his personal life (with Mary Todd), the famous Lincoln-Douglas Debates, and his departure from Illinois in 1861 to Washington, D.C., as President of the United States. The three acts were presented over a seven-week period (April 15, May 20 and May 27, 1945).

Cast: Stephen Courtleigh (Abraham Lincoln), Mary Michaels (Mary Todd), Alma Mansfield (Ann Rutledge). Also: Harry Bellaver, Ralph Chambers, Mary Collins, Dorothy Emery, Lucille Fenton, Viola Fran, Vinton Hayworth, Earl MacDonald, John McKee, Wendell Phillips, Grandon Rhodes, Morton Stevens.

16 About Faces. (Series; Game; ABC; 1960–1961). Selected members of the studio audience compete. The contestants are placed opposite each other and presented with clues concerning incidents in their past lives. The first player to correctly associate his relationship with the person opposite him is the winner and receives merchandise prizes.

Host: Ben Alexander.

17 Above the Law. (Pilot; Western; NBC; 1/13/66). A proposed spin-off from Laredo about Jab Heller, a gunslinger who fights for right. In the pilot episode, a woman (Ruth) who believes that her condemned husband is not a killer, hires Jab to clear his name before the hanging.

Cast: Jack Lord (Jab Heller). Guest Cast: Lola Albright (Lilah Evans), John Kellogg (Brad Scanlon), Laraine Stephens (Ruth Phelps), Anthony Hayes (Tom Phelps), Jonathan Hole (Undertaker), Hal Baylor (Mott), Myron Healey (Frank Garrett).

18 Abra Kadabra. (Series; Children; Syn.; 1987). A charming children's series that is set at the Abra Kadabra Shop, a mystical store where magician Mark Mazzarella explains the world of magic to children. Sketches feature the antics of the puppet Harry the Rabbit; the Mystery Question Voice poses questions to Mark and Harry.

Cast: Mark Mazzarella (Host), Gerry Perret (Professor Dewpoint), Wayne Bell (Word Wizard), Donna Baske (Mystery Question Voice), Joseph Zito (Voice of Harry the Rabbit).

19 The Absent-Minded Professor. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1988–1989). Henry Crawford is a physics professor at Medford College in the small town of Medford. Henry is famous for creating Flubber, a green, rubbery substance that generates its own energy (and seems to have a mind of its own as it bounces erratically). Stories follow Henry's misadventures as he seeks ways to utilize Flubber to benefit mankind.

Other Regulars: Ellen Whitley, the English teacher; Gus, Henry's friend; Mrs. Nakamura, Henry's landlady; and Dr. Blount, the college dean. Henry has a dog named Newton and Harry Anderson and Jay Johnson provide the voice for Albert, Henry's computer. Adapted from the feature film of the same title.

Cast: Harry Anderson (Henry Crawford), Mary Page Keller (Ellen Whitley), Bibi Osterwald (Mrs. Nakamura), James Noble (Dr. Blount), Cory Danziger (Gus).

20 Absolutely Fabulous. (Series; Comedy; Comedy Central; 2002). Edina Monsoon (called Eddy) and Patsy Stone are friends whose wild life styles provide the premise as they attempt to show the world that fame and style take priority over substance.

Eddy is the mother of Saffron and lives with her somewhat senile mother June on Holland Park Road in London, England. Although she doesn't live there, Patsy has made the Monsoon home her second home.

Eddy and Patsy are not your typical American TV heroines — they drink and do drugs and their antics in these stoned states provide the physical comedy. Saffron (called Saffy) is appalled at the way her mother acts. She also despises Patsy for being a bad influence and is struggling to change her mother's life for the better. The British produced series relates the fun-loving antics of Eddy and Patsy as they do what they want to do — enjoy life by any means they can.

Edina's real first name is Edwina, but she changed it when she opened her public relations firm. The business is failing but Eddy puts on airs of wealth and success. She was first married to Justin (Saffy's father), then Michael, the father of her virtually unseen gay son, Serge.

Patsy, real name Eurydice Colette Stone, is a bastard child. She and Eddy were childhood friends and Patsy, always neglected by her mother, was literally raised by Eddy's mother. She is not only a smoker and drinker, but also a nymphomaniac and an ex (and aging) model. Patsy also played a Bond girl in a James Bond movie. She had a high paying (but do nothing job) at a fashion magazine (which she got by sleeping with the publisher) but now works at a fashion boutique called Jeremy's.

Saffy was born in 1975 and is called, among other things, "Little bitch troll from hell" by Patsy for her virtuous outlook on life. She has a rather dull life but, as the series progressed, found a bit of excitement (especially when she did humanitarian work in Uganda and become pregnant. She later gave birth to a girl she named Jane).

Bubble is Eddy's batty secretary; Sarah is Saffy's friend. The series aired in England from 1992–2006.

Cast: Jennifer Saunders (Eddy Monsoon), Joanna Lumley (Patsy Stone), Julia Sawalha (Saffy Monsoon), June Whitfield (June Monsoon), Jane Horrocks (Bubble), Christopher Malcolm (Justin), Helen Lederer (Catriona), Naoko Mori (Sarah), Celia Imrie (Claudia Bing), Tilly Blackwood (Lady Candida), Kathy Burke (Magda), Gary Beadle (Oliver), Mo Gaffney (Bo Turtle), Christopher Ryan (Marshall Turtle).

21 The Academy. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 3/31/82). The first of two unsold spin-offs from The Facts of Life (see next title also). The story, set at the Stone Military Academy in Peekskill, New York, focuses on the antics of a group of mischievous cadets. In the pilot episode, the street-wise Jo, a student at the Eastland School for Girls, arranges for Blair, her beautiful but snobbish friend, to escort Buzz Ryan, a cadet at Stone, to a military dance. Unknown to Blair, Buzz is a Dead End Kid and only accepts the date with Blair to prove to a fellow cadet that he can get a living doll to kiss him before curfew.

Cast: David Ackroyd (Major Tim Dorsey; the Headmaster), Jimmy Baio (Cadet Buzz Ryan), Peter Frechette (Cadet George Knight), John P. Navin, Jr. (Cadet Alfred Webster), David Hubbard (Cadet Chip Nelson). Guest Cast: Lisa Whelchel (Blair Warner), Nancy McKeon (Jo Polniacsek), Charlotte Rae (Edna Garrett), Kim Fields (Tootie Ramsey), Mindy Cohn (Natalie Greene).

22 The Academy II. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 12/8/82). A second proposed spin-off from The Facts of Life (see prior title) about the antics of the male cadets at the Stone Military Academy in Peekskill, New York. In the story, Cadet Alfred Webster tries to impress Natalie (of the nearby Eastland School for Girls) by entering a boxing match in which he is hopelessly outmatched.

Cast: David Ackroyd (Major Tim Dorsey; the Headmaster), Jimmy Baio (Cadet Buzz Ryan), Peter Frechette (Cadet George Knight), John P. Navin, Jr. (Cadet Alfred Webster), Ben Marley (Cadet Hank Barton), David Raynr (Cadet Chip Nelson). Guest Cast: Mindy Cohn (Natalie Greene), Charlotte Rae (Edna Garrett), Bill Galligan (Michael "Mongo" Moran), Eddie Deezen (Gursky), Barbara Stock (Nurse Burton), Kenny Tessel (Chester).

23 Acapulco. (Series; Adventure; NBC; 1961). Dissatisfied with life in the America, Patrick Malone and Gregg Miles, Korean War veterans, retreat to southern Mexico's Acapulco seeking an idyllic existence. They find little of what they are looking for when they befriend Mr. Carver, a retired criminal lawyer who still feels the need to seek justice. To accomplish his goals, Carver hires Patrick and Greg to gather the evidence he needs to defend his clients. Stories relate Patrick and Greg's efforts to find their dream life, which takes a side track as they help people in trouble. Bobby Troup is their friend, the owner of a nightclub; Chloe is the nightclub hostess.

Cast: Ralph Taeger (Patrick Malone), James Coburn (Gregg Miles), Allison Hayes (Chloe), Bobby Troup (Himself), Telly Savalas (Mr. Carver).

24 Acapulco H.E.A.T. (Series; Crime Drama; Syn.; 1993). The Hemisphere Emergency Action Team, H.E.A.T. for short, is a secret organization designed to fight international terrorism and crime. It is based in the ruins of a Mayan temple in Puerto Vallarta in Acapulco, Mexico, and its operatives live in the nearby Regina Hotel. Officially, H.E.A.T. does not exist. This enables them to help governments or companies without the impediments of red tape (or ever being traced). The main operatives are Ashley Hunter Coddington, Catherine Avery Pascal, Mike Savage and Krissie Valentine.

Ashley, the group leader, has the code name Sarong. She is beautiful and intelligent and was formerly with MI-6. She was born in England and although she constantly displays her legs in swimwear, shorts and miniskirts, she hates to be called "Legs." Ashley is an expert on weapons, explosives and the martial arts.

Catherine, who prefers to be called Cat, has the code name High Dive. She is a cunning thief who was recruited from prison (promised a pardon to work for H.E.A.T.). She is an expert pickpocket and can open virtually any safe (and pick any lock).

Mike, codename Platform, hates to be called Michael. He was born in Brooklyn, New York, worked as a bartender and was formerly with the CIA. He likes to incorporate the technical "gizmos" they have available to them (like the thermal scanner — which can monitor buildings for activity).

Krissie is the team's computer operator. She has the codename Springboard and is basically a non-field operative (she is based at headquarters).

Marcos is an undercover agent for the Mexican government who poses as a cab driver but works with the H.E.A.T. team. Claudio DiVanti is the owner of the Regina Hotel; Mr. Smith is the mysterious head of a government organization called C-5 that hires the H.E.A.T. team.

A casting change dropped Ashley and Krissie and added Nicole and Joanna. H.E.A.T. was still located in Acapulco but the team was now headed by Nicole DeNaurd. She was born in France and was a former CIA agent. Nicole keeps a poison capsule in her bra (for use on her enemies) and uses her beauty and charm to get men to do what she wants. She can read lips, is an expert on weapons and explosives and skilled in the marital arts. Joanna, born in the Midwest, replaced Krissie as the team's computer operations specialist. She calls headquarters "The Heat Room." See also The Dream Team.

Cast: Catherine Oxenberg (Ashley Hunter-Coddington), Alison Armitage (Catherine "Cat" Pascal), Brendan Kelly (Mike Savage), Holly Floria (Krissie Valentine), Randy Vasquez (Marcos), John Vernon (Mr. Smith), Lydie Denier (Nicole DeNaurd), Christa Sauls (Joanna), Fabio (Claudio).

25 Access Hollywood. (Series; Variety; Syn.; 2002). A daily entertainment series that presents the latest gossip on celebrities, movies, television shows, music and other entertainment related fields. Jonathan P. Goodman, Joseph R. Lynch, David Hall, David Hedges and Rob Silverstein are the producers.

Hosts: Nancy O'Dell, Billy Bush, Larry Mendte, Giselle Fernandez, Pat O'Brien. Correspondents: Shaun Robinson, Tony Potts, Dayanara Torres, Mike Duran, Adrianna Costa. Music: David Leon, Jeremy Sweet.

26 Accidental Family. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1967–1968). Following a court case, Jerry Webster, a widowed Las Vegas nightclub entertainer, receives custody of his eight-year-old son, Sandy, providing he raise the boy in a non-show business atmosphere. Hoping to abide by the judge's decision and provide a decent life for Sandy, Jerry moves to San Fernando and into a farmhouse he owns. A problem arises when he discovers that he is unable to evict his tenants: Susannah Kramer, a pretty divorcee, her daughter Tracy, and her ex-vaudevillian uncle, Ben McGrath. The problem is solved by mutual agreement to share the house. Jerry will reside there on weekends to be with Sandy, and Susannah will care for Sandy during the week and not pay rent. The series revolves around the problems that befall an "Accidental Family."

Marty Warren is Jerry's manager; Irv Webster is Jerry's father; Hank is Susannah's ex-husband.

Cast: Jerry Van Dyke (Jerry Webster), Lois Nettleton (Susannah Kramer), Teddy Quinn (Sandy Webster), Susan Benjamin (Tracy Kramer), Ben Blue (Ben McGrath), Larry D. Mann (Marty Warren), Jeremy Slate (Hank), Herbie Faye (Irv Webster), Joyce Van Patten (Jerry's Aunt Martha), Edward Andrews (Mr. Sheppard, Susannah's father), Mabel Albertson (Mrs. Sheppard, Susannah's mother), Jim Backus (Susannah's Uncle Fred), Henny Backus (Susannah's Aunt Helen).

27 According to Jim. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 2000–). The house at 412 Maple Street in Chicago is home to a man named Jim (no last name given), his wife Cheryl, and their children Gracie, Ruby and Kyle.

Jim is the owner of the Grounds Up Designs construction company and is naturally rude and obnoxious. Cheryl, on the other hand, is a warm and friendly woman who likes to be liked (she will go out of her way to impress people so she can be liked). Cheryl also worries about what her friends will think after they meet Jim. Before marrying and becoming a housewife, Cheryl held a job as a claims adjuster at an insurance company. Stories relate events in the lives of Jim and Cheryl, but especially Jim as he goes about trying to impress people with his own ideas of parenting, working, heading a house and just enjoying life.

Dana is Cheryl's younger sister, a girl who is looking for a husband but can never seem to find the right man (until 2006 when she met and married Dr. Ryan Gibson). She originally worked in advertising but is later unemployed. Andy is Cheryl's brother (the baby of the family), an architect and Jim's business partner. Jim and Cheryl's children attend the Havenhurst Elementary School.

Cast: Jim Belushi (Jim), Courtney Thorne-Smith (Cheryl), Kimberly Williams (Dana), Larry Jo

Campbell (Andy), Billi Bruno (Gracie), Taylor Atelian (Ruby), Connor and Grant Sullivan (Kyle), Anthony and Brian Toro (Kyle), Connor Rayburn (Kyle), Mitch Rouse (Dr. Ryan Gibson).

28 Accused. (Series; Drama; ABC; 1958–1959). A weekly series of filmed reenactments of actual courtroom cases.

Cast: Edgar Allan Jones, Jr. (Judge), William Gwinn (Substitute Judge), Jim Hodson (Clerk), Tim Farrell (Bailiff), Violet Gilmore (Court Reporter).
Announcer: Violet Gilmore.

29 Ace. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 7/26/76). A proposed series about Edward R. Ace is an eccentric private detective struggling to stay in business. In the pilot episode, Ace's attempts to find the source of a security leak in a large corporation. Gloria Ross is Ace's secretary.

Cast: Bob Dishy (Edward R. Ace), Rae Allen (Gloria Ross). Guest Cast: Barbara Brownell (Janet Slade), Ruth Manning (Alice Slade), Dick Van Patten (Mr. Mason), Liam Dunn (Mr. Strutt).

30 Ace Crawford, Private Eye. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1983). Ace Crawford is a determined, self-assured, but inexperienced private detective who stumbles upon and solves crimes quite by accident. Stories follow his efforts bring criminals to justice like is heroes — the movie detectives of the 1940s.

Toomey Ace's accountant; Inch is the diminutive owner of The Shanty, a bar on the wharf; Luana is the sexy singer at the bar; Mello is Luana's accompanist; Police Lieutenant Fanning is the cop Ace most often plagues with his incompetence.

Cast: Tim Conway (Ace Crawford), Joe Regalbuto (Toomey), Billy Barty (Inch), Shera Danese (Luana), Bill Henderson (Mello), Dick Christie (Lieutenant Fanning).

31 Ace Ventura, Pet Detective. (Series; Cartoon; CBS; 1996). An animated adaptation of the feature film of the same title about Ace Ventura, a rather insane young man who has quite an unusual occupation: he is a pet detective. Stories follow his blundering efforts to locate stolen or missing pets.

Voice Cast: Michael Daingerfield (Ace Ventura), Rob Paulsen (Stanley Ipikiss), Al Waxman (Aguado), Pam Hyatt (Atrocita Odora), Richard Binsley (Spike), D.G. Beatty (Woodstock), Vince Corazza (Shickadance).

32 Aces Up. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 3/29/74). Jose and Raul are two spirited Puerto Ricans who each possess a dream: Jose to become a world champion race car driver; Raul to design racing cars. Hoping to earn the money they need to begin that dream, the friends pool their resources and open the Ace Moving and Hauling Service. The pilot episode relates their fumbling attempts to move an annoying family.

Cast: Jose Perez (Jose), Raul Julia (Raul). Guest Cast: Ron Steinberg (Father), Carol Bagdasarian (Daughter), Paul Michael Glaser (Son).

33 Acres and Pains. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 7/19/65). Tom Dutton, a writer beset by the aggravation of city living, forsakes his Greenwich Village apartment and moves to Bucks County, Pennsylvania, for a life of peace and quiet. The pilot relates Tom and his wife, Jenny's, move from New York City to the country — and into a decrepit farmhouse. The unsold series, which served as the basis for Green Acres, was to relate Tom and Jenny's misadventures as they attempt to adjust to a new life.

Cast: Walter Matthau (Tom Dutton), Anne Jackson (Jenny Dutton). Guest Cast: Edward Andrews (Paul Goodlove), Alice Pearce (Mrs. Ledbetter), Philip Coolidge (Mr. Ledbetter), Jerry Stiller (Harold), David Doyle (Burton Fairbanks).

34 Acrobat Ranch. (Series; Variety; ABC; 1950–1951). Circus variety acts are presented against the background of a western ranch called Acrobat Ranch. The program also features a game segment wherein children, members of the studio audience, compete against one another in game contests for merchandise prizes.

Cast: Jack Stillwell (Host), Billy Alberts (Tumbling Tim), Valerie Alberts (Flying Flo).

35 Across the Board. (Series; Game; ABC; 1959). Two players compete in a game wherein they must complete crossword puzzles from a series of picture and word clues. The player who scores the most correct identifications is the winner and receives merchandise prizes.

Host: Ted Brown.

36 Across the Seven Seas. (Series; Travel; Syn.; 1962). Films that depict the people and customs of countries around the world. An announcer opens the program: "The Jack Douglas true television series in association with Bing Crosby Productions; Across the Seven Seas combining the different worlds of travel and adventure and presenting tonight "Sundown," a tour of the world's most exciting cities after the shadows fall."

Host: Jack Douglas.

37 Act It Out. (Series; Game; ABC; 1951–1952). The ABC title for a game show that aired on DuMont and NBC as Say It with Acting. See this title for information.

38 Act II. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 9/3/87). While performing in a Broadway production of South Pacific, Meg Prescott meets Ben Madison, an admirer who comes backstage to congratulate her. The two date, fall in love and eventually marry. Ben is a widower with three children (Laura, Zan and Jimmy) and Meg gives up her acting career to care for her new family in Santa Fe, New Mexico. The pilot episode relates Meg's efforts to win over the affections of Zan, Ben's second-born child, who seems to resent her. Other Regulars: Dede McKenna, Ben's neighbor.

Cast: Sandy Duncan (Meg Madison), Charles Frank (Ben Madison), Cami Cooper (Laura Madison), Hayley Carr (Zan Madison), Joel Carlsson (Jimmy Madison), Miriam Byrd Nethery (Dede McKenna), Michael Filerman. Theme Vocal: "Over My Head" by Sandy Duncan.

39 Acting Sheriff. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 8/17/91). Brent McCord is a Hollywood actor and "hunk" who starred in such films as Bring Me the Head of Zorro, A Fistful of Courage, The Long So Long and Get Al Capone. Brent was also married five times and the star of an ill-fated TV series called "Scuba Sleuth." When CBS cancels his series, Brent runs for the office of sheriff of LoMiceda County in an effort to become a real hero and impress his fans. He didn't expect to win, but when he does, he assumes the role of sheriff. His fumbling attempts to uphold the law — and solve crimes like the characters he plays — was to be the focal point of the series. Originally titled "Make My Day." Other Regulars: Donna Singer, the assistant D.A.; Helen Munson, the dispatcher; and deputies Judith Mahoney and Mike Swanson.

Cast: Robert Goulet (Brent McCord), Hillary Bailey Smith (Donna Singer), John Putch (Mike Swanson), Diane Delano (Judith Mahoney), Ruth Kobart (Helen Munson).

40 Action. (Pilot; Anthology; CBS; 10/18/57). The proposed title for a weekly anthology series from the studios of Four Star Television. The pilot episode, "A Gun Is for Killing," tells of Russell Andrews, a man who breaks his vow never to use a gun, when his son is killed and he seeks revenge. Aired on Zane Grey Theater.

Cast: Edmond O'Brien (Russell Andrews), Marsha Hunt (Claire Andrews), Robert Vaughn (Billy Jack), Paul Engle (Bobby Andrews).

41 Action. (Series; Drama; Fox; 1999–2000). The steamy and not so glamorous side of the Hollywood motion picture industry is seen through the underhanded dealings of Peter Dragon, a producer who has hit rock bottom. As the owner of Dragonfire Films, his last picture, Slow Torture, was a $150 million bomb. Now, to redeem himself and get back into production, he sets out to produce Beverly Hills Gun Club, an action-packed thriller starring the only person who appears willing to help him — Wendy Ward, a former child star turned Hollywood hooker. The short-lived series follows Peter's attempts to achieve the fame he believes he so richly deserves.

Cast: Jay Mohr (Peter Dragon), Illeana Douglas (Wendy Ward), Jack Plotnick (Stuart Glazer), Fab Filippo (Holden Van Dorn), Buddy Hackett (Uncle Lonnie), Jarrod Paul (Adam Rafkin), Erin Daniels (Jenny).

42 Action Autographs. (Series; Variety; ABC; 1949–1950). The program, which spotlights the homemade films of well-known celebrities, also features in-studio interviews and demonstrations on how to use motion picture equipment (home 16mm cameras and projectors), which are supplied by the sponsor, Bell and Howell.

Host: Jack Brand, Ed Prentiss.

43 Action in the Afternoon. (Series; Western; CBS; 1953–1954). The program, set in Huberle, Montana, during the 1890s, relates incidents in the lives of its citizens with emphasis on the values then as compared to those of the early 1950s. Broadcast live weekday afternoons from Philadelphia.

Cast: Jack Valentine, Elaine Watts, John Zacherle, Phil Sheridan, Creighton Stewart, Kris Keegan, Jack V. Harris Forest. Narrator: Blake Ritter.

44 Action League Now. (Series; Cartoon; Nickelodeon; 2003). Thunder Girl, The Flesh, Stinky Diver and Meltman are super action toy figures that come to (animated) life to battle evil (for their boss, the Chief). Stories follow the unlikely team as they use their abilities (or lack of them) to stop criminals in their tracks. Thunder Girl has the ability to fly; The Flesh, who wears no clothes (hence the name), possesses super strength; Meltman has the power to melt (making him virtually useless) and Stinky Diver is of even less help as he swims in polluted waters.

Voice Cast: Cris Winter (Thunder Girl), Jim Krenn (The Flesh), Jim Krenn (Stinky Diver), Scott Pailsen (Meltman), Victor Hart (The Chief).

45 Action Man. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1995). Action Man knows no other name. He is suffering amnesia and knows only one thing: he is the leader of an elite multinational strike force (Natalie, Knuck, Jacques, Norris and Vira) and that he must battle evil. His current assignment: Stop Dr. X, a madman who is wrecking havoc on the world. Stories relate the team's exploits.

Voice Cast: Mark Griffin (Action Man), Rolf Leenders (Dr. X), Joely Collins (Natalie), Dale Wilson (Knuck), Richard Cox (Jacques), Gary Chalk (Norris), Iris Quinn (Vira), David Hay (Gangrene). Additional Voices: Patti Allen, Gillian Barber, Nigel Bennett, Lisa Bunting, Brian Drummond.

46 Action Man. (Series; Cartoon; Fox; 2000–2002). Alex Mann is a young athlete who excels in everything he does. This is accomplished by an abnormality in his system called AMP (Advanced Math Probability). With this factor, Alex has an advantage over everyone else — the ability to anticipate and react to danger before it happens. Alex uses his unique ability to compete in sporting competitions throughout the world. However, when an evil scientist (Dr. X) discovers what the AMP factor is truly capable of producing if harnessed properly (provide incredible abilities) he sets out to capture Alex for experimentation and find a way to duplicate AMP. When a failed attempt makes Alex aware of Dr. X and his intentions, Alex sets his goal to stop Dr. X and his plan to dominate the world. Stories follow that attempt.

Voice Cast: Mark Hildreth (Alex Mann), Campbell Lane (Dr. X), Tabitha St. Germain (Fidget Wilson), Janyse Jaud (Asazi), Peter Kelamis (Rikki), Michael Dobson (Desmond "Grinder" Sinclair).

47 Action Tonight. (Series; Anthology; NBC; 1957). The overall title for a summer series (July 15 to September 22, 1957) of dramas that originally aired on other filmed anthology programs.

48 Actor's Hotel. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1951–1952). Carlo Corelli is a likeable young man who, with his Uncle Antonio, runs a small, rural boarding house. The series relates their misadventures as they deal with the various (sometimes unpredictable) people who reside at the boarding house.

Cast: William Edmunds (Carlo Corelli), Alan Dale (Uncle Antonio).

49 Actors in the Making. (Experimental; Drama; NBC; 6/10/45). The program features students from the American Academy of Dramatic Arts performing various acts from well-known plays.

Cast: Robert Allen, David Andrews, Ruth Barlow, Lynn Carney, Josef Draper, George Drew, Jane Dufrayne, Herbert Keyes, Paul Keyes, Joan Likalin, Lex Lindsley, Julia Poliakov, Lee Porter, Marion Posnick, Jane Thomas, Lucille Watson, Frances Woodbury.

50 Actor's Studio. (Series; Anthology; ABC, CBS; 1948–1950). A weekly series of dramatizations based on the works of noted authors (for example, Edgar Allan Poe, Ernest Hemingway, John Steinbeck and Tennessee Williams). The series was presented live by the Actor's Studio, a non-profit organization of professional performers. Stars who have appeared on the program include Kim Hunter, Tom Ewell, Harry Bellaver, Marlon Brando, John Sylvester, Anne Jackson, Eleanor Lynn, Warren Stevens, Russell Collins, Julie Harris, Ann Shepherd, Edith King, Herbert Nelson, E.G. Marshall, Cloris Leachman and Richard Boone. The series ran on ABC from September 26, 1948 to October 26, 1949; and on CBS from November 1, 1949 to June 23, 1950. One of the first series to be picked up by another network after being dropped by a network.

Recurring Performers: George Reeves, Kim Hunter, Cloris Leachman, Steven Hill, Jocelyn Brando, Tom Ewell.

51 The Ad-Libbers. (Series; Game; CBS; 1951). The object calls for a group of actors to ad-lib their way through story ideas that have been submitted by home viewers. For each suggestion that is used, the sender receives a case of the sponsor's product. Based on a local New York program called What Happens Now?, which aired on WOR-TV in 1949 and was hosted by Nelson Olmstead. The network series ran for five episodes (August 3, 1951 to August 31, 1951).

Host: Peter Donald. Regulars: Jack Lemmon, Patricia Hosley, Cynthia Stone, Earl Hammond, Charles Mendick, Ross Martin, Carol Ohmart, Larry Blyden, Cecil Burke, Joyce Gordon, Thornton DeCosta.

52 Adam. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 7/3/96). A proposed series about a likeable man named Adam, a chef at a successful New York restaurant. In the pilot episode, Adam tries to convince his dream girl (Stephanie) that he and his friend, Allison, are just that — only friends when she sees Allison letting herself into Adam's apartment with her own key.

Other Regulars: Jimmy, Adam's friend; Marsha, Allison's friend; and Gerard, the restaurant owner.

Cast: Adam Ferrara (Adam), Dawn Maxey (Allison), Kim Oja (Stephanie), Sandra Purpuro (Marsha), David Strickland (Jimmy), Terry Kiser (Gerard), Amzie Strickland (Mrs. Sweeney; guest role).

53 Adam MacKenzie, Frontier Doctor. (Pilot; Western; NBC; 3/27/63). The story of Adam MacKenzie, a doctor who travels throughout the Old West to assist where he is needed. In the pilot episode, broadcast as "The Adam MacKenzie Story" on Wagon Train, Adam attempts to help a family whose daughter, Juana, has been accused of being a witch. The proposed series was meant to show the hardships faced not only by doctors, but by the people far removed from civilized towns. See also Frontier Doctor.

Cast: Michael Ansara (Adam MacKenzie). Guest Cast: Lois Roberts (Juana Perez), Peter Brown (Benedict O'Brien), William Mims (Esteban Perez), Danny Bravo (Felipe Perez), John McIntire (Chris Hale), Frank McGrath (Charlie Wooster).

54 Adam-12. (Series; Crime Drama; NBC; 1968–1974). Realistic day-to-day assignments of officers Pete Malloy and Jim Reed, Los Angeles police officers assigned to patrol car Adam-12. In addition to the police personnel listed in the cast, other regulars are Marilyn Wells, Pete's romantic interest; Paul Ryan, the District Attorney; Mrs. O'Brien, Pete's landlady; Jean Reed, Jim's wife; Betty Wells, the wife of Officer Ed Wells. Malloy has badge number 2430; 744 is Reed's badge number.

Cast: Martin Milner (Off. Pete Malloy), Kent McCord (Off. Jim Reed), William Boyett (Sergeant MacDonald), Gary Crosby (Off. Ed Wells), Mikki Jamison (Jean Reed), Kristen Nelson (Jean Reed; later), William Stevens (Officer Walters), Fred Stromsoe (Officer Woods), Jack Hogan (Sgt. Jerry Miller), Sharon Claridge (Voice of Police Radio Dispatcher), Art Balingier (Captain Grant), Robert Dowdell (Lt. Tom Aston), Edward Faulkner (Sgt. Powers), Robert Patten (Detective Speer), Carlos Romero (Detective Sanchez), Chuck Bowman (Sergeant McCall), Christina Sinatra (Marilyn Wells), Robert Conrad (Paul Ryan), Lillian Bronson (Mrs. O'Brien), Barbara Baldavin (Betty Wells), Robert Rockwell (Officer Russo), Art Gilmore (Lt. Val Wangsgard), Art Gilmore (Lt. Moore; later).

55 Adams Apple. (Pilot; Crime Drama; CBS; 8/23/86). Toni Adams is a former district attorney turned private detective who operates out of New York City. She is a graduate of Yale University and uses her experiences with the Army (trained in weapons and self-defense) to help her solve crimes. Toni is single, lives with her dog, Mary Jo, in Manhattan, and often receives cases from her friend, Janice Eaton, who works for the D.A. (Tricia Hammond). The pilot episode relates Toni's efforts to clear a man falsely accused of rape. Other Regulars: Marcy Potts, Toni's secretary; Danny Marshall, an undercover cop; and Jeff Chapman, Toni's friend.

Cast: Sydney Walsh (Toni Adams), Carolyn Seymour (Tricia Hammond), Cherry Jones (Janice Eaton), Kasi Lemmons (Marcy Potts), Terrence Mann (Danny Marshall), John Furey (Jeff Chapman).

Guest Cast: Lois Smith (Dora Adams; Toni's mother), Polly Draper (Bernadette Pasco), Keith Szarabajka (Garth Russell), John Cunningham (George Markell), Ron Parady (Paul Neumier), Jim Borrelli (Richie), David Chandler (Brad), Kathleen Doyle (Waitress), Scott Holmes (Scott Benster), Cecilia Peck (Maddy), Burt Edwards (Reporter).

56 The Adams Chronicles. (Series; Drama; PBS; 1976). A profile of the Adamses, an American family that produced two United States Presidents and a Secretary of State, from 1750 through 1900. Multiple character listings in the cast represent the subject at various stages in their lives.

Cast: George Grizzard (John Quincy Adams), David Burney (John Quincy Adams), William Daniels (John Quincy Adams), Kathryn Walker (Abigail Adams), Tammy Heinz (Abigail Adams), Leora Dana (Abigail Adams), Pamela Payton-Wright (Louisa Adams), W.B. Brydon (Samuel Adams), Asher Pergament (Thomas Adams), Steven Grover (John Quincy Adams II), Mark Wentworth (John Quincy Adams II), Nicholas Pryor (John Quincy Adams II), Alan Carlsen (John Quincy Adams II), Patricia Elliott (Minnie Adams), Julia Barry (Molly Adams), Lisa

Lucas (Abigail Adams II), Katherine Houghton (Abigail Adams II), Nancy Coleman (Abigail Adams II), Susan Bjrman (Fanny Adams), J.C. Powell (Charles Adams II), John Beal (Charles Adams II), Philip Anglim (Charles Adams II), Thomas A. Stewart (Charles Adams II), Charles Siebert (Charles Adams II), Charles Tenny (Brook Adams), Donald Ellis (George Adams), Tom V.V. Tommi (Thomas Adams). Narrator: Michael Tolan.

57 Adams House. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 7/14/83). The experiences of Christine Bennett, a divorced social worker attached to the Adams House Community Center in Chicago. In the pilot episode, Christine tries to help Frank Gallagher, a despondent old man who refuses to move from his house, which is slated for demolition. Other Regulars: Jennifer Bennett, Christine's daughter; Michael Purcell, a social worker; Gilbert Spencer, the administrator of Adams House; and Mr. Webster, the head of Adams House.

Cast: Karen Valentine (Christine Bennett), Shelby Balik (Jennifer Bennett), Mark Shera (Michael Purcell), Earl Boen (Gilbert Spencer), Byrne Piven (Mr. Webster). Guest Cast: Lloyd Nolan (Frank Gallagher), Lili Haydn (Lauren Drucker), T.K. Carter (Ronnie), David Cooper (Mr. Drucker), Shirley Prestia (Mrs. Drucker), Bill Caldert (Barry Drucker).

58 Adams of Eagle Lake. (Pilot; Crime Drama; ABC; 1975). Sam Adams is the sheriff of Eagle Lake, a small resort town in California. Margaret Kelly is his girl Friday and Jerry Troy and Jubal Hammond are the deputies who help him maintain the peace. Sam lives at 500 North Shore Road; Margaret, who is also Sam's romantic interest, resides at 637 Pine Valley Road. Two pilots were produced. In the first pilot ("Adams of Eagle Lake," 1/10/75), Sam copes with a number of problems, including a returned draft evader, an escaped convict and a larcenous eagle. The second pilot, "The Treasure Chest Murders" (2/26/75), finds Sam attempting to solve the murder of an old man (Cap Leighton) who was killed shortly after he bragged about having a cache of antique gold coins.

Cast: Andy Griffith (Sam Adams), Abby Dalton (Margaret Kelly), Nick Nolte (Jerry Troy), Iggie Wolfington (Jubal Hammond). Guest Cast (1/10/75): Brenda Scott (Debbie), Lynne Marta (Cindy), Paul Winchell (Monty), Sheldon Allman (Quinn), Eldon Quick (Leonard), William Mims (Lucas). Guest Cast (2/26/75): David Wayne (Cap Leighton), Jack Kruschen (Tracey), Jack Dodson (Doc).

59 Adam's Rib. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1973). Adam Bonner is an Assistant District Attorney in Los Angeles. Amanda Bonner is a defense attorney with the firm of Kipple, Kipple and Smith. Adam and Amanda are also husband and wife, or, in legal terms, a prosecuting lawyer (Adam) and the defense attorney (Amanda). Normally, Adam and Amanda work separately; sometimes, however, they are assigned to the same case. Adam is a stickler for the rules and goes by the book; Amanda is a bit more liberal and likes to do things her way; that is, what it takes (within the limits of the law) to prove her clients are innocent. Stories relate both the home and working lives of the Bonners — and the conflicts and tensions that arise when they become rivals in the courthouse. Based on the feature film of the same title. Other Regulars: Kip Kipple, Amanda's boss; Grace Peterson, Amanda's secretary; Roy Mendelsohn, Adam's partner; Francis Donahue, the District Attorney.

Cast: Ken Howard (Adam Bonner), Blythe Danner (Amanda Bonner), Edward Winter (Kip Kipple), Dena Dietrich (Grace Peterson), Ron Rifkin (Roy Mendelsohn), Norman Bartold (Francis Donahue), Fred Syster (Bailiff), Virginia Hawkins (Court Reporter), John Holland (Judge McElroy). Theme Song: "Two People" by Perry Botkin, Jr., Gil Garfield.

60 Adamsburgh, U.S.A. (Pilot; Drama; NBC; 4/23/63). Incidents in the lives of the people of Adamsburgh, a small American town, as seen through the eyes of a kindly judge (Fairbrother). In the pilot episode, the judge attempts to prevent Big Jake Hollander from purchasing and closing down the factory that supports the town. Broadcast as "The Old Man and the City" on The Dick Powell Show.

Cast: Charlie Ruggles (Judge Fairbrother), Charles Bickford (Big Jake Hollander), Kenneth Tobey (Burke O'Hara), Gene Raymond (Ben Solomon), John Larkin (Joe Dominic), Dennis Morgan (Dr. Clay Maitland), Edward Binns (Deke Barron).

61 The Addams Family. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1964–1966). The haunted-looking Victorian residence at 000 Cemetery Lane in the town of Cemetery Ridge is home to Gomez Addams, his wife, Morticia; their children, Wednesday and Pugsley; Morticia's Uncle Fester; Gomez's mother, Grandmama; and their butler, Lurch.

Gomez is a wealthy defense attorney who has put more people in jail than any lawyer in U.S. history. He dabbles in the stock market and has made a fortune on a stock called Consolidated Fuzz. He owns an elephant herd in Africa, a nut plantation in Brazil, and a salt mine and animal preserve in Nairobi (which he keeps for its subterranean bat caves).

His ancestry dates back to ancient Egypt when Maumud Kali Pashu Addams set fire to the library at Alexandria. "The second d in our name," says Gomez, "distinguishes us from the embarrassingly famous and historic John Adams and family."

Morticia, like Gomez, enjoys gloomy weather, thunderstorms, moon bathing and exploring caves. Gomez and the former Morticia Frump were 22 years old when they met and married. Blue-eyed Morticia's favorite color is black ("It's so soothing and mysterious") and she always wears a tight, floor length black dress (on their wedding day Gomez was driven wild by it and she promised "I'll never wear another"). Morticia's ancestry dates back to the early witch-burning days of Salem, Massachusetts. Gomez becomes romantic when Morticia speaks French. When she first spoke it, it cleared up his lifelong sinus condition. As a child Morticia had a doll (Anne Boleyn) and now has a pampered, carnivorous plant (an African Strangler) she calls Cleopatra (who likes zebra burgers).

Wednesday and Pugsley attend the Sherwood Elementary School. Wednesday has a headless doll (Marie Antoinette) and a spider (Homer). Pugsley has an octopus (Aristotle), a jaguar (Fang) and loves to play with dynamite caps. He shocked his family when he joined the Boy Scouts.

Morticia's Uncle Fester thrives on electricity and needs to be recharged when he runs low. Fester considers himself to be an explosives expert and has a Revolutionary War rifle named Genevieve. He cures his headaches by forcing out the pain with a vise.

Grandmama attended Swamp Town High School and first voted in 1906 — even before Women's Suffrage ("It didn't stop me"). She uses love potions to spark romances.

Lurch, the six foot, nine inch tall butler, loves to play the harpsichord and responds with a somber "You Rang" when he is summoned.

Thing, Gomez's childhood companion, is a human right hand that has become a family servant. He lives in boxes placed around the house, and "Beware of Thing" is posted on the front of the iron gate that surrounds the house.

Ophelia Frump is Morticia's attractive but flaky sister. She loves flowers, cooking and washing dishes. She also loves water ("She is always jumping in fountains, brooks, even tubs and sinks") and dressing in flowing white dresses.

Cousin Itt is the family intellectual. He is covered with blonde hair from head to toe and speaks a language all his own. He considers himself a ladies' man and when Gomez asked Itt what was under all that hair he responded "Roots." Itt held a job as a zoo keeper (although he was mistaken for one of the exhibits), and his favorite nooks are the chimney and the broom closet.

Kit Kat, also called Kitty, is the family's cowardly pet lion. Vic Mizzy composed The Addams Family theme.

Cast: John Astin (Gomez Addams), Carolyn Jones (Morticia Addams), Lisa Loring (Wednesday Addams), Ken Weatherwax (Pugsley Addams), Jackie Coogan (Uncle Fester), Ted Cassidy (Lurch), Blossom Rock

(Grandmama Addams), Carolyn Jones (Ophelia Frump), Margaret Hamilton (Esther Frump), Felix Silla (Cousin Itt), Roger Arrovo (Cousin Itt; later), Rolfe Sedan (Mr. Briggs), Ellen Corby (Mother Lurch), Thing (Thing).

62 The Addams Family. (Series; Cartoon; NBC; 1973–1975). An animated update of the live-action 1964 ABC series of the same title that relates the adventures of the eccentric Addams family as they leave their home on Cemetery Ridge and embark on a motor tour of America. Their reactions to the various people they meet in their travels is the focal point of the series. Gomez and Morticia are the parents; Wednesday and Pugsley are their children; Fester is their uncle; Grandmama is Gomez's mother; Lurch is the family butler.

Voice Cast: Janet Waldo (Morticia Addams), Lennie Weinrib (Gomez Addams), Cindy Henderson (Wednesday Addams), Jodie Foster (Pugsley Addams), Jackie Coogan (Uncle Fester), Ted Cassidy (Lurch), Janet Waldo (Grandmama Addams).

63 The Addams Family. (Series Extension; Comedy; NBC; 10/30/77). An extension episode based on the ABC 1964 series The Addams Family. The story, titled Halloween with the Addams Family, finds the eccentric family preparing to celebrate their favorite holiday: Halloween. Gomez and Morticia are the parents; Wednesday and Pugsley are their children; Fester, their uncle; Grandmama, Gomez's mother; Lurch, the butler.

Cast: Carolyn Jones (Morticia Addams), John Astin (Gomez Addams), Lisa Loring (Wednesday Addams), Ken Weatherwax (Pugsley Addams), Jackie Coogan (Uncle Fester), Ted Cassidy (Lurch), Jane Rose (Grandmama Addams), Carolyn Jones (Ophelia Frump; Morticia's sister), Elvia Allman (Esther Frump; Morticia's mother), Felix Silla (Cousin Itt), Henry Darrow (Poncho Addams; Gomez's brother), Jennifer Suprenant (Wednesday Addams, Jr.), Kenneth Marquis (Pugsley Addams, Jr.).

64 The Addams Family. (Series; Cartoon; ABC; 1992–1994). An animated adaptation of the characters created by Charles Addams. Here the family lives in the town of Happy Heights and struggles to cope with the daily pressures of life in a world where they believe they are normal but everyone else is weird. Gomez is the eccentric head of the family. He is married to Morticia and they are the parents of Wednesday and Pugsley. Also living with them are Granny (Gomez's mother), Uncle Fester, Lurch the butler, Cousin Itt and Thing, a human right hand servant. Normina and Norman Normanmeyer are the neighbors plagued by their antics.

Voice Cast: John Astin (Gomez Addams), Nancy Linari (Morticia Addams), Debi Derryberry (Wednesday Addams), Jeannie Elias (Pugsley Addams), Carol Channing (Granny), Jim Cummings (Lurch), Pat Fraley (Cousin Itt), Edie McClurg (Normina Normanmeyer), Dick Beals (Norman Normanmeyer).

65 The Addams Family Fun House. (Pilot; Comedy; Syn.; 8/73). A syndicated attempt to present the Charles Addams characters in various music and comedy situations with a guest star dropping by each week to join in on the fun. On the pilot, guest Jim Nabors met with the eccentric Gomez Addams, his wife, Morticia, their children Wednesday and Pugsley, Uncle Fester, Lurch the butler and Cousin Itt.

Cast: Jack Riley (Gomez Addams), Liz Torres (Morticia Addams), Stubby Kaye (Uncle Fester), Noelle Von Sonn (Wednesday Addams), Butch Patrick (Pugsley Addams), Pat McCormick (Lurch), Felix Silla (Cousin Itt), Jim Nabors (Himself; guest role).

66 Adderly. (Series; Comedy-Drama; CBS; 1986–1987). V.H. Adderly is an agent for the International Security and Intelligence Agency who operates under the code name Beauty I. While not the company's best agent, the fumbling V.H. does manage to get the job done. However, during one assignment, V.H. is injured and reassigned to the Bureau of Miscellaneous Affairs, a seemingly meaningless government agency. Stories follow H.V. as he struggles to perform his assignments and hopefully prove to his superiors that he is meant for the more important work of his former station.

Other Regulars: Melville Greenspan, Adderly's superior; Mona, the agency receptionist; and Major Clark, the head of the agency.

Cast: Winston Reckert (V.H. Adderly), Jonathan Welsh (Melville Greenspan), Dixie Seatle (Mona), Ken Pogue (Major Clark), Larry Reynolds (V.H.'s father), Kay Hawtrey (V.H.'s mother).

67 The Admiral Broadway Revue. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1949). A musical comedy revue featuring lavish productions numbers and performances by top name guest stars. Admiral electronic appliances sponsored the ambitious but short lived program (January 28, 1949 to June 3, 1949).

Host: Sid Caesar. Regulars: Imogene Coca, Marge Champion, Gower Champion, Mary McCarty, Roy Atwill, Bobby Van, Loren Welch. Orchestra: Charles Sanford. Choreography: James Starbuck.

68 Adorn Playhouse. (Series; Anthology; CBS; 1958). The overall title for selected repeats of dramas that originally aired on The Schlitz Playhouse of Stars. See this title for information.

69 An Adult Comedy. (Unaired Pilot; Comedy; Produced for ABC in 1990). A look at a variety of adult problems, such as parenting, in-laws and ex-spouses, as seen through the experiences of Katherine and Jamie. Jamie is a Parks and Recreation worker who is madly in love with his wife, Katherine, the owner of a travel agency. Katherine has a six-year-old daughter (Alison) from her first marriage, and together she and Jamie have a one-year-old son. Michael is Katherine's first husband and Alison's father. He is smooth and charming, but not meant for marriage. Eleanor is Katherine's young-at-heart 50-year-old mother. She is very fond of Michael and can't understand why Katherine divorced him and married Jamie. Concluding the family portrait is Harry, Katherine's father, a lovable guy who appears content although his wife plans his every move. In the pilot, the two fathers (Michael and Jamie) set out to give their daughter, Alison, a birthday party.

Cast: Julianne Moore (Katherine), William Converse Roberts (Jamie), Erich Anderson (Michael), Cynthia Harris (Eleanor), Macon McCalman (Harry), Chelsea Fee (Alison).

70 Adventure Theater. (Series; Anthology; NBC; 1956). A summer series of British produced suspense dramas hosted by actor Paul Douglas. The series ran from June 16, 1956 to August 18, 1956.

71 Adventure Theater. (Series; Anthology; CBS; 1961). The overall title for a ten-week summer series of dramas that were originally broadcast on The Schlitz Playhouse of Stars (see this title for information). The series ran from July 21, 1961 to September 22, 1961.

72 The Adventurer. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1972). Gene Bradley is a multi-millionaire businessman who becomes bored with his job. To find more excitement in his life, Gene becomes a U.S. Government espionage agent. Stories depict Gene's exploits as he sets out on assignments — posing as an international film star to accomplish his goals. Mr. Parminter is Gene's contact; Diane Marsh is his alluring contact; Gavin Jones is an agent who poses as Gene's accompanist, Wildman Jones.

Cast: Gene Barry (Gene Bradley), Barry Morse (Mr. Parminter), Catherine Schell (Diane Marsh), Garrick Hagon (Gavin Jones), Stuart Damon (Various Roles). Theme Song: "The Adventurer" by John Barry.

73 Adventures at Scott Island. (Series; Adventure; ABC; 1958). The revised series title for Harbormaster. See this title for information.

74 Adventures in Babysitting. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 7/7/89). A television adaptation of the 1987 feature film about a pretty babysitter (Chris) and her misadventures while caring for the children (Sarah and Brad) of Joanna and Robert Anderson. The pilot relates Chris's efforts to deal with a number of problems, including a daring attempt to escape from a convenience store when it is held up and she and the children are taken hostage. Other Regulars: Brenda, Chris's friend; and Darrel, Brad's friend.

Cast: Jennifer Guthrie (Chris Parker), Susan Blanchard (Joanna Anderson), Dennis Howard (Robert Anderson), Courtney Peldon (Sarah Anderson), Joey Lawrence (Brad Anderson), Ariana Mohit (Brenda), Brian Austin Green (Darrel). Guest Cast: Art Evans (Mr. Diekman), Rocky Giordani (Vince), Jason Tomlins (Rick). Theme Vocal: "Just Can't Stop" by Percy Sledge.

75 Adventures in Dairyland. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1956). The story follows the experiences of Annette Funicello and Sammy Ogg (Mouseketeers on The Mickey Mouse Club) as they visit Wisconsin to learn about the operation of a dairy farm (the McCandless Sunny Acres Dairy Farm). Broadcast as nine episodes of The Mickey Mouse Club.

Other Regulars: Moochie, the mischievous son of the farm owners; Jimmy, his brother; and Pauli, a ranch hand.

Cast: Annette Funicello (Herself), Sammy Ogg (Himself), Herb Newcombe (Mr. McCandless), Mary Lu Delmonte (Mrs. McCandless), Kevin Corcoran (Moochie McCandless), Glen Garber (Jimmy McCandless), Fern Parsons (Pauli).

76 Adventures in Jazz. (Series; Music; CBS; 1949). The program spotlights the performances of jazz musicians and singers.

Host: Fred Robbins. Substitute Host: Bill Williams.

77 Adventures in Paradise. (Series; Adventure; ABC; 1959–1962). Adam Troy, a graduate of Yale University (class of '54, and a member of the Omega fraternity) is a Korean War veteran who now owns the Tiki, a 60-foot schooner he hires out to transport cargo and passengers in the South Pacific. Adam, who possesses the rare blood type AB-negative, has the wanderlust but hopes one day to return to America to buy his own ranch ("but not right now"). The Tiki is anchored in the Papeete Harbor in Tahiti (the address given for Troy is The Schooner Tiki).

Oliver Wendell Key was Adam's first mate, cook and lawyer ("he handles all the deals") during first season episodes. Prior to acquiring the Tiki, Adam was the skipper of a barge in Pusong; it was there that Oliver first came to work for him.

Tennessee born Clay Baker became Adam's first mate the following season, and Chris Parker was Adam's first mate during the final season.

When Chris signed on, Clay became the innkeeper of the Bali Miki, a hotel originally owned by Trader Penrose (George Tobias). Clay renamed the inn the Bali Miki Baker and was famous for two exotic drinks he concocted: Tahitian Madness and the Polynesian Rainmaker ("two of these and you'll swear it rained"). Before the inn became a "regular," it was called the Hotel DuJour.

To provide storylines, Adam had to become involved with the lives of his passengers. When police help was needed, Inspector Marcel Bouchard of the Tahitian Policia was most often there to help him. Kelly, who doubled as Clay's lounge singer, and Bulldog Lovey also served as Adam's shipmates in various episodes. The series official screen title is James A. Michener's Adventures in Paradise but through TV Guide and newspaper listings, it became known as Adventures in Paradise. In 1956, an unaired pilot called "James A. Michener Presents a South Pacific Adventure" was produced. It was written by Michener and starred Lyle Bettger as a trading schooner captain in the South Pacific. Lionel Newman composed the theme, "Adventures in Paradise."

Cast: Gardner McKay (Adam Troy), James Holden (Clay Baker), Guy Stockwell (Chris Parker), Weaver Levy (Oliver Wendell Key), Henry Slate (Bulldog Lovey), George Tobias (Trader Penrose), Linda Lawson (Renee), Marcel Hillaire (Police Inspector Bouchard), Sondi Sodsai (Sondi).

78 Adventures in Rainbow Country. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1972). Events in the life of Billy Williams, a teenage boy growing up "amid the splendor and the challenge of the land around northern Lake Huron in Ontario, Canada." Filmed on location (no studio sequences) on the land of the Ojibwa Indians of the Whitefish River Tribe. Nancy is Billy's mother (a widow); Hannah is Billy's sister; Peter is Billy's friend; Dennis is the bush pilot; Roger is the writer-photographer; Dugald is the tugboat captain.

Cast: Stephen Cottier (Billy Williams), Lois Maxwell (Nancy Williams), Susan Conway (Hannah Williams), Buckley Patawabano (Peter Gava), Wally Koster (Dennis Mogubgub), Albert Millaire (Roger Lemieux), Alan Mills (Dugald MacGregor).

79 Adventures in Sherwood Forest. (Series; Adventure; CBS; 1955–1958). The alternate title for The Adventures of Robin Hood. See this title for information.

80 Adventures in Wonderland. (Series; Children; Disney; 1992). An adaptation of the 1951 Disney film (and Lewis Carroll book) Alice in Wonderland. Alice is a young girl with a vivid imagination. Her bedroom contains a magic looking glass that when stepped through, transports Alice to a magical place called Wonderland. Here, with the characters from the book, Alice's adventures relate aspects of vocabulary and language to children.

Cast: Elisabeth Haronis (Alice), Armelia McQueen (Red Queen), Patrick Richwood (White Queen), Reece Holland (March Hare), John Robert Hoffman (Mad Hatter), Harry Waters, Jr. (Tweedle Dee), Robert Barry Fleming (Tweedle Dum), Wesley Mann (Caterpillar), Richard Kuhlman (Cheshire Cat), John Lovelady (Dormouse).

81 The Adventures of a Jungle Boy. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1957). A young boy (unnamed), the lone survivor of a plane crash in the African jungle, is found by Dr. Laurence, a research scientist. The scientist raises the boy and teaches him (called Boy) to protect his adopted homeland from evil. The series, an obvious takeoff of Tarzan, follows Boy and Dr. Laurence as the struggle to protect the jungle, its residents and creatures from the unscrupulous beings that threaten its safety.

Cast: Michael Carr Hartley (Boy), Ronald Adam (Dr. Laurence).

82 Adventures of a Model. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 8/19/58). A proposed series about Marilyn Woods, a pretty New York model who uses her wits to hold off wolfish suitors. The pilot episode relates Marilyn's efforts to please a Texas sportswear manufacturer, despite the fact that she dislikes athletics. Aired on "Colgate Theater." Other Regulars: Ralph Carter, Marilyn's employer; Dr. Roger Boone, Marilyn's neighbor.

Cast: Joanne Dru (Marilyn Woods), John Emery (Ralph Carter), William Redfield (Dr. Roger Boone). Guest Cast: Roland Winters (The Texan). Also: Phil Arnold, Jimmy Cross, Robert D. Jellison, William Kendis, Nancy Kulp, Charles Wagenheim.

83 The Adventures of a Teenage Model. (Unaired Pilot; Comedy; Produced in 1990). Milla is a 14-year-old girl who feels she is not as beautiful as other people see her. She attends Van Buren High School and is rather shy and awkward around boys. One day, while she and her girlfriend, Marla, are shopping at the Pinewood Mall, a fashion photographer asks them to model some teen wear for a local newspaper ad. Marla convinces a reluctant Milla and the two pose for the ad. It is not explained how, but Milla's photos wind up at the Evergreen Agency in New York and so impress its head, Samantha Harrison, that she flies to Minneapolis to sign Milla as a model. Milla is hesitant until Samantha tells her the money she will make will pay for her college education. The unsold series was to relate Milla's adventures as she struggles to cope with sudden fame, yet enjoy her simple life as a high school girl. See also Brooke.

Cast: Milla Jovovich (Milla), Jenilee Harrison (Samantha Harrison), Courtney Peldon (Marla).

84 The Adventures of Batman and Robin. (Series; Cartoon; Fox; 1994–1995). The last season title for a series that began as Batman: The Animated Series (Fox, 1992–1995). See this title for information.

85 The Adventures of Black Beauty. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1972–1974). While exploring the surroundings of their new home in Hertfordshire, England (1877), Victoria and Kevin Gordon, the teenage children of widower Dr. James Gordon, find an injured ebony stallion in the woods. While caring for the animal Victoria develops a strong attachment to it, but is saddened to learn that its rightful owner, the elder Mr. Ryder, has claimed it. When fate intervenes and Dr. Gordon, with the aid of the horse's swiftness, saves Ryder's life, Ryder repays him by giving him the horse. "I suppose he ought to have a name," Dr. Gordon comments after giving Victoria the horse. "Now let's see. Jet? Swift?" "No they're not right," responds Victoria. "...Something that describes him. He's black and he's very beautiful [pause] Black Beauty." Stories depict the love, devotion, and adventures shared by Victoria Gordon and her horse Black Beauty.

Other Regulars: Amy Winthrop, the Gordon's housekeeper; Ned Lewis, Amy's nephew; Mr. Armstrong, the Gordon's neighbor. In second season episodes, Victoria was replaced by Dr. Gordon's daughter, Jenny.

Cast: William Lucas (Dr. James Gordon), Judi Bowker (Victoria Gordon), Roderick Shaw (Kevin Gordon), Charlotte Mitchell (Amy Winthrop), Stacy Dorning (Jenny Gordon), Michael Cobert (Ned Lewis), Michael Armstrong (Mr. Armstrong).

86 The Adventures of Blinkey. (Series; Children; Syn.; 1952). Blinkey is a very curious little boy. One day, while walking through an enchanted forest, he is transformed into a marionette and transported to a magic land of puppets. Stories relate his adventures as he seeks a way to become human again.

Cast: Michael Mann (Voice of Blinkey).

87 The Adventures of Brisco County, Jr. (Series; Adventure; Fox; 1993–1994). The setting is 1893. The Tycoons is a society of wealthy San Francisco businessmen whose operations are being plagued by the notorious outlaw John Bly and his gang. To resolve their problem, the Tycoons hire Brisco County, Jr., a rather flamboyant bounty hunter to bring Bly and his gang to justice. The Tycoons, members of the Westerfield Club, then assign Socrates Poole, a spit-and-polish lawyer and general counsel for the club, to assist Brisco (who insists, "I don't need no help").

Brisco attended Harvard University, majored in English and law "but I mostly learned drinking songs and how to unbutton women's unmentionables." After college he became a lawyer. Two years later, after deciding it wasn't right for him, he turned to bounty hunting to follow in the footsteps of his late father, Brisco County, Sr. (Brisco's mother was named Ruth). Brisco is also looking for "the coming thing. It's 1893 and we're only seven years away from the new century. If I knew what the coming thing was I wouldn't be looking for it."

Brisco claims, "I can outshoot and outride anyone." He has a horse named Comet and says "He don't know he's a horse. He thinks he's human and has to go where I go." Comet enjoys green apples for breakfast and when he becomes depressed, only green apples will cheer him up. Brisco also has foresight. He constantly talks about the future and predicts there will be trolley cars, electricity "and rockets charting the stars."

Lord Bowler is a bounty hunter who is seeking Bly for the reward. He rides with Brisco to achieve his goal (but he's intent to capture Bly before Brisco). Lord Bowler was orphaned at the age of eleven when his mother died of scarlet fever (his father died when he was four years old).

Dolly and Dixie Cousins are sisters and friends of Brisco. Dolly is a singer who owns the Dolly Cousins Casino in Reno, Nevada; Dixie, a singer also, travels with her own road show "because I like where it takes me."

Cast: Bruce Campbell (Brisco County, Jr.), Julius Carry (Lord Bowler), Christian Clemenson (Socrates Poole), Elaine Hendrix (Dolly Cousins), Kelly Rutherford (Dixie Cousins), Billy Drago (John Bly).

88 The Adventures of Captain Hartz. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1953–1954). The program, sponsored by Hartz Mountain Pet Foods and geared to children, relates the adventures of Captain Hartz, a pilot, as he explores the various jungles throughout the world.

Cast: Philip Lord (Captain Hartz), Ned Locke (Captain Hartz; later), Jerry Givney (His Sidekick). See also Tony Mercern, Bruce Lindgren.

89 The Adventures of Champion. (Series; Adventure; CBS; 1955–1956). "Like a streak of lightning flashing across the sky, like a mighty cannonball he seems to fly; soon everyone will know the name of Champion, the Wonder Horse...." The series, set in the Southwest during the 1880s, relates the adventures of 12-year-old Ricky North and his stallion, Champion, a once mighty leader of a herd of wild horses (and the horse of cowboy star Gene Autry). Ricky, an orphan, lives with his uncle, Sandy North. Will Calhoun is their friend. Ricky also has a German Shepherd named Rebel.

Cast: Barry Curtis (Ricky North), Jim Bannon (Sandy North), Francis MacDonald (Will Calhoun), Ewing Mitchell (Sheriff Powers). Theme Vocal: "Champion the Wonder Horse" by Frankie Laine.

90 The Adventures of Clint and Mac. (Series; Serial; ABC; 1957–1958). The story, set in England, follows the efforts of two boys, Clint Rogers and Alistair "Mac" MacIntosh, as they attempt to solve a crime — the theft of the original manuscript to Treasure Island. Inspector MacIntosh (of Scotland Yard) is Alistair's father; Clinton Rogers, Sr. is Clint's father; Pamela Stuart is Mac's friend; Toby Jug is the thief. Broadcast as a segment of The Mickey Mouse Club. Eight episodes aired.

Cast: Neil Wolfe (Clint Rogers), Jonathan Bailey (Alistair MacIntosh), John Warwick (Inspector MacIntosh), Dorothy Smith (Mac's Mother), Bill Nagy (Clinton Rogers, Sr.), Sandra Michaels (Pamela Stuart), George Woodbridge (Toby Jug).

91 Adventures of Colonel Flack. (Series; Comedy; DuMont, 1953–1954; Syn., 1958). The story of two modern-day Robin Hoods: Humphrey Flack, a retired colonel, and his companion, Uthas P. (Patsy) Garvey. With larceny in their minds and charity in their hearts, they travel throughout the world and, through imaginative deceptions con the confidence men as they attempt to assist the needy. Also known as Colonel Humphrey Flack, Fabulous Fraud and The Imposter. See also Colonel Humphrey Flack for information on the series pilot film.

Cast: Alan Mowbray (Colonel Humphrey Flack), Frank Jenks (Uthas P. Garvey).

92 The Adventures of Con Sawyer and Hucklemary Finn. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 9/7 and 9/14/85). Constance "Con" Sawyer is a very pretty 10-year-old girl who lives in modern-day Mississippi. "Huckle" Mary Finn is her best friend, an orphan girl whose antics constantly get her and Con into trouble. The unsold series was to relate their misadventures in a female variation of the classic Mark Twain stories. The two-part pilot episode follows Con and Mary as they attempt to prevent a jewel robbery after they overhear three men plotting to replace priceless gems with fakes. Other Regulars: Pamela Sawyer, Con's mother; Charlie Riley, Con's stepfather; Captain Sawyer, Con's natural father, the owner of the riverboat Delta Queen; and Sarah, Mary's social worker.

Cast: Drew Barrymore (Con Sawyer), Brandy Ward (Mary Finn), Patricia Richardson (Pamela Sawyer), James Rebhorn (Charlie Riley), James Naughton (Captain Sawyer), Terri Hanauer (Sarah). Guest Cast: Alan North (Skeezer), M. Emmet Walsh (Rocco), Raymond Serra (Stubby), Melissa Joan Hart (Cindy), Dennis Haskins (Officer), Ken Olfson (Reverend), Kimber Shoop III (Bobby Thatcher).

93 The Adventures of Cyclone Malone. (Series; Children; Syn.; 1950). A puppet series that revolves around the adventures of a western figure named Cyclone Malone.

Cast: Ross Jones (Voice of Cyclone Malone).

94 The Adventures of Dr. Fu Manchu. (Unaired Pilot; Adventure; Produced for NBC in 1950). An unsold series based on the characters created by Sax Rohmer about a Scotland Yard Inspector (Sir Dennis Nayland Smith) and his efforts to stop an evil Chinese physician (Dr. Fu Manchu) from destroying mankind.

Cast: John Carradine (Dr. Fu Manchu), Sir Cedric Hardwicke (Sir Dennis Nayland Smith).

95 The Adventures of Dr. Fu Manchu. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1956). Dr. Fu Manchu, a respected Chinese physician, is awarded custody of Lia Elthram, a young Caucasian girl. Shortly after, during the Boxer Rebellion, Jack Petrie, a British officer, inadvertently kills his wife and son. The doctor, who is unable to properly adjust to the situation, becomes deranged and vows to avenge the death of his family and the entire white race. He raises and teaches the young girl to share his hatred. Retreating to Tibet, the doctor establishes Subtly, his sinister organization of evil through which he provokes tensions between East and West. Stories depict his attempts to achieve vengeance; and the efforts of Scotland Yard Inspector Sir Dennis Nayland Smith to thwart his plans. Based on the character created by Sax Rohmer.

Other Regulars: Malik, the French detective; Karameneh, the slave girl. Jack Petrie later becomes an archeologist.

The program opens as follows: “The Adventures of Fu Manchu.... Based on characters created by Sax Rohmer. Black to white; life and death; good and evil — two sides of a chess game. Two forces in the universe: one magnificent, the other sinister. But it is said the Devil plays for men’s souls — so does Dr. Fu Manchu, Satan himself, evil incarnate.”

Cast: Glen Gordon (Dr. Fu Manchu), Laurette Luez (Lia Elthram), Lester Stevens (Sir Dennis Nayland Smith), Clark Howat (Dr. Jack Petrie), Lester Matthews (Malik), Carla Balenda (Karameneh).

96 The Adventures of Dudley the Dragon. (Series; Children; PBS; 1993). After centuries in hibernation, a dragon named Dudley awakens to a new and strange world. While exploring he meets and befriends two human children — Sally and Matt. Realizing that Dudley (a costumed actor) is unfamiliar with life as it is now, Sally and Matt take it upon themselves to help Dudley. Stories follow Dudley as he learns about life on earth (especially environmental issues).

Cast: Kirk Dunn (Dudley in costume), Alex Galatis (Voice of Dudley), Asia Vieira (Sally), Daniel DeSanto (Matt).

97 The Adventures of Ellery Queen. (Series; Crime Drama; DuMont; ABC; Syn.; 1950–1955). The series, set in New York City, relates the investigations of Ellery Queen, a suave, cynical, rugged and incorruptible gentleman detective and writer. The series, also known as Mystery Is My Business, ran on DuMont from October 19, 1950 to December 6, 1951; ABC from December 16, 1951 to November 26, 1952; and in syndication from 1954–1955. See also Ellery Queen.

Cast: Richard Hart (Ellery Queen, 1950–1951), Lee Bowman (Ellery Queen, 1951–1952), Hugh Marlowe (Ellery Queen, 1954–1955), Florenz Ames (Inspector Richard Queen, Ellery’s father), Charlotte Keane (Nikki Porter; Ellery’s secretary).

98 The Adventures of Gulliver. (Series; Cartoon; ABC; 1969–1970). An animated series adapted from the Jonathan Swift novel, Gulliver’s Travels, which told of the voyages of Lemeul Gulliver. The series, set in the 18th century, follows the adventures of Lemeul’s son, Gary, who begins his own trek to find his missing father. His search begins on the island of Lilliput where, with the help of the six-inch tall Lilliputians, he seeks the clues necessary to end his quest. Tag is Gary’s dog; Lilliputians are Flurtacia, Eager, Bunko, Edgar and King Pomp; the menace to all concerned is the evil Captain Leech.

Voice Cast: Jerry Dexter (Gary Gulliver), Ginny Tyler (Flurtacia), Jerry Dexter (Eager), Allan Melvin (Bunko), Herb Vigran (Edgar), John Stephenson (King Pomp), John Stephenson (Captain Leech), Don Messick (Tag).

99 The Adventures of Hiram Holiday. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1956–1957). Hiram Holiday is a meek and mild-mannered newspaper proof-reader whose life is his job. He is diligent and considered one of the best in his field. One day, while checking an article, Hiram corrects a statement that averts a multi-million dollar lawsuit. In gratitude, his publisher rewards him with a one-year around-the-world tour. He also assigns Joel Smith to cover Hiram’s travels and report on his activities for the paper. Stories follow Hiram (and Joel) as they travel throughout the world and Hiram, a man with a big soft heart, as he tries to help people he encounters who are in trouble.

Cast: Wally Cox (Hiram Holiday), Ainslie Pryor (Joel Smith).

100 The Adventures of Hoppity Hopper from Foggy Bogg. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; ABC; 1962–1965). The comic escapades of three talking animals who seem to find nothing but mishaps: Hoppity Hopper, a frog; Uncle Waldo, a fox; and Fillmore, a bear. The series began in syndication (1962–1964) as The Adventures of Hoppity Hopper from Foggy Bogg. When ABC picked up the series (September 12, 1964 to October 2, 1965) the title became simply Hoppity Hopper.

Voice Cast: Chris Allen (Hoppity Hopper), Hans Conried (Uncle Waldo Wigglesworth), Bill Scott (Fillmore), Paul Frees (Narrator).

101 The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn. (Series; Adventure; PBS; 1986). An adaptation of the novel by Mark Twain that relates the adventures of Huckleberry Finn and his friend Tom Sawyer, two rambunctious boys living in 1844 St. Petersburg, Missouri.

Cast: Patrick Day (Huckleberry Finn), Eugene Oakes (Tom Sawyer), Sada Thompson (Widow Douglas), Anne Shropshire (Miss Watson), Frederic Forrest (Pap Finn), Samm-Art Williams (Jim), Barnard Hughes (The King), Hula Drake (Aunt Polly), Geraldine Page (Sally Phelps), Lillian Gish (Mrs. Loftus), Butterfly McQueen (Blind Negress), Jason Hankins (Billy), Richard Niehaus (Sheriff), David Watters (Reverend Spraggue), Amy Hause (Agnes), Roberta Wooten (Hannah), Harriet Martell (Mrs. Spraggue).

102 The Adventures of Hyperman. (Series; Cartoon; CBS; 1995–1996). Hyperman is a somewhat naïve intergalactic space hero from the planet Do-Wop (where he is a member of the W.A.R.P. defense organization). Hyperman and his dog, Studd Puppy, have been assigned to the planet Earth to protect it from Entrobe, a fourth dimension madman who is bent on destroying all life. Being unfamiliar with the Earth, Hyperman finds help from Emma C. Squared, a genius student at Einstein University, who takes on the responsibility of teaching him about the planet. Stories, which relate Hyperman's attempts to stop Entrobe, teach children how to deal with and overcome problems. The Comptroller is a large cat who oversees Hyperman's missions; the Governing Body controls W.A.R.P.; E. Brian Smith is a genius out to prove he is superior to Emma; Kid Chaos is Entrobe's assistant.

Voice Cast: Steve Mackall (Hyperman), Tamara Mowry (Emma C. Squared), Mayim Bialik (Brittany Bright), Frank Welker (Entrobe), Max Casella (Studd Puppy), Justin Jon Ross (E. Brian Small), Maurice LaMarche (Comptroller), Maurice LaMarche (Kid Chaos). Narrator: Neil Ross.

103 The Adventures of Jim Bowie. (Series; Adventure; ABC; 1956–1958). “Jim Bowie, Jim Bowie, he was a bold adventurin’ man. Jim Bowie, Jim Bowie, battled for right with a powerful hand; his blade was tempered and so was he, indestructible steel was he. Jim Bowie, Jim Bowie, he was a fighter, a fearless, a mighty adventurin’ man.” The series, set in New Orleans during the 1830s, relates the adventures of Jim Bowie, the legendary frontiersman-pioneer, and inventor of the Bowie Knife, as he crusades for justice. (The TV legend states that Jim invented the Bowie Knife after an encounter with a bear when his knife broke and he almost lost his life). It was said that wherever Jim Bowie's name was uttered, “it brought strength to the weak, honor to the brave and struck terror to the cruel and crafty.

Jim Bowie was a giant among men.” Based on the book Tempered Steele by Monte Barrett. Rezin Bowie is Jim's younger brother; Maw Bowie is his mother; Francois is his friend; Marie is Francois's sister; Madeline Duprez is Jim's romantic interest; James Audubon is the naturalist; Justin Tubbs is Jim's friend; George Freiwald is Jim's partner (when he worked for President Andrew Jackson). Jim's horse is named Pete.

Cast: Scott Forbes (Jim Bowie), Peter Hanson (Rezin Bowie), Minerva Urecal (Maw Bowie), Paul Playdon (Francois), Joyce Vanderveen (Marie), Marilyn Saris (Madeline Duprez), Rita Lynn (Madelyn Duprez; later), Robert Cornthwaite (James Audubon), William Schallert (Justine Tubbs), Leslie Kimmel (President Andrew Jackson), Ken Sherman (George Freiwald). Theme Song: “Adventurin’ Man” by Ken Darby.

104 The Adventures of Jimmy Neutron: Boy Genius. (Series; Cartoon; Nickelodeon; 2002–). James Isaac Newton, called Jimmy, is a fifth grader (at the Lindbergh Elementary School) in the town of Retroville. He is the son of Hugh and Judy and is a genius. He has a robotic dog, Goddard, and strives to invent gadgets that will improve life. Unfortunately, his inventions always backfire and stories follow the events that occur as a result. The series is computer animated.

Other Regulars: Carl Wheezer, Jimmy's best friend, on whom Jimmy tests many of his inventions. Carl's favorite activity appears to be folding and hanging his pants; he is a great fan of the Llama Channel on TV and appears to have many medical conditions.

Cynthia Vortex is a classmate and friend of Jimmy who believes girls are much better than boys. She is almost as smart as Jimmy and that most annoys her as she hates being second to anybody. Sheen Estevez, Jimmy's friend, is obsessed with the TV series Ultra Lord and relates everything to it. Winifred Fowl is the fifth grade teacher at the Lindbergh Elementary School; Finbarr Calamitous is the fumbling evil genius out to put a damper on Jimmy and his inventions; Liberty “Libby” Fallfax is Cindy's best friend and helps keep her sane when she fails to beat Jimmy at something.

Voice Cast: Debi Derryberry (Jimmy Neutron), Frank Welker (Goddard), Carolyn Lawrence (Cynthia Vortex), Rob Paulsen (Carl Wheezer), Jeffrey Garcia (Sheen Estevez), Crystal Scales (Libby Fallfax), Megan Cavanaugh (Judy Neutron), Mark DeCarlo (Hugh Beaumont Neutron), Andrea Martin (Winifred Fowl).

105 The Adventures of Jonny Quest. (Series; Cartoon; ABC; CBS; NBC; 1964–1972). Dr. Benton Quest is a scientist dedicated to uncovering the numerous scientific mysteries that surround us in everyday life. His young son, Jonny, holds the same beliefs, and journeys with his father to explore and uncover new mysteries. Roger "Race" Bannon is the Quests' bodyguard (they do encounter unscrupulous people who would like to have what Dr. Quest uncovers before he turns it over to the government); Hadji is Jonny's traveling companion; and Bandit is Jonny's dog. The series ran on ABC from September 18, 1964 to September 9, 1965; on CBS from September 9, 1967 to September 5, 1970; on NBC from September 11, 1971 to September 2, 1972. In all, only 26 episodes were produced (but rerun numerous times).

An announcer's words open the program: "The Adventures of Jonny Quest, missions of science and adventure with Jonny Quest, future scientist; his father, Dr. Benton Quest, leader of the group; pilot and Dr. Quest's assistant, Roger "Race" Bannon; Jonny's East Indian companion, Hadji; and everyone's friend and co-worker, Bandit. Together they fly toward new challenges. This is The Adventures of Jonny Quest."

Voice Cast: John Stephenson (Dr. Benton Quest), Tim Matheson (Jonny Quest), Mike Road (Roger "Race" Bannon), Danny Bravo (Hadji), Don Messick (Bandit).

106 The Adventures of Kit Carson. (Series; Western; Syn.; 1956). Christopher "Kit" Carson is a frontiersman, Indian scout and U.S. government agent. He travels across the territory of New Mexico (1880s) with his Mexican sidekick, El Toro ("The Bull"), a man who has an eye for the ladies — and a lust for food. Stories relate their exploits as they help people in need while attempting to maintain the peace. Kit rides a horse named Apache.

Cast: Bill Williams (Christopher "Kit" Carson), Bill Diamond (El Toro).

107 The Adventures of Long John Silver. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1956). The series, set on the British-possessed island of Porto Belo ("Where every other citizen is a pirate") during the 18th century, relates the exploits of Long John Silver, the notorious one-legged pirate, as he defends the Crown against warring marauders and battles the Spanish for the acquisition of land. Jim Hawkins is Silver's ward (appointed to him by Governor Henry Strong after Long John saved his life from pirates); Purity Pinker is the owner of the Bull and Blunder Pub (when Long John is not at Purity's pub, he enjoys drinks at the Cask and Anchor. Purity calls long John a "one-legged devil." She wants to marry Long John "but I could never get him to that point"); Mendoza, Patch, Israel and Billy are Silver's crewmates; Governor Henry Strong is the magistrate of the island; Ironhand is Purity's bartender; Lady Strong is Henry's wife. Long John's ship, The Faithful docks at Dead Man's Bay. He has a reputation to be the best cook on the Spanish Main.

Cast: Robert Newton (Long John Silver), Kit Taylor (Jim Hawkins), Connie Gilchrist (Purity Pinker), Harvey Adams (Governor Henry Strong), Lloyd Berrell (Mendoza), Grant Taylor (Patch), Rodney Taylor (Israel Hands), Henry Gilbert (Billy Bowledge), Muriel Steinbeck (Lady Strong), Billy Kay (Ironhand).

108 The Adventures of Mark and Brian. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1991). Brian Phelps and Mark Thompson are real Los Angeles radio personalities. Encompassing the format of two D.J.'s who go to extremes to grab an audience, Mark and Brian attempt a new stunt each week — from white water rafting to singing with the Temptations. The program documents the comical results that follow as, is most often the case, the two have no experience or ability to do what they are attempting.

Hosts: Brian Phelps, Mark Thompson.

109 The Adventures of Mary Kate and Ashley. (Pilot; Children; ABC; 4/22/95). Mary Kate and Ashley Olsen are the twin eight-year-old daughters of Jack and Terry, dolphin researchers at Sea World in Florida (the girls also perform in their parents' show at the park). The girls have few friends their own age and to amuse themselves, they have begun a business — "Mary Kate and Ashley Detective Services. We Will Solve Any Crime By Dinner Time." The series was to relate their efforts to find and solve crimes. In the pilot episode, titled "Mystery on the High Seas," the girls investigate the theft of their father's computer program on dolphin communication. Other Regulars: Mr. Kramer, the head of Sea World; and Mrs. Torres, the twins' babysitter.

Cast: Mary Kate Olsen (Herself), Ashley Olsen (Herself), Tracy Nelson (Terry Olsen), William R. Moses (Jack Olsen), Michael O. Smith (Mr. Kramer), Leslie Carrara (Mrs. Torres). Guest Cast: Jeff Gordon (Bobo), Calfin Roe (Flippity), Elizabeth Olsen (Lizzie), Trent Olsen (Trent), Tim Goodwin (Officer Friendly), Morgan Krantz (Morgan), Terry Allen Jones (Cabbie).

110 The Adventures of Nick Carter. (Pilot; Crime Drama; ABC; 2/20/72). The story, set at the turn of the century, follows the exploits of Nick Carter, a tough private detective working out of New York City. In the pilot episode, Nick attempts to discover the whereabouts of a playboy's missing wife.

Cast: Robert Conrad (Nick Carter), Neville Brand (Captain Dan Keller). Guest Cast: Shelley Winters (Bess Tucker), Broderick Crawford (Oris Duncan), Dean Stockwell (Freddie Duncan), Pat O'Brien (Hallelujah Harry), Pernell Roberts (Neal Duncan), Sean Garrison (Lloyd Deems), Laraine Stephens (Joyce Jordan), Brooke Bundy (Roxy O'Rourke), Jaye P. Morgan (Singer).

111 The Adventures of Noah Beery, Jr. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1954). The series features actor Noah Beery, Jr. in varied adventures, with the emphasis placed on situations and solutions.

Star: Noah Beery, Jr.

112 The Adventures of Oky Doky. (Series; Children; DuMont; 1948–1949). The program, presided over by a puppet (Oky Doky), features game contests and performances by aspiring child entertainers.

Hostess: Wendy Barrie. Voice of Oky Doky: Dayton Allen.

113 The Adventures of Ozzie and Harriet. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1952–1966). One of television's longest running comedy series. The house at 822 Sycamore Street in the town of Hillsdale is the setting. It is here that the Nelson family reside. Ozzie and Harriet are the parents; Dave and Ricky are their sons. Stories relate the incidents that befall the individual members of the family, especially Dave and Ricky, who grew from adolescent to mature adults. On television, Ozzie's occupation was never identified. On radio (from which the series was adapted), Ozzie was, as in real life, a bandleader. In the 1951 feature film, Here Come the Nelsons (based on the radio series) Ozzie was seen as an executive for the H.J. Bellows and Company Advertising Agency.

In 1957, the focus of the series changed somewhat when Ricky became a high school heartthrob with his song "I'm Walkin'" (his singing abilities were incorporated into many episodes). As Dave and Ricky grew into adulthood, they became lawyers and also married. Kris was Ricky's wife and June was David's wife. Ricky's real life daughter, Tracey, became part of the series when Kris gave birth to her in December of 1965.

Other Regulars: Thorny Thornberry and Joe Randolph, Ozzie's neighbors; Clara Randolph, Joe's wife; Herb Darby, Ozzie's friend; Doc Williams, Ozzie's friend; Wally Dipple (also known as Wally Plumstead), Dave and Ricky's friend (who ran a food business called Wally's Wagon); Ginger, Wally's girlfriend; Sally, Kris's friend; Herb Dunkel, Ozzie's friend; Mr. Hopkins, the college dean; Connie Harper, secretary to Dave and Ricky (at the law firm); Ralph Dobson, the senior law partner; Don Kelly, Ralph's partner; Mr. Baxter, Ozzie's friend (very early episodes); Greg, Sean, Dink, Kent, Betty, Melinda and Jack, Dave and Ricky's friends; and Happy Hotpoint, the dancing elf in Hot Point Appliance commercials in 1955.

Cast: Ozzie Nelson (Ozzie Nelson), Harriet Hilliard Nelson (Harriet Nelson), Ricky Nelson (Ricky Nelson), David Nelson (David Nelson), Kristen Harmon (Kris Nelson), June Blair (June Nelson), Tracy Nelson (Tracy Nelson), Don DeFore (Thorny Thornberry), Lyle Talbot (Joe Randolph), Mary Jane

Croft (Clara Randolph), Parley Baer (Herb Darby), Frank Cady (Doc Williams), Skip Young (Wally Dipple), Catherine Salerno (Ginger), Kathy Davis (Sally), Joseph Kearns (Herb Dunkel), Ivan Bonar (Mr. Hopkins), Constance Harper (Connie Harper), Francis DeSales (Ralph Dobson), Joe Flynn (Don Kelley), Frank Cady (Mr. Baxter), James Stacy (Fred), Gregory Dawson (Greg), Sean Morgan (Sean), Karl George (Dink), Kent McCord (Kent), Tracy Stafford (Betty), Melinda Plowman (Melinda), Jack Wagner (Jack), Mary Tyler Moore (Happy Hotpoint). Announcer: Basil Adlam, Ozzie Nelson, Verne Smith.

114 The Adventures of Patches. (Series; Children; Syn.; 1951). A puppet series about the amazing adventures of an orphaned hobo boy named Patches and his friend, Wacky Rabbit.

Cast: Don Messick (Voice of Patches), Larry Harmon (Voice of Wacky Rabbit).

115 The Adventures of Pete and Pete. (Series; Comedy; Nickelodeon; 1993–1996). Wellsville, U.S.A. is a peaceful suburban town inhabited by characters who are a bit eccentric; case in point being the main characters — brothers who are both named Pete by their parents, Don and Joyce Wrigley. The older Pete has been nicknamed "Big Pete" while the younger Pete carries the moniker "Little Pete." Big Pete is the more sensible of the brothers while Little Pete seems to find misadventures in everything he does (and naturally involves Big Pete in his antics). The story of what happens to the brothers and the people they encounter are told through the narration of Big Pete, whose observations on life are verbally documented for the viewer. The program began in 1990 as one minute fillers between Nickelodeon programs; five specials then aired followed by the series in 1993. Ellen and Nona are friends; Artie, an adult, claims to be the strongest man in the world. The series ran from December 5, 1993 to May 1, 1996.

Cast: Michael C. Maronna (Big Pete Wrigley), Danny Tamberelli (Little Pete Wrigley), Judy Grafe (Joyce Wrigley), Hardy Rawls (Don Wrigley), Michelle Trachtenberg (Nona Mecklenberg), Alison Fanelli (Ellen Josephine Hickie), Toby Huss (Artie), Justin Restivo (Wayne Pardue), David Martel (Teddy Forz-man).

116 The Adventures of Pollyanna. (Pilot; Adventure; CBS; 4/10/82). Harrington, a small New England town of the 1900s, is the setting for a proposed series about Pollyanna Harrington, a pretty 12-year-old orphan, now the ward of her aunt, Polly, who possesses the uncanny knack for bringing out the best in people. The pilot episode relates Pollyanna's efforts to prove that Thomas Jenn, the simple-minded son of the Widow Jenn, is not responsible for a series of mysterious happenings. Other Regulars: Merilee, Pollyanna's friend;

Herman Chilton, the town's doctor; Mrs. Leveler, Polly's housekeeper; Angelica, Mrs. Leveler's assistant; and Jimmy Bean, Pollyanna's friend.

Cast: Patsy Kensit (Pollyanna Harrington), Shirley Jones (Aunt Polly Harrington), Roxana Zal (Merilee), Edward Winter (Dr. Herman Chilton), Lucille Benson (Mrs. Leveler), Beverly Archer (Angelica), Rossie Harris (Jimmy Bean). Guest Cast: Stacey Nelkin (Cora Spencer), John Putch (Johnny Muller), John Randolph (Mr. Muller), Mitzi Hoag (Mrs. Muller), Nicholas Hammond (Reverend Tull), Jay W. MacIntosh (Widow Jenn), James Collins (Thomas Jenn), Gretchen Wyler (Mrs. Tarkell).

117 The Adventures of Pow Wow. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1957). Five minute animated stories, based on actual Indian folklore, that relates the adventures of Pow Wow, a young Indian boy, as he learns about life. The series is produced by Leon Marcus with music by Monty Kelly.

118 The Adventures of Rin Tin Tin. (Series; Adventure; ABC; CBS; 1954–1964). While on patrol, the Fighting Blue Devils of the 101st Cavalry discover a young boy named Rusty and his dog, a German Shepherd named Rin Tin Tin, the sole survivors of an Apache raid on a wagon train. The boy and his dog, brought to Fort Apache in Arizona, become the unofficial wards of Lieutenant Rip Masters. Rusty is later made a corporal to enable him to remain at the fort, when he and Rin Tin Tin foil an Indian plot to kill a visiting general. The series focuses on the adventures of Corporal Rusty, his dog, Rin Tin Tin, and their efforts to help the 101st Cavalry maintain the peace during the lawless 1880s. In 1975 the original black and white stories were syndicated in sepia tint. New opening and closing segments, filmed in color in Utah, were added. James L. Brown, recreating his role as Lt. Rip Masters, appeared to relate the stories of Rusty and his dog to a group of children visiting the fort. The series aired on ABC from October 15, 1954 to September 29, 1957 and from September 28, 1959 to September 22, 1961; and on CBS from September 29, 1962 to September 19, 1964.

Cast: Lee Aaker (Corporal Rusty), James L. Brown (Lt. Ripley "Rip" Masters), Joe Sawyer (Sgt. Aloysius "Biff" O'Hara), Rand Brooks (Corporal Randy Boone), John Hoyt (Colonel Barker), William Forrest (Major Swanson), Tommy Farrell (Corporal Carson), Hal Hopper (Corporal Clark), Sterling Holloway (Sorrowful Joe; the jinx), Frank DeKova (Kiowa Indian Chief Culebra), Norman Fredric (Apache Indian Chief Komoi).

119 The Adventures of Robin Hood. (Series; Adventure; CBS; 1955–1958). "Robin Hood, Robin Hood, riding through the glen; Robin Hood, Robin Hood, with his band of Merry Men; feared by the bad, loved by the good, Robin Hood...." The series, set in 11th century England, relates the adventures of Robin Hood, the most celebrated of outlaws (who stole from the rich to give to the poor) and his band of Merry Men (free-born Englishmen loyal to the king who have established a base of operations in Sherwood Forest), as they battle the evils of Prince John (seeking to usurp the throne from King Richard) and the Sheriff of Nottingham (Prince John's cohort). The series is also known as Adventures in Sherwood Forest.

Cast: Richard Greene (Robin Hood), Bernadette O'Farrell (Maid Marian Fitzwater), Patricia Driscoll (Maid Marian Fitzwater; later), Donald Pleasence (Prince John), Alan Wheatley (Sheriff of Nottingham), Alexander Gauge (Friar Tuck/Francis Tucker), Archie Duncan (Little John/John Little), Rufus Cruikshank (Little John/John Little; later), Paul Eddington (Will Scarlet/Will of Winchester), Ronald Howard (Will Scarlet/Will of Winchester; later), Ian Hunter (Sir Richard the Lion-Hearted), Gillian Sterrett (Lady Genevieve), Geraldine Hahan (Jenny; Maid Marian's servant), Peter Asher (King Arthur), Jill Esmond (Queen Eleanor), Hugh McDermott (Duncan), Brian Worth (Sir Hubert), Peter Hammond (Bartholomew), Greta Gynt (Lady Margaret), Paul Eddington (Count Duprez). Theme Song: "Robin Hood" by Carl Sigman.

120 The Adventures of Shirley Holmes — Detective. (Series; Mystery; Fox Family; 1998). Shirley Holmes is a pretty 12-year-old girl who is the great grand niece of the famous British detective, Sherlock Holmes. She is the daughter of Robert Holmes (a British diplomat) and his wife Peggy. Like her great uncle, Shirley has a keen sense of observation, an uncanny knack for deductive reasoning and the ability to unravel complex mysteries. While not an official detective, Shirley uses her abilities to help people solve their problems, mostly minor crimes she and her self-proclaimed assistant (her Dr. Watson [Sherlock's partner]) Bo Sawchuk, stumble upon. Molly Hardy is Shirley's rival at school (her Professor Moriarty [Sherlock's nemesis]); Watson is her basset hound.

Cast: Meredith Henderson (Shirley Holmes), John White (Francis Boris "Bo" Sawchuk), Chris Humphreys (Robert Holmes), Elizabeth Shepherd (Peggy Holmes), Sarah Ezer (Molly Hardy).

121 The Adventures of Sinbad. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1998–2000). The Nomad is a ship captained by Sinbad that sails the Seven Seas to fight evil wherever it is found. Sinbad is assisted by his older brother, Doubar, his best friend, Rongar, Firouz, the inventor, and Maeve, a beautiful sorcerer's apprentice.

The series is set in a time of ancient myths and legends. Sinbad and Doubar were born in Baghdad and cared for by a sorcerer named Dim Dim after their parents were lost in a storm at sea. When Sinbad was eight years old he had a crush on a girl named Lea. A short time later, when Lea fell into the sea and drowned, Sinbad vowed to become a sailor and master the sea. He took whatever sea related jobs he could find and by the age of 15 was his own captain. At an unspecified time after, his ship sank but Sinbad managed to stay afloat on some driftwood. He passed out and awoke on an island where he not only found food and water, but a mysterious rainbow bracelet on his left wrist. It is not said how, but Sinbad managed to get back to Baghdad and learned that two years had passed. Unable to explain what happened, Sinbad accepted the notion that the fates saved him. Later, when the Caliph's daughter is kidnapped by the evil sorcerer Turok, the Caliph asks Sinbad to rescue her. He gives Sinbad the Nomad and Sinbad rounds up his crew: Doubar, Rongar and Firouz.

En route they dock at Dim Dim's island and meet Maeve, whom Dim Dim assigns to assist Sinbad. Dim Dim, however, is swept away by an evil demon and this sets up one aspect of the storyline: Sinbad's oath to someday find him. As the Nomad continues with its rescue mission, Sinbad encounters the evil Turok and kills him. He rescues the princess but enrages Turok's daughter, Rumina, an evil and powerful sorceress who has sworn to kill Sinbad and his crew (a recurring aspect of first season episodes).

Sinbad is a skilled swordsman and only uses force when he has no other option. Doubar has incredible strength and often plunges head first into dangerous situations without thinking. Rongar the Moor is an expert knife thrower and had his tongue cut out for not betraying his brothers when they were sought by the Caliph. Rongar does not speak but his gestures are easily understood. Firouz, "a master scientist" as he calls himself, is an old friend of Sinbad's. He is a bit absent-minded and has invented a number of items, from a telescope to explosives, to save the day (Sinbad calls his dynamite invention "exploding sticks").

Maeve is Dim Dim's Celtic sorcerer's apprentice. She is traveling with Sinbad not only to help him find Dim Dim but to kill Rumina, who has turned her younger brother into a hawk named Dermott (it is mentioned that Maeve and her brother had a past encounter with Rumina; when he refused her love she turned him into a hawk). Dermott travels with Maeve (acts like a scout) and can telepathically communicate with her; Rumina's death will lift the curse.

The first episode of the second season, "The Sacrifice," finds Maeve being replaced by Bryn, a beautiful warrior who possesses the same mysterious rainbow bracelet as Sinbad. During a storm at sea, Maeve is swept overboard. In an attempt to save her, Sinbad dives into the water but is overpowered by the waves and washed upon the shore of an island that is ruled by the Kamin, a large reptile-like creature. As Sinbad regains consciousness, he sees Bryn and notices her bracelet. He learns that she was lost in a storm at sea and awoke to find herself on this island and in possession of the bracelet. She has no memory of how she got the bracelet, who she is (other than her name) or where she came from. She also possesses a power to discharge energy bolts from her eyes by concentrating ("But it comes and goes" she says). Bryn soon becomes a part of Sinbad's crew.

On board ship Sinbad learns that only Maeve's leather wrist band (which she used for Dermott) was found. Suddenly, a glowing blue light, representing the spirit of Dim Dim, appears and speaks: "Maeve is safe, Sinbad, alive and well. The curse I am under prevents me from being here in all but spirit. The forces of darkness are growing too strong, Sinbad. Rumina would have killed Maeve before her time. She is safe under my protection until she has mastered the art of white magic. Fight the dark powers, Sinbad. You will find Bryn a powerful assist in your travels." As the blue light fades Dermott returns and lands on Bryn's arm (like he did with Maeve). "Until we meet again, Maeve, until we meet again" closes the episode as Sinbad speaks these words into the sky.

Matthew McCauley composed the theme.

Cast: Zen Gesner (Sinbad), George Buza (Doubar), Oris Erhuero (Rongar), Jacqueline Collen (Maeve), Tim Progosh (Firouz), Mariah Shirley (Bryn), Julianne Morris (Rumina).

122 The Adventures of Sir Francis Drake. (Series; Adventure; NBC; 1962). The series, set in 16th century England, tells the story of Sir Francis Drake, an admiral of the Queen's Navy, as he defends the Crown against warring marauders. Drake's ship is The Golden Hind.

Cast: Terrence Morgan (Sir Francis Drake), Jean Kent (Queen Elizabeth I), Roger Delgado (Spanish Ambassador Mendoza), Patrick McLaughlen (Richard Trevelyan), Ewan Roberts (Earl of Lennox), Michael Crawford (John Drake), Richard Warner (Walsingham).

123 The Adventures of Sir Lancelot. (Series; Adventure; NBC; ABC; 1957–1958). "Come and listen to my story, yes listen while I sing of days of old in England, when Arthur was the king..." The series, set in 12th century England, relates the adventures of Sir Lancelot du Lac, a knight of King Arthur's Round Table, and the paramour of Queen Guinevere.

Cast: William Russell (Sir Lancelot), Jane Hylton (Queen Guinevere), Cyril Smith (Merlin the Magician), Ronald Leigh-Hunt (King Arthur), Bruce Seton (King Arthur; later), Robert Scoggins (Squire Brian), Zena Walker (Angela), Peter Bennett (Leonides), Derek Aylward (King Mahraus). Theme Song: “Sir Lancelot” by Bruce Campbell, Alan Lomax.

124 The Adventures of Superboy. (Unaired Pilot; Adventure; Produced in 1961). “It’s the Adventures of Superboy, incredible boy of steel. Powerful, fearless, invulnerable. Only survivor of the doomed planet Krypton, home of a race of fine and noble humans far advanced over those of our own world. Superboy, whose scientist father sent him hurtling into the far regions of interstellar space in a tiny craft moments before great Krypton exploded into a billion fragments, setting the space ship on its course for planet Earth, where landing safely, the infant Superboy was found and adopted by a small town couple, Jonathan and Martha Kent. And now, some years later, the child is young Clark Kent, student at Smallville High School where his weak, retiring manner hides an exciting secret known only to himself and his foster parents — the secret that Clark Kent is in reality Superboy — champion of the oppressed, enemy of all evil doers, dedicated to the cause of truth and justice!”

A second attempt (see also The Adventures of Superpup) to revive the success of the series The Adventures of Superman, this time focusing on a younger Clark Kent, a student at Smallville High School in Smallville, U.S.A. (near Kansas). Here Clark assists the police (who contact him via a secret phone number) and has a secret base — a hidden room in his home where he receives messages for help and changes from Clark to Superboy. Other Regulars: Lana Lang, Clark’s girlfriend; and Martha Kent, Clark’s mother (Jonathan Kent does not appear in the pilot).

Cast: Johnny Rockwell (Clark Kent/Superboy), Bonny Henning (Lana Lang), Monty Margetts (Martha Kent). Guest Cast: Ross Elliott (Fred Drake), Richard Reeves (Shorty Barnes), Yvonne White (Miss Gibbs), Stacy Harris (Jake Ferde), Jimmy Bates (Jimmie Drake), Trudy Ellison (Donny), Ray Walker (Mr. Edlund).

125 The Adventures of Superman. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1952–1957). As the theme music (written by Leon Klatzkin) plays, an announcer begins the program: “Faster than a speeding bullet. More powerful than a locomotive. Able to leap tall buildings in a single bound.” Voices are then heard: “Look, up in the sky, it’s a bird, it’s a plane, it’s Superman.” The announcer returns: “Yes, it’s Superman, strange visitor from another planet who came to Earth with powers and abilities far beyond those of mortal men. Superman, who can change the course of mighty rivers, bend steel in his bare hands. And who, disguised as Clark Kent, mild-mannered reporter for a great metropolitan newspaper, fights a never-ending battle for truth, justice and the American Way.” But who is Superman — and where did he come from? The story begins many years ago on a distant planet called Krypton, which is inhabited by a race of super intelligent beings.

Jor-El (Robert Rockwell) is a leading scientist who believes the planet is being drawn closer to its sun and destruction. When he is unable to convince the Council of Scientists of his beliefs, he begins developing a rocket ship to save his wife, Lara (Aline Towne) and their infant son, Kal-El, from the impending disaster. Jor-El, however, has only time to complete a small, experimental rocket before the planet is struck by earthquakes.

He and Lara decide to save Kal-El. The baby is placed in the rocket and Jor-El programs it to land on Earth, a planet he knows is inhabited. Shortly after the rocket is launched, Krypton explodes and scatters billions of particles of Kryptonite, the only substance that will be able to harm Kal-El, into the universe.

The rocket enters the Earth’s atmosphere on April 10, 1926, and crash lands near the Jones farm in Smallville, Kansas. Eben and Sarah Kent (Tom Fadden, Dina Nolan), a childless farm couple, witness the landing. Eben risks his life to save the baby from the burning rocket. The baby, wrapped in red and blue blankets, is miraculously unharmed. The rocket explodes seconds later, destroying all evidence of its ever having been there. Realizing that no one would ever believe their fantastic story, Eben and Sarah decide to raise the baby as their own and name him Clark Kent. As young Clark (Stuart Randall) begins to grow, he develops amazing powers (X-ray vision, incredible strength, the ability to fly). In 1951, following Eben’s death from a heart attack, Sarah urges Clark to use his great abilities to help mankind. Before Sarah moves in with her cousin, Louise, she makes Clark a costume from the blankets that were originally wrapped around him (how she managed to cut and sew the indestructible material was not explained). To keep his true identity a secret, he maintains the alias of mild-mannered Clark Kent and moves to Metropolis, where he becomes a reporter for the Daily Planet, a crusading newspaper.

Clark lives in Apartment 5H of the Standish Arms Hotel. While it appeared that Sarah had made only one costume for Clark in the pilot (“Superman on Earth”), later episodes show that Clark has three Superman costumes in his secret closet (located behind a false wall in his regular closet).

Lois Lane is the Daily Planet reporter always in distress. She was born in the small town of Clifton-by-the-Sea and now lives in Apartment 6A. She suspects that Clark is Superman but can’t prove it (she believes that every time Clark disappears in an emergency to become Superman, he is a coward — “Looking for a hole to hide in, Clark?”).

Jimmy Olsen was originally depicted as the paper's photographer, then a cub reporter. He has the middle name of Bartholomew and lives with his mother in an undisclosed location. Like Lois, he too faces perilous situations and must be rescued by Superman.

Perry White is the editor of the Daily Planet. He was a top notch reporter, then the mayor of Metropolis before becoming editor. "Great Caesar's Ghost" is the expression Perry uses when he becomes upset or angry; and "Don't Call Me Chief!" is what he yells at Jimmy for constantly calling him "Chief."

William "Bill" Henderson is the police inspector who is most helped by Superman. Professor Twiddle (Sterling Holloway) and Professor J.J. Pepperwinkle (Phillips Tead) are slightly off-center scientists who complicate Clark's life with their wacky inventions. The series is based on the comic strip by Jerry Siegel and Joe Schuster. See also The Adventures of Superboy; Lois and Clark: The New Adventures of Superman; Smallville and Superboy.

Cast: George Reeves (Clark Kent/Superman), Phyllis Coates (Lois Lane), Noel Neill (Lois Lane; later), Jack Carson (Jimmy Olsen), John Hamilton (Perry White), Robert Shayne (Insp. Bill Henderson), Yvonne White (Ethel; Daily Planet receptionist).

126 The Adventures of Superpup. (Unaired Pilot; Adventure; Produced in 1958). "Your product, the best of its kind in the world, presents The Adventures of Superpup. Faster than the speediest jet. More powerful than the mightiest rocket. Able to fly around the world faster than you can say Superpup!" So went the opening for a projected series about the adventures of Bark Bent, star reporter for the Metropolis Daily Bugle, who is in reality, Superpup, a daring crime fighter. Actors dressed in dog costumes and other regulars were reporter Pamela Poodle; editor Perry Bite; and Police Sergeant Beagle. In the pilot, Superpup races against time to save Pamela from the evil Professor Sheepdip, who has her tied to a rocket and is about to launch her into space. The series was made to be sponsored by a particular product (hence the first line in the opening); however, no advertising agency or network picked it up.

Cast: Billy Curtis (Bark Bent/Superpup), Ruth Delfino (Pamela Poodle), Angelo Rossitto (Perry Bite), Frank Delfino (Sergeant Beagle). Guest Cast: Harry Monty (Professor Sheepdip), Sadie Delfino (Sheepdip's dupe).

127 The Adventures of Teddy Ruxpin. (Pilot; Cartoon; Syn.; 3/87). The story of Teddy Ruxpin, a lovable teddy bear, and his friend, Grubby, as they travel throughout the world seeking adventure. In the five-part pilot episode, titled "The Treasure of Grundy," the duo seeks to uncover the whereabouts of a fabulous treasure.

Voices: Phil Baron, Robert Bockstael, John Koensgen, Pier Kohl, Abby Hagyard, Holly Larocque, Will Ryan, John Stocker.

128 The Adventures of the Black Stallion. (Series; Adventure; Family Channel; 1990–1993). Alec Ramsey is a young man with a very special horse — Black, an Arabian stallion that no one else can ride. Black is swift and Alec hopes to train him not only to become a race horse but the fastest horse in the world. Helping Alec is Henry Dailey, a professional trainer who sees great potential in Black. Stories follow Alec and he and Henry travel the race horse circuit seeking to become the world's best. Based on the books by Walter Farley (and, in part, on the 1979 feature film).

Cast: Richard Ian Cox (Alec Ramsey), Mickey Rooney (Henry Dailey), Virginia Demians (Catherine Varnier), Jean-Paul Solal (Pierre Chastel), Michele Goodger (Belle Ramsey), Marianne Filali (Nicole Berthier), David Taylor (Nathaniel McKay).

129 The Adventures of the Galaxy Rangers. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1986–1989). The series, set in the year 2086, relates the exploits of the Galaxy Rangers, crime fighters who battle evil throughout the universe.

Voice Cast: Maia Danziger (Maya of Tarkon), Maia Danziger (Annie Oh), Maia Danziger (Mistwalker), Laura Dean (Nikko), Laura Dean (Aliza Foxx), Laura Dean (Jessica Foxx), Bob Bottone (Zozo), Bob Bottone (Little Zach Foxx), Bob Bottone (Brappo), Bob Bottone (Squeegee), Earl Hammond (Commander Joseph Walsh), Earl Hammond (Lazarus Slade), Earl Hammond (Captain Kidd), Earl Hammond (Wildfire Cody), Earl Hammond (King Spartos), Hubert Kelly (Doc Hartford), Sandy Marshall (Buzzwang), Jerry Orbach (Zachary Foxx), Corinne Orr (Kiwi Kids), Corinne Orr (Queen of the Crown), Henry Mandell (Waldo), Henry Mandell (Geezi), Henry Mandell (Q Ball), Henry Mandell (Scarecrow), Henry Mandell (Kilbane), Doug Preis (Shane Gooseman), Doug Preis (Mogel the Space Sorcerer), Doug Preis (Nimrod), Doug Preis (Jackie Subtract), Doug Preis (Bubblehead).

130 The Adventures of the Scarlet Pimpernel. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1956). The series, set in England in 1792, relates the adventures of Sir Percy Blakeley, a man of wealth and social status who adopts the guise of the mysterious Scarlet Pimpernel (named after a small, red, star-shaped flower that is common to the English countryside). Appearing as the Scarlet Pimpernel whenever trouble is apparent, Sir Percy battles injustice in his endeavor to aid the oppressed. Produced in England.

Cast: Marius Goring (Sir Percy/Scarlet Pimpernel), Patrick Troughton (Percy's aide), Stanley Van Beers (Police Heavy), Susan Richmond (Madame Tussaud), Balbrina (French Girl), Anthony Newlands (Robespierre).

131 The Adventures of the Sea Hawk. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1959). John Hawk is the commander of the schooner Seahawk, a floating electronics lab that is based in Bermuda. Stories relate his efforts to help people in trouble through the scientific resources that are available to him.

Cast: John Howard (John Hawk), John Lee (Hawk's assistant).

132 The Adventures of the Sea Spray. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1968). John Wells is an Australian writer and skipper of the schooner Sea Spray. He is a widower and the father of three children (Sue, Mike and Noah). John works as a free-lance writer and stories relate his adventures as he, accompanied by his children, roams the South Pacific seeking story material. They are assisted by their native crewman, Willyum. The series is produced in Australia.

Cast: Walter Brown (John Wells), Susanne Harworth (Sue Wells), Gary Gray (Mike Wells), Rodney Pearlman (Noah Wells), Leoni Lesinawai (Willyum).

133 Adventures of the Swiss Family Robinson. (Series; Drama; PAX; 1998). A television adaptation of the novel Swiss Family Robinson that relates the experiences of a group of survivors who are shipwrecked on a deserted island after a storm at sea. Particular focus is on the Robinsons, a wealthy and pampered Boston family who must now rely on their wits to survive and find a way off the island. David is the head of the family. He is married to Elizabeth and they are the parents of Ernst, Christina and Joanna.

Emily, Jed, Ben and Billy are other survivors. See also Swiss Family Robinson.

Cast: Richard Thomas (David Robinson), Margo Gunn (Elizabeth Robinson), Kieren Hutchinson (Ernst Robinson), Charlotte Woolams (Joanna Robinson), Mia Koning (Christina Robinson), Chan Telle Yee (Emily Chen), K.C. Kelly (Jed Parsons), Gareth Howells (Ben Thomas), Junior Chile (Billy).

134 The Adventures of Tugboat Annie. (Series; Comedy; Syn.; 1957). Annie Brennan is a 50 year old, young at heart woman who captains the Narcissus, a tugboat owned by the Severn Tugboat Company. Annie, who previously worked as the skipper of a garbage scow, is a sympathetic soul who tries to help people in trouble (her "adventures" are the comical situations she encounters).

Fogerty's Beanery (where "Honesty Is the Best Policy") is the dive of a café where Annie and her crew eat. Shiftless is her deckhand, and Pinto is the tug's cook. When Pinto temporarily lost his job, Annie helped him start Pinto's Hotcake Heaven, a diner that failed to find paying customers.

Horatio Bullwinkle is a rival tugboat captain who calls Annie "The Old Petticoat." Murdock Severn is the tugboat company owner. The series is based on the stories by Norman Reilly Raine.

Cast: Minerva Urecal (Annie Brennan), Eric Clavering (Shiftless), Don Orlando (Pinto), Walter Sande (Horatio Bullwinkle), Stan Francis (Murdock Severn).

135 The Adventures of Uncle Mistletoe. (Series; Children; Syn.; 1952). The alternate title for Uncle Mistletoe and His Adventures. See this title for information.

136 The Adventures of William Tell. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1957). The series, set in 14th century Switzerland, relates the efforts of William Tell, the leader of the Confederation of the Forest Cantons, to liberate his country from the rule of the tyrannical Austrian Empire Army.

Cast: Conrad Phillips (William Tell), Richard Rogers (Walter Tell), Jennifer Jayne (Hedda Tell), Nigel Green (The Bear), Willoughby Goddard (Gessler).

137 Adventuring with the Chopper. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 8/7/76). Arnold "The Chopper" Jackson is a black private detective who believes he is dauntless but in reality is a bumbling klutz. Leonard Jones is a budding detective who idolizes Jackson; together they begin a detective service to help people in trouble. The pilot episode relates their efforts to bust a mobster's protection racket. Other Regulars: Cousin Bea, their secretary; and Lieutenant Hoover, the cop who looks out for Jackson.

Cast: Harrison Page (Arnold Jackson), Antonio Fargas (Leonard Jones), Ketty Lester (Cousin Bea), Lawrence Cook (Lieutenant Hoover).

138 Advice to the Lovelorn. (Pilot; Comedy-Drama; NBC; 11/30/81). Maggie Dale is a syndicated newspaper columnist who writes an advice to the lovelorn column called "Dear Maggie." The proposed series was to explore the lives of the people whose letters Maggie answers. Other Regulars: Rita Borden, Maggie's assistant; and Walter Howard, the editor.

Cast: Cloris Leachman (Maggie Dale), Kelly Bishop (Rita Borden), Walter Brooke (Walter Howard). Guest Cast: Donna Pescow (Janice Vernon), Desi Arnaz, Jr. (Steve Vernon), Tina Louise (Diane Marsh), Melissa Sue Anderson (Maureen Tyler), Lance Kerwin (Larry Ames), Paul Burke (Nick Fraser), Dennis Patrick (Dave Marsh), Rick Lenz (Professor Miller).

139 Aeon Flux. (Series; Cartoon; MTV; 1995). Aeon Flux is a very unusual girl. She has the ability to rejuvenate herself (how is not explained). She is also a mysterious secret agent for a country called Monica. Aeon's background is as mysterious as she is (nothing is given). She is extremely violent (killing doesn't seem to phase her) and the bloodier the situations she encounters the better she likes it. Stories, which are aimed at an adult audience, follow Aeon as she battles evil. Trevor Goodchild is her lover. The series is a spin off from Liquid Television where the character appeared in short animated segments.

Voice Cast: Denise Poirier (Aeon Flux), John Rafterlee (Trevor Goodchild). Additional Voices: Julia Fletcher, Phillip Brotherton, Steffan Chirazi, Jack Fletcher.

140 Aeromed's. (Pilot; Adventure; Syn.; 1/17/78). An unsold series about Jenny, Mitch and Toby, U.S. Air Force Medical Technicians assigned to airlift assignments. In the pilot episode, the trio attempts to rescue a trucker and his daughter injured in an accident and deliver a sick premature baby to a military hospital.

Cast: Lauren Tewes (Jenny), John Bennett Perry (Mitch), Carl Anderson (Toby). Guest Cast: Elinor Donahue (Major Oberlin), Sherry Lynne Hummer (Missy), Sanford Gibbons (Ken Pierce).

141 A.E.S. Hudson Street. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1978). A five-episode test about the antics of the staff of a poorly equipped A.E.S. (Adult Emergency Service) hospital on Hudson Street on the lower East Side of Manhattan in New York City. In the pilot episode (ABC, July 21, 1977) A.E.S. stands for Ambulance Emergency Service; F. Murray Abraham played Dr. Menzies, and Irwin C. Watson was Karbow. The series ran from March 16, 1978 to April 20, 1978.

Cast: Gregory Sierra (Dr. Tony Menzies), Rosanna Soto (Nurse Rosa Santiago), Julianne Wells (Nurse Rhonda Todd), Stefan Gierasch (Administrator Karbow), Ralph Manza (Stawky, Karbow's aide), Susan Peretz (Foshko, the ambulance driver), Bill Cort (Dr. Jerry Meckler), Allan Miller (Dr. Glick).

142 The Affairs of China Smith. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1952). China Smith is a daring American soldier of fortune living in Singapore. China takes what cases he needs to survive and while he dislikes doing it, he always finds himself handing out freebies — helping innocent people who become involved with unscrupulous characters (sometimes as the result of a case he is investigating for the government).

Cast: Dan Duryea (China Smith).

143 African Patrol. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1957). Paul Derek is an inspector with the African Patrol, a specially trained unit of police officers based in Nairobi, Africa. They are a highly organized unit designed to battle crime and stories relate their exploits as they battle the unscrupulous characters that invade the Dark Continent. The telephone number of the African Patrol headquarters is 1356. The series is filmed in East Africa.

Cast: John Bentley (Insp. Paul Derek), Brian Epton (Allan; the doctor), Frank Price (Dr. Tim; the medical examiner), Tony Blain (Sergeant), John Stewart (Police Officer), Ian Young (Police Officer).

144 The African Queen. (Pilot; Adventure; CBS; 3/18/77). Africa during World War I is the setting for a proposed series about Charlie Allnot, the scruffy, unpolished owner and captain of the African Queen, a decrepit but serviceable boat that traverses the Ulunga River between Limbasi and Mbora. In the pilot episode, Allnot attempts to thwart German attempts to use his boat to transport a cannon to their outpost on the African coast. Based on the novel by C.S. Forester. Other Regulars: Rosie Sayer, the missionary with whom he carries on a love-hate relationship; Jogana, Charlie's native assistant.

Cast: Warren Oates (Charlie Allnot), Mariette Hartley (Rosie Sayer), Johnny Sekka (Jogana). Guest Cast: Wolf Roth (Lieutenant Biedemeyer), Clarence Thomas (Sergeant Abuttu), Tyrone Jackson (Kaninu), Frank Schuller (Private Heinke), Alfred Polsen (Major Strauss).

145 After George. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 6/6/83). The story of Susan Roberts, a beautiful widow who must contend with her late husband's electronic alter ego — their house. Before his untimely death in an automobile accident, George, Susan's husband, electronically rigged his personality into the house he and Susan shared via a computer that is an extension of his "life." In the pilot episode, George must learn to balance his concern for Susan's welfare with his own jealousy when Susan accepts a date with another man. Other Regulars: Cal Sloane, Susan's partner in the Roberts and Sloane Publicity Agency; Marge, her secretary; and Rose, Susan's mother.

Cast: Susan Saint James (Susan Roberts), Joel Brooks (Cal Sloane), Susan Ruttan (Marge), Allyn Ann McLerie (Rose), Richard Schaal (Voice of George). Guest Cast: John Reilly (Walt), George Pentecost (Frank), Steve Anderson (Charles).

146 After Midnight. (Pilot; Drama; ABC; 8/27/88). A proposed series about the lives of the people who converse at Lulu's, an after-hours club in New York City that is owned by a woman named Lulu. The story focuses in particular on Donna, a freelance photographer; Joe, a widower who runs a produce market; Arthur, a private detective; and Iowa, the bartender at Lulu's.

Cast: Jonelle Allen (Lulu), Stella E. Hall (Donna), Calvin Leavells (Arthur), John Goodman (Joe), Kyle Secor (Iowa). Guest Cast: Barbara Harris (Brenda), Dedee Pfeiffer (April), Anthony Heald (Nick), Gary Cole (Gordon), Jane Bruder (Gwen), Denis Forest (Chef).

147 *After M*A*S*H.* (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1983–1984). A spin off from *M*A*S*H*. Following his retirement from the army in 1953, Colonel Sherman Potter returns to his hometown in Riverbend, Missouri. Finding it difficult to adjust to civilian life (as he was a career army man) he applies for a position at the nearby General Pershing Veterans Administration Hospital. After acquiring a position as chief of staff, Sherman contacts two of his former army buddies, Maxwell Klinger and Father Francis Mulcahy. Klinger and Mulcahy, who were also having trouble adjusting to civilian life, accept Sherman's invitation to work with him at the hospital. The series depicts their experiences working with veterans. Mildred is Sherman's wife; Soon-Lee is Maxwell's wife; Mike D'Angelo is the hospital administrator (later replaced by Wally Wainwright); Alma Cox is Mike's secretary; Bonnie Hornback is Alma's assistant; Evvy Ennis is Sherman's daughter; Bruce is Evvy's husband; Corey is Evvy's son; Gilbert is the hospital barber; Bob Scannell is a regular patient. Unlike the success of *M*A*S*H*, the series, which produced 28 episodes, ran from September 26, 1983 to October 30, 1984.

Cast: Henry Morgan (Dr. Sherman Potter), Jamie Farr (Maxwell Klinger), William Christopher (Father Francis Mulcahy), Rosalind Chao (Soon-Lee Klinger), Barbara Townsend (Mildred Potter), Anne Pitoniak (Mildred Potter; later), John Chappell (Mike D'Angelo), Peter Michael Goetz (Wally Wainwright), Brandis Kemp (Alma Cox), Sandy Burnard (Evvy Ennis), Jamie Widdoes (Bruce Ennis), Joel Graves (Corey Ennis), Britt Leach (Gilbert), Wendy Schaal (Bonnie Hornback), Jay O. Sanders (Dr. Gene Pfeiffer), David Ackroyd (Dr. Boyer), Lois Foraker (Nurse Coleman), Shirley Lang (Nurse Crown), Alice Cadoogan (Nurse Judy Canfield), Patricia Gaul (Nurse Freeman), Pat Cranshaw (Bob Scannell), Alfred Dennis (Max's Father), Penny Santon (Max's Mother).

148 Against All Odds. (Pilot; Reality; NBC; 4/19 and 4/26/92). Two pilots were produced in an attempt to introduce viewers to people who have conquered life-threatening situations, sudden tragedies or unique adventures. The proposed series was to dramatize the personal stories of people who displayed great courage to overcome extreme difficulties.

Hosts: Lindsay Wagner, Everett McGill.

149 Against the Grain. (Series; Drama; NBC; 1993). Stumper, Texas, is a small town just outside of Dallas. It is also a town obsessed with high school football, so much so that it is sacred — “right up there with God, country and barbecue.” Unfortunately for the town, the football team is on a serious losing streak. Coming to the rescue is Ed Clemons, an insurance salesman with coaching experience who has agreed to take on the job of coach and whip the team back into shape. Stories follow Ed as he does what he can (no matter whose feathers he ruffles) to turn a losing team into the state champions. Ed is married to Maggie and is the father of Jill, Jenny and Joe Willie. See also Friday Night Lights.

Cast: John Terry (Ed Clemons), Donna Bullock (Maggie Clemons), Ben Affleck (Joe Willie Clemons), Robyn Lively (Jill Clemons), Vanessa Lee Evigan (Jenny Clemons), Jeanine Jackson (Mindy Hardemann), Derek McGrath (Abel), Rick Peters (Bobby Taylor), Cheryl Rhoads (Winona Bruhns).

150 Against the Law. (Series; Drama; Fox; 1990–1991). Simon MacHeath is an unorthodox attorney with the Boston-based law firm of Hagel and Hastings. While the law firm is run by his father-in-law, James Haverhill, Simon soon realizes that the firm represents everything he hates. He quits, opens his own practice and goes about doing what he does best — helping people desperately in need of help. Stories follow Simon as he goes to outrageous lengths to win cases.

Other Regulars: Elizabeth Verhagen, his office manager; Yvette and Toy, his assistants; Miggsy, his private investigator; and Phoebe, his ex-wife.

Cast: Michael O'Keefe (Simon MacHeath), Elizabeth Ruscio (Elizabeth Verhagen), Suzanne Douglas (Yvette), Rosalind Chao (Toy Feng), Fritz Weaver (James Haverhill), Barbara Williams (Phoebe MacHeath), M.C. Gainey (Miggsy).

151 Against the Wind. (Series; Drama; Syn.; 1979). The story of Mary Mulvane, the spirited daughter of a poor Irish family, and her struggles to gain dignity and respect when she is sentenced to a penal colony in New South Wales, Australia, in 1796 for rebelling against a government system that was unfair to the poor. Produced in Australia.

Cast: Mary Larkin (Mary Mulvane), Bryan Brown (Michael Connor), Roz de Winter (Mrs. Mulvane), Peter Gwynne (Francis Mulvane), Kerry McGuire (Polly McNamara), Jon English (Jonathan Garrett), Frank Gallacher (Will Price), Warwick Sims (Lt. Morris Grenville), Fred Parslow (Charles Wiltshire), Lynn Rainbow (Louisa Wiltshire), Tim Elliott (Captain Dennot), Gerald Kennedy (Dinny O'Byrne), Justine Saunders (Dinny's wife).

152 Age of Love. (Series; Reality; NBC; 2007). The opening narration explains that, “in today's world there is no denying that younger men are dating older women.” It then asks the question — “Does age matter.” The program, called “an experiment,” sets its goal to find out. Australian tennis star Mark Philippoussis is a 30-year-old athlete looking for someone to share his life. He is introduced to two groups of women — the Cougars (women 39–48 years of age) and the Kittens (women in their twenties). Each group is exceptional looking and Mark must choose one of them. He has a chance to get to know and date each woman — but which one will he choose? Younger or older? The program follows Mark as he and the women get to know each other and the tears as he eliminates the women he feels are not right for him.

Host: Mark Consuelos.

153 The Agency. (Series; Drama; CBS; 2001–2003). The program was originally conceived as a look at the inner workings of the CIA (Criminal Investigation Agency) in the post–Cold War era. Alex Pierce III, the director, headed it. After the actual attacks of 9/11, the program changed its format to reflect the new real world. Alex was dropped and the more forceful Robert Quinn replaced him as the new director as the agency now had to deal with terrorist issues and stories reflect how the U.S. openly handles such situations.

Cast: Ronny Cox (Alex Pierce III), Daniel Benzali (Robert Quinn), Beau Bridges (Senator Tom Gage), Gloria Reuben (Lisa Fabrizzi), Gil Bellows (Matt Callan), Rocky Carroll (Carl Reese), Jason O'Mara (A.B. Stiles), David Clennon (Joshua Naukin), Paige Turco (Terri Lowell), Richard Speight, Jr. (Lex).

154 The Agency. (Series; Reality; VH-1; 2006). A behind-the-scenes look at the art of acquiring and selling beauty — models — for Wilhelmina International, an actual agency that claims to be the most successful modeling agency in the world. Unlike America's Top Model, which spotlights beautiful girls seeking to become models in a glitzy light, The Agency is a harsh look at the world of modeling — the world of photo shoots, casting calls, catwalk training and perfection. The series also focuses on the people of the agency — the bookers and their employers: Becky, the tough, insensitive booker; Lola, an ex-model turned booker; Sean, the agency president; and Pink, the nasty head of the women's division (all are identified only by a first name).

155 Aggie. (Series; Comedy; Syn.; 1957). A not widely seen (and virtually unknown) syndicated comedy about the misadventures of Aggie, an American fashion buyer living in Europe. The series is produced by Mid-Ocean Productions in England.

Cast: Joan Shawlee (Aggie), Christopher Lee (Aggie's boyfriend, a Scotland Yard Inspector).

156 Air America. (Series; Adventure; Syn. 1998). Rio Arnett and his friend, Wiley Ferrell, run Air America, a passenger/cargo airline from the Central American island of Buena Ventura. Air America is, in actuality, the cover for a secret U.S. government anti crime organization (Rio is an undercover CIA agent). Stories follow Rio as he performs missions for the State Department in Washington, D.C. (from capturing international criminals to rescuing people caught in dangerous situations). Allison Stratton runs the Parador Hotel; Willard Jenner is Rio's superior; Pablo Lee is Rio's mechanic; Dominique is Allison's waitress; Alma is the island's medicine woman.

Cast: Lorenzo Lamas (Rio Arnett), Scott Plank (Wiley Ferrell), Diana Barton (Allison Stratton), Arthur Roberts (Willard Jenner), Gilbert Montoya (Pablo Lee), Shauna Sand (Dominique), Karmin Murcelo (Alma).

157 Air Time '57. (Series; Variety; ABC; 1956–1957). The program spotlights performances by members of the U.S. Air Force Reserve.

Host: Merv Griffin, Vaughn Monroe. Orchestra: Bobby Hackett, Elliott Alexander.

158 Airline. (Series; Reality; A&E; 2004–2005). A behind-the-scenes look at the hectic lives of Southwest Airlines pilots and flight attendants at three airports (Los Angeles International, Baltimore/Washington International and Chicago Midway). Cameras follow their experiences as they deal with customers, each other and the numerous problems associated with airport life.

Narrator: Tim Flavin. Southwest Airlines Managers: Colleen Bragiel, Veolia Hewitt-Norris. Southwest Airlines Customer Service Supervisors: Susie Boersma, Denise Brown-Bess, Valerie Brown, Michael Carr, Aita Herbert, Yolanda Martin, Steve Ramirez.

159 Airplane Telecast. (Experimental; Test; NBC; 3/6/40). In the early afternoon of March 6, 1940, NBC/RCA and United Airlines conducted an experiment with lightweight television equipment and spot telecasting (prior TV equipment required two ten-ton trucks). TV cameras were attached to a plane and what the camera saw as the plane flew over New York City was broadcast (from a height of 2,000 feet to less than 1,000 TV sets that were in existence).

Host-Announcer: Ray Forrest.

160 Airwolf. (Series; Adventure; CBS, 1984–1986; USA, 1987–1988). Under the guidance of a scientist named Dr. Moffet (David Hemmings), an awesome attack helicopter called Airwolf is built for the Firm, a U.S. government agency that handles sensitive issues. Moffet, however, betrays his country by stealing Airwolf to sell it to a foreign power. Michael Archangel, head of the Firm, recruits a former employee, Stringfellow Hawke, to retrieve the helicopter. In return Michael promises him the government will look for his brother, Saint John (pronounced Sin-Jin), who is listed as missing in Vietnam. With the help of his friend, Dominic Santini, Hawke retrieves Airwolf but elects to hold it as hostage to force the government to keep its promise. In the meantime, Hawke uses Airwolf to help Michael when the need arises.

Hawke, called "String," was orphaned at the age of 12 and raised by Saint John and Dominic Santini (for whom he now works). String, 34, served with the 328 AHC unit in Vietnam and previously worked as a pilot for the Firm. String has a dog named Tet and is somewhat of a recluse (he lives in a remote, forest-like area of California). He has hidden Airwolf deep in "The Valley of the Gods" (a secret mountain location in the California desert).

Dominic, called Dom, runs the Santini Air Charter Service from the Van Nuys Airport (also given as the Municipal Airport) in California.

Caitlin O'Shaughnessy is a former deputy with the Texas Highway Patrol, Aerial Division, who now works as a pilot for Dom.

Michael Coldsmith Briggs III, code name Michael Archangel, heads the Firm. He is assisted by several beautiful women on the CBS version: Gabrielle, Lydia, Marella, Amanda and Rhonda.

Airwolf's government file A56-7W, is a black with white underbelly Bell 222 helicopter with a cruising speed of 300 knots and a maximum speed of 662-plus miles with the main rotor disengaged. Airwolf's armaments include four 30mm chain guns (in the wings) and two 40mm wing cannons. It also carries a series of missiles.

The USA version, called Airwolf '87 (but syndicated as Airwolf with the CBS episodes) drastically changes the storyline. Michael Archangel has been transferred to the Far East and has been replaced by Jason Locke as the head of the Company (not the Firm as in the CBS episodes).

Caitlin has returned to the Texas Highway Patrol and has been replaced by Dominic's niece, JoAnn "Jo" Santini, who works as a helicopter pilot for Santini Air (like Caitlin, she knows about Airwolf). The new version begins when String acquires positive proof that Saint John is alive. However, before he can use Airwolf to affect a rescue mission, he is seriously injured in a helicopter explosion at the airport that kills Dom. Jo decides to continue with the mission but is stopped by Jason who, with U.S. Air Force pilot Mike Rivers, tracked Airwolf through high-resolution photography. Although Jason has been ordered to return Airwolf to the government, he allows Jo to complete her mission (which she does with their help). Fearing that the copter may fall into enemy hands if it is returned, Jason decides to keep Airwolf a secret and forms the new Airwolf team: himself, Mike, Jo and Saint John. Jo and Saint John continue to run Santini Air and use Airwolf to help Jason and Mike when the need arises (String is only seen in the first episode. He is flown by Saint John to a secret location to recover from his injuries).

Sylvester Levay composed the CBS theme version; Dan Milner composed the adaptation for the USA version.

Cast: Jan-Michael Vincent (Stringfellow Hawke), Ernest Borgnine (Dominic Santini), Jean Bruce Scott (Caitlin O'Shaughnessy), Alex Cord (Michael Archangel), Anthony Sherwood (Jason Locke), Michele Scarabelli (Jo Santini), Geraint Wyn Davies (Mike Rivers), Christopher Connelly (Saint John Hawke; CBS), Barry Van Dyke (Saint John Hawke; USA), Deborah Pratt (Marella), Belinda Bauer (Gabrielle), Sandra Kronemeyer (Lydia), Kandace Kuehl (Amanda), Leigh Walsh (Rhonda). Theme Narrator: Lance LeGault.

161 A.J.'s Time Travelers. (Series; Fantasy; Fox; 1994-1995). A.J. is a teenage boy who is having trouble learning history. One day, his neighbor, an eccentric scientist, gives him a special disk that transports him to the Carious, a time-traveling ship that can witness history as it happened. A.J. is made the commander and his crew includes Maria, the captain; Bit, the navigator; Izzy, the chief mechanic; Ollie, A.J.'s right hand man ("Even though I am left handed"); Pulse, the time traffic controller; and Fly, their aide. There is also Warp, an evil, knowledge-hungry fiend who seeks to take over the ship and its knowledge (the only way to defeat Warp is to obtain knowledge). Stories follow the crew as they attempt to gain knowledge and defeat Warp.

Cast: John Patrick White (A.J. Malloy), Wayne Thomas Yorke (Izzie/A.J.'s father), Patty Maloney (Bit-Back in Time), Teresa Jones (Mrs. Malloy), Julie St. Claire (Maria), John Crane (The Fly), Jeremiah Birkett (Pulse), Larry Cedar (Ollie and Warp).

162 A.K.A. Pablo. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1984). Events in the lives of the Rivera's, a large Mexican-American family living in Los Angeles. Focal point of the series is the relationship between Paul Rivera (a.k.a. Pablo to his family), a struggling young comedian, and his father, Domingo, who disapproves of his son's lifestyle and ethnic humor.

Other Regulars: Rosa Maria, Paul's mother; Sylvia, Paul's sister; Lucia, Paul's married sister; Hector, Lucia's husband; Manuel, Paul's brother; Carmen, Manuel's wife; Anna Maria, Susan, Thomas, Mario and Elena, Lucia's children; Linda and Nicholas, Carmen's children; and Jose Sanchez, Paul's agent.

Cast: Paul Rodriguez (Paul Rivera), Hector Elizondo (Jose Sanchez), Joe Santos (Domingo Rivera), Katy Juado (Rosa Maria Rivera), Alma Cuervo (Sylvia Rivera), Martha Belez (Lucia Rivera-Del Gato), Arnaldo Santana (Hector Del Gato), Bert Rosario (Manuel Rivera), Maria Richwine (Carmen Rivera), Claudia Gonzalez (Anna Maria Del Gato), Martha Gonzales (Susan Del Gato), Marco Lopez (Thomas Del Gato), Beto Lovato (Mario Del Gato), Michelle Smith (Elena Del Gato), Edie Marie Rubino (Linda Rivera), Antonio Torres (Nicholas Rivera).

163 Al Haddon's Lamp. (Unaired Pilot; Comedy; Produced in 1955). Al Haddon is a salesman for Booth Real Estates in the town of Newton. One day at an auction, Al buys a strange-looking brass lamp for $8. Seeing that the lamp is dirty, he begins to polish it and out pops a male genie — who can grant his any wish. In the pilot, Al wants to marry his boss's daughter (Betty) but her father (Homer) objects (feeling he is not good enough for her) — unless he does two things: provide her with the prettiest house in town and unload a worthless piece of land called Oak Valley. With Genie's help, Al unloads the property, remodels a decrepit house into the most beautiful home in Newton, and wins Betty's hand in marriage. The would-be series was to focus on Al's misadventures as the owner of a magic lamp.

Cast: Buddy Ebsen (Genie), Robert Hutton (Al Haddon), Jane Ball (Betty Booth), Barry Kelly (Homer T. Booth). Guest Cast: Philip Van Zandt (Auctioneer), Herb Vigran (Cop), Ralph Sanford (Walter Rapogle).

164 The Al Morgan Show. (Series; Variety; DuMont; 1949–1951). A live half-hour program of music and songs from Chicago hosted by singer Al Morgan. Don Cook is the producer.

Host: Al Morgan. Music: The Billy Chandler Trio.

165 The Al Pearce Show. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1952). A daily program of music, songs and conversation aimed at housewives. The series aired for 45 minutes from February 11, 1952 to May 9, 1952; and 30 minutes from June 30, 1952 to September 26, 1952.

Host: Al Pearce.

166 Aladdin. (Series; Cartoon; Syn; CBS; Disney; 1992–1996). An adaptation of the 1992 theatrical film of the same title. Aladdin is a street urchin who lives on the streets with his pet monkey Abu. He is fond of the Princess Jasmine (who lives in the palace on the outskirts of the city) but can never have her as she was meant to marry, by law, a prince. When the Sultan's evil advisor, Jafar discovers that Aladdin is "The Chosen One" (the only person who can enter the Cave of Wonders to retrieve a magic lamp), he tricks him into doing just that. Aladdin and Abu find the lamp but become trapped in the cave. While seeking a way out, Aladdin accidentally rubs the lamp and releases its imprisoned resident — a genie named Genie. After escaping, Aladdin uses one of the wishes granted to him by Genie, to become a prince (and he and Jasmine eventually become engaged but not before Jafar steals the lamp and Aladdin battles him to retrieve it). Although Aladdin has defeated Jafar (who is still seeking the lamp), he also faces the evil Abis Mal (another person after the lamp) and Mekanikes, who is seeking to do away with Aladdin and use the Genie for his power-mad schemes. Assisting Aladdin, Jasmine and Abu in their efforts to help those in trouble is Iago, a former thief turned "good guy." The series is also known as Disney's Aladdin. The series aired in Syndication from 1992–1994; on CBS (1994–1996) and on the Disney Channel (1994–1995).

Voice Cast: Scott Weinger (Aladdin), Brad Kane (Aladdin; singing voice), Robin Williams (Genie), Dan Castellaneta (Genie), Linda Larkin (Princess Jasmine), Lea Salonga (Princess Jasmine; singing voice), Jonathan Freeman (Grand Vizier Jafar), Frank Welker (Abu the Monkey), Gilbert Gottfried (Iago the Parrot), Douglas Seale (Sultan of Agrabah), Bruce Adler (Narrator), Charlie Adler (Mekanikes), Jason Alexander (Abis Mal).

167 The Alan Burke Show. (Series; Talk; Syn.; 1966). Unusually strong conversations between the host and his guests and members of the studio audience on topics infrequently discussed on television at the time (for example, civil rights, politics, sex change operations). The program, originally produced locally in New York as a ninety-minute program for Metromedia owned stations, was also syndicated in a daily half-hour format called Dear Alan.

Host: Alan Burke.

168 The Alan Dale Show. (Series; Variety; DuMont; 1948–1951). A program of music and songs with Alan Dale, a popular baritone of the 1940s and early 1950s.

Host: Alan Dale. Regulars: Janie Ford, Karen Rich, The Sapphires, The Arnold Halop Ensemble. Announcer: John Shafer.

169 The Alan King Show. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 9/8/61). An unsold series about the misadventures of a suburban New York family (parents Alan and Edith and their children Jeff and Jimmy). The pilot episode relates the problems that befall the family when they depart for what they believe is going to be a fun-filled holiday weekend.

Cast: Alan King (Alan), Denise Lor (Edith), Rickey Sloane (Jeff), Dennis Sturdevant (Jimmy). Guest Cast: Jan Chaney (Susie), Jack Fletcher (Mr. McFadden).

170 The Alan King Show. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 7/12/86). Feeling that his life is not totally fulfilled, Alan "Coop" Cooper, a highly successful business tycoon, leaves his Wall Street firm to teach practical business philosophy at Burbridge University on Long Island (in New York). The would-be series was to relate Coop's misadventures as a college professor. The pilot episode relates Coop's efforts to discover which student called him a "bully" on a student poll of teachers. On press information, the college is referred to as Bainbridge University. Other Regulars: Nan Cooper, Alan's wife; Samantha, Casey and Abby, Alan's daughters (Abby is divorced);

John Emerson, the college dean; and Kit Henderson, Alan's teaching assistant.

Cast: Alan King (Alan "Coop" Cooper), Dina Merrill (Nan Cooper), Sarah Jessica Parker (Samantha Cooper), Lisa Rieffel (Cassandra "Casey" Cooper), Catherine Keener (Abby), Paxton Whitehead (John Emerson), Max Cantor (Kit Henderson). Guest Cast: David Knell (Barton Sommers), Robin Menken (Miss Kemper), Robert King (Student).

171 The Alan Young Show. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1950–1953). Music, songs and comedy sketches featuring the misadventures of Alan Young, a well-meaning good-natured young man who seems to be plagued by life's misfortune. Ralph Levy, Paul Henning and Richard Linkroum are the producers.

Host: Alan Young. Regulars: Polly Bergen, Dawn Addams, Joseph Kearns, Ben Wright, David Alpert, Mabel Paige, Phillips Tead, Russell Gaige. Dancers: Jean Mahoney, Tom Mahoney, Jerry Antes. Orchestra: Lud Gluskin.

172 Alarm. (Series; Drama; Syn.; 1954). The exploits of a group of paramedics assigned to a Los Angeles County fire department. An early, not widely seen syndicated series on which little information is known.

Cast: Richard Arlen (Fire Captain), J. Pat O'Malley (Paramedic).

173 The Alaskans. (Series; Adventure; ABC; 1959–1960). "You've got the fever, gold, gold, gold fever...." Eagle City in Skagway, Alaska, in 1898 is the setting. Rocky Shaw is a beautiful saloon entertainer. Reno McKee is a rugged cowpoke. Silky Harris is a fast-talking con artist. These three unlikely heroes are also partners in a quest to search for gold in the beautiful but dangerous Ice Palace of the Northland. The series originally followed their adventures as they searched for gold and battled unscrupulous characters. When the format just didn't seem to work, it was changed to focus on Rocky's experiences as a saloon singer (for Nifty Cronin, the saloon owner) and Silky and Reno's adventures as swindlers. Fantan was Nifty's right-hand man; and Soapie Smith was also a slick con artist.

Cast: Dorothy Provine (Rocky Shaw), Roger Moore (Silky Harris), Jeff York (Reno McKee), Ray Danton (Nifty Cronin), Frank DeKova (Fantan), John Dehner (Soapie Smith). Theme Song: "Gold Fever" by Mack David and Jerry Livingston.

174 The Albert and Josephine Butler Program. (Experimental; Variety; NBC; 7/28/39). Rumba dances by the husband and wife dance team of Albert and Josephine Butler. Albert handled the commentary while Josephine demonstrated the various steps in Rumba dancing. Edward Sobol was the producer and director.

Hosts: Albert Butler, Josephine Butler.

175 The Alcoa/Goodyear Theater. (Series; Anthology; NBC; 1958–1960). A series of varying presentations sponsored on alternate weeks by Alcoa Aluminum and Goodyear Tires. The credits listed below are a sampling of the people who have worked on the series. The series aired from September 29, 1958 to May 23, 1960 with 35 episodes broadcast as The Goodyear Theater and 33 episodes as The Alcoa Theater.

Performers Include: Patricia McCormack, Cornel Wilde, Gig Young, Everett Sloane, Janet Blair, Julie Adams, Jackie Cooper, Kim Hunter, Patricia Breslin, Tony Randall, Jack Carson, Keenan Wynn, Ray Milland, Cliff Robertson, Jim Backus, Lew Ayres, Agnes Moorehead, James Mason, Roberta Shore, Elinor Donahue, Ernie Kovacs, Jack Albertson, Joanne Dru, Eli Wallach, Martin Balsam, Errol Flynn, Philip Ahn, Gary Merrill.

176 The Alcoa Hour. (Series; Anthology; NBC; 1955–1957). A series of top-quality dramas featuring name guests and well-written and directed stories. The Alcoa Hour (sponsored by Alcoa Aluminum) began during the eighth season of The Philco Television Playhouse (sponsored by Philco Appliances and which ran singularly from October 3, 1948 to October 7, 1951). The Philco Television Playhouse then began alternating with The Goodyear Theater (sponsored by Goodyear Tires from October 14, 1951 to October 9, 1955). On October 16, 1955 The Alcoa Hour made its first appearance and by February 19, 1956, it had displaced The Philco Television Playhouse. The Alcoa Hour alternated with The Goodyear Theater until September 29, 1957. On October 30, 1957, The Alcoa/Goodyear Theater became a half-hour series called Turn of Fate (which see) and ran for 30 episodes until June 30, 1958. From September 28, 1959 to May 23, 1960 it returned as The Alcoa/Goodyear Theater (which see). The credits listed below are a sampling of those who have worked on the series. The Alcoa Theater produced 50 episodes; The Philco Television Playhouse produced 263 episodes; and Goodyear Theater produced 134 episodes.

Performers Include: Joanne Woodward, Robin Morgan, Warren Berlinger, Polly Rowles, Jerome Cowan, James Daly, Madge Evans, Carol Lynley, Hume Cronyn, Rip Torn, Anne Bancroft, Victor Jory, Lorne Greene, Dorothy Gish, Lillian Gish, David Wayne, June Lockhart, John McGiver, Margaret Hamilton, Dennis King, Cornelia Otis Skinner, Nanette Fabray, Darren McGavin, Helen Hayes, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Jack Klugman, Rip Torn, Walter Matthau, Audrey Christie.

177 Alcoa Premiere. (Series; Anthology; ABC; 1961–1963). A series of first-rate dramas featuring impressive casts and well-written stories. The performers listed below are a sampling of those who have worked on the series (which ran from October 10, 1961 to September 12, 1963 and produced 56 episodes). Sponsored by the Alcoa Corporation.

Host: Fred Astaire. Performers Include: Charlton Heston, Lee Marvin, Arthur Kennedy, Leo G. Carroll, Lloyd Bridges, James Whitmore, David Wayne, Shelley Winters, Ed Nelson, Barbara Luna, Henry Hull, Cloris Leachman, Ernest Borgnine, Cliff Robertson, Bethel Leslie, Celeste Holm, Eddie Albert, Peggy Ann Garner, Telly Savalas, John Forsythe, Jane Wyatt, Carroll O'Connor, Salome Jens.

178 Alcoa Presents. (Series; Anthology; ABC; 1959–1961). The original title for One Step Beyond when under the sponsorship of Alcoa Aluminum. It ran on ABC from January 26, 1959 to October 3, 1961. See this title for information.

179 The Aldrich Family. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1949–1953). The small town of Centerville is the setting. It is here that Sam Aldrich, the District Attorney, his wife, Alice, and their teenage children, Mary and Henry live. Mary and Henry attend Centerville High School and stories focus in particular on Henry, a young, inexperienced, trouble prone youngster who hopes to one day become a lawyer. Homer Brown is Henry's friend (and cohort in misadventure); Mr. and Mrs. Brown are Henry's parents; Mr. Bradley is the school principal; Kathleen is Henry's girlfriend (early episodes; she is replaced by Eleanor in later episodes). The series was created by Clifford Smith, author of the play What a Life (later made into a movie called The Aldrich Family). Several "Henry Aldrich" movies followed as did a long-running radio series. In 1951 actress Jean Muir was cast to play Alice Aldrich after Nancy Carroll left the series. Her episode never aired as she was blacklisted as being a Communist. Barbara Robbins replaced her. The series ran from October 2, 1949 to May 29, 1953.

Cast: Robert Casey (Henry Aldrich, 1949–1950), Richard Tyler (Henry Aldrich, 1950–1951), Henry Girard (Henry Aldrich, 1951–1952), Kenneth Nelson (Henry Aldrich, 1952), Bobby Ellis (Henry Aldrich, 1952–1953), House Jameson (Sam Aldrich, 1949–1953), Lois Wilson (Alice Aldrich, 1949–1950), Nancy Carroll (Alice Aldrich, 1950–1951), Jean Muir (Alice Aldrich, 1951), Barbara Robbins (Alice Aldrich, 1951–1952), Charita Bauer (Mary Aldrich, 1949–1950), Mary Malone (Mary Aldrich, 1950–1952), June Dayton (Mary Aldrich, 1952–1953), Jackie Kelk (Homer Brown, 1949–1951), Robert Barry (Homer Brown, 1951–1952), Jackie Grimes (Homer Brown, 1952–1953), Leona Powers (Mrs. Brown), Howard Smith (Mr. Brown), Marcia Henderson (Kathleen), Loretta Leversee (Eleanor), Robert Midgley (Mr. Bradley; 1949–1950), Joseph Foley (Mr. Bradley, 1950–1953), Ethel Wilson (Henry's Aunt Harriet).

180 Alec Templeton Time. (Series; Variety; DuMont; 1955). A summer program of relaxing music and songs with Alec Templeton, a blind pianist. The series aired from June 3, 1955 to August 26, 1955.

Host: Alec Templeton.

181 Alex and the Doberman Gang. (Pilot; Crime Drama; NBC; 4/11/80). Alexander Parker is a private detective who uses five smart Doberman pinschers (Duke, Rocky, Harlow, Little Bogie and Gabel) he inherited from a carnival performer to help him solve crimes. The pilot episode relates Alex's attempts to prove that his client, Susan Hamilton, is not responsible for the murder of an art dealer. See also "Nick and the Dobermans." Other Regulars: Barney, Alex's friend, the owner of The Luxury Liner Diner; and Denise, Barney's waitress.

Cast: Jack Stauffer (Alex Parker), Taurean Blacque (Barney), Lane Binkley (Denise). Guest Cast: Martha Smith (Susan Hamilton), Alan Gibbs (Myers), Don Starr (Preacher), Jerry Marin (Carnival performer), Sari Price (Valley woman), Sandy Acker (First twin), Cindy Acker (Second twin).

182 Alexander the Great. (Pilot; Drama; ABC; 1/26/68). The pilot episode for a proposed series based on stories from the Bible. The story, set in 333 B.C., tells of the historic battle of Issus in which Alexander's Greek forces met the opposing Persian army.

Cast: William Shatner (Alexander), John Casavetes (General Karonos), Joseph Cotten (General Antigonos), Simon Oakland (Attalos), Cliff Osmond (General Memnon), Ziva Rodann (Ada), Adam West (Cleander).

183 ALF. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1986–1990). William ("Willie") Tanner, his wife, Kate, and their children, Lynn, Brian and infant son Eric, live at 167 Hemdale Street in Los Angeles (the locale is also given as San Francisco). Willie works for the Los Angeles Department of Social Services and enjoys communicating with people around the world via his short wave radio (call letters KC276XAA). One night, while he is operating the radio, the frequencies interfere with those of an alien's spacecraft. The alien pilot loses control of his craft and crashes into the Tanners' garage roof. Willie rescues the Alien Life Form (ALF) and finds he has a new family member when ALF tells him that the parts he needs to repair his ship are unknown on Earth. Stories follow ALF's attempts to adjust to life on Earth.

ALF is short and furry (burnt sienna color) with off-black eyes, a large snout, four teeth and an enormous appetite (his favorite food is "everything with everything on it"; but he prefers Siamese cats).

ALF, real name Gordon Shumway, was born on the planet Melmac 229 years ago. He first mentions he was born on the twenty-eighth of Nathanganger, then to parents Bob, Biff and Flo on August 12 and October 2, 1757. ALF holds degrees in software and pedestrian crossing; he attended Melmac High School for 122 years and Melmac State College for two years.

When ALF first moved in with the Tanners, he lived in the laundry basket next to the washing machine; he later resides in the attic (he hides under the kitchen table when the doorbell rings).

Willie considers ALF “my own personal hell” (ALF is very mischievous and forever getting Willie into trouble). Willie, a social science major, and Kate, an art history major, met at Amherst College in Massachusetts. They married on July 11, 1967, and honeymooned in Niagara Falls at the Duke of Mist Hotel. Lynn attends South Bay High School. She wanted to attend Amherst College, but was unable (because of the extra expenses required to care for ALF); she chose to attend State University. Brian attends Franklin Elementary School. Lucky the cat was the original family pet (whom ALF tried to hypnotize into believing he was a bagel so ALF could eat him). When Lucky passed away, the Tanners got another cat that they named Lucky II (ALF called him Flipper).

Relatives: Anne Meara (Kate’s mother, Dorothy Halligan), Jim J. Bullock (Willie’s brother, Neal Tanner), Elisha Cook, Jr. (Willie’s uncle, Albert), Allyce Beasley (Neal’s ex-wife, Barbara), Lisa Buckley (ALF’s girlfriend, Rhonda), Bob Fappiano (ALF’s friend, Skip).

Flash Forwards: Andrea Elson (adult Lynn), Edward Edwards (adult Brian), Mark Blankfield (adult Eric).

Cast: Max Wright (Willie Tanner), Anne Schedeen (Kate Tanner), Andrea Elson (Lynn Tanner), Benjamin Gregory (Brian Tanner), Paul Fusco (Voice of ALF), J.R. and Charles Nickerson (Eric Tanner). Theme: “ALF” by Alf Clausen and Tim Kramer.

184 ALF. (Series; Cartoon; NBC; 1987–1988). A Saturday morning extension series based on the prime time live action series of the same title (see ALF (1986) for background information). The program relates the alien ALF’s adventures on his home planet, Melmac, where, before the planet blew up, he was known as Gordon Shumway.

Voice Cast: Paul Fusco (Gordon Shumway), Prunella Gillis, Len Carlson, Greg Morton, Peggy Mahon, Thick Wilson, Dan Hennessey, Don Francks.

185 ALF Tales. (Series; Cartoon; NBC; 1989–1990). A revised version of the 1987 animated ALF series that relates incidents in the life of Gordon Shumway, a resident of the planet Melmac, as he interacts with his family (Bob and Flo, his parents; Augie and Curtis, his siblings), his friend Skip and his girlfriend Rhonda. Gordon received the name ALF (Alien Life Form) when he crashed his space ship on Earth (see the 1986 ALF series) and was taken in by the Tanner family.

Voice Cast: Paul Fusco (Gordon Shumway), Peggy Mahon (Flo Shumway), Thick Wilson (Bob Shumway), Paulina Gillis (Augie Shumway), Noam Zylberman (Curtis Shumway), Paulina Gillis (Rhonda), Rob Cowan (Skip), Thick Wilson (Larson Petty), Dan Hennessey (Egbert Petty).

186 Alfred Hitchcock Presents. (Series; Anthology; CBS; NBC; 1955–1965). Well produced, acted, written and directed mystery and suspense productions that have director Alfred Hitchcock’s familiar ring: the evil get their just deserts — but often it is not fully shown and the viewer is left to imagine what it could be. The series aired on CBS (30 minutes) from October 2, 1955 to September 25, 1960; on NBC (30 minutes) from September 27, 1960 to September 18, 1962; on CBS (60 minutes) from September 20, 1962 to September 18, 1964; and on NBC (60 minutes) from October 5, 1964 to September 6, 1965. 268 episodes aired as Alfred Hitchcock Presents (30 minutes); 93 episodes aired as The Alfred Hitchcock Hour.

Host: Alfred Hitchcock. Performers Include: Cara Williams, Vera Miles, Cloris Leachman, Ralph Meeker, Gene Barry, Barry Fitzgerald, Carolyn Jones, Claude Rains, Steve McQueen, Claire Trevor, Patricia Hitchcock, Joanne Woodward, Inger Stevens, John Williams, Gary Merrill, Theodore Bikel, William Shatner, Jack Klugman, E.G. Marshall, Jean Hagen, Martin Balsam, Barbara Bel Geddes, Fay Wray, Julie Adams, Chill Willis, Patricia Breslin, Lori March, Art Carney, Bette Davis, Roger Moore, Patrick Macnee, Walter Matthau, Joseph Cotten, James Coburn, Suzanne Pleshette, Peter Lorre, Gia Scala, Peter Graves, Zohra Lambert, Ruth Roman, William Conrad, Peter Falk, Lola Albright, Peggy Ann Garner, John Lupton. Theme Music: “Theme from Alfred Hitchcock Presents” (based on Gounod’s Funeral March of a Marionette) by Stanley Wilson, Lyn Murray.

187 Alfred Hitchcock Presents. (Series; Anthology; NBC; 1985–1986). An updated version of the 1955–1965 series of the same title that presents mystery and suspense stories with twist endings. Opening and closing segments, which feature Alfred Hitchcock as the host, are computer colored openings and closings from the original series. The series aired from September 29, 1985 to July 26, 1986.

Host: Alfred Hitchcock. Performers Include: Kathleen Quinlan, Edward Woodward, Bruce Gray, Melissa Sue Anderson, Carolyn Dunn, Elizabeth Lennie, Art Hindle, Barclay Hope, Cec Linder, Mary Beth Rubens, Cheryl Wilson, Laurie Paton, Robert Morelli, Frank Adamson, Kate Trotter, Ann-Marie MacDonald, John Colicos.

188 Alfred of the Amazon. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 7/31/67). The not-so-heroic exploits of Alfred of the Amazon, a bumbling jungle adventurer who owns a South American rubber plantation and fights injustice in his spare time. In the pilot episode, titled “Two Shrunken Heads Are Better Than One,” Alfred attempts to rescue the kidnapped daughter of a missing scientist. Other Regulars: Willy, Alfred’s aide; Simba, Alfred’s guide.

Cast: Wally Cox (Alfred of the Amazon), Allan Melvin (Willy), Mako (Simba). Guest Cast: Susan Oden (Jennifer), Paul Hartman (Dr. Schwimmer), Leon Askin (Herr Futterman).

189 ALF’s Hit Talk Show. (Series; Talk; TV Land; 2004). ALF, the lovable alien who plagued the lives of an Earth family on ALF (see entry) returns (from his planet, Melmac) to host his own talk show and interview celebrity guests. The show is meant to be comical as it focuses on ALF’s quirky sense of humor as he interviews real celebrities (Like Linda Blair, Drew Carey, Tom Arnold). Ed McMahon, Johnny Carson’s former sidekick, co-hosts and announces while comedian Kevin Butler, ALF’s protégé, hosts the remote sidewalk interview segment.

Cast: Paul Fusco (Voice of ALF), Ed McMahon (Ed McMahon), Kevin Butler (Kevin Butler).

190 Algo’s Factory. (Series; Children; UPN; 1998–1999). Erin, her brother Brian (whom she calls Brain), Whitney and Robert are four pre-teen children who enjoy working with computers. One day Erin acquires a disk at a flea market called “Mind Mine.” Brian places it in his computer. After it loads, the room shakes and a voice is heard: “You have accessed Mind Mine Alpha. This is a restricted area. Enter your password now.” As a joke, Erin types in “Brain.” The four are instantly transported to a strange place called Desk Top, a somewhat pathetic-looking lab that is run by Algo Rhythm, an animated computer brain that is seen on a monitor. Algo, as it is called, is assisted by computer bytes Pointer, Ram and Hard Drive. The children also meet Al, a scientist of sorts who explains that Desk Top is a lab where items thought up by the human mind (in the adjoining but not seen Mind Mine building) are tested and developed if practical. The program teaches children about science as Erin, Whitney, Robert and Brian assist Al in various experiments.

Cast: Al Westbrook (Al), Bethany Santiago (Erin), Angelica Chitwood (Whitney), Adam Ward (Robert), James Sorbel, Jr. (Brian).

191 Alias. (Series; Adventure; ABC; 2001–2006). Sydney Bristow appears to be an ordinary girl. She is young and attractive and attends the University graduate school. She is also a double agent — working as a spy for the real CIA in an effort to destroy SD-6, a branch of the CIA that is actually a secret enemy of the U.S. government.

For Sydney, it began one fall afternoon during her freshman year at Berkeley. She was seated on a bench when approached by a man representing the U.S. government. “He said he might be interested in talking to me about a job. When I asked why me, all he told me was that I fit a profile. I felt like I didn’t belong anywhere, even college and I needed the money — I met with him and he offered me a job.” That job, Sydney was told, was as an agent for SD-6, a covert branch of the CIA. In reality, SD-6 “is part of the enemy.” It was formed a number of years ago by a dozen rogue agents who went freelance to form “The Alliance of Twelve,” an enemy of the government who use the facilities of the CIA to acquire what they need for themselves.

Sydney is trained and advanced quickly — “They said I was a natural.” Sydney has a photographic memory, is an expert shot and skilled in the martial arts. She carries lock picks in the heels of her shoes, is proficient with explosives and a master of disguise. Her actual status as a student provides her with the perfect cover. Sydney, however, makes one fatal mistake: she tells her fiancé that she is a spy. This results in his murder by the agency and Sydney discovering that her superior, Arvin Sloane, is an SD-6 leader and only using the CIA as a cover. She also learns that her father, Jack Bristow, is not who he appears to be. Sydney believed her father “sold airplane parts” for Jennings Aerospace. He is, however, a double agent — working for the CIA as an undercover agent in SD-6 to help bring it down. To get even for the wrong that was done to her, Sydney sides with her father and offers her services to Jack’s superior, Michael Vaughn, a real CIA agent who is also seeking to destroy SD-6.

When Sydney first meets with Vaughn, the operations director, she believes she can complete her mission “in a matter of months and then I quit.” But when Vaughn shows her a map of how “The Alliance of Twelve” has grown to all areas of the country, Sydney agrees to stay until she can expose the leaders of SD-6.

SD-6 is so secretive and elite that agents of the CIA headed by Sloane are unaware that they are actually working for the enemy. One such agent is Marcus Dixon, Sydney’s partner on assignments. Dixon’s cover is that of an investment analyst “who loves his job” (even his wife, Diane, is unaware of his true occupation). Sydney becomes a double agent when she performs missions for SD-6 but passes the results of those missions on to the CIA.

A bank called Credit Dauphine houses the secretive SD-6. Marshall is another in-the-dark CIA agent who is actually helping SD-6 with the ingenious weapons he creates for Sydney's extremely dangerous assignments

In the episode of 11/18/01, Jack's cover for Jennings Aerospace is closed and he is given a new cover — that of Portfolio Manager for Credit Dauphine (in reality, he oversees operations established by Sloane). J.J. Abrams composed the theme.

An announcer opens the show: "CIA profile: Agent Sydney Bristow. Agent Bristow works undercover with her father, Jack Bristow, also a double agent with the CIA. Bristow's CIA contact: Michael Vaughn. Her current assignment: To infiltrate and destroy SD-6, a secret organization dealing in extortion, weapons sales and posing as the CIA."

Cast: Jennifer Garner (Sydney Bristow), Victor Garber (Jack Bristow), Ron Rifkin (Arvin Sloane), Carl Lumbly (Marcus Dixon), Kevin Weisman (Marshall Flinkman), Lena Olin (Irina Derevko), Melissa George (Lauren Reed), David Anders (Julia Sark), Merrin Dungey (Francine Calfol/Allison Doren), Bradley Cooper (Rachel Gibson), Elodie Bouchez (Renee Rienne), Yvonne Farrow (Diane Dixon).

192 Alias Mike Hercules. (Pilot; Crime Drama; ABC; 7/31/56). Mike Hercules is a two-fisted private detective working out of San Francisco. The pilot episode, filmed in 1954, relates Mike's attempts to rescue a wealthy ex-convict from a gang of kidnapers.

Cast: Hugh Beaumont (Mike Hercules). Guest Cast: Anne Kimball (Vivian Harding), Ellen Corby (Birdie Hackett), Reginald Denney (Professor), Marie Windsor (Lydia Tremaine), Victor Sen Yung (Charlie), Don Haggerty (Leo Brady), Roy Roberts (Walter Harding), Gregg Martell (Max Capallo).

193 Alias Smith and Jones. (Series; Western; ABC; 1971-1973). The series, set in Kansas during the 1890s, follows the misadventures of Jed "Kid" Curry and Hannibal Hayes, leaders of the infamous Devil Hole Gang and two of the West's most wanted outlaws, as they attempt to end their lives of crime and go straight. Unable to crack the newly developed safes and hoping to begin a new life, Curry and Hayes approach the governor and are granted a provisional amnesty, which will become a full pardon if, within twelve months, they can prove themselves worthy. Leaving the Devil Hole Gang, Curry and Hayes adopt the aliases of Thaddeus Jones (Curry) and Joshua Smith (Hayes). Episodes relate their adventures as they roam the Kansas Territory and try to keep clear of troublesome situations that could endanger their pardons.

Other Regulars: Sheriff Lom Travers; Harry Briscoe, the Batterman detective seeking Hayes and Curry; Wheat, Lobo and Kyle, members of the Devil Hole Gang; Clementine Hale, Curry's friend; Big Mac McCree, a rancher; Silky O'Sullivan, a friend of Hayes and Curry; Blackjack Jenny, the card shark; Georgette Sinclair, a friend of Hayes and Curry; Winford Fletcher, the real estate broker.

Cast: Ben Murphy (Jed Curry/Thaddeus Jones), Peter Duel (Hannibal Hayes/Joshua Smith), Roger Davis (Hannibal Hayes/Joshua Smith; later), James Drury (Sheriff Lom Travers), J.D. Cannon (Harry Briscoe), Earl Holliman (Wheat), Read Morgan (Lobo), Dennis Fimple (Kyle), Sally Field (Clementine Hale), Burl Ives (Big Mac McCree), Walter Brennan (Silky O'Sullivan), Ann Sothorn (Blackjack Jenny), Michele Lee (Georgette Sinclair), Rudy Vallee (Winford Fletcher). Narrator: Roger Davis.

194 Alice. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1976-1985). Alice Spevak, Vera Louise Gorman and Florence Jean "Flo" Castleberry are waitresses who work for Melvin "Mel" Sharples, the stingy, always yelling owner of Mel's Diner, a roadside eatery at 1030 Bush Highway in Phoenix, Arizona.

Alice, born in New Jersey, attended Passaic High School and formed her own singing group, Alice and the Acorns. While working as a waitress at Vito's Bar and Grill in Newark, Alice met, fell in love with and married Donald Hyatt, a big rig trucker. Twelve years later, after Donald's death in a truck related accident, Alice chose to pursue her dream of becoming a singer. She and her son Tommy left New Jersey and headed west. Car trouble strands them in Phoenix where Alice took the job at Mel's as a temporary measure until she could get back on her feet.

Alice and Tommy first live at the Desert Sun Apartments (later the Phoenix Arms). Alice performs at various local clubs as she waits for that big break but often becomes depressed because she feels it will never happen. She is a very giving person and will help others.

Mel is also the diner's cook and is famous for his chili. He served a hitch with the Navy during the Korean War and is also the landlord of the neighboring Mother Goose Preschool. The only way Mel knows how to be nice to his waitresses is to scream at them. Mel also stands up for what he believes in "and it doesn't matter which waitress gets into trouble for it."

Vera, called "Dingie" by Mel, lives at the Sun Rise Apartments with her cat (Mel) and hamsters Harold and Mitzi. Vera is young, shy and pretty but feels she has no sex appeal. She is very clumsy (one of the reasons why Mel is always yelling at her), plays the cello and is an excellent tap dancer. She found someone who saw through all her faults — Elliott Novak, a police officer she later married.

Flo, the wise-cracking waitress, is famous for her "Kiss my grits" comeback line. She is sassy, dresses as sexy as permitted by television at the time and while not seen, wears "peek-a-boo nighties" at bedtime. She lives in a mobile home at the Desert Trailer

Park and frequents a bar called Shake Chug-a-Lug. Flo taught Alice how to insult Mel (mostly his cooking). Flo was the first waitress to leave Mel's. She was offered a job as hostess at the Thundering Herd Restaurant in Houston, but after returning to her home town of Cowntown, Texas, she decides to stay and open her own bar, Flo's Golden Rose. See Flo, the spin off series for more information.

Marie was the first waitress Mel hired to replace Flo. Marie and Mel date, fight, breakup, get back together again and fight. When Marie receives a job offer at the Shake Chug-a-Lug for a salary that Mel can't match ($400 a week), she quits. Shortly after, Belle DuPree, a former waitress of Mel's ("The best waitress I ever had"), returns to Phoenix to further her dream of becoming a country and western singer by offering a song to Tammy Wynette and Waylon Jennings (who are performing in town). When she fails to impress their manager, she returns to Mel's and is offered the waitress job.

Belle, originally from Mississippi, now lives at 1112 Aston Drive in Phoenix. Belle, who wears bells in her earrings ("because my name is Belle") believes there is a soft spot in Mel "somewhere." Belle is on vacation in Nashville when Jolene Hunnicutt wanders into Mel's Diner after a fight with her truck-driving partner (who wanted to be more than just a friend). Mel receives a phone call from Belle telling him that her cousin is starting a band and she is going to be a backup singer. Jolene happens to be in the right place at the right time and gets the waitress job.

Jolene was born in South Carolina and now lives at the Pine Valley Apartments. She has a dream of opening her own beauty shop. Mel calls the sassy Jolene "Blondie."

Tommy had his first crush on Brooke Shields (although Vera believes she was his first crush). He attends Hidden Valley High School and is a member of the Coyotes basketball team; he later attends Arizona State College (he is a sophomore when the series ends).

Henry Beismeyer is Mel's most loyal customer (even though he constantly complains how bad the food is). Earl Hicks is the high school coach.

In the series last episode, Mel sells the diner, which he has owned for 27 years to the Ferguson Brothers (who plan to tear it down). Alice finally gets her big break and moves to Nashville to sing with Travis Marsh. Vera discovered she was pregnant at the same time Elliott got a promotion; and Jolene opened her own beauty parlor with the money she inherited from her grandmother.

Cast: Linda Lavin (Alice Hyatt), Philip McKeon (Tommy Hyatt), Vic Tayback (Mel Sharples), Polly Holliday (Florence Jean "Flo" Castleberry), Beth Howland (Vera Gorman), Diane Ladd (Belle DuPree), Celia Weston (Jolene Hunnicutt), Victoria Carroll (Marie Massey), Henry Kaplan (Henry Beismeyer), Dave Madden (Earl Hicks), Tom Mahoney (Travis), Pat Cranshaw (Andy), Patrick J. Cronin (Jason), Bob McClury (Cecil), Duane Campbell (Chuck), Michael Ballard (Mike), Alan Haufrect (Charlie), Bob Ari (Larry), Jerry Potter (Jerry), Martha Raye (Carrie Sharples), Ruth Buzzi (Chloe Beismeyer), Doris Roberts (Mona Spevak), Carmine Carisi (Al Sharples), Pat Benson (Margie Hicks), Annrae Walterhouse (Debbie), Charles Levin (Elliott Novack), Eileen Heckart (Rose Hyatt), Forrest Tucker (Edsel Jarvis Castleberry), Mildred Natwick (Vera's Aunt Agatha), David Rounds (Mel's Cousin Wendell), Merie Earle (Mel's Grandma Sharples), Gregory Walcott (Big Jake Hunnicutt), Trevor Henley (Jesse Hunnicutt), Kent Perkins (Jasper Hunnicutt), Grant Wilson (Jeremy Hunnicutt), Robin Eurich (Jimmy Hunnicutt), Steve McGriff (Jake Hunnicutt, Jr.), Natalie Masters (Jolene's Granny Gums), Michael Durrell (Nicholas Stone), Doug Robinson (Doug). Theme Vocal: "There's a New Girl in Town" by Linda Lavin.

195 The Alice Pearce Show. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1949). A quarter-hour of comedy with comedienne Alice Pearce and her guests.

Hostess: Alice Pearce. Pianist: Mark Lawrence.

196 Alien Nation. (Series; Science Fiction; Fox; 1989–1990). The series is set in Los Angeles in 1995. Little Tencton is a special area where aliens from the planet Tencton now live. Five years earlier, a slave ship from another galaxy landed in a remote section of the Mojave Desert. Aboard the craft were 250,000 workers bred to survive in any environment. When it is learned that the craft is inoperable and impossible to fix (needed materials do not exist on Earth), the government assimilates them into Los Angeles society. Stories follow the experiences of one such family — the Franciscos, who live in house number 1377: George, his wife, Susan, and their children, Emily, Buck and infant Vessna.

George, whose alien name is Neemo, is a detective with the Central Homicide Division of the L.A.P.D. He works with Earth detective Matthew Sikes. George won the Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Standing Tall Citizenship Award and earns $100 a week more than Sikes (George is the first alien to become a detective, second grade). Their car code is 1-William-52.

Cathy Frankel is Matthew's neighbor, a beautiful alien who lives in Apartment 204. Her alien name is Gelana, and she works as a biochemist at the Newcomers' Behavioral Center.

The aliens are referred to both as the Newcomers and by the slang term Slags. They have two hearts and require ultraviolet light for energy. The aliens fear salt water (which burns) and cannot eat Earth foods made from meat or animal fat. They speak the Tenctonese language and celebrate a special day called the Day of Descent (the day they landed on Earth). The show is based on the 1988 feature film of the same title. Joe Harnell composed the “Alien Nation” theme.

Cast: Eric Pierpoint (George Francisco), Michele Scarabelli (Susan Francisco), Lauren Woodland (Emily Francisco), Sean Six (Buck Francisco), Gary Graham (Matthew Sikes), Terri Treas (Cathy Frankel), James Greene (Uncle Moodri), Michele Lamar Richards (Dr. Lois Allen), Ron Fassler (Capt. Byron Grazer), Jeff Marcus (Albert Eilstein), Lawrence Hilton-Jacobs (Sergeant Dobbs).

197 Alien Racers. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 2005). Xeno Energy is an ancient source of power that is protected by an alien race called the Zenterrans. Xeno Energy has the ability to create weapons but also the ability to heal the sick. All races in the universe have sought the Xeno Energy for centuries. To avoid devastating battles for its acquisition, the Zenterrans organize an intergalactic vehicle race on the planet Xenoc with the winner being awarded the ultimate prize — Xeno Energy. Xenoc is a primitive, highly unstable planet with countless dangers and stories follow the alien racers (who have come from every planet in the galaxy) as they compete for the ultimate prize.

Voice Cast: Brian Dobson (Ultrox), Dale Wilson (Master Khadan), Lee Tockar (Kommander Necraal), Danny McKinnon (Jek), Doron Bell (G'rog), Ian James Corlett (Vakkon), Ian James Corlett (Skrash), Michael Dobson (Minister Prime Apex), Paul Dobson (Warcoil), Brian Drummond (Okular), Ellie Harvie (Gamekeeper Kytani), Pamela Hyatt (Kraggan Empress), Janyse Jaud (Talanna), Alessandro Juliani (Undermaster).

198 The Aliens Are Coming. (Pilot; Science Fiction; NBC; 3/2/80). Disembodied extraterrestrials from an unknown planet land in southern Nevada with a plan to colonize Earth. The would-be series was to depict the exploits of Dr. Scott Dryden, an astrophysicist with Nero International, as he battles aliens who possess humans to achieve their evil goals. The pilot episode relates Scott's efforts to foil an alien plot to control Hoover Dam (they require hydroelectric power to sustain themselves). Other Regulars: Gwen O'Brien, Scott's assistant; and Leonard Nero, the head of Nero International.

Cast: Tom Mason (Dr. Scott Dryden), Melinda Fee (Gwen O'Brien), Eric Braeden (Leonard Nero). Guest Cast: Max Gail (Russ Garner), Caroline McWilliams (Sue Garner), Matthew Laborteaux (Timmy Garner), Fawne Harriman (Joyce Cummings), Ron Masak (Harve Nelson), John Milford (Eldon Gates), Hank Brandt (John Sebastian).

199 Aliens in America. (Series; Comedy; CW; 2007–2008). Justin Tolchuck is the 16-year-old son of Franny and Gary Tolchuck. He has a sister, Claire, and the family lives in Medora, a conservative community in Wisconsin.

Franny is a take charge woman; Gary is an aspiring entrepreneur (schemer); Claire is a gorgeous and popular teenager; and Justin is shy, insecure and socially awkward. He feels that he will never become one of “the cool kids” at school. In an attempt to help Justin, Franny hits on a plan to host a foreign exchange student — one she envisions as “an athletic, brilliant Nordic teen.” What the family gets is Raja Mursharaff, a 16-year-old Muslim from a small village in Pakistan. Raja, as foreign as foreigners can be in Medora, is thoughtful, wise and responsible — not what Franny had in mind to help Justin achieve “coolness.” Claire is too occupied being herself and boys to really notice; Gary sees the monthly check ($500) the exchange program sends for expense as a gift to help him finance one of his ventures; and Justin is not overly thrilled about Raja — until he gets to know him and becomes his guide to introduce him to the American way of life. Stories follow Raja's experiences as he attempts to become part of a society that he finds intriguing but totally foreign to him. Raja acquired his first job as a clerk in a convenience store called Spend 'n Leave. Ashley, Emma, Claire and Brittney are Gary's pet El Pacas (wooly lambs); Mr. Matthews is the school principal.

Cast: Dan Byrd (Justin Tolchuck), Amy Pietz (Franny Tolchuck), Scott Patterson (Gary Tolchuck), Lindsey Shaw (Claire Tolchuck), Adhir Kalyan (Raja Mursharaff), Christopher B. Duncan (Mr. Matthews).

200 Aliens in the Family. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1996). Doug Brody is an earthling with aliens in his family. He was abducted by Cookie, a stunningly beautiful alien scientist from the Neutron Galaxy who instead of extracting his brain for research, fell in love with him and married him.

Doug is a single father with two children (Heather and Adam); Cookie is separated from her alien mate and the mother of their three bug-eyed, fish-faced children (who take after their father): Snizzie, Spit and Bobut. Cookie elects to live on Earth with Doug (they reside in Sherwood Hills, California) and stories follow events in the lives of the Brody family as they go about their not-so normal lives (the world is aware of Cookie and her children and they are accepted by society).

Doug works for Trans Global International (exactly what the company does is not stated). Cookie was a DNA scientist; Heather, Snizzie and Spit attend Sherwood Hills High School; Adam is in grammar school and Bobut is a super intelligent infant (an electronic puppet) who is being groomed by Cookie to become the emperor of the universe. The aliens believe that moths are the most intelligent life form on Earth.

Cast: Margaret Trigg (Cookie Brody), John Bedford Lloyd (Doug Brody), Paige Tiffany (Heather Brody), Chris Marquette (Adam Brody), Michelan Sisti (Spit Brody), Alice Dinnean (Snizzie Brody), John Kennedy (Voice of Bobut), Julie Dretzin (Sally Hagen; their neighbor), Michael Gilden (Voice of Snizzie), David Rudman (Voice of Bobut), Michael Sisti (Voice of Spit), Joey Mazzarino (Voice of Spit).

201 Alive and Well. (Series; Magazine; Syn.; 1984). A daily series that attempts to help people by providing health tips and advice from experts in the field.

Host: Mike Jerrick, Marion Ross, Linda Arkin. Regulars: Cathy Rigby, Joanne Carson. Theme Music: "Alive and Well" by Christopher L. Stone.

202 Alkali Ike. (Series; Children; CBS; 1950). Stories revolve around the efforts of Alkali Ike, the puppet of ventriloquist Al Robinson, to learn how to live an interesting and more meaningful life despite the mischief he always manages to get into. A short-lived series that ran from April 17, 1950 to May 11, 1950.

Host: Al Robinson. Regulars: The Slim Jackson Quartet.

203 All Aboard. (Series; Children; CBS; 1950). A children's variety series that features ventriloquist Skeets Minton and the antics of his dummy, Jimmy Morton. The program also showcases performances by guest celebrities.

Host: Skeets Minton. Regular: June Keegan.

204 All About Barbara. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 9/2/63). The story of Barbara Adams, a musical comedy star who gives up the stage to marry James Hadley, a small town college professor (at Claridge College). The pilot episode relates the would-be series storyline as Barbara and James marry and Barbara attempts to adjust to her new life as a wife. Other Regulars: Albert Murdock, the dean; Sybil Murdock, Albert's wife; Ray Biddle, the coach; Shirley Biddle, Ray's wife.

Cast: Barbara Nichols (Barbara Adams), William Bishop (James Hadley), Larry Keating (Albert Murdock), Bea Benaderet (Sybil Murdock), Willard Waterman (Ray Biddle), Shirley Mitchell (Shirley Biddle).

205 All About Faces. (Series; Game; Syn.; 1971). Two teams compete, each composed of two celebrities. A film, which involves unsuspecting people in a prearranged situation, is played and stopped prior to its conclusion. Based on the facial expressions and mannerisms of the people involved, the teams have to predict the outcome—whether or not the individual went along with the situation. Teams begin with $50 and bet as they wish. After the bets, the film is played to reveal the outcome. Money is awarded or deducted accordingly. Winning teams (highest scorers) donate their earnings to charity.

Host: Richard Hayes. Regulars: Glenda Jones, Ken Deas, Andy Kunkel.

206 All About Music. (Series; Variety; ABC; 1957). A three-week interim series of programs devoted to specific forms of music: Calypso (Program 1, April 7, 1957), American Folk (Program 2, April 14, 1957) and Jazz (Program 3, April 21, 1957).

Performers: Johnny Banacuda, Helen Ferguson, Pearl Gonzalez, The Duke of Iron, The Trini Dancers, The Versatones, Susan Reed, Jack Dabodoub, Buzz Miller, Rudy Tronto, Gomez Delappe, Bruce King, Bruce Bradley, The Nelle Fisher Dancers, Lawrence Winters. Music (Program 1): The King Carib Stud Band. Music Director (Program 2): Al Rickey. Music Director (Program 3): Paul Whiteman.

207 All About the Andersons. (Series; Comedy; WB; 2003). Anthony Anderson is a hopeful actor living in New York City and the father of a young son named Tuga. When his wife, Cherie, leaves him (she just walked out on him), and Anthony is unable to make a living as an actor, he decides to move back to Los Angeles and into the home of his parents, Joe and Flo, to raise Tuga and pursue his acting career. In the meantime, Anthony agrees to work for his parents (two days a week) at their shop, Joe and Flo's Barber and Beauty Salon.

Stories follow Anthony's efforts to raise his son (with the help of his parents) and his efforts to succeed as an actor. When he finds this may not become a reality (no jobs) he begins throwing lingerie parties selling San Pierre Lingerie. Also living with the Andersons is Lydia Sorano, a medical student who rents a room in their home (at 266 Crestview Drive).

Cast: Anthony Anderson (Himself), John Amos (Joe Anderson), Roz Ryan (Flo Anderson), Damani Roberts (Tuga Anderson), Aimee Garcia (Lydia Sorano).

208 All About the Opposite Sex. (Series; Game; Syn.; 1990). Two teams compete, the male vs. the female, to determine which team knows more about the opposite sex. A question that refers to one team is read. A member of the opposing team must predict how his or her opponents answered it (a choice of three possible answers is given). Points are scored for a correct response. Several such rounds are played. The team with the highest score wins $1,000.

Host: David Sparks. Announcer: Larry Van Nys.

209 All About Us. (Series; Magazine; Syn.; 1985). A daily program that presents stories on unusual and interesting people.

Host: Ron Hendren. Regulars: Dr. Joyce Brothers, Michael Reagan, Sandra Sharp, David Sparks.

210 All About Us. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 2001–2002). Alecia, Christina, Nikki and Sierra are 16-year-old girls who attend Belmont High School in Chicago. The girls are also very best friends and stories relate incidents in their lives.

Alecia was born in Alabama and relocated to Chicago when her father received a job transfer. She is a talented singer and songwriter (of rock ballads) and hopes to become a professional singer. Alecia is friendly, will go out of her way to help people but hates confrontation.

Christina loves sports and is a member of the school's basketball team, the Bulldogs. She appears to be very sweet but if she feels she has been betrayed "she can hold a serious grudge." Christina's father owns a pizzeria (Castelli's Pizza) and she often works there on weekends.

Nikki is the most fashionable of the girlfriends. She is into makeup and clothes and feels she always has to look her best. She is also the most confident of her friends and has a positive attitude about everything.

Sierra is the activist of the group and will stand up to fight for what she believes in. Sierra is very smart and a careful planner. She is highly motivated and likes to get things done. She and her friends hang out at a club called The Loft.

Other Regulars: Charlie, Alecia's brother; Donna Alcott, Alecia's mother; and Steven Castelli, Christina's brother.

Cast: Alecia Elliott (Alecia Alcott), Marieh Delfino (Nikki Merrick), Alicia Lagano (Christina Castelli), Crystal Grant (Sierra Jennings), Shannon O'Hurley (Donna Alcott), Joel Anderson (Charles Alcott), Eddie Matos (Steve Castelli).

211 The All American College Comedy Show. (Pilot; Variety; CBS; 12/14/79). The program gives college students a chance at stardom by allowing them to perform their own original material (anything from songs and dances to joke telling and pantomime).

Hostess: Jaye P. Morgan.

212 All American Girl. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1994–1995). Margaret Kim is an economics major at San Francisco State College. She is the Korean daughter of Benjamin and Kathryn and has two brothers, Stuart and Eric. Also living with them is Benjamin's mother, Yunnice Kim (called Grandma).

Benjamin and Kathryn are very strict parents who treasure their Korean heritage and have tried to instill this philosophy in each of their children. Stuart and Eric have encompassed that training; but Margaret loves the American way of life and often finds herself breaking family tradition as she becomes that all American girl (and causing mild friction in the family).

Margaret and her girlfriends, Ruthie and Gloria work as salesgirls at Drummond Cosmetics Counter in the mall. Stuart is a cardiology resident at Memorial Hospital; Benjamin and Kathryn own Kim's Books on Hyde Place; Yunnice is addicted to TV and must have her daily soap operas (from which she relates aspects of life). While stories focus on events in the daily lives of the family, particular attention is paid to Margaret as she tries to please her parents but still experience what she believes is the right life for her.

Cast: Margaret Cho (Margaret Kim), Clyde Kusatsu (Benjamin Kim), Jodi Long (Kathryn Kim), Amy Hill (Yunnice Kim), B.D. Wong (Stuart Kim), J.B. Quon (Eric Kim), Maddie Corman (Ruthie Latham), Ashley Johnson (Gloria).

213 All American Girl. (Series; Reality; Fox; 2003). Forty-five women, chosen from open auditions, compete for the title of "All American Girl." Thirty girls are eliminated in the first episode based on their performances in a talent competition and on an obstacle course. The remaining girls are divided into three teams of five, each of which is headed by a celebrity coach. The girls endure training camp activities that are designed to hone their mental and physical skills (including acting, dancing, sports and singing). Each week the girls are judged by their performances in physical contests with the worst performers being eliminated. When three contestants remain, viewer votes decides the winner, the girl who excels in charm, beauty and overall arts and sports ability. Contestant Jessica Felice won the competition.

Host: Mitch Mullany. Team Coaches: Suzanne DePasse, Gerri Halliwell, John Salley. Vocal Coach: Michelle Ann Owens. Girls: Jessica Felice, Kristi Foster, Natalie White, Ali Hotmer, Tarah Paige, Shannon McConnell, Andrea Lyrem, Monica Palumbo, Kira Pozahli, Ashley Esqueda.

214 All American Pie. (Pilot; Human Interest; ABC; 8/17/80). A proposed series that was to showcase the activities of ordinary people at work and play.

Host: Joe Namath.

215 All Around the Town. (Live Test Program; Human Interest; CBS; 6/8/46). A man-in-the-street type of program with the host interviewing average people who pass by Vanderbilt Avenue and 42nd Street in New York City — just below CBS TV's studios (where two cameras were set up).

Host: Gil Fates.

216 All Around Town. (Series; Interview; CBS; 1951–1952). The program features interviews with people from all walks of life.

Host: Mike Wallace, Buff Cobb.

217 All Dogs Go to Heaven: The Series. (Series; Cartoon; ABC; 1996–1998). A television adaptation of the feature film All Dogs Go to Heaven 2 (which is a continuation of All Dogs Go to Heaven). Charlie B. Barkin (a German shepherd) and Itch Itchiford (a flea-bitten Dachshund) are friends who are also guardian angels assigned to help people and dogs on earth. They have taken up residence in San Francisco and while they do help where they can, they also have their faults, especially Charlie — who was a gambler and now uses scams to help those in need. Stories follow their adventures as they try to stay on the straight and narrow while tending to business. Anabelle (a whippet) is their boss, the Archangel of Canine Heaven (she has to keep an extra special eye on Charlie and exonerate him from the troublesome situations he often gets himself into); Sasha La Flew (an Irish setter) is the owner of a café called The Flea Bite; Bess is Itchy's girlfriend; Carface Carruthers (a pit bull) is Charlie's old nemesis, a mean dog who likes to cause trouble; Killer (a mutt) is Carface's wimpy associate; Belladonna is Anabelle's villainous cousin who also likes to make trouble.

Voice Cast: Steven Weber (Charlie B. Barkin), Dom DeLuise (Itchy Itchiford), Sheena Easton (Sasha), Ernest Borgnine (Carface), Charles Nelson Reilly (Killer), Ernest Borgnine (Killer), April Winchell (Bess), Bebe Neuwirth (Anabelle), Bebe Neuwirth (Belladonna).

218 All Grown Up. (Series; Cartoon; Nickelodeon; 2003–2007). An updated version of The Rugrats that advances the infants to the age of ten. The former Rugrats gang (Tommy, Chuckie, Susie, Angelica, Kimi, Betty and Phil and Lil) are as mischievous as ever and stories follow their adventures as adolescents. New to the cast are Savannah, Angelica's rival (to be the most popular girl); Rachael, the girl on whom Tommy has a crush; Harold, Susie and Angelica's best friend; Nicole, Chuckie's friend; Estes Pangborn, a former wrestler (known as Slam-bang) is the school principal.

Voice Cast: Elizabeth Daly (Tommy Pickles), Nancy Cartwright (Phil and Lil), Kath Soucie (Betty DeVille), Dionne Quan (Kimi Finster), Cheryl Chase (Angelica Pickles), Cree Summer (Susie Carmichael), Meagan Smith (Rachael), Lizzie Murray (Nicole Moscarelli), Shayna Fox (Savannah), Clancy Brown (Estes Pangborn), Tara Strong (Dil Pickles), Jack Riley (Stu Pickles), Melanie Chartoff (Didi Pickles), Michael Bell (Chazz Finster/Drew Pickles), Julia Kato (Kira Finster), Phil Proctor (Howard DeVille), Tress MacNeille (Charlotte Pickles), Joe Alaskey (Grandpa Lou Pickles), Laraine Newman (Samantha Shane), Heidi Anderson (Tiffany Lander), Pat Musick (Harold Rumkin).

219 All in Fun. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1955). A two-week interim series of music, songs and light comedy.

Host (Program 1, April 2, 1955): Charlie Applewhite. Host (Program 2, April 9, 1955): George DeWitt. Guests: Lou Marks, Al Fisher, Jim Jeffries, The Fontaine Sisters, The Step Brothers, Johnny Mercer, Lou Fisher, Al Marks, The Goofers.

220 All in One. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1952–1953). A live variety series from New York in which guest comics perform sketches on a bare stage (the object being to allow the home audience to visualize the sets and props). Although unique for its time, the series only ran for a short time (December 27, 1952 to January 17, 1953).

Host: George DeWitt.

221 All in the Family. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 3/28/60). A sophisticated comedy about the Randalls, a wealthy family who must learn to live with sudden poverty when their wealth is lost through bad investments. In this pilot (a sequel to I Remember Caviar; see entry), family members Maggie and Caroline, who have become interior decorators, seek a contract to redecorate the office of an old family friend. Aired on Goodyear Theater. Other Regulars: Eric, Maggie's brother; Ansol Pryor, Caroline's romantic interest; David, Maggie's boyfriend.

Cast: Patricia Crowley (Maggie Randall), Lurene Tuttle (Caroline Randall), Edward Mallory (Eric Randall), Henry Hull (Ansol Pryor), Adam West (David). Guest Cast: Sue Ane Langdon (Kitty), Alma Murphy (Bertha), Helene Heigh (Woman).

222 All in the Family. (Unaired Pilot; Comedy; Produced in 1968 and 1969). Two pilots were made prior to the CBS series that ran from 1971 to 1979 and starred Carroll O'Connor (Archie Bunker), Jean Stapleton (Edith Bunker), Sally Struthers (Gloria Stivic) and Rob Reiner (Mike Stivic). In 1968, Norman Lear produced a pilot, based on the British TV series Till Death Do Us Part, called Those Were the Days, about an argumentative father and his son-in-law. When ABC rejected it, a second pilot was taped, but this too was rejected by ABC. Two years later, CBS approached Lear with a firm commitment to tape 13 episodes. Sally Struthers and Rob Reiner were signed to co-star with Carroll O'Connor and Jean Stapleton and it went on to become a landmark series.

The two prior pilots used the same storyline as the actual first episode of the series (a surprise anniversary party for Archie becomes an argument when Mike and Gloria accuse Archie of being a bigot). Norman Lear originally envisioned Archie as Archie Justice, an elevator operator (not loading dock foreman) and had titled the idea "And Justice for All."

Cast (Those Were the Days): Carroll O'Connor (Archie), Jean Stapleton (Edith), Jean Peters (Gloria), Tim McIntire (Mike). Cast (And Justice for

All: Carroll O'Connor (Archie), Jean Stapleton (Edith), Candice Azzara (Gloria), Chip Oliver (Mike).

223 All in the Family. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1971–1979). In a quiet neighborhood at 704 Houser Street in Queens, New York, live Archie and Edith Bunker, their married daughter, Gloria, and Gloria's husband, Mike Stivic.

Archie works as a dock foreman for the Prendergast Tool and Dye Company and drives a cab to make extra money. Archie drinks Schlitz beer and is a member of the Royal Brotherhood of the Kings of Queens Lodge. He later becomes the owner of a bar he calls Archie Bunker's Place.

During World War II (the "Big One" as he calls it), Archie was first stationed at Fort Riley in Kansas. He later served 22 months in Italy with the Air Corps (where he was second in command of the motor pool). His hitch in the service earned him the Purple Heart, a good conduct medal and "a butt full of shrapnel — which is why I ain't danced with my wife for 30 years." "Whoop-dee-doo" is his catchphrase.

Archie grew up during the Great Depression. He is, today, a bigoted, uncouth, loud-mouthed conservative. Many of these traits come from his early upbringing where he was erroneously taught to believe in the superiority of his own race and to distrust foreign-born people of all kinds.

Archie is not terribly intelligent. He is of normal intelligence and this, coupled with his environment, prevents him from learning much of anything new (he feels very threatened by all things he was never taught to fear). Archie is a strict conservative and pro law and order at any price.

Archie first fell in love with Edith Baines in 1941 when he met her at the Puritan Maid Ice Cream Parlor. They dated and married shortly after. Archie lovingly calls Edith "Dingbat" and often tells her to "stifle it" for talking too much. Edith is a simple housewife who takes life as it comes and sees only the good in people.

She is totally honest and intuitive. Her best defense for survival with Archie has been her ability to know when to turn off, when to make a comment or when to say nothing.

Edith attended Millard Fillmore High School. In 1946 she held a job with the Hercules Plumbing Company and earns $2.65 an hour as a Sunshine Lady at the Sunshine Home for the Elderly.

Gloria was born at Bayside Hospital in Queens in 1944 (the hospital bill was $131.50). She earns $80 a week as a salesgirl at Kresler's Department Store and is called "Little Girl" by Archie. Gloria quit high school when she was 16 to take a secretarial course. She has been babied all her life, ever since Edith learned that she was anemic. Edith has protected

Gloria and consequently, Gloria has rarely washed a dish or ironed a blouse. She is accustomed to being pampered and likes it. Gloria is married to Mike Stivic, a liberal who is Archie's exact opposite.

Gloria met Mike in Manhattan and Archie first met him when Gloria invited him over for dinner (a later flashback finds Gloria meeting Mike, a hippie, when her girlfriend sets her up on a blind date). Mike is a dedicated humanitarian who hopes to become a social worker and change the world (as the series progressed, this was altered as Mike became a teacher). Gloria believes Mike is the most intelligent person she knows and is constantly torn between him and her father (she often sides with Mike because he is her husband and that is where her loyalties lie).

Gloria, 21 years old when the series begins, has led a sheltered life but is beginning to learn about the world from Mike. She is also realizing that her parents are wrong about a lot of things. Mike lives in a vacuum. He has no job, doesn't have to support a wife and has no responsibilities; he lives off Archie (who calls him "Meathead" and "You dumb Polack"). Mike believes Archie is harmful to what he is trying to do for the world. He believes Edith is ignorant, but sweet and harmless and he hopes to make Gloria more liberal.

When the house next door becomes vacant, Mike and Gloria purchase it (at which time Gloria gives birth to a son they name Joey). When Mike becomes a college teacher and a better paying job comes his way, he, Gloria and Joey move to Santa Barbara, California. Shortly after, Danielle Brisebois joins the cast as Stephanie Mills, the daughter of Edith's "no good" cousin, Floyd. Stephanie has been living with Floyd since the death of her mother in a car accident. When Edith learns that Floyd's drinking problem has been affecting Stephanie's welfare, she convinces a defiant Archie to let her live with them. Stephanie is Jewish and a member of the Temple Beth Shalom (Edith is Episcopalian; Archie mentioned that he is a Christian). Stephanie was born in May and attends Ditmars Junior High School.

Archie's neighbor and best friend is Barney Hefner, a bridge inspector for the city of New York. He is married to Blanche and has a dog named Rusty. Teresa Betancourt is the nurse who comes to live with the Bunkers when Archie rents out Gloria's old room at $100 a month. She calls Archie "Mr. Bunkers" (although with her Spanish accent it comes out "Mr. Bonkers").

George, Louise, Lionel, and Henry Jefferson are Archie's neighbors (later replaced by Irene and Frank Lorenzo), Bert Munson and Harry Snowden are Archie's friends; Tommy Kelsey is the owner of Kelsey's Bar; Stretch Cunningham is Archie's co-worker; Blanche is Barney's wife; Maude and Walter Findley and their daughter Carol are Edith's relatives; Casmir Stivic is Mike's father; Boom Boom is the busy bar waitress. See also All in the Family (1968), Archie Bunker's Place, Gloria, The Jeffersons and Maude.

Cast: Carroll O'Connor (Archie Bunker), Jean Stapleton (Edith Bunker), Sally Struthers (Gloria Bunker), Rob Reiner (Mike Stivic), Corey Drager (Joey Stivic), Jason Drager (Joey Stivic; later), Allan Melvin (Barney Hefner), Sherman Hemsley (George Jefferson), Isabel Sanford (Louise Jefferson), Mike Evans (Lionel Jefferson), Mel Stewart (Henry Jefferson), Betty Garrett (Irene Lorenzo), Vincent Gardenia (Frank Lorenzo), Billy Halop (Bert Munson), Brendon Dillon (Tommy Kelsey), Bob Hastings (Tommy Kelsey; later), James Cromwell (Jerome "Stretch" Cunningham), Liz Torres (Teresa Betancourt), Danielle Brisebois (Stephanie Mills), Estelle Parsons (Blanche Hefner), Gloria LeRoy (Mildred "Boom Boom" Turner), Jason Wingreen (Harry Snowden), Beatrice Arthur (Maude Findley), Bill Macy (Walter Findley), Marcia Rodd (Carol), Burt Mustin (Justin Quigley), Ruth McDevitt (Jo Nelson), Nedra Volz (Edith's Aunt Iola), Elizabeth Wilson (Edith's Cousin Amelia), George S. Irving (Russell, Amelia's husband), Tim O'Connor (Edith's Cousin Roy), Ruth Manning (Edith's Aunt Rose), Jane Rose (Edith's Aunt Clara), Richard McKenzie (Fred Bunker), Michael Conrad (Casmir Stivic), Marty Brill (Floyd Mills). Announcer: John Rich, Rob Reiner. Theme Song: "Those Were the Days" by Lee Adams; vocal by Carroll O'Connor, Jean Stapleton.

224 All Is Forgiven. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1986). A humorous look at the making of a daily TV soap opera ("All Is Forgiven") as seen through the experiences of its staff: Producer Paula Russell; head writer Nicolette Bingham; director Lawrence Branch; and its stars: Cecile Porter-Lindsey (who plays the evil Serena) and Sharry Levy (who plays Coral). Stories also focus on Paula's efforts to win the affections of Sonia, the sharp-tongued teenage daughter of the donut executive (Matt) she recently married. Matt owns Ying Yang Donuts and Lorraine Elder is the station's receptionist.

Cast: Bess Armstrong (Paula Russell), Terence Knox (Matt Russell), Shawnee Smith (Sonia Russell), Carol Kane (Nicolette Bingham), Judith-Marie Bergan (Cecile Porter-Lindsey), Debi Richter (Sharry Levy), Bill Wiley (Wendell Branch), Valerie Landsburg (Lorraine Elder). Note: Gary Sandy played the role of Matt Russell in the unaired pilot version of the series.

225 All My Children. (Series; Serial; ABC; 1970-). The dramatic story of the Tyler and Martin families, residents of the community of Pine Valley. The series ran from 30 minutes from January 5, 1970 to April 22, 1977; it premiered as an hour series on April 25, 1977.

Cast: Ruth Warrick (Phoebe Tyler Wallingford), Rosemary Prinz (Amy Tyler), Diana de Vegh (Ann Tyler), Joanna Miles (Ann Tyler), Beverly Owen (Ann Tyler), Judith Barcroft (Ann Tyler), Hugh Franklin (Dr. Charles Tyler), Frances Heflin (Mona Kane Tyler), Paul DuMont (Lincoln Tyler), James Karen (Lincoln Tyler), Nicholas Pryor (Lincoln Tyler), Peter White (Nicholas Tyler), Ian Miller Washam (Little Philip Tyler), Brian Lima (Little Philip Tyler), Francesca Poston (Donna Beck Tyler), Candice Earley (Donna Beck Tyler), Candice Manera (Donna Beck Tyler), Jack Stauffer (Charles Tyler II), Chris Hubbell (Charles Tyler II), Richard Van Vleet (Charles Tyler II), Ken Rabat (Paul Martin), William Mooney (Paul Martin), Kate Harrington (Kate Martin), Christine Thomas (Kate Martin), Kay Campbell (Kate Martin), Mary Fickett (Ruth Brent Martin), Willi Burke (Ruth Brent Martin), Christopher Wines (Jeff Martin), Charles Frank (Jeff Martin), Robert Perault (Jeff Martin), James O'Sullivan (Jeff Martin), John James (Jeff Martin), Karen Gorney (Tara Martin), Stephanie Braxton (Tara Martin), Nancy Frangione (Tara Martin), Mary Lynn Blanks (Tara Martin), Mike Bersell (Bobby Martin), Susan Blanchard (Mary Kennicott), Hilda Haynes (Lois Sloane), Larry Keith (Nick Davis), Susan Lucci (Erica Kane), Ray MacDonnell (Dr. Joseph Martin), Deborah Soloman (Sydney Scott), Francesca James (Kitty Shea), Tom Rosqui (Jason Maxwell), Marilyn Chris (Eddie Hoffman), Michael Shannon (Bill Hoffman), Eileen Letchworth (Margo Flax), Kevin Conway (Clyde Wheeler), Richard Hatch (Philip Brent, Jr.), Nicholas Benedict (Philip Brent, Jr.), Peter Simon (Dr. Hoffman), John Danelle (Dr. Frank Grant), Mark Dawson (Ted Brent), Avid Macarthur (Nancy Grant), Lisa Wilkinson (Nancy Grant), Dan Hamilton (Hal Short), Norman Rose (Dr. Marcus Polk), Mark LaMura (Mark Dalton), Eileen Herlie (Myrtle Lum Fargate), Paul Gleason (David Thornton), Rosemary Murphy (Maureen Teller), Kathleen Noone (Ellen Shepherd Dalton), Daren Kelly (Danny Kennicott), Elissa Leeds (Brooke English Cudahy), Julia Barr (Brooke English Cudahy), Harriet Hall (Brooke English Cudahy), Robin Strasser (Dr. Christina Karras), Pat Dixon (Carolyn Murphy), Sandy Gabriel (Edna Thornton), Richard Shoberg (Tom Cudahy), Peter Bergman (Dr. Cliff Warner), Mel Boudrot (Father Tierney), Dawn Marie Boyle (Dottie Thornton), Louis Edmonds (Langley Wallingford), Jack Magee (Wally McFadden), Patrick Skelton (Wally McFadden), Taylor Miller (Nina Cortland Warner), James Mitchell (Palmer Cortland), Fred Porcelli (Freddie), Judith Roberts (Little Jean), Chris Wallace (Mel Jacobi), Bob Hover (Adrian Shepherd), Ross Petty (Eddie Dorrance), Warren Burton (Eddie Dorrance), Matthew Cowles (Eddie Dorrance), Kate Dezina (Estelle Tuggle Sago), William Griffis (Harlan Tucker), Tricia Pursley Hawkins (Devon Shepherd McFadden), Francesca James (Kelly Cole), Paulette Breen (Claudette Montgomery), Susan Plantt-Winston (Claudette Montgomery), Lawrence Lau (Greg Nelson), Gillian Spencer (Daisy Cortland), Bob Heitman (Dr. Calder), Trey Wilson (Murray), Debbi Morgan (Angie Baxter), Ronald Drake (Jasper Sloane), Dack Rambo (Steve Jacoby), Carol Burnett (Verla Grubb), Carla Dragoni (Betsy Kennicott), Paul Falzone (Dr. Jim Jefferson), Kim Delaney (Jenny Gardner), Patricia Barry (Peg English), Larry Fleischman (Benny Sago), Vasili Bogazianos (Benny Sago), Victoria Boothby (Helen), Maureen O'Sullivan (Olive Whalen), William Cain (Hughes), Alan Dysert (Sean Cudahy), Bill Ferriter (Curt Sanders), Linda Gibboney (Sybil Thorne), Elizabeth Lawrence (Myra Murdock), Billy Mack (Carl Blair, Jr.), Lizabeth McKay (Leora Sanders), Mike Minor (Brandon Kingsley), Andrea Moar (Carrie Sanders), Steve Rankin (Jerry), Tudi Wiggins (Sara Kingsley), Rudy Willrich (Nelson Manning), Dorothy Lyman (Opal Gardner), Jill Larson (Opal Gardner), Lee Godart (Kent Bogard), Robert Milli (Lars Bogard), Marcy Walker (Liza Colby), Alice Harding (Liza Colby), Gil Rogers (Ray Gardner), Darnell Williams (Jessie Hubbard), Deborah Goodrich (Silver Kane), Stephen Parr (Rick Kincaid), Katherine Kamhi (Pamela Kingsley), Mathew McNamara (Bobby Warner), Robin Christopher (Skye Chandler), Amelia Marshall (Belinda Keefer), Marc Menard (Boyd Larraby), Cameron Mathison (Ryan Lavery), Cady McClain (Dixie Cooney Martin), David Canary (Adam Chandler, Sr.), Mark Consuelos (Mateo Santos, Sr.), Rebecca Budig (Greenlee Smythe Lavery), Lindsay Price (An-Li Chen), Vincent Irizarry (David Hayward), Lauren Holly (Julie Chandler), Eden Riegel (Bianca Montgomery), Eva LaRue (Maria Santos Grey), Josh Duhamel (Leo du Pres), Kelly Ripa (Hayley Vaughan), Keith Hamilton Cobb (Noah Keefer), Justin Bruening (Jamie Martin), Bobbie Eakes (Krystal Carey Chandler), Matthew St. Patrick (Adrian Sword), Abigail Spencer (Becca Tyree), Amelia Heinie (Mia Saunders), Brent Weber (Sean Montgomery), Sarah Michelle Gellar (Kendall Hart), Maurice Benard (Nico Kelly), Terri Ivens (Simone Torres), Alexa Havins (Babe Carey Chandler), Walt Willey (Jackson Montgomery), Tomy Dunster (Juan Renato Ruiz de Vasquez), Alicia Minshew (Kenall Hart Slater), Aiden Turner (Aidan Devane), Micah Alberti (James Martin), Michael B. Jordan (Reggie Porter), Jacob Young (J.R. Chandler, Jr.), Jesse McCartney (J.R. Chandler, Jr.), Jonathan Bennett (J.R. Chandler, Jr.), Olga Sosnovska (Lena Kundera), Jason Olive (Frank Hubbard), Jennifer Bassey (Marian Colby Chandler), Ellen Wheeler (Cindy Parker), John Callahan (Edmund Grey), Marj Dusay (Vanessa Bennett), Sydney Penny (Julia Santos Keefer), Winsor Harmon (Del Henry), Samuel Page (Trey Shepherd), Ivan Shaw (Henry Chin), James Mitchell (Palmer Cortland, Sr.),

Robin Strasser (Cristina Karras Martin), Christian Campbell (Bobby Warner), Chris Bruno (Michael Delaney), Elizabeth Hendrickson (Frankie Stone/Maggie Stone), Amanda Bearse (Amanda Cousins), Vanessa Bell Calloway (Yvonne Caldwell), Jordan Charney (Philip Brent, Sr.), Robin Mattson (Janet Marlowe Dillon), T.C. Warner (Kelsey Jefferson), Ann Flood (Bitsy Davidson), Laurinda Barrett (Bitsy Davidson), Colin Eggesfield (Josh Madden), James Scott (Ethan Cambias), Kate Collins (Natalie Marlowe Dillon), Paul Gleason (David Thornton), Jeffrey Byron (Jeff Martin), Tanisha Lynn (Danielle Frye), Irene Ng (An-Lin Chen), Melissa Leo (Linda Warner), Natalia Cigliuti (Anita Santos Warner), Darlene Dahl (Anita Santos Warner), Shane McDermott (Scott Chandler), Charles Keating (Damon Lazarre), Liz Vassey (Emily Ann Sago Martin), Laurence Lau (Greg Nelson), Laura Allen (Laura Kirk English du Pres), Finola Hughes (Alex Devane Marick), Schuyler Grant (Camille Hawkins), Louise Shaffer (Goldie Kane), Christhell Stause (Amanda Dillon), Jack Armstrong (Greg Nelson), Rosalind Allen (Silver Kane), Claire Beckman (Silver Kane), Roscoe Born (Jim Thomasen), Susan Blanchard (Mary Kennicott Martin), Michael Sabatino (Jonathan Kinder), Robert Duncan Maxwell (Charlie Brent), Hunter Tylo (Robin McCall), Felicity LaFortune (Laurel Banning Dillon), Donna Pescow (Lynn Carlson), Christopher Lawford (Charlie Brent), Bobby Steggert (Sam Grey), Esta TerBlanche (Gillian Andrassy), Alexander Scourby (Nigel Fargate), James Patrick Stuart (Will Cortlandt), Jim Fitzpatrick (Pierce Riley), Lee Meriwether (Ruth Parker Martin), Andrew Jackson (Stephen Hamill), Amanda Seyfried (Joni Stafford), Dylan Fergus (Tim Dillon), Daniel Cosgrove (Scott Chandler), Forbes March (Scott Chandler), Jeff Branson (Jonathan Lavery), Leven Ramblin (Lily Montgomery), Alex Musser (Del Henry), Genie Francis (Ceara Connor Hunter), Nicholas Surovy (Michael Roy), Tonya Pinkins (Livia Frye), Alexis Manta (Amanda Dillon), Paige Turco (Lanie Cooney Rampal), Olivia Birkelund (Arlene Dillon Vaughan), Rosa Nevin (Cecily Davidson Brent), Antonio Fargas (Les Baxter), Rudolf Martin (Anton Lang), Michael Scaleria (Jake Martin, Jr.), Michael Lowry (Jake Martin, Jr.), Michael Brainard (Jake Martin, Jr.), J. Eddie Peck (Jake Martin, Jr.), Samantha Eggar (Charlotte Devane), Richard Lawson (Lucas Barnes), Richard Roland (Jason Sheffield), Peggy Murray (Olga Swenson), Mike Bersell (Bobby Martin), Sandy Gabriel (Edna Thornton), Ambyr Childers (Colby Chandler), Philip Amelio (Scott Chandler), Peter Strong (Bob Georgia), Ann McDonough (Esther Glynn), Phyllis Lyons (Arlene Dillon Vaughan), Leslie Uggams (Rose Keefer), Patricia Dixon (Caroline Dixon Grant), Robert Lupone (Zach Grayson), Robert Gentry (Ross Chandler), Roger Guenveur Smith (Miles Christopher), Jack Betts (Lars Bogard), Carrie Genzel (Skye Chandler), Jack Magee (Wally McFadden), Jack Scalia (Chris Stamp), James Horan (Creed Kelly), Brian Lima (Charlie Brent), Zen Gesner (Braden Lavery), William de Vry (Michael Cambias), Melissa Claire Egan (Annie McDermott), James Carroll (Carl Blair, Sr.), Matt Borlenghi (Brian Bodine), Alan Dysert (Sean Cudahy), Akili Prince (Terrence Frye), Mark Pinter (Roger Smythe), Alexandra Daddario (Laurie Lewis), Alla Korot (Allie Doyle), James Kiberd (Trevor Dillon), Jane Elliot (Cynthia Preston), Jason Kincaid (Sam Brady), Jean LeClerc (Jeremy Hunter), Allison Hirschlag (Laura Cudahy), Catherine Christianson (Amy Stone), Steve Fletcher (Matt Connelly), Stephen Caffrey (Andrew Preston), Steve Kanaly (Seabone Hunkle), Susan Willis (Helga Voynitzheva), Paige Rowland (Kit Fisher), Stephanie Winters (Julie Chandler), Charles Van Eman (Charlie Brent), Season Hubley (Angelique Marick), Sidney Armus (Nigel Fargate), Tasia Valenza (Dottie Thornton Martin), Tommy J. Michaels (Tim Dillon), Tom Wright (Eugene Hubbard), Trent Bushey (David Rampal), Vince Poletto (Tanner Jordan), Teresa Blake (Gloria Marsh), Tom Rosqui (Jason Maxwell), Michael Knight (Tad Martin), Matthew Anton (Tad Martin), John E. Dunn (Tad Martin), Terrell Anthony (Tad Martin), Ted Orsini (Tad Martin), Amber Barretto (Emily Ann Sago Martin), Ian Buchanan (Greg Madden), Theresa Saldana (Christina Vargas), Sara Hugh (Tina Harding), Michael Minor (Brandon Kingsley), Ingrid Rogers (Taylor Roxbury-Cannon), Darnell Williams (Jesse Hubbard), Frances Heflin (Mona Kane), Hugo Napier (Mike Roy), Greta Lind (Katie Kennicott), Gregory Gordon (Brian Bodine), Harriet Hall (Brooke English), Heather Stanford (Nina Cortland Warner), Taylor Gildersleeve (Sydney Harris), John Devlin (Jason Maxwell), Karen Person (Galen Henderson), Christopher Holder (Wade Mathews), Kari Gibson (Dixie Cooney Martin), Susan Pratt (Barbara Montgomery), John Millard (Louie Grecco), John Furey (Lee Hawkins), Joseph Barbera (Paolo Caselli), Lonnie Quinn (Will Cortlandt), Greg Wrangler (Pierce Riley), Grant Aleksander (Alec McIntyre), Don Scardino (Greg Nelson), Dondre T. Whitfield (Terrence Frye), Daniel Hugh Kelly (Travis Montgomery), Eddie Earl Hatch (John Remington), Deborah Goodrich (Connie Wilkes), Daren Kelly (Dan Kennicott), David Forsythe (Jim Thomasen/Bob Thomasen), David Jordan (Trevor Dillon), David Kissell (Chris Morgan), Dean Tarrowly (Trask Bodine), Dawn Marie Boyle (Dottie Thornton Martin), Connie Fletcher (Erin Lavery), Thorsten Kaye (Zach Slater), Gilles Kohler (Gilles St. Claire), William Christian (Derek Frye), Larkin Malloy (Travis Montgomery), Lindsay Curran (Emily Sago Martin), Eugene J. Anthony (Stan Ulitowski), Donald Blakely (Frank Grant), Courtney Gibbs (Galen Henderson), Stan Albers (Elliot Freeman), Maximillian Alexander (Juan Carlos Renato), Avis McCarther (Nancy Grant Fisher), Maxwell Caulfield (Pierce Riley), Melody Anderson (Natalie Marlowe Dillon), Barbara Kearns (Nina Cortlandt Warner), Brian L. Green (Brian Bodine), Brian Gaskill (Bobby Warner), Matt Sevitto (Trask Bodine), Brent Barrett (Tony Barclay), David Beecroft (Josh Waleski/Elliot Freeman), Antoinette Byron (Skye Chandler), Natalie Ross (Enid Nelson), Nick Benedict (Philip Brent), Nicole Orth-Pallavicini (Marissa Rampal), Nancy Addison Altman (Marissa Rampal), Nicholas Coster (Steven Andrews), Nan-Lynn Nelson (Vivienne Roxbury-Cannon), Ara Celi (Raquel Dion Santos), Michael Nader (Dimitri Marick), Michael Tylo (Matt Connelly), Michael Woods (Kent Bogard), Mitchell Ryan (Alex Hunter), Richard Shoberg (Tom Cudahy), Kimberly Hawthorne (Belinda Keefer), Kimberly Foster (Liz Sloan), Kristen Jensen (Laurel Banning Dillon), Scott Kinworthy (Josh Madden), Sandra Quarterman (Angie Baxter Hubbard), Shari Headley (Mimi Reed), Gregory Chase (Chuck Tyler), Nigel Reed (Wally McFadden), Jack Magee (Wally McFadden), Marcus Patrick (Jamal Cudahy), Lee Godart (Kent Bogard), Lee Chamberlain (Pat Baxter), Lisa Eichhorn (Elizabeth Carlyle), Ian Washam (Charles Brent), Carmen Thomas (Hillary Wilson Martin), Margaret Sophie Stein (Corvina Lang), Carol McCluer (Melanie Sawyer), Lisa Wilkinson (Nancy Grant Fisher), Carolyn Neff (Raquel Dion Santos), Lauren E. Roman (Laura Kirk English du Pres), Larry Keith (Nick Davis), Kelli Taylor (Taylor Roxbury-Cannon), Kelli Giddish (Diana Kenry), Francesca James (Kitty Shea Tyler), Kathleen Rowe McAllen (Pamela Kingsley), Shari Headley (Mimi Reed), Linda Dano (Rae Cummings), William Christian (Derek Frye), Socorro Santiago (Isabella Santos), Tonya Perkins (Livia Frye), Leslie Hendrix (Judge Hannah Lampert), Joel Fabiani (Barry Shire), Dan Guthier (Kevin Buchanan), Heather Tom (Kelly Cramer), Mark Pinter (Roger Smythe), David Tom (Paul Cramer), Anna Stuart (Mary Smythe), Louise Sorel (Judge Kaye Campibello), Tawny Cypress (Shambala Stevens), Robert Clohessy (Doug Lewis), Kressie Hutchinson (Chantal), Jayne Lynn Evans (China), Aryana Rodriguez (Maddie Grey), Tom Archdeacon (Aidan Turner), Brock Cuchna (Paul Cramer), Andrew Ridings (J.R. Chandler), Kathryn Newton (Colby Chandler), Angela Zaires (Autumn Taber), Paulina Gerzon (Maddie Grey), Ellen Bethea (Dr. Janelle Anderson), Jennifer Bassey (Marian Chandler), Lynn Chen (Regina), Robert Harte (Dwight Sweeney), Dax Griffin (Justin McCoy).

226 All My Clients Are Innocent. (Pilot; Drama; ABC; 4/17/62). A proposed spinoff from The Alcoa Hour about Max McIntyre, a famous criminal lawyer working out of San Francisco. In the pilot episode, Max tries to save his brilliant young law partner (Alan) from marrying a girl (Cora) he feels will damage Alan's career.

Cast: Barry Morse (Max McIntyre), Dick Davalos (Alan Michaels). Guest Cast: Joan Staley (Cora Pierson), Vic Morrow (Carl Balderson), Mari Aldon (Martha).

227 The All New Captain Kangaroo. (Series; Children; Syn.; 1997). A revised version of the CBS series Captain Kangaroo that continues to follow the activities of a kind gentleman known as Captain Kangaroo (for the blue jacket with the large pockets that he wears; the jacket was red in the original series). The captain lives in the Treasure House and his relating aspects of the adult world to children are the premise of the series. He is assisted by Mr. Greenjeans and the puppet characters Mr. Moose, Bunny Rabbit and Grandfather Clock. New to the show are Joey the Kangaroo and animals experts Margo McKnight (from Busch Gardens) and Chuck Cureau (from Sea World).

Cast: John McDonough (Captain Kangaroo), George Cahill (Mr. Greenjeans), Paul Pistore (Mister Moose), Scott Swenson (Bunny Rabbit), Rhonda Gdasi (Joey), Margo McKnight (Busch Gardens Animal Expert), Chuck Cureau (Sea World Animal Expert).

228 The All New Dating Game. (Series; Game; Syn.; 1986–1988). A revised version of The Dating Game that follows the format of the original ABC series: a bachelor is separated from and asks specially prepared questions of three single women with the object being to find the girl he would most like to date. After several questions, the bachelor selects the one girl who most impressed him. The couple receives an expenses-paid date. The game is also played in reverse — one girl and three bachelors.

Host, 1986–1987: Elaine Joyce. Host, 1987–1988: Jeff MacGregor. Announcer: Charlie O'Donnell.

229 The All New Dennis the Menace. (Series; Cartoon; CBS; 1996). An animated adaptation of the comic strip by Hank Ketchum that relates the antics of Dennis Mitchell, a very mischievous young boy. Henry and Alice Mitchell are his parents (who are literally unable to control their over energetic child); George and Martha Wilson are Dennis's elderly neighbors; Joey MacDonald and Margaret Wade are Dennis's friends (who are not as mischievous but who always find themselves in trouble for following Dennis's lead). Ruff is Dennis's dog and while Dennis means no harm, he considers George Wilson his best friend (although George considers Dennis a nuisance and is constantly burdened by Dennis's antics). See also Dennis the Menace.

Voice Cast: Adam Wylie (Dennis Mitchell), Dan Gilvezan (Henry Mitchell), Anna Mathias (Alice Mitchell), Greg Burson (George Wilson), June Foray (Martha Wilson), Katie Leigh (Joey MacDonald), Jeannie Elias (Margaret Wade).

230 The All New Newlywed Game. (Series; Game; Syn.; 1985). A revised version of The Newlywed Game. Four married couples compete. The object calls for the wives to predict how their husbands answered certain questions and vice versa. The team with the most correct matches is the winner and receives merchandise prizes. For additional information see The Newlywed Game and The New Newlywed Game.

Host: Bob Eubanks. Announcer: Bob Hilton.

231 The All-New Popeye Hour. (Series; Cartoon; CBS; 1978–1981). The overall title for two comedy cartoon series: Popeye the Sailor and Dinky Dog. In the first segment, Popeye, the sailor who derives incredible strength from spinach, helps good defeat evil. Other characters are Olive Oyl, his girlfriend; Bluto, his nemesis; the evil Sea Hag; and Wimpy, Popeye's friend.

The second segment deals with a family that is plagued by the antics of a very large and very mischievous dog named Dinky. Uncle Dudley is Dinky's unfortunate owner; Sandy and Monica are his nieces.

Voice Cast: Jack Mercer (Popeye), Marilyn Schreffler (Olive Oyl), Marilyn Schreffler (Evil Sea Hag), Daws Butler (Wimpy), Frank Welker (Dinky Dog), Julie Bennett (Monica), Frank Nelson (Uncle Dudley), Jackie Joseph (Sandy), Hal Smith (Colonel Crumb).

232 All Night Radio. (Pilot; Comedy; HBO; 10/26/82). Events in the lives of three groups of people: Mack and Jamie, the disc jockeys for a Los Angeles program called "All Night Radio"; Luca and Ronny, two teenage cruisers (who listen to the show on their car radio); and the staff and clientele of Tony's Coffee Shop. Other Regulars: Professor Bowzer, the oldies but goodies disc jockey; Dora, the waitress at the coffee shop; Junior, a waiter; and coffee shop regulars Lory, Mark and Mr. Worthington.

Cast: Mack Dryden (Mack), Jamie Alcroft (Jamie), Jon Bauman (Professor Bowzer), Scott McGinnis (Ronny), Richard Molinare (Luca), Donna Seigel (Dora), Michael Wyle (Junior), Elayne Heilveil (Lory), Denny Evans (Mark), Jack Riley (Mr. Worthington).

233 All of Us. (Series; Comedy; UPN, 2003–2006; CW, 2006–2007). Robert James is an entertainment reporter for KJSB-TV in Los Angeles (he hosts the program Mr. L.A.). He is divorced from Neesee and is the father of five-year-old Bobby. Stories, during first season episodes, revolve around Robert's relationship with Tia Jewell, a kindergarten teacher. Because Robert and Neesee have agreed to let Bobby live with Robert, Neesee constantly intrudes on his life to be with her son. As the series progressed, Robert and Tia's relationship ended and Robert and Neesee again became close. At this time Robert also changed jobs. He was a correspondent for Entertainment Tonight for a short time before co-hosting (with his friend Dirk Black) the talk show Get Real; in November of 2005 Neesee opens her own restaurant (called Neesee's; she previously owned her own food catering company). Stories now focus on Robert and Neesee's relationship as they struggle to provide the best life possible for their son.

Other Regulars: Jonelle, Tia's friend (also a teacher).

Cast: Duane Martin (Robert James, Sr.), Lisa Raye McCoy (Neesee James), Elise Neal (Tia Jewel), Khamani Griffin (Bobby James), Tony Rock (Dirk Black), Terri J. Vaughn (Jonelle Abrahams).

234 All Souls. (Series; Drama; UPN; 2001). Mitchell Grace is a doctor at All Souls, a most unusual hospital. It is a hospital where the dead have power. The hospital is located at 1838 Grimes Street in Boston and was built in 1838. It has 3000 beds and 36.7 miles of corridor. It has its own nuclear reactor and it has a legend that dates back to the 1860s. During the Civil War, a Dr. Abramson was on staff at All Souls. When he lost his three sons in battle he went insane and started performing unauthorized and unethical experiments on unwilling patients. The spirits of those souls now haunt the hospital and seemingly healthy patients inexplicably die. Nurse Glory St. Clair can see the spirits; Dr. Grace battles the evil that exists to save the patients who have been sent to All Souls for help.

Cast: Grayson McCouch (Dr. Mitchell Grace), Serena Scott Thomas (Dr. Nicole DeBrae), Irma P. Hall (Nurse Glory St. Clair), Reiko Aylesworth (Dr. Philomena Cullen), Daniel Cosgrove (Dr. Brad Sterling).

235 All-Star Anything Goes. (Series; Game; Syn.; 1977). Two three-member teams of celebrities compete in various outlandish games — just for the fun of it. Each event is presented like an Olympic challenge with on the field commentary, in-studio reporting and a lovely girl keeping track of the scores for the home audience.

An announcer opens the show: "Stand by camera six. Music; sound and picture next. In five, four, three, two one — music (theme music plays). Get ready, get set for the most amazing, outrageously funny game show competition you will ever see. Teams of celebrities from the entertainment world; television personalities; famous athletes; movie stars and more will compete in games of fun, skill and excitement in a effort to set new world records.

We're all ready for tonight's All-Star Anything Goes. Tonight the cats of two of the most successful series will be competing in the all-star championships. The first team of competitors, ready for good times, the cast of Good Times. She plays Florida, but everyone calls her Mama, Esther Rolle; her television daughter, BernNadette Stanis; and her brother on the show, he plays Michael, Ralph Carter. Their competitors, ready for a real happy night, the cast of Happy Days. Everyone loves Mrs. Cunningham, Marion Ross. She's the mischievous Joanie on the show, Erin Moran; and making the most of things, Donny Most. Tonight's competition gets under way next on All-Star Anything Goes."

Host: Bill Boggs. Commentator: Jim Healy. Score Girl: Judy Abercrombie.

236 All Star Blitz. (Series; Game; ABC; 1985). Two players compete. One player selects one of four celebrity guests. The celebrity is then asked a question. If the player correctly determines whether or not the celebrity's answer is correct, he receives a clue to the identity of a person, place or thing. Players alternate turns and the first contestant to identify the mystery subject wins a merchandise prize.

Host: Peter Marshall. Regular: Abby Dalton.

237 The All-Star Revue. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1950–1953). The overall title for a series of variety programs tailored to the talents of its guest hosts. The Host listing is a major sampling of those who have appeared, most often several times.

Host: Danny Thomas, Jimmy Durante, Martha Raye, George Jessel, Ed Wynn, Ezio Pinza, Jack Carson, Jane Froman, Tallulah Bankhead, Phil Foster, Spike Jones, Victor Borge, Bob Hope, Paul Winchell, The Ritz Brothers, Ole Olsen and Chick Johnson. Dancers: Peggy Gordon, Jean Mahoney, Jane Easton, Anne Dore, Janine Hall, Rosemary Colligan, Cheryl Clarke, Jan Hollar, Kay Tapscott, Betty Scott. Orchestra: Allen Roth, Lou Bring, Milton DeLugg, Roy Bargey, George Bassman.

238 All-Star Secrets. (Series; Game; NBC; 1979). A true secret, pertaining to one of five celebrity guests, is read. Three contestants compete and each must determine which celebrity is the subject of the secret. Each player secretly locks in his choice. The celebrity to whom the secret refers is revealed and players win money accordingly: split three ways if each is correct; divided in half if two had the same answer; or awarded entirely to the one player with the correct response. The highest scoring player is the winner and receives what money he has won.

Host: Bob Eubanks. Announcer: Charlie O'Donnell.

239 The All-Star Summer Revue. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1952). The summer replacement for

The All-Star Revue that features performances by new and established entertainers. The series aired from June 28, 1952 to August 30, 1952. Pete Barnum and Joseph Stanley are the producers.

Host: Carl Ballantine, Oliver Wakefield. Regulars: Georgia Gibbs, The Paul Steffin Dancers, The Acromaniacs. Orchestra: Dean Elliot.

240 All That. (Series; Variety; Nickelodeon; 1994–2005). A Saturday Night Live type of program aimed at children. Sketches are combined with performances by musical guests to spoof anything and everything. Dan Schneider and Brian Robbins are the producers.

Regulars: Amanda Bynes, Kyle Sullivan, Jack DeSena, Lisa Foiles, Chelsea Brummet, Jamie Lynn Spears, Kianna Underwood, Denzel Whitaker, Shane Lyons, Giovonnie Samuels, Angeliq Bates, Lori Beth Denberg, Katrina Johnson, Alisa Reyes, Mark Saul, Nick Cannon, Bryan Hearne, Kenan Thompson, Leon Frierson, Gabriel Iglesias, Christy Knowings, Kevin Kopelow, Kel Mitchell, Zachary McLemore, Josh Server, Danny Tamberelli, Scott James, Josh LaBove, Tricia Dickson, Brian Peck, Louisette Geiss, Ryan Coleman, David Jean Thomas, Jeremy Rowley, Jessica Chaffin. Music: Scott Clausen, Richard Tuttbene.

241 All That Glitters. (Series; Comedy-Drama; Syn.; 1977). An off-beat series that focuses on a society where women are the workers and men the housekeepers and secretaries. Serial-like episodes relate the stressful existences of the female executives of the Globatron Corporation, a large New York City conglomerate.

L.W. Carruthers is the company head; Christina Stockwood, Peggy Horner, Grace Smith and Nancy Langston are executives. Andrea Martin is a lawyer; Linda Murkland is a model. Joan Hamlyn is the agent; Bert is Christina's husband. Glenn is Nancy's husband; Michael is Andrea's boyfriend; Dan is a secretary; and Jeremy Stockwood is Christina's son.

Cast: Lois Nettleton (Christina Stockwood), Anita Gillette (Nancy Langston), Barbara Baxley (L.W. Carruthers), Louise Shaffer (Andrea Martin), Linda Gray (Linda Murkland), Vanessa Brown (Peggy Horner), Jessica Walter (Joan Hamlyn), Marte Boyle Slout (Grace Smith), Chuck McCann (Bert Stockwood), Wes Parker (Glenn Langston), David Haskell (Michael McFarland), Gary Sandy (Dan Kincaid), Jim Greenleaf (Jeremy Stockwood). Theme Vocal: "Genesis" by Kenny Rankin.

242 All That Glitters. (Pilot; Crime Drama; NBC; 4/8/84). David Dalton is a government agent and Joanna St. John is his partner, the widow of a murdered lawyer. The unsold series was to relate their exploits as they tackle assignments on behalf of the FBI. In the pilot episode, titled "Mouth of the Snake" (and broadcast on Knight Rider), David and Joanna team with Michael Knight and KITT to find Eduardo O'Brien, an international criminal who has stolen a deadly rocket launcher.

Cast: Joanna Pettet (Joanna St. John), Charles Taylor (David Dalton), George Murdock (Archibald Hendley; their superior). Guest Cast: David Hasselhoff (Michael Knight), William Daniels (Voice of KITT), Robert Colbert (Elton Matthews), Pedro Armendariz, Jr. (Eduardo O'Brien), Emily Banks (Priscilla Ragsdale), Patty Koteri (Tiara), Robert Clarke (John Ragsdale).

243 All the Rivers Run. (Series; Drama; HBO; 1984). The first made for cable miniseries. The story, set in turn-of-the-century Australia, follows the adventures of Philadelphia Gordon, a beautiful free-spirited woman and aspiring artist who becomes part owner of the Jane Eliza (later renamed Philadelphia), a paddle steamer. Philadelphia's life, loves and experiences as a river trader highlights the moving drama. Filmed on location at the Port of Echuca, Victoria, Australia. Based on the book by Nancy Cato.

Cast: Sigrid Thornton (Philadelphia Gordon), John Waters (Brenton Edwards), Charles Tingwell (Charles Jamieson), Dinah Shearing (Hester Jamieson), William Upjohn (Adam Jamieson), Diane Craig (Dorothy Barrett), Constance Lansburg (Bessie Griggs), Gus Mercurio (Tom Critchley), Judith Massey (Annie), Cliff Ellen (Elijah), Alan Hardy (Reverend Polson), Margo McLennan (Aunt Miriam), Tom Travers (Bank manager), Adrian Wright (Alistair Raeburn), Frank Gallagher (Mac), Chantal Contouri (Julia), Celia DeBurgh (Imogene), Michael Carmen (Alby), Kirk Alexander (Jim), Darius Perkins (Ben), Darryl Pellizer (Joe), John Alansu (Ah Lee), Don Bridges (Useless), Roy Baldwin (Mr. Hamilton), Lloyd Morris (Jeremy), Mary Ann Fahey (Hilda), Di O'Connor (Mrs. Griggs), Nick Walters (Mr. Slope), George Blakely (Don Barker), David Young (Sidney Jackson).

244 All Together Now. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 6/30/84). The story of Elly and Walt Parker, a middle-aged couple who must abandon their plans for a carefree retirement and once again assume parental responsibilities when their children and an elderly in-law move in. The pilot episode, set in New York, establishes the unsold series format: Linda, the Parkers' daughter, cancels her wedding plans and decides to stay home; Kip, their son, loses his job and returns to the nest; and Grandpa Ed, who moves in with the family when his retirement home is destroyed by fire. See also And They All Lived Happily Ever After. Other Regulars: Viola, their maid; and Tony, Kip's friend.

Cast: Barbara Barrie (Elly Parker), Peter Michael Goetz (Walt Parker), Joan Cusack (Linda Parker), Tom Byrd (Kip Parker), Don Porter (Ed Parker), Betty Kean (Viola), Robert T. Prescott (Tony Kunkle).

245 Allan. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 8/23/71). Allan Fisher is a recent college graduate who is still undecided about his future. Harold Fisher is his father, a hard-working hardware store owner who wants his son to join him in the family business. Allan refuses and the bickering relationship between father and son as Allan contemplates his life was to be the focal point of the unsold series. The pilot episode relates Harold's efforts to talk Allan out of leaving home to join a commune. Other Regulars: Blanche, Harold's wife; and Doris, Allan's girlfriend.

Cast: Mark Jennings (Allan Fisher), Lou Jacobi (Harold Fisher), Florence Halop (Blanche Fisher), Barbara Press (Doris). Guest Cast: Connie Sawyer (Franny), Brioni Farrell (Alice), Victor Brandt (Ted).

246 Allegra's Window. (Series; Cartoon; Nickelodeon; 1994–1996). Allegra, a puppet (white with blue spots and a pink dress) is a three-year-old girl who lives on Hummingbird Ally and attends preschool. Each episode is a day in her life — as she attends school, plays with her friends and faces the problems of life as a kid. Rondo is Allegra's older brother; Lindi is her puppy; Reed is her friend.

Voice Cast: Kathryn Mullen (Allegra), Anthony Asbury (Rondo), Pam Arciero (Lindi), Bob Stillman (Reed).

247 Allen Ludden's Gallery. (Series; Variety; Syn.; 1969). A daily program of music, songs and celebrity interviews.

Host: Allen Ludden.

248 Allison Sidney Harrison. (Pilot; Crime Drama; NBC; 8/19/83). Allison Sidney Harrison is a very pretty high school girl and the daughter of David Harrison, a famous San Francisco private detective. The unsold series was to relate their exploits as they team to solve crimes. In the pilot episode, Allison and David attempt to solve the murder of a beautiful woman (Valerie Parker) in which their chauffeur (Pat Rosetti) is the prime suspect. Other Regulars: Joyce, David's secretary; Jimmy, David's butler; and Lieutenant Jesse Herman.

Cast: Katy Kurtzman (Allison Sidney Harrison), Ted Danson (David Harrison), Don Calfa (Pat Rosetti), Ellen Travolta (Joyce), Clyde Kusatsu (Jimmy), James McEachin (Lt. Jesse Herman). Guest Cast: Elaine Joyce (Valerie Parker), Granville Van Dusen (Walt Spencer), Corbin Bernsen (Steve Malloy), Cynthia Harris (Clarisse Spencer), Hans Conried (Art appraiser), Charles Hallahan (Sgt. Beatty).

249 'Allo 'Allo. (Series; Comedy; Syn.; 1986). A British-produced World War II comedy about a French restaurant owner (Rene) who offers his establishment (Café Rene) as a place of refuge for the British as they battle the Germans. Edith is Rene's wife; Maria is the waitress; Michelle is the resistance fighter; Yvette is Rene's mistress; Colonel Von Strom and Colonel Klinckerhoff are the German's who frequent the café; Helga is Von Strom's assistant.

Cast: Gorden Kaye (Rene), Carmen Silvera (Edith), Vickie Michelle (Maria), Kristen Cooke (Michelle), Francesca Gonshaw (Yvette), Rose Hill (Edith's Mother), Richard Marner (Colonel Von Strom), Richard Gibson (Colonel Von Klinckerhoff), Kim Hartman (Helga).

250 All's Fair. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1976–1977). A political satire set in Washington, D.C., that focuses on the unlikely relationship between Richard Barrington III, a 49-year-old conservative newspaper columnist, and Charlotte "Charley" Drake, a beautiful 29-year-old freelance photographer.

Al Brooks is Richard's assistant; Ginger is Charlotte's roommate; Lucy Daniels is a CBS TV news writer; Senator Wayne Joplin is Richard's adversary; Barbara Murray is Richard's agent; Lanny Wolf is Ginger's boyfriend.

Cast: Richard Crenna (Richard Barrington), Bernadette Peters (Charlotte Drake), J.A. Preston (Al Brooks), Judith Kahan (Ginger Livingston), Lee Chamberlain (Lucy Daniels), Jack Dodson (Senator Wayne Joplin), Salome Jens (Barbara Murray), Michael Keaton (Lanny Wolf), Jeff Altman (Voice of President Jimmy Carter).

251 Ally McBeal. (Series; Drama; Fox; 1997–2002). Ally McBeal is a professional woman who lives in her own universe. She is young, intelligent and beautiful and hoping to advance her position as an attorney with the Boston-based firm of Cage and Fish.

Ally is a blonde, always fashionably dressed and addicted to wearing very short miniskirts because "I like to." Tension or upsetting situations easily depresses Ally. It is at these times that she raises the hemlines on those already too short skirts to make her feel better (as Ally says when she is depressed — "If things don't change, I'm bound to be arrested for indecent exposure").

Ally has an unusual allergy — "I'm allergic to criminals." She also gets the sniffles if she is put in jail for contempt of court and is (or appears to be) dangerously thin (so much so that at times she wishes she were heavier just to have some noticeable cleavage). When Ally has a heartfelt decision to make she stares into a mirror until she decides what to do. Ally also has another problem — fantasies and delusions (she is famous for seeing a computer generated "Dancing Baby," an indication that her biological clock is ticking).

Ally is 27 years old and a graduate of Harvard law School; stories follow Ally as she defends clients, struggles to cope with her complicated life and achieve her dream — become a full partner (which she does and the firm becomes Cage, Fish and McBeal).

Among the regulars are John Gage and Richard Fish, the senior partners in the law firm. John is the more relaxed partner and becomes more involved with clients than Fish. Although he has a stuttering problem, squeaky shoes and a nasal condition, John considers these faults as an incentive to best serve his clients. Elaine Vassal is a lawyer who believes that, because she is so beautiful, most people “see me as a slut.” She enjoys being a snoop and eavesdrops on her fellow employees. Ling Woo is a strikingly beautiful woman who uses her assets to achieve her goal. She is a lawyer (although first introduced as the manager of a steel factory). She is considered an ice princess and uses what she calls her gift of “magnetism” (the ability to bring people into court that would otherwise go unnoticed). Vonda is the singer at Jasper’s, the restaurant frequented by the regulars. Other lawyers are Georgia Thomas, Billy Thomas and Renee Radick.

Cast: Calista Flockhart (Ally McBeal), Peter MacNichol (John Cage), Greg Germann (Richard Fish), Jane Krakowski (Elaine Vassal), Courtney Thorne-Smith (Georgia Thomas), Gil Bellows (Billy Thomas), Lisa Nicole Carson (Renee Radick), Lucy Liu (Ling Woo), Portia de Rossi (Nell Porter), Vonda Shepard (Herself), Julianne Nicholson (Jenny Shaw), James Marsden (Glenn Foy), Robert Downey, Jr. (Larry Paul), Regina Hall (Coretta Lipp), Dyan Cannon (Judge Jennifer “Whipper” Cone), Albert Hall (Judge Seymour Walsh), James LeGros (Mark Albert), Hayden Panettiere (Maddie Harrington), Amy Pietz (Bonnie Boone), Eric Cohen (Dancing Twin #1), Steve Cohen (Dancing Twin #2).

252 Almost American. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 4/1/81). The experiences of Catherine Armstrong, a young New York City schoolteacher, who instructs foreign students preparing for their naturalization tests. In the pilot episode, broadcast on Diff’rent Strokes, Catherine tries to help Ming-Lee, a student who is falsely accused of stealing drugs from a hospital. Other Regulars (students): Milosh, Rudy, Kristen and Kwame.

Cast: Maureen McNamara (Catherine Armstrong), Bob Ari (Milosh Dubrowski), Rosalind Chao (Ming-Lee Chang), Richard Yniquez (Rudy), Ernie Hudson (Kwame Botulo), Anne Bjorn (Kristen). Guest Cast: Brad Trumbull (Detective Simpson), Dana Plato (Kimberly Drummond), Conrad Bain (Phillip Drummond), Gary Coleman (Arnold Jackson).

253 Almost Anything Goes. (Series; Game; ABC; 1975–1976). Three teams, each composed of six members and representing towns with a population of less than 15,000 people compete in a series of stunt contests. Seven games are played per show and the highest scoring team is the winner.

Host: Charlie Jones, Lynn Shakelford, Sam Riddle. Announcer: Regis Philbin, Dick Wittington.

254 Almost Grown. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1988–1989). Norman Foley and Suzie Long are high school sweethearts. It is the 1960s. It is the 1970s when they marry and it is the 1980s when they divorce. The series, set in New Jersey, uses flashbacks to tell their three decade story of love and courtship and of their lives as a divorced couple in present day 1988.

Cast: Tim Daly (Norman Foley), Eve Gordon (Suzie Long), Ocean Hellman (Anya Foley), Michael Alldredge (Frank Foley), Richard Schaal (Dick Long), Anita Gillette (Vi Long), Albert Macklin (Joey Long), Rita Taggart (Joan Foley).

255 Almost Heaven. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 12/28/78). The story of a group of deceased souls who are regulated to the Heavenly Crisis and Conscience Center, a place where they have to remain until they can earn their way through the Pearly Gates by performing good deeds among the living. The pilot episode tells of Dave Leland, an auto accident victim, who is given a chance to earn his wings by helping a young woman (Annie) who is contemplating suicide. Regulars: Lydia, the head angel at Crisis Control; and angels Danny, Bridget, Randall and George.

Cast: Eva Gabor (Lydia), Jay Leno (Danny), Ellen Regan (Bridget), Richard Roat (Randall), Larry Gelman (George). Guest Cast: Robert Hays (Dave Leland), Laurie Heinemann (Annie), Anne Schedeen (Margie).

256 Almost Home. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 2/21/86). Jake Tyler is a country and western singer who relinquishes his career to become a father to a group of orphans at a New York City foster home. The unsold series was to relate Jake’s experiences with a group of orphans (P.J., Michael, Sandy, Mandy and Jack). In the pilot episode, Jake must face the reality of giving up Sherman, a small boy who is devoted to him, when Sherman’s mother suddenly appears to reclaim him. Aired on Webster. Other Regulars: Charlie Sands, Jake’s agent; and Theo Gabler, Charlie’s sister, who runs the foster home.

Cast: Mac Davis (Jake Tyler), Norman Fell (Charlie Sands), Allyn Ann McLerie (Theo Gabler), Billy Lombardo (P.J.), Larry O. Williams (Michael), Shannon Lynch (Sandy), Robin Lynch (Mandy), Ben Ryan Ganger (Jack). Guest Cast: Faith Ford (Terry Berman), Edan Gross (Sherman Berman), B.J. Ward (Airport attendant), Jake Jundef (Boy at airport).

257 Almost Home. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1993). A spin-off from The Torkelsons. Brian Morgan is a lawyer with two mischievous children, Molly and Gregory. He runs his late wife’s business, the Molly–Gregory Fine Children’s Catalogue, from his home in Seattle, Washington. Millicent Torkelson is the divorced mother of three children, Dorothy Jane, Mary Sue and Chuckie Lee. She operates a small business, Millicent Torkelson — Custom Upholstering and Design, from her home in Pyramid Corners, Oklahoma. When her business fails and she loses her home, Millicent moves to Seattle to become the live-in nanny for Molly and Gregory.

Brian considers the Torkelsons to be the most real people he has ever met. Molly and Gregory had six prior nannies “and are known by all of Seattle as terrors” (Brian has nicknamed them Beelzebub and Mephistopheles, the Devil’s children). Molly, 15, is pretty and fashion conscious, and “has a terrible snoring problem.” Her secret ambition is to be a TV weather girl. She calls Dorothy Jane “Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm.”

Dorothy Jane, Molly and Gregory attend Lincoln High School. Dorothy Jane loves her new environment and hopes to shed her “Oklahoma Milk Maid image.” She works after school as a counter girl at the Chicken in a Hat fast food restaurant. Mary Sue has a doll named Martha Sue. Chuckie Lee attends Harrison Junior High School. He is a member of the Wilderness Troop and first realized what girls are when he accidentally opened the bathroom door and saw Molly nude. When Brian takes Millicent out to dinner he puts Dorothy Jane in charge of the house (when Molly was in charge she made $300 worth of phone calls to Suzanne Somers — “I had to, I got caught in her thigh master”; when Gregory was in charge, he sold the house).

Cast: Connie Ray (Millicent Torkelson), Olivia Burnette (Dorothy Jane Torkelson), Perry King (Brian Morgan), Brittany Murphy (Molly Morgan), Jason Marsden (Gregory Morgan), Rachel Duncan (Mary Sue Torkelson), Lee Norris (Chuckie Lee Torkelson).

258 Almost Partners. (Pilot; Comedy; PBS; 5/16/87). While investigating a case involving a stolen urn, N.Y.P.D. Detective Jack Wilder encounters Molly McCue, a very pretty 14-year-old girl with the mind of Sherlock Holmes, who is seeking the urn for her grandmother. The two become reluctant partners and solve the case. The unsold series was to relate Molly’s efforts to help Jack solve crimes.

Cast: Paul Sorvino (Jack Wilder), Royana Black (Molly McCue). Guest Cast: Mary Wickes (Aggie Greyson), Jayce Bartok (Leon James), Peter Bergman (Dan Trigger), Richard Portnoy (Nicky), Lorraine Serabian (Gypsy).

259 Almost Perfect. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1995–1996). Kim Cooper and Mike Ryan are successful workaholics who find time to relax at a bar-restaurant called Annie’s. Kim is the executive producer of the hottest cop show on TV, Blue Justice (for which she won the 1995 Emerald Award; an honor for achievement in TV by the Women in Media Organization). Mike is a district attorney who devotes all his energies to prosecuting cases. Kim and Mike are also romantically involved and the series follows events in their lives as they try to find time in their schedules for a relationship.

Other Regulars: Carmen, Kim’s housekeeper; and Gary, Rob and Neal, writers on Kim’s show.

Cast: Nancy Travis (Kim Cooper), Kevin Kilner (Mike Ryan), Maria Canals (Carmen), Chip Zien (Gary), Matthew Letscher (Rob), David Clennon (Neal).

260 Aloha Paradise. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1981). The Paradise Village is a secluded resort for lovers on the Kona Coast in Hawaii. Sydney Chase is the resort’s charming manager; Curtis Shaw is the harried assistant manager; Fran Linhart is the stunning social director; Everett DeGroot is the rather strange groundskeeper who lives in a world all his own; and Richard Bean is the resort’s handsome lifeguard. The eight episode anthology series, which focused on the lives of the people who vacationed at the resort, was produced by Aaron Spelling and was an obvious (but failed) attempt to transmute the magic of The Love Boat (see entry) from sea to land.

Cast: Debbie Reynolds (Sydney Chase), Bill Daly (Curtis Shaw), Patricia Klous (Fran Linhart), Stephen Shortridge (Richard Bean), Mokihana (Evelyn Pahinui), Charles Fleischer (Everett DeGroot). Theme Vocal: “Aloha Paradise” by Stephen Lawrence.

261 Alone at Last. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 6/24/80). An unsold series about the Elliotts, a family of four living in California. In the pilot, as Greg Elliott and his wife, Laurie, prepare for a trip to Europe, Greg attempts to solve his latest problem: his son Michael’s announcement that he is marrying a woman twice his age (Sherry). Other Regulars: Nancy, Greg’s daughter; Agnes and Jack, Greg’s parents; Lisa, Sherry’s daughter; and Harry, Greg’s brother. See next title also.

Cast: Bill Daily (Greg Elliott), Virginia Vestoff (Laurie Elliott), Kerry Sherman (Nancy Elliott), Michael Horton (Michael Elliott), Francine Beers (Agnes Bernoski), Martin Garner (Jack Bernoski), Elaine Joyce (Sherry), Melissa Sherman (Lisa), Howard Platt (Harry Elliott).

262 Alone at Last. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 9/3/80). A second pilot (see prior title) that depicts events in the lives of the Elliotts, a family of four living in California. In the story, Larry Elliott, the chief of radiology at Memorial General Hospital, attempts to cope with his son Michael’s uncaring attitude and teach him the meaning of responsibility. Other Regulars: Maureen, Larry’s wife; Nancy, Larry’s daughter; and Agnes and Jack, Larry’s parents.

Cast: Eugene Roche (Larry Elliott), Susan Bay (Maureen Elliott), Lilibet Stern (Nancy Elliott), Dana Carvey (Michael Elliott), Florence Halop (Agnes Bernoski), Martin Garner (Jack Bernoski).

263 Along the Barbary Coast. (Pilot; Crime Drama; NBC; 2/27/61). A proposed series about Pete Bishop, a rugged private detective based on San Francisco's Barbary Coast. In the pilot episode, broadcast on The Barbara Stanwyck Theater, Pete attempts to nab Sam Verner, a ruthless racketeer.

Cast: Jerome Thor (Pete Bishop). Guest Cast: Barbara Stanwyck (Trixie Cochran), Richard Eastham (Sam Verner).

264 Alright Already. (Series; Comedy; WB; 1997–1998). Carol Lerner is an attractive woman who is looking for Mr. Right (“Only problem I meet all the Mr. Wrongs”). She lives in Florida and is an optometrist who runs the Collins Avenue Optical Center with her friend Renee Helke (Renee, a theater major in college, sells eyeglasses and contact lenses). Although friends, Carol and Renee are total opposites in character. Carol is a conservative dresser, not much on overdoing makeup and more of a homebody than a party girl (the reason she believes she can never find a man). Renee is a party girl. She wears provocative clothes, flirts with men and feels showing cleavage is a ticket for free drinks and dinner. She stops short of anything else until after she gets to know a man.

Carol lives by herself in an apartment (3D) at Watterton Avenue. It is moderately furnished and reflects what every indoor scene at any location reflects — an aquarium can be seen in the background. Adding misery to her already miserable life are her parents, Alvin and Miriam, and her younger sister, Jessica (who lives with her parents at the Flamingo Pines Village Retirement Home). Alvin and Miriam mean well and feel their intervening in Carol's life is their way of showing how much they love her. Jessica is a Jill of all trades who can't seem to find the right job (she worked, for example with little success, as Carol's receptionist, clerk at Spencer's Department Store, doctor's office receptionist). Carol attributes the problem to Jessica herself—“She has a habit of annoying people and getting fired.” Jessica knows there is a job out there for her somewhere, but in the meantime, her time is spent around senior citizens. She relishes in the fact that she is famous for her sponge cake that is a hit with the older crowd.

Cast: Carol Leifer (Carol Lerner), Amy Yasbeck (Renee Helke), Stacy Galina (Jessica Lerner), Jerry Adler (Alvin Lerner), Mitzi McCall (Miriam Lerner).

265 Alumni Fun. (Series; Game; ABC; CBS; 1963–1966). Two teams compete, each composed of three celebrity college alumni members. A question is read and the first player to identify himself through a buzzer signal receives a chance to answer.

Each correct response awards a cash prize. The winners, the highest scorers, donate their earnings to their college alumni. The series aired on ABC from January 20, 1963 to April 28, 1963; and on CBS from January 12, 1964 to April 5, 1964; January 10, 1965 to March 28, 1965; and January 23, 1966 to May 7, 1966.

Host: Peter Lind Hayes, Clifton Fadiman.

266 Alvin and the Chipmunks. (Series; Cartoon; NBC; 1983). The series, a revised version of The Alvin Show, continues to depict the misadventures of Dave Seville, the owner and manager of Alvin, Theodore and Simon, the singing chipmunks (who are now attending high school and hoping to become recording artists).

Voices: Ross Bagdasarian (Dave Seville/Alvin/Simon/Theodore), Johnny Brown, Janice Karman, Ruth Buzzi, Henry Corden, Julie McWhirter, Johnny Haymer, Barry Livingston, Keye Luke, Howard Morris, Robert Ridgely, Alan Young, Frank Welker.

267 The Alvin Show. (Series; Cartoon; CBS; 1961–1962). The overall title for three animated segments.

1. Alvin and the Chipmunks. The segment relates the misadventures of Dave Seville, the manager of three singing chipmunks (Alvin, Theodore and Simon), as he struggles to keep his protégés under control.

2. The Adventures of Clyde Crashcup. The attempts of world famous scientist Clyde Crashcup to perfect items he doesn't realize are already history (for example, the match, the wheel, a bed).

3. Sinbad, Jr. The adventures of a mighty sailor and his parrot, Salty.

Voice Cast: Ross Bagdasarian (Dave Seville/Alvin/Simon/Theodore), Shepard Menkin (Clyde Crashcup), Tim Matheson (Sinbad, Jr.), Mel Blanc (Salty). Additional Voices: June Foray, Lee Patrick, Bill Lee, William Sanford. Music: Ross Bagdasarian.

268 Always April. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 2/23/61). April Fleming is a beautiful aspiring actress and the daughter of a famous show business couple (David and Guinevere Fleming). The unsold series was to relate April's attempts to make a name for herself. In the pilot episode, broadcast on The Ann Sothorn Show, Katy O'Connor, the assistant manager of the Bartley House Hotel, attempts to reunite April with her parents after she runs away from home.

Cast: Susan Silo (April Fleming), Constance Bennett (Guinevere Fleming), John Emery (David Fleming), Marty Ingels (Erskine Wilde; April's agent). Guest Cast: Ann Sothorn (Katy O'Connor), Leonid Kingsley (Instructor), Elmira Sessions (Nettie Parsons).

269 Amanda Fallon. (Pilot; Drama; NBC; 3/5/72). The first of two pilots (see next title) about the work of Amanda Fallon, a dedicated pediatrician. The first pilot relates Amanda's efforts to comfort and help a 14-year-old boy suffering from bleeding ulcers.

Cast: Jane Wyman (Amanda Fallon), Mike Farrell (Dr. Vic Wheelwright), Lillian Lehman (Nurse Crawford). Guest Cast: Lynnette Mettrey (Dee Merlino), Ronny Howard (Cory Merlino), Robert Hogan (Jack Merlino), Jill Banner (Girl).

270 Amanda Fallon. (Pilot; Drama; NBC; 5/4/73). A second pilot film (see prior title) about the work of Amanda Fallon, a Los Angeles pediatrician. In the pilot episode, titled "And Other Things I May Not See," Amanda tries to help a pregnant teenager (Joyce) who desperately hopes that her baby will somehow fill the void in her life.

Cast: Jane Wyman (Dr. Amanda Fallon). Guest Cast: Laurie Prange (Joyce Cummings), Kathleen Nolan (Carol Steadman), Leslie Nielsen (Mr. Cummings), Pat O'Brien (Mr. Emory), David Fresco (Hertz), Steve Dunne (Mr. Steadman), Miko Mayama (Irene Watanabe), Eric Chase (Mr. Washburn).

271 The Amanda Show. (Series; Comedy; Nickelodeon; 1999–2002). A sketch show geared to children with a preteen host (Amanda) and a group of preteen and teenage regulars. The program presents sketches that spoof everything — from TV shows and movies to wacky families and kids just having fun. Amanda Bynes hosts the series and one recurring aspect of the show is the efforts to Penelope Taynt, Amanda's biggest fan, to meet her idol. Unfortunately, every time things look promising for Penelope to meet Amanda, something always comes up to ruin those plans.

Cast: Amanda Bynes (Herself/Penelope Taynt), Lara Jill Miller (Kathy), Molly Orr (Misty Raines), Taylor Emerson (Preston Taynt), Raquel Lee, John Kassir, Drake Bell, Reagan Gomez-Preston, Brooke Theiss, Camryn Walling, Amy Elizabeth, Traci Swain, Nancy Sullivan, Josh Peck, Lance Kinsey.

272 Amanda's. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1983). The story of Amanda Cartwright, the acerbic owner of Amanda's By The Sea, a charmingly but precariously run hotel overlooking the Pacific Ocean. Her efforts to operate a hotel fraught with problems are the focal point of the program. Based on the British series Fawlty Towers.

Other Regulars: Zachary, Amanda's brother-in-law; Marty, her son; Arlene, Marty's wife; Earl, the chef; Aldo, the muddle-tongued bellboy; Clifford, the local banker and hotel resident; Avril Krinsky, the owner of the nearby Hotel Casa Krinsky.

Cast: Beatrice Arthur (Amanda Cartwright), Kevin McCarthy (Zachary Cartwright), Fred Mc-

Carren (Marty Cartwright), Simone Griffeth (Arlene Cartwright), Rick Hurst (Earl Nash), Tony Rosato (Aldo), Keene Curtis (Clifford Mundy), Michael Constantine (Avril Krinsky).

273 The Amateur's Guide to Love. (Series; Game; CBS; 1972). A taped, prearranged romantic situation, which involves unsuspecting individuals, is played and stopped prior to its conclusion. Two of the subjects involved in the situation appear opposite a panel of three guest celebrities, "The Guidebook Experts." The celebrities first advise as to what the outcome of the situation should be, then predict the subjects' answers — whether or not they actively involved themselves in it. The tape is played to reveal the answers. The subject receives $200 if the celebrities predicted correctly; $100 if they were wrong. Joe Flynn hosted the original pilot version which aired on August 8, 1971.

Host: Gene Rayburn. Performer: Barbara Crosby. Announcer: Kenny Williams.

274 The Amazing Adventures of Tumblin' Tim. (Experimental; Children; NBC; 11/28/45). Tumblin' Tim Joins the Circus was a book that was given free to people who bought Acrobat Shoes (a division of the General Shoe Corp.; the book was written by Carlyle Emery). TV adapted that book as an early and good example of what the new medium could provide for children. The program begins with young Timothy Taylor ready for bed and his mother reading him a story from the book. As Timothy falls asleep, the viewer sees his dream sequences — which begin with him meeting a clown (Pudgy Nose) and being whisked off to a world called the Land of In-Between for a series of brief but exciting adventures. The program ends with Timothy awakening the next morning and wondering if what he experienced was a dream or not.

Cast: Robert Ellis (Timothy Taylor), Betty Babcock (Timothy's mother), Joe Kelly (Pudgy Nose), Phil Kinsman (Voice of Shoe Tree), Tex Morrisey (Hank the Mule). Also: The Bea Carrigan Marionettes (Floppy Ears the Elephant; Peter Monk the Monkey).

275 Amazing But True! (Series; Reality; Syn.; 1961). A thirty-nine episode series of programs that present the unusual and amazing events that have occurred around the world.

Narrator: Doug Storer.

276 The Amazing Chan and the Chan Clan. (Series; Cartoon; CBS; 1972–1974). An animated series based on the famous Oriental movie detective created by Earl Derr Biggers. The investigations of Charlie Chan, a Chinese detective who specializes in solving baffling crimes. Plots concern the intervention of his ten children and their well meaning, but disastrous efforts to assist him.

Voice Cast: Keye Luke (Charlie Chan), Robert

Ito (Henry Chan), Stanley Wong (Stanley Chan), Lennie Weinrib (Stanley Chan; later), Virginia Ann Lee (Suzie Chan), Cherylene Lee (Suzie Chan; later), Brian Tochi (Alan Chan), Leslie Kumamota (Anne Chan), Jodie Foster (Anne Chan; later), Michael Takamoto (Tom Chan), John Gunn (Tom Chan; later), Jay Jay Jue (Flip Chan), Gene Andrusco (Flip Chan; later), Debbie Jue (Nancy Chan), Beverly Kushida (Nancy Chan; later), Leslie Kawai (Mimi Chan), Cherylene Lee (Mimi Chan; later), Robin Toma (Scooter Chan), Michael Morgan (Scooter Chan; later), Don Messick (Chu Chu the Dog). Additional Voices: Lisa Gerritsen, Hazel Shermit, Len Wood.

277 The Amazing Dunninger. (Series; Human Interest; Syn.; 1968). The program spotlights the mind-reading capabilities of mentalist Joseph Dunninger.

An announcer opens the show: “Ladies and gentlemen, I’m Bob Delaney. For the next thirty minutes you are going to see a performance by the most legendary showman of all time, the supreme mentalist who demonstrates his strange ability to tell you what you are thinking — the Amazing Dunninger. Dunninger disclaims the possession of any supernatural or psychic powers and insists that the purpose of his demonstrations is only to entertain you. Never the less, his telepathic mysteries have never been satisfactorily explained or duplicated. Dunninger has mystified countless millions and is now ready to mystify you and tonight’s special guest, Dyan Cannon. So sit back and prepare to be amazed by non other than The Amazing Dunninger.”

Host: Hank Stohl, Bob Delaney. Star: Joseph Dunninger. Announcer: Bob Delaney.

278 Amazing Grace. (Series; Drama; NBC; 1995). Following a near-death experience, Hannah Miller decides to start life over and become a minister. She is ordained as a Reverend, becomes pastor of the Lakeview Church and now offers a helping hand to troubled souls — with a little help from her friends Harry Kramer (a lawyer) and police detective Dominick Corso. Other Regulars: Jenny and Brian, Hannah’s children; Arthur, head of the church committee; and Link, Jenny’s boyfriend.

Cast: Patty Duke (Hannah Miller), Marguerite Moreau (Jenny Miller), Justin Garms (Brian Miller), Dan Lauria (Harry Kramer), Joe Spano (Dominick Corso), Robin Gammell (Arthur Sutherland).

279 The Amazing Live Sea Monkeys. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1992–1993). A laboratory based in a lighthouse on Crescent Cove provides the setting. Here a scientist, called the Professor has brought to life three fish-faced, web-footed, loony sea monkeys, brothers Dave, Aquarius and Bill. Stories follow the brothers’ misadventures as they attempt to live life like humans and learn about life.

In their sea world the brothers attended Diver Dan Memorial High School. They have two pets, Stinky (a seal) and Peeper (a turtle). They eat Sea Wheaties cereal for breakfast and their favorite food is watermelon. Their favorite TV show is “The Star Spotlight Talent Show” and they each have a secret desire to be a spy (like James Bond). They each have “a deep dark secret:” Dave is afraid of polka music (“It gives me the chills”); Bill hates bunny rabbits; and Aquarius can’t keep secrets.

The Professor is a member of the Bridge Club (they build model bridges) and won his high school science fair with a cheese display of the world. He invented the Presto-Chango, a devise that changes two objects into one.

Cast: Howie Mandel (The Professor), Rob LaBelle (Dave), Peter Pitofsky (Aquarius), Sean Whalen (Bill).

280 The Amazing Mr. Malone. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 1951–1952). John J. Malone is a brilliant criminal attorney working out of Chicago. He is also tough as nails when he has to be although he prefers not to use violence. He also likes going by the book when it comes to defending clients but he often finds himself violating his own code of ethics to find evidence he needs to defend and clear his clients. The series, based on the radio series of the same title, is broadcast live and aired from September 24, 1951 to March 10, 1952.

Cast: Lee Tracy (John J. Malone).

281 The Amazing Polgar. (Series; Human Interest; CBS; 1949). A short-lived ten minute series that features demonstrations of psychic phenomena with Franz J. Polgar, a professional psychologist. The series aired from September 16, 1949 to October 21, 1949.

Host: Franz J. Polgar. Announcer: Cy Harrice.

282 The Amazing Race. (Series; Reality; CBS; 2001–). The series, also known as The Amazing Race All Stars, has a basic format: eleven teams, each composed of two members, race around the world to arrive at specific destinations on time or be eliminated if they fail to do so (some versions of the series feature 12 two-member teams); the grand prize is $1,000,000. The teams have to overcome overwhelming odds and frightening challenges to come out on top (teams are required to make their way from country to country on or with anything they can; they also have limited amount resources [money] and must overcome language barriers and cultural differences). The one successful team wins the grand prize.

Host: Phil Keoghan.

283 The Amazing Spider-Man. (Series; Adventure; CBS; 1978–1979). Peter Parker, a graduate student in physics at Empire State University in New York City, is also a freelance photographer for the Daily Bugle, a local newspaper founded in 1890 and housed in the Bugle Building. One day, while covering an experiment on radioactivity, Peter is bitten by a spider that was exposed to the deadly effects of the experiment. Peter later absorbs the proportionate powers and abilities of a living spider. In response to his newfound powers, Peter creates a special red and blue costume to conceal his true identity while he battles crime as the mysterious Spider-Man.

Peter lives at 1231 Maple Drive with his aunt, May Parker; J. Jonah Jameson is the editor of the Bugle; Julie Masters is a reporter for the rival paper, the Register; Rita Conway is Jonah's administrative assistant; and police captain Barbera is headquartered at One Police Plaza in Manhattan.

In the pilot episode, David White as J. Jonah Jameson and Jeff Donnell played Aunt May. The series is based on the comic strip by Stan Lee. Dana Kaproff and Stu Phillips composed the theme.

Cast: Nicholas Hammond (Peter Parker/Spider-Man), Fred Waugh (Spider-Man; stunts), Robert F. Simon (J. Jonah Jameson), Michael Pataki (Police Captain Barbera), Chip Fields (Rita Conway), Ellen Bry (Julie Masters), Irene Tedrow (Peter's Aunt May).

284 Amazing Stories. (Series; Anthology; NBC; 1985–1987). A series of unusual stories that combine elements of fantasy, amazement, irony and comedy. The program, developed by Steven Spielberg, features top name directors and well-known performers.

Caveman (in Program Open): Ray Walston. Performers Include: Drew Barrymore, Loni Anderson, Dom DeLuise, Amy Irving, Sid Caesar, Penny Peyser, Kathleen Lloyd, Polly Holliday, John Lithgow, June Lockhart, Shawn Weatherly, Jamie Rose, Beau Bridges, Natalie Gregory, Helen Shaver, Abbe Lane, Gail Edwards, Milton Berle, Christopher Lloyd, Charles Durning. Theme Song: "Amazing Stories" by Johnny Williams. Directors Include: Burt Reynolds, Clint Eastwood, Joan Darling, Martin Scorsese, William Dear, Steven Spielberg, Donald Petrie, Irving Kershner, Bob Clark, Timothy Hutton.

285 The Amazing Tales of Hans Christian Andersen. (Series; Anthology; Syn.; 1954). Dramatizations based on the magical kingdom of fantasy tales created by Hans Christian Andersen. Filmed in color on location in Copenhagen.

Performers: George Sheldon, Gene Sheldon.

286 The Amazing Three. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1967). In an attempt to maintain peace on Earth, aliens from Galactic Control dispatch three beings to enforce their orders. Their space ship, A-3, lands on Earth and its inhabitants disguise themselves as three Earth animals: a rabbit (who becomes Captain Bonnie), a horse (Corporal Ronnie) and a duck (Lieutenant Zero). Two humans, Kenny Carter and his older brother, Randy (a member of the Bureau of Peace Enforcement) befriend them and vow to keep their secret. Stories relate the group's adventures as they protect the Earth from evil.

Voice Cast: Kurt Nagel (Kenny Carter), Bobbie Byers (Capt. Bonnie), Neil Patrick (Corporal Ronnie), Paul Brown (Lt. Zero).

287 The Amazing World of Kreskin. (Series; Human Interest; Syn.; 1971–1973). The program features mentalist Kreskin demonstrating feats of E.S.P., mind reading and sleight of hand.

Star: Kreskin. Host-Announcer: Bill Luxton.

288 The Amazing Years of Cinema. (Series; Documentary; Syn.; 1981). The series explores the very early years of the Hollywood movie industry. Clips from rarely seen (as well then popular) films are interspersed in specific genre studies with people associated with the industry.

Host-Narrator: Douglas Fairbanks, Jr.

289 Amazon. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1999–2000). TRA Airlines flight 767 enroute from Brazil to Rio DeJenero, encounters a fierce thunderstorm and crashes in the Amazon Rain Forest — a death trap for anyone unfamiliar with its environment and deadly creatures. The series follows the efforts of a group of survivors to do just that — survive the untold dangers that await them as they seek a way out of Nature's death trap. The survivors sleep by night but during the day they follow the rivers ("the rain forest is a gigantic water slide"), watch where they walk and "don't eat what you don't know." The series is quite gritty and somewhat unsettling for its realistic portrait of life and hazards in the rain forest.

Cast: C. Thomas Howell (Dr. Alex Kennedy), Carol Alt (Karen Oldham), Fabiana Udenio (Pia Claire), Chris Martin (Jimmy Stack), Tyler Hynes (Will Bauer), Rob Stewart (Andrew Talbott), Danielle Bouffard (Mary), Kyle Fairlie (Adam), David J. Francis (Callum), Megan Fahlenbock (Tamara), Katie Emme McIninch (Prudence), Ned Vukovic (Tobias).

290 Amen. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1986–1991). When the pastor of the First Community Church of Philadelphia quits, the directors hire the Reverend Reuben Gregory, a young minister with progressive ideas, to replace him. The church was founded by the father of Deacon Ernest Frye. Ernest is set in his ways as to how the church should be run. Reuben feels the church is behind the times and seeks ways to improve it. Hence the conflict and the efforts of each man to do what he thinks is best for the church and its parishioners.

Besides his duties as the deacon, Ernest is also an attorney and later a judge. He has a law office (Room 203) on 56th Street, and his shingle reads

“Attorney-at-Law, Ernest Frye—Where Winning Is Everything.” His late wife was named Laraine. (During the Korean War, Laraine Tillman was a nurse at County General Hospital; Ernest was studying to become a lawyer and worked for Al’s Delivery Service. One day he delivered flowers to a patient, saw Laraine and it was love at first sight. They married, had a child they named Thelma and lived happily for five years; it was at this time that Laraine passed away.)

Reuben has a B.A. from Morehouse College, a master’s degree in religious education from Yale Divinity School, and a doctorate in Christian studies from Union Theological Seminary. He started preaching in Cleveland, where he did “Sunrise Semester” on television. He now holds a weekly “Pastor’s Pow Wow” to discuss church matters with his parishioners. Reuben married Ernest’s daughter, Thelma, in February 1990 and they had a baby boy in May 1991. Also in this year Reuben taught theology at Baxter Women’s College.

Thelma attended West Holmes High School, where she was called “The Undateable” (in the pilot, Ernest said she was jilted 20 times in ten years; in the third episode he says 10 times in ten years). After marrying Reuben, Thelma studied real estate and acquired a job with the firm of Underwood-Baines.

Other Regulars: Rolly Forbes is the older church board member who insults Ernest with one-liners at every opportunity; he is Thelma’s godfather and married Thelma’s aunt, Leola; Amelia Hetebrink and Casietta Hetebrink are two spinster sisters who are also members of the church board.

Relatives: Jane White (Reuben’s mother, Josephine Gregory), Vivian Bonnell (Reuben’s aunt, Martha), Moses Gunn (Ernest’s estranged father-in-law, Ben Tillman); he deserted Laraine when she married Ernest), Rosetta Le Noire (Thelma’s aunt, Leola).

Flashbacks: Anna Maria Horsford (Thelma’s mother, Laraine Tillman), Alexandria Simmons (Thelma age five).

Theme: “Shine on Me,” vocal by Vanessa Bell Armstrong.

Cast: Sherman Hemsley (Ernest Frye), Clifton Davis (Reuben Gregory), Anna Maria Horsford (Thelma Frye), Jester Hairston (Rolly Forbes), Roz Ryan (Amelia Hetebrink), Barbara Montgomery (Casiotta Hetebrink).

291 America. (Series; Documentary; CBS; 1972–1973). A thirteen-episode “personal history” of the United States. The country is explored through historical paintings and commentary from its founding to the twentieth century. The series, filmed by the BBC (England) produced 13 episodes and ran from November 14, 1972 to May 15, 1973.

Host-Narrator: Alistair Cooke.

292 America. (Series; Magazine; Syn.; 1985). A daily program that reports on people, places, events and current trends.

Host: Sarah Purcell, McLean Stevenson, Stuart Damon. Regulars: Erma Bombeck, Dr. Ruth Westheimer. Special Correspondent: Dale Harimoto. Announcer: Rod Roddy.

293 America Alive. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1978–1979). A daily series of interviews, music and news reports. The series is produced by Woody Fraser, Raysa Bonow and Kenny Price.

Host: Jack Linkletter. Co-Host: Janet Langhart, Bruce Jenner, Pat Mitchell. Regulars: David Horowitz, Virginia Graham, David Sheehan, Dick Orkin, Bert Berdis, Dr. William H. Masters. Music: Elliot Lawrence. Theme Music: Don Costa.

294 America 2100. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 7/24/79). One night while seeking some warmth in their freezing hotel room, two unsuccessful comics (Chester and Phil) decide to boil some milk on top of the oven. Chester and Phil had previously each taken a sleeping pill and fall asleep before turning off the gas. The fumes from the oven kill them—but a split second before they died, the cold air froze and suspended them. One hundred and twenty years later, scientists discover the process of cell rejuvenation and are able to safely thaw them out. The unsold series was to relate Phil and Chester’s misadventures in America in the year 2100 (in a world run by Max the Computer).

Cast: Karen Valentine (Dr. Karen Harland), Sid Caesar (Voice of Max), Jon Cutler (Chester Barnes), Mark King (Phil Keese).

295 America 2-Night. (Series; Satire; Syn.; 1978). A spin-off from Fernwood Tonight. Unable to raise the necessary funds to continue his local talk show in Ohio, Barth Gimble relocates to Alta Coma, California, where he becomes the host of America 2-Night over U.B.S. (United Broadcasting System)—“The Network That Puts U Before the B.S.” The series, which spoofs variety programs, presents interviews with well-known celebrities as well as the most grotesque people imaginable.

Jerry Hubbard is Bart’s announcer; Happy Kyne is the leader of the show’s orchestra, the Mirth Makers; William W.B. “Bud” Prize is the talent scout; Virgil Sims is a frequent guest, the mobile home daredevil; Tony Roletti is the lounge singer; Michelle and Tanya are dancers.

Cast: Martin Mull (Barth Gimble), Fred Willard (Jerry Hubbard), Frank DeVol (Happy Kyne), Ken Mars (William W.B. “Bud” Prize), Jim Varney (Virgil Simms), Bill Kirchenbauer (Tony Roletti), Michelle Della Fave (Michelle), Tanya Della Fave (Tanya).

296 American Bandstand. (Series; Variety; ABC; 1957–1987). Music and entertainment geared to teenagers is the basic format of the program. It originally premiered locally in Philadelphia (over station WFIL, Channel 6) in October of 1952. Ron Joseph and Lee Stewart hosted the show from 1952 to 1956. In August of 1956 Dick Clark became the host and 14 months later, on October 7, 1957, the series premiered on ABC where it became a very popular Saturday afternoon series. The program is best known for featuring teenagers dancing to the top songs of the day as well as showcasing established and up-and-coming singers. See also The New American Bandstand.

Host: Dick Clark. Announcer: Charlie O'Donnell, Dick Clark. Original Theme Song: "The Bandstand Boogie" by Charles Albertine. Revised Theme: "American Bandstand" vocal by Barry Manilow. Music: Mike Curb, Les Elgart, Bob Horn, Barry Manilow, Joe Porter, Bruce Sussman.

297 American Dad. (Series; Cartoon; Fox; 2005–). Stan Smith is the American dad of the title. He is a good family man and a man truly dedicated to protecting his country. Stan is a CIA agent and is constantly on the lookout for terrorists (the situation has caused him to become paranoid. He has, among other things, a terror alert color code signal on his refrigerator; and he shoots at the toaster when the bread pops up). He and his family live in the town of Langley Falls.

Stan is married to Francine, a girl who has given up her former life of sex, drugs and partying for the conservative Stan. They are the parents of Steve and Hayley.

Steve is entering his teen years and having a very difficult time adjusting to puberty. He tries to act "cool" but always appears as a "dork." Hayley is a teenager who is just entering community college. Despite the circumstances under which she grew up, she failed to follow in her father's footsteps and become a conservative; she is a left wing liberal (and, although Stan loves her, he can't always trust her).

Also living with Stan are Roger, an extraterrestrial Stan rescued from New Mexico's notorious Area 51 (Roger is not permitted to leave the house and his only pleasures seem to be smoking and drinking wine); and Klaus, a harebrained CIA attempt to graft a German man's brain into the head of a fish. Now the fish, who speaks with a German accent, has become a part of the Smith household.

Voice Cast: Seth MacFarlane (Stan Smith/Roger), Wendy Schaal (Francine Smith), Rachael MacFarlane (Hayley Smith), Scott Grimes (Steve Smith), Dee Bradley (Klaus).

298 American Detective. (Series; Reality; ABC; 1991). A profile of the men and women who risk their lives to protect the public. The documentary style presentation is taped on location in cities and towns across the U.S. and focuses on police officers and how they do their jobs.

Host: Lt. John Bunnell.

299 American Dragon: Jake Long. (Series; Cartoon; Disney; 2005). Jake Long is a 13-year-old Chinese-American boy living in New York City. He is also a descendant of a race of shape-shifting, fire breathing beings known as Dragons. Dragons assume the identities of humans but when the need arises, they can transform themselves to help good defeat evil. Jake's grandfather, Lao Shi, is such a being and he now must pass on the knowledge and abilities of the Dragons to Jake. As Jake studies, he must learn to balance his future destiny as an American Dragon with the normal activities of a teenager. Stories follow Jake's adventures as he mixes crime fighting with schoolwork. Rose is Jake's girlfriend; Fu Dog is Lao Shi's 600-year-old magical canine.

Voice Cast: Dante Basco (Jake Long), Keone Young (Lai Shi), Mae Whitman (Rose), John DiMaggio (Fu Dog), Lauren Tom (Jake's mother).

300 The American Dream. (Series; Drama; ABC; 1981). The story of the Novacks, a white middle-class family who move from the Chicago suburb of Arlington Heights to an interracial inner-city to find the American Dream. Episodes relate the family's experiences in new surroundings. Originally titled "The Novacks." Regulars in addition to the Novacks (parents Donna and Danny and their children, Casey, Todd and Jennifer) are Sam, Donna's father; and Abe, their neighbor.

Cast: Karen Carlson (Donna Novack), Stephen Macht (Danny Novack), Tim Waldrip (Casey Novack), Michael Hershewe (Todd Novack), Andrea Smith (Jennifer Novack), John McIntire (Sam Whit-tier), Hans Conried (Abe Berlowitz).

301 American Dreamer. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1990–1991). In 1972, after graduating from college (NYU), Tom Nash becomes a stringer for an unnamed, low-rated TV news program. At a later date, he becomes a reporter and falls in love with and marries Elizabeth, his field cameraperson. Although they both continue to work, they manage to have two children (Rachel and Danny). Fourteen years later, when they are both working for UPI, Elizabeth is killed while covering the war in Lebanon. Tom quits his job and moves to a small Wisconsin town to raise his children.

There, Tom acquires a job as a columnist for the Chicago American (a.k.a. the Chicago Metro), a Chicago-based newspaper. Joe Barnes, the editor, visits Tom on a weekly basis to pick up his columns and complain about "the fresh air and general decency of the people," which appalls him.

Tom writes about “things he worries about, things that touch his life and things he wonders about.”

Rachel Nash, Tom’s 15-year-old daughter, attends Mission West High School. She is one of the prettiest girls in her school, “always having boy trouble” and constantly in a dither about the attention she keeps getting but apparently can’t handle. Though her father and brother are Catholic, Rachel became an Episcopalian. She plans to marry a blond rock star when she is 24. Rachel now works after school as a waitress at Baker’s Corner, the local diner.

Danny Nash, Tom’s 12-year-old son, attends Wisconsin Junior High School. He is a member of the Leopards, the baseball team.

Lillian (“Lilly”) Abernathy is Tom’s flakey secretary. She attended Mission West High School and later spent 12 years in night school to obtain her B.A. in journalism. Lillian is a Libra and has been distrustful of men since her divorce from Bill (she has trouble walking past the men’s room). She once attended a bachelor party (“I jumped out of the cake”) and knew her first marriage was over when Bill said, “Lilly, it’s over.”

Holly Baker is the owner of the local hangout, a diner called Baker’s Corner. When she was a kid, Holly and her sister, Drew, performed as the singing group Holly and the Pip for the Girl Scout Jamboree.

Relatives: DeLane Matthews (Holly’s sister, Drew Baker), Kiersten Warren (Joe’s daughter, Lisa Barnes; she attends Blessed Sacrament Academy), John Glover (Lillian’s ex-husband, Bill Abernathy), Eileen Brennan (Lillian’s mother, Beatrice Pfeiffer), Brice Beckham (Lillian’s son, Nelson Abernathy).

Flashbacks: Heather Menzies (Tom’s wife, Elizabeth Nash), Michael Alldredge (Tom’s father).

Theme: “American Dreamer,” by Peter Leinheiser.

Cast: Robert Urich (Tom Nash), Chay Lentin (Rachel Nash), Johnny Galecki (Danny Nash), Carol Kane (Lillian Abernathy), Jeffrey Tambor (Joe Barnes), Margaret Welsh (Holly Baker).

302 American Dreams. (Series; Drama; NBC; 2002–2005). It was a time of social unrest; a time of the Vietnam War; a time when the world was much less complicated. It was the 1960s and in soap opera like fashion, events in the lives of the Pryor family are presented as they move toward the cultural upheaval of the years that are to follow.

The Pryors live in Philadelphia. John, called Jack, and Helen, are the parents (Jack owns an electronics store); Meg, Will, J.J. and Patty are their children. Particular focus is on Meg, a typical teenage girl of the era (girl next door image, fashion conscious, a bit insecure) as she experiences life (she attends East Catholic High School and has an unrelenting passion to dance on the actual teen show of the time, American Bandstand).

J.J. (John, Jr.) is portrayed as a rebellious young man who wants to pursue his own dreams — not follow in his father’s footsteps (he is currently serving as a Marine in Vietnam). Youngest daughter Patty is struggling to grow up amid a constantly changing social atmosphere; and Will, who is suffering from polio, is struggling to live with a crippling disease.

American Bandstand is a major part of the program and clips from the original series are generously provided by Dick Clark (the show’s host). Current day recording artists also appear to portray singers famous at the time — and who appeared on American Bandstand. TV shows of the time are also correctly portrayed although stars (like Paris Hilton) are used to recreate a specific personality (Paris as Barbara Eden in I Dream of Jeannie). Continuity is also a bit off when clips from American Bandstand are shown but do not match the recreations of the same scene.

Cast: Gail O’Grady (Helen Pryor), Tom Verica (Jack Pryor), Brittany Snow (Meg Pryor), Sarah Ramos (Patty Pryor), Will Estes (J.J. Pryor), Ethan Dampf (Will Pryor), Vanessa Lengies (Roxanne Borsari), Jonathan Adams (Henry Walker), Arlen Escarpeta (Sam Walker), Keith Robinson (Nathan Walker), Virginia Madsen (Rebecca Sandstrom), Rachel Boston (Beth Mason), Jamie Elman (Luke).

303 The American Embassy. (Series; Drama; Fox; 2002). The series, originally titled Emma Brody is set at the American Embassy in London, England and follows the events in the life of Emma Brody, a young vice counsel, as she helps American travelers in need of guidance.

Emma is a young woman who longed to do what she is now doing. Unfortunately, Emma is written as a character without real substance. She is seductive and ambitious but she is also seen as weak and uncertain, confidant and determined and lost and confused at times when doing her job.

Carmen Jones and Liz Shoop are Emma’s close friends; Doug Roach is the CIA operative; Gary Forbush is Emma’s cross-dressing neighbor; and Elque Polk is the Counsel General (Emma’s boss).

Cast: Arja Barelkis (Emma Brody), Davenia McFadden (Carmen Jones), Reiko Aylesworth (Liz Shoop), David Cubitt (Doug Roach), Jonathan Adams (Elque Polk), Michael Cerveris (Gary Forbush), Jonathan Cake (Jack Wellington), Nicholas Irons (James Wellington).

304 American Family. (Series; Drama; PBS; 2002–2004). Events in the lives of the Gonzalez’s, an American-Latino family who are struggling to deal with the problems of everyday life. PBS picked up the series, which ran from January 23, 2002 to July 11, 2004, after the major broadcast networks rejected it.

Cast: Edward James Olmos (Jess Gonzalez), Sonia Braga (Berta Gonzalez), Constance Marie (Nina Gonzalez), Rachel Ticotin (Vangie Gonzalez), Raquel Welch (Aunt Dora), Austin Marques (Pablito Gonzalez), Kurt Caceres (Conrado Gonzalez), Yancey Arias (Conrado Gonzalez; later), Parker Torres (Cisco Gonzalez), A.J. James (Cisco Gonzalez), Jay Hernandez (Cisco Gonzalez), Esai Morales (Esteban Gonzalez), Alexis Cruz (Sgt. Joaquin Garcia), Kate del Castillo (Ofelia), Liz Torres (Rosa), Alexandra Barreto (Young Berta; flashbacks), Aimee Garcia (Young Nina; flashbacks), Alisa Reyes (Young Vangie; flashbacks), Paul Diaz (Young Conrado; flashbacks), Bodie Olmos (Young Jess; flashbacks), Hector Escalante (Young Esteban; flashbacks).

305 The American Girls. (Series; Drama; CBS; 1978). Rebecca Tompkins and Amy Waddell are roving reporters for The American Report, a New York based television newsmagazine series hosted by Jason Cook and produced by Francis X. Casey.

Rebecca is a sophisticated blonde who was formerly the anchor of The 10 o'Clock News Hour at KSF-TV, Channel 6, in San Francisco; Amy, a cunning brunette, is a recent college graduate and did her internship at WREF-TV, Channel 36, in Washington, D.C.

The reporters drive around the country in a van (mobile phone number 456-2114; later 555-2114) and investigate stories given to them by Casey. Lisa Lyke played Amy as a young girl in a flashback sequence. Jerrold Immel composed "The American Girls Theme."

Cast: Priscilla Barnes (Rebecca Tompkins), Debra Clinger (Amy Waddell), David Spielberg (Francis X. Casey), William Prince (Jason Cook).

306 American Gladiators. (Series; Game; Syn.; 1989-1997). A game show, like no other on television at the time, in which two teams of ordinary people (the male vs. the female) compete in contests of physical dexterity attempting to beat the Gladiators (athletic body builders) and score the most points to win the game. See also Gladiators 2000 for information on the children's version of the series.

On January 6, 2008, NBC revised the series with a new breed of Gladiators that follows the basic format of the original series. The 2008 Gladiators are Gina Carano (as Crush), Jaime Kovac (as Fury), Robin Coleman (as Hellga), Justice Smith (as Justice), Romeo Williams (as Mayhem), Alex Castro (as Militia), Valerie Waugaman (as Siren), Tanji Johnson (as Stealth), Mike O'Hearn (as Titan), Tanoai Reed (as Tor), Beth Horn (as Venom), Don Yates (as Wolf). Hulk Hogan and Laila Ali are the co-hosts.

Host: Larry Csonka, Todd Christensen, Mike Adamle, Joe Theismann, Danny Lee Clark. Hostess:

Lisa Malosky. Referee: Larry Thompson, Jeff Nathanson, Bob Wucetich, Mark Tucker. Gladiators Cast: Marissa Pare (Lace), Tonya Knight (Gold), Michael M. Horton (Gemini), Lori Petrick (Ice), Jim Starr (Laser), Raye Hollitt (Zap), Sha-Ri Pendleton (Blaze), David Nelson (Titan), Cheryl Barldinger (Sunny), Derson McBee (Malibu), Galen Tomlinson (Turbo), Cathy Sassin (Panther), Daz Crawford (Diesel), Ed Radcliffe (Tank), Shannon Hall (Dallas), Mark Tucker (Rebel), Lee Reheman (Hawk), Victoria Gay (Jazz), Barry Turner (Cyclone), Natalie Lennox (Lace), Chuck Berliner (Viper), Salina Bartunek (Elektro), Lynn "Red" Williams (Sabu), Shirley Eson (Sky), Shelley Beattie (Siren), Debbie Clark (Storm), Steve Henneberry (Tower), Erika Andersch (Diamond). Announcer: John Harlan.

307 American Gothic. (Series; Drama; CBS; 1995). Trinity is a small picturesque town in South Carolina that is held in the grip of fear by Lucas Buck, a sheriff who appears to have ties with the devil (or possesses supernatural powers). While Lucas uses his evil ways to control the people, he fears Merlyn Temple, the ghost of a 16-year-old girl who is seeking to end his reign.

Merlyn was a pretty teenager who became traumatized by the death of her mother. She supposedly killed herself over this, but it is suspected that Lucas killed her (as he was the last person to see her alive). Merlyn has a brother named Caleb (who resulted after Lucas raped Merlyn's mother). Caleb was unaware that Lucas was his father until the town doctor, Matt Crower, uncovered the fact. Caleb fears Lucas because Lucas needs to overpower Caleb and bring him to his side. Lucas finds this task much more difficult than he had imagined. Merlyn's spirit has appeared to watch over Caleb and Gail Emory, Caleb's cousin, a newspaper reporter for the Charlotte, North Carolina, Post, has also discovered Lucas' plan and is now in a battle of good over evil with Lucas. Serial-like stories follow Lucas's efforts to defeat Merlyn and Gail and gain complete control over Caleb.

Other Regulars: Selena Coombs, a teacher at Trinity Elementary School; Miss Holt, owner of the boarding house.

A narrator opens the show: "Welcome to Trinity, South Carolina. It looks like a pretty nice place to live — well look again, look closer, there's a dark force at work in Trinity [Sheriff Lucas Buck] and just about everybody here owes Lucas; and strange, bad things seem to happen to people who don't share in Sheriff Buck's vision — American Gothic next."

Cast: Gary Cole (Sheriff Lucas Buck), Lucas Black (Caleb Temple), Sarah Paulson (Merlyn Temple), Paige Turco (Gail Emory), Jake Weber (Dr. Matt Crower), Brenda Bakke (Selena Coombs), Michael Burgess (Dr. Daniel Turlane), N'Bushu Wright

(Cheryl Turlane), Tina Lifford (Miss Holt), Tammy Arnold (Caleb's mother; flashbacks), Nick Searcy (Deputy Ben Healey).

308 American Heiress. (Series; Drama; My Network TV; 2007). A dramatic portrait of an American family — the Wakefields. Lionel Arthur Wakefield, a widower, is the head of the family, a man who built a business empire for his children: Elizabeth, Damian, Lauren and Matthew.

Elizabeth is “infuriatingly perfect” (says Damian). She is also beautiful and smart “and everyone’s favorite — the angel that is always given the seat of honor.” Damian, the eldest son, feels he is unloved by his father — “You don’t give a damn about me.” (Lionel disagrees and claims to have loved all his children equally — although he does show favoritism to Elizabeth). Lauren is “tasteless and clueless and completely predictable.” She is also, as Damian says, “a slut.” Matthew, the youngest Wakefield, “cares for nothing but his cars.”

Damian claims to be “the darkness that will cast a shadow over the kingdom.” He believes he should be in charge of the company (especially since his father has heart problems) and because he feels he has been unloved, has plotted to become the head of the empire — “You can’t choose your family, but you can always kill them.” Stories, presented in serial-like fashion, follow the greed, power and corruption that spark the lives of the Wakefields. The title refers to Elizabeth, next in line to take over the family fortune, and her struggles to cope with her family when she marries a man (J.D. Bruce) who appears to have married Elizabeth for what she will inherit.

Cast: Alicia Leigh Willis (Elizabeth Wakefield), John Aprea (Lionel Wakefield), Race Owen (Damian Wakefield), Annalynne McCord (Lauren Wakefield), Robert Buckley (Matthew Wakefield), Theresa Russell (Jordan Wakefield), Carter MacIntyre (J.D. Bruce), Patrick Burleigh (Parker Banks), Angela Gots (Danielle), Mieke Hillman (Serena Hill), Luis Lopez (Georgio), Burton Perez (Clay), Michael Brainard (Alex Koris), Joe Manganiello (Mark Morgan).

309 American Idol. (Series; Reality; Fox; 2002–). A simple premise for television’s most popular reality series: aspiring singers compete for a recording contract and the title “American Idol.” The series begins with several shows devoted to showcasing the contestants who didn’t make it with the remainder of the series spotlighting the twelve finalists (chosen from open auditions around the country) — who perform songs each week with viewers calling in to vote and determine who gets eliminated (fewest votes). Each finalist performs songs from categories suggested by the show’s producers. Although the contestants are judged by a panel, they cannot eliminate them (only offer opinions); home audience votes determine who goes and who stays.

Kelly Clarkson was voted the very first American Idol (and has gone on to achieve fame).

Host: Ryan Seacrest. Judges: Simon Cowell, Paula Abdul, Randy Jackson.

310 American Idol Rewind. (Series; Reality; Syn.; 2006). Repeats of the first season (2002) of American Idol in which Texas waitress Kelly Clarkson became the first American Idol. The program adds additional footage of casting calls and songs that were not seen when originally broadcast. It also edits out the viewer call in to vote segments.

Host: Ryan Seacrest. Judges: Simon Cowell, Paula Abdul, Randy Jackson.

311 American Inventor. (Series; Reality; ABC; 2006–). A reality series that seeks to find a clever inventor and the next product that will take America by storm. Amateur inventors, chosen from open auditions (demonstrating their product) are brought to Los Angeles for a semi-finals competition. Here, each inventor is given the opportunity to explain what he has invented, what he hopes to accomplish, then demonstrate what he has invented. A panel of three judges evaluate each contestant and eliminate those they feel have no sales potential or the idea is just impractical. When the group of twelve is narrowed down to six, each receives $50,000 to further develop his idea. Once this has been accomplished, each finalist returns with an improved version of his original idea — which he now demonstrates and which, although judged by the panel, are open to viewer call in votes. Inventors are eliminated, one per week, until two finalists remain. The final call in votes determine the best inventor and he receives $1 million with which to fully develop his idea. It is not all bad news for the other finalists. They are introduced to appropriate companies where they will work as interns to develop their products.

Host: Matt Gallant (Cycle 1), Nick Smith (Cycle 2). Judges (Cycle 1): Peter Jones, Doug Hall, Ed Evangelista, Mary Lou Quinlan. Judges (Cycle 2): Peter Jones, Pat Croche, George Foreman, Sarah Blackeley.

312 American Juniors. (Series; Reality; Fox; 2003). A spin off from American Idol that presents talented children with the home audience voting (calling special toll free numbers) to determine the best singers and dancers. While interesting — and tense as contestants are eliminated, the winners, Danielle White among them, never achieved the fame or the fortunes of their American Idol counterparts (Danielle was talented and “hot” for the moment but she and other talented children never achieved fame).

Host: Ryan Seacrest. Judges: Deborah Gibson, Justin Guarini, Gladys Knight, Brian McKnight, Jordan Knight, Nick Carter, Monica Arnold.

313 American Lifestyle. (Series; Documentary; Syn.; 1972). The story of America's past and present with emphasis placed on the men and women who had the greatest impact on the development of the country.

Host-Narrator: E.G. Marshall.

314 American Minstrels. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1949). A series of comedy sketches based on vaudeville routines.

Host: Jack Carter. Regulars: Mary Small, Estelle Sloan, Jimmy Burrell, Pick and Pat.

315 American Nuclear. (Pilot; Drama; CBS; 7/25/89). New York newspaper columnist Mickey Dunne and mayoral aide Annie Holshire marry and create an atypical nuclear family with his two rebellious kids (Mary and David) and her uptight son and daughter (Michael and Rachel). The unsold series was to relate incidents in their lives.

Cast: James Farentino (Mickey Dunne), Samantha Mathis (Mary Dunne), Matt Levin (David Dunne), Lindsay Crouse (Annie Holshire), Kim Hauser (Rachel Holshire), Mark Ruffalo (Michael Holshire). Guest Cast: Jimmy Breslin (Marty), Holland Taylor (Mayor Brown), Evander Holyfield (The Champ), Ricco Ross (Alvin Thomas), Susan Gibney (Miss Curry), Arlynn Page (Doreen), Jackie Cressel (Lavette). Note: Adrian Brody was originally cast in the role of Michael and his name appears on some press information.

316 An American Portrait. (Series; History; CBS; 1984). A series of one-minute documentaries that focus on the accomplishments of rarely celebrated heroes and heroines — people from every aspect of society who have left a special mark on some aspect of American life. Celebrity guests host the micro documentaries, which were broadcast each weeknight for 8:58 P.M. to 8:59 P.M., EST.

317 American Princess. (Series; Reality; WE; 2005). Twenty (later twelve) uncouth, rude, ill-mannered American women (who also lack social skills) are brought to England to master the fine art of British society. Each of the women are put through a series of tasks (for example, serving tea, dinner party etiquette, walking in high heels) to find the one woman who can change her crude ways to become a dignified lady (much like the plot of the feature film My Fair Lady). The one woman who most improves herself receives a golden tiara and the title "American Princess."

Host: Mark Durden-Smith.

318 American River. (Unaired Pilot; Drama; Produced for NBC in 1989). A proposed series about Claire Nichols, the mother of two teenage daughters (Laura and Toni) as she struggles to make a living as the owner of the Hi-Lo, a run-down truck stop and diner.

Cast: Helen Shaver (Claire Nichols), Perrey Reeves (Laura Nichols), Marcianne Warman (Toni Nichols). Guest Cast: Claude Akins (Kibby), Debra Jo Rupp (Lotti).

319 American Song. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1948–1949). A series of programs that showcases American folk music, songs, dancers and performers.

Host: Paul Arnold. Regulars: Nellie Fisher, Ray Harrison.

320 The American West. (Series; Travel; Syn; 1967). A weekly color tour of America's frontier, national parks, ghost towns, Indian Reservations, wildlife and rodeos.

Host/Narrator: Jack Smith. Theme Vocal: "The American West" by Jack Smith.

321 Americana. (Series; Game; NBC; 1947–1949). Two teams of high school students compete in an American history quiz. Each question that is answered correctly scores that player one point. The player with the highest score is the winner and receives a set of the Encyclopedia Americana. The series ran from December 8, 1947 to July 4, 1949.

Host (1947–1948): John Mason Brown. Host (1948–1949): Ben Grauer.

322 Americans. (Series; Drama; NBC; 1961). The series, set during the Civil War, relates the wartime activities of Ben and Jeff Canfield, two brothers who abandon their farm in Virginia to fight for what each believes is right: Ben, the elder, as a Union loyalist; and Jeff as a Confederate with the Virginia Militia. Each brother's experiences are depicted in separate stories on alternate weeks (17 episodes aired from January 23, 1961 to September 11, 1961).

Cast: Darryl Hickman (Ben Canfield), Dick Davalos (Jeff Canfield), John McIntire (Pa Canfield).

323 America's Dumbest Criminals. (Series; Reality; Syn.; 1996). A reality series that uses surveillance videos of potential crooks who were so dumb that they were caught by their own stupidity. The series also uses recreations based on videos to better portray a criminal action.

Hosts: Daniel Butler, Beaumont Bacon, Debbie Alan (not the actress). Cast (Various Roles): Mark J. Ferreri (most often the criminal), Wes Motley, Steven Pippin, Carla Rene.

324 America's Funniest Home Videos. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1990–). A clip program that showcases the comical home videos of average people. The "production" that is judged the funniest by the studio audience earns its "producer" $10,000. All weekly winning clips later compete for a $100,000 prize. All videos shown are comical moments that unexpectedly happen (caught by the camera) and not staged.

Host: Bob Saget, John Fugelsang, Daisy Fuentes, Tom Bergeron. Announcer: Ernie Anderson.

325 America's Funniest People. (Series; Comedy; USA; 1990–1994). A spin off from America's Funniest Home Videos that uses videos staged for laughs (as opposed to random comical incidents caught on video tape) for its format. Rather than not use the staged videos sent to the program, the producers opted to showcase the productions in an amateur film contest. Each episode produced a winning video (chosen by the studio audience) with the weekly winners (who receive $10,000) competing in a grand finale for $100,000.

Host: Dave Coulier, Tawny Kitaen, Arleen Sorokin.

326 America's Got Talent. (Series; Reality; NBC; 2006–). A nationwide talent hunt to find the most talented person in America. Everyday people with talents ranging from singing, dancing, musical instrument abilities, juggling, circus-like acts and balancing acts to simply odd acts, compete for the top prize of $1 million. While each act is judged by a panel (much in the same way as on American Idol, where the lowest vote accumulators are eliminated each week), it is the home audience votes to determine the person they feel has the most talent. Teenage singer Bianca Ryan won the top prize on the series first cycle.

Host (Cycle 1): Regis Philbin. Host (Cycle 2): Jerry Springer. Judges (Cycle 1): David Hasselhoff, Brandy Norwood, Piers Morgan. Judges (Cycle 2): David Hasselhoff, Sharon Osbourne, Piers Morgan. Announcer: Andrew Kishino.

327 America's Greatest Bands. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1955). The program showcases the music and orchestra leaders of the Big Band era. The summer replacement for The Jackie Gleason Show. The series is hosted by bandleader Paul Whiteman and aired from June 25, 1955 to September 24, 1955.

328 America's Most Talented Kids. (Series; Variety; NBC; PAX; 2003–2006). Children, aged three to fifteen compete in a talent contest. The children are divided into three groups: three to seven years of age; eight to twelve and thirteen to fifteen. Each performs (songs, dances, instrument solos) and is judged and rated (from one to ten) on talent and showmanship. The performer with the highest score wins the weekly competition and returns at a later date to compete in the grand finale. In the event of a tie, audience applause determines the winner. Twelve-year-old Cheyenne Kimball (singer, songwriter, guitarist) was the program's first grand winner (receiving $50,000). The series ran on NBC in 2003 and on PAX, 2004–2006.

Host (NBC): Mario Lopez. Host (PAX): Dave Coulier. Judge (NBC): Lance Bass (plus two guests).

Judge (PAX): Scarlett Pomers, Daryl Sabara, Bobbie J. Thompson.

329 America's Most Wanted. (Series; Reality; Fox; 1995–). A hard-hitting factual series that asks the viewing audience to help bring criminals to justice. Each episode covers several actual crimes, using the actual names, places and people involved. Through available video footage and/or reenactments, the particulars of a violent crime are presented. All the known facts regarding the suspect in the case (who is usually on the run) are also presented. Toll free phone numbers are given for viewers to call should they have a tip or possess information that is not known to authorities. Recaps of prior cases are also presented to update viewers on the current status of the case.

Host: John Walsh.

330 America's Most Wanted: Final Justice. (Series; Reality; Syn.; 1995). A syndicated follow up to the Fox series America's Most Wanted. Here cases that were profiled on the original series are brought to successful conclusions with the arrest of a suspect (or suspects)—all of which has been made possible by tips from viewers. When time permits, a new case is exposed and all the facts are given to the audience in the hope a tipster will call the toll free numbers provided.

Host: John Walsh.

331 America's Next Top Model. (Series; Reality; UPN, 2003–2006; CW, 2006–). A weekly search to find a super model. Twelve potential female models are chosen from various auditions from around the country. These finalists then compete in a series of actual modeling shoots with one girl being eliminated each week. The girl who proves herself superior is crowned “America's Next Top Model” and wins a fashion spread in Elle magazine, a $100,000 contract with Cover Girl cosmetics and a contract with the Ford Modeling Agency.

Host: Tyra Banks. Judges: Tyra Banks, Janice Dickinson, Nigel Barker, Jay Manuel, Twiggy, J. Alexander, Beau Quillian.

332 America's Top Ten. (Series; Music; Syn.; 1980). A weekly series that spotlights the current top ten singles as reported by Billboard magazine.

Host: Casey Kasem.

333 The Ames Brothers Show. (Series; Variety; Syn.; 1955). Music and songs by the Ames Brothers, a quartet of popular singers during the 1950s. The program itself is styled after a fan magazine and highlights of their careers are injected into each program.

Host: Ed Ames, Vic Ames, Joe Ames, Gene Ames. Regular: Cheerio Meredith. Orchestra: Harry Geller.

334 Amish in the City. (Series; Reality; UPN; 2004). The only reality series (as of 2007) that uses the subject of religion for its premise. Here five Amish youths leave their home (and way of life) in Philadelphia to experience and test a way of life that is relatively unknown to them (and enjoy modern conveniences that are forbidden in the Amish world). The five Amish youths (Jonas, Miriam, Mose, Randy and Ruth) become roommates with six non-Amish youths (Reese, Nick, Whitney, Ariel, Kevan and Meagan). Each learns from the others as cultures clash and the Amish youths must decide at the end of their experience whether or not to return to their prior life or live a new one. The Amish tradition that is presented is called “Rumspringa” (“Trying Out the World”).

335 The Amos 'n' Andy Show. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1951–1953). Amos Jones and Andrew “Andy” Brown are two financially strapped African Americans who are hoping to better their lives. With a plan to do just that they leave their homes in Marietta, Georgia, and head for New York City. Amos is intelligent and levelheaded; Andy is naïve and easily manipulated. One day while watching the construction of a skyscraper in Manhattan, Andy meets George “Kingfish” Stevens, a con artist when he catches him trying to pick his pocket. George explains, “One of my solid gold cufflinks must of gotten caught on your jacket sleeve,” and Andy accepts it. Andy then tells him he has $340 to invest in a business. Before Andy realizes that he has been taken, George sells him a taxi that is missing a door and its roof. Although disappointed in Andy’s investment, Amos makes the best of it and starts the Fresh Air Taxi Cab Company of America, Inc. (Amos drives the cab; Andy oversees its operations).

Amos met his future wife, Ruby Taylor, after a Sunday church social. They married and set up housekeeping at 134th Street and Lenox Avenue. Later, they are the parents of a girl they name Arbadella. Andy is single and lives in a small apartment on 134th Street. George has been married to the always nagging Sapphire since 1931 and lives with her and her mother Mama at 134 East 145th Street. George is henpecked and can’t get out from under the iron rule of Sapphire.

Amos, the most stable member of the group, Andy and George are members of the Mystic Knights of the Sea Lodge (where George is the Kingfish). Andy, who considers himself to be a ladies man, supposedly had many girlfriends. He is most famous for his romantic involvement with Madame Queen, the overbearing woman who stole his heart then sued him for breach of promise after they had planned to marry and she caught him with another woman.

Algonquin J. Calhoun is the totally inept lawyer Andy always hires to get him out of a scrape. Light-nin’ is the slow-moving cab company janitor; He calls George “Mr. Kingfish” and Andy “Mr. Andy”; Genevieve Blue is the cab company secretary.

The series is based on the radio program of the same title wherein two white men, Freeman Gosden and Charles Correll, played Amos and Andy. Clarence Lucas and Joseph Breil composed the theme, “The Perfect Song.”

An announcer’s words open the show: “Out of the library of American Folklore, those treasured stories such as Huck Finn, Paul Bunyon and Rip Van Winkle, which have brought us laughter and joy for generations, come the warm and lovable tales of Amos and Andy. Presented by the Blatz Brewing Company of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, on behalf of Blatz dealers everywhere. Now enjoy Blatz, America’s finest beer.”

Cast: Alvin Childress (Amos Jones), Spencer Williams, Jr. (Andrew H. Brown), Tim Moore (George Stevens), Jane Adams (Ruby Jones), Ernestine Wade (Sapphire Stevens), Amanda Randolph (Mama), Nick Stewart (Lightnin’), Johnny Lee (Algonquin J. Calhoun), Patty Marie Ellis (Arbadella Jones), Lillian Randolph (Madame Queen), Madaline Lee (Genevieve Blue). Singers: The Jeff Alexander Chorus. Announcer: Ken Niles.

336 Amos Burke, Secret Agent. (Series; Crime Drama; ABC; 1965–1966). A spin-off from Burke’s Law. When Amos Burke, the millionaire police captain with the Los Angeles Police Department (Homicide Division) tires of his job, he resigns to find something more exciting — that as a United States government undercover agent. Stories follow Amos as he attempts to infiltrate crime organizations and expose high-ranking mob officials. A mysterious character, known only as “The Man,” is Amos’s superior.

Cast: Gene Barry (Amos Burke), Carl Benton Reid (The Man).

337 Amos Burke: Who Killed Julie Greer? (Pilot; Crime Drama; NBC; 9/26/61). The pilot film for Burke’s Law (ABC, 1963–65) about a millionaire (by birth) who worked his way up through the ranks to become an inspector with the L.A.P.D. In the pilot episode, broadcast on The Dick Powell Show, Amos attempts to solve the murder of a famous model (Julie Greer).

Cast: Dick Powell (Amos Burke). Guest Cast: Carolyn Jones (Julie Greer), Dean Jones (Phil Winslow), Nick Adams (George Townsend), Ralph Bellamy (Judge Hansen), Edgar Bergen (Dr. Coombs), Joan Staley (Ann Farmer), Mickey Rooney (Mike Zampini), Ronald Reagan (Rex Kent), Jack Carson (Fairchild).

338 Amy Prentiss. (Series; Crime Drama; NBC; 1974–1975). Amy Prentiss is a widow who also happens to be a Chief of Detectives with the San Francisco Police Department. She is the mother of a young daughter (Jill) and in charge of a unit of male detectives. Stories follow Amy as she struggles to divide her time between work and raising her daughter.

Cast: Jessica Walter (Amy Prentiss), Helen Hunt (Jill Prentiss), M. Emmet Walsh (Police Chief Demsey), Steve Sandor (Sgt. Tony Russell), Art Metrano (Det. Roy Pena), Gwen Mitchell (Joan Carter; Amy's secretary).

339 Anchor Woman. (Series; Reality; Fox; 2007). Lauren Jones is a gorgeous buxom blonde swimsuit model who dreams of becoming a hard-hitting anchor woman. Encompassing the format of a reality series but combining it with elements of a sitcom, Lauren leaves Los Angeles and heads to Tyler, Texas, to become the anchor woman for the news broadcasts on KYTX-TV, Channel 19.

Lauren was hired by Phil Hurley, the station owner. The station is in a ratings slump and is having a difficult time competing against the network newscasts. Phil believes that even though Lauren has no experience, her looks is what the five P.M. news broadcast needs to up its six percent share of the audience.

Annalisa Petralia, the current anchor, is none to happy with a miniskirt wearing blonde bombshell sharing the spotlight; Dan Delgado, the news director is furious at the prospect of dealing with the inexperienced Lauren; Michelle Reese, the station's top reporter (who hopes to land a job with CNN) sees Lauren as a threat to her chances and will stop at nothing to outdo Lauren.

Stories follow Lauren as she plunges head first into the world of broadcast journalism — not so much for the glory, but to show the world she is more than just a pretty face. Due to dismal ratings the series was canceled the same night it premiered (August 22, 2007).

Cast (Portraying Themselves): Lauren Jones, Phil Hurley, Annalisa Petralia, Dan Delgado, Michelle Reese.

340 And Everything Nice. (Series; Women; DuMont; 1949–1950). Beauty tips, fashion advice and health tips geared to the female members of the viewing audience.

Hostess: Maxine Barat.

341 And Here's the Show. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1955). A weekly summer series of music, songs and comedy sketches. The series ran from June 9, 1955 to September 24, 1955.

Host: Ransom Sherman. Regulars: Jonathan Winters, Stephanie Antler, Kay O'Grady, Tommy Knox, Ted Canterbury, The Double Daters. Announcer: Bob LeMond. Orchestra: John Scott Trotter.

342 And They All Lived Happily Ever After. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 8/4/81). Liz and Paul Wescott are a married couple whose plans for retirement are suddenly altered when their grown children move back home and they are forced to once again assume parental responsibilities. The pilot episode establishes the beginnings of Liz and Paul's misadventures: Timmie, their youngest daughter, realizes she married prematurely and decides on a trial separation; Matt, their son, drops out of law school and decides to just sit around and contemplate life; and Lorraine, their eldest daughter, is forced to move back home after a temporary financial setback. Other Regulars: Ted, Lorraine's husband; Ernie, Timmie's husband; and Bobby, Lorraine's son.

Cast: Rue McClanahan (Liz Wescott), Dick Latessa (Paul Wescott), Maggie Roswell (Lorraine Hofstedter), Wendy Goldman (Timmie Gordon), Larry Cedar (Matt Westcott), James Staley (Ted Hofstedter), Sandy Hackett (Ernie Gordon), David Faustino (Bobby Hofstedter), Anthony Holland (Mr. Wheeler; guest role).

343 Anderson and Company. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 5/12/69). A turn-of-the-century comedy about Marshall Anderson, the owner of one of the first department stores (Anderson and Company) and the father of eight children (Amanda, Alfa, Adrienne, Anstruther, Amory, Ansford, Artanza and Apollo). In the pilot episode, Marshall's wife, Augusta, and the children descend on the family store to buy a present without him finding out. The Andersons also have a dog named Nero.

Cast: Fred Gwynne (Marshall Anderson), Abby Dalton (Augusta Anderson), Cynthia Eilbacher (Amanda Anderson), Heather Harrison (Alfa Anderson), Robin Eccles (Adrienne Anderson), Nick Beauvy (Anstruther Anderson), Ray Dimas (Amory Anderson), Teddy Eccles (Ansford Anderson), Sean Kelly (Artanza Anderson), Leig Nervik (Apollo Anderson), Renie Riako (Miss Slight; guest role).

344 Andromeda. (Series; Science Fiction; Syn.; 2000–2005). The Systems Commonwealth was a highly developed futuristic society that spanned three galaxies and had over one million member worlds. In an instant it was gone when the evil Nictzchen Empire attacked the Commonwealth and its 10,000 warships destroyed what was once the greatest civilization in history. One Commonwealth ship, the Andromeda managed to escape but was sabotaged and drawn into a black hole where it remained suspended in time for 300 years (at which time it was found by a salvage crew consisting of Beka, Trance and Seamus). The only survivor of the craft, Dylan Hunt, was found and revitalized. He was told of his fate and that the Commonwealth no longer exists. He disbelieves this and sets out on a mission to restore the Commonwealth and “rekindle the light of civilization.” With the help of Andromeda (called Rommie, the ship’s gorgeous holographic pilot), Trance, Beka, Seamus and later associates Rev Bem, Tyr Anasazi, Telemachus and Doyle, Dylan battles numerous enemies as he seeks to restore the greatness that once was.

Dylan is a man who never walks into a situation without thinking first. He could be considered a futuristic ladies’ man as women either want to love him or kill him (“I have that effect,” he says). He first commanded the Crimson Eclipse (a Low Observation Warfare Craft), then Andromeda.

Rebeka Valentine, called Beka, captained the salvage ship Eureka Maru, which was used to rescue Dylan. Beka inherited the ship from her father and her main objective is to gather what treasures she can salvage from the various worlds she explores.

Trance Gemini and Seamus are members of Beka’s crew. Seamus is a computer and electronics expert whose genius for on-the-spot fixes saves the day. Trance appears a beautiful alien girl with red hair but is actually a golden glowing ball of energy (an Avatar of the Sun). She is skilled as a doctor, an expert meteorologist and an excellent cook. Her only fault appears to be her inability to pilot Andromeda (lacks the concentration needed to do so). The series is based on “Genesis II” by Gene Roddenberry.

Dillon Hunt opens the program: “The universe is a dangerous place, but in our future, my crew and I fight to make it safe. I’m Dillon Hunt, captain of the Andromeda Ascendant and these are our adventures.”

Cast: Kevin Sorbo (Dylan Hunt), Lisa Ryder (Beka Valentine), Laura Bertram (Trance Gemini), Gordon Michael Woolvett (Seamus Harper), Brent Stait (Rev Bem), Keith Hamilton Cobb (Tyr Anasazi), Lexa Doig (Rommie), Steve Bacic (Telemachus Rhade), Brandy Ledford (Doyle).

345 The Andros Targets. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 1977). Mike Andros is a hard-hitting reporter for the New York Forum, a crusading newspaper. Stories relate his efforts to battle the crime and corruption (his targets) of a big city.

Sandi Farrell assists Mike. Norman Kale is the city editor; Chet Reynolds is the managing editor of the paper and Wayne Hillman is the national editor. Judy is the paper’s switchboard operator.

Cast: James Sutorius (Mike Andros), Pamela Reed (Sandi Farrell), Allen Mixon (Norman Kale), Roy Poole (Chet Reynolds), Ted Beniades (Wayne Hillman), Gwyn Gillis (Judy), Jordan Charney (Metropolitan Editor).

346 Andy. (Series; Variety; Syn.; 1976). A weekly program of music and songs with singer Andy Williams as the host. Guests appear in duets with Andy and ventriloquist Waland Flowers (and his puppet Madame) provide the comic relief. Pierre Cossette is the producer.

Host: Andy Williams. Regular: Wayland Flowers (ventriloquist). Orchestra: George Wyle.

347 The Andy and Della Russell Show. (Series; Variety; ABC; 1950–1951). A live musical interlude broadcast weeknights with Andy Russell (a popular singer of the 1940s) and his wife, Della. The five-minute series, which consisted of two songs and a commercial, aired from December 18, 1950 to June 15, 1951.

Host: Andy Russell, Della Russell. Music: The Cy Coleman Trio.

348 Andy Barker, P.I. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 2007). Suite 210 at Cantwell Avenue in the Fair Oaks Complex (a mall) in Fair Oaks, California, is the office of Andy Barker, a C.P.A. Andy has just set up office and clients are not exactly breaking down his door. One day, a woman enters his office and, mistaking him for the former tenant, private detective Lew Staziak, hires him to find her missing husband. Before he can tell her he is not a private detective, she leaves after giving him an envelope with $4,000. Andy becomes intrigued. He also finds three assistants: Simon, a movie buff who runs a rental store called Video Riot (and who also relates movies to real life); Wally, the owner of a restaurant called Wally’s Afghan Kebab (Andy says, “Wally came to American in the wheel well of a jumbo jet”); Wally is also a video surveillance expert; and Lew Staziak, the former P.I. who becomes Andy’s mentor. The case gives Andy a rush (“Like when I hit the equal sign on the calculator and the number matches the number on the work sheet”). With the help of his friends, Andy manages to solve the case. Stories follow the adventures of an accountant who doubles as an unofficial and unlicensed private detective. Jenny is Andy’s wife; Nicole is his office secretary.

Cast: Andy Richter (Andy Barker), Clea Lewis (Jenny Barker), Tony Hale (Simon), Marshall Manesh (Wally), Harve Presnell (Lew Staziak), Nicole Randall Johnson (Nicole).

349 The Andy Griffith Show. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1960–1968). Mayberry is a small, mythical town in North Carolina. Its people are friendly and most businesses are run by people everybody knows. Andrew “Andy” Taylor is the sheriff and justice of the peace; Barney Fife is his deputy — the two men who uphold the peace (although Mayberry is a virtually crime free town). Andy is a widower and the father of Opie; his Aunt Bee also lives with him. Barney is single but dating Thelma Lou.

Andy and Barney are actually cousins and graduates of Mayfield Union High School (class of 1945). Barney has been a deputy for five of the twelve years Andy has been sheriff. Andy does not carry a gun and believes in a subtle, non-violent approach to dealing with lawbreakers. Barney is highly-strung and nervous. He feels Andy is too soft on criminals and prefers a meaner approach. He does carry a gun but is not allowed to keep it loaded (Andy allows him to carry one bullet, which he keeps in his shirt pocket). Barney is easily excitable and is not taken seriously by lawbreakers (he waves his arms, makes speeches and rants).

When a better opportunity comes his way, Barney leaves Mayberry (1965) for a job in traffic with the Raleigh Police Department (he is later promoted to the position of staff detective). Andy replaced Barney with Warren Ferguson, a staunch deputy that just didn't work out (he was dropped after four months and was not replaced).

When Andy wants to know what is going in town, he asks Aunt Bee, who seems to know all the town gossip. Aunt Bee is noted for her cooking (famous for her homemade pickles and pies) and her ability to maintain a vegetable garden. She is a member of the church choir, the Greater Mayberry Historical Society and the garden club. "Oh, fiddle-faddle" is her catch phrase.

Opie is very obedient but when he does disobey his father, he always feels guilt and later regrets it (knowing that his father was right and he was wrong). Although he takes piano lessons in early episodes, he is later seen playing guitar and in a band called Freedom. He and Andy enjoy fishing together at Meter's Lake.

Eleanor "Ellie" Walker was Andy's original girlfriend (she worked as a pharmacist at the Walker Drug Store). Helen Crump, Opie's teacher at the Mayberry Elementary School, becomes Andy's girlfriend in later episodes; they marry in 1968.

Gomer and Goober Pyle are cousins who work at Wally's Filling Station (a gas station); Leon is the little boy with the peanut butter and jelly sandwich that he offers to Andy and Barney; Emmett Clark is the owner of Emmett's Fix-It-Shop; Otis Campbell is the town drunk; Howard Sprague is the county clerk; Ernest T. Bass is the trouble-making hillbilly; Floyd Lawson is the owner of Floyd's Barber Shop. Sam Jones is the farmer turned city councilman; Millie Swanson is Sam's girlfriend; Mike Jones is Sam's son; Skippy and Daphne are the fun-loving girls from Raleigh; Mary Simpson (and later Irene Fairchild) is the county nurse; Briscoe Darling is a hillbilly; Charlene is Briscoe's daughter. See also Mayberry, R.F.D., Gomer Pyle, U.S.M.C. and Goober and the Trucker's Paradise.

Origins: The pilot episode aired on The Danny Thomas Show on February 15, 1960. Here Andy was the sheriff, justice of the peace and newspaper editor (there was no Barney). He and Opie were cared for by their unseen Aunt Lucy. Their housekeeper, Rose, was played by Mary Treen; Frances Bavier was a citizen named Henrietta Perkins. The town drunk was Will Hoople, played by Frank Cady. The story found Andy arresting entertainer Danny Williams (Danny Thomas) for speeding when he refused to pay the fine.

Update: NBC broadcast Return to Mayberry, a TV movie reunion, on April 13, 1986.

Andy and Helen return to Mayberry where Andy runs for the office of sheriff without knowing that his opponent is acting sheriff Barney Fife (who, after 25 years, is still engaged to Thelma Lou). Opie is now married to Eunice (Karlene Crockett) and is the editor of the Mayberry Courier-Express (originally the Gazette). Gomer and Goober now own their own gas station, the G&G Garage. Otis, the former town drunk, is now an ice cream truck driver; Howard Sprague is now Opie's assistant.

Cast: Andy Griffith (Andy Taylor), Don Knotts (Barney Fife), Ronny Howard (Opie Taylor), Frances Bavier (Aunt Bee), Jack Burns (Warren Ferguson), Elinor Donahue (Ellie Walker), Jim Nabors (Gomer Pyle), George Lindsey (Goober Pyle), Howard McNear (Floyd Lawson), Howard Morris (Ernest T. Bass), Cheerio Meredith (Emma Brand), Hope Summers (Clara Edwards), Paul Hartman (Emmet Clark), Ken Berry (Sam Jones), Arlene Golonka (Millie Swanson), Buddy Foster (Mike Jones), Clint Howard (Leon), Richard Keith (Johnny Paul), Denver Pyle (Briscoe Darling), Margaret Ann Peterson (Charlene Darling), The Dillards (Briscoe's Boys), Bernard Fox (Malcolm Meriweather), Dick Elliott (Mayor Pike), Parley Baer (Mayor Stoner), Ken Lynch (Captain Barker), Joyce Jameson (Skippy), Jean Carson (Daphne), James Best (Jim Lindsey), Mabel Albertson (Mrs. Sprague), Sue Ane Langdon (Mary Simpson), Julie Adams (Mary Simpson; later), Nina Shipman (Irene Fairchild).

350 Andy of Mayberry. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1960–1968). The CBS daytime title for re-broadcasts of The Andy Griffith Show. See this title for information.

351 Andy Richter Controls the Universe. (Series; Comedy; Fox; 2002–2003). Andy Richter is a young man who hopes to one day become a successful short story writer. He fantasizes about achieving success but when reality sets in he finds himself just a little man in a big faceless company.

Andy does write — but technical manuals for a company in the Duke & Duke building in Chicago. It is here, while he is supposed to be working, that Andy envisions about how his life could be — or should be. Viewers see this as a fantasy in which Andy is the king, not the nobody his job deems him to be.

Jessica Green is Andy's supervisor (also his long-time friend); Byron Toggler is Andy's office mate (they share a small office) who is a bit frail, nervous and somewhat odd for his pathetic view of life (he has little ambition to improve his situation in life). Wendy McKay is a company receptionist — the girl on whom Andy once had a crush (she is now dating Keith Richards, a company employee Andy sees as “so good looking” in his fantasies that he has developed a prejudice “against the attractive”). Overseeing all of this is the boss, Fred Pickering.

Cast: Andy Richter (Himself), Paget Brewster (Jessica Green), Irene Molloy (Wendy McKay), Jonathan Slavin (Byron Tolger), James Patrick Stuart (Keith Richards), John Bliss (Fred Pickering).

352 The Andy Williams–June Valli Show. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1957). A summer series of music and songs with singers Andy Williams and June Valli. The series ran from July 2, 1957 to September 5, 1957.

Hosts: Andy Williams, June Valli. Orchestra: Alvy West.

353 The Andy Williams Show. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1959). A weekly summer series of music, songs and light comedy. The series aired from July 7, 1959 to September 22, 1959. Perry Lafferty is the producer.

Host: Andy Williams. Regulars: Michael Storm, Jane Tallman, Rae Whiting, Marilyn Jackson, Bobby Sands, Bob Harris, Bob Eaton, Ray Drakley, Cynthia Stone, Jayne Turner, Wallace Siebert, Denny Claret, The Wisa D’Orso Dancers. Orchestra: Jack Kane.

354 The Andy Williams Show. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1962–1967). A weekly series of music, songs and light comedy. The series aired from September 27, 1962 to September 3, 1967. Bob Finkel and Bob Henry are the producers.

Host: Andy Williams. Regulars: Randy Sparks and the New Christy Minstrels, The Osmond Brothers, The Good Time Singers, The George Wyle Singers, The James Starbuck Dancers, The Nick Castle Dancers. Orchestra: Colin Romoff, Allyn Ferguson, Dave Grusin.

355 The Andy Williams Show. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1969–1971). A weekly series of music, songs and light comedy. The series aired from September 20, 1969 to July 17, 1971. Andy Williams, Chris Bearde and Allan Blye are the producers.

Host: Andy Williams. Regulars: Charlie Callas, Professor Irwin Corey, Janos Prohaska, The Earl Brown Dancers, The Archie Tayir Dancers, The Jamie Rogers Singers. Orchestra: Mike Post.

356 Andy’s Gang. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1955–1958). A revised version of Smilin’ Ed’s Gang (see entry). Our genial host, Andy Devine, first appeared to say, “Hiya, kids, it’s Andy’s Gang.” Andy and his gang (the studio audience) then sang the theme: “I got a gang, you got a gang, everybody’s gotta have a gang; but there’s only one gang for me — good old Andy’s Gang.”

Children of all ages were then led into a world where the unreal became real. Andy usually began each program with Andy’s Story Time. Seated on stage in a large easy chair, he opened a rather big book called Andy’s Stories. As he read a chapter, a filmed segment was shown. Most often, Andy’s stories related the thrilling, serialized adventures of “Gunga, the Elephant Boy” (originally Ghanga Rama on “Smilin’ Ed’s Gang”). These tales, set in Bakore, India, followed the exploits of Gunga and his friend Rama as they performed hazardous assignments for the Maharajah.

Segments about either Grandie the Talking Piano or Midnight the Cat and Squeaky the Mouse followed. The talented cat and mouse performed like a vaudeville team (for example, while Squeaky played his ukulele, Midnight would dance on her hind legs). Finally came the most popular segment. Andy, standing next to a grandfather clock, would say, “North or south, east or west, wherever you are, Froggie the Gremlin, we want you to become visible. Plunk your magic twanger, Froggie.” A puff of smoke and the magical and mischievous Froggie the Gremlin (a rubber frog toy) would appear. After a brief chat with Andy, the show’s weekly guest arrived and Froggie would do his best to annoy him (for instance, guest Alan Reed would say, “Greetings and salutations, everyone, it is I, Algernon Archibald Percival Shortfellow the poet.” Froggie would immediately interrupt: “He’s crazy, he is, he is.” The poet would respond, “Yes, I’m crazy I am, I am. No, no, no....” Total chaos followed as the poet tried to recite his poems.)

With the conclusion of Froggie’s segment also came the end of our Saturday half-hour stay at Andy’s clubhouse. Andy appeared one last time to say, “Yes, sir, we’re pals and pals stick together. And now, don’t forget church or Sunday school. And remember, Andy’s Gang will get together right here at this same time next week. So long, fellows and gals.”

Cast: Andy Devine (Host), Nino Marcel (Gunga), Vito Scotti (Rama), Lou Merrill (Maharajah), Lou Krugman (Maharajah; later), June Foray (Voice of Grandie), Frank Ferrin (Voice of Froggie the Gremlin).

357 Angel. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1960). Events in the lives of the newlywed Smiths: John, an architect, and his French wife, Angel (whom he met and married during a business trip to France). Stories focus in particular on Angel’s difficulties as she struggles to cope with the bewildering American lifestyle. Susie and her husband George are the Smiths neighbors.

Cast: Annie Farge (Angel Smith), Marshall Thompson (John Smith), Doris Singleton (Susie), Don Keefer (George).

358 Angel. (Series; Drama; WB; 1999–2004). Angel Investigations is an unusual company that operates out of Los Angeles.

It helps people lost in the night and battles the evil that preys on them. It is run by a man known only as Angel, a former evil vampire who uses his skills of the undead to help humans. He is assisted by mortals Cordelia Chase and Wesley Windom Price.

Angel, born in Ireland in 1746, was transformed into the living dead by Darla (Julie Benz), a beautiful vampire who seduced him. He terrorized Europe as Angelus, “The vampire with the angelic face” (after killing his victims, Angel would carve a cross on their left cheek to let people know he was there). In the late 1850s, Angelus killed a young Gypsy girl. Her clan cursed him by restoring his soul and with it, his conscience. Overcome with guilt for the misery he caused, Angel fled to America and vowed never to feed on humans again. Rejecting the lifestyle of a vampire, Angel chose to remain above ground and do whatever he could to atone for the sins of his past.

He is first introduced on the series Buffy the Vampire Slayer (see this title for information) and forms an uneasy alliance with Buffy (Sarah Michelle Gellar) to help her destroy the vampires who invade Sunnydale. Being a Slayer, Buffy should kill Angel, but she is attracted by his mysterious aura. At the end of Buffy’s second season, Angel was spun off into a series of its own.

Although he has a soul, Angel still possesses vampire traits. He cannot function in sunlight (Cordelia says, “He uses the rat-infested sewers to get around in the daytime”) and survives on pig’s blood. He wears a long black trench coat and can be killed by a stake through the heart.

Cordelia, called “Cordy,” was originally a friend of Buffy’s and a student at Sunnydale High School. Rather than attend college after graduating, she chose to pursue a career in acting and took a job as Angel’s secretary to make ends meet.

Cordelia’s minor role as a secretary was dramatically increased when Angel’s original assistant, Alan Francis Doyle was killed off.

Doyle, as he was called, was sent by “The Powers That Be” to help Angel (Doyle’s father was a demon; his mother was a human). Doyle considers himself a messenger (he receives telepathic images of people in need and relates the information to Angel). In a fierce battle against demons, Doyle is mortally wounded. Before he dies, he kisses Cordelia and passes his “gift” to her, making her Angel’s contact to the other world (Cordelia doesn’t consider it a gift as “it gives me mind-bending, bone-crushing vision headaches”). Cordelia calls herself “Vision Girl” and designed the agency’s business cards (a drawing of an angel). She says “We specialize in strange.”

Wesley is a rogue demon hunter who worked previously as a Watcher (one who looks after Slayers, like Buffy). He joins with Angel when they cross paths on several cases. Wesley uses an array of demon fighting weapons but relies most on ancient prophecies to battle the unknown.

Also assisting Angel is Charles Gunn, called “G,” a young man who heads a team of demon fighters (he is aware of the problem Los Angeles has with vampires and began his own vigilante group); and the Host, a green demon with horns who owns the Karaoke Spot (also called Caritos), a nightclub for demons. The Host, real name Lorne, is actually Kerralsworth of the Deathwalk Clan from a dimension called Pylea (he accidentally found a dimensional portal, crossed over into this world, found it better and stayed). He now assists Angel as a snitch. William the Bloody, better known as Spike, is a vicious vampire who came to be an ally of Angel after Buffy the Vampire Slayer ended its run (see Buffy for additional information on Spike).

While Angel is not on a friendly basis with authorities, he does assist Kate Lockley, a detective with the L.A.P.D. Wolfram and Hart is the prestigious law firm that secretly helps demons.

Winifred Berkel, called “Fred,” is a young woman who fell through a time portal and was trapped in Pylea for five years. Here, she was a fugitive, having escaped her captors (humans are used as slaves). She lived in a cave and stole food to survive. Fred’s experiences in Pylea have given her a power to see demons; she now helps Angel in his battle against evil (she was rescued by Angel when he, Cordelia, Wes, Gunn and Lorne were transported to Pylea. Fred now lives with Angel in his hotel).

Angel Investigations was originally housed in a small office in downtown Los Angeles. When a fire destroyed the building, Angel set up operations in the Hyperion Hotel. Angel’s exact age is unknown. It is first said that he was 241 years old (in 1997, making his birth year 1756). He is next said to have been 18 years old in 1775 — right before he was bitten by Darla (making his birth year 1757). Next he is said to have been bitten by Darla in 1753; in a later episode, Angel says he was born in 1723. The exact date of Angel’s restoration is also a mystery. It is first mentioned that Angel’s soul was restored in the 1850s, then the 1920s and finally it is mentioned as taking place in 1898. See also Forever Knight and Moonlight.

Cast: David Boreanaz (Angel), Charisma Carpenter (Cordelia Chase), Glenn Quinn (Alan Doyle), Alexis Denisof (Wesley Price), J. August Richards (Charles Gunn), Andy Hallette (The Host), Amy Acker (Fred Berkel), James Marsters (Spike), Elisabeth Rohm (Kate Lockley).

359 Angel City. (Unaired Pilot; Crime Drama; Produced for Fox in 1991). A proposed series about a Brooklyn cop (Scott Plank) who relocates to Los Angeles to become a private detective. Also cast were Julia Campbell and Dan Walker. Renny Harlin and Douglas Steinberg were the producers; Douglas Steinberg was the writer and Renny Harlin directed it.

360 Angel Falls. (Series; Drama; CBS; 1993). A prime time soap opera that relates intriguing incidents in the lives of the people of Angel Falls, a small town in Montana. The saga begins when Rae Dawn Snow returns home (after a long absence) to take over her late father's business, the Red Eye Pool Hall. Rae is divorced and the mother of 16-year-old Sonny. While Rae rekindles an old romance with her high school sweetheart, Eli Harrison, Sonny becomes romantically involved with Molly, Eli's oldest daughter. Eli has a younger daughter (Sophie) and a wife (Genna) who has grown tired of her marriage and has become attracted to Toby Riopelle, foreman of the ranch the Harrison's own. Other residents of the town are the Larsons (Luke, his wife Hadley, their son Robbie and Luke's mother, Irene), Brandi and Rowena Dare and Edie Wren Cox.

Cast: Chelsea Field (Rae Dawn Snow), Jeremy London (Sonny Snow), Brian Kerwin (Eli Harrison), Kim Cattrall (Genna Harrison), Cassidy Rae (Molly Harrison), Ashlee Lauren (Sophie Harrison), Peggy Lipton (Hadley Larson), Jimmy Baker (Robbie Larson), Jean Simmons (Irene Larson), Marlee Shelton (Brandi Dare), Shannon Wilcox (Rowena Dare), Shirley Knight (Edie Wren Cox), Robert Rusler (Toby Riopelle).

361 Angel Street. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 1992). The Roll Call is the local watering hole for the detectives attached to the Homicide Division of the Violent Crimes Unit of the Chicago Police Department. It is a place where detectives Anita Wellman and Dorothy Paretzky and Ken Brannigan find a haven from the grueling and often gritty aspects of their jobs.

Anita and Dorothy first met when they were teamed by the department. Anita, a glamorous African American, "overdresses for the job" (as Dorothy says). She wears skirts and heels and gets rather upset when she ruins her expensive, $15 a pair, pantyhose chasing suspects. She is a Catholic and grew up on the poor South Side of Chicago. She now lives in a better neighborhood at 311 Ashford Drive. Anita is also ambitious and has set her goal to become a lieutenant.

Dorothy, called Dotty, is a street-wise cop who began her career with the narcotics department (Anita had previously worked with Internal Affairs). She is satisfied where she is and refuses to work with Anita on cases that do not involve murder ("We're homicide — no body, no case"). Dotty is Catholic (attended Francis Xavier Elementary School) and grew up in the Polish Hill section of Chicago, a posh area that is also called Angel Street. Dotty has a bad habit of smoking (she is seen smoking Marlboro cigarettes) and lives at 9034 Mid-Valley Road. Dorothy is a single mother and lives with her daughter Jennifer and her grandfather, "Pobby." Dorothy refuses to talk about Jennifer's father or whether she was married to him or just had an affair.

Ken is the senior detective in the unit. He has an unseen wife named Marjorie whom he calls Mrs. B and "Blonde in the Pond" was his first case, a still unsolved Jane Doe (a girl was found in a lake. No one claimed the body; no suspects). The series was originally titled "Polish Hill." Anthony Marinelli composed the theme "Angel Street."

Cast: Pamela Gidley (Dorothy Paretzky), Robin Givens (Anita Wellman King), Ron Dean (Ken Brannigan), Christina Robinson (Jennifer Paretzky), Everett Smith (Pobby), Jan Rubes (Pobby; later).

362 Angel Tales. (Series; Cartoon; A&E; 2001). Goro Mutsumi is a happy-go-lucky young man who feels, at times, that he is cursed with bad luck. Everything changes for him when his former pets are reincarnated as Guardian Angels and sent to earth to guide his life. Goro suddenly finds that his life has taken on new meaning and stories follow Goro as he and his Guardian Angels help deserving individuals.

Voice Cast: Ted Sroka (Goro Mutsumi), Kari Wahlgren (Momo the Monkey), Jessica D. Stone (Midori the Raccoon), Hunter McKenzie Austin (Ayumi the turtle), Karen Strassman (Yuki the Snake), Carrie Savage (Tamami the Cat), Wendee Lee (Mika the Rabbit), Tricia Dickson (Akane the Fox), Sandy Fox (Kurumi the Hamster), Rachel Hirschfield (Lulu the Frog).

363 Angela Anaconda. (Series; Cartoon; Nickelodeon; 1999). Angela Anaconda is a young girl with a vivid imagination and one serious problem — if something can go wrong it will and it will happen to her. Angela also feels obligated to help people she feels are in trouble. She means well but her good intentions always backfire and land her in numerous troublesome situations. Stories follow Angela as she struggles to resolve the situations she encounters at school, at home, and with her friends. Gina Lash, Gordy Rhinehart and Johnny Abatti are Angela's friends; Nanette Manoir is the spoiled, rich girl who taunts Angela.

Voice Cast: Sue Rose (Angela Anaconda), Bryn McAuley (Gina Lash), Ali Makaddam (Johnny Abatti), Ruby Smith-Merovitz (Nanette Manoir), Edward Glen (Gordy Rhinehart).

364 Angela's Eyes. (Series; Crime Drama; Lifetime; 2006). Angela Henson is a beautiful woman with the uncanny ability to tell when someone is lying just by looking into his or her eyes. She is an excellent observer, a master of deductive reasoning and best puts her abilities to use as an agent for the FBI.

Angela also has a serious trust issue. When she was 14 years old she discovered that her parents were spies. Angela explains that her talent emerged from the lies her parents told her to protect their identities. However, Angela's parents were not the good guys — they were traitors and sold American secrets to the enemy (as Angela says, “The biggest traitors in the history of our country”). Shattered by what their parents had done, Angela became an FBI agent to stop the bad guys and somehow prove that her parents, who were sentenced to prison, are really innocent.

Angela is a field agent and works with Leo Jenkins, a by-the-book, cautious agent, and Dozer, the cynical, a bit disheveled “tech guy”; both of whom do Angela's bidding.

Angela is in essence a human lie detector. A raised eyebrow, a squint, a wide-open eye are all Angela needs to see to detect a liar and bring the bad guys to justice (to perhaps make up for what her parents did).

Other Regulars: Colin and Lydia, Angela's parents; and Jerry Henson, Angela's brother.

Cast: Abigail Spencer (Angela Henson), Lyric Bent (Leo Jenkins), Joe Cobden (Dozer), Paul Popowich (Jerry Henson), Alberta Watson (Lydia), Boyd Gaines (Colin).

365 Angeles. (Series; Crime Drama; Telemundo; 1999). The Spanish language version of Charlie's Angels that is broadcast with English subtitles. Adriana Vega, Elena Sanchez and Gina Navarro are three beautiful girls who work as private detectives for the never-seen Charlie, head of Angeles Investigations in the coastal town of Costa Rosa, California. David Bose, their only link to Charlie, assists them.

Adriana, Elena and Gina are based on the original Charlie's Angels (Sabrina, Jill and Kelly) but resemble them only in their passion for apprehending criminals. Gina, Elena and Adriana are stronger, more forceful women with special talents and abilities, which they are forced to rely upon for their survival.

Adriana was an undercover police woman with a talent for disguises. She was dismissed from the force for exposing a corrupt group of fellow officers. She now carries a chip on her shoulder and is eager to prove she did the right thing. Elena is the mysterious one of the group. She is a computer expert and a former FBI agent who can access any system in the world. Elena Sanchez is an alias and she refuses to reveal her true name and identity. Gina is an outspoken, sassy ex-cat burglar who now uses her skills to help the team achieve their goals.

Like John Bosley on Charlie's Angeles, David Bose is the man who watches over the Angels for Charlie. Stories follow the Angels as they tackle cases that are far more dangerous than their American counterparts.

Cast: Patricia Manterola (Adriana Vega), Sandra Vidal (Elena Sanchez), Magali Caicedo (Gina Navarro), Mauricio Mendoza (David Bose).

366 Angels Don't Marry. (Live Test Program; Anthology; DuMont; 5/24/46). The pilot episode title for an unnamed (and unsold) project to dramatize plays in a 30-minute format with a regular group of performers. The Florence Byerson, Colin Clements play, Angels Don't Marry, was a one-set dialogue between a divorcee (Grace Carney) and her estranged husband (David Durston). Jane Hoffman appeared as the hotel keeper.

Cast: Grace Carney, David Durston, Jane Hoffman.

367 Angie. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1979–1980). Angela (“Angie”) Falco is a waitress at the Liberty Coffee Shop in Philadelphia. She lives with her mother, Theresa Falco, and her sister, Marie Falco, at 421 Vermont Street, Apartment 1. Theresa operates the Falco Newsstand; she later purchases a beauty shop called Rose's House of Beauty.

Life changes for Angie also. One day she meets a wealthy doctor named Bradley (“Brad”) Benson. They fall in love, marry and set up housekeeping in a luxurious home at 76 Clinton Street. Stories follow Angie's efforts to live the good life, despite the objections of Joyce Benson, Brad's divorced sister, who objects to his marriage and to having someone of lower social status in the family. Joyce lives with her daughter, Hillary, at 101 Willow Pond Avenue.

Randall Benson is Brad's father (who is delighted to have Angie as a daughter-in-law); Pete is Angie's cousin; Phipps is the Benson's butler; Hector is the coffee shop chef; Julie is Brad's niece; Mary Katherine, Mary Mary and Mary Grace are Angie's friends; Doug is Mary Grace's husband; Bev is the coffee shop waitress; Gianni is Theresa's assistant in the beauty shop; Connie is the parlor beautician; Ceil is a beauty shop regular; Vincent is Mary Katherine's brother.

Cast: Donna Pescow (Angie Falco Benson), Robert Hays (Dr. Brad Benson), Debralee Scott (Marie Falco), Doris Roberts (Theresa Falco), Sharon Spelman (Joyce Benson), Tammy Lauren (Hillary Benson), Diane Robin (Di Di Malloy), John Randolph (Randall Benson), Emory Bass (Phipps), Aileen Fitzpatrick (Julie), Richard Beauchamp (Hector), Carlo Imperato (Pete Fortunato), Nancy Lane (Mary Katherine), Valri Bromfield (Mary Mary), Susan Suvall (Mary Grace Moroni), Michael MacManus (Doug Moroni), Kit McDonough (Bev), Tim Thomerson (Gianni), Tessa Richards (Connie), Florence Halop (Ceil), Marty Ferraro (Vincent Tortelli). Theme Vocal: “Different Worlds” by Maureen McGovern.

368 Angie, the Lieutenant. (Pilot; Crime Drama; ABC; 2/1/92). Angela “Angie” Martin is a beautiful lieutenant who heads an all-male plain-clothes unit of the Los Angeles Metropolitan Police Department. The proposed series was to follow Angie as she struggles to maintain her position of authority among a group of police officers who are somewhat reluctant to take orders from a woman. The pilot episode relates Angie’s efforts to find the man who raped a TV anchorwoman.

Cast: Angie Dickinson (Angie Martin), Jesse Dabson (Det. Elliott Chase), Michael MacRae (Det. Carl Kanick), Geoffrey Rivas (Det. Ernesto Mendez), Harold Sylvester (Det. Oliver Jackson), Nicholas Pryor (Captain Beresford). Guest Cast: Dyana Ortelli (Juanita Gallegos), Sarah Larson (Zee Campbell), Michael Tolan (The Man), James Finnerty (Moustache), Bruce M. Fisher (Bartender).

369 The Angry Beavers. (Series; Cartoon; Nickelodeon; 1997). Norbert and Daggett are brothers who also happen to be beavers. Norbert, the intelligent one, and Daggett, the dim-wit, live on a lake in the middle of a forest where the unusual is normal (for example, swamp witches, zombies and other freakish creatures). Stories follow Norbert and Daggett’s adventures as they struggle to live a normal life amid all the abnormalities that surround them.

Voice Cast: Richard Steven Horvitz (Daggett Beaver), Nick Bakay (Norbert Beaver), Kevin Meaney (Norbert Beaver; pilot episode), Scott Weil (Big Rabbit), Kate Donahue (Laverta Lutz).

370 Animal Crack Ups. (Series; Game; ABC; 1987–1990). A Saturday morning series, aimed at children, that incorporates amusing films of animals for its questions. Four celebrity guests compete for their favorite charities. A question based on the activity of an animal is seen in a tape clip. A question is then read based on that clip and the first player to correctly answer the question (by buzzing in) scores points. The player with the highest score wins $2500 for his favorite wildlife charity.

Host: Alan Thicke. Assistant: Debbie Bartlett. Animal Voices: Ronn Lucas. Theme Vocal: “Animals Are Just Like Me and You” by Alan Thicke.

371 Animals Are the Funniest People. (Pilot; Human Interest; NBC; 11/24/83). A proposed weekly series that takes a lighthearted look at the crazy things animals do.

Hosts: Bill Burrud, Loretta Swit. Guests: Dick Clark, Brooke Shields.

372 Animaniacs. (Series; Cartoon; WB; 1993–1998). In the 1930s Warner Bros. Studios created three new cartoon characters—the two Warner Brothers, Wakko (British accented) and Yakko (talkative) and their sister Dot (“I’m cute”). When their cartoons were considered too offbeat for the general public, the Warners (who were drawn all in black with long ears and no specific breed) were locked up in the studio’s water tower and literally forgotten about. However, in 1993, the Warners escaped from the tower and now run amuck on the lot (although they return to the only home they’ve known, the water tower, at night). This segment relates their misadventures as it presents song parodies and spoofs of pop culture.

Other Regulars: Thaddeus Plotz, the CEO who is plagued by the Warners antics; Ralph, the security guard hired to catch the Warners; Dr. Scratchin-sniff, the studio psychiatrist hired to analyze the crazy Warners; and Hello Nurse, the doctor’s buxom assistant.

Other Segments: (shown at various times as not all could fit in a half-hour).

1. Pinky and the Brain. Here two genetically altered lab mice, the brilliant Brain and his dim-witted assistant, Pinky, plot each night to take over the world (although Pinky’s bumbling always foils the Brain’s plans). This segment was spun off in to its own series, Pinky and the Brain.

2. Minerva Mink. The story of a stunning Marilyn Monroe-like mink who is so conceited that she can never find a mate.

3. Slappy Squirrel. Slappy Squirrel, an aging cartoon star, struggles to find a life of peace and quiet while at the same time trying to revitalize her once glorious career. Her nephew, Skippy, accompanies her.

4. Mindy and Buttons. The story of a very mischievous baby girl (Mindy) and her heroic dog Buttons (who risks his life to save the prone to danger Mindy).

5. Chicken Boo. Chicken Boo is a chicken who pretends to be human by hiding his poultry being by donning various human disguises (but always being exposed in the end for what he really is).

6. The Goodfeathers. A spoof of the “Godfather” movies with pigeons as mobsters, including God Pigeon, Bobby Pigeon and Pesto Pigeon.

7. Rita and Runt. Rita, a smart cat, and Runt, a dim-witted dog, join forces to find a good home.

8. The Hip Hippos. Flavio and his wife, Marita, are wealthy hippos who lead the good life and often experience, for brief periods, how the other half lives.

9. Katie Ka-Boom. Katie is a seemingly normal teenage girl who explodes (literally) when situations don’t go her way and she loses her temper.

10. Mime Time. A mime demonstrates a feat only to wind up in an unforeseen mess.

11. Good Idea/Bad Idea. A very short segment (time filler) showing how one thing can be good (for example, how a hot oven cooks food) and bad (touching it).

12. Mr. Skullhead. Mr. Skullhead is a skeleton who lives in a rather spooky looking home next to the cemetery. He wishes only to be left alone but is constantly annoyed by people who feel obligated to help him.

Voice Cast: Tress MacNeille (Dot Warner), Tress MacNeille (Hello Nurse), Tress MacNeille (Marita Hippo), Maurice La Marche (The Brain), Rob Paulsen (Yakko Warner), Rob Paulsen (Dr. Otto Scratchinsniff), Jess Harnell (Wakko Warner), Rob Paulsen (Pinky), Frank Welker (Buttons), Frank Welker (Flavio Hippo), Frank Welker (Chicken Boo), Frank Welker (Runt), Frank Welker (Ralph the Guard), Frank Welker (Thaddeus Plotz), Nancy Cartwright (Mindy), Bernadette Peters (Rita), Sherri Stoner (Slappy Squirrel), Laura Mooney (Katie Ka-Boom), Rob Paulsen (Katie's Father), Mary Gross (Katie's Mother), John Mariano (Bobby Pigeon), Chick Venerra (Pesto Pigeon), Julie Brown (Minerva Mink), Peter Scolari (Wilford Wolfe), Tom Bodett (Narrator).

373 Ann in Blue. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 8/8/74). "Who can fill a uniform out like no man can.... Who's the cop who makes traffic stop when she goes by.... My, oh my, Sergeant Ann...." The theme is referring to Ann Neal, a sergeant with the 27th Precinct of the N.Y.P.D. who heads a four-woman police unit (Bea, Elizabeth and Jessie) designed to watch over schools, families and merchants of her neighborhood. The proposed series was to relate their assignments, which always result in misadventure.

Cast: Penny Fuller (Ann Neal), Mary Elaine Monte (Bea Russo), Mary Beth Hart (Elizabeth Jensen), Hattie Winston (Jessie Waters), John Randolph (Captain Mulholland).

374 Ann Jillian. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1989–1990). Ann McNeil, her husband, Eddie (not seen) and their daughter, Lucy, live at 1027–64 South Ferry Street in Queens, New York. Ann is a Radio City Music Hall Rockette; Lucy attends St. Michael's High School; and Eddie is a fireman for the city of New York. When Eddie is killed in the line of duty, Ann decides to leave the city and begin a new life in Marvel, California.

Ann and Lucy now live in a small house at 805 Etchfield Street. Ann works as the manager of Aunt Betty's Coffee and Bean Shop, a quaint eatery owned by Sheila Hufnagel. Fifteen-year-old Lucy attends Marvel High School. Stories relate events in the lives of Ann and Lucy.

Robin Walker is Lucy's schoolmate and Ann's not too bright assistant at the shop. Melissa Santos, a conceited high school bombshell, is a beauty pageant winner who holds the titles "Miss Teen Avocado" and "Miss Teenage Tomato." Kaz Sumner is Ann's neighbor, a kid who apparently lives with his grandfather, Duke.

Note: In the original, unaired pilot (produced in 1989 as "The Ann Jillian Show"), Ann and Lucy had the last name Morgan.

Cast: Ann Jillian (Ann McNeil), Lisa Rieffel (Lucy McNeil), Amy Lynne (Robin Walker), Chantal Rivera-Batisse (Melissa Santos), Cynthia Harris (Sheila Hufnagel), Zachary Rosencrantz (Kaz Sumner), Noble Willingham (Duke). Theme Vocal: "Ann Jillian" by Ann Jillian and Stan Harris.

375 The Ann Jillian Show. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 8/19/90). An unsuccessful attempt to revise Ann Jillian (see prior title) that aired as the last episode of the limited run series. When Ann McNeil makes a pastry delivery from Aunt Betty's Coffee and Bean Shop to Marsh Pearson, president of the Merchants Association of the Marvel Mall, she suggests a way to improve the mall — to make it a happy place. Marsh likes the idea and hires Ann as his activities director. The unsold series was to focus on Ann as she takes on new responsibilities as the Marvel Mall's Activities Director. Other Regulars: Lucy, her daughter; Tad, Marsh's son and Ann's assistant; and Russ, the security guard.

Cast: Ann Jillian (Ann McNeil), Lisa Rieffel (Lucy McNeil), Bruce Kirby (Marsh Pearson), Adam Biesk (Tad Pearson), James Henriksen (Russ).

376 The Ann Sothern Show. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1958–1961). The Bartley House at 36 East 56th Street in Manhattan is a fashionable New York City hotel. Kathleen ("Katy") O'Connor is its assistant manager. She lives at 21 East 10th Street in Greenwich Village (address also given as 15 Greenwich Place). She shares the apartment with her best friend, Olive Smith (who works for Katy as her secretary at the hotel).

Tom Bartley, Sr., owns the hotel. The henpecked Jason Macauley and his domineering wife, Flora, manage it. In 1959 Jason and Flora are transferred to the Calcutta Bartley House. Bartley then hired James Arlington Devery to manage the hotel. Devery, whose middle name was also given as Aloysius, was born in Ohio on August 23, 1916. He graduated from Harvard in 1939 and began his career as a bellboy for the Bartley chain. Woodrow ("Woody") Hamilton and Johnny Wallace are the hotel bellboys; Dr. Delbert Gray is the hotel dentist.

Relatives: Terence deMarney (Katy's uncle, Terence), Cecil Kellaway (Katy's uncle, Sean), Frederick Ford (Tom's son, Tom Bartley, Jr.), Christine White (Tom's niece, Margaret Finchley), Gladys Hurlbut (Delbert's mother, Dr. Gray; a dentist also), Frances Bavier (Johnny's mother).

Cast: Ann Sothern (Katy O'Connor), Ann Tyrrell (Olive Smith), Don Porter (James Devery), Ernest

Truex (Jason Macauley), Reta Shaw (Flora Macauley), Louis Nye (Dr. Delbart Gray), Ken Berry (Woody), Jacques Scott (Paul Martine), Jack Mullavey (Johnny Wallace), Jesse White (Oscar Pudney), Lester Matthews (Tom Bartley, Sr.). Theme Song: “Katy” by Ann Sothern and Bonny Lake.

377 Anna and the King. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1972). The setting is Siam in 1862. Anna Owens is a young American school teacher who, after the death of her husband, accepts a challenge offered by the King of Siam: educate and introduce Western culture to his royal children (in particular Princess Serena and Kai-Lee Ling). Stories follow Anna as she attempts to adjust to a new lifestyle and fulfill the King’s wishes. Based on the motion picture Anna and the King of Siam.

Other Regulars: Louis Owens, Anna’s son; Prince Kralahome; The Crown Prince Chulongkorn; Lady Thiang, the King’s head wife.

Cast: Yul Brynner (King of Siam), Samantha Eggar (Anna Owens), Eric Shea (Louis Owens), Keye Luke (Prince Kralahome), Brian Tochi (Crown Prince Chulongkorn), Lisa Lu (Lady Thiang), Rosalind Chao (Princess Serena), Tracy Lee (Kai-Lee Ling), Wendy Tochi (King’s Unnamed Daughter).

378 The Anna Nicole Smith Show. (Series; Reality; E!; 2002–2003). Former Playboy magazine playmate (and centerfold) turned actress Anna Nicole Smith presents a view of her hectic private life (which is more public) for all to see. In typical reality series fashion, cameras follow the gorgeous star as she goes about her daily activities with her personal assistant, Kim; her son, Daniel; her attorney, Howard K. Stern, and her pampered pooch, Sugar Pie.

Cast: Anna Nicole Smith, Daniel Smith, Kim Walther, Howard K. Stern, Bobby Trendy (Anna’s designer), Sugar Pie (Anna’s dog).

379 Anne of Avonlea. (Series; Drama; Disney; 1987). A sequel to Anne of Green Gables (see entry) that picks up where the prior series left off. Anne Shirley has graduated from the Avonlea School. She lives with her adoptive parents, Marilla and her brother Matthew on a farm in Canada called Green Gables.

Matthew’s sudden death (heart attack) changes Anne’s life. She rejects a scholarship to Redmond College and chooses to remain with Marilla so that Marilla can retain ownership of Green Gables. Shortly after, Anne acquires a job as a teacher at the Avonlea Public School, which enables her to help Marilla run the farm.

When Diana Barry, Anne’s closest friend, learns that Anne’s short story “Avaral’s Atonement” has been rejected by Women’s Home Journal magazine, she reworks the copy Anne gave to her and submits it to the Rollings Reliable Baking Powder Story competition. While Anne did not intend for her main character to praise baking powder, she wins the first prize of $100.

Anne next receives a letter from Miss Stacey, her former teacher at the Avonlea School (now head of the Kingspoint Ladies College) informing her that a position has become available in the English Department. Anne is about to reject the offer when the husband of Marilla’s friend of 45 years, Rachel Lynde, dies. When Marilla asks Rachel to move in with her, Anne accepts the teaching job in Charlott’s Town, New Brunswick (her greatest challenge is to overcome the hostility of the blue-blooded Pringle girls, especially Jen Pringle, who is determined to discredit her). It is during this time that Anne has her first book published, Avonlea Vignettes (for which she received a $250 advance) and has a brief romance with Morgan Harris, the wealthy father of her favorite student, Emmaline Harris. Morgan lives on an estate called Maplehurst. Marilla was famous for her currant wine; Anne was first seen by Matthew, who convinced Marilla to let her stay, at the Bright River Train Station. Anne had a mischievous cow named Dolly, was gentle and kind to her students and remarked that “Green Gables is a beautiful dream that will always haunt me” whenever she had to leave it. See also Avonlea.

Cast: Megan Follows (Anne Shirley), Colleen Dewhurst (Marilla Cuthbert), Schuyler Grant (Diana Barry), Jonathan Crombie (Gilbert Blythe), Patricia Hamilton (Rachel Lynde), Marilyn Lightstone (Miss Stacy), Frank Converse (Morgan Harris), Dame Wendy Hiller (Mrs. Harris), Rosemary Dunsmore (Katherine Brooke), Kate Lynch (Pauline Harris), Susannah Hoffman (Jen Pringle), Kathryn Trainor (Essie), Rosemary Radcliffe (Mrs. Barry), Charmaine King (Josephine Barry), Robert Collins (Mr. Barry), Mag Huffman (Alice Lawson), Les Carlson (Mr. Lawson), Jacqueline Blais (Mrs. Harrison), Miranda de Fencier (Josie Pye), Zack Ward (Moody Spurgeon), David Fox (John Blythe), David Hughes (Thomas Lynde), Trish Nettleton (Jane Andrews), Rod Hefernan (Harry Inglis), Jennifer Inch (Ruby Gillis), Sheila Harcourt (Christine Stewart), Bright Wilson (Tillie Boulter), Ian Heath (Anthony Pye), Nuala Fitzgerald (Mrs. Tom Pringle), Meg Hogarth (Mrs. James Pringle), Lynne Gorman (Mrs. John Pringle), Louise Nicol (Miss Kerr), Hudson Sullivan (Diana’s baby).

380 Anne of Green Gables. (Series; Drama; PBS; 1986). “The prettiest acreage on the North Shore” of Prince Edward Island in Canada (early 1900s) is Green Gables, a farm owned by Marilla and Matthew Cuthbert. Anne Shirley is a very pretty, 13-year-old, red haired orphan girl who yearns for a home and love. Anne was born in Fairfax, Canada, and orphaned at age three months when her parents, Walter and Bertha, died of “the fever.” Anne was sent to and raised at the Fairview Orphanage in Nova Scotia.

Matthew and Marilla are an elderly brother and sister. When they decide they need help in running Green Gables, they agree to adopt an orphan boy; they are sent a girl instead — Anne. Marilla, who never married, is a very bitter and stern woman. Matthew, who remained a bachelor, is very kind and gentle. Anne is full of life, has a vivid imagination and a special gift for overcoming obstacles and bringing out the best in people. “We wanted a boy,” Marilla says, “but it was Providence that brought her to us. It was He who knew that we needed her.” Anne’s growth from teenager to young woman is the focal point of this beautifully enacted and heartwarming television adaptation of the books by Lucy Maud Montgomery.

In describing herself, Anne remarks, “I’m skinny, a little freckled and have green eyes. I’m blessed with a wonderful imagination and want to be beautiful when I grow up.” She has ambitions to be a writer and insists that her first name be spelled “Anne with an e” (“It’s more distinguished and vibrant than plain old Ann without an e”). Anne feels that her downfall is her temper, which she attributes “to the curse of my red hair” (she gets highly charged when someone remarks negatively about her hair).

Anne’s greatest wish “is to have a bosom friend, a really kindred spirit.” Through Marilla, Anne meets Diana Barry, the teenage girl living on Orchard Slope, who becomes her best friend. Diana believes Anne has “more nerve than a fox in a henhouse,” while Marilla contends that Anne has a genius for trouble.

On her first day at the Avonlea Public School, Anne encounters Gilbert Blythe, the boy she takes a dislike to when he calls her “Carrots.” (Anne felt “excruciatingly embarrassed” and vowed never to associate with him again. They became rivals at everything. Although Anne never really forgave Gilbert, she allowed herself to grow close to him. Their friendship bonded in the sequel series, Anne of Avonlea [see entry] in which Gilbert helped Anne achieve her goals.) See also Avonlea.

Cast: Megan Follows (Anne Shirley), Colleen Dewhurst (Marilla Cuthbert), Richard Farnsworth (Matthew Cuthbert), Schuyler Grant (Diana Barry), Jonathan Crombie (Gilbert Blythe), Patricia Hamilton (Rachel Lynde), Marilyn Lightstone (Miss Stacy), Rosemary Radcliffe (Diana’s mother), Miranda de Pencier (Josie Pye), Jennifer Inch (Ruby Gillis), Robert Collins (Diana’s father), Morgan Chapman (Minne May Barry), David Hughes (Thomas Lynde), Trish Nettleton (Jane Andrews), Cedric Smith (Rev. Allan), Christine Kruger (Mrs. Allan).

381 Annette. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1958). In 1943 in the farming community of Beaver Junction, Nebraska, a girl (Annette) is born to Brice and Blanche McCleod. Fifteen years later, after her parents’ deaths, Annette moves to the town of Ashford to live with her uncle, Dr. Archie McCleod, and her aunt, Lila McCleod, Brice’s brother and sister. Archie and Lila live with a housekeeper named Katie.

Annette first befriends Jet Maypen, the farm girl who delivers eggs and chickens to the families in town. Through Jet, Annette meets Steve Abernathy, the most popular boy in town; Val Abernathy, Steve’s sister; Mike Martin, a high school senior who is the soda jerk at the Malt Shop; and their friends Omstead (“Steady”) Ware, Madge Markham, Kitty Bleylock and Moselle Corey.

Laura Rogan is the richest and prettiest girl at Old South High School (where Annette is in tenth grade). Laura takes an instant dislike to Annette when she sees Steve (her boyfriend) being kind to her. The tension that exists between Annette and Laura — and Annette’s efforts to become her friend — is the sub plot of the series; Annette’s experiences with her new friends are the overall focus of the series.

The McCleods live at 149 Elm Street. Annette sleeps in the room next to Lila’s (which was Lila’s grandmother’s room) and at Old South High Annette is program chairman of the activities committee. Archie, a doctor of philosophy, has a Ph.D. and is fond of Katie’s chicken soup (as is Annette). He was the last subscriber to a magazine called Philosophical Review — which ceased publication after he paid for a five-year subscription. Annette’s “ultra favorite” meal is burgers with pickle relish, mustard and chips. Laura is called “the slickest chick that ever hit this old town” by the boys. Jet, who has a pig named Queenie, lives on a ranch at Spring Branch (which is next to Highway 26). Katie, who has been with the McCleods for 20 years, orders groceries from the Main Street Market.

Note: Aired as 19 segments (plus an introduction episode) on “The Mickey Mouse Club.”

Cast: Annette Funicello (Annette McCleod), Richard Deacon (Archie McCleod), Sylvia Field (Lila McCleod), Mary Wickes (Katie), Judy Nugent (Jet Maypen), Doreen Tracy (Val Abernathy), David Stollery (Mike Martin), Rudy Lee (Steady Ware), Cheryl Holdridge (Madge Markham), Roberta Shore (Laura Rogan), Shelley Fabares (Moselle Corey), Sharon Baird (Kitty Bleylock). Theme Song: “Annette” by Jimmie Dodd.

382 Annie Flynn. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 1/21/78). An unsold series about the ups and downs of Annie Flynn, a former nurse struggling to succeed in medical school. In the pilot episode, Annie meets Paul Lucas, whom she believes is a student and begins a promising romance with him. When she discovers that he is her anatomy professor, she seeks a subtle way to end their relationship, fearing her grade will depend on how well she performs in bed. Other Regulars: C.C., Annie's friend; Elliott, a med student; and Hoyt, Annie's landlord.

Cast: Barrie Youngfellow (Annie Flynn), Carol Potter (C.C.), Harvey Lewis (Elliott Hoag), Louis Guss (Hoyt Kosloff). Guest Cast: Charles Frank (Paul Lucas), Lisa Loring (Sherry), Renne Lippin (Stephanie Pilzyck), Jack Fletcher (Mr. Braden).

383 Annie McGuire. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1988). At 235 West Perry Street in Bayonne, New Jersey, live newlyweds Annie Block-McGuire, the deputy coordinator of community relations for the city of New York, and her husband of five weeks, Nicholas ("Nick") McGuire, a structural engineer with the firm of McGuire and Conrad in Bayonne. Annie is divorced and the mother of 12-year-old Lewis; Nick is a widower and the father of 14-year-old Lenny and nine-year-old Debbie. Annie is a bleeding heart liberal who will help anyone with a problem; she believes children should not be forced to do anything ("If you force them, they will hate it later in life"). Nick, a Republican, believes just the opposite: "You have to force them, it's the only way to get them to do something."

Annie takes the ferry from Bayonne to New York and works in the Municipal Building (Room 805) in Manhattan. In the original concept of the series, titled "Mary Tyler Moore," Mary's "Annie" character lived in Manhattan and worked for the city. When Denis Arndt replaced Edward J. Moore (no relation to Mary) as her husband and the home locale switched to New Jersey, Annie would not have been permitted to work for New York (city workers must live in the city); it was not explained how Annie was able to work for New York when she lived in New Jersey.

Other Regulars: Emma Block, Annie's liberated activist mother; Red, Nick's conservative father, the owner of Red's All-American Grill in Bayonne, New Jersey; and Phil Block, Annie's father.

Cast: Mary Tyler Moore (Annie McGuire), Denis Arndt (Nick McGuire), Bradley Warden (Lewis McGuire), Adrian Brody (Lenny McGuire), Cynthia Marie King (Debbie McGuire), John Randolph (Red McGuire), Eileen Heckart (Emma Block), Stephen Elliott (Phil Block).

384 Annie Oakley. (Series; Western; Syn.; 1954–1957). Annie Oakley is a pretty, expert sharpshooter who helps Deputy Lofty Craig uphold the law in Diablo County, Arizona, during the early 1900s. Annie, television's earliest heroine, never shoots to kill; what she aims at she hits ("Once Annie aims at something, it's a bull's-eye"). Annie often plays detective to uncover evidence against outlaws.

Orphaned when her parents died, Annie now cares for her kid brother, Tagg Oakley. Their uncle, Luke McTavish is the sheriff of Diablo County. Target and (later) Daisy were Annie's horses; Pixie was Tagg's horse. Tagg also had a frog named Hector and a rabbit called Mr. Hoppity (who lived on a game preserve Annie called "Annie's Ark").

In the original, unaired pilot version, titled "Bull's Eye," Billy Gray plays Tagg Oakley.

Other Regulars: Tom Conrad, the editor of The Diablo Courier; Chet Osgood, the editor (later); Marge Hardy, the school teacher; Deborah Scott, the school teacher (later); Bess Murdock, a rancher; Elroy, the hotel clerk; Penny, Lofty's niece; Alias Annie Oakley, Annie's outlaw double; Tom Jennings, the postal clerk; Trudy, Tagg's friend; Miss Curtis, the stable owner; George Lacey, the hotel owner; Jim and Pete, the stagecoach drivers; Gloria, the general store owner; Patricia Dennis; owner of the stage lines.

Ben Weisman and Fred Wise composed the theme. Gail Davis sings the "Annie Oakley" theme on the record album Hooray for Cowboys.

An announcer opens the show: "Annie Oakley hits the entertainment bulls eye every week with her hard riding ... trick shooting ... and suspense."

Cast: Gail Davis (Annie Oakley), Brad Johnson (Lofty Craig), Jimmy Hawkins (Tagg Oakley), Fess Parker (Tom Conrad), Virginia Lee (Marge Hardy), Nancy Hale (Bess Murdock), Isa Ashdown (Elroy), Judy Nugent (Penny), Nan Leslie (Alias Annie Oakley), William Fawcett (Tom Jennings), Shelley Fabares (Trudy), Mary Ellen Kay (Miss Curtis), Stanley Andrews (George Lacey), Jacqueline Pak (Helen Lacey), Roscoe Ates (Curley Dawes), Nancy Hale (Deborah Scott), Stanley Andrews (Chet Osgood), Larry Reeves (Pete), Bob Woodward (Jim), Sally Fraser (Gloria Marshall), Maura Murphy (Patricia Dennis), Gloria Talbot (Priscilla Bishop).

385 The Annihilator. (Pilot; Science Fiction; NBC; 4/7/86). A plane, enroute from Hawaii to Los Angeles, mysteriously disappears from radar. One hour later, the jet is again tracked by radar and lands in L.A. Robert Armour, the editor of the Los Angeles Guardian, learns that selected members of the flight, including his girlfriend, Angela, have been abducted and replaced by humanoid killer robots called dynatyrdes — the creations of an evil alien force bent on destroying Earth. When Angela attempts to kill Robert, but is herself killed and destroyed in a fire, Robert becomes a fugitive when the police believe Robert killed a real girl. The unsold series was to relate Armour's adventures as he attempts to destroy the aliens — before they destroy him. The pilot episode relates how Robert Armour became the Annihilator. Other Regulars: Layla, Armour's alien enemy.

Cast: Mark Lindsay Chapman (Robert Armour),

Susan Blakely (Layla). Guest Cast: Catherine Mary Stewart (Angela Taylor), Geoffrey Lewis (Professor Alan Jeffries), Earl Boen (Sid), Brion James (Alien leader), Nicole Eggert (Elyse), Barbara Townsend (Celia Evans), Susan Weiss (Channing Chase), Barry Pearl (Eddie), Toni Attell (Patty).

386 The Anniversary Game. (Series; Game; Syn.; 1969). Three husband and wife couples compete. Rounds one, two and three involve one member of each team in a prearranged situation that involves the performance of a specific task. The teammate that is not involved has to predict the outcome of the situation. Each correct prediction scores the team points. The final question-and-answer round determines the winners (the highest scorers) who receive merchandise prizes.

Host: Al Hamel. Announcer: Dean Webber.

387 Another April. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 3/7/74). April Moss is a modern-minded divorcee with a young son (Eric) who moves back to Seattle, Washington, and into the home of her parents (Marion and Ruth) when her marriage breaks up. The proposed series was to relate April's misadventures as she struggles to find peace living with her conservative parents. In the pilot episode, April clashes with her father over the prospect of her dating a hippie (Dennis). Other Regulars: Brenda and Howard, April's married sister and her husband.

Cast: Leslie Charleson (April Moss), Barnard Hughes (Marion Weston), Elizabeth Wilson (Ruth Weston), Ellen Weston (Brenda Sanders), Will MacKenzie (Howard Sanders), Brad Savage (Eric Moss), Howard Hesseman (Dennis Webster; guest role).

388 Another Day. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1978). Incidents in the lives of Don and Ginny Gardner, a married couple whose lives are complicated by their jobs, their children (Kelly and Mark), and Don's outspoken mother (Olive). The series ran from April 4, 1978 to April 29, 1978.

Cast: David Groh (Don Gardner), Joan Hackett (Ginny Gardner), Lisa Lindgren (Kelly Gardner), Al Eisenmann (Mark Gardner), Hope Summers (Olive Gardner).

389 Another Day, Another Dollar. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 9/21/59). A proposed series about a good-natured toy salesman (Augie Adams) and his family (his wife, Joyce, and son, Robbie). In the pilot episode, broadcast on Alcoa Theater, Augie risks losing an important client in order to attend his son's art show at school. See also How's Business?, the sequel pilot film.

Cast: Jack Carson (Augie Adams), Jean Gillespie (Joyce Adams), Flip Mark (Robbie Adams). Guest Cast: Jesse White (John Burke). Also: Dorothy Crider, Lester Dorr, Ralph Gamble, Jeane Wood.

390 Another Language. (Experimental; Stage Play; NBC; 12/8/39). A television adaptation of the play by Rose Franken about the Hallam family and their inability to communicate with one another.

Cast: Anne Revere (Mrs. Hallam), Jabez Gray (Mr. Hallam), Robert Allan (Harry Hallam), Jane Rose (Grace Hallam), Dorothy Matthews (Stella Hallam), Ben Smith (Victor Hallam), Herbert Duffy (Paul Hallam).

391 Another Language. (Experimental; Stage Play; NBC; 9/1/45). A second television adaptation of Rose Franken's play about a family's inability to communicate with each other.

Cast: Jean Adair, Richard Barrows, Muriel Campbell, Bernard Carson, Paul Ford, Philip Foster, John Kane, Mary Michael, Jane Middleton, Hugh Rennie, Helen Spring.

392 Another Life. (Series; Serial; Syn.; 1981). The series, set in the town of Ravenswood (a mythical suburb of Richmond, Virginia), follows the lives of the Davidson family: Scott, a television newscaster; Terry, his wife, a practical nurse; and their children, Lori and Peter — prototypes of real life people who attempt to find solutions to the problems they encounter.

Cast: John Corseau (Scott Davidson), Mary Jean Feton (Terry Davidson), Jeanette Larson (Lori Davidson), Darrel Campbell (Peter Davidson), Ginger Burgett (Marion Mason), Christopher Roland (Russ Weaver), John Moran (Wally Doyle), Sue Schannel (Becky Smith), Carolyn Lenz (Liz Cunningham), Tom McGowan (Jeff Cunningham), Tom Urich (Warren Farrah), Robert Bendel (Paul Mason), Randy Kraft (Charles Carpenter), Barbara Warshaw (Zenith Price), Chris Auer (Goldie Palmer), Naomi Reisman (Norma Lindsey), Laura Leigh Taylor (Vicky Lang), Spencer Marsh (Todd Ingram), Ray Owens (Mitch Dunbar), Ralph Johnson (Mike), Jeff Jamison (Norman Elliott), Susan McBride (Elvira), Lee Tatum (Judge Adam Steele), Suzanne Granfield (Ellen Carpenter), David Witt (Jim Tremaine), Amy Williams (Jennifer Cummings).

393 Another Man's Shoes. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 5/28/84). A proposed spinoff from One Day at a Time. Following the death of his brother, Dwayne Schneider, the super at an apartment building in Indianapolis, flies to Daytona Beach, Florida, to find a home for Keith and Lori, his orphaned nephew and niece. When Dwayne discovers that Keith and Lori are living over an arcade run by Jackie Cahill, he decides to send them to their aunt in Detroit. When Dwayne receives word that the aunt has been arrested for embezzlement, he decides to take them back to Indianapolis with him. Hoping to change Dwayne's mind, Jackie offers Dwayne a job as maintenance man for her arcade (located at 17 Boardwalk at Morgan Beach). With his “adopted” family gone (Ann Romano is in London; and Julie and Barbara are married), Dwayne opts to stay in Florida and raise his brother’s kids. The unsold series was to depict Dwayne’s misadventures as a bachelor father and arcade park maintenance man. Other Regulars: Cassie, the peddle cab driver; Mr. Tuller, Pete, Clifford and Carl, arcade regulars; Bernard, the mime; and Madame Zorina, the fortune teller.

Cast: Pat Harrington, Jr. (Dwayne Schneider), Corey Feldman (Keith Schneider), Natalie Klinger (Lori Schneider), Candice Azzara (Jackie Cahill), Darian Mathias (Cassie), Bill Zuckert (Mr. Tuller), Bob Griffard (Bernard), Bill Yeager (Carl), Ruth Kobart (Madame Zorina), J. Bill Jones (Clifford), Michael Shea (Pete).

394 Anson and Lorrie. (Pilot; Variety; NBC; 9/19/81). A proposed series of music, songs and comedy sketches with Anson Williams (“Potsie” on Happy Days) and his wife, Lorrie, a singer. Alvin J. Tenzer, Sid Krofft and Marty Krofft are the producers.

Hosts: Anson Williams, Lorrie Mahaffey. Regulars: Jeff Altman, Davey Dillon, Darrow Igus, Andrea Martin. Guests: Gary Coleman, Ron Howard, Anne Howard, Al Molinaro, Eddie Rabbitt. Orchestra: Dennis McCarthy.

395 The Answer Man. (Test Film; Game; DuMont; 9/26/46). A proposed but unsold series based on the radio program of the same title wherein “The Answer Man” (host) responds to questions asked of him by the studio audience.

Host: Herbert Mitchell.

396 Answer Yes or No. (Series; Game; NBC; 1950). Each contestant who appears is presented with a situation dilemma and asked to secretly choose a “yes” or “no” card to indicate whether or not he would involve himself in the predicament. A celebrity panel must then predict the players’ answers. Each correct guess awards that player a merchandise prize.

Host: Moss Hart. Panelists: Arlene Francis, Jane Pickens, Peter Lind Hayes, Mary Healy.

397 The Antagonists. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 1991). Aspects of law enforcement coupled with a courtroom trial as seen through the eyes of Kate Ward, a beautiful district attorney, and Jack Scarlett, a shrewd defense attorney with whom she constantly clashes. Other Regulars: Joanie Rutledge, a prosecutor; Marvin Thompson, the D.A.; Mona Felder, Jack’s secretary; Clark Munsinger, Jack’s law clerk; and Police Lieutenant Gardner.

Cast: Lauren Holly (Kate Ward), David Andrews (Jack Scarlett), Lisa Jane Persky (Joanie Rutledge), Dey Young (Mona Felder), Matt Roth (Clark Munsinger), Brent Jennings (Marvin Thompson), Will Leskin (Lieutenant Gardner).

398 Any Day Now. (Series; Drama; Lifetime; 1998–2002). A look at the lives of two women: Mary Elizabeth O’Brien Sims (called M.E.) and Rene Jackson. Mary is Caucasian; Rene is African American and the two grew up together in 1960s Birmingham, Alabama. The women, girls at the time, were close—until Mary became pregnant by her boyfriend (Davis) and elected to keep the baby and get married; a decision not supported by Rene who felt Mary would ruin her life if she kept the baby. The situation caused the girls to drift apart. Mary became a struggling housewife and mother while Rene prospered as a successful Washington, D.C. attorney.

The series begins thirty years later when Rene returns to Alabama following the death of her father. She meets with Mary and the two rekindle their friendship when they agree to leave their past differences behind them. Stories follow the two women as they reminisce about their childhood experiences (seen in flashbacks) and recall the events that occurred since they drifted apart.

Cast: Annie Potts (Mary Elizabeth O’Brien Sims), Lorraine Toussaint (Rene Jackson), Mae Middleton (Young Mary Elizabeth), Olivia Hack (Young Mary Elizabeth), Shari Dyon Perry (Young Rene), Maya Elise Goodwin (Young Rene), Calvin DeVault (Davis Sims), Bronson Pickett (Joe Lanzo), William Converse-Roberts (Matthew O’Brien), John Lafayette (James Jackson).

399 Anybody Can Play. (Series; Game; ABC; 1958). Four players compete and are seated opposite a guest who possesses a concealed object. Through a series of indirect question-and-answer rounds, the players must identify the object. Each correct guess scores a player points. The player with the highest score is the winner and receives merchandise prizes.

Host: George Fenneman. Assistant: Judy Bamber. Announcer: George Fenneman.

400 Anyone Can Win. (Series; Game; CBS; 1953). A panel of four celebrities, three regulars and one guest, compete. The object is to identify an anonymous celebrity guest whose face is hidden behind a rubber mask of the Al Capp character Hairless Joe. Each panelist is allotted time to indirectly question the guest and foster a guess. A pre-selected studio audience member is then asked to back one of the panelists. The mystery guest is revealed and the contestant receives a cash prize if his choice is correct.

Host: Al Capp. Panelists: Patsy Kelly, Ilka Chase, Jimmy Dykes.

401 Anything but Love. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1989–1992). Hannah Miller and Marty Gold are writers for Chicago Monthly magazine (later called Chicago Weekly). Hannah, formerly a Los Angeles schoolteacher, was first a researcher for the magazine. Marty previously worked as a reporter for the Chicago Tribune. Stories were originally a depiction of their platonic relationship; as the series progressed, they became lovers.

Hannah was born on March 28, 1960, and now lives at 415 Van Nest Avenue (although the house number reads 223). Hannah knows she is a very attractive woman and struggles to maintain her figure. She is especially proud of her breasts and calls them "The Girls." Hannah's best friend is Robin, whom she has known since she was five years old. Robin is a dental hygienist, and she and Hannah call each other "Mrs. Schmenkman." In the eleventh grade Hannah and Robin made a pact that if neither of them was married by age 30, they both would tell people their husbands were with the witness protection program. Lani O'Grady was heard as Hannah's inner voice in several episodes.

Martin E. ("Marty") Gold enjoys watching women mud-wrestle at Dick and Dee's International House of Mud. His and Hannah's favorite restaurant is Marino's. Hannah and Marty became romantically involved in the episode of 2/6/91 ("Say It Again, Han") and lovers in the episode of 3/14/91 ("Long Day's Journey into What?"). Hannah envisions herself and Marty married with two children: Anna (Katie Jane Johnson) and Artie (Josh C. Williams).

The editorial offices of the Chicago Weekly are in Room 702. Norman Kiel was the original editor; he was replaced by the outlandish and unconventional Catherine Hughes. Jules Bennett is Catherine's mousey assistant, and Mike Urbanek is a columnist. Brian Allquist was the television critic in the first season episodes (pressures from the job caused him to go to Marshall's Department Store and smash all the television screens in the video department; he is now in a mental hospital).

Relatives: Bruce Kirby (Hannah's father, Leo Miller), Lindsey Haun (Hannah's five-year-old niece, Nicky), Tia Carrere (Marty's foster daughter, Cey), Susie Duff (Marty's sister, Jo Levin), Jeff Silverman (Jo's husband, Philip Levin), Doris Belack (Marty's original mother, Dorothy Gold), Anna Berger (Marty's mother, Sylvia Gold, in later episodes).

Flashbacks: Emily Ann Lloyd (Hannah, age seven), Gina Tuttle (Hannah as a teenager), Bradley Michael Pierce (Marty, age seven), Jason Marsden (Marty as a teenager). Theme: "Anything but Love," by John David Souther.

Cast: Jamie Lee Curtis (Hannah Miller), Richard Lewis (Marty Gold), Holly Fulger (Robin Duliteski), Ann Magnuson (Catherine Hughes), Louis Gimbalvo (Norman Kiel), Richard Frank (Jules Bennett), Bruce Weitz (Mike Urbanek), Joseph Maher (Brian Allquist).

402 Anything for Love. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 8/7/85). Dot Bailey is a beautician and the single mother of two children (Allison and Timmy). Elaine Monty is her friend, a beautician also, who is single and looking for Mr. Right. Dot and Elaine own a beauty salon in Dayton, Ohio, and the unsold series was to relate their struggles as they wrestle with the problems of work, men and family. In the pilot episode, Dot attempts to rekindle a romance with an old flame (Larry Worth). Other Regulars: Cleo and Jenny, beauticians.

Cast: Lauren Tewes (Dot Bailey), Vicki Lawrence (Elaine Monty), Christa Denton (Allison Bailey), Leaf Phoenix (Timmy Bailey), Marsha Warfield (Cleo), Rebeca Arthur (Jenny). Guest Cast: Paul Gleason (Larry Worth), Jennifer Savidge (Helen Worth), Florence Halop (Claire), Jay Johnson (Bud), Mark Harrison (Randy Howard), Vanda Barra (Martha).

403 Anything for Money. (Pilot; Crime Drama; ABC; 4/16/57). The first of two pilot films for the series 77 Sunset Strip (ABC, 1958–64; see also Girl on the Run). The story of Stuart Bailey, a private detective working out of California. In the pilot episode, Bailey is hired to secretly bodyguard a yachtsman on a pleasure cruise to Havana. Aired as an episode of the Conflict segment of Warner Brothers Presents.

Cast: Efreem Zimbalist, Jr. (Stuart Bailey). Guest Cast: Barton MacLane (Glen Callister), Margaret Hayes (Eileen Callister), Richard Webb (Madden), Joanna Barnes (Betty Callister).

404 Anything for Money. (Series; Game; Syn.; 1984). Two players compete. A film involving an ordinary person in a prearranged situation is shown. Before the film is stopped, the individual is offered a specific amount of money to do something. The players must determine whether or not the subject agreed or refused to do what was asked. The film is played to reveal the answer. Each correct prediction wins the player money ($200 in Round One; $300 in Round Two; $500 in Round Three).

Host: Fred Travalena. Announcer: Johnny Gilbert.

405 Anything You Can Do. (Series; Game; Syn.; 1971). Two three-member teams, the male vs. the female, compete in a series of contests wherein each team has to perform specified stunts within a specific time period (usually 90 seconds). The team that accumulates the least amount of overall time is the winner and receives an assortment of merchandise prizes.

Host: Gene Wood, Don Harron. Announcer: Bill Luxton.

406 Anywhere, U.S.A. (Series; Anthology; ABC; 1952). Medical dramatizations based on the overlooked and often neglected health problems of people. The series aired from November 9, 1952 to December 14, 1952.

Cast: Edward Dowling (Doctor), Robert Preston (Doctor).

407 Apartment 3-C. (Series; Comedy; Syn.; 1949). Events in the lives of the newlywed Gays: John, a writer, and his scatterbrained wife, Barbara. The Gays live in Apartment 3-C at 46 Perry Street in New York City; the series is one of TV's pioneering husband-and-wife comedies and the earliest type of syndicated programs.

Cast: John Gay (Himself), Barbara Gay (Herself).

408 Apartment 2-C. (Pilot; Comedy; HBO; 8/21/85). George Carlin is a free-lance writer who lives in an apartment (2-C) in New York's Spanish Harlem. The unsold series was to relate George's misadventures as he attempts to work but is constantly interrupted by his bizarre neighbors and strangers. Other Regulars: Biff, the mailman; and Patty, Toki and Bobby, George's neighbors.

Cast: George Carlin (Himself), Pat McCormick (Biff Doyle), Lucy Webb (Patty Dunbar), Blake Clark (Toki), Bobcat Goldthwait (Bobby). Guest Cast: Lois Bromfield (TV interviewer), Kelly Carlin (Girl scout).

409 The Apartment House. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 9/5/64). Wally Weaver is the harassed manager of the Zimmerman Arms, an apartment house in California. The unsold series was to relate his misadventures as he goes out of his way to help his tenants. The pilot episode relates the problems that occur when Wally agrees to care for a tenant's pet monkey. Other Regulars: Marge, Wally's wife; and Billie, the maid.

Cast: George Gobel (Wally Weaver), Sue Ane Langdon (Marge Weaver), Jane Withers (Billie). Guest Cast: Steve Allen (Himself), Fred MacMurray (Himself). Also: Stanley Adams, Reginald Gardiner, Christine Nielson, Woodrow Parfrey.

410 An Apartment in Rome. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 8/22/64). The story of Debbie and Steve Adams, a young couple struggling to survive in Rome, Italy, on what Steve makes as an artist. In the pilot episode, Steve prepares to meet Debbie's rich aunt and uncle for the first time.

Cast: Susan Oliver (Debbie Adams), Allen Case (Steve Adams), Lurene Tuttle (Aunt Ethel), Howard St. John (Uncle Howard). Also: Marie Windsor, Barbara Boone, Fabrizio Mioni, Don Orlando, Lisa Simone.

411 Appearances. (Unaired Pilot; Drama; Produced for ABC in 1990). A proposed series about the daily events that affect each member of the Danzigs, a tightly-knit, middle-class Midwestern family who hide many secrets from each other. Regulars: Parents Ben and Marie; their children Troy and Katherine; and Ben's father, Emile.

Cast: Wendy Phillips (Marie Danzig), Scott Paulin (Ben Danzig), Matt McGrath (Troy Danzig), Heather Hooper (Katherine Danzig), Ernest Borgnine (Emile Danzig).

412 Apple Pie. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1978). "March the fourth, nineteen and thirty-three. Mercy, what times these are. Nobody in this whole country has money to buy dirt. Luckily, though, we live here in Kansas City, Kansas, where there is plenty of dirt for free. Just everything else we can't afford." These words are spoken by Ginger-Nell Hollyhock in the opening theme. Ginger-Nell is a lonely woman who is longing for a family; to resolve her problem, she advertises in the Gazette for a family: a husband, two children and a grandfather.

When the series begins, Ginger-Nell has a beautiful daughter named Anna Marie, a son named Junior, a somewhat senile and blind grandfather (called only Grandpa Hollyhock) and a handsome "husband" named "Fast" Eddie Barnes, a bank robber on the run who finds refuge by posing as a family man.

The family lives at 93600 Morning Glory Road. Ginger-Nell owns the Hollyhock Beauty Salon and pays a home mortgage of $43 a month to the First National Bank of Kansas City. Anna Marie, who knows she is very sexy, titillates the boys by revealing her gorgeous legs (dubbed "leggy sexuality" by Variety). She attends Kansas City University — as does Junior. Grandpa is a loudmouth who constantly complains about the Roosevelt administration and having to "smell the funnies" (the newspaper is not printed in braille). Based on the play Nourish the Beast, by Steve Tesich.

Cast: Rue McClanahan (Ginger-Nell Hollyhock), Dabney Coleman ("Fast" Eddie Barnes), Jack Gilford (Grandpa Hollyhock), Caitlin O'Heaney (Anna Marie Hollyhock), Derrel Maury (Junior Hollyhock).

413 Apple's Way. (Series; Drama; CBS; 1974–1975). The small town of Appleton, Iowa, is the setting. The series follows the dreams, frustrations and ambitions of the Apple family: George, the father, his wife, Barbara, and their children Paul, Cathy, Patricia and Steven. Stories relate George's attempts to recapture for himself and his family the treasured memories of his childhood: "The wonders of streams and woods, the mystery of growing crops and days filled with adventures with participation in good and comforting things." Also living with the family is Aldon Apple, George's father, and their dogs, Muffin, Sam and Bijou.

Cast: Ronny Cox (George Apple), Frances Lee McCain (Barbara Apple), Vincent Van Patten (Paul Apple), Franny Michel (Patricia Apple), Kristy McNichol (Patricia Apple; later), Patti Cohoon (Cathy Apple), Eric Olsen (Steve Apple), Malcolm Atterbury (Aldon Apple).

414 Appointment with Adventure. (Series; Anthology; CBS; 1955–1956). Dramatizations based on the actual experiences of ordinary people in all walks of life. The performers listed below are a sampling of those who have appeared on the series (which ran from April 3, 1955 to April 1, 1956).

Performers Include: Paul Newman, Jack Lord, Patricia Breslin, Polly Bergen, Tony Randall, Jack Klugman, Barbara Britton, Edie Adams, Phyllis Kirk, James Daly, Neville Brand, Viveca Lindfors, Theodore Bikel, Gene Barry, Kim Hunter, Betsy Palmer. Music Director: Ralph Wilkinson. Theme Music: “Appointment with Adventure” by Ralph Wilkinson.

415 The Apprentice. (Series; Reality; NBC; 2004–). Sixteen (sometimes 18) candidates ranging from college graduates to street vendors with no education beyond high school compete for the opportunity of a lifetime — a job with real estate developer Donald Trump. The candidates are brought to New York City (Los Angeles in one cycle) to meet with Donald Trump. Donald splits the players into eight teams (of two; later nine teams of two) and presents them with a business related task. Donald or members of his staff observe each team and record their progress (or lack of it). Each week a new challenge is presented that incorporates varying aspects of business (marketing, promotion, advertising, charities, etc.). Donald’s objective is to throw relatively unprepared people into a dog eat world where street smarts — as well as book smarts are needed to perform some very difficult tasks. Each week the candidates appear in Donald’s boardroom where, after reviewing each one’s performance, one candidate hears the words “You’re fired.” The others continue — alone or together (depending on the outcome of each board meeting) until the finalists are selected and are whittled down to the one lucky person who wins the apprenticeship and a $250,000 a year job with the Trump organization.

On January 3, 2008, NBC aired a variation on the series called The Celebrity Apprentice. Here 14 celebrities gather in Manhattan and compete in business related tasks for their favorite charities (as opposed to a job at Trump Tower). Celebrities include Marilu Henner, Stephen Baldwin, Carol Alt, Gene Simmons, Nadia Comaneci and Vincent Pasore.

Host: Donald Trump. Regulars: Ivanka Trump, Donald Trump, Jr.

416 April in New York. (Experimental; Human Interest; CBS; 4/4/45). A salute to the month of April by showcasing things that would be seen in

New York City (for example, the start of baseball, trees, flowers, and the opening of the Bronx Zoo). Al Schacht, “the clown prince of baseball,” performed a parody on the game; the Bronx Zoo was represented with several animals; photos were used to illustrate flowers and trees; and a puppet performance of scenes from the musical On the Town (which was opening in New York at the time). If the experiment had sold, it would have focused on various aspects of the individual months of the year.

Announcer: Sidney Berry. Guests: Anne Jackson, Barbara Dale, Mary Heckart, Ernest Theiss, Charles Goff, The Sue Hastings Marionettes.

417 Aqua Teen Hunger Force. (Series; Cartoon; Cartoon Network; 2000). Food as super heroes? It has happened and Aqua Teen Hunger Force is their name. In a secret laboratory in South Jersey, a mad scientist (Dr. Weird) plots to take over the world. Articles of food, affected by the doctor’s experiments, come to life to stop him: Frylock (a carton of French fries), Meatwad (a chunk of dim-witted chopped meat) and Master Shake (a bullying pistachio milk shake). The team can rarely agree on anything, are always bickering and stories follow TV’s first food super heroes as they attempt to prevent Dr. Weird from carrying out his diabolical plans. The only pleasure our heroes seem to enjoy is annoying their neighbor, Carl, by swimming in his pool.

Voice Cast: Dana Snyder (Master Shake), Dave Willis (Meatwad), Carey Means (Frylock), C. Martin Croker (Dr. Weird).

418 Aquaman. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1970). Aquaman is the ruler of the Seven Seas (born of an Atlantian mother and a human father, a lighthouse keeper). Over the years he has learned to respect life on land as well as in the sea. Stories relate his adventures as he battles the sinister forces of evil. The segments, which were originally broadcast on The Superman-Aquaman Hour have been syndicated in seven minute segments that are usually run in sets of three by stations to fill a thirty minute block (with commercials).

Voice Cast: Ted Knight (Aquaman), Diana Maddox (Mera), Jerry Dexter (Aqualad), Marvin Miller (Additional Voices).

419 The Aquanauts. (Series; Adventure; CBS; 1960–1961). Drake Andrews, Larry Lahr and Mike Madison are professional salvage divers based in Honolulu. Stories relate their adventures as they take on various (and often dangerous) underwater assignments. Their boat is The Atlantis. After 19 episodes aired (September 14, 1960 to March 1, 1961) the series was revised as Malibu Run (which see for information).

Cast: Keith Larson (Drake Andrews), Jeremy Slate (Larry Lahr), Ron Ely (Mike Madison).

420 Archer. (Series; Crime Drama; NBC; 1975). Lew Archer is a private detective based in Melrose, California. He is a bit older than most private investigators but he feels his years of experience have given him an edge over others in his field. Although he is a bit older, he is not always a bit wiser as his confrontations are not always all talk and no action — most often they are the other way around and Lew is not immune to beatings or being shot at. Stories follow Lew as he takes a rather violent and unorthodox approach (using his own methods) to solving the problems of his clients. Barney Brighton is the police lieutenant who locks horns with Lew. The series is based on the character created by Ross Mac-Donald.

Cast: Brian Keith (Lew Archer), John P. Ryan (Lieutenant Barney Brighton).

421 Archer — Fugitive from the Empire. (Pilot; Science Fiction; NBC; 4/12/81). An elaborately produced, complex pilot that is set on an unnamed futuristic planet where the adventures of Toran, a member of the Malveel Hawk Clan, and Estra, a beautiful enchantress with power over the animal kingdom, are depicted. The pilot episode relates how Toran and Estra are united: Seeking to become ruler of the planet, Gar, the evil leader of the Snake People, kills Toran's father, King Brakus, and frames Toran for the crime. Gar's plan is foiled, however, when Toran escapes before he is punished. Now free, and with the aid of his magic heart bow, Elb, Toran seeks to find the teacher Lazra-Sa, the mysterious man who can help him prove his innocence and assume the throne. Enroute, Toran encounters Estra, the goddess who is seeking Lazra-Sa for a different reason: to kill him for taking the life of her mother, Neastra. Seeking the same man, but for different reasons, Toran and Estra join forces. The unsold series was to depict their adventures as they seek Lazra-Sa and attempt to avoid Gar, who now plans to kill both of them.

Cast: Lane Caudell (Toran of Malveel), Belinda Bauer (Estra the Enchantress), Kabir Bedi (Gar), Larry Douglas (Lazra-Sa). Guest Cast: George Kennedy (King Brakus), Victor Campos (Slant), Marc Alaimo (Sandros), Sharon Barr (Mandras), George Innes (Mak), Tony Swartz (Captain Riis), Richard Dix (Rak), Allan Rich (Yos).

422 Archie. (Unaired Pilot; Comedy; Produced in 1964). A proposed series about a group of teenagers who live in the mythical town of Riverdale: Archie Andrews, Betty Cooper, Veronica Lodge, Reggie Mantle and Jughead Jones. Other Regulars: Mr. Weatherbee, the principal of Riverdale High School; and Miss Grundy, a teacher. Based on the Archie comic book series.

Cast: John Stinson (Archie Andrews), Cheryl Holdridge (Betty Cooper), Wayne Adams (Reggie Mantle), Karen Green (Veronica Lodge), Jerry Bite (Jughead Jones), William Schallert (Archie's father), Jean VanderPyl (Archie's mother), Roland Winters (Mr. Weatherbee), Mary Grace Canfield (Miss Grundy). Guest Cast: Maggie Pierce (Miss Kenny), Kathy Bennett (Duffie), Harriet MacGibbon (Mrs. Finch).

423 Archie. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 12/19/76). An unsold series about the misadventures of a group of students who live in Riverdale (Archie, Betty, Veronica, Reggie and Jughead). The pilot episode relates Archie's efforts to arrange for a popular singing group (the Hound Dogs) to perform at Veronica's birthday party. See also Archie (1964) and The Archie Situation Comedy Musical Variety Show. Based on the Archie comic book series.

Other Regulars: Mr. Weatherbee, the Riverdale High School principal; Miss Grundy, a teacher; and the gang's friends Moose, Midge and Big Ethel.

Cast: Dennis Bowen (Archie Andrews), Audrey Landers (Betty Cooper), Hilary Thompson (Veronica Lodge), Mark Winkworth (Reggie Mantle), Derrel Maury (Jughead Jones), Jim Boelsen (Moose), Susan Blu (Midge), Tifni Twitchell (Big Ethel), Gordon Jump (Archie's father), Byron Webster (Mr. Weatherbee), Jane Lambert (Miss Grundy), Amzie Strickland (Veronica's mother), Whit Bissell (Veronica's father). Guest Cast: Michelle Stacy (Little Jinx), Mae Marmy (Aunt Helen), Billy Mumy (Larry), Paul Gordon (Phil).

424 Archie Bunker's Place. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1979–1983). A spinoff from All in the Family that picks up the life of Archie Bunker after the passing of his wife, Edith. Archie is now a widower and guardian to two beautiful girls: his niece, Barbara Lee ("Billie") Bunker, and his ward, Stephanie Mills. Archie still resides at 704 Houser Street and is now a partner with Murray Klein in the Archie Bunker's Place bar-restaurant. (In 1981 Archie buys out Murray's share of the bar when he leaves to marry Marcie Phillips).

Billie, who works as a waitress at the bar, is the daughter of Archie's brother, Fred (Richard McKenzie). She came to live with Archie when Fred was no longer able to care for her. Stephanie, whose birthday is in May, attends Ditmars Junior High School (her mother, Marilyn, was killed in a car accident).

Harry Snowden is Archie's bartender; Veronica Rooney is the bar's cook; and Edgar Van Ransleer is the blind bar regular.

Cast: Carroll O'Connor (Archie Bunker), Martin Balsam (Murray Klein), Danielle Brisebois (Stephanie Mills), Denise Miller (Barbara Lee "Billie" Bunker), Allan Melvin (Barney Hefner), Jason Wingreen (Harry Snowden), Anne Meara (Veronica Rooney), Bill Quinn (Edgar Van Ransleer), Sheree North (Dotty Worth), Heidi Hagman (Linda), Abraham Alvarez (Jose Perez), Joe Rosario (Raoul), Barbara Meek

(Ellen Canby), Dino Scofield (Fred), Danny Day-ton (Hank), Cynthia Harris (Marcie Phillips), Janet MacLachlan (Polly Swanson), Mel Bryant (Ed Swanson), Steven Hendrickson (Roger Abbott), Will Kuluva (Abe Rabinowitz), Howard da Silva (Abe Rabinowitz; later), Barry Gordon (Gary Rabinowitz), Allan Miller (Barney Rabinowitz), Georgann Johnson (Alice Snowden), Marty Brill (Floyd Mills), Ben Slack (Floyd Mills; later), Celeste Holm (Estelle Harris), Yvonne Wilder (Kathleen Logan), Richard McKenzie (Fred Bunker), Jessica Nelson (Marsha), Sydney Lassick (Sid), Jerry Stiller (Carmine), Madelyn Cates (The Bag Lady). Opening Theme: “Those Were the Days” by Lee Adams. Closing Theme: “Remembering You” by Roger Kellaway.

425 The Archie Show. (Series; Cartoon; CBS; 1969–1971). Comical events in the lives of Archie Andrews and his friends Betty Cooper, Veronica Lodge, Jughead Jones and Reggie Mantle (The Archie Gang), high school students in the mythical town of Riverdale. Based on the comic strip Archie by Bob Montana. A year after its initial run (September 13, 1969 to September 9, 1969) the series switched to an hour format and became The Archie Comedy Hour (September 13, 1969 to September 5, 1970).

Voice Cast: Dallas McKennon (Archie Andrews), Jane Webb (Betty Cooper), Jane Webb (Veronica Lodge), Howard Morris (Jughead Jones), Dallas McKennon (Reggie Mantle).

426 The Archie Situation Comedy Musical Variety Show. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 8/5/78). An unsold pilot based on the 1942 comic strip Archie by Bob Montana. The teenagers of Riverdale (Archie, Betty, Veronica, Reggie, Jughead, Midge and Moose) perform a series of songs as they become involved in various misadventures. The pilot relates Archie’s efforts to convince his father to let him buy a used sports car. Other Regulars: Mr. Weatherbee, the principal of Riverdale High; and Miss Grundy, a teacher.

Cast: Dennis Bowen (Archie Andrews), Audrey Landers (Betty Cooper), Hilary Thompson (Veronica Lodge), Mark Winkworth (Reggie Mantle), Derrel Maury (Jughead Jones), Susan Blu (Midge), Jim Boelsen (Moose), Byron Webster (Mr. Weatherbee), Jane Lambert (Miss Grundy), Gordon Jump (Archie’s father).

427 Archie’s Funhouse Featuring the Giant Joke Box. (Series; Cartoon; CBS; 1970–1971). A spin off from The Archie Show that continues to depict the antics of Archie Andrews and his friends (Betty Cooper, Veronica Lodge, Jughead Jones and Reggie Mantle) in the town of Riverdale (where the gang attends Riverdale High School). The program also adds dances and comedy bits centered around the “Giant Joke Box” (which looks like a juke box but instead dispenses jokes).

Voice Cast: Dallas McKennon (Archie Andrews), Dallas McKennon (Reggie Mantle), Jane Webb (Veronica Lodge), Jane Webb (Betty Cooper), Howard Morris (Jughead Jones).

428 Archie’s TV Funnies. (Series; Cartoon; CBS; 1971–1973). Animated adaptations of eight comic strips that are presented as the programs of a television station operated by the Archie Gang (Archie Andrews, Betty Cooper, Jughead Jones, Veronica Lodge, Reggie Mantle and their dog, Hot Dog). The cartoon strips are Dick Tracy, The Captain and the Kids, Moon Mullins, Smokey Stover, Nancy and Sluggo, Here Come the Dropouts, Broom Hilda and Emmy Lou.

Voice Cast: Dallas McKennon (Archie Andrews), Jane Webb (Betty Cooper), Jane Webb (Veronica Lodge), Dallas McKennon (Reggie Mantle), Howard Morris (Jughead Jones).

429 Are You Afraid of the Dark? (Series; Anthology; Nickelodeon; 1992–1996). A series of spooky (but not gory) stories. The stories unfold as a group of children (who call themselves the Midnight Society) gather in the woods at night around a campfire and spin tales of unnatural happenings. The pilot episode, “The Tale of the Twister Claw,” aired on October 31, 1991.

Cast (The Midnight Society): Jodie Reslther, JoAnna Garcia, Rachel Blanchard, Daniel DeSanto, Jason Alisharan, Raine Pare-Coull, Ross Hull, Nathaniel Moreau.

430 Are You Afraid of the Dark? (Series; Anthology; Nickelodeon; 1999–2000). A revised version of the 1992 series of the same title. Spooky stories that unfold as a group of children (the Midnight Society) gather around a campfire in the woods at night to tell urban legend-like fright tales.

Cast (The Midnight Society): Daniel DeSanto, Elisha Cuthbert, Jay Baruchel, Emily Van Camp, Vanessa Lenhies, Sarah Edmondson, Kyle Downes, Kareem Blackwell, Emma Taylor Isherwood.

431 Are You Hot? The Search for America’s Sexiest People. (Series; Reality; ABC; 2004). A reality show that begins a search (but is derailed by its hot competition, NBC’s Will and Grace and CBS’s C.S.I.) to find the sexiest people in America. Eight women and eight men are chosen as semi finalists from the thousands of hopefuls who attended open auditions across America (seen in edited highlights during the show’s first four weeks). The finalists then compete on stage in various contests designed to highlight their looks. A panel of three judges relate their opinions following each event but viewers, via an on-line web-site, determine the actual winners.

Host: J.D. Roberto. Judges: Rachel Hunter, Lorenzo Lamas, Randolph Duke.

432 Are You Positive? (Series; Game; NBC; 1952). Celebrity panelists attempt to identify well-known personalities from their baby pictures. The panelists, representing a home viewer who is selected by a postcard drawing, forfeit five dollars to that person if they are unable to identify the photograph. A summer series that ran from July 6, 1952 to August 24, 1952.

Host: Bill Stern, Frank Coniff. Panelists: Jimmy Cannon, Frank Frisch, Lefty Gomez.

433 Are You Smarter Than a Fifth Grader? (Series; Game; Fox; 2007–). “All these grownups have to do is answer grade school questions and prove they are smarter than a fifth grader.” If they can do so they could win $1 million. Five fifth graders (ten year olds) appear on stage as the Class. One adult, the Student, appears with the host. The Student selects one fifth grader as a classmate (who now stands beside the Student). A board with ten questions (based on first through fifth grade subjects) appears. Questions range from $1,000 to $500,000. If the student can answer all ten questions correctly, he receives the bonus question, which is worth $1 million.

The player selects a category and a question is read. When the classmate finishes writing his answer, the Student answers verbally. If he is stumped he has three “Cheats” to help him (Peek at his classmate’s answer; Copy the answer; or have the classmate answer it for him, called a Save). Each classmate can only assist the Student for two questions. The student can quit school at any time (dropout) with what money he has won up to that point. If he does, he must face the camera and say “I am not as smart as a fifth grader.” The two goldfish seen on the teacher’s desk on the stage are named Darnell and Mike.

Host: Jeff Foxworthy. The Class (Cycle One): Laura Marano, Alana Etheridge, Kyle Collier, Jacob Hayes, Spencer Martin, Marti Ann Meyer. The Class (Cycle Two): Olivia Glowacki, Mackenzie Holmes, Nathan Lazarus, Cody Lee, Sierra McCormick.

434 Arena. (Pilot; Drama; NBC; 3/10 and 3/17/64). A two-part pilot film, broadcast on The Richard Boone Show, about Joseph Campbell, a district attorney with senatorial ambitions. In the pilot episode, Campbell attempts to win the backing of a newspaper by prosecuting a teenage murderer as an adult.

Cast: Lloyd Bochner (Joseph Campbell), Harry Morgan (Senator Clements), Bethel Leslie (Maggie Clements), Ford Rainey (Jacob Osserman), June Harding (Jeanette Brown), Richard Boone (Judge), Warren Stevens (James O'Brien).

435 The Arena. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 6/27/86). The Arena is an old sports facility fraught with problems. Max Harrison is its manager and the unsold series was to focus on his attempts to cope with the madcap circus performers, pro wrestlers and the other unusual characters who populate his establishment. In the pilot episode, Max seeks a replacement for a wrestling team when they quit over a contract dispute. Other Regulars: Lorraine, Max’s secretary; Gus, Max’s assistant; Stormtrooper, the booking agent; and Johnny and Cannonball, who work for Max.

Cast: Ted Bessell (Max Harrison), Teresa Ganzel (Lorraine Lemelle), Jimmy Briscoe (Gus Leodas), Kevin Scannell (Cannonball Reghetti), Mario Lopez (Johnny Vega), Lou Jacobi (“Stormtrooper” Bernie Sagowitz). Guest Cast: H.B. Haggerty (Sidney), Jay S. York (Sheldon), Linda Thompson-Jenner (Dolores), Alan Blumenfeld (Workman), Jack Armstrong (Dominic), Magic Schwartz (Sal).

436 Ark II. (Series; Science Fiction; CBS; 1976–1979). The Earth, once rich and fertile for millions of years, falls into ruin as pollution and waste take their toll. It is the year 2476 and conventional civilization no longer exists. Only a handful of scientists remain to build what man has destroyed. Their one major achievement is Ark II, a mobile storehouse of scientific knowledge manned by three young scientists: Jonah, Ruth and Samuel. Stories relate their experiences as the set out “to bring the hope of the new future to mankind.”

Cast: Terry Lester (Jonah), Jean Marie Hon (Ruth), Jose Flores (Samuel).

437 Arlene Dahl’s Beauty Spot. (Series; Women; ABC; 1965–1966). Capsule programs (five minutes in length) of beauty tips and advice for women. Broadcast as the last five minutes of the ABC daytime soap operas Never Too Young and Dark Shadows. Actress Arlene Dahl hosts the series (which ran daily from September 27, 1965 to June 24, 1966).

Hostess: Arlene Dahl.

438 The Arlene Francis Show. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1957–1958). Music, songs, chatter and celebrity interviews. The series ran from August 12, 1957 to February 21, 1958. Alan Beaumont is the producer.

Host: Arlene Francis. Music: The Norman Paris Trio.

439 Arli$$. (Series; Comedy; HBO; 1996–2002). A sports oriented comedy that focuses on Arliss Michaels, the owner of the Arliss Michaels Management Team, a sports agency that goes to extremes to represent its clients.

Arliss Michaels, the founder, is a somewhat unethical agent who wheels and deals to get his clients the best exposure possible, no matter who he hurts along the way. Rita Wu is Arliss's no-nonsense girl Friday. She is totally devoted to her work and often the moral voice in Arliss's life. Her only weakness appears to be her passion for Latin golf clients.

Stanley Babson is Arliss's straight-laced (three piece suit) chief financial officer. He is a genius when it comes to numbers and on occasion will invest in any scheme that can make him money. Kirby Carlisle is Arliss's old college chum, an ex-football star who now works as an agent. He is a junior partner but becomes easily distracted from what he is doing by his vices — gambling and women.

Cast: Robert Wuhl (Arliss Michaels), Sandra Oh (Rita Wu), Michael Boatman (Stanley Babson), Jim Turner (Kirby Carlisle).

440 Arly Hanks Mysteries. (Pilot; Crime Drama; CBS; 8/20/94). When Arly Hanks, a New York City private detective, catches her husband, an advertising executive, in bed with a foot model, she leaves him and returns to her home town of Maggody (Pop. 755) in the Arkansas Ozarks. Shortly after, when a crime wave hits the area, the mayor (Jim-Bob) appoints her as the police chief—“We need a new perspective.” Arly is subtle in her approach, doesn't carry a gun and loves to whittle. The unsold series was to relate Arly's efforts to uphold the law. The pilot episode relates Arly's first case: solving the crossbow arrow murder of Jaylee, a beautiful waitress who was planning to start a new life in Little Rock, Arkansas. Other Regulars: Ruby Bee, Arly's mother (owner of the town bar, Ruby Bee's); Estelle, Ruby's friend, a hairdresser; Raz, Arly's friend (lives in Skunk County); Miss Jim-Bob, the mayor's wife.

Cast: Kate Jackson (Arly Hanks), Polly Bergen (Ruby Bee), Ron Perlman (Jim-Bob Buchannan), Olivia Cole (Estelle), Raynor Scheine (Raz), Nancy Youngblut (Miss Jim-Bob Buchannan). Guest Cast: Julie McCullough (Jaylee), Patrika Darbo (Dahlia), Chambers Stevens (Kevin), Lane Davies (John), Ray McKinnon (Hobart Middleton), Tim Black (Paulie), Michael Moss (Carl Withers), Mary Ann Hagan (Robin).

441 Armchair Detective. (Series; Game; CBS; 1949). Selected studio audience members compete. A criminal case is reenacted and stopped prior to the denouncement. The first player to solve the case, based on script clues, is the winner and receives merchandise prizes. Evelle J. Younger, a prosecutor for the city of Pasadena, who appears in the final few minutes of the program, presents the solution to each of the mysteries. The series ran from July 6, 1949 to September 18, 1949.

Cast: Cy Kendall (Private Detective Jonas Flint), Jerome Sheldon (Inspector Harrison), H. Allen Smith (Mr. Crime Attorney), John Milton Kennedy (Mr. Crime Investigator).

442 Armed and Famous. (Series; Reality; CBS; 2007). A reality series that tends to go a bit farther (in stupidity and risk) than any other reality show. Here five celebrities train (for three weeks) to become police officers (in Muncie, Indiana). Each celebrity takes an abbreviated rookie school course to earn their guns and in the end, actually ride with real police officers on patrols.

Celebrities: Erik Estrada, La Toya Jackson, Jack Osbourne, Trish Stratus, Jason Acuna.

443 The Armstrong Circle Theater. (Series; Anthology; NBC, CBS; 1950–1963). Varying dramatizations, all well written, acted and directed with many based on true incidents. The performers listed below are a sampling of those who have appeared on the program. The series, sponsored by the Armstrong Corporation, ran on NBC from January 6, 1950 to June 25, 1957, and on CBS from October 2, 1957 to August 28, 1963.

Hosts: Nelson Case (1955–1957), Douglas Edwards (1961–1962), Ron Cochran (1962–1963). Performers Include: Anne Jackson, John Lipton, Henry Daniell, Cloris Leachman, Leslie Nielsen, Grace Kelly, Henry Hull, John Newland, Lola Albright, Cara Williams, Ed Begley, Bonita Granville, Patricia Breslin, Walter Matthau, Elizabeth Montgomery, Jackie Cooper, James Dean, Janet Blair, Joanne Woodward, Darren McGavin, Bibi Osterwald, Everett Sloane, Jack Warden, Peggy McKay, Lois Nettleton, Patty Duke.

444 The Army Show. (Series; Comedy; WB; 1998). Fort Bendix is a forgotten Army supply base where life is easy. It is run by Dave Hopkins, a master sergeant who manipulates the system and a group of slackers for his own personal needs. When the Army discovers that Fort Bendix was supposed to be closed in 1974 but is still operational, they assign Brandford Handy, a no-nonsense lieutenant to get the base back in shape. Stories follow Dave's attempts to continue his life of luxury by outsmarting Handy through his ingenious schemes. The local pub hangout is the House of Jugs.

Other Regulars: John Ceaser, a private serving a four year army hitch for hacking into a bank's computer system; “Smart” Eddie Mitterand, a private who claims to have 15 extra bones in his back (“I consider it my twin who never made it”); he is called “The Human Compass” for his uncanny sense of direction. Rusty Link is a corporal who brews his own cologne (“Hyena”); Lana Povoc is a tough and scary female private; and Ozzie is a not-too-bright private.

Cast: David Anthony Higgins (Sgt. Dave Hopkins), John Sencio (Pvt. John Ceaser), Brian Posehn (Pvt. Eddie Mitterand), Ivana Millavich (Pvt. Lana Povoc), Craig Anton (Lt. Brandford Handy), Toby Huss (Cpl. Rusty Link), Mary Lynn Rajskub (Sgt.

Tipton), Harold Sylvester (Col. John McGuire), Victor Togunda (Pvt. Ozzie Lee).

445 Army Wives. (Series; Drama; Lifetime; 2007–). A realistic series that focuses on the wives of career military men (of the Delta Force) as they help each other overcome the sacrifices, hardships and uncertainties that the actual current wars (Iraq and Afghanistan) may place on military families.

Claudia Joy Holden is the wife of Colonel Michael Holden and the self-appointed leader of the group of wives. Roxie Le Blanc is a bartender with two children (from different men) who is currently married to Trevor, a private; Denise Sherwood is the wife of Major Frank Sherwood and the mother of Jeremy; Pamela Moran is a former police officer who is married to Chase, a paratrooper (she quit the force to be with Chase from his base to base transfers). Pamela also has a secret that could affect Chase's military career: to earn money she "rents" herself out as a surrogate.

Women are not necessarily army wives. Men can too as seen through the character of Roland Burton, the husband of Joan, an alcoholic with post-traumatic stress disorder after a tour of duty in Afghanistan. Roland is a psychiatrist; Denise is concealing signs that her son abuses her; Pamela fears the money she earns as a surrogate is being squandered by her irresponsible husband. The series is based on the book by Tanya Blank.

Cast: Kim Delaney (Claudia Joy Holden), Sally Pressman (Roxy LeBlanc), Brigid Brannagh (Pamela Moran), Catherine Bell (Denise Sherwood), Wendy Davis (Joan Burton), Brian McNamara (Michael Holden), Sterling K. Brown (Roland Burton), Drew Fuller (Trevor LeBlanc), Terry Serpico (Frank Sherwood), Rhoda Griffiths (Lenore Baker).

446 Arnie. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1970–1972). Arnold ("Arnie") Nuvo, his wife, Lillian, and their teenage children, Andrea and Richard, live at 4650 Liberty Lane in Los Angeles. Arnie works as a loading dock foreman for Continental Flange, Inc. (located at 36 West Pico Boulevard). After 12 years of faithful service on Arnie's part, Hamilton Majors, Jr., the company president, gives him a promotion and makes him an executive—the head of New Product Improvement. Arnie now makes $20,000 a year and feels that for the first time in his life he may become self-sufficient. Stories follow Arnie as he struggles to deal with the responsibilities of a new position and his efforts to deal with family matters.

Lillian is a beautiful woman who held a job as a Perfect Figure lingerie model. She is a bit frugal and that is what Arnie hopes she will continue to be despite his increase in salary. Andrea, who loves to play the guitar, and Richard attend Westside High School.

Hamilton Majors, Jr., runs the company for

"Dad." His favorite letters are S-A-V-E. He babies his right hand (his mallet hand) for matches at the Bayshore Polo Club and will only shake hands with his left hand.

Randolph ("Randy") Robinson is Arnie's neighbor, the host of television's "The Giddyap Gourmet." Felicia Farfas is Arnie's secretary, and Neil Ogilvie is the plant supervisor; Julius is a friend of Arnie's.

Harry Geller composed the theme song, "Arnie."

Cast: Herschel Bernardi (Arnie Nuvo), Sue Ane Langdon (Lillian Nuvo), Stephanie Steele (Andrea Nuvo), Del Russell (Richard Nuvo), Roger Bowen (Hamilton Majors, Jr.), Charles Nelson Reilly (Randy Robinson), Elaine Shore (Felicia Farfas), Olan Soule (Fred Springer), Herbert Voland (Neil Ogilvie), Tom Pedi (Julius).

447 Arnold's Closet Revue. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 8/20/71). A proposed but unsold series of blackouts and sketches that satirize various aspects of everyday life.

Host: Arte Johnson. Regulars: Bonnie Boland, Joyce Bulifant, Jim Connell, Joan Gerber, Harvey Jason, Chuck McCann, Carol Robinson, Fred Smoot, Frank Welker.

448 Around the World in 80 Days. (Series; Cartoon; NBC; 1972–1973). When Phineas Fogg and Belinda Maze are unable to marry because her uncle, Lord Maze, objects, Fogg accepts Lord Maze's challenge to travel around the world in eighty days to prove himself worthy of the girl. Believing him incapable of the feat, Lord Maze wagers twenty thousand pounds (about $42,000) against him and hires, unknown to Fogg, the evil Mister Fix to foil the attempt and ensure his winning the bet. Fogg, and his aide, Jean Passepartout, depart from England (the series is set in 1877) in a hot air balloon and begin their quest. Episodes depict Fogg's attempts to overcome the foul deeds of Mr. Fix and complete his journey within the allotted time. Based on the novel by Jules Verne.

Voice Cast: Alastair Duncan (Phineas Fogg), Ross Higgins (Jean Passepartout), Max Obenstein (Mister Fix).

449 Around the World in 30 Minutes. (Experimental; News; DuMont; 10/13/43). A television version of a local New York radio program called Around the World in 30 Minutes (aired on station WNEW). For the video version of a newscast, documentary film, globes and maps were used to help illustrate the commentary (military and political developments). Documentary film footage was used to highlight the career of Chiang Ka-Shek.

Hosts-Commentators: Samuel Cuff, Kerby Cushing.

450 Arrest and Trial. (Series; Crime Drama; ABC; 1963–1964). Two interwoven forty-five minute series relating police apprehension methods in The Arrest and the courtroom hearing in The Trial. Sergeant Nick Anderson of the Los Angeles Police Department is the principal police officer; Attorney John Egan is the featured attorney.

Cast: Ben Gazzara (Sgt. Nick Anderson), Chuck Connors (John Egan), John Kerr (Deputy D.A. Jerry Miller), Roger Perry (Sgt. Dan Kirby), Jo Anne Miya (Janet Okada), Joe Higgins (Jake Shakespeare), Don Galloway (Mitchell Harris). Theme Song: "Arrest and Trial" by Bronislau Kaper.

451 Arrested Development. (Series; Comedy; Fox; 2003–2006). Can the only normal person in a dysfunctional family succeed in taking over the family business and retain his sanity while dealing with his family and their problems? That is the dilemma facing Michael Bluth, the level-headed son of George and Lucille Bluth. Michael's problems begin when George is arrested for embezzlement and the responsibility of running Bluth Enterprises falls on his shoulders.

Michael is a widower and the father of George Michael. He lives in the model home of the proposed Bluth Development Company. He tackles each crisis with cool thinking and it is only by cutting corners (or trying to) that he barely manages to keep the company afloat.

George was caught by the Securities and Exchange Commission cheating investors and treating the company like his own personal piggybank. George's father began Bluth Enterprises in 1953 when he opened the Bluth Frozen Banana Stand. George spoiled Lucille and she continues to live a life of luxury despite the fact that her lifestyle is bankrupting the company.

Lindsay is Michael's sister and has no concept of money. She is married to Tobias Funke and they are the parents of a girl they named Maebe. They rely on an allowance from Michael for their income. George Oscar Bluth, called Gob (pronounced Jobe) is Michael's older brother. He is a would-be magician whose life revolves around magic. Byron, called Buster, is the middle brother. He is a bit strange and doctors attribute this to his spending 11 months in the womb. He is knowledgeable in many fields by suffers from crippling panic attacks.

Cast: Jason Bateman (Michael Bluth), Portia de Rossi (Lindsay Funke), Jeffrey Tambor (George Bluth, Sr.), Jessica Walter (Lucille Bluth), Will Arnett (George Oscar Bluth), Michael Cera (George Michael Bluth), Alia Shawkat (Maebe Funke), Tony Hale (Buster Bluth), David Cross (Tobias Funke).

452 Arresting Behavior. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1992). A spoof of reality cop shows via a cinema verite portrait of Bill Ruskin, Danny Walsh and his brother, Pete, officers with the Vista Valley Police Department. Other Regulars: Bill's wife (Connie) and children (Rhonda, Bill, Jr. and Seth).

Cast: Leo Burmester (Bill Ruskin), Ron Eldard (Danny Walsh), Chris Mulkey (Pete Walsh), Lee Garlington (Connie Ruskin), Amy Hathaway (Rhonda Ruskin), Eric Balfour (Bill Ruskin, Jr.), Joey Simmrin (Seth Ruskin).

453 The Arrow Show. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1948–1949). The alternate title for The Phil Silvers Arrow Show, which ran on NBC from December 17, 1948 to May 19, 1949. See this title for information.

454 Arroyo. (Pilot; Western; NBC; 10/26/55). Lamar Kendall is a self-appointed judge and his efforts to uphold the peace in the town of Arroyo, New Mexico, was the focal point of this unsold series. In the pilot episode, broadcast on Screen Director's Playhouse, Kendall attempts to help a wounded woman who claims her wagon train was attacked by Indians.

Cast: Jack Carson (Lamar Kendall), Bob Steele (Deputy Dodd). Guest Cast: Lynn Bari (Hattie Mae Warren), Lloyd Corrigan (Hank), Lola Albright (Nancy Wheeler), Neville Brand (Bart Wheeler), William Schallert (Lawyer), John Baer (Dude).

455 The Arsenio Hall Show. (Series; Talk; Fox; 1989–1994). A talk show, geared to younger viewers, that presents not only celebrity interviews but items of interest to the advertiser's most sought after group, the 18–49 year olds. The series aired from January 2, 1989 to May 27, 1994.

Host: Arsenio Hall. Announcer: Burton Richardson.

456 Art and Mrs. Bottle. (Experimental; Stage Play; NBC; 9/14/39). A television adaptation of the Broadway play by Benn Levy. The story, set in England, concerns a mother's (Celia Bottle) efforts to resolve the romantic problems of her two children, who are hopelessly tied up in romantic knots: her daughter (Judy) is in love with a penniless artist (Max), a man she once fancied; and her son (Michael) is in love with the artist's cockney model (Sonia).

Cast: Anne Revere (Celia Bottle), Jabez Gray (Mr. Bottle), Katherine Emery (Judy Bottle), Tom Speidel (Michael Bottle), Dorothy Mathews (Sonia Tippet), Helen Wynn (Parlor maid).

457 The Art Ford Show. (Series; Game; NBC; 1951). A panel of three disc jockeys play for home viewers (who are selected by postcard drawing). A musical selection is played and the panel must answer a series of questions based on the song. The home viewer receives five dollars for each incorrect answer given by his representative panelist. The series, which ran from July 28, 1951 to September 15, 1951, is also known as In Record Time.

Host: Art Ford. Assistant: Arlene Cunningham. Panelists: Fred Robbins, Johnny Syme, Hal Moore.

458 The Art Linkletter Show. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1969–1970). A daily series of songs, chatter, and game contests (in which studio audience members are presented with various minor emergencies. The players who are best at solving them receive merchandise prizes).

Host: Art Linkletter. Co-Host: Jack Linkletter. Regulars: Carl Reiner, Joyce Meadows.

459 Art Linkletter's House Party. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1952–1969). A daily program of music, interviews, audience participation and discussions (with appropriate guests on current topics of interest). Also known as House Party and The Linkletter Show. The series aired from September 1, 1952 to September 5, 1969. John Guedel is the producer.

Host: Art Linkletter. Announcer: Jack Slattery. Music: The Muzzy Marcellino Trio.

460 The Art of Being Nick. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 8/27/87). After a long absence, junk sculptor Nick Moore returns to New York to begin a new life. Shortly after, he moves in with his divorced sister (Marlene) and her son (Louis) and becomes a clerk in Marlene's book store, Moore Books. The unsold series, a spinoff from Family Ties, was to relate Nick's adventures in New York. The pilot episode relates Nick's efforts to reestablish a relationship with his nephew, Louis. See also Taking It Home. Other Regulars: Rachel, Marlene's assistant.

Cast: Scott Valentine (Nick Moore), Kristine Sutherland (Marlene Moore), Julia Louis-Dreyfus (Rachel Phillips), John Damon (Louis Moore). Guest Cast: Ray Buktenica (Bob), Ellen Crawford (Depressed woman).

461 The Art of Crime. (Pilot; Crime Drama; NBC; 12/3/75). Roman Grey is a Gypsy antique dealer and amateur sleuth working out of New York City. The unsold series, based on the novel Gypsy in Amber by Martin Smith, was to relate Grey's efforts to help police sergeant Harry Isadore solve crimes. The pilot episode relates Grey's efforts to solve the murder of a friend. Other Regulars: Danay, Grey's girlfriend; and the Gypsy Queen.

Cast: Ron Leibman (Roman Grey), Jill Clayburgh (Danay), Eugene Roche (Sgt. Harry Isadore), Tally Brown (Gypsy Queen). Guest Cast: Jose Ferrer (Beckwith Sloane), David Hedison (Parker Sharon), Diane Kagan (Hilary), Dimitra Arliss (Madame Vera), Cliff Osmond (Nanoosh), Louis Guss (Dodo).

462 Arthur. (Series; Cartoon; PBS; 1996–2006). An educational cartoon for children that follows the life of Arthur Timothy Read (an aardvark), an eight-year-old fascinated by the thought of education (especially reading to learn). Unfortunately, Arthur's quest for knowledge is often sidetracked by his obnoxious younger sister, Dora (called D.W.), and his mischievous-making friends — Binky, Francine, Muffy, Brian and Buster. Stories follow Arthur as he faces all the challenges of growing up. Jane and David are Arthur's parents; Thora and Dave are his grandparents.

Voice Cast: Michael Yarmush (Arthur Timothy Read), Cameron Ansell (Arthur Timothy Read), Oliver Grainger (Dora Winifred Read), Sonja Ball (Jane Read), Bruce Dinsmore (David Read), Melissa Altro (Mary "Muffy" Crosswire), Paul Stuart Brown (Brian), Joanna Noyes (Grandma Thora Reed), A.J. Henderson (Grandpa Dave Read), Daniel Brochu (Buster Baxter), Jodie Resther (Francine Alice Frensky), Arthur Holden (Emil Nigel Rathburn III), Tamar Kozlov (Prunella), Walter Massey (Principal Herbert Haney), Bronwen Mantel (Sarah MacGrady), Holly G. Frankel (Fern Walters), Kate Hutchinson (Paige Turner), Hayley Reynolds (Nadine), Stephen Crowder (Alan "The Brain" Powers), Tracy Braunstein (Kate Read).

463 Arthur Godfrey and Friends. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1949–1956). An informal program of music, songs, comedy and chatter. The series ran from January 12, 1949 to June 6, 1956.

Host: Arthur Godfrey. Regulars: Pat Boone, Christine McGuire, Dorothy McGuire, Marion Marlowe, Janette Davis, Julius LaRosa, Johnny Nash, Lu Ann Simms, Allen Case, Frank Parker, Bill Lawrence, Haleolke (dancer), Carmel Quinn, Stan Noonan, Janet Erlet, Dottie, Schwartz, Jimmy Osborn, Carol Hagedorn, James Lewis, Nathaniel Dickerson, Martin Karl, Thomas Lockard, The Chordettes, The Mariners. Announcer: Tony Marvin. Orchestra: Archie Bleyer, Neil Hefti.

464 Arthur Godfrey and His Ukulele. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1950). An informal program of music and chatter (humorist Arthur Godfrey is famous for playing the ukulele). The series ran from April 4, 1950 to June 30, 1950. Margaret Richardson is the producer.

Host: Arthur Godfrey. Announcer: Tony Marvin. Orchestra: Archie Bleyer.

465 The Arthur Godfrey Show. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1958–1959). A casual program of music, song and chatter with humorist Arthur Godfrey as the host. The series ran from September 23, 1958 to February 24, 1959. Margaret Richardson and Jack Carney are the producers.

Host: Arthur Godfrey. Regulars: Johnny Nash, Lani Nill. Announcer: Tony Marvin. Orchestra: Dick Hyman.

466 Arthur Godfrey Time. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1952–1959). A casual program of music, song and chatter with humorist Arthur Godfrey as the host. The series ran from January 7, 1952 to April 24, 1959. Larry Puck and Will Roland are the producers.

Host: Arthur Godfrey. Announcer: Tony Marvin. Orchestra: Archie Bleyer.

467 Arthur Godfrey's Talent Scouts. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1948–1958). The program features performances by undiscovered talent. The series ran from December 6, 1948 to July 21, 1958. Irving Mansfield and Jack Carney are the producers.

Host: Arthur Godfrey. Substitute Host: Joe E. Brown, Steve Allen, Guy Mitchell. Vocalists: The Holidays. Announcer: Tony Marvin. Orchestra: Archie Bleyer.

468 Arthur Murray's Dance Party. (Series; Variety; ABC, DuMont, CBS, NBC; 1950–1960). The program features dance instruction, dancing contests (which are judged by three guest celebrities), songs and light comedy sketches. The series aired on the following dates and networks: ABC (July 20, 1950 to September 7, 1950); DuMont (October 15, 1950 to March 11, 1951); ABC (April 2, 1951 to June 25, 1951); ABC (September 19, 1951 to May 12, 1951); CBS (July 11, 1952 to August 29, 1952); DuMont (October 12, 1952 to April 26, 1953); CBS (June 28, 1953 to October 4, 1953); NBC (October 12, 1953 to April 12, 1954); NBC (June 15, 1954 to September 14, 1954); NBC (June 28, 1955 to September 13, 1955); CBS (April 5, 1956 to September 27, 1956); NBC (April 9, 1957 to September 16, 1957); NBC (September 29, 1958 to September 6, 1960). Arthur Murray, Howard G. Barnes, Frederick Heider and West Hooker are the producers.

Hostess: Kathryn Murray. Regulars: Arthur Murray, Arnold Stang, Jack Norton, Teresa Brewer, Victor Borge, Joyce Bulifant, Lauritz Melchior, Mary McCarthy, Bil Baird, Cora Baird, Fran Warren, David Street, Jeri Gale, Mary Beth Hughes, Nelson Case, The Pastels, The Arthur Murray Dancers. Announcer: Ted Brown. Orchestra: Ray Carter, Emil Coleman, Stanley Melba.

469 As the World Turns. (Series; Serial; CBS; 1956–). The series, set in the fictional town of Oakdale, U.S.A., depicts the conflicts affecting the lives of three closely related families. The series ran for 30 minutes from April 2, 1956 to November 28, 1975; it premiered as a 60-minute series on December 1, 1975.

Cast: Don McLaughlin (Chris Hughes), Helen Wagner (Nancy Hughes), Rosemary Prinz (Penny Hughes), Phoebe Dorin (Penny Hughes), Peter Link (Tom Hughes), C. David Colson (Tom Hughes), Peter Galman (Tom Hughes), Paul O'Keefe (Tom Hughes), David Colson (Tom Hughes), Tom Tammi (Tom Hughes), Justin Deas (Tom Hughes), Jason Kincaid (Tom Hughes), Gregg Marx (Tom Hughes), Irene Yeh-Ling Sun (Amy Hughes), Maura Gilligan (Frannie Hughes), Tracy O'Neill (Frannie Hughes), Terri Vanden Bosch (Frannie Hughes), Barbara Rodell (Joyce

Hughes), Ruth Warrick (Edith Hughes), Peter Brandon (Donald Hughes), Martin West (Donald Hughes), James Noble (Donald Hughes), Richard Holland (Donald Hughes), Conrad Fowkes (Donald Hughes), Hal Studer (Donald Hughes), Robert Alford (Bob Hughes), Ronnie Walsh (Bob Hughes), Don Hastings (Bob Hughes), Santos Ortega (William "Grandpa" Hughes), John Reilly (Dan Stewart), William Lee (Dan Stewart), John Colenbeck (Dan Stewart), Dean Santoro (Paul Stewart), Stephen Mines (Paul Stewart), Michael Hawkins (Paul Stewart), Forrest Graves (Dr. David Stewart), Henderson Forsythe (Dr. David Stewart), Ariane Munker (Carol Ann Stewart), Martina Deignan (Carol Ann Stewart), Julie Ridley (Carol Ann Stewart), Barbara Jean Ehrhardt (Carol Ann Stewart), Mary Lynn Blanks (Carol Ann Stewart), Randall Edwards (April Stewart), Marcia McClain (Dee Stewart), Jacqueline Schultz (Dee Stewart), Jean Mazza (Dee Stewart), Vicky Dawson (Dee Stewart), Heather Cunningham (Dee Stewart), Jacqueline Schultz (Dee Stewart), Jada Rowland (Susan Stewart), Leslie Perkins (Susan Stewart), Marie Masters (Susan Stewart), Connie Scott (Susan Stewart), Diana Walker (Susan Stewart), Judith Barcroft (Susan Stewart), Patricia Benoit (Betsy Stewart), Tiberia Mitri (Betsy Stewart), Susan Davids (Betsy Stewart), Simone Schacter (Betsy Stewart), Suzanne Davidson (Betsy Stewart), Lisa Denton (Betsy Stewart), Meg Ryan (Betsy Stewart), Lisa Denton (Emily Stewart), Jenny Harris (Emily Stewart), Marissa Morell (Emily Stewart), Colleen McDermott (Emily Stewart), Wendy Drew (Ellen Stewart), Patricia Bruder (Ellen Stewart), Judith Blazer (Ariel Donovan), Kathryn Hays (Kim Andropolous), Jacques Perrault (Frank Andropolous), Marisa Tomei (Marcy Thompson), Scott Bryce (Craig Montgomery), Lisa Loring (Cricket Montgomery), Anne Sward (Lyla Montgomery), Margaret Colin (Margo Montgomery), Hillary Bailey (Margo Montgomery), Glynnis O'Connor (Margo Montgomery), Ellen Dolan (Margo Montgomery), Frank Runyeon (Steve Andropolous), Michael Forest (Nick Andropolous), Rita Walter (Carol Andropolous), Gary Sandy (Hank Barton), Nat Polen (Dr. Douglas Cassen), Ethel Rainey (Alma Miller), William Johnstone (Judge Lowell), Larry Bryggman (Dr. John Dixon), Fran Carlon (Julia Burke), Geraldine Court (Jennifer Ryan), Gillian Spencer (Jennifer Ryan), Pip Sarsar (Charles Shea), Gloria DeHaven (Sara Fuller), Martin Sheen (Jack Davis), Donna Wandrey (Barbara Ryan), Konrad Matthaei (Roy McGuire), Konrad Matthaei (Grant Colman), James Douglas (Grant Colman), Dennis Cooney (Jay Stallings), Don Scardino (Marty), Rita McLaughlin (Carol Demming), Lisa Cameron (Peggy Reagan), Sidney Walker (Dr. Flynn), Jerry Lucy (Simon Gilbey), Nina Hart (Meredith Harcourt), Anne Burr (Claire Shea), Nancy Wickwire (Claire Shea), Joan Allison (Claire Shea), Gertrude Warner

(Claire Shea), Barbara Berjer (Claire Shea), Roy Schumann (Dr. Michael Shea), Anna Minot (Martha Wilson), Martin Ruby (Carl Wilson), Edward Kemmer (Dick Martin), Anthony Herrera (James Stenbeck), Martha Lambert (Sheila Winston), Robert Lipton (Dr. Jeff Ward), Ariane Munker (Melinda Gary), Peter Reckell (Eric Hollister), Rita Walker (Carol Stallings), Colleen Zenk (Barbara Stenbeck), Deborah Hobart (Dana Woodward), Michael Cody (Jimmy McGuire), Doreen Lang (Karen Adams), Ethel Everett (Mrs. Brando), Jean McClintock (Alice), Dagne Crane (Sandy McGuire), Ronnie Carroll (Sandy McGuire), Barbara Rucker (Sandy McGuire), Kathleen Cody (Sally Graham), James Earl Jones (Dr. Jerry Turner), Michael Lipton (Neil Wade), Toni Darnay (Franny Brennan), Kelly Campbell (Franny Brennan), Charles Siebert (Wally Matthews), Mark Rydell (Jeff Baker), James Pritchett (Bruce Elliott), Jane House (Elizabeth Talbot), Les Damon (Jim Lowell), William Redfield (Dr. Tim Cole), Judith Chapman (Natalie Bannon), Patricia McCormack (Kim Dickson), Ellen Barber (Holly Bauer), Keith Charles (Ralph Mitchell), Melinda Peterson (Pat Holland), Joseph Christopher (Ted Ellison), Laurel Delmar (Laurie Keaton), Wayne Hudgins (Beau Spencer), Judith McConnell (Valerie Conway), Kelly Wood (Mary Ellison), Deborah Hobart (Dana Woodward), John Tripp (Matt), Phil Peters (Steve Parnell), Dennis Romer (Douglas Campbell), Bob Hover (Brian Ellison), Claire Doyle (Amy), Biff Warren (Mark Lewis), Jon Cypher (Dr. Alexander Deith), Ethel Remy (Alma Miller), Swoosie Kurtz (Ellie), Doug Higgins (Bennett Hadley), Rachel Kelly (Kate), Peter Simon (Ian McFarland), Peter Brouwer (Brad Hollister), Dana Delany (Hayley Wilson), Beau Gravitte (Cody Sullivan), Robin Leary (Sofia Korackes), Mary Linda Rapelye (Maggie Crawford), Jacqueline Schultz (Dee Dixon), Janet Zarish (Natalie Trizndos), Betsy Palmer (Suzy Becker), Randie Jean Davis (Marilyn Best), Robin Thomas (Dr. Max Butler), Margo McKenna (Linda Chase), Kathy MacNeil (Karen Haines), W.T. Martin (Stan Holden), Robert Elston (Dr. Leonard Howell), Kathy McCallen (Brian Marlow), Elaine Princi (Miranda Marlowe), Marshall Watson (Ernie Ross), Con Roche (Dr. Rick Ryan), Gary Hudson (Dr. Rick Ryan), Hugo Napier (Gunner St. Clair), Gary Lahti (Larry Travis), Robert Lipton (Jeff Ward), Rebecca Holden (Tina Cornell), Patricia Mauceri (Andrea), Zsa Zsa Gabor (Lydia Marlowe), Linda Dano (Cynthia Haynes), Henny Youngman (Zechariah Knopf), Scott Crawford (Sergio), Danielle Duclos (Stacey), Brent Collins (Mr. Big), Kim Ulrich (Diana McColl), Frank Telfar (Brian McColl), Lee Meredith (Charmane McColl), Juanita Malone (Samantha Jones), Betsy von Furstenberg (Lisa McColl), Eddie Earl Hatch (Tucker Foster), Chris LeBlanc (Kirk McColl), Real Andrews (Walker Daniels), McKenzie Satterwaite (Nikki

Munson), Jon Hensley (Holden Snyder), Michael Cardelle (Rafael Ortega), Lucy Deakins (Lily Walsh Snyder), Michael David Morrison (Caleb Snyder), Jordan Woolley (Nick Kasnoff), Annie Parisse (Julia Lindsey), Jordana Brewster (Nikki Munson), Chris Beetem (Jordan Sinclair), Monti Sharp (Dr. Lewis McCloud), Judson Mills (Hutch Hutchinson), Maura West (Carly Tenney Snyder), Lesli Kay (Molly Peterson McKinnon), Millette Alexander (Sylvia Hill Suker), Peter Parros (Ben Harris), Robert Horton (Whit McColl), Peyton List (Lucy Montgomery), Spencer Grammer (Lucy Montgomery), Jessica Dunphy (Alison Stewart), Jesse Soffer (Will Munson), Shawn Christian (Mike Kasnoff), Mark Collier (Mike Kasnoff), Mary Beth Evans (Sierra Esteban), Nathaniel Marston (Eddie Silva), Martha Byrne (Lily Walsh Snyder), Martha Byrne (Rose D'Angelo), Lea Salonga (Lien Hughes), Paul Leyden (Simon Frasier), Hunter Garner (Billy Ross), Todd Rotondi (Bryant Montgomery), Brian Bloom (Dusty Donovan), Grayson McCouch (Dusty Donovan), Jennifer Landon (Gwen Munson), Zach Roerig (Casey Hughes), Trent Donovan (Henry Colman), Van Harris (Luke Snyder), Kathleen Widdoes (Emma Snyder), A.J. Lamas (Rafael Ortega), Kerr Smith (Ryder Hughes), Jimmy Wicek (Linc Lafferty), Agim Kaba (Aaron Snyder), Cady McClain (Rosanna Cabot), Yvonne Perry (Rosanna Cabot), Marie Wilson II (Meg Snyder), Scott DeFretias (Andy Dixon), William Fichtner (Josh Snyder), Kin Shriner (Keith Morrissey), Scott Holmes (Tom Hughes), Joseph Breen (Scott Eldridge), Tamara Tunie (Jessica Griffin), Kelly Menighan Hensley (Emily Stewart), Ming-Na (Lien Hughes), Paolo Seganti (Damian Grimaldi), Michael Louden (Ian "Duke" Kramer), Eileen Fulton (Lisa Miller Grimaldi), Jennifer Ferrin (Jennifer Munson Donovan), Michael Park (Jack Snyder), Terri Colombino (Katie Peretti Kasnoff), Susan Marie Snyder (Julie Wendell Snyder), Lamman Rucker (T. Marshall Travers), Greg Watkins (Evan Walsh), Barbara Rucker (Sandy Wilson Thompson), Melanie Smith (Emily Stewart), Ben Jorgensen (Chris Hughes), Steve Bassett (Seth Snyder), Keith Coulouris (David Stenbeck), Mary Linda Rapeleye (Margaret Crawford), Cassandra Creech (Denise Maynard), Barbara Rodell (Joyce Colman), Hunt Block (Craig Montgomery), Jeffrey Meek (Craig Montgomery), Elena Goode (Jade Taylor), Peter Boynton (Tonio Reyes), Jamie Dudney (Georgia Tucker Silva), Sherri Alexander (Samantha Markham), Susan Batten (Connor Jamison Kasnoff), Allyson Rice-Taylor (Connor Jamison Kasnoff), Heather Rattray (Lily Walsh Snyder), Finn Carter (Sierra Esteban Montgomery), Andrew Kavovit (Paul Ryan), Roger Howarth (Paul Ryan), Scott Holroyd (Paul Ryan), Frank Runyeon (Steve Andropoulos), Mary Ellen Stuart (Frances Hughes Crawford), Michael Nader (Kevin Thompson), Doug Wert (Scott Eldridge), Robert Burton (Brian McColl), Frank

Telfar (Brian McColl), Mark Pinter (Brian McColl), Robert Burton (Brian McColl), Bailey Chase (Chris Hughes), Alyssa Diaz (Celia Ortega), Alexandra Chando (Maddie Colman), Anthony Herrera (James Stenbeck), Carl T. Evans (Nick Scudder), Renee Props (Ellie Snyder), Danny Markel (David Stenbeck), Napiera Danielle (Bonnie McKechnie), Julianne Moore (Frances Hughes Crawford), Julianne Moore (Sabrina Fullerton Hughes Crowley), Patrick Tovatt (Cal Stricklyn), Alex Charak (Elwood Hoffman), John Wesley Shipp (Douglas Cummings), Paul Taylor (Isaac Jenkins), Tom Eplin (Jake McKinnon), Elizabeth Hubbard (Lucinda Walsh), Hugo Napier (Gunnar St. Clair), Benjamin Hendrickson (Hal Munson), Colleen Zenk (Barbara Ryan), Tim Wiggin (Kirk Anderson), Julie Ridley (Dr. Anne Stewart Ward), Linda Cook (Cynthia Linders), Leslie Perkins (Dr. Susan Burke Stewart), Lauren Martin (Camille Bennett), Patricia Gage (Corinne Lawrence), Jennifer Ashe (Meg Snyder), Guenia Lemos (Ruby Frank), Randolph Mantooth (Hal Munson), Anna Stuart (Donna Love), Geraldine Court (Jennifer Sullivan Hughes), Gillian Spencer (Jennifer Sullivan Hughes), Ed Fry (Dr. Larry McDermott), Rex Smith (Darryl Crawford), Sarah Brown (Julia Larrabee), Kathryn Meisle (Lois Serafin), Christina Chambers (Molly McKinnon), Joanna Harts Home (Sarah Smith), Ernest Waddell (Curtis Harris), Christopher Tavini (Luke Snyder).

470 As Time Goes By. (Series; Comedy; PBS; 2000). Lionel Hardcastle and Jean Pargeter were lovers in 1953 but separated by the Korean War when Lionel, a soldier, was sent overseas. Jean, a nurse, and Lionel, wrote to each other but they lost contact with each other when a letter sent to Jean from Lionel was lost by the postal service. It is 1992 when the series begins (in England). Lionel had been in Kenya, Africa, tending to a coffee plantation and has written a book called My Life in Kenya. He has come to London, England, to meet with his publisher, Alistair Deacon. By chance, when he applies for a secretary at Type for You, he finds that his old flame, Jean, is the owner. Jean and Lionel renew their old friendship and find they still love each other. Jean, a widow, is the mother of Judy; Lionel, a widower, has no children. As they renew their relationship stories follows the courtship, marriage and married lives of Lionel and Jean.

Sandy is Judy's friend (works for Jean); Rocky is Lionel's father; Madge is Rocky's second wife; Mrs. Bale is Rocky's housekeeper; Lol Ferris is Rocky's groundskeeper. The series is produced in England and airs in America on PBS stations.

Cast: Judi Dench (Jean Pargeter), Geoffrey Palmer (Lionel Hardcastle), Moira Brooker (Judy Pargeter), Jenny Funnell (Sandy), Philip Bretherton (Alistair Deacon), Frank Middlemass (Rocky Hardcastle), Joan

Sims (Madge Hardcastle), Janet Henfrey (Mrs. Bale), Tim Wylton (Lol Ferris).

471 As Told by Ginger. (Series; Cartoon; Nickelodeon; 2000–2006). Ginger Foutley is a 12-year-old girl who believes she is not only unpopular (although she does have friends) but also a misfit in middle school (as the series progressed, she became an eighth grader then a high school student). Ginger's experiences she deals with life at home and at school are seen as told by Ginger herself. Ginger's friends are Dodie, Marcie and Darren; Courtney, the popular girl in school who once considered Ginger a geek, befriends her in later episodes.

Voice Cast: Melissa Disney (Ginger Foutley), Jeannie Elias (Carl Foutley), Aspen Miller (Dodie Bishop), Kenny Blank (Darren Patterson), Tress MacNeille (Hoodsey Bishop), Jackie Harris (Macie Lightfoot), Laraine Newman (Lois Foutley), Liz Georges (Courtney Gripling), Cree Summer (Miranda Killgallen), Kath Soucie (Blake Gripling).

472 Ask Me Another. (Series; Game; NBC; 1952). The format calls for panelists to identify sports figures through a series of indirect question-and-answer rounds. The summer series ran from July 3, 1952 to September 25, 1952.

Host: Joe Boland. Panelists: John Lujack, Warren Brown, Kay Westfall, Tom Duggan.

473 The Asphalt Cowboy. (Pilot; Crime Drama; NBC; 12/7/80). Caulpepper Security Service is a Los Angeles-based company owned by Max Caulpepper, a detective who is also a rancher and the widowed father of three daughters (Molly, Rosie and Meg). The unsold series was to relate Max's efforts to solve crimes, assisted in some cases by his housekeeper, a retired cop he calls Sergeant Brown. The pilot relates Max's efforts to solve the murder of a friend — a murder he believes is linked to the theft of $20,000 from the Van Heuran Aircraft Company. Originally titled "Caulpepper."

Cast: Max Baer (Max Caulpepper), Lory Walsh (Molly Caulpepper), Robin Dearden (Rosie Caulpepper), Lori Lowe (Meg Caulpepper), Noah Beery, Jr. (Sergeant Brown), James Luisi (Lieutenant Lassiter). Guest Cast: Richard Denning (Charles Van Heuran), James Sloyan (Candy man), Jennifer Holmes (Annie Van Heuran), Kathy Shea (Rita), Cal Bellini (Vincent Bustermonte), Michael Mullins (Richie Bancroft).

474 The Asphalt Jungle. (Series; Crime Drama; ABC; 1961). Matthew Gower is a Deputy Police Commissioner in New York City who heads the Metropolitan Squad, an elite team of handpicked detectives whose job it is to disrupt the workings of the underworld. Captain Gus Honochek and Sergeant Danny Keller assist Gus.

Cast: Jack Warden (Matthew Gower), Arch Johnson

(Gus Honochek), Bill Smith (Danny Keller). Theme Song: “The Asphalt Jungle” by Duke Ellington.

475 Assassin. (Pilot; Adventure; CBS; 3/19/86). A proposed series about Henry Stanton, a secret operative for the Agency, a U.S. government intelligence organization. In the pilot episode, Henry is recruited (after eight years of retirement) to track down and terminate Robert Golem, a human-looking robot on a murderous rampage. Other Regulars: Mary, Henry’s partner; Calvin, Henry’s superior; Earl, Calvin’s assistant.

Cast: Robert Conrad (Henry Stanton), Karen Austin (Mary Casallis), Robert Webber (Calvin Lantz), Jonathan Banks (Earl Dickman). Guest Cast: Richard Young (Robert Golem), Jessica Nelson (Ann Walsh), Ben Frank (Franklin), Len Birman (Senator Corbin), Nancy Lenehan (Grace Decker), Richard Newton (Oliver Smithfield).

476 The Assassination Run. (Series; Thriller; The Entertainment Channel; 1983). While attending Oxford University, Mark Fraser is recruited as an agent by Department Six of British Intelligence. In time he becomes one of their top “eliminators.” After several years he resigns in disgust, marries his girlfriend, Jill Marshall, and retires to the Scottish Highlands. While shopping one afternoon, Jill is kidnapped by five German terrorists and brought to Spain. When Mark receives a telephone call from the terrorists, instructing him to assassinate a right-wing German publisher, he is forced to employ his former skills as a hit man to ensure Jill’s safety. The series depicts Mark’s attempts to find and rescue Jill — knowing that the terrorists are unlikely to let her remain alive once he has fulfilled their demands. Other Regulars: Vladimir, a Lieutenant Colonel with the KGB, who is on a mission in Spain; Bartlett; Department Six’s man in Spain; Sir James Mackieson, the head of Department Six. Produced in England.

Cast: Malcolm Stoddard (Mark Fraser), Mary Tamm (Jill Fraser), Sandor Eles (Vladimir Illyich Grigor), Leon Sinden (Bartlett), James Drake (Sir James Mackieson).

477 Assignment: Danger. (Series; Crime Drama; Syn.; 1953). The syndicated title for Martin Kane, Private Eye, which ran on NBC from September 11, 1949 to August 20, 1953. See this title for information.

478 Assignment: Earth. (Pilot; Science Fiction; NBC; 3/29/68). A proposed spin-off from Star Trek about Gary Seven, a human trained by aliens to protect mankind from destroying itself, and his assistants, Roberta Lincoln, a scatterbrained girl who stumbles upon his secret and attaches herself to him, and Isis, Gary’s magical cat. In the pilot episode, Gary is sent to Earth in the year 1968 to stop the launching of a suborbital H-bomb.

Cast: Robert Lansing (Gary Seven), Teri Garr (Roberta Lincoln). Guest Cast: Morgan Jones (Colonel Nesvig), Don Keefer (Cromwell), Lincoln DeMyan (Sergeant).

479 Assignment: Foreign Legion. (Series; Anthology; Syn.; 1957). Dramatizations based on the role of the French Foreign Legion during the North African campaign of World War II. Stories relate incidents in the lives of its men and officers.

Cast: Merle Oberon (Correspondent).

480 Assignment: Manhunt. (Series; Anthology; NBC; 1951–1952). Dramatizations that depict the work of police law enforcement agencies as they attempt to track down wanted criminals. Varying casts and stories. The series aired from July 14, 1951 to September 1, 1951 and from July 5, 1952 to August 23, 1952.

481 Assignment: Munich. (Pilot; Adventure; ABC; 4/30/72). The pilot film for the series Assignment: Vienna. The story of Jake Webster, a U.S. government undercover agent for the Internal Central Bureau, who operates Jake’s Bar and Grill in Munich, Germany, as a cover for his activities. The pilot episode relates Jake’s efforts to help Cathy Lange, a girl being pursued by three men seeking $500,000—money stolen by her father who was killed before he could reveal its location to his three accomplices. Other Regulars: Major Bernard Caldwell, Jake’s superior; and Inspector Hoffman.

Cast: Roy Schneider (Jake Webster), Richard Basehart (Bernard Caldwell), Werner Klemperer (Inspector Hoffman). Guest Cast: Lesley Ann Warren (Cathy Lange), Robert Reed (Mitch), Pernell Roberts (C.C. Bryan), Keenan Wynn (George), Mike Kellin (Gus). Note: Robert Conrad played Jake Webster in the series and Charles Cioffi was Major Caldwell.

482 Assignment: Underwater. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1960). Bill Greer is an ex-marine turned professional diver. He is a widower and the father of Patty, a pre-teen girl with a keen interest in the sea (and hoping to follow in her father’s footsteps). Bill is the owner of a charter boat for hire named Lively Lady (based in Florida) and stories follow Bill (and Patty’s) adventures as they take on various assignments.

Cast: Bill Williams (Bill Greer), Diane Mountford (Patty Greer).

483 Assignment: Vienna. (Series; Adventure; ABC; 1972–1973). Jake Webster is a United States government undercover agent based in Vienna, Austria. In order to carry out his assignments, Jake poses as the owner of Jake’s Bar and Grill. Stories relate his adventures as he becomes involved with and helps people in trouble. Major Bernard Caldwell is Jake’s contact. Broadcast as a segment of The Men.

See also Assignment: Munich for information on the series pilot film. The series aired from September 28, 1972 to June 9, 1973 and produced six episodes.

Cast: Robert Conrad (Jake Webster), Charles Cioffi (Major Bernard Caldwell), Anton Diffring (Police Inspector Hoffman).

484 The Associates. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1979–1980). Bass and Marshall is a prestigious Wall Street law firm in New York City. It is run by Emerson Marshall, the strict, no-nonsense senior partner. Sara James, Leslie Dunn, Elliott Streeter and Tucker Kerwin are the firm's featured lawyers, potential screw-ups who make life miserable for Emerson. Stories follow the efforts of the firm to defend clients despite the antics of the firm's legal staff. Other Regulars: Johnny Danko, the mail boy; Ginger, a secretary; and Susan Warren, Johnny's girlfriend. Nine of thirteen produced episodes aired on ABC. When the Entertainment Channel came into being in 1982, it picked up the series and aired four additional episodes that were never broadcast on ABC.

Cast: Wilfrid Hyde-White (Emerson Marshall), Shelley Smith (Sara James), Alley Mills (Leslie Dunn), Martin Short (Tucker Kerwin), Joseph Regalbutto (Elliott Streeter), Tim Thomerson (Johnny Danko), Adrienne Hampton (Ginger), Francine Tacker (Susan Warren). Theme Vocal: "Wall Street Blues" by B.B. King.

485 Astro Boy. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1963). When his wife and son are killed in an automobile accident, Dr. Boynton, the head of the Institute for Science, builds Astro Boy, an indestructible super-powered robot for companionship. When the robot fails to mature, Dr. Boynton sells him to a circus. Shortly thereafter, Astro Boy is saved from being a sideshow attraction by Dr. Elefun (the new head of the Institute), who instills him with human qualities. Eventually Dr. Elefun creates Astro Boy's robot sister, Astro Girl. The series relates their battle against evil. The first Japanese-produced cartoon series to become a success in the United States.

Voice Cast: Billie Lou Watt (Astro Boy), Billie Lou Watt (Astro Girl), Ray Owens (Dr. Elefun).

486 The Astronaut Show. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1965). The story of a friendly space creature (called Astronaut) who is sent to Earth to help Mankind. Other segments include Luno, the Flying Horse and Gadmouse.

Voice Cast: Dayton Allen (Astronaut), Bob McFadden (Oscar Mild), Bob McFadden (Luno), Bob McFadden (Gadmouse), Bob McFadden (Tim Bashimoto), Dayton Allen (James Hound), Bob McFadden (Latimore), Lionel Wilson (Owlawishus Owl), Lionel Wilson (Possible Possum), Lionel Wilson (Billy Bear).

487 The Astronauts. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 8/11/82). Roger Canfield, Jennifer Tate and David Ackroyd are three U.S. astronauts. Their experiences as the operatives of Scilab, an earth-orbiting NASA probe, was to be the focal point of the unsold series. In the pilot episode, the astronauts rebel against mission control's attempts to monitor them 24 hours a day with television cameras. Other Regulars: Colonel Michael C. Booker, the capsule communicator in Houston; Scotty, Booker's aide; and Slugger, the Scilab hamster.

Cast: Granville Van Dusen (Roger Canfield), Brianne Leary (Jennifer Tate), Bruce Davison (David Ackroyd), McLean Stevenson (Michael C. Booker), Nathan Cook (Scotty). Theme: "The Astronauts" by Billy Byers.

488 The A-Team. (Series; Adventure; NBC; 1983–1987). Hannibal Smith, B.A. Baracus, Templeton Peck and H.M. Murdock are soldiers of fortune who comprise the A-Team, military fugitives who help people unable to help themselves. The four were members of the U.S. armed services A-Team during the Vietnam War. On Sunday morning, January 27, 1971, they received orders from Colonel Morrison to rob the Bank of Hanoi.

Believing they are performing a mission to end the war, they successfully withdraw 100 million yen (ten million pesetas in another episode). Morrison, a Vietnamese supporter, informs military officials of the robbery then escapes with the money by staging his own death. The A-Team is captured by Colonel Roderick Decker and imprisoned. Before they can be tried, they escape from Fort Bragg and retreat to the Los Angeles underground. They are branded fugitives and $20,000 is offered for their capture.

Military brass believe only Hannibal, B.A. and Peck comprise the A-Team.

Murdock, a pilot, was on another mission at the time and now secretly helps them.

Colonel Lynch first pursued the team. He was replaced by Colonel Decker. The army wants the file on the A-Team closed. They were convicted at a time of great political pressure. They were virtually forgotten until Lynch started his fruitless pursuit "and now the whole thing has mushroomed into a highly embarrassing series of situations." Decker is ruthless, a man who will get the job done at any cost and not lose any sleep over it. Colonel Briggs replaced Decker and Colonel Harlan "Bull" Fulbright replaced Briggs; each failed to capture the A-Team.

In last season episodes the team is captured by Colonel Hunt Stockwell. They are tried, convicted of murder and robbery, and sentenced to death by firing squad. They are given a chance to redeem themselves by performing assignments for Stockwell. The team is given a permanent base in Langley, Virginia, and operate under the code name Empress 6. Stockwell is assisted by Carla.

John "Hannibal" Smith was a colonel in command of the 5th Special Forces Group. He is also a parttime actor and takes roles in horror movies as the Slime Monster or the Aquamaniac. He is famous for his expression "I love it when a plan comes together" and plays Mr. Lee, the Chinese owner of Mr. Lee's Laundry Shop in Los Angeles (each client must meet with Mr. Lee before the team will take on a case. Hannibal believes this deception is necessary to avoid a military trap).

Bosco "B.A." Baracus, a sergeant, is the toughest and meanest member of the team (he says the "B.A." stands for bad attitude). B.A. grew up at 700 Foster Avenue in Chicago and was called "Scooter" by his mother (his real first name is Elliott). B.A. loves children (he runs a day care center in his spare time) and gold jewelry. "Pity the fool" is his catchphrase and he has a fear of flying.

Templeton Peck, known as "Face" and "The Face-man," is a lieutenant and a master con artist (he schemes to get the team what it needs without paying for it). Peck, orphaned at the age of five, was raised by the Guardian Angels Orphanage in Los Angeles. He learned most of his cons from his favorite TV show (Dragnet) and is an expert at bending the rules. He is also an expert liar and "has such a face that everybody believes what he is saying." Tim Dunigan played Face in the pilot (replaced when producers felt he was too young to have served in Vietnam).

H.M. ("Howling Mad") Murdock. Before the war he was a pilot with the Thunderbirds. He performed heroic missions in Vietnam and pretends to have gone insane as a result. He lives in Building 16 (the psychiatric ward) of the V.A. Hospital in Los Angeles and is suspected by the military of being a member of the A-Team (but they can't prove it). Murdock has been diagnosed with paranoid delusions and amnesia is the key word that triggers his aggression. In last season episodes Murdock is found to be sane, released from the hospital and then resides with the team in Virginia. Although Murdock is pretending to be crazy B.A. believes "he ain't pretending, he is crazy."

Amy Amanda Allen, called "Triple A" by Hannibal, assists the team when a beautiful girl is needed to help in a scam. She is a reporter for the Los Angeles Courier-Express and became part of the team when she hired them to find a missing reporter (and became actively involved in the case). Amy was replaced by her friend, Tawnia Baker, a reporter for the Courier-Express, when Amy was transferred overseas. Like Amy, Tawnia helps the team when needed.

Tawnia left the team to marry archaeologist Brian Lefcourt (Barry Van Dyke) in the episode "Bend in the River" (before her role as Tawnia, Marla Heasley played Cahrise, a bikini clad coed in the episode "Bad Time on the Border").

Mike Post and Pete Carpenter composed The A-Team theme.

The program opened with these words: "In 1972, a crack commando unit was sent to prison by a military court for a crime they didn't commit. These men promptly escaped from a maximum security stockade to the Los Angeles underground. Today, still wanted by the government, they survive as soldiers of fortune. If you have a problem, if no one else can help, and, if you can find them, maybe you can hire the A-Team."

Cast: George Peppard (George "Hannibal" Smith), Mr. T (Bosco "B.A." Baracus), Dirk Benedict (Templeton Peck), Tim Dunigan (Templeton Peck; pilot episode), Dwight Schultz (H.M. Murdock), Melinda Culea (Amy Amanda Allen), Marla Heasley (Tawnia Baker), William Lucking (Colonel Lynch), Lance LeGault (Col. Roderick Decker), Carol Baxter (Nurse Billings), Carl Franklin (Captain Crane), Charles Napier (Colonel Briggs), Robert Vaughn (Col. Hunt Stockwell), Judy Ledford (Carla).

489 At Ease. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 9/7/76). An Army post on Staten Island (New York) is the setting for an unsold series about Sergeant Henry Rumsey, a 27-year Army veteran, as he struggles to bridge the generation gap that exists between himself and his young recruits. The pilot episode relates Harry's attempts to come to a decision as to whether to reenlist for his last three-year hitch or leave the Army for good.

Cast: Richard O'Neill (Sergeant Henry Rumsey), Peg Shirley (Agnes Rumsey; his wife), Kathleen Beller (Stacy Rumsey; his daughter), Danny Goldman (Corporal Harvey Green), Kenneth Gilman (Lieutenant Block), Roy Applegate (Private Albert Franklin). Guest Cast: Rod McCary (M.P.), Amanda Jones (Carol), Kenneth Martinez (Soldier), Rita Conde (Mother), Roxanna Bonilla-Giannini (Bride).

490 At Ease. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1983). Camp Tar Creek is an Army computer base in Texas. Stories follows the antics of Sergeant Tyrone Valentine and Private Tony Baker, a pair of conniving G.I.'s attached to Company A, as they attempt to outwit Major Hawkins, their by-the-books commander, and profit from their hitch in the army. An updated version of Phil Silvers "Sergeant Bilko" character from The Phil Silvers Show.

Other Regulars: Colonel Clarence Clapp, the Commanding Officer; Corporal Lola Grey, Clapp's secretary; Corporal Wessel, Hawkins's aide; and Privates Maxwell and Cardinel.

Cast: Jimmie Walker (Sgt. Tyrone Valentine), David Naughton (Pvt. Tony Baker), Richard Jaeckel (Major Hawkins), Roger Bowen (Col. Clarence Clapp), Jourdan Fremin (Cpl. Lola Grey), George

Wyner (Cpl. Wessel), Josh Mostel (Pvt. Maxwell), John Vargas (Pvt. Cardinal).

491 At Home. (Experimental; Variety; CBS; 8/17/44). Various variety performances situated in a house party format: songs by Jeri Sullivan; dancing by Eunice Healey (from the Copa Cabana Club); comedy from Hildegarde Holliday; and songs and music from the team of Pasquita Anderson and Yul Brynner.

Cast: Pasquita Anderson, Yul Brynner, Eunice Healey, Hildegarde Holliday, Jeri Sullivan.

492 The At Home Show. (Series; Variety; CBS, ABC; 1949–1952). A quarter-hour series of music and songs. Also known as The Masland At Home Show (when sponsored by Masland Carpets). The series ran on CBS from September 14, 1949 to June 7, 1950; and on ABC from August 30, 1951 to September 21, 1952. Ward Fuller and Franklin Heller are the producers.

Host: Earl Wrightson. Music: The Norman Paris Trio.

493 At Home with Tex and Jinx. (Live Test Program; Variety; CBS; 4/8/47). The program is set in a simulated living room where the hosts greet and interview guest personalities. Also featured were films depicting the weekly activities of the hosts. See also The Swift Home Service Club.

Hosts: Jinx Falkenberg, Tex McCrary.

494 The At Liberty Club. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1948). A weekly summer songfest, set in a mythical nightclub, that features Parisian singer Jacqueline Turner. The series aired from June 25, 1948 to September 16, 1948. E. Roger Muir is the producer.

Hostess: Jacqueline Turner. Regulars: Shara DeVries, Gordon Gaines. Music: The D'Artega Orchestra.

495 At Rona's. (Pilot; Interview; NBC; 3/6 to 3/10/89). Informal interviews conducted from the home of gossip columnist Rona Barrett. A five-episode pilot for an unsold daily series.

Hostess: Rona Barrett.

496 At Your Service. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 8/3/64). The story of James Devlin, the owner of a tourist service bureau in Paris that helps Americans who are in trouble. The pilot episode relates Devlin and his partner Michel's efforts to help a stranded movie star and her daughter (Gloria and Penny Miles).

Cast: Van Johnson (James Devlin), Marcel Dalio (Michel). Guest Cast: Jan Sterling (Gloria Miles), Judi Meredith (Penny Miles).

497 At Your Service. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 8/1/84). Stonehill Manor is a mansion owned by the wealthy Barbara Stonehill but run by her somewhat wacky staff: Jerry Bianco, the chauffeur; Audrey Ritter, Barbara's secretary; and Albert Vogel, the butler. The unsold series was to focus on the antics of Barbara's staff when they take over the mansion when she is away. In the pilot episode, the servants try to conceal their money-making activities from the new butler (Albert). Other Regulars: Dwayne, the maintenance man; Theresa, the maid; Susan, the cook; Rick, the gardener; Jorge, Theresa's son. Became the basis for the series Marblehead Manor.

Cast: Barbara Rush (Barbara Stonehill), Derek McGrath (Jerry Bianco), Megan Gallagher (Audrey Ritter), Garrett Morris (Dwayne), Joseph Maher (Albert Vogel), Maria DuVall (Theresa), Susan Kellermann (Susan Ottinger), Michael Richards (Rick), Antonio Torres (Jorge). Guest Cast: Ellen Crawford (Mrs. Anderson), Paul Fielding (Mr. Anderson).

498 The Atom Ant/Secret Squirrel Show. (Series; Cartoon; NBC; 1965–1968). The adventures of Atom Ant, the world's mightiest insect, and Secret Squirrel, the animal kingdom's most dauntless undercover agent, as they battle crime and corruption. Additional segments include The Hillbilly Bears (which depicts the misadventures of the Rugg family); Squiddly Diddly (about an adventurous octopus); and Precious the Dog (which tells of a young puppy's adventures).

Voice Cast: Howard Morris (Atom Ant), Don Messick (Atom Ant), Mel Blanc (Secret Squirrel), Paul Frees (Morocco Mole), Don Messick (Precious Pup), Janet Waldo (Granny Sweet), Paul Frees (Squiddly Diddly), John Stephenson (Chief Winchley), Henry Corden (Paw Rugg), Jean VanderPyl (Maw Rugg), Jean VanderPyl (Flora Rugg), Don Messick (Shag Rugg).

499 The Atom Squad. (Series; Adventure; NBC; 1953–1954). An early adventure series that follows the adventures of the Atom Squad, a secret government organization designed to combat cosmic invaders and safeguard U.S. atomic secrets. Steve Elliott heads the Atom Squad. The series, which ran on NBC from July 6, 1953 to January 22, 1954, has little known information (one of the lost series of early television).

Cast: Robert Courtleigh (Steve Elliott), Bob Hastings (Dave Fielding), Bram Nossem (The Chief).

500 Atomic Betty. (Series; Cartoon; Cartoon Network; 2004). "That girl has no respect for evil geniuses," says Maximus I.Q., a Supreme Overlord who is seeking to rule the galaxy. "That girl" he is referring to is Atomic Betty, Galactic Guardian and Defender of the Cosmos. Betty lives on Earth with her parents (who are unaware of Betty's space-fighting activities) and her grandfather (who suspects something is very unusual about her). Betty does not battle evil alone. Sparky, her co-pilot (of the Galactic Star Cruiser) and X-5, a super intelligent robot, assist her. Betty has established a perfect cover on Earth. She appears as a cute, little grade school girl—and that’s what everyone believes (her mother’s obsession with the family’s pet cat, Purrtsy, and her father’s continual efforts to sell crazy devices occupy a great deal of their time so they really do not notice what Betty is doing). Noah is Betty’s friend, a computer whiz; Penelope is the school bully; Morgan and Sarah are Penelope’s flunkies; Dylan is the class heartthrob. Minimus P.U. is Maximus’s “Portable Underling” (his bumbling right-hand man); Admiral DeGill is the head of the Galactic Guardians.

Voice Cast: Tajja Isen (Betty), Colin Fox (Maximus I.Q.), Len Carlin (Minimus P.U.), Kristina Nicoll (Betty’s mother), Patrick McKenna (Betty’s father), William Shatner (Betty’s grandfather), Bruce Hunter (Robot X-5), Catherine Disher (Penelope), Catherine Disher (Sarah), Adrian Truss (Admiral DeGill), Stephanie Morganstern (Megan), Laurie Elliott (Noah).

501 Attack of the Killer Tomatoes. (Series; Cartoon; Fox; 1990–1991). Dr. Putrid Gangreen is a mad scientist with an evil plan to take over the world: create mutant tomatoes that can transform themselves into people. During one such process one tomato appears that is too big and a bit slow. Putrid discards that tomato but it combines with another experiment and mutates into a beautiful girl (Tara). Aware of Dr. Gangreen’s evil plan, Tara uses her mutant vegetable powers to stop him from achieving his goal. The series is based on the feature film of the same title.

Voice Cast: John Astin (Dr. Putrid Gangreen), Kath Soucie (Tara Boumdeay), Thom Bray (Wilbur Finletter), Neil Ross (Whitley White), Maurice LaMarche (Zoltan), S. Scott Bullock (F.T.), Cam Clarke (Igor).

502 The Attorney General. (Pilot; Crime Drama; NBC; 3/6/62). A proposed spin-off from The Dick Powell Show about Collin Maese, an investigator for the California Attorney General’s Office. In the pilot episode, titled “The Hook,” Collin tries to prevent an underworld war when a former syndicate boss (MacThane), just out of prison, seeks to regain his rule from the new head of the syndicate (Magnus).

Cast: Robert Loggia (Collin Maese). Guest Cast: Ed Begley (MacThane), Ray Danton (Magnus Repp), Joan Taylor (Maggie), David Lewis (Sam Alfred), Anthony Caruso (Lieutenant Gonzales).

503 Auction Aire. (Series; Game; ABC; 1949–1950). The format permits both the studio and home audience to bid for expensive merchandise items. Labels from the sponsor’s products (Libby’s Foods) are used as “money” and the person who bids the highest (home viewers bid via telephone) receives that particular item. A rather complex situation that was well handled considering the series is a pioneering game show—and broadcast live (from September 30, 1949 to June 23, 1950).

Host/Auctioneer: John Gregson. Assistant: Charlotte “Rebel” Randall. Announcer: Glenn Riggs.

504 Aunt Jenny’s Real Life Stories. (Test Film: Drama; CBS; 11/20/45). A kindly old woman named Aunt Jenny and her husband, Calvin, relate stories (enacted by a regular cast) based on real life incidents. Adapted from the radio series of the same title.

Cast: Eve Spencer (Aunt Jenny), Bill Adams (Calvin). Regulars: Lyle Bettger, Paul Ford, Mary Orr. Organist: Elsie Thompson.

505 A.U.S.A. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 2003). Adam Sullivan is an Assistant United States Attorney (A.U.S.A.) based in New York City. Although Adam is intelligent and shows promise as a top notch federal prosecutor, he is quite gullible and thus prone to taking pity on people and hampering his chances to rapidly advance his career. Stories follow Adam’s struggles to make a difference in the cases he prosecutes.

Other Regulars: Susan Rakoff, the public defender; Geoffrey Laurence, Adam’s superior; Wally, Adam’s paralegal (he is best at stapling and was hired because his father knows people in high places; he has been a paralegal to nine prosecutors); Ana Rivera, a former street cop turned A.U.S.A.; and Owen Harper, a handsome cab driver and Adam’s roommate (they live over a store called Tal Bagels).

Cast: Scott Foley (Adam Sullivan), Amanda Detmer (Susan Rakoff), Peter Jacobson (Geoffrey Laurence), Ana Ortiz (Ana Rivera), Eddie McClintock (Owen Harper), John Ross Bowie (Wally Berman).

506 Austin Stories. (Series; Comedy; MTV; 1997–1998). Austin, Texas, is the setting for a comical look at the lives of three friends: Howard, a jobless slacker who will take advantage of anyone to get by; Laura, a hard-working journalist at the Austin Weekly; and Chip, a scam artist who takes odd jobs between scams.

Cast: Howard Kremer (Howard), Laura House (Laura), Brad “Chip” Pope (Chip), Heather Kafka (Chloe), Andy Brown (Andy), Matt Bearden (Quinton), Charles Shannon II (Lester; pawn shop owner), Vanessa Willenzik (Tina Goth Girl), David H. Hickey (Donny MacLean).

507 Automan. (Series; Adventure; ABC; 1983–1984). Walter Nebecher is head of the computer department of the Parker Division of the Los Angeles Municipal Police Department. He yearns to fight crime on the streets—not from an office (called

“The Cage” by his superior). Walter has an advanced knowledge of electronics and begins experimenting with holographic images on his computer. He creates an image called Automan and programs it with all the knowledge of sleuthing from Sherlock Holmes to James Bond. Hoping to use Automan as part of his computer crime solving, Walter increases the program’s power to a point where Automan materializes before him. The force for good created by Walter is accompanied by Cursor, a glowing hexagon that can create anything Automan requires. Walter calls Automan “the world’s first truly automatic man.” He has programmed him to be honest and to sound and feel human. A glitch, however, had gotten into the program and made Automan afraid of the dark. Automan can learn by observing people (“I do what they do — only better. On a scale of one to ten think of me as an eleven”).

Automan lives with Walter and needs to be recharged often (“If I’m away from a computer for too long I have a power failure and can’t function”). When Automan needs to become human he asks Cursor to make him acceptable based on the situations he encounters.

When Walter needs Automan he uses the access word “Crime Fighter” to bring Automan from the computer world to the real world. Since Automan physically assists Walter on cases, he first introduced him as “This is my assistant, Auto.” When Automan’s presence became known to Walter’s superiors, Lt. Jack Curtis and Captain E.G. Boyd, Automan adopted the alias of Agent Man, a federal (FBI) agent assigned to assist the department.

While others can see Auto, only Officer Roxanne Caldwell is aware of Auto’s true identity (she accidentally stumbled upon Walter’s secret when she witnessed Auto’s jump from the computer to the real world). Roxanne has a crush on Walter and calls him “Wally.” Gloria LeRoy is Walter’s landlady, called Miss Money Penny by Auto (after the secretary in James Bond films who has an eye for 007; Auto feels the landlady has an eye for him). William Conrad does the narrating; Billy Hinsche composed the theme.

Cast: Desi Arnaz, Jr. (Walter Nebicher), Chuck Wagner (Automan), Gerald S. O’Loughlin (Capt. E.G. Boyd), Heather McNair (Off. Roxanne Caldwell), Gloria LeRoy (Miss Money Penny), Robert Lansing (Lt. Jack Curtis), Angela Aames (Girl Cursor eyes in opening theme).

508 Avatar: The Last Airbender. (Series; Cartoon; Nickelodeon; 2005). At one point in time four nations ruled the world: the Air Nomads, the Earth Kingdom, the Fire Nation and the Water Tribe. Each of these societies possessed a “bender,” a man or woman who was capable of “bending” (harnessing their inborn talent to manipulate their native element). Each bender is called an Avatar and each Avatar keeps his or her society in perfect harmony. When one Avatar dies, his or her spirit is reincarnated into the next in line. The nations however, are not all good. The evil leaders of the Fire Nation seek world domination and begin a quest to destroy the other nations. To further complicate matters, an Avatar is not reborn into the Air Nomads and the Water, Earth and Air tribes are facing extinction as the Avatar cycle appears to have been broken. However, in a remote location in the South Pole, Water Tribe members Katara and her brother Sokka, find Aang, a 12-year-old boy frozen in an iceberg. After releasing him, Katara and Sokka learn that Aang is an Air Bender and the long-lost Avatar of the Air Nomads. With a strong knowledge of the Avatar, Katara and Sokka must safeguard Aang and teach him how to master the elements of all four nations to save the world from the Fire Nation.

Voice Cast: Mae Whitman (Katara), Jack De Sana (Sokka), Mitchell Musson (Aang), Zach Tyler Eisen (Aang; later), Dante Basco (Prince Zuko), Olivia Hack (Ty Lee), Mako (Uncle Iroh), Jessie Flower (Toph Beifong), Johanna Braddy (Princess Yue).

509 The Avenger. (Unaired Pilot; Crime Drama; Produced in 1950). While experimenting with various chemicals, Jim Brandon, a chemist, invents a diffusion capsule that cloaks him in a black light of invisibility. The unsold series, based on the radio series of the same title, was to relate Brandon’s battle against crime as the mysterious Avenger. In the pilot episode, Jim battles an evil villain who is seeking the secret of his special capsule.

Cast: Malcolm Thorne (Jim Brandon).

510 The Avenger. (Pilot; Western; NBC; 3/19/60). A proposed spin-off from Bonanza about a man (Lassiter) who seems to come from out of nowhere to avenge crimes (his parents were unjustly lynched and he is now determined to see that no one else shares their fate). In the pilot episode, Lassiter comes to the aid of Ben and Adam Cartwright, who have been falsely accused of murder.

Cast: Vic Morrow (Lassiter). Guest Cast: Jean Allison (Sally), Dan White (Jackson), Bern Bassey (Giles), Nestor Paiva (Thorton), Robert Griffin (Sheriff Hansen), Eugene Martin (Jimmy), Richard Devon (Hawkins), Lorne Green (Ben Cartwright), Pernel Roberts (Adam Cartwright).

511 The Avengers. (Series; Adventure; ABC; 1966–1969). “Extraordinary crimes against the people and the state had to be avenged by agents extraordinary. Two such people are John Steed, top professional, and his partner, Emma Peel, talented amateur, otherwise known as the Avengers.” These words, spoken by an announcer over the opening theme music, introduced American viewers to John Steed, a suave and sophisticated British government Ministry agent who exudes Old World charm and courtesy, and Emma Peel, a woman skilled in the martial arts, who joins him on assignments for the sheer love of adventure.

Steed's battle against crime, however, began on British TV in 1961 when he was partners with David Keel, a private practice doctor. At this time Steed is a man of mystery (it is not clear whether he is a lone avenger or working for some secret agency of the British government). Dr. Keel is seeking the thugs who killed his fiancée, Peggy (Catherine Woodville), when he meets Steed, a mysterious figure who enlists his help to find the same people (drug dealers). They soon become a team and Steed enlists Keel's help whenever the need arises. Although they became actively involved in fighting crime, they work independently of the police (David is bitter because the police did nothing to find Peggy's killers and once on a case David has only one objective — to get the criminals behind bars).

The first change occurs in 1962 when Dr. Keel accepts a fellowship overseas and Steed becomes partners with Catherine Gale, a beautiful blonde with a Ph.D. in anthropology. She is a widow and works for the British Museum (she previously worked with her husband on a remote farm in Kenya. When he was killed in a Mau Mau raid, Catherine returned to England). While Steed is revealed to be a Ministry agent, Catherine is not a professional undercover agent until 1963. Catherine, called "Cathy," is first depicted as an amateur with unique skills that Steed's superiors recognize and accept. Catherine is a skilled mechanic, expert photographer and highly knowledgeable in the use of firearms. She possesses scientific knowledge, martial arts abilities (judo) and, unlike Steed, finds it necessary to carry a gun.

In 1965 the second change occurs when a minor car accident unites Steed with the totally emancipated Emma Peel, the beautiful, wealthy widow of test pilot Peter Peel (no mention is made regarding Cathy's disappearance). Emma was originally said to be the daughter of a rich ship owner; later she is the daughter of Sir John Knight, the owner of Knight Industries. Emma became head of the company when she was 21 (at which time her father died; no mention is made of her mother or if Emma still has a vested interest in the company). Emma is a skilled karate expert, interested in science and anthropology (she has a mini lab in her rooftop penthouse in Hampstead) and loves to play bridge. She also enjoys painting and rock sculpting (which she does in her living room).

The final change occurs in 1968 when Emma returns to her husband (believed to have been killed but found alive in the Amazonian jungle) and Steed is teamed with Tara King, a gorgeous and shapely Ministry agent. Tara, recruit 69, first met Steed when she accidentally tackled him during a training exercise (thinking he was part of the exercise). Tara is the daughter of a prosperous farmer. She attended a prestigious finishing school where she acquired the sophistication of the young international set. She has skills associated with the outdoor life, can ski and fly an airplane. Tara is single and is the only one of Steed's partners who screams for help when she is in extreme danger. Tara does not have any particular fighting skills. She will use whatever is handy as a weapon to protect herself. She loves music, auto racing and her wardrobe consists mainly of mini-skirts and tight fitting sweaters.

The relationship between Steed and his female partners was also different.

With Cathy and Emma affection was rarely shown; they respected each other and had a bond of friendship. With Tara, a warmer relationship developed as there was a hug and an occasional kiss. Emma and Tara were the only partners of Steed that actually met each other (in the transition episode "Forget-Me-Knot"). Steed mentioned Cathy to Emma in several episodes.

John Steed, rarely called by a first name (for example, it was "Steed and Mrs. Peel") lived first at 5 West Minster Mews then 3 Stable Mews in London. He is television's answer to film land's James Bond. He is trained to withstand brainwashing and torture and is an expert on explosives, poisons and codes.

When it comes to fighting he uses every dirty trick in the book to get the best of his enemies. He carries no gun, but, as part of the Edwardian-style suits he wears, he carries an umbrella with him at all times (the handle conceals a sword). Steed is a connoisseur of fine wine, plays polo and croquet and reads the Royal Edition of the London Times.

Steed is the scion of a noble family. He attended school at Eton but spent much of his time in amateur stage productions. He left Eton in 1939 and joined the Royal Navy (where he was a lieutenant and in command of a torpedo boat).

After the war he captained an ex-naval launch in the Mediterranean that dealt with illegal cigarette trafficking. He gave this up to become a civil servant in London. This led to his becoming an economic advisor to a sheik in the Middle East. When Steed settled a dispute between two neighboring states that made the sheik rich through oil deals, he was given life royalties from two of the oil wells by the sheik.

Steed's first superior (with Cathy) was One-Ten, then the wheelchair-bound Mother (Patrick Newell). Mother, only seen in the Tara King episodes, was a top notch secret agent who was crippled in an explosion. He is in constant pain and is not the kindest man to work for. He can walk with the aid of special straps and ladders suspended from the ceiling and like Steed, has an eye for the ladies and a taste for fine wine. He is assisted by Rhonda, a 6-foot-tall blonde who never speaks but carries out his every command. Mother's counterpart is Father (Iris Russell), a blind woman who was much more gentle, but just as sharp witted and perceptive as Mother.

See also The New Avengers. Johnny Dankworth composed the original theme (1961–65), Laurie Johnson the revised theme (1965–69).

Cast: Patrick Macnee (John Steed), Ian Hendry (David Keel), Honor Blackman (Catherine Gale), Diana Rigg (Emma Peel), Linda Thorson (Tara King), Patrick Newell (Mother), Rhonda Parker (Rhonda), Douglas Muir (One-Ten).

512 Average Joe. (Series; Reality; NBC; 2003–2005). A slight twist on dating programs. One “hot chick” has to choose one guy from sixteen average looking men (average Joes). In the first cycle (as an example), Melana Scantlin, an ex-beauty queen and NFL cheerleader, is introduced to a group of average Joes. Melana receives the opportunity to get to know and date each of the men seeking to find her soul mate. As she gets to know the men, she eliminates those she feels are not right for her. Her final choice, as the man she would most like to spend her time with, is entirely up to her (in this case, Adam Mesh was chosen). Two additional cycles aired: Average Joe: Hawaii (the concept set in a tropical paradise) and Average Joe: Adam Returns.

Hostess: Kathy Griffin.

513 Avery Schreiber's Time Slot. (Pilot; Comedy; Syn.; 3/18/78). An unsold series that was to star comedian Avery Schreiber in a variety of satirical sketches. The pilot finds him playing three reporters (one interviewing a stunt woman; another people with wild pets; and a third “streetwalkers” — that is, people who walk on the street).

Host: Avery Schreiber.

514 Avonlea. (Series; Drama; Disney; 1990–1996). The Disney Channel's first hour long dramatic series, a re-titled version of the Canadian series The Road to Avonlea (which is based on four books by Lucy Maud Montgomery: The Story Girl, The Golden Road, Chronicles of Avonlea and The Further Chronicles of Avonlea). The series is set on scenic Prince Edward Island in Canada during the early 20th century. While the overall focus of the series is on the King family and the residents of the town of Avonlea, it is also the story of Sara Stanley, a young girl who is sent to live with her relatives on a farm called Rose Cottage, as she struggles to find her place in a world where she feels completely alone. Also featured are Hetty King, a spinster schoolteacher; her brother, Alec and his wife Janet (who are the parents of Felicity, Felix, Cecily and later Daniel). See also Anne of Avonlea and Anne of Green Gables.

Cast: Sarah Polley (Sara Stanley), Jackie Burroughs (Hetty King), Cedric Smith (Alec King), Lally Cadeau (Janet King), Gema Zamprogna (Felicity King), Zachary Bennett (Felix King), Harmony Cramp (Cecily King), Mag Ruffman (Olivia Dale), Patricia Hamilton (Rachel Lynde), Elva Mai Hoover (Elvira Lawson), Alex Floyd (Daniel King), Ryan Floyd (Daniel King), Maja Ardal (Clara Potts), Michael Mahonen (Gus Pike), Barbara Hamilton (Eulalie Bugle), Heather Brown (Izzy Pettibone), Marilyn Lightstone (Muriel Stacey), Kay Tremblay (Great Aunt Eliza), Roger Dunn (Bert Potts), Ian D. Clark (Simon Tremayne), Joel Blake (Andrew King), R.H. Thompson (Jasper Dale), David Fox (Clive Pettibone), Tara Meyer (Sally Potts), Kyle Labine (Davey Keith), Lindsay Murrell (Dora Keith).

515 Award Theater. (Series; Anthology; Syn.; 1958). The program features rebroadcasts of 78 dramas that originally aired on Alcoa Theater. See this title for information.

516 Away We Go. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1967). A weekly summer series of music, songs, dances and light comedy hosted by singer Buddy Greco and comedian George Carlin. The series aired from June 3, 1967 to September 2, 1967. Ronald Wayne is the producer. Host: Buddy Greco, George Carlin. Regulars: The Buddy Rich Band, The Miriam Nelson Dancers. Orchestra: Allyn Ferguson.

B-Men* see entry 897

517 Baa Baa Black Sheep. (Series; Drama; NBC; 1976). The original title for The Black Sheep Squadron. See this title for information.

518 Babes. (Series; Comedy; Fox; 1990–1991). “The ground just shook and everywhere you look all you see is babes....” The theme is referring to the Gilbert sisters, Charlene, Marlene, and Darlene, three full-figured women who live together and stick together through thick and thin. (They have a pact never to say the word overweight.) Charlene, the middle sister, is the most adjusted to the fact that they will always be heavy (each weighs over 200 pounds). She works as a commercial makeup artist. Charlene's boyfriend, Ronnie Underwood owns Ronnie's Ribs Take Out Food.

Marlene is the youngest, prettiest and most sensitive of the sisters. She also possesses the least self-confidence and is having a difficult time accepting the fact that she will never be thin. Marlene was first a model for the Merit, Barrett and Cole Ad Agency (she was “The Hefty Hose Girl”) and later a video photographer at a dating service called Ideal Mates, Inc. Before the series began, Marlene was a toll collector. She was “Miss Exact Change” three years in a row and lost her job to automation.

Darlene is the oldest and nastiest of the sisters; she is also fully aware that thin will never be in for her. She works as a dog groomer and has a puppy named Big Mike (whom she calls a “miniature Cujo”). Darlene loves impressionist art and catching snowflakes on her tongue. She is the only sister who married (she is now divorced after 14 years).

The girls live in Apartment 410 at 362 East 7th Street in Manhattan. They went to Camp Tamarack as kids and attended Edgar Allan Poe High School.

Relatives: Barbara Barrie (“Mom” Gilbert; she lives in Delray Beach, Florida, and is thin; the girls take after their father), Rhoda Gemignani (the girls’ aunt, Marion), Brandon Maggart (Darlene’s ex-husband, Wilbur Heckley), Dena Dietrich (Ronnie’s mother, Doris Underwood). Jay Gruska composed the “Babes” theme.

Cast: Wendie Jo Sperber (Charlene Gilbert), Lesley Boone (Marlene Gilbert), Susan Peretz (Darlene Gilbert), Rick Overton (Ronnie Underwood).

519 Baby Blues. (Series; Cartoon; WB; 2000). A short-lived series about Darryl and Wanda Johnson, a young married couple facing the pains of parenthood as they raise their infant daughter, Zoe. Bizzy is their babysitter; Carl and Melinda Bitterman are their neighbors; Shelby, Rodney and Megan are their children.

Voice Cast: Ron Fassler (Darryl Johnson), Alice Hirson (Wanda Johnson), Nicole Sullivan (Bizzy), Joel Murray (Carl Bitterman), Julia Sweeney (Melinda Bitterman), Kath Soucie (Megan Bitterman), Diedrich Bader (Kenny), Phil LaMarr (Rex), Wendy Raquel Robinson (Josie), Elizabeth Daily (Becky).

520 Baby Bob. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 2002–2003). Lizzie and Walter Spencer are a happily married couple who live in Santa Monica, California. Walter works as a publicist; Lizzie is a housewife and mother of six-month old Bob. Walter and Lizzie also have a fantastic secret: their baby can speak but often doesn’t understand what he says (he is only six months old). Baby Bob was just able to speak (no reason is given as to how) but he first spoke to his babysitter Teala, not his parents (Lizzie feels Bob “talks like a teamster from Chicago”). Stories follow Baby Bob’s adventures as he observes and comments about adult life.

Other Regulars: Sam and Madeline Collins, Lizzie’s parents (Sam writes the newspaper column “Spencer Dispenses”).

Cast: Joely Fisher (Lizzie Spencer), Adam Arkin (Walter Spencer), Elliott Gould (Sam Collins), Holland Taylor (Madeline Collins), Marissa Tait (Teala), Ken Hudson Campbell (Voice of Baby Bob).

521 Baby Boom. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1988–1989). A television adaptation of the feature film of the same title. The story of J.C. Wiatt, a high powered executive, and her efforts to care for Elizabeth, a baby she inherited from a distant cousin. J.C., nicknamed “The Tiger Lady” at work, is a management consultant for the Sloane-Curtis Company in New York City (located at 631 East 56th Street). J.C. lives in Apartment 15D; Elizabeth has a plush kangaroo (Cuppy) and four goldfish J.C. named Goldie, Frank, Ernie and Hector. Steve Tyrell composed the “Baby Boom” theme.

Cast: Kate Jackson (J.C. Wiatt), Sam Wanamaker (Fritz Curtis), Tippi Hedren (Laura Curtis), Norman Parker (J.C. Wiatt, Sr.), Nikki Feemster (J.C. as a girl), Jill Whitlow (J.C. as a teenager), Michelle and Kristina Kennedy (Elizabeth).

522 Baby Crazy. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 8/19/66). A proposed series about a young, single pediatrician (Peter Cooper), his seasoned nurse (Joan Terry) and their efforts to treat a variety of outlandish young mothers and their children.

Cast: James Stacy (Dr. Peter Cooper), Joan Blondell (Joan Terry). Guest Cast: Lynn Loring (Jennie Winston), Gavin MacLeod (Dr. Charles Norwood), Johnny Whitaker (Freddy), Dennis Rush (Buddy), Pamelyn Ferdin (Linda Jayne), Ronnie Dapo (Jimmy), Madge Blake (Grandmother).

523 The Baby Game. (Series; Game; ABC; 1967–1968). Three husband-and-wife teams compete in a game designed to test their knowledge of childhood behavior. A specific situation that involves a child is explained. Players bet points and state what they believe will be the child’s reaction to the situation. A previously filmed sequence is shown and the results are determined. Points are awarded if players are correct; deducted if they are wrong. Winners, the highest scoring players, receive merchandise prizes.

Host: Richard Hayes.

524 Baby I’m Back. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1978). On February 13, 1963, Raymond Ellis and Olivia Carter married. Seven years later, when he felt unable to cope with the responsibility of raising a family, Ray deserted Olivia and their children, Angie and Jordan. To support her family, Olivia, who lives at 1684 Richmond Drive in Washington, D.C., acquires a job at the Pentagon as an assistant to Wallace Dickey, an army colonel. As the years pass, Olivia and Wallace fall in love and plan to marry. In 1977 Olivia has Ray pronounced legally dead so she can marry Wallace.

When Ray hears that he is “dead,” he appears on the scene to claim his legal right to be alive and to convince Olivia that he has changed and that they should pick up where they left off. Olivia refuses and sets her goal to marry Wallace before Ray can have himself declared “alive.” She is ably abetted by her mother, Luzelle Carter, who has always considered Ray a dead issue as a husband. Stories relate the legal race for the matrimonial wire, with Ray attempting to maneuver his way back into Olivia's life before the "I do's" with Wallace. Jeff Berry composed the "Baby, I'm Back" theme.

Cast: Demond Wilson (Ray Ellis), Denise Nicholas (Olivia Ellis), Kim Fields (Angie Ellis), Tony Holmes (Jordan Ellis), Helen Martin (Luzelle Carter), Ed Hall (Col. Wallace Dickey).

525 Baby Makes Five. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1983). The story of Eddie and Jennie Riddle, a young married couple with five children (Laura, Annie, Michael and infant twins), numerous expenses, and a limited income, as they struggle to make a life for themselves and their children. Other Regulars: Blanche, Eddie's mother; and Edna, Jennie's mother.

Cast: Peter Scolari (Eddie Riddle), Louise Williams (Jennie Riddle), Emily Moultrie (Laura Riddle), Brandy Gold (Annie Riddle), Andre Gower (Michael Riddle), Janis Paige (Blanche Riddle), Priscilla Morrill (Edna Kennedy).

526 Baby on Board. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 7/12/88). When George and Sally Collier, a career-oriented couple in their 40s, suddenly realize that the years have been slipping by and they have not yet begun the family they always wanted, they decide to rearrange their lives and begin a family. The story begins with the Colliers as the parents of an infant girl (Abigail) and many problems as they attempt to reconstruct their lives. The pilot episode relates their efforts to take a long-needed vacation. George works as a teacher; Sally is a travel agent. Other Regulars: Marion, Sally's mother; George Collier, Sr., George's father; and Lauri, Sally's mother's helper.

Cast: Lawrence Pressman (George Collier), Jane Galloway (Sally Collier), Joan Copeland (Marion), Larry Haines (George Collier, Sr.), Teri Hatcher (Lauri Stevens), Abigail and Emily Simpson (Abigail Collier). Theme Vocal: "For a Change" by John Henry Kurtz.

527 Baby Talk. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1991–1992). Margaret ("Maggie") Eunice Campbell is a single mother and lives in an apartment at 46 Bleeker Street in Manhattan (next to the Goodall Rubber Company). Her infant son, Mickey, was born after an affair with a man named Nick—"A selfish, inconsiderate louse who wasn't fit to be a husband, a father or a human." Maggie works out of her apartment as an accountant; Cecil Fogarty and Howard are the carpenters Maggie hires to convert her loft into a baby-safe apartment. Stories focus on Maggie's life as seen through the eyes of eight-month-old Mickey Campbell; his thoughts (voiceover dubbing) are heard by viewers and other infants. Based on the film Look Who's Talking.

Maggie and Mickey are members of the Mommie and Me Group (with members Claire, Stella, Regina and Paul). Elliott Fleischer is Mickey's doctor (has an office at the Museum West Medical Center); Andrea is his office nurse.

When the series returned for a second season, Maggie Campbell moves to a new apartment (3A) in Brooklyn Heights and acquires a job with Coleman Accounting in the World Trade Center building in Manhattan. She works at the office two days a week; the rest of the time she works out of her apartment.

New to the cast is James Halbrook, Maggie's romantic interest; Anita Craig, Maggie's neighbor (Apartment 3B); Susan Davis, Maggie's co-worker; Doris Campbell, Maggie's mother; and Danielle, Anita's infant daughter (also heard via thought).

Maggie attended Penn State College; when something upsets her she exclaims, "The universe is expanding." James is an aspiring songwriter who is also the building's janitor. He calls Mickey "The Mickster." In the episode of May 8, 1992, "The Wedding," Maggie and James marry.

In the original, unaired pilot version, Connie Sellecca played Mollie Campbell. She was replaced by Alison LaPlaca as Maggie Campbell in a second, unaired pilot. Julia Duffy replaced her in the actual series, and Mary Page Keller replaced Julia in second season episodes. Tony Danza was the voice of Mickey in all versions.

Relatives: Tony Danza (Mickey's father, Nick Miller), Charlotte Rae (Maggie's aunt, Beverly), Donnelly Rhodes (Maggie's father-in-law, Nick Miller, Sr.), Georgia Brown (James's mother, Gina Halbrook), Tom Troupe (James's father, Warren Halbrook).

Flash Forwards: Sean O'Bryan (adult Mickey). Theme: "Bread and Butter," vocal by Gene Miller.

Cast: Julia Duffy (Maggie Campbell), Mary Page Keller (Maggie Campbell), Tony Danza (Voice of Mickey), Scott Baio (James Halbrook), Francesca P. Roberts (Anita Craig), Jessica Lundy (Susan Davis), Polly Bergen (Doris Campbell), Lenny Wolpe (Howard), William Hickey (Cecil Fogarty), Ryan and Paul Jessup (Mickey Campbell), Paula Kelly (Claire), Jackie Swanson (Stella), Sue Grosa (Regina), Paul Sand (Paul), Tom Alan Robbins (Dr. Elliott Fleischer), Michelle Ashlee (Andrea), Alicia and Celicia Johnson (Danielle), Vernee Watson (Voice of Danielle).

528 Babylon 5. (Series; Science Fiction; TNT; 1993–1999). Babylon 5 is a five-mile long space station located in neutral space. It was built in the 23rd century (around 2250) and its purpose is to maintain peace among the various alien races. It does so by providing sanctuary then working with the warring factions to work out conflicts and bring about peace. A council of diplomats from the Earth Alliance, the Mimbari Federation, the Varlon Empire, the Narn Republic and the Centauri Republic comprise the governing council. They work in conjunction with the League of Non Aligned Worlds (non members) to keep the peace in space. Babylon 5 also serves as a military base and as a stop over for business people, travelers and traders. Even prisoners being transported to other worlds find Babylon 5 a stop over point.

Over 250,000 people live on Babylon 5 (Earthlings as well as aliens). John Sheridan is the President, a former captain (in battle) who oversees Babylon 5. Susan Ivanova is a lieutenant commander who possesses telepathic abilities. Susan left the series at the end of the fourth season and was replaced by Elizabeth Lochley, a captain who was once married to John (they divorced but still remain friends). DeLenn is an ambassador from the planet Mimbari, a race of spiritual people. Lyta Alexander was created by the Vorlons as a weapon against the evil alien Shadows. She is a telepath who can control dreams and manipulate people. Other Regulars: listed in the cast.

Cast: Bruce Boxleitner (Capt. John Sheridan), Claudia Christian (Lt. Susan Ivanova), Mira Furlan (DeLenn), Tracy Scoggins (Capt. Elizabeth Lochley), Patricia Tallman (Lyta Alexander), Michael O'Hare (Cmdr. Jeffrey Sinclair; 1994), Andreas Katsulas (G'Kar), Jerry Doyle (Michael Garibaldi), Julie Caitlin Brown (Na'Toth; 1994), Mary Kay Adams (Na'Toth; 1995), Richard Biggs (Dr. Stephen Franklin), Jeff Conaway (Chief Zack Allan), Stephen Furst (Vir Cotto), Peter Jurasik (Londo Mollari), Bill Mumy (Lennier), Robert Rusler (Lt. Warren Keffer), Andrea Thompson (Talia Winters), Jeffrey Willerth (Kosh Naranek).

529 The Babysitters Club. (Series; Comedy; Disney; 1990–1993). Kristy, Claudia, Mary Ann, Dawn, Jessi, Stacey and Mallory are seven pre-teen girls who live in the same neighborhood in Stonybrook, Connecticut. They are “friends forever” and have organized (and run quite well) a babysitting service (The Babysitters Club). The girls have formed a very tight bond. What happens to one happens to all. Kristy hit on the idea and formed the club; she is a tomboy and also coaches a softball team called Kristy's Krushers.

Claudia, the vice president of the club, dislikes school but loves junk food. Mary Ann is the club secretary; she is the shy and quiet one of the group. Stacey is good with math and has been made club treasurer; she is the stylish one and has a flair for fashion but she has to watch what she eats because she is diabetic. Dawn, a health food fanatic is actually Mary Ann's stepsister (Dawn's mother married Mary Ann's father). Jessi and Mallory, a year younger than the other girls (eleven), are junior members of the club. Jessi loves ballet; Mallory loves school and reading; she hopes to become a writer.

Stories follow the girls not only as babysitters but also as they deal with the problems of life at school and at home. The girls want to be girls; they are in no hurry to grow up. The series is based on the book by Ann M. Martin.

Cast: Avriel Hillman (Kristy Thomas), Jeni F. Winslow (Claudia Kishi), Meghan Lahey (Mary Anne Spier), Jessica Prunell (Stacey McGill), Melissa Chasse (Dawn Schaffer), Nicole Leach (Jessi Ramsey), Meghan Andrews (Mallory Pike), Ashley Chase (Karen), Courtney Chase (Catherine), Danny Tamborelli (Jackie Rodowsky).

530 The Bachelor. (Series; Reality; ABC; 2002–). One bachelor is introduced to 25 single women. Each of the ladies is seeking a husband (that all too perfect guy) and reveals her thoughts in dating sequences. The object is for the bachelor to decide which of the women will capture his heart. The bachelor has the opportunity to date each of the women to get to know them to find out what he and they have in common. It is the job of the bachelor to eliminate the girls he feels are literally not worthy of him. He gives these women a single red rose and they must leave the competition. However, if a girl feels the bachelor is not right for her, she can reject his offer to continue dating and leave the competition on her own. The last episode places the bachelor in the position of choosing the girl he feels is right for him. See also The Bachelorette.

Bachelors: Andy Baldwin (Cycle 1), Aaron Buerge (Cycle 2), Andrew Frestone (Cycle 3), Bob Guiney (Cycle 4), Jesse Palmer (Cycle 5), Byron Velvick (Cycle 6).

531 Bachelor at Law. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 6/5/73). Benjamin “Ben” Sikes is a young attorney, fresh out of law school, who acquires a job with Matthew Brandon, a seasoned lawyer with a beautiful daughter named Ellen. The unsold series was to focus on the problems that arise when both lawyers clash over how to defend a client (Ben believes in the human angle; Matthew is a by-the-books attorney). Other Regulars: Phil Lester, a somewhat bumbling private investigator.

Cast: John Ritter (Ben Sikes), Harold Gould (Matthew Brandon), Sarah Kennedy (Ellen Brandon), Richard Schaal (Phil Lester). Guest Cast: Betsy Von Furstenburg (Gloria Farrell), Bill Zuckert (Mr. Woodward), Kathleen O'Malley (Mrs. Woodward), David Frank (Prison guard), Ron Rifkin (Assistant D.A.), Wayne Hefley (Convict), Richard Gittings (Bailiff), Curt Conway (Judge).

532 Bachelor Father. (Series; Comedy; CBS, NBC, ABC; 1957–1962). Bentley Gregg is a sophisticated, single, private practice attorney with an office in the Crescent Building in Los Angeles. He lives at 1163 Rexford Drive in Beverly Hills with his niece Kelly, a pretty 13-year-old girl who became his responsibility after her parents (Bentley's sister and brother-in-law) were killed in a car accident. Also living with them is Peter Tong, Bentley's Chinese houseboy and Jasper, the family dog.

Bentley is a graduate of Harvard Law School. He is a smooth and brilliant conversationalist and girls swoon as he always manages to say the right thing. His greatest challenge is remaining single (he is just not yet ready to settle down) especially when his married friends (who sometimes set him up with dates) think he should become one of them.

Kelly is a very sweet and very obedient young lady. Bentley treats her like she was his own daughter and Kelly never takes advantage of the situation (she not only has the greatest respect for him, but she admires him). Kelly and her friends Ginger and Howard attend Beverly Hills High School and hang out at Bill's Malt Shop after school.

Howard was Kelly's on-and-off boyfriend from 1957–1961. When the series switched to ABC, Kelly, who had become a beautiful young lady, needed a more sophisticated boyfriend (Howard was immature and lacked Bentley's polish and finesse). Warren Dawson, Bentley's law partner, became her new love interest.

Ginger lives next door to Kelly and had three last names: Farrell (1957–1958; Louise was her widowed mother); Loomis (1958–1961; Bert and Amy were her parents); and Mitchell (1961–1962; Cal and Adelaide were her parents).

Bentley also had four secretaries: Vickie, Kitty Devereaux, Kitty Marsh and Connie.

Peter calls Bentley "Mr. Gregg" and Kelly "Niece Kelly." He attends night school to improve his knowledge of America and he mutters in Chinese when he gets upset. He has many relatives and two of them, Grandpa Ling and Cousin Charlie, appear often. Peter calls Grandpa "a 70-year-old juvenile delinquent." Charlie is the schemer of the family and always looking for an easy way to make money.

Chuck Forrest and Frank Curtis are Bentley's friends; Elaine is Howard's sister; Gloria and Lila are Kelly's friends; Horace and Myrtle are Warren's parents. See also New Girl in His Life for information on the series pilot film.

The series ran on CBS from September 15, 1957 to June 11, 1958; on NBC from June 18, 1958 to September 19, 1961; and on ABC from October 3, 1961 to September 25, 1962. Theme: "Bachelor Father," by Johnny Williams.

Cast: John Forsythe (Bentley Gregg), Noreen Corcoran (Kelly Gregg), Sammee Tong (Peter Tong), Bernadette Withers (Ginger), Jimmy Boyd (Howard Meecham), Aaron Kincaid (Warren Dawson), Catherine McLeod (Louise Farrell), Whit Bissell (Bert Loomis), Florence MacMichael (Amy Loomis), Del Moore (Cal Mitchell), Evelyn Scott (Adelaide Mitchell), Alice Backus (Vickie), Shirley Mitchell (Kitty Devereaux), Jane Nigh (Kitty Devereaux), Sue Ane Langdon (Kitty Marsh), Sally Mansfield (Connie), Pat McCaffrie (Chuck Forrest), Joan Vohs (Elaine Meecham), Karl Swenson (Charles Burton), Cheryl Holdridge (Gloria Gibson), Cheryl Holdridge (Lila Gibson; later), White Bissell (Steve Gibson), Victor Sen Yung (Charlie Fong), Beal Wong (Peter's Grandpa Ling), Sid Melton (Harry), Harry Von Zell (Frank Curtis), Cherylene Lee (Blossom Lee), Frances Fong (Susie), David Lewis (Horace Dawson), Sheila Bromley (Myrtle Dawson), Beulah Quo (Peter's Aunt Rose), Jeanne Bal (Suzanne Collins). Various Roles: Mary Tyler Moore, Donna Douglas, H.W. Gim, Benson Fong.

533 Bachelor Party. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 6/5/59). The misadventures of three male clerks (Eddie, Walter and George) who work for the same insurance company. In the pilot episode, the men, all bachelors, fear for their jobs when a rumor surfaces that their boss, J.B., is trimming the staff. Broadcast as "The Rumor" on Stripe Playhouse ("Bachelor Party" was the proposed series title).

Cast: Hal March (Eddie Cochrane), Whit Bissell (Walter), Elliott Reid (George), Patricia Crowley (J.B.). Also: Alice Backes, Richard Collier, Philip Coolidge, George Pirrone, Maurine Rae.

534 The Bachelorette. (Series; Reality; ABC; 2003). A reality show spin off from The Bachelor. Here one woman is introduced to 25 single men. She meets with each of them (including dating) to learn more about each one. However, before she can choose the one she would most like to be with (and present him with a single red rose), she must follow the show's rules and eliminate those she dislikes on a weekly basis. The final episode reveals her choice—the man to whom she hands the red rose (who has the option of accepting—and possibly asking her to marry him, or rejecting the rose, feeling she is not the right girl for him). The series ran from January 8, 2003 to February 28, 2005.

Bachelorette: Trista Rehn, Jen Schefft, Meredith Phillips.

535 The Bachelors. (Series; Comedy; Syn.; 1956). The syndicated title for It's a Great Life, which ran on NBC from September 7, 1954 to June 3, 1956. See this title for information.

536 Back the Fact. (Series; Game; ABC; 1953). Contestants are interviewed by the host and asked personal background questions. Players can answer truthfully or bluff. If a false statement is believed to have been made, an off-stage voice interrupts the proceedings and asks the player to back the fact. If he is able, he presents proof (for example, a newspaper article) and wins a prize. However, should his bluff be called, he relinquishes his post to another player. The short-lived game ran from October 22, 1953 to November 26, 1953.

Host: Joey Adams. Assistant: Hope Lange. Regular: Al Kelly. Announcer-Off-Stage Voice: Carl Caruso.

537 Back to the Future. (Series; Cartoon; CBS; 1991–1993). An animated series based on the trio of Back to the Future feature films. The series picks up after the third film (Back to the Future III) with Doc Brown, the inventor of a time machine (which he has incorporated into a DeLorean car), his wife, Clara (and their children, Jules and Verne), Einstein, their dog, young Marty McFly and his girlfriend, Jennifer, travel through time. In the movie series, a character named Biff H. Tannen plagued Marty; an incarnation of Biff appears in the various eras he and Doc Brown visit. Christopher Lloyd recreates his role of Doc Brown in live action segments (that also feature Bill Nye, “The Science Guy”), demonstrating various scientific experiments — all of which do not exactly work as planned.

Voice Cast: David Kaufman (Martin “Marty” McFly), Dan Castellaneta (Dr. Emmett Lathrop “Doc” Brown), Mary Steenburgen (Clara Clayton Brown), Cathy Cavadini (Jennifer Jane Parker), Danny Mann (Einstein), Troy Davidson (Verne Brown), Josh Keaton (Jules Brown), Thomas E. Wilson (Biff H. Tannen).

538 Back to the Grind. (Series; Reality; TV Land; 2007). What if, for example, Loni Anderson, who played a radio station receptionist on WKRP in Cincinnati really tried to be a radio station receptionist, or if Sherman Hemsley, who played the owner of a dry cleaning business on The Jeffersons really tried to operate such a business. Could they? That is the concept behind this series. Stars from classic television series are put into the real life situations they only played on a show to see if they could actually do what they pretended to do.

Stars: Loni Anderson, Erik Estrada, Sherman Hemsley, Ed Begley, Jr., Mark Curry, Betty White, Bea Arthur.

539 Back to You. (Series; Comedy; Fox; 2007–). During the 1990s Chuck Darling and Kelly Carr were the number one news anchor team in Pittsburgh (on WURG-TV, Channel 9). On screen they appeared to have great chemistry — they seemed like a perfectly happily married couple. But off screen it was a different story. Chuck was self-centered and a ladies’ man; Kelly was uptight and a know-it-all. At the height of their popularity, Chuck left Channel 9 for greener pastures. He first went to Denver, then Dallas, Minneapolis and finally Los Angeles. No tears were shed and Kelly anchored the news desk alone.

Years later, while at KZMB-TV, Channel 3 in Los Angeles, Chuck freaked out and used foul language over the air. He was fired but found a new job — at WURG as Kelly’s co-anchor to help take the faltering 6 P.M. and 10 P.M. newscasts back to their number one spot. The chemistry between the two hasn’t changed, however — they still dislike each other but they now have something in common — Kelly’s 10-year-old daughter, Gracie, the result of a one night stand she had with Chuck ten years earlier on New Year’s Eve (Kelly explained that she was working on a story about drinking and driving and, after downing six tequilas, was too drunk to realize what she was doing). Chuck learns about Gracie when he returns to the station and stories, which follow the antics of the newsroom staff, also focus on Chuck’s efforts to become the father he never knew he was.

Marsh McGinley is the sports anchor; Montana Diaz Herrera is the sexy weathergirl (worked previously as a magician’s assistant and dresses like a call girl); she would like to be called a meteorologist (but doesn’t use the title because she has no degree). Ryan Church is the station’s news director; Gary Crezyzewski (pronounced kre-shoov-ski) is the field reporter (who always manages to get the worst street assignments).

Cast: Kelsey Grammer (Chuck Darling), Patricia Heaton (Kelly Carr), Laura Marano (Gracie Carr), Josh Gad (Ryan Church), Ayda Field (Montana Diaz Herrera), Fred Willard (Marsh McGinley), Ty Burrell (Gary Crezyzewski).

540 Back Together. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 1/25/84). When a celestial computer malfunctions, keeping the late Herkie Burke earthbound until the error can be found, he opts to spend his interim period with Elliott and Anne Harrington, his close friends (who run a small advertising agency) in Seattle, Washington. The story depicts Herkie’s misadventures as he attempts to adjust to “life” as a spirit, and the Harrington’s attempts to adjust to Herkie. Other Regulars: Dora, Elliott and Anne’s secretary; Mr. Christopher, Herkie’s celestial guide; and Mrs. Burke, Herkie’s mother.

Cast: Paul Provenza (Herkie Burke), Jamie Widows (Elliott Harrington), Grace Harrison (Anne Harrington), Lisa Jane Persky (Dora Holloway), Richard Hamilton (Mr. Christopher), Mina Kolb (Mrs. Burke). Theme Music: “Back Together” by Willie Wilkison.

541 Backstage Pass. (Pilot; Magazine; Syn.; 7/82). Performances by and interviews with rock stars. The program is heightened by a comedy segment called “The Carruthers Brothers” wherein non-identical twins (Richard Proctor and Mark Ward) advertise their wares. Segments are written by Richard Proctor and directed by Erick Nelson.

Narrators: Alex Bennett, Joanne Greene, David McQueen.

542 Backstage with Barry Wood. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1949). A short lived variety series that spotlights performances by undiscovered talent (who hope to impress talent agents and achieve stardom). The program ran from March 1, 1949 to May 24, 1949.

Host: Barry Wood.

543 B.A.D. Cats. (Series; Crime Drama; ABC; 1980). B.A.D. Cats is the Burglary Auto Detail, Commercial Auto Thefts Division of the Los Angeles Police Department. The stern Captain Eugene Nathan heads it and his chief operatives are Samantha Jensen, Nick Donovan and Ocee James, three plainclothes officers who often go undercover to get the goods on car thieves.

Samantha, called Sunshine, is not a risk taker. She has a cherry attitude and believes that her team should side with caution when investigating cases; she has the car code Cat-2. Nick and Ocee share a car (code Cat 1) and are somewhat more persistent than Samantha. They believe in taking chances and they often approach a situation without really thinking first. Samantha's quick thinking at such times often saves their necks — but not always as they are sometimes involved in confrontations with the enemy. For relaxation Samantha, Ocee and Nick find Ma's Place, a restaurant owned by a woman known only as Ma, a break from the hazards of their jobs. Rodney Washington is their snitch.

Cast: Steven Hanks (Off. Ocee James), Michelle Pfeiffer (Off. Samantha "Sunshine" Jensen), Asher Brauner (Off. Nick Donovan), Vic Morrow (Capt. Eugene "Skip" Nathan), Jimmie Walker (Rodney Washington), LaWanda Page (Ma), Morris Buchanan (Mike Cole), Penny Santon (Mrs. Bernardi). Theme Song: "B.A.D. Cats" by Barry DeVorzon.

544 Bad Girls. (Series; Drama; Logo; 2006). HMP (Her Majesty's Prison) Larkhall is a women's prison in England. It is here that a hard-hitting (and rather realistic) look at life inside a women's detention center is presented (on the same level as Australia's Prisoner: Cell Block H [see entry]). Like the Australian series, Bad Girls focuses on the lives of the prisoners as well as the guards (the good and the sadistic) who watch over the inmates (but also take advantage of them). The series is produced in England and airs in the United States on Logo, the gay cable channel (presumably for the show's lesbian oriented story lines). It aired in England from 1999–2006.

Cast: Victoria Alcock (Julie Saunders), Kika Mirylees (Julie Johnston), Helen Fraser (Sylvia Hol-lamby), Linda Henry (Yvonne Atkins), Alicia Eyo (Denny Blood), Victoria Bush (Julie O'Kane), Tracey Wilkinson (Di Baker), Jack Ellis (Jim Fenner), Claire King (Karen Betts), Isabelle Amyes (Barbara Hunt), James Gaddas (Neil Grayling), Sharon Duncan-Brewster (Crystal Gordon), Pauline Campbell (Al MacKenzie), Amanda Barrie (Beverly Tull), Stephanie Beacham (Phillida Oswyn), Kim Oliver (Buki Lester), Debra Stephenson (Shell Dockley), Antonia Okonma (Darlene Cake), Mandana Jones (Nikki Wade), Lindsay Fawcett (Shaz Wiley), Tristan Sturrock (Colin Hedges), Kellie Bright (Cassie Tyler), Siobhan McCarthy (Roisin Conner), Rebecca Hazelwood (Arun Parmar), Nicole Faraday (Snowball Merriman), Charlotte Lucas (Selena Geeson), Jennifer Ness (Kris Yates), Michael Elwyn (Rev. Henry Mills), Kerry Norton (Maxi Purvis), Lara Cazalet (Zandra Plackett), Eva Pope (Frances Myers), Joe Shaw (Dominic McAl-lister), Nathan Constance (Josh Mitchell), Nicola Stapleton (Janine Nebeski), Philip McGough (Dr. Malcolm Nicholson), Dannielle Brent (Natalie Bux-ton), Simone Lahbib (Helen Stewart).

545 The Bad Girls Guide. (Series; Comedy; UPN; 2005). J.J., Holly and Sarah are three women who live life to the fullest with no excuses by adopting a "bad girl attitude" to achieve their goals in romance and other aspects of life. Each of the girls looks out for the other and they each seek to marry money — a man who accepts "our wonderfulness without trying to change us." J.J. and Holly work together at the Bandera Advertising Agency; Sarah is a clothing store salesclerk.

Other Regulars: Irene, J.J. and Holly's boss; and Patrick, works in the agency.

Cast: Jenny McCarthy (J.J. Hayden), Marcelle Larice (Holly), Christina Moore (Sarah), Stephanie Childers (Irene), Jonathan McClain (Patrick).

546 The Bad Girls Guide. (Series; Reality; Oxygen; 2006). Seven beautiful women (between the ages of 20–30) who each claim to be "a bad girl," are placed together in a house to literally see what happens (as the girls are free to do what they want — and let the whole world see that they are what the title implies — bad girls). Last names of the girls are not given and they are not actors (the reason why reality shows are thus named). Jodie is "a conservative businesswoman by day and a sexpot by night"; Aimee has anger management problems (she has been expelled from beauty school); Leslie is a stripper who has an attitude and will strike someone who annoys her; Kerry claims to be a country singer who, after posing nude for a magazine, found her career on the downslide; Zara is, to put it politely, a drunk (she has a serious drinking problem); Ty is, as she claims, a hustler; Ripsi, although the spoiled daughter of a rich father, drinks a bit too much. Cameras catch "the action" as the girls snap at each other, fight with each other, or to put it simply, are mean to each other (especially Ripsi [called "Ripsi Tipsy by the other girls] whose drunken fits cause havoc for the other girls).

547 The Bad News Bears. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1979–1980). Events in the life of Morris Buttermaker, a former minor-league ballplayer turned pool cleaner who coaches the Bears, the undisciplined little-league ball team of the W. Wendell Weaver School at 1647 Lorraine Court in Santa Barbara, California. Eleven-year-old Amanda Wurlitzer is the star pitcher. She takes ballet lessons, wants to be a model and feels baseball is just a phase “because I’ll be getting a bra soon and won’t care anymore.” She is famous for her two-and-a-half-foot curveball (which she learned from Morris). Mike Engelberg is the overweight catcher who “eats for energy”; Timothy Lupus is the shy right fielder; and Ahmad Abdul Rahim is the switch hitter and fastest runner (Hank Aaron is his idol). The Lions, coached by Roy Turner, are the Bears’ rival for the championship. Based on the feature film.

Cast: Jack Warden (Morris Buttermaker), Catherine Hicks (Dr. Emily Rappant), Philip R. Allen (Roy Turner), Joyce Bulifant (Alice Wurlitzer), Tricia Cast (Amanda Wurlitzer), Sparky Marcus (Leslie Ogilvie), Meeno Peluce (Tanner Boyle), Billy Jacoby (Rudi Stein), Corey Feldman (Regi Tower), Shane Butterworth (Timothy Lupus), Kristoff St. John (Ahmad Abdul Rahim), J. Brennan Smith (Mike Engelberg), Rad Daly (Josh Matthews).

548 Badge 714. (Series; Crime Drama; Syn.; 1959). The syndicated title for Dragnet when the series was placed into syndication (it has since been returned to its original title). Dragnet ran on NBC from December 6, 1951 to September 6, 1959. See this title for information.

549 Badlands: 2005. (Pilot; Adventure; ABC; 8/29/88). In 1995, a severe drought forces people to desert the West Coast and reestablish their lives elsewhere. Ten years later, a group of pioneering men and women begin a quest to resettle what is now the New Arizona Territory. The unsold series was to relate the exploits of Garson McBeth, a U.S. marshal, as he and his cyborg partner, Rex, attempt to maintain law and order in a now untamed land. In the pilot episode, Garson and Rex escort mail order brides to a group of water miners. Other Regulars: Alex, their supervisor; Doc, the bartender.

Cast: Lewis Smith (Garson McBeth), Miguel Ferrer (Rex), Sharon Stone (Alex Heil), Kevin Miles (Doc Demeter). Guest Cast: Caitlin O’Heaney (Sara Gwynne), Debra Engle (Joanie Valentine), Lloyd Alan (Johnny Cantrell), Hugh Keays-Byrne (Moon-dance), Gus Mercurio (Stubbs), Steven Kuhn (Delancey), Justin Monjo (*Jimmy Bragg*s).

550 Baffle. (Series; Game; NBC; 1973–1974). Two teams, each composed of a celebrity captain and a non-celebrity contestant, compete. One member of each team is placed in a soundproof isolation booth and the sound is turned off in one of the cubicles. The unaffected player has to guess a phrase that his partner spells out, letter by letter, on a large board. When the phrase is identified, the other team competes in the same manner with the same phrase, with the object being to identify it in a shorter period of time. The team that scores the least amount of overall time is the winner and the contestant receives merchandise prizes. The series was later revised as All-Star Baffle. Here four celebrities play the exact same game for selected members of the studio audience. The series ran as Baffle from March 26, 1973 to October 5, 1973 (130 episodes) and as All-Star Baffle from October 8, 1973 to March 29, 1974 (115 episodes).

Host: Dick Enberg. Announcer: Kenny Williams.

551 Baffled. (Pilot; Mystery; NBC; 1/30/73). The story of Tom Kovack, a race car driver who acquires mysterious occult powers as the result of the impact of a crash — powers that enable him to envision and help people in trouble. Other Regulars: Michele Brent, an occult expert and his assistant; and Hopkins, Tom’s chauffeur.

Cast: Leonard Nimoy (Tom Kovack), Susan Hampshire (Michele Brent), Ewan Roberts (Hopkins). Guest Cast: Vera Miles (Andrea Glenn), Jewel Blanch (Jennifer Glenn), Rachel Roberts (Mrs. Faraday), Valerie Taylor (Louise Sanford), Mike Murray (Parrish/Sanford), Christopher Benjamin (Mr. Verelli).

552 Bagdad Cafe. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1990). The Bagdad Cafe is a rundown diner, hotel and truck stop that makes up the one-building town of Bagdad in the Mojave Desert. It is run by a feisty woman named Brenda. Brenda is divorced from Sal and is the mother of two grown children: Debbie and Juney.

Jasmine is a retired schoolteacher who left her husband after 25 years of marriage to become her own woman (she left her husband when their car stalled while crossing the desert. She took her bags, started walking and stumbled across the town. She befriended Brenda and now works as her helper in the diner).

Rooms at the hotel cost $25 a day, or $127 a week. Brenda, a former rodeo clown, was in labor for 96 hours with Debbie (who resides in Room 104; Brenda lives in Room 101). Jasmine, who lives in Room 102, was named “after my cousin Mildred. When Mildred was born she was going to be named Jasmine, but she looked more like a Mildred.” The series is based on the feature film of the same title. JeVetta Steele sings the theme, “Calling You.”

Cast: Whoopi Goldberg (Brenda), Jean Stapleton (Jasmine), Cleavon Little (Sal), Monica Calhoun (Debbie), Scott Lawrence (Juney).

553 Baggy Pants and the Nitwits. (Series; Cartoon; NBC; 1977–1978). The overall title for two animated segments. In the first segment, the Baggy Pants, a non-speaking hobo cat, reminiscent of Charlie Chaplin's famous tramp, faces obstacle after obstacle as he confronts life. The Nitwits segment follows the not-so-spectacular exploits of Tyrone, a retired super hero who forsakes retirement to battle evil. His efforts are hampered by his nagging wife, Gladys (this segment's characters are based very loosely on those played by Arte Johnson and Ruth Buzzi on Rowan and Martin's Laugh-In).

Voice Cast: Arte Johnson (Tyrone), Ruth Buzzi (Gladys).

554 Bailey Kipper's P.O.V. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1996–1997). Bailey Kipper is an 11-year-old boy who has wired his entire home with hidden cameras to keep a video diary of his family's activities. Bailey is a film buff and hopes to one day become the next Steven Spielberg. He uses the video he records to edit scenes and create amusing mini movies of his family (who are unaware of his activities).

Bailey's bedroom reflects his obsession (he has a neon silhouette of director Alfred Hitchcock on his wall) but his electronics lab is the apparently never used attic (he calls those hidden cameras "spyballs"). Don and Vickey are Bailey's parents; Robin, Eric and Norm are his siblings; Frankie is Bailey's friend. Robin is a very beautiful teenager who is under 24-hour surveillance by Bailey. It's not incestuous — it's just that Robin's activities make her appear like a political dissident and Bailey would rather be safe than sorry if his beliefs prove to be accurate.

Cast: Michael Galeota (Bailey Kipper), Meg Wittner (Vickey Kipper), John Achorn (Don Kipper), Andi Eystad (Robin Kipper), Joey Zimmerman (Eric Kipper), David Naughton (Norm Kipper), Paul Robert Langdon (Frankie).

555 Bailey's Comets. (Series; Cartoon; NBC; 1973–1974). The saga of a global skating race and the seventeen-roller derby teams who are seeking the million-dollar first prize. Clues to the prizes are presented through an endless trail of poetic rhymes and episodes depict the efforts of one team, Bailey's Comets, to overcome the diabolical schemes of the other teams as they attempt to eliminate them from the competition.

The other teams are: The Roller Bears, The Broomer Girls, The Doctor Jekyll/Hydes (keep changing appearance), The Hairy Madden Red Eyes, The Duster Busters, The Yo Ho Ho's, The Mystery Mob, The Rambling Rivets, The Cosmic Rays, The Roller Coasters, The Texas Flycats, The Stone Rollers, The Gusta Pastas, The Rock 'n' Rollers, The Black Hats, The Gargantuan Giants.

Voices: Don Messick, Sarah Kennedy, Daws Butler, Jim Brigg, Karen Smith, Robert Holt, Kathi Gori, Frank Welker.

556 The Bailey's of Balboa. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1964–1965). Sam Bailey is the captain of the Island Princess, a decrepit charter boat docked in Balboa Beach, California. Cecil Wyntoon is his neighbor, commodore of the high-class Balboa Yachting Club. Cecil objects to the lower class Sam and his noisy boat and the series relates the bickering relationship that exists between the two men. Complicating the issue are Barbara Wyntoon, Cecil's daughter and Jim Bailey, Sam's son, lovers who are struggling to survive a romance that both of their father's frown upon. Buck Singleton is Sam's first mate; Stanley is Sam's young friend.

Cast: Paul Ford (Sam Bailey), John Dehner (Cecil Wyntoon), Judy Carne (Barbara Wyntoon), Les Brown, Jr. (Jim Bailey), Sterling Holloway (Buck Singleton), Clint Howard (Stanley).

557 The Bait. (Pilot; Crime Drama; ABC; 3/13/73). Tracy Fleming is an undercover police woman for a large, unidentified city. She is based in the Halls of Justice Building and, according to her captain, Gus Maryk, she not only neatly types her reports, but has the best legs on the force. Tracy is dedicated to her work and became a police officer after her husband, a cop, was killed in the line of duty. Tracy is also a mother and is struggling to make a good life for her son, Mickey (who considers her the best pitcher — with a slow-breaking curve — in the neighborhood). The unsold series was to depict the dangerous aspects of Tracy's work as she poses as the bait to nab criminals. In the pilot episode, Tracy assumes the role of a working girl to capture a rapist (Earl Stockey) who kills his victims then wipes off their lipstick and takes a lock of their hair. Other Regulars: Nora, Tracy's mother-in-law; and detectives Nugent and Solomon.

Cast: Donna Mills (Tracy Fleming), Michael Constantine (Gus Maryk), June Lockhart (Nora), Brad Savage (Mickey Fleming), Noam Pitlik (Detective Solomon), Thalmus Rasulala (Detective Eddie Nugent). Guest Cast: William Devane (Earl Stockey), Arlene Golonka (Liz Fowler), Gianni Russo (Gianni Ruggeri), Xenia Gratsos (Denise), Mitzi Hoag (Nancy).

558 Baker's Dozen. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1982). A comical look at police work in action as seen through the experiences of Terry Munson and Mike Locasale, lovers who are also undercover police officers with the Anti-Crime Unit of the N.Y.P.D. Focal point of the four-episode test was their efforts to keep their romance a secret from their commanding officer, Captain Baker, who frowns on co-workers becoming involved with each other. Other Regulars: Officers Martin, Kelly and Schoendorf; and Jeff, the con artist who helps Terry and Mike.

Cast: Cindy Weintraub (Terry Munson), Ron Silver (Mike Locasale), Doris Belack (Florence Baker), Alan Weeks (O.K. Otis Kelly), Tom Quinn (Officer Martin), Sam McMurray (Harvey Schoendorf), John Del Regno (Jeff Diggins).

559 Bakersfield P.D. (Series; Comedy; Fox; 1993–1994). Bakersfield is a small California town with only one police department, It's captain, Renny Stiles, is a man who has difficulty making decisions; one of its sergeants, Paul Gigante, is half black and half Italian; his partner, Wade Preston, is a white detective obsessed with African-American culture. Paul was formally an officer with the Washington, D.C. police department and claims to have no favorite TV show "because my father never allowed us to watch TV" (Wade's favorite TV show, The Mod Squad, influenced his decision to become a law enforcer). Stories follow the antics of the officers as they attempt to uphold the peace.

Cast: Giancarlo Esposito (Det. Paul Gigante), Ron Eldard (Det. Wade Preston), Brian Doyle-Murray (Sgt. Phil Hampton), Jack Hallett (Capt. Renny Stiles), Tony Plana (Off. Lula Ramirez), Chris Mulkey (Off. Denny Boyer).

560 The Bakery. (Pilot; Crime Drama; CBS; 7/20/90). Vignettes are used to detail police work in 1965, 1989 and 2001—all of which is centered around the men and women of the Pacific Oaks Precinct (based in a former bakery—The Pacific Bakery—turned police department). Officers Mike Kelly and Charles Slater are with the force in 1965. When scenes switch to 1989, Kelly is now the captain and Slater is a detective. Slater works with Dana Bradford, the daughter of a cop (Buck Bradford) he worked with in the 1960s. Futuristic scenes find Dana as the new captain; Kelly being demoted to sergeant and teamed with a new partner, Hotshot Williams.

Cast: David Dukes (Mike Kelly), Kate McNeil (Dana Bradford), Cleavant Derricks (Charles Slater), Perry Lang (Hotshot Williams), Steve Eckholdt (Buck Bradford). Guest Cast: Kevin King (Rick), Kimberly McArthur (Annabelle), Linda Hanna (Newscaster), Nan Lynn Nelson (Mrs. Franklin).

561 Balance Your Budget. (Series; Game; CBS; 1952–1953). Selected female members of the studio audience compete. Each player states the amount of money she requires to run her household for a year, then attempts to earn that money. The host reads a general knowledge question. The first player to correctly answer it receives a cash prize. The winner, the highest cash scorer, receives the opportunity to compete again. Contestants end their play when they have balanced their budget or are defeated by another player.

Host: Bert Parks. Assistant: Lynn Connor.

562 Balderdash. (Series; Game; PAX; 2004–2005). Two contestants appear and are situated opposite a panel of three celebrities. The host reads a question to the panel—each of whom supplies an answer, but only one of which is correct. Players have to determine which celebrity supplied the correct answer. Several such rounds are played and the player with the most points (correctly choosing celebrities) wins the game and the opportunity to play the bonus round. Here each letter of the word Balderdash conceals a prize, one of which is the grand prize (usually a trip). The player is read nine Balderdash questions (one at a time and each with a false statement). He must, within a 45 second time limit, supply the correct answer to as many questions as possible. Each correct answer eliminates one letter from Balderdash. At the end of the time the player wins the grand prize if he eliminated all the letters; if not, he chooses one of the remaining letters (one of which contains the grand prize). Whatever that letter conceals is his prize.

Host: Elayne Boosler. Announcer: John Moschitta, Jr.

563 Ball Four. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1977). A satire of major league baseball as seen through the off-field antics of the Washington Americans, a disorganized baseball team. Harold "Pinky" Pinkney is the coach; Cap Capogrosso is the manager; Jim Barton is the relief pitcher; Rayford Plunkett is the pitcher; Ben "Rhino" Rhineland is the catcher; C.B. Travis is the outfielder; Bill Westlake is the rookie; Orlando Lopez is the utility man and Lenny Siegel, called "Birdman," is the troublemaker. Only four of thirteen produced episodes aired.

Cast: Jim Bouton (Jim Baryon), Marco St. John (Rayford Plunkett), Ben Davidson (Ben Rhineland), Sam Wright (C.B. Travis), Jaime Tirelli (Orlando Lopez), Bill McCutcheon (Harold Pinkney), Jack Sormack (Cap Capogrosso), David-James Carroll (Bill Westlake), Lennie Schultz (Lenny Siegel).

564 Ballad for a Bad Man. (Pilot; Western; CBS; 1/26/59). A proposed spin-off from Desilu Playhouse about Chris Hody, a professional bounty hunter of the Old West. In the pilot episode, Hody joins a traveling troupe of entertainers as their guide to be near its star (Lili) in the hopes that her boyfriend, who is wanted for murder and robbery, will turn up with the stolen money.

Cast: Steve Forrest (Chris Hody). Guest Cast: Jane Russell (Lili), Jack Haley (Barnaby Tibbs), Mischa Auer (Baron Von Ziegler), Karen Sharpe (Amy).

565 Balls. (Unaired Pilot; Comedy; Produced for CBS in 1991). The story, set in the 1890s, revolves around members of the Worthy family, the owners of a manufacturing company that produces baseballs, basketballs and ping-pong balls, as they constantly bicker over the fortune they will inherit when their elderly father kicks the bucket.

Cast: Robert Klein (Walter Worth). No other cast is given.

566 Baltimore Orioles. (Unaired Pilot; Comedy; Produced for NBC in 1991). The story is set in Baltimore and explores the relationship between two sisters and their brother who have a jazz group called The Baltimore Orioles. Carrie and Nicole Oriole are the sisters, who have nothing in common except their love of music and their penchant for falling in love with the same man. Skip Oriole is their brother, a talented musician who is plagued with stage fright and hypochondria.

Cast: Megan Gallagher (Carrie Oriole), Jennifer Nash (Nicole Oriole), Peter Crook (Skip Oriole).

567 Banacek. (Series; Crime Drama; NBC; 1972–1974). Thomas Banacek is a Boston-based freelance insurance company investigator who recovers lost or stolen objects for 10 percent of their insured value. He has a 66 percent success rate, and companies find that it is cheaper to hire Banacek than to assign their own agents to a case — “let’s face it, he’s good. And that 66 percent is better than we do.”

Banacek’s official business is restoring antiques (his one-man operation is called “T. Banacek — Restorations”). His research material is a paper called The Assurance Reports. The recovery and rewards section lists current and unsolved insurance company cases. If a case is more than 60 days old, it becomes public domain and anyone can attempt to solve it (these are the cases he likes to take); he can’t, however, tackle other cases unless he is hired to do so.

Thomas’s father was born in Warsaw, Poland, and was a research scientist. He came to America and worked as a mathematician for an insurance company. After 20 years he was replaced by a computer. Because of this, Thomas will not work a nine to five job for any insurance company — “I don’t work for anybody, I work for myself.” When he is hired to solve a case, he gets, in addition to the 10 percent, $100 a day plus expenses. And what does he get if he can’t solve a case — “I get a little bit older.”

Banacek, who was born on Scully Square in Boston, has a saying for all occasions (for example, “There’s an old Polish proverb that says, ‘Only someone with nothing to be sorry about smiles at the rear of an elephant’”).

Caroline Kirkland, who prefers to be called “Carlie,” works for the National Meridian Insurance Company (in the pilot) and the Boston Insurance Company (in the series) in the Property Recovery Division (the company is located on Government Square). Carlie, who was married for two years (1967–1969), is determined to solve cases before Thomas does.

Felix Mulholland is Banacek’s friend and information man. He runs Mulholland’s Book Store and considers himself very intelligent (“I’m a walking compendium of all man’s knowledge”). Jay Drury owns Jay’s Executive Limo Service and works as Banacek’s chauffeur. His real name is Dunicello, and he is thinking of legally changing his last name to Drury. Jay mentioned that his father was a music teacher. The pilot episode aired on 3/20/72; Eliot Kaplan composed the theme.

Cast: George Peppard (Thomas Banacek), Murray Matheson (Felix Mulholland), Ralph Manza (Jay Drury), Christine Belford (Carlie Kirkland).

568 The Banana Company. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 8/25/77). The proposed series, set in the South Pacific during World War II, relates the adventures of the Banana Company, the nickname for a group of combat correspondents who go to outrageous lengths to acquire stories for their press service.

Cast: Ron Masak (Muldoon), Ted Gehring (Major Platt), John Reilly (Captain Harry Gill), Gailard Sartain (Peebles), Sam Chew, Jr. (Segal), Bob Brown (Front Line Turner), Eddie Quillan (Seebring).

569 The Banana Splits Adventure Hour. (Series; Children; NBC; 1968–1970). The overall title for six series. The series was sponsored by Kellogg’s cereals and is officially titled Kellogg’s of Battle Creek Presents the Banana Splits Adventure Hour.

1. The Banana Splits. The misadventures of four costumed, live-action animals: Fleegele, the dog; Drooper, the lion; Bingo, the gorilla; and Snorky, the runt elephant.

2. The Micro Venture. Life in the world of microscopic creatures as seen through the explorations of Professor Carter and his children, Jill and Mike.

3. Danger Island. A live-action serial adventure that follows the perilous exploits of Irwin Hayden, an archeologist and explorer. His daughter, Leslie assists him (as does Link Simmons and Morgan).

4. The Three Musketeers. An animated adventure that recounts the exploits of D’Artagnan and the Three Musketeers (Porthos, Aramis and Athos).

5. The Hillbilly Bears. The animated antics of a family of backwoods bears (Paw, Maw, Flora and Shagg Rugg).

6. The Arabian Knights. Animated adventures based on the legends of the Arabian Knights. Characters include Bez, The Evil Vangore, Raseem, Turban and Farik.

Voice Cast: Paul Winchell (Fleegele), Daws Butler (Bingo), Allan Melvin (Drooper), Don Messick (Snorky), Don Messick (Professor Carter), Patsy Garrett (Jill Carter), Tommy Cook (Mike Carter), Frank Aletter (Professor Irwin Hayden), Ronne Troup (Leslie Hayden), Jan-Michael Vincent (Link Simmons), Rockne Tarkington (Morgan), Victor Eberg (Mutan), Rodrigo Arrendondo (Chu), Bruce Watson

(D'Artagnan), Barney Phillips (Porthos), Don Messick (Aramis), Jonathan Harris (Athos), Teddy Eccles (Tooly), Julie Bennett (The Queen), Julie Bennett (Constance), Henry Corden (Paw Rugg), Jean VanderPyl (Maw Rugg), Jean VanderPyl (Flora Rugg), Don Messick (Shagg Rugg), Henry Corden (Bez), Paul Frees (Evil Vangore), Frank Gerstle (Raseem), Shari Lewis (Princess Nidor), Jay North (Turban), John Stephenson (Farik).

570 Bananas in Pajamas. (Series; Children; Syn.; 1995). A pair of yellow bananas (called B-1 and B-2), who live on Cuddles Lane, host an educational program that teaches children the importance of cooperation, imagination and communication. A number of puppet characters (such as Amy, Lulu, Morgan and Maggie) assist the bananas (who are always dressed in pajamas) in their daily activities.

Cast: Duncan Wass (B-1), Ken Radley (B-1; later), Nicholas Opolski (B-2), Sandie Lillingston (Amy), Mary-Ann Henshaw (Lulu), Taylor Owyns (Lulu; later), Jeremy Schrivener (Morgan), Emma De Vries (Maggie), Shane McNamara (Ray-In-A-Hat). Narrator: Karina Kelly. Puppeteers: David Collings, Mal Heap.

571 Band of Gold. (Pilot; Anthology; CBS; 3/19/61). A proposed series of love stories. The pilot episode, titled "Love Is a Lion's Roar," tells of Renee Fontaine, a French entertainer who lives by her family tradition that hearing a lion's roar means that one will soon fall in love. Aired on G.E. Theater."

Cast: Suzanne Pleshette (Renee Fontaine), James Franciscus (Bill Taylor), Jack Weston (Freddie Pringle), Fifi D'Orsay (Simone), J. Pat O'Malley (Cabbie), Mariellen Smith (Girl).

572 Bandstand. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1956). A daily daytime variety series that spotlights guest bandleaders. The program ran from July 30, 1956 to November 23, 1956.

Host: Bert Parks. Music: Tex Beneke.

573 The Bang-Shang Lalapalooza Show. (Series; Cartoon; NBC; 1977-1978). A revised version of CBS's The Archie Show that continues to relate the antics of Archie Andrews and his friends Betty Cooper, Veronica Lodge, Jughead Jones and Reggie Mantel, teenagers who live in the town of Riverdale. Other characters are Sabrina, the Teenage Witch, Hotdog, the gang's pet; and Carlos, Archie's friend. Based on the characters appearing in Archie comic books.

Voice Cast: Dallas McKennon (Archie Andrews), Jane Webb (Betty Cooper), Jane Webb (Veronica Lodge), Jane Webb (Sabrina), Howard Morris (Jughead Jones), John Erwin (Reggie Mantel), Jose Flores (Jose), Don Messick (Hotdog).

574 Banjo Hackett: Roamin' Free. (Pilot; Western; NBC; 5/3/76). The Old West of the 1880s is the setting for an unsold series about Banjo Hackett, an easygoing horse trader, and his nephew Jubal Winter, an orphan who is now his ward and traveling companion. The pilot episode relates their attempts to find Jubal's valuable Arabian mare, which was stolen from him when his widowed mother died.

Cast: Don Meredith (Banjo Hackett), Ike Eisenmann (Jubal Winter). Guest Cast: Anne Francis (Flora), Chuck Connors (Sam Ivory), Jennifer Warren (Mollie Brannan), Dan O'Herlihy (Tip Conacher), Slim Pickens (Lijah Tuttle), Gloria DeHaven (Lady Jane Grey), J.D. Cannon (Sheriff Tadlock).

575 Bank on the Stars. (Series; Game; CBS; NBC; 1953-1954). Two teams, each composed of two members, compete. A feature film clip is shown, followed by a series of questions based on it. Each correct response scores a team one point. The team with the highest score is the winner and receives fifty dollars for each point (a rather generous prize considering it was 1953). The series ran on CBS from June 20, 1953 to August 21, 1954; and on NBC from May 15, 1954 to August 21, 1954.

Host: Jack Paar, Bill Cullen, Jimmy Nelson. Music: Ivan Ditmars.

576 Banyon. (Series; Crime Drama; NBC; 1972-1973). Los Angeles in the year 1937 is the setting. Myles C. Banyon is a tough, hard-boiled private detective who helps people with no place else to turn. Myles lives by his own rules (he believes you have to because if you don't the private eye business just might kill you). He tries to work within the limits of the law but criminals work on a different level and one has to be just a bit smarter to capture them (even if it includes violence and underhanded tactics). He is forceful and once he takes a case, nothing will stop him from finding justice for his client. The series captures the mood and feel of the 1930s as it depicts Myles's cases investigations.

Peggy Revere is his friend, the owner of the Revere Secretarial School; Abby Graham is his friend, a singer; Peter MacNeil is the L.A.P.D. detective Myles helps (and vice versa). Mabel, Lottie, Helena, Alma, Tina, Vera, Doris, Dee Dee and Brenda are featured Peggy's girls.

The series, which produced 13 episodes, ran from September 15, 1972 to January 12, 1973. In the pilot film (NBC, March 15, 1971) Hermione Gingold played Peggy Revere and Darren McGavin was the police presence, Lt. Pete Cordova.

Cast: Robert Forster (Miles C. Banyon), Richard Jaeckel (Sgt. Peter MacNeil), Joan Blondell (Peggy Revere), Julie Gregg (Abby Graham), Teri Garr (Mabel), Virginia Ann Lee (Lottie), Char Fontane (Helena), Sarah Fankboner (Alma), Victoria Perry (Tina), Barbara George (Tina; replaced Victoria), Elaine Giftos

(Vera), Sherry Lansing (Doris), Melanie Roba (Dee Dee), Pamela McMyler (Brenda).

577 Bar Girls. (Pilot; Drama; CBS; 7/5/90). Claudia Reese and Melanie Rosten are two beautiful attorneys who join forces and open their own law firm, Reese and Rosten, when the law firm for which they both worked is dissolved. Claudia and Melanie have a tendency to disagree with each other over the smallest of things and the unsold series was to relate their efforts to help people in trouble, despite their constant bickering. In the pilot episode, Claudia and Melanie attempt to help a mother who accuses her husband of child abuse.

Cast: Joanna Cassidy (Claudia Reese), Marcy Walker (Melanie Rosten). Guest Cast: John Terlesky (Gabe Shriver), Tom O'Brien (Jack Gallagher), Lee Garlington.

578 Barbapapa. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1981). The adventures of the Barbapapas, a family of strange creatures who grow from the ground (like blades of grass) and are able to change their forms. Filmed in 1977 by Polyscope in the Netherlands.

Cast: Allen Swift (Story Teller). Voices: Ann Costello, Allen Swift, Alexander Marshall.

579 Barbar. (Series; Cartoon; HBO; 1989–1991). An animated series based on the elephant characters created by Jean de Brunhoff. Barbar is first seen as an adult elephant who is married (to Celeste) and the father of two children (Pom and Flora). Elephants live like humans and are capable of talking. In his youth Barbar was a king of elephants who traveled the world and later built the peaceful kingdom of Celesteville, where the series is set. Barbar has experienced all the hardships of life. When a situation arises at home involving his children, Barbar relates a story that occurred in his youth. A flashback sequence is used to relate an incident that closely resembles the situation his children are facing (all meant to deliver learning messages to children) Arthur is Celeste's fun-loving brother; Old Lady (Madame) is the kindly woman who took Barbar in when he first entered "The City" to teach him about life; Zephyr is Barbar's oldest friend; Cornelius is Barbar's chief advisor.

Voice Cast: Gordon Pinsent (Barbar), Dawn Greenleigh (Celeste), Lisa Yamanaka (Flora), Lea-Helen Weir (Flora; later), Stephen Ouimette (Pom), Benjamin Barrett (Pom; later), Amos Crawley (Alexander), Stuart Stone (Alexander; later), Paul Haddad (Uncle Arthur), Elizabeth Hannah (Old Lady), Jeff Pastil (Zephyr), Chris Wiggins (Cornelius), Gavin Magrath (Young Barbar), Tara Charendoff (Young Celeste).

580 The Barbara Eden Show. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 5/21/73). All My Tomorrows is a popular daytime TV soap opera that is written by Barbara

Norris, a beautiful divorcee who is also the mother of a young son (Matthew). Brad Newton produces the serial and Barry Michaels is its star. The unsold series was to relate Barbara's misadventures as she attempts to write stories, care for her son and carry on a romance with her boyfriend, Dr. Ralph Green. In the pilot episode, Barbara faces a minor crisis when Barry refuses to play the current storyline she has written for him.

Cast: Barbara Eden (Barbara Norris), Moosie Drier (Matthew Norris), Joe Flynn (Brad Newton), Lyle Waggoner (Barry Michaels), Roger Perry (Dr. Ralph Green), Pat Morita (Tom; guest role).

581 Barbara Mandrell and the Mandrell Sisters. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1980–1982). An entertaining, well-coordinated variety series that spotlights the musical talents of singer Barbara Mandrell and her equally gifted sisters, Louise and Irlene. The program also features performances by guest artists and skits that involve the sisters in various comical situations (skits also feature the sisters as girls in flashback sequences). Sid Krofft, Marty Krofft, Ernest Chambers and Frank Peppiatt are the producers.

Cast: Barbara Mandrell (Host), Irlene Mandrell (Host), Louise Mandrell (Host), Georgi Irene (Barbara as a girl), Sharon Alexander (Louise as a girl), Jaime Nicolle (Irlene as a girl). Regulators: Melanie Gaffin, Bobby Salter, Ray Stuart, Bill Kirchenbauer, Jackie Joseph, The Krofft Puppets. Music: The Dennis McCarthy Orchestra; The Do-Rites.

582 The Barbara McNair Show. (Series; Variety; Syn.; 1969). A weekly program of music and songs with singer Barbara McNair that is presented as an informal concert. 52 episodes aired from 1969–1971. David Winters and Burt Rosen are the producers.

Hostess: Barbara McNair. Assistant/Announcer: Ronald Long. Orchestra: Coleridge Parkinson.

583 Barbara Stanwyck Presents the Sponsor's Theater. (Unaired Pilot; Anthology; Produced in 1956). The title listed above is how the original pilot was produced (the sponsor's product name was meant to replace the word "Sponsor's"). When a sponsor could not be found, the original opening and closing segments that featured Barbara Stanwyck as the host were cut and the episode itself, "Sudden Silence," was broadcast on Ford Theater (ABC) on 10/10/56. "Sudden Silence" is set in the Old West and tells of a sheriff (Tom Frazier) who faces the wrath of a man (Jordan) who claims that his son, who was hanged by the sheriff, was innocent of a murder charge.

Cast: Barbara Stanwyck (Irene Frazier), Jeff Morrow (Tom Frazier), Trevor Bardette (Jordan), Mort Mills (Deputy), Jimmy Baird (Bill Frazier), Robert

Easton (Cowboy), Ralph Dumke (Mayor), Malcolm Atterbury (Mr. Jackson), Charlotte Knight (Mrs. Jackson).

584 The Barbara Stanwyck Theater. (Series; Anthology; NBC; 1960–1961). Varying dramatic presentations that often star actress Barbara Stanwyck. See also Jessica Little for information on three pilot films (for a new Barbara Stanwyck series) that aired as segments of her Theater series. The performers listed below are a sampling of those who have appeared on the series (which aired from September 19, 1960 to September 11, 1961 and produced 36 episodes).

Hostess: Barbara Stanwyck. Performers Include: Yvonne Craig, Virginia Gregg, Susan Oliver, Lloyd Nolan, Vic Morrow, Ralph Bellamy, Charles Bickford, Julie London, Michael Ansara, Milton Berle, Anna May Wong, Michael Rennie, Lee Marvin, Robert Culp, Lew Ayres, Joan Blondell, Dan Duruya, Peter Falk, Leon Ames.

585 The Barbary Coast. (Series; Adventure; ABC; 1975–1976). The series is set in the 1880s. Cash Conover is a slick riverboat gambler. One night during a poker game in New Orleans, Cash accuses the governor's son of cheating. A duel to defend honor ensues, and Cash kills his opponent in self-defense. Fearing that he would never get a fair trial because he killed the governor's son, Cash flees to San Francisco to begin a new life. He wins the Golden Gate Casino in a card game and becomes the respected owner of the casino.

Jeff Cable, a California police officer, is recruited by the governor of California to battle the rising tide of crime. While looking through wanted posters, Jeff recognizes Cash as a man wanted for murder in Louisiana. But instead of turning Cash in, Jeff decides Cash is more important where he is and recruits Cash to help him. Jeff sets up headquarters in a secret room in the casino and spreads the word that criminals can find refuge at the Golden Gate. Stories chronicle Jeff's adventures as he and Cash battle crime on the notorious Barbary Coast.

A West Point graduate, Jeff uses various disguises to apprehend criminals. Cash knocks three times on wood for luck, and lives by his motto "Cash Makes No Enemies" (meaning he pays cash for anything he wants; nobody knows for sure whether Cash is Conover's real name or his religion). Jeff's base of operations is a secret room behind the fireplace in Cash's office.

Flame is the casino croupier; Brandy and Rusty are dance hall girls; Moose Moran is the bouncer; Sam is the bartender; and Thumbs is the casino's piano player. Dennis Cole played Cash Conover in the pilot episode (5/4/75), and the series was originally called "Cash and Cable." John Andrew Tartaglia composed the theme, "The Barbary Coast."

Cast: William Shatner (Jeff Cable), Doug McClure (Cash Conover), Bobbi Jordan (Flame), Richard Kiel (Moose Moran), David Turner (Thumbs), Francine York (Brandy), Brooke Mills (Rusty), John Dennis (Sam), Eddie Fontaine (Sam; later).

586 Barbershop. (Series; Comedy; Showtime; 2005). Calvin Palmer is a young African American who runs a Chicago neighborhood barbershop — a business he inherited from his father. The series, based on the feature film of the same title, follows Calvin's comical experiences as he interacts with his friends and the people who frequent the shop. The barbershop has become a hangout where people bring their troubles and Calvin (like a bartender) finds himself not only dispensing advice, but trying to solve problems as well.

Cast: Omar Gooding (Calvin Palmer), Anna Brown (Jennifer Palmer), John Wesley Chatham (Isaac Rosenberg), Dan White (Romadad Dupree), Leslie Elliard (Jimmy James), Toni Trucks (Terrri Jones), Barry Shabaka (Henley), Gbenga Akinagbe (Yinka).

587 Barbie and the Rockers. (Pilot; Cartoon; Syn.; 12/87). The first attempt to bring the Barbie doll to television in a proposed series that was to follow the adventures of Barbie, a fabulously successful rock singer, and her group, the Rockers (Didi, Ken, Diva and Derek) as they perform concerts around the world. In the pilot episode, titled "Out of This World," Barbie becomes the world's first Ambassador of Peace and finds herself propelled back into time when a space shuttle voyage goes awry and transports her and the group to the year 1959. Their struggles to return to 1987 is the focal point to the story.

Voices: Sharon Lewis (Barbie), Michael Benyaer, Gary Chalk, Lynn Johnson, Victoria Langston, Debbie Lick, Catherine Mead, Doug Parker, John Payne, Nikki Sharp, Veena Sood, John Stocker.

588 The Barbour Report. (Pilot; Variety; ABC; 3/10 to 3/23/86). A ten-episode test for a daily, late night program of humorous essays, comedy in the news and inventive features and interviews. The program, which aired following Nightline, featured two recurring segments: "The Barbour Poll" (in-the-street types of interviews) and "The Truth Fairy" (an exploration of the world's complex issues in a light, humorous way).

Host: John Barbour. Barbour Poll Host: Rhonda Bates. Truth Fairy Host: Bever-Leigh Banfield.

589 Bare Essence. (Series; Drama; NBC, 1983). Patricia Louise ("Tyger") Hayes was six years old when her mother, Roberta ("Bobbi") Hayes left her and her father, Jack (not seen). Tyger cried so hard she had the hiccups for two days. When she went back to school, she told everyone that her mother had died. Jack, a low budget Hollywood horror filmmaker, raised Tyger alone. When Tyger graduated from high school, she enrolled at UCLA. She attended classes for four years but never graduated; the reason: assisting her father on such films as Halloween Sorority Massacre, Flight Inferno, The Wolfman of Tucson and Scream Blood, Mama. In 1982, when Tyger turned 21, Jack died from a heart attack.

At the funeral, Tyger is reunited with her estranged mother, now married for the fourth time and known as Lady Bobbi Rowan (she is considered one of the world's most beautiful women; Lord Rowan, from whom Bobbi is later divorced, is not seen). Bobbi extends an invitation to Tyger to visit her in New York (she lives in a brownstone on Gramercy Park).

Shortly after, Tyger learns that Kellerco, a low profile, privately owned New York conglomerate, had backed her father's films. Hoping to continue the project Jack started, Tyger decides to approach Kellerco.

Bobbi arranges for Tyger to meet the company owner, Hadden Marshall. Hadden tells her that the film has been declared a tax loss and he can do nothing to help her continue it. He does, however, offer her a job.

Hadden sets Tyger up with his grandson, Chase Marshall, a racing car driver whom Hadden has just made an executive in the hope of getting him into the business. When Tyger discovers that Kellerco is in financial trouble, she convinces Chase to begin a perfume company (at a low inventory and a 1,000 percent markup). Hadden advances them $250,000 to start the company. They hire Armand Habib (Francois-Marie Benard) of the DeHavilland Fragrances in Grosse, France, to create the new perfume.

"My mother always says women dress for other women, but I know they smell good for men," says Tyger as she samples the new perfume. "It's so basic, so primitive. It's breathtaking, romantic and personal. It's got to be ... Bare Essence." With the Kellerco Perfume Company established, serial-like stories relate the power plays, love affairs and intrigues behind big business. (When Tyger first inhaled the new perfume, she called it "Sexy Smelly Good.") Other Regulars: Ava Marshall, Chase's evil stepmother (married to his late father, Hugh) who seeks to destroy Tyger so her son, Marcus Marshall, can inherit the Marshall empire (the tension builds after Chase is killed in a racing car accident in Europe); Margaret Benedict, Hadden's sister; Sean Benedict, Margaret's son; and Kathy, Hadden's granddaughter. The pilot aired on CBS in 1982.

Cast: Genie Francis (Tyger Hayes), Linda Evans (Bobbi Hayes, pilot), Jennifer O'Neill (Bobbi Hayes, series), John Dehner (Hayden Marshall), Bruce Boxleitner (Chase Marshall, pilot), Al Corley (Chase Marshall; series), Lee Grant (Ava Marshall, pilot), Jessica Walter (Ava Marshall, series), Jonathan Frakes (Marcus Marshall), Susan French (Margaret Benedict), Michael Woods (Sean Benedict), Laura Brunea (Kathy). Theme Vocal: "In Finding You I Found Love" by Sarah Vaughan.

590 Barefoot in the Park. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 11/24/69). A proposed series based on the Neil Simon movie about young newlyweds (Paul and Corie Bratter) struggling to survive the difficult first years of marriage in New York City. This pilot, which featured a white cast, was reedited and broadcast as "Love and the Good Deal" (about Paul and Corie's efforts to buy a discount bed) on Love, American Style. The story was reshot with a black cast and ran as a series on ABC (9/24/70 to 1/14/71; see the following title for information). Other Regulars: Corie's mother; Mr. Velasco, the building super.

Cast: Skye Aubrey (Corie Bratter), Philip Clarke (Paul Bratter), Jane Wyatt (Corie's mother), Hans Conried (Mr. Velasco). Guest Cast: Frank Campanella (Harry), Norman Fell (Lewis), Felix Locher (Armand).

591 Barefoot in the Park. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1970–1971). Paul Bratter and Corie Bates have just tied the knot and have moved into their first apartment, a fifth floor walk-up (Apartment 5-B) at 49 West 10th Street in Manhattan. Paul has also begun his new job, that as a lawyer with the firm of Kendricks, Klein and Klein. Stories follow the events that spark their lives as newlyweds struggling to survive that difficult first year of marriage.

The series is based on the play by Neil Simon. Honey Robinson is Paul's friend, the owner of Honey's Pool Hall; Mabel Bates is Corie's mother; Arthur Kendricks is Paul's employer; and Mr. Velasquez is the building super. 12 episodes aired from September 24, 1970 to January 14, 1971 (the series has been re-edited and syndicated as segments of Love, American Style). See also Barefoot in the Park (1969) for the original pilot version of the series (which consisted of a white cast; the actual series features a mostly black cast).

Cast: Scoey Mitchell (Paul Bratter), Tracy Reed (Corie Bratter), Nipsey Russell (Honey Robinson), Thelma Carpenter (Mabel Bates), Harry Holcombe (Arthur Kendricks), Vito Scotti (Mr. Velasquez).

592 Baretta. (Series; Crime Drama; ABC; 1975–1978). Anthony ("Tony") Baretta is a police detective with the 53rd Precinct in an eastern city that is presumed to be in New Jersey. Tony's badge number is 609, and he drives a car called "The Blue Ghost." He lives in Apartment 2-C of the King Edward Hotel and has a talented pet cockatoo named Fred who likes a little liquor now and then and thinks he is a chicken. Tony's best weapon against crime is his ability to go undercover as various characters. Billy Truman is his elderly friend, the house detective at the King Edward Hotel, and inspectors Shiller and Hal Brubaker are Tony's superiors. Fats is a detective; Rooster and Little Mo are Tony's informants; Mimi Ames is Tony's girlfriend.

Cast: Robert Blake (Tony Baretta), Tom Ewell (Billy Truman), Dana Elcar (Inspector Schiller), Edward Glover (Lt. Hal Brubaker), Michael D. Roberts (Rooster), Sharon Cintron (Mimi Ames), John Ward (Detective Foley), Chino Williams (Fats), Angelo Rosetti (Little Mo), Art Metrano (Detective Palanski), Lala (Fred). Theme Vocal: "Keep Your Eye on the Sparrow" by Sammy Davis, Jr.

593 Bargain Hunters. (Series; Game; ABC; 1987). Six players, divided into two three-member teams, compete opposite each other in three separate games. Round One, "The Bargain Quiz," involves two players (one from each team) in a series of question and answer sessions. The first player to score three points wins. Round Two is "The Bargain Trap." Five items are displayed with a price. One item contains a false price (a non-bargain). Each player selects an item with the object being to select the real bargain. The players who select the non-bargain items lose. In Round Three, "Bargain Busters," two players (one from each team) have to determine the actual bargain prices of three items. The players score points based on the number of correct items they identify. The team with the highest score wins the game and now competes against each other in the final round. Here three prize showcases are revealed and described. Each player selects three items with the object to pick the items that are the best bargains. The bargain price savings for each player is totaled. The players who chose the best bargains win those prizes.

Host: Peter Tomarken. Announcer: Dean Whitmore, Dean Goss.

594 The Barkleys. (Series; Cartoon; NBC; 1972-1973). The main characters are dogs who are patterned after the characters in All in the Family. Episodes relate the life of Arnie Barkley, an outspoken, opinionated and loudmouthed bus driver, as he attempts to cope with life, his nagging wife (Agnes) and understand his progressive children (Terri, Chester and Roger) and bridge the generation gap that exists between them.

Voice Cast: Henry Corden (Arnie Barkley), Joan Gerber (Agnes Barkley), Julie McWhirter (Terri Barkley), Steve Lewis (Chester Barkley), Gene Andrusco (Roger Barkley).

595 Barnaby Jones. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 1973-1980). Barnaby Jones is a senior citizen who keeps himself occupied as a private detective and the owner of Barnaby Jones Investigations in Los Angeles. Barnaby does not believe in old age and feels he is as vibrant as he was when he was a young man.

Barnaby is a skilled investigator who analyzes each clue he finds. He has knowledge of forensics and is well versed in clinical psychology. Barnaby is assisted by his late son's wife, Betty Jones, and by his cousin, Jedidiah Romano "J.R." Jones, a law student who tackles cases between classes. Barnaby also solves crimes for the California Meridian Insurance Company.

Cast: Buddy Ebsen (Barnaby Jones), Lee Meriwether (Betty Jones), Mark Shera (Jedidiah Jones), John Carter (Lt. John Biddle), Vince Howard (Lt. Joe Taylor), Bonnie Ebsen (Various Roles).

596 Barney and Friends. (Series; Educational; PBS; 1992). An educational series aimed at children from two to eight years of age that uses a purple dinosaur (Barney) to entertain and teach children many aspects of life, mostly courtesy and manners. Barney is surrounded by a group of children (whom he leads in songs, dances and games) and he is assisted by Baby Bop and his older brother B.J.

Cast: Bob West (Barney), Dean Wendt (Barney), Carey Stinson (Barney), David Joyner (Barney), Jeff Ayres (Baby Bop), Patty Wirtz (B.J.), Jeff Brook (B.J.), Brenna Demerson (Olivia), Emilio Mazier (David), Hunter Pecunia (Rachel), Camille Goldstein (Sophie), Summer Selby (Miss Crisp), Ashlan Cunningham (Lindsey), Cosette Goldstein (Sadie), Michaela Dietz (Riff), Braeden Kennedy (Scott), Mia Ford (Anna), Todd Duffey (Scooter McNutty), Monet A. Chandler (Ashley), Mera Baker (Keesha), John David Bennett (Shawn), Monte Black (Curtis), Hope Cervantes (Tasha), Earl Fisher (Booker T. Bookworm), Brian Epps (Michael), Sandy Duncan (Mother), Kenny Cooper (David), Sara Hickman (Kristen), Corey Lopez (Carlos), Kayla Levels (Whitney), Lucien Douglas (Chip), Georgina Foy (Officer Phillips), Kyla Pratt (Kyla), Adrienne Kangas (Linda), Jessica Hinojosa (Maria), Selma Gomez (Gianna), Marisa Kuers (Hannah), Gene Ray Price (Miss Kepler), Becky Swonke (Amy), Lana Whittington (Jill), Jessica Zucha (Tina).

597 Barney and Me. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 3/19/73). An unsold series about Pete Richards, a kiddie show host who uses a talking bear named Barney to boost his faltering ratings. Other Regulars: Sue, Pete's girlfriend; Jungle Johnny, a regular on the show.

Cast: Soupy Sales (Pete Richards), Udana Power (Sue), Joey Forman (Jungle Johnny), Janos Prohaska (Barney), Shepard Menkin (Barney's voice). Also: Bonnie Boland, Ceil Cabot, Cherie Foster, Bobbie Hall, Trent Lehman, Dave Morrnick.

598 Barney Blake, Police Reporter. (Series; Anthology; NBC; 1948-1949). Barney Blake is a

New York City police reporter; Jennifer Allen is his secretary (and sometimes assistant). Stories relate Barney's investigations as he seeks to ascertain the facts behind criminal cases.

Cast: Gene O'Donnell (Barney Blake), Judy Parish (Jennifer Allen).

599 Barney Miller. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1975–1982). Captain Barney Miller is the chief of detectives of the 12th Precinct in New York's Greenwich Village. His squad: Sergeant Stan Wojehowicz, Sergeant Phil Fish, Detective Chano Amengual, Sergeant Nick Yemana, Detective Ron Harris, Sergeant Arthur Dietrich and Officer Carl Levitt.

Bernard ("Barney") Miller first lived at 617 Chestnut Street in Manhattan with his wife, Elizabeth, their 21-year-old daughter, Rachel, and their 12-year-old son, David. Elizabeth held a job as a social worker for the New York Department of Social Services, and when she and Barney separated, Barney moved to an apartment (Room 45) at the Hotel Greenwich.

Stanley ("Stan") Tadeusz Wojehowicz, called "Wojo" for short, lives in Apartment 12 of an unidentified building with a parrot named Crackers (for which he paid $225). It took him eight years to attain the rank of sergeant; he served with the Marines in Vietnam.

Arthur P. Dietrich, who was born 10/12/47 in St. Mary's Hospital in Allentown, Pennsylvania, said he had no idea what the P in his name stands for. He joined the ranks of the N.Y.P.D. on 11/2/73. In another episode, his birth year was given as 1943.

Ronald ("Ron") Harris is the author of the novel Blood on the Badge. He refers to his book, which bore the working title Precinct Diary, as "B.O.B." It was released by Wainwright Publishers. Ron's great-grandfather, Ezekiel, ran a liquor store in Cleveland, Ohio. His great-great-great-great-grandfather was a commander of the Scottish Dragoons in fifteenth century Scotland. Ron's family crest is a bagpipe on a field of tweed.

Carl Levitt was born in 1942 in New Brunswick, New Jersey; at age two, he and his parents moved to Rutherford, New Jersey. Nick Yemana was born in April in Omaha, Nebraska.

Other Roles: Detective Janet Wentworth, one of the few female detectives featured in the squad room; Frank Luger, the police inspector; and Arnold Ripner, the rather disreputable lawyer. The pilot, "The Life and Times of Captain Barney Miller," aired on ABC on 8/22/74. See also Fish, the spinoff series.

Cast: Hal Linden (Barney Miller), Max Gail (Stan Wojehowicz), Abe Vigoda (Phil Fish), Jack Soo (Nick Yemana), Ron Glass (Ron Harris), Steve Landesberg (Arthur Dietrich), Ron Carey (Ron Levitt), Abby Dalton (Elizabeth Miller, pilot), Barbara Barrie (Elizabeth Miller, series), Anne Wyndham (Rachel Miller), Michael Tessier (David Miller), Linda Lavin (Janet Wentworth), James Gregory (Frank Luger), Alex Henteloff (Arnold Ripner).

600 The Baron. (Series; Drama; ABC; 1966). John Mannering is a wealthy American antique dealer, known as "The Baron," who has set up a shop in London, England. Because of his expert knowledge of antiques, John has been recruited by the British government to investigate crimes associated with the art world. Stories, which are set in London, relate John, and his assistant, British agent Cordelia Winfield's efforts to nab the unscrupulous people who seek the world's greatest art treasures for themselves (or the money that can be made by selling them to rich collectors). Templeton Greene is John's contact at British Intelligence; David Marlowe assists John at his shop.

Cast: Steve Forrest (John Mannering), Sue Lloyd (Cordelia Winfield), Colin Gordon (Templeton Greene), Paul Ferris (David Marlowe).

601 Barrier Reef. (Series; Adventure; NBC; 1971–1972). Australia is the setting for a series about the explorations of the marine biologists assigned to investigate and study the Great Barrier Reef; their ship is The Endeavor.

Cast: Joe James (Captain Chet King), Ken James (Kip King), Rowena Wallace (Tracy Dean), Richard Meikle (Joe Francis), Howard Hopkins (Steve Goba), Ihab Nafa (Dr. Elizabeth Hanna), Elli MacLure (Diana Parker), Susanna Brett (Elizabeth Grant), Peter Adams (Ken), George Assang (Jack), Peter Carver (Professor Barnard).

602 Barrington. (Pilot; Crime Drama; CBS; 7/10/87). A Burke's Law type of proposal about James Cabot Barrington III, heir to a fabulous fortune who is also chief of the King's Bay Village Police Department. In the pilot episode, Barrington tries to help a government-protected witness (Mandy Keeler), whose cover has been blown. Other Regulars: Julia, James's mother; Kelsey Baker, a reporter; Officer Glenda Davis; and Katherine, the Barrington housekeeper.

Cast: Matt Salinger (James Cabot Barrington III), Barbara Bain (Julia Barrington), Chelsea Field (Kelsey Baker), Salome Jens (Officer Glenda Davis), Beah Richards (Katherine). Guest Cast: Andrea Marcovici (Mandy Keeler), Robert Beltran (Thunder), Ian McShane (Marbury), Madeleine Sherwood (Emily Wells), Bill Morey (Sy Wells), Lee deBroux (Bartender), D.D. Howard (Muffy).

603 Barry and Buck. (Unaired Pilot; Comedy; Produced for NBC in 1992). A proposed series about two longtime rivals (Barry and Buck) who join forces to operate a gas station. Bill Nunn played Barry and David Keith was Buck. The idea was created by executive producer Ken Estin.

604 Bat Masterson. (Series; Western; NBC; 1958–1961). “Back when the west was very young, there lived a man named Masterson; he wore a cane and derby hat, the called him Bat, Bat Masterson.” The series, set in the territory from Kansas to California during the 1880s, depicts events in the life of William Barclay Masterson, a wandering law enforcer “who became a legend in his own time” (Bat, always dressed as a gentleman and whom no one would ever assume to be a lawman, would only shoot to kill if he had no other choice). Legend associates him with several trademarks: a gold-tipped cane, a derby hat, and a custom-built gun, items presented to him by the citizens of Dodge City during his reign as sheriff (in reality, Masterson was injured — shot in the pelvis — when involved in a love triangle. A limp resulted and he needed a cane to walk). Based on the book by Richard O’Connor.

Cast: Gene Barry (Bat Masterson). Announcer-Narrator: Bill Baldwin.

605 Bates Motel. (Pilot; Comedy-Drama; NBC; 7/5/87). An unsold series based on the 1960 feature film Psycho. In 1960, the murderous Norman Bates is captured and brought to justice. He is placed in the Dunsmore Sanitarium where he befriends Alex West, a young emotionally disturbed boy. As the years pass, the two become like father and son. Twenty-seven years later, after Norman’s death, Alex inherits Norman’s legacy, the Bates Motel in Farville, California, along with its haunted reputation and weird goings-on. The proposed series was to relate Alex’s efforts to run a hotel plagued by a bad reputation.

Cast: Bud Cort (Alex West), Lori Petty (Willie; his assistant). Guest Cast: Moses Gunn (Henry Watson), Gregg Henry (Tom Fuller), Kerrie Keane (Barbara Peters), Jason Bateman (Tony Scotti), Robert Picardo (Dr. Goodman), Lee deBroux (Sheriff), Kurt Paul (Norman Bates), Marla Frumkin (Dr. Phillips), Timothy Paul (Terry Miller), Kelly Ames (Beth), Peter Dobson (Billy Parks), Scott James (Radio reporter).

606 Batfink. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1966). Batfink is a bat with wings of steel. He is assisted by Karate and stories relate their battle against the sinister forces of evil. Batfink and Karate travel in their car, the Batalack. The takeoff on “Batman” produced 100 episodes.

Voice Cast: Frank Buxton (Batfink), Len Maxwell (Karate).

607 Batgirl. (Unaired Pilot; Adventure; Produced for ABC in 1968). A proposed spinoff from Batman about “a dazzling dare doll” called Batgirl. Barbara Gordon lives in Gotham City. She is the beautiful daughter of Police Commissioner Gordon and has just completed college. She is working at the Gotham City Library and her hero is Batman. Barbara also has a secret — she is the mysterious Batgirl, a daring crime fighter who would have had her own series had the idea sold (when it didn’t sell, Batgirl was incorporated into last season episodes of Batman). Barbara has a secret room in the Gotham City Library that conceals her Batgirl costume (which she patterned after Batman). In addition to the Batgirl Cycle, Barbara has an electronic compact equipped with a deadly laser beam. In the pilot episode, Batgirl helps Batman and Robin defeat the evil Killer Moth and his Moth Men (who planned to kidnap Bruce Wayne’s wealthy friend, Roger Monross). There are no cast or credits listed on the screen; regulars from Batman appeared to help Yvonne Craig launch her series.

Cast: Yvonne Craig (Barbara Gordon/Batgirl), Adam West (Batman), Burt Ward (Robin).

608 Batman. (Series; Adventure; ABC; 1966–1968). Gotham City is a metropolis like no other. While populated by hard working people, it is also home to diabolical villains who seek to conquer it. One person, however, stands in their way — Batman, a mysterious caped crusader who risks his life to save Gotham City from evil. But who is Batman? And where did he come from? The legend begins many years ago with a ten-year-old boy named Bruce Wayne.

Bruce and his parents, millionaire Thomas Wayne and his wife, Martha, are walking home from a dinner party when they are approached by a thug. When Thomas refuses to give the thief Martha’s jewels, a scuffle ensues. Martha and Thomas are shot. The thief is about to shoot Bruce when approaching police officers scare him off. Bruce, suddenly orphaned, is determined to get even — “I swear by the spirits of my parents to avenge their deaths by spending the rest of my life fighting criminals. I will make war on crime!” Bruce lives at stately Wayne Manor in Gotham City. He is now cared for by Alfred Pennyworth, the faithful family butler. Backed by his family’s vast wealth, Bruce works in almost total isolation to become a master scientist and perfect his mental and physical skills. In time Bruce creates the world’s greatest crime lab (later to be called the Batcave) beneath Wayne Manor.

Ten years later, on the anniversary of that tragic night, Bruce feels it is now time for him to fulfill the promise he made. “I must have a disguise,” he tells Alfred. “Criminals are a superstitious, cowardly lot. So my disguise must be able to strike terror in their hearts. I must be a creature of the night, black, mysterious.” Just then, Bruce and Alfred hear a noise at the window — a bat that has been attracted by the light. “That’s it,” Bruce says, “it’s an omen; the perfect disguise. I shall become a bat!” Bruce develops his bat-like costume, utility belt and car (the Batmobile).

Batman soon becomes the legendary “Caped Crusader” for justice.

Shortly after, Bruce establishes the Wayne Foundation, a charity that sponsors worthwhile causes. One day Bruce involves himself with one of those causes — taking a group of orphans to the circus.

A high wire act called the Flying Graysons is performing without a net when the rope snaps. The ensuing fall kills the parents of young Dick Grayson.

Bruce, as Batman, investigates and discovers that racketeers sabotaged the act to force the circus owner to pay protection money. Batman approaches Dick and tells him what he has learned. He also tells him about the circumstances that led to his becoming Batman. “If only I could do something like that,” Dick says, “it will help avenge their deaths. Let me join you, please.” “With your acrobatic skills, plus with what I could teach you, maybe you can make the grade,” says Bruce.

Bruce takes on the responsibility of raising Dick and eventually becomes his legal guardian. As Dick perfects his mental and physical skills, he becomes Batman’s aide, adopting the alias of Robin, the Boy Wonder (and forming the Dynamic Duo when working as a team). As a normal teenager, Dick attends Woodrow Roosevelt High School.

Batman, hiding behind the guise of millionaire Bruce Wayne, and Robin, as his youthful ward, Dick Grayson, are fully deputized agents of the law.

In last season episodes, Batman and Robin find help in fighting crime when Batgirl suddenly appears and forms the Terrific Trio when working with them. Batgirl is in reality Barbara Gordon, the beautiful daughter of Police Commissioner Gordon. After graduating from college, Barbara returns home to take a job at the Gotham City Library. To help her father fight crime, she dons a bat-like costume and becomes Batgirl.

Barbara lives in midtown Gotham City in Apartment 8A with her pet bird, Charlie. She conceals her Batgirl costume in a secret closet behind her bedroom wall (she opens the wall with a hidden button on her vanity table). Her mode of transportation, the Batgirl Cycle, is hidden in a secret freight elevator in the back of her building. Batman and Robin (and Batgirl) work closely with Commissioner Gordon and his assistant, Police Chief O’Hara.

Based on the comic strip by Bob Kane. William Dozier does the narrating; Neil Hefti composed “The Batman Theme”; Billy May and Wally Mack, “The Batgirl Theme.”

Cast: Adam West (Bruce Wayne/Batman), Burt Ward (Dick Grayson/Robin), Yvonne Craig (Barbara Gordon/Batgirl), Neil Hamilton (Commissioner James Gordon), Alan Napier (Alfred), Madge Blake (Bruce’s aunt, Harriet Cooper), Stafford Repp (Police Chief O’Hara), Byron Keith (Mayor John Lindseed), Jean Byron (Millie Lindseed).

Villains: Burgess Meredith (The Penguin), Ethel Merman (Lola Lasagne), Cesar Romero (The Joker), Frank Gorshin (The Riddler), John Astin (The Riddler), Julie Newmar (Cat Woman), Eartha Kitt (Cat Woman), Art Carney (The Archer), Glynis Johns (Lady Penelope Peasoup), Rudy Vallee (Lord Marmaduke Ffogg), Roger C. Carmel (Colonel Gum), Tallulah Bankhead (The Black Widow), Vincent Price (Egghead), Anne Baxter (Olga), Ida Lupino (Dr. Cassandra), Howard Duff (Cabala), Malachi Throne (Falseface), Michael Rennie (The Sandman), Maurice Evans (The Puzzler), Kathleen Crowley (Sophie Starr), Liberace (Chandell), David Wayne (The Mat Hatter), George Sanders (Mr. Freeze), Eli Wallach (Mr. Freeze), Otto Preminger (Mr. Freeze), Shelley Winters (Ma Parker), Walter Slezak (The Clock King), Van Johnson (The Minstrel), Joan Collins (The Siren), Cliff Robertson (Shame), Carolyn Jones (Marsha, Queen of Diamonds), Milton Berle (Louie the Lilac), Roddy McDowall (The Bookworm), Joan Crawford (The Devil), Victor Buono (King Tut), Zsa Zsa Gabor (Minerva), Barbara Rush (Nora Clavicle).

609 The Batman. (Series; Cartoon; WB; 2004). An animated prequel to the 1966 live action series Batman that finds millionaire Bruce Wayne not yet established as Gotham City’s greatest crime fighter, Batman. Here he is defending Gotham City as the Caped Crusader and also struggling to maintain his alter ego as millionaire bachelor Bruce Wayne, who lives at stately Wayne Manor (where he is cared for by Alfred Pennyworth, the Wayne family butler. For background information and character development, see Batman (prior title). Bruce receives help from Dick Grayson, his ward (alias Robin the Boy Wonder), and Barbara Gordon, daughter of Police Commissioner James Gordon (alias Batgirl), and meets for the first time, an array of clever criminals that would become a part of his life in later years (including Cat Woman, the Joker, the Penguin and the Riddler).

Voice Cast: Rino Romano (Bruce Wayne/Batman), Evan Sabara (Dick Grayson/Robin), Danielle Judovits (Barbara Gordon/Batgirl), Alastair Duncan (Alfred Pennyworth), Mitch Pileggi (James Gordon), Ming-Na (Det. Ellen Yin), Steve Harris (Det. Ethan Bennett), Kevin Michael Richardson (The Joker), Tom Kenney (The Penguin), Adam West (Mayor Grange), Gina Gershon (Cat Woman), Clancy Brown (Mr. Freze), Robert Englund (The Riddler), Piera Coppola (Poison Ivy), Ron Perlman (Killer Croc).

610 Batman and the Super 7. (Series; Cartoon; NBC; 1980–1981). The overall title for a series of short animated segments.

Batman (Sequence 1) follows the exploits of Batman (multi-millionaire Bruce Wayne) and Robin (Dick Grayson), his ward as they battle the criminal elements in Gotham City.

Isis and the Freedom Force (Sequence 2) relates the exploits of Isis, Goddess of the Elements; Hercules, Master of Strength; Merlin the Master of Magic; Sinbad, Master of the Seven Seas; and Super Samurai, Giant of Justice.

Manta and Moray (Sequence 3) follows the adventures of two underwater crime fighters: Manta, the last living member of an ancient water-breathing civilization; and Moray, a female human who was rescued by a great whale after a shipwreck and now joins forces with Manta to battle evil.

Micro Woman and Super Stretch (Sequence 4) relates the exploits of Christy, a young girl who can change herself into Micro Woman, a microscopic-sized crime fighter, and her husband, Super Stretch, who can stretch himself into any form.

Web Woman (Sequence 5). When Kelly Webster risks her life to save a strange insect creature from drowning, she is endowed by alien beings with the power of all insects, a power she uses to combat evil.

Voice Cast: Adam West (Batman), Burt Ward (Robin), Melendy Britt (Batgirl), Lennie Weinrib (Batmite), Diane Pershing (Isis), Bob Denison (Hercules), Michael Bell (Merlin), Michael Bell (Sinbad), Michael Bell (Super Samurai), Joe Stern (Manta), Joan Van Ark (Moray), Kim Hamilton (Micro Woman), Ty Henderson (Super Stretch), Linda Gary (Web Woman).

611 Batman Beyond. (Series; Cartoon; WB; 1999–2001). A futuristic version of the Batman legend (see Batman (1966) for character information). Batman, alias millionaire Bruce Wayne, has disappeared from Gotham City. In his absence, a new ruler, Derek Power, has taken over the city and crime is on the rise. To battle the new wave of crime is Terry McGinnis, a high school student who finds and befriends Bruce Wayne. He uncovers his secret and with Bruce as his mentor, becomes the new defender of Gotham City — a youthful Batman. Barbara Gordon, alias Batgirl and the daughter of Police Commissioner James Gordon, has become the new Police Commissioner. Stories follow Terry as he struggles to defend Gotham City yet maintain his true identity as a high school student.

Voice Cast: Will Friedle (Terry McGinnis/Batman), Stockard Channing (Barbara Gordon), Angie Harmon (Barbara Gordon; later), Lauren Tom (Dana Tan), Kevin Conroy (Bruce Wayne), Cree Summer (Max Gibson), Teri Garr (Mary McGinnis), Ryan O'Donohue (Matt McGinnis), Melissa Disney (Blade), Bruce W. Timm (The Joker), Mark Jonathan Davis (Virtual Anchor), Sean Donnellan (Virtual Anchor), Sherman Howard (Derek Powers), Michael Rosenbaum (Ollie).

612 Batman Gotham Knights. (Series; Cartoon; WB; 1997–1999). A continuation of Batman: The Animated Series (see entry). The new version continues to depict Batman's battle to protect Gotham City from evil, but changes Robin the Boy Wonder to Nightwing and adds Batgirl as part of Batman's team. Alfred Pennyworth is Batman's butler; James Gordon is the Police Commissioner; villains in this version include The Penguin, Poison Ivy, Dr. Jervis Tetch and Clayface.

Voice Cast: Kevin Conroy (Bruce Wayne/Batman), Matthew Valencia (Dick Grayson/Robin), Loren Lester (Dick Grayson/Nightwing), Tara Strong (Barbara Gordon/Batgirl), Efrem Zimbalist, Jr. (Alfred Pennyworth), Bob Hastings (Commissioner James Gordon), Paul Williams (The Penguin), Roddy McDowall (Dr. Jervis Tetch), Brooks Gardner (Killer Croc), Diane Pershing (Poison Ivy), Robert Costanzo (Det. Harvey Bullock), Arleen Sorkin (Harley Quinn), Marilu Henner (Veronica Vreeland), Liane Schirmer (Det. Renee Montoya), Ron Perlman (Clayface), Mel Winkler (Lucius Fox).

613 Batman reference titles. (Series; Adventure; ABC, CBS, Fox, NBC, WB; 1966–2008). For information on the various Batman series see The Adventures of Batman and Robin, Batman (1966), The Batman (2004), Batgirl, Batman Beyond, Batman and the Super Seven, Batman Gotham Knights, Batman Beyond, The New Batman/Superman Adventures, Return to the Batcave: The Misadventures of Adam and Burt.

614 Batman: The Animated Series. (Series; Cartoon; Fox; 1992–1995). An animated series based on the comic book by Bob Kane that like the live action ABC series (1966) relates the crime-fighting exploits of Bruce Wayne, alias Batman, as he attempts to uphold the law in Gotham City (for details on Batman's evolution, see Batman (1966)). Assisting Bruce is his ward, Dick Grayson, alias Robin the Boy Wonder, and Barbara Gordon, daughter of Police Commissioner James Gordon, alias Batgirl. Villains in this series include The Riddler, Mr. Freeze, The Joker, The Penguin, The Clock King, Poison Ivy and The Mad Hatter. Last season episodes were titled The Adventures of Batman and Robin.

Voice Cast: Kevin Conroy (Bruce Wayne/Batman), Loren Lester (Dick Grayson/Robin), Joey Simmrin (Dick Grayson/Robin), Melissa Gilbert (Barbara Gordon/Batgirl), Efrem Zimbalist, Jr. (Alfred Pennyworth), Clive Revill (Alfred Pennyworth), Bob Hastings (Commissioner James Gordon), Adrienne Barbeau (Cat Woman), Paul Williams (The Penguin), Robert Costanzo (Det. Harvey Bullock), Lloyd Bochner (Mayor Hamilton Hill), Ingrid Olia (Off. Renee Montoya), Roddy McDowall (Dr. Jervis Tetch), Kate Mulgrew (Red Claw), Pat Fraley (Bat-Mite), Marilu Henner (Veronica Vreeland), Jane Allen (Summer Gleeson), Mark Hamill (Jack Napier), Brock Peters (Lucius Fox), Frank Welker (Isis the Cat), George Dzundza (Arnold Wesker), Diane Pershing (Dr. Paula Isley), John Vernon (Rupert Thorne), Arleen Sorkin (Harley Quinn).

615 Battery Park. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 2000). A different aspect of police law enforcement is seen — the comedic side (as opposed to the Law and Order type of programs that dominate the airwaves). Madeline Dunleavy is a police captain (at the Battery Park Precinct) and the lives of the men and women who work with her are depicted as they attempt to uphold the law.

Cast: Elizabeth Perkins (Madeline Dunleavy), Jacqueline Obradors (Elena Ramirez), Jay Paulson (Carl Zernial), Robert Mailhouse (Kevin Strain), Justin Louis (Ben Nolin), Bokeem Woodbine (Derek Finley).

616 Battle of the Ages. (Series; Game; DuMont; CBS; 1952). Two talent teams compete: The Show Business Veterans vs. The Youngsters (new comers to show business). The teams compete in a series of talent contests designed to determine the better of the two. Winners, who are determined by off-stage judges, receive cash prizes. The series ran on DuMont from January 1, 1952 to June 17, 1952; on CBS from September 6, 1952 to November 29, 1952.

Host: John Reed King (DuMont), Morey Amsterdam (CBS). Announcer: Norman Brokenshire, Arthur Van Horn.

617 Battle of the Beat. (Pilot; Contest; Syn.; 1/83). Three new recording groups appear on the program and are judged (by a celebrity panel) on the basis of music, showmanship and performance. Winners receive a two-week engagement at a famous club.

Host: Peter Noone. Regulars: The Kevin Carlisle Dancers. Guests: Susan Anton, Lee Curreri, Skip Stephenson. Announcer: Eric Chase.

618 Battle of the Las Vegas Show Girls. (Pilot; Game; Syn.; 9/81). The format has four three-member teams of Las Vegas show girls competing in various game contests with the winning team receiving a trophy and a trip to Mexico.

Hosts: Dan Pastarini, Regis Philbin. Pilot Teams: The Tropicana Hotel Follies Bergere Girls (Kim Devasino, Helen Edwards, Jane Williams), The Sands Hotel Girls (Kimberly Greenlay, Lisa Lutt, Desaree Quavos), The Rivera Hotel Girls (Geri Gauft, Beverly Malden, Robin Sharpe), The Imperial Palace Girls (Missy Drew, Melanie Greenwood, Cheryl Gurnsey).

619 Battle of the Planets. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1978). G-Force is a five-member team that is part of Center Neptune, an Earth-based defense organization. 7-Zark-7 heads the unit and team members are Mark, Princess, Koep, Jason and Tiny. Stories relate their battle against Zoltar, leader of the planet Spectre, and his power-mad attempts to control the universe.

Voice Cast: Alan Young (7-Zark-7), Keye Luke (Zoltar), Casey Kasem (Mark), Janet Waldo (Princess), Ronnie Schell (Koep), Ronnie Schell (Jason), Alan Dinehart (Tiny).

620 Battle Toads. (Pilot; Cartoon; Fox; 11/26/92). The Dark Queen is an evil being seeking to control the universe. When the story begins, she is pursuing the beautiful Princess Angelica, the last star child of an unknown race. (The Queen is seeking Angelica's powerful Galatico Amulet.) The protectors of this race were the Battle Toads, mighty warriors who were destroyed eons ago. But hope is not lost. Angelica's aide, Professor T-Bird, possesses a rare bottle of Essence of Battle Toad, which can create a new generation of warriors. All the professor needs is volunteers — "But where do we get them," asks Angelica. T-Bird tells her about a remote planet called Earth, a planet so backward that the Queen never bothered to conquer it. Through the use of his tele-transporter, Angelica and T-Bird are swept through time and materialize on Earth in front of Morgan Ziegler, Dave Shorr and George Pye, three losers who attend the Waldo P. Oxnard Jr. High School in Oxnard, California. Angelica explains her predicament and the boys agree to help her. The boys are given the Essence of Battle Toad and transformed into mighty warriors. Angelica then bestows upon them the ancient names of honor: Zit (Morgan), Rash (Murray) and Dimple (George). They can return to their normal selves simply by thinking themselves normal. The unsold series was to relate their battle against the Dark Queen.

Voices: Kathleen Barr, Mike Donovan, Lalainia Lindbjerg, Scott McNeil.

621 Battles: The Murder That Wouldn't Die. (Pilot; Crime Drama; NBC; 3/9/80). William F. Battles is a former Los Angeles policeman-turned football coach and security guard for Hawaii State University in Aloha, Hawaii. The unsold series was to follow Battles as he uses his former training as a cop to help the police solve baffling crimes. In the pilot episode, Battles attempts to solve a 38-year-old murder case.

Other Regulars: Shelby, his niece; Joe, Shelby's boyfriend; Nancy, the college dean; Jack, the head coach; Tuli, a member of the football team; and Lieutenant Frank Fowler.

Cast: William Conrad (William F. Battles), Robin Mattson (Shelby Battles), Lane Caudell (Joe "Deacon" Johnson), Marj Dusay (Dean Nancy Phillips), Roger Bowen (Jack Spaulding), Jimmy Bowles (Frank Fowler), Tommy Aguilar (Tuli). Guest Cast: Edward Binns (Alan Battles), Jose Ferrer (Jeff Briggs), Don Porter (Rocky Jensen), John Hillerman (Paul Harrison), Sharon Acker (Jill Spencer), Ben Piazza (Dr. John Spencer), Ken Tobey (Chuck Parks).

622 Battlestar Galactica. (Series; Science Fiction; ABC; 1978–1979). In a galaxy far beyond our own, 12 colony planets evolved from a mother planet called Cobor: Aries, Taura, Gemins, Canca, Lea, Vargus, Libra, Scorpios, Sagitari, Caprica, Aquara and Picon (named after the signs of the zodiac). In this same galaxy, on the planet Cylon, the inhabitants (reptilian creatures) create a race of highly sophisticated robots, patterned after the human form, called Cylons. It is not explained how, but the live Cylon race died off, leaving the robots to live on and become a mortal threat to the 12 colony planets.

When the series begins, it is the seventh millennium of time. The Colonials (the inhabitants of the 12 planets) and the Cylons have been engaged in a thousand year war that erupted when the Imperious Leader of the Cylon Empire began the subjugation of the human race. The Cylons detest the human race and its principles of freedom and independence and the ability to resist repression. To them, it is an alien way of existing and can never be accepted.

In a final attempt to end the war, the Imperious Leader recruits Baltar, commander of the planet Vargus, with a promise to make him the leader of the entire human race once the Cylons conquer it. Baltar betrays the Colonials. He arranges a special meeting of the colony planet leaders, the Forum of the Twelve.

The leaders gather aboard the presidential battlestar ship, the Atlantia. The Atlantia is under heavy protection, with all the colony planet spaceships and battlestars surrounding it. As Baltar presents the Cylons' proposals to the forum (to surrender their weapons and live in peace), Adama, commander of the planet Caprica, becomes distrustful of Baltar. Adama, however, is unable to convince the other members of the forum.

Just as Adama returns to the command of his battlestar ship, the Galactica, he receives reports of approaching Cylon warships. The Cylons' devious plan has been put into action: to attack both the star fleet ships and the unprotected colony planets. The humans launch a counterattack, but it is too late. The 1,000 Cylon ships destroy the Atlantia (Baltar escapes "just in time"), most of the colonial fighters — and the 12 home planets.

The Galactica is the only surviving battlestar ship, and only 67 star fighters remain intact.

On the Galactica, Adama, now the supreme ruler, tells his people that they have a chance for survival — on their thirteenth colony, a world called Earth." Stories follow the Colonials (also called Galacticans) on a hazardous journey across the universe, seeking to avoid the Cylons as they search for Earth.

Rising Star and Colonial Movers are two of the ships that follow the Galactica. Adama's late wife (killed in the war but seen only in a photo) was named Lila. Captain Apollo is Adama's first-born child and leader of the fighter squadron; Lieutenant Starbuck, Adama's second-born son, is an ace fighter pilot who is also a con artist, ladies' man and gambler. They are both Colonial Warriors. Adama's youngest son, Zack, was killed in the initial battle; his beautiful daughter, Athena, now works by his side.

Cassiopeia, whose name means "Fairy Queen," is Starbuck's romantic interest. She was a socialator (a high class call-girl) and objects to Starbuck smoking cigars ("Do you have to smoke those weeds?"). Young Boxey and his mother are two survivors who are now part of the Galactica's crew; Boxey has a doglike drone called Muffet. Lieutenant Boomer, Flight Sergeant Jolly and Colonel Tigh are the other crew members.

Cylon warriors, named Raiders, pilot ships called Vipers. Baltar must now deliver the Galactica to the Imperious Leader or forfeit his life.

After many years in space, the Galactica reaches Earth in the year 1980. Thus was born the series Galactica 1980. See this title for information.

Cast: Lorne Greene (Commander Adama), Richard Hatch (Captain Apollo), Maren Jensen (Athena), Dirk Benedict (Lieutenant Starbuck), Herb Jefferson, Jr. (Lieutenant Boomer), Terry Carter (Colonel Tigh), Tony Swartz (Flight Sgt. Jolly), Noah Hathaway (Boxey), Jane Seymour (Boxey's mother), Ed Begley, Jr. (Sergeant Greenbean), Laurette Spang (Cassiopeia), Anne Lockhart (Sheba), Sarah Rush (Rigel), Randi Oakes (Galactica Member), Jennifer Joseph (Galactica Member), Leann Hunley (Galactica Member), Millicent Crisp (Galactica Member), Cathy Pine (Voice of Cora the Computer), Rick Springfield (Lieutenant Zac), David Greenan (Bridge Officer Omega), George Murdock (Dr. Salik), David Matthau (Galactica Member), Sheila DeWindt (Di-etra), Dick Durock (Imperious Leader), Janet Lyn Curtis (Sorrell), Larry Manetti (Giles), John Colicos (Baltar), Patrick Macnee (Voice of Imperious Cylon Leader), Jonathan Harris (Voice of Lucifer), Chip Johnson (Cylon Warrior), Jeffrey Binney (Cylon Warrior), Paul Coufas (Cylon Pilot), Bruce Wright (Cylon Deck Hand). Narrator: Patrick Macnee. Theme Song: "Galactica" by Glen A. Larson.

623 Battlestar Galactica. (Series; Science Fiction; Sci Fi; 2004). An update (and continuation) of ABC's Battlestar Galactica. After the evil, warring Cylon robots (of the Cylon Empire) destroy 12 of the 13 planets of a faraway galaxy, the surviving members board a gigantic battlestar spaceship, the Galactica and begin a search to find their 13th colony, the planet Earth. Stories follow their hazardous journey as they continually battle the pursuing Cylons in an attempt to preserve human kind.

William Adama commands the Galactica. He is a seasoned veteran (having fought in a prior war against the Cylons) and is eager to avenge the deaths of billions killed by the Cylons. He is estranged from his son, Lee, who blames his father for the death of his brother, Zak.

Lee is a Viper pilot (Vipers protect the Galactica from warring Cylons). Although bitter, Lee has put his grudge aside to fight by his father's side. Laura Roslin is a Kobol education secretary who is 43rd in line to succeed the president should anything happen to the world leader. She has since become the president when the Cylon attack annihilated the human government. Laura is tough, intelligent and decisive and has an uneasy relationship with Adama. She forced him to abandon his desire to destroy the Cylon Empire and flee to deep space to preserve human kind.

Kara "Starbuck" Thrace is a Viper pilot. She is a bit of a loner but also rebellious and tough and a daring fighter when it comes to protecting Galactica.

Sharon "Boomer" Valerii is a Viper pilot who has just graduated from flight school but is still a bit wet behind the ears as she is not totally sure of herself. She is the guardian of Boxey, a young boy she rescued after the Cylons attacked Caprica City.

Dr. Gaius Baltar heads the Galactica research center. He is actually a traitor and has a link with the Cylon's. He was a computer technology designer for the planet Kobol who fell in love with Number 6, a woman he later discovers is a humanoid Cylon. Her knowledge enabled the Cylons to destroy Kobol. Baltar escaped the destruction and found refuge on Galactica.

Cast: Edward James Olmos (Admiral William Adama), Katee Sackhoff (Capt. Kara "Starbuck" Thrace), Mary McDonnell (Pres. Laura Roslin), Tricia Helfer (Number 6), Grace Park (Lt. Sharon "Boomer" Valerii), Jamie Bamber (Capt. Lee "Apollo" Adama), Jamie Callis (Dr. Gaius Baltar), Aaron Douglas (Off. Galen Tyrol), Michael Hogan (Col. Saul Tigh), Tahmoh Penikett (Lt. Karl C. Agathon), Kandyse McClure (Off. Anastasia Duall), Alessandro Julian (Lt. Felix Gaeta), Nicki Clyne (Specialist Cally), Bodie Olmos (Brendan "Hot Dog" Costanza), Paul Campbell (Billy Keikeya), Donnelly Rhodes (Dr. Cottle), Leah Cairns (Lt. Margaret "Racetrack" Edmanson), Luciana Carro (Lt. Louanne "Kat" Katrinae), Richard Hatch (Tom Zarek), Michael Trucco (Samuel Anders), Kate Vernon (Ellen Tigh), Lucy Lawless (D'Anna Biers), Matthew Bennett (Aaron Doral).

624 Battlestars. (Series; Game; NBC; 1981–1982). Two contestants compete. Six celebrities appear in an electronic triangle. Each meeting point of the triangle contains a number from one through ten. The numbers are scrambled and one player (flip of coin first show; champion thereafter) hits a plunger to stop one number from rotating. A celebrity is pinpointed and a question is read to him. The celebrity chooses one of the two answers that appear on his monitor. The player agrees or disagrees with the celebrity. A correct guess wins the player the exposed number and a triangle position. An incorrect guess allows the opponent a turn at play. The game continues in this manner until one contestant captures six celebrities (wins six triangles). The champion receives $1,000 and competes until defeated by another player.

Host: Alex Trebek. Announcer: Rod Roddy. Music: Mort Garson.

625 Battletech. (Series; Cartoon; Fox; 1995). In a futuristic era, mysterious alien invaders called Clans begin a plan of destruction to conquer the universe and take control of the planet Terra. Battling the Clans is Major Adam Steiner, the head of an elite team of warriors called the First Somerset Strikers (named after Adam's home planet of Somerset). Stories follow Adam's efforts to defeat the Clans, especially Nicholai Malthus, head of the Clan Jade Falcon.

Voices: Peter Spellos, Doug Stone, Christina Forrest, Mark McAffey, Roxxy Dakota, Richard Dean, Steve Kramer, Sean Bushie, Keith Chihara.

626 The Baxters. (Series; Drama; Syn.; 1979). A half-hour series that is divided into two parts. The first half dramatizes events in the lives of the Baxters, a family of five living in St. Louis. Nancy and Fred are the parents; Naomi, Jonah and Rachele are their children. The remaining 15 minutes is turned over to each local station that is airing the program. A local host conducts a debate with a studio audience about the context of the drama. See next title also.

Cast: Anita Gillette (Nancy Baxter), Larry Keith (Fred Baxter), Derin Altay (Naomi Baxter), Chris Petersen (Jonah Baxter), Terri Lynn Wood (Rachele Baxter).

627 The Baxters. (Series; Drama; Syn.; 1980). A revised version of the 1979 series The Baxters that eliminates the audience debate segment and devotes a full half-hour to exploring the lives of the Baxters, a middle-class family of five living in St. Louis, Missouri. Jim and Suzie are the parents; Alison, Lucy and Greg are their children. The series is taped in Canada.

Cast: Sean McCann (Jim Baxter), Terry Tweed (Suzie Baxter), Marianne McIsaac (Alison Baxter), Megan Follows (Lucy Baxter), Sammy Snyder (Greg Baxter).

628 The Bay City Amusement Company. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 7/28/77). A behind-the-scenes look at life in a television station as seen through the antics of the creative staff of The Bay City Amusement Company, a local comedy series in San Francisco. The station is owned by Tex Bradshaw, a former cowboy star; Clifford Ranks is the producer and Howie Munson is the writer. The talent consists of a married couple (Ann and Alan Handley), Warren Ferguson, a comic who yearns to be a dramatic actor; and Gail Scott, a young comedienne.

Cast: Barrie Youngfellow (Ann Handley), Ted Gehring (Tex Bradshaw), Dennis Howard (Alan Handley), Pat McCormick (Howie Munson), Terry Kiser (Clifford Ranks), June Gable (Gail Scott), Jim Scott (Warren Ferguson).

629 Bay City Blues. (Series; Comedy-Drama; NBC; 1983–1984). The series, set in Bay City, California, follows the trials, tribulations, loves and adventures of the members of the Bluebirds, a minor league baseball team.

Team members include John “Frenzy” Nuckles, Ozzie Peoples, Terry St. Marie, Angelo Carbone, Lynwood Scott, Rocky Padillo, Lee Jacoby, DeeJay Cunningham and Vic Kresky. Joe Rohner is the team manager; Ray Holtz is the team owner. Lynn Holtz is Ray’s wife; Judy Nuckles is John’s wife; Cathy St. Marie is Terry’s wife; Sunny Hayward is Joe’s mistress. Bird is the team mascot.

Cast: Perry Lang (John Nuckles), Bernie Casey (Ozzie Peoples), Patrick Cassidy (Terry St. Marie), Dennis Franz (Angelo Carbone), Larry Flash Jenkins (Lynwood Scott), Ken Olin (Rocky Padillo), Tony Spiridakis (Lee Jacoby), Mykelti Williamson (DeeJay Cunningham), Jeff McCracken (Vic Kresky), Marco Rodriguez (Bird), Michael Nouri (Joe Rohner), Pat Corley (Ray Holtz), Sheree North (Lynn Holtz), Michele Greene (Judy Nuckles), Sharon Stone (Cathy St. Marie), Kelly Harmon (Sunny Hayward), Doug Franklin (Umpire).

630 The Bay City Rollers Show. (Series; Variety; ABC; 1978–1979). The program features music, songs and comedy geared to children with the rock group, the Bay City Rollers serving as the hosts. The series was originally titled The Krofft Superstar Hour and broadcast on Saturday mornings. Alvin J. Tenzer, Jack Regas, Sid Krofft and Marty Krofft are the producers.

Hosts: The Bay City Rollers. Regulars: Billie Hayes, Jay Robinson, Billy Barty, Paul Gale, Sharon Baird, Patty Maloney, Louise Duart, Micky McMeel, Van Snowden. Music: Tommy Oliver.

631 Bay City Story. (Pilot; Crime Drama; ABC; 7/31/91). “Trouble has a magnet for Malone” says Sarah Parker, a Harvard graduate who now works as a researcher for Jim Malone, a hard-hitting investigative reporter for KQSF-TV, Channel 3 in San Francisco (he anchors “The News 3 Report”).

The unsold series was to follow their relentless investigations as they seek the people and events that make the news. In the pilot episode, Jim and Sarah seek the killer of a fellow reporter. Other Regulars: Muffy, the tape editor; and Allison, the producer.

Cast: William Russ (Jim Malone), Cheryl Pollak (Sarah Parker), Jean Mountanti (Muffy Giordano), Ann Block (Allison Conroy). Guest Cast: Paul Regina (Tony Chefulu), Squire Fridell (Douglas Turner), Mark Leigh Stevens (H.T. Harlow), Mollie Stickney (Flower girl), Nathaniel Roberts (Fowler), Rachel York (Marcie Fenner), Liza Hella (Sally Turner).

632 Baywatch. (Series; Drama; NBC; Syn.; NBC; 1989–1999). The work of lifeguards attached to the Baywatch outpost at Malibu Beach in California is the focal point of the series. Mitch Buchannon is the chief lifeguard. He is divorced from Gayle and the father of Hobie (who later becomes a lifeguard). Dan Thorpe is the Captain with the Los Angeles County Lifeguards and head of the Baywatch unit; Lieutenant Ben Edwards assists him (Mitch later becomes a lieutenant and heads the unit). Eddie Kramer, Craig Pomeroy, Matt Brody, Cody Madison, Mike “Newmie” Newman, Manny Gutierrez and Jack “J.D.” Darius are the other featured male lifeguards.

In addition to the beach scenes, the bikini-clad background girls and the daring ocean rescues, the girls of Baywatch were the show’s main attraction. The principal “Baywatch Babes” (as they were dubbed) are:

April Giminski. April was a young woman who gave of herself to help others. She is not as busty as her counterparts but never let that bother her. She was born in Wisconsin and had her first experience as a lifeguard at Lake Watanabe.

Caroline Holden. Caroline is the strikingly beautiful sister of senior lifeguard Stephanie Holden. She is very sweet and sensitive and easily hurt. In the tradition of most Baywatch girls, she wears tight, cleavage-revealing swimsuits. Caroline had aspirations to become an actress and left when she acquired a role on the soap opera Shannon’s Hope.

C.J. Parker. Casey Jean, who prefers to be called C.J., is the bustiest of the girls (38-D) and “wherever C.J. goes, men are not far behind.” C.J. uses her stunning figure to get what she wants. Although she appears to be a dumb blonde type, she sheds that image when it comes to saving lives; she sometimes breaks the Baywatch rules and risks her life for others.

Donna Marco. Donna uses the name D.J. “because it makes business easier.” She is a glamorous and wealthy businesswoman who owned a nightclub called Nights (on the Baywatch spinoff Baywatch Nights). When the spinoff ended Donna became a lifeguard. She is very athletic and knows she has a great body. She almost lost her job when she posed nude for Playboy magazine (she used her Baywatch swimwear and presented the wrong lifeguard image; lifeguards are role models).

Jesse Owens. Jesse is the liveliest of the girls. She began working at Baywatch headquarters as a janitor to pay for her lessons in stunt work for movies and TV. One day while walking on the beach she performed a rescue and disappeared after doing so. She did this several times more and gained a reputation as a girl who comes from out of nowhere to save people. When Mitch discovered her secret he convinced her to become a lifeguard.

Jill Riley. Jill was one of the first Baywatch girls. She was born in Wisconsin and grew up as a tomboy. She shared Outpost 27 with Mitch and always gave of herself to help others. She was never careless; she always figured out the best approach before entering the water. During a shark sighting that threatened a group of children, Jill was attacked by a shark and later died as a result of her injuries.

Lani McKenzie. Lailani, nicknamed Lani, was more of a dancer than a lifeguard. She spent her free time practicing to achieve her dream of dancing. She was born in Hawaii and has a fiery temper. Lani earned money moonlighting as a dancer (under the name Kyla) at the Club Rio and later moved to New York to further her career.

Neely Capshaw. Neely was the girl you love to hate. She had to have what she wanted and didn't care who she hurt to get. She was cold and calculating and a great schemer. Neely is gorgeous and knew her looks could get her out of trouble. She defied rules and later left Baywatch to become a businesswoman. Neely always has to be the star attraction wherever she goes. However, when there was a crisis, Neely would risk her life to save a drowning victim.

Shauni McLain. Shauni was the first of the new lifeguards when the series switched from NBC to syndication. She is the daughter of wealthy parents and commands Outpost 17. She began a relationship with fellow lifeguard Eddie Kramer and married him in 1992. She left the series when she learned she was pregnant and she and Eddie moved to Australia to raise a family.

Stephanie Holden. Stephanie, the older, domineering sister of Caroline Holden, is tall and slender but not as busty as Caroline. She is almost all work and no play and was the only female lifeguard to move up in the ranks (to lieutenant). Stephanie was well versed in all operations of Baywatch and headed the Junior Lifeguards (trains teenage girls). In 1997 during a cruise, Stephanie is killed when a mast, broken during a storm, falls on her.

Summer Quinn. Roberta Quinn is a beautiful teenage rookie lifeguard who likes to be called Summer. She was born in Pittsburgh and drifted to California with her mother (Jackie Quinn). Summer is 17 years old and attends Malibu Beach High School. She is the youngest of the girls and quite heroic. She left Baywatch when she enrolled in Penn State College.

Female lifeguards Jordan Tate and Samantha Thomas are gorgeous women who abided by the safety rules Mitch established but followed C.J.'s lead for wearing revealing swimsuits. The series aired on NBC from 1989–1990; and in syndication from 1991–1999. See also Baywatch: Hawaii, Baywatch: Hawaiian Wedding and Baywatch Nights.

Cast: David Hasselhoff (Mitch Buchannon), Shawn Weatherly (Jill Riley), Erika Eleniak (Shauni McClain), Parker Stevenson (Craig Pomeroy), Billy Warlock (Eddie Kramer), Nicole Eggert (Summer Quinn), Alexandra Paul (Stephanie Holden), David Charvet (Matt Brody), Kelly Packard (April Giminiski), Yasmine Bleeth (Caroline Holden), Pamela Anderson (C.J. Parker), Donna D'Errico (Donna Marco), Carmen Electra (Lani McKenzie), Gena Lee Nolin (Neely Capshaw), Monte Markham (Capt. Don Thorpe), Michael Bergin (Jack "J.D." Darius), Traci Bingham (Jordan Tate), Angelica Bridges (Lt. Taylor Walsh), Nancy Valen (Capt. Samantha Thomas), Skylar Bergman (Marliece Andrada), David Chokachi (Cody Madison), Holly Gagnier (Gina Pomeroy; Craig's wife), Mitzi Kapture (Alexis "April" Ryker), Richard Jaeckel (Lt. Ben Edwards), John Allen Nelson (John D. Cort), Tom Metigue (Harvey Miller), Michael Newman (Mike "Newmie" Newman), Peter Phelps (Trevor Cole), Kelly Slater (Jimmy Slade), Jose Solano (Manny Gutierrez), Jason Simmons (Logan Fowler), Susan Anton (Jackie Quinn), Dirk Benedict (Aaron Brody, Matt's father); Josette Prevost (Vivian Brody, Matt's mother). NBC Theme: "The Theme from Baywatch," vocal by Peter Cetera. Syndicated Theme: "I'm Always Here" (opening vocal by Jim Jamison); and "Current of Love" (closing vocal by David Hasselhoff).

633 Baywatch Hawaii. (Series; Drama; Syn.; 1999–2001). A continuation of Baywatch that is set at a new locale in Hawaii. After leaving Los Angeles, senior lifeguard Mitch Buchannon establishes the International Training Center, a lifeguard training camp based on the North Shore of Oahu (which has the largest waves in the world). Mitch appoints 15-year veteran lifeguard Sean Monroe, from Kauai, Hawaii, as the team's leader. His lifeguards include Leigh Dyer, Jessica "Jesse" Owens, Kekoa Tonaka, Michael "Newmie" Newman, Jason Ioane, Alice Reese, Jenna Avid, Dawn Masterson and Jack "J.D." Darius.

Mitch is not as active as he was in the original series. He is around for advice and council (he still has some responsibilities in Los Angeles). Mitch, who says Hawaii has always been his place to go for excitement and relaxation, established the center to organize small teams of elite lifeguards to share their experiences to help each other. See also Baywatch: Hawaiian Wedding.

Cast: David Hasselhoff (Mitch Buchannon), Brooke Burns (Jessica "Jesse" Owens), Jason Brooks (Sean Monroe), Michael Bergin (Jack "J.D." Darius), Brande Roderick (Leigh Dyer), Stacy Kamano (Keoka Tanaka), Brandy Ledford (Dawn Masterson), Jason Momoa (Jason Ioane), Simone Mackinnon (Allie Reese), Michael Newman (Mike "Newmie" Newman), Kristan Allen (Jenna Avid).

634 Baywatch: Hawaiian Wedding. (Series Extension; Drama; Fox; 2/28/2003). Two years after the series Baywatch ended the Fox network chose to air a two-hour special that reunites some of the original cast members of both Baywatch and Baywatch Hawaii to tie up some loose ends.

Mitch Buchannon, the senior lifeguard, has retired and is now engaged to Allison Ford (played by Alexandra Paul. Alexandra played Stephanie Holden on Baywatch but her character was killed off). Allison works as a travel agent. Mitch's son, Hobie, is a lifeguard at Baywatch; C.J. Parker is now the owner of a nightclub — the Beach Turtle Bay Resort. Caroline Holden is now an actress (which was her dream from Baywatch). Neely Capshaw is now a businesswoman. Summer Quinn returned to Baywatch as a lifeguard after leaving to attend college. Aside from the reunion aspect, the story revolves around Mitch's wedding to Allison.

Cast: David Hasselhoff (Mitch Buchannon), Alexandra Paul (Allison Ford), Pamela Anderson (C.J. Parker), Yasmine Bleeth (Caroline Holden), Nicole Eggert (Summer Quinn), Carmen Electra (Lani McKenzie), Jeremy Jackson (Hobie Buchannon), Gena Lee Nolin (Neely Capshaw), Brande Roderick (Leigh Dyer), Billy Warlock (Eddie Kramer), Stacy Kamano (Keoka Tanaka), Jason Momoa (Jason Ioane), John Allen Nelson (John Cort), Angelica Bridges (Taylor Walsh).

635 Baywatch Nights. (Series; Crime Drama; Syn.; 1995–1997). An extension series based on Baywatch (see entry). When Mitch Buchannon was eight years old he saw what he considered to be the ultimate private detective movie, The Maltese Falcon. The movie so inspired Mitch that he wanted to become a private detective when he grew up. Fate, however, intervened and Mitch became a lifeguard and eventually the head of the Los Angeles Lifeguards at Baywatch.

Garner Ellerbee is a beach patrol cop and friend of Mitch's who is unhappy with his job. He yearns to become his own boss and open a private detective agency. Ryan McBride is a beautiful young private detective, newly arrived in Santa Monica from New York, who purchases the bankrupt Pine Detective Agency at 2000 Beach Boulevard over a nightclub called Nights.

Garner takes the first step by moonlighting as a private detective. When he needs help in solving a crime involving a stolen jade, he asks Mitch to assist. During their investigation they meet Ryan, who became involved in the same case when she discovered the Pine Agency was a front for a smuggling ring. They join forces, solve the case and decide to remain a team, forming the Buchannon–Ellerbee–McBride Detective Agency. After countless arguments about what to call the agency they decided to do it alphabetically. Stories follow their case investigations.

Singer Lou Raymond owns and performs at Nights. Destiny is the local beach tarot card reader who helps out at the office. She also confuses Mitch with her predictions and Mitch wishes she would come with instructions so he can understand her.

Midway through the first season, Destiny and Lou were dropped. The glamorous and wealthy D.J. Marco became the new owner of Nights and Griff Walker became the detective agency's new helper (he also owns the Griff Walker Photography Studio). D.J., whose real is Donna, uses initials "because it makes business easier."

The second season dramatically changed the series concept. Typical cases were dropped in favor of the team investigating crimes associated with the unnatural (from mutants to ghosts to genetically engineered beings). Garner was dropped in favor of a mysterious figure named Teague who hired the team (Ryan, Mitch and Griff) to investigate strange happenings. The series was abruptly cancelled shortly after. Angie Harmon's character name, Ryan McBride, is taken from the agency Frank MacBride and Peterson T. Ryan ran on the CBS series Switch (MacBride–Ryan Investigations). David Hasselhoff sings the theme, "Baywatch Nights."

Cast: David Hasselhoff (Mitch Buchannon), Angie Harmon (Ryan McBride), Greg Alan Williams (Garner Ellerbee), Lou Rawls (Lou Raymond), Lisa Stahl (Destiny), Donna D'Errico (D.J. Marco), Eddie Cibrian (Griff Walker), Dorian Gregory (Teague). Theme Vocal: "Baywatch Nights" by David Hasselhoff.

636 The B.B. Beegle Show. (Pilot; Variety; Syn.; 1/80). A proposed series, similar to The Muppet Show, wherein 51 puppets, presided over by a dog named B.B. Beegle, join guests in various comedy sketches. Joseph Barbera, Arthur Weinthal and W.C. Elliott are the producers.

Voices: Michael Bell, Norman Grohmann, Marilyn Schreffler. Guests: Joyce DeWitt, Arte Johnson. Music: Bob Buckley.

637 Be Careful What You Ask For. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 7/2/90). Comedy is mixed with reality as comedians help real life people realize their dreams (from performing as a standup comedian to piloting a plane).

Host: Ken Ober. Regulars: Charles Fleischer, Stephanie Hodge, Larry Miller, Cynthia Stevenson. Theme: "Be Careful What You Ask For" by David Darling and David Kitay.

638 Be Feminine with Hanna. (Series; Women; Syn.; 1969). A 195 episode insert series of beauty tips and advice for women. The program, which runs two minutes, is designed to be used by local stations as a filler program or incorporated into their local newscasts.

Hostess: Hanna Penrod.

639 Be Our Guest. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1960). Celebrities from all walks of life appear to display a talent that few or no people know about (from an actor singing to a dancer telling jokes). Al Singer and Perry Cross are the producers.

Hosts: George DeWitt, Keefe Brasselle. Vocalist: Mary Ann Mobley. Orchestra: Glenn Miller, Bert Farber.

640 Beach Blanket Bounty. (Pilot; Drama; ABC; 2/21/86). The pilot episode for an untitled series that was to feature the singing group Sha Na Na (Lenny, Scott, Donny, Glen, Dora, Tito, Chico and Jocko) as a down and out rock group struggling to make the big time. In the pilot episode, broadcast as a segment of The Fall Guy, the group attempts to help Colt Seavers capture an industrial spy (Cliff Hanten).

Cast: Lenny Baker (Lenny), Scott Simon (Scott), Don York (Donny), Glen Jordan (Glen), Dora Pearson (Dora), Guerlin Barry (Tito), David Ryan (Chico), John Marcellino (Jocko), Oliver Clark (Ted Winger, their agent). Guest Cast: Lee Majors (Colt Seavers), Grant Aleksander (Cliff Hanten), Pat Boone (Himself), Paul Mantee (Quinn), Rex Ryon (Max), Pamela Bach (Beach Girl #2), Sally Ann Miler (Beach Girl #1), Gerald Plummer (Waiter).

641 The Beach Girls. (Pilot; Comedy; Syn.; 12/77). Ginny Day, Sue Albright and Abby Graham are three beautiful young girls who comprise the singing group, The Beach Girls. The unsold series, set in Los Angeles, was to follow their experiences as they travel up the rocky road to stardom.

Cast: Rita Wilson (Ginny Day), Kim O'Brien (Sue Albright), Ava Lazar (Abby Graham), Don Calfa (Sonny Pink, their agent).

642 Beach Girls. (Series; Drama; Lifetime; 2005). Hubbard's Point is a small, secluded beach town. One summer in 1985 three teenage girls (Emma, Maddie and Stevie) make a vow of eternal friendship. The years pass and the girls remain friends but eventually go their separate ways. When one of the girls (Emma) dies in 2005, her husband, Jack Kilvert, and his teenage daughter, Nell, return to Hubbard's Point to seek a connection with her life through Maddie and Stevie. Stories, presented in a serial-like format, relate the conflicts that befall Maddie and Stevie, as well as Jack and Nell, as events from the past come to light in the present. The series ran from July 31, 2005 to August 28, 2005.

Cast: Rob Lowe (Jack Kilvert), Chelsea Hobbs (Nell Kilvert), Katherine Asby (Maddie), Julia Osmond (Stevie), Meredith Henderson (Young Maddie), Maggie Castle (Young Stevie), Cloris Leachman (Aunt Aida), Kristin Adams (Clare), Kristin Hage (Skye), Adam MacDonald (Marty), Tyler Gallagher (Marsh Nevine), Chris Carmack (Cooper Morgensthal), Hayley Tyson (Bay McCabe).

643 Beach Patrol. (Pilot; Crime Drama; ABC; 4/30/79). Jan Plummer, Marty Green, Earl Hackman and Russ Patrick are a four-member team who comprise the Beach Patrol, a unit of the San Gabriel Police Department. The unsold series was to relate their experiences as they patrol and protect the beaches of southern California. The pilot episode relates Jan's efforts to apprehend the drug kingpin who put a contract out on her life.

Cast: Christine DeLisle (Jan Plummer), Jonathan Frakes (Marty Green), Richard Hill (Earl Hackman), Robin Strand (Russ Patrick), Michael Gregory (Sergeant Lou Markowski, their superior). Guest Cast: Paul Burke (Wes Dobbs), Mimi Maynard (Wanda), Princess O'Mahoney (Tall girl), Michael V. Gazzo (Banker), Panchito Gomez (Wild boy).

644 Beach Patrol. (Series; Reality; Court TV; 2006). The work of lifeguards is profiled, here those attached to the city of San Francisco. In addition to saving drowning victims, the program shows the lifeguards keeping the beaches safe, helping the police investigate crimes (murder and missing person) and performing land rescue missions.

Lifeguards: Chris Ingalls, Casey Owens, John Kerr, Bill Bender, Mike Cranston.

645 The Beachcomber. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1961). Pressured by society, John Lackland, a wealthy merchandising executive, leaves San Francisco and retreats to Amura, an island paradise in the South Pacific. Adopting the life style of a beachcomber, he searches for the true meaning of life. Stories relate his efforts, which are sidetracked by helping people he finds in trouble. The series was re-syndicated in 1979 as Mystery Adventure: The Beachcomber. Captain Huckabee is John's friend; Andrew Crippen is the island Commissioner; Tarmu is Andrew's houseboy; Reverend Snow is the island priest; Alfie is John's bartender friend; and Kallea is John's friend.

Cast: Cameron Mitchell (John Lackland), Don Megowan (Captain Huckabee), Sebastian Cabot (Andrew Crippen; series), Edmond Mills (Andrew Crippen; pilot), Jerry Summers (Tarmu), Stan Josol (Kallea), George Mitchell (Reverend Snow), Bill Hess (Alfy). Narrator: Cameron Mitchell.

646 Beachhead at Louie's. (Experimental; Drama; NBC; 9/16/45). A television adaptation of the World War II radio play about a bar (Louie's) in Europe where American servicemen would go to relax and work out their problems.

Cast: Joseph Marion (Shorty), Emily Ross (Mother), Julian Scanlon (Jim), Mary Barthelme (Nurse), Ronnie Gibson (Entertainer), Jay Norris (Friend). Also: Ken Best, Diane Courtney, Douglas Gordon, Bernard Hoffman, Arthur Honeycutt, Joseph Julian, Emily Ross, Marion Scanlon, Kenneth Tower.

647 Beacon Hill. (Series; Drama; CBS; 1975). The series, set in Boston during the 1920s, dramatizes incidents in the lives of the Lassiters, a powerful Irish-American family, and their servants, Irish immigrants, who live with them in a fashionable home on Louisburgh Square. Based on the British series Upstairs, Downstairs.

Benjamin Lassiter is the head of the family, a prestigious lawyer. He is married to Mary and they are the parents of Emily, Maude, Rosamond, Fawn and Robert. Emily is married to Trevor; Betsy is her daughter. Richard is married to Maude. Mr. Hacker is the head butler; Emmaline is his wife. William Piper is the cook; Brian Mallory is the chauffeur; Kate, Maureen and Eleanor are maids; Terrence is Hacker's assistant. Doreen is Emmaline's niece.

Cast: Stephen Elliott (Benjamin Lassiter), Nancy Marchand (Mary Lassiter), DeAnn Mears (Emily Bullock), Ray Cooper (Trevor Bullock), Linda Purl (Betsy Bullock), Maeve McGuire (Maude Palmer), Edward Herrmann (Richard Palmer), Kitty Wynn (Rosamond Lassiter), David Dukes (Robert Lassiter), Kathryn Walker (Fawn Lassiter), George Rose (Mr. Hacker), Beatrice Straight (Emmaline Hacker), Richard Ward (William Piper), Paul Rudd (Brian Mallory), David Rounds (Terrence O'Hara), Sydney Swire (Eleanor), Susan Blanchard (Maureen), Lisa Pelikan (Kate), Anna Levine (Doreen Gallagher).

648 The Beagles. (Series; Cartoon; CBS; ABC; 1966–1968). Stringer and Tubby are canines who comprise The Beagles, a rock and roll group. Stories relate their mishaps as they perform for their fans. The series, which produced 36 episodes, ran on CBS from September 6, 1966 to September 2, 1967; and on ABC from September 9, 1967 to September 7, 1968.

Voice Cast: Sandy Becker (Stringer), Allen Swift (Tubby), Kenny Delmar (Narrator).

649 Beakman's World. (Series; Children; Syn.; 1992). An entertaining series that uses humorous demonstrations to explain science to children. A rather off-center host, Professor Beakman, explains, in simplistic terms, how science affects everybody in their daily lives (for example, how a light bulb works). He provides working models of the item he is demonstrating as well as telling children how they can make their own scientific experiments at home. The inquisitive Josie and a rodent named Lester assist him. Also seen are Herb and Don, the puppet penguins who have their own say on what the Professor does.

Cast: Paul Zaloom (Professor Beakman), Alanna Ubach (Josie), Mark Ritts (Lester), Alan Bareman (Voice of Herb), Bert Berdis (Voice of Don).

650 The Bean Show. (Pilot; Variety; CBS; 9/7/64). A proposed but unsold series of music and comedy sketches with comedian Orson Bean and a cast of regulars. Jim McGinn is the producer.

Host: Orson Bean. Regulars: Arlene Golonka, Mina Kolb, Dick Schaal, Avery Schreiber, The Serendipity Singers. Orchestra: Jack Elliott.

651 Beane's of Boston. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 5/5/79). Beane's of Boston is an old-line department store that has been owned by the Beane family for generations; Frank Beane is now the store's owner. The unsold series was to focus on Frank's efforts to run the store despite the antics of his staff: John, the floorwalker; Mae, the manager of the Women's Wear department; Shirley, Mae's assistant; George, the manager of the Men's Wear department; and Franklyn, Frank's nephew, the bumbling store manager.

Cast: Tom Poston (Frank Beane), John Hillerman (John Peacock), Charlotte Rae (Mae Slocombe), Lorna Patterson (Shirley Brahms), Alan Sues (George Humphries), George O'Hanlon, Jr. (Franklyn Beane). Guest Cast: Dana House (Ingrid), Don Bexley (Mr. Johnson), Larry Bishop (Mr. Lucas), Morgan Farley (Mr. Granger).

652 Beanpole. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 7/4/90). Lillian Pinkerton is a very pretty 13-year-old girl who attends Roosevelt High School. She is popular but also sensitive to the fact that she is the tallest girl in the school (5 feet eight inches). The life of a teenage girl and her attempts to overcome the problems she believes result because of her height was to be the focal point of the series. In the pilot episode, Lillian tries out for the Pom Pom Squad despite the fact that she feels her height will be a drawback. Other Regulars: Wanda, Lillian's widowed mother; Katie, Lillian's sister; Margaret and Joe, Wanda's parents; and Drew, Lillian's best friend.

Cast: Hayley Brown (Lillian Pinkerton), Molly Cheek (Wanda Pinkerton), Heather Lind (Katie Pinkerton), Beverly Garland (Margaret), Pat Hingle (Joe), Leslie Engelberg (Drew Clayton). Guest Cast: Tiffany Brissette (Alice Gillette), Myra Turley (Ms. Hanley), Natalie Gregory (Belinda), Hayley Carr (Amy), Samantha Mills (Cindy Lankford), Natasha Pearce (Lisa), Katie Rosen (Paula Sue Palumbo), Christopher Burton (B.B.), Joshua Smith (Howard).

653 The Beany and Cecil Show. (Series; Cartoon; ABC; 1963–1967). The Leakin' Lena is a one mast sailing ship captained by Horatio K. Huffenpuff, who has a trophy for being the world's greatest liar. His nephew, Beany, a freckle-faced young boy who wears a "Flip Lid Cap" (a cap with a propeller on top), and Cecil, the affectionate sea serpent who becomes seasick in wavy water, are the crew accompanying the intrepid explorer on various assignments (such as getting the spots off a leopard, and capturing Venus the Menace, the robot from Venus). Hindering their efforts is Dishonest John, "the do-badder who hates do-gooders." Voted "Villain of the Year" and famous for his catchphrase "Nya ha ha," D.J. (as he is often called) seeks to beat the captain to the fame and fortune that is associated with each assignment.

Crowy is the Leakin' Lena's lookout bird; Pop Gun is the old-time Western Indian fighter (he uses popguns and "is the best Indian fighter east and west of the Mr. and Mississippi River"); Cecelia McCoy, the she serpent, is the love of Cecil's life; Baby Ruth is Beany's girlfriend.

Bob Clampett and Sody Clampett (his wife) composed the theme. See also Time for Beany. The animated Beany and Cecil also appeared as a segment of Matty's Funday Funnies (ABC, 1/6/62 to 9/22/62).

Voices: Bob Clampett, Sody Clampett, Jim MacGeorge, Erv Shoemaker, Eddie Brandt, Mike Sweet.

654 Bearcats. (Series; Adventure; CBS; 1971). The series is set in the Southwest in 1914. Hank Brackett is a former army captain; Johnny Reach was orphaned as a child and raised by the Chiricahua Apache Indians. They are now freelance troubleshooters who help people in desperate need. They drive a white Stutz Bearcat (license plate 4596 NYD), and their payment varies: they ask for a blank check and fill in the amount based on what they feel the case is worth. Fernando Raoul Estevan is their friend, the head of the one-plane Mexican Air Force. The pilot film, "Powderkeg," aired on CBS on 4/16/71. John Andrew Tartaglia composed the theme, "The Bearcats."

Cast: Rod Taylor (Hank Brackett), Dennis Cole (Johnny Reach), Henry Darrow (Fernando Raoul Estevan).

655 Beast Wars: Transformers. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1996). A revised version of the animated series The Transformers. Here, on a distant planet, a battle for good vs. evil is seen as the peace-loving Maximals, who are able to change their forms from animal to robots, battle the evil Predacons, who seek to control the planet.

Voice Cast: David Kaye (Megatron), Gary Chalk (Optimus Primal), Ian Corlett (Cheetor), Blu Mankuma (Tigerhawk), Scott McNeill (Rattrap), Elizabeth Carol Savenkoff (Predacon Ship Computer), Jim Byrnes (Inferno), Susan Blu (Oona), Campbell Lane (Rampage), Colin Murdock (Quickstrike), Don Brown (Scorponok), Lee Tockar (Ravage), Richard Newman (Rhinox), David Sobolov (Depth Charge), Venus Terzo (Blackarachnia), Doug Parker (Terrasaw).

656 BeastMaster. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1999–2002). "In an age when magic and nature rule the world there is an extraordinary legend; the story of a warrior who communicates with animals, who fights sorcery and the unnatural. His name is Dar, last of his tribe. He is also called BeastMaster." Dar, as the opening theme narration says, is the last of his tribe, the Soulas. An invasion by the evil King Zad and his Terron warriors ravaged Dar's village in the Midlands. It was only with the help of a beautiful demon named Curupira that Dar manages to escape. Curupira needs a champion for her cause; someone to protect her forests and animals if anything should happen to her. She believes that Dar can fulfill that quest and grants him the power over animals.

Tao is from a land called Xinka (pronounced Chinka) that is located in the Middle of the World — "where the earth touches the sky"; his people are called Eirons. Tao has embarked on a mission by the Elders to spread the word of his people and bring followers to his village. He is in a forest and under attack by Terrons when Dar saves him. When Dar learns that Tao is attempting to map his world, he agrees to help him. Together they set out on a mission that also involves battling the evil that seems to exist everywhere.

Dar is also accompanied by his animals helpers: Ruh (a tiger), Koto and Poto (ferrets) and Sharak (an eagle) through whose eyes Dar can see what he sees. Dar can command animals, think as they do and he has learned to fight through them. Dar fights his enemies with a white staff (he will not carry a sword).

Curupira rules the forests. Tao calls her "The Little Demon." She is most fond of her white tiger (Mohan) and "cares only about her animals and some humans." She can burn with her breath and control the weather to protect her forests. Her enemy is Iara, an enchanting demon who wants to destroy Curupira and take over her world.

Iara considers Curupira "an immature, unpleasant little girl." She has the power of the mist (a white, fog-like mist to trap her victims) and derives strength from water (she lives beneath the water and uses it to project false images of herself). In mid-second season episodes, Iara imprisons Curupira beneath her waters and assumes her powers (Curupira is later said to be “imprisoned neck deep in snakes”). Iara is now the guardian of the animals and controls the balance between man and beast. She oversees Dar’s activities as the BeastMaster and is now called “The Demon Who Rules the Animal Kingdom.”

Arena, called “The Demon Who Lives in the Forest,” is actually a good demon Dar and Tao befriend. She is from the Great Desert in a place called Narmead.

Arena’s role gradually changed to help Dar stop the evil King Zad from taking over the land. Zad believes he is “the one and only king” and only Voden, another evil king seeking to rule the land, stands in his way. Voden has set his goal to conquer Zad and build his empire.

The Apparition, called “The Demon of the Burning Forests,” is another unnatural being Dar and Tao had to face. The Apparition “is a Hell on Earth” says Dar. She receives her powers from the Rulers of Darkness.

The Sorceress is a beautiful woman, known only as the Sorceress, who seeks Dar’s ability to control the animals. She lives in a mountain cave and appears and disappears in a purple mist. The Sorceress is controlled by the Ancient One, the magical ruler of the land, who is teaching her how to use her developing powers “to keep the world from sinking into darkness.” The Ancient One calls her “My Assistant” and “My Sorceress.”

Midway through the second season the Sorceress (as played by Monika Schnarre) was imprisoned by the Ancient One in clear stone for abusing her powers. She was replaced by a new, kinder and gentler Sorceress (Dylan Bierk) who “is not supposed to have a heart and is not supposed to fall in love” but did when she became fond of Dar. Neither Sorceress could interfere with human destiny without her teacher (the Ancient One) present. The new Sorceress is unaware of who she really is or where she came from. She is not aware of the full extent of her powers and uses what powers she has for good.

The episode of October 7, 2001, “The Legend Reborn,” begins the series’ third season and drastically changes the previously described concept. Dar is not who or what he appears to be. Monika Schnarre returns to the role of the Sorceress. Marc Singer joins the cast as Dartanus, the Spirit Warrior.

To establish the new storyline, evil has to be dealt with first. King Zad is now said to have made a bargain with Balcifer, the Lord of Darkness, for eternal life and the power to rule the world. In turn, Zad has vowed to destroy all goodness and plunge the world into turmoil. One man, however, stands in Zad’s way — Dar, a force for good that is also a threat to Balcifer’s wickedness.

For Zad to become ruler of the world, he must destroy Dar, a task that becomes much more difficult because of who Dar really is.

Dar believed he was a member of the Soulas tribe in a village called Dimor.

His father, Eldar, was actually the true king, not the village chief as Dar was led to believe. Dar was born in a forgotten land called Ericon, which defied the ways of Balcifer. When Zad invaded Ericon, Eldar and his faithful friend, Dartanus, led the fight against the Terrons. To protect the infant Dar, the future king, from Balcifer, Eldar sent him to the village of Dimor to be raised by its chief until he was old enough to assume his destiny. Eldar then created a crystal ark and transformed five of his family members into animals to protect them. Before King Zad kills Eldar and destroys Ericon, Dartanus is entrusted with a mission: to find Dar when the time is right and pass a magic sword onto him.

Dar encounters Dartanus shortly after the new story begins. Dar is reluctant to believe Dartanus when he is told of his real past and his future destiny. He is convinced when his birthright, the symbol of an X materializes onto the palm of his hand (the symbol magically appears in times of stress to guide Dar on the right path to goodness). Dar is then given Eldar’s sword (the sword is magical and will appear only when needed. It disguises itself as Dar’s white staff when not in use. Dar summons the sword by twirling the staff and returns it to a staff by twirling the sword). Dartanus, who appears in various disguises, assists Dar and Tao in their battle against King Zad.

The second episode, “The Crystal Ark” (10/14/01), reveals that Dar must find his family and return each of them to the ark. Once all five members have been found, they will become human and evil (Zad and Balcifer) will be defeated and Dar will become king. However, before Zad will allow peace and harmony to be returned to the world, he has vowed to find and destroy Dar’s animal family before they can be returned to the ark (it is revealed that Dar’s mother is a bird, his sister a white lion and his brother a horse).

When King Zad finds the imprisoned Sorceress (Monika), he releases her (the fate of Dylan’s Sorceress is not revealed). The Sorceress (Monika) can now do as she pleases (the Ancient One is not present to discipline her). While still possessing an evil streak, the Sorceress will help Dar when she feels he is facing difficult circumstances. Graeham Coleman composed the theme.

Cast: Daniel Goddard (Dar), Jackson Raine (Tao), Steve Grives (King Zad), Emilie de Raven (Curupira), Marjean Holden (Arena), Samantha Healy (Iara), Leah Purcell (The Apparition), David Paterson (King Vodian), Monika Schnarre (The Sorceress), Dylan Bierk (The New Sorceress), Grahaeme Bond (The Ancient One).

657 The Beat. (Series; Crime Drama; UPN; 2000). The daily lives of two beat cops with the 12th Precinct of the N.Y.P.D. is the focus of a gimmicky series that just did not work. Mike Dorigan and Zane Martinelli are the officers; the gimmick: the switch between color film and black and white videotape. Color is used to depict the off-duty lives of the main characters; black and white is incorporated to depict the gritty life of the police officers on duty.

Mike is relaxed, cautious and responsible; he is dating Elizabeth Waclawek, a medical student. Zane is more adventurous and somewhat of a ladies' man but he appears to fall for offbeat women. He is currently dating Beatrice Felsen, a pyro-psycho (to make for interesting situations, Zane is unaware of her condition).

Cast: Derek Cecil (Off. Mike Dorigan), Mark Ruffalo (Off. Zane Martinelli), Poppy Montgomery (Elizabeth Waclawek), Heather Burns (Beatrice Felsen).

658 Beat the Clock. (Series; Game; CBS; ABC; 1950–1962). Selected contestants perform various stunts with the object being to beat the amount of time established on a ticking sixty-second clock. Prizes are awarded to successful players. Before he became an actor, James Dean was a stunt tester for the program; writer Neil Simon was one of the stunt creators. The series ran on CBS from March 25, 1950 to September 12, 1958; and on ABC from October 13, 1958 to September 26, 1962.

Host: Clayton "Bud" Collyer. Assistant: Dolores (Roxanne) Rosedale, Beverly Bentley.

659 Beat the Clock. (Series; Game; Syn.; 1969). Contestants, usually married couples, attempt to perform stunts and beat the amount of time allotted for the stunt as seen on a sixty-second ticking clock. Cash and/or merchandise prizes are awarded to successful players.

Host: Jack Narz. Assistant: Diane Mead, Gail Sheldon, Betsy Hirst, Ellen Singer, Linda Somer. Announcer: Gene Wood, Dick Holenberg.

660 Beat the Clock. (Series; Game; CBS; 1979–1980). Four contestants, divided into two teams of two, perform various stunts with the object being to beat the amount of time seen on a ticking clock. The winners, who receive merchandise prizes, are the lowest time scoring teams. A later format (after 35 programs) involves four celebrity guests who play for members of the studio audience.

Host: Monty Hall. Announcer: Jack Narz.

661 Beat the Clock. (Series; Game; PAX; 2002). A revised version of the 1950s game show of the same title that has players attempting to perform a stunt before the time on a ticking clock (up to 60 seconds) runs out. Contestants who perform the stunt in the least amount of time receive prizes. An announcer opens the show as follows: "You never know what players will do to Beat the Clock. And now, from Universal Studios in Florida, here's America's number one clock watcher, Gary Kroger."

Host: Gary Kroger. Co-Hostess: Julie Parker.

662 Beat the Odds. (Series; Game; Syn.; 1969). Two players compete. The game revolves around a large electronic spinning wheel that contains the first and last letters of numerous word possibilities and a point re-claimer called Mr. Whammy. After the host spins the wheel, one player presses a button and stops it. If two letters appear (for example, T...R) he must give a word corresponding to it (for example TigeR). Acceptable words earn the player ten points. However, should Mr. Whammy appear (the odds are four to one) the contestant loses his turn at play and any points he has accumulated. The only way a player can retain points is to freeze his score when he feels safe. When a score is frozen, Mr. Whammy cannot affect it on that player's next turn. The first player to score 100 points is the winner and receives that amount in cash.

Host: Johnny Gilbert. Announcer: Bill Baldwin.

663 The Beatles. (Series; Cartoon; ABC; 1965–1969). A series of animated adventures based on the songs and lives of the Beatles, the famous Liverpool rock group. The series ran from September 25, 1965 to September 27, 1969; 52 episodes were produced.

Voice Cast: Paul Frees (John Lennon), Paul Frees (George Harrison), Lonnie Percival (Ringo Starr), Lonnie Percival (Paul McCartney).

664 Beautiful People. (Series; Drama; ABC Family; 2005). Lynn Kerr is a woman whose marriage has just failed: her husband has run off with his teenage mistress, leaving her to raise her two beautiful teenage daughters, Karen and Sophie.

Feeling they need to start a new life, Karen and Sophie convince their mother to move to New York (from their small New Mexico town). In Manhattan, Karen pursues her dream of modeling while Sophie attends Brighton, a prestigious private school (for which she had received a scholarship). Lynn, who had put her plans to become a fashion designer on hold to raise a family, picks up where she left off and finds a job with a top designer. Stories follow the Kerr women as they struggle to succeed in their new positions in life. Other Regulars: Gideon Lustig and Nicholas Fiske, two of the "beautiful people" at Brighton (privileged and prosperous social climbers).

Cast: Daphne Zuniga (Lynn Kerr), Torrey DeVitto (Karen Kerr), Sarah Foret (Sophie Kerr), Ricky Mabe (Gideon Lustig), Jackson Rathbone (Nicholas Fiske).

665 The Beautiful Phyllis Diller Show. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1968). Music, songs and various comedy sketches that satirize world problems. Comedienne Phyllis Diller hosts the series. Bob Finkel, Saul Turteltaub and Bernie Orenstein are the producers.

Hostess: Phyllis Diller. Regulars: Norm Crosby, Rip Taylor, Dave Willcock, Bob Jellison, The Jack Regas Dancers, Merryl Jay and the Curtin Calls. Announcer: Norm Crosby. Orchestra: Jack Elliott.

666 Beauty. (Unaired Pilot; Drama; Produced for CBS in 1992). Dorothy Banks is a working-class woman who is trying to make it in the high-class corporate world of women's cosmetics. Dorothy has worked her way up through the ranks and is angry when a young hot shot, Alice Waites, is brought on as her new boss (the head of marketing for The House of Turner Cosmetics). Dorothy's resentment turns to friendship when she discovers that she and Alice possess a lot in common. The unsold series was to relate their efforts to transform the faltering company into a 90s powerhouse. Other Regulars: Ariadne, the company founder; Fabian, the corporate ruler; and Paige and Kathleen, employees.

Cast: Karen Allen (Dorothy Banks), Laura Linney (Alice Waites), Anne Twomey (Ariadne Turner), Art Malik (Fabian Trask), Kasi Lemmons (Paige), Kim Myers (Kathleen).

667 Beauty and the Beast. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 1987–1990). In the 1950s, Dr. Jacob Wells was a scientist with the Chittenden Research Institute in New York City. In November of 1952, when Jacob questioned the Atomic Energy Commission about its activities (calling for the abolition of atomic weapons) he was blacklisted by the House Un-American Activities Committee. At this time Jacob was married to a woman named Margaret Chase (Diana Douglas), but the marriage ended when her father had it annulled. Shortly thereafter, Jacob fled to a forgotten subterranean world beneath New York's subways and became "Father," the leader of a group of misfits who are living there. Sometime later, Father finds an abandoned infant in front of St. Vincent's Hospital. The misfit baby, whom he names Vincent, grows to become the beast of the series title.

Vincent's world is mysterious and beautiful, untouched by the crime of the big city. Its tunnels lead to all areas of the city, allowing access to the outside world. The people live as one, looking to Father for leadership and keeping in constant communication with each other by tapping on the main pipes that run throughout the underworld city.

Beauty is Catherine Chandler, a woman who was mistaken by thugs for someone else and brutally beaten and slashed across the face. Her body is dumped on the street, and she is left for dead. She is found by Vincent, who takes her to his world.

There Father saves her. Before she leaves, Catherine promises Vincent that she will keep his world a secret.

Plastic surgery restores Catherine's scarred face to normal, and she takes a job with the D.A.'s office to battle crime. She has the secret help of Vincent, who can sense when she is in danger (and, via the tunnels, comes to her aid).

Catherine, who is 30 years old, lives in Apartment 21E off Central Park West. Catherine previously worked for her father, Charles Chandler, the owner of a law firm. The only time Vincent can roam freely is on Halloween. Elliott Burch, the owner of the Burch Development Corporation, threatened to destroy Vincent's world when he planned to build Burch Towers, a 152 story, three billion dollar skyscraper. (The blasting would have destroyed the underworld city. Catherine exposed Burch as a crook, and the project was canceled.) The underworld people have contacts in the above-world who are called Helpers. Vincent was touched by the writings of Bridget O'Donnell (Caitlin O'Heaney), whose books helped him "through dark times" and made him think. Vincent's face is described as "a mask of a cat's face with long hair." Paracelsus, who helped Father establish the city, is now an enemy of Vincent's. Paracelsus tried to control the people for his own evil purposes and was banished by Father. He now seeks to regain his world by killing Vincent and destroying Father.

In the episode of 12/12/89 ("Though Lovers Be Lost"), Catherine, pregnant by Vincent and about to give birth, is kidnapped by Gabriel, a tycoon who heads a criminal empire. Shortly after Catherine gives birth to a boy, Gabriel orders Catherine to be killed by a drug overdose. Catherine's death enrages Vincent, who vows to find his son and destroy Gabriel.

While investigating Catherine's death, detective Diana Bennett comes to know and help Vincent in his quest. In the last episode, Diana confronts Gabriel and shoots him dead at point-blank range. Though technically unjustified, it was Diana's way of releasing the anger and hatred she felt for what Gabriel did to Vincent. When Vincent is reunited with his son, he names him Jacob.

Flashbacks: Kelly Kehoe (young Catherine), Caryn West (Catherine's mother). Theme: "Beauty and the Beast," by Lee Holdridge.

Cast: Linda Hamilton (Catherine Chandler), Ron Perlman (Vincent), Roy Dotrice (Father), Jo Anderson (Diana Bennett), Armin Shimerman (Pascal), Jay Acovone (Deputy D.A. Joe Maxwell), Edward Albert (Elliott Burch), Stephen McHattie (Gabriel), Ellen Geer (Mary), Cynthia Hunter (Lady Starlight), David Greenlee (Mouse), Richard Partlow (Underground Man), Marcie Leeds (Samantha), Tony Jay (Paracelsus), Carolyn Finney (Rita Escobar), John McMartin (Charles Chandler), Kathryn Spiz (Rebecca), Laurel Moglen (Brooke), Beah Richards (Narcissa).

668 Beauty and the Geek. (Series; Reality; WB; CW; 2005–). Seven absolutely gorgeous girls (some of whom are totally dense) and seven self-proclaimed geeks (the type of guys the beauties would never go for under normal circumstances) are placed together and paired up. The girls in each cycle appear to have had plenty of dating experience, but the guys' chosen are lacking in dating skills and social function abilities. The program is called "a social experiment" as each of the paired couples begins to learn from the other (mostly the girls enlightening their partners that there is a world out there beyond the books and computers) Once each gets to know the other, the teams have to perform tasks that normally each would not do (for example, a girl having to change a flat tire; a guy having to give a girl a back massage). Each week one of the couples is eliminated based on performance of the assigned task. The one couple (team) that outperforms the others (and shows the best compatibility) split $250,000.

Host: Mike Richards.

669 Beauty Break. (Series; Women; Syn.; 1978). A five-minute filler series of beauty tips and fashion advice for women.

Host: Sue Lilly.

670 Beavis and Butthead. (Series; Cartoon; MTV; 1993–1997). An animated adult series that combines animation and music videos. The program itself showcases music videos and the antics of two rude and crude characters named Beavis and Butthead. Morons (literally) who have become brainwashed by doing what they do best — watch as much TV as possible.

Beavis and Butthead is both a ground-breaking series and a nightmare for MTV. A groundbreaker for showing the stupidity of male "metalheads"; and controversial for its violence and psychopathic portrayal of the characters (in real life, a five-year-old boy started a fire based on what he had seen. The fire killed his two-year-old sister). The series was created by Mike Judge, who toned down the silliness of Beavis and Butthead to produce a more relaxed and down to earth cartoon series called King of the Hill.

Voice Cast: Toby Huss (Beavis), Toby Huss (Butthead), Toby Huss (Tom Anderson), Toby Huss (Bradley Buzzcut), Toby Huss (Principal McVicker), Chris Marcil (Chris Phillips), Dale Reeves (Gail Thomas), Guy Maxtone-Graham (Kristofer Brown).

671 Becker. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1998–2004). John Becker is a rude and gruff neighborhood doctor in the Bronx, New York. He is 50 years old and a chronic complainer. He cares little for his own health (he smokes, drinks, eats mostly fast foods) but cares deeply for his patients.

John attended Harding High School and is a graduate of Harvard Medical School, class of 1972. He hangs out at Reggie's Diner (owned by Reggie, with whom he has a love-hate relationship). When Reggie sells the diner in 2002, John has a more serious relationship with Chris Connor (and would have most likely married her if the series had continued).

Also hanging out at the diner are Jake Malinak, the blind newsstand operator (to the left side of the diner counter near the front door); Bob (1998–2003), the fast-talking schemer; and Hector Lopez (2003–2004), John's building maintenance man.

At the office, John is assisted by his competent nurse, Margaret Wyborn (she wanted to become a singer but chose the medical profession instead), and Linda, John's not-too-competent office assistant. Linda sells Lady Fair Cosmetics "to pay off my huge bills" and the only reason Linda works for John "is because I owed her father a big favor." John doesn't know what Linda does around the office, "but she looks good in a skirt" (on her resume, Linda puts "Standing around and looking pretty" as her qualifications).

Reggie was a model in Florida (she quit college to pursue a modeling career that just didn't click for her).

Stories follow the daily events in John's life, a doctor who has no bedside manor, hates holidays, sentimentality and people who squander money.

Cast: Ted Danson (John Becker), Terry Farrell (Regina "Reggie" Kostas), Hattie Winston (Margaret Wyborn), Shawnee Smith (Linda), Alex Desert (Jake Malinak), Saverio Guerra (Bob), Nancy Travis (Chris Connor), Jorge Garcia (Hector Lopez).

672 Bedelia. (Live Test Program: Comedy; CBS; 12/12/45). Shirley Reid is a ventriloquist with a dummy named Bedelia (who is Shirley's younger sister, a nasty kid who likes to heckle Shirley). In the story, Bedelia pokes fun at Shirley's latest date, Loney Lewis. "Bedelia" was actually scheduled as a series but bad reviews caused CBS to cancel it after one episode (a rather lame script and bad direction were at fault. Shirley's lips moved when she did Bedelia's voice; the director had the camera focused on Shirley's face, rather than the dummy's when Bedelia spoke).

Stars: Shirley Reid, Loney Lewis.

673 The Bedford Diaries. (Series; Drama; WB; 2006). Bedford University, an exclusive college in New York City, is the setting. A class, "Sex and the Human Condition," taught by Professor David Macklin, is apparently the most sought after class at the school. Here, students discuss their sex lives and are each given a small video camera to keep diaries that detail their thoughts on their love lives. Stories, which are rather racy for broadcast TV (suitable more for HBO or Showtime) explore the sex lives of teenagers through their video diaries. (In some sources, Professor Macklin's first name is listed as Jake).

Cast: Matthew Modine (Prof. David Macklin), Tiffany Dupont (Sarah Gregory), Corri English (Natalie), Victoria Cartagena (Zoe), Ernest Waddell (Lee), Milo Ventimiglia (Richard), Denise Quinones (Mia Thorne), Ernest Waddell (Lee Rasmussen), Penn Badgley (Owen).

674 Bedroom Buddies. (Series; Game; Syn.; 1992). Three single (or married) couples compete to find out how well they know each other. In Round One the men must guess which phrase their mate spoke when three answers are revealed to one phrase (for example, "When referring to her cooking, your mate said..."). A correct response awards the team a pillow. Round Two reverses the prior round with the women having to guess what their mate said. The couple with the most pillows wins the game and is crowned "Best Buddies of the Night." They also receive a romantic getaway vacation.

Host: Bobby Rivers. Announcer: Burton Richardson.

675 Bedtime Stories. (Series; Game; Syn.; 1979). The object calls for married couples to predict the highest scoring responses to questions asked of 100 people. Each correct response awards the couple $500. After ten programs, the format became that of a contest between two married couples to answer questions regarding each other's love life. A question from a pre-recorded interview is played but stopped before the answer is given. The couple not involved in the interview must predict how that couple responded to the question. Each correct response scores the team $500. Winners are the highest scorers.

Host: Al Lohman, Roger Barkley. Announcer: Kenny Williams, Johnny Gilbert.

676 Beethoven. (Series; Cartoon; CBS; 1994). An adaptation of the feature film of the same title about a lovable St. Bernard (Beethoven) and his pal, Mr. Higgins, the hamster (who helps him get out of all the comical situations that he manages to find). Sparky (from the film), Ginger and Caesar are his canine friends. George and Alice Newton and their children Ryce, Ted and Emily are Beethoven's neighbors.

Voice Cast: Joel Murray (Beethoven), Dean Jones (George Newton), Tress MacNeille (Alice Newton), Tress MacNeille (Ginger), Nicholle Tom (Ryce Newton), J.D. Daniels (Ted Newton), Kath Soucie (Emily Newton), Bill Fagerbakke (Caesar), Joe Pantoliano (Sparky), Hank Azaria (Killer the Poodle), Justin Shenkarow (Roger).

677 Beetlejuice. (Series; Cartoon; ABC; 1989–1991). A television adaptation of the Tim Burton feature film of the same title (with toned down horror and violence for television). Beetlejuice is a ghost from the Netherworld who returns to earth to do what he does best — play tricks on people. He is also a swindler but when he befriends a 12-year-old girl named Lydia, he finds his prankish was greatly curtailed when she becomes his voice of conscience. Now, with the kind-hearted Lydia by his side, Beetlejuice uses his energies to help people he and Lydia find in trouble (although the hot-under-the-collar Beetlejuice needs to blow off steam by using his bag of tricks to accomplish those goals).

Voice Cast: Stephen Ouimette (Beetlejuice), Alyson Court (Lydia Deitz), Roger Dunn (Charles Deitz), Elizabeth Hanna (Delia Deitz).

678 Before They Were Stars. (Pilot; Human Interest; ABC; 4/30/95). A proposed series that was to use film clips to look at celebrities before they became famous (for example, in the pilot: Sally Field in a 1965 audition for "Gidget"; Sara Gilbert in a 1983 Kool-Aid commercial; Julia Roberts, at age 18, in a 1985 soap opera audition; Christina Applegate as an infant in a Playtex Nurser commercial; George Wendt in a 1974 AT&T Industrial film; Farrah Fawcett (in 1969) and Suzanne Somers (in 1973) on The Dating Game).

Host: Karen Duffy. Guest: Marilu Henner.

679 Behind Closed Doors. (Series; Anthology; NBC; 1958–1959). Tales of international intrigue adapted from the files of Admiral Ellis Zacharies, a World War II Naval Intelligence Chief. The series is hosted and narrated by Commander Matson, a Naval officer.

Cast: Bruce Gordon (Commander Matson).

680 Behind Enemy Lines. (Pilot; Adventure; NBC; 12/29/85). An unsold series about the exploits of the London-based O.S.S. (Office of Strategic Services, the forerunner of the CIA) and the daring undercover agents who fought behind enemy lines during World War II. In the pilot episode, the O.S.S. is assigned to uncover atomic weapons in Nazi-occupied Norway.

Cast: Hal Holbrook (Colonel Calvin Turner; head of the O.S.S.), Anne Twomey (Helen Isaacs; his aide), David McCallum (Lt. Colonel Shelley Flynn), Ray Sharkey (Master Sergeant Max Zierman), Stephen Shellen (Lieutenant David Holland), Tom Isbell (Ensign Philip Bradshaw), Maryam D'Abo (Claudine DeBrille; French freedom fighter). Guest Cast: Michael Shannon (Robert Harwell), Julian Glover (Ivar Thoresen), Alun Lewis (Jack Gifford), Peter Whitman (Dr. Jerry Primack), Patricia Hodge (Elizabeth Beaumont), William Hope (Michael Turner).

681 Behind the Screen. (Series; Drama; CBS; 1981–1982). The private and professional lives of the actors and the behind-the-scenes people associated with the fictional television soap opera Generations. Promoted as “a daring new series (broadcast at 11:30 P.M., EST) but no more risqué than any daytime TV series.

Evan Hammer is the high-powered agent; Janie-Claire Willow is the soap star. Gerry Holmby is the producer; Dory is Gerry’s wife and Brian is Gerry’s son. Sally Dundee is Brian’s girlfriend; Lynette Porter is the hopeful actress. Zina Willow is Janie’s possessive mother; Jeanie is the script girl. Bobby Danzig is Dory’s friend; Jordan is Janie’s brother. Merritt Madison is the owner of Merritt Studios; Karl is Merritt’s son. Travis is Hammer’s assistant; Addie is the wardrobe woman.

Cast: Mel Ferrer (Evan Hammer), Janine Turner (Janie-Claire Willow), Joshua Bryant (Gerry Holmby), Loyita Chapel (Dory Holmby), Michael Sabatino (Brian Holmby), Catherine Parks (Sally Dundee), Debbi Morgan (Lynette Porter), Joanne Linville (Zina Willow), Helen Funai (Jeanie), Momo Yashima (Jeanie; later), Bruce Fairbairn (Bobby Danzig), Scott Mulhern (Jordan Willow), Warren Stevens (Merritt Madison), Richard Fasciano (Karl Madison), Mark Pinter (Karl Madison; later), Johnny Duran (Travis), Shirley Mitchell (Addie), Harry Alexander (Generations Director).

682 Believe It Or Not. (Series; Anthology; NBC; 1949–1950). Dramatizations based on unusual but actual incidents compiled by Robert Ripley for his newspaper column, “Believe It Or Not.” On January 4, 1950 the program switched to a format of mystery and horror yarns said to be based on authentic records. The series ran from March 1, 1949 to September 28, 1950.

Host: Robert Ripley (Original Format). Host: Robert St. John (Revised Format).

683 Bell, Book and Candle. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 9/8/76). Gillian Holroyd is a beautiful young witch who works with her aunt, Enid, a sorceress, in a Manhattan curio shop. Alex Brandt is a young editor who moves into the apartment above the curio shop and immediately falls in love with Gillian when he first sees her. The unsold series was to follow Alex’s courtship of Gillian; and Gillian’s efforts to conceal the fact of her witchcraft from Alex. Complicating matters is Nicky, Gillian’s younger brother, a warlock who uses his misguided magic to further his get rich quick schemes. The pilot episode establishes the premise as Alex and Gillian meet for the first time. Adapted from the feature film of the same title.

Cast: Yvette Mimieux (Gillian Holroyd), Michael Murphy (Alex Brandt), Doris Roberts (Aunt Enid), John Pleshette (Nicky Holroyd). Guest Cast: Bridget Hanley (Lois), Susan Sullivan (Rosemary), Edward Andrews (Bishop Fairbairn), Dori Whitaker (Melissa).

684 The Bell Telephone Hour. (Series; Music; NBC; 1959–1968). A documentary-style presentation wherein outstanding guests appear in distinguished programs devoted entirely to the music fields of opera, ballet, jazz, popular and classical.

The series, sponsored by Bell Telephone, ran from January 12, 1959 to April 26, 1968. Segments of the series (outstanding music performances) are incorporated into the commercial free satellite service program Classic Arts Showcase (available free to local broadcast stations and national cable stations).

Theme Song: “The Bell Telephone Waltz” by Donald Voorhees. Conductor of the Bell Telephone Orchestra: Donald Voorhees. Music Director: Merrill Stanton, Buster Davis.

685 Belle Starr. (Pilot; Western; CBS; 6/6/58). A proposed series about Myra Belle Shirley, alias Belle Starr, a lawless woman of the Old West who, despite her outlaw reputation as the Bandit Queen, fights for right. In the pilot episode, Belle teams with a young doctor (John Carter) to help the people of a frontier town stricken by a small pox epidemic. Aired as “The Way of the West” on Schlitz Playhouse of Stars; Belle Starr was the proposed series title.

Cast: Abby Dalton (Belle Starr). Guest Cast: John Forsythe (Dr. John Carter), Staats Cotsworth (Colonel Taylor), Maudie Prickett (Miss Piper), Malcolm Atterbury (Mr. Johnson), John Bryant (Harry Ryan), Robert Darin (Joe), Michael Landon (Don Burns), Claude Akins (Gus Garner), Sheridan Comerate (Ed Coats).

686 The Belles of Bleecker Street. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 7/5/91). Lindsay Alexander and Jo Jo Martinez are two 13-year-old girls and best friends who live in an apartment house on Bleecker Street in New York City and call themselves “The Belles of Bleecker Street.” The proposed series was to focus on life as seen through the eyes of Lindsay and Jo Jo. In the pilot episode, the girls ditch library night at school to attend a party. Other Regulars: Holly and Chris, Lindsay’s parents; Carmen and Jerry, Jo Jo’s parents; Serena, Jo Jo’s sister; Austin, Jo Jo’s brother; and Porter Gibbs, Lindsay and Jo Jo’s friend. Lindsay’s father is a photographer; Jo Jo’s father drives a cab.

Cast: Melissa Clayton (Lindsay Alexander), Barbara Gonzalez (Jo Jo Martinez), Breon Gorman (Holly Alexander), David Naughton (Chris Alexander), Ivonne Coll (Carmen Martinez), Luis Avalos (Jerry Martinez), Tasia Valenza (Serena Martinez), Max Supera (Austin Martinez), Shawn Phelan (Porter Gibbs). Theme Vocal: “The Belles of Bleecker Street” by Deborah Tucker.

687 Ben Blue's Brothers. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 6/28/65). An unsold pilot film, made several years before its actual air date, that relates the misadventures of four brothers: a henpecked industrialist; an unemployed vaudevillian; a Navy man; and a Charlie Chaplin–like mute. The pilot episode, which has no story to speak of, simply relates incidents in each of the brothers' lives by switching from one scene to another.

Cast: Ben Blue (All Four Brothers), Ruth McDewitt (The Brothers' Mother). Also: Lillian Culver, Fred Easier, Barbara Heller, Jane McGowan, Robin Raymond, Yvette Vickers.

688 Ben Casey. (Series; Drama; ABC; 1961–1966). Ben Casey is a chief resident in neurosurgery at County General Hospital in California. His mentor is Dr. David Zorba, the Chief of Neurosurgery (replaced later by Dr. Daniel Freeland). Stories, which deal more with doctor–patient relationships rather than the unsettling operating room sequences, follow Ben Casey as he tries to help his patients before and after medical procedures.

The series ran from October 2, 1961 to March 21, 1966 and produced 153 episodes. Other Regulars: In addition to the medical personnel listed in the cast, Jane Hancock, a patient trying to readjust to life after being in a coma for 15 years; Foster, Jane's father; Kate, Jane's sister; and Stanley Schultz, the hospital volunteer.

Cast: Vince Edwards (Ben Casey), Sam Jaffe (Dr. David Zorba), Franchot Tone (Dr. Daniel Freeland), Bettye Ackerman (Dr. Maggie Graham), Jeanne Bates (Nurse Wills), Harry Landers (Dr. Ted Hoffman), Jim McMullan (Dr. Terry McDaniel), Nick Dennis (Orderly Nick Kanavaras), Don Spruance (Dr. Ward), Maurice Manson (Dr. Harold Jansen; pilot), John Zaremba (Dr. Harold Jansen; series), Ben Piazza (Dr. Mike Rogers), Stella Stevens (Jane Hancock), John Anderson (Foster Hancock), Virginia Eiler (Kate Hancock), Leo Penn (Dr. David McMillan), James Dunn (Stanley Schultz). Theme Song: “Ben Casey” by David Raksin.

689 Ben Hecht's Tales of the City. (Series; Anthology; CBS; 1953). A summer series of dramatizations based on stories by Ben Hecht and set against the background of New York City. The series, which ran from June 25, 1953 to September 17, 1953, is also known as Tales of the City.

Host: Ben Hecht. Performers Include: William Prince, Phyllis Thaxter, Dane Clark, Ann Rutherford, Barry Nelson, Wendell Corey, Mildred Dunoock, Hume Cronyn, Diana Douglas, Charles Coburn, Janis Carter, Laraine Day, Gary Merrill, Patricia McCormack, Martha Scott.

690 Ben Jerrod. (Series; Serial; NBC; 1963). The series, set in the town of Indian Hill, tells the dramatic story of two lawyers: John Abbott, a retired judge, and Ben Jerrod, his young Harvard-educated assistant. Their first and only case: “The Janet Donelli Murder Trial.” Episodes relate their defense of a woman accused of murdering her husband. The short-lived soap opera ran from April 1, 1963 to June 28, 1963.

Cast: Michael Ryan (Ben Jerrod), Addison Richards (John Abbott), Regina Gleason (Janet Donelli), Ken Scott (Jim O'Hara), William Phillips (Engle), John Napier (District Attorney), Peter Hansen (Peter Morrison), Lyle Talbot (Lt. Choates), Martine Bartlett (Lil).

691 Ben 10. (Series; Cartoon; Cartoon Network; 2005–2006). Ben Tennyson is a ten-year-old boy who discovers the Omnitrix, an alien device that bestows upon its owner the ability to transform himself into ten different alien species to battle evil. Stories follow Ben as he struggles to live the normal life of a kid while using his special abilities to battle evil aliens. Ben's powers are Wildmutt (athletic ability), Heat Blast (ability to create fireballs), Upgrade (energy blasts), Ripjaws (ability to breathe underwater), Stinkfly (acrobatic abilities), Four Arms (super strength), Grey Matter (enhanced intelligence), XLR8 (super speed), Diamond Head (ability to morph body parts into sharp weapons) and Ghostfreak (invisibility). While he really doesn't need help, Ben receives assistance from his ten-year-old cousin, Gwen, and his grandfather, Max.

Voice Cast: Tara Strong (Ben Tennyson), Paul Eiding (Grandpa Max), Meagan Smith (Gwen Tennyson), Dee Bradley Baker (Stinkfly), Jim Ward (XLR8), Dee Bradley Baker (Wildmutt), Steven Jay Blum (Heat Blast), Jim Ward (Upgrade), Fred Tataschore (Ripjaws), Jim Ward (Diamond Head), Steven Blum (Ghostfreak), Richard McGonagle (Four Arms), Steven Jay Blum (Vilgax).

692 Ben Vereen ... Comin' at Ya. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1975). A weekly summer series of music, songs, dances and light comedy with singer, actor and dancer Ben Vereen as the host. The series, which produced four episodes, ran from August 7, 1975 to August 28, 1975. Jaime Rogers and Jean McAvoy are the producers.

Host: Ben Vereen. Regulars: Arte Johnson, Avery Schreiber, Lola Falana, Liz Torres, Lee Lund, The Louis DaPrun Dancers. Orchestra: Jack Elliott, Allyn Ferguson. Choreographer: Jerry Grimes.

693 Bender. (Pilot; Crime Drama; CBS; 9/12/79). Tamarisk Wells is a rich California desert resort community that has been targeted by clever criminals as “easy pickings.” It is also the home of (No First Name) Bender, a 20-year veteran of the N.Y.P.D. who, after retiring, has made Tamarisk Wells his home. When Bender discovers that criminal elements are destroying the peaceful community, he signs on as its police chief. The unsold series was to relate Bender's efforts to maintain the peace. Other Regulars: Bert Arkins, the city manager; Wade Rawlings, the deputy police chief; Joanne Clark, Bender's secretary; R.J. Phillips, the mayor.

Cast: Harry Guardino (Bender), Nicholas Coster (Bert Arkins), Joe Burke (Wade Rawlings), Susan Damante Shaw (Joanne Clark), Stephen Elliott (R.J. Phillips). Guest Cast: Ben Piazza (Vincent Farragut), Will Hare (Zachary Wilson), James Jeter (Sergeant Johnson), Nancy Bleier (Pat Farragut), Robert Phalen (Raker).

694 The Benefactor. (Series; Reality; ABC; 2004). Mark Cuban is a billionaire (owner of the Dallas Mavericks basketball team). Mark believes everyone dreams of getting rich and he puts that theory to the test by selecting 16 people to compete in a series of tests based on his life experiences. Mark has designed tasks to test what characteristics he believes show values, creativity, competition and the spirit of work. It is Mark's decision, based on what he sees from each of the contestants, who wins $1 million. The series ran from September 13, 2004 to October 25, 2004.

Cast: Mark Cuban (The Benefactor).

695 The Benjamin David Revue. (Experimental; Variety; NBC; 5/8/40). Performances by various variety acts: Songs from Dorothy Allen and Jeffrey McMahan; dancing by Leni Bouvier, Eugene Van Grona, Dimitrios Vilan and Ilsa Kevin; comedy from Al and Vincent (comical musicians); music from John Sebastian and Cliff Crane. Also featured was a garden party setting where the performances of Jules Lande (violinist), Pauline Alpert (pianist) and Lysbeth Hughes (harpist) were showcased. Additional songs were performed by the Alan Holt Singers.

Program Host: Alan Holt.

696 Benji, Zax and the Alien Prince. (Series; Adventure; CBS; 1983–1984). When Ubi, prince of the distant planet Antaz, escapes capture by its evil leader Zanu, he and his droid Zax head for sanctuary on the planet Earth. When their spaceship lands, they are met by Benji, the lovable stray dog, who becomes their friend, guide and protector. The series follows Benji's adventures as he struggles to protect Prince Ubi and Zax from their alien pursuers, Darah and Khyber.

Cast: Chris Burton (Prince Ubi), Angie Bolling (Darah), Anna Holbrook (Darah; later), Joe Rainer (Khyber), Dallas Miles (Khyber; later), Ric Spiegel (Voice of Zax), Ken Miller (Zanu), Benji (Benji).

697 The Bennets. (Series; Serial; NBC; 1953–1954). Dramatic incidents in the life of Wayne Bennet, a small Mid-Western town attorney, and his wife, Nancy. The series ran from July 6, 1953 to January 8, 1954.

Cast: Don Gibson (Wayne Bennet), Paula Houston (Nancy Bennet). Also: Beverly Younger, Kay Westfall, Jerry Harvey, Roy Westfall, Sam Gray, Jim Andelin, Viola Berwick, Sam Siegel, Jack Lester.

698 Benny and Barney: Las Vegas Undercover. (Pilot; Crime Drama; NBC; 1/19/77). A proposed series about Benny Kowalski and Barney Tuscom, Las Vegas, Nevada, Police Department officers who moonlight as nightclub singer-musicians. In the pilot episode, Benny and Barney attempt to solve the mysterious kidnapping of a famous entertainer.

Cast: Terry Kiser (Benny Kowalski), Tim Thomerison (Barney Tuscom), Jack Colvin (Lieutenant Callan). Guest Cast: Jane Seymour (Maggie Parks), Hugh O'Brian (Jack Davis), Jack Cassidy (Jules Rosen), Pat Harrington, Jr. (Joey Gallion), Rodney Dangerfield (Manager), Marty Allen (Higgie), George Gobel (Drunk), Ted Cassidy (Jake Tuttle), Dick Gautier (Will Dawson), Michael Pataki (Sergeant Ross), Bobby Troup (Paul Mizener).

699 The Benny Hill Show. (Series; Comedy; Syn.; 1979–1984). A British produced series of adult oriented comedy sketches that while common in Europe test the limits of permissiveness on American television. Scantly clad girls and risqué skits prevail throughout each program.

Host: Benny Hill. Regulars: Jackie Wright, Henry McGee, Bob Todd, Sue Bond, Patricia Hayes, Verne Morgan, Helli Louise, Chai-Lee, Diana Darvey, Samantha Stevens, Lee Gibson, Nicholas Parsons, Ronnie Brody, The Ladybirds, Carol Mills, Kay Frazer, Eira Heath, Yvonne Paul, Nina Martin, Rita Webb, Connie Georges, Andrea Melley, Bella Emborg, Debbie Greenwood, Stella Moray, Mia Martin, Leslie Goldie, Sue Bishop, Eddie Buchanan, Jimmy Thompson, Dan Jackson, Cheryl Gilham, Monica Ringwald, Sue Young, Patrick Newell, Earl Adair, Anne Bruzac, Claire Russell, Terry Day, Brian Nolan, Jenny Lee Wright, Los Zafrios, Dan Jackson, Jan Butlin, Carmen Bene, Jennie Lee Rich, John John Keefe, Yvonne Deerman, Pat Ashton, Sue Lipton, Roger Finch, Erica Lindley, Sharon Haywoode, Samantha Lane, Cheryl Cross, Ken Cromarty, Susan Daly, Debbie Gae, Julie Kirk, Leigh Myles, Clare Smalley, Samantha Lane, Vivenee Warman, Penny Wells. Music Director: Ronnie Aldrich, Jackie Grimsley. Songs: Benny Hill.

700 The Benny Rubin Show. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1949). The program features performances by guest artists but deviates slightly from the normal (or standard) presentation in that acts are interwoven around the antics of the series master of ceremonies, a bumbling talent agent and owner of Benny Rubin's Theatrical Agency. Vinnie is his office boy. The series ran from April 29, 1949 to June 24, 1949. Jerry Rosen is the producer.

Cast: Benny Rubin (Host), Vinnie Monte (Vinnie). Regulars: Jackie Coogan, Edith Fellows, Lois Bernard, Lois Bernard, The Andrews Twins. Orchestra: Rex Maupin.

701 Benson. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1979–1986). Benson DuBois first appeared on the television series “Soap” (ABC, 1977–81) as butler to the wealthy Tate family. When her cousin, Gene Gatling is elected governor of Capitol City, Jessica Tate loans him Benson to help him organize his household. Gene, a paper mill industrialist who entered politics to give people an honest government, is incapable of running the government; Benson soon becomes indispensable when his suggestions help Gene attain his goal. Benson leaves the Tate household and takes up permanent residence in Capitol City. Stories relate his misadventures as the governor’s aide.

As the series progressed, Benson became the budget director, then Gene’s executive secretary and finally the lieutenant governor.

Kathryn (“Katie”) Gatling is Gene’s daughter (nine years old when the series begins). She first attended Capitol City Grammar School (where she played cello in the school orchestra) and later Crandall High. Benson calls her “Sugar” and she is a member of the Capitol City Girls’ Softball League.

Gretchen Krauss is the head of household affairs and Benson’s nemesis (she and Benson rarely get along). She was born in Bulgaria and came to America when she was a young girl.

Marcie Hill is Gene’s secretary; she married Dan Slater on 2/20/81 and was replaced by Denise Stevens. Denise married Peter Downey, Gene’s press secretary, on 9/16/83. Peter attended forestry school before his current job. Denise calls him “Bunny Wabbitt Face.”

Clayton Endicott is Gene’s right-hand man, the chief of staff; he is a member of the indoor polo team.

Cast: Robert Guillaume (Benson DuBois), James Noble (Gov. Gene Gatling), Missy Gold (Katie Gatling), Caroline McWilliams (Marcie Hill), Inga Swenson (Gretchen Krause), Didi Conn (Denise Stevens), Rene Auberjonois (Clayton Endicott), Ethan Phillips (Peter Downey), David Hedison (John Taylor; Gene’s aide), Lewis J. Stadlen (John Taylor; later), Barbara Babcock (Lily Maxwell; the social hostess), Ted Danson (Dan Slater; Marcie’s fiance), Lynne Moody (Jennifer; Benson’s girlfriend), Allyn Ann McLerie (Marcie’s mother), Studie Bond (Fritzie; Gretchen’s mother), Stephen Elliott (Whitney Endicott; Clayton’s father), Billie Bird (Harriet Endicott; Clayton’s mother), Beah Richards (Lois; Benson’s mother), Tracey Gold (Laura, Katie’s cousin), Dorothy Green (Libby; Gene’s sister), Billie Bird (Mrs. Cas- sidy; the mansion maid), Helen Martin (Benson’s Aunt Lil), Julius Harris (Benson’s Uncle Buster), Vernee Watson (Elaine DuBois; Benson’s sister), Kene Holliday (Earl DuBois; Benson’s brother), Alva Petway (Benson’s Cousin Saundra), Tim Reid (Russell DuBois, Benson’s brother), Katherine Helmond (Jessica Tate; Gene’s cousin).

702 The Berenstain Bears. (Series; Cartoon; CBS; 1985). The adventures of the forest-dwelling Bear family, residents of the city of Beartown.

Voice Cast: Ruth Buzzi (Mama Bear), Brian Cummings (Papa Bear), Christina Lange (Sister Bear), David Mendenhall (Brother Bear), Frank Welker (Ratfish Bear).

703 Bergerac. (Series; Crime Drama; The Entertainment Channel; 1982). Jim Bergerac is a British police detective who uses unorthodox methods to solve puzzling

Crimes. Stories follow Jim as he and his by-the-books partner, Detective Barney Crozier, attempt to solve crimes — Jim’s way. Francine is Jim’s romantic interest; Charlie Hungerford is Jim’s ex-father-in-law. Produced in England.

Cast: John Nettles (Det. Jim Bergerac), Cecile Paoli (Francine), Terence Alexander (Charlie Hungerford), Sean Arnold (Det. Barney Crozier). Theme Music: “Bergerac” by George Fenton.

704 The Bernie Mac Show. (Series; Comedy; Fox; 2001–2006). Bernie Mac is a standup comedian and film actor. He is married to Wanda, a vice president with AT&T. Bernie and Wanda are also the guardians of Vanessa, Jordan and Bryanna Tompkins, his sister’s children. They became a part of the family when Bernie sent his drug-addicted sister to rehab (his sister’s husband is serving a 10 year sentence for tax evasion). Stories focus on Bernie’s efforts to cope with the antics of Vanessa, Bryanna and Jordan.

Bernie is aware of a viewing audience and talks directly to them from his “office” off the set. He calls the audience “America” and relates his feelings as the situations unfold.

Bernie was born in Chicago and worked as a deliveryman for Atlas Parcel Service. It was here that he met Wanda Thomas, the daughter of a customer on his route. Bernie longed to be a comedian and Wanda convinced him to do just that. They married and moved to California; Bernie later became a hit on the standup comedy circuit; Wanda found a job with West Coast Wireless.

Vanessa, born in 1988, is the oldest of the children and attends the Baha Vista Jr. High School. Jordan, born in 1993, attends Damian Elementary School and Bryanna, born on 1998, is enrolled in the Wellington School. Bernie calls her “Baby Girl” (he calls Vanessa “Nessa”).

Cast: Bernie Mac (Himself), Kellita Smith (Wanda Mac), Camille Winbush (Vanessa Tompkins), Jeremy Suarez (Jordan Tompkins), Dee Dee Davis (Bryanna Tompkins), Reginald Ballard (W.B.), Michael Ralph (Kelly), Lombardo Boyar (Chuy), Wade Williams (Father Cronin), Rick Hoffman (Jerry Best), Naya Rivera (Donna), Meagan Fay (Joan Lefko).

705 Berringer's. (Series; Drama; NBC; 1985). A prime time serial that focuses on the lives, ambitions and double dealings of the members of the family-owned Berringer's, a posh New York Department Store. Simon Berringer is the store owner; Gloria is his ex-wife; and Paul, Gloria and Billy are their children.

Other Regulars: Shane Bradley, the merchandising vice president; Stacey Russell, a department manager; Laurel Hayes, a store model; Melodie Hughes, Barbara's daughter; John Higgins, a window dresser; Danny Krucek, the importer; Todd Hughes, Melodies's

Husband; Ilene, a store buyer; Julio Morales, the store fashion designer; Anne, Julio's sister; Carmine, Julio's wife; Allison Harris, a salesgirl; and Rinaldi, the man seeking to take over Berringer's.

Cast: Sam Wanamaker (Simon Berringer), Ben Murphy (Paul Berringer), Andrea Marcovici (Gloria Berringer), Robin Strand (Billy Berringer), Yvette Mimieux (Shane Bradley), Leslie Hope (Cammie Springer), Jonelle Allen (Stacey Russell), Claudia Christian (Melodie Hughes), Anita Morris (Barbara "Babs" Berringer), Justin Dana (David Berringer), Laura Ashton (Laurel Hayes), Jeff Conaway (John Higgins), Jack Scalia (Danny Krucek), Art Hindle (Todd Hughes), Neva Patterson (Ilene), Eddie Velez (Julio Morales), Jeannie Linero (Anna Morales), Connie Ramirez (Carmen Morales), Donna Dixon (Allison Hayes), Cesar Romero (Rinaldi).

706 Bert D'Angelo/Superstar. (Series; Crime Drama; ABC; 1976). Bert D'Angelo is a tough, unorthodox detective with the Los Angeles Police Department. Bert has an impressive record of arrests and convictions and it has earned him the nickname of "Superstar." Stories follow Bert as he constantly defies rules and regulations in an attempt to solve crimes. Detective Larry Johnson is Bert's partner; Jack Breen is their captain.

Cast: Paul Sorvino (Bert D'Angelo), Robert Pine (Larry Johnson), Dennis Patrick (Jack Breen).

707 The Bert Parks Show. (Series; Variety; NBC; CBS; 1950–1952). A daily series of music, songs and celebrity interviews hosted by singer Bert Parks. The series aired on NBC from November 1, 1950 to January 11, 1952; and on CBS from January 14, 1952 to June 26, 1952. Sherman Marks, Mary Harris and Louis Cowan are the producers.

Host: Bert Parks. Regulars: Betty Ann Grove, Bobby Sherwood, Marianne McCormick, Bix Brent, Nancy Overton, Jean Swain, Murray Scholmann, Harold Lang. Music: The Bobby Sherwood Quintet.

708 The Best Defense. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 6/19/95). Steve Best is a Deputy Public Defender with the Seattle Public Defenders Office. The unsold series was to relate his efforts to deal with an array of offbeat public defenders (Peebe, Phil, Sally and Freddy) and clients who are just as wacky. In the pilot episode, newcomer Sally Archer attempts to defend a thief (Terry) she feels is getting a bum rap. Other Regulars: Judge Flores; Jane, the prosecutor; and Michelle, Steve's ex-wife.

Cast: Steve Landesberg (Steve Best), Rita Moreno (Judge Flores), Scott Valentine (Peebe Barnes), Dorian Harewood (Phil Martin), Laura Graham (Sally Archer), Ricky Paull Goldin (Freddy Smoot), Mary Jo Keenen (Jane Stonehurst), Kate McNeil (Michelle Best). Guest Cast: Clint Howard (Terry O'Neill), Charlie Dell (Flasher).

Note: TV Guide and other press sources list Steve Landesberg's character name as Jack Best (Steve Best is his screen name).

709 Best Friends. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 7/19/77). The misadventures of a group of teenagers from varying backgrounds who scheme, dream, and plan their futures while hanging around together in the basement of an apartment building on Chicago's northwest side. Nick, Kathy, Gypsy, Arthur and Mountain Man are the teens; Maggie is Kathy's aunt; Lionel "Big O" Lapidus is the bully; and Mr. Ouspensky is the building's super.

Cast: James Canning (Nick), Sherry Hursey (Kathy), Bill Henry Douglas (Arthur), Gary Epp (Mountain Man), Ray Sharkey (Lionel Lapidus), Gloria LeRoy (Maggie), Cliff Osmond (Mr. Ouspensky).

710 The Best in Mystery. (Series; Anthology; NBC; 1954). Actress Polly Bergen hosts a summer program of suspense dramas that originally aired on other filmed anthology programs. The series aired from July 16, 1954 to September 3, 1954.

Hostess: Polly Bergen.

711 The Best in Mystery. (Series; Drama; NBC; 1956). Dante's Inferno is a San Francisco night club (with a secret gambling hall in the back) that is run by William "Willie" Dante, a former gambler (and lieutenant during World War II) who has given up his shady past to run an honest business. Monte, Willie's friend, is the club's bartender (he claims to be one of the best safecrackers in the country and learned to cook while serving time in Sing Sing prison); Jackson is the club maitre d'; Lieutenant Waldo is Willie's friend, a police detective with the 27th Precinct. Stories follow Dante as he tries to run an honest operation despite the fact that his past attracts unscrupulous characters. The series, also known as Dante's Inferno, is culled from episodes that were originally broadcast on Four Star Playhouse; it ran from July 13, 1956 to August 31, 1956. See also Dante.

Cast: Dick Powell (Willie Dante), Alan Mowbray (Jackson), Herb Vigran (Monte), Regis Toomey (Lt. Waldo).

712 The Best of Broadway. (Series; Anthology; CBS; 1954–1955). The overall title for a series of nine adaptations of Broadway plays. The series ran from October 13, 1954 to May 4, 1955. The plays are:

1. Arsenic and Old Lace (January 5, 1955) with Helen Hayes, Billie Burke, Boris Karloff.

2. Broadway (May 4, 1955) with Piper Laurie, Joseph Cotten, Gene Nelson.

3. The Guardsman (March 2, 1955) with Claudette Colbert, Franchot Tone, Reginald Gardner, Mary Boland.

4. The Man Who Came to Dinner (October 13, 1954) with Monty Woolley, Sylvia Field, Merle Oberon, Buster Keaton.

5. Panama Hattie (November 10, 1954) with Ethel Merman, Art Carney, Neil Hamilton.

6. The Philadelphia Story (December 8, 1954) with Dorothy McGuire, Neva Patterson, Richard Carlson.

7. The Royal Family (September 15, 1954) with Claudette Colbert, Helen Hayes, Fredric March.

8. The Showoff (February 2, 1955) with Jackie Gleason, Thelma Ritter, Alice Ghostley.

9. Stage Door (April 6, 1955) with Diana Lynn, Peggy Ann Garner, Nita Talbot, Rhonda Fleming.

713 The Best of Everything. (Series; Serial; ABC; 1970). The story, set in New York City, relates the experiences of April Morrison, Linda Warren and Kim Jordan, secretaries at Key Publishing, as they struggle to fulfill their lives. The series aired 115 episodes from March 30, 1970 to September 24, 1970.

Cast: Julie Mannix (April Morrison), Patricia McCormack (Linda Warren), Kathy Glass (Kim Jordan), Geraldine Fitzgerald (Violet Jordan), Gale Sondergaard (Amanda Key), Vice Arnold (Ed Peronne), Barry Ford (Ken Lamont), Steven Grover (Johnny Lomart), Ted LaPlatt (Randy Wilson). Also: M'el Dowd, Terry O'Sullivan, Jill Melody, Jane Alice Brandon.

714 The Best of Groucho. (Series; Game; Syn.; 1961). The syndicated title for selected episodes of You Bet Your Life. The series ran on NBC from September 5, 1950 to September 21, 1961. See this title for information.

715 Best of the Post. (Series; Anthology; Syn.; 1959). Dramatizations based on stories appearing in The Saturday Evening Post. Varying casts and stories.

Host: John Conte.

716 Best of the West. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1981–1982). During the Civil War, Union captain Samuel ("Sam") Best meets Southern belle Elvira Devereaux when his troops begin burning her father's Georgia plantation. Though it appears to be an unlikely match, Sam, a widower and the father of ten-year-old Daniel, and Elvira marry shortly after. With a dream of beginning a new life out West, the Bests move from their home in Philadelphia to Copper Creek, Montana, to become shopkeepers. Here Sam opens the Copper Creek General Store and is elected marshal when he stands up to a feared gunfighter named the Calico Kid. Stories relate Sam's fumbling attempts to uphold the law.

The Montana Overland Stage Lines services the area. Sam was on the regimental boxing team in the army. Because of his moves in the ring, he was called "The Dancer" (he also lost the only three fights he had). Since Sam has been marshal, he has only shot himself once. Sam sort of stumbles upon crimes and solves them by accident. He and his family live in a small, freezing-in-the-winter, hot-in-the-summer cabin and seem to enjoy life out West. Daniel attends the Copper Creek School.

Parker Tillman is the crooked town owner. He runs his business empire from the Square Deal Saloon and is assisted by the dim-witted Frog Rothchild, Jr. Parker, considered "a crook, liar and a cheat" by the citizens, also runs the First Bank of Copper Creek from the back of the saloon (Frog is the teller; "a free, complimentary soup bone" is given to new depositors).

Jerome ("Doc") Kullens is the intoxicated, elderly town doctor. Doc can't shoot straight, can barely see and has "the shakes in both hands." He doesn't ride with posses because "I better stay here in case someone needs surgery." Laney Gibbs is a fur trapper who assists Sam as a deputy when she is needed. Rudy is the Square Deal Saloon waitress; Harlee is the bar tender.

Cast: Joel Higgins (Marshal Sam Best), Carlene Watkins (Elvira Best), Meeno Peluce (Daniel Best), Leonard Frey (Parker Tillman), Tom Ewell (Jerome "Doc" Kullens), Valri Bromfield (Laney Gibbs), Tracey Walter (Frog Rothchild, Jr.), Pat Ast (Rudy), Dave Rogers (Harlee), Christopher Lloyd (The Calico Kid), Andy Griffith (Lamont Devereaux, Elvira's father), Eve Brent Ashe (Lily Devereaux, Elvira's mother), Malcolm McClaman (Town Mayor). Theme Vocal: "Best of the West" by Rex Allen.

717 The Best of the Worst. (Series; Reality; Fox; 1992). A look at things that don't work, fit, make sense or belong — from history's most embarrassing moments to the most useless inventions.

Host: Greg Kinnear.

718 The Best of Times. (Pilot; Variety; ABC; 7/13/81). Observations on life as a teenager as seen through the eyes of seven actual teenagers (Crispin, Julie, Jill, Nicholas, Kevin, Lisa, David and Janet) who perform skits, songs and dances that relate their views on being caught between childhood and adulthood. Other Regulars: Mr. O'Reilly, the neighborhood store owner; and Crispin's mother.

Cast: Crispin Glover (Crispin), Julie Piekarski (Julie), Jill Schoelen (Jill), Nicholas Coppola (Nicholas), Kevin Cortes (Kevin), Lisa Hope Ross (Lisa), David Rambo (David), Janet Robin (Janet), Jackie Mason (Mr. O'Reilly), Betty Glover (Crispin's mother). Guest Cast: Marc Copage (Band leader), Tiana Pierce (Saleslady), Anita Mann (Jogger).

719 The Best of Times. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 8/29/83). The story, set in California, follows the day-to-day activities of a group of students at U.S. Grant High School. In the pilot episode, student Pete Falcone faces the wrath of a jealous Marine (Garth) when he asks Garth's girlfriend (Kim) to a school dance.

Other Regulars: Students Robin, Patti, Dewey and Neil; Gene and Peggy, Pete's parents; Theresa, Pete's sister; Franklin T. Otto, the school's vice principal; and Don Kingman, the history teacher.

Cast: Robert Romanus (Pete Falcone), Krista Erickson (Robin DuPree), Hallie Todd (Patti Eubanks), Chris Nash (Dewey Hooper), Leif Green (Neil Heferman), Alex Rocco (Gene Falcone), Arlene Golonka (Peggy Falcone), Rosanna Locke (Theresa Falcone), William Schilling (Franklin T. Otto), Kene Holliday (Don Kingman). Guest Cast: Denise Galik (Kim Sedgwick), Tony Longo (Garth Stimolovich), Whitman Mayo (Howlin' Joe), Ron Thomas (Student), Felix Nelson (Wheeler).

720 The Best Sex Ever. (Series; Anthology; Cinemax; 2002–2003). A woman named Veronica is the host of a radio sex talk program. She opens the program with a call from a listener who enlightens her to a sexual pleasure. As the caller speaks, the pleasure is reenacted for viewers. Although the very sexy host does not appear in the nude, the stories are mature and what are called "philosophical discussions," border on soft-core pornography.

Cast: Angela Davies (Veronica).

721 The Best Times. (Series; Drama; NBC; 1985). John F. Kennedy High School in Southern California is the setting for a realistic look at the problems students and teachers face in their day-to-day lives. Stories focus in particular on Joanne Braithwaite, a single mother and English teacher, and her daughter, Mia, a student.

Other Students: Giselle, Joy, Neil, Annette, Chris, Dionne, Stacey and Keri. Other Regulars: Dale, Neil's brother; Willis, Neil's father; and teachers Roxanne Treevy, Len Kunkle and Dan Bragen.

Cast: Janet Eilber (Joanne Braithwaite), Beth Ehlers (Mia Braithwaite), Tammy Lauren (Giselle Kraft), Melora Hardin (Joy Villafranco), David Packer (Neil Troutman), Liane Curtis (Annette Dime-triano), Darren Dalton (Chris Henson), LaSaundra Hall (Dionne MacAllister), Michele Greene (Stacey Emery), Alexandra Powers (Keri), Jim Meltzer (Dan Bragen), Freddy Chapman (Roxanne Treevy), Logan Ramsey (Len Kunkle), K.C. Martel (Dale Troutman), John Lawlor (Willis Troutman).

722 The Best Years. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 8/4/69). Walter Randolph is the widowed father of three beautiful daughters, Nancy, Kim and Charlotte, nicknamed "Charlie." The unsold series was to relate Walter's efforts to raise his girls and to solve the unusual problems they present him with. In the pilot episode, Walter faces the delicate problem of buying his youngest daughter (Charlie) her first bra.

Cast: Craig Stevens (Walter Randolph), Brooke Bundy (Nancy Randolph), Robyn Millan (Kim Randolph), Susan Joyce (Charlotte Randolph). Guest Cast: Peter Brown (Dempster), Marion Moses (Tracy).

723 The Best Years. (Series; Drama; Noggin; 2007). The lives of a group of freshman at Charles University in Boston are profiled as they begin "the best years of their lives." Particular focus is on Samantha Best, an orphan with an unstable past (sent from foster home to foster home) as she wins a full scholarship at the school and sets out on the most important journey of her life.

Cast: Charity Shea (Samantha Best), Athena Karkanis (Dawn Vargaz), Niall Matter (Trent Hamilton), Brandon Jay McLaren (Devon Sylver), Jennifer Miller (Kathryn Klarner), Randall Edwards (Noah Jensen), Alan Van Sprang (Lee Campbell), Sherry Miller (Dorothy O'Sullivan), Ashley Morris (Shannon Biel), Ron Lea (Professor Fisher), Siu Ta (Cynthia Song), Chris Gallinger (Beau Beecham), Meredith Henderson (Hillary Dunbar), Elizabeth Whitmere (Amber).

724 Bette. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 2000–2001). A comedy series supposedly based on incidents in the life of actress Bette Midler (although this is not specifically stated). Bette is an actress and singer who lives in Los Angeles. She is married to Roy (a university professor) and the mother of Rose, a teenager. Connie Randolph is her manager (and godmother to Rose); Oscar is her accompanist.

Although Bette performs on stage and on television (and occasionally in feature films) she is struggling to become a housewife and a friend to her daughter.

Rose met Roy in 1983 on a flight from New York to Los Angeles. Connie and Bette met in the ladies room of Studio 54 in Manhattan in 1980; Oscar, who wrote the song "The Color of Roses" for Bette, says, "I've known Bette for 13 years and have only been in therapy for 12-and-one-half years." He later says he met Bette in 1986 when he came to audition as her music director.

Rose was born in 1987; she attends Fairfax Jr. High School, hated her mother's film, Drowning Mona ("I stayed for at least the first ten minutes"), and earns extra spending money by selling Bette's bras as "Bette Memorabilia"; Barry Manilow is her godfather.

Bette was born in Honolulu, Hawaii and is a graduate of Radford High School (class of 1963). She worked at the Dole pineapple processing plant before becoming a singer with the Harlets and releasing her first album, "The Divine Miss M." She has won four Grammy awards and ends each concert with the song "Ya Gotta Have Friends." Although attractive, Bette feels she needs plastic surgery and constantly knocks her looks. She is a compulsive eater and feels she is a bit too busy. She records on the Warner Bros. label and is represented by the Endeavor Talent Agency. Her feature films include The Rose, Jinxed, The First Wives Club and Beaches.

Cast: Bette Midler (Bette), Kevin Dunn (Roy), Robert Hays (Roy; last three episodes), Lindsay Lohan (Rose; first two episodes), Marina Malota (Rose), Joanna Gleason (Connie Randolph), James Dreyfus (Oscar).

725 Better Days. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1986). When his parents decide to split up they send their son, Brian, to live with his grandfather, Harry, in Brooklyn, New York. Stories follow Brian's misadventures as he attempts to adjust to life in New York having previously lived in Beverly Hills.

Other Regulars: Luther, Dean and Snake, Brian's friends; Harriet Winners, Brian's teacher; and Wendell, Snake's brother. Brian now attends Braxton High School.

Cast: Raphael Sbarge (Brian McGuire), Dick O'Neil (Harry Clooney), Randee Heller (Harriet Winners), Chip McCallister (Luther Kane), Guy Killum (Snake), Randall Batinkoff (Dean), Ben Hoag (Wendell).

726 Better Days. (Unaired Pilot; Comedy; Produced for CBS in 1992). An unsold series about Eddie Procacini, a young man who will do anything that is legal to make a dollar, as he struggles to raise his orphaned niece and nephew, Michele and Richie. Michele is 14 going on 40. Although she tries to act grown up and appear sexy, she is still a little girl underneath. Richie is a tough 12 year old who is loaded with charm (like his uncle). Also living with them is Chick, Eddie's fiftyish father, a small-time bookie who operates the local diner, a hangout for Eddie and his friends.

Cast: Peter Dobson (Eddie Procacini), Becky Herbst (Michele Procacini), Johnny Pinto (Richie Procacini), Dick Miller (Chick Procacini), Gina Mastrogiacono (Ginger DeLacroix), Mitchell Whitfield (John Clark), Nicholas Turturro (Frankie Bonetti).

727 Better Days. (Pilot; Comedy; Disney; 11/4/05). A proposed spin-off from That's So Raven. Can a pretty teenage girl be a famous TV star and yet be a normal kid at the same time? Ally Parker is the star of Better Days, a television series set in the 1950s (she plays the perky daughter of a middle class family). Ally is content with her life in show business until her cousin, Carly, comes to visit, and shows her a world she has not really known — school and a life away from the cameras. Despite the objections of her neurotic director (Dava), Ally is permitted to attend public school (Valleywood Jr. High School) and experience life as a normal girl. Ally is recognized as a TV star and the situation becomes a bit awkward. The proposed series was to follow Ally as she struggles to divide her life between her TV show and her new friends. The pilot episode finds Ally entering the school's talent show then causing a problem on the set when she injures her nose and is unable to kiss a boy during a scene. Chrissy Collins is the school princess; Arvin Barrington is Ally's new friend at school.

Cast: Alyson Stoner (Ally Parker), Allie Grant (Carly), Jackee Harry (Dava), Skyler Samuels (Chrissy Collins), Alexander Bass (Arvin Barrington), Dani Goldman (Chrisette), Bryant Johnson (Nick West), Dylan Palton (Justin Banks), Phillip Seymour Brown (Stage manager), Scout Taylor-Compton (Lauren Parker).

728 The Better Sex. (Series; Game; ABC; 1977–1978). Two six-member teams compete: the male vs. the female. A question is read by the host. One player is given a card that contains two answers (one true, the other a bluff). The player faces the opposing team and states one of the answers. Each opposing team member either agrees or disagrees with the answer. If the player fooled the opponents (the majority chose the incorrect response), his team wins that round and two opposing players are defeated. If, however, the player failed to fool the opposing team, he, plus one other member of his team, is defeated. The game continues in this manner until one team defeats the other by knocking out all its members. One thousand dollars is divided between the winning team members.

Host: Sarah Purcell, Bill Anderson. Announcer: Gene Wood.

729 The Betty Boop Show. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1973). The comic adventures of Betty Boop, the sexy, mini-skirted cartoon character created by Max Fleischer. The series is comprised of 100 theatrical cartoons produced between 1930 and 1939 and which have been converted to color by a special film process.

Voice Cast: Mae Questel (Betty Boop).

730 The Betty Crocker Star Matinee. (Series; Variety; ABC; 1951–1952). The format features Betty Crocker, the General Mills Homemaking expert, demonstrating kitchen techniques, answering questions submitted by home viewers, conducting interviews with guests and hosting dramatic vignettes. The series aired from November 3, 1951 to April 26, 1952.

Cast: Adelaide Hawley (Betty Crocker). Announcer: Win Elliott.

731 The Betty Hutton Show. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1959–1960). Goldie Appleby is a former vivacious showgirl turned manicurist. She lives with her two best friends, Lorna Peterson and Rosemary Zandt in Apartment 18A at 346 West 41st Street in Manhattan. One day, Goldie accepts a dinner invitation from a lonely but wealthy customer named Mr. Strickland (David White). Later that night, Strickland's sudden death makes her the beneficiary of his will, the head of the $60 million Strickland estate and guardian of his three orphaned children: Patricia, Nicky and Roy.

Goldie relinquishes her job and her apartment and moves to the Strickland duplex on Park Avenue to become the children's guardian. Stories follow Goldie's misadventures as she struggles to run the foundation and care for and secure the affections of the spendthrift Strickland children.

As middle child Roy put it, Goldie was "buttons and bows" when she first arrived. She refined her wardrobe and her style; she is now "wow" according to Roy. Roy, as Goldie says, "is the Adolphe Menjou of the grade school set." He is the intellectual of the family, always dressed in a suit, very well mannered, and he seems more like a distinguished gentleman of 50 rather than a boy of 12. Goldie and Roy are close and, despite their age difference, Goldie turns to Roy for help and advice.

Patricia, who attends the Blair Academy for Girls, is the oldest child (17) and is struggling to become part of the society circle that members of her family are meant to be associated with; Nicky, the youngest, is not as refined as Roy or as enthusiastic as Patricia about his role in society. He would like to be what he is, a little boy, and enjoy the things little boys enjoy (although he requires his father's money to fulfill those wishes).

A second storyline follows Goldie's misadventures with Lorna and Rosemary. Rosemary works at the Pelican Club in Manhattan; Lorna is a beautician at the Mid Manhattan Salon. While the girls are the best of friends, they constantly bicker (as Goldie says, "Why do they keep Indians on reservations and let nuts like you run around loose?"). Rosemary is somewhat flakey and likes to spend money; the problem is, she never has any. Lorna, on the other hand is cheap — "She is tighter than Jayne Mansfield would look in Gary Cooper's sweater," says Goldie. Goldie's catchphrase is "Cu-cu," which she says when something strikes her fancy. In the episode "Jenny," Betty Hutton's real life daughter, Candy Briskin, appeared in a story about Goldie's efforts to unite a girl named Jenny with her mother. The series is also known as Goldie.

Cast: Betty Hutton (Goldie Appleby), Joan Shawlee (Lorna Peterson), Jean Carson (Rosemary Zandt), Gigi Perreau (Patricia Strickland), Richard Miles (Nicky Strickland), Dennis Joel (Roy Strickland).

732 The Betty White Show. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1954). A series of music, songs and interviews with actress Betty White in her first television series (which aired from February 8, 1954 to December 31, 1954).

Host: Betty White. Announcer: Del Sharbutt. Orchestra: Frank DeVol.

733 The Betty White Show. (Series; Variety; ABC; 1958). A series of music, songs and comedy sketches with actress Betty White as the host. The series aired from February 5, 1958 to April 30, 1958.

Host: Betty White. Regulators: John Dehner, Chill Wills, Reta Shaw, Peter Leeds. Announcer: Johnny Jacobs. Orchestra: Frank DeVol.

734 The Betty White Show. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1977–1978). A satire of television programs as seen through the experiences of Joyce Whitman, a struggling, mediocre actress who stars in Undercover Woman, a second-rate series directed by her estranged husband, John Elliott. The recurring storyline concerns Joyce's attempts to reconcile with John even though he insists they cannot live together.

Mitzi Maloney is Joyce's roommate; Fletcher Huff is the police chief on the show; Hugo Muncy is Joyce's stunt double; Tracy Garrett is an actress on the show; Doug Porterfield is the CBS liaison for the show; Lisa Vincent is an actress on the show; Marian Huff is Fletcher's wife; Connie Desmond is John's first ex-wife (Joyce is his second).

Cast: Betty White (Joyce Whitman), John Hillerman (John Elliott), Georgia Engel (Mitzi Maloney), Barney Phillips (Fletcher Huff), Charles Cyphers (Hugo Muncy), Caren Kaye (Tracy Garrett), Alex Henteloff (Doug Porterfield), Carla Borelli (Lisa Vincent), Florence Halop (Marian Huff), Joanna Barnes (Connie Desmond), Elizabeth Kerr (John's Mother Elliott), Janis Paige (Mitzi's Cousin Wilma). Theme Music: "Theme from the Betty White Show" by Stan Daniels.

735 Between Brothers. (Series; Comedy; Fox; UPN; 1997–1999). Charles Winston, his brother James and their friends Dustin Q. "Dusty" Canyon and Mitchell Ford are single men living in Chicago. The friends, who attended Northside High School, gather at the Corner Pub, a bar that serves Marv's brand beer. Charles is a sportswriter for the Chicago Examiner and shares Apartment 305 with James, a real estate broker for Raeburn Realty. Dusty, who attended Illinois State University, is a TV weatherman for WEBT, Channel 64. Dusty did a TV commercial for Big Head Bob's RV Land and his first job in the medium was cue card holder on the Po Po the Clown show (he later became Po Po because he fit the costume).

Dusty has his own web site (www.dusty.com), a toll free pager number (1-800-CANYON) and shares apartment 93 with Mitchell. On Fox, Sunny Rains was Dusty's competition; on UPN it is Wendy Day. Mitchell, who is trying to kick a gambling habit, teaches at Walter Payton High School and tutors children on Saturdays.

Cast: Kadeem Hardison (Charles Winston), Dondra T. Whitfield (James Winston), Tommy Davidson (Mitchell Ford), Kelly Perine (Dustin Q. Canyon).

736 Between the Lines. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 7/7/80). The Back Bay Mainline is an underground newspaper that is published in Boston. The unsold series was to focus on the antics of the staff as they struggle to get the paper to press: Frank, the editor; Stanley, the advertising head; its reporters: Harry, Abbie, Lynn, David and Max; and the staff secretary, Lynn.

Cast: Squire Friedel (Frank), Sandy Helberg (Stanley), Kristoffer Tabori (Harry), Susan Krebs (Abbie), Nancy Lane (Lynn), Charley Lang (David), Adam Arkin (Max). Guest Cast: Gino Conforti (The perfect teacher), Peggy Pope (Mrs. Boudry), Henry Hoing (Mr. Boudry).

737 Between the Lions. (Series; Children; PBS; 2000). An educational series with only one goal in mind: getting children to read. The program is set in a library where husband and wife lions, Theo and Cleo are its librarians. They have two curious cubs (Lionel and Leona) and through their adventures encourage children to read. Other characters include Barnaby B. Busterfield III (the library's founder, who is seen only as a bust); Hen, the information desk clerk; Clay and Walter, the dim-witted pigeons perched atop Buster; and Click, the computer mouse. Real people, (as opposed to puppets) also appear: Arty Smartypants, Dr. Ruth Westheimer and Stephen Scarpulla.

Cast: Jennifer Barnhart (Cleo Lion), Kathryn Mullen (Leona Lion), Pam Arciero (Leona Lion), Peter Linz (Theo Lion), Anthony Asbury (Lionel Lion), Tim Langasse (Barnaby B. Busterfield III), Heather Asch (Click the Mouse), Peter Linz (Gawain), Tim Lagasse (Arty Smartypants), Anthony Asbury (Arty Smartypants), Tyler Bunch (Walter Pigeon), Heather Asch (Clay Pigeon), Scott Dodson (Silver Knight), Dr. Ruth Westheimer (Herself), Stephen Scarpulla (Himself).

738 Beulah. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1950–1953). Beulah is an African American maid who considers her white employers, the Hendersons, “my family.” Harry, the father, is a lawyer with the firm of Henderson and Associates, and lives at 213 Lake Street with his wife, Alice, and son, Donnie.

Beulah is looking for a husband and is a member of the Ladies Auxiliary Sewing Circle. She calls Harry “Mr. Harry” and Alice “Miss Alice.” Harry enjoys playing golf on Saturday and has a prize rosebush in the front garden.

Alice is a member of the local bridge club and Donnie, who enjoys hiking and catching frogs, races his soapbox racer, the “Fire Streak,” down the 36th Street hill. Beulah's boyfriend, Bill Jackson, owns Jackson's Fix-It-Shop and eats at Slippery Joe's Diner. Beulah's scatterbrained girlfriend, Oriole, “knows everything about nothing.” Stories follow Beulah as she struggles to solve family problems and deal with the antics of her friends who consider the Henderson home their second home.

Based on the 1945–46 CBS radio series The Marlin Hurt and Beulah Show, wherein a white man (Marlin Hurt) played Beulah, the black maid to white businessman Marlin Hurt (Himself). The series was revised by ABC in 1947 as Beulah with a white man (Bob Corley) playing Beulah. When CBS picked up the series (1947–52), Hattie McDaniel, Louise Beavers and Lillian Randolph played the title role. The television series is also known as The Beulah Show.

Cast: Ethel Waters (Beulah), Hattie McDaniel (Beulah), Louise Beavers (Beulah), William Post, Jr. (Harry Henderson), David Bruce (Harry Henderson), Ginger Jones (Alice Henderson), Jane Frazee (Alice Henderson), Clifford Sales (Donnie Henderson), Stuffy Singer (Donnie Henderson), Butterfly McQueen (Oriole), Ruby Dandridge (Oriole), Dooley Wilson (Bill Jackson), Ernest Whitman (Bill Jackson).

739 The Beverly Hillbillies. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1962–1971). Jedidiah “Jed” Clampett is a poor, widowed mountaineer who lives in a small, run-down cabin near Blueberry Ridge in the Ozark community of Sibley. His cabin sits on a half acre of land “that is mostly stumps and rocks.” His daughter, Elly Mae, and his mother-in-law, Daisy “Granny” Moses, also live with him. The Clampetts are eight miles from their nearest neighbor and are overrun with bobcats, possums, coyotes and skunks. They drink homemade moonshine, use kerosene lamps for light, cook on a wood-burning stove and wash with Granny's homemade lye soap. The outhouse is 50 feet from the cabin.

One day, while hunting for food, Jed shoots at a rabbit. The bullet misses its target and strikes the ground near his swamp. Oil emerges from the ground but Jed sees this as only another problem to deal with. A short time later, a wildcatter for the O.K. Oil Company in Tulsa, Oklahoma, spots the oil. John Brewster, head of O.K. Oil, purchases “the headache” from Jed for $25 million. Jed’s cousin, Pearl Bodine, convinces Jed that he should live a better life and move to Beverly Hills (Jed likes the thought of “hills”). Jed’s money is deposited in the Commerce Bank of Beverly Hills and the bank president, Milburn Drysdale, purchases the mansion next to his for the Clampetts.

With the help of Pearl’s son Jethro and a loan of her 1920 Oldsmobile truck, Jed, Elly Mae, Granny and Jethro head for a new life out west.

Despite the modern conveniences, Jed longs for the life he had in the Ozarks. He continues to dress in his shabby clothes and has also brought his hunting dog, Duke, with him. When something pleases Jed he says “Well Doggies.” Jed’s late wife was named Rose Ellen. He attended Oxford Grammar School in Arkansas, and in 1963 his assets totaled $34,783,127.34 (by the time the series ended, the total grew to $80 million). Through Drysdale’s investments, Jed became the owner of the Mammoth Film Studios in Hollywood.

Elly Mae has a special place in her heart for animals (which she calls “critters”). She has a rooster, Earl (who can play dead), two chimpanzees, Skipper and Bessie (also called Beth), a jaguar (Jasper), raccoon (Elmer), squirrel (Nicky), cat (Rusty) and a duck (Charley).

Elly Mae is a beautiful young woman who dresses like a boy (when she got her first bra she thought it was “a store-bought lace-trimmed double-barreled sling shot”). Jed raised Elly Mae as best he knew how—like a boy (rough housing, fighting and fishing). Elly Mae was fearful of dressing like a girl because the boys called her “sissy.” Jed wants her to become refined like her mother, but ever since she could walk, she has been climbing trees and “cuddlin’ creatures.”

“The big tree out front” is Elly Mae’s favorite hiding place on the Clampett property. She attended the all-girl Willows Academy for Select Young Ladies.

Jethro, born on December 4, spent two years in the first grade, three years in the fourth grade and brags that he “was educated and graduated from the sixth grade” (at the Millicent Schyler Potts School, a private institution that teaches kindergarten to sixth grade; in the hills, Jethro attended the Oxford Grammar School). Jethro is considered “the educated one in the family” and is the only one who delights in the excitement of the big city. His main goal is to attract the opposite sex “and find me a sweetheart.” Jethro had ambitions to be an astronaut (“to find Moon Maidens”), a streetcar conductor, a pig farmer, “do brain surgeon,” become a folk singer and a movie star (he did hold a job as a stunt double for film star Dash Riprock). When Jed feels Jethro has done something wrong, he remarks “I gotta have a long talk with that boy.”

Granny believes Jefferson Davis is the president of the U.S. She won “The Miss Good Sport Award” at the Bug Tussle Bathing Beauty Contest at Expo 1897 and has an all-around cure for ailments called Granny’s Spring Tonic. Granny, born in Tennessee, has a double-barreled 12-gauge shotgun she uses “to get rid of revenuers.” She plays a 200-year-old lap organ and refuses to give up the customs of the hills. She has a still in the backyard (to brew her “Rheumatiz Medicine”) and claims she is the only one in the family who can hold a grudge.

When Milburn Drysdale acquired Jed’s money, making the Clampetts his largest depositor, he gave his secretary, Jane Hathaway, a second job: to cater to Jed’s every whim. Jane, a bird watcher, is a graduate of Vassar and calls Milburn “Chief” (the Clampetts call her “Miss Jane”).

Milburn will do anything to please the Clampetts so they will not take their money out of his bank. He is a man of vision and is seeking to exploit the potential of the Clampett income. To Milburn, “Jed is my kind of people—loaded.”

When Milburn is happy, his wife, Margaret, isn’t. She has a pampered French poodle (Claude) and seeks ways to get the Clampetts out of her life (she feels they are a disgrace to the neighborhood). “Mother’s baby” is Milburn’s stepson (Margaret’s son), Sonny. Sonny is pampered and has been in college for 17 years (“I’m trying to find myself”). He likes Elly Mae “even though she’s not a blueblood” and “digs that crazy package she comes in.”

Jethro’s mother, Pearl, was a recurring regular in early episodes (Bea Benaderet left in 1963 to star in Petticoat Junction). Pearl taught music and her specialty was yodeling (which Granny considered a punishment to hear).

The original, unaired pilot for the series, The Hillbillies of Beverly Hills, has the same cast but the music (uncredited) is different (no singing and a different tune). The story line differs in that Jed knew about the oil in the swamp (the hunting aspect was not used) and he sold it just to rid himself of a nuisance. The only other change is the name of the bank (called the Beverly Hills Bank). Jerry Scoggins sings the theme, “The Ballad of Jed Clampett,” with music provided by Flatt and Scruggs.

The series was updated in the TV movie The Return of the Beverly Hillbillies (CBS, October 6, 1981). After Granny’s passing, Jed (Buddy Ebsen) divided his vast estate between his daughter, Elly Mae (Donna Douglas), and his nephew, Jethro (Ray Young). Jed moved back to the hills; Elly Mae opened her own zoo (Elly’s Zoo) and Jethro became the owner of the Mammoth Film Studios in Hollywood.

Jane Hathaway (Nancy Kulp), now an employee of the Energy Department in Washington, D.C., experiments with some of Granny's moonshine and discovers that it has the potential to double our country's output of gasoline and oil. The story follows Jane as she seeks the formula for the moonshine from the only person who knows its secret: Granny's Maw (Imogene Coca), a 104-year-old woman who is not about to give away any family secrets.

Cast: Buddy Ebsen (Jed Clampett), Irene Ryan (Granny), Donna Douglas (Elly Mae Clampett), Max Baer, Jr. (Jethro Bodine), Raymond Bailey (Milburn Drysdale), Nancy Culp (Jane Hathaway), Harriet MacGibbon (Margaret Drysdale), Bea Benaderet (Pearl Bodine; Jethro's mother), Max Baer (Jethrene Bodine; Jethro's sister), Linda Kaye Henning (Voice of Jethrene), Frank Wilcox (Tom Brewster; head of O.K. Oil), Lester Flatt (Himself; Jed's friend), Earl Scruggs (Himself; Jed's friend), Joi Lansing (Gladys Flatt; Lester's wife), Midge Ware (Louise Scruggs; Earl's wife), Paul Winchell (Homer Winch; Pearl's beau), Phil Gordon (Jasper DePew; Jethrene's beau), Arthur Gould Porter (Ravenscott; the Drysdale's butler), Shirry Steffin (Marie; the Drysdale's maid), Larry Pennell (Dash Riprock; the movie star), Roger Torrey (Mark Templeton; Elly Mae's beau), Percy Helton (Homer Cratchitt; bank bookkeeper), Louis Nye (Sonny Drysdale; Milburn's son), Sharon Tate (Janet Trego; bank secretary), Fred Clark (Dr. Roy Clayburn), Milton Frome (Harry Chapman; the movie producer).
Announcer: Bill Baldwin.

740 Beverly Hills Bordello. (Series; Anthology; Cinemax; 1996). Veronica Winston is a beautiful woman who runs a classy house of prostitution in exclusive Beverly Hills, California. Clients availing themselves of Veronica's services seek only one thing: a sexual fantasy fulfilled. Stories, which are soft core pornography (sexual situations, female nudity) relates the fantasies that come to life for those (men and women) who seek Madame Veronica's services.

Cast: Nicole Gian (Veronica; 1996–1997), Gabriella Hall (Veronica; 1997–1998), Monique Parent (Veronica; 1998).

741 Beverly Hills Buntz. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1987–1988). Following the demise of the series Hill Street Blues, Detective Norman Buntz and his faithful companion, Sid "The Snitch" Thurston, leave the "Hill" and head for Beverly Hills. There Buntz becomes a private detective (owner of Norman Buntz Investigations). The rather spread out four-episode test follows the less-than-honorable investigations of a sleazy detective and his partner. Other Regulars: Rebecca, Norman's business neighbor, a TV and film writer.

In the original pilot film (produced in May 1986) Eve Gordon played Rebecca. The series ran on the following days: November 5 and 22, 1987; December 27, 1987; and March 25, 1988.

Cast: Dennis Franz (Norman Buntz), Peter Jurasik (Sid Thurston), Diana Wheeler-Nicholson (Rebecca Griswold).

742 Beverly Hills, 90210. (Series; Drama; Fox; 1990–2000). Brenda and Brandon Walsh are 16-year-old fraternal twins who lived with their parents, Cindy and Jim Walsh, at 1408 Walnut Avenue in Minneapolis, Minnesota. They enjoyed a simple life and had few problems. They were both straight A students and enjoyed hiking around nearby Gull Lake. Brenda was a member of the drama club and the student council. Brandon, called "Mr. Popularity," was a writer for the school newspaper and a member of the swim team. But that was then. The address 933 Hillcrest Drive, Beverly Hills, California 90210, is now — a total change in lifestyle when Jim, an accountant with the firm of Powell, Gaines and Yellin, is transferred to the West Coast office and the family is forced to relocate. Brenda and Brandon's experiences at West Beverly Hills High School and their efforts to become part of "the in crowd" are the focal point of the series.

Brenda is four minutes older than Brandon. She is beautiful "but not California beautiful," and she desperately wants to be like her girlfriends Kelly and Donna — blondes who are popular and rich and fit her image of "the California girl." As the series progressed, Brenda learned to accept herself. As for clothes, she "tries to make for free what the trendy stores sell for $150."

"Keep It Together" is Brenda's favorite television show. She has a porcelain doll collection, is scared to death of heights and is totally honest.

As a kid Brenda rode a horse called Sylvester. She had four dogs: Ruby (who was not able to be trained), Bruno (who bit the mailman), Mr. Pepper (who froze to death; Brenda was nine years old "and how was I suppose to know about wind chill factors?"), and Wally (a stray she adopted).

Brandon is a member of the school's newspaper staff (he is sports editor in second season episodes). He works as a waiter in a diner called the Peach Pit and has ambitions of becoming a writer. Even though Brenda yearns to be an actress, Brandon's good looks landed him a role on the television soap "Keep It Together" (when Brenda filled in for him at the Peach Pit, she worked as a waitress she called "Laverne"). Brandon also worked as a cabana boy at the Beverly Hills Beach Club during the summer of 1991 (in Minnesota, he was a lifeguard at the community swimming pool).

Cindy and Jim met in college (University of Minnesota) and married shortly after (they have been married 17 years when the series begins). Jim worked for the Literary Journal at school before he became an accountant. Cindy worked “at my mom’s store in Minneapolis” (her own words; store name not mentioned). She loves gardening and now works as a freelance landscaper. Jim calls Brenda “Beautiful” and Brandon “Big Guy.”

Kelly Taylor is beautiful, style-conscious and a sun worshiper. She is a rich, spoiled girl who has been called “The Rich Bitch” by some of the boys she has dated. Max is the name of her dog. At the 1991 Junior Prom Spring Dance, Kelly was voted Spring Queen. She is forced to play parent to her divorced, man-hungry mother, whose questionable moral practices she sometimes finds herself copying. Kelly and Brenda take exercise classes at Bob Silvers World.

Donna Martin is tall, pretty and bright but suffers from a learning disability that makes it extremely difficult for her to score well on written exams under pressure. Her favorite movie is Pretty Woman, and her fantasy (from the film) is “to run away, become a hooker and meet Richard Gere on Hollywood Boulevard.” Donna was born on December 25, 1974 and has an account at the National Bank of the West.

Andrea Zuckerman is the editor of the school newspaper, The Blaze, and Brandon’s on-and-off girlfriend. She and Brenda are also volunteers for the Rap Line (to help troubled teens) of the local social services center. She is a Woody Allen film buff and from a poor family (she lives in the Valley and outside the school district; she lies about where she lives so she can attend West Beverly High and takes advantage of its programs). Andrea is the classic overachiever; she mentioned her mother’s name as being Beverly.

Dylan McKay is Brenda’s boyfriend. He has a Porsche Speedster and is a recovering alcoholic. He is a sensitive and misunderstood surfer who is rejected by his parents (his father is in jail for business fraud; his mother lives in Hawaii).

Other Regulars: Steve Sanders is a student whose mother, Samantha Sanders, stars in the television series “The Hartley House” (where she plays Mary Jo Hartley, the mother of three children). Steve was adopted by Samantha; he was born in Albuquerque, New Mexico, and his natural mother, who is now deceased, was named Karen Brown. David Silver is the school D.J. (station KWBH) and the video year-book cameraman.

Emily Valentine is Brandon’s girlfriend in the second season episodes. She attends West Beverly High and caused their relationship to end when she slipped Brandon the drug Euphorium against his wishes.

The local hangout is the Peach Pit, a diner run by Nat. It is located on the corner of Olympic and Larabee streets, and many famous Hollywood stars have been its customers (for example, Marilyn Monroe, Steve McQueen and Montgomery Clift). In later episodes, the hangout is a nightclub called After Dark. The series was originally called Class of Beverly Hills and is also known as 90210.

Relatives: Ann Gillespie (Kelly’s mother, Jackie Taylor), Christine Belford (Steve’s mother, Samantha Sanders), Stephanie Beacham (Dylan’s mother, Iris McKay), Gordon Currie (Brenda’s cousin, Bobby Walsh), Matthew Laurance (David’s father, Mel Silver), Katherine Cannon (Donna’s mother, Felice Martin). David’s father, a dentist at the Reston Medical Center, married Kelly’s mother. Theme: “Beverly Hills, 90210,” by John E. Davis.

Cast: Shannen Doherty (Brenda Walsh), Jason Priestley (Brandon Walsh), Carol Potter (Cindy Walsh), James Eckhouse (Jim Walsh), Jennie Garth (Kelly Taylor), Tori Spelling (Donna Martin), Gabrielle Carteris (Andrea Zuckerman), Luke Perry (Dylan McKay), Ian Ziering (Steve Sanders), Brian Austin Green (David Silver), Christine Elise (Emily Valentine), Joe E. Tata (Nat).

743 Beverly Hills Teens. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1987). The life of a clique of rich and spoiled teenage girls who live in posh Beverly Hills is satirized in animated form. The main characters, Larke Tanner and Bianca Dupree, are two beautiful girls (drawn as real babes) who seem to find nothing but mishap in everything they do. They share their experiences with fellow babes Nikki Darling, Blaze Summers, Shanelle Spencer and Tara Southington. There are the boys the girls drool over — Troy and Pierce; the rockers (Jett and Gig); the gang schemer (Radley) and Pierce’s sister, Jillian.

Voice Cast: Mary Long (Larke Tanner), Terri Hawkes (Bianca Dupree), Corinne Koslo (Nikki Darling), Karen Bernstein (Tara Southington), Terri Hawkes (Blaze Summers), Tracey Moore (Jillian Thorndike), Hadley Kay (Radley Crown), Karen Bernstein (Jett), Michelle St. John (Shanelle Spencer), Stephen McMullin (Pierce Thorndike), Michael Beattie (Buck Huckster), Jonathan Potts (Troy).

744 Bewitched. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1964–1972). Darrin Stevens and his wife Samantha (called “Sam”) live at 1164 Morning Glory Circle in Westport, Connecticut. Darrin, an account executive for the Manhattan advertising firm of McMann and Tate, and Samantha, met by accident — by bumping into each other. It was on their honeymoon that Samantha revealed to Darrin that she is a witch — “a cauldron-stirring, broom-riding witch.” To please Darrin, who became very upset, Samantha agrees not to use her magic. The decision upsets Samantha’s powerful parents, Endora and Maurice as well as the Witches’ Council and sets the storyline as Samantha unwittingly uses her powers to help Darrin (or resolve family problems) only to find that by doing so, she most often causes additional problems that need solving. Samantha evokes her magic by wrinkling her nose. When something troubles Samantha she says “Oh my stars.” Samantha is prone to illnesses that are not common to mortals. When she needs help, she uses the atmospheric continuum to contact her family physician, Dr. Bombay. Although called a “Witch Doctor” by Darrin, his cures (as weird as they are) often work. When Darrin becomes upset with Samantha (for using her powers) or one of her wacky relatives, he retreats to Joe’s Bar and Grill (later called the Happy Time Bar) to drown his sorrows.

Samantha and Darrin became the parents of Tabitha (a witch) and Adam (a warlock). Tabitha’s birth on January 13, 1966 also introduced Serena, Samantha’s beautiful “goddess of love” cousin (played by Elizabeth Montgomery but credited as Pandora Sparks). Serena is mischievous, fun loving and has a birthmark on the left side of her face near her lower eyelid (it changes with episodes and takes the form of, for example, an anchor, a question mark, a peace symbol, a heart).

Endora is chairwoman of the Witches’ Council and often calls Darrin “Dumbo,” “Durwood” or “Dum Dum.” Although Endora is married to Maurice, they live separate lives. Maurice is a distinguished warlock and feels Darin does not meet his standards for an ideal son-in-law. He calls him “Duspin,” “Dustin,” “Dobbin” and “Duncan.” Both delight in casting spells on Darrin.

Arthur is Samantha’s fun loving, practical-joke playing uncle. Serena calls him “Unkie Pooh” and he considers Endora to be “The Wicked Witch of the West.” Samantha’s Aunt Clara, noted for her door-knob collection, is an aging and bumbling witch. Esmeralda is the shy witch whose clothes appear before she does. Larry White is Darrin’s boss. He is married to Louise and always takes credit for Darrin’s ideas. Abner Kravitz and his wife Gladys are Samantha and Darrin’s next-door neighbors. Gladys is convinced there is something weird happening at the Stevens’ house; she sees things no one else does (Samantha using her magic) but can’t convince anyone else that what she sees is real.

See also Tabitha for information on the spin-off series.

Theme: “Bewitched,” by Howard Greenfield and Jack Keller.

Cast: Elizabeth Montgomery (Samantha Stevens), Dick York, Dick Sargent (Darrin Stevens), Agnes Moorehead (Endora), Maurice Evans (Maurice), David White (Larry Tate), Irene Vernon (Louise Tate; Larry’s wife), Kasey Rogers (Louise Tate; later), Alice Pearce (Gladys Kravitz), Sandra Gould (Gladys Kravitz; later), George Tobias (Abner Kravitz), Mary Grace Canfield (Harriet Kravitz; Abner’s sister), Robert F. Simon (Frank Stevens; Darrin’s father), Roy Roberts (Frank Stevens; later), Mabel Albertson (Phyllis Stevens; Darrin’s mother), Diane and Erin

Murphy (Tabitha Stevens), David and Greg Lawrence (Adam Stevens), Marion Lorne (Samantha’s Aunt Clara), Paul Lynde (Samantha’s Uncle Arthur), Elizabeth Montgomery (Samantha’s Cousin Serena), Bernard Fox (Dr. Bombay), Alice Ghostley (Esmeralda; the shy witch), Ysabel MacClosky (Samantha’s Aunt Hagatha), Reta Shaw (Aunt Hagatha; later), Dick Wesson (Drunk Darrin meets at the bar), Marcia Wallace (Betty; Darrin’s secretary), Samantha Scott (Betty; replaced Marcia), Jean Blake (Betty; replaced Samantha), Samantha Hathaway (Betty; replaced Jean), Leon Ames (Howard McMahan; Larry’s partner), Gilbert Roland (Howard McMahan; replaced Leon), Louise Sorel (Margaret McMahan; Howard’s wife), Bernie Kopell (The Apothecary), Charles Lane (Various clients of Darrin), Jack Weston (Louis Gruber; Gladys’s brother), Estelle Winwood (Samantha’s Aunt Enchantra), Jane Connell (Samantha’s Aunt Hephzibah), Arte Johnson (Samantha’s Cousin Edgar), Sharon Vaughn (Miss Springer; Larry’s secretary). Theme: “Bewitched” by Howard Greenfield, Jack Keller.

745 Beyond Belief. (Pilot; Reality; CBS; 12/28/94). Reports on events that are seemingly beyond belief (for example, a look at the unparalleled success of the TV series The Mighty Morphin Power Rangers; people with chronic pain who find relief swimming with dolphins; a Cuban-born swimmer who set a world record by diving 400 feet without breathing apparatus).

Hosts: Anne-Marie Martin, Pat O’Brien.

746 Beyond Belief: Fact or Fiction? (Series; Anthology; Fox; 1997–2000). An intriguing anthology series that tests the viewer’s ability to determine fact from fiction. Five mini stories, each with a strange twist or no seemingly logical explanation, are dramatized. “Did what you saw really happen or did we make it up?” At the end of each program the stories are recapped and one by one the host reveals if they were fact or fiction.

An announcer opens the show: “Beyond Belief: Fact or Fiction hosted by Jonathan Frakes. Tonight your challenge is to separate what is true from what is false. Five stories, some real, some fake. Can you judge which are fact and which are fiction? To find out you must enter a world of both truth and deception — a world that is beyond belief.”

Host: Jonathan Frakes, James Brolin. Announcer: Don LaFontaine.

747 Beyond Westworld. (Series; Adventure; CBS; 1980). Westworld, a futuristic playground where adults act out their wildest fantasies with human-like robots, is built by the Delos Corporation. Soon after, Simon Quaid, creator of the robots, destroys Westworld when he feels Delos has used his creations for purposes other than his dream of a harmonious society, and goes on a rampage of revenge and destruction. The series follows Quaid — bitter and disillusioned — as he launches his virtually indestructible robots on missions that endanger the world, and the Delo Corporation's battle to end Quaid's reign of terror. Based on the film Westworld. Three of five produced episodes aired.

John Moore is Delos's chief agent; Pamela Williams is his assistant; Joseph Oppenheimer is a Delos scientist; Roberta is Joseph's aide; Laura and Jan are Delos agents; Foley is Simon's aide.

Cast: James Wainwright (Simon Quaid), Jim McMullan (John Moore), Connie Sellecca (Pamela Williams), William Jordan (Joseph Oppenheimer), Judith Chapman (Laura Garvey), Ann McCurry (Roberta), Mo Lauren (Jan), Stewart Moss (Foley), Severn Darden (Foley; later), Alex Kubik (Gunfighter in Program Open), Edward Coch, Jr. (Gunfighter's Opponent), Cassandra Peterson (Dance Hall Girl in Program Open).

748 Beyond Witch Mountain. (Pilot; Adventure; CBS; 2/20/82). Forced to leave their own planet when their sun collides with it, a group of aliens crash-land on Earth and establish a base in Witch Mountain. Shortly after, two of its young members, Tia and Tony, leave the security of their colony to search for others of their kind. During their trek they befriend Jason O'Day, a kindly Earthling who rescues them from Aristotle Bolt, a billionaire who is seeking Tia and Tony — and their extraordinary powers — which he plans to use to control the world.

In this third entry (preceded by two theatrical films, Escape to Witch Mountain, 1975, and Return from Witch Mountain, 1978) the saga continues as Jason, Tia and Tony attempt to escape from Bolt. In the pilot episode, the trio attempts to help Uncle Bene, a space traveler, find his grandson. Other Regulars: Deranian, Bolt's aide; and Winky, Jason's pet cat.

Cast: Eddie Albert (Jason O'Day), Tracey Gold (Tia), Andy Freeman (Tony), Efrem Zimbalist, Jr. (Aristotle Bolt), J.D. Cannon (Deranian), Noah Beery, Jr. (Uncle Bene). Guest Cast: Stephanie Blackmore (Dr. Adrian Molina), Peter Hobbs (Dr. Peter Morton), James Luisi (Foreman), William H. Bassett (Lowell Roberts), Hettie Lynn Hurtes (Reporter), Lola Mason (Lady driver).

749 Bicentennial Minutes. (Series; History; CBS; 1976–1978). A series of one minute spots celebrating the birth of America. Celebrities relate bits of American history that occurred two hundred years prior to that particular evening's broadcast.

750 The Bickersons. (Series; Comedy; Syn.; 1951). "We should have been married by the secretary of war, not a justice of the peace," said John Bickerson after he married Blanche eight years ago. John is a vacuum cleaner salesman for Household Appliances; Blanche is the typical American housewife struggling to make ends meet on what little salary John brings home (to 123 Englewood Drive, Apartment 22). They have a cat named Nature Boy, an unnamed canary and goldfish, and one thing in common: they love to bicker about anything and everything.

John is also a chronic snorer (it's so loud that the neighbors often call to complain). "It's like sleeping with a one man band.... Now I know what it is like to sleep at Cape Canaveral," Blanche says.

John's pride and joy seems to be the one bedroom slipper he has. Blanche and a friend bought a raffle ticket and won a pair of slippers. They split the prize and John wound up with the right slipper. John keeps the slipper under his pillow — "It's the only slipper I have and I have to protect it with my life."

Blanche gets "dizzy spells every five minutes that last a half hour." John doesn't hate Blanche's cooking, he just doesn't understand it. Possum broth, powdered frog legs, frog omelets, deviled pancakes and two-foot-long rhubarb pies are the norm. Because Blanche has little money to spend, she sometimes borrows from the money John saves for his life insurance payments (she tells the company to pay the premium "by deducting the money they will pay her when John drops dead").

Clara Gollup is Blanche's married sister. She and her husband, Barney Gollup, live at 121 Englewood Drive. Barney is a gambler and hangs out at the United Nations Pool Hall. His door bell plays the trumpet song that sounds the start of a horse race.

Dr. Hersey is "the quack," as John calls him, who treats the various "ills" the Bickersons have. His biggest challenge is to cure John of his chronic snoring (he has prescribed two aspirins and a jigger of bourbon every night. John is six months behind on the aspirin and two years ahead on the bourbon).

Lew Parker later teamed with Betty Kean and reprised "The Bickersons" via guest shots on various variety series.

Cast: Virginia Grey (Blanche Bickerson), Lew Parker (John Bickerson), Lois Austin (Clara Gollup), Sam Lee (Barney Gollup), William Pulem (Dr. Hersey).

751 Bid 'n' Buy. (Series; Game; CBS; 1958). Four contestants compete and each receives $10,000 in real money. The silhouette of an object is shown to the players who then use their cash to bid for clues to its identification. Each correct identification awards the player a merchandise prize. The player who is able to identify the most objects by spending the least amount of money receives the prizes he has won. The summer series aired from July 1, 1958 to September 23, 1958.

Host: Bert Parks. Announcer: Bill Rogers.

752 Biff Baker, U.S.A. (Series; Adventure; CBS; 1952–1953). Biff and Louise Baker are husband and wife export buyers who secretly work for the U.S. government. Stories relate their world-wide adventures as they seek goods for their importing business — and attempt to investigate the secrecy barriers behind the Iron Curtain.

Cast: Alan Hale, Jr. (Biff Baker), Randy Stuart (Louise Baker).

753 Big. (Unaired Pilot; Comedy; Produced for CBS in 1990). Josh Baskin is a 12 year old boy who feels that he is too short. One night at a carnival, he plays a Zoltan Fortune Telling Machine and wishes to be big. The following morning his wish is granted when he is turned into a 30-year-old adult. His mother fails to understand and calls the police, believing he is an intruder (the police believe Josh was kidnapped after he is reported missing). With no place else to go, Josh turns to his best friend, Billy, who suggests that he find a job until such time as he can locate the Zoltan machine and reverse his wish. With Billy's help Josh fakes an employment application and acquires a job in data processing (his computer experience — playing video games — impressed the boss, Mr. McMillan, the head of McMillan Toys). Josh is soon made the Vice President of Product Development (“I play with toys and tell them what I think”), when he impressed Mr. McMillan with his knowledge of toys. Susan Lawrence, a vice president, is the only other person who knows Josh's secret (when she stumbles upon it and agrees to keep it). The unsold series was to relate Josh's experiences as a 12 year old in an adult body and his efforts to become a boy again and return to his family. Based on the 1988 feature film of the same title.

Cast: Bruce Norris (Josh Baskin), Darren McGavin (“Mack” McMillan), Alison LaPlaca (Susan Lawrence), Cory Danziger (Billy Kopechne).

754 Big Apple. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 2001). Detective Mike Mooney is a veteran cop with the 11th Precinct of the N.Y.P.D. He is partners with Vincent Trout, a younger, still wet behind the ears detective and stories follow their case investigations as they team with the FBI agents stationed in Manhattan to solve complex crimes. William Preecher is the senior FBI agent; Sarah Day and James Flynn are agents working for Preecher; Terry Maddock is the somewhat shady FBI informant.

Cast: Ed O'Neill (Det. Mike Mooney), David Strathairn (William Preecher), Jeffrey Pierce (Det. Vincent Trout), Kim Dickens (Sarah Day), Glynn Turman (Teddy Olsen), Michael Madsen (Terry Maddock), Titus Welliver (James Flynn).

755 The Big Attack. (Series; Anthology; Syn.; 1957). The alternate title for a series that was originally broadcast as Citizen Soldier. See this title for information.

756 Big Bad Beetleborgs. (Series; Adventure; Fox; 1996–1998). Drew, Jo and Roland are three pre-teen friends who live in a city called Charterville (their hangout is Zoom Comics, a book store owned by Roland's father, where they fascinated by comic book heroes called Beetleborgs). Fate intervenes: When Joe, Drew and Roland are dared to enter Hillcrest Mansion (a supposedly haunted house) by the school bullies, they encounter child hungry spirits. While trying to escape, they bump into an old pipe organ. A blue apparition, named Flabber, emerges. Thankful for being released from his prison, he grants the children a wish; they choose to become the Beetleborgs. While their wish is granted, the spell also releases the Magnavores, the enemies of the Beetleborgs. The children, who become the armored, adult-sized, insect powered cyborg warriors (the Beetleborgs) must now defend Charterville from the evils of the Magnavores (Jara, Noxic, Vexor and Typhus) who are capable of releasing monsters (found in the comics) to prey on the city.

Drew has become the Blue Stinger Beetleborg and has telekinetic powers; Jo, his younger sister, becomes the Red Striker Beetleborg and has super strength; Roland becomes the Green Hunter Beetleborg whose power is super speed. Each also has a large fighting machine called a Beetle A.V.

Second season episodes, titled Beetleborgs Metalliz finds the pre-teens equipped with more powerful weapons and new names. Drew is the Chromium Gold Beetleborg; Jo is the Platinum Purple Beetleborg; and Roland is the Titanium Silver Beetleborg. They also have new enemies thanks to Les Fortune, the criminally insane brother of Beetleborgs comic book creator Art Fortune. Les creates Horribelle, Nukus, Vilor and the Crustaceans cohorts and the Beetleborgs must now use their advanced powers to save Charterville from Les's evil plan to conquer it.

Other Regulars: Aaron and Abby Williams, Roland's parents; Nano, Roland's grandmother; Heather, the girl who works at Zoom Comics; Van and Trip, the school bullies. Living with Flabber in the haunted house are the child hungry monsters: Frankenbeans, Wolfgang, Count Fangula and Mums.

Cast: Wesley Barker (Andrew “Drew” McCormick), Brittany Konazewski (Josephine “Jo” McCormick), Sharon Chandler (Josephine “Jo” McCormick), Herbie Baez (Roland Williams), Billy Forester (Flabber), Rigg Kennedy (Art Fortunes), Kim Delgado (Aaron Williams), Channe Nolen (Abby Williams), Vivian Smallwood (Nano Williams), Joey Pal (Vexor), Rajia Baroudi (Jara), Derek Stephen Prince (Noxic), Lee Whey (Noxic), Michi Yamato (Noxic), Elizabeth Lund (Heather), Kyle Jordan (Typhus), Todd Hurst (Trip), Patrick Seaborn (Van), Don Altman (Frankenbeans), Blake Torney (Mums), Joe Hackett (Count Fangula), Frank Adelon (Wolfgang), Scott Page Pagter (Wolfgang), Claudine Barros (Horribelle), Marshall Hilton (Les Fortune).

757 The Big Bang Theory. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 2007–). Sheldon and Leonard are brilliant Cal Tech theoretical physicists who share an apartment. Their lives revolve around their work and the only thing that apparently ever excites them is winning a game of Klingon Boggle. Life suddenly changes when Penny, a gorgeous, free-spirited girl moves into the apartment (4B) across the hall from theirs (4A). Sheldon and Leonard have never been ones for interaction with people, especially women, but the sight of Penny has awoken new feelings in Leonard — he has seen women in a whole new light (or, as he would say, “a whole new universe of possibilities”). Can a nerd with “a beautiful mind” ever have a beautiful girl like Penny? Stories follow Leonard as he sets out to change his life by exploring a world he has never known before (much against the objections of Sheldon, who feels Leonard is headed for a whole new world of heartbreak).

Howard and Rajesh are Sheldon and Leonard’s socially dysfunctional Cal Tech friends (who work in the Department of Applied Physics). Penny, who works as a waitress (later bartender) at the Cheese Cake Factory Restaurant, is constantly in a dither when Sheldon and Leonard speak (she simply doesn’t understand them). She calls her new friends “beautiful mind genius guys.” Penny is from Omaha and came to Los Angeles (the series setting) to become an actress. She is a vegetarian — except for the occasional fish and steak — “I love stake.” While Penny is trying to figure out Sheldon and Leonard, Sheldon and Leonard are trying to understand a girl who is well below their intellectual level.

Lesley is the female genius Leonard works with at the university.

Theme Vocal: “The Big Bang Theory” by Bare Naked Ladies.

Cast: Kaley Cuoco (Penny), Johnny Galecki (Leonard), Jim Parsons (Sheldon Cooper), Simon Helberg (Howard Wolowitz), Kunal Nayyar (Rajesh Koothrappali), Laurie Metcalf (Mary Cooper; Sheldon’s mother), Sara Gilbert (Lesley).

758 The Big Beat. (Series; Variety; ABC; 1957). A four-week interim program featuring performances by the top names in rock and roll music. The series, hosted by disc jockey Alan Freed, ran from July 12, 1957 to August 2, 1957.

Host: Alan Freed. Performers: Connie Francis, Frankie Avalon, Bobby Darin, Andy Williams, Chuck Berry, Jerry Lee Lewis, The Everly Brothers. Music Director: Alan Freed.

759 Big Bend Country. (Pilot; Drama; CBS; 8/27/81). The time is 1865. Ian McGregor is a battle-weary Confederate soldier who brings his family (his wife, Mary; and their children, Davey, Addie and Donny) to Big Bend, Tennessee, to begin a new life. The unsold series was to follow the McGregors’ experiences in a new territory. In the pilot episode, the McGregors’ newfound peace is shattered when marauders attack and destroy their home.

Other Regulars: Sam Purdy, the general store owner; Minerva, Sam’s wife; Caleb, Davey’s friend; the Reverend Fosser; and Sarah Marden, the school teacher.

Cast: James Keach (Ian McGregor), Dorothy Fielding (Mary McGregor), Robert MacNaughton (Davey McGregor), Tama Howard (Addie McGregor), Johnny Graves (Donny McGregor), Stefan Gierasch (Sam Purdy), Anne Haney (Minerva Purdy), Robert Telford (Reverend Fosser), Miles Harris (Caleb), Wendy Fuller (Sarah Marden). Guest Cast: Andy Robinson (Beau), John Quade (Hart), James McIntire (Dillon), Vicki Schreck (Plantation girl), Tamara Cooper (Plantation woman). Narrator: Robert Telford.

760 The Big Blue Marble. (Series; Children; Syn.; 1975–1982). An educational series for children that explains various aspects of the world to children. (real children are seen experiencing one subject in two ways: how it appears in the U.S. and how the same subject is portrayed in a foreign country). The title refers to the Earth, which when seen from space resembles “a big blue marble.”

Cast: Liliane Clune, David Lauren, Tisha Campbell, Mordecai Lawner.

761 Big Bob Johnson and His Fantastic Speed Circus. (Pilot; Adventure; NBC; 6/27/78). Big Bob Johnson and his partners, Vikki Lee and Julie are the Fantastic Speed Circus, a traveling daredevil race car show. They are managed by W.G. Blazer and the unsold series was to follow their adventures as they perform and help people in trouble. The pilot episode depicts Johnson’s efforts to win the title of an eccentric’s estate by defeating two competitors in a cross-country race.

Cast: Charles Napier (Big Bob Johnson), Maud Adams (Vikki Lee Sanchez), Constance Forslund (Julie Hunsacker), Robert Stoneman (W.G. Blazer). Guest Cast: William Daniels (Laurence Stepwell), Rick Hurst (Timothy Stepwell), Burton Gilliam (Half Moon Muldoon), James Bond III (Jesse), Tom McFadden (Alfie), Clay Tanner (Earl).

762 Big Brother. (Series; Reality; CBS; 2000–). Thirteen strangers are brought together and placed in a large residence (The Big Brother House) where they all become houseguests. Cameras follow their daily lives (especially how they interact with each other) and each episode begins with a challenge to elect a Head of the Household. A series of successfully completed tasks determines who wins this honor. This person then nominates two houseguests for eviction. But before anyone can leave, a Power of Veto competition is held to win the Golden Power of Veto. The winner of this title can override the Head of the Household's decision and place someone else up for eviction. Once the choice for eviction has been made, the houseguests vote to determine who must leave. House guests are then eliminated on a weekly basis (based on their inability to perform tasks). After two months, two houseguests remain. A panel of judges determines which houseguest wins the prize ($500,000) based on performance since entering the house.

Host: Julie Chen, April Lewis. Announcer: Clayton Hlasey.

763 Big Brother Jake. (Series; Comedy; Family Channel; 1991–1994). Jake Rozzner is a successful Hollywood stuntman who holds fond memories of the foster home in which he grew up. Hoping to return the kindness he was once given, Jake returns to Brooklyn, New York, to make life a bit better for the children who now live at the home. Jake reunites with “Mom” (Connie Duncan), the kind African American woman who runs the home. But times have become rough. Connie’s husband, Isaac, has passed away and Connie has been struggling to run the home alone. Now, with Jake’s help, things are beginning to look up and stories follow Jake and Connie as they care for a group of rambunctious orphans: Kateri, a bright African-American girl; Lou, an overweight teenager; Jill, a teen obsessed with boys; pre-teen terrors Andy and Dave; and Caroline, a young Asian girl; Meg Morgan (and later Roberta Domedian) is the social worker; Jane O’Hara is Jake’s former high school girlfriend; Gary MacLamore is Jake’s friend, a Manhattan lawyer.

Cast: Jake Steinfeld (Jake Rozzner), Barbara Meek (Connie “Mom” Duncan), Denise Devin (Meg Morgan), Jane Connell (Roberta Domedian), Gabrielle Carmouche (Kateri Monroe), Josiah Trager (Loomis “Lou” Washington), Elizabeth Narvaez (Jill Kenyon), Rachele Guzy (Caroline), Jeremy Wieand (Andy King), Daniel Hilfer (Dave King), Ben Siegler (Gary MacLamore), Melody Combs (Jane O’Hara).

764 Big City Boys. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 4/11/78). Harry Buckman is a public relations man and a disorganized free spirit who shuns responsibility. He suddenly finds his life changed when his sister and brother-in-law are sentenced to one-to-three years for tax evasion, and their 11-year-old son, Peter, is sent to live with him. Peter is practical, bright and organized, and the unsold series was to relate Harry’s efforts to change his lifestyle to accommodate his nephew. The pilot episode relates the romantic problems the big city boys face: Harry, with his love interest, Emily; and Peter, with his newfound girlfriend, Susan.

Cast: Austin Pendleton (Harry Buckman), Christopher Barnes (Peter), Laurie Heinemann (Emily), Francesca Bill (Susan), David Yanez (Pancho, Peter’s friend).

765 Big City Comedy. (Series; Comedy; Syn.; 1980). A weekly series of varied comedy skits that satirize life in the big city.

Host: John Candy. Regulars: Dino Ansonia, Donald Mont, Tim Kazurinsky, Audrie Neenan, Patty Oakley. Announcer: John Candy.

766 The Big Comfy Couch. (Series; Children; PBS; 1993). A learning experience for children that is presented in a relaxed setting—that of a living room with a big green and flora print couch that is capable of producing anything its owner, Loonette the Clown and her doll Molly need to teach children about values, morals and manners.

Cast: Alyson Court (Loonette), Ramona Gilmour-Darling (Voice of Molly), Taborah Johnson (Auntie Macassar), Fred Stinson (Major Bedhead), Grindl Kuchirka (Granny Garbanzo), Bob Stutt (Voice of Dustbunny), Bob Stutt (Voice of Snicklefritz).

767 Big Daddy. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 6/19/73). The misadventures of a one-time football hero and widower (Rosey Grier) who becomes the host of a TV cooking show to support his family, his daughters (Shari Frees and Deidre Smith), his mother (Helen Martin) and his uncle (Nick Stewart). Patti Deutsch, Edward Winter and Lennie Weinrib also appeared in the pilot. O.C. Smith performed the show’s theme; Norman Tokar was the producer.

768 Big Day. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 2006). Alice and Danny are about to be married. Alice’s career is not mentioned, but Danny is a camp counselor turned camp director at Camp Campawannie. The wedding is to be held in the home of Alice’s parents (Steve, a doctor, and her mother, Jane, a controlling woman). There is also Alice’s older, bitter sister, Becca (feels her parents pay more attention to Alice than her), the best man (Skobo), the wedding planner (Lorna) and Danny’s best friend Freddy. The Big Day, however, does not occur in the first, second or third episodes. It is scheduled to appear in the 24th episode and each episode represents one hour of the wedding day nerves, mishaps and anything else that can happen as everyone involved prepares for the big day.

Cast: Marla Sokoloff (Alice Hopkins), Josh Cook (Danny), Wendie Malick (Jane Hopkins), Kurt Fuller (Steve Hopkins), Miriam Shor (Becca Hopkins), Stephanie Weir (Lorna), Stephen Rannazzisi (Skobo), Annie Conner (Stand-In for Marla Sokoloff), Amy Denise Spiel (Saquoia), Steve Berg (Carl), Bill Green (William).

769 Big Deal. (Series; Game; Fox; 1996). An updated version of the 1960s game show Let’s Make a Deal (hosted by Monty Hall) that also takes the premise a few steps further: adding reunions, practical jokes, comedy skits and performances by musical guests. The short-lived series did, at one point, keep the original series concept in tact: offer people in the studio audience a deal — trade what they've brought for something possibly better (hidden on stage behind a curtain). Not all trades were good. Initial deals gave the audience player a decent prize. However, the offer to trade that prize for something better brought out greed and could mean disappointment if the player kept trading and wound up with a "zonk" (nonsense prize).

Host: Mark DeCarlo.

770 Big Deals. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 8/3/91). Chris Nizzle and Dash Ryan are two men with a dream: to turn one of their schemes into a money-making venture. In the meantime they live in a cheap room at the Hollywood Palm Hotel and hang out at Earl's Hollywood Coffee Shop. The unsold series was to relate their efforts to become rich by doing as little work as possible. In the pilot episode, Chris and Cash find a lost dog and seek a $50,000 reward — until they discover the owner (Joan Bluett) is a nut case who puts on shows with dogs (for example, the first all-canine version of Cats; Peter Pan). Other Regulars: Brian, Chris's son; and Topaz, Earl's daughter and waitress.

Cast: Tim Curry (Chris Nizzle), Corey Parker (Dash Ryan), Troy Evans (Earl), Amy Sedaris (Topaz), Aaron Metchik (Brian). Guest Cast: Holland Taylor (Joan Bluett), Britt Leach (Arthur Bluett), Robin Lynn Heath (Pepper), Jonathan Schmock (Ernst).

771 The Big Easy. (Pilot; Crime Drama; NBC; 8/15/82). The French Quarter of New Orleans is the setting for an unsold series about Jake Rubidoux, a tough private detective who, on occasion, plays clarinet at The Big Easy, a nightclub run by a friend of his (Gloria Shenar). In the pilot episode, Jake accepts a missing persons case — to find the daughter of a wealthy Texan and becomes involved in a deadly scheme to find the girl for a contract killer. Other Regulars: Walker Garrett, the newspaper columnist; Henry, The Big Easy bartender; Lieutenant Frank Medley, N.O.P.D.

Cast: William Devane (Jake Rubidoux), Ja'net DuBois (Gloria Shenar), Nicholas Pryor (Walker Garrett), Lane Smith (Lt. Frank Medley), Elliott Keener (Henry), Clive Wilson (Big Easy bandleader). Guest Cast: Mary Crosby (Cynthia Hayes), Barbara Babcock (Lori Fitzgerald), Matt Clark (Dan O'Keefe), Hugh Gillin (Nunally Hayes), Jared Martin (Jeb Walker), Ed Rombola (Shoes), Dick Durock (Goggles). Note: The Camellia Jazz Band portrays the Big Easy Jazz Band.

772 The Big Easy. (Series; Crime Drama; USA; 1996–1997). The Big Easy is a nightclub in New Orleans, Louisiana. It is here that Remy McSwain, a hard-nosed private detective, hangs out. While Remy likes to solve cases on his own, he often helps (and receives help) from Anne Osborne, the county District Attorney — a girl with whom he is romantically involved. Stories not only follow his (and their) case investigations, but the sexual tension that exists between them.

Cast: Tony Crane (Remy McSwain), Susan Walters (Anne Osborne).

773 Big Eddie. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1975). Edward ("Eddie") Smith, a hood-like product of the streets of New York, is a former gambler turned legitimate entrepreneur as owner of the Big E, an East Side Manhattan sports, entertainment and civic center. Stories relate Eddie's experiences with the wide range of people he meets as owner of the Big E.

During World War II, Eddie served in the European theater of war. It was at this time that he met and later married his first wife, a Hungarian countess named Margaret (Eva Gabor). They divorced shortly after. When Eddie returned to New York, he continued his life of gambling. In 1973 Eddie's son and his wife are killed in an automobile accident. In order to gain custody of his six-year-old granddaughter, Ginger Smith, Eddie marries his longtime girlfriend Honey, a dancer, and establishes the Big E (Ginger is eight years old when the series begins). They live in an apartment at 450 East 56th Street in Manhattan.

Jesse Smith is Eddie's younger brother and assistant. Jesse's attitude toward Eddie is one of ill-concealed resentment (he was the kid in the family, the one with the ambition and drive whom everyone thought would become successful).

Monty ("Bang Bang") Valentine, an old crony of Eddie's, now serves as his faithful retainer and gourmet cook. Too Late, The Goniiff and No Marbles are Eddie's confederates. In the original pilot version (CBS, 5/2/75), Eddie owns the Big E Rental Business — "Anything You Want for a Price."

Cast: Sheldon Leonard (Eddie Smith), Sheree North (Honey Smith), Quinn Cummings (Ginger Smith), Alan Oppenheimer (Jesse Smith), Billy Sands (Monty Valentine), Cliff Pelow (No Marbles), Milton Parsons (The Goniiff), Lonnie Shorr (Too Late).

774 The Big Five. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 6/25/83). Melinda, Gary, Bobby, Randy and Mike are a group of fifth graders who call themselves the Big Five. The unsold series was to relate their adventures together. The pilot episode depicts how the pretty but tomboyish Melinda became a club member. When a member of their gang (Danny) moves to another city, Melinda and her single mother, Barbara, buy the house. Fearing to lose their clubhouse, which is in the backyard, the boys befriend Melinda and make the ultimate sacrifice — they allow a girl to become one of them.

Cast: Maia Brewton (Melinda “Scotty” Scott), Sean Baca (Gary Wilson), Corey Danzinger (Bobby Kirkland), Todd Cameron Brown (Randy Kirkland), Ryan Cash (Mike Bradley), Gwen Humble (Barbara Scott), David Ankrum (Robert Kirkland, Bobby’s father), R.J. Williams (Danny; guest role).

775 Big Foot and Wild Boy. (Series; Adventure; ABC; 1977–1979). The series, set in the Pacific Northwest relates the crime-fighting exploits of the legendary man-beast Big Foot, and his foundling, Wild Boy, a child who was lost in the woods and reared by Big Foot. Assisting them are Suzie and Cindy, teenage girls who have befriended them. The series was originally broadcast as a segment of The Krofft Super Show II (ABC, 1977–1978) and ran as a series of its own from June 2, 1979 to August 11, 1979.

An announcer opens the show: “Out of the Northwest comes the legendary Bigfoot who, eight years ago, saved a young child lost in the vast wilderness and raised that child until he grew up to be Wild Boy.”

Cast: Ray Young (Big Foot), Joseph Butcher (Wild Boy), Monika Ramirez (Suzie), Yvonne Regalado (Cindy).

776 The Big Game. (Series; Game; NBC; 1958). Two players compete in a television version of the big African game hunt (which is played similar to Battleships). Each player sets three translucent animals on a board concealed from the other. The hosts asks a general knowledge question. The first player to correctly answer it receives the opportunity to hunt his opponent’s game. A position is called and marked on a peg-board. If the number called indicated the spot on which one of his opponent’s animals is located, a hit is called. The player continues calling numbers until a miss is indicated. When that occurs, the questions resume and the game continues as before. The first player to “shoot” his opponent’s animals is the winner and receives a cash prize. The summer series aired from June 14, 1958 to September 12, 1958.

Host: Tom Kennedy.

777 The Big Gay Sketch Show. (Series; Comedy; Logo; 2007). A sketch comedy series that features a cast of mostly unknown comics spoofing everything from Broadway musicals to political candidates. The program also features a “coming out of the closet” skit called “When I Knew.”

Cast: Erica Ash, Dion Flynn, Stephen Guarino, Julie Goldman, Kate McKinnon, Jonny McGovern, Nicol Paone, Michael Serrato.

778 Big Girls Don’t Cry. (Unaired Pilot; Comedy; Produced for CBS in 1991). An unsold series based on the 1990 feature film Mermaids. The story, set in 1963, tells of a very sexy but eccentric mother (Rachel Flax) and her efforts to raise her two pretty daughters, 15-year-old Charlotte and eight-year-old Kitty.

Cast: Shera Danese (Rachel Flax), Sara Marx (Charlotte Flax), Courtney Peldon (Kitty Flax).

779 Big Guy and Rusty the Boy Robot. (Series; Cartoon; Fox; 1999–2001). BGY-11 is a robot, called Big Guy, that was created to battle evil in America. However, Big Guy is not fully functional and is later decommissioned and replaced by Rusty, a robot equipped with the latest technology but designed as a child — with no experience in combat or being an adult. To resolve the problem, Big Guy is reactivated and assigned to Rusty to mentor him and work with him in battling evil. The series, based on the comic book by Frank Miller and Geof Darrow, ran from September 18, 1999 to August 25, 2001.

Voice Cast: Jonathan David Cok (Big Guy), Pamela Segall (Rusty), Gabrielle Carteris (Dr. Erika Slate), Pamela Adlon (Jo), Tim Curry (Dr. Beugog), Brian Doyle Murray (Po the Obliterator), Jim Hanks (Dwayne Hunter), Kathy Kinney (Jenny the Monkey), Stephen Root (Dr. Donovan).

780 Big Hawaii. (Series; Drama; NBC; 1977). The Paradise Ranch in Ohana, Hawaii, is a prestigious ranch owned by Barrett Fears, a wealthy widower with a rebellious son named Mitch. Stories focus on Barrett and Mitch as they struggle to get along and run their empire. Other Regulars: Karen, called Kete, Barrett’s niece; Oscar, the ranch foreman; Anita, Oscar’s wife; Lulu, the housekeeper; Garfield, a ranch hand; and Kimo, Garfield’s son. The series was originally titled The New Hawaiians, then Danger in Paradise and finally Big Hawaii. Seven of 12 produced episodes aired.

Cast: John Dehner (Barrett Fears), Cliff Potts (Mitch Fears), Lucia Stralser (Karen “Kete” Fears), William Lucking (Oscar Kalahani), Josie Oliver (Anita Kalahani), Elizabeth Smith (Lulu), Moe Keale (Garfield), Remi Abellira (Kimo).

781 The Big House. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 2004). Kevin Hart is a young man who believes there is a glimmer of hope — “You just gotta find it.” He lives in Los Angeles with his widowed father; his mother was hit and killed by a bus when he was an infant. Life changes for Kevin when his father is arrested for embezzlement, sent to prison and Kevin is sent to live with his cousins, the Cleveland’s in Philadelphia until he finishes his college education. Stories follow Kevin’s adventures as he struggles to adjust to a life style far different from the one he lived in California.

Other Regulars: Warren, a security guard at Shop-a-Lot, is married to Tina (they are the parents of Eartha, C.J. and Clarence). Tina works in the complaint department of the local cable company; Eartha (and Kevin) attend Drexell University.

Cast: Kevin Hart (Himself), Faizon Love (Warren Cleveland), Arnetia Walker (Tina Cleveland), Yvette Nicole Brown (Eartha Cleveland), Aaron Grady (C.J. Cleveland), Keith David (Clarence Cleveland).

782 Big Jake. (Pilot; Crime Drama; NBC; 6/5/61). A proposed spin-off from The Barbara Stanwyck Theater about “Big” Jake Sloan, an elderly jolly detective who uses common sense to solve crimes. In the pilot episode, Jake tries to get the goods on a racketeer named Willie Teeter.

Cast: Andy Devine (Big Jake Sloan). Guest Cast: John Harmon (Willie Teeter), Jonathan Gilmore (George Corbin), John Qualen (Sam Lundborg).

783 Big John. (Pilot; Crime Drama; NBC; 12/3/83). “Big” John Corbin is the sheriff of Conway County, Georgia, who becomes a detective with the Manhattan 4th Precinct of the N.Y.P.D. when he comes to the Big Apple to solve the murder of his son (he is teamed with Detective Frank Novaricchi by Captain Hawkins and offered a chance to study big city crime detection methods when he completes his mission). The unsold series was to relate Corbin’s efforts to solve crimes based on his “backward” ways of law enforcement. Other Regulars: Katherine, John’s daughter-in-law; and Marcia, Katherine’s daughter.

Cast: Dale Robertson (“Big” John Corbin), Joey Travolta (Det. Frank Novaricchi), Dick Anthony Williams (Captain Hawkins), Kaaren Lee (Katherine Corbin), Natalie Klinger (Marcia Corbin). Guest Cast: Tracy Scoggins (Alicia Bridgeport), Michael Goodwin (Nick North), Richard Bradford (William Bridgeport), Alma Beltran (Maid), Bobby Ellerbe (Harold).

784 Big John, Little John. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1976–1977). While vacationing in Florida, John Martin, a science teacher at Madison Junior High School, and his family visit the Ponce De Leon National Park. While exploring, John finds a small spring — the mythical fountain of youth sought by Ponce — and drinks from it. Some weeks later the effects become evident. The middle-aged Big John reverts to the 12-year-old Little John, and vice versa. Stories depict Big John’s struggles to cope with the situations that occur as a result of the changes, and his attempts to discover an antidote for the rejuvenation process.

Other Regulars: Marjorie, John’s wife; Ricky, John’s son; Ruth Bottomly, the school principal; Valerie, Homer and Stanley, students of John’s.

Cast: Herb Edelman (Big John Martin), Robbie Rist (Little John Martin), Joyce Bulifant (Marjorie Martin), Mike Darnell (Ricky Martin), Olive Dunbar (Bertha Bottomly), Cari Anne Warder (Valerie), Kristoff St. John (Homer), Stephen Cassidy (Stanley).

785 Big Love. (Series; Drama; HBO; 2006–). William “Bill” Henrickson is a very unique, if not busy family man. He owns a small home improvement/appliance store called Henrickson’s Home Plus in Salt Lake City, Utah, and appears to be a good father, especially since he has three wives and seven children. Bill, is in short, a polygamist.

Bill is the eldest child of Frank Harlow and Lois Henrickson, a couple who live in Juniper Creek, a rural community in Utah. Frank and Lois were Mormons but still believed in polygamy (which the Mormons once believed in, but now frowned upon) and broke away from their Utah sect. Frank and Lois had two additional children, Margaret (now deceased) and Joey.

Bill grew up believing in polygamy and at the University of Utah he met his first future wife, Barbara Dutton. They were both Mormons and were married in a traditional temple ceremony. Bill graduated with a degree in business; Barbara, called Barb, with a teaching degree. Shortly after they had their first child, Sarah; Ben was born a year later; and Tancy (called Teenie) was born seven years later. Sarah is now 16; Ben is 15 and Teenie is 8 years old.

Bill and Barb lived a conventional life for 10 years. It was at this time that Bill took a second wife, Nicolette Grant (called Nicki). Wayne, now four, and Raymond, three, are Bill’s children with Nicki. Soon after, Bill took a third wife, Margene Heffman. They are the parents of one-and-a-half year-old Aaron and three month old Lester.

Bill’s college degree enabled him to build a successful business. He bought three adjacent homes (one for each of his wives) and now struggles to balance his life between the pressures of raising seven children, pleasing three wives and expanding his profitable business.

Barbara has mixed feelings about her complex life but performs “first wife duties” of running the households. Nicki is the daughter of Roman Grant, a polygamy sect leader with many wives (Adaleen Grant is his featured wife). Nicki is a gorgeous blonde and somewhat of a snoop. She first met Bill and Barb when they hired her to help care for their children.

Margene married Bill when she was 21 years old. She was born in Colorado and was raised by a single mother (her parents divorced when she was three). Margene and her mother later moved to Salt Lake where, after graduating from high school, Margene began working as a customer service representative in Bill’s store. When Bill found Margene a bit unqualified for the job, he hired her as a babysitter. Margene grew close to the family and found something she didn’t have growing up — love and stability. She eventually became Bill’s third wife (called “a third sister wife”).

Roman Grant is Nicki’s father and “The Prophet” of the Juniper Creek compound. He is married to Adaleen Grant, his fourth wife, who accepts the life she has. Fourteen-year-old Rhonda Volmer is Rome's youngest wife (originally a bride-in-waiting). She is rather naïve and believes all she is told.

Frank Harlow is married to Lois Henrickson, a descendant of the founding family of the Juniper Creek Compound. She married Frank 40 years ago and became the second of his five wives. Lois is the daughter of Alder Henrickson, the founder of Juniper Creek and her husband, Orville Henrickson, the first prophet of the sect. Frank, now 65, is a life-long resident of the Juniper Creek compound.

Joey Henrickson is Bill's younger brother. He was a promising athlete whose career faltered when he injured himself and became addicted to pain killers. He lost everything and became homeless. His second cousin, Wanda, found him on the streets and brought him back to the compound — where they later married. Alby Grant is Rome's son. A lieutenant in the Juniper Compound who oversees his father's books.

Cast: Bill Paxton (Bill Henrickson), Jeanne Tripplehorn (Barbara Henrickson), Chloe Sevigny (Nicki Henrickson), Ginnifer Goodwin (Margene Henrickson), Bruce Dern (Frank Harlow), Grace Zabriskie (Lois Henrickson), Amanda Seyfried (Sarah Henrickson), Douglas Smith (Ben Henrickson), Shawn Doyle (Joey Henrickson), Jolean Wejbe (Tancy Henrickson), Melora Walters (Wanda Henrickson), Harry Dean Stanton (Roman Grant), Mary Kay Place (Adaleen Grant), Daveigh Chase (Rhonda Volmer), Matt Ross (Alby Grant).

786 The Big O. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1999). Paradigm City is a futuristic metropolis with no apparent history. Something erased each citizen's memory and no one can recall his or her pasts or what caused the catastrophe. The citizens must now learn how to reinvent themselves and learn all the basics of life, including how to maintain the modern marvels (machines) that run the city. The series focuses on one citizen in particular, Roger Smith, a negotiator, the man who helps people in difficult situations. Dorothy Wayneright, an android, assists him, as does Big O, a robot that responds to his commands (although he does not know why or how) and which he uses to battle villains who threaten the city. Stories also follow Roger as he searches for the secrets of his past and those of the city's citizens — what happened and why. Produced in Japan.

Voice Cast: Steven Jay Blum (Roger Smith), Lia Sargent (Dorothy), Ethan Murray (Norman Burg), Alan Oppenheimer (Norman Burg; later), Peter Lurie (Major Dan Datsun), Michael Forest (Alex Rosewater), Robert Axelrod (Beck Gold), William Knight (Gordon Rosewater).

787 The Big Party for Revlon. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1959). An informal gathering of celebrities at a "guest of honor's home." An old piano is the center of attraction with the guests milling about, exchanging talk and performing. The series, which ran from October 8, 1959 to December 31, 1959, is sponsored by Revlon Cosmetics (represented by actress Barbara Britton). Perry Lafferty and Robert Tamplin are the producers.

Hostess: Barbara Britton. Party Hosts: Tallulah Bankhead, Greer Garson, Pearl Bailey, Bobby Darin, Carol Channing, Eva Gabor, Rock Hudson, The Ames Brothers. Orchestra: Gordon Jenkins.

788 The Big Payoff. (Series; Variety; NBC; CBS; 1951–1959). A combination of music, songs, dances and game contests (in which players, selected from the studio audience, compete for prizes via general knowledge question and answer or stunt rounds). The series aired on NBC from December 31, 1951 to March 27, 1953; and on CBS from March 30, 1953 to October 23, 1959. Walt Farmer and Sid Tamber are the producers.

Hosts: Bert Parks, Randy Merriman, Mort Lawrence, Robert Paige. Hostess: Bess Myerson, Constance Bennett. Regulars: Betty Ann Grove, Denise Lor, Dori Ann Grey, Susan Sayers. Announcer: Mort Lawrence. Music: The Burt Buhram Trio.

789 The Big Picture. (Series; Documentary; Syn.; 1951). The program details the history and development of the United States Army.

Host: George Gunn. Narrator: Leonard Graves. Announcer: Captain Carl Zimmerman.

790 The Big Record. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1957–1958). The recording industry's top entertainers perform the material that made them famous. The series, hosted by singer Patti Page, aired from September 18, 1957 to June 11, 1958. Lester Gottlieb, Lee Cooley and Jack Philbin are the producers.

Hostess: Patti Page. Music: Vic Schoen.

791 Big Rose. (Pilot; Crime Drama; CBS; 3/26/74). A proposed series about Rose Winters, a female private detective working out of Los Angeles, and Ed Mills, her somewhat inexperienced young assistant. The pilot episode relates Rose's efforts to expose a team of con artists who are blackmailing a wealthy contractor.

Cast: Shelley Winters (Rose Winters), Barry Primus (Ed Mills), Lonny Chapman (Lieutenant John Moore). Guest Cast: Joan Van Ark (Nina), Michael Constantine (Gunther), Paul Mantee (Troy), Paul Picerni (Blass), Lenore Kasdorf (Waitress), Yale Summers (Mayhew), Peggy Walton (Marian).

792 Big Shamus, Little Shamus. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 1979). Arnie Sutter is the house detective at the Ansonia Hotel in Atlantic City, New Jersey. Max, his 13-year-old son is fascinated by law enforcement and hopes to follow in his father's footsteps. In the meantime, Max acquires experience by helping his father solve crimes that occur at and around the hotel.

Other Regulars: George Korman, the hotel's security chief; Stephanie Marsh, the hotel manager; Jingles Lodestar; the computer operator; Jerry Wilson, the desk clerk; and Tom Grainger, a lieutenant with the New Jersey Police Department. Two of 13 produced episodes aired.

Cast: Brian Dennehy (Arnie Sutter), Doug McKeeon (Max Sutter), George Wyner (George Korman), Kathryn Leigh Scott (Stephanie Marsh), Cynthia Sikes (Jingles Lodestar), Ty Henderson (Jerry Wilson), Dennis Cole (Lt. Tom Grainger).

793 Big Shots. (Series; Drama; ABC; 2007–2008). James Walker, Duncan Collingsworth, Brody Johns and Karl Mixworthy are the “big shots” of the title — dysfunctional CEO's who will stop at nothing to stay at the top of their professions.

James heads Ameri-Mart Industries; Brody is senior vice president of Alpha Crisis Management; Karl is head of a large pharmaceutical company; Duncan is head of Reveal Cosmetics. Stories explore in a comical as well as dramatic style, the personal and professional lives of the four men.

Lisbeth is Duncan's ex-wife; Cameron is Duncan's 19-year-old daughter; Wendy is Karl's wife; Marla is Karl's mistress; Katie is James's associate.

Cast: Michael Vartan (James Auster), Dylan McDermott (Duncan Collingsworth), Christopher Titus (Brody Johns), Joshua Malina (Karl Mixworthy), Nia Long (Katie), Paige Turco (Lisbeth), Jessica Collins (Marla), Amy Sloan (Wendy Mixworthy), Peyton List (Cameron Collingsworth).

794 Big Shots in America. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 6/20/85). Jovan “Joey” Shagula is a Russian-born immigrant who works as a janitor in a small apartment building on Pitcan Street in Brooklyn, New York. He lives with his cousin, Enci, who has defected to America to be with Jovan. The unsold series was to depict Jovan and Enci's experiences as they seek a way to make a fortune and realize a dream — to become big shots in America. Other Regulars: Tenants Dave, Cara, Mrs. Cohen and Mr. Pipski.

Cast: Joe Mantegna (Jovan Shagula), Keith Szarabajka (Enci Shagula), Dan Vitale (Dave), Christine Baranski (Cara), Helen Hanft (Mrs. Cohen), Irving Metzman (Mr. Pipski). Guest Cast: MacIntyre Dixon (FBI official), Robert King (Lottery host), Amy Stone (Woman).

795 The Big Show. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1980). An eleven episode series that was an attempt by NBC to reestablish the variety format on prime time network TV. The lavishly produced series takes on aspects of The Ed Sullivan Show in that it presents top talent from around the world. Although entertaining and well produced, the series just didn't catch on. Celerity guests host.

Hosts: Barbara Eden, Marie Osmond, Mariette Hartley, Loretta Swit, Sarah Purcell, Shirley Jones, Nancy Walker, Steve Allen, Gavin MacLeod, Dean Martin, Tony Randall, Don Rickles, Steve Lawrence, Dennis Weaver, Gene Kelly, Herve Villechaize, Gary Coleman, Flip Wilson. Regulars: Mimi Kennedy, Edie McClurg, Graham Chapman, Charlie Hill, Owen Sullivan, Joe Baker, Adolfo Quinones, Paul Grimm, Shabba-Doo, The Dick Williams, Singers, The David Winters Dancers. Orchestra: Nick Perito. Choral Director: Dick Williams.

796 The Big Showdown. (Series; Game; ABC; 1974–1975). Three contestants compete. The first player to score a pre-established point value (for example, 7) through a series of question-and-answer rounds wins the round and a cash prize. Several rounds are played and the highest overall scorer is the winner. The player then receives the opportunity to win $10,000 by rolling two large dice and spelling the words “Show Down” (Show is on one die; Down is on the other). If the player fails after one try, he receives a chance to win $5,000 by rolling “Show Down” within 30 seconds.

Host: Jim Peck. Co-Host: Heather Cunningham. Announcer: Dan Daniels.

797 Big Sister. (Experimental; Serial; CBS; 10/9/45). A television version of the CBS radio series of the same title. The story is set in the town of Glen Falls and tells of the relationship between two sisters, Fran and her big sister, Ruth. In the story, cut to four characters for TV, a returning vet (Ned) is saddened to discover that his wife (Hope) has become so engrossed in the business she took over when he enlisted, that she refuses to return to the role of housewife. Ruth, a friend of Hope's, steps in and solves the problem by convincing Hope to return to her role as housewife to save her marriage.

Cast: Mercedes McCambridge (Ruth Evans Wayne), Ann Shepherd (Hope Melton Evans), Fran Carden (Sue Evans Miller), Bob Stevenson (Ned Evans).

798 The Big Story. (Series; Anthology; NBC; Syn.; 1949–1957). “Stories from The Big Story Newsstand. Fact, not fiction, taken from official newspaper stories.” A series of dramatizations based on actual newspaper stories with the reporter whose story is used receiving $500. The series ran on NBC from September 16, 1949 to June 28, 1957; and in syndication beginning in October 1957.

Host-Narrator: William Sloane, Ben Grauer,

Norman Rose, Burgess Meredith. Music Director: Vladimir Selinsky, Milton Weinstein.

799 The Big Surprise. (Series; Human Interest; NBC; 1955–1957). People, chosen for a particular act of kindness, tell of their unselfish deeds. The program then unites the humanitarians with the recipient and awards the former an item he has wanted, but was unable to afford. The series aired from October 8, 1955 to April 2, 1957.

Host: Jack Barry (1955–1956). Host: Mike Wallace (1956–1957).

800 The Big Top. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1950–1957). The program presents American and foreign circus variety acts in “The biggest circus show in the air.” Charles Vanda, Paul Ritts and Glen Bernard are the producers.

Cast: Jack Sterling (Ringmaster), Ed McMahon (Clown), Chris Keegan (Clown), Dan Lurie (Circus Dan the Muscle Man). Regulars: Lott Anders, Joe Anders, LaPaloma. Music: The Quaker City String Band, Joe Basile’s Brass Kings.

801 Big Town. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; NBC; 1950–1956). The series, set in Big Town, U.S.A., relates the story-gathering assignments of Steve Wilson and Lorelei Kilbourne, reporters for The Illustrated Press. Although Steve is the intrepid crime reporter and Lorelei the society reporter, both often become involved in the same story as society and scandal (and murder) often walk hand-in-hand. The episodes from 1950 to 1954 portray Steve Wilson as the ex-managing editor of the paper, a man who observes people and their problems. For the duration of the series, 1954–1956, Steve is returned to the position of managing editor and becomes actively involved in investigations. The series, based on the radio program of the same title, ran on CBS from October 5, 1950 to September 16, 1954 and on NBC from October 11, 1954 to October 2, 1956. The series has also been syndicated under the following titles: By Line — Steve Wilson, City Assignment, Crime Reporter, Headline Story and Heart of the City.

Other Regulars: Diane Walker, Steve’s girlfriend (1955–1956); Charlie Anderson, the city editor; and Lieutenant Tom Gregory of the Big Town Police Department.

Cast: Patrick McVey (Steve Wilson; 1950–1954), Mark Stevens (Steve Wilson; 1954–1956), Margaret Hayes (Lorelei Kilbourne; 1950–1951), Mary K. Wells (Lorelei Kilbourne; 1951), Jane Nigh (Lorelei Kilbourne; 1951–1953), Beverly Tyler (Lorelei Kilbourne; 1953), Trudy Wroe (Lorelei Kilbourne; 1954), Julie Stevens (Lorelei Kilbourne; 1954–1955), Doe Averdorn (Lorelei Kilbourne; 1955–1956), Barry Kelly (Charlie Anderson), John Doucette (Lt. Tom Gregory).

802 The Big Valley. (Series; Western; ABC; 1965–1969). During the 1830s, Victoria Barkley and her husband, Tom (not seen), established the 30,000 acre Barkley Ranch in the San Joaquin Valley in Stockton, California. When the series begins (set forty years later), Victoria is a widow and the mother of five grown children: Jarrod, Nick, Audra, Heath and Eugene. The Barkleys are now a powerful family with ranching and mining interests, but also a family whose name stands for right against wrong, a name that the people of the valley can look up to for wisdom and leadership in troubled times — “We share other people’s troubles, it’s our duty,” says Nick.

Victoria has a horse named Misty Girl. She and Tom were married for 25 years before he was killed by railroad officials attempting to rob him of his land. There is a statue of Tom Barkley, seated on a horse, in the town (the citizens’ way of honoring the memory of a man who helped establish the valley). Victoria and Tom were married only a few years when he went to the town of Strawberry to invest in some mines. Strawberry was the beginning; he sold some mines, made a profit and went on from there. But the dream almost never happened. One night, Tom was attacked by two thugs, beaten and left for dead behind the saloon. A girl named Leah Simmons (not seen) found Tom and nursed him back to health. Tom had a brief affair with Leah, but left her before he knew she was pregnant. Tom loved Victoria and his sons, Jarrod and Nick, very much. He was on his way to becoming rich and famous and couldn’t afford a scandal if he stayed with Leah. Nine months later, a boy Leah names Heath is born to her. Leah never contacts Tom; she and her friends Rachel (not seen) and Hannah (Beah Richards) raised Heath. The only other family Heath knew were his uncle, Matt Simmons (John Anderson), and his aunt, Martha Simmons (Jeanne Cooper). Sometime after the death of his mother, when he learns that Tom Barkley is his father, Heath decides to find his roots; he eventually attains his birthright — the name of Barkley. Heath is famous for his bullfrog stew on the trail, and he carries a rattlesnake’s rattler for good luck.

Jarrod is the first born son. He is a lawyer with offices in Stockton and San Francisco. He handles the family’s legal matters and is not as actively involved in the roughness encountered by Nick and Heath. Audra is the only daughter (born about the same time as Heath). She is beautiful, proud and sensuous, “and yet to be tamed by the love of a man.” Audra does volunteer work at the Children’s Orphanage (which is located next to the Old Mill). She fiercely protects the land her father died for and has a tendency to fall for men with shady backgrounds (for example, Robert Goulet as Brother Love, a dishonest faith healer).

Nick, the second born son, is the ranch foreman. Nick got his first saddle when he was six years old (he wrote “Nick age 6 — keep off” on it). Nick is an expert on horses (he rides a cutting horse named Coco) and is responsible for buying horses for the ranch. He doesn’t like Audra to ride half-broken stock (he thinks it is too dangerous for her; she thinks she can ride any horse “and break ‘em with the best of ‘em”). Nick was the only Barkley child to marry — to grant a dying woman’s greatest wish. Julia Jenkins (Nancy Olsen) was the unwed mother of a young boy named Tommy (Ron Howard). She had a shady background and wanted her son to have a fresh start with a good last name.

Eugene, called Gene by the family, was the youngest of the children. He was shy and sensitive and was dropped during the first season episodes (he was said to be attending college). Silas is the family’s servant but is treated more like a member of the family.

Cast: Barbara Stanwyck (Victoria Barkley), Richard Long (Jarrold Barkley), Linda Evans (Audra Barkley), Peter Breck (Nick Barkley), Lee Majors (Heath Barkley), Charles Briles (Eugene Barkley), Napoleon Whiting (Silas), Douglas Kennedy (Sheriff Steve Madden), James Gavin (Sheriff Steve Madden), Mort Mills (Sheriff Fred Madden), Harry Swoger (Town Bartender), James Gregory (Various Roles), Gene Evans (Various Roles). Theme Song: “The Big Valley” by George Duning.

803 Big Wave Dave’s. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1993). Big Wave Dave’s, a surf shop on the North Shore in Oahu, Hawaii, is owned by Marshall Fisher, Dave Bell and Richie LaMonica, three friends who left Chicago to pursue a new life. Assisting them as their business manager is Dave’s wife, Karen. Their competition is Danny’s Surf Shop. Stories follow the friends as they attempt to make a success of their business.

Marshall and Karen were lawyers with the firm of Fisher and Fisher (run by Marshall’s father); Dave was a stockbroker; and Richie, a typing teacher for the Chicago Public High School System. Marshall and Karen have been married ten years; Dave is divorced (after eight years of marriage); Richie is single.

Marshall, Dave and Richie met in high school in 1972. Every three weeks they have an argument and vow never to see each other again. Shortly after they have a make-up dinner to become friends again.

Jack Lord is an actor who played bit roles on Hawaii Five-0 and decided to name himself after the show’s star, Jack Lord. He is a Yale dropout, did a tour of Vietnam, sang backup for Bob Dylan and invented several surgical instruments that made him a fortune. Jack only surfs one day a year “because there is too much else to do.” He has a cache of automatic weapons, a boat called the Vendetta II and a goal: to catch “Him,” a giant marlin that destroyed his first boat, the Vendetta.

Cast: Adam Arkin (Marshall Fisher), Jane Kaczmarek (Karen Fisher), David Morse (Dave Bell), Patrick Breen (Richie LaMonica), Kurtwood Smith (Jack Lord).

804 Big Wolf on Campus. (Series; Comedy; Syn.; 1999). Pleasantville is a small town in Canada that like its name, appears to be pleasant. It is however, plagued by unearthly creatures like werewolves, vampires, zombies and ghosts. Tommy Dawkins, the son of the mayor, is a student at Pleasantville High School and the school’s star football player. One day he is bitten by a werewolf but unlike others of his kind, he becomes a kind, good-natured creature of the full moon. Now with no choice but to live with his curse, Tommy uses his affliction to protect the people of Pleasantville from the deadly demons of the underworld.

Tommy reveals his secret to his two best friends, Merton J. Dingle and Lori Baxter, who help him before, during and after his transformations (which sometimes occur without a full moon; stress can unexpectedly bring them on).

Merton is president of the Gothic Club at school; Lori is a reporter for the school newspaper. Other Regulars: Stacey Hanson, Tommy’s original girlfriend; Tim and Travis Eckert, brothers who are also the school bullies (they have set their goal to capture the werewolf and expose him).

Cast: Brandon Quinn (Tommy Dawkins), Danny Smith (Merton J. Dingle), Aimee Castle (Lori Baxter), Rob DeLeeuw (Travis Eckert), Dominic DiRosa (Tim Eckert), Rachele LeFevre (Stacey Hanson), Jane Wheeler (Sally Dawkins), Nathalie Vansier (Becky Dingle), Jack Mosshammer (Dean Hawkins), Alan Fawcett (Mayor Bob Dawkins).

805 The Big World of Little Adam. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1964). Actual NASA produced documentaries about outer space and the technology involved to make the space program possible, are seen in edited installments to familiarize children with the U.S. space program. The color segments are hosted by two young animated brothers, Adam and Wilbur, who set the scene for each episode (featured in five minute segments but syndicated in thirty minute blocks).

Voice Cast: John Megna (Little Adam), Craig Seckler (Wilbur).

806 The Bigelow Show. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1948–1949). The alternate title for Dunninger and Winchell when under the sponsorship of Bigelow Products. See Dunninger and Winchell for information.

807 The Biggest Loser. (Series; Reality; NBC; 2005–). A reality show where the person who loses the most weight is not only the biggest loser but the biggest winner. A group of obese people appear as the contestants. They are divided into two teams of two (the men vs. the women). Each team is coached by fitness trainers and health experts to help the teams maintain a rigorous schedule to lose weight and enjoy a healthier life. The teams must follow strict diets and exercise routines as well as endure physical challenges. Players who are unable to stick by the diets or are physically unable to complete exercises or meet the endurance challenges are eliminated. The contestant who loses the most weight becomes the winner and receives $250,000.

Host: Caroline Rhea, Alison Sweeney.

808 Biker Mice from Mars. (Series; Cartoon; UPN; 1993–1996). When Mars, as well as other planets in the universe, are threatened with destruction by the fish-like inhabitants of the planet Plutak, three humanoid mice (Throttle, Vinnie and Modo), called Biker Mice, attempt to escape but they are pursued by the Plutarkians and their space ship is hit by a ray. The ship crash lands on Earth (Chicago) where the mice discover that the Plutarkians have already begun their attack on Earth and the city's leading citizen, Lawrence Limburger, is actually a Plutarkian in disguise and is coordinating what is now a secret attack (sending precious resources to Plutark). Stories follow the Biker Mice as they battle the evil Plutarkians. See also Biker Mice from Mars (2006).

Voice Cast: Dorian Harewood (Modo), Ian Ziering (Vinnie), Rob Paulsen (Throttle), William Morgan Sheppard (Lawrence Limburger), Luke Perry (Napoleon Brie), Rob Paulsen (Eon), Leeza Miller McGee (Charley), Brad Garrett (Greasepit), William Morgan Sheppard (Lawrence Limburger), Susan Silo (Dr. Karbunkle), Jess Harnell (Evil Eye Weevil), C.C.H. Pounder (Stonecutter), Neil Ross (Hacka Lougie).

809 Biker Mice from Mars. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 2006). A revised version of the 1993 version of Biker Mice from Mars (see prior title) that brings back Vinnie, Throttle and Modo, the humanoid Biker Mice from Mars, as they battle a new enemy: the Catatonians, who, like the Plutarkians in the original series, are threatening to destroy the Earth (as they did to Mars, from which the Biker Mice escaped but crash landed on Earth when their space ship was hit by an enemy ray).

Voice Cast: Dorian Harewood (Modo), Ian Ziering (Vinnie), Rob Paulsen (Throttle), Lisa Zane (Charley), Rob Paulsen (Hairball), Peter Strauss (Stoker), Clancy Brown (Cataclysm).

810 The Bil Baird Show. (Series; Children; CBS; 1953). A twice-weekly series that features the creations of puppeteers Bil and Cora Baird (in songs, dances and comedy skits).

Hosts-Voices-Puppeteers: Bil Baird, Cora Baird.

811 Bill and Ted's Excellent Adventures. (Series; Cartoon; CBS; 1990). An animated spin off from the feature film of the same title (it also inspired a live action spin off; see next title). Bill Preston and Ted Logan are slackers who attend San Demas High School. They are also travelers in time (via the Circuits of Time Phone Booth) and stories follow their "excellent adventures" as they visit historic pasts — and future events that did and will shape the world. Rufus is their guide (who has been appointed by the city's rulers, the Holy Ones, to insure the future of their society by protecting Bill and Ted. Their music, from their band the Wyld Stallyns, has shaped their futuristic society).

Voice Cast: Keanu Reeves (Ted Logan), Alex Winter (Bill Preston), George Carlin (Rufus).

812 Bill and Ted's Excellent Adventures. (Series; Comedy; Fox; 1992). San Demas, California, in the year 2692 is a society based on the philosophy of "The Two Great Ones" — William ("Bill") Preston and Theodore ("Ted") Logan — and the music of their band, the Wyld Stallyns. It is a "most excellent world" ruled by the Holy Ones. Rufus has been assigned by the Holy Ones to protect Bill and Ted and ensure the future of their excellent society. (Bill and Ted travel throughout time and the lessons they learn, their "excellent adventures," become the philosophy of San Demas.)

Bill and Ted attend San Demas High School and work for a hardware store called Nail World. "Dude" and "Excellent" are their catchphrases. Bill and Ted use the Circuits of Time Phone Booth to travel through time (dialing the number 7560 sends the booth on its way). When they land, they put an out of order sign on the booth to protect it.

Mr. Kerlson is the manager of Nail World; Detective Chet Logan is Ted's father, and Eleanor Logan is Ted's mother. Missy Preston is Bill's stepmother and (no first name given) Preston is Bill's father. Nathan Wang composed the most excellent theme, "Bill and Ted's Excellent Adventures."

Cast: Evan Richards (Bill Preston), Christopher Kennedy (Ted Logan), Rick Overton (Rufus), Danny Breen (Mr. Kerlson), Matt Landers (Chet Logan), Barbara Wood (Eleanor Logan), Lisa Wilcox (Missy Preston), Don Lake (Bill's father).

813 The Bill Anderson Show. (Series; Variety; Syn.; 1966). The program, hosted by singer Bill Anderson, features performances by country and western entertainers.

Host: Bill Anderson. Regulars: Lou Brown, Jan Howard, Johnny Gatley, The Po' Boys. Music: Bill Walker.

814 The Bill Cosby Show. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1969–1971). Chet Kincaid is a physical education instructor and the athletic coach at the mythical

Richard Allen Holmes High School in Los Angeles. Stories, which feature Bill Cosby as TV's first African-American educator, relate his trials and tribulations as he struggles to cope with his students and family (his mother, Rose, his father, his married brother, Brian, Brian's wife, Verna and Brian's son, Roger).

Marsha Patterson is the school's guidance counselor; Tom Bennett is the coach; and Mr. Langford is the principal.

Cast: Bill Cosby (Chet Kincaid), Joyce Bulifant (Marsha Patterson), Lee Weaver (Brian Kincaid), Olga James (Verna Kincaid), Dee Dee Young (Verna Kincaid; later), Donald Livingston (Roger Kincaid), Lillian Randolph (Rose Kincaid), Beah Richards (Rose Kincaid; later), Fred Pinkard (Chet's Father), Robert Rockwell (Tom Bennett), Sid McCoy (Mr. Langford).

815 The Bill Cullen Show. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1953). A Thursday morning variety program of music, songs and chatter that ran from February 12, 1953 to May 14, 1953.

Host: Bill Cullen. Singer: Betty Brewer. Music: The Milton DeLugg Trio.

816 The Bill Dana Show. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1963–1965). Jose Jimenez, a bewildered Latin American, is a character created by Bill Dana for skits on The Steve Allen Show and for occasional appearances as the elevator operator on The Danny Thomas Show (also titled Make Room for Daddy). NBC adapted the character to a hotel setting where, as a bellboy at the Park Central Hotel in New York City, the series focuses on Jose's efforts to tend to guests and struggle to adjust to the American way of life.

Byron Glick is the fumbling house detective (a prototype character that Don Adams would later turn into Maxwell Smart on Get Smart); Mr. Phillips is the hotel manager; Susie is the coffee shop waitress; Eddie is Jose's co-worker. The series, which produced 42 episodes, ran from September 22, 1963 to January 17, 1965.

Cast: Bill Dana (Jose Jimenez), Don Adams (Byron Glick), Jonathan Harris (Mr. Phillips), Maggie Peterson (Susie), Gary Crosby (Eddie), Amzie Strickland (Mrs. Phillips), Angela Dorian (Jose's Cousin Maria). Theme Song: "Jose Ole" by Earle Hagen.

817 The Bill Engvall Show. (Series; Comedy; TBS; 2007). Bill Pearson is a Denver-based family counselor. He is married to Susan and is the father of Lauren, Trent and Bryan. Bill is the kind of father who will do anything for his family. While he does become involved with their antics, he also finds that while counseling works at the office, it doesn't always work quite well at home. Bill is very easy going; Susan is practical, vivacious and sassy. They also tend to argue a lot — in the nude (figuring it will lead to make up sex a lot faster). Susan appears to be the one that holds the family together. She puts up with Bill's faults (especially his misguided efforts to help the kids with their problems) and is usually the one who actually solves their problems.

Lauren wants to be hip — not the conservative young lady her parents want her to be. "You're so old," she tells them. Lauren thinks she knows what is best for her — not her parents. When she wants something, she wants it — now. She does ask permission (for example, "I want my belly button pierced") and when she is told "no" she attempts to do what she was told not to. She always realizes at the last minute her parents were right and she was wrong.

Trent could be viewed as a slacker. His bedroom is an absolute mess and he does play video games on his computer. He does not get excited about much and his life changed somewhat when he joined the football team at school and suddenly had girls flocking around him. He showed interest in something (although it only lasted for one game) and Bill feels Trent's problem is that he doesn't commit to anything.

Bryan is the youngest member of the family. Although he appears to be a neat freak, he does share a bedroom with Trent but doesn't complain about the mess. He also feels he is very knowledgeable in many areas, especially on diseases and relates what disease can be caught when he sees someone doing something he doesn't like.

Paul is Bill's best friend, a man who believes everything is a conspiracy.

Cast: Bill Engvall (Bill Pearson), Nancy Travis (Susan Pearson), Jennifer Lawrence (Lauren Pearson), Graham Patrick Martin (Trent Pearson), Skyler Gisondo (Bryan Pearson), Tim Meadows (Paul DuFrayne).

818 The Bill Goodwin Show. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1951–1952). A twice-weekly series of music, songs, guests and interviews. The series ran from September 11, 1951 to March 27, 1952. Louis Cowan and Sherman Marks are the producers.

Host: Bill Goodwin. Vocalist: Eileen Burton, Roger Dann. Music: The Joe Bushkin Trio.

819 Billboard's Disco Party. (Series; Music; Syn.; 1978). A survey of the top selling records as reported by Billboard magazine. The rather disappointing series (cancelled after three episodes) also features performances by the artists whose songs are profiled.

Host: Donna Summer.

820 The Billion Dollar Threat. (Pilot; Adventure; ABC; 4/15/79). A proposed series about Robert Sands, a U.S. government super-spy. The pilot episode relates Sands' attempts to stop Horatio Black, a mad scientist, from carrying out his threat: unless he is paid $1 billion, he will blow a hole in the ozone layer that protects the Earth from the sun's rays, and expose millions of people to radioactive poisoning. Other Regulars: Miles Larson, Robert's superior; Harry, Larson's assistant; and Marcia, a scientist.

Cast: Dale Robinette (Robert Sands), Ralph Bellamy (Miles Larson), Stephen Keep (Harry Darling), Ronnie Carol (Marcia Buttercup). Guest Cast: Patrick Macnee (Horatio Black), Keenan Wynn (Ely), Beth Specht (Holly), Karen Specht (Ivy), Robert Tessier (Benjamin), William Bryant (Harry), Marianne Marks (Ming).

821 Billy. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1979). The series, set in Pennsylvania, relates the experiences of Billy Fisher, a 19-year-old who prefers his colorful fantasies to life's realities. He is the son of George and Alice Fisher and works for Mr. Shadrock, the owner of the Shadrock and Shadrock Mortuary. Seven of 13 produced episodes aired.

Cast: Steve Guttenberg (Billy Fisher), James Gallery (George Fisher), Peggy Pope (Alice Fisher), Michael Alaimo (Mr. Shadrock), Bruce Talkington (Arthur Milikan; Billy's friend).

822 Billy. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1992). Billy MacGregor, history teacher at Fillmore High School in New York City, moves to California to teach night school at Berkeley Community College. Billy hails from Scotland and his work permit is about to expire. At school he meets Mary Springer, a student with three children and a large mortgage. Mary is separated from her husband and looking for a tenant to rent her basement apartment. Billy and Mary solve their respective problems by agreeing to a marriage of convenience: Billy will stay in the U.S.; Mary will get a tenant and each will observe a strictly platonic relationship.

Mary, a dental hygienist, is separated from a man named Roger and has three children: Laura, Annie and David. Laura plays the violin and attends the Debbie Daniels Tap Dance School. Annie, the youngest, has a security blanket (Blankey) and a plush bear (Marty). When she wants attention, she hides. David attends Berkeley High School and has an after-school job at the Chicken Pit restaurant.

The series was originally called Immediate Family and is a spinoff from Head of the Class (see for additional information on Billy).

Cast: Billy Connolly (Billy MacGregor), Marie Marshall (Mary Springer), Natanya Ross (Laura Springer), Clara Bryant (Annie Springer), Johnny Galecki (David Springer).

823 The Billy Bean Show. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1951). The romantic misadventures of Billy

Bean, a shy, clumsy soda jerk at a corner drugstore, as he attempts to romance the daughter of his employer — a crusty old gentleman who disapproves of their relationship.

Cast: Arnold Stang (Billy Bean), Billie Lou Watt (Billy's Girlfriend), Phillips Tead (Billy's Boss). Also: Harry Bellaver, Mort Stevens.

824 Billy Boone and Cousin Kibb. (Series; Children; CBS; 1950). A series of cartoon strips, drawn by Cousin Kibb, that follows the daring adventures of Billy Boone. The cliff-hanger-type stories are interspersed with parlor games for children. The summer series ran from July 9, 1950 to August 27, 1950.

Cast: Carroll Colby (Cousin Kibb), Patti Milligan (Suzy, his assistant).

825 The Billy Crystal Comedy Hour. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1982). Various comedy sketches that spotlight the talents of actor-comedian Billy Crystal.

Host: Billy Crystal. Regulars: Jane Anderson, Bonnie Gagnanis, Theodore Gottlieb, Phyllis Katz, Michael McManus, Paula Myers, Sal Viscuso, Wil Wheaton. Announcer: John Harlan.

826 The Billy Daniels Show. (Series; Variety; ABC; 1956). A quarter-hour program of music with Billy Daniels, a singer known as "That Old Black Magic Singer." The program aired from October 5, 1956 to December 28, 1956. Frederick Heider is the producer.

Master of Ceremonies: Jimmy Blaine. Star: Billy Daniels. Music: The Benny Payne Trio.

827 Billy Rose's Playbill. (Series; Anthology; NBC; 1950–1951). Dramatizations based on stories appearing in the newspaper column, Pitching Horse-shoes by Billy Rose.

Host: Billy Rose. Announcer: Frank Waldecker.

828 Bindi the Jungle Girl. (Series; Reality; Discovery Kids; 2007). Bindi Sue Irwin is the nine-year-old daughter of Steve Irwin, "The Crocodile Hunter." Following a freak accident that claimed Steve's life (off Australia's Great Barrier Reef), Bindi has vowed to carry on her father's tradition to spread the word on wild life conservation by telling people about animals and why they are important. Bindi also sings and dances and clips of her father's work are also a part of the program. "I know I want to do something with my life and I want to accomplish this by helping wildlife and I believe if I put my mind to anything I can do it."

Host: Bindi Irwin.

829 The Bing Crosby Show. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1964–1965). Bing Collins is a former singer and musician who gave up his show business career to become an engineer (Bing performed in vaudeville with Barney Jenks [Phil Harris]). After designing a number of buildings he became a respected member of the staff of Colbert University in Los Angeles, where he is a consulting engineer and instructor. (In the 1964 ABC preview special, Bing mentions he is on the staff of Taylor University.)

Bing lives at 168 Valley Tree Lane. He is married to Ellie, a former singer he met while on the road, and is the father of two very pretty daughters: 15-year-old Joyce and 10-year-old Janice.

Joyce is a freshman at Richmond High School. She is boy-crazy, a member of the school's marching team (she twirls a baton) and has Bing and Ellie worried — she has little interest in schoolwork and it may affect her chances of getting into Colbert University.

Janice, on the other hand, is exceptionally bright and a whiz in math — “I’m advanced,” she says. She attends Gorman Elementary School and is a very untidy person. Her room is a mess, and she studies in bad light (“I require the sloppy conditions to think”). Janice knows that Bing and Ellie want her “to have a neat and tidy mind for a neat and tidy life.” “Right now,” she says, “it’s not possible.” Bing calls her “Champ.”

Glenda Farrell appeared as Bing’s aunt, Lulu. Bing Crosby sings the opening theme, “That’s Life,” and the show’s closing signature, “It All Adds Up to Love.”

Cast: Bing Crosby (Bing Collins), Beverly Garland (Ellie Collins), Carol Faylen (Joyce Collins), Diane Sherry (Janice Collins).

830 Biohistory. (Series; Documentary; Syn.; 1962). The lives of outstanding figures of twentieth-century history are traced through newsreel film footage, stills and interviews.

Host/Narrator: Mike Wallace.

831 Bionic Ever After? (Pilot; Adventure; CBS; 11/29/94). An unsold attempt to continue the characters of Steve Austin (“The Six Million Dollar Man”) and Jaime Sommers (“The Bionic Woman”). Since leaving the O.S.I. (Office of Scientific Information) Steve has become a charter boat captain (of the boat Summer Babe) and Jaime has a Ph.D. (Jaime Sommers, Family Counseling). Steve and Jaime are about to be married when Jaime’s bionic system begins to fail. She is rushed to the O.S.I. where Dr. Rudy Wells (the bionic surgeon) discovers that someone has replaced her computer chips with specially programmed chips that are meant to kill her through her bionics. At this same time, a group of terrorists led by Miles Kendrick, seizes the U.S. Embassy in Nassau. To get his mind off Jaime, Steve asks Oscar Goldman, head of the O.S.I., for the assignment of stopping Miles.

Steve is teamed with Kimberly Haviland, an

O.S.I. agent who is also a patient of Jaime’s. By replacing Jaime’s tainted chips, Rudy is able to save Jaime’s life. When Jaime discovers that Steve has been teamed with Kimberly, she realizes that it was Kimberly who tried to kill her (Kimberly’s father worked with Dr. Wells and believed Rudy was trying to cheat him. He left the O.S.I. and drank himself to death. Kimberly vowed to get even by killing Jaime and Steve).

Jaime convinces Oscar to let her help Steve — by stopping Kimberly. Jaime succeeds and she and Steve also manage to stop Kendrick. The pilot ends with Steve and Jaime’s wedding. Other Regulars: Jim, Oscar’s aide.

Cast: Lindsay Wagner (Jaime Sommers), Lee Majors (Steve Austin), Richard Anderson (Oscar Goldman), Martin E. Brooks (Dr. Rudy Wells), Lee Majors II (Jim Castillian). Guest Cast: Farrah Fokke (Kimberly Haviland), Anne Lockhart (Caroline), Geordie Johnson (Miles Kendrick), Alan Sader (John MacNamara), James Shanta (Rock).

832 The Bionic Showdown. (Pilot; Adventure; NBC; 4/30/89). A proposed spinoff from The Six Million Dollar Man and The Bionic Woman about Kate Mason, a young woman suffering from a degenerative muscle disease, who is given a bionic operation to save her life — and become an agent for the O.S.I. (Office of Scientific Information). Kate is given a computerized brain and nuclear capillaries and the unsold series was to relate her assignments. In the pilot episode, Kate teams with Steve Austin (the Six Million Dollar Man) and Jaime Sommers (the Bionic Woman) to battle a villainous cyborg.

Cast: Lee Majors (Steve Austin), Lindsay Wagner (Jaime Sommers), Sandra Bullock (Kate Mason), Richard Anderson (Oscar Goldman; head of the O.S.I.), Martin E. Brooks (Dr. Rudy Wells), Lee Majors II (Jim Castillian; Oscar’s aide). Guest Cast: Robert Lansing (General McAllister), Geraint Wyn Davies (Devlin), Josef Sommers (Esterman).

833 The Bionic Six. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1986). The futuristic story of six people, brought together by fate, who are able to transform themselves into indestructible crime fighters via a special wrist transformer device. Stories relate the exploits of the Bionic Six as the battle the evils of Dr. Scarab and his henchmen.

Voice Cast: John Stephenson (Bionic One), Jennifer Darling (Madame-O), Carol Bilger (Helen Bennett), Bobbie Block (Meg Bennett), Jim MacGeorge (Dr. Scarab), Alan Oppenheimer (Metalhead), Hal Rayle (Bob), Neilson Ross (Fluffi), Brian Tochi (Bunji Bennett).

834 The Bionic Woman. (Series; Adventure; ABC; NBC; 1976–1978). A spin-off from The Six Million Dollar Man. Jaime Sommers, the girlfriend of astronaut Steve Austin, is one of the top five women's tennis pros. She has the potential to beat Billie Jean King and is set to play her in Barcelona in one week. Days before she is to leave for Spain, Jaime and Steve decide to go sky diving. They jump from a single engine plane and are descending to earth. When Jaime's altimeter reads seven, she (and Steve) pull their respective ripcords. Both parachutes open, but Jaime's malfunctions and sends her plunging to the ground. Perhaps it was the fall through tree branches that spared Jaime's life, but the end results were devastating: "Her legs have so many breaks that we can't count them; her right ear is hemorrhaging and her right arm and shoulder are crushed beyond repair."

In 1973 Steve was a U.S. Air Force test pilot. While testing an M3F5, he experienced a blowout that caused the plane to crash and explode. Steve was critically injured. Oscar Goldman of the O.S.I. (Office of Scientific Intelligence) arranged for a special bionic operation to save Steve's life. At a cost of six million dollars, Steve's legs, right arm and left eye were replaced with atomic-powered synthetic parts that endow him with great speed and strength but also make him something that has never before existed — a cyborg (cybernetic organism).

Seeing that a bionic operation is the only way to save Jaime, Steve convinces Oscar to arrange one. Jaime's legs, arm and ear are replaced in a cost-classified operation that saves her life. However, when Jaime awakens and learns what has happened, she is horrified — until Steve reveals that he too had such an operation.

Jaime is taught to use her new limbs. All seems to be progressing normally until Jaime's body begins to reject her new limbs. Her system begins producing massive amounts of white corpuscles to fight off the bionics and this creates excruciating pain. Dr. Rudy Wells, the bionic surgeon, arranges for an immediate operation. Jaime apparently dies from a massive cerebral hemorrhage, but she is saved with only seconds to spare by Dr. Michael Marchetti, a cryogenic surgeon who uses experimental techniques to save her life (Jaime suffers a temporary loss of memory following the surgery).

Jaime, who feels she owes Oscar, Rudy and the government a debt, joins "the team." Oscar is the leader, and Steve (and now Jaime) are his players — special agents "built" to perform hazardous missions that authorities believe can only be accomplished through the use of their bionic powers.

Jaime relinquishes her career as a tennis pro to become a schoolteacher (grade levels seven, eight and nine) at the Ventura Air Force Base in California (her cover for the O.S.I.) She then moves into the home of Steve's parents (her "adoptive" parents), Jim and Helen Elgin (Jim is Helen's second husband; Jaime's parents are deceased); Steve lives in the former Marsden Ranch, which he bought to find peace and quiet away from his hectic life. See also Bionic Woman (next title), The Bionic Showdown and The Return of the Six Million Dollar Man and the Bionic Woman.

Other Regulars: Peggy Callahan (a.k.a. Janet Callahan) is Oscar's secretary and Jaime's closest friend; she lives at 22 Land Cliff Drive. Dr. Rudy Wells is the O.S.I. surgeon who is responsible for both Jaime's and Steve's bionic upkeep. Lindsay Wagner also played Jaime's evil twin (through plastic surgery) Lisa Galloway (Lisa sought to learn the secret of Jaime's strength and almost died when she stole Rudy's experimental Hydrazene — a taffy-like substance that produces incredible strength but is fatal when taken in large doses).

In second season episodes, Jaime works with a bionic dog she calls Max. The German shepherd's official name is Maximillion, based on the cost of Rudy's bionic operation to give the canine a new jaw and four legs after he was injured in a fire.

The series aired on ABC from January 14, 1976 to May 4, 1977; and on NBC from September 10, 1977 to September 2, 1978.

Themes: "The Bionic Woman," by Jerry Fielding; "The Six Million Dollar Man," vocal by Dusty Springfield, written by Stewart Phillips and Oliver Nelson.

Cast: Lindsay Wagner (Jaime Sommers), Richard Anderson (Oscar Goldman), Martin E. Brooks (Dr. Rudy Wells), Jennifer Darling (Peggy Callahan), Sam Chew, Jr. (Mark Russell; Oscar's aide), Christopher Stone (OSI Agent Chris Williams), Ford Rainey (Jim Elgin), Martha Scott (Helen Elgin), Robin Harlan (Pam; one of Jaime's students), Robbie Rist (Andrew; same as Pam), Robbie Wolcott (Mark; same as Pam), Rick Lenz (Dr. Michael Marchetti), Lee Majors (Col. Steve Austin).

835 Bionic Woman. (Series; Adventure; NBC; 2007–). An updated version of the Lindsay Wagner series The Bionic Woman. Jaime Sommers was born in Van Horne, Iowa, on February 23, 1983. She is the daughter of Ethan and Madeline Jo Sommers and has a younger sister named Becca (born May 5, 1991). Jamie attended Meskwaki High School and was editor of the school newspaper, head of the debate squad and active in school activities. Her mother's bout with breast cancer changed her life. She put college aside and took jobs to help support the family (from delivering newspapers to working as a waitress at Jelly's Eatery). In 2004 Madeline Jo died and soon after Jaime left home to begin a new life in San Francisco. She acquired a job as a bartender and enrolled in a psychology program in college. Here she begins dating her Bio/Environmental Ethics professor, Dr. Will Anthros, the head surgeon at the Berkut Group (a.k.a. the Wolf Creek Bio Tech Research Center), a secretive organization that was founded by Will's father, Anthony, and its now CEO, Jonas Bledsoe.

Anthony developed a series of bionic operations that would allow for the replacement of non-repairable human limbs. Anthony, however, felt he could make more money by selling his innovations to the highest bidder. He was caught before he could accomplish his goal and imprisoned for treason. During his time at Berkut, he performed the first bionic operation on a woman named Sarah Corvis. Since the operation, Sarah's bionics have begun to falter and she become a renegade, determined to destroy Berkut and those responsible for her plight. Although not mentioned how, Anthony has managed to escape from prison and has reunited with Sarah for untold sinister purposes.

As Jaime begins her new life, Becca comes to live with her when her father drops her off on her doorstep and "heads for whereabouts unknown" (Becca was a problem student and her father was unable to control her. He felt leaving her with Jaime was the best solution).

One rainy night shortly after, the car in which Jaime and Will are traveling is struck by a truck. Will receives few injuries but Jaime is seriously injured with little hope for survival.

Jaime is rushed to Berkut where, through a $50 million dollar bionic operation (performed by Will), Jaime's right arm, ear, eye and both legs are replaced with nuclear powered, synthetic limbs. The replacements endow Jaime with incredible abilities but the organization did not spend the money out of the goodness of its heart. It required a special person to perform missions they can only accomplish by an agent built for their needs. Jaime feels she owes a debt to Jonas (who authorized the operation) and, after accepting what has happened to her, agrees to use her abilities to help the agency in its secret operations.

It is later revealed that the truck that struck Will's car was driven by Sarah in what appears to be her first attempt to get even (she becomes angered when she learns Jaime has survived but now needs Jaime alive as her advanced bionics could save Sarah's life).

Will is 39 years old and he helped his father establish the research center as a means for treating wounded soldiers then rebuilding them as fierce fighters — but that never happened. Stories follow Jaime as she uses her unique abilities to help the agency solve highly complex (and dangerous) situations.

A storyline change occurred after the pilot that found Will being killed by Sarah after her first confrontation with Jaime. The romantic aspect was dropped and Jason became Jaime's superior to allow for more adventurous stories.

Jaime's bionics are supported by a blood-like substance called Anthrocytes. However, over time the Anthrocytes weaken ("become fatigued") and the bionics shut down, causing death. It is estimated that Jaime has five years to live, but Jason promises her "we'll find a way to save you."

Jae Kim is the head of specialized operations; Ruth is Jonas's second-in-command.

Cast: Michelle Ryan (Jaime Sommers), Lucy Kate Hale (Becca Sommers), Miguel Ferrer (Jonas Bledsoe), Katee Sackhoff (Sarah Corvis), Molly Price (Ruth Truewell), Will Yun Lee (Jae Kim), Chris Bowers (Will Antros).

836 Birdland. (Series; Drama; ABC; 1994). Riverside Hospital in Essex County is called "Birdland" due not only to its treatment of psychiatric patients, but to the pigeons that perch themselves on the building's window ledges. Stories follow incidents in the life of Dr. Brian McKenzie, chief of psychiatry, a man who loves gambling, a good time "and if you need help, he's the best friend you will ever have." Other Regulars: Dr. Bergman, the chief administration; Dr. Lane, second year resident in cardiology; Nurse Lucy and Dr. Niles.

Cast: Brian Dennehy (Dr. Brian McKenzie), Lindsay Frost (Dr. Jesse Lane), Jeff Williams (Dr. Louis Niles), C.C.H. Pounder (Nurse Lucy), Leslie Mann (Dr. Eric Bergman).

837 Birdman. (Unaired Pilot; Adventure; Produced in 1990). A proposed live action series based on the super hero Birdman from the animated series Birdman and the Galaxy Trio (see next title). Here Ray Randall is bestowed with amazing powers by the Egyptian Sun God, Ra, to battle the sinister forces of evil. His adventures, as he battles diabolical villains, was to be the focal point of the series.

Cast: Josh Randall (Ray Randall); Nicole Galiardo (Jennifer, his girlfriend).

838 Birdman and the Galaxy Trio. (Series; Cartoon; NBC; 1967–1968). The overall title for two series:

1. Birdman. When Ray Randall, a former secret agent, is saved from a fiery death by the Egyptian Sun God, Ra, he is granted the wings of an eagle and bestowed with amazing powers. Stories relate his adventures as he teams with Falcon 7 and Bird-boy to battle the forces of evil.

2. The Galaxy Trio. The exploits of the Galaxy Trio (Vapor Man, Galaxy Girl and Meteor Man), residents of a planet where unique powers exist, as they roam the universe in their spaceship, Condor I, performing good deeds.

Voice Cast: Keith Andes (Birdman), Don Messick (Falcon 7), Dick Beals (Birdboy), Don Messick (Vapor Man), Virginia Eiler (Galaxy Girl), Ted Cassidy (Meteor Man).

839 Birds of Prey. (Series; Adventure; WB; 2002–2003). An update of the Batman legend. The setting is New Gotham City, where a secret war has been waging between Batman (alias millionaire Bruce Wayne) and the evil villain, the Joker, for control of the city. One night, the final battle was fought and Batman became the victor. Although taken into custody, the Joker managed to escape. He sought revenge by striking at those who were close to Batman.

Helena Kyle is a teenage girl whose mother had once been the evil Cat Woman, Queen of the Underworld. She is unaware that her father is Batman or that he and Cat Woman had an affair from which she resulted. Cat Woman became the Joker's first victim when he hires a hit man to kill her. Helena's life would soon change forever (in the second episode Helena mentions that she learned her father was millionaire Bruce Wayne after her mother's death. She wants only one thing from her father: "to find the man who killed my mother and I want that man dead." Whether she knows that Bruce Wayne is Batman is not stated).

It appears that Batman had trained many protégés over the years. Robin, the Boy Wonder is not mentioned, but Batgirl is (although in the 1966–68 series, Batman, Batgirl was not trained by Batman; Barbara Gordon, alias Batgirl, was self-taught). One night while showering, Barbara Gordon is shot by an intruder — the Joker. The Joker's bullet, however, fails to kill Barbara. It cripples her and sets in motion her crusade to battle evil as Oracle.

Meanwhile, as these events unfold, a young girl named Dinah begins to experience nightmare visions of Helena, Cat Woman's death and of Barbara's shooting. These visions would soon dictate her future destiny.

It is seven years later when the series begins. Barbara has established a secret crime-fighting base of operations in the Clock Tower of a skyscraper. Helena, adopted by Barbara after her mother's death, has become the Huntress, Barbara's ally in fighting evil. Dinah is now a teenager. She has left her home in Missouri and is enroute to New Gotham City in an effort to put an end to her nightmares.

Shortly after arriving in New Gotham City, Dinah is threatened by a mugger. From out of nowhere, Huntress, who had been on night patrol, comes to Dinah's rescue. Dinah immediately recognizes her as the girl from her dreams. When Dinah attempts to tell Huntress about her dream and touches her, she envisions Barbara and her secret base of operations. Seeing that Dinah is all right, Huntress leaves. Shortly after, security at Barbara's headquarters is breached — by Dinah. Dinah is captured by Huntress and explains "when I touch people I see things only they know. Some times when I dream things, they come true." She goes on to explain her visions of her and Helena. Barbara is a bit skeptical at first — until she performs a brain scan on Dinah and learns her cortex capacity is over 50 percent (about five per cent is normal). Dinah, like Helena, is a medahuman (as Barbara calls it), a person who possesses abilities that no one else does. "I want to join you," Dinah tells Barbara. Barbara believes it is too dangerous (or, as Helena says, "We don't need a junior Supergirl"). However, when Dinah's abilities help them solve a series of mysterious suicides, she becomes a part of the team — "as long as you go to school and develop your physical and mental skills."

Barbara is a master of the cyber realm and "a mentor and trainer of heroes." She works as a teacher at New Gotham High School (which 16-year-old Dinah attends). On the original Batman series, Barbara worked as a librarian. While confined to a wheelchair, Barbara is working on a way to make her legs mobile again (she has developed a device to activate her motor driven wheelchair by thought processes; she is hoping to adapt this to her spine).

Helena works as a bartender. Her eyes turn cat-like when she is angered and says, "I'm the Huntress, you're the prey" when approaching a villain. Barbara keeps in constant contact with Helena via her Bat earrings (which are micro-miniature receivers and transmitters). Helena has the instincts of a cat and can leap and soar. She is also very strong and well versed in the martial arts.

Dinah has the power to open the hidden doors of the mind. Simply by touching someone she can see what they have seen or what their future holds. It is later revealed that Dinah's real mother was a crime fighter known as the Black Canary (she was one of the greatest espionage agents in the world and abandoned Dinah when she was six years old. She did it to give Dinah a normal life).

Stories follow Barbara, Helena and Dinah as they risk their lives to keep New Gotham City free of evildoers.

Other Regulars: Jake Reese, Alfred Pennyworth and Arlene Quinn. Jake is a detective with the New Gotham Police Department. He is only aware of Huntress (but not her secret alias) when she saved him from a villain Dinah called "Liquid Guy" (ability to turn into water). He has seen the impossible and realizes he must keep secret what he sees. Jake believes strange things happen at night and he is determined to find out what they are.

Arlene is a respected psychiatrist who is really a super villain who is seeking to take over the city and rule it for her sinister purposes. She is corrupt, diabolical and extremely bitter because her lover, the Joker (whom she calls "Sweet J") is in prison (it previously appeared that the Joker was still on the loose after shooting Barbara. It is only through Arlene's dialogue that it is learned that the Joker had been captured). Arlene idolizes the Roman goddess Discord “who started everything from petty arguments to cataclysmic events.” She oversees the Arkane Insane Asylum.

Alfred is Barbara’s butler. He is always with Barbara in the Clock Tower and it appears that Barbara also lives there.

Cast: Dina Meyer (Barbara Gordon/Oracle), Ashley Scott (Helena Kyle/Huntress), Rachel Skarsten (Dinah Lance), Ian Abercrombie (Alfred Pennyworth), Shemar Moore (Jake Reese), Mia Sara (Arlene Quinn), Lori Loughlin (Black Canary). Theme Vocal: “Revolution” by Aimee Allá.

840 The Biskitts. (Series; Cartoon; CBS; 1983–1984). The series, set in and around Biskitt Castle (located in a swamp) relates the adventures of the Biskitts, puppies only a dog biscuit high, as they attempt to protect the treasures of the kingdom (entrusted to them by the late king) from the king’s wasteful, evil brother, Max (who seeks the treasures for himself).

Voices: Dick Beals, Peter Cullen, Jennifer Darling, Marshall Efrom, Henry Gibson, Kathleen Helppie, Darryl Hickman, Bob Holt, Jerry Houser, Kip King, Kenneth Mars, Mark L. Taylor, B.J. Ward.

841 Bizarre. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 3/20/79). Comedy vignettes and blackouts that lampoon various aspects of modern-day life. See next title also.

Host: Richard Dawson. Regulárs: George Allen, Tanya Boyd, Bill Decker, Nancy Steen, Melissa Steinberg, Eric Taslitz.

842 Bizarre. (Series; Comedy; Showtime; 1980). Comedy vignettes and blackouts that lampoon various aspects of modern-day life. ABC broadcast the original pilot for the series in 1979 with Richard Dawson as the host (see prior title). This is the earliest incident where a cable station picked up a rejected broadcast network project.

Host: John Byner.

843 B.J. and the Bear. (Series; Crime Drama; NBC; 1979–1981). Bear Enterprises is an unusual business at 800 Palmer Street in Hollywood, California. It is located above Phil’s Disco, a bar-restaurant, and run by Billie Joe McKay, a big rig trucker who named the business after his simian traveling companion, Bear. B.J. (as Billie Joe is called) established the business as an independent trucking company, but he and his associates are more like private detectives as the jobs they acquire involve them with shady characters and crimes they must solve.

B.J. was originally (1979–1980) an independent trucker who would haul anything legal anywhere for $1.50 a mile plus expenses. His red with white trim Kenworth 18-wheeler is registered in Milwaukee (his hometown). The Milwaukee Kid is his C.B. handle and the Country Comfort Truckers’ Stop in Bowlin County is his favorite watering hole.

B.J. named Bear after Paul “Bear” Bryant, whom B.J. considers to be the greatest football coach of all time (for the University of Alabama). B.J. was a chopper pilot during the Vietnam War when he first met Bear. B.J. was a P.O.W. and Bear would bring him food to help him survive. When B.J. was rescued he took Bear with him. He also calls Bear “Kid” or “The Kid.”

When B.J. established Bear Enterprises in 1980, seven beautiful female truckers were added to the cast to assist him: Jeannie Campbell, Samantha Smith, Callie Everett, Cindy Grant, Angie Cartwright and twins Geri and Teri Garrison.

Jeannie, nicknamed Stacks, measures 37C–24–36. She is very sweet and very feminine and somewhat of a dumb blonde. Perilous situations do not phase Stacks until she thinks about what is happening to her. It is then that her senses kick in and she becomes a totally different person — logical and intelligent. While not totally vain, Stacks knows she is a beautiful girl and loves to have cheesecake pictures taken of herself, especially if she is wearing a bikini or low cut blouse. Stacks is always dreaming about getting married but falls for shady characters who shatter those dreams.

Callie is Stacks direct opposite. Though pretty, she dresses in jeans and is the toughest and most physically violent of the girls. She can handle herself in a fight (although B.J. prefers that she not fight) and, as B.J. says, “has a smart mouth.” Callie has a secret crush on B.J. and believes “B.J. sees me only as a girl who can drive a rig and fix a flat tire.”

Geri and Teri are identical twins who also work as waitresses at Phil’s Disco. Geri is impatient and likes to take matters in her own hands. Teri calls her a hot head. Teri is patient and prefers to take things slow and easy.

Angie, the least active of the girls (and the only African American member of the cast) spends most of her time moonlighting as a radio disc jockey called “The Nightingale.”

Samantha and Cindy share a truck. Samantha is another sweet girl, not prone to violent confrontations, who looks after Bear when she and B.J. are on assignments together. Cindy is easily upset and a bit irrational. She has knowledge of criminal law and often warns B.J. that what he is about to do to crack a case could be construed as breaking the law. Circumstances often force B.J. to break the rules to get the job done. Cindy’s father is Rutherford T. Grant, the corrupt head of S.C.A.T. (the Special Crimes Action Team), Southern Division of the L.A.P.D. Grant has made it his top priority to put B.J. behind bars. He feels that B.J. and his truckers are a threat to his illegal activities. Cindy is always caught in the middle but realizes her father is wrong and often sides with B.J.

“Where there is money, there is Grant,” says B.J., as he caters to the mob, unscrupulous characters and uses blackmail to get people to do his dirty work. He is assisted by Lieutenant Jim Steiger, a man who is not as dishonest as Grant, but follows his orders.

First season episodes depict B.J. as a clean cut kid attempting to do his job and mind his own business but always encountering shady characters.

His friend at this time was Snow White, a trucker who was head of the all-girl Piston Packin’ Mamas (Tommy, Sal, Leather, Clancy, Angel, Honey and Chattanooga). His enemies were Elroy P. Lobo, the corrupt sheriff of Orly County, Georgia; J.P. Pierson, head of the organized (but corrupt) High Ballers Trucking Company who opposed independents like B.J. taking their business; Jason T. Willard, head of the corrupt Trans-Cal Trucking; Captain John Sebastian Cain, an honest cop who believed B.J. was corrupt; and Beauregard Wiley, the corrupt Deputy Sheriff of Winslow County.

Other Regulars: Deputies Perkins and Hawkins, Elroy’s associates; Florence “Stilts” Panish, Lillian “Pogo Lil” Polovich and Barbara Sue McCallister, B.J.’s friends; Sheriff Masters; Deputy Wilhelmina “The Fox” Johnson; Bullits, the Country Comfort bartender; Nick, the Phil’s Disco bartender; Fred and Hatsie Tipton, the elder friends of B.J. See also The Misadventures of Sheriff Lobo, the spin-off series.

Cast: Greg Evigan (Billie Joe “B.J.” McKay), Claude Akins (Elroy P. Lobo), Mills Watson (Deputy Perkins), Brian Kerwin (Birdwell “Birdie” Hawkins), Penny Peyser (Florence “Stilts” Panish), Kitty Ruth (Barbara Sue McCallister), Jo Ann Harris (Barbara Sue McCallister; later), Dennis Burkley (Harry Cunningham), Anne Lockhart (Lillian “Pogo Lil” Polovich), Richard Deacon (Sheriff Masters), Slim Pickens (Beauregard Wiley), Conchata Ferrell (Wilhelmina “The Fox” Johnson), Joshua Shelley (Bullits), Ed Lauter (Captain John Sebastian Cain), Otto Felix (Deputy Higgins), Charles Napier (Jack “The Hammer” Benedict), Liberty Godshall (Dixie), Bert Rosario (Manny), M.P. Murphy (J.P. Pierson), Laurette Spang (Snow White), Janet Louise Johnson (Tommy), Angela Aames (Honey), Carlene Watkins (Leather), Julie Gregg (Sal), Spray Russo (Clancy), Daryle Ann Lindley (Angel), Sonia Manzano (Chattanooga), Deborah Ryan (Shauna McKay), Susan Woolen (Stacy), Murray Hamilton (Capt. Rutherford T. Grant), Judy Landers (Jeannie “Stacks” Campbell), Candi Brough (Teri Garrison), Randi Brough (Geri Garrison), Barbra Horan (Samantha Smith), Linda McCullough (Callie Everett), Sherilyn Wolter (Cindy Grant), Sheila DeWindt (Angie Cartwright), Jock Mahoney (Jason T. Willard), Neil Zevnik (Dave Chaffey), Eric Server (Lt. Jim Steiger), John Dullaghan (Nick), Steve Reisch (Deke), Henry Jones (Fred Tipton), Rosemary DeCamp (Hatsie Tipton), Bear (Sam). Theme Vocal: “B.J. and the Bear” by Greg Evigan.

844 B.L. Stryker. (Series; Crime Drama; ABC; 1989–1990). Stryker Investigations, located at 62 Palm Drive in Palm Beach, Florida, is owned by Buddy Lee Stryker, a hard-hitting private detective who likes to be called B.L. B.L. is not one for adhering to the rules. He was previously a police officer with the New Orleans Police Department who liked to take chances. He believed you have to be as violent as the criminals you are pursuing in order to show them who is the boss. Department brass disagreed and constantly reprimanded him. It got to a point where when B.L. couldn’t do it his way he quit the force and decided to become his own boss and fight crime as he believes it should be. He returned to his hometown and established his now successful company to help people in trouble — but do it by whatever means possible within (or just above) the law. He has a parrot named Gilbert, drives a classic Cadillac and lives on a houseboat called No Trump (docked at 22 Ocean Park Marina). B.L. is also divorced and his former wife, Kimberly, is now married to the elderly — but wealthy Clayton Baskin.

Oz Jackson is a former world famous boxer who assists B.L.; Lyynda Lennox, who spells her name with two “y’s” (“because I want to be different”) is B.L.’s slightly flighty secretary (she has a dog named Fred). Mike Post composed the theme.

Cast: Burt Reynolds (B.L. Stryker), Dana Kaminski (Lyynda Lennox), Ossie Davis (Oz Jackson), Rita Moreno (Kimberly Baskin), Abe Vigoda (Clayton Baskin).

845 The Black Adder. (Series; Comedy; PBS; 1985). A spoof of British history that is set at the time of the War of the Roses (during the Dark Ages where Richard IV is depicted as the king). Richard IV is quite insane and he has two sons — Harry and Edmund. Harry is Richard’s favorite and next in line to rule England. But he is “nutty” as his father. Edmund, on the other hand, is not only crazy, but he believes he is a genius and should be next in line to inherit the throne. Unfortunately, this will never happen because his father loathes him. Being the insane genius he is, Edmund feels he must show his father that he is worthy of greatness. To accomplish this he dons the disguise of the Black Adder and sets out on a crusade to defeat evil and inherit the throne. Assisting Edmund are Baldrick, a peasant who devises the “ingenious” plans Edmund follows; and Percy, a daft nobleman who is too stupid to realize Edmund needs psychological help. The series is produced in England and airs on PBS stations in America. See also Black Adder II.

Cast: Rowan Atkinson (Prince Edmund/Black Adder), Elspet Gray (The Queen), Brian Blessed (King Richard IV), Robert East (Prince Harry), Tony Robinson (Baldrick), Tim McInnerny (Percy).

846 Black Adder II. (Series; Comedy; PBS; 1986). A spin-off from The Black Adder (see for original storyline information). The new version is set sixty years later in England. Prince Edmund, through his alias as the Black Adder, proved his worthiness to his father and became the King of England during the Dark Ages. Over time Queen Elizabeth I became the ruler. However, like those that preceded her, she is insane (and seductive — and uses this attribute to help her achieve her goals). Elizabeth is currently seeking a husband and heading the list is Lord Edmund, the great grandson of the original Black Adder. Edmund is intelligent and like his great grandfather, is seeking the throne (his competition for the Queen's hand is Lord Melchett). And like the Edmund before him, he dons the guise of the Black Adder to impress the Queen and win her hand in marriage (and become the King of England). Assisting Edmund is his dim-witted sidekick, Lord Percy and Baldrick, his moronic servant. Produced in England and broadcast on PBS stations in America.

Cast: Rowan Atkinson (Lord Edmund), Miranda Richardson (Queen Elizabeth I), Stephen Fry (Lord Melchett), Tim McInnerny (Lord Percy), Tony Robinson (Baldrick), Hugh Laurie (Prince Ludwig), Tony Aitken (Balladeer).

847 Black Bart. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 4/4/75). The setting is the Old West town of Paris, Arizona. The proposed series was to relate the misadventures of Black Bart, an African American sheriff in a bigoted town. In the pilot episode, Bart arrests the mayor's nephew for "toe shooting," then tries to find a judge who will deliver a fair trial in a town completely owned and dominated by the mayor. Other Regulars: Reb Jordan, the deputy; Belle Buzzer, the saloon owner; Fern B. Malaga, the mayor.

Cast: Louis Gossett, Jr. (Black Bart), Steve Landesberg (Reb Jordan), Millie Slavin (Belle Buzzer), Noble Willingham (Fern B. Malaga). Guest Cast: Ruben Moreno (Moonwolf), Ted Lehmann (Mr. Swenson), Brooke Adams (Jennifer), Garrett Graham (Curley), Rand Bridges (Porter), Tamara Cooper (Mrs. Swenson), Poindexter (Hughie).

848 Black Beauty. (Series; Drama; NBC; 1978). An adaptation of the novel by Anna Sewell. The basic storyline follows a 13-year period (1880–1893) in the life of a roving colt named Black Beauty. The saga begins on a Maryland farm owned by Tom Gray, his wife, Annie, and their son Luke, where Black Beauty is born and raised. When a stroke paralyzes Tom, Annie sells the farm and the horse. Though he has to give up his beloved colt, Luke vows to one day reclaim it. Black Beauty's adventures, passing from owner to owner, and Luke's attempts to regain possession of the horse, are depicted. See also The Adventures of Black Beauty.

Cast: Martin Milner (Tom Gray), Eileen Brennan (Annie Gray), Ike Eisenmann (Luke Gray; as a boy), Kristoffer Tabori (Luke Gray; adult), Cameron Mitchell (Henry Gordon), Diane Ladd (Amelia Gordon), William Devane (John Manly), Daniel Tamm (James Howard), Jenny O'Hara (Ruth Manly), Brock Peters (Carmichael), Farley Granger (Enos Sutton), Simone Griffeth (Anne Sutton), Diana Muldaur (Elizabeth Sutton), Christopher Stone (Peter Blantyre), Clu Gulager (Reuben Smith), Forrest Tucker (York), Edward Albert (Lewis Barry), Glynnis O'Connor (Phyllis Carpenter), Jack Elam (Jonas McBride), Warren Oates (Jerry Baker), Don DeFore (Martin Tremaine), Mel Ferrer (Nicholas Skinner), Van Johnson (Horace Tompkins), Jane Actman (Jennifer Charles), Zohra Lambert (Polly baker). Narrator: David Wayne.

849 The Black Donnellys. (Series; Crime Drama; NBC; 2007). "All through history people have accused the black Irish of every crime that came along..." The series sort of latches onto that statement by focusing on the less-than-honorable activities of the Donnelly brothers (Tommy, Jimmy, Shawn and Kevin)—brothers who were and are always together. The series is set in New York City and although it is set in the present (2007) it depicts the Hell's Kitchen section as though it were 40 years ago (when it was a rough and tough, mob ruled area).

The brothers father, Bobby, was killed by the mob while working as a delegate for the Steelworkers Union, Local 96; their mother, Helen, is seldom seen and is apparently unaware of her sons involvement with organized crime (sort of the Irish battling the Italians for rule of the area). The brothers own a bar called the Firecracker Lounge. Also a part of their lives are Jennifer Riley, called Jenny, who grew up with the brothers "and is sewn at the hip." She now works at the bar. It is mentioned that Jenny married a schoolteacher and believes "he is out of town." In reality, he cheated drug dealers "and was stuffed into an oil drum." No one has the heart to tell Jenny that her husband is dead.

Joey "Ice Cream" is a friend from childhood who got the nickname "Ice Cream" "because under pressure I'm like ice." Stories follow the brothers as they actively become involved in the battle to control Hell's Kitchen. Eight of 13 produced episodes aired.

Cast: Jonathan Tucker (Tommy Donnelly), Thomas Guiry (Jimmy Donnelly), Billy Lush (Kevin Donnelly), Michael Stahl-David (Sean Donnelly), Olivia Wilde (Jennifer Riley), Keith Nobbs (Joey "Ice Cream"), Kathleen Doyle (Helen Donnelly), Jimmy Walsh (Jimmy as a kid), Max Winer (Tommy as a kid), J.T. Stanton (Kevin as a kid), Lance Michael Schaefer (Sean as a kid), Dylan Hartigan (Joey as a kid), Elizabeth Gilles (Jenny as a kid).

850 The Black Robe. (Series; Anthology; NBC; 1949–1950). Dramatizations based on actual police night court cases. The program uses ordinary people as it mirrors the struggles of life.

Cast: Frankie Thomas, Sr. (Judge), John Green (Court Clerk).

851 Black Saddle. (Series; Western; ABC; 1959–1960). Clay Culhane is a famous gunfighter who gives up his pay-to-kill occupation to become a lawyer and help people in a more civilized manner. He sets up an office in Latigo, New Mexico and stores, set in the 1860s, relate Clay's experiences as he tries to do legally what he once did by the gun — seek justice (although he often finds himself using his guns more often than he would like).

Nora Travers is Clay's friend, the owner of the Marathon Hotel (later called The Travers House Hotel); Gibson "Gib" Scott is the town marshal; Kelly is the bartender at the Fallen Angel Saloon.

Cast: Peter Breck (Clay Culhane), Anna-Lisa (Nora Travers), Russell Johnson (Marshal Gibson Scott), Ken Patterson (Kelly). Theme Song: "The Black Saddle Theme" by Jerry Goldsmith.

852 Black Sash. (Series; Crime Drama; WB; 2003). Tom Chang is a man who feels he was betrayed by the world. He operates a martial arts school in San Francisco on the philosophy "They [students] will come here to learn the art of revenge. They will leave with a new respect for their lives."

Tom has a mysterious past. He was a cop who just disappeared. He was with the narcotics division of the San Francisco Police Department and was sent to Hong Kong to stop a gang called the Triads from smuggling dope into the U.S. Only they nailed Tom first and set him up with ten kilos of heroin (surprisingly, the S.F.P.D. did nothing to help him). Tom served five years of hard time in Hong Kong and lost everything, including his family, friends and reputation. After his release he just disappeared and turned up in San Francisco with one goal: bring criminals to justice as a bounty hunter. Stories follow Tom's efforts to apprehend criminals with the help of his students: Trip, Tory, Allie and Bryan — teens who attend Marina Park High School.

Cast: Russell Wong (Tom Chang), Corey Sevier (Trip Brady), Melissa Peregrym (Tory Stratton), Sarah Carter (Allie Bennett), Ray J. (Bryan Lanier).

853 Black Scorpion. (Series; Adventure; Sci Fi; 2001). Darcy Walker is a second generation police officer. Her father, Lieutenant Stan Walker was a maverick cop who took the law into his own hands. When Darcy was a child in the late 1970s, Stan would allow her to monitor the police radio band and tell her a strange bedtime story about a scorpion who wanted to cross a river. The scorpion, unable to swim, asked a frog for a ride on his back.

The frog was hesitant, fearing to get stung. The scorpion assured the frog she would not sting him because if she did they would both drown. "I won't hurt you, I promise," she said. The frog permitted the scorpion to ride on his back. Halfway across the river, the scorpion stung the frog. "Now we're both going to drown. Why did you sting me?" asked the frog. "Because I'm a scorpion," she said. "I don't understand the story," said Darcy. "Someday you will," replied her father.

In 2001, Darcy is a detective with the 21st Precinct in Angel City. Her father, discharged from the force for being a rogue cop, is working as a security cop when he is shot and killed. In an attempt to solve the case, Darcy takes the law into her own hands and is suspended for doing so (later reinstated). Bitter and disillusioned, Darcy retreats to her apartment.

There she sees an unopened birthday gift from her father. She opens it to find a black ring with a silver scorpion as its stone (representing her Scorpio birth sign). Suddenly, the story her father told her begins to make sense "but sometimes the world doesn't make sense" she says to herself. "I need it to." Although she has only her skills in the martial arts as her initial weapon, Darcy creates a sexy and revealing black leather costume and mask not only to avenge her father's murder, but to bring all criminals to justice.

Darcy monitors the police band to learn of crimes. She also modifies her father's stun gun to create an immobilizer (laser-like rays that emanate from the ring) and bursts of electricity in her black boots that allow her to leap. Soon newspaper headlines read "Criminals Stung by the Black Scorpion." The police also want the Black Scorpion for a long list of priors: leaving the scene of a crime, reckless endangerment, destruction of public property, possession of concealed weapons, and speeding.

When Darcy's orange Corvette (later said to be a red Stingray) is damaged while attempting to escape from the police, she brings it to her friend, Argyle, a former car thief and chop shop owner who runs an almost legitimate business called Argyle's Garage. Darcy also reveals her secret identity to him. Argyle agrees to help Darcy because "if you didn't bust me when you did, I would be doin' hard time with the rest of my gang." Argyle customizes Darcy's car for crime fighting. He installs an onboard computer and polarized (and bulletproof) glass. He also feels the car should have its own secret identity and installs a morphing switch to change to orange Corvette into the black ScorpionMobile. He later rigs the morph adjustment to transform Darcy from street clothes to the Black Scorpion when the need arises (accomplished through the scorpion on Darcy's ring). By saying Auto Transfer, the orange car becomes the black ScorpionMobile. Auto Reverse changes the car back to normal.

Detective Steve Rafferty is Darcy's partner at the 21st Precinct. He feels a strange attraction to the Black Scorpion and believes he and Darcy should keep their personal and private lives separate. He enjoys video games and sharing a drink with Darcy at O'Brien's Bar.

Tender Lovin', real name Veronica, is Argyle's girlfriend. She was a former street walker (and Darcy's information girl) who has turned her life around and now owns a fashion boutique.

Arthur Worth is the corrupt mayor of Angel City (also called City of Angels). He is a former criminal, "knows lots of criminals" and uses his position as a means of finding new schemes to raise money for his reelection campaign. Babette, Arthur's secretary, is a "bouncy bimbo" who knows little about secretarial work but is a pro when it comes to wearing seductive, slinky dresses. Babette says she and "Artie" have been having an affair for five years ("It began on Valentine's Day").

Prisoners are sent to Pearl Gate Penitentiary (although they always manage to escape).

The series presents the most diabolical (if not comic book-like) villains since Batman: Aerobicide (Renee Allman), After Shock (Sheri Rose), Breather-taker (Adam West), Clock Wise (Frank Gorshin), Firearm (Martin Cove), Flashpoint (Alan Scott), Hurricane (Athena Massey) and Stunner (Allison Armitage).

David G. Russell composed the theme. The program opens with these words: "In the light of day, Darcy Walker is a cop. But in the dark of night she becomes Black Scorpion — doing with a mask what she can't do with a badge."

Showtime produced a 1995 TV movie called Black Scorpion with Joan Severance (Darcy Walker/Black Scorpion), Garrett Morris (Argyle), Terri J. Vaughn (Tender Lovin'), Ashley Peldon (Young Darcy) and Rick Rossovich (Stan Walker). Steve, the mayor and Babette were not part of the program.

Cast: Michelle Lintel (Darcy Walker), Brandon Terrill (Argyle), Scott Valentine (Steve Rafferty), Enya Flack (Tender Lovin'), Robert Pine (Arthur Worth), Shae Marks (Babette), David Groh (Stan Walker), Elizabeth Huett (Young Darcy).

854 Black Sheep. (Pilot; Comedy; Fox; 6/30/94). When the stock market takes a nose dive and stockbroker Jonathan Kelly loses his Wall Street job, he returns to his home in New Jersey to become partners with his brother, Eugene, in his struggling auto repair business, Eugene's Car World. The brothers constantly bicker and their efforts to run the business together is the focal point of the unsold series. Other Regulars: Sherry, their secretary; Bobby, the deli owner; and Anthony, their friend.

Cast: Jason Bateman (Jonathan Kelly), Anthony Tyler Quinn (Eugene Kelly), Jana Marie Hupp

(Sherry), Jeffrey Dean Morgan (Bobby), Willie Gaisor (Anthony). Guest Cast: Sarah Essex (Annalise), Larry B. Poindexter (Alex P. Keaton).

855 The Black Sheep Squadron. (Series; Adventure; NBC; 1976–1978). The series, set on the island of Bella La Cava in the South Pacific during World War II, relates the exploits of Major Gregory "Pappy" Boyington, a daring air ace and commander of the VMF 214 Black Sheep, an often decorated but seldom disciplined fighter squadron. Members of Pappy's team are James W. Gutterman; Joseph E. Wiley, Jerry Bragg, Lawrence Casey, Robert Anderson, Robert Boyle, Donald French, Jeb Pruitt and Lieutenant Hutch.

Thomas Moore is the general in charge; Colonel Carl Lard is the C.O.; Andy Micklin is the squadron's mechanic; Stan is Andy's assistant; and Nancy, Dottie, Ellie, Sue and Cheryl are the nurses stationed on the island. Meatball is Pappy's dog and Captain T. Harachi is the Japanese squadron commander. The series was originally titled Baa Baa Black Sheep.

Cast: Robert Conrad (Major Gregory Boyington), Simon Oakland (Gen. Thomas Moore), Dana Elcar (Col. Carl Lard), James Whitmore, Jr. (Capt. James Gutterman), Robert Ginty (Lt. Joseph Wiley), Dirk Blocker (Lt. Jerry Bragg), W.K. Stratton (Capt. Lawrence Casey), John Larroquette (Lt. Robert Anderson), Jake Mitchell (Lt. Robert Boyle), Larry Manetti (Lt. Robert Boyle; later), Jeff MacKay (Lt. Donald French), Joey Aresco (Lt. Hutch), Jeb Adams (Lt. Jeb Pruitt), Red West (Sgt. Andy Micklin), Steve Raymond (Pvt. Stan Richards), Nancy Conrad (Nurse Nancy Gilmore), Denise DuBarry (Nurse Samantha Greene), Katherine Cannon (Nurse Dottie Dickson), Kathy McCullem (Nurse Ellie Farrell), Brianne Leary (Nurse Sue Webster), Leslie Charleson (Nurse Ann Wilson), Sharon Ullrick (Nurse Cheryl Stone), Byron Chung (Capt. T. Harachi), True Grit (Meatball). Narrator: Robert Conrad.

856 Black Tie Affair. (Series; Satire; NBC; 1993). Brodsky's Used and Hard to Find Thirty-Three and a Third Record Shop and Detective Agency is located at 1732 Prescott Street in San Francisco. Dave Brodsky, a wisecracking amateur private detective who doesn't like murders "because they involve blood," owns it. Despite that fact, he has set himself up in business as a private detective and is hoping for cases that involve anything but murder. For his undercover work, Dave uses a surveillance van with the name Ed's House of Hammers printed on the sides. Dave originally wanted play ball for the San Francisco Giants "but an aggravating lack of talent stopped me." The store was originally meant to sell records but Dave's interest in solving crimes led him to expanding. His motto is "I do insurance investigating, Polaroid's and thirty-threes. I don't do compact discs and murder."

Cookie is a beautiful Eurasian girl who works for Dave. She is his business manager and becomes easily angered when Dave degrades women by using slang terms or street lingo for her body parts. Cookie knows Dave is an inexperienced detective and wishes he would do what he does best — catalogue and sell records. Cookie's habit of listening in on Dave's phone calls upsets Dave because "she says 'don't' to all my detective cases." However, when Dave does take a case, it is Cookie who helps him solve it. The series was originally titled Smoldering Lust.

Cast: Bradley Whitford (Dave Brodsky), Maggie Han (Cookie), Kate Capshaw (Margo Cody), John Calvin (Christopher Cody), Alison Elliott (Eve Saskatchewan).

857 Blacke's Magic. (Series; Crime Drama; NBC; 1986). Alexander Blacke is a world famous magician who uses his unique skills to help the police solving baffling crimes. The course of Alexander's life changed while performing a trick on the TV show "Danger Darers." When the illusion backfired and almost cost Alexander his life, he chose to retire. A short time later, while attending a magician's conference in Los Angeles, Alexander witnesses the death of his friend Nick Gasparini, who dies from a gunshot wound while submerged in ten feet of water. Determined to solve the murder, Alexander contacts his father Leonard, a retired con artist. Together with Alexander's knowledge of magic and Leonard's genius for the con, they find Nick's killer. With both Alexander and Leonard finding a new excitement in life, they team to use their unique skills to help the police, in particular Hank Wallenstein, a lieutenant with the N.Y.P.D.'s 18th Precinct, solve crimes.

Other Regulars: Claudia Blacke, Alexander's daughter; Ted Byrnes, Claudia's romantic interest; Jill Byrnes, Ted's daughter; and Jamie Byrnes, Ted's son.

Cast: Hal Linden (Alexander Blacke), Harry Morgan (Leonard Blacke), Claudia Christian (Claudia Blacke), Stephen Macht (Lt. Hank Wallenstein), Mark Shera (Ted Byrnes), Pippin Ingalls (Jill Byrnes), Jonathan Gacke (Jamie Byrnes).

858 Blackstar. (Series; Cartoon; CBS; 1981–1984). While testing a spaceship, U.S. astronaut John Blackstar is drawn through a black hole and marooned on the planet Zagar. Shortly after, he is rescued from impending doom by the Trolletts, the tiny people who inhabit the planet. When Blackstar learns that the Trolletts are engaged in a battle for freedom against the Overlord, an evil being who rules by the might of the Power Star, he allies himself to their cause. Stories depict Blackstar's efforts, assisted by the Trolletts, to save Zagar from the Overlord's evil rule.

Voices: George DiCenzo (John Blackstar), Linda Gary, Alan Oppenheimer, Pat Finney.

859 Blackstone Magic Spots. (Series; Variety; Syn.; 1952). A filler program of short, filmed video sequences that feature tricks and illusions by magician Harry Blackstone, Sr.

Host: Harry Blackstone, Sr.

860 Blade: The Series. (Series; Adventure; Spike TV; 2006). Detroit appears to be not only a city that makes cars, but a city that is infested with vampires, most notably those associated with the House of Chthon and its cult leader, the ancient vampire Marcus Van Sciver, who poses as a pillar of society and a patron of the arts by day; by night he is a blood-sucking vampire.

A mysterious man named Blade, who wields a large, lethal blade, is also out for blood — to kill the vampire clan.

Blade is part human and part vampire. Prior to his birth, his mother was attacked by vampires. She died during childbirth but Blade lived. He grew up with a hatred for vampires and formulated a home remedy that provides the nutrients he needs without seeking human blood. But Blade is not alone — Krista Starr is a beautiful army veteran (just back from Iraq) who is also seeking to kill Van Sciver. He killed her twin brother. Her investigation leads her to find Blade and the two eventually team up to achieve the same goal. Krista is stubborn and once she has her mind set on something she must see it through. Blade can only see revenge for what the vampires did to him and his mother. Together they set out to destroy the evil that exists in Detroit.

Other Regulars: Chase, Marcus's beautiful but icy assistant; and Shen, Blade's pal, a technical wizard who invents the weapons Blade sometimes uses to dispense of the enemy. The series is based on the Marvel comic book and the Wesley Snipes feature films.

Cast: Kirk Jones (Blade), Jill Wagner (Krista Starr), Neil Jackson (Marcus Van Sciver), Jessica Gower (Chase), Nelson Lee (Shen).

861 Blake's Seven. (Series; Science Fiction; Syn.; 1980). The series is set in a future time when the Earth's surface has been transformed into a radioactive wasteland following a holocaustic war. The inhabitants are now forced to live in domed cities that are controlled by the Federation, a ruthless dictatorship whose power extends to various colonies in the galaxy. Stories follow Roj Blake, a dissident who is determined to free humanity from the control of the Federation.

Four 13-episode series were made in 1977, 1978, 1980 and 1981. The title is derived from the original Blake's Seven series (1977): Blake, Venna, Avon, Cally, Vila, Gam and Zen (1977). In the second series (1978), Travis was added to the cast; Gam was killed off in episode 5; Blake and Venna perished at the end of this second series (Avon then became the leader). Dayna and Tarrant joined the cast in the first and second episodes, respectively, of the third series (1980). Cally and Zen were killed off in episode one of the fourth series (1981) and Soolin joined the cast with episode one of this final series. Jenna Stannis is the pilot of The Liberator, the ship used by Blake. Zen is the ship's master computer; Orac is the ship's super computer.

Cast: Gareth Thomas (Roj Blake), Sally Knyvette (Jenna Stannis), Paul Darrow (Kerr Avon), Jan Chappell (Cally), Josette Simon (Dayna Mellanby), Michael Keating (Vila Restal), David Jackson (Olag Gan), Steven Pacey (Del Tarrant), Glynis Barber (Soolin), Jacqueline Pearce (Federation President Servalan), Stephen Greif (Commander Travis), Brian Croucher (Commander Travis; later), Peter Tuddenham (Zen and Orac).

862 Blank Check. (Series; Game; NBC; 1975). Six players compete; one is designated as the check writer and the other five are the challengers.

The check writer secretly selects one number from the five he is shown. A question is read to the challengers. The first player who answers it attempts to guess the number chosen by the check writer. If he does not guess it, the number chosen by the check writer appears in the fourth digit of a four-digit check. The check writer then selects another number and another question is read to acquire another challenger. The object is for the check writer to fill in a four-digit blank check. However, should the challenger guess the number, he defeats the check writer (who loses the money) and becomes the new check writer. The six players compete for five days and the person who writes the single largest check is the grand winner and receives, in addition, to the money, a new car.

Host: Art James. Co-Host: Judy Rich. Announcer: Johnny Jacobs.

863 Blankety Blanks. (Series; Game; ABC; 1975). Four contestants compete. Six numbered but concealed clues to a mystery subject are revealed. The host selects a computer card from a revolving wheel and places it in a slot. The player selected by the computer (all have equal chances) chooses one of the numbers. A clue pertaining to the mystery subject is revealed. If the player identifies it, he wins money; if not, another player is selected. Once the subject is identified, the contestant at play receives the opportunity to double his winnings by answering a "Blankety Blank"—a nonsense riddle. The first player to score $2000 is the winner.

Host: Bill Cullen. Announcer: Bob Stewart.

864 Blansky's Beauties. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1977). Bambi Benton, Ethel Akalino, Arkansas Baits, Jacqueline ("Jackie") Outlaw, Sylvia Silver, Hilary Prentiss and Bridget Muldoon are Blansky's

Beauties, showgirls who perform in "The Major Putnam Spectacular—La Plume de la Putnam," a glitzy show at the Oasis Hotel in Las Vegas, Nevada. (Becoming one of "Blansky's Beauties" is the dream of all budding showgirls and an important step on the road to becoming famous.)

Nancy Blansky is the show's producer (most people believe her name is "Nanky Blanky" because the show's announcer says her name so fast that nobody can understand the correct pronunciation). Nancy is the cousin of Howard Cunningham from Happy Days. She has a dog named Blackjack and lives at 64 Crescent Drive with her assistant, Joey DeLuca and his younger brother, Anthony DeLuca. Joey is the cousin of Carmine Ragusa (from Laverne and Shirley), and he helps Nancy with the choreography.

Bambi is from southern California ("I was a showgirl at six hotels and I've been fired six times for having fun). Her mother loved the movie Bambi and named her after the main character. Ethel is from Wichita, Kansas ("They call me Sunshine because I smile a lot"); Arkansas is from Arkansas ("I don't sing too good, and I don't dance too good, but I sure do a mean hog call—suuuuuuueeeeee!").

Jackie is unmarried and "I'm cool"; Hilary is a stunning blonde who got the job because "I'm a close personal friend of Major Putnam, who owns the hotel, and I wanted to be a chorus girl"; Sylvia is a streetwise but sweet girl from the Bronx; and Bridget is a prim and proper British girl. As the series progressed, three additional girls became "Blansky's Beauties": Lovely Carson, Gladys ("Cochise") Littlefeather and Misty ("Knight") Karamazov.

Horace ("Stubs") Wilmington is the hotel manager; Pat Morita is Arnold Takahashi, the owner of Arnold's Coffee Shop (the character first appeared on Happy Days as the owner of Arnold's Drive-In).

Cast: Nancy Walker (Nancy Blansky), Caren Kaye (Bambi Benton), Lynda Goodfriend (Ethel Akalino), Rhonda Bates (Arkansas Baits), Gerri Reddick (Jackie Outlaw), Antoinette Yuskis (Sylvia Silver), Taffee O'Connell (Hilary Prentiss), Elaine Bolton (Bridget Muldoon), Bond Gideon (Lovely Carson), Eddie Mekka (Joey DeLuca), Scott Baio (Anthony DeLuca), Pat Morita (Arnold Takahashi), George Pentecost (Stubs Wilmington), Johnny Desmond (Emilio; the hotel maitre d'). Theme Vocal: "I Want It All" by Cyndi Lauper.

865 Bleach. (Series; Cartoon; Cartoon Network; 2004–2005). Ichigo Kurosaki is a high school student in Japan who has the ability to see ghosts—something that does not bother him and he just accepts. One day a Hollow (an evil, tormented spirit) attacks Kurosaki and his two sisters (Karin and Yuzu). Just as it appeared the Hollow would claim their souls, a female Death God (a Shinigami) named Rukia Kuchiki appears to help them. Rukia's mission is to purify Hollows and send them to an afterlife called the Soul Society. However, during the battle, Rukia is injured and to save herself and Ichigo, she transfers her powers to Ichigo. The Hollow is defeated and a reluctant Ichigo begins training as Death God to keep the balance between the world of the living and dead. Stories follow Ichigo's exploits as he attempts to send Hollows to the Soul Society. Produced in Japan.

Voice Cast: Masakazu Morita (Ichigo Kurosaki), Fumiko Orikasa (Rukia Kuchiki), Rie Kugimiya (Karin Kurosaki), Tomoe Sakuragawa (Yuzu Kurosaki), Toshiyuki Morikawa (Isshin Kurosaki), Quinton Flynn (Kon), Satsuki Yukino (Shihouin Yoruichi), Royotaro Okiayu (Byakuya Kuchiki).

866 Bless This House. (Series; Comedy; Syn.; 1977). Events in the hectic lives of the Abbotts, a family of four residing at 2 Howard Road in England. Sid and Jean are the parents; Sally and Mike are their children; Betty and Trevor are their neighbors. Produced in England.

Cast: Sidney James (Sid Abbott), Diana Coupland (Jean Abbott), Sally Geeson (Sally Abbott), Robin Stewart (Mike Abbott), Patsy Rowlands (Betty), Anthony Jackson (Trevor).

867 Bless This House. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1995). Burt and Alice Clayton are a hardworking couple who hope to one day buy a house (they currently live in Apartment 4D in Trenton, New Jersey). Burt and Alice have been married 14 years and are the parents of Danni and Sean. Burt, a post office supervisor, holds a second job as a delivery man for Sun Dairies. Alice is a cashier at Trenton Motor Cars. When Alice is fired from the car lot, she acquires a temporary job selling jeans at the Trenton Mall. She later becomes a secretary at the law firm of Richmond, Goldman and Pike.

Danni is a 12-year-old girl who wants to become a woman now, "not tomorrow." Alice is worried "because she spends too much time in the bathroom staring at her little hooters" and all Danni thinks about is becoming voluptuous. Burt is also worried because boys are starting to notice her "and what's worse — she's starting to notice boys." He is fearing "an early dating life of crime." On the other hand, Burt and Alice have Sean, whose only talent appears to be burping out the alphabet.

Sean has a French poodle (Fluffy) and a turtle (Al the Turtle). He and Danni attend Trenton Elementary School. Stories relate events in their daily lives.

Cast: Andrew Dice Clay (Burt Clayton), Cathy Moriarty (Alice Clayton), Reagan Kotz (Danni Clayton), Sam Gifaldi (Sean Clayton).

868 Blind Date. (Series; Game; ABC; NBC; DuMont; 1949–1953). Six men, representing two universities, and three women, leading Manhattan models, compete. Two men are seated on one side of a wall and one female on the other. The males, the Hunters, telephone a girl, the Hunted, and attempt to talk her into accepting a date with him. On the basis of voice and specially prepared questions, she chooses the most impressive one. The couple receives an all expenses paid romantic evening, including an invitation to the Stork Club. Three such rounds are played per broadcast.

The series ran on from ABC May 5, 1949 to September 20, 1951; on NBC from June 7, 1952 to July 19, 1952; and on DuMont (as Your Big Moment) from June 9, 1953 to September 15, 1953. With some slight changes in format, it became the basis for The Dating Game in the 1960s.

Hostess: Arlene Francis. Host: Melvyn Douglas, Jan Murray. Announcer: Walter Herlihy, Rex Marshall. Orchestra: Glenn Osser, Ray Bloch.

869 Blind Date. (Series; Reality; Syn.; 1999). Two people, who do not know each other, are set up for a blind date. A camera crew follows them to record the first meeting, the date itself and what happens at the conclusion of the date (whether or not the participants would like a second date with each other). What sets the series apart from other such shows is the use of pop ups that appear throughout the dating sequence. Bubbles (for thoughts) appear as do animated background inserts. Not all the arranged dates turn out to be a perfect match as many of the participants choose not to take the situation any further.

Host: Roger Lodge.

870 Blind Justice. (Series; Crime Drama; ABC; 2005). Jim Dunbar is a detective with the 8th Precinct of the N.Y.P.D. He served in the 1991 Gulf War and previously worked with the anti crime unit of the 34th Precinct. In 2005 Jim is involved in a confrontation with a suspect in a bank robbery and shot on the side of the head. The bullet blinds Jim — but does not discourage him from continuing in his duties as a police officer.

Jim learns how to use his other senses to aid him. He is skilled in karate and gets around with the help of Hank, his German shepherd seeing-eye dog. Jim, however, was not permitted to return to the force because of his condition until he fought for reinstatement. Jim works in the homicide division, carries a gun (unlikely in real life) and has earned the respect of his co-workers — except for Marty Russo, an insensitive cop who resents the attention Jim gets and constantly needles him.

Stories follow Jim and his partner, Karen Bettancourt, as they investigate crimes. Other Regulars: Christie Dunbar, Jim's wife; Detectives Tom Selway and Lt. Gary Fisk.

Cast: Ron Eldard (Jim Dunbar), Marisol Nichols (Karen Bettancourt), Rena Sofer (Christie Dunbar), Michael Gatson (Gary Fisk), Reno Wilson (Tom Selway), Frank Grillo (Marty Russo).

871 The Blinkins. (Pilot; Cartoon; Syn.; 4/5/86). Blinky, Shady, Flashy, Flick and Twinkle are the Blinkins, fireflies (a.k.a. lightning bugs) whose job is to keep the forest bright and beautiful. The unsold series was to follow their adventures as they struggle to protect the forest from Mr. Slime, an alligator who detests beauty. The pilot episode follows the evil Mr. Slime as he schemes to prevent the Blinkins from ushering in spring time.

Voice Cast: Henry Gibson (Mr. Slime), Tracey Gold (Flashy), Missy Gold (Shady), Brandy Gold (Twinkle), Burgess Meredith (Mr. Ben the Owl), Paul Williams (Grog the Frog).

872 Bliss. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 6/28/84). In an effort to help save her family business, the Massachusetts-based Bliss Chocolates, New York corporate vice president Kate Bliss resigns and becomes the new head of the chocolate factory that her father, Harry Bliss, founded. The unsold series was to relate Kate and Harry's misadventures as they clash over the proper operation of the company (Kate believes in an efficient, high-powered operation geared for expansion; Harry prefers a relaxed, casual operation). Other Regulars: Bo, the factory manager; Fritz, the candy chef; Marvin, the accountant; Lyle, Bo's son; Eleanor, Harry's secretary; Walter, Fritz's assistant; and Velma, Harry's girlfriend.

Cast: George Kennedy (Harry Bliss), Diane Stilwell (Kate Bliss), Chris Sarandon (Bo), Allan Miller (Fritz), Philip Sterling (Marvin Shefner), George D. Wallace (Lyle), Anne Haney (Eleanor), Barbara Babcock (Velma), Dan Frischman (Walter).

873 Blockbusters. (Series; Game; NBC; 1987). A board with twenty letters of the alphabet is displayed. One player (two compete) selects a letter and must answer a question that begins with that letter. The first player to correctly answer five questions and fill a row (side to side or up and down) wins the round. The first player to win two games is the champion.

Host: Bill Rafferty. Announcer: Rich Jeffries.

874 Blondie. (Unaired Pilot; Comedy; Produced in 1952). The first known attempt to bring the Depression-era comic strip to television. The misadventures of Dagwood Bumstead, a bumbling architect, and his level-headed wife, Blondie.

Cast: Jeff Donnell (Blondie), John Harvey (Dagwood).

875 Blondie. (Unaired Pilot; Comedy; Produced in 1954). A second pilot (see prior title) about a bumbling architect named Dagwood Bumstead and his pretty, level-headed wife, Blondie. The pilot episode relates two storylines: Blondie and her children's (Cookie and Alexander) efforts to buy Dagwood a birthday present; and Dagwood's fumbling attempts to do a favor for his boss, J.C. Dithers (the owner of the Dithers Construction Company): buying him an antique gun for his collection. (Dagwood's gift: a washing machine. Blondie and the kids always use Dagwood's birthdays as a means of buying something they can all use; last year he got a sewing machine.) Other Regulars: Cora Dithers, J.C.'s wife; Tootsie, Blondie's neighbor; and Mr. Beasley, the mailman.

Cast: Pamela Britton (Blondie Bumstead), Hal LeRoy (Dagwood Bumstead), Stuffy Singer (Alexander Bumstead), Mimi Gibson (Cookie Bumstead), Robert Burton (J.C. Dithers), Isabel Withers (Cora Dithers), Robin Raymond (Tootsie Woodley), Lucien Littlefield (Mr. Beasley), Joseph Kearns (Mr. Miller; guest role).

876 Blondie. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1957). Blondie Davenport and Dagwood Bumstead met on a blind date. Although they were with different people, Dagwood could see that Blondie didn't care for the fellow she was with. The following night, Dagwood brought Blondie flowers and candy; before long they fell in love and decided to marry. They eloped to a town called Sherman Grove and were married by a justice of the peace. (Dagwood has since lost their marriage license. He accidentally grabbed his marriage license when he went on a hunting trip and lost it—but he bagged three ducks.) In the comics, Blondie was a Depression-era gold digger seeking a rich husband—Dagwood.

Years later Blondie has a home (house number 4224), two kids (Alexander, nicknamed "Baby Dumpling," and Cookie), six dogs (Daisy, a "pure-bred mongrel," and her "five children"), and a bumbling husband who works as an architect for the J.C. Dithers Construction Company.

"We all adore you Dagwood, even if you are dumb at times," says Blondie. Dagwood is a natural bumbler and becomes a nervous wreck when it comes to his boss, J.C. Dithers. When J.C. says, "Emergency," Dagwood answers like a faithful Saint Bernard: he drops whatever he is doing to rush to the office. (Dagwood is "sort of a vice president—it comes and goes." When he blunders, it goes; when his blundering turns out for the best, he's a v.p. again). On Dagwood's birthday, Blondie gets him something she needs for the house or something the kids want (over the years, Dagwood has gotten a sewing machine, a washing machine, a doll house and a baseball bat and glove). Dagwood and J.C. are members of the Loyal Order of Caribou Lodge; J.C. has an antique gun collection that his wife feels is just a waste of money (he buys his guns at Miller's Sport Shop). Dagwood is famous for his yell—"Bl-l-o-o-n-d-i-e-e-e"—when something goes wrong.

The series is based on the comic strip by Chic Young, and most people readily think of Penny Singleton and Arthur Lake, the stars of the 1930s and 1940s motion picture and radio series, as Blondie and Dagwood.

Cast: Pamela Britton (Blondie Bumstead), Arthur Lake (Dagwood Bumstead), Ann Barnes (Cookie Bumstead), Stuffy Singer (Alexander Bumstead), Florenz Ames (Julius C. Dithers), Lela Bliss (Cora Dithers), Elvia Allman (Cora Dithers; later), Hal Peary (Herb Woodley), Lois Collier (Harriet Woodley), Hollis Irving (Harriet Woodley; later), Lucien Littlefield (Mr. Beasley), Hazel Shermit (Louise Cooper), George Winslow (Foghorn).

877 Blondie. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1968–1969). An adaptation of the comic strip by Chic Young (see also the prior three titles). Events in the lives of the Bumstead family: Dagwood, the father, a bumbling architect for the J.C. Dithers Construction Company; Blondie, his pretty, level-headed wife; and their children, Alexander and Cookie. Tootsie Woodley is their neighbor; Gloria is Dither's secretary; Mr. Beasley is the mailman.

On May 10, 1987, CBS aired the first animated “Blondie” special, Blondie and Dagwood, with the following voices: Loni Anderson (Blondie), Frank Welker (Dagwood), Ike Eisenmann (Alexander), Ellen Gerstel (Cookie), Alan Oppenheimer (J.C. Dithers), Russi Taylor (Cora Dithers), Laurel Page (Tootsie Woodley), Jack Angel (Herb Woodley and Mr. Beasley), Pat Fraley (Daisy).

The same voice cast reprised their roles in Blondie and Dagwood: Second Wedding Workout (CBS, November 1, 1989), the second animated special based on the comic strip.

Cast: Patricia Harty (Blondie Bumstead), Will Hutchins (Dagwood Bumstead), Peter Robbins (Alexander Bumstead), Pamelyn Ferdin (Cookie Bumstead), Jim Backus (Julius C. Dithers), Henny Backus (Cora Dithers), Bobbi Jordan (Tootsie Woodley), Marj Dusay (Gloria), Bryan O’Byrne (Mr. Beasley). Theme Vocal: “Blondie” by Will Hutchins and Patricia Harty.

878 Blood Plus. (Series; Cartoon; Cartoon Network; 2007). Saya Ontonashi is an apparently normal high school girl living in Okinawa, Japan. She is now a senior and lives with her adoptive family. Saya has amnesia and can only remember events within the past year. One night she is attacked (and is able to fight off) a vampire called a Chiropteran. The attack triggers her memories — she is a vampire hunter and a member of an organization called the Red Shield that has been battling Chiropterans (blood sucking ravenous creatures that can change their forms and disguise themselves as humans). Stories follow Saya as she comes to realize her true identity (sort of an animated Buffy the Vampire Slayer) as a slayer and the only one who can defeat the evil that walks among the human population. The series is based on the Japanese animated feature film Blood: The Last Vampire. Aired on the Adult Swim segment of the Cartoon Network.

Voice Cast: Kari Wahlgren (Saya Ontonashi), Ben Diskin (Kai), Crispin Freeman (Haji), Olivia Hack (Irene), Olivia Hack (Mao), Liz Sroka (Anne-Marie), Lara Jill Miller (Mina).

879 Blood Ties. (Series; Crime Drama; Lifetime; 2007). Victoria Nelson is a police officer with the Metropolitan Division of the Toronto, Canada, Police Department. When Vicki, as Victoria is called, discovers she is suffering from a loss of vision, she quits the force to become a private detective when she learns she will be delegated to a desk job. Vicki is fearless and has taken it upon herself to investigate cases involving the supernatural. One night while staking out a nightclub (for a serial killer), Vicki meets Henry Fitzroy, a dashing older man with whom she finds an instant attraction (and vice versa). Henry is quite older — 450 years old and the illegitimate son of King Henry VII (although he appears to be in his twenties). Being a Lifetime series (and catering to women) Vicki does not become Henry's victim; instead Henry becomes Vicki's ally and Vicki finds herself falling in love with a vampire (something she has sworn to kill, not love). Henry's unearthly abilities greatly help Vicki (and often save her life) and stories follow an unlikely team as they seek to hunt down and destroy the unnatural.

Coreen is Vicki's assistant (she sought Vicki's help when her boyfriend was killed by supernatural forces); Mike is Vicki's former partner (and lover) who also seeks to solve bizarre crimes. While the series is based on The Blood Books by Tanya Huff, it also resembles, in a way, the 1990s series Forever Knight (about a vampire who is also a police detective in Canada).

Cast: Christina Cox (Vicki Nelson), Kyle Schmid (Henry Fitzroy), Dylan Neal (Mike Celluci), Gina Holden (Coreen Fennel).

880 Blossom. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 7/5/90). The pilot film for the series of the same title (see next entry). A teenage view of life as seen through the eyes of Blossom Russo, a pretty 13-year-old girl who lives in Los Angeles with her mother (Barbara), father (Terry) and brothers (Anthony and Donny). In the pilot episode, Blossom struggles over the thought of what to do when she believes her parents are getting a divorce. Other Regulars: Six, Blossom's best friend. (For the series, Nick Russo, played by Ted Wass, became Blossom's single father; and Donny became Joey Russo.)

Cast: Mayim Bialik (Blossom Russo), Barrie Youngfellow (Barbara Russo), Richard Masur (Terry Russo), Michael Stoyanov (Anthony Russo), Joey Lawrence (Donny Russo), Jenna Von Oy (Six). Guest Cast: Debra Sandlund (Mrs. Young), Kelly Packard (Kimberly).

881 Blossom. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1991–1995). “Blossom is the perfect combination of a little sugar and a lot of spice. She’s gorgeous, she’s popular, she’s sophisticated.” She’s 13 years old and lives with her father, Nick, and brothers Anthony and Joey at 465 Hampton Drive in Southern California.

Blossom first attended the Crestridge School for Girls (later Tyler High School when she discovered they had a better band; she plays trumpet and hopes to become a musician). Blossom has not yet developed her figure and Joey calls her “a borderline babe” (“You’re in the Honor Society, you play the trumpet but you haven’t been visited by the hooter fairy yet”). Blossom is very obedient and loves to help other people; that enthusiasm always gets her into trouble when her good intentions backfire.

Six, Blossom’s best friend is anxious to grow up and become a woman (“I wonder what it will be like to have a mortgage, a baby or breasts,” she says). Six considers Blossom “a real decent person with moral values” and her parents are thankful that she and Blossom are friends. Six is a bit wild and uncontrollable and likes to take chances. She feels this is the best time of her life and is out to make the fun last as long as she can. Six is a fast talker and she is a member of the school’s debating team; but she also says, “If detention were a frequent flyer program, I’d have enough miles for a free trip to Hawaii.”

Nick is divorced from Madelyn. They were married for twenty years until Madelyn left the family to pursue her dream of becoming a singer in France. In last season episodes Nick becomes romantically involved with (and later marries) Carol, a widow with a young daughter named Kennedy. Nick is a musician (attended Julliard) and plays at various clubs. He played backup for Anita Baker, B.B. King and Chuck Berry; won Cleo Awards for commercials; and played on soundtracks for such movies as Ghost, Fame and Dirty Dancing.

Anthony is the oldest child. He was a drug addict for four years but is now clean. He worked as a delivery boy for Fatty’s Pizza and as a counter boy at Dante’s Donut Depot. He later acquires a job as an E.M.T. (Emergency Medical Technician) and began a relationship with (and later married) Shelley Lewis. A year later they became the parents of a baby they named Nash Metropolitan.

Joey is Blossom’s 16-year-old, dim-witted brother. He is excellent at sports, terrible at schoolwork and obsessed with girls and breasts. Blossom considers Joey to be a dork (“If the dorks had a navy, he’d be their admiral”). Joey dreams of becoming a professional baseball player. He is a member of the Tyler High School baseball team and this led to him becoming a second baseman for the Philadelphia Phillies.

The last episode found Blossom preparing to begin college (UCLA). Six was accepted by several colleges but had not made a final choice. Joey was given a baseball scholarship to Arizona State College but he was not sure what to do: stay with the Phillies or attend college.

Francis “Buzz” Richman is Blossom’s grandfather; Sharon LeMeure is Six’s mother. See also the prior title for information on the series pilot film. Theme: “The Theme from Blossom,” vocal by Dr. John.

Cast: Mayim Bialik (Blossom Russo), Ted Wass (Nick Russo), Michael Stoyanov (Anthony Russo), Joey Lawrence (Joey Russo), Jenna Von Oy (Six LeMeure), Finola Hughes (Carol), Courtney Chase (Kennedy), Doren Fein (Kennedy; later), Barnard Hughes (Buzz Richman), Melissa Manchester (Madelyn Russo), Gail Edwards (Sharon LeMeure), Samaria Graham (Shelley Lewis), Autumn Winters (Young Blossom), Aaron Freeman (Young Anthony), Grant Gelt (Young Anthony; later), Andrew Lawrence (Young Joey), Paige Pengra (Madelyn in 1986), Margaret Reed (Madelyn in 1986; later), Marissa Rosen (Young Six).

882 The Blue Angel. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1954). A musical revue set against the background of the Blue Angel Supper Club in New York City. The series aired from July 6, 1954 to October 12, 1954. Richard Lewine and Burt Shevelove are the producers.

Host: Orson Bean. Vocalist: Polly Bergen. Music: The Norman Paris Trio.

883 The Blue Angels. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1960). The experiences of the pilots and crew of the Blue Angels, a team of precision U.S. Naval jets.

Cast: Dennis Cross (Commander Arthur Richards), Mike Galloway (Lt. Russ MacDonald), Warner Jones (Capt. Wilbur Scott), Don Gordon (Lt. Hank Bertelli), Robert Knapp (Crewman Zeke Powers), Ross Elliott (Crewman Cort Ryker).

884 Blue Collar TV. (Series; Comedy; WB; 2004–2006). A skit show featuring “Red Neck” comedians (from the Blue Collar Comedy Tour ensemble group) who spoof ordinary working class people.

Cast: Jeff Foxworthy, Brooke Dillman, Ashley Drane, Ayden Field, Peter Oldring, Gary Anthony Williams, Ron White, Amy Kathryn Jones, Leigh Kunis, Bill Engvall, Larry the Cable Guy.

885 Blue DeVille. (Pilot; Comedy-Drama; 12/29/86). Dissatisfied with the life her parents have chosen for her, Justine “J.C.” Swift, a straight-laced glamour girl, decides to join her free-spirited friend, Augusta “Gus” Valentine, on an odyssey of self-discovery in a classic 1959 Cadillac DeVille. The unsold series, a female version of Route 66, was to relate their various adventures as they travel across the country.

Cast: Jennifer Runyon (Justine Swift), Kimberly Pistone (Augusta Valentine). Guest Cast: Mark Thomas Miller (Rod Sandusky), Robert T. Prescott (Kevin), Alan Autry (Gus Valentine), Nicole Mercurio (Vee Valentine), Hal Havins (Shoe).

886 The Blue Jean Network. (Series; Variety; Syn.; 1981). Live concerts and behind-the-scenes interviews with the top names in music. The title is derived from a tie-in with the various designer jeans companies that sponsor the program on a network basis. The program contains no host or studio orchestra; music is supplied by the various guest artists. Jackie Barnett and Neil Marshall are the producers. The series was created by Donny Osmond and Chad Murdoch.

887 Blue Jeans. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 7/26/80). Vickie Gardner, Jimmy Scanlon, Miles Savatini and Beethoven Zwirko are four young Boston-based adults who comprise the rock group Blue Jeans. The unsold series was to relate their misadventures as they seek to make a name for themselves in the music world. In the pilot episode, the group attempts to convince Beethoven's father that Blue Jeans is not a hopeless cause.

Cast: Elissa Leeds (Vickie Gardner), Paul Provenza (Jimmy Scanlon), Charles Fleischer (Miles Savatini), Jay Fenichel (Beethoven Zwirko). Guest Cast: George S. Irving (Mr. Zwirko), Ruth Manning (Molly Zwirko), Michael Aliamo (Club owner). Theme: "Blue Jeans Song" by Bob Esty.

888 The Blue Knight. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 1975–1976). William Morgan, called "Bumper," is a veteran Los Angeles cop-on-the-beat. Stories realistically detail the life of a policeman "whose beat is his world and whose people are his people." Based on the novel by Joseph Wambaugh.

Carrie Williamson is Bumper's girlfriend; Sergeant Newman is his superior; Vera is his friend, the owner of a pawnshop; Wimpy and Toby are his informants.

Cast: George Kennedy (William "Bumper" Morgan), Barbara Rhoades (Carrie Williamson), Philip Pine (Sgt. Newman), Aneta Corsaut (Vera), John Steadman (Wimpy), Billy Benedict (Toby). Theme Song: "Bumper's Theme" by Henry Mancini.

889 Blue Light. (Series; Adventure; ABC; 1966). The series is set during World War II. Blue Light Control is a U.S. government organization of eighteen men designed to infiltrate and destroy the Nazi High Command. One member is David March, a newspaper foreign correspondent. To achieve the organization's goals, David poses as a traitor by renouncing his citizenship. He joins the ranks of the German command and is assigned to its intelligence division in Berlin. Stories relate his suicide missions as he attempts to destroy the Third Reich from within under the code name Blue Light. David's contact is Suzanne Duchard.

An announcer opens the program: "Long before Hitler turned the world to flames, American correspondent David March fled to Germany, posing as a traitor to his own country. Accepted by the Nazi High Command, March worked as a double agent to destroy the Third Reich from within under the code name ... Blue Light."

Cast: Robert Goulet (David March), Christine Carera (Suzanne Duchard).

890 The Blue Men. (Pilot; Crime Drama; CBS; 1/15/59). The pilot film for the CBS series Brenner (see entry). The relationship between two police officers: Detective Roy Brenner, a twelve-year veteran with a long and distinguished career, and his son Ernie, a recent police academy graduate. In the pilot episode, broadcast as a segment of Playhouse 90, Roy is demoted to patrolman when he refuses to arrest a youth, accused of a theft, whom he believes is innocent.

Cast: Edmond O'Brien (Roy Brenner), Richard LePore (Ernie Brenner), Cameron Prud'homme (Captain Marshak). Guest Cast: Jack Warden (Joe Cushing), Eileen Heckart (Rose), James Westerfield (Mack Harris), David Lewis (Lanier), Rafael Campos (Jules Roman).

891 Blue Skies. (Unaired Pilot; Comedy-Drama; Produced for CBS in 1986). The original concept for the series of the same title (see next entry). Frank Clayton is divorced and the father of two children (Sarah and T.J.). Anne Pfeiffer is a divorcee and the mother of a 12-year-old daughter (Zoe). Frank and Anne meet in New York City, fall in love, marry and decide to return to Frank's rural home in Idaho to begin new lives. The pilot episode establishes the storyline as Frank and Anne find much difficulty trying to make their new lives work.

Cast: Beau Bridges (Frank Clayton), Debra Engle (Anne Pfeiffer), Kim Hauser (Zoe Pfeiffer), Brandy Gold (Sarah Clayton), Barrett Oliver (T.J. Clayton), John Randolph (Will Clayton, Frank's father).

892 Blue Skies. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1988). Annie Pfeiffer and Frank Cobb are newlyweds with children from previous marriages who move from New York City (where they met) to Eagle Falls, Oregon, to begin new lives in a community where the traditional values of family, love and work remain strong.

Annie and her 12-year-old daughter, Zoey, and Frank and his children, 12-year-old Sarah and 10-year-old Charley, live on a ranch at Old Stone Highway ("Make the first left after Mill Pond"). Frank runs the family business, Cobb's Mill, a lumber operation, with his father, Henry Cobb, who lives in a boardinghouse at 831 Overton Road.

Frank and Annie lived in New York for nine years before moving to Oregon. Frank's late wife was named Katherine; Annie is divorced from Alan. Frank works against the background of classical music; Annie likes to prepare dinner while watching the six o'clock news on television. When Annie is upset, she eats ice cream.

The kids attend the Eagle Falls Grammar School. Zoey calls her community "Hicksville, U.S.A." (for her, "the nearest beauty parlor is two hours away by plane in San Francisco"). Sarah, who is nicknamed "Scout," has a secret retreat called Scout's Island (a small island across the river from their home) where she goes when she is upset. Dances are held at the Grange Hall; the Cobbs' horse is named Barney. Myles Goodman composed the theme.

Cast: Season Hubley (Annie Pfeiffer), Tom Wopat (Frank Cobb), Kim Hauser (Zoey Pfeiffer), Alyson Croft (Sarah Cobb), Danny Gerard (Charley Cobb), Pat Hingle (Henry Cobb), Vincent Baggetta (Alan).

893 Blue Skies. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1994). Joel Goodman and Russell Evans are the owners of the Blue Skies Trading Company. They are assisted by Eleanor "Ellie" Baskin, the girl who actually keeps the floundering company afloat.

Joel and Russell started Blue Skies to rip off the L.L. Bean Catalogue. The first product they put out was the Blue Skies Hat. Joel attempts to run the company while Russell tests the products ("I live on a higher plain and thus don't feel the pain when the products we reject go wrong"). Ellie is a Harvard graduate in business who did her undergraduate work at Sarah Lawrence. She has an MBA but wants to use her knowledge to get in on the ground floor of a starting company and take it to the top. Stories follow Joel and Russell's antics as they attempt to run Blue Skies.

Other Regulars: Eve, the receptionist; Kenny, the accountant; Kate, Ellie's cousin; and Henry Baskin, Ellie's father, the owner of Baskin Industries (he is trying to convince Ellie to give up her foolish dream and work for him at an established company).

Cast: Corey Parker (Joel Goodman), Matt Roth (Russell Evans), Julia Campbell (Eleanor Baskin), Adeliah Barnes (Eve), Richard Kind (Kenny), John Forsythe (Henry Baskin), Cindy Ambuehl (Kate).

894 Blue Thunder. (Series; Adventure; ABC; 1984). Blue Thunder is an awesome, state-of-the-art helicopter operated by the Los Angeles Police Department. Frank Chaney is the pilot and Captain Ed Braddock heads the Blue Thunder unit. Stories follow Frank and his team as they use Blue Thunder to battle the criminal elements of the city.

Other Regulars: Clinton "Jafo" Wonderlove, the electronics expert; Officer Richard "Ski" Butowski; Officer Lyman "Bubba" Kelsey; Officer J.J. Douglas; and Amy Braddock, Ed's daughter. The series is based on the feature film of the same title.

Cast: James Farentino (Frank Chaney), Dana Carvey (Clinton "Jafo" Wonderlove), Sandy McPeak (Ed Braddock), Dick Butkus (Richard "Ski" Butowski), Bubba Smith (Lyman Kelsey), Ann Cooper (J.J. Douglas), Kelly Preston (Amy Braddock).

895 Blues by Bary. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1949–1950). A musical interlude series, that ran from January 24, 1949 to July 6, 1950, featuring the music and songs of singer-pianist Jean Bary.

Hostess: Jean Bary.

896 Blue's Clues. (Series; Cartoon; Nickelodeon; 1996–2004). Blue is a very special puppy; she is not only blue but she was born with a key that unlocks a playroom she visits. When Blue enters the playroom, she is transformed into a puppet and talks and interacts with the show's host (Steve; later Joe) as well as any friends and guests who may visit. Each day the host invites children to the playhouse (Blue's Clues House) to have some fun and help figure out what Blue wants to do (she leaves her paw prints on three clues. Steve (then Joe) have to play detective to figure out the clues to know what adventures Blue has in store for them.

Cast: Traci Paige Johnson (Blue), Steve Burns (Steve), Donovan Patton (Joe), Cheryl Blaylock (Frederica), Shannon Walker Williams (Miranda), Jean Marie Castle (Paprika), Corinne Hoffman (Paprika), Cameron Bowen (Periwinkle), Jansen Panettiere (Periwinkle), Kelly Nigh (Tickety Tock), Christiana Anbri (Moona), Kara Tritton (Various Characters).

897 B-Men. (Pilot; Drama; CBS; 6/27/89). After capturing a serial killer, two B-grade Los Angeles high school students (Jim and Kevin) receive a $25,000 reward, which they use to open a bounty hunting business. The unsold series was to relate their adventures as they struggle to apprehend criminals — and keep up their grades in school. Other Regulars: Tracy, their secretary; and J.B., the rival bounty hunter.

Cast: James MacDonald (Jim Patterson), David Arnott (Kevin Nesbitt), Kimberly Foster (Tracy Hawkes), Albert Salmi (J.B. Slater). Guest Cast: John Vernon (Lieutenant Naylor), David Patrick Kelly (Mr. Langley), Liz Torres (Teacher), Joe Franklin (Himself), James Staley (Jack Patterson), Fritz Feld (Himself), Ken Olfson (Principal).

898 Bob. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1992–1993). Dr. Jeffrey Austin is a mild-mannered veterinarian. When a scientific experiment he is conducting backfires, Austin is endowed with the adrenal glands of his Doberman pinscher, Blackie, and given the super powers of a dog. Dr. Austin adopts the alias of Mad Dog, and thus was born “Mad Dog,” a comic strip created by Robert (“Bob”) McKay and now published by Ace Comics.

Bob, his wife, Kaye, and their daughter, Patricia (nicknamed Trisha), live at 134 Oak Street. Bob created “Mad Dog” in 1964 when he was dating Kaye (he drew the concept on a napkin) and sold the idea to a publisher. But it never caught on and was discontinued shortly after. Bob then went into the greeting card business. In 1992 Ace Comics showed interest in revising the character and “Mad Dog” was born again.

Mad Dog, “mankind’s best friend,” wears blue tights with an orange M on his chest. He is assisted by two humans: Penny (whom Bob based on Kaye) and Brad. Bob still has one of his baby teeth — “It’s a medical oddity.”

Kaye works at the Museum Shop while Trisha works as Bob’s colorist. Trisha previously worked as a “wench waitress” at a pub called the Keg and Cleaver, then as a waitress at Cowboy Tom’s Fast Food.

Harlan Stone is Bob’s obnoxious, loud-mouthed co-worker (he draws the graphics for “Mad Dog”). The beautiful but rude and abrasive Shayla is Harlan’s girlfriend.

Iris Frankel is the elderly and nasty letterer who works in the office (she has a sign on her drafting table that reads “don’t touch my stuff”). Albie Lutz is the wimpy office gofer; and the unseen Mr. TerHorst runs the company (he is averse to publicity and hates attention; he is heard over speakerphones and has cameras hidden throughout the Ace Comics office building).

Bob enjoys his weekly game of poker with his buddies: Jerry Fleischer, creator of the comic “The Silencer”; Don Palermo, creator of the comic “Tales from Beneath the Tomb”; Vic Victor, creator of the comic “Fizzy”; and Buzz Loudermilk, creator of the comic “Katy Carter, Army Nurse.”

In second season episodes, Bob finds work at the Schmitt Greeting Card Company and a new boss, Sylvia Schmitt.

In the original, unaired pilot version, Bob, Kaye and Trisha have the last name Wharten. Here Bob created “Mad Dog” as a kid, and the comic was discontinued because the comic book industry went bad just as “Mad Dog” was catching on.

Theme: “The Super Hero Theme from Bob” by Lee Holdridge.

Cast: Bob Newhart (Bob McKay), Carlene Watkins (Kaye McKay), Cynthia Stevenson (Patricia McKay), John Cygan (Harlan Stone), Christine Dunford (Shayla), Ruth Kobart (Iris Frankel), Andrew Bilgore (Albie Lutz), Michael Cumpsty (Voice of Mr. TerHorst), Betty White (Sylvia Schmitt), Tom Poston (Jerry Fleischer), Steve Lawrence (Don Palermo), Dick Martin (Buzz Loudermilk), Bill Daily (Vic Victor).

899 Bob & Carol & Ted & Alice. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1973). The series, set in Los Angeles, follows the lives of two families: The Sanders, a young progressive couple in their late twenties; and their neighbors, the Hendersons, an older, conservative couple in their thirties.

Bob Sanders works as a filmmaker (he claims to make films about people); he and his wife, Carol, are the parents of Sean.

Ted Henderson is a lawyer; he and his wife, Alice, are the parents of Elizabeth. Ted and Alice married 15 years ago. When Ted comes home from work he has a martini and watches the news (in his youth he worked on a chicken farm in Flemington, New Jersey).

Bob and Carol are considered “Crazy people with crazy ideas.” Episodes relate the incidents and situations that test their reactions, their values and their marriages. Based on the motion picture of the same title. The series aired seven episodes from September 26, 1973 to November 7, 1973.

Cast: Robert Urich (Bob Sanders), Anne Archer (Carol Sanders), David Spielberg (Ted Henderson), Anita Gillette (Alice Henderson), Jodie Foster (Elizabeth Henderson), Brad Savage (Sean Sanders), Henry Jones (Jack, Alice’s father), Mabel Albertson (Lois, Alice’s mother).

900 The Bob and Ray Show. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1951–1953). A non-situation comedy series consisting of vignettes that relate the comical world of the insane created by Bob Elliott and Ray Goulding. Each program is comprised of two-to-three sketches and a continuing serial spoof from radio (for example, “Mary Backstage, Noble Wife” — Bob and Ray’s version of Mary Noble, Backstage Wife). The series ran from November 25, 1951 to September 28, 1953.

Hosts: Bob Elliott, Ray Goulding. Regulars: Audrey Meadows, Bob Denton, Cloris Leachman, Marion Brash, Charles Wood. Announcer: Bob Denton, Durward Kirby, Charles Wood. Music: Paul Taubman, Alvy West.

901 The Bob Crane Show. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1975). Bob Wilcox is a 42-year-old executive who quits his high-paying job as an insurance salesman to pursue a medical career at the City Medical School of University Hospital in Los Angeles. Stories follow his trials and tribulations as he sets out on a new career. Ellie is Bob’s tolerant, understanding wife; Pam is their daughter. Ernest Busso is their landlord; Lyle Ingersoll is the dean of the medical school; and Marvin and Jerry are fellow students.

Cast: Bob Crane (Bob Wilcox), Trisha Hart (Ellie Wilcox), Erica Petal (Pam Wilcox), Ronny Graham

(Ernest Busso), Jack Fletcher (Lyle Ingersoll), Todd Susman (Marvin Sussman), James Sutorius (Jerry Mallory).

902 The Bob Crosby Show. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1953–1957). A weekly series of music and songs with singer Bob Crosby. The series, produced by Herb Allen, ran from September 14, 1953 to August 30, 1957.

Host: Bob Crosby. Regulars: Joan O'Brien, Cathy Crosby, The Modernaires. Announcer: Jack Narz, Steve Dunne. Music: Bob Crosby's Bob Cats.

903 The Bob Crosby Show. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1958). A weekly series of music and songs with singer Bob Crosby. The series, produced by Herb Allen, aired from June 14, 1958 to September 6, 1958.

Host: Bob Crosby. Regulars: Gretchen Wyler, The Clay Warnick Singers, The Peter Gennero Dancers. Announcer: Steve Dunne. Orchestra: Carl Hoff.

904 The Bob Cummings Show. (Series; Comedy; NBC; CBS; 1955–1959). The original title for what is now known in syndication as Love That Bob. See this title for information.

905 The Bob Hope Chrysler Theater. (Series; Anthology; NBC; 1963–1967). Varying presentations including drama, comedy, specials and unsold pilot films. For information on the pilot films that aired, see the following titles: Brilliant Benjamin Boggs, Code Name: Heraclitus, Corridor 400, Guilty or Not Guilty, Holloway's Daughters, The Reason Nobody Hardly Ever Seen a Fat Outlaw in the Old West Is as Follows ... and The Seven Little Foyes. The cast listed below is a sampling of those who have worked on the series. The series, sponsored by the Chrysler Corporation, ran from October 4, 1963 to September 6, 1967. Johnny Williams composed the theme.

Host: Bob Hope. Performers Include: Angie Dickinson, Stuart Whitman, Eleanor Parker, Peter Falk, Susan Strasberg, Milton Berle, Ruth Roman, Shelley Winters, Janet Blair, Janice Rule, Bob Cummings, Walter Matthau, Rod Steiger, Pat O'Brien, Vera Miles, Joan Hackett, Jane Wyatt, Janet Leigh, Art Carney, Carol Lynley, Cliff Robertson, Dana Wynter, Mickey Rooney, Connie Francis, Joyce Jameson, Ernest Borgnine, Juliet Mills.

906 The Bob Howard Show. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1948–1950). An interlude series of music and songs with singer-pianist Bob Howard. The second television series to be hosted by a black performer (see The Ethel Waters Show for information on the first). The series ran from July 26, 1948 to December 12, 1950.

Bob Stevens is the producer.

Host: Bob Howard. Music: Bob Howard.

907 The Bob Newhart Show. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1961–1962). A half-hour program of music, songs and comedy with comedian Bob Newhart. The series, produced by Roland Kibbee, ran from October 11, 1961 to June 13, 1962.

Host: Bob Newhart. Regulars: Jackie Joseph, Kat Westfall, Mickey Manners, June Ericson, Jack Grinnage, Abby Albin, Pearl Shear, Ken Berry, Joe Flynn. Announcer: Dan Sorkin. Orchestra: Paul Weston.

908 The Bob Newhart Show. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1972–1978). Robert ("Bob") Hartley served with the 193rd Combat Support Orchestra during the Korean War. Bob was noted as having "the best wrists south of the 38th Parallel." Hoping to become a professional drummer, Bob went to New York after his army hitch and auditioned for the Buddy Rich Orchestra. While Bob thought he did great, Buddy had only three words to say to him: "You stink, man." Bob's dreams fell apart at the seams; he later went to college to study psychology.

When the series begins, Bob is an established psychologist with an office in the Rampo Medical Arts Building in Chicago. Stories follow Bob's mishaps at home and with his patients at the office.

Bob lives with his wife, Emily, in Apartment 523 in a building owned by the Skyline Management Corporation. Emily first taught third grade at Gorman Elementary School; she is later vice principal of Tracy Grammar School.

Bob held a temporary job with the Loggers' Casualty Life Insurance Company (their slogan: "We Gotta Insure These Guys") and appeared on the television show "Psychology in Action" with his therapy group.

Howard Mark Borden, Bob and Emily's neighbor, was originally a 747 navigator for an unnamed airline. After nine years on the job, Howard was replaced by a computer and found the same kind of work with EDS (European Delivery Service) Airline. Howard, who is divorced and the father of a young son (Howard, Jr., who was conceived during the great airplane strike of 1963), has a sister (Debbie) and two brothers: Gordon Borden, the game warden, and Norman Borden, the Mormon doorman.

Jerome ("Jerry") Merle Robinson, Bob's friend, a children's orthodontist, washes his hands an average of 46 times a day and has an office opposite Bob's. Carol Kester is Bob and Jerry's secretary. Carol later marries Larry Bondurant.

Theme: "Home for Emily," by Lorenzo and Henrietta Music.

Cast: Bob Newhart (Bob Hartley), Suzanne Pleshette (Emily Hartley), Bill Dailly (Howard Borden), Peter Bonerz (Jerry Robinson), Marcia Wallace (Carol Kester), Patricia Smith (Margaret Hoover; Emily's friend), Larry Gelman (Dr. Bernie Tupperman); Bob's friend), Pat Finley (Ellen Hartley; Bob's sister), Moosie Drier (Howard Borden, Jr.; Howard's son), Barnard Hughes (Herb Hartley; Bob's father), Martha Scott (Martha Hartley; Bob's mother), John Randolph (Cornelius Harrison; Emily's father), Ann Rutherford (Aggie Harrison; Emily's mother), Tom Poston (Cliff Murdock; Bob's friend), Will MacKenzie (Larry Bon-daurant), Jack Riley (Elliott Carlin; Bob's patient), Florida Friebus (Lillian Bakerman; Bob's patient), Renne Lippin (Michele Nardo; Bob's patient), Noam Pitlik (Victor Gianelli; Bob's patient), Lucien Scott (Edgar Vickers; Bob's patient), Jean Palmerton (Corinne Murdock; Cliff's wife), William Redfield (Gordon Borden; Howard's brother), Heather Menzies (Debbie; Howard's sister), Alice Borden (Lois Borden; Howard's ex-wife). Theme Song: "Home for Emily" by Lorenzo Music, Henrietta Music.

909 Bob Patterson. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 2001). Bob Patterson is a motivational speaker. He is the author of two books, I Know More Than You and I Still Know More Than You. He has his own website (www.bobpattersononline.com) and his philosophy is "If you can envision it, you can have it." Unfortunately for Bob, he never takes his own advice. He is divorced from Janet (who simply walked out on him) and his career is on the verge of collapse. Bob also feels he is unappealing to women. Prior to becoming a speaker Bob sold big screen TV's. A man named Landau walked into his store. Landau (as he is called) is a man who can make a winner out of any loser. He tells this to the girl he is with (Claudia) and asks her to pick anyone and he'll prove it. She chooses Bob. Landau does what he says. Bob gains confidence and the two form a 50/50 partnership — Bob does the speaking; Landau takes care of everything else. Their favorite hangout is the Tip Top Bar and Grill in Los Angeles.

Bob eventually married Janet, but after seven years of Bob's pompous attitude, she could no longer stand him (Bob says "She hates me more than life itself"). Stories follow Bob as he goes about motivating people to help them better their lives.

Other Regulars: Vic, Bob's intern, an actor whose claim to fame was playing an ape in the Bo Derek movie Tarzan; Jeffrey, Landau's son (Landau is divorced). Bob and Landau own a company called Patterson Seminar Training.

Cast: Jason Alexander (Bob Patterson), Robert Klein (Landau), Jennifer Aspen (Janet Patterson), Chandra Wilson (Claudia), Phil Buckman (Vic), James Guidice (Jeffrey).

910 The Bob Smith Show. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1948–1949). The program's varying format features music, songs, game contests, performances by new talent discoveries and light comedy. The series aired from September 2, 1948 to June 30, 1949. Rod Erickson and Edward Keane are the producers.

Host: Bob Smith. Regulars: Eve Young, Bob Wren, Johnny Guarneri. Music: Enoch Light and the Light Brigade Orchestra.

911 Bob the Builder. (Series; Cartoon; PBS; 1999). Bobsville is a magical place where humans and machines (that can talk and move on their own) work together to build a more perfect world. The computer animated series places particular attention on Bob, a kind hearted construction worker, and his business partner, Wendy. Bob tries always to recycle what he can and to never waste materials. He works alongside his construction vehicles Roley (a steam roller), Muck (a dump truck), Scoop (a dirt scooper), Lofty (a crane) and Dizzy (cement mixer). He has a pet cat, Pilchard and a local scarecrow (Spud) delights in causing trouble. Each construction project that Bob and his crew tackle presents a learning lesson to children as Bob the Builder (as he is called) encounters and overcomes job site obstacles.

Voice Cast: Neil Norrisset (Bob), Greg Proops (Bob), William Dufres (Bob), Lorelei King (Wendy), Rob Rackstraw (Muck), Rob Rackstraw (Scoop), Rob Rackstraw (Spud), William Dufres (Farmer Pickles), Chris Evans (Lennie Lazenb), Kate Harbour (Dizzy), Rupert Degas (Sandy).

912 Bobbie Gentry's Happiness Hour. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1974). An hour program of music, songs, dances and comedy sketches with singer Bobbie Gentry as the host. The four-episode series aired from June 5, 1974 to June 26, 1974. Frank Peppiatt is the producer.

Hostess: Bobbie Gentry. Regulars: Valri Bromfield, Michael Greer, Earl Pomerantz. Orchestra: Jack Elliott, Allyn Ferguson. Choreography: Don Bradburn.

913 The Bobby Darin Amusement Company. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1972–1973). A weekly series of music, songs and comedy sketches with singer Bobby Darin as the host. Also known as The Bobby Darin Show. The series ran as The Bobby Darin Amusement Company from July 27, 1972 to September 7, 1972; as The Bobby Darin Show from January 19, 1973 to April 27, 1973.

Host: Bobby Darin. Regulars: Steve Landesberg, Rip Taylor, Charlene Wong, Dick Bakalyan, Kathy Cahill, Tony Amato, Sarah Frankboner, Dorrie Thompson, Geoff Edwards, The Jimmy Joyce Singers. Announcer: Roger Carroll. Orchestra: Eddie Karam.

914 The Bobby Goldsboro Show. (Series; Variety; Syn.; 1973). A program of music, songs and comedy sketches with singer Bobby Goldsboro as the host. Calvin Calaveris (a frog puppet) and Jonathan Rebel, a dog puppet, assist Bobby. Bill Graham, Bill Hobin, Jane Dowden and Reg Dunlap are the producers.

Cast: Bobby Goldsboro (Host), Peter Cullen (Voice of Calvin Calaveris), Peter Cullen (Voice of Jonathan Rebel). Announcer: Bill Cullen. Orchestra: Robert Montgomery, Timmy Tappan.

915 Bobby Jo and the Big Apple Goodtime Band. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 3/31/72). Bobby Jo is a pretty but naive 23-year-old singer who heads the Big Apple Goodtime Band, a country and western group that is managed by “Cousin” Jack. Band members are Augie, Jeff, Virgil and Brian and the unsold series was to relate the group’s misadventures as they travel across the country seeking to hit the big time. In the pilot episode, Bobby Jo writes a song that embroils the group in an unexpected legal hassle.

Cast: Season Hubley (Bobby Jo), Forrest Tucker (Cousin Jack), Robert Walden (Augie), John Bennett Perry (Jeff), Ed Begley, Jr. (Virgil), Michael Gray (Brian). Tom Bosley (Mayor; guest role).

916 The Bobby Lord Show. (Series; Variety; Syn.; 1965). A weekly program, hosted by singer Bobby Lord, that features performances by country and western entertainers.

Host: Bobby Lord. Music: The Jerry Byrd Band.

917 Bobby Parker and Company. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 4/22/74). The story of Bobby Parker, a man whose hang-ups follow him around in imaginary forms. The pilot episode relates Bobby’s attempts to identify the man who robbed his house — a man he only heard but never saw. The program’s cast is somewhat unusual in as much as Bobby’s hang-ups — his wife, his parents, and friends — are only credited as “His....” Character names for the regulars are not used. Produced in 1970.

Cast: Ted Bessell (Bobby Parker), Marj Dusay (His wife), Joan Blondell (His mother), Tom D’Andrea (His father), Tom Poston (His psychiatrist), Noam Pitlik (His policeman), Eric Shea (Bobby, age 9; flash-backs). Guest Cast: Ray Dimas (Jerry Matz), Harvey Gardner (Wanted man), Tony Giorgio and Chuck Bail (Burglary suspects).

918 The Bobby Vinton Show. (Series; Variety; Syn.; 1975). A weekly series of music, songs and comedy sketches hosted by singer Bobby Vinton. Chris Bearde and Allan Blye are the producers.

Host: Bobby Vinton. Regulars: Arte Johnson, Billy Van, Jack Duffy, Freeman King. Orchestra: Jimmy Dale. Bobby’s Backup Singers: The Peaches.

919 Bobby’s World. (Series; Cartoon; Fox; 1990–1998). Bobby Generic is a six-year-old boy whose vivid imagination helps him get through the traumas he faces as a child. Stories relate these obstacles as Bobby and his best friend, his dog, Roger, face growing up together (in later episodes, Bobby’s friend, Jackie, also shares his adventures). Derek is Bobby’s older brother; Kelly, his sister; Martha and Robert his parents; Ted, his uncle and Ruth, his aunt.

Voice Cast: Howie Mandel (Bobby Generic), Gail Matthius (Martha Generic), Charity James (Kelly Generic), Tino Insana (Uncle Ted Generic), Debi Derryberry (Jackie), Edie McClurg (Aunt Ruth Generic), Kevin Michaels (Derek Generic), Frank Welker (Roger the Dog).

920 Bobo Hobo and His Traveling Troupe. (Series; Children; Syn.; 1953). A series of miniature musicals for children featuring puppets in satirical fairy tales and classics. Bobo Hobo is the leader of the puppet troupe.

Voice Cast: Brett Morrison (Bobo Hobo).

921 Bobobo-bo Bobobo. (Series; Cartoon; Cartoon Network; 2005). The setting is the 31st century. Here Emperor Baldy Bald, the evil leader of the Bald Empire, begins a quest to not only take over the world but turn everybody bald. Bobobo-bo Bobobo (who has been trained “to hear the voices of the hair”) has set out to stop him. He has the power of his amazing blonde hair (which enables him to perform astounding stunts) and stories follow his efforts to defeat Emperor Baldy Bald. Beauty and Gasser assist Bobobo-bo Bobobo; the series is produced in Japan and dubbed in English.

Voice Cast: Richard Epcar (Bobobo-bo Bobobo), Philece Sampler (Beauty), Brad MacDonald (Gasser), Joe Cappelletti (Baldy Bald), Paul S. Peter (Captain Battleship), Dorothy Elias-Fahn (Suzu), Melodee Spevack (Torpedo Girl), Kirk Thornton (Don Patch).

922 Bodies of Evidence. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 1992). Benjamin (“Ben”) Carroll is a homicide lieutenant with the Metropolitan Police, West-side Division of the L.A.P.D. Ryan Walker, Nora Houghton and Walt Stratton are the detectives in his unit. While the series is virtually a depiction of police work in action, it does present some facts: Ben speaks Chinese (“18 words,” which he picked up while he was a beat cop in Chinatown); Nora has a teaching degree and is partners with Walt. Ryan’s modus operandi (M.O.) is to identify with a killer in an attempt to guess his every move.

Bonnie Carroll is Ben’s ex-wife, and Ethan is their son (Ethan has a dog named Max). Sergeant Tim Houghton is Nora’s father, and Jack Houghton is Nora’s brother. Christopher Klatman composed the “Bodies of Evidence” theme.

Cast: Lee Horsley (Ben Carroll), George Clooney (Ryan Walker), Kate McNeil (Nora Houghton), Al Fann (Walt Stratton), Jennifer Hetrick (Bonnie Carroll), Ryan J. O’Neill (Ethan Carroll), Francis X. McCarthy (Tim Houghton), Jeff Yagher (Jack Houghton).

923 Body and Soul. (Series; Drama; PAX; 2002–2003). Century Hospital in Columbus, Ohio, is the setting. It is here that traditional medicine as well as alternative medical procedures are practiced. Traditional medicine is practiced by Dr. Isaac Braun while his co-worker, Dr. Rachel Griffen, believes in alternative methods (as a result of a two year fellowship in the Far East). Isaac, the chief of surgery, however, has little faith in Rachel's alternative approaches and thus the series conflict as both set about treating patients.

Other Regulars: Marshall Banks, the African American intern; Yolanda Rosales, the Hispanic nurse; Quinton Bremmer, a family medical specialist who believes in Rachel's cause; Dr. Jerry Donovan, Rachel's ex-husband (Rachel uses her maiden name); Oz, the orderly; and Dr. Philip Grenier, the hospital administrator.

Cast: Peter Strauss (Dr. Isaac Braun), Larissa Laskin (Dr. Rachel Griffen), Conrad Coates (Dr. Marshall Banks), Currie Graham (Dr. Quinton Grenier), Idalis DeLeon (Yolanda Rosales), Brian McNamara (Dr. Jerry Donovan).

924 The Body Electric. (Series; Health; Syn.; 1986). The program combines dance with the benefits of aerobic exercise.

Hostess: Margaret Richard. Dancers: Liz Kelly, P.D. Baskin, Guy Davis, Nancy Kunkei, Deborah O'Neil, Kelly Watson, Mark Sontag, Kelly Watson.

925 Body Language. (Series; Game; CBS; 1984). Two contestants compete. One player becomes the guesser; the other the actor. The object calls for the guesser to identify, within 60 seconds, five words that the actor has to pantomime. Each correct identification places that word in its appropriate place in a puzzle that contains seven blank spaces. If the guesser solves the puzzle, he receives $100 ($250 per game thereafter). The first team to score $500 is the winner and the contestant receives the opportunity to win $10,000 by guessing three pantomimed words in 15 seconds.

Host: Tom Kennedy. Announcer: Johnny Olsen.

926 Bodyguard. (Pilot; Crime Drama; NBC; 6/22/90). A proposed series about Cameron "C.C." Childes, a former secret service agent turned professional bodyguard who charges $500 a day plus expenses. In the pilot episode, Childes is hired to protect the girlfriend (Melanie) of a vengeful mobster.

Cast: Dale Midkiff (Cameron Childes), Harley Jane Kozak (Laine Harmon; Dale's girlfriend). Guest Cast: Jennifer Tilly (Melanie Whitaker), Tommy Hinkley (Bobby Bonaventure), Barbara Tarbuck (Rita Whitaker), Steven Camden (Rocker), Donna Wilson (Blonde), Anya Longwell (Brunette), Bruce Michael Paine (Biker).

927 Bodyguards. (Pilot; Crime Drama; ABC; 7/6/95). A proposed series about Jeff Walker and Diz Renaud, two former Brooklyn youths who grew up together and now work together as bodyguards for George Palmer, Personal Security. In the pilot episode, Jeff and Diz are assigned to protect a shady character (Paulie), his fiancé (Julie) and become involved in a plot to steal $500,000 from a mobster (Howard).

Cast: Christopher "Play" Martin (Jeff Walker), Christopher "Kid" Reid (Diz Renaud), Ray Aranha (George Palmer), La Chanze (Marilyn Palmer; George's daughter).

928 The Bold and the Beautiful. (Series; Serial; CBS; 1987–). A dramatic look at the world of fashion — its glamour, romance and intrigues, as seen through the lives of the powerful Forrester family. The series premiered on March 23, 1987.

Cast: Jennifer Finnigan (Bridget Forrester), Ashley Jones (Bridget Forrester), Agnes Bruckner (Bridget Forrester), Emily Harrison (Bridget Forrester), Jacob Young (Rick Forrester, Jr.), Justin Torkildsen (Rick Forrester, Jr.), Jack Wagner (Nick Marone), Sean Kanan (Deacon Sharpe), Lesley-Anne Down (Jacqueline Payne Marone), Shanelle Workman (Gabriela Moreno), Drew Tyler Bell (Thomas Hamilton Forrester), Joseph Mascolo (Massimo Marone IV), George Alvarez (Enrique Alvarez), Andrea Evans (Tawny Moore), Mario Lopez (Christian Ramirez), Lindsay Price (Michael Lai), Susan Flannery (Stephanie Douglas), Sydney Penny (Samantha Kelly), Schae Harrison (Darla Einstein Forrester), Windsor Harmon (Thorne Forrester), Clayton Norcross (Thorne Forrester), Jeff Trachta (Thorne Forrester), Adrienne Frantz (Ambrosia Moore), Kayla Ewell (Caitlin Ramirez), Lark Voorhies (Jasmine Malone), Rick Hearst (Whipple Jones III), Daniel McVicar (Clarke Garrison, Sr.), Kin Shriner (Brian Carey), Katherine Kelly Lang (Brooke Logan Marone), Bobbie Eakes (Macy Alexander), Sarah Buxton (Morgan DeWitt), Paulo Benedeti (Antonio Dominiguez), Sandra Vidal (Sofia Alonzo), Michael Sabatino (Anthony Armando), Carrie Mitchum (Donna Logan), Jennifer Gareis (Donna Logan), Colleen Dion (Felicia Forrester), Lesli Kay (Felicia Forrester), Ron Moss (Ridge Forrester, Jr.), Lorenzo Lamas (Hector Ramirez), Dylan Neal (Dylan Shaw), John McCook (Eric Forrester, Sr.), Darlene Conley (Sally Spectra), Ben Hogestyn (Harry Jackson), Bryan Genesse (Rocco Carner), Maitland Ward (Jessica Forrester), Patrick Duffy (Stephen Logan, Sr.), Paul Williams (Bailey Masters), Brian Patrick Clarke (Storm Logan), Ethan Wayne (Storm Logan), Dax Griffin (Shane McGrath), Antonio Sabato, Jr. (Dante Damiano), Victor Alfieri (Giovanni Lorenziano), Tippi Hedren (Helen MacClaine), Ian Buchanan (James Warwick), Daniel E. Smith (Zende Forrester Dominguez), Paul Satterfield

(Pierce Peterson), Ken LaRon (Keith Anderson), Keith Jones (Kevin Anderson), Teri Ann Linn (Kristen Forrester), Ivonne Coll (Alicia Cortez), Courtnee Draper (Erica Lovejoy), Brent Jasmer (Sly Donovan), Marissa Tait (Becky Moore Garrison), Judith Baldwin (Beth Logan), Aaron Lustig (Dr. Tim Reid), Kabir Bedi (Omar Rashid), Cal Bartlett (Todd Powell), Charles Grant (Grant Chambers), Jeff Conaway (Mick Savage), Kimberly Brown (Sheila Carter), Barbara Crampton (Maggie Forrester), Michael Swan (Myles Fairchild), Dorothy Lyman (Bonnie Roberts), Michael Fox (Saul Feinman), John Brandon (Ben MacClaine), Scott Thompson Baker (Connor Davis), Michael Philip (Mark Mallory), Nancy Burnett (Beth Logan), Marla Adams (Beth Logan), Michelle Davidson (Ruthanne Owens), Luigi Amodeo (Lorenzo Barelli), James Storm (Bill Spencer), Hunter Tylo (Taylor Hamilton Hayes), Michael Dietz (Mark MacClaine), Tamara Davies (Tricia Quick), Gladis Jimenez (Carmen Arena), Maeve Quinlan (Megan Conley), Lauren Koslow (Margo Lynley), Mick Caine (C.J. Garrison, Jr.), Peter Brown (Blake Hayes), Addison Hoover (Phoebe Forrester), Mackenzie Mauzy (Phoebe Forrester), Brynne McNabb (Phoebe Forrester), Alex Hoover (Steffy Forrester), Joseph Marcell (Hudson), Todd McKee (Jake MacClaine), Lily Melgar (Claudia Cortez), Judith Borne (Deveny Dixon), Chris Robinson (Jack Hamilton), Michael Watson (Zach Hamilton), MacKenzie Allen (Charles Garner), John Castellanos (Jeff Talon), Matt Borlenghi (Ziggy Deadmarsh), Brian Gaskill (Oscar Marone), Tracy Melchoir (Kristen Forrester), Monika Schnarre (Ivana Richards), Ashley Cafagna-Tesoro (Kimberly Fairchild), Jane Rogers (Julie DeLoren), Joanna Johnson (Caroline Spencer Forrester), Joanna Johnson (Karen Spencer), Tim Choate (Tommy Bayland), Kabir Bedi (Omar Rashid), Brian Gaskill (Oscar Marone), Joseph Campanella (Jonathan Young), Robin Mattson (Sugar), Phyllis Diller (Gladys Pope), Linda Gray (Priscilla Kelly), Rolanda Watts (Julie Shoemaker), Justin Torkildsen (Rick Forrester), Sabrina Bryan (Alisa Cordova).

929 Bold Journey. (Series; Adventure; ABC; Syn.; 1956–1958). The program features filmed records of various explorers and adventurers. The series aired on both ABC (July 16, 1956 to August 31, 1959) and in syndication (1958).

Host (ABC Version): John Stevenson. Host (Syndicated Version): Jack Douglas.

930 The Bold Ones. (Series; Drama; NBC; 1969–1973). The overall title for four rotating series (which see): The Doctors, The Law Enforcers, The Lawyers and The Senator. The series, which produced 85 episodes, ran from September 14, 1969 to January 9, 1973.

An announcer opens the show: “The Bold Ones. E.G. Marshall, John Saxon, doctors expanding the horizons of the new medicines. Burl Ives, Joseph Campanella, James Farentino, lawyers defending justice in the nation’s courtrooms. Leslie Nielsen, Hari Rhodes, public servants enforcing the laws of a challenging society — The Bold Ones.”

931 Bold Venture. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1959–1960). Slate Shannon is an adventurer who owns Shannon’s Place, a hotel in Trinidad, and the Bold Venture, a 60-foot sloop that is moored at the Prince George Docks. Slate is also the guardian of Sailor DuVal, a beautiful girl who became his responsibility when he promised her dying father that he would look after her.

Sailor resides in Room 116 of the hotel (“second floor, left”) and is an expert at fishing (when she and Slate go fishing, it is Sailor who makes the catch; Slate attributes it to her “magic touch for spinning reels”).

Sailor has romantic inclinations toward Slate. While Slate does call her “Baby” and “Honey” and does kiss her on the hand, he sees her basically as a girl he promised to care for and nothing else. When Slate, who helps people in trouble, needs first aid, he goes to Sailor, but that is not what Sailor really wants — “That’s all I am to Slate, a nurse.”

Philip Keith-Barker is the inspector of police; King Moses is a guitarist who provides music for Slate’s hotel dining room; he also serves as the desk clerk and calls Sailor “Lady Sailor.” Mama George is Slate’s friend, the owner of a banana plantation; Leta is one of the dancers at the hotel; Tina runs the only dance hall on the island, Tina’s Palace of Fun.

The composer of the theme, “Bold Venture,” is not credited; it is seen being performed in the opening and closing segments by three Trinidadians playing drums.

Cast: Dane Clark (Slate Shannon), Joan Marshall (Sailor DuVal), Bernie Gozier (King Moses), Mark Dana (Philip Keith-Baker), Lisa Gaye (Leta), Karen Scott (Tina), Bella Bruck (Mama George). Slate’s Girl Crew: Jerri Bender, Narda Onyx, Joyce Taylor, Barbara Wilson.

932 Bon Voyage. (Series; Game; ABC; 1949). The object calls for two contestants to identify geographical locations through stills and rhyming clues. The player with the most correct identifications is the winner and receives a trip to the place of his desire. The series, broadcast from April 24, 1949 to August 26, 1949, is also known as Treasure Quest.

Host: Alan Fishburn.

933 Bonanza. (Series; Western; NBC; 1959–1973). The saga of the Cartwrights (Ben, a widower, and his sons Adam, Hoss and Little Joe) who own the Ponderosa Ranch during the 1880s.

Ben Cartwright was a former first mate who ran a chandler’s store in New England. He was married to Elizabeth Stoddard, the daughter of his former captain. A year later, a son they name Adam was born to them, but complications from the birth cost Elizabeth her life. Ben possessed a dream of settling in California. Motivated by Elizabeth's desire for him to pursue that dream, Ben sold his business and headed west.

Ben and Adam settled temporarily in St. Joseph, Missouri. Adam (Johnny Stephens) is five years old, and Ben has fallen in love with a Swedish girl named Inger Borgstrom. Inger runs the general store (Ben met her when he went to buy food), and she helped Adam over a crisis — breaking his high fever. Ben and Inger marry. Ben is persuaded by Inger to continue his journey west. He organizes a wagon train and takes on the responsibility of bringing settlers to California. During the hazardous trek through Nevada, Inger gives birth to a son they name Eric Hoss. Shortly after, during an Indian attack, Inger is killed. Ben abandons his dream forever and settles in Virginia City, Nevada, where he establishes the Ponderosa Ranch.

The birth of Ben's third son, Joseph Francis ("Little Joe") evolves from a complex story in which Ben journeys to New Orleans to personally fulfill the last request of a ranch hand who died saving Ben's life. Love develops as a result of Ben's meeting with Marie DeMarne, the widow of the ranch hand. A marriage ultimately results, and Marie returns to Virginia City with Ben. Shortly after the birth of their son, Marie is thrown by her horse and killed.

The Ponderosa Ranch is a 1,000-square mile timberland ranch in the Comstock lode country (it is located on the outskirts of Virginia City). Eric's middle name, Hoss, is a Swedish mountain name for a big, friendly man — something Inger knew the boy would be even though she only lived long enough to see him as an infant. Adam is considered "best at judging horse flesh; better than anyone in the whole territory." Ben's horse is named Buck; Hoss's is named Chuck; and Little Joe's is named Cochise. See also Ponderosa.

Cast: Lorne Greene (Ben Cartwright), Pernell Roberts (Adam Cartwright), Dan Blocker (Hoss Cartwright), Michael Landon (Little Joe Cartwright), Mitch Vogel (Jamie Cartwright, Ben's adopted son), Victor Sen Yung (Hop Sing, the ranch cook), Ray Teal (Sheriff Roy Coffee), David Canary (Mr. Canaday "Candy," the ranch foreman), Geraldine Brooks (Elizabeth), Inga Swenson (Inger), Felicia Farr (Marie), Kathie Brown (Laura Dayton; Adam's fiancee), Bing Russell (Deputy Clem Poster), Guy Madison (Will Cartwright, Ben's nephew). Theme Song: "Bonanza" by Jay Livingston, Ray Evans.

934 Bonanza: The Next Generation. (Pilot; Western; NBC; 3/16/88). An unsold attempt to update Bonanza, the 1959–73 series about Ben Cartwright (Lorne Greene) and the efforts of his sons, Adam (Pernell Roberts), Hoss (Dan Blocker) and Little Joe (Michael Landon) to maintain the Ponderosa, a timberland ranch near Virginia City, Nevada, during the 1880s. "The Next Generation" is set in 1905 and follows events in the lives of Aaron Cartwright (the late Ben's brother, now head of the Ponderosa Ranch), Annabelle Cartwright, the wife of Little Joe (killed while serving with Teddy Roosevelt's Rough Riders), Josh Cartwright, Hoss's bastard son (Hoss drowned while attempting to rescue a woman in a river), and Benji, Little Joe's son. The pilot episode relates the Cartwrights' efforts to save the Ponderosa from an illegal strip mine operation. Other Regulars: Mr. Mack, the ranch cook; Charley Polk, the ranch foreman; and Jennifer Sills, the bank teller.

Cast: John Ireland (Aaron Cartwright), Barbara Anderson (Annabelle Cartwright), Brian A. Smith (Josh Cartwright), Michael Landon, Jr. (Benji Cartwright), John Amos (Mr. Mack), Robert Fuller (Charley Polk), Gillian Greene (Jennifer Sills). Guest Cast: Peter Mark Richman (Cal Dunson), Kevin Hagen (Nathaniel Armstead), Richard Bergman (Sheriff), William Benedict (Gus Morton), Dabbs Greer (Mr. Sills).

935 Bonanza: The Return. (Pilot; Western; NBC; 11/28/93). A second attempt to revive the 1959–73 series Bonanza that changes information that was established in a 1988 pilot called Bonanza: The Next Generation (see prior title). It is 1905. Ben Cartwright, the head of the Ponderosa Ranch near Virginia City, Nevada, died in 1899. The ranch has fallen into the hands of Bronc Evans, Ben's most trusted ranch hand. Adam, Ben's eldest son, is a miner living in Australia and suffers from malaria. His son, Adam, Jr., has come back to America to help Bronc run the Ponderosa. Ben's youngest son, Little Joe, was killed in the charge up San Juan Hill while serving with Teddy Roosevelt's Rough Riders. He has two children, Benji and Sarah, who also help Bronc. Hoss, Ben's second-born son, died in 1878 (born in 1842) while attempting to help a family cross a river (he was caught in an undertow and drowned. Hoss was engaged to Clara Overton, but died before he could marry her or see his son, Josh, who has also become a part of the new Cartwright family).

In the pilot episode, the Cartwrights ban together to save their ranch from Augustus Brandenburg, a geologist who wants to mine it for coal. Other Regulars: Jacob, Bronc's foreman; Buckshot, the cook; and Fenster, the newspaper reporter. See also the following title.

Cast: Ben Johnson (Bronc Evans), Michael Landon, Jr. (Benji Cartwright), Emily Warfield (Sarah Cartwright), Brian Leckner (Josh Cartwright), Alistair

MacDougall (Adam Cartwright, Jr.), Jack Elam (Buckshot), Dirk Blocker (Fenster), Richard Roundtree (Jacob Briscoe). Guest Cast: Dean Stockwell (Augustus Brandenburg), Linda Gray (Abigail "Laredo" Simmons).

936 Bonanza: Under Attack. (Pilot; Western; NBC; 1/15/95). A third attempt at reviving the series Bonanza (see prior two titles) that continues with the same regular cast from where the prior title left off. Here, the Cartwrights help the legendary Frank James by risking their lives to protect him from vengeful Pinkerton Detectives.

Cast: Ben Johnson (Bronc Evans), Michael Landon, Jr. (Benji Cartwright), Emily Warfield (Sarah Cartwright), Brian Leckner (Josh Cartwright), Jeff Phillips (Adam Cartwright, Jr.), Richard Roundtree (Jacob Briscoe), Jack Elam (Buckshot), Dirk Blocker (Fenster). Guest Cast: Leonard Nimoy (Frank James), Dennis Farina (Charley Siringo), Sonia Satra (Anne), James Karen (Anne's father), Ted Markland (Cole), Jay Gordon Noise (Blackjack), Biff Maynard (Luke).

937 Bone Chillers. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1996–1997). Edgar Allen Poe High School is named after the famous poet and horror story writer. The school is also under an unknown supernatural force that affects the students who attend its haunted halls. Such principal students are Sarah, Kirk, Brian, Tiffany and Carl—who each week encounter the unknown and fumble through numerous “bone chilling” situations as they attempt to attend classes. The students never discovered who or what was behind all the mysterious happenings, but one could relate them to Arnie, the rather strange janitor who apparently lived in the sub basement of the school.

Cast: Linda Cardellini (Sarah), Mike O'Dougall (Carl), Trey Alexander (Kirk), Esteban Powell (Brian), Saadia Powell (Lexi), Charles Fleischer (Arnie), Danielle Weeks (Tiffany), John Patrick White (Fitzgerald Crump), Dave Ruby (Buddy), Arthur Burghardt (Principal), Laraine Newman (Teacher).

938 Bones. (Series; Crime Drama; Fox; 2005–). Dr. Temperance Brennan is a forensic anthropologist employed by the Jefferson Institute in Washington, D.C. Temperance is not your ordinary girl. She is an author (wrote the books Bone Free, Bred in the Bone and Red Tape, White Bones), is totally dedicated to work and doesn't watch television (she doesn't even own a set). She also doesn't need to work but does so because she is dedicated to helping the police (especially the FBI) solve extremely complex murders, cases where the only evidence is skeletal remains.

Temperance is highly intelligent and she surrounds herself with people on her own level (most people find her brilliance too much to handle). Seeley Booth, a former army sniper turned FBI agent with the Major Crimes Unit is the law enforcement officer Temperance most often works with. Seeley, also said to be a profiler in some episodes, understands Temperance (although her intellectual ramblings often tick him off and he calls her “Bones”—something she accepts although she really doesn't like it).

Temperance is a beautiful woman but she has no tact; she has to tell it like it is (no matter whose feelings she hurts). Seeley is aware of this and is forever curtailing her lack of sensitivity (especially when they are dealing with the survivors of murder victims). Seeley accepts Temperance and her team for what they can do, but deep down he mistrusts science and feels instinct is also needed to solve crimes.

Angela Montenegro, Zack Addy, Jack Hodgins and Camille Saroyan work with Temperance at the Jefferson's medico-legal lab. Angela is head of the imagining unit. She is a three-dimensional artist and can reconstruct a victim's facial features from skull remains. Zack, like Temperance, possesses a very high I.Q. and is eager to follow in her footsteps. Jack, called “The Bug Guy,” is an expert on insects, minerals and spores. Camille joined the series in the second season and replaced the team's original boss, Dr. Daniel Goodman, the lab director who often opposed Temperance's methods (his absence was explained as being on a sabbatical). Camille now heads the lab. She was the head of the New York City pathology unit. She is a by-the-books girl and will not take any nonsense.

Stories, which are presented with parental warning (due to graphic crime scenes) relate Temperance's efforts to solve crimes even CSI units have given up on as impossible. The series is based on the real life forensic anthropologist Kathy Reichs. Rebecca is Seeley's ex-wife; Parker is his son; Max and Christina are Temperance's parents. Dr. Brennan lives at 415 Ellsworth Avenue.

Cast: Emily Deschanel (Dr. Temperance Brennan), David Boreanaz (Seeley Booth), Michaela Conlin (Angela Montenegro), Eric Millegan (Dr. Zack Addy), T.J. Thyne (Dr. Jack Hodgins), Jonathan Adams (Dr. Daniel Goodman), Tamara Taylor (Dr. Camille Saroyan), Jessica Capshaw (Rebecca Stinson), Ty Panitz (Parker Booth), Ryan O'Neal (Max Brennan).

939 Bonino. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1953). Having spent little time with his family due to concert commitments, and feeling himself a stranger to his six children, Babbo Bonino, a widower, impulsively decides to give up his operatic career and become an active father. Stories relate his attempts to raise his motherless children and solve the problems he encounters. Babbo's children are Andrew, Doris,

Edward, Jerry, Francesca and Carlo. Martha is their housekeeper; Rusty is Babbo's valet; Walter Rogers is Babbo's concert manager (who is seeking to get Babbo to change his mind); Allentuck is Babbo's butler.

Cast: Ezio Pinza (Babbo Bonino), Van Dyke Parks (Andrew Bonino), Lenka Peterson (Doris Bonino), Conrad Janis (Edward Bonino), Chet Allen (Jerry Bonino), Donald Harris (Jerry Bonino; later), Gaye Huston (Francesca Bonino), Oliver Andes (Carlo Bonino), Mary Wickes (Martha), Mike Kellin (Rusty), David Opatoshu (Walter Rogers), Francis Butler (Allentuck).

940 Bonkers! (Series; Variety; Syn.; 1978). An offbeat comedy series that features the zany antics of the Hudson Brothers (Bill, Mark and Brett). Also featured are comical musical numbers (slapstick in the background while a song is heard), a soap opera spoof called "Bonker Hill" (about Billy-Boy, Mark-Boy and Oh-Boy and their man-hungry sister Any-Boy), a silent movie spoof and a skit involving the program's weekly guest star.

Hosts: Bill Hudson, Mark Hudson, Brett Hudson. Regulars: Bob Monkhouse, Jack Burns, Linda Cunningham, The Bonkers Chorus. Orchestra: Jack Parnell. Choreography: Norman Maen.

941 The Bonnie Hunt Show. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1995–1996). WBDT-TV, Channel 12 in Chicago is a TV station owned by a toy company called Westingmouse. Bonnie Kelly is a small town Wisconsin girl who moves to Chicago to work as a journalist and acquires a job as a newsroom reporter for the station's "Action 12 News" program. (the program is later called "TV 12 News Now"). In Wisconsin Bonnie worked for a local TV station as a feature reporter. While comical in nature, stories present a behind-the-scenes look at a TV newsroom and the problems associated with preparing a show for broadcast.

Other Regulars: Holly Jankofsky, Bonnie's best friend; William Kirkland, the news director; Joe Briggs, the assignment editor; Diane, Kirkland's assistant; Keith, the videotape editor; Sammy Sinatra, the food service man; Lance Oshner, the anchorman; and Keith, Bonnie's neighbor, a limo driver.

Cast: Bonnie Hunt (Bonnie Kelly), Holly Wortell (Holly Jankofsky), John Schuck (Lance Oshner), Don Lake (Keith Jedzik), Mark Derwin (Bill Kirkland), Brian Howe (Sammy Sinatra), Richard Gant (Joe Briggs), Janet Carroll (Diane Fulton), Tom Virtue (Tom Vandoozer), Alice Hunt (Voice of Bonnie's Mother).

942 Boogie's Diner. (Series; Comedy; Syn.; 1994–1995). Boogie's Diner is actually a fashion store in a mall (locale not identified) with a diner on its second floor. Gerald Kripple manages the store for the never seen (only heard over a speaker phone) Monica Beaton. Gerald employs a group of teenagers to help him run the store: Zoya and Cheryl Ann run the clothing department; Kirby and Tim work in the diner; Jason, Cynthia and Tim are sales personnel. Stories follow Gerald's efforts to run Boogie's Diner despite the constant headaches he gets from his not-so-responsible, fun-loving staff.

Cast: Jim J. Bullock (Gerald Kripple), Monika Schnarre (Zoya Thortburn), Robin Stapler (Cynthia Sorenson), Jerry Marsden (Jason Rogers), Joy Tanner (Cheryl Ann), Richard Chevolleau (Tim Norris), Zack Ward (Kirby McManus).

943 The Book of Daniel. (Series; Drama; NBC; 2006). Daniel Webster is an Episcopalian minister at Saint Barnabas Church. He is married to Judith and is the father of Peter and Grace. He and Judith are also the adoptive parents of Adam, a Chinese teenager.

Daniel appears to be an ordinary minister. He preaches at Sunday mass, he helps the people of his community and he appears to be a good family man. However, when Daniel becomes troubled, he receives help from a most unusual source—Jesus Christ himself (who appears and speaks only to him). Although cancelled after three episodes (too controversial and sponsor challenged) the critically acclaimed series followed events in the lives of Daniel and his family.

Peter, Daniel's oldest son, is openly gay; Grace is a bit troublesome and a talented artist; and Adam is too sure of himself and believes he is a ladies' man.

Cast: Aidan Quinn (Rev. Daniel Webster), Susanna Thompson (Judith Webster), Garrett Dillahunt (Jesus Christ), Alison Pill (Grace Webster), Ivan Shaw (Adam Webster), Christian Campbell (Peter Webster), Ellen Burstyn (Bishop Beatrice Congreve).

944 The Book of Lists. (Series; Human Interest; CBS; 1982). A four-episode series (May 4 to May 25, 1982) that combines comedy skits with factual information regarding unusual facts, record holders and lists of anything and everything.

Hosts: Bill Bixby, Cloris Leachman, Lorna Patterson, Leslie Uggams. Regulars: Steve Barns, Greg Berg, Bernadette Birkett, Dennis Burkley, Jerry Cain, Teresa Colleran, O.C. Davis, Phil Gage, Jee DeHart, Bill Kirchenbauer, Chris McDermott, Janet McMillan, John Moray, Michael Runyon, Marty Schiff, Renny Temple. Announcer: John Harlan.

945 The Book of Pooh. (Series; Children; Disney; 2001). An adaptation of the Winnie the Pooh stories that uses puppets (instead of animation) to relay the adventures of Winnie the Pooh, the honey-loving bear, and his friends from the Hundred Acre Woods; Piglet, Tigger, Rabbit, Eeyore, Owl, Kanga and their human friend, Christopher Robin.

Voice Cast: Jim Cummings (Winnie the Pooh), John Fiedler (Piglet), Tyler Bunch (Tigger), Andre Stojka (Owl), Peter Cullen (Eeyore), Ken Sansom (Rabbit), Paul Tiesler (Christopher Robin), Stephanie D'Abruzzo (Kessie), Kath Soucie (Kanga).

946 Booker. (Series; Crime Drama; Fox; 1989–1990). A spin off from 21 Jump Street. Dennis Booker was a detective with Jump Street Chapel, an undercover unit of the Metropolitan Police Department. When an opportunity arises for him to better his life, Dennis leaves the department for a job as head investigator for the Teshima Corporation, a Los Angeles based, Japanese owned insurance company located in the Teshima Building. Alicia Rudd is his boss, the vice president in charge of corporate acquisitions; Suzanne Dunne is Dennis's assistant. Dennis is an anti-authority person and resents being told what to do. Stories follow Dennis and Suzanne as they investigate cases of possible insurance fraud.

Cast: Richard Grieco (Dennis Booker), Marcia Strassman (Alicia Rudd), Lori Petty (Suzanne Dunne), Katie Rich (Elaine Grazzo), Carmen Argenziano (Chick Sterling), Robert Romanus (Tony DeAngelo). Theme Vocal: "Hot in the City" by Billy Idol.

947 Boomtown. (Series; Crime Drama; NBC; 2002–2003). Boomtown could refer to any large city in the U.S. that is plagued by crime. Here, Los Angeles is represented. The series depicts crime as seen through the experiences of four different groups: the police, the media, the citizen and the politicians — and how they can each help the other in times of need. Joel Stevens, Bobby Smith, Ray Hechler and Tom Turcotte are the featured police officers; Andrea Little is the tough Metro TV news reporter; David McNorris is the ambitious deputy district attorney; and Teresa Ortiz is the paramedic who assists the police.

Cast: Donnie Wahlberg (Joel Stevens), Mykelti Williamson (Bobby Smith), Nina Garbiras (Andrea Little), Neal McDonough (David McNorris), Gary Basaraba (Ray Hechler), Jason Gedrick (Tom Turcotte), Lana Parrilla (Teresa Ortiz).

948 The Boondocks. (Series; Cartoon; Cartoon Network; 2005). An adult oriented animated series based on "The Boondocks" comic strip by Aaron McGruder. The story is simple: a black family (the Freeman's) relocate from the city to a white neighborhood in the suburbs because, as Robert "Grandad" Freeman says, that's how he always wanted to live.

Grandad is the legal guardian of his grandsons, Huey and Riley, who became his responsibility after his son and daughter-in-law were killed in a car accident. Riley and Huey dislike the quite life of their new environment and call it "The Boondocks." Stories, which are politically incorrect, poke fun at everything and everyone as Huey and Riley set out to live their new lives.

Ten-year-old Huey is depicted as a genius with a high I.Q. and a motivation to change the world by any means possible; eight-year-old Riley is a hip-hop loving young hustler who has the potential to become a slick con artist.

Voice Cast: John Witherspoon (Grandad Freeman), Regina King (Huey Freeman), Regina King (Riley Friedman), Jill Talley (Sarah Dubois), Gabby Soleil (Jazmine Dubois), Cedric Yarbrough (Tom Dubois), Gary Anthony Williams (Uncle Ruckus).

949 Boone. (Series; Drama; NBC; 1983–1984). The series, set in Trinity, Tennessee, in 1953, tells the story of Boone Sawyer, a 17-year-old boy who yearns to become a singer but faces resistance from his mother, who wants him to become a preacher, and his father, who feels that his son should follow in his footsteps and become a mechanic in the family gas station. Boone's experiences as he attempts to make a dream become a reality is the focal point of the program.

Merit and Faye are Boone's parents; Susannah and Lorie (nicknamed "Squirt") are his sisters. Link Sawyer, Boone's uncle, owns Link's Orchid Lounge (a bar-café); Dolly is Link's wife; Banjo is the orphan girl Dolly adopts; Rome Holly is Boone's friend; Norman is Squirt's friend; Geneva is Boone's cousin; and Mr. Johnson is a friend of Boone's.

Cast: Thomas Byrd (Boone Sawyer), Elizabeth Huddle (Faye Sawyer), Barry Corbin (Merit Sawyer), Kitty Moffat (Susannah Sawyer), Amanda Peterson (Lorie Sawyer), Greg Webb (Rome Holly), William Edward Phipps (Link Sawyer), Ronnie Claire Edwards (Dolly Sawyer), Julie Anne Haddock (Banjo), David Roberts (Mr. Johnson), Chris Hebert (Geneva). Theme Song Performer: Thomas Byrd.

950 Boots and Saddles: The Story of the Fifth Cavalry. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1957). The life and times of the men and officers of the American Fifth Cavalry during the hostile frontier of the 1870s.

Cast: Jack Pickard (Captain Shank Adams), Michael Hinn (Trail Scout Luke Cummings), Patrick McVey (Lt. Colonel Hayes), Gardner McKay (Lieutenant Kelly), Dave Willock (Lieutenant Banning), John Anderson (Sergeant Bullock).

951 The Borden Television Theater. (Live Test Program: Anthology; NBC; 5/25/47). Following the premiere of The Kraft Television Theater on May 7, 1947, the Borden company decided to try its hand at a weekly anthology series. Unlike the Kraft-sponsored series (which ran until January 6, 1955), the Borden attempt lasted only one night and its only presentation was a fantasy story called “Welcome Jeremiah.” The one-act play, adapted from a story in Esquire magazine, dealt with two fly-by-night pitchmen (Vinton Hayworth, John McQuade) who try to peddle an electromagnetic razor created by an eccentric inventor (Vaughn Taylor).

Cast: Vinton Hayworth, John McQuade, Percy Helton, Vaughn Taylor, Jay Jackson, Gordon Ayres, Douglas Pankhurst, Virginia Smith.

952 Border Collie. (Series; Drama; ABC; 1955). The story, set in Hamilton County in Southern Illinois, follows the efforts of Rod Brown to train a Scottish Border collie named Scamp for competition in a local dog show. Broadcast as five segments on The Mickey Mouse Club. The series aired from October 31, 1955 to November 4, 1955.

Cast: Bobby Evans (Rod Brown). Arthur Allen (Himself; dog trainer). Narrator: Alvy Moore.

953 Border Pals. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 8/17/81). Norbet Bibey is an American county sheriff in Moose County, Montana. Douglas MacDonald is superintendent of the British Columbia Mounted Police in Lake Canusa (which is located directly across the lake from Moose County). Norbet and Douglas were friends until they engaged in a card game and each accused the other of cheating. Now they are enemies and the unsold series was to focus on the feud that exists between them and the efforts of Bibey’s and MacDonald’s staffs to devise ways of ending the feud.

In the pilot episode, the staffers hope to get their superiors together by spreading a rumor that Joe Cincinnati, last of the really big-time mobsters, is in the area and a $100,000 reward has been offered for his arrest. Lured by the thought of fame and money, Bibey and MacDonald start to cooperate for the first time in years — but quickly return to their old ways when they are unable to agree on anything. Other Regulars: Corporal Juliette “Gigi” Marais, Sergeant Kelly Morgan and Sergeant Major Radcliffe (MacDonald’s staff members); Deputy Dusty Griffith and Officer Bobby Lucas (Bibey’s staff members).

Cast: Hugh Gillin (Norbet Bibey), Graham Jarvis (Douglas MacDonald), Katherine Baumann (Juliette Marais), Reid Smith (Kelly Morgan), Frank O’Brien (Major Radcliffe), Gerald Prendegast (Dusty Griffith), T.K. Carter (Lucas Jordan). Guest Cast: Marc Lawrence (Joe Cincinnati), Dick Bakalyan (Little Eddie), J.P. Bumstead (Joe’s lawyer), Ray Middleton (Old John).

954 Border Town. (Pilot; Western; CBS; 3/17/60). A proposed spin-off from Johnny Ringo about the adventures of a man known only as Kirk, the owner of The Garden of Eden, a gambling house of the 1880s that is built half on the border of New Mexico and half on the border of Arizona. In the pilot episode, Sheriff Johnny Ringo tracks a killer to Border Town — but faces a problem when the killer takes refuge on the New Mexico side of Border Town. Other Regulars: Julie, the singer; Gabe, the piano player; and Sheriff Pike.

Cast: Ed Nelson (Kirk), Joyce Meadows (Julie), Matt Dennis (Gabe), Robert Burton (Sheriff), Don Durant (Johnny Ringo). Theme Vocal: “Border Town” by Matt Dennis.

955 Border Town. (Pilot; Drama; ABC; 3/4/63). An unsold series that was to focus on the relationship between an American sheriff (Lieutenant Cardiff) and a Mexican peace officer (Lieutenant Escalon) in adjacent border towns. The pilot episode, broadcast as “Point of Entry” on Stoney Burke, relates the peace officers’ efforts to clear a beautiful Mexican girl (Erna) falsely accused of killing a mysterious European visitor.

Cast: Bill Smith (Lieutenant Cardiff), Cesare Danova (Lieutenant Escalon). Guest Cast: Antoinette Bower (Erna Bremen), Stefan Berasch (Graff Erlich), Ben Wright (Manolo), Jack Lord (Stoney Burke).

956 Border Town. (Series; Western; CBN; 1984–1986). A western series, broadcast by the now defunct Christian Broadcast Network (CBN) that is set in the 1880s and relates the efforts of a U.S. Marshal (Jack Craddock) and a Royal Canadian Mounted Policeman (Corporal Clive Bennett) to keep the peace in Border Town, a growing but ruthless town on the U.S.–Canadian border.

Cast: Richard Comar (Marshal Jack Craddock), John H. Brennan (Cpl. Clive Bennett), Sophie Barjac (Dr. Marie Dumont), Bruno Danzinger (Wyatt Orr), Beverly Elliott (Sally Duffield), Fritz Bergold (Otto Danzinger), Duncan Fraser (Zachary Denny).

957 The Boris Karloff Mystery Playhouse. (Series; Anthology; ABC; 1949). A short-lived series of mystery presentations with actor Boris Karloff as the host and frequent star. The series, broadcast from September 22, 1949 to December 15, 1949, produced 13 episodes and is also known as Starring Boris Karloff.

Host: Boris Karloff. Announcer: George Gunn. Organist: George Henninger.

958 Born Free. (Series; Adventure; NBC; 1974). Kenya, East Africa is the setting. Here George Adamson, a game warden, and his wife and assistant, Joy, struggle to protect nature (animals) from man. The series is derived from and continues from where the films Born Free and Living Free ended. It is also a story of man-animal relationship as depicted through the Adamsons’ raising, conditioning (to face the rigorous life of her native habitat) and releasing Elsa, a young lioness. Emphasis is placed upon game conservation in contemporary Africa. Makedde is George and Joy's senior scout; Nuru and Kanini are servants.

Cast: Gary Collins (George Adamson), Diana Muldaur (Joy Adamson), Hal Frederick (Makedde), Peter Lukoye (Nuru), Joseph DeGraft (Kanini).

959 Born to the Wind. (Series; Drama; NBC; 1982). The American frontier in 1825 is the setting for a four-episode series that follows the lives of a tribe of Plains Indians who call themselves "The People." Produced in 1978. The series ran from August 19, 1982 to September 5, 1982.

Cast: Will Sampson (Painted Bear), A Martinez (Low Wolf), Henry Darrow (Lost Robe), Rose Porcillo (Star Fire), Dehl Berti (One Feather), Emilio Delgado (White Bull), Linda Redfearn (Prairie Woman), Guillermo San Juan (Two Hawks), Ned Romero (Broken Foot), Cynthia Avila (Arrow Woman), Eric Greene (Lame Elk), Geraldine Keams (Wind Woman), Nick Ramus (Grey Cloud), Silvana Gallardo (Digger Woman).

960 Bosom Buddies. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1980–1982). When their apartment building is torn down to make way for condos, and they find they have no place to live, Kip Wilson and Henry Desmond accept the hospitality of co-worker Amy Cassidy and move into the Susan B. Anthony Hotel, a New York City residence for women only.

In order to live at the hotel, which they see as a bachelor's paradise that costs only $150 a month, Kip and Henry pose as women: Kip becomes his sister, Buffy Wilson, and Henry pretends to be his sister, Hildegard Desmond — a charade that is known only to Amy (in later episodes, Amy's friends, Sonny Lumet and Isabelle Hammond learn about and keep the deception a secret).

Kip and Henry, who work at the Livingston, Gentry and Mishkin Ad Agency in Manhattan, use clothes that were part of an ad campaign for a client (Blouse City and Dresses for Women). Stories from 11/27/80 to 10/8/81 relate Kip and Henry's misadventures as they attempt to lead double lives.

Hoping to start their own ad agency, Kip, Henry and Amy quit their jobs and invest $2,000 to buy a bankrupt commercial production studio from Henry's Uncle Mort. Later, when they discover that they are $17,000 in the red, Ruth Dunbar, their former boss, becomes their silent partner when she pays off the debt. They name the company 60 Seconds Street, and episodes from 10/15/81 to 8/5/82 relate the group's efforts to run the company (Kip and Henry still live at the Susan B. Anthony, but the charade aspect is greatly reduced).

In the pilot episode, when Kip and Henry first pose as women, they are sisters Buffy and Hildy (not related to Kip and Henry), who were working in a logging camp in Canada and had just moved to New York.

Kip Amos Wilson, a graphic artist at the ad agency, and Henry Desmond, a copywriter, attended Edgar Allan Poe High School (class of '75) in the town of Shaker Heights (near Cleveland). Kip, whose secret desire is to become an artist, had a showing at the Franklin Gallery (he sold one called "Peach Hell"). Henry, a Virgo, longs to be a writer and is penning a book based on his and Kip's experiences (a title was not given).

Amy Cassidy is a copywriter at the agency. Sonny Lumet, a shapely nurse, works at Memorial Hospital in Manhattan and longs to be a dancer. She is from Kalamazoo and her first television commercial was the dancing soda bottle for the Trans-Allied Beverage Company. Isabelle Hammond, a beautiful model, hopes to become a big name singer. She performs at Budd Shore's Spotlight Club, a Manhattan club that showcases promising talent.

Relatives: Wendy Goldman (Kip's real sister, Vickie Wilson), Jana Milo (Henry's mother, Marjorie Desmond), John C. Becher (Henry's uncle, Mort), Martina Finch (Ruth's niece, Cecily Dunbar). Not seen was Ruth's other niece, Gloria Dunbar.

Cast: Peter Scolari (Henry Desmond), Tom Hanks (Kip Wilson), Holland Taylor (Ruth Dunbar), Wendie Jo Sperber (Amy Cassidy), Donna Dixon (Sonny Lumet), Telma Hopkins (Isabelle Hammond), Edie Adams (Lillian Sinclair; the hotel manager), Lucille Benson (Lillian Sinclair; later), Linda Lawrence (Dawn Steekovitch; ad agency worker), Samantha Fox (Lee Anne; hotel resident), Patrick Quinn (Marty Bursky; ad agency worker), Wendy Goldman (Vickie; Kip's sister). Theme Song: "My Life" by Billy Joel.

961 Boss Lady. (Series; Comedy; DuMont; 1952). Gwen F. Allen is a rarity of early television. She is the owner and operator of the Hillendale Homes Construction Company in California, but she is also a woman handling a man's job — a position of importance that had not previously been held by a woman. In this pre-Women's Lib era, Gwen struggles to cope with and overcome the problems of the male-dominated field. Jeff Standish is Gwen's general manager; Chester is Gwen's brother; Aggie is Gwen's secretary; and Roger is Gwen's attorney. The series, which produced 13 episodes, aired from July 15, 1952 to September 23, 1952. In markets where a DuMont station did not exist, the series aired on local NBC stations.

Cast: Lynn Bari (Gwen F. Allen), Nicholas Joy (Jeff Standish), Glenn Langan (Gwen's Father; a widower), Charles Smith (Chester Allen), Lee Patrick (Aggie), Richard Gaines (Roger).

962 Boston and Kilbride. (Pilot; Crime Drama; CBS; 3/3/79). Thomas "Tom" Boston is a former military commando. James "Jim" Kilbride is a computer whiz. Together they operate Boston and Kilbride, a two-man agency that will tackle any assignment — for a price. In the pilot episode, Tom and Jim team with Jill Miller, a pilot, on a mission that takes them to Central America to snatch a stolen jet and return it to its rightful owner in the U.S.

Cast: Tom Selleck (Tom Boston), James Whitmore, Jr. (Jim Kilbride). Guest Cast: Jamie Lyn Bauer (Jill Miller), Don Ameche (Armand Beller), Marlena Amey (Maria Sangria), William Daniels (C. Donald Devlin), Lane Bradbury (Louise), Kathryn Leigh Scott (Toby Nash), Elizabeth Halliday (Dianne), Walt Davis (Manolito).

963 Boston Blackie. (Series; Crime Drama; Syn.; 1951–1953). Boston Blackie is a former thief and safecracker who turned his life around and now uses his knowledge of the underworld to fight crime. He has established himself as a private detective in Los Angeles and lives at the Brownstone Apartments. He has a dog named Whitey and Andy's Luncheonette (also called Andy's Lunch Room) is his favorite eatery. Blackie, as he is called, claims, "I can open any safe with these fingers" and knows it is not ethical to open a safe, "but who's ethical" he says.

Mary Wesley is a beautiful nurse who is also Blackie's girlfriend and the only person who actually looks out for him "because he won't." Mary lives at 712 Walden Avenue and is a very independent and gutsy woman; it is not unusual to see her become involved in a violent confrontation and get the worst for it (like a punch or being knocked unconscious; miraculously, those punches never conceal her beauty with a bruise). Mary is also a bit worried about Blackie's roving eye for beautiful woman; although she acts jealous, she accepts Blackie's excuse — "If I didn't have a roving eye for beauty, I couldn't appreciate you."

Inspector Faraday is the L.A.P.D. homicide detective who believes he is assisting Blackie (and thinks at times he ought to arrest him) but it is Blackie who is actually assisting him. The program opens with these words: "Danger. Excitement. Adventure. Boston Blackie — enemy to those who make him an enemy; friend to those who have no friends."

Cast: Kent Taylor (Boston Blackie), Lois Collier (Mary Wesley), Frank Orth (Insp. Faraday).

964 Boston Common. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1996–1997). Boyd and Wyleen Pritchett are a brother and sister. They live in West Virginia are Southern Baptists. When Wyleen decides to attend the Randolph-Harrington College in Boston, Boyd follows her — to spy on her and keep an eye on his little sister. Boyd takes a job as a school handyman (at $500 a week) and stories follow Boyd's mishaps as he becomes a part of campus life while keeping an eye out for Wyleen's welfare.

Other Regulars: Joy Byrnes, the student on whom Boyd has a crush (although she has a boyfriend named Jack Reed — the history professor); Tasha, the college information desk girl; and Leonard, Boyd's across-the-hall apartment neighbor (at 509 Commonwealth Avenue). Wesley Butterfield is the college president in 1996; Harrison Cross the president in 1997.

Cast: Anthony Clark (Boyd Pritchett), Hedy Burress (Wyleen Pritchett), Traylor Howard (Joy Byrnes), Vincent Ventresca (Jack Reed), Tasha Smith (Tasha King), Sam Anderson (Wesley Butterfield), Roger Rees (Harrison Cross).

965 Boston Legal. (Series; Drama; ABC; 2004–). A spin-off from The Practice that focuses on a group of brilliant, high-priced but often emotionally challenged lawyers with the Boston-based law firm of Crane, Poole and Schmidt. Denny Crane and Shirley Schmidt are two of the founding partners and their staff include attorneys Alan Shore, Brad Chase, Paul Lewiston and Denise Bauer. While The Practice focused on criminal cases, Boston Legal has hints of light satire as the law firm tackles civil cases — with the lawyers doing what they do best — operating just above the limits of the law.

Cast: James Spader (Alan Shore), William Shatner (Denny Crane), Candice Bergen (Shirley Schmidt), Rene Auberjonois (Paul Lewiston), Julie Brown (Denise Bauer), Mark Valley (Brad Chase), Lake Bell (Sally Heep), Rhona Mitra (Tara Wilson), Monica Potter (Lori Colson), Ryan Michelle Bathe (Sara Holt), Justin Mentell (Garrett Wells).

966 Boston Public. (Series; Drama; Fox; 2000–2004). Winslow High School, a public educational institution in Boston, is the setting for a behind-the-scenes look at the personal and professional lives of the dedicated teachers who sometimes risk life and limb to educate America's youth.

Steven Harper is the school's principal, a man dedicated to maintaining the dignity of his school while at the same time dealing with troublesome students, school bullies, frustrated teachers and irate parents. Laura Davis heads the social studies department; Scott Guber is the stern vice principal and other faculty members include Marilyn Sudor, the music teacher; Harry Senate, the geography teacher; Harvey Lipschultz, an 80-year-old instructor who longs for the way it was; Marla Hendricks, the science teacher; Louisa Fenn, the assistant/secretary to Steven; and Ronnie Cooke, a successful lawyer turned teacher at Winslow.

Cast: Chi McBride (Steven Harper), Jeri Ryan (Ronnie Cooke), Rashida Jones (Louisa Fenn), Anthony Heald (Scott Guber), Fyvush Finkel (Harvey Lipschultz), Loretta Devine (Marla Hendricks), Nicky Katt (Harry Senate), Jon Abrahams (Zach Fischer), Cara DeLizia (Marcie Kendall), Kathy Baker (Meredith Peters), Natalia Baron (Carmen Torres), Trevor Wright (Walton Hanks), Joey Slotnick (Milton Butte), China Shavers (Brooke Harper), Michelle Monaghan (Kimberly Woods), Sharon Leal (Marilyn Sudor), Jessalyn Gilsig (Lauren Davis), Phil Buckman (Henry Preston), Thomas McCarthy (Kevin Riley).

967 The Boston Terrier. (Pilot; Crime Drama; NBC; 4/10/62). The first of two unsold pilots (see next title also) about A. Dunster Lowell, a Harvard-educated private detective who works out of Boston. In the pilot episode, broadcast on The Dick Powell Show, Lowell attempts to find the person responsible for the murders of several mobsters.

Cast: Robert Vaughn (A. Dunster Lowell). Guest Cast: John McGiver (Professor Mumford), Robert J. Wilke (Lt. Duffy Cardoza), John Marley (Artir Pafko), Diana Millay (Sally Paine), Bennye Gatteys (Julia), Russell Collins (Otis Coots).

968 The Boston Terrier. (Pilot; Crime Drama; ABC; 6/11/63). The second pilot film (see prior title) about a Boston-based Harvard-educated private detective named A. Dunster Lowell. In the second pilot, titled “Salem Witch Hunt,” Lowell attempts to find a missing socialite (Millie Curtin).

Cast: Robert Vaughn (A. Dunster Lowell). Guest Cast: Elizabeth Montgomery (Millie Curtin), Stanley Adams (Lt. Clarence McKenzie), John Hoyt (Judge Josiah Bowditch), Paul Comi (Lt. Foley), Helen Wallace (Mrs. Dee), Frank Killmond (Alf Carter).

969 The Bots Master. (Series; Cartoon; UPN; 1993–1995). Ziv Zulander, called ZZ, is a robotics engineer who created a group of androids for a powerful organization called the Robot Megafact Corporation (“The Corp” for short). Leaders of the Corp, Dr. Hiss, Sir Louis Leon Paradim and Lady Frenzy have their own plans for the robots: create an army to conquer the world. When ZZ discovers what the Corp is planning to do, he counteracts with his personal robots (which he controls with his brain), the BOYZZ (Brain Operated Young Zygootopic Zoids). With the help of his younger sister, Blitzy, ZZ and the BOYZZ (D’Nerd, Jammerz, Ninjazz and Toolz) battle the Corp’s “bots” to keep the world free from its domination.

Voice Cast: Mark Hildreth (Ziv “ZZ” Zulander), Terry Klassen (D’Nerd), Ian James Corlett (Dr. Hiss), Michael Donovan (Gene Six), Stefano Giuliani (Toolzz), Janyse Jaud (Lady Frenzy), Crystaleen O’Bray (Blitzy Zulander), Cussie Mankuma (Jammerzz), Dale Wilson (Sir Lewis Leon Paradim).

970 Bottlenecks of 1941. (Experimental; Variety; NBC; 7/1/41). July 1, 1941 marked an important day for network television: the beginning of advertising sponsorship of TV programs in America. NBC was the only network that was commercially licensed by the FCC (CBS was just beginning its experiments; ABC’s development was still several years away). On that historic Tuesday night, NBC showed the first commercially sponsored programs: Lowell Thomas Reporting, Truth or Consequences and Uncle Jim’s Question Bee (see entries) and the above title. Lever Brothers (makers of Spry), Sunoco Oil and Ivory Soap became TV’s pioneering sponsors.

Bottlenecks of 1941 was mixed into the premiere night of programming with ceremonies celebrating the success of a fund drive that raised $11 million for the USO (United Servicemen’s Organization) to continue operating canteens near army camps. Appearing on the program were Thomas E. Dewey, Walter Hoving, Admiral Andrews, Colonel Lord, Mrs. Winthrop Aldrich and Mrs. Ogden L. Mills. The soldiers of the First Monmouth Signal Corps Replacement Training Center performed in (also wrote and directed) the skits and songs that comprised Bottlenecks of 1941. See also The Esso Newscast and The George Ross Show.

971 Boulevard of Broken Dreams. (Series; Reality; E!; 2007). A rather hard-hitting reality series that tells it like it is—the stories of celebrities who made it to the top then, for one reason or another, fell from those heights (some to make a comeback, others to go onto something else and those who met an unfortunate end). Examples of stories include Asia Hill (a child prodigy pianist who performed at Carnegie Hall, but later turned to acting in adult films); Christine Chubbuck (a promising news anchor who killed herself [with a gunshot] on TV during a newscast; and the tragic stories of teen supermodels Niki and Krissy Taylor (Krissy died at age 17 from an undetected heart condition; Niki almost lost her life in a car accident).

972 The Bounder. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 7/7/84). Howard Bender is a charming schemer who seeks an easy life and easy money. After serving a prison sentence for a land fraud deal, Howard moves in with his sister (Bonnie) and her husband (Charles) until he can find a job and get an apartment of his own. The unsold series was to relate Howard’s endless attempts to make money through scams. The pilot episode finds Howard attempting to impress Laura Spencer, the rich and beautiful widow who lives next door.

Cast: Michael McKean (Howard Bender), Jeanetta Arnette (Bonnie Slater), Richard Masur (Charles Slater), Francine Tacker (Laura Spencer).

973 Bounty Girls. (Series; Reality; Court TV; 2007). Jag, Jade, Gloria and Clyde are four gutsy women who operate Sunshine State Bail Bonds, a bounty-hunting agency in Miami, Florida. The women are identified by first names only and Jag, the team leader, has over 17 years experience on the job. The series profiles the bounty girls (as they call themselves) as they go about their business—tracking down the bad guys (and girls) for their offered rewards.

974 The Bounty Hunter. (Pilot; Western; CBS; 3/7/57). The pilot film for Wanted: Dead or Alive, about Josh Randall, a compassionate bounty hunter who strives to take wanted outlaws in alive. In the pilot episode, broadcast as a segment of Track-down, Randall teams with Texas Ranger Hoby Gilman to apprehend a killer.

Cast: Steve McQueen (Josh Randall). Guest Cast: Robert Culp (Hoby Gilman), Jean Willes (Janette York), Kenneth McDonald (Sheriff).

975 The Bounty Hunter. (Pilot; Crime Drama; CBS; 4/23/84). A proposed spin-off from Cagney and Lacey about Mike MacGruder, a somewhat ruthless bounty hunter. In the pilot episode, Mike locks horns with N.Y.P.D. police detectives Chris Cagney and Mary Beth Lacey—both of whom are seeking a Michigan bail jumper wanted for armed robbery in New York.

Cast: Brian Dennehy (Mike MacGruder). Guest Cast: Tyne Daly (Mary Beth Lacey), Sharon Gless (Chris Cagney), Laurie Prange (Violet Reynolds), Peter Voight (Brudinski), Dennis Pratt (Springer).

976 The Bounty Man. (Pilot; Western; ABC; 10/31/72). “They all go to hell with the Bounty Man” says the theme about Kincaid, an Old West bounty hunter. Kincaid is tough and mean and enjoys tracking down outlaws for their rewards. He is more stubborn than a two-headed mule, will ride into limbo to get his man and will give outlaws a choice “ride in the saddle or across it.” In the pilot episode, Kincaid seeks a $5,000 reward by tracking down a killer (Billy Riddle). Complications set in when Kincaid’s rival (Angus Keough), and Riddle’s gang begin pursuing Kincaid for Billy.

Cast: Clint Walker (Kincaid), Richard Basehart (Angus Keough). Guest Cast: Margot Kidder (Mae), John Ericson (Billy Riddle), Gene Evans (Tom Brady), Glenn Wilder (Red Gault), Dennis Cross (Rufus), Paul Harper (Hargus), Hal Needham (Pike), Rex Holman (Driskell). Theme Vocal: “The Bounty Man” by The Orphanage.

977 Bourbon Street Beat. (Series; Crime Drama; ABC; 1959–1960). Randolph and Calhoun—Special Services is a private investigative firm owned and operated by Rex Randolph and Cal Calhoun. The firm is located next to the historic old Absinthe House, a nightclub on Bourbon Street in the French Quarter of New Orleans.

Rex, an Ivy league man, was born in New Orleans and loves to cook. He will not give up on a case until he uncovers the who, where and how of a crime.

Cal was raised in the bayou country where his parents worked as sharecroppers. Rex’s parents were wealthy business executives. Cal is untidy while Rex is neat and orderly. Since Rex’s hobby of cooking was a part of the show, a book called Recipes from Bourbon Street Beat was released in 1959.

Kenny Madison is the firm’s part-time investigator. He is from an oil-rich Texas family and is attending Tulhane University, where he is studying to become a lawyer. While he doesn’t need the money, he works for Rex for the experience he hopes to acquire in apprehending law breakers.

Melody Lee Mercer is the firm’s attractive receptionist, secretary and file clerk. She was born in Shreveport, Louisiana and was Miss U.S.A. in the 1958 Miss Universe Pageant. Melody Lee was previously the runner-up as Miss Sazu City in the Miss Mississippi Pageant. She claims she lost “because the judges were northerners.” When Melody Lee took the job “I knew there would be gunplay and such” and “puts up with Rex and Cal and all the violence.” She hopes to one day become a detective and is thrilled when she is asked to do investigative work on a case. She likes to be called Melody Lee and not Melody (“I don’t like it when people leave off part of my name”).

Lusti Weather is a beautiful singer and dancer at the Racquet Club in the French Quarter. She also plays the bongo drums and says, “The bongos keep my torso from becoming more so.” She often exposes too much skin and is not only suspended but “busted by the police,” says Cal.

Rex calls her Lusti Love and she has such colorful, unseen friends as Sunset Strip and Midnight Frenzy.

The Baron is the leader of the jazz group that plays nightly at the Absinthe House. In the pilot episode, they are seen playing and singing the show’s theme song. Beaugard O’Hanlon is the painter who runs an art objects business next to the Absinthe House called Beaugard O’Hanlon’s World Renowned Treasure Chest.

Cast: Richard Long (Rex Randolph), Andrew Duggan (Cal Calhoun), Van Williams (Kenny Madison), Arlene Howell (Melody Lee Mercer), Nita Talbot (Lusti Weather), Eddie Cole (The Baron), Kelton Garwood (Beaugard O’Hanlon). Theme Music: “Bourbon Street Beat” by Mack David, Jerry Livingston.

978 Bowzer. (Pilot; Comedy; Syn.; 1/81). The Chez Bowzer is a shabby night club owned by Bowzer J. Bowzer, a former musician who teaches piano on the side. The unsold series was to relate Bowzer’s efforts to stay in business despite rotten food, awful entertainment and long overdue bills. In the pilot episode, Bowzer seeks to raise the rent money by conning Barbi Benton into performing at the club. The Bowzer character originated from the rock group Sha Na Na. Other Regulars: Victoria, Bowzer's girlfriend; Barney, the landlord; and Jason, Bowzer's piano student.

Cast: Jon Bauman (Bowzer J. Bowzer), Susan Lawrence (Victoria), Bruce Kirby (Barney Sheldon), Tony Christopher (Jason), Barbi Benton (Herself; guest). Theme Vocal: "Bowzer" by Jon Bauman.

979 Boy Meets World. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1993–2000). Cory Matthews is an 11-year-old boy growing up in Philadelphia. His father, Alan, manages a supermarket. Alan is married to Amy and they are also the parents of Eric and Morgan.

Cory and his close friends, Topanga Lawrence and Shawn Hunter, first attend Jefferson Elementary School (sixth grade) then John Adams Junior High School, John Adams High School and finally Pennbrook University. Their after school hangout is an eatery called Chubbies, which in 1998 became Peg Leg Pete's Diner.

Cory is a Philadelphia Phillies baseball fan and to impress girls he and Shawn started a band called the Exits. When Cory took a media arts class, he and Shawn became reporters while Topanga anchored the Adams High School TV show "The News Now."

Cory and Topanga became engaged in 1998 and married in November of 1999 (it is at this time that stories focus on their lives as they attempt to overcome the problems of marrying young and attending school at the same time).

Helping Cory, Topanga and Shawn through life's trying times is George Feeny, a dedicated teacher who lives next door to the Matthews. At Jefferson, George taught geography; he became acting principal at John Adams and retired when Cory attended college. Then decide to take college courses at Pennbrook and was offered a teaching job instead, which he took.

Other Regulars: Stuart Minkus, Cory's friend; Harley, the school bully; Jessica, George's niece; Eli, the media arts teacher; Jonathan Turner, a teacher; and Bernice, Alan's mother.

Cast: Ben Savage (Cory Matthews), William Russ (Alan Matthews), Betsy Randle (Amy Matthews), Danielle Fishel (Topanga Lawrence), Will Friedle (Eric Matthews), Lily Nicksay (Morgan Matthews; 1993–1995), Lindsay Ridgeway (Morgan Matthews; 1995–2000), William Daniels (George Feeny), Lee Norris (Stuart Minkus), Maitland Ward (Rachel McGuire), Matthew Lawrence (Jack Hunter), Alex Desert (Eli Williams), Anthony Tyler Quinn (Jonathan Turner), Trinia McGee (Angela), Harley Kiner (Danny McNulty), Jessica Feeny (Keri Russell), Rue McClanahan (Bernice Matthews).

980 The Boys. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 5/16/74). A proposed series about a team of television comedy writers who are also best friends: Eddie Ryan, who is divorced; and Harry Rufkin, a swinging bachelor. The pilot episode finds Eddie contemplating remarriage but still finds his life being run by his ex-wife, Cassie. Other Regulars: Alice, Eddie's fiancée.

Cast: Tim Conway (Eddie Ryan), Herb Edelman (Harry Rufkin), Esther Sutherland (Cassie), Gwynne Gilford (Alice). Guest Cast: Phyllis Elizabeth Davis (Vicki), Richard Stahl (Dr. Ferguson), Cliff Pellow (Tommy), Jack Berle (Captain), Alex Wilson (Man in sauna).

981 The Boys. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1993). Slopes is a horror novel about a thirty-foot snow beast from outer space that terrorizes a ski resort. It was on the best seller list for eleven weeks and its author, Doug Kirkfield, feels that to write another such book, he must get away from the hustle and bustle of New York City. He moves with his live-in girlfriend, Molly Rich, to the peace and quiet of Washington State for inspiration. Doug and Molly purchase a house that was once owned by a character named Ed. Ed was responsible for Wednesday Nights with the Boys, a gathering for games (for example, cards, Monopoly) with himself and three friends: Burt, a retired fireman; Al, a tar factory worker; and Harlan, the owner of an antique store called Give An-Tique. Burt and his wife, Doris, invite their new neighbors over for dinner and before he knows it, Doug replaces the late Ed and becomes one of the boys. Stories follow the activities that surround those Wednesday night get-togethers.

Cast: Chris Meloni (Doug Kirkfield), Isabella Hoffman (Molly Rich), Ned Beatty (Burt Greenblatt), Doris Roberts (Doris Greenblatt), Richard Venture (Al), John Harkins (Harlan).

982 Boys and Girls. (Unaired Pilot; Comedy; Produced for NBC in 1992). The confusing quest for love in the 1990s is explored via the activities of four young people whose lives intertwine: Alec, a chronic womanizer; Neal, who is insecure and afraid to ask women for dates; Charlotte, a sexy girl who treats men like dirt; and Allie, who is so desperate for a mate that she constantly botches every opportunity she has.

Cast: Peter Krause (Alec), Candice Daly (Charlotte), Jeff Nordling (Neal), Danielle Lords (Allie).

983 The Boys Are Back. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1994–1995). Fred and Jackie Hansen are a happily married couple who, after raising their two sons, Mike and Rick, are looking forward to a life without children when their plans to enjoy retirement suddenly change: unfortunate circumstances force their sons to move back home.

Rick, the oldest son, is an undercover police officer whose wife, Jennifer, kicked him out of the house (for his constant drinking) and now has no place to live. Mike loses his job with an employment agency and he, his wife, Judy, and their children, Sarah, Peter and Nicky, have no choice but to move in with his parents. Stories, which are set in Portland, Oregon, relate the events that befall the three generations of the Hansen family as they attempt to live together under one roof.

Frank worked for the Nike Shoe Company; Jackie is a real estate sales agent; Judy works as a temp at Temp People. The series was originally titled Not My Three Sons.

Cast: Hal Linden (Fred Hansen), Suzanne Pleshette (Jackie Hansen), Kevin Crowley (Rick Hansen), George Newbern (Mike Hansen), Bess Meyer (Judy Hansen), Kelsey Mulrooney (Sarah Hansen), Ryan O'Donohue (Peter Hansen), Justin Cooper (Nicky Hansen).

984 The Boys in Blue. (Pilot; Crime Drama; CBS; 9/9/84). The day-to-day activities of a group of patrol car officers with the Prospect Division of the Los Angeles Police Department. In the pilot episode, the officers seek "Captain Video," a thief who robs video stores, but has also wounded a cop.

Cast: Dean Paul Martin (Officer Danny Harris), Gregg Henry (Officer Jeff "Moon" Martin), Maggie Cooper (Officer Grace Carpenter), Murray Hamilton (Captain Sid Bender), Luis Avalos (Sergeant Hernandez), Garrett Graham (Lieutenant Shenk), William Allen Young (Officer Carl Johnson). Guest Cast: David Raynr (Mason Bradley), Ruth Britt (Rena), Rhonda Aldrich (Nancy), Patrick J. Cronin (Drunk), Rick Fitts (Detective Miller), John DeSantis (Mr. O'Brien), Paula Marchese (Mrs. O'Brien), Art LeFleur (Stanley Singleton), Jonathan Banks (Slick Sam).

985 The Boys of Twilight. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 1992). The series, originally titled Cody and Bill, the Grey Guns, is set in the town of Twilight, Utah, and follows the efforts of two elderly lawmen, Sheriff Cody McPherson, and his deputy, Bill Huntoon, as they attempt to maintain the peace. Other Regulars: Genelva, Cody's wife; Suzanne Troxell, the mayor; and Tyler Clare, a young deputy.

Cast: Richard Farnsworth (Cody McPherson), Wilford Brimley (Bill Huntoon), Louise Fletcher (Genelva McPherson), Amanda McBroom (Suzanne Troxell), Ben Browder (Tyler Clare).

986 Boys Will Be Boys. (Series; Comedy; Fox; 1988). A revised version of the Fox series Second Chance. Charles Russell was killed in a car crash and returned to earth to relive his own past and right his wrongs. He was seen as an adult who called himself Charles Time (Keil Martin) and rented a room in his mother's house (who didn't recognize him as an adult version of her 15-year-old old son, Charles, who calls himself Chazz [Matthew Perry]), to keep an eye on himself.

When Second Chance ended on January 9, 1988, the episode of January 16th became Boys Will Be Boys. The adult Charles is dropped and the series focuses totally on Chazz as a 15-year-old girl crazy boy as he goes about doing what he does best — creating havoc wherever he goes.

Chazz works as a waiter at Zorro Burger, a fast food store. His mother, Helen, is a widow; Debbie Miller is his girl friend (although Chazz has a roaming eye); Mr. Warren is the owner of Zorro Burger; Booch, Eugene and Alex are Chazz's friends; and Anthony Lotabucci is Booch's father.

Cast: Matthew Perry (Chazz Russell), Randee Heller (Helen Russell), William Gallo (Booch), Demian Slade (Eugene Blooberman), Terri Ivens (Debbie Miller), Adam Sadowsky (Alex), Al Ruscio (Anthony Lotabucci), Carl Boen (Mr. Warren).

987 Bozo the Clown. (Series; Children; Syn.; 1966–1967). The program, set against the background of a circus big top, features game contests, "Bozo" cartoons, circus acts and sketches geared to children. Basically a local station that purchases the syndicated format from its creator, Larry Harmon, produces the entire show. Most often, the station's local announcer will become "Bozo" for that particular station.

The series idea was first syndicated in 1959. In 1966 (through 1967) Larry Harmon Pictures Corporation produced 130 half-hour episodes for syndication with Frank Avruch as Bozo in a series called Bozo's Big Top Circus Show. In 1972 (through 1976), 185 additional half-hour episodes were produced by Larry Harmon Productions. The series, titled Bozo's Place is basically an educational series relating teaching concepts to pre-school children. The cast information listed below is for Bozo's Big Top Circus, which is perhaps best representative of the series.

Cast: Frank Avruch (Bozo the Clown), Peter Barth (Ringmaster). Regulars: Ruth Carlson, A. Del Grosso, Ed Spinney.

988 Bracken's World. (Series; Drama; NBC; 1969–1971). A behind-the-scenes look at the world of film producing as seen through the eyes of John Bracken, the head of Century Studios in Hollywood (the series is filmed at 20th Century-Fox Studios). Sylvia Caldwell is John's secretary (later replaced by Anne Frazer); Kevin Grant is the ambitious producer; Marjorie Grant is Kevin's alcoholic wife; Laura Deane is the head of the New Studio Talent School (her students are Davey Evans, Rachel Holt, Paulette Douglas, Diane Waring and Tom Hutson); Mark Grant is Kevin's son; Bobby Jason is Kevin's assistant; Sally is the script girl; Mitch is Kevin's secretary; Grace Douglas is Paulette's mother; Millie is Sylvia's secretary; Jim Carter is the studio gate guard; Bernie is Kevin's assistant; Pat is the screening room projectionist.

Cast: Leslie Nielsen (John Bracken), Eleanor Parker (Sylvia Caldwell), Bettye Ackerman (Anne Frazer), Peter Haskell (Kevin Grant), Madlyn Rhue (Marjorie Grant), Elizabeth Allen (Laura Deane), Dennis Cole (Davey Evans), Karen Jensen (Rachel Holt), Linda Harrison (Paulette Douglas), Laraine Stephens (Diane Waring), Stephen Oliver (Tom Hutson), Gary Dubin (Mark Grant), William Tyler (Bobby Jason), Marie Windsor (Sally), Kathleen Hughes (Mitch), Jeanne Cooper (Grace Douglas), Sue Englund (Millie), Lee Amber (Jim Carter), Fred Sardoff (Bernie), Edward G. Robinson, Jr. (Sound Mixer), Billy Halop (Pat). Theme Vocal: "Worlds" by The Lettermen.

989 Braddock. (Pilot; Crime Drama; CBS; 7/22/68). A futuristic story, set in 1977, about a man named Braddock, a private detective with Braddock and Tratner Investigations in Los Angeles. In the pilot episode, Braddock seeks to solve a series of mysterious threats against his life. Other Regulars: Tratner, Braddock's partner; Louise, Tratner's daughter.

Cast: Tom Simcox (Braddock), Stephen McNally (Tratner), Karen Steele (Louise Tratner). Guest Cast: Lloyd Bochner (Lawrence), Kathy Kersh (Marie), Tom Reese (Mongol), John Doucette (Lieutenant McMillan), Laura Lindsay (Victoria), Colette Jackson (Beverly).

990 The Brady Brides. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1981). A spinoff from The Brady Bunch that follows events in the lives of the two eldest Brady girls, Marcia and Jan.

Marcia is now a fashion designer for Casual Clothes and is married to Wally Logan, a designer for the Tyler Toy Company. Jan, an architect, is now married to Philip Covington III, a college chemistry teacher. The newlywed Brady girls move into the same Los Angeles house (to cut expenses) and stories comically relate their attempts to adjust to each other's differing lifestyles. Other Regulars: Carol Brady, Marcia and Jan's mother; Alice Franklin, their housekeeper; and Elvira Fritzingler, their neighbor.

Cast: Maureen McCormick (Marcia Logan), Eve Plumb (Jan Covington), Jerry Houser (Wally Logan), Ron Kuhlman (Philip Covington III), Ann B. Davis (Alice Franklin), Florence Henderson (Carol Brady), Barbara Cason (Elvira Fritzingler).

991 The Brady Bunch. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1969–1974). Carol Ann Tyler Martin is a widow with three daughters (Marcia, Jan and Cindy). Michael "Mike" Paul Brady is a widower with three sons (Greg, Peter and Bobby). The families become one when Carol and Mike marry and move into the Brady home at 4222 Clinton Avenue in Los Angeles. Stories relate incidents in the lives of each member of the newly formed family. Also living with them is Alice Nelson, their housekeeper, and their dog, Tiger.

Mike is an architect for an unnamed company and relaxes by playing golf. He is the wise and understanding father who always thinks things out before teaching his children a valuable lesson about life. Carol is content being a housewife and enjoys singing, needlepoint and cooking. Like Mike, she tries to give the children the right advice about life as they make mistakes approaching adulthood. Alice has been working for Mike for seven years when he and Carol wed. She is dating Sam Franklin, the owner of Sam's Butcher Shop. Joyce Bulifant was originally cast as Carol and Monte Margetts was originally cast as Alice.

Marcia, the eldest girl, takes ballet lessons and attends Fillmore Junior High School (later Westdale High). She was a cheerleader, senior class vice president and editor of the school newspaper (the Fillmore Flier). Jan, the middle girl, attends the same schools as Marcia. While Jan is a pretty as Marcia, she feels "I'm not as beautiful as Marcia" (a feeling she attributes to the fact that she wears eye glasses). Jan is very smart and loves to play practical jokes. Cindy, the youngest female Brady, is cute and charming and attends the Dixie Canyon Elementary School. She has a bad habit of eavesdropping and tattling on her sisters and brothers.

Greg is the eldest boy. He attends Westdale High School and enjoys singing and playing the guitar. He attempted to break into show business as a singer named Johnny Bravo. He also formed a band (The Banana Convention) and later one with his brothers and sisters called The Brady Six. Peter, the middle boy, is the most sensitive of the children. He feels he has no personality and is dull and unattractive to girls. He first attends Clinton Elementary School then Fillmore Junior High. Bobby, the youngest male Brady attends Clinton Elementary. He seems to possess a knack for getting into trouble even when he does nothing to attract it — it just seems to find him.

See also The Bradys, The Brady Brides, The Brady Bunch Hour, The Brady Girls Get Married and The Brady Kids.

Cast: Robert Reed (Mike Brady), Florence Henderson (Carol Brady), Maureen McCormick (Marcia Brady), Barry Williams (Greg Brady), Eve Plumb (Jan Brady), Christopher Knight (Peter Brady), Susan Olsen (Cindy Brady), Michael Lookinland (Bobby Brady), Ann B. Davis (Alice Nelson), Allan Melvin (Sam Franklin), Robbie Rist (Oliver), Jack Collins (Harry Phillips; Mike's employer), Jim Backus (Harry Matthews; Mike's employer), Dorothy Shaw (Frances Matthews; Harry's wife), Imogene Coca (Carol's Aunt Jenny), Torrence Henderson (Connie Hutchins; Carol's grandmother), Robert Reed (Hank Brady; Mike's grandfather), Ann B. Davis (Emma, Alice's cousin). Theme Vocal (First Season): The Peppermint Trolley Company; The Brady Kids (remainder of series).

992 The Brady Bunch Hour. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1977). A spinoff from The Brady Bunch. The format features the fictional Brady family in songs, dances and comedy sketches set against the background of a beach house in Southern California (where the family has moved to star in their own variety series). Mike and Carol are the parents; Greg, Marcia, Jan, Peter, Cindy and Bobby are their children. Alice Nelson is their housekeeper. Eve Plumb, who played Jan in the original series, was replaced in the role by Geri Reischl.

Cast: Robert Reed (Mike Brady), Florence Henderson (Carol Brady), Barry Williams (Greg Brady), Maureen McCormick (Marcia Brady), Geri Reischl (Jan Brady), Susan Olsen (Cindy Brady), Christopher Knight (Peter Brady), Michael Lookinland (Bobby Brady), Ann B. Davis (Alice Nelson). Musical Arrangements: Sid Feller, Van Alexander. Orchestra: George Wyle. Choreography: Joe Cassini.

993 The Brady Girls Get Married. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1981). A spinoff from The Brady Bunch. Continued events in the lives of the now grown Brady children, Marcia and Jan, as they prepare for marriage. Episodes detail Marcia and Jan's brief courtship and plans for a double wedding: Jan to Philip Covington III, a college chemistry instructor she has been steadily dating, and Marcia to Wally Logan, a toy company salesman/designer she fell in love with during a whirlwind romance. Originally scheduled as a two-hour TV movie on February 6, 1981. The movie was cancelled and re-edited into three half-hour episodes. The episodes, re-edited back into a movie, were televised on October 27, 1981. The lives of Marcia and Jan were continued in the series The Brady Brides.

Mike Brady, Jan and Marcia's father, is still an architect; Carol, their mother, is now a real estate salesperson for Willowbrook Realty. Marcia is now a fashion designer; Jan is a college student (where she met Philip). Cindy and Bobby, the youngest Bradys, are college students. Greg Brady, the eldest son, had become a doctor; Peter, the middle Brady son, is an airman in the Air Force.

Alice, who had married Sam Franklin, the butcher (from the original series) is still the Brady's housekeeper. Elvira Fritzingler is Marcia and Jan's neighbor (Marcia and Jan moved in together to save on expenses); Ben Richards is Carol's boss; Claudia and Philip Covington are Philip's parents.

Cast: Maureen McCormick (Marcia Brady), Eve Plumb (Jan Brady), Jerry Houser (Wally Logan), Ron Kuhlman (Philip Covington III), Robert Reed (Mike Brady), Florence Henderson (Carol Brady), Barry Williams (Greg Brady), Susan Olsen (Cindy Brady), Christopher Knight (Peter Brady), Michael Lookinland (Bobby Brady), Ann B. Davis (Alice Franklin), Barbara Cason (Elvira Fritzingler), Richard Brestoff

(Ben Richards), Jean Byron (Claudia Covington), Ryan McDonald (Philip Covington II), James Gallery (Wally's father), Carol Arthur (Wally's mother).

994 The Brady Kids. (Series; Cartoon; ABC; 1972–1974). A spinoff from The Brady Bunch that follows events in the lives of the Brady children — Greg, Marcia, Jan, Cindy, Peter and Bobby as they independently solve problems without help from the adult world. Moptop is their dog; Ping and Pong are their pet Panda bears; Marlon is the magical bird.

Voice Cast: Maureen McCormick (Marcia Brady), Eve Plumb (Jan Brady), Susan Olsen (Cindy Brady), Barry Williams (Greg Brady), Christopher Knight (Peter Brady), Michael Lookinland (Bobby Brady), Larry Storch (Moptop), Jane Webb (Ping and Pong), Larry Storch (Marlon).

995 The Bradys. (Series; Comedy-Drama; CBS; 1990). Mike and Carol Brady and their children, Marcia, Jan, Cindy, Greg, Bobby and Peter, The Brady Bunch of the ABC 1969–74 series, are reunited in a four-episode attempt to revive the popular series.

In the update, Mike is a city councilman; Carol is a real estate salesperson; Marcia, who is married to Wally Logan, runs the Party Girls catering business; Jan is an architect and married to Philip; Cindy hosts the KBLA radio show, "Cindy at Sunrise"; Greg is a doctor; Bobby is a race car driver; and Peter is his father's assistant. Other Regulars: Nora, Greg's wife; Jessica and Mickey, Marcia's children; Tracy, Bobby's wife; Patty, Jan's daughter; Alice Franklin, the housekeeper.

Cast: Robert Reed (Mike Brady), Florence Henderson (Carol Brady), Leah Ayres (Marcia Logan), Eve Plumb (Jan Covington), Susan Olsen (Cindy Brady), Barry Williams (Greg Brady), Christopher Knight (Peter Brady), Michael Lookinland (Bobby Brady), Jerry Houser (Wally Logan), Ron Kuhlman (Philip Covington), Caryn Richman (Nora Brady), Jaelyn Bernstein (Jessica Logan), Michael Melby (Mickey Logan), Martha Quinn (Tracy Brady), Ann B. Davis (Alice Franklin).

996 Brain Games. (Series; Game; HBO; 1983–1984). An unusual game show where there are no studio contestants, no hosts, no prizes — only computer graphics designed to sharpen the sensory skills of the viewing audience (for example, detecting the odd item of four displayed images; unscrambling jumbled words).

Game Narrators: Robert Klein, Sheila Nevins, Marty Glickman, Kit Flanagan, Alison Steele, Lionel Wilson.

997 Brains and Brawn. (Series; Game; NBC; 1958). Two teams compete, each composed of four contestants: The Brain, which includes a professional expert, vs. The Brawn, which encompasses a professional athlete.

The Brain portion of the program is broadcast from the network's studios and involves the players' attempts to answer difficult questions. The Brawn portion, broadcast from a remote location, puts the contestants through a series of physical dexterity contests. The teams are judged and awarded prizes according to their ability to complete their assigned tasks.

Host: Fred Davis (Brain segment), Jack Lescoulie (Brawn segment).

998 Brains and Brawn. (Series; Game; NBC; 1993). Two teams, each composed of high school students, compete in a game designed to test knowledge and physical abilities. In round one, a question-and-answer session is held with points awarded to teams for each correct answer. Rounds two and four are physical challenge contests while round three contains a "brain exercise." Points are again awarded based on the successful completion of stunts and for correct responses.

Both teams then compete in the final round obstacle course (which requires players to run an outdoor course plotted around Universal Studios in California). The highest scoring team in the prior rounds have an advantage — extra lead time (ten seconds for every 100 points higher than their opponents score) The team that runs the course before (or within) the time allotted, wins. The format changed shortly after with casts from NBC shows competing (for example, Saved By the Bell vs. Running the Halls).

Host: Mark-Paul Gosselaar.

999 Brak Presents the Brak Show Starring Brak. (Series; Cartoon; Cartoon Network; 2000). A short lived (two episode) spin-off from Space Ghost: Coast to Coast that gives the brain dead space pirate Brak and his friend Zorak, a crack at television with an interview show wherein they talk to celebrities and sing songs (with the Braktones Orchestra and the Brakettes Singers). Aired as a segment of the Cartoon Network's Adult Swim series. See also The Brak Show.

Voice Cast: Andy Merrill (Brak), C. Martin Croker (Zorak), Eddie Horst (Fuzzy; Braktones Keyboardist), Alfreda Gerald (Brakettes Singers).

1000 The Brak Show. (Series; Cartoon; Cartoon Network; 2000–2002). A revised version of Brak Presents the Brak Show Starring Brak. Brak, the absent-minded space pirate, has been made a "typical earthling" and given a home, a family and all the problems that go along with them (including the annoying neighbor, Thundercheese). Brak doesn't face all his dilemmas alone. Zorak, his best friend, helps (and hinders) his efforts to cope with life. Aired on the Adult Swim segment of Cartoon Network.

Voice Cast: Andy Merrill (Brak), C. Martin Croker (Zorak), Carey Means (Thundercheese), Marsha Crenshaw (Mom), Andy Merrill (Clarence), George Lowe (Dad), Don Kennedy (Marlon).

1001 Braker. (Pilot; Crime Drama; CBS; 4/28/85). A proposed series about Harry Braker, a nonsensical lieutenant with the Los Angeles Police Department. In the pilot episode, Harry and his partner, Eddie Kelso, investigate the murder of a film producer (Kate) and a director (Bruce), both of whom had ties with prostitution and pornographic films. Other Regulars: Detectives Alex Orsini, R.E. Packard, and Polly Peters; Belsky, the coroner; and Captain Joyce.

Cast: Carl Weathers (Harry Braker), Joseph Bottoms (Eddie Kelso), Anne Schedeen (Polly Peters), Peter Michael Goetz (Captain Joyce), Alex Rocco (Alex Orsini), Randall Tex Cobb (R.E. Packard), Eugenie Ross-Leming (Belsky). Guest Cast: Shanna Reed (Dede Drummond), Ian McShane (Alan Roswell), Ed O'Neill (Danny Buckner), Gwen Humble (Kate Taylor), Robert Pastorelli (Tyler), Kristofer Tabori (Bruce Wines), Dick Durock (Troy).

1002 Bram and Alice. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 2002). Bram Shepherd is a Pulitzer Prize winning author who wrote the book Matthew Kent and has since been living off his reputation. He lives in a swanky New York apartment and is unreliable, greedy and self-centered; he also considers himself a ladies' man.

While Bram lives his self-proclaimed, carefree life, a young woman named Alice O'Connor is struggling to succeed as a writer. She has come to New York from Vermont and she idolizes but doesn't know Bram Shepherd. Just as Alice is about to give up her dream, her mother, Margaret, tells her a long-concealed secret: Bram is her father (Margaret worked as a secretary at Vassar College; Bram came to lecture; they met, got drunk and had a one night stand. Alice was born nine months later but Bram left Margaret a short time later. He hasn't seen Alice since).

Alice meets with Bram. He is shocked to learn that she is his daughter; she is disappointed that her idol is not as she imagined. Overcome by a sense of guilt and impressed by the fact that Alice wants to follow in his footsteps, Bram attempts to make things right by allowing Alice to live with him and help her achieve her dream. Stories follow the unlikely relationship between a partying ladies' man and his idealistic daughter (who is trying to return Bram to the man he once was).

Other Regulars: Paul Newman, Bram's assistant; and Michael, the bartender.

Cast: Alfred Molina (Bram Shepherd), Traylor Howard (Alice O'Connor), Catherine O'Hara (Margaret O'Connor), P. Roger Bart (Paul Newman), Katie Finneran (Katie), Michael Rispoli (Michael).

1003 Branagan and Mapes. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 8/1/83). Daniel “Dan” Branagan is an executive with the Sutter and Biggs Advertising Agency in Manhattan. He was also a confirmed bachelor until he met Augusta Mapes, a widow with three children (Gussie, Theresa and Logan). Dan proposed, Augusta accepted and they had planned on a new life together. All changed when illness took Augusta’s life. Now a widower, Dan is faced with the prospect of raising three kids who are almost strangers to him (Dan devoted his time to work, not his children). Dan’s efforts to raise his stepchildren, assisted by the eldest child, the resourceful Gussie, was to be the focal point of the series. The pilot episode relates Dan’s efforts to cope with his youngest child’s (Theresa) birthday party. Other Regulars: Cathy, the children’s aunt; Barney, Dan’s employer; and Susan, the agency receptionist.

Cast: Don Murray (Dan Branagan), Dana Hill (Gussie Mapes), Rebecca Sweet (Theresa Mapes), Brett Johnson (Logan Mapes), Judith Kahan (Aunt Cathy), Bruce Kirby (Barney Sutter), Cyndi James-Reese (Susan). Guest Cast: Christine Dickenson (Renee), Earl Bullock (Mr. Barnes), Jennifer Ignacio (Jennifer), Candi Brough (Blonde twin), Randi Brough (Brunette twin).

1004 Brand New Life. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1989–1990). Barbara McCray is struggling to get her life back together after her husband walked out on her and left her to raise their three children: Ericka, Christy and Bart. Barbara works as a waitress in Order in the Court, a diner located next to the Los Angeles Superior Court Building. She lives at 708 Valley Drive and is pursuing a career as a court stenographer (she attends classes at Pacific Southwest School).

Roger Gibbons is a widower and the father of three children: Amanda, Laird and Barlow. Roger is a wealthy lawyer (company not named) and lives at 31304 South Birch Street in fashionable Bel Air.

One day Roger decides to have breakfast at Order in the Court and asks for “an exhibit A with no sausage.” Barbara is his waitress, and it is love at first sight. They date and become engaged one month later. They marry shortly after and honeymoon (with the kids) at Lake Helgramite (where Laird gets a terrible case of poison oak and Ericka injures her back in a water-skiing accident).

The “Blended Family” (the series’ original title) establishes housekeeping at Roger’s home. Roger, a Yale graduate (class of ’59), was a member of the Pi Gamma Sigma fraternity. Barbara, who married young and lost her opportunity to attend college, graduated from Lincoln High School. Amanda and Ericka attend J.F.K. High School; Christy, a talented violinist who hopes one day to perform in an orchestra, attends the Willow Crest School. Bart is enrolled in the Hank E. Woodruff School. Roger’s late wife was named Constance. Jill Colucci performs the theme, “Brand New Life.”

Cast: Barbara Eden (Barbara McCray), Don Murray (Roger Gibbons), Jennie Garth (Ericka McCray), Alison Sweeney (Christy McCray), David Thom (Bart McCray), Shawnee Smith (Amanda Gibbons), Byron Thomas (Laird Gibbons), Eric Foster (Barlow Gibbons), Lou Hancock (Grandma Zora, Barbara’s mother-in-law).

1005 Brand Spanking New Doug. (Series; Cartoon; Disney; 1996–1999). An updated version of Doug (see entry). Douglas Funnie, called Doug, is now almost 13 years old and still lives in the town of Bluffington. Stories follow his various misadventures as he pals around with his friends Skeeter Valentine, Patti Mayonnaise and his dog, Pork Chop.

Voice Cast: Thomas McHugh (Douglas “Doug” Funnie), Constance Shulman (Patricia “Patti” Mayonnaise), Fred Newman (Dirtbike Funnie), Chris Phillips (Boomer Bledsoe), Alice Playten (Beebe Bluff), Doug Preis (Chalky Studebaker), Becca Lish (Connie Bengel), Doris Belack (Mayor Tinni Dial), Marcel Colle (Mosquito “Skeeter” Valentine).

1006 Branded. (Series; Western; NBC; 1965–1966). When the series begins, the time is 1871. Jason McCord is an ex-army captain who has been branded a coward and dishonorably discharged. He now wanders across the country, using the experience he gained as a geologist in the army to survive. Two years earlier, he served under the command of a general named Reed, a man responsible for many peaceable negotiations with the Indians in southwestern Wyoming. General Reed, however, was aging and becoming incapable of commanding his troops. At the Battle of Bitter Creek, Jason had to relieve him of command. “Something happened after that,” Jason said. “I was knocked unconscious (by the attacking Comanche Indians) and when I awoke three days later, I was being treated by a farmer miles from the battle.”

Jason, the only survivor of the battle, was arrested and tried for deserting his troops. The farmer testified that Jason walked into his place on two good legs and was perfectly rational. “That may be so,” Jason said at his trial. “But I can’t recall anything for those three days. Maybe I did run.”

At the trial, Colonel Snow (Jon Lormer) was the only one of the military brass who believed Jason was innocent. But it was not enough. Jason was dishonorably discharged — stripped of his rank, left with only a broken sword and branded “The Coward of Bitter Creek.”

Jason was born in Washington, D.C., and attended West Point, where he graduated at the top of his class. At one time, he was assigned to coach

George Armstrong Custer (Robert Lansing), a cadet who was a year behind him, on his entrance exams. Jason fought in the Battle of Shiloh and was a soldier in the Army of the Ohio (stationed at Fort Ohio). He met General Ulysses S. Grant at the Battle of Vicksburg (May 1863) and was a lieutenant with the Union Army during the Civil War. He was later stationed at Fort Lincoln. He voted for Grant when he ran for president.

In the episode “The Mission,” Jason is summoned to Washington, D.C., by President Grant. Grant believes the court-martial was the right decision; however: “Whatever the facts, Bitter Creek doesn’t nullify all your years as a good soldier.... You’ve already been marked as a coward; how would you like to be branded a traitor as well?” Grant explains that he needs an undercover agent. Branding Jason a traitor as well would provide the perfect cover for the help Grant needs in dealing with the various problems he has — from people trying to assassinate him to smugglers supplying guns to the Indians. Jason’s undercover assignments for Grant are a recurring part of the series.

Jason’s jobs as a surveyor took him from Seattle to Alaska. He and his partner, Rufus I. Pitkin (J. Pat O’Malley), surveyed the Alaska Wilderness for William Seward (Ian Wolfe) and the docks of Seattle for the governor. Rufus left Jason to become an undertaker (because his initials spelled R.I.P. His horse was named Margaret, and he established business in the town of Cutbank). Jason worked on his own after that, seeking just to leave his past behind him and begin a new life.

In “Cowards Die Many Times,” the next to last episode, Jason takes a job surveying for the railroad (which is planning to lay track through the town of Panamint). In town, Jason meets his old flame, Ann Williams, now the editor of the Banner, the town’s newspaper. Jason’s plan to blast through a mountain and build a tunnel earns him the job of engineering supervisor for the project. In the final moments of the episode, Ann approaches Jason and says, “Hey, McCord, are you busy? I’m a newspaper editor. I got a couple of presses and a pretty fair circulation and a piece of land just outside of town that might be right for a small house. Are you interested?” “I’m interested, I’m very interested,” Jason says. They kiss and Jason decides to settle down.

In the final episode, “Kellie,” Jason and his grandfather, General Joshua McCord, have established an office called McCord and McCord, Survey Engineers. At this same time, Ann takes a pretty orphan girl named Kellie under her wing, and it is assumed that Jason and Ann will marry and raise Kellie. Also introduced as a new regular (had the series continued another season) was the town sheriff (no name given).

Cast: Chuck Connors (Jason McCord), Lola Albright (Ann Williams), John Carradine (Joshua McCord), William Bryant (Ulysses S. Grant), Suzanne Cupito [Morgan Brittany] (Kellie), Victor French (Sheriff). Theme Song: “Branded” by Dominic Frontiere, Alan Alch.

1007 Brandy and Mr. Whiskers. (Series; Cartoon; Disney; 2004–2006). A pampered dog (Brandy) and an easily excited rabbit (Mr. Whiskers) face a new life of challenges together when they fall out of an airplane and become stranded in the Amazon Rain Forest. Here they make new friends (Loa, the boa constrictor; toucan sisters Cheryl and Meryl; and Ed the otter) and stories follow Brandy and Mr. Whiskers as they attempt to adapt to their new surroundings.

Voice Cast: Charles Adler (Mr. Whiskers), Kaley Cuoco (Brandy Harrington), Sherri Shepherd (Cheryl), Rob Paulsen (Puma), Alanna Ubach (Lola Boa).

1008 Brat Camp. (Series; Reality; ABC; 2005). A reality series that is set at Sage Walk, a wilderness school in Oregon, where counselors deal with out-of-control teenagers. The program focuses on the experiences of a group of teenagers who are sent to the camp by their parents to be “reprogrammed” and become obedient (or at least controllable) children.

Narrator: Tony Randazzo. Counselors: Jada Chabot, Isaiah Alarcon, Cindy Fogel, Scott Fitzwater, J. Huffine.

1009 Bratz. (Series; Cartoon; Fox; 2005). Chloe, Sasha, Yasmine and Jade are teenage girls with a passion for fashion. They work for Bratz, the number one teen magazine and stories follow the girls as they seek stories and battle the evils of Berdeen Maxwell, the publisher of Style High magazine, who seeks to stop Bratz from publishing and cutting into her sales. The series is computer animated.

Voice Cast: Soleil Moon Frye (Jade), Olivia Hack (Chloe), Tia Mowry (Sasha), Dionne Quan (Yasmine), Wendie Malick (Berdeen Maxwell), Kaley Cuoco (Kristee), Lacey Chabert (Kaycee), April Winchell (Gertrude), Greg Ellis (Bryan Powell), Greg Ellis (Sir Nigel Forrester).

1010 Brave Eagle, Chief of the Cheyenne. (Series; Western; CBS; 1955–1956). The Black Mountain region of Wyoming (1860s) is the sacred land of the Cheyenne Indians. “We learn to count our wealth in the beauty around us and in the qualities of wisdom and courage that serve us in our way of life,” says Brave Eagle, the chief of the Cheyenne tribe. Brave Eagle accepts all men as his brothers and has made peace with the white man (specifically, the men of the U.S. Cavalry, who have established Fort Wilson near the reservation). The Peagan tribe are the enemies of the Cheyenne, and the most sacred law of the Cheyenne is the law of hospitality (to offer food and care to their fellow braves). Despite the fact that renegade Indians and “bad guys” use guns, Brave Eagle refuses to use such weapons (he and his tribe use the traditional bow and arrow).

Keena is Brave Eagle’s adopted son. (Brave Eagle found Keena, a member of the Lota tribe, as a pappoose. Keena was the only survivor of a small band of Lota that was attacked by the Comanche. Brave Eagle took Keena to be his son.) Keena and Brave Eagle hunt on each full moon, and Keena has a pony he calls My Pony.

Morning Star and Smokey Joe are the other featured members of the tribe. Morning Star is a full-blooded Cheyenne; Smokey Joe “was born of the white man’s blood” and served with the U.S. Cavalry (he wears a jacket with his sergeant’s stripes) before choosing to live with the people on his mother’s side of the family.

Brave Eagle: Chief of the Cheyenne is the official screen title; the series is commonly known by its TV Guide listing of Brave Eagle.

Cast: Keith Larsen (Brave Eagle), Keena Numkena (Keena), Kim Winona (Morning Star), Bert Wheeler (Smokey Joe).

1011 Brave Stallion. (Series; Drama; Syn.; 1960). The syndicated title for Fury while the series remains on the NBC network (where it ran from October 15, 1955 to September 3, 1966). See Fury for information.

1012 Bravo Duke. (Pilot; Adventure; CBS; 7/30/65). Duke’s Cantina is a gambling casino in Mexico. It is owned by a man known only as Duke — and his efforts to help Americans in trouble is the focal point behind the unsold series. In the pilot episode, Duke helps the American wife (Lisa) of a Mexican revolutionary flee the country.

Cast: Gerald Mohr (Duke). Guest Cast,: Kathleen Crowley (Lisa), Sebastian Cabot (Constantine), Jay Novello (Manuel Ortega).

1013 Bravo Two. (Pilot; Adventure; CBS; 3/25/77). Bravo Two is the code name for a patrol boat piloted by Wiley Starrett and Bud Wizzer for the Los Angeles Harbor Patrol. Their exploits as they patrol and protect the California coastlines is the focal point of the unsold series. In the pilot episode, Wiley and Bud attempt to locate an amphibious plane that has been forced down at sea in a dense fog. Other Regulars: Lieutenant O’Brien, commander of the Bravo One patrol boat; and T.J. Phillips, O’Brien’s aide.

Cast: Bruce Fairbairn (Wiley Starrett), David Gilliam (Bud Wizzer), James Hampton (Lieutenant O’Brien), Cooper Huckabee (T.J. Phillips). Guest Cast: Lynn Carlin (Mrs. Morgan), Don Matheson (Mr. Morgan), Lucy Saroyan (Lucy), Matthew Laborteaux (Eddie Morgan).

1014 Break the Bank. (Series; Game; ABC; NBC; CBS; 1948–1956). Players are quizzed in a category of their own choice. Each correct response earns cash, which increases with the difficulty of the question. Eight straight answers breaks the bank and its cash amount is awarded to the player. Two misses in a row defeat the player and his funds are forfeited and added to the bank.

The series aired on ABC from October 22, 1948 to September 23, 1949; on NBC from October 5, 1949 to January 9, 1952; on CBS from June 3, 1952 to October 19, 1952; on NBC from March 30, 1953 to September 18, 1953; on ABC from January 31, 1954 to June 20, 1956.

Host: Bert Parks, Clayton “Bud” Collyer. Assistant: Janice Wolfe, Janice Gilbert. Announcer: Win Elliott, Johnny Olsen.

1015 Break the Bank. (Series; Game; ABC; Syn.; 1976). Two contestants compete. One player selects one box from nine that are displayed on stage. Two celebrities, represented by that box, give their response to a question (one gives the correct answer; one fibs). If the contestant chooses the correct answer, he wins that box and its money amount (from $1 to $500) and continues to play. When an incorrect answer is chosen, the player is defeated and his opponent receives a turn at play. The object is to win by acquiring three boxes with the same money amounts. The series appeared on ABC for four months (April through July 1976) and in syndication for one year beginning in September of 1976.

Host: Tom Kennedy (ABC), Jack Barry (Syn.). Announcer: Johnny Jacobs (ABC), Ernie Anderson (Syn.). Music: Stu Levin (ABC), Stuart Zachary (Syn.).

1016 Break the Bank. (Series; Game; Syn.; 1985). Two married couples compete in a series of question and answer rounds wherein correct responses award cash ($100 in Round One; $200 in Round Two). The first couple to score $2,000 is the winner. The couple then attempts to solve puzzles for bankcards. Each puzzle that is solved earns them a bankcard. At the end of the round, each card is placed in the bank vault slot (which reads the contents of the card). Cards contain prizes, cash, Break the Bank or a bankrupt. Each cash or merchandise card earns the player that prize; a “Break the Bank” card wins the large cash amount contained in the bank ($20,000); a bankrupt card wipes out a player’s winnings. The player has the choice of stopping when he feels safe or using all the cards he has accumulated.

Host: Gene Rayburn, Joe Farrago. Assistant: Julie Hayek, Kandice Keuhl. Announcer: Michael Hicks.

1017 Break the $250,000 Bank. (Series; Game; NBC; 1956–1957). A high stakes money spin-off from the 1948 ABC version of Break the Bank. A player is quizzed on a category of his own choosing. Questions are very difficult and the player is permitted to bring with him an expert to assist in answering questions. Each correct response to a question earns the player money, which increases with the difficulty of the question. Eight straight answers breaks the bank and its cash amount is awarded to the player. Two misses in a row defeat the player and his funds are forfeited and added to the bank (to a maximum of $250,000).

Host: Bert Parks. Announcer: Johnny Olsen.

1018 Breakaway. (Series; Magazine; Syn.; 1983). A daily series of celebrity interviews and special news reports that was designed to give the housewife a brief break from her household chores.

Host: Monte Markham, Norman Mark, Martha Lambert. Announcer: Gary Owens.

1019 Breaker High. (Series; Comedy-Drama; Syn.; 1997–1998). Breaker High School is not your ordinary school; it's extraordinary as it is a cruise ship that has been refitted as floating high school. Serial-like stories relate the students adventures as they study — and explore the various ports of the world.

Cast: Terri Colombino (Ashley Dupree), Kyle Alisharan (Alex Pineda), Wendi Kenya (Cassidy Cartwright), Persia White (Denise Williams), Tyler Labine (Jimmy Farrell), Scott Vickaryou (Max Ballard), Ryan Gosling (Sean Hanlon), Rachel Wilson (Tamira Goldstein), Anne Openshaw (Ana Mitchell), Richard Ian Cox (Tony Gifford), Andrew Arlie (Captain Ballard).

1020 The Breakfast Club. (Experimental; Variety; DuMont; 5/25/45). A television adaptation of the morning radio series of the same title (aired on TV at 8 P.M. on a Friday). The program combines talk, humor, music and songs (although the music was recorded due to a musicians strike at the time). The program opened with the traditional daily prayer and poem followed by an educational feature. The Jack Owens segment came next (a crooner who sang to members of the studio audience), followed by songs from Nancy Martin and interviews by the host with studio audience members.

Host: Don McNeill. Regulars: Nancy Martin, Jack Owens, The Vagabonds Quintet. Announcer: Walter Herlihy.

1021 Breakfast in Hollywood. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1954). An early morning variety series that features game contests, a tribute to the oldest lady in the studio audience, a guest hostess of the week, music and chatter. Broadcast from the Sun Club of the Ambassador Hotel in Hollywood.

Host: Johnny Dugan.

1022 Breakfast Party. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1952–1953). A half-hour morning program of music, songs, guests and interviews.

Host: Mel Martin. Hostess: Eileen Martin. Regular: Larry Downing. Announcer: Larry Downing. Music: The Bell Airs Trio.

1023 Breaking Away. (Series; Comedy-Drama; ABC; 1980–1981). The series, set in Bloomington, Indiana, follows the experiences of Dave, Mike, Cyril and Moocher, four high school graduates as they attempt to “break away” from their childhood and find a place for themselves in the adult world. Based on the feature film of the same title. Evelyn and Ray are Dave's parents; Nancy is Moocher's girlfriend; and Paulina is Dave's friend.

Cast: Shaun Cassidy (Dave Stohler), Tom Wiggins (Mike Carnahan), Jackie Earle Haley (Moocher), Thom Bray (Cyril), Barbara Barrie (Evelyn Stohler), Vincent Gardenia (Ray Stohler), Shelly Brammer (Nancy), Dominique Dunne (Paulina).

1024 Breaking Point. (Series; Drama; ABC; 1961–1962). Dr. Edward Raymer is the director of the psychiatric clinic at York Hospital in Los Angeles. Dr. McKinley Thompson is a resident psychiatrist. Stories relate their attempts to help people on the verge of the breaking point of human emotion.

Cast: Eduard Franz (Dr. Edward Raymer), Paul Richards (Dr. McKinley Thompson). Theme Song: “The Theme from Breaking Point” by David Raksin.

1025 Brenda Starr. (Pilot; Drama; NBC; 5/8/76). Brenda Starr is a beautiful reporter for the Daily Flash, a crusading newspaper. Her adventures as she risks her life to uncover stories is the focal point of the unsold series. In the pilot episode, Brenda attempts to prove that the murder of her close friend is linked to the mysterious death of an eccentric billionaire who was involved in foreign intrigue, blackmail and voodoo.

Cast: Jill St. John (Brenda Starr), Sorrell Booke (A.J. Livwright, her publisher). Guest Cast: Jed Allan (Roger Randall), Victor Buono (Lance O'Toole), Marcia Strassman (Kentucky Smith), Barbara Luna (Luisa Santamaria), Joel Fabiani (Carlos Varga), Torin Thatcher (Lassiter).

1026 Brenda Starr, Reporter. (Pilot; Drama; Syn.; 1/79). The Daily Flash is a crusading big city newspaper. Brenda Starr is a beautiful reporter who risks her life to get the front page stories. The proposed series, based on the comic strip, was to focus on Brenda's story gathering assignments. The pilot episode relates Brenda's efforts to free a hostage who is being held for ransom by a madman.

Cast: Sherry Jackson (Brenda Starr), Shelly Berman (A.J. Livwright, her publisher). Also: Barbara Minkus, Jonathan Segal.

1027 Brenner. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 1959–1962). Roy Brenner is a detective lieutenant and the head of the Confidential Squad, a special crime-busting unit of the New York City Police Department. Ernie Brenner is his son, a patrolman attached to the same unit. Stories relate the experiences of a father and son as they seek the same goal (bringing criminals to justice) but approach each case in a different manner. Roy is a by-the-books officer who frowns upon bending the rules; Ernie, an impetuous representative of the younger generation, seeks quick solutions to the cases at hand. See also The Blue Men for information on the series pilot film. The series, which produced 25 episodes, aired from June 6, 1959 to September 18, 1959; June 19, 1961 to September 18, 1961; and June 7, 1962 to September 6, 1962. Episodes were rerun on the network (CBS) from May 10, 1964 to September 13, 1964.

Cast: Edward Binns (Lt. Roy Brenner), James Broderick (Off. Ernie Brenner), Joseph Sullivan (Captain Laney).

1028 Bret Maverick. (Series; Western; NBC; 1981–1982). A third attempt to continue the 1950s Maverick series (see also Maverick, The New Maverick and Young Maverick).

Now, twenty years older “and forty years wiser,” Bret Maverick, TV’s most famous roving gambler, rides into the town of Sweetwater, Arizona, for a high stakes poker game. After winning $100,000, the Lazy Ace Ranch and The Red Ox Saloon, Bret finally decides to settle down. The series follows Bret’s experiences as a rancher and saloon owner in the Arizona of the 1880s.

Other Regulars: Mary Lou Springer, a photographer for the town newspaper, The Territorian; Philo Sandine, a con man called “Standing Bear” by the Comanche Indians; Tom Guthrie, the man who runs the Red Ox Saloon for Bret; Elijah Crow, the town banker; Rodney, Mary Lou’s assistant; Mitchell Dowd, the Sheriff; Cy Whitaker, Bret’s ranch foreman; Jack, the Red Ox bartender; Estelle Springer, Mary Lou’s mother; Kate Hanrahan, operator of the Klondike Room gambling hall; Jasmine DuBois; one of Kate’s girls.

Cast: James Garner (Bret Maverick), Darleen Carr (Mary Lou Springer), Stuart Margolin (Philo Sandine), Ed Bruce (Tom Guthrie), Ramon Bieri (Elijah Crow), David Knell (Rodney), John Shearin (Mitchell Dowd), Richard Hamilton (Cy Whitaker), Jack Garner (Jack), Priscilla Morrill (Estelle Springer), Marj Dusay (Kate Hanrahan), Simone Griffeth (Jasmine DuBois), Norman Mailer (Bank Teller), Eldon Quick (Hotel Desk Clerk). Theme Vocal: “Maverick Didn’t Come Here to Lose” by Ed Bruce.

1029 Brewster Place. (Series; Drama; ABC; 1990). A dramatic series based on the novel, The Women of Brewster Place, by Gloria Naylor that presents an insightful look at the lives of a group of African-American women who live in a tenement on Brewster Place. Stories focus in particular on their experiences with racism, poverty and the less-than-desirable men who enter (and leave) their lives. The series ran from May 1, 1990 to May 30, 1990. A two-part TV movie called The Women of Brewster Place aired on ABC (March 18–19, 1989).

Cast: Brenda Pressley (Etta Mae Johnson), Oprah Winfrey (Mattie Michael), DeLeon Richards (Margaret Thomas), Olivia Cole (Miss Sophie), Kelly Neal (Abshu Kamau), Rachel Crawford (Kiswana Browne), Jason Weaver (Matthew Thomas), John Cothran, Jr. (Ralph Thomas), John Beasley (Mr. Willie), Oscar Brown, Jr. (Jessie), Stephen Crump (Miles Thomas).

1030 Brian and Sylvia. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 3/25/81). The problems of an interracial marriage as seen through the experiences of Sylvia Parker (black), a TV newscaster for Channel 9 in Buffalo, New York, and Brian Parker (white), her husband, a counselor in a youth center. In the pilot episode, broadcast as a segment of The Facts of Life, Sylvia receives the opportunity to become a newscaster in New York City — but fears telling Brian, whom she feels will balk at having to give up his job. (The story ends with Sylvia changing her mind about accepting the job and she and Brian remaining in Buffalo.) Other Regulars: Ethel, Sylvia’s mother; and Ray, the Channel 9 station manager.

Cast: Rosanne Katon (Sylvia Parker), Richard Dean Anderson (Brian Parker), Ja’net DuBois (Ethel), Anthony Holland (Ray).

1031 The Brian Benben Show. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1998). Brian Benben is a news anchorman on a local Los Angeles TV station. He has been a top draw for the station for a number of years, but as audience tastes change, so do his ratings when he is no longer the ratings champ he once was. Management decides to replace him with younger news anchors Chad Rockwell and Tabitha Berkeley. Brian is not fired but regulated to human interest reporting assignments. Stories follow Brian as he reluctantly accepts his new position while seeking ways to regain his anchor seat.

Other Regulars: Kevin La Rue, the sports anchor; Billy Hernandez, the weatherman; and Beverly Shippel, the producer.

Cast: Brian Benben (Himself), Lisa Thornhill (Tabitha Berkeley), Charles Esten (Chad Rockwell), Wendell Pierce (Billy Hernandez), Susan Blommaert (Beverly Shippel).

1032 The Brian Keith Show. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1973–1974). As the theme plays, an announcer says, “Introducing The Brian Keith Show comedy team: In the title role, Brian Keith (Dr. Sean Jamison); also starring Shelley Fabares as Dr. Anne Jamison; Victoria Young as the vivacious office nurse, Puni; Nancy Kulp as the wealthy landlady (Millar Gruber); and Roger Bowen as the very proper Dr. Austin Chaffey.”

Drs. Sean Jamison and his daughter, Anne, both graduates of Harvard Medical School, operate the Jamison Clinic for Children in Kahala, Hawaii. Their staff consists of a beautiful native girl named Puni, who serves as their nurse and receptionist, and a young local boy named Stewart who receives a salary of one dollar a week to sweep, clean and empty trash baskets. Sean also has a parrot named Sam. Puni calls Sean “Dr. Jamie” and Anne “Dr. Anne.” Anne also serves as the local vet and runs the local Children’s Theater Group. Sean’s favorite pastime is fishing.

Millar Gruber, the landlady, charges Sean $450 a month rent and worries about her walls (she owns the building and fears Sean will put holes in them to hang pictures). She attended Audubon University and has been married six times. She lost each husband and says, “Death has been my co-pilot.” Puni fears that Mrs. Gruber (as she calls her) will sell the land the clinic stands on for a taco stand.

Dr. Austin Chaffey (referred to as Spencer Chaffey on press releases) is also a graduate of Audubon University (although he and Millar did not know each other until he arrived on the island to open his practice; he rents an office, at $250 a month, in Sean’s clinic). Austin is an allergist but isn’t fond of children.

The series was originally called The Little People and aired on NBC from 9/15/72 to 9/7/73. Themes: “The Little People,” by Jerry Fielding; “The Brian Keith Show Theme,” by Artie Butler.

Cast: Brian Keith (Dr. Sean Jamison), Shelley Fabares (Anne Jamison), Victoria Young (Puni), Roger Bowen (Dr. Spencer Chaffey), Nancy Kulp (Millar Gruber), Michael Gray (Ronnie Collins), Stephen Hague (Moe O’Shaughnessy), Sean Tyler Hill (Stewart).

1033 Bride and Groom. (Series; Human Interest; CBS; NBC; 1951–1958). Actual wedding services are performed and televised from a chapel setting in New York City. The series aired on CBS from January 25, 1951 to October 9, 1953; and on NBC from December 7, 1953 to August 27, 1954. It was revised by NBC from July 1, 1957 to January 10, 1958.

Host: Byron Palmer, Robert Paige, Phil Hanna, Frank Parker, John Nelson.

1034 Brideshead Revisited. (Series; Drama; PBS; 1982). The story, set in England in 1944, follows the life of Charles Ryder, a disillusioned British army captain. The title is derived from Brideshead Castle, a grand house on the estate of the Marchmains, an aristocratic English-Catholic family.

While stationed on the estate, Ryder recalls the past — and through the use of flashbacks, the viewer follows Ryder from his days at Oxford University twenty years earlier to the present (1944). Produced in England.

Cast: Jeremy Irons (Charles Ryder), Diana Quick (Lady Julia Flyte), Anthony Andrews (Sebastian Flyte), Sir John Gielgud (Edward Ryder), Nicholas Grace (Anthony Blanche), Mona Washbourne (Nancy Hawkins), Kenneth Graham (Sergeant Block), Sir Laurence Olivier (Lord Marchmain), Stephanie Audran (Cara), Claire Bloom (Lady Marchmain), Phoebe Nicholls (Cordella), Michael Gough (Dr. Grant). Host: William F. Buckley, Jr.

1035 Bridezillas. (Series; Reality; WE; 2005). The hectic world of brides-to-be are profiled. Each program spotlights the chaos that results as each strives to produce the wedding of her dreams (including the preparations, the tantrums, the battles with family and friends — and whatever else can crop up to make a seemingly ordinary girl become a monster [a “Bridezilla”] when it comes to her special day).

Narrator: Mindy Burbano.

1036 Bridger. (Pilot; Adventure; ABC; 9/10/76). An unsold series about James “Jim” Bridger, the legendary pioneer mountain man who opened the West for settlement in the 1830s. In the pilot episode, Jim and his assistant, Joe Meek, seek to blaze a trail from Wyoming to the California coast to prove President Andrew Jackson’s theory that the territory is accessible, and thwart the plan by Senator Daniel Webster to give the Pacific Northwest to England in exchange for fishing rights for New Englanders in Newfoundland coastal waters.

Cast: James Wainwright (Jim Bridger), Dirk Blocker (Joe Meek). Guest Cast: Sally Field (Jennifer Medford), Ben Murphy (Kit Carson), William Windom (Daniel Webster), John Anderson (Andrew Jackson), Claudio Martinez (David Bridger), X Brands (Crow Chief), Skeeter Vaughn (Paiute Chief).

1037 Bridges to Cross. (Series; Drama; CBS; 1986). The story-gathering assignments of Tracy Bridges and Peter Cross, a divorced couple who share a personal rivalry as the reporter-columnists of “Bridges to Cross,” a column for the Washington, D.C.-based World Week magazine. Other Regulars: Maria, Tracy’s friend; Norman, Tracy’s butler; Morris, the editorial chief; Sharon, the assignment editor; and Lisa, the receptionist.

Cast: Suzanne Pleshette (Tracy Bridges), Nicholas Surovy (Peter Cross), Roddy McDowall (Norman Parks), Eva Gabor (Maria Talbot), Jose Ferrer (Morris Kane), Cecile Callan (Sharon Lambert), Rose Dursy (Lisa).

1038 Bridget Loves Bernie. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1972–1973). On an overcast day in New York

City, schoolteacher Bridget Theresa Mary Colleen Fitzgerald hails a cab driven by Bernard (“Bernie”) Steinberg. Bernie drops Bridget off at her destination (school) and leaves. That rainy afternoon, as Bridget exits the school to return home, she sees Bernie waiting for her. They walk hand in hand through Central Park, kiss and fall in love. Bridget is Irish-Catholic; Bernie is Jewish. Despite the fact that their parents object to a mixed marriage, Bridget and Bernie marry in a civil ceremony (later, to please their parents, in a ceremony presided over by a priest and a rabbi). Stories follow the young couple as they struggle to overcome the problems of a religiously mixed marriage.

Bridget’s parents are Walter and Amy Fitzgerald; Sam and Sophie Steinberg are Bernie’s parents. Walter and Amy are very rich and live in a luxurious penthouse apartment at 1041 Central Park West. Walter, a staunch Republican, owns a company called Global Investments. Sam and Sophie run Steinberg’s Delicatessen on Manhattan’s Lower East Side (located next to Goldstein’s Bakery); Bridget and Bernie have set up housekeeping in an apartment above the deli.

Bridget teaches fourth grade at the Immaculate Heart Academy (the same school she attended as a girl) in mid-Manhattan.

Moe Plotnic is Sophie’s brother and runs the catering end of the deli; Father Michael Fitzgerald is Bridget’s older brother, a parish priest at the Immaculate Heart Church.

Jerry Fielding and Diane Hilderbrand composed the theme, “Love Is Crazy.”

Cast: Meredith Baxter (Bridget Fitzgerald Steinberg), David Birney (Bernie Steinberg), David Doyle (Walter Fitzgerald), Audra Lindley (Amy Fitzgerald), Harold J. Stone (Sam Steinberg), Bibi Osterwald (Sophie Steinberg), Ned Glass (Moe Plotnic), Robert Sampson (Father Michael Fitzgerald), Ivor Barry (Charles, Walter’s butler), Nancy Walker (Bridget’s Aunt Ruthie).

1039 Brief Pause for Murder. (Test Program; Anthology; CBS; 11/21/46). A proposed but unsold series of murder mysteries. The pilot episode tells of a radio announcer who seeks to find a perfect and untraceable way to murder his two-timing wife.

Cast: David Manners (Radio announcer), Mary Patton (His wife). Also: Robert Bolger, Warren Bryan, Gordon Minter, Kermit Murdock.

1040 Bright Promise. (Series; Serial; NBC; 1969–1972). The story of Professor Thomas Boswell, the president of Bancroft, a college community beset by contemporary crises. Episodes depict incidents in the lives of the faculty members, their families and the students of Bancroft College. The series, which produced 605 episodes, aired from September 29, 1969 to March 31, 1972.

Cast: Dana Andrews (Thomas Boswell), Regina

Gleason (Sylvia Bancroft), Anne Jeffreys (Sylvia Bancroft), Paul Lukather (William Ferguson), Coleen Gray (Ann Boyd Jones), Gail Kobe (Ann Boyd Jones), Nancy Stevens (Jennifer), Gary Pillar (Chet), Richard Eastham (Red Wilson), Annette O’Toole (Gypsy), Philip Carey (Bob Cochran), Sherry Alberoni (Jody Harper), Susan Brown (Martha Ferguson), Dabney Coleman (Dr. Tracy Graham), John Considine (Dr. Brian Walsh), Anthony Easley (Charles Diedrich), Tony Geary (David Lockart), David Lewis (Henry Pierce), Cheryl Miller (Samantha Pudding), Mark Miller (Howard Jones), Pamela Murphy (Sandra Jones Pierce), Peter Ratray (Stuart Pierce), June Vincent (Amanda Winninger), Lesley Woods (Isabel Jones), Ruth McDevitt (Clara), Susan Darrow (Sandy), Tod Andrews (Dean Pierce), Nigel McKeand (Professor Townsley), Peter Hobbs (Bert), Sydna Scott (Alice), Kimetha Laurie (Fay).

1041 The Brighter Day. (Series; Serial; CBS; 1954–1962). The series, set in the small Midwestern town of New Hope, tells the dramatic story of Reverend Richard Dennis and the effect he has on the people of the small community. The series aired from January 4, 1954 to September 28, 1962.

Cast: William Smith (Rev. Richard Dennis), Blair Davies (Rev. Richard Dennis), Gloria Hoye (Sandra Talbot), Forrest Compton (Vince Adams), Patty Duke (Ellen Williams), Abby Lewis (Mrs. Jarrett), Vivian Dorsett (Crystal Carpenter), Del Hughes (Larry), Larry Ward (Randy), Lori March (Lenore Bradley), Paul Bannister (Robert Carroll), Mona Burns (Emily Potter), Paul Langton (Walter Dennis), June Dayton (Patsy Hamilton), Mike Barton (Chris Hamilton), Bennye Gatteys (Judith Potter), Patsy Garrett (Maggie Quincy), Don Penny (Toby Ballard), Perry Ivins (Dean Wilbur), Benny Rubin (Mort Barrows). Also: Lois Nettleton, Hal Holbrook, Jack Lemmon, Mary Lynn Beller, Joe Sirola, Santos Ortega, Mary K. Wells, Bill Post, Sam Gray. Announcer: John Harlan. Theme Song: “A Brighter Day” by Dick Leibert.

1042 Brilliant Benjamin Boggs. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 3/30/66). The story of Benjamin Boggs, a brilliant research scientist who is plagued by life’s misfortune. In the pilot episode, Boggs attempts to escape the matrimonial plans of a young woman who has set her sights on him. Aired on The Bob Hope Chrysler Theater. Other Regulars: Julie, Ben’s girlfriend; and Bill, Julie’s father.

Cast: Donald O’Connor (Benjamin Boggs), Emily Banks (Julie Thayer), Broderick Crawford (Bill Thayer). Guest Cast: Susan Silo (Nancy Prentice), Eddie Mayehoff (Fred Thompson), Dick Sargent (Dick O’Hara).

1043 Brimstone. (Series; Crime Drama; Fox; 1998–1999). Ezekiel Stone is a police detective with a score to settle: find and kill the man who raped his wife. However, two months after achieving his goal, Stone is killed in the line of duty and his soul is sent to Hell. Fifteen years later, 113 souls escape from Hell and Stone is chosen by the Devil to accomplish a mission: recapture the escapees and receive a pardon; fail and be condemned to Hell forever. Stories follow Stone as he begins his quest — made more complicated by the fact that each soul is supernatural and the only way to retrieve them is to destroy their eyes, which are the windows to the soul.

Cast: Peter Horton (Ezekiel Stone), John Glover (The Devil), Stacy Haiduk (Rosalyn Stone).

1044 Bring 'Em Back Alive. (Series; Adventure; CBS; 1982–1983). The Far East in 1939 is the setting. Frank Buck is a “big game trapper and collector of wild animals.” Stories relate his adventures as he stalks the jungles seeking game (to be brought back alive for zoos) and battles the forces of evil: smugglers and saboteurs. Based in part on the real-life adventures of wild animal collector Frank Buck (1884–1950).

Other Regulars: Gloria Marlowe, the U.S. Consulate in Singapore; Ali, Frank’s Man Friday; H.H., Frank’s friend, the Sultan of Johore; Edward Ridley-Jones, proprietor of the Raffles Hotel; Myles, proprietor of the hotel (later); G.B. Von Turgo, kingpin of the Singapore Underworld; Ching, the bar tender at Raffles; Bhundi, Frank’s friend.

Cast: Bruce Boxleitner (Frank Buck), Cindy Morgan (Gloria Marlowe), Clyde Kusatsu (Ali), Ron O’Neal (H.H.), Roger Newman (Edward Ridley-Jones), Sean McClory (Myles), John Zee (G.B. Von Turgo), George Kee Cheung (Ching), Harvey Jason (Bhundi), John Petlock (The Governor).

1045 Bring Me the Head of Dobie Gillis. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 2/21/88). A second attempt (see Whatever Happened to Dobie Gillis?) to revive the 1959–63 CBS series Dobie Gillis. Dobie Gillis, the girl-chasing high school boy, is now married to Zelda Gilroy (the girl who wanted him but could never have him). They are the parents of a teenage son (Georgie) and Dobie has turned his late father’s grocery store into The Gillis Market and Pharmacy.

Maynard G. Krebs, the former beatnik, is now a successful entrepreneur; the rich Chatsworth Osborne, Jr. has become the town banker; and the beautiful Thalia Menniger (the object of Dobie’s affections) is now a rich widow. Georgie is following in his father’s footsteps and chasing girls; he has a crush on the gorgeous Bonnie Bascomb, but is pursued by Chatsworth’s plain-looking daughter, Chatsworth Osborne III, better known as Chatsie. The story itself finds Thalia returning to win Dobie’s love — by offering to save his bankrupt town — if he will divorce Zelda and marry her.

Cast: Dwayne Hickman (Dobie Gillis), Bob Denver (Maynard G. Krebs), Sheila James (Zelda Gillis), Connie Stevens (Thalia Menninger), Steve Franken (Chatsworth Osborne, Jr.), Scott Grimes (Georgie Gillis), Tricia Leigh Fisher (Chatsie Osborne), Lisa Cox (Bonnie Bascomb). Guest Cast: William Schallert (Leander Pomfritt), Kathleen Freeman (Maureen), Dody Goodman (Ruth), Mike Jolly (Earl).

1046 Bringing Up Buddy. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1960–1961). Bradley Falls is a small town in California. At 1492 Maple Street lives Buddy Flower and his spinster aunts, Violet and Iris. Buddy, an investment broker for Cooper Investments, was raised by Violet and Iris after his parents’ death. Buddy has a girlfriend, his secretary (Kathy), but finds his life complicated by the meddling of his aunts as they try to find him a wife. “Those two can get in and out of trouble without realizing they have ever been in it,” says Buddy when he becomes involved in their antics. Violet calls everybody “Love,” and in one episode the aunts mention raising Buddy since he was an infant. Buddy served in the army during the Korean War.

Cast: Frank Aletter (Buddy Flower), Enid Markey (Violet Flower), Doro Merande (Iris Flower), Nancy Rennick (Kathy Donnell).

1047 Bringing Up Jack. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1995). Ellen is a widowed schoolteacher with two children (Molly and Ryan); Jack is a radio sportscaster (host of “In the Locker Room” on WST-AM, 1040 in Philadelphia). They meet, fall in love and marry — and Jack’s efforts to adjust to sudden fatherhood — especially with Ellen expecting his first child with her — was the focal point of the program. Other Regulars: George, the station owner; and Artie, Jack’s co-host.

Cast: Jack Gallagher (Jack McMahan), Harley Jane Kozak (Ellen McMahan), Kathryn Zaremba (Molly McMahan), Matthew Lawrence (Ryan McMahan), Roscoe Orman (George), Jeff Garlin (Artie Hudson).

1048 Britney and Kevin: Chaotic. (Series; Reality; UPN; 2005). A behind-the-scenes look into the private lives of singer Britney Spears and her husband Kevin Federlie. The program showcases (through their home videos) their courtship, engagement and wedding — and all the chaos associated with an affair that is more public than private. The series ran from May 17, 2005 to June 14, 2005.

Stars: Britney Spears, Kevin Federlie.

1049 Britt Ekland’s Juke Box. (Series; Music; Syn.; 1979). A weekly series that features performances by the top names in music. The program is hosted by actress Britt Ekland and is similar in format super model Twiggy’s series Twiggy’s Juke Box (which see).

Host: Britt Ekland. Theme Music: "Juke Box" by Hollywood & Vine.

1050 Broadside. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1964–1965). A spin-off from McHale's Navy that is set on the Navy base of Ranakai in the South Pacific during World War II. The adventures of four beautiful WAVES who are assigned to attend a newly created motor pool; and the efforts of Roger Adrian, the base commander (who feels his life has been disrupted by the arrival of the girls) to find a way to rid his island of them and return it to the tropical paradise it was before their arrival.

Lieutenant Ann Morgan heads the group of girls; her WAVES are Machinist Mates Molly McGuire, Roberta Love, Selma Kowlaski and Marion Botnick (a male WAVE by clerical error). Lieutenant Maxwell Trotter opposes Adrian's manipulation of the girls; Stanley Stubbs is the base cook.

Cast: Kathleen Nolan (Ann Morgan), Lois Roberts (Molly McGuire), Joan Staley (Roberta Love), Sheila James (Selma Kowalski), Edward Andrews (Roger Adrian), Dick Sargent (Maxwell Trotter), Jimmy Boyd (Marion Botnick), Arnold Stang (Stanley Stubbs), Paul Bryan (Admiral Whitehead), Don Edmonds (Nicky).

1051 Broadway Goes Latin. (Series; Variety; Syn.; 1962). The program features Latin arrangements of Broadway songs.

Host: Edmundo Ross. Regulars: Margie Ravel, Chi Chi Navaro, Hector De San Juan, The Arnoldo Dancers, The Ross Singers. Music: Edmundo Ross.

1052 Broadway Open House. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1950–1951). Network television's first late-night entertainment series (broadcast from 11:00 P.M. to midnight). The daily series features music, songs, dances, interviews and comedy sketches. The series ran from May 22, 1950 to August 24, 1951. Ray Buffum and Vic McLeod are the producers.

Hosts: Jerry Lester, Morey Amsterdam, Jack E. Leonard. Regulars: Jennie "Dagmar" Lewis, Barbara Nichols, David Street, Ray Malone, Helen Wood, Richard Hayes, Elaine Dunn, Maureen Cannon, Marion Colby, Buddy Grecco, Frank Gallop, Andy Roberts, Jane Harvey, The Eileen Barton Dancers, The Kirby Stone Quintet, The Mellolarks. Announcer: Wayne Howell, Frank Gallop. Music: Milton DeLugg.

1053 The Broadway Playhouse. (Series; Anthology; NBC; 1948–1950). The alternate title for The Chevrolet Tele-Theater. See this title for information.

1054 Broadway to Hollywood. (Series; Variety; DuMont; 1949–1954). A half-hour program of music, news, gossip, celebrity interviews and quizzes (that involve members of the studio audience). The series, which ran from July 20, 1949 to July 15, 1954, is also known as Broadway to Hollywood Headline.

Host: George Putnam (1949–1951), Bill Slater (1951–1953), Conrad Nagel (1953–1954). Regulars: Dorothy Claire, Jerry Wayne, Earl Barton. Orchestra: Al Logan.

1055 Brock Callahan. (Pilot; Crime Drama; CBS; 8/11/59). An unsold series about Brock Callahan, a retired Los Angeles Rams guard turned two-fisted private detective working out of Beverly Hills. The pilot episode relates Brock's efforts to find the killer of an interior decorator. Broadcast as "The Silent Kill" on Geritol Adventure Showcase (Brock Callahan was the proposed series title). Other Regulars: Jan, Brock's girlfriend; and Police Lieutenant Larry Pascal.

Cast: Ken Clark (Brock Callahan), Randy Stewart (Jan Barrett), Richard Shannon (Larry Pascal). Guest Cast: Barbara Darrow (Linda Hollander). Also: Richard Deacon, Brett Halsey, Sid Gilman.

1056 Broken Arrow. (Series; Western; ABC; 1956–1960). "With faith and understanding our quarrels all will cease; we'll walk the land together and learn to live in peace. On this Broken Arrow [arrow is seen being broken] let us find the pathway to friendship and love...." The series, set in Tucson, Arizona, in the early 1870s, when encroachment by the White Man brought retaliatory Indian attacks against the Pony Express, Army captain Tom Jeffords is assigned to resolve the situation. Tom studies the ways of the Apache and tries to persuade Army officials to understand the plight of the Indian, not slaughter him. In an attempt to accomplish through talk what weapons cannot, Tom confronts Cochise, Chief of the Apaches. Mutual respect leads Cochise to guarantee the safety of Pony Express riders through Apache territory. Later, when the Army seeks to open the Arizona territory to settlers, Tom arranges a treaty with Cochise and receives the Broken Arrow, the Indian symbol of peace, friendship and understanding. Tom is appointed as the Indian Agent to the Apaches and becomes the blood brother of Cochise. Stories relate Tom's fight against the blind prejudice against the Apache in the Southwest, fully believing the White Man is as guilty as the Indian in frontier outrages. Stuart Randall is the town marshal; Dunfield is Tom's friend; Geronimo is Cochise's nemesis (opposes the peace treaty).

Cast: John Lupton (Tom Jeffords), Michael Ansara (Cochise), Russ Bender (Stuart Randall), Tom Fadden (Dunfield), Charles Horvath (Geronimo), Sam Flint (Hotel Clerk). Narrator: John Lupton. Theme Music: "Broken Arrow" by Paul Sawtell, Ned Washington.

1057 Broken Badges. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 1990–1991). Beau Jack Bowman is a former Cajun sergeant with the Louisiana Police Department who now heads a special division of the Bay City, California, Police Department called the Rubber Gun Squad (officers on psychiatric leave who are “broken and unstable”). The unit consists of Judy Tingreedies, Stanley Jones and Toby Baker. Police Chief Sterling is their superior.

Jack calls his team the Cobra Squad. They perform limited, non-specific assignments and are officially called T.A.R.P. (Temporary Assignment of Restricted Personnel Cops).

Jack is 37 years old and proud of his Cajun heritage. He uses violent and unorthodox methods to achieve his goals and makes up the rules as he goes along. He prefers his Cajun cuisine and says, “A Cajun will eat anything that won’t eat him first.” There is a sign next to his house that reads “Cajun Jack’s Hospitality House.”

Judy, an officer with the nickname Bullet, is, as she calls herself, a street bitch with an attitude. She is a motorcycle cop and because of her addiction to danger she was removed from the force due to extreme psychosis. Judy is pretty, always eager for action and constantly asking Jack, “When are we gonna go out and kick some butt?” Judy loves her motorcycle (a Harley) and wears leather and tops that accentuate her ample bosom; however, she says, “I don’t like guys staring at my chest — it makes me angry.” And, as Jack says, “You don’t want to get Judy angry.”

Stanley, now a sergeant, was a street cop for three years. Due to the pressures of his job, he retreated to a world in which he is now a ventriloquist and all communication is made through his dummy, Officer Danny, whom Stanley believes is a real person. He claims that if he and Danny were to have a fist fight, Danny would win. Stanley is street smart, has a talent for throwing his voice and has the nickname Whipusall. No one can explain what it means. Jack believes it is a variation of “Whip Us All” because Stanley uses the steel plate in his head like a battering ram and can whip anybody in a fight. Officer Danny has a severe attitude problem and is an escort with the All Male Mahogany Escort Service.

Toby, a sergeant, is a forensics expert who suffers from fits of depression and self-hatred. He is also a kleptomaniac and when assignments become stressful, he believes he is an old west Texas Ranger named Cactus Cole Watson.

Eleanor Hardwicke, a lieutenant under Chief Sterling, is the team’s computer expert and department contact. Actually, she is the only assistant the Chief has; she calls herself a member of the Chief’s Special Staff. Eleanor has a Ph.D. from the University of Chicago and did her dissertation on police department procedures. She hopes to implement her research in the department and make it operational based on her beliefs of what a police department should be.

Dr. Priscilla Mathers is the psychologist assigned by Chief Sterling to watch over Jack’s team. Mike Post composed the theme.

Cast: Miguel Ferrer (Beau Jack Bowman), Eileen Davidson (Judy Tingreedies), Jay Johnson (Stanley Jones), Ernie Hudson (Toby Baker), Teresa Donahue (Eleanor Hardwicke), Charlotte Lewis (Dr. Priscilla Mathers), Don Davis (Chief Sterling), Charlotte Lewis (Dr. Priscilla Mathers).

1058 Bronco. (Series; Western; ABC; 1958–1960). Post office undercover agent, frontier guide, miner, wagon train captain, deputy and army scout are some of the jobs held by Bronco Layne, an ex-Confederate Army captain who wanders from town to town fighting injustice in the post-Civil War West.

Bronco was born in Texas (“down around the old Panhandle”) and “there ain’t a horse that he can’t handle, that’s how he got his name.” His grandfather was a “Yankee,” and Bronco continued the proud family tradition by serving with the Texas Confederacy. He has a Colt .45 with the inscription “Courage Is the Freedom of Honor,” a pocket watch that plays the song “Deep in the Heart of Dixie,” and a reminder of the Battle of Elmira — a cat he calls Elmira (who dislikes chili). Inside the watch there is a picture of Redemption McNally (Kathleen Crowley), Bronco’s one and only love (they grew up together in Texas).

When the war ended, Bronco returned to Texas to become partners with his friend, Enrique (“Rickie”) Cortez (Gerald Mohr) in the Layne and Cortez General Store. But Bronco, who has the wanderlust, dislikes staying in one place. He decides to leave town “to go where the grass may be greener.” He leaves without Elmira (whom he gives to Enrique) and his gold pocket watch, which he gave to the chief of an Indian war party to save his and Enrique’s lives when they were bringing merchandise back to town.

Although he preferred to avoid trouble, Bronco refused to stand by and see others abused (“You’ve never seen a twister, mister, til someone gets him riled”).

In the window of the Layne and Cortez Store, there is one very special item: Bronco’s gold watch (which Enrique acquired from a drifter who bought it from an Indian). There is also a sign next to the watch. It reads “Will Owner Please Claim.” Bronco never did.

Cast: Ty Hardin (Bronco Layne), Jack Elam (Toothy Thompson, his friend). Theme Song: “Bronco” by Mack David, Jerry Livingston.

1059 Bronk. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 1975–1976). Alex Bronkov, called Bronk, is a police lieutenant with the Ocean City, California, Police Department. Because of his impressive record of arrests and convictions, Bronk now operates under special assignment to Peter Santori, the mayor of Ocean City. Stories follow Bronk, a widower with a teenage daughter to raise (Ellen) as he investigates cases for the mayor. Ellen was crippled in a car crash that killed her mother. She is cared for by Mrs. Moury, a nurse Bronk has hired. In early episodes Bronk and his friend, Harry Mark, are partners in the M&B Junkyard. This aspect is later dropped and Harry is seen as a police sergeant.

Other Regulars: Sergeant John Webster, Bronk's partner; Officer Joan Harley; and Marci, Pete's secretary.

Cast: Jack Palance (Lt. Alex Bronkov), Dina Ousley (Ellen Bronkov), Joseph Mascolo (Mayor Pete Santori), Tony King (Sgt. John Webster), Henry Beckman (Harry Mark), Marcy Lafferty (Marci), Peggy Rea (Mrs. Moury), Sally Kirkland (Off. Joan Harley).

1060 The Bronx Zoo. (Series; Drama; NBC; 1987–1988). Seeking a man to run Benjamin Harrison High School, an unruly institution in the Bronx, New York, the Board of Education assigns Joe Danzig, a tough but dedicated teacher as its principal. Stories relate Joe's efforts to turn the school around and see that his students get an education.

Other Regulars: Sara Newhouse, the English teacher; Mary Caitlin Callahan, the arts and drama teacher; Harry Burns, the history teacher; Jack Felspar, the vice principal; Connie Delvecchio, Joe's superior; Gus Butterfield, the gym teacher; Carol Danzig, Joe's wife; Victor Ginelli, the science teacher; Trudy Burgess, the economics teacher; Jeannie, Harry's sister. Students are Roberta, Donna, Wilma, Roz, Mario, Rodriquez and Billy; Wilchinsky is the janitor.

Cast: Edward Asner (Joe Danzig), Kathryn Harrold (Sara Newhouse), Kathleen Beller (Mary Caitlin Callahan), David Wilson (Harry Burns), Nicholas Pryor (Jack Felspar), Linda Thorson (Connie Delvecchio), Mykelti Williamson (Gus Butterfield), Janet Carol (Carol Danzig), Peter Hobbs (Victor Ginelli), Mitzi Hoag (Trudy Burgess), Randee Heller (Jeannie), Tyra Ferrell (Roberta), Annie Oringer (Donna), Wendy Jane Cooke (Wilma), Nick Corri (Mario), Gail Boggs (Roz), Tony Coletti (Rodriquez), Bradley Gregg (Billy), Tracey Walter (Wilchinsky).

1061 Brooke. (Unaired Pilot; Comedy; Produced in 1979). Brooke Anderson is 14 years old, very pretty and often mistaken for a model ("But I'm not"). Brooke attends Sheffield High School in Connecticut and yearns to become an actress. When the school launches a production of The Wizard of Oz as a fund raiser for the library, publicity pictures of Brooke as Dorothy are printed in the local paper. Nicole Mallory, the owner of a small modeling agency (The Teen Scene) sees the pictures and is intrigued by Brooke's looks. Nicole attends the school play and approaches Brooke. She offers Brooke the opportunity to pose for some trial pictures to see if she has what it takes to become a model. The shoot proves successful and Nicole offers Brooke the chance of a lifetime — to become a model. The unsold series was to follow Brooke's adventures as a model — and typical high school girl ("which is what I really am"). See also The Adventures of a Teenage Model.

Cast: Brooke Shields (Brooke Anderson), Nicole Galiardo (Nicole Mallory).

1062 Brooklyn Bridge. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1991–1992). A nostalgic look at life in Brooklyn, New York, in 1956 as seen through the eyes of three generations of a Jewish family: grandparents Sophie and Jules Berger, their married daughter, Phyllis Silver, and her husband, George, and their children, Alan and Nathaniel Silver.

Sophie was born in Poland, Jules in Russia. They met as teenagers in Brooklyn; they now live in Apartment 2A of an unidentified building with the number 1138; Phyllis and her family live upstairs in Apartment 3D. Jules mentioned that he was in the millinery line; his and Sophie's favorite restaurant is the Flower Garden.

George grew up on South 6th Street in Williamsburgh; Phyllis attended Seth Lowell Junior High School and won an award for best speller. George works for the post office as a mail sorter at the main branch at Borough Hall; Phyllis is an office manager for a small insurance agent.

Alan is 14 years old and attends Seth Lowell Junior High School, then Lafayette High School. He was a member of the Royals baseball team and hangs out with his friends Benny Belinski and Warren Butcher at Sid's Candy Store (officially known as Sid Elgart's Fine Confections). Nathaniel is nine years old and attends P.S. 205; he is in the fourth grade and is on the Dodgers Little League team (he plays third base; Gil Hodges of the Brooklyn Dodgers is his hero).

Kathleen ("Katie") Monahan is a very pretty 14-year-old Irish-Catholic girl. She lives in Apartment 2C at 1640 Cortilla Road and attends Saint Matthew's Grammar School, then Saint Matthew's High School. She is also Alan's girlfriend — and a bit of a problem for Sophie, who disapproves of a Catholic girl dating a Jewish boy. Art Garfunkel performs the theme, "Just Over the Brooklyn Bridge."

Cast: Marion Ross (Sophie Berger), Louis Zorich (Jules Berger), Amy Aquino (Phyllis Silver), Peter Friedman (George Silver), Danny Gerard (Alan Silver), Matthew Louis Siegel (Nathaniel Silver), Jenny Lewis (Katie Monahan), Constance McCashin (Rosemary Monahan, Katie's mother), James Naughton (Patrick Monahan, Katie's father), Yvonne Suhor (Colleen Monahan, Katie's sister), Jake Jundef (Benny Belinski), Aeryk Egan (Warren Butcher), David Whol (Sid), Carol Kane (Sylvia, Sophie's daughter).

1063 Brooklyn South. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 1997–1998). The 74th Precinct in Brooklyn, New York (called Brooklyn South) of the N.Y.P.D. is the setting. Gritty, realistic stories follow the on-the-job lives of a group of no-nonsense officers as they deal with the crime and corruption of a seedy area of the city.

Cast: Jon Tenney (Sgt. Francis X. Donovan), James B. Sikking (Capt. Stan Jonas), Yancy Butler (Off. Anne Marie Kersey), Michael DeLuise (Off. Phil Roussakolff), Klea Scott (Off. Nona Valentine), Dylan Walsh (Off. Jimmy Doyle), Adam Rodriguez (Off. Hector Villanueva), Gary Basaraba (Sgt. Richard Santoro), Titus Welliver (Off. Jake Lowery).

1064 Brother Rat. (Experimental; Stage Play; NBC; 7/7/39). A television adaptation of the Broadway play by George Abbott. The story, set at a military academy, tells of Bing Edwards and a group of mischievous students (the title refers to a more or less affectionate student term).

Cast: Lyle Bettger (Bing Edwards), Marjorie Davies (Claire), Juliet Forbes (Joyce Winfree), Anne Franklin (Jenny), Frederic de Wilder (Mistole Button), James Corner (Harley), Tom Ewell (Dan Crawford).

1065 The Brotherhood. (Pilot; Drama; ABC; 1/2/91). As children brothers Nicholas and Salvatore witnessed the slaying of their father, a mafia leader, in a brutal shooting. The incident affected their lives and set each one on a different road: Salvatore has followed in his father's footsteps and become a Mafia Don; Nicholas has chosen the side of law and order and has become a N.Y.P.D. police captain. The unsold series was to depict the conflicts that exist between the two brothers.

Cast: Anthony LaPaglia (Nicholas Gennaro), Jeffrey Meek (Salvatore Gennaro), Rose Gregorio (Maria Gennaro), Teri Hatcher (Teresa Gennaro), Patrick Massett (Ian Geller), Richard C. Sarafain (Antoni Santangletta), Kimberly Foster (Carrie Embers), Rene Assa (Jilly), Jimmy Medina Taggart (Joey Piselli), Pamela Dillman (Irene Gennaro).

1066 The Brotherhood. (Series; Drama; Showtime; 2006). Tommy and Mike Caffee are brothers who live on two different sides of the law. Tommy is a politician (holds a seat in the Rhode Island House of Representatives); Mike is a gangster.

Tommy and Mike live in an area called "The Hill" of Providence. Tommy is a family man. He is married to Eileen and is the father of Rose, Lila and Nora. He (as well as Mike) grew up on the streets of the Hill. Tommy used his street smarts for good and now protects the Hill and its interests by any means necessary. Mike turned to a life of crime and is out to gain control of the Hill's underworld activities. Mike is ruthless and when he decides to get even with someone he plays all three—judge, jury and executioner. Caught in the middle of this is Rose Caffee, the brother's mother who is proud of both of her sons (she sort of turns a blind eye when it comes to Mike and his shady dealings).

Pete McGonigle is Mike's right hand man (his enforcer), a recovering alcoholic; Freddie Cork is the competing mob boss who is trying to oust Mike. Decian Giggs is the police detective out to end Mike's reign; Jimmy Martinson is Tommy's brother-in-law (married to his sister Mary Kate) who is also his political aide.

Cast: Jason Clarke (Tommy Caffee), Jason Isaacs (Michael Caffee), Annabeth Gish (Eileen Caffee), Fionnula Flannagan (Rose Caffee), Fiona Erickson (Mary Rose Caffee), Ethan Embry (Decian Giggs), Stivi Paskoski (Pete McGonigle), Kevin Chapman (Freddie Clark), Billy Smith (Moe Riley), Bates Wilder (Jimmy Martinson), Kerry O'Malley (Mary Kate Martinson), Madison Garland (Lila Caffee), Kaley Gilbert (Nora Caffee).

1067 The Brotherhood of Poland, New Hampshire. (Series; Drama; CBS; 2003). A heavily promoted by quickly cancelled (after five episodes) series about the people of Poland, a fictional town in New Hampshire.

Principal focus is on the three Shaw brothers: Hank, the sheriff; Garrett, the mayor; and Waylon, who is unemployed. As youngsters the Shaw brothers always stood up for right against wrong; now as adults they face the problems of a changing world. Stories focus on the brothers as they stick together to solve each other's problems as well as the problems faced by the people of a small community.

Cast: Randy Quaid (Hank Shaw), John Carroll Lynch (Garrett Shaw), Chris Penn (Waylon Shaw), Mare Winningham (Dottie Shaw), Ann Cusack (Julie Shaw), Elizabeth McGovern (Helen Shaw), Angela Goethals (Katie Shaw), Megan Henning (Monica Shaw), Robert Stanton (Dr. Patz), Elizabeth Sampson (Sharon Ropers), Larry Miller (Scott Haggis).

1068 Brotherly Love. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1996). Roman Customizing is a garage in Philadelphia that is owned by Claire Roman, a recent widow. She has two sons, Matt and Andy, and a stepson, Joey, who is on the road competing in motorcycle races. When Joey receives word that his father has been killed in a racing cycle accident, Joey returns home to help Claire run the garage and keep the family business afloat.

Joey is a Triple A Junior Motor Cycle champion. His father's will left him one-quarter of the garage and he has future plans to start a motorcycle race team in Florida.

Other Regulars: Louise Davis, a pretty girl called Lou, who works as a mechanic at the garage; and Lloyd Burrell, Lou's assistant.

Cast: Joey Lawrence (Joey Roman), Melinda Culea (Claire Roman), Matt Lawrence (Matt Roman), Andy Lawrence (Andy Roman), Liz Vassey (Louise Davis), Michael McShane (Lloyd Burrell).

1069 The Brothers. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1956–1957). Inexperienced and desperately in need of money, brothers Harvey and Gilmore Box pool their resources and purchase a photography studio in San Francisco. Stories relate their misadventures as they attempt to succeed in the business world.

Marilee Dorf is Gilmore's girlfriend; Carl Dorf is Marilee's father; Barbara is Harvey's girlfriend (replaced later by Dr. Margaret Kleeb); Sam Box is Harvey and Gilmore's father, a retired sea captain; Barrington Steele is the playboy; Hazel is Harvey and Gilmore's married sister; Lester is Hazel's husband; Roscoe Blinder is Harvey's bowling chum.

Cast: Gale Gordon (Harvey Box), Bob Sweeney (Gilmore Box), Nancy Hadley (Marilee Dorf), Oliver Blake (Carl Dorf), Barbara Billingsley (Barbara), Ann Morriss (Dr. Margaret Kleeb), Howard McNear (Sam Box), Robin Hughes (Barrington Steele), Mary Lansing (Hazel), Rodney Bell (Lester), David Orick (Roscoe Blinder).

1070 Brothers. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 7/30/80). Michael and Allan Radford are brothers — one is Jewish, the other is Irish — who were adopted as infants but separated for most of their adult years. After 20 years of separation, Michael decides to become closer to Allan and moves from the Bronx, New York, to San Francisco and into Allan's spacious bachelor apartment. The unsold series was to relate the efforts of the two brothers to blend their clashing lifestyles.

Other Regulars: Sheri, Michael's wife; Horatio Beckett, owner of the law firm employing Allan; Rhonda, the law office receptionist; Ellen, Horatio's secretary; and Lee On Wong, owner of the Chinese grocery employing Michael.

Cast: Charles Levin (Michael Radford), James O'Sullivan (Allan Radford), Dori Brenner (Sheri Radford), Bobby Ramsen (Horatio Beckett), James Hong (Lee On Wong), Jeanetta Arnette (Rhonda), Chip Fields (Ellen). Guest Cast: Keye Luke (Mr. Hu), Frances Fong (Mother), Christina Wu (Daughter), Alvin Ing (Delivery man), Lang Yun (Arguing lady).

1071 Brothers. (Series; Comedy; Showtime; 1984). Incidents in the lives of three brothers: Lou Waters, the eldest, a father figure; Joe, the middle brother, a divorced father with a young daughter (Penny); and Cliff, the youngest brother, who is an admitted gay. The focal point of the series is the efforts of the three brothers to accept each other for what they are. The first series to openly deal with a gay character. Lou is a construction worker. Joe is a pro football player who also owns a restaurant; Cliff revealed that he was gay on his wedding day and walked out of the ceremony. Penny is Joe's teenage daughter; Donald is Lou's friend; Kelly is the bar maid at Joe's Restaurant.

Cast: Paul Regina (Cliff Waters), Robert Walden (Joe Waters), Brandon Maggart (Lou Waters), Hallie Todd (Penny Waters), Robin Riker (Kelly), Philip Charles MacKenzie (Donald Maltby), Mary Ann Pascal (Samantha Waters), Robin Riker (Kelly), Yeardley Smith (Louella). Theme Music: "Brothers" by Gloria Nissenson, Marcus Baron, Joe Diamond.

1072 Brothers and Sisters. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1979). The Larry Krاندall College is the setting for a series that focuses on the madcap high jinks between the members of the Pi Nu Fraternity and its sister sorority, Gamma Delta Iota. Larry Krاندall is the Dean; Suzi, Mary Lee, Isabel, Margie and Yoko are the Gamma Delta girls; Checko, Stanley, Ronald, Harlan and Seymour are the boys of Pi Nu. Trying to keep the Pi Nu boys in line is Hattie, their housemother.

Cast: William Windom (Larry Krاندall), Mary Crosby (Suzi Cooper), Amy Johnston (Mary Lee), Susan Gotton (Isabel), Jana Hill (Margie), Marilyn Tokuda (Yoko), Christopher Lemmon (Checko Sabolick), Jon Cutler (Stanley Zipper), Randy Brooks (Ronald Holmes), Larry Anderson (Harlan Ramsey), Roy Teicher (Seymour), LaWanda Page (Hattie).

1073 Brothers and Sisters. (Series; Drama; ABC; 2006–). Ojai Food Company is a family run food distribution business owned by the Walker family in Los Angeles. William Walker is the head of the company. He is married to Nora. They are the parents of Kitty, Sarah, Thomas, Justin and Kevin. Each family member has their issues with the world and each other and in soap opera–like fashion — from unhappy marriages, financial woes to unfulfilled dreams and even unfaithfulness (on the part of William) — the saga of the Walker family is presented.

The story begins with Kitty Walker, an outspoken political conservative returning to California after being estranged from the family for three years to appear on a TV talk show to discuss her political views (she has become famous for her stand — "Tough on Crime, Big on Defense, America First"; Kevin calls her "Mistress of the Airwaves").

Nora, her mother, holds Kitty responsible for Justin's predicament. She suggested he join the Army — and he did. In time he was sent to Afghanistan and is now a traumatized vet (the incident that caused the friction between Nora and Kitty). It is during Kitty's visit that William suffers a fatal heart attack and the personal crises of the family members unfold (they each work for the food company, including their uncle, Sol). Betty Buckley played the part of Nora in the unaired pilot film version of the series.

Cast: Sally Field (Nora Walker), Calista Flockhart (Kitty Walker), Dave Annable (Justin Walker), Balthazar Getty (Tommy Walker), Matthew Rhys (Kevin Walker), Sarah Jane Morris (Julia Walker), Rachel Griffiths (Sarah Whedon), John Pyper-Ferguson (Joe Whedon), Ron Rifkin (Saul Holden), Patricia Wettig (Holly Harper), Josh Hopkins (Warren Salter), Kerris Dorsey (Paige Whedon), David Burke (Jack Bishop), Rob Lowe (Robert McCallister), Tom Skerritt (William Walker), Jay Huguley (Whit Peyton), Luke MacFalane (Scotty Wandell), Treat Williams (David Morton), Keri Lynn Pratt (Amber Trachtenberg).

1074 The Brothers Bennett. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 7/22/87). Following his divorce, Richard Bennett, a successful businessman, moves in with his carefree bachelor brother, Tom, a hustler who will do anything for a buck. The unsold series was to relate their misadventures as they attempt to live together.

Other Regulars: Denise, Tom's neighbor; Shirley and Manny, Tom and Richard's parents; Natasha, the airline stewardess; and Mike, the janitor.

Cast: George Clooney (Tom Bennett), Richard Kind (Richard Bennett), Dorothy Parke (Denise Armstrong), Peggy Pope (Shirley Bennett), Alan North (Manny Bennett), Rosalind Ingledeew (Natasha), Robert Costanzo (Mike).

1075 The Brothers Brannagan. (Series; Crime Drama; Syn.; 1960). Brannagan and Brannagan is a Phoenix, Arizona-based private detective agency owned by Bob and Mike Brannagan, brothers who are as different as night and day. The agency is located at 72 Kato Avenue and the brothers do agree on one thing: "We're great detectives," says Bob. People claim the brothers have good deductive powers and are hired by clients who do not want to involve the police in a matter.

Although Bob and Mike try to do things in a non-violent way, the situations in which they become involved often call for fists or gunplay. Bob appears to be the more intellectual of the two. He sets the pace for each case.

He scrutinizes the clues before acting and hopes the impetuous Mike will follow his game plan. If plans are followed, Mike usually stays behind as the backup while Bob probes the situation. While both Brannagans have an eye for the ladies, it is Mike who is the most romantic and more often the one who gets his face slapped by a girl he is trying to impress. He has a little black book that appears to be filled with pick up lines and sweet snatches of poetry rather than addresses. Mike has all the wise cracks (people often say, "I hope your brother here is a straight man") while Bob tries his best to read suspects and outwit them. Bob tries to be more like himself (laidback) while Mike puts on airs to impress people. The series is filmed on location in Arizona and does encompass a great deal of outdoor filming.

Sally Ross is the Brannagans' secretary. Alexander Courage composed the theme "Hey Brannagan."

Cast: Mark Roberts (Bob Brannigan), Steve Dunne (Mike Brannigan), Rebecca Wells (Sally Ross).

1076 The Brothers Garcia. (Series; Comedy; Nickelodeon; 2000). A coming of age series about three Latino brothers, Larry (age 11), Carl (13) and George (12) growing up in San Antonio, Texas.

George, the smartest of the children, has a fraternal twin sister named Lorena, who, being the only girl, steals all the attention from her brothers, especially George. Ray is their hard-working father and Sonia is their frugal, caring mother. Stories are narrated by an adult Larry Garcia as he recalls the good and the bad times with family and friends.

Cast: Alvin Alvarez (Larry Garcia), Ada Maris (Sonia Garcia), Carlos Lacamera (Ray Garcia), Bobby Gonzalez (George Garcia), Jeffrey Licon (Carlos Garcia), Vabeza Leza Pitynoski (Lorena Garcia), Natalie Ameuula (Christina Conterra), Eddie Martin (Little Ed), Mandy Cornelli (Sasha Anderson), John Lequizamo (Narrator).

1077 Brothers-in-Law. (Pilot; Adventure; ABC; 4/28/85). A proposed series about Thomas Alvin "T.K." Kenny and Michael Allen "Mickey" Gubiacci, quarrelsome brothers-in-law who become Situation Salvage Experts (help people in trouble; accept a percentage of what they recover) when their marriages (to twin sisters) end in divorce.

The pilot episode relates how T.K., a former highway patrolman, and Mickey, a trucker, become partners: When Winston Goodhue, their mutual father-in-law, decides they are not good enough for his two beautiful daughters (Deborah and Gail), he uses considerable influence to make life miserable for them — until they agree to annulments. With their former businesses ruined, they first team up to battle Winston, who is trying to force a young woman and her father off their beachfront property.

Cast: Mac Davis (T.K. Kenny), Joe Cortese (Mickey Gubiacci). Guest Cast: Robert Culp (Winston Goodhue), Candi Brough (Deborah Goodhue), Randi Brough (Gail Goodhue), Daphne Ashbrook (Barbara Jean Oliver), Dennis Burkley (Frank Lupo), Frank McCarthy (Darcy), Gerald S. O'Loughlin (Bud Oliver), Randolph Powell (David Delorian), John Saxon (Royal Crane).

1078 Brother's Keeper. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1998–1999). The Emperor Security System protects the house at 625 Sutton Place in San Francisco. Porter Waide, a college history professor, his son Oscar, and Porter's brother, Bobby, reside there.

Porter is a straight-laced, upright single father struggling to raise Oscar as best he can. Bobby is somewhat of a dim wit, a pro-football player (“The Kicking Superstar”) who hopes to one day open a sports bar. Stories follow Porter as he not only cares for Oscar, but for Bobby, an athlete who has no goals and has no idea what to do with his life. In college Porter hosted a classical music program on the college’s radio station. Bobby believes having a sixth finger on each hand “would be cool” and he also hosts a radio program called “Sports Talk Radio” on KTMZ (although Bobby admits he knows nothing about sports). He appeared on the cover of Sports Illustrated six times.

Other Regulars: Dena, Bobby’s agent.

Cast: William Ragsdale (Porter Waide), Sean O’Bryan (Bobby Waide), Justin Cooper (Oscar Waide), Bess Meyer (Dean Draeger).

1079 Brown Sugar. (Series; Documentary; PBS; 1986). A well produced series that recalls, via rare film clips, stills and photographs, the personal and professional lives of black female entertainers.

Host: Billy Dee Williams.

1080 Bruce Forsyth’s Hot Streak. (Series; Game; ABC; 1986). Two five-member teams compete. One member of each team is given a specific word. Like in the game of “Password,” the other team member must get his partner to identify the word through indirect clues. Each correct association scores the team one point. The team with the highest score is the winner.

Host: Bruce Forsyth. Announcer: Gene Wood.

1081 Bruno the Kid. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1996–1997). Actor Bruce Willis has the nickname Bruno. This animated series presents him as an eleven-year-old child (characterized by a large and prematurely balding head) who also happens to be a super secret agent for Globe, a world-wide spy organization that battles the forces of evil. What Bruno’s superiors are not aware of is that Bruno is a kid; they believe he is an adult (when Bruno contacts Globe, he uses a computer generated picture of himself as a man who looks remarkably like Bruce Willis). Stories follow an eleven-year-old kid as he battles the forces of injustice.

Voice Cast: Bruce Willis (Bruno the Kid), Tony Jay (Agent Jarlesburg), Bronson Pinchot (Gen. Amando Castrato), Dawnn Lewis (Di Archer), Rene Auberjonois (Leonard DaLioguini), Jim Curry (Lazlo), Matt Frewer (Bobby Vicious), Edward Asner (Engineer).

1082 Bubsy. (Pilot; Cartoon; Fox; 12/26/93). The adventures of Bubsy, “a totally nuts” bobcat, and Arnold, his sidekick, a very cautious armadillo. In the pilot episode, titled “What Could Possibly Go Wrong,” Bubsy and Arnold try to protect Virgil Reality’s newest invention — a helmet that makes wishes come true — from Alley Cat, a feline who wants to rule the world.

Voices: Jim Cummings, Pat Fraley, Tress MacNeille, Rob Paulsen, Neil Ross, B.J. Ward.

1083 The Buccaneers. (Series; Adventure; CBS; 1956–1957). “Oh let’s go a roving and join the Buccaneers....” The Caribbean Colony of New Providence during the 1720s is the setting. Stories relate the exploits of Dan Tempest, a buccaneer, as he battles the injustices of Spanish rule. Dan’s ship is The Sultana.

Lieutenant Edward Beamish is the acting governor of New Providence; Woods Rogers is the governor. The series, which produced 26 episodes, ran from October 2, 1956 to September 7, 1957 and is also known as Dan Tempest.

Cast: Robert Shaw (Dan Tempest), Peter Hammond (Edward Beamish), Alec Clunes (Woods Rogers), Jane Griffiths (Paula Meadows), Robert Perceval (Sir Charles Johnson), Terrence Cooper (Blackbeard the Pirate), Brian Rawlinson (Gaff), Diana Potter (Bessie), Gillian Owen (Maria), Edwin Rishfeld (Armondo).

1084 Buchanan H.S. (Series; Comedy; Syn.; 1985–1986). The series is set at Buchanan High School and relates events in the lives of the staff members of The Bugle, the school newspaper, as they gather story material.

Nicki Peck is the editor; Luigi McNeil is the photographer; Clark Prescott is a teacher who is also the paper’s advisor; other students (staff members) are Eric, Jesse, Elena and Fritz.

Cast: Sherry Hursey (Nicki Peck), Ike Eisenmann (Luigi McNeil), Bruno Kirby (Clark Prescott), Al Eisenmann (Ernie Tuttle), Guy Kellum (Jesse), Kelly Minter (Elena), Grant Gottschall (Fritz Paulsen).

1085 Buck James. (Series; Drama; ABC; 1987–1988). Frank James, nicknamed “Buck,” is a no-nonsense surgeon and the head of the trauma center of Holloman Hospital, a large university hospital in Texas. Buck is divorced (from Jenny) and the father of Dinah and Clint. Buck is also the owner of the James Ranch and stories follow Buck’s battles at the hospital to treat patients the way he sees fit and at home, where he struggles to oversee the daily operations of a cattle ranch.

Other Regulars: Henry Carliner, the hospital head; Dr. Rebecca Meyer; Vittorio, Buck’s ranch foreman; and Helen Cavanaugh, Buck’s mother-in-law.

Cast: Dennis Weaver (Buck James), Shannon Wilcox (Jenny James), Elena Stiteler (Dinah James), Jon Maynard Pennell (Clint James), Alberta Watson (Dr. Rebecca Meyer), Dehl Berti (Vittorio), John Colium (Henry Carliner), Nan Martin (Helen Cavanaugh).

1086 Buck Owens TV Ranch. (Series; Variety; Syn.; 1968). The program, hosted by singer Buck Owens, features performances by country and western entertainers.

Host: Buck Owens. Regulars: Susan Raye, Merle Haggard, Kenni Husky, Tommy Collins, Mayfi Nutter, Buddy Alan, The Stamp Quartet. Music: The Buckaroos, The Bakersfield Brass.

1087 Buck Rogers in the 25th Century. (Series; Science Fiction; ABC; 1950–1951). In Pittsburgh in 1919, Buck Rogers, a young U.S. Air Corps veteran, begins surveying the lower levels of an abandoned mine. When the crumbling timbers give way, the roof from behind him caves in. Unable to escape, he is rendered unconscious by a peculiar gas that places him in a state of suspended animation.

As the earth shifts, fresh air enters and awakens Buck. Emerging from the cave he finds himself in a vast forest. Meeting Lieutenant Wilma Deering of the Space General's staff, he discovers that it is the year 2430 and the place is no longer Pittsburgh, but Niagara, America's capital. Buck joins with Wilma and stories depict his attempts to aid Wilma and the scientific genius, Dr. Huer, in their battle against evil. Based on the comic strip and radio series.

Cast: Kem Dibbs (Buck Rogers; 1950), Robert Pastene (Buck Rogers; 1951), Lou Prentis (Lt. Wilma Deering), Harry Southern (Dr. Huer), Harry Kingston (Black Barney Wade), Sanford Bickard (Also).

1088 Buck Rogers in the 25th Century. (Series; Science Fiction; NBC; 1979–1980). In the year 1987 Captain William "Buck" Rogers is chosen to pilot the Ranger III, the last of NASA's deep-space probes. The Ranger III is launched from the John F. Kennedy Space Center and appears to be a successful flight until cosmic forces cause a freak accident that freezes Buck's life support system and alters the craft's planned trajectory.

Ranger III is sent into an orbit a thousand times more vast and a perfect combination of gasses (oxygen, ozone and ethylene) instantaneously freeze and preserve Buck.

As Buck drifts through endless space, the Earth Buck knew will cease to exist. A futuristic holocaust ravages the planet and the Earth is now dependent upon trade with other planets for survival. People now live in cone-protected cities as the atmosphere still has traces of radiation from the holocaust.

New Chicago is now the capital of the United States and headquarters of the Earth Federation, the new system of government. It is now the year 2491. Dr. Elias Huer is head of the Earth Federation and Wilma Deering is commander of the Earth Defense Force, an organization that protects the planet from alien invaders. Princess Ardella of the planet Draconia, poses the biggest threat to the Earth. The Draconian Empire has conquered three-quarters of the universe and Ardella has plans to add Earth to that total.

After drifting in space for 504 years, the Ranger III is found by Ardella, commander of the king's flagship, the Draconia. Buck is taken to sick bay and revived, but not told about his fate. He believes he is still on Ranger III and having hallucinations. Ardella is on a supposed mission of peace to the Earth (to sign a trade agreement) and believes that Buck is an Earth Directorate spy. Rather than expose Buck and cause friction, Ardella allows Buck to leave (the Ranger III has been repaired and refueled).

The Ranger III soon comes within Earth Directorate air space and Delta Sector fighters are dispatched to intercept it. When Buck fails to comply with orders given by Colonel Wilma Deering, she takes control of his ship and guides it through the defense shield. Buck, still unaware of what has happened to him, now believes he has been captured by the Russians. Buck, called a "barbarian" by Wilma for defying her, is brought to Dr. Huer for interrogation. It is when Buck speaks to Dr. Theopolis, a member of the Computer Council that runs the Inner City, that he learns of his fate. Wilma believes Buck is a threat to their safety. Her mind is changed when Buck proves Ardella's supposedly unarmed ship is carrying weapons and helps Wilma foil Ardella's plans to conquer the Earth. Buck is assigned a silver ambuquid named Twiki to help him adjust to life in this new world.

Buck can't go back; his past is gone. He becomes a member of the Third Force of the Earth Directorate to help the Earth battle its enemies.

Princess Ardella, the daughter of King Draco the Conqueror (Joseph Wiseman) is the eldest of 29 children (all girls). Ardella measures 34-24-34 (by Buck's calculations) and is determined to become her own ruler. She wants to marry Buck "and begin a magnificent new dynasty" with him. Ardella is assisted by the evil Kane but was unable to complete her objectives due to a second season format change (that dropped Ardella, Kane and Dr. Huer). See the following title for information.

Glen A. Larson composed "The Theme from Buck Rogers: Suspension" (sung by Kipp Lennon in the pilot).

William Conard opens the show: "The year is 1987 and NASA launches the last of America's deep space probes. In a freak mishap, Ranger III and its captain, William "Buck" Rogers, are blown out of their trajectory and into an orbit which freezes his life support systems and returns Buck Rogers to Earth 500 years later."

Cast: Gil Gerard (Buck Rogers), Erin Gray (Lt. Wilma Deering), Tim O'Connor (Dr. Elias Huer), Felix Silla (Twiki), Mel Blanc (Voice of Twiki), Eric Server (Voice of Dr. Theopolis), Pamela Hensley

(Princess Ardella), Henry Silva (Kane), Michael Ansara (Kane; later), Duke Butler (Tigerman; Ardala's bodyguard), H.B. Haggerty (Tigerman; later).
Theme Narration: William Conrad.

1089 Buck Rogers in the 25th Century. (Series; Science Fiction; NBC; 1981). A revised version of the prior NBC title. The series continues to depict the adventures of Captain William "Buck" Rogers, the twentieth-century astronaut who was suspended in time to awaken 500 years later, as he explores the universe aboard the spaceship Searcher, seeking the lost tribes of Earth — survivors of a great holocaust that ravaged the world in the twenty-first century.

Colonel Wilma Deering is Buck's aide; Dr. Goodfellow is the ship's scientist; Admiral Efram Asimov (also called Isaac Asimov) is the ship's commander; Hawk is the man-bird alien ally; Koovi is Hawk's mate; Twiki is Buck's robot aide; Crichton is the robot who refuses to believe he is manmade.

Cast: Gil Gerard (Buck Rogers), Erin Gray (Col. Wilma Deering), Wilfrid Hyde-White (Dr. Goodfellow), Jay Garner (Admiral Asimov), Thom Christopher (Hawk), Barbara Luna (Koovi), Felix Silla (Twiki), Mel Blanc (Voice of Twiki), Jeff David (Voice of Crichton), Paul Carr (Lieutenant Devlin), Alex Hyde-White (Lieutenant Moore).

1090 Buckaroo 500. (Series; Children; Syn.; 1963). The program, set against the background of a western ranch, features entertainment acts geared to children.

Host: Buck Weaver.

1091 Buckshot. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 7/18/80). The program explores comedy via film clips of comedians at work. Also featured are skits by a group of repertoire players.

Hosts: Karen Breen, Ned Townsend. Regulars: Muffy Durham, Susan Elliot, Deborah Harmon, Paul Reubens, David Rupprecht, William Schallert, Nancy Steen.

1092 Buckskin. (Series; Western; NBC; 1958). Annie O'Connell is a widow and the mother of a young son (Jody). She is also the owner of the Buckskin Hotel in Buckskin, Montana, during the 1880s. Stories relate her attempts to provide a decent life for herself and Jody. Jody, seated atop a corral fence, plays his harmonica and narrates each story — stories of struggle in a lawless territory.

Tom Sellers is the town sheriff; Ben Newcombe is the schoolteacher.

Cast: Sallie Brophy (Annie O'Connell), Tommy Nolan (Jody O'Connell), Mike Road (Tom Sellers), Michael Lipton (Ben Newcombe).

1093 The Buckskin Kid. (Unaired Pilot; Western; Produced in 1952). An unusual pilot that, unfortunately, has no screen credits. The idea was to have a shoot 'em up western with children performing all the roles (with voice-over dubbing by adults). The would-be series was to follow the adventures of the Buckskin Kid, a "man" of action, and his sidekicks Hap (a ladies "man"), and Whopper (who doesn't lie, but has a knack for stretching the truth). In the pilot episode, Kid, Hap and Whopper help General Isle of the North Alaska Mounted Police, put down an Indian uprising when the Alaska Apaches go on the war path. (The Kid's horse is named Genius. All horses are toys — a plastic horse head on a long stick that the children pretend to ride.)

1094 Bucky and Pepito. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1959). The adventures shared by Bucky, a young boy who dresses like an Old West cowboy but doesn't really act like one, and Pepito, his friend, a young Mexican boy whose antics cause Bucky more problems than he can handle.

The setting appears to be New Mexico. Backgrounds are expertly drawn but the main characters are rather crudely sketched. Bucky is white; Pepito is a stereotyped Mexican. This all combined to make fans of animated series call Bucky and Pepito "The worst cartoon series ever to appear on American TV."

Voice Cast: Dallas McKennon (Bucky), Dallas McKennon (Pepito).

1095 Bucky O'Hare and the Toad Wars. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1991). Aniverse is a planet where animals rule. The citizens lived in peace until Komplex, a computer affected by a virus, "goes insane" and gains control over the minds of the toad population. The diabolical Toad Menace is now threatening the planet. The planet's sole protection organization S.P.A.C.E. goes into action and appoints Bucky O'Hare (a rabbit) to captain its only ship, The Righteous Indignation and battle the toads. During one such battle, the ship's photon accelerator malfunctions and opens a dimensional portal. The portal leads to Earth and the room of an engineering genius boy named Willy DuWitt. When Willy learns about Bucky's dilemma, he repairs the ship and joins him in his plight. Stories depict Willy's efforts to help Bucky defeat the Toad Menace.

Voice Cast: Doug Parker (Bucky O'Hare), Shane Meier (Willy DuWitt), Gary Chalk (Al Negator), Margot Pinvidic (Pilot Jenny), Dale Wilson (Bruiser), Richard Newman (Komplex), Scott McNeil (Dead-eye Duck), Terry Klassen (Blinky), Long John Baldry (Toad Air Marshal).

1096 Buddies. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 7/14/93). Ritch Dubin and Duke Porter have been friends since childhood. Ritch is married (to Jeannie) and lives at 6307 Beachwood Street in Pittsburgh. He works at Mac's Hoagie (a hero sandwich fast food store). Duke is single and an inventor (he has created such things as Baby Dentures "so they won't have to eat strained foods" and "the fridge in the couch for TV addicts"). The unsold series was to relate their misadventures.

In the pilot episode, Jeannie feels it is time to turn their den into a nursery for their infant daughter, Lilly. Ritch and Duke feel they will be losing their "hangout" (they watch "Monday Night Football" together) and scheme to find an alternative (but can't and eventually give into Jeannie; the garage becomes their new hangout).

Other Regulars: Maggie, Ritch's sister; Moe, the owner of Moe's Hoagie; and Zack, Moe's delivery boy.

Cast: Ritch Shydner (Ritch Dubin), Rick Ducommun (Duke Porter), Jayne Atkinson (Jeannie Dubin), Julie Hayden (Maggie), David Margulies (Moe), David Tom (Zack).

1097 Buddies. (Unaired Series; Comedy; Produced for ABC in 1995). A proposed spin-off from Home Improvement about two friends (Dave and Jim) who run a modest film and video production company in Detroit. The pilot episode, titled "Talk to Me," aired on Home Improvement on March 14, 1995, and the series, first called Take Two then Buddies was set to air on April 18, 1995. (It was listed in TV Guide but pulled by ABC at the last minute to allow producers the opportunity to rework the format.)

Cast: Dave Chappelle (Dave), Jim Breuer (Jim), Ari Meyers (Lorraine), Tanya Wright (Phyllis), Judith Ivey (Maureen).

1098 Buddy Faro. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 1998). Buddy Faro was said to be the best private detective in the business. He knows everything about finding missing people. He invented modern detective techniques in the 1960s and even wrote a book called I, Private Eye. His methods were copied by everyone. In 1978, a case went bad and Buddy skipped town. The legend was gone, but the man embarked on a twenty year drinking binge in the hope of forgetting his past.

In 1998, Buddy is found by novice private detective Bob Jones in a Mexican gutter and brought back to Los Angeles to clean up his act. Now sober, Buddy joins forces with Bob and they establish "Buddy Faro Investigations — and Bob Jones" on the Sunset Strip. Bob was hired by Buddy's niece to find him when he inherited a large sum of money.

Buddy has been out of touch with reality and is culturally displaced. For example, he is unaware of the O.J. Simpson murder trial; he still looks for the long cancelled Tonight Show Starring Johnny Carson on late night TV.

Buddy is tough when he has to be and often disputes what people say about him — "I get the job done, but I'm not the sharpest knife in the drawer." Buddy has style and knows how to sell himself. He attributes this to his success.

But he also has several problems. He drinks and becomes depressed if he can't solve a case. The Neon Martini is his favorite bar. Bob, who previously ran AAAA Investigations, is not as forceful as Buddy and prefers to rely on his wits rather than his fists.

Cast: Dennis Farina (Buddy Farrow), Frank Whaley (Bob Jones).

1099 Budgie the Little Helicopter. (Series; Cartoon; Fox; 1994). Budgie is a small talking helicopter that "lives" at Harefield Airport. Stories, based on the characters created by Fergie, the Duchess of York, relate Budgie's misadventures in an around the airport (mostly with Pippa, a small airplane; Chuck, a rooster helicopter; and Lionel, the dispatcher).

Voices: Pippa Haywood, Ray Lonnen, Jeremy Nichols, Jeff Rawle, Kerry Shale, William Vanderpuye.

1100 Buffalo Bill. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1983–1984). Bill Bittering is the egotistical, sharp-tongued host of The Buffalo Bill Show, a talk show on WBFL-TV, Channel 12, in Buffalo, New York. Bill believes acting the way he does, including being rude and mean to guests, is what the networks are looking for. He has a dream to become the host of a big city talk show and stories follow Bill as he goes about all the wrong ways to achieve that dream.

Joanna "Jo Jo" White is the director; Woody is the mousy stage manager; Karl Shub is the station manager; Wendy is Bill's research assistant; Tony is the assistant director; Newdell is the makeup man; Melanie Wayne is Bill's daughter; Stan is the sound man; Hayden Stone is the station owner; Naomi Stone is Hayden's wife; Katherine is Karl's wife; Karl, Jr. is Karl's son; and Tracy is Karl's daughter.

Cast: Dabney Coleman (Bill Bittering), Joanna Cassidy (Joanna "Jo Jo" White), John Fiedler (Woody Deschler), Max Wright (Karl Shub), Geena Davis (Wendy Killian), Meshach Taylor (Tony), Charles Robinson (Newdell Spriggs), Pippa Pearthree (Melanie Wayne), Claude Earl Jones (Stan), Martin Landau (Hayden Stone), Janet Adams (Naomi Stone), Susan Ruttan (Katherine Shub), Sam Whipple (Karl Shub, Jr.), Leighton Greer (Tracy Shub).

1101 Buffalo Bill, Jr. (Series; Western; Syn.; 1955). Following an Indian attack on a wagon train, Judge Ben Wiley finds two survivors, a young boy and his sister, wandering through the desolate Black Hills. The judge takes the children under his wing and brings them to Wileyville, the Texas town he founded.

"I was carrying my sister in a buffalo robe, so the judge named me Buffalo Bill, Jr. He called my mischievous sister Calamity." It is 1891 when the series begins. Bill is the town's deputy marshal. He idolizes the real William ("Buffalo Bill") Cody and dresses like him. He can trick ride and trick shoot and lives by what the judge taught him: "You can't make yourself a big man by standing in the shadow of another man." Bill rides a horse named Chief.

Calamity, named after Calamity Jane, the tomboyish woman of the Old West who earned a living as a stagecoach driver, works in the Wileyville General Store. She considers herself a preteen law enforcer and strives to help Bill. "I'm goin' with you, Bill," she says when trouble is brewing. "Oh, no, you're not," says Bill. "There might be trouble, besides—" Calamity interrupts: "I know the two reasons—first I'll get in your hair, and girls belong at home." Before Bill rides off, he usually says something like "Go home and bake a cherry pie, Calamity." Calamity's disobedience most often pays off when she saves the day for Bill.

The judge is called Ben ("Fair 'n' Square") Wiley. He charges two dollars for legal advice, runs the barbershop (two bits for a shave), is the owner of the general store (which doubles as his courtroom), is the town doctor, sheriff and blacksmith.

The Dobson Stage Lines services "the One Horse Burg" (what outlaws call Wileyville); Mesquite Canyon is just outside of town; Larry is the telegraph operator.

Carl Cotner composed the theme: "...Now with his horse and with his guns, he's not afraid of anyone, 'cause no one's quicker on the draw or quicker to defend the law—he's the son of a son of a gun, Buffalo Bill, Jr."

Cast: Dick Jones (Buffalo Bill, Jr.), Nancy Gilbert (Calamity), Harry Cheshire (Judge Ben Wiley), James Best (Larry).

1102 The Buffalo Billy Show. (Series; Children; CBS; 1950–1951). A puppet series about Buffalo Billy, a young adventurer, as he journeys west with a wagon train. Other characters include Ima Hogg, Billy's aunt; Pop Gunn, an Indian fighter; Blunderhead, Billy's horse; and Dilly, the armadillo. The series aired from October 22, 1950 to January 14, 1951.

Voices: Don Messick, Joan Gardner, Don Gardner, Bob Clampett, Walker Edmiston, Chris Allen.

1103 The Buffalo Soldiers. (Pilot; Western; NBC; 5/26/79). The post–Civil War West of the 1860s is the setting for an unsold series about the adventures of the U.S. Army's 10th Cavalry, a mostly black unit that has been nicknamed "The Buffalo Soldiers" for the harsh assignments they undertake (to keep the peace with the Apache and Comanche Indians during the construction of the Texas Railroad).

Cast: John Beck (Colonel Frank "Buckshot" O'Connor), Stan Shaw (Sergeant Joshua Haywood), Richard Lawson (Caleb Holiday, the scout), Hilly Hicks (Private Willie), Ralph Wilcox (Private Oakley), Charles Robinson (Private Wright). Guest Cast: Angel Thompkins and Marla Pennington (Girls), L.Q. Jones and Don Knight (Renegades).

1104 Buffy the Vampire Slayer. (Series; Drama; WB; UPN; 1997–2003). Buffy Anne Summers is a gorgeous 16-year-old sophomore at Sunnydale High School in California. She lives with her mother, Joyce at 1630 Rubella Drive in Sunnydale. Buffy is "The Chosen One," the one girl in all the world with the power to slay vampires and other evil creatures. It is when Buffy turns 16 that she discovers she is "The Slayer" and the latest in a long line of female avengers fate has chosen to protect the people of her generation from evil.

By day Buffy is a student (although she does not live up to her potential); by night she patrols as the Slayer, a martial arts expert with superhuman strength who disposes of evil wherever she finds it (particularly vampires, which she kills by plunging a stake into their hearts or with an arrow from her crossbow).

Sunnydale, which is two miles from Los Angeles, is a Hellmouth, a mystical portal that attracts evil. Guiding Buffy is her Watcher, Rupert Giles, a man who has been chosen to help a Slayer defeat whatever evil a Hellmouth dispenses. Giles, who works as the school's librarian, is from a long line of Watchers (his father and grandfather were both Watchers) and relies on the prophecies of ancient books and writings to determine how to defeat evil (his most important book is the Codex, a text of prophecies concerning the Slayer). Giles can speak five languages and previously worked at the British Museum.

Joyce is at first unaware of Buffy's activities as the Slayer. Joyce is single and divorced from Hank (Dean Butler). She runs an art gallery and only accepted Buffy's secret life after she inadvertently invited a vampire into her home and witnessed Buffy's slaying of it (a vampire can only enter a home if it is invited in). Joyce later dies (2001) from a post-complication after an operation to remove a brain tumor.

Willow Rosenberg and Alexander "Xander" Harris became Buffy's allies in the fight against Hellmouth.

Willow is a pretty computer whiz who helps Giles search through the volumes of lore for answers on how to battle demons. She is shy and sensitive and has feelings for Xander but knows they will never be more than just friends (which they have been since childhood). Willow later discovers she has the powers of an apprentice witch (third season) and in the episode of May 5, 2000, Willow professes that she is a lesbian. She bonds with Tara, a lesbian who is also a witch, and together their developing powers prove beneficial to Buffy.

Xander is an only child and comes from a family of blue collar workers. He is sensitive but hides those feelings with a jovial outlook on life. He dates Anya, an 1100-year-old former demon who is now trying to adjust to being mortal.

Cordelia Chase is a fellow schoolmate of Buffy's and the kind of girl she might have been if she was not the Slayer. Cordelia, considered the most beautiful girl at Sunnydale High, only associates with the most popular girls. She was originally self-absorbed and self-obsessed and thought of Buffy as "that weird girl." This all changes when Buffy saves Cordelia from an invisible female demon who sought to disfigure her. Cordelia then becomes part of Buffy's circle. See Angel for additional information on Cordelia.

Buffy and her friends hang out at the Bronze (later the Grotto), a nightclub for teenagers. Buffy's weakness is her inability to leave anyone behind — even if it means risking her own life. Buffy calls a new grouping of vampires "a fang club."

On October 5, 1999, Buffy begins a new life at the University of Sunnydale (she occupies dorm room 214 in Stevenson Hall). Willow shares room 217 with Tara; Xander chose not to attend college. He becomes a carpenter and works at various construction sites. It was at this time that Giles also found a new calling — as owner of the Magic Box at 1524 Maple Court, a store that deals in the occult. It also becomes the new hangout for Buffy, Willow, Tara, Xander and Anya.

Buffy was first romantically involved with Angel, a vampire who helped her defeat evil (see Angel for more information). She next falls for Riley Finn, a member of the Initiative, a government organization that hunts vampires and demons. In the episode of 2/8/00, Buffy joins the Initiative and becomes part of Riley's Alpha Team. Shortly after, Buffy discovers the real purpose of the Initiative: to create demons so their energy can be used by the military. Buffy and Riley's relationship ends when Buffy destroys the Initiative and Riley is recalled by the military.

William the Bloody is a vicious vampire known as Spike (for his habit of torturing people with railroad spikes). He is an escapee of the Initiative (called Hostile 17) who now helps Buffy "out of the evilness of my heart" (he was captured by Riley and a chip implanted in his brain to make him incapable of feeding on humans). Spike originally came to Sunnydale with Drusilla, a beautiful vampire who is suffering from a mental disease (she was driven to madness by Angel — who killed her family for fun and turned her into a vampire). Spike and Drusilla lived in Prague and Spike now hopes the Hellmouth will provide a cure for Drusilla. Spike has already killed two Slayers and planned to make Buffy the third. Drusilla is not only evil but she is insane and it was she who turned Spike into a vampire moments after meeting him a hundred years ago.

The Master was the first real demon Buffy faced. He is the oldest and most powerful vampire the world has ever known. He is determined to destroy mankind and reclaim the earth for his people, "The Old Ones." The Master has been imprisoned in a mystical portal beneath Sunnydale by an earthquake and needs to open the Hellmouth to achieve his goal.

He attempts to do this through human sacrifice and ancient prophecies but is killed by Buffy in a violent confrontation shortly after he manages to escape.

Darla is the vampire who bit Angel and turned him into a creature of the undead. She and Angel ravaged Europe, leaving a trail of death and horror (Darla seduces her victims by wearing a seductive Catholic school girl uniform). She is now seeking to kill Buffy and win back Angel (by turning him into evil once again).

Dawn Summers is Buffy's 14-year-old sister. She mysteriously appeared as a member of the family beginning in 2000. She is actually the Key, an unknown power source that operates beyond a normal reality.

The Key is old and its origins are unknown. The Key was found by the monks of the Byzantium Order who thought they could harness its power for good. For centuries the monks guarded the Key — until an evil goddess named Glory sought it. To protect the Key, the monks transformed that power into human form — as a sister for Buffy to protect. Dawn's energy made her appear that she has always been a part of Buffy's family.

At first Dawn is unaware that she is the Key. She often wonders "who or what am I" and keeps a diary. She believes Buffy thinks of her as "a dumb little sister" and "Little Miss Nobody." "It doesn't matter where you came from or how you got here, you're my sister and I love you," says Buffy.

Dawn learns she is the Key when Glory finds her and tells her. Buffy has never feared a foe — until Glory. Glory is actually Glorificus, a beast that was banished from Hell. She seeks the Key to become all powerful and return to Hell. To achieve her goal, Glory must bleed the Key at a specific time in a specific place. Once Dawn's blood is spilled, the portal to her world will open and all dimensions will collide creating unrelenting havoc on earth ("Blood flows, the gates will open; blood flows no more, the gates will close" — when Dawn is dead).

The monks made Dawn out of Buffy. With that knowledge, a finale was filmed for the WB that changed when the series moved to UPN. In an attempt to save Dawn, who was captured and is about to be bled by Glory, Buffy and Glory engage in a fierce battle. With the help of Willow's powers, Buffy defeats Glory—but not before Dawn is slashed across the stomach. As Dawn's blood drips from her body, a portal is opened and evil is unleashed on the earth. Dawn is about to sacrifice herself to save the world when Buffy stops her—"I'm part of you. My blood is on your blood." Buffy jumps into the portal of energy and reverses the ritual. Buffy is next seen lying on the ground (apparently dead).

At this point, the WB had been expected to renew the series. Two final scenes are shown: a gravestone with Buffy's name on it and Willow in Los Angeles waiting in an office to see Angel. When Angel enters and sees Willow with tears in her eyes, the screen goes to black. That was on May 22, 2001. When the episode was repeated (July 26), the scene with Willow and Angel was cut as UPN had acquired the series and a proposed crossover of series (Buffy and Angel) was now not possible.

Dawn is no longer the Key. Buffy's sacrifice has given her human life. She is now cared for by Willow and Tara (with the help of Spike, Xander and Anya).

Buffy did not die of natural causes. She died by mystical energy. Willow believes that her soul, her essence, could be someplace else and that she can raise her from the dead. In a midnight ceremony, Willow, Tara, Xander and Anya perform a ritual before Buffy's grave that restores her life.

Dawn, who attends Sunnydale High School, and Tara now assist Giles in doing research on demons (Dawn is determined to learn everything she can about them). Stories follow the group's battle against demons. The band Nerf Herder performs "Buffy's Theme." The program opens with these words: "As long as there have been demons, there has been the Slayer. One girl in all the world, a Chosen One, born with the strength and skill to hunt vampires and other deadly creatures, to stop the spread of their evil. When one Slayer dies, the next is called and trained by the Watcher."

Cast: Sarah Michelle Gellar (Buffy Summers), Kristine Sutherland (Joyce Summers), Michelle Trachtenberg (Dawn Summers), Anthony Stewart Head (Rupert Giles), Alyson Hannigan (Willow Rosenberg), Nicholas Brandon (Xander Harris), Amber Benson (Tara), Charisma Carpenter (Cordelia Chase), Emma Caulfield (Anya), James Marsters (Spike), Marc Blucas (Riley Finn), David Boreanaz (Angel), Mark Metcalf (The Master), Julie Benz (Darla), Clare Kramer (Glory), Janet Landau (Drusilla).

1105 Buford and the Ghost. (Series; Cartoon; NBC; 1979). A series composed of two animated segments. The first segment, Buford, relates the crime-solving exploits of Buford the Bloodhound and his two human assistants, Cindy Mae and Woody. The second segment, The Galloping Ghost, focuses on Nugget Nose, the ghost of an Old West prospector who haunts a dude ranch in modern times. Fenwick Fuddy owns the ranch; he is assisted by Wendy and Rita.

Voice Cast: Frank Welker (Buford), Pat Parris (Cindy Mae), Henry Corden (Sheriff), David Landsberg (Woody), Frank Welker (Nugget Nose), Hal Peary (Fenwick Fuddy), Marilyn Schreffler (Wendy), Pat Parris (Rita).

1106 The Bugaloos. (Series; Children; NBC; 1970–1972). Harmony, Joy, Courage and I.Q. are four human-formed, British sounding insects (the Bugaloos) who live in Tranquility Forest. Benita Bizarre is an evil being who detests the tranquility of the forest and more importantly, the Bugaloos, who seek to maintain the harmony and joy of the forest. The series relates Benita's endless (and fruitless) attempts to rid the forest of the Bugaloos and rule it for her own diabolical means. Sparky is the firefly that helps the Bugaloos; Tweeter and Woofer are Benita's fumbling aides; Flunky Rat is Benita's chauffeur. Characters are the creations of Sid and Marty Krofft.

Cast: Martha Raye (Benita Bizarre), Caroline Ellis (Joy), Wayne Laryea (Harmony), John Philpott (Courage), John McIndoe (I.Q.), Billy Barty (Sparky), Van Snowden (Tweeter), Joy Campbell (Woofer), Sharon Baird (Flunky Rat), Walker Edmiston (Voice), Joan Gerber (Voice).

1107 The Bugs Bunny/Road Runner Show. (Series; Cartoon; CBS; 1968–1971). The overall title for various Warner Bros. Cartoons, including Bugs Bunny, The Road Runner, Sylvester and Tweety, Pepe Le Pew, Foghorn Leghorn, Daffy Duck and Porky Pig.

Voices: Mel Blanc, June Foray.

1108 The Bugs Bunny Show. (Series; Cartoon; ABC; CBS; 1960–1975). The antics of Bugs Bunny, a rabbit who excels in causing misery to others. The series, which mixes old theatrical cartoons with new, made for television cartoons, also features segments devoted to The Road Runner and Sylvester the Cat. Other characters in the Bugs Bunny segments are Elmer Fudd and Yosemite Sam, two humans out to get "that darned rabbit." The series ran on ABC from October 11, 1960 to September 25, 1962; and on CBS from September 14, 1968 to August 30, 1975.

Voices: Mel Blanc.

1109 The Buick Circus Hour. (Series; Musical Drama; NBC; 1952–1953). The series, set against the background of a circus, tells the story of an aging clown and his attempts to help Kim O'Neill, a young singer who has just joined the troupe. The program also features musical numbers and circus variety acts. Presented every fourth week in place of Milton Berle's Texaco Star Theater. The series, sponsored by Buick automobiles, ran from October 7, 1952 to June 16, 1953.

Cast: Joe E. Brown (Clown), Dolores Gray (Kim O'Neill), Frank Gallop (Ringmaster), John Riatt, (Bill Southern; Kim's boyfriend). Announcer: Frank Gallop. Orchestra: Victor Young.

1110 The Buick Electra Playhouse. (Series; Anthology; CBS; 1959–1960). The overall title for four adaptations of stories by Ernest Hemingway. Sponsored by Buick automobiles.

1. The Killers (November 11, 1959) with Dean Stockwell, Dane Clark, Ray Walston, Richard Burton and Sally Ann Howes.

2. The Fifth Column (January 29, 1960) with Maximilian Schell, Robert Ryan, Ann Todd.

3. The Snows of Kilimanjaro (March 3, 1960) with James Gregory, Janice Rule, Eleanor Parker.

4. The Gambler (May 19, 1960) with Richard Conte, George Chandler, Charles Bickford.

1111 The Building. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1993). Apartment 5-B of a building across the street from the Wrigley Field Ball Park is the setting for a series about Bonnie Kennedy, a beautiful but insecure girl who leaves New York after a broken romance to begin a new life in Chicago. Bonnie is an actress (appeared in the Randolph Carpet TV commercial) and her misadventures with her friends (Holly, Brad, Ted and Stan) as well as her attempts to find work is the series' focal point.

Cast: Bonnie Hunt (Bonnie Kennedy), Holly Wortell (Holly), Don Lake (Brad), Richard Kuhlman (Ted), Tom Virtue (Stan Michaels).

1112 Built to Last. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1997). Royale Watkins is a young man with a dream: become a computer programmer. When he feels the time is right, Royale leaves home and begins his quest in Hollywood. A short time later Royale receives word that his father, Russell, has experienced a mild heart attack and requires his help in running the family's contracting business. Royale gives up his dream, returns home and takes over the business. Stories follow his experiences as he attempts to deal with the problems he encounters at home and at work. The series is based, in part, on the real life experiences of comedian Royale Watkins. Denise is Royale's mother; Tammy is his sister and Randall, Robert and Ryce are his brothers.

Cast: Royale Watkins (Royale Watkins), Paul Winfield (Russell Watkins), Denise Dowse (Sylvia Watkins), J. Lamont Pope (Randal Watkins), Geoffrey Owens (Robert Watkins), Jeremy Suarez (Ryce Watkins), Natalie Desselle (Tammy Watkins), Sanaa Latham (Toya).

1113 Bulba. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 8/3/81). Bulba is a tiny island in the Indian Ocean where the U.S. government has a newly established embassy. The unsold series was to follow the antics of its staff: Barbara Thatcher, the deputy chief; Jackson Conway and Charles Medwick, communications officers; Gary Holmes, chief of protocol; Holly Compton, the clerk; and Phil, the USMC corporal. The pilot episode depicts the frantic attempts of the staff members to discover the reason behind an unscheduled visit by Hampton Fraser, the Deputy Under Secretary of the U.S. (His reason: rest and relaxation; their belief: to make Bulba, the friendly nation whose name means "Floating Nose," a missile site.)

Other Regulars: H. Choi-oh Kavee, Bulba's prime minister; V. Ogelthorpe, the CIA agent; and the French spy.

Cast: Joyce Van Patten (Barbara Thatcher), Miles Chapin (Jackson Conway), Jeff Altman (Gary Holmes), Jo Jacobson (Holly Compton), Armin Shimerman (Charles Medwick), Roger Bowen (The U.S. Ambassador), Gregory Itzin (V. Ogelthorpe), Bill Hicks (Phil), Gailard Sartain (H. Choi-oh Kavee and the French spy). Guest Cast: Lyle Waggoner (Hampton Fraser), James Frawley (Man).

1114 Bulldog Drummond. (Pilot; Crime Drama; NBC; 1/28/57). A proposed series about Hugh "Bulldog" Drummond, a captain with London's New Scotland Yard. In the pilot episode, Bulldog helps Harriet Ludlow, an old friend whose husband, Felix, has been kidnapped after he developed a new drug that could be worth a fortune in royalties. Aired as "The Ludlow Affair" on Douglas Fairbanks, Jr. Presents.

Cast: Robert Beatty (Bulldog Drummond), Michael Ripper (Kelby, his butler). Guest Cast: Greta Gynt (Harriet Ludlow), Michael Anthony (Dr. Felix Ludlow), John Le Mesurier (Inspector Burroughs), Harry Lane (Kinsella), William Franklyn (Roger Benning).

1115 Bullseye. (Series; Game; Syn.; 1980–1982). Two players compete. One player pushes a button that stops three spinning wheels. The first two wheels reveal a category topic and a money amount; the third wheel reveals a number (1 through 5). The player chooses one of the two categories and must answer the number of questions dictated by the third wheel. Each correct response scores the player the specified money amount. When a contract has been completed (all the questions answered) a new round begins and the opponent receives a turn at play. The first player to score $2,000 is the winner and keeps what money he has accumulated.

In the revised version of the game, titled Celebrity Bullseye (1982) celebrity guests play the exact same game, but their winnings are donated to their favorite charities.

Host: Jim Lange. Announcer: Jay Stewart, Charlie O'Donnell.

1116 The Bullwinkle Show. (Series; Cartoon; ABC; 1964–1973). The overall title for a series of cartoons that ran from September 20, 1964 to September 2, 1973 and produced 78 episodes. A spin-off from Rocky and His Friends.

1. Rocky and Bullwinkle. The misadventures of Rocket J. Squirrel (Rocky) and his dim-witted and naïve friend Bullwinkle the Moose (also called Bullwinkle J. Moose), as they battle the evils of Boris Badenov, “International Bad Guy,” and his accomplice, the deadly Natasha Fatally. Narrated by Paul Frees.

2. Dudley Do-Right. The segment, set in Alberta, Canada, at the turn of the century, depicts the efforts of Dudley Do-Right, a simple-minded Royal Canadian Mounted Policeman, to apprehend the devious and diabolical Snidley Whiplash, a notorious criminal who is forever kidnapping Nell Fenwick, the daughter of Inspector Ray K. Fenwick. Narrated by William Conrad.

3. Peabody's Improbable History. The story of Mr. Peabody, an intelligent dog, and his friend Sherman (a boy) as they travel back in time (via their Way Back Machine) to help famous people achieve their fame.

4. Aesop's Fables. The wise philosopher Aesop's efforts to explain the aspects of a changing world to his impressionable son.

5. Fractured Fairy Tales. Satiric, modern adaptations of classic children's fables narrated by Edward Everett Horton.

Voice Cast: June Foray (Rocky the Flying Squirrel), Bill Scott (Bullwinkle the Moose), Paul Frees (Boris Badenov), June Foray (Natasha Fatally), Bill Scott (Dudley Do-Right), Hans Conried (Snidley Whiplash), Paul Frees (Inspector Ray K. Fenwick), June Foray (Nell Fenwick), Bill Scott (Mr. Peabody), June Foray (Sherman), Walter Tetley (Sherman; later), Charlie Ruggles (Aesop), Daws Butler (Aesop's son).

1117 Bump in the Night. (Series; Cartoon; ABC; 1994–1996). Bumpsted (also called Mr. Bumpy) is a small, green monster who lives under the bed of a character known only as “The Boy.” Bumpsted has two friends, Squishington and Molly Coddle. Squishington lives in the bathroom and Molly is the rag doll of the Boy's “Little Sister” (as she is called). Stories follow Bumpsted's various misadventures as he interacts with the Boy and battles the evils of the Closet Monster and Destructo (a toy robot) who seek to destroy Bumpsted.

Voice Cast: Jim Cummings (Mr. Bumpy/Destructo), Scott McAfee (The Boy), Anndi McAfee (Little Sister), Rob Paulsen (Squishington), Gail Matthius (Molly Coddle), Jim Cummings (Closet Monster), Elizabeth Daily (Germ Girl), Jeff Bennett (Gloog).

1118 Bumpers. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 5/16/77). A proposed series about Joey Webber, a car assembly line worker in Detroit, and his wife, Rozzie, and their efforts to survive the difficult first years of marriage. The pilot episode relates Joey's efforts to raise $600 to help put his wife through dental school. Other Regulars: Jennifer, Murphy, Andy and Jay, their friends.

Cast: Richard Masur (Joey Webber), Stephanie Faracy (Rozzie Webber), Jack Riley (Murphy), Michael McManus (Andy), Tim Reid (Jay), Zane Buzby (Jennifer). Guest Cast: Brian Dennehy (Ernie Stapp), Ray Buktenica (Mr. Dickey).

1119 Bunco. (Pilot; Crime Drama; NBC; 1/13/77). Ben Gordean, Ed Walker and Frankie Dawson are plainclothes police officers with the Bunco Squad Division of the L.A.P.D. The unsold series was to relate their efforts to beat swindlers at their own game. The pilot episode depicts their efforts to expose a ruthless swindler who operates a college for con artists.

Cast: Tom Selleck (Ben Gordean), Robert Urich (Ed Walker), Donna Mills (Frankie Dawson), Milt Kogan (Lieutenant Hyatt). Guest Cast: Michael Sacks (Dixon), Alan Feinstein (Sonny), Ken Mars (Bank manager), Arte Johnson (Yousha), Will Geer (Winky), Bobby Van (Victim), Dick Bakalyan (Henry Durand), Lucille Benson (Mrs. Gavilan).

1120 Bungle Abbey. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 5/31/81). Bungle Abbey is a San Fernando monastery for monks that was founded many years ago by a monk named Brother Bungle. It is currently inhabited by a group of zany monks with an order called Brothers of Benevolence Monks. The unsold series was to focus on the efforts of the head monk, the Abbott, to control his misadventure-prone brothers. In the pilot episode, the monks attempt to raise $5,000 to help the nearby children's orphanage by selling the valuable painting of Brother Bungle that hangs in the monastery.

Cast: Gale Gordon (The Abbott), Charlie Callas (Brother Charles), Guy Marks (Brother Hush), Graham Jarvis (Brother Virgil), Gino Conforti (Brother Gino), Peter Palmer (Brother Peter), Antony Alda (Brother Antony), William Lanteau (Edgar Forsyth; guest role).

1121 The Bureau. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 7/26/76). The Bureau is a unit of the federal government that is assigned all the cases no other agency has time to bother with. Peter Davlin is its chief and his efforts to control the antics of his staff is the focal point of the unsold series. The pilot episode relates Davlin's efforts to prove that his outfit is worthy of important cases by cracking an interstate hijacking operation.

Cast: Henry Gibson (Chief Peter Davlin), Barbara Rhoades (Agent Kate Peterson), Richard Gilliland

(Agent Paul Browning), Arnold Stang (Agent Charlie Sunglasses), Beeson Carroll (Agent "Combat" Cummings), John Lawlor (Agent Butterfield). Guest Cast: Dick Yarmy (Prentiss), Stanley Brock (Manny), Pearl Shear (Bus driver), Phil Leeds (Repairman).

1122 The Bureau. (Pilot; Crime Drama; ABC; 6/29/96). The Behavioral Sciences Unit in Quantico, Virginia, is an elite division of the FBI whose agents help various law enforcement organizations solve crimes. Its chief operatives are Annie Morrison and Nick Farrell. The pilot episode follows Annie and Nick when they are sent to New Mexico to investigate the case of a serial killer who chooses his victims for no apparent motive but leaves feathers from a white dove at the crime scene.

Cast: Andrea Roth (Annie Morrison), Adam Trese (Nick Farrell), Dan Hedaya (Norm Skeets; their superior), Michael Hamey (Agent Grant; guest role), Miguel Sandoval (Detective Raymon; guest role).

1123 Bureau of Alien Detectors. (Series; Cartoon; UPN; 1996). When Intergalactic beings institute a secret invasion of the Earth and assume human form to eventually take over the planet, a secret U.S. government organization called B.A.D. (the Bureau of Alien Detectors) is established to find, contain and control the extraterrestrials. Ben Packer, a war hero, is chosen to lead the group of specially trained agents: psychic Casey Taylor; life sciences expert Shane Sanderson; and alien specialist Mouse Trenggana. Stories follow the team as they secretly battle the invading aliens.

Voice Cast: Michael McConnohie (Ben Packer), Bree Anderson (Casey Taylor). Additional Voices: Tyrone Week, Sammy Lane, Reuben Daniels, Walter Rego, Peter Spellos.

1124 The Bureau of Missing Persons. (Experimental Series; Human Interest; DuMont; October 1943). On October 3, 1943, when "The Bureau of Missing Persons" premiered, the host, Captain John J. Cronin, head of the N.Y.P.D., said "Television may well be used to round up criminals." Forty-seven years later, when the Fox network aired the series "America's Most Wanted," his words rang true. But in 1943, it was only an experiment as the new medium was hampered by the war, a shortage of equipment and the scarcity of home receivers. Despite the problems, television showed the potential for what could be done. Here, Captain Cronin gave the name, age and description of a missing person. An accompanying photograph was telecast for two minutes and viewers were asked to call their local police precinct if they could help identify the televised subjects.

1125 Burke's Law. (Series; Crime Drama; ABC; 1963–1965). Amos Burke is a millionaire who is also a police captain with the Metropolitan Division of the L.A.P.D. Amos mentioned that he became rich through stock market investments and really doesn't need to work but does so because it gives him something he likes to do — solve crimes.

Amos lives in a mansion at 109 North Melbourne and uses his chauffeur driven Rolls Royce as his police car. Amos is a ladies' man and in virtually every episode he is seen entertaining a young lady when a call from headquarters comes in. His chauffeur, Henry, readies the car and, as he leaves his home for the scene of a crime, a very sexy female voice intones "It's Burke's Law" (after which the theme plays). Stories follow Amos as he and his assistants, Detectives Tillson and Lester Hart, investigate crimes. Herschel Burke Gilbert composed the theme. See also Amos Burke, Secret Agent, Amos Burke: Who Killed Julie Greer? and Burke's Law (1994; next title).

Cast: Gene Barry (Amos Burke), Gary Conway (Tim Tillson), Regis Toomey (Lester Hart), Leon Lontoc (Henry), Eileen O'Neill (Sergeant Ames).

1126 Burke's Law. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 1994). An update of the 1963 ABC series Burke's Law (see prior title). Amos Burke, the suave and sophisticated millionaire police captain is a bit older, a bit wiser and just as eager to solve crimes. Amos is now a police chief with the L.A.P.D. He still resides in his mansion at 109 Melbourne and still has his Rolls Royce (a Silver Ghost II). In the interim Amos had married and had a son (Peter). He lost his wife (Sarah), whom he met on the dance floor of the Coconut Grove Club, several years earlier. Peter, who is following in his father's footsteps, is a brilliant detective (Amos calls him "The Big Wonder" for his ability to perceive what others cannot).

Amos is a bit evasive as to how he acquired his wealth. He says, "My grandfather died and left me a fortune," but he also claims he dabbled in the stock market and invested in real estate.

Henry is Amos's chauffeur; Lilly Morgan is the forensics detective. The title refers to Amos's words of wisdom (for example, "Never make fun of an older woman — one day you'll be married to one. Burke's Law"; "Money is worthless unless you can enjoy it. Burke's Law"). John E. Davis composed the theme.

Cast: Gene Barry (Amos Burke), Peter Barton (Peter Burke), Bever-Leigh Banfield (Lily Morgan), Danny Kamekona (Henry).

1127 Burn Notice. (Series; Drama; USA; 2007). Michael Westen is a highly accomplished and regarded spy for the CIA — or at least he thought he was. While on assignment in Nigeria, he discovers that he is no longer recognized by his agency. He receives a burn notice (services no longer required) while on a dangerous undercover assignment. The mission goes sour but Michael manages to escape and returns to his hometown of Miami Beach, Florida. He looks up an old friend, the gorgeous Fiona (a former IRA operative) and finds that the CIA has, for reasons he can't figure out, frozen his bank accounts, cancelled his credit cards and refuses to acknowledge he even exists.

The series is set in Miami Beach "because it's his hometown and the Feds can easily keep tabs on his every move — and it's a great location for showing bikini clad babes with bouncing boobs running along the beach every two seconds." Other than watching the girls, Michael decides to do something constructive. He calls on an old agency contact (who, for some unknown reason, was not part of the conspiracy) and is told to look up a man named Sam, an alcoholic ex-military intelligence agent (and "ex-everything else" as he says). Sam has contacts (although he can't help Michael with his CIA problems) and sets him up as a private detective to solve the problems of people who cannot contact the police or have nowhere else to turn for help. Stories follow Michael as he tries to find out why he was given the burn notice and who is responsible for turning his life upside down. Michael also receives help on his cases from Sam and Fiona (who has a score to settle with Sam for bilking her out of money). Madeline is Michael's hypochondriac mother.

Cast: Jeffrey Donovan (Michael Westen), Gabrielle Anwar (Fiona), Bruce Campbell (Sam), Sharon Gless (Madeline).

1128 The Burning Zone. (Series; Science Fiction; UPN; 1996–1997). A dark science fiction series that appears to follow the work of Dr. Daniel Cassian and his team of medical experts as they perform a secret mission: investigate and prevent potential biological disasters. The team, however, is also tracking and attempting to destroy the forces behind an organization known only as The Dawn, aliens who consider the planet Earth an infestation and seek to destroy it.

Cast: Michael Harris (Dr. Daniel Cassian), Bradford Tatum (Dr. Brian Taft), Tamlyn Tomita (Dr. Kimberly Shiroma), Jeffrey Dean Morgan (Dr. Edward Marcuse), James Black (Agent Michael Hailey).

1129 Burns and Allen. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1950–1958). The shortened TV Guide title for The George Burns and Gracie Allen Show. See this title for information.

1130 The Burns and Schreiber Comedy Hour. (Series; Variety; ABC; 1973). A low key physical summer comedy series that spoofs everyday life with comedians Jack Burns and Avery Schreiber as the hosts. The series ran from June 30, 1973 to September 1, 1973. Bernie Brillstein and Bob Ellison are the producers.

Hosts: Jack Burns, Avery Schreiber. Regulars:

Teri Garr, Fred Willard, Gloria Mills, Pat Proft, Jacque Colton, True Boardman, Frank Welker, Frank Link, Robert Ito, Charles Guardino. Orchestra: Jack Elliott, Allyn Ferguson.

1131 Bus Stop. (Series; Drama; ABC; 1961–1962). Sunrise is a small town in Colorado. Miller's Hardware on Main Street sells, in addition to nails, hammers and saws, dolls and necklaces. The Cascade Motel offers free television and daily and weekly rates. There is Gahringer's Drug Store, the Freemont Hotel, and an eatery called the Sherwood Bus Depot, a rest stop for passengers traveling on Arrow-Flite buses.

Grace Sherwood is the depot owner, and Elma Gahringer is her waitress. Will Mayberry is the town sheriff; Glenn Wagner is the D.A.; and Sally is Glenn's wife. Stories present character studies of the lost and troubled people who have disembarked for a stopover at the Sherwood Bus Depot.

The series is very loosely based on the 1955 Broadway play by William Inge (most people recall the 1956 feature film version starring Marilyn Monroe as Cherie and Don Murray as Bo). The sixth episode of the series, "Cherie" (November 12, 1961) is the pilot and the only episode adapted from the play (Tuesday Weld portrayed Cherie, the hopeful singer, and Bo, the cowboy who wants to marry her, was played by Gary Lockwood).

The episode of December 3, 1961, "A Lion Walks Among Us," is perhaps the most condemned episode of a series ever broadcast to this date. Although tame by today's standards, in 1961 it was called "an hour of ugliness," "a pure study in evil" and "cheaper than anything yet seen on TV." (Teen idol Fabian Forte played a murderous psychopath with such believability that the episode was cited for excessive violence and sadism).

Theme: "Bus Stop," by Arthur Morton.

Cast: Marilyn Maxwell (Grace Sherwood), Joan Freeman (Elma Gahringer), Rhodes Reason (Will Mayberry), Richard Anderson (Glenn Wagner), Diane Foster (Sally Wagner).

1132 The Busters. (Pilot; Adventure; CBS; 5/28/78). The story of two cowboys, Chad Kimbrough, a seasoned veteran, and Albie McRae, an ambitious tenderfoot, as they team to tackle the rough but rewarding professional rodeo circuit. In the pilot episode, set in Denver, Chad and Albie find trouble as a pretty young rodeo groupie (Marti) takes a shine to Chad, while Joanna Bailey, one of Chad's old flames, fixes her sights on Albie.

Cast: Bo Hopkins (Chad Kimbrough), Brian Kerwin (Albie McRae). Guest Cast: Devon Ericson (Marti Hamilton), Susan Howard (Joanna Bailey), Buck Taylor (Billy Burnett), Chris Robinson (Nick Carroll), Lance Le Gault (Mel Drew).

1133 Bustin' Loose. (Series; Comedy; Syn.; 1987). Sonny Barnes is a young African-American man constantly in trouble with the law. After one such incident, a judge orders Sonny to perform community service: keep house for Mimi Shaw, a social worker who is struggling to raise four foster children (Sue Anne, Trish, Rudley and Nicky). Stories relate Sonny's misadventures as he uses his carefree attitude to help Mimi raise the kids. The Four Tops perform the theme, "Bustin' Loose."

Cast: Jimmie Walker (Sonny Barnes), Vonetta McGee (Mimi Shaw), Marie Lynn Wise (Sue Anne), Tyren Perry (Trish), Larry Williams (Rudley), Aaron Lohr (Nicky).

1134 Busting Loose. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1977). Lenny Markowitz is a 24-year-old shoe salesman at the Wear Well Shoe Store. He has moved out of his parents' home and now lives in his own apartment at 36 West 43rd Street in Manhattan. He is a bachelor and hopes one day to become a television sportscaster. Lenny lives by his childhood code to always to help a friend in need, and he has one major problem: his mother, Pearl Markowitz, who has deemed it her responsibility to find him a girl and a career.

While Lenny argues, "When are you going to learn that I am capable of planning my own life and meeting my own girls?" Pearl responds by saying, "I was only trying to help you for your own good; I was only trying to see you happy." Trying to resolve this situation is Lenny's father, Sam Markowitz, who puts it simply to Pearl: "Leonard is a man, you should treat him like a man." Pearl agrees (until the next episode, that is).

Melody Feebeck is Lenny's neighbor, a gorgeous redhead who works for Mr. Escort, an escort service that caters to men of all ages.

Vinnie Mordabito, a cab driver, and Woody Warshaw are Lenny's friends. Ralph Cabel is Lenny's employer, the owner of Wear Well Shoes, and Raymond St. Williams is Ralph's top-notch salesman.

Jacqueline "Jackie" Gleason is Lenny's steady girlfriend in later episodes; Dorothy is Raymond's wife. The series was originally titled "On Our Own." Mark Rothman composed the "Busting Loose" theme.

Cast: Adam Arkin (Lenny Markowitz), Pat Carroll (Pearl Markowitz), Jack Kruschen (Sam Markowitz), Barbara Rhoades (Melody Feebeck), Greg Antonacci (Vinnie Mordabito), Paul Sylvan (Woody Warshaw), Paul B. Brice (Ralph Cabel), Ralph Wilcox (Raymond St. Williams), Louise Williams (Jacqueline "Jackie" Gleason), Dorothy Butts (Dorothy St. Williams).

1135 But Mother! (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 6/27/79). A proposed series about the relationship between a former madam and her daughter. In the pilot episode, Billie Barkley, the mother, begins a new career as a writer and seeks to reestablish a relationship with her daughter, Sharon, a struggling actress. Other Regulars: Trixie, Billie's friend; Harold, Trixie's husband; and Carl, Sharon's agent.

Cast: Dena Dietrich (Billie Barkley), Amy Johnston (Sharon Barkley), Gloria LeRoy (Trixie), Philip Bruns (Harold), Allan Rich (Carl Henry Docksteder). Guest Cast: Harry Gold (Psychiatrist). Theme Vocal: ("But Mother"); Amy Johnston.

1136 Butch and Billy and Their Bang Bang Western Movies. (Series; Children; Syn.; 1961). The program combines animation with live action as cartoon characters Billy Bang Bang and his brother Butch provide commentary on the filmed adventures of Bronco Bill, an Old West lawman.

Cast: Bob Cust (Bronco Bill), Steve Krieger (Voice of Billy Bang Bang), Danny Krieger (Voice of Butch Bang Bang).

1137 Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kids. (Series; Cartoon; NBC; 1973-1974). The global investigations of Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kids (Stephanie, Marilee, Wally and Freddy), U.S. government agents who pose as a rock group under contract for the World Wide Talent Agency, a front for an international spy ring. Their dog, Elvis, joins them on their escapades.

Voices: Ross Martin, Hans Conried, Ronnie Schell, Micky Dolenz, Cameron Arthur Clark, Alan Oppenheimer, Virginia Gregg, Pamela Peters, Frank Maxwell, Henry Corden, John Stephenson.

1138 Butterflies. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 8/1/79). Events in the lives of the Parkinsons, a middle-class American family: Rea, a very attractive 40-year-old housewife and mother who worries about growing old and being a drudge; Ben, her candid and indifferent husband, a dentist who collects butterflies; and her grown sons, Adam and Russell. The pilot episode focuses on the changes that occur in Rea when she meets Leonard Dean, a stranger who sparks new life in her. Based on the British series of the same title.

Cast: Jennifer Warren (Rea Parkinson), John McMartin (Ben Parkinson), Robert Doran (Adam Parkinson), Craig Wasson (Russell Parkinson), Jim Hutton (Leonard Dean; guest role).

1139 Butterflies. (Series; Comedy; Syn.; 1982). Events in the lives of the Parkinsons, a middle-class British family: Ria, a very attractive 40-year-old housewife and mother who worries about growing old; Ben, her candid and indifferent husband, a dentist who collects butterflies; and her grown sons, Russell and Adam. Produced by the BBC in 1978-1979.

Other Regulars: Ruby, their housekeeper; Leonard Dunn, the man who seeks to seduce Ria; Thomas, Leonard's chauffeur; and Mr. Conrad, Ria's neighbor.

Cast: Wendy Craig (Ria Parkinson), Geoffrey

Palmer (Ben Parkinson), Andre Hall (Russell Parkinson), Nicholas Lyndhurst (Adam Parkinson), Joyce Windsor (Ruby), Bruce Montague (Leonard Dunn), Michael Ripper (Thomas), Cindy Oswin (Leonard's Receptionist), Milton Jones (Mr. Conrad).

1140 Buzz Lightyear of Star Command. (Series; Cartoon; Disney; 2000–2001). Buzz Lightyear, a character first introduced in the feature film Toy Story, is a top space ranger for the futuristic Star Command (no indication is given in the series as to whether Buzz is an Earthling or not). Here, he is teamed with Princess Mira Nova, the daughter of the King of Tangea (who possesses the power to move through solid matter); Brent Starkisser and the robotic Space Ranger XR. Captain Nebula is their superior; Warp Dark Master is their enemy. Stories relate their efforts to uphold the peace in outer space.

Voice Cast: Patrick Warburton (Buzz Lightyear), Nicole Sullivan (Mira Nova), Neil Flynn (XR), Larry Miller (XR), Stephen Furst (Booster), Corey Burton (Brent Starkisser), Dan Castellana (AP-99), Roz Ryan (President), Adam Carolla (Commander Nebula), Paul Rugg (Ed the Courier), Kerri Kenney (Gravatino), Bobcat Goldthwait (XL), Kath Soucie (Flon), Rob Paulsen (AP-06), Diedrich Bader (Warp Dark Master), Linda Hamilton (Dr. Furbabba). Narrator: Gary Owens.

1141 The Buzz on Maggie. (Series; Cartoon; Disney; 2005–2006). Stickyfeet is a city populated by flies. Maggie is an adolescent who is approaching her teenage years. She is also fun loving and energetic and eager to learn everything she can about life. Maggie's curiosity often gets the best of her and stories follow her adventures as she faces the daily challenges of life in Stickyfeet. Aldrin is Maggie's older brother; Pupert is her younger brother; Rayna and Dawn are her friends.

Voice Cast: Jessica Di Cicco (Maggie), Thom Adcox Hernandez (Pupert), Cree Summer (Rayna), Susan Tolsky (Mrs. Pesky), Jeff Bennett (Principal Pestrip), David Kaufman (Aldrin), Tara Strong (Dawn).

1142 Buzzy Wuzzy. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1947). A quarter-hour comedy-variety series featuring the antics of comedians Imogene Coca and Jerry Bergen. The sort-lived four-episode series ran from November 17, 1947 to December 8, 1947.

Stars: Imogene Coca, Jerry Bergen.

1143 Bwana Michael of Africa. (Series; Documentary; Syn.; 1966). Films that depict African tribal customs and animal behavior with explorer George Michael.

Host-Narrator: George Michael.

1144 By Popular Demand. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1950). A summer series of performances by undiscovered talent. Four acts appear per show and winners are determined by studio audience applause. The series ran from July 2, 1950 to September 22, 1950. Frank Satenstein, Mark Goodson and Bill Todman are the producers.

Hostess: Arlene Francis. Host: Robert Alda. Announcer: Bern Bennett. Orchestra: Harry Sosnik.

1145 Byline — Betty Furness. (Series; Mystery; ABC; 1951). A series of five live mysteries centering on a reporter (Betty Furness) and her attempts to apprehend criminals for stories. The series ran from November 4, 1951 to December 16, 1951.

Cast: Betty Furness (Reporter). Also: David Ross, Bill Stern, Don Cherry, Hank Frost.

1146 The Byrds of Paradise. (Series; Drama; ABC; 1994). Following the death of his wife (Holly, who was killed in a cash machine robbery), college professor Sam Byrd and his children (Franny, Harry and Zeke) move to Hawaii in the hope of rebuilding their lives. Sam becomes the headmaster of the Palmer School (which his children also attend) and their efforts to adjust to a new life is the focal point of the series. (Fifteen-year-old Franny calls the island "a one coconut town" and wishes she were back in New Haven, Connecticut. Harry, 16, is trying to adjust but finding it difficult; and 11-year-old Zeke is a smart alec who is constantly getting into trouble.)

Other Regulars: Valentine "Val" Agular, Sam's secretary; Sonny and Manu, the married couple who tend Sam's house; Elsie, the dean of students.

Cast: Timothy Busfield (Sam Byrd), Jennifer Love Hewitt (Franny Byrd), Seth Green (Harry Byrd), Ryan O'Donohue (Zeke Byrd), Elizabeth Lindsey (Elsie Douglas), Betty Carvalho (Val Agular), Robert Kekaula (Sonny), Lani Opu'i-Ancheta (Manu).

C-Bear see entry 1308

C-16: FBI see entry 1784

1147 The Caballero. (Pilot; Western; CBS; 4/13/59). A proposed spinoff from The Texan about Juan Joaquin, chief of the Mexican Border Police in the early West. In the pilot episode, Joaquin helps his friend, Bill Longley, stop an American trader from supplying guns and ammunition to Indians in Mexico.

Cast: Cesar Romero (Juan Joaquin). Guest Cast: Mari Blanchard (Catherine Crawford), Whit Bissell (Shep Crawford), Rory Calhoun (Bill Longley).

1148 The Cabot Connection. (Pilot; Adventure; CBS; 5/10/77). Marcus Cabot is a jet-set socialite whose avariciousness forces him into a reluctant partnership with the U.S. government as an agent, when he is caught red-handed in an illicit business deal and agrees to work for Uncle Sam rather than face imprisonment. The unsold series was to relate Cabot's efforts, assisted by his two beautiful daughters, Olivia and Muffin, to solve crimes.

Other Regulars: Stephen, Cabot's chauffeur;

Harold O'Hara, Cabot's superior, and Essie, Cabot's maid.

Cast: Craig Stevens (Marcus Cabot), Catherine Shirriff (Olivia Cabot), Jane Actman (Muffin Cabot), Chris Robinson (Stephen Kordiak), Warren Kemmerling (Harold O'Hara), Matilda Calnan (Essie). Guest Cast: Gloria DeHaven (Dolly Foxworth), Alf Kjellin (Heinz Vogel), Curt Lowens (Victor Kreindler), Dirk Benedict (Brom Loomis), James Luisi (Bozuffi), Ivor Barry (Wendell).

1149 Cactus Jim. (Series; Children; NBC; 1949–1951). The program features edited versions of western theatrical features of the 1930s and 40s. The series, hosted by Cactus Jim, ran from October 31, 1949 to October 26, 1951.

Cast: Clarence Hartzell (Cactus Jim), Bill Bailey (Cactus Jim; later).

1150 Cade's County. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 1971–1972). Sam Cade is the sheriff of Madrid County, a small Southwestern community. He is a bit older than the average TV lawman, but is a stickler for the rules and totally dedicated to his job. Stories follow Sam as he attempts to maintain law and order in an area that is easily able to become a lawless wasteland. The series emphasizes relations with and acceptance of the Indians that are a large part of the region.

Sam is assisted by his deputies, J.J. Jackson (a lawman a bit older than Sam), Rudy Davillo, Arlo Pritchard and Pete. Joanie Little Bird (later Kitty Ann Sundown) is the police radio dispatcher.

Cast: Glenn Ford (Sam Cade), Edgar Buchanan (J.J. Jackson), Taylor Lacher (Arlo Pritchard), Victor Campos (Rudy Davillo), Peter Ford (Pete), Sandra Ego (Joanie Little Bird), Betty Ann Carr (Kitty Ann Sundown).

1151 Cadets. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 9/25/88). Tyler McKay is a very pretty 13-year-old girl who has grown up in various public institutions after being abandoned in a big city as a small child. Her guardians feel that the spunky youngster needs maturing (having only experienced institutional life) and enroll her at Appomattox, a very strict military academy that has just begun to accept girls. The unsold series was to portray the life and problems of a girl trying to adjust to a regimental lifestyle. In the pilot episode, Tyler attempts to soften up a tough sergeant (Matt Gideon).

Cast: Soleil Moon Frye (Tyler McKay), Richard Roundtree (Sergeant Matt Gideon), Barclay Deveau (Cadet Lucy Lomparksi), Jaleel White (Cadet Nicholls), Bill Sadler (Colonel Tom Sturdivant), Remy Auberson-jonoi (Squad Leader Bringham), Michael Goldstrom (Cadet Libonati), Corky Nemec (Cadet Preston Langly), Judd Trichter (Cadet Goerke). Theme: ("Cadets Theme") by Jeff Harris.

1152 Cadillacs and Dinosaurs. (Series; Cartoon; CBS; 1993–1994). The future does not look too bright in the 26th century. Nature has collapsed. The great civilizations have crumbled and the once thought extinct dinosaurs have emerged to once again rule the earth. Humans, however, have not been defeated. Jack Tenrac, a garage mechanic with a love of restoring old Cadillacs, Hannah Dundee, a foreign ambassador, and Jack's friend, Mustapha, have joined forces (as The Mechanics) to battle the evil influences that have emerged — from freelance poachers to the evil Governor Wilhelmina Scharnhorst. The series, although aimed at children, explores the environmental issues that do and will exist.

Voice Cast: David Kelley (Jack Tenrac), Susan Roman (Hannah Dundee), Bruce Tubbe (Mustapha), Dawn Greenhalgh (Wilhelmina Scharnhorst), Don Francks (Girth), Don Francks (Hobbs), Colin O'Meara (Wrench), Frank Pellegrino (Vice), Lenore Zann (Mikla), Don Dickson (Noe).

1153 Caesar's Hour. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1954–1957). A program of music, comedy sketches and songs with comedian Sid Caesar as the host. The series also reunites Sid with his co-star from Your Show of Shows, Imogene Coca. The series aired from September 27, 1954 to May 25, 1957. Leo Morgan is the producer.

Host: Sid Caesar. Regulars: Imogene Coca, Carl Reiner, Nanette Fabray, Janet Blair, Eileen Parker, Earl Wild, William Lewis, Sondra Dell, Cliff Norton, Virginia Curtis, Shirl Conway, The Ted Cappy Dancers. Announcer: Vaughn Monroe, Joe DeSantis. Orchestra: Bernard Green.

1154 Café Americain. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1993–1994). Holly Aldridge is the manager of the Cafe Americain, a famous eatery in Paris, France, that was frequented by U.S. expatriates during the 1920s. Holly, a Scorpio, is a 30-year-old divorcee who left Minneapolis to begin a new life in Paris. She was initially a "translator of English to English" (taking the dry language and translating it into everyday American talk). She quit when her boss tried to seduce her. She wandered into the cafe, befriended its owner, Margaret Hunt, and became her assistant when she helped close a deal with the JuVal Soft Drink Company for mineral water. Holly's job has no actual title — "It's whatever Margaret tells me to do." Holly has a cat (Mr. Bones) and a very small apartment with a view of the Eiffel Tower ("If you hold a mirror out the window and angle it just right you see the tower"). The apartment once belonged to the famous French writer, Balzac. Holly's favorite snack cake is Hostess Sno-Balls and she is deathly afraid of heights ("It's not so much height as it is the uncontrollable urge to jump off").

Two patrons of the cafe are Fabiana Barcelli and Madame Ubara. Fabiana is “the highest paid, most sought after model in the world.” She is “pushing 26” and believes there are only two kinds of poses: “starving and orgasm.” She tells men she is a lesbian to avoid their advances and has a perfume named after her: Fabiana: The Fragrance.

Madame Ubara is a deposed foreign First Lady who is living in Paris because she was ousted by the Vintulo government. She is at odds with Hollywood over a movie being made about her life (Delta Burke, who outweighs the rather slim Ubara by 80 pounds, is set to play her). When in office Madame Ubara used U.S. financial aid to buy clothes rather than drain the swamps to get rid of malaria. She earns money by writing an advice column for the Weekly Globe.

Cast: Valerie Bertinelli (Holly Aldridge), Lila Kaye (Margaret Hunt), Jodi Long (Madame Ubara), Sofia Miles (Fabiana Barcelli), Maurice Godin (Marcel, Holly's friend).

1155 Cafe de Paris. (Series; Variety; DuMont; 1949). A thrice-weekly series of music and songs presented in a Paris nightclub setting and hosted by singer Sylvie St. Clair. The series aired from January 17, 1949 to March 4, 1949. James L. Caddigan is the producer.

Hostess: Sylvie St. Clair. Regular: Jacques Aubuchon. Music: The Stan Free Trio.

1156 Cafe Television. (Experimental; Variety; DuMont; 5/12/43). An informal variety experiment dubbed “night clubbing for television” (to showcase night club performers on TV). The program: comedy with Jerry Lester; songs by Carol Dexter (who sang “Thou Swell” and “Panic in Panama”; but “it was a crime the way poor lighting and camera work botched her good looks”). Joan Fields provided a classical touch (with “Ave Maria” and the third movement of the Mendelssohn “Violin Concerto”). The program closed with a piano rendition of “As Time Goes By” and a Gershwin medley by Billy Banks.

Host: Jill Stephens. Guests: Carol Dexter, Joan Fields, Jerry Lester, Billy Banks.

1157 Cagney and Lacey. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 1982–1988). Christine Cagney and Mary Beth Lacey are best friends and police officers with the Manhattan 14th Precinct in New York City. Christine, a sergeant, and Mary Beth, a detective, worked undercover as prostitutes on the John Squad of the 23rd Precinct before being transferred to Homicide to solve a series of call girl killings. They became the 14th Precinct's first female detectives. Both girls despise posing as ladies of the evening. “Cops' feet aren't made for hookers' shoes,” says Mary Beth. Each has a bad habit: Mary Beth smokes and Chris drinks; Chris is trying to break her habit and attends AA meetings. She is also urging Mary Beth to give up cigarettes.

Chris and Mary Beth approach each case with motivation and opportunity based on what a subject would do. Mary Beth is a stickler for the details of a case while Christine is satisfied with gathering the obvious evidence.

Christine, called Chris, is single because “I understand about commitments and responsibilities,” something she can't handle since a psychic told her she was going to get married, live on a farm and have four children. Chris lives in Manhattan at 11 West 49th Street.

Mary Beth is married to Harvey and the mother of Harvey, Jr., Michael and Alice. They first live in Manhattan (Apartment 9) then Jackson Heights, Queens, at 7132 West 46th Street. Harvey works in construction when he can; he has an inner-ear infection and tends to lose his balance when working at great heights. Stories follow Mary Beth and Chris as they tackle dangerous assignments for the department.

Lieutenant Albert Samuels is Chris and Mary Beth's superior. Victor Isbecki and Mark Petrie are detectives who work with Cagney and Lacey.

Marie Cain sings the theme “Ain't That the Way,” in first season episodes; “The Theme from Cagney and Lacey” by Bill Conti is used for the remainder of the series.

Cast: Tyne Daly (Mary Beth Lacey), Loretta Swit (Christine Cagney; pilot), Meg Foster (Christine Cagney; series), Sharon Gless (Christine Cagney; series), Al Waxman (Lt. Albert Samuels), Carl Lumbly (Sgt. Mark Petrie), Martin Kove (Det. Victor Isbecki), Paul Klute (Det. Paul LaGuardia), John Karlen (Harvey Lacey; series), Ronald Hunter (Harvey Lacey; pilot), Robert Hegyes (Det. Manny Esposito), Troy Slaten (Michael Lacey), Tony LaTorre (Harvey Lacey, Jr.), Dana & Paige Bardolph (Alice Lacey), Suzanne Stone (Claudia Petrie; Mark's wife), Jonelle Allen (Claudia Petrie; later), Harvey Atkin (Desk Sgt. Ronald Coleman), Barbara Tarbuck (Thelma Samuels; Al's wife), Dick O'Neill (Charlie Cagney; Chris's father), Mae Marmy (Voice of Police Radio Dispatcher), Barry Primus (Sgt. Dory McKenna), Shannon Wilcox (Jenny McKenna; Dory's ex-wife), Heather Hobbs (Sheri McKenna; Dory's daughter), David Ackroyd (Brian Cagney; Chris's brother), Amanda Wyss (Brigit Cagney; Brian's daughter).

1158 Cain's Hundred. (Series; Crime Drama; NBC; 1961–1962). The story of Nicholas Cain, a former underworld attorney who teams with federal authorities in an attempt to infiltrate the ranks of organized crime and bring the nation's top one hundred criminals to justice.

Cast: Peter Mark Richman (Nicholas Cain). Theme Song: “Theme from Cain's Hundred” by Jerry Goldsmith.

1159 Cake. (Series; Children; CBS; 2006–). A girl named Cake is a pretty teenager who says “You can’t buy individuality. But you can make it.” She is a whiz at fashion (“It’s a piece of cake”) and hosts her own cable access TV series — Cake TV, which is broadcast from the garage of her parent’s home.

Miracle, a fashion-crazy teenager girl, and Amy, a bubbly pre-teen who also performs the show’s announcing chores, assist Cake. Their friend, Benjamin, is the show’s cameraman and director.

The program is totally geared to young girls and focuses on Cake and her friends as they encounter various dilemmas. A major portion of each episode is devoted to Cake TV and has Cake demonstrating various do-it-yourself projects for her viewers (to instill creativity in children). Cake is called “The How To Hottie”; Amy attends Stewart Elementary School.

Cast: Christa B. Allen (Cake), Anna Maria Perez De Tagle (Miracle), Emily Everhard (Amy), Keegan McFadden (Benjamin).

1160 California Dreams. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1992–1997). The California Dreams are a soft-rock music group managed by Sly Winkle. The original members were Jenny Garrison, her brother Matt and their friends Tiffany Smith and Tony Wicks. Jenny left to attend the music Conservatory in Rome; she was replaced by Samantha Woo, a foreign exchange student from Hong Kong who is residing at the Garrison home (128 Ocean Drive). Samantha had attended the American High School and speaks perfect English. When Matt requires help writing songs, Jake Sommers, the school “tough guy,” joins the band (he also plays guitar). Shortly after, when Matt moves, Sly’s cousin, Mark, replaces him as the lead singer.

The wealthy Lorena Costa becomes the group’s co-manager when she befriends Sly and allows the band to use her loft for practice (they previously used Matt’s garage). Samantha, who likes to be called Sam, became a boarder at Lorena’s home.

The teens attend Pacific Coast High School and hang out at Sharkey’s, the local beach eatery (where Tony works as a waiter). Matt, who sings, writes songs and plays the guitar, wrote the group’s first song, “California Dreams.” Jenny, who sings and plays keyboard, has a collection of plush animals she calls “Stuffies.”

Tiffany, the dreamer, plays guitar and sings. She surfs, loves to wear bikinis and inevitably attracts the opposite sex: “I can’t figure out why the boys stop swimming to watch me.”

Sly’s real name is Sylvester, but “Sly’s the name; never call me Sylvester.” He is somewhat sleazy and hits on any pretty girl he sees. Jenny detests Sly and smiles to torment him (“One of life’s little pleasures,” she says). Stories follow the group as they attend school and struggle to make it big in the music world.

In the final episode, the teens graduate from high school and say goodbye to the group. Tiffany enrolled at the University of Hawaii; Sam is off to England to study physics; Sly and Lorena enrolled in Pacific University; Mark is going to the Juilliard School in New York; Tony is pursuing an acting career; and Jake is offered a recording contract with Stout Jam Records.

“I’m So Glad I Was There” was the last song performed by the California Dreams — a dream that started when Matt and Sly heard the group Johnny Himalaya and the Wave Breakers perform at Sharkey’s and were inspired to start their own band.

Cast: Heidi Noelle Lenhart (Jenny Garrison), Brent Gore (Matt Garrison), Kelly Packard (Tiffany Smith), William James Jones (Tony Wicks), Jennie Kwan (Samantha Woo), Michael Cade (Sly Winkle), Jay Anthony Franke (Jake Sommers), Aaron Jackson (Mark Winkle), Diana Uribe (Lorena Costa).

1161 California Fever. (Series; Drama; CBS; 1979). Vince Butler, Laurie and Ross Whitman are three 17-year-olds who attend Westside High School and hang out together at Sunset Beach in California. Rick’s Place, run by Rick, is the local beach hangout, an eatery that also rents and sells bikes, skateboards and surf-boards.

Vince lives at 5832 Beachwood Avenue. He drives a sports car with the license plate IM CRUSIN and operates a three-watt underground radio station (from the back room in Rick’s Place) called K-Fever (Vince is “the Ghost of the Coast at the top of the dial”). His favorite meal at Rick’s is alfalfa salad and a protein drink.

Laurie (no last name given) lives at 7163 Lincoln Street; Rex Smith is her favorite singer and she helps Vince with his radio program. Ross, who frequents an eatery called Junk Burgers, has a mostly inoperable van parked on Beachwood Street and the “Grossmobile,” a customized dune buggy. Ross also won $500 by dancing 11 hours and 13 minutes in a marathon at the Solar System Disco. Other teens are Cathy, Vickie, Bobby, Sue, Pattie, Lucille and Robbie. Mary Butler is Vince’s mother.

Cast: James Vincent McNichol (Vince Butler), Michele Tobin (Laurie), Marc McClure (Ross Whitman), Lorenzo Lamas (Rick), Ruth Cox (Vickie), Jane Milmore (Cathy), Cosie Costa (Bobby), Lisa Coristein (Sue), Heidi Bohay (Pattie), April Clough (Lucille), Jay Kerry (Robbie), Barbara Tarbuck (Mary Butler). Theme Vocal: “California Fever” by James Vincent McNichol.

1162 The California Girls. (Unaired Pilot; Comedy; Produced in 1989). The Bikini Hut is a Southern California beach club frequented by the local surfers and sun worshipers. Nicole, Hannah and Mary Beth are three beautiful young women who comprise The California Girls, a singing group who play often at the hut. Their adventures as they seek stardom is the focal point of the unsold series. The pilot episode relates how Nicole, Hannah and Mary Beth, three college sorority sisters, formed the group—first as a means of relaxation, then filled with determination to hit the big time.

Cast: Traci Lords (Nicole), Stephanie Green (Hannah), Tammy Murdock (Mary Beth).

1163 The Californians. (Series; Western; NBC; 1957–1959). “Now one thing I just can’t endure is being broke and being poor ... so I’ve come to live where life is best in the golden West, I’ve come to strike it rich in Cal-i-for-ni-a.” The Gold Rush days of old San Francisco are the setting (from 1849 to 1854 for the series). The call of “there’s gold in them thar hills” brought both the honest prospectors and pioneers and a group of corrupt Australians who managed to gain control of the city. One such pioneer was Dion Patrick, a crusading newspaper editor (of the California Star) who established the Vigilante Committee of San Francisco as a means to uphold law and order.

After 22 episodes, Dion Patrick was written out and replaced by Matt Wayne, a gentleman from Philadelphia who opens a gambling hall and is later elected marshal by the townspeople. When the second season began (episode 38, “Dishonor for Matt Wayne”), Matt relinquishes his gambling hall to become a full time law enforcer (the idea of a marshal who owned a gambling hall bothered the city fathers). Matt turns over the title of the gambling hall to Wilma Fansler, the girl who previously ran the games of chance for Matt.

Jack McGivern is the owner of McGivern’s General Store; Martha McGivern is Jack’s wife; and R. Jeremy Pitt is a rugged gentleman lawyer with a practice in San Francisco.

The Ken Darby Singers perform the theme, “I’ve Come to California” (written by Harold Adamson and Harry Warren).

Cast: Adam Kennedy (Dion Patrick), Richard Coogan (Matt Wayne), Carole Mathews (Wilma Fansler), Sean McClory (Jack McGivern), Nan Leslie (Martha McGivern), Arthur Fleming (R. Jeremy Pitt).

1164 Californication. (Series; Comedy; Showtime; 2007). Hank Moody is the author of a book called God Hates Us All. When his book is sold for movie rights, Hank leaves New York for Los Angeles. The film is produced but it is turned into a comedy called A Crazy Little Thing Called Love. The film depresses Hank who now feels the system (Hollywood) has let him down. He now has a serious case of writer’s block, refuses to bow to the pressures of his agent, his publisher or anyone else in authority. He is living in self-pity and unemployment seems to suit him. He has also let his appearance go (perpetually unshaven) but (in accord with the title) he does manage to attract particularly beautiful women (who apparently go for untidy, unemployed, depressing men).

When Hank lived in New York, he felt Manhattan messed with the minds of gorgeous women and treated them like sex objects. Hank, is, in his own small way, doing the same thing—only in Los Angeles.

Karen is Hank’s ex-girlfriend, who cares for him and sticks by him for the sake of their teenage daughter, Becca. Hank truly cares for Becca and puts her welfare above everything else. Bill is Karen’s current love interest; Mia is Bill’s teenage daughter from a previous marriage; Charlie is Hank’s agent. Stories follow Hank as he struggles to live with the inner turmoil that haunts him.

Cast: David Duchovny (Hank Moody), Natascha McElhone (Karen), Madeleine Martin (Becca), Madeline Zima (Mia), Damian Young (Bill), Evan Handler (Charlie).

1165 Call Her Mom. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 2/15/72). The story, set at Beardsley College, a small university in Chattanooga, Tennessee, relates the experiences of Angela “Angie” Bianco, a beautiful waitress who now works as the housemother at A.P.E. (Alpha Rho Epsilon), an unruly fraternity house. The pilot episode relates how Angie applies for the position and involves the college in a nationwide women’s lib controversy (the school was opposed to letting a woman head an all-male frat house).

Other Regulars: Chester Hardgrove, the college president; Helen, Chester’s wife, an ex-chorus girl; Professor Jonathan Calder; Ida, the frat house cook; and the students: Randall, Woody, Wilson, Roscoe and Jeremy.

Cast: Connie Stevens (Angie Bianco), Van Johnson (Chester Hardgrove), Gloria DeHaven (Helen Hardgrove), Charles Nelson Reilly (Dean Walden), Jim Hutton (Jonathan Calder), Thelma Carpenter (Ida), Steve Vinovich (Randall Feigelbaum), John David Carson (Woody Guinness III), Mike Evans (Wilson), William Tepper (Roscoe), Alfie Wise (Jeremy). Guest Cast: William Benedict and Thelma Pelish (Randall’s parents), Herbert Rudley (Woody’s father), Corbett Monica (Bruno), Kathleen Freeman (Woman in restaurant). Theme Vocal: (“Come on a My House”) by Connie Stevens.

1166 Call Holme. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 4/24/72). The business of “Fabian Holme, Private Detective” is a one man operation run by Fabian Holme, a master detective and “the master of 1,000 disguises.” The police say “No one solves a case faster than Fabian Holme.” He is assisted by Miss Musky, who, according to Fabian, “is an employee, punctual, diligent and reasonably intelligent.” The unsold series was to relate his efforts to stop the bad guys — and girls — through his mastery of disguises. In the pilot episode, Holme attempts to solve the mysterious murder of Howard Hayes, a multimillionaire industrialist.

Cast: Arte Johnson (Fabian Holme), Arlene Golonka (Miss Musky). Guest Cast: Jim Hutton (Lieutenant Frank Hayward), Linda Cristal (Phadera Hayes), Helmut Dantine (Friedrich von Klug), Rosemary DeCamp (Miss Paperman), Noel Harrison (Lester Faulkner), Hermione Baddeley (Nora Benedict), Vic Tayback (Avery Crest), Jim Connell (Jonathan Livermore), Pat Delany (Cynthia Morganstern), Reta Shaw (Woman), Danny Bonaduce (Boy), Cecil Kellaway (Lord Basil Hyde-Smith), Dave Ketchum (Sergeant Dobbs).

1167 Call Me Annie. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 4/10/61). A proposed spin-off from The Barbara Stanwyck Theater about the comical events in the life of Annie Bregner, a loving but mishap-prone practical nurse. In the pilot episode, Annie attempts to help a young woman (Janie) adjust to her new role as a mother.

Cast: Peggy Cass (Annie Bregner). Guest Cast: Denise Alexander (Janie Hunter), John Wilder (Joe), Ruth Brady (Marie), Richard Garland (Dr. Stevens), Johnny Silver (Dan).

1168 Call Mr. D. (Series; Crime Drama; Syn.; 1960). The syndicated title for Richard Diamond, Private Detective when it was first placed into syndication. The series has since been returned to its original title (which see for information).

1169 Call My Bluff. (Series; Game; NBC; 1965). Two three-member teams compete in a game to determine the correct definitions of obscure words. A card is presented to each member of one team. Once card contains the correct meaning of the word to be guessed; the other two cards contain a false meaning. Each player reads a definition, but two are bluffing. The opposing team must determine which player gave the correct definition. Points are awarded for each correct determination and the team with the highest score is the winner.

Host: Bill Leyden.

1170 Call of the West. (Series; Anyhology; Syn.; 1969). The series is composed of 52 western-themed episodes that were originally broadcast on Death Valley Days. See this title for information. New opening and closing segments featuring John Payne as the host were added.

Host: John Payne.

1171 Call to Danger. (Pilot; Adventure; CBS; 12/10/61). Robert Hale is a U.S. Treasury agent who recruits ordinary people with unique abilities to help him solve extraordinary crimes. The unsold series was to detail the complex missions Hale and his private citizens tackle. In the pilot episode, broadcast on G.E. Theater, Hale recruits Johnny Henderson, a locksmith, to help retrieve stolen currency plates.

Cast: Lloyd Nolan (Robert Hale). Guest Cast: Larry Blyden (Johnny Henderson), Grace Lee Whitney (Audrey Henderson), Edward Andrews (Andre Kellman), Paul Mazursky (Joseph Kane), Frank Behrens (Reynolds), Stacy Graham (Joan Lawrence), Forrest Compton (Charles Peake), Ed Peck (Paul Wilkens).

1172 Call to Danger. (Pilot; Adventure; CBS; 7/1/68). James “Jim” Kingsley is the Chief of National Resources, a U.S. government organization that recruits ordinary people with special skills to solve highly complex crimes. The unsold series was to relate the “Mission: Impossible” type of cases Jim tackles. In the pilot episode, filmed in 1966, Jim devises an elaborate scheme to retrieve the stolen master currency plates for the American twenty-dollar bill.

Cast: Peter Graves (Jim Kingsley). Guest Cast: James Gregory (Paul Wilkins), Daniel J. Travanti (John Henderson), Albert Paulsen (Andre Kellman), William Smithers (Joseph Kane), Forrest Lewis (Silver), Brad Trumbull (Tom), Laurel Goodwin (Rita Henderson), Henry Allin (Eddie).

1173 Call to Danger. (Pilot; Adventure; CBS; 2/28/73). Douglas Warfield is an inspector for the Department of Justice who has the authority to recruit ordinary people with special skills for extremely hazardous assignments. The unsold series was to depict the step-by-step execution of the highly complex cases Warfield tackles. In the pilot episode, Douglas engineers a bold attempt to rescue a kidnapped underworld informer.

Cast: Peter Graves (Douglas Warfield). Guest Cast: Diana Muldaur (Carrie Donovan), Clu Gulager (Emmett Jergens), Tina Louise (April Tierney), Stephen McNally (Joe Barker), Ina Balin (Marla Hays), John Anderson (Edward McClure), Michael Ansara (Frank Mulavey), William Jordan (Tony Boyd).

1174 Call to Danger. (Unaired Pilot; Adventure; Produced in 1988). Nicole’s is a ritzy night club on Manhattan’s fashionable East Side. It is run by a beautiful young woman known only as Nicole as a front for the Firm, a secret agency of the U.S. government that recruits ordinary people with unique skills for special missions.

Nicole, always attired in low cut and open blouses, is the head of the team. Her bartender, the sensuous Michele, is her recruiter. Like the prior three titles, this unsold version also depicts Nicole’s execution of cases — but from the female point of view. In the pilot episode, Pamela Dawson, a girl with psychic abilities, is recruited to help free an imprisoned American held captive by revolutionaries in South America.

Cast: Linda Blair (Nicole), Mary Beth Murdock (Michele). Guest Cast: Jean Hathaway (Pamela Dawson), George Michaels (Vasquez), James Marta (Lupe).

1175 Call to Glory. (Series; Drama; ABC; 1984–1985). The series, set in the early 1960s, follows events in the lives of Raynor Sarnac, an heroic Air Force colonel, his family (wife Vanessa and children, Jackie, Wesley and R.H.) and the men and women of the 4080th Strategic Reconnaissance Wing, who gave dearly to defend their country in time of need.

The series was originally set at the Loughlin Air Force Base in Texas, but later changed to Edwards Air Force Base in California when Raynor received a transfer and became a commandant of a test pilot school. The series uses actual news footage to cover the turbulent events of the era.

Other Regulars: Carl, Raynor's father; Patrick Thomas, Jackie's friend; Ely and Jerry, Patrick's parents; Captain Tim Riley; Pat, Tim's wife; Airman Tom Bonelli; General Mike Thornton and General Hampton.

Cast: Craig T. Nelson (Col. Raynor Sarnac), Cindy Pickett (Vanessa Sarnac), Elisabeth Shue (Jackie Sarnac), David Hollander (Wesley Sarnac), Gabriel Damon (R.H. Sarnac), Keenan Wynn (Carl Sarnac), Thomas O'Brien (Patrick Thomas), David Lain Baker (Tom Bonelli), Kathleen Lloyd (Ely Thomas), Joseph Hacker (Jerry Thomas), Christopher MacDonald (Capt. Tim Riley), Janice Heiden (Pat Riley), G.D. Spradlin (Gen. Mike Thornton), J.D. Cannon (General Hampton).

1176 Callahan. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 9/9/82). Callahan (no first name) is the curator of the Regis Historical Foundation in New York City. His assistant is the beautiful but somewhat naive Rachel Bartlett; his enemy is Marcus Vex, a notorious scientific faker. The unsold series was to relate Callahan and Rachel's exploits as they travel around the world — seeking priceless treasures, but also exposing the frauds who profit from faking scientific relics. In the pilot episode, Callahan and Rachel travel to Burma to recover a sacred relic stolen by Vex.

Cast: Hart Bochner (Callahan), Jamie Lee Curtis (Rachel Bartlett), John Harkins (Marcus Vex). Guest Cast: Peter Maloney (Mustaf), Herb Braha (Boondaran), Ion Ieodorescu (Temba), John Moschitta, Jr. (Phloti), Tony Plana (Vostonovich).

1177 Calling All Kidnappers. (Unaired Pilot; Comedy; Produced for ABC in 1990). An unsold series about the antics of four brothers (Garth, Danny, Mickey and Jordan) who drive their parents (Lloyd and Louise) crazy with their antics.

Cast: Bruce McGill (Lloyd), Miriam Flynn (Louise), P.J. Ochlan (Garth), Robert Oliveri (Danny), Robert Gorman (Mickey), Joe Schermoly (Jordan).

1178 Calling Dr. Storm, M.D. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 8/25/77). James "Jim" Storm is the chief of surgery at All Fellows Hospital. He is married to Patti and the father of a young son (Paul). He is also totally dedicated to work, seldom at home, and could care less if patients pay their bills. Patti would like him at home more often; Dr. Ilko Stendak, the hospital administrator, would like him to act like a doctor and be less caring about patients and more concerned about money — as the hospital is in financial trouble. The unsold series was to relate Jim's efforts to please all concerned while at the same time continue to be a dedicated doctor. Other Regulars: Vanessa, Ilko's wife; and Dr. Nate Nateman.

Cast: Larry Linville (Dr. Jim Storm), Sharon Spelman (Patti Storm), Stephen Parr (Paul Storm), Bruce Gordon (Dr. Ilko Stendak), Mary Louise Wheeler (Vanessa Stendak), Richard Libertini (Dr. Nate Nateman). Guest Cast: P.J. Soles (Sarah Baynes), Marian Mercer (Maggie Barbour), James B. Sikking (Bart Burton), Robert Hogan (Glenn Puber).

1179 Calling Miss Peters. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 4/25/60). Connie Peters is a salesgirl in the Gracious Living department of Cooksins Department Store. Eddie Rockwell is the store's floor manager and Connie's secret lover (store policy forbids employees dating one another). The unsold series was to follow their romantic ups and downs as they struggle to keep their romance a secret. Aired as "Marked Down for Connie" on "The Alcoa/Goodyear Theater" ("Calling Miss Peters" was the proposed series title). Other Regulars: Mr. Vosburgh, the manager; and salesgirls Stella, Ann and Billie.

Cast: Elinor Donahue (Connie Peters), Tony Travis (Eddie Rockwell), Alan Hewitt (Mr. Vosburgh), Shirley O'Neal (Stella), Beverly Allyson (Ann), Ann Robinson (Billie). Guest Cast: Howard McNear (Mr. Cramer), Alice Backes (Miss Williams).

1180 Calling Terry Conway. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 7/3/56). A proposed series about Terry Conway, the public relations director at a Las Vegas hotel.

Cast: Ann Sheridan (Terry Conway), Una Merkel (Pearl McGrath), Philip Ober (Stan).

1181 Calucci's Department. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1973). Joseph Calucci, called Joe, is a supervisor for the New York State Unemployment Office. Joe has a soft heart and finds it difficult being a tough boss. He constantly finds himself at odds with his position of authority and stories follow his efforts to curtail the antics of his staff of rude and raucous bureaucrats.

Shirley Balukis is Joe's secretary (and his girlfriend); Ramon Gonzalez is Joe's assistant; Oscar Cosgrove is the claims adjuster; Mitzi Gordon is the switchboard operator; Mrs. Clairmont is the elderly claimant; and Elaine Fusco, Jack Woods and Walter Frohler are members of Joe's staff.

Cast: James Coco (Joe Calucci), Candice Azzara (Shirley Balukis), Jose Perez (Ramon Gonzales), Jack Fletcher (Oscar Cosgrove), Peggy Pope (Elaine P. Fusco), Bill Lazarus (Jack Woods), Rosetta LeNoire (Mitzi Gordon), Bernard Wexler (Walter Frohler), Judith Lowry (Mrs. Clairmont), Vera Lockwood (Joe's Mother), Philip Stirling (Priest).

1182 Calvin and the Colonel. (Series; Cartoon; ABC; 1961–1962). A takeoff on the "Amos and Andy" characters created by Freeman Gosden and Charles Correll for radio in 1927. The series follows the antics of two backwoods Southern animals: Calvin Burnside, a not-too-bright bear (modeled after Andrew H. Brown on Amos and Andy) and his friend, Colonel Montgomery J. Klaxon, a cunning fox (based on George "Kingfish" Stevens from the series). Maggie Klaxon is Montgomery's nagging wife (based on George's nagging wife, Sapphire); Sue is Maggie's sister; Oliver Wendell Clutch is the lawyer (based on the inept Algonquin J. Calhoun from the series).

Voice Cast: Freeman Gosden (Montgomery J. Klaxon), Charles Correll (Calvin Burnside), Virginia Gregg (Maggie Bell Klaxon), Beatrice Kay (Sue), Paul Frees (Oliver Wendell Clutch), Gloria Blondell, Barney Phillips, Frank Gerstle.

1183 Cambridge Circus. (Pilot; Comedy; Syn.; 2/65). A proposed series of comedy skits with five graduates of England's Cambridge University who write and perform their own material.

Cast: David Hatch, Jo Kendall, Jonathan Lynn, Bill Oddie, Tim Brooke-Taylor.

1184 Cameo by Night. (Pilot; Crime Drama; NBC; 8/2/87). Jennifer Cameo is an attractive police department secretary by day who becomes the sexy Cameo, a mysterious crime fighter who dispenses justice at night (her calling card is a silhouette of herself on black paper). In the pilot episode, Cameo investigates the murder of a teenager that is linked to a music producer operating a payola scam.

Other Regulars: Detective Robert Bellflower; Sorry Eddie, Cameo's aide by night; Grubby, Cameo's street snitch; and Pinky, the bartender.

Cast: Sela Ward (Jennifer Cameo), Justin Deas (Robert Bellflower), Thomas Ryan (Sorry Eddie), George Kirby (Grubby), Art LaFleur (Pinky). Guest Cast: Tim Thomerson (Damon Rhoades), Scott Coffey (Gordon Schwinn), Mary Jo Descher (Mrs. Schwinn), Michael Greene (Bob), Lauren Shuler-Donner.

1185 Cameo Theater. (Series; Anthology; NBC; 1950–1955). A series of live dramatic presentations. The performers listed below are a sampling of those who have appeared on the series (which produced 45 episodes and ran on the following dates: May 16, 1950 to September 27, 1950; June 18, 1951 to August 6, 1951; January 6, 1952 to April 6, 1952; July 3, 1955 to August 21, 1955).

Performers Include: Chester Morris, Sam Wanamaker, James Drury, Karen Sharpe, Rita Gam, Ilona Massey, Jan Miner, Constance Bennett, Ed Begley, Judy Parrish, Mildred Natwick, Preston Foster, Eva Condon, Patricia Breslin, Ernest Truex, Mary K. Wells, Marjorie Gateson, Tod Andrews, Ruth Ford, Fred Bartholomew, Richard Carlson.

1186 Cameo Theater. (Series; Anthology; Syn.; 1959). The program consists of rebroadcasts of dramas that were originally broadcast on Matinee Theater. See this title for information. Twenty-six selected episodes aired.

1187 Camouflage. (Series; Game; ABC; 1961–1962). Two players compete. A camouflaged cartoon drawing, which contains a hidden object, is flashed on a screen. Through correct responses during a series of general knowledge question-and-answer rounds, players receive the opportunity to trace the object. If they are unable to guess it, a section of the camouflage is removed. The game continues until someone identifies the object.

Host: Don Morrow.

1188 Camouflage. (Series; Game; Syn.; 1980). Two players compete in a game wherein they must trace the outlines of specific items that are contained in a photograph but concealed by a number of camouflaged overlays. The first player to correctly answer a general knowledge question wins $50 and the opportunity to find the concealed object. A portion of the camouflage is removed after each question and the first player to find the concealed object is the winner and receives what money he has accumulated.

Host: Tom Campbell. Announcer: Johnny Jacobs.

1189 Camouflage. (Series; Game; Game Show Network; 2007). Two players compete. A board with scrambled letters appears on stage. A clue is given by the host that informs players of the word or words that must be found. Puzzles begin at $200 (then increase to $300) but decrease by $10 for each letter that has to be removed before one of the players guesses the word. The player scores the money that is available when he identifies the camouflaged word. A "Double Camouflage" appears at various times and allows the player to win extra money by finding the camouflaged word in the answer to the puzzle he just solved. The player with the highest score is the winner.

Host: Roger Lodge.

1190 Camp Bicknell. (Unaired Pilot; Comedy; Produced for ABC in 1992). The pilot film for the ABC series Camp Wilder. Camp Bicknell is the nickname for the house at 1115 Fairlawn Avenue in Los Angeles. It is owned by Ricky Bicknell, a 28-year-old divorced nurse and the mother of two pretty daughters (Lucy and Sophie). Ricky lives with her 16-year-old brother, Brody, who became her responsibility following the death of their parents a year ago. The story relates Ricky's efforts to raise three kids — and Brody's adventures with his friends (Dorfman, Danielle and Beth) who hang out with him at Camp Bicknell.

Cast: Elena Stiteler (Ricky Bicknell), Paul Scherrer (Brody Bicknell), Ginger Orsi (Lucy Bicknell), Tina Majorino (Sophie Bicknell), Jay Mohr (Dorfman), Hilary Swank (Danielle), Margaret Langrick (Beth). Note: In the series Mary Page Keller played Ricky Wilder; Jerry O'Connell was Brody Wilder; and Meghann Haldeman was Melissa Wilder (replaced the Lucy Bicknell character). Other roles were the same.

1191 Camp California. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 9/9/89). Club Fed, the nickname for a minimum security prison in Santa Ramona, California, was the setting for a proposed series about an institution for white collar criminals where inmates live the good life.

Cast: Lorraine Toussaint (Warden Cheryl Woolrich), Ted Wass (Michael), Garrett Graham (Jordan Detweiler), Barry Corbin (Howard James), Bruce Norris (Ned Stringer), James Hong (James Tuin), Tracey Walter (Laird Sussman), Pat Millicano (Vernon Pruitt). Guest Cast: Valerie Mahaffey (Julie), Julia Montgomery (Brenda), Luis Avalos (Felix).

1192 Camp Candy. (Series; Cartoon; NBC; 1989–1991). Camp Candy is a summer camp for children run by an animated version of comedian John Candy and his assistant Nurse Molly. There is a camp rivalry (between Camp Candy and Camp Knuckles), a greedy land developer (Rex DeForest) seeking to by the Camp Candy landsite for condos; and the usual camp kid stuff with each camper managing to find his or her share of mischief.

Second season episodes feature John Candy in live action segments (as himself) relaying short messages about nature and ecology.

Voice Cast: John Candy (John Candy), Valri Bromfield (Nurse Molly), Lewis Arquette (Rex DeForest). Additional Voices: Danny Mann, Angella Kaye, Willow Johnson, Christopher Candy, Michael Horse, Danielle Ferrandes, George Coe, Elizabeth Daily, Victoria Carroll, Jennifer Candy, Kath Soucie, Candi Milo, Katie Leigh, Cree Summer.

1193 Camp Grizzly. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 6/30/80). Life at Uncle Bernie's Camp Grizzly, a rundown summer camp with decrepit facilities and incompetent counselors. The pilot episode relates Counselor Nick's efforts to win a swimming contest so he can join Missy, the camp's only female counselor, and her girls on a camping trip. Other Regulars: Counselors Jean, Furman and Garafala; and the campers: Joey, Charlie, Bryan, Timmy and Steve.

Cast: Carl Ballantine (Uncle Bernie), Hilary Thompson (Missy), Richard Cox (Nick Nickerson), Jeanette Arnette (Jean), Demetre Phillips (Furman), Jay Fenichel (Garafala), Joey Coleman (Joey), Charles Wilhite (Charlie), Bryan Scott (Bryan), Timothy Roesch (Timmy), Steven Pollick (Steve).

1194 Camp Lazlo. (Series; Cartoon; Cartoon Network; 2005). Camp Kidney is a summer camp located in the Pimpleback Mountains (near Leakey Lake). It has cabins named after beans (for example, Jelly Bean, Soy Bean, String Bean) and it is inhabited by a group of talking animals, most notably Lazlo, a Brazilian monkey, who is also a Bean Scout. Raj, an Indian elephant, and Clam, a pygmy rhino, are his best friends. Algonquin C. Lumpus, a moose, is the scoutmaster. Stories follow Lazlo as he and his pals struggle to cope with the daily routines of camp life.

Other characters are Slinkman, Lumpus's aide; Edward, a platypus who is the camp bully; Chip and Skip, the dung beetle friends of Edward (a slug).

Across the lake is a girl's camp called The Squirrel Scout Camp. Its main characters are Patsy Smiles, a mongoose (with a crush on Lazlo), Nina Neckerly, Patsy's best friend; Gretchen, an alligator with an appetite for monkeys; and Jane Doe, a deer who is the Squirrel Scout leader.

Voice Cast: Carlos Alazraqui (Lazlo), Carlos Alazraqui (Clam), Glenn Bennett (Raj), Tom Kenny (Lumpus), Tom Kenny (Slinkman), Doug Lawrence (Edward), Steve Little (Chip and Skip), Jodi Benson (Patsy Smiles), Jodi Benson (Jane Doe), Jill Tilley (Nina Nickely), Jill Tilley (Gretchen).

1195 Camp Runamuck. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1965–1966). Camp Runamuck is a summer boys' camp "in the middle of the farming country." Wallace ("Wally") Wivenhoe is its owner, a crude, rude and miserable man who is referred to as Commander Wivenhoe. There are 40 boys (called "Runamuckians") attending the camp, and state law requires that there be one counselor for every ten campers.

George Spiffy is the senior counselor; Stanley Pruett is a counselor; and Malden is the camp's overweight cook. Medical emergencies are handled by Doc Joslyn. Doc previously worked for eight years at County General Hospital; George was a meteorologist in the air force.

Wivenhoe considers his campgrounds a haven and seeks to preserve his "forest paradise" from "the women who have invaded his woods." The "women"

Wivenhoe fears are the campers and female counselors at Camp Divine, an all-girls summer camp that is located directly across the lake from Runamuck (it is a 32 mile drive around the lake to Camp Divine). The girls sound assembly (by bugle) at 6:00 A.M. and drive Wivenhoe and his counselors batty with their song “Good Morning to You,” which they sing each morning before a day’s activities.

Wivenhoe is cheap and has few pleasures in life; playing golf relaxes him, eating quinces (fruit) every morning with his breakfast pleases him, but the manipulation of his counselors by the female counselors irritates him. The girls send messages to Wivenhoe via bow and arrow.

Mahala Mae Gruenecker is the head of Camp Divine (she has a crush on Wally). She is assisted by Caprice Yeudleman and Nadine Smith. The beautiful and ultra sexy Caprice is a Rhodes scholar (she attended Oxford University) who drives Wivenhoe’s men crazy (especially Pruett; when Caprice calls him “Prusey,” he gets the shakes, but a slap on the face returns him to normal). Caprice is brighter than she presents herself and loves to walk in the rain; she has a pet rabbit named Bridget.

Eulalia Divine is the owner of Cam Devine; Forrest Lewis appeared as Mahala Mae’s uncle, Harvey Apperson. Irving and Virginia are the two unrealistic bears who comment from the woods on the various camp activities.

Cast: Arch Johnson (Commander Wivenhoe), Nina Wayne (Caprice Yeudleman), Alice Nunn (Mahala Mae Gruenecker), Dave Ketchum (Counselor Spiffy), Dave Madden (Counselor Pruett), Mike Wagner (Counselor Malden), Leonard J. Stone (Doc Joslyn), Frank DeVol (Doc Joslyn; later), Maureen McCormick (Camper Maureen Sullivan), George Dunn (Sheriff), Hermione Baddeley (Eulalia Divine), Beverly Adams (Counselor Nadine Smith), Carol Anderson (Counselor Ivy), Lindy David (Camper Everett), Frederic Downs (Camper Glefky). Theme Song: “Camp Runamuck” by Frank DeVol.

1196 Camp Wilder. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1992–1993). Ricky Wilder is an emergency room nurse whose home at 1115 Fairlawn Drive (Santa Monica, California) is affectionately called Camp Wilder by the neighborhood kids who hang out with her brother, Brody, and sister, Melissa.

Ricky, 28, is divorced (from Dean), and is the mother of Sophie. She took on the responsibility of raising Brody (16) and Melissa (13) when their parents were killed in a car accident.

As a kid Ricky wanted to be a ballerina “but I didn’t study, couldn’t dance and I was pudgy.” Ricky majored in oceanography and dreamed of working with Jacques Costeau on the Calypso. But she met Dean, married and moved to Albuquerque. When she realized Dean didn’t love her, she divorced him and moved to California. Ricky thought of becoming a maternity nurse at age 12 and when she had doubts about her current job, she quit to become an education specialist at Sealand (leading tours and teaching marine biology). “Nursing is not what I dreamed it would be, so I quit,” she says.

Sophie, called “Pumpkin” by Ricky, has a hamster (Barney), an invisible friend (Morty) and a pet penguin (Rusty). When Sophie thought life would be better as a boy, she started dressing like one and called herself Kurt.

Melissa, experiencing the “traumas of becoming a woman,” practices kissing on fruit (peaches). She has a collection of toy horses and as a kid wore panties with characters from the Hello Kitty cartoon series on them.

Brody, nicknamed “Spot” as a kid, runs track in high school and has a part time job with Star View Tours.

Danielle, Beth and Dorfman hang out at Camp Wilder. Danielle is partial to the blue mug with the duck on it when she’s at the house. Dorfman works for a company called Roses for a Buck and has a pet snake named Ricky (Dorfman has a crush on Ricky and is obsessed with her shoes — all 12 pairs of them). Dorfman believes, at times, he is being stalked by a gorilla named Francie. Outside the house Ricky faces all the pressures of the world, “but inside I feel like a teenager with a really good complexion.”

Cast: Mary Page Keller (Ricky Wilder), Jerry O’Connell (Brody Wilder), Meghann Haldeman (Melissa Wilder), Tina Majorino (Sophie Wilder), Hilary Swank (Danielle), Margaret Langrick (Beth), Jay Mohr (Dorfman).

1197 Camp Wilderness. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1980). The adventures of a group of teenagers, members of Camp Wilderness, as they explore the natural wonders of the United States.

Cast: Franci Hogle (Counselor Franci), Stefan Hayes (Counselor Stefan), Ruth Ingersoll (Camper Ruth), Matt Boston (Camper Matt), Lisa Catalli (Camper Lisa), Nora Lester (Camper Nora), Phil Catalli (Camper Phil), Jeff Kurtz (Camper Jeff), Scott Monti (Camper Scott), Korry Blakemor (Camper Korry), Dan Smith (Camper Dan), Steve Abbott (Camper Steve), Raymond Roy (Camper Will), Stevie Belling (Camper Stevie), Wallace Eddy (Swift Eagle; the guide).

1198 The Campbell Television Soundstage. (Series; Anthology; NBC; 1953–1954). A series of dramatic presentations, sponsored by the Campbell Soup Company, that is also known as TV Soundstage.

Performers Include: James Dean, Susan Douglas, Betsy Von Furstenburg, Jack Lemmon, Martin E. Brooks, James Gregory, Walter Matthau, Art Carney, Jack Warden, Patricia Breslin, Arnold Moss, Claudia Morgan, Georgann Johnson, E.G. Marshall, Margaret Hayes, James Holden, Betsy Palmer, Patricia McCormack, Eileen Heckart, Lydia Reed, Henry Hull, Jean Gillespie, Darren McGavin, Elliott Reid, Janice Rule, Carl Reiner.

1199 Campo 44. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 9/9/67). A World War II comedy about the experiences of the American and British residents of Campo 44, an Italian prisoner of war camp. In the pilot episode, an attempt by NBC to duplicate the success of CBS's Hogan's Heroes, the prisoners attempt to smuggle out a new arrival by disguising him as an Italian parachutist.

Cast: Philip Abbott (Flickinger), Jim Dawson (Wellington), Dino Fazio (Bergamo), Fred Smoot (Berry), Vito Scotti (Barracutti).

1200 Campus Corner. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1949). The alternate title for Quadrangle, a variety series that ran from March 14, 1949 to April 22, 1949. See this title for information.

1201 Can Do. (Series; Game; NBC; 1956). The object calls for contestants to determine whether or not guest celebrities can perform certain stunts. After a series of indirect question-and-answer rounds between the contestant and the celebrity, the player is escorted to an isolation booth and given a limited amount of time to determine whether or not the celebrity guest can do what he claims. The guest is then asked if he is able to perform the stunt in question. If the player guesses correctly he wins a prize (and the guest performs the stunt if the answer was yes).

Host: Robert Alda.

1202 Can You Top This? (Series; Game; NBC; 1950–1951). Jokes submitted by home viewers are relayed to the audience by “The Joke Teller.” The response, zero to one hundred is registered on a laugh meter. A panel of three comedians tries to beat the established score with other jokes in the same category. The home viewer receives $25 for each joke that registers a lesser response (to a limit of $100). Based on the radio program of the same title. The TV version ran from October 3, 1950 to March 26, 1951.

Host: Ward Wilson. Joke Teller: Senator Edward Ford. Panelists: Harry Hershfield, Joe Laurie, Jr., Peter Donald.

1203 Can You Top This? (Series; Game; Syn.; 1970). “The Joke Teller” reads a joke, submitted by a home viewer, to the studio audience. The response is registered on a laugh meter. A panel of comedians then relate a similar joke with the object being to beat the established score. The home viewer receives cash for each joke that fails to beat his score. The series is based on the radio program of the same title.

Host: Wink Martindale. Joke Teller: Dick Gautier, Richard Dawson. Regular Panelist: Morey Amsterdam.

1204 Candid Camera. (Series; Comedy; ABC; CBS; NBC; Syn.; HBO; PAX; 1948–2003). Ordinary people suddenly confronted with prearranged, ludicrous situations are filmed by hidden cameras and caught in the act of being themselves. The series, created by Allen Funt, is adapted from his 1947 radio series Candid Microphone. There was also an adult version of the series, called Candid Candid Camera that ran on cable (HBO) and featured situations that often involved topless girls.

The series broadcast dates are as follows: ABC, 1948; NBC, 1949; CBS, 1949–1950; ABC, 1951–1952; NBC, 1953; CBS, 1959–1960 (as a segment of The Garry Moore Show); CBS, 1960–1967; Syndicated, 1974–1980; HBO, 1984–1985 (as Candid Candid Camera); CBS, 1990; Syndicated, 1991–1992 (as The New Candid Camera); CBS, 1997–2000; PAX, 2001–2003.

Cast: Allen Funt (Host, 1948–1990), Dom DeLuise (Host, 1991–1992), Peter Funt (Host, 1990; 1997–2003), Arthur Godfrey (Co-Host, 1960–1961), Durward Kirby (Co-Host, 1961–1966), Bess Myerson (Co-Host, 1967–1974), John Bartholomew Tucker (Co-Host, 1974–1975), Phyllis George (Co-Host, 1975–1976), Jo Ann Pflug (Co-Host, 1976–1977), Betsy Palmer (Co-Host, 1977), Loni Anderson (Co-Host, 1981), Valerie Harper (Co-Host, 1981), Stephanie Zimbalist (Co-Host, 1983), Eva La Rue (Co-Host, 1991–1992), Suzanne Somers (Co-Host, 1997–2000). Regulars: Jerry Lester, Fannie Flagg, Marilyn Van DeBur, Dorothy Collins, Joey Faye, Betsy Palmer, Al Kelly, Marge Green, Tom O'Malley, Thelma Pellmige. Announcer: Allen Funt, Ken Roberts, Durward Kirby, Frank Simms, Peter Funt.

1205 Candid Kids. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 3/16/85). An unsold juvenile version of Candid Camera. Children, placed in prearranged comical situations, are caught in the act of being themselves by hidden cameras.

Host: Allen Funt. Co-Host: Nancy McKeon.

1206 Cane. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 2007–). The Dugue family are Cuban Americans who have established a successful sugar and rum business in the mythical town of Playa Azul in South Florida.

Pancho Duque is the family patriarch. He is married to Amalia. Alex Vega is their adopted son and Frank Duque is their natural born son. Alex is married to Isabel and they are the parents of Jaime, Katie and Artie. Pancho and Amalia are dedicated to preserving the decades-old family business despite pressures (and offers) from outsiders (namely the Samuels family) to sell the sugar end of the business.

Alex believes sugar is the new oil and strongly believes the family business should remain as it is. Frank feels just the opposite and believes they should just focus on making rum. Isabel has distanced herself from the family business and is dedicated to raising her and Alex's children. Katie is a rebellious teenager who is torn between the family dynasty and a life on her own away from it; Artie has just been accepted to college and wants to start a new life with his girlfriend, Rebecca (but he deeply loves his father and does not want to disappoint him by leaving the business); Jaime, Alex's youngest son, stands by the sidelines and watches, taking no side. Stories follow the Dugues as they struggle to run their dynasty — and the conflicts they must overcome to protect it.

Cast: Jimmy Smits (Alex Vega), Hector Elizondo (Pancho Duque), Nestor Carbonell (Frank Duque), Rita Moreno (Amalia Duque), Polly Walker (Ellis Samuels), Paola Turbay (Isabel Vega), Eddie Matos (Henry Duque), Michael Trevino (Jaime Vega), Lina Esco (Katie Vega), Samuel Carman (Artie Vega), Alona Tal (Rebecca King).

1207 Canned Film Festival. (Series; Comedy; Syn.; 1986). When the Majestic Theater in the town of Limekirk begins to suffer from a lack of moviegoers, Laraine Potter, the owner, hits on an idea to screen the best of the worst movies ever made. The series, set in a movie theater, features a cast of regulars who perform skits between commercial breaks. The series presents movies that are so bad that many are seeing the light of the small screen for the first time; for example: Doctor of Doom (about a doctor who transplants a gorilla's brain into that of a female wrestler); Robot Monster (aliens terrorize earthlings); The Terror of Tiny Town (the first and only musical western featuring midgets); and Santa Claus Conquers the Martians (a 1964 epic that launched the career of then 12-year-old Pia Zadora as a Martian child).

Cast: Laraine Newman (Laraine Potter). Regulators: F. Richard Ford, Laura Galusha, Patrick Garner, Phil Nee, Kathryn Rossitter.

1208 Cannon. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 1971–1976). Frank Cannon is a highly paid but overweight private detective. He operates out of Los Angeles and tackles cases that ordinary private detectives would not handle (difficult murder cases). Stories follow Frank, a loner who often works with the police, as he attempts to solve crimes. Over the course of the series Frank assisted (or was assisted by) lieutenants Ed Misner, Rea Eiler and Lloyd Daggett.

Cast: William Conrad (Frank Cannon), Andy Romano (Lt. Ed Misner), Kathryn Reynolds (Lt. Rea Eiler), Dabney Coleman (Lt. Lloyd Daggett). Theme Music: "Cannon's Theme" by John Parker.

1209 Cannonball. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1958–1959). "Any kind of weather, any time of day, when the rig is ready, he'll be on his way to carry any cargo anywhere; name the destination and brother, he'll be there...." The theme refers to "Cannonball" Michael ("Mike") Malone, a seasoned truck driver for the C & A Transport Company in Canada (the company headquarters are in Toronto; Mike and his young partner, Jerry Austin work out of the North Bay Station).

Before each run, Mike and Jerry (who is called "The Romeo of the Road") have "a cup of java before they shove off" at Gertrude's Diner. They drive various GMC ten ton diesels and are capable of fixing any rig the company owns. They call the cab (where they ride) "The Horse."

Prior to Cannonball, the first attempt at a series about truckers was an unaired pilot called The Long Highway (produced in 1956). J. Pat O'Malley played a dispatcher who introduced tales about truckers.

Cast: Paul Birch (Mike Malone), William Campbell (Jerry Austin).

1210 Can't Hurry Love. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1995–1996). Annie O'Donnell is a single New York girl looking for Mr. Right. She lives at 423 West 28th Street (Apartment 302) and works for the People Pleasers Employment Agency. She attends St. Catherine's Church and has a $400 limit on her Visa card. She also has "The Mystery Puddle" in her living room ("I clean it but it keeps coming back from under the floorboards"). Annie calls her breasts "Thelma and Louise" (when asked why, she responds, "That's another story"). Annie has named the two pigeons that have called her windowsill home Bill and Henry, and she dreams of a charming guy who will bring her a dozen roses and sweep her off her feet.

"I know he's out there," she says, "but so far I haven't found him." Men say Annie "has teeth like sparkling porcelain stars"; "It's a curse," says Annie.

Annie's best friend, her neighbor Didi, lives in Apartment 303. She is a model who always keeps her hopes up "so I will not be disappointed." Didi believes her beauty is sometimes a curse when she attracts the wrong type of men. She appears to eat whatever she wants (much to Annie's regret who is struggling to maintain her figure) and never gain an ounce. She and Annie frequent a bar called Wrecks. Stories relate events in the lives of the two women.

Cast: Nancy McKeon (Annie O'Donnell), Mariska Hargitay (Didi Edelstein), Louis Mandylor (Roger Carlucci), David Pressman (Elliot Tanny), Kevin Crowley (Elliot Tanny; later).

1211 The Cape. (Series; Drama; Syn.; 1996). The series is set at the Kennedy Space Center in Florida and follows the experiences (mostly the lives and loves) of the astronauts and trainees under the leadership of Henry "Bull" Eckert, the director of NASA training. The local hangout is the Moonshot Bar and Grill (owned by Sweets).

Cast: Corbin Bernsen (Col. Henry "Bull" Eckert), Tyra Ferrell (Mission Specialist Tamara St. James), Cameron Bancroft (Capt. Ezekiel "Zeke" Beaumont), Bobbie Phillips (Lt. Cmdr. Barbara DeSantos), Adam Baldwin (Maj. Jack Riles), Bobby Hosea (Maj. Reginald Warren), Katie Mitchell (Andrea Wylie), Chad Willett (Peter Engel), Sam Anderson (Kevin Davis), David Kelsey (D.B. Woods), Robin O'Dell (Ellen Eckert), Whitman Mayo (Sweets).

1212 Capital News. (Series; Drama; ABC; 4/8/90 to 4/30/90). The inner workings of the Washington Capital, a large Washington, D.C. newspaper, as seen through the eyes of its staff: Jonathan Joseph (Jo Jo) Turner, the editor; Clayton Gibson, the news editor; Doreen Duncan, the metro reporter; Mary Ward, the national reporter; and Anne McKenna, a reporter.

Cast: Lloyd Bridges (Jonathan Turner), Kathryn Harrold (Mary Ward), Helen Slater (Anne McKenna), Jenny Wright (Doreen Duncan), Michael Woods (Clay Mitchell).

1213 Capitol. (Series; Drama; CBS; 1982). Washington, D.C. is the setting for a look at the activities of the Cleggs and the McCandlesses, two ambitious, power-hungry families.

Cast: Carolyn Jones (Myrna Clegg), Marj Dusay (Myrna Clegg; later), Kimberly Beck-Hilton (Julie Clegg-McCandless), Catherine Hickland (Julie McCandless; later), Leslie Graves (Brenda Clegg), Todd Curtis (Jordy Clegg), Nicholas Walker (Sam "Trey" Clegg), Richard Egan (Sam Clegg II), Constance Towers (Clarissa McCandless), Kelly Palzis (Gillian McCandless), Shea Farrell (Matt McCandless), Christopher Durham (Matt McCandless; later), Brian Taylor (Dr. Thomas McCandless), Michael Catlin (Dr. Thomas McCandless; later), David Mason Daniels (Tyler McCandless), Bill Beyers (Wally McCandless), Deborah Mullowney (Sloane Denning), Ed Nelson (Senator Mark Denning), Tonja Walker (Lisabeth Bachman), Jeff Chamberlain (Lawrence Barrington), Duncan Gamble (Frank Burgess), Jane Daly (Shelley Granger), Rory Calhoun (Judson Tyler), Rodney Saulsberry (Jeff Jackson), Marla Adams (Bernadette Lang), Lana Wood (Fran Burke), Julie Adams (Paula Denning), Kimberly Ross (Amy Burke), Julie Parrish (Maggie Brady), Ronnie Angelo (Dawn Parrish), Bradley Lockerman (Zed Diamond).

1214 Capitol Capers. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1949). A live summer program of music and songs from Washington, D.C. The series aired from August 1, 1949 to September 7, 1949.

Host: Glenn Archer. Music: The Cliff Quartet.

1215 Capitol Critters. (Series; Cartoon; ABC; 1992). When his family is exterminated by "smokers" (pest exterminators), Max the Mouse leaves Nebraska (where he lived in a farm house) and heads for Washington, D.C., to live with his cousin Berkley in the White House basement. Stories present a rodent's eye view of contemporary issues.

Voice Cast: Neil Patrick Harris (Max), Jennifer Darling (Berkley), Charlie Adler (Jammet), Patti Deutsch (Trixie), Dorian Harewood (Moze), Bobcat Goldthwait (Muggle).

1216 Cap'n Ahab. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 9/3/65). At the reading of a will, Tillie Meeks, a Southern girl, and Maggie Feeney, her distant cousin, a showgirl, inherit a New York townhouse, a large sum of money and Cap'n Ahab, a 97-year-old parrot. The unsold series was to relate their misadventures as they attempt to keep their newfound life of luxury by following the conditions of the will: live together and care for Cap'n Ahab.

Cast: Judy Canova (Tillie Meeks), Jaye P. Morgan (Maggie Feeney), Don Porter (Battersea; their housekeeper). Guest Cast: Francine York (Miss Langdon), Eddie Quillan (Emcee), Larry Blake (Hardhat), Tom Lound (Chauffeur), Murray Hill (Cop), Tommy Alende (Delivery boy).

1217 Capsule Mysteries. (Series; Mystery; Syn.; 1951). As the title implies, a complete mystery is presented and solved within three-and-one-half minutes by the intrepid Inspector Drew.

Cast: Glenn Langan (Inspector Drew).

1218 Captain America. (Pilot; Adventure; CBS; 1/19/79). During World War II, Steve Rogers, a scientist, developed FLAG (Full Latent Ability Gain), a special serum taken from his cells that produced superhuman strength and transformed him into Captain America, a daring and courageous war hero. Twenty-five years later, when Steve Rogers, Jr., son of the famous scientist, is injured in an accident, he is given the special serum when all other methods to save his life fail. Not only does FLAG save Steve's life, but he also becomes Captain America, now a daring crime fighter. In the pilot film, Steve attempts to stop a madman who is threatening to destroy mankind with a neutron bomb.

Other Regulars: Dr. Simon Mills, the scientist in charge of FLAG research; and Dr. Wendy Day, Simon's assistant.

Cast: Reb Brown (Steve Rogers/Captain America), Len Birman (Simon Mills), Heather Menzies (Wendy Day). Guest Cast: Steve Forrest (Lou Brackett), Lance LeGault (Harley), Frank Marth (Charles Barber), June Dayton (Secretary), Joseph Ruskin (Sandrini), James Ingersol (Lester Wayne).

1219 Captain America II. (Pilot; Adventure; CBS; 11/23 and 11/24/79). The second of two pilot films about the exploits of Steve Rogers, a daring crime fighter who combats evil as Captain America (see the prior title for background information). In the second pilot film, Steve searches for a kidnapped scientist who possesses the ability to accelerate the aging process.

Cast: Reb Brown (Steve Rogers/Captain America), Len Birman (Dr. Simon Mills), Connie Sellecca (Dr. Wendy Day). Guest Cast: Christopher Lee (Miguel), Lana Wood (Yolanda), Katherine Justice (Heflin), Christopher Cary (Professor Ilson), William Mims (Dr. Brenner), John Waldron (Peter Moore), June Dayton (June Cullen).

1220 Captain Billy's Showboat. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1948). Music, songs, comedy skits and dramatic vignettes set and performed on a Mississippi River paddle-wheel showboat owned by the show's host, Captain Billy Bryant.

The first episode aired as Captain Billy's Showboat on August 16, 1948; it became Captain Billy's Mississippi Showboat the following night (August 17) and ran until September 14, 1948 under that title. The title changed again (to Captain Billy's Mississippi Music Hall) and ran from September 17, 1948 to November 26, 1948.

Cast: Ralph Dunne (Captain Billy Bryant). Regulars: Virginia Gibson, Johnny Downs, Juanita Hall, Bibi Osterwald, Betty Brewer, George Jason, Ralph Dumke. Orchestra: Vic Smalley, John Gart.

1221 Captain Caveman and the Teen Angels. (Series; Cartoon; ABC; 1980). While exploring a cave, Taffy Dare, Brenda Chance and Dee Dee Sykes, three beautiful girls known as the Teen Angels, release and befriend a prehistoric caveman they find frozen in a block of ice. The series depicts their adventures as the team to battle crime.

Voice Cast: Mel Blanc (Captain Caveman), Laurel Page (Taffy Dare), Marilyn Schreffler (Brenda Chance), Vernee Watson (Dee Dee Sykes).

1222 Captain David Grief. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1957–1958). David Grief is captain of the Rattler, a two mast, gaff rigged trading schooner “that is not very big but can sail with the best of them.” David is based in the West Indies, and he sometimes sets sail to where the wind will take him. Merchandise is his basic cargo, but passengers are also welcome — as long as they pay their way (women have the most difficult time aboard the ship because “the quarters aboard the Rattler are not much of a match for a lady”).

David is partners with Elihu Snow; Boley is the bosun, and Jackie Jackie is the deck hand. Shipmates are paid $30 a month and repairs to the schooner are made at Papp's Shipyard. The series is based on the stories by Jack London (the series official screen title is Captain David Grief by Jack London).

Ted Dale composed the theme. In the original, unaired pilot version, David is the captain of a sloop called the Rattler. His traveling companion is a beautiful native girl named Anura, and together they roam the West Indies in search of adventure.

Cast: Maxwell Reed (Capt. David Grief), Maureen Hingert (Anura), Tudor Owen (Elihu Snow), Mel Prestidge (Jackie Jackie), Mickey Simpson (Boley).

1223 Captain Fathom. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1968). Bill Fathom is the captain of the submarine Argonaut. He is assisted by Scotty, Miss Perkins, Cookie and Ronnie and a dolphin named Flip. Stories follow Captain Fathom as he and his crew battle evil. The series is filmed in Sychro-Vox, a system that allows human lips to be combined with animated images.

Voice Cast: William Tufts (Captain Fathom).

1224 Captain Gallant of the Foreign Legion. (Series; Adventure; NBC; ABC; 1955–1963). The series, set at the French Foreign Legion headquarters in North Africa, relates the adventures of Michael Gallant, a Legion captain, and his young ward, Cuffy Sanders, the son of slain officer Bill Sanders, as they struggle to uphold the causes of freedom and justice. Cuffy calls Captain Gallant “Uncle Mike.” The series, which produced 65 episodes, is also known as Foreign Legionnaire. The series ran on NBC from February 13, 1955 to February 7, 1957; on ABC from June 6, 1960 to September 24, 1960 and on NBC from October 1, 1960 to September 21, 1963.

Cast: Buster Crabbe (Capt. Michael Gallant), Cullen Crabbe (Cuffy Sanders), Fuzzy Knight (Pvt. Fuzzy Knight), Giles Queant (Sergeant DuVal), Norma Eberherdt (Carla; Fuzzy's girlfriend), Roger Trevielle (Colonel), Daniel Lecourtois (Colonel).

1225 Captain Kangaroo. (Series; Children; CBS; 1955–1984). An entertaining, well-produced series that helps children understand their rapidly changing world through cartoons, stories, songs, puppet antics and sketches.

The series is hosted by a kind gentleman known as Captain Kangaroo (called so after the coat he wears with large pockets). The action takes place at the Treasure House (also called the Captain's Place) and he is assisted and visited by an array of characters. Most notable is Mr. Green Jeans, a farmer who introduces the audience to various animals (as well as becoming involved in the antics of puppets Mr. Moose and the non-speaking Bunny Rabbit). Also in the Treasure House are Grandfather Clock and the Magic Drawing Board. Dennis the Handyman, Debbie, Cosmo, Mr. Baxter, Dancing Bear and Banana Man were also around to help the Captain entertain the viewing audience. Bill Cosby joined the cast in the late 1970s as the Viewer Participation Segment Host.

The series premiered on October 30, 1955 and ran for 60 minutes until September 25, 1981. On September 28, 1981 (and until January 15, 1982) it ran for 30 minutes under the title Wake Up). It returned to its original title on January 18, 1982 and ran for 30 minutes until September 17, 1982. It returned to a 60-minute format on September 18, 1982 and ended its run on December 8, 1984. The series ran on a daily basis and produced 8,000 episodes.

Cast: Bob Keeshan (Captain Kangaroo), Lumpy Brannum (Mr. Green Jeans), Debbie Weems (Debbie), Cosmo Allegretti (Cosmo), Cosmo Allegretti (Dennis), Cosmo Allegretti (Bunny Rabbit), Cosmo Allegretti (Grandfather Clock), Cosmo Allegretti (Dancing Bear), Cosmo Allegretti (Magic Board), James E. Wall (Mr. Baxter), A. Robbins (Banana Man), Bill Cosby (Viewer Segment Host), Shari Lewis (Mr. Green Jeans Niece), Ann Leonardo (Regular), Bennye Gatteys (Regular), Dr. Joyce Brothers (Regular). Vocalist: Beverly Henshaw, Holly Mershon, Phil Casnoff, Terrence Emanuel.

1226 Captain Midnight. (Series; Adventure; CBS; 1954–1956). The Secret Squadron is an organization designed to battle the enemies of the free world. It is located in a secret mountain retreat and is commanded by a mysterious man known only as Captain Midnight. He is assisted by the mechanical genius Ickky "Icky" Mudd and Aristotle "Tut" Jones, his scientific advisor.

Captain Midnight's destiny began one night in a bomb shelter in France during World War II. The war has reached a moment of crisis and the Allies are in danger of a devastating defeat. Suddenly a man, whose name the general in charge does not want to know, enters the room. The man, Captain Jim Albright, is told "that only two people in the world know the mission to which you have been assigned, myself and the President of the United States. The odds are 100 to 1 against you. If you fail tonight, it will be the end for all of us. If you succeed tonight, you will have started a long and dangerous task that may require a lifetime to complete " (protect the world from evil). Albright's assignment is to exterminate Ivan Shark, the most dangerous criminal in the world (a traitor who has cost the lives of many Americans). As Albright is about to leave, the general tells him, "Henceforth, until you complete your final task, you will not be known by your true name. What name you will be known by rests in the hands of fate." "Sir," the captain says, "If I have not returned by twelve o'clock you will know that I have failed."

The hours pass slowly. It is 15 seconds to midnight and it appears as though Albright has failed. Suddenly, the faint sounds of an airplane are heard. "Listen to that," the general tells his aide. "We're saved and it's just twelve o'clock. To me he will always be known as Captain Midnight."

Captain Midnight flies a plane called the Silver Dart. Members of the Secret Squadron are assigned and referred to by a number (for example, SQ 7, SQ 3). Viewers could become squadron members by mailing in coupons found inside the lid of the show's sponsor, Ovaltine (chocolate milk-flavoring crystals). Viewers received a decal and a patch identifying them as members of the Secret Squadron plus a special pin for decoding the secret message given at the end of each episode.

Ovaltine cancelled the highly rated series in 1956 after 39 episodes were filmed due to a lack of sales (kids were removing coupons from the jars but not buying the product). Ovaltine, which originated the program on radio, refused to sponsor the program in syndication and reserved its right to the name "Captain Midnight." The title was changed to Jet Jackson, Flying Commando and through voice-over dubbing, Jet Jackson was said in place of Captain Midnight.

Icky carries a rabbit's foot for luck ("I'm packin' a little insurance") and, after he is introduced to someone by the Captain, he says, "That's Mudd with two d's." The Silver Dart, which carries extra fuel tanks for extended flights, is credited as "Courtesy of the Douglas Aircraft Company and the U.S. Navy." Don Ferris composed the theme.

The program opens as follows: "It's Captain Midnight, brought to you by Ovaltine, chocolate flavored Ovaltine. Delicious! Nutritious! Instant Ovaltine, the fortified food drink that tops them all!"

Cast: Richard Webb (Captain Midnight), Sid Melton (Icky Mudd), Olan Soule (Tut Jones).

1227 Captain N and the New Super Mario World. (Series; Cartoon; NBC; 1991–1992). An animated series based on the video game of the same name (it is also a continuation, in part, of The Super Mario Brothers Super Show; see entry). The setting is Dinosaur Island where brothers Mario and Luigi and their friends Princess Toadstool and Yoshu (a dinosaur) battle the evil King Koopa and the Koopa Kids. When the cartoon was produced, the video game was not yet established (in development) and the show's creators had to make up names for the Koopa Kids. Larry would later become Cheatsy Koopa; Wendy (Kootie Pie Koopa), Roy (Bully Koopa), Morton (Big Mouth Koopa), Ludwig (Kooky von Koopa), Lenny (Hip Koopa) and Iggy (Hop Koopa).

Voice Cast: Walker Boone (Mario), Tony Rosato (Luigi), Andrew Sabiston (Yoshi), Tracey Moore (Princess Toadstool), Harvey Atkin (King Koopa), John Stocker (Oogtar), Jonathan Potts (Link), Cynthia Preston (Princess Zelda), Gordon Masten (Big Mouth), Tara Strong (Hip Koopa), Paulina Gillis (Kootie Pie Koopa), James Rankin (Cheatsy Koopa), Michael Stark (Kooky von Koopa), Dan Hennessey (Bully Koopa).

1228 Captain N: The Game Master. (Series; Cartoon; NBC; 1989–1991). A series based on the Nintendo video game that is set in Videoland where the characters that appear in the various games are real. Princess Lana rules Videoland, but the evil Mother Brain is seeking to conquer it with her accomplices, King Hippo, the Eggplant Wizard, Count Dracula and Dr. Wily.

Princess Lana needs help to defeat Mother Brain. To do so she recruits Kevin Keene, a California teenager who is a whiz at playing video games. Kevin and his dog, Duke, are transported to Videoland through the Ultimate Warp Zone where Kevin becomes Captain N, the Game Master. Stories follow Kevin as he struggles to defeat Mother Brain (an evil brain in a bottle) and save Videoland from her rule. Kevin is assisted by Simon Belmont, a vampire hunter, Mega Man, Kid Icarus and Gameboy.

Voice Cast: Matt Hill (Kevin Keene), Venus Terzo (Princess Lana), Andrew Kavasdas (Simon Belmont), Frank Welker (Gameboy), Michael Donovan (Eggplant Wizard), Harry Chalk (King Hippo), Levi Stubbs (Mother Brain), Ian Corlett (Dr. Wily), Alessandro Juliani (Count Dracula).

1229 Captain Neptune. (Series; Adventure; NBC; 1953). The alternate title for the live series Operation: Neptune, which ran from June 8, 1953 to August 16, 1953. See this title for information.

1230 Captain Nice. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1967). Carter Nash is a mild mannered chemist for the police department of Big Town, U.S.A., a metropolis of 112,000 people, that is located “somewhere in the Midwestern part of North America.” Carter lives at 0306 Prescott Lane with his mother, Esther, and his father, Harvey. Carter works in the City Hall Building and was hired not only because he is a good chemist “and the police department needs good chemists” but because his uncle, Mayor Fred Finney promised Carter’s mother (his sister) that he would hire him (“I’m terrified of your mother”).

At home Carter is mother dominated and his father, who has trouble remembering his name, calls him “Spot” (Harvey’s face is never fully seen and his main purpose in life appears to be reading the local newspaper, the Chronicle, which obstructs his face).

Carter is shy, timid and helpless. He believes he is ordinary and doesn’t stand out. He is afraid of the dark “in the daytime” and thinks of girls as “round men.”

At work, the beautiful and sensuous police sergeant, Candy Kane has a crush on Carter. Carter feels Sergeant Kane (as he calls her) “is quite attractive and a credit to her uniform” but hasn’t the courage to ask her for a date.

Life changes for Carter when Candy Kane is accosted by thugs and he feels it is time for him to take action. Carter has just created a liquid power source he calls Super Juice. Although he is unsure of what effects it will have on humans, he tests it on himself. The liquid causes him to hiccup; from out of nowhere he is struck by a bolt of lightning and transformed into a super hero he calls Captain Nice (after the initials on his belt buckle — C.N.). Although he is not in costume, Carter rescues the unconscious Sergeant Kane and quickly vanishes after he dispenses justice to the thugs.

At home Carter tells his mother what happened and is about to destroy the formula when Esther convinces him to use his invention to battle crime: “This place we live in is a typical American town jam full of crooks, hoodlums and gangsters. It’s up to you to do something about it.” When asked by Esther why he chose the name Captain Nice “and not Wonder Man or Muscle Head” Carter says “Captain Nice was the first thing that came to my mind.” Esther makes him a red, white and blue costume, mask and cape and Captain Nice becomes the heroic savior of Big Town.

As Captain Nice, Carter has incredible speed and strength, the ability to fly and an immunity to harm. The apparently foul tasking Super Juice has effects that last about one hour.

Citizens describe Captain Nice as “The man who flies like an eagle,” “The man with muscles of lead” and “The masked enemy of evil.” “From now on,” Carter says, “the forces of evil will have to watch out for Captain Nice!” Vic Mizzy composed the theme.

Cast: William Daniels (Carter Nash), Ann Prentiss (Candy Kane), Alice Ghostley (Esther Carter), Byron Foulger (Harvey Nash), Liam Dunn (Mayor Fred Finney), Bill Zuckert (Police Chief Segal).

1231 Captain Planet and the Planetees. (Series; Cartoon; TBS; 1990–1996). Gaia is the Goddess of the Earth. When she becomes disenchanted over the wonders she has so fondly loved slowly succumbing to pollution, she summons five children from around the world (Gi, Linka, Ma-Ti, Wheeler and Kwame) to become the Planetees and use the magic rings she gives each of them to fight back at polluters and teach everyone to respect the planet.

If a situation arises that is too difficult for the children to handle, they can combine their ring powers and create Captain Planet, Gaia’s champion of the environment. The series, created by Ted Turner, follows the Planetees as they use their abilities to spread the word and save the planet.

Kwame has the power of the earth; Linka, the wind; Ma-Ti, the heart; Gi, the water; and Wheeler, fire. Villains include Duke Nukem (likes nuclear meltdowns), Hoggish Greedly (loves oil spills) and Looten Plunder (enjoys poaching).

Voice Cast: Whoopi Goldberg (Gaia), Margot

Kidder (Gaia; later), LeVar Burton (Kwame), Kath Soucie (Linka), Janice Kawaye (Gi), Scott Menville (Ma-Ti), Joey Dedio (Wheeler), Ed Asner (Hoggish Greedily), James Coburn (Looten Plunder), Ed Gilbert (Looten Plunder; later), Jim Cummings (Sly Sludge), Martin Sheen (Sly Sludge; later), Jeff Goldblum (Duke Nukem), Dean Stockwell (Duke Nukem; later), Meg Ryan (Dr. Blight), Mary Kay Bergman (Dr. Blight; later).

1232 Captain Power and the Soldiers of the Future. (Series; Science Fiction; Syn.; 1987). In the year 2147 machines became so sophisticated that they revolted against their human masters and the Metal Wars broke out. The war was short lived and the machines won. Soon after, the evil Lord Dread, leader of the Volcanian Empire, created Bio-Dreads, deadly machines programmed to seek out and destroy any remaining humans. But, from the fires of the Metal Wars, there arose a new breed of warriors trained to bring down Lord Dread and his empire — the Soldiers of the Future and mankind's last hope for survival. Episodes relate the efforts of the freedom fighters, led by Captain Jonathan Power, to protect the human race from Lord Dread. The series combines live action with computer animation.

Other featured freedom fighters are Major Matthew "Hawk" Masterson; Corporal Jennifer "Pilot" Chase; Sergeant Robert "Scout" Baker; and Lieutenant Michael "Tank" Ellis.

Cast: Tim Dunigan (Capt. Jonathan Power), Jessica Steen (Cpl. Jennifer Chase), Peter MacNeill (Maj. Matthew Masterson), Sven-Ole Thorsen (Lt. Michael Ellis), Maurice Dean Wint (Sgt. Robert Baker), David Hemblen (Lord Dred), Ann-Marie MacDonald (Athena), Bruce Gray (Mentor), Deryck Hazel (Soaron), Teddy Lee Dillon (Overmind).

1233 Captain Safari of the Jungle Patrol. (Series; Adventure; CBS; 1955). The fantasy-like adventures of Captain Safari, a jungle explorer whose expeditions unfold through his magic TV screen, which can view all the jungles of the world at the press of a button. Sylvester the chimp assists him.

Cast: Randy Knight (Captain Safari), Zippy the Chimp (Sylvester). Announcer: Randy Kraft.

1234 Captain Scarlet and the Mysterons. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1967). Spectrum is a 21st century international organization that protects the security of the world. It is headquartered on Cloudbase and all its agents are men (named after the colors of the spectrum; women assist as glamorous, skillful and daring pilots called Angels).

Spectrum is attempting to explore the planet Mars when its inhabitants, the Mysterons, mistake their efforts as an unprovoked attack and declare a war of revenge on the Earth.

The Mysterons, who are never seen (only heard) have the ability to recreate any person or object once it has been destroyed. Hoping to recruit Spectrum agents Black and Scarlet to their side, the Mysterons cause an accident that claims their lives. When life is restored to captains Black and Scarlet, Captain Black retains Myseron characteristics and becomes their agent on Earth; Captain Scarlet, Spectrum's top agent, fails to succumb to the Mysterons and instead becomes their indestructible enemy (he can be killed yet survive. Whatever happens to him, his body is able to repair).

Captain Scarlet was born in England in 2036 and is from a family of distinguished soldiers. He has degrees in math, history and technology and a brilliant army career (trained as a field combat soldier). He is a professional agent and carries out orders immediately and efficiently. He is popular with all the Spectrum agents, especially the Angels.

Colonel White is Spectrum's commander-in-chief. He was born in England and is proficient in computer science, navigation and technology. He served with the World Navy and Universal Secret Service and enjoys playing war games with Captain Scarlet. Because of his daring escapades, ability to handle tricky situations and extraordinary leadership, he was chosen to lead Spectrum.

Captain Grey was born in Chicago. He served with the World Aquanaut Security Patrol and was in charge of the submarine Stringray. He enjoys swimming and developing new strokes.

Captain Blue is the oldest son of a wealthy Boston financier. He has degrees in applied math, aerodynamics, computer control, economics and technology. Before joining Spectrum he was a test pilot with the World Aeronautic Society, then a member of its security department.

Captain Ochre is an American but does not have outstanding academic qualifications. He loves flying and acquired his pilot's license when he was 16. He served with the World Government Police Corps and broke up one of the toughest crime syndicates in the U.S. When he turned down a promotion because he preferred action to paper work, he was approached by Spectrum to become an agent. He is quick-witted and a brilliant conversationalist but loves to play practical jokes.

Captain Magenta was born in Ireland. After his parents emigrated to America he was brought up in a poor New York suburb in an environment of poverty and crime. He worked hard at school, earned a scholarship to Yale and graduated with degrees in physics, electrical engineering and technology. This, however, did not satisfy him. He yearned for a life of adventure and big money and turned to crime. He soon became a big time operator and a ruthless mastermind who controlled two-thirds of New York's crime organization. Spectrum's selection committee realized they would need a man, trusted and respected in the underworld, in their security organization (someone to work on the inside and get into the heart of criminal activity). He was offered the job and accepted.

Lieutenant Green was born at the port of Spain in Trinidad and is Colonel White's right-hand man. He holds degrees in music, telecommunications and technology and served with the World Aquanaut Security Patrol, Submarine Corps Division. He was sole commander of communications at the Marineville Control Tower before joining Spectrum.

Dr. Fawn is an Australian who serves as Spectrum's supreme medical commander. Prior to this, he developed robots for the World Medical Organization.

Destiny Angel was born in Paris. She was educated in both France and Rome and first worked for the World Army Air Force, then in its Intelligence Corps and finally as commanding officer of the Women's Flight Squadron. Three years later she started her own firm of flying contractors and was approached by Spectrum to become leader of the five Angels. On duty she is utterly ruthless and totally efficient; off duty she is feminine, charming and sophisticated.

Symphony Angel was born in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. She holds seven degrees in mathematics and technology and first worked for the Universal Secret Service where, after five years, she revolutionized the spy game with her methods being copied all over the world. During training as a pilot for special U.S.S. missions, Symphony fell in love with flying. She later joined a charter company and was asked to join Spectrum.

Melody Angel was born on a cotton farm in Atlanta, Georgia. She was a tomboy as a child and later took up professional motor racing. It was during her stay at a Swiss finishing school that she developed an interest in flying. After being expelled for unruly behavior, she joined the World Army Air Force where she displayed amazing courage and nerves of steel. This determination and ability led Spectrum to hiring her as a pilot.

Rhapsody Angel was born in Chelsea, England, to aristocratic parents. After earning degrees in law and sociology at London University, Rhapsody joined the Federal Agents Bureau and later became its commander. She next became chief security officer for an airline before starting her own airline company. She joined Spectrum when they asked her to become a pilot.

Harmony Angel was born in Tokyo, Japan. She is the daughter of a wealthy flying taxi owner and grew up in a world of high speed jets. She was educated in Tokyo and London and was a member of the Tokyo Flying Club. When she flew around the world nonstop and broke all records, she was asked to join Spectrum. Harmony loves sports and spends her spare time teaching the Angels judo and karate.

The Mysterons themselves are never seen. An eerie shot of the planet Mars is seen with a Mysteron voice (by Donald Gray) alerting the viewers to what the next plan of attack is. Paul Maxwell doubles as the voice of the World President and Jeremy Wilkins voices many of the supporting characters, including the occasionally seen Captain Black, the Mysterons' agent on Earth. Barry Gray composed the theme, "Captain Scarlet," which is sung by the British group the Spectrum.

Voice Cast: Francis Matthews (Captain Scarlet), Donald Gray (Colonel White), Paul Maxwell (Captain Grey), Ed Bishop (Captain Blue), Jeremy Wilkins (Captain Ochre), Gary Files (Captain Magenta), Cy Grant (Lt. Green), Charles Tingwell (Dr. Fawn), Liz Morgan (Destiny Angel), Janna Hill (Symphony Angel), Sylvia Anderson (Melody Angel), Liz Morgan (Rhapsody Angel), Lian-Shin (Harmony Angel).

1235 Captain Simian and the Space Monkeys. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1996). Charlie Simian is a NASA chimpanzee that is sent into space on experimental ships. During one such test flight, Charlie's ship is thrown off course (presumed lost by NASA) and captured by a race of aliens who have been fighting a losing battle against Nebulon, an alien, composed of stellar matter, who is seeking to control the universe. Charlie is endowed with super powers by the aliens and given an assignment: stop Nebula. Charlie selects a crew of monkeys and sets out on a mission to apprehend Nebulon. Charlie's ship is the Primate Avenger.

Voice Cast: Jerry Doyle (Captain Simian), Michael Dorn (Nebulon), Karen Maruyama (Shao Lin), Dom Irrera (Spydot), James Avery (Gorilla), Malcolm McDowell (Rhesus), Maurice LaMarche (Dr. Splitz), Rene Auberjonois (The Gardner), Jeff Bennett (Orbitron).

1236 Captain Video and His Video Rangers. (Series; Science Fiction; DuMont; 1949–1957). On June 27, 1949, a daily series called Captain Video premiered in New York City on the DuMont network's flagship station, WABD-TV, channel 5. It was simply a showcase for old western theatrical films with Captain Video serving as the host. As the network began to grow, the format was changed to focus on a crime fighter known as "The Guardian of the Safety of the World." The Captain was given an assistant, the Video Ranger and the program opened with these words over Wagner's "Flying Dutchman Overture": "Master of Space! Hero of Science! Captain of the Video Rangers! Operating from his secret mountain headquarters on the planet Earth, Captain Video rallies men of goodwill everywhere. As he rockets from planet to planet, let us follow the champion of truth, justice and freedom throughout the universe. Stand by for Captain Video and His Video Rangers."

Only a handful of Captain Video episodes appear to exist; press release information is very scarce; and the pre-national TV Guide, TV Forecast, is extremely sketchy. It is difficult to determine when in 1949 the new Captain Video format emerged and when the words “and His Video Rangers” were added to the title. At this time, and until 1951, Jack Orsen played the Captain’s superior, Commissioner Bell. In 1951 (and until 1957) Al Hodge took over the role of Captain Video (from Richard Coogan); Ben Lackland became Commission Carey, the Captain’s new superior, from 1951 until 1955. The evil Dr. Pauli also became a regular at this time.

Hoping to cash in on the show’s popularity, DuMont added a Saturday morning version of the series called The Secret Files of Captain Video (9/5/53–5/29/54). Although that original DuMont station is still broadcasting in New York (now WNYW) it has no records of its time as a DuMont station. The TV Forecast listings were mostly generic, listing only the series title; if program information was given, it was the star or a statement (for example, “Scientific adventures in the world of the future”). TV Guide lists program notes for a number of Secret File episodes, although many state “No program information available at press time.” It is possible, however, to determine that the Saturday shows were complete in one episode, not serialized adventures characteristic of the daily series.

On March 28, 1955, the daily series came to an end. On July 10, 1955, the format changed again; it was now an hour-long series wherein Captain Video was the host to old theatrical serials and movies. On September 25, 1955, Captain Video was incorporated into Wonder Time, a six-hour series that ran from noon to 6:00 P.M. Sandy Becker served as the host and Al Hodge, as Captain Video, hosted a series of cartoons and documentaries. On August 16, 1957, Captain Video ended with the demise of the DuMont network.

The series itself was set in the future (the 21st then 22nd centuries). Captain Video is a scientific genius who heads the Video Rangers, an organization that battles evil throughout the universe (only the best candidates at Video Ranger Training Academies are chosen to become Video Rangers). The Space Federation appears to be the governing force on Earth (orders are given by the Space Council). Commissioner Bell (then Carey) is its leader and the Federation is based on the 144th floor of the Public Safety Building in Planet City.

Captain Video first pilots a rocket ship called the X-9, then the Galaxy and Galaxy II; the Video Ranger had his first command as captain of a ship called the Cormorant.

Dr. Pauli, the Captain’s enemy, is president of the Asteroidal Society and inventor of the Cloak of Invisibility. He ruled from the manmade metallic Planet of Dr. Pauli (from which he plans to conquer the universe). Clipper Evans was another enemy of the Captain’s who often sided with Dr. Pauli. Before he was able to control it for purposes of good, the evil robot Tobor was also a threat to the Captain (see Here Comes Tobor for a proposed series based on this character; Tobor is robot spelled backwards). Ranger Craig was a rookie who helped the Captain. The character was unusual in that it was played by a girl (Gerrienne Raphael) who was made up to look like a teenage boy.

Early episodes that were broadcast live and contain scenes from old theatrical films. The stars of these films were called Video Rangers and the action scenes were said to be the adventures of other Video Rangers fighting elsewhere for justice (they were seen via Remote Carrier Delayed Circuit TV Screens). On episodes broadcast without a sponsor, viewers saw a “Video Ranger Message,” a public service announcement geared to children. Fred Scott, who later played Ranger Rogers, announced and narrated.

Cast: Richard Coogan (Captain Video), Al Hodge (Captain Video; later), Don Hastings (Video Ranger), Jack Orsen (Commissioner Bell), Ben Lackland (Commissioner Carey), Bram Nossem (Dr. Pauli), Hal Conklin (Dr. Pauli), Stephen Elliott (Dr. Pauli), Grant Sullivan (Clipper Evans), Jack Orsen (Commissioner Cary; 1949–1950), Ben Lackland (Commissioner Cary; 1950–1955), Dave Ballard (Tobor, the Robot), Nat Polen (Ranger Carter), Kenneth Nelson (Ranger Colt), Ernest Borgnine (Nargola), Bob Hastings (Hal; Video Ranger’s brother), Gerrienne Raphael (Ranger Craig), Dick Moore (Ranger Jeff Hillary), Stefan Schnabel (Professor Linkoff), Laura Weber (Mara Linkoff), Tom McDermott (Permes Lykos), Fred Scott (Ranger Rogers), Dickie Moore (Ranger Hillary), Georganne Johnson (Princess Aurora). Also: Tony Randall, Jack Klugman. Announcer: Fred Scott, Ed Condit.

1237 Captain Z-Ro. (Series; Science Fiction; Syn.; 1952–1955). “Somewhere on an uncharted portion of the planet Earth [a desolate mountainous area that is misty and alive with active volcanoes] stands the laboratory of Captain Z-Ro. In this secret location, known only to a few in the outside world, Captain Z-Ro and his associates experiment in time and space to learn from the past to learn for the future.”

The mysterious Captain Z-Ro is the inventor of a time machine that enables him and his assistant, Jet (a young boy) to view the past via the machine’s telecreens. When a decision is made to view the past (usually the Captain’s way to prove to Jet that something he read about actually happened), the Captain programs the time machine’s Llectric Chamber with the date and time. The Cycle Reactor “cracks the fourth dimension and ejects us back in time.” When the search has been completed, the special television screens allow the Captain and Jet to see an event from the past.

If the Captain feels a figure from the past is in danger, he can go back to that period by standing in the Lectric Chamber. When Jet activates the Spector Wave Length, the Captain begins to dematerialize and disappears from view. Symmetrical impulses are then transmitted over time, and the Captain reappears in the programmed era. The Captain helps people in trouble with his Pararay Gun (which paralyzes a subject for 60 seconds). When he has accomplished his mission, he says, “All right, Jet, take me back.” Jet then reverses the Symmetrical Impulses, and the Captain returns to the present.

The Captain, a research explorer in space and time, has a rocket ship called ZX-99. The Video Plate aboard the ship is a round picture-like tube that allows the Captain to view outer space. The Gravity Generator regulates the gravity inside the ship. The ZX-99 travels at the rate of five miles per second, and when one of the team is about to embark on a mission, the Captain says, “Spaceman’s luck.” Micro also assists them.

“Be sure to be standing by when we again transmit you to this remote location on the planet Earth when Captain Z-Ro and his associates will conduct another experiment in time and space.”

Cast: Roy Steffins (Captain Z-Ro), Bobby Trumbull (Jet, 1952), Jeff Silvers (Jet, 1953), Bruce Haynes (Jet, 1954–1955), H.M. Chamberlain (Micro).

1238 Capture. (Series; Documentary; Syn.; 1965). Bill Wilson and Arthur Jones host and narrate a series of films that depict the capture of wild animals for zoos.

1239 Captured. (Series; Anthology; Syn.; 1954). The series is composed of 26 crime drama episodes (depicting the capture of criminals) that were originally broadcast on Gangbusters. See this title for information. New opening and closing segments were filmed with Chester Morris as the host.

1240 Car Care Central. (Series; Advice; Syn.; 1981). Actor Peter Brown host a program of car care and repair information that is presented in an entertaining and informal light. Steve Evans provides the technical information while actress Kelly Garrett provides the inquisitive, feminine viewpoint.

1241 Car 54, Where Are You? (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1961–1963). Car 54 is a police patrol vehicle attached to the 53rd Precinct on Tremont Avenue in the Bronx, New York. Captain Martin Block heads the precinct and officers Francis Muldoon and Gunther Toody are partners assigned to Car 54.

Toody and Muldoon were teamed on August 16th, 1952 and officials found that only they can ride together (Toody constantly talks and drives other partners crazy; Muldoon rarely speaks and makes other partners uneasy — “It’s like riding with a spook”).

Francis comes from a long line of police officers. He is single and lives with his mother and sisters Peggy and Cathy at 807 East 157th Street. He attended Holy Cross High School and has a mind like a computer (he can recall any police regulation). Francis is shy and awkward around girls and is most uncomfortable when his mother or friends set him up on blind dates. Peggy is an aspiring actress; Cathy is attending Columbia University.

Gunther and his wife Lucille have been married for 15 years. They are an argumentative couple and seem to fight over everything (Lucille has a habit of letting off steam by yelling out the window “My husband is a nut”). Before becoming a police officer Gunther worked for the Department of Sanitation. He hopes to become a detective and “studies” by watching TV crime shows (“I’ve gotten so good that I can solve the crime by the third commercial”).

Officer Leo Schnauser is married to Sylvia, a woman who is very jealous (believes that every time Leo “goes out with the boys” he is actually having a secret affair with Marilyn Monroe). Leo was born on Friday the 13th and has been on the force for twenty years. He has six sisters (yet he is considered the pretty one in the family).

Martin believes his life is plagued by Toody (whom he believes is gullible, simple-minded and stupid. He believes Francis is intelligent). He now longs for the day Toody will be transferred. He is married to the stern Claire.

Stories follow Toody and Muldoon as they patrol and protect.

Cast: Fred Gwynne (Francis Muldoon), Joe E. Ross (Gunther Toody), Al Lewis (Leo Schnauser), Beatrice Pons (Lucille Toody), Paul Reed (Capt. Martin Block), Charlotte Rae (Sylvia Schnauser), Hank Garrett (Off. Ed Nicholson), Nipsey Russell (Officer Anderson), Nathaniel Frey (Sgt. Sol Abrams).

1242 Car Wash. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 5/24/79). Frank Ravelli is the owner of the Great American Car Wash, a combination gas station, garage and car wash in Los Angeles. The unsold series was to relate his efforts to run his business and contend with his staff, a group of young cutups: Last Chance, Rocky, Charlie, Fingers, Viva and brothers Floyd and Lloyd.

Cast: Danny Aiello (Frank Ravelli), Stuart Pankin (Last Chance), Matt Landers (Rocky), Hilary Beane (Charlie), T.K. Carter (Floyd), John Anthony Bailey (Lloyd), Lefty Pedroski (Fingers), Pepe Serna (Viva).

1243 The Cara Williams Show. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1964–1965). Cara Wilton is a file clerk at Fenwick Diversified Industries, Inc., at 9601 West Beverly Boulevard in Los Angeles (the conglomerate is also known as Fenwick Industries). Cara is a pretty redhead who lives in an apartment at 6758 Riverdale Lane. Cara is also slightly scatterbrained and fears for her job (she has a filing system that only she can understand to protect that job). Cara is also defying company rules. She is married to Frank Bridges, Fenwick's top efficiency expert. The company prohibits employee marriages, and their efforts to conceal that fact are the focal point of the series. (The format changed in midseason when Cara approached the company president, Mr. Fenwick, and convinced him to change the rule.)

Damon Burkhardt is Cara's no-nonsense boss. He lives at 790 Parker Way and is strict at work but a pussycat at home with his stern wife, Martha. Fletcher Kincaid is Cara's next-door neighbor, a jazz musician; Mary Hamilmyer is Damon's secretary.

Cast: Cara Williams (Cara Wilton), Frank Aletter (Frank Bridges), Paul Reed (Damon Burkhardt), Jack Sheldon (Fletcher Kincaid), Jeanne Arnold (Mary Hamilmyer), Edward Everett Horton (Mr. Fenwick), Hermione Baddeley (Mrs. Burkhardt), Reta Shaw (Mrs. Burkhardt; later). Theme Song: "Cara's Theme" by Kenyon Hopkins.

1244 Card Sharks. (Series; Game; NBC; 1978–1981). A question, based on a survey of 100 people, is asked of two contestants. Each player predicts how many people said "yes" to that question. The player whose response is closest to the actual answer wins the round and a chance to play High-Low Card.

When the first of five cards is revealed, the player has to predict whether the next card will be higher or lower than the exposed card. The game continues in this manner until one player successfully reveals his line of cards (which earns him the championship and a cash prize; an incorrect prediction ends the round and a new question is asked).

Host: Jim Perry. Hostess: Becky Price, Linda Hocks. Announcer: Gene Wood.

1245 Cardcaptors. (Series; Cartoon; Kids WB; 2000–2002). In ancient Japan a magician named Clow-Ri imprisoned hundreds of mystical spirits in special cards and forever sealed them in a book called The Clow. To protect the book he appointed Keroberos, a yellow winged bear, as his guardian. Time passed and the spirits remained sealed. In the year 2000 a young girl named Sakura Avalon finds the book and opens it. She releases the spirits — and she must now capture the escaped cards and return them to the book. Sakura is assisted by her friends Li Showron and Madison and stories relate their efforts to recapture the mischievous spirits before they wreck havoc on the world. Tori is Sakura's brother; Aiden is her father.

Voice Cast: Carly McKillip (Sakura Avalon), Maggie Blue O'Hara (Madison Taylor), Rhys Huber

(Li Showron), Jordan Killik (Li Showron; later), Tony Sampson (Tori Avalon), Matt Hill (Keroberos), Richard Newman (Keroberos; later), Sam Vincent (Julian Star), Sam Vincent (Yue), Brian Drummond (Aiden Avalon), Linda Rae (Layla MacKenzie), Kelly Sheridan (Nikki), Jocelyn Loewen (Chelsea).

1246 The Care Bears. (Series; Cartoon; CBS; 1985–1988). The Care Bears are special animals who live above the clouds in a city called Care-A-Lot. Here, they monitor earth children and when the Care-O-Meter detects sadness in a child, they take action and set out to bring happiness into that child's life. The Care Bears are led by Braveheart Lion and all is not serene in their seemingly care free city: gloom busters such as Beastley, No Heart and Shreeky seek to undo the good the Care Bears do.

Voice Cast: Dan Hennessey (Braveheart Lion), Mellany Brown (Cheer Bear), Jim Henshaw (Tenderheart Bear), Bob Dermer (Grumpy Bear), Patricia Black (Share Bear), Eva Almos (Friend Bear), Janet-Laine Green (Wish Bear), Susan Roman (Champ Bear), Terry Sears (Champ Bear), Linda Sorenson (Love-a-Lot Bear), Laurie Waller-Benson (Bedtime Bear), John Stocker (Beastley), Terri Hawkes (Shreeky), Chris Wiggins (No Heart).

1247 Caribe. (Series; Crime Drama; ABC; 1975). Ben Logan and Mark Walters are special agents with the Miami Police Department who handle special assignments fighting crime in the Caribbean. Stories relate their exploits as they use whatever means possible (usually staying within the limits of the law) to bring felons to justice.

Cast: Stacy Keach (Lt. Ben Logan), Carl Franklin (Sgt. Mark Walters), Robert Mandan (Capt. Ed Rawlings).

1248 Carlton Your Doorman. (Pilot; Cartoon; CBS; 5/21/80). An unsold animated spin-off from the live-action series Rhoda about Carlton, the never-seen doorman for an apartment house at 332 West 46th Street in Manhattan. Carlton is a misfit whose efforts to better himself and his position in life was to be the focal point of the series. In the pilot episode, Carlton seeks a replacement for his boss's wife's dog, Pumpkin, who dies while in his care.

Other Regulars: Charles Shaftman, Carlton's boss; Mrs. Shaftman; Carlton's mother; and Darlene, Carlton's girlfriend.

Voices: Lorenzo Music (Carlton), Jack Somack (Charles Shaftman), Lucille Meredith (Mrs. Shaftman), Lurene Tuttle (Carlton's mother), Kay Cole (Darlene). Guest Voices: Paul Lichtman (Mr. Gleason/Fat man), Alan Barzman (Dog catcher), Charles Woolf (Pop), Roy West (D.J.'s voice).

1249 Carly's Web. (Pilot; Adventure; NBC; 7/12/87). When a truck load of soy beans, destined for an Indian reservation, is hijacked, quick action by the police leads to an arrest and the truck is impounded. When Carly Fox, a secretary with Government Relations for the Justice Department, receives a complaint that the beans have not been delivered, she takes it upon herself to remedy the situation by having the truck stolen and delivered to the reservation. The unsold series was to relate Carly's adventures as she poses as a top Justice Department agent who recruits people in trouble (with a promise to help them with their government woes) to help her solve crimes.

Cast: Daphne Ashbrook (Carly Fox). Guest Cast: Robert Woods (Donald Stevens), Bert Rosario (Hector Figuera), Peter Billingsley (Roland Krantz, Jr.), Carole Cook (Myrtle Scroggins), Jennifer Dale (Celeste Hedley), Vincent Baggetta (Jack Phillips), K Callan (Mrs. Krantz).

1250 The Carmel Myers Show. (Series; Interview; ABC; 1951–1952). A celebrity interview series hosted by Carmel Myers, a famous film star of the 1920s era of silent motion pictures. The series ran from June 16, 1951 to February 21, 1952.

Hostess: Carmel Myers.

1251 Carmen. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 12/28/73). Carmen Lopez is a widow who works as the housekeeper for Louise and Louis Monty and their children, Bobby and Brian, a rich Bel Air family who own the Stuffy Toy Company. Carmen lives in the house with her daughter (Alicia), a nurse who is hoping to become an X-ray technician, and her son, Carlos Lopez, Jr. In the pilot episode, Alejandro, the gardener, begins a romance with Carmen. Aired as "Love and Carmen Lopez" on Love, American Style.

Cast: Carmen Zapata (Carmen Lopez), William Schallert (Louis Monty), Barbara Baxley (Louise Monty), Vincent Van Patten (Bobby Monty), George McCallister (Brian Monty), Mina Vasquez (Alicia Lopez), Fabian Cordova (Carlos Lopez, Jr.), Vito Scotti (Alejandro Sanchez).

1252 Carnie. (Series; Talk; Syn.; 1995). Carnie Wilson, the daughter of Brian Wilson (of the Beach Boys fame) and part of the group Wilson Phillips, hosts a program that is more of a reality-based program than a talk show as she covers topics not normally discussed (with appropriate guests) from prostitution and drugs to abusive parents and unruly children. The program also features on-the-street interviews.

Hostess: Carnie Wilson.

1253 Carnivale. (Series; Drama; HBO; 2003–2005). A traveling carnival of the 1930s as it wanders across the Dust Bowl is the setting. Two of the members of the troupe are the central focus: Ben Hawkins, a drifter picked up by the carnival, who appears to have a link with evil forces; and Brother

Justin, a man of faith who realizes what the evil Ben represents and has set his goal to destroy Ben before Ben unleashes an unholy presence on the world.

Other Regulars: Samson, the man who runs the show; Clea, the tarot card reader; Jones, Sam's right-hand man (the manager); Ruthie, the snake charmer; Lila, the bearded lady; Gabriel, the strong man; Iris, Brother Justin's sister; Scudder, Ben's elusive father; Reverend Nathan Balthus; Stumpy, the carnival owner; Rita Sue, his wife; Libby, their daughter; and Varlyn, Brother Justin's aide.

Cast: Nick Stahl (Ben Hawkins), Clancy Brown (Brother Justin), Adrienne Barbeau (Ruthie), Michael J. Anderson (Samson), Clea DeVall (Sofie), Tim DeKay (Jones), Debra Christofferson (Lila), Brian Turk (Gabriel), John Carroll Lynch (Varlyn Stroud), Amy Madigan (Iris Crowe), John Savage (Scudder), Ralph Waite (Rev. Nathan Balthus), Toby Huss (Stumpy Dreifuss), Cynthia Ettinger (Rita Sue Dreifuss), Carla Gallo (Libby Dreifuss).

1254 Carol. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 2/1/67). The house at 110987 Hope Avenue in Los Angeles belongs to Carol Chase, a beautiful but slightly dizzy blonde secretary. Carol works for William Ogelthorpe, the owner of Ogelthorpe Realty and her efforts to "save the day" for her boss was to be the focal point of the unsold series. The pilot episode, broadcast on Green Acres, relates Carol's efforts to save her boss from a swindler's land scheme. Other Regulars: Lillian Grant, Carol's sister; Harry, Lillian's husband; and Mark Allen, the attorney.

Cast: Elaine Joyce (Carol Chase), Richard Deacon (William Ogelthorpe), Emmaline Henry (Lillian Grant), Cliff North (Harry Grant), George Furth (Mark Allen), Larry D. Mann (Lawrence David; guest role).

1255 Carol and Company. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1990). An anthology comedy in which Carol Burnett stars as a different character in a different story each week. Guest celebrities and a cast of regulars assist her.

Host: Carol Burnett. Regulars: Anita Barone, Meagan Fay, Meghan Geary, Richard Kind, Terry Kiser. Orchestra Dan Foliart.

1256 Carol Burnett and Company. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1979). A four-week program of music, songs and comedy sketches with Carol Burnett and her former series (The Carol Burnett Show) regulars, Tim Conway and Vicki Lawrence.

Host: Carol Burnett. Regulars: Tim Conway, Vicki Lawrence, Ken Mars, Craig Richard Nelson. Orchestra Peter Matz.

1257 Carol Burnett and Friends. (Series; Comedy; Syn.; 1977). The syndicated title for edited episodes of The Carol Burnett Show that ran on CBS from September 11, 1967 to August 9, 1978. The programs contain only comedy skits (musical numbers have been deleted from the half hour versions of the hour series).

1258 The Carol Burnett Show. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1967–1978). A weekly series of music, songs, and outlandish comedy skits hosted by Carol Burnett.

Carol opened each show with a questions from the audience segment and performed in each of the comedy skits that would follow. The most popular skit, “Mama’s Family,” was spun-off into a successful series of its own. Here Vicki Lawrence played Thelma “Mama” Harper; Carol Burnett was her neurotic daughter, Eunice; and Harvey Korman was Eunice’s fickle husband, Ed (see Mama’s Family for information on the actual series). The 244 episodes produced over the 11 year run of the series have been edited (deleting musical numbers) and syndicated as Carol Burnett and Friends. Joe Hamilton, Arnie Rosen and Ed Simmons are the producers.

Host: Carol Burnett. Regulars: Vicki Lawrence, Harvey Korman, Tim Conway, Dick Van Dyke, Lyle Waggoner, Shirley Kirkes, April Nevins, Vivian Bonell, Don Crichton, The Earl Flatt Dancers. Announcer: Lyle Waggoner. Orchestra: Harry Zimmerman, Peter Matz. Special Musical Material Artie Malvin, Ken Welch, Mitzi Welch, Nat Farber. Choral Arrangements: Ronnie Bright, David Black.

1259 The Carol Burnett Show. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1991). A series of comedy sketches that was an attempt by CBS to return Carol Burnett to weekly television and recapture the glory of her long-running (1967–78) series. The new series ran from November 1, 1991 to November 27, 1991.

Host: Carol Burnett., Regulars: Rick Aviles, Chris Barnes, Meagan Fay, Richard Kind, Jessica Lundy. Orchestra: Tom Scott.

1260 The Carol Channing Show. (Unaired Pilot; Comedy; Produced for CBS in 1967). Seeking to further her career as an actress, Carol Hunnicutt leaves her home in Indiana and moves to New York City. The unsold series was to relate Carol’s misadventures as she seeks stardom.

Cast: Carol Channing (Carol Hunnicutt), Jane Dulo (Florence Thatcher), Richard Deacon (Leon Thatcher).

1261 Carolyn in the City. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1995–1999). Carolyn Duffy is an artist who draws and writes the daily newspaper comic strip “Carolyn in the City.” She lives in Manhattan and works out of her apartment (2A). Carolyn bases her strip on her own experiences as a single girl living in the big city. As a little girl, Carolyn wanted breasts so badly that “I drew boobs on everything.”

Carolyn, born in Wisconsin, dropped out of college to take a job as a copywriter. Shortly after, she was fired for doodling; those doodles became the inspiration for her comic strip, which is syndicated in 565 newspapers. Carolyn hates to miss a deadline because papers run two “Cathy” strips (“I hate that girl,” says Carolyn).

Carolyn first worked with Delbert “Del” Cassidy, the president of the Cassidy Greeting Card Company (which is owned by his father). Del later formed his own company, Eagle Greeting Cards, with Carolyn as his only client. Del, a graduate of Penn State, once dated Carolyn, but the affair ended “because Del had two failed marriages and can’t commit to anything larger than a goldfish,” says Carolyn. Carolyn’s favorite eatery is Remo’s Restaurant.

Richard Karinsky works as Carolyn’s colorist. He lives at 4171 East 6th Street and is a hopeful artist who had his first public showing at the Arabia Gallery on Spring Street. He took the job “since I won’t be able to make money for my art until after I’m dead.” Richard doesn’t come in before ten, doesn’t work weekends and needs at least 90 minutes for lunch. His work reflects courage and originality, but he is boring and has no sense of humor; he is working on his people skills.

Annie Spidaro is Carolyn’s neighbor (Apartment 2B), a professional dancer who was born in Paissac, New Jersey (where her family owns a funeral parlor). Annie attended Paramus High School. Annie was a regular cast member of the Broadway play Cats (at the Winter Garden Theater), did a TV commercial for Dr. Furman’s Foot Powder, and appeared in an unnamed and unsold pilot. When she left Cats, she became Princess Neptuna, the model for a cartoon character. Annie was an understudy for Julie Andrews in Victor/Victoria and Carolyn based “the slutty next door neighbor” in her comic strip on Annie (“But my breasts are bigger,” says Annie).

Cast: Lea Thompson (Carolyn Duffy), Amy Pietz (Annie Spidaro), Eric Lutes (Del Cassidy), Malcolm Gets (Richard Karinsky), Tom La Grua (Remo), Candice Azzara (Angie Spidaro), Andrew Lauer (Charlie), Lauren Graham (Shelby), Adam Ferrara (Peter Spidaro).

1262 Carolyn. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 8/7/56). Carolyn Daniels is an actress who becomes the guardian to three children after the death of her best friend. Her efforts to raise the children (Elizabeth, Candy and Buster) was to be the focal point of the series. See also The Betty Hutton Show.

Cast: Celeste Holm (Carolyn Daniels), Patricia Morrow (Elizabeth), Susan Hawkins (Candy), Jimmy Hawkins (Buster), Parley Baer (Smattering, the butler). Guest Cast: Jeanette Nolan (Miss Tuttle), Kay Walker (Reporter).

1263 The Carolyn Gilbert Show. (Series; Variety; ABC; 1950). A quarter-hour series of music and songs with singer Carolyn Gilbert as the host. The series aired from January 15, 1950 to July 30, 1950.

Hostess: Carolyn Gilbert. Featured: Don Tennant.

1264 Carpoolers. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 2007–). Aubrey, Dougie, Gracen and Laird are four men who carpool each day to work. They work in the same high rise building, each have a career, a family and hopes and ambitions. But each also has insecurities and stories focus on that aspect as the friends dream, obsess and strategize as they use the carpool lane to work each day. Basically it's four average guys trying to figure out the world together ("what happens in the carpool lane stays in the carpool lane").

Grayson is a family mediator and married to Leila, a real estate broker. They are the parents of Marmaduke, a slacker who often refuses to wear pants. Laird is a divorced dentist whose ex-wife took him for everything. Aubrey is a happily married family man whose family barely knows he is alive (he does all the housework while his wife, never fully seen, relaxes. He also seems to be the one responsible for his large brood of seven children). Dougie is the youngest member of the group and a new father who is married to Cindy and both are trying to adjust to the responsibilities of parenthood.

Cast: Faith Ford (Leila Brooker), Jerry O'Connell (Laird), Fred Goss (Gracen Brooker), Jerry Minor (Aubrey), Tim Pepe (Dougie), Allison Munn (Cindy), T.J. Miller (Marmaduke Brooker).

1265 Carrie Williams, Justice of the Peace. (Unaired Pilot; Drama; Produced in 1956). Carrie Williams is the justice of the peace in Palmerdale, a small town in Finleyville. She is a widow and lives with her brother (Billie) and a boarder (Mr. Jacks) at 11 Preston Street. Carrie's experiences, as she helps the people of her small community is the focal point of the unsold series. In the pilot episode, Carrie helps a 21-year-old man (Andy) whose domineering mother (Mrs. Dolan) refuses to let him marry a girl (Stella) who is beneath their social standing.

Cast: Margaret Lindsey (Carrie Williams), Grant Gordon (Jim Melnick, her boyfriend). Guest Cast: Ernest Parmenter (Andy Dolan), Nancy Pollach (Mrs. Dolan), Rosemary Prinz (Stella Borjack). Note: Billie and Mr. Jacks do not receive screen credit.

1266 Carry on Laughing. (Series; Comedy; Syn.; 1980). A series of satiric anthologies that parody famous stories and movies. Stories are adult in nature. Produced in England by Thames TV.

Cast: Sidney James, Barbara Windsor, Joan Sims, Diane Langton, Kenneth Connors, Ronnie Brady, Peter Butterworth, David Lodge, Andrew Ray, Carol Hawkins.

1267 Carter Country. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1977–1979). Clinton Corners, Georgia is the setting. Roy Mobey is an old-fashioned, white police chief. Curtis Baker is his sergeant, an urban black, New York City-trained police officer.

Stories focus on the bickering relationship that exists as Roy struggles to teach Curtis his ideas of law enforcement while Curtis tries to implement some modern crime detection methods in a department he feels is a bit behind the times. The series title is derived from the fact that Clinton Corners is just a "hoot 'n' a holler" from Plains, Georgia, the home of former President Jimmy Carter.

Other Regulars: Officers Jasper De Witt, Cloris Phebus and Harley Puckett; Teddy Burnside, the Mayor of Clinton Corners; Tracy Davenport, the police reporter; Lucille Banks, Teddy's secretary; and Julia Mobey, Roy's mother.

Cast: Victor French (Roy Mobey), Kene Holliday (Curtis Baker), Richard Paul (Teddy Burnside), Harvey Vernon (Jasper De Witt), Barbara Cason (Cloris Phebus), Guich Kooock (Harley Puckett), Vernee Watson (Lucille Banks), Melanie Griffith (Tracy Davenport), Amzie Strickland (Julia Mobey).

1268 Cartoon Teletales. (Series; Children; ABC; 1948–1950). The program features line sketch drawings to illustrate off-stage narrating of fairy tale like stories for children.

Cast: Jack Luchsinger (Story Teller), Charles Luchsinger (Artist).

1269 Cartoonville. (Series; Cartoon; ABC; 1963). A short-lived series of theatrical cartoons featuring the antics of The Cat (voiced by Dayton Allen), Goodie the Gremlin, Jeepers Creepers, Sheriff Saddle Head and Scatt Skit. The series, hosted by ventriloquist Paul Winchell and his wooden friends, Jerry Mahoney and Knucklehead Smiff, ran from April 6, 1963 to September 28, 1963.

1270 Cartune-0. (Series; Game; DuMont; 1950). The object is for contestants to guess the identity of song titles from clues drawn by a cartoonist. The game segments are interspersed with songs.

Host: Holland Engle, Lee Bennett. Regulars: Nancy Wright, Peggy Taylor, The Temptones. Cartoonist: Arv Miller.

1271 Casablanca. (Series; Drama; ABC; 1955–1956). Casablanca in French Morocco is the setting. Rick Blaine, the owner of the Café Americain, is a man who helps people in trouble by offering his bar as a place of refuge. Rick has few friends and a mostly unknown past. He was born in New York City in 1914. In 1935 he ran guns in Ethiopia and two years later he fought with the Fascists in Spain. Although he was not a soldier during World War II, he fought with the resistance to thwart German plans. He opened a café in Paris after the war and later retreated to Casablanca. Rick stands for right against wrong and stories relate his experiences with those who enter his bar.

Sam is the café's piano player; Ilsa Lund Laszlo is the Swedish scientist; Victor is Lisa's husband; Louis Renaud is the police captain. The series, based on the feature film, produced ten episodes and ran as a segment of Warner Brothers Presents (September 27, 1955 to April 24, 1956).

Cast: Charles McGraw (Rick Blaine), Clarence Muse (Sam), Anita Ekberg (Ilsa Lund Laszlo), Peter Van Eyck (Victor Laszlo), Marcel Dalio (Police Captain Renaud).

1272 Casablanca. (Series; Drama; NBC; 1983). Nazi-occupied French Morocco during World War II is the setting. Here, Rick Blaine, a man with a mysterious background, owns Rick's Café Americain, a bar that has a reputation for helping people in trouble. Although Rick presents himself as a somewhat bitter man who does not like to involve himself in the troubles of others, he finds that he has no other choice when his soft heart overtakes his feelings and he does what he can to help those with no other place to turn. Stories follow Rick as he attempts to maintain the appearance of a normal bar while in secret helping those seeking refuge. Based on the feature film.

Other Regulars: Sam, the piano player; Sacha, the bartender; Louis Renault, the police captain; Major Henrich Strasser, the German officer; Ferrari, the smuggler; Lieutenant Heinz, Strasser's aid; and Carl, the con artist.

Cast: David Soul (Rick Blaine), Scatman Crothers (Sam), Ray Liotta (Sacha), Hector Elizondo (Louis Renault), Patrick Horgan (Henrich Strasser), Reuven Bar-Yotam (Ferrari), Kai Wulff (Lieutenant Heinz), Arthur Malet (Carl).

1273 Casanova. (Series; Drama; Syn.; 1981). An adult-in-nature series that recalls the life of Giovanni Casanova, the 18th century Italian lover and poet. The story, which contains nudity, unfolds through a series of flashbacks as Casanova, imprisoned for his writings (which were condemned), reflects on his accused wickedness and repents.

Cast: Frank Finlay (Giovanni Casanova), Zienia Merton (Christina), Norman Rossington (Lorenzo), Christine Noonan (Barbarina), Geoffrey Wincott (Senator Bragadin), Patrick Newell (Schalon), Julie Cornelius (Rose), Bridget Bates (Nanan), Carolyn Bowbesvlo (Anna), Ania Larson (Ann Coupier), Gillian Hills (Caroline), Roger Hammond (Father Balbi), Jean Holness (Madame Morin), Richard Dennis (Tiretta), Basil Clarke (Dr. Belotti).

1274 The Case Against Paul Ryker. (Pilot; Drama; NBC; 10/10 and 10/17/63). The pilot film for the ABC series Court-Martial (1966). The story of David Young, an attorney attached to the Judge Advocate's Office in England, who defends American military personnel. In the pilot episode, broadcast on The Kraft Suspense Theater, Young defends Paul Ryker, a G.I. accused of being a traitor.

Cast: Bradford Dillman (David Young), Peter Graves (Major Frank Whittaker). Guest Cast: Lee Marvin (Paul Ryker), Vera Miles (Ann Ryker), Lloyd Nolan (General Amos Bailey).

1275 Case Closed. (Series; Reality; USA; 1993). The program attempts to help the victims of crimes see that justice is done. Once an unsolved case is chosen, a real life private investigator is hired and a TV crew is assigned to him to document what happens as he investigates the circumstances surrounding the crime. The goal is to find the culprit and get an arrest and a conviction.

Host: Stacy Keach. Private Investigator: Brian Patrick Mulligan.

1276 The Case of the Dangerous Robin. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1960–1961). Robin Scott is young and handsome and takes many chances to get his job done as a worldwide investigator for the Gotham Insurance Company. His romantic interest is Phyllis Collier. She is young and beautiful and worries about Robin — about the dangers he faces and about the beautiful women he meets (she and Robin met a year earlier [1959] in Central Park when each sought shelter from a rainstorm under a tree). Robin, who lives in an apartment at 101 East 86th Street in Manhattan, receives 10 percent of the face value of the items he recovers.

Cast: Robin Jason (Robin Scott), Jean Blake (Phyllis Collier). Theme Song: "Robin's Theme" by David Rose.

1277 The Casebusters. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 5/25/86). Sam's Security Service is a detective agency owned by Samuel "Sam" Donahue, a retired police officer. Allie and Jamie Donahue are his grandchildren, amateur teenage sleuths who enjoy helping him and police captain Harry Fogel solve crimes. The pilot episode relates the Casebusters' efforts to stop a counterfeiting ring before they can distribute their home-made money. Other Regulars: Anthony "Ski" Zubrowski, their assistant.

Cast: Pat Hingle (Sam Donahue), Virginia Keehne (Allie Donahue), Noah Hathaway (Jamie Donahue), Arthur Taxier (Harry Fogel), Gary Riley (Ski). Guest Cast: Sharon Barr (Loretta Bonner), Nicholas Worth (Riker), Edde Roe Smith (Joe Bonner), Tim Russ (Dixon), Sid Conrad (Jenkins).

1278 The Cases of Eddie Drake. (Series; Crime Drama; DuMont; 1952). The Drake Detective Agency at 130 West 45th Street in Manhattan is owned by Eddie Drake, a private investigator who has a remarkable affinity for crime and violence. Dr.

Karen Gayle is a private practice psychiatrist who assists Eddie for research material (“I want to know all about criminals, what they say, how they act and why they do the things they do”).

Eddie is personable, intelligent and honest. He does carry a gun and he does use it. While most of his clients are walk-ins, he does get some referrals from an agency called Jenny’s Bail Bonds.

Karen has an office at 64 Park Avenue. She considers herself a student of all the abnormal behavior of the human mind. She is writing a book on criminal behavior and in order to get material that is fresh and stimulating, she has retained Eddie as her personal library. While Karen does find herself becoming actively involved in solving crimes, she objects to one thing — the violence — and wishes Eddie could guarantee a minimum of shooting.

Lieutenant Walsh is a detective with the Homicide Bureau of the N.Y.P.D., whom Eddie and Karen help and vice versa.

Cast: Don Haggerty (Eddie Drake), Patricia Morison (Dr. Karen Gayle), Lynn Roberts (Dr. Karen Gayle; later), Theodore Von Eltz (Lt. Walsh).

1279 Casey, Crime Photographer. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 1951–1952). The alternate title for Crime Photographer, which ran from April 19, 1951 to June 5, 1952. See this title for information.

1280 Casey Jones. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1957). The series, set in Jackson, Tennessee, during the late 1890s, tells the story of John Luther “Casey” Jones, the legendary engineer of the Illinois Central Railroad’s famed Cannonball Express. It is based, in part, on the famous “Casey Jones” ballad in which engine 382 (a ten-wheeler steam locomotive built around 1896 and assigned to mainline passenger service) is wrecked in an accident (in Vaughn, Mississippi, on April 30th, 1900) that killed its engineer, Casey Jones. The steam engine itself was rebuilt and remained in service until the 1930s.

Alice Jones is Casey’s wife; Casey Jones, Jr., is their son; Red Rock is the Cannonball conductor; Willie Simms is the Cannonball fireman; Sam Peachpit is Casey’s Indian friend; Mr. Carter is the local businessman. Casey, Jr., has a dog named Cinders.

Cast: Alan Hale, Jr. (Casey Jones), Mary Lawrence (Alice Jones), Bobby Clark (Casey Jones, Jr.), Eddy Waller (Red Rock), Dub Taylor (Willie Simms), Pat Hogan (Sam Peachpit), Paul Keast (Mr. Carter).

1281 Cash and Carry. (Series; Game; DuMont; 1946–1947). The program is set in a grocery store and has contestants answering questions that are attached to label’s of the sponsor’s product (Libby’s Foods). Correct answers award players cash prizes that they can use to purchase groceries from the stage store.

Host: Dennis James.

1282 Cash Cab. (Series; Game; Discovery Channel; 2007). A game show that is played in a moving taxicab. Passengers are the contestants. As the taxi begins its journey to the passenger’s destination, the driver asks the passenger a series of questions worth from $25 to $100 each. The player earns $25 for each of the first four questions he answers correctly. The next four are worth $50 each and the remaining ones $100 each. A player wins what money he can until he reaches his destination. Each player is allowed three strikes (wrong answers) and is given two helps — a cell phone call to a friend and a pull over (the cab stops to allow the player to ask for help from a stranger on the street). Host: Ben Bailey.

1283 Cash Cab After Dark. (Series; Game; Discovery Channel; 2007). A prime time version of the daytime series Cash Cab. The series is set in New York City where passengers hail a cab and can win money by answering general knowledge questions. The unsuspecting passengers play until they reach their destination or until they are disqualified by three strikes (missed questions). The “After Dark” version is set in the evening and the cabbie (Ben Bailey) cruises the theater district of the city for his passengers (and hoping to get New Yorkers; the afternoon version has passengers who are mostly tourists and not a ratings grabber for prime time). Host: Ben Bailey.

1284 Cashmere Mafia. (Series; Drama; ABC; 2008). Caitlin Dowd, Juliet Draper, Mia Mason and Zoe Burden are four gorgeous women who have been friends since their Ivy League business school educations. The women live in Manhattan and each has become successful. Mia is a head publisher of Barnstead Media; Caitlin is the senior vice president of Lily Parish, Inc.; Juliet works for Stanton Hall Hotels and Resorts; Zoe is the managing director for Gorham-Sutter, Inc. Caitlin lives at the Arbogast Apartments and feelings that she may be a lesbian are beginning to emerge.

The women are driven, determined to make it in a man’s world and are there for each other in the good times as well as the bad times. They confide in each other and use each other’s strengths and resources to help them overcome problems. Stories follow the personal and professional lives of four women who call themselves “The Cashmere Mafia.”

Davis is Juliet’s husband; Eric is Zoe’s husband; Father David is Caitlin’s brother, a priest; Sasha and Luke are Zoe’s children (who attend the Will Croft School); Clive is Mia’s boss; Catherine is Zoe’s secretary; Alicia is Caitlin’s lesbian friend. Fall 2007 premiere delayed by a writers’ strike.

Cast: Lucy Liu (Mia Mason), Frances O’Connor (Zoe Burden), Miranda Otto (Juliet Draper), Bonnie Somerville (Caitlin Dowd), Julian Ovenden (Eric Burden), Peter Hermann (Davis Draper), Peyton List

(Sasha Burden), Nicholas Art (Luke Burden), Darren Pettie (Father David), Daniel Gerroll (Clive), Kate Levering (Catherine), Lourdes Benedicto (Alicia Lawson), Jodi Long (Mia's mother), Jack Yang (Mia's father).

1285 Casper. (Series; Cartoon; Fox; 1996). An adaptation of the classic Casper the Friendly Ghost theatrical cartoons as well as the 1995 feature film Casper. Computer animation is used to relay the story of Casper, a kind ghost who wants only to befriend humans, not scare them. Preventing him from accomplishing that goal are his three mean uncles, Stretch, Fatso and Stinkie — ghosts who do what ghosts do — scare people. Casper and his uncles haunt a spooky old house and stories follow their antics as Casper attempts to befriend humans.

Voice Cast: Malachi Pearson (Casper), Joe Nipote (Stretch), Brad Garrett (Fatso), Joe Alaskey (Stinkie).

1286 Casper and Friends. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1963). The overall title for a group of Harvey Films theatrical cartoons produced between 1946 and 1959. The segments are Casper the Friendly Ghost (about a friendly spirit who attempts to befriend people); Herman and Katnip (the antics of a cat and mouse); Baby Huey (a playful but mischievous overgrown baby duck); and Little Audrey (about a mischievous little girl).

Voice Cast: Mae Questel (Casper), Norma McMillan (Casper), Gwen Davis (Casper), Cecil Roy (Casper), Mae Questel (Little Audrey), Syd Raymond (Baby Huey), Arnold Stang (Herman), Sid Raymond (Katnip).

1287 Casper and the Angels. (Series; Cartoon; NBC; 1971–1980). Outer space in the year 2179 is the setting for an animated series about Casper, a friendly ghost who wanted only to befriend humans, as he takes on new responsibilities as the Guardian Ghost to Minnie and Maxie, two misadventure-prone Space Patrol women. Stories relate their attempts to maintain peace in space. Hairy Scary assists Casper.

Voice Cast: Julie McWhirter (Casper), John Stephenson (Hairy Scary), Laurel Page (Officer Minnie), Dian McCannon (Officer Maxie), John Stephenson (The Commander).

1288 Cass Malloy. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 7/21/82). Cass Malloy is the sheriff of Burr County, Indiana, a job she reluctantly took following the untimely death of her husband, Big Jim, who was killed in the line of duty. The unsold series was to depict Cass's efforts to maintain the law and contend with a group of mischievous deputies (Max, who is seeking her job; Dennis, Woodrow and Alvin). In the pilot episode, Cass assumes her new responsibilities and struggles to balance the demands of her newfound profession against those of her home life as a mother to three children (Nona, Colleen and Little Big Jim). Other Regulars: Tina, Cass's secretary; and Adam Barrett, the police commissioner.

Cast: Caroline McWilliams (Cass Malloy), Amanda Wyss (Colleen Malloy), Heather Hobbs (Nona Malloy), Corey Feldman (Little Big Jim Malloy), George Wyner (Deputy Max Rosencrantz), Diane Kay (Tina Marie Nelson), Lou Richards (Deputy Dennis Little), Glynn Turman (Deputy Woodrow Freeman), Dick Butkus (Deputy Alvin Dimsky), Murphy Dunne (Adam Barrett). Guest Cast: Graham Jarvis (Ralph Gimbel), Buzz Sapien (Chip Carbin).

1289 Cassie and Company. (Series; Crime Drama; NBC; 1982). Cassidy Holland, called Cassie, is a beautiful private detective based in Los Angeles. She is a former police officer and criminologist expert who has resigned from the force to pursue justice as the owner of Holland Investigations. Stories follow Cassie as she calls on her police training to solve crimes of the most serious nature — murder. Lynn “Shack” Shackelford, a semi-retired private detective, assists Cassie. Meryl Fox is Cassie's secretary and Mike Holland is Cassie's ex-husband, the District Attorney. Benny Silva, part owner of the Silva and Gould Gym, also works as Cassie's legman. Eddie is Cassie's information man; and Bertha Crabbe is Cassie's contact at the police department.

Cast: Angie Dickinson (Cassie Holland), John Ireland (Lyman Shackelford), Dori Brenner (Meryl Fox), Alex Cord (Mike Holland), A Martinez (Benny Silva), Joshua Shelley (Eddie), Anne Ramsey (Bertha Crabbe). Theme Song: “Cassie's Theme” by Grover Washington, Jr.

1290 The Castaways on Gilligan's Island. (Series Extension; Comedy; NBC; 5/3/79). The second extension episode based on Gilligan's Island (see also Rescue from Gilligan's Island and The Harlem Globetrotters on Gilligan's Island). The story picks up from where Rescue from Gilligan's Island leaves off. Shortly after the shipwreck, Gilligan, the first mate, finds the remains of two non-working World War II airplanes. Through the efforts of the Professor, who salvages enough parts from the two to make one plane, the castaways depart from the island — and are rescued by the Coast Guard when their plane malfunctions. Later, Thurston Howell III, the millionaire, decides to turn Gilligan's Island into a tropical resort. The story follows the misadventures of “The Shipwrecked Seven,” (Gilligan, the Skipper, Thurston and Lovey Howell, Ginger Grant, Mary Ann Summers, the Professor) now all partners in the resort, as they attempt to operate The Castaways Resort Hotel.

Cast: Alan Hale, Jr. (The Skipper), Bob Denver (Gilligan), Jim Backus (Thurston Howell III), Natalie Schafer (Lovey Howell), Russell Johnson (The Professor), Dawn Wells (Mary Ann Summers), Judith Baldwin (Ginger Grant), Tom Bosley (Henry Elliott; guest role), Marcia Wallace (Myra Elliott; guest role), Ronnie Scribner (Robbie; guest role), Rod Browning (Tom Larsen; guest role).

1291 Castle Rock. (Pilot; Gothic Serial; CBS; 7/31/81). Castle Rock is a farm in an unidentified American locale. Celena McKenna is an Irish girl who comes to the farm to become governess to ten-year-old Annabell Stratton. The unsold series was to depict Celena's involvement in the supernatural existences of the residents of Castle Rock.

In the pilot episode, Celena becomes involved in the mystery surrounding the disappearance of Elizabeth Stratton, Annabell's mother and the wife of Michael Stratton, the owner of Castle Rock. The gothic chiller establishes that Elizabeth is missing and places suspicion on Michael as her killer. Elizabeth's body, however, has never been found and without evidence a grand jury could not convict Michael of a crime. Unexplained images of Elizabeth are seen and Michael claims he is innocent (that Elizabeth just left him). A determined police lieutenant (Jack Dell) is striving to prove that Michael did indeed murder Elizabeth. The program ended with numerous unanswered questions: What is the mystery of the 300-year-old faceless doll? Is Aunt Alice a witch? Did Michael kill Elizabeth? Why did Celena suddenly leave Ireland for employment at Castle Rock? If Elizabeth is dead, then where is her body? And most importantly: Why does the ghostly image of Elizabeth emerge from a seemingly un-owned white cat that stalks Castle Rock?

Cast: Cyndi Girling (Celena McKenna), James Burge (Michael Stratton), Tangie Beaudin (Annabell Stratton), Janet Lynn Greene (Elizabeth Stratton; flashbacks; ghostly images), Margaret Phillips (Aunt Alice Sommers), Gordon Tompson (Jack Dell), Linda Mason Greene (Jeanette Stewart, the maid), Tedde Moore (Joan Donahue, the cook), David Nichols (Simon Donahue, Joan's husband).

1292 Cat Ballou. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 9/5/71). The time is 1894. Catherine "Cat" Ballou has just completed school in the East and is planning on returning to her home town of Wolf City, Wyoming, to start a school. When Cat arrives in Wolf City, she learns from Jackson Two Bears, the foreman of the Ballou Ranch, that her father has died and her property is being sought by a land developer. Unable to protect the ranch by herself, Cat decides to hire a gunfighter, the famous Kid Sheleen, a fast draw who worked the Buffalo Bill Wild West Show. But that was some time ago. Kid is now a drunk and on the few occasions that he is sober, he can't hit the side of a barn (drinking gives Kid the "ability" to shoot straight). The story follows Cat as she, Kid, Jackson Two Bears and their friend, Clay, defeat the land developer. The unsold series was to relate Cat's adventures as a rancher and schoolteacher. Based on the feature film of the same title (with Jane Fonda and Lee Marvin). See the following title also.

Cast: Lesley Ann Warren (Cat Ballou), Jack Elam (Kid Sheleen), Tom Nardini (Jackson Two Bears), Bo Hopkins (Clay), Joel Higgins (Sheriff Cartigan), Laurie Main (Land developer; guest role).

1293 Cat Ballou. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 9/6/71). The Ballou Ranch is a cattle spread on the outskirts of Wolf City, Wyoming. The time is 1894 and a young woman, Catherine "Cat" Ballou" has returned to town (after receiving an education in the East) to take over the family business. The ranch is being managed by Jackson Two Bears, but it is also being sought by a greedy rancher who wants Cat's land to add to his spread.

In an attempt to protect her land, Cat hires Kid Sheleen, a former Wild West sharpshooter who is now a drunk and barely able to shoot straight. With Kid's help Cat defeats the rancher. The unsold series was to focus on Cat, as she becomes an Old West heroine, and her (and Kid's) efforts to protect her ranch and uphold the peace. Adapted from the feature film of the same title; see the prior title also.

Cast: Jo Ann Harris (Cat Ballou), Forrest Tucker (Kid Sheleen), Lee J. Casey (Jackson Two Bears), Bryan Montgomery (Clay). Guest Cast: Harry Morgan (Rancher), Jim Luisi (Spider Levinsky), Jay Silverheels (Indian chief), Bill Calloway (Loopy).

1294 C.A.T. Squad. (Pilot; Adventure; NBC; 7/27/86). When U.S. law enforcement agencies are faced with the challenge of international crime, an elite unit called the C.A.T. (Counter Assault Tactical) Squad is formed to strike back at those who threaten the national security. The unsold series was to focus on the exploits of Richard "Doc" Burkholder, the leader, a veteran special agent; Nikki Blake, a forensics and computer expert; Bud Raines, an intelligence and interrogation expert; and John Sommers, a demolitions and weapons expert, as they battle international crime. In the pilot episode, the squad seeks terrorists who are killing NATO laser defense scientists. Other Regulars: The team's superior, the Assistant Secretary for Law Enforcement, whom they call "Mr. Director."

Cast: Joseph Cortese (Richard "Doc" Burkholder), Patricia Charbonneau (Nikki Blake), Steve W. James (Bud Raines), Jack Youngblood (John Sommers), Barry Corbin (Mr. Director). Guest Cast: Anna Maria Horsford (Gina Raines), Bradley Whitford (Leon Tepper), Pamela Collyer (Janis Brown), Al Shannon (Irish Johnny), Frank Military (Willy), Sam Gray (Dr. Henry Spivak), Eddie Velez (Carlos).

1295 C.A.T. Squad II. (Pilot; Adventure; NBC; 5/23/88). Richard "Doc" Burkholder, Nikki Pappas, John Sommers and Bud Raines are the C.A.T. (Counter Assault Tactical) Squad, a unit of the U.S. government that does not officially exist, that tackles international crime cases. In the second pilot (see prior title), the team travels to South Africa to stop the illegal exporting of plutonium. (Nikki's last name was changed and the Mr. Director character was dropped).

Cast: Joseph Cortese (Richard "Doc" Burkholder), Deborah Van Valkenburgh (Nikki Pappas), Jack Youngblood (John Sommers), Steve W. James (Bud Raines). Guest Cast: Miguel Ferrer (Paul Kiley), Alan Scarfe (Bekker), Brian Delate (Trask), Christopher Loomis (General Highsmith), Ron Frazier (Senator Clifford).

1296 Catalina C-Lab. (Pilot; Adventure; NBC; 1/3/82). The Gamma Foundation, nicknamed Catalina C-Lab, is a marine research center off California's Catalina Island. It is run by Dr. Matt Jennings and the unsold series was to relate his adventures as he and his team tackle various assignments for the government. The pilot episode depicts the efforts of the oceanographers to disarm a live, stray mine that threatens to destroy the foundation.

Other Regulars: Christy, Matt's daughter; Valerie, Matt's assistant; Scientists Rick Guthrie and Johnny Silver; Dwight Purdy III, the project director; and Tom, the town bartender.

Cast: Bruce Weitz (Dr. Matt Jennings), Melora Hardin (Christy Jennings), Jeff Daniels (Rick Guthrie), Gary Prendergast (Johnny Silver), Nani Asing (Valerie Ono), Steve Vinovich (Dwight Purdy III), Malachy McCourt (Tom Whitehead). Guest Cast: Carl Byrd (Lieutenant Walker), Pearl Shear (Martha Levitz), John O'Leary (Hallett), Sidney Clute (Doctor), Susan Backline (Diver).

1297 Catch 22. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 5/21/73). An unsold series based on Joseph Heller's novel Catch 22 ("If you're insane you should be released from combat, but if you asked to be released from combat you are obviously sane"). The story, set at an unnamed, run-down U.S. Army Air Force base in the Mediterranean during World War II, relates incidents in the lives of a group of peculiar people: Captain Yossarian, a bombardier who is desperately sane and seeks a way out of the service ("cause it's dangerous"); Colonel Cathcart, an insane commander who is oblivious to everything around him and constantly sends Yossarian out on dangerous missions; Milo Minderbinder, the mess officer (a lieutenant) who finds the war very profitable; Lieutenant J.S. McWatt, an insane officer who loves good crash landings; and Colonel Korn, Cathcart's aide.

Cast: Richard Dreyfuss (Captain Yossarian), Dana Elcar (Colonel Cathcart), Stewart Moss (Lieutenant Colonel Korn), Andy Jarrell (Milo Minderbinder), Frank Welker (Lieutenant McWatt), Suzanne Zenor (Nurse Duckett).

1298 Catscratch. (Series; Cartoon; Nickelodeon; 2005). Mr. Blik, Gordon and Waffle are three feline brothers who live in the lap of luxury in a mansion owned by Edna Cramdilly. When Edna passes away, her home and money is left to the three cats. They also inherit Hovis, Edna's butler, who must now look after the cats. Stories follow the cats as they attempt to live the good life but in doing so encounter nothing but misadventure.

Mr. Blik is greedy and craves money; Gordon is a slob but loyal to his brothers; Waffle is a dimwit who walks hand-in-hand with trouble. Kimberly (called Human Kimberly) is the cat's neighbor (and the girl on whom Gordon has a crush); Gear is the cat brothers' monster truck.

Voice Cast: Wayne Knight (Mr. Blik), Rob Paulsen (Gordon), Kevin McDonald (Waffle), Maurice La Marche (Hovis), Liliana Mumy (Human Kimberly).

1299 The Cattanooga Cats. (Series; Cartoon; ABC; 1969–1971). The overall title for four animated series.

1. The Cattanooga Cats. The misadventures of Chessie, Kitty Jo, Scootz, Groovey and Country, a feline rock group who are known as the Cattanooga Cats.

2. It's the Wolf. The story of Mildew, a hungry wolf who is determined to catch himself a decent meal: Lambsey, a poor defenseless lamb. Savior of the lamb is Bristol Hound—"Bristol Hound's my name and saving sheep's my game."

3. Around the World in 79 Days. The adventures of Phineas Fogg, Jr., as he attempts to travel around the world in 79 days. He is assisted by Jenny Trent and Happy; Crumdon and Bumbler attempt to foil his efforts.

4. Auto Cat and Motor Mouse. The story of a cat who is determined to beat a mouse in an automobile race.

Voice Cast: Julie Bennett (Chessie), Julie Bennett (Kitty Jo), Casey Kasem (Groovey), Jim Begg (Scootz), Bill Calloway (Country), Paul Lynde (Mildew Wolf), Daws Butler (Lambsey), Allan Melvin (Bristol Hound), Bruce Watson (Phineas Fogg, Jr.), Janet Waldo (Jenny Trent), Don Messick (Happy), Daws Butler (Crumdon), Allan Melvin (Bumbler), Dick Curtis (Motor Mouse), Marty Ingels (Auto Cat).

1300 Catwalk. (Series; Drama; Syn; MTV; 1992–1994). A music-oriented drama that focuses on six young adults (Sierra, Addie, Johnny, Jesse and Mary) who have formed a rock group (Catwalk) and now struggle up the rocky road to stardom. The program became soap opera-like at times when it delved into the private lives of each band member. The series began in syndication (1992–1993) and completed its run on the cable station MTV (1993–1994).

Cast: Lisa Butler (Sierra Williams), Christopher

Lee Clementa (Addie Robinson), Keram Malicki-Sanchez (Johnny Camden), Paul Popowich (Jesse Carlson), Kelli Taylor (Mary Owens), Nicole de Boer (Maggie Holden), Neve Campbell (Daisy McKenzie), Alex Appel (Heidi), Tracey Cook (Pamela), Ron Lea (Gus Danzig), Polly Shannon (Nina Moore), Chandra West (Wendy), Victor Ertmanis (Eddie Camden).

1301 Cavalcade of America. (Series; Anthology; NBC; ABC; 1952–1957). Dramatizations based on the people and events that shaped America. The series began on October 1, 1952 as Cavalcade of America. On September 13, 1955 it became Cavalcade Theater and finally on September 18, 1956 it became The DuPont Theater. NBC aired the program from October 1, 1952 to June 24, 1953; ABC aired it from September 29, 1953 to April 30, 1957.

Performers Include: Anne Jeffreys, Robert Sterling, Patricia McCormack, Barbara Billingsley, Michael Landon, Maureen O’Sullivan, Ward Bond, Walter Brennan, Reba Waters, John McIntire, Johnny Crawford, Peter Graves, John Ericson, Joi Lansing, Gloria Talbot, Chuck Connors, Charles Bronson, Hans Conried, Jim Davis, Lon Chaney, Jr., Phyllis Coates, Marjorie Lord, Peggy Webber, Nancy Hale, Dan O’Herlihy, Richard Denning.

1302 Cavalcade of Bands. (Series; Variety; DuMont; 1950–1951). The program features the music, songs and performers of the Big Band era of the 1930s and 1940s.

Hosts: Fred Robbins, Warren Hull, Ted Steele, Buddy Rogers. Regulars: Marsha Van Dyke, The Mellolarks, The Clark Brothers.

1303 Cavalcade of Stars. (Series; Variety; DuMont; 1949–1952). A series of music, songs and comedy sketches presided over by a group of rotating hosts. The program, with Jackie Gleason hosting, presented the original escapades of “The Honeymooners” with Jackie Gleason as Ralph Kramden and Pert Kelton as his wife, Alice. The series aired from June 4, 1949 to September 26, 1952. Joseph Cates and Jack Hurdle are the producers.

Hosts: Jack Carter, Jackie Gleason, Jerry Lester, Larry Storch. Regulars: Joan Edwards, Patricia Morison, Pert Kelton, Zomah Cunningham, The Fontaines, The Arnauts, The June Taylor Dancers. Announcer: Jack Lescoulie. Orchestra: Sammy Spear.

1304 The Cavanaugh. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1986–1989). Events in the lives of the Cavanaughs, an Irish-Catholic family who resides at 36 Brookhaven Street in Boston.

Francis Cavanaugh is the head of the family and the oldest living Cavanaugh (the family curse is that no Cavanaugh lives to see age 72; Francis broke the curse when he turned 72 in 1989). He is a staunch Democrat and owns the Cavanaugh Construction Company. He is a widower (his late wife was named Bridget) and is constantly at odds with his brother James, a Republican he calls “The Weasel.”

Katherine (“Kit”) Cavanaugh is Francis’s oldest child. She is divorced and retains her maiden name (her ex-husband is Tom Elgin). Kit is an actress and her claim to fame is that she appeared nude in the movie Wild Women of Malibu. Mary Margaret Cavanaugh is Francis’s sweet granddaughter. She calls him “Poppi” and attends Our Lady of Perpetual Sorrow High School (as did Kit).

Francis’s second-born son (and Mary Margaret’s father), Charles (“Chuck”) Cavanaugh, now runs Cavanaugh Construction and is constantly in conflict with his father over how the company should be run. Chuck, a widower, is also the father of three sons: John, Kevin and the eldest, Charles Cavanaugh, Jr., a parish priest at Our Lady of Perpetual Sorrow Church.

Flashbacks: Matt Shakman (Francis as a boy in 1928), Danny Cooksey (James as a boy in 1928), Lauren Taylor (Bridget as a girl in 1928), Christine Ebersole (Bridget as a woman). Theme: “The Cavanaughs,” by Paul Pilger.

Cast: Barnard Hughes (Francis Cavanaugh), Art Carney (James Cavanaugh), Christine Ebersole (Katherine “Kit” Cavanaugh), Mary Tanner (Mary Margaret Cavanaugh), Peter Michael Goetz (Charles Cavanaugh), Scott Curtis (John Cavanaugh), Parker Jacobs (John Cavanaugh; later), Matt Shakman (Kevin Cavanaugh), Danny Cooksey (Kevin Cavanaugh; later), John Short (Charles Cavanaugh, Jr.), John Getz (Tom Elgin).

1305 Cavemen. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 2007–). Cavemen have long since been thought of as extinct. They supposedly perished with the dinosaurs many millions of years ago and no longer exist — or do they? According to ABC they do. It seems that after the Ice Age and the evolution of Homo sapiens, the caveman (and woman) have kept to themselves and lived in remote communities unknown to the outside world. Slowly, over time, members of the world’s oldest minority have left their secret societies to blend in with the Homo sapiens world. Because of their look (a bit hairy), this has proven to be a bit difficult.

In the 21st century three cavemen appear to have successfully made the transition: Joel, his brother Andy and their best friend Nick, who have established a life for themselves in San Diego. Can they continue to become a part of the Homo sapiens world? Stories relate that aspect as the three cavemen struggle to live in a world where much prejudice exists against their kind.

Joel is sophisticated and intelligent and has a beautiful Homo sapien girlfriend (Kate). He works in the home office department of NorksBild Department Store. Nick is not as acceptable of the Homosapiens as Joel and feels the pressures of society as he tries to fit in. Andy is like Joel and eager to become a part of the Homosapiens society. Kate is a Southern belle whose mother, Leslie, owns the condominium complex (The Shores) where Joel and Andy live. Thorne is Kate's friend (out to discover just how wild a caveman can be). The series is based on the "It's so easy a caveman can do it" series of Geico car insurance commercials.

Cast: Bill English (Joel), Nick Kroll (Nick), Sam Huntington (Andy), Kaitlin Doubleday (Kate), Stephanie Lemelin (Thorne), Julie White (Leslie).

1306 Cavender Is Coming. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 5/25/62). Harmon Cavender is a bumbling apprentice angel with the Third Celestial Division, Angel Placement, who has yet to earn his wings. Until he does, Mr. Polk, his superior, assigns him to help deserving individuals on Earth. Harmon's efforts to earn his wings by performing good deeds was the focal point of the unsold series. In the pilot episode, broadcast on The Twilight Zone, Harmon seeks to help Agnes Grep, an unemployed and rather clumsy woman, find her goal in life. See also Mr. Bevis.

Cast: Jesse White (Harmon Cavender), Howard Smith (Mr. Polk). Guest Cast: Carol Burnett (Agnes Grep), Donna Douglas (Girl).

1307 The C.B. Bears. (Series; Cartoon; CBS; 1977–1978). The overall title for six cartoon segments.

1. The C.B. Bears. A Charlie's Angels spoof that relates the exploits of Hustle, Boogie and Bump, three crime-fighting bears who receive their orders from a female named Charlie via a citizens band radio.

2. Blast-Off Buzzard and Crazy Legs. The efforts of a hungry buzzard (Blast-Off) to catch himself a decent meal: an out-foxing snake named Crazy Legs. Characters are non-speaking.

3. Heyyyyy, It's the King. The misadventures of the King, a 1950s type, hip-talking lion, and his friends Big H, the Hippo; Clyde the Ape; Yukayuka, the Mole; Zelda, the Zebra; and Skids, the Alligator.

4. Posse Impossible. The adventures of an Old West Sheriff and his three bumbling deputies (Stick, Blubber and Duke) as they attempt to maintain the peace in the town of Saddle Sore.

5. Shake, Rattle and Roll. The story of Shake, Rattle and Roll, three ghosts who run the Haunted Inn, a hotel for the unearthly.

6. Undercover Elephant. The exploits of Undercover Elephant, a fumbling U.S. government agent, and his assistant Loud Mouse.

Voice Cast: Daws Butler (Hustle), Henry Corden (Bump), Chuck McCann (Boogie), Lennie Wein-rib (The King), Marvin Kaplan (Skids), Lennie Weinrib (Yukayuka), Sheldon Allman (Big H), Don Messick (Clyde), Susan Silo (Zelda), Ginny McSwain (Sheena), William Woodson (Sheriff), Daws Butler (Deputy Stick), Chuck McCann (Deputy Blubber), Daws Butler (Deputy Duke), Paul Winchell (Shake), Lennie Weinrib (Rattle), Joe E. Ross (Roll), Alan Oppenheimer (Sidney Merciless), Daws Butler (Undercover Elephant), Bob Hastings (Loud Mouse), Michael Bell (Chief).

1308 C-Bear and Jamal. (Series; Cartoon; Fox; 1996–1998). Jamal is a ten-year-old boy who lives in South Central Los Angeles. His best friend (who only comes to life when they are alone) is C-Bear, his shades-wearing, hip-hop talking teddy bear. C-Bear is full of advice that he offers to Jamal as he faces the pressures of leaving the world of adolescence behind and "becoming a man." Although only 13 episodes were produced (and aired weekly over a two year period) the social awareness series also focuses on Jamal and C-Bear as they try to help other kids with the pressures that surround them (anything from drugs to peer pressure).

Voice Cast: Tone Loc (C-Bear), Arthur Reggie III (Jamal).

1309 CBS Cartoon Theater. (Series; Cartoon; CBS; 1956). A short-lived series of theatrical cartoons featuring Heckle and Jeckle, Gandy Goose and Little Roguefort. The series ran from June 13, 1956 to September 5, 1956.

Cast: Dick Van Dyke (Host), Arthur Kay (Voice of Gandy Goose), Dayton Allen (Voice of Heckle), Ron Halee (Voice of Heckle), Dayton Allen (Voice of Jeckle), Ron Halee (Voice of Jeckle), Tom Morrison (Voice of Little Roguefort), Tom Morrison (Voice of Percy the Cat).

1310 CBS Color Experiment. (Experimental; Color; CBS; 7/17/41). On Thursday, July 17, 1941, CBS accomplished a TV first: a 20-minute over-the-air color transmission demonstrating its mechanical disc-type color television developed by Peter Goldmark (the system eventually lost out to RCA's development of the color picture tube).

Prior to the telecast, the Country Dance Society and Ukrainian Costume Dancers were seen in black and white. The transmission, from the Chrysler Tower, then switched to color ("quite clear and the camera revealed detail surprisingly well").

1311 CBS Daytime 90. (Pilot; Anthology; CBS; 10/11/73). A proposed series of occasional 90-minute daytime dramas that were to be broadcast by CBS from 3:00 to 4:30 P.M., E.T. The pilot episode, titled "Tiger on a Chain," tells of Peter Stone, an Air Force captain who returns to his wife (Nora) after spending five years of torture and captivity in a Vietnamese prison camp, and of the strange and unexplained events that begin to occur that have him doubting his sanity.

Cast: David Ackroyd (Peter Stone), Leslie Charleson (Nora Stone), Jill Clayburgh (Laurie Robbins), Bruce Gray (Elliot Pearson), David Hooks (Arthur Robbins), Allen Miller (Dr. Burghoff).

1312 The CBS Newcomers. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1971). The program features performances by new and promising entertainers in the field of music, song, dance and comedy. The series ran from July 12, 1971 to September 6, 1971 and produced 13 episodes. Bill Hobin is the producer.

Host: Dave Garroway. Regulars: Cynthia Clawson, Peggy Sears, Rex Allen, Jr., Rodney Winfield, Joey Garya, David Arlen, Paul Perez, Gay Perkins, The Good Humor Company, The Californians. Orchestra: Nelson Riddle.

1313 The CBS Schoolbreak Special. (Series; Anthology; CBS; 1984–1995). A monthly series of dramas aimed at teenagers (in the same vein as The ABC Afterschool Special). Each story is designed to instill a learning lesson.

Stars Include: David Ogden Stiers, Sally Kellerman, Jill Whelan, Lori Loughlin, Tracy Nelson, David Faustino, Elinor Donahue, David Spielberg, Patricia Arquette, Tricia Cast, Tyne Daly, Tammy Lauren, Karen Valentine, John Haymes Newton, Dominique Dunne, Roscoe Lee Browne, Edie Adams, Annie Potts, Martin Sheen, John Randolph, Jamey Sheridan, Frank Converse, Dody Goodman, Dana Hill, Lance LeGault, Dick Van Dyke.

1314 CBS Storybreak. (Series; Anthology; CBS; 1985). A Saturday afternoon cartoon series of adaptations of famed children's stories. The series was originally hosted by Bob Keeshan, who played Captain Kangaroo; later by Malcolm-Jamal Warner (Theo on The Cosby Show).

1315 The CBS Studio Show. (Experimental; Variety; CBS; 5/5/44). The program marked the return of CBS to live programming since it ceased production in December of 1942. The stanza opened with a 15-minute newscast by Ned Calmer then switched to a musical segment with the four Cappy Barra Boys (harmonica players) and tap dancer Betty Jane Smith.

Next came Gregory Abbott and a series of interviews with soldiers just back from Guadalcanal (these included Sgt. Dana Babcock, Ensign George MacLaughlin and Signalman George Sigerist). The program concluded with a 60-minute quiz segment with Ben Feiner as the emcee and Frances Buss as his assistant (the Score Girl). The format involved a question and answer session with guests (composer Richard Rodgers and his wife; Random House publisher Bennett Cerf; and Frank Norris of Time, Inc.).

CBS presented a second episode on May 12, 1944, with almost the exact same format (news, music and a quiz). Ned Calmer again gave the news; Ben Feiner conducted the quiz segment; Gilbert Seldes held a postwar military education forum; Gregory Abbott interviewed a combat photographer; and Cuban singer-guitarist Marian Incalm performed. See also The Columbia Television Workshop.

Cast: Gregory Abbott, The Cappy Barra Boys, Frances Buss, Ned Calmer, Ben Feiner, Betty Jane Smith.

1316 The CBS Summer Playhouse. (Pilot; CBS; 1987). A summer series of pilot films produced for the 1987–88 season. At the end of each program (which mixes 30- and 60-minute pilots) viewers were invited to call special 900 telephone numbers to tell CBS what they liked or disliked. The summer series ran from June 12, 1987 to September 18, 1987.

The Pilots (listed in telecast order; see individual titles for information): The Saint (6/12/87), Kung Fu: The Next Generation (6/19/87), Changing Patterns and Mickey and Nora (6/26/87), Puppetman and Sawdust (7/3/87), Barrington (7/10/87), Mabel and Max and King of the Building (7/31/87), The Time of Their Lives (8/7/87), The Infiltrator (8/14/87), Reno and Yolanda and Day to Day (8/28/87), Sirens and In the Lion's Den (9/4/87), Traveling Man (9/11/87) and King Pins and Sons of Gunz (9/18/87).

Hosts: Tim Reid, Daphne Maxwell Reid.

1317 C.C.P.D. (Unaired Pilot; Comedy; Produced for Fox in 1992). Costa Chula, California, is a medium-sized city with the problems of both big and small cities. The unsold series, a parody of real-life video-verite styled police programs, was to detail the activities of its police force as they battle an array of wacky criminals.

Cast: Dan Aykroyd (Chief Bastrop), Laura Innes (Marianne Chapel), Khandi Alexander (Gloedane Fouchet), Bruce Locke (John Park).

1318 Celanese Theater. (Series; Anthology; ABC; 1951–1952). A series of live dramatic programs broadcast from New York City. Sponsored by the Celanese Corporation of America and broadcast from October 3, 1951 to June 25, 1952 (20 episodes aired).

Performers Include: Wendell Corey, Albert Dekker, Alfred Drake, Sarah Churchill, Lillian Gish, Signe Hasso, Melvyn Douglas, June Havoc, Richard Burton, Veronica Lake, David Niven, Kim Hunter, Wendell Corey, Robert Stack, Macdonald Carey, Claudia Morgan, Mildred Dunnock.

1319 Celebrity Billiards. (Series; Game; Syn.; 1967). The program features famed pool hustler Minnesota Fats (Rudolph Wanderone, Jr.) playing various games of billiards with celebrity guests (including Don Adams, Milton Berle, James Garner, Tom and Dick Smothers, Barry Sullivan, Donald O'Connor, Bill Cosby, Robert Morse, Buddy Hackett, Morey Amsterdam).

Host: Rudolph Wanderone, Jr.

1320 Celebrity Bowling. (Series; Game; Syn.; 1971). Four celebrities, divided into two teams of two, play for selected members of the studio audience. A game based on a ten-frame score wherein the best ball doubles, is played. Prizes are awarded to the studio audience members according to team scores.

Host: Jed Allan. Assistant: Bobby Cooper, Bill Buneta, Dave Davis, Sherry Kominsky. Announcer: Jed Allan.

1321 Celebrity Challenge of the Sexes. (Series; Game; CBS; 1978). Male and female television personalities are pitted against one another in various athletic contests to determine the better (athletic) sex. The series, which produced 5 episodes, ran from January 31, 1978 to February 28, 1978.

Host: Tom Brookshire. Female Team Coach: Barbara Rhoades. Male Team Coach: McLean Stevenson. Judge: Jim Tunney.

1322 Celebrity Charades. (Series; Game; Syn.; 1979). Two four-member teams of celebrities compete. Each celebrity performs a charade with the object being for the teammates to guess as many charades as possible in the least amount of time. The team with the lowest total time (eight charades are played, each with a 75-second time limit) is the winner and receives a check for $500 (which is donated to charity).

Host: Jay Johnson (and his puppet Squeaky). Regulars: Judy Landers, Lani O'Grady, Vernee Watson, Jamie Farr, Robert Mandan, Jon Bauman, Judy Norton-Taylor. Announcer: Dick Patterson.

1323 Celebrity Concerts. (Series; Variety; Syn.; 1976). Solo performances by celebrity guests, including Vikki Carr, Paul Williams, Tom Jones, Anne Murray and Jack Jones. Wendell Wilkes, Gary Jones and Tommy Banks are the producers.

Music Conductor: Stanley Dorfman, Johnnie Spencer. Music Performer: The Edmonton Orchestra. Additional Orchestrations: Jimmie Haskell, Sid Feller, Bob Frank.

1324 Celebrity Cooking Showdown. (Series; Reality; NBC; 2006). A cooking competition that teams Hollywood celebrities with professional chefs for a series of food preparation contests. Each cook off is limited to fifty minutes and a panel of experts judges each meal. The program was scheduled to run for five consecutive nights (Monday through Friday). NBC withdrew the program after the third episode (due to low ratings) and ran the final two episodes back-to-back on a Saturday night three days later. The series ran from April 17, 2006 to April 22, 2006.

Host: Alan Thicke. Celebrities: Cindy Margolis, Patti LaBelle, Ashley Parker Angel, Alison Sweeney, Tony Gonzalez. Chefs: Wolfgang Puck, Cat Cora, Govind Armstrong. Judge: Gael Greene, Colin Cowiz.

1325 Celebrity Cooks. (Series; Variety; Syn.; 1978). Guest celebrities prepare their favorite recipes. The series is produced in Canada. Derek Smith and Frank Andreoli are the producers.

Host: Bruno Gerussi. Music By: Jim Walchuk. Theme Music: Kevin Gillis.

1326 Celebrity Death Match. (Series; Cartoon; MTV; 1998–2002). An animated series that does what no other series has ever attempted: placing famous Hollywood celebrities, politicians and music idols in the Celebrity Death Match Ring.

Here, the chosen celebrities slug it out with one another until one emerges victorious. The program also duplicates the atmosphere of a real boxing match with the ringside commentators, interviews, the press conference and the locker room scenes.

Voices: Mills Lane (Referee), Johnny Gomez (Ring Announcer), Wink Diamond (Ring Announcer), Adam Sietz, Eric Fogel, Emily Blau, Len Maxwell, Debbie Matenopoulos, Steven Williams, Dan Blank.

1327 Celebrity Duets. (Series; Reality; Fox; 2006). Celebrities are paired with superstar singers for a competition that awards the winner's favorite charity $100,000. Each of the celebrities performs with an established singer (a guest; the celebrities have to adapt to that singer's style). Viewers votes determine which celebrities are eliminated — and which celebrity wins the money.

Host: Wayne Brady. Celebrities: Lucy Lawless, Cheech Marin, Carly Patterson, Alfonso Ribeiro, Jai Rodriguez, Lea Thompson, Chris Jericho, Renee O'Connor. Judges: David Foster, Little Richard, Marie Osmond. Musical Guests: Gladys Knight, Smokey Robinson, Dennis De Young, Sebastian Bach, Taylor Dane, Al Jarreau, Chaka Khan, Patti LaBelle, Richard Marx, Jesse McCartney, Aaron Neville, Dee Snider, Dionne Warwick.

1328 Celebrity Eye Candy. (Series; Reality; VH-1; 2005). A celebrity gossip magazine brought to life. The program profiles television and movie stars with the emphasis on the latest gossip. It also looks at the lives of past and present star makers as well as presenting a segment on celebrity goofs. The series is produced by Paul Kaup and Michelle Mahoney.

1329 Celebrity Fit Club. (Series; Reality; VH-1; 2005). A seven episode series that copies NBC's The Biggest Loser but changes the participants to celebrities who are overweight and now must "suffer" to lose weight and slim down. The celebrities became a part of the show because each said they were on a mission to lose weight. The program, under the guidance of a health expert (Dr. Ian Smith) puts the celebrities through the rigors of diet and exercise to achieve their goal.

Host: Dr. Ian Smith. Nutritionist: Dr. David Katz. Psychotherapist: Marisa Peer. Celebrities: Kim Coles, Adam Baldwin, Erika Eleniak, Willie Aames, Gary Busy, Jeff Conaway, Jackee Harry, Victoria Jackson, Judge Mablean Ephriam, Joe Gan-nascoli, Mia Tyler, Biz Markie, Ralphie May, Wendy Kaufman, Mark E., Ann Tyler, Jani Lane.

1330 The Celebrity Game. (Series; Game; CBS; 1964–1965). Two players compete and appear opposite a panel of nine celebrity guests. The host reads a yes or no answerable type of question to the celebrities. One player begins the game by selecting a celebrity and predicting how he answered the question. The player scores one point if he guessed correctly; if not he loses his turn at play and his opponent receives a chance. The player with the highest score is the winner and receives a cash prize. The series aired from April 5, 1964 to September 13, 1964 and April 8, 1965 to September 9, 1965.

Host: Carl Reiner.

1331 Celebrity Mole. (Series; Reality; ABC; 2001–2004). The revised series title for The Mole when celebrities were added in place of ordinary people. See The Mole for information.

1332 Celebrity Night. (Live Test Program; Variety; NBC; 2/25/51). The Versailles Night Club in New York City was the setting for this potential series of interviews and chatter with the celebrities who happen to frequent the club. NBC's attempt to copy CBS's The Stork Club.

Hosts: Candy Jones, Bill Stern., Guests: Carol Bruce, Joan Edwards, Faye Emerson, Skitch Henderson, Donna Mason, Barney Ross. Models: Phyllis Drake, Terry Phillips, Phyllis Riggs.

1333 Celebrity Playhouse. (Series; Anthology; Syn.; 1955). The program consists of rebroadcasts of dramas that were originally broadcast on The Schlitz Playhouse of Stars. See this title for information. 39 selected episodes aired.

1334 Celebrity Revue. (Series; Variety; Syn.; 1976). A daily series of interviews and performances by celebrities. Jack Rhodes, Gary Jones and Tommy Banks are the producers.

Hostess: Carole Taylor. Host: Tommy Banks. Music: Tommy Banks.

1335 Celebrity Sweepstakes. (Series; Game; NBC; 1974–1976). A question is asked of six celebrity guests. Each member of the studio audience votes for the celebrity he feels has the correct response. The audience votes are tabulated and the odds for each celebrity are revealed. Each of the two players who compete selects the celebrity he feels has the correct answer. The celebrities reveal their written answers and players win money if they chose a celebrity with a correct response. Money is deducted from a player's score if he chose incorrectly. Several rounds are played and the contestant with the highest money score is the winner.

Host: Jim McKrell. Regulars: Carol Wayne, Joey Bishop, Buddy Hackett. Announcer: Bill Armstrong.

1336 Celebrity Talent Scouts. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1960). The program features performances by the undiscovered talent of celebrity guests. The series aired from August 1, 1960 to September 26, 1960.

Host: Sam Levinson.

1337 Celebrity Time. (Series; Variety; CBS; ABC; 1948–1952). A potpourri of music, chatter, interviews, and game contests. The series is also known as The Eyes Have It, Stop, Look and Listen, and Riddle Me This.

The series aired on CBS from November 20, 1948 to January 27, 1949; on ABC from April 3, 1949 to March 26, 1950; on CBS from April 2, 1950 to June 27, 1950; and on CBS from October 1, 1950 to September 21, 1952.

Host: Conrad Nagel (Celebrity Time), Ralph McNair (The Eyes Have It), Paul Gallico (Stop, Look and Listen). Regulars: Ilka Chase, John Daly, Kyle MacDonnell, Kitty Carlisle, Jane Wilson, Herman Hickman, Mary McCarthy.

1338 Center of the Universe. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 2004). John and Katie Pressman are a couple who have been happily married for 20 years. John owns the Eagle Bird Security Company and enjoys a beer at Milt's Bar and Grill. Katie is a schoolteacher and she and John are the parents of Miles. While John's life sounds peaceful, it is anything but. He has to also contend with the antics of his eccentric, extended family: his parents, Arthur and Marge; his sister, Lily, and his brother, Tommy.

Arthur and Marge have been married for 49 years. Arthur is a sex-crazed senior citizen and Marge is a bit off-the-wall. Lily is a therapist who is her own best friend; and Tommy is a bit dense and seemingly oblivious to everything that surrounds him. Stories follow John's efforts to come to the rescue when his family spins out of control.

Cast: John Goodman (John Pressman), Jean Smart (Kate Pressman), Edward Asner (Arthur Pressman), Olympia Dukakis (Marge Pressman), Melinda McGraw (Lily Pressman), Diedrich Bader (Tommy Pressman), Spencer Breslin (Miles Pressman).

1339 Center Stage. (Series; Anthology; ABC; 1954). The program features rebroadcasts of dramas that were originally seen on other filmed anthology programs. The summer series aired on ABC from June 1, 1954 to September 21, 1954.

1340 Central Park West. (Series; Drama; CBS; 1995–1996). A prime time serial about the glamorous (but also deceitful) world of publishing as seen through the eyes of the staff of Communique, a New York based magazine. Allen Rush is the owner, a ruthless man who has been called “The Darth Vader of Publishing”; Stephanie Wells is his editor-in-chief; Carrie Fairchild is Allen’s stepdaughter; Mark Merrill is Stephanie’s husband, a writer; Rachel Dennis is the fashion editor.

After 12 episodes, the series was taken off the air for a short time and revised. It returned with a revamped format that focused (for 9 episodes) on the intrigues and conflicts of the powerful Broch family (the owner of Broch Global Communications on Central Park West in Manhattan).

Cast: Mariel Hemingway (Stephanie Wells), Lauren Hutton (Linda Fairchild Rush), Ron Leibman (Allen Rush), Madchen Amick (Carrie Fairchild), Tom Verica (Mark Merrill), Kylie Travis (Rachel Dennis), Raquel Welch (Dianna Brock), Gerald McRaney (Adam Brock), Michael Michele (Nikki Sheridan), Melissa Errico (Alex Bartoli), Justin Lazrd (Gil Chase), Noelle Beck (Jordan Tate), Amanda Peet (Robyn Gainer), Gerry Becker (Dr. West), Andre B. Blake (Simon Perry), Bellina Logan (Carolyn).

1341 The Centurions — Power-X-treme! (Pilot; Cartoon; Syn.; 4/86). In the 21st century, the evil Doc Terror and Hacker are bent on destroying the universe. To combat them, Crystal Kane organizes the Centurions, three men (Max Ray, Jake Rockwell and Ace McCloud) who wear suits that fuse powerful weapons to their bodies. The five-pilot episodes, broadcast as a miniseries, establish the would-be series storyline as Crystal and the Centurions attempt to stop Doc Terror and Hacker from destroying the Earth.

Voices: Jennifer Darling, Vince Edwards, Pat Farley, Ron Feinberg, Edmund Gilbert, Tress MacNeille, Bill Martin, Mona Marshall, David Mendenhall, Diane Pershing, Pat Pinney, Alan Oppenheimer, Neilson Ross, John Stephenson, Frank Welker.

1342 The Century Turns. (Pilot; Western; NBC; 10/8/72). The pilot film for the series Hec Ramsey. The setting is New Prospect, Oklahoma, in 1901. The story of Hector “Hec” Ramsey, an aging lawman who uses scientific methods to solve crimes. The pilot episode establishes the series storyline as Ramsey, an ex-gunfighter, accepts the job as deputy to Oliver B. Stamp, an inexperienced, college-educated cop. Other Regulars: Nora Muldoon, Hec’s romantic interest, a widow; Andy, Nora’s son; and Amos Coogan, the town’s doctor.

Cast: Richard Boone (Hec Ramsey), Rick Lenz (Oliver B. Stamp), Sharon Acker (Nora Muldoon), Dennis Rucker (Andy Muldoon), Harry Morgan (Amos Coogan). Guest Cast: R.G. Armstrong (Ben Ritt), Robert Pratt (Steve Ritt), Ray Middleton (Leroy Tate), Dick Van Patten (Earl Enright), Perry Lopez (Juan Mendoza). Note: In the series Brian Dewey plays the role of Andy Muldoon.

1343 Cesar’s World. (Series; Documentary; Syn.; 1968). The program spotlights the work, the lives and customs of people throughout the world.

Host-Narrator: Cesar Romero.

1344 The Chadwick Family. (Pilot; Comedy-Drama; ABC; 4/17/74). Events in the hectic lives of the Chadwicks, a large family living in San Diego, California. Regulars: The parents, Ned and Valerie; their children, Eileen and Joan (married) and Lisa and Tim; Alex Hawthorne, Eileen’s husband; Duffy McTaggart, Joan’s husband; Cindy, Sari and Jimmy, Eileen’s children; and Lee, Lisa’s boyfriend.

Cast: Fred MacMurray (Ned Chadwick), Kathleen Maguire (Valerie Chadwick), Lara Parker (Eileen Hawthorne), Darleen Carr (Joan McTaggart), Jane Actman (Lisa Chadwick), Stephen Nathan (Tim Chadwick), Alan Fudge (Alex Hawthorne), Barry Bostwick (Duffy McTaggart), Carlene Gower (Cindy Hawthorne), Kim Durso (Sari Hawthorne), Eben George (Jimmy Hawthorne), Frank Michael Liu (Lee). Guest Cast: Bruce Boxleitner (Danny), John Larch (Fargo), Pat Li (Madame Wu-Tsaung).

1345 Chain Letter. (Series; Game; NBC; 1966). Two teams compete, each composed of a celebrity captain and a non-celebrity contestant. A category topic is presented to the teams. One contestant has to respond with a word suitable to the subject. His or her celebrity partner then has to use the last letter of the word and name another word within the same category. Failure results in a broken chain and a loss of points. Winners are the highest point scorers.

Host: Jan Murray.

1346 Chain Letter. (Pilot; Anthology; ABC; 8/5/89). Beware of a chain letter that is sent by the Messenger of Death. His letters provide tools with which people can determine their own fate. The Messenger plays out a game of temptation that can either lead to destruction for the players or give them the opportunity to turn back from the path of doom. The Messenger is assisted by Miss Smith, his secretary, who believes that people are basically good. He thinks otherwise, which makes for a cat-and-mouse type relationship as each tries to prove the other wrong. Stories of people who receive a mysterious chain letter and what happens because of that letter was to be the focal point of the unsold series. In the pilot episode, the Messenger of Death sends a chain letter to Janet Coulter, an editor who breaks the chain, then receives temptations — followed by great evil — as she sets out to write a book.

Cast: Ian McShane (Messenger of Death), Leslie Bevis (Miss Smith). Guest Cast: Mary Page Keller (Janet Coulter), Granville Van Dusen (John Hastings), Merritt Butrick (Raymond Maston), William Prince (Matthew Barwood), Nancy Cartwright (Marge), John Hostetter (Lieutenant Harris), Sam Melville (Tom), Margot Rose (Lois).

1347 Chain Reaction. (Series; Game; NBC; 1980). Two players compete. A board that contains eight boxes is revealed. The first and last boxes are revealed to display a word. The remaining six boxes each conceal a word that relates to the exposed words. The object is for a player to suggest letters that may be contained in the concealed words. Each letter a player suggests that is contained in the word is revealed in its appropriate position. If the player can identify the word, he receives one point; if not, he continues to suggest letters. An incorrect letter suggestion ends his turn at play and his opponent receives a chance at play. The player with the highest score (most guessed words) wins the game.

Host: Bill Cullen. Substitute Host: Geoff Edwards. Semi-Regulars: Lois Nettleton, Soupy Sales, Nipsey Russell, Debralee Scott, Joanna Gleason. Announcer: Johnny Gilbert.

1348 Chain Reaction. (Series; Game; Game Show Network; 2006). Two teams compete, each composed of two celebrities and one non-celebrity challenger. A board containing eight boxes is revealed. The first and last boxes each contain a visible word; the remaining six boxes each conceal a word that relates to the others. One player may ask for a letter below or above one of the visible words. If the player guesses the word from the letter that appears, he scores one point per letter that the word contains. If he fails to guess it, his opponents receive a chance to ask for a letter. Players continue rotating turns until all the words are guessed. The first team to score 50 points is the winner.

Host: Dylan Lane.

1349 The Chair. (Series; Reality; Fox; 2002). The Chair is, as its name suggests, a chair — but for the one who will occupy it, it also monitors his heartbeat. The chair (and its occupant) is placed in the center of the stage and a contestant is given a chance to win $250,000. Once a player's heartbeat is registered as normal, the game begins. The host asks the player a question. The player can answer and earn money — but if his heartbeat rises, any money he has won begins to dwindle and he cannot answer the question until his heartbeat slows down. As the game progresses and the questions become tougher (and the cash higher), a player can lose everything if he gives a wrong answer (or if the excitement) causes his heartbeat to soar to a point where it wipes out his bank account.

Host: John McEnroe.

1350 Chalk One Up for Johnny. (Pilot; Drama; ABC; 4/8/62). Dissatisfied with life in California, Johnny Pace, a famous politician, retreats to the island of Kauai, where he and his wife, Jeanette, open a hotel. The unsold series idea, broadcast as a segment of Follow the Sun, was to relate Johnny's adventures as the owner of a hotel who helps people in trouble.

Cast: Lee Tracy (Johnny Pace), Rosemary DeCamp (Jeanette Pace). Guest Cast: Joanne Gilbert (Jennifer), Lew Gallo (Theodore), Gigi Perreau (Kathy), Gary Lockwood (Eric), Barry Cole (Ben), Brett Halsey (Paul).

1351 Chalk Zone. (Series; Cartoon; Nickelodeon; 2003–2004). The Chalk Zone is a magical world hidden behind a schoolroom blackboard (or chalkboard). It is entered by anyone who possesses a magic piece of chalk. One boy, Rudy Tabootie, has such a piece of chalk. Once in the world beyond the chalkboard, Rudy can have what he wants simply by using the chalk to draw it on the board. His best friends, Snap and Penny, enter the Chalk Zone with him and together they share adventures brought to life by Rudy's drawings.

Voices: Jess Harnell, Hynden Walch, Robyn Kirmsse, Nika Futterman, Rosslynn Taylor Jordan, Miriam Flynn, Rodger Bumpass.

1352 Challenge of the GoBots. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1984). The series, based on a line of toys called Go-Bots, finds the Go-Bots, androids who can change their forms to resemble cars, trucks or motorcycles, battling the Renegades, an evil faction of an otherwise good society of robots. Both races have retreated to the planet Earth and the series follows the GoBots as they attempt to stop the Renegades from seizing power and taking over the planet.

Voice Cast: Arthur Burghardt (Turbo), Ike Eisenmann (Nick), Marilyn Lightstone (Crasher), Morgan Paull (Matt Hunter), Lou Richards (Leader 1), Leslie Speights (Allison Foster), B.J. Ward (Small Foot), Frank Welker (Scooter), Bernard Erhard (Cy-Kill), Peter Cullen (Pincher), Bob Holt (Cop-Tur), Brock Peters (General Newcastle), Kelly Ward (Fitor), Rene Auberjonois (Dr. Braxis).

1353 The Challengers. (Series; Game; Syn.; 1990). Five category topics are displayed on a board. One of the three players that compete chooses a topic. Three questions are revealed and each is worth money ($150, $200, $250). Each player secretly locks in a choice. If two players choose the same question, the question is read and the first player to buzz in receives a chance to answer. A correct answer scores the player the money; a wrong answer deducts that amount. A player who chose a single question (no matches) has the opportunity to hear the question and answer it. The player who wins the most money has control over the choice of the next category. Round Two is played in the same manner, but the money amounts are now doubled. The player with the highest score is the winner.

Host: Dick Clark. Announcer: Don Morrow.

1354 The Chamber Music Society of Lower Basin Street. (Series; Variety; ABC; NBC; 1951–1952). A program of swing music devoted to the three B's: Barrelhouse, Boogie-Woogie and the Blues. Adapted from the radio program of the same title. The series ran on ABC from September 14, 1948 to September 22, 1951; and on NBC from June 15, 1952 to August 31, 1952. Robert Adams is the producer.

Host: Orson Bean. Vocalist: Martha Lou Harp. Music: Henry Levine's Dixieland Octet.

1355 Chameleon. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 7/18/86). When she feels that her mother is being fleeced by a weight loss clinic, Violet Kingsley disguises herself as an overweight woman and goes undercover in an attempt to expose the company as a bunco operation. The investigation so impresses Morton Waterman, owner of WGGK-TV, Channel 8, that he hires her to be the star investigator for the station's pompous consumer editor, Wes Bushnell (host of "The Bushnell Report"). The unsold series was to relate Violet's misadventures as she goes undercover to expose rackets. Other Regulars: Hannah, Violet's mother; Lucas, Violet's neighbor; Neil, Lucas's son; June, the Channel 8 receptionist.

Cast: Madeline Kahn (Violet Kingsley), Nina Foch (Hannah Kingsley), Henry Jones (Morton Waterman), Frederick Coffin (Lucas Hanlon), Taliesin Jaffe (Neil Hanlon), George Wyner (George Bushnell), Priscilla Morrill (June). Guest Cast: Hamilton Camp (Dr. Brickman), Beverly Archer (Miss Karp), Mary Ann Pascal (Production assistant), Phil Rubinstein (Mr. Vaughn), Kenneth Danzigo (Maitre d').

1356 Chameleon in Blue. (Unaired Pilot; Crime Drama; Produced for NBC in 1990). As a young girl, Sally Peters witnessed the horrifying murder of her family by a psychotic killer. The event left her with a unique ability — a special psychic sensitivity that years later, she would use to its greatest advantage as a criminal psychologist with the Los Angeles Police Department. The unsold series was to focus on Sally as she uses her ability to not only track serial killers, but to help their victims as well.

Cast: Loryn Locklin (Sally Peters), James Remar (Detective Tom MacKey), Frank McCarthy (Police Commissioner Nathan David).

1357 Champagne and Orchids. (Series; Variety; DuMont; 1948–1949). A weekly program of music and songs that aired from September 6, 1948 to January 10, 1949.

Hostess: Adrienne Mayerberg. Announcer: Robert Turner.

1358 The Champions. (Series; Adventure; NBC/Syn.; 1968). Sharron Macready, Craig Stirling and Richard Barrett are agents for Nemesis, an international organization based in Geneva, Switzerland, that tackles extremely dangerous matters. W.L. Tremayne heads the organization.

When it is learned that Chinese scientists in Tibet have developed a deadly bacteria, Sharron, Richard and Craig are assigned to obtain the specimens.

During the assignment, the Nemesis agents trigger an alarm. Craig, Richard and Sharron make it to their awaiting plane, but the craft is hit by gunfire and crashes moments later in the Himalayan Mountains. Shortly after, a mysterious white-haired old man appears and takes the apparently lifeless agents to his city, which is inhabited by the survivors of an unknown race. Here, Richard, Sharron and Craig's wounds are healed and they are endowed with super powers: "Their mental and physical capacities fused to computer efficiency; their sight, sense and hearing raised to their highest futuristic stage of mental and physical growth."

Sharron, Craig and Richard awaken at the site of the crash, amazed that they are apparently unharmed. Richard, however, is not convinced of their miraculous escape from death. He tells Sharron and Craig about a dream he experienced — "about an old man and a mysterious white light" (that was used to heal and enhance them). Unable to shake the feeling that something extraordinary happened to them, Richard decides to pursue his "dream" while Craig and Sharron continue with the mission.

A short time later, Richard's dream confronts him — he meets the mysterious old man and learns that he and his friends have been endowed with special powers to help keep the world safe. Richard vows that he and his friends will keep the secret of the lost city and that he, Sharron and Craig will use their gifts to benefit mankind.

Sharron was a former operative for the C.I.D. (Criminal Investigation Division) of England's New Scotland Yard whose outstanding series of arrests prompted her to be drafted by Nemesis. While seductive in any outfit, Sharron prefers not to use her sex appeal as a part of her assignment (although some assignments find her doing just the opposite — like wearing a miniskirt to focus attention on her and create a distraction for Richard and Craig).

Richard, the son of a former Nemesis agent, is British, well versed in the martial arts, and the unofficial head of the group (it is his plans that Craig and Sharron often follow).

Craig, a former operative for the Secret Service, is impetuous and often takes chances to ensure the success of their missions. Ten episodes aired on NBC (May 26, 1968 to September 9, 1968); 20 additional episodes aired in syndication.

Cast: Alexandra Bastedo (Sharron Macready), Stuart Damon (Craig Stirling), William Gaunt (Richard Barrett), Anthony Nicholls (W.L. Tremayne), Felix Aylmer (Mysterious Old Man).

1359 Champs. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 8/7/96). A proposed series that focuses on the relationship between four men in their forties: Tom, Vince, Marty and Herb. The men were friends since high school and were best friends with their coach (Ben) who led them to a school hoops title in 1973. While still friends with Ben, Vince, Marty and Herb still love basketball, but Tom is overly enthusiastic about the game: he tries to solve every problem with a basketball story.

Vince was married three times (to Mary Ann, Casey and Angela); Marty is an aeronautical engineer; Herb is a doctor; Vince, is a construction worker; Tom is a psychologist. Peter is divorced from Susan; Herb was married to Sheila — until Susan and Sheila became a couple. Linda, Tom's wife, is a law student. Linda and Tom are the parents of Phoebe and Jesse. Doris is Marty's wife.

Cast: Timothy Busfield (Tom McManus), Ed Marinaro (Vince Mazzilli), Kevin Nealon (Marty Heslov), Paul McCrane (Herb Barton), Ashley Crow (Linda McManus), Libby Winters (Phoebe McManus), Tom McLarty (Ben Harris), Julia Duffy (Doris Heslov), Danny Pritchett (Jesse McManus).

1360 A Chance for Romance. (Series; Human Interest; ABC; 1958). Three men or women, each seeking friendship, are introduced to members of the opposite sex with the intent being to spark a romance. Although restricted by time, each attempts to get to know the other as best they can. Each is then asked to secretly choose the one he or she would most like to be with. A match (a man and woman each making the same choice) receive an all expenses paid romantic date.

Host: John Cameron Swayze.

1361 Chance of a Lifetime. (Series; Variety; ABC; DuMont; 1950–1956). The original format of the program features a game contest wherein players have to identify persons, places or objects through a series of clues provided by singers and/or comedians. In a later format, it became a talent show in which newcomers performed for the opportunity to win $1,000 and achieve discovery. The series aired on ABC from September 20, 1950 to August 20, 1953; on DuMont from September 11, 1953 to June 17, 1955; and again on ABC from July 3, 1955 to June 23, 1956. Lou Sposa and Robert Jennings are the producers.

Host: Dennis James, John Reed King. Regulars: Denise Darcell, Russell Arms, Liza Palmer, Dick Collier. Orchestra: Bernard Leighton. Organist: John Gart.

1362 Change at 125th Street. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 3/28/74). John Morse is a recent Harvard graduate who lives at 125th Street in Harlem (New York) with his mother (Eloise), sister (Harriet) and uncle (Herbert). He is also the only black executive in an all-white Wall Street banking firm in Manhattan. The unsold series was to focus on John's misadventures at home and at work. Other Regulars: Mr. Murray, his employer; Kip, John's co-worker.

Cast: Ron Glass (John Morse), Roxie Roker (Eloise Morse), Chip Fields (Harriet Morse), Vernon Washington (Herbert), Franklin Cover (Mr. Murray), Terry Kiser (Kip), Garrett Morris (Janitor; guest role).

1363 Changing Patterns. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 6/26/87). With a hope to begin their own fashion boutique, housewives Molly and Maxine begin Changing Patterns, a clothing line for the average woman. The unsold series was to depict their misadventures as they attempt to make their business a success. Other Regulars: Artie, Maxine's husband; Skip, Molly's husband; and Edgar, the pattern cutter.

Cast: Valerie Perrine (Molly), Brenda Vaccaro (Maxine), Alex Rocco (Artie), Robert S. Woods (Skip), Eric Christmas (Edgar). Guest Cast: Meg Wittner (Alice Ballinger), George Deloy (Steve Ballinger), Hugh Maguire (Jim), Deanna Oliver (Female buyer).

1364 Channel 99. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 8/4/88). WXLN-TV, Channel 99, is a small, struggling UHF station in Elmira, New York. It is managed by Susan McDowell, a one-time hot shot Los Angeles station manager who was forced to resign for undisclosed reasons. Susan's struggles to boost the station's ratings was the focal point of the unsold series.

Other Regulars: Kiki Kurtz, the business manager; The General, the station owner; Marty Gessler, the talk show host; Ed Hepley, the film critic. In the pilot episode, the station gears up for Ron Howard's guest appearance on Ed's show.

Cast: Marilu Henner (Susan McDowell), Mary Gross (Kiki Kurtz), Kevin McCarthy (The General), Dennis Dugan (Marty Gessler), Bill Duel (Ed Hepley), Ron Howard (Himself; guest role).

1365 Channel Umptee-3. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1997–1998). In between television channels there is an area of white space that is not used by broadcasters. However, a group of enterprising animals — an ostrich (Ogden), a mole (Holey Moley) and a snail (Sheldon S. Cargo) use that space to establish Channel Umptee-3, a pirate station that celebrates the wonders of life (the programs that are too true to life for regular television). Seeking to end their illegal operations is Stickley Ricketts, a corporate bad guy who wants to put an end to Channel Umptee-3 for cutting into his station's viewer ship.

Voice Cast: Rob Paulsen (Ogden Ostrich), David Paymer (Sheldon S. Cargo), Jonathan Harris (Stickley Ricketts), Alice Ghostley (Pandora Ricketts), Tara Strong (Holey Moley), Greg Burson (Prof. Edwin I. Reevant), Susan Silo (Polly).

1366 Channing. (Series; Drama; ABC; 1963–1964). Life at Channing University, a mythical Midwestern co-educational college, as seen through the eyes of Joseph Howe, an English professor. Fred Baker is the dean; Ryder is the assistant dean; Major Landon is the ROTC commander; Jessica is Landon's wife; Paul Stafford and John Miller are professors; and featured students are Sophie, Lori, Nancy, Lynn and Kathy.

Cast: Jason Evers (Prof. Jason Howe), Henry Jones (Dean Fred Baker), Marion Ross (Assistant Dean Ryder), Barbara Harris (Sophie Kannakos), Suzanne Pleshette (Lori Moore), Forrest Tucker (Major Landon), Nancy Olson (Jessica Landon), Dawn Wells (Nancy Kyle), Keir Dullea (Larry Franklin), Joey Heatherton (Lynn Walton), Yvonne Craig (Kathy O'Reardon), Leslie Nielsen (Paul Stafford), Bob Crane (Professor Arlen), Leo G. Carroll (John Miller).

1367 Chappelle's Show. (Series; Comedy; Comedy Central; 2003–2006). A skit show with comedian Dave Chappelle as the host that spoofs literally anything that can be made fun of (especially popular culture).

Host: Dave Chappelle. Regulars: Randy Pearlstein, Paul Mooney, Greer Barnes, Charles Murphy, Neal Brennan, Karl Lake, Melle Powers, Sophina Brown, Liz Beckman, Anthony Berry, William Bogert. Announcer: Donnell Rawlings, Rudy Rush.

1368 Characters. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 10/26/80). Events in the lives of Carol Goodman and Jack Elmdorf, students at the Workshop, a theatrical acting school in Chicago. The pilot episode, composed only of a regular cast, introduces viewers to the characters, in particular Carol and Jack, who find it rather difficult working together. Other Regulars: Leila Flynn, the workshop director; and Steve Tucker, Carol's friend.

Cast: Maggie Roswell (Carol Goodman), Philip Charles MacKenzie (Jack Elmdorf), Marcia Wallace (Leila Flynn), Terry Lester (Steve Tucker).

1369 Charade Quiz. (Series; Game; DuMont; 1947–1949). Charades, submitted by home viewers, are enacted by a stock company. A panel of three players has to identify it within ninety seconds. If they are able to, the sender receives ten dollars; if they are unable to identify it the sender receives fifteen dollars. The series aired from December 4, 1947 to June 23, 1949.

Host: Bill Slater. Panelists: Minna Bess Lewis, Herb Polesie, Jackson Beck, Bob Shepard, Eileen Fenwick, Sandra Poe, Allan Frank, Richard Seff, Johnny Fester.

1370 Charge Account. (Series; Game; NBC; 1960–1962). The object calls for players, two of whom compete, to purchase expensive merchandise items (that are displayed on stage) through money that is earned on the program.

Contestants choose a packet that contains sixteen letters. Once opened they have to place letters into a block in a manner figured to make the most three and four letter words. Twenty-five dollars is awarded for each four letter word; ten dollars for each three letter word they spell. The winner, the highest cash scorer, is permitted to purchase any previously displayed item. If the player hasn't accumulated enough money, he is permitted to continue playing to earn the additional cash that is needed (although he risks the loss of all his money if he is defeated by another player). The series, which ran from September 5, 1960 to September 28, 1962, is also known as The Jan Murray Show.

Host: Jan Murray. Assistant: Maureen Arthur, Morgan Schmitter. Announcer: Bill Wendell.

1371 The Charles Boyer Theater. (Series; Anthology; Syn.; 1953). Actor Charles Boyer hosts (and occasionally stars) in a weekly series of average dramatic presentations.

1372 Charles in Charge. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1984–1985). Jill and Stan Pembroke are a busy working couple who reside at 10 Barrington Court in New Brunswick, New Jersey. When they require help in caring for their children (Lila, Douglas and Jason), they hire a college student named Charles as a live-in helper.

Charles is best friends with Buddence ("Buddy") Lembeck. They attend Copeland College, and the Lamplight (a hamburger joint) is their favorite hang-out. "Charles Are Us" was their misguided effort to make money by marketing clones of Charles as live-in housekeepers. In high school in Philadelphia (Scranton), Charles was in a band called the Charles Tones; he also helped Stan's mother, Irene, start a pizza business called Mama Garabaldi's Pizza. For unknown reasons (other than the show's gimmick), Charles has no last name. His girlfriend is Gwendolyn Pierce, a stunning blonde who also attends Copeland College.

Buddy, a Leo, was born in California; he will only take courses with five or fewer books to read (any more and it will cause him to cheat).

Jillian (“Jill”) Ann Pembroke is a theater critic for the New Jersey Register. Her favorite eatery is Willie Wong’s Chinese Palace. In high school, Jill was called “Pixie”; Jill’s father, Harry Gardner, calls her “Jillybean.” Stanley (“Stan”) Albert Pembroke is one of 49 vice presidents in an unnamed company.

Lila Beth is “sweet and lovely and dots her i’s with little hearts.” She first attends Lincoln Elementary School then Northside High School. Lila reads Cod magazine and is a member of the Circle of Friendship Club. She calls Buddy “Goon Machine” and longs to wear makeup and high heels. Linda, Enid, Kim, Heather and Valerie are her friends.

Douglas and Jason attend Lincoln Elementary School. Jason is mischievous; Douglas is smart (the only F he received was for a book report he did on TV Guide; his teacher didn’t consider it classic literature). The kids have a never-seen feline named Putty Cat.

Cast: Scott Baio (Charles), Willie Aames (Buddy Lembeck), Julie Cobb (Jill Pembroke), James Widdoes (Stan Pembroke), April Lerman (Lila Pembroke), Jonathan Ward (Douglas Pembroke), Michael Pearlman (Jason Pembroke), Jennifer Runyon (Gwendolyn Pierce), Allisun Sturges (Heather), Mandy Ingber (Enid), Samantha Smith (Kim), Jade Chin (Linda), Betsy Chasse (Valerie), Rue McClanahan (Irene Pembroke; Stan’s mother), Raymond Singer (Frankie; Lamplight owner), Meg Ryan (Megan Harper; Charles’s friend), Dick O’Neill (Harry Gardner; Jill’s father). Theme Music: “Charles in Charge” by Michael Jacobs, Al Burton, David Kurtz.

1373 Charles in Charge. (Series; Comedy; Syn.; 1987–1990). A revised version of the 1984 CBS series of the same title. When Charles returns from a two week vacation (mountain climbing in Great Gorge), he learns that the Pembrokes have moved to Seattle and sublet their home to the Powell family: Ellen, her children (Sarah, Jamie and Adam) and Ellen’s father-in-law, Walter. Since Ellen’s husband, Robert, is a naval commander stationed in the South Seas, Charles finds employment as their live-in helper. The Powells’ address is 10 Barrington Court in New Brunswick, New Jersey. Before hiring Charles, the Powells’ live-in helper was Julie Mercer (played by Liz Keifer).

Charles, still with no last name, was born in Scranton, Pennsylvania. He attends Copeland College and is majoring in education (his first experience was as a teacher’s aide to Mr. Mirkin [Jerry Van Dyke] in Central High School). His mother, Lillian (no last name given) calls him “Doodlebug.” When Charles bumps his head, he becomes Chazz Lam-borghini, a motorcycle hood (Tiffany, played by Denise Miller, appears in these episodes as Chazz’s beautiful bimbo girlfriend).

In the last first-run episode (11/12/90), Charles leaves the Powells to attend Princeton to get his teaching degree. Lillian first owned Sid’s Pizza Parlor, then the Yesterday Cafe — both of which were hangouts for Charles and his friends.

Buddy, real name Buddence, attends Copeland College (his major is political science; aptitude test results rated Buddy as a Jack of no trades and best suited for jury duty). Buddy was born in California. He now lives in the campus dorm (where he is banned from performing chemistry experiments and bringing livestock into the room). Living with him is a pet lizard named Lloyd and an ant named Arlo (who lives in a plastic ant farm). “The Buddy Lembeck Show” was the radio program Buddy briefly held on station WFNZ. The first thing Buddy does after getting up in the morning is take a nap.

Kelly Ann Cann played Buddy’s often talked about (but rarely seen) girlfriend, Nurse Bennett.

Jamie, the oldest of the Powell children, attends Central High School and yearns to be a model. She starred with her sister, Sarah, in a television commercial for Banana Cream Shampoo and Hair Lotion. Jamie, who is growing into a beautiful young woman, is a cheerleader at school but is considered a child by her father (who calls her “Little Scooter”). Jamie won the “Yesterday Café Beauty Pageant” and, under the sponsorship of Jeannie’s Boutique, entered the “Miss New Brunswick Beauty Pageant.” Jamie had a part time job as a waitress at Sid’s Pizza and took classes at the Better Image School of Modeling.

Sarah, the middle child, attends Central High School and longs to be a writer. Sarah does freelance reporting for the New Brunswick Herald and had her first story, “What It Is Like to Be a Teenager,” published in Teen magazine. Sarah, who is taller than Jamie but just as pretty, won first runner-up title in the “Yesterday Café Beauty Pageant.”

Adam, the youngest child, is a bit mischievous and, at times, appears to idolize Charles. Walter, who was a naval career man, belongs to the John Paul Jones Society for Retired Naval Men. Mr. Hobbs the goat is Copeland College’s mascot.

Cast: Scott Baio (Charles), Willie Aames (Buddy Lembeck), Sandra Kerns (Ellen Powell), Nicole Eggert (Jamie Powell), Josie Davis (Sarah Powell), Alexander Polinsky (Adam Powell), James Callahan (Walter Powell), Ellen Travolta (Lillian), James O’Sullivan (Ellen’s husband, Robert Powell), Kay Lenz (Ellen’s cousin, Joan Robinson), David Braf (Ellen’s uncle, Steve Colfax), Nicole Eggert (Ellen’s cousin, Amanda Colfax), Olivia Burnette (Ellen’s cousin, Melanie Colfax), Michael Manasseri (Ellen’s cousin, Michael Colfax), Justin Whalen (Charles’s cousin, Anthony), John Astin (Charles’s uncle, Joe, the “Pickle King of Brooklyn”), Ellen Travolta (Charles’s aunt, Sally), Mindy Cohn (Buddy’s sister, Bunny Lembeck), Lewis Arquette (Buddy’s father, Clarence Lembeck), Ruta Lee (Buddy's grandmother, Gloria), Willie Aames (Buddy's cousin, Dudley Krantz), Dabbs Greer (Walter's father, Ben "Buzz" Powell). Buddy mentioned that his mother's name was Florence. Theme Song: "Charles in Charge," by Michael Jacobs, Al Burton and David Kurtz.

1374 Charley Hannah. (Pilot; Crime Drama; ABC; 4/5/86). Charley Hannah is a tough but compassionate captain with the Fort Lauderdale, Florida, Police Department. His mother, Sandy, owns a restaurant called Hannah's Landing and Charley is the foster father of Frankie Packard, a troubled boy he met while pursuing a gang of teenage cop killers. The unsold series was to relate Charley's ruthless and relentless pursuit of law breakers. In the pilot episode, Hannah attempts to break up a cocaine trafficking operation. Other Regulars: Police Chief Raleigh Poole; Police Captain Ray Albright; David Buck, the private detective; Officer Andy Simms; and Toni, a police woman.

Cast: Robert Conrad (Charley Hannah), Christian Conrad (Andy Simms), Shane Conrad (Frankie Packard), Joan Leslie (Sandy Hannah), Red West (David Buck), Alex Panas (Raleigh Poole), David Darlow (Ray Albright), Kelly Minter (Toni). Guest Cast: B. Miko Machalski (Andre), Stephen J. Cannell (Roscoe Tanner), Antoni Carone (Marco), Alex Parez (Lance), Tracy Holt (Robbie Burns), David Saunders (Manny Short), Deanna Dunnagan (Nurse).

1375 Charlie. (Pilot; Drama; ABC; 6/28/90). Following the death of her husband, Harry, Charlene "Charlie" Hannon discovers that Harry was the owner of Empire Bail Bonds, at 501 South in the Los Angeles barrio. Charlie was married to Harry for 22 years and thought he was a stockbroker; she is now in debt and unable to find a job (no qualifications). With little money and no resources but her wits, Charlie seeks out her husband's partner (Al) and together they carry on the business. The unsold series was to relate Charlie's exploits as she begins a new life as a bail bonds "man." In the pilot episode, Charlie attempts to find a client who plans to skip on a $25,000 bond that will cost her everything she has.

Cast: Shirley Jones (Charlie Hannon), Ned Eisenberg (Al Hendley). Guest Cast: Melody Rogers (Norma), Tony Curtis (Scott), Jennifer Bassey (Betty Ward), Hildy Brooks (Shirley Buford), Colleen Coffey (Candy), Luise Heath (Paula Emmett), Paul Dupratt (Mr. Warde).

1376 Charlie and Company. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1985–1986). Charlie Richmond is an administrative assistant for the Department of Highways in Chicago. He lives on the South Side of the city and is married to Diana, a teacher at McCormick High School. They are the parents of Lauren, Charlie, Jr. and Robert and stories focus on a middle class black family as they struggle to maintain traditional values in trying times.

Other Regulars: Walter Simpson, Charlie's boss; and Charlie's co-workers: Milton, Miguel, Ronald, Jim, MacGreedy and Guthrie. Gladys Knight sings the theme, "We're Family."

Cast: Flip Wilson (Charlie Richmond), Gladys Knight (Diana Richmond), Fran Robinson (Lauren Richmond), Kristoff St. John (Charlie Richmond, Jr.), Jaleel White (Robert Richmond), Ray Girardin (Walter Simpson), Richard Karron (Milton Biberman), Eddie Velez (Miguel Santana), Terrence McGovern (Jim Coyle), Carmine Caridi (MacGreedy), Bill Saluga (Guthrie), Della Reese (Diana's Aunt Rachel).

1377 Charlie and Lola. (Series; Cartoon; Disney; 2005). Charlie is a very responsible young man who appears to be about eight years old. He has a very mischievous five-year-old sister named Lola. Lola is adorable but demanding and determined to do things her way no matter how much trouble she gets into. Charlie, the responsible young man that he is, feels obligated to take Lola under his wing and guide her through life by showing her right from wrong. Stories follow Charlie as he tries to be patient and help Lola out of the situations her eagerness gets her into. The series, produced in England, is based on the picture books by Lauren Child.

Voice Cast: Jethro Lundie-Brown (Charlie), Maisie Cowell (Lola).

1378 Charlie Angelo. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 8/28/62). Angel First Class Charlie Angelo has been assigned to Earth to promote good and discourage evil — with the help of a few minor miracles. The unsold series was to relate Charlie's efforts to defeat Dan Devin (the Devil), who is seeking the souls Charlie helps. In the pilot episode, Charlie tries to convince Chico Hernandez, a night club owner in debt, not to torch his establishment for the insurance money.

Cast: James Komack (Charlie Angelo), Larry Storch (Dan Devin). Guest Cast: Bernard Kates (Chico Hernandez), Robert Carricart (Tony), Len Lesser (Holdup man), Ben Wright (George).

1379 The Charlie Brown and Snoopy Show. (Series; Cartoon; CBS; 1983). The series, based on the characters created by Charles Schulz, relates comic events in the lives of the Peanuts Gang: Charlie Brown, his mischievous dog, Snoopy, and their friends Lucy, Peppermint Patty, Schroeder, Linus, Pig Pen and Sally.

Voice Cast: Brian Kesten (Charlie Brown), Angela Lee (Lucy), Bill Melendez (Snoopy), Jeremy Schoenberg, Victoria Vargas, Michael Dockery, Kevin Brando, Stacy Heather Tolkin, Mary Tunnell.

1380 Charlie Chan. (Series; Crime Drama; Syn.; CBS; ABC; 1957; 1972; 1979). For information on the live action syndicated series, see The New Adventures of Charlie Chan; for information on the ABC pilot see Happiness Is a Warm Clue; for information on the CBS animated series see The Amazing Chan and the Chan Clan.

1381 The Charlie Chaplin Comedy Theater. (Series; Comedy; Syn.; 1966). The program features excerpts of Charlie Chaplin comedy shorts and features of the 1920s.

Star: Charlie Chaplin.

1382 The Charlie Farrell Show. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1956). Charles Farrell, better known as Charlie Farrell, is a real life movie star of the 1930s and 40s who is approaching his golden years and decides to retire from show business. He purchases the Racquet Club in Palm Springs and turns it into a resort for Hollywood celebrities. Stories follow his efforts to enjoy a life of peace and quiet despite the problems he faces from his staff and guests.

Sherman Hull is the club director; Rodney Farrell is Charlie's nephew; Mrs. Papernow is the housekeeper; Pierre is the chef; Doris is Charlie's girlfriend. The summer series ran from July 2, 1956 to September 24, 1956.

Cast: Charlie Farrell (Himself), Charles Winninger (Charlie's Dad Farrell), Richard Deacon (Sherman Hull), Jeff Silver (Rodney Farrell), Kathryn Card (Mrs. Papernow), Leon Askin (Pierre), Anna Lee (Doris Mayfield), Marie Windsor (Newspaper Editor).

1383 Charlie Grace. (Series; Crime Drama; ABC; 1995). Charlie Grace is a Los Angeles-based private detective who works with the police to solve complex murders — crimes that are more of a mystery as to why it happened as well as to who did it. Charlie approaches each case with an understanding of what he may face. He is not one for rushing head first into a situation without having a plan (and following that plan pays off more than the typical "Plan B" — make it up as you go along). Charlie will avoid violence if he can, but when it comes to fists or guns, he prefers fists.

Charlie charges $300 a day and lives "in a money pit of a house in Southern California." He is a single father (of Jenny) and is struggling to divide his time between Jenny and work. Stories follow Charlie as he investigates cases that require thinking rather than endless legwork and violence to solve.

Cast: Mark Harmon (Charlie Grace), Leelee Sobieski (Jenny Grace), Robert Costanzo (Crawford, his partner), Leslie Loeb (Cindy Katz).

1384 Charlie Hoover. (Series; Comedy; Fox; 1991–1992). Charlie Hoover is a 40-year-old man who feels neglected but finds comfort in the advice of Hugh, his tiny, pleasure-seeking alter ego (who is the height of a Number 2 pencil). Charlie lives at 16 West 14th Street in Manhattan and is the vice president of accounting for Colberton Industries (he occupies office 1503). Charlie is married to Helen and they are the parents of Emily and Paul. Stories follow the events in Charlie's life that are sparked by the advice of Hugh.

Other Regulars: Doris, Charlie's secretary; Mr. Colberton, Charlie's boss; Elliott Wheedle, Charlie's boss, later episodes.

Cast: Tim Matheson (Charlie Hoover), Lucy Webb (Helen Hoover), Leslie Engel (Emily Hoover), Michael Manasseri (Paul Hoover), Sam Kinison (Hugh), Julie Hayden (Doris), Kevin McCarthy (Mr. Colberton), Bill Maher (Elliott Wheedle).

1385 Charlie Lawrence. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 2003). Charlie Lawrence is an idealistic congressman living in Washington, D.C. He was born in Santa Fe, New Mexico (the state he represents) and made his fame and fortune as a TV star. He played Guppy Sherman on the series Do Unto Others (about a group of male angels who help people on Earth). When the series ended, Charlie became a politician and won the seat in Congress. Stories follow Charlie as he struggles to adjust to the political arena (he lives in Apartment 1405 at the Watergate Complex Apartments).

Other Regulars: Suzette, his office manager; Sarah, his chief of staff; Garydon, his political opponent and his neighbor (lives in Apartment 1402); and Ryan, the office intern.

Cast: Nathan Lane (Charlie Lawrence), Laurie Metcalf (Sarah Grimes), Stephanie Faracy (Suzette Michaels), Ted McGinley (Graydon Cord), T.R. Knight (Ryan Lemming).

1386 The Charlie McCarthy Show. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 11/23/50). An adaptation of ventriloquist's Edgar Bergen's radio series that spotlights the antics of his dummies: Charlie McCarthy (attired in tuxedo, top hat and monocle), the buck-toothed country bumpkin, Mortimer Snerd, and a new character, Podine Puffington (later to become Effie Klinker), a tall, stately blonde from the South.

Hosts: Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy. Guests: Bill Baldwin, Diana Lynn, Pat Patrick, Ray Noble.

1387 Charlie Wild, Private Detective. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; ABC; DuMont; 1950–1952). Charlie Wild is a private detective based in New York City. He tackles cases that most often involve him with murder and he uses whatever tactics he can (staying just within the limits of the law) to exonerate himself or his clients from the crime. He is not as gentle as he looks and often turns to fists and gunplay to achieve his goal. His secretary, Effie

Perrine assists him and stories relate Charlie's case assignments.

The series aired on CBS from December 22, 1950 to June 27, 1951; on ABC from September 11, 1951 to March 4, 1952; and on DuMont from March 13, 1952 to June 19, 1952.

Cast: Kevin O'Morrison (Charlie Wild, 1950–1951), John McQuade (Charlie Wild, 1951–1952), Cloris Leachman (Effie Perrine). Announcer: Sandy Becker.

1388 Charlie Wooster — Outlaw. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 2/20/63). A proposed but untitled spinoff from Wagon Train about the misadventures of Bella McKavitch, a hillbilly outlaw, and her two inept sons, Esdras and Clel. The pilot episode relates the McKavitch's misguided efforts to rob a supposed gold shipment from Chris Hale's wagon train. (The title refers to Charlie Wooster, the train's cook, who is kidnapped by Esdras and Clel and made to assist them.) John McIntire and Frank McGrath appear in their Wagon Train roles as Chris Hale and Charlie Wooster.

Cast: Jeanette Nolan (Bella McKavitch), L.Q. Jones (Esdras McKavitch), Morgan Woodward (Clel McKavitch).

1389 Charlie's Angels. (Series; Crime Drama; ABC; 1976–1981). Townsend Investigations is a Los Angeles-based private detective organization owned by the mysterious, never seen (only heard) Charles Townsend. His female operatives, called "Angels" by Charlie, are Sabrina Duncan, Jill Munroe and Kelly Garrett.

Jill was replaced by her sister, Kris Munroe; Sabrina by Tiffany Welles; and Tiffany by Julie Rogers. John Bosley, Charlie's lawyer, assists them.

While very rich and apparently a man of leisure, Charlie does do work for the team — via computer checks and using his numerous contacts to help them solve crimes. It was revealed that Charlie was in the military during World War II and has many important connections throughout the world.

The girls are not really angels. They lie, steal and cheat to accomplish their goals. And they have only one wish (which was never granted) — to see Charlie. Sabrina, Kelly and Jill are former police officers with the Los Angeles Police Department (Division 28).

Sabrina, called "Bree," tends to think like Charlie and often comes up with the same ideas. She is loyal and cares about people. Sabrina is an expert with fingerprint dusting and appreciates law officers who go by the book although she says, "So do I, but I use a different book," when she does things her way. Sabrina was the only one of the Angels who was married (but is now divorced from Bill Duncan). She is prim and proper, always a lady, always stylishly dressed and most always receives the glamorous undercover assignments.

Jill is blonde and gorgeous and has the ability to distract others so Sabrina and Kelly can do their job. She is more aggressive and jumps into situations without thinking first. Jill is caring and supportive and loves skate boarding. "It's dangerous," says Bosley. "So is working for Charlie," says Jill.

Kelly is concerned and caring and has the ability to sing and dance. She is brilliant at figuring out complex clues and is an expert shot. She is also a master at bugging devices and picking locks.

When Jill left the series at the end of the first season to pursue her racing career (she hopes to become the first woman to win LeMans), her sister, Kristine (called Kris) is hired to replace her.

Kris is Jill's equally gorgeous sister, a graduate of the San Francisco Police Academy. Jill had been paying for Kris's college education and believed she was studying to become a teacher. For reasons that are not explained, Kris chose to become a police officer. Although Kris was never mentioned during the Jill episodes, Bree and Kelly apparently knew her as they were close to Jill and her family. Kris is an expert at distraction and cares about people. She is also a bit more reckless than her partners (Sabrina and Kelly) and often puts her life on the line to help others.

Sabrina left at the end of the second season to marry for a second time. Charlie mentions to Kelly and Kris that she is expecting a baby and is quite happy. Tiffany Welles, the daughter of an old friend of Charlie's, becomes the new Angel.

Tiffany is a graduate of the Boston Police Academy. She is soft spoken, a crusader for women's rights and worked as a nurse's aide before joining the force. She is called "Tiff" and appeared to be the most fragile and delicate of the Angels. She is so stunning and sophisticated that she seemed out of place as a detective or police officer (more suited to be a model). Her gorgeous looks were also her greatest weapon as she could fool even the most brilliant criminal.

Tiffany left a year later to pursue a modeling career in New York City. Her replacement is Julie Rogers, a beautiful girl with a troubled past.

Julie was born in New York City and raised street tough. Her father split when Julie was too young to remember him. Her mother died in 1978 in a charity hospital of acute alcoholism. Julie eventually drifted to Los Angeles and found a job as a model with the Woodman Agency. It was here that a young model was killed. Kelly and Kris were hired to find the killer. They meet Julie and together solve the crime. Julie has not had police training nor is she an experienced private detective. She does have street smarts and she knows how to get into places and do things Kelly and Kris can't. Charlie figured this was a great asset and hired her. Julie is also a bit more rugged than her counterparts and jumps head first into situations without really thinking first.

The Charlie's Angels pilot film aired on ABC on March 21, 1976. Kate Jackson, Farrah Fawcett and Jaclyn Smith were Angels Sabrina Duncan, Jill Munroe and Kelly Garrett but they had not yet taken on the qualities they possessed in the series. They are a bit more reckless and do not carry guns; they rely on their experiences as police officers to deal with situations. John Forsythe is the unseen voice of Charlie; David Doyle is John Bosley, Charlie's representative; and David Ogden Stiers is Scott Woodville, Charlie's lawyer (dropped from the series). The pilot story finds the Angels seeking the killer of a vineyard owner. Jack Elliott and Allyn Ferguson composed the theme. See also Angeles and Toni's Boys.

Cast: Kate Jackson (Sabrina Duncan), Farrah Fawcett (Jill Munroe), Jaclyn Smith (Kelly Garrett), Cheryl Ladd (Kris Munroe), Shelley Hack (Tiffany Welles), Tanya Roberts (Julie Rogers), David Doyle (John Bosley), John Forsythe (Voice of Charlie), Soon Tech Oh (Lt. Mike Torres).

1390 Charmed. (Series; Drama; WB; 1998–2006). Prue, Piper and Phoebe Halliwell are the Charmed Ones, three beautiful witches who protect innocents threatened by evil. Prue, short for Prudence, has the power to move objects with her mind. Piper can freeze time and Phoebe has the ability to see the future. Their legacy began with Melinda Warren (“The girl who started it all,” says Phoebe), a 17th century witch. Melinda had three powers: the ability to see the future, the power to move objects and the ability to freeze time.

When Melinda was discovered to be a witch, she was burned at the stake. Before she died, she willed her spirit to carry the Power of Three from century to century until it culminated in three sisters who would become the most powerful good witches in the world. Prue, Piper and Phoebe are the sisters through which Melinda's spirit lives in the present-day world. The sisters, however, are not witches when the series begins. Prue and Piper are living in Los Angeles, Phoebe in New York.

When Phoebe learns that she, Prue and Piper have inherited their late mother's house, she moves to San Francisco to join her sisters as the home's new owners (at 1329 Prescott Street). It is when Phoebe finds the spirit board she played with as a child that their lives suddenly change. When the board spells out the word attic, the sisters become curious and decide to investigate. In the attic, Phoebe finds The Book of Shadows and reads the incantation from the open page (“—bring your powers to we sisters three”). Suddenly, Prue, Piper and Phoebe are endowed with Melinda's powers — powers they must learn to control and only use to help people in trouble (using their powers for personal gain is prohibited).

They are assisted by the mysterious Book of Shad- ows (which can only be touched by the sisters and contains spells to banish evil that have been written by their ancestors through the centuries) and Leo Wyatt, their Whitelighter (a witch's guardian).

Prue is 28 years old. She originally worked as a curator at the American Museum of Natural History but quit when her partner took credit for an exhibit she designed. She next works as an appraiser for the Buckland Auction House (she resigns when she identifies a Monet painting as a fake but her superiors opt to auction it off as an original). With an interest in photography, Prue became a photographer for 4-One-5, a trendy magazine. Prue channels her powers through her eyes and developed the power of astro projection (be in two places at once) three years later.

Piper, the middle sister, is 26 years old and most resembles their mother, Patty, who was killed in 1978 by a warlock shortly after Phoebe was born. Piper was originally a chef at the Restaurante (later changed to Quake), a stylish bar-restaurant. She quit to pursue her dream of opening her own eatery. She does so with the Industrial Zone, a failed club she purchases from S.W.A. Properties and turns into a fashionable nightclub called P-3 (for herself and her partners, Prue and Phoebe).

Phoebe, the youngest sister (20 years old) was the only one born in the house and can go either way — stay good or become evil. She is the only one of the sisters with a passive power and must take self-defense classes to protect herself. Phoebe is unemployed when the series begins. She is enrolled at the College of the Humanities and takes whatever temporary jobs she can find (from receptionist to secretary). Shortly after Prue acquired her new power, Phoebe received one also — the ability to levitate. In New York, Phoebe held jobs as a hostess at the Rainbow Room and the Chelsea Bar. Phoebe composes the spells they need to vanquish demons. Phoebe later works as an advice columnist (“Dear Phoebe”) for the Bay City Mirror. Lori Ram played Phoebe in the original unaired pilot.

Leo is a guardian angel for good witches. He was born in 1924 and works for the Founders (later called the Elders), who watch over witches. Leo disguises himself as the sisters' handyman and became a Whitelighter during World War II (he was a medic and tending to a soldier when he was chosen).

He has the power to heal — but not himself or animals. His enemies are Darklighters, who seek to destroy witches and create evil. A romance developed between Leo and Piper and they married in the episode of 2/22/01. They later have two children, Wyatt and Chris. Leo also refers to his superiors as the Others. The sisters have a white cat they call Kit that magically appeared when they occupied the house.

Prue, the most powerful of the sisters (considered “The Power of One”), had a relationship with Andy Trudeau, a homicide inspector with the S.F.P.D. He learned the sisters were witches shortly before he was killed while helping Prue fight the demons of the Triad (an evil organization behind demon attacks in San Francisco).

Phoebe's love interest is Cole Turner, a powerful demon known as Beltazor, who poses as the assistant D.A. Cole, a member of the Brotherhood, is on a mission from Hell to destroy the Charmed Ones and has begun his quest by getting close to Phoebe. Now, considered a betrayer to the forces of darkness, he is sought by the Source (the embodiment of evil) who has dispatched bounty hunting demons to destroy him. Cole now helps Leo and the Charmed Ones battle demons to protect innocents (it is mentioned that Cole has been a demon for 1000 years).

Darryl Morris is the S.F.P.D. inspector who worked with Andy and is aware that the sisters are witches. He keeps their secret and calls on them for help when he feels a case is related to a demonic happening.

The episode of 10/4/01, "Charmed Again," introduces Rose McGowan as Paige Matthews, the half-sister of the Charmed Ones. In a cliffhanging third season finale, the sisters battle a fierce demon named Shacks. Although Shacks doesn't kill Phoebe or Piper, the fate of Prue is unknown (Shannen Doherty wanted to leave the series—and did. Rather than replace Shannen with another actress and continue the role of Prue, a long-lost half-sister, Paige, was added). The fourth season premiere finds Piper and Phoebe mourning the death of Prue. Now, without Prue, they are no longer the Power of Three. Piper tries casting several resurrection spells, but all fail to bring Prue back to them. Unknown to Piper and Phoebe, they have a fourth sister named Paige.

Paige is the result of an affair Patty had with her Whitelighter (Sam) after her divorce from Victor.

Paige is the youngest of the sisters. She is working at South Bay Social Services when she is first seen. She is actually half witch and half Whitelighter. She has Prue's power to move objects by concentrating but can also do it by "orbing the object" (making it vanish from one place and reappear in another place). Paige has the ability to sense evil and is being taught by Piper how to develop and control her powers. Leo is also Paige's Whitelighter.

Paige originally lived in an apartment across town. She moved in with Piper and Phoebe when Piper convinced her they need to be together to evoke the Power of Three (strongest when together). In the episode of 11/15/01, Cole becomes human when Phoebe creates a power-stripping potion that kills the demon in him (Beltazor).

After Prue's death, Piper changed the name of her club to The Spot. It became hipper and more active, but she now had another sister and changed it back to P-3.

In the fall of 2004 Paige acquires a position as a teacher at Magic School (an institution for training witches and warlocks). She later marries Henry Mitchell. The following season, a fourth witch, Billie Jenkins, becomes part of the Halliwell's lives when she begins a quest to find her sister, Christy. Christy was kidnapped as an infant to be trained by the evil Triad for only one purpose: destroy the Charmed Ones. Billie's love for Christy made her see the light (that she was being used as a pawn). Together the witches destroyed the demons that plotted against them.

Victor Bennett is the Charmed Ones father; Patty is their mother (seen as a ghost); Grams is their grandmother (seen as a ghost); Elsie is Phoebe's boss.

Cast: Shannen Doherty (Prue Halliwell), Holly Marie Combs (Piper Halliwell), Alyssa Milano (Phoebe Halliwell), Rose McGowan (Paige Matthews), Brian Krause (Leo Wyatt), Julian McMahon (Cole Turner), Dorian Gregory (Daryl Morris), Kaley Cuoco (Billie Jenkins), Ted King (Andy Trudeau), Marnette Patterson (Christy Jenkins), James Read (Victor Bennett), Ivan Sergei (Henry Mitchell), Jason Simmons (Wyatt Halliwell), Kristopher Simmons (Wyatt Halliwell), Wes Ramsey (Wyatt Halliwell), Drew Fuller (Chris Halliwell), Rebecca Balding (Elsie Rothman), Greg Vaughn (Dan Gordon), Jennifer Rhodes (Penny "Grams" Halliwell), Finola Hughes (Patty Halliwell), Michael Bailey Smith (Belthazor), Gildart Jackson (Gideon), Debbi Morgan (The Seer), Jenya Leno (Inspector Sheridan), Joel Swetow (Avatar Alpha), Ian Anthony Dale (Avatar Gamma), Patrice Fisher (Avatar Beta), Niki Botelho (Elf Nanny), Peter Woodward (The Source), Bennett Guillory (The Source; later), Keith Diamond (Inspector Reece Davidson), Emmalee Thompson (Young Prue), Krista Allen (The Oracle), Amir Aboulela (Triad Member #1), Rick Overton (Triad Member #2), Shaun Toub (Triad Member #3), Danny Woodburn (Head Dwarf), Denise Dowse (Angel of Destiny).

1391 Charmed Lives. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 5/13/86). A proposed spin-off from Who's the Boss? about Lauren Sullivan, a beautiful San Francisco photographer turned fashion model. The pilot episode relates how Lauren became a model (when she meets Angela Bower, president of the Wallace and McQuade Ad Agency, and is launched on a new career as a model—beginning as the Princess of Vionelli Foods Girl).

Cast: Donna Dixon (Lauren Sullivan), Fran Drescher (Joyce Columbus, her friend). Guest Cast: Judith Light (Angela Bower), John Kapelos (Mickey Day), John Randolph (Frank Vionelli), Chloe Webb (Barbara), Paul Percini (Peasant).

1392 The Charmings. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1987–1988). Once upon a time in an ancient fairy tale land, a vain queen named Lillian was told by her magic mirror that her stepdaughter, the beautiful Snow White, is the fairest of all. Unable to accept this fact, Lillian casts an evil spell that backfires and puts her, Snow White, Snow's husband, Prince Eric Charming and their children, Thomas and Cory, to sleep. The spell wears off 1,000 years later in 1987. When the series begins, the Charmings have awakened and are attempting to adjust to life in modern times.

The Charmings now live at 427 Van Oakland Boulevard in Burbank, California, in a house that resembles a castle. Snow White is a fashion designer for an unnamed company; Eric, who has a horse named Gendel, is a children's storybook writer (his first book was The Four Billy Goats Gruff). Lillian White, whose maiden name is Lipschitz, suffers from PMS (post magic syndrome) once every 28 years. She has a pet thing (an unknown creature called Muffin) and a crow named Quoth (from Edgar Allan Poe's poem, "The Raven").

Sally and Don Miller, their neighbors, live at 425 Oakland Boulevard. Don owns Don's Carpet Kingdom Store, and he and Eric are members of Don's Carpet Baggers baseball team. Sally has a dog named Friskie, and Thomas and Cory have a pet lizard named Spike. Jacob Kenner plays Sally and Don's son, Donny Miller. Jonathan Wolff composed the theme.

Cast: Caitlin O'Heaney (Snow White Charming; 1987), Carol Huston (Snow White Charming; 1988), Christopher Rich (Prince Eric Charming), Judy Parfitt (Lillian White), Brandon Call (Thomas Charming), Garette Ratliff (Cory Charming), Dori Brenner (Sally Miller), Paul Eiding (Don Miller), Paul Winfield (Voice of Lillian's Mirror), Cork Hubbert (Luther).

1393 The Charmkins. (Pilot; Cartoon; Syn.; 4/85). Charmworld is a carefree land where the happy-go-lucky Charmkins live. Fistle Town is a swamp world ruled by the evil Dragon Weed, who seeks to be king of everything, including Charmworld. The unsold series was to relate the Charmkins' battle to protect their kingdom from the evil weeds of Fistle Town.

Voice Cast: Ben Vereen (Dragon Weed), Sally Struthers (Poison Ivy), Aileen Quinn (Brown-Eyed Susan), Ivy Austin, Martin Bersbach, Bob Kaliban, Lyn Lambert, Chris Murney, Peter Waldren, Freddy Weber.

1394 Charo and the Sergeant. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 8/24/76). Charo, a beautiful Spanish entertainer, marries Hank Palmer, a somewhat klutzy U.S. Marine sergeant, and sets up housekeeping in an apartment in Washington, D.C. The unsold series was to focus on Charo as she struggles to adjust to the American way of life.

Cast: Charo (Charo Palmer), Tom Lester (Hank Palmer), Noam Pitlik (Norman Turkel, Hank's friend), Dick Van Patten (Chaplain; guest role).

1395 Charter Boat. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1955). One of the two alternate syndicated titles for Crunch and Des (which see for information); the other title is Deep Sea Adventures.

1396 Chase. (Series; Crime Drama; NBC; 1973–1974). Chase Reddick is a captain and head of Chase, a special unit of undercover police agents who tackle the cases left unsolved by the homicide, burglary and robbery divisions of the L.A.P.D. His code name is Chase Control.

Members of the Chase team are: Sergeant Sam MacCray (Chase One is his car code); Officer Fred Sing has the mobil car code Chase 17. Chase 43 is the mobile car code for Officer Tom Wilson, and Officer Ed Rice has the car code Chase 2. Fred and Tom are also co-pilots of the unit's helicopter, Chase 3 (also its air code). Ed feels he gets the worst assignments, such as a janitor or gas station attendant, because he looks the part. The team's German Shepherd, who rides with Sam, is Fuzz, a narc dog. The actual energy crises at the time plagues the team. The lights are dimmed at headquarters, and car chases are curtailed due to the gasoline shortage. Oliver Nelson composed the theme.

Cast: Mitchell Ryan (Chase Reddick), Wayne Maunder (Sam MacCray), Brian Fong (Fred Sing), Craig Gardner (Tom Wilson), Gary Crosby (Ed Rice).

1397 Chase. (Pilot; Crime Drama; CBS; 11/23/85). Hoping to find more fulfillment from her career as a lawyer, Sandra Lee Albright gives up her lucrative but unrewarding California practice and moves back to her home town of Sawtooth, Washington. The unsold series was to relate her efforts to help the people of her community. In the pilot episode, Sandra Lee defends a migrant worker accused of murder.

Cast: Jennifer O'Neill (Sandra Lee Albright), Richard Farnsworth (Judge Grant Pettit), Robert S. Woods (Sheriff Dean Hartley), Michael Parks (Deputy Larry Butler), Terence Knox (Deputy Craig Phalen). Guest Cast: Kathleen York (Darlene), J.E. Freeman (Dixon), John Philbin (Bobby), John Walter Davis (Kordy), Richard Arnold (Judge Williams), Sandy Albright (Shelley), Peg Phillips (Auntie Jane).

1398 Chasing Farrah. (Series; Reality; TV Land; 2005). While called a reality series, the program is actually a documentary that follows actress Farrah Fawcett as she goes about her daily life. Although she is not the director, Farrah calls the shots, often disagreeing with the show's actual director if the scene isn't what he called for ("Well that's reality — hel-lo," she says). The program also takes viewers behind the scenes for staff meetings, show plottings and even obsessed fan Mike Pingel “Chasing Farrah.”

Why did Farrah agree to such a show? “I’m never alone, so why not have these people follow me, because people follow me anyway.”

Cast: Farrah Fawcett, Mike Pingel, Craig J. Nevius.

1399 The Chatterbox. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 5/15/95). A proposed spin-off from The Nanny. Mary Ruth is a hopeful actress who has been living with her acting teacher — until a girl with more talent (bigger breasts) came along and she was thrown out. When Broadway producer Maxwell Sheffield holds open auditions for a voluptuous showgirl between 18 and 25, Mary shows up but fails to get the part. She does, however, befriend Fran Fine, Mr. Sheffield’s nanny, who helps her get a job as a shampoo girl at The Chatterbox, a beauty salon in Queens (N.Y.) that is owned by the womanizing Mr. Anthony. The unsold series was to relate Mary’s experiences at the shop while hoping for her big break. Other Regulars: Claude, the gay hairdresser; Kim, the manicurist; and Mimo, Mr. Anthony’s son.

Cast: Tracy Nelson (Mary Ruth), Patrick Cassidy (Mr. Anthony), Edward Hibbert (Claude), Lauren Tom (Kim), J.D. Daniels (Mimo). Guest Cast: Fran Drescher (Fran Fine), Renee Taylor (Sylvia Fine), Charles Shaughnessy (Maxwell Sheffield), Nicholle Tom (Maggie Sheffield), Ann Guilbert (Yetta Fine).

1400 The Cheap Detective. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 6/3/80). Eddie Krowder is a Los Angeles-based private detective who is finding it difficult to acquire clients. He feels that perhaps his prices are too high and decides to offer his services at a discount — $19.95 a day plus expenses. The unsold series was to relate the escapades of a cheap detective for hire. In the pilot episode, Eddie tries to recover a large sum of money stolen from a friend of his. Other Regulars: Inez, Eddie’s ex-wife; and Ricky, Eddie’s assistant.

Cast: Flip Wilson (Eddie Krowder), Paula Kelly (Inez Krowder), Richard Beauchamp (Ricky). Guest Cast: Murray Hamilton (Ralph Garvey), Michael Keenan (Arloe Fairweather), John Quade (Big Sam), Franklyn Ajaye (Elvis), Daniel Thorpe (Carlton), Dave Morick (Fogerty).

1401 The Cheap Show. (Series; Game; Syn.; 1978). Two teams, each composed of two members, compete. One member of each team is placed in the punishment pit. A question is read to two celebrity guests. One player (flip of coin decision) chooses the guest he feels has the correct response. If the celebrity gives the correct response, the player wins a cheap prize (valued under $16) and his opponent’s teammate is punished (doused with water or hit with harmless foods). If the player chooses the wrong celebrity, his teammate is punished. After three rounds, the highest-scoring team is asked to predict what numbered hole Oscar the Wonder Rodent (a white rat) will enter when placed on a board of numbered holes. The team wins a decent prize in accordance with whatever hole Oscar enters.

Cast: Dick Martin (Host), Janelle Price (Wanda the Hostess), Shirl Bernheim (Polly the Prize Lady), Joe Baker (Purveyor of Punishment), Billy Beck (Purveyor of Punishment), Roger Chapline (Roger; Oscar’s Security Guard), Oscar the Wonder Rodent (Himself). Announcer: Charlie O’Donnell.

1402 The Cheaters. (Series; Drama; Syn.; 1960). John Hunter is an American investigator for the London branch of the Eastern Insurance Company. He is assisted by Walter Allen and stories relate their attempts to expose “The Cheaters,” people who attempt to defraud insurance companies with false claims.

Cast: John Ireland (John Hunter), Robert Ayres (Walter Allen).

1403 Check It Out. (Series; Comedy; Syn.; 1986). Cobb’s is a supermarket based in Canada. Howard Bannister manages the store for a Mrs. Cobb. Howard is assisted by Jack Christian and his employees are checkers Marleen, Jennifer, and Leslie. He has a bagboy (Murray), a security guard (Alf), a secretary (Edna) and one thing no one else has — numerous headaches as he struggles to keep his misadventure prone staff on the straight and narrow. Based on the British series Trippler’s Day.

Cast: Don Adams (Howard Bannister), Dinah Christie (Edna Mosley), Kathleen Laskey (Marleen), Tonya Williams (Jennifer Woods), Henry Beckman (Alf Scully), Jeff Pustil (Jack Christian), Simon Reynolds (Murray Amhearst), Aaron Schwartz (Leslie), Barbara Hamilton (Mrs. Cobb).

1404 Checked Flag. (Pilot; Drama; ABC; 7/23/90). Events in the lives of the drivers, crew and owners of the Valiant Racing Team, an auto-racing club based in Riverside, California. The pilot episode relates newcomer Tommy Traherne’s efforts to adjust to the team: Andrew Valiant, the owner; Alexis Cross, the mechanic; Jack Cotton, the manager; and drivers Alain Blondel and Mike Reardon. Other Regulars: Chris, Tommy’s wife; and Sal, the gopher.

Cast: Pernell Roberts (Andrew Valiant), William Campbell (Tommy Traherne), Amanda Wyss (Chris Traherne), Carrie Hamilton (Alexis Cross), Robert Estes (Mike Reardon), Robert Forster (Jack Cotton), Adam Philipson (Sal), Christian Bocher (Alain Blondel). Guest Cast: Christina Brosman (Amanda), Paul Neely (Pete), Gus Boyd (J.D. Nelson), Debi Shawl (Pretty girl), Kathy McNeal (Female fan).

1405 Checking In. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1981). A four-episode spin-off from The Jeffersons. Florence Johnston, the Jefferson's maid, takes a leave of absence to work as the executive housekeeper in the St. Frederick Hotel in New York City. Stories depict her misadventures. Other Regulars: Lyle Block, the manager; Elena, Florence's assistant; Betty, the floor supervisor; Earl, the house detective; Hank, the head of security; Dennis, the bellboy; and Mr. Claymore, the hotel owner.

Cast: Marla Gibbs (Florence Johnston), Larry Linville (Lyle Block), Liz Torres (Elena Beltran), Ruth Brown (Betty), Patrick Collins (Earl Bellamy), Robert Costanzo (Hank Sabatino), Charles Fleischer (Dennis), John Anderson (Mr. Claymore).

1406 Checkmate. (Series; Mystery; CBS; 1960–1962). Don Corey and Jed Sills are the owner-operators of Checkmate, Incorporated, a San Francisco-based detective organization. Don and Jed handle cases that ordinary firms would not touch — cases that are not only baffling, but highly complex and very dangerous. Assisting them is Carl Hyatt, a brilliant criminologist, and Chris Devlin, their eager (sometimes too eager) junior partner. Stories relate Don and Jed's case investigations.

Cast: Anthony George (Don Corey), Doug McClure (Jed Sills), Sebastian Cabot (Carl Hyatt), Jack Betts (Chris Devlin).

1407 The Cheech Show. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 8/13/88). A proposed series in which comedian Cheech Marin hosts and stars in various "party of the week" themes wherein he encounters top name guest stars and misadventure. In the pilot episode, Cheech pretends to be a Latin dictator to help a social climber throwing a lavish party.

Host-Star: Cheech Marin. Guests: Mark Blankfield, Jackee Harry, Bruce Valinch.

1408 Cheer Television Theater. (Series; Anthology; NBC; 1954). A five-week interim series of dramatic stories, sponsored by Cheer soap powder, and airing from May 30, 1954 to June 27, 1954.

1409 Cheerleader U. (Series; Reality; Lifetime; 2007). Eight cheerleaders from the University of Kentucky are profiled as they begin a quest for the National Cheerleading Championships. Cheerleading "is not just pom poms and megaphones" as the program shows. It is a pressure sport that requires physical dexterity. The cheerleaders are seen in practice sessions and numerous competitions as they seek the ultimate goal.

Cheerleaders: Jenny Fleming, Kelly Dupree, Courtney Childers, Drew Bewley, Danielle Hering, Jeremy Lumpkin, Jomo Thompson, Jared Erlenbaugh.

1410 The Cheerleaders. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 8/2/76). A proposed series about Snowy, B.J.

and Beverly, three fun-loving, small town high school girls. The pilot episode focuses on the girls, members of the cheerleading team, as they perform embarrassing pledge week antics for a sorority house they hope to join. Other Regulars: Margie, Janis and Doris, cheerleaders; Terry, the sorority house president; students Joe and Howard; and Snowy's mother (Dorothy), father and grandmother.

Cast: Kathleen Cody (Snowy), Debbie Zipp (B.J.), Teresa Medaris (Beverly), Mary Kay Place (Margie), Robin Mattson (Terry Sears), Rita Wilson (Doris), Janie Lynn (Janis), Darel Glaser (Howard), Ronald Roy (Joe King), Susan Quick (Dorothy Snow), George D. Wallace (Snowy's father), Ruth McDevitt (Snowy's grandmother).

1411 Cheers. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1982–1993). A bordello called Mom's was established in 1889 at 112½ Beacon Street in Boston. Six years later it became the bar Cheers. Tecumseh is the wooden Indian that stands to the right side of the front door; and Melville's Fine Sea Food Restaurant (owned by John Allen Hill) operates above Cheers. Gary's Old Towne Tavern is Cheers's competition.

Sam Malone is the current owner. He was a relief pitcher for the Boston Red Sox before he bought the bar. Sam, a ladies' man, sold the bar to a large, unnamed corporation when he became bored with it. He used the money to buy a ketch and to sail around the world. The ketch sank in the Caribbean, and he founded an uncharted atoll he named "No Brains Atoll" (for selling the bar). When he found he missed the bar, he returned to find that the corporation had already replaced him with Rebecca Howe as the bar's new manager. After hearing Sam's pathetic story, Rebecca took pity on him and hired him as a bartender.

Rebecca Howe, born in San Diego, is gorgeous and always fashionably dressed. She became the bar manager in 1987 and often wonders why she took the job (she is easily exasperated and finds the job frustrating). In 1990 Rebecca began dating Robin Colcord. When Robin used Rebecca's computer code ("Sweet Baby") to access information from her corporation, he was exposed by Sam and arrested for insider trading. The corporation fired Rebecca and sold Sam back the bar for one dollar; Sam then hired Rebecca as his bar manager.

Diane Chambers, the prim and proper barmaid, is an art student and substitute teacher at Boston University (she also held a job as a salesclerk at the Third Eye Bookstore and as a checkout clerk at Hurley's Market. She also dreams of becoming a novelist).

Diane had a rocky romance with Sam. As they were about to marry, Diane received word that a book she suggested was going to be published (by Houghton Mifflin). Sam backed down and gave Diane the opportunity to finish her novel. She agreed to call off the wedding and return in six months. The book deal eventually fell through and Diane never returned to Sam; she moved to Hollywood to write for television.

Ernie Pantusso, affectionately called “Coach,” was the Boston Red Sox pitching coach and was given the job as bartender by Sam when he retired (and became somewhat senile). Ernie has the nickname “Red” (not because he had red hair, but because he once read a book). Ernie considers the blackouts he has to be a nice break in the day. Ernie was also coach of a Little League team called the Titans; his late wife (not seen) was named Angela. (After Coach’s death, a picture of Geronimo that Colasanto kept in his dressing room was placed on the Cheers set [upper stage wall] to remind them of Ernie.)

Carla (full name Carla Maria Victoria Angelina Teresa Apollonia Lozupone Tortelli LeBec) is the three-times married, nasty waitress who previously worked at a bar called the Broken Spoke before acquiring the job at Cheers. Carla attended the Saint Cleve’s School for Wayward Girls.

Carla has eight children: Anthony (Timothy Williams), Sarafina (Leah Remini), Lucinda (Sabrina Wiener), Gino (Josh Lozoff), Anne Marie (Risa Littman), Ludlow (Jarrett Lennon), and twins Elvis (Danny Kramer) and Jesse (Thomas Tulak). The first five listed are by Nick Tortelli (Dan Hedaya), Ludlow by Dr. Bennett Ludlow (John Karlen) and the twins by Eddie LeBec (Jay Thomas), a goalie for the Boston Bruins hockey team, who was also a bigamist (he was also married to Gloria [Anne DeSalvo]). Nick is now married to the beautiful but dim-witted Loretta (Jean Kasem); Anthony is married to Annie (Mandy Ingber). See also The Tortellis.

Clifford “Cliff” Claven, a bar regular, is a mailman assigned to the South Central Branch of the U.S. Post Office (he previously had the Meadow View Acres route near the airport). Cliff is a member of a lodge called the Knights of the Semitar and has opinions on everything and everybody (he also believes he knows everything about everything). Cliff believes he is “the wingnut that holds Western civilization together.” He is also an amateur inventor (he has invented such things as attack submarines).

Hilary “Norm” Peterson is a bar regular who loves to eat and drink. Norm has his own house painting and decorating service (K & P Painting, Inc.; it was originally called AAAA Painting). He is married to the never-seen Vera — “I joke about her, but she’s all I got. I don’t know what I’d do without her.” Norm is loyal to the bar first, his wife somewhere down the line (Wendt’s real-life wife, Bernadette Birkett, is heard as Vera’s voice).

Tiberias “Woody” Boyd assists Sam in tending the bar. Woody was born in Hanover, Indiana, and wanted to be a bartender. He wrote to all the bars in the big cities; one was Cheers. The Coach was the only person who ever wrote back to him, and they became pen pals. When Woody came to Boston to look up Coach, he learned that he recently died. Because of Ernie’s kindness, Sam gave Woody the job. Woody is also a hopeful actor and starred in a television commercial for a vegetable drink called Veggie Boy (a mix of broccoli, cauliflower and kale juice). Kelly Susan Gaines is his big-city girlfriend (they married on May 15, 1992). Kelly is rich and spoiled and has over 1,000 Barbie dolls in her collection. Her first job (for a school sociology project) was as a waitress at Cheers. Woody wrote her a song called “The Kelly Song.”

Frasier Crane, a bar regular, is a psychiatrist. He collects first-edition books and considers himself “the solver of all problems personal.” Frasier is married to Lilith Sternin, a somber-looking woman he says “rides the roost in her bra and panties.” Lilith is a psychiatrist and on call at Boston Memorial Hospital. Lilith wrote a book called Good Girls/Bad Boys and believes that she had the most productive time of her life at Cheers, more so than at any other place (when Lilith enters the bar, Cliff says, “Frost warning”).

Frasier and Lilith’s son, Frederick (Kevin and Christopher Graves) was born in the back of a cab (“The driver was nice enough to let me bite down on his foam dice,” says Lilith of the incident). Frederick now attends the Magic Hours Learning Center Preschool.

Frasier was first married to Nanette Goodsmith (Emma Thompson), who is now a famous children’s singer called Nancy Gee. Frasier conducts traveling self-help seminars called “The Crane Train to Mental Well-Being”; cost is $350. Before Frasier and Lilith married, Frasier dated Diane, but his rude, snobbish and selfish mother objected (she felt her son would ruin his life if he married a “pseudo-intellectual barmaid”). When Diane and Frasier tried living together, Diane got an allergic reaction and the courtship ended.

See also Frasier.

Cast: Ted Danson (Sam Malone), Shelley Long (Diane Chambers), Kirstie Alley (Rebecca Howe), Rhea Perlman (Carla Tortelli), Nicholas Colasanto (Ernie Pantusso), George Wendt (Norm Peterson), John Ratzenberger (Cliff Claven), Woody Harrelson (Woody Boyd), Kelsey Grammer (Frasier Crane), Bebe Neuwirth (Dr. Lilith Sternin), Jackie Swanson (Kelly Susan Gaines), Harry Anderson (Harry; the hustler), Jack Knight (Jack; a bar regular), Angela Aames (Brandee; a regular), John Fielder (Fred; a bar regular), Mark King (Marshal; a bar regular), Keene Curtis (John Allen Hill), Roger Rees (Robin Colcord), George Bell (Sam’s brother, Derek Malone), Glynis Johns (Diane’s mother, Helen Chambers), Marcia Cross (Rebecca’s sister, Susan Howe), Allyce

Beasley (Ernie's daughter, Lisa Pantusso), Cady McClain (Ernie's niece, Joyce Pantusso), Rhea Perlman (Carla's sister, Annette Lozupone), Sada Thompson (Carla's Mama Lozupone), Carol Ann Susi (Carla's sister, Angela Lozupone), Randy Pelish (Carla's brother, Sal Lozupone), Oceana Marr (Carla's sister, Zia Lozupone), Ernie Sabella (Carla's cousin, Santo Carbone), Anthony Addabbo (Carla's cousin, Frankie), Frances Sternhagen (Cliff's mother, Esther Claven), Nancy Marchand (Frasier's mother, Dr. Hester Crane), Melendy Britt (Kelly's mother, Roxanne Gaines), Richard Doyle (Kelly's father, Elliott Gaines), Celeste Holm (Kelly's Grandmother Gaines). Theme Vocal: "Where Everybody Knows Your Name by Gary Portnoy.

1412 Cher. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1975–1976). A weekly series of music, songs and comedy sketches hosted by singer Cher (guests assist Cher in comedy skits and duets). George Schlatter, Lee Miller, Allan Katz and Don Reo are the producers.

Hostess: Cher. Regulars: The Tony Charmoli Dancers. Orchestra: Jimmy Dale. Special Musical Material: Earl Brown, Billy Barnes.

1413 The Cherokee Trail. (Pilot; Western; CBS; 11/28/81). The setting is Cherokee, Colorado, in 1864. When her husband is killed, Mary Breydon takes over his job and becomes the new manager of Cherokee Station, a stopover point for the Overland Express Stage Lines. The unsold series was to depict Mary's experiences as she struggles to manage the station in a town that will not accept a woman with ideas of her own. Mary is assisted by her daughter, Peggy, Matty Maginnis, Ridge Fenton and Temple Boone.

Cast: Cindy Pickett (Mary Breydon), Tina Yothers (Peggy Breydon), Mary Larkin (Matty Maginnis), Richard Farnsworth (Ridge Fenton), David Hayward (Temple Boone). Guest Cast: Victor French (Scant Luther), Tommy Peterson (Walt Tanner), Timothy Scott (Wilbur Pattishal), Buck Taylor (Laird), Gene Russ (Grocer), Skeeter Vaughn (Indian), Ben Miller (Stage driver).

1414 Chester the Pup. (Series; Children; ABC; 1950–1951). Chester is a cute but mischievous puppy whose adventures unfold via off-screen narration and on-the-air cartoon sketches.

Narrator: George O'Halloran. Cartoonist: Sid Stone.

1415 The Chesterfield Supper Club. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1948–1950). An interlude program of music and songs with singer Perry Como in his first television series. The series, sponsored by Chesterfield cigarettes, ran from December 24, 1948 to May 28, 1950. Bob Moss and Richard Berger are the producers.

Host: Perry Como. Regulars: Geri Fontaine,

Margie Fontaine, Bea Fontaine. Announcer: Martin Block. Orchestra: Mitchell Ayres.

1416 Chevrolet on Broadway. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1956). A quarter-hour, summer program of music and songs that replaced The Dinah Shore Show from July 17, 1956 to September 13, 1956. Fred Coe is the producer.

Hostess: Gisele MacKenzie, Janet Blair. Host: Fred Waring. Regulars: The Mellolarks. Announcer: Bill Wendell. Music: Hal Hastings.

1417 The Chevrolet Tele-Theater. (Series; Anthology; NBC; 1948–1950). A series of live dramatic presentations. The first seven episodes were broadcast under the title The Broadway Playhouse. The series, sponsored by Chevrolet, ran from September 27, 1948 to June 26, 1950.

Performers Include: Cara Williams, E.G. Marshall, Frances Reid, William Prince, Dick Foran, Rex Harrison, Patricia Crowley, Faye Emerson, Mercedes McCambridge, Barry Nelson, Lee Tracy, Basil Rathbone, Nina Foch, Nanette Fabray, Natalie Schafer, Roland Young, John Carradine, Judy Parrish, Jessie Royce Landis, James Dunn, Buddy Ebsen, Ann Thomas, Ilka Chase, Janet Blair.

1418 Chevron Hall of Stars. (Series; Anthology; Syn.; 1956). A series of syndicated dramas featuring known stars and quality stories.

1419 The Chevy Chase Show. (Series; Talk; Fox; 1993). A daily series of celebrity interviews with comedian Chevy Chase as the host. Although well produced (and heavily promoted) and top name guests appeared, the show simply did not catch on with viewers and was cancelled shortly after its premiere (September 7, 1993 to October 1, 1993).

Host: Chevy Chase. Announcer: Ron Russ.

1420 The Chevy Mystery Show. (Series; Anthology; NBC; 1960). Rebroadcasts of mystery dramas that originally aired on other filmed anthology programs. The series, the summer replacement for The Dinah Shore Show, aired from May 29, 1960 to September 23, 1960. Sponsored by Chevrolet.

Host: Walter Slezak, Vincent Price.

1421 The Chevy Summer Show. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1958). A potpourri of skits, popular and classical musical numbers and monologues. The series, sponsored by Chevrolet, ran from June 22, 1958 to September 28, 1958.

Hostess: Edie Adams, Janet Blair. Host: John Raitt. Regulars: Dan Rowan, Dick Martin, Dorothy Kirsten, Stan Freberg. Orchestra: Harry Zimmerman.

1422 The Chevy Summer Show. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1959). A summer program of musical salutes to cities across America. The series, sponsored by Chevrolet, aired from June 7, 1959 to September 20, 1959.

Hostess: Janet Blair. Host: John Riatt. Regular: Dorothy Kirsten. Orchestra: Harry Zimmerman.

1423 Cheyenne. (Series; Western; ABC; 1955–1963). On the third day of the ninth moon of the Indian calendar (September 12; this calendar has 13 moons each year with 28 days in each month), a wagon train traveling through Wyoming territory is attacked by the Cheyenne Indians. Chief White Cloud (Richard Hale) spares the life of a baby boy and raises him as his son. The boy, whom White Cloud said “was so quiet and solemn that he must have the brain of a wise grey fox,” was given the name Grey Fox. At age 12, Grey Fox chose to go the way of the white man and took the name Cheyenne Bodie. He left his home, “south, where the river winds at the foot of the hills,” and set out on his own.

A ranch hand, cavalry scout, army undercover agent, deputy, trail boss and wagon train guide were but a handful of the jobs held by Cheyenne Bodie as he drifted across the American frontier of the 1860s.

Cheyenne is a strong, quiet man who fights for the rights of others. He is proud of his heritage and is dedicated to helping the army build up the land and establish a peace treaty with his blood brothers (he can read smoke signals and is trusted by the Indian chiefs). He carries a hunting knife on the left side of his holster (his gun is on the right side) and is looking for a place to settle down and call home (he hopes one day to buy a ranch and raise horses).

In the episode “Legacy of the Lost,” Sloane and Sloane detective Dennis Carter (William Windom) convinces Cheyenne that he is John Abbott, the long lost son of wealthy rancher Lionel Abbott (Peter Whitney). Cheyenne now has a younger brother, James Abbott (Peter Breck), and a sister-in-law, Lorna (Jolene Brand); he is also heir to the vast Abbott wealth. (Cheyenne discovers that James hired Carter to find someone who could be John Abbott and then kill him so James could become the sole heir. By coincidence, Lionel’s wife and infant son were on the same wagon train as the infant Cheyenne. Lionel believed that his son was taken by the Cheyenne and would one day return to claim what is rightfully his.)

Note: L.Q. Jones as Smitty, a government map-maker, was Cheyenne’s sidekick during the 1955–56 season when Cheyenne alternated with Kings Row and Casablanca on Warner Bros. Presents.

Cast: Clint Walker (Cheyenne Bodie). Theme Song: “Cheyenne” by Stan Jones and William Lava.

1424 Chez Paree Revue. (Series; Variety; DuMont; 1950). The program presents music and songs that are performed against the background of a Parisian nightclub. Nyles Palley is the producer.

Host: Jim Dimitri. Regulars: Joyce Sellers, David Dursten, The Mellolarks. Announcer: Russ Reed. Music: Cee Davidson.

1425 Chez Rouge. (Pilot; Drama; CBS; 2/16/59). The Chez Rouge is a nightclub in Panama that is owned by a beautiful but mysterious woman known only as the Redhead. The unsold series was to focus on the woman as she attempts to help people in trouble. In the pilot episode, broadcast as a segment of Desilu Playhouse, the Redhead tries to thwart the advances of a Canal pilot (Paul) who has fallen in love with her (the Redhead had bad luck in a previous marriage and is determined not to make another mistake).

Cast: Janis Paige (The Redhead). Guest Cast: Harry Guardino (Paul Conrad), Ray Danton (Robert Mason), Kurt Kasznar (Captain Martinez), Herbert Berghof (Hallas).

1426 Chicago Hope. (Series; Drama; CBS; 1994–2000). A prime time medical soap opera that follows the personal and working lives of the staff of Chicago Hope Hospital. Particular focus is on Dr. Phillip Watters, the hospital administrator, and Jeffrey Geiger and Aaron Shutte, dedicated surgeons who often battle authority to treat their patients as they deem necessary — not what hospital policy says it should be.

Cast: Mandy Patinkin (Dr. Jeffrey Geiger), Adam Arkin (Dr. Aaron Shutte), Hector Elizondo (Dr. Phillip Watters), Jayne Brook (Dr. Diane Grad), Vondie Curtis Hall (Dr. Dennis Hancock), Mark Harmon (Dr. Jack McNeil), Roxanne Hart (Nurse Camille Shutte), E.G. Marshall (Dr. Andrew Thurmond), Jamey Sheridan (Dr. John Sutton), Stacy Edwards (Dr. Lisa Catera), Rocky Carroll (Dr. Keith Wilkes), Christine Lahti (Dr. Kathryn Austin), Carla Gugino (Dr. Gina Simon), Barbara Hershey (Dr. Francesca Alberghetti), Eric Stoltz (Dr. Robert Yeats), Peter Berg (Dr. Bill Kronk).

1427 Chicago Jazz. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1949). A live program of jazz music from Chicago that aired from November 26, 1949 to December 31, 1949.

Regulars: The Art Van Damme Quintet, The Tailgate Seven.

1428 Chicago Sons. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1997). Mike, Harry and Billy Kulchak are three brothers who live together in an apartment building overlooking Wrigley Field in Chicago. The brothers are devoted sports fans of the Cubs, Bears and Bulls but that is where the similarities end.

Mike, the eldest, is a contractor and divorced from Melinda (he devoted more time to watching sports on TV than paying attention to her. He is now trying to make up for what he did). Billy is a master-of-get rich quick schemes that always fail. He is the youngest and sees himself as an entrepreneur who just hasn't come up with that million-dollar idea yet (he takes odd jobs in the meantime). Harry, the middle brother, is the most stable and is the glue that holds the family together. He works as an architect and he has a serious problem: he is in love with Lindsay Sutton, his co-worker. Unfortunately, Lindsay already has a boyfriend (Barry). Stories relate the events that befall the brothers as they attempt to get along with one another.

Cast: Jason Bateman (Harry Kulchak), D.W. Moffett (Mike Kulchak), David Krumholtz (Billy Kulchak), Paula Marshall (Lindsay Sutton), Michael Stoyanov (Barry), Brigid Brannagh (Melinda).

1429 Chicago Story. (Series; Crime Drama; NBC; 1982). The series, set in Chicago, depicts the lives of a group of doctors, lawyers and police officers who ban together to solve baffling crimes.

Regulars include Judith Bergstrom, a doctor attached to the Cook County Hospital; attorney Lou Pellegrino, the defense counselor; attorney Megan Powers; Officer Joe Gilland; Dr. Maxwell Carson; and Kenneth A. Dutton, the District Attorney. Linda Clifford sings the theme, "Chicago."

Cast: Maud Adams (Dr. Judith Bergstrom), Vincent Baggetta (Lou Pellegrino), Molly Cheek (Megan Powers), Dennis Franz (Joe Gilland), Kristoffer Tabori (Dr. Maxwell Carson), Daniel Hugh-Kelly (Off. Frank Wajorski), Richard Lawson (Off. O.Z. Tate), Craig T. Nelson (Kenneth A. Dutton), Connie Foster (Anne Gilland; Joe's wife), John Mahoney (Lt. Rosselli), Pauline Brailsford (Dr. Pauline Caldwell), Philip Sterling (Dr. Buskirk), Marge Kesleski (Nurse).

1430 The Chicago Teddy Bears. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1971). Chicago in the 1920s is the setting for a series that depicts the clash that exists between rival nightclub owners Linc McCray and his cousin "Big" Nick Marr, a mobster who is forever plotting to gain control of Linc's legit club and add it to his list of illegal speakeasies. In addition to Nick, Linc has to contend with Legs, the leader of the notorious Purple Pig Gang, who seeks protection money to keep his club safe. Uncle Latzi is Linc's partner; Marvin is Linc's accountant; and Duke, Dutch, Lefty and Julius are members of Nick's mob.

Cast: Dean Jones (Linc McCray), Art Metrano ("Big" Nick Marr), John Banner (Uncle Latzi), Marvin Kaplan (Marvin), Mickey Shaughnessy (Duke), Huntz Hall (Dutch), Jamie Farr (Lefty), Mike Mazurki (Julius), Neville Brand (Legs).

1431 Chicago 212. (Pilot; Drama; CBS; 4/30/57). A proposed series about Ed McCook, an inspector for the Chicago Fire Department. In the pilot episode, McCook searches for an arsonist whose actions have caused both the loss of life and property.

Cast: Frank Lovejoy (Ed McCook). Guest Cast: Roy Thinnis (Arsonist), Tomi Thurston (Mickey), Franklyn McCormick (Keno).

1432 Chicagoland Mystery Players. (Series; Crime Drama; DuMont; 1949–1950). Jeffrey Hall is a criminologist with the Chicago Police Department. He is called upon to solve cases that go beyond the expertise of the detectives assigned to the case; usually baffling and bizarre murders that have stumped authorities. Stories, which use a cast of regulars (local Chicago actors) to portray the supporting characters in each episode (hence the title) follow Jeffrey and his assistant, Sergeant Holland as they attempt to solve crimes. The series, originally broadcast locally in Chicago (1947–1949) ran on DuMont from September 18, 1949 to July 30, 1950.

Cast: Gordon Urquhart (Jeffrey Hall), Bob Smith (Sergeant Holland). Regulars: Valerie McElroy, Ervin Charon, Ilka Diehl, Sidney Breese, Ros Twokey.

1433 Chicken Soup. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1989). Jackie Fisher and Madelyn ("Maddie") Pearce are neighbors who are also lovers. Jackie is a 52-year-old single Jewish man who quit his job after 22 years "to enjoy life and help other people enjoy theirs." Maddie is a widowed Catholic woman with three children: Molly, Patty and Donny. Stories follow their courtship and, if the series had continued, their eventual marriage.

Jackie worked as a pajama salesman for Sleep Soft, Inc.; Maddie is the supervisor of the Henry Street Settlement House in New York City. Jackie lives in the attached house (number 3266) next to Maddie (number 3268); an exact address is not given. Bea Fisher (Rita Karin) is Jackie's mother; Mike (Brandon Maggart) is Maddie's brother. Gordon Lust composed the "Chicken Soup" theme.

Cast: Jackie Mason (Jackie Fisher), Lynn Redgrave (Madelyn Pearce), Allison Porter (Molly Pearce), Kathryn Erbe (Patty Pearce), Johnny Pinto (Donny Pearce), Rita Karin (Bea Fisher), Brandon Maggart (Mike).

1434 Chicken Soup for the Soul. (Series; Anthology; PAX; 1999–2000). Heartwarming stories (usually two to three per show) that relate incidents in the lives of ordinary people who give of themselves to help others. The series, based on the books of the same title, ran from August 17, 1999 to May 16, 2000.

Host: Michael Tucker, Scott Whyte.

1435 Chico and the Man. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1974–1978). The comic adventures of Ed Brown, an honest but cynical garage owner in Los Angeles, and Chico Rodriguez, his partner, a cheerful young Mexican-American. Episodes depict their continual bickering as they, representatives of different cultures and generations, struggle to survive the difficult 1970s.

Other Regulars: Louie Wilson, Ed's friend; Della Rogers, Ed's landlady; Reverend Bemis, Ed's friend; Rudy, Ed's friend; Mabel, the letter carrier; Mondo, Chico's friend; Raul Garcia, the Mexican boy Ed adopts; Raul's Aunt Charo; Monica, the actress; Margie, Lynn, Susie, and Barbara, Monica's friends.

Cast: Jack Albertson (Ed Brown), Freddie Prinze (Chico Rodriguez), Scatman Crothers (Louie Wilson), Della Reese (Della Rogers), Ronny Graham (Rev. Bemis), Rodolfo Hoyos (Rudy), Bonnie Boland (Mabel), Isaac Ruiz (Mondo), Gabriel Melgar (Raul Garcia), Charo (Charo), Julie Hill (Monica), Teri Payne (Margie), Hilary Thompson (Lynn), Patch Mackenzie (Susie), Danuta (Barbara), Cesar Romero (Chico's Father), Angelina Estrada (Chico's Aunt Connie). Theme Vocal: "Chico and the Man" by Jose Feliciano.

1436 Children of Ol' Man River. (Experimental; Variety; NBC; 1/30/46). Children of Ol' Man River is a play that was written for radio (by Walter Richards) but staged for television as an experiment by NBC to test the waters of the new medium (it aired on radio on DuPont's Cavalcade of America on February 4, 1946). The program is based on the autobiography of Billy Bryant, an old-time Mississippi river boat showman, and was a satire on this form of American entertainment. It traced Bryant's rise to fame from showboat to Broadway via skits, songs and vaudeville acts. Warren Wade is the producer.

Cast: Buddy Pepper (Billy Bryant), Lillian Cornell (Josephine), Mary Scott (Flo Bryant). Also: Tony Blair, Eda Heinemann, W.O. MacWatters. Special Guest: Billy Bryant as himself. Music: The Tom Fletcher Quartet, The Alan Hall Trio.

1437 The Children's Corner. (Series; Children; NBC; 1955–1956). A program of music, songs and puppet adventures designed to instill learning abilities in children. The format, featuring the puppet creations of Fred Rogers, was, in part, the launching pad for what would become his greatest success on PBS — Mr. Rogers Neighborhood. The series ran from August 20, 1955 to April 28, 1956.

Hostess: Josie Carey. Voices-Puppeteer: Fred Rogers.

1438 The Children's Hour. (Series; Children; NBC; 1949–1951). The program, which ran from January 30, 1949 to May 26, 1951, features performances by pre-teen and teenage entertainment acts (each of whom hopes to impress a talent agent and find possible stardom).

Host: Ed Herlihy.

1439 The Children's Hour. (Series; Children; Syn.; 1951). Actress Maureen O'Sullivan's first television series. Here she hosts hour-long films for children (mostly theatrical comedy shorts that are grouped together and edited, family oriented theatrical features).

Hostess: Maureen O'Sullivan.

1440 The Children's Sketchbook. (Series; Children; NBC; 1950). A lovely hostess, called the Storyteller, relates tales to children that unfold through an artists illustrations as she reads. Although the series only ran for a short time (January 7, 1950 to February 4, 1950) it showed that the medium was capable of producing enjoyable, family oriented programming for children.

Hostess: Edith Skinner. Artist: Lisi Weil.

1441 Child's Play. (Series; Game; CBS; 1982). Two contestants compete. A film clip is shown in which a child is seen describing a word that is visible only to the home audience. After fifteen seconds, the tape is stopped and one contestant attempts to identify the word. A correct guess scores that player one point; an incorrect response allows the other player a chance to guess the word (another child is seen describing the same word). The game continues in this manner until the school bell rings (time runs out), at which time the highest scorer wins $500.

Host: Bill Cullen. Announcer: Gene Wood.

1442 Chime Time. (Live Test Program; Variety; ABC; 6/6/46). Songs by Jean Tighe with the backing of the Gay Moods Quartet was the premise of this unsold series. The program was sponsored by the A.E. Rittenhouse Company (makers of Rittenhouse Chimes) and much of the show was devoted to praising (in song) the beauty of the product.

Performers: Jean Tighe, The Gay Moods Quartet.

1443 China Beach. (Series; Drama; ABC; 1988–1990). A harsh look at the Vietnam War as seen through the eyes of a group of people stationed at China Beach, the U.S. Armed Forces R & R facility in Da Nang, Republic of Vietnam. The medical personnel are attached to the 510th Evac Hospital, 63rd Division. The unit has 180 hospital beds and 33 surgical units but is unable to handle critical neurological surgery.

Colleen McMurphy began her career as a nurse in 1966, at age 18 (she was inspired by John F. Kennedy to believe that she can make a difference). She joined the army, trained in Houston and volunteered for service in Vietnam. Colleen is representative of the 50,000 women who actually served in Nam.

Colleen, an Irish Catholic, was born in Lawrence, Kansas, in 1948. She served as a lieutenant in Nam for two years (1967–69) and feels she made a difference — "I couldn't save them all, but I saved some. It mattered. We all did."

In 1967 Colleen had one wish — “a day without choppers” (the helicopters brought the wounded). It never came true. By 1970 Colleen had returned to her home and taken a job as a nurse at the local hospital. Two years later she was “a wild at heart free spirit who took to the open road via a motorcycle.”

The year 1975 saw Colleen taking to the road again, this time in a car, to escape the memories of her past. She drifted for a few years and finally settled in Portland, Oregon, where she acquired a job as a hospital administrator. In 1985 she married Joe Arenberry (Adam Arkin), an architect. By 1988 (the last we know of her character) she is the mother of a three-year-old girl named Maggie.

Karen Colosky, who prefers to be called K.C. (after her hometown of Kansas City, she says), is the only civilian on the base. She is a prostitute and charges $100 an hour for her services. K.C. is an expert at telling pathetic stories about herself and having people believe her. She and Colleen first met on China Beach in 1967 in the women’s shower. (K.C. noticed Colleen staring at her navel and said, “Never seen an outie before?” They joked and became close friends.) It was in 1967 that K.C. became pregnant by General A.M. (“Mac”) Miller (Wings Hauser). Later that year, while in Saigon for R & R, Colleen helps K.C. deliver her baby — a girl she names Karen. K.C., however, is unable to care for Karen and hires Trieu Au (Kieu Chinh), a Vietnamese woman, to take the child “until I get my life together.”

K.C. left China Beach in 1969 without Karen (now age two and played by twins Kelsey and Kirsten Dohring). She moved to Bangkok where she first had an export/import business and by 1975 a nightclub called K.C.’s. It is at this time that K.C. seeks Karen, but it is also a time of great concern as it is the Fall of Saigon.

K.C. has only a short time to spend with Karen before she realizes she must get her to safety. At an American military base, K.C. manages to get Karen (Shay Aster), now eight, on a helicopter. With only seconds remaining, K.C. tells Karen to look up Boonie Lanier (a soldier from China Beach who loved her), “who’ll take care of you.”

Two years later, in Santa Cruz, California, K.C. sees that Karen is safe, attending school and with Boonie. She leaves without letting Karen see her.

A Christmas card sent to Colleen from K.C. reveals that in 1977 K.C. owned a diner called The Answer. By 1988 K.C. is a high powered businesswoman. It is also learned that Karen, now called Karen Lanier (Christine Elise) is attending college.

Boonewell “Boonie” Lanier was with the First Marine Division, Icor, on China Beach. Karen, who has been living with Boonie and his family for 12 years, considers him to be her father and uses his last name. Boonie always called K.C. “K.C. from K.C.”

Laurette Barber was the sweet U.S.O. entertainer (singer and dancer) who became an active participant in helping the wounded. She was an orphan and raised at the Lady of Perpetual Hope Orphanage. When the tour moved to another base, Laurette was written out (it is assumed that she found a career in show business after the war).

Cherry White was an A.R.C. (American Red Cross) nurse who volunteered for duty in Vietnam. Like Colleen, she was dedicated to helping the victims of a war she felt was unjust. Cherry’s greatest hope was to find her brother, Rick, who was reported as missing in action. Cherry was killed by an enemy bomb during the Tet offensive in one of the series’ most emotional episodes.

Wayloo Marie Holmes was the U.S. Air Force television reporter who covered the misery of China Beach in the hope that it would lead to bigger and better things. It did; she left the job to become a reporter for ABC-TV in New York. In 1988 Wayloo was the host of a network television series called “This Morning.”

Major Lila Garreau was the hospital commander whose life was the army. She had the nickname “Scooter” and most often found herself pushing herself and her nurses far beyond the call of duty. She married Sergeant Bartholomew Pepper and later moved with him to Alabama to run a gas station.

Evan “Dodger” Winslow was the seldom talking, tough on the outside but sensitive on the inside combat soldier. Dodger thought he was meant to die in Vietnam. He stayed behind when the China Beach personnel left in 1975. Shortly after, he befriended a lost Vietnamese girl named Cam Noi (Page Leong); we last see them walking through a stream to safety. When we next see Dodger he is in Red Lodge, Montana, and the father of a son named Archie (Tyronne Tan). Dodger owns a bar called Archie’s and is also deeply religious (he is building a church for Vietnam vets out of an old school bus).

Other Regulars: Dr. Dick Richard, Nurse Holly Pelligrino, Beckett. Dick remained in the medical profession and works in a hospital after the war; Beckett worked at the G.R.U. (Graves Registration Unit) on China Beach; he became a teacher after the war (Tony T. Johnson played Beckett at age seven in a flashback sequence).

Themes: “Reflections” (opening), by the Supremes; “China Beach” (closing), by John Rubinstein.

Cast: Dana Delany (Coleen McMurphy), Nan Woods (Cherry White), Megan Gallagher (Wayloo Marie Holmes), Marg Helgenberger (K.C.), Chloe Webb (Laurette Barber), Concetta Tomei (Lila Garreau), Nancy Giles (Frankie Bunsen), Brian Wimmer (Boonie), Robert Picardo (Dr. Richard), Jeff Kober (Dodger), Troy Evans (Sergeant Pepper), Shay Aster and Christine Elise (Karen), Michael Boatman

(Beckett), Marcia Magus (Jody Kass), Ned Vaughn (Jeff Hyers), Derek De Lint (Dr. Gerard Bernard), Elizabeth Lindsey (Mai), Ricki Lake (Holly Pelegrino), Kieu Chinh (Trieu Au), Tom Sizemore (Vinnie Ventresca), Penny Fuller (Colleen's mother, Margaret Mary McMurphy), Donald Moffat (Colleen's father, Brian McMurphy), John Laughlin (Colleen's brother, Brenden McMurphy), Harold Russell (Colleen's uncle, Conal), Kevin McCarthy (Wayloo's father, Congressman Holmes), Penelope Windust (Dodger's mother, Jean Winslow), Tom Bower and Richard Jaeckel (Dodger's father, Archie Winslow), Arlene Taylor (Dodger's sister, Annie Winslow), Frederic Lehne (Cherry's brother, Rick White), Finn Carter (Boonie's wife, Linda Lanier), Sean Ryan (Boonie's son, Adam Lanier), Shannon Farrara (Boonie's daughter, Gillian Lanier), Conni Marie Brazelton (Boonie's daughter, Angela Lanier), Colleen Flynn (Dick's wife, Colleen Richard), Troy Searcy (Beckett's son, Malcolm Beckett).

1444 China Smith. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1952). The shortened title for The Affairs of China Smith. See this title for information.

1445 Chip and Pepper's Cartoon Madness. (Series; Cartoon; NBC; 1991). Live action Canadian comics Chip and Pepper Foster host a Saturday morning children's program of celebrity interviews and classic theatrical cartoons (for example, Popeye and Casper the Friendly Ghost).

Cast: Chip Foster (Chip), Pepper Foster (Pepper).

1446 Chip 'n Dale Rescue Rangers. (Series; Cartoon; Disney; 1989–1993). Disney's lovable animated chipmunks, Chip and Dale appear in first-run television cartoons as detectives who attempt to solve crimes that the police overlook as insignificant. Chip is the leader of the team. He is calm and sensible; Dale is his partner and easily excitable. His over enthusiasm often gets him and Chip into trouble. Chip and Dale are assisted by Gadget, an inventive female mouse; Monterey Jack, an athletic mouse with a passion for cheese; and Zipper, a fly. Their enemies are Professor Nimbul and Fat Cat. The Professor is a human who is seeking to control the world; Fat Cat is an overweight cat also seeking to become ruler of the world.

Voice Cast: Tress MacNeille (Chip), Corey Burton (Dale), Tress MacNeille (Gadget), Jim Cummings (Monterey Jack), Corey Burton (Zipper), Jim Cummings (Prof. Norton Nimbul).

1447 CHiPs. (Series; Crime Drama; NBC; 1977–1983). CHiPs (the small i and s added for pronunciation purposes) stands for the California Highway Patrol. Francis "Ponch" Poncherello, Jonathan "Jon" Baker, Bonnie Clark and Robert "Bobby" Nelson are officers attached to the unit. With the exception of Bonnie, who drives a patrol car, the officers ride Kawasaki motorcycles. Their supervisor is Sergeant Joe Getraer.

Ponch, born in the barrio, has badge number 2140 (also given as B-600). His mobile codes were given as 7-Mary-3, LA-15-Mary 2 and LA-15-Mary 6.

Jon, Ponch's first partner, has badge number 5712. His mobile codes were given as 7-Mary-4 and LA-15-Mary-3. Jon was born in Wyoming and was replaced by Bruce Nelson in last season episodes when Larry Wilcox left the series. Bruce's mobile code is LA-15-Mary-7.

Bonnie, a highway patrol car officer, has the mobile code 7-Charles. She is part of the C.H.P. Deaf Liaison Program (she took sign communications at Cal State) and is called "Bon Bon" by Ponch.

Sindy Cahill is a patrol officer with the bike code LA-15-Mary-23. Kathy Linehan is an officer assigned to the C.H.P. headquarters building where she works as the computer operator in the Report Room. When on assignments, her bike code is LA-15-Mary-10.

Two attempts were made to introduce a female motorcycle unit. The first occurred with recurring characters Emily (Melody Anderson) and Sylvia (Debbie Evans), two beautiful motorcycle-riding girls who were called The Highway Angels. The girls helped C.H.P. by spotting lawbreakers and calling in the crime. "They're our streets, says Emily. "We don't want to see them turn into a battlefield. If just one driver slows down because of the Highway Angels, then we are accomplishing something."

The second attempt was a failed pilot called "Ponch's Angels" (February 28 and March 1, 1981) wherein Melanie Mitchell (Trisha Townsend) and Paula Wood (Barbara Stock) become the first C.H.P. female unit assigned to Ponch for training, hence the title.

In 1998, the Nashville Network presented a TV movie called CHiPs '99 that reunited the cast in a story that finds Ponch and Jon attempting to solve a series of car thefts. Larry Wilcox was now Captain Jon Baker; Erik Estrada, Officer Frank Poncherello; Robert Pine, C.H.P. Commissioner, Joseph Getraer; and Bruce Penhall, Sergeant Bruce Nelson.

Cast: Erik Estrada (Off. Francis Poncherello), Larry Wilcox (Off. Jon Baker), Randi Oakes (Off. Bonnie Clark), Robert Pine (Sgt. Joe Getraer), Brianna Leary (Off. Sindy Cahill), Tina Gayle (Off. Kathy Linehan), Paul Linke (Off. Arthur Grossman), Brodie Greer (Officer Bariczu), Lew Sanders (Off. Gene Fritz), Lou Wagner (Harlan; the mechanic), Michael Dorn (Officer Turner), Bruce Jenner (Off. Steve McLeish), Bruce Penhall (Off. Bruce Penhall), Tom Reilly (Off. Robert Nelson), Rawn Hutchinson (Off. Ben Cantrell), Lawrence Cook (Sergeant Murdock), Molly Cheek (Pam England; radio dispatcher), Lynn-Holly Johnson (Ellen Getraer; Joe's daughter), Maria O'Brien (Patti Poncherello; Ponch's sister). Theme Song: "CHiPs" by John Parker.

1448 The Chisholms. (Series; Western; CBS; 1979). A miniseries that spawned a series of the same title (see next entry). The program spans two years, 1842–1844, and relates the hardships and perils of the Chisholm family, Virginia farmers who lost their land in a legal dispute, as they travel west seeking to build a new life in the untamed Ohio Territory. The program ran from March 29, 1979 to April 19, 1979.

Cast: Robert Preston (Hadley Chisholm), Rosemary Harris (Minerva Chisholm), Ben Murphy (Will Chisholm), Stacey Nelkin (Bonnie Sue Chisholm), Susan Swift (Annabelle Chisholm), James Van Patten (Bo Chisholm), Brian Kerwin (Gideon Chisholm), Glynnis O'Connor (Elizabeth Chisholm), Sandra Griego (Kewedinok Chisholm), Charles Frank (Lester Hackett), David Hayward (Timothy Oates), Anthony Zerbe (Jimmy Jackson), Brian Keith (Andrew Blake), Doug Kershaw (Fiddler Ephraim), Tom Taylor (Harlow Cooper), Gavin Troster (Brian Cassidy), James O'Reilly (Lue Cassidy), Dean Hill (Jeremy Stokes), David Allen (Squire Bailey), Dennis Kennedy (Benjamin Lowery), James Harrell (Doc Simpson), Maureen Steindler (Millie Bain), Jerry Hardin (Jonah Comyns), Kate Hantley (Sarah Comyns).

1449 The Chisholms. (Series; Western; CBS; 1980). The saga of the Chisholms, a pioneering Virginia family, as they travel by wagon train from Wyoming to seek a new life in California. The hardships endured by the family is the focal point of the series, which is set in 1844.

Hadley and Minerva are the parents; Will, Bo, Bonnie Sue and Gideon are their children.

Kewedinok is Will's wife; Cooper Hawkins is the wagon master; Lester Hackett is the guide; Mercy Howell is the young girl traveling with the Chisholms. Betsy O'Neal is a member of the wagon train; Jeremy O'Neal is Betsy's brother; Enos is another member of the wagon train. See also the prior title for information on the miniseries that spawned the series.

Cast: Robert Preston (Hadley Chisholm), Rosemary Harris (Minerva Chisholm), Ben Murphy (Will Chisholm), James Van Patten (Bo Chisholm), Delta Burke (Bonnie Sue Chisholm), Brett Cullen (Gideon Chisholm), Victoria Racimo (Kewedinok Chisholm), Mitchell Ryan (Cooper Hawkins), Reid Smith (Lester Hackett), Susan Swift (Mercy Howell), Devon Ericson (Betsy O'Neal), Guich Kooch (Frank O'Neal), Les Lannom (Jeremy O'Neal), Donald Moffat (Enos).

1450 Choose Up Sides. (Series; Game; NBC; 1956). Two teams of children compete with the object being for one team to out perform the other in various game contests. Prizes are awarded based on the success of completed stunts. The program ran locally in New York from 1952–1953 with Dean Miller as the host. The network version ran from January 7, 1956 to March 31, 1956.

Host: Gene Rayburn.

1451 The Chopped Liver Brothers. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 5/6/77). A proposed series about Tom Van Brocklin and Jay Luckman, stand-up comics struggling to become headliners.

Cast: Tom Patchett (Tom Van Brocklin), Jay Tarses (Jay Luckman), Gwynne Gilford (Sally Van Brocklin, Tom's wife). Guest Cast: Philip Bruns (Mr. Ruth), Michael Pataki (Kebo), Robert Emhardt (Duffy), Phil Roth (Nathan Brailoff), Madeleine Fisher (Receptionist), Rick Podell (Impressionist).

1452 Chopper One. (Series; Adventure; ABC; 1974). Gil Foley and Don Burdick are officers with the West California Police Department. They are also helicopter pilots who assist patrol car officers. Stories relate their adventures as they use their helicopter to help apprehend wanted felons. Ted McKeegan is their captain; Mitch is their mechanic.

Cast: Dirk Benedict (Gil Foley), Jim McMullan (Don Burdick), Ted Hartley (Ted McKeegan), Lou Frizzell (Mitch).

1453 Choreotones. (Experimental; Variety; CBS; 11/2/45). Three short ballet sequences built around the theme of "Young Love on a Park Bench." Each sequence was televised against a different background. London Bridge was the setting for Olga Lunick and Bernie Williams; Betty Lind and J.C. McCord danced against a backdrop of the Eiffel Tower; and the New York skyline backed Pauline Koner as she sang and danced. Joseph Hahn appeared as a policeman in all three sequences. Recorded music was used to back the performers. See also the following title.

Performers: Joseph Hahn, Pauline Koner, Betty Lind, Olga Lunick, J.C. McCord, Bernie Williams.

1454 Choreotones. (Experimental; Variety; CBS; 2/22/46). Tunes from Showboat, set to ballet music, were used to tell the story of the Mississippi. Bambi Linn and Robert Pagent played a young couple in love who sang "Make Believe"; Talley Beatty played the colored slave, Joe, and sang "Old Man River"; and Pauline Koner performed an expressive dance rendition of "Can't Help Lovin' That Man."

Performers: Talley Beatty, Elmira Beay, Pauline Koner, Bambi Linn, Robert Pagent.

1455 Chris and the Magical Drip. (Pilot; Children; Syn.; 8/81). A proposed series that attempts to make children aware of the sights and sounds of the world that surrounds them. A subject is illustrated through the adventures of Chris Mason, an 11-year-old boy, and the Drip, a magical drop of water that comes to life (through animation) and guides Chris through every prospect of that particular subject. In the pilot presentation, Chris and the Drip explore sound.

Cast: Stan Freberg (Voice of the Drip), Christopher Gardner (Chris). Guests: Vincent Price, Tom Sullivan. Theme Vocal: “Beautiful Noise” by Neil Diamond.

1456 Christine Cromwell. (Series; Crime Drama; ABC; 1989–1990). Blain and Knapp is a prestigious San Francisco–based law firm that specializes in cases involving the rich and famous. Cyrus Blain is the featured senior partner and Christine Cromwell, the principal attorney.

Christine is a beautiful, always elegantly dressed woman whose appearance suggests she is a fashion model or a woman of high social class. While Christine grew up in a family of wealth, she has not let that sidetrack her from doing what she wants to do—help people who are in trouble. She is shrewd and cunning and will stop at nothing until she achieves her goal. Stories follow Christine as she attempts to live in two separate worlds—the world of high society with her mother (Samantha) and the not so glamorous world inhabited by criminals. Sarah is Christine’s secretary; Nanny is her housekeeper.

Cast: Jaclyn Smith (Christine Cromwell), Celeste Holm (Samantha Cromwell), Ralph Bellamy (Cyrus Blain), Rebecca Cross (Sarah), Ellen Albertini (Nanny).

1457 A Christmas for Boomer. (Pilot; Drama; NBC; 12/6/79). The pilot film for the series Here’s Boomer (see entry). The tale of a shaggy, adorable and abandoned stray dog named Boomer who wanders into the lives of people facing difficult circumstances and magically helps them overcome their problems. The pilot episode relates Boomer’s adventures as he tries to win the affections of a French Poodle named Celeste, and his experiences with the Sinclairs, the first family to temporarily adopt him.

Cast: Margie Impert (Marsha Sinclair), Lawrie Driscoll (Dan Sinclair), Gillian Grant (Jaime Sinclair), Jonathan Ward (Johnny Sinclair), Harriet Nelson (Helen Sinclair), Joyce Van Patten (Lila Manchester), Sheree North (Dorothy), Larry Linville (Jack), Al Molinaro (Casey).

1458 Christy. (Series; Drama; CBS; 1994). The time is 1912. Christine “Christy” Huddleston is a 19-year-old girl who, after hearing a sermon by Miss Alice Henderson (a Quaker Missionary), decides to devote her life to helping the less fortunate. She leaves her wealthy family in Nashville and heads for Cutter Gap, Tennessee, in the heart of the Smokey Mountains, to teach at Miss Henderson’s Mission School.

Christy wanted her life to count for more than being married and having babies; she wanted to make a difference and the series follows her attempts to do just that.

Other Regulars: David Grantland, the preacher; Neil MacNeil, the doctor; and the people of Cutter Gap: Fairlight Spencer, Little Burl Allen, Ruby Mae Morrison, John Spencer, Bessie Coburn, Birdseye Taylor, Rob Allen, Mary Allen, Opal McHone, and Tom McHone. Based on the novel by Catherine Marshall; see the following title also.

Cast: Kellie Martin (Christy Huddleston), Tyne Daly (Miss Alice Henderson), Tess Harper (Fairlight Spencer), Randall Batinkoff (Rev. David Grantland), Stewart Finlay McLennan (Dr. Neil MacNeill), Andy Nichols (Little Burl Allen), Emily Schulman (Ruby Mae Morrison), Jack Landry (Rob Allen), Bonita Allen (Mary Allen), Mike Hickman (Birdseye Taylor), Andrew Stahl (Tom McHone), Dale Dickey (Opal McHone), Susan Diol (Margaret Henderson MacNeill), Annabella Price (Miss Ida Grantland), Andy Nichols (Little Burl Allen), Clay Jeter (Creed Allen), Jeffrey Ford (Bob Allen), Judy Collins (Hattie McCabe), Trip Coghurn (Isaak McHone), LeVar Burton (Daniel Scott), Scott Michael Campbell (Lundy Taylor).

1459 Christy. (Series; Drama; PAX; 2000). A second series based on the novel by Catherine Marshall (see the prior title). The story is set in Cutter’s gap, an impoverished backwoods community in Tennessee in the early 20th century. It is here that Christine “Christy” Huddleston has come on behalf of Quaker Missionary Miss Alice Henderson to teach children who would otherwise have no formal education. For Christy, who was born to a wealthy family and lived a comfortable life, Cutter’s Gap “is like stepping back in time 100 years” (few people work and rely on growing their own food). Stories follow Christy, seen as an elderly woman in the beginning, as she recalls her experiences with the people of Cutter’s Gap.

Cast: Lauren Lee Smith (Christy Huddleston), Diane Ladd (Alice Henderson), Stewart Finlay-McLennan (Dr. Neil MacNeill), James Waterson (Rev. David Grantland), Dale Dickey (Opal McHone), Andy Stahl (Tom McHone), Bruce McKinnon (Jeb Spencer), Olivia Kelly (Ruby Mae Morrison), Mike Hickman (Birdseye Taylor), Jacob Witkin (Dr. Jacob Ferrand), Gillian Barber (Catherine), Ingrid Torrance (Fairlight Spencer), Justin Chatwin (John Spencer), Sheila Moore (Elderly Christy), Emily Perkins (Zady Spencer).

1460 The Chronicle. (Series; Science Fiction; Sci Fi; 2001–2002). The World Chronicle is considered one of the world’s least reputable tabloids. It reports on everything from alien abductions to Big Foot sightings to houses haunted by ghosts; in reality all the stories happen to be true.

Tucker Burns is a down-on-his-luck newspaper reporter who believes he has salvaged his career when he becomes associated with the Chronicle. Donald Stern, a mysterious man with some kind of link to the unnatural, is the paper’s editor. Grace Hall is a fellow reporter who believes in all the weird “stuff” that makes the stories believable but are looked upon many as trick photography. Stories follow Tucker and Grace as they investigate everything from a cursed sombrero to a killer mutant ape.

Cast: Chad Willett (Tucker Burns), Jon Polito (Donald Stern), Rena Sofer (Grace Hall), Reno Wilson (Wes Farrell), Curtis Armstrong (Sal the Pig Boy), Sharon Sachs (Vera), Octavia Spencer (Ruby).

1461 The Chrysler Medallion Theater. (Series; Anthology; CBS; 1953–1954). A series of quality dramatic productions sponsored by the Chrysler Corporation. The series, also known as Medallion Theater, ran from July 11, 1953 to April 3, 1954.

Performers Include: Henry Fonda, Diana Douglas, Jack Lemmon, Claude Rains, June Havoc, Marilyn Erskine, Brian Donlevy, Helen Hayes, Victor Jory, Janet Gaynor, Charlton Heston, Roddy McDowall, Diana Lynn, Diana Lynn, Jan Sterling, Eddie Albert, Stephen McNally, Leslie Nielsen, Vicki Cummings, Beulah Bondi, Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Charlie Ruggles, Ronald Reagan.

1462 Chuck. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 2007–). Intersect is a U.S. government computer that stores all the nation's most vital information. When a rogue CIA agent (Bryce Larkin) attempts to steal that information, he is caught red-handed. Before he is killed and the computer destroyed, he manages to download all the information and e-mail it to his former college friend, Chuck Bartowski.

Chuck lives in Los Angeles. He is a computer geek and works at the Nerd Herd, an electronics store in the Buy More Mall. When Chuck sees that he has an e-mail from Bryce, he opens it and the sublimely encoded message downloads the entire computer file into his brain. Immediately, Chuck becomes the concern of both the CIA and the NSA as the fate of the world now rests in his hands.

To protect Chuck, the government assigns two agents to watch over him: Major John Casey (of the NSA), who goes to work undercover as a salesman at the Nerd Herd; and Sarah Walker, a top CIA agent, who pretends to be Chuck's girlfriend and works as a waitress at Weinerlicious, a hot dog franchise.

Chuck earns $11 an hour and is happy with what he is doing. He now has to live a dual life — computer geek and the government's most valuable agent — an agent who is forced to save the world like no other agent has ever done before. Stories follow Chuck's reluctant efforts to outwit assassins and terrorists instead of computer viruses. Ellie is Chuck's sister; Morgan is Chuck's friend; Devon is Ellie's boyfriend.

Cast: Zachary Levi (Chuck Bartowski), Adam Baldwin (Major John Casey), Yvonne Strahovski (Sarah Walker), Sarah Lancaster (Ellie Bartowski), Joshua Gomez (Morgan Grimes), Ryan McPartlin (Devon), Mark Christopher Lawrence (Big Mike), Bonita Friedericy (General Beckman), Vik Sahay (Lester), Scott Krinsky (Jeff), Julia Ling (Anna Wu), C.S. Lee (Harry Tang), Matthew Bomer (Bryce Larkin).

1463 The Chuck Barris Rah-Rah Show. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1978). A prime time network version of Chuck Barris's syndicated Gong Show that features performances by professional and amateur talent acts. Unsatisfactory acts are given the gong by a celebrity panel of judges.

Host: Chuck Barris. Regulars: Jaye P. Morgan, The Unknown Comic, Gene Gene the Dancing Machine. Announcer: Johnny Jacobs. Music: Milton DeLugg.

1464 Chuck Norris Karate Kommandos. (Pilot; Cartoon; Syn.; 1986). Martial arts expert and film and TV star Chuck Norris appears in animated form as himself, a special agent for the President of the United States, as he uses his ingenuity and skills as a Samurai warrior to battle evil.

Voices: Chuck Norris (Chuck Norris), Robert Ito, Sam Fontana, Robert Ridgely, Kathy Garver, Mona Marshall, Linda Gary, Alan Oppenheimer.

1465 Chuck Woolery: Naturally Stoned. (Series; Reality; Game Show Network; 2003). A rather unusual reality show (more like a profile series) that looks at the home and working life of game show host Chuck Woolery. The program also presents a behind-the-scenes look at what goes into the making of a game show (in this case, the network's most recent show, Lingo).

Star: Chuck Woolery. Announcer-Narrator: Scott Parkin.

1466 The Chuckle Heads. (Series; Comedy; Syn.; 1963). The program is composed of a series of edited comedy silent films from the 1920s that have been re-edited to sound speed with music and sound effects added. Stars include Snub Pollard, Ben Turpin and Poodles Hannaford.

1467 Cimarron City. (Series; Western; NBC; 1958–1960). Events in the growth of Cimarron City, Oklahoma, during the 1880s are seen through the eyes of Matthew Rockford, its first citizen, then mayor, now a benevolent cattle baron.

Beth Purcell is the boarding house owner; Lane Temple is the blacksmith; Martin Kingsley is the banker and townspeople are Alice Purdy and her husband, Burt; Tiny Budinger (who is actually a big man), Jed Fame and Art Simpson.

Cast: George Montgomery (Matthew Rockford), Audrey Totter (Beth Purcell), John Smith (Lane Temple), Claire Carleton (Alice Purdy), Fred Sherman (Burt Purdy), Dan Blocker (Tiny Budinger), Wally Brown (Jed Fame), Addison Richards (Martin Kingsley). Narrator: George Montgomery.

1468 Cimarron Strip. (Series; Western; CBS; 1967–1968). The series is set in Cimarron City, Oklahoma, during the 1880s and tells the story of Jim Crown, a U.S. Marshal, as he attempts to settle the question of the Cimarron Strip, land over which a range war is pending between settlers who want the land for homes and cattlemen who require the land for grazing.

Dulcey Coppersmith the hotel coffee shop owner; Francis Wilde is Jim's friend, a photographer; MacGregor is Jim's deputy.

Cast: Stuart Whitman (Marshal Jim Crown), Jill Townsend (Dulcey Coppersmith), Randy Boone (Francis Wilde), Percy Herbert (Deputy MacGregor), Leonard J. Stone (Judge Gilroy).

1469 The Cindy Margolis Show. (Series; Variety; Syn.; 2000). An outdoor series (taped at Miami's South Beach) with hostess Cindy Margolis presiding over a dance party (with girls in revealing bikinis), game contests and music from D.J. Skribble. The program is a tamer copy of the Spanish language program Caliente (Hot, which presents beach girls in even more revealing bikinis).

Host: Cindy Margolis. Regulars: Lance Krall, D.J. Skribble.

1470 Circle. (Series; Variety; Syn.; 1960–1961). A weekly program of music and songs that presents, in addition to songs by the program's host, singer Barbara McNair, performances by top name musical stars.

Hostesses: Barbara McNair. Host: Lonnie Sarrin. Orchestra: Richard Hayman, Richard Wess.

1471 The Circle Family. (Pilot; Comedy-Drama; NBC; 7/29/82). When his carnival is destroyed by fire, Hearst Circle uses the insurance money to purchase a run-down 12-story hotel in Anaheim, California — a building he transforms into the Circle Family Motor Court. The unsold series was to depict events in the day-to-day lives of the Circles (Hearst's children, Betsy, Roxie, Dakota, and Q.P.; his brother, Hemi and his grandfather; Hearst is a widower). The pilot episode depicts the Circles' first televised problem: to discover who stole the "blue money" (savings to be spent on dreams) Hearst had put aside to help pay for Betsy's college tuition.

Other Regulars: Adrian Tweed, the hotel owner seeking to buy Hearst out; and Robbie, Tweed's aide.

Cast: Max Baer (Hearst Circle), Sarah Torgov (Betsy Circle), Sydney Penny (Roxy Circle), Roberto Ramon (Dakota Circle), Barrett Oliver (Q.P. Circle), Grainger Hines (Hemi Circle), Morgan Woodward (Grandpa Circle), Ben Piazza (Adrian Tweed), Jineanne Ford (Robbie). Guest Cast: Guich Kooch (Carter Boyd), Betty Kennedy (Lili Boyd), William Mims (Gunner), Linda Kaye Henning (Registrar).

1472 The Circle Game. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 7/7/93). A domestic comedy about the actions of a multi-generational family living under one roof: a mother (Nancy), father (Philip), their three children (Brian, Morgan and Cory) and a grandfather (Gus). An unusual aspect of the pilot is integrating the reactions of actual people to the situations that occur on the program. In the pilot episode, Brian seeks a way to get a car — by getting his first job (as a peanut vendor at the Spectrum, a basketball stadium); it also focuses on Morgan's efforts to get her parents' permission to change her wardrobe so she won't, in her own words "look like a geek." (Nancy is a school teacher; Philip is a travel agent.)

Cast: Catherine Hicks (Nancy), John Bedford Lloyd (Philip), John Buchavon (Brian), Meghann Haldeman (Morgan), Jonathan Halyalkar (Cory), Dick Latessa (Gus).

1473 Circle of Fear. (Series; Anthology; NBC; 1973). A spinoff from Ghost Story that presents tales of the supernatural. The series, which produced 9 episodes, aired from January 5, 1973 to June 22, 1973.

Performers Include: Susan Day, Kim Darby, Janet Leigh, Rory Calhoun, Barry Nelson, Martin Sheen, Louise Sorel, Tab Hunter, Kathryn Hays, Bridget Hanley, Susan Oliver, David Soul, Barbara Stuart, Patty Duke, Neva Patterson, Frank Converse, Shirley Knight Hopkins.

1474 Circus. (Pilot; Drama; ABC; 8/3/87). A behind-the-scenes look at life in the circus world as seen through the experiences of Conrad and Leonora Simpson, the owners of The Traveling Simpson Circus. In the pilot episode, Scott, son of the owners, tries to persuade his father to join a syndicate and save the financially troubled circus. Other Regulars (circus performers): Crissy, Sean, Jennifer, Sam, Antonio (a clown), Clarence; Sean's mother and father (Maggie and Howard) and Jason, Antonio's grandson.

Cast: Tony Jay (Conrad Simpson), Margaret Hall (Leonora Simpson), Michael Phenici (Scott Simpson), Krista Tesreau (Crissy), Vincent Irizarry (Sean), Karen Kopins (Jennifer Paulin), Gerald Hiken (Sam Kokotchka), Richard Hamilton (Antonio Caruso), Thalmus Rasulala (Clarence), Patty Maloney (Maggie), Frank Delfino (Howard), Billy Sullivan (Jason Caruso). Guest Cast: Kurt Thomas (Josh), Michael Gates (Paul), Valorie Armstrong (Bobbie), Billy Bob Thornton (Billy Bob), May Quigley (Carole). Theme: "The Circus Theme" by Henry Mancini.

1475 Circus Boy. (Series; Adventure; NBC; ABC; 1956–1958). After purchasing a bankrupt circus, Big Tim Champion discovers and unofficially adopts Corky, an orphaned and homeless boy whose parents, the Flying Falcons, were killed in a tragic high wire act. Stories, set on the frontier of the latter half of the 19th century, concern the struggles endured by the traveling one-ring Champion Circus, and the adventures of Corky, water boy to Bimbo the elephant.

Alexander Philip Perkins is Joey's friend, who works as Joey the Clown; Pete is the roustabout who works for Tim; Circus Jack is Corky's friend; Little Tom and Hank Miller are circus performers; Swifty, works for Tim.

The series aired on NBC from September 23, 1956 to September 8, 1957; and on ABC from September 19, 1957 to September 11, 1958 (49 episodes aired).

Cast: Robert Lowery (Big Tim Champion), Mickey Braddock (Corky), Noah Beery, Jr. (Joey the Clown), Guinn Williams (Pete), Andy Clyde (Circus Jack), Billy Barty (Little Tom), Leo Gordon (Hank Miller), Eddie Marr (Circus Barker), Lucien Littlefield (Pete's Uncle Cyrus), Olin Howlin (Swifty). Note: Mickey Braddock later became known as Micky Dolenz, one of the members of the rock group the Monkees.

1476 Circus of the 21st Century. (Series; Variety; Syn.; 1979). The program features performances by unusual and sometimes dangerous circus acts. Arthur Weinthel and Ed Richardson are the producers.

Hosts: Sherisse Laurence, Cal Dodd. Music: Russ Little.

1477 Circus Time. (Series; Variety; ABC; 1956–1957). The series, hosted by ventriloquist Paul Winchell and his dummy friends Jerry Mahoney and Knucklehead Smiff, presents performances by circus variety acts.

Host: Paul Winchell. Regular: Betty Ann Grove. Music: Ralph Herman.

1478 The Cisco Kid. (Series; Western; Syn.; 1950–1956). The territory of New Mexico during the 1890s is the setting for a series about the Cisco Kid, "The Robin Hood of the Old West," and his sidekick, Pancho, as they help people in distress (and never accept any financial reward for their assistance). Based on the character created by O. Henry. Cisco rides a horse named Diablo; Pancho's horse is Loco. The series, which produced 156 episodes, was the first TV program to be filmed in color.

An announcer opens the show: "Here's adventure ... Here's romance ... Here's O. Henry's famous Robin Hood of the Old West ... The Cisco Kid."

Cast: Duncan Renaldo (The Cisco Kid), Leo Carrillo (Pancho).

1479 Cissie. (Unaired Pilot; Comedy; Produced for ABC in 1960). "Who's the darlin' of them thar hills? Who's the gal they claim solves all their problems and cures their ills? Cissie is her name" says the theme to this pilot about Cissie Shanks, a very pretty backwoods girl who lives with her Pa and brother, Petey, in the Ozarks.

Cissie can sing and shoot and the unsold series was to follow her adventures as she helps people in trouble. In the pilot episode, Cissie seeks a way to help the church earn enough money to buy an organ. Her plan: to sing a mournful song ("Poor Little Lambs") and convince a stubborn Army captain (Bradley) to be her "bleeter" (sing the "baa baa baa" part of the song).

Cast: Molly Bee (Cissie Shanks), Roscoe Ates (Pa Shanks), Robert Easton (Petey Shanks). Guest Cast: Gordon Jones (Captain Bradley), Alvy Moore (Lieutenant Cooper), Frank Gorshin (Soldier), Art Lewis (Sergeant), Jack Straw (Guard). Theme Vocal: "Cissie" by Molly Bee.

1480 The Citadel. (Series; Drama; PBS; 1983–1984). A British-produced series that charts the medical career of Andrew Manson, a dedicated young Scottish doctor who values truth and integrity above everything. The series, based on the 1937 novel by A.J. Cronin, begins in the Welsh mining town of Blaenelly in 1924, where Manson becomes an apprentice to Dr. Paige, an aging and bedridden physician. When Manson diagnosis an outbreak of typhoid, he becomes interested in respiratory diseases. The remaining episodes chronicle Manson's medical progress (which leads him to London and gives viewers a scathing look at the British medical profession) as well as his domestic life and conflicts.

Cast: Ben Cross (Dr. Andrew Manson), Claire Higgins (Christine Barlow), Gareth Thomas (Philip Denny), Tenniel Evans (Dr. Paige), Cynthia Grenville (Miss Paige), John Garvin (Dr. Bramwell), Olwen Griffith (Mrs. Bramwell), Sharon Morgan (Mrs. Williams), Richard Davies (Mr. Watkins), Janet Davies (Mrs. Watkins), Jack Walters (Thomas), Beryl Nesbitt (Annie Hughes), Lynn Langridge (Mrs. Howells), Michael Cochrane (Freddy Hamson), Myfanny Tylong (Susan), Raymond Bowers (Dr. Llewellyn), Ray Smith (Owen), Anne Mannion (Mary Boland), John Nettleton (Charles Irving), Nicholas Day (Paul Deedman).

1481 Cities Service Band of America. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1949–1950). The series, a simulcast of the radio program, features the forty-eight piece Band of America and performances by guest soloists. The series aired from October 17, 1949 to January 9, 1950.

Host: Ford Bond. Announcer: Ford Bond. Music Director: Paul Lavalle.

1482 Citizen Soldier. (Series; Anthology; Syn.; 1957). True stories of Americans in combat (during World War II and the Korean War). Dramas relate the lives of particular individuals on missions that enable a person to accomplish amazing feats of daring. The series, which produced 39 episodes, is also known as The Big Attack.

1483 The City. (Pilot; Drama; ABC; 5/17/71). The pilot film for the ABC series The Man and the City (1971–72). Albuquerque, New Mexico, is the setting for a pilot that follows the life of Mayor Thomas Jefferson Alcalá, a man who strays from the offices of city hall, mixes with the people, and struggles to solve their problems.

Cast: Anthony Quinn (Thomas Alcalá). Guest Cast: E.G. Marshall (Sheridan Hugotor), Robert Reed (Sealy Graham), Pat Hingle (Ira Groom), John Larch (Holland Yermo), Skye Aubrey (Sabina Menard), Peggy McCay (Mrs. Lockney), Lorraine Gray (Victoria Ulysses), Sue Ann Carpenter (La La Lajilla).

1484 The City. (Pilot; Crime Drama; NBC; 1/12/77). A proposed series about Matt Lewis and Brian Scott, Los Angeles police detectives. The pilot episode relates their efforts to apprehend a crazed man bent on murdering a famous country and western star.

Cast: Robert Forster (Lieutenant Matt Lewis), Don Johnson (Sergeant Brian Scott), Ward Costello (Captain Lloyd Decker), Paul Cavanis (Sergeant Burt Frescara). Guest Cast: Susan Sullivan (Carol Carter), Mark Hamill (Eugene Banks), Jimmy Dean (Wes Collins), Leslie Ackerman (Girl), Joby Baker (Mel Greenwall), Paul Fix (Jed Haynes), Felton Perry (Dr. Hank Cullen). Narrator: William Conrad.

1485 The City. (Pilot; Drama; ABC; 8/1/86). The life of a city as seen through the experiences of its mayor (Chet Luger), police chief (Otis Pittman), and the newspaper people who report its happenings. In the pilot episode, titled “A Citizen Named Rudy Broadbeck,” the mayor meets opposition from a plan that promises work for 1800 people by bringing in a foreign business.

Other Regulars: Chris Racine, city editor of the paper, the Sun Standard; Stewart Moffitt, the paper’s editor; Bear Werner, a reporter; Carey Brock, Luger’s assistant; and Mae Thayer, Luger’s secretary.

Cast: Chris Sarandon (Chet Luger), Season Hubley (Chris Racine), Georg Stanford Brown (Otis Pittman), Fritz Weaver (Stewart Moffitt), M. Emmet Walsh (Bear Werner), Gary Swanson (Carey Brock), Dana Delany (Mae Thayer). Guest Cast: Louis Giambalvo (Rudy Broadbeck), Mary Jackson (Gretchen Deitweiller), Thomas Bellin (Bartender).

1486 The City. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1990). Events in the life of Liz Gianni, a widow who is the manager of an unidentified city, as she struggles to cope with the problems at work (a lame brain staff) and at home (a 19-year-old daughter named Penny who just decided to move back home to sort out the numerous problems she has).

Other Regulars: Roger, the assistant city manager; Anna Maria, a clerk; Lance, the chief clerk; Wanda, Liz’s secretary; Gloria, the social work director; Ken, the deputy mayor; Freddie, the janitor; and Victor, the security guard.

Cast: Valerie Harper (Liz Gianni), Louanne Ponce (Penny Gianni), Todd Susman (Roger Barnett), Liz Torres (Anna Maria Batista), Sam Lloyd (Lance Armstrong), Tyra Ferrell (Wanda Jenkins), Mary Jo Keenen (Gloria Elgis), Stephen Lee (Ken Resnick), Hector Elias (Freddie), James Lorinz (Victor).

1487 The City. (Series; Serial; ABC; 1995–1997). A revamped version of Loving (see entry) that is set in the SoHo section of New York City (as opposed to its former fictional town of Corinth in Pennsylvania). While the series followed the lives of a group of people who live and work in the area, it was also unique in that it was filmed (giving it a movie look) as opposed to being videotaped (giving it a live look).

Cast: Morgan Fairchild (Sydney Chase), Jennifer Esposito (Connie Soleito), Michael Weatherly (Cooper Allen), Alimi Ballard (Frankie Hubbard), Judy Gold (Judy Silver), Lisa Lo Cicero (Jocelyn Roberts Brown), Nancy Addison Altman (Deborah Brewster), Jane Elliot (Tracy Quartermaine), Catherine Hickland (Tess Wilder), Debbi Morgan (Angela Baxter).

1488 City Detective. (Series; Crime Drama; Syn.; 1953). Bart Grant is a lieutenant who is representative of any police detective in any large city. He is tough but fair and often finds violence is not the answer to solving a case; questioning suspects and evaluating the evidence is more effective. Stories, set in a large metropolis, relate Bart’s case investigations.

Cast: Rod Cameron (Bart Grant).

1489 City Guys. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1997–2001). Chris Anderson and Jamal Grant are the City Guys—teenagers who attend Manhattan High School in New York City (the school is nicknamed Manny High). Chris is from a wealthy family and lives on Park Avenue; Jamal is from a middle class family; his father runs the after school hangout, The New York Diner. Stories follow events in the lives of Chris and Jamal and their friends during and after school (during school breaks the students hangout on the school’s roof, which has been turned into a mini recreation area).

Other Regulars: Karen Noble, the principal; and students Caitlin, Marissa, Alberto and Lionel. Alberto is the schemer of the group; Lionel, called “L-Train” is not-too-bright (he walks through central park and talks to the squirrels; has a hard time understanding what people say). Lionel played “The Dead Guy” in the movie “The Good, the Bad and the Dead.”

Chris and Jamal were the hosts of “The Chris and Jamal Show” on the school radio station, WMNE (109.7 FM). Caitlin and Cassidy, the class beauties, posed for fashion photos for Future Faces magazine.

Cast: Scott Whyte (Chris Anderson), Wesley Jonathan (Jamal Grant), Marissa Dyan (Cassidy Giuliani), Caitlin Mowrey (Dawn Tartikoff), Steve Daniel (Lionel Johnson), Dion Basco (Alberto Ramos), Marcella Lowery (Karen Noble).

1490 City Hospital. (Series; Drama; ABC; 1951). Incidents in the lives of the patients at City Hospital, a large metropolitan hospital that is representative of any large hospital in any city or town, as seen through the eyes of Dr. Barton Crane, a caring and dedicated medical director. The series aired from April 19, 1951 to November 3, 1951.

Cast: Melville Ruick (Dr. Barton Crane), Ann Burr (Dr. Kate Morrow). Announcer: John Cannon.

1491 City Kids. (Series; Children; ABC; 1993). Music, drama, comedy and segments featuring Muppet characters (Trish and Toya — who comment on the proceedings) are combined to relate the experiences of a group of diverse teenagers as they struggle to cope with the problems of adolescence. Angelica, Christian, John, Susan, Tito, Nikki and David are the teenagers.

Cast: Cyndi Cartagena (Angelica), Anne Ho (Susan), Diana Smith (Nikki), Brad Stoll (David), Hassan Elgendi (Christian), Renoly Santiago (Tito), Dule Hill (John), Cenophia Mitchell (Voice of Toya), Elizabeth Regan (Voice of Trish), Michelle Ingkavet (Muppet voice), Dash Mihok (Muppet voice).

1492 City of Angels. (Series; Crime Drama; NBC; 1976). The series is set in Los Angeles during the 1930s. Jake Axminster is a hard-boiled private detective who likes to do things his way. Stories follow his case investigations as he seeks to help his clients by staying just one step above the law. The title is derived from the fact that at the time Los Angeles was one of the least corrupt cities in the country.

Other Regulars: Marsha, Jake’s friend, the operator of a call girl service; Lester, his informant; Murray Quint, an L.A.P.D. lieutenant; Michael Brimm, Jake’s attorney; and Darla and Thelma, two of Marsha’s girls.

An announcer opens the show: “This is Los Angeles, one of the least corrupt cities in the United States — and its police force is one of the most honest and efficient in the world; but it wasn’t always so.”

Cast: Wayne Rogers (Jake Axminster), Elaine Joyce (Marsha), Clifton James (Lt. Murray Quint), Timmie Rogers (Lester), Philip Sterling (Michael Brimm), Janice Heiden (Darla), Veronica Hamel (Thelma).

1493 Civil Wars. (Series; Drama; ABC; 1991–1993). Guilford, Levinson and Howell, Attorneys-at-

Law, is a legal office located in Room 712 of an unidentified building in Manhattan. Sydney Guilford, Charles (“Charlie”) Howell and Eli Levinson are the lawyers who are also partners in a firm that handles divorce cases. “If it weren’t for the misery of others, we’d be out of a job,” says Charlie.

Sydney, a matrimonial lawyer, was born in Minnesota (where she lived at 213 Minnetaka Trail; she now lives in an apartment on East 74th Street in New York City). Sydney is beautiful and single, and constantly being hit upon (something she wishes would stop; she is divorced and not ready for another relationship). She carries a gun for protection; orders mineral water before each meal; and posed nude for a photo layout in New Yorker magazine.

Denise Iannello, the office receptionist, was born in Ozone Park, New Jersey. She went to P.S. 147 (elementary school) then Sacred Heart High School. She has a degree from the Katherine Gibbs Secretarial School and married Jeffrey Lissick, the office messenger, in 1992 (they live at 509 Central Park West). Jeffrey was born in Manhattan and went to Cooper Union High School; he is a poet and writer in his spare time.

Charlie was born in Howard Beach; his father was a police officer. Eli, a lawyer for 15 years, takes the downtown number 104 bus to work (he lives on 85th Street).

Harriet Guilford is Sydney’s glamorous mother; Charlie Howell, Sr. is Charlie’s father; Barry Snyder is Eli’s cousin. Donald Markowitz composed the “Civil Wars” theme.

Cast: Mariel Hemingway (Sydney Guilford), Peter Onorati (Charles Howell), Debi Mazar (Denise Iannello), David Marciano (Jeffrey Lissick), Constance Towers (Harriet Guilford), Eddie Barth (Charlie Howell, Sr.), Florence Stanley (Eli’s mother), Ken Lerner (Barry Snyder).

1494 Clarissa. (Pilot; Comedy; Nickelodeon; 10/1/94). An unsold attempt to continue the cable network series Clarissa Explains It All on CBS as Clarissa. Clarissa Darling is a very pretty teenage girl who reports on events in her life to the viewing audience. She lives at home with her parents, Janet and Marshall, and her obnoxious brother, Ferguson. Clarissa attends Thomas Tupper High School and writes for the school tabloid, The Thomas Tupper Times as well as for the local newspaper, the Dispatch.

For her last article before graduation, Clarissa writes about teens and malls. Her teacher submits it in a newspaper writing contest and Clarissa wins first prize — a year internship as a cub reporter for the Daily Post in New York City.

Clarissa thought she had her future set. She was going to attend the College of Cincinnati’s School of Journalism and is now faced with a dilemma — what to do? Take the internship and defer college or go to college and lose the internship? After much discussion with her family, her best friend Sam, and the audience, she chooses New York (where she will live with her Grandma Agnes and where the proposed series would follow her misadventures at the paper). The program ends with Clarissa's final words as she contemplates leaving home: "Maybe this isn't goodbye, maybe it's just a new beginning. You never know." (Sam was accepted into Vivington All Girls College — making him the first male student since enrollment was changed.)

Cast: Melissa Joan Hart (Clarissa Darling), Elizabeth Hess (Janet Darling), Joe O'Connor (Marshall Darling), Jason Zimbler (Ferguson Darling), Sean O'Neal (Sam Anders), Dan Desmond (Ross Rayburn; guest role).

1495 Clarissa Explains It All. (Series; Comedy; Nickelodeon; 1991–1994). "Hi, I'm Clarissa Darling. I didn't choose the name. I wanted Jade, but by that time it was too late already. Anything without a last name would have been better ... 'Madonna' would have been great, but no one asked me." These are the first words we hear from Clarissa Marie Darling, a very pretty 13-year-old girl who speaks directly to the audience "to explain all the things that go on around here."

Clarissa lives at 464 Shadow Lane in Baxter Beach and attends Thomas Tupper Jr. High School. Clarissa has "a security alligator" she calls Elvis (he lives in the "Heartbreak Hotel," a small plastic pool in her room; in the first episode of the second season, Clarissa mentions that she sent Elvis back to Florida when he got too big).

Clarissa's most embarrassing moment occurred when her obnoxious brother, Ferguson, brought her bra to school for "Show and Tell." Her most harrowing experience occurred on her seventh birthday when she stuck her head in the sour cream dip and almost drowned. The first thing Clarissa does when she gets home from school is head for the fridge. Her real first job was the kiddie attendant (dressed as Little Bo Peep) at the Baxter Beach Carnival.

Clarissa is a computer whiz and says, "I'm the abnormal child of two normal parents — unless, of course, you count Ferguson, my brother. Clarissa calls him "Ferg-Face" and lives for the day to get even with him for the previously mentioned "Show and Tell" incident. He also attends Tupper Junior High. "Living with my brother," Clarissa says, "is like having your hair set on fire, than having it put out with a sledge hammer."

One of Clarissa's favorite pastimes is devising ways to get rid of Ferguson. Ferguson is a Republican and vice president of the Dan Quayle Fan Club (there is no president — "You can't have an office higher than your idol"); he also risks punishment by sneaking down to the living room late at night to watch "Spine Tingley Theater" on television.

Marshall and Janet Darling, Clarissa's parents, have been married for 15 years. Marshall, who calls Clarissa "Sport," is an architect; Janet is head of the Children's Museum of Baxter Beach.

Sam, the neglected son of a sportswriter, is Clarissa's "best bud." Sam, who enters Clarissa's second floor bedroom by ladder, is her cohort in crime and shares most of her misadventures. He has three fish (Willie, Mookie and Babe) and a never-seen dog named Ohio. His father writes for the Dispatch.

"Clarissa Updates" alert viewers to what has happened; visual aids (special effects) help Clarissa illustrate her points as she reports to the audience. She fancies herself as a network newscaster and has only two words for Jane Pauley — "Watch out."

"This is Clarissa Darling again. Pretty hectic this time, huh? Who knows what'll happen next. See you then."

The last episode was the pilot for an unrealized CBS series called Clarissa (wherein Clarissa moves to New York City to become an intern on a newspaper called the Daily Post) See this title for further information.

Relatives: Heather MacRae (Janet's older sister, Mafalda. She lives in Canada and is a member of the Ladies' Moose Club, where she is called "Posey").
Theme: "Way Cool," vocal by Rachel Sweet.

Cast: Melissa Joan Hart (Clarissa Darling), Elizabeth Hess (Janet Darling), Joe O'Connor (Marshall Darling), Jason Zimbler (Ferguson Darling), Sean O'Neill (Sam).

1496 The Class. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 2006–2007). Ethan Haas is 28 years old and a graduate of Woodman Elementary School. While looking over his third grade class pictures (Class of 1986) he hits on a notion to surprise his fiancée, Joanne Whitman, whom he first met in the third grade, with a surprise party reuniting as many of their former classmates as possible.

He manages to find Holly Ellenbogen, a TV newscaster (anchors Channel 9's "Action News"), who is now married to Perry Pearl, and the mother of Samantha and Oprah (named by Perry for his idol, Oprah Winfrey); Kyle Lendo, is gay (a teacher at Pembridge Academy); Duncan Carmello, a construction worker who lives with his nagging mother (Tina); Lina Warbler and her twin sister Kat (opposites in nature). Kat is married to a former football player (Yonk Allen); Lana is desperately seeking a man; Richie Velch, a man who feels life is against him and has contemplated suicide several times; and Nicole Allen, a wealthy socialite.

Ethan and Joanne have a lot in common — they met in the third grade, both are pediatricians, both have Golden Retrievers as pets and their birthdays are one day apart. However, on the night of the party, Joanne feels Ethan has been smothering her with affection and calls off their engagement. Now, alone, Ethan finds a new group of friends in his former classmates, each of whom has stories to tell—and which the series explores on a weekly basis.

Cast: Jason Ritter (Ethan Haas), Lizzy Caplan (Kat Warbler), Heather Goldenhersh (Lina Warbler), Lucy Puncy (Holly Ellenbogen), Andra Anders (Nicole Allen), Jon Bernthal (Duncan Carmello), Sean Maquire (Kyle Lendo), Sam Harris (Perry Pearl), Karley Scott Collins (Oprah Pearl), Kasey Wilson (Joanne Whitman), Julie Halstrom (Tina Carmello), David Keith (Yonk Allen), Sara Gilbert (Fern).

1497 Class of '55. (Unaired Pilot; Anthology; Produced in 1972). Incidents in the lives of the 1955 graduating class of an unnamed college was the focal point of this unsold series. The chosen subject is first seen in a picture from the college yearbook. A dissolve is used to show what he or she looks like in 1972. The episode then relates incidents in that person's life from 1955 to 1972 with flashbacks being used to recall the early years. The pilot episode tells the story of Peter Giddings, a now successful New York attorney.

Cast: Alan Alda (Peter Giddings), Louise Lasser (Christina), Gary Conway (Jonathan Spaulding), Jamie Farr (Photographer).

1498 Class of '61. (Unaired Pilot; Drama; Produced for ABC in 1992). A proposed Civil War drama about Devin O'Neil and Shelby Preston, best friends who graduated from West Point in 1861, but who are now enemies: Devin is a Northerner and Shelby is from the South. The conflicts and tensions the two face is the focal point of the unsold series.

Cast: Clive Owen (Devin O'Neil), Dan Futterman (Shelby Preston), Joshua Lucas (George Armstrong Custer), Sophie Ward (Shannen O'Neil), Andre Braugher (Lucius), Christian Anholt (Terry O'Neil), Niall O'Brien ("Da" O'Neil).

1499 Class of 3000. (Series; Cartoon; Cartoon Network; 2006–2007). Sunny Bridges is a top draw musical star who has been honored with Grammy awards and the Nobel Prize. But all the glitz and glamour has made him miserable and he now longs for a time when he was just learning about music—and a lifestyle that was more rewarding to him. On impulse Sunny quits the music industry and returns to his hometown in Atlanta to become a music teacher at his old school (the Westley Performing Arts Academy). Sunny feels he can now give back to the community by teaching his students the joys of music. Other characters are: Lil' D, the drummer; Tamika, the harpist; Philly Phil, the bass player; Eddie, the horn player; Kim and Kam, the Asian twin percussionists; and Madison, the violinist.

Voice Cast: Andre Benjamin (Sunny Bridges), Jennifer Hale (Madison), Tom Kenny (Eddie), Janice Kawaye (Kam), Crystal Scales (Tamika), Jeff Bennett (Principal Luna), Small Fire (Lil'D), Phil LaMarr (Philly Phil).

1500 Classic Concentration. (Series; Game; NBC; 1987). A revised version of Concentration. Two players compete. One player selects two numbers from twenty-five numbers that are displayed on a game board. Two prizes are revealed. If they match, two puzzle parts are seen and the revealed prizes are placed on his side of the board. If they do not match, the prizes are returned to their numbers. The opponent then calls two numbers (the object is for players to remember what numbers conceal what identical prizes and reveal as many hidden puzzle parts as possible). The first player to identify the puzzle wins the game and what prizes he has accumulated on his side of the board.

Host: Alex Trebek. Model: Diana Taylor. Announcer: Gene Wood.

1501 The Claudette Colbert Show. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 9/30/58). Elizabeth Harper is a newly elected Congresswoman who, with her husband (Paul) and children (Susie and Billy), moves to Washington, D.C., to begin her new career. The pilot, also known as Welcome to Washington, relates Elizabeth's first days in the nation's capital.

Cast: Claudette Colbert (Elizabeth Harper), Leif Erickson (Paul Harper), Shelley Fabares (Susie Harper), Eric Anderson (Billy Harper). Guest Cast: Maudie Prickett (Miss Hopper). Also: Elvia Allman, Herb Butterfield, Malcolm Cassell, Herb Ellis, Tony Henning.

1502 Claudia: The Story of a Marriage. (Series; Comedy-Drama; NBC; 1952). Events in the lives of the newlywed Naughtons: David, an architect, and his naïve 18-year-old wife, Claudia. Particular focus is on Claudia as she struggles to "cut the apron strings" that bind her to her mother and adjust to marriage.

Julia Naughton is David's sister; Harley Naughton is David's brother. The series, which ran from January 6, 1952 to March 30, 1952, is based on the radio series of the same title.

Cast: Joan McCracken (Claudia Naughton), Hugh Riley (David Naughton), Margaret Wycherly (Claudia's Mother, Mrs. Brown), Faith Brook (Julia Naughton), Dora Sayers (Julia Naughton; later), Alex Clark (Harley Naughton), William Post, Jr. (Harley Naughton; later).

1503 Claws. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 8/10/91). Merv, Crystal and Petey are the "claws" of the title, three housecats who voice their thoughts to each other. They live with a woman named Amzie, who spoils them. Also residing in the house are Patty, Amzie's daughter, a nurse; Patty's husband, Phil, who feels the "claws," as he calls them, are out to get him; and Patty and Phil's children, Ashley and Mitch. The pilot episode relates the feline's attempts to adjust to Patty, her family and their dog, Bandit, when they are forced to move in with Amzie due to a temporary financial setback (the bank took their house).

Cast: Barbara Barrie (Amzie), Nana Visitor (Patty), Stephen Lee (Phil), Melissa Clayton (Ashley), Sean Bacon (Mitch).

1504 Clear Horizon. (Series; Serial; CBS; 1960–1962). The series, set at the Cape Canaveral Space Center in Florida, dramatizes the problems faced by the first astronauts and their courageous wives. Episodes focus in particular on Roy Selby, a Signal Corps Officer, and his wife, Ann.

Cast: Edward Kemmer (Roy Selby), Phyllis Avery (Ann Selby), Lee Meriwether (Nora), Richard Coogan (Newspaperman). Also: Rusty Lane, Eve McVeagh, James Carter, Ted Knight, Mary Jackson, Denise Alexander, Grace Albertson, Michael Cox.

1505 Cleghorne. (Series; Comedy; WB; 1995–1996). Carlson Productions is a struggling television commercials production company in New York's SoHo district. It is run by Ellen Carlson, a single mother (of Akeyla) whose life is compounded by the constant intrusion of her parents (Sidney and Lena) and her over protected sister, Victoria. Stories follow Ellen as she struggles to cope with life at work and at home (she lives in Apartment 8A; her parents and Victoria live next door in Apartment 8B).

Other Regulars: Brad Gordon, Ellen's partner; Tyrell Livingston, Ellen's ex-husband; Robert (a cab driver), Ellen's brother (a therapist).

Sidney is a U.S. Post Office letter carrier. When the post office cuts back on overtime, Sidney takes a second job as the building's doorman. Lena is a part time schoolteacher; Victoria is a hopeful model (although she eats too much and is not very bright). She has a doll named Tootie and a dog she calls Victor. Akeyla attends the French School of New York (which costs Ellen $10,000 a year in tuition); Harley is Ellie's boyfriend.

Cast: Ellen Cleghorne (Ellen Carlson), Cretia Monet (Akeyla Carlson), Garrett Morris (Sidney Carlson), Alaina Reed Hall (Lena Carlson), Sherri Shepherd (Victoria Carlson), Steve Bean (Bard Gordon), Richard Cummings, Jr. (Robert Carlson), Ronald William Lawrence (Harley), Michael Ralph (Tyrell Livingston).

1506 Cleopatra 2525. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 2000–2001). The theme tells us that "in the year 2525 three women keep hope alive, joining forces to reclaim the Earth, looking ahead to humankind's rebirth." The women are Sarge, Hel and Cleopatra, resistance fighters who are battling to reclaim the Earth's surface from the Baileys, diabolical, alien machines that have destroyed most of mankind and forced its survivors to live underground. The resistance fighters are led by the unseen, mysterious Voice and use weapons called Gauntlets (which attach to the arm and possess amazing power). The underground world is seemingly made up of a series of endless (and bottomless) shafts and travel to the various corridors is accomplished by special propulsion gear.

Hel, short for Helen, is the woman Voice has chosen to communicate with (through a voice implement behind Hel's left ear). Voice, who can only be heard by Hel, informs Hel of Bailey activities and issues instructions on how to stop them.

Sarge, real name Rose, was originally a soldier with the Black Watch Resistance Fighters. She is impulsive and plunges into violent confrontations with the enemy without thinking first. She has been wounded "and repaired" many times and if not for Cleopatra, would not be alive. When Sarge was a child, the Baileys were a symbol of the future and hope; now they are her deadly enemy.

Cleopatra, called Cleo, is a "thaw." She was born in 1980 and "thawed out" in the year 2525. Cleo, a graduate of Glendale Community College, worked as a stripper under the stage name Cleopatra (real name not revealed). At age 21, Cleo felt larger breasts would benefit her act and checked into a hospital for the necessary operation. During the enhancement process "something went wrong" and Cleo was cryogenically frozen "until a cure can be found." During a battle with the Baileys, Sarge is seriously wounded and requires a new kidney. She and Hel enter a medical unit and learn they can bargain for a kidney.

Hel trades her most treasured possession — a wood tube that holds a picture of her father to save Sarge's life (wood is said to be extremely rare and valuable). The lab has just acquired "some cryogenically frozen bodies from the 21st century" and Cleo's genetic makeup is found to be a perfect match for Sarge.

Following the operation Cleo awakens, looks down at her breasts and says "good work." Within seconds the lab is attacked by a Bailey and Cleo quickly learns of her fate. She is now a part of Sarge and becomes, at first, a reluctant member of their team.

Mauser was a robotic power reactor engineer who was captured by the Baileys and programmed to kill. Hel and Sarge captured him and reprogrammed him to assist Voice's Flagship Team (Hel and Sarge).

Creegan is the man responsible for the Earth's plight. His real name is George Bailey and 500 years ago he created the Baileys as environmental control units to help save the Earth (which was infected and dying "from a swarming plague of humanity"). In due time the Baileys became sophisticated and declared that humans were the problem and should be eliminated. Creegan, whose longevity is not explained, agreed with them.

The series was cancelled abruptly and an ending was not filmed. The last episode (3/9/01) was filmed as a season finale cliffhanger and showed the humans and Baileys in a fierce battle with the human forces waging rather successful attacks against the Baileys.

The program opens with these words (spoken by the Voice); "Five hundred years into the future she will enter a world where machines rule the Earth. Mankind has been driven underground and Cleopatra is about to discover there's no place like home." Joseph LoDuca composed the theme.

Cast: Jennifer Sky (Cleopatra), Victoria Pratt (Sarge), Gina Torres (Hel), Elizabeth Hawthorne (Voice), Patrick Kake (Mausier), Joel Tobeck (Creegan).

1507 Cleveland City Limits. (Unaired Pilot; Cartoon; Produced for ABC in 1991). A proposed but unsold series based on comedian Arsenio Hall's alter ego, a comical character named Chunky A (although not voiced by Hall).

Voice Cast: David Alan Grier (Chunky A), Esther Rolle (Grandma), Jason Willinger (Alex), Darryl Littleton (Spud), Helen Martin (Essie), Rodney Winfield (Darryl), Cree Summer (March), Darryl Sivad (Willie Tee), Rosie Perez (LaTieffah), Tisha Campbell (T.K.), John Amos (Reverend Dawson), Howard Hewitt (L'il Bit).

1508 Click. (Series; Anthology; Syn.; 1997). A device called a Clicker has been unleashed on society. When it is activated it sexually arouses men and women. Based on that premise, stories relate what happens to the people who stumble across the one and only Clicker that appears to exist. The series, presented as a comedy, has a recurring plot — that of a somewhat daft scientist, Dr. Fez, tracking the whereabouts of the Clicker with the ultimate goal of acquiring it for himself (which he does, on occasion, but always manages to lose it). The adult series is based on the comic book by Milo Manara.

Recurring Performers: John Lazar (as Dr. Fez), Holly Hollywood, Jacqueline Lovell, Julie Rivier, Gabriella Hall, Scott Coppola, Robert Donovan.

1509 Click. (Series; Game; Syn.; 1998). A game based on computers and the Internet. Six teenagers compete and are divided into three two-member teams (two girls; two boys; one girl, one boy). In round one each team receives 60 seconds to answer questions. A list of topics is shown and the teams use their mouse to click on the topics they wish to play. Money is awarded for each correct answer.

Round two follows the same basic format with increased money amounts for each correctly answered question. Round three, which again increases the money, finds each team stopping a randomly flashing cursor and having to answer questions on the topic it selects (for example, if it lands on Word Wizard, the team has to spell a misspelled word; if it lands on Web Site, the team has to guess the author — historical or celebrity — who wrote a fictitious e-mail). The team with the highest cash score wins the game and plays the bonus round. Here they must answer three questions correctly to win a pair of laptop computers.

Host: Ryan Seacrest. Co-Host-Announcer: Amber Bonasso.

1510 The Client. (Series; Drama; CBS; 1995–1996). Regina Love, called Reggie, is a defense attorney based in Atlanta, Georgia, and the head of a family issues related practice. She is also a recovering alcoholic, divorced from Jackson, and currently in a custody battle over her children (who have been taken away from her and placed in Jackson's custody). Despite her personal difficulties, Reggie is devoted to representing children who get into trouble with the law. Stories focus not only on the courtroom proceedings, but delve into the personal lives of the characters on trial and relate the circumstances that led them to seek legal help.

Roy Foltrigg is the Atlanta District Attorney; Momma Love is Reggie's mother; Harry Roosevelt is the featured Judge. The series, also known as John Grisham's The Client is based on that book.

Cast: JoBeth Williams (Regina Love), John Heard (Roy Foltrigg), Polly Holliday (Momma Love), Ossie Davis (Judge Harry Roosevelt), Burke Moses (Jackson Love), David Barry Gray (Clint McGuire).

1511 The Cliff Dwellers. (Pilot; Drama; ABC; 8/28/66). Events in the lives of a group of students who have remained friends since their graduation from Highcliff College in 1956. The grads now live in New York City and the pilot episode relates their efforts to remain together following the suicide of one of their members.

Cast: Hal Holbrook (Jonathan Murray), Carol Rossen (Annie Navasky), Bert Convy (Frank Saxon), Lee Allen (Jerry Wexler), Robert Hooks (Stacy Robbins), Beverlee McKinsey (Linda Murry), Terrence Logan (Teddy Saxton), James Beck (Reverend William Canning).

1512 The Cliff Edwards Show. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1949). Music, songs and homespun humor with comedian Cliff "Ukulele Ike" Edwards as the host. The series ran from May 23, 1949 to September 19, 1949. Franklin Heller is the producer.

Host: Cliff Edwards. Regular: Edith Fellows. Music: The Tony Mottola Trio.

1513 Cliffhangers. (Series; Adventure; NBC; 1979). The overall title for three 1940s movie-like adventure serials (each ending with a weekly cliffhanger): The Curse of Dracula, The Secret Empire and Stop Susan Williams. See individual titles for information.

An announcer opened the show: "It's time for Cliffhangers, three of your favorite serials, three brand new chapters bringing you the excitement of the chase, the lure of the exotic, the shock of the unexpected, the breathlessness of suspense. Cliffhangers, three chapters filled with menace, peril and romance; death-defying stunts and astonishing adventures into the unknown. And just when all looked helpless against impossible odds — the thrill of the rescue. Cliffhangers, bringing you tonight chapter four of Stop Susan Williams; chapter six of The Secret Empire and chapter nine of The Curse of Dracula—all tonight on Cliffhangers."

1514 Clifford the Big Red Dog. (Series; Cartoon; PBS; 2000–2003). Clifford, a big red dog (20 feet tall) is owned by Emily Elizabeth Howard, a young girl who lives on Birdwell Island. Stories not only follow Clifford's adventures with Emily, but with his dog friends, Cleo and T-Bone. Two mini stories air as a part of each episode and are linked together by Clifford reading a story about a dog named Speckle. Clifford presents "A Big Idea" airs at the end of each episode, followed by a short segment about one of the characters on the program.

Voice Cast: John Ritter (Clifford), Alyson Court (Emily), Kath Soucie (Emily's mother), Kel Mitchell (T-Bone), Cree Summer (Cleo), Frank Welker (Boomer), Phil LaMarr (Al, the brown dog), Tony Plana, Tom Estwood, Haunani Minn, Edie McClurg, Nick Jameson, Gary LeRoi Gray, James Carty, Debi Derryberry.

1515 The Cliffwood Avenue Kids. (Series; Comedy; Syn.; 1977). The comic adventures of Melora, Tara, Poindexter, Samwich, Jeremy, Sheldon and Andre, seven pre-teen children who are members of the Cliffwood Avenue Club, as they stumble upon and seek to solve crimes.

Cast: Melora Hardin (Melora), Tara Talbot (Tara), Poindexter (Himself), J. Brennan Smith (Samwich), Jeremy Lawrence (Jeremy), Kristopher Marquis (Sheldon), Andre Broadin (Andre), Dennis Patrick (Sergeant Pat O'Dennis, their friend).

1516 Climax! (Series; Anthology; CBS; 1954–1958). First-rate suspense dramas featuring top-name casts and well-written and directed stories. The series, which produced 165 episodes, aired from October 7, 1954 to June 26, 1958.

Hostess: Mary Costa. Host: William Lundigan. Announcer: Art Gilmore. Performers Include: Teresa Wright, Cesar Romero, Shelley Winters, Peter Lorre, Barry Nelson, Dorothy McGuire, Edmond O'Brien, Boris Karloff, Art Carney, Barbara Rush, Ricardo Montalban, Robert Young, Robert Preston, Pat O'Brien, Zsa Zsa Gabor, Rory Calhoun, Claudette Colbert, Louis Jourdan, Diana Linn, Barbara Britton, Peggy Ann Garner, John Forsythe, Cloris Leachman, John Carradine, Charlton Heston, Raymond Burr, Lloyd Bridges, Bonita Granville, Lee Marvin, Celeste Holm, Anne Bancroft, Patricia Crowley, Terry Moore, Beverly Garland, Rita Moreno, William Shatner, Vera Miles, Anne Francis, Angela Lansbury, June Lockhart, Brian Keith.

1517 Clinic on 18th Street. (Pilot; Crime Drama; NBC; 3/13/74). The pilot episode for a proposed series called Fraud about Abe Strayhorn, Lynn Carmichael and Gino Bardi, agents for M.F.C.P. (Major Frauds and Consumer Protection), a new legal department of the Los Angeles District Attorney's office that investigates frauds.

Cast: Ed Nelson (Abe Strayhorn), Sharon Gless (Lynn Carmichael), Frank Sinatra, Jr. (Gino Bardi). Guest Cast: Dick Haymes (Dr. Elroy Guntham), Kenneth Tobey (Don Bates), Virginia Vincent (Marian Fenton).

1518 Clippers. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 6/3/91). The setting is a St. Louis barber shop called Clippers. Mel is its owner and his misadventures with his family (his ex-wife, Donna; daughter, Renee; and nephew T.J.) and co-workers (Esther, the manicurist, and fellow barbers Teddy and Charlie) is the focal point of the unsold series. Other Regulars: Leonard, a customer.

Cast: John Amos (Mel), Cicely Tyson (Donna), A.J. Johnson (Renee), Larenz Tate (T.J.), Phyllis Yvonne Stickney (Esther), Phill Lewis (Charlie), Skabaka (Teddy), Arnold Stang (Leonard).

1519 Cloak of Mystery. (Series; Anthology; NBC; 1965). The program consists of dramas that were originally broadcast on The Alcoa Theater and The General Electric Theater. See these titles for information. The series ran from May 11, 1965 to August 8, 1965.

1520 The Clock. (Series; Anthology; CBS; ABC; 1949–1952). Live mystery and suspense dramas about people who attempt to overcome sudden crises before time runs out. Based on the radio program of the same title. The series ran on CBS from May 16, 1949 to August 31, 1951; and on ABC from October 17, 1951 to January 9, 1952. 77 episodes aired.

Performers Include: Arlene Francis, Richard Carlyle, Laura Weber, Cloris Leachman, John Newland, Leslie Nielsen, Julie Bennett, Raymond Massey, Helmut Dantine, Cara Williams, Gene Barry, Mildred Natwick, Charlton Heston, Arnold

Moss, Carole Mathews, Pamela Rivers, Elizabeth Ross, Beverly Roberts.

1521 Close Encounters. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 7/27/90). Eva Hill is the owner of Matchmaker, a San Francisco video dating service. Jess Hill is her daughter, a former office manager with the law firm of Clinton, Clanton, Conway and Twain, who now works as her mother's office manager. The unsold series was to focus on Eva and Jess's efforts to arrange love matches. Other Regulars: Camille, Eva's secretary; and Andrew and Joey, office workers. The pilot was originally called "Matchmaker."

Cast: Eva Gabor (Eva Hill), Hillary Bailey Smith (Jess Hill), Vernee Watson (Camille), Joel Brooks (Andrew), William Gallo (Joey). Guest Cast: Robin Thomas (David Albird), Lisa Baner (Andrea Griffin), Cindy Reigel (Betsy). Theme Vocal: "Something New" by Patti Linsky, Darryl Phinnessee.

1522 Close to Home. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 2005–2007). Annabeth Chase is a young woman who lives in suburbia (a seemingly quiet and peaceful community in Indianapolis). She is married to Jack and the mother of an infant daughter named Hayley (whom she is breast feeding but appears to be rarely at home to do so).

Annabeth is a Deputy Prosecuting Attorney for the D.A.'s office and is totally devoted to her job (she has a strong sense of justice and does her own investigating to get the evidence needed to put criminals behind bars. If she finds evidence is lacking or mainly circumstantial, she will opt for a plea bargain rather than risk losing a case altogether). Stories follow Annabeth and her team as they gather the evidence to bring criminal cases to successful conclusions.

Other Regulars: Maureen Scofield, the head of Annabeth's department; Steve Sharpe, Annabeth's supervisor; and investigators Danny Robel, Dwayne Adway and Barry Delacroix. Lou Drummer is the detective with the Indianapolis P.D. who assists them. In second season episodes, Ed Williams, a former New York prosecutor, becomes Annabeth's superior; Ray Blackwell and James Conlon are investigators; Doug Hellman is the defense lawyer; Ellen Rush is Lily's mother.

Cast: Jennifer Finnigan (Annabeth Chase), Christian Kane (Jack Chase), Kimberly Elise (Maureen Scofield), John Carroll Lynch (Steve Sharpe), Keith Macklin (Dwayne Adway), Edward Conna (Barry Delacroix), Barry Shabaka Henley (Det. Lou Drummer), Conor Dubin (Danny Robel), Cress Williams (Ed Williams), David James Elliott (James Conlon), Bruce Davison (Doug Hellman), Tracie Thomas (Det. Kat Miller), Meredith Baxter (Ellen Rush).

1523 The Closer. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1998). Jack McLearn is a fast-talking executive with the Denver-based advertising agency of McLaren and Associates. He is divorced from Claire but his 18-year-old daughter, Alex, lives with him.

Jack lives by his own credo: "Never let the client know you're human." Nothing intimidates Jack and he is so proficient at closing deals that he is called "The Closer."

Stories follow Jack as he does what he does best — close deals.

Other Regulars: Carl "Dobbs" Dobson, the creative director; Beverly Andolini, Jack's assistant; Bruno Verman, the copywriter; and Erica Hewitt, the accountant. Press release information lists the advertising agency as Colbum and Whitney Advertising.

Cast: Tom Selleck (Jack McLaren), Penelope Ann Miller (Erica Hewitt), Joanna Kerns (Claire McLaren), Edward Asner (Carl Dobson), Suzy Nakamura (Beverly Andolini), Hedy Burress (Alex McLaren).

1524 The Closer. (Series; Crime Drama; TNT; 2005–). Brenda Johnson is a woman with a very special talent — she is a first rate interrogator who can obtain confessions and close a case. She was trained by the FBI and first worked as a detective with the Atlanta Police Department before being recruited by the L.A.P.D. to head a department as a Deputy Police Chief. Brenda is tough-minded and the only female in a squad of male detectives (some of whom resent her for her quick move up the departmental ladder).

Brenda is totally focused on her career and does what she has to obtain a confession. She loves junk foods (especially donuts and chocolate bars) and has little time for a private or social life. In times of stress her will power tends to desert her. The series is quite realistic and focuses on Brenda and her team as they investigate crimes.

Other Regulars: Will Pope, the police chief; and detectives David Gabriel, Andy Flynn, Fritz Howard and Lt. Provenza.

Cast: Kyra Sedgwick (Brenda Johnson), J.K. Simmons (Chief Will Pope), Corey Reynolds (Sgt. David Gabriel), Anthony John Dennis (Det. Andy Flynn), Jon Tenney (Agent Fritz Howard), G.W. Bailey (Det. Lt. Provenza), Robert Gossett (Captain Taylor), Barry Corbin (Clay Johnson, Brenda's father), Frances Sternhagen (Willie Ray Johnson, Brenda's mother).

1525 Club Celebrity. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1950). A program of music, songs and light comedy hosted by singer Ginny Simms. The short-lived series ran from February 2, 1950 to March 29, 1950.

Hostess: Ginny Simms. Regulars: Jill Richards, Greg Mitchell, Betty Bligh, The Tune Tailors. Announcer: Harry Von Zell. Music: Dick Peterson.

1526 Club Embassy. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1952). An offbeat, quarter-hour program of humor that features the comic genius of Bob Elliott and Ray Goulding, better known as Bob and Ray.

Hosts: Bob Elliott, Ray Goulding. Regulars: Audrey Meadows, Julia Meade, Florian Zabač.

1527 Club Embassy. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1952–1953). A quarter-hour program of music and songs with singers Mindy Carson and Connie Russell as the hosts. The Embassy Quartet provided the music.

1528 Club Med. (Pilot; Drama; ABC; 1/19/86). An unsold series that was to explore the intimate lives of the people who vacation at the Club Med resort in Ixtapa, Mexico. The pilot episode relates incidents in the lives of three troubled people: Gilbert Anthony Page, an embittered English schoolteacher; Kate, an unhappily divorced American; and Simone La Fontaine, a pampered French girl seeking to live her own life. Regulars: O'Shea, the club owner; Sinbad, the entertainer; and Jody, Rick and Gypsy, club workers.

Cast: Jack Scalia (O'Shea), Sinbad (Himself), Janie Lee Burns (Jody), Bill Mager (Rick), Adam Mills (Gypsy). Guest Cast: Patrick Macnee (Gilbert Page), Linda Hamilton (Kate), Traci Lin (Simone La Fontaine), Timothy Williams (Danny), Jeff Kaake (Bart), Allison Argo (Allison).

1529 Club Oasis. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1957–1958). The program, set in a simulated nightclub (The Club Oasis), spotlights a different performer each week. When the series switched from a bi-weekly format (September 28, 1957 to May 24, 1958) to a weekly series (June 7, 1958 to September 6, 1958) bandleader Spike Jones was added as a host and the format changed to reflect music, songs (and music and song parodies) and comedy sketches. Buddy Cole, Tom Waldman and Dick Darley are the producers.

Host: Spike Jones. Regulars: Helen Grayco, Joyce Jameson, Billy Barty, Georgia Rock, Paul Joel, Gil Bernard, Carl Fortina. Announcer: Jack Narz. Music: The City Slickers.

1530 Club 7. (Series; Variety; ABC; 1948–1951). An informal musical variety show, that features new talent discoveries, that ran from August 12, 1948 to September 24, 1951.

Host: Johnny Thompson, Rony Bavaar. Music: Bobby Byrne.

1531 Club 60. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1957–1958). A live, color program of music and songs. The series is also known as The Howard Miller Show and ran from February 11, 1957 to September 27, 1957 (as Club 60) and September 30, 1957 to January 10, 1958 (as The Howard Miller Show).

Hosts: Don Sherwood, Dennis James, Howard Miller. Regulars: Mike Douglas, Nancy Wright, Barbara Becker, The Mellolarks, The Art Van Damme Quintet. Orchestra: Joseph Gallichio.

1532 Clubhouse. (Series; Drama; CBS; 2004). Peter Young is a teenager with a powerful dream — to become an assistant bat boy for a baseball team called the New York Empires. Peter is the son of Lynne, a single mother, and has a rebellious sister named Betsy. One day Peter applies for the job of bat boy — and lands his dream job. Now, not only does Peter have what he considers to be the ideal job, but he also becomes part of the Empire family, especially bonding with Lou Russo, the gruff but fair team owner, who becomes like a father figure to him, and Conrad Dean, the third baseman who becomes like an older brother. Rookie Carlos Tavares feels Peter is a good luck charm. Stories focus on Peter as he attempts to cope with life at home, at the strict Catholic high school he attends and at work.

Other Regulars: Mike, Peter's friend, and Jose Marquez, the head bat boy.

Cast: Jeremy Sumpter (Peter Young), Christopher Lloyd (Lou Russo), Mare Winningham (Lynne Young), Dean Cain (Conrad Dean), Kirsten Storms (Betsy Young), John Ortiz (Carlos Tavares), J.D. Pardo (Jose Marquez).

1533 The Clue Club. (Series; Cartoon; CBS; 1976–1979). Pepper, Larry, Dotty and D.D. are four professional teenage detectives who comprise the Clue Club, an organization that solves baffling crimes. They are assisted by Woofy and Wimpy, two dogs who are afraid of their own shadows. Stories relate their adventures as they attempt to solve crimes.

Voice Cast: Patricia Stich (Pepper), David Jolliffe (Larry), Bob Hastings (D.D.), Tara Talboy (Dotty), Paul Winchell (Woofy), Paul Winchell (Wimpy), John Stephenson (Sheriff Bagley).

1534 Clue You In. (Pilot; Children; Syn.; 7/85). Paula and Tripper are two amateur pre-teen sleuths who run a neighborhood detective agency called Clue You In, Inc. As Paula and Tripper attempt to solve crimes, they seek help from real life professionals (for example, scientists, policemen) who provide for them (and viewers) lessons concerning the aspects of the cases they are investigating.

Cast: Paula Hoffman (Paula), Tripper McCarthy (Tripper).

1535 Clueless. (Series; Comedy; ABC; UPN; 1996–1999). Cher Horowitz, Dionne "Dee" Davenport and Amber Princess Mariens are three beautiful teenage girls who attend the posh Bronson Alcott High School in fashionable Beverly Hills (it is the only school that has its own tanning saloon, which was donated by its most prestigious graduate, actor George Hamilton).

Cher, Dee and Amber grew up together. They are the daughters of very rich parents and attended the same grammar school (Rodeo Drive Elementary School). They each plan on attending Stanhope College. They are called “The Cool People” at school.

Cher lives at 2232 Karma Vista Drive with her widowed father, Mel (a lawyer who is writing a book called Hung Jury) and her older brother Josh. Cher has, as she says, “a passion for fashion,” but she also likes to spend money — much more than her allowance permits (Mel complains at times, but always pays the bill. He simply has a hard time refusing Cher anything). Cher has a special something about her, a sweetness that does attract boys, but not the kind of boy she is looking for (rich and capable of supporting her in the style she is accustomed to, although she also says that a boy of lesser means will fill the bill if it is true love). Cher is a very kind and generous person. She will devote her time to be a part of something she believes in and each year hosts the annual pool party for her father’s company (Mel Horowitz and Associates). She would make a splendid social hostess but she never purses that goal. While Cher always appears cheerful she does get depressed — “When I’m boyfriend challenged.”

Dee is a member of the National Honors Society and the closest to Cher. Dee’s passion for passion rivals those of Cher as she has to have what is hot no matter what the cost (to her doctor father). Dee is a bit more self-centered than Cher and strictly a high maintenance girl. She is looking to marry rich and never have to work for a living. Dee cannot stand not having a boyfriend (if she is without one for too long a time, “she sinks into a bottomless pit of bumming”). She knows that she is gorgeous (and believes she is physically perfect) and uses that aspect to get boys to do exactly what she wants, especially Murray Lawrence DuVal, the boy who worships “the dirt Dee grinds me into.” Murray believes he is a ladies’ man and tests the waters with others girls when he and Dee break up (which is often) but he always returns to her (and she accepts him)

Amber is the most outrageous of the three and her shenanigans have led her to believe “that people see me as a self-centered wacko.” Amber will not work. She has her father, Dr. Tripp Mariens, wrapped around her little finger and gets anything she wants from him (he calls her “Rose Petal,” “Candy Cane” and “Buttercup.” He is a pushover and simply cannot refuse Amber anything). Amber believes she is the most beautiful girl at school and only worthy of the best life has to offer. Cher best sums up Amber: “She adores herself, has supermodel delusions and is in love with herself.” Amber lives at 111 Jeanne Court. “If you date me, “ she says, “never buy me a gift with barn in the name.” She has red hair (“smoldering cherry, please, not red”) and is sometimes called “Big Red.” Amber, unlike Cher and Dee (who study to get good grades), Amber prefers talking on her cell phone while in class. She has a very difficult time studying and, to maintain her grade level, flirts with male teachers and flashes twenty-dollar bills to female teachers.

Stories follow events in the lives of Cher, Dee and Amber, three “typical” high school girls preparing for their lives as adults.

Cast: Rachel Blanchard (Cher Horowitz), Stacey Dash (Dee Davenport), Elisa Donovan (Amber Mariens), Michael Lerner (Mel Horowitz), Doug Sheehan (Mel Horowitz; later), Donald Adeosun Faison (Murray DeVal), Sean Holland (Sean Holiday, Murray’s friend), David Lascher (Josh Horowitz), Twink Kaplan (Miss Geist, a teacher), Wallace Shawn (Mr. Hall, a teacher), Julie Brown (Coach Millie Deemer), Linda Carlson (Ginger Mariens, Amber’s mother), Dwayne Hickman (Dr. Tripp Mariens).

1536 Clutch Cargo. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1959). The serialized adventures of Clutch Cargo, a world adventurer, and his companions Spinner (a young boy) and his dog Paddlefoot. The series, which produced 260 episodes is filmed in Syncro-Vox (a process that superimposes human lips reading the dialogue over the mouth of the character).

Voice Cast: Richard Cotting (Clutch Cargo), Margaret Kerry (Spinner), Margaret Kerry (Paddlefoot).

1537 Coach. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1989–1996). Hayden Fox, coach of the Minnesota State University Screaming Eagles football team, appeared on the covers of Sports Illustrated and Collegiate Sports Digest magazines. He was born in Spokane, Washington, and hosts The Hayden Fox Show, a sports program on KCCY-TV, Channel 6. Hayden won the Curley O’Brien Award for excellence in coaching. Hayden, famous for his “five alarm chili,” left Minnesota State in 1995 for a job in Orlando, Florida, coaching the Orlando Breakers, an NFL expansion team. His favorite Minnesota hangout is the Touchdown Club.

Hayden met Christine Armstrong at the United Charity Ball in 1986. They dated and married in 1992. Christine, born in Kentucky, attended St. Mary’s High School and the University of Kentucky. She hosted a sports show on Channel 6 in Minneapolis; when this was canceled, she did a live pilot called Magazine America, which was not picked up because of low ratings. She turned to morning TV and landed a co-host spot on Wake Up, Minneapolis. When she and Hayden moved to Florida, Christine became the host of Channel 5’s Coach’s Corner, a Breakers post-game show.

Luther Van Dam and Michael Fabian “Dauber”

Dybinski assist Hayden. Luther, an assistant coach for 38 years (22 years with Hayden), fears the day he has to coach. He was born in Danville, Illinois, and earns $32,000 a year. His parrot, Sunshine, eats Acme Bird Seed, and he has a dog named Quincy. He lives in a condo at Leisure Town (Florida) and had a one-week job coaching at Aberdeen College (he was fired for breaking NCAA rules).

Dauber, a staff advisor to incoming freshmen, was a student at Minnesota State for eight years (majoring in forestry) before becoming Hayden's assistant. Hayden nicknamed him "Dauber" because his moves on the field reminded him of the Dauber wasp. Dauber dated Judy Watkins, the women's basketball coach at Minnesota State (he called her "Sweet Stuff"; she called him "Honey").

Kelly Fox, Hayden's daughter from a previous marriage, majored in liberal arts at Minnesota State. She worked as a bartender at the Touchdown Club and married a student who left her to host a TV show called Buzzy the Beaver. Although she had aspirations to become an actress, Kelly left the series for a job in an unnamed ad agency in New York City.

Cast: Craig T. Nelson (Hayden Fox), Jerry Van Dyke (Luther Van Dam), Shelley Fabares (Christine Armstrong), Bill Fagerbakke (Dauber Dybinski), Clare Casey (Kelly Fox), Kenneth Kimmons (Howard Burleigh), Kris Kamm (Stuart Rosebrock), Pam Stone (Judy Watkins), Georgia Engel (Shirley Burleigh), Katherine Helmond (Doris Sherman).

1538 The Cobina Wright, Jr. Show. (Experimental; Variety; NBC; 6/16/39). A fifteen minute program of music, songs and chatter with singer Cobina Wright, Jr. (who appeared in "an evening gown held up by faith alone") as the host. The program was broadcast from the Gaumont British projection room in Manhattan.

Hostess: Cobina Wright, Jr.

1539 Cobra. (Series; Crime Drama; Syn.; 1993). Cobra is a secret organization housed in the Cassel Room of Avery Enterprises, a high tech company in Bay City, California, owned by billionaire Quentin Avery. Cobra has been set up to help victims of crime who have not been helped by the system. Cobra targets the criminals and brings them to justice.

Robert "Scandal" Jackson, Jr., is Cobra's chief operative. He is a former Navy SEAL and investigator for the NSI. He is skilled marksman and a martial arts expert. Robert drives a vintage A/C Cobra, a car that he helped his father restore when he was a teenager.

Robert works with Danielle LaPoint, Quentin Avery's niece. She has a Ph. D from Harvard University and turned to helping the victims of crime after she suffered a personal tragedy: her mother was killed by a thug. Dallas Cassel is a former senior FBI agent who is now the director of Cobra.

Cast: Michael Dudikoff (Robert Jackson, Jr.), Alison Hossack (Danielle LaPoint), James Tolkan (Dallas Cassel), Andrew Airlie (Robert Jackson, Sr.; flashbacks), Keegan Macintosh (Robert Jackson, Jr.; as a boy, flashbacks).

1540 Coconut Downs. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 8/6/91). The Van Buren Hotel next to the Coconut Downs Race Track is the setting for an unsold series about a family's efforts to cater to the unusual assortment of guests — from blue bloods and thoroughbreds to gamblers and mobsters — who frequent the hotel. Julie Van Buren, a widow with two children (Sarah and Eric) and her mother, Sally, run the establishment. Regular hotel patrons are Jimmy Dugan, a former race track announcer who originated the line "Hold all tickets"; and Cindy, a female jockey. In the pilot episode, Julie attempts to deal with 16-year-old Eric's attraction to an older woman (Cindy).

Cast: Robin Bartlett (Julie Van Buren), Carole Shelley (Sally Van Buren), Jaclyn Bernstein (Sarah Van Buren), Jayce Bartok (Eric Van Buren), David Huddleston (Jimmy Dugan), J.C. Brandy (Cindy). David Granopoulos (Tony Formica; guest role). Note: Rebecca Harrell, whose name appears on the press release, was originally cast as Sarah.

1541 Coconut Fred's Fruit Salad Island. (Series; Cartoon; WB; 2005–2006). Fruit Salad Island is a tiny, mythical island where all fruits not only grow but live and talk like humans. Although the island appears to be a tropical paradise, it is also the home to Fred, a nutty coconut with an optimistic outlook on life. Fred is full of ideas (all of which are impractical) and full of energy and stories follow the chaos that results as he goes about pursuing those impossible dreams.

Voice Cast: Rob Paulsen (Coconut Fred), Michael Donovan (Mr. Greenrind), Maria Bamford (Melody), Eric Bauza (Slide O'Peel), Tracey Moore (Bingo Cherry), Brian Drummond (Wedgie), David Kaye (Bunga Berry).

1542 Code Lyoko. (Series; Cartoon; Cartoon Network; 2003). Yumi Ishiyama, Odd Della Robia, Ulrich Stern and Jeremie Belpois are four students who discover Lyoko, a parallel universe located inside the school's super computer. They also discover Aelita, a humanoid in Lyoko who requires help — destroy XANA, a renegade computer program that if not stopped will destroy the earth. Aelita cannot leave her world; and the four students cannot enter her world (they are in touch with each other through the computer's scanners, which projects their images). Stories relate the group's efforts to deprogram XANA before it can achieve its goal.

Voice Cast: Sharon Mann (Aelita Hopper), Sharon Mann (Jeremie Belpois), Raphaelle Lubansu (Odd Della Robia), Matthew Geczy (Odd Della Robia; later), Barbara Scaff (Ulrich Stern), Mirabelle Kirkland (Yumi Ishiyama), Virtual Jimmy (XANA), Allan Wenger (Jean-Pierre Delmas), David Gasman (Jim Morales).

1543 Code Name: Diamond Head. (Pilot; Adventure; NBC; 5/3/77). Johnny Paul is a U.S. intelligence agent based on Diamond Head in Hawaii. His cover is that of a womanizing beachcomber and his attempts to solve crimes for the government is the focal point of the unsold series. He is assisted by Zulu and Tso-Tsing, the owner of the Dragon Lady Saloon, who is his information girl. In the pilot episode, Paul attempts to prevent Sean Donovan, a ruthless spy, from stealing the formula for a deadly gas.

Cast: Roy Thinnex (Johnny Paul), France Nuyen (Tso-Tsing), Zulu (Zulu). Guest Cast: Ian McShane (Sean Donovan), Ward Costello (Captain McIntosh), Don Knight (H.K. Muldoon), Eric Braeden (Ernest Graeber), Dennis Patrick (Commander Yarnell), Alex Henteloff (Edward Sherman), Harry Endo (Dr. En-Ping).

1544 Code Name: Eternity. (Series; Science Fiction; Syn.; 2000). Ethaniel is an alien on a mission to save the Earth from one of his kind who is attempting to shift the planet's axis and turn the Earth into a new home for his people so they can live and breathe without making themselves appear human. Ethaniel is assisted by Dr. Laura Keating, an Earth scientist and stories follow their efforts to convince others of their mission and prevent the destruction of Earth.

Cast: Cameron Bancroft (Ethaniel), Ingrid Kave-laars (Dr. Laura Keating), Oliver Gruner (Tawrens), Gordon Currie (Dent), Andrew Gillies (David Banning), Joseph Baldwin (Byder).

1545 Code Name: Foxfire. (Series; Crime Drama; NBC; 1985). In 1981 Elizabeth ("Liz") Towne, a beautiful CIA agent (code name, Foxfire), and a man named Sam Rawlings (David Rasche) had planned on marriage, a house, and kids. Unknown to Liz, Sam was using her to smuggle counterfeit pesos into Mexico. When Liz found out, Sam shot her (in the shoulder) and left her in a hotel room with five million counterfeit pesos. The government knew Liz was innocent — but clearing her would mean the lives of a dozen people. They let her take the fall (Liz knew before she took the job that "if you are ever caught or captured, the government will disavow any knowledge of your existence"). Liz, file number 48412, is forcibly retired from the CIA and sentenced to Cell Block D of the Women's Federal Prison in Blue Lake, New York.

On January 27, 1985, Liz is freed. She takes a cheap apartment in the Flatbush section of Brooklyn, New York, and is surprised by a visit from Lawrence ("Larry") Hutchins, a CIA agent who is the brother of the president of the United States. "Liz," Larry says, "the president has been thinking about you. We want you to come back to work for us." Larry explains that Sam has stolen a guided missile to destroy a Russian satellite and start a global star war.

Liz is intrigued: "1,560 days in prison and I had only one thing on my mind — and that was to get Sam Rawlings." Liz is first given a place to live — Larry's luxurious Park Avenue penthouse; Larry now stays with his eccentric mother, "who lives in the 80s [somewhere on East 80th Street in Manhattan] with lots of cats." Liz is also given Phillips, the Hutchins' ever-faithful butler, to care for her ("He's been with the family for 200 years," Larry says).

In mid-Manhattan, Liz seeks an old friend named "Crazy" Jack O'Toole. She finds his taxi cab (number 1022) but learns from its new operator, his pretty daughter, Danni O'Toole, that Jack has died. Liz tells Danni that she needs a driver and that Jack was the best. Intrigued by Liz, Danni drives her from midtown to lower Manhattan and back within four minutes (because of traffic, the trip usually takes 30 minutes). "You're as crazy as your old man," Liz says. "Cloak and dagger is my life," responds Danni — and she gets the job.

Maggie Bryan, a gorgeous con artist and thief, was born in Detroit, and when Liz last saw her, she was doing three to six for grand larceny. Fate brings them together at a gambling club. "I want you to come in with me. I need someone with your skills," Liz tells her. "I've run too long in the gutter," responds Maggie. "I don't know if I can walk on the sidewalk.... Baby, you're asking for trouble."

The unique team is formed, and they successfully complete their first assignment together (stopping Sam). At the end of the assignment, Larry approaches Liz and gives her a pardon: "It's on the same stationery Ford used for Nixon." Theme: "Foxfire," by Joe Sample.

Cast: Joanna Cassidy (Elizabeth Towne), Robin Johnson (Danni O'Toole), Sheryl Lee Ralph (Maggie Bryan), John McCook (Larry Hutchins), Henry Jones (Phillips).

1546 Code Name: Heraclitus. (Pilot; Adventure; NBC; 1/4/67). A proposed series about Frank G. Wheatley, a U.S. government agent who operates under the code name Heraclitus. In the pilot episode, Wheatley attempts to discover if a former agent's wife is secretly running a clearing house for Cold War secrets. Originally broadcast as a segment of The Bob Hope Chrysler Theater." It is also syndicated, with additional footage added, as a 100-minute TV movie.

Cast: Stanley Baker (Frank G. Wheatley). Guest Cast: Leslie Nielsen (Fryer), Jack Weston (Gerberman), Sheree North (Sally), Kurt Kasznar (Constantine), Signe Hasso (Lydia Constantine), Malachi Throne (Hoffman), Ricardo Montalban (Janacek).

1547 The Code of Jonathan West. (Pilot; Western; CBS; 4/17/60). The post-Civil War story of Jonathan West, a fighting man with principles, who is called "Preach" as he roams throughout the West. The pilot episode is set in Arkansas in 1865 and relates West's efforts to help a man falsely accused of murder. Broadcast as "Aftermath" on G.E. Theater (The Code of Jonathan West was the proposed series title).

Cast: Fess Parker (Jonathan West). Guest Cast: James Best (Hardy Couter), Sammy Jackson (Gallot), John Hembreck (Gordon), Gina Gillespie (Girl), William Phipps (Hicks), Stephen Joyce (Murray).

1548 Code 1. (Pilot; Reality; ABC; 5/1/89). A proposed but unsold series that was to profile people who risk their lives to save others (generally people trapped in life and death situations). Michael Bacon provides the musical background.

Host: Pernell Roberts.

1549 Code R. (Series; Adventure; CBS; 1977). Channel Island is a small coastal community in southern California. On a typical day, the community has about 17,000 tourists, and 500–700 boats abound in the marina. In order to deal with potential problems, Emergency Services (E.S.) has been formed—a specialized organization that combines police, fire and ocean rescue services into the Code R rescue force.

Walt Robinson is the police chief (his code is "Police One"); Rick Wilson, the fire chief, has the code "Fire One"; George Baker is the chief lifeguard and captain of the boat Lifeguard I (also his radio code); Suzy coordinates operations from Island Dispatch, their base on Channel Island. When everything is coordinated, Suzy uses the code "Approach Code R." Their hangout is the Lighthouse Bar, which is owned by Harry.

Barbara Robinson is Walt's wife, and Bobby Robinson is Walt's son, the head of Firehouse Two—a kid fire department. Lee Holdridge composed the theme.

Cast: Tom Simcox (Walt Robinson), James Houghton (Rick Wilson), Martin Kove (George Baker), Suzanne Reed (Suzy), Ben Davidson (Ted Milbank), W.T. Zacha (Harry; Lighthouse Bar owner), Joan Freeman (Barbara Robinson), Ronnie Rundle (Bobby Robinson), Tom Williams (Dr. Southerland).

1550 Code Red. (Series; Drama; ABC; 1981–1982). Joseph ("Joe") Rorchek is captain of Battalion number 6, Station Number 1, of the Los Angeles Fire Department (L.A.F.D.). His sons, firefighters Ted and Chris, are also with Battalion Number 6; Ted's code is "Charlie 10," and Chris, who pilots a helicopter, is "Fire Chopper 5." Joe's young, adopted son, Danny Blake, is a Junior Fire Explorer.

Hayley Green is the city's first female firefighter (she works with Joe's battalion). Ann is Joe's wife; she and Joe live at 9876 Temple Lane. Danny has a dog named Sophie. In the pilot episode (9/20/81), Joe is an arson investigator with Task Force 5, Station number 9 of the L.A.F.D.

Cast: Lorne Greene (Capt. Joe Rorchek), Julie Adams (Ann Rorchek), Andrew Stevens (Ted Rorchek), Martina Deignan (Hayley Green), Sam J. Jones (Chris Rorchek), Jack Lindine (Firefighter Al Martelli), Joe Maross (Fire Captain Mike Benton), Adam Rich (Danny Blake). Theme Song: "Code Red" by Morton Stevens.

1551 Code 3. (Series; Crime Drama; Syn.; 1956). The series relates the work of police officers as seen through the eyes of George Barnett, the assistant sheriff of Los Angeles County, California (the title refers to police emergencies). Eugene W. Biscailuz, the actual sheriff of Los Angeles County, appears to summarize each episode (39 episodes were produced).

Cast: Richard Travis (Sheriff Barnett), Denver Pyle (Sergeant Murchison), Fred Wynn (Lt. Bill Hollis), Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz (Himself).

1552 Code 3. (Unaired Pilot; Drama; Produced in 1972). A proposed series about the doctors and nurses attached to the Los Angeles Code 3 Emergency Medicine Division of the U.C.L.A. Medical Center.

Cast: Jon Cypher (Dr. John Ogden), Craig Littler (Dr. Pat Loeb), Jim McMullen (Dr. Dan Brewster), Barbara Barrie (Nurse Marge Nelson), Jean Fowler (Nurse Ann Linden), Anne Archer (Julie).

1553 Code 3. (Series; Reality; Fox; 1991–1992). A reality series that uses actual film and videotape footage to profile the life-saving efforts of emergency rescue teams from across the U.S.

Host: Gil Gerard.

1554 Codename: Kids Next Door. (Series; Cartoon; Cartoon Network; 2002). The Kids Next Door is the codename for five ten-year-olds who have formed a secret club to fight the rules implemented by adults so they can have fun. Since this is an animated series, great liberties have been taken. The kids consider each hurdle (rule to fight) a secret mission and they incorporate an array of homemade gadgets to accomplish their goals. Nigel Uno is the group leader (Codename Numbuh One). His teammates are Hoagie P. Gilliam (Numbuh Two), Kiki Sanban (Numbuh Three), Wallabee Beatles (Numbuh Four) and Abigail Lincoln (Numbuh Five). Adults they consider “enemies” include Grandma Stuffum, Stickybeard, Nightbrace and Mr. Fibb.

Voice Cast: Benjamin Diskin (Nigel Uno), Benjamin Diskin (Hoagie P. Gilliam), Lauren Tom (Kiki Sanban), Dee Bradley Baker (Wallabee Beatles), Cree Summer (Abigail Lincoln), Cree Summer (Computer voice), Frank Welker (Bus driver).

1555 Coed Fever. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 2/4/79). Baxter University in Connecticut is an exclusive Eastern girls school that has recently gone coed. The unsold series was to focus on the antics of the girls (Sandi, Melba, Hope, Elizabeth and Maria) and the boys (Tucker, Doug and Gobo) who must now share the same dorm house. Mrs. Selby is the house mother.

Cast: Heather Thomas (Sandi), Jillian Kesner (Melba), Tracey Phillips (Hope), Cathryn O’Neil (Elizabeth), Alexa Kenin (Maria), David Keith (Tucker Davis), Christopher S. Nelson (Doug), Michael Pasternak (Gobo), Jane Rose (Mrs. Selby). Theme (“Dear Mom and Dad”): Henry Mancini, Marilyn and Alan Bergman.

1556 Coffey Break. (Series; Women; Syn.; 1980). A short ninety-second insert series (used to fill time) of wardrobe advice for women.

Hostess: Francine Coffey.

1557 Coke Time with Eddie Fisher. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1953–1957). A long-running quarter-hour program of music and songs with singer Eddie Fisher as the host. The series, sponsored by Coca-Cola, ran from April 29, 1953 to February 20, 1957.

Host: Eddie Fisher. Regulars: Jaye P. Morgan, Don Ameche, Fred Robbins, The Echos. Orchestra: Axel Stordahl, Carl Hoff.

1558 The Colbys. (Series; Drama; ABC; 1985–1987). A spin-off from Dynasty that relates the intrigues surrounding members of the Colbys, a family born to wealth and power, and their attempts to maintain their position in the financial world. The prime time soap opera, originally titled Dynasty II: The Colbys, focuses in particular Jason Colby, a powerful businessman who heads Colby Enterprises; Jeff Colby, Jason’s nephew; Fallon, Jeff’s ex-wife; Sable, Jason’s devious wife; Constance, Jason’s older sister; Zachary Powers, Jason’s business rival; and Garrett Boydstrom, Jason’s lawyer.

Cast: Charlton Heston (Jason Colby), Barbara Stanwyck (Constance Colby), John James (Jeff Colby), Stephanie Beacham (Sable Scott Colby), Tracy Scoggins (Monica Colby), Maxwell Caulfield (Miles Colby), Claire Yarlett (Bliss Colby), Katharine Ross (Francesca Scott Colby), Emma Samms (Fallon Carrington Colby), Ken Howard (Garrett Boydston), Ricardo Montalban (Zachary Powers), Joseph Campanella (Hutch Corrigan), Charles Van Eman (Sean McAllister), Ashley Mutruc (L.B.), June Lockhart (Sylvia Heywood), Kim Morgan Green (Channing Colby), James Houghton (Cash Cassidy), Adrian Paul (Kolya Rostov), Shanna Reed (Adrienne Cassidy), Michael Parks (Hoyt Parker/Philip Colby), John Dehner (Billy Erskine), Nana Visitor (Georgianna Sinclair), Anna Levine (Anna Rostov), Judson Scott (Sascha Malenkow).

1559 Cold Case. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 2003–). Cases that lead to dead ends and are considered unsolvable are labeled “Cold Cases” and placed in the morgues of police stations. One police woman, Philadelphia detective Lily Rush, has taken an interest in such cases and has vowed to see that these people see closure just as the victims of active cases do.

Lily was born in Philadelphia and was fascinated by the crime shows on television and it is that exposure that led her to becoming a police officer. She believes cold cases are more important “because they have been waiting longer.” She also prefers these cases to current crimes “because I don’t like bastards getting away with murder.” She feels that new evidence, coupled with the cold case file, holds the answer to solving a crime. It is that enthusiasm that drives her and eventually allows her to close the file on a previously unsolved case. Lily is a very beautiful woman and maintains a strictly private life. She enjoys evenings at home, an occasional date but reveals little else about herself.

For Lily and her team, a piece of evidence emerges from the past that requires going back in time — to the cold case files and finding witnesses who are still alive. Lily feels that even though her cold cases will not generate headlines, they deserve (they need) to be solved. Then and now footage is used to highlight Lily’s case investigations.

Other Regulars: Detectives John Stillman, Nick Vera, Chris Lassing and Scott Valens; Captain Will Jeffries; and Christine Rush, Lily’s younger sister.

Cast: Kathryn Morris (Lily Rush), John Finn (John Stillman), Jeremy Ratchford (Nick Vera), Justin Chambers (Chris Lassing), Thom Barry (Will Jeffries), Nicki Lynn Aycox (Christina Rush).

1560 Cold Case Files. (Series; Reality; A&E; 1999). A reality series that inspired the CBS series Cold Case (see entry). Here, however, the cases are real — and graphic (and sometimes unsettling). The program examines cold case files (cases unable to be solved at the time of their happening) or those that were unsolved but have recently been brought to a conclusion. Each case is recreated through the files of the police and/or FBI officers who worked on the case at the time. Graphic, uncensored crime scene photos are shown as well as the procedures used by law enforcement officials to investigate the case. If the case was solved, the program tells viewers how; if not, all the evidence that is known is presented in the hope that someone may possess the information needed to close the file in a cold case.

Host: Bill Kurtis. Narrator: Anthony Green.

1561 Cold Squad. (Series; Crime Drama; Syn.; 2006). Cold Squad is a Providence wide task force in Canada (specifically, a unit of the Vancouver Police Department) that reopens cases to investigate mostly short-term unsolved murders. Particular attention is on Ali McCormick, a homicide sergeant who is considered the best cop on the force. Ali was hand picked as one of the original members of the squad (cast changes over the years left her as the only member to appear in the entire series, which ran in Canada from 1998–2005). Ali is stubborn and impulsive and puts her soul into building the Cold Squad. Stories follow Ali and her team as they attempt to close the files on cold cases.

Cast: Julie Stewart (Sgt. Ali McCormick), Michael Hogan (Det. Tony Logozzo), Jill Teed (Laura), Linda Ko (Christine Liu), Peter Wingfield (Insp. Simon Ross), Adrian Holmes (Dr. Ben Wilson), Joy Tanner (Jill Stone), Crystal Buble (Billie), Chilton Crane (Wanda Harper).

1562 Cold Turkey. (Series; Reality; PAX; 2004–2005). A health oriented reality series that urges viewers to stop smoking. Here a group of smokers are placed together in a home where they are to live together like a family and help each other quit smoking cold turkey. While there are no specific challenges, the cameras capture the situations that occur as the subjects try to give up an addictive habit.

Host: Dr. Will Kirby.

1563 The Colgate Comedy Hour. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1950–1955). A big-budget series of comedy spectaculars spotlighting the talents of its top name guests. The host listing represents the principal actors who have appeared on the series. The series, sponsored by the Colgate–Palmolive Company, ran from September 10, 1950 to December 25, 1955.

Hosts: Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis, Donald O'Connor, Eddie Cantor, Bob Hope, Bud Abbott and Lou Costello, Jimmy Durante, Gordon MacRae, Robert Paige, Judy Canova, Danny Thomas. Orchestra: Al Goodman, Dick Stabile, Charles Dent.

1564 The Colgate Comedy Hour. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 5/11/67). The Colgate Comedy Hour was a big-budgeted series that featured top name guest stars appearing in skits written especially for them. It was sponsored by Colgate and aired on NBC from 1950 to 1955 (see prior entry). This pilot was an unsuccessful attempt by Colgate to revive the series by spotlighting the top names in show business.

Hosts: Mel Brooks, Carl Reiner. Guests: Edie Adams, Kaye Ballard, Phyllis Diller, Nanette Fabray, Bob Hope, Dick Martin, Bob Newhart, Dan Rowan, Nipsey Russell, Dick Shawn, Allan Sherman.

1565 Colgate Theater. (Pilot; Anthology; NBC; 1958). The overall title for seven unsold pilot films. For information, see the following titles: Adventures of a Model, The Claudette Colbert Show, Fountain of Youth, If You Knew Tomorrow, McCreedy's Woman, Strange Counsel and Tonight in Havana.

1566 Coliseum. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1967). The program presents circus variety acts from around the world. Guests host the weekly program which ran from January 26, 1967 to June 1, 1967. Joseph Cates is the producer.

Orchestra: Bernard Green, Robert Stolz.

1567 The College Bowl. (Series; Variety; ABC; 1950–1951). The program spotlights the performances of the talented, youthful clientele of The College Bowl, the campus soda fountain of a small-town university. The series, which ran from October 2, 1950 to March 26, 1951, is also known as The Chico Marx Show.

Host: Chico Marx. Regulars: Andy Williams, Paula Huston, Evelyn Ward, Jimmy Brock, Tommy Morton, Lee Lindsay, Stanley Prager, Barbara Ruick, Joan Holloway, Vickie Barrett, Kenny Buffert.

1568 College Bowl '87. (Series; Game; Disney; 1987). A revised version of G.E. College Bowl (see entry). Two four-member teams of college students compete. A toss up round begins the game. The host asks a question. The first team to buzz in receives a chance to answer. Five points are scored if a correct answer is given (if not, the opposing team receives a chance to answer). The team at play can win 25 bonus points if they can answer all parts of a four-point bonus question. The game continues in this manner (each round begins with the toss up question) with the highest scoring team being declared the winner.

Host: Dick Cavett. Announcer: Jim McKrell.

1569 College Hill. (Series; Reality; BET; 2004). A Real World type of reality series that places students from typically black colleges and universities together in an exotic locale to interact with each other. As cameras follow their every move, the series reveals the friendships and disputes that occur as eight strangers get to know — and love each other. The series is produced by Kenneth “Babyface” Edmonds and Tracey E. Edmonds.

1570 College Mad House. (Series; Game; Syn.; 1989). Two four-member college teams compete in messy games of brains and brawn that is a copy of the children's series Fun House. Each round involves either a question or a stunt and the outcome is the same: if a player fails to answer a question or perform a stunt he or she is slimmed, doused with water or hit with food (like pies). Correct responses or performances of stunts earn the team points. The team with the highest score wins the chance to enter the College Mad House and run through an obstacle course for prizes. Each player receives 30 seconds and wins prizes (or cash) based on how well he or she performs in the house.

Host: Greg Kinnear. Announcer: Beau Weaver. Referees: Richard MacGeorge, Donna Wilson.

1571 Colonel Bleep. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1957). Zero Zero Island is a mythical place between Greenwich Meantime and the Equator. It is here that Colonel Bleep, an alien from the planet Futura, and his deputies, Squeek (a cowboy) and Scratch (a caveman) have established a base of operations. They are members of the Futura Police Department and their assignment is to protect the Earth from evil. Stories relate Colonel Bleep (who acquires his powers from atomic energy) as he Squeek and Scratch battle intergalactic villains (such as Dr. Destructo, "The Master Criminal of the Universe," the Black Knight and Captain Patch, the pirate).

Narrator: Noah Tyler.

1572 Colonel Humphrey Flack. (Series; Comedy; DuMont; 1953–1954). The alternate title for The Adventures of Colonel Flack, which aired from October 7, 1953 to July 2, 1954. See this title for information.

1573 Colonel Humphrey J. Flack. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 5/31/53). The pilot film for the 1953–1954 DuMont series The Adventures of Colonel Flack. The story of a retired Army colonel (Humphrey J. Flack) turned modern-day Robin Hood who helps people in need. Based on the Saturday Evening Post character created by Everett Castle.

Cast: Frank McHugh (Colonel Humphrey J. Flack), Constance Ford (Girl). Note: Alan Mowbray played the colonel in the series.

1574 Colonel March of Scotland Yard. (Series; Crime Drama; Syn.; 1957). Perceval Clovis Adelbart March is a British police colonel who heads Department D-3 (the Office of Queen's Complaints) of the New Scotland Yard. Colonel March, an expert swordsman, uses deductive reasoning (never violence) to solve crimes. He served with the British Royal Army during World War II and wears a black patch over his left eye (a war injury). He became a police inspector after his discharge and is interested in interplanetary flight. He lives in an apartment at 611 Stable Mews.

Colonel March often works with Inspector Gordon of the French Surete. March says of his good friend, "Gordon spends two-thirds of his life at the gambling table and one-third in bed." Philip Green composed the "Colonel March Theme."

Cast: Boris Karloff (Col. Perceval March), Ewan Roberts (Inspector Ames), Eric Pohlmann (Inspector Gordon).

1575 Colonel Stoopnagle's Stoop. (Live Test Program; Comedy; CBS; 6/23/48). The front stoop of a home owned by a Southern colonel named Lemuel Stoopnagle is the setting for a program of conversation between the colonel and the friends and neighbors who just happen to drop by.

Cast: F. Chase Taylor (Lemuel Q. Stoopnagle). Also: Dave Ballard, Richard Collier, Eda Heine-mann, Gregg Mason.

1576 Color Him Dead. (Pilot; Crime Drama; Syn.; 4/80). A proposed series about Suzy and Arden Buckley, a wife and husband team of private detectives based in London, England. In the pilot episode, Suzy, an American, and Arden, her British husband, are hired to find the reason and culprit behind the attempted murder of David Garick, a wealthy and powerful industrialist. Suzy and Arden Buckley: Private Investigators was the proposed series title.

Cast: Gayle Hunnicutt (Suzy Buckley), Stephen Rea (Arden Buckley), Arthur White (Charlie Wilson, their informant). Guest Cast: Peter Dyneley (David Garick), Christopher Cazenove (Henry Garick), Frances Bennett (Leonora Gale), Sally Miles (Karen Standard), Oliver Smith (Marcus), Jean Kent (Mrs. Garick).

1577 Colorado C.I. (Pilot; Crime Drama; CBS; 5/26/78). Mark and Peter Gunnison are brothers and members of the Criminal Investigation Unit of the Colorado Police Department, an elite state wide force of plainclothes detectives who specialize in criminal cases that cross city and county lines. The unsold series was to relate their undercover assignments. In the pilot episode, Mark and Peter seek to crack a multi-million dollar real estate swindle. Other Regulars: Hoyt, their father; and Chris, the lab technician.

Cast: John Elerick (Mark Gunnison), Marshall Colt (Pete Gunnison), L.Q. Jones (Hoyt Gunnison), Lorette Spang (Chris Morrison). Guest Cast: Christine Belford (Carla Winters), David Hedison (David Royce), William Lucking (Niles), Christine DeLisle (Piper Collins), Van Williams (Captain Cochran), John Karlen (Kessler), Lou Frizzell (Frank Bannock), Joan Roberts (Operator).

1578 Colossus. (Pilot; Drama; NBC; 3/12/63). California's San Fernando Valley in 1912 is the setting for a proposed series about Eric Tegman and John Michael Reardon, immigrants struggling to begin new lives in America. In the pilot episode, Tegman and Reardon encounter the wrath of Dan Corbett, a native son who objects to their purchasing some property he sought for his ranch. Broadcast on The Dick Powell Show.

Cast: William Shatner (Eric Tegman), Robert Brown (John Reardon), Frank Overton (Dan Corbett), Geraldine Brooks (Ruth Corbett), Joan Staley (Kathy Quire). Host: Robert Taylor.

1579 Colt .45. (Series; Western; ABC; 1957–1960). Christopher (“Chris”) Colt likes a “kick” now and then—but he’d rather get it from gunpowder, not liquor. People say Chris is “just a peddler.” Chris says, “I’m the best peddler the company has, and I’m selling the fastest gun in the world.”

The gun is “The Peacemaker,” a single action army revolver, caliber .45. The company is the Colt Patent Firearms Company of Hartford, Connecticut. Chris, the nephew of Sam Colt (the inventor of the Colt revolver in 1873), is a former army captain who is now an undercover agent for the U.S. government. He poses as a gun salesman to carry out dangerous assignments for his superiors.

“The six shooter,” as some people call it, has a high hammer spur that makes for lightning cocking and a finely milled butt “that seems to jump in the hand.” The Colt sells for $20, but there is a six month wait once it is ordered (Chris won’t sell his demonstrators—“I’d be out of business if I did that”). Chris carries a U.S. Marshal’s badge under his shirtsleeve (he has the authority to deputize in the field) and wears the company’s symbol, a bucking colt (in a silver circle), on his black gun belt.

In episode 45 (“Alias Mr. Howard,” 12/6/59), Donald May was brought on as Sam Colt, Jr., Chris’s cousin, to replace Wayne Preston when he walked off the set over a dispute with the producers. (No reason was given in the stories as to why Sam, an undercover agent also, was brought on or what happened to Chris.) They appeared together in episode 54, “Phantom Trail” (3/13/60).

Cast: Wayne Preston (Chris Colt), Donald May (Sam Colt, Jr.).

1580 The Coltons. (Pilot; Adventure; ABC; 10/14/91). A proposed but unsold series about the Coltons, a family of bounty hunters (Mama Colton and her sons Frank, Jesse and Billy). In the pilot episode, which aired on MacGyver, the Coltons search for a young woman who is the lone witness to a murder in Los Angeles’s Chinatown.

Cast: Della Reese (Mama Colton), Cleavon Little (Frank Colton), Richard Lawson (Jesse Colton), Cuba Gooding (Billy Colton). Guest Cast: Irene Yah-Ling Sun (Loretta), Christopher Thomas (Fielding), Akiko Morison (Patricia), Richard Gant (Denmark).

1581 The Columbia Television Workshop. (Experimental; Variety; CBS; 6/16/44). A revamped version of The CBS Studio Show with a new producer at the helm and new segments. The program consisted of news with Ev Holles; Margaret Miller interviewing Sergeant George Baker of Yank magazine; “Opinions on Trial,” a courtroom presentation in which topical issues were debated before a judge (Gregory Abbott) with the home audience acting as the jury (responding via mail). Here, for 45 minutes, the topic of discontinuing double features at theaters in the New York Metropolitan area was presented like a trial with both sides presenting their cases (John Lee, Mrs. Richard B. Brown, Victor Mayes and Mrs. Wayne B. Martin, Jr. were in favor of discontinuing them; John McManus, Boz Crowther and Martin Levine were the opposing counsel). The show concluded with variety performances by Ray Morgan, Consuela Flowerton, Marilyn Arden and the DeMarco Sisters.

Cast: Gregory Abbott, Marilyn Arden, The DeMarco Sisters, Consuela Flowerton, Ev Holles, Ray Morgan.

1582 Columbo. (Series; Crime Drama; NBC; ABC; 1971–1991). Lieutenant Columbo is a homicide detective with the Hollenbeck Division of the L.A.P.D., later Central Division. Columbo rarely uses his gun and attributes his becoming a police officer to the James Cagney, Humphrey Bogart and Edward G. Robinson gangster pictures of the 1930s and ’40s that he watched as a child. They instilled in him a passion for justice.

Columbo, no first name mentioned, is rarely in his office due to his field investigations. He often neglects his yearly required firing range tests and when it comes to dancing he says, “I have two left feet.” He is married to the never seen Mrs. Columbo; her first name is Kate, but he refers to her as “the wife”; and has a dog, a basset hound, called both Fang and Dog—“He’s a dog, so we call him Dog.”

Columbo drives a rundown 1952 Peugeot. He has badge number 436 and wears a rumpled raincoat virtually every place he goes. He is a master of deductive reasoning but claims to have a bad memory. He slouches, is always early for appointments and studies peoples’ faces for their reactions to his questions.

He is fascinated by the evidence he finds and is persistent. Little insignificant details bother him and he will not rest until he can tie up every loose end.

He believes there is something wrong with him because “I seem to bother people and make them nervous,” especially when he approaches a suspect and says, “Oh, just one more thing.” Columbo taught a criminology course at Fremont College and has a bad habit of smoking cigars. When people complain about the cigar smoke he says, “I know it’s a filthy habit and that I should have given it up years ago. Even my wife complains and sends me out to the porch.” He also claims that his wife prefers that he smoke a pipe “but that’s too much for me to carry around.”

Columbo appears to always be working on a case. He would like Saturday nights off but “I can’t take it off if duty calls.” He enjoys a hot cup of tea and hot, strong black coffee — “no decaf for me.”

Bert Freed first played the Columbo character on the “Enough Rope” episode of The Chevy Mystery Show (NBC, July 31, 1960). Peter Falk first played the role in the TV movie, Prescription Murder (NBC, February 20, 1968). The series was first broadcast as part of The NBC Mystery Movie, then The ABC Mystery Movie. Mike Post and Pete Carpenter composed the ABC theme version; Dave Grusin, Billy Goldenberg and Henry Mancini composed the various NBC versions of the theme. See also Kate Loves a Mystery and Mrs. Columbo.

Cast: Peter Falk (Lt. Columbo).

1583 The Columnist. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 6/28/85). A proposed but unsold series about Barrie Shepherd, a beautiful, unmarried columnist who covers the single scene for her newspaper column, “The Single Life.”

Cast: Jan Smithers (Barrie Shepherd), Derek McGrath (John), Mary Long (Doris), Joanna Schellenberg (Leslie), Sean Thompson (Rocky).

1584 Combat. (Series; Drama; ABC; 1962–1967). The series, set in Europe during World War II, follows the lives of the men of K Company (Second Platoon of the United States Infantry) from their D-Day landing to victory one year later.

Cast: Rick Jason (Lt. Gil Hanley), Vic Morrow (Sgt. Chip Saunders), Jack Hogan (Pvt. William G. “Wildman” Kirby), Pierre Jalbert (Caje; a squad member), Dick Peabody (Private Littlejohn), Tom Lowell (Pvt. Billy Nelson), Conlan Carter (Doc; a squad member), Stephen Rogers (Doc; later), Shecky Greene (Private Braddock), William Bryant (Private McCall), Fletcher Fist (Private Brockmeyer). Theme Music: “Combat: by Leonard Rosenman.

1585 Combat Sergeant. (Series; Drama; ABC; 1956). The series, set during World War II, details the Allied Forces battle against Rommel’s Afrika Korps. The series ran from June 29, 1956 to September 27, 1956.

Cast: Michael Thomas (Sergeant Nelson), Mara Corday (WAC Corporal Harbin), Cliff Clark (General Harrison), Frank Marlowe (Corporal Murphy).

1586 Come a Running. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 9/16/63). The story of David Latham, a young doctor struggling to establish a practice in the country, having just relocated from the city. In the pilot episode, David helps a midwife (Aunt Josie) deliver the baby of Alice Watson when a complication sets in.

Cast: Linden Chiles (Dr. David Latham), Ruth Hussey (Edie Ramsey, his nurse). Guest Cast: Sherry Jackson (Alice Watson), Andrew Prine (Ernie Watson), Reta Shaw (Aunt Josie), Alan Hale, Jr. (David Watson), Stu Erwin (Pharmacist), Susan Seaforth (Susan). Theme Vocal (“Come a Running”): Bing Crosby.

1587 Come to Papa. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 2004). Tom Papa is a columnist for The Daily Times, is a small newspaper in New Jersey. He is married to Karen, a veterinarian who works at the Animal Hospital. Stories follow Tom’s ups and downs as he struggles to cope with life.

Tom doesn’t believe in having too many friends — “That’s why I only wave to the neighbors.” He has a facial expression that makes some people believe he is slow or mentally challenged. Tom also believes he is a great comedy writer and faxes jokes to The Tonight Show hoping to get a job. Karen is incapable of lying and always has to tell the truth — no matter how much trouble she gets Tom into.

Other Regulars: Judah, Tom’s friend (who lives off an $8,000 a year trust fund); Mr. Blevin, Tom’s boss; and the seven-foot tall mailman Tom is having a difficult time befriending (the character has no name).

Cast: Tom Papa (Himself), Jennifer Aspen (Karen Papa), Steve Carell (Blevin), Robert Patrick Benedict (Judah), John Salley (Mailman), Dan Lauria (Bob Papa; Tom’s father), Mimi Kennedy (Barb Papa; Tom’s mother).

1588 Comeback. (Series; Documentary; Syn.; 1979). Dramatic profiles of people, who after reaching the zenith of their careers, fell from those heights and then fought their way back to the top.

Host: James Whitmore.

1589 The Comeback. (Series; Comedy; HBO; 2005). Valerie Cherish is a glamorous actress who starred on the TV series I’m It!. The show earned her a TV Guide cover and a People’s Choice Award. However, after the series was cancelled, Valerie faded into the background and did only occasional TV appearances. Now, ten years later, Valerie is desperate to revive her career and become one of the stars of Room and Bored, a comedy about four singles living in a condo. To get the ball rolling Valerie agrees to become the subject of The Comeback, a reality TV series that follows her every move. Stories follow Valerie’s misadventures as she attempts to live her life under the watchful eye of a TV camera.

Other Regulars: Jane, the reality show producer who finds Valerie’s need to control each take a personal trauma; Mickey, Valerie’s hairdresser; Mark, Valerie's husband (whom she calls "Marky Mark, My Love Ball") is a businessman trying to understand Valerie's desire and accepts the camera invasion of their home; Tom, a writer for Room and Bored; Juna, the blonde star of Room and Bored (she loved I'm It! and calls Valerie her hero); Shayne, Chris and Jesse, Juna's other roommates; and Esperanza, Valerie's housekeeper.

Cast: Lisa Kudrow (Valerie Cherish), Damian Young (Mark), Robert Michael Morris (Mickey), Laura Silverman (Jane), Robert Bagnell (Tom Peterman), Malin Akerman (Juna Millken), Kimberly Kevon Williams (Shayne), Jason Olive (Jesse), Lillian Hurst (Esperanza).

1590 The Comeback Story. (Series; Interview; ABC; 1953–1954). The lives of one-time famous personalities are recalled through interviews and filmed highlights of the subject's career.

Host: George Jessel. Hostess: Arlene Francis.

1591 Comedians. (Experimental; Opera; NBC; 8/26/45). A television adaptation of the opera, Pagliacci, by Leoncavallo. Normally for TV, operas at this time were translated and sung in English. A musicians' strike prevented this and recordings of the opera by Beniamino Gigli and the La Scala Opera Stars were used (the cast's voices were synchronized with the recordings).

Cast: Lyle Bettger, Marjorie Hess, William Horne, Val Petaechl.

1592 Comedy Break. (Series; Comedy; Syn.; 1985). The program features skits, performances by guest comics and clips from vintage television series (edited for laughs).

Hosts: Mack Dryden, Jamie Alcroft. Regulars: Bobbie Eakes, Julia Farey, Rebecca Ryan, Heidi Sterner, Cece Worrall, Suzy Zarow.

1593 Comedy Capers. (Series; Comedy; Syn.; 1960). The series features silent theatrical comedy shorts of the 1920s with added sound effects and a musical score. Stars include Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy, Ben Turpin, Will Rogers and Charlie Chaplin.

1594 The Comedy Factory. (Series; Anthology; ABC; 1985). The overall title for a group of pilot films produced for the 1984–1985 season. See the following titles for information: The Columnist, Fast Food, It Takes Two, Max and Me and The Second Time Around.

1595 Comedy News. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 11/28/72). A proposed but unsold series of sketches that satirize newscasters and news programs.

Cast: Bob and Ray (Bob Elliott and Ray Goulding), Andrea Duncan, Fannie Flagg, Stan Freberg, Anthony Holland, Kenneth Mars, Marian Mercer, Richard Pryor, Mort Sahl.

1596 Comedy News II. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 7/4/73). A second program of skits that satirize newscasters and news programs. See the prior title also.

Cast: Andrea Duncan, Stephanie Edwards, Fannie Flagg, Anthony Holland, Dick Gregory, Kenneth Mars, Marian Mercer, Joan Rivers, Mort Sahl.

1597 Comedy of Horrors. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 9/1/81). Beacon House is a small honeymoon hotel hexed by a haunt that is located along a scenic but desolate stretch of the North Carolina coast. People whose pasts are tainted with evil will not find Beacon House a peaceful shelter; only the innocent and pure of heart will find safety. In the pilot episode, Michael and Pamela Soames, a newlywed couple, choose Beacon House as their remote honeymoon site — and get more than they bargained for when they encounter the ghostly female apparition that haunts Beacon House. (Michael, who murdered his first wife, plans to murder Pamela also; unknown to Michael, the female spirit is protecting Pamela.)

Regulars: The Host; Molly, the chamber maid; Danny, the bellhop; Eileen, the hotel manager; Gregory, the handyman; and Dr. Landreaux, a hotel resident.

Cast: Patrick Macnee (The Host), Deborah Harmon (Molly Sutherland), Walter Olkewicz (Danny Logan), Jo de Winter (Eileen Mannings), Vincent Schiavelli (Gregory), Richard Roat (Dr. Landreaux), Ivana Moore (The Female Apparition). Guest Cast: Kip Niven (Michael Soames), Patricia Conwell (Pamela Soames).

1598 Comedy Playhouse. (Pilot; CBS; 8/1/71 to 9/5/71). The overall title for four unsold comedy pilot films proposed for the 1971–72 season. For information, see the following titles: Eddie, Elke, My Wives Jane and Shepherd's Flock.

1599 Comedy Preview. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 8/19/70 to 9/2/70). A series of three pilot films that were produced for ABC's fall 1970–71 season. See the following titles for information: The Murdocks and the McClays, Prudence and the Chief and Three for Tahiti.

1600 The Comedy Shop. (Series; Comedy; Syn.; 1978). The program features performances by guest comics, name celebrities and up-and-coming performers.

Host: Norm Crosby.

1601 Comedy Spot. (Pilot; CBS; 1960). The overall title for seven pilot films (six of which were produced for CBS. Welcome to Washington, which was broadcast on 8/23/60 was a repeat of an NBC pilot that was originally called The Claudette Colbert Show and telecast on 9/30/58). See also the following titles: Coogan's Reward, Full Speed

Anywhere, Head of the Family, Meet the Girls, The Sky's the Limit and Tom, Dick and Harry.

1602 Comedy Spotlight. (Series; Anthology; CBS; 1961). The program features rebroadcasts of comedy episodes that were originally telecast on The General Electric Theater. See this title for information. The series aired from July 25, 1961 to September 19, 1961.

1603 Comedy Tonight. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1970). A proposed series of sketches that satirize everyday life with host Robert Klein and a group of up and coming comedians as the program's regulars.

Host: Robert Klein. Regulars: Marty Barris, Peter Boyle, Barbara Cason, Macintyre Dixon, Bonnie Enten, Judy Graubart, Laura Greene, Madeline Kahn, Jerry Lacy, Lynne Lipton. Orchestra: Jack Elliott and Allyn Ferguson.

1604 The Comedy Zone. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1984). The program, which draws on the talents of local New York playwrights, presents "unique, adult-oriented" comedy sketches.

Regulars: Bob Gunton, Anne Lane, Mark Linn-Baker, Joe Mantegna, Audrie J. Neenan, Bill Randolph. Guest Performers: Steve Allen, Dabney Coleman, Jane Curtin, Bob Dishy, Patty Duke, Bonnie Franklin, Mariette Hartley, Judd Hirsch, Robert Klein, Steve Landesberg, Zohra Lambert, Andrea Martin, Penny Marshall. Announcer: Dick Tufeld. Orchestra: John Simon.

1605 Comic Strip Live. (Series; Comedy; Fox; 1991). Established, as well as up-and-coming comedians perform their material in front of a live studio audience. Taped at the Laugh Factory in Hollywood.

Host: Wayne Cotter.

1606 Comics Unleashed. (Series; Comedy; Syn.; 2006). The program opens with a comic monologue by host Byron Allen followed by an introduction of the three guest comics who will be joining him on stage. A general interview session follows with each of the comics responding to questions with humorous answers (sort of like a round table discussion with comical responses to everything).

Host: Byron Allen.

1607 Coming of Age. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1988–1989). Dr. Edward ("Ed") Pepper, a retired chiropractor, his wife, Trudie, and retired airline pilot Richard ("Dick") Hale and his wife, Ginny, reside at the Dunes Retirement Resort in Arizona. Also living at the resort is Pauline Spencer, a gorgeous seductress who is nicknamed "The Black Widow" (for her knack of marrying and losing husbands).

Ed and Trudie live in Condo 7-C, Dick and Ginny in Condo 9-C. Ed is president of the community's Duffer's Club, Lapidary Club and the Floating Tanner's Club; Dick heads the Residents' Association. Trudie and Ginny are members of the Theater Club. Because of limited backdrops at the Dunes (owned by the Walnut Corporation), only the plays Oklahoma and Paint Your Wagon can be staged. Stories follow events in the lives of the four senior citizens.

Cindy Krainik is Dick and Ginny's married daughter; Tom Krainik is Cindy's husband; and Nancy and Scott are their children. Red Pepper is Ed's brother. Doc Severinsen and his orchestra perform the theme, "Coming of Age."

Cast: Alan Young (Dr. Edward Pepper), Glynis Johns (Trudie Pepper), Paul Dooley (Dick Hale), Phyllis Newman (Ginny Hale), Ruta Lee (Pauline Spencer), Nada Despotovich (Cindy Krainik), Jim Dougham (Tom Krainik), Jarrett Lennon (Scott Krainik), Van Johnson (Red Pepper).

1608 Coming On! (Series; Variety; Disney; 1983). The program, taped at various college campuses across the country, features performances by amateur talent (singers, dancers, comedians, etc.).

Host: Jimmy Aleck.

1609 Coming to America. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 7/4/89). When the King of Zamunda feels that his brother, Prince Tariq, is irresponsible and an embarrassment to his country, he sends him to America to attend college and learn American ways. In the pilot episode, which establishes Tariq in Queens, New York, and living with the Mackey family, Tariq attempts to earn spending money after squandering his monthly allowance. Based on the 1988 feature film of the same title.

Other Regulars: Omar, Tariq's assistant; Carl Mackey, the head of the family responsible for Tariq (Carl owns a diner); and Pauline and Phyllis, Carl's wife and daughter.

Cast: Tommy Davidson (Prince Tariq), Paul Bates (Omar), John Hancock (Carl Mackey), Hattie Winston (Pauline Mackey), Parish Vaughan (Phyllis Mackey). Guest Cast: Eddie Murphy (The King), Frances MacGuire (Amy), Darnell Rose (Steve).

1610 Command 5. (Pilot; Crime Drama; ABC; 8/5/85). Blair Morgan, a retired naval intelligence chief; Chris Winslow, a police psychiatrist; J.D. Smith, a racing car driver; Jack Coburn, a former street cop; and Nick Kowalski, a demolitions expert, are Command 5, a special squad of outcast police officers designed to battle crime in a manner as unorthodox as the criminals themselves. In the pilot episode, the team comes to the aid of a small town being held hostage to exchange for convicts.

Cast: Stephen Parr (Blair Morgan), Sonja Smits (Chris Winslow), William Russ (J.D. Smith), Wings

Hauser (Jack Coburn), John Matuszak (Nick Kowalski). Guest Cast: Gregory Sierra (Bill), Bill Forsythe (Hawk), Robert F. Lyons (Vince), Bruce Abbott (Deke Williams), Lynn Benesch (Anne Bryan), Dennis Bowen (Larry Webster), Katherine Boyer (Lisa Bryan), Hank Garrett (Captain Ed Draper), Greg Finley (Colonel Henderson), Peter Jason (Warden Bryan), Ted Leplatt (Tony Jones), Morgan Lofting (Nancy Danelli).

1611 Command Performance. (Unaired Pilot; Anthology; Produced for ABC in 1956). A proposed weekly series of 90-minute dramas for ABC. Although the program never aired, its pilot episode, Ride the High Iron, was released as a theatrical film in 1956. Ride the High Iron, filmed in April–May 1956, tells the story of a public relations man (Hugo Danielchik) and his attempts to keep the sensational thrill-hunting escapades of a Park Avenue debutante (Elsie Vanders) out of the headlines.

Cast: Don Taylor (Hugo Danielchik), Sally Forrest (Elsie Vanders), Raymond Burr (Ziggy Moline), Otto Waldis (Yanuse Danielchik), Nestor Paiva (Yardboss), Mae Clarke (Mrs. Vanders), Maurice Marsca (Maurice), Robert Johnson (Porter).

1612 Commander in Chief. (Series; Drama; ABC; 2005–2006). Mackenzie Allen is a very special woman. She is not only the mother of teenage twins (Rebecca and Horace) and a six-year-old (Amy) but she is the first female president of the United States.

Mackenzie is an Independent and finds few allies in Washington. At times she finds it difficult to balance her home life with her political life.

Nathan Templeton, the Speaker of the House, is her biggest stumbling block. He holds a totally different political philosophy and often oppose her every move.

Rod Calloway, Mackenzie's husband, is also struggling to adjust to a new position as First Gentleman. Rebecca is rebellious "with raging hormones"; Horace has become the most popular kid in school; Amy is struggling to understand her mother's new role as President.

Other Regulars: Jim Gardner, the Chief of Staff; Kelly Ludlow, the Press Secretary; and Richard McDonald, Mackenzie's media advisor.

Cast: Geena Davis (Mackenzie Allen), Kyle Secor (Rod Calloway), Caitlin Wachs (Rebecca Calloway), Matt Lanter (Horace Calloway), Jasmine Anthony (Amy Calloway), Donald Sutherland (Nathan Templeton), Harry Lennix (Jim Gardner), Ever Carradine (Kelly Ludlow), Mark-Paul Gosselaar (Richard McDonald).

1613 Commander Toad in Space. (Pilot; Science Fiction; ABC; 1/22/94). The futuristic story of Jack, the human navigator of the S.S. Stella, a spaceship of the Algeian High Command, that is run by frog and turtle-like creatures (puppets): Commander Toad and his assistants: Doc, Lieutenant Lily and the Admiral (how Jack became a member of the crew is not explained). In the pilot episode, Commander Toad takes on a secret mission: to deliver a wooden box that contains a priceless relic (the Royal Rodensians Phisben) before the Rodensians declare war on Algeian. After completing their mission, the crew was assigned their next mission: to deliver the Prince of Pudd to his home planet (but the episode was not filmed).

Cast: Corey Miller (Jack). Voices: James Murray (Commander Toad), Bruce Lanoil (Doc), Nichelle Nichols (Lieutenant Lily), Mark Hamill (Admiral), Nichelle Nichols (Stella the ship).

1614 Commando Cody, Sky Marshal of the Universe. (Series; Adventure; NBC; 1955). A ghost town called Graphite is the secret headquarters of a U.S. government scientist known only as Commando Cody, and his associates, Joan Albright and Ted Richards. Ted is later transferred and replaced by Dick Preston.

Commando Cody works for an undisclosed organization headed by Mr. Henderson. The government insists that Cody wear a black mask (like the Lone Ranger's) at all times to protect his true identity. Cody, the inventor of the Rocket Flying Suit, has come to be known as "The Sky Marshal of the Universe" for his tireless efforts of protecting the Earth from the evils of outer space.

Cody, Joan, Ted (and Dick) communicate with each other via their identification patches, which contain miniature two-way radios and operate on a frequency assigned only to Commando Cody. Cody's Rocket Flying Suit (which he wears over his gray suit) has a silver helmet, a backpack with two rockets for power.

Only 12 episodes were produced and very little is done to explain things. When the series began, Cody has perfected the Cosmic Dust Blanket to protect the Earth from a missile attack by Retik, an evil extraterrestrial who must conquer the Earth to use it as a staging platform for his conquest of other planets. The serial-like chapters chart Cody's efforts to stop the Ruler. Dr. Varney first assisted Retik; he was replaced in episode four by Baylor. How the Ruler came to Earth or how he acquired his aides is not shown. Hydrogen hurricanes, the Magno Force Ray, radioactive gas, the Magnetic Drag Ray and the Refraction Field Force were some of the obstacles Cody had to battle to stop Retik (whose home base was the Moon).

The series is based on three Republic theatrical serials: King of the Rocket Men (1949), Radar Men from the Moon (1952) and Zombies of the Stratosphere (1952). In the first serial, Tris Coffin played Jeff King, the Director of Security for Science Associates, who invented the flying suit, and was known as Rocketman. In the second serial, the Rocketman character became Commando Cody (George Wallace). The final theatrical entry starred Judd Holdren as Larry Martin, alias Commando Cody, and Aline Towne as his associate, Joan Albright (both of whom appeared on the TV series; Holdren, however, did not wear a mask here). Commando Cody was not a super hero. He was depicted as having no special powers in movies and on TV; the only weapon he carried was a gun.

Cast: Judd Holdren (Commando Cody), Aline Towne (Joan Albright), William Schallert (Ted Richards), Richard Crane (Dick Preston), Greg Grey (Retik), Richard Crane (Retik; later), Peter Brocco (Dr. Varney), Craig Kelly (Mr. Henderson), Lyle Talbot (Baylor), Mauritz Hugo (Narkos), Joanne Jordan (Queen of the Mercurians), Gloria Pall (Retik's Assistant).

1615 Commando Nanny. (Unaired Series; Comedy; WB; 2004). Commando Nanny, also known as Miles to Go, is series ordered by the WB but cancelled due to the health problems of its star, Gerald McRaney (production was suspended after the first episode and never resumed).

Ben Winter is a Beverly Hills tycoon who is married to a younger woman (Lizzie). He has two children from a previous marriage (Katie and Steven) and a five-year-old son (Seth) with Lizzie. Unfortunately, Ben's work often distances him from his family and Lizzie feels Seth needs a positive male influence. Her solution: hire a nanny, Mike Ross, a young soldier she hopes will shape Seth's life. Ben is opposed but gives in, and the daily test of wills that arise as both men seek Seth's attention was to be the focal point of the series.

Cast: Gerald McRaney (Ben Winter), Kristin Dattilo (Lizzie Winter), Owain Yeoman (Mile Ross), Beatrice Rosen (Katie Winter), Ricky Mabe (Steven Winter), Max Wolf Burkholder (Seth Winter), Adam Campbell (Nick; Steven's friend).

1616 The Commish. (Series; Crime Drama; ABC; 1991–1995). Tony Scali was a former New York City street cop who is now the Police Commissioner of Eastbridge, a suburban New York community.

He lives at 1209 Beach Street with his wife, Rachel and their children David and infant Sarah. Tony and Rachel previously lived in Manhattan and came to Eastbridge in 1988 when Tony was asked to head the Eastbridge Police Department.

Tony is a Catholic. Rachel, a teacher at Eastbridge Grammar School, is Jewish. They are raising David in the Jewish faith; Sarah as a Catholic.

Tony is based in the Eastbridge Municipal Building. He was born in Brooklyn, New York, and attended Saint Mary's High School. He obtained a law degree from Fordham University in the Bronx but chose law enforcement as a career. He is hard on criminals but a softie at heart and is affectionately called The Commish by his fellow officers. Tony studies the reactions to questions he asks of suspects and always says "Got ya" when he apprehends a criminal. Mike Post composed the theme.

Cast: Michael Chiklis (Tony Scali), Theresa Saldana (Rachel Scali), Kaj-Erik Erikson (David Scali), Justine and Dayna Cornborough (Sarah Scali), Jason Schombing (Off. Ronnie Lopez), Ian Tracy (Off. Jon Hibbs), Gina Belafonte (Off. Carmela Pagan), Pat Bermele (Off. Mike Rose), Alex Bruhanski (Off. Irv Wallerstein), Geoffrey Naufts (Off. Stan Kelly), Melinda McGraw (Det. Cyd Madison), Nicholas Lea (Off. Ricky Caruso).

1617 Committed. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 2005). Nate Solomon is a New Yorker who lives in a cluttered apartment (211) in Manhattan. He is considered a genius as he has degrees in physics from Yale, MIT and Harvard. He was offered a fellowship in quantum math but he turned it down to open a used record store called Lost Tracks. Nate is also neurotic and plagued by phobias.

Marni Fliss is a beautiful free-spirited girl who also lives in Manhattan (Apartment 10C) with a "dying clown" who came packaged with the apartment (he lives in the closet to the right of the front door). Marni is a therapist (rehabilitation) at Saint Matthews Hospital. A chance meeting brings Nate and Marni together — and they hit it off. Stories follow the relationship that develops between Nate and Marni as Nate tries to shed his problems to enjoy life with the eccentric, upbeat Marni.

Nate chose to buy the record store "because every day I don't use my potential I cheat destiny." Marni practiced kissing on a tomato when she was a kid; her online name is "Budda 88."

Other Regulars: Bowie James, Nate's partner, a hopeful songwriter; and Tess, Marni's friend, a nanny.

Cast: Josh Cooke (Nate Solomon), Jennifer Finnigan (Marni Fliss), Tom Poston (Clown), Darius McCrary (Bowie James), Tammy Lynn Michaels (Tess).

1618 Common Law. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1996). John Alvarez is an attorney with a law firm in Manhattan. He is of Latino descent and was raised in Queens, New York. His father, Luis, is a barber who raised him in the traditional values of his heritage. But John, having graduated from Harvard University, now has a different view of the world and has developed a nonconformist attitude. Stories follow John's experiences as he struggles to live in two worlds: his parents blue collar world and the upscale corporate life.

Nancy Slaton is his girlfriend; Henry Beckett is the ambitious attorney; Maria Marquez is the law office manager; Peter Gutenhimmel is the uptight associate. The series ran from September 28, 1996 to October 19, 1996 and aired four episodes.

Cast: Greg Giraldo (John Alvarez), Megyn Price (Nancy Slaton), Gregory Sierra (Luis Alvarez), David Pasquesi (Henry Beckett), Diana-Maria Riva (Maria Marquez), Carlos Jacott (Peter Gutenhimmel), Suzy Nakamura (Suzy Yamamoto), Richard Fancy (Martin Gutenhimmel).

1619 Complete Savages. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 2004–2005). Nick Savage is a widower with five immature children (Sam, Jack, Chris, Kyle and T.J.). He tries to teach them what they need to know but his philosophy of “Anything Goes” leads the kids to act as fools and get into nothing but trouble—situations Nick and his brother, Jimmy, most always resolve. Stories revolve around the antics of the Savage kids who prove by their actions to be “complete savages.”

Nick works as a firefighter. Sam is the only one of the sons with some sense of responsibility. He is also the only one with good grades at school. Chris is the sports oriented son who believes sports, especially basketball, is his life’s goal. Jack, the laziest of the sons, is a potential musician (guitarist) whose biggest concern is his looks (he’s a teenage ladies’ man). Fourteen-year-old Kyle has somewhat of an anger problem and always experimenting with something that causes nothing but trouble for the rest of the family. T.J., the youngest son, is learning all too much from his brothers and how to cause mischief—and have fun doing it.

Cast: Keith Carradine (Nick Savage), Andrew Eiden (Sam Savage), Erik von Detten (Chris Savage), Shaun Sipos (Jack Savage), Evan Ellingston (Kyle Savage), Jason Dolley (T.J. Savage), Vincent Ventresca (Jimmy Savage), Autumn Reeser (Angela), Candace Kita (Misty), Kylie Sparks (Brenda), Mel Gibson (Police Officer Cox).

1620 The Completely Mental Misadventures of Ed Grimley. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1988–1989). Live action is combined with animation to chronicle (in animation) the extraordinary situations of Ed Grimley, a man who seems to be plagued by mishaps. The live action segment is set on the stage of “The Count Floyd Show,” wherein a vampire (Count Floyd) encounters numerous problems while attempting to host a kid’s program.

Cast: Martin Short (Ed Grimley), Joe Flaherty (Count Floyd), Catherine O’Hara (Belinda), Martin Short (Skippy High/Thad), Jonathan Winters (Voice), Catherine O’Hara (Voice).

1621 Completely Off the Wall. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 9/7/79). An unsold series idea to spotlight the comedy troupe Completely Off the Wall as they perform unrehearsed skits based on audience suggestions.

Host: John Ritter. Regulars (Completely Off the Wall): Wendy Cutler, Tony Delia, Susan Elliot, Rod Gist, Andy Goldberg, Dee Marcus, Nancy Steen, Paul Willson.

1622 The Complex: Malibu. (Series; Reality; WB; 2004). Eight couples, divided into four teams of two, compete for a large cash prize by becoming the best at restoring and remodeling a housing unit in Malibu Beach, California. The couples are placed on a tight budget and strict deadlines and must complete assigned redecorating tasks as instructed or be eliminated from further competition. The couples are judged by a panel of specialists (architect, interior designer, real estate broker) whose decision to dismiss teams is based on those whose work added the least value to the unit. The winner, the couple whose unit is judged to bring the highest value, receives the profits from all four units after they are sold at a public auction. The series ran from August 1, 2004 to October 1, 2004.

Host: Tyler Harcott. Judges: Lourdes Narie Barros (designer), David Kessler (broker), Jason Marshall (architect).

1623 Compromising Situations. (Series; Anthology; Cinemax; 1994–1995). An adult series, hosted by Betty Condom, that explores the sexual fantasies that men and women have but with a twist—their planned getaways do not always go as anticipated and the couple find themselves in unexpected—and compromising situations. Casts vary with each episode.

Cast: Cyndi Freeman (Betty Condom), Robert Ray (Announcer).

1624 The Compton Tele Show. (Experimental; Variety; DuMont; 2/16/44). A variety program created and sponsored by the Compton Ad Agency that features a mixed bag of acts: music, songs and a puppet segment called “The Saga of Steve Cranberry.”

Performers: Jim Bowles, Steve Chase, Roger DeKoven, Gertrude Flynn, Will Geer, Rupert LaBelle, Stan McGovern, Yvette (a singer).

1625 Conan. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1997–1998). Conan the Samaritan is a warrior and savior of people threatened by evil in a time of ancient myths and legends. He carries the ruby handled Sword of Atlantis and seeks to establish hope wherever he goes (he was enslaved as a boy, escaped and now fights anyone who seeks to deprive innocent people of their freedom). He is assisted by Otlí, Bayu and Zzeben, three adventurers who not only fight injustice, but help Conan battle Hissah Zul, an evil wizard who seeks to become king by killing Conan before he can fulfill his destiny (become the rightful king of the land).

Conan is following a destiny he does not understand (he had a mystical encounter that led him to the Sword of Atlantis and told him of his destiny). He believes the sword is meant to kill Hissah Zul and lift his evil curse from the land. At this time, the powers of darkness will be defeated and Conan will become king).

Hissah Zul rules from a mountain cave. His accomplice is the Skull, a cursed demon that seeks to regain his former self by helping Hissah Zul defeat Conan. Hissah Zul summons the Skull, who lives in a pond of water, by dropping rubies into it. The Skull then rises to the surface of the water to tell his master about Conan's current activities.

Zzeben, a Viking-like warrior, is mute; Bayu, proficient in the art of swordplay, rides a horse named Thunderbolt. Otili, the diminutive member of the group (stands four feet, one inch tall), rarely engages in physical confrontations with the enemy. He often remains behind in camp (to cook) or in a village (to protect someone) when Conan and the others need to be someplace else. Also assisting Conan is Karella, a beautiful female thief and warrior who sides with Conan against his enemies. She rides a horse named Indio. Charles Fox composed the theme.

Cast: Rolfe Moeller (Conan), Danny Woodburn (Otili), T.J. Storm (Bayu), Robert McRay (Zzeben), Jeremy Kemp (Hissah Zul), Ally Dunne (Karella).

1626 Concentration. (Series; Game; NBC; Syn.; 1958–1974). A large electronic board that contains thirty numbered, three-sided wedges is displayed on stage. One of two competing players chooses two numbers. The wedges rotate and reveal prizes. If they match, the edges rotate again and reveal two puzzle parts. The player then attempts to guess what the puzzle will show (slogan, name or place). If he is unable to solve the puzzle, he picks two more numbers. If two different prizes appear, the wedges revert to numbers and his opponent receives a chance to play. The first player to identify the puzzle is the winner and receives the prizes he has accumulated on his side of the board. The series ran on NBC from August 25, 1958 to March 23, 1973; in syndication from 1973–1974.

Network Host: Hugh Downs, Jack Barry, Art James, Bill Mazer, Ed McMahon, Bob Clayton. Syndicated Host: Jack Barry. Network Announcer: Wayne Howell, Art James, Bob Clayton. Syndicated Announcer: Johnny Olsen. Music, Network Version: Milton DeLugg, Dick Hyman, Milton Kaye, Tony Columbia. Music, Syndicated Version: Ed Kalehoff.

1627 Concerning Miss Marlowe. (Series; Serial; CBS; 1954–1955). The dramatic story of Margaret Marlowe, a middle-aged actress living in New York City. The series ran from July 5, 1954 to July 1, 1955.

Cast: Louise Albritton (Margaret Marlowe), John Raby (Bill Cook), Efrem Zimbalist, Jr. (James Gavin), Jane Seymour (Louise Gavin), Helen Shields (Dot Clayton), Elaine Rost (Marian Cabill), Sarah Burton (Linda Cabot), John Gibson (Harry Clayton), Patricia Bosworth (Cindy Clayton), Eddie Brian (Tommy Clayton), Lauren Gilbert (Hugh Fraser), Bert Thorn (Ronald Blake), Christine White (Kit Christie), Abby Lewis (Mrs. McClure), Lois Bolton (Celia), Barbara Townsend (Jean Guthrie), Monty Banks, Jr. (Adorno), Ross Martin (Bojalina), Katherine Raht (Jenny), Lois Holmes (Nana McClure), Byron Sanders (Mike Donovan), Norman Mackaye (Paul Sims), Jim Boles (Lt. Hansen), Douglas Taylor (Bud Gowen), Philip Coolidge (John Moran), Stephen Chase (Bernie Kanner), Leora Thatcher (Mrs. Koester), Muriel Berkson (Lila), Carlos Montalban (Desk Clerk), Don Mayo (Senor Zaragpza).

1628 Concrete Beat. (Pilot; Drama; ABC; 7/9/84). The story assignments of Mickey Thompson, a human interest columnist for the Island Eye, a weekly New York newspaper. In the pilot episode, Thompson struggles to clear a young woman blamed for the death of her child in a fire.

Other Regulars: Marion Kaiser, the editor; Stephanie, Mickey's ex-wife; and Sylvie, Marion's secretary.

Cast: John Getz (Mickey Thompson), Kenneth McMillan (Marion Kaiser), Darlann Fluegel (Stephanie Thompson), Rhoda Gemignani (Sylvie). Guest Cast: VanNessa Clarke (Corrie James), Dean Santoro (Davis), Marla Adams (Cathy Lord), Ingrid Anderson (Michelle), Thom Bray (Ralph Gurling), Patricia McPherson (Girl in bar), Kerry Slattery (Felicia), Henry Sanders (Lieutenant Lucas).

1629 Concrete Cowboys. (Series; Adventure; CBS; 1981). J.D. Reed and Will Ewbanks are vagabond cowboys who travel across the United States seeking adventure. J.D. is the laid back member of the team; Will is a bit hot headed and tends to rush into matters without thinking first. Stories follow their misadventures as they encounter and help people in trouble. Jerry Reed performs the theme, "Breaking Loose."

Cast: Jerry Reed (J.D. Reed), Geoffrey Scott (Will Ewbanks).

1630 Condo. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1983). The Kirkridge and Rodriguez families are condominium neighbors who live in Los Angeles. The comedy stems from the interactions between James Kirkridge, a textbook WASP, and Jesse Rodriguez, an upwardly mobile Hispanic — heads of family who find themselves on opposite sides of almost every issue. Complicating matters is James's son, Scott, who has fallen in love and later marries Jesse's daughter, Linda.

James is an insurance salesman and is married to Margaret (nicknamed "Kiki"); they are the parents of Scott and Billy. Jesse is a landscaper and is married to Maria; they have only one child, Linda. Also living with them is Jose Montoya, Maria's father.

Cast: McLean Stevenson (James Kirkridge), Brooke Alderson (Margaret Kirkridge), Mark Schubb (Scott Kirkridge), Marc Price (Billy Kirkridge), Luis Avalos (Jesse Rodriguez), Yvonne Wilder (Maria Rodriguez), Julie Carmen (Linda Rodriguez), James Victor (Jose Montoya). Theme Vocal: "Condo" by Drake Frye.

1631 Condor. (Pilot; Science Fiction; ABC; 8/10/86). Following the death of his partner during an assignment, Christopher Proctor, a futuristic antiterrorist agent for Condor, is teamed with Lisa Hampton, a beautiful android specifically designed to battle crime. The unsold series, set in Los Angeles in 1999, was to relate their exploits as agents for Condor. In the pilot episode, Chris and Lisa (a molecular computer), seek an escaped prisoner (Rachel Hawkins) who possesses the code to the Pentagon's computers. Other Regulars: Cyrus Hampton, head of Condor; and Sumika and Cass, Condor agents.

Cast: Ray Wise (Chris Proctor), Wendy Kilbourne (Lisa Hampton), Craig Stevens (Cyrus Hampton), Cassandra Geva (Sumika), James Avery (Cass). Guest Cast: Carolyn Seymour (Rachel Hawkins), Karen Montgomery (Monique), Vic Polizos (Commissioner Ward), Myra Chason (Pirate Pete waitress), Tony Esper (Cop), Barbara Beckley (Watch commander).

1632 The Coneheads. (Pilot; Cartoon; NBC; 10/14/83). A proposed series based on sketches originally performed on Saturday Night Live. The comic adventures of Beldar Conehead, a timekeeper; his wife, Prymaat; and their daughter, Connie, residents of the distant planet Remulak. The pilot episode depicts how the Coneheads, sent to Earth to capture humans for slave labor, become marooned and establish a home in New Jersey (and then attempt to adjust to life on Earth). Other Regulars: Myrtle and Barry, their neighbors.

Voice Cast: Dan Aykroyd (Beldar Conehead), Jane Curtin (Prymaat Conehead), Laraine Newman (Connie Conehead), Cynthia Adler (Myrtle), Tom Davis (Barry), Robert McFadden (Remulak leader).

1633 Confessions of a Matchmaker. (Series; Reality; A&E; 2004). A simplistic reality series that has a real life matchmaker (Patti Novak) introduce singles to one another. After a match is made, the couple is interviewed and sent out on a date (and followed by a camera crew). After the date the couple is again interviewed to discover if a true match was made. Patti is part life coach and part diplomat. She deals with shy, emotionally fragile and people who are unsure of themselves. She believes there is someone for everyone and tries to find those who are made for each other.

Host: Patti Novak.

1634 Confidential File. (Series; Anthology; Syn.; 1955). Filmed dramatizations based on official newspaper stories. The series, also known as Paul Coates' Confidential File, is adapted from Paul Coates live, local Los Angeles program.

Host-Narrator: Paul Coates.

1635 Confidential for Women. (Series; Drama; ABC; 1966). The program addresses problems faced by women. Specific problems are chosen and presented as dramatic vignettes. Following the drama, a discussion is held relating to the predicament presented in the story. Dr. Theodore Rubin, the program's psychological consultant, then offers women potential solutions to the problems they may face in real life. The series aired from March 18, 1966 to July 8, 1966.

Hostess: Jane Wyatt. Commentator: Dr. Theodore Rubin.

1636 Confidentially Yours. (Pilot; Drama; CBS; 4/10/60). The story of Barnaby Hooke, a newspaper reporter-columnist. In the pilot episode, Hooke attempts to uncover the mystery surrounding Olga Lemaire, a woman who single handedly runs a multimillion dollar empire. Broadcast as "Mystery at Malibu" on G.E. Theater (Confidentially Yours is the proposed series title).

Cast: Dan Duryea (Barnaby Hooke), Audrey Totter (Olga Lemaire), Dianne Foster (Toni Warren), Richard Ney (Donald Reisel), Tyler McDuff (Reggie Lemaire). Also: James Bell, Maurice Manson, J. Pat O'Malley.

1637 Conflict. (Series; Anthology; ABC; 1956–1957). Dramatizations that depict the plight of people whose lives are suddenly changed by unexpected and unfavorable circumstances. Broadcast as a segment of Warner Bros. Presents from September 18, 1956 to May 28, 1957.

Host: Gig Young. Performers Include: Natalie Wood, Charlie Ruggles, Gloria Talbot, Tab Hunter, Scott Brady, James Garner, Efrem Zimbalist, Jr., Jack Lord, Karen Steele, Adele Mara, Rex Reason, Murray Hamilton, Edmund Lowe, Jim Backus, Kathleen Nolan, Will Hutchins.

1638 Congressional Investigator. (Series; Drama; Syn.; 1959). The series, set in Washington, D.C., relates the investigations of a group of government agents as they seek evidence for congressional hearings.

Investigators: Edward Stroll, William Masters, Stephen Roberts, Marian Collier.

1639 The Connie Francis Show. (Pilot; Variety; ABC; 9/13/61). A proposed but unsold series that was to feature singer Connie Francis performing songs and acting in comedy skits with her guests. Greg Garrison is the producer.

Hostess: Connie Francis. Guests: Bea Arthur, Art Carney, Eddie Foy, Jr., Tab Hunter. Orchestra: Mitch Leigh.

1640 Conrad Bloom. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1998). Conrad Bloom is an enterprising young man. He is single and works as a copywriter for a New York advertising agency. Conrad is dedicated to work but he is also looking for a girl to share his life with. Complicating his search are the women in his life: Florrie Bloom, his recently widowed mother; Molly Davenport, his ex-girlfriend; Faye, his demanding employer; Nina Bloom, his flighty sister; and Shelley, his co-worker. Providing a bit of sanity for Conrad is George Dorsey, a burned out ad agency legacy who helps him deal with the problems he faces at home and at the office.

Cast: Mark Feuersein (Conrad Bloom), Linda Lavin (Florrie Bloom), Steve Landesberg (George Dorsey), Lauren Graham (Molly Davenport), Ever Carradine (Nina Bloom), Jenica Bergere (Nina Bloom; replaced Ever), Dina Spybey (Nina Bloom; replaced Jenica), Paula Newsome (Faye), Jessica Stone (Shelley).

1641 Constantinople. (Pilot; Variety; ABC; 7/25/77). A fast-paced program of music, songs and comedy skits that feature guest performers.

Guests: Doug Kershaw, Lance LeGault, Tim Turner, Ian Whitcomb, John Valente, The Manhattan Transfer. Orchestra: H.B. Barnum.

1642 Consumer Quiz. (Live Test Program; Quiz; CBS; 6/30/46). Five female contestants, chosen from the studio audience, are involved. Each player has to answer questions based on shopping. The program's resident expert, Joan Burton, judges the women based on their responses. The player who was best at responding to the questions wins a cash prize.

Host: Fred Uttal. Shopping Expert: Joan Burton.

1643 The Contender. (Series; Drama; CBS; 1980). Johnny Captor, an amateur boxer from Coos Bay, Oregon, forsakes his college studies for a chance at fame in the ring. Guided by George Beifus, his trainer, a former prize fighter who believes Johnny will be the next "great white hope," the series follows Johnny as he struggles to become a world champion.

Other Regulars: Jill, Johnny's girlfriend; Alma and Mike, Johnny's parents; Brian, Johnny's brother; Lou Waverly, the sportswriter; Missy, the sister of a fighter who helps Johnny; Killer Dinwittie, Missy's brother; Thomas Waverly, Lou's father; and Harry, the man who owns Johnny's contract. The series, which ran from April 3, 1980 to May 1, 1980 produced 5 episodes.

Cast: Marc Singer (Johnny Captor), Moses Gunn (George Beifus), Katherine Cannon (Jill Cyndon), Louise Latham (Alma Captor), Art Lund (Mike Captor), Alan Stock (Brian Captor), Susan Walden (Lou Waverly), Tina Andrews (Missy Dinwittie), Albert Myles (Killer Dinwittie), Linwood McCarthy (Thomas Waverly), Don Gordon (Harry).

1644 The Contender. (Series; Reality; NBC; 2005). A sports oriented reality series that attempts to find the next great boxing champ. Sixteen hopeful prizefighters are put through rigorous training sessions and tasks as they compete to win the top prize of $1 million and a career as a professional boxer. Boxer Sugar Ray Leonard and Sylvester Stallone (who played boxer Rocky Balboa in the Rocky films) host and mentor the contenders (who face real boxers in stiff bouts that eliminate the weaker performers and determine the winner. The most agile and the one with the most potential becomes the Contender.

Boxing Mentor: Sugar Ray Leonard, Sylvester Stallone. Trainer: Tommy Gallagher, Jeremy Williams, Dub Huntley. Manager: Jackie Kallen. Ring Announcer: Jeff Connor.

1645 Contest Carnival. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1954–1955). The program features performances by aspiring young circus performers and new talent discoveries.

Host: Phil Sheridan. Regulars: Joanie Coale, Henry Levin, Gene Crane.

1646 The Continental. (Series; Women; ABC; 1952–1953). The program, set in a candlelit bachelor's apartment, features a suave and sophisticated man, known as The Continental, romancing the members of the female audience (with conversations, poetry, music and philosophy).

Shortly after the premiere of The Continental, some local station began airing a feminine counterpart geared to the male audience. Broadcast late at night, and lasting only five minutes, a seductive girl (in New York, Gloria Parker), in a provocative negligee would seduce the male audience and wish them a good night.

Host: Renzo Cesana. Music: Tony Mottola.

1647 Continental Showcase. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1966). The program, taped in Munich, features performances by entertainers from around the world. The summer series aired from June 11, 1966 to September 10, 1966.

Host: Jim Backus. Regulars: The Kessler Twins, The Harry Osterwald Sextet, The Showcase Dancers. Orchestra: Harry Segers.

1648 Contraption. (Series; Game; Disney; 1983). Children between the ages of seven to twelve compete. Each player stands next to a large game board that is divided into four topics: Animals, Books, Heroes and Villains and Magic. The object calls for the players to answer questions (all of which are based on Disney films) on each topic. Each correct answer awards a player a tile called a “Contrap-tile.” The player with most tiles at the end of the game is the winner.

Host: Ralph Harris. Music: Robin Frederick.

1649 Conviction. (Series; Crime Drama; NBC; 2006). “Young prosecutors in today’s toughest courts” is the promotional tag used by NBC to describe the work of young Assistant District Attorneys who work for the Manhattan D.A.’s office.

The average age of the Assistant D.A.’s is 28. “We want to try cases, believe it or not, that’s why we’re here.” Stories begin with a crime and the arrest of a suspect. The action switches to the D.A.’s office where the prosecutors prepare their cases (from the initial investigation through the interviews to the actual court trial; all of which combines to lead to a conviction).

The prosecutors are young, just gaining field experience and they make mistakes—but they are learning and will one day each become a top New York prosecutor.

Cast: Julianne Nicholson (A.D.A. Christina Finn), Eric Balfour (A.D.A. Brian Peluso), Jordan Bridges (A.D.A. Nick Potter), Milena Govice (A.D.A. Jessica Rossi), Stephanie March (Bureau Chief Alexandra Cabor), Anson Mount (Deputy D.A. James Steele), J. August Richards (A.D.A. Billy Desmond).

1650 Convoy. (Series; Drama; NBC; 1965). The series is set during World War II. The saga of a convoy of two hundred heavily armed American ships slowly heading for Europe. Episodes focus on the experiences of the men in charge: Dan Talbot, commander of the escort destroyer DD181, and Ben Foster, captain of the freighter Flagship.

Cast: John Gavin (Cmdr. Dan Talbot), John Larch (Capt. Ben Foster), Linden Chiles (Chief Officer Steve Kirkland), James McMullan (Lt. Ray Glasser), James Callahan (Lt. Richard O’Connell).

1651 Coogan’s Reward. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 8/20/65). A World War II comedy about Willie Coogan, a correspondent who harbors a distaste for covering the war in the field. In the pilot episode, Willie gets conned into writing about a battle that never occurred.

Cast: Tony Randall (Willie Coogan), Alan Carney (Corporal Konstanti), Robert Gist (Ben Moore), Roxanne Berail (Girl).

1652 Cool and Lam. (Unaired Pilot; Crime Drama; Produced for CBS in 1957). The Cool and Lam Private Detective Company is a Los Angeles-based agency that is co-owned by the penny-pinching Bertha Cool and her shrewd investigator, Donald Lam. They charge $200 a day plus expenses and the unsold series was to relate Lam’s somewhat clumsy attempts to solve crimes. In the pilot episode, Dr. James Lintig hires Cool and Lam to find his wife (Amelia) who disappeared over 20 years ago. Based on the stories by Erle Stanley Gardner.

Cast: Billy Pearson (Donald Lam), Beany Venuta (Bertha Cool), Judith Bess Jones (Elsie Brand, their receptionist). Guest Cast: Maurice Manson (Dr. James Lintig), Maggie Mahoney (Marion Dutton), Allison Hayes (Evaline Dell), Tristin Coffin (Thatcher), Sheila Bromley (Flo Mortinson), Don Megowan (John Harbet).

1653 Cool McCool. (Series; Cartoon; NBC; 1966–1968). A spoof of James Bond that details the less-than-spectacular exploits of Cool McCool, a secret agent who has waged a war on crime.

Voice Cast: Chuck McCann (Cool McCool), Bob McFadden (Harry McCool), Carol Corbett (Additional Voices).

1654 Cool Million. (Series; Crime Drama; NBC; 1972–1973). Jefferson Keyes is a former U.S. government agent turned confidential private detective who charges one million dollars and guarantees results or refunds the money. Impatient with busy signals, he establishes a base in Lincoln, Nebraska (where telephone lines are always open), in the home of a woman named Elena. When his special telephone number, 30-30100 is dialed, Elena, the only person who is able to contact Jefferson, relays the message. Stories then relate Jefferson’s somewhat dangerous case investigations. Tony Baylor is the pilot of Jefferson’s private jet. The series, broadcast as a segment of The NBC Wednesday Mystery Movie, aired from October 25, 1972 to July 11, 1973.

Cast: James Farentino (Jefferson Keyes), Ed Bernard (Tony Baylor), Adele Mara (Elena).

1655 Coopersmith. (Pilot; Crime Drama; CBS; 7/31/92). C.D. Coopersmith is a free-wheeling, motorcycle-riding insurance investigator who, in the pilot episode, seeks to prove that race car driver Jesse Wilder murdered his wife, Jeannie (Jesse set it up to look like an accident).

Cast: Grant Show (C.D. Coopersmith), Leann Hunley (Laraine Sands, his girlfriend), Colleen Coffey (Allison Grey, C.D.’s employer). Guest Cast: Nicholas Surovy (Jesse Wilder), Marilyn Jones (Jeanie Wilder), Arlen Dean Snyder (Cal Murray), Clark Johnson (Mike Delaney), Annie Waterson (Miss Pearl), James McDonnell (Jennings Whitehurst).

1656 The Cop and the Kid. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1975–1976). Frank Murphy is a tough bachelor police officer with the Sixth Division of the Los Angeles Police Department. Lucas Adams is a street-wise youth Frank constantly encounters on his beat. When Lucas’s parents are killed in a car crash and Lucas has no one to care for him, Frank steps in and petitions the court to become his guardian. Frank sees potential in Lucas and feels he can turn his life around by giving him a stable environment. Stories relate the efforts of a gruff police officer to get along with a fiercely independent youth and Lucas's efforts to adjust to a lifestyle he is simply not used to as police officers were often his enemy, not his guardian.

Other Regulars: Mary Goodhew, the social worker who arranged for Frank to care for Lucas; Sergeant Zimmerman, Frank's superior; Brigit, Frank's mother; Moose and Shortstuff, Lucas's friends; and Killer, Lucas's dog.

Cast: Charles Durning (Off. Frank Murphy), Tierre Turner (Lucas Adams), Sharon Spelman (Mary Goodhew), Patsy Kelly (Brigit Murphy), William Preston (Sgt. Zimmerman), Eric Laneuville (Moose), Curtis Willis (Shortstuff), Shadrock (Killer).

1657 Cop Rock. (Series; Musical Crime Drama; ABC; 1990). There are police officers, there are crimes, there are car chases and there is the arrest of the bad guys — and there are musical numbers interspersed between all the action. Murder and mayhem combined with the elements of a Broadway play to detail the work of a group of police officers who take to the streets to sing and dance during, before and after collars. Mike Post provided the music. Russell Clark did the choreography, and Mike Post, Stephen Geyer, Brock Walsh, Amanda McBroom and Donald Markowitz wrote the songs. Stephen Bochco and Gregory Hoblit were the producers.

Cast: Ronny Cox (Chief Roger Kendrick), Barbara Bosson (Mayor Louise Plank), Peter Onorati (Det. Vincent LaRusso), James McDaniel (Off. Franklin Rose), Larry Joshua (Capt. John Hollander), Ron McLarty (Det. Ralph Ruskini), William Thomas, Jr. (Det. William Potts), Vondie Curtis-Hall (Cmdr. Warren Osborne), Anne Bobby (Off. Vicki Quinn), Mick Murray (Det. Joseph Gaines), David Gianopoulos (Off. Andy Campo).

1658 The Copperhead. (Experimental; Stage Play; NBC; 7/1/45). A television adaptation of Augustus Thomas's play about a spy who is actually a counterspy (there is no additional storyline information available for the TV adaptation).

Cast: Richard Keith (Captain Hardy), Douglas Dick (Joey), Mary Patton (Ma), Barbara Winchester (Grandmother), Phillip Foster (Milt; young), Grandon Rhodes (Milt; older). Also: Rand Elliott, Gayne Sullivan, Roger Sullivan, Jim Tansey, Renee Terry. Narrator: Roger Bowman.

1659 Cops. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 6/5/73). Sonny Miglio is a hard-boiled city police captain who is overworked and about to blow a fuse. His superiors suggest that Sonny take a rest and assign him to a quiet suburban precinct with little crime. The unsold series was to relate Sonny's efforts to adjust to a life that is just too peaceful for him.

Cast: Vincent Gardenia (Captain Sonny Miglio), Bruce Davison (Detective Dennis Till), Scoey Mitchell III (Sergeant Monroe Dupree), Britt Leach (Detective Ed Carter), Pat Morita (Captain Irving Ho). Guest Cast: Ruth Roman (Wanda Burke), Stuart Margolin (Benny the Squealer), Vic Tayback (Coach), Royce Wallace (Mrs. Wilcox), Betty Aidman (Donna Jo).

1660 Cops. (Series; Reality; Fox; 1989–). Real life police officers (in various states) are followed as they patrol the streets to serve and protect. Cameras capture their actions as they pursue and collar suspects in cases that could occur in any city or town (from drunk drivers to wife beaters to those who become a public nuisance). The program is based in part on a radio series called Police Recorder.

Announcer: Burt Lancaster (pilot episode), Harry Newman (series).

1661 The Cops and Robin. (Pilot; Crime Drama; NBC; 3/28/78). An unsold attempt to revise Future Cop, the story of an aging street cop (Joe Cleaver) who is teamed with John Haven, a robot that has been programmed to be the perfect law enforcement officer. In the pilot film, Joe and John struggle to protect a murder witness from a killer.

Cast: Ernest Borgnine (Officer Joe Cleaver), Michael Shannon (Officer John Haven), John Amos (Sergeant Bundy). Guest Cast: Carol Lynley (Dr. Alice Alcott), Natasha Ryan (Robin Loren), Terry Kiser (Wayne Dutton), Philip Abbott (Garfield), Richard Bright (Richards), Ivan Bonar (Judge Wheeler), Gene Rutherford (Carl Tyler).

1662 Copter Patrol. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1954). The alternate title for Whirlybirds. See this title for information.

1663 The Coral Jungle. (Series; Documentary; Syn.; 1976). A short-lived (six episode) series that presents filmed studies of the world beneath the sea.

Host-Narrator: Leonard Nimoy.

1664 Corey: For the People. (Pilot; Crime Drama; NBC; 6/12/77). Dan Corey is an assistant district attorney who works for Patrick Shannon, the Los Angeles County D.A. Dan is married to Judy and his case investigations were to be the focal point of the unsold series. In the pilot episode, Corey investigates the case of a renowned doctor's battered wife who claims she killed her husband in self-defense.

Cast: John Rubinstein (Dan Corey), Deborah Ryan (Judy Corey), Eugene Roche (Patrick Shannon). Guest Cast: Carol Rossen (Harriet Morgan), Wynn Irwin (Detective Phil Gilman), Ronny Cox (Dr. Hanley), Ann Sweeny (Laurie Casey), Lana Wood (Janet Hanley), Joan Pringle (Katie Ryan), Pitt Herbert (Judge Stone), Bill Quinn (Justin Milford).

1665 Corky and White Shadow. (Series; Western; ABC; 1956). Corky Brady, a pretty teenage girl, and her German shepherd dog, White Shadow, live in the town of Beaumont. Her widowed father, Matt Brady, is the sheriff; Dolly Porter, the owner of the Shamrock Café (also called Dolly Porter's), is his romantic interest; and "Uncle" Dan is Corky's friend, a hermit-like character who lives in a cabin in the woods.

Being the daughter of the sheriff, Corky fancies herself as his assistant ("Me and Shadow got a nose for ferreting out lawbreakers"); Matt sees her in a different light and wishes she would just "do girl things" ("Remember, I'm the law around here; you just stick to housekeeping, let me do the sheriffing"). While she is a good housekeeper and can cook ("Pa says there ain't nobody in this whole dern county can make better hush puppies than me — not even Dolly Porter"), she also helps Matt "catch those low down rotten scoundrels."

In this Mickey Mouse Club serial, Corky and White Shadow attempt to capture the Durango Dude, an outlaw who has robbed the Bank of Glen Forkes.

Uncle Dan calls Corky, who attends the Beaumont School, "The Little Deputy Sheriff." Dan's pets are: Dutchess (a tame coyote), Gabby (a blue jay), Snitch (a bear cub), Cicero (an owl), Lightning (the burro), Minerva (a goat), Cologne (a skunk) and Mr. Frisbee (a squirrel). When Corky gets upset with her dog, she says things like, "White Shadow Brady, what do you mean by walking out on me," or "White Shadow Brady, you come back here." The Durango Dude, whose trademark is a white Stetson, rides a horse called Apache. The serial is composed of 17 episodes plus an introduction.

Cast: Darlene Gillespie (Corky Brady), Buddy Ebsen (Matt Brady), Lloyd Corrigan (Corky's Uncle Dan), Chinook (White Shadow), Veda Ann Borg (Dolly Porter), Rayford Barnes (Durango Dude). Theme Song: "Theme from Corky and White Shadow" by William Lava.

1666 The Corner Bar. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1972). The story of Harry Grant, owner of Grant's Toomb, a restaurant-bar in Manhattan, as he becomes involved with and struggles to solve staff and clientele problems.

Meyer Shapiro is the waiter; Mary Ann is the waitress; Phil Bracken is the henpecked Wall Street executive; Peter Panama is the male fashion designer; Fred Costello is a cab driver. Grant's Toomb is located at 137 Amsterdam Avenue. The series ran from June 21, 1972 to August 23, 1972.

Cast: Gabriel Dell (Harry Grant), Shimen Ruskin (Meyer Shapiro), Langhorne Scuggs (Mary Ann), Bill Fiore (Phil Bracken), Vincent Schiavelli (Peter Panama), J.J. Barry (Fred Costello).

1667 The Corner Bar. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1973). A revised version of the 1972 series of the same title. The bar, Grant's Toomb has been sold to Mae and Frank who change its name to The Corner Bar. Stories revolve around their efforts to run the establishment amid numerous staff and clientele problems.

Meyer is the waiter; Fred Costello is the cab driver; Phil Bracken is the Wall Street executive; Donald Hooten is an actor; Blanche is Mae's aunt. The series ran from August 3, 1973 to September 7, 1973.

Cast: Anne Meara (Mae), Eugene Roche (Frank Flynn), Shimen Ruskin (Meyer Shapiro), J.J. Barry (Fred Costello), Bill Fiore (Phil Bracken), Ron Carey (Donald Hooten), Mae Questel (Aunt Blanche).

1668 Coronado 9. (Series; Crime Drama; Syn.; 1960). Dan Adams is a retired naval officer turned private detective who sets up a base of operations on San Diego's Coronado Peninsula (the title refers to his telephone exchange). Stories follow Dan as he uses his naval experience to help him solve crimes.

Cast: Rod Cameron (Dan Adams).

1669 Coronation Street. (Series; Serial; Syn.; 1972). Stories dramatize the lives and problems of the working-class Britons who inhabit the Rovers Bar at Number Eleven Coronation Street in Weatherfield, England.

Cast: Violet Carson (Ena Sharples), Doris Speed (Annie Walker), Peter Adamson (Len Fairclough), Nevill Buswell (Ray Langton), Barbara Knox (Rita Fairclough), William Roache (Ken Barlow), Cheryl Murray (Suzie Birchall), Helen Worth (Gail Potter), Laurence Mullin (Steve Fisher), Geoffrey Hughes (Eddie Yeats), Eileen Derbyshire (Emily Bishop), Thelma Barlow (Mavis Riley), Julie Goodyear (Bert Lynch), Fred Feast (Fred Gee), Jack Howarth (Albert Tatlock), Bryan Mosley (Alf Roberts), Kenneth Farington (Billy Walker), Timothy Carlton (Richard Cresswell), Penny Gowing (Mrs. Harbottle), Ted Carroll (Lorry Driver), Poppy Lane (Freda Lofus), Jean Alexander (Hilda Ogden), Sylvia Coleridge (Sonia Forrester), Margot Bryant (Minni Caldwell), Patricia Phoenix (Elsie Howard), Arthur Penlow (George Greenwood), Jonathan Adams (Peter Bromley), Julia Somers (Arnold Sheppard), Alan Browning (Frank Bradley), Paddy Joyce (Tommy Deacon), Talfryn Thomas (Dirty Dick), Francois Pacal (Francois Dubois), Graham Haberfield (Jerry Booth), Stephen Hancock (Ernest Bishop), Jon Rollason (Dave Robbins), Alexandra Marshall (Yvonne Chappell), Irene Sutcliffe (Maggie Cleggy), Kathy Staff (Vera Hopkins), Kathy Jones (Idris Hopkins), Barbara Mullaney (Rita Littlewood), Diana Davies (Norma Ford), Jessie Evan (Megan Hopkins).

1670 Coronet Blue. (Series; Mystery; CBS; 1967). After he is shot and believed to be dead, Michael Alden is thrown into the East River (in New York City) by his attackers. Later, when he regains consciousness in a hospital room, he discovers he is suffering from amnesia. Unaware of who his attackers are, nor the reason for their attempt on his life, he remembers only two words — Coronet Blue, the phrase that holds the key to his past and is able to set him free.

After his release from the hospital, Michael begins an investigation in an attempt to discover the meaning of the phrase. Unknown to him, he is being followed by his mysterious attackers who seek to right their mistake if he should come too close to discovering who he is. Originally scheduled for a fall run, the series was shelved and aired as a summer replacement for The Carol Burnett Show. Subsequently an ending was never filmed. Brother Anthony is the monk who assists Michael. The series, which produced 11 episodes, aired from May 29, 1967 to September 4, 1967.

The program's star opens the show: "Who am I? Why do they want to kill me? I can't remember anything except two words ... Coronet Blue ... Coronet Blue."

Cast: Frank Converse (Michael Alden), Brian Medford (Brother Anthony), Joe Silver (Max Spier).

1671 Cory in the House. (Series; Comedy; Disney; 2007–). A spin-off from That's So Raven. When Raven Baxter, the older sister of Cory Baxter, begins college, and her mother, Tonya, registers for law school, Cory and his father, Victor, move to Washington, D.C. to live in the White House when Victor, a chef, acquires the job as cook for the President of the United States (Richard Martinez). Cory enrolls in Washington Prep Academy but also finds he has the unwanted affections of Sophie Martinez, the President's eight-year-old daughter (who is called "America's Angel"). Stories, which have Victor hob-knobbing with the President and other dignitaries, also focus on Cory running amuck in the White House, attending school (with an international student body), trying to avoid Sophie's puppy love crush and trying not to create an international incident with his antics.

Meena Parooa is the daughter of the ambassador from a country called Bahavia; Newt Livingston is Cory's friend (from school); Mama Martinez is Richard's mother (Richard is a widower). Humphrey is the President's dog.

Cast: Kyle Massey (Cory Baxter), Rondell Sheridan (Victor Baxter), John D'Aquino (Pres. Richard Martinez), Madison Pettis (Sophie Martinez), Maiara Walsh (Meena Parooa), Lisa Kushell (Samantha Samuels), Lupe Ontiveros (Mama Martinez), Jason Dolley (Newt Livingston III), Jake Thomas (Jason Strickler).

1672 Cos. (Series; Variety; ABC; 1976). A weekly program that features monologues by comedian Bill Cosby, comedy skits and performances by guest singers and comics. See also The Bill Cosby Show, The New Bill Cosby Show, The Cosby Show, The Cosby Mysteries and Cosby. Chris Bearde is the producer.

Host: Bill Cosby. Regulars: Jeff Altman, Marion Ramsey, Tim Thomerson, Pat Delaney, Willie Bobo, Maurice Jorin, Buzzy Linhart. Announcer: John Wilson. Orchestra: Stu Gardner.

1673 Cosby. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1996–2000). Hilton Lucas is a baggage handler for National West Airlines. He is married to Ruth and they are the parents of Erica. They live at 1559 Blake Street in Queens, New York and stories follow the events in Hilton's life after he is laid off (downsized) after 30 years on the job.

Hilton is not a man who can sit around and do nothing. He has been active all his life and he still needs to be active — by doing whatever he can to keep busy. Meddling in his wife's affairs is one of those things. Ruth and her best friend, Pauline Fox, operate the Flower Café across the street from her home (it is later a coffee shop/book store) and Hilton helps when he can. He enjoys a drink at the Steinway Pub.

Erica was first a law student then a lawyer with the firm of Muldrew and Renwick. She quit to become a flight attendant (for National West). She gave this up to become a teacher.

Griffin Vesey, Erica's friend, is a sound engineer turned teacher at the Ralph Bunche Middle School. He is also a man without a home. When Erica began practicing her cooking, she burnt his home to the ground; he now resides with Bill and Ruth. Griffin produced and wrote a song for the group Blood Penguins.

While Hilton struggles to adjust to life without work (and without bugging Ruth) he finds himself sharing small talk with Jurnee, the neighborhood girl who befriends Ruth and Hilton.

Cast: Bill Cosby (Hilton Lucas), Phylicia Rashad (Ruth Lucas), T'Keyah Crystal Keymah (Erica Lewis), Doug E. Doug (Griffin Vesey), Madeline Khan (Pauline Fox), Jurnee Smollett (Jurnee).

1674 The Cosby Mysteries. (Series; Crime Drama; NBC; 1994–1995). When there are no obvious clues, no suspects and no leads in a homicide case, forensic scientist Guy Hanks is called in to investigate. Guy combines his keen sense of deductive reasoning with the latest lab equipment to determine the facts about a crime.

Guy was born in Philadelphia. He is a widower and lives at 610 West 110th Street, Apartment 3F, in Manhattan. He is with the 15th Precinct of the N.Y.P.D. Gus is studying the bass clarinet and every Wednesday morning he buys a lottery ticket. After playing the game for 19 years (the amount of time he was on the force) he wins a multi-million dollar jackpot. The money enables Guy to retire, but he soon becomes bored and returns to the force “because I can’t resist the urge to solve crimes.” Guy began working for the department in 1972. He recalled his first case as being “The Olivia Bellini Murder Case,” wherein he solved the murder of an unpopular coded found dead in a car.

Oona David is Guy’s housekeeper. Oona has been working for Guy for 20 years and longs to be an actress (she is later replaced by Angie Corea). Adam Sully is a detective with the 15th Precinct who works with Guy.

Barbara Lorenz is the physical therapist Guy visits after he is wounded (shot in the arm). Barbara is from Whitestone, Queens, N.Y., and had planned to become a dance teacher. One day, while in a dance class, a student fell and broke her hip. Barbara helped the girl regain the use of her legs and found her true calling as a physical therapist. She and Guy eventually became romantically involved. William E. Cosby, Jr., David Black and Craig Hardy composed the theme.

Cast: Bill Cosby (Dr. Guy Hanks), Alice Playten (Oona David), James Naughton (Adam Sully), Lynn Whitfield (Barbara Lorenz), Rita Moreno (Angie Corea).

1675 The Cosby Show. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1984–1992). At 10 Stigwood Avenue in Brooklyn, New York, resides the Huxtable family: parents Cliff and Clair, and their children, Sondra, Denise, Theo, Vanessa and Rudy. Cliff, whose real name is Heathcliff, is an obstetrician-gynecologist who works out of his home and at both Corinthian Hospital and Children’s Hospital in Brooklyn. In his youth Cliff wanted to become a drummer. His favorite hangout is Jake’s Appliance Store (where, Clair says, he has no sales resistance).

Cliff is a graduate of Hillman College in Georgia. It is here that he met and fell in love with Clair Hanks (he called Clair “Lum Lum”; she called him “Baby Cakes”). They married on 2/14/64 and honeymooned at the Caralu Hotel in the Caribbean.

Clair is a lawyer with the firm of Greentree, Bradley and Dexter. She was also a panelist on “Retrospective,” a television show on Channel 37 that explores history.

Sondra, the oldest child, attended Princeton University and was the first of the Huxtable kids to marry. She and her husband, Elvin Tibideaux, later became the parents of twins they named Winnie and Nelson.

Elvin calls Sondra “Muffin,” and together they ran a business called the Wilderness Store. (Elvin was a pre-med student at Princeton when he first met Sondra, a law student. When they married, they put everything on hold to open their store.) Elvin gave up the medical profession for psychological reasons: he has a problem charging people for medical help. With Cliff’s help, Elvin returned to medical school. When Elvin became a doctor in 1990, Sondra enrolled in an unnamed law school to continue her education. A year later, Sondra is a lawyer and she, Elvin and the twins move in with Cliff and Clair as a temporary measure until they can find their own home. In the episode of 2/6/92, Sondra and her family move to their own home in New Jersey.

Denise, the second born and most troublesome child, attended Central High School and spent three semesters at Hillman College (where she received five Ds, one C and seven incompletes; see A Different World for further information). With no interest in college, she quit (much to her parents’ regret), returned home and held jobs at the Wilderness Store and at Blue Wave Records (where she earned $25 a week as the assistant to the executive assistant). She later went to Africa as a photographer’s assistant and returned one year later married to a navy lieutenant (Martin Kendall) and as the stepmother of his young daughter, Olivia. Denise, who had a dream of teaching disabled children, enrolled in the Medgar Evers College of the City University of New York and began taking education courses.

Theodore (“Theo”) Aloysius Huxtable, the only son, attended Central High School and later N.Y.U. (where he lives in Apartment 10B of an unidentified building in Greenwich Village). In 1991 Theo majored in psychology and became a junior counselor at the Seton Hall Communications Center (the Rosa Parks Group). Shortly after, he was accepted into N.Y.U.’s grad school (Department of Psychology).

Vanessa, the fourth born child, first attended Central High School, then Lincoln University in Philadelphia. She is a fan of old movies and in the fall of 1991 announced her engagement to Dabnis Brickley, a man 12 years her senior (Vanessa is 18). Dabnis works as a maintenance man at the college, and they later broke off the engagement, but remained friends. In high school, Vanessa was a member of the rock group The Lipsticks.

Rudith (“Rudy”) Lillian Huxtable is the youngest of the children. She attends an unnamed grammar school, and has a teddy bear named Bobo and a goldfish she calls Lamot.

In the last first-run episode, “The Graduate” (4/30/92), Denise announces that she is pregnant and Theo, a student with atrocious grades in high school, graduates from N.Y.U. with a bachelor of science degree.

Relatives: Earle Hyman (Cliff’s father, Russell Huxtable), Clarice Taylor (Cliff’s mother, Anna Huxtable), Minnie Gentry (Cliff’s great-aunt, Gramtee), Joe Williams (Clair’s father, Al Hanks), Ethel Ayler (Clair’s mother, Carrie Hanks), Yvette

Erwin (Clair's sister, Sara), Erika Alexander (Clair's cousin, Pam Turner), Marcella Lowery (Elvin's mother, Francine Tibideaux), Deon Richmond (Elvin's father, Lester Tibideaux), Victoria Rowell (Martin's ex-wife, Paula), Nancy Wilson (Martin's mother, Lorraine Kendall), Moses Gunn (Martin's father, Joel Kendall). Twins Donovan and Darrian Bryant played Sondra's son, Nelson, as an infant; Jalese and Jenelle Grays played Winnie as an infant. Jessica Vaughn (Winnie) and Gary Gray (Nelson) were the twins later.

Theme: "The Cosby Show Theme," by Bill Cosby and Stu Gardner.

Cast: Bill Cosby (Cliff Huxtable), Phylicia Rashad (Clair Huxtable), Lisa Bonet (Denise Huxtable), Sabrina LeBeauf (Sondra Huxtable), Malcolm-Jamal Warner (Theo Huxtable), Tempestt Bledsoe (Rudy Huxtable), Geoffrey Owens (Elvin Tibideaux), Joseph C. Phillips (Martin Kendall), Raven Symone (Olivia Kendall), William Thomas, Jr. (Dabnis Brickley).

1676 Cosmopolitan Theater. (Series; Anthology; DuMont; 1951). Dramatizations based on stories appearing in Cosmopolitan magazine. The series, which produced 13 episodes, aired from October 2, 1951 to December 25, 1951.

Performers Include: E.G. Marshall, Lee Tracy, Marsha Hunt, Betty Field, Joseph Schildkraut, Lon Chaney, Jr., Dennis Hoey, Beatrice Straight, Tom Ewell, Constance Dowling, Susan Douglas, John Hoyt, Peggy Allenby, John Forsythe, Torin Thatcher, Phyllis Love, Bethel Leslie, Jo Van Fleet, Peggy Conklin.

1677 Costello. (Series; Comedy; Fox; 1998). Sue Murphy is a single 27-year-old woman who lives in South Boston. She works as a bartender at the Bully Dog Bar and feels this is only a stepping stone to something better. Sue is Irish Catholic, opinionated and ready for an argument if anyone disagrees with her. She is very close to her family and due to a setback, has moved in with them: her father, Spud, a carpenter; Lottie, her mother, a waitress; and her younger brother, Jimmy, a slacker whose main ambition in life is to avoid work. Rounding out Sue's "family" circle is Mary McDonough, her rival since childhood, who feels her goal in life is to outdo Sue at everything.

Cast: Sue Costello (Sue Murphy), Dan Lauria (Spud Murphy), Jenny O'Hara (Lottie Murphy), Chuck Walczak (Jimmy Murphy), Josie DiVencenzo (Mary McDonough), Kerry O'Malley (Trish Donnelly).

1678 Couch Potato. (Unaired Pilot; Nostalgia; Produced in 1986). An unsold series that was to celebrate "baby-boomer television" with clips from shows that aired during the 1950s, 60s and 70s.

Host ("The Tour Guide"): Richard Belzer.

1679 The Councilman. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 3/4/72). A proposed spin-off from The Mary Tyler Moore Show about two girls (Jennifer and Chris) who are the secretaries to an incompetent city councilman (Pete) "whose go-get-'em spirit is matched only by his total ignorance of current events." The unsold series was to relate Chris and Jennifer's efforts to resolve the embarrassing situations Pete creates. In the pilot episode, Mary Richards, the producer of a news program, finds herself faced with a dilemma when the incompetent Ted Baxter, the news anchor, is asked to interview the incompetent councilman for a news conference.

Cast: Bill Daily (Pete), Carol Androsky (Jennifer), Janet MacLaughlan (Chris), Wally Taylor (Walter), Mary Tyler Moore (Mary Richards), Ted Knight (Ted Baxter).

1680 Count De Clues Mystery Castle. (Pilot; Children; Fox; 10/29/93). A mystery comedy for children about Count De Clues, a magician who solves mysteries that occur in his castle. In the pilot episode, the count and his assistants, Illusia, Professor Fixel, Botch (Fixel's failed experiment) and Botler the Butler attempt to solve "The Case of the Missing Wand."

Other Regulars: Kyle, the teenager; and the Voice of the Castle.

Cast: Max Maven (Count De Clues), Deborah Swisher (Illusia), Danny Woodburn (Professor Fixel), Tommy Koenig (Botch), Robert Shields (Botler), Christopher Coombs (Kyle), David Leisure (Voice of the Castle).

1681 Count Duckula. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1988). Count Duckula is a vampire duck that has not entered the dark realm. He is basically good and he lives in a magic castle that can travel to any location (to allow him to search for lost treasures). Living with him is Igor, his evil butler (a vulture), and Nanny (a large hen), his somewhat dim-witted caretaker. Stories relate the problems Count Duckula faces and has to overcome: the efforts of Igor to bring him to the dark side and end his vegetarian ways (a side effect of his reanimation); his efforts to avoid Nanny's care (which, do to her clumsiness, could kill him); and avoid Dr. Von Gooseway, a vampire hunter out to dispose of him.

Voice Cast: David Jason (Count Duckula), Jack May (Igor), Brian Trueman (Nanny), Jimmy Hibbert (Dr. Von Gooseway), Barry Clayton (Narrator).

1682 The Count of Monte Cristo. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1956). The series is set in 18th century France. Falsely accused of bearing treasonable information, Edmond Dantes is convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment in the Chateau d'If. When he learns of a buried treasure from his cellmate, Dantes digs his way out, escapes, and retreats to the island of Monte Cristo. There, he uncovers the treasure and establishes himself as a mysterious and powerful figure for justice. Stories relate his battle against the forces of corruption.

Cast: George Dolenz (Edmond Dantes), Faith Domergue (Princess Anne), Nick Cravat (Jocopo), Fortunio Bonanova (Mario), Leslie Bradley (Minister Bonjean), John Sutton (de Villefort).

1683 Counter Attack: Crime in America. (Series; Reality; ABC; 1982). An unusual and unique program that presents reenactments of actual crimes to illustrate crime-prevention tips and increase viewer awareness of potential crime situations. Following a dramatization, viewers who may possess knowledge of a crime are asked to call either their local police or “We Tip” (1-800-73-Crime), a California-based anti crime system that has helped solve over 1,300 crimes. The series ran for four episodes.

Host-Narrator: George Kennedy. Reporters: Terence McNally, Pam Galloway, Frank Wheaton. Regulars: Larry Kitler, Walt LaRue, Dean Simone, Ralph W. Spaulding, Jack Stauffer, Neil Summers, Ivy Bethune, Rance Howard, Joe Handy, Jane Alden, Alan Campbell, Mickey Cherney, Cameron Dye, Lila Fin.

1684 Counterpoint. (Series; Anthology; Syn.; 1952). A series of dramatic stories produced especially for syndication.

Performers Include: Barbara Billingsley, Gloria Jean, Hayden Rorke, Jeff Donnell, Raymond Burr, Gloria Saunders, Lee Marvin, Elisabeth Fraser.

1685 Counterspy. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1958). A television adaptation of the radio series David Harding, Counterspy (about David Harding, a United States government counterintelligence agent). Stories depict David’s battle against the secret enemy organizations that pose a threat to the Free World.

Cast: Don Megowan (David Harding).

1686 Counterstrike. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1990–1993). Alexander Addington is an international industrialist with a score to settle. Following his wife’s death during a terrorist kidnapping, Alexander assembles a team of highly skilled troubleshooters to avenge her death by combating terrorism wherever it exists. Alexander’s main operatives are Peter Sinclair, a former Scotland Yard Inspector, who heads the team, Nikki Beaumont, Gabrielle Germont, Luke Brenner and Hector Stone (Helene Previn joins the team in later episodes). Stories follow Alexander’s band of mercenaries as they fight to bring down terrorists with weapons and tactics as deadly as theirs.

Cast: Christopher Plummer (Alexander Addington), Simon MacCorkindale (Peter Sinclair), Sophie

Michaud (Gabrielle Germont), Cyrielle Claire (Nikki Beaumont), Stephen Shellen (Luke Brenner), Patricia Cartier (Helene Previn), James Purcell (Hector Stone).

1687 Counterthrust. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1959). The cases of a group of American espionage agents as they battle the forces of Communism in the Far East.

Agents: Tod Andrews, Diane Jergens, Victor Diaz.

1688 Country Carnival. (Series; Variety; Syn.; 1960). The program features performances by country and western entertainers.

Host: Bill Walker, Del Reeves. Regulars: Janey Ryan, Chase Webster, The Goodtime Charlies.

1689 Country Club. (Series; Variety; Syn.; 1971). Hugh X. Lewis hosts a program of performances by country and western artists.

1690 Country Estates. (Pilot; Drama; ABC; 7/10/93). A scene of a city in crisis is shown as an announcer speaks: “Is this any place to raise your children? Why not come home to us, here in Country Estates, a community where front yards bloom with flowers and the air is crystal clear; where neighborhood children play together and live together in the prestigious Cords County school district. At last your search has ended. Relax in a place where happily ever after isn’t a fairy tale; it is a reality.” The Reeds and Carvers are two families who take the advice given in the TV commercial and move to their dream homes in Country Estates, a housing development one hour from Los Angeles.

Country Estates appears to be normal, but it hides many secrets — and the Reed and Carver families’ involvement in the mysterious happenings of the development is the focal point of the unsold series. The pilot episode revolves around (but doesn’t solve) the murders of a kinky couple the kids called “The Honeymooners.”

Cast: Tom Irwin (Sam Reed), Barbara Williams (Sarah Reed), Jason London (Adam Reed), Bruce A. Young (Henry Carver), Alison Elliot (Robyn Carver), Michele Kelly (Jiwanda Carver), Patrick Y. Malone (Henry Carver, Jr.), Perry King (Sheriff Kurt Morgan), Vinessa Shaw (Heather Calhoun), Scott Baristow (Oliver), Fred Applegate (Dave).

1691 A Country Happening. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 9/8/69). A proposed series of country and western sketches that take an off-center look at various aspects of the world in which we live.

Hosts: Roy Rogers and Dale Evans. Guests: Glen Ash, Bobby Goldsboro, Michael Landon, Jody Miller, The Ozark Girls.

1692 Country Music Caravan. (Series; Variety; Syn.; 1974). A series of film clips from various country and western musical variety programs of the 1950s coupled with performances by a cast of regular country and western entertainers.

Hosts: Marty Robbins, Ernest Tubbs, Jimmy Dickens, Carl Smith, Ray Price, Grandpa Jones. Regulars: Faron Young, Minnie Pearl, The Carter Family, Moon Mulligan, The George Morgan Square Dancers, The Tennessee Mountain Boys, Kitty Wells, Rudy Wright, The Carter Sisters, Rod Brasfield, The Grand Ole Opry Square Dancers, June Carter, Rita Faye, The Jordanaires, The North Carolina Square Dancers, Gordon Terry, The College Kids Square Dancers, Ferlin Husky, The Carolina Cloggers, Ray Price, Red Savibn.

1693 Country Music Carousel. (Series; Variety; Syn.; 1967). Singer Slim Wilson hosts a program that features performances by country and western entertainers.

1694 Country Music Hall. (Series; Variety; Syn.; 1965). The program spotlights established as well as up and coming country and western entertainers.

Host: Carl Smith. Regulars: Jeannie Shepherd, Tommy Warren.

1695 Country Music Jubilee. (Series; Variety; ABC; 1955–1960). The alternate title for Jubilee, U.S.A. See this title for information.

1696 The Country Place. (Series; Variety; Syn.; 1969). The program features performances by country and western entertainers.

Host: Jim Ed Brown, Black Emmons. Regulars: Crystal Gayle, The Gema. Music: The Sound Seventies.

1697 Country Style. (Experimental Series; Variety; DuMont; 1944). Television's first program devoted to country and western music. Although experimental, it did set the pace for the many similar programs that were to follow. Singers Patty Adair and Peggy Anne Ellis hosted weekly performances by then popular country and western artists. Television pioneer Alan B. DuMont was the producer.

Hosts: Patty Adair, Peggy Anne Ellis.

1698 Country Style. (Series; Variety; DuMont; 1950). The program features performances by country and western entertainers.

Hostess: Peggy Anne Ellis. Regulars: Gloria Dilworth, Emily Barnes, Bob Austin, Pat Adair, The Folk Dancers. Music: The Alvy West Band.

1699 Country Style, U.S.A. (Series; Variety; Syn.; 1959). Singer Charlie Applewhite hosts a program of performances by country and western entertainers.

1700 County Fair. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1958–1959). A program of music and songs set against the background of a county fair. Perry Cross is the producer.

Host: Bert Parks. Announcer: Kenny Williams. Music: The Bill Gale Band.

1701 County General. (Pilot; Drama; ABC; 3/18/62). A proposed series about Paul Larson, a doctor at County General Hospital in Colorado. In the pilot episode, broadcast as an episode of Bus Stop, Larson attempts to help a frightened young boy who will not talk and who is apparently lost.

Cast: Donald May (Dr. Paul Larson), Frank Lovejoy (Lieutenant Kincaid), Dianne Foster (Barbara Cullum), Pat Rossen (Billy Cullum), Sherwood Price (Freddie Blaine), Marilyn Maxwell (Grace Sherwood), Rhodes Reason (Will Mayberry).

1702 A Couple of Joes. (Series; Variety; ABC; 1949–1950). A series of music, songs and comedy sketches hosted by two men named Joe. The series ran from August 5, 1949 to July 12, 1950. Richard Gordon and Alan Kent are the producers.

Hosts: Joe Rosenfeld, Joe Bushkin. Regulars: Joan Barton, Beryl Richard, Allyn Edwards, Pat Harrington, Jr., Warren Hull, Morgan the Wonder Dog. Announcer: Tom Shirley. Music: Mike Reilly, Milton DeLugg.

1703 Couples. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 7/2/94). New York City is the setting for a proposed series about three couples who share views on marriage, parenting and male-female communication. Nina and Jamie are the parents of a newborn baby (Sam) and struggling to adjust to parenthood; Ellie and Ray are the parents of three boys (Joey, Charley and R.J.); and Beth and Steve are the parents of two daughters (Natalie and Amanda). The rather confusing pilot episode (a large cast is literally thrown at the viewer with no attempt to introduce characters or even match performer with character) deals with Nina's bewilderment as to why people are shocked to see her breast feed her baby in public.

Cast: Helen Slater (Nina), Jonathan Silverman (Jamie), Mariangela Pino (Ellie), Robert Clohessy (Ray), Megan Mullally (Beth), James Naughton (Steven), Billy L. Sullivan (R.J.), Brendon Meyer (Joey), Chad Power (Charley), Brittany English Stephens (Natalie), Sara Rose Johnson (Amanda)

1704 Coupling. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 2003). An American version of the hit British series of the same title that was heavily promoted but quickly cancelled due to low ratings and unfavorable reviews. The series came and went so fast that there was not enough time to establish characterizations. The basic format has six friends (Sally, Susan, Jane, Jeff, Steve and Patrick) who are in their thirties and either involved, formally involved or looking to become intimately involved (often within their own little group). The elements of a hit were present: sex, a good looking cast and a cushy time slot (9:30 P.M. after Will and Grace) but the audience simply was not there.

Cast: Rena Sofer (Susan Freeman), Sonya Walger (Sally Harper), Lindsay Price (Jane Honda), Colin Ferguson (Patrick Maitland), Jay Harrington (Steve Taylor), Christopher Moynihan (Jeff Clamy).

1705 Courage, the Cowardly Dog. (Series; Cartoon; Cartoon Network; 1999–2002). Courage is a lovable pink dog that is, at heart, a coward (even his own shadow scares him). He was abandoned as a puppy but found and given a home by the kind Muriel Bagg and her cranky (if not mean and rude) husband, Eustace. The Baggs live in Nowhere, Kansas, a place where the paranormal also seems to live as strange things are always happening (but Muriel and Eustace are totally unaware as to what happens around them). Stories follow Courage as he tries to shed his fears and save Muriel and Eustace from the strange, creepy creatures that seek to do them harm.

Voice Cast: Marty Grobstein (Courage), Thea White (Muriel Bagg), Bente Eskensen (Muriel Bagg; later), Lionel G. Wilson (Eustace Bagg), Arthur Anderson (Eustace Bagg; later), Tim Chi Ly (Di Lung), Mary Testa (Shirley the Medium), Fran Brill (The Stitch Sisters).

1706 Courageous Cat. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1961). Empire City is a modern metropolis beset by crime. Courageous Cat is a mysterious feline who has developed unique crime-fighting weapons that he and his assistant, Minute Mouse, use to battle evil. They are based in the Cat Cave and ride a car called the Cat Mobile. They receive orders from the Police Chief and Courageous Cat's weapon of choice is the multi purpose Cat Gun. Stories relate their endless crusade against the sinister villains who seek to take over Empire City (these include The Frog, Professor Shaggy Dog, Black Cat and Rodney Rodent).

Voice Cast: Dallas McKennon (Courageous Cat and Minute Mouse).

1707 The Court. (Series; Drama; ABC; 2002). A short lived (3 episode) series about Kate Nolan, a Supreme Court Justice struggling to come to fair and honest decisions based on the evidence that is presented to her. In addition to the Justices listed in the cast, other regulars are reporters Betsy Tyler and Dylan Hirsch.

Cast: Sally Field (Justice Kate Nolan), Pat Hingle (Chief Justice Townsend), Miguel Sandoval (Justice Martinez), Chris Sarandon (Justice Voorhes), Christina Hendricks (Betsy Tyler), Josh Radnor (Dylan Hirsch).

1708 Court-Martial. (Series; Drama; ABC; 1966). London, England, during World War II is the setting for a series about Captain David Young and Major Frank Whitaker, attorneys attached to the Judge Advocate General's Office. Episodes relate their defense of American military personnel. See also The Case Against Paul Ryker for information on the series pilot film. The series, which produced 26 episodes, aired from April 8, 1966 to September 2, 1966.

Cast: Peter Graves (Major Frank Whitaker), Bradford Dillman (Captain David Young), Diene Clare (Wendy; Frank's secretary), Kenneth J. Warren (Sgt. John MacCaskey).

1709 The Court of Last Resort. (Series; Crime Drama; NBC; 1957–1958). The program is designed to help people who are falsely accused of a crime. Details of actual case histories are related through private detective Sam Larsen's investigations and criminal attorney Erle Stanley Gardner's courtroom defenses. Based on The Court of Last Resort, a real-life organization of crime experts who investigate cases in which there is a possibility that a convicted person may be innocent.

Cast: Paul Birch (Erle Stanley Gardner), Lyle Bettger (Sam Larsen).

1710 Courthouse. (Series; Drama; CBS; 1995). A behind-the-scenes look at the inner workings of a courthouse with a focus on the judges, prosecutors and public defenders whose lives interact each day. The series ran from September 13, 1995 to November 16, 1995.

Cast: Cotter Smith (Andrew Rawson), Robin Givens (Suzanne Graham), Bob Gunton (Judge Homer Conklin), Brad Johnson (Judge Wyatt Jackson), Michael Lerner (Judge Myron Winkleman), Jenifer Lewis (Judge Rosetta Reide), Nia Peeples (Veronica Gilbert), Jeffrey D. Sams (Edison Moore), Patricia Wettig (Judge Justine Parkes), Dan Gauthier (Jonathan Mitchell), Jacqueline Kim (Amy Chen).

1711 Courting Alex. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 2006). Alexandra "Alex" Rose is a beautiful lawyer who appears to be all work and no play (she even brings her work with her on dates). Alex always wanted to be a lawyer—ever since she was three years old. She was in the third grade when she started a Halloween tradition of dressing up as a lawyer ("Do you know how many Hershey bars fit in a suitcase?"). Alex's father, Billy, was a lawyer and when Alex graduated from NYU, she joined his Manhattan firm (Miller and Rose).

Stories revolve around Alex's personal and professional life and her efforts to be less work competitive and enjoy life. This happens when she falls for Scott Larson, the owner of a bar who is her direct opposite. Alex becomes less of a control freak on issues and slowly begins to learn how to bring life into her life.

Other Regulars: Molly, Alex's brash secretary;

Stephen, a lawyer with the firm; and Julian, Alex's upstairs neighbor, an artist who is trying to convince Alex to pose nude for him. Billy has been married three times and feels a drink goes with a deal.

Cast: Jenna Elfman (Alex Rose), Dabney Coleman (Billy Rose), Jillian Bach (Molly), Josh Randall (Scott Larson), Hugh Bonneville (Julian), Josh Stenberg (Stephen).

1712 The Courtship of Eddie's Father. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1969–1972). Thomas (“Tom”) Corbett and his six-year-old son, Edward (“Eddie”) Corbett, live in Apartment C at 146 South Beverly Boulevard in Los Angeles, California. Tom, a recent widower, is the editor of Tomorrow Magazine, a newspaper magazine supplement.

Eddie, who attends the Selmer Grammar School, is determined to find his father a new wife. He lives by the last words his mother told him (to watch out for Tom) and plays matchmaker. Although Tom says, “Stop trying to find girls for me,” Eddie persists and invites “strays” home to meet “his kind, generous and handsome father.”

“Most kids have a father father,” says Eddie, “but I have a father who’s my best friend.” And the special friendship the two share is depicted more often than the matchmaking aspects as the series progressed.

Mrs. Livingston is their housekeeper. She is Japanese, calls Tom “Mr. Eddie’s Father” and is attending night classes to improve her English. Norman Tinker is Eddie’s adoptive uncle. He is Tom’s friend, the magazine’s art director; he is also irresponsible and a ladies’ man.

“They threw the mold away and they made you,” says Tom about his pretty, sometimes dizzy, sometimes brilliant secretary, Tina Rickles, whom he confides in when he has a problem with Eddie. Joanna Margaret Jacqueline Kelly, better known as Joey, is Eddie’s friend (she was originally the school bully, giving Eddie a black eye and knocking a baby tooth out, before Mrs. Livingston refined her). Cissy Drummond is the magazine’s editor-in-chief; and Etta was Tom’s secretary before Tina.

Relatives: Will Geer (Tom’s father, Harry Corbett), Francine York (Tom’s sister-in-law, Kate Landis).

Cast: Bill Bixby (Tom Corbett), Brandon Cruz (Eddie Corbett), Miyoshi Umeki (Mrs. Livingston), Tippi Hedren (Cissy Drummond), James Komack (Norman Tinker), Karen Wolfe (Etta), Kristina Holland (Tina Rickles), Jodie Foster (Joey Kelly), Francine York (Kate Landis). Theme Vocal: “Best Friend” by Nilsson.

1713 Cousins. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 8/10/76). Gail Raymond and Barbara Donohue are cousins who work as secretaries for Leonard Mandorff, the owner of the Mandorff Advertising Agency in Manhattan. The unsold series was to focus on Gail and Barbara’s activities, particularly on those of Gail, who has just relocated from Pittsburgh to live with Barbara in New York City.

Cast: Lisa Mordente (Gail Raymond), Dee Dee Rescher (Barbara Donohue), David Ogden Stiers (Leonard Mandorff), Ray Buktenica (Alan Peters, works at the agency). Guest Cast: Wynn Irwin (Phil), Fay DeWitt (Bebe), Lanny Horn (John), Basil Hoffman (Banana), Jack Bannon (Pineapple).

1714 Covenant. (Pilot; Drama; ABC; 8/5/85). The Nobles are a wealthy San Francisco banking family whose financial empire was built with Nazi gold (family head Victor Noble had been a special advisor to Adolph Hitler). To maintain their power, the family uses the evil of the Covenant (supernatural powers that are possessed by the women of the clan) to control people and events for their own personal gain.

Seeking to destroy their evil is Zachariah, a judge who has been assigned by the forces of good to terminate the Nobles. The unsold series, a prime time serial, was to focus on the battle between good and evil.

Other Regulars: Dana Noble, Victor’s ruthless young wife; Claire, Dana’s fraternal twin sister; Eric Noble, Claire’s devoted husband (Eric is Victor’s son by a former marriage); Angelica, Claire’s teenage daughter (who unknowingly possesses total power); Ranada, the guardian of the Covenant; and David Wyman, Zachariah’s assistant.

Cast: Jose Ferrer (Victor Noble), Jane Badler (Dana Noble), Michelle Phillips (Claire Noble), Whitney Kershaw (Angelica Noble), Bradford Dillman (Eric Noble), Barry Morse (Zachariah), Judy Parfitt (Ranada), Charles Frank (David Wyman). Guest Cast: John Van Dreelen (Henrick Bosch), Tia Carrere (Girl at Golden Calf), Ji-Tu Cumbuka (Duboff), Jan Merlin (Constance), Scott Utley (Freddie), Kevin Conroy (Stephen), Eric Todd (Stewardess).

1715 Cover Girls. (Pilot; Crime Drama; NBC; 5/18/77). The C.I.U. (Criminal Intelligence Unit) of the U.S. government is a one-man, two-woman operation that tackles dangerous international assignments. James Andrews is the leader, and Linda Allen and Monique Lawrence are his women, beautiful fashion models who double as undercover agents. The unsold series was to relate their case assignments. In the pilot episode, Linda and Monique risk their lives to break up a kidnapping ring.

Cast: Cornelia Sharpe (Linda Allen), Jayne Kennedy (Monique Lawrence), Don Galloway (James Andrews). Guest Cast: Vince Edwards (Bradner), George Lazenby (Michael), Michael Baseleon (Paul Rey nolds), Don Johnson (Johnny Wilson), Ellen Travolta (Ziggy), Jerry Douglas (Fritz Porter), Sean Garrison (Steven).

1716 Cover Up. (Series; Adventure; CBS; 1984–1985). Danielle (“Dani”) Reynolds is a beautiful high fashion photographer who owns Reynolds Photography, a studio located at 36 North Dutton Drive in Los Angeles. Mac Harper is a much-decorated former Green Beret who poses as Dani’s top model, his guise as a U.S. government undercover agent. Henry Towler is the American ambassador-at-large to whom they report for assignments (to rescue Americans in trouble anywhere in the world).

Rick is Dani’s assistant; and Dani’s gorgeous models are Gretchen, Ashley, Rachel, and Billie. Dani, who is reckless and likes to get her own way, knows all the famous fashion designers of the world and calls in favors when she needs them (for example, clothes for a false front fashion show).

When agent Jack Stryker blows a case and fails to retrieve a kidnapped writer named Elliott Dawson (Efrem Zimbalist, Jr.), Henry teams him with Dani in an attempt to complete the mission (Henry explains that Mac is on another assignment). Jack is a former Green Beret. Although born in Kansas, he spent most of his life in Australia, where he was sent to live after his parents’ death. He is opinionated, self-centered and stubborn. When they successfully rescue Dawson, Dani learns that Mac was killed during his assignment (reflecting the real-life death of Jon-Erik Hexum [Mac], who accidentally shot himself in October 1984).

Dani believes that she sets all the rules; Jack believes that he is “the boss” (letting both believe what they do was the only way Henry could get Dani and Jack to work together). Jack also poses as a top male fashion model.

Peter Brown played Dani’s husband, Mark Reynolds, in the first episode. A government agent, Mark was killed when he became involved in a plot to sell high tech American weapons to a foreign agent. Henry first teamed Dani and Mac to go undercover and find Mark’s killer. Jim Pitchford and Dean Steinman composed the theme, “Holding Out for a Hero.”

Cast: Jennifer O’Neill (Dani Reynolds), Jon-Erik Hexum (Mac Harper), Richard Anderson (Henry Towler), Anthony Hamilton (Jack Stryker), Mykel T. Williams (Rick), Ingrid Anderson (Gretchen), Irena Ferris (Billie), Dana Sparks (Ashley), Rosemarie Thomas (Rachel), Sheree J. Wilson (Rachel; later).

1717 Covington Cross. (Series; Adventure; ABC; 1992). Medieval England is the setting for a series that relates events in the life of Sir Thomas Grey, a widower, and his children: Eleanor, Cedric, Armus, Richard and William.

The Greys live in a castle called Covington Cross. Thomas was married to Anne, who died of the plague when Eleanor was seven years old. He has now developed a relationship with Lady Elizabeth.

Richard and Armus are knights; Cedric is following his mother’s wish and becoming a cleric. William was seen in the pilot/first episode and left for the Crusades; he was not seen again and only occasionally mentioned. Eleanor would like to do what men do — defend England against her enemies; she can ride a horse and is proficient with a crossbow.

Other Regulars: Sir John Mullins, the man seeking to own Covington Cross; the Duke of Worringer; and the Friar.

Cast: Nigel Terry (Sir Thomas Grey), Ione Skye (Eleanor Grey), Glenn Quinn (Cedric Grey), Tim Kallick (Armus Grey), Jonathan Firth (Richard Grey), Cherie Lunghi (Lady Elizabeth), Ben Porter (William Grey), James Faulkner (Sir John Mullins), Anthony Valentine (Duke of Worringer), Paul Brooke (The Friar).

1718 Cow and Chicken. (Series; Cartoon; Cartoon Network; 1997–1999). Cow and Chicken are, as their names imply, a cow and a chicken that live with humans in suburbia. They are also best friends and best at finding mishap in everything they attempt to do. Cow is as wacky as Chicken and feels it is his duty to help Chicken out of the goofy situations he manages to get himself into. The situations always worsen with Chicken’s help and stories relate the chaos the two cause for all concerned.

Voice Cast: Charles Adler (Chicken), Pauline Rehne (Cow), Dom DeLuise (Dakota Governor), Howard Morris (Flem), Candi Milo (Mom), Dan Castellaneta (Earl). Additional Voices: Dee Bradley Baker, Ann Hjort, Cam Clarke, David Feiss, Will Ferrell, Mark Hamill.

1719 Cowboy Bebop. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1998). A Japanese produced animated series that takes the genre above anything else that has ever been produced for television as it combines every conceivable element to tell its stories (horror, comedy, action, slapstick, parodies, romance, tragedy, satire) of a futuristic bounty hunter.

Spike Spiegel is a bounty hunter with only one goal — get his man (or woman) at any cost for the offered reward. Whether it is on Earth or some far-flung planet, it is not a problem if there is money to be made. Spike and his crew will find a way to collect it.

Jet Black, Faye Valentine and Edward Wong Hau Pepelu Tivrusky IV (called Ed for short) and an intelligent dog (Ein) assist Spike; their spaceship is Bebop.

Spike is a former underworld criminal and gifted in the martial arts; his laid back persona makes him appear like a slacker (but when riled, he is mean to the core). Jet is not the most pleasant person; he is the group’s strategist and looks out for the team; Faye is the group’s weapons expert (and a bit trigger happy). Ed, a female, is the group’s nut case

(although her strange behavior can be attributed to her being raised by a deranged father; he also gave her a male name). Ein, a Welch Corgi, feels nobody appreciates him. Dubbed in English from the Japanese series Kaiboi Bibappu.

Voice Cast: Steven Jay Blum (Spike Spiegel), Beau Billingslea (Jet Black), Wendee Lee (Faye Valentine), Melissa Fahn (Ed).

1720 Cowboy Five-Seven. (Pilot; Drama; NBC; 7/1/59). An unsold series based on the actual experiences of and starring the men and women of the Strategic Air Command. The pilot episode tells of Major Gerald McKay, who must make a mission, but promises to be back for his daughter's piano recital. A fierce storm and a stalled scooter are some of the problems he faces as he attempts to keep that promise (which he does).

Actor James Stewart, a colonel during World War II, is the producer and changed the call sign of a 200-ton jet bomber from "Cowbell" to "Cowboy" to reflect his career in western films. No professional actors are used.

Cast: James Stewart (Narrator).

1721 Cowboy G-Men. (Series; Western; Syn.; 1952). Pat Gallagher and Stoney Crockett are U.S. government undercover agents assigned to the California territory (during the 1880s). Pat poses as a ranch hand and Stoney takes on the guise of a wrangler. Stories relate their secret assignments to apprehend outlaws and maintain the peace.

Cast: Russell Hayden (Pat Gallagher), Jackie Coogan (Stoney Crockett).

1722 Cowboy in Africa. (Series; Adventure; ABC; 1967–1968). After retiring from Her Majesty's Royal Air Force, Commander Howard Hayes begins a cattle ranch in Kenya. One day, a wild zebra (whom he later names Pajama Tops) wanders onto the ranch "and sort of adopted us." The animal was so domesticated that it gave Hayes the idea of domesticating wild animals and starting game ranching. It appears that if overgrazing by domestic cattle continues, Africa will turn into a desert. "Domestic cattle move like sardines, eat the grass and pound the ground into volcanic dust. Wild animals travel to water faster and are in great shape off the same land."

The Hayes Ranch becomes a game ranch, and Hayes begins his job of making wild animals part of the economy by hiring James ("Jim") Sinclair, a world champion rodeo rider, to rope and herd the animals (which include the zebra, wildebeest, buffalo and antelope). Jim is assisted by John Henry, his American Indian partner (his "hazer and tying buddy"). Stories relate their struggles and the opposition they face from the diehard cattle ranchers who think Hayes's plan is foolish (they also fear that wild animal diseases will affect their cattle).

Jim previously worked on an unnamed ranch in Texas (which was turned into a highway) and won the "World Champion Cowboy" award (as depicted on his belt buckle) two years in a row at the Calgary Stampede Rodeo in Canada. Other ranch animals are two dogs named Get Off the Couch and You Two, and a monkey called Peeli Peeli. Based on the feature film; Malcolm Arnold composed the "Cowboy in Africa" theme.

Cast: Chuck Connors (Jim Sinclair), Tom Nardini (John Henry), Ronald Howard (Howard Hayes), Gerald B. Edwards (Samson).

1723 Cowboy Joe. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 9/16/88). Sixteen years after he deserts his family for the Arizona desert, "Cowboy" Joe Cutler returns to reclaim his family — his wife, Linda and daughter, Isabel. The unsold series was to relate Cowboy Joe's efforts to win back the affections of his wife and daughter.

Cast: Tom Calloway (Cowboy Joe Cutler), Patti LuPone (Linda Tidmunk), Louanne Ponce (Isabel Tidmunk), J. Michael Flynn (Patrick).

1724 Cowboy Theater. (Series; Western; DuMont; 1956–1957). The program features, in some cases, first showings of 1930s and 40s theatrical westerns (sometimes edited; sometimes shown in several installments). The series ran from September 15, 1956 to March 9, 1957 (making it one of the last of the DuMont network series).

Host: Monty Hall.

1725 The Cowboys. (Series; Western; ABC; 1974). Slim, Cimarron, Homer, Steve, Jim and Hardy are children of the Old West who work as ranch hands for Kate Andersen, the owner of the Longhorn Ranch in Spanish Wells, New Mexico (1870s). The children were originally hired by Kate's late husband, Will, to help him drive a herd of cattle to Dodge City. When rustlers kill Will, the boys stay on as ranch hands to help Kate run the ranch. Mr. Nightlinger, a range cook, looks after the boys and stories follow their efforts to help Kate maintain her ranch in a lawless era. Bill Winter is the town marshal who also helps Kate. The series is based on the feature film of the same title.

Cast: Moses Gunn (Mr. Nightlinger), Diana Douglas (Kate Andersen), Jim Davis (Bill Winter), Robert Carradine (Slim), A Martinez (Cimarron), Kerry McLane (Homer), Clint Howard (Steve), Sean Kelly (Jim), Mitch Brown (Hardy).

1726 Cowboys and Injuns. (Series; Children; ABC; 1950). An informational series for children in which legends based on real cowboy and Indian folklore are explained and demonstrated. The series ran from October 15, 1950 to December 31, 1950.

Host: Rex Bell.

1727 C.P.O. Sharkey. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1976–1978). The San Diego Naval Training Center is the setting for a satirical look at Navy life as seen through the experiences of C.P.O. (Chief Petty Officer) Steve Sharkey, an acid-tongued, 24-year-veteran who has waged his own private war against the new Navy.

Cast: Don Rickles (Chief Steve Sharkey), Harrison Page (Chief Robinson), Elizabeth Allen (Captain Quinlan), Richard X. Slattery (Capt. Buck Buckner), Jonathan Daly (Lt. Whipple), Peter Isachsen (Drill Sgt. Pruitt), David Landsberg (Recruit Leon Sholnick), Tom Ruben (Recruit Kowalski), Evan Kim (Recruit Shimokawa), Barry Pearl (Recruit Mignone), Richard Beauchamp (Recruit Rodriguez), Jeff Hollis (Recruit Daniels), Philip Sims (Recruit Apocuda).

1728 Cracker. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1997). Gerry Fitzgerald is a Los Angeles Police Department psychologist who drinks hard but always manages to “get his man.” Unfortunately for Gerry (called Fitz), drinking is the least of his problems. He has family problems and is deeply in debt. To help pay the bills he establishes a small psychology practice in a mini mall, gives lectures on college campuses and hosts a call-in radio program. It appears that Fitz could use some help of his own but his dysfunctional life appears to help him as he relates better to the criminal mind than to normal people. Stories follow Fitz as he helps the police solve baffling crimes. Judith is Gerry’s wife; Hope is his daughter. Based on the British series of the same title.

Cast: Robert Pastorelli (Gerry “Fitz” Fitzgerald), Carolyn McCormick (Judith Fitzgerald), Sally Livingstone (Hope Fitzgerald), Robert Wisdom (Det. Danny Washington), Angela Featherstone (Det. Hannah Tyler), Scott Sowers (Det. Parker), R. Lee Erney (Lt. Fry), Zachary Seymour Fischman (Gerry and Judith’s son).

1729 The Cracker Brothers. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 9/14/84). Various sketches that relate the antics of Mark, Kevin and Derek Cracker, three trouble-prone brothers who will do anything for a laugh.

Cast: Mark King (Mark Cracker), Kevin Scannell (Kevin Cracker), Derek McGrath (Derek Cracker). Regulators: Angela Aames, Jane Bowers, Pamela Bowman, Ji-Tu Cumbuka, Cassandra Gava, George Ives, Pat McCormick, Kathy McCullem, Lee Meredith, Melinda Naud, Nancy Roberts, Christy Sinickas, Lauren-Marie Taylor.

1730 Cracking Up. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 2004). Ben Baxter is a student at UCLA who is studying to become a psychiatrist. As part of his assignment, and to acquire real life experience, Ben is assigned to help the Shackleton’s, a dysfunctional family who constantly face crises but never overcome them. Ben takes up residence in his patients guest house and stories follow Ben’s efforts to solve the problems of the eccentric family.

Ted Shackleton heads the family. He is married to Leslie and they are the parents of Chloe, Preston and Tanner. Ted is a pharmaceutical drug salesman. He is also a sociopath and is being investigated by the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Leslie is a bi-polar alcoholic and finds liquor the answer to all her problems. She also suffers from panic attacks.

Chloe is a cheerleader at Brighton High School (as was her mother, although Leslie was kicked off the team for smoking weed). Chloe has her own live Internet feed (www.chloecheerqueenweb.com) and Ben has diagnosed her as a repressed erotic-manic (likes to show off her body).

Preston is 16 years old and the high school quarterback. Preston shows signs of being gay, although this has not fully manifested. Nine-year-old Tanner has put up with his family for nine years. He appears to be the only normal one, although the family thinks he is the abnormal one. Other Regulars: Liam Connor, Ben’s friend.

Cast: Jason Schwartzman (Ben Baxter), Christopher McDonald (Ted Shackleton), Molly Shannon (Lesley Shackleton), Caitlin Wachs (Chloe Shackleton), Bret Loehr (Tanner Shackleton), David Walton (Liam Connor).

1731 Craig Kennedy, Criminologist. (Series; Crime Drama; Syn.; 1952). Craig Kennedy is a New York City-based criminologist. He is not one for taking a violent approach to solving crimes. He feels that the scientific information he possesses is his best weapon against those who take the law into their own hands. Stories follow Craig as he sets out to capture criminals through the principals he has sworn to uphold.

Cast: Donald Woods (Craig Kennedy).

1732 Cram. (Series; Game; Game Show Network; 2003). Two teams, each composed of two players, compete in a game wherein they are allowed to study before being questioned. The teams are placed in a storefront and given source material to study (books, newspapers and magazines) for twenty-four straight hours; no sleep allowed. Following the cram session, the players compete in the studio for a chance to win money by answering questions based on the material they studied. The twist — they also have to perform a task (simple stunt) while answering (the point being to drain their energy and make answering the questions more difficult). Points are awarded based on the answers given and the ability to complete the task. The team with the highest score after several such rounds is the winner.

Host: Graham Elwood. Study Assistant: Berglind Icey. Resident Sleep Therapist: Andrea Hutchman as Miss Pickwick.

1733 The Cramp Twins. (Series; Cartoon; Fox; 2003–2005). Wayne and Lucas Cramp are twin ten-year-old boys who have nothing in common and who each dream of a world in which the other does not exist. But Wayne and Lewis are stuck with each other. Stories relate the troublesome situations the boys find when they try to outdo each other in everything.

Wayne (who has purple skin) is bossy, collects anything weird and loves sweets; Lucas is shy (has pink skin), loves knitting and hopes to one day save the world. Herman and Dorothy are their parents; Tony Parsons is Lucas's best friend (he is also on two-and-a-half feet tall); Wendy Winkle is the Cramp's neighbor; Seth and Lilly are Tony's parents.

Voice Cast: Tom Kenny (Wayne Cramp), Kath Soucie (Lucas Cramp), Ian James Corlett (Herman Cramp), Nicole Oliver (Dorothy Cramp), Terry Klassen (Tony Parsons), Jayne Patterson (Wendy Winkle), Terry Klassen (Seth Parsons), Pauline Newstone (Lily Parsons).

1734 Crank Yankers. (Series; Comedy; Comedy Central; 2002–2007). The premise has comics placing real crank phone calls to real people and recording the conversations that expire. Because the “crankees” cannot be seen, puppets are used for visual support to enact what is happening. Among the comics who have appeared (all using assumed phone call names) are: Gilbert Gottfried (as George Zucco), Sarah Silverman (Hadassah Guberman), Wanda Sykes (Gladys Murphy), Jonathan Kimmel (John the Businessman), Jeff Goldblum (Professor Fermstein), Seth MacFarlane (Dick Rogers), Patton Oswalt (Boomer), Bob Einstein (Tony DeLoge), David Alan Grier (Landanlius Truefeld), Tracy Morgan (Spoonie Luv).

Main Puppeteers: Artie Esposito, Paul McGinnis, Victor Yerrid. Announcer: Biz Markie.

1735 Crash Corrigan's Ranch. (Series; Variety; ABC; 1950). A children's series of musical acts coupled with sketches set against the background of a western ranch. The series ran from July 15, 1950 to September 29, 1950.

Host: Ray “Crash” Corrigan.

1736 Crash Island. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 4/11/81). A Globe Airlines plane, carrying a group of Ohio school children to a swim meet in Honolulu, is caught in an electrical storm and damaged. The plane crashes into the ocean, and its passengers and crew escape to a nearby, uncharted desert island. The unsold series was to depict their adventures as they work together as a family, struggling for survival and a way off the island.

The pilot episode depicts their first adventure as they establish their new homes and meet Captain Yamamora, a forgotten World War II Japanese soldier who has been living alone on the island for 30 years.

Regulars: Happy Bursleson, the pilot; Meadowlark, the mechanic; Ceci, the stewardess; Warren, the kids' coach; Tina, his assistant; and the kids: Sandy (age 12), Kris (17), Heather (7), Susan (14), Chubby (11), Harry (10), Larry (9), Fred (13), Mark (16), Angie (9), and Jeff (17).

Cast: Greg Mullavey (Happy Bursleson), Meadowlark Lemon (Meadowlark), Jenny Sherman (Ceci), Warren Berlinger (Warren Bundy), Sheila DeWindt (Tina), Pat Morita (Kazi Yamamora), Penelope Sudrow (Sandy), Lisa Lindren (Kris), Heather Hobbs (Heather), Elizabeth Ringwald (Susan), Paul Jarnagin, Jr. (Chubby), Jeffrey Knooetz (Harry), Gregory Knooetz (Larry), Bradley Lieberman (Brett), Rusty Gilligan (Fred), Danie Wade Dalton (Mark), Cjon Damitri Patterson (Angie), Jeff Kirkland (Jeff).

1737 Crash the Curiousaurus. (Pilot; Children; ABC; 1/14, 1/21/95). Crash is a rare dinosaur, a Curiousaurus who lived 210 million years ago. He can speak and crash time (go to any period he wants) but he haunts the Museum of Natural History in New York City to learn things, especially if there are any of his family still around. Two youngsters who hang out at the museum (Letitia and Nick) accidentally discover Crash as do three other people — doctors Emily Ortiz and Adam Trel and the Stranger, a mysterious man who appears at the end of the second episode to say, “You'll be mine soon” (referring to Crash). The unsold series was set to follow Crash as he helps the doctors (by using his abilities to identify ancient objects for them) and Letitia and Nick's efforts to protect Crash from the Stranger.

Cast: Lauren Brooke Hunter (Letitia Clarkson), Michael Shulman (Nick O'Dell), Lidia Ramirez (Dr. Emily Ortiz), Michael Lee Patterson (Dr. Adam Trel), John Fiedler (The Stranger), R. Bruce Connelly (Crash), Rick Lyon (Crash's voice), John Connolly (Seymour Rumskey; the guard).

1738 Crawford Mystery Theater. (Series; Game; DuMont; 1947–1952). The alternate title for Public Prosecutor (which see for information when sponsored by Crawford Carpets).

1739 Crazy Dan. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 7/19/86). “He's a real tough guy and he'll probably blow your mind ... ain't no crooks gonna get away from Crazy Dan, he's a crazy man, Crazy Dan....” So says the theme about “Crazy” Dan Gatlin, a single-minded, unorthodox Los Angeles police detective with an affection for dark glasses and a knack for breaking all the rules in an attempt to get his man (or woman). In the pilot episode, Dan and his partner, Officer Bonnie Raines, attempt to stop a crime boss (Ritter) from taking over a microcircuit company. The pilot was filmed in 1984 and originally scheduled to air on NBC on 9/22/85. The pilot idea was reworked and became the ABC series Sledge Hammer (1986–87) with David Rasche as the unorthodox cop, Officer Sledge Hammer, and Ann-Marie Martin as his beautiful partner, Officer Dori Doreau.

Cast: John Beck (“Crazy Dan Gatlin”), Mary Crosby (Officer Bonnie Raines), John Hancock (Captain Walker). Guest Cast: Vincent Schiavelli (James Fields), Lloyd Bochner (Ricco Ritter), Stuart Margolin (Hamilton), Pat Carroll (Wednesday), Robert Hogan (D.A.), Shannon Tweed (Lila), Terry Kiser (Lawyer), John Quade (Garmes), Steven Keats (Carter), Sid Haig (Hood). Theme: “Crazy Dan” by Daniel Ironside, Mary Unobsky.

1740 Crazy Like a Fox. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 1984–1986). Harrison Fox, Sr., always called Harry, is a private detective and skilled con artist who operates the Fox Detective Agency in San Francisco. He is a widower and the father of Harrison K. Fox, Jr., a young conservative attorney struggling to establish his own law practice. Harrison is married to Cindy and they are the parents of Josh. Stories relate Harry’s efforts to apprehend criminals by utilizing his knack for the con and the often reluctant help of his son, who feels that assisting his father is not the best way to gain a reputation as an up and coming lawyer (especially since Harry pushes the limits of the law and Harrison is a stickler for the rules).

The series was revived for a two-hour TV movie called Still Crazy Like a Fox (CBS, April 5, 1987) wherein Harry, his son Harrison and Harrison’s wife Cindy become involved in a murder while vacationing in England. The main cast recreated their roles.

Other characters are Allison Lee, Harrison’s secretary; Skip Wooden, Allison’s brother; Harry and Margaret Wooden, Allison’s parents; Martha, Harry’s landlady; Paula, Harry’s waitress friend at Louis Cocktails; Manny and Johnny, Harry’s friends.

Cast: Jack Warden (Harry Fox), John Rubinstein (Harrison K. Fox), Penny Peyser (Cindy Fox), Robbie Kiger (Josh Fox), Lydia Lee (Allison Lee), George Clooney (Skip Wooden), Dick Van Patten (Harry Wooden), Jacqueline Scott (Margaret Wooden), Pat Carroll (Martha), Barbara Cason (Paula), George Kirby (Manny), Ralph Manza (Johnny Cardona). Theme Music: “Crazy Like a Fox” by Mark Snow.

1741 Creative Cooking with Julie Dannenbaum. (Series; Cooking; Syn.; 1979). An insert series, offered free to stations by the Campbell Soup Company, that features capsule cooking demonstrations.

Hostess: Julie Dannenbaum.

1742 Creature Comforts. (Series; Reality; CBS; 2007). People from across the U.S. are asked their opinions on a number of different subjects. The interviews are edited and used as the voices for an assortment of animated clay animals that come to life via stop motion photography. The comedy stems from the voices of real people coming out of the mouths of animals as they react to what they are saying about life. Voices are credited as “The voices of the American people.” Based on the British series of the same title. The series ran from June 4, 2007 to June 20, 2007.

1743 Creepy Crawlers. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1994). An unknown source of power that resembles green slime is found by a teenager named Chris. When he opens the box in which it is contained, five undead super heroes called the Creepy Crawlers Commandos emerge (they resemble balls of slime whose inside organs show). They have a mission (but had been imprisoned in the box by the evil magician Gugengrime): battle Gugengrime and his army of sinister Crawler Maulers before they takeover the earth. Stories follow Chris and the Creepy Crawlers as they battle to save the planet from Gugengrime.

Voices: Steve Bulen, Cam Clarke, Stanley Gurd, Jr., Jonny K. Lamb, Melody Lee, Anthony Mordy, Reed Waxman, Tyrone Week, O.R. Yarbles.

1744 The Crew. (Series; Comedy; Fox; 1995). Regency Airlines, based at Miami International Airport in Florida, is the setting. Stories relate the comic adventures of the airline’s crew on and off the job.

Jess Jameson and Maggie Reynolds are stewardesses who are also roommates; Randy Anderson is a steward (his Internet handle is “Fly Guy”); Rex Parker is the featured captain (he previously flew for Eastern Airlines); Leonora Zwick is the flight supervisor (she once posed nude for Playpen magazine); Mac is the bartender at their favorite watering hole, the Mambo Mambo.

Cast: Rose Jackson (Jess Jameson), Kristin Bauer (Maggie Reynolds), Charles Esten (Randy Anderson), Christine Estabrook (Leonora Zwick), Dondre T. Whitfield (Mac), Lane Davies (Rex Parker), Harriet Harris (Loretta; Leonora’s sister).

1745 Crime and Punishment. (Series; Interview; Syn.; 1961). The program features interviews (filmed at various prisons) with convicted felons (who discuss why they did what they did and what they plan to do after their release).

Host-Interviewer: Clete Roberts. Commentator: Robert A. McGhee.

1746 Crime and Punishment. (Series; Crime Drama; NBC; 1993). A police drama that delves into the criminal mind via an unseen interrogator. Cases unfold from the point of view of the criminals and then from the investigations of detectives. Elizabeth Pena played Detective Annette Rey in the un-aired pilot version of the series.

Cast: Rachel Ticotin (Detective Annette Rey), Jon Tenney (Detective Ken O'Donnell), Carmen Argenzio (Lieutenant Anthony Bartoll), Lisa Darr (Detective Jan Sorenson), James Sloyan (The unseen interrogator), Maria Celedonio (Tanya Rey, Annette's daughter).

1747 The Crime Club. (Pilot; Crime Drama; CBS; 3/6/73). The Crime Club is an organization that unites various law enforcement officials to solve crimes. It was founded by Roger Knight, a retired judge and its chief operative is Paul Cord, a Los Angeles private detective. The pilot episode relates Cord's efforts to solve the mysterious death of an old flame.

Cast: Lloyd Bridges (Paul Cord), Victor Buono (Roger Knight). Guest Cast: Barbara Rush (Denise London), Paul Burke (Robert London), Cloris Leachman (Hilary Kelton), David Hedison (Nick Kelton), Belinda J. Montgomery (Anne Dryden), William Devane (Kilburn), Martin Sheen (Deputy Wilson), Mills Watson (Parrish), Frank Marth (Sheriff Baird).

1748 The Crime Club. (Pilot; Crime Drama; CBS; 4/3/75). A proposed series about the Crime Club, an organization that is dedicated to solving crimes. Here, a newspaper reporter (Daniel Lawrence), a detective (John "Jake" Keeseey) and a criminal lawyer (Alex Norton) join forces to solve a series of ice pick murders.

Cast: Scott Thomas (Jake Keeseey), Eugene Roche (Daniel Lawrence), Robert Lansing (Alex Norton). Guest Cast: Barbara Rhoades (Angela Swoboda), Biff McGuire (Byron Craine), Michael Cristofer (Frank Swoboda), David Clennon (Peter Karpf), Martine Beswick (Dr. Sonia Schroeder), M. Emmet Walsh (Jack Doyle), Kathleen Beller (Pam Agustino), Rosanna Huffman (Sonia Arkel).

1749 Crime Photographer. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 1951–1952). The Express Building in New York City is home to the Morning Express, a crusading newspaper. John "Jack" Casey is the paper's top photographer who covers the crime news of a great city. Casey, as he is called, lives in an apartment at 110 Mulberry Street and works like a detective to uncover the headline making stories. He develops his own pictures at the paper and even during simple assignments, Casey's lens capture things he sometimes doesn't see. He is most often assisted by Ann Williams, the paper's gutsy crime reporter. Ann, like Casey, finds trouble wherever she goes. Casey, unlike Ann, hates covering social functions — especially weddings — but does so to be near Ann.

Casey's hangout is the Blue Note Cafe, a mid-Manhattan club where he finds relaxation and a place to think. His information man is the club's bartender, Ethelbert, a man who knows everything about everything and everybody. Bill Logan is the homicide detective with the N.Y.P.D. who arrests the criminals Casey and Ann uncover. The series is also known as Casey, Crime Photographer and Casey, Press Photographer and is based on the radio series Flashgun Casey, Press Photographer (also titled Casey, Crime Photographer and Crime Photographer). CBS adapted the radio series to television in 1945 as Diary of Death with Oliver Thorndike as Casey, Ruth Ford as Ann and John Gibson as Ethelbert.

Cast: Richard Carlyle (Jack Casey), Darren McGavin (Jack Casey; later), Jan Miner (Ann Williams), John Gibson (Ethelbert), Bernard Lenrow (Bill Logan), Archie Smith (Jack Lipman; cub reporter), The Tony Mottola Trio (Blue Note Cafe Musicians). Announcer: Ken Roberts.

1750 Crime Quiz. (Experimental; Drama; DuMont; 10/1/44). The program begins with the host answering questions about whodunits. A short drama is then enacted wherein the host, acting as an investigator, solves a whodunit crime.

Host: Ted Cott. Cast: Margaret Ege, Connie Green, Arthur Jarrett, Dick Manners, Doris Moger, Joe Ransom, Leonard Shera, Allan Sloane, Palmer Ward, Jean Winter.

1751 Crime Story. (Series; Crime Drama; NBC; 1986–1988). The series, set in Chicago during the 1960s, follows the relationship between Mike Torello, a no-nonsense cop with the Major Crime Unit; Ray Luca, a rising mobster; and David Abrams, a lawyer who is the son of a former gangster (later episodes are set in Las Vegas).

Cast: Dennis Farina (Lt. Mike Torello), Darlanne Fluegel (Julie Torello), Bill Smithrovich (Sgt. Danny Krychek), Steve Lang (David Abrams), Anthony John Denison (Ray Luca), Ted Levine (Frank Holman), John Snyder (Pernell Randall), Andrew Dice Clay (Max Goldman), John Santucci (Pauli Taglia), Patricia Charbonneau (Inger Thorson), Ray Serra (Noah Ganz), Jon Polito (Phil Bartoli), Ving Rhames (Hector Lincoln), Kim Staunton (June Lincoln), Pam Grier (Susan Terry), Paul Butler (Det. Walter Clements), William Campbell (Det. Joey Indelli), Steve Ryan (Det. Nate Grossman), Jay O. Sanders (Steve Kordo), Ron Dean (Chief Kramer). Theme Vocal: "Runaway" by Del Shannon.

1752 Crime Syndicated. (Series; Anthology; CBS; 1951–1953). Dramatizations of actual cases from the files of the Senate Crime Investigating Committee (also known as the Kefauver Committee Files). Casts and stories vary from week to week.

Host: Rudolph Halley.

1753 Crime Watch Tonight. (Series; Reality; Syn.; 1989). A daily series that chronicles America's battle against crime through newsreel footage of current events.

Host: Ike Pappas.

1754 Crime with Father. (Series; Crime Drama; ABC; 1951–1952). Jim Riland is a homicide bureau chief with the New York City Police Department. He is a widower and the father of Christine, a beautiful teenage girl who idolizes him and longs to become a police officer. Christine, called Chris, grew up with stories about her father's cases and now believes she has the instincts of a detective. She puts that enthusiasm to use by joining her father on cases. Jim is reluctant to have Chris by his side, but he can't always stop her and stories relate their efforts to solve crimes (mostly with Jim doing the investigating and Chris observing). The series aired from August 31, 1951 to January 25, 1952.

Cast: Rusty Lane (Capt. Jim Riland), Peggy Lobb (Chris Riland).

1755 Crimes of Passion. (Series; Crime Drama; Syn.; 1976). Dramatizations based on the French criminal records "Crimes Passionels" (Crimes of Passion). Each episode begins with the crime. A courtroom trial follows and through the use of flashbacks as witnesses testify, the program attempts to determine whether or not the crime was premeditated.

Cast: Anthony Newlands (President of the Courts [Judge]), Daniel Moynihan (Maitre Savat; defense attorney), John Phillips (Maitre Lacan; prosecuting attorney).

1756 Crimes of Passion. (Pilot; Drama; ABC; 10/26/88). A proposed series that examines real life crimes committed against loved ones in the heat of passion. Reenactments as well as interviews with the people involved are used to report the stories.

Host: James Woods. Cast: Quincy Adams, Jr., John Denos, David Dittmer, Kate Donohue, Jim Hudson, Craig Hurley, Maureen Kedes, Honey Laurence, Stephen Natole, Martha Nix, John Otrin.

1757 Criminal Justice. (Unaired Pilot; Reality; Produced for ABC in 1991). A proposed series in which actual attorneys appear in dramatizations of court cases based on trial transcripts.

Commentator: Vincent Bugliosi.

1758 Criminal Minds. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 2005–). "To catch a criminal, you have to think like one" is the philosophy of Jason Gideon, a top profiler who heads the FBI's Behavioral Analysis Unit in Quantico, Virginia. Jason is assisted by Aaron Hotchner, Elle Greenway, Dr. Spencer Reid, Derek Morgan and Jennifer Jareau (called "J.J."). Elle is later replaced by Emily Prentiss when Elle leaves after a shooting incident. Penelope Garcia (always called Garcia) is the team's home-based computer expert.

A horrific crime is established at the beginning of each episode. When the police of any city or town are baffled, the case is handed over to Jason and his team. They fly to where ever the crime occurred and analyze each piece of evidence, hoping to anticipate the criminal's next move before he or she strikes again.

In the episode of October 3, 2007, Jason Gideon leaves the unit (it appears that the cases have deeply affected him and he felt the need to distance himself from the unit). On October 31, 2007, in the episode "About Face," Special Agent David Rossi becomes a part of the unit (he was a member of the unit ten years earlier but has retired to pursue other things, like writing books and making personal appearances). While David claims he came back to "help" he actually rejoined to use the new technology that is available to help him solve a case that he was unable to crack 20 years earlier.

Cast: Mandy Patinkin (Jason Gideon), Thomas Gibson (Aaron Hotchner), Joe Mantegna (David Rossi), Lola Glaudini (Elle Greenway), A.J. Cook (Jennifer Jareau), Shemar Moore (Derek Morgan), Matthew Gray Gubler (Dr. Spencer Reid), Paget Brewster (Emily Prentiss), Kirsten Vangsness (Penelope Garcia), Jayne Atkinson (Security Chief Erin Strauss), Meredith Monroe (Haley Hotchner, Aaron's wife).

1759 Crisis. (Series; Game; NBC; 1949). A person who faced a real-life crisis is brought on stage to reveal the circumstances surrounding his or her plight. Before the climax of the story is reached, the guest is stopped and a group of actors (who are unaware of what actually happened) ad-lib what they feel happened. After the performances, the guest reveals what actually happened. Prizes are awarded to the guest for participating. The series aired from October 5, 1949 to December 28, 1949.

Host: Adrian Spies. Assistant: Arthur Peterson, Bob Cunningham.

1760 Crisis. (Pilot; Drama; CBS; 9/2/68). The work of Frank Chandler, the head of the Crisis Clinic of the Los Angeles Board of Welfare, an around-the-clock psychiatric service. In the pilot episode, Chandler races against time to learn the identity of a man who phones with the details of a murder he is going to commit. Other Regulars: Lisa and Dan, Frank's assistants.

Cast: Carl Betz (Dr. Frank Chandler), Susan Strasberg (Lisa Edwards), Billy Dee Williams (Dan Gardner). Guest Cast: Roger Perry (Jerry Taylor), Robert Drivas (Art Winters), Ruth Roman (Mrs. Winters), Davey Davison (June Fielding), Joan Karr (Phyllis Edwards).

1761 Crisis. (Series; Anthology; Syn.; 1971). Re-broadcasts of dramas that originally aired on The Bob Hope Chrysler Theater and The Kraft Suspense Theater. See these titles for information.

1762 Crisis Center. (Series; Drama; NBC; 1997). Crisis Center is a San Francisco based help center. People with no place else to turn can not only find much needed help but a friend in time of need. Kathy Goodman is a young intern in psychology and it is through her eyes that stories of people in emotional turmoil unfold. The series aired from February 28, 1997 to April 4, 1997.

Cast: Kellie Martin (Kathy Goodman), Matt Roth (Dr. Rick Buckley), Nia Peeples (Lily Gannon), Dana Ashbrook (Officer Gary McDermott), Clifton Collins, Jr. (Nando Taylor), Tina Lifford (Tess Robinson).

1763 Cristina's Court. (Series; Drama; Syn.; 2006). A daily series of actual small claims court cases presided over by Judge Cristina Perez. The program opens with these words: "Enter Cristina's Court. Witness a judge who is direct and fair; a judge with a deep passion for law and ordinary people — Judge Cristina Perez. She takes the law into her heart." In 2001, Cristina became a sensation on Spanish television with two series (airing on Tele-mundo): La Corte Del Pueblo (The People's Court) and La Corte de Familia (Family Court).

Judge: Cristina Perez.

1764 The Critic. (Series; Cartoon; ABC; Fox; 1994–1995). Jay Sherman is 36 years old, divorced, balding and a much disliked TV film critic. He lives in Apartment 1202 and hosts Coming Attractions on Channel 67 (which is owned by the Phillips Broadcasting Company and housed in a building formally occupied by the House of Chicken and Waffles).

Jay, who does his own offstage announcing as Skip Fisher, had a small part in the film Dances with Wolves. Jay is proud of the fact that he can sink a $50 million movie just by saying the word "crap." Jay's show is dubbed into 11 languages; in Mexico Jay scares people and the station runs a disclaimer stating that Jay is insane.

Jay uses the "Shermometer" to rate films; on ABC, his competition was Humphrey the Hippo; on Fox, The Benedictine Monk Hour was run opposite his show. Jay panned his own screenplay, Ghost Chasers 3, as the worst movie ever made. Jay attended the New York School for the Performing Arts and wrote a book called What I Do in the Dark (for which he won a Pulitzer Prize). He also won a pie eating contest when he was a kid at summer camp. When Jay temporarily lost his job, he became the host of a low-rated cable show called English for Cab Drivers.

Jay was abandoned by his mother and raised at Orphan City (his first words as a baby were "feed me"). He was adopted by the wealthy (but senile) Franklin Sherman, the former governor of New York, and his wife, Eleanor. Margo Sherman, Jay's sister, is a junior at Miss Hathaway's School for Untouched Girls. She has a cat (Mittens) and reads Mopey Teen magazine.

Voice Cast: Jon Lovitz (Jay Sherman), Doris Grau (Doris Grossman), Brenda Vaccaro (Ardeeth), Garrett Graham (Franklin Sherman), Judith Ivey (Eleanor Sherman), Charles Napier (Duke Phillips), Park Overall (Alice Tompkins), Gene Shalit (Gene Shalit, the movie critic).

1765 Cro. (Series; Cartoon; ABC; 1993–1994). While exploring the Antarctic, Dr. Cecilia, an Hispanic scientist, and Mike, her 11-year-old African-American Assistant, find a Woolly Mammoth from the Ice Age frozen in a block of ice. Upon thawing him out, they find that the prehistoric Mammoth, named Phil, is intelligent and rich in stories about his life in Woollyville. Eager to learn about the past, the doctors question Phil. Phil then relates a story about his caveman friend, Cro (a Cro-Magnon boy cared for by Neanderthals). Cro's adventures in a prehistoric era are then seen as he learns through trial and error how to apply math and physics to overcome some ordeal.

Voice Cast: Max Casella (Cro), Jim Cummings (Phil), April Ortiz (Dr. Cecilia), Jussie Smollett (Mike), Charles Adler (Streamer), Ruth Buzzi (Nandy), Frank Welker (Earle), Frank Welker (Gogg), Jussie Smollett (Mike), Jane Singer (Voice), Candi Milo (Voice).

1766 Croc Files. (Series; Children; Animal Planet; 1999–2001). A wildlife program aimed at children that features marrieds Steve and Terri Irwin exploring (and explaining) the world of animals to the younger set. Taped on location at various wildlife reserves around the world.

Hosts: Steve Irwin, Terri Irwin.

1767 Cross Current. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1954–1955). The 1954 (to 1955) title for episodes of Foreign Intrigue starring Gerald Mohr. See Foreign Intrigue: Cross Current for information.

1768 The Cross-Wits. (Series; Game; Syn.; 1975). Two three-member teams compete, each composed of two celebrities and one non-celebrity captain. A large crossword board containing the names of persons, places or things is revealed. One player selects a position (for example, one across) for which the host reads a corresponding clue. If the correct answer is given, the word appears on the board and the team scores ten points for each filled space. Failure to guess a clue ends that team's turn at play; their opponents then receive a chance. The team that is first to identify the puzzle is the winner and the non-celebrity player receives merchandise prizes.

Host: Jack Clark. Assistant: Jeri Fiala. Jeri's Substitute: Kitty Hilton. Announcer: John Harlan, Jerry Bishop, Jay Stewart.

1769 Crossfire. (Pilot; Crime Drama; NBC; 3/24/75). A proposed series about Vince Rossi and Dave Ambrose, undercover police detectives. The pilot episode relates their attempts to apprehend a syndicate chieftain.

Cast: James Farentino (Vince Rossi), John Saxon (Dave Ambrose), Ramon Bieri (Captain McCordle). Guest Cast: Patrick O’Neal (Lane Fielding), Pamela Franklin (Sheila Fielding), Herb Edelman (Bert Ganz), Frank DeKova (Albert Ambrose), Ned Glass (Bartender), Lou Frizzell (Arthur Peabody).

1770 Crossing Jordan. (Series; Crime Drama; NBC; 2001–2007). Dr. Jordan Cavanaugh is a medical examiner for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Office of the Chief Medical Examiner. “I cut up dead people for a living,” she says. Jordan is opposed to injustice (“That pisses me off”) and has a commendation from the Chicago Police Department for solving five murders. She has extraordinary skills, is compassionate about her work and an excellent diagnostician. She also has one serious problem — insubordination. She constantly clashes with her superiors and has an obsessive desire to solve crimes.

Jordan is the daughter of Max Cavanaugh, a former cop with the Boston Police Department (now retired after 38 years on the force).

When Jordan was a child she would sneak out of her room at night to spy on her father as he sat at the kitchen table with a glass of scotch and all the evidence in a case he was investigating laid out on the table. Max would stare at the evidence and envision himself as both the killer and the victim in an attempt to solve the crime. Max always knew Jordan was watching him and one night asked her, “Would you like to be the victim or the killer?” “And that’s how it started,” says Jordan. “It was like our very own game of Clue, only it wasn’t Colonel Mustard in the drawing room with a knife.”

Max was forced into early retirement when he became obsessed with finding the man who killed his wife and Jordan’s mother. The case is still unsolved. He now helps Jordan through their game of role playing and with the contacts he has in the police department.

When Jordan and Max play their game, the audience sees a reenactment of the crime with Jordan and Max as the killer and victim. Max now lives with a woman named Evelyn, an old friend from high school who is a widow, and owns a bar called Cavanaugh’s.

Jordan doesn’t like to be challenged in her work and gets extremely emotional when a murder baffles her. She assures the victim, “I’m gonna find out who did this to you.” Jordan lives at 43 Victor Drive, Apartment 311, and thinks like a cop; she can take the simplest assignment and turn it into a murder investigation.

Jordan graduated from Boston University (top five in her class) and often works with Detective Woody Hoyt of the Boston P.D. Jordan’s favorite color is purple and she has a chipped tooth from an accident she suffered in the second grade.

Jordan later says the book Catcher in the Rye, which she read at the age of 15 changed her life and prompted her to become a medical examiner — not the game she played with her father.

Jordan’s superior, Dr. Garrett Macy, is the Chief Medical Examiner. He runs the center and believes, “This place is going to hell and it’s about to get crazier” due to budget cuts. Garrett keeps a bottle of Pepto Bismol in his desk drawer, has insomnia, high blood pressure and is allergic to strawberries. He has a hand puppet dog “that my shrink gave to me to say things that I can’t say to other people.” Garrett collects old records (mostly jazz and blues from the 1920s and ’30s) and is divorced from Maggie. He is now struggling to raise his rebellious teenage daughter, Abby. Garrett says, “I’m more than a medical examiner, I’m an interesting guy.”

Lily Lebowski is the intake girl who coordinates matters. She has a crush on Garrett and goes out of her way to please him. Lily is later the grievance counselor at the center.

Nigel Townsend and Grace Yukora also work with Garrett. Nigel is a ballistics expert with knowledge in many other fields, such as DNA, blood and figuring out where an insignificant piece of something came from. Grace believes there are no bad guys, only dead bodies. She is a coroner and promises her subjects closure. Dr. Mahesh Vijayaraghavensatanyanamurthy, nicknamed “Bug” (and never called by his long last name), is an expert on insects. Wendy Melvin and Lisa Coleman composed the theme “Crossing Jordan.”

Cast: Jill Hennessy (Jordan Cavanaugh), Ken Howard (Max Cavanaugh), Lois Nettleton (Evelyn), Miguel Ferrer (Dr. Garrett Macy), Lindsay Frost (Maggie Macy), Alex McKenna (Abby Macy), Kathryn Hahn (Lily Lebowski), Steve Valentine (Nigel Townsend), Tamlyn Tomita (Grace Yukora), Jerry O’Connell (Det. Woody Hoyt), Lorraine Toussaint (Dr. Elaine Duchamps), Mahershalahashbaz Ali (Dr. Trey Sanders), Ravi Kapur (Dr. Mahesh “Bug”), Ivan Sergei (Dr. Peter Winslow), Susan Gibney (D.A. Rene Walcott), David Monahan (Det. Mat Seely), Brooke Smith (Dr. Kate Switzer), Ethan Sandler (A.D.A. Jeffrey Brandau).

1771 Crossroads. (Series; Anthology; ABC; 1955–1957). Dramatizations based on the experiences of the men of the clergy. The series, which produced 78 episodes, aired from October 7, 1955 to September 27, 1957.

Performers Include: Yvonne Lime, Stephen McNally, Patricia Crowley, Arthur Franz, Marcia Henderson, Rod Cameron, Jeanette Nolan, John Hoyt, Alan Hale, Jr., Dennis Morgan, Phyllis Coates, Vincent Price, Barbara Eden, Pat O’Brien, Russell Johnson, Denver Pyle, Kevin Armstrong, Susan George, Edgar Buchanan, Mala Powers, Barbara Hale, Richard Jaeckel, Victor Jory, Maureen O'Sullivan, Howard Duff, Richard Denning, Gloria Talbot, Lee Van Cleef, Elinor Donahue.

1772 Crowfoot. (Pilot; Crime Drama; CBS; 6/7/95). The undercover work of Nick Crowfoot, a Cheyenne Indian who is also a detective with the Maui, Hawaii, Police Department. Nick is aided in his investigations by mystic visions, his ability to touch an object or person associated with a crime and gain a sense of what actually happened. In the pilot episode, Nick finds help from a most unusual source — the ghost of a beautiful girl (Rachel) who can help him solve a series of killings. Complications set in when Nick falls in love with Rachel before he can do his job: convince Rachel she is dead so she can accept her fate and move on.

Cast: Jim Davidson (Nick Crowfoot), Tsai Chin (Detective Lisa Ichima), Bruce Locke (Detective Jimmy Takata), Mike Genovese (Detective Nuzo Pace). Guest Cast: Kate Hodge (Rachel Stoltz), Erin Gray (Nora Kinsberg), Larry Manetti (Angel), Michael Watson (Monk), Charles Ka'ufu (Steve Kinsberg).

1773 Crown Theater with Gloria Swanson. (Series; Anthology; Syn.; 1953). A series of average dramatic productions produced especially for syndication with actress Gloria Swanson as the host and occasional performer.

Hostess: Gloria Swanson. Performers Include: Bonita Granville, Jeff Donnell, Edgar Buchanan, Lois Collier, Lucien Littlefield, Hans Conried, Phyllis Coates, Selena Royle, Marjorie Lord, Mary Shipp, James Gleason, Kathleen Crowley, Denver Pyle, Vera Miles, Gigi Perreau.

1774 Crow's Nest. (Pilot; Drama; ABC; 7/9/92). Tommy Corsetti has a dream to go to law school. He's married (to Anne), the father of a son (Mikey) and has two jobs: mail room clerk in a law firm and bartender at night at Sally's Bar. The unsold series was to focus on Tommy as he struggles to earn the money he needs for law school.

Cast: Billy Wirth (Tommy Corsetti), Nancy Sorel (Anne Corsetti), Joel Palmer (Mikey Corsetti), John Cygan (Officer Mike Corsetti, Tommy's brother), Marilyn Lightstone (Anne's mother).

1775 Crumbs. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 2006). Suzanne and Billy Crumb are a happily married couple. They are the parents of Mitch and Jody and run a restaurant called the Stonehouse Grill in Connecticut. Thirty-three years later Billy and Suzanne divorce when Billy runs off with a young restaurant reviewer. The situation so upsets Suzanne that she was sent to the Cedar Hill Psychiatric Ward for trying to run Billy over with her car. Over the course of thirty years, Mitch has become a Hollywood film writer (he wrote the movie Thicker Than Water) and Jody had remained behind to run the family business.

The series begins with Suzanne being released from Cedar Hill and Mitch returning to Connecticut to help Jody run the restaurant and deal with their mother (who has a tendency to bounce back and forth from fantasy to reality). Mitch also has a surprise for her family — he is gay. Stories follow events in the lives of the Crumbs as they attempt to become a normal family. Complicating the matter is Billy, who had become a massage therapist but when he loses his license (accused of inappropriate touching) returns to the family to take over the restaurant.

Other Regulars: Andrea, the waitress; and Elvis, Suzanne's lover at Cedar Hill who now works as the restaurant bartender.

Cast: Jane Curtin (Suzanne Crumb), William Devane (Billy Crumb), Fred Savage (Mitch Crumb), Eddie McClintock (Jody Crumb), Maggie Lawson (Andrea Malone), Reginald Ballard (Elvis).

1776 Crunch and Des. (Series; Drama; Syn.; 1956). Caribe Key is a small island in Florida and the base of operations for Crunch Adams and Des Smith, two roughneck friends who operate the Poseidon, a charter boat service that caters to people eager to explore the Bahamas and Florida Keys. Sari Adams is Crunch's wife; and Stillwell owns the local tackle shop. The series, also syndicated as Deep Sea Adventures and Charter Boat, is based on the Saturday Evening Post stories by Philip Wylie.

Cast: Forrest Tucker (Crunch Adams), Sandy Kenyon (Des Smith), Joanne Bayes (Sari Adams), John Doorman (Stillwell).

1777 Crusade. (Series; Science Fiction; TNT; 1999). A short-lived (13 episode) spin-off from Babylon 5 that tracks the efforts of a team of Rangers to find a cure for a plague that could destroy life on Earth.

When the alien Drakh fleet was defeated in its attempt to destroy the Earth, the former servants of their leaders, the Shadows, unleashed a deadly biological weapon in the Earth's atmosphere. As the years passed, the weapon adapted itself to the human genetic makeup and began killing people. Because the plague is a product of alien technology, Earth scientists are defenseless to stop it. Their solution: comb through the ruins of older alien civilizations in the hope of finding the advanced technology that is needed to develop a cure.

An agency called Earth Force choose Matthew Gideon to lead a team of scientists, archaeologists and a telepath to find the cure. They travel aboard the space ship Excalibur.

Matthew Gideon is a captain with a great deal of experience with aliens (he worked as an explorer). He is also a man who thinks before he acts and seeks innovative ways to overcome troublesome situations. Dr. Sara Chambers is the chief medical officer. She is totally dedicated to science — and puts that above everything else, including her duty to fight (she will only engage in battle if she has no other choice).

John Matheson is the ship's first officer and a telepath (a first for the Earth Force). Although he has the ability to hear what others are thinking, his actions reflect his duty to do everything by the book. This is also his greatest flaw — his concern about procedure could cost him his life.

Dr. Max Eilerson is both a linguist and archaeologist. His total dedication to work cost him his marriage (to Cynthia) and he also worked with the Inter Planetary Expedition as a field archaeologist (when he was assigned to dead worlds and uncover new technology). Max may be brilliant but he is a sarcastic egomaniac.

Cast: Gary Cole (Matthew Gideon), Marjean Holden (Sara Chambers), Daniel Dae Kim (John Matheson), David Allen Brooks (Max Eilerson), Tracy Scoggins (Captain Elizabeth Lochley), Carrie Dobro (Dureena Nafell), Peter Woodward (Galen).

1778 The Crusader. (Series; Adventure; CBS; 1955–1956). Matt Anders is a free-lance magazine writer who risks his life to get stories. Episodes relate his adventures as he battles the global forces of oppression and treachery in his quest for the news.

Narrator Ed Reimers opens the show: “Crusader recounts the struggles of democratic people against the enemies of freedom and justice at home and abroad. These are the stories of people who have been helped by the many great organizations which are dedicated to bringing truth to those who are fed lies, light to those who live in darkness, protection to those who live in fear.”

Cast: Brian Keith (Matt Anders). Narrator: Ed Reimers.

1779 Crusader Rabbit. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1949–1951; 1957–1958). Crusader Rabbit dresses as a knight from the middle ages (rides a horse and wears armor). He is accompanied by Ragland T. Tiger, called Rags, and serial-like stories relate their efforts to defeat evil. Their most persistent enemy is the evil Dudley Nightshade.

The series consists of five-minute episodes that were first syndicated in 1949 (to 1951; 195 episodes); a revised, color version of the series appeared in 1957 (to 1958; 260 episodes).

Voice Cast (1949–51): Lucille Bliss (Crusader Rabbit), Vern Louden (Rags the Tiger), Russ Coughlin (Dudley Nightshade), Roy Whaley (Narrator). Voice Cast (1957–58): Ge Ge Pearson (Crusader Rabbit), Vern Louden (Rags the Tiger).

1780 The Crystal Room. (Series; Variety; ABC; 1948). A program of music and songs set against the background of the Crystal Room of a Manhattan nightclub. The series ran from August 15, 1948 to September 12, 1948.

Host: Maggi McNellis.

1781 C.S.I.: Crime Scene Investigation. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 2000–). The Criminalistics Division of the Metropolitan Las Vegas Police Department, located on North Trop Boulevard, is considered the number two crime lab in the country. It solves crimes most labs render unsolvable.

Gil Grissom is head of a level three C.S.I. team that includes Catherine Willows, Sara Sidle, Nick Stokes and Warrick Brown. Gil and his associates call themselves Forensic Criminologists and handle each case they receive objectively “with no regard to race, creed or bubble gum flavor.” “Evidence is like a fine wine,” Gil says. “You can’t just drink it, you’ve got to let it breathe.” While Gil’s team uses the latest scientific equipment to solve crimes, they are not always assigned to investigate murders. “We handle cases involving alive people — from drunk drivers to a child who is a victim of molestation to robberies. When the pieces of a puzzle just don’t fit, they call us in.”

The team is trained to avoid verbal evidence and rely on what they find at the scene. “We are crime analysts,” says Catherine. The program, which can be unsettling at times, focuses on the meticulous step-by-step process the investigators follow as they gather evidence to solve crimes. Stories are then presented in three ways: conventional, flashbacks to illustrate various versions of a crime and by computer animation to show how a weapon caused injury or death.

Gil was born in Santa Monica, California, on August 17, 1956. He attended UCLA and has a Bachelor of Science degree in biology. His special skill is entomology (the study of insects). Gil was originally supervisor of the graveyard shift. He was promoted to head of the crime lab when his superior, Captain Jim Brass was transferred to the police department’s homicide division.

Gil has a rather bizarre background. At the age of eight he would go to the beach at Marina Del Rey to collect dead birds to perform autopsies. As he grew older, he would find dead cats and dogs and do the same thing, teaching himself the ins and outs of death. Gil worked his way through college and at the age of 22 became the youngest coroner in the history of Los Angeles County. Eight years later he was recruited by the Las Vegas Police Department to run their field office. Gil mentioned that his mother ran an art gallery and that his father was in the import/export business. Gil can speak in sign language taught to him by his mother, who was partially deaf. As the series progressed, a deafness problem that plagued his mother, began to develop in Gil.

Catherine is Gil's senior investigator. She was born on a ranch in Bozeman, Montana, on March 26, 1963 and has a Bachelor of Science degree in medical technology from West Las Vegas University. Her specialty is blood splatter analysis. Catherine began her working career as a waitress in Seattle. She became bored and went to Las Vegas where she put herself through school, first by waiting tables then as an exotic dancer. Catherine is divorced from Eddie and the mother of Lindsay (Madison Reynolds). Catherine mentioned she married Eddie when she first became a stripper. Catherine loves her job and says, "We're like a bunch of kids getting paid to work on puzzles. You feel like King Kong on cocaine when you solve a puzzle." Catherine scrutinizes every crime scene. She collects and sometimes photographs the evidence and recreates what happened by piecing together the evidence she has found. Catherine was recruited by Gil to work at the lab and believes human behavior plays a part in solving a case. Gil believes only the forensic evidence is necessary to find the means.

Sara was born in Tamalpas Bay, California, on September 16, 1971. She has a Bachelor of Science degree in physics from Harvard University and her specialty is material and element analysis. She also attended graduate school and has a degree in theoretical physics. Sara worked in the San Francisco Coroner's Office for five years before being transferred to its crime lab. She left the City by the Bay for a job with Gil and his team. Sara is an expert on arson fires, likes plants and maxes out each month on overtime. Her parents ran a bed and breakfast and she became interested in police work as a child. She listened to police scanners at home and studied forensic magazines in her spare time. Gil believes she becomes too involved in a case, especially when a victim survives and she has vowed to find the culprit responsible for the assault. If an unknown substance is found at a crime scene, Sara delights in trying to figure out what it is.

In the episode of November 15, 2007 ("Goodbye and Good Luck") Sara chooses to leave her job with the CSI unit. It is apparent by the somber attitude that has overcome Sara that she has become disenchanted with her job and realizes that no matter how many killers she captures she will never be able to stop the killing.

Nick was born in Dallas, Texas, on August 18, 1971. He has a Bachelor of Science degree in criminal justice from Rice University and his specialty is hair and fiber analysis. Another episode mentions he is a graduate of Texas A&M University. Nick previously worked with the Dallas Police Department before being transferred to its crime lab, C.S.I. Level 1. He was then transferred to the Las Vegas Crime Lab. Nick likes being around people but is easily frustrated when he gets upset over a case. "Sometimes I hate this job," he says.

Warrick was born in Las Vegas on October 10, 1970, and possesses a Bachelor of Science degree in chemistry from the University of Las Vegas. His specialty is audio-video analysis. He is also the team's crime scene photographer and is an expert at figuring out what item was used to do what. Warrick worked as a casino runner as a teenager and put himself through college working as a taxi driver, bell captain at the Sahara, helicopter tour guide over the Grand Canyon and grave digger before becoming a part of Gil's unit. He is a stickler for gathering evidence and brilliant at piecing together fragments of objects to make them whole or identifiable. Warrick can visually detect evidence others may have overlooked but suffers from a gambling problem which is not fully under control.

Jim Brass was born in Newark, New Jersey, on January 3, 1953. He has a B.A. in history from Seaton Hall University and has logged 22 years on the police force—first in New Jersey then with the Las Vegas P.D. He was mainly an administrator at C.S.I. before being transferred to homicide. He is most often assigned to the same cases as Gil's unit. Jim lives at 554 Applegate Way and believes that every police recruit should experience an autopsy on their first night to see if they have what it takes to be a C.S.I. investigator. Although he is a captain, Jim introduces himself to suspects as Detective Brass.

In the episode of January 9, 2007 (to February 8, 2007) a new character, Michael Keppler, was brought on to temporarily replace Grissom who took a leave of absence to teach in Vermont (a seminar called "The Seasonal Behavior of the Walden Pond Swamp Mosquito"). Michael was a forensics investigator who joined the Las Vegas P.D. after having served in Baltimore, Philadelphia and his home town of New Jersey. He was killed off when a rapist he had been tracking shot him. See also C.S.I.: Miami and C.S.I.: New York.

Cast: William Petersen (Gil Grissom), Marg Helgenberger (Catherine Willows), Jorja Fox (Sara Sidle), George Eades (Nick Stokes), Gary Dourdan (Warrick Brown), Paul Guilfoyle (Jim Brass), Liev Schreiber (Michael Keppler), Wallace Langham (David Hodges; lab technician).

1782 C.S.I.: Miami. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 2002–). A spin-off from C.S.I.: Crime Scene Investigation that details the grueling, sometimes upsetting work of the Crime Scene Investigation Unit of the Miami Dade County Police Department. Horatio Caine heads the team and is assisted by Calleigh Duquesne, Megan Donner, Erik Delko, Tim Speedle and Dr. Alex Woods.

Horatio is a lieutenant. His experience is arson and explosives (he was previously a member of the bomb squad). He was born in Miami on April 17, 1960 and has a Bachelor of Science degree in chemistry from Florida State University. He later took a four-year criminology program at Miami University and graduated as a Level One criminologist. Horatio is a Level Three thinker and has the ability to place pieces of a puzzle together. He knows science provides the solutions to a crime and he incorporates all the field has to offer.

Calleigh is a ballistics expert. She was born in Darnell, Louisiana on February 28, 1974. She has a degree in physics from Tulane University and is also an expert on firearms and tool marks. Calleigh began her career as a street cop for the New Orleans P.D. Her knowledge of firearms earned her the nickname “The Bullet Girl” and was reassigned to the crime lab. She became a member of the Miami C.S.I. when Horatio recruited her. Megan is a DNA expert and hates to go on hunches — “Show me the evidence,” she says.

Erik is a detective with the unit. He was born in Miami on December 19, 1976 and has a B.S. degree in chemistry from Miami University. His special skills are fingerprint analysis and drug identification. Erik was conceived in Cuba but born in the U.S. He first worked as a swimmer for the Miami P.D.’s Underwater Recovery Unit (at which time he was recruited by Horatio). He also works as the team’s underwater recovery expert.

Tim is the chief investigator. He was born in Syracuse, New York on June 24, 1973. He is a graduate of Columbia University and has B.S. degree in biology. He interned at the Miami Crime Lab before joining C.S.I. Tim was shot (killed off) during a case investigation in 2004.

Alexx was born in Queens, New York on August 13, 1960. She has a B.S. degree in chemistry from New York University and an M.D. from Rutgers University. She began work in the New York City Coroner’s Office but left that position for a job with the more advanced crime lab in Dade County. She talks to her subjects and tries to figure out what happened to them.

The series is rather graphic and can be upsetting to some viewers. See also C.S.I.: Crime Scene Investigation and C.S.I.: New York.

Cast: David Caruso (Horatio Caine), Emily Procter (Calleigh Duquesne), Kim Delaney (Megan Donner), Adam Rodriguez (Erik Delko), Rory Cochrane (Tim Speedle), Khandi Alexander (Dr. Alexx Woods), Sofia Milos (Detective Yelina Salas), Rex Linn (Detective Frank Tripp).

1783 C.S.I.: New York. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 2004 (Current)). A second spin-off (see also C.S.I.: Miami) from C.S.I.: Crime Scene Investigation. The grueling work of the Crime Scene Investigation Unit of the N.Y.P.D. is profiled in graphic and potentially upsetting stories for some viewers.

Mac Taylor heads the unit and is assisted by Stella Bonasera, Danny Messer, Lindsay Monroe, Dr. Sheldon Hawkes and Don Flack.

Mac is a blood and splatter analysis expert. He has a tendency not to believe suspects after questioning them and can take the pieces of an unknown object and piece them back together. He also knows a lot about little things and uses that knowledge to impress people.

Stella is an expert at figuring out what causes what and is an expert in chemical analysis. She says, “We are scientists and we want to come to the rescue — but we can’t; it’s not our job. We analyze evidence and determine whether someone is guilty or not.” She is also a student of dance — “Jazz, tap and ballet.”

Don is streetwise and uses his contacts to help him in a bind. He was born in Yonkers and is descended from a long line of police officers. Lindsay was originally with the Montana C.S.I. before moving to New York to further her career. She is eager to do her best and sometimes that energy causes her to become too involved in a case and will not rest until she helps bring the case to a successful conclusion.

Sheldon is the unit’s Chief Medical Examiner. He was born and raised in and was a child prodigy. He graduated from college at the age of 18 and by age 24 was a board-certified surgeon. However, Sheldon’s education sheltered him from the pressures of life-saving surgery and after two years he quit to find the peace and solitude the coroner’s office offers him.

Cast: Gary Sinise (Mac Taylor), Melina Kanakaredes (Stella Bonasera), Carmine Giovinazzo (Danny Messer), Anna Belknap (Lindsay Monroe), Eddie Cahill (Don Flack), Hill Harper (Dr. Sheldon Hawkes).

1784 C-16: FBI. (Series; Crime Drama; ABC; 1997–1998). C-16 is a unit of the FBI that specializes in specific, difficult to solve cases. The unit is based in Los Angeles and is headed by John Olansky, a tough, no-nonsense federal agent who has hand-picked the best agents the bureau has for his specialized unit: Amanda Reardon, Scott Stoddard, Anne Rooney, Jack DiRado, Dennis Grassi and Mal Robinson. Stories follow the team’s investigations into crimes that require their extraordinary skills to resolve.

Cast: Eric Roberts (John Olansky), Angie Harmon (Amanda Reardon), Christine Tucci (Anne Rooney), D.B. Sweeney (Scott Stoddard), Zach Grenier (Jack DiRado), Michael Cavanaugh (Dennis Grassi), Morris Chestnut (Mal Robinson).

1785 Cubix: Robots for Everyone. (Series; Cartoon; Kids WB; 2001). A computer animated series that is set in the year 2040 in a place called Bubbletown. Here robots have become the norm and, not only do they outnumber humans, but each human has his or her own robot. There is also a clique called the Botties, which caters to the people who know how to maintain and fix robots. Everything appears to be normal in Bubbletown. Suddenly, a mysterious liquid called Solex, materializes and disrupts many of the computer-controlled robots, forcing them to act in peculiar ways. Dr. K, a now evil scientist who once built the robots of Bubbletown for RobicCorp, is seeking a way to harness Solex and use it to build the ultimate robot to destroy Bubbletown (revenge for the loss of an arm in a lab accident at RobicCorp). Attempting to stop Dr. K is Connor, a 13-year-old boy who owns Cubix (a robot made of cubes), he restored as a member of Botties; Abby, Connor's next-door neighbor, who owns a robot named Dondon; and Hela Nemo, the head of Botties, who has four robots: Diagnostix, Mr. Fixit, Expressive and Attractix. Stories relate the battle.

Voice Cast: Andy Rannells (Connor), Veronica Taylor (Abby), Rachel Lillis (Hela), Madeleine Blaustein (Dr. K), Dan Green (Professor Nemo).

1786 Culture Clash. (Unaired Pilot; Comedy; Produced for Fox in 1991). Chuy, Richard and Herbert are three New Yorkers with a dream — to move to Los Angeles and make it big in show business. The unsold series was to relate their attempts to make that dream come true.

Cast: Cheech Marin (Chuy), Richard Montoya (Richard), Herbert Siguenza (Herbert), Ric "Sparky" Salinas (Sparky), Lauren Tom (Mrs. Chow), Gail O'Grady (Randi).

1787 Cupid. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1998–1999). Trevor Hale is a man who claims to be Cupid, the God of Love. He also claims that he has been sent to Earth as punishment for his misdeeds and in order to earn back his place on Mount Olympus, he must match 100 couples without the use of magic. Trevor has also been stripped of his magical powers and must use his normal, human charm to accomplish his goal.

Unfortunately, Trevor introduces himself as Cupid to those he believes are a match. Because of this, his story is disbelieved and he is thought to be delusional. He is placed under the care of Dr. Claire Allen, a psychologist whose job is to convince Trevor that he is not Cupid. Stories follow Trevor as he goes about bringing people together while at the same time trying to convince Claire and his friend, Albert, that he is who he says he is.

Cast: Jeremy Piven (Trevor Hale), Paula Marshall (Dr. Claire Allen), Jeffrey D. Sams (Albert "Champ" Terrace), Paul Adelstein (Mike), Noelle Bou-Sliman (Tina), Jeff Parise (Nick), Daniel Bryant (Laurence), Melanie Deanne Moore (Jaelyn).

1788 Cupid. (Series; Reality; CBS; 2003). Can a girl who is unlucky in love ever find the right man?

CBS believes so and has chosen such a girl — Lisa Shannon, a beautiful, intelligent girl who just can't seem to find Mr. Right. With the help of her girlfriends, Lisa, Kimberly and Laura, cameras follow their efforts to find the right man for Lisa. The series ran from July 9, 2003 to September 16, 2003.

Cast: Brian McFadden (Host), Lisa Shannon (Herself), Laura Restum (Herself), Kimberly Tarter (Herself).

1789 Curb Your Enthusiasm. (Series; Comedy; HBO; 2000–2006). Day to day events in the life of comedian Larry David are depicted in cinema verite style. Larry appears as a producer-writer. He is married to Cheryl, has a number of good friends (played mostly by guest celebrities) and a manager (Jeff Greene). Larry also has one other thing — a penchant for finding some sort of mishap in the simplest of things — from a simple phone call to trick or treating on Halloween. The series is unscripted and the cast performs from scene outlines.

Other Regulars: Susie, Jeff's foul-mouthed wife; and Richard Lewis, Larry's closest friend.

Cast: Larry David (Himself), Cheryl Hines (Cheryl David), Jeff Garlin (Jeff Greene), Susie Essman (Susie Greene), Richard Lewis (Himself).

1790 Curiosity Shop. (Series; Children; ABC; 1971–1972). Various aspects of the adult world are explained to children via sketches, cartoons and films. The series ran from September 11, 1971 to September 9, 1973.

Cast: Barbara Minkus (Gittel the Witch), Pamela Ferdin (Pam), John Levin (Gerard), Kerry MacLane (Ralph), Jerelyn Fields (Cindy), Mel Blanc (Voice), June Foray (Voice), Chuck Jones (Voice), Robert Holt (Voice), The Bob Barker Marionettes (Regulars).

1791 Curious George. (Series; Cartoon; PBS; 2006–). George is a very curious young African monkey. The Man in the Yellow Hat owns George and is having a very difficult time raising him. George is naturally curious about everything and he must explore to satisfy that curiosity. As George explores he doesn't mean to become overly excited and cause mischief, but he does when his enthusiasm gets the better of him. Stories follow George as he explores — and the efforts of his owner to curtail his antics. George's exploration of whatever catches his fancy is meant to help children learn about life.

Voice Cast: Frank Welker (George), Jeff Bennett (The Man in the Yellow Hat), William H. Macy (Narrator).

1792 Curl Girls. (Series; Reality; Logo; 2007). Five gorgeous young women (who are lesbians) are profiled as they head to Hawaii to compete against each other in surfing competitions. The program also follows the women as they compete for each other affections and shows the relationships that are formed. The women, identified by a first name only are Michele, Erin, Gingi, Vanessa and Jessica. Scott A. Stone, Rick Leed, Lori Kayi and Chad Callner are the producers.

1793 Curley Bradley, the Singing Marshal. (Unaired Pilot; Western; Produced in 1955). "Song of the marshal, humming as he rides along..." said the theme about Curley Bradley, a law enforcer of the Old West who uses his wits, rather than guns, to capture outlaws. Only one 15-minute episode was produced and by it, it appears that if the series sold it would have Curley telling a young boy (Rusty) stories about law enforcement through flashbacks that relate his exploits with his deputy Red Rivers (Curley's horse is named Ranger).

Cast: Curley Bradley (Marshal Curley Bradley). Credits for other cast members are not given.

1794 The Curse of Dracula. (Series; Serial; NBC; 1979). The story, set in present-day San Francisco, focuses on the efforts of Kurt von Helsing and Mary Gibbons to destroy Count Dracula, a 512-year-old vampire they believe is alive and living in California — and posing as a Professor of Eastern European History at Southbay College. Originally broadcast as a segment of Cliffhangers and also known as Dracula '79.

Other Regulars: Amanda Gibbons, Marty's mother; and Antoinette and Christine, students under Dracula's control.

Cast: Michael Nouri (Count Dracula), Stephen Johnson (Kurt von Helsing), Carol Baxter (Mary Gibbons), Louise Sorel (Amanda Gibbons), Antoinette Stella (Antoinette), Bever-Leigh Banfield (Christine). Narrator: Brad Crandall.

1795 Curse of the Corn People. (Pilot; Drama; CBS; 8/1/89). An unusual series idea about a group of 20 year olds who dedicate their free time to making horror films in the hope that one will become a success and be their ticket out of their small Kansas town.

Cast: John Terlesky (Frank Cabell), Rodney Eastman (Steve Cabell), Darren Dalton (Eric), Danielle Von Zerneck (Holly), Rachel Sweet (Lou Ann), Kate Reid (Greta Obermeier).

1796 Curtain Call Theater. (Series; Anthology; NBC; 1952). Dramatizations based on classical and contemporary short stories. The series, which produced 14 episodes, aired from June 20, 1952 to September 26, 1952.

Performers Include: Boris Karloff, Jack Palance, Carol Bruce, Robert Preston, Victoria Ward, John Forsythe, Sheppard Strudwick, Leora Dana, Miriam Hopkins, Wendell Corey, Melville Cooper, Ilona Massey, James Dunn, Paul Ford, Louise Larrabe, Howard Smith, Maureen Stapleton, Priscilla Gillette, Val Dufour.

1797 Cut. (Series; Game; DuMont; 1949). An amateurish script, which suggests an object or theme, is performed by a group of actors. An operator places a random phone call to a potential viewer. If a connection is made, the viewer is asked to identify the suggested theme. If he can, he is awarded a prize and the opportunity to win the jackpot by identifying a celebrity whose picture is rapidly spun on a wheel. The series, which produced only three episodes, aired from June 4, 1949 to June 18, 1949.

Host: Carl Caruso.

1798 Cuts. (Series; Comedy; UPN; 2005–2006). A spin-off from One on One in which Kevin Barnes, the younger brother of TV sportscaster Flex Washington (his professional name) takes over the family barbershop, Phathead. Shortly after, the shop is purchased by Jack Sherwood (a hair stylist who started an empire) as a means for his daughter, Tiffany, to learn responsibility. Jack is rich and Tiffany has been spoiled all her life. With the shop, now called Cuts (a hair salon and day spa) Jack hopes to instill Tiffany with a business sense and makes her and Kevin co-managers (Tiffany is a Yale dropout. She calls her breasts "My Ph.D's" and feels she can get whatever she wants based on her gorgeous looks). Kevin, who is currently attending Baltimore State College of Business Seminars, is a go-getter and often upset with Tiffany for her lack of commitment to anything. Stories follow Tiffany and Kevin as they attempt to run a salon.

Candy, who performed at college fraternity parties, has the nickname "Candy Fine Candy"; she is the nail stylist; Kevin is the master barber; Tiffany heads the spa portion of the business; Ace is a large African-American who likes to dance (he is called "Chocolate Thunder Toes"); Jack owns Sherwood Industries and Cuts is part of the Speedy Cuts Salon Chain.

Cast: Shannon Elizabeth (Tiffany Sherwood), Marques Houston (Kevin Barnes), Shondrella Avery (Candy Taylor), Edward Fordham, Jr. (Ace Fields), Rashaan Nall (Walt Powell), Corbin Bernsen (Jack Sherwood).

1799 Cutter. (Pilot; Crime Drama; NBC; 1/26/72). A proposed series about Frank Cutter, a Chicago-based private detective who, in the pilot episode, searches for a missing pro quarterback.

Cast: Peter DeAnda (Frank Cutter). Guest Cast: Cameron Mitchell (Riggs), Barbara Rush (Linda), Gabriel Dell (Leone), Robert Webber (Meredith), Marlene Warfield (Susan Macklin), Stephan Fetchit (Shineman), Anna Navarro (Miss Aguilera), Herbert Jefferson, Jr. (Macklin).

1800 Cutter to Houston. (Series; Drama; CBS; 1983). Cutter Community Hospital is a medical center in the small town of Cutter, Texas. Beth Gilbert, Andy Fenton and Hal Wexler are three skilled young doctors attached to the hospital. Stories follow their experiences as they battle disease, most often working with the Houston Medical Center, a large, state of the art medical center in Houston, Texas.

Other Regulars: Warren Jarvis, the town mayor; nurses Connie, Kate and Patty; Dorothy, Warren's wife; and Dr. Easley, Beth's mentor at Houston Medical Center. Beth is a skilled surgeon; Andy is a G.P. and Hal is an internist.

Cast: Shelley Hack (Dr. Beth Gilbert), Jim Metzler (Dr. Andy Freeman), Alec Baldwin (Dr. Hal Wexler), Noble Willingham (Mayor Warren Jarvis), K Callan (Nurse Connie Buford), Susan Styles (Nurse Patty Alvarez), Georgann Johnson (Dorothy Jarvis), Gina Alvarado (Nurse Kate), Percy Rodrigues (Dr. Easley). Theme Music: "Cutter to Houston" by James Di Pasquale.

1801 Cutters. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1993). Joe and Harry Polachek are a father and son who own Harry's Barber Shop in Buffalo, New York. Next door is Adrienne's Beauty Salon, run by Adrienne St. John. Both shops are in financial trouble and to resolve the problem, Joe and Adrienne reluctantly agree to combine shops. Stories follow the efforts of both groups to work together despite Harry's feelings that the women have invaded a male domain.

Other Regulars: Lynn, Adrienne's stepdaughter and partner (she charges $85 for a cut and perm); Troy, Harry's gay hair stylist; Debra, a hair stylist; and Chad, a barbershop customer.

Cast: Robert Hays (Joe Polachek), Dakin Matthews (Harry Polachek), Margaret Whitton (Adrienne St. John), Julia Campbell (Lynn Fletcher), Ray Buktenica (Chad Connors), Julius Carry (Troy King), Robin Tunney (Debra Hart).

1802 Cyberchase. (Series; Children; PBS; 2002-). Hacker is a diabolical computer genius with only one goal: conquer the virtual universe. When he begins his quest, Motherboard, the guardian of all cyberspace, endows three children — Jackie, Matt and Inez, with the ability to become the Cyber Squad and use the power of mathematics to battle Hacker. The squad is able to travel from their real world realm to the virtual world of hyperspace and are assisted by Digit, a smart-alec bird created by Motherboard. Hacker is extremely devious and the Squad must travel from dimension to dimension in an attempt to defeat him. They have no weapons and must use their minds (logic and math) to overcome the obstacles Hacker places before them to save the Internet.

Cast: Christopher Lloyd (Hacker), Novie Edwards (Jackie), Annick Obonsawin (Inez), Jacqueline Pillon (Matt), Kristina Nicoll (Motherboard), Gilbert Gottfried (Digit).

1803 Cybill. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1995–1998). Actress Cybill Sheridan lives at 11291 Moss Canyon in Los Angeles. She has two ex-husbands, Jeff Robbins and Ira Woodbine, two daughters, Zoe and Rachel, and a martini-drinking best friend, Maryann Thorpe.

Cybill, "an aging actress who loses jobs to younger girls," got her first taste of show business as a child when she entered a beauty contest in Arkansas and was crowned "Miss Pickled Pigs Feet." She starred in the all nude version of Death of a Salesman; made her network TV debut on a sitcom called Family House ("I played the husband's secretary"); portrayed the Lizard Woman in an episode of Star Trek; and filmed a TV series called Island Cop. The six episodes were so bad that Island Cop never aired in the U.S.; however, it did run in Russia, where it became the number one show for seven years. Cybill played Booty the Clown (a clown with a big butt) on the live TV kids show Major Milo; co-hosted the morning talk show Julie in the Morning (which soon became Julie and Cybill); and starred in The X-Files rip-off series Life Forms (in which Cybill played Sara McCullum, a woman who battles aliens. "The actual 'stars' of the show," Cybill says, "are my breasts and legs, which receive more air time than the rest of me").

Cybill also played Galaxy Girl on the TV series Invincible Girl and appeared on the reality TV series Stories of the Highway Patrol ("I was hit by a bus").

Cybill's movie career includes Oliver Twisted ("The worst horror film ever made"), Punchout and What She Did for Love (which contains Cybill's first nude scene). Cybill also starred in a number of TV commercials, including "The Psychic Pals Network," a feminine product called "Femgel," "Fraumeiser Beer," "Granny's Snack Cakes" and "Can-Do Supermarkets." Cybill was born in Memphis, Tennessee, and drives a 1964 Dodge Dart.

Jeff, Cybill's first husband, is a TV and movie stuntman who owns a dog named Duke. He calls Cybill "Pumpkin" and her breasts "The Pointer Sisters." Ira, Cybill's second husband, is a lawyer turned novelist who penned Lowenstein's Lament. Zoe, 16 years old when the series started, first held a job as a counter girl at the Burger Barn, then as a tour guide at Universal Studios. She is Cybill's daughter by Ira. Rachel, who is married to Kevin Taylor, is Cybill's daughter by Jeff.

Maryann, who uses her middle name as her first name (Theresa is her real first name), was born in Buffalo, New York, and attended St. Dominic's High School (class of '71). She is divorced from the never fully seen "Dr. Dick" (as she calls him) and is extremely angry at him for divorcing her. She has vowed to get even by spending every cent he has. She and Cybill share each other's joys and sorrows although Maryann drowns most of those sorrows in the martini she is seen holding in virtually every scene she is in.

Cast: Cybill Shepherd (Cybill Sheridan), Christine Baranski (Maryann Thorpe), Tom Wopat (Jeff Robbins), Alan Rosenberg (Ian Woodbine), Alicia Witt (Zoe), Dedee Pfeiffer (Rachel), Peter Krause (Kevin Taylor).

1804 The D.A. (Series; Crime Drama; NBC; 1971–1972). Paul Ryan is a District Attorney in Los Angeles County. Paul is not your run of the mill prosecutor; he is also a detective and likes to do his own investigation into the cases he handles. Stories follow Paul as he uses whatever means it takes to successfully prosecute criminals.

H.M. “Staff” Stafford is the chief deputy; Katy Ramirez is Paul’s chief investigator; Charlotte is Paul’s secretary. The series, which produced 13 episodes, ran from September 17, 1971 to January 7, 1972.

Cast: Robert Conrad (Paul Ryan), Harry Morgan (H.M. “Staff” Stafford), Julie Cobb (Katy Benson), Ned Romero (Bob Ramirez), Sonja Dunson (Charlotte), Victor Izay (Judge Simmons), Ron Foster (Lieutenant Vaughn), Russ Conway (Captain Langham).

1805 The D.A.: Conspiracy to Kill. (Pilot; Crime Drama; NBC; 1/11/71). The second pilot film for the 1971–72 NBC series The D.A. (see also The D.A.: Murder One) about Paul Ryan, the deputy district attorney of Los Angeles County.

Cast: Robert Conrad (Paul Ryan), William Conrad (Chief Vincent Kovac). Guest Cast: Belinda J. Montgomery (Luanne Gibson), Don Stroud (Thomas Bertrand), Linda Marsh (Rochelle DeHaven), Leslie Parrish (Ramona Bertrand), Steve Ihnat (James Fletcher), Roger Perry (Stevens).

1806 The D.A.: Murder One. (Pilot; Crime Drama; NBC; 12/8/69). The first pilot film for the 1971–72 NBC series “The D.A.” (see also The D.A.: Conspiracy to Kill) about Paul Ryan, a deputy district attorney in Los Angeles. In the pilot episode, Ryan attempts to prove that a nurse (Mary Brokaw) is responsible for the murders of several people through insulin overdoses.

Cast: Robert Conrad (Paul Ryan), Howard Duff (D.A. Lynn Compton). Guest Cast: Diane Baker (Mary Brokaw), Gerald S. O’Loughlin (Andrushian), Ford Rainey (Dr. Ellis Anders), David Opatoshu (Dr. Grainger), Dana Elcar (Dr. Enright), Alfred Cannon (Dr. Stuart).

1807 Daddio. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 2003). Chris and Linda Woods are a happily married couple with four children: Shannon, Max, Jake and Emily. Chris sells restaurant supplies for Kitchenware Products; Linda is a lawyer. Shannon is 13 years old and attends McArthur Jr. High School; Max is 12 years old and in the sixth grade at middle school; Jake is in kindergarten; and Emily is an infant.

When it became difficult for Linda to care for her family and perform her job, Chris resigns to become a full time house husband to allow Linda to continue her career.

Stories follow Chris, called Daddio, as he struggles to retain his sanity caring for the kids and running the house. Chris is a member of the Mommie and Me Group (where his conversation with members Barb and Holly are showcased); he calls his group “The Falcons.” Bobeck, who most annoys Chris with the noise he creates from his woodworking shop in the backyard, is Chris’s obnoxious neighbor. Bobeck is a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and says, “Mr. Bobeck was my father’s name. Call me Bobeck.”

Cast: Michael Chiklis (Chris Woods), Anita Barone (Linda Woods), Cristina Kernan (Shannon Woods), Martin Spanjers (Max Woods), Mitch Holleman (Jake Woods), Ashley and Whitney Steidl (Emily Woods), Steve Ryan (Bobeck), Suzy Nakamura (Holly), Amy Wilson (Barb).

1808 Daddy Dearest. (Series; Comedy; Fox; 1993). Steve Mitchell is a divorced psychologist with an office at 950 Fifth Avenue in New York City. Pam is his ex-wife and he has temporary custody of their son, Danny.

Al and Helen Mitchell are Steve’s quarrelsome parents. When Al loses their retirement money in a bad investment, Helen throws Al out of the house. With no where else to go, Al moves in with and disrupts Steve’s life (it is later said that Helen went to “live with their crazy Aunt Adelaide.” It appears a TV set fell on her head and made her crazy).

Al feels displaced but says “I survived 25 bombing missions in the war, Helen’s hot flashes and I can survive this” (living with Steve and his son). Al is loud, obnoxious and insulting to people. Steve feels his father’s uncouth ways will wear off on Danny. Stories follow Al and Steve’s efforts to live with each other.

Other Regulars: Lisa, Steve’s secretary; Pete, Al’s friend; Christine Winters, Steve’s psychologist friend; Larry Mitchell, Steve’s married brother (the father of overweight triplets named Jeremy, Jackson and Jordan).

Cast: Don Rickles (Al Mitchell), Richard Lewis (Steve Mitchell), Renee Taylor (Helen Mitchell), Jonathan Gibby (Danny Mitchell; pilot episode), Jeffrey Bomberger (Danny Mitchell; series), Leann Hunley (Pam Mitchell), Carey Eidel (Larry Mitchell), Sydney Walsh (Christine Winters), Alice Carter (Lisa), Barney Martin (Pete Peters), Angie Dickinson (Mrs. Winters; Christine’s mother), The Carey Triplets (Jeremy, Jackson, Jordan Mitchell).

1809 Daddy’s Girl. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 6/19/73). The house at 8360 Brockhurst is owned by Bob Randall, a widowed Boston newspaper columnist and the father of an eight-year-old daughter named Flossie. They live in the house with his wife's sister, "Aunt" Mary, who serves as their housekeeper and the unsold series was to relate Bob's efforts to raise Flossie. In the pilot episode, Bob faces his first televised crisis — Flossie's sudden interest in nudism. Other Regulars: Diane, their neighbor; and Bennett, Bob's friend.

Cast: Eddie Albert (Bob Randall), Dawn Lyn (Flossie Randall), Della Reese (Diane), Helen Page Camp (Aunt Mary), Alan Oppenheimer (Bennett).

1810 Daddy's Girls. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1994). Dudley Walker was (or thought he was) a happily married man until his wife, Annette, ran away with his uncle, Phil. Dudley is now a single father and struggling to raise his three daughters, Samantha, Amy and Phoebe. Dudley is also the owner of Walker Clothes, a dress designing business that he now runs with his middle daughter, Samantha. Stories follow Dudley as he tries to rebuild his life, care for his daughters and run a business. The series was cancelled after three episodes.

Other Regulars: Dennis, the dress designer; Seymour, a shop employee; and Lenny, Amy's fiance (an ophthalmologist).

Cast: Dudley Moore (Dudley Walker), Stacy Galina (Amy Walker), Meredith Lynn Scott (Samantha Walker), Keri Russell (Phoebe Walker), Lenore Kasdorf (Annette Walker), Eugene Roche (Seymour), Harvey Firestein (Dennis Sinclair), Alan Ruck (Lenny).

1811 Daddy's Spoiled Little Girl. (Series; Reality; WE; 2005). The program profiles a group of very beautiful but also very spoiled girls — rich girls who want what they want (and often get it) because they have wealthy fathers. Examples of the spoiled girls are Courtney Polinsky "an air princess" who wants her father to make her dream of becoming a model a reality; Richelle Jones, who wants her father to sponsor a charity event to enable her to become part of the Manhattan socialite scene; Laurie Snyder wants to live on her own — with her father footing the bill for a multi-million dollar home she has selected; Molly Nashhar is left home alone in the family mansion with nothing to do but shop and have fun; Chelsea Chandler hopes her father's wealth will make her win the largest youth talent contest in the world; Jamie Diamond is about to graduate from high school — and would like a grand and expensive graduation party.

1812 Dads. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1987). Rick Armstrong and Louis Mangotti, best friends since high school and now single fathers, combine forces and decide to share a Philadelphia house to save on expenses. The male version of Kate and Allie relates the efforts of both families to live together.

Other Regulars: Kelly, Rick's daughter; and Kenny and Allan, Louis's sons.

Cast: Barry Bostwick (Rick Armstrong), Carl Weintraub (Louis Mangotti), Skye Bassett (Kelly Armstrong), Eddie Castrodad (Kenny Mangotti), Jason Naylor (Allan Mangotti).

1813 Dad's a Dog. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 7/6/90). Charles Dryden is a widower with two children (Sara and Lawrence). He is also a New York stage actor who is forced to do the voice for Scooter, the canine star of the TV series Dad's a Dog, in order to support his family. The unsold series was to relate Charles's efforts to find a job that suits him while at the same time performing a role that he hates. (The plot of Dad's a Dog: Dad is running after a bus at the same time a dog is chasing that bus. The bus hits Paul, a.k.a. Dad; the dog crashes into the bus; the soul of Dad enters the dog's body — and thus Dad's a dog.)

Cast: David Steinberg (Charles Dryden), Natalie Gregory (Sara Dryden), Jarrod Paul (Lawrence Dryden), Jessica Walter (Bobbie Balian, Charles's agent). Guest Cast: Susan Blakely (Melody McBride), Peter Bonerz (Tony Sheridan), Mark Blankfield (L.P. Gasman), Marsha McClelland (Gloria), Nick Toth (Director), Justin Shenkarow (Chip).

1814 The Daffy/Speedy Show. (Series; Cartoon; NBC; 1981–1982). The program showcases various Warner Bros. cartoons, most notably the misadventures of Daffy Duck and Speedy Gonzales.

Voice Cast: Mel Blanc (Daffy Duck), Mel Blanc (Speedy Gonzales), June Foray, Larry Storch, Larry Mann. Announcer: Casey Kasem.

1815 DAG. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 2000–2001). Jerome Dagget, called Dag, is a Secret Service Agent with the B-Team, a unit assigned to protect the First Lady (Judith Whitman), the wife of the President of the United States.

Dag has over 10,000 hours of training and is the best in his field. He is a master of Code 12 (decoy missions) and is called "The Duke of Decoys" and "The Master of Confusion." Dag also yearns to become a member of the A-Team, the unit responsible for protecting the President. Stories follow Dag's daily activities as he and the B-Team perform their duties (in the season finale, April 10, 2001, Dag saves the life of President Whitman when he prevents him from eating a piece of coconut cake; [the President is allergic to coconut] and is rewarded by becoming a member of the A-Team. Unfortunately, the series was not renewed).

Other Regulars: Camilla Whitman, the President's 17-year-old daughter; Ginger Chin, Judith's press secretary; and agents Susan Cole, Sullivan Pope and Edward Pillows. Ginger's real name is Ginger

Chin Downey, Jr.—“I was married but I don’t like to talk about it.”

Cast: David Alan Grier (Jerome Dagget), Delta Burke (Judith Whitman), David Rasche (President Whitman), Lea Moreno Young (Camilla Whitman), Lauren Tom (Ginger Chin), Emmy Laybourne (Susan Cole), Paul F. Tompkins (Sullivan Pope), Stephen Dunham (Edward Pillows).

1816 Dagmar’s Canteen. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1952). The series, set against the background of a military canteen, presents interviews and performances by members of the U.S. Armed Forces. The series ran from March 22, 1952 to June 14, 1952. Hal Friedman is the producer.

Hostess: Jennie “Dagmar” Lewis. Regulars: Ray Malone, Joey Faye. Music: Milton DeLugg.

1817 The Daily Show. (Series; Comedy; Comedy Central; 1998–). As the title suggests, a daily series that not only presents interviews with both known and lesser known celebrities (and political figures and newsmakers) but also features news stories (reported with a satirical edge). Skits spoof everything and anything. The series is also known as The Jon Stewart Show.

Host: John Stewart. Regulars: Samantha Bee, Stephen Colbert (host of “The Colbert Report” segment), Rob Corddry, Jason Jones, John Oliver, Dan Bakkedahl, Rich Brown, Ed Helms, John Hodgman.

1818 The Dakotas. (Series; Western; ABC; 1963). The post-Civil War Dakotas is the setting. Frank Ragan is a U.S. Marshal who has been assigned to the somewhat ruthless territory to help settlers and maintain the peace. He is assisted by Deputies Del Stark, J.D. Smith and Vance Porter and stories relate their adventures as they struggle to institute a system of law and order in rapidly growing towns. See also A Man Called Ragan for information on the series pilot film.

Cast: Larry Ward (Marshal Frank Ragan), Chad Everett (Deputy Del Stark), Jack Elam (Deputy J.D. Smith), Michael Green (Deputy Vance Porter).

1819 Dakota’s Way. (Pilot; Crime Drama; ABC; 8/20/88). Dakota Goldstein is a former operative with the National Security Agency who now works as a plainclothes detective for the L.A.P.D. She is beautiful, wild, unpredictable and unorthodox and the unsold series was to relate her attempts to solve complex crimes. The pilot episode teams Dakota with Preston Rafferty, a by-the-books detective, to solve a kidnapping case.

Other Regulars: Patsy and Carolyn, Preston’s wife and daughter; Leda, Dakota’s friend; and Captain Beckett.

Cast: Patricia Charbonneau (Dakota Goldstein), Bruce Davison (Preston Rafferty), James Avery (Cap- tain Beckett), Michelle Joyner (Leda), Lili Haydn (Carolyn Rafferty), Louise Claire Clark (Patsy Rafferty). Guest Cast: Shawn Modrell (Kimberly), Jonathan McMurty (Nelson Charlesworth), Christine Jones (Ilene Charlesworth).

1820 Daktari. (Series; Adventure; CBS; 1966–1969). The series, set at the Wameru Game Preserve and Research Center in Africa, relates the efforts of Daktari (Swahili for “Doctor”) Marsh Tracy and his associates to protect the endangered wildlife and ensure their future existence.

Paula Tracy is Marsh’s daughter; Jack Dane is a zoologist; Jenny Jones is Marsh’s young friend; Bert Jason is the game hunter; Mr. Headley is the District Game Warden. Marsh’s animals are Clarence, the cross-eyed lion and Judy the Chimp.

Cast: Marshall Thompson (Dr. Marsh Tracy), Cheryl Miller (Paula Tracy), Hadley Mattingley (Game Warden Headley), Yale Sommers (Jack Dane), Ross Hagen (Bert Jason), Erin Moran (Jenny Jones). Theme Song: “Daktari” by Henry Vars.

1821 Dallas. (Series; Drama; CBS; 1978–1981). The drives, ambitions, passions and personal conflicts of the oil-and-cattle rich Ewing family, the owners of the Ewing Oil Company in Dallas and the Southfork Ranch in Braddock, Texas.

John “Jock” Ewing and his wife Eleanor (called “Miss Ellie”) head the company; they are the parents of John Ross (J.R.) Jr., Bobby and Gary.

J.R. was born on the Southfork Ranch in 1939. He is ruthless and now heads the oil company. He married Sue Ellen Shepherd in 1971 and became “the man everybody loves to hate.” He is a brilliant schemer and conniver with a glint of evil in his eye.

Bobby was born in 1952. He first worked as a roadman for Ewing Oil; he later became an executive (1978) then CEO (1980). He also headed the Oil Construction Company and in 1981 became a Texas State Senator. After a falling out with J.R., Bobby became CEO of the rival oil company, Petro, and in 1991 head of the Southfork Ranch. He was married to Pamela Barnes.

Gary, the outcast brother, was married to Valene and eventually fled to California where he set up a new life for his family (as depicted in the spinoff series Knots Landing).

Cast: Jim Davis (John “Jock” Ewing), Barbara BelGeddes (Eleanor Ewing; 1978–84; 1985–90), Donna Reed (Eleanor Ewing; 1984–85), Larry Hagman (J.R. Ewing), Patrick Duffy (Bobby Ewing), Linda Gray (Sue Ellen Ewing), Victoria Principal (Pamela Barnes-Ewing), Charlene Tipton (Lucy Ewing), Jenilee Harrison (Jamie Ewing), David Wayne (Willard “Digger” Barnes), Keenan Wynn (Willard “Digger” Barnes), Ken Kercheval (Cliff Barnes), Steve Kanaly (Ray Krebs), Joan Van Ark (Valene Ewing), Ted Shackelford (Gary Ewing), Mary

Crosby (Kristin Shepard), Susan Howard (Donna Culver), Barbara Babcock (Liz Craig), Andrew Stevens (Casey Denault), Jack Scalia (Nicholas Pearce), Amy Stock (Lisa), Leigh Taylor-Young (Kimberly), Karen Kopins (Kay Lloyd), Glenn Corbett (Paul Morgan), Sheree J. Wilson (April Stevens-Ewing), Michele Scarabelli (Connie), Dennis Patrick (Vaughn Leland), Rosemary Forsyth (Ann McFadden), George Chakiris (Nicholas), Steve Forrest (Wes Parmalee), Martha Scott (Patricia Shepard), Denny Miller (Max Flowers), Donegan Smith (Earl Johnson), Lois Chiles (Holly Harwood), Dack Rambo (Jack Ewing), Karlene Crockett (Muriel Gillis), Melody Anderson (Linda), Francine Tacker (Jenna Wade), Priscilla Presley (Jenna Wade), Tyler Banks (John Ross Ewing III), Omri Katz (John Ross Ewing III), Howard Keel (Clayton Farlow), Jared Martin (Steve "Dusty" Farlow), Leigh McCloskey (Mitch Cooper), Anne Francis (Arliss Cooper), Audrey Landers (Afton Cooper), Fern Fitzgerald (Marilee Stone), Alexis Smith (Lady Jessica Montford), Christopher Atkins (Peter Richards), Monte Markham (Clint Ogden), William Smithers (Jeremy Wendell), Morgan Brittany (Katherine Wentworth), John Beck (Mark Graison), Shalane McCall (Charlene Wade), Marc Singer (Matt Cantrell), Barbara Carrera (Angelica Nero). Theme Song: "Dallas" by Jerrold Immel.

1822 Dalton's Code of Vengeance. (Series; Adventure; NBC; 1987). David Dalton is a mysterious and impulsive Vietnam vet (trained in special weapons and martial arts) who wanders around the country (in an old van with his dog, Wichita) and helps people in trouble. The five-episode series depicts Dalton's adventures as he seeks an unknown destiny.

The series evolved from two prior attempts that also starred Charles Taylor as David Dalton. They are:

1. Dalton's Code of Vengeance, NBC, 6/30/85. Here, David wanders into Wilcox, a U.S. Mexican border town, where he goes to work for a beautiful woman (Nadine) and becomes involved with murder and smugglers. The guest cast included Erin Gray (as Nadine Flowers), Charles Haid (as Jim Blanton), Randall "Tex" Cobb (as Willard Singleton), Keenan Wynn (as Willis), Lenka Peterson (as Iona Flowers) and Chad Allen (as A.J. Flowers).

2. Dalton's Code of Vengeance II, NBC, 5/11/86. This title, although considered a TV movie, is actually two one-hour episodes of a never televised "Dalton" series (four episodes were filmed; this title compresses episodes three and four into a movie. Episodes one and two were edited to form Dalton's Code of Vengeance III, which never aired). Here, Dalton travels to Houston, Texas, to help his former C.O. (Monty Bennett) now the psychotic leader of a para-military group. The guest cast included Donnelly Rhodes (as Major Monty Bennett), Belinda J. Montgomery (as Libby Holland), Karen Landry (as Jeanne Bennett), Meredith MacRae (as Parade commentator) and William Sanderson (as Bobby Fuller).

Cast: Charles Taylor (David Dalton).

1823 Damages. (Series; Drama; FX; 2007). Patricia Hewes, called Patty, is one of the country's most successful class-action attorneys. She owns the Manhattan firm of Hewes and Associates and is one who believes in a group effort (although she will tackle a case alone, she believes in numbers for strength). She is forceful; in fact she is so persistent in the demands for her clients that the opposing side often just gives in (for an out-of-court settlement) rather than face her wrath in front of a jury. While the series focuses on the cases Patty handles, it focuses, in particular on her efforts to get a conviction on Arthur Frobisher, a CEO who bilked 5,000 employees out of their savings in an investment scam. The government could not prove he did anything wrong — but Patty, a representative of the people he cheated, believes he is guilty and has set her goal to put Arthur behind bars where he belongs and recoup her clients money.

Arthur has no intentions of spending time in jail (or giving up his money) and has hired a somewhat unethical lawyer (Ray Fiske) to battle Patty and leave him out of it (but Arthur is always drawn into the conflict due to Patty's unique abilities to rub people the wrong way).

Ellen Parsons, a gorgeous and ambitious young attorney just out of law school, is the newest member of Patty's team (she gave up a chance of a lifetime — an interview with Patty for the job to attend her sister's wedding. To her surprise, Patty showed up at the wedding. Ellen was the only person to ever turn down a job interview with Patty. It impressed her and she hired her).

Patty is married (to Phil Grey) and the mother of an unseen teenage son who uses her credit cards to pay for prostitutes (Patty apparently has little control over him). Ellen recently became engaged to Dr. David Conner and now realizes that in order to keep her job she must be at Patty's beck and call in a moment's notice. She also realizes she will not get a second chance and she must choose work over family. Tom Shayes is Patty's right-hand man and the only other member of her litigation team that works with her and Ellen.

Complicating Patty's case against Arthur is Katie, David's sister, a potential witness against Arthur, who has just opened a restaurant that is backed by Arthur. Stories follow Patty as she tackles cases but mostly on her efforts to put Arthur away.

Cast: Glenn Close (Patty Hewes), Rose Byrne

(Ellen Parsons), Tate Donovan (Tom Shayes), Ted Danson (Arthur Frobisher), Zelijko Ivanek (Ray Fiske), Anastasia Griffith (Katie Connor), Noah Bean (David Connor), Michael Nouri (Phil Grey).

1824 The Damon Runyon Theater. (Series; Anthology; CBS; 1955–1956). Dramatizations set against the background of Old New York. The stories, penned by Damon Runyon, relate incidents in the lives of the soft-hearted characters of the underworld.

Host: Donald Woods. Performers Include: Dorothy Lamour, Thomas Mitchell, Bruce Bennett, Broderick Crawford, Marilyn Erskine, Scott Brady, Beverly Garland, Gale Robbins, Ann Harding, Fay Wray, Irene Hervey, Wayne Morris, James Gleason, Rick Jason, Dick Foran, John Carradine, Sonny Tufts, Jackie Coogan, Hugh O'Brian.

1825 Dan August. (Series; Crime Drama; ABC; 1970–1971). Dan August is a detective lieutenant with the Santa Luisa, California, Police Department. Santa Luisa is a small (fictitious) community with a small but growing crime rate. Dan is a man of principal. He hates the establishment but has a sworn duty to protect. This often causes a conflict because going by the book is not always the best way (for him) to accomplish his goals.

Dan risks his life to keep Santa Luisa a safe (as possible) community. As times change and the criminal becomes much more bolder, Dan feels he must change with them. Although still loyal to the oath he has sworn, Dan must now strike back in a more forceful way, even if it means bending the rules to do so. Stories follow Dan, and his partners, Charles Wilentz and John Rivera, as they do what it takes to keep their beloved community safe. George Untermeyer is the police chief (who opposes the hard-style tactics Dan has chosen, but looks the other way when he accomplishes his goal); Katy Grant is George's secretary.

Cast: Burt Reynolds (Det. Lt. Dan August), Norman Fell (Sgt. Charles Wilentz), Richard Anderson (Police Chief George Untermeyer), Ned Romero (Sgt. John Rivera), Ena Hartman (Katy Grant). Theme Song: "Dan August" by Dave Grusin.

1826 Dan Raven. (Series; Crime Drama; NBC; 1960–1961). Dan Raven is a detective lieutenant with the Hollywood, California, Sheriff's Office. Dan is a former actor who still relishes his life on the stage. Stories follow Dan's case investigations and his efforts to help show business personalities who are in trouble. Sergeant Burke assists Dan; Perry Levitt is the photographer who follows Dan for celebrity pictures.

Cast: Skip Homeier (Det. Lt. Dan Raven), Dan Barton (Sergeant Burke), Quinn Redeker (Perry Levitt).

1827 Dan Tempest. (Series; Adventure; CBS; 1956–1957). The alternate title for The Buccaneers. See this title for information.

1828 Dan Turner, Hollywood Detective. (Pilot; Crime Drama; Syn.; 8/14/90). Hollywood in 1947 is the setting for an unsold series about Dan Turner, a smooth-talking, trench coat-wearing, somewhat adverse to violence private detective. In the pilot episode, titled "The Raven Red Kiss Off," Dan is hired by Bernie Ballantyne, a big movie producer, to keep tabs on his biggest star (Vala) whom he fears may be the victim of blackmail. Other Regulars: Pedro, Dan's information man, the owner of the Lime Light Club.

Cast: Marc Singer (Dan Turner), Arte Johnson (Pedro Criqui). Guest Cast: Tracy Scoggins (Vala DuValle), Nicholas Worth (Lieutenant Dave Donaldson), Dan Kamin (Bernie Ballantyne), Susan Brooks (Cindy Lou), Brandon Smith (Roy Cromwell), Paul Bartel (Larry Badger), Bethany Wright (Maizie Murdock), Barry Friedman (Roger Wilson).

1829 Dana Hill. (Pilot; Crime Drama; NBC; 4/29/75). A proposed spin-off from Adam-12 about Dana Hill, a rookie police woman, and Ed Wells, her partner, a seasoned L.A.P.D. officer. The pilot episode establishes the unsold series idea as Hill and Wells are teamed for the first time.

Cast: Jo Ann Pflug (Dana Hill), Gary Crosby (Ed Wells).

1830 Dance Fever. (Series; Variety; Syn.; 1979). A weekly series that mixes music, songs and light comedy with contestants competing in dance contests. Paul Abeyta, Stan Harris and Paul Gilbert are the producers.

Host: Denny Terrio. Regulars: Freeman King, Janet Jones, Diane Dane, Stacy Thatcher, Cynthia Tucker, Cindy Scoggins. Theme Music: "Dance Fever" performed by Triple S. Connection.

1831 Dance Revolution. (Series; Contest; CBS; 2006–2007). A children's reality series that features teenagers competing in dance contests. Each week a specialty number is performed (also seen in rehearsals) with one couple being defeated each week. The weekly winners then compete in a season finale wherein the best performer wins an array of prizes.

Host: Rick Adams. Singers-Dancers: Carolina Carattini, Mallory Low, Karia Deras, Cassie Scerbo, Caroline Scott. Choreographer: Leah Lynette.

1832 The Dance Show. (Series; Variety; Syn.; 1984). A weekly program that features music videos, interviews and live performances by guest rock stars.

Host: Townsend Coleman, Cal DuPree.

1833 Dance 360. (Series; Reality; Syn.; 2004). A daily dance competition series that seeks the best hip-hop dancers. Each day (Monday through Thursday) six of the best dancers are selected from a group of hopefuls. These finalists then compete in a Friday individual's performance competition with the best dancer of the week receiving $360 in cash and prizes.

Host: Kel Mitchell, Fredro Starr.

1834 Dancin' to the Hits. (Series; Variety; Syn.; 1986). The Sweet Dreams Dancers are featured in segments wherein they perform medleys based on the preceding week's top 40 hits.

Host: Lorenzo Lamas.

1835 The Dancing Bandit. (Pilot; Crime Drama; CBS; 3/3/95). A proposed spin-off from Picket Fences about Laurie Bey, a beautiful hearing-impaired modern-day Robin Hood who, with her band of merry thieves, robs from the rich to give to the needy. Her nonviolent methods include doing a dance to ease her victims, thus earning her the nickname "The Dancing Bandit." The proposed series would take Laurie out of Rome, Wisconsin (where she was captured, tried and sentenced to 3,000 hours of community service) and place her in the hands of the U.S. government where she would use her unique skills to capture hard-to-apprehend criminals. FBI agent Donald Morrell would have been Laurie's superior.

Cast: Marlee Matlin (Laurie Bey), Sam Anderson (Donald Morrell), Cecil Hoffman (Laurie's interpreter). Guest Cast: Jane Kaczmarek (Janice Neiman), Lisa Cheis (Rebecca).

1836 Dancing Lessons. (Experimental Series; Instruction; CBS; July 1941). The simple format has instructors from the Arthur Murray Dance Studio teach beginners how to dance.

Host: Dick Coogan. Dance Instructors: Phyllis Gray, Ruth Hopkins, Billy Lipton.

1837 Dancing on Air. (Live Test Program; Variety; CBS; 2/21/47). Instructors from the Fred Astaire School of Dancing demonstrate the basics of various dances. The program also features comedy bits and interviews with guest stars.

Host: Radcliffe Hall. Regulars: The Fred Astaire Dance Instructors.

1838 Dancing Party. (Series; Variety; ABC; 1955–1971). The alternate title for The Lawrence Welk Show. See this title for information.

1839 Dancing with the Stars. (Series; Reality; ABC; 2005–). Celebrities who may or may not possess dancing skills are paired with professional ballroom dancers to compete in highly styled dance competitions that are broadcast live and in front of a studio audience. A panel of experts judges each performance but can only offer opinions. Toll free numbers are provided for home viewers whose votes determine who stays and who goes. The program also presents interviews with the dancers, a behind-the-scenes look at the preparations and commentary about the style of each of the dances that is performed.

Hosts: Lisa Canning, Samantha Harris, Tom Bergeron. Judges: Len Goodman, Carrie Ann Inaba, Bruno Tonioli. Celebrity Dancers Include: Tatum O'Neal, Rachel Hunter, Harry Hamlin, Jerry Springer, Kelly Monaco, George Hamilton, Mario Lopez, Vivica A. Fox, John O'Hurley, Evander Holyfield, Joey McIntyre, Tia Carrera, Joey Lawrence, Master P, Lisa Rinna, Marie Osmond (who created a sensation by passing out on live TV after an exhausting dance routine). Professional Dancers Include: Jonathan Roberts, Karina Smirnoff, Edyta Sliwinski, Elena Grinenko, Ashley Del Grosso, Kym Johnson, Jonathan Roberts, Maksim Chmerkovsky, Charlotte Jorgensen, Nick Kosovich, Tony Dovalani, Cheryl Burke, Trekun Skaya.

1840 Danger. (Series; Anthology; CBS; 1950–1955). Dramatizations that explore the art of murder. The series, which produced 239 episodes, ran from September 26, 1950 to May 31, 1955.

Host-Narrator: Richard Stark. Performers Include: Lee Grant, Lee Tracy, Rod Steiger, Sydna Scott, Marsha Hunt, Henry Jones, E.G. Marshall, Anthony Quinn, John Forsythe, Joan Bennett, Anne Jackson, Jack Lemmon, Jack Warden, Jayne Meadows, Jack Warden, Jayne Meadows, Grace Kelly, Cloris Leachman, Leslie Nielsen, Chester Morris, Jack Palance, James Dean, Art Carney, Betsy Palmer, Steve Allen, Ben Gazzara, Bethel Leslie, Jacqueline Susann, Lorne Greene, Paul Newman, Peggy Ann Garner, Carroll Baker, Barbara Nichols, Conrad Janis. Producer: Martin Ritt, Charles Russell, William Dozier, Stanley Niss.

1841 Danger Bay. (Series; Adventure; Disney; 1985). Danger Bay is a small island off the Pacific Northwest coast of Canada. It is here that Grant Roberts (called "Doc"), a veterinarian, is the head of the Vancouver Aquarium. Grant is a widower and his two children, Nicole and Jonah, share an interest in his work. Stories follow Grant, Nicole and Jonah as the attempt to maintain the clinic (and help both people and animals as necessary).

Cast: Donnelly Rhodes (Grant Roberts), Ocean Hellman (Nicole Roberts), Christopher Crabb (Jonah Roberts), Susan Walden (J.L. Duval), Michele B. Chan (Dr. Donna Chen), Hagan Beggs (Dr. George Dunbar), Deborah Wakeman (Joyce Carter), Michael Fantini (Adam Berman).

1842 Danger in Paradise. (Pilot; Drama; NBC; 5/12/77). The pilot film for the NBC series Big Hawaii. Events in the lives of the Fears, the powerful and wealthy owners of the Paradise Ranch in Ohana, Hawaii. The pilot episode sets up the series story line with angry young Mitch Fears fighting his scheming stepmother (Marla) for control of his ill father's (Barrett) large island estate. Other Regulars: Mitch Fears, Barrett's son; Karen, Barrett's niece; Oscar, the ranch foreman; and Garfield, a ranch hand.

Cast: John Dehner (Barrett Fears), Ina Balin (Marla Fears), Cliff Potts (Mitch Fears), Lucia Stralser (Karen Fears), William Lucking (Oscar Kalahani), Moe Keale (Garfield), Elizabeth Smith (Lulu, the housekeeper). Guest Cast: Jean Marie Hon (Reva), Sandra Will (Candy), Harry Moses (Stephen), Richard McKenzie (Carson), Michael Mullins (Bobby).

1843 Danger Is My Business. (Series; Documentary; Syn.; 1958). Colonel John D. Craig hosts and narrates a weekly series of filmed documentary-like programs that depict the hazardous occupations of people.

1844 Danger Man. (Series; Adventure; CBS; 1961). John Drake is a special investigator for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO). Stories follow his adventures as he carries out dangerous undercover assignments. See also Secret Agent, the series that continued the adventures of John Drake, and The Prisoner, a series derived from the latter series.

Cast: Patrick McGoohan (John Drake).

1845 Danger Mouse. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1986). A British-produced animated series about a daring crime fighter (Danger Mouse) and his assistant (Penfold).

Voice Cast: Jason Terry (Danger Mouse), Terry Scott (Penfold), Edward Kelsey (Colonel K).

1846 The Danger Team. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 7/3/91). Cheryl Singer is a beautiful bookkeeper for the Carl Stalling Detective Agency who yearns to become a private investigator. Her boyfriend, Chris Norman, runs an animation studio. His big project is creating clay figures for a series of safety films called "America's Newest Safety Film Heroes."

One day, a small meteor crashes through Chris's workshop window and explodes. It brings to life Spex (the brains), Truk (the brawn) and Nit (the playful sprit)—three clay figures who call themselves "The Danger Team" (they conceal themselves from Chris).

Shortly after, Chris is kidnapped (mistaken for a computer expert). When Cheryl comes to the lab looking for Chris, Spex, Truk and Nit reveal themselves to her. They tell her who they are, what has happened and that they need her help—to get them the water in the rusty lab sink (where the meteor exploded). While the team can assume various forms, they cannot reach the sink—and without the special water they will dehydrate. Cheryl helps and agrees to keep their secret. In return, the team helps Cheryl rescue Chris.

Cheryl's exploits impress her boss, George Weidner, and Cheryl receives a promotion to junior detective. The unsold series was to relate Cheryl's adventures as she and the Danger Team solve crimes.

Cast: Kathleen Beller (Cheryl Singer), Steve Levitt (Chris Norman), Steve Gilborn (George Weidner), John Wesley Shipp (Voice of Spex), June Foray (Voice of Nit), Christopher Collins (Voice of Truk). Guest Cast: Lee Ryan (Wayne), Robert Mangiardi (Alan), Mark Lonow (Leonard Rossiter), Christopher Neame (Mr. Peterson), Cheryl King (Receptionist), Patrick Culliton (Bar patron).

1847 Danger Theater. (Series; Crime Drama; Fox; 1993). A weekly series "that dares to take a bite out of the butt of crime" via three short parodies: The Searcher, Tropical Punch and 357 Marina Del Rey.

1. The Searcher. The Searcher is a motorcycle riding, mysterious avenger who finds nothing but trouble in his effort to help people. "Someone needs help, so they call me. That's what I do. I help people. They call me the Searcher." He rides a hog ("That's my motorcycle") and dresses in black like his hero, Marlon Brando from the film The Wild One ("That's my favorite, not Brando's"). If you need to contact him, "You can call me toll free. Just dial 1-800 Search Me."

2. Tropical Punch. A spoof of Hawaii Five-0 with Mike Morgan, Captain of the Tropical Punch Unit of the Hawaiian Police Department. Tom McCormick and Al Hamoki assist him. Tom is the tough older cop; Al lives to eat; Mike rarely takes a chance and sends in Al and Tom to face all the danger.

3. 357 Marina Del Rey. Clay Gentry and Rake Rowe are inept yuppie detectives just out of college who set up operations in a coffee shop at 357 Marina Del Rey. They wanted to make a difference and became private detectives to solve crimes. Their cases involve the nastiest people in town but Clay and Rake appear to be more concerned with fashion and frequenting the cappuccino bar than solving crimes.

Cast: Robert Vaughn (Host), Diedrich Bader (The Searcher), Adam West (Mike Morgan), Billy Morissette (Tom McCormick), Peter Navy Tuiasopo (Al Hamoki), Ricky Harris (Clay Gentry), Todd Field (Rake Rowe).

1848 Danger Zone. (Series; Documentary; Syn.; 1960). Films that depict the hazardous work of specialized professionals (for example, fire fighters, sky divers, skin divers).

Host-Narrator: Gregory "Pappy" Boyington.

1849 Dangerous Assignment. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1952). Steve Mitchell is an international troubleshooter who hires out his expertise to the U.S. Government. Stories relate his global activities as he finds danger, intrigue and mystery (not to mention death) investigating cases that pose a threat to the U.S.

Cast: Brian Donlevy (Steve Mitchell).

1850 Dangerous Curves. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 1992–1993). Personal Touch is a Dallas, Texas-based security firm that is 90 percent female and caters to individuals, P.R. firms, insurance companies and European royalty. The company is owned by Marina Bonelle. Gina McKay and Holly Williams are her main operatives.

Most people believe Personal Touch is a call girl service. Marina started the company as a means by which to help people and to create an organization that employs women and incorporates the best female operatives in the field. Marina is totally professional, intelligent and serious in her approach to protecting clients. At Personal Touch, the girls work with Holly's boyfriend, Oscar "Oz" Bird, a lieutenant with the Dallas Police Department.

Holly was a street cop with the N.Y.P.D. who quit "when I got tired of spinning my wheels" (arresting suspects only to have them back on the street before a conviction).

Gina, a former officer with the San Remo, Arizona, Police Department, quit the force after she was reprimanded by her captain for stopping fellow officers from beating up a suspect. She hates what she calls "macho man assignments" (men who need babysitting and hire women so no one will know they need protection). She and Holly are often assigned to undercover work.

Holly jokes about it; Gina takes it seriously and feels undercover assignments are the most dangerous aspects of the job. The Blue Cat Bar is their favorite hangout.

The premise changed shortly after the premiere when Marina was dropped and Francois Gendron was brought on to play Alexander D'Orleac, head of the Paris Personal Touch Bureau who is actually an undercover agent for Interpol (the International Police Force).

Gina and Holly like it better when they can make something happen (as opposed to being reactive and waiting for something to happen). They get the opportunity when Marina sends them to Paris to help Alexander find a culprit who is distributing a deadly drug called Ink. After a successful operation, Alexander recruits them as Interpol agents when he discovers they are not only ex-cops but "attractive, well trained and you're women. There always seems to be a shortage of women here." The girls continue to work for Personal Touch as a cover for their new control, Alexander D'Orleac. Michael Parnell, Larry Weir and Tom Weiss composed the theme.

Cast: Diane Bellego (Marina Bonelli), Lise Cutter (Gina McKay), Michael Michele (Holly Williams), George McKinney (Oscar Bird), Francois Gendron (Alexander D'Orleac).

1851 Dangerous Minds. (Series; Drama; ABC; 1996–1997). A television adaptation of the feature film of the same title about an ex-Marine (Louanne Johnson) turned rather unconventional teacher, as she begins her duties in a tough inner-city school. Stories follow Louanne as she struggles to make a difference in her student's lives — not only in the classroom, but outside the school grounds if necessary. Her principal students are Callie, Cornelius and Gusmero.

Cast: Annie Potts (Louanne Johnson), Tamala Jones (Callie Timmons), Vicellous Reon Shannon (Cornelius Hawkins), Greg Serano (Gusmero Lopez), Stanley Anderson (Bud Bartkus), Maria Costa (Blanca Guerrero), Jenny Gago (Amanda Bardales), LaToya Howlett (Alvuna Edwards), Michael Jace (Jerome Griffin), Cedric Terrell (James Revell).

1852 Dangerous Women. (Series; Drama; Syn.; 1991). Holly, Maria, Crystal, Faith, Cissie and Rita are six tough-minded women with troubled pasts that just won't go away. The six women, who have been branded fugitives, are now residents of a women's prison. Stories follow events in their lives.

Other Regulars: Prison Warden Grayson; Lorraine Webb, Cissie's daughter; Ben Cronin, Faith's husband; and Jack Fisher, a prison guard.

Holly Warner (prison number 500891) is young, pretty and naïve and took a job as a nanny for Eileen and Michael Walker, a young couple. Shortly after, Michael rapes Holly. Instead of going to the police, Holly tells Eileen. Eileen refuses to believe her. Believing that Holly tried to seduce her husband, Eileen decides to get even and concocts a story that Holly attempted to kill their baby. Holly is arrested and unable to convince anyone of her innocence. Now, as a prisoner, Holly fears for her safety as the other prisoners, some mothers themselves, dislike her for what they believe she did.

Maria Trent (prison number 498790) is a Hispanic schoolteacher and battered wife. She killed her husband when her beatings caused her to miscarriage and lose their baby. She now feels guilty for what she did and feels she deserves her punishment.

Crystal Fox (prison number 502212) is a repeat offender for prostitution (she keeps getting sent back for the same offense). Why a prostitute would do time with hardened criminals is not explained. She is blonde, likes to wear miniskirts and claims to be 24 years old.

Cissie Johnson (prison number 403667) is a kindly, middle-aged black woman who is serving time for a mercy killing.

Rita Jones (prison number 405088) is the tough, sometimes mean-spirited cellblock leader. She is serving a life sentence for murder.

Faith Cronin (prison number 484331) is married to Ben Cronin, a money launderer for the mob. Faith had an affair with Harry Blake, Ben's chauffeur, who also confessed to her that he stole $20 million in mob money. When Ben found out about the affair, he killed Harry and slashed the left side of Faith's face with a straight razor. He then set her up on a false murder charge. Faith was the first of the women to be released. She checked into the Cedar Lake Inn (Room 4) and secretly consulted a plastic surgeon. After several weeks, her horribly disfigured face is just a memory. With a new face, new hair color and a new wardrobe, Faith became Patricia Meadows in an effort to live free of her husband's threats to kill her. When Faith learns that the inn is up for sale, she buys it.

Cast: Kelli Van Landersle (Holly Warner), Maria Rangel (Maria Trent), Melanie Vincz (Crystal Fox), Valerie Wildman (Faith Cronin/Patricia Meadows), Lynn Hamilton (Cissie Johnson), Katherine Justice (Rita Jones), Susan Grayson (Warden Grayson), Paul Carr (Ben Cronin), Conni Marie Brazelton (Lorraine Webb), Stephen Liska (Jack Fisher), Sandy Eggeston (Eileen Walker), Lee Ryan (Michael Walker), Casper Van Dien (Brad Morris), Ed Monaghan (Jerry Vernon), Mark McCoy (Joe Holand), Fred Mancusor (Randy Carter), Bruce M. Fisher (Captain Goddard), Jeff Weston (Harry Blake).

1853 Daniel Boone. (Series; Adventure; ABC; 1960–1961). A four episode series, broadcast on Walt Disney Presents, that relates the adventures of Daniel Boone, the legendary frontiersman-scout as he begins a hazardous trek and leads a group of pioneers to the fertile lands of Kentucky. Rebecca Boone is Daniel's wife; Squire Boone is their son. The series aired on the following dates: December 4, 1960; December 11, 1960; March 12, 1961 and March 19, 1961.

Cast: Dewey Martin (Daniel Boone), Mala Powers (Rebecca Boone), Richard Banke (Squire Boone), Eddy Waller (John Finney), Kevin Corcoran (James), Diane Jergens (Maybelle), William Herrin (Bud Yancy), Dean Fredericks (Crowfeather).

1854 Daniel Boone. (Series; Adventure; NBC; 1964–1970). The series, set in Boonesborough, Kentucky, during the latter half of the 18th century, details the life of Daniel Boone, the legendary frontiersman-pioneer. Rebecca Boone is Daniel's wife; Jemima and Israel are their children. Yadkin is Daniel's sidekick; Mingo is Daniel's Oxford-educated friend, a Cherokee Indian; Cincinnatus, Josh, Gabe, Jericho, Gideon and Cully are Daniel's friends (Gabe is actually a runaway slave who established himself as Chief Canawachichauquo of the Tuscarora Indians); Prater Beasley is the teller of tall tales.

Cast: Fess Parker (Daniel Boone), Patricia Blair (Patricia Blair), Veronica Cartwright (Jemima Boone), Darby Hinton (Israel Boone), Albert Salmi (Yadkin), Ed Ames (Mingo), Dallas McKennon (Cincinnatus), Jimmy Dean (Josh Clements), Roosevelt Grier (Gabe Cooper), Robert Coogan (Jericho Jones), Don Pedro Colley (Gideon), James Wainwright (Cully), Burl Ives (Prater Beasley). Theme Vocal: "Daniel Boone" by The Imperials.

1855 Danny. (Series; Talk; Syn.; 1995). Danny Bonaduce, the former child actor (Danny on The Partridge Family) hosts a lively (but short lived) daily talk show that features celebrity interviews and a game segment that involves the topic of the day.

1856 Danny. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 2001). Danny is divorced from Molly and the father of Sally and Henry. Danny is a man who cares about people. He bought an abandoned warehouse and turned it into the Wreck Center, a place for the young and old alike. The series lasted only two episodes leaving little chance of acquiring much information. Stories follow the events in Danny's life as he struggles to raise his children and run the wreck center.

Other Regulars: Lenny, Danny's father; Rachel, the ballet teacher; and Chickie, a worker at the center.

Cast: Daniel Stern (Danny), Joely Fisher (Molly), Julia McIlvaine (Sally), Jon Foster (Henry), Robert Prosky (Lenny), Roz Ryan (Chickie), Mia Korf (Rachel).

1857 Danny and the Mermaid. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 5/17/78). While working as an underwater observer, Danny Stevens, a student who hopes to become an oceanographer, spies a mermaid swimming past one of the portholes in his underwater habitat. Later he meets and befriends the mermaid, named Aqua, and learns that she is the daughter of a man and a mermaid (thus possessing blonde hair, blue eyes, lithe legs and iridescent scales). The unsold series was to depict Danny's misadventures as he struggles to conceal Aqua's presence and complete his experiments (with Aqua's help) for his mentor, Professor Stoneman.

Cast: Harlee McBride (Aqua), Patrick Collins (Danny Stevens), Ray Walston (Professor Stoneman), Rick Fazal (Turtle; Danny's aide). Guest Cast: Conrad Janis (Psychiatrist), Ancel Cook (Pilot).

1858 The Danny Kaye Show. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1963–1967). A weekly series of music, songs and comedy sketches with actor Danny Kaye as the host. Perry Lafferty is the producer.

Host: Danny Kaye. Regulars: Harvey Korman, Vikki Carr, Joyce Van Patten, Victoria Meyerink, Laurie Ichino, The Johnny Mann Singers, The Earl Brown Singers, The Tony Charmoli Dancers. Announcer: Bern Bennett. Orchestra: Paul Weston.

1859 Danny Phantom. (Series; Cartoon; Cartoon Network; 2004). Danny Fenton is a teenager who attends Casper High School. He is also a crime fighter (Danny Phantom) who uses ghostly super powers (acquired from the Ghost Portal) to battle the supernatural (mostly menacing ghosts).

The Ghost Portal was created by Danny's father, Jack, who, along with his wife, Maddie, hunt down ghosts (they own Fenton Works). When Danny entered the portal he was transformed into Danny Phantom and endowed with special powers, including the ability to pass through solid objects and fire rays from his hands. Tucker and Samantha, who are aware of Danny's secret alias, assist him and stories follow Danny as he struggles to divide his life between being a normal high school student and a teenage crime fighter.

Voice Cast: David Kaufman (Danny Fenton), Grey DeLisle (Samantha "Sam" Manson), Richard D'Shon Collins (Tucker Foley), Colleen O'Shaughnessy (Jazz Fenton), Kath Soucie (Maddie Fenton), Rob Paulsen (Jack Fenton), Maria Canals (Paulina), Ron Perlman (Principal Lancer), June Angela (Principal Ishiyama).

1860 The Danny Thomas Hour. (Series; Anthology; NBC; 1967–1968). Varying presentations including drama, musical and comedy that feature actor Danny Thomas as both the host and occasional star.

Host: Danny Thomas.

1861 The Danny Thomas Show. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1957–1964). The original CBS title for Make Room for Daddy. In 1964 episodes from the CBS series were placed into syndication with the 1953–1957 ABC episodes of Make Room for Daddy and re-titled as such. See this title for information.

1862 Dante. (Series; Drama; NBC; 1960–1961). William "Willie" Dante, a lieutenant during World War II, is a former gambler turned owner of Dante's, a San Francisco-based restaurant. Willie, who claims to have cleaned up his act, says that his establishment attracts varied clientele — from the normal dinner guest to the select people (high rollers) who frequent the establishment's back room — a secret gambling hall. Stories follow Willie as he attempts to run a legitimate business despite the fact that his past reputation attracts unscrupulous characters.

Stewart Styles is the club's maitre d'; Biff is Willie's assistant; Bob Malone is the S.F.P.D. lieutenant seeking to keep Dante on the straight and narrow. See also The Best in Mystery (1956) for information on an earlier version of the Dante character.

Cast: Howard Duff (Willie Dante), Alan Mowbray (Stewart Styles), Tom D'Andrea (Biff), Mort Mills (Lt. Bob Malone).

1863 Darcy's Wild Life. (Series; Comedy; Discovery Kids; 2004). Darcy Fields is a beautiful 14-year-old girl who is also the daughter of Victoria Fields, a glamorous Hollywood film actress. When Victoria, who is separated from her always-on-the-road rock star husband, realizes that Darcy's life is becoming too Hollywood oriented, she moves to the small, rural town of Bailey, to give Darcy a taste of the good life, a life of simple pleasures like she experienced as a young girl.

Although she feels out of place, Darcy quickly adjusts to her new surroundings. She acquires a job as a clerk at Creature Comforts, the local veterinary clinic. Darcy's interaction with the people — and the animals she encounters is the focal point of the series.

Other Regulars: Lindsay Adams, Darcy's friend and co-worker (the daughter of Dr. Kevin Adams, the owner of Creature Comforts); Jack Adams, Lindsay's younger brother; Eli, Victoria's clumsy handyman (on the small farm she owns); and Kathy, Darcy's friends.

Cast: Sara Paxton (Darcy Fields), Natalie Radford (Victoria Fields), Kerry Michael Saxena (Eli), Shannon Collis (Lindsay Adams), Andrew Chalmers (Jack Adams), Kevin Symons (Kevin Adams), Melanie Leishman (Kathy Giraldi).

1864 Dare Devil. (Pilot; Adventure; CBS; 5/7/89). A proposed spin-off from The Incredible Hulk. Matt Murdock's mother died when he was very young. His father was a boxer who was killed by the mob for refusing to fix fights. At the age of 14, Matt saw a speeding truck about to hit an old man. Without thinking, he pushed the old man aside, but as the truck swerved, a steel drum the truck was carrying came loose and its contents, a radioactive liquid, hit Matt in the face. It took away his sight, but gave him extraordinary powers (he can't see but has amplified sense and touch and can read normal print with his fingertips).

Matt studied and became a lawyer. However, it was a speech by a police captain named Anthony J. Tindelli that changed Matt's life. In that speech Tindelli intimated that there was corruption in his department and throughout the city (New York). He suggested the need for a lone crusader to ferret out the corruption. It gave Matt the idea to become the crime fighter Tindelli needs — the Dare Devil. The unsold series was to depict Matt's exploits as the mysterious crime fighter, the Dare Devil. The pilot episode, broadcast as "The Trial of the Incredible Hulk," relates Matt's efforts to nail Wilson Fisk, a madman who wants to control the city by becoming head of the crime ring.

Other Regulars: Krista Klein, Matt's law partner (in the firm of Murdock and Klein). Tindelli contacts Dare Devil through an untraceable phone line.

Cast: Rex Smith (Matt Murdock), Joseph Mascolo (Arthur Tindelli), Nancy Everhard (Krista Klein). Guest Cast: John Rhys Davies (Wilson Fisk), Marta DuBois (Ellie Mendez), Nicholas Hormann (Edgar), Richard Cummings, Jr. (Al Pettiman).

1865 Daria. (Series; Cartoon; MTV; 1997–2002). Lawndale is a small community and the home of Daria Morgendorffer, a teenage girl with an attitude problem. She is a student at Lawndale High School and, although quite intelligent, she is not very popular. She does have her clique of friends (Mack, Jodie and Tom) and stories follow Daria as she struggles to deal with a family she believes doesn't understand her and the shallow people she constantly meets (all of whom encounter her sharp, sarcastic wit). Quinn is Daria's younger sister; Helen and Jake are her parents.

Voice Cast: Tracy Grandstaff (Daria Morgendorffer), Wendy Hoopes (Quinn Morgendorffer), Wendy Hoopes (Helen Morgendorffer), Julian Rebolledo (Jake Morgendorffer), Wendy Hoopes (Jane Lane), Russell Hankin (Tom Sloane), Paul Williams (Michael "Mac" MacKenzie), Amir Williams (Michael "Mac" MacKenzie), Janie Mertz (Brittany Taylor), Ashley Albert (Tiffany Blumdecker), Jessica Cyndie Jackson (Jodie Landon), Nora Laundani (Angela Li), Sarah Drew (Stacy Rowe), Geoffrey Arend (Charles Rutheimer III).

1866 Dark Angel. (Series; Adventure; Fox; 2000–2002). Manticore is a secret genetics lab in the mountains of Gillette, Wyoming, that is seeking to produce superior humans for the military. Women are used to produce the children whose DNA will be altered by scientists. The mother and child, however, are never permitted to meet.

One snowy night in the year 2009, a group of 12 children escape from Manticore. One of them, a nine-year-old girl named Max (Geneva Locke), is found by Hannah Sukovic (Eileen Pedde) and given shelter. The series begins ten years later. The world is in a depression. Computers have been wiped out by "The Pulse" and the U.S. is now a third world country. Max, now 19, has taken up residence in Seattle, Washington, and is "living a life on the run and always looking over my shoulder." She fears Donald Lydecker, an army colonel assigned by Manticore to apprehend Max and the other escapees.

One man, Logan Cale is attempting to change things. Cale, a cyber journalist, secretly operates a non-traceable cable broadcast called Streaming Freedom Video wherein he reveals information to authorities to help them catch criminals (Cale's video is "the only voice of freedom for the city. It cannot be traced or stopped." They last for 60 seconds).

Although Max has a job (bike messenger for Jam Pony-X-Press Messenger Service) she says, "I steal things in order to sell them for money. It's called commerce."

One night, while attempting to rob Logan, Max is caught in the act. Logan, however, does not call the police. He notices a barcode on the back of Max's neck (her Manticore label) and offers to help her find her roots if she will help him. Max refuses until Logan is shot and crippled by one of the criminals he is seeking to catch. Logan, an expert cable hacker, calls himself "The Eyes Only Informant" when broadcasting his video. He is able to walk when he gets a blood transfusion from Max (her blood enables new tissue growth, but the effect is not permanent as it will not fuse his severed spinal cord). Logan receives additional help from Dr. Adrianna Veretes, a physio therapist who is trying to stabilize his cells through a process called osteo-regeneration.

Max was designed to be the perfect soldier. Although she is a genetically engineered killing machine, she is opposed to guns. She can see in the dark, prowl like a cat, and doesn't need to sleep. She rides a Kawasaki motorcycle and breaks the law to get what she wants; she steals, cheats and lies without any remorse. When Max gets set to ride her cycle, she says, "Gotta bounce."

At Manticore Max was housed in Block 12 (her group was called X-5). Mothers were kept out of the lab. Once they gave birth they were sent away and the infants used for experiments. The barcode on the back of Max's neck reads 332960073452; her file is X5452. Max is athletic, very strong and agile.

Max excelled in telecommunications as a child and the pupils in her eyes work like a telescope lens and can pinpoint distant objects. She can dodge a bullet and has a photographic memory.

The technical term for Max is chimera (a mythological creature). Max has a genetically engineered flaw — seizures, and must take pills (tryptophan) to control them.

Lydecker calls Max a Rogue X-5. He considers Max top of the line as some of the other X-5's have been affected by the aging process (an acceleration of the genes that ages them dramatically).

Donald Michael Lydecker was born in 1968 and enlisted in the army right after high school. He was accepted to the O.C.S., graduated in the top of his class and was assigned to the Third Ranger Battalion. He was later made captain of the Delta Force. His wife was murdered in 1995 (the case is still unsolved). He went ballistic and was dishonorably discharged. He became an alcoholic, went to rehab and cleaned up his life. He then went to work for Manticore. Lydecker has a plan for Max and others like her: "Instead of sending 1,000 soldiers into battle and losing 100, send in 10 perfect soldiers and lose none."

The season finale (5/22/01) revealed that Lydecker wanted to capture Max and reprogram her. The mysterious Madame X, also called Renfrew, headed Manticore and had other plans. She frames Lydecker for a killing in an attempt to capture Max. Her plan backfires when Lydecker teams with Max and Logan to bring Manticore down by destroying the DNA lab.

The episode ends with Max being shot in the heart and captured by Renfrew as she attempts to destroy the lab. The second season opener (9/28/01) finds Max fully recovered (heart transplant) but a prisoner at Manticore. She is now a number (X5452) not a name and the year has progressed to 2020. It is now learned that Madame X requires Max's unique DNA to create flawless soldiers and that Manticore is thought of by the outside world as a VA hospital (Max was found to have no junk DNA; each one of her cells is coded for a specific use). The format also changes. Before Madame X can control Max, she escapes through a secret tunnel and not only destroys Manticore, but unleashes a series of genetic mistakes (Nomilees) that were concealed in the lower level of the building. There is now a threat to the city — unearthly creatures who prey on innocent people. Stories follow Max and Logan as they attempt to expose Manticore as a government coverup and protect people from the Nomilees.

Chuck D and Gary G-Wiz composed the theme. The program opens with these words: “They designed her to be the perfect soldier — a human weapon. Then she escaped in a future not far from now. In a broken world she is haunted by her past. She cannot run; she must fight to discover her destiny.”

Cast: Jessica Alba (Max Guevara), Michael Weatherly (Logan Cale), John Savage (Donald Lydecker), Brenda Baake (Dr. Adrianna Veretes), Nana Visitor (Madame X), Jensen Ackles (Alec), J.C. MacKenzie (Reagan “Normal” Ronald), Richard Gunn (Calvin “Sketchy” Theodore), Valarie Rae Miller (Cynthia “Original” McEachin), Alimi Ballard (Herbal Thought), Kevin Durand (Joshua), Peter Bryant (Bling), Martin Cumie (Ames White), Geneva Locke (Young Max), Jennifer Blanc (Kendra Maibaum).

1867 The Dark Avenger. (Pilot; Adventure; CBS; 10/10/90). Paul Cain's only crime was that he was an incorruptible judge. He paid for it with his life when an unknown criminal killed him with an acid bomb. Or so it appears. Paul, badly injured in the blast, managed to escape and was found by and nursed back to health by Rae Wong, a beautiful electronics expert free on a prison furlough previously arranged by the judge.

Cain, now horribly disfigured and wearing a mask, is determined to keep his survival a secret from his family (his wife Karen and daughter Amanda) as well as his sworn enemies. He operates from an abandoned factory Rae has turned into a state-of-the-art, high tech crime lab and the unsold series was to relate Cain's mysterious crusade against crime as the Dark Avenger. In the pilot episode, Cain seeks a killer the papers have dubbed “The Grim Reaper.” Originally titled I Accuse.

Cast: Leigh Lawson (Paul Cain), Maggie Han (Rae Wong), Robert Vaughn (Police Commissioner Peter Kinghorn), Debra Engle (Karen Cain), Jennifer Drugan (Amanda Cain). Guest Cast: Hector Elizondo (Captain Strauss), Jennifer Savidge (Tanya Russell), Gregg Henry (Dr. Tremayne), Victor Bevins (Donovan), Ken Jenkins (Underwood), Annabella Price (Madolyn Dougherty), Stephen Markle (Fred Newton), Howard George (Marvin Stein), Edwina Moore (Robin December), Aki Aleong (Lee Wong), Richard Kwong (Grandpa Wong), Taylor Fry (Tracy).

1868 Dark Eyes. (Pilot; Crime Drama; ABC; 6/8/95). Mila McGann is a lieutenant with the Cleveland Police Department. She is also a woman and in charge of the Task Force, a special squad of agents assembled to battle corruption.

The squad is all male (Tony, Jay and Danny) and they resent being ruled over by a woman, despite her outstanding record. The unsold series was to relate the undercover work of the squad and Mila's efforts to change the squad's attitude toward her.

In the pilot episode, Mila breaks the rules to find a cop killer. Other Regulars: Michael, her ex-husband; Luke, Mila's son; Karen, Mila's secretary; and Larry, the police chief (her superior).

Cast: Kelly McGillis (Mila McGann), Daniel Hugh-Kelly (Michael McGann), Graham Losee (Luke McGann), Kenneth Walsh (Chief Larry Scott), Tony DeSantis (Tony Perolli), Steve Harris (Jay Staples), Roy Dupuis (Danny LeBlanc), Paulina Gillis (Karen). Guest Cast: Victor Argo (Ray Cedeno), Ron White (Gerry Gould), Allegra Fulton (Vicki), Tyrone Benskin (Bill Marsden), Belinda Metz (Rita), Anna Pappas (Carla), Peter Langley (Max Altman), Gene Mack (Hughie Lansing). Note: Kelly McGillis is called Mila in the program, but listed as Maria in TV Guide.

1869 Dark Justice. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 1991–1993). The Night Watchmen are a secret group of four people who avenge crime in an unnamed U.S. city. Nick Marshall heads the team. He is assisted by Catalana “Cat” Duran, Arnold “Moon” Willis and Jericho “Gibs” Gibson.

Nick is now a Superior Court Judge. He was first a police officer, but lost his collars through legal loopholes. He was next a district attorney but lost his cases to crooked lawyers. As a judge he finds his hands tied by a strict interpretation of the law. Nick, however, still believes in the law; that is, until his wife and daughter are killed in a car explosion set by a mobster seeking revenge. With no faith in the system, Nick decides to bring justice to those who are guilty but beat the system as leader of the Night Watchmen (originally called the Secret Vigilante Force).

Nick first researches a case “to see how the scuzz got off” then determines what action should be taken to bring the criminal back to justice. He then sets up an elaborate scam to accomplish that goal. “I can’t balance the scales all the time, not even half the time. I do what I can and hope I get a break once in a while.”

Cat was tired of being mistreated by the system. Nick helped her turn her life around “and gave me a new start, a new identity and a new bra size. I’m half the size I used to be; they got in the way before.” Cat, a former forger and counterfeiter, now runs Cat’s Liberal Child Care Center. Cat, born in 1963, is replaced by Maria when she is shot twice in the back while saving Nick’s life. Maria was born in Barcelona, Spain, and like Cat, met a tragic end (shot while saving the life of a girl she was trying to protect). Maria’s replacement is Kelly Cochran, a private investigator who joins the team when she and Nick meet during a case probe—finding the corrupt police officers who raped Kelly.

Moon says only “I owe the judge 5,000 hours of community service. That’s all there is to it.” He was a minor league ball player and spent time in prison for gambling and forgery; he now runs Moon’s Gym.

Gibs is a special effects expert Nick cleared of a false murder charge. To repay Nick, he uses his talents in elaborate scams Nick requires.

“Justice may be blind,” says Nick, “but it can see in the dark.” Caitlin Delany played Nick’s late wife, Sandy, in flashbacks. Mark Snow and Jeff Frelich composed the theme.

Cast: Ramy Zada (Nick Marshall), Bruce Abbott (Nick Marshall; later), Begona Plaza (Cat Duran), Dick O’Neill (Arnold Willis), Clayton Prince (Jericho Gibbs), Viviane Vives (Maria), Janet Gunn (Kelly Cochran).

1870 Dark Mansions. (Pilot; Drama; ABC; 8/23/86). The story, set in Drake Point, Seattle, Washington, centers on the intrigues and haunted pasts of the Drakes, a family of wealth and power (owners of the Drake Shipyards). A proposed prime time series that begins when Shellane Victor, a journalist comes to Drake Point to write the memoirs of Margaret Drake and becomes involved in the intrigue of the family.

Cast: Linda Purl (Shellane Victor), Joan Fontaine (Margaret Drake), Michael York (Jason Drake), Melissa Sue Anderson (Noelle Drake), Lois Chiles (Jessica Drake), Paul Shenar (Philip Drake), Nicolette Sheridan (Banda Drake), Grant Aleksander (Nicholas Drake), Yves Andre Martin (Cody Drake), Dan O’Herlihy (Alexander Drake). Guest Cast:

Steve Inwood (Jerry Mills), Raymond St. Jacques (Davis), Byron Morrow (David Forbes), Lee Corriegan (Captain Hemmings).

1871 Dark of Night. (Series; Anthology; DuMont; 1952–1953). The first live suspense program to originate from locations outside a network’s studios (DuMont in New York). Dramatizations set against the background of New York City. The series ran from October 3, 1952 to May 1, 1953.

1872 Dark Shadows. (Series; Serial; ABC; 1966–1971). Victoria Winters is a young woman who has come to Collinwood, a small fishing village in Maine, to care for nine-year-old David Collins, the troublesome son of Roger Collins. Roger lives on the great estate of Collinwood with his sister, Elizabeth Collins Stoddard and Elizabeth’s rebellious 18-year-old daughter, Carolyn Stoddard.

Victoria was abandoned as a young girl and raised in a foundling home in New York City. She feels that she will find the answers to her unknown past at Collinwood.

The vampire aspect of stories (through Barnabas Collins) was not a part of the series at first. Stories focused on Victoria’s involvement in the supernatural existences of the Collins family. The actual horror aspect began when a drifter named Willie Loomis arrives in Collinsport. When he becomes intrigued by the legend of the Collins jewels, especially those worn by an ancestor named Barnabas Collins, he formulates a plan to rob the Collins crypt at Eagle Hill Cemetery. There, he finds the coffin of Barnabas—hidden behind a wall and bound by heavy chains. He breaks the chains, opens the coffin and restores the life of Barnabas Collins, a 175-year-old vampire.

The first continuing storyline involving Barnabas dealt with his attempts to recreate the image of Josette DuPres (his love from the nineteenth century) through waitress Maggie Evans— not Victoria Winters as in the updated version of the series (see next title). When Barnabas first sees Maggie, he is taken aback by her uncanny resemblance to Josette. It is when Maggie is bitten by Barnabas that the rumors of a vampire begin to spread. Later, when Maggie’s body is found in Eagle Hill Cemetery and she is thought to be dead, Barnabas gains control over her. For several months viewers were held in suspense as Barnabas tried (but failed) to accomplish his goal.

Other characters are: Angelique, the beautiful but evil witch who cursed Barnabas (when he refused to marry her); Julia Hoffman, the doctor who is seeking to cure Barnabas of his vampirism; Joe Haskell, Maggie’s boyfriend; Peter Bradford, Victoria’s love interest when she is transported to the past; Adam, the Frankenstein-like man created by Julia; the Reverend Trask, the man out to destroy Angelique;

Quentin Collins, the spirit of a Collins family member from the past; and Sarah Collins, the spirit of Barnabas's nine-year-old sister, who died from a high fever in the 1890s (she is a friendly ghost who helps Victoria and David).

Stories also feature many of the regulars in a variety of roles as the series covered events in the Collins family that date back some 200 years. The series ran from June 27, 1966 to April 2, 1971.

Cast: Alexandra Moltke (Victoria Winters), Betsy Durkin (Victoria Winters), Carolyn Groves (Victoria Winters), Jonathan Frid (Barnabas Collins), Joan Bennett (Elizabeth Collins), Joan Bennett (Flora Collins), Joan Bennett (Naomi Collins), Nancy Barrett (Carolyn Stoddard), Diana Walker (Carolyn Stoddard), Nancy Barrett (Charity), Nancy Barrett (Millicent Collins), Nancy Barrett (Letitia Faye), Louis Edmonds (Roger Collins), Louis Edmonds (Edward Collins), Louis Edmonds (Daniel Collins), Kathryn Leigh Scott (Maggie Evans), Kathryn Leigh Scott (Maggie Collins), Kathryn Leigh Scott (Josette DuPres), Kathryn Leigh Scott (Rachel Drummond), Lara Parker (Angelique), Lara Parker (Alexis Stokes), Lara Parker (Cassandra), John Karlen (Willie Loomis), John Karlen (Desmond Collins), David Henesy (David Collins), David Henesy (Tad Collins), Garyson Hall (Dr. Julia Hoffman), Grayson Hall (Magda Ricosa), Grayson Hall (Julia Collins), Grayson Hall (Natalie DuPres), Joel Crothers (Joe Haskell), Joel Crothers (Lt. Nathan Forbes), Roger Davis (Peter Bradford), Roger Davis (Jeff Clark), David Selby (Quentin Collins), David Ford (Sam Evans), David Ford (Andre DuPres), Clarice Blackburn (Mrs. Johnson), Clarice Blackburn (Abigail Collins), Anthony George (Burke Devlin), Mitchell Ryan (Burke Devlin), Jerry Lacey (Reverend Trask), Jerry Lacey (Anthony Peterson), Thayer David (Prof. Elliott Stokes), Thayer David (Ben Stokes), Thayer David (Mordecai Grimes), Thayer David (Count Petofi), Craig Slocum (Harry Johnson), Kate Jackson (Daphne Harridge), Chris Pennock (Cyrus Longworth), Chris Pennock (Jeb Hawkes), Chris Pennock (John Yeager), Denise Nickerson (Amy Jennings), Lisa Richards (Sabrina Stuart), Diana Millay (Laura Collins), Robert Rodan (Adam), Marie Wallace (Eve), Terry Crawford (Beth), Terry Crawford (Edith Collins), Paul Richard (King Johnny Romano), Kathy Cody (Hallie Stokes), Kathy Cody (Carrie Stokes), Humbert A. Astredo (Nicholas Blair), Humbert A. Astredo (Charles Dawson), Gene Lindsey (Rondell Drew), Donna McKechnie (Amanda Harris), Donna McKechnie (Olivia Carey), Michael Maitland (Michael), Christopher Berneau (Philip Todd), Chris Pennock (Gabriel Collins), Virginia Vestoff (Samantha Collins), Keith Prentice (Morgan Collins), James Storm (Gerald Stiles), Michael Stroka (Laszlo), Donna Wandrey (Roxanne Drew), Don Briscoe (Christopher Jennings), Erica Fitz (Lenore Eltridge), Cabada Humphrey (Janet Findley), Addison Powell (Dr. Eric Lang), Dennis Patrick (Jason McGuire), Dana Elcar (Sheriff George Patterson), Vince O'Brien (Sheriff George Patterson), Richard Wood (Dr. Dave Woodard), Robert Gerringer (Dr. Dave Woodard), Peter Turgeon (Dr. Dave Woodard), Hugh Gardner (Robert Garner), Michael Hage (Buzz), Sharon Smyth (Sarah Collins), Joel Fabiani (Paul Stoddard), Audrey Larkin (Crystal Cabot), Jane Draper (Suki Forbes), Bob O'Connell (Mr. Mooney), Abe Vigoda (Ezra Braithwaite), Alex Stevens (Werewolf).

1873 Dark Shadows. (Series; Serial; NBC; 1991). An Amtrak passenger train is seen heading toward Maine. One of the passengers is Victoria Winters, a young woman who hopes to unlock her mysterious past in Collinsport, a small fishing village. (Victoria was born in 1966 and orphaned. She was raised in a New York City foundling home and has recently been hired as the governess to nine-year-old David Collins. Victoria feels that she is somehow connected to the Collins family.)

Met at the station by Willie Loomis, Victoria is brought to the Great House. There, she meets Elizabeth Collins Stoddard, the family matriarch; Roger Collins, her brother; Carolyn Stoddard, her rebellious 18-year-old daughter; and David Collins, Roger's son.

The horrors at Collinwood Estate begin when Willie learns that the Collins family jewels are buried with an ancestor from the seventeenth century named Barnabas Collins. In a crypt at Eagle Hill Cemetery, Willie finds the coffin and opens it. Barnabas, a 200-year-old vampire, is revived; Willie becomes his slave after being bitten by Barnabas.

When Barnabas discovers that the Old House (from his time) is still standing, he pretends to be a descendant of the original Barnabas Collins. He meets with the Collins family and receives permission to stay in the Old House on the pretense that he will be restoring it.

Victoria's first supernatural encounter in 1991 comes when she learns that David has befriended a ghost named Sarah Collins (Barnabas's nine-year-old sister, who died in 1790). It is during a séance to discover what Sarah's spirit wants that Victoria is whisked into the past—1790—before Barnabas was a vampire.

Victoria first meets Daniel (David's ancestor) and a live Sarah Collins. When Victoria meets Barnabas, she is mistaken for the girl hired to be Daniel's governess. Victoria is accepted as the governess (she gets room and board and $30 a year) and is said to resemble Josette DuPres, Barnabas's fiancée. Unknown to Victoria, Phyllis Wick (Laurel Wiley), who was to be Daniel's governess, has been transported to 1991 and is now very ill. Dr. Julia Hoffman, who is seeking to cure Barnabas of his affliction, fears that if Phyllis dies, Victoria will be trapped in the past forever. She is in a desperate battle to return Phyllis to her time to save both young women.

In 1790 the Collinses are shipbuilders, and they live on the Collinwood Estate. They are Barnabas's parents, Joshua and Naomi Collins; his brother, Jeremiah Collins; his aunt, Abigail Collins; and his cousin, Millicent Collins. It is Abigail who believes that Victoria is a witch when she sees that Victoria's dress has no buttons, but a zipper — "Mechanical stitching of the Devil." She brings this to the attention of the Reverend Trask, a witch hunter.

Josette DuPres, her father, Andre DuPres, and her aunt, Natalie DuPres, arrive shortly after. The resemblance between Josette and Victoria is uncanny; apart from Josette's French accent, the two are identical. It is also at this time that we meet Josette's maid, Angelique, the beautiful but evil witch who is in love with Barnabas (when Barnabas rejects Angelique's love, she vows to destroy him).

Angelique begins by casting a love spell over Josette and Jeremiah. When Barnabas discovers that Jeremiah seduced Josette, he challenges him to a duel with pistols. Another spell by Angelique places a live round in Barnabas's pistol when she learns that the brothers agreed to use blanks. Jeremiah is killed in the duel; Abigail suspects Victoria of casting a murder spell. At Jeremiah's funeral, Trask has Victoria arrested as a witch; Peter Bradford (Michael T. Weiss) is assigned to be her lawyer.

Meanwhile, Barnabas has become suspicious of Angelique and searches her room. He finds the figures she created to cast the love spell. Angelique refuses to remove the spell and is angered when Barnabas says he will never love her. In a fit of rage, Angelique grabs a knife and attempts to stab Barnabas. In the ensuing struggle, Angelique is herself stabbed when she falls on the knife. Before she dies, she cries, "I curse you, Barnabas. For all eternity, I curse you."

With the help of Ben Loomis (Willie's ancestor; the blacksmith), Barnabas places Angelique's body in an unmarked grave on a desolate hillside. Believing that the spell has been broken, Barnabas rushes to Josette's room — where he is bitten by a vampire cast in the image of Josette by Angelique's evil spirit. "Your hell shall take whatever shape I choose," cries Angelique; Barnabas dies shortly after.

The Collins family history states that Barnabas left Maine and sailed to England to attend to business after Jeremiah's death. Josette killed herself five days later by jumping off Widow's Hill, and Sarah died two days after that. The first part of the history becomes fact when Joshua covers Barnabas's death by letting it be known he has departed for England (Joshua has placed Barnabas in a secret room in the crypt at Eagle Hill Cemetery; Barnabas, however, is not dead — he has become a vampire).

The following day, Josette meets with Victoria in her jail cell. Victoria tells Josette that she is from the future and that she is Josette reborn in 200 years. She believes that she has been sent back in time to help Josette to save herself. Josette believes her and decides to return to Paris.

That night, Josette encounters Barnabas and is bitten. She comes under his spell. The following night, as Josette is drawn to Barnabas, Angelique breaks the spell and shows Josette her future destiny. When Josette sees that she will become a vampire, she takes her life by jumping onto the rocks below Widow's Hill. Two days later, the third chapter of the Collins history becomes fact when Sarah dies from a very high fever.

In the meantime, Victoria's trial has begun. Peter's defense is hopeless as both Trask and Abigail have overwhelming evidence against her. The judge finds Victoria guilty of witchcraft and sentences her to be hanged in three days — on May 5, 1790. That night Victoria tells Peter that she is the reincarnation of Josette in the 1990s and the reason why Angelique is trying to kill her is so that she can have Barnabas's love in the future.

In the present, Julia has begun another séance. Sarah's spirit appears to warn them of a great evil. But before Sarah can tell them, Angelique's spirit crosses the barrier of time and emerges in 1991.

Back in the past, Barnabas appears to his father and tells him what he has become. He asks Joshua to drive a stake into his heart and end his suffering. Joshua, who cannot bring himself to kill Barnabas, seals Barnabas in his coffin with heavy chains — where he remained until Willie released him in 1991.

It is May 5, 1790. Victoria is removed from her cell and led to the gallows. In the present, a desperate Angelique enters Maggie's body and compels her to turn off Phyllis's life support system. A rope is placed around Victoria's neck, then a hood over her head. Julia enters Phyllis's room and sees that she is not breathing. She injects Phyllis with a substance. The hangman releases the trap door on the gallows. A woman's body falls as the door opens. Victoria appears on the bed in 1991, her hands around her neck and struggling for breath. In 1790, the hangman removes the hood from the hanged woman and it is Phyllis.

Victoria, grateful to be back, is surrounded by her "family" — but fear enters her face when she looks at Barnabas. The camera moves in for a closeup on Barnabas as he realizes that Victoria's experience in the past could mean his destruction in the present. The screen fades to black. The series was not renewed and an ending was never filmed.

Cast: Ben Cross (Barnabas Collins), Jean Simmons (Elizabeth/Naomi), Joanna Going (Victoria/Josette), Roy Thinnes (Roger/Reverend Trask), Barbara Blackburn (Carolyn/Millicent), Joseph Gordon-Levitt (David/Daniel), Ely Pouget (Maggie Evans), Lysette Anthony (Angelique), Barbara Steele (Julia/Natalie), Jim Fyfe (Willie/Ben), Veronica Lauren (Sarah Collins), Stefan Gierasch (Joshua Collins), Julianna McCarthy (Abigail Collins), Michael Cavanaugh (Andre DuPres).

1874 Dark Skies. (Series; Science Fiction; NBC; 1996–1997). The series is set in the 1960s. John Loengard is an aide to Congressman Charles Pratt; his fiancé, Kimberly Sayers, is a White House aide worker. When an assignment calls for John to look into the Air Force’s investigation of UFO sightings, John meets Frank Bach, a mysterious Navy captain who heads Project Majestic, a top secret government agency that closely guards aspects of alien sightings. During his investigation, John discovers that people claim to have been abducted by aliens called the Hive. John’s mysterious comings and goings (he is keeping secret his work with Frank) arouses Kimberly’s suspicions (she believes he is having an affair). She decides to investigate and discovers his secret. Intrigued, she decides to join him and together they set out to learn more about the Hive — something Frank does not want to happen. However, before Frank can stop them, John and Kimberly flee. Stories follow their journey as they seek to learn more about a supposed alien invasion before Frank can find and stop them.

Cast: Eric Close (John Loengard), Megan Ward (Kimberly Sayers), J.T. Walsh (Frank Bach), Jeri Ryan (Juliet Stewart), Conor O’Farrell (Phil Albano), Tim Kelleher (Jim Steele).

1875 Darkroom. (Series; Anthology; ABC; 1981–1982). Varied tales of suspense and the supernatural hosted by actor James Coburn. The ambitious series, which featured top name guests in stories, simply didn’t catch on with viewers and was cancelled after seven episodes.

Host: James Coburn.

1876 Darkwing Duck. (Series; Cartoon; ABC; 1991–1994). St. Canard is a city inhabited by not only honest, hard-working citizens but by an uncanny number of rather bizarre criminals. When a villain strikes and the police are helpless to stop him, the mild-mannered Drake Mallard steps in. He dons a mask, a hat and a cape and becomes Darkwing Duck, a phantom who uses his rather bumbling super hero abilities to bring criminals to justice and keep his beloved city safe. Drake is assisted by his adopted daughter, Gosalyn, and Launchpad McQuack, a dim-witted pilot.

Voice Cast: Jim Cummings (Drake Mallard/Darkwing Duck), Terrence McGovern (Launchpad McQuack), Christine Cavanaugh (Gosalyn Waddlemeyer-Mallard), Jim Cummings (Herb Muddlefoot), Katie Leigh (Honker Muddlefoot), Susan Tolsky (Binkie Muddlefoot), Dana Hill (Tank Muddleford).

1877 The D.A.’s Man. (Series; Crime Drama; NBC; 1959). New York City is the setting for a series about a man known only as Shannon, a detective who works under the auspices of the Manhattan District Attorney (represented by Al Bonacorsi, Shannon’s contact at the office). Stories relate Shannon’s attempts to gather the evidence Al needs to prosecute criminal cases.

Cast: John Compton (Shannon), Ralph Manza (Al Bonacorsi).

1878 Dastardly and Muttley in Their Flying Machines. (Series; Cartoon; CBS; 1969–1971). The program, is set during World War I. Yankee Doodle Pigeon is an American courier assigned to deliver important message to Allied troops. Dick Dastardly is an enemy of the Allies. He works for an unnamed organization and is assisted by Muttley, his snickering dog. Dick’s assignment is to intercept the vital message of Yankee Doodle Pigeon and win the war for his side. Stories follow Dick Dastardly as he and Muttley fumble their way across the skies in an attempt to capture the elusive pigeon.

The General is Dastardly’s superior; Klunk and Zilly are Dastardly’s dim-witted aides.

Voice Cast: Paul Winchell (Dick Dastardly), Don Messick (Muttley), Paul Winchell (The General), Don Messick (Klunk), Don Messick (Zilly).

1879 Date My Mom. (Series; Reality; MTV; 2004). A short-lived reality dating series (November 15 to November 26, 2004) that arranges for a young man to date a young woman — after he first “dates” her mother. The subject is placed in the company of three mothers — but not to date them; to get to know them so he can learn everything he can about their daughters. The subject is not permitted to see photographs of any of the mother’s daughters and through his questioning of them, must select the one he feels he would most like to date. When he has made his final decision, the subject and the mothers meet on the beach and his decision is revealed. He then gets to see not only the girl he chose, but also the ones he passed up. All participants are identified by a first name only.

1880 A Date with Judy. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1951–1953). The Gazette is the town’s newspaper; the Bijou is the local movie theater; and Judith (“Judy”) Foster, who lives at 123 State Street, “is the cutest date in town.”

Sixteen-year-old Judy Foster is a pretty high school sophomore with a knack for finding trouble. She receives an allowance of two dollars a week, says things like “Oh, caterpillars” and “Oh, butterflies” when something goes wrong. She also believes that her family doesn’t understand her: “I think the people who are related to me are unsympathetic and full of a lack of understanding. Every time I offer something constructive and valuable in the way of something concrete, I get stepped on before the germ of my idea ever gets a chance to bud into blossom.”

Oogie Pringle is Judy's boyfriend and the object of her endless efforts to improve him and make him the man of her dreams. Oogie has a band called the High School Hot Licks. Judy and Oogie first met when she ran him over with her tricycle.

Melvyn and Dora Foster are Judy's parents. On the day Judy was born, they said, “Our house would always be open to anyone she wants to bring into it. Her friends will be our friends. Her dates will be our dates.” What they hadn't counted on were “the kooks” Judy would have for friends (Oogie is the most irritating to Melvyn). Melvyn owns the Foster Canning Company and met Dora while he was in college. He was in a fraternity and belonged to a band.

Randolph Foster is Judy's 12-year-old brother. He is not as mischievous as Judy (he's more wise-cracking) and tries to help Judy out of a jam when he can — for her allowance. In some episodes the locale is called “the town”; in others, “the city” or “our city.” In one episode, Cincinnati was mentioned as the nearest big city.

Cast: Patricia Crowley (Judy Foster), Mary Lynn Beller (Judy Foster), Frank Albertson (Melvyn Foster), Judson Rees (Melvyn Foster), John Gibson (Melvyn Foster), Anna Lee (Dora Foster), Flora Campbell (Dora Foster), Gene O'Donnell (Randolph Foster), Peter Avramo (Randolph Foster), Jimmy Sommers (Oogie Pringle).

1881 A Date with Life. (Series; Serial; NBC; 1955–1956). Life in Bay City, a small American town, as seen through the eyes of Jim Bradley, the editor of the newspaper, The Bay City News.

Cast: Logan Field (Jim Bradley), Mark Roberts (Jim's Brother), June Dayton (Jennifer), Dean Harens (David), Dolores Sutton, Billy Redfield, Barbara Britton, Anthony Easley, Irene Hubbard.
Organist: John Gart.

1882 A Date with the Angels. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1957–1958). Events in the lives of the Angels, a young couple struggling to survive the difficult first years of marriage: Gus, a bright and determined insurance salesman, and his attractive, level-headed wife, Vickie.

George and Wilma Clemson are the Angels' neighbors; George Neise is Gus's friend; Dottie is George's wife; Adam Henshaw is Gus's boss; Mary is Adam's wife; Mr. Finley is Gus's crusty neighbor; Roger is Finley's son; Hal and Cassie Murphy are Gus's neighbors in later episodes.

Cast: Bill Williams (Gus Angel), Betty White (Vickie Angel), Roy Engle (George Clemson), Natalie Masters (Wilma Clemson), Karl Koenig (George Neise), Joan Banks (Dottie Neise), Russell Hicks

(Adam Henshaw), Isabel Elsom (Mary Henshaw), Burt Mustin (Mr. Finley), Richard Deacon (Roger Finley), Richard Reeves (Hal Murphy), Maudie Prickett (Cassie Murphy).

1883 Dateline Europe. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1951–1953). The 1951–1953 title for episodes of Foreign Intrigue starring Jerome Thor and Sydna Scott.

1884 Dateline: Hollywood. (Series; Variety; ABC; 1967). Joanna Barnes and Rona Barrett host a daily series that features celebrity interviews and news about the movie capitol.

1885 Dates from Hell. (Unaired Pilot; Comedy; Produced for Fox in 1991). A proposed series of comedy sketches about dating and relationships in the 1990s.

Regulars: Jordan Brady, Kari Coleman, Siobhan Fallon.

1886 The Dating Game. (Series; Game; ABC; 1966–1973). “From Hollywood, the dating capitol of the world, it's The Dating Game. And here's your Dating Game host, Jim Lange....”

A young woman appears on stage and is seated opposite three bachelors who are hidden from her view by a wall. Based on the men's answers to specially prepared questions, she selects the one she would most like to have a date. The couple is united and receives an all-expenses paid romantic date (the game is also played in reverse: one bachelor and three bachelorettes).

Host: Jim Lange. Announcer: Johnny Jacobs.

1887 Daughters. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 7/20/77). The story of a widowed Chicago policeman (Dominick) and his efforts to raise his three beautiful daughters (Cookie, Diane and Terry).

Cast: Michael Constantine (Dominick), Judy Landers (Cookie), Olivia Barash (Diane), Robin Groves (Terry), Julie Bovasso (Rosa, Dominick's sister).

1888 The Daughters of Joshua Cabe. (Pilot; Western; ABC; 9/13/72). The first of three unsold pilot films about a fur trapper and his daughters (see also The Daughters of Joshua Cabe Return and The New Daughters of Joshua Cabe). When Congress passes the homesteading law (1870s) which requires Wyoming squatters to file a claim, Joshua Cabe, a widower, travels east to St. Louis to find his three long-lost daughters, whom he hopes to take back west so each can file a claim and help him gain control of the valley he loves.

Amos Wetherall, a land baron, is also seeking the land. Meeting with his youngest daughter, Katie, now a nun (Sister Mary Robert), he learns that his other daughters are married and living in New York. Unable to bring his own daughters back with him, Joshua decides to “adopt” three girls — Charity, a con artist; Ada, a pickpocket; and Mae, a lady of the evening — and pass them off as his daughters. The story depicts their efforts to win the homesteading claim — and keep it once they acquire it.

Cast: Buddy Ebsen (Joshua Cabe), Karen Valentine (Charity), Lesley Ann Warren (Mae), Sandra Dee (Ada), Jack Elam (Bitterroot, Joshua’s friend). Guest Cast: Leif Erickson (Amos Wetherall), Don Stroud (Blue Wetherall), Henry Jones (Codge Collier), Michael Anderson, Jr. (Cole Wetherall), Paul Koslo (Deke Wetherall), Julie Mannix (Sister Mary Robert), Claude Bryar (Warden Tippet), Bill Katt (Billy Jack Wetherall).

1889 The Daughters of Joshua Cabe Return. (Pilot; Western; ABC; 1/28/75). The second of three unsold pilots about a fur trapper and his three daughters (see also The Daughters of Joshua Cabe and The New Daughters of Joshua Cabe). The revised story line has three shady ladies — Charity (a con artist), Ada (a pickpocket) and Mae (a prostitute) agreeing to pose for one year as the respectable daughters of homesteader Joshua Cabe, a widower, so he can win the title to his farm.

Cast: Dan Dailey (Joshua Cabe), Ronne Troup (Ada), Christina Hart (Charity), Brooke Adams (Mae), Dub Taylor (Bitterroot, Joshua’s friend). Guest Cast: Kathleen Freeman (Essie), Carl Betz (Will), Arthur Hunnicutt (Miner), Randall Carver (Jim Finch), Terry Wilson (Sergeant Maxwell), Robert Burton (Claver).

1890 Dave Allen at Large. (Series; Comedy; Syn.; 1975). Various sketches and blackouts that satirize everyday life. Produced in England.

Host: Dave Allen. Regulars: Susan Baker, Jacqueline Clarke, Robert East, Paul McDowell, Ralph Watson, Chris Serle, Ivan Buford, Ronnie Brody, Michael Sharwell-Martin.

1891 Dave and Charley. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1952). Events in the life of a hillbilly-like senior citizen (Charley Weaver) and his friend and companion Dave, an unemployed clerk. The series ran from January 7, 1952 to March 28, 1952.

Cast: Cliff Arquette (Charley Weaver), Dave Willock (Dave).

1892 Dave Elman’s Curiosity Shop. (Series; Human Interest; Syn.; 1952). Dave Elman hosts a program that spotlights ordinary people who appear to showcase their unusual hobbies.

1893 The Dave Garroway Show. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1953–1954). A casual program of music, songs and chatter with humorist Dave Garroway as the host. Charles Andrews is the producer.

Host: Dave Garroway. Regulars: Jack Haskell, Jill Corey, Cliff Norton, Shirley Hammer. Announcer: Jack Haskell. Music: Skitch Henderson.

1894 The Dave King Show. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1959). The shortened TV Guide title for The Kraft Music Hall Presents the Dave King Show. See this title for information.

1895 Dave the Barbarian. (Series; Cartoon; Disney; 2004). The series, set in an era that appears to be the middle ages, relates incidents in the life of Dave, a very unusual Barbarian — he is not a vicious killing machine but a kind and gentle man who enjoys the finer things in life — like gourmet cooking and bird watching. Dave lives with his two sisters (Candy and Fang) and while he is supposed to be out conquering new lands, he prefers the peace and solitude of his home, which he has sworn to protect from evil.

Voice Cast: Danny Cooksey (Dave the Barbarian), Erica Luttrell (Candy), Tress MacNeille (Fang), Estelle Harris (Lula), Frank Welker (Faffy), Paul Rugg (Dark Lord), Paul Rugg (Chuckles), Tress MacNeille (Cheesette), Lisa Kaplan (Bogmelon).

1896 The Dave Thomas Comedy Show. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1990). Comedian Dave Thomas, his guests and a cast of regulars perform in various comedy sketches.

Host: Dave Thomas. Regulars: Teresa Ganzel, Don Lake, Fran Ryan, David Wiley., Orchestra: Ian Thomas.

1897 Dave’s World. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1993–1997). Humorist Dave Barry, author of the books Helluva Time and Barry Picking (a collection of his articles), writes the daily newspaper column, “Dave’s World,” for the Miami Record Dispatch. He is married to Beth and is the father of Tommy and Willie. They live “West of Maple Street” in Dade County and have a female dog named Ernest.

Dave was working as a reporter when a story came across the wire about a woman being trapped in her car by an escaped zoo elephant. Dave and a fellow reporter rushed out for the story. Dave had a banana left over from lunch in his pocket and disabled his competition’s car by shoving the banana into the tailpipe. Dave got the story and began his career. In a later episode, Dave states that before he became a humorist, he wrote romance novels for Pinafore Publishing under the pen name Letitia DeVore (his heroine was Lady Millicent).

Dave, always late with his articles, enjoys snacking on peanut butter ice cream and beer. When it comes to giving advice to the kids, Dave does what he does best — nothing. When he is alone with Tommy and Willie, he serves them soft foods “to avoid choking incidents.” Dave “writes about funny things in an odd way” and is also “mechanically inclined” (“It took me only three days to master the Clapper”). Dave grew up in the small town of Pewuckatucket and had a cat named Mr. Stubbs.

Beth, born in Texas, is a schoolteacher. When she and Dave have to get away from the kids, they retreat to a bed and breakfast called the Spanish Moss Inn. They see movies at the Multi-Plex Cinema and order take-out food from the Crispy Hen. As a kid Beth had a pet iguana named Boris.

When Beth gets upset with Dave, she over-moisturizes and her temper often gets Dave in trouble (like the time she gave the finger to a truck driver — and Dave was the one the truck driver tried to take out of the car through the tail pipe).

Tommy and Willie attend the Collins Street Elementary School. Dave and Beth buy the kids their pets from A Friend for Life. Willie had ants (Mr. Motto, Sloppy Joe, Bruiser), crickets (Jiminy, Gorg, Buster, Moon Unit), a turtle (Donald), a fish (Mr. Fish), a rabbit (Puffy) and a gerbil (Jerry). Tommy has a plush dinosaur (Rappie) and suffers nightmares “about the slimy creature living under my bed.”

Mia is Dave’s assistant. She believes she has psychic powers, and eats “Cream of Wheat, the rejuvenation food of all psychics.” She doesn’t take shorthand (“I write real fast”), wants to be a children’s storybook writer (she wrote an unpublished book called Dillon the Dinosaur’s Really Big Day); she also wrote an unpublished romance novel called Walk the Plank of Passion. Mia has a parakeet (Wesley), a plant (Vince), and a dog (Scruffy), and as a kid had a gerbil named Scooter. Mia invented the unsold board game “Circus People” and takes exotic vacations in her backyard by pretending to be somewhere. Mia is engaged to Eric, a handyman who was a former professional wrestler named “Bongo, the Jungle Man.” Eric does the repairs needed around the Barry home and is carving a living sculpture of Mia on a coconut tree he calls “Cocoa Mia.”

Kenny Beckett and Sheldon “Shel” Baylor are Dave’s best friends. They grew up together in Pewuckatucket and attended school together. Shel is a noted plastic surgeon; Kenny first worked as Dave’s editor at the paper, then as a reader for Books on Tape. He is called “The Voice”; his first audio book was The Three Musketeers. He later became a TV weatherman for Channel 5.

Mia originally worked as Kenny’s secretary; she became Dave’s assistant when Kenny was downsized out of his job.

Shel, a graduate of Columbia Medical School, works with Central Hospital. In college he was a member of the SDS (Students for a Democratic Society). He is divorced and constantly has problems finding the perfect woman.

Cast: Harry Anderson (Dave Barry), DeLane Matthews (Beth Barry), Zane Carney (Tommy Barry), Andrew Ducote (Willie Barry), Shadoc Stevens (Kenny Beckett), Meshach Taylor (Sheldon Baylor), J.C. Wendel (Mia).

1898 David. (Pilot; Drama; ABC; 5/9/79). A proposed spin-off from Eight Is Enough that was to feature Tom Bradford’s oldest son, David, in a series of his own. When David realizes that he and his fiancée, Janet, are not ready for marriage, he decides to take to the open road for an extended vacation to think matters over. He is accompanied by Janet’s best friend, a divorcee named Linda. The unsold series was to focus on David and Linda’s experiences with the people they meet while traveling across the country. In the pilot episode, set somewhere in the California mountains, David helps an elderly inventor (Dutch) win a hang-glider competition that features a new design he created in the memory of his son, a fighter pilot who lost his life in a battle.

Cast: Grant Goodeve (David Bradford), Forbesy Russell (Linda). Guest Cast: Joan Prather (Janet), Noah Beery, Jr. (Dutch Berwell), Catherine Hickland (Vicki), Joan Tompkins (Mary Berwell), John Calvin (Marty).

1899 David Brenner’s Nightlife. (Series; Variety; Syn.; 1986). A nightly program of music and comedy coupled with celebrity interviews. Comedian David Brenner hosted the short-lived series.

Host: David Brenner. Announcer: Dan Ingram. Orchestra: Billy Preston.

1900 David Cassidy — Man Undercover. (Series; Crime Drama; NBC; 1978–1979). Dan Shay is an undercover agent for the Los Angeles Police Department. He is married to Joanne and is the father of a young daughter (Cindy). Stories follow Dan as he tackles cases — not always following the rules and often risking his life to catch felons.

Other Regulars: Sgt. Walt Abrams, Dan’s superior; and undercover cops Paul and T.J.

Cast: David Cassidy (Off. Dan Shay), Wendy Rastatter (Joanne Shay), Elizabeth Reddin (Cindy Shay), Simon Oakland (Sgt. Walt Abrams), Michael A. Saleido (Paul Sanchez), Ray Vitte (T.J.).

1901 The David Frost Revue. (Series; Comedy; Syn.; 1971). Sketches and blackouts based on various topical issues (for example, inflation, politics, health care, etc.).

Host: David Frost. Regulars: Marcia Rodd, Jack Gilford, Cleavon Little, Lynne Lipton, George S. Irving, Larry Moss, Jim Catusi.

1902 The David Frost Show. (Series; Talk; Syn.; 1969–1972). A daily series of celebrity interviews coupled with discussions on topical issues.

Host: David Frost.

1903 David Garrick. (Experimental; Drama; DuMont; 3/27/45). The story is set in London and follows the efforts of a famous actor to court the daughter of a rich man who disapproves of him and is trying to break up their romance.

Cast: Michael Fitzmaurice (Actor), Joy Goffen (Girl), Shepard Menkin (Father), Richard Seff, Victor Thorley.

1904 The David Letterman Show. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1980). A daily morning series of music, comedy, and celebrity interviews. See also Late Night with David Letterman. Jack Rollins is the producer.

Host: David Letterman. Regulars: Edie McClurg, Valri Bromfield, Bob Sarlatte, Wil Shriner, Paul Rally, Edwin Newman, Kim Carnes. Announcer: Bill Wendell. Music: Frank Owens.

1905 The David Niven Theater. (Series; Anthology; NBC; 1959). A short-lived series of original dramatic productions hosted by actor David Niven. The series ran from April 7, 1959 to September 15, 1959.

Host: David Niven. Performers Include: David Niven, Cameron Mitchell, Frank Lovejoy, Eddie Albert, Fay Wray, Anne Francis, John Dehner, Julie London, Carolyn Jones, Dan Duryea, Keefe Braselle, Scott Brady, Eddie Bracken, James Best.

1906 David Niven's World. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1976). Documentary style presentations that showcase the adventurous activities of ordinary people.

Host-Narrator: David Niven.

1907 Da Vinci's Inquest. (Series; Crime Drama; Syn.; 2006). Dominic DaVinci is a former detective with the Vancouver (Canada) Police Department turned investigator for the coroner's office. Dominic is not a man who knows everything or professes to know everything. He is a meticulous investigator but is not always satisfied by what he finds at a crime scene. He relies on the work of fellow detectives and the finds of the doctors attached to the coroner's office. Dominic is quite knowledgeable in terms of forensic science but when he is stumped he puts his colleagues to work to find that one piece of crucial evidence he needs to bring a criminal to justice.

Dominic is married to Patricia (a doctor in the coroner's office) and is the father of Gabriella. He works with detectives Leo Shannon, Mick Geary and Angela Kosmo; Sergeant Sheila Kurtz is their supervisor. Patricia works closely with Dr. Sunita Ramen (Called Sunny) and James Flynn, the chief coroner (later replaced by Gerard Plunkett).

Dominic has to know the facts — then the answers to a crime — no matter what he has to do to get it. He is satisfied with the truth. He does a lot of talking and prefers not to use violence. The series deals with forensics but is not as disturbing or upsetting as the various CBS C.S.I. series. Produced in Canada from 1998–2005.

Cast: Nicholas Campbell (Dominic DaVinci), Gwynyth Walsh (Dr. Patricia DaVinci), Jewel Staite

(Gabriella DaVinci), Donnelly Rhodes (Leo Shannon), Venus Terzo (Angela Kosmo), Sarah-Jane Redmond (Sheila Kurtz), Ian Tracey (Mick Leary), Suleka Mathew (Sunita "Sunny" Ramen), Robert Wisden (James Flynn; 1998–2000), Gerard Plunkett (Bob Kelly; 2000–2005).

1908 Davis Rules. (Series; Comedy; ABC; CBS; 1991–1992). Dwight Ulysses Davis “is a penny-pinching, coupon-snipping miser.” He is a widower and lives at 631 Evergreen with his children, Robbie, Charlie and Ben, his father, William (“Gunny”) Davis, and his effervescent sister, Gwen Davis.

Dwight, who teaches math, science and history, is also the principal of the Pomahac Elementary School in the town of Pomahac (an island across from Seattle). Before his current job, Dwight was a minor league baseball pitcher in Lodi, California (his career ended when he fell in the dugout and injured himself). Dwight loves golf but plays only three times a year; he hangs out at a store called Par for the Course (where he is called a “browse-aholic”). Dwight's girlfriend is Erika, a cheerleader for the Seattle Seahawks baseball team.

William received the nickname “Gunny” during his hitch with the Marines during World War II. He calls the U.S.M.C. “Uncle Sam's Miserable Children” and is fascinated by women — especially the unseen Miss Kelly, their apparently gorgeous next-door neighbor (Gunny constantly talks about her). Gunny worked for Falcon Aerospace and “can make great stew out of road kill.” Dwight claims that “Gunny is 65 years old, but emotionally he's just approaching puberty.”

Gwen Davis first lived in Florida (ABC episodes) and appeared twice. She became a regular on CBS (no reason given why she left Florida) and first worked as a business manager, then selling commercial time for radio station KPLG. When they were kids, Dwight would leave Gwen at the bowling alley counter as a deposit for his shoes.

Robbie, Dwight's oldest son, is the equipment manager of the school's baseball team, the Panthers. When the series returned on CBS, Robbie was dropped (no reason given why Dwight now has two sons); he was replaced by Vonni Ribisi as 16-year-old Skinner Buckley, a teenager Dwight cares for while his parents are in South America to study primitive tribes. Skinner is a fan of blues music and frequents Nick's Blues Club.

Charlie, a gourmet cook at ten years of age, and Ben, the youngest child, attend Pomahac Elementary School. Charlie is a member of the school band.

Cosmo Louis Yeargen (Patricia Clarkson) was first introduced as Robbie's tutor (she charges $15 an hour); she later becomes a teacher at the school but was dropped when the series switched to CBS (she and Dwight dated for six months. Cosmo left to think about her relationship with Dwight. She later decided to go back and take her vows as a nun).

Elaine Yamagami is the assistant principal; she has a daughter named Nikki. Margaret "Meg" Davis is Gunny's ex-wife. Mark Mothersbaugh composed the "Davis Rules" theme.

Cast: Randy Quaid (Dwight Davis), Jonathan Winters (Gunny Davis), Bonnie Hunt (Gwen Davis), Luke Edwards (Charlie Davis), Trevor Bullock (Robbie Davis), Nathan West (Ben Davis), Kelly Rutherford (Erika), Patricia Clarkson (Cosmo Louis Yeargen), Tamayo Otsuki (Elaine Yamagami), Kristi Murakami (Nikki Yamagami), Audrey Meadows (Margaret Davis).

1909 Davy and Goliath. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1960–1977). A religious oriented series about the adventures of young Davy Hansen and his talking dog, Goliath. Stories are meant to display how faith can sometimes help people overcome difficult situations. Characters are animated clay figures.

Voice Cast: Dick Beals (Davy Hansen), Norma MacMillan (Davy Hansen; later), Hal Smith (Goliath/Davy's father), Nancy Wible (Sally Hansen/Davy's mother).

1910 Davy Crockett. (Series; Adventure; ABC; 1954–1955). A five-part chronicle of Davy Crockett, a legendary frontiersman-pioneer of the early 1800s. In Davy Crockett, Indian Fighter, the first adventure (December 15, 1954), Davy and his friend George Russell attempt to convince Red Stick, chief of the Blackfeet Indians, to give his war against settlers and join the other chiefs in a peace treaty.

Davy Crockett Goes to Congress, the second story (January 26, 1955), relates Davy's adventures as he journeys to Washington to represent his home state of Tennessee in the Senate.

The third adventure, Davy Crockett at the Alamo (February 23, 1955) depicts the heroic fight of two hundred men attempting to defend the Texas Alamo against thousands of Mexican troops.

Davy Crockett's Keelboat Race, the fourth episode (November 16, 1955) is set in Illinois and relates Davy's keelboat race against Mike Fink, "The King of the River."

The fifth installment, Davy Crockett and the River Pirates (December 14, 1955) teams Davy, George and Mike Fink in an attempt to end the reign of the Ohio River Cave-In den of pirates. Broadcast on the Disneyland "Frontierland" series.

Cast: Fess Parker (Davy Crockett), Buddy Ebsen (George Russell), Helen Stanley (Polly Crockett), Eugene Brindle (Billy Crockett), Ray Whiteside (Johnny Crockett), Hans Conried (Thimbelrig), Nick Cravat (Bustedluck), Jeff York (Mike Fink), Kenneth Tobey (Jim Bowie), Mike Mazurki (Big Foot Mason), William Blackwell (Major Norton), Basil Ruysdael (Gen. Andrew Jackson), William Bakewell (Maj. To- bias Norton), Pat Hogan (Red Stick), Don Megowan (William Travis), Kenneth Tobey (Jocko), Clem Bevans (Captain Cobb), Mort Mills (Sam Mason), Paul Newlan (Big Harp), Frank Richards (Little Harp). Theme Song: "Davy Crockett, King of the Wild Frontier" by George Bruns.

1911 Davy Crockett. (Series; Adventure; NBC; 1988–1989). An updated version of the classic 1954–1955 Disney series of the same title that relates the adventures of a young Davy Crockett (and his sidekick, Georgie Russell) before he became a statesman. Stories unfold through flashbacks as an elder Colonel Davy Crockett and President Andrew Jackson reminisce about their lives some 25 years earlier on the untamed frontier.

Cast: Johnny Cash (Colonel Davy Crockett), Tim Dunigan (Davy Crockett), Gary Grubbs (Georgie Russell), David Hemmings (Andrew Jackson), Matt Salinger (Andrew Jackson).

1912 Dawson's Creek. (Series; Drama; WB; 1998–2002). A prime time soap opera that is set at Capeside, a small coastal town near Boston that is home to four 15-year-old close friends: Dawson Leery, Josephine "Joey" Potter, Jennifer Lindley and Pacey Witter.

The teens attend Capeside High School and their growth from the innocence of childhood to their struggles to adjust to a new world as adults is depicted.

Dawson is the dreamer of the group. His mother works as a co-anchor for the local TV station and he hopes to become a filmmaker.

Joey is somewhat of a tomboy and not yet fully aware of her budding beauty. Her mother died of cancer and her father is currently in jail for cocaine trafficking. She lives with her sister.

Jennifer is the new member of the group. She was born in New York City. She was rebellious and her parents sent her to Capeside to live with her grandfather in the hope that the change in atmosphere would help mature her.

Pacey and Dawson work at the Video Store. Pacey is the youth who is eager to grow up and face life head on. The title refers to the creek that separates the homes in which Dawson and Joey live (and on which he is seen in a canoe in the opening theme).

Cast: James Van Der Beek (Dawson Leery), Katie Holmes (Joey Potter), Michelle Williams (Jennifer Lindley), Joshua Jackson (Pacey Witter), Nina Repeta (Bessie Potter), John Wesley Shipp (Mitch Leery), Mary Margaret Humes (Gail Leary), Meredith Monroe (Andrea McPhee), Kerr Smith (Jack McPhee), Mary Peil (Evelyn Ryan), Busy Philipps (Audrey Lidell).

1913 Day Break. (Series; Crime Drama; ABC; 2006). Brett Hopper is a detective with the L.A.P.D.

He has been on the force for 12 years and has been decorated several times. On November 15, 2006, his life changes. It appears to be a normal day until Brett, who is secretly working for the U.S. Attorney's Office (investigating a ring called the Latin Disciples) is arrested and charged with the murder of Los Angeles District Attorney Alberto Garza.

The police have evidence — the murder weapon (a gun) with his fingerprints on it (which they found in his office closet). But Brett claims to be innocent and has an alibi — he spent the night with Rita Shelton, a nurse at Westside Hospital. Rita, however, cannot be found and even though Brett insists he was framed, he is charged with murder.

There does appear to be a conspiracy of some sort, though. One night, while asleep in his jail cell, Brett is kidnapped and brought to a remote place where persons unknown want him to confess to the crime. His refusal has a severe consequence (the killing of Rita — which he sees on a portable DVD player. It has to be assumed the kidnappers knew Brett would refuse and had Rita killed to convince them they mean business). Brett is then injected with what is said to be a mild sedative; when he wakes up it is the start of a new day — only it's the day he lived yesterday.

Brett soon becomes aware of what is happening when he begins to relive the events of yesterday today. He is also aware of what happened and he has the ability to alter those events. However, no one else is aware of their reliving the day and if Brett should get hurt, he retains those injuries on the relived day.

Brett is not sure why he is reliving the same day, but he feels it may be related to the Latin Disciples. He also knows that he must alter circumstances to save Rita's life and one of his two alibis (the other is Damien Ortiz, a fall guy for the Latin Disciples, who has also disappeared). As each day draws to a close, Brett finds himself in the company of the kidnappers, where he is injected with the needle. He then passes out and when he awakes, he is a free man to relive the day of the murder over and over again until he solves the crime and brings the culprits to justice.

ABC cancelled the series due to low ratings and Brett's fate was left unanswered. Jennifer Mathis is Brett's sister; Andrea Battle is Brett's partner (on the force); Chad Shelton is Rita's ex-husband; Barry Coburn is Brett's attorney.

Cast: Taye Diggs (Brett Hopper), Victoria Pratt (Andrea Roth), Moon Bloodgood (Rita Shelton), Adam Baldwin (Chad Shelton), Meta Golding (Jennifer Mathis), Ramon Rodriguez (Damian Ortiz), Mitch Pileggi (Detective Spivak), Ian Anthony Dale (Detective Christopher Choi), Michael McGrady (Buchalter), Joe Nieves (Fencik).

1914 Day by Day. (Unaired Pilot; Comedy; Produced in 1973). Events in the seemingly hectic day-to-day lives of the Farradays, a family of four (parents Mort and Annie and their sons Richie and Donald) who are plagued by life's everyday problems. In the pilot episode, Mort and Annie struggle to cope with 16-year-old Richie's infatuation with Athena, his first steady girlfriend, a slightly dizzy, but very pretty waitress who works after school in an ice cream parlor called Huckleberry Inn.

Cast: Murray Hamilton (Mort Farraday), Pippa Scott (Annie Farraday), Mitch Vogel (Richie Farraday), Ike Eisenmann (Donald Farraday), Cynthia Eilbacher (Athena), Elaine Giftos (Loretta, Annie's sister).

1915 Day by Day. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1988–1989). Karen Harper is a successful lawyer; her husband, Brian, is a high-pressured stockbroker. They are the parents of Ross and Emily and totally stressed out by their jobs. In an attempt to ease the stress in their lives, Karen and Brian quit their jobs and open Harper Pre-School, a day care center that they operate from their home. Stories relate Karen and Brian's efforts to run the school and cope with a totally new lifestyle.

Other Regulars: Kristin Carlson, Brian and Karen's helper; Elaine Swift, Brian's former associate; Molly, Justin, Dana and Nina, kids at the school; Martha and Kevin, Molly's parents; Jack Harper, Brian's father; and Taylor Conroy, Elaine's boss. Infant twins Sara and Erin Leonard-Hood and Mary and Catherine Donahue play Emily Harper.

Cast: Linda Kelsey (Karen Harper), Doug Sheehan (Brian Harper), C.B. Barnes (Ross Harper), Courtney Thorne-Smith (Kristin Carlson), Julia Louis-Dreyfus (Eileen Swift), Thora (Molly), Chris Finefrock (Justin), J.P. Dizon (Dana), Pippa Parthree (Martha), Jack Blessing (Kevin), Leslie Nielsen (Jack Harper), T.W. Henning (Taylor Conroy).

1916 Day in Court. (Series; Drama; ABC; 1958–1965). The program presents reenactments of actual city and state criminal and civil court hearings. The series aired from October 13, 1958 to June 24, 1965.

Judge: Edgar Allan Jones, Jr., William Gwinn.

1917 Day of the Triffids. (Series; Science Fiction; The Entertainment Channel; 1982). A British-produced series based on the novel by John Wyndham. In 1961, seeds for Triffids, eight-foot high plants with a lethal sting, were sold to an oil company to be farmed for their oil. When the plants were found to be both killers and carnivores, they were nearly exterminated, until scientists discovered the value of their oil as a gasoline additive and the Triffid farms were preserved.

The series itself, like the feature film of the same title, begins with Bill Masen awakening in a London hospital after a successful eye operation to discover that the majority of the population has been blinded by fantastic comets watched all over the world the previous night. As Bill joins with other survivors of the disaster, he discovers that the flesh-eating Triffids have begun to escape from their pens (with man's natural advantage of sight removed, the Triffids can have an independent existence and eventually take over civilization). The series depicts the efforts of the survivors to escape from and find a means by which to destroy the Triffids.

Cast: John Duttine (Bill Masen), Emma Relp (Jo), Emily Dean (Susan), Maurice Colbourne (Jack Coker), David Swift (Beadley), Gary Olsen (Torrence), Jenny Lipman (Mary Brent), Desmond Adams (Dennis Brent), Jonathan Newth (Dr. Soames).

1918 Day to Day. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 8/28/87). Events in the lives of Shirley, Hope and Judith, three sisters as different as night and day who never forget they are a family. Shirley is married to Mike and the mother of Diane and Carrie. Hope is single and rebellious; and Judith is a pediatrician who lives with a college professor (Jonathan). In the pilot episode, the sisters attempt to arrange a 35th wedding anniversary for their parents, Walter and Jean.

Cast: Deborah Harmon (Shirley Rovitch), Linda Purl (Judith Lumley), Noelle Parker (Hope Lumley), Darren McGavin (Walter Lumley), K Callan (Jean Lumley), Cliff Potts (Mike Rovitch), Jenny Beck (Diane Rovitch), Jessica Pucas (Carrie Rovitch), Tom Isbell (Jonathan Geller). Guest Cast: Pat Corley (Uncle Bob), Diane Stilwell (Aunt Sue).

1919 A Day with Doodles. (Series; Comedy; Syn.; 1950). Short slapstick sketches that relate the antics of Doodles Weaver, a comedian representing an everyman, as he attempts to cope with life's endless problems. Doodles plays himself and everyone else in the cast.

1920 Daydreaming with Laraine. (Series; Variety; ABC; 1951). A daily series of music, interviews, chatter and dramatic vignettes with actress Laraine Day as the host. Also broadcast on Saturday afternoons as The Laraine Day Show. The series aired as Daydreaming with Laraine from May 5, 1951 to August 18, 1951; and as The Laraine Day Show from May 17, 1951 to July 19, 1951.

Hostess: Laraine Day. Vocalist: Ruth Woodner. Music: The Bill Harrington Trio.

1921 The Days and Nights of Molly Dodd. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1987–1988). Molly Dodd is an attractive, divorced woman in her thirties. Molly, maiden name Bickford, first works for Dennis Windmer and Associates Real Estate, then in a bookstore run by Moss Goodman. Molly lives in Manhattan and stories follow events in her life as she seeks the meaning of life while realizing that her biological clock is ticking. To earn extra money, Molly teaches piano on the side.

Other Regulars: Fred Dodd, Molly's ex-husband (a saxophone player); Florence Bickford, her mother; Davey McQuinn, the building elevator operator; Dennis Windmer, Molly's boss (1987); Birmanyi, Molly's roommate; Nick, the garbage man; Steve Cooper, the musician; Claire Windmer, Dennis's wife; Nina Shipman, Molly's friend; Edgar Bickford, Molly's father; Mamie, Molly's sister; Katherine, Molly's music student; Moss Goodman, Molly's boss (1988); Dwight Bickford, Molly's brother; and Mike Sayles, Molly's cousin.

Cast: Blair Brown (Molly Dodd), William Converse-Roberts (Fred Dodd), Allyn Ann McLerie (Florence Bickford), James Greene (Davey McQuinn), Victor Garber (Dennis Windmer), Kabir Bedi (Birmanyi), Jay Tarses (Nick), Richard Venture (Edgar), Sandy Faison (Mamie), Tanya Fenmore (Katherine), Peter MacNichol (Steve Cooper), Joan McMurtrey (Claire Windmer), Maureen Anderman (Nina Shipman), David Straithairn (Moss Goodman), Darrell Larson (Dwight Bickford), John Glover (Mike Sayles).

1922 Days of Our Lives. (Series; Serial; NBC; 1965–). "Like sands through the hour glass, so are the days of our lives. This is Macdonald Carey and these are The Days of Our Lives."

The series, set in Salem, Massachusetts, depicts dramatic incidents in the lives of the Horton, Martin, Williams and Craig families. The series premiered on November 8, 1965.

Cast: Macdonald Carey (Dr. Thomas Horton), Frances Reid (Alice Horton), John Clarke (Mickey Horton), John Ingle (Mickey Horton), Astrid Warner (Sandy Horton), Heather North (Sandy Horton), Martha Smith (Sandy Horton), Pamela Roylance (Sandy Horton), John Lupton (Dr. Thomas Horton, Jr.), Alan Decker (Michael Horton), John Amour (Michael Horton), Dick DeCort (Michael Horton), Wesley Eure (Michael Horton), Michael T. Weiss (Michael Horton), Paul Cofas (Michael Horton), Edward Mallory (Dr. William Horton), Christopher Stone (Dr. William Horton), Paul Carr (Dr. William Horton), Melissa Reeves (Jennifer Horton), Jennifer Peterson (Jennifer Horton), Stephanie Cameron (Jennifer Horton), Marie Cheatham (Marie Horton), Lanna Saunders (Marie Horton), Katherine Woodville (Marie Horton), Suzanne Zenor (Margo Horton), Suzanne Rogers (Maggie Horton), Robert Brubaker (John Martin), K.T. Stevens (Helen Martin), Bill Hayes (Doug Williams), Carla Doherty (Julie Olson Williams), Catherine Dunn (Julie Olson Williams), Kathy Dunn (Julie Olson Williams), Catherine Ferrar (Julie Olson Williams), Susan Seaforth Hayes (Julie Olson Williams), Natasha Ryan (Hope Williams), Tammy Taylor (Hope Williams), Brenda Benet (Lee Williams), Tracy E. Bregman (Donna Craig), Jed Allan (Don Craig), Dorrie Kavanaugh (Cathy Craig), Jennifer Harmon (Cathy

Craig), Gloria Loring (Liz Craig), Floy Dean (Dr. Laura Spencer), Susan Flannery (Dr. Laura Spencer), Kate Woodville (Dr. Laura Spencer), Susan Oliver (Dr. Laura Spencer), Rosemary Forsyth (Dr. Laura Spencer), David McLean (Craig Merritt), Patricia Huston (Addie Olson), Patricia Barry (Addie Olson), Peter Brown (Craig Peters), Helen Funai (Kim Douglas), Victor Holchak (Jim Phillips), John Howard (Cliff Patterson), Robert Carraway (Scott Banning), Robert Hogan (Scott Banning), Ryan MacDonald (Scott Banning), Mike Farrell (Scott Banning), Margaret Mason (Linda Anderson), Myron Natwick (Rick), Nancy Wickwire (Phyllis Curtis), Corinne Conley (Phyllis Curtis), Jeanne Bates (Anne Peters), Lisa Piazza (Anne Peters), Herb Nelson (Phil Peters), Arlund Schubert (Wilbur Austin), Terry O'Sullivan (Richard Hunter), Benny Gatteys (Susan Peters), Jocelyn Somers (Jean Barton), Robert J. Stevenson (Detective), Eileen Barnett (Stephanie Woodruff), Mary Frann (Amanda Peters), Jeffrey Williams (David Banning), Richard Guthrie (David Banning), Gregg Marx (David Banning), Gail Johnson (Mimi), Debbie Lytton (Melissa Anderson), Camilla Scott (Melissa Anderson), Lisa Trusel (Melissa Anderson), Pamela Royslance (Melissa Anderson), George McDaniel (Dr. Jordan Barr), Mickey Martin (Doug LeClair), Elaine Princi (Dr. Kate Winogard), Mark Tapscott (Bob Anderson), Brigid Bazlen (Mary Anderson), Karen Wolfe (Mary Anderson), Carla Borelli (Mary Anderson), Barbara Stanger (Mary Anderson), Nancy Stevens (Mary Anderson), Melinda Fee (Mary Anderson), Frederic Downs (Hank), Robert Knapp (Ben Olson), Burt Douglas (Jim Fisk), Dick Colla (Tony Merritt), Don Briscoe (Tony Merritt), Ron Husmann (Tony Merritt), Ivy Bethune (Letty Lowell), Kay Stevens (Jeri Clayton), Pauline Myers (Mrs. Jackson), Jenny Sherman (Betty Worth), Adrienne LaRussa (Brooke Hamilton), Alejandro Rey (Karl DuVal), Patty Weaver (Trish Clayton Banning), Robert Clary (Robert LeClair), Ketty Lester (Helen Grant), Hassan Shaheed (Danny Grant), Michael Dwight Smith (Danny Grant), Roger Aaron Brown (Danny Grant), Sally Stark (Sharon DuVal), Brooke Bundy (Rebecca LeClair), Tina Andrews (Valerie Grant), Diane Sommerfield (Valerie Grant), Lawrence Cook (Paul Grant), Andrea Hall Lovell (Samantha Evans), Diana Douglas (Dr. Marlena Evans), Deidre Hall (Dr. Marlena Evans), Elisabeth Brooks (Theresa Harper), Chip Fields (Toni), Flip Mark (Steve Olson), Stephen Schnetzer (Steve Olson), James Carroll Jordan (Steve Olson), John Lombardo (Fred Barton), Maria Grimm (Wendy), Martin Shaker (Dr. Spear), Ben Ditosti (Ben), Hal Riddle (Max), Jean Bruce Scott (Jessica Blake), John de Lancie (Eugene Bradford), Catherine Mary Stewart (Kayla Brady), Wayne Northrop (Roman Brady), James Reynolds (Abe Carter), Anne Marie Martin (Gwen Davis), Thaa Penghliis (Count Antony

DiMera), Philece Sampler (Renee Dumonde), Scott Palmer (Joshua Fallon), Lane Cuadell (Woody King), Quinn Redeker (Alex Marshall), Cynthia Leake (Lori Masters), Sally Johnson (Cyndi Reise), Lane Davies (Dr. Evan Wheyland), Marty Davich (Marty), Shawn Stevens (Oliver Martin), Dick Billingsley (Scott Banning), Chris Kostichuk (Josh Taylor), Meg Wyllie (Mrs. Chisholm), Richard Bergman (Brett Fredericks), Bennett Guillory (Tilson), Alison Sweeney (Samantha Brady), John Aniston (Eric Richards), Matthew Ashford (Jack Deveraux), Crystal Chappell (Carly Manning), Lark Voorhies (Wendy Reardon), Erik von Detten (Nicholas Alamain), Kyle Lowder (Brady Black), Eric Winter (Rex Brady), Jensen Ackles (Eric Roman Brady), Josh Taylor (Eric Roman Brady), Kirsten Storms (Belle Black Kirakis), Suzanne Rogers (Maggie Simmons Horton), Valerie Wildman (Fay Walker), Joseph Mascolo (Stefano DiMera), Richard Burgi (Philip Collier), Eileen Davidson (Kristen Blake), Eileen Davidson (Sister Mary Moira), Eileen Davidson (Susan Banks), Rick Hearst (Scott Banning II), Bill Hayes (Douglas Williams), Bill Hayes (Byron Carmichael), Kyle Brandt (Philip Kiriakis), Melinda Clarke (Faith Taylor), Michael Easton (Tanner Scofield), Josh Taylor (Chris Kositchek), Drake Hogestyn (John Black), Yvonna Wright (Wendy Reardon), Brian Heidik (Tim Rollins), Alexis Thorpe (Cassie DiMera), Arianne Zucker (Nicole Walker Kiriakis), Peter Reckell (Bo Brady), Robert Kelker-Kelly (Bo Brady), Farah Faith (Mimi Lockhart), Robert Woods (Paul Stewart), Mary Beth Evans (Kayla Brady Johnson), Wally Kurth (Justin Kiriakis), Patrika Darbo (Nancy Miller Wesley), Victor Alfieri (Franco Kelly), Nadia Bjorlin (Chloe Lane), Megan Corletto (Abigail Deveraux), Ashley Benson (Abigail Deveraux), Mark Valley (Jack Deveraux), Robert Millhouse (Brian Scofield), Kevin Spirtas (Craig Wesley), Matt Cedeno (Brandon Walker), Darin Brooks (Max Brady), Hunter Tylo (Marina Toscano), Justin Melvey (Colin Murphy), Jamie Lyn Bauer (Laura Spencer Horton), Christie Clark (Carrie Brady), Lisa Rinna (Billie Reed), James Scott (E.J. Wells), Heather Lindell (Jan Spears), Brandon Tyler (Philip Kiriakis), Jay Kenneth Johnson (Philip Kiriakis), Judi Evans (Adrienne Johnson), Judi Evans (Bonnie Lockhart), Shannon Tweed (Savannah Wilder), Tanya Boyd (Celeste Perrault), Krista Allen (Billie Reed), Brandon Beemer (Shawn Douglas Brady), Jason Cook (Shawn Douglas Brady), Julie Pinson (Billie Reed), Dani Wells (Samantha Brady), Deborah Moore (Danielle Stevens), Adam Caine (Edmund Crumb), Rhasaan Orange (Tek Kramer), Martha Madison (Belle Black Kiriakis), Charity Rahmer (Belle Black Kiriakis), Victor Webster (Nicholas Alamain), Stephen Nichols (Steve Johnson), Matt Battaglia (J.L. King), Austin Peck (Austin Reed), Shannon Sturges (Molly Brinker), Steve Blackwood (Bart Biderbeck), Darby Hinton (Ian Griffith), Billy

Warlock (Frank Brady), Rachel Melvin (Chelsea Benson), Paul Logan (Glen Reiber), Lisa Howard (April Ramirez), Dani Minnick (Rebecca Morrison), Richard Biggs (Marcus Hunter), Holly Gagnier (Ivy Jannings), Charles Shaughnessy (Shane Donovan), Lauren Koslow (Kate Roberts Brady), Kristian Alfonso (Hope Williams Brady), Kristin Alfonso (Gina von Amburg), Genie Francis (Diana Colville), Jason Brooks (Peter Blake), Peggy McCay (Caroline Brady), Michael Sabatino (Lawrence Alamain), James Reynolds (Abraham Carver), Amy Yasbeck (Olivia Reed), Frank Parker (Shawn Brady), Frank MacLean (Shawn Brady), Collin O'Donnell (Shawn Brady), Lew Brown (Shawn Brady), Jeff Griggs (Jude St. Clair), Lynn Herring (Lisanne Gardner), Millicent Martin (Lili Faversham), Charlotte Ross (Eva Donovan), Aaron Van Wagner (Jason Masters), Kristi McDaniel (Sarah), Tina Andrews (Valerie Grant), Camilla Moore (Gillian Forrester), Ben Archibek (Nell Curtis), Joe Gallison (Nell Curtis), Elizabeth Burr (Barbara Stewart), Rose Fonesca (Valerie Grant), Stephen Brooks (Joshua Fallon), Erya Ruggles (Robin Jacobs), Andrew Masset (Larry Welch), Billy Hufsey (Emilio Ramirez), Conrad Dunn (Nick Corelli), Conrad Dunn (George Jenesty), Brooke Bundy (Rebecca North), Joyce Easton (Janet Banning), Carey Moore (Grace Foster), Kay Stevens (Jeri Clayton), Joseph Adams (Jack Deveraux), David Wallace (Todd Chandler), Marie Alise Recasner (Lynn Burke), Amy Stock-Poynton (Britta Englund), Aimee Brooks (Sarah Horton), Jack Coleman (Jake Kostichek), Ken Jezek (Lars Englund), J. Cynthia Brooks (Taylor McCall), Elaine Princi (Linda Patterson), Braden Matthews (Travis Malloy), Pat Delaney (Rachel Burke), Matthew Mahaney (Kurt Schwengel), Roark Benvenisti (Kevin Lambert), Shayna Rose (Stephanie Johnson), Tracy Middendorff (Carrie Brady), Karen Moncrieff (Gabrielle Pascal), Tom Everett (Speed Selejko), Robert Romanus (Speed Selejko), Clive Clerk (David Martin), Stephen Mines (David Martin), Don Frabotta (David Martin), Tony Rhodes (Jesse Lombard), Brett Williams (Todd Chandler), Paul Kelman (Todd Chandler), Patrice Chanel (Gail Carson), Veronica Lauren (Cynthia), Bennye Gatteys (Susan Martin Peters), Denise Alexander (Susan Martin Peters), Anne Marie Howard (Kimberly Brady), Regina Gleason (Kitty Horton), Jay Robinson (Monty Dolan), Alli Brown (Sarah Horton), Ariana Chase (Kimberly Brady), Nadyne Turney (Linda Patterson), Ivan G'Vera (Ivan Marais), Cheryl-Ann Wilson (Megan Hathaway), Judith Chapman (Anjelica Deveraux), Robert Cuthill (Colin Murphy), Lisa Linde (Allison McIntyre), Jack Denbo (Jack Clayton), Antony Alda (Johnny Corelli), Elaine Bromka (Stella Lombard), Heather Lauren Olson (Jan Spears), Eddie Velez (Paul Mendez), Arleen Sorkin (Calliope Jones), Stanley Brock (Howie Hoffstedder), Mark Drexler (Roger Lombard), Leann Hunley (Anna Fredericks), Brenda Benet (Lee DuMonde), Jay Pickett (Chip Lakin), Michael Bays (Julio Ramirez), Patsy Pease (Kimberly Brady), Barry Cutler (Logan Michaels), Roberta Leighton (Ginger Dawson), Tamara Clatterbuck (Barb Reiber), Joy Garrett (Jo Johnson), Marilyn McIntyre (Jo Johnson), James Acheson (Jack Deveraux), Steve Wilder (Jack Deveraux), Miriam Parrish (Jamie Caldwell), Katherine Ellis (Taylor Raines), Tracy Kolis (Rebecca Downey), Steve Eastin (Alfred Jericho), Deborah Adair (Katherine Roberts), Michael Leon (Pete Jannings), J. Eddie Peck (Howard Alston Hawkins III), Louise Sorel (Vivian Alamain), Patrick Muldoon (Austin Reed), Susan Diol (Emmy Borden), Dee Carol (Adele Winston), Corinne Conley (Phyllis Anderson), Nancy Wickwire (Phyllis Anderson), Madlyn Rhue (Daphne DiMera), Thyme Lewis (Jonah Carver), Suzanne Zenor (Margo Anderman), Wortham Krimmer (Cal Winters), Renee Jones (Nikki Wade), Renee Jones (Lexis Brooks Carver), Meegan King (Pete Curtis), Jane Kean (Diane Hunter), Coleen Gray (Diane Hunter), Jane Windsor (Emma Donovan), Nick Benedict (Curtis Reed), James Hampton (Saul Taylor), Bernard White (Snake Selejko), Paul Kersey (Alan Harris), Tammy Townsend (Wendy Reardon), Ed Prentiss (John Martin), Quinn Redeker (Alex Marshall), Joseph Bottoms (Cal Winters), Brody Hutzler (Patrick Lockhart), Staci Greason (Isabella Toscano), Jane Elliot (Anjelica Deveraux), Shelley Taylor Morgan (Anjelica Deveraux), Julianne Morris (Greta Von Amberg), Patricia Barry (Adelaide Horton), John Lombardo (Eric Peters), Stanley Kamel (Eric Peters), Sandra Canning (Grace Jeffries), Barbara Beckley (Caroline Brady), Jody Carter (Caroline Brady), George DelHoyo (Orpheus), Charles Cioffi (Ernesto Toscano), Robin Riker (Maureen Lockhart), Vaughn Armstrong (David Caldwell), Todd Babcock (Vin Ramsell), Lorna Scott (Cecelia Marin), Michael O'Neill (Father Timothy Jansen), M.C. Gainey (Chauncey O'Hanrahan), Josh Taylor (Roman Brady), Robert Madrid (Chico Valez), Natalija Nogulich (Ingrid Mitchell), Ryan Scott (Harold Wentworth), Tim Thomerson (Oliver Wentworth), Tammy Tavares (Dr. Karen Bader), Sally Kirkland (Tracey Simpson), Sarah Buxton (Crystal Galore), Gina LaPiana (Gabriella Ortiz), Rob Moran (Mayor Arthur Shepard), Jennifer See (Susan Adamson), Brianna and Chalice Fischette (Belle Brady), Brandon and Eric Billings (Brady Black), Shawn and Taylor Carpenter (Will Reed), Joshua and Jacob Rips (J.T. Brady), Garrett Gray (Isaac Carver).

1923 Daytime. (Series; Variety; Syn.; 1976). A daily program of celebrity interviews that is produced by Sunni Davis and Ernest Sauer.

Host: Penny DuPont. Regulars: Brian Lamb, Joan O'Neill. Music: Ed Kalehoff.

1924 The Dayton Allen Show. (Series; Comedy; Syn.; 1961). A five-minute program of advice on everything and anything from comedian Dayton Allen.

1925 Dayton Walker's Broadway Scrapbook. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1949). The alternate title for Show Business, Inc. with Dayton Walker as the host. See this title for information.

1926 D.C. Cop. (Pilot; Crime Drama; CBS; 8/27/86). Feeling a need to be a part of the action, Michael Halsey resigns from his job as a newspaper reporter to become a detective with the Washington, D.C. police department. The unsold series was to relate Halsey's exploits as he uses his journalistic experience to solve crimes. In the pilot episode, Halsey attempts to solve the murder of a Latin American ambassador.

Other Regulars: Deborah Matheson, a reporter for the Washington Herald; Nathan Jackson, the deputy chief; and Cliff and Lucas, Halsey's partners.

Cast: Cotter Smith (Michael Halsey), Carolyn McCormick (Deborah Matheson), Robert Hooks (Nathan Jackson), Mario Van Peebles (Cliff Dickerson), Kyle T. Heffner (Lucas Adams). Guest Cast: Fritz Weaver (Maxwell Vane), Nancy Stafford (Molly St. Clair), Miguel Pinero (Pablo), Jean DeBaer (Frances McGuane), Caren Tate (Mrs. Jackson), Monica Larriue (Ambassador Solarez).

1927 D.C. Follies. (Series; Comedy; Syn.; 9/87). Puppets that resemble celebrities and politicians are seen frequenting a Washington bar called D.C. Follies to relate events in their everyday lives to its bartender, Fred. Puppets are the creations of Sid and Marty Krofft. The pilot aired in April of 1987.

Cast: Fred Willard (Fred). Voices: Joe Alaskey, Louise Duart, John Roarke. Guest: Tom Poston.

1928 D.E.A. (Series; Crime Drama; Fox; 1990–1991). In 1973 the U.S. government established the D.E.A. (Drug Enforcement Agency) to enforce the drug laws of the United States (prior to this, the job was performed by various government agencies). A quasi-documentary style presentation is used to relate the activities of the Group 9 Task Force as they battle the drug dealers, drug smugglers and the drug cartel.

Phil Jacobs is the group supervisor; Bill Stadler is the agent in charge; Teresa Robles, Jimmy Sanders, Danny LaCroix and Nick Biaggi are the agents of the Group 9 Task Force. Julie LaCroix is Danny's wife. The series ran as D.E.A. from September 7, 1990 to November 6, 1990. It became D.E.A.: Special Task Force from April 19, 1991 to June 7, 1991.

Cast: David Wohl (Phil Jacobs), Tom Mason (Bill Stadler), Jenny Gago (Teresa Robles), Byron Keith Minns (Jimmy Sanders), Peter Dobson (Danny LaCroix), Chris Stanley (Nick Biaggi), Kelly Wolf (Julie LaCroix).

1929 The Deacon Street Deer. (Pilot; Comedy-Drama; ABC; 5/18/86). The pilot episode for an untitled series about Jaynie, Lydia, Bobby, Hector and Milton, five city children who stick together through thick and thin. In the pilot episode, the kids attempt to protect a lost deer from two ruthless carnival owners. Other Regulars: Cindy, Jaynie's mother; and Shorty, the kids' adult friend.

Cast: Eve Glazier (Jaynie Crenshaw), Marissa Mendenhall (Lydia), Bumper Robinson (Bobby Murphy), Sean DeVeritch (Milton), Mario Lopez (Hector), Richard Mulligan (Shorty), Brandis Kemp (Cindy Crenshaw). Guest Cast: Marco Hernandez (Zopo), Viola Kates Stimpson (Mrs. Liebowitz), Virginia Peters (Bag lady), Louis R. Plante (Officer MacKechnie), Ned Bellamy (Officer Nichols), Billy Kane (Officer Schapers), Peter Ortel (Lorenzo), John Finegan (Sidney), Ron Campbell (Marty).

1930 Dead End Brattigan. (Unaired Pilot; Drama; Produced for NBC in 1990). Earl Brattigan is a Pulitzer prize-winning journalist for the Post Dispatch, a crusading newspaper. One day Earl writes an article that implicates his boss, Owen Milner, in campaign fund abuses. Owen fires Earl—but the courts reinstate Brattigan to his job at the newspaper. Owen is bitter; he places Earl in a basement office and assigns him to the worst stories. The unsold series was to relate Brattigan's efforts to make the best of his assignments and prove to Owen that he is a good reporter.

Cast: Bruce Greenwood (Earl Brattigan), Donald Moffat (Owen Milner), Jessica Steen (Kate High-tower), Gregg Henry (Wilson Leer).

1931 Dead Last. (Series; Science Fiction; WB; 2001). Jane Cahill, Scott Sallbach and Vaughn Parrish are members of the rock group Problem. Their first CD sold 14 copies. Jane and Vaughn play guitar; Scott, the drums. They drive a van and take whatever gigs they can find. They also possess the Amulet of Sauryn, a magical jewel that compels them to right wrongs by helping ghosts find closure.

It all began during a band rehearsal in a nightclub when a fuse blew. While checking the fuse box, Scott received an electric shock. He was thrown against a wall and onto the floor. The floor caved in and Scott fell down a 20-foot hole. There he found the amulet, which gave him the power to see the dead.

The amulet cannot be destroyed, given away or discarded. If it is, it magically returns to its owner. Although Scott is the unfortunate owner of the amulet, Jane and Vaughn are also cursed to see ghosts. Each ghost they encounter requires their help. If they refuse to help any spirit, that spirit will haunt them. The amulet is theirs for life, and death is the only known escape (a release from its grasp). Stories follow the group as they attempt to perform — and help ghosts at nearly the same time.

Cast: Sara Downing (Jane Cahill), Tyler Labine (Scott Sallbach), Kett Turton (Vaughn Parrish).

1932 Dead Like Me. (Series; Comedy-Drama; Showtime; 2003–2004). A dark comedy series that focuses on a group of deceased souls, called Reapers, and the events in the lives of one Reaper's living family, the Lass's.

It all begins when Georgia Lass, called George, is killed when a piece of the MIR Space Station falls from the sky and hits her on the head. George soon discovers that there is an after life and she has become a Reaper, a being who catches the souls of people moments before they are destined to die.

George is 18 years old and the youngest member of the Reaper group that includes Roxy, Rube, Mason and Daisy. George is struggling to adjust to being undead and is gaining a better understanding of life than she has the first time around.

Rube is the leader of the group; Roxy is the beautiful, street-smart Reaper; Mason is the confused and mischievous Reaper; and Daisy was a beautiful actress who lost her life on the set of Gone with the Wind; she was better known for her sexual exploits than her acting performances.

George's family consists of her parents Joy and Clancy and her sister Reggie. Clancy is a university professor who has an uneasy relationship with Joy (both are at a loss when it comes to coping with their daughter's death). Reggie is George's younger, pre-teen sister who is somewhat confused by a constantly changing world.

Other Regulars: Delores Herberg, the Reaper's boss at their work place, Happy Days; Crystal, Delores's secretary; and Kiffany, a waitress at the Der Waffle House.

Cast: Mandy Patinkin (Rube), Ellen Muth (George Lass), Jasmine Guy (Roxy), Laura Harris (Daisy), Callum Blue (Mason), Cynthia Stevenson (Joy Lass), Greg Kean (Clancy Lass), Britt McKillip (Reggie Lass), Christine Willes (Delores Herberg), Crystal Dahl (Crystal), Patricia Idelette (Kiffany).

1933 Dead Man on the Run. (Pilot; Crime Drama; ABC; 4/2/75). A proposed but untitled series about Jim Gideon, the head of a team of U.S. Justice Department investigators. In the pilot episode, Jim attempts to discover if his predecessor's murder is somehow linked to the assassination of a presidential aspirant.

Cast: Peter Graves (Jim Gideon), Diana Douglas (Meg, his assistant). Guest Cast: Pernell Roberts (Brock Dillon), Katherine Justice (Libby Stockton), Donald Hood (Sam Daggett), Mills Watson (Father Sebastian), John Anderson (Jason Monroe), Joe E.

Tata (DiMosco), Jack Knight (Flanagan), Tom Rosqui (Fletcher).

1934 Dead Man's Gun. (Series; Anthology; Syn.; 1997–1999). A gun that appears to be a .44 single action Smith and Wesson revolver and that has been forged in Hell, is the actual "star" of a western anthology series that follows the gun — and its deadly results — as it changes hands. Stories, with Alfred Hitchcock Presents (twist endings) and Twilight Zone (supernatural overtones) feature a different cast each week.

Host-Narrator: Kris Kristofferson.

1935 The Dead Zone. (Series; Science Fiction; USA; 2002–2007). Johnny Smith is a high school science teacher in the small town of Cleaves Mills, Maine. He is engaged to Sarah Brackner, a fellow teacher and appears to have an idyllic life. Then one day in 1996, he is involved in a near-fatal car accident that places him in a coma (collided with a truck on a rain slick road). As the years pass, Sarah becomes engaged to Walt Bannerman, the town sheriff. Also during this time, Sarah gives birth to the baby she and John were expecting.

It is 2002 when Johnny awakens from his six-year coma. He is not the same person. He accepts Sarah and her husband, but wants a relationship with his son (J.J.). He also discovers that somehow during his coma, he has acquired new abilities — the ability to see the past, present or future of people simply by touching them (his brain by-passes the damage and now uses a part of the brain that is rarely used — the dead zone).

Stories follow the events in Johnny's life as he struggles to cope with his abilities — and help the people his touch brings him in contact with.

Other Regulars: Bruce Lewis, Johnny's physical therapist (helping him recover from the traumas of the car accident); Dana Bright, a reporter for the Bangor Daily News who is aware of Johnny's abilities and reports on his activities; and Reverend Gene Purdy, a family friend of Johnny's parents, who helps guide him through the use of his powers.

Dana's coverage of Johnny's stories as "The Psychic Detective," later wins her a role as a reporter on a local Boston TV station. The town setting is also referred to as Penobscott, Maine (Cleaves Mills appears on screen).

Cast: Michael Hall (Johnny Smith), Nicole deBoer (Sarah Bannerman), Chris Bruno (Walt Bannerman), John L. Adams (Bruce Lewis), Kristen Dalton (Dana Bright), David Ogden Stiers (Rev. Gene Purdy), Spencer Achtymichuk (J.J. Bannerman), Cara Buono (Sheriff Anna Turner).

1936 Deadline. (Series; Drama; Syn.; 1959). Dramatizations that depict the work of newspapermen throughout the United States. Stories, which feature a different cast each week, are based on actual newspaper records.

Host-Narrator: Paul Stewart.

1937 Deadline. (Series; Crime Drama; NBC; 2000–2001). Wallace Benton is a journalist for the New York Ledger who also teaches investigative journalism at the School of Journalism. Wallace is part reporter and part detective. To give his students real life experience, he uses them to help him investigate and solve crimes. Stories follow Wallace as he and his students set about to solve crimes.

Other Regulars: Nikki Masucci, Wallace's editor; Brooke Benton, Wallace's ex wife; and his featured students: Beth, Charlie, Hildy and Si.

Cast: Oliver Platt (Wallace Benton), Bebe Neuwirth (Nikki Masucci), Hope Davis (Brooke Benton), Christina Chang (Beth Khambu), Lili Taylor (Hildy Baker), Damon Gupton (Charlie Foster), Tom Conti (Si Beckman).

1938 Deadline for Action. (Series; Drama; ABC; 1959). The ABC network title for repeats of the Dane Clark episodes of Wire Service. See this series for information. The repeats aired from February 8, 1959 to September 20, 1959.

1939 Deadline for Murder: From the Files of Edna Buchanan. (Pilot; Crime Drama; CBS; 5/9/95). Edna Buchanan is a Pulitzer Prize-winning reporter for the Miami Tribune. Once a case interests her, she sticks with it until she acquires the facts and solves the crime (she also lives with three dogs — Sharkey, Gator and Skip). The unsold series was to relate Edna's exploits as she probes highly dangerous stories. In the pilot episode, Edna investigates a triple murder that is linked to mob pressure to make gambling legal in Miami.

Other Regulars: Detective Marty Talbot; Aaron, the medical examiner; George, her editor; and Jean, Edna's mother.

Cast: Elizabeth Montgomery (Edna Buchanan), Yaphet Kotto (Marty Talbot), Dean Stockwell (Aaron Bliss), David Spielberg (George), Audra Lindley (Jean Buchanan). Guest Cast: Alley Mills (Julie Scarfa), Scott Cambridge (Joe Flanigan), Saundra Santiago (Rosinha Zuluzeta), Jenifer Lewis (Phoebe Quinn), Richard Lineback (John Francis Scarfa), Eddie Barth (Mickey Rosen), Liz Sheridan (Housesitter).

1940 Deadlock. (Pilot; Crime Drama; NBC; 2/22/69). The pilot film for The Law Enforces segment of NBC's The Bold Ones. The story, set in an unidentified city, relates the conflict between a white police officer (Sam Danforth) and a black district attorney (William Washburn) as they struggle to maintain the peace in a city beset by urban crises.

Cast: Leslie Nielsen (Sam Danforth), Hari Rhodes (William Washburn). Guest Cast: Ruby Dee (Lucinda), Aldo Ray (Edward Logan), Beverly Todd

(Melissa), Dana Elcar (George Stack), Mel Stewart (Gamel), Roger Bowen (Ski).

1941 The Deadly Game. (Pilot; Crime Drama; NBC; 12/3/77). The second of two pilot films (see also The Girl in the Empty Grave) that was to focus on the activities of Abel Marsh, a small-town police chief. In the second pilot film, Marsh becomes involved in a military conspiracy to cover up the chemical destruction caused by spillage from an Army tanker truck.

Other Regulars: Gloria, Abel's secretary; Dr. Susan Glasgow; and deputies Fred, Malcolm and John.

Cast: Andy Griffith (Abel Marsh), Mitzi Hoag (Gloria), Sharon Spelman (Dr. Susan Glasgow), James Cromwell (Malcolm Rossiter, Jr.), Hunter Von Leer (John), Claude Earl Jones (Fred). Guest Cast: Rebecca Balding (Amy Franklin), Eddie Foy, Jr. (Whit), Med Flory (Sergeant Redman), Dan O'Herlihy (Colonel Stryker), Ellen Blake (Barkeep), Fran Ryan (Mrs. Beezly), Miriam-Byrd Nethery (Polly).

1942 Deadly Games. (Series; Science Fiction; UPN; 1995). Gus Lloyd is an anti-matter physicist who, to get over the pain of a recent divorce (from Lauren) creates a video game wherein he is a hero called the Cold Steel Kid; Lauren is his sidekick; his father, Jordan Kenneth Lloyd, an evil satanic figure named Sebastian Jackel (who wants to rule the world). Gus also programmed the game with thugs based on people who have made his life miserable over the years. All is progressing well; the game is giving Gus the relief he needs until a lab experiment goes terribly wrong and reacts with the computer game. It reads the game villain programs and sends them into the real world — to act out the personalities they were programmed with. Now, with an evil unleashed, Gus, Lauren and Gus's friend, Peter (his lab-co-worker), find themselves playing a video game for real. Stories follow their efforts to destroy the characters before they destroy mankind.

Cast: James Calvert (Gus Lloyd), Cynthia Gibb (Lauren Ashborne), Stephen T. Kay (Peter Rucker), Christopher Lloyd (Jordan Kenneth Lloyd), Sam McMurray (Detective Dorn).

1943 Deadwood. (Series; Western; HBO; 2004–2006). Nudity, foul language and sexual situations abound on Deadwood, television's first "R" rated western series. The series is set in the town of Deadwood, an illegal settlement on the Black Hills Indian Reservation, during the time of the California Gold Rush (1849).

Deadwood is a lawless town and populated by both decent citizens and unscrupulous characters seeking to get rich. The principal players among a large cast of regulars are Al Swearengen, the nasty owner of the Gem Saloon; the legendary gunfighter

Wild Bill Hickok; the notorious Calamity Jane; hardware store owners Seth Bullock (a former Montana marshal) and his partner, Sol Star; Martha, Seth's wife (beginning in 2005); the Reverend Smith and Doc Cochran.

Cast: Ian McShane (Al Swearengen), Keith Carradine (Wild Bill Hickok), Robin Weigert (Calamity Jane), Timothy Olyphant (Seth Bullock), John Hawkes (Sol Star), Brad Dourif (Doc Amos Cochran), Ray McKinnon (Rev. H.W. Smith), Anna Gunn (Martha Bullock), Molly Parker (Alma Garret), Jim Beaver (Whitney Ellsworth), W. Earl Brown (Dan Darity), Kim Dickens (Joanie Stubbs), Chase Ellison (Richie), Jeffrey Jones (A.W. Merrick), Paula Malcomson (Trixie), William Sanderson (E.B. Farnum), Keone Young (Mr. Wu), Ricky Jay (Eddie Sawyer), Peter Jason (Con Stapleton), Geri Jewell (Geri), Timothy Omundson (Brom Garret), Leon Rippey (Tom Nuttall), Garrett Dillahunt (Jack McCall), Sean Bridges (Johnny Burns).

1944 Deal or No Deal. (Series; Game; NBC; 2006–). One contestant competes at a time. Twenty-six beautiful models appear on stage, each holding a case that contains an unknown amount of money (ranging from one cent to one million dollars). The player selects one case, which becomes his until the end of the game. The player must now open cases with the object being to keep the larger money amounts in play. He begins by opening six cases (he calls a case number; a model opens it). Based on how bad (opening large cash amounts) or how good (opening small cash amounts) the player is doing, a mysterious banker calculates the odds of the performance and telephones the host with an offer of a specific money amount (to buy the player's case for the least amount of money as possible). The host relates the bank's offer to the player. If the player refuses the Baker's offer, it is a no deal and he continues picking cases—five, then four, three and two. A new cash value is offered at each level depending on the player's performance (higher if they continue to pick low amounts; lower if large cash amounts are picked) If the player still refuses to deal at this point, he must open one case at a time. After each pick, a higher or lower bank offer is made. A player's winning are based on either accepting the banker's offer or holding out to see what his case contains.

Host: Howie Mandel. Models: Jacqueline King, Anya Monzikova, Marissa Petrero, Trisha Kara, Aubrie Lemon, Tameka Jacobs, Hayley Marie Norman, Yoi Tanabe, Enya Flack, Megan Abrigo, Pilar M. Lastra, Lindsay Clubine, Kimberly Estrada, Jill Manaso, Claudia Jordan, Nancy Stelmaszzyk, Lindsay Schoneweis, Lisa Gleave, Stacey Gardner, Leyla Razzari, Meghan Markle, Kasie Head, April Scott, Sonia Vera, Kristal Marshall, Amie Petersen, Dawn Olivieri, Bonnie Jill Laffini, Joni Kempner, Jessica Rizzo, Jasmine Dustin. Banker: Peter Abbay. Announcer: Joe Cipriano, Townsend Coleman.

1945 Dealer's Choice. (Series; Game; Syn.; 1974). A Las Vegas-like game show that involves three contestants in various gambling situations. The player with the highest chip score (each begins with 100 chips) is the winner and trades in his chips for merchandise prizes.

Host: Bob Hastings, Jack Clark. Assistant: Jane Nelson. Announcer: Jim Thompson.

1946 The Dean Jones Show. (Pilot; Comedy; CBS; 7/2/65). Alec Tate is a brilliant scientist who has developed a computer that is capable of solving any problem. He is also a swinging young bachelor who soon finds himself a parent when his mother and father are killed in a car accident and he is forced to raise his 15-year-old sister, Bunny. The unsold series was to relate Alec's efforts to change his ways and set a good example for Bunny. In the pilot episode, Alec struggles to protect his bachelorhood when Bunny arranges for him to meet Sherry, a beautiful woman seeking a husband.

Cast: Dean Jones (Alec Tate), Robyn Millan (Bunny Tate), Jay C. Flippen (Cappy Skidmore, Alec's landlord). Guest Cast: Diane McBain (Sherry), Ann Jillian (Bev Ferguson), Christine White (Miss Malloy), Robert Middleton (Homer Ferguson).

1947 Dean Martin Presents Music Country, U.S.A. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1973). Newcomers and established singers perform against the background of various Tennessee locales. The series aired from June 26, 1973 to September 6, 1973. Greg Garrison, Rich Eustis and Al Rogers are the producers.

Regulars: Donna Fargo, Loretta Lynn, Mac Davis, Jerry Reed, Lynn Anderson, Tom T. Hall, Kris Kristofferson, Marty Robbins, Ray Stevens, Tammy Wynette, Doug Kershaw, Doug Dillard. Orchestra: Jonathan Lucas. Music Supervision: Doug Gilmore. Music Arranger: Eddie Hubbard.

1948 Dean Martin Presents the Gold Diggers. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1968). A summer series of music, songs and comedy featuring the Gold Diggers, a group of talented young ladies assembled by producer Greg Garrison through open auditions. The series aired from June 20, 1968 to September 12, 1968. Greg Garrison is the producer.

Hostess: Joey Heatherton. Host: Frank Sinatra, Jr. Regulars: Paul Lynde, Barbara Heller, Stanley Myron Handleman, Stu Gillam, Gail Martin, Avery Schreiber, The Gold Diggers, The Times Square Two, Skiles and Henderson. Orchestra: Les Brown.

1949 Dean Martin Presents the Gold Diggers. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1969). A summer program that recreates the music, song and dance styles of the 1930s and 40s. The series aired from July 17, 1969 to September 11, 1969.

Hosts: Gail Martin, Paul Lynde, Lou Rawls. Regulars: Darleen Carr, Stanley Myron Handleman, Tommy Tune, Albert Brooks, Joyce Ames, Allison McKay, The Gold Diggers. Orchestra: Les Brown.

1950 Dean Martin Presents the Vic Damone Show. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1967). A program of music and songs that replaced The Dean Martin Show during the summer of 1967. The series, hosted by singer Vic Damone, aired from June 22, 1967 to September 7, 1967. Greg Garrison is the producer.

Host: Vic Damone. Regulars: Carol Lawrence, Gail Martin. Orchestra: Les Brown.

1951 The Dean Martin Show. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1965–1974). A weekly series of music, songs and comedy skits with singer-actor Dean Martin as the host. The series ran from September 16, 1965 to May 24, 1974. Greg Garrison is the producer.

Host: Dean Martin. Regulars: Ken Lane, Marian Mercer, Kay Medford, Lou Jacobi, Tom Bosley, Inga Nielson, Dom DeLuise, Nipsey Russell, Rodney Dangerfield, The Gold Diggers, The Krofft Marionettes. Featured: The Ding-A-Ling Sisters (Lynn Lathem, Tara Leigh, Helen Funai, Jayne Kennedy). Announcer: Frank Barton. Music Director: Les Brown. Music Arranger: Van Alexander. Music Consultant: Ken Lane. Music Coordinator: Mack Gray. Special Musical Material: Norman Hopps. Music Routines: Geoffrey Clarkson. Choral Director: Jack Haloran.

1952 Dean Martin's Celebrity Roast. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1974–1979). Celebrities from various aspects of the entertainment world are honored via a comical roast. The series, which ran from February 8, 1974 to January 19, 1979, was presented as a series of specials (some of which were two hours in length).

Host: Dean Martin. Regulars: Nipsey Russell, Foster Brooks, Ruth Buzzi, Milton Berle, Orson Welles, LaWanda Page, Rich Little, Charlie Callas, Red Buttons, Don Rickles, Georgia Engel.

1953 Dean Martin's Comedy World. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1974). A summer series that features performances by new comedy talent. The series ran from June 6, 1974 to August 8, 1974.

Hosts: Jackie Cooper, Barbara Feldon, Nipsey Russell.

1954 Dean's Place. (Pilot; Variety; NBC; 9/6/75). The program, set in a nightclub called Dean's Place, spotlights new talent discoveries, guest stars who wander into the bar and the antics of the staff and clientele. Greg Garrison is the producer.

Cast: Dean Martin (Dean, the bar owner), Jack Cassidy (Jack, the Maitre d'), Vincent Gardenia (Chef), Guy Marks (Bartender), Foster Brooks and Jessi Cotler (Intoxicated customers), The Gold Diggers and Kelly Monteith (Entertainers). Guests: Angie Dickinson, Georgia Engel, Freddy Fender, Peter Graves, Sherman Hemsley, Robert Mitchum, Nancy Reagan, Ronald Reagan, Isabel Sanford. Orchestra: Les Brown, Lee Hale.

1955 Dear Alex and Annie. (Series; Advice; ABC; 1979–1982). Teenagers Alex and Annie answer child-related problems, submitted by viewers, through specially written songs. Presented as part of ABC's Saturday morning cartoon schedule.

Cast: Bing Bingham (Alex), Donna Drake (Annie). Music and Songs: Lyn Aherns.

1956 Dear Detective. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 1979). Kate Hudson is a beautiful undercover officer with the L.A.P.D. She is divorced and the mother of a young daughter (Lisa). Her efforts to raise Lisa and command a unit of male detectives is the focal point of the four episode series.

Other Regulars: Richard Weyland, Kate's romantic interest; June, Kate's mother; Captain Mike Gorcey; Detective Chuck Morris, Kate's partner; and Sergeants Clay and Schwartz.

Cast: Brenda Vaccaro (Detective Kate Hudson), Jet Yardum (Lisa Hudson), Arlen Dean Snyder (Richard Weyland), Jack Ging (Detective Chuck Morris), M. Emmet Walsh (Captain Mike Gorcey), Lesley Woods (June Hudson), John Dennis Johnston (Sergeant Clay), Ron Silver (Sergeant Schwartz).

1957 Dear Diary. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 3/9/50). A proposed serialized comedy about a young couple's efforts to survive the difficult first years of marriage. The pilot episode finds the couple searching for their first apartment. The title is derived from the wife's recording of her activities in her diary. Although a series did not develop, Dear Diary, was the first program on which live models were used to advertise bras (for Exquisite Form).

Cast: Fred Robbins (Husband), Barbara Belben (Wife). Also: Adelaide Klein, Tommy Ward, Jan Brewster, Eddie Nugent.

1958 Dear John. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1988–1992). The 1-2-1 Club is a Manhattan-based organization for divorced, widowed, lonely and separated people who need help adjusting to the single life.

Meetings, conducted by Louise Mercer, are held on Friday evenings at 9 P.M. at the Rego Park Community Center. Members include John Lacey, Kate McCarron, Mary Beth Sutton, Kirk Morris and Ralph Drang. Clancy's Bar is the after-session hang-out.

John, an English teacher at the Drake Prep

School, lives in Apartment 4R on Woodhaven Boulevard. He is divorced (his wife, Wendy, left him for his best friend) and teaches literacy classes each week before the club meets. He was born in Binghamton, New York, and was called “Moochie” as a kid. In his spare time, John writes poetry and hopes to one day be published.

Mary Beth believes that no one appreciates her. She always expects the best to happen but it unsure how to act when something good does happen. She has been a homecoming queen, a beauty pageant winner, and works as a columnist for Above the Clouds, an airline magazine (she previously worked as a writer on the TV series The Divided Heart). As a kid, her father called her “Sunshine Girl” and “Little Honey Bun.” When her father started a baby food company, he named it after Mary Beth (The Sunshine Baby Food Company) and used her baby picture on the bottles.

Kate feels closest to Louise (“She lets me see her without makeup”). She is a neat freak and owns a restaurant called Kate’s Place. Kate is looking for a man who will not be attracted to her just because of her beauty and often helps Louise overcome her (and the group’s) problems. She had a dog named Skipper as a kid and is always impeccably dressed.

Louise, born in Cheshire, England, lives in Apartment 5G. She became deeply depressed after her marriage broke up and spent time at Meadowbrook, a mental hospital. She is the mother of the never-seen Nigel and best friends with the Queen of England. In her youth, Louise was crowned “Miss Cheshire” in a beauty pageant (she was actually first runner-up, but when the winner’s bathing suit strap broke and exposed her breasts, she ran offstage and disqualified herself). Louise struggles to take an interest in everybody’s problems but often becomes depressed when she realizes that she has problems also.

Kirk, a schemer and con artist, was born in Scranton, Pennsylvania. His ex-wife, Carol, left him for another woman and he now feels he has to lie to impress women. When Kirk looks at a girl “he thinks of only one thing,” says John, “does her bra unhook from the back or front.” Kirk claims to be a published writer (but as Kate says, “Letters to Playboy don’t count”).

Ralph, a toll taker in the Lincoln Tunnel, is single and worries about everything. He can tell how much money people throw in the toll collection bin by the sound of the coins. He is in love with Molly, the girl who works three toll booths from him. Ralph is not always sure if Molly is blowing him a kiss or is choking from car exhaust. His dream is to marry her and have two children: Penny and Buck. He is later promoted to equipment supervisor and subsequently replaced by Annie Morono, a hopeful actress seeking Mr. Right. Annie stuffs her bra to enhance her figure for auditions and is always in good spirits: “I’m a wonderful girl in a wonderful town with a wonderful life.”

Cast: Judd Hirsch (John Lacey), Jane Carr (Louise Mercer), Susan Walters (Mary Beth Sutton), Jere Burns (Kirk Morris), Harry Groener (Ralph Drang), Isabella Hoffman (Kate McCarron), Marietta DePrima (Annie Morono), Megan Mullally (Molly).

1959 Dear Mom, Dear Dad. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 5/18/59). A proposed series about Bunty Perkins, a college freshman at Boyden University, who possesses an imaginative mind and an eye for mischief. The pilot episode relates Bunty’s first clash with the dean after only one day on campus. Broadcast as “Boyden Vs. Bunty” on Alcoa Theater (“Dear Mom, Dear Dad” was the proposed series title).

Cast: Robert Trumbull (Bunty Perkins), Raymond Bailey (The Dean), Kathy Reed (Amy Porter), Bert Convy (Galen Lawrence), Jimmy Bates (Bill Davidson). Also: Madge Blake, Helen Kleeb, Robert Pasquin.

1960 Dear Penelope and Peter. (Pilot; Comedy; ABC; 5/19/86). Judy and Ben Berlin are a young married couple who write the advice-to-the-lovelorn column, “Dear Penelope and Peter” for a New York newspaper. The unsold series was to relate their efforts to help people through their column while at the same time solve their own domestic problems. In the pilot episode, Ben stands to inherit a million dollars—if he will comply with his eccentric Uncle Wilbur’s will and divorce Judy.

Other Regulars: Diana, Judy’s friend; Mr. Collins, the editor; and Cliff, the paper’s TV critic.

Cast: Melinda Culea (Judy Berlin), Rex Smith (Ben Berlin), Melissa Harrison (Diana), Eric Bullock (Mr. Collins), Terrence McGovern (Cliff), Iggy Wolfington (Uncle Wilbur).

1961 Dear Phoebe. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1954–1955). Dear Phoebe” is the advice-to-the-lovelorn column of a Los Angeles newspaper called the Daily Star. It is written by Phoebe Goodheart, a “woman” who is actually a man, Bill Hastings, a former journalism professor at UCLA.

Believing that psychology and science play an important part in determining the outcome of a story, he decides to put his theory to the test by becoming a reporter on the paper where his girlfriend, Michelle (“Mickey”) Riley works as the sportswriter. Bill’s theory is put on hold when he finds that the only available position is that of the advice columnist. He takes the position as a temporary measure, hoping for his big break as a reporter. In the meantime, he applies his knowledge to sports to help Mickey investigate and write her stories (Mickey is unsure about Bill’s theories and is often reluctant to use them; when she does give in to Bill's pleading, he often proves he is right).

Clyde Fosdick is the managing editor of the paper. Humphrey Winston Humpsteader is the copyboy. He hangs out at Ye Olde Malt Shoppe ("Teenage Spoken Here"), is tough (can rip phonebooks in half) and constantly gets into fights; fortunately, he has a glass jaw and is easily put out of commission by a slight slap on the face.

Bill lives in an apartment at 165 La Paloma Drive; Mickey resides at 34 West Sunset; the paper is located on Wilshire Blvd. The name of the paper is said to be the Blade in printed sources. Theme: "Dear Phoebe," by Raoul Kraushaar.

Cast: Peter Lawford (Bill Hastings), Marcia Henderson (Mickey Riley), Charles Lane (Clyde Fosdick), Josef Corey (Humphrey Winston Humpsteader).

1962 Dear Teacher. (Pilot; Comedy; NBC; 7/17/81). Annie Cooper is a very pretty history teacher. She has just graduated from college and has been assigned to teach the sixth grade at an unnamed grammar school. The unsold series was to relate her experiences with her students and fellow teachers. In the pilot episode, Annie becomes the target of a scandal when she dates the father (Steve) of one of her students and spicy rumors begin to emerge.

Other Regulars: Fran, Annie's friend; Karen, a teacher; Vernon Thorpe, the principal; and Annie's students: Todd, Heidi, Cece, Wendell, Gloria and R.J.

Cast: Melinda Culea (Annie Cooper), Rebecca York (Fran Ohlmeyer), Nan Martin (Karen Lipner), John Welsh (Vernon Thorpe), David Hollander (Todd Goodwin), Rachel Jacobs (Heidi Prince), LaShana Dendy (Cece Taft), Willie DeJean (Wendell "Mouse" Trupp), Sydney Penny (Gloria), Bret Shryer (R.J.), Ted Danson (Steve Goodwin; guest role).

1963 Death Ray 2000. (Pilot; Adventure; NBC; 3/5/81). The pilot film (filmed in 1979) for A Man Called Sloane (NBC, 1979–80). UNIT is a secret counterespionage organization that is hidden in a barn in Kentucky. Thomas R. Sloane is a Priority One Agent and Mr. Director, who poses as a rural farmer, is its head. The pilot episode relates Sloane's efforts to stop Erik Clawson, a madman who possesses a dehydration machine that is capable of destroying the world.

Other Regulars: Emma Blessing, Thomas's assistant at Sloane & Sons, his business in Carmel, California; EFI, the 3000 Computer, is the "brains" behind UNIT.

Cast: Robert Logan (Thomas R. Sloane), Dan O'Herlihy (Mr. Director), Penelope Windust (Emma Blessing), Michele Carey (Voice of EFI). Guest Cast: Ann Turkel (Sabina Dorfman), Maggie Cooper (Chrissy Randall), Clive Revill (Erik Clawson), Ji-Tu Cumbuka (Torgue), Fiona Gordon (Sister Trilby), Diane Webster (Mother Superior), Peter Nyberg (Au- gust Inman). Note: In the series, Robert Conrad is Thomas R. Sloane; UNIT is based in a toy store called the Toy Boutique; and Torgue, who plays a villain in the pilot, assists Thomas in the series.

1964 Death Valley Days. (Series; Anthology; Syn.; 1952–1972). Western dramatizations that depict incidents in the lives of the various individuals who lived, worked and journeyed throughout the areas of Nevada and California during the latter 1800s. The series, sponsored by 20 Mule Team Borax, is based on the radio series of the same title and produced 532 episodes.

An announcer begins the program "Death Valley Days, where western history comes alive, with your host Dale Robertson." Dale then speaks: "Stories of the Old West, stories of hardships and adventures, of dreams and courage; stories of the American pioneer are all a part of our past, our heritage. Death Valley Days is brought to you by U.S. Borax, the makers of 20 Mule Team laundry and cleaning products including Borateam, the modern detergent booster for cleaner, whiter, brighter, lastingly fresh laundry."

Cast: Stanley Andrews (Host, as The Old Ranger, 1952–1964), Ronald Reagan (Host, 1964–1967), Robert Taylor (Host, 1967–1969), Dale Robertson (Host, 1969–1972), Rosemary DeCamp (Commercial Spokeswoman).

1965 The Debbie Drake Show. (Series; Women; Syn.; 1969). A program of beauty tips and health advice directed at the female members of the viewing audience.

Hostess: Debbie Drake.

1966 The Debbie Reynolds Show. (Series; Comedy; NBC; 1969–1970). Events in the lives of the Thompsons: Jim, a sportswriter for the Los Angeles Sun, and his beautiful and unpredictable wife, Debbie, who yearns for a career as a newspaper feature writer.

Reluctant to have two newspaper writers in the family, Jim wants Debbie to remain just as she is: "a loving and beautiful housewife devoting herself to making her lord and master happy." Stories depict Debbie's attempts to prove her abilities and achieve her goal; and Jim's struggles to discourage her.

Charlotte Landers is Debbie's sister; Bob Landers is Charlotte's husband; Bruce is Debbie and Jim's son; Mr. Crawford is Jim's employer. Jim and Debbie live at 804 Devon Lane in Los Angeles, California.

Cast: Debbie Reynolds (Debbie Thompson), Don Chastain (Jim Thompson), Patricia Smith (Charlotte Landers), Tom Bosley (Bob Landers), Bobby Rihla (Bruce Landers), Herbert Rudley (Mr. Crawford). Theme Vocal: Debbie Reynolds.

1967 December Bride. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1954–1959). Lily Ruskin is a charming, attractive, sixty-years young widow who lives with her married daughter, Ruth Henshaw, and her husband, Matt Henshaw, at 728 Elm Street in Westwood, California. In later episodes, the house is located at 728 North Palm Drive.

Lily writes an advice-to-the-reader column for the Los Angeles Gazette called "Tips for Housewives"; she also had a second column for a short time called "Let Yourself Go" (about doing only what you want to do). Matt, an architect for Coricon Company and Associates (later the Gordon Architectural Firm) designed the house they live in.

Lily was born in Philadelphia. She involves herself with reader problems and says that "if Romeo and Juliet had written to her, they would be alive today." Her best friend is Hilda Crocker.

Matt and Ruth met in Philadelphia (where Matt would have dinner every night at Lily's home). When Ruth and Matt wed, they had $60 to their names; they have been married five years when the series begins.

Much of the comedy evolves from Peter Porter, the Henshaw's next-door neighbor. Pete is married to the never-seen Gladys, "a tyrant and total boss over Pete." "I'm not henpecked, I'm buzzardpecked. I wear the pants in my family. Even though Gladys makes them, I still wear them." Pete is an insurance salesman and says he is an expert magician (but his tricks never work). He continually insults Gladys, and his excuses are the reason why Gladys never appears (for example, "Gladys will be over later. She glued one of her eyelids closed. She was putting on her false eyelashes, sneezed and glued"). Despite the insults, Pete loves Gladys: "A padlock, chains and a straitjacket are the symbols of my marriage," says Pete. Pete mentioned that he and Gladys have a daughter (never seen) named Linda (this character was dropped and Cara Williams added as Gladys when Pete and Gladys [see entry] was spun off from December Bride).

Relatives: Arnold Stang (Pete's brother-in-law, Marvin), Isabel Randolph (Hilda's aunt, Emily), Sandra Gould (Hilda's niece, Frieda Manheim), Sandor Szabo (Frieda's husband, Carl Manheim, a singing wrestler called "The Singing Sheik").
Theme: "December Bride," by Eliot Daniel.

Cast: Spring Byington (Lily Rusklin), Frances Rafferty (Ruth Henshaw), Dean Miller (Matt Henshaw), Harry Morgan (Peter Porter).

1968 Decision. (Series; Anthology; NBC; 1958). The overall title for a collection of pilot films for proposed 1958–59 network series. For information on the pilots that aired, see the following titles: Indemnity, Man Against Crime, Man on a Raft, and The Virginian (1958 version). The summer series ran from July 6, 1958 to September 28, 1958.

1969 The Decorator. (Unaired Pilot; Comedy; Produced in 1964). Liz (no last name) is called "The status symbol of America" by Time Magazine. She is a world renowned interior decorator and has two terms that a client must agree to before she will take a job: she is to be given carte blanche and must move in with them until the job is completed. (The unsold series format of involving Liz with her client's problems and efforts to solve them.)

In the pilot episode, Liz accepts a job in Oil City, Oklahoma, to redecorate the farm house of a rich judge (Elbert) as a present for his soon-to-be-married daughter, Missy, and her poor fiance, Jim — to impress him. When Liz sees how Missy and Jim are being manipulated by the judge, she helps them find a happier life by suggesting they elope ("so they can find true happiness").

Cast: Bette Davis (Liz), Mary Wickes (Viola, her assistant). Guest Cast: Ed Begley (Judge Elbert Connors).

1970 Decoy. (Series; Crime Drama; Syn.; 1957–1958). Patricia Jones is a police woman with the 16th Precinct of the Police Department of New York City. The term N.Y.P.D. had not yet come into use.

Patricia, called Casey, wears badge number 300 and earns $75 a week. Hoods call Casey "A Dame Copper." Like the series Naked City, Decoy was filmed on the streets of New York and is quite realistic in its presentation; storylines capture the feel of the city at the time.

Casey is attractive and alluring but she is somewhat of a loner. She is totally dedicated to her job and she does suffer for it not only in long hours and dangerous cases, but she is shot at and she does take beatings from thugs; seeing her with a bruise or disheveled clothing and hair is not unusual.

The series is "Presented as a tribute to the Bureau of Police Women, Police Department, City of New York" as seen in the opening theme.

Cast: Beverly Garland (Patricia "Casey" Jones), Frank Campanella (Lt. Torry; a.k.a. Lt. Harris), Bill Quinn (Det. "Mac" McGowan), Edward Holmes (Captain Doyle), John Newton (Lt. Kendall), Simon Oakland (Police Lieutenant), Jimmy Little (Homicide Lieutenant), Lawrence Fletcher (Police Lieutenant), Al Hinckley (Police Sergeant), Barbara Barrie (Various Roles). Narrator: Beverly Garland.

1971 Deep Sea Adventures. (Series; Adventure; Syn.; 1955). One of two alternate titles for Crunch and Des. See this title for information. The other title is Charter Boat.

1972 Deep Sea Detectives. (Series; Reality; History Channel; 2003–2006). A rather dangerous reality series (a fatality occurred during the first season when a cameraman was killed) that explores the mysteries that lies beneath the sea. The program does warn of the dangers of deep sea diving as it explores the ocean depths for the remains of ships and vessels that have perished on the seas for as long as man has sailed them.

Host: Cade Courtney. Cast (Appearing as Themselves): John Chatterton, Michael Norwood, Richard Kohler, Loren Coleman.

1973 The Defender. (Pilot; Drama; CBS; 2/25 and 3/4/57). The pilot film for The Defenders (CBS, 1961–65) about Walter and Kenneth Pearson, a father and son legal team. In the pilot episode, broadcast as two 60-minute segments of Studio One, the Pearsons defend a young man accused of killing a woman during a robbery attempt.

Cast: Ralph Bellamy (Walter Pearson), William Shatner (Kenneth Pearson). Guest Cast: Martin Balsam (Francis Tooley), Steve McQueen (Joseph Gordon), Arthur Storch (Seymour Mills), Dolores Sutton (Norma), David Stewart (Victor Wallack), Ian Wolfe (Judge).

1974 The Defenders. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 1961–1965). Preston and Preston is a prestigious New York based law office. Lawrence Preston, a respected trial lawyer, is the senior partner. His son, Kenneth, is an up and coming defense attorney and the junior member of the firm. Stories, which realistically depict courtroom proceedings at the time, relate their defense of clients (which not only includes the courtroom hearing, but their personal investigations to find the evidence they need to clear their clients).

Helen Davidson is their secretary; Joan Miller is the social worker. The series, which produced 132 episodes, ran from September 16, 1961 to September 9, 1965.

Cast: E.G. Marshall (Lawrence Preston), Robert Reed (Kenneth Preston), Polly Rowles (Helen Davidson), Joan Hackett (Joan Miller), Rosemary Forsyth (Joan Miller; later). Announcer: Bob Bryce, Herbert Duncan.

1975 Defenders of Dynatron City. (Pilot; Cartoon; Fox; 11/26/92). Dr. Mayhem designed Dynatron City, a metropolis of the future. But through his experiments he became an evil mutant genius who now seeks to control the city he created. Mary Middlefield, Wendy and Brett are three young people who are captured by Mayhem and, after exposure to atomic radiation, become Mayhem's enemies — the mutant defenders of Dynatron City. Mary becomes Ms. Mega Watt; Wendy, Buzzsaw; and Brett, Jet Headstrong. The unsold series was to relate their efforts to protect the city from Mayhem's evil plans to conquer it.

Voices: Whoopi Goldberg (Ms. Megawatt), Gary Owens (Narrator), Charlie Adler, Tim Curry, Candi Milo, Brian Stokes Mitchell, Pat Fraley, April Winchell.

1976 Defenders of the Earth. (Pilot; Cartoon; Syn.; 4/86). Flash Gordon, Mandrake the Magician, Lothar and the Phantom are comic book heroes who join forces to safeguard the Earth from evil alien forces. In the pilot episode, the Defenders battle Ming the Merciless, the evil ruler of the planet Mongo, as he attempts to conquer the Earth and make it his world.

Voices: William Callaway, Adam Carl, Ron Feinberg, Buster Jones, Loren Lester, Sarah Partridge, Diane Pershing, Peter Renaday, Lou Richards, Peter Mark Richman, Dion Williams.

1977 Degrassi Junior High. (Series; Drama; Syn.; 1987). Events in the day-to-day lives of a group of students attending Degrassi Junior High (1987–89) and later Degrassi High (1989–91). The schools are set in the mythical town of Degrassi, Canada; the local hamburger hangout is a place called 13 Busy Street.

Stephanie Kaye, the 14-year-old school bombshell, is the eighth grade class president (she won the election by trading kisses for votes). She displays her stunning figure in low cut, tight blouses and short skirts. "Steph," as she is called, leaves home dressed as a typical teenage girl; at school she changes into her sexy attire ("My mother would kill me if she knew"). Although she means no harm by her school wardrobe (only as a means by which to attract attention), she acquired a reputation as the school sleeze.

Caitlin Ryan, the seventh grade class beauty, writes for the school newspaper (The Degrassi Digest) and is the school's crusader (she will back any cause she believes in, from animal rights to fighting pollution). She is a promising actress and journalist and has epilepsy (although it is under control with medication).

Melanie Brody, a 12-year-old seventh grader, is a boy-shy girl who has an opinion about everything. She was the first girl in her class to develop her figure and apparently, by the episode "The Great Race," the first girl in that class to wear a bra (which she bought with her friend L.D. when L.D. got fed up with Melanie's complaining that she needs one, but her mother won't get her one). Melanie is a member of the swim team.

Kathleen Mead is a seventh grader and one of the smartest girls at Degrassi. She is desperately struggling to do her best and make her mother proud of her (her mother, an alcoholic, takes little interest in what Kathleen does). She wants to be an actress and won the drama award at Degrassi. Kathleen, who founded the Environmental Action Committee at school, fears she will gain weight and become unattractive (she developed a case of bulimia and overcame it with Melanie's help).

Joey Jeremiah, an eighth grader, is the school wiseguy and forever getting into trouble. The detention room and the principal's office are his second home. He formed a band called the Zit Remedy with his friends Wheels and Snake. He keeps pictures of bikini clad "Sunshine Girls" in his locker and held a job as a janitor at radio station CRAZ (91.3 FM).

Arthur Kobalewscuy is a seventh grader and Stephanie's brother (their parents are divorced; Stephanie uses her mother's maiden name). He lives with his father (Stephanie lives with her mother) and has a dog named Phil. His best friend is Yick Yu. They call each other "Broomhead" when something goes wrong.

Lucy Fernandez, a pretty black girl who seems to take care of herself (her parents are never seen and are seldom at home) is an eighth grader and has an arrest record for shoplifting. She wants to become a dancer but also has aspirations of being a filmmaker. Lucy became a victim of child molestation in the episode "A Helping Hand" when a substitute teacher named Mr. Colby (Marcus Bruce) became attracted to her. Lucy is famous for giving wild parties.

Christine Nelson, called "Spike" by her friends (because of the spiked hairstyle she wears), became pregnant at age 14. Though she contemplated having an abortion, she chose to keep and raise the baby (whom she named Emma). During counseling, Spike received an egg to care for as if it were a real baby; she named it Egghead. Fellow student Shane, Emma's father, attempted to help by providing Spike with half his allowance (Shane became the first student to experiment with drugs; he jumped off a bridge and suffered severe brain damage).

Erica and Heather Farrell, teenage twins (birthsign Gemini), are eighth graders and identical in almost every way. As the series progressed they changed: Heather remained the conservative one while Erica chose "to live on the wild side." Erica was the first one to date — and the first one to become pregnant (at age 16). Erica's pregnancy drove her and Heather even further apart — until Erica chose to have an abortion and found Heather's support a lifesaver in getting through the ordeal.

Lorraine Delacorte, called "L.D." by her friends, is captain of the seventh grade girls' swim team and a member of the girls' soccer team. She is a staunch supporter of girls' sports and lives with her widowed father, who owns a gas station. At age 15, L.D. developed leukemia and missed much of her freshman year at Degrassi High. During chemotherapy, L.D. allowed only her dearest friend, Lucy Fernandez, to see her (for her sixteenth birthday, Lucy made L.D. a videotape of her friends wishing her a happy birthday).

Michelle Arsepi, originally a very shy eighth grader, grew out of that shell when she was 16. She began dating a black student named Bryant Thomas and eventually moved into her own apartment when she could no longer get along with her father; she supported herself by working as a waitress at the Donut Express.

Alexa, a popular eighth grader, was the only girl who became a threat to Stephanie. While Stephanie considered herself the most beautiful girl at Degrassi and lived to gain the boys' attention, Alexa was simply herself and got the boy Stephanie wanted — Simon.

Liz O'Rourke, "the girl with the weird hair" (crew cut in back, long on the sides, bangs in front) is an animal rights activist who possesses a tough exterior but is actually very sensitive. When she first arrived at Degrassi, she had a reputation of being easy.

Relatives: (characters have no verbal or screen names): Pat Beaven (Stephanie's mother), Donna Hird (Caitlin's mother), Steve Behal and Martin Brown (Caitlin's father), Vanessa Dyllyn (Melanie's mother), Sheila Brogran (Kathleen's mother), Ross Churchill (Kathleen's father), Laine Williams (Liz's mother), Gretchen Helberg (Joey's mother), Rhonda Kristi (Spike's mother), Frank Quinlan (Michelle's father), Kenneth Taylor (L.D.'s father). Theme: "The Degrassi Theme," by Lewis Manne and Wendy Watson.

Cast: Nicole Stoffman (Stephanie), Stacie Mistysyn (Caitlin), Sarah Ballingall (Melanie), Rebecca Haines (Kathleen), Pat Mastroianni (Joey), Duncan Waugh (Arthur), Anais Granofsky (Lucy), Amanda Stepto (Spike), Angela Deiseach (Erica), Maureen Deiseach (Heather), Amanda Cook (Lorraine), Cathy Keenan (Liz), Maureen McKay (Michelle), Irene Courakos (Alexa), Bill Parrott (Shane), Siluck Sayanasy (Yick Yu), Michael Carry (Simon), Dayo Ade (Bryant Thomas), Neil Hope (Wheels), Stefan Brogen (Snake).

1978 Degrassi: The Next Generation. (Series; Drama; Syn.; 2001–2007). A continuation of the series Degrassi Junior High (see entry) that follows the day-to-day events in the lives of the students who now attend Degrassi Community School in Canada. Like the original series, the revised version is also quite graphic and realistic in dealing with the problems students face at home and in school (from violence and homosexuality to pregnancy and relationships) and tries to offer hope to members of the viewing audience who may be facing similar problems. Stories in this series do not always have happy endings.

Cast: Lauren Collins (Paige Michalchuk), Miriam McDonald (Emma Nelson), Cassie Steele (Manny Santos), Shane Kippel (Gavin "Spinner" Mason), Melissa McIntyre (Ashley Kerwin), Sarah Barrable-Tishauer (Liberty Van Zandt), Jake Goldsbie (Toby Isaacs), Stefan Brogen (Archie "Snake" Simpson), Ryan Cooley (J.T. Yorke), Aubrey Graham (Jimmy Brooks), Deanna Casaluze (Alex Nunez), Amanda

Stepro (Christine "Spike" Nelson), Andrea Lewis (Hazel Aden), Stacey Farber (Ellie Nash), Jake Epstein (Craig Manning), Daniel Clark (Sean Cameron), Adamo Ruggiero (Marco Del Rossi), Mike Lobel (Jay Hogart), Christina Schmidt (Teri McGreggor), Pat Mastroianni (Joey Jeremiah), Shenae Grimes (Darcy Edwards), Jamie Johnston (Peter Stone), Stacie Mistysyn (Caitlin Ryan), Alex Steele (Angela Jeremiah), John Bregar (Dylan Michalchuk), Dalmar Abuzeid (Danny Van Zandt), Katie Lai (Kendra Mason), Dan Woods (Principal Daniel Raditch), Melissa Di Marco (Principal Daphne Hatzilakos), Linlyn Lue (Laura Kwan), Anais Granofsky (Lucy Fernandez).

1979 Deja Vu. (Pilot; Variety; Syn.; 12/85). A proposed series of music videos based on the songs of the 1960s (the original compositions with guests performing the story). See also the following title. Syd Vinnedge and Tony Scotti are the producers.

Host: John B. Sebastian. Guests: William Daniels, Teri Garr, Graham Nash, Harry Dean Stanton. Music: Jimmy Vivino.

1980 Deja Vu. (Pilot; Variety; Syn.; 7/87). Songs of the 1960s are made into music videos featuring current film, TV and music personalities.

Narration Host: Peter Fornatle. Guests: Teri Garr, Michael Pare, Bronson Pinchot, John B. Sebastian, Harry Dean Stanton, Sly Stone.

1981 Delancey Street: The Crisis Within. (Pilot; Drama; NBC; 4/19/75). John McCann is an ex-con who establishes the Delancey Street Foundation, a self-help rehabilitation center dedicated to helping people in need. The unsold series was to focus on McCann's efforts to deal with the assortment of people — from battered wives to drug addicts — he encounters.

Cast: Walter McGinn (John McCann), Carmine Caridi (Joe), Louis Gossett, Jr. (Otis James), Michael Conrad (Robert Holtzman), Barbara Bostock (Mrs. Donaldson), Mark Hamill (Philip Donaldson), John Karlen (Richard Copell), Barbara Cason (Ms. Somerville), Leigh French (Mary), John S. Ragin (Jeff Donaldson).

1982 The Dell O'Dell Show. (Series; Variety; ABC; 1951). The program features performances by magicians, including female magician and hostess Dell O'Dell. The series ran from September 14, 1951 to December 14, 1951.

Hostess: Dell O'Dell.

1983 Della. (Series; Variety; Syn.; 1970). A daily series of music, songs, guests and celebrity interviews with singer Della Reese as the host. Rocco Urbisci is the producer.

Hostess: Della Reese. Co-Host: Sandy Baron. Orchestra: H.B. Barnum.

1984 Dellaventura. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 1997). Anthony Dellaventura is a former New York City police officer turned private investigator who says, "If you need me, I'll be around." His clients are people who have no where else to turn and his fee is $100 per hour per associate. He works with Jonas Deeds, Ted Naples and Geri Zarius.

Anthony's philosophy is "Expect the unexpected." He was a detective with the 27th Precinct of the N.Y.P.D. for 15 years and liked to do things his way. The department didn't want that "so it was time we parted." Anthony carries a gun but would rather shoot off his mouth. He hangs out at the Knickerbocker Bar and Grill; root beer is his favorite drink. He likes each case to end on a happy note — "I like happy endings."

Geri is a sweet-looking girl "but don't let that fool you," says Anthony. She is tough, an expert on weapons and explosives and proficient at breaking and entering. Ted is an ex-fighter who uses his fists as weapons. Joe, a Catholic, is an electronics surveillance expert Anthony uses when people or places need to be monitored. "He can infiltrate any organization at any time," says Anthony. Joe Delia composed the theme.

Cast: Danny Aiello (Anthony Dellaventura), Byron Keith Minns (Jonas Deeds), Rick Aiello (Ted Naples), Ann Ramsay (Geri Zarius).

1985 The Delora Bueno Show. (Series; Variety; DuMont; 1949). The alternate title for Flight to Rhythm which ran from March 10, 1949 to September 22, 1949. See this title for information.

1986 The Delphi Bureau. (Series; Crime Drama; ABC; 1972–1973). The first episode opened with these words: "From the Capitol came a young man to uncover some worms in a can." The man is Glenn Garth Gregory, the only operative of the Delphi Bureau, a small, Washington, D.C.-based intelligence agency that is responsible only to the President of the United States. Sybil Van Loween is his superior, a mysterious society woman who is his only contact for assignments. The can of worms is what results from his investigations: "Sybil, my job is to do research when the President needs to know the facts. But when the shooting starts, that's a whole different department."

Although Glenn Garth (as Sylvia calls him) is employed as a researcher, he complains but accepts the dangerous aspects of the job (investigate situations that pose a threat to the national security). He has a photographic memory "and remembers everything he has ever seen." Glenn Garth resides in Washington, D.C., in "a fabulous apartment that was given to him by the government." The government has also provided him with an expensive sports convertible and credit cards that have no limit. And, when asked what he does for a living, Glenn responds simply, "Research of sorts." Harper McKay composed "The Delphi Bureau" Theme.

Cast: Laurence Luckinbill (Glenn Garth Gregory), Celeste Holm (Sybil Van Loween; pilot), Anne Jeffreys (Sybil Van Loween; series).

1987 Delta. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1992). Delta Bishop was born in the town of Goose Neck, which is on the Mississippi Delta ("I was named Delta because Mississippi was not the right name for me"). Ever since she was a little girl, Delta wanted to write and sing country music but never had the opportunity to pursue her dream. She became a hairstylist and worked at Mona's House of Hair. She married Charlie Bishop and thought she had found happiness. As the years passed Delta became restless; she was eager to follow in the footsteps of her idol, Patsy Cline, and become a country music star. Charlie encouraged Delta, but every time they saved enough money for Delta to begin her dream, he would spend it on something else. Finally, after eight years of marriage, Delta decided to take charge of her own life. She quit her job, walked out on Charlie and headed for Nashville (she took with her only two items: her wedding ring and the car).

In Nashville, Delta finds an apartment over the garage of a home owned by her cousin, Lavonne Overton, and Lavonne's husband, Buck.

The Green Lantern is a nightclub located at 211 East Grange; it is reported that Patsy Cline once sang there. The club also has an amateur night, and Delta believes that if she could sing her songs there, it could start her career.

Delta meets with club owner Darden Towe and acquires a job as a waitress. Stories follow Delta's struggle to make her dream a reality.

Delta was in beauty school when she first met Charlie, who worked in a lumberyard. He bought her a ring at the Shop and Save, and they married shortly after. They signed divorce papers in the episode of 12/3/92; Delta and Charlie previously lived at 1438 Linear Road.

Darden is a former stockbroker whose marriage of 12 years (to Patty) broke up when he began devoting time to his work and not her. He bought the Green Lantern as an investment and took it over to get away from his hectic lifestyle (Darden had a bad time after his marriage broke up; he drank and wrote "an awful gladiator novel called "I, Dardenius").

Lavonne works as a beautician in a shop owned by Thelma Wainwright called Thelma's Hair Dressers. Buck works for a garage called Jack's Automotive; he calls Lavonne "Vonnice." Friday is amateur night at the Green Lantern; Delta is off on Tuesdays and Sundays and is frequently late on the mornings she does work.

Talia is Darden's daughter; Reba McEntire sings the theme, "Climb That Mountain High."

Cast: Delta Burke (Delta Bishop), Kevin Scannell (Charlie Bishop), Gigi Rice (Lavonne Overton), Bill Engvall (Buck), Earl Holliman (Darden Towe), Beth Grant (Thelma Wainwright), Tracy Kolis (Talia Towe).

1988 Delta House. (Series; Comedy; ABC; 1979). In 1904 Emil Faber founded the town of Faber. Eventually Faber College was established, and Emil's philosophy, "Knowledge Is Good," was inscribed on the base of the statue of him that stands on the campus grounds. Many fraternity and sorority houses surround the college. Omega House, composed of the rich and spoiled, is considered the best fraternity on campus; they live by Emil's creed. Moving right along, we find Delta House, which has the proud reputation of being the worst fraternity on campus. Its legacy is "to hang out with a bunch of animals and get drunk every weekend"; the proud Halloween tradition is to hang lingerie, "borrowed" from sorority houses, from tree branches. To the "Animals" (as they are called) of Delta House, Emil's creed means little, as the house has students with the lowest grade point averages. Another proud Delta tradition is "Don't get mad, get even"; Delta's "secret weapon" is a stunning blonde they call "Bombshell."

Members of Delta House are Jim Blutariski, Robert Hoover, Eric Stratton, Kent Dorfman, Daniel Simpson Day and Larry Kruger.

Robert is the chapter president; Eric, whose nickname is "Otter," holds the honor of being the rush chairman; Kent, whose nickname is "Flounder," is from Harrisburg and was inducted only because his brother, Fred, was a member. Daniel, who rides a motorcycle and resembles a hood, has the nickname "D-Day"; Jim, who can eat his weight in food and beer each day, is nicknamed "Blotto"; Larry has the nickname "Pinto."

Seeking to revoke the Delta House charter and close down the campus disgrace is Vernon Wormer, the harsh dean of Faber College. His "cohort in crime" (who does his dirty work against Delta House) is Doug Niedermeyer, an Omega House member who is also seeking a way to close Delta House. Doug's pride and joy is his white horse, Trooper. The series is based on the feature film Animal House.

Relatives: Charles Macaulay (Doug's father, Buster Niedermeyer), Sue Casey (Doug's mother, Bootsie Niedermeyer), Peter Schrum (Jim's father), Warren Munson (Hoover's father), Carol Worthington (Hoover's mother), Lewis Arquette (Kruger's father), Ted Chapman (Kent's father). Theme: "Delta House," vocal by Michael Simmons.

Cast: Josh Mostel (Jim "Blotto" Blutariski), Stephen Furst (Kent "Flounder" Dorfman), James Widdoes (Robert Hoover), Peter Fox (Eric "Otter")

Stratton), Richard Seer (Larry "Pinto" Kruger), Bruce McGill (Daniel "D-Day" Simpson), John Vernon (Vernon Wormer), Gloria DeHaven (Marion Wormer; Vernon's wife), Gary Cookson (Doug Niedermeyer), Wendy Goldman (Muffy Jones; Pinto's girlfriend), Michelle Pfeiffer (Bombshell; Delta's "Secret Weapon"), Patricia Luris (Miss Leonard; Vernon's secretary), Peter Kastner (Mr. Jennings; a teacher), Brian Patrick Clark (Greg Marmalaide; Omega House member), Susanna Dalton (Mandy Pepridge; a student), Karrie Emerson (Tamara Torton; a student).

1989 Delvecchio. (Series; Crime Drama; CBS; 1976–1977). Dominick Delvecchio is a police detective with the Washington Heights Division of the Los Angeles Police Force. He is a law school graduate whose legal ambitions are hindered by the demands and pressures of his job. Stories follow Dominick as he does his job the best he can but seeks to one day follow his dream and become a lawyer. Paul Shonski is Dominick's partner; Lieutenant Macavan is their superior. Thomas Delvecchio is Dominick's father.

Cast: Judd Hirsch (Det. Dominick Delvecchio), Charles Haid (Det. Paul Shonski), Michael Conrad (Lt. Macavan), Mario Gallo (Thomas Delvecchio), George Wyner (Assistant D.A. Dorfman).

1990 Dempsey and Makepeace. (Series; Crime Drama; Syn.; 1985). Harriet Makepeace, called "Harry," is a beautiful British undercover sergeant with New Scotland Yard. James Dempsey is a tough New York cop (a lieutenant) who is teamed with Harry as part of an N.Y.P.D.–New Scotland Yard exchange program.

Harry is a conformist and does things mostly by the books — the rules and regulations of New Scotland Yard. James is somewhat unorthodox and does what he feels is best. Stories follow their efforts to solve crimes — mostly by unconventional methods as each tries to adjust to the other's methods of law enforcement.

Cast: Glynis Barber (Harriet Makepeace), Michael Brandon (James Dempsey), Ray Smith (Chief Superintendent Gordon Spikings), Colin MacFarlane (Det. Sgt. Watson).

1991 The Dennis Day Show. (Series; Variety; NBC; 1951–1954). The alternate title for the Dennis Day segment of The R.C.A. Victor Show. See this title for information.

1992 Dennis James' Carnival. (Series; Variety; CBS; 1948). A program of music, song and comedy that ran from October 3, 1948 to November 7, 1948. Ralph Levy is the producer.

Host: Dennis James. Regulars: Jennie "Dagmar" Lewis, Victoria Rone, Leonardo and Zola. Orchestra: Lew White.

1993 The Dennis James Show. (Series; Variety; ABC; 1952–1954). The program features interviews, audience participation and discussions on various topical issues.

Host: Dennis James. Assistant: Julia Meade.

1994 The Dennis James Sports Parade. (Experimental Series; Interview; DuMont; 9/38). The first known sports series wherein appropriate guests were interviewed then asked to demonstrate their skills. The series is produced by Alan B. DuMont.

Host: Dennis James.

1995 The Dennis Miller Show. (Series; Talk; Syn.; 1992). A daily talk show starring the former anchor of "The Weekend Update" segment on NBC's Saturday Night Live. As the host of his own show, Dennis chose to interview people associated with social and political issues — a format that, at the time, just didn't work and the program was soon canceled.

Host: Dennis Miller. Announcer: Nick Bakay. Bandleader: David Goldblatt, Andy Summers.

1996 The Dennis O'Keefe Show. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1959–1960). The home and working life of Hal Towne, a Los Angeles newspaperman who writes a column called "All About Towne." Hal is a recent widower and the father of a young son (Randy); they are cared for by Sarge, Hal's soldier-like housekeeper. Karen Hadley is Hal's editor and Eliot is Randy's friend.

Cast: Dennis O'Keefe (Hal Towne), Ricky Kelman (Randy Towne), Hope Emerson (Sarge), Eloise Hardt (Karen Hadley), Eddie Ryder (Eliot).

1997 Dennis the Menace. (Series; Comedy; CBS; 1959–1963). Dennis Mitchell is a mischievous young boy who lives with his parents, Henry and Alice Mitchell, at 627 Elm Street in the town of Hilldale. Henry is an engineer for Trask Engineering; Alice's maiden name is Perkins. Their elderly neighbors are George and Martha Wilson. George has a dog named Freemont, and his hobbies include coin collecting and bird watching (he is a member of the National Bird Watchers Society and the Lookout Mountain Bird Sanctuary). His brother, John Wilson, is a writer for the National Journal. Eloise is his wife.

Tommy Anderson is Dennis's friend, and Margaret Moore is "that dumb old girl" who has a crush on Dennis and just won't leave him alone. Margaret has a rag doll named Pamela and a baby doll named Gwendolyn.

Lawrence Finch is the 60-year-old owner of Finch's Drug Store; Mr. Merivale owns Merivale's Florist Shop; and Mr. Quigley owns Quigley's Supermarket. Esther Cathcart is the "old maid" desperately seeking a husband.

Stories follow the situations that arise as Dennis, sometimes accompanied by his friends, seeks to help people he feels need help. Dennis is often mistaken and even the people who are really in need of help find they can do much better without Dennis by their side.

Cast: Jay North (Dennis Mitchell), Gloria Henry (Alice Mitchell), Herbert Anderson (Henry Mitchell), Joseph Kearns (George Wilson), Sylvia Field (Martha Wilson), Gale Gordon (John Wilson), Sara Seeger (Eloise Wilson), Billy Booth (Tommy Anderson), Robert John Pitman (Seymour Williams), Jeannie Russell (Margaret Wade), George Cisar (Sgt. Theodore Mooney), Irene Tedrow (Lucy Elkins), Willard Waterman (Mr. Quigley), Charles Lane (Lawrence Finch), Robert B. Williams (Mr. Dorfman), Gil Smith (Joey MacDonald), Mary Wickes (Esther Cathcart), Henry Norell (Henry Trask), J. Edward McKinley (Mr. Hall), Byron Foulger (Mr. Timberlake), Will Wright (Mr. Merivale), Nancy Evans (June Wilson), Edward Everett Horton (Ned Matthews), Elinor Donahue (Georgianna Ballinger), Charles Seel (Mr. Krinkle), Charles Watts (Mayor Yates), Kathleen Mulqueen (Henry's mother), James Bell (Alice's Grandpa Perkins), Verna Felton (John's Aunt Emma), Alice Pearce (Lucy Tarbell).

1998 Dennis the Menace. (Series; Cartoon; Syn.; 1986–1988). An animated adaptation of the comic strip by Hank Ketchum that relates the adventures of Dennis Mitchell, a very mischievous young boy. Henry and Alice are Dennis's parents; George and Martha Wilson are their neighbors; Tommy, Margaret and Joey are Dennis's friends; Ruff is Dennis's dog.

Voice Cast: Brennan Thicke (Dennis Mitchell), Phil Hartman (Henry Mitchell), Brian George (Henry Mitchell), Marilyn Lightstone (Alice Mitchell), Louise Vallance (Alice Mitchell), Phil Hartman (George Wilson), Marilyn Lightstone (Martha Wilson), Jeannie Elias (Tommy), Jeannie Elias (Margaret), Jeannie Elias (Joey), Phil Hartman (Ruff).

1999 Dennis the Menace. (Pilot; Comedy; Syn.; 9/87). A proposed series for syndication about Dennis Mitchell, the very mischievous son of Henry and Alice Mitchell. In the pilot episode, Dennis finds a dinosaur bone in his front yard and creates chaos when an opportunistic archaeologist begins preparations to build an amusement park called Dinosaur Land. Based on the comic by Hank Ketchum. Other Regulars: George and Martha Wilson, Dennis's elderly neighbors; Margaret and Joey, Dennis's friends; and Ruff, Dennis's dog.

Cast: Victor DiMattia (Dennis Mitchell), Jim Jansen (Henry Mitchell), Patricia Estrin (Alice Mitchell), William Windom (George Wilson), Patsy Garrett (Martha Wilson), Kirsten Price (Margaret), Jarrett Lennon (Joey), O.J. (Ruff). Guest Cast: Barton Tinapp (Bones), Zachary Bostrom (Pee Wee), Molly Morgan (Gina), John Alvin (Mr. Bonfigli).

2000 Denver: The Last Dinosaur. (Pilot; Cartoon; Syn.; 4/15/88). While playing near the LaBrea Tar Pits in Southern California, three boys (Mario, Jeremy and Shades) find a dinosaur egg. The egg hatches and a baby dinosaur they name Denver emerges. A unique friendship begins as the four set out on various adventures. In the pilot episode, the boys teach Denver about life in the 1980s.

