rely verb 1 we can rely on his discretion: depend, count, bank, place reliance, reckon; be confident of, be sure of, believe in, have faith in, trust in; informal swear by; N. Amer. informal figure on. 2 we rely on government funding: be dependent, depend, be unable to manage without.

remain verb 1 the problem will remain: continue to exist, endure, last, abide, carry on, persist, stay (around), prevail, survive, live on. 2 he remained in hospital: stay (behind/put), wait (around), be left, hang on; informal hang around/round; Brit. informal hang about; old use bide. 3 union leaders remain sceptical: continue to be, stay, keep, persist in being, carry on being.

remainder noun residue, balance, remaining part/number, rest, others, those left, remnant(s), surplus, extra, excess, overflow; technical residuum.

remaining adjective 1 the remaining workers: residual, surviving, left (over); extra, surplus, spare, superfluous, excess. 2 his remaining jobs: unsettled, outstanding, unfinished, incomplete, to be done, unattended to. 3 my only remaining memories: surviving, lasting, enduring, continuing, persisting, abiding, (still) existing.

remains plural noun 1 the remains of her drink: remainder, residue, remaining part/number, rest, remnant(s); technical residuum. 2 Roman remains: antiquities, relics, reliquiae. 3 the saint's remains: corpse, (dead) body, carcass; bones, skeleton; Medicine cadaver.

remark verb 1 'You're quiet,' he remarked: comment, say, observe, mention, reflect, state, declare, announce, pronounce, assert; formal opine. 2 many critics remarked on their rapport: comment, mention, refer to, speak of, pass comment on. 3 he remarked the absence of policemen: note, notice, observe, take note of, perceive, discern.

• noun 1 his remarks have been misinterpreted: comment, statement, utterance, observation, declaration, pronouncement. 2 worthy of remark: attention, notice, comment, mention, observation, acknowledgement.

remarkable adjective extraordinary, exceptional, amazing, astonishing, astounding, marvellous, wonderful, sensational, stunning, incredible, unbelievable, phenomenal, outstanding, momentous; out of the ordinary, unusual, uncommon, surprising; informal fantastic, terrific, tremendous, stupendous, awesome; literary wondrous.

– OPPOSITES ordinary.

remediable adjective curable, treatable, operable; solvable, reparable, rectifiable, resolvable.

– OPPOSITES incurable.

remedy noun 1 herbal remedies: treatment, cure, medicine, medication, medicament, drug; old use physic. 2 a remedy for all kinds of problems: solution, answer, cure, antidote, curative, nostrum, panacea, cure-all; informal magic bullet.

• verb 1 remedying the situation: put/set right, put/set to rights, right, rectify, solve, sort out, straighten out, resolve, correct, repair, mend, make good. 2 anaemia can be remedied by iron tablets: cure, treat, heal, make better; relieve, ease, alleviate, palliate.

remember verb 1 remembering happy times: recall, call to mind, recollect, think of; reminisce about, look back on; old use bethink oneself of. 2 can you remember all that? memorize, commit to memory, retain; learn off by heart. 3 you must remember she's only five: bear/keep in mind, be mindful of the fact; take into account, take into consideration. 4 remember to feed the cat: be sure, be certain; mind that you, make sure that you. 5 remember me to Alice: send one's best wishes to, send one's regards to, give one's love to, send one's compliments to, say hello to. 6 the nation remembered those who gave their lives: commemorate, pay tribute to, honour, salute, pay homage to. 7 she remembered them in her will: bequeath something to, leave something to, bestow something on.

– OPPOSITES forget.

remembrance noun 1 an expression of remembrance: recollection, reminiscence; remembering, recalling, recollecting, reminiscing. 2 she smiled at the remembrance: memory, recollection, reminiscence, thought. 3 we sold poppies in remembrance: commemoration, memory, recognition. 4 a remembrance of my father: memento, reminder, keepsake, souvenir, memorial, token.

remind verb 1 I left a note to remind him: jog someone's memory, help someone remember, prompt. 2 the song reminded me of my sister: make someone think of, make someone remember, put someone in mind of, bring/call to mind, evoke.

reminder noun prompt, aide-memoire, mnemonic.

reminisce verb remember, cast one's mind back to, look back on, be nostalgic about, recall, recollect, reflect on, call to mind.

reminiscences plural noun memories, recollections, reflections, remembrances.

reminiscent adjective similar to, comparable with, evocative of, suggestive of, redolent of.

remiss adjective negligent, neglectful, irresponsible, careless, thoughtless, heedless, lax, slack, sloppy, slipshod, lackadaisical; N. Amer. derelict; formal delinquent.

– OPPOSITES careful.

remission noun 1 the remission of all fees: cancellation, setting aside, suspension, revocation; formal abrogation. 2 the cancer is in remission: respite, abeyance. 3 the wind howled without remission: respite, lessening, abatement, easing, decrease, reduction, diminution, dying down, slackening, lull; informal let-up. 4 the remission of sins: forgiveness, pardoning, absolution, exoneration; formal exculpation.

remit verb 1 the fines were remitted: cancel, set aside, suspend, revoke; formal abrogate. 2 remitting duties to the authorities: send, dispatch, forward, hand over; pay. 3 the case was remitted to the Court of Appeal: pass (on), refer, send on, transfer. 4 (rare) we remitted all further discussion: postpone, defer, put off/back, shelve, delay, suspend; N. Amer. table; informal put on the back burner, put on ice. 5 remitting their sins: pardon, forgive; excuse. 6 (old use) the fever remitted: diminish, lessen, decrease, ease (up), abate, moderate, subside.

• noun that is outside his remit: area of responsibility, sphere, orbit, scope, ambit, province; brief, instructions, orders; informal bailiwick.

remittance noun 1 send the form with your remittance: payment, money, fee; cheque; formal monies. 2 a monthly remittance: allowance, sum of money.

remnant noun 1 the remnants of the picnic: remains, remainder, leftovers, residue, rest; technical residuum. 2 remnants of cloth: scrap, piece, bit, fragment, shred, offcut, oddment.

remonstrate verb 1 'I'm not a child!' he remonstrated: protest, complain, expostulate; argue with, take issue with. 2 we remonstrated against this proposal: object strongly to, complain vociferously about, protest against, argue against, oppose strongly, make a fuss about, challenge; deplore, condemn, denounce, criticize; informal kick up a fuss/stink about.

remorse noun contrition, regret, repentance, penitence, guilt, compunction, remorsefulness, ruefulness, contriteness; pangs of conscience.

remorseful adjective sorry, full of regret, regretful, contrite, repentant, penitent, guilt-ridden, conscience-stricken, guilty, chastened, self-reproachful.

– OPPOSITES unrepentant.

remorseless adjective 1 heartless, pitiless, merciless, ruthless, callous, cruel, hard-hearted, inhumane, unmerciful, unforgiving, unfeeling. 2 remorseless cost-cutting: relentless, unrelenting, unremitting, unabating, inexorable, unstoppable.

– OPPOSITES compassionate.

remote adjective 1 areas remote from hospitals: faraway, distant, far (off), far removed. 2 a remote mountain village: isolated, out of the way, off the beaten track, secluded, lonely, in the back of beyond, godforsaken, inaccessible; N. Amer. in the backwoods, lonesome; Austral./NZ in the backblocks, in the booy; informal in the sticks, in the middle of nowhere; N. Amer. informal in the tall timbers; Austral./NZ informal beyond the black stump; old use unapproachable. 3 events remote from modern times: irrelevant to, unrelated to, unconnected to, unconcerned with, not pertinent to, immaterial to, unassociated with; foreign to, alien to. 4 a remote possibility: unlikely, improbable, implausible, doubtful, dubious; faint, slight, slim, small, slender. 5 she seems very remote: aloof, distant, detached, withdrawn, reserved, uncommunicative, unforthcoming, unapproachable, unresponsive, unfriendly, unsociable, introspective, introverted; informal stand-offish.

– OPPOSITES close, central.

removal noun 1 the removal of heavy artillery: taking away, moving, carrying away. 2 his removal from office: dismissal, ejection, expulsion, ousting, displacement, deposition; N. Amer. ouster; informal sacking, firing. 3 the removal of customs barriers: withdrawal, elimination, taking away. 4 the removal of errors: deletion, elimination, erasing, effacing, obliteration. 5 the removal of weeds: uprooting, eradication. 6 the removal of old branches: cutting off, chopping off, hacking off. 7 her removal to France: move, transfer, relocation. 8 the removal of a rival: killing, murder, elimination; informal liquidation.

– OPPOSITES installation.

remove verb 1 remove the plug: detach, unfasten; pull out, take out, disconnect. 2 she removed the lid: take off, undo, unfasten. 3 he removed a note from his wallet: take out, extract, produce, bring out, get out, pull out, withdraw. 4 police removed boxes of documents: take away, carry away, move, transport; confiscate; informal cart off. 5 Sheila removed the mud: clean off, wash off, wipe off, rinse off, scrub off, sponge out. 6 Henry removed his coat: take off, pull off, slip out of; Brit. informal peel off. 7 he was removed from his post: dismiss, discharge, get rid of, dislodge, displace, expel, oust, depose; informal sack, fire, kick out, boot out; Brit. informal turf out. 8 tax relief was removed: withdraw, abolish, eliminate, get rid of, do away with, stop, cut, axe. 9 Gabriel removed two words: delete, erase, rub out, cross out, strike out, score out. 10 weeds have to be removed: uproot, pull out, eradicate. 11 removing branches: cut off, chop off, lop off, hack off. 12 (dated) he removed to Edinburgh: move (house), relocate, transfer; emigrate; Brit. informal up sticks; N. Amer. informal pull up stakes. 13 the mobsters removed their enemies. See KILL verb sense 1.

– OPPOSITES attach, insert, replace.

• noun it is impossible, at this remove, to reconstruct the accident: distance, space of time, interval.

removed adjective distant, remote, disconnected; unrelated, unconnected, alien, foreign.

remunerate verb pay, reward, reimburse, recompense.

remuneration noun payment, pay, salary, wages; earnings, fee(s), reward, recompense, reimbursement; formal emolument(s).

remunerative adjective lucrative, well paid, financially rewarding; profitable.

renaissance noun revival, renewal, resurrection, reawakening, re-emergence, rebirth, reappearance, resurgence, regeneration; formal renascence.

rend verb tear/rip apart, tear/rip in two, split, rupture, sever; literary tear/rip asunder, sunder; rare dissever; old use rive.

render verb 1 her fury rendered her speechless: make, cause to be/become, leave. 2 rendering assistance: give, provide, supply, furnish, contribute; offer, proffer. 3 the invoices rendered by the accountants: send in, present, submit. 4 the jury rendered their verdict: deliver, return, hand down, give, announce. 5 paintings rendered in vivid colours: paint, draw, depict, portray, represent, execute; literary limn. 6 she rendered all three verses: perform, sing. 7 the characters are vividly rendered: act, perform, play, depict, interpret. 8 the phrase was rendered into English: translate, put, express, rephrase, reword. 9 he rendered up the stolen money: give back, return, restore, pay back, repay, hand over, give up, surrender. 10 the fat can be rendered: melt down, clarify.

rendezvous noun Edward was late for their rendezvous: meeting, appointment, assignation; informal date; literary tryst.

• verb the bar where they had agreed to rendezvous: meet, come together, gather, assemble.

rendition noun 1 our rendition of Beethoven's Fifth: performance, rendering, interpretation, presentation, execution, delivery. 2 the artist's rendition of Adam and Eve: depiction, portrayal, representation. 3 an interpreter's rendition of the message: translation, interpretation, version.

renegade noun 1 he was denounced as a renegade: traitor, defector, deserter, turncoat, rebel, mutineer; rare tergiversator.

2 (old use) a religious renegade: apostate, heretic, dissenter; old use recreant.

• adjective 1 renegade troops: treacherous, traitorous, disloyal, treasonous, rebel, mutinous. 2 a renegade monk: apostate, heretic, heretical, dissident; old use recreant.

– OPPOSITES loyal.

renee verb default on, fail to honour, go back on, break, back out of, withdraw from, retreat from, welsh on, backtrack on; break one's word/promise.

– OPPOSITES honour.

renew verb 1 I renewed my search: resume, return to, take up again, come back to, begin again, start again, restart, recommence; continue (with), carry on (with). 2 they renewed their vows: reaffirm, reassert; repeat, reiterate, restate. 3 something to renew her interest in life: revive, regenerate, revitalize, reinvigorate, restore, resuscitate, breathe new life into; old use renovate. 4 the hotel was completely renewed: renovate, restore, refurbish, modernize, overhaul, redevelop, rebuild, reconstruct, remodel; N. Amer. bring something up to code; informal do up; N. Amer. informal rehab. 5 they renewed Jackie's contract: extend, prolong. 6 I renewed my supply of toilet paper: replenish, restock, resupply, top up, replace.

renewal noun 1 the renewal of our friendship: resumption, recommencement, re-establishment; continuation. 2 spiritual renewal: regeneration, revival, reinvigoration, revitalization; old use renovation. 3 the renewal of older urban areas: renovation, restoration, modernization, reconditioning, overhauling, redevelopment, rebuilding, reconstruction.

renounce verb 1 Edward renounced his claim to the throne: give up, relinquish, abandon, abdicate, surrender, waive, forgo; Law disclaim; formal abnegate. 2 Hungary renounced the agreement: reject, refuse to abide by, repudiate. 3 she renounced her family: repudiate, deny, reject, abandon, wash one's hands of, turn one's back on, disown, spurn, shun; literary forsake. 4 he renounced alcohol: abstain from, give up, desist from, refrain from, keep off, eschew; informal quit, pack in, lay off; formal forswear.

– OPPOSITES assert, accept.

renovate verb modernize, restore, refurbish, revamp, recondition, rehabilitate, overhaul, redevelop; update, upgrade, refit; N. Amer. bring something up to code; informal do up; N. Amer. informal rehab.

renown noun fame, distinction, eminence, pre-eminence, prominence, repute, reputation, prestige, acclaim, celebrity, notability.

renowned adjective famous, celebrated, famed, eminent, distinguished, acclaimed, illustrious, pre-eminent, prominent, great, esteemed, of note, of repute, well known, well thought of.

– OPPOSITES unknown.

rent<sup>1</sup> verb 1 she rented a car: hire, lease, charter. 2 why don't you rent it out? let (out), lease (out), hire (out); sublet, sublease.

rent<sup>2</sup> noun 1 the rent in his trousers: rip, tear, split, hole, slash, slit. 2 a vast rent in the mountains: gorge, chasm, fault, rift, fissure, crevasse.

renunciation noun 1 Henry's renunciation of his throne: relinquishment, giving up, abandonment, abdication, surrender, waiving, forgoing; Law disclaimer; rare abnegation. 2 his renunciation of luxury: abstention, refraining, going without, giving up, eschewal; formal forswearing. 3 their renunciation of terrorism: repudiation, rejection, abandonment.

reorganize verb restructure, change, alter, adjust, transform, shake up, rationalize, rearrange, reshape, overhaul.

repair<sup>1</sup> verb 1 the car was repaired: mend, fix (up), put/set right, restore (to working order), overhaul, service; informal patch up. 2 they repaired the costumes: mend, darn; informal patch up. 3 repairing relations with other countries: put/set right, mend, fix, straighten out, improve; informal patch up. 4 she sought to repair the wrong she had done: rectify, make good, (put) right, correct, make up for, make amends for, make reparation for.

• noun 1 in need of repair: restoration, fixing (up), mending, renovation; old use reparation.

2 an invisible repair: mend, darn. 3 in good repair: condition, working order, state, shape, fettle; Brit. informal nick.

■ beyond repair irreparable, irreversible, irretrievable, irremediable, irrecoverable, past hope.

repair<sup>2</sup> verb (formal) we repaired to the sitting room: go, head for, adjourn, wend one's way; formal remove; literary betake oneself.

reparable adjective rectifiable, remediable, curable, restorable, recoverable, retrievable, salvageable.

reparation noun amends, restitution, redress, compensation, recompense, repayment, atonement.

repartee noun banter, badinage, bantering, raillery, witticism(s), ripostes, sallies, quips, joking, jesting, chaff, chaffing; formal personification.

repast noun (formal) meal, feast, banquet; informal spread, feed, bite (to eat); Brit. informal nosh-up; formal collation; literary refection.

repay verb 1 repaying customers who have been cheated: reimburse, refund, pay back/off, recompense, compensate, indemnify. 2 the grants have to be repaid: pay back, return, refund, reimburse. 3 I'd like to repay her generosity: reciprocate, return, requite, recompense, reward. 4 interesting books that would repay further study: be well worth, be worth one's while.

repayment noun 1 the repayment of tax: refund, reimbursement, paying back. 2 repayment for all they have done: recompense, reward, compensation.

repeal verb the Act was repealed: revoke, rescind, cancel, reverse, annul, nullify, declare null and void, quash, abolish; Law vacate; formal abrogate; old use recall.

– OPPOSITES enact.

• noun the repeal of the law: revocation, rescinding, cancellation, reversal, annulment, nullification, quashing, abolition; formal abrogation; old use recall.

repeat verb 1 she repeated her story: say again, restate, reiterate, go/run through again, recapitulate; informal recap. 2 children can repeat large chunks of text: recite, quote, parrot, regurgitate; informal trot out. 3 Steele was invited to repeat his work: do again, redo, replicate, duplicate. 4 the episodes were repeated: rebroadcast, rerun, reshoot, show again.

• noun 1 a repeat of the previous year's final: repetition, duplication, replication, duplicate. 2 repeats of his TV show: rerun, rebroadcast, reshooting.

■ repeat itself reoccur, recur, occur again, happen again.

repeated adjective recurrent, frequent, persistent, continual, incessant, constant; regular, periodic, numerous, (very) many, a great many.

– OPPOSITES occasional.

repeatedly adverb frequently, often, again and again, over and over (again), time and (time) again, many times, many a time; persistently, recurrently, constantly, continually, regularly; N. Amer. oftentimes; informal 24-7; literary oft, oft-times.

repel verb 1 the rebels were repelled: fight off, repulse, drive back/away, force back, beat back, push back; hold off, ward off, keep at bay; Brit. see off; old use rebut. 2 the coating will repel water: be impervious to, be impermeable to, keep out, resist. 3 the thought of kissing him repelled me: revolt, disgust, repulse, sicken, nauseate, turn someone's stomach, be repulsive, be distasteful, be repugnant; informal turn off; N. Amer. informal gross out.

repellent adjective 1 a repellent stench: revolting, repulsive, disgusting, repugnant, sickening, nauseating, stomach-turning, nauseous, vile, nasty, foul, horrible, awful, dreadful, terrible, obnoxious, loathsome, offensive, objectionable; abhorrent, despicable, reprehensible, contemptible, odious, hateful, execrable; N. Amer. vomitous; informal ghastrly, horrid, gross, rank, yucky, icky; literary noisome; old use disgusting. 2 a repellent coating: impermeable, impervious; -proof, -resistant.

– OPPOSITES delightful.

repent verb feel remorse, regret, be sorry, rue, reproach oneself, be ashamed, feel contrite; be penitent, be remorseful, be repentant.

repentance noun remorse, contrition, contriteness, penitence, regret, ruefulness, remorsefulness, shame, guilt; old use rue.

repentant adjective penitent, contrite, regretful, rueful, remorseful, apologetic, chastened, ashamed, shamefaced.

—OPPOSITES impenitent.

repercussion noun 1 political repercussions: consequence, result, effect, outcome; reverberation, backlash, aftermath, fallout; US blowback. 2 (old use) a vicious repercussion: reverberation, recoil, kickback.

repertoire noun collection, stock, range, repertory, reserve, store, repository, supply.

repetition noun 1 the statistics bear repetition: reiteration, repeating, restatement, retelling. 2 the repetition of words: repeating, echoing, parroting. 3 a repetition of the scene in the kitchen: recurrence, reoccurrence, rerun, repeat. 4 there is some repetition: repetitiveness, repetitiveness, redundancy, tautology.

repetitious adjective repetitious work. See REPETITIVE.

repetitive adjective monotonous, tedious, boring, humdrum, mundane, dreary, tiresome; unvaried, unchanging, unvarying, recurrent, recurring, repeated, repetitious, routine, mechanical, automatic.

rephrase verb reword, put in other words, express differently, paraphrase.

repine verb (literary) fret, be/feel unhappy, mope, eat one's heart out, brood; lament, grieve, mourn, sorrow, pine.

replace verb 1 Adam replaced the receiver: put back, return, restore. 2 a new chairman came in to replace him: take the place of, succeed, take over from, supersede; stand in for, substitute for, deputize for, cover for, relieve; informal step into someone's shoes/boots. 3 she replaced the spoon with a fork: substitute, exchange, change, swap.

—OPPOSITES remove.

replacement noun 1 we have to find a replacement: successor; substitute, stand-in, locum, relief, cover. 2 the wiring was in need of replacement: renewal, replacing.

replenish verb 1 she replenished their glasses: refill, top up, fill up, recharge; N. Amer. freshen. 2 their supplies were replenished: stock up, restock, restore, replace.

—OPPOSITES empty, exhaust.

replete adjective 1 the guests were replete: well fed, sated, satiated, full (up); gluttoned, gorged; informal stuffed. 2 a sumptuous environment replete with antiques: filled, full, well stocked, well supplied, crammed, packed, jammed, teeming, overflowing, bursting; informal jam-packed, chock-a-block.

replica noun 1 is it real or a replica? copy, model, duplicate, reproduction, replication; dummy, imitation, facsimile, carbon copy. 2 a replica of her mother: perfect likeness, double, lookalike, (living) image, twin, clone; informal spitting image, (dead) ringer.

replicate verb copy, reproduce, duplicate, recreate, repeat, perform again; clone.

reply verb 1 Rachel didn't reply: answer, respond, come back, write back. 2 he replied defensively: respond, answer, rejoin, retort, riposte, counter, come back.

• noun he waited for a reply: answer, response, rejoinder, retort, riposte; informal comeback.

report verb 1 the government reported a fall in inflation: announce, describe, give an account of, detail, outline, communicate, divulge, disclose, reveal, make public, publish, broadcast, proclaim, publicize. 2 the newspapers reported on the scandal: investigate, look into, inquire into; write about, cover, describe, give details of, commentate on. 3 I reported him to the police: inform on, tattle on; informal shop, tell on, squeal on, rat on, peach on; Brit. informal grass on. 4 Juliet reported for duty: present oneself, arrive, turn up, clock in, sign in; Brit. clock on; N. Amer. punch in; informal show up. • noun 1 a full report on the meeting: account, review, record, description, statement; transactions, proceedings, transcripts, minutes. 2 reports of drug dealing: news, information, word, intelligence; literary tidings. 3 newspaper reports: story, account, article, piece, item, column, feature, bulletin, dispatch. 4 (Brit.) a school report: assessment, evaluation, appraisal; N. Amer. report card. 5 reports of his imminent resignation: rumour, whisper; informal buzz; old use bruit. 6 the report of a gun: bang, blast, crack, shot, gunshot, explosion, boom. 7 (old use) of good report. See REPUTATION.

reporter noun journalist, correspondent, newspaperman, newspaperwoman, newsmen, newswoman, columnist; Brit. pressman; N. Amer. legman, wireman; Austral. roundsman; informal news hound, hack, stringer, journo; N. Amer. informal newsy.

repose noun 1 a face in repose: rest, relaxation, inactivity; sleep, slumber. 2 they found true repose: peace (and quiet), peacefulness, quiet, quietness, calm, tranquillity. 3 he lost his repose: composure, serenity, equanimity, poise, self-possession, aplomb.

• verb 1 the diamond reposed on a bed of velvet: lie, rest, be placed, be situated. 2 (literary) the trust he had reposed in her: put, place, invest, entrust. 3 the beds where we reposed: lie (down), recline, rest, sleep; literary slumber.

repository noun store, storehouse, depository; reservoir, bank, cache, treasury, fund, mine.

reprehensible adjective deplorable, disgraceful, discreditable, despicable, blameworthy, culpable, wrong, bad, shameful, dishonourable, objectionable, opprobrious, repugnant, inexcusable, unforgivable, indefensible, unjustifiable; criminal, sinful, scandalous, iniquitous; formal exceptionable.

—OPPOSITES praiseworthy.

represent verb 1 a character representing a single quality: symbolize, stand for, personify, epitomize, typify, embody, illustrate. 2 the initials which represent her qualification: stand for, designate, denote; literary betoken. 3 Hathor is represented as a woman with cow's horns: depict, portray, render, picture, delineate, show, illustrate; literary limn. 4 he represented himself as the owner of the factory: describe as, present as, profess to be, claim to be, pass oneself off as, pose as, pretend to be. 5 ageing represents a threat to one's independence: constitute, be, amount to, be regarded as. 6 a panel representing a cross section of the public: be a typical sample of, be representative of, typify. 7 his solicitor represented him in court: appear for, act for, speak on behalf of. 8 the Queen was represented by Lord Lewin: deputize for, substitute for, stand in for. 9 (formal) I represented the case as I saw it: point out, state, present, put forward. 10 (formal) the vendors represented that the information was accurate: claim, maintain, state, affirm, contend; rare asseverate.

representation noun 1 Rossetti's representation of women: portrayal, depiction, delineation, presentation, rendition. 2 representations of the human form: likeness, painting, drawing, picture, illustration, sketch, image, model, figure, figurine, statue, statuette. 3 (formal) making representations to the council: statement, deposition, allegation, declaration, exposition, report, protestation.

representative adjective 1 a representative sample: typical, prototypical, characteristic, illustrative, archetypal. 2 a female figure representative of Britain: symbolic, emblematic. 3 representative government: elected, elective, democratic, popular.

– OPPOSITES atypical, totalitarian.
• noun 1 a representative of the Royal Society: spokesperson, spokesman, spokeswoman, agent, official, mouthpiece. 2 a sales representative: (commercial) traveller, (travelling) salesman, saleswoman, agent; informal rep; N. Amer. informal drummer. 3 the Cambodian representative at the UN: delegate, commissioner, ambassador, attaché, envoy, emissary, chargé d'affaires, deputy. 4 our representatives in parliament: Member (of Parliament), MP; councillor; N. Amer. Member of Congress, senator. 5 he acted as his father's representative: deputy, substitute, stand-in, proxy. 6 fossil representatives of lampreys: example, specimen, exemplar, exemplification.

repress verb 1 the rebellion was repressed: suppress, quell, quash, subdue, put down, crush, extinguish, stamp out, defeat, conquer, rout, overwhelm, contain. 2 the peasants were repressed: oppress, subjugate, keep down, rule with a rod of iron, intimidate, tyrannize, crush. 3 these emotions may well be repressed: restrain, hold back/in, keep back, suppress, keep in check, control, keep under control, curb, stifle, bottle up; informal button up, keep the lid on.

repressed adjective 1 a repressed country: oppressed, subjugated, subdued, tyrannized. 2 repressed feelings: restrained, suppressed, held back/in, kept in check, stifled, pent up, bottled up. 3 emotionally repressed: inhibited, frustrated, restrained; informal uptight, hung up.

– OPPOSITES democratic, uninhibited.

repression noun 1 the repression of the protests: suppression, quashing, subduing, crushing, stamping out. 2 political repression: oppression, subjugation, suppression, tyranny, despotism, authoritarianism. 3 the repression of sexual urges: restraint, restraining, holding back, keeping back, suppression, control, stifling, bottling up.

repressive adjective oppressive, authoritarian, despotic, tyrannical, dictatorial, fascist, autocratic, totalitarian, undemocratic.

reprieve verb 1 she was reprieved: grant a stay of execution to, pardon, spare, grant an amnesty to, amnesty; informal let off (the hook); old use respite. 2 the threatened pits could be reprieved: save, rescue.

• noun a last-minute reprieve: stay of execution, remission, pardon, amnesty; US Law continuance; informal let-off.

reprimand verb he was publicly reprimanded: rebuke, admonish, chastise, chide, upbraid, reprove, reproach, scold, berate, take to task, lambaste, give someone a piece of one's mind, haul over the coals, lecture, criticize, censure; informal tell off, give someone a telling-off, give someone a talking-to, dress down, give someone a dressing-down, give someone an earful, give someone a roasting, rap over the knuckles, slap someone's wrist, bawl out, pitch into, lay into, lace into, blast; Brit. informal tick off, carpet, tear off a strip, give someone what for, give someone a wiggling, give someone a rocket, give someone a rollicking; N. Amer. informal chew out, ream out; Austral. informal monster; formal castigate; dated give someone a rating; rare reprehend, objurgate.

– OPPOSITES praise.

• noun they received a severe reprimand: rebuke, reproof, admonishment, admonition, reproach, reproof, scolding, upbraiding, censure; informal telling-off, rap over the knuckles, slap on the wrist, flea in one's ear, dressing-down, earful, roasting, tongue-lashing; Brit. informal ticking-off, carpeting, wiggling, rocket, rollicking; formal castigation; dated rating.

– OPPOSITES commendation.

reprisal noun retaliation, counter-attack, comeback; revenge, vengeance, retribution, requital; informal a taste of one's own medicine.

reproach verb Albert reproached him for being late. See REPRIMAND verb.

• noun 1 an expression of reproach. See REPRIMAND noun. 2 this party is a reproach to British politics: disgrace, discredit, source of shame, blemish, stain, blot; literary smirch.

■ beyond/above reproach perfect, blameless, above suspicion, without fault, faultless, flawless, irreproachable, exemplary, impeccable, immaculate, unblemished, spotless, untarnished, stainless, unsullied, whiter than white; informal squeaky clean.

reproachful adjective disapproving, reproving, critical, censorious, disparaging, withering, accusatory, admonitory; formal castigatory.

– OPPOSITES approving.

reprobate noun a hardened reprobate:

rogue, rascal, scoundrel, miscreant, good-for-nothing, villain, wretch, rake, degenerate, libertine, debauchee; informal, dated rotter, bounder; dated cad; old use blackguard, knave, rapsallion, scapegrace.

• adjective reprobate behaviour:

unprincipled, bad, roguish, wicked, rakish, shameless, immoral, degenerate, dissipated, debauched, depraved; old use knavish.

• verb (old use) they reprobated his conduct:

criticize, condemn, censure, denounce.

reproduce verb 1 each artwork is reproduced

in colour: copy, duplicate, replicate; photocopy, xerox, photostat, print. 2 this work has not been reproduced in other laboratories: repeat, replicate, recreate, redo; simulate, imitate, emulate, mirror, mimic. 3 some animals reproduce prolifically: breed, produce offspring, procreate, propagate, multiply.

reproduction noun 1 colour reproduction:

copying, duplication, duplicating; photocopying, xeroxing, photostatting, printing. 2 a reproduction of the original: print, copy, reprint, duplicate, facsimile, carbon copy, photocopy; trademark Xerox. 3 the process of reproduction: breeding, procreation, multiplying, propagation.

reproductive adjective generative, procreative, propagative; sexual, genital.

reproof noun rebuke, reprimand, reproach, admonishment, admonition; disapproval, censure, criticism, condemnation; informal telling-off, dressing down; Brit. informal ticking-off; dated rating.

reprove verb reprimand, rebuke, reproach, scold, admonish, chastise, chide, upbraid, berate, take to task, haul over the coals, criticize, censure; informal tell off, give someone a telling-off, give someone a talking-to, dress down, give someone a dressing-down, give someone an earful, give someone a roasting, rap over the knuckles, slap someone's wrist; Brit. informal tick off, carpet, tear off a strip, give someone a rocket, give someone a rollicking; formal castigate; dated give someone a rating; rare reprehend, objurgate.

reptile noun

WORD LINKS

herpetology the branch of zoology concerned with reptiles and amphibians reptilian adjective 1 reptilian species: reptile, reptile-like, saurian; cold-blooded. 2 a reptilian smirk: unpleasant, distasteful, nasty, disagreeable, unattractive, off-putting, horrible, horrid; unctuous, ingratiating, oily, oleaginous; informal smarmy, slimy, creepy.

repudiate verb 1 she repudiated communism: reject, renounce, abandon, give up, turn one's back on, disown, cast off, lay aside; formal forswear, abjure; literary forsake.

2 Cranham repudiated the allegations:

deny, refute, contradict, controvert, rebut, dispute, dismiss, brush aside; formal gainsay.

3 Egypt repudiated the treaty: cancel, revoke, rescind, reverse, overrule, overturn, invalidate, nullify; disregard, flout, renege on; Law disaffirm; formal abrogate.

– OPPOSITES embrace, confirm.

repudiation noun 1 the repudiation of one's religion: rejection, renunciation, abandonment, forswearing, giving up; rare abjuration. 2 his repudiation of the allegations: denial, refutation, rebuttal, rejection. 3 a repudiation of the contract: cancellation, revocation, rescindment, reversal, invalidation, nullification; Law disaffirmation; formal abrogation.

repugnance noun revulsion, disgust, abhorrence, repulsion, loathing, hatred, detestation, aversion, distaste, antipathy, contempt; old use disrelish.

repugnant adjective 1 the idea of cannibalism is repugnant: abhorrent, revolting, repulsive, repellent, disgusting, offensive, objectionable, vile, foul, nasty, loathsome, sickening, nauseating, hateful, detestable, horrible, execrable, abominable, monstrous, appalling, insufferable, intolerable, unacceptable, contemptible, unsavoury, unpalatable; informal ghastly, gross, horrid; literary noisome. 2 (formal) the restriction is repugnant to the tenancy: incompatible with, in conflict with, contrary to, at variance with, inconsistent with.

– OPPOSITES pleasant.

repulse verb 1 the rebels were repulsed:

repel, drive back/away, fight back/off; put to flight, force back, beat off/back; ward off, hold off; Brit. see off; old use rebut.

2 her advances were repulsed: rebuff, reject, spurn, snub, cold-shoulder; informal give someone the brush-off, freeze out; Brit. informal knock back; N. Amer. informal give someone the bum's rush. 3 his bid for the company was repulsed: reject, turn down, refuse, decline. 4 the brutality repulsed her: revolt, disgust, repel, sicken, nauseate, turn someone's stomach, be repugnant to; informal turn off; N. Amer. informal gross out.

• noun 1 the repulse of the attack: repelling, driving back; warding off, holding off.

2 he was mortified by this repulse: rebuff, rejection, snub, slight; informal brush-off, knock-back.

repulsion noun disgust, revulsion, abhorrence, repugnance, nausea, horror, aversion, abomination, distaste; old use disrelish.

repulsive adjective revolting, disgusting, abhorrent, repellent, repugnant, offensive, objectionable, vile, foul, nasty, loathsome, sickening, nauseating, hateful, detestable, execrable, abominable, horrible, monstrous, noxious, horrendous, awful, terrible, dreadful, frightful, obnoxious, unsavoury, unpleasant, disagreeable, distasteful; ugly, hideous, grotesque; informal ghastly, horrid, gross, rank; literary noisome; old use disgusting, loathly.

– OPPOSITES attractive.

reputable adjective well thought of, highly regarded, (well) respected, respectable, of (good) repute, prestigious, established; reliable, dependable, trustworthy; old use of good report.

– OPPOSITES untrustworthy.

reputation noun (good) name, character, repute, standing, stature, status, position, renown, esteem, prestige; N. Amer. informal rep, rap; old use honour, report.

repute noun 1 a woman of ill repute:

reputation, name, character; old use report. 2 a firm of international repute: fame, renown, celebrity, distinction, high standing, stature, prestige.

reputed adjective 1 they are reputed to be very rich: thought, said, reported, rumoured, believed, held, considered, regarded, deemed, alleged. 2 a reputed naturalist: well thought of, (well) respected, highly regarded, of good repute.

reputedly adverb supposedly, by all accounts, so I'm told, so people say, allegedly.

request noun 1 requests for assistance: appeal, entreaty, plea, petition, application, demand, call; formal adjuration; literary behest.

2 Charlotte spoke, at Ursula's request: bidding, entreaty, demand, insistence.

3 indicate your requests on the form:

requirement, wish, desire; choice.

• verb 1 the government requested military aid: ask for, appeal for, call for, seek, solicit, plead for, apply for, demand; formal adjure. 2 I requested him to help: call on, beg, entreat, implore; literary beseech.

require verb 1 the child required hospital treatment: need, be in need of. 2 a situation requiring patience: necessitate, demand, call for, involve, entail. 3 unquestioning obedience is required: demand, insist on, call for, ask for, expect. 4 she was required to pay costs: order, instruct, command, enjoin, oblige, compel, force. 5 do you require anything else? want, wish to have, desire; lack, be short of.

required adjective 1 required reading: essential, vital, indispensable, necessary, compulsory, obligatory, mandatory, prescribed. 2 cut it to the required length: desired, preferred, chosen; correct, proper, right.

– OPPOSITES optional.

requirement noun need, wish, demand, want, necessity, essential, prerequisite, stipulation.

requisite adjective he lacks the requisite skills: necessary, required, prerequisite, essential, indispensable, vital.

– OPPOSITES optional.

• noun 1 toilet requisites: requirement, need, necessity, essential. 2 a requisite for a successful career: necessity, essential (requirement), prerequisite, precondition, sine qua non; informal must.

requisition noun 1 requisitions for staff: order, request, call, application, claim, demand; Brit. indent. 2 the requisition of cultural treasures: appropriation, commandeering, seizure, confiscation, expropriation.

• verb 1 the house was requisitioned by the army: commandeer, appropriate, take over, take possession of, occupy, seize, confiscate, expropriate. 2 she requisitioned statements: request, order, call for, demand.

requital noun 1 in requital of your kindness: repayment, return, payment, recompense.

2 personal requital: revenge, vengeance, retribution, redress.

requite verb 1 requiting their hospitality: return, reciprocate, repay. 2 Drake had requited the wrongs inflicted on them:

avenge, exact revenge for, revenge, pay someone back for; take reprisals, settle the score, get even. 3 she did not requite his love: reciprocate, return.

rescind verb revoke, repeal, cancel, reverse, overturn, overrule, annul, nullify, void, invalidate, quash, abolish; Law vacate; formal abrogate; old use recall.

– OPPOSITES enforce.

rescission noun (formal) revocation, repeal, rescindment, annulment, nullification, invalidation, voiding; formal abrogation; old use recall.

rescue verb 1 an attempt to rescue the hostages: save, save the life of, come to the aid of; (set) free, release, liberate. 2 Boyd rescued his papers: retrieve, recover, salvage, get back.

• noun the rescue of 10 crewmen: saving, rescuing; release, freeing, liberation, deliverance, redemption.

■ come to someone's rescue help, assist, lend a (helping) hand to, bail out; informal save someone's bacon, save someone's neck, save someone's skin.

research noun 1 medical research: investigation, experimentation, testing, analysis, fact-finding, examination, scrutiny, scrutinization. 2 he continued his researches: experiments, experimentation, tests, inquiries, studies.

• verb 1 the phenomenon has been widely researched: investigate, study, inquire into, look into, probe, explore, analyse, examine, scrutinize, review. 2 I researched all the available material: study, read (up on), sift through; informal check out.

resemblance noun similarity, likeness, similitude, correspondence, congruity, congruence, coincidence, conformity, agreement, equivalence, comparability, parallelism, uniformity, sameness.

resemble verb look like, be similar to, be like, bear a resemblance to, remind one of, take after, favour, have the look of; approximate to, smack of, have (all) the hallmarks of, correspond to, echo, mirror, parallel.

resent verb begrudge, feel aggrieved at/about, feel bitter about, grudge, be annoyed at/about, be resentful of, dislike, take exception to, object to, take amiss, take offence at, take umbrage at, bear/harbour a grudge about.

– OPPOSITES welcome.

resentful adjective aggrieved, indignant, irritated, piqued, put out, in high dudgeon, dissatisfied, disgruntled, discontented, offended, bitter, jaundiced; envious, jealous; informal miffed, peeved; Brit. informal narked; N. Amer. informal sore.

resentment noun bitterness, indignation, irritation, pique, dissatisfaction, disgruntlement, discontentment, discontent, resentfulness, bad feelings, hard feelings, ill will, acrimony, rancour, animosity, jaundice; envy, jealousy.

reservation noun 1 grave reservations: doubt, qualm, scruple; misgivings, scepticism, unease, hesitation, objection. 2 group reservations: (advance) booking; dated engagement. 3 the reservation of the room: booking, ordering, securing; dated engagement. 4 Indian reservation: reserve, enclave, sanctuary, territory, homeland. ■ without reservation wholeheartedly, unreservedly, without qualification, fully, completely, totally, entirely, wholly, unconditionally.

reserve verb 1 ask your newsagent to reserve you a copy: put to one side, put aside, set aside, keep (back), save, hold back, keep in reserve, earmark. 2 he reserved a table: book, make a reservation for, order, arrange for, secure; formal bespeak; dated engage. 3 the management reserves the right to alter the programme: retain, keep, hold. 4 reserve your judgement until you know him better: defer, postpone, put off, delay, withhold.

• noun 1 reserves of petrol: stock, store, supply, stockpile, pool, hoard, cache.

2 the army are calling up reserves:

reinforcements, extras, auxiliaries. 3 a nature reserve: national park, sanctuary, preserve, conservation area. 4 his natural reserve: reticence, detachment, distance, remoteness, coolness, aloofness, constraint, formality; shyness, diffidence, timidity, taciturnity, inhibition; informal stand-offishness. 5 she trusted him without reserve: reservation, qualification, condition, limitation, hesitation, doubt.

• adjective a reserve goalkeeper: substitute, stand-in, relief, replacement, fallback, spare, extra.

■ in reserve available, to/on hand, ready, in readiness, set aside, at one's disposal.

reserved adjective 1 Sewell is rather reserved: reticent, quiet, private, uncommunicative, unforthcoming, undemonstrative, unsociable, formal, constrained, cool, aloof, detached, distant, remote, unapproachable, unfriendly, withdrawn, secretive, silent, taciturn; shy, retiring, diffident, timid, self-effacing, inhibited, introverted; informal stand-offish. 2 that table is reserved: booked, taken, spoken for, prearranged; dated engaged; formal bespoken.

– OPPOSITES outgoing.

reservoir noun 1 sailing on the reservoir: lake, pool, pond; water supply; Scottish loch. 2 an ink reservoir: receptacle, container, holder, repository, tank. 3 the reservoir of managerial talent: stock, store, stockpile, reserve(s), supply, bank, pool, fund.

reshuffle verb the prime minister reshuffled his cabinet: reorganize, restructure, rearrange, change (around), shake up, shuffle.

• noun a management reshuffle: reorganization, restructuring, change, rearrangement; informal shake-up.

reside verb 1 most students reside in flats: live in, occupy, inhabit, stay in, lodge in; formal dwell in, be domiciled in. 2 the paintings reside in an air-conditioned vault: be situated, be found, be located, lie.

3 executive power resides in the president: be vested in, be bestowed on, be conferred on, be in the hands of. 4 the qualities that reside within each individual: be inherent, be present, exist.

residence noun 1 (formal) her private residence: home, house, place of residence, address; quarters, lodgings; informal pad; formal dwelling (place), domicile, abode. 2 his place of residence: occupancy, habitation, residency; formal abode.

resident noun 1 the residents of New York City: inhabitant, local, citizen, native; householder, homeowner, occupier, tenant; formal denizen. 2 (Brit.) the bar is open to residents only: guest, lodger.

• adjective 1 resident in the UK: living, residing, in residence; formal dwelling. 2 a resident nanny: live-in, living in. 3 the resident registrar in obstetrics: permanent, incumbent.

residential adjective suburban, commuter, dormitory.

residual adjective 1 residual heat: remaining, leftover, unused, unconsumed. 2 residual affection: lingering, enduring, abiding, surviving, vestigial.

residue noun remainder, remaining part, rest, remnant(s); surplus, extra, excess; remains, leftovers; technical residuum.

resign verb 1 the senior manager resigned: leave, hand in one's notice, give notice, stand down, step down; informal quit. 2 19 MPs resigned their seats: give up, leave, vacate, stand down from; informal quit, pack in; old use demit. 3 he resigned his right to the title: renounce, relinquish, give up, abandon, surrender, forgo, cede; Law disclaim; literary forsake. 4 we resigned ourselves to a long wait: reconcile oneself to, become resigned to, come to terms with.

resignation noun 1 his resignation from his post: departure, leaving, standing down, stepping down; informal quitting. 2 she handed in her resignation: notice, letter of resignation. 3 he accepted his fate with resignation: patience, forbearance, stoicism, fortitude, fatalism, acceptance, acquiescence, compliance, passivity.

resigned adjective patient, long-suffering, uncomplaining, forbearing, stoical, philosophical, fatalistic, acquiescent, compliant, passive.

resilient adjective 1 resilient materials: flexible, pliable, supple; durable, hard-wearing, stout, strong, sturdy, tough. 2 young and resilient: strong, tough, hardy; quick to recover, buoyant, irrepressible.

resist verb 1 built to resist cold winters: withstand, be proof against, combat, weather, endure, be resistant to, keep out. 2 they resisted his attempts to change things: oppose, fight, refuse to accept, object to, defy, set one's face against, kick against; obstruct, impede, hinder, block, thwart, frustrate; informal be anti. 3 I resisted the urge to retort: refrain from, abstain from, forbear from, desist from, not give in to, restrain oneself from, stop oneself from. 4 she tried to resist him: struggle with/against, fight (against), stand up to, withstand, hold off; fend off, ward off.

– OPPOSITES welcome, submit.

■ cannot resist love, adore, relish, have a weakness for, be very keen on, like, delight in, enjoy, take great pleasure in; informal be mad about, get a kick/thrill out of.

resistance noun 1 resistance to change: opposition, hostility, refusal to accept. 2 a spirited resistance: opposition, fight, stand, struggle. 3 the body's resistance to disease: ability to fight off, immunity from, defences against. 4 the French resistance: resistance movement, freedom fighters, underground, partisans.

resistant adjective 1 resistant to water: impervious, unsusceptible, immune, invulnerable, proof against, unaffected by. 2 resistant to change: opposed, averse, hostile, inimical, against; informal anti.

resolute adjective determined, purposeful, resolved, adamant, single-minded, firm, unswerving, unwavering, steadfast, staunch, stalwart, unflinching, unhesitating, persistent, indefatigable, tenacious, strong-willed, unshakeable; stubborn, dogged, obstinate, obdurate, inflexible, intransigent, implacable, unyielding, unrelenting; spirited, brave, bold, courageous, plucky, indomitable; N. Amer. rock-ribbed; informal gutsy, spunky; formal pertinacious.

– OPPOSITES half-hearted.

resolution noun 1 her resolution not to smoke: intention, resolve, decision, intent, aim, plan; commitment, pledge, promise. 2 the committee passed the resolution: motion, proposal, proposition; N. Amer. resolve. 3 she handled the work with resolution: determination, purpose, purposefulness, resolve, resoluteness, single-mindedness, firmness (of purpose); steadfastness, staunchness, perseverance, persistence, indefatigability, tenacity, tenaciousness, staying power, dedication, commitment; stubbornness, doggedness, obstinacy, obduracy; boldness, spiritedness, braveness, bravery, courage, pluck, grit, courageousness; informal guts, spunk; formal pertinacity. 4 a satisfactory resolution of the problem: solution, answer, end, ending, settlement, conclusion.

resolve verb 1 this matter cannot be resolved overnight: settle, sort out, solve, find a solution to, fix, straighten out, deal with, put right, put to rights, rectify; informal hammer out, thrash out, figure out. 2 Charity resolved not to wait any longer: determine, decide, make up one's mind, take a decision. 3 the committee resolved that the project should proceed: vote, pass a resolution, rule, decide formally, agree. 4 the compounds were resolved into their active constituents: break down/up, separate, reduce, divide. 5 the ability to resolve facts into their legal categories: analyse, dissect, break down. 6 the grey smudge resolved into a sandy beach: turn, change, be transformed.

• noun 1 their intimidation merely strengthened his resolve. See RESOLUTION sense 3. 2 (N. Amer.) he made a resolve not to go there again: decision, resolution, commitment.

resolved adjective determined, hell bent, intent, set.

resonant adjective 1 a resonant voice: deep, low, sonorous, full, full-bodied, vibrant, rich, clear, ringing; loud, booming, thunderous. 2 valleys resonant with the sound of church bells: reverberating, reverberant, resounding, echoing, filled. 3 resonant words: evocative, suggestive, expressive, redolent.

resort noun 1 a seaside resort: holiday destination, (tourist) centre; informal honeypot. 2 settle the matter without resort to legal proceedings: recourse to, turning to, the use of, utilizing. 3 strike action is our last resort: expedient, measure, step, recourse, alternative, option, choice, possibility, hope. ■ in the last resort ultimately, in the end, at the end of the day, in the long run, when all is said and done.

■ resort to have recourse to, fall back on, turn to, make use of, use, employ, avail oneself of; stoop to, descend to, sink to.

resound verb 1 the explosion resounded round the silent street: echo, re-echo, reverberate, ring out, boom, thunder, rumble. 2 resounding with the clang of hammers: reverberate, echo, re-echo, resonate, ring. 3 nothing will resound like their earlier achievements: be acclaimed, be celebrated, be renowned, be famed, be glorified, be trumpeted.

resounding adjective 1 a resounding voice: reverberant, reverberating, resonant, resonating, echoing, ringing, sonorous, deep, rich, clear; loud, booming. 2 a resounding success: enormous, huge, very great, tremendous, terrific, colossal; emphatic, decisive, conclusive, outstanding, remarkable, phenomenal.

resource noun 1 use your resources

efficiently: assets, funds, wealth, money, capital; staff; supplies, materials, store(s), stock(s), reserve(s). 2 your tutor is there as a resource: facility, amenity, aid, help, support. 3 tears were her only resource: expedient, resort, course, scheme, stratagem; trick, ruse, device. 4 a person of resource: initiative, resourcefulness, enterprise, ingenuity, inventiveness; talent, ability, capability; informal gumption.

resourceful adjective ingenious, enterprising, inventive, creative; clever, talented, able, capable.

respect noun 1 the respect due to a great artist: esteem, regard, high opinion, admiration, reverence, deference, honour.

2 he spoke to her with respect: due regard, politeness, courtesy, civility, deference.

3 paying one's respects: (kind) regards, compliments, greetings, best/good wishes, felicitations, salutations; old use remembrances. 4 the report was accurate in every respect: aspect, regard, facet, feature, way, sense, particular, point, detail.

– OPPOSITES contempt.

• verb 1 he is highly respected for his industry: esteem, admire, think highly of, have a high opinion of, hold in high regard, hold in (high) esteem, look up to, revere, reverence, honour. 2 they respected our privacy: show consideration for, have regard for, observe, be mindful of, be heedful of; formal take cognizance of. 3 father respected her wishes: abide by, comply with, follow, adhere to, conform to, act in accordance with, defer to, obey, observe, keep (to).

– OPPOSITES despise, disobey.

■ with respect to/in respect of concerning, regarding, in/with regard to, with reference to, respecting, re, about, apropos, on the subject of, in connection with, vis-à-vis.

respectable adjective 1 a respectable middle-class background: reputable, of good repute, upright, honest, honourable, trustworthy, decent, good, well bred, clean-living. 2 a respectable salary: fairly good, decent, fair, reasonable, moderately good; substantial, considerable, sizeable.

– OPPOSITES disreputable, paltry.

respectful adjective deferential, reverent, reverential, dutiful; polite, well mannered, civil, courteous, gracious.

– OPPOSITES rude.

respective adjective separate, personal, own, particular, individual, specific, special, appropriate, different, various.

respite noun 1 a brief respite: rest, break, breathing space, interval, intermission, interlude, recess, lull, pause, time out; relief, relaxation, repose; informal breather, let-up. 2 respite from debts: postponement, deferment, delay, reprieve; US Law continuance.

resplendent adjective splendid, magnificent, brilliant, dazzling, glittering, gorgeous, impressive, imposing, spectacular, striking, stunning, majestic; informal splendid.

respond verb 1 they do not respond to questions: answer, reply, make a response, make a rejoinder. 2 'No,' she responded: say, answer, reply, rejoin, retort, riposte, counter. 3 they were slow to respond: react, make a response, reciprocate, retaliate.

response noun 1 his response to the question: answer, reply, rejoinder, retort, riposte; informal comeback. 2 an angry response: reaction, reply, retaliation; informal comeback.

– OPPOSITES question.

responsibility noun 1 it was his responsibility to find witnesses: duty, task, function, job, role, business; Brit. informal pigeon. 2 they denied responsibility for the bomb attack: blame, fault, guilt, culpability, liability. 3 a sense of responsibility: trustworthiness, (common) sense, maturity, reliability, dependability. 4 managerial responsibility: authority, control, power, leadership.

responsible adjective 1 who is responsible for prisons? in charge of, in control of, at the helm of, accountable for, liable for. 2 I am responsible for the mistake: accountable, answerable, to blame, guilty, culpable, blameworthy, at fault, in the wrong. 3 a responsible job: important, powerful, executive. 4 he is responsible to the president: answerable, accountable. 5 a responsible tenant: trustworthy, sensible, mature, reliable, dependable.

responsive adjective quick to react, reactive, receptive, open to suggestions, amenable, flexible, forthcoming.

rest<sup>1</sup> verb 1 he needed to rest: relax, take a rest, ease up/off, let up, slow down, have/take a break, unbend, unwind, recharge one's batteries, be at leisure, take it easy, put one's feet up; lie down, go to bed, have/take a nap, catnap, doze, sleep; informal take five, have/take a breather, snatch forty winks, get some shut-eye; Brit. informal chill out; N. Amer. informal catch some Zs. 2 his hands rested on the rail: lie, be laid, repose, be placed, be positioned, be supported by. 3 she rested her basket on the ground: support, prop (up), lean, lay, set, stand, position, place, put. 4 the film script rests on an improbable premise: be based, depend, be dependent, rely, hinge, turn on, be contingent, revolve around.

• noun 1 get some rest: repose, relaxation, leisure, respite, time off, breathing space; sleep, nap, doze; informal shut-eye, snooze, lie-down, forty winks; Brit. informal kip. 2 a short rest from work: holiday, vacation, break, breathing space, interval, interlude, intermission, time off/out; informal breather. 3 she took the poker from its rest: stand, base, holder, support, rack, frame, shelf. 4 we came to rest 100 metres lower: a standstill, a halt, a stop.

rest<sup>2</sup> noun the rest of the board are appointees: remainder, residue, balance, remaining part/number/quantity, others, those left, remains, remnant(s), surplus, excess; technical residuum.

•verb you may rest assured that he is there: remain, continue to be, stay, keep, carry on being.

restaurant noun bistro, brasserie, cafe, cafeteria; N. Amer. diner/informal eatery.

restful adjective relaxed, relaxing, quiet, calm, calming, tranquil, soothing, peaceful, placid, reposeful, leisurely, undisturbed, untroubled.

– OPPOSITES exciting.

restitution noun 1 restitution of the land seized: return, restoration, handing back, surrender. 2 restitution for the damage caused: compensation, recompense, reparation, damages, indemnification, indemnity, reimbursement, repayment, remuneration, redress; old use guerdon.

restive adjective 1 Edward is getting restive. See RESTLESS sense 1. 2 the militants are increasingly restive: unruly, disorderly, uncontrollable, unmanageable, wilful, recalcitrant, insubordinate; Brit. informal bolshie; formal refractory; old use contumacious.

restless adjective 1 Maria was restless: uneasy, ill at ease, restive, fidgety, edgy, on edge, tense, nervy, worked up, nervous, agitated, anxious, on tenterhooks, keyed up; informal jumpy, jittery, twitchy, uptight, like a cat on a hot tin roof; Brit. informal like a cat on hot bricks. 2 a restless night: sleepless, wakeful; fitful, broken, disturbed, troubled, unsettled; rare insomnolent.

restlessness noun unease, restiveness, edginess, tenseness, nervousness, agitation, anxiety, fretfulness, apprehension, disquiet; informal jitteriness.

restoration noun 1 the restoration of democracy: reinstatement, reinstitution, re-establishment, reimposition, return. 2 the restoration of derelict housing: repair, repairing, fixing, mending, refurbishment, reconditioning, rehabilitation, rebuilding, reconstruction, overhaul, redevelopment, renovation; N. Amer. informal rehab.

restore verb 1 the aim to restore democracy: reinststate, bring back, reinstitute, reimpose, reinstall, re-establish. 2 he restored it to its rightful owner: return, give back, hand back. 3 the building has been restored: repair, fix, mend, refurbish, recondition, rehabilitate, rebuild, reconstruct, remodel, overhaul, redevelop, renovate; informal do up; N. Amer. informal rehab. 4 a good sleep can restore you: reinvigorate, revitalize, revive, refresh, energize, fortify, revivify, regenerate, stimulate, freshen.

– OPPOSITES abolish.

restrain verb 1 Charles restrained his anger: control, keep under control, check, hold/keep in check, curb, suppress, repress, contain, dampen, subdue, smother, choke back, stifle, bottle up, rein back/in; informal keep the lid on. 2 she could barely restrain herself from swearing: prevent, stop, keep, hold back. 3 leg cuffs were used for restraining violent criminals: tie up, bind, tether, chain (up), fetter, shackle, manacle.

restrained adjective 1 Julie was quite restrained: self-controlled, self-restrained, not given to excesses, sober, steady, unemotional, undemonstrative. 2 restrained elegance: muted, soft, discreet, subtle, quiet, unobtrusive, unostentatious, understated, tasteful.

restraint noun 1 a restraint on their impulsiveness: constraint, check, control, restriction, limitation, curtailment; rein, bridle, brake, damper, impediment, obstacle. 2 the customary restraint of the police: self-control, self-restraint, self-discipline, control, moderation, prudence, judiciousness. 3 the room has been decorated with restraint: subtlety, understatedness, taste, tastefulness, discrimination, discretion. 4 a child restraint: belt, harness, strap.

restrict verb 1 a busy working life restricted his leisure activities: limit, keep within bounds, regulate, control, moderate, cut down. 2 the cuff supports the ankle without restricting movement: hinder, interfere with, impede, hamper, obstruct, block, check, curb. 3 he restricted himself to a 15-minute speech: confine, limit.

restricted adjective 1 restricted space: cramped, confined, constricted, small, narrow, tight; old use strait. 2 a restricted calorie intake: limited, controlled, regulated, reduced. 3 a restricted zone: out of bounds, off limits, private, exclusive. 4 restricted information: (top) secret, classified; informal hush-hush.

– OPPOSITES unlimited.

restriction noun 1 there is no restriction on the number of places: limitation, limit, constraint, control, check, curb; condition, proviso, qualification. 2 the restriction of personal freedom: reduction, limitation, diminution, curtailment. 3 restriction of movement: hindrance, impediment, slowing, reduction, limitation.

result noun 1 stress is the result of overwork: consequence, outcome, upshot, sequel, effect, reaction, repercussion, ramification, conclusion, culmination. 2 what is your result? answer, solution; sum, total, product. 3 exam results: mark, score, grade. 4 the result of the trial: verdict, decision, outcome, conclusion, judgement, findings, ruling.

– OPPOSITES cause.

•verb 1 differences between species could result from their habitat: follow, ensue, develop, stem, spring, arise, derive, evolve, proceed; occur, happen, take place, come about; be caused by, be brought about by, be produced by, originate in, be consequent on. 2 the shooting resulted in five deaths: end in, culminate in, finish in, terminate in, lead to, prompt, precipitate, trigger; cause, bring about, occasion, effect, give rise to, produce, engender, generate; literary beget.

resume verb 1 the government resumed negotiations: restart, recommence, begin again, start again, reopen; renew, return to, continue with, carry on with. 2 the priest resumed his kneeling posture: return to, come back to, take up again, reoccupy.

– OPPOSITES suspend, abandon.

résumé noun summary, precis, synopsis, abstract, outline, summarization, summation, epitome; abridgement, digest, condensation, abbreviation, overview, review.

resumption noun restart, restarting, recommencement, reopening; continuation, carrying on, renewal, return to.

resurgence noun renewal, revival, recovery, comeback, reawakening, resurrection, reappearance, re-emergence, regeneration; resumption, recommencement, continuation; formal renaissance.

resurrect verb 1 Jesus was resurrected: raise from the dead, restore to life, revive. 2 resurrecting his career: revive, restore, regenerate, revitalize, breathe new life into, reinvigorate, resuscitate, rejuvenate, stimulate, re-establish, relaunch.

resuscitate verb 1 medics resuscitated him: bring round, revive, bring back to consciousness; give artificial respiration to, give the kiss of life to. 2 measures to resuscitate the economy: revive, resurrect, restore, regenerate, revitalize, breathe new life into, reinvigorate, rejuvenate, stimulate.

retain verb 1 the government retained a share in the industries: keep (possession of), keep hold of, hold on to, hang on to. 2 existing footpaths are to be retained: maintain, keep, preserve, conserve. 3 some students retain facts easily: remember, memorize, keep in one's mind/memory. 4 solicitors can retain a barrister: employ, contract, keep on the payroll.

– OPPOSITES give up, abolish.

retainer noun 1 they're paid a retainer: (retaining) fee, periodic payment, advance, standing charge. 2 a faithful retainer. See SERVANT sense 1.

retaliate verb fight back, hit back, respond, react, reply, reciprocate, counter-attack, return like for like, get back at someone, give tit for tat, give someone a taste of their own medicine; have/get/take one's revenge, be revenged, avenge oneself, take reprisals, get even, pay someone back; informal get one's own back.

retaliation noun revenge, vengeance, reprisal, retribution, requital, recrimination, repayment; response, reaction, reply, counter-attack; old use a Roland for an Oliver.

retard verb delay, slow down/up, hold back/up, set back, postpone, put back, detain, decelerate; hinder, hamper, obstruct, inhibit, impede, check, restrain, restrict, trammel; literary stay.

– OPPOSITES accelerate.

retch verb 1 the sour taste made her retch: gag, heave; informal keck. 2 he retched all over the table. See VOMIT verb sense 1.

reticence noun reserve, restraint, inhibition, diffidence, shyness; unresponsiveness, quietness, taciturnity, secretiveness.

reticent adjective reserved, withdrawn, introverted, inhibited, diffident, shy; uncommunicative, unforthcoming, unresponsive, tight-lipped, quiet, taciturn, silent, guarded, secretive.

– OPPOSITES expansive.

retinue noun entourage, escort, company, court, staff, personnel, household, train, suite, following, bodyguard; aides, attendants, servants, retainers.

retire verb 1 he has retired: give up work, stop working, stop work. 2 we've retired him on full pension: pension off, force to retire. 3 Gillian retired to her office: withdraw, go away, take oneself off, decamp, shut oneself away; formal repair; literary betake oneself. 4 their forces retired: retreat, withdraw, pull back, fall back, disengage, back off, give ground. 5 everyone retired early: go to bed, call it a day, go to sleep; informal turn in, hit the hay/sack.

retired adjective a retired schoolteacher: former, ex-, past, in retirement; elderly.

retirement noun 1 they are nearing retirement: giving up work, stopping work. 2 he lived in retirement in Kent: seclusion, retreat, solitude, isolation; obscurity.

retiring adjective 1 the retiring president: departing, outgoing. 2 a retiring man: shy, diffident, self-effacing, unassuming, unassertive, reserved, reticent, quiet, timid, modest; private, secret, secretive, withdrawn, reclusive, unsociable.

– OPPOSITES incoming, outgoing.

retort verb 'No need to be rude!' she retorted: answer, reply, respond, say, return, counter, rejoinder, riposte, retaliate, snap back.

• noun a sarcastic retort: answer, reply, response, return, counter, rejoinder, riposte, retaliation; informal comeback.

retract verb 1 the sea otter can retract its claws: pull in/back, draw in. 2 he retracted his allegation: take back, withdraw, recant, disavow, disclaim, repudiate, renounce, reverse, revoke, rescind, go back on, backtrack on; formal abjure.

retreat verb 1 the army retreated: withdraw, retire, draw back, pull back/out, fall back, give way, give ground, beat a retreat. 2 the tide was retreating: go out, ebb, recede, fall, go down. 3 the government had to retreat: change one's mind, change one's plans; back down, climb down, do a U-turn, backtrack, back-pedal, give in, concede defeat; Brit. do an about-turn.

– OPPOSITES advance.

• noun 1 the retreat of the army: withdrawal, pulling back. 2 the President's retreat: clambdown, backdown, about-face, U-turn; Brit. about-turn. 3 her rural retreat: refuge, haven, sanctuary; hideaway, hideout, hiding place; informal hidey-hole. 4 a period of retreat from the world: seclusion, withdrawal, retirement, solitude, isolation, sanctuary.

retrench verb 1 we have to retrench: economize, cut back, make cutbacks, make savings, make economies, reduce expenditure, be economical, be frugal, tighten one's belt. 2 services have to be retrenched: reduce, cut (back/down), pare (down), slim down, make reductions in, make cutbacks in, trim, prune; informal slash.

retribution noun punishment, penalty, one's just deserts; revenge, reprisal, requital, retaliation, vengeance, an eye for an eye (and a tooth for a tooth), tit for tat; redress, reparation, restitution, recompense, repayment, indemnification, atonement, amends.

retrieve verb 1 I retrieved our balls from their garden: get back, bring back, recover, regain (possession of), recoup, reclaim, repossess, redeem, recuperate. 2 they were trying to retrieve the situation: put/set right, rectify, remedy, restore, sort out, straighten out, resolve.

retrograde adjective 1 a retrograde step: for the worse, regressive, negative, downhill, unwelcome. 2 retrograde motion: backward(s), reverse, rearward.

– OPPOSITES positive.

retrospect noun

■ in retrospect looking back, on reflection, in/with hindsight.

retrospective adjective backdated, retroactive, ex post facto.

return verb 1 he returned to London: go back, come back, arrive back, come home. 2 the symptoms returned: recur, reoccur, occur again, repeat (itself); reappear, appear again. 3 he returned the money: give back, hand back; pay back, repay. 4 Peter returned the book to the shelf: restore, put back, replace, reinstall. 5 he returned the volley: hit back, throw back. 6 she returned his kiss: reciprocate, requite, give in return, repay, give back. 7 'Later,' returned Isabel: answer, reply, respond, counter, rejoin, retort. 8 the jury returned a unanimous verdict: deliver, bring in, hand down. 9 the club returned a profit: yield, earn, realize, net, gross, clear. 10 the Labour candidate was returned: elect, vote in, choose, select.

– OPPOSITES depart, disappear, keep.

• noun 1 his return to Paris: homecoming.

2 the return of hard times: recurrence, reoccurrence, repeat, repetition, reappearance, revival, resurrection, re-emergence, resurgence. 3 I requested the return of my books: giving back, handing back, replacement, restoration, reinstatement, restitution. 4 two returns to London: return ticket/fare; N. Amer. round trip ticket/fare. 5 a quick return on investments: yield, profit, gain, revenue, interest, dividend. 6 a census return: statement, report, submission, record, dossier; document, form.

– OPPOSITES departure, disappearance, single.
■ in return for in exchange for, as a reward for, as compensation for.

revamp verb renovate, redecorate, refurbish, recondition, rehabilitate, overhaul, make over; upgrade, refit, re-equip; remodel, refashion, redesign, restyle; informal do up, give something a facelift, vamp up; Brit. informal tart up; N. Amer. informal rehab.

reveal verb 1 the police can't reveal his whereabouts: divulge, disclose, tell, let slip/drop, give away/out, blurt (out), release, leak; make known, make public, broadcast, publicize, circulate, disseminate; informal let on; old use discover. 2 he revealed his new car: show, display, exhibit, disclose, uncover; literary uncloak. 3 the data reveal a good deal of information: bring to light, uncover, lay bare, unearth, unveil; formal evince; literary uncloak.

– OPPOSITES hide.

revel verb 1 they revelled all night: celebrate, make merry, have a party, carouse, roister; informal party, live it up, whoop it up, make whoopee, rave, paint the town red. 2 he revelled in the applause: enjoy, delight in, love, like, adore, be pleased by, take pleasure in, appreciate, relish, lap up, savour; informal get a kick out of.

• noun late-night revels: celebration, festivity, jollification, merrymaking, carousal, carouse, spree; party, jamboree; informal rave, shindig, bash; Brit. informal rave-up, knees-up; N. Amer. informal wingding, blast; Austral. informal rage, ding, jollo.

revelation noun 1 revelations about his personal life: disclosure, surprising fact, announcement, report; admission, confession. 2 the revelation of a secret: divulging, divulgence, disclosure, disclosing, letting slip/drop, giving away/out, leaking, leak, betrayal, unveiling, making known, making public, broadcasting, publicizing, dissemination, reporting, report, declaring, declaration.

reveller noun merrymaker, partygoer, carouser, roisterer; old use wassailer.

revelry noun celebration(s), parties, revels, festivity, festivities, jollification, merrymaking, carousing, carousal, roistering; informal partying.

revenge noun 1 she is seeking revenge: vengeance, retribution, retaliation, reprisal, requital, recrimination, an eye for an eye (and a tooth for a tooth), redress, satisfaction. 2 they were filled with revenge: vengefulness, vindictiveness, vitriol, spite, spitefulness, malice, maliciousness, malevolence, ill will, animosity, hate, hatred, rancour, bitterness; literary maleficence. • verb 1 he revenged his brother's murder: avenge, take/exact revenge for, exact retribution for, take reprisals for, get redress for, get satisfaction for. 2 I'll be revenged on the whole pack of you: take revenge on, get one's revenge on, avenge oneself on, take vengeance on, get even with, settle a/the score with, pay back, take reprisals against; informal get one's own back on.

revenue noun income, takings, receipts, proceeds, earnings; profit(s).

– OPPOSITES expenditure.

reverberate verb resound, echo, re-echo, resonate, ring, boom, rumble.

reverberation noun 1 natural reverberation: resonance, echo, echoing, re-echoing, resounding, ringing, booming, rumbling. 2 political reverberations: repercussions, ramifications, consequences, shock waves; aftermath, fallout, backlash.

revere verb respect, admire, think highly of, have a high opinion of, esteem, hold in high esteem/regard, look up to.

– OPPOSITES despise.

reverence noun esteem, regard, respect, acclaim, admiration, appreciation, estimation, favour.

– OPPOSITES scorn.

reverent adjective respectful, reverential, admiring, devoted, devout, dutiful, awed, deferential.

reverie noun daydream, daydreaming, trance, musing; inattention, inattentiveness, wool-gathering, preoccupation, absorption, abstraction, lack of concentration.

reversal noun 1 there was no reversal on this issue: turnaround, turnabout, about-face, volte-face, change of heart, U-turn, backtracking; Brit. about-turn; rare tergiversation. 2 a reversal of roles: swap, exchange, change, swapping, interchange. 3 the reversal of the decision: alteration, changing; countermanding, undoing, overturning, overthrow, disallowing, overriding, overruling, veto, vetoing, revocation, repeal, rescinding, annulment, nullification, voiding, invalidation; formal rescission, abrogation. 4 they suffered a reversal: setback, reverse, upset, failure, misfortune, mishap, disaster, blow, disappointment, adversity, hardship, affliction, vicissitude, defeat; bad luck.

reverse verb 1 the car reversed into a lamp post: back, drive back/backwards, move back/backwards. 2 reverse the bottle in the ice bucket: turn upside down, turn over, upend, upturn, invert; old use overset. 3 I reversed my jacket: turn inside out. 4 reverse your roles: swap (round), change (round), exchange, interchange, switch (round). 5 the umpire reversed the decision: alter, change; overturn, overthrow, disallow, override, overrule, veto, revoke, repeal, rescind, annul, nullify, void, invalidate; Brit. do an about-turn on; formal abrogate.

• adjective in reverse order: backward(s), reversed, inverted, transposed.

• noun 1 the reverse is the case: opposite, contrary, converse, inverse, obverse, antithesis. 2 successes and reverses. See REVERSAL sense 4. 3 the reverse of the page: other side, reverse side, back, underside, wrong side, verso.

revert verb 1 life will soon revert to normal: return, go back, change back, default; fall back, regress, relapse. 2 the property reverted to the landlord: be returned; historical escheat.

review noun 1 the Council undertook a review: analysis, evaluation, assessment, appraisal, examination, investigation, inquiry, probe, inspection, study. 2 the rent is due for review: reconsideration, reassessment, re-evaluation, reappraisal; change, alteration, modification, revision.

3 book reviews: criticism, critique, assessment, evaluation, commentary; Brit. informal crit. 4 a scientific review: journal, periodical, magazine, publication. 5 their review of the economy: survey, report, study, account, description, statement, overview. 6 a military review: inspection, parade, tattoo, procession; Brit. march past.

• verb 1 reviewed the evidence: survey, study, research, consider, analyse, examine, scrutinize, explore, look into, probe, investigate, inspect, assess, appraise; informal size up. 2 the referee reviewed his decision: reconsider, re-examine, reassess, re-evaluate, reappraise, rethink; change, alter, modify, revise. 3 he reviewed the day: remember, recall, reflect on, think through, go over in one's mind, look back on. 4 reviewing troops: inspect, view. 5 she reviewed the play: comment on, evaluate, assess, appraise, judge, critique, criticize.

reviewer noun critic, commentator, judge, observer, pundit, analyst.

revile verb criticize, censure, condemn, attack, inveigh against, rail against, lambaste, denounce; slander, libel, malign, vilify, besmirch, abuse; informal knock, slam, pan, crucify, roast, bad-mouth; Brit. informal slate, rubbish, slag off; N. Amer. informal pummel; Austral./NZ informal bag, monster; formal excoriate, calumniate.

– OPPOSITES praise.

revise verb 1 she revised her opinion:

reconsider, review, re-examine, reassess, re-evaluate, reappraise, rethink; change, alter, modify. 2 the editor revised the text: amend, emend, correct, alter, change, edit, rewrite, redraft, rephrase, rework. 3 (Brit.) revise your lecture notes: go over, reread, memorize; cram; informal bone up on; Brit. informal swot up (on), mug up (on).

revision noun 1 a revision of the Prayer Book: emendation, correction, alteration, adaptation, editing, rewriting, redrafting.

2 a new revision: version, edition, rewrite. 3 a major revision of the system: reconsideration, review, re-examination, reassessment, re-evaluation, reappraisal, rethink; change, alteration, modification. 4 (Brit.) he was doing some revision: rereading, memorizing, cramming; Brit. informal swotting.

revitalize verb reinvigorate, re-energize, boost, regenerate, revive, revivify, rejuvenate, reanimate, resuscitate, refresh, stimulate, breathe new life into; informal give a shot in the arm to, pep up, buck up.

revival noun 1 a revival in the economy: improvement, rallying, picking up, amelioration, turn for the better, upturn, upswing, resurgence. 2 the revival of traditional crafts: comeback, re-establishment, reintroduction, restoration, reappearance, resurrection, regeneration, rejuvenation.

– OPPOSITES downturn, disappearance.

revive verb 1 attempts to revive her failed: resuscitate, bring round, bring back to consciousness. 2 the man soon revived: regain consciousness, come round, wake up. 3 a cup of tea revived her: reinvigorate, revitalize, refresh, energize, reanimate, resuscitate, revivify, rejuvenate, regenerate, enliven, stimulate. 4 reviving old traditions: reintroduce, re-establish, restore, resurrect, bring back, regenerate, resuscitate.

revoke verb cancel, repeal, rescind, reverse, annul, nullify, void, invalidate, countermand, retract, withdraw, overrule, override; Law vacate; formal abrogate.

revolt verb 1 the people revolted: rebel, rise (up), take to the streets, riot, mutiny. 2 the smell revolted him: disgust, sicken, nauseate, make someone sick, make someone's gorge rise, turn someone's stomach, be repugnant to, be repulsive to, put off, be offensive to; informal turn off; N. Amer. informal gross out.

• noun an armed revolt: rebellion, revolution, insurrection, mutiny, uprising, riot, rioting, insurgence, seizure of power, coup (d'état).

revolting adjective disgusting, sickening, nauseating, stomach-turning, stomach-churning, repulsive, repellent, repugnant, appalling, abominable, hideous, horrible, awful, dreadful, terrible, obnoxious, vile, nasty, foul, loathsome, offensive, objectionable, off-putting, distasteful, disagreeable; N. Amer. vomituous; informal ghastly, putrid, horrid, gross, gut-churning, yucky, rank, skanky, icky; formal rebarbative; literary noisome; old use disgusting, loathly.

– OPPOSITES attractive, pleasant.

revolution noun 1 the French Revolution: rebellion, revolt, insurrection, mutiny, uprising, riot, rioting, insurgence, seizure of power, coup (d'état). 2 a revolution in printing techniques: dramatic change, radical alteration, sea change, metamorphosis, transformation, innovation, reorganization, restructuring; informal shake-up; N. Amer. informal shakedown. 3 one revolution of a wheel: (single) turn, rotation, circle, spin; circuit, lap. 4 the revolution of the earth: turning, rotation, circling; orbit.

revolutionary adjective 1 revolutionary troops: rebellious, rebel, insurgent, rioting, mutinous, renegade, insurrectionary, insurrectionist, seditious, subversive, extremist. 2 revolutionary change: thoroughgoing, thorough, complete, total, absolute, radical, comprehensive, sweeping, far-reaching, extensive, profound. 3 a revolutionary kind of wheelchair: new, novel, original, unusual, unconventional, unorthodox, newfangled, innovative, innovatory, innovational, modern, state-of-the-art, futuristic, pioneering.

• noun political revolutionaries: rebel, insurgent, revolutionist, mutineer, insurrectionist, agitator, subversive.

revolutionize verb transform, alter dramatically, shake up, turn upside down, restructure, reorganize, transmute, metamorphose; humorous transmogrify.

revolve verb 1 a fan revolved slowly: go round, turn round, rotate, spin. 2 the moon revolves around the earth: circle, travel, orbit. 3 his life revolves around cars: be concerned with, be preoccupied with, focus on, centre around. 4 her mind revolved the possibilities: think about/over, give thought to, consider, reflect on, mull over, muse on, cogitate about/on, chew over, weigh up; old use pore on.

revulsion noun disgust, repulsion, abhorrence, repugnance, nausea, horror, aversion, abomination, distaste; old use disrelish.

– OPPOSITES delight.

reward noun a reward for its safe return:

recompense, prize, award, honour, decoration, bonus, premium, bounty, present, gift, payment; informal pay-off, perk; formal perquisite.

• verb they were well rewarded: recompense, pay, remunerate, make something worth someone's while; give an award to.

– OPPOSITES punish.

rewarding adjective satisfying, gratifying, pleasing, fulfilling, enriching, edifying, beneficial, illuminating, worthwhile, productive, fruitful.

reword verb rewrite, rephrase, recast, put in other words, express differently, redraft, revise; paraphrase.

rewrite verb revise, recast, reword, rephrase, redraft.

rhetoric noun 1 a form of rhetoric: oratory, eloquence, command of language, way with words. 2 empty rhetoric: bombast, turgidity, grandiloquence, magniloquence, pomposity, extravagant language, purple prose; wordiness, verbosity, prolixity; informal hot air; rare fustian.

rhetorical adjective 1 rhetorical devices: stylistic, oratorical, linguistic, verbal.

2 rhetorical hyperbole: extravagant, grandiloquent, magniloquent, high-flown, orotund, bombastic, grandiose, pompous, pretentious, overblown, oratorical, turgid, flowery, florid; informal highfalutin; rare fustian.

rhyme noun poem, piece of poetry, verse; (rhymes) poetry, doggerel.

rhythm noun 1 the rhythm of the music: beat, cadence, tempo, time, pulse, throb, swing.

2 poetic features such as rhythm: metre, measure, stress, accent, cadence. 3 the rhythm of daily life: pattern, flow, tempo.

rhythmic adjective rhythmical, with a steady pulse, measured, throbbing, beating, pulsating, regular, steady, even.

ribald adjective. See CRUDE sense 3.

rich adjective 1 rich people: wealthy, affluent, moneyed, well off, well-to-do, prosperous, opulent; N. Amer. silk-stocking; informal rolling in money, in the money, loaded, stinking rich, filthy rich, well heeled, made of money; informal, dated oofy. 2 rich furnishings: sumptuous, opulent, luxurious, luxury, de luxe, lavish, gorgeous, splendid, magnificent, costly, expensive, fancy; informal posh, classy, plush, ritzy, swanky, blingbling; Brit. informal swish; N. Amer. informal swank.

3 a garden rich in flowers: abounding, well provided, well stocked, crammed, packed, teeming, bursting; informal jam-packed, chock-a-block, chock-full; Austral./NZ informal chocker. 4 a rich supply of restaurants: plentiful, abundant, copious, ample, profuse, lavish, liberal, generous, bountiful; literary plenteous, bounteous. 5 rich soil: fertile, productive, fecund, fruitful. 6 a rich sauce: creamy, fatty, heavy, full-flavoured. 7 a rich wine: full-bodied, heavy, fruity. 8 rich colours: strong, deep, full, intense, vivid, brilliant. 9 her rich voice: sonorous, full, resonant, deep, clear, mellow, mellifluous; rare mellifluent. 10 (informal) that's rich! preposterous, outrageous, absurd, ridiculous, ludicrous, laughable, risible; informal a bit much; Brit. informal a bit thick.

— OPPOSITES poor, light.

riches plural noun 1 his new-found riches:

money, wealth, funds, (hard) cash, (filthy) lucre, wherewithal, means, (liquid) assets, capital, resources, reserves; opulence, affluence, prosperity; informal dough, bread, loot, shekels, moolah, the necessary; Brit. informal dosh, brass, lolly, spondulicks, readies; N. Amer. informal bucks, mazuma, dinero; US informal greenbacks, simoleons, jack, rocks; Austral./NZ informal Oscar; Brit. dated l.s.d.; old use pelf. 2 underwater riches: resources, treasure(s), bounty, jewels, gems.

richly adverb 1 the richly furnished

chamber: sumptuously, opulently, luxuriously, lavishly, gorgeously, splendidly, magnificently; informal poshly, plushly, ritzily, swankily, classily. 2 the joy she richly deserves: fully, thoroughly, in full measure, well, completely, wholly, totally, entirely, absolutely, amply, utterly.

— OPPOSITES meanly.

rickety adjective shaky, unsteady, unsound, unsafe, tumbledown, broken-down, dilapidated, ramshackle; informal shamblly; N. Amer. informal shaky.

rid verb ridding the building of asbestos: clear, free, purge, empty, strip.

■ get rid of 1 we must get rid of some stuff:

dispose of, throw away/out, clear out, discard, scrap, dump, bin, jettison; informal chuck (away), ditch, junk, get shut of; Brit. informal get shot of; N. Amer. informal trash. 2 the cats got rid of the rats: destroy, eliminate, annihilate, obliterate, wipe out, kill.

riddle<sup>1</sup> noun an answer to the riddle: puzzle, conundrum, brain-teaser, problem, question, poser, enigma, mystery; informal stumper.

riddle<sup>2</sup> verb 1 his car was riddled by gunfire:

perforate, hole, pierce, puncture, pepper. 2 he was riddled with cancer: permeate, suffuse, fill, pervade, spread through, imbue, saturate, overrun, beset. 3 the soil must be riddled: sieve, sift, strain, screen, filter; old use griddle.

ride verb 1 she can ride a horse: sit on, mount, bestride; manage, handle, control. 2 they rode home: travel, move, proceed, make one's way; trot, canter, gallop.

• noun he took us for a ride: trip, journey, drive, run, excursion, outing, jaunt; lift; informal spin.

ridicule noun he was subjected to ridicule:

mockery, derision, laughter, scorn, scoffing, contempt, jeering, sneering, sneers, jibes, jibing, teasing, taunts, taunting, ragging, chaffing, sarcasm, satire; informal kidding, ribbing, joshing; N. Amer. informal goofing, razzing; Austral./NZ informal chacking; dated sport.

— OPPOSITES respect.

• verb his theory was ridiculed: deride, mock, laugh at, heap scorn on, jeer at, jibe at, sneer at, treat with contempt, scorn, make fun of, poke fun at, scoff at, satirize, lampoon, burlesque, caricature, parody, tease, taunt, rag, chaff; informal kid, rib, josh, take the mickey out of; N. Amer. informal goof on, rag on, razz, pull someone's chain; Austral./NZ informal chack, poke mullock at, sling off at; dated make sport of, twit.

ridiculous adjective stupid, ludicrous, preposterous, laughable, farcical, risible, foolish, silly, senseless, absurd, inane, fatuous, childish, puerile, half-baked, hare-brained, ill-thought-out, crackpot, idiotic, nonsensical.

— OPPOSITES sensible.

rife adjective 1 violence is rife: widespread, general, common, universal, extensive, ubiquitous, omnipresent, endemic, inescapable, insidious, prevalent. 2 the village was rife with gossip: overflowing, bursting, alive, teeming, abounding.

— OPPOSITES unknown.

riff-raff noun rabble, scum, the lowest of the low, good-for-nothings, undesirables; informal peasants.

— OPPOSITES elite.

rifle verb 1 she rifled through her wardrobe:

rummage, search, hunt, forage. 2 a thief rifled her home: burgle, rob, steal from, loot, raid, plunder, ransack.

rift noun 1 a deep rift in the ice: crack, fault, flaw, split, break, breach, fissure, fracture, cleft, crevice, cavity, opening. 2 the rift between them: breach, division, split; quarrel, squabble, disagreement, falling-out, row, argument, dispute, conflict, feud; estrangement; informal spat, scrap; Brit. informal bust-up.

rig<sup>1</sup> verb 1 the boats were rigged with a single sail: equip, kit out, fit out, supply, furnish, provide, arm. 2 I rigged myself out in black: dress, clothe, attire, robe, garb, array, deck out, drape, accoutre, outfit, get up, trick out/up; informal doll up; old use apparel. 3 he will rig up a shelter: set up, erect, assemble; throw together, cobble together, put together, whip up, improvise, contrive; Brit. informal knock up.

• noun 1 a CB radio rig: apparatus, appliance, machine, device, instrument, contraption, system; tackle, gear, kit, outfit. 2 the rig of the American Army Air Corps: uniform, costume, ensemble, outfit, livery, attire, clothes, clothing, garments, dress, garb, regimentals, regalia, trappings; Brit. strip; informal get-up, gear, togs; Brit. informal kit; formal apparel; old use raiment, vestments.

rig<sup>2</sup> verb they rigged the election: manipulate, engineer, distort, misrepresent, pervert, tamper with, doctor; falsify, fake, trump up; informal fix; Brit. informal fiddle.

right adjective 1 it wouldn't be right to do that: just, fair, proper, good, upright, righteous, virtuous, moral, ethical, honourable, honest; lawful, legal. 2 the right answer: correct, accurate, exact, precise; proper, valid, conventional, established, official, formal; Brit. informal spot on. 3 the right person for the job: suitable, appropriate, fitting, correct, proper, desirable, preferable, ideal; old use meet.

4 you've come at the right time: opportune, advantageous, favourable, propitious, good, lucky, happy, fortunate, providential, felicitous; timely, seasonable, convenient, expedient, suitable, appropriate. 5 he's not right in the head: sane, lucid, rational, balanced, compos mentis; informal all there.

6 he does not look right: healthy, well, (fighting) fit, normal, up to par; informal up to scratch, in the pink. 7 my right hand: dextral. 8 (informal) it's a right mess: absolute, complete, total, real, thorough, perfect, utter, sheer, unmitigated, veritable.

– OPPOSITES wrong, insane, unhealthy.

• adverb 1 she was right at the limit of her patience: completely, fully, totally, absolutely, utterly, quite. 2 the pub's right in the middle of the village: exactly, precisely, directly, immediately, just, squarely, dead; informal (slap) bang, smack, plumb; N. Amer. informal smack dab. 3 keep going right on: straight, directly, as the crow flies. 4 (informal) I'll be right with you: straight, directly, forthwith, without further ado, promptly, quickly, asap, as soon as possible; N. Amer. in short order. 5 I think I heard right: correctly, accurately, properly, precisely, aright, rightly, perfectly. 6 make sure you're treated right: well, properly, justly, fairly, equitably, impartially, honourably, lawfully, legally. 7 things will turn out right: well, for the best, favourably, happily, advantageously, profitably, providentially, luckily, conveniently.

– OPPOSITES wrong, badly.

• noun 1 the difference between right and wrong: goodness, righteousness, virtue, integrity, rectitude, propriety, morality, truth, honesty, honour, justice, fairness, equity; lawfulness, legality. 2 you have the right to say no: entitlement, prerogative, privilege, advantage, due, birthright, liberty, authority, power, licence, permission, dispensation, leave, sanction; Law, historical droit.

– OPPOSITES wrong.

• verb 1 the way to right a capsized dinghy: set upright, turn back over. 2 we must right the situation: remedy, put right, rectify, retrieve, fix, resolve, sort out, settle, square; straighten out, correct, repair, mend, redress, make good, ameliorate, better.

■ by rights properly, correctly, technically, in fairness; legally, de jure.

■ right away at once, straight away, (right) now, this (very) minute, this instant, immediately, instantly, directly, forthwith, without further ado, promptly, quickly, without delay, asap, as soon as possible; N. Amer. in short order; informal straight off, p.d.q. (pretty damn quick), pronto; N. Amer. informal lickety-split.

■ within one's rights entitled, permitted, allowed, at liberty, empowered, authorized, qualified, licensed, justified.

WORD LINKS

recto the right-hand page in a book

starboard the right-hand side of a ship or aircraft

dexter (Heraldry) on the bearer's right-hand side of a coat of arms righteous adjective 1 righteous living: good, virtuous, upright, upstanding, decent; ethical, principled, moral, high-minded, law-abiding, honest, honourable, blameless, irreproachable, noble; saintly, angelic, pure. 2 righteous anger: justifiable, justified, legitimate, defensible, supportable, rightful; admissible, allowable, understandable, excusable, acceptable, reasonable.

– OPPOSITES sinful, unjustifiable.

rightful adjective 1 the car's rightful owner: legal, lawful, real, true, proper, correct, recognized, genuine, authentic, acknowledged, approved, licensed, valid, bona fide, de jure; informal legit, kosher. 2 their rightful place in society: deserved, merited, due, just, right, fair, proper, fitting, appropriate, suitable.

right-wing adjective conservative, rightist, ultra-conservative, blimpish, diehard; reactionary, traditionalist, conventional, unprogressive; fascist, fascistic.

– OPPOSITES left-wing.

rigid adjective 1 a rigid container: stiff, hard, firm, inflexible, unbending, unyielding, inelastic. 2 a rigid routine: fixed, set, firm, inflexible, unalterable, unchangeable, immutable, unvarying, invariable, hard and fast, cast-iron. 3 a rigid approach to funding: strict, severe, stern, stringent, rigorous, inflexible, uncompromising, intransigent.

– OPPOSITES flexible, lenient.

rigmarole noun 1 the rigmarole of dressing up: fuss, bother, trouble, folderol, ado, potter; NZ bobsy-die; informal palaver, song and dance, performance, to-do, pantomime, hassle; Brit. informal carry-on. 2 that rigmarole about the house being haunted: tale, saga, yarn, shaggy-dog story; informal spiel.

rigorous adjective 1 rigorous attention to detail: meticulous, conscientious, punctilious, careful, diligent, attentive, scrupulous, painstaking, exact, precise, accurate, thorough, particular, strict, demanding, exacting; informal pernickety. 2 the rigorous enforcement of rules: strict, severe, stern, stringent, tough, harsh, rigid, relentless, unsparing, inflexible, draconian, intransigent, uncompromising, exacting. 3 rigorous yachting conditions: harsh, severe, bad, bleak, extreme, inclement; unpleasant, disagreeable, foul, nasty, filthy; stormy, wild, tempestuous.

– OPPOSITES slapdash, lax, mild.

rigour noun 1 a mine operated under conditions of rigour: strictness, severity, stringency, toughness, harshness, rigidity, inflexibility, intransigence. 2 intellectual rigour: meticulousness, thoroughness, carefulness, diligence, scrupulousness, exactness, exactitude, precision, accuracy, correctness, strictness. 3 the rigours of the journey: hardship, harshness, severity, adversity; ordeal, misery, trial; discomfort, inconvenience, privation.

rile verb (informal). See ANNOY.

rim noun 1 the rim of her cup: brim, edge, lip. 2 the rim of the crater: edge, border, side, margin, brink, fringe, boundary, perimeter, limits, periphery; old use skirt.

rind noun skin, peel, zest, integument; Botany pericarp.

ring<sup>1</sup> noun 1 a ring round the moon: circle, band, halo, disc. 2 she wore a ring: wedding ring, band. 3 a circus ring: arena, enclosure, field, ground; amphitheatre, stadium. 4 a ring of onlookers: circle, group, knot, cluster, bunch, band, throng, crowd, flock, pack. 5 a spy ring: gang, syndicate, cartel, mob, band, circle, organization, association, society, alliance, league, coterie, cabal. • verb police ringed the building: surround, circle, encircle, encompass, girdle, enclose, hem in, confine, seal off.

WORD LINKS

annular ring-shaped

ring<sup>2</sup> verb 1 church bells rang all day: toll, sound, peal, chime, clang, bong, ding, jingle, tinkle; literary knell. 2 the room rang with laughter: resound, reverberate, resonate, echo. 3 I'll ring you tomorrow: telephone, phone (up), call (up); reach, dial; informal give someone a buzz; Brit. informal give someone a bell, give someone a tinkle, get on the blower to; N. Amer. informal get someone on the horn.

• noun 1 the ring of a bell: chime, toll, peal, clang, clink, ding, jingle, tinkle, tintinnabulation, sound; literary knell. 2 I'll give Chris a ring: call, telephone call, phone call; informal buzz; Brit. informal bell, tinkle.

■ ring something in herald, signal, announce, proclaim, usher in, introduce; mark, signify, indicate; literary betoken, knell.

rinse verb wash (out), clean, cleanse, bathe; dip, drench, splash, swill, sluice, hose down.

riot noun 1 a riot in the capital: uproar, commotion, upheaval, disturbance, furor, tumult, melee, scuffle, fracas, fray, brawl, free-for-all; violence, fighting, vandalism, mayhem, turmoil, lawlessness, anarchy; N. Amer. informal wilding; Law, dated affray. 2 the garden was a riot of colour: mass, sea, splash, show, exhibition.

• verb the miners rioted: (go on the) rampage, run riot, fight in the streets, run wild, run amok, go berserk; informal raise hell. ■ run riot 1 the children ran riot: (go on the) rampage, riot, run amok, go berserk, go out of control; informal raise hell. 2 the vegetation has run riot: grow profusely, spread uncontrolled, grow rapidly, spread like wildfire; burgeon, multiply, rocket.

riotous adjective 1 the demonstration turned riotous: unruly, rowdy, disorderly, uncontrollable, unmanageable, undisciplined, uproarious, tumultuous; violent, wild, ugly, lawless, anarchic. 2 a riotous party: boisterous, lively, loud, noisy, unrestrained, uninhibited, uproarious, unruly, rollicking; informal rumbustious; N. Amer. informal rambunctious.

– OPPOSITES peaceable.

rip verb 1 he ripped the posters down: tear, wrench, wrest, pull, snatch, tug, prise, heave, drag, peel, pluck; informal yank. 2 she ripped Leo's note into pieces: tear, claw, hack, slit, cut; literary rend.

• noun a rip in my sleeve: tear, slit, split, rent, laceration, cut, gash, slash.

ripe adjective 1 a ripe tomato: mature, ripened, full grown, ready to eat; luscious, juicy, succulent, tender, sweet. 2 the dock is ripe for development: ready, fit, suitable, right. 3 the ripe old age of ninety: advanced, hoary, venerable, old. 4 the time is ripe for his return: opportune, advantageous, favourable, auspicious, propitious, promising, good, right, fortunate, benign, providential, felicitous, seasonable; convenient, suitable, appropriate, apt, fitting.

– OPPOSITES unsuitable, young.

ripen verb become ripe, mature, mellow.

rip-off noun (informal) fraud, swindle, confidence trick; informal con, scam, flimflam, gyp; Brit. informal swizz, daylight robbery; N. Amer. informal rip, shakedown, bunco; Austral. informal rort.

riposte noun an indignant riposte: retort, counter, rejoinder, sally, return, answer, reply, response; informal comeback.

• verb 'Heaven help you,' riposted Sally: retort, counter, rejoin, return, retaliate, hurl back, answer, reply, respond, come back.

ripple noun he blew ripples in his coffee: wavelet, wave, undulation, ripplet, ridge, ruffle.

rise verb 1 the sun rose: move up/upwards, come up, make one's/its way up, arise, ascend, climb, mount, soar. 2 the mountains rising above us: loom, tower, soar, rise up, rear (up). 3 prices rose: go up, increase, soar, shoot up, surge, leap, jump, rocket, escalate, spiral. 4 living standards have risen: improve, get better, advance, go up, soar, shoot up. 5 his voice rose: get higher, get louder, increase, swell, intensify. 6 he rose from his chair: stand up, get to one's feet, get up, jump up, leap up; formal arise. 7 he rises at dawn: get up, get out of bed, rouse oneself, stir, bestir oneself, be up and about; informal rise and shine, shake a leg, surface; formal arise. 8 the court rose at midday: adjourn, recess, be suspended, pause, take a break; informal knock off, take five. 9 he rose through the ranks: make progress, climb, advance, get on, work one's way, be promoted. 10 he wouldn't rise to the bait: react, respond; take. 11 Christ rose again: come back to life, be resurrected, revive. 12 the dough started to rise: swell, expand, enlarge, puff up. 13 the nation rose against its oppressors: rebel, revolt, mutiny, riot, take up arms. 14 the Rhine rises in the Alps: originate, begin, start, emerge; issue from, spring from, flow from, emanate from. 15 her spirits rose: brighten, lift, cheer up, improve, pick up; informal buck up. 16 the ground rose gently: slope upwards, go uphill, incline, climb.

– OPPOSITES fall, descend, drop, sit, retire, resume, die, shelve.

• noun 1 a price rise: increase, hike, leap, upsurge, upswing, climb, escalation. 2 he got a rise of 11%: raise, pay increase, wage increase; hike, increment. 3 a rise in standards: improvement, amelioration, upturn, leap. 4 his rise to power: progress, climb, promotion, elevation, aggrandizement. 5 we walked up the rise: slope, incline, acclivity, hillock, hill; formal eminence.

risible adjective laughable, ridiculous, absurd, comical, comic, amusing, funny, hilarious, humorous, droll, farcical, silly, ludicrous, hysterical; informal rib-tickling, priceless; informal, dated killing.

risk noun 1 there is a certain amount of risk: chance, uncertainty, unpredictability, precariousness, instability, insecurity, perilousness, riskiness. 2 the risk of fire: possibility, chance, probability, likelihood, danger, peril, threat, menace, fear, prospect.

– OPPOSITES safety, impossibility.

• verb 1 he risked his life to save them: endanger, imperil, jeopardize, hazard, gamble (with), chance; put on the line, put in jeopardy. 2 you risk getting cold and wet: run the risk of, stand a chance of, be in danger of.

■ at risk in danger, in peril, in jeopardy, under threat.

risky adjective dangerous, hazardous, perilous, fraught with danger, unsafe, insecure, precarious, parlous, touch-and-go, treacherous; uncertain, unpredictable; informal chancy, dicey, hairy; N. Amer. informal gnarly.

risqué adjective ribald, rude, bawdy, raucous, earthy, indecent, suggestive, improper, naughty, locker-room; vulgar, dirty, smutty, crude, coarse, obscene, lewd, X-rated; informal blue, raunchy; Brit. informal fruity, off colour, saucy; N. Amer. informal gamy.

rite noun ceremony, ritual, ceremonial; service, sacrament, liturgy, worship, office; act, practice, custom, tradition, convention, institution, procedure.

ritual noun an elaborate civic ritual:

ceremony, rite, ceremonial, observance; service, sacrament, liturgy, worship; act, practice, custom, tradition, convention, formality, procedure, protocol.

• adjective a ritual burial: ceremonial, ritualistic, prescribed, set, formal; sacramental, liturgical; traditional, conventional.

ritzy adjective (informal). See POSH sense 1.

rival noun 1 his rival for the nomination: opponent, challenger, competitor, contender; adversary, antagonist, enemy; literary foe. 2 the tool has no rival: equal, match, peer, equivalent, counterpart, like.

– OPPOSITES ally.

• verb few countries can rival it for scenery: match, compare with, compete with, vie with, equal, measure up to, be in the same league as, be on a par with, touch, challenge; informal hold a candle to.

• adjective rival candidates: competing, opposing, contending.

rivalry noun competitiveness, competition, contention, vying; opposition, conflict, feuding, antagonism, friction, enmity; informal keeping up with the Joneses.

riven adjective a country riven by civil war: torn apart, split, rent, severed; literary cleft, torn asunder.

river noun 1 watercourse, waterway, tributary, stream, rivulet, brook, inlet, rill, runnel, freshet; Scottish & N. English burn; N. English beck; S. English bourn; N. Amer. & Austral./NZ creek; Austral. billabong. 2 a river of molten lava: stream, torrent, flood, deluge, cascade.

WORD LINKS

fluvial relating to or found in a river riparian relating to or found on the banks of a river confluence a place where two rivers join delta a triangular area where the mouth of a river has split into several channels estuary the mouth of a large river

oxbow a loop formed by a horseshoe-shaped bend in a river rapids, white water a very fast-flowing stretch of a river spate, freshet a flood in a river levee an embankment built to prevent a river from overflowing weir a dam built to regulate the flow of a river potamology the study of rivers

riveted adjective 1 she stood riveted to the spot: fixed, rooted, frozen, unable to move; motionless, unmoving, immobile, stock-still. 2 he was riveted by the newsreels: fascinated, engrossed, gripped, captivated, enthralled, spellbound, mesmerized, transfixed. 3 their eyes were riveted on the teacher: fixed, fastened, focused, concentrated, locked, glued.

riveting adjective fascinating, gripping, engrossing, interesting, intriguing, absorbing, captivating, enthralling, compelling, spellbinding, mesmerizing; informal unputdownable.

– OPPOSITES boring.

road noun 1 the roads were crowded with traffic: street, thoroughfare, roadway, carriageway, avenue, Broadway, bypass, ring road, trunk road, byroad; lane, crescent, drive, parade, row; corniche; Brit. dual carriageway, clearway, motorway; N. Amer. highway, freeway, parkway, throughway, expressway; US turnpike, interstate. 2 a step on the road to recovery: way, path, route, course. 3 oil tankers waiting in the roads: anchorage, channel, haven, roadstead.

■ on the road on tour, touring, travelling.

roam verb wander, rove, ramble, drift, walk, traipse; range, travel, tramp, traverse, trek; Scottish & Irish stravaig; informal cruise, mosey; formal perambulate; old use peregrinate.

roar noun 1 the roars of the crowd: shout, bellow, yell, cry, howl; clamour; informal holler. 2 the roar of the sea: boom, crash, rumble, roll, thundering. 3 roars of laughter: guffaw, howl, hoot, shriek, gale, peal. • verb 1 'Get out!' roared Angus: bellow, yell, shout, bawl, howl; informal holler. 2 thunder roared: boom, rumble, crash, roll, thunder. 3 the movie left them roaring: guffaw, laugh, hoot; informal split one's sides, be rolling in the aisles, be doubled up, crack up, be in stitches, die laughing; Brit. informal crease up, fall about. 4 a motorbike roared past: speed, zoom, whizz, flash; informal belt, tear, zip; Brit. informal bomb.

roaring adjective 1 a roaring fire: blazing, burning, flaming. 2 (informal) a roaring success: enormous, huge, massive, (very) great, tremendous; complete, out-and-out, thorough; informal rip-roaring, whopping, fantastic.

roast verb 1 potatoes roasted in olive oil: cook, bake, grill; N. Amer. broil. 2 (informal) they roasted him for wasting time. See CRITICIZE.

roasting (informal) adjective a roasting day: hot, sweltering, scorching, blistering, searing, torrid; informal boiling (hot), baking (hot).

• noun the boss gave him a roasting. See LECTURE noun sense 2.

rob verb 1 the gang robbed the local bank: burgle, steal from, hold up, break into; raid, loot, plunder, pillage; N. Amer. burglarize; informal do, turn over, knock off, stick up. 2 he robbed an old woman: steal from; informal mug, jump; N. Amer. informal clip. 3 he was robbed of his savings: cheat, swindle, defraud; informal do out of, con out of, fleece; N. Amer. informal stiff. 4 (informal) it cost £70—I was robbed: overcharge; informal rip off, sting, do, diddle; N. Amer. informal gouge. 5 defeat robbed him of his title: deprive, strip, divest; deny.

robber noun burglar, thief, housebreaker, mugger, shoplifter; stealer, pilferer, raider, looter, plunderer, pillager; bandit, highwayman; informal crook, crackman; Brit. informal tea leaf; N. Amer. informal yegg; literary brigand.

robbery noun 1 they were arrested for the robbery: burglary, theft, thievery, stealing, breaking and entering, housebreaking, larceny, shoplifting; embezzlement, fraud; hold-up, break-in, raid; informal mugging, smash-and-grab, stick-up; Brit. informal blag; N. Amer. informal heist. 2 (informal) Six quid? That's robbery.: a swindle; informal a con, a rip-off; Brit. informal daylight robbery.

robe noun 1 the women wore black robes: cloak, kaftan, djellaba, wrap, mantle, cape; N. Amer. wrapper. 2 coronation robes: garb, regalia, costume, finery; garments, clothes; formal apparel; old use raiment, habiliments, vestments. 3 priestly robes: vestment, surplice, cassock, rochet, alb, dalmatic, chasuble; canonicals. 4 a towelling robe: dressing gown, bathrobe, housecoat; N. Amer. wrapper.

• verb he robed for Mass: dress, clothe oneself; formal enrobe.

robot noun automaton, android, golem; informal bot, droid.

robust adjective 1 a large, robust man: strong, vigorous, sturdy, tough, powerful, solid, muscular, sinewy, rugged, hardy, strapping, brawny, burly, husky; healthy, (fighting) fit, hale and hearty, lusty, in fine fettle; informal beefy, hunky. 2 these knives are robust: durable, resilient, tough, hard-wearing, long-lasting, sturdy, strong. 3 her usual robust view of things: down-to-earth, practical, realistic, pragmatic, common-sense, commonsensical, matter-of-fact, businesslike, sensible, unromantic, unsentimental; informal no-nonsense. 4 a robust red wine: strong, full-bodied, flavourful, flavoursome, rich.

– OPPOSITES frail, fragile, romantic, insipid.

rock<sup>1</sup> verb 1 the ship rocked on the water: move to and fro, move back and forth, sway, see-saw; roll, pitch, plunge, toss, lurch, reel, list; wobble, oscillate. 2 the building began to rock: shake, vibrate, quake, tremble. 3 Wall Street was rocked by the news: stun, shock, stagger, astonish, startle, surprise, shake (up), take aback, throw, unnerve, disconcert.

rock<sup>2</sup> noun 1 a gully strewn with rocks: boulder, stone, pebble; Austral. informal goolie. 2 a castle built on a rock: crag, cliff, outcrop. 3 he was the rock on which they relied: foundation, cornerstone, support, prop, mainstay; tower of strength, bulwark, anchor. 4 (informal) she wore a massive rock: diamond (ring), jewel, precious stone. ■ on the rocks (informal) 1 her marriage is on the rocks: in difficulty, in trouble, breaking up, over; in tatters, in ruins, ruined. 2 a Scotch on the rocks: with ice, on ice.

WORD LINKS

petrography, petrology, lithology the scientific study of rocks moraine a mass of rocks deposited by a glacier stratum a layer of rock

rocket noun 1 guerrillas fired rockets at them: missile, projectile. 2 they lit some colourful rockets: firework, Roman candle, banger. 3 (Brit. informal) he got a rocket from the boss.

See LECTURE noun sense 2.

• verb 1 prices have rocketed: shoot up, soar, increase, rise, escalate, spiral; informal go through the roof. 2 they rocketed into the alley: speed, zoom, shoot, whizz, tear, career; Brit. informal bomb; N. Amer. informal barrel, hightail it.

– OPPOSITES plummet.

rocky<sup>1</sup> adjective a rocky path: stony, pebbly, shingly; rough, bumpy; craggy, mountainous.

rocky<sup>2</sup> adjective 1 that table's rocky: unsteady, shaky, unstable, wobbly, tottery, rickety, flimsy. 2 a rocky marriage: difficult, problematic, precarious, unstable, unreliable, undependable; informal iffy, up and down.

– OPPOSITES steady, stable.

rococo adjective ornate, fancy, elaborate, extravagant, baroque; fussy, busy, ostentatious, showy; flowery, florid, flamboyant, high-flown, magniloquent, orotund, bombastic, overwrought, overblown, inflated, turgid; informal highfalutin.

– OPPOSITES plain.

rod noun 1 an iron rod: bar, stick, pole, baton, staff; shaft, strut, rail, spoke. 2 the ceremonial rod: staff, mace, sceptre.

3 instruction was accompanied by the rod: corporal punishment, the cane, the lash, the birch; beating, flogging, caning, birching.

rogue noun 1 a rogue without ethics: scoundrel, villain, miscreant, reprobate, rascal, good-for-nothing, ne'er-do-well, wretch; informal rat, dog, louse, crook; informal, dated rotter, bounder, blighter; dated cad; old use blackguard, knave. 2 your boy's a little rogue: rascal, imp, devil, monkey; informal scamp, scallywag, monster, horror, terror, tyke; Brit. informal perisher; N. Amer. informal hellion.

roguish adjective 1 a roguish character: unprincipled, dishonest, deceitful, unscrupulous, untrustworthy, shameless; wicked, villainous; informal shady, scoundrelly, rascally; old use knavish. 2 a roguish grin: mischievous, playful, teasing, cheeky, naughty, wicked, impish, devilish, arch; informal waggish.

roister verb enjoy oneself, celebrate, revel, carouse, frolic, romp, have fun, make merry, rollick; informal party, live it up, whoop it up, have a ball, make whoopee.

role noun 1 a small role in the film: part; character. 2 his role as President of the EC: capacity, position, job, post, office, duty, responsibility, mantle, place; function, part.

roll verb 1 the bottle rolled down the table: bowl, turn over and over, spin, rotate. 2 waiters rolled in the trolleys: wheel, push, trundle. 3 we rolled past fields: travel, go, move, pass, cruise, sweep. 4 the months rolled by: pass, go by, slip by, fly by, elapse, wear on, march on. 5 tears rolled down her cheeks: flow, run, course, stream, pour, spill, trickle. 6 the mist rolled in: billow, undulate, tumble. 7 he rolled his handkerchief into a ball: wind, coil, fold, curl; twist. 8 roll out the pastry: flatten, level; even out. 9 they rolled about with laughter: stagger, lurch, reel, totter, teeter, wobble. 10 the ship began to roll: lurch, toss, rock, pitch, plunge, sway, reel, list, keel. 11 thunder rolled: rumble, reverberate, echo, resound, boom, roar, grumble.

• noun 1 a roll of wrapping paper: cylinder, tube, scroll; bolt. 2 a roll of film: reel, spool. 3 a roll of notes: wad, bundle. 4 a roll of the dice: throw, toss, turn, spin. 5 crusty rolls: bread roll, bun, bagel; Brit. bap, muffin; N. English barm; N. Amer. hoagie; Military slang wad.

6 the electoral roll: list, register, directory, record, file, index, catalogue, inventory; census. 7 a roll of thunder: rumble, reverberation, echo, boom, clap, crack, roar, grumble.

■ roll in (informal) 1 money has been rolling in: pour in, flood in, flow in. 2 he rolled in at nine o'clock: arrive, turn up, appear, show one's face; informal show up, roll up, blow in.

■ roll something out unroll, spread out, unfurl, unfold, open (out), unwind, uncoil.

■ roll something up fold (up), furl, wind up, coil (up), bundle up.

rollicking<sup>1</sup> noun (Brit. informal) I got a rollicking for being late. See LECTURE noun sense 2.

rollicking<sup>2</sup> adjective a rollicking party: lively, boisterous, exuberant, spirited; riotous, noisy, wild, rowdy, roisterous; informal rumbustious; N. Amer. informal rambunctious.

roly-poly adjective (informal) chubby, plump, fat, stout, rotund, round, dumpy, chunky, portly, overweight, fleshy, paunchy, bulky, corpulent; informal tubby, pudgy, beefy, porky, blubbery; Brit. informal podgy; N. Amer. informal zaftig, corn-fed.

– OPPOSITES skinny.

romance noun 1 their romance blossomed: love, passion, ardour, adoration, devotion; affection, fondness, attachment. 2 he's had many romances: love affair, relationship, liaison, courtship, attachment; flirtation, dalliance. 3 an author of historical romances: love story, novel; romantic fiction; informal tear-jerker. 4 the romance of the Far East: mystery, glamour, excitement, exoticism, mystique; appeal, allure, charm.

• verb 1 (dated) he was romancing Meg: woo, chase, pursue; go out with, pay court to; informal see, go steady with, date; dated court, make love to. 2 I am romancing the past: romanticize, idealize, paint a rosy picture of.

romantic adjective 1 he's so romantic: loving, amorous, passionate, tender, affectionate; informal lovey-dovey. 2 romantic songs: sentimental, hearts-and-flowers, slushy, mushy, sloppy; mawkish, sickly, saccharine, syrupy; informal schmaltzy, gooey, treacly, cheesy, corny; Brit. informal soppy; N. Amer. informal cornball, sappy. 3 a romantic setting: idyllic, picturesque, fairy-tale; beautiful, lovely, charming, pretty. 4 romantic notions of rural communities: idealistic, idealized, unrealistic, fanciful, impractical; head-in-the-clouds, starry-eyed, optimistic, hopeful, visionary, utopian, fairy-tale.

– OPPOSITES unsentimental, realistic.

• noun an incurable romantic: idealist, sentimentalist, romanticist; dreamer, visionary, utopian, Don Quixote, fantasist; N. Amer. fantast.

– OPPOSITES realist.

Romeo noun ladies' man, Don Juan, Casanova, Lothario, womanizer, playboy, lover, seducer, philanderer, flirt; gigolo; informal ladykiller, stud.

romp verb 1 two fox cubs romped playfully: play, frolic, frisk, gambol, skip, prance, caper, cavort, rollick; dated sport. 2 South Africa romped to a win: sail, coast, sweep; win hands down, run away with it; informal win by a mile, walk it.

room noun 1 there isn't much room: space; headroom, legroom; area, expanse, extent; informal elbow room. 2 there's room for improvement: scope, capacity, leeway, latitude, freedom; opportunity, chance; informal wiggle room. 3 he had rooms in the Pepys building: lodgings, quarters; accommodation; a suite, an apartment; informal a pad, digs.

• verb he roomed there in September: lodge, board, live, stay; be quartered, be housed; formal dwell, reside, sojourn.

roomy adjective spacious, capacious, sizeable, generous, big, large, extensive; voluminous, ample; formal commodious.

– OPPOSITES cramped.

root noun 1 a plant's roots: rootstock, tuber, rootlet; taproot; Botany rhizome, radicle. 2 the root of the problem: source, origin, germ, beginnings, genesis; cause, reason, basis, foundation, bottom, seat; core, heart, nub, essence; formal radix. 3 he rejected his roots: origins, beginnings, family, ancestors, predecessors, heritage; birthplace, homeland.

• verb 1 has the shoot rooted? take root, grow roots, establish, strike, take. 2 root the cuttings: plant, bed out, sow. 3 he rooted around in the cupboard: rummage, hunt, search, rifle, delve, forage, dig, nose, poke; Brit. informal rootle.

■ root and branch 1 the firm should be eradicated, root and branch: completely, entirely, wholly, totally, thoroughly. 2 a root-and-branch reform: complete, total, thorough, radical.

■ root for (informal) cheer (on), applaud, support, encourage.

■ root something out 1 the hedge was rooted out: uproot, deracinate, pull up, grub out. 2 a campaign to root out corruption: eradicate, eliminate, weed out, destroy, wipe out, stamp out, extirpate, abolish, end, put a stop to.

■ take root 1 leave the plants to take root: germinate, sprout, establish, strike, take. 2 Christianity took root in Persia: become established, take hold; develop, thrive, flourish.

WORD LINKS

radical relating to the root of a plant rooted adjective 1 views rooted in Indian culture: embedded, fixed, established, entrenched, ingrained. 2 Neil was rooted to the spot: frozen, riveted, paralysed, glued, fixed; stock-still, motionless, unmoving.

rootless adjective itinerant, unsettled, drifting, roving, footloose; homeless, of no fixed abode.

rope noun cord, cable, line, hawser; string. • verb his feet were roped together: tie, bind, lash, truss; secure, moor, fasten, attach; hitch, tether, lasso.

■ rope someone in/into persuade to/into, talk into, inveigle into; enlist, engage.

WORD LINKS

funicular relating to a rope splice join a rope or ropes by interweaving the strands at the ends belay fix a rope round an object to secure it cleat a projection to which a rope may be attached marlinspike a tool used to separate strands of rope oakum loose fibre obtained by untwisting old rope

ropy adjective 1 ropy strands of lava: stringy, thready, fibrous, filamentous; viscous, sticky, mucilaginous, thick. 2 (Brit. informal) I feel a bit ropy. See ILL adjective sense 1. 3 (Brit. informal) ropy defending from the home team. See SUBSTANDARD.

roster noun schedule, list, listing, register, agenda, calendar, table; Brit. rota.

rostrum noun dais, platform, podium, stage; soapbox.

rosy adjective 1 a rosy complexion: pink, pinkish, roseate, reddish; glowing, healthy, fresh, radiant, blooming; blushing, flushed; ruddy, high-coloured, florid. 2 his future looks rosy: promising, optimistic, auspicious, hopeful, encouraging, favourable, bright, golden; informal upbeat.

– OPPOSITES pale, bleak.

rot verb 1 the floorboards rotted: decay, decompose, become rotten; disintegrate, crumble, perish. 2 the meat began to rot: go bad, go off, spoil; moulder, putrefy, fester. 3 poor neighbourhoods have been left to rot: deteriorate, degenerate, decline, decay, go to rack and ruin, go to seed, go downhill; informal go to pot, go to the dogs.

– OPPOSITES improve.

• noun 1 the leaves turned black with rot: decay, decomposition, mould, mouldiness, mildew, blight, canker; putrefaction, putrescence. 2 traditionalists said the rot had set in: deterioration, decline; corruption, cancer. 3 (informal) stop talking rot. See NONSENSE sense 1.

– OPPOSITES sense.

WORD LINKS

putrid, putrescent rotting and smelling very unpleasant carion the rotting flesh of dead animals saprophyte a plant or organism that lives on rotting matter rota noun (Brit.). See ROSTER.

rotary adjective rotating, rotatory, rotational, revolving, turning, spinning, gyrating, gyratory.

rotate verb 1 the wheels rotate continually: revolve, go round, turn (round), spin, gyrate, whirl, twirl, swivel, circle, pivot. 2 many nurses rotate jobs: alternate, take turns, change, switch, interchange, exchange, swap; move around.

rotation noun 1 the rotation of the wheels: revolving, turning, spinning, gyration, circling. 2 a rotation of the Earth: turn, revolution, orbit, spin. 3 each member is chair for six months in rotation: sequence, succession; alternation, cycle.

rote noun

■ by rote mechanically, automatically, parrot-fashion, unthinkingly, mindlessly; from memory, by heart.

rotten adjective 1 rotten meat: decaying, rotting, bad, off, decomposing, putrid, putrescent, perished, mouldy, mouldering, mildewy, rancid, festering, fetid; addled; maggoty, wormy, flyblown. 2 rotten teeth: decaying, decayed, carious, black; disintegrating, crumbling. 3 he's rotten to the core: corrupt, unprincipled, dishonest, dishonourable, unscrupulous, untrustworthy, immoral; villainous, bad, wicked, evil, iniquitous, venal; informal crooked, warped; Brit. informal bent. 4 (informal) a rotten thing to do: nasty, unkind, unpleasant, obnoxious, vile, contemptible, despicable, shabby; spiteful, mean, malicious, hateful, hurtful; unfair, uncharitable, uncalled for; informal dirty, low-down; Brit. informal out of order. 5 (informal) he was a rotten singer: bad, poor, dreadful, awful, terrible, frightful, atrocious, appalling, abysmal, hopeless, inadequate, inferior, substandard; informal crummy, pathetic, useless, lousy, dire; Brit. informal duff, rubbish, pants. 6 (informal) I feel rotten about it: guilty, conscience-stricken, remorseful, ashamed, shamefaced, chastened, contrite, sorry, regretful, repentant, penitent. 7 (informal) I felt rotten with that cold. See ILL adjective sense 1.

– OPPOSITES fresh, honourable, kind, good, well.

rotter noun (informal, dated). See SCOUNDREL.

rotund adjective 1 a small, rotund man: plump, chubby, fat, stout, portly, dumpy, round, chunky, overweight, heavy, paunchy, ample; flabby, fleshy, bulky, corpulent, obese; informal tubby, roly-poly, pudgy, beefy, porky, blubbery; Brit. informal podgy; N. Amer. informal zaftig, corn-fed. 2 rotund cauldrons: round, bulbous, spherical, spheric; literary orbicular.

– OPPOSITES thin.

roué noun libertine, rake, debauchee, degenerate, profligate; lecher, seducer, womanizer, philanderer, adulterer, Don Juan, Lothario; informal ladykiller, lech, dirty old man.

rough adjective 1 rough ground: uneven, irregular, bumpy, lumpy, knobbly, stony, rocky, rugged, rutted, pitted, rutty. 2 the terrier's rough coat: coarse, bristly, scratchy, prickly; shaggy, hairy, bushy. 3 rough skin: dry, leathery, weather-beaten; chapped, calloused, scaly, scabrous. 4 his voice was rough: gruff, hoarse, harsh, rasping, raspy, husky, throaty, gravelly, guttural. 5 rough red wine: sharp, sour, acidic, acid, vinegary, acidulous. 6 he gets rough when he's drunk: violent, brutal, vicious; aggressive, belligerent, pugnacious, thuggish; boisterous, rowdy, disorderly, unruly, riotous. 7 a machine that can take rough handling: careless, clumsy, inept, unskilful. 8 rough manners: boorish, loutish, oafish, brutish, coarse, crude, uncouth, vulgar, unrefined, unladylike, ungentelemanly, uncultured; unmannerly, impolite, discourteous, uncivil, ungracious, rude. 9 rough seas: turbulent, stormy, tempestuous, violent, heavy, heaving, choppy. 10 (informal) I've had a rough time: difficult, hard, tough, bad, unpleasant; demanding, arduous. 11 (informal) you were a bit rough on her: harsh, hard, tough, stern, severe, unfair, unjust; insensitive, nasty, cruel, unkind, unsympathetic, brutal, heartless, merciless. 12 (informal) I'm feeling rough. See ILL adjective sense 1. 13 a rough draft: preliminary, hasty, quick, sketchy, cursory, basic, crude, rudimentary, raw, unpolished; incomplete, unfinished. 14 a rough estimate: approximate, inexact, imprecise, vague, estimated, hazy; N. Amer. informal ballpark. 15 the accommodation is rather rough: plain, basic, simple, rough and ready, rude, crude, primitive, spartan.

– OPPOSITES smooth, sleek, soft, dulcet, sweet, gentle, careful, refined, calm, easy, kind, well, exact, luxurious.

● noun 1 the artist's initial roughs: sketch, draft, outline, mock-up. 2 (Brit.) a bunch of roughs attacked him: ruffian, thug, lout, hooligan, hoodlum, rowdy; informal tough, roughneck, bruiser, gorilla, yahoo; Brit. informal yob, yobbo.

● verb rough the surface with sandpaper: roughen.

■ rough something out draft, sketch out, outline, block out, mock up; formal adumbrate.

■ rough someone up (informal) beat up, attack, assault, knock about/around, batter, manhandle; informal do over, beat the living daylight out of; Brit. informal duff up.

rough and ready adjective basic, simple, crude, unrefined, unsophisticated; makeshift, provisional, stopgap, improvised, extemporary, ad hoc; hurried, sketchy.

rough and tumble noun scuffle, fight, brawl, melee, free-for-all, fracas, rumpus; horseplay; Law, dated affray; informal scrap, dust-up, punch-up, shindy; N. Amer. informal rough house.

roughly adverb 1 he shoved her roughly away: violently, forcefully, forcibly, abruptly, unceremoniously. 2 they treated him roughly: harshly, unkindly, unsympathetically; brutally, savagely, mercilessly, cruelly, heartlessly. 3 roughly £2.4 million: approximately, (round) about, around, circa, in the region of, something like, of the order of, or so, or thereabouts, more or less, give or take; nearly, close to, approaching; Brit. getting on for.

roughneck noun (informal). See RUFFIAN.

round adjective 1 a round window: circular, disc-shaped, ring-shaped, hoop-shaped; spherical, spheroidal, globular, globe-shaped, orb-shaped; cylindrical; bulbous, rounded, rotund; technical annular, discoid, discoidal; literary orbicular. 2 a short, round man: plump, chubby, fat, stout, rotund, portly, dumpy, chunky, overweight, pot-bellied, paunchy; flabby, corpulent, fleshy, bulky, obese; informal tubby, roly-poly, pudgy, beefy, porky, blubbery; Brit. informal podgy; N. Amer. informal zaftig, corn-fed. 3 his deep, round voice: sonorous, resonant, rich, full, mellow, mellifluous, orotund. 4 a round dozen: complete, entire, whole, full. 5 she berated him in round terms: candid, frank, direct, honest, truthful, straightforward, plain, blunt, forthright, bald, explicit, unequivocal.

— OPPOSITES thin, reedy.

• noun 1 mould the dough into rounds: ball, sphere, globe, orb, circle, disc, ring, hoop; technical annulus. 2 a policeman on his rounds: circuit, beat, route, tour. 3 the first round of the contest: stage, level; heat, game, bout, contest. 4 an endless round of parties: succession, sequence, series, cycle. 5 the gun fires thirty rounds a second: bullet, cartridge, shell, shot.

• preposition & adverb 1 the alleys round the station: around, about, encircling; near, in the vicinity of; orbiting. 2 casinos dotted round France: throughout, all over, here and there in.

• verb the ship rounded the point: go round, travel round, skirt, circumnavigate, orbit.

■ round about approximately, about, around, circa, roughly, of the order of, something like, more or less, as near as dammit to, close to, near to, practically; or so, or thereabouts, give or take a few; not far off, nearly, almost, approaching; Brit. getting on for.

■ round the bend (informal). See MAD sense 1.

■ round the clock 1 we're working round the clock: day and night, night and day, all the time, {morning, noon, and night}, continuously, non-stop, steadily, unremittingly; informal 24-7. 2 round-the-clock supervision: continuous, constant, non-stop, continual, uninterrupted.

■ round something off 1 the square edges were rounded off: smooth off, plane off, sand off, level off. 2 the party rounded off a successful year: complete, finish off, crown, cap, top; conclude, close, end.

■ round on someone snap at, attack, turn on, weigh into, let fly at, lash out at, hit out at; informal bite someone's head off, jump down someone's throat, lay into, tear into; Brit. informal have a go at; N. Amer. informal light into.

■ round someone/something up gather together, herd together, muster, marshal, rally, assemble, collect, group; N. Amer. corral.

roundabout adjective 1 a roundabout route: circuitous, indirect, meandering, serpentine, tortuous. 2 I asked in a roundabout sort of way: indirect, oblique, circuitous, circumlocutory, periphrastic, digressive, long-winded; evasive.

— OPPOSITES direct.

• noun (Brit.) 1 go straight on at the roundabout: N. Amer. rotary, traffic circle. 2 a roundabout with wooden horses: merry-go-round, carousel; old use whirligig.

roundly adverb 1 he was roundly condemned: vehemently, emphatically, fiercely, forcefully, severely; plainly, frankly, candidly. 2 she was roundly defeated: utterly, completely, thoroughly, decisively, conclusively, heavily, soundly.

round-up noun 1 a cattle round-up:

assembly, muster, rally; N. Amer. rodeo.

2 the sports round-up: summary, synopsis, overview, review, outline, digest, precis; N. Amer. wrap-up; informal recap.

rouse verb 1 he roused Ralph at dawn: wake (up), awaken, arouse; Brit. informal knock up; formal waken. 2 she roused and looked around: wake up, awake, awaken, come to, get up, rise, bestir oneself; formal arise. 3 he roused the crowd: stir up, excite, galvanize, electrify, stimulate, inspire, inspirit, move, inflame, agitate, goad, provoke; incite, spur on; N. Amer. light a fire under. 4 he's got a temper when he's roused: provoke, annoy, anger, infuriate, madden, incense, vex, irk; informal aggravate. 5 her disappearance roused my suspicions: arouse, awaken, prompt, provoke, stimulate, pique, trigger, spark off, touch off, kindle, elicit.

— OPPOSITES calm, pacify, allay.

rousing adjective stirring, inspiring, exciting, stimulating, moving, electrifying, invigorating, energizing, exhilarating; enthusiastic, vigorous, spirited; inflammatory.

rout noun 1 the army's ignominious rout: retreat, flight. 2 Newcastle scored 13 tries in the rout: crushing defeat, trouncing, annihilation; debacle, fiasco; informal licking, hammering, thrashing, pasting, drubbing, massacre.

— OPPOSITES victory.

• verb 1 his army was routed: put to flight, drive off, scatter; defeat, beat, conquer, vanquish, crush, overpower. 2 he routed the defending champion: beat hollow, trounce, defeat, get the better of; informal lick, hammer, clobber, thrash, paste, demolish, annihilate, drub, cane, wipe the floor with, walk all over, make mincemeat of, massacre, slaughter; Brit. informal stuff; N. Amer. informal cream, shellac, skunk.

route noun a different route to the shops:

way, course, road, path, direction; passage, journey.

• verb enquiries are routed to the relevant desk: direct, send, convey, dispatch, forward.

routine noun 1 his morning routine:

procedure, practice, pattern, drill, regime, regimen; programme, schedule, plan; formula, method, system; customs, habits; formal wont. 2 a stand-up routine: act, performance, number, turn, piece; informal spiel, patter.

• adjective 1 a routine health check: standard, regular, customary, normal, usual, ordinary, typical; everyday, common, commonplace, conventional, habitual; literary wonted. 2 a routine action movie: boring, tedious, tiresome, wearisome, monotonous, humdrum, run-of-the-mill, prosaic, dreary, pedestrian; predictable, hackneyed, stock, unimaginative, unoriginal, banal, trite.

– OPPOSITES unusual.

rove verb wander, roam, ramble, drift, meander; range, travel; Scottish stravaig; old use peregrinate.

rover noun wanderer, traveller, globetrotter, drifter, bird of passage, roamer, itinerant, transient; nomad, Gypsy, Romany; tramp, vagrant, vagabond; N. Amer. hobo.

row<sup>1</sup> noun 1 rows of children: line, column, file, queue; procession, chain, string, succession; informal crocodile. 2 the middle row of seats: tier, line, rank, bank.

■ in a row three days in a row: consecutively, in succession; running, straight; informal on the trot.

row<sup>2</sup> (Brit. informal) noun 1 have you two had a row? argument, quarrel, squabble, fight, contretemps, falling-out, disagreement, dispute, clash, altercation, shouting match; informal tiff, set-to, run-in, slanging match, spat; Brit. informal barney, bust-up.

2 the row the crowd was making: din, noise, racket, clamour, uproar, tumult, hubbub, commotion, brouhaha, rumpus, pandemonium, babel; informal hullabaloo.

3 Mum give me a row: reprimand, rebuke, reproof, admonition, reproach, remonstrance, lecture, criticism; informal telling-off, slap on the wrist, dressing-down, roasting, tongue-lashing; Brit. informal ticking-off, carpeting, rollicking, rocket.

• verb they rowed about money: argue, quarrel, squabble, bicker, fight, fall out, disagree, have words, dispute, wrangle, cross swords, lock horns, be at loggerheads; informal scrap, argufy.

rowdy adjective rowdy youths: unruly, disorderly, obstreperous, riotous, undisciplined, uncontrollable, ungovernable, disruptive, out of control, rough, wild, lawless; boisterous, uproarious, noisy, loud, clamorous; informal rumbustious; N. Amer. informal rambunctious.

– OPPOSITES peaceful.

• noun the pub filled up with rowdies:

ruffian, troublemaker, lout, hooligan, thug, hoodlum; Brit. tearaway; informal tough, bruiser, yahoo; Brit. informal rough, yob, yobbo.

royal adjective 1 the royal prerogative:

regal, kingly, queenly, princely; sovereign, monarchical. 2 a royal welcome: excellent, fine, magnificent, splendid, superb, wonderful, first-rate, first-class; informal fantastic, great, tremendous.

rub verb 1 Polly rubbed her arm: massage, knead; stroke, pat. 2 he rubbed sun lotion on her back: apply, smear, spread, work in. 3 my shoes rub painfully: chafe, pinch; hurt, be painful.

• noun 1 she gave his back a rub: massage, rub-down. 2 I gave my shoes a rub: polish, wipe, clean. 3 it's too complicated—that's the rub: problem, difficulty, trouble, drawback, hindrance, impediment; snag, hitch, catch.

■ rub along (Brit. informal) manage, cope, get by, make do, muddle along/through; informal make out.

■ rub something down clean, sponge, wash; groom.

■ rub it in (informal) emphasize, stress, underline, highlight; go on, harp on; informal rub someone's nose in it.

■ rub off on be transferred to, be passed on to, be transmitted to, be communicated to; affect, influence.

■ rub something out erase, delete, remove, efface, obliterate, expunge.

■ rub shoulders with associate with, mingle with, fraternize with, socialize with, mix with, keep company with, consort with; N. Amer. rub elbows with; informal hang around/out with, hobnob with, knock about/around with.

■ rub something up polish, buff up, burnish, shine, wax; clean, wipe.

■ rub someone up the wrong way (Brit.).

See ANNOY.

rubbish noun 1 throw away that rubbish:

refuse, waste, litter, debris, detritus, scrap, dross; flotsam and jetsam, lumber; sweepings, scraps, dregs; N. Amer. garbage, trash; informal dreck, junk. 2 she's talking rubbish: nonsense, balderdash, gibberish, claptrap, blarney, moonshine, garbage; informal hogwash, baloney, tripe, drivel, bilge, bunk, piffle, poppycock, phooey, twaddle, gobbledegook; Brit. informal codswallop, cobblers, tosh, cack; Scottish & N. English informal havers; N. Amer. informal bushwa, applesauce.

• verb (Brit. informal) they often rubbish trade unions. See CRITICIZE.

• adjective (Brit. informal) a rubbish team. See HOPELESS sense 3.

rubbishy adjective (informal) worthless, substandard, trashy, inferior, second-rate, third-rate, poor-quality, cheap, shoddy; bad, poor, dreadful, awful, terrible, appalling; informal crummy, lousy, dire, tacky; Brit. informal duff, chronic, rubbish.

rubble noun debris, remains, ruins, wreckage.

ruccion noun (informal) disturbance, noise, racket, din, commotion, fuss, uproar, furore, hue and cry, rumpus, fracas; (ruccions) trouble, hell to pay; informal to-do, hullabaloo, hoo-ha, ballyhoo, stink, kerfuffle; Brit. informal row, carry-on.

ruddy adjective 1 a ruddy complexion: rosy, red, pink, roseate, rubicund; healthy, glowing, fresh; flushed, blushing; florid, high-coloured; literary rufescent. 2 (Brit. informal) you ruddy idiot! See DAMNED sense 2.

— OPPOSITES pale.

rude adjective 1 a rude man: ill-mannered, bad-mannered, impolite, discourteous, uncivil, unmannerly, mannerless; impertinent, insolent, impudent, disrespectful, cheeky; churlish, curt, brusque, brash, offhand, short, sharp; offensive, insulting, derogatory, disparaging, abusive; tactless, undiplomatic, uncomplimentary. 2 rude jokes: vulgar, coarse, smutty, dirty, filthy, crude, lewd, obscene, off colour, offensive, indelicate, tasteless; risqué, naughty, ribald, bawdy, racy; informal blue; Brit. informal near the knuckle; N. Amer. informal gamy; euphemistic adult. 3 a rude awakening: abrupt, sudden, sharp, startling; unpleasant, nasty, harsh. 4 (dated) a rude cabin: primitive, crude, rudimentary, rough, simple, basic. 5 (old use) a rude and barbarous people: uneducated, ignorant, illiterate; uncultured, uncivilized, unrefined; rough, coarse, uncouth, boorish.

— OPPOSITES polite, clean, luxurious, civilized.

rudimentary adjective 1 rudimentary carpentry skills: basic, elementary, primary, fundamental, essential. 2 the equipment was rudimentary: primitive, crude, simple, unsophisticated, rough (and ready), makeshift. 3 a rudimentary thumb: vestigial, undeveloped, incomplete; Biology abortive, primitive.

— OPPOSITES advanced, sophisticated, developed.

rudiments plural noun basics, fundamentals, essentials, first principles, foundation; informal nuts and bolts, ABC.

rue verb regret, be sorry about, feel remorseful about, repent of, reproach oneself for; deplore, lament, bemoan, bewail.

rueful adjective regretful, apologetic, sorry, remorseful, shamefaced, sheepish, hangdog, contrite, repentant, penitent, conscience-stricken, self-reproachful; sorrowful, sad.

ruffian noun thug, lout, hooligan, hoodlum, vandal, delinquent, rowdy, scoundrel, villain, rogue, bully boy, brute; informal tough, bruiser, heavy, yahoo; Brit. informal rough, yob, yobbo; N. Amer. informal goon.

ruffle verb 1 he ruffled her hair: disarrange, tousle, dishevel, rumple, ruffle, disorder, mess up, tangle; N. Amer. informal muss up. 2 the wind ruffled the water: ripple, riffle. 3 don't let him ruffle you: annoy, irritate, vex, nettle, anger, exasperate; disconcert, unnerve, fluster, agitate, harass, upset, disturb, discomfit, put off, perturb, unsettle, bother, worry, trouble; informal rattle, faze, throw, get to, rile, needle, aggravate, bug, peeve; Brit. informal wind up, nark.

— OPPOSITES smooth, soothe.

• noun a shirt with ruffles: frill, flounce, ruff, ruche, jabot, furbelow.

rug noun 1 they sat on the rug: mat, carpet. 2 he was wrapped in a tartan rug: blanket, coverlet, throw, wrap; N. Amer. lap robe.

rugged adjective 1 the rugged coast path: rough, uneven, bumpy, rocky, stony, pitted, jagged, craggy. 2 a rugged vehicle: robust, durable, sturdy, strong, tough, resilient. 3 rugged manly types: well built, burly, strong, muscular, muscly, brawny, strapping, husky, hulking; tough, hardy, robust, sturdy, lusty, solid; informal hunky, beefy. 4 his rugged features: strong, craggy, rough-hewn; manly, masculine; irregular, weathered.

— OPPOSITES smooth, flimsy, weedy, delicate.

ruin noun 1 the buildings were saved from ruin: disintegration, decay, disrepair, dilapidation, ruination; destruction, demolition, wreckage. 2 the ruins of a church: remains, remnants, fragments, relics; rubble, debris, wreckage. 3 electoral ruin for Labour: downfall, collapse, defeat, undoing, failure, breakdown, ruination; Waterloo. 4 shopkeepers are facing ruin: bankruptcy, insolvency, penury, poverty, destitution, impoverishment, indigence; failure.

— OPPOSITES preservation, triumph, wealth.

• verb 1 don't ruin my plans: wreck, destroy, spoil, mar, blight, shatter, dash, torpedo, scotch, mess up; sabotage; informal screw up, foul up, put the kibosh on, do for, nix, queer; Brit. informal scupper. 2 the bank's collapse ruined them all: bankrupt, make insolvent, impoverish, pauperize, wipe out, break, cripple; bring someone to their knees. 3 a country ruined by civil war: destroy, devastate, lay waste, ravage; raze, demolish, wreck, wipe out, flatten.

— OPPOSITES save, rebuild.

■ in ruins 1 the abbey is in ruins: derelict, ruined, in disrepair, falling to pieces, dilapidated, tumbledown, ramshackle, decrepit, decaying, ruinous. 2 his career is in ruins: destroyed, ruined, in pieces, in ashes; over, finished; informal in tatters, on the rocks, done for.

ruined adjective derelict, in ruins, dilapidated, ruinous, tumbledown, ramshackle, decrepit, falling to pieces, crumbling, decaying, disintegrating; informal shambly.

ruinous adjective 1 a ruinous trade war: disastrous, devastating, catastrophic, calamitous, crippling, crushing, damaging, destructive, harmful; costly. 2 ruinous interest rates: extortionate, exorbitant, excessive, sky-high, outrageous, inflated; Brit. over the odds; informal criminal, steep. 3 a ruinous chapel. See RUINED.

rule noun 1 health and safety rules: regulation, ruling, directive, order, act, law, statute, edict, canon, mandate, command, dictate, decree, fiat, injunction, commandment, stipulation, requirement, guideline, direction; formal ordinance. 2 church attendance on Sunday was the general rule: procedure, practice, protocol, convention, norm, routine, custom, habit; formal praxis, wont. 3 moderation is the golden rule: precept, principle, standard, axiom, truth, maxim. 4 Punjab came under British rule: control, jurisdiction, command, power, dominion; government, administration, sovereignty, leadership, supremacy, authority; raj.

• verb 1 El Salvador was ruled by Spain:

govern, preside over, control, lead, dominate, run, head, administer, manage.

2 Mary ruled for six years: be in power, be in control, be in command, be in charge, govern; reign, be monarch, be sovereign.

3 the judge ruled that they be set free: decree, order, pronounce, judge, adjudge, ordain; decide, find, determine, resolve, settle.

4 subversion ruled: prevail, predominate, be the order of the day, reign supreme; formal obtain.

■ as a rule usually, generally, in general, normally, ordinarily, customarily, for the most part, on the whole, by and large, in the main, mainly, mostly, commonly, typically.

■ rule something out exclude, eliminate, disregard; preclude, prohibit, prevent, disallow.

ruler noun leader, sovereign, monarch, potentate, king, queen, emperor, empress, prince, princess; crowned head, head of state, president, premier, governor; overlord, chief, chieftain, lord; dictator, autocrat.

– OPPOSITES subject.

ruling noun the judge's ruling: judgement, decision, adjudication, finding, verdict; pronouncement, resolution, decree, injunction.

• adjective 1 the ruling monarch: reigning, sovereign, regnant. 2 Japan's ruling party: governing, controlling, commanding, supreme, leading, dominant, ascendant.

3 football was their ruling passion: main, chief, principal, major, prime, dominating, foremost; predominant, central, focal; informal number-one.

rum adjective (Brit. informal, dated). See PECULIAR sense 1.

rumble verb boom, thunder, roll, roar, resound, reverberate, echo, grumble.

rumbustious adjective (informal). See BOISTEROUS sense 1.

ruminate verb 1 we ruminated on life: think about, contemplate, consider, meditate on, muse on, mull over, ponder on/over, deliberate about/on, chew over, puzzle over; formal cogitate about. 2 cows ruminating: chew the cud.

rummage verb search, hunt, root about/around, ferret about/around, fish about/around, poke around in, dig, delve, go through, explore, sift through, rifle through; Brit. informal rootle around.

rumour noun gossip, hearsay, talk, tittle-tattle, speculation, word, on dit; (rumours) reports, stories, whispers, canards; informal the grapevine, the word on the street, the buzz; N. Amer. informal scuttlebutt.

rump noun 1 a smack on the rump: rear (end), seat; buttocks, cheeks; Brit. bottom; Scottish bahookie; informal backside, behind, BTM, sit-upon, derrière; Brit. informal bum, botty, jackie; N. Amer. informal butt, fanny, tush, tail, buns, booty, heinie, bippy; humorous fundament, posterior, stern; Anatomy nates.

2 the rump of the army: remainder, rest, remnant, remains.

rumple verb 1 the sheet was rumpled:

crumple, crease, wrinkle, crinkle, ruck (up), scrunch up; Brit. ruckle. 2 Ian rumpled her hair: ruffle, disarrange, tousle, dishevel, ruffle; mess up; N. Amer. informal muss up.

– OPPOSITES smooth.

rumpus noun disturbance, commotion, uproar, furore, brouhaha, hue and cry, ruckus; fracas, melee, tumult, noise, racket, din; informal to-do, hullabaloo, kerfuffle, ballyhoo; Brit. informal row, carry-on.

run verb 1 she ran across the road: sprint, race, dart, rush, dash, hasten, hurry, scurry, scamper, hare, bolt, fly, gallop, career, charge, shoot, hurtle, speed, zoom, go like lightning, go hell for leather, go like the wind; jog, trot; informal tear, pelt, scoot, hotfoot it, leg it, belt, zip, whip; Brit. informal bomb; N. Amer. informal hightail it, barrel. 2 the robbers turned and ran: flee, run away, run off, run for it, take flight, make off, take off, take to one's heels, make a break for it, bolt, make one's getaway, escape; informal beat it, clear off/out, vamoose, skedaddle, split, leg it, scam; Brit. informal do a runner, scarper, do a bunk; N. Amer. informal light out, take a powder, skidoo; Austral. informal shoot through. 3 he ran in the marathon: compete, take part, participate. 4 a shiver ran down my spine: go, pass, slide, move, travel. 5 he ran his eye down the list: cast, pass, skim, flick. 6 the road runs the length of the valley: extend, stretch, reach, continue. 7 water ran from the eaves: flow, pour, stream, gush, flood, cascade, roll, course, spill, trickle, drip, dribble, leak. 8 a bus runs to Sorrento: travel, shuttle, go. 9 I'll run you home: drive, take, bring, ferry, chauffeur, give someone a lift. 10 he runs a transport company: be in charge of, manage, direct, control, head, govern, supervise, superintend, oversee; operate, conduct, own. 11 it's expensive to run a car: maintain, keep, own, possess, have; drive. 12 they ran some tests: carry out, do, perform, execute. 13 he left the engine running: operate, function, work, go; tick over, idle. 14 the lease runs for twenty years: be valid, last, be in effect, be operative, continue, be effective. 15 the show ran for two years: be staged, be performed, be on, be mounted, be screened. 16 he ran for president: stand for, be a candidate for, be a contender for. 17 the paper ran the story: publish, print, feature, carry, put out, release, issue. 18 they run drugs: smuggle, traffic in, deal in. 19 they were run out of town: chase, drive, hound.

• noun 1 his morning run: sprint, jog, dash, gallop, trot. 2 she did the school run: route, journey; circuit, round, beat. 3 a run in the car: drive, ride, turn; trip, excursion, outing, jaunt, airing; informal spin, tootle; Scottish informal hurl. 4 an unbeaten run of victories: series, succession, sequence, string, chain, streak, spell, stretch, spate. 5 a run on sterling: demand for, rush on. 6 they had the run of her home: free use of, unrestricted access to. 7 the usual run of cafes: type, kind, sort, variety, class. 8 against the run of play, he scored again: trend, tendency, course, direction, movement, drift, tide. 9 a chicken run: enclosure, pen, coop. 10 a ski run: slope, track, piste; N. Amer. trail. 11 a run in her tights: ladder, rip, tear, snag, hole. ■ in the long run eventually, in the end, ultimately, when all is said and done, in the fullness of time; Brit. informal at the end of the day.

■ on the run on the loose, at large, loose; running away, fleeing, fugitive; informal AWOL; N. Amer. informal on the lam.

■ run across meet (by chance), come across, run into, chance on, stumble on, happen on; informal bump into.

■ run after (informal) pursue, chase; make advances to, flirt with; informal make up to, come on to, be all over, vamp; dated set one's cap at.

■ run along (informal) go away, be off with you, shoo; informal scam, buzz off, skedaddle, scat, beat it, get lost, shove off, clear off; Brit. informal hop it; literary begone.

■ run away 1 her attacker ran away. See RUN verb sense 2. 2 she ran away with the championship: win easily, win hands down; informal win by a mile, walk it, romp home.

■ run down decline, degenerate, go downhill, go to seed, decay, go to rack and ruin; informal go to pot, go to the dogs.

■ run someone down 1 he was run down by joyriders: run over, knock down/over; hit, strike. 2 she ran him down in front of other people: criticize, denigrate, belittle, disparage, deprecate, find fault with; informal put down, knock, bad-mouth; Brit. informal rubbish, slag off; formal derogate.

■ run something down 1 she finally ran a copy of the book down: find, discover, locate, track down, trace, unearth. 2 employers ran down their workforces gradually: reduce, cut back on, downsize, decrease, trim; phase out, wind down/up.

■ run high feelings were running high: be strong, be fervent, be passionate, be intense.

■ run into 1 a car ran into his van: collide with, hit, strike, crash into, smash into, plough into, ram, impact. 2 I ran into Hugo the other day: meet (by chance), run across, chance on, stumble on, happen on; informal bump into. 3 we ran into a problem: experience, encounter, meet with, be faced with, be confronted with. 4 his debts run into six figures: reach, extend to, be as much as.

■ run low supplies were running low: dwindle, diminish, become depleted, be used up, be in short supply, be tight.

■ run off 1 the youths ran off. See RUN verb sense 2. 2 (informal) he ran off with her money.

See STEAL verb sense 1.

■ run something off 1 would you run off that list for me? copy, photocopy, xerox, duplicate, print, produce, do. 2 run off some of the excess water: drain, bleed, draw off, pump out.

■ run on 1 the call ran on for hours: continue, go on, carry on, last, keep going, stretch.

2 your mother does run on: talk incessantly, talk a lot, go on, chatter on, ramble on; informal yak, gab, yabber; Brit. informal rabbit on, witter on, chunter on, talk the hind leg off a donkey; N. Amer. informal run off at the mouth.

■ run out 1 supplies ran out: be used up, dry up, be exhausted, be finished, peter out. 2 they ran out of cash: be out of; use up, consume, eat up; informal be fresh out of, be cleaned out of. 3 her contract ran out: expire, end, terminate, finish; lapse.

■ run over 1 the bathwater ran over: overflow, spill over, brim over; old use overbrim. 2 the project ran over budget: exceed, go over, overshoot, overreach. 3 he quickly ran over the story: recapitulate, repeat, run through, go over, reiterate, review; look over, read through; informal recap on.

■ run someone over. See RUN SOMEONE DOWN sense 1.

■ run through 1 they quickly ran through their money: squander, spend, fritter away, dissipate, waste, go through, consume, use up; informal blow. 2 the attitude that runs through his writing: pervade, permeate, suffuse, imbue, inform. 3 he ran through his notes. See RUN OVER sense 3. 4 let's run through scene three: rehearse, practise, go over, repeat; N. Amer. run down; informal recap on.

■ run to 1 the bill ran to £22,000: amount to, add up to, total, come to, equal, reach, be as much as. 2 we can't run to champagne: afford, stretch to, manage. 3 he was running to fat: tend to, become, get, grow.

runaway noun a teenage runaway: fugitive, escaper, escapee; refugee; truant; absconder, deserter.

• adjective 1 a runaway horse: out of control, escaped, loose, on the loose. 2 a runaway victory: easy, effortless; informal as easy as pie. 3 runaway inflation: rampant, out of control, unchecked, unbridled.

rundown noun summary, synopsis, precis, run-through, summarization, summation, review, overview, briefing, sketch, outline; informal low-down, recap.

run down adjective 1 a run-down area of London: dilapidated, tumbledown, ramshackle, derelict, ruinous, in ruins, crumbling; neglected, uncared-for, depressed, seedy, shabby, slummy, squalid; informal shambly; Brit. informal grotty. 2 she was feeling rather run down: unwell, ill, poorly, unhealthy, peaky; tired, drained, exhausted, fatigued, worn out, below par, washed out; Brit. off colour; informal under the weather; Brit. informal off, ropy, knackered; Scottish informal wabbit; Austral./NZ informal crook; dated seedy.

run-in noun (informal) disagreement, argument, dispute, altercation, confrontation, contretemps, quarrel; brush, encounter, tangle, fight, clash; informal set-to, spat, scrap; Brit. informal row.

runner noun 1 the runners were limbering up: athlete, sprinter, hurdler, racer, jogger. 2 a strawberry runner: shoot, offshoot, sprout, tendril; Botany stolon. 3 the bookmaker employed runners: messenger, courier, errand boy; informal gofer.

■ do a runner (Brit. informal). See ABSCOND.

running noun 1 his running was particularly fast: sprinting, sprint, racing, jogging, jog.

2 the running of the school: administration, management, organization, coordination, orchestration, handling, direction, control, regulation, supervision. 3 the smooth running of her department: operation, working, function, performance.

• adjective 1 running water: flowing, gushing, rushing, moving. 2 a running argument: ongoing, sustained, continuous, incessant, ceaseless, constant, perpetual; recurrent, recurring. 3 she was late two days running: in succession, in a row, in sequence, consecutively; straight, together; informal on the trot.

■ in the running he's in the running for a prize: likely to get, a candidate for, in line for, on the shortlist for, up for.

runny adjective liquefied, liquid, fluid, melted, molten; watery, thin.

– OPPOSITES solid.

run-of-the-mill adjective ordinary, average, middle-of-the-road, commonplace, humdrum, mundane, standard, nondescript, characterless, conventional; unremarkable, unexceptional, uninteresting, dull, boring, routine, bland, lacklustre; N. Amer. garden-variety; informal bog-standard, nothing to write home about, nothing special, a dime a dozen; Brit. informal common or garden.

– OPPOSITES exceptional.

rupture noun 1 pipeline ruptures: break, fracture, crack, burst, split, fissure. 2 a rupture due to personal differences: rift, estrangement, falling-out, break-up, breach, split, separation, parting, division, schism; informal bust-up. 3 an abdominal rupture: hernia.

• verb 1 the reactor core might rupture: break, fracture, crack, breach, burst, split; informal bust. 2 the problem ruptured their relationships: sever, break off, breach, disrupt; literary sunder.

rural adjective country, countryside, bucolic, rustic, pastoral; agricultural, agrarian; literary sylvan, georgic.

– OPPOSITES urban.

ruse noun ploy, stratagem, tactic, scheme, trick, gambit, cunning plan, dodge, subterfuge, machination, wile; Brit. informal wheeze.

rush verb 1 she rushed home: hurry, dash, run, race, sprint, bolt, dart, gallop, career, charge, shoot, hurtle, hare, fly, speed, zoom, scurry, scuttle, scamper, hasten; informal tear, belt, pelt, scoot, zip, whip, hotfoot it, leg it; Brit. informal bomb; N. Amer. informal hightail it. 2 water rushed along gutters: flow, pour, gush, surge, stream, cascade, run, course. 3 the tax was rushed through parliament: push, hurry, hasten, speed, hustle, press, force. 4 they rushed the cordon of troops: attack, charge, run at, assail, storm.

• noun 1 Tim made a rush for the exit: dash, run, sprint, dart, bolt, charge, scramble, break. 2 the lunchtime rush: hustle and bustle, commotion, hubbub, hurly-burly, stir. 3 a last minute rush for flights: demand, clamour, call, request; run on. 4 he was in no rush to leave: hurry, haste, urgency. 5 a rush of adrenalin: surge, flow, flood, spurt, stream; dart, thrill, flash. 6 a rush of cold air: gust, draught, flurry. 7 I made a sudden rush at him: charge, onslaught, attack, assault, onrush.

• adjective a rush job: urgent, high-priority, emergency; hurried, hasty, fast, quick, swift; N. Amer. informal hurry-up.

rushed adjective 1 a rushed divorce: hasty, fast, speedy, quick, swift, rapid, hurried. 2 he was too rushed to enjoy his stay: pushed for time, pressed for time, busy, in a hurry, run off one's feet.

rust verb corrode, oxidize, become rusty, tarnish.

WORD LINKS

ferruginous rust-coloured

rustic adjective 1 a rustic setting: rural, country, countryside, countrified, pastoral, bucolic; agricultural, agrarian; literary sylvan, georgic. 2 rustic wooden tables: plain, simple, homely, unsophisticated; rough, rude, crude. 3 rustic peasants: unsophisticated, uncultured, unrefined, simple; artless, unassuming, guileless, naive, ingenuous; coarse, rough, uncouth, boorish; N. Amer. informal hillbilly, hick.

– OPPOSITES urban, ornate, sophisticated.

• noun the rustics were carousing: peasant, countryman, countrywoman, bumpkin, yokel, country cousin; N. Amer. informal hillbilly, hayseed, hick; Austral./NZ informal bushy; old use swain, cottier.

rustle verb 1 her dress rustled as she moved: swish, whoosh, whisper, sigh. 2 he was rustling cattle: steal, thief, take; abduct, kidnap.

• noun the rustle of the leaves: swish, whisper, rustling; literary susurration, susurrus.

■ rustle something up (informal) prepare hastily, throw together, make; informal fix; Brit. informal knock up.

rusty adjective 1 rusty wire: rusted, rust-covered, corroded, oxidized; tarnished, discoloured. 2 his hair was a rusty colour: reddish-brown, chestnut, auburn, tawny, russet, coppery, copper, Titian, red. 3 my French is a little rusty: out of practice, below par; unpractised, deficient, impaired, weak.

rut noun 1 the car bumped across the ruts: furrow, groove, trough, ditch, hollow, pothole, crater. 2 he was stuck in a rut:

boring routine, humdrum existence, groove, dead end.

ruthless adjective merciless, pitiless, cruel, heartless, hard-hearted, cold-hearted, cold-blooded, harsh, callous, unmerciful, unforgiving, uncaring, unsympathetic, uncharitable; remorseless, unbending, inflexible, implacable; brutal, inhuman, inhumane, barbarous, barbaric, savage, sadistic, vicious.

– OPPOSITES merciful.

Ss

sable adjective black, jet-black, pitch-black, ebony, raven, sooty, dusky, inky, coal-black.

sabotage noun vandalism, wrecking, destruction, impairment, incapacitation, damage; subversion, obstruction, disruption, spoiling, undermining; Brit. a spanner in the works.

• verb vandalize, wreck, damage, destroy, cripple, impair, incapacitate; obstruct, disrupt, spoil, ruin, undermine, threaten, subvert.

sac noun bag, pouch; Medicine blister, cyst; Anatomy bladder, bursa, saccul, vesicle.

saccharine adjective sentimental, sickly, mawkish, mushy, slushy, cloying, sugary, sickening, nauseating; informal schmaltzy, weepy, gooey, drippy, cheesy, corny, toe-curling; Brit. informal soppy, twee; N. Amer. informal cornball, sappy.

sack<sup>1</sup> noun 1 a sack of flour: bag, pouch, pocket, pack. 2 (informal) work hard or you'll get the sack: dismissal, discharge, redundancy; informal the boot, the bullet, the axe, the heave-ho, the elbow, the push.

3 (informal) she stayed in the sack: bed; informal kip; Brit. informal pit.

• verb (informal) she was sacked for stealing:

dismiss, discharge, lay off, make redundant, let go, throw out; Military cashier; informal fire, kick out, boot out, give someone the bullet, give someone the sack, give someone their marching orders, show someone the door, send packing; Brit. informal give someone their cards.

■ hit the sack (informal) go to bed, retire, go to sleep; informal turn in, hit the hay, crash (out).

sack<sup>2</sup> verb raiders sacked the town: ravage, lay waste, devastate, raid, ransack, strip, plunder, despoil, pillage, loot, rob.

sackcloth noun hessian, sacking, hopsack, burlap; N. Amer. gunny.

■ wearing sackcloth and ashes penitent, contrite, regretful, sorrowful, rueful, remorseful, apologetic, ashamed, guilt-ridden, chastened, shamefaced, self-reproachful, guilty.

sacred adjective 1 the priest entered the sacred place: holy, hallowed, blessed, consecrated, sanctified, venerated, revered; old use blest. 2 sacred music: religious, spiritual, devotional, tribe, ecclesiastical. 3 the hill is sacred to the tribe: sacrosanct, inviolable, inviolate, untouchable, protected, defended, secure.

– OPPOSITES secular, profane.

WORD LINKS

blaspheme speak disrespectfully about sacred things

desecrate, violate treat something sacred with violent disrespect sacrilege the treating of something sacred with great disrespect consecrate, sanctify declare that something is sacred or holy sanctum a sacred or holy place scriptures the sacred writings of Christianity or another religion hierophant a person who interprets sacred mysteries sacrifice noun 1 the sacrifice of animals:

ritual slaughter, offering, oblation, immolation. 2 the calf was a sacrifice:

(votive) offering, burnt offering, gift, oblation. 3 the sacrifice of sovereignty:

surrender, giving up, abandonment, renunciation, forfeiture, relinquishment, resignation, abdication.

• verb 1 two goats were sacrificed: offer up, immolate, slaughter. 2 he sacrificed his principles: give up, abandon, surrender, forgo, renounce, forfeit, relinquish, resign,

abdicate; betray.

sacrificial adjective votive, oblatory, oblatinal; expiatory, propitiatory.

sacrilege noun desecration, profanity, profanation, blasphemy, impiety, irreligion, unholiness, irreverence, disrespect.

– OPPOSITES piety.

sacrilegious adjective profane, blasphemous, impious, sinful, irreverent, irreligious, unholy, disrespectful.

sacrosanct adjective sacred, hallowed, respected, inviolable, inviolate, unimpeachable, invulnerable, untouchable, inalienable; protected, defended, secure, safe.

sad adjective 1 we felt sad when we left:

unhappy, sorrowful, dejected, depressed, downcast, miserable, down, despondent, despairing, disconsolate, desolate, wretched, glum, gloomy, doleful, dismal, melancholy, mournful, woebegone, forlorn, crestfallen, heartbroken, inconsolable;

informal blue, down in the mouth, down in the dumps. 2 they knew her sad story: tragic, unhappy, unfortunate, awful, miserable, wretched, sorry, pitiful, pathetic, traumatic, heartbreaking, heart-rending, harrowing.

3 a sad state of affairs: unfortunate, regrettable, sorry, deplorable, lamentable, pitiful, shameful, disgraceful.

— OPPOSITES happy, cheerful, fortunate.

sadden verb depress, dispirit, deject, dishearten, grieve, desolate, discourage, upset, get down, bring down, break someone's heart.

saddle verb they were saddled with the children: burden, encumber, lumber, hamper; land, charge; impose something on, thrust something on, fob something off on to.

sadism noun callousness, barbarity, brutality, cruelty, cold-bloodedness, inhumanity, ruthlessness, heartlessness; perversion.

sadistic adjective callous, barbarous, vicious, brutal, cruel, fiendish, cold-blooded, inhuman, ruthless, heartless; perverted.

sadness noun unhappiness, sorrow, dejection, depression, misery, despondency, despair, desolation, wretchedness, gloom, gloominess, dolefulness, melancholy, mournfulness, woe, heartache, grief.

safe adjective 1 the jewels are safe in the bank: secure, protected, shielded, sheltered, guarded, out of harm's way. 2 the lost children are all safe: unharmed, unhurt, uninjured, unscathed, all right, well, in one piece, out of danger; informal OK. 3 a safe place to hide: secure, sound, impregnable, unassailable, invulnerable. 4 a safe driver: cautious, circumspect, prudent, attentive; unadventurous, conservative, unenterprising. 5 the drug is safe: harmless, innocuous, benign, non-toxic, non-poisonous.

— OPPOSITES insecure, dangerous, reckless, harmful.

• noun I keep the ring in a safe: strongbox, safety-deposit box, safe-deposit box, coffer, casket; strongroom, vault.

S safeguard noun a safeguard against crises: protection, defence, guard, screen, buffer, preventive, precaution, provision, security; surety, cover, insurance, indemnity.

• verb the contract will safeguard 1000 jobs: protect, preserve, conserve, save, secure, shield, guard, keep safe.

— OPPOSITES jeopardize.

safety noun 1 the safety of the residents: welfare, well-being, protection, security. 2 the safety of ferries: security, soundness, dependability, reliability. 3 we reached the safety of the shore: shelter, sanctuary, refuge, haven.

sag verb 1 he sagged back in his chair: sink, slump, loll, flop, crumple. 2 the floors all sag: dip, droop; bulge, bag. 3 production has sagged: decline, fall (off), drop, decrease, diminish, slump, plummet; informal nosedive.

saga noun 1 Celtic tribal sagas: epic, tale, folk tale, chronicle, legend, romance, history, narrative, adventure, myth, fairy story. 2 the saga of how they met: long story, rigmarole; informal spiel.

sagacious adjective wise, clever, intelligent, knowledgeable, sensible, sage; discerning, judicious, canny, perceptive, astute, shrewd, prudent, thoughtful, insightful, perspicacious; informal streetwise; formal sapient.

— OPPOSITES foolish.

sage noun the Chinese sage Confucius: wise man/woman, learned person, philosopher, thinker, scholar, savant; authority, expert, guru.

• adjective some very sage comments. See SAGACIOUS.

sail verb 1 we sailed across the Atlantic: voyage, steam, navigate, cruise. 2 you can learn to sail here: yacht, boat, go sailing; crew, helm. 3 we sail tonight: set sail, put to sea, leave port, hoist sail, weigh anchor, shove off. 4 he is sailing the ship: steer, pilot, navigate, con, helm, captain; informal skipper. 5 clouds were sailing past: glide, float, flow, sweep, skim, coast, flit. 6 a pencil sailed past his ear: whizz, speed, streak, shoot, whip, buzz, zoom, flash; fly, wing, soar; informal zip.

■ sail through succeed easily at, pass easily, romp through, walk through.

sailor noun seaman, seafarer, mariner; boatman, yachtsman, yachtswoman; hand; informal (old) salt, sea dog, bluejacket; Brit. informal matelot; Brit. informal, dated Jack tar.

saint noun

WORD LINKS

hagiography literature concerning the lives of saints beatify declare a dead person to be in a state of bliss, the first step towards canonizing them canonize officially declare a dead person to be a saint saintly adjective holy, godly, pious, religious, devout, spiritual, prayerful; virtuous, righteous, good, moral, innocent, sinless, guiltless, irreproachable, spotless, uncorrupted, pure, angelic.

— OPPOSITES ungodly.

sake noun 1 this is simplified for the sake of clarity: purpose, reason, aim, end, objective, object, goal, motive. 2 she had to be brave for the her daughter's sake: benefit, advantage, good, well-being, welfare, interest, profit.

salacious adjective 1 salacious writing: pornographic, obscene, indecent, crude, lewd, vulgar, dirty, filthy; erotic, titillating, arousing, suggestive, sexy, risqué, ribald, smutty, bawdy; X-rated; informal porn, porno, blue; euphemistic adult. 2 salacious women: lustful, lecherous, licentious, lascivious, libidinous, prurient, lewd; debauched, wanton, loose, fast, impure, unchaste, degenerate, sinful, depraved, promiscuous; informal randy, horny, raunchy, pervy.

salary noun pay, wages, earnings, payment, remuneration, fee(s), stipend, income; formal emolument.

sale noun 1 the sale of firearms: selling, vending; dealing, trading. 2 they make a sale every minute: deal, transaction, bargain.

– OPPOSITES purchase.

■ for sale on the market, on sale, on offer, available, purchasable, obtainable.

salesperson noun sales assistant, salesman, saleswoman, shop assistant, seller, agent; shopkeeper, trader, merchant, dealer, pedlar, hawker; N. Amer. clerk; informal counter-jumper, rep.

salient adjective important, main, principal, major, chief, primary; notable, noteworthy, outstanding, conspicuous, striking, noticeable, obvious, remarkable, prominent, predominant, dominant; key, crucial, vital, essential, pivotal, prime, central, paramount.

– OPPOSITES minor.

saliva noun spit, spittle, dribble, drool, slaver, slobber, sputum.

sallow adjective yellowish, jaundiced, pallid, wan, pale, anaemic, bloodless, pasty; unhealthy, sickly, washed out, peaky; informal like death warmed up.

sally noun 1 the garrison made a sally against us: sortie, charge, foray, thrust, drive, offensive, attack, assault, raid, incursion, invasion, onslaught; old use onset. 2 a fruitless sally into Wales: expedition, excursion, trip, outing, jaunt, visit. 3 he was delighted with his sally: witticism, smart remark, quip, barb, pleasantry, joke, pun, jest, bon mot; retort, riposte, counter, rejoinder; informal gag, wisecrack, comeback.

salon noun 1 a hairdressing salon: shop, parlour, establishment, premises; boutique, store. 2 the chateau's mirrored salon: reception room, drawing room, sitting room, living room, lounge; dated parlour.

salt noun 1 the potatoes need salt: sodium chloride. 2 (literary) danger is the salt of pleasure: zest, spice, piquancy, bite, edge; vitality, spirit, sparkle; informal zing, punch. • adjective salt water: salty, saline, briny, brackish.

■ salt something away (informal) save, put aside, put by, set aside, reserve, keep, store, stockpile, hoard, stow away; informal squirrel away, stash away.

WORD LINKS

saline containing salt

desalinate remove salt from seawater

salty adjective 1 salty water: salt, salted, saline, briny, brackish. 2 a salty sense of humour: earthy, colourful, spicy, racy, naughty, vulgar, rude; piquant, biting.

salubrious adjective 1 I found the climate salubrious: healthy, health-giving, healthful, beneficial, wholesome; old use salutary. 2 a salubrious area of London: pleasant, agreeable, nice, select, high-class; Brit. upmarket; informal posh, swanky, classy; Brit. informal swish; N. Amer. informal swank.

– OPPOSITES unhealthy, unpleasant.

salutary adjective 1 a salutary lesson on the fragility of nature: beneficial, advantageous, good, profitable, productive, helpful, useful, valuable, worthwhile; timely. 2 (old use) the salutary Atlantic air: healthy, health-giving, healthful, salubrious, beneficial.

– OPPOSITES unwelcome, unhealthy.

salutation noun greeting, salute, address, welcome.

salute noun 1 he gave the Brigadier a salute: greeting, salutation, gesture of respect, obeisance, acknowledgement, welcome, address. 2 a salute to British courage: tribute, testimonial, homage, toast, honour, eulogy; celebration of, acknowledgement of.

• verb 1 he saluted the ambassadors: greet, address, hail, welcome, acknowledge, toast; make obeisance to. 2 we salute a great photographer: pay tribute to, pay homage to, honour, celebrate, acknowledge, take one's hat off to.

salvage verb 1 an attempt to salvage the vessel: rescue, save, recover, retrieve, raise, reclaim. 2 he salvaged a precious point for his club: retain, preserve, conserve; regain, recoup, redeem, snatch.

• noun the salvage is taking place off the coast: rescue, recovery, reclamation.

salvation noun 1 salvation by way of repentance: redemption, deliverance, reclamation. 2 that conviction was her salvation: lifeline, preservation; means of escape.

– OPPOSITES damnation.

salve noun lip salve: ointment, cream, balm, unguent, emollient; embrocation, liniment; old use unction.

• verb she did it to salve her conscience: soothe, assuage, ease, allay, lighten, alleviate, comfort, mollify.

salver noun platter, plate, dish, paten, tray; old use charger.

same adjective 1 we stayed at the same hotel: identical, selfsame, very same, one and the same. 2 they had the same symptoms: matching, identical, alike, duplicate, carbon-copy, twin; indistinguishable, interchangeable, corresponding, equivalent, parallel, like, comparable, similar, congruent, concordant, consonant. 3 it happened that same month: selfsame; aforesaid, aforementioned. 4 they provide the same menu worldwide: unchanging, unvarying, unvaried, invariable, consistent, uniform, regular.

– OPPOSITES another, different, dissimilar, varying.

• noun Louise said the same: the same thing, the aforementioned, the aforesaid, the above-mentioned.

■ all the same 1 I was frightened all the same: in spite of everything, despite that, nevertheless, nonetheless, even so, however, but, still, yet, though, be that as it may, just the same, at the same time, in any event, notwithstanding, regardless, anyway, anyhow; informal still and all. 2 it's all the same to me: immaterial, of no importance, of no consequence, inconsequential, unimportant, of little account, irrelevant.

WORD LINKS

- contemporary, coeval having the same age or date of origin
- coterminous having the same boundaries or extent
- homogeneous of the same kind, or consisting of parts all of the same kind
- synonymous having the same meaning
- tautology saying the same thing again in different words sample noun 1 a sample of the fabric:

specimen, example, bit, snippet, swatch, exemplification, representative piece; prototype, test piece, dummy, pilot, trial, taste, taster, tester. 2 a sample of 10,000 people nationwide: cross section, variety, sampling, test.

• verb we sampled the culinary offerings: try (out), taste, test, put to the test, experiment with; appraise, evaluate; informal check out.

• adjective 1 the sample group is small: representative, illustrative, selected, specimen, test, trial, typical. 2 a sample copy can be obtained: specimen, test, trial, pilot, dummy.

sanatorium noun infirmary, clinic, hospital, medical centre, hospice; sickbay, sickroom; N. Amer. sanitarium; informal san.

sanctify verb 1 he came to sanctify the site:

consecrate, bless, make holy, hallow, make sacred, dedicate to God. 2 they sanctified themselves: purify, cleanse, free from sin, absolve, unburden, redeem; rare lustrate. 3 we must not sanctify this outrage: approve, sanction, condone, vindicate, endorse, support, back, permit, allow, authorize, legitimize, legitimize.

sanctimonious adjective self-righteous, holier-than-thou, pious, pietistic, churchy, moralizing, smug, superior, griggish, hypocritical, insincere; informal goody-goody, pi.

sanction noun 1 trade sanctions: penalty, punishment, deterrent; punitive action, discipline, penalization, restriction; embargo, ban, prohibition, boycott. 2 the scheme has the sanction of the court: authorization, consent, leave, permission, authority, warrant, licence, dispensation, assent, acquiescence, agreement, approval, approbation, endorsement, accreditation, ratification, validation, imprimatur, blessing; informal the go-ahead, the thumbs up, the OK, the green light.

– OPPOSITES reward, prohibition.

• verb 1 the rally was sanctioned by the government: authorize, permit, allow, warrant, accredit, license, endorse, approve, accept, back, support; informal OK. 2 the penalties available to sanction crime: punish, discipline someone for.

– OPPOSITES prohibit.

sanctity noun 1 the sanctity of St Francis:

holiness, godliness, blessedness, saintliness, spirituality, piety, piousness, devoutness, righteousness, goodness, virtue, purity; formal sanctitude. 2 the sanctity of the family meal: sacrosanctity, inviolability; importance, paramountcy.

sanctuary noun 1 the sanctuary at Delphi:

holy place, temple; shrine, altar; sanctum, sacrarium, holy of holies, sanctum sanctorum. 2 the island is our sanctuary: refuge, haven, harbour, port in a storm, oasis, shelter, retreat, bolt-hole, hideaway, fastness. 3 he was given sanctuary in the embassy: safety, protection, shelter, immunity, asylum. 4 a bird sanctuary: reserve, park, reservation, preserve.

sanctum noun 1 the sanctum in the temple:

holy place, shrine, sanctuary, holy of holies, sanctum sanctorum. 2 a private sanctum for the bar's regulars: refuge, retreat, bolt-hole, hideout, hideaway, den.

sand noun she ran across the sand: beach, sands, shore, seashore; (sand) dunes; literary strand.

sane adjective 1 the accused is presumed to be sane: of sound mind, in one's right mind, compos mentis, lucid, rational, balanced, stable, normal; informal all there. 2 it isn't sane to use nuclear weapons: sensible, practical, advisable, responsible, realistic, prudent, wise, reasonable, rational, level-headed, commonsensical, judicious, politic. – OPPOSITES mad, foolish.

sangfroid noun composure, equanimity, self-possession, equilibrium, aplomb, poise, self-assurance, self-control, nerve, calm, presence of mind; informal cool, unflappability.

sanguine adjective 1 he is sanguine about the advance of technology: optimistic, bullish, hopeful, buoyant, positive, confident, cheerful, cheery; informal upbeat. 2 (old use) a sanguine complexion. See FLORID sense 1. – OPPOSITES gloomy.

sanitary adjective hygienic, clean, antiseptic, aseptic, sterile, uninfected, disinfected, unpolluted, uncontaminated; salubrious, healthy, wholesome.

sanitize verb 1 the best way to sanitize a bottle: sterilize, disinfect, clean, cleanse, purify, fumigate, decontaminate. 2 the diaries have not been sanitized: make presentable, make acceptable, make palatable, clean up; expurgate, bowdlerize, censor.

sanity noun 1 she was losing her sanity: mental health, faculties, reason, rationality, saneness, stability, lucidity; sense, wits, mind. 2 sanity has prevailed: (common) sense, wisdom, prudence, judiciousness, rationality, soundness, sensibleness.

sap<sup>1</sup> noun 1 sap from the roots of trees:

juice, secretion, fluid, liquid. 2 they're full of youthful sap: vigour, energy, drive, dynamism, life, spirit, liveliness, sparkle, verve, ebullience, enthusiasm, gusto, vitality, vivacity, fire, zest, zeal, exuberance; informal get-up-and-go, oomph, vim.

• verb they sapped the will of the troops: erode, wear away/down, deplete, reduce, lessen, attenuate, undermine, exhaust, drain, bleed.

sap<sup>2</sup> noun (N. Amer. informal) he fell for it—what a sap! See IDIOT.

sarcasm noun derision, mockery, ridicule, scorn, sneering, scoffing; irony.

sarcastic adjective sardonic, ironic, ironical; derisive, snide, scornful, contemptuous, mocking, sneering, jeering; caustic, scathing, trenchant, cutting, sharp, acerbic; Brit. informal sarky; N. Amer. informal snarky.

sardonic adjective mocking, satirical, sarcastic, ironical, ironic; cynical, scornful, contemptuous, derisive, derisory, sneering, jeering; scathing, caustic, trenchant, cutting, sharp, acerbic; Brit. informal sarky.

sash noun belt, cummerbund, waistband, girdle, obi; literary cincture.

Satan noun. See DEVIL sense 1.

satanic adjective diabolical, fiendish, devilish, demonic, demoniacal, ungodly, hellish, infernal, wicked, evil, sinful, iniquitous, nefarious, vile, foul, abominable, unspeakable, loathsome, monstrous, heinous, hideous, horrible, horrifying, shocking, appalling, dreadful, awful, terrible, ghastly, abhorrent, despicable, damnable.

sate verb. See SATIATE.

satellite noun 1 the European Space Agency's ERS-1 satellite: space station, space capsule, spacecraft; sputnik. 2 the two small satellites of Mars: moon, secondary planet. 3 Bulgaria was then a Russian satellite: dependency, colony, protectorate, possession, holding; historical fief, vassal.

• adjective a satellite state: dependent, subordinate, subsidiary; puppet.

satiare verb fill, satisfy, sate; slake, quench; gorge, stuff, surfeit, glut, cloy, sicken, nauseate.

satiety noun satiation, satisfaction, repleteness, repletion, fullness; surfeit.

sating adjective smooth, shiny, glossy, shining, gleaming, lustrous, sleek, silky.

satire noun 1 a satire on American politics: parody, burlesque, caricature, lampoon, skit, pasquinade; informal spoof, take-off, send-up. 2 he has become the subject of satire: mockery, ridicule, derision, scorn, caricature; irony, sarcasm.

satirical adjective mocking, ironic, ironical, satiric, sarcastic, sardonic; caustic, trenchant, mordant, biting, cutting, stinging, acerbic; critical, irreverent, disparaging, disrespectful.

satisfire verb mock, ridicule, deride, make fun of, poke fun at, parody, lampoon, burlesque, caricature, take off; criticize; informal send up, take the mickey out of.

satisfaction noun 1 he derived great satisfaction from his work: contentment, content, pleasure, gratification, fulfilment, enjoyment, happiness, pride; self-satisfaction, smugness, complacency.

2 the satisfaction of consumer needs:

fulfilment, gratification; appeasement, assuaging. 3 investors turned to the courts for satisfaction: compensation, recompense, redress, reparation, restitution, repayment, payment, settlement, reimbursement, indemnification, indemnity.

satisfactory adjective adequate, all right, acceptable, good enough, sufficient, reasonable, quite good, competent, fair, decent, average, passable; fine, in order, up to scratch, up to the mark, up to standard, up to par; informal OK, so-so.

– OPPOSITES inadequate, poor.

satisfied adjective 1 a satisfied smile:

pleased, well pleased, content, contented, happy, proud, triumphant; smug, self-satisfied, pleased with oneself, complacent; Brit. informal like the cat that's got the cream.

2 the pleasure of satisfied desire: fulfilled, gratified. 3 I am satisfied that she is happy with the decision: convinced, certain, sure, positive, persuaded, easy in one's mind.

– OPPOSITES discontented, unhappy.

satisfy verb 1 a last chance to satisfy his hunger for romance: fulfil, gratify, meet, fill; indulge, cater to, pander to; appease, assuage; quench, slake, satiate, sate, take the edge off. 2 she satisfied herself that it had been an accident: convince, persuade, assure; reassure, put someone's mind at rest. 3 products which satisfy the EC's criteria: comply with, meet, fulfil, answer, conform to; measure up to, come up to; suffice, be good enough, fit/fill the bill.

4 there was insufficient collateral to satisfy the loan: repay, pay (off), settle, make good, discharge, square, liquidate, clear.

– OPPOSITES frustrate.

satisfying adjective fulfilling, rewarding, gratifying, pleasing, enjoyable, pleasurable, to one's liking.

saturate verb 1 heavy rain saturated the ground: soak, drench, waterlog, wet through; souse, steep, douse. 2 the air was saturated with the stench of joss sticks: permeate, suffuse, imbue, pervade, charge, infuse, fill. 3 the company has saturated the market: flood, glut, oversupply, overfill, overload.

saturated adjective 1 his trousers were saturated: soaked, soaking (wet), wet through, sopping (wet), sodden, dripping, wringing wet, drenched; soaked to the skin, like a drowned rat. 2 the saturated ground: waterlogged, soggy, squelchy, heavy, muddy, boggy.

– OPPOSITES dry.

saturnine adjective 1 a saturnine

temperament: gloomy, sombre, melancholy, moody, lugubrious, dour, glum, morose, unsmiling, humourless. 2 his saturnine good looks: swarthy, dark, dark-skinned, dark-complexioned; mysterious, mercurial, moody.

– OPPOSITES cheerful.

sauce noun a piquant sauce: relish, gravy, condiment; dip, dressing; jus, coulis.

saucepan noun pan, pot, casserole, skillet, stockpot, stewpot; billy, billycan.

saucy adjective (informal) 1 (Brit.) saucy postcards: suggestive, titillating, risqué, rude, bawdy, racy, ribald, spicy; informal raunchy, smutty, nudge-nudge; Brit. informal fruity; N. Amer. informal gamy. 2 you saucy little minx! cheeky, impudent, impertinent, irreverent, forward, disrespectful, bold, as bold as brass, brazen; informal fresh, lippy, mouthy; N. Amer. informal sassy; old use malapert. 3 (N. Amer.) the cap sat at a saucy angle on her black hair: jaunty, rakish, sporty, raffish.
 – OPPOSITES demure, polite.

saunter verb stroll, amble, wander, meander, drift, walk; stretch one's legs, take the air; informal mosey, tootle; Brit. informal pootle; formal promenade.

savage adjective 1 savage dogs: ferocious, fierce; wild, untamed, undomesticated, feral. 2 a savage assault: vicious, brutal, cruel, sadistic, ferocious, fierce, violent, bloody, murderous, homicidal, bloodthirsty; literary fell; old use sanguinary. 3 a savage attack on European free-trade policy: fierce, blistering, scathing, searing, stinging, devastating, mordant, trenchant, caustic, cutting, biting, withering, virulent, vitriolic. 4 a savage race: primitive, uncivilized, unenlightened, non-literate, in a state of nature. 5 a savage landscape: rugged, rough, wild, inhospitable, uninhabitable. 6 a savage blow for the town: severe, crushing, devastating, crippling, terrible, awful, dreadful, dire, catastrophic, calamitous, ruinous.

– OPPOSITES tame, mild, civilized.
 • noun 1 she'd expected mud huts and savages: barbarian, wild man, wild woman, primitive. 2 she described her son's assailants as savages: brute, beast, monster, barbarian, sadist, animal.
 • verb 1 he was savaged by a dog: maul, attack, tear to pieces, lacerate, claw, bite. 2 critics savaged the film: criticize severely, attack, lambaste, condemn, denounce, pillory, revile; informal pan, tear to pieces, hammer, slam, do a hatchet job on, crucify; Brit. informal slate, rubbish; N. Amer. informal trash; Austral./NZ informal bag, monster; formal excoriate.

savant noun intellectual, scholar, sage, philosopher, thinker, wise/learned person; guru, master, pandit.
 – OPPOSITES ignoramus.

save verb 1 the captain was saved by his crew: rescue, come to someone's rescue, save someone's life; set free, free, liberate, deliver, extricate; bail out; informal save someone's bacon/neck/skin. 2 the farmhouse has been saved from demolition: preserve, keep safe, keep, protect, safeguard; salvage, retrieve, reclaim, rescue. 3 start saving old newspapers for wrapping china: put aside, set aside, put by, put to one side, save up, keep, retain, reserve, conserve, stockpile, store, hoard, save for a rainy day; informal salt away, squirrel away, stash away, hang on to. 4 asking me first would have saved a lot of trouble: prevent, obviate, forestall, spare; stop; avoid, avert.
 • preposition & conjunction (formal) no one needed to know save herself: except, apart from, but, other than, besides, aside from, bar, barring, excluding, leaving out, saving; informal outside of.

saving noun 1 a considerable saving in development costs: reduction, cut, decrease, economy. 2 I'll have to use some of my savings: nest egg, money put by for a rainy day, life savings; capital, assets, funds, resources, reserves.

saving grace noun redeeming feature, good point, thing in its/one's favour, advantage, asset, selling point.

saviour noun 1 the country's saviour: rescuer, liberator, deliverer, emancipator; champion, knight in shining armour, friend in need, good Samaritan. 2 the Saviour is depicted with two archangels: Christ, Jesus (Christ), the Redeemer, the Messiah, Our Lord, the Lamb of God, the Son of God, the Son of Man, the Prince of Peace.

savoir faire noun social skill, social grace(s), urbanity, suavity, finesse, sophistication, poise, aplomb, adroitness, polish, style, smoothness, tact, tactfulness, diplomacy, discretion, delicacy, sensitivity; informal savvy.
 – OPPOSITES gaucheness.

savour verb 1 she wanted to savour every moment: relish, enjoy (to the full), appreciate, delight in, revel in, smack one's lips over, luxuriate in, bask in. 2 such a declaration savoured of immodesty: suggest, smack of, have the hallmarks of, seem like, have the air of, show signs of.
 • noun 1 the subtle savour of wood smoke: smell, aroma, fragrance, scent, perfume, bouquet; taste, flavour, tang, smack. 2 a savour of bitterness seasoned my feelings for him: trace, hint, suggestion, touch, smack. 3 her usual diversions had lost their savour: piquancy, interest, attraction, flavour, spice, zest, excitement, enjoyment; informal zing.

savoury adjective 1 sweet or savoury dishes: salty, spicy, piquant, tangy. 2 a rich, savoury aroma: appetizing, mouth-watering, delicious, delectable, luscious; tasty, flavoursome, flavourful, palatable, toothsome; informal scrumptious, finger-licking, yummy, scrummy, moreish. 3 one of the less savoury aspects of the affair: acceptable, pleasant, respectable, wholesome, honourable, proper, seemly.
 – OPPOSITES sweet, unappetizing.
 • noun cocktail savouries: canapé, hors d'oeuvre, appetizer, titbit.

savvy (informal) noun his political savvy. See ACUMEN.
 • adjective a savvy investor. See SHREWD.

saw noun saying, maxim, proverb, aphorism, axiom, adage, apophthegm, epigram, gnome.

say verb 1 she felt her stomach flutter as he said her name: speak, utter, voice, pronounce, give voice to, vocalize. 2 'I must go,' she said: declare, state, announce, remark, observe, mention, comment, note, add; reply, respond, answer, rejoin; informal come out with. 3 Newall says he's innocent: claim, maintain, assert, hold, insist, contend; allege, profess; formal opine, aver; rare asseverate. 4 I can't conjure up the words to say how I feel: express, put into words, phrase, articulate, communicate, make known, put/get across, convey, verbalize; reveal, divulge, impart, disclose; imply, suggest. 5 they sang hymns and said a prayer: recite, repeat, utter, deliver, perform, declaim, orate. 6 the dial of her watch said one twenty: indicate, show, read. 7 I'd say it's about five miles: estimate, judge, guess, hazard a guess, predict, speculate, surmise, conjecture, venture; informal reckon. 8 let's say you'd just won a million pounds: suppose, assume, imagine, presume, hypothesize, postulate, posit.

• noun 1 everyone is entitled to their say: chance to speak, turn to speak, opinion, view, voice; informal twopence worth, twopenn'orth. 2 don't I have any say in the matter? influence, sway, weight, voice, input, share, part.
■ that is to say in other words, to put it another way; i.e., that is, to wit, viz, namely.

saying noun proverb, maxim, aphorism, axiom, adage, saw, tag, motto, apophthegm, epigram, dictum, gnome; expression, phrase, formula; slogan, catchphrase; platitude, cliché, commonplace, truism.

say-so noun (informal) authorization, (seal of) approval, agreement, consent, assent, permission, endorsement, sanction, ratification, approbation, acquiescence, blessing, leave; informal the OK, the go-ahead, the green light, the thumbs up.
– OPPOSITES refusal, denial.

scalding adjective extremely hot, burning, blistering, searing, red-hot; piping hot; informal boiling (hot), sizzling.

scale<sup>1</sup> noun 1 the reptile's scales: plate; technical lamella, lamina, squama, scute, scutum. 2 scales on the skin: flake; (scales) scurf, dandruff. 3 scale in kettles: limescale, deposit, encrustation; Brit. fur.

scale<sup>2</sup> noun 1 the Celsius scale of temperature: calibrated system, graduated system, system of measurement. 2 opposite ends of the social scale: hierarchy, ladder, ranking, order, pecking order, spectrum; succession, sequence, series. 3 the scale of the map: ratio, proportion, relative size. 4 no one foresaw the scale of the disaster: extent, size, scope, magnitude, dimensions, range, breadth, compass, degree, reach.

• verb thieves scaled an 8ft high fence: climb, ascend, clamber up, shin (up), scramble up, mount; N. Amer. shinny (up).

■ scale something down reduce, cut down, cut back, cut, decrease, lessen, lower, trim, slim down, prune.

■ scale something up increase, expand, augment, build up, add to; step up, boost, escalate.

scaly adjective 1 the dragon's scaly hide: technical squamous, squamulose, squamate, lamellate. 2 scaly patches of dead skin: dry, flaky, flaking, scurfy, rough, scabrous, mangy, scabious; technical furfuraceous.

scam noun (informal) fraud, swindle, racket, trick, diddle; informal con (trick); Brit. informal ramp; N. Amer. informal hustle, grift, bunco.

scamp noun (informal) rascal, monkey, devil, imp, wretch, mischief-maker; informal scallywag, horror, monster, tyke; Brit. informal perisher; N. English informal scally; N. Amer. informal varmint; old use rapscallion, scapegrace.

scamp verb scurry, scuttle, dart, run, rush, race, dash, hurry, hasten; informal scoot; dated make haste.

scan verb 1 Adam scanned the horizon:

scrutinize, examine, study, inspect, survey, search, scour, sweep, rake; look at, stare at, gaze at, eye, watch; informal check out; N. Amer. informal scope. 2 I scanned the papers: glance through, look through, have a look at, run/cast one's eye over, skim through, flick through, flip through, leaf through, thumb through.

• noun 1 a careful scan of the terrain: inspection, scrutiny, examination, survey. 2 a quick scan through the report: glance, look, flick, browse. 3 a brain scan: examination, screening.

scandal noun 1 revelation of the sex scandal forced him to resign: wrongdoing, impropriety, misconduct, immoral behaviour, unethical behaviour; offence, transgression, crime, sin; skeleton in the closet; informal -gate. 2 it's a scandal that the disease is not adequately treated: disgrace, outrage, injustice; (crying) shame. 3 no scandal attached to her name: malicious gossip, malicious rumour(s), slander, libel, calumny, defamation, aspersions, muckraking; informal dirt.

scandalize verb shock, appal, outrage, horrify, disgust; offend, affront, insult.

– OPPOSITES impress.

scandalous adjective 1 a scandalous waste of taxpayers' money: disgraceful, shocking, outrageous, monstrous, criminal, wicked, shameful, appalling, deplorable, reprehensible, inexcusable, intolerable, insupportable, unforgivable, unpardonable. 2 a series of scandalous liaisons: discreditable, disreputable, dishonourable, improper, unseemly, sordid. 3 scandalous rumours: scurrilous, malicious, slanderous, libellous, defamatory.

scant adjective little, little or no, minimal, limited, negligible, meagre; insufficient, inadequate, deficient; formal exiguous.

– OPPOSITES abundant, ample.

scanty adjective 1 their scanty wages: meagre, scant, minimal, limited, modest, restricted, sparse; tiny, small, paltry, negligible, insufficient, inadequate, deficient; scarce, in short supply, thin on the ground, few and far between; informal measly, piddling, mingy, pathetic; formal exiguous. 2 her scanty nightdress: skimpy, revealing, short, brief; low, low-cut; indecent.

– OPPOSITES ample, plentiful.

scapegoat noun whipping boy, Aunt Sally; informal fall guy; N. Amer. informal patsy.

scar noun 1 the scar on his left cheek: cicatrix, mark, blemish, disfigurement, discoloration; pockmark, pock, pit; lesion, stigma; birthmark, naevus. 2 deep psychological scars: trauma, damage, injury.

• verb 1 he's likely to be scarred for life:

disfigure, mark, blemish; pockmark, pit; Christianity stigmatize. 2 a landscape which has been scarred by strip mining: damage, spoil, mar, deface, injure. 3 she was profoundly scarred by the incident: traumatize, damage, injure; distress, disturb, upset.

scarce adjective 1 food was scarce: in short supply, scant, scanty, meagre, sparse, hard to find, hard to come by, insufficient, deficient, inadequate; at a premium, like gold dust; paltry, negligible; informal not to be had for love nor money; formal exiguous. 2 birds that prefer dense forest are becoming scarcer: rare, few and far between, thin on the ground; uncommon, unusual; Brit. out of the common.

– OPPOSITES plentiful.

scarcely adverb 1 she could scarcely hear what he was saying: hardly, barely, only just; almost not. 2 I scarcely ever see him: rarely, seldom, infrequently, not often, hardly ever, every once in a while; informal once in a blue moon. 3 this could scarcely be accidental: surely not, not, hardly, certainly not, not at all, on no account, under no circumstances, by no means; N. Amer. noway.

– OPPOSITES often.

scarcity noun shortage, dearth, lack, undersupply, insufficiency, paucity, scantness, meagreness, sparseness, poverty; deficiency, inadequacy; unavailability, absence; formal exiguity.

scare verb stop it, you're scaring me: frighten, startle, alarm, terrify, petrify, unnerve, intimidate, terrorize, cow; strike terror into, put the fear of God into, chill someone to the bone/marrow, make someone's blood run cold; informal frighten/scare the living daylights out of, scare stiff, frighten/scare someone out of their wits, scare witless, frighten/scare to death, scare the pants off, make someone's hair stand on end, make someone jump out of their skin; Brit. informal put the wind up, make someone's hair curl; N. Amer. informal spook; Irish informal scare the bejesus out of; old use affright.

• noun you gave me a scare—how did you get here? fright, shock, start, turn, jump.

scared adjective frightened, afraid, fearful, nervous, panicky; terrified, petrified, horrified, panic-stricken, scared stiff, frightened/scared out of one's wits, scared witless, frightened/scared to death; Scottish feart; informal in a cold sweat, in a (blue) funk; Brit. informal funky, windy; N. Amer. informal spooked; dialect frit; old use afeared, affrighted.

scaremonger noun alarmist, prophet of doom, Cassandra, voice of doom, doom-monger; informal doom (and gloom) merchant.

scarf noun muffler, headscarf, headsquare, square; mantilla, stole, tippet; N. Amer. babushka.

scarper verb (Brit. informal). See RUN verb sense 2.

scary adjective (informal) frightening, alarming, terrifying, hair-raising, spine-chilling, blood-curdling, horrifying, nerve-racking, unnerving, eerie, sinister; informal creepy, spine-tingling, spooky, hairy.

scathing adjective withering, blistering, searing, devastating, fierce, ferocious, savage, severe, stinging, biting, cutting, mordant, trenchant, virulent, caustic, vitriolic, scornful, sharp, bitter, harsh, unsparing; formal mordacious.

– OPPOSITES mild.

scatter verb 1 scatter the seeds as evenly as possible: throw, strew, toss, fling; sprinkle, spread, distribute, sow, broadcast, disseminate. 2 the crowd scattered | onlookers were scattered in all directions: disperse, break up, disband, separate, go separate ways, dissolve; drive, send, put to flight, chase. 3 the sky was scattered with stars: fleck, stud, dot, cover, sprinkle, stipple, spot, pepper; literary bestrew.

– OPPOSITES gather, assemble.

scatterbrained adjective absent-minded, forgetful, disorganized; dreamy, wool-gathering, with one's head in the clouds, feather-brained, giddy; informal scatty, with a mind/memory like a sieve, dizzy, dippy.

scavenge verb search, hunt, look, forage, rummage, root about/around, grub about/around.

scenario noun 1 Walt wrote scenarios for a major Hollywood studio: plot, outline, storyline, framework; screenplay, script; formal diegesis. 2 every possible scenario must be explored: sequence of events, course of events, chain of events, situation. 3 this film has a more contemporary scenario: setting, background, context, scene, milieu.

scene noun 1 the scene of the accident: location, site, place, position, point, spot; locale, whereabouts; technical locus.

2 the scene is London, in the late 1890s: background, setting, context, milieu, backdrop, mise en scène. 3 terrible scenes of violence: incident, event, episode, happening. 4 an impressive mountain scene: view, vista, outlook, panorama, sight; landscape, scenery. 5 she made an embarrassing scene: fuss, exhibition of oneself, performance, tantrum, commotion, disturbance, row, upset, furore, brouhaha; informal to-do; Brit. informal carry-on. 6 the political scene: arena, stage, sphere, world, milieu, realm, domain; area of interest, field, province, preserve. 7 a scene from a Laurel and Hardy film: clip, section, segment, part, sequence.

■ behind the scenes secretly, in secret, privately, in private, behind closed doors, surreptitiously; informal on the quiet, on the q.t.; formal sub rosa.

scenery noun 1 the beautiful scenery of west Wales: landscape, countryside, country, terrain, topography, setting, surroundings, environment; view, vista, panorama. 2 we all helped with the scenery and costumes: stage set, set, mise en scène, flats, backdrop, drop curtain; Brit. backcloth.

scenic adjective picturesque, pretty, pleasing, attractive, lovely, beautiful, charming, pretty as a picture, easy on the eye; impressive, striking, spectacular, breathtaking; panoramic.

scent noun 1 the scent of freshly cut hay: smell, fragrance, aroma, perfume, redolence, savour, odour; bouquet, nose. 2 a bottle of scent: perfume, fragrance, toilet water, eau de toilette, cologne; eau de cologne. 3 the hounds picked up the scent of a hare: spoor, trail, track; Hunting foil, wind.

•verb 1 a shark can scent blood from over half a kilometre away: smell, detect the smell of, get a whiff of. 2 Rose looked at him, scenting a threat: sense, become aware of, detect, discern, recognize, get wind of.

scented adjective perfumed, fragranced, perfumy; sweet-smelling, fragrant, aromatic.

sceptic noun 1 sceptics said the marriage wouldn't last: cynic, doubter; pessimist, prophet of doom. 2 sceptics who have found faith: agnostic, atheist, unbeliever, non-believer, disbeliever, doubting Thomas; rare nullifidian. sceptical adjective dubious, doubtful, taking something with a pinch of salt, doubting; cynical, distrustful, mistrustful, suspicious, disbelieving, unconvinced, incredulous, scoffing; pessimistic, defeatist.

– OPPOSITES certain, convinced.

scepticism noun 1 his ideas were met with scepticism: doubt, doubtfulness, a pinch of salt; disbelief, cynicism, distrust, mistrust, suspicion, incredulity; pessimism, defeatism; formal dubiety. 2 he passed from scepticism to religious belief: agnosticism, doubt; atheism, unbelief, non-belief.

schedule noun 1 we need to draw up a production schedule: plan, programme, timetable, scheme. 2 I have a very busy schedule: timetable, agenda, diary, calendar; itinerary.

•verb another meeting has been scheduled for April 20: arrange, organize, plan, set up, programme, timetable, line up; N. Amer. slate.

■ behind schedule late, running late, overdue, behind time, behind, behindhand.

scheme noun 1 adventurous fund-raising schemes: plan, project, plan of action, programme, strategy, stratagem, tactic; game plan, course/line of action; system, procedure, design, formula, recipe; Brit. informal wheeze; old use shift. 2 police uncovered a scheme to steal the paintings: plot, intrigue, conspiracy; ruse, ploy, stratagem, manoeuvre, subterfuge; machinations; informal game, racket. 3 the sonnet's rhyme scheme: arrangement, system, organization, configuration, pattern, format; technical schema.

•verb he schemed to bring about the collapse of the government: plot, hatch a plot, conspire, intrigue, connive, manoeuvre, plan.

scheming adjective cunning, crafty, calculating, devious, designing, conniving, wily, sly, tricky, artful, guileful, slippery, slick, manipulative, Machiavellian, unscrupulous, disingenuous; duplicitous, deceitful, underhand, treacherous.

– OPPOSITES ingenuous, honest.

schism noun division, split, rift, breach, rupture, break, separation, severance; chasm, gulf; discord, disagreement, dissension.

schismatic adjective separatist, heterodox, dissident, dissentient, dissenting, heretical; breakaway, splinter.

– OPPOSITES orthodox.

schmaltzy adjective (informal). See SENTIMENTAL sense 2.

scholar noun 1 a leading biblical scholar:

academic, intellectual, learned person, man/woman of letters, mind, intellect, savant, polymath, highbrow, bluestocking; authority, expert; informal egghead; N. Amer. informal pointy-head; old use bookman. 2 (old use) the school had 28 scholars: pupil, student, schoolchild, schoolboy, schoolgirl.

scholarly adjective 1 an earnest, scholarly man: learned, erudit, academic, well read, widely read, intellectual, literary, lettered, educated, knowledgeable, highbrow; studious, bookish, donnish, bluestocking, cerebral; N. Amer. informal pointy-headed; old use clerkly. 2 a scholarly career: academic, scholastic, pedagogic.

– OPPOSITES uneducated, illiterate.

scholarship noun 1 a centre of medieval scholarship: learning, book learning, knowledge, erudition, education, letters, culture, academic study, academic achievement. 2 a scholarship of £200 per term: grant, award, endowment, payment; Brit. bursary, exhibition.

scholastic adjective academic, educational, school, scholarly.

school noun 1 the village school: educational institution; academy, college; seminary; alma mater. 2 the university's School of English: department, faculty, division. 3 the Barbizon school: group, set, circle; followers, following, disciples, apostles, admirers, devotees, votaries; proponents, adherents.

4 a school of linguistics: way of thinking, school of thought, persuasion, creed, credo, doctrine, belief, faith, opinion, point of view; approach, method, style.

•verb 1 he was schooled in Lyon: educate, teach, instruct. 2 he schooled her in horsemanship: train, teach, tutor, coach, instruct, drill, discipline, direct, guide, prepare, groom; prime, verse.

WORD LINKS

scholastic relating to schools and education alma mater the school that a person attended alumnus, alumna a former student of a particular school

schooling noun 1 his parents paid for his schooling: education, teaching, tuition, instruction, tutoring, tutelage; lessons; (book) learning. 2 the schooling of horses: training, coaching, instruction, drill, drilling, discipline, disciplining.

schoolteacher noun teacher, schoolmaster, schoolmistress, tutor, educationist; Brit. master, mistress; N. Amer. informal schoolmarm; Austral./NZ informal chalkie, schoolie; formal pedagogue.

scientific adjective 1 scientific research: technological, technical; research-based, knowledge-based, empirical. 2 you need to approach it in a more scientific way: systematic, methodical, organized, well organized, ordered, orderly, meticulous, rigorous; exact, precise, accurate, mathematical; analytical, rational.

scientist noun researcher, technologist; Brit. informal boffin.

scintilla noun particle, iota, jot, whit, atom, speck, bit, trace, ounce, shred, crumb, fragment, grain, drop, spot, mite, modicum, hint, touch, suggestion, whisper, suspicion; informal smidgen, tad; old use scantling.

scintillate verb sparkle, shine, gleam, glitter, flash, shimmer, twinkle, glint, glisten, wink; literary glister, coruscate.

scintillating adjective 1 a scintillating diamond necklace: sparkling, shining, bright, brilliant, gleaming, glittering, twinkling, shimmering. 2 a scintillating second-half performance: brilliant, dazzling, exciting, exhilarating, stimulating; sparkling, lively, vivacious, vibrant, animated, ebullient, effervescent; witty, clever; literary coruscating.

– OPPOSITES dull, boring.

scion noun 1 a scion of the tree: cutting, graft, slip; shoot, offshoot, twig. 2 the scion of an aristocratic family: descendant; heir, successor; child, offspring; law issue.

scoff<sup>1</sup> verb they scoffed at her article: mock, deride, ridicule, sneer at, jeer at, jibe at, taunt, make fun of, poke fun at, laugh at, scorn, laugh to scorn, dismiss, make light of, belittle; informal pooh-pooh.

scoff<sup>2</sup> verb (informal) the bears scoffed our packed lunch: eat, devour, consume, guzzle, gobble, wolf down, bolt; informal put away, nosh, polish off, Hoover up, demolish, shovel down, stuff one's face with, pig oneself on, pig out on, trough; Brit. informal gollop, shift; N. Amer. informal scarf (down/up), snarf (down/up).

scold verb Mum took Anna away, scolding her for her bad behaviour: rebuke, reprimand, reproach, reprove, admonish, remonstrate with, chastise, chide, upbraid, berate, take to task, read someone the Riot Act, give someone a piece of one's mind, haul over the coals; informal tell off, dress down, give someone an earful, give someone a roasting, rap over the knuckles, let someone have it, bawl out, give someone hell; Brit. informal tick off, have a go at, carpet, tear someone off a strip, give someone what for, give someone some stick, give someone a rollicking/rocket/row; N. Amer. informal chew out, ream out; Austral. informal monster; formal castigate.

– OPPOSITES praise.

• noun (old use) she is turning into a scold: nag, shrew, fishwife, harpy, termagant, harridan; complainer, moaner, grumbler; N. Amer. informal kvetch.

scolding noun rebuke, reprimand, reproach, reproof, admonishment, remonstrance, lecture, upbraiding; informal telling-off, talking-to, rap over the knuckles, dressing-down, earful, roasting; Brit. informal ticking-off, carpeting, rocket, rollicking; formal castigation.

scoop noun 1 a measuring scoop: spoon, ladle, dipper; bailer. 2 a scoop of vanilla ice cream: spoonful, ladleful, portion, lump, ball; informal dollop. 3 (informal) reporters competed for scoops: exclusive (story), inside story, exposé, revelation.

• verb 1 a hole was scooped out in the floor: hollow out, gouge out, dig, excavate, cut out. 2 cut the tomatoes in half and scoop out the flesh: remove, take out, spoon out, scrape out. 3 she scooped up armfuls of clothes: pick up, gather up, lift, take up; snatch up, grab.

scoot verb (informal). See DASH verb sense 1.

scope noun 1 the scope of the investigation: extent, range, breadth, width, reach, sweep, purview, span, horizon; area, sphere, field, realm, compass, orbit, ambit, terms/field of reference, jurisdiction, remit; confine, limit; gamut. 2 the scope for change is limited by political realities: opportunity, freedom, latitude, leeway, capacity, liberty, room (to manoeuvre), elbow room; possibility, chance; informal wiggle room.

scorch verb 1 the buildings were scorched by the fire: burn, sear, singe, char, blacken, discolour. 2 grass scorched by the sun: dry up, desiccate, parch, wither, shrivel; burn, bake.

scorching adjective 1 the scorching July sun: extremely hot, red-hot, blazing, flaming, fiery, burning, blistering, searing, sweltering, torrid; N. Amer. broiling; informal boiling (hot), baking (hot), sizzling. 2 scorching criticism: fierce, savage, scathing, withering, blistering, searing, devastating, stringent, severe, harsh, stinging, biting, mordant, trenchant, caustic, virulent, vitriolic.

– OPPOSITES freezing, mild.

score noun 1 the final score was 4–3: result, outcome; total, sum total, tally, count. 2 an IQ score of 161: rating, grade, mark, percentage. 3 I've got a score to settle with you: grievance, bone to pick, axe to grind, grudge, complaint; dispute, bone of contention. 4 (informal) he knew the score before he got here: the situation, the position, the facts, the truth of the matter, the (true) state of affairs, the picture, how things stand, the lie of the land; Brit. the state of play; N. Amer. the lay of the land; informal the set-up, what's what. 5 scores of complaints:

a great many, a lot, a great/good deal, large quantities, plenty; informal lots, umpteen, a slew, loads, masses, stacks, scads, heaps, piles, bags, tons, oodles, dozens, hundreds, thousands, millions, billions; Brit. informal shedloads; N. Amer. informal a bunch, gazillions; Austral./NZ informal a swag.

• verb 1 he's already scored 13 goals this season: get, gain, chalk up, achieve, make; record, rack up, notch up; informal bag, knock up. 2 the piece was scored for flute, violin, and continuo: orchestrate, arrange, set, adapt; write, compose. 3 score the wood in criss-cross patterns: scratch, cut, notch, incise, scrape, nick, snick, chip, gouge; mark; old use scotch.

■ score points off get the better of, gain the advantage over, outdo, worst, have the edge over; have the last laugh on, make a fool of, humiliate; informal get/be one up on, get one over on, best.

■ score something out/through cross out, strike out, put a line through, ink out, blue-pencil, scratch out; delete, obliterate, expunge.

scorn noun he was unable to hide the scorn in his voice: contempt, derision, contemptuousness, disdain, derisiveness, mockery, sneering; old use contumely, despite.

– OPPOSITES admiration, respect.

• verb 1 critics scorned the painting: deride, hold in contempt, treat with contempt, pour/heap scorn on, look down on, look down one's nose at, disdain, curl one's lip at, mock, scoff at, sneer at, jeer at, laugh at, laugh out of court; disparage, slight; dismiss, cock a snook at, thumb one's nose at; informal turn one's nose up at; old use contemn. 2 'I am a woman scorned,' she thought: spurn, rebuff, reject, ignore, shun, snub. 3 she would have scorned to stoop to such tactics: refuse to, refrain from, not lower oneself to; be above, consider it beneath one.

– OPPOSITES admire, respect.

scornful adjective contemptuous, derisive, withering, mocking, scoffing, sneering, jeering, scathing, snide, disparaging, supercilious, disdainful, superior; old use contumelious.

– OPPOSITES admiring, respectful.

scotch verb put an end to, put a stop to, nip in the bud, put the lid on; ruin, wreck, destroy, smash, shatter, demolish, queer; frustrate, thwart; informal put paid to, put the kibosh on; Brit. informal scupper.

scot-free adverb unpunished, without punishment; unscathed, unhurt, unharmed, without a scratch.

Scotland noun Caledonia; Brit. north of the border; informal the land of cakes.

scoundrel noun rogue, rascal, miscreant, good-for-nothing, reprobate; cheat, swindler, fraudster, trickster, charlatan; informal villain, bastard, beast, son of a bitch, SOB, rat, louse, swine, dog, skunk, heel, snake (in the grass), wretch, scumbag; Irish informal sleeveen, spalpeen; N. Amer. informal rat fink; informal, dated rotter, hound, bounder, blighter; dated cad; old use blackguard, knave, varlet, whoreson.

scour<sup>1</sup> verb she scoured the cooker and cleaned out the cupboards: scrub, rub, clean, wash, cleanse, wipe; polish, buff (up), shine, burnish; abrade.

scour<sup>2</sup> verb Christine scoured the shops for a gift: search, comb, hunt through, rummage through, go through with a fine-tooth comb, root through, rake through, leave no stone unturned, look high and low in; ransack, turn upside-down; Austral./NZ informal fossick through.

scourge noun 1 (historical) he was beaten with a scourge: whip, horsewhip, lash, strap, birch, switch; N. Amer. bullwhip, rawhide; historical cat-o'-nine-tails. 2 inflation was the scourge of the mid-1970s: affliction, bane, curse, plague, menace, evil, misfortune, burden, cross to bear; blight, cancer, canker.

– OPPOSITES blessing, godsend.

• verb 1 (historical) he was publicly scourged: flog, whip, beat, horsewhip, lash, flagellate, strap, birch, cane, thrash, belt, leather; informal tan someone's hide. 2 a disease which scourged the English for centuries: afflict, plague, torment, torture, curse, oppress, burden, bedevil, beset.

scout noun 1 scouts reported that the enemy were massing ahead: lookout, outrider, advance guard, vanguard; spy. 2 a lengthy scout round the area: reconnaissance, reconnoitre; exploration, search, expedition; informal recce; Brit. informal shufti; N. Amer. informal recon. 3 a record company scout: talent spotter, talent scout; N. Amer. informal bird dog.

• verb 1 I scouted around for some logs: search, look, hunt, ferret about/around, root about/around. 2 a night patrol was sent to scout out the area: reconnoitre, explore, make a reconnaissance of, inspect, investigate, spy out, survey; examine, scan, study, observe; informal make a recce of, check out, case; Brit. informal take a shufti round; N. Amer. informal recon.

scowl verb glower, frown, glare, grimace, lour, look daggers at, give someone a black look; make a face, pull a face, pout; informal give someone a dirty look.

– OPPOSITES smile, grin.

scrappy adjective scrawny, thin, as thin as a rake, skinny, skin and bone, gaunt, bony, angular, gawky, raw-boned; dated spindle-shanked.

– OPPOSITES fat.

scramble verb 1 we scrambled over the boulders: clamber, climb, crawl, claw one's way, scrabble, grope one's way, struggle; N. Amer. shinny. 2 small children scrambled for the scattered coins: jostle, scuffle, tussle, struggle, strive, compete, contend, vie, jockey. 3 scramble the letters and pick seven: mix up, jumble (up), disarrange, disorganize, disorder, muddle, confuse, disturb, mess up.

• noun 1 a short scramble over the rocks: clamber, climb, trek. 2 I lost Tommy in the scramble for a seat: tussle, jostle, scrimmage, scuffle, struggle, free-for-all, competition, contention, vying, jockeying; muddle, confusion, melee.

scrap<sup>1</sup> noun 1 a scrap of paper: fragment, piece, bit, snippet, shred; offcut, oddment, remnant. 2 there wasn't a scrap of evidence: bit, speck, iota, particle, ounce, whit, jot, atom, shred, scintilla, tittle, jot or tittle; informal smidgen, tad. 3 he slept rough and lived on scraps: leftovers, leavings, crumbs, scrapings, remains, remnants, residue, odds and ends, bits and pieces. 4 the whole thing was made from bits of scrap: waste, rubbish, refuse, litter, debris, detritus; flotsam and jetsam; N. Amer. garbage, trash; informal junk. • verb 1 old cars which are due to be scrapped: throw away, throw out, dispose of, get rid of, toss out, throw on the scrap heap, discard, remove, dispense with, lose, bin; decommission, recycle, break up, demolish; informal chuck (away/out), ditch, dump, junk, get shut of; Brit. informal get shot of; N. Amer. informal trash. 2 campaigners called for the plans to be scrapped: abandon, drop, abolish, withdraw, throw out, do away with, put an end to, cancel, axe, jettison; informal ditch, dump, junk.

– OPPOSITES keep, preserve.

scrap<sup>2</sup> (informal) noun he and Joe had several scraps: quarrel, argument, row, fight, disagreement, difference of opinion, falling-out, dispute, squabble, contretemps, clash, altercation, brawl, tussle, conflict, shouting match; informal tiff, set-to, run-in, slang match, shindy, spat, dust-up, ruction; Brit. informal barney, ding-dong, bust-up. • verb the older boys started scrapping with me: quarrel, argue, row, fight, squabble, brawl, bicker, spar, wrangle, lock horns, be at each other's throats.

scrape verb 1 we scraped all the paint off the windows: abrade, grate, sand, sandpaper, scour, scratch, rub, file, rasp. 2 their boots scraped along the floor: grate, creak, rasp, grind, scratch. 3 she scraped her hair back behind her ears: rake, drag, pull, tug, draw. 4 he scraped a hole in the ground: scoop out, hollow out, dig (out), excavate, gouge out. 5 Ellen had scraped her shins on the wall: graze, scratch, abrade, scuff, rasp, skin, rub raw, cut, lacerate, bark, chafe; Medicine excoriate.

• noun 1 the scrape of her key in the lock: grating, creaking, grinding, rasp, rasping, scratch, scratching. 2 there was a long scrape on his shin: graze, scratch, abrasion, cut, laceration, wound. 3 (informal) he's always getting into scrapes: predicament, plight, tight corner/spot, ticklish/tricky situation, problem, crisis, mess, muddle; informal jam, fix, stew, bind, hole, hot water, a pretty/fine kettle of fish; Brit. informal spot of bother.

■ scrape by manage, cope, survive, muddle through/along, make ends meet, get by/along, make do, keep the wolf from the door, keep one's head above water, eke out a living; informal make out.

scrappy adjective disorganized, untidy, disjointed, unsystematic, uneven, bitty, sketchy; piecemeal; fragmentary, incomplete, unfinished.

scratch verb 1 the paintwork was scratched: score, abrade, scrape, scuff. 2 thorns scratched her skin: graze, scrape, abrade, skin, rub raw, cut, lacerate, bark, chafe; wound; Medicine excoriate. 3 many names had been scratched out: cross out, strike out, score out, delete, erase, remove, eliminate, expunge, obliterate. 4 she was forced to scratch from the race: withdraw, pull out of, back out of, bow out of, stand down.

• noun 1 he had two scratches on his cheek: graze, scrape, abrasion, cut, laceration, wound. 2 a scratch on the paintwork: score, mark, line, scrape.

■ up to scratch good enough, up to the mark, up to standard, up to par, satisfactory, acceptable, adequate, passable, sufficient, all right; informal OK, up to snuff.

scrawl verb he scrawled his name at the bottom of the page: scribble, write hurriedly, write untidily, dash off.

• noun pages of handwritten scrawl: scribble, squiggle(s), hieroglyphics; rare cacography.

scrawny adjective skinny, thin, as thin as a rake, skin and bone, gaunt, bony, angular, gawky, scraggy, raw-boned; dated spindle-shanked.

– OPPOSITES fat.

scream verb he screamed in pain: shriek, screech, yell, howl, shout, bellow, bawl, cry out, call out, yelp, squeal, wail, squawk; informal holler.

• noun 1 a scream of pain: shriek, screech, yell, howl, shout, bellow, bawl, cry, yelp, squeal, wail, squawk; informal holler. 2 (informal) the whole thing's a scream: laugh, hoot; informal gas, giggle, riot, bundle of fun/laughs. 3 (informal) he's an absolute scream: wit, hoot, comedian, comic, entertainer, joker, clown, character; informal gas, giggle, riot; informal, dated caution, case, card.

screech verb. See SCREAM verb.

screen noun 1 he dressed hurriedly behind the screen: partition, (room) divider; windbreak. 2 a computer with a 15-inch screen: display, monitor, visual display unit, VDU; cathode ray tube, CRT. 3 every window has a screen because of mosquitoes: mesh, net, netting. 4 the hedge acts as a screen against the wind: buffer, protection, shield, shelter, guard. 5 the earth must be put through a screen: sieve, riddle, strainer, colander, filter.

• verb 1 the end of the hall had been screened off: partition off, divide off, separate off, curtain off. 2 the cottage was screened by the trees: conceal, hide, veil; shield, shelter, shade, protect, guard, safeguard. 3 the prospective candidates will have to be screened: vet, check, check up on, investigate; informal check out. 4 all donated blood is screened for the virus: check, test, examine, investigate. 5 coal used to be screened by hand: sieve, riddle, sift, strain, filter, winnow. 6 the programme is screened

on Thursday evenings: show, broadcast, transmit, televise, put out, put on the air.

screw noun 1 stainless steel screws: bolt, fastener; nail, pin, tack, spike, rivet, brad.

2 the handle needs a couple of screws to tighten it: turn, twist, wrench. 3 the ship's twin screws: propeller, rotor.

• verb 1 he screwed the lid back on the jar: tighten, turn, twist, wind. 2 the bracket was screwed in place: fasten, secure, fix, attach. 3 (informal) she intended to screw money out of them: extort, force, extract, wrest, wring, squeeze; informal bleed.

■ put the screws on (informal) pressurize, put pressure on, pressure, coerce, browbeat, use strong-arm tactics on; hold a gun to someone's head; informal put the heat on, lean on.

■ screw something up 1 Christina screwed up her face in disgust: wrinkle (up), pucker, crumple, crease, furrow, contort, distort, twist, purse. 2 (informal) they'll screw up the whole economy: wreck, ruin, destroy, wreak havoc on, damage, spoil, mar; dash, shatter, scotch, make a mess of, mess up; informal louse up, foul up, put the kibosh on, banjax, do for, nix, queer; Brit. informal scupper, cock up.

scribble verb he scribbled a few lines on a piece of paper: scrawl, write hurriedly, write untidily, scratch, dash off, jot (down); doodle.

• noun a page of scribble: scrawl, squiggle(s), jottings; doodle, doodlings; rare cacography.

scribe noun 1 (historical) a medieval scribe: clerk, secretary, copyist, transcriber, amanuensis; historical penman, scribe.

2 (informal) a local cricket scribe: writer, author, penman; journalist, reporter; informal hack.

scrimmage noun fight, tussle, brawl, struggle, fracas, free-for-all, rough and tumble; Law, dated affray; informal scrap, dust-up, punch-up, set-to, shindy; Brit. informal scrum; N. Amer. informal rough house.

scrimp verb economize, skimp, scrimp and save, save; be thrifty, be frugal, tighten one's belt, cut back, husband one's resources, draw in one's horns, watch one's pennies; N. Amer. pinch the pennies.

script noun 1 her neat, tidy script: handwriting, writing, hand, pen, penmanship, calligraphy. 2 the script of the play: text, screenplay; libretto, score; lines, dialogue, words.

Scrooge noun miser, penny-pincher, pinchpenny, niggard; informal skinflint, meanie, money-grubber, cheapskate; N. Amer. informal tightwad.

– OPPOSITES spendthrift.

scrounge verb (informal) beg, borrow; informal cadge, sponge, bum, touch someone for; Brit. informal scab; N. Amer. informal mooch; Austral./NZ informal bludge.

scrounger noun (informal) beggar, borrower, parasite, cadger; informal sponger, freeloader; N. Amer. informal mooch, moocher, schnorrer; Austral./NZ informal bludger.

scrub<sup>1</sup> verb 1 he scrubbed the kitchen floor: scour, rub; clean, cleanse, wash, wipe.

2 (informal) the plans were scrubbed: abandon, scrap, drop, cancel, call off, axe, jettison, discard, discontinue, abort; informal ditch, dump, junk.

scrub<sup>2</sup> noun there the buildings ended and the scrub began: brush, brushwood, scrubland, undergrowth.

scruffy adjective shabby, worn, down at heel, ragged, tattered, mangy, dirty; untidy, unkempt, bedraggled, messy, dishevelled, ill-groomed; informal tatty, the worse for wear; N. Amer. informal raggedy.

– OPPOSITES smart, tidy.

scrumptious adjective (informal) delicious, delectable, mouth-watering, tasty, appetizing, rich, savoury, flavoursome, flavourful, toothsome; succulent, luscious; informal scrummy, yummy; Brit. informal moreish; N. Amer. informal finger-licking, nummy.

– OPPOSITES unpalatable.

screw verb crumple, crunch, crush, rumple, screw up, squash, squeeze, compress; informal squidge.

scruple verb she would not scruple to ask them for money: hesitate, be reluctant, be loath, have qualms, have scruples, have misgivings, have reservations, think twice, balk, demur, recoil from, shrink from, shy away from, flinch from.

scruples plural noun he had no scruples about eavesdropping: qualms, compunction, pangs/twinges of conscience, hesitation, reservations, second thoughts, doubt(s), misgivings, uneasiness, reluctance.

scrupulous adjective 1 scrupulous attention to detail: careful, meticulous, painstaking, thorough, assiduous, sedulous, attentive, conscientious, punctilious, searching, close, minute, rigorous, particular, strict. 2 a scrupulous man: honest, honourable, upright, upstanding, high-minded, right-minded, moral, ethical, good, virtuous, principled, incorruptible.

– OPPOSITES careless, dishonest.

scrutinize verb examine, inspect, survey, study, look at, peruse; investigate, explore, probe, inquire into, go into, check.

scrutiny noun examination, inspection, survey, study, perusal; investigation, exploration, probe, inquiry; informal going-over.

scud verb speed, race, rush, sail, shoot, sweep, skim, whip, whizz, flash, fly, scurry, flit, scutter.

scuff verb scrape, scratch, rub, abrade; mark.

scuffle noun there was a scuffle outside the pub: fight, struggle, tussle, brawl, fracas, free-for-all, rough and tumble, scrimmage; Law, dated affray; informal scrap, dust-up, punch-up, set-to, shindy; N. Amer. informal rough house.

• verb demonstrators scuffled with police: fight, struggle, tussle, exchange blows, come to blows, brawl, clash; informal scrap.

sculpt verb carve, model, chisel, sculpture, fashion, form, shape, cast, cut, hew.

sculpture noun a bronze sculpture: model, carving, statue, statuette, figure, figurine, effigy, bust, head, likeness.

•verb the choir stalls were carefully sculptured. See SCULPT.

scum noun 1 the water was covered with a thick green scum: film, layer, covering, froth; filth, dross, dirt. 2 (informal) drug dealers are scum: despicable people, the lowest of the low, the dregs of society, vermin, riff-raff; informal the scum of the earth.

scupper (Brit.) verb 1 the captain decided to scupper the ship: sink, scuttle, submerge, send to the bottom. 2 (informal) he denied trying to scupper the agreement: ruin, wreck, destroy, sabotage, torpedo, spoil, mess up; informal screw up, foul up, put the kibosh on, banjax, do for; old use bring to naught.

scurrilous adjective defamatory, slanderous, libellous, scandalous, insulting, offensive, gross; abusive, vituperative, malicious; informal bitchy.

scurry verb pedestrians scurried for cover: hurry, hasten, run, rush, dash; scamper, scuttle, scramble; Brit. scutter; informal scoot, beetle; dated make haste.

– OPPOSITES amble.

•noun there was a scurry to get out: rush, race, dash, run, hurry; scramble, bustle.

scuttle verb. See SCURRY verb.

sea noun 1 the sea sparkled in the sun: (the) ocean, the waves; informal the drink; Brit. informal the briny; literary the deep, the main, the foam. 2 the boat overturned in the heavy seas: waves, swell, breakers, rollers, combers; informal boomers. 3 a sea of roofs and turrets: expanse, stretch, area, tract, sweep, blanket, sheet, carpet, mass; multitude, host, profusion, abundance, plethora.

– OPPOSITES land.

•adjective sea creatures: marine, ocean, oceanic; saltwater, seawater; ocean-going, seagoing, seafaring; maritime, naval, nautical; technical pelagic, thalassic.

■ at sea confused, perplexed, puzzled, baffled, mystified, bemused, bewildered, nonplussed, disconcerted, disoriented, dumbfounded, at a loss, at sixes and sevens; informal flummoxed, bamboozled, fazed; N. Amer. informal discombobulated; old use wildered, mazed.

WORD LINKS

marine, maritime, nautical relating to the sea pelagic relating to the open sea oceanography the branch of science concerned with the study of the sea thalassotherapy the use of seawater in cosmetic and health treatment seafaring adjective maritime, nautical, naval, seagoing, sea.

seal noun 1 the seal round the bath: sealant, sealer, adhesive. 2 the king put his seal on the letter: emblem, symbol, insignia, device, badge, crest, coat of arms, mark, monogram, stamp. 3 the Minister gave his seal of approval to the project: ratification, approval, blessing, consent, agreement, permission, sanction, endorsement, clearance.

•verb 1 she quietly sealed the door behind her: fasten, secure, shut, close, lock, bolt.

2 seal each bottle while it is hot: stop up, seal up, make airtight/watertight, cork, stopper, plug. 3 police sealed off the High Street: close off, shut off, cordon off, fence off, isolate. 4 he held out his hand to seal the bargain: clinch, secure, settle, conclude, complete, establish, set the seal on, confirm, guarantee; informal sew up.

seam noun 1 the seam was coming undone: join, stitching; Surgery suture. 2 a seam of coal: layer, stratum, vein, lode. 3 the seams of his face: wrinkle, line, crow's foot, furrow, crease, corrugation, crinkle, pucker, groove, ridge.

seaman noun sailor, seafarer, mariner, boatman, hand; informal (old) salt, sea dog, bluejacket; Brit. informal matelot; informal, dated tar, Jack Tar.

– OPPOSITES landlubber.

seamy adjective sordid, disreputable, seedy, sleazy, squalid, insalubrious, unwholesome, unsavoury, rough, unpleasant.

– OPPOSITES salubrious.

sear verb 1 the heat of the blast seared his face: scorch, burn, singe, char. 2 sear the meat before adding the other ingredients: flash-fry, seal, brown. 3 his betrayal had seared her terribly: hurt, wound, pain, cut to the quick, sting; distress, grieve, upset, trouble, harrow, torment, torture.

search verb 1 I searched for the key in my handbag: hunt, look, seek, forage, fish about/around, look high and low, cast about/around, ferret about/around, root about/around, rummage about/around; Brit. informal rootle about/around. 2 he searched the house thoroughly: look through, hunt through, explore, scour, rifle through, go through, sift through, comb, go through with a fine-tooth comb; turn upside down, turn inside out, leave no stone unturned in; Austral./NZ informal fossick through. 3 the guards searched him for weapons: examine, inspect, check, frisk.

•noun we continued our search for a hotel: hunt, look, quest; pursuit.

■ in search of searching for, hunting for, seeking, looking for, on the lookout for, in pursuit of.

searching adjective penetrating, piercing, probing, keen, shrewd, sharp, intent.

searing adjective 1 the searing heat: scorching, blistering, sweltering, blazing (hot), burning, fiery, torrid; informal boiling (hot), baking (hot), sizzling, roasting. 2 a searing pain: intense, excruciating, agonizing, sharp, stabbing, shooting, stinging, severe, extreme, racking. 3 a searing attack: fierce, savage, blistering, scathing, stinging, devastating, mordant, trenchant, caustic, cutting, biting, withering.

seaside noun coast, shore, seashore, waterside; beach, sand, sands, littoral; literary strand.

season noun the rainy season | the opera season: period, time, time of year, spell, term.

• verb 1 season the casserole to taste: flavour, add flavouring to, add salt/pepper to, spice.

2 his albums include standard numbers seasoned with a few of his own tunes:

enliven, leaven, spice (up), liven up; informal pep up.

■ in season available, obtainable, to be had, on offer, on the market; plentiful, abundant.

seasonable adjective usual, expected, predictable, normal for the time of year.

seasoned adjective experienced, practised, well versed, knowledgeable, established, habituated, veteran, hardened, battle-scarred.

– OPPOSITES inexperienced.

seasoning noun flavouring, salt and pepper, herbs, spices, condiments.

seat noun 1 a wooden seat: chair, bench, stool, settle, stall; (seats) seating, room; Brit. informal pew. 2 the seat of government: headquarters, base, centre, nerve centre, hub, heart; location, site, whereabouts, place. 3 the family's country seat: residence, ancestral home, mansion, stately home; formal abode.

• verb 1 they seated themselves round the table: position, put, place; ensconce, install, settle; informal plonk, park. 2 the hall seats 500: have room for, contain, take, sit, hold, accommodate.

seating noun seats, room, places, chairs, accommodation.

secede verb the Kingdom of Belgium seceded from the Netherlands in 1830: withdraw from, break away from, break with, separate (oneself) from, leave, split with, split off from, disaffiliate from, resign from, pull out of; informal quit.

– OPPOSITES join.

secluded adjective sheltered, private, concealed, hidden, unfrequented, sequestered, tucked away.

– OPPOSITES busy.

seclusion noun isolation, solitude, retreat, privacy, retirement, withdrawal, purdah, concealment, hiding, secrecy.

second<sup>1</sup> adjective 1 the second day of the trial: next, following, subsequent, succeeding.

2 he keeps a second pair of glasses in his office: additional, extra, alternative, another, spare, back-up, relief, fallback; N. Amer. alternate. 3 he dropped down to captain the second team: secondary, lower, subordinate, subsidiary, lesser, inferior. 4 the conflict could turn into a second Vietnam: another, new; repeat of, copy of, carbon copy of.

– OPPOSITES first.

• noun 1 Eva had been working as his second: assistant, attendant, helper, aide, supporter, auxiliary, right-hand man/woman, girl/man Friday, second in command, number two, deputy, understudy, subordinate; informal sidekick. 2 (informal) he enjoyed the pie and asked for seconds: a second helping, a further helping, more.

• verb George Beale seconded the motion: formally support, give one's support to, vote for, back, approve, endorse.

■ second to none incomparable, matchless, unrivalled, inimitable, beyond compare/ comparison, unparalleled, without parallel, unequalled, without equal, in a class of its own, peerless, unsurpassed, unsurpassable, nonpareil, unique; perfect, consummate, transcendent, surpassing, superlative, supreme; formal unexampled.

second<sup>2</sup> noun I'll only be gone for a second: moment, bit, little while, short time, instant, split second; informal sec, jiffy; Brit. informal mo, tick, two ticks.

■ in a second very soon, in a minute, in a moment, in a trice, shortly, any minute (now), in the twinkling of an eye, in (less than) no time, in no time at all; N. Amer. momentarily; informal in a jiffy, in two shakes (of a lamb's tail), before you can say Jack Robinson, in the blink of an eye; Brit. informal in a tick, in two ticks, in a mo; N. Amer. informal in a snap; literary ere long.

second<sup>3</sup> verb he was seconded to their Welsh office: assign temporarily, lend; transfer, move, shift, relocate, assign, reassign, send.

secondary adjective 1 a secondary issue: less important, subordinate, lesser, minor, peripheral, incidental, ancillary, subsidiary, non-essential, inessential, of little account, unimportant. 2 secondary infections: accompanying, attendant, concomitant, consequential, resulting, resultant.

– OPPOSITES primary, main.

second-class adjective second-rate, second-best, inferior, lesser, unimportant.

second-hand adjective 1 second-hand clothes: used, old, worn, pre-owned, handed-down, hand-me-down, cast-off; Brit. informal reach-me-down. 2 second-hand information: indirect, derivative; vicarious.

– OPPOSITES new, direct.

• adverb 1 I was discounting anything I heard second-hand: indirectly, at second-hand, on the bush telegraph; informal on the grapevine.

– OPPOSITES directly.

second in command noun deputy, number two, subordinate, right-hand man/ woman; understudy.

secondly adverb furthermore, also, moreover; second, in the second place, next; secondarily.

second-rate adjective inferior, substandard, low-quality, below par, bad, poor, deficient, defective, faulty, imperfect, shoddy, inadequate, insufficient, unacceptable; Brit. informal ropy, duff, rubbish.

– OPPOSITES first-rate, excellent.

secrecy noun 1 the secrecy of the material: confidentiality, classified nature. 2 a government which thrived on secrecy: secretiveness, covertness, furtiveness, surreptitiousness, stealth, stealthiness.

secret adjective 1 a secret plan: confidential, top secret, classified, undisclosed, unknown, private, under wraps; informal hush-hush; formal sub rosa. 2 a secret drawer in the table: hidden, concealed, disguised; invisible. 3 a secret operation to infiltrate terrorist groups: clandestine, covert, undercover, underground, surreptitious, stealthy, furtive, cloak-and-dagger, hole-and-corner, closet; informal hush-hush. 4 a secret message | a secret code: cryptic, encoded, coded; mysterious, abstruse, recondite, arcane, esoteric, cabballistic. 5 a secret place: secluded, private, concealed, hidden, unfrequented, out of the way, tucked away. 6 a very secret person. See SECRETIVE.

– OPPOSITES public, open.

• noun 1 he just can't keep a secret: confidential matter, confidence, private affair; skeleton in the cupboard. 2 the secrets of the universe: mystery, enigma, paradox, puzzle, conundrum, poser, riddle. 3 the secret of their success: recipe, (magic) formula, blueprint, key, answer, solution. ■ in secret secretly, in private, privately, behind closed doors, behind the scenes, in camera, under cover, under the counter, discreetly, behind someone's back, furtively, stealthily, on the sly, on the quiet, conspiratorially, covertly, clandestinely, on the side; informal on the q.t.; formal sub rosa.

secret agent noun spy, double agent, counterspy, undercover agent, operative, plant, mole; N. Amer. informal spook.

secretary noun assistant, personal assistant, PA, administrator, amanuensis, girl/man Friday.

secrete<sup>1</sup> verb a substance secreted by the prostate gland: produce, discharge, emit, excrete, release, send out.

– OPPOSITES absorb.

secrete<sup>2</sup> verb we secreted ourselves in the bushes: conceal, hide, cover up, veil, shroud, screen, stow away; bury, cache; informal stash away.

– OPPOSITES reveal.

secretive adjective uncommunicative, secret, unforthcoming, playing one's cards close to one's chest, reticent, reserved, silent, non-communicative, quiet, tight-lipped, close-mouthed, taciturn.

– OPPOSITES open, communicative.

secretly adverb 1 they met secretly for a year: in secret, in private, privately, behind closed doors, in camera, behind the scenes, under cover, under the counter, behind someone's back, furtively, stealthily, on the sly, on the quiet, conspiratorially, covertly, clandestinely, on the side; informal on the q.t.; formal sub rosa. 2 he was secretly jealous of Bartholomew: privately, in one's heart (of hearts), deep down.

sect noun (religious) cult, religious group, denomination, persuasion, religious order; splinter group, faction.

sectarian adjective factional, separatist, partisan, parti pris; doctrinaire, dogmatic, extreme, fanatical, rigid, inflexible, bigoted, hidebound, narrow-minded.

– OPPOSITES tolerant, liberal.

section noun 1 the separate sections of a train: part, piece, bit, segment, component, division, portion, element, unit, constituent. 2 the last section of the questionnaire: subdivision, part, subsection, division, portion, bit, chapter, passage, clause. 3 the reference section of the library: department, area, part, division. 4 a residential section of the capital. See SECTOR sense 2.

sector adjective 1 every sector of the industry is affected: part, branch, arm, division, area, department, field, sphere. 2 the north-eastern sector of the town: district, quarter, part, section, zone, region, area, belt.

secular adjective non-religious, lay, temporal, worldly, earthly, profane; formal laic.

– OPPOSITES holy, religious.

secure adjective 1 check to make sure that all the bolts are secure: fastened, fixed, secured, done up; closed, shut, locked. 2 an environment in which children can feel secure: safe, protected from harm/danger, out of danger, sheltered, safe and sound, out of harm's way, in a safe place, in safe hands, invulnerable; at ease, unworried, relaxed, happy, confident. 3 a secure future: certain, assured, reliable, dependable, settled, fixed.

– OPPOSITES loose, vulnerable, uncertain.

• verb 1 pins secure the handle to the main body: fix, attach, fasten, affix, connect, couple. 2 the doors had not been properly secured: fasten, close, shut, lock, bolt, chain, seal. 3 he leapt out to secure the boat: tie up, moor, make fast; anchor. 4 they sought to secure the country against attack: protect, make safe, fortify, strengthen. 5 a written constitution would secure the rights of the individual: assure, ensure, guarantee, protect, confirm, establish. 6 the division secured a major contract: obtain, acquire, gain, get, get possession of; informal get hold of, land.

security noun 1 the security of the nation's citizens: safety, freedom from danger, protection, invulnerability. 2 he could give her the security she needed: peace of mind, feeling of safety, stability, certainty, happiness, confidence. 3 security at the court was tight: safety measures, safeguards, surveillance, defence, protection.

4 additional security for your loan may be required: guarantee, collateral, surety, pledge, bond; old use gage.

– OPPOSITES vulnerability, danger.

sedate<sup>1</sup> verb the patient had to be sedated: tranquillize, put under sedation, drug.

sedate<sup>2</sup> adjective 1 a sedate pace: slow, steady, dignified, unhurried, relaxed, measured, leisurely, slow-moving, easy, easy-going, gentle. 2 he had lived a very sedate and straightforward life: calm, placid, tranquil, quiet, uneventful; boring, dull.

– OPPOSITES exciting, fast.

sedative adjective sedative drugs:

tranquillizing, calming, calmativ, relaxing, soporific; depressant; Medicine neuroleptic.

• noun the doctor gave him a sedative:

tranquillizer, calmativ, sleeping pill, narcotic, opiate; depressant; informal trank, sleeper, downer.

sedentary adjective sitting, seated, desk-bound; inactive.

– OPPOSITES active.

sediment noun dregs, lees, precipitate, deposit, grounds, settlings, residue, remains; silt, alluvium; technical residuum; old use grouts.

sedition noun rabble-rousing, subversion, troublemaking, provocation; rebellion, insurrection, mutiny, insurgence, civil disorder.

seditious adjective rabble-rousing, provocative, inflammatory, subversive, troublemaking; rebellious, insurrectionist, mutinous, insurgent.

seduce verb 1 he took her to his hotel room and tried to seduce her: persuade to have sex; euphemistic have one's (wicked) way with, take advantage of; dated debauch. 2 a firm which had seduced customers into buying worthless products: attract, allure, lure, tempt, entice, beguile, inveigle, manoeuvre.

seducer noun womanizer, philanderer, Romeo, Don Juan, Lothario, Casanova, playboy, ladies' man; informal ladykiller, wolf, skirt-chaser.

seductive adjective sexy, alluring, tempting, exciting, provocative, sultry, slinky; coquettish, flirtatious; informal vampish, come-hither, come-to-bed.

seductress noun temptress, siren, femme fatale, Mata Hari; flirt, coquette; informal vamp.

sedulous adjective diligent, careful, meticulous, thorough, assiduous, attentive, industrious, conscientious, ultra-careful, punctilious, scrupulous, painstaking, minute, rigorous, particular.

see verb 1 he saw her running across the road: discern, spot, notice, catch sight of, glimpse, catch/get a glimpse of, make out, pick out, spy, distinguish, detect, perceive, note; informal clap/lay/set eyes on, clock; literary behold, descry, espy. 2 I saw a documentary about it last week: watch, look at, view; catch. 3 would you like to see over the house? inspect, view, look round, tour, survey, examine, scrutinize; informal give something a/the once-over. 4 I finally saw what she meant: understand, grasp, comprehend, follow, take in, realize, appreciate, recognize, work out, get the drift of, perceive, fathom (out); informal get, latch on to, cotton on to, catch on to, tumble to, savvy, figure out, get a fix on; Brit. informal twig, suss (out). 5 I must go and see what Victor is up to: find out, discover, learn, ascertain, determine, establish. 6 see that no harm comes to him: ensure, make sure/certain, see to it, take care, mind. 7 I see trouble ahead: foresee, predict, forecast, prophesy, anticipate, envisage, picture, visualize. 8 about a year later, I saw him in town: encounter, meet, run into/across, come across, stumble on/across, happen on, chance on; informal bump into; old use run against. 9 they see each other from time to time: meet, meet up with, get together with, socialize with. 10 you'd better see a doctor: consult, confer with, talk to, speak to, have recourse to, call on, call in, turn to, ask. 11 he's seeing someone else now: go out with, date, take out, be involved with; informal go steady with; Brit. informal, dated walk out with; N. Amer. informal, dated step out with; dated court. 12 he saw her to her car: escort, accompany, show, walk, conduct, lead, take, usher, attend.

■ see through understand, get/have the measure of, read like a book; informal be wise to, have someone's number, know someone's (little) game.

■ see something through persevere with, persist with, continue (with), carry on with, keep at, follow through, stay with; informal stick at, stick it out, hang in there.

■ see to attend to, deal with, see about, take care of, look after, sort out, fix, organize, arrange.

see 2 noun a bishop's see: diocese, bishopric.

seed noun 1 sow the seeds in trays or pots: pip, stone, kernel; ovule. 2 each war contains within it the seeds of a fresh war: genesis, source, origin, root, starting point, germ, beginnings, potential (for); cause, reason, motivation, motive, grounds. 3 (old use) Abraham and his seed: descendants, heirs, successors, scions; offspring, children, sons and daughters, progeny, family; Law issue; derogatory spawn; old use fruit of someone's loins.

■ go/run to seed deteriorate, degenerate, decline, decay, fall into decay, go to rack and ruin, go downhill, moulder, rot; informal go to pot, go to the dogs.

WORD LINKS

seminal relating to the seed of a plant germinate (of a seed) begin to grow cotyledon the first leaf to grow from a germinating seed seedy adjective 1 the seedy world of prostitution: sordid, disreputable, seamy, sleazy, squalid, unwholesome, unsavoury. 2 a seedy block of flats: dilapidated, tumbledown, ramshackle, falling to pieces, decrepit, gone to rack and ruin, run down, down at heel, shabby, dingy, slummy, insalubrious, squalid; informal crummy; Brit. informal grotty.

– OPPOSITES high-class.

seek verb 1 they sought shelter from the winter snows: search for, try to find, look for, be on the lookout for, be after, hunt for, be in quest of. 2 the company is seeking a judicial review of the decision: try to obtain, work towards, be intent on, aim at/for. 3 he sought help from the police: ask for, request, solicit, call for, entreat, beg for, petition for, appeal for, apply for, put in for. 4 we constantly seek to improve the service: try, attempt, endeavour, strive, work, do one's best; formal essay.

seem verb appear (to be), have the appearance/air of being, give the impression of being, look, look as though one is, look like, show signs of, look to be; come across as, strike someone as, sound.

seeming adjective apparent, ostensible, supposed, outward, surface, superficial; pretended, feigned.

– OPPOSITES actual, genuine.

seemingly adverb apparently, on the face of it, to all appearances, as far as one can see/tell, on the surface, to all intents and purposes, outwardly, superficially, supposedly.

seemly adjective decorous, proper, decent, becoming, fitting, suitable, appropriate, apt, apposite, meet, in good taste, genteel, polite, the done thing, right, correct, acceptable, comme il faut.

– OPPOSITES unseemly, unbecoming.

seep verb ooze, trickle, exude, drip, dribble, flow, issue, escape, leak, drain, bleed, filter, percolate, soak.

seer noun soothsayer, oracle, prophet(ess), augur, prognosticator, diviner, fortune teller, crystal-gazer, clairvoyant, psychic; Scottish spaewife; literary sibyl.

see-saw verb fluctuate, swing, go up and down, rise and fall, oscillate, alternate, yo-yo, vary.

seethe verb 1 the brew seethed: boil, bubble, simmer, foam, froth, fizz, effervesce. 2 the water seethed with fish: teem, swarm, boil, swirl, churn, surge. 3 I seethed at the injustice of it all: be angry, be furious, be enraged, be incensed, be beside oneself, simmer, fume, smoulder; informal be hot under the collar.

see-through adjective transparent, translucent, clear, limpid, pellucid; thin, lightweight, flimsy, sheer, diaphanous, filmy, gossamer, chiffony, gauzy.

– OPPOSITES opaque.

segment noun 1 orange segments: piece, bit, section, part, chunk, portion, division, slice; fragment, wedge, lump, tranche. 2 all segments of society: part, section, sector, division, portion, constituent, element, unit, compartment; branch, wing.

• verb they plan to segment their market share: divide (up), subdivide, separate, split, cut up, carve up, slice up, break up; segregate, partition, section.

– OPPOSITES amalgamate.

segregate verb separate, set apart, keep apart, isolate, quarantine, closet; partition, divide, detach, disconnect, sever, dissociate.

– OPPOSITES amalgamate.

seize verb 1 she seized the microphone: grab, grasp, snatch, take hold of, get one's hands on; grip, clutch; Brit. informal nab. 2 rebels seized the air base: capture, take, overrun, occupy, conquer, take over. 3 the drugs were seized by customs: confiscate, impound, commandeer, requisition, appropriate, expropriate, take away; Law distrain; Scottish Law poind. 4 terrorists seized his wife: kidnap, abduct, take captive, take prisoner, take hostage, hold to ransom; informal snatch.

– OPPOSITES relinquish, release.

■ seize on they seized on the opportunity: take advantage of, exploit, grasp with both hands, leap at, jump at, pounce on.

seizure noun 1 Napoleon's seizure of Spain: capture, takeover, annexation, invasion, occupation, colonization. 2 the seizure of defaulters' property: confiscation, appropriation, expropriation, sequestration; Law distrain; Scottish Law poind. 3 the seizure of UN staff by rebels: kidnapping, kidnap, abduction. 4 the baby suffered a seizure: convulsion, fit, spasm, paroxysm; Medicine ictus; dated apoplexy.

seldom adverb rarely, infrequently, hardly (ever), scarcely (ever), almost never; now and then, occasionally, sporadically; informal once in a blue moon.

– OPPOSITES often.

select verb select the correct tool for the job: choose, pick (out), single out, sort out, take; opt for, decide on, settle on, determine, nominate, appoint, elect.

• adjective 1 a select group of SAS members: choice, hand-picked, prime, first-rate, first-class, superior, finest, best, top-class, supreme, superb, excellent; informal A1, top-notch. 2 a select clientele: exclusive, elite, favoured, privileged; wealthy; informal posh.

– OPPOSITES inferior.

selection noun 1 Jim made his selection of toys: choice, pick; option, preference. 2 a wide selection of dishes: range, array, diversity, variety, assortment, mixture. 3 a selection of his poems: anthology, assortment, collection, assemblage; miscellany, medley, potpourri.

selective adjective discerning, discriminating, discriminatory, critical, exacting, demanding, particular; fussy, fastidious, faddish; informal choosy, pernickety, picky; Brit. informal faddy.

self noun ego, I, oneself, persona, person, identity, character, personality, psyche, soul, spirit, mind, inner self.

– OPPOSITES other.

self-assemble noun kits for self-assembly: do-it-yourself, DIY.

• adjective self-assemble furniture: flat-pack, kit, self-build, do-it-yourself, DIY.

self-assurance noun self-confidence, confidence, assertiveness, self-reliance, self-possession, composure, presence of mind, aplomb.

– OPPOSITES diffidence.

self-assured adjective self-confident, confident, assertive, assured, authoritative, commanding, self-reliant, self-possessed, poised.

self-centred adjective egocentric, egotistic, egotistical, egomaniacal, self-absorbed, self-obsessed, self-seeking, self-interested, self-serving; narcissistic, vain; inconsiderate, thoughtless; informal looking after number one.

self-confidence noun morale, confidence, self-assurance, assurance, assertiveness, self-reliance, self-possession, composure.

self-conscious adjective embarrassed, uncomfortable, uneasy, nervous; unnatural, inhibited, gauche, awkward; modest, shy, diffident, bashful, retiring, shrinking.

– OPPOSITES confident.

self-contained adjective 1 each train was a self-contained unit: complete, independent, separate, free-standing, enclosed. 2 a very self-contained child: independent, self-sufficient, self-reliant; introverted, quiet, private, aloof, insular, reserved, reticent, secretive.

self-control noun self-discipline, restraint, self-possession, will power, composure, coolness; moderation, temperance, abstemiousness; informal cool.

self-denial noun self-sacrifice, selflessness, unselfishness; self-discipline, asceticism, self-deprivation, abstemiousness, abstinence, abstention; moderation, temperance.

– OPPOSITES self-indulgence.

self-discipline noun self-control; restraint, self-restraint; will power, purposefulness, strong-mindedness, resolve, moral fibre; doggedness, persistence, determination, grit.

self-employed adjective freelance, independent, casual; consultant, consulting; temporary, jobbing, visiting, outside, external; informal one's own boss.

self-esteem noun self-respect, pride, dignity, self-regard, faith in oneself; morale, self-confidence, confidence, self-assurance.

self-evident adjective obvious, clear, plain, evident, apparent, manifest, patent; distinct, transparent, overt, conspicuous, palpable, unmistakable, undeniable.

– OPPOSITES unclear.

self-explanatory adjective easily understood, comprehensible, intelligible, straightforward, unambiguous, accessible, crystal clear, user-friendly, simple, self-evident, obvious.

– OPPOSITES impenetrable.

self-governing noun independent, free, sovereign, autonomous; self-legislating, self-determining.

– OPPOSITES dependent.

self-important adjective conceited, arrogant, bumptious, full of oneself, puffed up, swollen-headed, pompous, overbearing, opinionated, cocky, presumptuous, sententious, vain, overweening, proud, egotistical; informal snooty, uppity, uppish.

– OPPOSITES humble.

self-indulgent adjective hedonistic, pleasure-seeking, sybaritic, indulgent, luxurious, lotus-eating, epicurean; intemperate, immoderate, overindulgent, excessive, extravagant, licentious, dissolute, decadent.

– OPPOSITES abstemious.

self-interest noun self-seeking, self-serving, self-obsession, self-absorption, self-regard, egocentrism, egotism, egomania, selfishness; informal looking after number one.

– OPPOSITES altruism.

self-interested adjective self-seeking, self-serving, self-obsessed, self-absorbed, wrapped up in oneself, egocentric, egotistic, egotistical, selfish.

selfish adjective egocentric, egotistic, egotistical, egomaniacal, self-centred, self-absorbed, self-obsessed, self-seeking, self-serving, wrapped up in oneself; inconsiderate, thoughtless, unthinking, uncaring, uncharitable; mean, miserly, grasping, greedy, mercenary, acquisitive, opportunistic; informal looking after number one.

– OPPOSITES altruistic.

selfless adjective unselfish, altruistic, self-sacrificing, self-denying; considerate, compassionate, kind, noble, generous, magnanimous, ungrudging, charitable, benevolent, open-handed.

– OPPOSITES inconsiderate.

self-possessed adjective assured, self-assured, calm, cool, composed, at ease, unperturbed, unruffled, confident, self-confident, poised, imperturbable; informal together, unfazed, unflappable.

– OPPOSITES unsure.

self-possession noun composure, assurance, self-assurance, self-control, imperturbability, impassivity, equanimity, nonchalance, confidence, self-confidence, poise, aplomb, presence of mind, nerve, sangfroid; informal cool.

self-reliant adjective self-sufficient, self-supporting, self-sustaining, able to stand on one's own two feet; independent, autarkic.

self-respect noun self-esteem, self-regard, amour propre, faith in oneself, pride, dignity, morale, self-confidence.

self-restraint noun self-control, restraint, self-discipline, self-possession, will power, moderation, temperance, abstemiousness, abstention.

– OPPOSITES self-indulgence.

self-righteous adjective sanctimonious, holier-than-thou, self-satisfied, smug, priggish, complacent, pious, moralizing, superior, hypocritical; informal goody-goody.

– OPPOSITES humble.

self-sacrifice noun self-denial, selflessness, unselfishness; self-discipline, asceticism, abnegation, self-deprivation, moderation, austerity, temperance, abstinence, abstention.

self-satisfied adjective complacent, self-congratulatory, smug, superior, puffed up, pleased with oneself; informal goody-goody, I'm-all-right-Jack; Brit. informal like the cat that's got the cream.

self-seeking adjective self-interested, self-serving, selfish; egocentric, egotistic, egotistical, self-obsessed, self-absorbed; inconsiderate, thoughtless, unthinking; informal looking after number one.

– OPPOSITES altruistic.

self-styled adjective would-be, so-called, self-appointed, self-titled, professed, self-confessed, soi-disant.

self-sufficient adjective self-supporting, self-reliant, self-sustaining, able to stand on one's own two feet; independent, autarkic.

self-willed adjective wilful, contrary, perverse, uncooperative, wayward, headstrong, stubborn, obstinate, obdurate, pig-headed, mulish, intransigent, recalcitrant, intractable; Brit. informal bloody-minded; formal refractory.

– OPPOSITES biddable.

sell verb 1 they are selling their house: put up for sale, offer for sale, put on sale, dispose of, vend, auction (off); trade, barter. 2 he sells cakes: trade in, deal in, traffic in, stock, carry, offer for sale, peddle, hawk, retail, market. 3 the book should sell well: go, be bought, be purchased; move, be in demand. 4 it sells for £79.95: cost, be priced at, retail at, go for, be. 5 he still has to sell the deal to Congress: promote; persuade someone to accept, talk someone into, bring someone round to, win someone over to, win approval for.

– OPPOSITES buy.

■ sell someone down the river (informal). See DOUBLE-CROSS.

■ sell out 1 we've sold out of petrol: have none left, be out of stock, have run out; informal be fresh out, be cleaned out. 2 the edition sold out quickly: be bought up, be depleted, be exhausted. 3 they say the band has sold out: abandon one's principles, prostitute oneself, sell one's soul, betray one's ideals, be untrue to oneself; debase oneself, degrade oneself, demean oneself.

■ sell someone out betray, inform on; be disloyal to, be unfaithful to, double-cross, break faith with, stab in the back; informal tell on, sell down the river, blow the whistle on, squeal on, stitch up, peach on, do the dirty on; Brit. informal grass on, shop; N. Amer. informal finger.

■ sell someone short undervalue, underrate, underestimate, disparage, deprecate, belittle; formal derogate.

seller noun vendor, retailer, purveyor, supplier, stockist, trader, merchant, dealer; shopkeeper, salesperson, salesman, saleswoman, sales assistant, shop assistant, travelling salesperson, pedlar, hawker; auctioneer; N. Amer. clerk; informal counter-jumper.

semblance noun (outward) appearance, air, show, facade, front, veneer, guise, pretence.

seminal adjective influential, formative, groundbreaking, pioneering, original, innovative; major, important.

seminar noun 1 a seminar for education officials: conference, symposium, meeting, convention, forum, summit, discussion, consultation. 2 teaching in the form of seminars: study group, workshop, tutorial, class, lesson.

seminary noun theological college, rabbinical college, Talmudical college; academy, training college, training institute, school.

send verb 1 they sent a message to HQ:

dispatch, post, mail, address, consign, direct, forward; transmit, convey, communicate; telephone, phone, broadcast, radio, fax, email; dated telegraph, wire, cable. 2 we sent for a doctor: call, summon, contact; ask for, request, order. 3 the pump sent out a jet of petrol: propel, project, eject, deliver, discharge, spout, fire, shoot, release; throw, let fly; informal chuck. 4 the barrels send off nasty fumes: emit, give off, discharge, exude, send out, release, leak. 5 it's enough to send one mad: make, drive, turn.

– OPPOSITES receive.

■ send someone down 1 (Brit.) she was sent down from Cambridge: expel, exclude; Brit. rusticate. 2 (informal) he was sent down for life: send to prison, imprison, jail, incarcerate, lock up, confine, detain, intern; informal put away; Brit. informal bang up.

■ send someone off (Sport) order off, dismiss; show someone the red card; informal red-card, send for an early bath, sin-bin.

■ send someone/something up (informal) satirize, ridicule, make fun of, parody, lampoon, mock, caricature, imitate, ape; informal take off, spoof, take the mickey out of.

send-off noun farewell, goodbye, adieu, leave-taking, valediction; funeral; old use vale.

– OPPOSITES welcome.

send-up noun (informal) satire, burlesque, lampoon, pastiche, caricature, imitation, impression, impersonation; mockery, mimicry, travesty; informal spoof, take-off, mickey-take.

senile adjective doddering, doddery, decrepit, senescent, declining, infirm, feeble; aged, long in the tooth, in one's dotage; informal past it, gaga.

senior adjective 1 senior school pupils: older, elder. 2 a senior officer: superior, higher-ranking, high-ranking, more important; top, chief; N. Amer. ranking. 3 Albert Stone Senior: the Elder; Brit. major; N. Amer. I, the First.

– OPPOSITES junior, subordinate.

senior citizen noun retired person, (old-age) pensioner, OAP; old person, elderly person, geriatric, dotard, Methuselah; N. Amer. senior, retiree, golden ager; informal old stager, old-timer, oldie, oldster, wrinkly, crumbly; Brit. informal buffer, josser.

seniority noun rank, superiority, standing, primacy, precedence, priority; age.

sensation noun 1 a sensation of light:

feeling, sense, awareness, consciousness, perception, impression. 2 I caused a sensation by donating £1m: commotion, stir, uproar, furor, scandal, impact; interest, excitement; informal splash, to-do, hullabaloo.

3 the new cars were a sensation: triumph, success, sell-out; talking point; informal smash (hit), hit, winner, crowd-puller, wow, knockout.

S

sensational adjective 1 a sensational murder trial: shocking, scandalous, appalling; amazing, startling, astonishing, staggering; stirring, exciting, thrilling, electrifying; fascinating, interesting, noteworthy, significant, remarkable, momentous, historic, newsworthy. 2 sensational stories: overdramatized, dramatic, melodramatic, exaggerated, sensationalist, sensationalistic; graphic, explicit, lurid; informal shock-horror, juicy. 3 (informal) she looked sensational: gorgeous, stunning, wonderful, exquisite, lovely, radiant, delightful, charming, enchanting, captivating; striking, spectacular, remarkable, outstanding, arresting, eye-catching; marvellous, superb, excellent, fine, first-class; informal great, terrific, tremendous, super, fantastic, fabulous, fab, heavenly, divine, knockout, delectable, scrumptious, awesome, magic, wicked, out of this world; Brit. informal smashing, brilliant, brill.

– OPPOSITES dull, understated, unremarkable.

sense noun 1 the sense of touch: sensory faculty, feeling, sensation, perception; sight, hearing, touch, taste, smell. 2 a sense of guilt: feeling, awareness, sensation, consciousness, recognition. 3 a sense of humour: appreciation, awareness, understanding, comprehension, discernment. 4 she had the sense to press the panic button: wisdom, common sense, sagacity, discernment, perception; wit, intelligence, cleverness, shrewdness, judgement, reason, logic, brain(s); informal gumption, nous, horse sense, savvy; Brit. informal loaf, common; N. Amer. informal smarts. 5 I can't see the sense in this: purpose, point, reason, object, motive; use, value, advantage, benefit. 6 the different senses of 'well': meaning, definition, import, signification, significance, purport, implication, nuance; drift, gist, thrust, tenor, message.

– OPPOSITES stupidity.

• verb she sensed their hostility: discern, feel, observe, notice, recognize, pick up, be aware of, distinguish, make out, identify; comprehend, apprehend, see, appreciate, realize; suspect, have a funny feeling about, have a hunch, divine, intuit; informal catch on to; Brit. informal twig.

senseless adjective 1 they found him senseless on the floor: unconscious, stunned, insensible, insensate, comatose, knocked out, out cold, out for the count; numb; informal KO'd, dead to the world; Brit. informal spark out. 2 a senseless waste: pointless, futile, useless, needless, unavailing, in vain, purposeless, meaningless, unprofitable; absurd, foolish, insane, stupid, idiotic, ridiculous, ludicrous, mindless, illogical.

– OPPOSITES conscious, wise.

sensibility noun 1 study leads to the growth of sensibility: sensitivity, finer feelings, delicacy, taste, discrimination, discernment; understanding, insight, empathy, appreciation; feeling, intuition, responsiveness, receptiveness, perceptiveness, awareness. 2 the wording might offend their sensibilities: (finer) feelings, emotions, sensitivities, moral sense.

sensible adjective practical, realistic, responsible, reasonable, commonsensical, rational, logical, sound, balanced, sober, no-nonsense, pragmatic, level-headed, thoughtful, down-to-earth, wise, prudent, judicious, sagacious, shrewd.

– OPPOSITES foolish.

sensitive adjective 1 she's sensitive to changes in temperature: responsive to, reactive to, sentient of, sensitized to; aware of, conscious of, alive to; susceptible to, affected by, vulnerable to; attuned to. 2 sensitive skin: delicate, fragile; tender, sore, raw.

3 the matter needs sensitive handling:

tactful, careful, thoughtful, diplomatic, delicate, subtle, kid-glove; sympathetic, compassionate, understanding, intuitive, responsive, insightful. 4 he's sensitive about his bald patch: touchy, oversensitive, hypersensitive, easily offended, easily upset, easily hurt, thin-skinned, defensive; paranoid, neurotic; informal twitchy, uptight. 5 a sensitive issue: difficult, delicate, tricky, awkward, problematic, ticklish; controversial, emotive; informal sticky.

– OPPOSITES impervious, resilient, clumsy, thick-skinned, uncontroversional.

sensitivity noun 1 the sensitivity of the skin: responsiveness, sensitiveness, reactivity; susceptibility, vulnerability. 2 the job calls for sensitivity: consideration, care, thoughtfulness, tact, diplomacy, delicacy, subtlety, finer feelings; understanding, empathy, sensibility, feeling, intuition, responsiveness, receptiveness; perception, discernment, insight; savoir faire. 3 her sensitivity on the subject of boyfriends: touchiness, oversensitivity, hypersensitivity, defensiveness. 4 the sensitivity of the issue: delicacy, trickiness, awkwardness, ticklishness.

sensual adjective 1 sensual pleasure: physical, carnal, bodily, fleshly, animal; hedonistic, epicurean, sybaritic, voluptuary. 2 a beautiful, sensual woman: sexually attractive, sexy, voluptuous, sultry, seductive, passionate; sexually arousing, erotic, sexual.

– OPPOSITES spiritual, passionless.

sensualist noun hedonist, pleasure-seeker, sybarite, voluptuary; epicure, gastronome; bon vivant, bon viveur.

sensuality noun sexiness, sexual attractiveness, sultriness, seductiveness; sexuality, eroticism; physicality, carnality.

sensuous adjective 1 big sensuous canvases: aesthetically pleasing, gratifying, rich, sumptuous, luxurious; sensory, sensorial.

2 sensuous lips: sexually attractive, sexy, seductive, voluptuous, luscious, lush.

sentence noun prison term, prison sentence; punishment; informal time, stretch, stint; Brit. informal porridge, bird.

•verb pass judgement on, punish, convict; condemn.

sententious adjective moralistic, moralizing, sanctimonious, self-righteous, pietistic, pious, priggish, judgemental; pompous, pontifical, self-important; informal preachifying, preachy; Brit. informal pi.

sentient adjective (capable of) feeling, living, live; conscious, aware, responsive, reactive.

sentiment noun 1 the comments echo my own sentiments: view, feeling, attitude, thought, opinion, belief. 2 there's no room for sentiment in sport: sentimentality, sentimentalism, mawkishness, emotionalism; emotion, sensibility, soft-heartedness, tender-heartedness; informal schmaltz, mush, slushiness, corniness, cheese; Brit. informal sopppiness; N. Amer. informal sappiness.

sentimental adjective 1 she kept the vase for sentimental reasons: nostalgic, tender, emotional, affectionate. 2 the film is too sentimental: mawkish, overemotional, cloying, slushy, mushy, sickly, saccharine, sugary; romantic, hearts-and-flowers, touching; Brit. twee; informal weepy, tear-jerking, schmaltzy, lovey-dovey, gooey, drippy, cheesy, corny; Brit. informal soppy; N. Amer. informal cornball, sappy, hokey. 3 she is sentimental about animals: soft-hearted, tender-hearted, soft; informal soppy.

– OPPOSITES practical, gritty.

sentry noun guard, sentinel, lookout, watch, watchman, patrol.

separable adjective divisible, distinct, independent, distinguishable; detachable, removable.

separate adjective 1 his personal life was separate from his job: unconnected, unrelated, different, distinct, discrete; detached, divorced, disconnected, independent, autonomous. 2 the infirmary was separate from the school: set apart, detached, disjoined; fenced off, cut off, segregated, isolated; free-standing, self-contained.

– OPPOSITES linked, attached.

•verb 1 they separated two rioting mobs: split (up), break up, part, pull apart, divide; literary sunder. 2 the connectors can be separated: disconnect, detach, disengage, uncouple, unyoke, disunite, disjoin; split, divide, sever; disentangle. 3 the wall that separated the two estates: partition, divide, come between, keep apart; bisect, intersect. 4 the south aisle was separated off: isolate, partition off, section off; close off, shut off, cordon off, fence off, screen off. 5 they separated at the airport: part (company), go their separate ways, split up; say goodbye; disperse, disband, scatter. 6 the road separated: fork, divide, branch, bifurcate, diverge. 7 her parents separated: split up, break up, part, be estranged, divorce. 8 separate fact from fiction: isolate, set apart, segregate; distinguish, differentiate, dissociate; sort out, sift out, filter out, remove, weed out.

9 those who separate themselves from society: break away from, break with, secede from, withdraw from, leave, quit, dissociate oneself from, resign from, drop out of, repudiate, reject.

– OPPOSITES unite, join, link, meet, merge, marry.

separately adverb individually, one by one, one at a time, singly, severally; apart, independently, alone, by oneself, on one's own.

separation noun 1 the separation of the two companies: disconnection, detachment, severance, dissociation, disunion, disaffiliation, segregation, partition. 2 her parents' separation: break-up, split, parting (of the ways), estrangement, rift, rupture, breach; divorce; Brit. informal bust-up. 3 the separation between art and life: distinction, difference, differentiation, division, dividing line; gulf, gap, chasm.

septic adjective infected, festering, suppurating, pus-filled, putrid, putrefying, poisoned, diseased; Medicine purulent.

sepulchral adjective gloomy, lugubrious, sombre, melancholy, melancholic, sad, sorrowful, mournful, doleful, dismal; literary dolorous.

– OPPOSITES cheerful.

sepulchre noun tomb, vault, burial chamber, mausoleum, crypt, undercroft, catacomb; grave.

sequel noun 1 the film inspired a sequel: follow-up, continuation. 2 the sequel was an armed uprising: consequence, result, upshot, outcome, development, issue, postscript; effect, after-effect, aftermath; informal pay-off.

sequence noun 1 the sequence of events: succession, order, course, series, chain, train, string, progression, chronology; pattern, flow; formal concatenation. 2 a sequence from his film: excerpt, clip, extract, episode, section, scene.

sequester verb 1 he sequestered himself from the world: isolate oneself, hide away, shut oneself away, seclude oneself, cut oneself off, segregate oneself; closet oneself, withdraw, retire. 2 the government sequestered his property. See SEQUESTRATE.

sequesterate verb confiscate, seize, take, sequester, appropriate, expropriate, impound, commandeer; Law distrain; Scottish Law poind.

seraphic adjective blissful, beatific, sublime, rapturous, ecstatic, joyful, rapt; serene, ethereal; cherubic, saintly, angelic.

serendipitous adjective chance, accidental, coincidental; lucky, fluky, fortuitous; unexpected, unforeseen.

serendipity noun (happy) chance, (happy) accident, fluke; luck, good luck, good fortune, fortuity, providence; happy coincidence.

serene adjective 1 on the surface she seemed serene: calm, composed, tranquil, peaceful, untroubled, relaxed, at ease, unperturbed, unruffled, unworried; placid, equable; N. Amer. centered; informal together, unflappable.

2 serene valleys: peaceful, tranquil, quiet, still, restful, relaxing, undisturbed.

– OPPOSITES agitated, turbulent.

series noun 1 a series of lectures: succession, sequence, string, chain, run, round; spate, wave, rash; set, course, cycle; row, line; formal concatenation. 2 a new drama series: serial, programme; soap opera; informal soap.

serious adjective 1 a serious expression: solemn, earnest, grave, sombre, sober, unsmiling, poker-faced, stern, grim, dour, humourless, stony-faced; thoughtful, preoccupied, pensive. 2 serious decisions: important, significant, consequential, momentous, weighty, far-reaching, major, grave; urgent, pressing, crucial, critical, vital, life-and-death, high-priority. 3 give serious consideration to this: careful, detailed, in-depth, deep, profound, meaningful. 4 a serious play: intellectual, highbrow, heavyweight, deep, profound, literary, learned, scholarly; informal heavy. 5 serious injuries: severe, grave, bad, critical, acute, terrible, dire, dangerous, perilous, parlous; formal grievous. 6 we're serious about equality: in earnest, earnest, sincere, wholehearted, genuine; committed, resolute, determined.

– OPPOSITES light-hearted, trivial, superficial, lowbrow, minor, half-hearted.

seriously adverb 1 Faye nodded seriously: solemnly, earnestly, gravely, soberly, sombrely, sternly, grimly, dourly, humourlessly; pensively, thoughtfully. 2 she was seriously injured: severely, gravely, badly, critically, acutely, dangerously; formal grievously. 3 do you seriously expect me to come? really, actually, honestly. 4 seriously, I'm very pleased: joking aside, to be serious, honestly, truthfully, truly, I mean it; informal Scout's honour; Brit. informal straight up. 5 (informal) he was seriously rich. See EXTREMELY.

sermon noun 1 he preached a sermon: homily, address, speech, talk, discourse, oration; lesson. 2 the headmaster gave them a lengthy sermon: lecture, tirade, harangue, diatribe; speech, disquisition, monologue; reprimand, reproach, reproof, admonishment, admonition, reproof, remonstrance, criticism; informal telling-off, talking-to, dressing-down, earful; Brit. informal ticking-off, row, rocket, rollicking; formal castigation.

serpentine adjective 1 a serpentine path: winding, windy, zigzag, twisty, twisting and turning, meandering, sinuous, snaky, tortuous. 2 serpentine election rules: complicated, complex, intricate, involved, tortuous, convoluted, elaborate, Byzantine, confusing, bewildering, baffling, impenetrable.

– OPPOSITES straight, simple.

serrated adjective jagged, sawtoothed, sawtooth, zigzag, notched, indented, toothed, denticulate, denticulated; Botany serrate; technical crenulated.

– OPPOSITES smooth.

serried adjective close together, packed together, close-set, dense, tight, compact.

servant noun 1 servants were cleaning the hall: attendant, retainer; domestic (worker), (hired) help, cleaner; lackey, flunkey, minion; maid, housemaid, footman, page (boy), valet, butler, batman, manservant; housekeeper, steward; drudge, menial, slave; Brit. informal Mrs Mop, daily (woman), skivvy, scout; Brit. dated charwoman, charlady, boots; old use abigail, scullion. 2 a servant of the Labour Party: helper, supporter, follower.

serve verb 1 they served their masters faithfully: work for, be in the service of, be employed by; obey. 2 this job serves the community: be of service to, be of use to, help, assist, aid, make a contribution to, do one's bit for, do something for, benefit. 3 she served on the committee for years: be a member of, work on, be on, sit on, have a place on. 4 he served his apprenticeship in Scotland: carry out, perform, do, fulfil, complete, discharge; spend. 5 serve the soup hot: dish up/out, give out, distribute; present, provide, supply; eat. 6 she served another customer: attend to, deal with, see to; assist, help, look after. 7 they served him with a writ: present, deliver, give, hand over. 8 a saucer serving as an ashtray: act as, function as, do the work of, be a substitute for. 9 official forms will serve in most cases: suffice, be adequate, be good enough, fit/fill the bill, do, answer, be useful, meet requirements, suit.

service noun 1 your conditions of service: work, employment, employ, labour. 2 he has done us a service: favour, kindness, good turn, helping hand; (services) assistance, help, aid, offices, ministrations. 3 he took his car in for a service: overhaul, maintenance check, servicing. 4 a marriage service: ceremony, ritual, rite, observance; liturgy, sacrament; formal ordinance. 5 a range of local services: amenity, facility, resource, utility. 6 soldiers leaving the services: (armed) forces, armed services, military; army, navy, air force.

• verb the appliances are serviced regularly:

overhaul, check, go over, maintain; repair, mend, recondition.

■ be of service help, assist, benefit, be of assistance, be beneficial, serve, be useful, be of use, be valuable; do someone a good turn.

■ out of service out of order, broken, broken-down, out of commission, unserviceable, faulty, defective, inoperative, in disrepair; down; informal conked out, bust, kaput, on the blink, acting up, shot; Brit. informal knackered.

serviceable adjective 1 a serviceable heating system: in working order, working, functioning, functional, operational, operative; usable, workable, viable.

2 serviceable lace-up shoes: functional, utilitarian, sensible, practical; hard-wearing, durable, tough, robust.

– OPPOSITES unusable, impractical.

servile adjective obsequious, sycophantic, deferential, subservient, fawning, ingratiating, unctuous, grovelling, toadyish, slavish, humble, self-abasing; informal slimy, bootlicking, smarmy, sucky; N. Amer. informal apple-polishing.

– OPPOSITES assertive.

serving noun portion, helping, plateful, plate, bowlful; amount, quantity, ration.

servitude noun slavery, enslavement, bondage, subjugation, subjection, domination; historical serfdom.

– OPPOSITES liberty.

session noun 1 a special session of the committee: meeting, sitting, assembly, conclave, plenary; hearing; conference, discussion, forum, symposium; Scottish sederunt, diet; N. Amer. & NZ caucus. 2 training sessions: period, time, spell, stretch, bout. 3 the next college session begins in August: academic year, school year; term, semester; N. Amer. trimester.

set<sup>1</sup> verb 1 Beth set the bag on the table: put (down), place, lay, deposit, position, settle, leave, stand, plant, posit; informal stick, dump, bung, park, plonk, pop; N. Amer. informal plunk. 2 the cottage is set on a hill: be situated, be located, lie, stand, be sited, be perched. 3 the fence is set in concrete: fix, embed, insert; mount. 4 a ring set with precious stones: adorn, ornament, decorate, embellish; literary bejewel. 5 I'll go and set the table: lay, prepare, arrange. 6 we set them some easy tasks: assign, allocate, give, allot, prescribe. 7 just set your mind to it: apply, address, direct, aim, turn, focus, concentrate. 8 they set a date for the election: decide on, select, choose, arrange, schedule; fix (on), settle on, determine, designate, name, appoint, specify, stipulate. 9 he set his horse towards her: direct, steer, orientate, point, aim, train. 10 his jump set a national record: establish, create, institute. 11 he set his watch: adjust, regulate, synchronize; calibrate; put right, correct; programme, activate, turn on. 12 the adhesive will set in an hour: solidify, harden, stiffen, thicken, gel, gelatinize; cake, congeal, coagulate, clot; freeze, crystallize. 13 the sun was setting: go down, sink, dip; vanish, disappear.

– OPPOSITES melt, rise.

■ set about 1 Mike set about raising £5000: begin, start, commence, go about, get to work on, get down to, embark on, tackle, address oneself to, undertake. 2 the youths set about him: attack, assail, assault, hit, strike, beat, thrash, pummel, wallop, tear into, set upon, fall on; informal lay into, lace into, put into, let someone have it, do over, work over, rough up, knock about/around; Brit. informal duff up, have a go at; N. Amer. informal beat up on.

■ set someone apart distinguish, differentiate, mark out, single out, separate, demarcate.

■ set something apart isolate, separate, segregate, put to one side.

■ set something aside 1 set aside some money each month: save, put by, put aside, put away, lay by, keep, reserve; store, stockpile, hoard, stow away, cache, withhold; informal salt away, squirrel away, stash away. 2 he set aside his cup: put down, cast aside, discard, abandon, dispense with. 3 set aside your differences: disregard, put aside, ignore, forget, discount, shrug off, bury. 4 the Appeal Court set aside the decision: overrule, overturn, reverse, revoke, countermand, nullify, annul, cancel, quash, dismiss, reject, repudiate; Law disaffirm; formal abrogate.

■ set someone/something back delay, hold up, hold back, slow down/up, retard, check, decelerate; hinder, impede, obstruct, hamper, inhibit, frustrate, thwart.

■ set something down 1 he set down his thoughts: write down, put in writing, jot down, note down, make a note of; record, register, log. 2 we set down a code of practice: formulate, draw up, establish, frame; lay down, determine, fix, stipulate, specify, prescribe, impose, ordain. 3 I set it down to the fact that he was drunk: attribute, put down, ascribe, assign, chalk up; blame on, impute.

■ set someone free release, free, let go, turn loose, let out, liberate, deliver, emancipate.

■ set in bad weather set in: begin, start, arrive, come, develop.

■ set off set out, start out, sally forth, leave, depart, embark, set sail; informal hit the road.

■ set something off 1 the bomb was set off: detonate, explode, blow up, touch off, trigger; ignite. 2 it set off a wave of protest: give rise to, cause, lead to, set in motion, occasion, bring about, initiate, precipitate, prompt, trigger (off), spark (off), touch off, provoke, incite. 3 the blue dress set off her auburn hair: enhance, bring out, emphasize, show off, throw into relief; complement.

■ set on/upon attack, assail, assault, hit, strike, beat, thrash, pummel, wallop, set about, fall on; informal lay into, lace into, let someone have it, get stuck into, work over, rough up, knock about/around; Brit. informal duff up, have a go at; N. Amer. informal beat up on, light into.

■ set one's heart on want desperately, wish for, desire, long for, yearn for, hanker after, ache for, hunger for, thirst for, burn for; informal be itching for, be dying for.

■ set out 1 he set out early. See SET OFF.

2 you've done what you set out to achieve: aim, intend, mean, seek; hope, aspire, want.

■ set something out 1 the gifts were set out on tables: arrange, lay out, put out, array, dispose, display, exhibit. 2 they set out some guidelines: present, set forth, detail; state, declare, announce; submit, put forward, advance, propose, propound.

■ set someone up 1 his father set him up in business: establish, finance, fund, back, subsidize. 2 (informal) she set him up for Newley's murder: falsely incriminate, frame, entrap; Brit. informal fit up.

■ set something up 1 a monument to her memory was set up: erect, put up, construct, build, raise, elevate. 2 she set up her own business: establish, start, begin, initiate, institute, found, create. 3 we set up a meeting: arrange, organize, fix (up), schedule, timetable, line up.

set<sup>2</sup> noun 1 a set of colour postcards: group, collection, series; assortment, selection, compendium, batch, number; arrangement, array. 2 the literary set: clique, coterie, circle, crowd, group, crew, band, company, ring, camp, fraternity, school, faction, league; informal gang, bunch. 3 a chemistry set: kit, apparatus, equipment, outfit. 4 a set of cutlery: canteen, box, case. 5 a set of china: service. 6 he's in the bottom set at school: class, form, group; stream, band. 7 the set of his shoulders: posture, position, cast, attitude; bearing, carriage. 8 a stage set: scenery, setting, backdrop, flats; mise en scène.

set<sup>3</sup> adjective 1 a set routine: fixed, established, predetermined, hard and fast, prearranged, prescribed, specified, defined; unvarying, unchanging, invariable, unvaried, rigid, inflexible, cast-iron, strict, settled, predictable; routine, standard, customary, regular, usual, habitual, accustomed; literary wanted. 2 she had set ideas: inflexible, rigid, fixed, firm, deep-rooted, deep-seated, ingrained, entrenched. 3 he had a set speech for such occasions: stock, standard, routine, rehearsed, well worn, formulaic, conventional. 4 I was all set for the evening: ready, prepared, organized, equipped, primed; informal geared up, psyched up. 5 he's set on marrying her: determined to, intent on, (hell) bent on, resolute about, insistent about. 6 you were dead set against the idea: opposed to, averse to, hostile to, resistant to, antipathetic to, unsympathetic to; informal anti.

– OPPOSITES variable, flexible, original, unprepared, uncertain.

setback noun problem, difficulty, hitch, complication, upset, disappointment, misfortune, mishap, reversal; blow, stumbling block, hindrance, impediment, obstruction; delay, hold-up; informal glitch, hiccup.

– OPPOSITES breakthrough.

settee noun sofa, couch, divan, chaise longue, chesterfield; Brit. put-you-up; N. Amer. davenport, day bed.

setting noun 1 a rural setting: surroundings, position, situation, environment, background, backdrop, milieu, environs, habitat; spot, place, location, locale, site, scene; area, region, district. 2 a garnet in a gold setting: mount, fixture, surround.

settle verb 1 they settled the dispute: resolve, sort out, solve, clear up, end, fix, work out, iron out, straighten out, set right, rectify, remedy, reconcile; informal patch up. 2 she settled their affairs: put in order, sort out, tidy up, arrange, organize, order, clear up. 3 they settled on a date for the wedding: decide on, set, fix, agree on, name, establish, arrange, appoint, designate, assign; choose, select, pick. 4 she went down to the lobby to settle her bill: pay, settle up, square, clear, defray. 5 they settled for a 4.2% pay rise:

accept, agree to, assent to; formal accede to.

6 he settled in London: make one's home, set up home, take up residence, put down roots, establish oneself; live, move to, emigrate to. 7 immigrants settled much of Australia: colonize, occupy, inhabit, people, populate. 8 Catherine settled down to her work: apply oneself to, get down to, set about, attack; concentrate on, focus on, devote oneself to. 9 the class wouldn't settle down: calm down, quieten down, be quiet, be still; informal shut up. 10 a brandy will settle your nerves: calm, quieten, quiet, soothe, pacify, quell; sedate, tranquilize. 11 he settled into an armchair: sit down, seat oneself, install oneself, ensconce oneself, plant oneself; informal park oneself, plonk oneself. 12 a butterfly settled on the flower: land, come to rest, alight, descend, perch; old use light. 13 sediment settles at the bottom: sink, subside, fall, gravitate.

– OPPOSITES agitate, rise.

settlement noun 1 a pay settlement: agreement, deal, arrangement, resolution, bargain, understanding, pact. 2 the settlement of the dispute: resolution, settling, solution, reconciliation. 3 a frontier settlement: community, colony, outpost, encampment, post; village, commune; historical plantation. 4 the settlement of the area: colonization, settling, populating; historical plantation. 5 the settlement of their debts: payment, discharge, defrayal, liquidation, clearance.

settler noun colonist, colonizer, frontiersman, frontierswoman, pioneer; immigrant, newcomer, incomer; N. Amer. historical homesteader.

– OPPOSITES native.

set-up noun 1 a telecommunications set-up: system, structure, organization, arrangement, framework, layout, configuration. 2 (informal) a set-up called Film International: organization, group, body, agency, association, operation; company, firm; informal outfit. 3 (informal) the whole thing was a set-up: trick, trap; conspiracy; informal put-up job, frame-up.

seven cardinal number septet, septuplets.

WORD LINKS

septuple consisting of seven parts heptagon a plane figure with seven sides heptahedron a solid figure with seven faces heptathlon a women's athletic event consisting of seven separate events heptad a group or set of seven sever verb 1 the head was severed from the body: cut off, chop off, detach, disconnect, dis sever, separate, part; amputate, dock; literary sunder. 2 a knife had severed the artery: cut (through), rupture, split, pierce. 3 they severed diplomatic relations: break off, discontinue, suspend, end, terminate, cease, dissolve.

– OPPOSITES join, maintain.

several adjective 1 several people: some, a number of, a few; various, assorted, sundry, diverse; literary divers. 2 they sorted out their several responsibilities: respective, individual, own, particular, specific; separate, different, disparate, distinct; various.

severe adjective 1 severe injuries: acute, very bad, serious, grave, critical, dreadful, terrible, awful; dangerous, parlous, life-threatening; formal grievous. 2 severe storms: fierce, violent, strong, powerful, intense; tempestuous, turbulent. 3 a severe winter: harsh, bitter, cold, bleak, freezing, icy, arctic, extreme. 4 a severe headache: excruciating, agonizing, intense, dreadful, awful, terrible, unbearable, intolerable; informal splitting, pounding. 5 a severe test of their stamina: difficult, demanding, tough, arduous, formidable, exacting, rigorous, punishing, onerous, gruelling. 6 severe criticism: harsh, scathing, sharp, strong, fierce, savage, scorching, devastating, trenchant, caustic, biting, withering. 7 severe tax penalties: extortionate, excessive, unreasonable, inordinate, outrageous, sky-high, harsh, stiff; punitive; Brit. swingeing. 8 they received severe treatment: harsh, stern, hard, inflexible, uncompromising, unrelenting, merciless, pitiless, ruthless, draconian, oppressive, repressive, punitive; brutal, cruel, savage. 9 his severe expression: stern, dour, grim, forbidding, disapproving, unsmiling, unfriendly, sombre, grave, serious, stony, steely; cold, frosty. 10 a severe style of architecture: plain, simple, austere, unadorned, unembellished, unornamented, stark, spartan, ascetic; clinical, uncluttered. – OPPOSITES minor, gentle, mild, easy, lenient, friendly, ornate.

severely adjective 1 he was severely injured: badly, seriously, critically; fatally; formal grievously. 2 she was severely criticized: sharply, roundly, soundly, fiercely, savagely. 3 murderers should be treated more severely: harshly, strictly, sternly, rigorously, mercilessly, pitilessly, roughly, sharply; with a rod of iron; brutally, cruelly, savagely. 4 she looked severely at Harriet: sternly, grimly, dourly, disapprovingly; coldly, frostily. 5 she dressed severely in black: plainly, simply, austere, starkly.

S

sew verb she sewed the seams of the tunic: stitch, tack, baste, seam, hem; embroider. ■ sew something up 1 the tear was sewn up: darn, mend, repair, patch. 2 (informal) the company sewed up a deal with IBM: secure, clinch, pull off, bring off, settle, conclude, complete, finalize, tie up; informal swing.

sewing noun stitching, needlework, needlecraft, fancy-work.

sex noun 1 they talked about sex: sexual intercourse, intercourse, lovemaking, making love, sex act, (sexual) relations; mating, copulation; informal nooky; Brit. informal rumpy pumpy, how's your father; formal fornication; technical coitus, coition; dated carnal knowledge. 2 teach your children about sex: the facts of life, reproduction; informal the birds and the bees. 3 adults of both sexes: gender.

■ have sex have sexual intercourse, make love, sleep with, go to bed; mate, copulate; seduce, rape; informal do it, go all the way, know in the biblical sense; Brit. informal bonk; N. Amer. informal get it on; euphemistic be intimate; literary ravish; formal fornicate.

sex appeal noun sexiness, seductiveness, sexual attractiveness, desirability, sensuality, sexuality; informal it, SA.

sexism noun sexual discrimination, chauvinism, prejudice, bias.

sexless adjective asexual, non-sexual, neuter; androgynous, epicene.

sexual adjective 1 the sexual organs: reproductive, genital, sex, procreative.

2 sexual activity: carnal, erotic; formal venereal; technical coital.

sexual intercourse noun. See SEX sense 1.

sexuality noun 1 she had a powerful sexuality: sexuality, sexiness, desirability, seductiveness, eroticism, physicality; sexual appetite, passion, desire, lust.

2 I'm open about my sexuality: sexual orientation, sexual preference, leaning, persuasion; heterosexuality, homosexuality, lesbianism, bisexuality. 3 sexuality within holy matrimony: sexual activity, sexual relations, sexual intercourse, sex, procreation.

sexy adjective 1 she's so sexy: sexually attractive, seductive, desirable, alluring, sensual, sultry, slinky, provocative, tempting, tantalizing; nubile, voluptuous, luscious, lush; informal fanciable, beddable; Brit. informal fit; N. Amer. informal foxy, cute; Austral. informal spunky. 2 sexy videos: erotic, sexually explicit, arousing, exciting, stimulating, hot, titillating, racy, naughty, risqué, adult, X-rated; rude, pornographic, crude, lewd; informal raunchy, steamy, porno, blue, skin.

3 they weren't feeling sexy: (sexually) aroused, sexually excited, amorous, lustful, passionate; informal horny, hot, turned on, sexed up; Brit. informal randy. 4 (informal) a sexy sales promotion: exciting, stimulating, interesting, appealing, intriguing.

shabby adjective 1 a shabby little bar: run down, down at heel, scruffy, dilapidated, ramshackle, tumbledown; seedy, slummy, insalubrious, squalid, sordid; informal crummy, scuzzy, shambly; Brit. informal grotty; N. Amer. informal shacky. 2 a shabby grey coat: scruffy, old, worn out, threadbare, ragged, frayed, tattered, battered, faded, moth-eaten, mangy; informal tatty, ratty, the worse for wear; N. Amer. informal raggedy. 3 her shabby treatment of Ben: contemptible, despicable, dishonourable, discreditable, mean, low, dirty, hateful, shameful, sorry, ignoble, unfair, unworthy, unkind, shoddy, nasty; informal rotten, low-down; Brit. informal beastly. – OPPOSITES smart, honourable.

shack noun hut, shanty, cabin, lean-to, shed; hovel; Scottish bothy, shieling.

■ shack up with (informal) cohabit, live with; informal, dated live in sin.

shackle verb 1 he was shackled to the wall: chain, fetter, manacle; secure, tie (up), bind, tether, hobble; put in chains, clap in irons, handcuff. 2 journalists were shackled by a new law: restrain, restrict, limit, constrain, handicap, hamstring, hamper, hinder, impede, obstruct, inhibit, check, curb.

shackles plural noun 1 the men filed through their shackles: chains, fetters, irons, leg irons, manacles, handcuffs; bonds; informal cuffs, bracelets. 2 the shackles of bureaucracy: restrictions, restraints, constraints, impediments, hindrances, obstacles, barriers, obstructions, checks, curbs; literary trammels.

shade noun 1 they sat in the shade: shadow(s), shading(s), shelter, cover; cool. 2 shades of blue: colour, hue, tone, tint, tinge. 3 shades of meaning: nuance, gradation, degree, difference, variation, variety; nicety, subtlety; undertone, overtone. 4 her skirt was a shade too short: a little, a bit, a trace, a touch, a modicum, a tinge; slightly, rather, somewhat; informal a tad, a smidgen. 5 the window shade: blind, curtain, screen, cover, covering; awning, canopy. 6 (informal) he was wearing shades: sunglasses, dark glasses; Austral. informal sunnies.

– OPPOSITES light.

• verb 1 vines shaded the garden: cast a shadow over, shadow, shelter, cover, screen; darken. 2 she shaded in the picture: darken, colour in, pencil in, block in, fill in; cross-hatch. 3 the sky shaded from turquoise to blue: change, transmute, turn, go; merge, blend.

■ put someone/something in the shade surpass, outshine, outclass, overshadow, eclipse, transcend, cap, top, outstrip, outdo, put to shame, beat, outperform, upstage; informal run rings around, be a cut above, leave standing.

■ shades of echoes of, a reminder of, memories of, suggestions of, hints of.

shadow noun 1 he saw her shadow in the doorway: silhouette, outline, shape, contour, profile. 2 he emerged from the shadows: shade, darkness, twilight; gloom, murkiness; old use umbrage. 3 the shadow of war: (black) cloud, pall; gloom, blight; threat. 4 she knew without any shadow of doubt: trace, scrap, shred, crumb, iota, scintilla, jot, whit, grain; informal smidgen, smidge, tad. 5 a shadow of a smile: trace, hint, suggestion, suspicion, ghost, glimmer. 6 he's a shadow of his former self: inferior version, poor imitation, apology, travesty; remnant. 7 the dog became her shadow: constant companion, alter ego, second self; close friend, bosom friend, fidus Achates; informal Siamese twin.

• verb 1 the market is shadowed by the church: overshadow, shade; darken, dim. 2 he is shadowing a poacher: follow, trail, track, stalk, pursue, hunt; informal tail, keep tabs on.

shadowy adjective 1 a shadowy corridor: dark, dim, gloomy, murky, crepuscular, shady, shaded; literary tenebrous. 2 a shadowy figure: indistinct, hazy, indefinite, vague, nebulous, ill-defined, faint, blurred, blurry, unclear, indistinguishable, unrecognizable;

ghostly, spectral, wraithlike.

– OPPOSITES bright, clear.

shady adjective 1 a shady garden: shaded, shadowy, dim, dark; sheltered, screened, shrouded; leafy; literary bosky, tenebrous. 2 (informal) shady deals: suspicious, suspect, questionable, dubious, doubtful, disreputable, untrustworthy, dishonest, dishonourable, devious, underhand, unscrupulous, irregular, unethical; N. Amer. snide; informal fishy, murky; Brit. informal dodgy; Austral./NZ informal shonky.

– OPPOSITES bright, honest.

shaft noun 1 the shaft of a golf club: pole, shank, stick, rod, staff; handle, hilt, stem. 2 the shaft of a feather: quill; Ornithology rachis. 3 shafts of sunlight: ray, beam, gleam, streak, finger. 4 he directs his shafts against her: cutting remark, barb, jibe, taunt; informal dig. 5 a ventilation shaft: mineshaft, tunnel, passage, pit, adit, downcast, upcast; borehole, bore; duct, well, flue, vent.

shaggy adjective hairy, bushy, thick, woolly; tangled, tousled, unkempt, dishevelled, untidy, matted; formal hirsute.

– OPPOSITES sleek.

shake verb 1 the whole building shook: vibrate, tremble, quiver, quake, shiver, shudder, judder, jiggle, wobble, rock, sway; convulse. 2 she shook the bottle: jiggle, joggle, agitate; informal waggle. 3 he shook his stick at them: brandish, wave, flourish, swing, wield; informal waggle. 4 the look in his eyes really shook her: upset, distress, disturb, unsettle, disconcert, discompose, disquiet, unnerve, trouble, throw off balance, agitate, fluster; shock, alarm, frighten, scare, worry; informal rattle. 5 this will shake their confidence: weaken, undermine, damage, impair, harm; reduce, diminish, decrease.

– OPPOSITES soothe, strengthen.

• noun 1 he gave his coat a shake: jiggle, joggle; informal waggle. 2 a shake of his fist: flourish, brandish, wave. 3 it gives me the shakes: tremors, delirium tremens; informal DTs, jitters, willies, heebie-jeebies, yips; Austral. informal Joe Blakes.

■ no great shakes (informal) not very good, unexceptional, unmemorable, forgettable, uninspired, uninteresting, indifferent, unimpressive, lacklustre; informal nothing to write home about, nothing special, not up to much.

■ shake someone off get away from, escape, elude, dodge, lose, leave behind, get rid of, give someone the slip, throw off the scent; Brit. informal get shot of.

■ shake something off recover from, get over; get rid of, free oneself from; Brit. informal get shot of; N. Amer. informal shuck off.

■ shake someone/something up 1 the accident shook him up. See SHAKE verb sense 4. 2 plans to shake up the legal profession: reorganize, restructure, revolutionize, alter, change, transform, reform, overhaul.

shake-up noun (informal) reorganization, restructuring, reshuffle, change, overhaul, makeover; upheaval; N. Amer. informal shakedown.

shaky adjective 1 shaky legs: trembling, shaking, tremulous, quivering, quivery, unsteady, wobbly, weak; tottering, tottery, teetering, dodder; informal trembly. 2 I feel a bit shaky: faint, dizzy, light-headed, giddy; weak, wobbly, quivery, groggy, muzzy; informal trembly, woozy. 3 a shaky table: unsteady, unstable, wobbly, precarious, rocky, rickety, ramshackle; Brit. informal wonky. 4 the evidence is shaky: unreliable, untrustworthy, questionable, dubious, doubtful, tenuous, suspect, flimsy, weak, unsound, unsupported, unsubstantiated, unfounded; informal iffy; Brit. informal doggy.

– OPPOSITES steady, stable, sound.

shallow adjective superficial, facile, simplistic, oversimplified; flimsy, insubstantial, lightweight, empty, trivial, trifling; surface, skin-deep; frivolous, foolish, silly.

– OPPOSITES profound.

sham noun 1 his tenderness had been a sham: pretence, fake, act, fiction, simulation, fraud, feint, lie, counterfeit; humbug. 2 the doctor was a sham: charlatan, fake, fraud, impostor, pretender; quack, mountebank; informal phoney.

• adjective sham togetherness: fake, pretended, feigned, simulated, false, faux, artificial, bogus, insincere, contrived, affected, make-believe, fictitious; imitation, mock, counterfeit, fraudulent; informal pretend, put-on, phoney, pseudo; Brit. informal cod.

– OPPOSITES genuine.

• verb 1 she shams indifference: feign, fake, pretend, put on, simulate, affect. 2 was he ill or just shamming? pretend, fake, dissemble; malingering; informal put it on; Brit. informal swing the lead.

shaman noun witch doctor, medicine man/ woman, healer, kahuna.

shamble verb shuffle, drag one's feet, lumber, totter, dodder; hobble, limp.

shambles plural noun 1 we have to sort out this shambles: chaos, mess, muddle, confusion, disorder, havoc, mare's nest; Brit. informal dog's dinner/breakfast. 2 the room was a shambles: mess, pigsty; informal disaster area; Brit. informal tip.

shambolic adjective (Brit. informal). See CHAOTIC.

shame noun 1 her face was scarlet with shame: humiliation, mortification, chagrin, ignominy, embarrassment, indignity, abashment, discomfort. 2 I felt shame at telling a lie: guilt, remorse, contrition, compunction. 3 he brought shame on the family: disgrace, dishonour, discredit, degradation, ignominy, disrepute, infamy, scandal, opprobrium, contempt; dated disesteem. 4 it's a shame she never married: pity, misfortune, sad thing; bad luck; informal bummer, crime, sin.

– OPPOSITES pride, honour.

• verb 1 you shamed your family's name: disgrace, dishonour, discredit, degrade, debase; stigmatize, taint, sully, tarnish, besmirch, blacken, drag through the mud.

2 he was shamed in public: humiliate, mortify, chagrin, embarrass, abash, chasten, humble, take down a peg or two, cut down to size; informal show up; N. Amer. informal make someone eat crow.

– OPPOSITES honour.

■ put someone/something to shame outshine, outclass, eclipse, surpass, excel, outstrip, outdo, put in the shade, upstage; informal run rings around, leave standing; Brit. informal knock spots off.

shamefaced adjective ashamed, abashed, sheepish, guilty, conscience-stricken, guilt-ridden, contrite, sorry, remorseful, repentant, penitent, regretful, rueful, apologetic; embarrassed, mortified, red-faced, chagrined, humiliated; informal with one's tail between one's legs.

– OPPOSITES unrepentant.

shameful adjective 1 shameful behaviour: disgraceful, deplorable, despicable, contemptible, dishonourable, discreditable, reprehensible, low, unworthy, ignoble, shabby; shocking, scandalous, outrageous, abominable, atrocious, appalling, vile, odious, heinous, egregious, loathsome, bad; inexcusable, unforgivable; informal low-down, hateful. 2 a shameful secret: embarrassing, mortifying, humiliating, degrading, ignominious.

– OPPOSITES admirable.

shameless adjective flagrant, blatant, barefaced, overt, brazen, brash, audacious, outrageous, undisguised, unconcealed, transparent; immodest, indecorous; unabashed, unashamed, unblushing, unrepentant.

– OPPOSITES modest.

shanty noun shack, hut, cabin, lean-to, shed; hovel; Scottish bothy, shieling.

shape noun 1 the shape of the dining table: form, appearance, configuration, formation, structure; figure, build, physique, body; contours, lines, outline, silhouette, profile. 2 a spirit in the shape of a fox: guise, likeness, semblance, form, appearance, image. 3 you're in pretty good shape: condition, health, trim, fettle, order; Brit. informal nick.

• verb 1 the metal is shaped into tools: form, fashion, make, mould, model, cast; sculpt, sculpture, carve, cut, whittle. 2 attitudes were shaped by his report: determine, form, fashion, mould, define, develop; influence, affect.

■ shape up 1 her work is shaping up nicely: improve, get better, progress, show promise; develop, take shape, come on, come along.

2 a regime to help you shape up: get fit, get into shape, tone up; slim, lose weight.

■ take shape become clear, become definite, become tangible, crystallize, come together, fall into place.

shapeless adjective 1 shapeless lumps: formless, amorphous, unformed, indefinite. 2 a shapeless dress: baggy, saggy, ill-fitting, sack-like, oversized, unshapely, formless.

shapely adjective well proportioned, clean-limbed, curvaceous, voluptuous, full-figured, Junoesque; attractive, sexy; informal curvy; old use comely.

shard noun her share of the profits: portion, part, division, quota, quantum, allowance, ration, allocation, measure, due; percentage, commission, dividend; helping, serving; informal cut, slice, rake-off; Brit. informal whack, divvy.

• verb 1 we share the bills: split, divide, go halves on; informal go fifty-fifty, go Dutch. 2 they shared out the peanuts: apportion, divide up, allocate, portion out, ration out, parcel out, measure out; carve up; Brit. informal divvy up. 3 we all share in the learning process: participate in, take part in, play a part in, be involved in, contribute to, have a hand in, partake in.

sharp adjective 1 a sharp knife: keen, razor-edged; sharpened, honed. 2 a sharp pain: excruciating, agonizing, intense, stabbing, shooting, severe, acute, keen, fierce, searing; exquisite. 3 a sharp taste: tangy, piquant, strong; acidic, acid, sour, tart, pungent, acrid, bitter, acidulous. 4 a sharp cry of pain: loud, piercing, shrill, high-pitched, penetrating, harsh, strident, ear-splitting, deafening. 5 a sharp wind: cold, chilly, chill, brisk, keen, penetrating, biting, icy, bitter, freezing, raw; informal nippy; Brit. informal parky. 6 sharp words: harsh, bitter, cutting, scathing, caustic, barbed, trenchant, acrimonious, acerbic, sarcastic, sardonic, spiteful, venomous, malicious, vitriolic, vicious, hurtful, nasty, cruel, abrasive; informal bitchy, catty. 7 a sharp sense of loss: intense, acute, keen, strong, bitter, fierce, heartfelt, overwhelming. 8 her nose is sharp: pointed, tapering, tapered; spiky; informal pointy. 9 the lens brings it into sharp focus: distinct, clear, crisp; stark, obvious, marked, definite, pronounced. 10 a sharp increase: sudden, abrupt, rapid; steep, precipitous. 11 a sharp corner: hairpin, tight. 12 a sharp drop: steep, sheer, abrupt, precipitous, vertical. 13 sharp eyes: keen, perceptive, observant, acute, beady, hawklike. 14 she was sharp and witty: perceptive, percipient, perspicacious, incisive, sensitive, keen, acute, quick-witted, clever, shrewd, canny, astute, intelligent, intuitive, bright, alert, smart, quick off the mark, insightful, knowing; informal on the ball, quick on the uptake, savvy; Brit. informal suss; Scottish & N. English informal pawky; N. Amer. informal heads-up. 15 (informal) a sharp suit: smart, stylish, fashionable, chic, modish, elegant; informal trendy, cool, snazzy, classy, flash, snappy, natty, nifty; N. Amer. informal fly, spiffy.

– OPPOSITES blunt, mild, sweet, soft, kind, rounded, indistinct, gradual, slow, weak, stupid, naive, untidy.

• adverb 1 nine o'clock sharp: precisely, exactly, on the dot; promptly, prompt, punctually, dead on; informal on the nose; N. Amer. informal on the button. 2 the recession pulled people up sharp: abruptly, suddenly, sharply, unexpectedly.

– OPPOSITES roughly.

sharpen verb 1 sharpen the carving knife: hone, whet, strop, grind, file. 2 the players are sharpening up their skills: improve, brush up, polish up, better, enhance; hone, fine-tune, perfect.

sharp-eyed adjective observant, perceptive, eagle-eyed, hawk-eyed, keen-eyed, gimlet-eyed; watchful, vigilant, alert, on the lookout; informal beady-eyed.

shatter verb 1 the glasses shattered: smash, break, splinter, crack, fracture, fragment, disintegrate; informal bust. 2 the announcement shattered their hopes: destroy, wreck, ruin, dash, crush, devastate, demolish, torpedo, scotch; informal put the kibosh on, banjax, do for, put paid to; Brit. informal scupper. 3 we were shattered by the news: devastate, shock, stun, daze, traumatize, crush, distress; informal knock sideways; Brit. informal knock for six.

shattered adjective 1 he was shattered by the reviews: devastated, shocked, stunned, dazed, traumatized, crushed; heartbroken. 2 (informal) I feel too shattered to move. See EXHAUSTED sense 1.

– OPPOSITES thrilled.

shave verb 1 he shaved his beard: cut off, snip off; crop, trim, barber. 2 shave off excess wood: plane, pare, whittle, scrape. 3 shave parmesan over the top: grate, shred. 4 he shaved the MP's majority to 2,000: reduce, cut, lessen, decrease, pare down, shrink, slim down. 5 his shot shaved the post: graze, brush, touch, glance off, kiss.

sheaf noun bundle, bunch, stack, pile, heap, mass; Brit. informal wedge.

sheath noun 1 put the sword in its sheath: scabbard, case. 2 the wire has a plastic sheath: covering, cover, case, casing, envelope, sleeve, wrapper, capsule. 3 a contraceptive sheath. See CONDOM.

shed<sup>1</sup> noun the rabbit lives in the shed: hut, lean-to, outhouse, outbuilding; shack; potting shed, woodshed; Brit. lock-up.

shed<sup>2</sup> verb 1 the trees shed their leaves: drop, scatter, spill. 2 the caterpillar shed its skin: slough off, cast off, moult; technical exuviate. 3 we shed our jackets: take off, remove, shrug off, discard, doff, climb out of, slip out of, divest oneself of; Brit. informal peel off. 4 much blood has been shed: spill, discharge. 5 the firm is to shed ten workers: make redundant, dismiss, let go, discharge, get rid of, discard; informal sack, fire. 6 they must shed their illusions: discard, get rid of, dispose of, do away with, drop, abandon, jettison, scrap, cast aside, dump, reject, repudiate; informal ditch, junk, get shut of; Brit. informal get shot of. 7 the moon shed a watery light: cast, radiate, diffuse, disperse, give out.

– OPPOSITES don, hire, keep.

■ shed tears weep, cry, sob; lament, grieve, mourn; Scottish greet; informal blub, blubber, boohoo.

sheen noun shine, lustre, gloss, patina, shininess, burnish, polish, shimmer, brilliance, radiance.

sheep noun ram, ewe, lamb, wether, tup; Austral. informal jumbuck, woolly.

WORD LINKS

ovine relating to sheep bellwether the leading sheep of a flock shearling a sheep that has been shorn once shepherd a person who looks after sheep lanolin a fatty substance found on sheep's fleeces, used to make ointments mutton the flesh of mature sheep used as food scrapie a disease of sheep which affects the central nervous system sheepish adjective embarrassed, uncomfortable, hangdog, self-conscious; shamefaced, ashamed, abashed, mortified, chastened, remorseful, contrite, apologetic, rueful, regretful, penitent, repentant.

sheer<sup>1</sup> adjective 1 the sheer audacity of the plan: utter, complete, absolute, total, pure, downright, out-and-out, arrant, thorough, thoroughgoing, patent, veritable, unmitigated, plain; Austral./NZ informal fair. 2 a sheer drop: precipitous, steep, vertical, perpendicular, abrupt, bluff, sharp. 3 a sheer dress: diaphanous, gauzy, filmy, floaty, gossamer, thin, translucent, transparent, see-through, insubstantial.

– OPPOSITES gradual, thick.

sheer<sup>2</sup> verb 1 the boat sheered off along the coast: swerve, veer, slew, skew, swing, change course. 2 her mind sheered away from his image: turn away, flinch, recoil, shy away; avoid.

sheet noun 1 she changed the sheets: bedlinen, linen, bedclothes. 2 a sheet of ice: layer, stratum, covering, blanket, coating, coat, film, skin. 3 a sheet of glass: pane, panel, piece, plate; slab. 4 she put a fresh sheet in the typewriter: piece of paper, leaf, page, folio. 5 a sheet of water: expanse, area, stretch, sweep.

shelf noun 1 the plant on the shelf: ledge, sill, bracket, rack; mantelpiece; shelving. 2 the waters above the shelf: sandbank, sandbar, bank, bar, reef, shoal.

■ on the shelf unmarried, single, unattached; lonely, unloved, neglected.

shell noun 1 a crab shell: carapace, exterior; armour; Zoology exoskeleton. 2 peanut shells: pod, husk, hull, casing, case, covering, integument; N. Amer. shuck. 3 shells passing overhead: projectile, bomb, explosive; grenade; bullet, cartridge. 4 the metal shell of the car: framework, frame, chassis, skeleton; hull, exterior.

● verb 1 they were shelling peas: hull, pod, husk; N. Amer. shuck. 2 rebel artillery shelled the city: bombard, fire on, shoot at, attack, bomb, blitz, strafe.

WORD LINKS

crustacean an animal with a hard outer shell mollusc an animal with a soft body, often with an external shell bivalve a mollusc with a hinged shell, such as an oyster or mussel conchology the scientific study of shells scrimshaw decorative work consisting of shells with carved designs shellfish noun crustacean, bivalve, mollusc.

shelter noun 1 the trees provide shelter for animals: protection, cover, screening, shade; safety, security, refuge, sanctuary, asylum.

2 a shelter for abandoned cats: sanctuary, refuge, home, haven, safe house; harbour, port in a storm.

– OPPOSITES exposure.

● verb 1 the hut sheltered him from the wind: protect, shield, screen, cover, shade, save, safeguard, preserve, defend, cushion, guard, insulate. 2 the anchorage where the convoy sheltered: take shelter, take refuge, seek sanctuary, take cover; informal hole up.

– OPPOSITES expose.

sheltered adjective 1 a sheltered stretch of water: protected, screened, shielded, covered; shady; cosy. 2 she led a sheltered life: secluded, cloistered, isolated, protected, withdrawn, sequestered, reclusive; secure, privileged, safe, quiet.

shelve verb postpone, put off, delay, defer, put back, reschedule, hold over/off, put to one side, suspend, stay, keep in abeyance, mothball; abandon, drop, give up, stop, cancel, jettison, axe; N. Amer. put over, table; informal put on ice, put on the back burner, ditch, dump, junk.

shepherd noun he worked as a shepherd: shepherdess, herdsman, herder, sheepman.

● verb we shepherded them away: usher, steer, herd, lead, take, escort, guide, conduct, marshal, walk; show, see, chaperone.

shield noun 1 he used his shield to fend off blows: Heraldry escutcheon; historical buckler, target; old use targe. 2 a shield against dirt: protection, guard, defence, cover, screen, security, shelter, safeguard, protector.

● verb he shielded his eyes: protect, cover, screen, shade; save, safeguard, preserve, defend, secure, guard; cushion, insulate.

– OPPOSITES expose.

shift verb 1 he shifted some chairs: move, carry, transfer, transport, convey, lug, haul, fetch, switch, relocate, reposition, rearrange; informal cart. 2 she shifted her position: change, alter, adjust, vary; modify, revise, reverse, retract; do a U-turn. 3 the cargo has shifted: move, slide, slip, be displaced. 4 the wind shifted: veer, alter, change, turn, swing round. 5 (Brit.) this brush really shifts the dirt: get rid of, remove, get off, budge, lift, expunge.

– OPPOSITES keep.

● noun 1 the southward shift of people: movement, move, transference, transport, transposition, relocation. 2 a shift in public opinion: change, alteration, adjustment, amendment, variation, modification, revision, reversal, retraction, U-turn; Brit. about-turn. 3 they worked three shifts: stint, stretch, spell of work. 4 the night shift went home: workers, crew, gang, team, squad, patrol. 5 (old use) dubious shifts to make money: stratagem, scheme, subterfuge, expedient, dodge, trick, ruse, wile, strategy, device, plan.

■ shift for oneself cope, manage, survive, make it, fend for oneself, take care of oneself, make do, get by/along, scrape by/along, muddle through; stand on one's own two feet; informal make out.

shiftless adjective lazy, idle, indolent, slothful, lethargic, lackadaisical; spiritless, apathetic, feckless, good-for-nothing, worthless; unambitious, unenterprising.

shifty adjective (informal) devious, evasive, slippery, duplicitous, false, deceitful, underhand, untrustworthy, dishonest, shady, wily, crafty, tricky, sneaky, sly, treacherous, artful, scheming; N. Amer. snide; Brit. informal dodgy; Austral./NZ informal shonky.

— OPPOSITES honest.

shilly-shally verb dither, be indecisive, be irresolute, vacillate, waver, hesitate, blow hot and cold, falter, drag one's feet; Brit. haver, hum and haw; Scottish swither; informal dilly-dally.

shimmer verb the lake shimmered: glint, glisten, twinkle, sparkle, flash, scintillate, gleam, glow, glimmer, glitter, wink; literary coruscate.

• noun the shimmer of lights from the traffic: glint, twinkle, sparkle, flash, gleam, glow, glimmer, lustre, glitter; literary coruscation.

shin verb climb, clamber, scramble, swarm, shoot, go; mount, ascend, scale; descend; N. Amer. skinny.

shine verb 1 the sun shone: emit light, beam, radiate, gleam, glow, glint, glimmer, sparkle, twinkle, glitter, glisten, shimmer, flash, flare, glare, fluoresce, luminesce; literary glister, coruscate. 2 she shone his shoes: polish, burnish, buff, wax, gloss, rub up. 3 they shone at university: excel, be outstanding, be brilliant, be successful, stand out.

• noun 1 the shine of the moon on her face: light, brightness, gleam, glow, glint, glimmer, sparkle, twinkle, glitter, glisten, shimmer, beam, glare, radiance, illumination, luminescence, luminosity, incandescence. 2 linseed oil restores the shine: polish, burnish, gleam, gloss, lustre, sheen, patina.

shining adjective 1 a shining expanse of water: gleaming, bright, brilliant, illuminated, lustrous, glowing, glinting, sparkling, twinkling, glittering, glistening, shimmering, dazzling, luminous, luminescent, incandescent; literary glistering, coruscating. 2 a shining face: glowing, beaming, radiant, happy. 3 shining chrome tubes: shiny, bright, polished, gleaming, glossy, glassy, sheeny, lustrous.

shiny adjective glossy, glassy, bright, polished, gleaming, satiny, sheeny, lustrous.

— OPPOSITES matt.

ship noun boat, vessel, craft.

WORD LINKS

marine, maritime, nautical, naval relating to ships or sailing fleet, flotilla a group of ships sailing together port the left-hand side of a ship, when one is facing forward starboard the right-hand side of a ship, when one is facing forward chandler a dealer in supplies and equipment for ships stevedore a person employed to load and unload ships dock, quay, wharf a place where ships may moor, load, and unload bill of lading a full list of a ship's cargo manifest a full list of a ship's contents, cargo, crew, and passengers scupper, scuttle sink a ship deliberately shirk verb 1 she didn't shirk any task: evade, dodge, avoid, get out of, sidestep, shrink from, shun, slide out of, skip, miss; neglect; informal duck (out of), cop out of; Brit. informal skive off; N. Amer. informal cut; Austral./NZ informal duck-shove. 2 no one shirked: avoid one's duty, be remiss, be negligent, play truant; Brit. informal skive (off), swing the lead, scrimshank, slack off; N. Amer. informal goof off, play hookey.

shirker noun dodger, truant, absentee, layabout, loafer, idler; informal slacker; Brit. informal skiver, scrimshanker; old use shirk.

shiver<sup>1</sup> verb she was shivering with fear: tremble, quiver, shake, shudder, quaver, quake.

• noun she gave a shiver as the door opened: tremble, quiver, shake, shudder, quaver, quake, tremor, twitch.

shiver<sup>2</sup> noun a shiver of glass: splinter, sliver, shard, fragment, chip, shaving, smithereen, particle, bit, piece.

• verb the window shivered into thousands of pieces: shatter, splinter, smash, fragment, crack, break.

shivery adjective trembling, trembly, quivery, shaky, shuddering, shuddery, quavery, quaking; cold, chilly.

shoal noun sandbank, bank, mudbank, bar, sandbar, tombolo, shelf, cay.

shock<sup>1</sup> noun 1 the news came as a shock: blow, upset, disturbance; surprise, revelation, a bolt from the blue, thunderbolt, bombshell, rude awakening; informal eye-opener, whammy. 2 you gave me a shock: fright, scare, jolt, start; informal turn. 3 she was suffering from shock: trauma, traumatism, prostration; collapse, breakdown. 4 the first shock of the earthquake: vibration, reverberation, shake, jolt, jar, jerk; impact, blow.

• verb the murder shocked the nation: appal, horrify, outrage, revolt, disgust, nauseate, sicken; traumatize, distress, upset, disturb, disquiet, unsettle; stun, rock, stagger, astound, astonish, amaze, startle, surprise, dumbfound, shake, take aback, throw, unnerve.

shock<sup>2</sup> noun a shock of red hair: mass, mane, mop, thatch, head, crop, bush, frizz, tangle, cascade, halo.

shocking adjective appalling, horrifying, horrific, dreadful, awful, frightful, terrible; scandalous, outrageous, disgraceful, vile, abominable, abhorrent, atrocious; odious, repugnant, disgusting, nauseating, sickening, loathsome; distressing, upsetting, disturbing, disquieting, unsettling; staggering, amazing, astonishing, startling, surprising.

shoddy adjective 1 shoddy goods: poor-quality, inferior, second-rate, third-rate, cheap, cheapjack, trashy, jerry-built; informal tacky, rubbishy, junky; Brit. informal duff, rubbish. 2 shoddy workmanship: careless, slapdash, sloppy, slipshod, scrappy, crude; negligent.

– OPPOSITES quality, careful.

shoemaker noun cobbler, bootmaker, clogger; Scottish & N. English souter.

shoot verb 1 they shot him in the street: gun down, mow down, hit, wound, injure; pick off, bag, fell, kill; informal pot, blast, pump full of lead, plug. 2 they shot at the enemy: fire, open fire, aim, snipe, let fly; bombard, shell. 3 faster than a gun can shoot bullets: discharge, fire, launch, loose off, let fly, emit. 4 a car shot past: race, speed, flash, dash, dart, rush, hurtle, streak, whizz, go like lightning, go hell for leather, zoom, charge; career, sweep, fly, wing; informal belt, scoot, scorch, tear, zip, whip, burn rubber; Brit. informal bomb, bucket, shift; N. Amer. informal clip, hightail it, barrel. 5 the plant failed to shoot: sprout, bud, burgeon, germinate. 6 the film was shot in Tunisia: film, photograph, take, snap, capture, record; televise, video.

• noun nip off the new shoots: sprout, bud, offshoot, scion, sucker, spear, runner, tendril, sprig.

shop noun 1 a shop selling clothes: store, (retail) outlet, boutique, cash and carry, emporium, department store, supermarket, hypermarket, superstore, chain store, concession, market, mart, trading post; N. Amer. minimart. 2 he works in the machine shop: workshop, workshop, plant, factory, works, industrial unit, mill, foundry, yard. • verb 1 he was shopping for spices: go shopping; buy, purchase, get, stock up on; humorous indulge in retail therapy. 2 (Brit. informal) he shopped his fellow robbers. See BETRAY sense 1.

shopkeeper noun shop-owner, shop manager, vendor, retailer, dealer, seller, trader, wholesaler, salesperson, tradesman, distributor; N. Amer. storekeeper.

shopper noun buyer, purchaser, customer, consumer, client, patron; law vendee.

shopping centre noun shopping precinct, (shopping) mall, (shopping) arcade, Galleria, parade; marketplace, mart; N. Amer. plaza.

shore<sup>1</sup> noun he swam out from the shore: seashore, beach, foreshore, sand(s), shoreline, waterside, front, coast, seaboard, littoral; literary strand.

shore<sup>2</sup> verb we had to shore up the building: prop up, hold up, bolster, support, brace, buttress, strengthen, fortify, reinforce, underpin.

short adjective 1 a short piece of string: small, little, tiny; informal teeny. 2 short people: small, little, petite, tiny, diminutive, stubby, elfin, dwarfish, midget, pygmy, Lilliputian, minuscule, miniature; Scottish wee; informal pint-sized, teeny, knee-high to a grasshopper. 3 a short report: concise, brief, succinct, compact, summary, economical, crisp, pithy, epigrammatic, laconic, thumbnail, abridged, abbreviated, condensed, synoptic, summarized, contracted, truncated; formal compendious.

4 a short time: brief, momentary, temporary, short-lived, impermanent, cursory, fleeting, passing, fugitive, lightning, transitory, transient, ephemeral, quick. 5 money is a bit short: scarce, in short supply, scant, meagre, sparse, insufficient, deficient, inadequate, lacking, wanting. 6 he was rather short with her: curt, sharp, abrupt, blunt, brusque, terse, offhand, gruff, surly, testy, rude, uncivil; informal snappy.

– OPPOSITES long, tall, plentiful, courteous.

• adverb she stopped short: abruptly, suddenly, sharply, all of a sudden, all at once, unexpectedly, without warning, out of the blue.

■ in short briefly, in a word, in a nutshell, in precis, in essence, to come to the point; in conclusion, in summary, to sum up.

■ short of 1 we are short of nurses: deficient in, lacking, wanting, in need of, low on, short on, missing; informal strapped for, pushed for, minus. 2 short of searching everyone, there is nothing we can do: apart from, other than, aside from, besides, except (for), excepting, without, excluding, not counting, save (for).

shortage noun scarcity, sparseness, sparsity, dearth, paucity, poverty, insufficiency, deficiency, inadequacy, famine, lack, want, deficit, shortfall, rarity.

– OPPOSITES abundance.

shortcoming noun defect, fault, flaw, imperfection, deficiency, limitation, failing, drawback, weakness, weak point, foible, frailty, vice.

– OPPOSITES strength.

shorten verb make shorter, abbreviate, abridge, condense, precis, synopsisize, contract, compress, reduce, shrink, diminish, cut (down); dock, trim, crop, pare down, prune; curtail, truncate.

– OPPOSITES extend.

short-lived adjective brief, short, momentary, temporary, impermanent, cursory, fleeting, passing, fugitive, lightning, transitory, transient, ephemeral, quick.

shortly adverb 1 she will be with you shortly: soon, presently, in a little while, at any moment, in a minute, in next to no time, before long, by and by; N. Amer. momentarily; informal anon, any time now, pretty soon, before one can say Jack Robinson, in a jiffy; Brit. informal in a mo, sharpish; dated directly.

2 'I know,' he replied shortly: curtly, sharply, abruptly, bluntly, brusquely, tersely, gruffly, snappily, testily, rudely.

short-sighted adjective 1 I'm a little short-sighted: myopic, nearsighted; informal as blind as a bat. 2 short-sighted critics: narrow-minded, unimaginative, improvident, small-minded, insular, parochial, provincial.

– OPPOSITES long-sighted, imaginative.

short-staffed adjective understaffed, short-handed, undermanned, below strength.

short-tempered adjective irritable, irascible, hot-tempered, quick-tempered, snappish, fiery, touchy, volatile; cross, crabby, crotchety, cantankerous, grumpy, ill-tempered, bad-tempered, testy, tetchy, prickly, choleric; informal snappy, chippy, grouchy, cranky, on a short fuse; Brit. informal narky, ratty, eggy, like a bear with a sore head; N. Amer. informal soreheaded.

– OPPOSITES placid.

shot<sup>1</sup> noun 1 a shot rang out: report of a gun, crack, bang, blast; (shots) gunfire. 2 the cannon have run out of shot: bullets, cannonballs, pellets, ammunition. 3 a winning shot: stroke, hit, strike; kick, throw, pitch, lob. 4 Mike was an excellent shot: marksman, markswoman, shooter. 5 a shot of us on holiday: photograph, photo, snap, snapshot, picture, print, slide, still; Brit. enprint. 6 (informal) it's nice to get a shot at driving: attempt, try; turn, chance, opportunity; informal go, stab, crack, bash; formal essay. 7 tetanus shots: injection, inoculation, immunization, vaccination, booster; informal jab.

■ a shot in the arm (informal) boost, fillip, tonic, stimulus, spur, impetus, encouragement.

■ a shot in the dark (wild) guess, surmise, supposition, conjecture, speculation.

■ like a shot (informal) without hesitation, unhesitatingly, eagerly, enthusiastically; immediately, at once, right away/now, straight away, instantly, instantaneously, without delay; informal in/like a flash, before one can say Jack Robinson.

■ not by a long shot by no (manner of) means, not at all, in no way, certainly not, absolutely not, definitely not; Brit. not by a long chalk.

shot<sup>2</sup> adjective shot silk: variegated, mottled; multicoloured, varicoloured; iridescent, opalescent.

shoulder verb 1 Britain shouldered the primary responsibility: take on (oneself), undertake, accept, assume; bear, carry. 2 another lad shouldered him aside: push, shove, thrust, jostle, force, bulldoze, bundle. ■ give someone the cold shoulder snub, shun, cold-shoulder, ignore, cut (dead), rebuff, spurn, ostracize; informal give someone the brush-off, freeze out; Brit. informal send to Coventry.

shout verb 'Help,' he shouted: yell, cry (out), call (out), roar, howl, bellow, bawl, call at the top of one's voice, clamour, shriek, scream; raise one's voice, vociferate; informal holler.

– OPPOSITES whisper.

• noun a shout of pain: yell, cry, call, roar, howl, bellow, bawl, clamour, vociferation, shriek, scream; informal holler.

shove verb 1 she shoved him back into the chair: push, thrust, propel, drive, force, ram, knock, elbow, shoulder; jostle, bundle, hustle, manhandle. 2 she shoved past him: push (one's way), force one's way, barge (one's way), elbow (one's way), shoulder one's way.

• noun a hefty shove: push, thrust, bump, jolt.

shovel noun a pick and shovel: spade; Austral./NZ banjo.

• verb shovelling snow: scoop (up), dig, excavate.

show verb 1 the stitches do not show: be visible, be seen, be in view, be obvious. 2 he wouldn't show the picture: display, exhibit, put on show/display, put on view, parade, uncover, reveal. 3 Frank showed his frustration: manifest, exhibit, reveal, convey, communicate, make known; express, proclaim, make plain, make obvious, disclose, betray; formal evince. 4 I'll show you how to make a daisy chain: demonstrate, explain, describe, illustrate; teach, instruct, give instructions. 5 recent events show this to be true: prove, demonstrate, confirm, show beyond doubt; substantiate, corroborate, verify, establish, attest, certify, testify, bear out; formal evince. 6 a young woman showed them to their seats: escort, accompany, take, conduct, lead, usher, guide, direct, steer, shepherd. 7 (informal) they never showed: appear, arrive, come, get here/there, put in an appearance, materialize, turn up; informal show up.

– OPPOSITES conceal.

• noun 1 a spectacular show of bluebells: display, array, exhibition, presentation, exposition, spectacle. 2 the motor show: exhibition, exposition, fair, extravaganza, spectacle; N. Amer. exhibit. 3 they took in a show: (theatrical) performance, musical, play. 4 she's only doing it for show: appearance, display, impression, ostentation, image. 5 Drew made a show of looking busy: pretence, outward appearance, (false) front, guise, semblance, pose, parade. 6 (informal) I don't run the show: undertaking, affair, operation, proceedings, enterprise, business, venture.

■ show off (informal) behave affectedly, put on airs, put on an act, swagger around, swank, strut, strike an attitude, posture; draw attention to oneself; N. Amer. informal cop an attitude.

■ show something off display, show to advantage, exhibit, demonstrate, parade, draw attention to, flaunt.

■ show up 1 cancers show up on X-rays: be visible, be obvious, be seen, be revealed. 2 (informal) only two waitresses showed up. See SHOW verb sense 7.

■ show someone/something up 1 the sun showed up the shabbiness of the room: expose, reveal, make visible, make obvious, highlight. 2 (informal) they showed him up in front of his friends. See HUMILIATE.

showdown noun confrontation, clash, face-off.

shower noun 1 a shower of rain: (light) fall, drizzle, sprinkling, mizzle. 2 a shower of arrows: volley, hail, salvo, bombardment, barrage, fusillade, cannonade. 3 a shower of awards: avalanche, deluge, flood, spate, flurry; profusion, abundance, plethora. • verb 1 confetti showered down on us: rain, fall, hail. 2 she showered them with gifts: deluge, flood, inundate, swamp, engulf; overwhelm, overload, snow under. 3 showering honours on his cronies: lavish, heap, bestow freely.

showing noun 1 another showing of the series: presentation, broadcast, airing, televising. 2 the party's present showing: performance, (track) record, results, success, achievement.

showman noun 1 a travelling showman: impresario, stage manager; ringmaster, host, compère, master of ceremonies, MC; presenter; N. Amer. informal emcee. 2 he is a great showman: entertainer, performer, virtuoso.

show-off noun (informal) exhibitionist, extrovert, poser, poseur, peacock, swaggerer, self-publicist; informal pseud.

showy adjective ostentatious, conspicuous, pretentious, flamboyant, gaudy, garish, brash, vulgar, loud, extravagant, fancy, ornate, over-elaborate, kitsch; informal flashy, flashy, bling-bling, glitzy, ritzy, swanky; N. Amer. informal superfly.

– OPPOSITES restrained.

shred noun 1 her dress was torn to shreds: tatter, scrap, strip, ribbon, rag, fragment, sliver, (tiny) bit/piece. 2 not a shred of evidence: scrap, bit, speck, iota, particle, ounce, whit, jot, crumb, morsel, fragment, grain, drop, trace, scintilla, spot; informal smidgen.

• verb shredding vegetables: chop finely, cut up, tear up, grate, mince, macerate, grind.

shrew noun virago, dragon, termagant, fishwife, witch, tartar, hag; informal battleaxe, old bag, old bat; old use scold.

shrewd adjective astute, sharp-witted, sharp, smart, acute, intelligent, clever, canny, perceptive, perspicacious, sagacious, wise; informal on the ball, savvy; N. Amer. informal heads-up; formal sapient.

– OPPOSITES stupid.

shrewdness noun astuteness, sharp-wittedness, acuteness, acumen, acuity, intelligence, cleverness, wit, caniness, common sense, discernment, insight, understanding, perception, perceptiveness, perspicacity, perspicaciousness, discrimination, sagacity, sageness; informal nous, horse sense, savvy; formal sapience.

shrewish adjective bad-tempered, quarrelsome, spiteful, sharp-tongued, scolding, nagging; venomous, rancorous.

shriek verb she shrieked with laughter: scream, screech, squeal, squawk, roar, howl, shout, yelp; informal holler. • noun a shriek of laughter: scream, screech, squeal, squawk, roar, howl, shout, yelp; informal holler.

shrill adjective high-pitched, piercing, high, sharp, ear-piercing, ear-splitting, penetrating, screeching, shrieking, screechy.

shrine noun 1 the shrine of St James: holy place, temple, church, chapel, tabernacle, sanctuary, sanctum. 2 a shrine to the Beatles: memorial, monument.

shrink verb 1 the number of competitors shrank: get smaller, become/grow smaller, contract, diminish, lessen, reduce, decrease, dwindle, decline, fall off, drop off. 2 he shrank back against the wall: draw back, recoil, back away, retreat, withdraw, cringe, cower, quail. 3 he doesn't shrink from naming names: recoil, shy away, demur, flinch, have scruples, have misgivings, have qualms, be loath, be reluctant, be unwilling, be averse, fight shy of, be hesitant, be afraid, hesitate, balk at; old use disrelish something.

– OPPOSITES expand, increase.

shrivel verb wither, shrink; wilt; dry up, desiccate, dehydrate, parch, frazzle.

shroud noun 1 the Turin Shroud: winding sheet; historical ceremonies. 2 a shroud of mist | a shroud of secrecy: covering, cover, cloak, mantle, blanket, layer, cloud, veil.

• verb a mist shrouded the jetties: cover, envelop, veil, cloak, blanket, screen, conceal, hide, mask, obscure; literary enshroud.

shrug verb

■ shrug something off disregard, dismiss, take no notice of, ignore, pay no heed to, play down, make light of.

shudder verb she shuddered at the thought: shake, shiver, tremble, quiver, vibrate, palpitate.

• noun a shudder racked his body: shake, shiver, tremor, tremble, trembling, quiver, quivering, vibration, palpitation.

shuffle verb 1 they shuffled along the passage: shamble, drag one's feet, totter, dodder. 2 she shuffled her feet: scrape, drag, scuffle, scuff. 3 he shuffled the cards: mix (up), mingle, rearrange, jumble.

shun verb avoid, evade, eschew, steer clear of, shy away from, fight shy of, keep one's distance from, give a wide berth to, have nothing to do with; snub, give someone the cold shoulder, cold-shoulder, ignore, cut (dead), look right through; reject, rebuff, spurn, ostracize; informal give someone the brush-off, freeze out, stiff-arm; Brit. informal send to Coventry; N. Amer. informal give someone the bum's rush.

shut verb please shut the door: close, pull/push to, slam, fasten; put the lid on, bar, lock, secure.

– OPPOSITES open, unlock.

■ shut down cease activity, close (down), cease operating, cease trading, be shut (down); informal fold.

■ shut someone/something in confine, enclose, impound, shut up, pen (in/up), fence in, immure, lock up/in, cage, imprison, intern, incarcerate; N. Amer. corral.

■ shut someone/something out 1 he shut me out of the house: lock out, keep out, refuse entrance to. 2 she shut out the memories: block, suppress. 3 the bamboo shut out the light: keep out, block out, screen, veil.

■ shut up (informal) be quiet, keep quiet, hold one's tongue, keep one's lips sealed; stop talking, quieten (down); informal keep mum, button it, cut the cackle, shut it, shut your face/mouth/trap, belt up, put a sock in it, give it a rest; Brit. informal shut your gob; N. Amer. informal save it.

■ shut someone/something up 1 I haven't shut the hens up yet. See SHUT SOMEONE/SOMETHING IN. 2 (informal) that should shut them up: quieten (down), silence, hush, shush, quiet, gag, muzzle.

shuttle verb ply, run, commute, go/travel back and forth, go/travel to and fro; ferry.

shy<sup>1</sup> adjective I was painfully shy: bashful, diffident, timid, sheepish, reserved, reticent, introverted, retiring, self-effacing, withdrawn, timorous, mousy, nervous, insecure, unconfident, inhibited, repressed, self-conscious, embarrassed.

— OPPOSITES confident.

■ shy away from flinch, demur, recoil, hang back, have scruples, have misgivings, have qualms, be chary, be diffident, be bashful, fight shy, be coy; be loath, be reluctant, be unwilling, be disinclined, be hesitant, hesitate, balk at; informal boggle at; old use disrelish.

shy<sup>2</sup> verb (dated) they began shying stones: throw, toss, fling, hurl, cast, lob, launch, pitch; informal chuck, heave, sling, bung.

shyness noun bashfulness, diffidence, sheepishness, reserve, reservedness, introversion, reticence, timidity, timidity, timorousness, mousiness, lack of confidence, inhibitedness, self-consciousness, embarrassment, coyness, demureness.

sibling noun brother, sister; Zoology sib.

sick adjective 1 the children are sick: ill, unwell, poorly, ailing, indisposed, not oneself; Brit. off colour; informal laid up, under the weather; Austral./NZ informal crook. 2 he was feeling sick: nauseous, nauseated, queasy, bilious, green about the gills; seasick, carsick, airsick, travel-sick; informal about to throw up. 3 (informal) we're sick about the plans: disappointed, depressed, dejected, despondent, downcast, unhappy; angry, cross, annoyed, displeased, disgruntled; informal fed up; Brit. informal cheesed off. 4 I'm sick of this music: bored, tired, weary; informal fed up. 5 (informal) a sick joke: macabre, black, ghoulish, morbid, perverted, gruesome, sadistic, cruel.

— OPPOSITES well.

■ be sick (Brit.) vomit, retch, heave, gag; informal throw up, chunder, chuck up, hurl, spew, keck; Brit. informal honk; N. Amer. informal spit up, barf, upchuck, toss one's cookies.

sicken verb 1 the stench sickened him: turn someone's stomach, revolt, disgust; informal make someone want to throw up; N. Amer. informal gross out. 2 she sickened and died: become ill, fall ill, be taken ill/sick, catch something. 3 I'm sickening for something: become ill with, fall ill with, be taken ill with, show symptoms of, develop, come down with; Brit. go down with; N. Amer. informal take sick with.

sickening adjective nauseating, stomach-turning, stomach-churning, repulsive, revolting, disgusting, repellent, repugnant, appalling, obnoxious, nauseous, vile, nasty, foul, loathsome, offensive, objectionable, off-putting, distasteful, obscene, gruesome, grisly; N. Amer. vomitous; informal gross; formal rebarbative; old use disgusting.

sickly adjective 1 a sickly child: unhealthy, in poor health, delicate, frail, weak. 2 sickly faces: pale, wan, pasty, sallow, pallid, ashen, anaemic. 3 a sickly green: insipid, pale, light, light-coloured, washed out, faded. 4 sickly love songs: sentimental, mawkish, cloying, mushy, slushy, sugary, syrupy, saccharine; informal schmaltzy, weepy, lovey-dovey, corny; Brit. informal soppy; N. Amer. informal cornball, sappy, hokey, three-hankie.

— OPPOSITES healthy.

sickness noun 1 she was absent through sickness: illness, disease, ailment, complaint, infection, malady, infirmity, indisposition; informal bug, virus; Brit. informal lurgy; Austral. informal wog. 2 a wave of sickness: nausea, biliousness, queasiness. 3 he suffered sickness and diarrhoea: vomiting, retching, gagging; travel-sickness, seasickness, carsickness, airsickness, motion sickness; informal throwing up, puking.

side noun 1 the side of the road: edge, border, verge, boundary, margin, fringe(s), flank, bank, perimeter, extremity, periphery, (outer) limit, limits, bounds; literary marge, bourn. 2 the wrong side of the road: half, part; carriageway, lane. 3 the east side of the city: district, quarter, area, region, part, neighbourhood, sector, section, zone, ward. 4 one side of the paper: surface, face, plane. 5 his side of the argument: point of view, viewpoint, perspective, opinion, way of thinking, standpoint, position, outlook, slant, angle. 6 the losing side in the war: faction, camp, bloc, party, wing. 7 the players in their side: team, squad, line-up. 8 (Brit. informal) there's absolutely no side about her. See AFFECTATION sense 1.

— OPPOSITES centre, end.

• adjective 1 elaborate side pieces: lateral, wing, flanking. 2 a side issue: subordinate, lesser, lower-level, secondary, minor, peripheral, incidental, ancillary, subsidiary, of little account, extraneous.

— OPPOSITES front, central.

• verb siding with the underdog. See TAKE SOMEONE'S SIDE.

■ side by side 1 they cycled along side by side: alongside (each other), beside each other, abreast, shoulder to shoulder, close together. 2 most transactions proceed side by side: at (one and) the same time, simultaneously, contemporaneously.

■ take someone's side support, take someone's part, side with, be on someone's side, stand by, back, give someone one's backing, be loyal to, defend, champion, ally (oneself) with, sympathize with, favour.

WORD LINKS

lateral relating to the side or sides sideline noun he founded the company as a sideline: secondary occupation, second job; hobby, leisure activity/pursuit, recreation.

■ on the sidelines without taking part, without getting involved.

sidelong adjective a sidelong glance: indirect, oblique, sideways, sideward; surreptitious, furtive, covert, sly.

– OPPOSITES overt.

• adverb he looked sidelong at her: indirectly, obliquely, sideways, out of the corner of one's eye; surreptitiously, furtively, covertly, slyly.

side-splitting adjective (informal). See FUNNY sense 1.

sidestep verb avoid, evade, dodge, circumvent, skirt round, bypass; informal duck.

sidetrack verb distract, divert, deflect, draw away.

sideways adverb 1 I slid off sideways: to the side, laterally. 2 the expansion slots are mounted sideways: edgewise, sideways, side first, edgewise, end on. 3 he looked sideways at her. See SIDELONG adverb.

• adjective 1 sideways force: lateral, sideward, on the side, side to side. 2 a sideways look. See SIDELONG adjective.

sidle verb creep, sneak, slink, slip, slide, steal, edge, inch, move furtively.

siege noun blockade, encirclement; old use investment.

S

siesta noun afternoon sleep, nap, catnap, doze, rest; informal snooze, lie-down, forty winks; Brit. informal kip, zizz.

sieve noun use a sieve to strain the mixture: strainer, sifter, filter, riddle, screen.

• verb 1 sieve the mixture into a bowl: strain, sift, screen, filter, riddle; old use bolt. 2 the coins were sieved from the ash: separate out, filter out, sift, sort out, divide, segregate, extract.

sift verb 1 sift the flour into a large bowl: sieve, strain, screen, filter, riddle; old use bolt. 2 we sift out unsuitable applications: separate out, filter out, sort out, put to one side, weed out, get rid of, remove.

3 investigators are sifting through the wreckage: search through, look through, examine, inspect, scrutinize, pore over, investigate, analyse, dissect, review.

sign verb 1 she sighed with relief: breathe out, exhale; groan, moan. 2 the wind sighed

in the trees: rustle, whisper, murmur, sigh. 3 he sighed for days gone by: yearn, long, pine, ache, grieve, cry for/over, weep for/over, rue, miss, mourn, lament, hanker for/after.

sight noun 1 she has excellent sight: eyesight, vision, eyes, faculty of sight, visual perception. 2 her first sight of it: view, glimpse, glance, look. 3 within sight of the enemy: range of vision, field of vision, view. 4 (dated) we are all equal in the sight of God: perception, judgement, belief, opinion, point of view, view, viewpoint, mind, perspective, standpoint. 5 historic sights: landmark, place of interest, monument, spectacle, view, marvel, wonder. 6 (informal) I must look a sight: eyesore, spectacle, mess; informal fright.

• verb one of the helicopters sighted wreckage: glimpse, catch/get a glimpse of, catch sight of, see, spot, spy, notice, observe; literary espy, descry.

■ catch sight of glimpse, catch/get a glimpse of, see, spot, spy, make out, pick out, sight, have sight of; literary espy, descry.

■ set one's sights on aspire to, aim at/for, try for, strive for/towards, work towards.

WORD LINKS

optic, optical, visual relating to sight or vision optometry the occupation of measuring eyesight myopia short-sightedness

presbyopia long-sightedness nyctalopia abnormal inability to see in very dim light

sightseer noun 1 sightseers to the city: tourist, visitor, tripper, holidaymaker; Brit. informal grockle. 2 gawping sightseers: busybody, gawker; informal rubberneck; Brit. informal gawper.

sign noun 1 a sign of affection: indication, signal, symptom, pointer, suggestion, intimation, mark, manifestation, demonstration, token, evidence. 2 a sign of things to come: portent, omen, warning, forewarning, augury, presage; promise, threat. 3 at his sign the soldiers followed: gesture, signal, wave, gesticulation, cue, nod. 4 signs saying 'keep out': notice, signpost, warning sign, road sign, traffic sign. 5 the dancers were daubed with signs: symbol, mark, cipher, letter, character, figure, hieroglyph, ideogram, rune, sigil, emblem, device, logo.

• verb 1 he signed the letter: write one's name on, autograph, endorse, initial, countersign; formal subscribe. 2 the government signed the agreement: endorse, validate, certify, authenticate, sanction, authorize; agree to, approve, ratify, adopt; informal give something the go-ahead, give something the green light, give something the thumbs up. 3 he signed his name: write, inscribe, pen. 4 we have signed a new player: recruit, hire, engage, employ, take on, appoint, sign on/up, enlist. 5 she signed to Susan to leave: gesture, signal, give a sign to, motion; wave, beckon, nod.

■ sign on/up enlist, take a job, join (up), enrol, register, volunteer.

■ sign someone on/up. See sign verb sense 4.

■ sign something over transfer, make over, hand over, bequeath, pass on, transmit, cede; Law devolve, convey.

signal<sup>1</sup> noun 1 a signal to stop: gesture, sign, wave, gesticulation, cue, indication, warning, motion. 2 a clear signal that the company is in trouble: indication, sign, symptom, hint, pointer, intimation, clue, demonstration, evidence, proof. 3 the encroaching dark is a signal for people to emerge: cue, prompt, impetus, stimulus; informal go-ahead.

• verb 1 the driver signalled to her to cross: gesture, sign, give a sign to, direct, motion; wave, beckon, nod. 2 they signalled displeasure by refusing to cooperate: indicate, show, express, communicate, proclaim, declare. 3 his death signals the end of an era: mark, signify, mean, be a sign of, be evidence of, herald; literary betoken, foretoken.

signal<sup>2</sup> adjective a signal failure: notable, noteworthy, remarkable, striking, glaring, significant, momentous, memorable, unforgettable, obvious, special, extraordinary, exceptional, conspicuous.

significance noun 1 a matter of considerable significance: importance, import, consequence, seriousness, gravity, weight, magnitude, momentousness; formal moment. 2 the significance of his remarks: meaning, sense, signification, import, thrust, drift, gist, implication, message, essence, substance, point.

significant adjective 1 a significant increase: notable, noteworthy, worthy of attention, remarkable, important, of importance, of consequence; serious, crucial, weighty, momentous, uncommon, unusual, rare, extraordinary, exceptional, special; formal of moment. 2 a significant look: meaningful, expressive, eloquent, suggestive, knowing, telling.

significantly adverb 1 results are significantly better: notably, remarkably, outstandingly, importantly, crucially, materially, appreciably; markedly, considerably, obviously, conspicuously, strikingly, signally. 2 he paused significantly: meaningfully, expressively, eloquently, revealingly, suggestively, knowingly.

signify verb 1 this signified a fundamental change: be evidence of, be a sign of, mark, signal, mean, spell, be symptomatic of, herald, indicate; literary betoken. 2 the egg signifies life: mean, denote, designate, represent, symbolize, stand for; literary betoken. 3 signify your agreement by signing below: express, indicate, show, proclaim, declare. 4 the locked door doesn't signify: mean anything, be of importance, be important, be significant, be of significance, be of account, count, matter, be relevant.

silence noun 1 the silence of the night:

quietness, quiet, quietude, still, stillness, hush, tranquillity, noiselessness, soundlessness, peacefulness, peace (and quiet). 2 she was reduced to silence: speechlessness, wordlessness, dumbness, muteness, taciturnity. 3 the politicians continue to keep their silence: secretiveness, secrecy, reticence, taciturnity, uncommunicativeness.

– OPPOSITES sound.

• verb 1 he silenced her with a kiss: quieten, quiet, hush, shush; gag, muzzle, censor. 2 silencing outside noises: muffle, deaden, soften, mute, smother, dampen, damp down, mask, suppress, reduce. 3 this would silence their complaints: stop, put an end to, put a stop to.

silent adjective 1 the night was silent: completely quiet, still, hushed, inaudible, noiseless, soundless. 2 the right to remain silent: speechless, quiet, unspeaking, dumb, mute, taciturn, uncommunicative, tight-lipped; informal mum. 3 silent thanks: unspoken, wordless, unsaid, unexpressed, unvoiced, tacit, implicit, understood.

– OPPOSITES audible, noisy.

silently adverb 1 Nancy crept silently up the stairs: quietly, inaudibly, noiselessly, soundlessly, in silence. 2 they drove on silently: without a word, saying nothing, in silence. 3 I silently said goodbye: without words, wordlessly, in one's head, tacitly, implicitly.

– OPPOSITES audibly, out loud.

silhouette noun the silhouette of the dome: outline, contour(s), profile, form, shape, figure, shadow.

• verb the castle was silhouetted against the sky: outline, delineate, define; stand out.

silky adjective smooth, soft, sleek, fine, glossy, satiny, silken.

silly adjective 1 don't be so silly: foolish, stupid, unintelligent, idiotic, brainless, mindless, witless, imbecilic, doltish; imprudent, thoughtless, rash, reckless, foolhardy, irresponsible; mad, feather-brained, scatterbrained; frivolous, giddy, inane, immature, childish, puerile, empty-headed; informal crazy, dotty, scatty, loopy, screwy, thick, thickheaded, birdbrained, pea-brained, dopey, dim, dim-witted, half-witted, dippy, blockheaded, boneheaded, lamebrained; Brit. informal daft, divvy; N. Amer. informal chowderheaded; dated tom-fool. 2 that was a silly thing to do: unwise, imprudent, thoughtless, foolish, stupid, idiotic, senseless, mindless; rash, reckless, foolhardy, irresponsible, injudicious, misguided, irrational; informal crazy; Brit. informal daft. 3 he would brood about silly things: trivial, trifling, frivolous, footling, petty, small, insignificant, unimportant; informal piffling, piddling; N. Amer. informal small-bore. 4 he drank himself silly: senseless, insensible, unconscious, stupid, into a stupor.

– OPPOSITES sensible.

silt noun the flooding brought more silt:

sediment, deposit, alluvium, mud.

• verb the harbour had silted up: become blocked, become clogged, fill up (with silt).

silver noun 1 freshly polished silver:

silverware, (silver) plate; cutlery. 2 a handful of silver: coins, coinage, specie; (small) change, loose change. 3 she won three silvers: silver medal, second prize.

• adjective 1 silver hair: grey, greyish, white. 2 the silver water: silvery, shining, lustrous, gleaming; literary argent.

similar adjective 1 you two are very similar:

alike, (much) the same, indistinguishable, almost identical, homogeneous; informal much of a muchness. 2 northern India and similar areas: comparable, like, corresponding, homogeneous, equivalent, analogous. 3 other parts were similar to Wales: like, much the same as, comparable to.

– OPPOSITES different, unlike.

■ be similar to resemble, look like, have the appearance of.

similarity noun resemblance, likeness, sameness, similitude, comparability, correspondence, parallel, equivalence, homogeneity, indistinguishability, uniformity; old use semblance.

similarly adverb likewise, in similar fashion, in like manner, comparably, correspondingly, uniformly, indistinguishably, analogously, homogeneously, equivalently, in the same way, the same, identically.

similitude noun. See SIMILARITY.

simmer verb 1 the soup was simmering on the stove: boil gently, cook gently, bubble. 2 she was simmering with resentment: be furious, be enraged, be angry, be incensed, be infuriated, seethe, fume, smoulder; informal be steamed up, be hot under the collar.

■ simmer down become less angry, cool off/ down, be placated, control oneself, become calmer, calm down, become quieter, quieten down.

simper verb smile affectedly, smile coquettishly, look coy.

simple adjective 1 it's really pretty simple:

straightforward, easy, uncomplicated, uninvolved, effortless, painless, undemanding, elementary, child's play; informal as easy as falling off a log, as easy as pie, as easy as ABC, a piece of cake, a cinch, no sweat, a doddle, a pushover, money for old rope, kids' stuff, a breeze, a walk in the park; Brit. informal easy-peasy, a doss; N. Amer. informal duck soup, a snap; Austral./NZ informal a bludge, a snack. 2 simple language: clear, plain, straightforward, intelligible, comprehensible, uncomplicated, in words of one syllable, accessible; informal user-friendly. 3 a simple white blouse: plain, unadorned, undecorated, unembellished, unornamented, unelaborate, basic, unsophisticated, no-frills; classic, understated, uncluttered, restrained. 4 the simple truth: candid, frank, honest, sincere, plain, absolute, unqualified, bald, stark, unadorned, unvarnished, unembellished. 5 simple country people: unpretentious, unsophisticated, ordinary, unaffected, unassuming, natural, honest-to-goodness; N. Amer. cracker-barrel. 6 simple chemical substances: non-compound, non-complex, uncombined, unblended, unalloyed, pure, single. 7 he's a bit simple: of low intelligence, simple-minded, unintelligent, backward.

– OPPOSITES difficult, complex, fancy, compound.

simpleton noun. See FOOL noun sense 1.

simplicity noun 1 the simplicity of the recipes: straightforwardness, ease, easiness, simpleness, effortlessness. 2 the simplicity of the language: clarity, clearness, plainness, simpleness, intelligibility, comprehensibility, understandability, straightforwardness, accessibility. 3 the building's simplicity: plainness, lack/absence of adornment, lack/absence of decoration, austerity, sparseness, clean lines. 4 the simplicity of their lifestyle: unpretentiousness, ordinariness, lack of sophistication, lack of affectation, naturalness.

simplify verb make simple/simpler, make easy/easier to understand, make plainer, clarify, make more comprehensible/intelligible; paraphrase, put in words of one syllable.

– OPPOSITES complicate.

simplicistic adjective facile, superficial, oversimple, oversimplified; shallow, jejune, naive; N. Amer. informal dime-store.

simply adverb 1 he spoke simply and forcefully: straightforwardly, directly, clearly, plainly, intelligibly, lucidly, unambiguously. 2 she was dressed simply: plainly, without adornment, without decoration, without ornament/ornamentation, soberly, unfussily, unelaborately, classically. 3 they lived simply: unpretentiously, modestly, quietly. 4 they are welcomed simply because they have plenty of money: merely, just, purely, solely, only. 5 Mrs Marks was simply livid: utterly, absolutely, completely, positively, really; informal plain. 6 it's simply the best thing ever written: without doubt, unquestionably, undeniably, incontrovertibly, certainly, categorically.

simulate verb 1 they simulated pleasure: feign, pretend, fake, sham, affect, put on, give the appearance of. 2 simulating conditions in space: imitate, reproduce, replicate, duplicate, mimic.

simulated adjective 1 simulated fear: feigned, fake, mock, affected, sham, insincere, false, bogus; informal pretend, put-on, phoney. 2 simulated leather: artificial, imitation, fake, faux, mock, synthetic, man-made, ersatz.

– OPPOSITES real.

simultaneous adjective concurrent, contemporaneous, happening at the same time, concomitant, coinciding, coincident, synchronous, synchronized.

simultaneously adverb at (one and) the same time, at the same instant/moment, at once, concurrently, concomitantly; (all) together, in unison, in concert, in chorus.

sin noun 1 a sin in the eyes of God: immoral act, wrong, wrongdoing, act of evil/wickedness, transgression, crime, offence, misdeed, misdemeanour; old use trespass. 2 the human capacity for sin: wickedness, wrongdoing, wrong, evil, evildoing, sinfulness, immorality, iniquity, vice, crime. 3 (informal) wasting money—it's a sin: scandal, crime, disgrace, outrage.

– OPPOSITES virtue.

• verb I have sinned: commit a sin, commit an offence, transgress, do wrong, commit a crime, break the law, misbehave, go astray; old use trespass.

WORD LINKS

venial referring to a sin that will not deprive the soul of God's grace mortal referring to a sin depriving the soul of God's grace penitent a person who repents their sins absolution, remission formal forgiveness of a person's sins prelapsarian before the Fall of Man, when humans lapsed into a state of sin perdition a state of eternal damnation into which a sinful person who has not repented passes after death sincere adjective 1 our sincere gratitude: heartfelt, wholehearted, profound, deep; genuine, real, unfeigned, unaffected, true, honest, bona fide. 2 a sincere person: honest, genuine, truthful, un hypocritical, straightforward, direct, frank, candid; informal straight, upfront, on the level; N. Amer. informal on the up and up.

sincerely adverb genuinely, honestly, really, truly, truthfully, wholeheartedly, earnestly, fervently.

sincerity noun honesty, genuineness, truthfulness, integrity, probity, trustworthiness; straightforwardness, openness, candour, candidness.

sinecure noun easy job, soft option; informal cushy number, money for old rope, picnic, doddle, cinch; Austral. informal bludge.

sinewy adjective muscular, muscly, brawny, powerfully built, burly, strapping, sturdy, rugged, strong, powerful, athletic, muscle-bound; informal hunky, beefy; dated stalwart; literary thewy.

– OPPOSITES puny.

sinful adjective 1 sinful conduct: immoral, wicked, (morally) wrong, wrongful, evil, bad, iniquitous, corrupt, criminal, nefarious, depraved, degenerate; rare peccable. 2 a sinful waste of money: reprehensible, scandalous, disgraceful, deplorable, shameful, criminal.

– OPPOSITES virtuous.

sinfulness noun immorality, wickedness, sin, wrongdoing, evil, evildoing, iniquitousness, corruption, depravity, degeneracy, vice; formal turpitude; rare peccability.

– OPPOSITES virtue.

sing verb 1 Miguelito began to sing: croon, carol, trill, troll, chant, intone, chorus.

2 the birds were singing: warble, trill, chirp, chirrup, cheep, peep. 3 he sang out a greeting: call (out), cry (out), shout, yell; informal holler.

singe verb scorch, burn, sear, char.

singer noun vocalist, soloist, songster, songstress, cantor.

single adjective 1 a single red rose: one (only), sole, lone, solitary, by itself/oneself, unaccompanied, alone. 2 she wrote down every single word: individual, separate, distinct, particular. 3 is she single?

unmarried, unwed, unwedded, unattached, free, a bachelor, a spinster; old use sole.

– OPPOSITES double, married.

■ single someone/something out select, pick out, choose, decide on; target, earmark, mark out, separate out, set apart/aside.

single-handed adverb by oneself, alone, on one's own, solo, unaided, unassisted, without help.

single-minded adjective determined, committed, unswerving, unwavering, resolute, purposeful, devoted, dedicated, uncompromising, tireless, tenacious, persistent, indefatigable, dogged; formal pertinacious.

– OPPOSITES half-hearted.

singly adverb one by one, one at a time, one after the other, individually, separately, by oneself, on one's own.

– OPPOSITES together.

singular adjective 1 the gallery's singular capacity to attract sponsors: remarkable, extraordinary, exceptional, outstanding, signal, notable, noteworthy; rare, unique, unparalleled, unprecedented, amazing, astonishing, phenomenal, astounding; informal fantastic, terrific. 2 why was Betty behaving in so singular a fashion? strange, unusual, odd, peculiar, funny, curious, extraordinary, bizarre, eccentric, weird, queer, unexpected, unfamiliar, abnormal, atypical, unconventional, out of the ordinary, untypical, puzzling, mysterious, perplexing, baffling, unaccountable.

singularity noun 1 the singularity of their concerns: uniqueness, distinctiveness. 2 his singularities: idiosyncrasy, quirk, foible, peculiarity, oddity, eccentricity.

singularly adverb. See EXTREMELY.

sinister adjective 1 there was a sinister undertone in his words: menacing, threatening, ominous, forbidding, baleful, frightening, alarming, disturbing, disquieting, dark, black; formal minatory; literary direful. 2 a sinister motive: evil, wicked, criminal, corrupt, nefarious, villainous, base, vile, malevolent, malicious; informal shady.

– OPPOSITES innocent.

sink verb 1 the coffin sank below the waves: become submerged, be engulfed, go down, drop, fall, descend. 2 the cruise liner sank yesterday: funder, go under, submerge.

3 they sank their ships: scuttle, send to the bottom; Brit. scupper. 4 the announcement sank hopes of a recovery: destroy, ruin, wreck, put an end to, demolish, smash, shatter, dash; informal put the kibosh on, put paid to; Brit. informal scupper; old use bring to naught. 5 they agreed to sink their differences: ignore, overlook, disregard, forget, put aside, set aside, bury. 6 I sank myself in student life: immerse, plunge, lose, bury. 7 the plane sank towards the airstrip: descend, drop, go down/downwards. 8 the sun was sinking: set, go down/downwards. 9 Loretta sank into an armchair: lower oneself, flop, collapse, drop down, slump; informal plonk oneself. 10 her voice sank to a whisper: fall, drop, become/get quieter, become/get softer. 11 she would never sink to your level: stoop, lower oneself, descend. 12 he was sinking fast: deteriorate, decline, go downhill, fade, grow weak, flag, waste away; be at death's door, be on one's deathbed, be slipping away; informal be on one's last legs, be giving up the ghost. 13 sink the pots into the ground: embed, insert, drive, plant. 14 sinking a gold mine: dig, excavate, bore, drill. 15 (informal) he sank five pints of lager: drink, quaff; informal down, knock back, polish off; N. Amer. informal chug, scarf down. 16 they sank their life savings in the company: invest, venture, risk.

— OPPOSITES float, rise.

• noun he washed himself at the sink: basin, washbasin, handbasin; dated lavabo.

■ sink in register, be understood, be comprehended, be grasped, get through.

sinless adjective innocent, pure, virtuous, as pure as the driven snow, uncorrupted, faultless, blameless, guiltless, immaculate.

— OPPOSITES wicked.

sinner noun wrongdoer, evildoer, transgressor, miscreant, offender, criminal; old use trespasser.

sinuous adjective 1 a sinuous river: winding, windy, serpentine, curving, twisting, meandering, snaking, zigzag, curling, coiling. 2 sinuous grace: lithe, supple, agile, graceful, loose-limbed, limber, lissom.

sip verb Amanda sipped her coffee: drink (slowly); dated sup.

• noun a sip of whisky: mouthful, swallow, drink, drop, dram, nip; informal swig; dated sup.

siren noun 1 an air-raid siren: alarm, warning bell, danger signal; old use tocsin. 2 the siren's allure: seductress, temptress, femme fatale; flirt, coquette; informal mantrap, vamp.

sissy (informal) noun he's a real sissy. See DRIP noun sense 2.

• adjective don't be so sissy: cowardly, weak, feeble, spineless, effeminate, effete, unmanly; informal wet, weedy, wimpish, wimpy.

sister noun 1 I have two sisters: sibling.

2 our European sisters: comrade, partner, colleague. 3 the sisters in the convent: nun, novice, abbess, prioress.

WORD LINKS

sororal relating to a sister fratricide the killing of one's sister or brother sit verb 1 you'd better sit down: take a seat, seat oneself, be seated, perch, ensconce oneself, plump oneself, flop; informal take the load/weight off one's feet, plonk oneself; Brit. informal take a pew. 2 she sat the package on the table: put (down), place, set (down), lay, deposit, rest, stand; informal stick, bung, dump, park, plonk. 3 the chapel sat about 3,000 people: hold, seat, have seats for, have space/room for, accommodate. 4 she sat for Picasso: pose, model. 5 a hotel sitting on the bank of the River Dee: be situated, be located, be sited, stand. 6 the committee sits on Saturday: be in session, meet, be convened. 7 women jurists sit on the tribunal: serve on, have a seat on, be a member of. 8 his shyness doesn't sit easily with Hollywood tradition: be harmonious, go, fit in, harmonize. 9 Mrs Hillman will sit for us: babysit, childmind.

— OPPOSITES stand.

■ sit back relax, unwind, lie back; informal let it all hang out, chill out, cool out, veg out; N. Amer. informal hang loose.

■ sit in for stand in for, fill in for, cover for, substitute for, deputize for; informal sub for.

■ sit in on attend, be present at, be an observer at, observe; N. Amer. audit.

■ sit tight (informal) 1 just sit tight: stay put, wait there, remain in one's place. 2 we're advising our clients to sit tight: take no action, wait, hold back, bide one's time; informal hold one's horses.

site noun the site of the battle: location, place, position, situation, locality, whereabouts; technical locus.

• verb bins sited at police stations: place, put, position, situate, locate.

sitting noun all-night sittings: session, meeting, assembly; hearing.

• adjective a sitting position: sedentary, seated.

— OPPOSITES standing.

sitting room noun living room, lounge, front room, drawing room, reception room, family room; dated parlour.

situate verb locate, site, position, place, station, build.

situation noun 1 their financial situation: circumstances, (state of) affairs, state, condition. 2 I'll fill you in on the situation: the facts, how things stand, the lie of the land, what's going on; Brit. the state of play; N. Amer. the lay of the land; informal the score. 3 the hotel's pleasant situation: location, position, spot, site, setting, environment; technical locus. 4 he was offered a situation in America: job, post, position, appointment; employment; old use employ.

SIX cardinal number sextet, sextuplets.

WORD LINKS

sextuple consisting of six parts hexagon a plane figure with six sides hexahedron a solid figure with six faces hexad a group or set of six hexameter a line of verse with six metrical feet size noun the room was of medium size:

dimensions, measurements, proportions, magnitude, largeness, bigness, area, expanse; breadth, width, length, height, depth; immensity, hugeness, vastness.
 • verb the drills are sized in millimetres: sort, categorize, classify.
 ■ size someone/something up (informal) assess, appraise, form an estimate of, take the measure of, judge, take stock of, evaluate; Brit. informal suss out.

sizeable adjective fairly large, substantial, considerable, respectable, significant, largish, biggish, goodly.
 – OPPOSITES small.

sizzle verb crackle, frizzle, sputter, spit.

sizzling adjective (informal) 1 sizzling temperatures: extremely hot, unbearably hot, blazing, burning, scorching, sweltering; N. Amer. broiling; informal boiling (hot), baking (hot). 2 a sizzling affair: passionate, torrid, ardent, lustful, erotic; informal steamy, hot.
 – OPPOSITES freezing.

skeadaddle verb (informal). See RUN verb sense 2.

skeletal adjective 1 a skeletal man: emaciated, very thin, as thin as a rake, cadaverous, skin and bone, skinny, bony, gaunt; informal anorexic. 2 a skeletal account: lacking in detail, incomplete, outline, fragmentary, sketchy; thumbnail.
 – OPPOSITES fat, detailed.

skeleton noun 1 the human skeleton: bones. 2 she was no more than a skeleton: skin and bone; informal bag of bones. 3 a concrete skeleton: framework, frame, shell. 4 the skeleton of a report: outline, (rough) draft, abstract, (bare) bones.
 • adjective a skeleton staff: minimum, minimal, basic; essential.

sketch noun 1 a sketch of the proposed design: (preliminary) drawing, outline; diagram, design, plan; informal rough. 2 she gave a rough sketch of what had happened: outline, brief description, rundown, main points, thumbnail sketch, (bare) bones; summary, synopsis, summarization, precis, résumé; N. Amer. wrap-up. 3 a biographical sketch: description, portrait, profile, portrayal, depiction. 4 a hilarious sketch: skit, scene, piece, act, item, routine.
 • verb 1 he sketched the garden: draw, make a drawing of, draw a picture of, pencil, rough out, outline. 2 the company sketched out its plans: describe, outline, give a brief idea of, rough out; summarize, precis.

sketchily adverb perfunctorily, cursorily, incompletely, patchily, vaguely, imprecisely; hastily, hurriedly.

sketchy adjective incomplete, patchy, fragmentary, cursory, perfunctory, scanty, vague, imprecise; hurried, hasty.
 – OPPOSITES detailed.

skew-whiff adjective (Brit. informal). See CROOKED sense 3.

skilful adjective expert, accomplished, skilled, masterly, master, virtuoso, consummate, proficient, talented, gifted, adept, adroit, deft, dexterous, able, good, competent, capable, brilliant, handy; informal mean, wicked, crack, ace, wizard; N. Amer. informal crackerjack.

skill noun 1 his skill as a politician: expertise, skilfulness, expertness, adeptness, adroitness, deftness, dexterity, ability, prowess, mastery, competence, capability, aptitude, artistry, virtuosity, talent. 2 bringing up a family gives you many skills: accomplishment, strength, gift.
 – OPPOSITES incompetence.

skilled adjective experienced, trained, qualified, proficient, practised, accomplished, expert, skilful, talented, gifted, adept, adroit, deft, dexterous, able, good, competent; informal crack; N. Amer. informal crackerjack.
 – OPPOSITES inexperienced.

skim verb 1 skim off the scum: remove, cream off, scoop off. 2 the boat skimmed over the water: glide, move lightly, slide, sail, skate, float. 3 he skimmed the pebble across the water: throw, toss, cast, pitch; bounce. 4 she skimmed through the newspaper: glance, flick, flip, leaf, thumb, read quickly, scan, run one's eye over. 5 Hannah skimmed over this part of the story: mention briefly, pass over quickly, skate over, gloss over.
 – OPPOSITES elaborate on.

skimp verb 1 don't skimp on the quantity: stint on, scrimp on, economize on, cut back on, be sparing, be frugal, be mean, be parsimonious, cut corners; informal be stingy, be minge, be tight. 2 the process cannot be skimmed: do hastily, do carelessly.

skimpy adjective 1 a skimpy black dress: revealing, short, low, low-cut; flimsy, thin, see-through, indecent. 2 my information is rather skimpy: meagre, scanty, sketchy, limited, paltry, deficient, sparse.

skin noun 1 these chemicals could damage the skin: epidermis, dermis, derma. 2 Mary's fair skin: complexion, colouring, skin colour/ tone, pigmentation. 3 leopard skins: hide, pelt, fleece; old use fell. 4 a banana skin: peel, rind, integument. 5 milk with a skin on it: film, layer, membrane. 6 the plane's skin was damaged: casing, exterior.

• verb 1 skin the tomatoes: peel, pare, hull; technical decorticate. 2 he skinned his knee: graze, scrape, abrade, bark, rub something raw, chafe; Medicine excoriate. 3 (informal) Dad would skin me alive if I forgot it: punish severely; informal murder, come down on someone (like a ton of bricks); Brit. informal give someone what for.

■ by the skin of one's teeth (only) just, narrowly, by a hair's breadth, by a very small margin; informal by a whisker.

■ get under someone's skin (informal) 1 the children really got under my skin. See IRRITATE sense 1. 2 she got under my skin: obsess, intrigue, captivate, charm; enthrall, enchant, entrance.

WORD LINKS

cutaneous relating to the skin subcutaneous, hypodermic beneath the skin dermatology the branch of medicine concerned with skin disorders dermatitis inflammation of the skin eczema, psoriasis conditions that cause dry, itchy patches on the skin pruritis severe itching of the skin melanoma a form of skin cancer slough (of a snake) shed an old skin ecdysis the process of shedding an old skin skin-deep adjective superficial, (on the) surface, external, outward, shallow.

skinflint noun (informal). See MISER.

skinny adjective. See THIN adjective sense 3.

skip verb 1 skipping down the path: caper, prance, trip, dance, bound, bounce, gambol, frisk, romp, cavort. 2 we skipped the boring stuff: omit, leave out, miss out, dispense with, pass over, skim over, disregard; informal give something a miss. 3 I skipped school: play truant from, miss; N. Amer. cut; informal sag off; Brit. informal skive off; N. Amer. informal play hookey from; Austral./NZ informal play the wag from. 4 I skipped through the magazine: have a quick look at, flick through, flip through, leaf through. 5 (informal) they skipped off again: run off/away, take off; informal beat it, clear off, cut and run; Brit. informal do a runner, do a bunk, scarper; N. Amer. informal light out, cut out; Austral. informal shoot through.

skirmish noun 1 the unit was caught up in a skirmish: fight, battle, clash, conflict, encounter, engagement, fray, combat. 2 there was a skirmish over the budget: argument, quarrel, squabble, contretemps, disagreement, difference of opinion, falling-out, dispute, clash, altercation; informal tiff, spat; Brit. informal row, barney, ding-dong.
 • verb they skirmished with enemy soldiers: fight, (do) battle with, engage with, close with, combat, clash with.

S skirt verb 1 he skirted the city: go round, walk round, circle. 2 the fields that skirt the highway: border, edge, flank, line, lie alongside. 3 he carefully skirted round the subject: avoid, evade, sidestep, dodge, pass over, gloss over; informal duck; Austral./NZ informal duck-shove.

skit noun comedy sketch, comedy act, parody, pastiche, burlesque, satire, pasquinade; informal spoof, take-off, send-up.

skittish adjective 1 she grew increasingly skittish: playful, lively, high-spirited, sportive, frisky; literary frolicsome, wanton. 2 his horse was skittish: restive, excitable, nervous, skittery, highly strung; informal jumpy.

skive verb (Brit. informal) malingering, play truant, truant, shirk, idle; N. Amer. cut; informal sag off; Brit. informal bunk off, swing the lead, scrimshank; N. Amer. informal gold-brick, play hookey, goof off; Austral./NZ informal play the wag.

skulduggery noun trickery, fraudulence, sharp practice, underhandedness, chicanery; informal shenanigans, funny business, monkey business; Brit. informal monkey tricks, jiggery-pokery; N. Amer. informal monkeyshines.

skulk verb lurk, loiter, hide; creep, sneak, slink, prowl, pussyfoot.

skull noun

WORD LINKS

cranial relating to the skull phrenology (in the past) the study of the shape of a person's skull as a supposed guide to character trepan (in the past) a saw used by surgeons to perforate the skull sky noun air, atmosphere, airspace; literary the heavens, the firmament, the blue, the (wide) blue yonder, the welkin, the azure, the empyrean.

■ to the skies effusively, profusely, very highly, very enthusiastically, unreservedly, fervently, fulsomely, extravagantly.

WORD LINKS

celestial relating to the sky nadir the point in the sky directly opposite the zenith, below an observer zenith the highest point in the sky reached by the sun or moon slab noun piece, block, hunk, chunk, lump; cake, tablet, brick.

slack adjective 1 the rope went slack: loose, limp, hanging, flexible. 2 slack skin: flaccid, flabby, loose, sagging, saggy. 3 business is slack: sluggish, slow, quiet, slow-moving, flat, depressed, stagnant. 4 slack accounting procedures: lax, negligent, remiss, careless, slapdash, sloppy, slipshod, lackadaisical, inefficient, casual; informal slap-happy.
 — OPPOSITES tight, taut.

• noun 1 the rope had some slack in it: looseness, play, give. 2 foreign demand will help pick up the slack: surplus, excess, residue, spare capacity. 3 a little slack in the daily routine: lull, pause, respite, break, hiatus, breathing space; informal let-up, breather.

• verb 1 the horse slacked his pace: reduce, lessen, slacken, slow. 2 (Brit. informal) no slacking! idle, shirk, be lazy, be indolent, waste time, lounge about; Brit. informal skive; N. Amer. informal goof off.

■ slack off 1 the rain has slacked off: decrease, subside, let up, ease off, abate, diminish, die down, fall off. 2 slack off a bit! relax, take things easy, let up, ease up/off, loosen up, slow down; informal chill out; N. Amer. informal hang loose.

■ slack up the horse slacked up: slow (down), decelerate, reduce speed.

slacken verb 1 he slackened his grip: loosen, release, relax, loose, lessen, weaken. 2 he slackened his pace: slow (down), become/get/make slower, decelerate, slack (up). 3 the rain is slackening: decrease, lessen, subside, ease up/off, let up, abate, slack off, diminish, die down, fall off.

– OPPOSITES tighten.

slacker noun (informal). See LAYABOUT.

slake verb quench, satisfy, sate, satiate, relieve, assuage.

slam verb 1 he slammed the door behind him: bang, shut/close with a bang, shut/close noisily, shut/close with force. 2 the car slammed into a lamp post: crash into, smash into, collide with, hit, strike, ram, plough into, run into, bump into; N. Amer. impact. 3 (informal) he was slammed by the critics. See CRITICIZE.

slander noun he could decide to sue us for slander: defamation (of character), character assassination, calumny, libel; scandalmongering, malicious gossip, disparagement, denigration, aspersions, vilification, traducement, obloquy; lie, slur, smear, false accusation; informal mud-slinging, bad-mouthing; old use contumely.

• verb they were accused of slandering the minister: defame (someone's character), blacken someone's name, tell lies about, speak ill/evil of, sully someone's reputation, libel, smear, cast aspersions on, spread scandal about, besmirch, tarnish, taint; malign, traduce, vilify, disparage, denigrate, run down; N. Amer. slur; formal derogate, calumniate.

slanderous adjective defamatory, denigratory, disparaging, libellous, pejorative, false, misrepresentative, scurrilous, scandalous, malicious, abusive, insulting; informal mud-slinging.

– OPPOSITES complimentary.

slang noun informal language, argot, colloquialisms, patois, cant.

slanging match noun (informal). See QUARREL noun.

slant verb 1 the floor was slanting: slope, tilt, incline, be at an angle, tip, cant, lean, dip, pitch, shelve, list, bank. 2 their findings were slanted in our favour: bias, distort, twist, skew, weight, give a bias to.

• noun 1 the slant of the roof: slope, incline, tilt, gradient, pitch, angle, cant, camber, inclination. 2 a feminist slant: point of view, viewpoint, standpoint, stance, angle, perspective, approach, view, attitude, position; bias, leaning.

slanting adjective oblique, sloping, at an angle, on an incline, inclined, tilting, tilted, slanted, aslant, diagonal, canted, cambered.

slap verb 1 he slapped her hard: hit, strike, smack, clout, cuff, thump, punch, spank; informal whack, thwack, wallop, biff, bash; Brit. informal slosh; N. Amer. informal boff, slug, bust; Austral./NZ informal dong, quilt; old use smite. 2 he slapped down a £10 note: fling, throw, toss, slam, bang; informal plonk. 3 slap on a coat of paint: daub, plaster, spread. 4 (informal) they slapped a huge tax on imports: impose, levy, put on.

• noun a slap across the cheek: smack, blow, thump, cuff, clout, punch, spank; informal whack, thwack, wallop, clip, biff, bash.

• adverb (informal) the bypass goes slap through the green belt: straight, right, directly, plumb; informal smack, (slap) bang; N. Amer. informal spang, smack dab.

■ a slap in the face rebuff, rejection, snub, insult, put-down, humiliation.

■ a slap on the back congratulations, commendation, approbation, approval, accolades, compliments, tributes, a pat on the back, praise, acclaim, acclamation; formal laudation.

■ a slap on the wrist reprimand, rebuke, reproof, scolding, admonishment; informal telling-off, rap over the knuckles, dressing-down; Brit. informal ticking-off, wiggling; Austral./NZ informal serve.

■ slap someone down (informal). See BERATE.

slapdash adjective careless, slipshod, sloppy, hurried, haphazard, unsystematic, untidy, messy, hit-or-miss, negligent, neglectful, lax; informal slap-happy; Brit. informal shambolic.

– OPPOSITES careful.

slap-happy adverb (informal) 1 his slap-happy friend: happy-go-lucky, devil-may-care, carefree, easy-going, nonchalant, insouciant, blithe, airy, casual. 2 slap-happy work. See SLAPDASH. 3 she's a bit slap-happy after such a narrow escape: dazed, stupefied, punch-drunk.

slap-up adjective (Brit. informal) lavish, sumptuous, elaborate, expensive, fit for a king, princely, splendid.

– OPPOSITES meagre.

slash verb 1 her tyres had been slashed: cut (open), gash, slit, split open, lacerate, knife, make an incision in. 2 (informal) the company slashed prices: reduce, cut, lower, bring down, mark down. 3 (informal) they have slashed 10,000 jobs: get rid of, axe, cut, shed.

• noun 1 a slash across his temple: cut, gash, laceration, slit, incision; wound. 2 sentence breaks are indicated by slashes: solidus, oblique, backslash.

slate verb (Brit. informal). See CRITICIZE.

slatternly adjective slovenly, untidy, messy, scruffy, unkempt, ill-groomed, dishevelled, frowzy; N. Amer. informal raggedy.

slaughter verb 1 the animals were slaughtered: kill, butcher. 2 innocent civilians are being slaughtered: massacre, murder, butcher, kill (off), annihilate, exterminate, liquidate, eliminate, destroy, decimate, wipe out, put to death; literary slay. 3 (informal) their team were slaughtered. See DEFEAT verb sense 1.

• noun 1 the slaughter of 20 demonstrators: massacre, murdering, (mass) murder, mass killing, mass execution, annihilation, extermination, liquidation, decimation, carnage, butchery, genocide; literary slaying. 2 a scene of slaughter: carnage, bloodshed, bloodletting, bloodbath. 3 (informal) their electoral slaughter. See DEFEAT noun sense 1.

slaughterhouse noun abattoir; Brit. butchery; old use shambles.

slave noun 1 the work was done by slaves: historical serf, vassal, thrall; old use bondsman, bondswoman. 2 Anna was his willing slave:

drudge, servant, man/maid of all work, lackey; informal gofer; Brit. informal skivvy, dogsbody, poodle.

– OPPOSITES freeman, master.

• verb slaving away for a pittance: toil, labour, grind, sweat, work one's fingers to the bone, work like a Trojan/dog; informal work one's socks off, kill oneself, sweat blood, slog away; Brit. informal graft; Austral./NZ informal bullock; literary travail; old use drudge, moil.

WORD LINKS

servile relating to or like a slave emancipate, manumit free someone from slavery slaver verb drool, slobber, dribble, salivate; old use drivel.

slavery noun 1 thousands were sold into slavery: bondage, enslavement, servitude; historical thrall, serfdom, vassalage. 2 this work is sheer slavery: drudgery, toil, (hard) slog, hard labour, grind; literary travail; old use moil.

– OPPOSITES freedom.

slavish adjective 1 slavish lackeys of the government: servile, subservient, fawning, obsequious, sycophantic, toadying, unctuous; informal bootlicking, forelock-tugging; N. Amer. informal apple-polishing. 2 slavish copying: unoriginal, uninspired, unimaginative, unimaginative, imitative.

slay verb (literary) 8,000 men were slain: kill, murder, put to death, butcher, cut down, cut to pieces, slaughter, massacre, shoot down, gun down, mow down, eliminate, annihilate, exterminate, liquidate; informal wipe out, bump off, do in/for.

slaying noun (literary) murder, killing, butchery, slaughter, massacre, extermination, liquidation.

sleazy adjective 1 sleazy arms dealers: corrupt, immoral, unsavoury, disreputable; informal shady, sleazoid. 2 a sleazy bar: squalid, seedy, seamy, sordid, insalubrious, mean, cheap, low-class, run down; informal scruffy, scuzzy, crummy, skanky; Brit. informal grotty.

S – OPPOSITES reputable, upmarket.

sledge noun toboggan, bobsleigh, sleigh; N. Amer. sled.

sleek adjective 1 his sleek dark hair: smooth, glossy, shiny, shining, lustrous, silken, silky. 2 the car's sleek lines: streamlined, trim, elegant, graceful. 3 sleek young men in city suits: well groomed, stylish, wealthy-looking.

sleep noun go and have a sleep: nap, doze, siesta, catnap, beauty sleep; informal snooze, forty winks, a bit of shut-eye; Brit. informal kip, zizz; children's language bye-byes; literary slumber. • verb she slept for about an hour: be asleep, doze, take a siesta, take a nap, catnap, sleep like a log/top; informal snooze, snatch forty winks, get some shut-eye; Brit. informal (have a) kip, get one's head down, (get some) zizz; N. Amer. informal catch some Zs; humorous be in the land of Nod; literary slumber.

– OPPOSITES wake up.

■ go to sleep fall asleep, get to sleep; informal drop off, nod off, drift off, crash out, flake out; N. Amer. informal sack out, zone out.

WORD LINKS

sedative, soporific causing drowsiness or sleep narcolepsy an extreme tendency to fall asleep sleepiness noun drowsiness, tiredness, somnolence, languor, languidness, doziness; lethargy, sluggishness, lassitude, enervation.

sleepless adjective wakeful, restless, without sleep, insomniac; (wide) awake, unsleeping, tossing and turning; old use watchful.

sleeplessness noun insomnia, wakefulness.

sleepwalker noun somnambulist; rare noctambulist.

sleepy adjective 1 she felt very sleepy: drowsy, tired, somnolent, languid, languorous, heavy-eyed, asleep on one's feet; lethargic, sluggish, enervated, torpid; informal dopey; literary slumberous. 2 the sleepy heat of the afternoon: soporific, sleep-inducing, somnolent. 3 a sleepy little village: quiet, peaceful, tranquil, placid, slow-moving; dull, boring.

– OPPOSITES awake, alert.

sleight of hand noun 1 impressive sleight of hand: dexterity, adroitness, deftness, skill. 2 financial sleight of hand: deception, deceit, dissimulation, chicanery, trickery, sharp practice.

slender adjective 1 her tall slender figure: slim, lean, willowy, sylphlike, svelte, lissom, graceful; slight, slightly built, thin, skinny. 2 slender evidence: meagre, limited, slight, scanty, scant, sparse, paltry, insubstantial, insufficient, deficient, negligible; formal exiguous. 3 the chances seemed slender: faint, remote, flimsy, tenuous, fragile, slim; unlikely, improbable.

– OPPOSITES plump.

sleuth noun (informal) (private) detective, (private) investigator; informal private eye, snoop, sleuth-hound; N. Amer. informal shamus, gumshoe.

slice noun 1 a slice of fruitcake: piece, portion, slab, rasher, sliver, wafer, shaving. 2 a huge slice of public spending: share, part, portion, tranche, piece, proportion, allocation, percentage.

• verb 1 slice the cheese thinly: cut (up), carve. 2 one man had his ear sliced off: cut off, sever, chop off, shear off.

slick adjective 1 a slick advertising campaign: efficient, smooth, smooth-running, polished, well organized, well run, streamlined. 2 his slick use of words: glib, smooth, fluent, plausible. 3 a slick salesman: suave, urbane, polished, assured, self-assured, smooth-talking, glib; informal smarmy. 4 her slick brown hair: shiny, glossy, shining, sleek, smooth, oiled. 5 the pavements were slick with rain: slippery, slithery, wet, greasy; informal sloppy.

• verb his hair was slicked down; smooth, sleek, grease, oil, gel; informal smarm.

slide verb 1 the glass slid across the table:

glide, move smoothly, slip, slither, skim, skate; skid, slew. 2 tears slid down her cheeks: trickle, run, flow, pour, stream. 3 four men slid out of the shadows: creep, steal, slink, slip, tiptoe, sidle. 4 the country is sliding into recession: sink, fall, drop, descend; decline, degenerate.

• noun 1 the current slide in house prices: fall, decline, drop, slump, downturn, downswing. 2 a slide show: transparency, diapositive.

— OPPOSITES rise.

■ let something slide neglect, pay little/no attention to, not attend to, be remiss about, let something go downhill.

slight adjective 1 I'm afraid the chance of success is slight: small, modest, tiny, minute, inappreciable, negligible, insignificant, minimal, remote, slim, faint; informal minuscule; formal exiguous. 2 the book is a slight work: minor, inconsequential, trivial, unimportant, lightweight, superficial, shallow. 3 Elizabeth's slight figure: slim, slender, petite, diminutive, small, delicate, dainty.

— OPPOSITES considerable.

• verb he had been slighted: insult, snub, rebuff, repulse, spurn, treat disrespectfully, give someone the cold shoulder, cut (dead), scorn; informal give someone the brush-off, freeze out, stiff-arm.

— OPPOSITES respect.

• noun an unintended slight: insult, affront, snub, rebuff; informal put-down, dig.

— OPPOSITES compliment.

slighting adjective insulting, disparaging, derogatory, disrespectful, denigratory, pejorative, abusive, offensive, defamatory, slanderous, scurrilous; disdainful, scornful, contemptuous; old use contumelious.

slightly adverb a little, a bit, somewhat, rather, moderately, to a certain extent, faintly, vaguely, a shade.

— OPPOSITES very.

slim adjective 1 she was tall and slim: slender, lean, thin, willowy, sylphlike, svelte, lissom, trim, slight, slightly built. 2 a slim silver bracelet: narrow, slender, slimline. 3 a slim chance of escape: slight, small, slender, faint, poor, remote, unlikely, improbable.

— OPPOSITES plump.

• verb 1 I'm trying to slim: lose weight, get thinner, get into shape; N. Amer. slenderize. 2 the number of staff had been slimmed down: reduce, cut (down/back), scale down, decrease, diminish, pare down.

slime noun ooze, sludge, muck, mud, mire; informal goo, gunk, gook, gloop; Brit. informal gunge; N. Amer. informal guck, glop.

slimy adjective 1 the floor was slimy: slippery, slithery, greasy, muddy, mucky, sludgy, wet, sticky; informal sloppy, gooey, gloopy. 2 (informal) her slimy press agent. See OBSEQUIOUS.

slip noun 1 she had her arm in a sling: (support) bandage, support, strap. 2 armed only with a sling: catapult, slingshot; Austral./NZ shanghai.

• verb 1 a hammock was slung between two trees: hang, suspend, string, swing. 2 (informal) she slung her jacket on the sofa. See THROW verb sense 1.

slink verb creep, sneak, steal, slip, slide, sidle, tiptoe, pussyfoot.

slinky adjective (informal) 1 a slinky black dress: tight-fitting, close-fitting, figure-hugging, sexy. 2 her slinky elegance: sinuous, willowy, graceful, sleek.

slip<sup>1</sup> verb 1 she slipped on the ice: slide, skid, slither, glide; fall (over), lose one's balance, tumble. 2 the envelope slipped through Luke's fingers: fall, drop, slide. 3 we slipped out by a back door: creep, steal, sneak, slide, sidle, slope, slink, tiptoe. 4 standards have slipped: decline, deteriorate, degenerate, worsen, get worse, go downhill, fall (off), drop; informal go to the dogs, go to pot. 5 the bank's shares slipped 1.5p: drop, go down, sink, slump, decrease, depreciate. 6 the hours slipped by: pass, elapse, go by/past, roll by/past, fly by/past, tick by/past. 7 she slipped the map into her pocket: put, tuck, shove; informal pop, stick, stuff. 8 Sarah slipped into a black skirt: put on, pull on, don, dress/clothe oneself in; change into. 9 she slipped out of her clothes: take off, remove, pull off, doff; Brit. informal peel off. 10 he slipped the knot of his tie: untie, unfasten, undo.

• noun 1 a single slip could send them plummeting downwards: false step, misstep, slide, skid, fall, tumble. 2 a careless slip: mistake, error, blunder, gaffe, slip of the tongue/pen; oversight, omission, lapse, inaccuracy; informal slip-up, boo-boo, howler; Brit. informal boob, clanger, bloomer; N. Amer. informal goof, blooper, bloop. 3 a silk slip: underskirt, petticoat, underslip.

■ give someone the slip (informal) escape from, get away from, evade, dodge, elude, lose, shake off, throw off (the scent), get clear of.

■ let something slip reveal, disclose, divulge, let out, give away, blurt out; give the game away; informal let on, blab, let the cat out of the bag, spill the beans; Brit. informal blow the gaff.

■ slip away 1 they managed to slip away: escape, get away, break free; informal fly the coop; Brit. informal do a bunk, do a runner; N. Amer. informal take a powder. 2 she slipped away in her sleep. See DIE sense 1.

■ slip up (informal) make a mistake, (make a) blunder, get something wrong, make an error, err; informal make a bloomer, make a boo-boo; Brit. informal boob, drop a clanger; N. Amer. informal goof up.

slip<sup>2</sup> noun 1 a slip of paper: piece of paper, scrap of paper, sheet, note; chit; informal sticky. 2 they took slips from rare plants: cutting, graft; scion, shoot, offshoot.

■ a slip of a — small, slender, slim, slight, slightly built, petite, little, tiny, diminutive; informal pint-sized.

slipper noun 1 he pulled on his slippers: carpet slipper, bedroom slipper, house shoe; N. Amer. slipperette. 2 satin slippers: pump, mule.

slippery adjective 1 the roads are slippery: slithery, greasy, oily, icy, glassy, smooth, slimy, wet; informal slippery. 2 a slippery customer: evasive, unreliable, unpredictable; devious, crafty, cunning, wily, tricky, artful, slick, sly, sneaky, scheming, untrustworthy, deceitful, duplicitous, dishonest, treacherous, two-faced; N. Amer. snide; informal shady, shifty; Brit. informal dodgy; Austral./NZ informal shonky.

slipshod adjective careless, lackadaisical, slapdash, sloppy, disorganized, haphazard, hit-or-miss, untidy, messy, unsystematic, unmethodical, casual, negligent, neglectful, remiss, lax, slack; informal slap-happy.
– OPPOSITES meticulous.

slip-up noun (informal) mistake, slip, error, blunder, oversight, omission, gaffe, slip of the tongue/pen, inaccuracy; informal boo-boo, howler; Brit. informal boob, clanger, bloomer; N. Amer. informal goof, blooper, bloop.

slit noun 1 three diagonal slits: cut, incision, split, slash, gash, laceration. 2 a slit in the curtains: opening, gap, chink, crack, aperture, slot.
• verb he threatened to slit her throat: cut, slash, split open, slice open, gash, lacerate, make an incision in.

slither verb slide, slip, glide, wriggle, crawl; skid.

sliver noun splinter, shard, shiver, chip, flake, shred, scrap, slither, shaving, paring, piece, fragment.

slob noun (informal) layabout, good-for-nothing, sluggard, laggard; informal slacker, couch potato; old use sloven.

slobber verb drool, slaver, dribble, salivate; old use drivel.

slog verb 1 they were all slogging away: work hard, toil, labour, work one's fingers to the bone, work like a Trojan/dog, exert oneself, grind, slave, grub, plough, plod, peg; informal beaver, plug, work one's socks off, sweat blood; Brit. informal graft; Austral./NZ informal bullock; literary travail; old use drudge, toil. 2 they slogged around the streets: trudge, tramp, traipse, toil, plod, trek, footslog, drag oneself.
– OPPOSITES relax.

• noun 1 10 months' hard slog: hard work, toil, toiling, labour, effort, exertion, grind, drudgery; informal sweat; Brit. informal graft; Austral./NZ informal (hard) yakka; literary travail; old use toil. 2 a steady uphill slog: trudge, tramp, traipse, plod, trek, footslog.
– OPPOSITES leisure.

slogan noun catchphrase, catchline, jingle; N. Amer. informal tag line.

slop verb water slopped over the edge: spill, flow, overflow, run, slosh, splash.
■ slop around/about (Brit. informal) laze (around/about), lounge (around/about), loll (around/about), loaf (around/about), slouch (about/around); informal hang around; Brit. informal hang about, mooch about/around;

N. Amer. informal bum around, lollygag.

slope noun 1 the slope of the roof: gradient, incline, angle, slant, inclination, pitch, decline, ascent, declivity, acclivity, rise, fall, tilt, tip, downslope, upslope; N. Amer. grade, downgrade, upgrade. 2 a grassy slope: hill, hillside, hillock, bank, escarpment, scarp; literary steep. 3 the ski slopes: piste, run, nursery slope, dry slope; N. Amer. trail.

• verb the garden sloped down to a stream:

slant, incline, tilt; drop away, fall away, decline, descend, shelve, lean; rise, ascend, climb.

■ slope off (informal) leave, go away, slip away, steal away, slink off, creep off, sneak off; informal push off, clear off.

sloping adjective at a slant, on the slant, at an angle, slanting, slanted, leaning, inclining, inclined, angled, cambered, canted, tilting, tilted, dipping, declivitous, acclivitous.

– OPPOSITES level.

sloppy adjective 1 sloppy chicken curry: runny, watery, thin, liquid, semi-liquid, mushy; informal gloopy. 2 their defending was sloppy: careless, slapdash, slipshod, lackadaisical, haphazard, lax, slack, slovenly; informal slap-happy; Brit. informal shambolic.

3 sloppy T-shirts: baggy, loose-fitting, loose, generously cut; shapeless, sack-like, oversized. 4 sloppy letters: sentimental, mawkish, cloying, slushy, saccharine, sugary, syrupy; romantic, hearts-and-flowers; informal schmaltzy, lovey-dovey; Brit. informal soppy; N. Amer. informal cornball, sappy, hokey, threehankie.

slosh verb 1 beer sloshed over the side of the glass: spill, slop, splash, flow, overflow.

2 workers sloshed round in boots: splash, swash, squelch, wade; informal splosh. 3 she sloshed more wine into her glass: pour, slop, splash. 4 (Brit. informal) Gary sloshed him. See HIT verb sense 1.

slot noun 1 he slid a coin into the slot: aperture, slit, crack, hole, opening. 2 a mid-morning slot: spot, time, period, niche, space; informal window.

• verb he slotted a cassette into the machine: insert, put, place, slide, slip.

sloth noun laziness, idleness, indolence, slothfulness, inactivity, inertia, sluggishness, shiftlessness, apathy, accidie, listlessness, lassitude, lethargy, languor, torpidity; literary hebetude.

– OPPOSITES industriousness.

slothful adjective lazy, idle, indolent, workshy, inactive, sluggish, apathetic, lethargic, listless, languid, torpid; informal bone idle; old use otiose.

slouch verb slump, hunch; loll, droop.

slovenly adjective 1 his slovenly appearance: scruffy, untidy, messy, unkempt, ill-groomed, slatternly, dishevelled, bedraggled, tousled, rumpled, frowzy; informal slobbish, sloppy; N. Amer. informal raggedy, raunchy. 2 his work is slovenly: careless, slapdash, sloppy, slipshod, haphazard, hit-or-miss, untidy, messy, negligent, lax, lackadaisical, slack; informal slap-happy.

– OPPOSITES tidy, careful.

slow adjective 1 their slow walk home:

unhurried, leisurely, steady, sedate, slow-moving, plodding, dawdling, sluggish, sluggardly. 2 a slow process: long-drawn-out, time-consuming, lengthy, protracted, prolonged, gradual. 3 he can be so slow: obtuse, stupid, unperceptive, insensitive, bovine, stolid, slow-witted, dull-witted, unintelligent, doltish, witless; informal dense, dim, dim-witted, thick, slow on the uptake, dumb, dopey, boneheaded; Brit. informal dozy; N. Amer. informal chowderheaded.

4 they were slow to voice their opinions: reluctant, unwilling, disinclined, loath, hesitant, afraid, chary, shy. 5 the slow season: sluggish, slack, quiet, inactive, flat, depressed, stagnant, dead. 6 a slow narrative: dull, boring, uninteresting, unexciting, uneventful, tedious, tiresome, wearisome, monotonous, dreary, lacklustre.

– OPPOSITES fast.

• verb 1 the traffic forced him to slow down: reduce speed, go slower, decelerate, brake. 2 you need to slow down: take it easy, relax, ease up/off, take a break, slack off, let up; informal chill out; N. Amer. informal hang loose. 3 this would slow down economic growth: hold back/up, delay, retard, set back; restrict, check, curb, inhibit, impede, obstruct, hinder, hamper; old use stay.

– OPPOSITES accelerate.

slowly adverb 1 Rose walked off slowly: at a slow pace, without hurrying, unhurriedly, steadily, at a leisurely pace, at a snail's pace; Music adagio, lento, largo. 2 her health is improving slowly: gradually, bit by bit, little by little, slowly but surely, step by step.

– OPPOSITES quickly.

sludge noun mud, muck, mire, ooze, silt, alluvium; informal gunk, crud, gloop, gook, goo; Brit. informal gunge, grot; N. Amer. informal guck, glop.

sluggish adjective 1 Alex felt tired and sluggish: lethargic, listless, lacking in energy, lifeless, inert, inactive, slow, torpid, languid, apathetic, weary, tired, fatigued, sleepy, drowsy, enervated; lazy, idle, indolent, slothful, sluggardly; Medicine asthenic; N. Amer. logy; informal dozy, dopey. 2 the economy is sluggish: inactive, quiet, slow, slack, flat, depressed, stagnant.

– OPPOSITES vigorous.

sluice verb 1 crews sluiced down the decks: wash (down), rinse, clean, cleanse. 2 the water sluiced out: pour, flow, run, gush, stream, course, flood, surge, spill.

slum noun hovel; (slums) ghetto, shanty town.

slumber (literary) verb the child slumbered fitfully. See SLEEP verb.

• noun an uneasy slumber. See SLEEP noun.

slummy adjective seedy, insalubrious, squalid, sleazy, run down, down at heel, shabby, dilapidated; informal scruffy, skanky; Brit. informal grotty; N. Amer. informal shacky.

– OPPOSITES upmarket.

slump verb 1 he slumped into a chair: sit heavily, flop, flump, collapse, sink, fall; informal plonk oneself. 2 houses prices slumped: fall steeply, plummet, tumble, drop, go down; informal crash, nosedive. 3 reading standards have slumped: decline, deteriorate, degenerate, worsen, slip, go downhill.

• noun 1 a slump in profits: steep fall, drop, tumble, downturn, downswing, slide, decline, decrease; informal nosedive. 2 an economic slump: recession, economic decline, depression, slowdown, stagnation.

– OPPOSITES rise, boom.

slur verb she was slurring her words: mumble, speak unclearly, garble.

• noun a gross slur: insult, slight, slander, slanderous statement, aspersion, smear, allegation.

slush noun 1 he wiped the slush off his shoes: melting snow, wet snow, mush, sludge. 2 (informal) the slush of romantic films: sentimentality, mawkishness, sentimentalism; informal schmaltz, mush, slushiness, corniness; Brit. informal sopiness; N. Amer. informal sappiness, hokeyness.

slut noun promiscuous woman, prostitute, whore; informal tart, floozie, pro; Brit. informal scrubber, slag, slapper; N. Amer. informal tramp, hooker, hustler, roundheel; dated scarlet woman, loose woman, hussy, trollop; old use harlot, strumpet, wanton.

sly adjective 1 she's rather sly: cunning, crafty, clever, wily, artful, guileful, tricky, scheming, devious, deceitful, duplicitous, dishonest, underhand, sneaky; old use subtle. 2 a sly grin: roguish, mischievous, impish, playful, wicked, arch, knowing. 3 she took a sly sip of water: surreptitious, furtive, stealthy, covert.

■ on the sly in secret, secretly, furtively, surreptitiously, covertly, clandestinely, on the quiet, behind someone's back.

smack<sup>1</sup> noun 1 she gave him a smack: slap, clout, cuff, blow, spank, rap, swat, crack, thump, punch; informal whack, thwack, clip, biff, wallop, swipe, bop, belt, bash, sock. 2 the parcel landed with a smack: bang, crash, crack, thud, thump. 3 (informal) a smack on the lips: kiss, peck; informal smacker.

• verb 1 he tried to smack her: slap, hit, strike, spank, cuff, clout, thump, punch, swat; box someone's ears; informal whack, clip, wallop, biff, swipe, bop, belt, bash, sock; Scottish & N. English informal skelp; N. Amer. informal boff, slug, bust. 2 the waiter smacked a plate down: bang, slam, crash, thump; sling, fling; informal plonk; N. Amer. informal plunk.

• adverb (informal) smack in the middle: exactly, precisely, straight, right, directly, squarely, dead, plumb, point-blank; informal slap bang; N. Amer. informal smack dab.

smack<sup>2</sup> noun 1 the beer has a smack of hops: taste, flavour, savour. 2 a smack of bitterness in his words: trace, tinge, touch, suggestion, hint, overtone, suspicion, whisper.

■ smack of 1 the tea smacked of tannin: taste of, have the flavour of. 2 the plan smacked of self-promotion: suggest, hint at, have overtones of, give the impression of, have the stamp of, seem like; smell of, reek of.

small adjective 1 a small flat: little, compact, bijou, tiny, miniature, mini; minute, microscopic, nanoscopic, minuscule; toy, baby; poky, cramped, boxy; Scottish wee; informal tiddly, teeny, teensy, itty-bitsy, itty-bitty, pocket-sized, half-pint, dinky, ickle; Brit. informal titchy; N. Amer. informal little-bitty. 2 a very small man: short, little, petite, diminutive, elfin, tiny; puny, undersized, stunted, dwarfish, midget, pygmy, Lilliputian; Scottish wee; informal teeny, pint-sized. 3 a few small changes: slight, minor, unimportant, trifling, trivial, insignificant, inconsequential, negligible, nugatory, infinitesimal; informal minuscule, piffling, piddling. 4 small helpings: inadequate, meagre, insufficient, ungenerous; informal measly, stingy, mingy, pathetic. 5 they made him feel small: foolish, stupid, insignificant, unimportant; embarrassed, humiliated, uncomfortable, mortified, ashamed; crushed. 6 a small farmer: small-scale, small-time; modest, unpretentious, humble.

– OPPOSITES big, tall, major, ample, substantial.

small change noun coins, change, coppers, silver, cash, specie.

small-minded adjective narrow-minded, petty, mean-spirited, uncharitable; close-minded, short-sighted, myopic, blinkered, inward-looking, unimaginative, parochial, provincial, insular, small-town; intolerant, illiberal, conservative, hidebound, dyed-in-the-wool, set in one's ways, inflexible; prejudiced, bigoted; Brit. parish-pump, blimpish.

– OPPOSITES tolerant.

small-time adjective minor, small-scale; petty, unimportant, insignificant, inconsequential; N. Amer. minor-league; informal penny-ante, piddling; N. Amer. informal two-bit, bush-league, picayune.

– OPPOSITES major.

smarmy adjective (informal) unctuous, ingratiating, slick, oily, greasy, obsequious, sycophantic, fawning; informal slimy, sucky.

smart adjective 1 you look very smart: well dressed, stylish, chic, fashionable, modish, elegant, neat, spruce, trim, dapper; N. Amer. trig; informal snazzy, natty, snappy, sharp, cool; N. Amer. informal sassy, spiffy, fly, kicky. 2 a smart restaurant: fashionable, stylish, high-class, exclusive, chic, fancy; Brit. upmarket; N. Amer. high-toned; informal trendy, posh, ritzy, plush, classy, swanky, glitzy; Brit. informal swish; N. Amer. informal swank. 3 (informal) he's the smart one: clever, bright, intelligent, sharp-witted, quick-witted, shrewd, astute, able; perceptive, percipient; informal brainy, savvy, quick on the uptake. 4 a smart pace: brisk, quick, fast, rapid, swift, lively, spanking, energetic, vigorous; informal snappy, cracking. 5 a smart blow on the snout: sharp, severe, forceful, violent.

– OPPOSITES untidy, downmarket, stupid, slow, gentle.

• verb 1 her eyes were smarting: sting, burn, tingle, prickle; hurt, ache. 2 she smarted at the accusations: feel annoyed, feel upset, take offence, feel aggrieved, feel indignant, be put out, feel hurt.

■ look smart (Brit.) be quick, hurry up, speed up; informal make it snappy, get cracking, get moving, step on it, get a wiggle on; Brit. informal get one's skates on, stir one's stumps.

smarten verb spruce up, clean up, tidy up, neaten, tidy; groom, freshen, preen, primp, beautify; redecorate, refurbish, modernize; informal do up, titivate, doll up; Brit. informal tart up, posh up; N. Amer. informal gussy up.

smash verb 1 he smashed a window: break, shatter, splinter, crack, shiver; informal bust. 2 she's smashed the car: crash, wreck; Brit. write off; Brit. informal prang; N. Amer. informal total. 3 they smashed into a wall: crash into, collide with, hit, strike, ram, smack into, slam into, plough into, run into, bump into; N. Amer. impact. 4 Don smashed him over the head: hit, strike, thump, punch, smack; informal whack, bash, biff, bop, clout, wallop, crown; Brit. informal slosh, dot; N. Amer. informal slug. 5 he smashed their hopes of glory: destroy, wreck, ruin, shatter, dash, crush, devastate, demolish, overturn, scotch; informal put the kibosh on, do for, put paid to, queer; Brit. informal scupper.

• noun 1 the smash of glass: breaking, shattering, crash. 2 a motorway smash: crash, collision, accident, bump; Brit. RTA; N. Amer. wreck; informal pile-up, smash-up; Brit. informal prang, shunt. 3 (informal) a box-office smash: success, sensation, sell-out, triumph; informal (smash) hit, winner, crowd-puller, knockout, wow, biggie.

smashing adjective (Brit. informal). See MARVELOUS sense 2.

smattering noun bit, little, modicum, touch, soupçon; nodding acquaintance; rudiments, basics; informal smidgen, smidge, tad.

smear verb 1 the table was smeared with grease: streak, smudge, mark, soil, dirty; informal splotch, splodge; literary besmear. 2 smear the meat with olive oil: cover, coat, grease; literary bedaub. 3 she smeared sunblock on her skin: spread, rub, daub, slap, slather, smother, plaster, cream, slick; apply; literary besmear. 4 they are trying to smear our reputation: sully, tarnish, blacken, drag through the mud, taint, damage, defame, discredit, malign, slander, libel; N. Amer. slur; informal do a hatchet job on; formal calumniate; literary besmirch.

• noun 1 smears of blood: streak, smudge, daub, dab, spot, patch, blotch, mark; informal splotch, splodge. 2 press smears about his closest aides: false accusation, lie, untruth, slur, slander, libel, defamation, calumny.

smell noun the smell of the kitchen: odour, aroma, fragrance, scent, perfume, redolence; bouquet, nose; stench, stink, reek; Brit. informal pong, niff, whiff, hum; Scottish informal guff; N. Amer. informal funk; literary miasma.

• verb 1 he smelled her perfume: scent, get a sniff of, detect. 2 the dogs smelled each other: sniff, nose. 3 the cellar smells: stink, reek, have a bad smell; Brit. informal pong, hum, niff, whiff. 4 it smells like a hoax to me: smack of, have the hallmarks of, seem like, have the air of, suggest.

WORD LINKS

olfactory relating to the sense of smell olfaction the sense of smell deodorant a substance which prevents or conceals bodily odours smelly adjective foul-smelling, stinking, reeking, fetid, malodorous, pungent, rank, noxious; off, gamy, high; musty, fusty; informal stinky; Brit. informal pongy, whiffy, humming; N. Amer. informal funky; literary miasmic, noisome.

smile verb he smiled at her: beam, grin (from ear to ear), dimple, twinkle; smirk, simper; leer.

– OPPOSITES frown.

• noun the smile on her face: beam, grin, twinkle; smirk, simper; leer.

smirk verb smile smugly, simper, snigger; leer.

smitten adjective 1 he was smitten with cholera: struck down, laid low, suffering, affected, afflicted, plagued, stricken. 2 Jane's smitten with you: infatuated, besotted, in love, obsessed, head over heels; enamoured of, attracted to, taken with; captivated, enchanted, under someone's spell; informal bowled over, swept off one's feet, crazy about, mad about, keen on, gone on, sweet on; Brit. informal potty about.

smog noun fog, haze; fumes, smoke, pollution; Brit. informal pea-souper.

smoke verb 1 the fire was smoking: smoulder, emit smoke; old use reek. 2 he smoked his cigarette: puff on, draw on, pull on; inhale; light; informal drag on. 3 they smoke their salmon: cure, preserve, dry. • noun the smoke from the bonfire: fumes, exhaust, gas, vapour; smog.

smoky adjective 1 the smoky atmosphere: smoke-filled, sooty, smoggy, hazy, foggy, murky, thick; Brit. informal foggy. 2 her smoky eyes: grey, sooty, dark, black.

smooth adjective 1 the smooth flat rocks: even, level, flat, plane; unwrinkled, featureless; glassy, glossy, silky, polished. 2 his face was smooth: clean-shaven, hairless. 3 a smooth sauce: creamy, velvety, blended. 4 a smooth sea: calm, still, tranquil, undisturbed, unruffled, even, flat, waveless, like a millpond. 5 the smooth running of the equipment: steady, regular, uninterrupted, unbroken, fluid, fluent; straightforward, easy, effortless, trouble-free. 6 a smooth wine: mellow, mild, agreeable, pleasant. 7 the smooth tone of the clarinet: dulcet, soft, soothing, mellow, sweet, silvery, honeyed, mellifluous, melodious, lilting, lyrical, harmonious. 8 a smooth, confident man: suave, urbane, sophisticated, polished, debonair; smooth-talking, glib, slick, ingratiating, unctuous; informal smarmy.

– OPPOSITES uneven, rough, hairy, lumpy, irregular, raucous, gauche.

• verb 1 she smoothed the soil: flatten, level (out/off), even out/off; press, roll, steamroll, iron, plane. 2 a plan to smooth the way for the agreement: ease, facilitate, clear the way for, pave the way for, expedite, assist, aid, help, oil the wheels of, lubricate.

smoothly adverb 1 her hair was combed smoothly back: evenly, level, flat, flush. 2 the door closed smoothly: fluidly, fluently, steadily, frictionlessly, easily; quietly. 3 the plan had gone smoothly: without a hitch, like clockwork, without difficulty, easily, effortlessly, according to plan, swimmingly, satisfactorily, very well; informal like a dream.

smooth-talking adjective (informal) persuasive, glib, plausible, silver-tongued, slick, eloquent, fast-talking; ingratiating, flattering, unctuous, obsequious, sycophantic; informal smarmy.

– OPPOSITES blunt.

smother verb 1 she tried to smother her baby: suffocate, asphyxiate, stifle, choke. 2 she smothered the flames: extinguish, put out, snuff out, dampen, douse, stamp out, choke. 3 we smothered ourselves with sunscreen: smear, daub, spread, cover; literary besmear, bedaub. 4 their granny always smothers them: overwhelm, inundate, envelop, cocoon; Brit. wrap someone in cotton wool. 5 she smothered a sigh: stifle, muffle, strangle, repress, suppress, hold back, fight back, bite back, swallow, contain, bottle up, conceal, hide; bite one's lip; informal keep a/the lid on.

smoulder verb 1 the bonfire still smouldered: smoke, glow, burn; old use reek. 2 she was smouldering with resentment: seethe, boil, fume, burn, simmer, be boiling over, be beside oneself; informal be livid.

smudge noun a smudge of blood: streak, smear, mark, stain, blotch, stripe, blob, dab; informal splotch, splodge.

• verb 1 her face was smudged with dust: streak, mark, dirty, soil, blotch, blacken, smear, blot, daub, stain; informal splotch, splodge; literary bedaub, besmirch. 2 she smudged her make-up: smear, streak, mess up.

smug adjective self-satisfied, self-congratulatory, complacent, superior, pleased with oneself, self-approving; Brit. informal like the cat that got the cream, I'm-all-right-Jack.

smuggle verb import/export illegally, traffic in, run.

smuggler noun contrabandist, runner, courier; informal mule, moonshiner.

smutty adjective vulgar, rude, crude, dirty, filthy, salacious, coarse, obscene, lewd, pornographic, X-rated; risqué, racy, earthy, bawdy, suggestive, naughty, ribald, off colour; informal blue, raunchy; Brit. informal near the knuckle, saucy; N. Amer. informal gamy; euphemistic adult.

snack noun she made herself a snack: light meal, sandwich, treat, refreshments, nibbles, titbit(s); informal bite (to eat); Brit. informal elevenes.

• verb don't snack on sugary foods: eat between meals, nibble, munch; informal graze.

snaffle verb (informal). See STEAL verb sense 1.

snag noun 1 the snag is that this might affect inflation: complication, difficulty, catch, hitch, obstacle, stumbling block, pitfall, problem, impediment, hindrance, inconvenience, setback, hurdle, disadvantage, downside, drawback. 2 smooth rails with no snags: sharp projection, jag; thorn, spur. 3 a snag in her tights: tear, rip, hole, gash, slash; ladder, run.
• verb 1 she snagged her tights: tear, rip, ladder. 2 the zip snagged on the fabric: catch, get caught, hook.

snake noun the snake shed its skin: literary serpent; Austral./NZ rhyming slang Joe Blake.

• verb the road snakes inland: twist, wind, meander, zigzag, curve.

■ snake in the grass traitor, turncoat, betrayer, informer, back-stabber, double-crosser, quisling, Judas; fraudster, trickster, charlatan; informal two-timer, rat.

WORD LINKS

colubrine, ophidian, serpentine relating to or resembling a snake gorgon (in Greek mythology) each of three sisters who had snakes as hair slough (of a snake) shed an old skin

snap verb 1 the ruler snapped: break, fracture, splinter, come apart, split, crack; informal bust. 2 she snapped after years of violence: flare up, lose one's self-control, freak out, go to pieces, get worked up; informal crack up, lose one's cool, blow one's top, fly off the handle; Brit. informal throw a wobbly. 3 a dog was snapping at his heels: bite; gnash its teeth. 4 'Shut up!' Anna snapped: say roughly, say brusquely, say abruptly, say angrily, bark, snarl, growl; retort, rejoin, retaliate; round on someone; informal jump down someone's throat. 5 photographers snapped the royals: photograph, picture, take, shoot, film, capture.

• noun 1 she closed her purse with a snap: click, crack, pop. 2 a cold snap: period, spell, time, interval, stretch; Brit. informal patch. 3 (informal) holiday snaps: photograph, picture, photo, shot, snapshot, print, slide, frame, still; Brit. enprint.

■ snap out of it (informal) recover, get a grip, pull oneself together, get over it, get better, cheer up, perk up; informal buck up.

■ snap something up buy eagerly, accept eagerly, jump at, take advantage of, grab, seize (on), grasp with both hands, pounce on.

snappy adjective (informal) 1 a snappy mood: irritable, irascible, short-tempered, quick-tempered, hot-tempered, snappish, fiery, touchy, volatile; cross, crabby, crotchety, cantankerous, grumpy, bad-tempered, testy, tetchy; informal chippy, grouchy, cranky, on a short fuse; Brit. informal narky, ratty, eggy, like a bear with a sore head; N. Amer. informal soreheaded. 2 a snappy catchphrase: concise, succinct, memorable, catchy, neat, clever, crisp, pithy, witty, incisive, brief, short. 3 a snappy dresser: smart, fashionable, stylish, chic, modish, elegant, neat, spruce, trim, dapper; informal snazzy, natty, sharp, nifty, cool; N. Amer. informal sassy, spiffy, fly.

– OPPOSITES peaceable, long-winded, slovenly.

snare noun 1 the hare was caught in a snare: trap, gin, net, noose. 2 avoid the snares of the new law: pitfall, trap, catch, danger, hazard, peril; web, mesh; literary toils.

• verb 1 game birds were snared: trap, catch, net, bag, ensnare, entrap. 2 he managed to snare an heiress: ensnare, catch, get hold of, bag, hook, land.

snarl<sup>1</sup> verb 1 the wolves are snarling: growl, gnash one's teeth. 2 'Shut it!' he snarled: say roughly, say brusquely, say nastily, bark, snap, growl; informal jump down someone's throat.

snarl<sup>2</sup> verb 1 the rope got snarled up in a bush: tangle, entangle, entwine, enmesh, ravel, knot, foul. 2 this case has snarled up the court process: complicate, confuse, muddle, jumble; informal mess up.

snarl-up noun (informal) 1 a snarl-up in Edinburgh: traffic jam, tailback, gridlock. 2 a snarl-up in terminology: muddle, mess, tangle, jumble; misunderstanding, misinterpretation, misconception, confusion; mistake, mix-up, bungle; informal hash, foul-up, screw-up; N. Amer. informal snafu.

snatch verb 1 she snatched the sandwich: grab, seize, take hold of, get one's hands on, take, pluck; grasp at, clutch at. 2 (informal) someone snatched my bag. See STEAL verb sense 1. 3 (informal) she snatched the newborn from the hospital. See ABDUCT. 4 he snatched victory: seize, pluck, wrest, achieve, secure, obtain; scrape.

• noun 1 brief snatches of sleep: period, spell, time, fit, bout, interval, stretch. 2 a snatch of conversation: fragment, snippet, bit, scrap, part, extract, excerpt, portion.

snazzy adjective (informal). See STYLISH.

sneak verb 1 sneaked out: creep, slink, steal, slip, slide, sidle, edge, move furtively, tiptoe, pussyfoot, pad, prowl. 2 she sneaked a camera in: bring/take surreptitiously, bring/take secretly, bring/take illicitly, smuggle, spirit, slip. 3 he sneaked a doughnut: take furtively, take surreptitiously; steal; informal snatch. 4 (Brit. informal) the little squirt sneaked on me: inform, tell tales; report, give someone away, be disloyal, sell out, stab in the back; informal squeal, rat, blow the whistle, peach, snitch, stitch up; Brit. informal grass, split, shop; Scottish informal clype; N. Amer. informal finger; Austral./NZ informal dob.

• noun (Brit. informal) Ethel was the class sneak: informer, traitor; informal snitch, squealer, rat, whistle-blower; Brit. informal grass; Scottish informal clype; N. Amer. informal fink; Austral./NZ informal dobber.

• adjective a sneak preview: furtive, secret, stealthy, sly, surreptitious, clandestine, covert; private, quick.

sneaking adjective 1 she had a sneaking admiration for him: secret, private, hidden, concealed, unvoiced, undisclosed, undeclared, unavowed. 2 a sneaking feeling: niggling, nagging, lurking, insidious, lingering, gnawing, persistent.

sneaky adjective sly, crafty, cunning, wily, artful, scheming, devious, guileful, deceitful, duplicitous, underhand, unscrupulous; furtive, secretive, secret, stealthy, surreptitious, clandestine, covert; informal foxy, shifty, dirty.

— OPPOSITES honest.

sneer noun 1 she had a sneer on her face: smirk, curl of the lip, disparaging smile, contemptuous smile, cruel smile. 2 the sneers of others: jibe, barb, jeer, taunt, insult, slight, affront, slur; informal dig.

• verb 1 he looked at me and sneered: smirk, curl one's lip, smile disparagingly, smile contemptuously, smile cruelly. 2 it is easy to sneer at them: scoff at, scorn, disdain, mock, jeer at, hold in contempt, ridicule, deride, insult, slight; N. Amer. slur.

snicker verb they all snickered at her: snigger, titter, giggle, chortle, simper.

• noun he could not suppress a snicker: snigger, titter, giggle, chortle, simper.

snide adjective disparaging, derogatory, deprecating, denigratory, insulting, contemptuous; mocking, taunting, sneering, scornful, derisive, sarcastic, spiteful, nasty, mean; Brit. informal sarky.

sniff verb 1 she sniffed and blew her nose: inhale, breathe in; snuffle. 2 Tom sniffed the fruit: smell, scent, get a whiff of.

• noun 1 she gave a loud sniff: snuffle, inhalation. 2 a sniff of fresh air: smell, scent, whiff; lungful. 3 (informal) the first sniff of trouble: indication, hint, whiff, inkling, suggestion, whisper, trace, sign, suspicion.

■ sniff at scorn, disdain, hold in contempt, look down one's nose at, treat as inferior, look down on, sneer at, scoff at; informal turn one's nose up at.

■ sniff something out (informal) detect, find, discover, bring to light, track down, dig up, hunt out, ferret out, root out, uncover, unearth, run to earth/ground.

snigger verb they snigger at him behind his back: snicker, titter, giggle, chortle, laugh; sneer, smirk.

• noun the joke got hardly a snigger: snicker, titter, giggle, chortle, laugh; sneer, smirk.

snip verb 1 an usher snipped our tickets: cut, clip, snick, slit, nick, notch. 2 snip off the faded flowers: cut off, trim (off), clip, prune, chop off, lop (off), dock, crop, sever, detach, remove, take off.

• noun 1 make snips along the edge: cut, slit, snick, nick, notch, incision. 2 snips of wallpaper: scrap, snippet, cutting, shred, remnant, fragment, sliver, bit, piece. 3 (Brit. informal) the book was a snip. See BARGAIN noun sense 2. 4 (informal) the job was a snip. See CINCH sense 1.

snippet noun piece, bit, scrap, fragment, particle, shred; excerpt, extract.

snivel verb 1 he slumped in a chair, snivelling: sniffle, snuffle, whimper, whine, weep, cry; Scottish greet; informal blub, blubber, boohoo; Brit. informal grizzle. 2 don't snivel about what you get: complain, mutter, grumble, grouse, groan, carp, bleat, whine; informal gripe, moan, grouch, beef, bellyache, whinge, sound off; Brit. informal create; N. Amer. informal kvetch.

snobbery noun affectation, pretension, pretentiousness, arrogance, haughtiness, airs and graces, elitism; disdain, condescension, superciliousness; informal snootiness, uppitiness; Brit. informal side.

snobbish adjective elitist, snobby, superior, supercilious; arrogant, haughty, disdainful, condescending; pretentious, affected; informal snooty, uppity, high and mighty, la-di-da, stuck-up, hoity-toity, snotty; Brit. informal toffee-nosed.

snoop (informal) verb 1 don't snoop into our affairs: pry, inquire, be inquisitive, be curious, poke about/around, be a busybody, poke one's nose into; interfere (in/with), meddle (in/with), intrude (on); informal be nosy; Austral./NZ informal stickybeak. 2 they snooped around the building: investigate, explore, search, nose, have a good look; prowl around.

• noun 1 he went for a snoop around: search, nose, look, prowl, ferret, poke, investigation. 2 radio snoops. See SNOOPER.

snooper noun meddler, busybody, eavesdropper; investigator, detective; informal nosy parker, Paul Pry, snoop, private eye, PI, sleuth; N. Amer. informal gumshoe; Austral./NZ informal stickybeak.

snooty adjective (informal) arrogant, proud, haughty, conceited, aloof, superior, self-important, disdainful, supercilious, snobbish, snobby, patronizing, condescending; informal uppity, high and mighty, la-di-da, stuck-up, hoity-toity; Brit. informal toffee-nosed.

— OPPOSITES modest.

snooze (informal) noun a good place for a snooze:

nap, doze, sleep, rest, siesta, catnap; informal forty winks; Brit. informal kip; literary slumber.

• verb she gently snoozed: nap, doze, sleep, rest, take a siesta, catnap; informal snatch forty winks, get some shut-eye; Brit. informal kip, get one's head down; N. Amer. informal catch some Zs; literary slumber.

snout noun muzzle, nose, proboscis, trunk; Scottish & N. English neb.

snow noun snowflakes, flakes, snowfall, snowstorm, blizzard, sleet; snowdrift, avalanche.

WORD LINKS

niveous (literary) resembling snow snub verb they snubbed their hosts: rebuff, spurn, repulse, cold-shoulder, brush off, give the cold shoulder to, keep at arm's length; cut (dead), ignore; insult, slight, affront, humiliate; informal freeze out, knock back; N. Amer. informal stiff.

• noun a very public snub: rebuff, repulse, slap in the face; humiliation, insult, slight, affront; informal brush-off, put-down.

snuff verb extinguish, put out, douse, smother, choke, blow out, quench, stub out.

snug adjective 1 our tents were snug: cosy, comfortable, warm, homely, welcoming, restful, reassuring, intimate, sheltered, secure; informal comfy. 2 a snug dress: tight, skintight, close-fitting, figure-hugging, slinky.

– OPPOSITES bleak, loose.

snuggle verb nestle, curl up, huddle (up), cuddle up, nuzzle, settle; N. Amer. snug down.

soak verb 1 soak the beans in water: immerse, steep, submerge, submerse, dip, dunk, bathe, douse, marinate, souse. 2 we got soaked outside: drench, wet through, saturate, waterlog, deluge, inundate, submerge, drown, swamp. 3 the sweat soaked through his clothes: permeate, penetrate, percolate, seep into, spread through, infuse, impregnate. 4 use towels to soak up the water: absorb, suck up, blot (up), mop (up), sponge up, sop up.

soaking adjective drenched, wet (through), soaked (through), sodden, soggy, waterlogged, saturated, sopping wet, dripping wet, wringing wet.

– OPPOSITES parched.

soar verb 1 the bird soared into the air: fly, wing, ascend, climb, rise; take off, take flight. 2 the gulls soared on the winds: glide, plane, float, drift, wheel, hover. 3 the cost of living soared: increase, escalate, shoot up, rise, spiral; informal go through the roof, skyrocket.

– OPPOSITES plummet.

sob verb weep, cry, shed tears, snivel, whimper; howl, bawl; Scottish greet; informal blub, blubber, boohoo; Brit. informal grizzle.

sober adjective 1 the driver was clearly sober: not drunk, clear-headed; teetotal, abstinent, abstemious, dry; informal on the wagon. 2 a sober view of life: serious, solemn, sensible, thoughtful, grave, sombre, staid, level-headed, businesslike, down-to-earth, commonsensical, pragmatic, conservative; unemotional, dispassionate, objective, matter-of-fact, no-nonsense, rational, logical, straightforward; Scottish douce. 3 a sober suit: sombre, subdued, severe; conventional, traditional, quiet, drab, plain.

– OPPOSITES drunk, frivolous, sensational, flamboyant.

• verb 1 I ought to sober up: become sober; informal dry out. 2 his expression sobered her: make serious, subdue, calm down, quieten, steady; bring down to earth, make someone stop and think, give someone pause for thought.

sobriety noun 1 she noted his sobriety: soberness, clear-headedness; abstinence, teetotalism, non-indulgence, abstemiousness, temperance. 2 the mayor is a model of sobriety: seriousness, solemnity, gravity, dignity, level-headedness, common sense, pragmatism, practicality, self-control, self-restraint, conservatism.

so-called adjective supposed, ostensible, alleged, presumed; nominal, titular, self-styled, professed, would-be, self-appointed, soi-disant.

soccer noun Association Football; Brit. football, the beautiful game.

sociable adjective friendly, affable, companionable, gregarious, convivial, clubbable, amicable, cordial, warm, genial; communicative, responsive, forthcoming, open, outgoing, extrovert, hail-fellow-well-met, approachable; informal chummy, clubby; Brit. informal matey.

– OPPOSITES unfriendly.

social adjective 1 a major social problem: communal, community, collective, group, general, popular, civil, public, societal.

2 a social club: recreational, leisure.

3 a uniquely social animal: gregarious, interactional; organized.

– OPPOSITES individual.

• noun the club has a social once a month: party, gathering, function, get-together; celebration, reunion, jamboree; informal bash, shindig, do; Brit. informal rave-up, knees-up, beano, bunfight, jolly.

socialism noun leftism, Fabianism, labourism, welfarism; radicalism, progressivism, social democracy; communism, Marxism, Leninism, Maoism; historical Bolshevism.

socialist adjective the socialist movement:

left-wing, leftist, Labour, Labourite, labourist, Fabian, progressive, reformer; radical, revolutionary, militant, red; communist, Marxist, Leninist, Maoist; informal, derogatory lefty, Bolshie, Commie.

– OPPOSITES conservative.

• noun a well-known socialist: left-winger, leftist, Fabian, Labourite, labourist, progressive, progressivist, reformer; radical, revolutionary, militant, red; communist, Marxist, Leninist, Maoist; informal, derogatory lefty, Bolshie, Commie.

– OPPOSITES conservative.

socialize verb interact, converse, be sociable, mix, mingle, get together, meet, fraternize, consort; entertain, go out; informal hobnob.

society noun 1 a danger to society: the community, the (general) public, the people, the population; civilization, humankind, mankind, humanity. 2 an industrial society: culture, community, civilization, nation, population. 3 Lady Angela will help you enter society: high society, polite society, the upper classes, the elite, the county set, the smart set, the beautiful people, the beau monde, the haut monde; informal the upper crust, the top drawer. 4 a local history society: association, club, group, circle, fellowship, guild, lodge, fraternity, brotherhood, sisterhood, sorority, league, union, alliance. 5 the society of others: company, companionship, fellowship, friendship, comradeship, camaraderie.

WORD LINKS

sociology the study of human society

sodden adjective 1 his clothes were sodden: soaking, soaked (through), wet (through), saturated, drenched, sopping wet, wringing wet. 2 sodden fields: waterlogged, soggy, saturated, boggy, swampy, miry, marshy; heavy, squelchy, soft.
– OPPOSITES arid.

sofa noun settee, couch, divan, chaise longue, chesterfield; Brit. put-you-up; N. Amer. davenport, day bed.

soft adjective 1 soft fruit: mushy, squashy, pulpy, pappy, slushy, squelchy, squishy, doughy; informal gooey; Brit. informal squidgy. 2 soft ground: swampy, marshy, boggy, miry, oozy; heavy, squelchy. 3 a soft cushion: squashy, spongy, compressible, supple, springy, pliable, pliant, resilient, malleable. 4 soft fabric: velvety, smooth, fleecy, downy, furry, silky, silken, satiny. 5 a soft wind: gentle, light, mild, moderate. 6 soft light: dim, low, faint, subdued, muted, mellow. 7 soft colours: pale, pastel, muted, understated, restrained, subdued, subtle. 8 soft voices: quiet, low, faint, muted, subdued, muffled, hushed, whispered, stifled, murmured, gentle, dulcet; indistinct, inaudible. 9 soft outlines: blurred, vague, hazy, misty, foggy, nebulous, fuzzy, blurry, indistinct, unclear. 10 he seduced her with soft words: kind, gentle, sympathetic, soothing, tender, sensitive, affectionate, loving, warm, sweet, sentimental, mushy, slushy; informal schmaltzy. 11 she's too soft with her pupils: lenient, easy-going, tolerant, forgiving, forbearing, indulgent, clement, permissive, liberal, lax. 12 (informal) he's soft in the head: foolish, stupid, simple, brainless, mindless; mad, scatterbrained, feather-brained; slow, weak, feeble; informal dopey, dippy, dotty, scatty, loopy; Brit. informal daft; Scottish & N. English informal glaikit.

– OPPOSITES hard, firm, rough, strong, harsh, lurid, strident, sharp, strict, sensible.

soften verb 1 he tried to soften the blow of new taxes: alleviate, ease, relieve, soothe, take the edge off, assuage, cushion, moderate, mitigate, palliate, diminish, blunt, deaden. 2 the winds softened: die down, abate, subside, moderate, let up, calm, diminish, slacken, weaken.

■ soften someone up charm, win over, persuade, influence, weaken, disarm, sweeten; informal butter up, soft-soap.

soft-hearted adjective kind, kindly, tender-hearted, tender, gentle, sympathetic, compassionate, humane; generous, indulgent, lenient, merciful, benevolent.

softly-softly adjective cautious, circumspect, discreet, gentle, patient, tactful, diplomatic.

soggy adjective mushy, squashy, pulpy, slushy, squelchy, squishy; swampy, marshy, boggy, miry; soaking, soaked through, wet, saturated, drenched; Brit. informal squidgy.

soil<sup>1</sup> noun 1 acid soil: earth, loam, dirt, clay, sod, turf; ground. 2 British soil: territory, land, domain, dominion, region, country.

soil<sup>2</sup> verb 1 he soiled his tie: dirty, stain, splash, spot, spatter, splatter, smear, smudge, sully, spoil, foul; informal muck up; literary begrime. 2 our reputation is being soiled: dishonour, damage, sully, stain, blacken, tarnish, taint, blemish, defile, blot, smear, drag through the mud; literary besmirch.

sojourn (formal) noun a sojourn in France: stay, visit, stop, stopover; holiday, vacation.

• verb they sojourned in the monastery: stay, live, put up, stop (over), lodge, room, board; holiday, vacation.

solace noun they found solace in each other: comfort, consolation, cheer, support, relief. • verb she was solaced with tea and sympathy: comfort, console, cheer, support, soothe, calm.

soldier noun fighter, trooper, serviceman, servicewoman; warrior; US GI; Brit. informal squaddie; old use man-at-arms.

■ soldier on (informal) persevere, persist, continue, carry on, go on, keep on, keep going, struggle on, hammer away, be persistent, be determined, see/follow something through, keep at it, press on/ ahead, stand one's ground, go the distance, stay the course, plod on; informal plug away, peg away, stick it out.

WORD LINKS

military relating to soldiers cavalry soldiers who formerly fought on horseback infantry soldiers who fight on foot mercenary a professional soldier hired to serve in a foreign army sole adjective only, one (and only), single, solitary, lone, unique, exclusive.

solecism noun 1 a poem marred by solecisms: (grammatical) mistake, error, blunder; informal howler, blooper; Brit. informal boob. 2 it would have been a solecism to answer: faux pas, gaffe, impropriety, social indiscretion, infelicity, slip, error, blunder, lapse; informal slip-up, boo-boo; Brit. informal boob, clanger, bloomer; N. Amer. informal goof, blooper.

solely adverb only, simply, just, merely, uniquely, exclusively, entirely, wholly; alone.

solemn adjective 1 a solemn occasion:

dignified, ceremonious, ceremonial, stately, formal, courtly, majestic; imposing, awe-inspiring, splendid, magnificent, grand.

2 he looked very solemn: serious, grave, sober, sombre, unsmiling, stern, grim, dour, humourless; pensive, meditative. 3 a solemn promise: sincere, earnest, honest, genuine, firm, heartfelt, wholehearted, sworn.

– OPPOSITES frivolous, light-hearted, insincere.

solemnize verb perform, celebrate; officiate at, formalize.

solicit verb 1 Phil tried to solicit his help:

ask for, request, seek, apply for, put in for, call for, press for, beg, plead for; dated crave.

2 they are solicited for their opinions: ask, beg, implore, plead with, entreat, appeal to, lobby, petition, importune, supplicate, call on, press; literary beseech. 3 the girls gathered to solicit: work as a prostitute, make sexual advances, tout (for business); N. Amer. informal hustle.

solicitor noun (Brit.) lawyer, legal representative, legal practitioner, notary (public), advocate, attorney; Brit. articulated clerk; Scottish law agent; informal brief.

solicitous adjective concerned, caring, considerate, attentive, mindful, thoughtful, interested; anxious, worried.

solid adjective 1 the ice cream was solid: hard, rock-hard, rigid, firm, purified, set, frozen, concrete. 2 solid gold: pure, 24-carat, unalloyed, unadulterated, genuine. 3 a solid line: continuous, uninterrupted, unbroken, non-stop, undivided. 4 solid houses: well built, sound, substantial, strong, sturdy, durable. 5 a solid argument: well founded, valid, sound, reasonable, logical, authoritative, convincing, cogent, plausible, credible, reliable. 6 a solid friendship: dependable, reliable, firm, unshakeable, trustworthy, stable, steadfast, staunch, constant. 7 solid citizens: sensible, dependable, trustworthy, decent, law-abiding, upright, upstanding, worthy. 8 the company is very solid: financially sound, secure, creditworthy, profit-making, solvent, in credit, in the black; Finance ungeared, unlevered. 9 solid support from their colleagues: unanimous, united, consistent, undivided.

– OPPOSITES liquid, alloyed, broken, flimsy, untenable, unreliable.

solidarity noun unanimity, unity, like-mindedness, agreement, accord, harmony, consensus, concurrence, cooperation, cohesion; formal concord.

solidify verb harden, set, freeze, thicken, stiffen, congeal, cake, dry, bake; ossify, fossilize, petrify.

– OPPOSITES liquefy.

soliloquy noun monologue, speech, address, lecture, oration, sermon, homily, aside.

solitary adjective 1 a solitary life: lonely, companionless, unaccompanied, by oneself, on one's own, alone, friendless; antisocial, unsociable, withdrawn, reclusive, cloistered, hermitic; N. Amer. lonesome. 2 solitary farmsteads: isolated, remote, lonely, out of the way, in the back of beyond, outlying, off the beaten track, godforsaken, obscure, inaccessible, cut-off; secluded, private, sequestered, desolate; N. Amer. in the backwoods; Austral./NZ in the backblocks; informal in the sticks, in the middle of nowhere; N. Amer. informal in the boondocks; Austral./NZ informal beyond the black stump; literary lone. 3 a solitary piece of evidence: single, lone, sole, unique; only, one, individual; odd.

– OPPOSITES sociable, accessible.

• noun he became a solitary: recluse, loner, hermit; historical anchorite; old use eremite.

solitude noun 1 she savoured her solitude: loneliness, solitariness, isolation, seclusion, sequestration, withdrawal, privacy, peace.

2 solitudes like the area around the loch: wilderness, rural area, wilds, backwoods; desert, emptiness, wasteland; Austral. the bush, the outback; N. Amer. & Austral./NZ backcountry; informal the sticks; N. Amer. informal the boondocks.

solo adjective a solo flight: unaccompanied, single-handed, companionless, unescorted, unattended, unchaperoned, independent, solitary; alone, on one's own, by oneself.

– OPPOSITES accompanied.

• adverb she sailed solo: unaccompanied, alone, on one's own, single-handed(ly), by oneself, unescorted, unattended, unchaperoned, unaided, independently.

– OPPOSITES accompanied.

solution noun 1 an easy solution to the problem: answer, result, resolution, way out, panacea; key, formula, explanation, interpretation. 2 a solution of ammonia in water: mixture, mix, blend, compound, suspension, tincture, infusion, emulsion.

solve verb resolve, answer, work out, find a solution to, find the key to, puzzle out, fathom, decipher, decode, clear up, straighten out, get to the bottom of, unravel, piece together, explain; informal figure out, crack; Brit. informal suss out.

solvent adjective financially sound, debt-free, in the black, in credit, creditworthy, solid, secure, profit-making; Finance ungeared, unlevered.

sombre adjective 1 sombre clothes: dark, drab, dull, dingy; restrained, subdued, sober, funereal. 2 a sombre expression: solemn, earnest, serious, grave, sober, unsmiling, stern, grim, dour, humourless; gloomy, depressed, sad, melancholy, dismal, doleful, mournful, lugubrious.

– OPPOSITES bright, cheerful.

somebody noun she wanted to be a somebody: important person, VIP, public figure, notable, dignitary, worthy; someone, (big/household) name, celebrity, star, superstar; grandee, luminary; informal celeb, bigwig, big shot, big cheese, hotshot, megastar.

– OPPOSITES nonentity.

some day adverb sometime, one day, one of these (fine) days, at a future date, sooner or later, by and by, in due course, in the fullness of time, in the long run.

somehow adverb by some means, by any means, in some way, one way or another, no matter how, by fair means or foul, by hook or by crook, come what may.

sometime adverb 1 I'll visit sometime:

some day, one day, one of these (fine) days, at a future date, sooner or later, by and by, in due course, in the fullness of time, in the long run. 2 it happened sometime on Sunday: at some time, at some point;

during, in the course of.

– OPPOSITES never.

• adjective the sometime editor of the paper: former, past, previous, prior, foregoing, late, erstwhile, one-time, ex-; formal quondam.

sometimes adverb occasionally, from time to time, now and then, every so often, once in a while, on occasion, at times, off and on, at intervals, periodically, sporadically, spasmodically, intermittently.

somewhat adverb 1 matters have improved somewhat: a little, a bit, to some extent, (up) to a point, in some measure, rather, quite; N. Amer. informal some; informal kind of, sort of. 2 a somewhat thicker book: slightly, relatively, comparatively, moderately, fairly, rather, quite, marginally.

– OPPOSITES greatly.

somnolent adjective 1 he felt somnolent after lunch: sleepy, drowsy, tired, languid, dozy, groggy, lethargic, sluggish, enervated, torpid; informal snoozy, dopey, yawny; literary slumberous. 2 a somnolent village: quiet, restful, tranquil, calm, peaceful, relaxing, soothing, undisturbed, untroubled.

song noun 1 a beautiful song: air, strain, ditty, melody, tune, number, track. 2 the song of the birds: call(s), chirping, cheeping, peeping, chirruping, warble(s), warbling, trilling, twitter; birdsong.

■ song and dance (informal). See FUSS noun sense 1.

songster, songstress noun singer, vocalist, soloist, crooner, chorister, choirboy, choirgirl; alto, bass, baritone, contralto, tenor, soprano; balladeer; informal warbler, popster, soulster, folkie; historical minstrel, troubadour; old use melodist.

sonorous adjective 1 a sonorous voice: resonant, rich, full, round, booming, deep, clear, mellow, orotund, fruity, strong, resounding, reverberant. 2 sonorous words of condemnation: impressive, imposing, grandiloquent, magniloquent, high-flown, lofty, orotund, bombastic, grandiose, pompous, pretentious, overblown, turgid; oratorical, rhetorical; informal highfalutin.

soon adverb 1 we'll be there soon: shortly, presently, in the near future, before long, in a little while, in a minute, in a moment, in an instant, in the twinkling of an eye, in no time, before you know it, any minute (now), any day (now), by and by; informal pronto, in a jiffy, before you can say Jack Robinson, anon; Brit. informal sharpish, in a tick, in two ticks; dated directly. 2 how soon can you get here? early, quickly, promptly, speedily, punctually.

sooner adverb 1 he should have done it sooner: earlier, before, beforehand, in advance, ahead of time; already. 2 I would sooner stay: rather, preferably, by preference, by choice, more willingly, more readily.

soothe verb 1 Rachel tried to soothe him: calm (down), pacify, comfort, hush, quiet, subdue, settle (down), lull, tranquillize; appease, conciliate, mollify; Brit. quieten (down). 2 an anaesthetic to soothe the pain: alleviate, ease, relieve, take the edge off, assuage, allay, lessen, palliate, diminish, decrease, dull, blunt, deaden.

– OPPOSITES agitate, aggravate.

soothing adjective 1 soothing music: relaxing, restful, calm, calming, tranquil, peaceful, reposeful, tranquillizing, soporific. 2 soothing ointment: palliative, mild, calmative.

soothsayer noun seer, oracle, augur, prophet(ess), sage, prognosticator, diviner, fortune teller, crystal-gazer, clairvoyant, psychic; Scottish spaewife; literary sibyl.

sophisticated adjective 1 sophisticated techniques: advanced, modern, state-of-the-art, the latest, new, up to the minute; innovatory, trailblazing, revolutionary, futuristic, avant-garde; complex, complicated, intricate. 2 a sophisticated woman: worldly, worldly-wise, experienced, enlightened, cosmopolitan, knowledgeable; urbane, cultured, cultivated, civilized, polished, refined; elegant, stylish; informal cool.

– OPPOSITES crude, naive.

sophistication noun worldliness, experience; urbanity, culture, civilization, polish, refinement; elegance, style, poise, finesse, savoir faire; informal cool.

sophistry noun 1 to claim this is pure sophistry: specious reasoning, fallacy, sophism, casuistry. 2 he went along with her sophistry: fallacious argument, sophism, fallacy; Logic paralogism.

soporific adjective soporific drugs: sleep-inducing, sedative, somnolent, calmative, tranquillizing, narcotic, opiate; drowsy, sleepy, somniferous; Medicine hypnotic.

– OPPOSITES invigorating.

• noun she was given a soporific: sleeping pill, sedative, calmative, tranquillizer, narcotic, opiate; Medicine hypnotic.

– OPPOSITES stimulant.

soppy adjective (Brit. informal) 1 the songs are really soppy. See SENTIMENTAL sense 2. 2 they were too soppy for our games. See FEEBLE sense 3.

sorcerer, sorceress noun wizard, witch, magician, warlock, enchanter, enchantress, magus; shaman, witch doctor; old use mage.

sorcery noun (black) magic, the black arts, witchcraft, wizardry, enchantment, spells, incantation, witching, witchery, thaumaturgy; shamanism; Irish pishogue.

sordid adjective 1 a sordid love affair: sleazy, seedy, seamy, unsavoury, tawdry, cheap, debased, degenerate, dishonourable, disreputable, discreditable, contemptible, ignominious, shameful, wretched, abhorrent. 2 a sordid little street: squalid, slummy, dirty, filthy, mucky, grimy, shabby, messy, soiled, scummy, unclean; informal cruddy, grungy, crummy, scuzzy; Brit. informal grotty.

– OPPOSITES respectable, immaculate.

sore adjective 1 a sore leg: painful, hurting, hurt, aching, throbbing, smarting, stinging, agonizing, excruciating; inflamed, sensitive, tender, raw, bruised, wounded, injured. 2 we are in sore need of you: dire, urgent, pressing, desperate, parlous, critical, crucial, acute, grave, serious, drastic, extreme, life-and-death, great, terrible; formal exigent. 3 (N. Amer. informal) they were sore at us: upset, angry, annoyed, cross, furious, vexed, displeased, disgruntled, dissatisfied, exasperated, irritated, galled, irked, put out, aggrieved, offended, affronted, piqued, nettled; informal aggravated, miffed, peeved, hacked off, riled; Brit. informal narked, cheesed off, brassed off; N. Amer. informal teed off, ticked off.

• noun a sore on his leg: inflammation, swelling, lesion; wound, scrape, abrasion, cut, laceration, graze, contusion, bruise; ulcer, boil, abscess, carbuncle.

SORROW noun 1 he felt sorrow at her death: sadness, unhappiness, misery, despondency, regret, depression, despair, desolation, dejection, wretchedness, gloom, dolefulness, melancholy, woe, heartache, grief; literary colour. 2 the sorrows of life: trouble, difficulty, problem, adversity, misery, woe, affliction, trial, tribulation, misfortune, setback, reverse, blow, failure, tragedy.

– OPPOSITES joy.

• verb they sorrowed over her grave: mourn, lament, grieve, be sad, be miserable, be despondent, despair, suffer, ache, agonize, anguish, pine, weep, wail.

– OPPOSITES rejoice.

SORROWFUL adjective 1 sorrowful eyes: sad, unhappy, dejected, regretful, downcast, miserable, downhearted, despondent, despairing, disconsolate, desolate, glum, gloomy, doleful, dismal, melancholy, mournful, woeful, weebegone, forlorn, crestfallen, heartbroken; informal blue, down in the mouth, down in the dumps. 2 sorrowful news: tragic, sad, unhappy, awful, miserable, sorry, pitiful; traumatic, upsetting, depressing, distressing, dispiriting, heartbreaking, harrowing; formal grievous.

SORRY adjective 1 I was sorry to hear about his accident: sad, unhappy, sorrowful, distressed, upset, downcast, downhearted, disheartened, despondent; heartbroken, inconsolable, grief-stricken. 2 he felt sorry for her: full of pity, sympathetic, compassionate, moved, consoling, empathetic, concerned. 3 I'm sorry if I was brusque: regretful, remorseful, contrite, repentant, rueful, penitent, apologetic, abject, guilty, self-reproachful, ashamed, sheepish, shamefaced. 4 he looks a sorry sight: pitiful, pitiable, heart-rending, distressing; unfortunate, unhappy, wretched, unlucky, shameful, regrettable, awful.

– OPPOSITES glad, unsympathetic, unrepentant.

SORT noun 1 what sort of book is it? type, kind, nature, manner, variety, class, category, style; calibre, quality, form, group, set, bracket, genre, species, family, order, generation, vintage, make, model, brand, stamp, ilk, kidney, cast, grain, mould; N. Amer. stripe. 2 (informal) he's a good sort: person, individual, soul, creature, human being; character, customer; informal fellow, type, beggar, cookie; Brit. informal bod; informal, dated body, dog, cove.

• verb 1 they sorted things of similar size: classify, class, categorize, catalogue, grade, group; organize, arrange, order, marshal, assemble, systematize, systemize, pigeonhole. 2 the problem was soon sorted: resolve, settle, solve, fix, work out, straighten out, deal with, put right, set right, rectify, iron out; answer, explain, fathom, unravel, clear up; informal sew up, hammer out, thrash out, patch up, figure out.

■ out of sorts 1 I'm feeling out of sorts: unwell, ill, poorly, sick, queasy, nauseous, peaky, run down, below par; Brit. off colour; informal under the weather, funny, rough, lousy, rotten, awful; Brit. informal off, ropy; Scottish informal wabbit, peely-wally; Austral./NZ informal crook; dated seedy. 2 I've been out of sorts and I'd like a chat: unhappy, sad, miserable, down, depressed, melancholy, gloomy, glum, dispirited, despondent, forlorn, weebegone, low, in the doldrums; informal blue, fed up, down in the dumps, down in the mouth.

■ sort of (informal) 1 you look sort of familiar: slightly, faintly, remotely, vaguely; somewhat, moderately, quite, rather, fairly, reasonably, relatively; informal pretty, kind of. 2 he sort of pirouetted: as it were, kind of, somehow.

■ sort something out 1 she sorted out the clothes. See sort verb sense 1. 2 they must sort out their problems. See sort verb sense 2.

SORTIE noun 1 a sortie against their besiegers: foray, sally, charge, offensive, attack, assault, onslaught, thrust, drive; old use onset. 2 a bomber sortie: raid, flight, mission, operation.

SO-SO adjective (informal) mediocre, indifferent, average, middle-of-the-road, middling, moderate, ordinary, adequate, fair; uninspired, undistinguished, unexceptional, unremarkable, run-of-the-mill, lacklustre; informal bog-standard, no great shakes, not up to much; NZ informal half-pie.

SOUL noun 1 seeing the soul through the eyes: spirit, psyche, (inner) self, inner being, life force, vital force; individuality, make-up, subconscious, anima; Philosophy pneuma; Hinduism atman. 2 he is the soul of discretion: embodiment, personification, incarnation, epitome, quintessence, essence; model, exemplification, exemplar, image, manifestation. 3 not a soul in sight: person, human being, individual, man, woman, mortal, creature. 4 their music lacked soul: inspiration, feeling, emotion, passion, animation, intensity, fervour, ardour, enthusiasm, warmth, energy, vitality, spirit.

SOULFUL adjective emotional, deep, profound, fervent, heartfelt, sincere, passionate; meaningful, significant, eloquent, expressive; moving, stirring; sad, mournful, doleful.

soulless adjective 1 a soulless room: characterless, featureless, bland, dull, colourless, lacklustre, dreary, drab, uninspiring, undistinguished, anaemic, insipid. 2 it was soulless work: boring, dull, tedious, dreary, humdrum, tiresome, wearisome, uninteresting, uninspiring, unexciting, soul-destroying, mind-numbing, dry; monotonous, repetitive.

– OPPOSITES exciting.

sound<sup>1</sup> noun 1 the sound of the car: noise, note; din, racket, row, hubbub; resonance, reverberation. 2 she did not make a sound: utterance, cry, word, noise, peep; informal cheep. 3 the sound of the flute: music, tone, notes. 4 I don't like the sound of that: idea, thought, concept, prospect, description. 5 we're within sound of the sea: earshot, hearing (distance), range.

– OPPOSITES silence.

• verb 1 the buzzer sounded: make a noise, resonate, resound, reverberate, go off, blare; ring, chime, peal. 2 drivers must sound their horns: blow, blast, toot, blare; operate, set off; ring. 3 do you sound the 'h'? pronounce, verbalize, voice, enunciate, articulate, vocalize, say. 4 she sounded a warning: utter, voice, deliver, express, speak, announce, pronounce. 5 it sounds a crazy idea: appear, look (like), seem, strike someone as being, give every indication of being.

WORD LINKS

acoustic, sonic relating to sound or sound waves decibel a unit for measuring the intensity of sound phonetics the study of speech sounds sonar a system for detecting objects underwater, based on sound pulses sound<sup>2</sup> adjective 1 your heart is sound: healthy, in good condition, in good shape, fit, hale and hearty, in fine fettle; undamaged, unimpaired. 2 a sound building: well built, solid, substantial, strong, sturdy, durable, stable, intact, unimpaired. 3 sound advice: well founded, valid, reasonable, logical, weighty, authoritative, reliable. 4 a sound judge of character: reliable, dependable, trustworthy, fair; good, sensible, wise, judicious, sagacious, shrewd, perceptive. 5 financially sound: solvent, debt-free, in the black, in credit, creditworthy, secure. 6 a sound sleep: deep, undisturbed, uninterrupted, untroubled, peaceful. 7 a sound thrashing: thorough, proper, real, complete, unqualified, out-and-out, thoroughgoing, severe; informal right (royal).

– OPPOSITES unhealthy, unsafe, unreliable, insolvent, light.

sound<sup>3</sup> verb sound the depth of the river: measure, gauge, determine, test, investigate, survey, plumb, fathom, probe. ■ sound someone/something out investigate, test, check, examine, probe, research, look into; canvass, survey, poll, question, interview, sample; informal pump.

sound<sup>4</sup> noun an oil spill in Prince William Sound: channel, (sea) passage, strait(s), narrows, waterway; inlet, arm (of the sea), fjord, creek, bay; estuary, firth.

soup noun broth, potage, consommé, bouillon, chowder, bisque.

sour adjective 1 sour wine: acid, acidic, acidy, acidulated, tart, bitter, sharp, vinegary, pungent; N. Amer. acerb; technical acerbic. 2 sour milk: bad, off, turned, curdled, rancid, high, rank, foul, fetid. 3 a sour old man: embittered, resentful, rancorous, jaundiced, bitter; nasty, spiteful, irritable, peevish, fractious, cross, crabby, crotchety, cantankerous, disagreeable, petulant, querulous, grumpy, bad-tempered, ill-humoured, sullen, surly, sulky, churlish; informal snappy, grouchy; Brit. informal ratty, stropy, shirty; N. Amer. informal cranky, soreheaded.

– OPPOSITES sweet, fresh, amiable.

• verb 1 the war had soured him: embitter, disillusion, disenchant, poison, alienate; dissatisfy, frustrate. 2 the dispute soured relations: spoil, mar, damage, harm, impair, wreck, upset, poison, blight, tarnish.

– OPPOSITES improve.

source noun 1 the source of the river: spring, origin, (well) head, headspring, headwater(s); literary wellspring. 2 the source of the rumour: origin, birthplace, spring, fountainhead, fount, starting point; history, provenance, derivation, root, beginning, genesis, start, rise; author, originator, initiator, inventor; N. Amer. provenience. 3 a historian uses primary and secondary sources: reference, authority, informant; document.

souse verb drench, douse, soak, steep, saturate, plunge, immerse, submerge, dip, sink, dunk.

soused adjective 1 a soured herring: pickled, marinated, soaked, steeped. 2 (informal) he was well and truly soured. See DRUNK adjective.

south adjective southern, southerly, meridional, austral.

souvenir noun memento, keepsake, reminder, remembrance, token, memorial; trophy, relic.

sovereign noun ruler, monarch, crowned head, head of state, potentate, suzerain, overlord, dynast, leader.

• adjective 1 sovereign control: supreme, absolute, unlimited, unrestricted, boundless, ultimate, total, unconditional, full; principal, chief, dominant, predominant, ruling; royal, regal, monarchical. 2 a sovereign state: independent, autonomous, self-governing, self-determining; non-aligned, free. 3 (dated) a sovereign remedy for all ills: effective, effectual, efficient, powerful, potent; useful, helpful, valuable, worthwhile; excellent, reliable, unfailing; informal sure-fire; formal efficacious.

sovereignty noun 1 their sovereignty over the islands: jurisdiction, rule, supremacy, dominion, power, ascendancy, suzerainty, hegemony, domination, authority, control, influence. 2 full sovereignty was achieved in 1955: autonomy, independence, self-government, self-rule, home rule, self-determination, freedom.

sow verb 1 sow the seeds in rows: plant, scatter, spread, broadcast, disperse, strew, disseminate, distribute; drill, dibble, seed. 2 the new policy has sown confusion: cause, bring about, occasion, create, lead to, produce, engender, generate, prompt, initiate, precipitate, trigger, provoke; culminate in, entail, necessitate; foster, foment; literary beget.

space noun 1 there was not enough space: room, capacity, area, volume, expanse, extent, scope, latitude, margin, leeway, play, clearance. 2 green spaces in London: area, expanse, stretch, sweep, tract. 3 the space between the timbers: gap, interval, opening, aperture, cavity, cranny, fissure, crack, interstice, lacuna. 4 write your name in the appropriate space: blank, gap, box. 5 a space of seven years: period, span, time, duration, stretch, course, interval. 6 the first woman in space: outer space, deep space; the universe, the galaxy, the solar system; infinity. • verb the chairs were spaced widely: position, arrange, range, array, dispose, lay out, locate, situate, set, stand.

spaceman, spacewoman noun astronaut, cosmonaut, taikonaut, space traveller, space cadet; N. Amer. informal jock.

spacious adjective roomy, capacious, palatial, airy, sizeable, generous, large, big, vast, immense; extensive, expansive, sweeping, rolling, rambling, open; formal commodious.

– OPPOSITES cramped.

spadework noun groundwork, preliminary work, preliminaries, preparatory measures, preparations, planning, foundations; hard work, donkey work, labour, drudgery, toil; informal grind; Brit. informal graft.

span noun 1 a six-foot wing span: extent, length, width, reach, stretch, spread, distance, range. 2 the span of one working day: period, space, time, duration, course, interval.

• verb 1 an arch spanned the stream: bridge, cross, traverse, pass over. 2 his career spanned twenty years: last, cover, extend, spread over, comprise.

spank verb smack, slap, hit, beat, cuff; informal wallop, belt, whack, give someone a hiding; Scottish & N. English skelp.

spar verb quarrel, argue, fight, disagree, differ, be at odds, be at variance, fall out, dispute, squabble, wrangle, bandy words, cross swords, lock horns, be at loggerheads; informal scrap, argufy, spat; Brit. informal row.

spare adjective 1 a spare set of keys: extra, supplementary, additional, second, other, alternative; emergency, reserve, back-up, relief, fallback, substitute; fresh; N. Amer. alternate. 2 they sold off the spare land: surplus, superfluous, excessive; redundant, unnecessary, inessential, unessential, unnneeded, uncalled for, dispensable, disposable, expendable, unwanted; informal going begging. 3 your spare time: free, leisure, own. 4 a spare woman: slender, lean, willowy, svelte, lissom, rangy, clean-limbed, trim, slight; thin, skinny, gaunt, lanky, spindly; informal skin and bone.

• verb 1 he could not spare any money: afford, do without, manage without, dispense with, part with, give, provide. 2 they were spared by their captors: pardon, let off, forgive, reprieve, release, free; leave uninjured, leave unhurt; be merciful to, show mercy to, have mercy on, be lenient to, have pity on.

■ go spare (Brit. informal). See GET ANGRY at ANGRY.

■ to spare left (over), remaining, unused, unneeded, not required, still available, surplus (to requirements), superfluous, extra; informal going begging.

sparing adjective thrifty, economical, frugal, canny, careful, prudent, cautious; mean, miserly, niggardly, parsimonious, close, close-fisted, penny-pinching, cheese-paring, ungenerous, grasping; informal stingy, tight-fisted, tight, mingy, money-grubbing; N. Amer. informal cheap.

– OPPOSITES lavish.

spark noun 1 a spark of light: flash, glint, twinkle, flicker, flare, pinprick. 2 not a spark of truth in the story: particle, iota, jot, whit, glimmer, atom, bit, trace, vestige, ounce, shred, crumb, grain, mite, hint, touch, suggestion, whisper, scintilla; informal smidgen, tad.

• verb the trial sparked a furious row: cause, give rise to, lead to, occasion, bring about, start, initiate, precipitate, prompt, trigger (off), provoke, stimulate, stir up.

sparkle verb 1 her earrings sparkled: glitter, glint, glisten, twinkle, flash, blink, wink, shimmer, shine, gleam; literary coruscate, glister. 2 she sparkled as the hostess: be lively, be vivacious, be animated, be ebullient, be exuberant, be bubbly, be effervescent, be witty, be full of life. • noun the sparkle of the pool: glitter, glint, twinkle, flicker, shimmer, flash, shine, gleam; literary coruscation.

sparkling adjective 1 sparkling wine: effervescent, fizzy, carbonated, aerated, gassy, bubbly, frothy; mousseux, spumante. 2 a sparkling performance: brilliant, dazzling, scintillating, exciting, exhilarating, stimulating, invigorating; vivacious, lively, vibrant, animated.

– OPPOSITES still, dull.

sparse adjective scant, scanty, scattered, scarce, infrequent, few and far between; meagre, paltry, skimpy, limited, in short supply.

– OPPOSITES abundant.

spartan adjective austere, harsh, hard, frugal, stringent, rigorous, strict, stern, severe; ascetic, abstemious; bleak, joyless, grim, bare, stark, plain.

– OPPOSITES luxurious.

spasm noun 1 a muscle spasm: contraction, convulsion, cramp; twitch, jerk, tic, shudder, shiver, tremor. 2 a spasm of coughing: fit, paroxysm, attack, burst, bout, seizure, outburst, outbreak, access; informal splurt; formal boutade.

spasmodic adjective intermittent, fitful, irregular, sporadic, erratic, occasional, infrequent, scattered, patchy, isolated, periodic, periodical, on and off.

spate noun series, succession, run, cluster, string, rash, epidemic, outbreak, wave, flurry, rush, flood, deluge, torrent.

splatter verb splash, bespatter, splatter, spray, sprinkle, shower, speck, speckle, fleck, mottle, blotch, mark, cover; informal splotch; Brit. informal splodge.

spawn verb give rise to, bring about, occasion, generate, engender, originate; lead to, result in, effect, induce, initiate, start, set off, precipitate, trigger; breed, bear; literary beget.

speak verb 1 she refused to speak about it: talk, say anything/something; utter, state, declare, tell, voice, express, pronounce, articulate, enunciate, vocalize, verbalize. 2 we spoke the other day: converse, have a conversation, talk, communicate, chat, pass the time of day, have a word, gossip; informal have a confab, chew the fat; Brit. informal natter; N. Amer. informal shoot the breeze; formal confabulate. 3 the Minister spoke for two hours: give a speech, talk, lecture, hold forth, discourse, expound, expatiate, orate, sermonize, pontificate; informal spout, spiel, speechify, jaw, sound off. 4 he was spoken of as a promising student: mention, talk about, discuss, refer to, remark on, allude to. 5 his expression spoke disbelief: indicate, show, display, register, reveal, betray, exhibit, manifest, express, convey, impart, bespeak, communicate, evidence; suggest, denote, reflect; formal evince. 6 you must speak to him about his rudeness: reprimand, rebuke, admonish, chastise, chide, upbraid, reprove, reproach, scold, remonstrate with, take to task, pull up; informal tell off, dress down, rap over the knuckles, come down on; Brit. informal tick off; formal castigate.

■ speak for 1 she speaks for the Liberal Democrats: represent, act for, appear for, express the views of, be spokesperson for. 2 I spoke for the motion: advocate, champion, uphold, defend, support, promote, recommend, back, endorse, sponsor, espouse.

■ speak out speak publicly, speak openly, speak frankly, speak one's mind, sound off, stand up and be counted.

■ speak up speak loudly, speak clearly, raise one's voice; shout, yell, bellow; informal holler.

speaker noun speech-maker, lecturer, talker, speechifier, orator, declaimer, rhetorician; spokesperson, spokesman/woman, mouthpiece; reader, lector, commentator, broadcaster, narrator; informal tub-thumper, spieler; historical demagogue, rhetor.

spear noun javelin, lance, assegai, harpoon, bayonet; gaff, leister; historical pike.

spearhead noun the spearhead of the struggle against Fascism: leader(s), driving force; forefront, front runner(s), front line, vanguard, van, cutting edge.

• verb she spearheaded the campaign: lead, head, front; lead the way, be in the van, be in the vanguard.

special adjective 1 a very special person: exceptional, unusual, singular, uncommon, notable, noteworthy, remarkable, outstanding, unique. 2 our town's special character: distinctive, distinct, individual, particular, specific, peculiar. 3 a special occasion: momentous, significant, memorable, signal, important, historic, festive, gala, red-letter. 4 a special tool for cutting tiles: specific, particular, purpose-built, tailor-made, custom-built.

– OPPOSITES ordinary, general.

specialist noun expert, authority, pundit, professional; connoisseur; master, maestro, adept, virtuoso; informal pro, buff, ace, whizz, hotshot; Brit. informal dab hand; N. Amer. informal maven.

– OPPOSITES amateur.

speciality noun 1 his speciality was watercolours: forte, strong point, strength, métier, strong suit, talent, skill, bent, gift; informal bag, thing, cup of tea. 2 a speciality of the region: delicacy, specialty, fine food/product, traditional food/product.

species noun type, kind, sort; genus, family, order, breed, strain, variety, class, classification, category, set, bracket; style, manner, form, genre; generation, vintage.

specific adjective 1 a specific purpose: particular, specified, fixed, set, determined, distinct, definite; single, individual, peculiar, discrete, express, precise. 2 I gave specific instructions: detailed, explicit, express, clear-cut, unequivocal, precise, exact, meticulous, strict, definite.

– OPPOSITES general, vague.

specification noun 1 clear specification of objectives: statement, identification, definition, description, setting out, framing, designation, detailing, enumeration; stipulation, prescription. 2 a shelter built to their specifications: instructions, guidelines, parameters, stipulations, requirements, conditions, provisions, restrictions, order; description, details.

specify verb state, name, identify, define, describe, set out, frame, itemize, detail, list, spell out, enumerate, particularize, cite, instance; stipulate, prescribe.

specimen noun sample, example, instance, illustration, demonstration, exemplification; bit, snippet; model, prototype, pattern, dummy, pilot, trial, taster, tester.

specious adjective misleading, deceptive, false, fallacious, unsound, casuistic, sophistic; plausible.

speck noun 1 a mere speck in the distance: dot, pinprick, spot, fleck, speckle. 2 a speck of dust: particle, grain, atom, molecule; bit, trace.

speckled adjective flecked, speckly, specked, freckled, freckly, spotted, spotty, dotted, mottled, dappled.

spectacle noun 1 a spectacle fit for a monarch: display, show, pageant, parade, performance, exhibition, extravaganza, spectacular. 2 they were rather an odd spectacle: sight, vision, scene, prospect, vista, picture. 3 don't make a spectacle of yourself: exhibition, laughing stock, fool, curiosity.

spectacles plural noun glasses, eyewear; N. Amer. eyeglasses; informal specs.

spectacular adjective 1 a spectacular victory: impressive, magnificent, splendid, dazzling, sensational, dramatic, remarkable, outstanding, memorable, unforgettable. 2 a spectacular view: striking, picturesque, eye-catching, breathtaking, arresting, glorious; informal out of this world.

– OPPOSITES unimpressive, dull.

• noun a spectacular put on for the tourists.
See SPECTACLE sense 1.

spectator noun watcher, viewer, observer, onlooker, bystander, witness; commentator, reporter, monitor; literary beholder.

– OPPOSITES participant.

spectral adjective ghostly, phantom, wraithlike, shadowy, incorporeal, insubstantial, disembodied, unearthly, other-worldly; informal spooky.

spectre noun 1 the spectres in the crypt: ghost, phantom, apparition, spirit, wraith, shadow, presence; informal spook; literary phantasm, shade. 2 the looming spectre of war: threat, menace, shadow, cloud; prospect; danger, peril, fear, dread.

spectrum noun range, gamut, sweep, scope, span; compass, orbit, ambit.

speculate verb 1 they speculated about my private life: conjecture, theorize, hypothesize, guess, surmise; think, wonder, muse. 2 investors speculate on the stock market: gamble, take a risk, venture, wager; invest, play the market; Brit. informal have a flutter, punt.

speculative adjective 1 any discussion is largely speculative: conjectural, suppositional, theoretical, hypothetical, putative, academic, notional, abstract; tentative, unproven, unfounded, groundless, unsubstantiated. 2 a speculative investment: risky, hazardous, unsafe, uncertain, unpredictable; informal chancy, dicey, iffy; Brit. informal dodgy.

speech noun 1 he doesn't have the power of speech: speaking, talking, verbal expression, verbal communication. 2 her speech was slurred: diction, elocution, articulation, enunciation, pronunciation; utterance, words. 3 an after-dinner speech: talk, address, lecture, discourse, oration, disquisition, peroration, deliverance, presentation; sermon, homily, monologue, soliloquy; informal spiel. 4 Spanish popular speech: language, tongue, parlance, idiom, dialect, vernacular, patois; informal lingo, patter, -speak, -ese.

WORD LINKS

oral, lingual, phonic relating to speech or speech sounds oracy the ability to express oneself fluently and grammatically in speech phonetics the study of speech sounds aphasia inability to understand or produce speech as a result of brain damage glossolalia the phenomenon of apparently speaking in an unknown language during religious worship speechless adjective lost for words, dumbstruck, bereft of speech, tongue-tied, inarticulate, mute, dumb, voiceless, silent; informal mum; old use mumchance.

– OPPOSITES verbose.

speed noun 1 the speed of their progress: rate, pace, tempo, momentum. 2 the speed with which they responded: rapidity, swiftness, speediness, quickness, dispatch, promptness, immediacy, briskness, sharpness; haste, hurry, precipitateness; acceleration, velocity; informal lick, clip; literary celerity.

• verb 1 I sped home: hurry, rush, dash, run, race, sprint, bolt, dart, gallop, career, charge, shoot, hurtle, hare, fly, zoom, scurry, scuttle, scamper, hasten; informal tear, belt, pelt, scoot, zip, whip, hotfoot it, leg it; Brit. informal bomb; N. Amer. informal hightail it. 2 he was caught speeding: drive too fast, exceed the speed limit. 3 a holiday will speed his recovery: hasten, expedite, speed up, accelerate, advance, further, promote, boost, stimulate, aid, assist, facilitate.

– OPPOSITES slow, hinder.

■ speed up hurry up, accelerate, go faster, get a move on, put a spurt on, pick up speed, gather speed; informal get cracking, get moving, step on it, shake a leg, get a wiggle on; Brit. informal get one's skates on.

WORD LINKS

supersonic faster than the speed of sound Mach used with a numeral to indicate the speed of sound, twice the speed of sound, etc.
tachometer an instrument measuring the speed of an engine tachograph a tachometer used in commercial vehicles to record vehicle speed over a period of time speedily adverb rapidly, swiftly, quickly, fast, post-haste, at the speed of light, at full tilt; promptly, immediately, briskly; hastily, hurriedly, precipitately; informal p.d.q. (pretty damn quick), double quick, hell for leather, at the double, like the wind, like (greased) lightning; Brit. informal like the clappers, like billy-o; N. Amer. informal lickety-split; literary apace.

speedy adjective 1 a speedy reply: rapid, swift, quick, fast; prompt, immediate, expeditious, express, brisk, sharp; whirlwind, lightning, meteoric; hasty, hurried, precipitate, breakneck, rushed; informal p.d.q. (pretty damn quick), snappy, quickie. 2 a speedy hatchback: fast, high-speed; informal nippy, zippy; literary fleet.

– OPPOSITES slow.

spell<sup>1</sup> verb the drought spelled disaster for them: signal, signify, mean, amount to, add up to, constitute; portend, augur, herald, bode, promise; involve; literary betoken, foretold, forebode.

■ spell something out explain, make clear, make plain, elucidate, clarify; specify, itemize, detail, enumerate, list, expound, particularize, catalogue.

WORD LINKS

orthography the conventional spelling system of a language spell<sup>2</sup> noun 1 the witch recited a spell: incantation, charm, conjuration, formula; (spells) magic, sorcery, witchcraft; N. Amer. hex. 2 she surrendered to his spell: influence, (animal) magnetism, charisma, allure, lure, charm, attraction, enticement; magic, romance, mystique.

■ cast a spell on bewitch, enchant, entrance; curse, jinx, witch; N. Amer. hex.

spell<sup>3</sup> noun 1 a spell of dry weather: period, time, interval, season, stretch, run, course, streak; Brit. informal patch. 2 a spell of dizziness: bout, fit, attack.

spellbinding adjective a spellbinding film: fascinating, enthralling, entrancing, bewitching, captivating, riveting, engrossing, gripping, absorbing, compelling, compulsive, mesmerizing, hypnotic; informal unputdownable.

– OPPOSITES boring.

spellbound adjective enthralled, fascinated, rapt, riveted, transfixed, gripped, captivated, bewitched, enchanted, mesmerized, hypnotized; informal hooked.

spend verb 1 she spent £185 on shoes: pay out, dish out, expend, disburse; squander, waste, fritter away; lavish; informal fork out, lay out, shell out, cough up, blow, splash out, splurge; Brit. informal stump up, blue; N. Amer. informal pony up. 2 the morning was spent gardening: pass, occupy, fill, take up, while away. 3 I've spent hours on this essay: put in, devote; waste. 4 the storm had spent its force: use up, consume, exhaust, deplete, drain.

spendthrift noun he is such a spendthrift: profligate, prodigal, squanderer, waster; informal big spender.

– OPPOSITES miser.

• adjective his spendthrift father: profligate, improvident, thriftless, wasteful, extravagant, prodigal.

– OPPOSITES frugal.

spent adjective 1 a spent force: used up, consumed, exhausted, finished, depleted, drained; informal burnt out. 2 that's enough—I'm spent: exhausted, tired (out), weary, worn out, dog-tired, on one's last legs, drained, fatigued, ready to drop; informal done in, all in, dead on one's feet, dead beat, bushed, wiped out, frazzled; Brit. informal knackered, whacked; N. Amer. informal pooped, tuckered out.

spew verb 1 factories spewed out yellow smoke: emit, discharge, eject, expel, belch out, pour out, spout, gush, spurt, disgorge.

2 (informal) he wanted to spew. See VOMIT verb sense 1.

sphere noun 1 a glass sphere: globe, ball, orb, spheroid, globule, round; bubble. 2 our sphere of influence: area, field, compass, orbit; range, scope, extent. 3 the sphere of foreign affairs: domain, realm, province, field, area, territory, arena, department.

spherical adjective round, globular, globose, globoid, globe-shaped, spheroidal, spheric; literary orbicular.

spice noun 1 the spices in curry powder: seasoning, flavouring, condiment. 2 the risk added spice to their affair: excitement, interest, colour, piquancy, zest; an edge; informal a kick; literary salt.

■ spice something up enliven, make more exciting, vitalize, perk up, put some life into, ginger up, galvanize, electrify, boost; informal pep up, jazz up, buck up.

spick and span adjective neat, tidy, orderly, well kept, shipshape (and Bristol fashion), in apple-pie order; immaculate, uncluttered, trim, spruce; spotless.

– OPPOSITES untidy.

spicy adjective 1 a spicy casserole: piquant, tangy, peppery, hot, picante; spiced, seasoned; tasty, flavoursome, zesty, strong, pungent. 2 spicy stories: entertaining, colourful, lively, spirited, exciting, piquant, zesty; risqué, racy, scandalous, ribald, titillating, bawdy, naughty, salacious, dirty, smutty; informal raunchy, juicy; Brit. informal saucy, fruity; N. Amer. informal gamy.

– OPPOSITES bland, boring.

spider noun

WORD LINKS

arachnid a creature of a class including spiders and scorpions arachnophobia fear of spiders spiel noun (informal) speech, patter, (sales) pitch, talk; monologue; rigmarole, story, saga.

spike noun 1 a metal spike: prong, barb, point; skewer, stake, spit; tine, pin; spur; Mountaineering piton. 2 the spikes of a cactus: thorn, spine, prickle, bristle; Zoology spicule.

• verb 1 she spiked an oyster: impale, spear, skewer; pierce, penetrate, perforate, stab, stick, transfix; literary transpierce. 2 (informal) his drink was spiked with drugs: adulterate, contaminate, drug, lace; informal dope, doctor, cut.

spill verb 1 Kevin spilled his drink: knock over, tip over, upset, overturn. 2 the bath water spilled on to the floor: overflow, flow, pour, run, slop, slosh, splash; leak, escape; old use overbrim. 3 students spilled out of the building: stream, pour, surge, swarm, flood, throng, crowd. 4 the horse spilled his rider: unseat, throw, dislodge, unhorse. 5 (informal) he's spilling out his troubles to her: reveal, disclose, divulge, blurt out, babble, betray, tell; informal blab.

• noun 1 an oil spill: spillage, leak, leakage, overflow, flood. 2 he took a spill in the opening race: fall, tumble; informal header, cropper, nosedive.

■ spill the beans (informal) reveal all, tell all, give the game away, talk; informal let the cat out of the bag, blab, come clean.

spin verb 1 the bike wheels are spinning:

revolve, rotate, turn, go round, whirl, gyrate, circle. 2 she spun round to face him: whirl, wheel, twirl, turn, swing, twist, swivel, pirouette, pivot. 3 her head was spinning: reel, whirl, go round, swim. 4 she spun me a yarn: tell, recount, relate, narrate; weave, concoct, invent, fabricate, make up.

● noun 1 a spin of the wheel: rotation, revolution, turn, whirl, twirl, gyration. 2 a positive spin on the campaign: slant, angle, twist, bias. 3 a spin in the car: trip, jaunt, outing, excursion, journey; drive, ride, run, turn, airing; informal tootle; Scottish informal hurl.

■ spin something out prolong, protract, draw out, drag out, string out, extend, carry on, continue; fill out, pad out; old use wire-draw.

spindle noun pivot, pin, rod, axle, capstan; axis.

spindly adjective 1 he was pale and spindly: lanky, thin, skinny, lean, spare, gangling, gangly, scrawny, bony, rangy, angular; dated spindle-shanked. 2 spindly chairs: rickety, flimsy, wobbly, shaky.

– OPPOSITES stocky.

spine noun 1 he injured his spine: backbone, spinal column, vertebral column; back; technical rachis. 2 the spine of his philosophy: core, centre, cornerstone, foundation, basis. 3 the spines of a hedgehog: needle, quill, bristle, barb, spike, prickle; thorn; technical spicule.

spine-chilling adjective terrifying, blood-curdling, petrifying, hair-raising, frightening, scaring, chilling, horrifying, fearsome; eerie, sinister, ghostly; Scottish eldritch; informal scary, creepy, spooky.

– OPPOSITES comforting, reassuring.

spineless adjective weak, weak-willed, weak-kneed, feeble, soft, ineffectual, irresolute, indecisive; cowardly, timid, timorous, fearful, faint-hearted, pusillanimous, craven, unmanly, namby-pamby, lily-livered, chicken-hearted; informal wimpish, wimpy, sissy, chicken, yellow, yellow-bellied, gutless; Brit. informal wet.

– OPPOSITES bold, brave, strong-willed.

spiny adjective prickly, spiky, thorny, bristly, bristled, spiked, barbed, scratchy, sharp; technical spinose, spinous.

spiral adjective a spiral column of smoke: coiled, helical, corkscrew, curling, winding, twisting, whorled; technical voluted, helicoid, helicoidal.

● noun a spiral of smoke: coil, helix, corkscrew, curl, twist, gyre, whorl, scroll; technical volute, volution.

● verb 1 smoke spiralled up: coil, wind, swirl, twist, wreath, snake, gyrate; literary gyre.

2 prices spiralled: soar, shoot up, rocket, increase rapidly, rise rapidly, escalate, climb; informal skyrocket, go through the roof. 3 the economy is spiralling downward: deteriorate, decline, go downhill, degenerate, worsen, get worse; informal take a nosedive, go to pot, go to the dogs, hit the skids, go down the tubes.

– OPPOSITES fall, improve.

spire noun steeple, flèche.

spirit noun 1 harmony between body and spirit: soul, psyche, (inner) self, inner being, inner man/woman, mind, ego, id; Philosophy pneuma. 2 a spirit haunts the island: ghost, phantom, spectre, apparition, wraith, presence; informal spook; literary shade.

3 that's the spirit: attitude, frame of mind, way of thinking, point of view, outlook, thoughts, ideas. 4 she was in good spirits when I left: mood, frame of mind, state of mind, emotional state, humour, temper.

5 team spirit: morale, esprit de corps.

6 the spirit of the age: ethos, prevailing tendency, motivating force, essence, quintessence; atmosphere, mood, feeling, climate; attitudes, beliefs, principles, standards, ethics. 7 his spirit never failed him: courage, bravery, pluck, valour, strength of character, fortitude, backbone, mettle, stout-heartedness, determination, resolution, resolve, fight, grit; informal guts, spunk; Brit. informal bottle; N. Amer. informal sand, moxie. 8 they played with great spirit: enthusiasm, eagerness, keenness, liveliness, vivacity, vivaciousness, animation, energy, verve, vigour, dynamism, zest, dash, elan, panache, sparkle, exuberance, gusto, brio, pep, fervour, zeal, fire, passion; informal get-up-and-go. 9 the spirit of the law: real/true meaning, true intention, essence, substance. 10 he drinks spirits: strong liquor/drink; informal hard stuff, firewater, hooch.

– OPPOSITES body, flesh.

■ spirit someone/something away whisk away/off, vanish with, make off with, run away with, abscond with, carry off, steal someone/something away, abduct, kidnap, snatch, seize.

spirited adjective lively, vivacious, vibrant, full of life, vital, animated, high-spirited, sparkling, sprightly, energetic, active, vigorous, dynamic, dashing, enthusiastic, passionate; determined, resolute, purposeful; informal feisty, spunky, have-a-go, gutsy; N. Amer. informal peppy.

– OPPOSITES timid, apathetic, lifeless.

spiritless adjective apathetic, passive, unenthusiastic, lifeless, listless, weak, feeble, spineless, languid, bloodless, insipid, characterless, submissive, meek, irresolute, indecisive; lacklustre, flat, colourless, passionless, uninspired, wooden, dry, anaemic, vapid, dull, boring, wishy-washy.

– OPPOSITES spirited, lively.

spiritual adjective 1 your spiritual self: non-material, incorporeal, intangible; inner, mental, psychological; transcendent, ethereal, other-worldly, mystic, mystical, metaphysical; rare extramundane. 2 spiritual writings: religious, sacred, divine, holy, non-secular, church, ecclesiastical, devotional.

– OPPOSITES physical, secular.

spit<sup>1</sup> verb 1 Cranston coughed and spat:

expectorate, hawk; Brit. informal gob. 2 'Go to hell,' she spat: snap, say angrily, hiss. 3 the fat began to spit: sizzle, hiss; crackle, sputter. 4 (Brit.) it began to spit: rain lightly, drizzle, spot; N. English mizzle; N. Amer. sprinkle.

• noun 1 spit dribbled from his mouth: spittle, saliva, sputum, slobber, dribble; Brit. informal gob. 2 (informal) he is the spit of his father: exact likeness, image, very/living image, double, twin, lookalike, duplicate, copy, Doppelgänger; informal spitting image, ringer, dead ringer.

spit<sup>2</sup> noun chicken cooked on a spit: skewer, brochette, rotisserie.

spite noun he said it out of spite: malice, malevolence, ill will, vindictiveness, vengefulness, revenge, malignity, evil intentions, animus, enmity; informal bitchiness, cattiness; literary maleficence.

– OPPOSITES benevolence.

• verb he did it to spite me: upset, hurt, make miserable, grieve, distress, wound, pain, torment, injure.

– OPPOSITES please.

■ in spite of despite, notwithstanding, regardless of, for all; undeterred by, in defiance of, in the face of; even though, although.

spiteful adjective malicious, malevolent, evil-intentioned, vindictive, vengeful, malign, mean, nasty, hurtful, mischievous, wounding, cruel, unkind; informal bitchy, catty; literary malefic, maleficent.

– OPPOSITES benevolent.

splash verb 1 splash your face with cool water: sprinkle, spray, shower, splatter, slosh, slop, squirt; daub; wet. 2 his boots were splashed with mud: spatter, bespatter, splatter, speck, speckle, blotch, smear, stain, mark; Scottish & Irish slabber; informal splotch, sploodge; literary bedabble. 3 waves splashed on the beach: swash, wash, break, lap; dash, beat, lash, batter, crash, buffet; literary plash. 4 children splashed in the water: paddle, wade, slosh; wallow; informal splosh. 5 the story was splashed across the front pages: blazon, display, spread, plaster, trumpet, publicize; informal splatter.

• noun 1 a splash of fat on his shirt: spot, blob, dab, daub, smudge, smear, speck, fleck; mark, stain; informal splotch, sploodge. 2 a splash of lemonade: drop, dash, bit, spot, soupçon, dribble, dribble; Scottish informal scoosh. 3 a splash of colour: patch, burst, streak.

■ make a splash (informal) cause a sensation, cause a stir, attract attention, draw attention to oneself/itself, get noticed, make an impression, make an impact.

■ splash out (Brit. informal) be extravagant, go on a spending spree, spare no expense, spend lavishly; informal lash out, splurge; Brit. informal push the boat out.

spleen noun bad temper, bad mood, ill temper, ill humour, anger, wrath, vexation, annoyance, irritation, displeasure, dissatisfaction, resentment, rancour; spite, ill feeling, malice, maliciousness, bitterness, animosity, antipathy, hostility, malevolence, venom, gall, malignance, malignity, acrimony, bile, hatred, hate; literary ire, choler.

– OPPOSITES good humour.

splendid adjective 1 splendid costumes:

magnificent, sumptuous, grand, impressive, imposing, superb, spectacular, resplendent, opulent, luxurious, de luxe, rich, fine, costly, expensive, lavish, ornate, gorgeous, glorious, dazzling, elegant, handsome, beautiful; stately, majestic, princely, noble, proud, palatial; informal plush, posh, swanky, ritzy, splendiferous; Brit. informal swish; N. Amer. informal swank; literary brave. 2 (informal) we had a splendid holiday: excellent, wonderful, marvellous, superb, glorious, sublime, lovely, delightful, first-class, first-rate; informal super, great, amazing, fantastic, terrific, tremendous, phenomenal, sensational, heavenly, gorgeous, dreamy, grand, fabulous, fab, awesome, magic, ace, cool, mean, bad, wicked, mega, crucial, far out, A1, sound, out of this world; Brit. informal smashing, brilliant, brill; N. Amer. informal dandy, neat; Austral./NZ informal beaut, bonzer; black English def; informal, dated divine, capital; Brit. informal, dated champion, wizard, ripping, cracking, spiffing, top-hole; N. Amer. informal, dated swell; old use goodly.

– OPPOSITES modest, awful.

splendour noun magnificence, sumptuousness, grandeur, impressiveness, resplendence, opulence, luxury, richness, fineness, lavishness, ornateness, glory, beauty, elegance; majesty, stateliness; informal ritziness, splendiferousness.

– OPPOSITES ordinariness, simplicity, modesty.

splenic adjective bad-tempered, ill-tempered, angry, cross, peevish, petulant, pettish, irritable, irascible, choleric, dyspeptic, testy, tetchy, snappish, waspish, crotchety, crabby, querulous, resentful, rancorous, bilious; spiteful, malicious, ill-natured, hostile, acrimonious, sour, bitter, malevolent, malignant, malign; informal bitchy.

– OPPOSITES good-humoured.

splice verb the ropes are spliced together:

interweave, braid, plait, entwine, intertwine, interlace, knit, mesh; Nautical marry.

■ get spliced (informal). See MARRY sense 1.

splinter noun a splinter of wood: sliver, shiver, chip, shard; fragment, piece, bit, shred; Scottish skelf; (splinters) matchwood, flinders.

• verb the windscreen splintered: shatter, break into tiny pieces, smash, smash into smithereens, fracture, split, crack, disintegrate, crumble.

split verb 1 the axe split the wood: break, chop, cut, hew, lop, cleave; snap, crack. 2 the ice cracked and split: break apart, fracture, rupture, fissure, snap, come apart, splinter. 3 her dress was split: tear, rip, slash, slit; literary rend. 4 the issue could split the Party: divide, disunite, separate, sever; bisect, partition; literary tear asunder. 5 they split the money between them: share (out), divide (up), apportion, allocate, allot, distribute, dole out, parcel out, measure out; carve up, slice up; informal divvy up. 6 the path split: fork, divide, bifurcate, diverge, branch. 7 they split up last year: break up, separate, part, part company, become estranged; divorce, get divorced; Brit. informal bust up.

– OPPOSITES join, unite.

• noun 1 a split in the rock face: crack, fissure, cleft, crevice, break, fracture, breach. 2 a split in the curtain: rip, tear, cut, rent, slash, slit. 3 a split in the Party: division, rift, breach, schism, rupture, partition, separation, severance, scission, break-up. 4 the acrimonious split with his wife: break-up, split up, separation, parting, estrangement, rift; divorce; Brit. informal bust-up.

– OPPOSITES marriage.

■ split hairs quibble, cavil, carp, niggle, chop logic; informal nit-pick; old use pettifog.

WORD LINKS

fissile easily split

split-up noun break-up, separation, split, parting, estrangement, rift; divorce; Brit. informal bust-up.

spoil verb 1 too much sun spoils the complexion: mar, damage, impair, blemish, disfigure, blight, flaw, deface, scar, injure, harm; ruin, destroy, wreck; be a blot on the landscape; rare disfigure. 2 rain spoiled my plans: ruin, wreck, destroy, upset, undo, mess up, make a mess of, dash, sabotage, scotch, torpedo; Brit. throw a spanner in the works of; informal foul up, louse up, muck up, screw up, put the kibosh on, banjax, do for; Brit. informal cock up, scupper; old use bring to naught. 3 his sisters spoil him: overindulge, pamper, indulge, mollify, coddle, cosset, coddle, baby, wait on hand and foot, kill with kindness; nanny; old use cocker. 4 stockpiled food may spoil: go bad, go off, go rancid, turn, go sour, go mouldy, go rotten, rot, perish.

S – OPPOSITES improve, enhance, further, help, neglect, be strict with, keep.

■ spoiling for eager for, looking for, keen to have, after, bent on, longing for; informal itching for.

spoils plural noun 1 the spoils of war: booty, loot, stolen goods, plunder, ill-gotten gains, haul, pickings; informal swag, boodle. 2 the spoils of office: benefits, advantages, perks, prize; formal perquisites.

spoilsport noun killjoy, dog in the manger, misery, damper; informal wet blanket, party-pooper.

spoken adjective spoken communication: verbal, oral, vocal, viva voce, uttered, said, stated; unwritten; by word of mouth.

– OPPOSITES non-verbal, written.

■ spoken for 1 the money is spoken for: reserved, set aside, claimed, owned, booked. 2 Claudine is spoken for: attached, in a relationship; informal going steady; dated courting.

spokesman, spokeswoman noun spokesperson, representative, agent, mouthpiece, voice, official; informal spin doctor.

sponge verb 1 I'll sponge your face: wash, clean, wipe, swab; mop, rinse, sluice, swill.

2 (informal) he lived by sponging off others: beg, be a parasite; live off; informal scrounge, freeload, cadge, bum; N. Amer. informal mooch; Austral./NZ bludge.

sponger noun (informal) parasite, hanger-on, leech, scrounger, beggar; informal freeloader, cadger, bum, bloodsucker; N. Amer. informal mooch, moocher, schnorrer; Austral./NZ informal bludger.

spongy adjective soft, squashy, cushioned, cushiony, compressible, yielding; springy, resilient, elastic; porous, absorbent, permeable; technical spongiform; Brit. informal squidgy.

– OPPOSITES hard, solid.

sponsor noun the money came from sponsors: backer, patron, promoter, benefactor, benefactress, supporter, contributor, subscriber, friend, guarantor, underwriter; informal angel.

• verb a bank sponsored the event: finance, put up the money for, fund, subsidize, back, promote, support, contribute to, be a patron of, guarantee, underwrite; informal foot the bill for, pick up the tab for; N. Amer. informal bankroll.

sponsorship noun backing, support, promotion, patronage, subsidy, funding, financing, aid, financial assistance.

spontaneous adjective 1 a spontaneous display of affection: unplanned, unpremeditated, unrehearsed, impulsive, impetuous, unstudied, impromptu, spur-of-the-moment, extempore, extemporaneous; unforced, voluntary, unconstrained, unprompted, unbidden, unsolicited; informal off-the-cuff. 2 a spontaneous reaction to danger: reflex, automatic, mechanical, natural, knee-jerk, involuntary, unthinking, unconscious, instinctive, instinctual; informal gut. 3 a spontaneous kind of person: natural, uninhibited, relaxed, unselfconscious, unaffected, open, genuine, easy, free and easy; impulsive, impetuous.

– OPPOSITES planned, calculated, conscious, voluntary, inhibited.

spontaneously adverb 1 they applauded spontaneously: without being asked, of one's own accord, voluntarily, on impulse, impulsively, on the spur of the moment, extempore, extemporaneously; informal off the cuff. 2 he reacted spontaneously: without thinking, automatically, mechanically, unthinkingly, involuntarily, instinctively, naturally, by oneself/itself.

spooky adjective (informal) eerie, sinister, ghostly, uncanny, weird, unearthly, mysterious; frightening, spine-chilling, hair-raising; informal creepy, scary, spine-tingling.

sporadic adjective occasional, infrequent, irregular, periodic, scattered, patchy, isolated, odd; intermittent, spasmodic, fitful, desultory, erratic, unpredictable.

– OPPOSITES frequent, steady, continuous.

sport noun 1 we did a lot of sport at school: (competitive) game(s), physical recreation, physical activity, physical exercise. 2 (dated) they were rogues out for a bit of sport: fun, pleasure, enjoyment, entertainment, diversion, amusement.

• verb he sported a beard: wear, have on, dress in; display, exhibit, show off, flourish, parade, flaunt.

sporting adjective sportsmanlike, generous, gentlemanly, considerate; fair, just, honourable; Brit. informal decent.

– OPPOSITES dirty, unfair.

sporty adjective (informal) 1 he's quite a sporty type: athletic, fit, active, energetic. 2 a sporty outfit: stylish, smart, jaunty; casual, informal; informal trendy, cool, snazzy; N. Amer. informal sassy. 3 a sporty car: fast, speedy; informal nippy, zippy.

– OPPOSITES unfit, lazy, formal, sloppy, slow.

spot noun 1 a grease spot on the wall: mark, patch, dot, fleck, smudge, smear, stain, blotch, blot, splash; informal splotch, splodge. 2 a spot on his nose: pimple, pustule, blackhead, boil, swelling, eruption, wen, sty; (spots) acne; technical comedo, papule; informal zit, whitehead; Scottish informal plook.

3 a secluded spot: place, location, site, position, point, situation, scene, setting, locale, locality, area, neighbourhood, region; venue; technical locus. 4 social policy has a regular spot on the agenda: position, place, slot, space. 5 a spot to eat or drink: bit, little, some, small amount, morsel, bite, mouthful; drop, splash; informal smidgen, tad. 6 (informal) in a tight spot: predicament, mess, difficulty, trouble, plight, corner, quandary, dilemma; informal fix, jam, hole, sticky situation, pickle, scrape, hot water.

• verb 1 she spotted him in his car: notice, see, observe, note, discern, detect, perceive, make out, recognize, identify, locate; catch sight of, glimpse; Brit. informal clock; literary behold, espy. 2 her clothes were spotted with grease: stain, mark, fleck, speckle, smudge, streak, splash, spatter; informal splotch, splodge. 3 it was spotting with rain: rain lightly, drizzle; Brit. spit; N. English mizzle; N. Amer. sprinkle.

■ on the spot immediately, at once, straight away, right away, without delay, without hesitation, that instant, directly, there and then, then and there, forthwith, instantly; summarily; N. Amer. in short order; old use straightaway, instant.

■ spot on (Brit. informal) accurate, correct, right, perfect, exact, unerring; Brit. informal bang on; N. Amer. informal on the money, on the nose.

spotless adjective 1 the kitchen was spotless: perfectly clean, ultra-clean, pristine, immaculate, shining, shiny, gleaming, spick and span. 2 a spotless reputation:

unblemished, unsullied, untarnished, untainted, unstained, pure, whiter than white, innocent, impeccable, blameless, irreproachable, above reproach; informal squeaky clean.

– OPPOSITES dirty, tarnished, impure.

spotlight noun she was constantly in the spotlight: public eye, glare of publicity, limelight; focus of public/media attention.

• verb this article spotlights the problem: focus attention on, highlight, point up, draw/call attention to, give prominence to, throw into relief, turn the spotlight on, bring to the fore.

spotted adjective 1 the spotted leaves: mottled, dappled, speckled, flecked, freckled, freckly, dotted, stippled, brindle(d); informal splotchy. 2 a black-and-white spotted dress: polka-dot, spotty, dotted.

– OPPOSITES plain.

spotty adjective 1 a spotty dog: spotted, mottled, speckled, speckly, flecked, specked, stippled; informal sploidy, splotchy. 2 a spotty dress: polka-dot, spotted, dotted. 3 (Brit.) his spotty face: pimply, pimples, acned.

spouse noun partner, mate, consort; informal better half; Brit. informal other half. See also HUSBAND noun, WIFE.

spout verb 1 lava was spouting from the crater: spurt, gush, spew, erupt, shoot, squirt, spray; disgorge, discharge, emit, belch forth. 2 he spouts on foreign affairs: hold forth, sound off, go on, talk at length, expatiate; informal mouth off, speechify, spiel. • noun a can with a spout: nozzle, lip, rose. ■ up the spout (Brit. informal) 1 my computer's up the spout. See BROKEN sense 3. 2 his daughter's up the spout. See PREGNANT sense 1.

sprawl verb 1 he sprawled on a sofa: stretch out, lounge, loll, lie, recline, drape oneself, slump, flop, slouch. 2 the town sprawled ahead of them: spread, stretch, extend, be strung out, be scattered, straggle, spill.

spray<sup>1</sup> noun 1 a spray of water: shower, sprinkling, sprinkle, jet, mist, drizzle; spume, spindrift; foam, froth. 2 a perfume spray: atomizer, vaporizer, aerosol, sprinkler; nebulizer.

• verb 1 water was sprayed around: sprinkle, shower, spatter; scatter, disperse, diffuse; mist; douche; literary besprinkle. 2 water sprayed into the air: spout, jet, gush, spurt, shoot, squirt.

spray<sup>2</sup> noun 1 a spray of holly: sprig, twig. 2 a spray of flowers: bouquet, bunch, posy, nosegay; corsage, buttonhole, boutonnière.

spread verb 1 he spread the map out: lay out, open out, unfurl, unroll, roll out; straighten out, fan out; stretch out, extend; literary outspread. 2 the landscape spread out below: extend, stretch, open out, be displayed, be exhibited, be on show; sprawl. 3 papers were spread all over his desk: scatter, strew, disperse, distribute. 4 he's been spreading rumours: disseminate, circulate, pass on, put about, communicate, diffuse, make public, make known, purvey, broadcast, publicize, propagate, promulgate; repeat; literary bruit about/abroad. 5 she spread cold cream on her face: smear, daub, plaster, slather, lather, apply, put; smooth, rub. 6 he spread the toast with butter: cover, coat, layer, daub, smother; butter.

– OPPOSITES fold up, suppress.

• noun 1 the spread of learning: expansion, proliferation, extension, growth; dissemination, diffusion, transmission, propagation. 2 a spread of six feet: span, width, extent, stretch, reach. 3 the immense spread of the heavens: expanse, area, sweep, stretch. 4 a wide spread of subjects: range, span, spectrum, sweep; variety. 5 (informal) his mother laid on a huge spread: large/elaborate meal, feast, banquet; informal blowout, nosh; Brit. informal nosh-up, slap-up meal.

spree noun 1 a shopping spree: unrestrained bout, orgy; informal binge, splurge; humorous retail therapy. 2 a drinking spree: drinking bout, debauch; informal binge, bender, session, booze-up, blind; Scottish informal skite; N. Amer. informal jag, toot; literary bacchanal, bacchanalia; old use wassail.

sprig noun small stem, spray, twig.

sprightly adjective spry, lively, agile, nimble, energetic, active, full of energy, vigorous, spirited, animated, vivacious, frisky; informal full of vim and vigour; N. English informal wick.

– OPPOSITES doddery, lethargic.

spring verb 1 the cat sprang off her lap: leap, jump, bound, vault, hop. 2 the branch sprang back: fly, whip, flick, whisk, kick, bounce.

3 all art springs from feelings: originate, derive, arise, stem, emanate, proceed, issue, evolve, come. 4 fifty men sprang from nowhere: appear suddenly, appear unexpectedly, materialize, pop up, shoot up, sprout, develop quickly; proliferate, mushroom. 5 he sprang the truth on me: announce suddenly/unexpectedly, reveal suddenly/unexpectedly, surprise someone with.

• noun 1 with a sudden spring he leapt on to the table: leap, jump, bound, vault, hop; pounce. 2 the mattress has lost its spring: springiness, bounciness, bounce, resilience, elasticity, flexibility, stretch, stretchiness, give. 3 there was a spring in his step: buoyancy, bounce, energy, liveliness, jauntiness, sprightliness, confidence. 4 a mineral spring: well head, source; spa, geyser; literary wellspring, fount. 5 the springs of his own emotions: origin, source, fountainhead, root, roots, basis.

WORD LINKS

vernal relating to the season of spring springy adjective elastic, stretchy, stretchable, tensile; flexible, pliant, pliable, whippy; bouncy, resilient, spongy.

– OPPOSITES rigid, squashy.

sprinkle verb 1 he sprinkled water over the towel: splash, trickle, spray, shower; spatter. 2 sprinkle sesame seeds over the top: scatter, strew; drizzle. 3 sprinkle the cake with icing sugar: dredge, dust. 4 the sky was sprinkled with stars: dot, stipple, stud, fleck, speckle, spot, pepper; scatter, cover; literary besprinkle.

sprinkling noun 1 a sprinkling of nutmeg: scattering, sprinkle, scatter, dusting; pinch, dash. 2 mainly women, but a sprinkling of men: few, one or two, couple, handful, small number, trickle, scattering.

sprint verb run, race, dart, rush, dash, hasten, hurry, scurry, scamper, hare, bolt, fly, gallop, career, charge, shoot, hurtle, speed, zoom, go like lightning, go hell for leather, go like the wind; jog, trot; informal tear, pelt, scoot, hotfoot it, leg it, belt, zip, whip; Brit. informal bomb; N. Amer. informal hightail it, barrel.

– OPPOSITES walk.

sprite noun fairy, elf, pixie, imp, brownie, puck, peri, kelpie, leprechaun; nymph, nixie, sylph, naiad.

sprout verb 1 the weeds begin to sprout: germinate, put/send out shoots, bud, burgeon. 2 he had sprouted a beard: grow, develop, put/send out. 3 parsley sprouted from the pot: spring up, shoot up, come up, grow, burgeon, develop, appear.

spruce adjective the Captain looked very spruce: neat, well groomed, well turned out, well dressed, smart, trim, dapper, elegant, chic; informal natty, snazzy; N. Amer. informal spiffy, trig.

– OPPOSITES untidy.

• verb 1 the cottage had been spruced up: smarten, tidy, neat, put in order, clean; informal do up; Brit. informal tart up, posh up; N. Amer. informal gussy up. 2 Sarah had spruced herself up: groom, tidy, smarten, preen, primp, prink; N. Amer. trig; informal titivate, doll up; Brit. informal tart up.

spry adjective sprightly, lively, agile, nimble, energetic, active, full of energy, vigorous, spirited, animated, vivacious, frisky; informal full of vim and vigour; N. English informal wick.

– OPPOSITES doddery, lethargic.

spume noun foam, froth, surf, spindrift, bubbles.

spunk noun (informal) courage, bravery, valour, nerve, confidence, daring, audacity, pluck, spirit, grit, mettle, spine, backbone; informal guts, gumption; Brit. informal bottle; N. Amer. informal moxie.

spur noun 1 competition can be a spur: stimulus, incentive, encouragement, inducement, fillip, impetus, prod, motivation, inspiration; informal kick up the backside, shot in the arm. 2 a spur of bone: projection, spike, point; technical process.

– OPPOSITES disincentive, discouragement.

• verb the thought spurred him into action: stimulate, encourage, prompt, propel, prod, induce, impel, motivate, move, galvanize, inspire, incentivize, urge, drive, egg on, stir; incite, goad, provoke, prick, sting; N. Amer. light a fire under.

– OPPOSITES discourage.

■ on the spur of the moment impulsively, on impulse, impetuously, without thinking, without premeditation, unpremeditatedly, impromptu, extempore, spontaneously; informal off the cuff.

spurious adjective bogus, fake, false, counterfeit, forged, fraudulent, sham, artificial, imitation, simulated, feigned, deceptive, misleading; informal phoney, pretend; Brit. informal cod.

– OPPOSITES genuine.

spurn verb reject, rebuff, scorn, turn down, treat with contempt, disdain, look down one's nose at, despise; snub, slight, jilt, dismiss, brush off, turn one's back on; give someone the cold shoulder, cold-shoulder; informal turn one's nose up at, give someone the brush-off, kick in the teeth; Brit. informal knock back; N. Amer. informal give someone the bum's rush.

– OPPOSITES welcome, accept.

spurt verb water spurted from the tap: squirt, shoot, jet, erupt, gush, pour, stream, pump, surge, spew, course, well, spring, burst; disgorge, discharge, emit, belch forth, expel, eject; Brit. informal sloosh.

• noun 1 a spurt of water: squirt, jet, spout, gush, stream, rush, surge, flood, cascade, torrent. 2 a spurt of courage: burst, fit, bout, rush, spate, surge, attack, outburst, blaze. 3 Daisy put on a spurt: burst of speed, turn of speed, sprint, rush, burst of energy.

spy noun a foreign spy: secret agent, intelligence agent, double agent, counterspy, mole, plant, scout; informal snooper; N. Amer. informal spook; old use intelligencer.

• verb 1 he spied for the West: be a spy, gather intelligence; informal snoop. 2 investigators spied on them: observe furtively, keep under surveillance/observation, watch, keep a watch on, keep an eye on. 3 she spied a coffee shop: notice, observe, see, spot, sight, catch sight of, glimpse, make out, discern, detect; informal clap/lay/set eyes on; literary espy, behold, descry.

spying noun espionage, intelligence gathering, surveillance, infiltration, undercover work, cloak-and-dagger activities.

squabble noun there was a squabble over which way they should go: quarrel, disagreement, row, argument, contretemps, falling-out, dispute, clash, altercation, shouting match, exchange, war of words; informal tiff, set-to, run-in, slanging match, shindig, shindy, stand-up, spat, scrap, dust-up; Brit. informal barney, ding-dong; N. Amer. informal rhubarb.

• verb the boys were squabbling over a ball: quarrel, row, argue, bicker, fall out, disagree, have words, dispute, spar, cross, swords, lock horns, be at loggerheads; informal scrap, argify.

squad noun 1 an assassination squad: team, crew, gang, band, cell, body, mob, outfit, force. 2 a firing squad: detachment, detail, unit, platoon, battery, troop, patrol, squadron, cadre, commando.

squalid adjective 1 a squalid prison: dirty, filthy, grubby, grimy, mucky, slummy, foul, vile, poor, sorry, wretched, miserable, mean, seedy, shabby, sordid, insalubrious; neglected, uncared-for, broken-down, run down, down at heel, depressed, dilapidated, ramshackle, tumbledown, gone to rack and ruin, crumbling, decaying; informal scruffy, crummy, shambly, ratty; Brit. informal grotty; N. Amer. informal shacky. 2 a squalid deal with the opposition: improper, sordid, unseemly, unsavoury, sleazy, seedy, seamy, shoddy, cheap, base, low, corrupt, dishonest, dishonourable, disreputable, despicable, discreditable, disgraceful, contemptible, shameful; informal sleazoid.

– OPPOSITES clean, pleasant, smart, upmarket, proper, decent.

squall noun gust, storm, blast, flurry, shower, gale, blow, rush.

squally adjective stormy, gusty, gusting, blustery, blustering, windy, blowy; wild, tempestuous, rough.

squalor noun dirt, filth, grubbiness, grime, muck, foulness, vileness, poverty, wretchedness, meanness, seediness, shabbiness, sordidness, sleaziness, insalubrity; neglect, decay, dilapidation; informal scruffiness, crumminess, grunge, rattiness; Brit. informal grottness.

– OPPOSITES cleanliness, pleasantness, smartness.

squander verb waste, misspend, misuse, throw away, fritter away, spend recklessly, spend unwisely, spend like water; informal blow, go through, splurge, pour down the drain; Brit. informal blue.

– OPPOSITES save.

square noun 1 a shop in the square: market square, marketplace, plaza, piazza.

2 (informal) you're such a square! (old) fogey, conservative, traditionalist, conventionalist, conformist, bourgeois, fossil; Brit. museum piece; informal stick-in-the-mud, fuddy-duddy, back number, stuffed shirt.

– OPPOSITES trendy.

• adjective 1 a square table: quadrilateral, rectangular, oblong, right-angled, at right angles, perpendicular; straight, level, parallel, horizontal, upright, vertical, true, plane. 2 the sides were square at half-time: level, even, drawn, equal, tied; neck and neck, level pegging, nip and tuck, side by side, evenly matched; informal even-stein(s). 3 I'm going to be square with you: fair, honest, just, equitable, straight, true, upright, above board, ethical, decent, proper; informal on the level. 4 (informal) don't be square! old-fashioned, behind the times, out of date, conservative, traditionalist, conventional, conformist, bourgeois, strait-laced, fogeyish, stuffy; informal stick-in-the-mud, fuddy-duddy.

– OPPOSITES crooked, uneven, underhand, trendy.

• verb 1 the theory does not square with the data: agree, tally, be in agreement, be consistent, match up, correspond, fit, coincide, accord, conform, be compatible. 2 his goal squared the match 1–1: level, even, make equal. 3 would you square up the bill? pay, settle, discharge, clear, meet. 4 (informal) they tried to square the press: bribe, buy off, buy, corrupt, suborn; informal grease someone's palm, give a backhander to.

5 Tom squared things with his boss: resolve, sort out, settle, clear up, work out, iron out, smooth over, straighten out, deal with, put right, set right, put to rights, rectify, remedy; informal patch up.

squash verb 1 the fruit got squashed: crush, squeeze, flatten, compress, press, smash, distort, pound, trample, stamp on; pulp, mash, cream, liquidize, beat, pulverize. 2 she squashed her clothes inside the bag: force, ram, thrust, push, cram, jam, stuff, pack, compress, squeeze, wedge, press. 3 the proposal was immediately squashed: reject, block, cancel, scotch, frustrate, thwart, suppress, put a stop to, nip in the bud, put the lid on; informal put paid to, put the kibosh on, stymie; Brit. informal dish, scupper.

squashy adjective 1 a squashy pillow: springy, resilient, spongy, soft, pliant, pliable, yielding, elastic, cushiony, compressible. 2 squashy pears: mushy, pulpy, pappy, slushy, squelchy, squishy, oozy, doughy, soft; Brit. informal squidgy.

– OPPOSITES firm, hard.

squat verb I was squatting on the floor: crouch (down), hunker (down), sit on one's haunches, sit on one's heels; N. Amer. informal scooch.

• adjective he was muscular and squat: stocky, thickset, dumpy, stubby, stumpy, short, small; Brit. informal fubby.

squawk verb & noun a pheasant squawked | the gull gave a squawk: screech, squeal, shriek, scream, croak, crow, caw, cluck, cackle, hoot, cry, call.

squeak noun & verb 1 the vole's dying squeak | the rat squeaked: peep, cheep, pipe, piping, squeal, tweet, yelp, whimper. 2 the squeak of the hinge | the hinges of the gate squeaked: screech, creak, scrape, grate, rasp, jar, groan.

squeal noun the harsh squeal of a fox: screech, scream, shriek, squawk.

• verb 1 a dog squealed: screech, scream, shriek, squawk. 2 the bookies only squealed because we beat them: complain, protest, object, grouse, grumble, whine, wail, carp, squawk; informal kick up a fuss, kick up a stink, gripe, grouse, bellyache, moan, bitch, beef, whinge; N. English informal mither. 3 (informal) he squealed on the rest of the gang to the police: inform, tell tales, sneak; report, give away, be disloyal, sell out, stab in the back; informal rat, peach, snitch, put the finger on, sell down the river, stitch up; Brit. informal grass, split, shop; N. Amer. informal rat out, finger, drop a/the dime on; Austral. informal dob, pimp on, pool.

squeamish adjective 1 I'm too squeamish to gut fish: easily nauseated; (be squeamish about) be put off by, cannot stand the sight of. 2 less squeamish nations will sell them arms: scrupulous, principled, fastidious, particular, punctilious, honourable, upright, upstanding, high-minded, righteous, right-minded, moral, ethical.

squeeze verb 1 I squeezed the bottle: compress, press, crush, squash, pinch, nip, grasp, grip, clutch, flatten. 2 squeeze the juice from both oranges: extract, press, force, express. 3 Sally squeezed her feet into the sandals: force, thrust, cram, ram, jam, stuff, pack, wedge, press, squash. 4 we all squeezed into Steve's van: crowd, crush, cram, pack, jam, squash, wedge oneself, shove, push, force one's way; N. Amer. informal scooch. 5 he would squeeze more money out of Bill: extort, force, extract, wrest, wring, milk; informal bleed someone of something.

• noun 1 he gave her hand a squeeze: press, pinch, nip; grasp, grip, clutch, hug, clasp; compression. 2 it was a tight squeeze in the tiny hall: crush, jam, squash, press, huddle; congestion. 3 a squeeze of lemon juice: few drops, dash, splash, dribble, trickle, spot, hint, touch.

squint verb the sun made them squint: screw up one's eyes, narrow one's eyes, peer, blink.

• noun 1 (informal) we must have another squint at his record card: look, glance, peep, peek, glimpse; view, examination, study, inspection, scan, sight; informal eyeful, dekho, butcher's, gander, look-see, once-over, shufti. 2 he has a squint: cross-eyes, strabismus; Brit. informal boss-eye.

squire noun 1 the squire of the village: landowner, landholder, landlord, lord of the manor, country gentleman. 2 (historical) his squire carried a banner: attendant, courtier, equerry, aide, steward, page boy.

squirm verb 1 I tried to squirm away: wriggle, wiggle, writhe, twist, slide, slither, turn, shift, fidget, jiggle, twitch, thresh, flounder, flail, toss and turn. 2 he squirmed as everyone laughed: wince, shudder, feel embarrassed, feel ashamed.

squirt verb 1 a jet of ink squirted out of the tube: spurt, shoot, spray, fountain, jet, erupt; gush, rush, pump, surge, stream, spew, well, spring, burst, issue, emanate; emit, belch forth, expel, eject; Brit. informal sloosh. 2 she squirted me with scent: splash, wet, spray, shower, spatter, splatter, sprinkle; Scottish & Irish slabber; literary besprinkle.

• noun 1 a squirt of water: spurt, jet, spray, fountain, gush, stream, surge. 2 (informal) he was just a little squirt: impudent person, insignificant person, gnat, insect; informal pipsqueak, whippersnapper; Brit. informal squirt; Scottish informal nyaff; N. Amer. informal bozo, picayune, pisher.

stab verb 1 he stabbed him in the stomach: knife, run through, skewer, spear, bayonet, gore, spike, stick, impale, transfix, pierce, prick, puncture; literary transpierce. 2 she stabbed at the earth with a fork: lunge, thrust, jab, poke, prod, dig.

• noun 1 a stab in the leg: knife wound, puncture, incision, prick, cut, perforation. 2 they made stabs into the air: lunge, thrust, jab, poke, prod, dig, punch. 3 a stab of pain: twinge, pang, throb, spasm, cramp, dart, blaze, prick, flash, thrill. 4 (informal) he had a stab at writing: attempt, try, effort, endeavour; guess; informal go, shot, crack, bash, whack; formal essay.

■ stab someone in the back betray, be disloyal to, be unfaithful to, desert, break one's promise to, double-cross, break faith with, sell out, play false, inform on/against; informal tell on, sell down the river, squeal on, stitch up, peach on, do the dirty on; Brit. informal grass on, shop; N. Amer. informal rat out, finger, drop a/the dime on; Austral. informal pimp on, pool, put someone's pot on.

stability noun 1 the stability of play equipment: firmness, solidity, steadiness, strength, security, safety. 2 his mental stability: balance of mind, mental health, sanity, normality, soundness, rationality, reason, sense. 3 the stability of their relationship: steadiness, firmness, solidity, strength, durability, lasting nature, enduring nature, permanence, changelessness, invariability, immutability, indestructibility, reliability, dependability.

stable adjective 1 a stable tent: firm, solid, steady, secure, fixed, fast, safe, moored, anchored, stuck down, immovable. 2 a stable person: well balanced, of sound mind, compos mentis, sane, normal, right in the head, rational, steady, reasonable, sensible, sober, down-to-earth, matter-of-fact, having both one's feet on the ground; informal all there. 3 a stable relationship: secure, solid, strong, steady, firm, sure, steadfast, unwavering, unvarying, unfaltering, unfluctuating; established, abiding, durable, enduring, lasting, permanent, reliable, dependable.

– OPPOSITES loose, wobbly, unbalanced, rocky, changeable.

stack noun 1 a stack of boxes: heap, pile, mound, mountain, pyramid, tower. 2 a stack of hay: haystack, rick, hayrick, stook, mow, shock; dated cock. 3 (informal) a stack of money. See lot pronoun. 4 chimney, smokestack, funnel, exhaust pipe.

– OPPOSITES few, little.

• verb 1 Leo was stacking plates: heap (up), pile (up), make a heap/pile/stack of; assemble, put together, collect, hoard, store, stockpile. 2 they stacked the shelves: load, fill (up), lade, pack, charge, stuff, cram; stock.

– OPPOSITES empty.

stadium noun arena, field, ground, pitch; bowl, amphitheatre, coliseum, ring, dome, manège; track, course, racetrack, racecourse, speedway, velodrome; (in ancient Rome) circus.

staff noun 1 there is a reluctance to take on new staff: employees, workers, workforce, personnel, human resources, manpower; labour; informal liveware. 2 he carried a wooden staff: stick, staff, pole, crook. 3 a staff of office: rod, tipstaff, cane, mace, wand, sceptre, crozier, verge; Greek Mythology caduceus.

• verb the centre is staffed by teachers: man, people, crew, work, operate, occupy.

stage noun 1 this stage of the development: phase, period, juncture, step, point, time, moment, instant, level. 2 the last stage of the race: part, section, portion, stretch, leg, lap, circuit. 3 a theatre stage: platform, dais, stand, grandstand, staging, apron, rostrum, podium. 4 she has written for the stage: theatre, drama, dramatics, dramatic art, thespianism; informal the boards. 5 the political stage: scene, setting; context, frame, sphere, field, realm, arena, backdrop; affairs.

• verb 1 they staged two plays: put on, put before the public, present, produce, mount, direct; perform, act, give. 2 workers staged a protest: organize, arrange, coordinate, lay on, put together, get together, set up; orchestrate, choreograph, mastermind, engineer; take part in, participate in, join in.

stagger verb 1 he staggered to the door:

lurch, walk unsteadily, reel, sway, teeter, totter, stumble, wobble. 2 I was absolutely staggered: amaze, astound, astonish, surprise, startle, stun, confound, dumbfound, stupefy, daze, nonplus, take aback, leave open-mouthed, leave aghast; informal flabbergast, bowl over; Brit. informal knock for six. 3 meetings are staggered throughout the day: spread (out), space (out), time at intervals, overlap.

stagnant adjective 1 stagnant water: still, motionless, static, stationary, standing, dead, slack; foul, stale, putrid, smelly. 2 a stagnant economy: inactive, sluggish, slow-moving, lethargic, static, flat, depressed, declining, moribund, dying, dead, dormant.

– OPPOSITES flowing, fresh, active, vibrant.

stagnate verb 1 obstructions allow water to stagnate: stop flowing, become stagnant, become trapped; stand; become foul, become stale; fester, putrefy. 2 exports stagnated: languish, decline, deteriorate, fall, become stagnant, do nothing, stand still, be sluggish.

– OPPOSITES flow, rise, boom.

staid adjective sedate, respectable, quiet, serious, serious-minded, steady, conventional, traditional, unadventurous, unenterprising, set in one's ways, sober, proper, decorous, formal, stuffy, stiff; informal starchy, stick-in-the-mud.

– OPPOSITES frivolous, daring, informal.

stain verb 1 her clothing was stained with blood: discolour, blemish, soil, mark, muddy, spot, spatter, splatter, smear, splash, smudge, blotch, blacken. 2 the report stained his reputation: damage, injure, harm, sully, blacken, tarnish, taint, smear, bring discredit to, dishonour, drag through the mud; literary besmirch. 3 the wood was stained: colour, tint, dye, tinge, pigment, colour-wash.

• noun 1 a mud stain: mark, spot, splatter, splatter, blotch, smudge, smear. 2 a stain on his character: blemish, injury, taint, blot, smear, discredit, dishonour; damage. 3 dark wood stain: tint, colour, dye, tinge, pigment, colourant, colour wash.

stake noun a stake in the ground: post, pole, stick, spike, upright, support, prop, strut, pale, paling, picket, pile, piling, cane.

• verb 1 the plants have to be staked: prop up, tie up, tether, support, hold up, brace, truss. 2 he staked his claim: assert, declare, proclaim, state, make, lay, put in.

■ stake something out 1 builders staked out the plot: mark off/out, demarcate, measure out, delimit, fence off, section off, close off, shut off, cordon off. 2 (informal) the police staked out his flat: observe, watch, keep an eye on, keep under observation, keep watch on, monitor, keep under surveillance, surveil; informal keep tabs on, keep a tab on, case.

stake<sup>2</sup> noun 1 playing dice for high stakes: bet, wager, ante. 2 they are racing for record stakes: prize money, purse, pot, winnings. 3 low down in the popularity stakes: competition, contest, battle, challenge, rivalry, race, running, struggle, scramble. 4 a 40% stake in the business: share, interest, ownership, involvement.

• verb he staked all his week's pay: bet, wager, lay, put on, gamble, chance, venture, risk, hazard.

stale adjective 1 stale food: old, past its best, past its sell-by date; off, dry, hard, musty, rancid. 2 stale air: stuffy, close, musty, fusty, stagnant, frowzy; Brit. frowsty, fuggy. 3 stale beer: flat, turned, spoiled, off, insipid, tasteless. 4 stale jokes: hackneyed, tired, worn out, overworked, threadbare, warmed-up, banal, trite, clichéd, platitudinous, unoriginal, unimaginative, uninspired, flat; out of date, outdated, outmoded, passé, archaic, obsolete; N. Amer. warmed-over; informal old hat, corny, out of the ark, played out.

– OPPOSITES fresh, original.

stalemate noun deadlock, impasse, stand-off; draw, tie, dead heat.

stalk<sup>1</sup> noun the stalk of a plant: stem, shoot, trunk, stock, cane, bine, bent, haulm, straw, reed.

stalk<sup>2</sup> verb 1 a stoat was stalking a rabbit: creep up on, trail, follow, shadow, track down, go after, be after, course, hunt; informal tail. 2 she stalked out: strut, stride, march, flounce, storm, stomp, sweep.

stall noun 1 a market stall: stand, table, counter, booth, kiosk. 2 stalls for larger animals: pen, coop, sty, corral, enclosure, compartment. 3 (Brit.) theatre stalls: N. Amer. orchestra, parterre.

• verb 1 the Government has stalled the project: obstruct, impede, interfere with, hinder, hamper, block, interrupt, hold up, hold back, thwart, baulk, sabotage, delay, stonewall, check, stop, halt, derail, put a brake on; informal stymie; N. Amer. informal bork. 2 quit stalling: use delaying tactics, play for time, temporize, gain time, procrastinate, hedge, beat about the bush, drag one's feet, delay, filibuster, stonewall. 3 stall him for a bit: delay, divert, distract; hold off, stave off, fend off, keep off, ward off, keep at bay.

stalwart adjective staunch, loyal, faithful, committed, devoted, dedicated, dependable, reliable, steady, constant, trusty, hard-working, steadfast, redoubtable, unwavering.

– OPPOSITES disloyal, unfaithful, unreliable.

stamina noun endurance, staying power, tirelessness, fortitude, strength, energy, toughness, determination, tenacity, perseverance, grit.

stammer verb he began to stammer: stutter, stumble over one's words, hesitate, falter, pause, halt, splutter.

• noun he had a stammer: stutter, speech impediment, speech defect.

stamp verb 1 he stamped on my toe: trample, step, tread, tramp; crush, squash, flatten. 2 John stamped off, muttering: stomp, stomp, clomp, clump. 3 the name is stamped on the cover: imprint, print, impress, punch, inscribe, emboss, brand, frank. 4 his face was stamped on Martha's memory: fix, inscribe, etch, carve, imprint, impress. 5 his style stamps him as a player to watch: identify, characterize, brand, distinguish, classify, mark out, set apart, single out.

• noun 1 the stamp of authority: mark, hallmark, indication, sign, seal, sure sign, telltale sign, quality, smack, smell, savour, air. 2 he was of a very different stamp: type, kind, sort, variety, class, category, classification, style, description, condition, calibre, status, quality, nature, ilk, kidney, cast, grain, mould; N. Amer. stripe.

■ stamp something out put an end/stop to, end, stop, crush, put down, crack down on, curb, nip in the bud, scotch, squash, quash, quell, subdue, suppress, extinguish, stifle, abolish, get rid of, eliminate, eradicate, beat, overcome, defeat, destroy, wipe out.

stamp collecting noun philately.

stampede noun the noise caused a stampede: charge, panic, rush, flight, rout.

• verb the sheep stampeded: bolt, charge, flee, take flight; race, rush, career, sweep, run.

stance noun 1 a natural golfer's stance: posture, position, pose, attitude. 2 a liberal stance: attitude, stand, point of view, viewpoint, opinion, way of thinking, outlook, standpoint, position, angle, perspective, approach, line, policy.

stand verb 1 Lionel stood in the doorway: be on one's feet, be upright, be erect, be vertical. 2 the men stood up: rise, get/rise to one's feet, get up, straighten up, pick oneself up, find one's feet, be upstanding; formal arise. 3 today a house stands on the site: be, be situated, be located, be positioned, be sited, have been built. 4 he stood the book on the shelf: put, set, set up, erect, upend, place, position, locate, prop, lean, stick, install, arrange; informal park. 5 my decision stands: remain in force, remain valid/effective/operative, remain in operation, hold, hold good, apply, be the case, exist; formal obtain. 6 his heart could not stand the strain: withstand, endure, bear, put up with, take, cope with, handle, sustain, resist, stand up to. 7 (informal) I won't stand cheek: endure, tolerate, bear, put up with, stomach, take, abide, support, countenance; Scottish thole; informal swallow; Brit. informal stick, wear; formal brook.

– OPPOSITES sit, lie, sit down, lie down.

• noun 1 the party's stand on immigration: attitude, stance, point of view, viewpoint, opinion, way of thinking, outlook, standpoint, position, approach, thinking, policy, line. 2 a stand against tyranny: opposition, resistance, objection, hostility, animosity. 3 a large mirror on a stand: base, support, mounting, platform, rest, plinth, bottom; tripod, rack, trivet. 4 a beer stand: stall, counter, booth, kiosk, tent. 5 a taxi stand: rank, station, park, bay. 6 the train drew to a stand: stop, halt, standstill, dead stop. 7 a stand of trees: copse, spinney, thicket, grove.

■ stand by wait, be prepared, be in (a state of) readiness, be ready for action, be on full alert, wait in the wings.

■ stand by someone/something 1 she stood by her husband: remain/be loyal to, stick with/by, remain/be true to, stand up for, support, back up, defend, stick up for. 2 the government must stand by its pledges: abide by, keep (to), adhere to, hold to, stick to, observe, comply with.

■ stand for 1 V stands for volts: mean, be an abbreviation of, represent, signify, denote, indicate, symbolize. 2 (informal) I won't stand for any nonsense: put up with, endure, tolerate, stomach, accept, take, abide, stand, support, countenance; informal swallow; Brit. informal stick, wear; formal brook. 3 we stand for animal welfare: advocate, champion, uphold, defend, stand up for, support, back, endorse, be in favour of, promote, recommend, urge.

■ stand in deputize, act, act as deputy, substitute, fill in, sit in, do duty, take over, act as locum, be a proxy, cover, hold the fort, step into the breach; replace, relieve, take over from; informal sub, fill someone's shoes, step into someone's shoes; N. Amer. pinch-hit.

■ stand out 1 his veins stood out: project, stick out, bulge (out), be proud, jut (out). 2 she stood out in the crowd: be noticeable, be visible, be obvious, be conspicuous, stick out, be striking, be distinctive, be prominent, attract attention, catch the eye, leap out, show up; informal stick/stand out a mile, stick/stand out like a sore thumb.

■ stand up remain/be valid, be sound, be plausible, hold water, hold up, stand questioning, survive investigation, bear examination, be verifiable.

■ stand someone up fail to keep a date with, fail to meet, jilt.

■ stand up for someone/something support, defend, back, back up, stick up for, champion, promote, uphold, take someone's part, take the side of, side with.

■ stand up to someone/something 1 she stood up to her parents: defy, confront, challenge, resist, take on, put up a fight against, argue with, take a stand against. 2 the old house has stood up to the war:

withstand, survive, come through (unscathed), outlast, outlive, weather, ride out, ward off.

work: quality, level, grade, calibre, merit, excellence. 2 a safety standard: guideline, norm, yardstick, benchmark, measure, criterion, guide, touchstone, model, pattern, example, exemplar. 3 a standard to live by: principle, ideal; (standards) code of behaviour, code of honour, morals, scruples, ethics. 4 the regiment's standard: flag, banner, pennant, ensign, colour(s), banderole, guidon; Brit. pendant; Nautical burgee.

• adjective 1 the standard way of doing it: normal, usual, typical, stock, common, ordinary, customary, conventional, established, settled, set, fixed, traditional, prevailing; literary wonted. 2 the standard work on the subject: definitive, established, classic, recognized, accepted, authoritative, most reliable, exhaustive.

– OPPOSITES unusual, special.

standardize verb systematize, make consistent, make uniform, make comparable, regulate, normalize, bring into line, equalize, homogenize, regiment.

stand-in noun a stand-in for the minister: substitute, replacement, deputy, surrogate, proxy, understudy, locum, supply, fill-in, cover, relief, stopgap; informal temp; N. Amer. informal pinch-hitter.

• adjective a stand-in goalkeeper: substitute, replacement, deputy, fill-in, stopgap, supply, surrogate, relief, acting, temporary, provisional, caretaker; N. Amer. informal pinch-hitting.

standing noun 1 his standing in the community: status, rank, ranking, position; reputation, estimation, stature; dated station. 2 a person of some standing: seniority, rank, eminence, prominence, prestige, repute, stature, esteem, importance, account, consequence, influence, distinction; informal clout; dated mark. 3 a squabble of long standing: duration, existence, continuance, endurance, life.

• adjective 1 standing stones: upright, erect, vertical, plumb, upended, on end, perpendicular; on one's feet; Heraldry rampant. 2 standing water: stagnant, still, motionless, static, stationary, dead, slack. 3 a standing invitation: permanent, perpetual, everlasting, continuing, abiding, indefinite, open-ended; regular, repeated.

– OPPOSITES flat, lying down, seated, flowing, temporary, occasional.

stand-off noun deadlock, stalemate, impasse; draw, tie, dead heat; suspension of hostilities, lull.

stand-offish adjective (informal) aloof, distant, remote, detached, withdrawn, reserved, uncommunicative, unresponsive, unforthcoming, unapproachable, unfriendly, unsociable, introspective, introverted.

– OPPOSITES friendly, approachable, sociable.

standpoint noun point of view, viewpoint, vantage point, attitude, stance, view, opinion, position, way of thinking, outlook, perspective.

standstill noun halt, stop, dead stop, stand.

standard noun 1 the standard of Elizabeth's staple adjective main, principal, chief, major, primary, leading, foremost, first, most important, predominant, dominant, (most) prominent, basic, standard, prime, premier; informal number-one.

star noun 1 the sky was full of stars: celestial body, heavenly body, sun; asteroid, planet.

2 the stars of the film: principal, leading lady/man, lead, female/male lead, hero, heroine. 3 a star of the world of chess: celebrity, superstar, big name, famous name, household name, someone, somebody, lion, leading light, VIP, personality, personage, luminary; informal celeb, big shot, big noise, megastar.

– OPPOSITES nobody.

• adjective 1 a star pupil: brilliant, talented, gifted, able, exceptional, outstanding, bright, clever, masterly, consummate, precocious, prodigious. 2 the star attraction: top, leading, best, greatest, foremost, major, pre-eminent, champion.

– OPPOSITES poor, minor.

WORD LINKS

astral, stellar, sidereal relating to stars astronomy the science of stars, planets, and the universe astrology the study of the supposed influence of stars and planets on human affairs constellation a group of stars forming a fixed pattern galaxy a system of millions or billions of stars magnitude the degree of a star's brightness pentagram a drawing of five-pointed star, used as a magical symbol starchy adjective (informal). See STAIN.

stare verb gaze, gape, goggle, glare, ogle, peer; informal gawk, rubberneck; Brit. informal gawp.

stark adjective 1 a stark silhouette: sharp, sharply defined, well focused, crisp, distinct, obvious, evident, clear, clear-cut, graphic, striking. 2 a stark landscape: desolate, bare, barren, arid, vacant, empty, forsaken, godforsaken, bleak, sombre, depressing, cheerless, joyless; literary drear. 3 a stark room: austere, severe, bleak, plain, simple, bare, unadorned, unembellished, undecorated. 4 a stark terror: sheer, utter, complete, absolute, total, pure, downright, out-and-out, outright; rank, thorough, consummate, unqualified, unmitigated, unalloyed. 5 the stark facts: blunt, bald, bare, simple, basic, plain, unvarnished, harsh, grim.

– OPPOSITES fuzzy, indistinct, pleasant, ornate, disguised.

• adverb stark naked: completely, totally, utterly, absolutely, downright, dead, entirely, wholly, fully, quite, altogether, thoroughly, truly.

start verb 1 the meeting starts at 7.45: begin, commence, get under way, go ahead, get going; informal kick off. 2 this was how her illness had started: come into being, begin, commence, be born, come into existence, appear, arrive, come forth, emerge, erupt, burst out, arise, originate, develop. 3 she started her own charity: establish, set up, found, create, bring into being, institute, initiate, inaugurate, introduce, open, launch, float, kick-start, get something off the ground, pioneer, organize, mastermind; informal kick something off. 4 we had better start on the work: make a start, begin, commence, take the first step, make the first move, get going, go ahead, set things moving, start/get/set the ball rolling, buckle to/down, turn to; informal get moving, get cracking, get stuck in, get down to it, get down to business, get one's finger out, get the show on the road, take the plunge, kick off, get off one's backside, fire away; Brit. informal get weaving. 5 he started across the field: set off, set out, start out, set forth, begin one's journey, get on the road, depart, leave, get under way, make a start, sally forth, embark, sail; informal hit the road. 6 you can start the machine: activate, set in motion, switch on, start up, turn on, fire up; energize, actuate, set off, start off, set something going/moving. 7 the machine started: begin working, start up, get going, spring into life. 8 'Oh my!' she said, starting: flinch, jerk, jump, twitch, recoil, shy, shrink, blench, wince.

– OPPOSITES finish, stop, clear up, wind up, hang about, give up, arrive, stay, close down.

• noun 1 the start of the event: beginning, commencement, inception. 2 the start of her illness: onset, commencement, emergence, (first) appearance, arrival, eruption, dawn, birth. 3 a quarter of an hour's start: lead, head start, advantage. 4 a start in life: advantageous beginning, flying start, helping hand, lift, assistance, support, encouragement, boost, kick-start; informal break, leg up. 5 she awoke with a start: jerk, twitch, flinch, wince, spasm, convulsion, jump.

– OPPOSITES end, finish, handicap.

startle verb surprise, frighten, scare, alarm, give someone a shock/fright/jolt, make someone jump; perturb, unsettle, agitate, disturb, disconcert, disquiet; informal give someone a turn.

startling adjective surprising, astonishing, amazing, unexpected, unforeseen, staggering, shocking, stunning; extraordinary, remarkable, dramatic; disturbing, unsettling, perturbing, disconcerting, disquieting; frightening, alarming, scary.

– OPPOSITES predictable, ordinary.

starvation noun extreme hunger, lack of food, famine, undernourishment, malnourishment.

starving adjective dying of hunger, deprived of food, undernourished, malnourished, starved, half-starved; very hungry, ravenous, famished, empty, hollow; fasting.

– OPPOSITES full.

stash (informal) verb he stashed his things away: store; stow, pack, load, cache, hide, conceal, secrete; hoard, save, stockpile; informal salt away, squirrel away.

• noun a stash of money: cache, hoard, stock, stockpile, store, supply, accumulation, collection, reserve.

state<sup>1</sup> noun 1 the state of the economy: condition, shape, situation, circumstances, position; predicament, plight. 2 (informal) don't get into a state: fluster, frenzy, fever, fret, panic, state of agitation/anxiety; informal flap, tizzy, dither, stew, sweat; N. Amer. informal twit. 3 (informal) your room is in a state: mess, chaos, disorder, disarray, confusion, muddle, heap, shambles; clutter, untidiness, disorganization. 4 an autonomous state: country, nation, land, sovereign state, nation state, kingdom, realm, power, republic, confederation, federation. 5 the country is divided into thirty-two states: province, federal state, region, territory, canton, department, county, district; Brit. shire. 6 the power of the state: government, parliament, administration, regime, authorities.

• adjective a state visit to China: ceremonial, official, formal, governmental, national, public.

– OPPOSITES unofficial, private, informal.

state<sup>2</sup> verb I stated my views: express, voice, utter, put into words, declare, affirm, assert, announce, make known, put across/over, communicate, air, reveal, disclose, divulge, proclaim, present, expound; set out, set down; informal come out with.

stated adjective specified, fixed, settled, set, agreed, declared, designated, laid down.

– OPPOSITES undefined, irregular, tacit.

stately adjective dignified, majestic, ceremonious, courtly, imposing, impressive, solemn, awe-inspiring, regal, elegant, grand, glorious, splendid, magnificent, resplendent; slow-moving, measured, deliberate.

statement noun declaration, affirmation, assertion, announcement, utterance, communication, proclamation, presentation, expounding; account, testimony, evidence, report, bulletin, communiqué.

state-of-the-art adjective modern, ultra-modern, the latest, new, the newest, up to the minute; advanced, highly developed, innovatory, trailblazing, revolutionary; sophisticated.

static adjective 1 static prices: unchanged, fixed, stable, steady, unchanging, changeless, unvarying, invariable, constant, consistent.

2 a static display: stationary, motionless, immobile, unmoving, still, stock-still, at a standstill, at rest, not moving a muscle, like a statue, rooted to the spot, frozen, inactive, inert, lifeless, inanimate.

– OPPOSITES variable, mobile, active, dynamic.

station noun 1 a railway station: stopping place, stop, halt, stage; terminus, terminal, depot. 2 a research station: establishment, base, camp; post, depot; mission; site, facility, installation, yard. 3 a police station: office, depot, base, headquarters; N. Amer.

precinct, station house; informal cop shop; Brit. informal nick. 4 a radio station: channel, broadcasting organization; wavelength.

5 (Austral./NZ) a sheep station: ranch, range; farm. 6 the lookout resumed his station: post, position, place. 7 (dated) Karen was getting ideas above her station: rank, place, status, position in society, social class, stratum, level, grade; caste; old use condition, degree.

• verb the regiment was stationed at Woolwich: put on duty, post, position, place; establish, install; deploy, base, garrison.

stationary adjective 1 a stationary car: static, parked, stopped, motionless, immobile, unmoving, still, stock-still, at a standstill, at rest; not moving a muscle, like a statue, rooted to the spot, frozen, inactive, inert, lifeless, inanimate. 2 a stationary population: unchanging, unvarying, invariable, constant, consistent, unchanged, changeless, fixed, stable, steady.

– OPPOSITES moving, shifting.

statue noun sculpture, figure, effigy, statuette, figurine, idol; carving, bronze, graven image, model; bust, head.

statuesque adjective tall and dignified, imposing, striking, stately, majestic, noble, magnificent, splendid, impressive, regal.

stature noun 1 she was small in stature: height, tallness; size, build. 2 an architect of international stature: reputation, repute, standing, status, position, prestige, distinction, eminence, pre-eminence, prominence, importance, influence, note, fame, celebrity, renown, acclaim.

status noun 1 the status of women: standing, rank, ranking, position, social position, level, place, estimation; dated station. 2 wealth and status: prestige, kudos, cachet, standing, stature, regard, fame, note, renown, honour, esteem, image, importance, prominence, consequence, distinction, influence, authority, eminence.

statute noun law, regulation, enactment, act, bill, decree, edict, rule, ruling, resolution, dictum, command, order, directive, pronouncement, proclamation, dictate, diktat, fiat, by-law; N. Amer. formal ordinance.

staunch<sup>1</sup> adjective a staunch supporter: stalwart, loyal, faithful, committed, devoted, dedicated, dependable, reliable, steady, constant, trusty, hard-working, steadfast, redoubtable, unwavering.

– OPPOSITES disloyal, unfaithful, unreliable.

staunch<sup>2</sup> verb she tried to staunch the flow of blood: stem, stop, halt, check, hold back, restrain, restrict, control, contain, curb; block, dam; slow, lessen, reduce, diminish, retard; N. Amer. stanch; old use stay.

stave verb

■ stave something in break in, smash in, put a hole in, push in, kick in, cave in.

■ stave something off avert, prevent, avoid, counter, preclude, forestall, nip in the bud; ward off, fend off, head off, keep off, keep at bay.

stay<sup>1</sup> verb 1 he stayed where he was: remain (behind), stay behind, stay put; wait, linger, stick, be left, hold on, hang on, lodge; informal hang around/round; Brit. informal hang about; old use bide, tarry. 2 they won't stay hidden: continue (to be), remain, keep, persist in being, carry on being, go on being. 3 our aunt is staying with us: visit, spend time, put up, stop (off/over); holiday; lodge; room, board, have rooms, be housed, be accommodated, be quartered, be billeted; N. Amer. vacation; formal sojourn; old use bide.

4 legal proceedings were stayed: postpone, put off, delay, defer, put back, hold over/off; adjourn, suspend, prorogue; N. Amer. put over, table, lay on the table, take a rain check on; US Law continue; informal put on ice, put on the back burner. 5 (literary) we must stay the enemy's advance: delay, slow down/up, hold back/up, set back, keep back, put back, put a brake on, retard; hinder, hamper, obstruct, inhibit, impede, curb, check, restrain, restrict, arrest; Brit. throw a spanner in the works of; N. Amer. throw a monkey wrench in the works of.

– OPPOSITES leave, advance, promote.

• noun 1 a stay at a hotel: visit, stop, stop-off, stopover, break, holiday; N. Amer. vacation; formal sojourn. 2 a stay of judgement: postponement, putting off, delay, deferment, deferral, putting back; adjournment, suspension, prorogation; N. Amer. tabling; US Law continuance.

stay<sup>2</sup> noun the stays holding up the mast:

strut, wire, brace, tether, guy, prop, rod, support, truss; Nautical shroud.

• verb her masts were well stayed: brace, tether, strut, wire, guy, prop, support, truss.

steadfast adjective 1 a steadfast friend:

loyal, faithful, committed, devoted, dedicated, dependable, reliable, steady, true, constant, staunch, trusty. 2 a steadfast policy: firm, determined, resolute, relentless, implacable, single-minded; unchanging, unwavering, unhesitating, unfaltering, unswerving, unyielding, unflinching, uncompromising.

– OPPOSITES disloyal, irresolute.

steady adjective 1 the ladder must be steady:

stable, firm, fixed, secure, fast, safe, immovable, unshakeable, dependable; anchored, moored, jammed, rooted, braced.

2 keep the camera steady: motionless, still, unshaking, static, stationary, unmoving.

3 a steady gaze: fixed, intent, unwavering, unfaltering. 4 a steady young man:

sensible, level-headed, rational, settled, mature, down-to-earth, full of common sense, reliable, dependable, sound, sober, serious-minded, responsible, serious. 5 a steady income: constant, unchanging, regular, consistent, invariable; continuous, continual, unceasing, ceaseless, perpetual, unremitting, unwavering, unfaltering, unending, endless, round-the-clock, all-year-round. 6 a steady boyfriend: regular, usual, established, settled, firm, devoted, faithful.

– OPPOSITES unstable, loose, shaky, darting, flighty, immature, fluctuating, sporadic, occasional.

• verb 1 he steadied the rifle: stabilize, hold steady; brace, support; balance, poise; secure, fix, make fast. 2 she needed to steady her nerves: calm, soothe, quieten, compose, settle; subdue, quell, control, get a grip on.

steal verb 1 the raiders stole a fax machine:

purloin, thief, take, take for oneself, help oneself to, loot, pilfer, run off with, carry off, shoplift; embezzle, misappropriate; have one's fingers/hand in the till; informal walk off with, rob, swipe, nab, rip off, lift, 'liberate', 'borrow', filch, snaffle, snitch; Brit. informal nick, pinch, half-inch, whip, knock off, nobble; N. Amer. informal heist; formal peculate.

2 his work was stolen by his tutor: plagiarize, copy, pass off as one's own, pirate, poach, borrow; informal rip off, lift, pinch, nick, crib.

3 he stole a kiss: snatch, sneak, get stealthily/surreptitiously. 4 he stole out of the room: creep, sneak, slink, slip, slide, glide, tiptoe, sidle, slope, edge.

• noun (informal) at £30 it's a steal. See BARGAIN noun sense 2.

WORD LINKS

kleptomania a recurrent urge to steal things fence a dealer in stolen goods receiver a person who knowingly buys or accepts stolen goods stealing noun theft, thieving, thievery, robbery, larceny, burglary, shoplifting, pilfering, looting, misappropriation; embezzlement; formal peculation.

stealth noun furtiveness, secretiveness, secrecy, surreptitiousness, sneakiness, slyness.

– OPPOSITES openness.

stealthy adjective furtive, secretive, secret, surreptitious, sneaking, sly, clandestine, covert, conspiratorial.

– OPPOSITES open.

steam noun 1 steam from the kettle: water

vapour, condensation, mist, haze, fog, moisture. 2 he ran out of steam: energy, vigour, vitality, stamina, enthusiasm; momentum, impetus, force, strength, thrust, impulse, push, drive; speed, pace.

• verb (informal) he steamed into the shop. See RUN verb sense 1.

■ let off steam (informal) give vent to one's feelings, speak one's mind, speak out, sound off, lose one's inhibitions, let oneself go.

■ steam up mist (up/over), fog (up), become misty/misted.

steamy adjective 1 the steamy jungle: humid, muggy, sticky, dripping, moist, damp, clammy, sultry, sweaty, steaming. 2 (informal) a steamy love scene. See EROTIC. 3 (informal) they had a steamy affair: passionate, torrid, amorous, ardent, lustful; informal sizzling, hot, red-hot.

steel verb

■ steel oneself brace oneself, nerve oneself, summon (up) one's courage, screw up one's courage, gear oneself up, prepare oneself, get in the right frame of mind; fortify oneself, harden oneself; informal psych oneself up; literary gird (up) one's loins.

steely adjective 1 steely light: blue-grey, grey, steel-coloured, steel-grey, iron-grey. 2 steely muscles: hard, firm, toned, rigid, stiff, tense, tensed, taut. 3 steely eyes: cruel, unfeeling, merciless, ruthless, pitiless, heartless, hard-hearted, hard, stony, cold-blooded, cold-hearted, harsh, callous, severe, unrelenting, un pitying, unforgiving, uncaring, unsympathetic; literary adamantine. 4 steely determination: resolute, firm, steadfast, dogged, single-minded; bitter, burning, ferocious, fanatical; ruthless, iron, grim, gritty; unquenchable, unflinching, unswerving, unfaltering, untiring, unwavering.

— OPPOSITES flabby, kind, half-hearted.

steep<sup>1</sup> adjective 1 steep cliffs: precipitous, sheer, abrupt, sharp, perpendicular, vertical, bluff, vertiginous. 2 a steep increase: sharp, sudden, precipitate, precipitous, rapid. 3 (informal) steep prices: expensive, dear, costly, high, stiff; unreasonable, excessive, exorbitant, extortionate, outrageous, prohibitive; Brit. over the odds.

— OPPOSITES gentle, gradual, reasonable.

steep<sup>2</sup> verb 1 the ham is then steeped in brine: marinate, marinate, soak, sous, macerate; pickle. 2 winding sheets were steeped in mercury sulphate: soak, saturate, immerse, wet through, drench; technical ret. 3 a city steeped in history: imbue with, fill with, permeate with, pervade with, suffuse with, infuse with, soak in.

steeple noun spire, tower; bell tower, belfry, campanile; minaret.

steer verb 1 he steered the boat: guide, direct, manoeuvre, drive, pilot, navigate; Nautical con, helm. 2 Luke steered her down the path: guide, conduct, direct, lead, take, usher, shepherd, marshal, herd.

■ steer clear of keep away from, keep one's distance from, keep at arm's length, give a wide berth to, avoid, avoid dealing with, have nothing to do with, shun, eschew.

stem<sup>1</sup> noun a plant stem: stalk, shoot, trunk, stock, cane, bine.

■ stem from have its origins in, arise from, originate from, spring from, derive from, come from, emanate from, flow from, proceed from; be caused by, be brought on/about by, be produced by.

stem<sup>2</sup> verb he stemmed the flow of blood:

staunch, stop, halt, check, hold back, restrict, control, contain, curb; block, dam; slow, lessen, reduce, diminish; N. Amer. stanch; old use stay.

stench noun stink, reek; Brit. informal niff, pong, whiff, hum; Scottish informal guff; N. Amer. informal funk; literary miasma.

stentorian adjective loud, thundering, thunderous, ear-splitting, deafening; powerful, strong, carrying; booming, resonant; strident.

— OPPOSITES quiet, soft.

step noun 1 Frank took a step forward: pace, stride. 2 she heard a step on the stairs: footstep, footfall, tread. 3 she left the room with a springy step: gait, walk, tread. 4 it is only a step to the river: short distance, stone's throw, spitting distance; informal {a hop, skip, and jump}. 5 the top step: stair, tread; (steps) stairs, staircase, stairway.

6 each step of the ladder: rung, tread.

7 resigning is a very serious step: course of action, measure, move, act, action, initiative, manoeuvre, operation. 8 a significant step towards a ceasefire: advance, development, move, movement; breakthrough. 9 the first step on the managerial ladder: stage, level, grade, rank, degree, notch.

• verb 1 she stepped forward: walk, move, tread, pace, stride. 2 the bull had stepped on his hat: tread, stamp, trample; squash, crush, flatten.

■ in step he is in step with mainstream thinking: in accord, in harmony, in agreement, in tune, in line, in keeping, in conformity.

■ mind/watch one's step be careful, take care, step/tread carefully, exercise care/caution, mind how one goes, look out, watch out, be wary, be on one's guard, be on the qui vive.

■ out of step the paper was often out of step with public opinion: at odds, at variance, in disagreement, out of tune, out of line, not in keeping, out of harmony.

■ step by step one step at a time, bit by bit, gradually, in stages, by degrees, slowly, steadily.

■ step down resign, stand down, give up one's post/job, bow out, abdicate; informal quit.

■ step in 1 nobody stepped in to save the bank: intervene, intercede, involve oneself, become/get involved, take a hand. 2 I stepped in for a sick colleague: stand in, sit in, fill in, cover, substitute, take over; replace, take someone's place; informal sub.

■ step on it (informal) hurry up, get a move on, speed up, go faster, be quick; informal get cracking, get moving, get a wiggle on, step on the gas; Brit. informal get one's skates on; dated make haste.

■ step something up 1 the army stepped up its offensive: increase, intensify, strengthen, augment, escalate; informal up, crank up. 2 I stepped up my pace: speed up, increase, accelerate, quicken, hasten.

stereotype noun the stereotype of the rancher: standard/conventional image, received idea, cliché, hackneyed idea, formula.

• verb women are often stereotyped as scheming: typecast, pigeonhole, conventionalize, categorize, label, tag.

stereotyped adjective stock, conventional, stereotypical, standard, formulaic, predictable; hackneyed, clichéd, cliché-ridden, banal, trite, unoriginal; typecast; informal corny, old hat.

— OPPOSITES unconventional, original.

sterile adjective 1 mules are sterile: infertile, unable to have children/young; technical infecund; old use barren. 2 sterile desert: unproductive, infertile, unfruitful, uncultivable, barren. 3 a sterile debate: pointless, unproductive, unfruitful, unrewarding, useless, unprofitable, profitless, futile, vain, idle; old use bootless.

4 sterile academicism: unimaginative, uninspired, uninspiring, unoriginal, stale, lifeless, musty. 5 sterile conditions: aseptic, sterilized, germ-free, antiseptic, disinfected; uncontaminated, unpolluted, pure, clean; sanitary, hygienic.

– OPPOSITES fertile, productive, creative, original, septic.

sterilize verb 1 the scalpel was first sterilized: disinfect, fumigate, decontaminate, sanitize; pasteurize; clean, cleanse, purify; technical autoclave. 2 stray pets are usually sterilized: neuter, castrate, spay, geld, cut, fix, desex; N. Amer. & Austral. alter; Brit. informal doctor.

– OPPOSITES contaminate.

sterling adjective (Brit.) excellent, first-rate, first-class, exceptional, outstanding, splendid, superlative, praiseworthy, laudable, commendable, admirable, valuable, worthy, deserving.

– OPPOSITES poor, unexceptional.

stern<sup>1</sup> adjective 1 a stern expression: serious, unsmiling, frowning, severe, forbidding, grim, unfriendly, austere, dour, stony, flinty, steely, unrelenting, unforgiving, unbending, unsympathetic, disapproving.

2 stern measures: strict, severe, stringent, harsh, drastic, hard, tough, extreme, rigid, ruthless, rigorous, exacting, demanding, uncompromising, unsparing, inflexible, authoritarian, draconian.

– OPPOSITES genial, friendly, lenient, lax.

stern<sup>2</sup> noun the stern of the ship: rear (end), back, after end, poop, transom, tail.

– OPPOSITES bow.

stew noun 1 a beef stew: casserole, hotpot, ragout, goulash, carbonnade, daube, grillade; N. Amer. burgoo. 2 (informal) she's in a right old stew: panic, fluster, fret, fuss, fever; informal flap, sweat, lather, tizzy, dither, twitter, state; N. Amer. informal twit; literary pothor.

• verb 1 stew the meat for an hour: braise, casserole, simmer, boil; jug; old use seethe.

2 (informal) there's no point stewing over it. See WORRY verb sense 1. 3 (informal) the girls sat stewing in the heat: swelter, be very hot, perspire, sweat; informal roast, bake, be boiling.

steward noun 1 an air steward: flight attendant, cabin attendant; stewardess, air hostess; N. Amer. informal stew. 2 the race stewards: official, marshal, organizer. 3 the steward of the estate: (estate) manager, agent, overseer, custodian, caretaker; Brit. land agent, bailiff; Scottish factor; historical reeve.

stick<sup>1</sup> noun 1 a fire made of sticks: piece of wood, twig, small branch. 2 he walks with a stick: walking stick, cane, staff, alpenstock, crook, crutch; trademark Zimmer frame. 3 the plants need supporting on sticks: cane, pole, post, stake, upright. 4 he beat me with a stick: club, cudgel, bludgeon, shillelagh; truncheon, baton; cane, birch, switch, rod; Brit. informal cosh. 5 (Brit. informal) he'll get stick for this. See CRITICISM sense 1.

– OPPOSITES praise, commendation.

■ the sticks (informal) the country, the countryside, rural areas, the provinces; the backwoods, the back of beyond, the wilds, the hinterland, a backwater; N. Amer. the backcountry, the backland; Austral./NZ the backblocks, the boozay; S. African the backveld, the platteland; informal the middle of nowhere; N. Amer. informal the boondocks, the boonies; Austral./NZ informal Woop Woop, beyond the black stump.

stick<sup>2</sup> verb 1 he stuck his fork into the sausage: thrust, push, insert, jab, poke, dig, plunge.

2 the bristles stuck into his skin: pierce, penetrate, puncture, prick, stab. 3 the cup stuck to its saucer: adhere, cling, be fixed, be glued. 4 stick the stamp there: affix, attach, fasten, fix; paste, glue, gum, tape, Sellotape, pin, tack. 5 the wheels stuck fast: become trapped, become jammed, jam, catch, become wedged, become lodged, become fixed, become embedded. 6 that sticks in his mind: remain, stay, linger, dwell, persist, continue, last, endure. 7 the charges won't stick: be upheld, hold, be believed; informal hold water. 8 (informal) just stick that sandwich on my desk: put (down), place, set (down), lay (down), deposit, position; leave, stow; informal dump, bung, park, plonk, pop; N. Amer. informal plunk. 9 (Brit. informal) I can't stick it any longer: tolerate, put up with, take, stand, stomach, endure, bear; Scottish thole; informal abide.

■ stick at persevere with, persist with, keep at, work at, continue with, carry on with, hammer away at, stay with; go the distance, stay the course; informal soldier on with, hang in there.

■ stick by be loyal to, be faithful to, be true to, stand by, keep faith with, keep one's promise to.

■ stick it out put up with it, grin and bear it, keep at it, keep going, stay with it, see it through; persevere, persist, carry on, struggle on; informal hang in there, soldier on, tough it out.

■ stick out 1 his front teeth stuck out: protrude, jut (out), project, stand out, extend, poke out; bulge, overhang.

2 they stuck out in their strange clothes: be noticeable, be visible, be obvious, be conspicuous, stand out, be obtrusive, be prominent, attract attention, catch the eye, leap out, show up; informal stick/stand out a mile, stick/stand out like a sore thumb.

■ stick to he stuck to his promise: abide by, keep, adhere to, hold to, comply with, fulfil, make good, stand by.

■ stick up for support, take someone's side, side with, be on the side of, stand by, stand up for, take someone's part, defend, come to the defence of, champion, speak up for, fight for.

stick-in-the-mud noun (informal) (old) fogey, conservative, fossil, troglodyte; Brit.

museum piece; informal fuddy-duddy, square, stuffed shirt.

sticky adjective 1 sticky tape: (self-) adhesive, gummed; technical adherent.

2 sticky clay: glutinous, viscous, viscid, ropy; gluey, tacky, gummy, treacly, syrupy; mucilaginous; Brit. claggy; informal gooey, gloopy, icky; Brit. informal gungy; N. Amer. informal gloppy. 3 sticky weather: humid, muggy, close, sultry, steamy, sweaty. 4 a sticky situation: awkward, difficult, tricky, ticklish, problematic, delicate, touch-and-go, embarrassing, sensitive, uncomfortable; informal hairy.

– OPPOSITES dry, fresh, cool, easy.

stiff adjective 1 stiff cardboard: rigid, hard, firm, inelastic, inflexible. 2 a stiff paste: semi-solid, viscous, viscid, thick, stiffened, firm. 3 I'm stiff all over: aching, achy, painful; arthritic, rheumatic; informal creaky, rheumatically, rusty. 4 a rather stiff manner: formal, reserved, unfriendly, chilly, cold, frigid, icy, austere, wooden, forced, strained, stilted; informal starchy, uptight, stand-offish. 5 a stiff fine: harsh, severe, heavy, crippling, punishing, stringent, drastic, draconian; Brit. swingeing. 6 stiff resistance: vigorous, determined, full of determination, strong, spirited, resolute, tenacious, steely, four-square, unflagging, unyielding, dogged, stubborn, obdurate; N. Amer. rock-ribbed. 7 a stiff climb: difficult, hard, arduous, tough, strenuous, laborious, uphill, exacting, tiring, demanding, formidable, challenging, punishing, gruelling; informal killing, hellish; Brit. informal knackerling. 8 a stiff breeze: strong, fresh, brisk. 9 a stiff drink: strong, potent, alcoholic.

– OPPOSITES flexible, plastic, limp, runny, supple, limber, relaxed, informal, lenient, mild, half-hearted, easy, gentle, weak.

stiffen verb 1 stir until the mixture stiffens: become stiff, thicken; set, become solid, solidify, harden, gel, congeal, coagulate, clot. 2 she stiffened her muscles | without exercise, joints will stiffen: make/become stiff, tense (up), tighten, tauten. 3 intimidation stiffened their resolve: strengthen, harden, toughen, fortify, reinforce, give a boost to.

– OPPOSITES soften, liquefy, relax, weaken.

stifle verb 1 she stifled him with a bolster: suffocate, choke, asphyxiate, smother. 2 Eleanor stifled a giggle: suppress, smother, restrain, fight back, choke back, gulp back, check, swallow, curb, silence. 3 cartels stifle competition: constrain, hinder, hamper, impede, hold back, curb, check, restrain, prevent, inhibit, suppress.

– OPPOSITES let out, encourage.

stifling adjective airless, suffocating, oppressive; very hot, sweltering; humid, close, muggy; informal boiling.

– OPPOSITES fresh, airy, cold.

stigma noun shame, disgrace, dishonour, ignominy, opprobrium, humiliation.

– OPPOSITES honour, credit.

stigmatize verb condemn, denounce; brand, label, mark out; disparage, vilify, pillory, pour scorn on, defame.

still adjective 1 Polly lay still: motionless, unmoving, not moving a muscle, stock-still, immobile, like a statue, as if turned to stone, rooted to the spot, transfixed, static, stationary. 2 a still night: quiet, silent, hushed, soundless, noiseless, undisturbed; calm, peaceful, serene, windless; literary stilly. 3 the lake was still: calm, flat, even, smooth, placid, tranquil, pacific, waveless, glassy, like a millpond, unruffled.

– OPPOSITES moving, active, noisy, rough.

• noun the still of the night: quietness, quiet, quietude, silence, stillness, hush, soundlessness; calm, tranquillity, peace, serenity.

– OPPOSITES noise, disturbance, hubbub.

• adverb 1 he's still here: up to this time, up to the present time, until now, even now, yet. 2 He's crazy. Still, he's harmless: nevertheless, nonetheless, all the same, just the same, anyway, anyhow, even so, yet, but, however, notwithstanding, despite that, in spite of that, for all that, be that as it may, in any event, at any rate; informal still and all.

• verb 1 he stilled the crowd: quieten, quiet, silence, hush; calm, settle, pacify, soothe, lull, allay, subdue. 2 the wind stilled: abate, die down, lessen, subside, ease up/off, let up, moderate, slacken, weaken.

– OPPOSITES stir up, get stronger, get up.

stilted adjective strained, forced, contrived, constrained, laboured, stiff, self-conscious, awkward, unnatural, wooden.

– OPPOSITES natural, effortless, spontaneous.

stimulant noun 1 caffeine is a stimulant: tonic, restorative; antidepressant; informal pep pill, upper, pick-me-up, bracer; Medicine analeptic. 2 a stimulant to discussion: stimulus, incentive, encouragement, impetus, inducement, fillip, boost, spur, prompt; informal shot in the arm.

– OPPOSITES sedative, downer, deterrent.

stimulate verb encourage, act as a stimulus to, prompt, prod, move, motivate, trigger, spark, spur on, galvanize, activate, kindle, fire, fire with enthusiasm, fuel, whet, nourish; inspire, incentivize, inspirit, rouse, excite, animate, electrify; N. Amer. light a fire under.

– OPPOSITES discourage.

stimulating adjective 1 a stimulating effect on the circulation: restorative, tonic, invigorating, bracing, energizing, reviving, refreshing, revitalizing, revivifying; Medicine analeptic. 2 a stimulating lecture: thought-provoking, interesting, fascinating, inspiring, inspirational, lively, sparkling, exciting, stirring, rousing, intriguing, giving one food for thought, refreshing; provocative, challenging.

– OPPOSITES sedative, uninspiring, uninteresting, boring.

stimulus noun spur, stimulant, boost, encouragement, impetus, prompt, prod, incentive, inducement, inspiration, fillip; motivation, impulse; informal shot in the arm.

– OPPOSITES deterrent, discouragement.

sting noun 1 a bee sting: prick, wound, injury, puncture. 2 this cream will take the sting away: smart, pricking; pain, soreness, hurt, irritation. 3 the sting of his betrayal: heartache, heartbreak, agony, torture, torment, hurt, pain, anguish. 4 there was a sting in her words: sharpness, severity, bite, edge, pointedness, asperity; sarcasm, acrimony, malice, spite, venom. 5 (informal) the victim of a sting: swindle, fraud, deception; trickery, sharp practice; informal rip-off, con, con trick, fiddle; N. Amer. informal bunco. • verb 1 she was stung by a scorpion: prick, wound; poison. 2 the smoke made her eyes sting: smart, burn, hurt, be irritated, be sore. 3 the criticism stung her: upset, wound, cut to the quick, sear, grieve, hurt, pain, torment, mortify. 4 he was stung into action: provoke, goad, incite, spur, prick, prod, rouse, drive, galvanize. 5 (informal) they stung a bank for thousands: swindle, defraud, cheat, fleece, gull; informal rip off, screw, shaft, bilk, do, rook, diddle, take for a ride, skin; N. Amer. informal chisel, gouge; Brit. informal, dated rush.

– OPPOSITES deter.

stingy adjective (informal) mean, miserly, niggardly, close-fisted, parsimonious, penny-pinching, cheese-paring, Scrooge-like; informal tight-fisted, tight, mingy, money-grubbing; N. Amer. informal cheap; formal penurious; old use near, niggard.

– OPPOSITES generous, liberal.

stink verb 1 his clothes stank of sweat: reek, smell (foul/bad/disgusting), stink/smell to high heaven. 2 (informal) the whole idea stinks: be very unpleasant, be abhorrent, be despicable, be contemptible, be disgusting, be vile, be foul; N. Amer. informal suck. 3 (informal) the whole affair stinks of a set-up: smack, reek, give the impression, have all the hallmarks; strongly suggest.

• noun 1 the stink of sweat: stench, reek, foul/bad smell, malodour; Brit. informal pong, niff, hum; Scottish informal guff; N. Amer. informal funk; literary miasma. 2 (informal) she kicked up a stink: fuss, commotion, rumpus, ruckus, trouble, outcry, uproar, brouhaha, furore; informal song and dance, to-do, kerfuffle, hoo-ha; Brit. informal row, carry-on.

stinking adjective 1 stinking rubbish: foul-smelling, smelly, reeking, fetid, malodorous, rank, putrid, noxious; informal stinky, reeky; Brit. informal niffing, niffy, pongy, whiffy, humming; N. Amer. informal funky; literary miasmatic, noisome. 2 (informal) a stinking cold: dreadful, awful, terrible, frightful, ghastly, nasty, foul, vile; Brit. informal rotten, shocking.

– OPPOSITES sweet-smelling, aromatic, mild, slight.

stint verb we saved by stinting on food: skimp, scrimp, be economical, economize, be sparing, hold back, be frugal; be mean, be parsimonious; limit, restrict; informal be stingy, be mingy, be tight.

• noun a two-week stint in the office: spell, stretch, turn, session, term, shift, tour of duty.

stipulate verb specify, set down, set out, lay down; demand, require, insist on, make a condition of, prescribe, impose; Law provide.

stipulation noun condition, precondition, proviso, provision, prerequisite, specification; demand, requirement; rider, caveat, qualification.

stir verb 1 stir the mixture well: mix, blend, agitate; beat, whip, whisk, fold in; N. Amer. muddle. 2 Travis stirred in his sleep: move slightly, change one's position, shift. 3 a breeze stirred the leaves: disturb, rustle, shake, move, flutter, agitate. 4 he finally stirred at ten o'clock: get up, get out of bed, rouse oneself, rise; wake (up), awaken; informal rise and shine, surface, show signs of life; formal arise; literary waken. 5 I never stirred from here: move, budge, make a move, shift, go away; leave. 6 symbolism can stir the imagination: arouse, rouse, fire, kindle, inspire, stimulate, excite, awaken, quicken; literary waken. 7 the war stirred him to action: spur, drive, rouse, prompt, propel, prod, motivate, encourage; urge, impel; provoke, goad, prick, sting, incite; N. Amer. light a fire under.

– OPPOSITES go to bed, retire, go to sleep, stultify, stay, stay put.

• noun the news caused a stir: commotion, disturbance, fuss, excitement, turmoil, sensation; informal to-do, hoo-ha, hullabaloo, flap, splash.

■ stir something up whip up, work up, foment, fan the flames of, trigger, spark off, precipitate, excite, provoke, incite.

stirring adjective exciting, thrilling, rousing, stimulating, moving, inspiring, inspirational, passionate, impassioned, emotional, heady.

– OPPOSITES boring, pedestrian.

stitch verb the seams are stitched by hand: sew, baste, tack; seam, hem; darn.

■ stitch someone up (Brit. informal) falsely incriminate, get someone into trouble; informal frame, set up; Brit. informal fit someone up, drop someone in it.

stock noun 1 the shop carries little stock: merchandise, goods, wares, items/articles for sale, inventory. 2 a stock of fuel: store, supply, stockpile, reserve, hoard, cache, bank, accumulation, quantity, collection. 3 farm stock: animals, livestock, beasts; flocks, herds. 4 blue-chip stocks: shares, securities, equities, bonds. 5 his stock is low with most voters: popularity, favour, regard, estimation, standing, status, reputation, name, prestige. 6 his mother was of French stock: descent, ancestry, origin(s), parentage, pedigree, lineage, line (of descent), heritage, birth, extraction, family, blood, bloodline. 7 chicken stock: bouillon, broth. 8 the stock of a weapon: handle, butt, haft, grip, shaft, shank.

• adjective 1 a stock size: standard, regular, normal, established, set; common, readily/widely available; staple. 2 the stock response: usual, routine, predictable, set, standard, staple, customary, familiar, conventional, traditional, stereotyped, clichéd, hackneyed, unoriginal, formulaic.

– OPPOSITES non-standard, original, unusual.

• verb 1 we do not stock GM food: sell, carry, keep (in stock), offer, have (for sale), retail, supply. 2 the fridge was well stocked with milk: supply, provide, furnish, provision, equip, fill, load.

■ in stock for/on sale, (immediately) available, on the shelf.

■ stock up on/with amass supplies of, stockpile, hoard, cache, lay in, buy up/in, put away/by, put/set aside, collect, accumulate, save; informal squirrel away, salt away, stash away.

■ take stock of review, assess, weigh up, appraise, evaluate; informal size up.

stockings plural noun nylons, stay-ups; tights; hosiery, hose; N. Amer. pantyhose.

stockpile noun a stockpile of weapons: stock, store, supply, accumulation, collection, reserve, hoard, cache; informal stash.

• verb food had been stockpiled: store up, amass, accumulate, store (up), stock up on, hoard, cache, collect, lay in, put away, put/set aside, put by, put away for a rainy day, stow away, save; informal salt away, stash away.

stock-still adjective motionless, completely still, unmoving, not moving a muscle, immobile, like a statue, as if turned to stone, rooted to the spot, transfixed, static, stationary.

– OPPOSITES moving, active.

stocky adjective thickset, sturdy, heavily built, chunky, burly, strapping, brawny, solid, heavy, hefty, beefy.

– OPPOSITES slender, skinny.

stodgy adjective 1 a stodgy pudding: solid, substantial, filling, hearty, heavy, starchy, indigestible. 2 stodgy writing: boring, dull, uninteresting, dreary, turgid, tedious, dry, heavy going, unimaginative, uninspired, unexciting, unoriginal, monotonous, humdrum, prosaic, staid; informal deadly, square.

– OPPOSITES light, interesting, lively.

stoical adjective long-suffering, uncomplaining, patient, forbearing, accepting, tolerant, resigned, phlegmatic, philosophical.

– OPPOSITES complaining, intolerant.

stoicism noun patience, forbearance, resignation, fortitude, endurance, acceptance, tolerance, philosophicalness, phlegm.

– OPPOSITES intolerance.

stoke verb add fuel to, mend, keep burning, tend.

stolid adjective impassive, phlegmatic, unemotional, cool, calm, placid, unexcitable; dependable; unimaginative, dull.

– OPPOSITES emotional, lively, imaginative.

stomach noun 1 a pain in the stomach: abdomen, belly, gut, middle; informal tummy, tum, breadbasket, insides. 2 his fat stomach: paunch, pot belly, beer belly, girth; informal beer gut, pot, tummy, spare tyre, middle-aged spread; N. Amer. informal bay window; dated, humorous corporation. 3 he had no stomach for it: appetite, taste, hunger, thirst; inclination, desire, relish, fancy.

• verb 1 I can't stomach butter: digest, keep down, manage to eat/consume, tolerate, take. 2 they couldn't stomach the sight: tolerate, put up with, take, stand, endure, bear; Scottish thole; informal hack, abide; Brit. informal stick.

WORD LINKS

gastric relating to the stomach gastritis inflammation of the stomach lining gastroenterology the branch of medicine that deals with the stomach and intestines stomach ache noun indigestion, dyspepsia; colic, gripe; informal bellyache, tummy ache, gut ache, collywobbles.

stone noun 1 someone threw a stone at me: rock, pebble, boulder. 2 a commemorative stone: tablet, monument, monolith, obelisk; gravestone, headstone, tombstone. 3 paving stones: slab, flagstone, flag, sett. 4 a precious stone: gem, gemstone, jewel, semi-precious stone, brilliant; informal rock, sparkler. 5 a peach stone: kernel, seed, pip, pit.

WORD LINKS

lapidary relating to the cutting or polishing of stones and gems lithic relating to or like stone mason a person who builds with stone or shapes stone for building petrify change organic matter into stone stony adjective 1 a stony path: rocky, pebbly, gravelly, shingly; rough, hard. 2 a stony stare: unfriendly, hostile, cold, chilly, frosty, icy; hard, flinty, steely, stern, severe; fixed, expressionless, blank, poker-faced, deadpan; unfeeling, uncaring, unsympathetic, indifferent, cold-hearted, callous, heartless, hard-hearted, stony-hearted, merciless, pitiless.

– OPPOSITES smooth, friendly, sympathetic.

stooge noun 1 a government stooge: underling, minion, lackey, subordinate; henchman; puppet, pawn, cat's paw; informal sidekick; Brit. informal dogsbody, poodle. 2 a comedian's stooge: butt, foil, straight man.

stoop verb 1 she stooped to pick up the pen: bend (over/down), lean over/down, crouch (down). 2 he stooped his head: lower, bend, incline, bow, duck. 3 he stoops when he walks: hunch one's shoulders, walk with a stoop, be round-shouldered. 4 Davis would stoop to crime: lower oneself, sink, descend, resort; go as far as, sink as low as.

• noun a man with a stoop: hunch, round shoulders; curvature of the spine; Medicine kyphosis.

stop verb 1 we can't stop the decline: put an end to, bring to an end, end, halt; finish, terminate, wind up, discontinue, cut short, interrupt, nip in the bud; deactivate, shut down. 2 he stopped running: cease, discontinue, desist from, break off; give up, abandon, abstain from, cut out; informal quit, leave off, knock off, pack in, lay off, give over; Brit. informal jack in. 3 the car stopped: pull up, draw up, come to a standstill, come to a halt, come to rest, pull in, pull over; park. 4 the music stopped: come to an end/, cease, end, finish, draw to a close, be over, conclude, terminate; pause, break off; peter out, fade away. 5 divers stopped the flow of oil: stem, staunch, hold back, check, curb, block, dam; N. Amer. stanch; old use stay. 6 the police stopped her leaving: prevent, hinder, obstruct, impede, block, bar, preclude; dissuade from. 7 the council stopped the Kilmarnock scheme: thwart, baulk, foil, frustrate, stand in the way of; scotch, derail; informal put paid to, put the kibosh on, do for, stymie; Brit. informal scupper. 8 the firm stops your tax: withhold, keep back, hold back, deduct, take away, refuse to pay. 9 just stop the bottle with your thumb: block (up), plug, close (up), fill (up); seal, caulk, bung up; technical occlude.

– OPPOSITES start, begin, continue, allow, encourage, expedite, pay, open.

• noun 1 all business came to a stop: halt, end, finish, close, standstill; cessation, conclusion, stoppage, discontinuation. 2 a brief stop in the town: break, stopover, stop-off, stay, visit; formal sojourn. 3 the next stop is Oxford Street: stopping place, halt, station, stage. 4 a full stop: (full) point; N. Amer. period.

– OPPOSITES start, beginning, continuation.

■ put a stop to. See STOP verb senses 1, 7.
■ stop off/over break one's journey, take a break, pause; stay, remain, put up, lodge, rest; formal sojourn.

stopgap noun that old plane was merely a stopgap: temporary solution, expedient, makeshift; substitute, stand-in.

• adjective a stopgap measure: temporary, provisional, interim, pro tem, short-term, working, makeshift, emergency; caretaker, acting, fill-in, stand-in.

– OPPOSITES permanent.

stopover noun break, stop, stop-off, visit, stay; formal sojourn.

stoppage noun 1 the stoppage of production: discontinuation, stopping, halting, cessation, termination, end, finish; interruption, suspension, breaking off. 2 a stoppage of the blood supply: obstruction, blocking, blockage, block; Medicine occlusion, stasis. 3 a stoppage over pay: strike, walkout; industrial action. 4 (Brit.) she was paid £3.40 an hour before stoppages: deduction, subtraction.

– OPPOSITES start, continuation.

stopper noun bung, plug, cork, spigot, spile, seal; N. Amer. stopple.

store noun 1 a store of food: stock, supply, stockpile, hoard, cache, reserve, bank, pool. 2 a grain store: storeroom, storehouse, repository, depository, stockroom, depot, warehouse, magazine; informal lock-up. 3 ship's stores: supplies, provisions, stocks, necessities; food, rations, provender; materials, equipment, hardware; Military materiel, accoutrements; Nautical chandlery.

4 a DIY store: shop, (retail) outlet, boutique, department store, chain store, emporium; supermarket, hypermarket, superstore, megastore.

• verb rabbits don't store food: keep, keep in reserve, stockpile, lay in, put/set aside, put away/by, put away for a rainy day, save, collect, accumulate, hoard, cache; informal squirrel away, salt away, stash away.

– OPPOSITES use, discard.

■ set (great) store by value, attach great importance to, put a high value on, put a premium on; think highly of, hold in (high) regard, have a high opinion of; informal rate.

storehouse noun warehouse, depository, repository, store, storeroom, depot.

storey noun floor, level, deck.

storm noun 1 battered by a storm: tempest, squall; gale, hurricane, tornado, cyclone, typhoon; thunderstorm, rainstorm, monsoon, hailstorm, snowstorm, blizzard; N. Amer. williwaw, windstorm. 2 a storm of bullets: volley, salvo, fusillade, barrage, cannonade; shower, spray, hail, rain. 3 there was a storm over his remarks: uproar, outcry, fuss, furore, brouhaha, rumpus, trouble, hue and cry, controversy; informal to-do, hoo-ha, hullabaloo, ballyhoo, ructions, stink; Brit. informal row. 4 a storm of protest: outburst, outbreak, explosion, eruption, outpouring, surge, blaze, flare-up, wave.

• verb 1 she stormed out: stride angrily, stomp, march, stalk, flounce, stamp, fling. 2 his mother stormed at him: rant, rave, shout, bellow, roar, thunder, rage. 3 police stormed the building: attack, charge, rush, assail, descend on, swoop on.

stormy adjective 1 stormy weather:

blustery, squally, windy, gusty, blowy; rainy, thundery; wild, tempestuous, turbulent, violent, rough, foul. 2 a stormy debate: angry, heated, fiery, fierce, furious, passionate, 'lively'.

– OPPOSITES calm, fine, peaceful.

story noun 1 an adventure story: tale, narrative, account, anecdote; informal yarn, spiel. 2 the novel has a good story: plot, storyline, scenario; formal diegesis. 3 the story appeared in the papers: news item, news report, article, feature, piece. 4 there have been a lot of stories going round: rumour, piece of gossip, whisper; speculation; Austral./NZ informal furphy. 5 Harper changed his story: testimony, statement, report, account, version. 6 Ellie never told stories. See FALSEHOOD sense 1.

storyteller noun narrator, teller of tales, raconteur, raconteuse, fabulist, anecdotalist; Austral. informal magsman.

stout adjective 1 a short stout man: fat, plump, portly, rotund, dumpy, chunky, corpulent; stocky, burly, bulky, hefty, solidly built, thickset; informal tubby, pudgy; Brit. informal podgy, fubby; N. Amer. informal zaftig, corn-fed; old use pursy. 2 stout leather shoes: strong, sturdy, solid, substantial, robust, tough, durable, hard-wearing. 3 stout resistance: determined, vigorous, forceful, spirited; staunch, steadfast, stalwart, firm, resolute, unyielding, dogged; brave, bold, courageous, valiant, valorous, gallant, fearless, doughty, intrepid; informal gutsy, spunky.

– OPPOSITES thin, flimsy, feeble.

stout-hearted adjective brave, determined, courageous, bold, plucky, spirited, valiant, valorous, gallant, fearless, doughty, intrepid, stalwart; informal gutsy, spunky.

stove noun oven, range, cooker.

stow verb Barney stowed her luggage in the boot: pack, load, store, place, put (away), deposit, stash.

– OPPOSITES unload.

■ stow away hide, conceal oneself, travel secretly.

straddle verb 1 she straddled the motorbike:

sit/stand astride, bestride, mount, get on.

2 a mountain range straddling the border:

lie on both sides of, extend across, span.

3 (N. Amer.) he straddled the issue of taxes:

be equivocal about, be undecided about, equivocate about, vacillate about, waver about; informal sit on the fence.

strafe verb bomb, shell, bombard, fire on, machine-gun, rake with gunfire, enfilade; old use fusillade.

straggle verb trail, lag, dawdle, walk slowly; fall behind, bring up the rear.

straggly adjective untidy, messy, unkempt, straggling, dishevelled.

straight adjective 1 a long, straight road:

unswerving, undeviating, linear, as straight as an arrow, uncurving, unbending.

2 that picture isn't straight: level, even, in line, aligned, square; vertical, upright, perpendicular; horizontal. 3 we must get the place straight: in order, (neat and) tidy, neat, shipshape (and Bristol fashion), orderly, spick and span, organized, arranged, sorted out, straightened out. 4 a straight answer:

honest, direct, frank, candid, truthful, sincere, forthright, straightforward, plain-spoken, blunt, straight from the shoulder, unequivocal, unambiguous; informal upfront.

5 straight thinking: logical, rational, clear, lucid, sound, coherent. 6 three straight wins:

successive, in succession, consecutive, in a row, running; informal on the trot. 7 straight brandy: undiluted, neat, pure; N. Amer. informal straight up. 8 (informal) she's very straight: respectable, conventional, conservative, traditional, old-fashioned, strait-laced; informal stuffy, square, fuddy-duddy.

– OPPOSITES winding, crooked, untidy, evasive.

• adverb 1 he looked me straight in the eyes: right, directly, squarely, full; informal smack, (slap) bang; N. Amer. informal spang, smack dab.

2 she drove straight home: directly, right, by a direct route. 3 I'll call you straight back:

right away, straight away, immediately, directly, at once; old use straightway. 4 I told her straight: frankly, directly, candidly, honestly, forthrightly, plainly, point-blank, bluntly, flatly, straight from the shoulder, without beating about the bush, without mincing one's words, unequivocally, unambiguously, in plain English, to someone's face; Brit. informal straight up. 5 he can't think straight: logically, rationally, clearly, lucidly, coherently, cogently.

■ go straight reform, mend one's ways, turn over a new leaf, get back on the straight and narrow.

■ straight away at once, right away, (right) now, this/that (very) minute, this/that instant, immediately, instantly, directly, forthwith, without further/more ado, promptly, quickly, without delay, then and there, here and now, asap, as soon as possible, as quickly as possible; N. Amer. in short order; informal straight off, in double quick time, p.d.q., pretty damn quick, pronto, before you can say Jack Robinson; N. Amer. informal lickety-split; old use straightway.

■ straight from the shoulder. See STRAIGHT adverb sense 4.

straighten verb 1 Rory straightened his tie:

make straight, adjust, arrange, rearrange, (make) tidy, spruce up. 2 we must straighten things out with Viola: put/set right, sort out, clear up, settle, resolve, put in order, regularize, rectify, remedy; informal patch up. 3 he straightened up: stand up (straight), stand upright.

straightforward adjective 1 the process was remarkably straightforward: uncomplicated, simple, easy, effortless, painless, undemanding, plain sailing, child's play; informal as easy as falling off a log, as easy as pie, a piece of cake, a cinch, a snip, a doddle, a breeze, a cakewalk, a walk in the park; Brit. informal easy-peasy, a doss; N. Amer. informal duck soup, a snap; Austral./NZ informal a bludge, a snack. 2 a straightforward man: honest, frank, candid, open, truthful, sincere, on the level; forthright, plain-speaking, direct, unambiguous; informal upfront; N. Amer. informal on the up and up.

– OPPOSITES complicated.

– OPPOSITES complicated.

strain<sup>1</sup> verb 1 take care that you don't strain yourself: overtax, overwork, overextend, overreach, drive too far, overdo it; exhaust, wear out; informal knacker, knock oneself out. 2 you have strained a muscle: injure, damage, pull, wrench, twist, sprain. 3 we strained to haul the guns up the slope:

struggle, labour, toil, make every effort, try very hard, break one's back, push/drive oneself to the limit; informal pull out all the stops, go all out, bust a gut; Austral. informal go for the doctor. 4 the flood of refugees is straining the relief services: make excessive demands on, overtax, be too much for, test, tax, put a strain on. 5 the bear strained at the chain: pull, tug, heave, haul, jerk; informal yank. 6 (old use) she strained the infant to her bosom: clasp, press, clutch, hold tight; embrace, hug, enfold, envelop. 7 strain the mixture: sieve, sift, filter, screen, riddle; rare filtrate.

• noun 1 the rope snapped under the strain: tension, tightness, tautness. 2 muscle strain: injury, sprain, wrench, twist. 3 the strain of her job: pressure, demands, burdens; stress; informal hassle. 4 Melissa was showing signs of strain: stress, (nervous) tension; exhaustion, fatigue, pressure of work, overwork. 5 the strains of Brahms's lullaby: sound, music; melody, tune.

strain<sup>2</sup> noun 1 a different strain of flu: variety, kind, type, sort; breed, genus. 2 Hawthorne was of Puritan strain: descent, ancestry, origin(s), parentage, lineage, extraction, family, roots. 3 there was a strain of insanity in the family: tendency, susceptibility, propensity, proneness; trait, disposition. 4 a strain of solemnity: element, strand, vein, note, trace, touch, suggestion, hint.

strained adjective 1 relations between them were strained: awkward, tense, uneasy, uncomfortable, edgy, difficult, troubled. 2 Jean's strained face: drawn, careworn, worn, pinched, tired, exhausted, drained, haggard. 3 a strained smile: forced, constrained, unnatural; artificial, insincere, false, affected, put-on.
– OPPOSITES friendly.

strainer noun sieve, colander, filter, sifter, riddle, screen; old use griddle.

strait noun 1 a strait about six miles wide: channel, sound, inlet, stretch of water. 2 the company is in desperate straits: a bad/difficult situation, difficulty, trouble, crisis, a mess, a predicament, a plight; informal hot/deep water, a jam, a hole, a bind, a fix, a scrape.

straitened adjective impoverished, poverty-stricken, poor, destitute, penniless, on one's beam-ends, as poor as a church mouse, in penury, impecunious, unable to make ends meet, in reduced circumstances; Brit. on the breadline; informal (flat) broke, strapped for cash, on one's uppers; Brit. informal stony broke, skint, in Queer Street; N. Amer. informal stone broke; formal penurious.

strait-laced adjective prim (and proper), prudish, puritanical, prissy, mimsy, miny-piminy; conservative, old-fashioned, stuffy, staid, narrow-minded; informal starchy, square, fuddy-duddy.

S – OPPOSITES broad-minded.

strand<sup>1</sup> noun 1 strands of wool: thread, filament, fibre; length, ply. 2 the various strands of the ecological movement: element, component, factor, ingredient, aspect, feature, strain.

strand<sup>2</sup> noun (literary) a walk along the strand: seashore, shore, beach, sands, foreshore, shoreline, seaside, waterfront, front, waterside.

stranded adjective 1 a stranded ship: beached, grounded, run aground, high and dry; shipwrecked, wrecked, marooned. 2 she was stranded in a strange city: helpless, without resources, in difficulties; in the lurch, abandoned, deserted.

strange adjective 1 strange things have been happening: unusual, odd, curious, peculiar, funny, bizarre, weird, uncanny, queer, unexpected, unfamiliar, atypical, anomalous, out of the ordinary, extraordinary, puzzling, mystifying, mysterious, perplexing, baffling, unaccountable, inexplicable, singular, freakish; suspicious, questionable; eerie, unnatural; informal fishy, creepy, spooky. 2 strange clothes: weird, eccentric, odd, peculiar, funny, bizarre, unusual; unconventional, outlandish, freakish, quirky, zany; informal wacky, way out, freaky, kooky, offbeat, off the wall; N. Amer. informal screwy, wacko. 3 visiting a strange house: unfamiliar, unknown, new. 4 Jean was feeling strange: ill, unwell, poorly, peaky; Brit. off colour; informal under the weather, funny, peculiar, lousy; Brit. informal off, ropy, grotty; Austral./NZ informal crook; dated queer. 5 she felt strange with him: ill at ease, uneasy, uncomfortable, awkward, self-conscious.

– OPPOSITES ordinary, familiar.

strangeness noun oddity, eccentricity, peculiarity, curiousness, bizarreness, weirdness, queerness, unusualness, abnormality, unaccountability, inexplicability, incongruousness, outlandishness, singularity.

stranger noun newcomer, new arrival, visitor, outsider; Austral. informal blow-in.
■ a stranger to unaccustomed to, unfamiliar with, unused to, new to, fresh to, inexperienced in; old use strange to.

strangle verb 1 the victim was strangled with a scarf: throttle, choke, garrotte; informal strangulate. 2 she strangled a sob: suppress, smother, stifle, repress, restrain, fight back, choke back. 3 bureaucracy is strangling commercial activity: hamper, hinder, impede, restrict, inhibit, curb, check, constrain, squash, crush, suppress, repress.

strap noun thick leather straps: thong, tie, band, belt.

• verb 1 a bag was strapped to the bicycle: fasten, secure, tie, bind, make fast, lash, truss. 2 his knee was strapped up: bandage, bind. 3 his father strapped him. See LASH verb sense 1.

strapping adjective big, strong, well built, brawny, burly, broad-shouldered, muscular, rugged; informal hunky, beefy; dated stalwart.

– OPPOSITES weedy.

stragem noun plan, scheme, tactic, manoeuvre, ploy, device, trick, ruse, plot, machination, dodge; subterfuge, artifice; Brit. informal wheeze; Austral. informal lurk; old use shift.

strategic adjective planned, calculated, tactical, politic, judicious, prudent, shrewd.

strategy noun 1 the government's economic strategy: master plan, grand design, game plan, plan (of action), policy, programme; tactics. 2 military strategy: the art of war, (military) tactics.

stratum noun 1 a stratum of flint: layer, vein, seam, lode, bed. 2 this stratum of society: level, class, echelon, rank, grade, group, set; caste; dated station, estate.

stray verb 1 the gazelle had strayed from the herd: wander off, go astray, get separated, get lost. 2 we strayed from our original topic:

digress, deviate, wander, get sidetracked, go off at a tangent; get off the subject.

3 the young men were likely to stray: be unfaithful, have affairs, philander; informal play around, play the field. 4 he strayed from the path of righteousness: sin, transgress, err, go astray; old use trespass. 5 (literary) straying about in a strange place: roam, rove, wander, drift.

• adjective 1 a stray dog: homeless, lost, strayed, gone astray, abandoned. 2 a stray bullet: random, chance, freak, unexpected, isolated, lone, single.

• noun wardens who deal with strays: homeless animal, stray dog/cat, waif.

streak noun 1 a streak of orange light: band, line, strip, stripe, vein, slash, ray. 2 green streaks on her legs: mark, smear, smudge, stain, blotch; informal splotch. 3 a streak of self-destructiveness: element, vein, touch, strain; trait, characteristic. 4 a winning streak: period, spell, stretch, run; Brit. informal patch.

• verb 1 the sky was streaked with red: stripe, band, fleck; old use freak. 2 overalls streaked with paint: mark, daub, smear; informal splotch. 3 Miranda streaked across the road. See RUN verb sense 1.

streaky adjective striped, stripy, streaked, banded, veined, brindled.

stream noun 1 a mountain stream: brook, rivulet, rill, runnel, streamlet, freshet; tributary; Scottish & N. English burn; N. English beck; S. English bourn; N. Amer. & Austral./NZ creek; Austral. billabong. 2 a stream of boiling water: jet, flow, rush, gush, surge, torrent, flood, cascade, outpouring, outflow; technical efflux. 3 a steady stream of visitors: succession, series, string.

• verb 1 tears were streaming down her face: flow, pour, course, run, gush, surge, flood, cascade, spill. 2 children streamed out of the classrooms: pour, surge, flood, swarm, pile, crowd. 3 a flag streamed from the mast: flutter, float, flap, fly, blow, waft, wave.

streamer noun pennant, pennon, flag, banderole, banner.

streamlined adjective 1 streamlined cars: aerodynamic, smooth, sleek, elegant. 2 a streamlined organization: efficient, smooth-running, well run, slick; time-saving, labour-saving.

street noun Amsterdam's narrow cobbled streets: road, thoroughfare, avenue, drive, boulevard, parade; side street/road, lane; N. Amer. highway.

■ the man/woman in the street an ordinary person, Mr/Mrs Average; Brit. informal Joe Bloggs, Joe Public, the man on the Clapham omnibus; N. Amer. informal John Doe, Joe Sixpack.

■ on the streets homeless, sleeping rough, down and out.

strength noun 1 enormous physical strength: power, brawn, muscle, muscularity, burliness, sturdiness, robustness, toughness, hardness; vigour, force, might; informal beef; literary thew. 2 Oliver began to regain his strength: health, fitness, vigour, stamina. 3 her great inner strength: fortitude, resilience, spirit, backbone, strength of character; courage, bravery, pluck, pluckiness, courageousness, grit; informal guts, spunk. 4 the strength of the retaining wall: robustness, sturdiness, firmness, toughness, soundness, solidity, durability. 5 Europe's military strength: power, influence, dominance, ascendancy, supremacy; informal clout; literary puissance.

6 the strength of feeling against the president: intensity, vehemence, force, forcefulness, depth, ardour, fervour. 7 the strength of their argument: cogency, forcefulness, force, weight, power, potency, persuasiveness, soundness, validity. 8 what are your strengths? strong point, advantage, asset, forte, aptitude, talent, skill; speciality. 9 (literary) my strength and shield: support, mainstay, anchor. 10 the strength of the army: size, extent, magnitude.

– OPPOSITES weakness.

■ on the strength of because of, by virtue of, on the basis of.

strengthen verb 1 calcium strengthens growing bones: make strong/stronger, build up, give strength to. 2 engineers strengthened the walls: reinforce, make stronger, buttress, shore up, underpin. 3 strengthened glass: toughen, temper, anneal. 4 the wind had strengthened: become strong/stronger, gain strength, intensify, pick up. 5 his insistence strengthened her determination: fortify, bolster, make stronger, boost, reinforce, harden, stiffen, toughen, fuel. 6 they strengthened their efforts: step up, increase, escalate; informal up, crank up, beef up. 7 the argument is strengthened by this evidence: reinforce, lend more weight to; support, back up, confirm, bear out, corroborate.

– OPPOSITES weaken.

strenuous adjective 1 a strenuous climb: arduous, difficult, hard, tough, taxing, demanding, exacting, exhausting, tiring, gruelling, back-breaking; informal killing; Brit. informal knacker; old use toilsome. 2 strenuous efforts: vigorous, energetic, zealous, forceful, strong, spirited, intense, determined, resolute, tenacious, tireless, indefatigable, dogged; formal pertinacious.

– OPPOSITES easy, half-hearted.

stress noun 1 he's under a lot of stress: strain, pressure, (nervous) tension, worry, anxiety, trouble, difficulty; informal hassle. 2 laying greater stress on education: emphasis, importance, weight. 3 the stress falls on the first syllable: emphasis, accent, accentuation; beat; Prosody ictus. 4 the stress is uniform across the bar: pressure, tension, strain.

• verb 1 they stressed the need for reform: emphasize, draw attention to, underline, underscore, point up, place emphasis on, lay stress on, highlight, accentuate, press home. 2 the last syllable is stressed: place the emphasis on, emphasize, place the accent on. 3 all the staff were stressed: overstretch, overtax, push to the limit, pressurize, pressure, make tense, worry, harass; informal hassle.

– OPPOSITES play down.

stressful adjective demanding, trying, taxing, difficult, hard, tough; fraught, traumatic, pressured, tense, frustrating.

– OPPOSITES relaxing.

stretch verb 1 this material stretches: be elastic, be stretchy, be tensile. 2 he stretched the elastic: pull (out), draw out, extend, lengthen, elongate, expand. 3 stretch your weekend into a vacation: prolong, lengthen, make longer, extend, spin out. 4 my budget won't stretch to a new car: be sufficient for, be enough for, cover; afford, have the money for. 5 the court case stretched their finances: put a strain on, overtax, overextend, drain, sap. 6 stretching the truth: bend, strain, distort, exaggerate, embellish. 7 she stretched out her hand to him: reach out, hold out, extend, outstretch, proffer; literary outreach. 8 he stretched his arms: extend, straighten (out). 9 she stretched out on the sofa: lie down, recline, lean back, be recumbent, sprawl, lounge, loll. 10 the desert stretches for miles: extend, spread, continue.

– OPPOSITES shorten.

• noun 1 magnificent stretches of forest: expanse, area, tract, belt, sweep, extent. 2 a four-hour stretch: period, time, spell, run, stint, session, shift. 3 (informal) a ten-year stretch: (prison) sentence; N. Amer. informal rap. • adjective stretch fabrics: stretchy, stretchable, elastic.

strew verb scatter, spread, disperse, litter, toss; literary bestrew.

stricken adjective troubled, (deeply) affected, afflicted, struck, hit.

strict adjective 1 a strict interpretation of the law: precise, exact, literal, faithful, accurate, careful, meticulous, rigorous. 2 strict controls on spending: stringent, rigorous, severe, harsh, hard, rigid, tough. 3 strict parents: stern, severe, harsh, uncompromising, authoritarian, firm, austere. 4 this will be treated in strict confidence: absolute, utter, complete, total. 5 a strict Roman Catholic: orthodox, devout, conscientious.

– OPPOSITES loose, liberal.

strictness noun 1 the strictness of the laws: severity, harshness, rigidity, rigidity, stringency, rigorousness, sternness. 2 the provision has been interpreted with strictness: precision, preciseness, accuracy, exactness, faithfulness; meticulousness, scrupulousness.

– OPPOSITES imprecision.

stricture noun 1 the constant strictures of the nuns: criticism, censure, condemnation, reproof, reproach, admonishment. 2 the strictures on Victorian women: constraint, restriction, limitation, restraint, straitjacket, curb, impediment, barrier, obstacle. 3 an intestinal stricture: narrowing, constriction.

– OPPOSITES praise, freedom.

stride verb she came striding down the path:

march, pace, step.

• noun long swinging strides: (long/large) step, pace.

■ take something in one's stride deal with easily, cope with easily, not bat an eyelid.

strident adjective harsh, raucous, rough, grating, rasping, jarring, loud, shrill, screeching, piercing, ear-piercing.

– OPPOSITES soft.

strife noun conflict, friction, discord, disagreement, dissension, dispute, argument, quarrelling, wrangling, bickering, controversy; ill/bad feeling, falling-out, bad blood, hostility, animosity.

– OPPOSITES peace.

strike verb 1 the teacher struck Mary: hit, slap, smack, beat, thrash, spank, thump, punch, cuff; cane, lash, whip, club; Austral./NZ informal quilt; informal clout, wallop, belt, whack, thwack, bash, clobber, bop, biff; literary smite. 2 he struck the gong: bang, beat, hit; informal bash, wallop. 3 the car struck a tree: crash into, collide with, hit, run into, bump into, smash into; N. Amer. impact. 4 Jennifer struck the ball: hit, drive, propel; informal clout, wallop, swipe. 5 he struck a match: ignite, light. 6 she was asleep when the killer struck: attack, set upon someone, fall on someone, assault someone. 7 the disease is striking 3,000 people a year: affect, afflict, attack, hit. 8 striking a balance: achieve, reach, arrive at, find, attain, establish. 9 we have struck a bargain: agree (on), come to an agreement on, settle on; informal clinch. 10 he struck a heroic pose: assume, adopt, take on/up, affect; N. Amer. informal cop. 11 they have struck oil: discover, find, come upon. 12 a thought struck her: occur to, come to (mind), dawn on one, hit, spring to mind, enter one's head. 13 you strike me as intelligent: seem to, appear to, give the impression to. 14 train drivers are striking: take industrial action, go on strike, down tools, walk out. 15 they struck the big tent: take down, pull down. 16 Lord Bridport struck his flag: lower, take down, bring down. 17 we should strike south: go, make one's way, head. • noun 1 a 48-hour strike: industrial action, walkout. 2 a military strike: (air) attack, assault, bombing. 3 a gold strike: find, discovery. ■ strike something out delete, cross out, erase, rub out. ■ strike something up 1 the band struck up another tune: begin to play, start playing. 2 we struck up a friendship: begin, start, commence, embark on, establish.

striking adjective 1 Lizzie bears a striking resemblance to her sister: noticeable, obvious, conspicuous, evident, marked, notable, unmistakable, strong; remarkable, extraordinary, incredible, amazing, astounding, astonishing, staggering. 2 Kenya's striking landscape: impressive, imposing, grand, splendid, magnificent, spectacular, breathtaking, superb, marvellous, wonderful, stunning, staggering, sensational, dramatic. 3 striking good looks: stunning, attractive, good-looking, beautiful, glamorous, gorgeous, prepossessing, ravishing, handsome, pretty; informal knockout; old use fair, comely.

– OPPOSITES unremarkable.

string noun 1 a ball of string: twine, cord, yarn, thread, strand. 2 a string of brewers: chain, group, firm, company. 3 a string of convictions: series, succession, chain, sequence, run, streak. 4 a string of wagons: queue, procession, line, file, column, convoy, train, cavalcade. 5 a string of pearls: strand, rope, necklace. 6 a guaranteed loan with no strings: conditions, qualifications, provisions, provisos, caveats, stipulations, riders, prerequisites, limitations, limits, constraints, restrictions; informal catches.

• verb 1 lights were strung across the promenade: hang, suspend, sling, stretch, run; thread, loop, festoon. 2 beads strung on a silver chain: thread, loop, link.

■ string along go along, come too, accompany, join (up with).

■ string someone along (informal) mislead, deceive, take advantage of, dupe, hoax, fool, make a fool of, play with, toy with, dally with, trifle with; informal lead up the garden path, take for a ride.

■ string something out 1 stringing out a story: spin out, drag out, lengthen. 2 airfields strung out along the Gulf: spread out, space out, distribute, scatter.

■ string someone up (informal) hang, lynch, gibbet.

stringent adjective strict, firm, rigid, rigorous, severe, harsh, tough, tight, exacting, demanding, inflexible, hard and fast.

stringy adjective 1 stringy hair: straggly, lank, thin. 2 a stringy brunette: lanky, gangling, gangly, rangy, wiry, bony, skinny, scrawny, thin, spare, gaunt. 3 stringy meat: fibrous, gristly, sinewy, chewy, tough, leathery.

strip verb 1 he stripped and got into bed: undress, strip off, take one's clothes off, unclothe, disrobe, strip naked. 2 stripping off paint: peel, remove, take off, scrape, rub, clean. 3 they stripped him of his doctorate: take away from, dispossess, deprive, confiscate, divest, relieve. 4 they stripped down my engine: dismantle, disassemble, take to bits/pieces, take apart. 5 the house had been stripped: empty, clear, clean out, plunder, rob, burgle, loot, pillage, ransack, despoil, sack; old use spoil.

– OPPOSITES dress.

• noun the team's new strip: outfit, clothes, clothing, garments, dress, garb; Brit. kit; informal gear, get-up; Brit. informal rig-out.

strip noun a strip of paper: (narrow) piece, bit, band, belt, ribbon, slip, shred.

stripe noun line, band, strip, belt, bar, streak, vein, flash, blaze; technical stria, striation.

striped adjective. See STRIPY.

stripling noun youth, adolescent, youngster, boy, schoolboy, lad, teenager, juvenile, minor, young man; Scottish laddie; informal kid, young 'un, nipper, whippersnapper, shaver.

stripy adjective striped, barred, lined, banded; streaky, variegated; technical striated.

strive verb 1 I shall strive to be virtuous: try (hard), attempt, endeavour, aim, venture, make an effort, exert oneself, do one's best, do all one can, do one's utmost, labour, work; informal go all out, give it one's best shot, pull out all the stops; formal essay. 2 scholars must strive against bias: struggle, fight, battle, combat; campaign, crusade.

stroke noun 1 five strokes of the axe: blow, hit, thump, punch, slap, smack, cuff, knock; informal wallop, clout, whack, thwack, bash, biff, swipe; old use smite. 2 cricket strokes: shot, hit, strike. 3 light upward strokes: movement, action, motion. 4 a stroke of genius: feat, accomplishment, achievement, master stroke. 5 broad brush strokes: mark, line. 6 the budget was full of bold strokes: detail, touch, point. 7 he suffered a stroke: thrombosis, seizure; Medicine ictus.

• verb she stroked the cat: caress, fondle, pat, pet, touch, rub, massage, soothe.

stroll verb they strolled along the river: saunter, amble, wander, meander, ramble, promenade, walk, go for a walk, stretch one's legs; informal mosey; formal perambulate. • noun a stroll in the park: saunter, amble, wander, walk, turn, promenade; informal mosey; dated constitutional; formal perambulation.

strong adjective 1 a strong lad: powerful, muscular, brawny, powerfully built, strapping, sturdy, burly, meaty, robust, athletic, tough, rugged, lusty, strong as an ox/horse; informal beefy, hunky, husky; dated stalwart. 2 she isn't very strong: well, healthy, in good health, (fighting) fit, robust, vigorous, blooming, thriving, hale and hearty, in fine fettle; informal in the pink. 3 a strong character: forceful, determined, spirited, self-assertive, tough, tenacious, formidable, redoubtable, strong-minded; informal gutsy, feisty. 4 a strong fortress: secure, well built, indestructible, well fortified, well protected, impregnable, solid. 5 strong cotton bags: durable, hard-wearing, heavy-duty, tough, sturdy, well made, long-lasting. 6 the current is very strong: forceful, powerful, vigorous, fierce, intense. 7 a strong interest in literature: keen, eager, passionate, fervent. 8 strong feelings: intense, forceful, passionate, ardent, fervent, fervid, deep-seated; literary pervid. 9 a strong supporter: keen, eager, enthusiastic, dedicated, staunch, loyal, steadfast. 10 strong arguments: compelling, cogent, forceful, powerful, potent, weighty, convincing, sound, valid, well founded, persuasive, influential. 11 a need for strong action: firm, forceful, drastic, extreme. 12 she bore a very strong resemblance to Vera: marked, noticeable, pronounced, distinct, definite, unmistakable, notable. 13 a strong voice: loud, powerful, forceful, resonant, sonorous, rich, deep, booming. 14 strong language: bad, foul, obscene, profane. 15 a strong blue colour: intense, deep, rich, bright, brilliant, vivid. 16 strong lights: bright, brilliant, dazzling, glaring.

17 strong black coffee: concentrated, undiluted. 18 strong cheese: highly flavoured, flavourful, flavoursome; piquant, tangy, spicy. 19 strong drink: alcoholic, intoxicating, hard, stiff; formal spirituous.

– OPPOSITES weak, gentle, mild.

strong-arm adjective aggressive, forceful, bullying, coercive, threatening, intimidatory; informal bully-boy.

strongbox noun safe, safe-deposit box, cash/money box.

stronghold noun 1 the enemy stronghold: fortress, fort, castle, citadel, garrison. 2 a Tory stronghold: bastion, centre, hotbed.

strong-minded adjective determined, firm, resolute, purposeful, strong-willed, uncompromising, unbending, forceful, persistent, tenacious, dogged; informal gutsy, spunky.

strong point noun strength, strong suit, forte, speciality.

– OPPOSITES weakness.

strong-willed adjective determined, resolute, stubborn, obstinate, wilful, headstrong, strong-minded, self-willed, unbending, unyielding, intransigent, intractable, obdurate, recalcitrant; formal refractory.

strop adjective (Brit. informal). See BAD-TEMPERED.

structure noun 1 a vast Gothic structure: building, construction, erection, pile; formal edifice. 2 the structure of local government: construction, form, formation, shape, composition, anatomy, make-up, constitution; organization, system, arrangement, design, framework, configuration, pattern.
• verb the programme is structured around periods of residential study: arrange, organize, design, shape, construct, build, put together.

struggle verb 1 they struggled to do better: strive, try hard, endeavour, make every effort, do one's best/utmost, bend over backwards, put oneself out; informal go all out, give it one's best shot; formal essay. 2 James struggled with the raiders: fight, grapple, wrestle, scuffle, brawl, spar; informal scrap. 3 the teams struggled to be first: compete, contend, vie, fight, battle, jockey. 4 she struggled over the dunes: scramble, flounder, stumble, fight/battle one's way, labour.
• noun 1 the struggle for justice: endeavour, striving, effort, exertion, labour; campaign, battle, crusade, drive, push. 2 they were arrested without a struggle: fight, scuffle, brawl, tussle, wrestling bout, skirmish, fracas, melee; breach of the peace; informal scrap, dust-up, punch-up; Brit. informal bust-up, ding-dong; Law, dated affray. 3 many perished in the struggle: conflict, fight, battle, confrontation, clash, skirmish; hostilities, fighting, war, warfare, campaign. 4 a struggle within the leadership: contest, competition, fight, clash; rivalry, friction, feuding, conflict. 5 life has been a struggle for me: effort, trial, trouble, stress, strain, battle; informal grind, hassle.

strumpet noun (old use). See PROSTITUTE noun.

strut verb swagger, swank, parade, stride, sweep; N. Amer. informal sashay.

stub noun 1 a cigarette stub: butt, (tail) end; informal dog-end. 2 a ticket stub: counterfoil, ticket slip, tab. 3 a stub of pencil: stump, remnant, (tail) end.

stubble noun 1 a field of stubble: stalks, straw. 2 grey stubble: bristles, whiskers, facial hair; informal five o'clock shadow.

stubbly adjective bristly, unshaven, whiskered; prickly, rough, coarse, scratchy.

stubborn adjective 1 you're too stubborn to admit it: obstinate, stubborn as a mule, headstrong, wilful, strong-willed, pig-headed, obdurate, difficult, contrary, perverse, recalcitrant, inflexible, iron-willed, uncompromising, unbending; informal stiff-necked; Brit. informal bolshie, bloody-minded; N. Amer. informal balky; formal pertinacious, refractory; old use contumacious, froward. 2 stubborn stains: indelible, permanent, persistent, tenacious, resistant.

– OPPOSITES compliant.

stubby adjective dumpy, stocky, chunky, chubby, squat; short, stumpy, dwarfish.

– OPPOSITES slender, tall.

stuck adjective 1 a message was stuck to his screen: fixed, fastened, attached, glued, pinned. 2 the gate was stuck: immovable, stuck fast, jammed. 3 if you get stuck, leave a blank: baffled, beaten, at a loss, at one's wits' end; informal stumped, bogged down, flummoxed, fazed, bamboozled.

■ get stuck into (informal) get down to, make a start on, commence, embark on, get to work at, tackle, throw oneself into.

■ stuck on (informal) infatuated with, besotted with, smitten with, (head over heels) in love with, obsessed with; informal struck on, crazy about, mad about, wild about, carrying a torch for.

■ stuck with lumbered with, left with, made responsible for.

stuck-up adjective (informal). See CONCEITED.

studded adjective dotted, scattered, sprinkled, covered, spangled; literary bespangled, bejewelled.

student noun 1 a university student: undergraduate, postgraduate, scholar; freshman, freshman, finalist; N. Amer. sophomore; Brit. informal fresher. 2 a former student: pupil, schoolchild, schoolboy, schoolgirl, scholar. 3 a nursing student: trainee, apprentice, probationer, recruit, novice; informal rookie.

studied adjective deliberate, careful, considered, conscious, calculated, intentional; affected, forced, strained, artificial.

studio noun workshop, workroom, atelier.

studious adjective 1 a studious nature: scholarly, academic, bookish, intellectual, erudite, learned, donnish. 2 studious attention: diligent, careful, attentive, assiduous, painstaking, thorough, meticulous. 3 his studious absence from public view: deliberate, wilful, conscious, intentional.

study noun 1 two years of study: learning, education, schooling, academic work, scholarship, tuition, research; informal swotting, cramming. 2 a study of global warming: investigation, enquiry, research, examination, analysis, review, survey. 3 Father was in his study: office, workroom, studio. 4 a critical study: essay, article, work, review, paper, dissertation, disquisition.

• verb 1 Anne studied hard: work, revise; informal swot, cram, mug up; old use con. 2 he studied electronics: learn, read, be taught. 3 Thomas was studying child development: investigate, inquire into, research, look into, examine, analyse, explore, review, appraise. 4 she studied her friend thoughtfully: scrutinize, examine, inspect, consider, regard, look at, eye, observe, watch, survey; informal check out; N. Amer. informal eyeball. ■ in a brown study lost in thought, in a reverie, musing, ruminating, cogitating, dreaming, daydreaming; informal miles away.

stuff noun 1 suede is tough stuff: material, fabric, cloth, textile; matter, substance. 2 first-aid stuff: items, articles, objects, goods; informal things, bits and pieces, odds and ends. 3 all my stuff is in the suitcase: belongings, (personal) possessions, effects, goods (and chattels), paraphernalia; informal gear, things, kit; Brit. informal clobber, gubbins. 4 he knows his stuff: facts, information, data, subject; informal onions.

• verb 1 stuffing pillows: fill, pack, pad, upholster. 2 Robyn stuffed her clothes into a bag: shove, thrust, push, ram, cram, squeeze, force, jam, pack, pile, stick. 3 (informal) they stuffed themselves with chocolate: fill, gorge, overindulge; gobble, devour, wolf; informal pig (out), make a pig of oneself. 4 my nose was stuffed up: block, bung, congest, obstruct. 5 (Brit. informal) Scotland stuffed Chile. See TROUNCE.

■ stuff and nonsense (Brit. informal). See NONSENSE sense 1.

stuffing noun 1 the stuffing is coming out of the armchair: padding, wadding, filling, upholstery, packing, filler. 2 sage and onion stuffing: filling, forcemeat, salpicon; N. Amer. dressing.

■ knock the stuffing out of (informal) devastate, shatter, crush, shock; informal knock sideways; Brit. informal knock for six.

stuffy adjective 1 a stuffy atmosphere: airless, close, musty, stale; Brit. frowsty; Brit. informal fuggy. 2 a stuffy young man: staid, sedate, sober, prim, priggish, strait-laced, conformist, conservative, old-fashioned; informal square, straight, starchy, fuddy-duddy. 3 a stuffy nose: blocked, stuffed up, bunged up.

– OPPOSITES airy, clear.

stultify verb 1 the free market was stultified by the welfare state: hamper, impede, thwart, frustrate, foil, suppress, smother.

2 he stultifies her with too much gentleness: bore, make bored, dull, numb, benumb, stupefy.

stumble verb 1 he stumbled and fell heavily: trip (over/up), lose one's balance, lose/miss one's footing, slip. 2 he stumbled back home: stagger, totter, teeter, dodder, blunder, hobble, move clumsily. 3 he stumbled through his speech: stammer, stutter, hesitate, falter, speak haltingly; informal fluff one's lines.

■ stumble across/on come across/upon, chance on, happen on, light on; discover, find, unearth, uncover; informal dig up.

stumbling block noun obstacle, hurdle, barrier, bar, hindrance, impediment, handicap, disadvantage; snag, fly in the ointment, hitch, catch, drawback, difficulty, problem, pitfall; informal hiccup.

stump verb 1 (informal) they were stumped by the question: baffle, perplex, puzzle, confuse, confound, nonplus, defeat, put at a loss; informal flummox, fox, throw, floor; N. Amer. informal discombobulate. 2 she stumped along the landing: stomp, stamp, clomp, clump, lumber, thump, thud.

■ stump something up (Brit. informal) pay (up), dish out, contribute; informal fork out, shell out, lay out, cough up, chip in; N. Amer. informal ante up, pony up.

stumpy adjective short, stubby, squat, stocky, chunky.

– OPPOSITES long, thin.

stun verb 1 a glancing blow stunned Gary: daze, stupefy, knock unconscious, knock out, lay out. 2 she was stunned by the news: astound, amaze, astonish, dumbfound, stupefy, stagger, shock, take aback; informal flabbergast, knock sideways, bowl over; Brit. informal knock for six.

stunner noun (informal). See BEAUTY sense 2.

stunning adjective 1 a stunning win: remarkable, extraordinary, staggering, incredible, outstanding, amazing, astonishing, marvellous, phenomenal, splendid; informal fabulous, fantastic, tremendous. 2 she was looking stunning. See BEAUTIFUL.

– OPPOSITES ordinary.

stunt<sup>1</sup> verb a disease that stunts growth: inhibit, impede, hamper, hinder, restrict, retard, slow, curb, check.

– OPPOSITES encourage.

stunt<sup>2</sup> noun acrobatic stunts: feat, exploit, trick.

stunted adjective small, undersize(d), diminutive.

stupefaction noun 1 alcoholic stupefaction: oblivion, obliviousness, unconsciousness, insensibility, stupor, daze. 2 Don shook his head in stupefaction: bewilderment, confusion, perplexity, wonder, amazement, astonishment.

stupefy verb 1 the blow had stupefied her: stun, daze, knock unconscious, knock out, lay out. 2 they were stupefied: drug, sedate, tranquillize, intoxicate, inebriate; informal dope. 3 the amount stupefied us: shock, stun, astound, dumbfound, overwhelm, stagger, amaze, astonish, take aback, take someone's breath away; informal flabbergast, knock sideways, bowl over, floor; Brit. informal knock for six.

stupendous adjective 1 stupendous achievements: amazing, astounding, astonishing, extraordinary, remarkable, phenomenal, staggering, breathtaking; informal fantastic, mind-boggling, awesome; literary wondrous. 2 a building of stupendous size: colossal, immense, vast, gigantic, massive, mammoth, huge, enormous.
— OPPOSITES ordinary.

stupid adjective 1 they're rather stupid: unintelligent, ignorant, dense, foolish, dull-witted, slow, simple-minded, vacuous, vapid, idiotic, imbecilic, imbecile, obtuse, doltish; informal thick (as two short planks), dim, dumb, dopey, dozy, moronic, cretinous, pea-brained, half-witted, soft in the head, scatterbrained, boneheaded, thickheaded, wooden-headed, muttonheaded; Brit. informal barmy, daft, not the full shilling. 2 a stupid mistake: foolish, silly, unintelligent, idiotic, nonsensical, senseless, unthinking, ill-advised, ill-considered, unwise, injudicious; inane, absurd, ludicrous, ridiculous, laughable, risible, fatuous, asinine, mad, insane, lunatic; informal crazy, dopey, cracked, half-baked, cockeyed, hare-brained, nutty, dotty, batty, gormless, cuckoo, loony, loopy, off one's head, off one's trolley; Brit. informal potty. 3 he drank himself stupid: into a stupor, into a daze, into oblivion; stupefied, dazed, unconscious.
— OPPOSITES intelligent, sensible.

stupidity noun 1 he cursed their stupidity: lack of intelligence, foolishness, denseness, brainlessness, ignorance, dull-wittedness, slow-wittedness, doltishness, slowness; informal thickness, dimness, dopiness, doziness. 2 she blushed at her stupidity: foolishness, folly, silliness, idiocy, brainlessness, senselessness, injudiciousness, ineptitude, inane, inanity, absurdity, ludicrousness, ridiculousness, fatuousness, madness, insanity, lunacy; informal craziness; Brit. informal daftness.

stupor noun daze, state of unconsciousness, torpor, insensibility, oblivion.

sturdy adjective 1 a sturdy lad: strapping, well built, muscular, athletic, strong, hefty, brawny, powerful, solid, burly, rugged, robust, tough, hardy, lusty; informal husky, beefy, meaty; dated stalwart; literary thewy, stark. 2 sturdy boots: robust, strong, strongly made, well built, solid, stout, tough, resilient, durable, long-lasting, hard-wearing. 3 sturdy resistance: vigorous, strong, stalwart, firm, determined, resolute, staunch, steadfast.
— OPPOSITES weak.

stutter verb he stuttered over a word: stammer, stumble, falter.
• noun a bad stutter: stammer, speech impediment, speech defect.

Stygian adjective (literary). See DARK adjective sense 1.

style noun 1 differing styles of management: manner, way, technique, method, methodology, approach, system, mode, form, modus operandi; informal MO. 2 a non-directive style of counselling: type, kind, variety, sort, genre, school, brand, pattern, model. 3 wearing clothes with style: flair, stylishness, elegance, grace, gracefulness, poise, polish, suaveness, sophistication, urbanity, chic, dash, panache, élan; informal class, pizzazz. 4 Laura travelled in style: comfort, luxury, elegance, opulence, lavishness. 5 modern styles: fashion, trend, vogue, mode.

• verb 1 sportswear styled by Karl: design, fashion, tailor. 2 men who were styled 'knight': call, name, title, entitle, dub, designate, term, label, tag, nickname; formal denominate. stylish adjective fashionable, modish, voguish, modern, up to date; smart, sophisticated, elegant, chic, dapper, dashing; informal trendy, nifty, classy, nifty, ritzy, snazzy; N. Amer. informal fly, kicky, tony, spiffy.

— OPPOSITES unfashionable.

stymie verb (informal). See HAMPER².

suave adjective charming, sophisticated, debonair, urbane, polished, refined, poised, self-possessed, dignified, civilized, gentlemanly, gallant; smooth, polite, well-mannered, civil, courteous, affable, tactful, diplomatic.
— OPPOSITES unsophisticated.

suavity noun charm, sophistication, polish, urbanity, suaveness, refinement, poise; politeness, courtesy, courteousness, civility, tact.

subconscious adjective subconscious desires: unconscious, latent, suppressed, repressed, subliminal, dormant, underlying, innermost; informal bottled up.

• noun the creative powers of the subconscious: (unconscious) mind, imagination, inner self, psyche.

subdue verb 1 he subdued all his enemies: conquer, defeat, vanquish, overcome, overwhelm, crush, quash, beat, trounce, subjugate, suppress, bring someone to their knees; informal lick, thrash, hammer. 2 she could not subdue her longing: curb, restrain, hold back, constrain, contain, repress, suppress, stifle, smother, keep in check, rein in, control, master, quell; informal keep a/the lid on.

subdued adjective 1 Lewis's subdued air: sombre, low-spirited, downcast, sad, dejected, depressed, gloomy, despondent, dispirited, disheartened, forlorn, woebegone; withdrawn, preoccupied; informal down in the mouth, down in the dumps, in the doldrums. 2 subdued voices: hushed, muted, quiet, low, soft, faint, muffled, indistinct. 3 subdued light: dim, muted, softened, soft, lowered, subtle.
— OPPOSITES cheerful, bright.

subject noun 1 the subject of this chapter:

theme, subject matter, topic, issue, question, concern, point; substance, essence, gist.

2 popular university subjects: branch of study, discipline, field. 3 six subjects did the trials: participant, volunteer; informal guinea pig. 4 British subjects: citizen, national; taxpayer, voter. 5 a loyal subject: liege, liegeman, vassal, henchman, follower.

• verb they were subjected to violence: put through, treat with, expose to.

■ subject to 1 it is subject to budgetary approval: conditional on, contingent on, dependent on. 2 horses are subject to coughs: susceptible to, liable to, prone to, vulnerable to, predisposed to, at risk of; old use susceptible of. 3 we are all subject to the law: bound by, constrained by, accountable to.

subjection noun subjugation, domination, oppression, mastery, repression, suppression.

subjective adjective personal, individual, emotional, instinctive, intuitive.

– OPPOSITES objective.

subjugate verb conquer, vanquish, defeat, crush, quash, bring someone to their knees, enslave, subdue, suppress.

– OPPOSITES liberate.

sublimate verb channel, control, divert, transfer, redirect, convert.

sublime adjective 1 sublime music: exalted, elevated, noble, lofty, awe-inspiring, majestic, magnificent, glorious, superb, wonderful, marvellous, splendid; informal fantastic, fabulous, terrific, heavenly, divine, out of this world. 2 the sublime confidence of youth: supreme, total, complete, utter, consummate.

subliminal adjective subconscious; hidden, concealed.

– OPPOSITES explicit.

submerge verb 1 the U-boat submerged: go under water, dive, sink. 2 submerge the bowl in water: immerse, plunge, sink. 3 the farmland was submerged: flood, inundate, deluge, swamp. 4 she was submerged in work: overwhelm, inundate, deluge, swamp, bury, engulf, snow under.

– OPPOSITES surface.

submission noun 1 submission to authority: yielding, capitulation, acceptance, consent, compliance. 2 Tim raised his hands in submission: surrender, capitulation, resignation, defeat. 3 he wanted her total submission: compliance, submissiveness, acquiescence, passivity, obedience, docility, deference, subservience, servility, subjection. 4 a report for submission to the Board: presentation, presenting, proffering, tendering, proposal, proposing. 5 his original submission: proposal, suggestion, proposition, recommendation. 6 the judge rejected his submission: argument, assertion, contention, statement, claim, allegation.

– OPPOSITES defiance, resistance.

submissive adjective compliant, yielding, acquiescent, unassertive, passive, obedient, biddable, dutiful, docile, pliant; informal under someone's thumb.

submit verb 1 she submitted under duress: give in/way, yield, back down, cave in, capitulate; surrender, knuckle under.

2 he refused to submit to their authority: be governed by, abide by, be regulated by, comply with, accept, adhere to, be subject to, agree to, consent to, conform to. 3 we submitted an unopposed bid: put forward, present, offer, proffer, tender, propose, suggest; put in, send in, register.

4 they submitted that the judgement was inappropriate: contend, assert, argue, state, claim, posit, postulate.

– OPPOSITES resist, withdraw.

subordinate adjective 1 subordinate staff: lower-ranking, junior, lower, supporting. 2 a subordinate rule: secondary, lesser, minor, subsidiary, subservient, ancillary, auxiliary, peripheral, marginal; supplementary, accessory.

– OPPOSITES senior.

• noun the manager and his subordinates: junior, assistant, second (in command), number two, right-hand man/woman, deputy, aide, underling, minion; informal sidekick.

– OPPOSITES superior.

subordination noun inferiority, subjection, subservience, submission, servitude.

sub rosa adverb (formal) in secret, secretly, in private, privately, behind closed doors, in camera.

– OPPOSITES openly.

subscribe verb 1 we subscribe to 'Punch': pay a subscription, take, buy regularly.

2 millions subscribe to the NSPCC: donate, make a donation, give (money), contribute towards. 3 I can't subscribe to that theory: agree with, accept, believe in, endorse, back, support, champion; formal accede to. 4 (formal) he subscribed the document: sign, countersign, initial, autograph, witness.

subscriber noun (regular) reader, member, patron, supporter, backer, contributor.

subscription noun 1 the club's subscription: membership fee, dues, annual payment, charge. 2 we put your subscription to good use: donation, contribution, gift, grant; formal benefaction. 3 their subscription to capitalism: agreement, belief, endorsement, backing, support. 4 (formal) the subscription was witnessed: signature, initials; addition, appendage.

subsequent adjective the subsequent months: following, ensuing, succeeding, later, future, coming, to come, next.

– OPPOSITES previous.

subsequently adverb later (on), at a later date, afterwards, in due course, following this/that, eventually; informal after a bit; formal thereafter.

subservient adjective 1 subservient women: submissive, deferential, compliant, obedient, dutiful, biddable, docile, passive, unassertive, subdued, downtrodden; informal under someone's thumb. 2 individual rights are subservient to the interests of the state: subordinate, secondary, subsidiary, peripheral, ancillary, auxiliary, less important.

– OPPOSITES intensify, rise.

subside verb 1 wait until the storm subsides:

abate, let up, quieten down, calm, slacken (off), ease (up), relent, die down, recede, lessen, soften, diminish, decline, dwindle, weaken, fade, wane, ebb; old use remit. 2 the flood has subsided: recede, ebb, fall, go down, get lower, abate. 3 the volcano is gradually subsiding: sink, settle, cave in, collapse, crumple, give way. 4 Sarah subsided into a chair: slump, flop, sink, collapse; informal flump, plonk oneself.

– OPPOSITES intensify, rise.

subsidiary adjective a subsidiary company:

subordinate, secondary, ancillary, auxiliary, subservient, supplementary, peripheral.

– OPPOSITES principal.

• noun two major subsidiaries: subordinate company, branch, division, subdivision, derivative, offshoot.

subsidize verb give money to, pay a subsidy to, contribute to, invest in, sponsor, support, fund, finance, underwrite; informal shell out for, fork out for, cough up for; N. Amer. informal bankroll.

subsidy noun grant, allowance, endowment, contribution, donation, bursary, handout; backing, support, sponsorship, finance, funding; formal benefaction.

subsist verb 1 he subsists on his pension:

survive, live, stay alive, exist, eke out an existence; support oneself, manage, get along/by, make (both) ends meet.

2 the tenant's rights of occupation subsist: continue, last, persist, endure, prevail, carry on, remain.

subsistence noun 1 they depend on fish for subsistence: survival, existence, living, life, sustenance, nourishment. 2 the money needed for his subsistence: maintenance, keep, upkeep, livelihood, board (and lodging), nourishment, food.

substance noun 1 an organic substance:

material, matter, stuff. 2 ghostly figures with no substance: solidity, body, corporeality; density, mass, weight, shape, structure.

3 none of the objections has any substance: meaningfulness, significance, importance, import, validity, foundation; formal moment.

4 the substance of the tale is very thin: content, subject matter, theme, message, essence. 5 Rangers are a team of substance: character, backbone, mettle. 6 independent men of substance: wealth, fortune, riches, affluence, prosperity, money, means.

substandard adjective inferior, second-rate, low-quality, poor, below par, imperfect, faulty, defective, shoddy, shabby, unsound, unsatisfactory; informal tenth-rate, crummy, lousy; Brit. informal duff, ropy, rubbish, chronic.

substantial adjective 1 substantial beings:

real, true, actual; physical, solid, material, concrete, corporeal. 2 substantial progress had been made: considerable, real, significant, important, notable, major, valuable, useful. 3 substantial damages: sizeable, considerable, significant, large, ample, appreciable, goodly. 4 substantial Victorian villas: sturdy, solid, stout, strong, well built, durable, long-lasting, hard-wearing. 5 substantial country gentlemen: hefty, stout, sturdy, large, solid, bulky, burly, well built, portly. 6 substantial City companies: successful, profitable, prosperous, wealthy, affluent, moneyed, well-to-do, rich; informal loaded, stinking rich. 7 substantial agreement: fundamental, essential, basic.

substantially adverb 1 the cost has fallen substantially: considerably, significantly, to a great/large extent, greatly, markedly, appreciably. 2 the draft was substantially accepted: largely, for the most part, by and large, on the whole, in the main, mainly, in essence, basically, fundamentally, to all intents and purposes.

– OPPOSITES slightly.

substantiate verb prove, show to be true, give substance to, support, uphold, bear out, justify, vindicate, validate, corroborate, verify, authenticate, confirm, endorse, give credence to.

– OPPOSITES disprove.

substitute noun substitutes for permanent employees: replacement, deputy, relief, proxy, reserve, surrogate, cover, stand-in, locum (tenens), understudy; informal sub.

• adjective a substitute teacher: acting, replacement, deputy, relief, reserve, surrogate, stand-in, temporary, caretaker, interim, provisional.

– OPPOSITES permanent.

• verb 1 curd cheese can be substituted for yogurt: exchange, replace with, use instead of, use as an alternative to, use in place of, swap. 2 the Senate was empowered to substitute for the President: deputize, act as deputy, act as a substitute, stand in, cover; replace, relieve, take over from; informal sub, fill someone's boots/shoes.

substitution noun exchange, change;

replacement, replacing, swapping, switching.

subterfuge noun 1 the use of subterfuge by journalists: trickery, intrigue, deviousness, deceit, deception, dishonesty, cheating, duplicity, guile, cunning, craftiness, chicanery, pretence, fraud, fraudulence.

2 a disreputable subterfuge: trick, hoax, ruse, wile, ploy, stratagem, artifice, dodge, bluff, pretence, deception, fraud, blind, smokescreen; informal con, scam.

subtle adjective 1 subtle colours:

understated, muted, subdued; delicate, faint, pale, soft, indistinct. 2 subtle distinctions: fine, fine-drawn, nice, overnice, hair-splitting. 3 a subtle mind: astute, keen, quick, fine, acute, sharp, shrewd, perceptive, discerning, discriminating, penetrating, sagacious, wise, clever, intelligent. 4 a subtle plan: ingenious, clever, cunning, crafty, wily, artful, devious.

subtlety noun 1 the subtlety of the flavour:

delicacy, delicateness, subtleness; understatedness, mutedness, softness.

2 classification is fraught with subtlety:

fineness, subtleness, niceness, nicety, nuance. 3 the subtlety of the human mind: astuteness, keenness, acuteness, sharpness, canniness, shrewdness, perceptiveness, discernment, discrimination, percipience, perspicacity, wisdom, cleverness, intelligence. 4 the subtlety of their tactics: ingenuity, cleverness, skilfulness, adroitness, cunning, guile, craftiness, wiliness, artfulness, deviousness.

subtract verb take away/off, deduct, debit, dock; informal knock off, minus.

– OPPOSITES add.

suburb noun residential area, dormitory area, commuter belt; suburbia.

suburban adjective 1 a suburban area:

residential, commuter, dormitory. 2 her drab suburban existence: dull, boring, uninteresting, conventional, ordinary, commonplace, unremarkable, unexceptional; provincial, unsophisticated, parochial, bourgeois, middle-class.

subversive adjective subversive activities:

disruptive, troublemaking, inflammatory, insurrectionary; seditious, revolutionary, rebellious, rebel, renegade, dissident.

• noun a dangerous subversive: troublemaker, dissident, agitator, revolutionary, renegade, rebel.

subvert verb 1 a plot to subvert the state:

destabilize, unsettle, overthrow, overturn; bring down, topple, depose, oust; disrupt, wreak havoc on, sabotage, ruin, undermine, weaken, damage. 2 attempts to subvert Soviet youth: corrupt, pervert, deprave, contaminate, poison, embitter.

subway noun 1 he walked through the subway: underpass, (pedestrian) tunnel.

2 Tokyo's subway: underground (railway), metro; Brit. informal tube.

succeed verb 1 Darwin succeeded where others had failed: triumph, achieve success, be successful, do well, flourish, thrive; informal make it, make the grade, make a name for oneself. 2 the plan succeeded: be successful, turn out well, work (out), be effective; informal come off, pay off.

3 Rosebery succeeded Gladstone as Prime Minister: replace, take the place of, take over from, follow, supersede; informal step into someone's shoes. 4 he succeeded to the throne: inherit, assume, acquire, attain; formal accede to. 5 embarrassment was succeeded by fear: follow, come after; follow after.

– OPPOSITES fail, precede.

succeeding adjective subsequent, successive, following, ensuing, later, future, coming.

success noun 1 the success of the scheme: favourable outcome, successfulness, successful result, triumph. 2 the trappings of success: prosperity, prosperousness, affluence, wealth, riches, opulence. 3 a West End success: triumph, best-seller, box-office success, sell-out; informal (smash) hit, winner.

4 an overnight success: star, superstar, celebrity, big name, household name; informal celeb, megastar.

– OPPOSITES failure.

successful adjective 1 a successful campaign: victorious, triumphant; fortunate, lucky. 2 a successful designer: prosperous, affluent, wealthy, rich; doing well, famous, eminent, top; informal on the up and up. 3 successful companies: flourishing, thriving, booming, buoyant, doing well, profitable, moneymaking, lucrative; informal on the up and up.

succession noun 1 a succession of exciting events: sequence, series, progression, chain, cycle, round, string, train, line, run, flow, stream. 2 his succession to the throne: accession, elevation, assumption.

■ in succession one after the other, in a row, consecutively, successively, in sequence; running; informal on the trot.

successive adjective consecutive, in a row, straight, sequential, in succession, running; informal on the trot.

successor noun heir (apparent), inheritor, next-in-line.

– OPPOSITES predecessor.

succinct adjective concise, short (and sweet), brief, compact, condensed, crisp, laconic, terse, to the point, pithy, epigrammatic, synoptic, gnomic; formal compendious.

– OPPOSITES verbose.

succour noun providing succour in times of need: aid, help, a helping hand, assistance; comfort, ease, relief, support.

• verb the prisoners were succoured: help, aid, bring aid to, give/render assistance to, assist, lend a (helping) hand to; minister to, care for, comfort, bring relief to, support, take care of, look after, attend to.

succulent adjective juicy, moist, luscious, soft, tender; choice, mouth-watering, appetizing, flavoursome, tasty, delicious; informal scrumptious, scrummy.

– OPPOSITES dry.

succumb verb 1 she succumbed to temptation: yield, give in/way, submit, surrender, capitulate, cave in. 2 he succumbed to the disease: die from/of; catch, develop, contract, fall ill with; informal come/go down with.

– OPPOSITES resist.

suck verb 1 they sucked orange juice through straws: sip, sup, siphon, slurp, draw, drink.

2 Fran sucked in a deep breath: draw, pull, breathe, gasp; inhale, inspire. 3 they got sucked into petty crime: implicate in, involve in, draw into; informal mix up in. 4 (N. Amer. informal) the weather sucks: be very bad, be awful, be terrible, be dreadful, be horrible; informal stink.

■ suck up (informal) they suck up to him, hanging on to his every word: grovel, creep, toady, be obsequious, be sycophantic, kowtow, bow and scrape, truckle; fawn on; informal lick someone's boots, be all over.

suckle verb breastfeed, feed, nurse.

sudden adjective unexpected, unforeseen, unanticipated, unlooked-for; immediate, instantaneous, instant, precipitous, precipitate, abrupt, rapid, swift, quick.

suddenly adverb immediately, instantaneously, instantly, straight away, all of a sudden, all at once, promptly, abruptly, swiftly; unexpectedly, without warning, without notice, out of the blue; informal straight off, in a flash, like a shot.

— OPPOSITES gradually.

suds plural noun lather, foam, froth, bubbles, soap.

sue verb 1 he sued for negligence: take legal action, take to court, proceed against; informal have the law on. 2 suing for peace: appeal, petition, ask, solicit, request, seek.

suffer verb 1 I hate to see him suffer: hurt, ache, be in pain, feel pain; be in distress, be upset, be miserable. 2 he suffers from asthma: be afflicted by, be affected by, be troubled with, have. 3 England suffered a humiliating defeat: undergo, experience, be subjected to, receive, endure, face. 4 the school's reputation has suffered: be impaired, be damaged, deteriorate, decline. 5 (old use) he was obliged to suffer her intimate proximity: tolerate, put up with, bear, stand, abide, endure; formal brook. 6 (old use) my conscience would not suffer me to accept: allow, permit, let, give leave to, sanction.

suffering noun hardship, distress, misery, wretchedness, adversity, tribulation; pain, agony, anguish, trauma, torment, torture, hurt, affliction, sadness, unhappiness, sorrow, grief, woe, angst, heartache, heartbreak, stress; literary *do*lour.

suffice verb be enough, be sufficient, be adequate, do, serve, meet requirements, fit/fill the bill, satisfy demands, answer/meet one's needs, answer/serve the purpose; informal hit the spot.

sufficient adjective & determiner enough, adequate, plenty of, ample.

— OPPOSITES inadequate.

suffocate verb 1 she suffocated her victim: smother, asphyxiate, stifle; choke, strangle. 2 she was suffocating in the heat: be breathless, struggle for air; be too hot, swelter; informal roast, bake, boil.

suffrage noun franchise, right to vote, the vote, enfranchisement, ballot.

suffuse verb permeate, spread over, spread throughout, cover, bathe, pervade, wash, saturate, imbue.

sugary adjective 1 sugary snacks: sweet, sugared, sickly. 2 sugary romance: sentimental, mawkish, cloying, slushy, mushy, sloppy, sickly (sweet), saccharine, syrupy; informal soppy, schmaltzy, cutesy, corny.

— OPPOSITES sour.

suggest verb 1 Ruth suggested a holiday: propose, put forward, recommend, advocate; advise, urge, encourage, counsel. 2 evidence suggests that teenagers are responsive to price increases: indicate, lead to the belief, argue, demonstrate, show; formal evince. 3 sources suggest that the Prime Minister will change his cabinet: hint, insinuate, imply, intimate, indicate. 4 the seduction scenes suggest his guilt and her loneliness: convey, express, impart, imply, intimate, smack of, evoke, conjure up; formal evince.

suggestion noun 1 some suggestions for tackling this problem: proposal, proposition, motion, submission, recommendation; advice, counsel, hint, tip, clue, idea. 2 the suggestion of a smirk: hint, trace, touch, suspicion, dash, soupçon; ghost, semblance, shadow, glimmer, impression, whisper. 3 there is no suggestion that he was party to a conspiracy: insinuation, hint, implication, intimation, innuendo, imputation.

suggestive adjective 1 suggestive remarks: indecent, indelicate, improper, unseemly, sexual, sexy, smutty, dirty, ribald, bawdy, racy, risqué, lewd, vulgar, coarse, salacious. 2 an odour suggestive of a brewery: redolent, evocative, reminiscent; characteristic, indicative, typical.

suicide noun self-destruction, taking one's own life, self-murder; informal topping oneself.

suit noun 1 a pinstriped suit: outfit, set of clothes, ensemble. 2 (informal) suits in faraway boardrooms: businessman, businesswoman, executive, bureaucrat, administrator, manager. 3 a medical malpractice suit: legal action, lawsuit, (court) case, action, (legal/judicial) proceedings, litigation. 4 they spurned his suit: entreaty, request, plea, appeal, petition, supplication, application. 5 his suit came to nothing: courtship, wooing, attentions.

• verb 1 blue really suits you: look good on, become, flatter, look attractive on, do something for. 2 savings schemes to suit all pockets: be convenient for, be acceptable to, be suitable for, meet the requirements of; fit/fill the bill. 3 recipes ideally suited to students: tailor, fashion, adjust, adapt, modify, fit, gear, design.

suitable adjective 1 suitable employment opportunities: acceptable, satisfactory, fitting; informal right up someone's street. 2 a drama suitable for all ages: appropriate, fitting, fit, acceptable, right. 3 music suitable for a lively dinner party: appropriate, suited, befitting, in keeping with; informal cut out for. 4 they treated him with suitable respect: proper, seemly, decent, appropriate, fitting, befitting, correct, due. 5 suitable candidates: well qualified, well suited, appropriate, fitting.

— OPPOSITES inappropriate.

suitcase noun travelling bag, travel bag, case, valise, overnight case, portmanteau, vanity case; (suitcases) luggage, baggage.

suite noun 1 a penthouse suite: apartment, flat, (set of) rooms. 2 the Queen and her suite: retinue, entourage, train, escort, royal household, court; attendants, retainers, servants.

suitor noun admirer, wooer, boyfriend, sweetheart, lover; literary swain; dated beau.

sulk verb Dad was sulking: mope, brood, be sullen, have a long face, be in a bad mood, be in a huff, be grumpy, be moody; informal be down in the dumps.

• noun he sank into a deep sulk: (bad) mood, fit of pique, pet, huff, (bad) temper, the sulks, the blues; informal grump.

sulky adjective sulky faces: sullen, surly, moping, pouting, moody, sour, piqued, petulant, disgruntled, ill-humoured, in a bad mood, out of humour, put out; bad-tempered, grumpy, huffy, glum, gloomy, morose; informal grouchy, fed up.

– OPPOSITES cheerful.

sullen adjective surly, sulky, pouting, sour, morose, resentful, glum, moody, gloomy, grumpy, bad-tempered, ill-tempered; unresponsive, uncommunicative, uncivil, unfriendly.

– OPPOSITES cheerful.

sully verb taint, defile, soil, tarnish, stain, blemish, pollute, spoil, mar; literary besmirch, befoul.

sultry adjective 1 a sultry day: humid, close, airless, stifling, oppressive, muggy, sticky, sweltering, tropical, heavy; hot; informal boiling, roasting. 2 a sultry film star: passionate, attractive, sensual, sexy, voluptuous, erotic, seductive.

– OPPOSITES refreshing.

sum noun 1 a large sum of money: amount, quantity, volume. 2 just a small sum: amount of money, price, charge, fee, cost. 3 the sum of two numbers: (sum) total, grand total, tally, aggregate, summation. 4 the sum of his wisdom: entirety, totality, total, whole, aggregate, summation, beginning and end. 5 we did sums at school: (arithmetical) problem, calculation; (sums) arithmetic, mathematics, computation; Brit. informal maths; N. Amer. informal math.

– OPPOSITES difference.

■ sum up summarize the evidence, review the evidence, give a summing-up.

■ sum someone/something up 1 one reviewer summed it up as 'compelling': evaluate, assess, appraise, rate, weigh up, gauge, judge, deem, adjudge, estimate, form an opinion of. 2 he summed up his reasons: summarize, make/give a summary of, precis, outline, give an outline of, recapitulate, review; informal recap.

summarily adverb immediately, instantly, right away, straight away, at once, on the spot, promptly; speedily, swiftly, rapidly, without delay; arbitrarily, without formality, peremptorily, without due process.

summarize verb sum up, abridge, condense, encapsulate, outline, give an outline of, put in a nutshell, recapitulate, give/make a summary of, give a synopsis of, precis, give a résumé of, give the gist of; informal recap; old use epitomize.

summary noun a summary of the findings: synopsis, precis, résumé, abstract, digest, encapsulation, abbreviated version; outline, sketch, rundown, review, summing-up, overview, recapitulation, epitome, conspectus; informal recap.

• adjective 1 a summary financial statement: abridged, abbreviated, shortened, condensed, concise, succinct, short, brief, pithy; formal compendious. 2 summary execution: immediate, instant, instantaneous, on-the-spot; speedy, swift, rapid, without delay, sudden; arbitrary, without formality, peremptory.

summer noun

WORD LINKS

aestival relating to or appearing in summer summer house noun gazebo, pavilion, belvedere; literary bower.

summit noun 1 the summit of Mont Blanc: (mountain) top, peak, crest, crown, apex, tip, cap, hilltop. 2 the summits of world literature: acme, peak, height, pinnacle, zenith, climax, high point/spot, highlight, crowning glory, best, finest, nonpareil. 3 the next superpower summit: meeting, negotiation, conference, talk(s), discussion.

– OPPOSITES base, nadir.

summon verb 1 he was summoned to the Embassy: send for, call for, request the presence of; ask, invite. 2 they were summoned as witnesses: serve with a summons, summons, subpoena, cite. 3 the chair summoned a meeting: convene, assemble, order, call, announce; formal convoke. 4 he summoned the courage to move closer: muster, gather, collect, rally, screw up. 5 summoning up their memories of home: call to mind, call up/forth, conjure up, evoke, recall, revive, arouse, kindle, awaken, spark (off). 6 they summoned spirits of the dead: conjure up, call up, invoke.

summons noun 1 the court issued a summons: writ, subpoena, warrant, court order; Law citation. 2 a summons to go to the boss's office: order, directive, command, instruction, demand, decree, injunction, edict, call, request.

• verb he was summoned to appear in court: serve with a summons, subpoena, summon, cite.

sumptuous adjective lavish, luxurious, opulent, magnificent, resplendent, gorgeous, splendid, grand, lavishly appointed, palatial, rich; informal plush, ritzy; Brit. informal swish.

– OPPOSITES plain.

sun noun sunshine, sunlight, daylight, light, warmth; beams, rays.

WORD LINKS

solar relating to the sun

solstice each of the two times in the year when the sun reaches its highest or lowest point in the sky at noon heliocentric referring to an astronomical system having the sun at its centre aphelion the point in a planet's orbit at which it is furthest from the sun perihelion the point in a planet's orbit at which it is closest to the sun parhelion a bright spot in the sky on either side of the sun zenith the highest point in the sky reached by the sun sunbathe verb sun oneself, bask, get a tan, tan oneself; informal catch some rays.

sunburnt adjective 1 his sunburnt shoulders: burnt, sunburned, red, scarlet. 2 a handsome sunburnt face: tanned, suntanned, brown, bronzed, bronze.

– OPPOSITES pale.

Sunday noun the Sabbath, the Lord's Day.

WORD LINKS

dominical relating to Sunday

sunder verb (literary) divide, split, cleave, separate, rend, sever, rive.

sundry adjective various, varied, miscellaneous, assorted, mixed, diverse, diversified; several, numerous, many, manifold, multifarious, multitudinous; literary divers.

sunken adjective 1 sunken eyes: hollowed, hollow, depressed, deep-set, concave, indented. 2 a sunken garden: below ground level, at a lower level, lowered.

sunless adjective 1 a cold sunless day: dark, overcast, cloudy, grey, gloomy, dismal, murky, dull. 2 the sunless side of the house: shady, shadowy, dark, gloomy.

sunlight noun daylight, sun, sunshine, sun's rays, (natural) light.

sunny adjective 1 a sunny day: bright, sunshiny, sunlit, clear, fine, cloudless, without a cloud in the sky. 2 a sunny disposition: cheerful, cheery, happy, light-hearted, bright, merry, joyful, bubbly, jolly, jovial, animated, buoyant, ebullient, upbeat, vivacious; literary blithe. 3 look on the sunny side: optimistic, rosy, bright, hopeful, auspicious, favourable.

– OPPOSITES dull, miserable.

sunrise noun (crack of) dawn, daybreak, break of day, first light, (early) morning, cockcrow; N. Amer. sunup; literary aurora, dayspring.

S sunset noun nightfall, close of day, twilight, dusk, evening; N. Amer. sundown; literary eventide, gloaming.

sunshine noun 1 relaxing in the sunshine: sunlight, sun, sun's rays, daylight, (natural) light. 2 his smile was all sunshine: happiness, cheerfulness, cheer, gladness, laughter, gaiety, merriment, joy, joyfulness, joviality, jollity; literary blitheness. 3 (Brit. informal) hello, sunshine: my friend; informal pal, chum; Brit. informal mate, matey, squire, mush; N. Amer. informal bud, buddy, buster.

super adjective (informal) excellent, superb, superlative, first-class, outstanding, marvellous, magnificent, wonderful, splendid, glorious; informal great, fantastic, fabulous, terrific, ace, divine, A1, wicked, cool; Brit. informal smashing, brilliant, brill.

– OPPOSITES rotten.

superannuated adjective 1 a super- annuated civil servant: pensioned (off), retired; elderly, old. 2 superannuated computing equipment: old, old-fashioned, antiquated, out of date, outmoded, broken-down, obsolete, disused, defunct; informal clapped out.

superb adjective 1 he scored a superb goal: excellent, superlative, first-rate, first-class, outstanding, top-tier, remarkable, marvellous, magnificent, wonderful, splendid, admirable, noteworthy, impressive, fine, exquisite, exceptional, glorious; informal great, fantastic, fabulous, terrific, super, awesome, ace, cool, A1; Brit. informal brilliant, brill, smashing. 2 a superb diamond necklace: magnificent, majestic, splendid, grand, impressive, imposing, awe-inspiring, breathtaking; gorgeous.

– OPPOSITES poor, inferior.

supercilious adjective arrogant, haughty, conceited, disdainful, overbearing, pompous, condescending, superior, patronizing, imperious, proud, snobbish, snobby, smug, scornful, sneering; informal hoity-toity, high and mighty, uppity, snooty, stuck-up, snotty, jumped up, too big for one's boots.

superficial adjective 1 superficial burns: surface, exterior, external, outer, outside, slight. 2 a superficial friendship: shallow, surface, skin-deep, artificial; empty, hollow, meaningless. 3 a superficial investigation: cursory, perfunctory, casual, sketchy, desultory, token, slapdash, offhand, rushed, hasty, hurried. 4 a superficial resemblance: apparent, seeming, outward, ostensible, cosmetic, slight. 5 a superficial biography: trivial, lightweight. 6 a superficial person: facile, shallow, flippant, empty-headed, trivial, frivolous, silly, inane.

– OPPOSITES deep, thorough.

superficially adverb apparently, seemingly, ostensibly, outwardly, on the surface, on the face of it, to all intents and purposes, at first glance, to the casual eye.

superfluity noun surplus, excess, overabundance, glut, surfeit, profusion, plethora.

– OPPOSITES shortage.

superfluous adjective 1 superfluous material: surplus (to requirements), redundant, unneeded, excess, extra, (to) spare, remaining, unused, left over, in excess, waste. 2 words seemed superfluous: unnecessary, unneeded, redundant, uncalled for, unwarranted.

– OPPOSITES necessary.

superhuman adjective 1 a superhuman effort: extraordinary, phenomenal, prodigious, stupendous, exceptional, immense, heroic. 2 superhuman power: divine, holy, heavenly. 3 superhuman beings: supernatural, preternatural, paranormal, other-worldly, unearthly; rare extramundane.

– OPPOSITES mundane.

superintend verb supervise, oversee, be in charge of, be in control of, preside over, direct, administer, manage, run, be responsible for.

superintendent noun 1 the superintendent of the museum: manager, director, administrator, supervisor, overseer, controller, chief, head, governor; informal boss. 2 (N. Amer.) the building's superintendent: caretaker, janitor, warden, porter.

superior adjective 1 a superior officer: higher-ranking, higher-level, senior, higher, higher-up. 2 the superior candidate: better, more expert, more skilful; worthier, fitter, preferred. 3 superior workmanship: finer, better, higher-grade, of higher quality, greater; accomplished, expert. 4 superior chocolate: good-quality, high-quality, first-class, first-rate, top-quality; choice, select, exclusive, prime, prize, fine, excellent, best, choicest, finest. 5 a superior hotel: high-class, upper-class, select, exclusive; Brit. upmarket; informal classy, posh. 6 Jake regarded her with superior amusement: condescending, supercilious, patronizing, haughty, disdainful, pompous, snobbish; informal high and mighty, hoity-toity, snooty, stuck-up.

– OPPOSITES junior, inferior.

• noun my immediate superior: manager, chief, supervisor, senior, controller, foreman; informal boss.

– OPPOSITES subordinate.

superiority noun supremacy, advantage, lead, dominance, primacy, ascendancy, eminence.

superlative adjective excellent, magnificent, wonderful, marvellous, supreme, consummate, outstanding, remarkable, fine, choice, first-rate, first-class, top-tier, premier, prime, unsurpassed, unequalled, unparalleled, unrivalled, pre-eminent; informal crack, ace, wicked; Brit. informal brilliant.

– OPPOSITES mediocre.

supernatural adjective 1 supernatural powers: paranormal, psychic, magic, magical, occult, mystic, mystical, superhuman, supernormal; rare extramundane. 2 a supernatural being: ghostly, phantom, spectral, other-worldly, unearthly, unnatural.

supersede verb replace, take the place of, take over from, succeed; supplant, displace, oust, overthrow, remove, unseat; informal fill someone's shoes/boots.

superstition noun 1 the old superstitions held by sailors: myth, belief, old wives' tale; legend, story. 2 medicine was riddled with superstition: unfounded belief, credulity; fallacy, delusion, illusion; magic, sorcery.

superstitious adjective 1 superstitious beliefs: mythical, irrational, illusory, groundless, unfounded; traditional. 2 he's incredibly superstitious: credulous, naive, gullible.

– OPPOSITES factual, sceptical.

supervise verb 1 he had to supervise the loading: superintend, oversee, be in charge of, preside over, direct, manage, run, look after, be responsible for, govern, organize, handle. 2 you may need to supervise the patient: watch, oversee, keep an eye on, observe, monitor, mind.

supervision noun 1 the supervision of the banking system: administration, management, control, charge; superintendence, regulation, government, governance. 2 keep your children under supervision: observation, guidance, custody, charge, safe keeping, care, guardianship; control.

supervisor noun manager, director, overseer, controller, superintendent, governor, chief, head; steward, foreman; Brit. ganger, gangmaster; informal boss; Brit. informal gaffer.

supine adjective 1 she lay supine on the sand: flat on one's back, face upwards, flat, horizontal, recumbent, stretched out. 2 a supine media: weak, spineless, yielding, effete; docile, acquiescent, pliant, submissive, passive, inert, spiritless.

– OPPOSITES prostrate, strong.

supper noun dinner, evening meal, main meal; snack, bite to eat; Brit. tea; formal repast; literary refecton.

supplant verb 1 motorways supplanted the network of A-roads: replace, supersede, displace, take over from, substitute for, override. 2 the man he supplanted as Prime Minister: oust, usurp, overthrow, remove, topple, unseat, depose, dethrone; succeed, come after; informal fill someone's shoes/boots.

supple adjective 1 her supple body: lithe, limber, lissom(e), willowy, flexible, loose-limbed, agile, acrobatic, nimble, double-jointed. 2 supple leather: pliant, pliable, flexible, soft, bendable, workable, malleable, stretchy, elastic, springy, yielding, rubbery.

– OPPOSITES stiff, rigid.

supplement noun 1 a mouse is a keyboard supplement: addition, supplementation, supplementary, extra, add-on, accessory, adjunct, appendage; Computing peripheral. 2 a single room supplement: surcharge, addition, increase. 3 a supplement to the essay: appendix, addendum, end matter, tailpiece, codicil, postscript, addition, coda. 4 a special supplement with today's paper: pull-out, insert, extra section.

• verb they supplemented their incomes by spinning: augment, increase, add to, boost, swell, amplify, enlarge, top up.

supplementary adjective 1 supplementary income: additional, supplemental, extra, more, further; add-on, subsidiary, auxiliary, ancillary. 2 a supplementary index: appended, attached, added, extra, accompanying.

suppliant noun they were not mere suppliants: petitioner, supplicant, pleader, beggar, applicant.

• adjective those around her were suppliant: pleading, begging, imploring, entreating, supplicating; on bended knee.

supplicate verb entreat, beg, plead with, implore, petition, appeal to, call on, urge, enjoin, importune, sue, ask, request; literary beseech.

supply verb 1 they supplied money to rebels: give, contribute, provide, furnish, donate, bestow, grant, endow, impart; dispense, disburse, allocate, assign; informal fork out, shell out. 2 the lake supplies the city with water: provide, furnish, endow, serve, confer; equip, arm. 3 windmills supply their power needs: satisfy, meet, fulfil, cater for.

• noun 1 a limited supply of food: stock, store, reserve, reservoir, stockpile, hoard, cache; storehouse, repository; fund, mine, bank.

2 the supply of alcoholic liquor: provision, dissemination, distribution, serving. 3 go to a supermarket for supplies: provisions, stores, stocks, rations, food, foodstuffs, eatables, produce, necessities; informal eats; formal comestibles.

• adjective a supply teacher: substitute, stand-in, fill-in, locum, temporary, stopgap.

support verb 1 a roof supported by pillars:

hold up, bear, carry, prop up, keep up, brace, shore up, underpin, buttress, reinforce.

2 he struggled to support his family: provide for, maintain, sustain, keep, take care of, look after. 3 she supported him to the end:

comfort, encourage, sustain, buoy up, hearten, fortify, console, solace, reassure; informal buck up. 4 evidence to support the argument: substantiate, back up, bear out, corroborate, confirm, attest to, verify, prove, validate, authenticate, endorse, ratify. 5 the money supports charitable projects: help, aid, assist; contribute to, back, subsidize, fund, finance; N. Amer. informal bankroll. 6 an independent candidate supported by locals: back, champion, help, assist, aid, abet, favour, encourage; vote for, stand behind, defend; sponsor, second, promote, endorse, sanction; informal throw one's weight behind.

7 they support human rights: advocate, promote, champion, back, espouse, be in favour of, recommend, defend, subscribe to. 8 I could not support the grief: endure, bear, tolerate, stand, put up with, abide, stomach, sustain; formal brook; old use suffer.

– OPPOSITES neglect, contradict, oppose, oppose.

• noun 1 bridge supports: pillar, post, prop, upright, crutch, plinth, brace, buttress; base, substructure, foundation, underpinning.

2 he pays support for his wife: maintenance, keep, sustenance, subsistence. 3 I was lucky to have their support: encouragement, friendship, strength, consolation, solace, succour, relief. 4 he was a great support: comfort, help, assistance, tower of strength, prop, mainstay. 5 support for community services: contributions, backing, donations, money, subsidy, funding, funds, finance, capital. 6 they voiced their support for him: backing, help, assistance, aid, endorsement, approval; votes, patronage. 7 a surge in support for decentralization: advocacy, backing, promotion, championship, espousal, defence, recommendation.

supporter noun 1 supporters of gun control: advocate, backer, adherent, promoter, champion, defender, upholder, crusader, proponent, campaigner, apologist. 2 Labour supporters: backer, helper, adherent, follower, ally, voter, disciple; member.

3 the charity relies on its supporters: contributor, donor, benefactor, sponsor, backer, patron, subscriber, well-wisher. 4 the team's supporters: fan, follower, enthusiast, devotee, admirer; informal buff, addict.

supportive adjective 1 a supportive teacher: encouraging, caring, sympathetic, reassuring, understanding, concerned, helpful, kind, kindly. 2 we are supportive of the proposal: in favour of, favourable to, pro, on the side of, sympathetic to, well disposed to, receptive to.

suppose verb 1 I suppose he's used to this: assume, presume, expect, dare say, take it (as read); believe, think, fancy, suspect, sense, trust; guess, surmise, reckon, conjecture, deduce, infer, gather; formal opine. 2 suppose you had a spacecraft: assume, imagine, (let's) say; hypothesize, theorize, speculate. 3 the theory supposes rational players: require, presuppose, imply, assume; call for, need.

supposed adjective 1 the supposed phenomena: apparent, ostensible, seeming, alleged, putative, reputed, rumoured, claimed, purported; professed, declared, assumed, presumed. 2 I'm supposed to meet him at 8.30: meant, intended, expected; required, obliged.

supposition noun belief, surmise, idea, notion, suspicion, conjecture, speculation, inference, theory, hypothesis, postulation, guess, feeling, hunch, assumption, presumption.

suppress verb 1 they could suppress the rebellion: subdue, repress, crush, quell, quash, squash, stamp out; defeat, conquer, overpower, put down, crack down on; end, stop, terminate, halt. 2 she suppressed her irritation: conceal, restrain, stifle, smother, bottle up, hold back, control, check, curb, contain, bridle, inhibit, keep a rein on, put a lid on. 3 the report was suppressed: censor, keep secret, conceal, hide, hush up, gag, withhold, cover up, stifle; ban, proscribe, outlaw; sweep under the carpet.

– OPPOSITES incite, reveal.

suppurate verb fester, form pus, discharge, run, weep, become septic; Medicine mature.

supremacy noun ascendancy, predominance, primacy, dominion, hegemony, authority, mastery, control, power, rule, sovereignty, influence; dominance, superiority, advantage, the upper hand, the whip hand, the edge; distinction, greatness.

supreme adjective 1 the supreme commander: highest ranking, chief, head, top, foremost, principal, superior, premier, first, prime; greatest, dominant, predominant, pre-eminent. 2 a supreme achievement: extraordinary, remarkable, incredible, phenomenal, rare, exceptional, outstanding, great, incomparable, unparalleled, peerless.

3 the supreme sacrifice: ultimate, final, last; utmost, extreme, greatest, highest.

– OPPOSITES subordinate, insignificant.

sure adjective 1 I am sure that they didn't:

certain, positive, convinced, confident, definite, assured, satisfied, persuaded; unhesitating, unwavering, unshakeable.

2 someone was sure to be blamed: bound, likely, destined, fated. 3 a sure winner with the children: guaranteed, unailing, infallible, unerring, assured, certain, inevitable, as sure as eggs is eggs; informal sure-fire. 4 he entered in the sure knowledge that he would win: unquestionable, indisputable, irrefutable, incontrovertible, undeniable, indubitable, undoubted, absolute, categorical, true, certain; obvious, evident, plain, clear, conclusive, definite.

5 a sure sign that he's worried: reliable, dependable, trustworthy, unailing, infallible, certain, unambiguous, true, foolproof, established, effective; informal sure-fire; formal efficacious. 6 the sure hand of the soloist: firm, steady, stable, secure, confident, steadfast, unfaltering, unwavering.

– OPPOSITES uncertain, unlikely.

• exclamation 'Can I come too?' 'Sure.': yes, all right, of course, indeed, certainly, absolutely, agreed; informal OK, yeah, yep, uh-huh, you bet, I'll say, sure thing.

■ make sure check, confirm, make certain, ensure, assure; verify, corroborate, substantiate.

surely adverb 1 surely you remembered?

it must be the case that, assuredly, without question. 2 I will surely die: certainly, for sure, definitely, undoubtedly, without doubt, doubtless, indubitably, unquestionably, without fail, inevitably.

3 slowly but surely manipulating the public: firmly, steadily, confidently, assuredly, unhesitatingly, unfalteringly, unswervingly, determinedly, doggedly.

surety noun 1 she's a surety for his obligations: guarantor, sponsor. 2 bail of £10,000 with a further £10,000 surety: pledge, collateral, guaranty, guarantee, bond, assurance, insurance, deposit; security, indemnity, indemnification; earnest.

surface noun 1 the surface of the door:

outside, exterior; top, side; finish, veneer.

2 the surface of police culture: outward appearance, facade. 3 a floured surface: worktop, top, work surface, counter, table.

– OPPOSITES inside, interior.

• adjective surface appearances: superficial, external, exterior, outward, ostensible, apparent, cosmetic, skin deep.

– OPPOSITES underlying.

• verb 1 a submarine surfaced: come to the surface, come up, rise. 2 the idea first surfaced in the sixties: emerge, arise, appear, come to light, crop up, materialize, spring up. 3 (informal) she eventually surfaces for breakfast: get up, get out of bed, rise, wake, awaken, appear.

– OPPOSITES dive.

■ on the surface at first glance, to the casual eye, outwardly, to all appearances, apparently, ostensibly, superficially, externally.

surfeit noun a surfeit of apples: excess, surplus, abundance, oversupply, superabundance, superfluity, glut, avalanche, deluge; overdose; too much; informal bellyful.

– OPPOSITES lack.

• verb we'll all be surfeited with food: satiate, gorge, overfeed, overfill, glut, cram, stuff, overindulge, fill.

surge noun 1 a surge of water: gush, rush, outpouring, stream, flow. 2 a surge in oil production: increase, rise, growth, upswing, upsurge, escalation, leap. 3 a sudden surge of anger: rush, storm, torrent, blaze, outburst, eruption. 4 the surge of sea: swell, heaving, rolling, roll, swirling; tide.

• verb 1 the water surged into people's homes: gush, rush, stream, flow, burst, pour, cascade, spill, overflow, sweep, roll.

2 the Dow Jones index surged 47.63 points: increase, rise, grow, escalate, leap. 3 the sea surged: swell, heave, rise, roll.

surly adjective sullen, sulky, moody, sour, unfriendly, unpleasant, scowling, unsmiling; bad-tempered, grumpy, crotchety, prickly, cantankerous, irascible, testy, short-tempered; abrupt, brusque, curt, gruff, churlish, ill-humoured, crabby, uncivil; informal grouchy.

– OPPOSITES pleasant.

surmise verb guess, conjecture, suspect, deduce, infer, conclude, theorize, speculate, divine; assume, presume, suppose, understand, gather, feel, sense, think, believe, imagine, fancy, reckon; formal opine.

surmount verb 1 his reputation surmounts language barriers: overcome, conquer, prevail over, triumph over, beat, vanquish; clear, cross, pass over; resist, endure.

2 they surmounted the ridge: climb over, top, ascend, scale, mount. 3 the dome is surmounted by a statue: cap, top, crown, finish.

– OPPOSITES descend.

surname noun family name, last name; patronymic.

surpass verb excel, exceed, transcend; outdo, outshine, outstrip, outclass, overshadow, eclipse; improve on, top, trump, cap, beat, better, outperform.

surplus noun a surplus of grain: excess, surfeit, superabundance, superfluity, oversupply, glut, profusion, plethora; remainder, residue, remains, leftovers.

– OPPOSITES dearth.

• adjective surplus adhesive: excess, leftover, unused, remaining, extra, additional, spare; superfluous, redundant, unwanted, unneeded, dispensable, expendable.

– OPPOSITES insufficient.

surprise noun 1 Kate looked at me in surprise:

astonishment, amazement, wonder, incredulity, bewilderment, stupefaction, disbelief. 2 the test came as a big surprise:

shock, bolt from the blue, bombshell, revelation, rude awakening; informal turn up for the books, eye-opener, shocker.

• verb 1 I was so surprised that I dropped it: astonish, amaze, startle, astound, stun, stagger, shock; leave open-mouthed, take someone's breath away, dumbfound, daze, take aback, shake up; informal bowl over, floor, flabbergast; Brit. informal knock for six. 2 she surprised a burglar: take by surprise, catch unawares, catch off guard, catch red-handed, catch in the act, catch out; Brit. informal catch on the hop.

surprised adjective astonished, amazed, astounded, startled, stunned, staggered, nonplussed, shocked, taken aback, stupefied, dumbfounded, dumbstruck, speechless, thunderstruck, confounded, shaken up; informal bowled over, flabbergasted, floored, flummoxed.

surprising adjective unexpected, unforeseen, unpredictable; astonishing, amazing, startling, astounding, staggering, incredible, extraordinary, breathtaking, remarkable; informal mind-blowing.

surrender verb 1 the army surrendered: capitulate, give in, give (oneself) up, give way, yield, concede (defeat), submit, climb down, back down, cave in, relent, crumble; lay down one's arms, raise the white flag, throw in the towel/sponge. 2 they surrendered power to the government: give up, relinquish, renounce, forgo, forswear; cede, abdicate, waive, forfeit, sacrifice; hand over, turn over, yield, resign, transfer, grant. 3 surrender all hope of changing things: abandon, give up, cast aside.

– OPPOSITES resist, seize.

• noun 1 the surrender of the hijackers: capitulation, submission, yielding, succumbing, acquiescence; fall, defeat. 2 a surrender of power to the shop floor: relinquishment, renunciation, cession, abdication, resignation, transfer.

surreptitious adjective secret, secretive, stealthy, clandestine, sneaky, sly, furtive; concealed, hidden, undercover, covert, veiled, cloak-and-dagger.

– OPPOSITES blatant.

s surrogate noun substitute, proxy, replacement; deputy, representative, stand-in, standby, stopgap, relief, understudy.

surround verb we were surrounded by cops: encircle, enclose, encompass, ring; fence in, hem in, confine, bound, circumscribe, cut off; besiege, trap.

• noun a fireplace with a wood surround: border, edging, edge, perimeter, boundary, margin, skirting, fringe.

surrounding adjective neighbouring, nearby, near, neighbourhood, local; adjoining, adjacent, bordering, abutting; encircling, encompassing.

surroundings plural noun environment, setting, milieu, background, backdrop; conditions, circumstances, situation, context; vicinity, locality, habitat.

surveillance noun observation, scrutiny, watch, view, inspection, supervision; spying, espionage, infiltration, reconnaissance; informal bugging, wiretapping, recon.

survey verb 1 he surveyed his work: look at, look over, observe, view, contemplate, regard, gaze at, stare at, eye; scrutinize, examine, inspect, scan, study, consider, review, take stock of; informal size up; literary behold. 2 they surveyed 4000 drug users: interview, question, canvass, poll, cross-examine, investigate, research, study, probe, sample. 3 he was asked to survey the house: appraise, assess, prospect; make a survey of, value.

• noun 1 a survey of the current literature: study, review, consideration, overview; scrutiny, examination, inspection, appraisal. 2 a survey of sexual behaviour: poll, review, investigation, inquiry, study, probe, questionnaire, census, research. 3 a thorough survey of the property: appraisal, assessment, valuation, estimate, estimation.

survive verb 1 he survived by escaping through a hole: remain alive, live, sustain oneself, pull through, get through, hold on/out, make it, keep body and soul together. 2 the theatre must survive: continue, remain, persist, endure, live on, persevere, abide, go on, carry on, be extant, exist. 3 he was survived by his sons: outlive, outlast; live longer than.

susceptible adjective 1 susceptible children: impressionable, credulous, gullible, innocent, ingenuous, naive, easily led; defenceless, vulnerable; persuadable, tractable; sensitive, responsive, thin-skinned. 2 people susceptible to blackmail: open to, receptive to, vulnerable to; an easy target for. 3 he is susceptible to ulcers: liable to, prone to, subject to, inclined to, predisposed to, disposed to, given to, at risk of; old use susceptible of. 4 the database will be susceptible of exploitation: open to, capable of, admitting of, receptive of, responsive to.

– OPPOSITES sceptical, immune, resistant.

suspect verb 1 I suspected she'd made a mistake: have a suspicion, have a feeling, feel, (be inclined to) think, fancy, reckon, guess, surmise, conjecture, conclude, have a hunch; suppose, presume, deduce, infer, sense, imagine; fear. 2 he had no reason to suspect my honesty: doubt, distrust, mistrust, have misgivings about, be sceptical about, have qualms about, be suspicious of, be wary of, harbour reservations about; informal smell a rat.

• noun a murder suspect: suspected person, accused, defendant.

• adjective a suspect package: suspicious, dubious, doubtful, untrustworthy; odd, queer; informal fishy, funny, shady; Brit. informal dodgy.

suspend verb 1 the court case was suspended: adjourn, interrupt, break off, postpone, delay, defer, shelve, put off, intermit, prorogue, hold over, hold in abeyance; cut short, discontinue, dissolve, disband, terminate; N. Amer. table; informal put on ice, put on the back burner, mothball; N. Amer.

informal take a rain check on. 2 he was suspended from his duties: exclude, debar, remove, eliminate, expel, eject. 3 lights were suspended from the ceiling: hang, sling, string; swing, dangle.

suspense noun I can't bear the suspense: tension, uncertainty, doubt, anticipation, expectation, expectancy, excitement, anxiety, apprehension, strain.

■ in suspense eagerly, agog, with bated breath, on tenterhooks; on edge, anxious, edgy, keyed up, uneasy; informal uptight, jumpy, jittery.

suspension noun 1 the suspension of army operations: adjournment, interruption, postponement, delay, deferral, deferment, stay, prorogation; armistice; cessation, end, halt, stoppage, dissolution, disbandment, termination. 2 his suspension from school: exclusion, debarment, removal, elimination, expulsion, ejection; Brit. rustication.

suspicion noun 1 she had a suspicion that he didn't like her: intuition, feeling, impression, inkling, hunch, fancy, notion, supposition, belief, idea, theory; presentiment, premonition; informal gut feeling, sixth sense. 2 I confronted him with my suspicions: misgiving, doubt, qualm, reservation, hesitation, question; scepticism, uncertainty, distrust, mistrust. 3 wine with a suspicion of soda: trace, touch, suggestion, hint, souçon, tinge, shade, whiff, bit, drop, dash, taste, jot, mite.

suspicious adjective 1 she gave Jonathan a suspicious look: doubtful, unsure, dubious, wary, chary, sceptical, distrustful, mistrustful, disbelieving, cynical. 2 a highly suspicious character: disreputable, unsavoury, dubious, suspect, dishonest-looking, funny-looking, slippery; informal shifty, shady; Brit. informal dodgy. 3 she disappeared in suspicious circumstances: questionable, odd, strange, dubious, irregular, queer, funny, doubtful, mysterious, murky; informal fishy; Brit. informal dodgy.

– OPPOSITES trusting, honest, innocent.

sustain verb 1 the balcony might not sustain the weight: bear, support, carry, stand, keep up, prop up, shore up, underpin. 2 her memories sustained her: comfort, help, assist, encourage, succour, support, give strength to, buoy up, carry, cheer up, hearten; informal buck up. 3 they were unable to sustain a coalition: continue, carry on, keep up, keep alive, maintain, preserve, conserve, perpetuate, retain. 4 she had bread and cheese to sustain her: nourish, feed, nurture; maintain, preserve, keep alive, keep going, provide for. 5 she sustained slight injuries: undergo, experience, suffer, endure. 6 the allegation was not sustained: uphold, validate, ratify, vindicate, confirm, endorse; verify, corroborate, substantiate, bear out, prove, authenticate, back up, evidence, justify.

sustained adjective continuous, ongoing, steady, continual, constant, prolonged, persistent, non-stop, perpetual, unabating, relentless, unrelieved, unbroken, never-ending, incessant, unceasing, ceaseless, round the clock.

– OPPOSITES sporadic.

sustenance noun 1 the creature needs sustenance: nourishment, food, nutriment, nutrition, provisions, provender, rations; informal grub, chow, scoff; formal comestibles; literary viands; dated victuals. 2 the sustenance of his family: support, maintenance, keep, living, livelihood, subsistence, income.

swagger verb 1 we swaggered into the arena: strut, parade, stride; walk confidently; informal sashay. 2 he likes to swagger about his kindness: boast, brag, bluster, crow, gloat; strut, posture, blow one's own trumpet, lord it; informal show off, swank.

• noun 1 a slight swagger in his stride: strut; confidence, arrogance, ostentation. 2 he was full of swagger: bluster, braggadocio, bumptiousness, vainglory; informal swank.

swallow verb 1 she couldn't swallow anything: eat, gulp down, consume, devour, put away; ingest, assimilate; drink, guzzle, quaff, imbibe, sup, slug; informal polish off, scoff, swig, swill, down. 2 I can't swallow any more of your insults: tolerate, endure, stand, put up with, bear, abide, countenance, stomach, take, accept; informal hack; Brit. informal stick; formal brook. 3 he swallowed my story: believe, credit, accept, trust; informal fall for, buy, go for, {swallow hook, line, and sinker}. 4 she swallowed her pride: restrain, repress, suppress, hold back, fight back; overcome, check, control, curb, rein in; silence, muffle, stifle, smother, hide, bottle up; informal keep a/the lid on.

■ swallow someone/something up 1 the darkness swallowed them up: engulf, swamp, devour, overwhelm, overcome. 2 the colleges were swallowed up by universities: take over, engulf, absorb, assimilate, incorporate.

swamp noun his horse got stuck in a swamp: marsh, bog, quagmire, mire, morass, fen; quicksand; N. Amer. bayou; old use quag.

• verb 1 the rain was swamping the dry roads: flood, inundate, deluge, immerse; soak, drench, saturate. 2 he was swamped by media attention: overwhelm, inundate, flood, deluge, engulf, snow under, overload, overpower, weigh down, besiege, beset.

swampy adjective marshy, boggy, fenny, miry; soft, soggy, muddy, spongy, heavy, squelchy, waterlogged, sodden, wet; old use quaggy.

swap verb 1 I swapped some toys for a set of dice: exchange, trade, barter, interchange, bargain; switch, change, replace. 2 we swapped jokes: bandy, exchange, trade, reciprocate.

• noun a job swap: exchange, interchange, trade, switch, trade-off, substitution.

swarm noun 1 a swarm of bees: hive, flock, collection. 2 a swarm of gendarmes: crowd, multitude, horde, host, mob, gang, throng, mass, army, troop, herd, pack; literary myriad.
• verb reporters were swarming all over the place: flock, crowd, throng, surge, stream.

■ be swarming with be crowded with, be thronged with, be overrun with, be full of, abound in, be teeming with, bristle with, be alive with, be crawling with, be infested with, overflow with, be prolific in, be abundant in; informal be thick with.

swarthy adjective dark-skinned, olive-skinned, dusky, tanned, saturnine, black; old use swart.

– OPPOSITES pale.

washbuckling adjective daring, heroic, daredevil, dashing, adventurous, bold, valiant, valorous, fearless, lionhearted, dauntless, devil-may-care; gallant, chivalrous, romantic.

– OPPOSITES timid.

swathe verb wrap, envelop, bind, swaddle, bandage, cover, shroud, drape, wind, enfold, sheathe.

sway verb 1 the curtains swayed in the breeze: swing, shake, oscillate, undulate, move to and fro, move back and forth. 2 she swayed on her feet: stagger, wobble, rock, lurch, reel, roll, list, stumble, pitch. 3 we are swayed by the media: influence, affect, bias, persuade, talk round, win over; manipulate, bend, mould. 4 you must not be swayed by emotion: rule, govern, dominate, control, guide.

• noun 1 the sway of her hips: swing, roll, shake, oscillation, undulation. 2 a province under the sway of the Franks: jurisdiction, rule, government, sovereignty, dominion, control, command, power, authority, ascendancy, domination, mastery.

■ hold sway hold power, wield power, exercise power, rule, be in control, predominate; have the upper hand, have the edge, have the whip hand; informal run the show, be in the driving seat, be in the saddle.

swear verb 1 they swore to marry each other: promise, vow, pledge, give one's word, take an oath, undertake, guarantee; Law depose; formal aver. 2 she swore she would never go back: insist, avow, pronounce, declare, proclaim, assert, profess, maintain, contend, emphasize, stress; formal aver. 3 Kate spilled wine and swore: curse, blaspheme, utter profanities, utter oaths, use bad language, take the Lord's name in vain; informal cuss, eff and blind; old use execrate.

■ swear by (informal) express confidence in, have faith in, trust, believe in; set store by, value; informal rate.

■ swear off (informal) renounce, forswear, forgo, abstain from, go without, shun, avoid, eschew, steer clear of; give up, dispense with, stop, discontinue, drop; informal kick, quit; Brit. informal jack in.

swearing noun bad language, strong language, cursing, blaspheming, blasphemy; profanities, obscenities, curses, oaths, expletives, swear words; informal cussing, effing and blinding, four-letter words; Brit. informal industrial language; formal imprecation.

sweat noun 1 he was drenched with sweat: perspiration, moisture, dampness, wetness;

Medicine diaphoresis, hidrosis. 2 (informal) the sweat of the working classes: labour, hard work, toil(s), effort(s), exertion(s), industry, drudgery, slog; informal graft, grind, elbow grease.

• verb 1 she was sweating heavily: perspire, swelter, glow; be damp, be wet; secrete.

2 I've sweated over this for six months: work (hard), work like a Trojan, labour, toil, slog, slave, work one's fingers to the bone; informal graft, plug away; old use drudge.

WORD LINKS

sudorific relating to or causing sweating diaphoresis excessive sweating as caused by a disease or drug sweaty adjective perspiring, sweating, clammy, sticky, glowing; moist, damp.

sweep verb 1 she swept the floor: brush, clean, scrub, wipe, mop, dust, scour; informal do. 2 I swept the crumbs off: remove, brush, clean, clear, whisk. 3 he was swept out to sea: carry, pull, drag, tow. 4 riots swept the country: engulf, overwhelm, flood. 5 he swept down the stairs: glide, sail, breeze, drift, flit, flounce; stride, stroll, swagger. 6 a limousine swept past: glide, sail, rush, race, streak, speed, fly, zoom, whizz, hurtle; informal tear, whip. 7 police swept the conference room: search, probe, check, explore, go through, scour, comb.

• noun 1 a great sweep of his hand: gesture, stroke, wave, movement. 2 a security sweep: search, hunt, exploration, probe. 3 a long sweep of golden sand: expanse, tract, stretch, extent, plain. 4 the broad sweep of our interests: range, span, scope, compass, reach, spread, ambit, remit, gamut, spectrum, extent.

■ sweep something aside disregard, ignore, take no notice of, dismiss, shrug off, forget about, brush aside.

■ sweep something under the carpet hide, conceal, suppress, hush up, keep quiet about, censor, gag, withhold, cover up, stifle.

sweeping adjective 1 sweeping changes: extensive, wide-ranging, global, broad, comprehensive, all-inclusive, all-embracing, far-reaching, across the board; thorough, radical; informal wall-to-wall. 2 a sweeping victory: overwhelming, decisive, thorough, complete, total, absolute, out-and-out, unqualified. 3 sweeping statements: wholesale, blanket, generalized, all-inclusive, unqualified, indiscriminate, universal, oversimplified, imprecise. 4 sweeping banks of heather: broad, extensive, expansive, vast, spacious, boundless, panoramic.

– OPPOSITES limited, narrow, focused, small.

sweet adjective 1 sweet biscuits: sugary, sweetened, saccharine; sugared, honeyed, candied, glacé; sickly, cloying. 2 the sweet scent of roses: fragrant, aromatic, perfumed; literary ambrosial. 3 her sweet voice: dulcet, melodious, lyrical, mellifluous, musical, tuneful, soft, harmonious, silvery, honeyed, mellow, rich, golden. 4 life was still sweet: pleasant, pleasing, agreeable, delightful, nice, satisfying, gratifying, good, acceptable, fine; informal lovely, great. 5 the sweet March air: pure, wholesome, fresh, clean, clear.

6 she has a sweet nature: likeable, appealing, engaging, amiable, pleasant, agreeable, genial, friendly, nice, kind, thoughtful, considerate; charming, enchanting, captivating, delightful, lovely. 7 she looks quite sweet: cute, lovable, adorable, endearing, charming, attractive, dear. 8 my sweet Lydia: dear, dearest, darling, beloved, loved, cherished, precious, treasured.

– OPPOSITES sour, savoury, harsh, disagreeable.

• noun 1 sweets for the children:

confectionery, bonbon, chocolate, toffee; N. Amer. candy; informal sweetie; old use sweetmeat. 2 a delicious sweet for the guests: dessert, pudding, second course, last course; Brit. informal afters, pud. 3 happy birthday my sweet!: dear, darling, dearest, love, sweetheart, beloved, honey, pet, treasure, angel.

■ sweet on (informal) fond of, taken with, attracted to, in love with, enamoured of, captivated by, infatuated with, keen on, devoted to, smitten with; informal gone on, mad about.

sweeten verb 1 sweeten the milk with honey: make sweet, add sugar to, sugar, sugar-coat. 2 he chewed gum to sweeten his breath: freshen, refresh, purify, deodorize, perfume. 3 try to sweeten the bad news: soften, ease, alleviate, mitigate, temper, cushion; embellish, embroider. 4 (informal) a bigger dividend to sweeten shareholders: mollify, placate, soothe, soften up, pacify, appease, win over.

sweetheart noun 1 you look lovely, sweetheart: darling, dear, dearest, love, beloved, sweet; informal honey, sweetie, sugar, baby, babe, poppet. 2 my high-school sweetheart: lover, love, girlfriend, boyfriend, beloved, significant other, lady-love, loved one, suitor, admirer; informal steady, flame; literary swain; dated beau; old use paramour.

swell verb 1 her lip swelled up: expand, bulge, distend, inflate, dilate, bloat, puff up, balloon, fatten, fill out, tumefy; rare intumesce. 2 the population swelled: grow, enlarge, increase, expand, rise, escalate, multiply, proliferate, snowball, mushroom. 3 she swelled with pride: be filled, be bursting, brim, overflow. 4 the graduate scheme swelled entry numbers: increase, enlarge, augment, boost, top up, step up, multiply. 5 the music swelled to fill the house: grow loud, grow louder, amplify, intensify, heighten.

– OPPOSITES shrink, decrease, quieten.

• noun 1 a brief swell in the volume: increase, rise, escalation, surge, boost. 2 a heavy swell on the sea: surge, wave, undulation, roll. 3 (informal, dated) he was an elegant swell: dandy, fop, beau, poseur; informal trendsetter; Brit. informal toff; dated popinjay; old use coxcomb.

– OPPOSITES decrease, dip.

• adjective (N. Amer. informal, dated) a swell idea: excellent, marvellous, wonderful, splendid, magnificent, superb; informal super, great, fantastic.

– OPPOSITES bad.

swelling noun bump, lump, bulge, protuberance, enlargement, distension, prominence, protrusion, node, nodule, tumescence; boil, blister, bunion, carbuncle.

sweltering adjective hot, stifling, humid, sultry, sticky, muggy, close, stuffy; tropical, torrid, searing, blistering; informal boiling (hot), baking, roasting, sizzling.

– OPPOSITES freezing.

swerve verb a car swerved into her path:

veer, deviate, skew, diverge, sheer, weave, zigzag, change direction; Sailing tack.

• noun the bowler regulated his swerve: curve, curl, deviation, twist; N. Amer. English.

swift adjective 1 a swift decision: prompt, rapid, sudden, immediate, instant, instantaneous; abrupt, hasty, hurried, precipitate, headlong. 2 swift runners: fast, rapid, quick, speedy, high-speed, brisk, lively; express, breakneck; fleet-footed; informal nippy, supersonic.

– OPPOSITES slow, leisurely.

swill verb 1 (informal) she was swilling pints:

drink, quaff, swallow, down, gulp, drain, imbibe, sup, slurp, consume, slug; informal swig, knock back, toss off, put away; Brit. informal bevvy; N. Amer. informal chug. 2 he swilled out a glass: wash, rinse, sluice, clean, flush.

• noun 1 (informal) he took a swill of coffee: gulp, swallow, drink, draught, mouthful, slug; informal swig. 2 swill for the pigs: pigswill, mash, slops, scraps, refuse, scourings, leftovers; old use hogwash.

swim verb 1 they swam in the pool: bathe, take a dip, splash around; float, tread water. 2 his food was swimming in gravy: be saturated in, be drenched in, be soaked in, be steeped in, be immersed in, be covered in, be full of.

swimmingly adverb well, smoothly, easily, effortlessly, like clockwork, without a hitch, as planned, to plan; informal like a dream, like magic.

swimming pool noun pool, baths, lido, piscina; Brit. swimming bath(s); N. Amer. natatorium.

swimsuit noun bathing suit, bathing dress, (swimming) trunks, bikini; swimwear; Brit. bathing costume, swimming costume; informal cossie; Austral./NZ informal bathers.

swindle verb 1 was swindled out of money:

defraud, cheat, trick, dupe, deceive, fool, hoax, hoodwink, bamboozle; informal fleece, do, con, sting, diddle, swizzle, rip off, take for a ride, pull a fast one on, put one over on, take to the cleaners, gull; N. Amer. informal stiff, euchre; literary cozen; old use sharp.

• noun an insurance swindle: fraud, trick, deception, deceit, cheat, sham, artifice, ruse, dodge, racket, wile; sharp practice; informal con, fiddle, diddle, rip-off, flimflam, swizzle, swizz; N. Amer. informal bunco.

swindler noun fraudster, fraud, (confidence) trickster, cheat, rogue, mountebank, charlatan, impostor, hoaxer; informal con man, con artist, shark, sharp, hustler, phoney, crook.

swing verb 1 the sign swung in the wind: sway, oscillate, move back and forth, move to and fro, wave, wag, rock, flutter, flap. 2 Helen swung the bottle: brandish, wave, flourish, wield, shake, wag, twirl. 3 this road swings off to the north: curve, bend, veer, turn, bear, wind, twist, deviate, slew, skew, drift, head. 4 the balance swung from one party to the other: change, fluctuate, shift, alter, oscillate, waver, alternate, see-saw, yo-yo, vary. 5 (informal) their persistence finally swung it for him: accomplish, achieve, obtain, acquire, get, secure, net, win, attain, bag, hook; informal wangle, land, fix (up). • noun 1 a swing of the pendulum: oscillation, sway, wave. 2 the swing to the Conservatives: change, move; turnaround, turnaround, reversal, about-turn, about-face, volte-face, change of heart, U-turn, sea change. 3 a swing towards plain food: trend, tendency, drift, movement. 4 a mood swing: fluctuation, change, shift, variation, oscillation.

swingeing adjective (Brit.) severe, extreme, serious, substantial, drastic, harsh, punishing, excessive, heavy. – OPPOSITES minor.

swipe (informal) verb 1 he swiped at her head: swing, lash out; strike, hit, slap, cuff; informal belt, wallop, sock, biff, clout. 2 they're always swiping sweets: steal, thief, take, pilfer, purloin, snatch, shoplift; informal filch, lift, snaffle, rob, nab; Brit. informal nick, pinch, whip; N. Amer. informal glom. • noun she took a swipe at his face: swing, stroke, strike, hit, slap, cuff, clip; informal belt, wallop.

swirl verb whirl, eddy, billow, spiral, circulate, revolve, spin, twist; flow, stream, surge, seethe.

switch noun 1 the switch on top of the telephone: button, lever, control, dial. 2 a switch from direct to indirect taxation: change, move, shift, transition, transformation; reversal, turnaround, U-turn, changeover, transfer, conversion; substitution, exchange. 3 a switch of willow: branch, twig, stick, rod. • verb 1 he switched sides: change, shift; reverse; Brit. informal chop and change. 2 he managed to switch envelopes: exchange, swap, interchange, trade, substitute, replace, rotate. ■ switch something on turn on, put on, activate, start, set going, set in motion, operate, initiate, actuate, initialize, energize. ■ switch something off turn off, shut off, stop, cut, halt, deactivate.

swivel verb turn, rotate, revolve, pivot, swing; spin, twirl, whirl, wheel, gyrate, pirouette.

swollen adjective distended, expanded, enlarged, bulging, inflated, dilated, bloated, puffed up, puffy, tumescent; inflamed.

swoop verb 1 pigeons swooped down after the grain: dive, descend, sweep, pounce, plunge, pitch, nosedive; rush, dart, speed, zoom. 2 police swooped on the flat: raid, search; pounce on, attack, assault, assail, charge; N. Amer. informal bust. • noun an early morning swoop by police: raid; attack, assault; N. Amer. informal bust, takedown.

sword noun a ceremonial sword: blade, foil, épée, cutlass, rapier, sabre, scimitar; literary brand.

■ cross swords quarrel, disagree, dispute, wrangle, bicker, be at odds, be at loggerheads, lock horns; fight, contend; informal scrap.

■ put to the sword kill, execute, put to death, murder, butcher, slaughter, massacre, cut down; literary slay.

sybarite noun hedonist, sensualist, voluptuary, libertine, pleasure-seeker, epicure, bon vivant, bon viveur. – OPPOSITES puritan.

sybaritic adjective luxurious, extravagant, lavish, self-indulgent, pleasure-seeking, sensual, voluptuous, hedonistic, epicurean, lotus-eating, libertine, debauched, decadent. – OPPOSITES ascetic.

sycophant noun toady, creep, crawler, fawner, flatterer, truckler, groveller, doormat, lickspittle, kowtowner, Uriah Heep; informal bootlicker, yes-man.

sycophantic adjective obsequious, servile, subservient, deferential, grovelling, toadying, fawning, flattering, ingratiating, cringing, unctuous, slavish; informal smarmy, bootlicking.

syllabus noun curriculum, course (of study), programme of study, course outline; timetable, schedule.

symbol noun 1 the lotus is the symbol of purity: emblem, token, sign, representation, figure, image; metaphor, allegory. 2 the chemical symbol for helium: sign, character, mark, letter, ideogram. 3 the Red Cross symbol: logo, emblem, badge, stamp, trademark, crest, insignia, coat of arms, seal, device, monogram, hallmark, flag, motif.

symbolic adjective 1 the Colosseum is symbolic of the Roman Empire: emblematic, representative, typical, characteristic, symptomatic. 2 symbolic language: figurative, representative, illustrative, emblematic, metaphorical, allegorical, parabolic, allusive, suggestive; meaningful, significant.

– OPPOSITES literal.

symbolize verb represent, stand for, be a sign of, exemplify; denote, signify, mean, indicate, convey, express, imply, suggest, allude to; embody, epitomize, encapsulate, personify, typify; literary betoken.

symmetrical adjective regular, uniform, consistent; evenly shaped, aligned, equal; mirror-image; balanced, proportional, even.

symmetry noun regularity, evenness, uniformity, consistency, conformity, correspondence, equality; balance, proportions; formal concord.

sympathetic adjective 1 a sympathetic listener: compassionate, caring, concerned, solicitous, empathetic, understanding, sensitive; commiserative, pitying, consoling, comforting, supportive, encouraging; considerate, kind, tender-hearted. 2 the most sympathetic character in the book: likeable, pleasant, agreeable, congenial, friendly, genial. 3 I was sympathetic to his cause: in favour of, in sympathy with, pro, on the side of, supportive of, encouraging of; well disposed to, favourably disposed to, receptive to.

– OPPOSITES unfeeling, opposed.

sympathize verb 1 he sympathized with his wife: pity, feel sorry for, show compassion for, commiserate, offer condolences to, feel for, show concern, show interest; console, comfort, solace, soothe, support, encourage; empathize with, identify with, understand, relate to. 2 they sympathize with the critique: agree with, support, be in favour of, go along with, favour, approve of, back, side with.

sympathizer noun supporter, backer, well-wisher, advocate, ally, partisan; collaborator, fraternizer, conspirator, quisling.

sympathy noun 1 he shows sympathy for the poor: compassion, caring, concern, solicitude, empathy; commiseration, pity, condolence, comfort, solace, support, encouragement; consideration, kindness. 2 sympathy with a fellow journalist: rapprochement, fellow feeling, affinity, empathy, harmony, accord, compatibility; fellowship, camaraderie. 3 their sympathy with the Republicans: agreement, favour, approval, approbation, support, encouragement, partiality; association, alignment, affiliation. – OPPOSITES indifference, hostility.

symptom noun 1 the symptoms of the disease: manifestation, indication, indicator, sign, mark, feature, trait; Medicine prodrome. 2 a symptom of the country's present turmoil:

expression, sign, indication, mark, token, manifestation; portent, warning, clue, hint; testimony, evidence, proof.

symptomatic adjective indicative, characteristic, suggestive, typical, representative, symbolic.

synopsis noun summary, summarization, precis, abstract, outline, digest, rundown, round-up, abridgement.

synthesis noun combination, union, amalgam, blend, mixture, compound, fusion, composite, alloy; unification, amalgamation, marrying.

synthetic adjective artificial, fake, imitation, mock, false, faux, simulated, ersatz, substitute; pseudo, so-called; man-made, manufactured, fabricated; informal phoney, pretend.

– OPPOSITES natural.

syrupy adjective 1 syrupy medicine: oversweet, sweet, sugary, treacly, honeyed, saccharine; thick, sticky, gluey, viscid, glutinous; informal gooey. 2 syrupy romantic drivel: sentimental, mawkish, cloying, mushy, slushy, sloppy, sickly, saccharine, trite; informal soppy, schmaltzy, lovey-dovey, cheesy, corny.

system noun 1 a system of canals: structure, organization, arrangement, complex, network; informal set-up. 2 a system for regulating sales: method, methodology, technique, process, procedure, approach, practice; means, way, mode, framework, modus operandi; scheme, plan, policy, programme, regimen, formula, routine. 3 there was no system in his work: order, method, orderliness, systematization, planning, logic, routine. 4 youngsters have no faith in the system: the establishment, the administration, the authorities, the powers that be; bureaucracy, officialdom; the status quo.

systematic adjective structured, methodical, organized, orderly, planned, systematized, regular, routine, standardized, standard; logical, coherent, consistent; efficient, businesslike, practical.

– OPPOSITES disorganized.

Tt

tab noun 1 his name is on the tab of his jacket: tag, label, flap. 2 (informal) the company will pick up the tab: bill, invoice, account, charge, expense, cost; N. Amer. check.

table noun 1 put the plates on the table: bench, buffet, stand, counter, work surface, worktop; desk, bar. 2 he provides an excellent table: meal, food, fare, menu, nourishment; eatables, provisions; informal spread, grub, chow, eats, nosh; literary viands; dated victuals. 3 the report has numerous tables: chart, diagram, figure, graph, plan; list, tabulation, index.

•verb she tabled a question in parliament: submit, put forward, propose, suggest, move, lodge, file, introduce, air, moot.

tableau noun 1 mythic tableaux: picture, painting, representation, illustration, image. 2 the first act consists of a series of tableaux: pageant, tableau vivant, parade, diorama, scene. 3 a domestic tableau around the fireplace: scene, arrangement, grouping, group; picture, spectacle, image, vignette.

tablet noun 1 a carved tablet: slab, stone, panel, plaque, plate, sign. 2 a headache tablet: pill, capsule, lozenge, caplet, pastille, drop, pilule; informal tab. 3 a tablet of soap: bar, cake, slab, brick, block, chunk, piece.

taboo noun the taboo against healing on the sabbath: prohibition, proscription, veto, interdiction, interdict, ban, restriction.

•adjective taboo language: forbidden, prohibited, banned, proscribed, interdicted, non licet, outlawed, illegal, illicit, unlawful, restricted, off limits; unmentionable, unspeakable, unutterable, ineffable; rude, impolite; Islam haram; NZ tapu; informal no go.

— OPPOSITES acceptable.

tabulate verb chart, arrange, order, organize, systematize, systemize, catalogue, list, index, classify, class, codify; compile, group, log, grade, rate.

tacit adjective implicit, understood, implied, inferred, hinted, suggested; unspoken, unstated, unsaid, unexpressed, unvoiced; taken for granted, taken as read.

— OPPOSITES explicit.

taciturn adjective untalkative, reticent, uncommunicative, unforthcoming, quiet, secretive, tight-lipped, close-mouthed; silent, mute, dumb, inarticulate; reserved, withdrawn.

— OPPOSITES talkative.

tack noun 1 tacks held the carpet down: pin, drawing pin, nail, staple, rivet, stud. 2 the brig bowled past on the opposite tack: heading, bearing, course, track, path, line. 3 the defender changed his tack: approach, way, method; policy, procedure, technique, tactic, plan, strategy, stratagem; path, line, angle, direction, course.

•verb 1 a photo tacked to the wall: pin, nail, staple, fix, fasten, attach, secure, affix. 2 the dress was roughly tacked together: stitch, baste, sew, bind. 3 the yachts tacked back and forth: change course, change direction, swerve, zigzag, veer; Nautical go/come about, beat. 4 poems tacked on at the end of the book: add, append, join, tag.

tackle noun 1 fishing tackle: gear, equipment, apparatus, kit, hardware; implements, instruments, accoutrements, paraphernalia, trappings, appurtenances; informal things, stuff, clobber, bits and pieces; old use equipage. 2 lifting tackle: pulleys, gear, hoist, crane, winch, davit, windlass, sheave. 3 a tackle by the scrum half: interception, challenge, block, attack.

•verb 1 we must tackle environmental problems: get to grips with, address, get to work on, set one's hand to, approach, take on, attend to, see to; deal with, take care of, handle, manage; informal get stuck into, have a crack at, have a go at. 2 I tackled Nina about it: confront, speak to, interview, question, cross-examine; accost, waylay; remonstrate with. 3 he tackled a masked intruder: confront, face up to, take on, contend with, challenge; seize, grab, grapple with, intercept, block, stop; bring down, floor, fell; informal have a go at. 4 the winger got tackled: intercept, challenge, block, stop, attack.

tacky<sup>1</sup> adjective the paint was still tacky: sticky, wet, gluey, gummy, adhesive, viscous, viscid, treacly; informal gooey.

tacky<sup>2</sup> adjective (informal) a tacky game show: tawdry, tasteless, kitsch, vulgar, crude, garish, gaudy, showy, trashy, cheap, common, second-rate; informal cheesy; Brit. informal naff.

— OPPOSITES tasteful.

tact noun diplomacy, tactfulness, sensitivity, understanding, thoughtfulness, consideration, delicacy, discretion, prudence, judiciousness, subtlety, savoir faire; informal savvy.

tactful adjective diplomatic, disreputable, considerate, sensitive, understanding, thoughtful, delicate, judicious, politic, perceptive, subtle; courteous, polite, decorous, respectful; informal savvy.

tactic noun 1 a tax-saving tactic: scheme, stratagem, strategy, plan, manoeuvre; method, expedient, gambit, move, approach, tack; device, trick, ploy, dodge, ruse, machination, contrivance; informal wangle; old use shift. 2 our fleet's superior tactics: battle plans, game plan, policy, campaign, manoeuvres, logistics; generalship, organization, planning, direction, orchestration.

tactical adjective calculated, planned, strategic; prudent, politic, diplomatic, judicious, shrewd, cunning, artful.

tactless adjective insensitive, inconsiderate, thoughtless, indelicate, undiplomatic, impolitic, indiscreet, unsubtle, clumsy, heavy-handed, graceless, awkward, inept, gauche; blunt, frank, outspoken, abrupt, gruff, rough, crude, coarse; imprudent, injudicious, unwise; rude, impolite, uncouth, discourteous, crass, tasteless, disrespectful, boorish.

tag noun 1 a price tag: label, ticket, badge, mark, marker, tab, sticker, docket, stub, counterfoil, flag. 2 his jacket was hung up by its tag: tab, loop, label. 3 he gained a 'bad boy' tag: designation, label, description, characterization, identity; nickname, name, epithet, title, sobriquet; informal handle, moniker; formal denomination, appellation. 4 tags from Shakespeare: quotation, quote, phrase, platitude, cliché, excerpt; saying, proverb, maxim, adage, aphorism, motto, epigram; slogan, catchphrase.

• verb 1 bottles tagged with coloured stickers: label, mark, ticket, identify, flag, indicate.

2 he is tagged as a 'thinking' actor: label, class, categorize, characterize, designate, describe, identify, classify; mark, stamp, brand, pigeonhole, stereotype, typecast, compartmentalize, typify; name, call, title, entitle, dub, term, style. 3 a poem tagged on as an afterthought: add, tack, join; attach, append. 4 he was tagging along behind her: follow, trail; come after, go after, shadow, dog; accompany, attend, escort; informal tail.

tail noun 1 the animal's tail: brush, scut; tailpiece, tail feathers; hindquarters. 2 the tail of the queue: rear, end, back, extremity; bottom; Brit. informal fag end. 3 the tail of the hunting season: close, end, conclusion, tail end. 4 (informal) put a tail on that man: detective, investigator, shadow; informal sleuth, private eye, tec; N. Amer. informal gumshoe.

– OPPOSITES head, front, start.

• verb (informal) the paparazzi tailed them: follow, shadow, stalk, trail, track, hunt, hound, dog, pursue, chase.

■ tail off/away fade, wane, ebb, dwindle, decrease, lessen, diminish, decline, subside, abate, drop off, peter out, taper off; let up, ease off, die away, die down, come to an end.

■ turn tail run away, flee, bolt, make off, take to one's heels, cut and run, beat a (hasty) retreat; informal scam, scarper, skedaddle, vamoose.

WORD LINKS

caudal relating to an animal's tail dock cut an animal's tail short tailback noun traffic jam, queue, line; congestion.

tailor noun outfitter, dressmaker, couturier, (fashion) designer; clothier, costumer, seamstress; dated modiste.

• verb services can be tailored to customer requirements: customize, adapt, adjust, modify, change, convert, alter, attune, mould, gear, fit, cut, shape, tune.

taint noun the taint of corruption: trace, touch, suggestion, hint, tinge; stain, blot, blemish, stigma, black mark, blot on one's escutcheon; discredit, dishonour, disgrace, shame.

• verb 1 the wilderness is tainted by pollution: contaminate, pollute, adulterate, infect, blight, spoil, soil, ruin, destroy; literary be foul. 2 fraudulent firms taint our firm's reputation: tarnish, sully, blacken, stain, blot, blemish, stigmatize, mar, corrupt, defile, soil, muddy, damage, harm, hurt; drag through the mud; literary besmirch.

– OPPOSITES clean, improve.

take verb 1 she took his hand: lay hold of, get hold of; grasp, grip, clasp, clutch, grab.

2 he took an envelope from his pocket:

remove, pull, draw, withdraw, extract, fish.

3 a passage taken from my book: extract, quote, cite, excerpt, derive, abstract, copy, cull.

4 she took a little wine: drink, imbibe; consume, swallow, eat, ingest. 5 many prisoners were taken: capture, seize, catch, arrest, apprehend, take into custody; carry off, abduct. 6 someone's taken my car: steal, remove, appropriate, make off with, pilfer, purloin; informal filch, swipe, snaffle; Brit. informal pinch, nick.

7 take four from the total: subtract, deduct, remove; discount; informal knock off, minus. 8 all the seats had been taken: occupy, use, utilize, fill, hold; reserve, engage; informal bag. 9 I have taken a room nearby: rent, lease, hire, charter; reserve, book, engage. 10 I took the job: accept, undertake. 11 I'd take this over the other option: pick, choose, select; prefer, favour, opt for, plump for, vote for.

12 take, for instance, the English: consider, contemplate, ponder, think about, weigh up, mull over, examine, study, meditate over, ruminate about. 13 he takes 'The Observer': subscribe to, buy, read. 14 she took his temperature:

ascertain, determine, establish, measure, find out, discover; calculate, compute, evaluate, rate, assess, appraise, gauge. 15 he took notes: write, note (down), jot (down), scribble, scrawl, record, register, document, minute. 16 I took it back to London: bring, carry, bear, transport, convey, move, transfer, shift, ferry; informal cart, tote. 17 the priest took her home: escort, accompany, help, assist, show, lead, guide, see, usher, convey. 18 he took the train: travel on/by, journey on, go via; use. 19 the town takes its name from the lake: derive, get, obtain, come by, acquire, pick up. 20 she took the prize for best speaker: receive, obtain, gain, get, acquire, collect, accept, be awarded; secure, come by, win, earn, pick up, carry off; informal land, bag, net, scoop. 21 I took the chance to postpone it: act on, take advantage of, capitalize on, use, exploit, make the most of, leap at, jump at, pounce on, seize, grasp, grab, accept. 22 he took great pleasure in painting: derive, draw, acquire, obtain, get, gain, extract, procure; experience, undergo, feel. 23 Liz took the news badly: receive, respond to, react to, meet, greet; deal with, cope with. 24 do you take me for a fool? regard as, consider to be, view as, see as, believe to be, reckon to be, imagine to be, deem to be. 25 I take it that you are hungry: assume, presume, suppose, imagine, expect, reckon, gather, dare say, trust, surmise, deduce, guess, conjecture, fancy, suspect. 26 I take your point: understand, grasp, get, comprehend, apprehend, see, follow; accept, appreciate, acknowledge, sympathize with, agree with. 27 Shirley was rather taken with him: captivate, enchant, charm, delight, attract, beguile, enthrall, entrance, infatuate, dazzle; amuse, divert, entertain; informal tickle someone's fancy. 28 I can't take much more: endure, bear, tolerate, stand, put up with, abide, stomach, accept, allow, countenance, support, shoulder; formal brook; old use suffer. 29 applicants must take a test: carry out, do, complete, conduct, perform, execute, discharge, accomplish, fulfil. 30 I took English and French: study, learn, have lessons in; take up, pursue; Brit. read; informal do. 31 the journey took six hours: last, continue for, go on for, carry on for; require, call for, need, necessitate, entail, involve. 32 it would take an expert to know that: require, need, necessitate, demand, call for, entail, involve. 33 I take size three shoes: wear, use; require, need. 34 the dye did not take: be effective, take effect, hold, root, be productive, be effectual, be useful; work, operate, succeed, function; formal be efficacious.

—OPPOSITES give, free, add, refuse, miss.

t

• noun 1 the whalers' commercial take: catch, haul, bag, yield, net. 2 the state's tax take: revenue, income, gain, profit; takings, proceeds, returns, receipts, winnings, pickings, earnings, spoils; purse. 3 a clapperboard for the start of each take: scene, sequence, (film) clip. 4 a wry take on gender issues: view of, reading of, version of, interpretation of, understanding of, account of, analysis of, approach to. ■ take after resemble, look like; remind one of, make one think of, recall, conjure up, suggest, evoke; informal favour, be a chip off the old block, be the spitting image of. ■ take something apart 1 we took the machine apart: dismantle, pull to pieces, pull apart, disassemble, break up; tear down, demolish, destroy, wreck. 2 (informal) the scene was taken apart by the director: See CRITICIZE.

■ take someone back 1 the dream took me back to Vienna: evoke, remind one of, conjure up, summon up; echo, suggest. 2 I will never take that girl back: be reconciled to, forgive, pardon, excuse, exonerate, absolve; let bygones be bygones, bury the hatchet.

■ take something back 1 I take back every word: retract, withdraw, renounce, disclaim, unsay, disavow, recant, repudiate; formal abjure. 2 I must take the keys back: return, bring back, give back, restore.

■ take something down write down, note down, jot down, set down, record, commit to paper, register, draft, document, minute, pen.

■ take someone in 1 she took in paying guests: accommodate, board, house, feed, put up, admit, receive; harbour. 2 you were taken in by a hoax: deceive, delude, hoodwink, mislead, trick, dupe, fool, cheat, defraud, swindle, outwit, gull, hoax, bamboozle; informal con, put one over on.

■ take something in 1 she could hardly take in the news: comprehend, understand, grasp, follow, absorb; informal get. 2 this route takes in some great scenery: include, encompass, embrace, contain, comprise, cover, incorporate, comprehend, hold.

■ take someone in hand control, be in charge of, dominate, master; reform, improve, correct, change, rehabilitate.

■ take something in hand deal with, apply oneself to, get to grips with, set one's hand to, grapple with, take on, attend to, see to, sort out, take care of, handle, manage; informal get stuck into.

■ take it out of someone exhaust, drain, enervate, tire, fatigue, wear out, weary, debilitate; informal knacker, poop.

■ take off 1 the horse took off at great speed: run away/off, flee, abscond, take flight, decamp, leave, go, depart, make off, bolt, take to one's heels, escape; informal split, clear off, skedaddle, vamoose. 2 the plane took off: become airborne, take to the air, take wing; lift off, blast off. 3 the idea really took off: succeed, do well, become popular, catch on, prosper, flourish, thrive, boom.

■ take someone off mimic, impersonate, imitate, ape, parody, mock, caricature, satirize, burlesque, lampoon, ridicule; informal spoof, send up.

■ take someone on 1 there was no challenger to take him on: compete against, oppose, challenge, confront, face, fight, vie with, contend with, stand up to. 2 we took on extra staff: engage, hire, employ, enrol, enlist, sign up; informal take on board.

■ take something on 1 he took on more responsibility: undertake, accept, assume, shoulder, acquire, carry, bear. 2 the study took on political meaning: acquire, assume, come to have.

■ take one's time go slowly, dally, dawdle, delay, linger, drag one's feet, waste time, kill time; informal dilly-dally; old use tarry.

■ take something over assume control of, take charge of, take command of.

■ take to 1 he took to carrying his money in his sock: make a habit of, resort to, turn to, have recourse to; start, commence. 2 Ruth took to him instantly: like, get on with, be friendly towards; informal take a shine to.

3 the dog has really taken to racing: become good at, develop an ability for; like, enjoy.

■ take something up 1 he took up abstract painting: engage in, practise; begin, start, commence. 2 the meetings took up all her time: consume, fill, absorb, use, occupy; waste, squander. 3 her cousin took up the story: resume, recommence, restart, carry on, continue, pick up, return to. 4 he took up their offer of a job: accept, say yes to, agree to, adopt; formal accede to. 5 take the skirt up an inch: shorten, turn up; raise, lift.

■ take up with become friends with, go around with, fall in with, string along with, get involved with, start seeing; informal knock around with, hang out with.

take-off noun 1 the plane crashed on take-off: departure, lift-off, launch, blast-off; ascent, flight. 2 (informal) a take-off of a talent show: parody, pastiche, mockery, caricature, travesty, satire, lampoon, mimicry, imitation, impersonation, impression; informal send-up, spoof.

– OPPOSITES touchdown.

takeover noun buyout, merger, amalgamation; purchase, acquisition.

taking adjective (dated). See WINNING sense 2.

takings plural noun proceeds, returns, receipts, earnings, winnings, pickings, spoils; profit, gain, income, revenue; gate, purse.

tale noun 1 a tale of witches: story, narrative, anecdote, report, account, history; legend, fable, myth, parable, allegory, saga; informal yarn. 2 she told tales to her mother: lie, fib, falsehood, story, untruth, fabrication, fiction; informal tall story, fairy story/tale, cock and bull story.

talent noun flair, aptitude, facility, gift, knack, technique, touch, bent, ability, expertise, capacity, faculty; strength, forte, genius, brilliance; dexterity, skill, artistry.

talented adjective gifted, skilful, skilled, accomplished, brilliant, expert, consummate, masterly, adroit, dexterous, able, competent, capable, apt, deft, adept, proficient; informal crack, ace.

– OPPOSITES inept.

talisman noun (lucky) charm, fetish, amulet, mascot, totem, juju.

talk verb 1 I was talking to a friend: speak, chat, chatter, gossip, prattle, babble, rattle on, blather; informal yak, gab, jaw, chew the fat; Brit. informal natter, rabbit, witter, chunter; N. Amer. informal rap; Austral./NZ informal mag. 2 you're talking rubbish: utter, speak, say, voice, express, articulate, pronounce, verbalize, vocalize. 3 they were able to talk in peace: converse, communicate, speak, confer, consult; negotiate, parley; informal have a confab, chew the fat/rag, rap; formal confabulate. 4 he talked of suicide: mention, refer to, speak about, discuss. 5 I was able to talk English: speak (in), talk in, communicate in, converse in, express oneself in; use. 6 nothing would make her talk: confess, speak out/up, reveal all, tell tales, give the game away, open one's mouth; informal come clean, blab, squeal, let the cat out of the bag, spill the beans, grass, sing, rat. 7 the others will talk: gossip, pass comment, make remarks; criticize.

• noun 1 he was bored with all this talk: chatter, gossip, prattle, jabbering, babbling, gabbling; informal yakking, gabbing; Brit. informal nattering, rabbit. 2 she needed a talk with Vi: conversation, chat, discussion, tête-à-tête, heart-to-heart, dialogue, parley, powwow, consultation, conference, meeting; informal confab, jaw, chit-chat, gossip; formal colloquy, confabulation. 3 peace talks: negotiations, discussions; conference, summit, meeting, consultation, dialogue, symposium, seminar, conclave, parley; mediation, arbitration; informal powwow. 4 she gave a talk on her travels: lecture, speech, address, discourse, oration, presentation, report, sermon; informal spiel. 5 there was talk of a takeover: gossip, rumour, hearsay, tittle-tattle; news, report. 6 baby talk: speech, language, slang, idiom, idiolect; words; informal lingo.

■ talk back answer back, be impertinent, be cheeky, be rude; contradict, argue with, disagree with.

■ talk big (informal). See BOAST verb sense 1.

■ talk something down denigrate, deprecate, disparage, belittle, diminish, criticize; informal knock, put down.

■ talk down to condescend to, patronize, look down one's nose at, put down.

■ talk someone into something persuade into, argue into, cajole into, coax into, bring round to, inveigle into, wheedle into, prevail on someone to; informal sweet-talk into, hustle, fast-talk.

talkative adjective chatty, loquacious, garrulous, voluble, conversational, communicative; gossipy, babbling, blathering; long-winded, wordy, verbose; informal gabby, mouthy.

– OPPOSITES taciturn.

talker noun conversationalist, speaker, communicator, raconteur, orator; chatter-box, gossip.

talking-to noun (informal). See REPRIMAND noun.

tall adjective 1 a tall man: big, large, huge, towering, colossal, gigantic, giant, monstrous; leggy; informal long. 2 tall buildings: high, big, lofty, towering, elevated, sky-high; multi-storey. 3 she's five feet tall: in height, high, from head to toe; from top to bottom. 4 a tall tale: unlikely, improbable, exaggerated, far-fetched, implausible, dubious, unbelievable, incredible, absurd, untrue; informal cock-and-bull. 5 a tall order: demanding, exacting, difficult; unreasonable, impossible.

– OPPOSITES short, low, wide, credible, easy.

tally noun 1 he keeps a tally of the score: running total, count, record, reckoning, register, account, roll; census, poll. 2 his tally of 1,816 wickets: total, score, count, sum.

• verb 1 these statistics tally with government figures: correspond, agree, accord, concur, coincide, match, fit, be consistent, conform, equate, harmonize, be in tune, dovetail, correlate, parallel; informal square; N. Amer. informal jibe. 2 votes were tallied with abacuses: count, calculate, add up, total, compute; figure out, work out, reckon, measure, quantify; Brit. tot up; formal enumerate.

– OPPOSITES disagree.

tame adjective 1 a tame elephant:

domesticated, domestic, docile, tamed, broken, trained; gentle, mild; pet; Brit. house-trained; N. Amer. housebroken.

2 (informal) he has a tame lawyer: amenable, biddable, cooperative, willing, obedient, tractable, acquiescent, docile, submissive, compliant, meek. 3 it was a pretty tame affair: unexciting, uninteresting, uninspiring, dull, bland, flat, insipid, spiritless, pedestrian, colourless, run-of-the-mill, mediocre, ordinary, humdrum, boring; harmless, safe, inoffensive.

– OPPOSITES wild, uncooperative, exciting.

• verb 1 wild rabbits can be tamed:

domesticate, break, train, master, subdue.

2 she learned to tame her emotions: subdue, curb, control, calm, master, moderate, overcome, discipline, suppress, repress, mellow, temper, soften, bridle, get a grip on; informal lick.

tamper verb 1 she saw them tampering with her car: interfere, monkey around, meddle, tinker, fiddle, fool around, play around; doctor, alter, change, adjust, damage, deface, vandalize; informal mess about/around; Brit. informal muck about/around. 2 the defendant tampered with the jury: influence, get at, rig, manipulate, bribe, corrupt, bias; informal fix; Brit. informal nabble.

tan adjective a tan waistcoat: yellowish-brown, light brown, pale brown, tawny.

• verb 1 use a sunscreen to help you tan: become suntanned, get a suntan, (go) brown, bronze. 2 (informal) I'll tan his hide. See THRASH sense 1.

tang noun flavour, taste, savour; sharpness, zest, bite, edge, smack, piquancy, spice; smell, odour, aroma, fragrance, perfume, redolence; informal kick, pep.

tangible adjective 1 we offer a tangible product rather than a service: actual, palpable, material, physical, real, substantial, corporeal, solid, concrete. 2 organizations want to see some tangible benefit from the scheme: visible, noticeable, actual, definite, clear, clear-cut, distinct, manifest, evident, unmistakable, perceptible, discernible.

– OPPOSITES abstract.

tangle verb 1 the wool got tangled up:

entangle, snarl, catch, entwine, twist, ravel, knot, enmesh, coil, mat, jumble, muddle.

2 he tangled with his old rival: come into conflict, dispute, argue, quarrel, fight, wrangle, squabble, contend, cross swords, lock horns.

• noun 1 a tangle of branches: snarl, mass, knot, mesh, mishmash. 2 the defence got into an awful tangle: muddle, jumble, mix-up, confusion, shambles.

tangled adjective 1 tangled hair: knotted, knotty, ravelled, entangled, snarled (up), twisted, matted, tangly, messy; tousled, unkempt, ratty; informal mussed up. 2 a tangled bureaucratic mess: confused, jumbled, mixed up, messy, chaotic, complicated, involved, complex, intricate, knotty, tortuous.

– OPPOSITES simple.

tangy adjective zesty, sharp, acid, acidic, tart, sour, bitter, piquant, spicy, tasty, flavoursome, pungent.

– OPPOSITES bland.

tank noun 1 a hot water tank: container, receptacle, vat, cistern, repository, reservoir, basin. 2 a tank full of fish: aquarium, bowl. 3 the army's use of tanks: armoured vehicle, armoured car, combat vehicle; Panzer.

tantalize verb tease, torment, torture, bait; tempt, entice, lure, allure, beguile; excite, fascinate, titillate, intrigue.

tantamount adjective this is tantamount to mutiny: equivalent to, equal to, as good as, more or less, much the same as, comparable to, on a par with, commensurate with.

tantrum noun fit of temper, fit of rage, fit, outburst, pet, paroxysm, frenzy, (bad) mood, huff, scene; informal paddy, wax, wobbly; Brit. informal, dated bate; N. Amer. informal hissy fit.

tap<sup>1</sup> noun 1 she turned the tap on: valve, stopcock, cock, spout; N. Amer. faucet, spigot, spile. 2 a phone tap in the embassy: listening device, wiretap, wire, bug, bugging device, microphone, receiver.

• verb 1 several barrels were tapped: drain, bleed, milk; broach, open. 2 butlers were tapping ale: pour (out), draw off, siphon off, pump out, decant. 3 their telephones were tapped: bug, wiretap, monitor, overhear, eavesdrop on, spy on. 4 the resources were to be tapped for our benefit: draw on, exploit, milk, mine, use, utilize, turn to account.

■ on tap 1 beers on tap: on draught, cask-conditioned, real-ale, from barrels.

2 (informal) trained staff are on tap: on hand, at hand, available, ready, handy, accessible, standing by.

tap<sup>2</sup> verb 1 she tapped on the door: knock, rap, strike, beat, drum. 2 Dad tapped me on the knee: pat, hit, strike, slap, jab, poke, dig.

• noun 1 a sharp tap at the door: knock, rap, rat-tat. 2 a tap on the shoulder: pat, blow, slap, jab, poke, dig.

tape noun 1 a package tied with tape: binding, ribbon, string, braid. 2 secure the bandage with tape: adhesive tape, sticky tape, masking tape; trademark Sellotape. 3 they listened to tapes: (audio) cassette, (tape) recording, audio tape, reel, spool; video. • verb 1 a card was taped to the box: bind, stick, fix, fasten, secure, attach; tie, strap. 2 they taped off the area: cordon, seal, close, shut, mark, fence; isolate, segregate. 3 police taped his confession: record, tape-record; video.

taper verb 1 the leaves taper at the tip: narrow, thin (out), come to a point, attenuate. 2 the meetings soon tapered off: decrease, lessen, dwindle, diminish, reduce, decline, die down, peter out, wane, ebb, slacken (off), fall off, let up, thin out.

– OPPOSITES thicken, increase.

• noun a lighted taper: candle, spill, sconce; historical rushlight.

tardy adjective late, unpunctual, behind schedule, running late; behind, overdue, belated, delayed; slow, dilatory.

– OPPOSITES punctual.

target noun 1 targets at a range of 200 yards: mark, bullseye, goal. 2 eagles can spot their targets from half a mile: prey, quarry, game, kill. 3 their profit target: objective, goal, aim, end; plan, intention, intent, design, aspiration, ambition, ideal, desire, wish. 4 she was the target for a wave of abuse: victim, butt, recipient, focus, object, subject.

• verb 1 he was targeted by a gunman: pick out, single out, earmark, fix on; attack, aim at, fire at. 2 the product is targeted at a specific market: aim, direct, level, intend, focus.

■ on target 1 the striker was bang on target: accurate, precise, unerring, sure, on the mark; Brit. informal spot on. 2 the project was on target: on schedule, on track, on course, on time.

tariff noun tax, duty, toll, excise, levy, charge, rate, fee; price list.

tarnish verb 1 gold does not tarnish easily: discolour, rust, oxidize, corrode, stain, dull, blacken. 2 it tarnished his reputation: sully, blacken, stain, blemish, blot, taint, soil, ruin, disgrace, mar, damage, harm, hurt, undermine, dishonour, stigmatize; literary besmirch.

– OPPOSITES polish, enhance.

• noun 1 the tarnish on the candlesticks: discoloration, oxidation, rust; film. 2 the tarnish on his reputation: smear, stain, blemish, blot, taint, stigma.

tarry verb (old use) linger, loiter, procrastinate, delay, wait, dawdle; informal hang around/round.

– OPPOSITES hurry.

tart<sup>1</sup> noun a jam tart: pastry, flan, tartlet, quiche, pie.

tart<sup>2</sup> (informal) noun a tart on a street corner. See PROSTITUTE noun.

• verb 1 she tarted herself up: dress up, make up, smarten up, preen oneself, beautify oneself, groom oneself; informal doll oneself up, titivate oneself. 2 we must tart this place up a bit: decorate, renovate, refurbish, redecorate; smarten up; informal do up, fix up.

tart<sup>3</sup> adjective 1 a tart apple: sour, sharp, acid, acidic, zesty, tangy, piquant; lemony, acetic. 2 a tart reply: acerbic, sharp, biting, cutting, astringent, caustic, trenchant, incisive, barbed, scathing, sarcastic, acrimonious, nasty, rude, vicious, spiteful, venomous.

– OPPOSITES sweet, kind.

task noun a daunting task: job, duty, chore, charge, assignment, detail, mission, engagement, occupation, undertaking, exercise, business, responsibility, burden, endeavour, enterprise, venture.

■ take someone to task rebuke, reprimand, reprove, reproach, remonstrate with, upbraid, scold, berate, lecture, censure, criticize, admonish, chide, chasten, arraign; informal tell off, bawl out, give someone a dressing-down; Brit. informal tick off, carpet; formal castigate.

taste noun 1 a distinctive sharp taste:

flavour, savour, relish, tang, smack. 2 a taste of brandy: mouthful, drop, bit, sip, nip, swallow, touch, soupçon, dash, modicum.

3 it's too sweet for my taste: palate, taste buds, appetite, stomach. 4 a taste for adventure: liking, love, fondness, fancy, desire, preference, penchant, predilection, inclination, partiality; hankering, appetite, hunger, thirst, relish. 5 my first taste of prison: experience, impression; exposure to, contact with, involvement with. 6 the house was furnished with taste: judgement, discrimination, discernment, tastefulness, refinement, finesse, elegance, grace, style. 7 the photo was rejected on grounds of taste: decorum, propriety, etiquette, politeness, delicacy, nicety, sensitivity, discretion, tastefulness.

– OPPOSITES dislike.

• verb 1 Adam tasted the wine: sample, test, try, savour; sip, sup. 2 he could taste blood: perceive, discern, make out, distinguish. 3 a beer that tasted of cashews: have a flavour, savour, smack, be reminiscent; suggest. 4 it'll be good to taste real coffee again: consume, drink, partake of; eat, devour. 5 he tasted defeat: experience, encounter, come face to face with, come up against, undergo; know.

WORD LINKS

gustatory, gustative relating to the sense of taste palatable pleasant to taste supertaster a person who is very sensitive to particular tastes tasteful adjective 1 the decor is simple and tasteful: aesthetically pleasing, in good taste, refined, cultured, elegant, stylish, smart, chic, attractive, exquisite. 2 this video is erotic but tasteful: decorous, proper, seemly, respectable, appropriate, modest.

– OPPOSITES tasteless, improper.

tasteless adjective 1 the vegetables are tasteless: flavourless, bland, insipid, unappetizing, savourless, watery, weak.

2 tasteless leather panelling: vulgar, crude, tawdry, garish, gaudy, loud, trashy, showy, ostentatious, cheap, inelegant; informal flashy, flashy, tacky, kitsch; Brit. informal naff. 3 a tasteless remark: crude, vulgar, indelicate, uncouth, crass, tactless, undiplomatic, indiscreet, inappropriate, offensive.

– OPPOSITES tasty, tasteful, seemly.

tasty adjective delicious, palatable, luscious, mouth-watering, delectable, ambrosial, toothsome, dainty, flavoursome, flavourful; appetizing, tempting; informal yummy, scrummy, scrumptious, finger-licking, moreish; dated flavorful.

– OPPOSITES bland.

tatters plural noun the satin had frayed to tatters: rags, scraps, shreds, bits, pieces, ribbons.

■ in tatters 1 his clothes were in tatters: ragged, tattered, torn, ripped, frayed, in pieces, worn out, moth-eaten, falling to pieces, threadbare. 2 her marriage is in tatters: in ruins, on the rocks, destroyed, finished, devastated.

tattle verb 1 we were tattling about him: gossip, tittle-tattle, chatter, chat, prattle, babble, jabber, gabble, rattle on, jaw, yak, gab; Brit. informal natter, chinwag, chit-chat.

2 I would tattle on her if I had evidence: inform; report, talk, tell all, spill the beans; informal squeal, sing, let the cat out of the bag.

● noun tabloid tattle: gossip, rumour, tittle-tattle, hearsay, scandal.

taunt noun the taunts of his classmates: jeer, jibe, sneer, insult, barb, catcall; (taunts) teasing, provocation, goading, derision, mockery; informal dig, put-down.

● verb she taunted him about his job: jeer at, sneer at, scoff at, poke fun at, make fun of, get at, insult, tease, chaff, torment, goad, ridicule, deride, mock, heckle; N. Amer. ride; informal rib, needle, rag, guy.

taut adjective 1 the rope was pulled taut: tight, stretched, rigid. 2 his muscles remained taut: flexed, tense, hard, solid, firm, rigid, stiff. 3 a taut expression: fraught, strained, stressed, tense; informal uptight. 4 a taut tale of gang life: concise, controlled, crisp, pithy, sharp, succinct, compact, terse. 5 he ran a taut ship: orderly, tight, trim, neat, disciplined, tidy, spruce, smart, shipshape (and Bristol fashion).

– OPPOSITES slack, relaxed.

tavern noun bar, inn, hostelry, taphouse; Brit. pub, public house; informal watering hole; Brit. informal local, boozer; dated alehouse; N. Amer. historical saloon.

tawdry adjective gaudy, flashy, showy, garish, loud; tasteless, vulgar, trashy, junky, cheap (and nasty), cheapjack, shoddy, shabby, gimcrack; informal rubbishy, tacky, kitsch.

– OPPOSITES tasteful.

tax noun 1 higher taxes will dampen consumer spending: duty, excise, customs, dues; levy, tariff, toll, impost, tithe, charge, fee; VAT, community charge, income tax. 2 a heavy tax on one's attention: burden, load, weight, demand, strain, pressure, stress, drain, imposition.

– OPPOSITES rebate.

● verb 1 they tax foreign companies more harshly: charge (duty on), tithe; formal mulct. 2 his whining taxed her patience: strain, stretch, overburden, overload, encumber, push too far; overwhelm, try, wear out, exhaust, sap, drain, weary, weaken.

WORD LINKS

fiscal relating to government revenue raised through taxes progressive referring to taxes that increase in rate as the amount taxed increases regressive referring to taxes that take a proportionally greater amount from people on lower incomes taxing adjective demanding, exacting, challenging, burdensome, arduous, onerous, difficult, hard, tough, laborious, back-breaking, strenuous, rigorous, punishing; tiring, exhausting, enervating, wearing, stressful; informal murderous.

– OPPOSITES easy.

tea noun Indian chai; Brit. informal char; rhyming slang Rosie Lee.

teach verb 1 she teaches small children: educate, instruct, school, tutor, coach, train; enlighten, illuminate, verse, indoctrinate; drill, discipline; formal edify. 2 I taught English: give lessons in, lecture in, be a teacher of. 3 teach your teenager how to negotiate: train, show, guide, instruct, demonstrate; instil, inculcate.

WORD LINKS

didactic, pedagogic intended to teach, or relating to teaching pedagogy the profession or theory of teaching academia the world of teaching and research conducted at universities autodidact a self-taught person teacher noun educator, tutor, instructor, master, mistress, schoolmarm, governess, educationist, preceptor; coach, trainer; lecturer, professor, don; guide, mentor, guru, counsellor; informal teach; Brit. informal beak; Austral./NZ informal chalkie, schoolie; formal pedagogue; historical schoolman.

team noun 1 the sales team: group, squad, company, party, crew, troupe, band, side, line-up; informal bunch, gang, posse. 2 a team of horses: pair, span, yoke, duo, set, tandem.

● verb 1 the horses are teamed in pairs: harness, yoke, hitch, couple. 2 team a T-shirt with matching shorts: match, coordinate, complement, pair up. 3 team up with another artist for an exhibition: join (forces), collaborate, get together, work together; unite, combine, cooperate, link, ally, associate, club together.

tear<sup>1</sup> verb 1 I tore up the letter: rip up, rip in two, pull to pieces, shred. 2 his flesh was torn: lacerate, cut (open), gash, slash, scratch, hack, pierce, stab; injure, wound. 3 the traumas tore her family apart: divide, split, sever, break up, disunite, rupture; literary rend, sunder, cleave. 4 Gina tore the book from his hands: snatch, grab, seize, rip, wrench, wrest, pull, pluck; informal yank. 5 (informal) Jack tore down the street: sprint, race, run, dart, rush, dash, hasten, hurry, hare, bolt, fly, career, charge, shoot, hurtle, speed, whizz, zoom, go like lightning, go like the wind; informal pelt, scoot, hotfoot it, leg it, belt, zip, whip; Brit. informal go like the clappers, bomb, bucket; N. Amer. informal hightail it.

– OPPOSITES unite.

• noun a tear in her dress: rip, hole, split, slash, slit; ladder, snag.

■ tear something down demolish, knock down, raze (to the ground), flatten, level, bulldoze; dismantle, disassemble.

tear<sup>2</sup> noun tears in her eyes: teardrop.

■ in tears crying, weeping, sobbing, wailing, howling, bawling, whimpering; tearful, upset; informal weepy, teary, blubbing, blubbering.

WORD LINKS

lachrymal, lacrimal connected with tears tearaway noun hooligan, hoodlum, ruffian, lout, rowdy, roughneck; Austral. larrikin; informal yahoo; Brit. informal yob, yobbo; Scottish informal ned; Austral./NZ informal roughie.

tearful adjective 1 Georgina was tearful: close to tears, emotional, upset, distressed, sad, unhappy; in tears, crying, weeping, sobbing, snivelling; informal weepy, teary; formal lachrymose. 2 a tearful farewell: emotional, upsetting, distressing, sad, heartbreaking, sorrowful; poignant, moving, touching, tear-jerking; literary dolorous.

– OPPOSITES cheerful.

tease verb make fun of, poke fun at, chaff, laugh at, guy, make a monkey (out) of; taunt, bait, goad, pick on; deride, mock, ridicule; informal take the mickey out of, rag, send up, rib, josh, have on, pull someone's leg; Brit. informal wind up; N. Amer. informal pull someone's chain, razz; Austral./NZ informal poke mullock at; dated twit.

technical adjective 1 an important technical achievement: practical, scientific, technological, high-tech. 2 this might seem very technical: specialist, specialized, scientific; complex, complicated, esoteric. 3 a technical fault: mechanical.

technique noun 1 different techniques for solving the problem: method, approach, procedure, system, modus operandi, MO, way; means, strategy, tack, tactic, line; routine, practice. 2 I was impressed with his technique: skill, ability, proficiency, expertise, mastery, talent, genius, artistry, craftsmanship; aptitude, adroitness, deftness, dexterity, facility, competence; performance, delivery; informal know-how.

tedious adjective boring, dull, monotonous, repetitive, unrelieved, unvaried, uneventful; characterless, colourless, lifeless, insipid, uninteresting, unexciting, uninspiring, flat, bland, dry, stale, tired, lacklustre, stodgy, dreary, humdrum, mundane; mind-numbing, soul-destroying, wearisome, tiring, tiresome, irksome, trying, frustrating; informal deadly, not up to much; Brit. informal samey; N. Amer. informal dullsville.

– OPPOSITES exciting.

tedium noun monotony, boredom, ennui, uniformity, routine, dreariness, dryness, banality, vapidness, insipidity.

– OPPOSITES variety.

teem<sup>1</sup> verb the pond was teeming with fish: be full of, be filled with, be alive with, be brimming with, abound in, be swarming with; be packed with, be crawling with, be overrun by, bristle with, seethe with, be thick with; informal be jam-packed with, be chock-a-block with, be chock-full with.

teem<sup>2</sup> verb the rain was teeming down: pour, pelt, tip, beat, lash, sheet; come down in torrents, rain cats and dogs; informal be chucking it down; Brit. informal bucket down.

teenage adjective adolescent, teenaged, youthful, young, juvenile; informal teen.

teenager noun adolescent, youth, young person, minor, juvenile; informal teen, teeny-bopper.

teeny adjective (informal). See TINY.

teeter verb 1 Daisy teetered towards them: totter, wobble, toddle, sway, stagger, stumble, reel, lurch, pitch. 2 the situation teetered between tragedy and farce: see-saw, veer, fluctuate, oscillate, swing, alternate, waver.

teetotal adjective abstinent, abstemious; sober, dry; informal on the wagon.

– OPPOSITES alcoholic.

telegram noun telemessage, telex; informal wire; dated radiogram; historical cable, cablegram.

telepathic adjective psychic, clairvoyant.

telepathy noun mind-reading, thought transference; extrasensory perception, ESP; clairvoyance, sixth sense; psychometry.

telephone noun Sophie picked up the telephone: phone, handset, receiver; informal blower; N. Amer. informal horn.

• verb he telephoned me last night: phone, call, dial; get, reach; Brit. ring (up); informal call up, give someone a buzz, get on the blower to; Brit. informal give someone a bell, give someone a tinkle; N. Amer. informal get someone on the horn.

telescope noun spyglass; informal scope.

• verb 1 the front of the car was telescoped: concertina, compact, compress, crush, squash. 2 his experience can be telescoped into a paragraph: condense, shorten, reduce, abbreviate, abridge, summarize, precis, abstract, shrink, consolidate; truncate, curtail.

televise verb broadcast, screen, air, telecast; transmit, relay.

television noun TV; informal the small screen; Brit. informal telly, the box; N. Amer. informal the tube.

tell verb 1 why didn't you tell me before? inform, notify, apprise, let know, make aware, acquaint with, advise, put in the picture, brief, fill in; alert, warn; informal clue in/up. 2 she told the story slowly: relate, recount, narrate, unfold, report, recite, describe, sketch, weave, spin; utter, voice, state, declare, communicate, impart, divulge. 3 she told him to leave: instruct, order, command, direct, charge, enjoin, call on, require; literary bid. 4 I tell you, I did nothing wrong: assure, promise, give one's word, swear, guarantee. 5 the figures tell a different story: reveal, show, indicate, be evidence of, disclose, convey, signify. 6 promise you won't tell? give the game away, talk, tell tales, tattle; informal spill the beans, let the cat out of the bag, blab; Brit. informal blow the gaff. 7 she was bound to tell on him: inform on, tell tales on, give away, denounce, sell out; informal split on, blow the whistle on, rat on, peach on, squeal on; Brit. informal grass on, sneak on, shop; N. Amer. informal finger; Austral./NZ informal dob on. 8 it was hard to tell what he said: ascertain, determine, work out, make out, deduce, discern, perceive, see, identify, recognize, understand, comprehend; informal figure out; Brit. informal suss out. 9 he couldn't tell one from the other: distinguish, differentiate, discriminate. 10 the strain began to tell on him: take its toll, leave its mark; affect. ■ tell someone off (informal). See REPRIMAND verb.

teller noun 1 a bank teller: cashier, clerk. 2 a teller of tales: narrator, raconteur; storyteller, anecdotalist.

telling adjective revealing, significant, weighty, important, meaningful, influential, striking, potent, powerful, compelling. – OPPOSITES insignificant.

telling-off noun (informal). See REPRIMAND noun.

telltale adjective the telltale blush on her face: revealing, revelatory, suggestive, meaningful, significant, meaning; informal giveaway.

• noun 'Sue did it,' said a telltale: informer, whistle-blower; N. Amer. tattletale; informal snitch, squealer; Brit. informal sneak; Scottish informal clype; dated talebearer.

temerity noun audacity, nerve, effrontery, impudence, impertinence, cheek, gall, presumption; daring; informal face, front, (brass) neck, chutzpah.

temper noun 1 he walked out in a temper: (fit of) rage, fury, fit of pique, tantrum, (bad) mood, pet, sulk, huff; informal grump, snit; Brit. informal strop, paddy; Brit. informal, dated bate, wax; N. Amer. informal hissy fit. 2 a display of temper: anger, fury, rage, annoyance, vexation, irritation, irritability, ill humour, spleen, pique, petulance, testiness, tetchiness, crabbiness; Brit. informal stropiness; literary ire, choler. 3 she struggled to keep her temper: composure, equanimity, self-control, self-possession, sangfroid, calm, good humour; informal cool.

• verb 1 the steel is tempered by heat: harden, strengthen, toughen, fortify, anneal. 2 their idealism is tempered with realism: moderate, modify, modulate, mitigate, alleviate, reduce, weaken, lighten, soften.

■ lose one's temper get angry, fly into a rage, erupt, lose control, go berserk, breathe fire, flare up, boil over; informal go mad, go crazy, go bananas, have a fit, see red, fly off the handle, blow one's top, do one's nut, hit the roof, go off the deep end, go ape, flip, lose one's rag, freak out; Brit. informal go spare, go crackers, throw a wobbly.

temperament noun disposition, nature, character, personality, make-up, constitution, mind, spirit; stamp, mettle, mould; mood, frame of mind, attitude, outlook, humour.

temperamental adjective 1 a temperamental chef: volatile, excitable, emotional, mercurial, capricious, erratic, unpredictable, changeable, inconsistent; hot-headed, fiery, quick-tempered, irritable, irascible, impatient; touchy, moody, sensitive, oversensitive, highly strung, neurotic, melodramatic. 2 a temperamental dislike of conflict: inherent, innate, natural, inborn, constitutional, deep-rooted, ingrained, congenital. – OPPOSITES placid.

temperance noun teetotalism, abstinence, abstention, sobriety, self-restraint; prohibition. – OPPOSITES alcoholism.

temperate adjective 1 temperate climates: mild, clement, benign, gentle, balmy. 2 he was temperate in his consumption: self-restrained, restrained, moderate, self-controlled, disciplined; abstemious, self-denying, austere, ascetic; teetotal, abstinent. – OPPOSITES extreme.

tempest noun storm, gale, hurricane; tornado, whirlwind, cyclone, typhoon.

tempestuous adjective 1 the day was tempestuous: stormy, blustery, squally, wild, turbulent, windy, gusty, blowy, rainy; foul, nasty, inclement. 2 the tempestuous political environment: turbulent, stormy, tumultuous, wild, lively, heated, explosive, feverish, frenetic, frenzied. 3 a tempestuous woman: emotional, passionate, impassioned, fiery, intense; temperamental, volatile, excitable, mercurial, capricious, unpredictable, quick-tempered. – OPPOSITES calm, peaceful, placid.

temple noun house of God, shrine, sanctuary; church, cathedral, mosque, synagogue, shul, gurdwara, mandir, pagoda; old use fane.

tempo noun 1 the tempo of the music: cadence, speed, rhythm, beat, time, pulse; measure, metre. 2 the tempo of life in Western society: pace, rate, speed, velocity.

temporal adjective secular, non-spiritual, worldly, profane, material, mundane, earthly, terrestrial; non-religious, lay. – OPPOSITES spiritual.

temporarily adverb 1 the girl was temporarily placed with a foster family: for the time being, for the moment, for now, for the present, in the interim, for the nonce, in/for the meantime, in the meanwhile; provisionally, pro tem; informal for the minute. 2 he was temporarily blinded by the light: briefly, for a short time, momentarily, fleetingly.

– OPPOSITES permanently.

temporary adjective 1 temporary accommodation | the temporary captain: short-term, interim; provisional, pro tem, makeshift, stopgap; acting, fill-in, stand-in, caretaker. 2 a temporary loss of self-control: brief, short-lived, momentary, fleeting, passing.

– OPPOSITES permanent, lasting.

temporize verb equivocate, procrastinate, play for time, play a waiting game, stall, use delaying tactics, delay, hang back, prevaricate; Brit. hum and haw; rare tergiversate.

tempt verb 1 the manager tried to tempt him to stay: entice, persuade, convince, inveigle, induce, cajole, coax, woo; informal sweet-talk. 2 more customers are being tempted by credit: allure, attract, appeal to, whet the appetite of; lure, seduce, beguile, tantalize, draw.

– OPPOSITES discourage, deter.

temptation noun 1 Mary resisted the temptation to answer back: desire, urge, itch, impulse, inclination. 2 the temptations of London: lure, allurement, enticement, seduction, attraction, draw, pull; siren song. 3 the temptation of travel to exotic locations: allure, appeal, attraction, fascination.

tempting adjective 1 the tempting shops of the Via Nazionale: enticing, alluring, attractive, appealing, inviting, captivating, seductive, beguiling, fascinating, tantalizing; irresistible. 2 a plate of tempting cakes: appetizing, mouth-watering, delicious, toothsome; informal scrumptious, scrummy, yummy.

– OPPOSITES off-putting, uninviting.

temptress noun seductress, siren, femme fatale, Mata Hari; informal vamp.

ten cardinal number decade.

WORD LINKS

decimal relating to a system of numbers based on ten decagon a plane figure with ten sides decahedron a solid figure with ten faces decathlon an athletic event consisting of ten different activities decennial lasting for or recurring every ten years Decalogue the Ten Commandments tenable adjective defensible, justifiable, supportable, sustainable, arguable, able to hold water, reasonable, rational, sound, viable, plausible, credible, believable, conceivable.

– OPPOSITES indefensible.

tenacious adjective 1 his tenacious grip: firm, tight, fast, clinging; strong, forceful, powerful, unshakeable, immovable, iron. 2 a tenacious man: persevering, persistent, determined, dogged, strong-willed, tireless, indefatigable, resolute, patient, purposeful, unflagging, staunch, steadfast, untiring, unwavering, unswerving, unshakeable, unyielding, insistent; stubborn, intransigent, obstinate, obdurate, stiff-necked; N. Amer. rock-ribbed; formal pertinacious.

– OPPOSITES weak, irresolute.

tenacity noun persistence, determination, perseverance, doggedness, strength of purpose, bulldog spirit, tirelessness, indefatigability, resolution, resoluteness, resolve, firmness, patience, purposefulness, staunchness, steadfastness, staying power, application; stubbornness, intransigence, obstinacy, obduracy; formal pertinacity.

tenancy noun occupancy, occupation, period of occupancy/occupation, residence, habitation, holding, possession; tenure, lease, rental, leasehold.

tenant noun occupant, resident, inhabitant; leaseholder, lessee, renter; Brit. occupier, sitting tenant.

– OPPOSITES owner, freeholder.

tend<sup>1</sup> verb 1 I tend to get very involved in my work: be inclined, be apt, be disposed, be prone, be liable, have a tendency, have a propensity. 2 younger voters tended towards the tabloid press: incline, lean, gravitate, move; prefer, favour; N. Amer. trend.

tend<sup>2</sup> verb she tended her cattle: look after, take care of, care for, minister to, attend to, see to, wait on; watch over, keep an eye on, mind, protect, watch, guard; nurse, nurture, cherish.

– OPPOSITES neglect.

tendency noun 1 his tendency to take the law into his own hands: propensity, proclivity, proneness, aptness, likelihood, inclination, disposition, predisposition, bent, leaning, penchant, predilection, susceptibility, liability; readiness; habit. 2 this tendency towards cohabitation: trend, movement, drift, swing, gravitation, direction, course; orientation, bias.

tender<sup>1</sup> adjective 1 a gentle, tender man: caring, kind, kindly, kind-hearted, soft-hearted, tender-hearted, compassionate, sympathetic, warm, warm-hearted, fatherly, motherly, maternal, gentle, mild, benevolent, generous, giving, humane. 2 a tender kiss: affectionate, fond, loving, emotional, warm, gentle, soft; amorous, adoring; informal lovey-dovey. 3 tender love songs: romantic, sentimental, emotional, emotive, touching, moving, poignant; Brit. informal soppy. 4 simmer until the meat is tender: easily chewed, soft; succulent, juicy; tenderized. 5 tender plants: delicate, easily damaged, fragile. 6 her ankle was swollen and tender: sore, painful, sensitive, inflamed, raw, red, chafed, bruised; hurting, aching, throbbing, smarting. 7 the tender age of fifteen: young, youthful, impressionable, inexperienced, immature, unsophisticated, unseasoned, juvenile, callow, green, raw; informal wet behind the ears. 8 the issue of conscription was a particularly tender one: difficult, delicate, tricky, awkward, problematic, troublesome, ticklish; controversial, emotive; informal sticky.

– OPPOSITES hard-hearted, callous, tough.

tender<sup>2</sup> verb 1 she tendered her resignation: offer, proffer, present, put forward, propose, suggest, advance, submit, extend, give, render; hand in. 2 firms of interior decorators tendered for the work: put in a bid, bid, quote, give an estimate.

• noun six contractors were invited to submit tenders: bid, offer, quotation, quote, estimate, price; proposal, submission.

tender-hearted adjective. See TENDER sense 1.

tenderness noun 1 I felt an enormous tenderness for her: affection, fondness, love, devotion, loving kindness, emotion, sentiment. 2 with unexpected tenderness, he told her what had happened: kindness, kindness, kind-heartedness, tender-heartedness, compassion, care, concern, sympathy, warmth, fatherliness, motherliness, gentleness, benevolence, generosity. 3 abdominal tenderness: soreness, pain, inflammation, bruising; ache, aching, smarting, throbbing.

tenet noun principle, belief, doctrine, precept, creed, credo, article of faith, dogma, canon; theory, thesis, conviction, idea, view, opinion, position, hypothesis, postulation; (tenets) ideology, code of belief, teaching(s).

tenor noun 1 the general tenor of his speech: sense, meaning, theme, drift, thread, import, purport, intent, intention, burden, thrust, significance, message; gist, essence, substance, spirit. 2 the even tenor of life in the village: course, direction, movement, drift, current, trend.

tense adjective 1 the tense muscles of his neck: taut, tight, rigid, stretched, strained, stiff.

2 Loretta was feeling tense and irritable: anxious, nervous, on edge, edgy, strained, stressed, under pressure, agitated, ill at ease, uneasy, nervy, restless, worked up, keyed up, overwrought, on tenterhooks, with one's stomach in knots, worried, apprehensive, panicky; informal a bundle of nerves, jittery, jumpy, twitchy, uptight, stressed out; N. Amer. informal spooky, squirrely. 3 a tense moment: nerve-racking, stressful, anxious, worrying, fraught, charged, strained, nail-biting, difficult, uneasy, uncomfortable; exciting, cliffhanging, knife-edge.

— OPPOSITES slack, calm.

• verb Hebden tensed his muscles: tighten, tauten, tense up, flex, contract, brace, stiffen; screw up, knot, strain, stretch; N. Amer. squinch up.

— OPPOSITES relax.

tension noun 1 the tension of the rope: tightness, tautness, rigidity; pull, traction. 2 the tension was unbearable: strain, stress, anxiety, pressure; worry, apprehensiveness, apprehension, agitation, nerves, nervousness, jumpiness, edginess, restlessness; suspense, uncertainty, anticipation, excitement; informal butterflies (in one's stomach), collywobblers. 3 months of tension between the military and the government: strained relations, strain; ill feeling, friction, antagonism, antipathy, hostility, enmity.

tentative adjective 1 tentative arrangement | a tentative conclusion: provisional,

unconfirmed, pencilled in, preliminary, to be confirmed, TBC, subject to confirmation; speculative, conjectural, untried, unproven, exploratory, experimental, trial, test, pilot. 2 he took a few tentative steps: hesitant, uncertain, cautious, timid, hesitating, faltering, shaky, unsteady, halting; wavering, unsure.

— OPPOSITES definite, confident.

tenterhooks plural noun

■ on tenterhooks in suspense, waiting with bated breath; anxious, nervous, nervy, apprehensive, worried, worried sick, on edge, edgy, tense, strained, stressed, agitated, restless, worked up, keyed up, with one's stomach in knots, with one's heart in one's mouth, like a cat on a hot tin roof; informal with butterflies in one's stomach, jittery, jumpy, twitchy, in a state, uptight; N. Amer. informal spooky, squirrely.

tenuous adjective 1 a tenuous connection: slight, insubstantial, flimsy, weak, doubtful, dubious, questionable, suspect; vague, nebulous, hazy. 2 a tenuous thread: fine, thin, slender, delicate, gossamer, fragile.

— OPPOSITES convincing, strong.

tenure noun 1 residents should have security of tenure: tenancy, occupancy, holding, occupation, residence; possession, title, ownership. 2 his tenure as Secretary of State for Industry: incumbency, term (of office), period (of/in office), time (in office).

tepid adjective 1 tepid water: lukewarm, warmish, slightly warm; at room temperature. 2 a tepid response: unenthusiastic, apathetic, half-hearted, indifferent, cool, lukewarm, uninterested; informal unenthused.

— OPPOSITES hot, cold, enthusiastic.

term noun 1 scientific and technical terms: word, expression, phrase, turn of phrase, idiom, locution; name, title, designation, label; formal appellation, denomination.

2 a protest in the strongest terms: language, mode of expression, manner of speaking, phraseology, terminology; words, phrases, expressions. 3 the terms of the contract: conditions, stipulations, specifications, provisions, provisos; restrictions, qualifications; particulars, details, points.

4 a policy offering more favourable terms: rates, prices, charges, costs, fees; tariff.

5 The President is elected for a four-year term: period, period of time, time, length of time, spell, stint, duration; stretch, run; period of office, incumbency. 6 (old use) the whole term of your natural life: duration, length, span. 7 the summer term: session; N. Amer. semester, trimester, quarter.

• verb he has been termed the father of modern theology: call, name, entitle, title, style, designate, describe as, dub, label, tag; nickname; formal denominate.

■ come to terms 1 the two sides came to terms: reach an agreement/understanding, make a deal, reach a compromise, meet each other halfway. 2 she eventually came to terms with her situation: accept, come to accept, reconcile oneself to, learn to live with, become resigned to, make the best of; face up to.

terminal adjective 1 a terminal illness:

incurable, untreatable, inoperable; fatal, mortal, deadly. 2 terminal patients: dying, near death; incurable. 3 a terminal bonus may be payable when a policy matures: final, last, concluding, closing, end. 4 (informal) you're making a terminal ass of yourself: complete, utter, absolute, total, real, thorough, out-and-out, downright, perfect; Brit. informal right, proper; Austral./NZ informal fair.

• noun 1 a railway terminal: station, last stop, end of the line; depot; Brit. terminus.

2 a computer terminal: workstation, VDU, visual display unit.

terminate verb 1 treatment was terminated:

bring to an end, end, bring to a close/conclusion, close, conclude, finish, stop, put an end to, wind up, discontinue, cease, cut short, abort, axe; informal pull the plug on.

2 the train will terminate in Stratford: end its journey, finish up, stop. 3 the pregnancy was terminated: abort, end.

– OPPOSITES begin, start, continue.

termination noun 1 the termination of a contract: ending, end, closing, close, conclusion, finish, stopping, winding up, discontinuance, discontinuation; cancellation, dissolution; informal wind-up. 2 she had a termination: abortion; rare feticide.

– OPPOSITES start, beginning.

terminology noun phraseology, terms, expressions, words, language, parlance, vocabulary, nomenclature; usage, idiom; jargon, cant, argot; informal lingo, -speak, -ese.

terminus noun (Brit.) the bus terminus:

station, last stop, end of the line, terminal; depot, garage.

terrain noun land, ground, territory; topography, landscape, countryside, country.

terrestrial adjective earthly, worldly, mundane, earthbound; literary sublunary.

terrible adjective 1 a terrible crime | terrible injuries: dreadful, awful, appalling, horrific, horrifying, horrible, horrendous, atrocious, abominable, abhorrent, frightful, shocking, hideous, ghastly, grim, dire, unspeakable, gruesome, monstrous, sickening, heinous, vile; serious, grave, acute; formal grievous.

2 a terrible smell: nasty, disgusting, awful, dreadful, ghastly, horrid, horrible, vile, foul, abominable, frightful, loathsome, revolting, repulsive, odious, nauseating, repellent, horrendous, hideous, appalling, offensive, objectionable, obnoxious; informal gruesome, putrid, diabolical, yucky, sick-making, God-awful, gross, rank; Brit. informal beastly; old use disgusting. 3 he was in terrible pain: severe, extreme, intense, excruciating, agonizing, unbearable, intolerable, unendurable.

4 that's a terrible thing to say: unkind, nasty, unpleasant, foul, obnoxious, vile, contemptible, despicable, wretched, shabby; spiteful, mean, malicious, poisonous, mean-spirited, cruel, hateful, hurtful; unfair, uncharitable, uncalled for, below the belt, unwarranted; Brit. informal beastly. 5 the film was terrible: very bad, dreadful, awful, frightful, appalling, abysmal, atrocious, hopeless, poor; informal pathetic, pitiful, useless, lousy, dire; Brit. informal duff, chronic, poxy, rubbish, pants. 6 (informal) you're a terrible flirt: incorrigible, outrageous; real, awful, dreadful, frightful, shocking; informal impossible, fearful; Brit. informal right, proper.

7 I feel terrible—I've been in bed all day: ill, poorly, sick, queasy, nauseous, nauseated, green about the gills; faint, dizzy; informal rough, lousy, awful, dreadful; Brit. informal grotty, ropy. 8 he still feels terrible about what he did to John: guilty, conscience-stricken, remorseful, guilt-ridden, ashamed, chastened, contrite, sorry.

– OPPOSITES minor, slight, pleasant, wonderful.

terribly adverb 1 (informal) she's terribly upset: very, extremely, really, terrifically, tremendously, immensely, thoroughly, dreadfully, exceptionally, remarkably, extraordinarily, exceedingly; N. English right; informal awfully, devilishly, seriously, majorly; Brit. informal jolly, ever so, dead, well; N. Amer. informal real, mighty, awful; informal, dated frightfully; old use exceeding. 2 he played terribly: very badly, atrociously, awfully, dreadfully, appallingly, abysmally, execrably; informal pitifully, diabolically. 3 (informal) I shall miss you terribly: very much, greatly, a great deal, a lot; informal loads.

terrific adjective 1 a terrific bang:

tremendous, huge, massive, gigantic, colossal, mighty, great, prodigious, formidable, sizeable, considerable; intense, extreme, extraordinary; informal mega, whopping great, humongous; Brit. informal whacking great, ginormous. 2 (informal) a terrific game of top-quality football: marvellous, wonderful, sensational, outstanding, superb, excellent, first-rate, first-class, dazzling, out of this world, breathtaking; informal great, fantastic, fabulous, fab, mega, super, ace, magic, cracking, cool, wicked, awesome; Brit. informal brilliant, brill, smashing; Austral./NZ informal bonzer; Brit. informal, dated spiffing. 3 (old use) terrific scenes of slaughter and destruction: dreadful, terrible, appalling, awful, horrific, horrible, horrendous, horrifying, hideous, grim, ghastly, gruesome, frightful, fearful.

terrified adjective petrified, frightened, scared, scared/frightened to death, scared stiff, scared/frightened out of one's wits, scared witless, horrified, with one's heart in one's mouth, shaking in one's shoes.

terrify verb petrify, horrify, frighten, scare, scare/frighten to death, scare/frighten the living daylight out of, scare/frighten the life out of, scare/frighten someone out of their wits, scare witless, strike terror into, put the fear of God into; paralyse, transfix; informal scare the pants off; Irish informal scare the bejesus out of.

territory noun 1 British overseas territories:

area of land, area, region, enclave; country, state, land, dependency, colony, dominion, protectorate, fief, possession, holding. 2 mountainous territory: terrain, land, ground, countryside. 3 the territory of biblical scholarship: domain, area of concern/interest/knowledge, province, department, field, preserve, sphere, arena, realm, world. 4 Sheffield was his territory: sphere of operations, area, section; informal turf; Brit. informal patch, manor.

t

terror noun 1 she screamed in terror: fear, dread, horror, fear and trembling, fright, alarm, panic, shock. 2 the terrors of her own mind: demon, fiend, devil, monster; horror, nightmare. 3 (informal) he turned out to be a right little terror: rascal, devil, imp, monkey, scallywag, mischief-maker; informal scamp, horror; Brit. informal perisher; N. English informal scally; N. Amer. informal varmint.

terrorist noun bomber, arsonist; gunman, assassin; hijacker; revolutionary, radical, guerrilla, urban guerrilla, anarchist, freedom fighter.

terrorize verb persecute, victimize, torment, tyrannize, intimidate, menace, threaten, bully, browbeat, scare, frighten, terrify, petrify; Brit. informal put the frighteners on.

terse adjective brief, short, to the point, concise, succinct, crisp, pithy, incisive, short and sweet, laconic, elliptical; brusque, abrupt, curt, clipped, blunt, ungracious. – OPPOSITES long-winded, polite.

test noun 1 a series of scientific tests: trial, experiment, pilot study, try-out; check, examination, assessment, evaluation, appraisal, investigation, inspection, analysis, scrutiny, study, probe, exploration; screening; technical assay. 2 candidates may be required to take a test: exam, examination; N. Amer. quiz. 3 the test of a good sparkling wine: criterion, proof, indication, yardstick, touchstone, standard, measure, litmus test, acid test.

• verb 1 a small-scale prototype was tested: try out, trial, put to the test, put through its paces, experiment with, pilot; check, examine, assess, evaluate, appraise, investigate, analyse, scrutinize, study, probe, explore; sample; screen; technical assay. 2 such behaviour would test any marriage: put a strain on, strain, tax, try; make demands on, stretch, challenge.

t

testament noun an achievement which is a testament to his professionalism and dedication: testimony, witness, evidence, proof, attestation; demonstration, indication, exemplification; monument, tribute.

testify verb 1 you may be required to testify in court: give evidence, bear witness, be a witness, give one's testimony, attest; Law make a deposition. 2 he testified that he had been threatened by a fellow officer: attest, swear, state on oath, state, declare, assert, affirm; allege, submit, claim; Law depose. 3 the exhibits testify to the talents of the local sculptors: be evidence/proof of, attest to, confirm, prove, corroborate, substantiate, bear out; show, demonstrate, bear witness to, indicate, reveal, bespeak.

testimonial noun reference, character reference, letter of recommendation, commendation.

testimony noun 1 Smith was in court to hear her testimony: evidence, sworn statement, attestation, affidavit; statement, declaration, assertion, affirmation; allegation, submission, claim; Law deposition. 2 the work is a testimony to his professional commitment: testament, proof, evidence, attestation, witness; confirmation, corroboration; demonstration, indication.

testing adjective difficult, challenging, tough, hard, demanding, taxing, stressful. – OPPOSITES easy.

testy adjective. See TETCHY.

tetchy adjective irritable, cantankerous, irascible, bad-tempered, grumpy, grouchy, crotchety, crabby, testy, crusty, curmudgeonly, ill-tempered, ill-humoured, peevish, cross, fractious, pettish, crabbed, prickly, waspish; informal snappish, snappy, chippy; Brit. informal shirty, stroppy, narky, ratty; N. Amer. informal cranky, ornery. – OPPOSITES good-humoured.

tête-à-tête noun conversation, chat, talk, heart-to-heart, one-on-one, one-to-one; informal confab; Brit. informal natter, chinwag; formal confabulation.

tether verb the horse had been tethered to a post: tie (up), hitch, rope, chain; fasten, secure.

– OPPOSITES unleash.

• noun a dog on a tether: rope, chain, cord, lead, leash; restraint; halter.

■ at the end of one's tether at one's wits' end, desperate, not knowing which way to turn, unable to cope; N. Amer. at the end of one's rope.

text noun 1 a text which explores pain and grief: book, textbook, work, publication. 2 the pictures are clear and relate well to the text: words, wording; content, body, main body. 3 a text from the First Book of Samuel: passage, extract, quotation, verse, line; reading. 4 he took as his text the fact that Australia is a paradise: theme, subject, topic, motif; thesis, argument.

textile noun fabric, cloth, material.

texture noun feel, touch; appearance, finish, surface, grain; quality, consistency; weave, nap.

thank verb express (one's) gratitude to, express one's thanks to, offer/extend thanks to, say thank you to, show one's appreciation to.

thankful adjective grateful, filled with gratitude, relieved, pleased, glad.

thankless adjective 1 a thankless task: unenviable, difficult, unpleasant, unrewarding; unappreciated, unrecognized, unacknowledged. 2 her thankless children: ungrateful, unappreciative, unthankful. – OPPOSITES rewarding, grateful.

thanks plural noun they expressed their thanks and wished her well: gratitude, appreciation; acknowledgement, recognition, credit.

• exclamation thanks for being so helpful:

thank you, many thanks, thanks very much, thanks a lot, thank you kindly, much obliged, much appreciated, bless you; informal cheers, thanks a million; Brit. informal ta.

■ thanks to as a result of, owing to, due to, because of, through, as a consequence of, on account of, by virtue of, by dint of; formal by reason of.

thaw verb melt, unfreeze, soften, liquefy, dissolve; defrost; N. Amer. unthaw.

– OPPOSITES freeze.

theatre noun 1 the local theatre: playhouse, auditorium, amphitheatre. 2 what made you want to go into the theatre? acting, performing, the stage; drama, the dramatic arts, dramaturgy, the thespian art; show business; informal the boards, show biz. 3 the lecture theatre: hall, room, auditorium. 4 the theatre of war: scene, arena, field/sphere of action.

theatrical adjective 1 a theatrical career: stage, dramatic, thespian, dramaturgical; show-business; informal showbiz; formal histrionic. 2 Henry looked over his shoulder with theatrical caution: exaggerated, ostentatious, actressy, stagy, showy, melodramatic, overacted, overdone, histrionic, affected, mannered; informal hammy, ham, camp.

theft noun robbery, stealing, thieving, larceny, thievery, shoplifting, burglary, misappropriation, embezzlement; raid, hold-up; informal smash-and-grab; N. Amer. informal heist, stick-up; formal peculation.

WORD LINKS

kleptomania compulsive theft

theme noun 1 the theme of her speech: subject, topic, subject matter, matter, thesis, argument, text, burden, thrust; thread, motif, keynote. 2 the first violin takes up the theme: melody, tune, air; motif, leitmotif.

then adverb 1 I was living in Cairo then: at that time, in those days; at that point (in time), at that moment, on that occasion. 2 she won the first and then the second game: next, after that, afterwards, subsequently. 3 and then there's another problem: in addition, also, besides, as well, additionally, on top of that, over and above that, moreover, furthermore, what's more, to boot; too. 4 well, if that's what he wants, then he should leave: in that case, that being so, it follows that.

theological adjective religious, scriptural, ecclesiastical, doctrinal; divine, holy.

theoretical adjective hypothetical, conjectural, academic, suppositional, speculative, notional, postulATORY, assumed, presumed, untested, unproven, unsubstantiated; conceptual, abstract.

– OPPOSITES actual, real.

theorize verb speculate, conjecture, hypothesize, postulate, propose, posit, suppose.

theory noun 1 I reckon that confirms my theory: hypothesis, thesis, conjecture, supposition, speculation, postulation, postulate, proposition, premise, surmise, assumption, presupposition; opinion, view, belief, contention. 2 modern economic theory: principles, ideas, concepts; philosophy, ideology, system of ideas, science.

■ in theory in principle, on paper, in the abstract, all things being equal, in an ideal world; hypothetically.

therapeutic adjective healing, curative, remedial, medicinal, restorative, health-giving, tonic, reparative, corrective, beneficial, good, salutary; calming, relaxing, soothing; old use sanative.

– OPPOSITES harmful.

therapist noun psychologist, psychotherapist, analyst, psychoanalyst, psychiatrist; informal shrink; Brit. humorous trick cyclist.

therapy noun 1 a wide range of complementary therapies: treatment, remedy, cure. 2 he's currently in therapy: psychotherapy, psychoanalysis, analysis.

thereabouts adverb 1 the land thereabouts: near there, around there. 2 they sold it for five million or thereabouts: approximately, or so, give or take a bit, plus or minus a bit, in round numbers, not far off; Brit. getting on for; N. Amer. informal in the ballpark of.

thereafter adverb after that, following that, afterwards, subsequently, then, next.

therefore adverb consequently, so, as a result, hence, thus, accordingly, for that reason, ergo, that being the case, on that account; formal whence; old use wherefore.

thesis noun 1 the central thesis of his lecture: theory, contention, argument, line of argument, proposal, proposition, premise, assumption, hypothesis, postulation, surmise, supposition. 2 a doctoral thesis: dissertation, essay, paper, treatise, disquisition, composition, monograph, study; N. Amer. theme.

thick adjective 1 the walls are five feet thick: in extent/diameter, across, wide, broad, deep. 2 his short, thick legs: stocky, sturdy, chunky, hefty, thickset, beefy, meaty, big, solid; fat, stout, plump. 3 a thick Aran sweater: chunky, bulky, heavy, cable-knit; woollen, woolly. 4 the station was thick with people: crowded, full, filled, packed, teeming, seething, swarming, crawling, crammed, thronged, bursting at the seams, solid, overflowing, choked, jammed, congested; informal jam-packed, chock-a-block, stuffed; Austral./NZ informal chocker. 5 the thick summer vegetation: plentiful, abundant, profuse, luxuriant, bushy, rich, riotous, exuberant; rank, rampant; dense, close-packed, impenetrable, impassable; serried; informal jungly. 6 a thick paste: semi-solid, firm, stiff, stiffened, heavy; clotted, coagulated, viscid, viscous, gelatinous; concentrated. 7 thick fog: dense, heavy, opaque, impenetrable, soupy, murky. 8 (informal) he's a bit thick. See STUPID sense 1. 9 Guy's voice was thick with desire: husky, hoarse, throaty, guttural, gravelly, rough. 10 a thick Scottish accent: obvious, pronounced, marked, broad, strong, rich, decided, distinct. 11 she's very thick with him: friendly, intimate, familiar, on the best of terms, hand in glove; close to, devoted to, inseparable from; informal pally, chummy, matey, buddy-buddy, as thick as thieves, well in.

– OPPOSITES thin, slender, sparse.

• noun in the thick of the crisis: midst, centre, hub, middle, core, heart.

■ a bit thick (Brit. informal) unreasonable, unfair, unjust, unjustified, uncalled for, unwarranted, unnecessary, excessive; informal below the belt, a bit much; Brit. informal out of order.

thicken verb become thick/thicker, stiffen, condense; solidify, set, gel, congeal, clot, coagulate, cake, inspissate.

thicket noun copse, coppice, grove, brake, covert, clump; wood; Brit. spinney; old use hurst.

thickhead noun (informal). See FOOL noun sense 1.

thickness noun 1 the gateway is several feet in thickness: width, breadth, depth, diameter. 2 several thicknesses of limestone: layer, stratum, stratification, seam, vein; sheet, lamina.

thickset adjective stocky, sturdy, heavily built, well built, chunky, burly, strapping, brawny, solid, heavy, hefty, beefy, meaty; Physiology pyknic.

– OPPOSITES slight.

thick-skinned adjective insensitive, unfeeling, tough, impervious, hardened, case-hardened; informal hard-boiled.

– OPPOSITES sensitive.

thief noun robber, burglar, housebreaker, cat burglar, shoplifter, pickpocket, sneak thief, mugger; embezzler, swindler; criminal, villain; kleptomaniac; bandit, pirate, highwayman; informal crook, cracksmen; Brit. rhyming slang tea leaf; literary brigand.

thieve verb steal, take, purloin, help oneself to, snatch, pilfer; embezzle, misappropriate; have one's fingers/hand in the till; informal rob, swipe, nab, rip off, lift, 'liberate', 'borrow', filch, snaffle; Brit. informal nick, pinch, half-inch, whip, knock off, nobble; N. Amer. informal heist; formal peculate.

thievery noun. See THEIVING.

thieving noun theft, stealing, thievery, robbery, larceny, pilfering; burglary, shoplifting, embezzlement; formal peculation.

thin adjective 1 a thin white line: narrow, fine, attenuated. 2 a thin cotton nightdress: lightweight, light, fine, delicate, floaty, flimsy, diaphanous, gossamer, insubstantial; sheer, gauzy, filmy, chiffony, transparent, see-through. 3 a tall, thin woman: slim, lean, slender, rangy, willowy, svelte, sylphlike, spare, slight; skinny, underweight, scrawny, scraggy, bony, angular, raw-boned, hollow-cheeked, gaunt, as thin as a rake/reed, stick-like, skin and bone, emaciated, skeletal, wasted, pinched, undernourished, underfed; lanky, spindly, gangly, gangling, weedy; informal anorexic, like a bag of bones; dated spindle-shanked; old use starveling. 4 his thin grey hair: sparse, scanty, wispy, thinning. 5 a bowl of thin soup: watery, weak, dilute, diluted; runny, sloppy. 6 her thin voice: weak, faint, feeble, small, soft; reedy, high-pitched. 7 the plot is very thin: insubstantial, flimsy, slight, feeble, lame, poor, weak, tenuous, inadequate, insufficient, unconvincing, unbelievable, implausible.

– OPPOSITES thick, broad, fat, abundant.

• verb 1 some paint must be thinned down before use: dilute, water down, weaken. 2 the crowds were beginning to thin out: disperse, dissipate, scatter; become less dense/numerous, decrease, diminish, dwindle.

thing noun 1 the room was full of strange things: object, article, item, artefact, commodity; device, gadget, instrument, utensil, tool, implement; entity, body; informal doodah, whatsit, whatchamacallit, thingummy, thingy, thingamabob, thingamajig; Brit. informal gubbins; N. Amer. informal doodad, dingus. 2 I'll come back tomorrow to collect my things: belongings, possessions, stuff, property, worldly goods, (personal) effects, paraphernalia, bits and pieces, bits and bobs; luggage, baggage, bags; law goods and chattels; informal gear, junk; Brit. informal clobber. 3 his gardening things: equipment, apparatus, gear, kit, tackle, stuff; implements, tools, utensils; accoutrements. 4 I've got several things to do today: activity, act, action, deed, undertaking, exploit, feat; task, job, chore. 5 I've got other things on my mind just now: thought, notion, idea; concern, matter, worry, preoccupation. 6 I keep remembering things he said: remark, statement, comment, utterance, observation, declaration, pronouncement. 7 quite a few odd things happened: incident, episode, event, happening, occurrence, phenomenon. 8 how are things with you? matters, affairs, circumstances, conditions, relations; state of affairs, situation, life. 9 one of the things I like about you is your optimism: characteristic, quality, attribute, property, trait, feature, point, aspect, facet. 10 there's another thing you should know: fact, piece of information, point, detail, particular, factor. 11 the thing is, I'm not sure if it's what I want: fact of the matter, fact, point, issue, problem. 12 you lucky thing! person, soul, creature, wretch; informal devil, beggar, bastard. 13 Dora developed a thing about noise: phobia, fear, dislike, aversion; obsession, fixation; complex, neurosis; informal hang-up, bee in one's bonnet. 14 she had a thing about men who wore glasses: penchant, preference, taste, inclination, partiality, predilection, soft spot, weakness, fancy, fondness, liking, love; fetish, obsession, fixation. 15 books aren't really my thing: what one likes, what interests one; informal one's cup of tea, one's bag, what turns one on. 16 it's the latest thing: fashionable, in fashion, popular, all the rage; informal trendy, cool, big, hip, happening.

think verb 1 I think he's gone home: believe, be of the opinion, be of the view, be under the impression; expect, imagine, anticipate; surmise, suppose, conjecture, guess, fancy; conclude, determine, reason; informal reckon, figure; formal opine; old use ween. 2 his family was thought to be enormously rich: deem, judge, hold, reckon, consider, presume, estimate; regard as, view as. 3 Jack thought for a moment: ponder, reflect, deliberate, consider, meditate, contemplate, muse, ruminate, be lost in thought, be in a brown study, brood; concentrate, rack one's brains; informal put on one's thinking cap, sleep on it; formal cogitate. 4 she thought of all the visits she had made to her father: recall, remember, recollect, call to mind, think back to. 5 she forced herself to think of how he must be feeling: imagine, picture, visualize, envisage; dream about, fantasize about.

■ think better of have second thoughts about, think twice about, think again about, change one's mind about; reconsider, decide against; informal get cold feet about.

■ think something over consider, contemplate, deliberate about, weigh up, consider the pros and cons of, mull over, ponder, reflect on, muse on, ruminate on.

■ think something up devise, dream up, come up with, invent, create, concoct, make up; hit on.

thinker noun theorist, ideologist, philosopher, scholar, savant, sage, intellectual, intellect, mind; informal brain.

thinking adjective he seemed a thinking man: intelligent, sensible, reasonable, rational; logical, analytical; thoughtful, reflective, meditative, contemplative, pensive, philosophical.

—OPPOSITES stupid, irrational.

• noun the thinking behind the campaign: reasoning, idea(s), theory, thoughts, line of thought, philosophy, beliefs; opinion(s), view(s), position, judgement, assessment, evaluation.

thin-skinned adjective sensitive, oversensitive, hypersensitive, easily upset/offended/hurt, touchy, defensive.
—OPPOSITES insensitive.

third-rate adjective substandard, bad, inferior, poor, poor-quality, low-grade, inadequate, unsatisfactory, unacceptable; appalling, abysmal, atrocious, awful, terrible, dreadful, execrable, frightful, miserable, wretched, pitiful; jerry-built, shoddy, tinny, trashy; N. Amer. cheapjack; informal lousy, diabolical, rotten, dire, bum, crummy, rubbishy; Brit. informal ropy, duff, pants.

—OPPOSITES excellent.

thirst noun 1 I need a drink—I'm dying of thirst: thirstiness, dryness; dehydration; Medicine polydipsia; old use drought. 2 his thirst for knowledge: craving, desire, longing, yearning, hunger, hankering, keenness, eagerness, lust, appetite; informal yen, itch; old use appetency.

• verb she thirsted for power: crave, want, covet, desire, hunger for, lust after, hanker after, have one's heart set on; wish, long.

thirsty adjective 1 the boys were hot and thirsty: longing for a drink, dry, dehydrated; informal parched, gasping; Brit. informal spitting feathers; Austral./NZ informal spitting chips.

2 the thirsty soil: dry, arid, dried up/out, as dry as a bone, parched, baked, desiccated.

3 she was thirsty for power: eager, hungry, greedy, thirsting, craving, longing, yearning, lusting, burning, desirous, hankering; informal itching, dying.

thorn noun prickle, spike, barb, spine.

thorny adjective 1 dense thorny undergrowth: prickly, spiky, barbed, spiny, sharp; technical spinose, spinous. 2 the thorny subject of confidentiality: problematic, tricky, ticklish, delicate, controversial, awkward, difficult, knotty, tough, taxing, trying, troublesome; complicated, complex, involved, intricate; vexed; informal sticky.

thorough adjective 1 a thorough investigation: rigorous, in-depth, exhaustive, thoroughgoing, minute, detailed, close, meticulous, methodical, careful, complete, comprehensive, full, extensive, widespread, sweeping, all-embracing, all-inclusive. 2 he is slow but thorough: meticulous, scrupulous, assiduous, conscientious, painstaking, punctilious, methodical, careful, diligent, industrious, hard-working. 3 the child is being a thorough nuisance: utter, downright, thoroughgoing, absolute, complete, total, out-and-out, arrant, real, perfect, proper, sheer, unqualified, unmitigated; Brit. informal right; Austral./NZ informal fair.

—OPPOSITES superficial, cursory, careless.

thoroughbred adjective pure-bred, pedigree, pure, pure-blooded.

thoroughfare noun 1 the park is being used as a thoroughfare: thorough route, access route; Brit. informal rat run. 2 the teeming thoroughfares of central London: street, road, roadway, avenue, boulevard, main road, high road, A road, B road; N. Amer. highway, freeway, throughway.

thoroughly adverb 1 we will investigate all complaints thoroughly: rigorously, in depth, exhaustively, from top to bottom, minutely, closely, in detail, meticulously, scrupulously, assiduously, conscientiously, painstakingly, methodically, carefully, comprehensively, fully. 2 she is thoroughly spoilt: utterly, downright, absolutely, completely, totally, entirely, really, perfectly, positively, in every respect, through and through; informal plain, clean.

though conjunction though she smiled bravely, she looked pale and tired: although, even though/if, in spite of the fact that, despite the fact that, notwithstanding (the fact) that, for all that.

• adverb You can't always do that. You can try, though: nevertheless, nonetheless, even so, however, be that as it may, for all that, despite that, having said that; informal still and all.

thought noun 1 what are your thoughts on the matter? idea, notion, opinion, view, impression, feeling, theory; judgement, assessment, conclusion. 2 he gave up any thought of taking a degree: hope, aspiration, ambition, dream; intention, idea, plan, design, aim. 3 it only took a moment's thought: thinking, contemplation, musing, pondering, consideration, reflection, introspection, deliberation, rumination, meditation, brooding, reverie, brown study, concentration; formal cogitation. 4 have you no thought for others? compassion, sympathy, care, concern, regard, solicitude, empathy; consideration, understanding, sensitivity, thoughtfulness, charity.

thoughtful adjective 1 a thoughtful expression: pensive, reflective, contemplative, musing, meditative, introspective, philosophical, ruminative, absorbed, engrossed, rapt, preoccupied, deep/lost in thought, in a brown study, brooding; formal cogitative. 2 how very thoughtful of you! considerate, caring, attentive, understanding, sympathetic, solicitous, concerned, helpful, friendly, obliging, accommodating, neighbourly, unselfish, kind, compassionate, charitable. – OPPOSITES vacant, inconsiderate.

thoughtless adjective 1 I'm so sorry—how thoughtless of me: inconsiderate, uncaring, insensitive, uncharitable, unkind, tactless, undiplomatic, indiscreet, careless. 2 a few minutes of thoughtless pleasure: unthinking, heedless, careless, unmindful, absent-minded, injudicious, ill-adviced, ill-considered, imprudent, unwise, foolish, silly, stupid, reckless, rash, precipitate, negligent, neglectful, remiss. – OPPOSITES considerate, careful.

thousand cardinal number informal K, grand, thou.

WORD LINKS

millennium, millenary a period of a thousand years

t

thrall noun power, clutches, hands, control, grip, yoke, enslavement, subjection, subjugation, tyranny.

thrash verb 1 she thrashed him across the head and shoulders: hit, beat, strike, batter, thump, hammer, pound, rain blows on; assault, attack; cudgel, club, birch; informal wallop, belt, bash, whack, thwack, clout, clobber, slug, tan, biff, bop, sock, beat the living daylight out of, give someone a good hiding. 2 (informal) Newcastle were thrashed 8–1. See TROUNCE. 3 he was thrashing around in pain: flail, writhe, thresh, jerk, toss, twist, twitch.

■ thrash something out 1 it's better if we can thrash out our difficulties first: resolve, settle, sort out, straighten out, iron out, clear up; talk through, discuss, debate, air, ventilate. 2 they tried to thrash out an agreement: work out, negotiate, agree on, bring about, hammer out, produce, effect.

thread noun 1 a needle and thread: cotton, yarn, filament, fibre. 2 (literary) the Thames was a thread of silver below them: streak, strand, stripe, line, strip, seam, vein. 3 she lost the thread of the conversation: train of thought, drift, direction, theme, motif, tenor; storyline, plot.

• verb 1 he threaded the rope through a pulley: pass, string, work, ease, push, poke. 2 she threaded her way through the tables: weave one's way, inch one's way, wind one's way, squeeze one's way, make one's way.

threadbare adjective worn, well worn, old, thin, worn out, holey, moth-eaten, mangy, ragged, frayed, tattered, battered; decrepit, shabby, scruffy, unkempt; having seen better days, falling apart at the seams, falling to pieces; informal tatty, ratty, the worse for wear; N. Amer. informal raggedy.

threat noun 1 Maggie ignored his threats: threatening remark, warning, ultimatum. 2 a possible threat to aircraft: danger, peril, hazard, menace, risk. 3 the company faces the threat of liquidation proceedings: possibility, chance, probability, likelihood, risk; sword of Damocles.

threaten verb 1 how dare you threaten me! menace, intimidate, browbeat, bully, terrorize; make/issue threats to. 2 these events could threaten the stability of Europe: endanger, be a danger/threat to, jeopardize, imperil, put at risk, put in jeopardy. 3 the grey skies threatened snow: herald, bode, warn of, presage, augur, portend, foreshadow, be a harbinger of, indicate, point to, be a sign of, signal, spell; literary foretold. 4 as rain threatened, the party moved indoors: seem likely, seem imminent, be on the horizon, be brewing, be gathering, be looming, be on the way, be impending; hang over someone.

threatening adjective 1 a threatening letter: menacing, intimidating, bullying, frightening, hostile; formal minatory. 2 banks of threatening clouds: ominous, sinister, menacing, dark, black, thunderous.

three cardinal number trio, threesome; triplets.

WORD LINKS

treble, triple, ternary consisting of three parts hat-trick three successes of the same kind tercentenary a three-hundredth anniversary triad a group of three people or things triangle a three-sided figure triathlon an athletic contest consisting of three different events triennial lasting for or recurring every three years trilogy a group of three related novels, plays, or films trimester a period of three months trinity a group of three people or things triptych a painting on three hinged panels triumvirate a group of three powerful people troika a group of three political leaders or managers threesome noun trio, triumvirate, triad, trinity, troika; triplets.

threnody noun lament, dirge, requiem, elegy, monody; Irish keen; Irish & Scottish coronach.

threshold noun 1 the threshold of the church: doorstep, doorway, entrance, entry, door, gate, gateway, portal. 2 the threshold of a new era: start, beginning, commencement, brink, verge, dawn, inception, day one, opening, debut; informal kick-off. 3 the human threshold of pain: lower limit, minimum; Psychology limen.

WORD LINKS

liminal at or on a threshold subliminal (of a mental process) below the threshold of sensation or consciousness first-footer the first person to cross someone's threshold in the New Year thrift noun frugality, economy, economizing, thriftiness, providence, prudence, good management/husbandry, saving, scrimping and saving, abstemiousness, parsimony, penny-pinching.

– OPPOSITES extravagance.

thrifless adjective extravagant, profligate, spendthrift, wasteful, improvident, imprudent, free-spending, prodigal, lavish; immoderate, excessive, reckless, irresponsible. thrifty adjective frugal, economical, sparing, careful with money, provident, prudent, abstemious, parsimonious, penny-pinching; N. Amer. forehanded.

– OPPOSITES extravagant.

thrill noun 1 the thrill of jumping out of an aeroplane: excitement, stimulation, pleasure, tingle; fun, enjoyment, amusement, delight, joy; informal buzz, kick; N. Amer. informal charge. 2 a thrill of excitement ran through her: wave, rush, surge, flash, blaze, stab, dart, throb, tremor, quiver, flutter, shudder.

• verb 1 his words thrilled her: excite, stimulate, arouse, rouse, inspire, delight, exhilarate, intoxicate, stir, electrify, galvanize, move, fire (with enthusiasm), fire someone's imagination; informal give someone a buzz, give someone a kick; N. Amer. informal give someone a charge. 2 he thrilled at the sound of her voice: be/feel excited, tingle; informal get a buzz out of, get a kick out of; N. Amer. informal get a charge out of. 3 shivers of anticipation thrilled through her: rush, race, surge, course, flood, flow, wash, sweep, flash, blaze.

– OPPOSITES bore.

thrilling adjective exciting, stirring, action-packed, rip-roaring, gripping, riveting, fascinating, dramatic, hair-raising; rousing, stimulating, moving, inspiring, inspirational, electrifying, heady, soul-stirring.

– OPPOSITES boring.

thrive verb flourish, prosper, burgeon, bloom, blossom, do well, advance, make strides, succeed, boom.

– OPPOSITES decline, wither.

thriving adjective flourishing, prosperous, prospering, growing, developing, burgeoning, blooming, healthy, successful, booming, profitable, expanding; informal going strong.

– OPPOSITES moribund.

throat noun gullet, oesophagus; windpipe, trachea; maw; informal, dated the red lane; old use throttle, gorge.

WORD LINKS

jugal relating to the throat or neck guttural (of a speech sound) produced in the throat croup, quinsy inflammation of the throat diphtheria a serious infectious disease causing inflammation of the throat throaty adjective gravelly, husky, rough, guttural, deep, thick, gruff, growly, growling, hoarse, croaky, croaking; rasping, raspy.

– OPPOSITES high-pitched.

throb verb her arms and legs throbbed with tiredness: pulsate, beat, pulse, palpitate, pound, thud, thump, drum, thrum, vibrate, pitter-patter, go pit-a-pat, quiver.

• noun the throb of the ship's engines:

pulsation, beat, beating, pulse, palpitation, pounding, thudding, thumping, drumming, thrumming, pit-a-pat, pitter-patter.

throes plural noun the throes of childbirth: agony, pain, pangs, suffering, torture; literary travail.

■ in the throes of in the middle of, in the process of, in the midst of, busy with, occupied with, taken up with/by, involved in; struggling with, wrestling with, grappling with.

thrombosis noun blood clot, embolism, embolus, thrombus, infarction.

throne noun the tsar risked losing his throne: sovereign power, sovereignty, rule, dominion.

throng noun thongs of people blocked her way: crowd, horde, mass, multitude, host, army, herd, flock, drove, swarm, sea, troupe, pack, press, crush; collection, company, gathering, assembly, assemblage, congregation; informal gaggle, bunch, gang; old use roul.

• verb 1 the pavements were thronged with tourists: fill, crowd, pack, cram, jam. 2 people thronged to see the play: flock, stream, swarm, troop. 3 visitors thronged round him: crowd, cluster, mill, swarm, congregate, gather.

throttle verb 1 he tried to throttle her: choke, strangle, strangulate, garrote. 2 attempts to throttle the criminal supply of drugs: suppress, inhibit, stifle, control, restrain, check, contain, put a/the lid on; stop, put an end to, end, stamp out.

through preposition 1 we drove through the tunnel: into and out of, to the other/far side of, from one side to the other of. 2 he got the job through an advertisement: by means of, by way of, by dint of, via, using, thanks to, by virtue of, as a result of, as a consequence of, on account of, owing to, because of. 3 he worked through the night: throughout, all through, for the duration of, until/to the end of.

• adverb 1 as soon as we opened the gate they came streaming through: from one side to the other, from one end to another, in and out the other side. 2 I woke up, but Anthony slept through: the whole time, all the time, from start to finish, without a break, without an interruption, non-stop, continuously, throughout.

• adjective a through train: direct, non-stop. ■ through and through in every respect, to the core; thoroughly, utterly, absolutely, completely, totally, wholly, fully, entirely, unconditionally, unreservedly, altogether, out-and-out.

throughout preposition 1 it had repercussions throughout Europe: all over, in every part of, everywhere in, all through, right through, all round. 2 Rose had generally been very fit throughout her life: all through, all, for the duration of, for the whole of, until the end of.

throw verb 1 she threw the ball back: hurl, toss, fling, pitch, cast, lob, launch, catapult, project, propel; bowl; informal chuck, heave, sling, bung; N. Amer. informal peg; Austral. informal hoy; NZ informal bish; dated shy. 2 he threw the door open: push, thrust, fling, bang, force. 3 a chandelier threw its light over the walls: cast, send, give off, emit, radiate, project. 4 he threw another punch: deliver, give, land. 5 she threw a withering glance at him: direct, cast, send, dart, shoot. 6 the horse threw his rider: unseat, dislodge. 7 his question threw me: disconcert, unnerve, fluster, ruffle, agitate, discomfit, put off, throw off balance, discountenance, unsettle, confuse; informal rattle, faze; N. Amer. informal discombobulate. 8 the pots were thrown on a wheel: shape, form, mould, fashion. 9 he threw a farewell party for them: give, host, hold, have, provide, put on, lay on, arrange, organize.

• noun 1 we were allowed two throws each: lob, pitch; go; bowl, ball. 2 (informal) drinks are only £1 a throw: each, apiece, per item.

■ throw something away 1 she hated throwing old clothes away: discard, throw out, dispose of, get rid of, do away with, toss out, scrap, throw on the scrap heap, clear out, dump, jettison; informal chuck (away/out), ditch, bin, junk, get shut of; Brit. informal get shot of. 2 Cambridge threw away a 15-0 lead: squander, waste, fritter away, fail to exploit, lose, let slip; informal blow, throw something down the drain.

■ throw someone off shake off, get away from, escape, elude, give someone the slip, throw off the scent, dodge, lose.

■ throw someone out expel, eject, evict, drive out, force out, oust, remove; get rid of, depose, topple, unseat, overthrow, bring down, overturn, dislodge, displace, supplant, show someone the door; banish, deport, exile; informal boot out, kick out, give someone the boot; Brit. informal turf out.

■ throw something out 1 throw out food that's past its sell-by date. See THROW SOMETHING AWAY sense 1. 2 his case was thrown out by the magistrate: reject, dismiss, turn down, refuse, disallow, veto; informal give the thumbs down to. 3 a thermal light bulb throws out a lot of heat: radiate, emit, give off, send out, diffuse.

■ throw someone over abandon, leave, desert, discard, turn one's back on, cast aside/off; jilt, break up with, finish with, leave in the lurch, leave high and dry; informal dump, ditch, chuck, drop, walk out on, run out on, leave flat, give someone the push/elbow, give someone the big E; literary forsake.

■ throw up (informal). See VOMIT verb sense 1.

■ throw something up give up, abandon, relinquish, resign (from), leave; informal quit, chuck, pack in; Brit. informal jack in.

throwaway adjective 1 throwaway packaging: disposable, non-returnable; biodegradable, photodegradable.

2 throwaway remarks: casual, passing, careless, unthinking, unstudied, unconsidered, offhand.

thrust verb 1 she thrust her hands into her pockets: shove, push, force, plunge, stick, drive, propel, ram, poke. 2 fame had been thrust on him: force, foist, impose, inflict. 3 he thrust his way past her: push, shove, force, elbow, shoulder, barge.

• noun 1 a hard thrust: shove, push, lunge, poke. 2 a thrust by the Third Army: advance, push, drive, attack, assault, onslaught, offensive, charge, sortie, foray, raid, sally, invasion, incursion. 3 only one engine is producing thrust: force, propulsive force, propulsion, power, impetus, momentum. 4 the thrust of the speech: gist, substance, drift, burden, meaning, significance, signification, sense, theme, message, import, tenor.

thrusting adjective ambitious, pushy, forceful, aggressive, assertive, self-assertive, full of oneself, determined, power-hungry. – OPPOSITES meek.

thud noun & verb thump, clunk, clonk, crash, smack, bang; stomp, stamp, clump, clomp; informal wham.

thug noun ruffian, lout, hooligan, bully boy, vandal, hoodlum, gangster, villain, criminal; informal tough, bruiser, heavy, hired gun; Brit. informal rough, bovver boy; N. Amer. informal hood, goon.

thumb noun technical pollex, opposable digit.

• verb 1 he thumbed through his notebook:

leaf, flick, flip, riffle, skim, browse, look.

2 his dictionaries were thumbled and ink-stained: soil, mark, make dog-eared. 3 he was thumbing his way across France: hitch-hike; informal hitch, hitch/thumb a lift.

■ all thumbs (Brit. informal) clumsy, awkward, maladroit, inept, unskilful, heavy-handed, inexpert; informal butterfingers, cack-handed, ham-fisted, having two left feet; Brit. informal all fingers and thumbs; N. Amer. informal Klutzy.

■ thumbs down (informal) rejection, refusal, veto, no, negation, rebuff; informal knock-back.

■ thumbs up (informal) approval, seal of approval, endorsement; permission, authorization, consent, yes, leave, authority, sanction, ratification, licence, dispensation, nod, assent, blessing, rubber stamp, clearance; informal go-ahead, OK, green light, say-so.

thumbnail adjective concise, short, brief, succinct, to the point, compact, crisp, short and sweet, quick, rapid; potted.

thump verb 1 the two men kicked and thumped him: hit, strike, smack, cuff, punch; beat, thrash, batter, belabour, pound, pummel, box someone's ears; informal whack, wallop, bash, biff, bop, lam, clout, clobber, sock, swipe, crown, beat the living daylight out of, give someone a (good) hiding, belt, tan, lay into, let someone have it; Brit. informal stick one on, slosh; N. Amer. informal slug, boff; literary smite. 2 her heart thumped with fright: throb, pound, thud, hammer, pulsate, pulse, pump, palpitate, race, beat heavily.

• noun 1 a well-aimed thump on the jaw: blow, punch, box, cuff, smack; thrashing, hiding; informal whack, thwack, wallop, bash, belt, biff, clout, swipe; Brit. informal slosh; N. Amer. informal boff, slug. 2 she put the box down with a thump: thud, clunk, clonk, crash, smack, bang.

thumping adjective 1 the thumping beat of her heart: thudding, pounding, throbbing, pulsating, banging, hammering, drumming. 2 (informal) a thumping 64 per cent majority | a thumping victory: enormous, huge, massive, vast, tremendous, substantial, prodigious, gigantic, giant, terrific, fantastic, colossal, immense, mammoth, monumental, stupendous; emphatic, decisive, conclusive, striking, impressive, outstanding, notable, memorable, remarkable, extraordinary, resounding, phenomenal; informal whooping, thundering; Brit. informal whacking. • adverb (informal) a thumping good read. See VERY adverb.

thunder noun 1 thunder and lightning: thunderclap, roll/rumble of thunder, crack/crash of thunder; literary thunderbolt. 2 the ceaseless thunder of the traffic: rumble, rumbling, boom, booming, roar, roaring, pounding, thud, thudding, crash, crashing, reverberation. • verb 1 below me the surf thrashed and thundered: rumble, boom, roar, pound, thud, thump, bang; resound, reverberate, beat. 2 he thundered against the evils of the age: rail, fulminate, inveigh, rage; condemn, denounce. 3 'Answer me!' he thundered: roar, bellow, bark, yell, shout, bawl; informal holler.

thundering adjective a thundering noise.

See THUNDEROUS.

• adverb a thundering good read. See VERY adverb.

thunderous adjective very loud, deafening, ear-splitting, tumultuous, booming, roaring, resounding, reverberating, reverberant, ringing, noisy.

thunderstruck adjective astonished, amazed, astounded, staggered, surprised, startled, stunned, shocked, aghast, taken aback, dumbfounded, dumbstruck, stupefied, dazed, speechless; informal flabbergasted; Brit. informal gobsmacked, knocked for six.

thus adverb 1 the studio handled production, thus cutting its costs: consequently, as a consequence, in consequence, so, that being so, therefore, thereby, ergo, accordingly, hence, as a result, for that reason, because of that, on that account. 2 legislation forbids such data being held thus: like that, in that way, so, like so.

thwack verb (informal) hit, strike, slap, smack, cuff, punch, thump; beat, thrash, batter, belabour, pound, pummel, box someone's ears; whip, flog, cane; informal whack, wallop, bash, biff, bop, lam, clout, clobber, sock, swipe, crown, beat the living daylight out of, give someone a (good) hiding, belt, tan, lay into, let someone have it, deck, floor; Brit. informal stick one on, slosh; N. Amer. informal slug, boff; literary smite.

thwart verb foil, frustrate, baulk, stand in the way of, forestall, derail, dash; stop, check, block, prevent, defeat, impede, obstruct, snooker, hinder, hamper; spike someone's guns; informal put paid to, put the kibosh on, do for, stymie; Brit. informal scupper, queer someone's pitch.

– OPPOSITES facilitate.

tic noun twitch, spasm, jerk, tremor.

tick noun 1 put a tick against the item of your choice: mark, stroke; N. Amer. check, check mark. 2 the tick of his watch: ticking, tick-tock, click, clicking, tap, tapping. 3 (Brit. informal) I won't be a tick: moment, second, minute, bit, little while, instant; informal sec, jiffy; Brit. informal mo, two ticks.

• verb 1 tick the appropriate box: put a tick in/against, mark, check off, indicate; N. Amer. check. 2 I could hear the clock ticking: tick-tock, click; tap.

■ in a tick (Brit. informal) (very) soon, in a second, in a minute, in a moment, in a trice, in a flash, shortly, any second, any minute, in no time (at all); N. Amer. momentarily; informal in a sec, in a jiffy, in two shakes (of a lamb's tail), before you can say Jack Robinson; Brit. informal in two ticks, in a mo; N. Amer. informal in a snap; dated directly.

■ tick someone off (Brit. informal).

See REPRIMAND verb.

ticket noun 1 can I see your ticket? pass, authorization, permit; token, coupon, voucher. 2 a price ticket: label, tag, sticker, tab, marker, docket.

tickle verb 1 he tried to tickle her under the chin: stroke, pet, chuck. 2 he found something that tickled his imagination: stimulate, interest, appeal to, arouse, excite. 3 the idea tickled Lewis: amuse, entertain, divert, please, delight; informal tickle someone pink.

ticklish adjective difficult, problematic, tricky, delicate, sensitive, awkward, prickly, thorny, tough; vexed; informal sticky.

tide noun 1 ships come up the river with the tide: tidal flow, ebb and flow, tidewater, ebb, current. 2 the tide of history: course, movement, direction, trend, current, drift, run, turn, tendency, tenor.

■ tide someone over sustain, keep someone going, keep someone's head above water, see someone through; keep the wolf from the door; help out, assist, aid.

tidings plural noun (literary) news, information, intelligence, word, reports, notification, communication, the latest; informal info, the low down.

tidy adjective 1 a tidy room: neat, neat and tidy, as neat as a new pin, orderly, well ordered, in (good) order, well kept, shipshape (and Bristol fashion), in apple-pie order, immaculate, spick and span, uncluttered, straight, trim, spruce. 2 he's a very tidy person: neat, trim, spruce, dapper, well groomed, well turned out; organized, well organized, methodical, meticulous; fastidious; informal natty. 3 (informal) a tidy sum: large, sizeable, considerable, substantial, generous, significant, appreciable, handsome, respectable, decent, goodly; informal not to be sneezed at.

– OPPOSITES messy.

• verb 1 I'd better tidy up the living room: put in order, clear up, sort out, straighten (up), clean up, spruce up. 2 she tidied herself up in the bathroom: groom oneself, spruce oneself up, freshen oneself up, smarten oneself up; informal titivate oneself.

tie verb 1 they tied Max to a chair: bind, tie up, tether, hitch, strap, truss, fetter, rope, chain, make fast, moor, lash, attach, fasten, fix, secure, join, connect, link, couple. 2 he bent to tie his shoelaces: do up, lace, knot. 3 women can feel tied by childcare responsibilities: restrict, restrain, limit, tie down, constrain, trammel, confine, cramp, hamper, handicap, hamstring, encumber, shackle, inhibit; cramp someone's style. 4 a pay deal tied to a productivity agreement: link, connect, couple, relate, join, marry; make conditional on, bind up with. 5 they tied for second place: draw, be equal, be even, be neck and neck.

• noun 1 he tightened the ties of his robe: lace, string, cord, fastening, fastener. 2 a collar and tie: necktie, bow tie, string tie; Brit. bootlace tie. 3 family ties: bond, connection, link, relationship, attachment, affiliation, allegiance, friendship; kinship, interdependence. 4 pets can be a tremendous tie: restriction, constraint, curb, limitation, restraint, hindrance, encumbrance, handicap; obligation, commitment. 5 there was a tie for first place: draw, dead heat, deadlock. 6 (Brit.) Turkey's World Cup tie against Holland: match, game, contest, fixture, event.

■ tie someone down she was afraid of being tied down. See tie verb sense 3.

■ tie in be consistent, tally, agree, be in agreement, accord, concur, fit in, harmonize, be in tune, dovetail, correspond, match; informal square; N. Amer. informal jibe.

■ tie someone/something up 1 robbers tied her up and ransacked her home: bind, bind hand and foot, fasten together, truss (up), fetter, chain up. 2 he is tied up in meetings all morning: occupy, engage, keep busy.

3 they were anxious to tie up the contract: finalize, conclude, complete, finish off, seal, set the seal on, settle, secure, clinch; informal wrap up.

tie-in noun connection, link, association, correlation, tie-up, interrelation, relationship, relation, interconnection; parallel, similarity.

tier noun 1 tiers of empty seats: row, rank, bank, line; layer, level. 2 the most senior tier of management: grade, level, echelon, rung on the ladder.

tiff noun (informal) quarrel, squabble, argument, disagreement, fight, falling-out, difference of opinion, dispute, wrangle, altercation, contretemps, disputation, shouting match; informal slanging match, run-in, spat, set-to; Brit. informal barney, row, bust-up.

tight adjective 1 a tight grip: firm, fast, secure, fixed, clenched. 2 the rope was pulled tight: taut, rigid, stiff, tense, stretched, strained. 3 tight jeans: tight-fitting, close-fitting, narrow, figure-hugging, skintight; informal sprayed on. 4 a tight mass of fibres: compact, compacted, compressed, dense, solid. 5 a tight space: small, tiny, narrow, limited, restricted, confined, cramped, constricted, uncomfortable. 6 the joint will be perfectly tight against petrol leaks: impervious, impenetrable, sealed, sound, hermetic, watertight, airtight. 7 tight limits on the use of pesticides: strict, rigorous, stringent, tough, rigid, firm, uncompromising. 8 he's in a tight spot: difficult, tricky, delicate, awkward, problematic, worrying, precarious; informal sticky; Brit. informal dodgy. 9 a tight piece of writing: succinct, concise, pithy, incisive, crisp, condensed, well structured, to the point. 10 a tight race: close, even, evenly matched, well matched; hard-fought, neck and neck, nip and tuck. 11 money is a bit tight just now: limited, restricted, in short supply, scarce, depleted, diminished, low, inadequate, insufficient. 12 (informal) he's tight with his money: mean, miserly, parsimonious, niggardly, close-fisted, penny-pinching, cheese-paring, Scrooge-like, close; informal stingy, tight-fisted; N. Amer. informal cheap; formal penurious; old use near. 13 (informal) he came home tight from the pub. See drunk adjective.

– OPPOSITES slack, loose, generous.

tighten verb 1 I tightened up the screws: make tighter, make fast, screw up. 2 he tightened his grip: strengthen, make stronger, harden. 3 she tightened the rope: tauten, make/draw taut, make/draw tight, stretch, strain, stiffen, tense. 4 he tightened his lips: narrow, constrict, contract, compress, screw up, pucker, purse; N. Amer. squinch. 5 security in the area has been tightened up: increase, make stricter, toughen up, heighten, scale up.
– OPPOSITES loosen, slacken, relax.

tight-fisted adjective (informal) mean, miserly, parsimonious, niggardly, close-fisted, penny-pinching, cheese-paring, Scrooge-like, close; informal stingy, tight; N. Amer. informal cheap; formal penurious; old use near.

– OPPOSITES generous.

tight-lipped adjective reticent, uncommunicative, unforthcoming, playing one's cards close to one's chest, close-mouthed, silent, taciturn; informal mum.

– OPPOSITES forthcoming.

till<sup>1</sup> preposition & conjunction he stayed till 7 | I'll stay here till you get back. See UNTIL senses 1, 2.

till<sup>2</sup> noun she counted the money in the till: cash register, cash box, cash drawer, strongbox; checkout, cash desk.

till<sup>3</sup> verb he went back to tilling the land: cultivate, work, farm, plough, dig, turn over, prepare.

tilt verb 1 the ground seemed to tilt: slope, tip, lean, list, bank, slant, incline, pitch, cant, careen, angle. 2 (historical) he tilts at his prey: charge, rush, run; lunge, thrust, jab. 3 (historical) knights tilting at a tournament: joust, tourney, enter the lists; contend, spar, fight.

• noun 1 a tilt of some 45°: slope, list, camber, gradient, bank, slant, incline, pitch, cant, bevel, angle. 2 (historical) knights would take part in a tilt: joust, tournament, tourney, lists, combat, contest, fight, duel. 3 another tilt at the European Cup: attempt, bid; informal go, crack, shot.

■ (at) full tilt 1 they charged full tilt down the side of the hill: (at) full speed, (at) full pelt, as fast as one's legs can carry one, at a gallop, helter-skelter, headlong, pell-mell, at breakneck speed; informal hell for leather, at the double, a mile a minute, like the wind, like a bat out of hell, like a scalded cat, like (greased) lightning; Brit. informal like the clappers, at a rate of knots, like billy-o; N. Amer. informal lickety-split; literary apace. 2 the marketing blitz has raged at full tilt for some time now: with great force, with full force, full blast, with all the stops out, all out, with a vengeance; informal like crazy, like mad.

timber noun 1 houses built of timber: wood; N. Amer. lumber. 2 the timbers of wrecked ships: beam, spar, plank, batten, lath, board, joist, rafter.

timbre noun tone, tonality, sound, voice, colour, resonance.

time noun 1 what time is it? hour; dated o'clock. 2 late at night was the best time to leave: moment, point (in time), occasion, hour, minute, second, instant, juncture, stage. 3 he worked there for a time: while, spell, stretch, stint, span, season, interval, period (of time), length of time, duration, run, space, phase, stage, term; Brit. informal patch. 4 the time of the dinosaurs: era, age, epoch, period, years, days; generation, date. 5 I've known a lot of women in my time: lifetime, life, life span, days, time on earth, existence, threescore years and ten. 6 he had been a professional actor in his time: heyday, day, best days/years, prime. 7 times are hard at the moment: conditions, circumstances, life, state of affairs, experiences. 8 tunes in waltz time: rhythm, tempo, beat; metre, measure, cadence, pattern.

• verb the meeting was timed for three o'clock: schedule, set, set up, arrange, organize, fix, fix up, book, line up, slot in, prearrange, timetable, plan; N. Amer. slate.

■ ahead of time early, in good time, with time to spare, in advance.

■ ahead of one's/its time revolutionary, avant-garde, futuristic, innovative, innovative, trailblazing, pioneering, groundbreaking, advanced.

■ all the time constantly, the entire time, around the clock, day and night, night and day, {morning, noon, and night}, {day in, day out}, at all times, always, without a break, ceaselessly, endlessly, incessantly, perpetually, permanently, interminably, continuously, continually, eternally, unremittingly, remorselessly, relentlessly; N. Amer. without surcease; informal 24-7.

■ at the same time they arrived at the same time: simultaneously, at the same instant/moment, together, all together, as a group, at once, at one and the same time; in unison, in concert, in chorus, as one.

■ at times occasionally, sometimes, from time to time, now and then, every so often, once in a while, on occasion, off and on, at intervals, periodically, sporadically.

■ behind time late, behind, behind schedule, behindhand, running late, overdue.

■ behind the times old-fashioned, out of date, outmoded, outdated, dated, old, passé; informal square, not with it, out of the ark; N. Amer. informal horse-and-buggy, clunky.

■ for the time being for now, for the moment, for the present, in the interim, for the nonce, in/for the meantime, in the meanwhile, for a short time, briefly; temporarily, provisionally, pro tem; informal for the minute.

■ from time to time occasionally, sometimes, now and then, every so often, once in a while, on occasion, off and on, at intervals, periodically, sporadically.

■ in no time (very) soon, in a second, in a minute, in a moment, in a trice, in a flash, shortly, any second, any minute (now); N. Amer. momentarily; informal in a sec, in a jiffy, in two shakes (of a lamb's tail), before you can say Jack Robinson; Brit. informal in a tick, in two ticks, in a mo; N. Amer. informal in a snap; dated directly.

■ in time 1 I came back in time for the party:

early enough, in good time, punctually, on time, not too late, with time to spare, on schedule. 2 in time, she forgot about it: eventually, in the end, in due course, by and by, finally; one day, some day, sometime, sooner or later.

■ many a time frequently, regularly, often, very often, all the time, habitually, customarily, routinely; again and again, time and again, over and over again, repeatedly, recurrently, continually; N. Amer. oftentimes; literary oft, oft-times.

■ on time punctually, in good time, to/on schedule, when expected; informal on the dot, bang on time.

■ time after time repeatedly, frequently, often, again and again, over and over (again), time and (time) again, many times, many a time; persistently, recurrently, constantly, continually; N. Amer. oftentimes; literary oft, oft-times.

WORD LINKS

chronological, temporal relating to time concurrent, simultaneous, synchronous happening at the same time contemporary, contemporaneous existing at the same time chronometer an instrument for measuring time accurately horology the study and measurement of time metronome a musician's device that marks time at a selected rate time-honoured adjective traditional, established, long-established, long-standing, long-lived, age-old, enduring, lasting, tried and tested.

timeless adjective lasting, enduring, classic, ageless, permanent, perennial, abiding, unfailing, unchanging, unvarying, never-changing, changeless, unfading, unending, undying, deathless, immortal, eternal, everlasting, immutable.

– OPPOSITES ephemeral.

timely adjective opportune, well timed, at the right time, convenient, appropriate, expedient, seasonable, felicitous.

– OPPOSITES ill-timed.

timetable noun a bus timetable | I have a very full timetable: schedule, programme, agenda, calendar; list, itinerary.
● verb German lessons were timetabled on Wednesday: schedule, set, arrange, organize, fix, time, line up; N. Amer. slate.

time-worn adjective 1 the carpet was old and time-worn: worn out, worn, well worn, old, tattered, battered, dog-eared, shabby, having seen better days; informal tatty. 2 time-worn faces: old, aged, weathered, lined, wrinkled, hoary. 3 a time-worn aphorism: hackneyed, trite, banal, platitudinous, clichéd, stock, conventional, unoriginal, overused, overworked, tired, stale; informal old hat.

– OPPOSITES new, fresh.

timid adjective easily frightened, fearful, afraid, faint-hearted, timorous, nervous, scared, frightened, cowardly, pusillanimous, lily-livered, spineless; shy, diffident, self-effacing; informal wimpish, wimpy, chicken, gutless.

– OPPOSITES bold.

timorous adjective. See TIMID.

tincture noun 1 tincture of iodine: solution, suspension, infusion, elixir. 2 a tincture of bitterness: trace, note, tinge, touch, suggestion, hint, bit, element, suspicion, soupçon.

tinge verb 1 a mass of white blossom tinged with pink: tint, colour, shade, wash. 2 his optimism is tinged with realism: influence, affect, touch, flavour, colour, modify.

● noun 1 the light had a blue tinge to it: tint, colour, shade, tone, hue. 2 a tinge of cynicism: trace, note, touch, suggestion, hint, bit, scintilla, savour, flavour, element, streak, vein, suspicion, soupçon, tincture.

tingle verb her flesh still tingled from the shock: prickle, sting; tremble, quiver, shiver.

● noun she felt a tingle of anticipation:

prickling, tingling, pricking, sting, stinging; tremor, thrill, quiver, shiver; goose pimples; N. Amer. goosebumps.

tinker verb a workman was tinkering with the engine: fiddle with, adjust, try to mend, play about with; tamper with, interfere with, mess about with, meddle with; informal rearrange the deckchairs on the Titanic; Brit. informal muck about with.

tinkle verb 1 the bell tinkled: ring, jingle, jangle, chime, peal, ding, ping. 2 cool water tinkled in the stone fountain: splash, purl, babble, burble; literary plash.

● noun 1 the tinkle of the doorbell: ring, chime, peal, ding, ping, jingle, jangle, tinninnabulation. 2 the faint tinkle of water: splash, purl, babble, burble; literary plash.

tinny adjective 1 tinny music: jangly, jangling, jingling, jingly. 2 a tinny little car: cheap, cheapjack, poor-quality, inferior, low-grade, gimcrack, shoddy, jerry-built; informal tacky, tatty, rubbishy.

tinsel noun the tinsel of Hollywood:

ostentation, showiness, show, glitter, flamboyance, gaudiness; attractiveness, glamour; informal flashiness, glitz, glitziness, razzle-dazzle, razzmatazz.

● adjective tinsel stardom: ostentatious, showy, glittering, flamboyant, gaudy; informal flash, flashy, over the top, OTT, glitzy, ritz; N. Amer. informal superfly.

tint noun 1 the sky was taking on an apricot tint: shade, colour, tone, hue, tinge, cast, tincture, flush, blush. 2 a hair tint: dye, colourant, colouring, wash; highlights, lowlights.

tiny adjective minute, minuscule, microscopic, nanoscopic, very small, little, mini, diminutive, miniature, scaled down, baby, toy, dwarf, pygmy, Lilliputian; Scottish wee; informal teeny, teeny-weeny, teeny, teeny-weensy, itsy-bitsy, eeny, eeny-weensy, tiddly, pint-sized; Brit. informal titchy; N. Amer. informal little-bitty.

– OPPOSITES huge.

tip<sup>1</sup> noun 1 the tip of the spear: point, end, extremity, head, sharp end, spike, prong, tine, nib. 2 the tips of the mountains: peak, point, top, summit, apex, crown, crest, pinnacle. 3 the sticks have tips fitted to protect them: cap, cover, ferrule.
 • verb mountains tipped with snow: cap, top, crown.

tip<sup>2</sup> verb 1 the boat tipped over: overturn, turn over, topple (over), fall (over); keel over, capsize, turn turtle; Nautical pitchpole. 2 a whale could tip over a small boat: upset, overturn, topple over, turn over, knock over, push over, upend, capsize; informal roll; old use overset. 3 the car tipped to one side: lean, tilt, list, slope, bank, slant, incline, pitch, cant, heel, careen. 4 she tipped the water into the trough: pour, empty, drain, unload, dump, discharge; decant.
 • noun (Brit.) rubbish must be taken to the tip: dump, rubbish dump; Canadian nuisance grounds.

tip<sup>3</sup> noun 1 a generous tip: gratuity, baksheesh; present, gift, reward; Brit. informal dropsy. 2 useful tips: piece of advice, suggestion, word of advice, pointer, recommendation; clue, hint; informal wrinkle, tip-off.

tip-off noun (informal) piece of information, warning, lead, forewarning; hint, clue; advice, information, notification.

tipple verb boys discovered tipping were punished: drink alcohol, drink; informal booze, wet one's whistle, hit the bottle; Brit. informal bevvie; N. Amer. informal bend one's elbow; old use tope.
 • noun (informal) their favourite tippie was claret: alcoholic drink, drink, liquor; informal booze, poison.

tippler noun drinker, imbibor; alcoholic, drunk, drunkard, dipsomaniac, inebriate, sot; informal boozier, alky, lush, barfly, sponge, dipso, wino, soak; Austral./NZ informal hophead; old use toper.

– OPPOSITES teetotaler.

tipsy adjective merry, mellow, slightly drunk; Brit. informal tiddly, squiffy.

– OPPOSITES sober.

tirade noun diatribe, harangue, rant, onslaught, attack, polemic, denunciation, broadside, fulmination, condemnation, censure, criticism, tongue-lashing; informal blast; literary philippic.

tire verb 1 the ascent grew steeper and he began to tire: get tired, weaken, grow weak, flag, droop. 2 the journey had tired him: fatigue, tire out, exhaust, wear out, drain, weary, wash out, overtire, enervate; informal knock out, take it out of, do in, fag out, wear to a frazzle; Brit. informal knacker. 3 they tired of his difficult behaviour: weary, get tired, get sick, get bored; informal get fed up, have had something up to here.

tired adjective 1 you're just tired from travelling: exhausted, worn out, weary, fatigued, dog-tired, bone-tired, ready to drop, drained, enervated, jaded; informal done in, all in, dead beat, shattered, bushed, knocked out, wiped out, bushwhacked; Brit. informal knackered, whacked (out), jiggered; N. Amer. informal pooped, tucked out; Austral./NZ informal stonkered. 2 are you tired of having him here? bored with/by, weary of, sick (and tired) of; informal fed up with, up to here with. 3 tired jokes: hackneyed, overused, overworked, worn out, stale, clichéd, hoary, stock, stereotyped, predictable, unimaginative, unoriginal, uninspired, dull, boring, routine; informal old hat, corny, played out.

– OPPOSITES energetic, lively, fresh.

tiredness noun fatigue, weariness, exhaustion, enervation, inertia; sleepiness, drowsiness, somnolence.

– OPPOSITES energy.

tireless adjective vigorous, energetic, industrious, determined, enthusiastic, keen, zealous, spirited, dynamic, dogged, tenacious, persevering, stout, untiring, unwearying, indefatigable, unflagging.

– OPPOSITES lazy.

tiresome adjective boring, dull, tedious, wearisome, wearing, uninteresting, uneventful, humdrum; annoying, irritating, trying, irksome, vexatious, troublesome; informal aggravating, pesky.

– OPPOSITES interesting, pleasant.

tiring adjective exhausting, wearying, taxing, fatiguing, wearing, enervating, draining; hard, heavy, arduous, strenuous, onerous, uphill, demanding, gruelling; informal killing, murderous; Brit. informal knackerings.

tissue noun 1 living tissue: matter, material, substance; flesh. 2 a box of tissues: paper handkerchief, paper towel; trademark Kleenex. 3 a tissue of lies: web, network, nexus, complex, mass, set, series, chain.

WORD LINKS

histology the branch of biology concerned with tissue structure atrophy the wasting away of body tissue dystrophy a disorder in which body tissue wastes away gangrene, necrosis the death and decay of body tissue sclerosis abnormal hardening of body tissue titanic adjective huge, great, enormous, gigantic, massive, colossal, monumental, mammoth, immense, tremendous, terrific, mighty, stupendous, prodigious, gargantuan, Herculean; informal humongous, whopping, thumping, mega; Brit. informal whacking, ginormous.

titbit noun 1 tasty titbits: delicacy, tasty morsel, dainty, bonne bouche, treat; snack, nibble, savoury, appetizer; informal goody; N. Amer. tidbit. 2 a fascinating titbit: piece of gossip, bit of scandal, piece of information.

tit for tat noun retaliation, reprisal, counter-attack, counterstroke, comeback; revenge, vengeance, retribution, an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, as good as one gets, payback; informal a taste of someone's own medicine.

titillate verb arouse, excite, tantalize, stimulate, stir, thrill, interest, attract, fascinate; informal turn on.

– OPPOSITES bore.

titillating adjective arousing, exciting, stimulating, sexy, thrilling, provocative, tantalizing, interesting, fascinating; suggestive, salacious, lurid; Brit. informal saucy.

– OPPOSITES boring.

titivate verb (informal) she titivated herself in front of the hall mirror: groom, smarten (up), spruce up, freshen up, preen, primp, prink; tidy, arrange; informal doll up, tart up; N. Amer. informal gussy up.

title noun 1 the title of the book: name. 2 the cartoon title: caption, legend, inscription, label, heading, subheading; credit. 3 the company publishes 400 titles a year: publication, work, book, newspaper, paper, magazine, periodical. 4 the title of Duke of Marlborough: designation, name, form of address; epithet, style; rank, office, position; informal moniker, handle; formal appellation, denomination. 5 an Olympic title: championship, crown, first place; laurels, bays, palm. 6 the vendor is obliged to prove his title to the land: ownership, proprietorship, possession, holding, freehold, entitlement, right, claim.

• verb a policy paper titled 'Law and Order': call, entitle, name, dub, designate, style, term; formal denominate.

titter verb & noun giggle, snigger, snicker, tee-hee, chuckle, laugh; informal chortle.

tittle noun. See IOTA.

tittle-tattle noun she would never listen to tittle-tattle: gossip, rumour(s), idle talk, hearsay, whispers, tidbits; scandal; informal dirt, buzz; Brit. informal goss; N. Amer. informal scuttlebutt.

• verb he was tittle-tattling all over the village: gossip, spread rumours, spread gossip, tattle, talk, whisper, tell tales.

titular adjective 1 the titular head of a university: nominal, in title/name only, ceremonial; token, puppet. 2 the work's titular song: eponymous, identifying.

toad noun

WORD LINKS

batrachian, anuran relating to toads

t

toady noun a conniving little toady:

sycophant, fawner, flatterer, creep, crawler, lickspittle; informal bootlicker, yes-man; old use toad-eater.

• verb she imagined him toadying to his rich clients: grovel to, ingratiate oneself with, be obsequious to, kowtow to, pander to, crawl to, truckle to, bow and scrape to, dance attendance on, curry favour with, make up to, fawn on/over; informal suck up to, lick someone's boots, butter up.

toast noun 1 he raised his glass in a toast: tribute, salute, salutation; old use pledge. 2 he was the toast of the West End: darling, favourite, pet, heroine, hero; talk; Brit. informal blue-eyed boy/girl; N. Amer. informal fair-haired boy/girl.

• verb 1 she toasted her hands in front of the fire: warm (up), heat, heat (up). 2 we toasted the couple with champagne: drink (to) the health of, drink to, salute, honour, pay tribute to; old use pledge.

today adverb 1 the work must be finished today: this (very) day, this morning, this afternoon, this evening. 2 the complex tasks demanded of computers today: nowadays, these days, at the present time, in these times, in this day and age, now, currently, at the moment, at present, at this moment in time; in the present climate; N. Amer. presently.

toddle verb 1 the child toddled towards him: totter, teeter, wobble, falter, waddle, stumble. 2 (informal) I toddled down to the quay: amble, potter, wander, meander, stroll, saunter; informal mosey, tootle; N. Amer. informal putter.

to-do noun (informal) commotion, fuss, ado, excitement, agitation, bother, stir, palaver, confusion, disturbance, brouhaha, uproar, furore, storm in a teacup, much ado about nothing; informal hoo-ha, ballyhoo, kerfuffle, song and dance, performance, pantomime; Brit. informal carry-on; N. Amer. informal fuss and feathers.

together adverb 1 friends who work together: with each other, in conjunction, jointly, in cooperation, in collaboration, in partnership, in combination, in league, side by side, hand in hand, shoulder to shoulder, cheek by jowl; in collusion, hand in glove; informal in cahoots. 2 they both spoke together: simultaneously, at the same time, at one and the same time, at once, all together, as a group, in unison, in concert, in chorus, as one, with one accord. 3 I was not able to get up for days together: in succession, in a row, at a time, successively, consecutively, running, straight, on end, one after the other, continuously, without a break, without interruption; informal on the trot.

– OPPOSITES separately.

• adjective (informal) a very together young woman. See LEVEL-HEADED.

toil verb 1 she toiled all night: work hard, labour, exert oneself, slave (away), grind away, strive, work one's fingers to the bone, work like a Trojan/slave, keep one's nose to the grindstone; informal slog away, plug away, peg away, beaver away, work one's socks off, sweat blood; Brit. informal graft; literary travail; old use moil. 2 she began to toil up the cliff path: struggle, trudge, tramp, traipse, slog, plod, trek, footslog, drag oneself; Brit. informal yomp; N. Amer. informal schlep.

– OPPOSITES rest, relax.

• noun a life of toil: hard work, labour, exertion, slaving, drudgery, effort, industry, {blood, sweat, and tears}; informal slog, elbow grease; Brit. informal graft; literary travail; old use moil.

toilet noun 1 he had to go to the toilet: lavatory, WC, water closet, (public) convenience, cloakroom, powder room, urinal, privy, latrine, jakes; N. Amer.

washroom, bathroom, rest room, men's/ladies' room, commode, comfort station; Nautical head; informal little girls'/boys' room, smallest room; Brit. informal loo, bog, the Ladies, the Gents, khazi, lav; N. Amer. informal can, john; Austral./NZ informal dunny; old use closet, garderobe. 2 she had always taken a long time over her toilet: washing, bathing, showering; grooming, dressing, make-up; formal or humorous ablutions; dated toilette.

toile plural noun (literary) trap, net, snare.

token noun 1 a token of our appreciation: symbol, sign, emblem, badge, representation, indication, mark, manifestation, expression, pledge, demonstration, recognition; evidence, proof. 2 he kept the menu as a token of their golden wedding: memento, souvenir, keepsake, reminder, remembrance, memorial. 3 a book token: voucher, coupon. 4 a telephone token: counter, disc, jetton, chip, piece, man. • adjective 1 a one-day token strike: symbolic, emblematic, indicative; peppercorn. 2 the practice now meets only token resistance: perfunctory, slight, nominal, minimal, minor, mild, superficial, inconsequential.

tolerable adjective 1 a tolerable noise level: bearable, endurable, supportable, acceptable. 2 he had a tolerable voice: fairly good, passable, adequate, all right, acceptable, satisfactory, not (too) bad, average, fair; mediocre, middling, ordinary, indifferent, unremarkable, unexceptional; informal OK, so-so, nothing to write home about, no great shakes.

– OPPOSITES unacceptable.

tolerance noun 1 an attitude of tolerance towards other people: acceptance, toleration; open-mindedness, broad-mindedness, forbearance, liberality, liberalism; patience, charity, indulgence, understanding. 2 the plant's tolerance of pollution: endurance, resilience, resistance, immunity. 3 a 1% maximum tolerance in measurement: deviation, variation, play; inaccuracy, imprecision.

tolerant adjective open-minded, forbearing, broad-minded, liberal, unprejudiced, unbiased; patient, long-suffering, understanding, charitable, lenient, indulgent, permissive, free and easy, easy-going, lax.

– OPPOSITES intolerant.

tolerate verb 1 a regime unwilling to tolerate serious dissent: allow, permit, condone, accept, swallow, countenance; formal brook; old use suffer. 2 he couldn't tolerate her moods any longer: endure, put up with, bear, take; stand, support, stomach; informal hack, abide; Brit. informal stick, wear, be doing with.

toleration noun acceptance, tolerance, endurance; forbearance, liberality, open-mindedness, broad-mindedness, liberalism; patience, charity, indulgence, understanding.

toll<sup>1</sup> noun 1 a motorway toll: charge, fee, payment, levy, tariff, tax. 2 the toll of dead and injured: number, count, tally, total, sum total, grand total, sum; record, list, listing.

3 the toll on the environment has been high: adverse effect(s), detriment, harm, damage, injury, hurt; cost, price, loss, disadvantage, suffering, penalty.

toll<sup>2</sup> verb 1 heard the bell toll: ring (out), chime, strike, peal; sound, clang, resound, reverberate; literary knell.

tomb noun burial chamber, sepulchre, mausoleum, vault, crypt, undercroft, catacomb; last/final resting place, grave, barrow, burial mound; dolmen, cromlech; historical charnel house.

WORD LINKS

sepulchral relating to a tomb epitaph an inscription on a tomb tombstone noun gravestone, headstone, stone; memorial, monument.

tome noun volume, book, work, opus, publication, title.

tomfoolery noun silliness, fooling around, clowning, capers, antics, pranks, tricks, buffoonery, skylarking, nonsense, horseplay, mischief, foolishness, foolery; informal larks, shenanigans.

tone noun 1 the tone of the tuba: timbre, sound, sound quality, voice, voice quality, colour, tone colour, tonality. 2 his friendly tone: intonation, tone of voice, modulation, accentuation. 3 the somewhat impatient tone of his letter: mood, air, feel, flavour, note, attitude, character, temper; tenor, vein, drift, gist. 4 a dialling tone: note, signal, beep, bleep. 5 tones of primrose, lavender, and rose: shade, colour, hue, tint, tinge.

• verb the caramel shirt toned well with her cream skirt: harmonize, go, blend, coordinate, team; match, suit, complement.

■ tone something down 1 the colour needs to be toned down a bit: soften, lighten, mute, subdue. 2 the papers refused to tone down their criticism: moderate, modify, modulate, mitigate, temper, dampen, soften, subdue.

tongue noun 1 a foreign tongue: language, dialect, patois, vernacular, mother tongue, native tongue; informal lingo. 2 her sharp tongue: way of speaking, speech, parlance.

WORD LINKS

lingual relating to the tongue

t

tongue-tied adjective lost for words, speechless, unable to get a word out, struck dumb, dumbstruck; mute, dumb, silent; informal mum.

– OPPOSITES loquacious.

tonic noun 1 ginseng can be used as a natural tonic: stimulant, restorative, refresher; informal pick-me-up, bracer; Medicine analeptic. 2 we found the change of scene a tonic: stimulant, boost, fillip; informal shot in the arm, pick-me-up.

too adverb 1 invasion would be too risky: excessively, overly, over, unduly, immoderately, inordinately, unreasonably, extremely, very; informal too-too. 2 he was unhappy, too, you know: also, as well, in addition, additionally, into the bargain, besides, furthermore, moreover, on top of that, to boot.

tool noun 1 garden tools: implement, utensil, instrument, device, apparatus, gadget, appliance, machine, contrivance, contraption; informal gizmo. 2 the beautiful Estella is Miss Havisham's tool: puppet, pawn, creature, cat's paw; minion, lackey; informal stooge.

• verb red leather, tooled in gold: ornament, embellish, decorate, work, cut, chase.

tooth noun fang, tusk; molar, incisor, canine; Zoology denticle; informal gnasher; Brit. informal pearly white.

WORD LINKS

dental relating to teeth dentition the arrangement of the teeth in a particular species occlusion the position of the teeth when the jaws are closed odonontology the scientific study of teeth orthodontics the treatment of irregularities in the teeth

caries tooth decay

plaque a sticky deposit on teeth tartar, scale a hard deposit formed on teeth toothsome adjective tasty, delicious, luscious, mouth-watering, delectable, succulent; tempting, appetizing, inviting; informal scrumptious, yummy, scrummy, finger-licking; Brit. informal moreish.

top noun 1 the top of the cliff: summit, peak, pinnacle, crest, crown, brow, head, tip, apex, vertex. 2 the top of the table: upper part, upper surface, upper layer. 3 the carrots' green tops: leaves, shoots, stem, stalk. 4 the top of the coffee jar: lid, cap, cover, stopper, cork. 5 a short-sleeved top: sweater, jumper, jersey, sweat shirt; T-shirt, shirt; blouse. 6 by 1981 he was at the top of his profession: high point, height, peak, pinnacle, zenith, acme, culmination, climax, crowning point; prime.

– OPPOSITES bottom, base.

• adjective 1 the top floor: highest, topmost, uppermost, upmost. 2 the world's top scientists: foremost, leading, principal, pre-eminent, greatest, best, finest, elite; informal top-notch. 3 the organization's top management: chief, principal, main, leading, highest, highest-ranking, ruling, commanding, most powerful, most important. 4 a top Paris hotel: prime, excellent, superb, superior, choice, select, top-quality, top-tier, top-grade, first-rate, first-class, grade A, best, finest, premier, superlative, second to none; informal A1, top-notch. 5 they are travelling at top speed: maximum, maximal, greatest, utmost.

– OPPOSITES bottom, lowest, minimum.

• verb 1 sales are expected to top £1.3 billion: exceed, surpass, go beyond, better, best, beat, outstrip, outdo, outshine, eclipse, go one better than. 2 their debut CD is currently topping the charts: lead, head, be at the top of. 3 they topped the rise of a mist-shrouded valley: reach the top of, crest, climb, scale, ascend, mount. 4 chocolate mousse topped with cream: cover, cap, coat, smother; finish, garnish.

■ over the top (informal) excessive, immoderate, inordinate, extreme, exaggerated, extravagant, overblown, too much, unreasonable, disproportionate, undue, unwarranted, uncalled for, unnecessary, going too far; informal a bit much, OTT.

■ top something up fill, refill, refresh, freshen, replenish, recharge, resupply; supplement, add to, augment.

topic noun subject, subject matter, theme, issue, matter, point, talking point, question, concern, argument, thesis, text, keynote.

topical adjective current, up to date, up to the minute, contemporary, recent, relevant; newsworthy, in the news.

– OPPOSITES out of date.

topmost adjective 1 the tree's topmost branches: highest, top, uppermost, upmost.

2 the topmost authority on the subject: foremost, leading, principal, premier, prime, top, greatest, best, supreme, pre-eminent, outstanding, most important, main, chief; N. Amer. ranking; informal number-one.

top-notch adjective (informal) first-class, first-rate, top-quality, top-tier, five-star; superior, prime, premier, premium, grade A, superlative, best, finest, select, exclusive, excellent, superb, outstanding, splendid; informal tip-top, A1.

topple verb 1 she toppled over: fall, tumble, overbalance, overturn, tip, keel; lose one's balance. 2 protesters toppled a huge statue: knock over, upset, push over, tip over, upend. 3 a plot to topple the government: overthrow, oust, unseat, overturn, bring down, defeat, get rid of, dislodge, eject.

topsy-turvy adjective 1 a topsy-turvy flag: upside down, the wrong way/side up, inverted. 2 everything in the flat was topsy-turvy: in disarray, in a mess, in a muddle, in disorder, disordered, in chaos, chaotic, disorganized, awry, upside down, at sixes and sevens; informal every which way, higgledy-piggledy.

– OPPOSITES neat.

torch noun 1 an electric torch: lamp, light, flashlight. 2 (historical) a flaming torch: firebrand, brand; historical cresset, flambeau.

• verb (informal) one of the shops had been torched: burn, set fire to, set on fire, set light to, set alight, incinerate, put/set a match to.

torment noun 1 months of mental and emotional torment: agony, suffering, torture, pain, anguish, misery, distress, affliction, trauma, wretchedness; hell, purgatory. 2 it was a torment to see him like that: ordeal, affliction, scourge, curse, plague, bane, thorn in someone's side/flesh, cross to bear; sorrow, tribulation, trouble.

• verb 1 she was tormented by shame: torture, afflict, rack, harrow, plague, haunt, distress, agonize. 2 she began to torment the two younger boys: tease, taunt, bait, harass, provoke, goad, plague, bother, trouble, persecute; informal needle.

torn adjective 1 a torn shirt: ripped, rent, cut, slit; ragged, tattered, in tatters, in-ribbons.

2 she was torn between the two options:

wavering, vacillating, irresolute, dithering, uncertain, unsure, undecided, in two minds.

tornado noun whirlwind, windstorm, cyclone, typhoon, storm, hurricane; N. Amer. informal twister.

torpid adjective lethargic, sluggish, inert, inactive, slow, lifeless; languid, listless, lazy, idle, indolent, slothful, supine, passive, apathetic, somnolent, sleepy, weary, tired.

– OPPOSITES energetic.

torpor noun lethargy, sluggishness, inertia, inactivity, lifelessness, listlessness, languor, lassitude, laziness, idleness, indolence, sloth, accidia, passivity, somnolence, weariness, sleepiness.

torrent noun 1 a torrent of water: flood, deluge, inundation, spate, cascade, rush, stream, current, flow, overflow, tide.

2 a torrent of abuse: outburst, outpouring, stream, flood, volley, barrage, tide, spate.

– OPPOSITES trickle.

torrential adjective copious, heavy, teeming, severe, relentless, violent.

torrid adjective 1 a torrid summer: hot, dry, scorching, searing, blazing, blistering, sweltering, burning; informal boiling (hot), baking (hot), sizzling. 2 a torrid affair: passionate, ardent, lustful, amorous; informal steamy, sizzling, hot.

– OPPOSITES cold.

tortuous adjective 1 a tortuous route: twisting, twisty, twisting and turning, winding, windy, zigzag, sinuous, snaky, meandering, serpentine. 2 a tortuous argument: convoluted, complicated, complex, labyrinthine, involved, confusing, difficult to follow, lengthy, overlong.

– OPPOSITES straight, straightforward.

torture noun 1 the torture of political prisoners: abuse, ill-treatment, maltreatment, persecution. 2 the torture of losing a loved one: torment, agony, suffering, pain, anguish, misery, distress, heartbreak, affliction, trauma, wretchedness; hell, purgatory.

• verb 1 the security forces routinely tortured suspects: inflict pain on, ill-treat, abuse, mistreat, maltreat, persecute; informal work over, give someone the works. 2 he was tortured by grief: torment, rack, afflict, harrow, plague, agonize, crucify.

toss verb 1 he tossed his tools into the boot: throw, hurl, fling, sling, cast, pitch, lob, propel, project, launch; informal heave, chuck, bung; dated shy. 2 he tossed a coin and it landed heads up: flip, flick, spin. 3 the ship tossed about on the waves: pitch, lurch, rock, roll, plunge, reel, list, keel, sway, wallow, make heavy weather. 4 toss the salad ingredients together: shake, stir, turn, mix, combine.

tot<sup>1</sup> noun 1 the tot looks just like her mum: infant, baby, toddler, tiny tot, child, little one, mite; Scottish bairn, wean. 2 a tot of rum:

dram, drink, nip, drop, slug; informal shot, finger, snifter.

tot<sup>2</sup> verb 1 he totted up some figures: add, total, count, calculate, compute, reckon, tally. 2 we've totted up 89 victories: accumulate, build up, amass, accrue.

total adjective 1 the total cost: entire, complete, whole, full, comprehensive, combined, aggregate, gross, overall.

2 a total disaster: complete, utter, absolute, thorough, perfect, downright, out-and-out, outright, thoroughgoing, all-out, sheer, arrant, positive, prize, rank, unmitigated, unqualified; Brit. informal right, proper.

– OPPOSITES partial.

• noun a total of £160,000: sum, sum total, grand total, aggregate; whole, entirety, totality.

• verb 1 the prize money totalled £33,050: add up to, amount to, come to, run to, make, work out as. 2 he totalled up his score: add (up), count, reckon, tot up, compute, work out.

totalitarian adjective autocratic, undemocratic, one-party, dictatorial, tyrannical, despotic, fascist, oppressive, repressive, illiberal; authoritarian, autarchic, absolute, absolutist.

– OPPOSITES democratic.

totality noun entirety, whole, total, aggregate, sum, sum total; all, everything.

totally adverb completely, entirely, wholly, thoroughly, fully, utterly, absolutely, perfectly, unreservedly, unconditionally, quite, altogether, downright; in every way, in every respect, one hundred per cent, every inch, to the hilt; informal dead, deadly.

– OPPOSITES partly.

totter verb 1 he tottered off down the road: teeter, walk unsteadily, stagger, wobble, stumble, shuffle, shamble, toddle; reel, sway, roll, lurch. 2 the foundations began to heave and totter: shake, sway, tremble, quiver, teeter, shudder, judder, rock, quake.

touch verb 1 his shoes were touching the end of the bed: be in contact with, come into contact with, meet, join, connect with, converge with, be contiguous with, be against. 2 he touched her cheek: press lightly, tap, pat; feel, stroke, fondle, caress, pet; brush, graze. 3 sales touched twenty grand last year: reach, attain, come to, make; rise to, soar to; sink to, plummet to; informal hit. 4 nobody can touch him when he's on form: compare with, be on a par with, equal, match, be a match for, be in the same class/league as, parallel, rival, come/get close to, measure up to; better, beat; informal hold a candle to. 5 you're not supposed to touch the computer: handle, hold, pick up, move; meddle with, play about with, fiddle with, interfere with, tamper with, disturb, lay a finger on; use, employ, make use of. 6 state companies which have been touched by privatization: affect, have an effect/impact on, make a difference to. 7 Lisa felt touched by her kindness: affect, move, tug at someone's heartstrings; leave an impression on, have an effect on.

• noun 1 her touch on his shoulder: tap, pat; stroke, caress; brush, graze. 2 his political touch: skill, skilfulness, expertise, dexterity, deftness, adroitness, adeptness, ability, talent, flair, facility, proficiency, knack, technique, approach, style. 3 there was a touch of bitterness in her voice | add a touch of vinegar: trace, bit, suggestion, suspicion, hint, scintilla, tinge, overtone, undertone; dash, taste, spot, drop, dab, pinch, speck, soupçon. 4 the gas lights are a nice touch: detail, feature, point; addition, accessory. 5 have you been in touch with him? contact, communication, correspondence; connection, association.

■ touch down land, alight, come down, put down, arrive.

■ touch something off 1 he touched off two of the bombs: detonate, set off, trigger, explode. 2 the plan touched off a major political storm: cause, spark off, trigger (off), start, set in motion, ignite, stir up, provoke, give rise to, lead to, generate.

■ touch on 1 many television programmes have touched on the subject: refer to, mention, comment on, remark on, bring up, raise, broach, allude to; cover, deal with. 2 a self-confident manner touching on the arrogant: come close to, verge on, border on, approach.

■ touch someone up (Brit. informal) fondle, molest, feel up; informal grope, paw, maul, goose; N. Amer. informal cop a feel.

■ touch something up 1 these paints are handy for touching up small areas: repaint, retouch, patch up, fix up; renovate, refurbish, revamp; informal do up. 2 touch up your CV and improve your interview skills: improve, enhance, make better, refine; informal tweak.

WORD LINKS

tactile relating to the sense of touch tangible, palpable able to be touched palpate examine a part of the body by touch touch-and-go adjective uncertain, precarious, risky, hazardous, dangerous, critical, suspenseful, cliffhanging, hanging by a thread.

– OPPOSITES certain.

touched adjective 1 he was visibly touched by their plight: affected, moved. 2 (informal) her mother was a bit touched. See MAD sense 1.

touching adjective moving, affecting, heart-warming, emotional, emotive, tender, sentimental; poignant, sad, tear-jerking.

touchstone noun criterion, standard, yardstick, benchmark, barometer, litmus test; measure, point of reference, norm, gauge, test, guide, exemplar, model, pattern.

touchy adjective 1 she can be so touchy: sensitive, oversensitive, hypersensitive, easily offended, thin-skinned, highly strung, tense; irritable, tetchy, testy, crotchety, peevish, querulous, bad-tempered, petulant, pettish; informal snappy, ratty; N. Amer. informal cranky. 2 a touchy subject: delicate, sensitive, tricky, ticklish, embarrassing, awkward, difficult; contentious, controversial.

– OPPOSITES affable.

tough adjective 1 tough leather gloves: durable, strong, resilient, sturdy, rugged, solid, stout, hard-wearing, long-lasting, heavy-duty, well built, made to last. 2 the steak was tough: chewy, leathery, gristly, stringy, fibrous. 3 he'll survive—he's pretty tough: robust, resilient, strong, hardy, rugged, fit; informal hard, (as) tough as old boots; dated stalwart. 4 tough sentencing for persistent offenders: strict, stern, severe, stringent, rigorous, hard, firm, hard-hitting, uncompromising; unsentimental, unsympathetic. 5 the training was pretty tough: arduous, onerous, strenuous, gruelling, exacting, difficult, demanding, hard, heavy, taxing, tiring, exhausting, punishing, laborious, stressful, Herculean; old use toilsome. 6 these are tough questions for American policy-makers: difficult, hard, knotty, thorny, tricky.

– OPPOSITES soft, weak, easy.

• noun (informal) a gang of toughs: ruffian, thug, hoodlum, hooligan, bully boy; Brit. rough; informal roughneck, heavy, bruiser, gorilla, yahoo; Brit. informal yob, yobbo.

toughen verb 1 the process toughens the wood fibres: strengthen, fortify, reinforce, harden, temper, anneal. 2 measures to toughen up prison discipline: make stricter, make more severe, stiffen, tighten up; informal beef up.

tour noun 1 a three-day walking tour: trip, excursion, journey, expedition, jaunt, outing; trek, safari; old use peregrination.

2 a tour of the factory: visit, inspection, guided tour, walkabout. 3 his tour of duty in Ulster: stint, stretch, period, spell, turn, assignment.

• verb 1 this hotel is well placed for touring Somerset: travel round, explore, holiday in; informal do. 2 the prince toured a local factory: visit, go round, walk round, inspect.

tourist noun holidaymaker, traveller, sightseer, visitor, backpacker, globetrotter, day tripper, tripper; N. Amer. vacationer, vacationist, out-of-towner; Brit. informal grockle.

– OPPOSITES local.

tournament noun 1 a golf tournament: competition, contest, championship, meeting, meet, event, match, fixture.

2 (historical) a knight preparing for a tournament: joust, tourney, tilt; the lists.

tousled adjective untidy, dishevelled, wind-blown, messy, disordered, disarranged, messed up, rumpled, uncombed, ungroomed, tangled, wild, unkempt; informal mussed up.

– OPPOSITES neat, tidy.

tout verb 1 street merchants were touting their wares: peddle, sell, hawk, offer for sale; informal flog. 2 minicab drivers were touting for business: solicit, seek, drum up; ask, petition, appeal, canvas. 3 he's being touted as the next Scotland manager: recommend, speak of, talk of; predict; Brit. tip.

tow verb the car was towed back to the garage: pull, haul, drag, draw, tug, lug.

■ in tow he arrived with his new girlfriend in tow: in attendance, by one's side, in one's charge; accompanying, following.

towards preposition 1 they were driving towards her flat: in the direction of, to; on the way to, on the road to, en route for.

2 towards evening dark clouds gathered: just before, shortly before, near, nearing, around, approaching, close to, coming to, getting on for. 3 her attitude towards politics: with regard to, as regards, regarding, in/with regard to, respecting, in relation to, concerning, about, apropos.

4 a grant towards the cost of new buses: as a contribution to, for, to help with.

tower noun a church tower: steeple, spire; minaret; turret; bell tower, belfry, campanile.

• verb 1 snow-capped peaks towered over the valley: soar, rise, rear; overshadow, overhang, hang over, dominate. 2 he towered over most other theologians of his generation: dominate, overshadow, outshine, outclass, eclipse, be head and shoulders above, put someone/something in the shade.

towering adjective 1 a towering skyscraper: high, tall, lofty, soaring, sky-high, skyscraping, multi-storey; giant, gigantic, enormous, huge, massive; informal ginormous.

2 a towering intellect: outstanding, pre-eminent, leading, foremost, finest, top, surpassing, supreme, great, incomparable, unrivalled, unsurpassed, peerless. 3 a towering rage: extreme, fierce, terrible, intense, overpowering, mighty, violent, vehement, passionate.

town noun urban area, conurbation, municipality; city, metropolis, megalopolis; Brit. borough; Scottish burgh; N. Amer. informal burg.

— OPPOSITES country.

WORD LINKS

civic, municipal, urban relating to a town toxic adjective poisonous, virulent, noxious, dangerous, harmful, injurious, pernicious.

— OPPOSITES harmless.

toy noun 1 a cuddly toy: plaything, game.

2 an executive toy: gadget, device; trinket, knick-knack; informal gizmo.

• adjective 1 a toy gun: model, imitation, replica; miniature. 2 a toy poodle: miniature, small, tiny, diminutive, dwarf, midget, pygmy.

■ toy with 1 I was toying with the idea of writing a book: think about, consider, flirt with, entertain the possibility of; informal kick around. 2 Adam toyed with his glasses: fiddle with, play with, fidget with, twiddle; finger. 3 she toyed with her food: nibble, pick at, peck at, eat listlessly, eat like a bird.

trace verb 1 police hope to trace the owner of the jewellery: track down, find, discover, detect, unearth, turn up, hunt down, ferret out, run to ground. 2 she traced a pattern in the sand with her toe: draw, outline, mark.

3 the analysis traces out the consequences of such beliefs: outline, map out, sketch out, delineate, depict, show, indicate.

• noun 1 no trace had been found of the missing plane: vestige, sign, mark, indication, evidence, clue; remains, remnant, relic, survival. 2 a trace of bitterness crept into her voice: bit, touch, hint, suggestion, suspicion, shadow, whiff; drop, dash, tinge, speck, shred, jot, iota; informal smidgen, tad. 3 the ground was hard and they left no traces: trail, tracks, marks, prints, footprints; spoor.

track noun 1 a gravel track: path, pathway, footpath, lane, trail, route, way, course.

2 the final lap of the track: course, racecourse, racetrack; velodrome; Brit. circuit. 3 he found the tracks of a grey fox: traces, marks, prints, footprints, trail, spoor.

4 Orkney lies on the track of the Atlantic winds: course, path, line, route, way, trajectory. 5 commuters had to walk along the tracks: rail, line, railway line. 6 the album's title track: song, recording, number, piece.

• verb he tracked a bear for 40 km: follow, trail, trace, pursue, shadow, stalk, keep an eye on, keep in sight; informal tail.

■ keep track of monitor, follow, keep up with, keep an eye on; keep in touch with, keep up to date with; informal keep tabs on.

■ track someone/something down discover, find, detect, hunt down/out, unearth, uncover, turn up, dig up, ferret out, bring to light, run to earth, run to ground.

tract<sup>1</sup> noun large tracts of land: area, region, expanse, sweep, stretch, extent, belt, swathe, zone.

tract<sup>2</sup> noun a political tract: treatise, essay, article, paper, work, monograph, disquisition, dissertation, thesis, homily; pamphlet, booklet, leaflet.

tractable adjective malleable, manageable, amenable, pliable, governable, yielding, complaisant, compliant, persuadable, accommodating, docile, biddable, obedient, submissive, meek.

— OPPOSITES recalcitrant.

traction noun grip, purchase, friction, adhesion.

trade noun 1 the illicit trade in stolen cattle: commerce, buying and selling, dealing, traffic, trafficking, business, marketing, merchandising; dealings, transactions. 2 the glazier's trade: craft, occupation, job, career, profession, business, line (of work), métier, vocation, calling, walk of life, field; work, employment.

• verb 1 he made his fortune trading in beaver pelts: deal, buy and sell, traffic, market, merchandise, peddle; informal hawk, flog.

2 the business is trading at a loss: operate, run, do business. 3 I traded the old machine for a newer model: swap, exchange, switch; barter.

■ trade on exploit, take advantage of, capitalize on, profit from, use, make use of; milk; informal cash in on.

WORD LINKS

mercantile relating to trade trademark noun 1 the company's trademark: logo, emblem, sign, mark, stamp, symbol, device, badge, crest, monogram, colophon; trade name, brand name, proprietary name. 2 it had all the trademarks of a Mafia hit: characteristic, hallmark, telltale sign, sign, trait, quality, attribute, feature, peculiarity, idiosyncrasy.

trader noun dealer, merchant, buyer, seller, buyer and seller, marketeer, merchandiser, broker, agent; distributor, vendor, purveyor, supplier, trafficker; shopkeeper, retailer, wholesaler.

tradesman, tradeswoman noun

1 tradesmen standing nonchalantly outside their stores: shopkeeper, retailer, vendor, wholesaler; N. Amer. storekeeper. 2 a qualified tradesman: craftsman, workman, artisan.

tradition noun 1 during a maiden speech, by tradition, everyone keeps absolutely silent: historical convention, unwritten law; oral history, lore, folklore. 2 an age-old tradition: custom, practice, convention, ritual, observance, way, usage, habit, institution; formal praxis.

traditional adjective 1 traditional Christmas fare: long-established, customary, time-honoured, established, classic, accustomed, standard, regular, normal, conventional, usual, orthodox, habitual, set, fixed, routine, ritual; old, age-old; literary wanted. 2 traditional beliefs: handed-down, folk, unwritten, oral.

traduce verb defame, slander, speak ill of, misrepresent, malign, vilify, denigrate, disparage, slur, impugn, smear, besmirch, run down, blacken the name of, cast aspersions on; informal bad-mouth; formal calumniate.

traffic noun 1 the bridge is not open to traffic: vehicles, cars, lorries, trucks. 2 they might be stuck in traffic: traffic jams, congestion, gridlock, tailbacks, hold-ups, queues; informal snarl-ups. 3 the increased use of railways for goods traffic: transport, transportation, freight, conveyancing, shipping. 4 the illegal traffic in stolen art: trade, trading, trafficking, dealing, commerce, business, buying and selling; smuggling, bootlegging, black market; dealings, transactions. 5 (old use) he has little traffic with his neighbours: contact, communication, intercourse, dealings, relations.

•verb he confessed to trafficking in gold and ivory: trade, deal, do business, buy and sell; smuggle, bootleg; informal run.

tragedy noun disaster, calamity, catastrophe, cataclysm, misfortune, reverse, vicissitude, trial, tribulation, affliction, adversity.

tragic adjective 1 a tragic accident: disastrous, calamitous, catastrophic, cataclysmic, devastating, terrible, dreadful, awful, appalling, horrendous; fatal, deadly, mortal, lethal. 2 a tragic tale: sad, unhappy, pathetic, moving, distressing, painful, harrowing, heart-rending, piteous, wretched, sorry; melancholy, doleful, mournful. 3 a tragic waste of talent: dreadful, terrible, awful, deplorable, lamentable, regrettable; formal grievous.

– OPPOSITES fortunate, happy.

trail noun 1 he left a trail of clues | a trail of devastation: series, string, chain, succession, sequence; aftermath. 2 wolves on the trail of their prey: track, spoor, path, scent; traces, marks, signs, prints, footprints. 3 the plane's vapour trail: wake, tail, stream. 4 a trail of ants: line, column, train, file, procession, string, chain, convoy; queue. 5 country parks with nature trails: path, pathway, way, footpath, track, course, route.

•verb 1 her robe trailed along the ground: drag, sweep, be drawn; dangle, hang (down), droop. 2 the roses grew wild, their stems trailing over the banks: hang, droop, fall, spill, cascade. 3 Sharpe suspected that they were trailing him: follow, pursue, track, shadow, stalk, hunt (down); run to earth, run to ground; informal tail. 4 the defending champions were trailing 10–5 at half time: lose, be down, be behind, lag behind. 5 I hate trailing round the shops: trudge, plod, drag oneself, traipse, trek; N. Amer. informal schlep. 6 her voice trailed off: fade, tail off/away, grow faint, die away, dwindle, subside, peter out, fizzle out.

train verb 1 an engineer trained in remote-sensing techniques: instruct, teach, coach, tutor, school, educate, prime, drill, ground; inculcate, indoctrinate. 2 she's training to be a hairdresser: study, learn, prepare, take instruction. 3 with the Olympics in mind, athletes are training hard: exercise, do exercises, work out, get into shape, practise. 4 she trained the gun on his chest: aim, point, direct, level, focus; take aim, zero in on.

•noun 1 the train for London: railway train; baby talk choo-choo. 2 a minister and his train of attendants: retinue, entourage, cortège, following, staff, household, court, suite, attendants, retainers, followers, bodyguards. 3 a train of elephants: procession, line, file, column, convoy, cavalcade, caravan, queue, string, succession. 4 a bizarre train of events: chain, string, series, sequence, succession, set, course, cycle, concatenation.

trainer noun coach, instructor, teacher, tutor; handler.

training noun 1 in-house training for staff: instruction, teaching, coaching, tuition, tutoring, schooling, education; indoctrination, inculcation. 2 four months' hard training before the match: exercise, exercises, working out; practice, preparation.

traipse verb trudge, trek, tramp, trail, plod, drag oneself, slog; Brit. informal trog; N. Amer. informal schlep.

trait noun characteristic, attribute, feature, (essential) quality, property; habit, custom, mannerism, idiosyncrasy, peculiarity, quirk, oddity, foible.

traitor noun betrayer, back-stabber, double-crosser, double-dealer, renegade, Judas, quisling, fifth columnist; turncoat, defector, deserter; collaborator, informer, double agent; informal snake in the grass, two-timer.

traitorous adjective treacherous, disloyal, treasonous, back-stabbing; double-crossing, double-dealing, faithless, unfaithful, two-faced, false-hearted, duplicitous, deceitful, false; informal two-timing; literary perfidious.

– OPPOSITES loyal.

trajectory noun course, path, route, track, line, orbit.

trammel (literary) noun the trammels of tradition: restraint, constraint, curb, check, impediment, obstacle, barrier, handicap, bar, hindrance, encumbrance, disadvantage, drawback, snag, stumbling block; straitjacket, shackles, fetters, bonds.

• verb those less trammelled by convention than himself: restrict, restrain, constrain, hamper, confine, hinder, handicap, obstruct, impede, hold back, hamstring, shackle, fetter.

tramp verb 1 men were tramping through the scrubbery: trudge, plod, stamp, trample, lumber, clump, clomp, stump, stomp; informal traipse, galumph. 2 he spent ten days tramping through the jungle: trek, slog, footslog, trudge, drag oneself, walk, hike, march; informal traipse; Brit. informal yomp; N. Amer. informal schlep.

• noun 1 a dirty old tramp: vagrant, vagabond, homeless person, down-and-out; traveller, drifter, beachcomber; beggar, mendicant; N. Amer. hobo; Austral./NZ bagman; informal bag lady; N. Amer. informal bum. 2 the regular tramp of the sentry's boots: footstep, step, footfall, tread, stamp, stomp. 3 a tramp round Norwich: trek, slog, trudge, hike, march, walk; Brit. informal yomp; N. Amer. informal schlep.

trample verb 1 someone had trampled on the tulips: tread, tramp, stamp, stomp, walk over; squash, crush, flatten. 2 we do nothing but trample over their feelings: treat with contempt, ride roughshod over, disregard, set at naught, show no consideration for, abuse; encroach on, infringe.

trance noun daze, stupor, hypnotic state, half-conscious state, dream; Scottish dwam.

tranquil adjective 1 a wonderfully tranquil village: peaceful, calm, restful, quiet, still, relaxing, undisturbed. 2 Martha smiled, perfectly tranquil: calm, serene, relaxed, unruffled, unperturbed, unflustered, untroubled, composed, {cool, calm, and collected}; equable, even-tempered, placid, phlegmatic; informal unflappable.

– OPPOSITES busy, excitable.

tranquillity noun 1 the tranquillity of the Norfolk countryside: peace, peacefulness, restfulness, repose, calm, calmness, quiet, quietness, stillness. 2 the incident jolted her out of her tranquillity: composure, calmness, serenity; equanimity, equability, placidity; informal cool, unflappability.

tranquillize verb sedate, put under sedation, narcotize, drug.

tranquillizer noun sedative, barbiturate, calmative, sleeping pill, narcotic, opiate; informal trunk, downer.

– OPPOSITES stimulant.

transact verb conduct, carry out, negotiate, do, perform, execute, take care of; settle, conclude, finish, clinch, accomplish.

transaction noun 1 property transactions: deal, business deal, undertaking, arrangement, bargain, negotiation, agreement, settlement; proceedings. 2 the transactions of the Historical Society: proceedings, report, record(s), minutes, account; archives. 3 the transaction of government business: conduct, carrying out, negotiation, performance, execution.

transcend verb 1 an issue that transcended party politics: go beyond, rise above, cut across. 2 his military exploits far transcended those of his predecessors: surpass, exceed, beat, top, cap, outdo, outclass, outstrip, leave behind, outshine, eclipse, overshadow, throw into the shade, upstage.

transcendence noun excellence, supremacy, incomparability, matchlessness, peerlessness, magnificence.

transcendent adjective 1 the search for a transcendent level of knowledge: mystical, mystic, transcendental, spiritual; metaphysical. 2 a transcendent genius: incomparable, matchless, peerless, unrivalled, inimitable, beyond compare/ comparison, unparalleled, unequalled, without equal, second to none, unsurpassed, unsurpassable, nonpareil; exceptional, consummate, unique, perfect, rare, surpassing, magnificent; formal unexampled.

transcendental adjective. See TRANSCENDENT sense 1.

transcribe verb 1 each interview was taped and transcribed: write out, copy out, put in writing, put on paper. 2 a person who can take and transcribe shorthand: transliterate, interpret, translate.

transcript noun written version, printed version, text, transliteration, record, reproduction.

transfer verb 1 the hostages were transferred to a safe house: move, convey, take, bring, shift, remove, carry, transport; transplant, relocate, resettle. 2 the property was transferred to his wife: hand over, pass on, make over, turn over, sign over, consign, devolve, assign, delegate.

• noun he died shortly after his transfer to hospital: move, conveyance, transfer, transference, relocation, removal, transplantation.

transfigure verb transform, transmute, change, alter, metamorphose; humorous transmogrify.

transfix verb 1 he was transfixed by the images on the screen: mesmerize, hypnotize, spellbind, bewitch, captivate, entrance, enthral, fascinate, enrapture, grip, rivet; root to the spot, paralyse. 2 a field mouse is transfixed by the owl's curved talons: impale, stab, spear, pierce, spike, skewer, gore, stick,

t

run through; literary transpierce.

transform verb change, alter, convert, metamorphose, transfigure, transmute; revolutionize, overhaul; remodel, reshape, remould, redo, reconstruct, rebuild, reorganize, rearrange, rework, renew, revamp, remake; humorous transmogrify.

transformation noun change, alteration, conversion, metamorphosis, transfiguration, transmutation, sea change; revolution, overhaul; remodelling, reshaping, remoulding, redoing, reconstruction, rebuilding, reorganization, rearrangement, reworking, renewal, revamp, remaking; humorous transmogrification.

transgress verb 1 if they transgress the punishment is harsh: misbehave, behave badly, break the law, err, fall from grace, stray from the straight and narrow, sin, do wrong, go astray; old use trespass. 2 she had transgressed an unwritten social law: infringe, breach, contravene, disobey, defy, violate, break, flout.

transgression noun 1 a punishment for past transgressions: offence, crime, sin, wrong, wrongdoing, misdemeanour, misdeed, lawbreaking; error, lapse, fault; old use trespass. 2 Adam's transgression of God's law: infringement, breach, contravention, violation, defiance, disobedience, non-observance.

transgressor noun wrongdoer, offender, miscreant, lawbreaker, criminal, villain, felon, malefactor, guilty party, culprit; sinner, evildoer; old use trespasser.

transient adjective transitory, temporary, short-lived, short-term, ephemeral, impermanent, brief, short, momentary, fleeting, passing, fugitive, here today and gone tomorrow; literary evanescent.

— OPPOSITES permanent.

transit noun the transit of goods between states: transport, transportation, movement, conveyance, shipment, haulage, freightage, carriage, transfer.

■ in transit en route, on the journey, on the way, along/on the road, during transport.

transition noun change, passage, move, transformation, conversion, metamorphosis, alteration, changeover, shift, switch, jump, leap, progression, progress, development, evolution.

transitional adjective 1 a transitional period: intermediate, interim, changeover; changing, fluid, unsettled. 2 the transitional government: interim, temporary, provisional, pro tem, acting, caretaker.

transitory adjective transient, temporary, brief, short, short-lived, short-term, impermanent, ephemeral, momentary, fleeting, passing, fugitive, here today and gone tomorrow; literary evanescent.

— OPPOSITES permanent.

translate verb 1 the German original had been translated into English: render, put, express, convert, change; transcribe, transliterate. 2 be prepared to translate the jargon into normal English: render, paraphrase, reword, rephrase, convert, decipher, decode, gloss, explain.

3 interesting ideas cannot always be translated into effective movies: change, convert, transform, alter, adapt, turn, transmute; humorous transmogrify. 4 in 1228 the bishop was translated from Salisbury to Durham: relocate, transfer, move, remove, shift, transplant.

translation noun 1 the translation of the Bible into English: rendition, rendering, conversion; transcription, transliteration. 2 the translation of these policies into practice: conversion, change, transformation, alteration, adaptation, transmutation; humorous transmogrification.

translucent adjective semi-transparent, pellucid, limpid, clear; diaphanous, gossamer, sheer.

— OPPOSITES opaque.

transmission noun 1 the transmission of knowledge and culture: transference, transferral, communication, conveyance; dissemination, spreading, circulation. 2 the transmission of the film: broadcasting, relaying, airing, televising. 3 a live transmission: broadcast, programme, show.

transmit verb 1 the use of computers to transmit information: transfer, pass on, hand on, communicate, convey, impart, channel, carry, relay, dispatch; disseminate, spread, circulate. 2 the programme will be transmitted on Sunday: broadcast, relay, send out, air, televise.

transmute verb change, alter, adapt, transform, convert, metamorphose, translate; humorous transmogrify.

transparency noun 1 the transparency of the glass: translucency, limpidity, glassiness, clearness, clarity. 2 colour transparencies: slide, diapositive.

transparent adjective 1 transparent blue water: clear, crystal clear, see-through, translucent, pellucid, limpid, glassy. 2 fine transparent fabrics: see-through, sheer, filmy, gauzy, diaphanous. 3 the symbolism of this myth is transparent: obvious, unambiguous, unequivocal, clear, crystal clear, plain, (as) plain as the nose on your face, apparent, unmistakable, manifest, conspicuous, patent, palpable, indisputable, evident, self-evident, undisguised, un concealed.

— OPPOSITES opaque, obscure.

transpire verb 1 it transpired that her family had moved away: become known, emerge, come to light, be revealed, turn out, come out, be discovered, prove to be the case. 2 I'm going to find out exactly what transpired: happen, occur, take place, arise, come about, turn up, chance, befall; literary come to pass.

transplant verb 1 it was proposed to transplant the club to the vacant site: transfer, move, remove, shift, relocate, take. 2 the seedlings should be transplanted in larger pots: replant, repot, relocate.

3 kidneys must be transplanted within 48 hours of removal: transfer, implant.

transport verb 1 the concrete blocks were transported by lorry: convey, carry, take, transfer, move, shift, send, deliver, bear, ship, ferry; informal cart. 2 he was convicted of theft and transported: banish, exile, deport, expatriate, extradite. 3 she was completely transported by the excitement: thrill, delight, carry away, enrapture, entrance, enchant, enthrall, electrify, captivate, bewitch, fascinate, spellbind, charm; informal send; literary ravish.

• noun 1 alternative forms of transport: conveyance, transportation; vehicle. 2 the transport of crude oil: transportation, conveyance, carriage, freight, freightage, shipment, shipping, haulage; transit.

3 transports of delight: rapture, ecstasy, elation, exaltation, exhilaration, euphoria, bliss, seventh heaven, heaven, paradise, high; passion, strong feeling/emotion; informal cloud nine.

transpose verb 1 the blue and black plates were transposed: interchange, exchange, switch, swap (round), reverse, invert. 2 the themes are transposed from the sphere of love to that of work: transfer, shift, relocate, transplant, move, displace.

transverse adjective crosswise, crossways, cross, horizontal, diagonal, oblique.

trap noun 1 an animal caught in a trap: snare, net, mesh, gin, spring; N. Amer. deadfall. 2 the question was set as a trap: trick, ploy, ruse, deception, subterfuge; booby trap; informal set-up. 3 (informal) shut your trap! See MOUTH noun sense 1.

• verb 1 police trapped the two men, who admitted blackmail: snare, entrap, ensnare, lay a trap for; capture, catch, corner, ambush; old use ambuscade. 2 a rat trapped in a barn: confine, cut off, corner, shut in, pen in, hem in; imprison, hold captive. 3 I hoped to trap him into an admission: trick, dupe, deceive, lure, inveigle, beguile, fool, hoodwink; catch out, trip up.

trappings plural noun accessories, accoutrements, appurtenances, trimmings, frills, accompaniments, extras, ornamentation, adornment, decoration; regalia, panoply, paraphernalia, apparatus, finery, equipment, gear, effects, things.

trash noun 1 (N. Amer.) the subway entrance was blocked with trash: rubbish, refuse, waste, litter, junk, detritus; N. Amer. garbage. 2 (informal) if they read at all, they read trash: rubbish, nonsense, trivia, pulp (fiction), pap; N. Amer. garbage; informal drivel, dreck. 3 (informal) they're just trash: scum, vermin, the dregs of society, the scum of the earth, the lowest of the low; informal dirt.

• verb (N. Amer. informal) 1 the apartment had been totally trashed: wreck, ruin, destroy, wreak havoc on, devastate; vandalize; informal total. 2 his play was trashed by the critics. See LAMBASTE.

trauma noun 1 the trauma of divorce: shock, upheaval, distress, stress, strain, pain, anguish, suffering, upset, agony, misery, sorrow, grief, heartache, heartbreak, torture; ordeal, trial, tribulation, trouble, worry, anxiety; nightmare. 2 the trauma to the liver: injury, damage, wound; cut, laceration, lesion, abrasion, contusion.

traumatic adjective disturbing, shocking, distressing, upsetting, heartbreaking, painful, agonizing, hurtful, stressful, damaging, injurious, harmful, awful, terrible, devastating, harrowing.

travail (literary) noun 1 years of bitter travail: ordeals, trials, tribulations, trials and tribulations, trouble, hardship, privation, stress; drudgery, toil, slog, effort, exertion, labour, work, endeavour, sweat, struggle. 2 a woman in travail: labour, childbirth; contractions, labour pains; old use childbed.

travel verb 1 he spent much of his time travelling abroad: journey, tour, take a trip, voyage, go sightseeing, globetrot, backpack; informal gallivant; old use peregrinate. 2 we travelled the length and breadth of the island: journey through, cross, traverse, cover; roam, rove, range, trek. 3 light travels faster than sound: move, be transmitted.

• noun he amassed great wealth during his travels: journeys, expeditions, trips, tours, excursions, voyages, treks, safaris, explorations, wanderings, odysseys, pilgrimages, jaunts; travelling, touring, sightseeing, backpacking, globetrotting; informal gallivanting; old use peregrinations.

traveller noun 1 thousands of travellers were left stranded: tourist, tripper, holidaymaker, sightseer, visitor, globetrotter, backpacker; pilgrim; passenger, commuter, fare; N. Amer. vacationer, vacationist. 2 a travellers' site: Gypsy, Romany, tzigane; nomad, migrant, wanderer, itinerant, drifter; tramp, vagrant; dialect didicoi; Brit. derogatory tinker.

travelling adjective 1 the travelling population: nomadic, itinerant, peripatetic, wandering, roaming, roving, wayfaring, migrant, vagrant, of no fixed address/abode; Gypsy, Romany. 2 a little travelling clock: portable, easily carried, easy to carry, lightweight, compact.

traverse verb 1 he traversed the deserts of Persia: travel over/across, cross, journey over/across, pass over; cover; ply; wander, roam, range. 2 a ditch traversed by a wooden bridge: cross, bridge, span; extend across, lie across, stretch across.

travesty noun a travesty of justice: misrepresentation, distortion, perversion, corruption, poor imitation, poor substitute, mockery, parody, caricature; farce, charade, pantomime, sham; informal apology for, excuse for.

treacherous adjective 1 her treacherous brother betrayed her: traitorous, disloyal, faithless, unfaithful, duplicitous, false-hearted, deceitful, false, back-stabbing, double-crossing, double-dealing, two-faced, untrustworthy, unreliable; apostate, renegade; informal two-timing; literary perfidious. 2 treacherous driving conditions:

dangerous, hazardous, perilous, unsafe, precarious, risky, deceptive, unreliable; informal dicey, hairy.

– OPPOSITES loyal, faithful, reliable.

treachery noun betrayal, disloyalty, faithlessness, unfaithfulness, infidelity, breach of trust, duplicity, deceit, deception, stab in the back, back-stabbing, double-dealing, untrustworthiness; treason; informal two-timing; literary perfidy.

tread verb 1 he trod purposefully down the hall: walk, step, stride, pace, go; march, tramp, plod, stomp, trudge. 2 the snow had been trodden down by the horses: crush, flatten, press down, squash; trample on, tramp on, stamp on, stomp on.

• noun we heard his heavy tread on the stairs: step, footstep, footfall, tramp.

treason noun treachery, lese-majesty; disloyalty, betrayal, faithlessness; sedition, subversion, mutiny, rebellion; high treason; literary perfidy.

– OPPOSITES allegiance, loyalty.

treasonable adjective traitorous, treacherous, disloyal; seditious, subversive, mutinous, rebellious; literary perfidious.

– OPPOSITES loyal.

treasure noun 1 a casket of treasure: riches, valuables, jewels, gems, gold, silver, precious metals, money, cash; wealth, fortune; Brit. treasure trove. 2 art treasures: valuable object, valuable, work of art, objet of vertu, masterpiece. 3 (informal) she's a real treasure: paragon, gem, angel, nonpareil; find, prize; informal star, one of a kind, one in a million, the tops.

• verb I treasure the photographs I took of Jack: cherish, hold dear, prize, set great store by, value greatly; adore, dote on, love dearly, be devoted to, worship.

treasury noun 1 the national treasury: exchequer, purse; bank, coffers; revenues, finances, funds, moneys. 2 the area is a treasury of early fossils: rich source, repository, storehouse, treasure house; fund, mine, bank. 3 a treasury of stories: anthology, collection, miscellany, compilation, compendium.

treat verb 1 Charlotte treated him very badly: behave towards, act towards, use; deal with, handle. 2 police are treating the fires as arson: regard, consider, view, look on; put down as. 3 the book treats its subject with insight and responsibility: deal with, tackle, handle, discuss, explore, investigate; consider, study, analyse. 4 she was treated at Addenbrooke's Hospital: care for, nurse, tend, attend to; medicate. 5 the plants may prove useful in treating cancer: cure, heal, remedy. 6 he treated her to a slap-up lunch: buy, take out for, stand, give; pay for; entertain, wine and dine; informal foot the bill for. 7 delegates were treated to authentic Indonesian dance performances: regale with, entertain with/by, fete with, amuse with, divert with. 8 (formal) propagandists claimed that he was treating with the enemy: negotiate, discuss terms, have talks, consult, parley, talk, confer.

• noun 1 a birthday treat: celebration, entertainment, amusement; surprise; party, excursion, outing. 2 I bought you some chocolate as a treat: present, gift; titbit, delicacy, luxury, indulgence, extravagance; informal goody. 3 it was a real treat to see them: pleasure, delight, thrill, joy.

treatise noun disquisition, essay, paper, work, exposition, discourse, dissertation, thesis, monograph, study, critique; tract, pamphlet.

treatment noun 1 the company's treatment of its workers: behaviour towards, conduct towards; handling of, dealings with. 2 she's responding well to treatment: medical care, therapy, nursing; medication, drugs, medicaments; cure, remedy. 3 her treatment of the topic: discussion, handling, investigation, exploration, consideration, study, analysis, critique.

treaty noun agreement, settlement, pact, deal, entente, concordat, accord, protocol, compact, convention, contract, covenant, bargain, pledge; formal concord.

tree noun sapling, conifer, evergreen.

WORD LINKS

arboreal living in trees, or relating to trees arboretum a botanical garden devoted to trees dendrology the scientific study of trees silviculture, arboriculture the cultivation of trees trek noun a three-day trek across the desert:

journey, trip, expedition, safari, odyssey; hike, march, slog, footslog, tramp, walk; long haul; Brit. informal yomp, trog.

• verb we trekked through the jungle: hike, tramp, march, slog, footslog, trudge, traipse, walk; travel, journey; Brit. informal yomp, trog.

trellis noun lattice, framework, espalier; network, mesh, tracery; grille, grid, grating; latticework, trelliswork; technical reticulation.

tremble verb 1 Joe's hands were trembling: shake, shake like a leaf, quiver, twitch; quaver, waver. 2 the entire building trembled: shake, shudder, judder, wobble, rock, vibrate, move, sway, totter, teeter. 3 she trembled at the thought of what he had in store for her: be afraid, be frightened, be apprehensive, worry, shake in one's shoes; quail, shrink, blench; informal be in a blue funk, be all of a tremble.

• noun the slight tremble in her hands: tremor, shake, shakiness, trembling, quiver, twitch.

– OPPOSITES steadiness.

tremendous adjective 1 tremendous sums of money: huge, enormous, immense, colossal, massive, prodigious, stupendous, monumental, mammoth, vast, gigantic, giant, mighty, epic, titanic, towering, king-size(d), gargantuan, Herculean; substantial, considerable; informal whopping, thumping, astronomical, humongous; Brit. informal whacking, ginormous. 2 a tremendous explosion: very loud, deafening, ear-splitting, booming, thundering, thunderous, resounding.

3 (informal) I've seen him play and he's tremendous: excellent, splendid, wonderful, marvellous, magnificent, superb, glorious, sublime, lovely, delightful, too good to be true; informal super, great, amazing, fantastic, terrific, sensational, heavenly, divine, gorgeous, grand, fabulous, fab, awesome, to die for, magic, ace, wicked, mind-blowing, far out, out of this world; Brit. informal smashing, brilliant, brill; N. Amer. informal boss; Austral./NZ informal beaut, bonzer; Brit. informal, dated champion, wizard, corking, ripping, spiffing, top-hole; N. Amer. informal, dated swell.

– OPPOSITES tiny, small, poor.

tremor noun 1 the sudden tremor of her hands: trembling, shaking, shakiness, tremble, shake, quivering, quiver, twitching, twitch, tic; quavering, quaver. 2 a tremor of fear ran through her: frisson, shiver, spasm, thrill, tingle, stab, dart, shaft; wave, surge, rush, ripple. 3 the epicentre of the tremor: earthquake, earth tremor, shock; informal quake; N. Amer. informal tremblor.

tremulous adjective 1 a tremulous voice: shaky, trembling, shaking, unsteady, quavering, wavering, quivering, quivery, quaking, weak; informal trembly, all of a tremble. 2 a tremulous smile: timid, diffident, shy, hesitant, uncertain, nervous, timorous, fearful, frightened, scared, anxious, apprehensive; informal trepidatious.

– OPPOSITES steady, confident.

trench noun ditch, channel, trough, excavation, furrow, rut, conduit, cut, drain, waterway, watercourse; earthwork, entrenchment, moat; Archaeology fosse.

trenchant adjective incisive, penetrating, sharp, keen, acute, shrewd, razor-sharp, rapier-like, piercing; vigorous, forceful, strong, telling, emphatic, forthright; mordant, cutting, biting, pungent.

– OPPOSITES vague.

trend noun 1 an upward trend in unemployment: tendency, movement, drift, swing, shift, course, current, direction, inclination, leaning; bias, bent. 2 the latest trend in dance music: fashion, vogue, style, mode, craze, mania, rage; informal fad, thing. • verb interest rates are trending up: move, go, head, drift, gravitate, swing, shift, turn, incline, tend, lean, veer.

trendy adjective (informal) fashionable, in fashion, in vogue, popular, (bang) up to date, up to the minute, modern, all the rage, modish, à la mode, trendsetting; stylish, chic, designer; informal cool, funky, in, the in thing, hot, big, hip, happening, sharp, groovy, snazzy, with it; N. Amer. informal tony, kicky.

– OPPOSITES unfashionable.

trepidation noun fear, apprehension, dread, fearfulness, agitation, anxiety, worry, nervousness, tension, misgivings, unease, uneasiness, foreboding, disquiet, dismay, consternation, alarm, panic; informal butterflies, jitteriness, the jitters, a cold sweat, a blue funk, the heebie-jeebies, the willies, the shakes, the jim-jams, collywobbles, cold feet; Brit. informal the (screaming) abdots/habdots.

– OPPOSITES equanimity, composure.

trespass verb 1 there is no excuse for trespassing on railway property: intrude on, encroach on, enter without permission, invade. 2 I must not trespass on your good nature: take advantage of, impose on, play on, exploit, abuse; encroach on, infringe. 3 (old use) he would be the last among us to trespass: sin, transgress, offend, do wrong, err, go astray, fall from grace, stray from the straight and narrow.

• noun 1 his alleged trespass on council land: unlawful entry, intrusion, encroachment, invasion. 2 (old use) he asked forgiveness for his trespasses: sin, wrong, wrongdoing, transgression, crime, offence, misdeed, misdemeanour, error, lapse, fall from grace.

trespasser noun 1 a high stone wall discouraged would-be trespassers: intruder, interloper, unwelcome visitor, encroacher. 2 (old use) trespassers asking for forgiveness: sinner, transgressor, wrongdoer, evildoer, malefactor, offender, criminal.

tresses plural noun hair, head of hair, mane, mop of hair, shock of hair; locks, curls, ringlets.

trial noun 1 the trial is expected to last several weeks: court case, case, lawsuit, suit, hearing, inquiry, tribunal, litigation, (legal/judicial) proceedings, legal action; court martial; appeal, retrial. 2 the drug is undergoing clinical trials: test, try-out, experiment, pilot study; examination, check, assessment, evaluation, appraisal; trial/test period, trial/test run, dummy run; informal dry run. 3 she could be a bit of a trial at times: nuisance, pest, bother, irritant, problem, inconvenience, plague, thorn in one's flesh, the bane of one's life, one's cross to bear; bore; informal pain, pain in the neck/backside, headache, drag, nightmare; Scottish informal skelf; N. Amer. informal pain in the butt, nudnik, burr under someone's saddle. 4 a long account of her trials and tribulations: trouble, anxiety, worry, burden, affliction, ordeal, tribulation, adversity, hardship, tragedy, trauma, reverse, setback, difficulty, problem, misfortune, bad luck, mishap, misadventure; informal hassle; literary travails.

• adjective a three-month trial period:

test, experimental, pilot, exploratory, probationary, provisional.

• verb the electronic cash card has been trialled by several banks: test, try out, put to the test, put through its paces; pilot.

tribe noun 1 the nomadic tribes of the Sahara: ethnic group, people; family, dynasty, house; clan, sept. 2 a tribe of children trailed after her: group, crowd, gang, company, body, band, host, bevy, party, pack, army, herd, flock, drove, horde; informal bunch, crew, gaggle, posse.

tribulation noun 1 the tribulations of her personal life: trouble, difficulty, problem, worry, anxiety, burden, cross to bear, ordeal, trial, adversity, hardship, tragedy, trauma, affliction; reverse, setback, blow; informal hassle. 2 his time of tribulation was just beginning: suffering, distress, trouble, misery, wretchedness, unhappiness, sadness, heartache, woe, grief, pain, anguish, agony; literary travail.

tribunal noun 1 a rent tribunal: arbitration board/panel, board, panel, committee. 2 an international war-crimes tribunal: court, court of justice, court of law, law court; court of inquiry; N. Amer. forum.

tributary noun headwater, branch, feeder, side stream, affluent; N. Amer. & Austral./NZ creek.

tribute noun 1 tributes flooded in from friends and colleagues: accolade, praise, commendation, salute, testimonial, homage, eulogy, paean, panegyric; congratulations, compliments, plaudits, bouquet; gift, present, offering; formal laudation, encomium. 2 it is a tribute to his determination that he ever played again: testimony, indication, manifestation, evidence, proof, attestation. 3 the Vikings demanded tributes in silver: payment, contribution, dues, levy, tax, duty, impost.

— OPPOSITES criticism, condemnation.

■ pay tribute to praise, sing the praises of, speak highly of, commend, acclaim, take one's hat off to, applaud, salute, honour, show appreciation of, recognize, acknowledge, pay homage to, extol; formal laud.

trice noun

■ in a trice very soon, in a moment/second/instant, shortly, any minute (now), in a short time, in (less than) no time, in the twinkling of an eye, in a flash, before you know it, before long; N. Amer. momentarily; informal anon, in a jiffy, in two shakes (of a lamb's tail), before you can say Jack Robinson; Brit. informal in a tick, in a mo, in two ticks; N. Amer. informal in a snap; dated directly.

trick noun 1 he's capable of any mean trick: stratagem, ploy, ruse, scheme, device, manoeuvre, contrivance, machination, artifice, wile, dodge; deceit, deception, trickery, subterfuge, chicanery, sharp practice; swindle, hoax, fraud, confidence trick; informal con (trick), set-up, game, scam, sting, flimflam; Brit. informal wheeze; N. Amer. informal bunco; old use shift. 2 I think he's playing a trick on us: practical joke, joke, prank, jape; informal leg-pull, spoof, put-on; Brit. informal cod. 3 conjuring tricks: feat, stunt; (tricks) sleight of hand, legerdemain, prestidigitation; magic. 4 it was probably a trick of the light: illusion, optical illusion, figment of the imagination; mirage. 5 the tricks of the trade: knack, art, skill, technique; secret. 6 he sat biting his fingernails, a trick of his when he was excited: mannerism, habit, quirk, idiosyncrasy, peculiarity, foible, way; characteristic, trait. • verb many people have been tricked by villains with false identity cards: deceive, delude, hoodwink, mislead, take in, dupe, fool, double-cross, cheat, defraud, swindle, catch out, gull, hoax, bamboozle; informal con, diddle, rook, put one over on, pull a fast one on, pull the wool over someone's eyes, take for a ride, lead up the garden path, shaft, do, flimflam; N. Amer. informal sucker, snooker, gold-brick; Austral. informal pull a swifty on; literary cozen.

■ trick someone/something out dress (up), attire, array, rig out, garb, get up; adorn, decorate, deck (out), bedeck, embellish, ornament, festoon; literary bedizen, caparison; old use apparel.

trickery noun deception, deceit, dishonesty, cheating, duplicity, double-dealing, legerdemain, sleight of hand, guile, craftiness, deviousness, subterfuge, skulduggery, chicanery, fraud, fraudulence, swindling, sharp practice; informal monkey business, funny business, jiggery-pokery.

— OPPOSITES honesty.

trickle verb blood was trickling from two cuts in his lip: drip, dribble, ooze, leak, seep, spill.

— OPPOSITES pour, gush.

• noun trickles of water: dribble, drip, thin stream, rivulet.

trickster noun swindler, cheat, fraud, fraudster; charlatan, mountebank, quack, impostor, sham, hoaxer; rogue, villain, scoundrel; informal con man, sharp, flimflammer; Brit. informal twister; N. Amer. informal grifter, bunco artist; Austral. informal illywhacker, magsman; dated confidence man.

tricky adjective 1 a tricky situation:

difficult, awkward, problematic, delicate, ticklish, sensitive, embarrassing, touchy; risky, uncertain, precarious, touch-and-go; thorny, knotty; informal sticky, dicey; N. Amer. informal gnarly. 2 a tricky and unscrupulous politician: cunning, crafty, wily, guileful, artful, devious, sly, scheming, calculating, designing, sharp, shrewd, astute, canny; duplicitous, dishonest, deceitful; informal foxy.

— OPPOSITES straightforward, honest.

tried and trusted adjective reliable, dependable, trustworthy, trusted, certain, sure; proven, proved, tested, tried and tested, put to the test, established, fail-safe; reputable.

trifle noun 1 we needn't bother the headmaster over such trifles: unimportant thing, trivial thing, triviality, thing of no importance/ consequence, bagatelle, inessential, nothing; technicality; (trifles) trivia, minutiae. 2 he bought it for a trifle: next to nothing, very small amount; pittance; informal peanuts; N. Amer. informal chump change. 3 he went to buy a few trifles for Christmas: bauble, trinket, knick-knack, gimcrack, gewgaw, toy. ■ a trifle a little, a bit, somewhat, a touch, a spot, a mite, a whit; informal a tad.

■ trifle with play with, amuse oneself with, toy with, dally with, flirt with, play fast and loose with; informal mess about with; dated sport with.

trifling adjective trivial, unimportant, insignificant, inconsequential, petty, minor, of little/no account, of little/no consequence, footling, pettifoggling, incidental; silly, idle, superficial, small, tiny, inconsiderable, nominal, negligible, nugatory; informal piffing, piddling, fiddling; formal exiguous.

– OPPOSITES important.

trigger verb 1 the incident triggered an acrimonious debate: precipitate, prompt, trigger off, set off, spark (off), touch off, provoke, stir up; cause, give rise to, lead to, set in motion, occasion, bring about, generate, engender, begin, start, initiate; literary enkindle. 2 burglars triggered the alarm: activate, set off, set going, trip.

trill verb warble, sing, chirp, chirrup, tweet, twitter, cheep, peep.

trim verb 1 his hair had been washed and trimmed: cut, barber, crop, bob, shorten, clip, snip, shear; neat, shape, tidy up. 2 trim off the lower leaves using a sharp knife: cut off, remove, take off, chop off, lop off; prune, pollard. 3 production costs need to be trimmed: reduce, decrease, cut down, cut back on, scale down, prune, slim down, pare down, dock. 4 the story was severely trimmed for the film version: shorten, abridge, condense, abbreviate, telescope, truncate. 5 a pair of black leather gloves trimmed with fake fur: decorate, adorn, ornament, embellish; edge, pipe, border, hem, fringe.

• noun 1 white curtains with a blue trim: decoration, trimming, ornamentation, adornment, embellishment; border, edging, piping, rickrack, hem, fringe, frill; old use purfle. 2 an unruly mop in desperate need of a trim: haircut, cut, barbering, clip, snip; pruning; tidy-up.

• adjective 1 a cropped, fitted jacket looks trim with a long-line skirt: smart, stylish, chic, spruce, dapper, elegant, crisp; N. Amer. trig; informal natty, sharp; N. Amer. informal spiffy. 2 a trim little villa: neat, tidy, neat and tidy, as neat as a new pin, orderly, in (good) order, uncluttered, well kept, well maintained, shipshape (and Bristol fashion), in apple-pie order, immaculate, spick and span. 3 her trim figure: slim, slender, lean, clean-limbed, sleek, willowy, lissom, sylphlike, svelte; streamlined.

– OPPOSITES untidy, messy.

■ in trim fit, fighting fit, as fit as a fiddle, in good health, in fine fettle; slim, in shape.

trimming noun 1 a black party dress with lace trimming: decoration, trim, ornamentation, adornment, passementerie, embroidery; border, edging, piping, rickrack, fringes, fringing, frills; old use purples. 2 roast turkey with all the trimmings: accompaniments, extras, frills, accessories, accoutrements, trappings, paraphernalia; garnishing, garnish. 3 hedge trimmings: cuttings, clippings, parings, shavings.

trinket noun knick-knack, bauble, ornament, bibelot, curio, trifle, toy, novelty, gimcrack, gewgaw; N. Amer. kickshaw; N. Amer. informal tchotchke; old use whim-wham, bijou, gaud.

trio noun threesome, three, triumvirate, triad, troika, trinity; trilogy, triptych; triplets.

trip verb 1 he tripped on the loose stones: stumble, lose one's footing, catch one's foot, slip, lose one's balance, fall (down), tumble, topple, take a spill. 2 taxpayers often trip up by not declaring taxable income: make a mistake, miscalculate, make a blunder, blunder, go wrong, make an error, err; informal slip up, screw up, make a boo-boo; Brit. informal boob; N. Amer. informal goof up. 3 the question was intended to trip him up: catch out, trick, outwit, outsmart; throw off balance, disconcert, unsettle, discountenance, discomfit; informal throw, wrong-foot; Brit. informal catch on the hop. 4 they tripped up the terrace steps: skip, run, dance, prance, bound, spring, scamper. 5 Hoffman tripped the alarm: set off, activate, trigger; turn on, switch on, throw.

• noun 1 a trip to Paris: excursion, outing, jaunt; holiday, visit, tour, journey, expedition, voyage; drive, run, day out, day trip; informal junket, spin. 2 trips and falls cause nearly half such accidents: stumble, slip, misstep, false step; fall, tumble, spill.

tripe noun (informal). See NONSENSE sense 1.

triple adjective 1 a triple alliance: three-way, tripartite; threefold. 2 they paid him triple the going rate: three times, treble.

tripper noun (Brit. informal) tourist, holidaymaker, sightseer, day tripper, visitor, traveller; N. Amer. vacationer, vacationist, out-of-towner; Brit. informal grockle.

trite adjective banal, hackneyed, clichéd, platitudinous, vapid, commonplace, stock, conventional, stereotyped, overused, overdone, overworked, stale, worn out, time-worn, tired, hoary, hack, unimaginative, unoriginal, uninteresting, dull; informal old hat, corny, played out; N. Amer. informal cornball.

– OPPOSITES original, imaginative.

triumph noun 1 Napoleon's many triumphs: victory, win, conquest, success; achievement. 2 his eyes shone with triumph: jubilation, exultation, elation, delight, joy, happiness, glee, pride, satisfaction. 3 a triumph of Victorian engineering: tour de force, masterpiece, crowning example, coup, wonder, sensation, master stroke.

– OPPOSITES defeat, disappointment.

• verb 1 he triumphed in the British Grand Prix: win, succeed, come first, be victorious, carry the day, carry all before one, prevail, take the honours, come out on top. 2 they had no chance of triumphing over the Nationalists: defeat, beat, conquer, trounce, vanquish, worst, overcome, overpower, overwhelm, get the better of; bring someone to their knees, prevail against, subdue, subjugate; informal lick, best. 3 'You can't touch me,' she triumphed: crow, gloat; rejoice, exult.

– OPPOSITES lose.

triumphant adjective 1 the triumphant British team: victorious, successful, winning, conquering; undefeated, unbeaten.

2 a triumphant expression: jubilant, exultant, elated, rejoicing, joyful, joyous, delighted, gleeful, proud, cock-a-hoop; gloating.

– OPPOSITES unsuccessful, despondent.

trivia plural noun (petty) details, minutiae, niceties, technicalities, trivialities, trifles, non-essentials.

trivial adjective 1 trivial problems:

unimportant, insignificant, inconsequential, minor, of no account, of no consequence, of no importance; incidental, inessential, non-essential, petty, trifling, pettifoggling, footling, small, slight, little, inconsiderable, negligible, paltry, nugatory; informal piddling, piffling, fiddling, penny-ante. 2 I used to be quite a trivial person: frivolous, superficial, shallow, unthinking, empty-headed, feather-brained, lightweight, foolish, silly.

– OPPOSITES important, significant, serious.

triviality noun 1 the triviality of the subject matter: unimportance, insignificance, inconsequence, inconsequentiality, pettiness. 2 he need not concern himself with such trivialities: minor detail, petty detail, thing of no importance/consequence, trifle, non-essential, nothing; technicality; (trivialities) trivia, minutiae.

trivialize verb minimize, play down, underestimate, underplay, make light of, treat lightly, dismiss; informal pooch-pooch.

troop noun 1 a troop of tourists: group, party, band, gang, bevy, body, company, troupe, crowd, throng, horde, pack, drove, flock, swarm, multitude, host, army; informal bunch, gaggle, crew, posse. 2 British troops were stationed here: soldiers, armed forces, service men/women; the services, the army, the military, soldiery.

• verb 1 we trooped out of the hall: walk, march, file; flock, crowd, throng, stream, swarm, surge, spill. 2 Caroline trooped wearily home: trudge, plod, traipse, trail, drag oneself, tramp; N. Amer. informal schlep.

trophy noun 1 a swimming trophy: cup, medal; prize, award. 2 a cabinet full of trophies from his travels: souvenir, memento, keepsake; spoils, booty.

tropical adjective tropical weather: very hot, sweltering, humid, sultry, steamy, sticky, oppressive, stifling, suffocating, heavy; informal boiling.

– OPPOSITES cold, arctic.

trot verb Doyle trotted across the patio: run, jog, jogtrot, dogtrot; scuttle, scurry, bustle, scamper.

■ on the trot (Brit. informal) in succession, one after the other, in a row, consecutively, successively; running, straight.

■ trot something out (informal) recite, repeat, regurgitate, churn out; come out with, produce.

troubadour noun (historical) minstrel, singer, balladeer, poet; historical jongleur, trouvère.

trouble noun 1 you've caused enough trouble already: problems, difficulty, bother, inconvenience, worry, anxiety, distress, stress, agitation, harassment, unpleasantness; informal hassle. 2 she poured out all her troubles: problem, misfortune, difficulty, trial, tribulation, trauma, burden, pain, woe, grief, heartache, misery, affliction, suffering. 3 he's gone to a lot of trouble to help you: bother, inconvenience, fuss, effort, exertion, work, labour; pains, care, attention, thought. 4 I wouldn't want to be a trouble to her: nuisance, bother, inconvenience, irritation, irritant, problem, trial, pest, thorn in someone's flesh/side; informal headache, pain, pain in the neck/backside, drag; N. Amer. informal pain in the butt, burr under someone's saddle, nudnik.

5 you're too gullible, that's your trouble: shortcoming, weakness, weak point, failing, fault, imperfection, defect, blemish; problem, difficulty. 6 he had a history of heart trouble: disease, illness, sickness, ailments, complaints, problems; disorder, disability. 7 the crash was due to engine trouble: malfunction, dysfunction, failure, breakdown. 8 a match marred by serious crowd trouble: disturbance, disorder, unrest, fighting, ructions, fracas, breach of the peace; Law, dated affray.

• verb 1 this matter had been troubling her for some time: worry, bother, concern, disturb, upset, agitate, distress, perturb, annoy, irritate, vex, irk, nag, niggle, prey on someone's mind, weigh down, burden; informal bug. 2 he was troubled by bouts of ill health: afflict, burden; suffer from, be cursed with; informal be a martyr to. 3 there is nothing you need trouble about: worry, upset oneself, fret, be anxious, be concerned, concern oneself. 4 don't trouble to see me out: bother, take the trouble, go to the trouble, exert oneself, go out of one's way. 5 I'm sorry to trouble you: inconvenience, bother, impose on, disturb, put out, disoblige; informal hassle; formal discommode.

■ in trouble in difficulty, in difficulties, in a mess, in a bad way, in a predicament; informal in a tight corner/spot, in a fix, in a hole, in hot water, in a pickle, in the soup, up against it; Brit. informal up a gum tree.

troubled adjective 1 Joanna looked troubled: anxious, worried, concerned, perturbed, disturbed, bothered, ill at ease, uneasy, unsettled, agitated; distressed, upset, dismayed. 2 we live in troubled times: difficult, problematic, full of problems, unsettled, hard, tough, stressful, dark.

troublemaker noun mischief-maker, agitator, rabble-rouser, firebrand, agent provocateur, ringleader, incendiary; demagogue; scandalmonger, gossipmonger, meddler; informal stirrer.

troublesome adjective 1 a troublesome problem: annoying, irritating, exasperating, maddening, infuriating, irksome, vexatious, vexing, bothersome, tiresome, worrying, worrisome, disturbing, upsetting, nagging, nagging; difficult, awkward, problematic, taxing; informal aggravating; N. Amer. informal pesky. 2 a troublesome child: difficult, awkward, trying, demanding, uncooperative, rebellious, unmanageable, unruly, obstreperous, disruptive, badly behaved, disobedient, naughty, recalcitrant; formal refractory.

– OPPOSITES simple, cooperative.

trough noun 1 a large feeding trough: manger, feedbox, feeder, fodder rack, crib. 2 a thirty-yard trough: channel, conduit, trench, ditch, gully, drain, culvert, cut, flume, gutter.

trounce verb defeat utterly, beat hollow, rout, crush, overwhelm; informal hammer, clobber, thrash, drub, pulverize, massacre, crucify, demolish, destroy, annihilate, wipe the floor with, make mincemeat of, murder; Brit. informal stuff; N. Amer. informal shellac, cream, skunk.

troupe noun group, company, band, ensemble, set; cast.

trousers plural noun slacks, chinos, jeans; N. Amer. pants; Brit. informal trews, strides, kecks, breeches; Austral. informal daks.

truant noun absentee; Brit. informal skiver; Austral./NZ informal wag.

• verb pupils who truant. See PLAY TRUANT.

■ play truant stay away from school, truant; informal sag off; Brit. informal skive (off), bunk off; Irish informal mitch (off); N. Amer. informal play hooky, goof off; Austral./NZ informal play the wag.

truce noun ceasefire, armistice, suspension of hostilities, peace; respite, lull; informal let-up.

truck<sup>1</sup> noun a heavily laden truck: lorry, wagon, heavy goods vehicle, juggernaut; van, pickup (truck); Brit. HGV; dated pantehnicron.

truck<sup>2</sup> noun we are to have no truck with him: dealings, association, contact, communication, connection, relations; business, trade.

truckle verb an ambitious woman who truckled to no man: kowtow, submit, defer, yield, bow and scrape, be obsequious, pander, toady, prostrate oneself, grovel; fawn on, dance attendance on, curry favour with, ingratiate oneself with; informal suck up, crawl, lick someone's boots; Austral./NZ informal smooch.

truculent adjective defiant, aggressive, antagonistic, belligerent, pugnacious, confrontational, ready for a fight, obstreperous, argumentative, quarrelsome, uncooperative; bad-tempered, short-tempered, cross, snappish; informal feisty, spoiling for a fight; Brit. informal stroppy, bolshie.

– OPPOSITES cooperative, amiable.

trudge verb plod, tramp, drag oneself, walk heavily/slowly, plough, slog, footslog, toil, trek; informal traipse, galumph; Brit. informal trog.

true adjective 1 you'll see that what I say is true: correct, accurate, right, verifiable, in accordance with the facts, what actually/really happened, the case, so; faithful, literal, factual, unelaborated, unvarnished. 2 people are still willing to pay for true craftsmanship: genuine, authentic, real, actual, bona fide, proper; informal honest-to-goodness, kosher, pukka, legit, the real McCoy; Austral./NZ informal dinkum. 3 the true owner of the goods: rightful, legitimate, legal, lawful, authorized, bona fide, de jure.

4 the necessity for true repentance: sincere, genuine, real, unfeigned, heartfelt, from the heart. 5 a true friend: loyal, faithful, constant, devoted, staunch, steadfast, unswerving, unwavering; trustworthy, trusty, reliable, dependable. 6 a true reflection of life in the 50s: accurate, true to life, faithful, telling it like it is, fact-based, realistic, close, lifelike.

– OPPOSITES untrue, false, disloyal, inaccurate.

true-blue adjective staunch, loyal, faithful, stalwart, committed, card-carrying, confirmed, dyed-in-the-wool, devoted, dedicated, firm, steadfast, unswerving, unwavering, unfaltering; informal deep-dyed.

truism noun platitude, commonplace, cliché, stock phrase, banality, old chestnut, old saw, bromide.

truly adverb 1 tell me truly what you want:

truthfully, honestly, frankly, candidly, openly, to someone's face, laying one's cards on the table; informal pulling no punches.

2 I'm truly grateful to them: sincerely, genuinely, really, indeed, from the bottom of one's heart, heartily, profoundly; very, extremely, dreadfully, immensely, tremendously, incredibly, most; informal awfully, terribly, terrifically, fearfully; Brit. informal jolly, ever so; informal, dated frightfully.

3 a truly dreadful song: really, absolutely, simply, utterly, totally, perfectly, thoroughly, positively, completely. 4 this is truly a miracle: without (a) doubt, unquestionably, undoubtedly, certainly, surely, definitely, beyond doubt/question, indubitably, undeniably, beyond the shadow of a doubt; in truth, really, in reality, actually, in fact; old use forsooth, in sooth, verily. 5 the streaming system does not truly reflect children's ability: accurately, correctly, exactly, precisely, faithfully.

trump verb by wearing the simplest of dresses, she had trumped them all: outshine, outclass, upstage, put in the shade, eclipse, surpass, outdo, outperform; beat, better, top, cap; informal be a cut above, be head and shoulders above, leave standing; Brit. informal knock spots off; old use outrival.

■ trump something up invent, make up, fabricate, concoct, contrive, manufacture, devise, hatch; fake, falsify; informal cook up.

trumped up adjective bogus, spurious, specious, false, fabricated, invented, manufactured, contrived, made-up, fake, factitious; informal phoney.

– OPPOSITES genuine.

trumpety noun (old use) trinkets, baubles, knick-knacks, ornaments, bibelots, gewgaws, gimcracks.

trumpet verb 1 'come on!' he trumpeted: shout, bellow, roar, yell, cry out, call out; informal holler. 2 companies trumpeted their enthusiasm for the multimedia revolution: proclaim, announce, declare, noise abroad, shout from the rooftops.

■ blow one's own trumpet boast, brag, sing one's own praises, show off, swank, congratulate oneself; N. Amer. informal blow/ toot one's own horn; Austral./NZ informal skite.

truncate verb shorten, cut, cut short, curtail, bring to an untimely end; abbreviate, condense, reduce.

– OPPOSITES lengthen, extend.

truncheon noun (Brit.) club, baton, cudgel, bludgeon; stick, staff; Brit. life preserver; N. Amer. billy, blackjack, nightstick; Brit. informal cosh.

trunk noun 1 the trunk of a tree: main stem, bole, stock. 2 his powerful trunk: torso, body. 3 an elephant's trunk: proboscis, nose, snout. 4 an enormous tin trunk: chest, box, crate, coffer; case, portmanteau. 5 (N. Amer.) the trunk of his car: luggage compartment; Brit. boot.

truss noun 1 the bridge is supported by three steel trusses: support, buttress, joist, brace, prop, strut, stay, stanchion, pier. 2 a hernia truss: surgical appliance, support, pad. • verb they trussed us up with ropes and chains: tie up, bind, chain up; pinion, fetter, tether, secure.

trust noun 1 good relationships are built on trust: confidence, belief, faith, certainty, assurance, conviction, credence; reliance. 2 a position of trust: responsibility, duty, obligation. 3 the money is to be held in trust for his son: safe keeping, keeping, protection, charge, care, custody; trusteeship, guardianship.

• verb 1 I should never have trusted her: put one's trust in, have faith in, have (every) confidence in, believe in, pin one's hopes/faith on. 2 he can be trusted to carry out an impartial investigation: rely on, depend on, bank on, count on, be sure of. 3 I trust we shall meet again: hope, expect, take it, assume, presume. 4 they don't like to trust their money to anyone outside the family: entrust, consign, commit, give, hand over, turn over, assign; formal commend.

– OPPOSITES distrust, mistrust, doubt.

fiduciary Law involving trust trustee noun administrator, agent; custodian, keeper, steward, depository; executor, executrix; Law fiduciary, feoffee.

trustful adjective. See TRUSTING.

trusting adjective trustful, unsuspecting, unquestioning, unguarded, unwary; naive, innocent, childlike, ingenuous, wide-eyed, credulous, gullible, easily taken in.

– OPPOSITES distrustful, suspicious.

trustworthy adjective reliable, dependable, honest, honourable, upright, principled, true, truthful, as good as one's word, ethical, virtuous, incorruptible, unimpeachable, above suspicion; responsible, sensible, level-headed; loyal, faithful, staunch, steadfast, trusty; safe, sound, reputable; informal on the level; N. Amer. informal straight-up.

– OPPOSITES unreliable.

trusty adjective reliable, dependable, trustworthy, never-failing, unflinching, trusted; loyal, faithful, true, staunch, steadfast, constant, unswerving, unwavering.

– OPPOSITES unreliable.

truth noun 1 he doubted the truth of her statement: veracity, truthfulness, verity, sincerity, candour, honesty; accuracy, correctness, validity, factuality, authenticity. 2 it's the truth, I swear it: what really happened, the case, so; gospel (truth), the honest truth. 3 truth is stranger than fiction: fact(s), reality, real life, actuality. 4 scientific truths: fact, verity, certainty, certitude; law, principle.

– OPPOSITES lies, fiction, falsehood.

■ in truth (in actual) fact, in point of fact, in reality, really, actually, to tell the truth, if truth be told.

truthful adjective 1 a truthful answer: honest, sincere, trustworthy, genuine; candid, frank, open, forthright, straight; informal upfront, on the level; N. Amer. informal on the up and up. 2 a truthful account: true, accurate, correct, factual, faithful, reliable; unvarnished, unembellished; formal veracious, veridical.

– OPPOSITES deceitful, untrue.

try verb 1 try to help him: attempt, endeavour, make an effort, exert oneself, strive, do one's best, do one's utmost, move heaven and earth; undertake, aim, take it on oneself; informal have a go, give it one's best shot, bend over backwards, bust a gut, do one's damndest, pull out all the stops, go all out, knock oneself out; formal essay; old use assay.

2 try it and see what you think: test, put to the test, sample, taste, inspect, investigate, examine, appraise, evaluate, assess; informal check out, give something a whirl. 3 Mary tried everyone's patience: tax, strain, test, stretch, sap, drain, exhaust, wear out. 4 the case is to be tried by a jury: adjudicate, consider, hear, adjudge, examine.

• noun I'll have one last try: attempt, effort, endeavour; informal go, shot, crack, stab, bash, whack; formal essay.

■ try something out test, trial, experiment with, pilot; put through its paces; assess, evaluate.

trying adjective 1 a trying day: stressful, taxing, demanding, difficult, tough, hard, pressured, frustrating, fraught; arduous, gruelling, tiring, exhausting; informal hellish. 2 Steve was very trying: annoying, irritating, exasperating, maddening, infuriating; tiresome, irksome, troublesome, bothersome; informal aggravating.

– OPPOSITES easy, accommodating.

tub noun 1 a wooden tub: container, butt, barrel, cask, drum, keg. 2 a tub of yogurt: pot, carton. 3 a soak in the tub: bath, bathtub; hot tub.

tubby adjective (informal) chubby, plump, stout, dumpy, chunky, portly, rotund, round, fat, overweight, fleshy, paunchy, pot-bellied, corpulent; informal pudgy, beefy, porky, roly-poly, blubbery; Brit. informal podgy; N. Amer. informal corn-fed.

– OPPOSITES skinny.

tuck verb 1 he tucked his shirt into his trousers: push, insert, slip; thrust, stuff, stick, cram; informal pop. 2 the dress was tucked all over: pleat, gather, fold, ruffle. 3 he tucked the knife behind his seat: hide, conceal, secrete; store, stow; informal stash. • noun 1 a dress with tucks: pleat, gather, fold, ruffle. 2 (Brit. informal) they pinched his tuck: food; informal eats, grub, nosh, chow; Brit. informal scoff; N. Amer. informal chuck; literary viands; dated victuals. ■ tuck someone in/up make comfortable, settle down, cover up; put to bed. ■ tuck in/into (informal) eat heartily, devour, consume, gobble up, wolf down; informal get stuck into, dispose of, polish off, Hoover up, get outside of, put away, scoff (down), trough; Brit. informal shift; N. Amer. informal scarf (down/up), snarf (down/up).

tuff noun clump, bunch, knot, cluster, tussock, tuffet; lock, wisp; crest, topknot; tassel.

tug verb 1 Ben tugged at her sleeve: pull, pluck, tweak, twitch, jerk, wrench; catch hold of; informal yank. 2 she tugged him towards the door: drag, pull, lug, draw, haul, heave, tow, trail. • noun one good tug would loosen it: pull, jerk, wrench, heave; informal yank.

tuition noun instruction, teaching, coaching, tutoring, tutelage, lessons, education, schooling; training, drill, preparation, guidance.

tumble verb 1 he tumbled over: fall (over/down), topple over, lose one's balance, keel over, take a spill, go headlong, go head over heels, trip (up), stumble; informal come a cropper. 2 they all tumbled from the room: hurry, rush, scramble, scurry, bound, pile, bundle. 3 a brook tumbled over the rocks: cascade, fall, flow, pour, spill, stream. 4 oil prices tumbled: plummet, plunge, fall, dive, nosedive, drop, slump, slide, decrease, decline; informal crash. 5 (informal) I tumbled to what was happening. See REALIZE sense 1.

– OPPOSITES rise.

• noun 1 I took a tumble in the nettles: fall, trip, spill; informal nosedive, header, cropper. 2 a tumble in share prices: drop, fall, plunge, dive, nosedive, slump, decline, collapse; informal crash.

– OPPOSITES rise.

tumbledown adjective dilapidated, ramshackle, decrepit, neglected, run down, gone to rack and ruin, falling to pieces, decaying, derelict, crumbling; rickety, shaky; N. Amer. informal shabby.

tumbler noun (drinking) glass, beaker, highball glass.

tumid adjective 1 her tumid belly: swollen, distended, tumescent, engorged, enlarged, bloated, bulging, protuberant, bulbous. 2 tumid oratory: bombastic, pompous, turgid, overblown, inflated, high-flown, pretentious, grandiose, florid, flowery, magniloquent, grandiloquent, orotund; informal highfalutin, purple, windy.

– OPPOSITES shrunken, simple.

tummy noun (informal) stomach, abdomen, belly, gut, middle; informal tum, insides; Austral. informal bingy.

tumour noun cancerous growth, malignant growth, cancer, malignancy; lump, growth, swelling; Medicine carcinoma, sarcoma.

tumult noun 1 she added her voice to the tumult: clamour, din, noise, racket, uproar, commotion, ruckus, rumpus, hubbub, pandemonium, babel, bedlam, brouhaha, furore, fracas, melee, frenzy; Scottish & N. English stramash; informal hullabaloo; Brit. informal row. 2 years of political tumult: turmoil, confusion, disorder, disarray, unrest, chaos, turbulence, mayhem, havoc, upheaval, ferment, agitation, trouble.

– OPPOSITES tranquillity.

tumultuous adjective 1 tumultuous applause: loud, deafening, thunderous, uproarious, noisy, clamorous, vociferous. 2 a tumultuous crowd: disorderly, unruly, rowdy, turbulent, boisterous, excited, agitated, restless, wild, riotous, frenzied; informal rumbustious.

– OPPOSITES soft, orderly.

tune noun she hummed a cheerful tune: melody, air, strain, theme; song, jingle, ditty. • verb 1 they tuned their guitars: adjust, fine-tune. 2 a body clock tuned to the tides: attune, adapt, adjust, fine-tune; regulate, modulate.

■ in tune in accord, in keeping, in accordance, in agreement, in harmony, in step, in line, in sympathy.

tuneful adjective melodious, melodic, musical, mellifluous, dulcet, euphonious, harmonious, lyrical, lilting, sweet.

– OPPOSITES discordant.

tuneless adjective discordant, unmelodious, dissonant, harsh, cacophonous.

– OPPOSITES melodious.

tunnel noun a tunnel under the hills: underground passage, underpass, subway; shaft; burrow, hole; historical mine, sap. • verb he tunnelled under the fence: dig, burrow, mine, bore, drill.

turbid adjective murky, opaque, cloudy, muddy, thick; N. Amer. roily.

– OPPOSITES clear.

turbulent adjective 1 the country's turbulent past: tempestuous, stormy, unstable, unsettled, tumultuous, chaotic; violent, anarchic, lawless. 2 turbulent seas: rough, stormy, tempestuous, storm-tossed, heavy, violent, wild, seething, choppy, agitated, boisterous.

– OPPOSITES peaceful, calm.

turf noun 1 they walked across the turf: grass, lawn, sod; literary sward, greensward. 2 devotees of the turf: horse racing; racecourses, racetracks. 3 (informal) he was keen to protect his turf: territory, domain, province, preserve, sphere of influence; stamping ground; informal bailiwick; Brit. informal patch, manor.

• verb the lawns have been turfed: grass (over).

■ turf someone/something out (informal). See EJECT sense 3.

turgid adjective 1 his turgid prose: bombastic, pompous, overblown, inflated, tumid, high-flown, affected, pretentious, grandiose, florid, ornate, magniloquent, grandiloquent, orotund; informal highfalutin, swollen, windy.

2 the tissues become turgid: swollen, distended, tumescent, engorged, bloated.

– OPPOSITES simple.

turmoil noun political turmoil: confusion, upheaval, turbulence, tumult, disorder, disturbance, agitation, ferment, unrest, trouble, disruption, chaos, mayhem; uncertainty; N. Amer. informal tohubohu.

– OPPOSITES peace.

■ in turmoil confused, in a whirl, at sixes and sevens; reeling, disorientated; informal all over the place.

turn verb 1 the wheels were still turning: go round, revolve, rotate, spin, roll, circle, wheel, whirl, gyrate, swivel, pivot. 2 I turned and headed back: change direction, change course, make a U-turn, turn about/round, wheel round. 3 the car turned the corner: go round, round, negotiate, take. 4 the path turned to right and left: bend, curve, wind, twist, meander, snake, zigzag. 5 he turned his pistol on Liam: aim at, point at, level at, direct at, train on. 6 he turned his ankle: sprain, twist, wrench; hurt. 7 their honeymoon turned into a nightmare: become, develop into, turn out to be; be transformed into, metamorphose into. 8 Emma turned red: become, go, grow, get. 9 he turned the house into flats: convert, change, transform, make; adapt, modify, rebuild, reconstruct. 10 I've just turned forty: reach, get to, become; informal hit. 11 the milk had turned: (go) sour, go off, curdle, become rancid, go bad, spoil. 12 he turned to politics: take up, become involved in, go in for, enter, undertake. 13 we can now turn to another topic: move on to, go on to, consider, attend to, address; take up. 14 she turned a somersault: perform, execute, do, carry out. 15 an object turned on a lathe: fashion, make, shape, form.

• noun 1 a turn of the wheel: rotation, revolution, spin, whirl, gyration, swivel.

2 a turn to the left: change of direction, veer, divergence. 3 we're approaching the turn:

bend, corner, dog-leg; turning, junction, crossroads; N. Amer. turnout; Brit. hairpin bend. 4 you'll get your turn in a minute: opportunity, chance, say; stint, time; try; informal go, shot, stab, crack. 5 a comic turn: act, routine, performance, number, piece.

6 a turn around the garden: stroll, walk, saunter, amble, wander, airing, promenade; outing, excursion, jaunt; informal mosey, tootle, spin; Brit. informal pootle. 7 you gave me quite a turn: shock, start, surprise, jolt; fright, scare. 8 she did me some good turns: service, deed, act; favour, kindness; disservice, wrong.

■ in turn one after the other, one by one, one at a time, in succession, successively, sequentially.

■ take a turn for the better improve, pick up, look up, perk up, rally, turn the corner; recover, revive.

■ take a turn for the worse deteriorate, worsen, decline, go downhill.

■ turn back retrace one's steps, go back, return; retreat.

■ turn someone/something down 1 his novel was turned down: reject, spurn, rebuff, refuse, decline; Brit. informal knock back.

2 Pete turned the sound down: reduce, lower, decrease, lessen; muffle, mute.

■ turn someone in betray, inform on, denounce, sell out, stab someone in the back; informal split on, blow the whistle on, rat on, peach on, squeal on; Brit. informal grass on, shop; N. Amer. informal finger; Austral./NZ informal dob on.

■ turn someone off (informal) put off, leave cold, repel, disgust, revolt, offend; disenchant, alienate; bore; N. Amer. informal gross out.

■ turn something off switch off, shut off, put off, extinguish, deactivate; informal kill, cut.

■ turn on the decision turned on the law: depend on, rest on, hinge on, be contingent on, be decided by.

■ turn someone on (informal). See AROUSE sense 3.

■ turn something on switch on, put on, start up, activate, trip.

■ turn on someone attack, set on, fall on, let fly at, lash out at, hit out at, round on; informal lay into, tear into, let someone have it, bite someone's head off, jump down someone's throat; Brit. informal have a go at; N. Amer. informal light into.

■ turn out 1 a huge crowd turned out: come, be present, attend, appear, turn up, arrive; assemble, gather; informal show up. 2 it turned out that she had been abroad: transpire, emerge, come to light, become apparent.

3 things didn't turn out as I'd intended: happen, occur, come about; develop, work out, come out, end up; informal pan out; formal eventuate.

■ turn something out 1 turn out the light.

See TURN SOMETHING OFF. 2 they turn out a million engines a year: produce, make, manufacture, fabricate, put out, churn out. 3 she turned out the cupboards: clear out, clean out, empty (out).

■ turn over overturn, upturn, capsize, keel over, turn turtle, be upended.

■ turn something over 1 I turned over a few pages: flip over, flick through, leaf through.

2 she turned the proposal over in her mind: think about/over, consider, weigh up, ponder, contemplate, reflect on, chew over, mull over, muse on, ruminate on.

■ turn of phrase expression, idiom, phrase, term, word.

■ turn someone's stomach nauseate, sicken, make someone's gorge rise.

■ turn to someone/something seek help from, have recourse to, approach, apply to, appeal to; take to, resort to.

■ turn up 1 the missing documents turned up: be found, be discovered, be located, reappear. 2 the police turned up: arrive, appear, present oneself; informal show (up), rock up, show one's face. 3 something better will turn up: present itself, occur, happen, crop up.

■ turn something up 1 she turned up the volume: increase, raise, amplify, intensify. 2 they turned up lots of information: discover, uncover, unearth, find, dig up, ferret out, root out, expose.

turncoat noun traitor, renegade, defector, deserter, betrayer, Judas; fifth columnist, quisling; informal rat.

turning noun turn-off, turn, side road, exit; N. Amer. turnout.

turning point noun watershed, critical moment, decisive moment, moment of truth, crossroads, crisis.

turnout noun 1 the lecture attracted a good turnout: attendance, audience, house; crowd, gathering, throng, assembly, assemblage, congregation. 2 his turnout was very elegant: outfit, clothes, clothing, dress, garb, attire, ensemble; informal get-up, gear, togs; Brit. informal clobber, kit; formal apparel.

turnover noun 1 an annual turnover of £2.25 million: (gross) revenue, income, yield; sales. 2 a high turnover of staff: rate of replacement, change, movement.

turpitude noun (formal). See DEPRAVITY.

tussle noun his glasses were smashed in the tussle: scuffle, fight, struggle, skirmish, brawl, scrum, rough and tumble, free-for-all, fracas, fray, rumpus, melee; Irish, N. Amer., & Austral. donnybrook; informal scrap, dust-up, punch-up, spat, ruck; Brit. informal ding-dong, bust-up; Scottish informal rammy; Law, dated affray.

● verb demonstrators tussled with police: scuffle, fight, struggle, brawl, grapple, wrestle, clash; informal scrap; N. Amer. informal rough-house.

tutor noun a history tutor: teacher, instructor, educator, educationalist, lecturer, trainer, mentor; informal teach; formal pedagogue.

● verb he was tutored at home: teach, instruct, educate, school, coach, train, drill.

tutorial noun lesson, class, seminar.

twaddle noun (informal). See NONSENSE sense 1.

tweak verb 1 he tweaked the boy's ear: pull, jerk, tug, twist, twitch, pinch, squeeze. 2 (informal) the programme can be tweaked to suit your needs: adjust, modify, alter, change, adapt; refine.

● noun 1 he gave her hair a tweak: pull, jerk, tug, twist, pinch, twitch, squeeze. 2 (informal) a few minor tweaks were required: adjustment, modification, alteration, change; refinement.

twee adjective (Brit.) 1 twee little shops: quaint, sweet, dainty, pretty; informal cute, cutesy. 2 the lyrics are too twee in places: sentimental, over-sentimental, mawkish, sickly; Brit. informal soppy.

twelve cardinal number dozen.

WORD LINKS

duodecimal relating to a counting system with twelve as a base dodecagon a plane figure with twelve straight sides dodecahedron a solid figure with twelve faces gross twelve dozen

zodiac an area of the sky divided by astrologers into twelve equal parts twenty cardinal number score.

WORD LINKS

icosahedron a solid figure with twenty faces vigesimal relating to the number twenty twiddle verb she twiddled the dials: turn, twist, swivel, twirl; adjust, move, jiggle; fiddle with, play with.

■ twiddle one's thumbs be idle, kick one's heels, kill time, waste time; informal hang around/round; Brit. informal hang about.

twig noun leafy twigs: stick, sprig, withy, shoot, stem, branchlet.

twig verb (Brit. informal) she finally twigged what I was on about: realize, understand, grasp, comprehend, take in, fathom, see, recognize; informal latch on to, cotton on to, tumble to, get, get wise to, figure out; Brit. informal suss.

twilight noun 1 we arrived at twilight: dusk, sunset, sundown, nightfall, evening, close of day; literary eventide, the gloaming. 2 it was scarcely visible in the twilight: half-light, semi-darkness, gloom. 3 the twilight of his career: decline, waning, ebb; autumn, final years.

— OPPOSITES dawn.

● adjective he inhabited a sinister twilight world of treason and murder: shadowy, dark, shady, dim, gloomy, obscure.

WORD LINKS

crepuscular resembling or relating to twilight

twin noun a sitting room that was the twin of her own: duplicate, double, carbon-copy, exact likeness, mirror image, replica, lookalike, clone; counterpart, match, pair; informal spitting image, dead ringer.

● adjective 1 the twin towers of the stadium: matching, identical, matched, paired. 2 the twin aims of conservation and recreation: twofold, double, dual; related, linked, connected; corresponding, parallel, complementary, equivalent.

● verb the company twinned its brewing with distilling: combine, join, link, couple, pair.

twine noun a ball of twine: string, cord, thread, yarn.

● verb 1 she twined her arms around him: wind, entwine, wrap, wreath. 2 convolvulus twined around the tree: entwine itself, coil, loop, twist, spiral, curl. 3 a bloom was twined in her hair: weave, interlace, intertwine, braid, twist.

twinge noun 1 twinges in her stomach: pain, spasm, ache, throb; cramp, stitch. 2 a twinge of guilt: pang, prick, dart; qualm, scruple, misgiving.

twinkle verb 1 the lights of the city twinkled: glitter, sparkle, shine, glimmer, shimmer, glint, gleam, glisten, flicker, flash, wink; literary coruscate, glisten. 2 his feet twinkled over the ground: dart, dance, skip, flit, glide.

• noun the twinkle of the lights: glitter, sparkle, glimmer, shimmer, glint, gleam, flicker, flash, wink; literary coruscation.

twinkling adjective sparkling, glistening, glittering, glimmering, glinting, gleaming, flickering, winking, shining, scintillating; literary coruscating.

twirl verb 1 she twirled her parasol: spin, whirl, turn, gyrate, pivot, swivel, twist, revolve, rotate. 2 she twirled her hair round her fingers: wind, twist, coil, curl, wrap. • noun she did a quick twirl: pirouette, spin, whirl, turn, twist, rotation, revolution, gyration.

twist verb 1 the impact twisted the chassis: crumple, crush, buckle, mangle, warp, deform, distort. 2 her face twisted with rage: contort, screw up. 3 Ma anxiously twisted a handkerchief: wring, squeeze. 4 he twisted round in his seat: turn (round), swivel (round), spin (round), pivot, rotate, revolve. 5 she twisted out of his grasp: wriggle, squirm, worm, wiggle. 6 I twisted my ankle: sprain, wrench, turn, rick, crick. 7 you are twisting my words: distort, misrepresent, change, alter, pervert, falsify, warp, skew, misinterpret, misconstrue, misstate, misquote; garble. 8 he twisted the radio knob: twiddle, adjust, turn, rotate, swivel. 9 she twisted her hair round her finger: wind, twirl, coil, curl, wrap. 10 the wires were twisted together: intertwine, twine, interlace, weave, plait, braid, coil, wind. 11 the road twisted and turned: wind, bend, curve, turn, meander, weave, zigzag, swerve, snake.

• noun 1 the twist of a dial: turn, twirl, spin.

2 a personality twist: quirk, idiosyncrasy, foible, eccentricity, peculiarity, oddity, kink; aberration, fault, flaw, imperfection, defect, failing, weakness. 3 (Brit.) a twist of tobacco: wad, quid, plug, chew; Brit. screw.

4 long twists of black hair: ringlet, curl, corkscrew, coil; lock, hank. 5 the twists of the road: bend, curve, turn, zigzag, kink, dog-leg; Brit. hairpin bend. 6 the twists of the plot: convolution, complication, complexity, intricacy; surprise, revelation. 7 a new twist on an old theme: interpretation, slant, outlook, angle, approach, treatment; variation.

■ twist someone's arm (informal) pressurize, coerce, force; persuade; informal lean on, bulldoze, railroad, put the screws on.

twisted adjective 1 twisted metal: crumpled, bent, crushed, buckled, warped, misshapen, distorted, deformed. 2 a twisted smile: crooked, lopsided; contorted, wry. 3 his twisted mind: perverted, warped, deviant, depraved, corrupt, abnormal, unhealthy, aberrant, distorted, corrupted, debauched, debased; informal sick, kinky, pervy.

twisty adjective winding, windy, twisting, bendy, zigzag, meandering, curving, sinuous, snaky.

– OPPOSITES straight.

twit noun (Brit. informal). See FOOL noun sense 1.

twitch verb 1 he twitched and then lay still: jerk, convulse, quiver, tremble, shiver, shudder. 2 he twitched the note out of my hand: snatch, tweak, pluck, pull, tug; informal yank.

• noun 1 a twitch of her lips: spasm, convulsion, quiver, tremor, shiver, shudder; tic. 2 he gave a twitch at his moustache: pull, tug, tweak; informal yank. 3 he felt a twitch of annoyance: pang, twinge, dart, stab, prick.

twitter verb 1 sparrows twittered under the eaves: chirp, chirrup, cheep, tweet, peep, chatter, trill, warble, sing. 2 stop twittering about Francis: prattle, babble, chatter, gabble, jabber, go on, yap, blether, blither, ramble; informal yak, yabber; Brit. informal witter, rabbit, chunter, waffle.

• noun 1 a bird's twitter: chirp, chirrup, cheep, tweet, peep, trill, warble, song. 2 her non-stop twitter: prattle, chatter, babble, talk, gabble, blether; informal yackety-yak; Brit. informal wittering, nattering, chuntering. 3 (informal) she got into a real twitter. See STEW noun sense 2.

two cardinal number pair, duo, duet, double; old use twain.

WORD LINKS

binary, dual composed of or involving two parts or things biannual taking place twice a year biennial taking place every two years bicentenary, bicentennial the two-hundredth anniversary of an event biped an animal that walks on two feet bisect divide into two parts dichotomy a division or contrast between two things diptych a painting on two hinged panels duple referring to musical rhythm based on two main beats to the bar dyad a thing consisting of two elements or parts

two-faced adjective deceitful, insincere, double-dealing, hypocritical, backstabbing, false, untrustworthy, duplicitous, deceiving, dissembling, dishonest; disloyal, treacherous, faithless; literary perfidious.

– OPPOSITES sincere.

twosome noun couple, pair, duo.

tycoon noun magnate, mogul, businessman, captain of industry, industrialist, financier, entrepreneur; millionaire, multimillionaire; informal big shot, bigwig, honcho; Brit. informal supremo; N. Amer. informal big wheel, kahuna; derogatory fat cat.

type noun 1 a curate of the old-fashioned type: kind, sort, variety, class, category, set, genre, species, order, breed, race; style, nature, manner, rank; generation, vintage; stamp, ilk, kidney, cast, grain, mould; N. Amer. stripe.

2 (informal) sporty types: person, individual, character, sort; Brit. informal bod. 3 his sayings are the type of modern wisdom: epitome, quintessence, essence, archetype, paradigm, model, embodiment. 4 italic type: print, typeface, face, characters, lettering, letters; font; Brit. fount.

typhoon noun cyclone, tropical storm, storm, tornado, hurricane, whirlwind; N. Amer. informal twister.

typical adjective 1 a typical example of art deco: representative, classic, quintessential, archetypal, model, prototypical, stereotypical. 2 a fairly typical day: normal, average, ordinary, standard, regular, routine, run-of-the-mill, conventional, unremarkable, unexceptional; informal bog-standard. 3 it's typical of him to forget: characteristic, in keeping, usual, normal, par for the course, predictable, true to form; customary, habitual.

– OPPOSITES unusual, exceptional, uncharacteristic.

typify verb 1 he typified the civil servant: epitomize, exemplify, characterize, be representative of; personify, embody.
2 the sun typified the Greeks: symbolize, represent, stand for, be emblematic of.

tyrannical adjective dictatorial, despotic, autocratic, oppressive, repressive, totalitarian, undemocratic, illiberal; authoritarian, high-handed, imperious, harsh, strict, iron-handed, severe, cruel, brutal, ruthless.

– OPPOSITES liberal.

tyrannize verb dominate, dictate to, browbeat, intimidate, bully, lord it over; persecute, victimize, torment; oppress, rule with a rod of iron, repress, crush, subjugate; informal push around.

tyranny noun despotism, absolute power, autocracy, dictatorship, totalitarianism, Fascism; oppression, repression, subjugation, enslavement; authoritarianism, bullying, severity, cruelty, brutality, ruthlessness.

tyrant noun dictator, despot, autocrat, authoritarian, oppressor; slave-driver, martinet, bully.

tyro noun novice, beginner, learner, neophyte, newcomer, initiate, fledgling; apprentice, trainee, probationer; N. Amer. tenderfoot; informal rookie, newie, newbie; N. Amer. informal greenhorn.

– OPPOSITES veteran.

Uu

ubiquitous adjective omnipresent, ever present, everywhere, all over the place, all-pervasive; universal, worldwide, global; rife, prevalent, far-reaching, inescapable.
– OPPOSITES rare.

ugly adjective 1 an ugly face: unattractive, ill-favoured, hideous, plain, unlovely, unprepossessing, unsightly, horrible, frightful, awful, ghastly, unpleasant, vile, revolting, repellent, repugnant; grotesque, monstrous, reptilian, misshapen, deformed, disfigured; N. Amer. homely; informal not much to look at; Brit. informal no oil painting. 2 things got pretty ugly: unpleasant, nasty, disagreeable, alarming, tense, charged, serious, grave; dangerous, perilous, threatening, menacing, hostile, ominous, sinister. 3 an ugly rumour: horrible, despicable, reprehensible, nasty, appalling, objectionable, offensive, obnoxious, vile, dishonourable, rotten, vicious, spiteful.

– OPPOSITES beautiful, pleasant.

ulcer noun sore, ulceration, abscess, boil, carbuncle, blister, gumboil, wen; Medicine aphtha, chancre, furuncle.

ulterior adjective underlying, undisclosed, undivulged, concealed, hidden, covert, secret, personal, private, selfish.

– OPPOSITES overt.

ultimate adjective 1 the ultimate collapse of the Empire: eventual, final, concluding, terminal, end; resulting, ensuing, consequent, subsequent. 2 ultimate truths about civilization: fundamental, basic, primary, elementary, elemental, absolute, central, key, crucial, essential, pivotal. 3 the ultimate gift for cat lovers: best, ideal, greatest, supreme, paramount, superlative, highest, utmost, optimum, quintessential. • noun the ultimate in luxury living: utmost, optimum, last word, height, epitome, peak, pinnacle, acme, zenith, nonpareil, dernier cri, ne plus ultra; informal the bee's knees, the cat's pyjamas/whiskers.

ultimately adverb 1 the cost will ultimately fall on us: eventually, in the end, in the long run, at length, finally, sooner or later, in time, in the fullness of time, when all is said and done, one day, some day, sometime; informal when push comes to shove; Brit. informal at the end of the day. 2 two ultimately contradictory reasons: fundamentally, basically, primarily, essentially, at heart, deep down.

ultra- combining form an ultra-conservative view: extremely, exceedingly, excessively, immensely, especially, exceptionally; N. English right; informal mega, mucho, majorly, oh-so; Brit. informal dead, ever so, well; N. Amer. informal real; informal, dated devilish; old use exceeding. • noun ultras in the animal rights movement: extremist, radical, fanatic, zealot, diehard, militant.

umbrage noun

■ take umbrage take offence, take exception, be aggrieved, be affronted, be annoyed, be angry, be indignant, be put out, be insulted, be resentful, be disgruntled; informal be miffed, have one's nose put out of joint; Brit. informal get the hump.

umbrella noun 1 they huddled under the umbrella: parasol, sunshade; Brit. informal brolly; Brit. informal, dated gamp. 2 the groups worked under the umbrella of the Liberal Party: aegis, auspices, patronage, protection, guardianship, support, backing, agency, guidance, care, charge, responsibility, cover.

umpire noun the umpire reversed his decision: referee, linesman, adjudicator, arbitrator, judge, moderator; informal ref; N. Amer. informal ump.

• verb he umpired a boat race: referee, adjudicate, arbitrate, judge, moderate, oversee; Cricket stand; informal ref.

umpteenth adjective (informal). See COUNTLESS.

unabashed adjective unashamed, shameless, unembarrassed, brazen, audacious, barefaced, blatant, flagrant, bold, unrepentant, undaunted, unconcerned, fearless.

– OPPOSITES sheepish.

unable adjective powerless, impotent, at a loss, inadequate, incompetent, unfit, unqualified, incapable.

unabridged adjective complete, entire, whole, intact, uncut, unshortened, unexpurgated.

unacceptable adjective intolerable, insufferable, unsatisfactory, inadmissible, inappropriate, unsuitable, undesirable, unreasonable, insupportable; offensive, obnoxious, disagreeable, disgraceful, deplorable, beyond the pale, bad; informal not on, a bit much, too much, out of order; Brit.

informal a bit thick, a bit off, not cricket; formal exceptionable.

– OPPOSITES satisfactory.

unaccompanied adjective alone, on one's own, by oneself, solo, lone, solitary, single-handed; escorted, unattended, unchaperoned; informal by one's lonesome; Brit. informal on one's tod, on one's Jack Jones; Austral./NZ informal on one's Pat Malone.

unaccomplished adjective

1 unaccomplished works: uncompleted, incomplete, unfinished, undone, half-done, unfulfilled, neglected. 2 an unaccomplished poet: inexpert, unskilful, unskilled, amateur, amateurish, unqualified, untrained; incompetent, maladroit.

– OPPOSITES complete, skilful.

unaccountable adjective 1 for some unaccountable reason: inexplicable, insoluble, incomprehensible, unfathomable, impenetrable, puzzling, perplexing, baffling, bewildering, mystifying, mysterious, inscrutable, peculiar, strange, queer, odd, obscure; informal weird, freaky; Brit. informal rum. 2 the Council is unaccountable to anyone: unanswerable, not liable; free, exempt, immune; unsupervised.

unaccustomed adjective 1 she was unaccustomed to being bossed about: unused, new, fresh; unfamiliar with, inexperienced in, unconservant with, unacquainted with. 2 he showed unaccustomed emotion: unusual, unfamiliar, uncommon, unwonted, exceptional, extraordinary, rare, surprising, abnormal, atypical.

– OPPOSITES habitual.

unacquainted adjective unfamiliar, unaccustomed, unused; inexperienced, ignorant, uninformed, unenlightened, unconservant; informal in the dark; literary nescent.

– OPPOSITES familiar.

unadorned adjective unembellished, unornamented, undecorated, unfussy, nononsense, no-frills; plain, basic, restrained; bare, bald, austere, stark, spartan, clinical.

– OPPOSITES ornate.

unadventurous adjective cautious, careful, circumspect, wary, hesitant, timid; conservative, conventional, unenterprising, unexciting, unimaginative; boring, straitlaced, stuffy, narrow-minded; informal square, straight, stick-in-the-mud.

– OPPOSITES enterprising.

unaffected adjective 1 they are unaffected by the cabinet reshuffle: unchanged, unaltered, uninfluenced; untouched, unmoved, unresponsive to; proof against, impervious to, immune to. 2 his manner was unaffected: unassuming, unpretentious, down-to-earth, natural, easy, uninhibited, open, artless, guileless, ingenuous, unsophisticated. 3 she was welcomed with unaffected warmth: genuine, real, sincere, honest, earnest, wholehearted, heartfelt, true, bona fide, frank, open; informal upfront.

– OPPOSITES influenced, pretentious, false, feigned.

unafraid adjective undaunted, unabashed, fearless, brave, courageous, plucky, intrepid, stout-hearted, bold, daring, confident, audacious, mettlesome, unshrinking; informal gutsy, spunky.

– OPPOSITES timid.

unanimous adjective 1 doctors were unanimous about the effects: united, in agreement, in accord, of one mind, in harmony, concordant, undivided. 2 a unanimous vote: uniform, consistent, united, concerted, congruent.

– OPPOSITES divided.

unanswerable adjective 1 an unanswerable case: irrefutable, indisputable, undeniable, incontestable, incontrovertible; conclusive, absolute, positive. 2 unanswerable questions: insoluble, unsolvable, insolvable, inexplicable, unexplainable.

– OPPOSITES weak, obvious.

unanswered adjective unresolved, undecided, unsettled, undetermined; pending, open to question, up in the air, doubtful, disputed.

unappetizing adjective unpalatable, uninviting, unappealing, unpleasant, off-putting, disagreeable, distasteful, unsavoury, insipid, tasteless, flavourless, dull; inedible, uneatable, revolting; informal yucky, gross.

– OPPOSITES tempting.

unapproachable adjective her boss appeared unapproachable: aloof, distant, remote, detached, reserved, withdrawn, uncommunicative, guarded, undemonstrative, unresponsive, unforthcoming, unfriendly, unsympathetic, unsociable; cool, cold, frosty, stiff, formal; informal stand-offish.

– OPPOSITES accessible, friendly.

unarmed adjective defenceless, weaponless; unprotected, undefended, unguarded, unshielded, vulnerable, exposed, assailable, pregnable.

unassailable adjective 1 an unassailable fortress: impregnable, invulnerable, impenetrable, inviolable, invincible, unconquerable; secure, safe, strong, indestructible. 2 his logic was unassailable: indisputable, undeniable, unquestionable, incontestable, incontrovertible, irrefutable, indubitable, watertight, sound, good, sure, manifest, patent, obvious.

– OPPOSITES defenceless.

unassertive adjective passive, retiring, unforthcoming, submissive, unassuming, self-effacing, modest, humble, meek, unconfident, diffident, shy, timid, insecure; informal mousy.

– OPPOSITES bold.

unassuming adjective modest, self-effacing, humble, meek, reserved, diffident; unobtrusive, unostentatious, unpretentious, unaffected, natural, artless, ingenuous.

unattached adjective 1 they were both unattached: single, unmarried, unwed, partnerless, uncommitted, available, footloose and fancy free, on one's own; on the shelf, unloved. 2 we are unattached to any organization: unaffiliated, unallied; autonomous, independent, non-aligned, self-governing, neutral, separate, unconnected, detached.

– OPPOSITES married.

unattended adjective 1 his cries went unattended: ignored, disregarded, neglected, passed over. 2 an unattended vehicle: unguarded, unwatched, alone, solitary; abandoned. 3 she had to walk there unattended: unaccompanied, unescorted, partnerless, unchaperoned, alone, on one's own, by oneself, solo; Brit. informal on one's tod.

unattractive adjective ugly, plain, ill-favoured, unappealing, unsightly, unlovely, unprepossessing, displeasing; hideous, monstrous, grotesque; N. Amer. homely; informal not much to look at, as ugly as sin; Brit. informal no oil painting.

– OPPOSITES beautiful.

unauthorized adjective unofficial, unsanctioned, unaccredited, unlicensed, unwarranted, unapproved; disallowed, prohibited, banned, barred, forbidden, outlawed, illegal, illegitimate, illicit, proscribed.

– OPPOSITES official.

unavailing adjective ineffective, ineffectual, inefficacious, vain, futile, useless, unsuccessful, fruitless, profitless, unprofitable, to no avail, abortive; old use bootless.

– OPPOSITES effective.

unavoidable adjective inescapable, inevitable, inexorable, assured, certain, predestined, predetermined, ineluctable; necessary, compulsory, required, obligatory, mandatory.

unaware adjective ignorant, unknowing, unconscious, heedless, unmindful, oblivious, unsuspecting, uninformed, unenlightened, unwitting, innocent; inattentive, unobservant, unperceptive, blind, deaf; informal in the dark; literary nescient.

– OPPOSITES conscious.

unawares adverb 1 brigands caught them unawares: by surprise, unexpectedly, without warning, suddenly, abruptly, unprepared, off-guard; informal with one's trousers down, napping; Brit. informal on the hop. 2 the roach approached the pike unawares: unknowingly, unwittingly, unconsciously; unintentionally, inadvertently, accidentally, by mistake.

– OPPOSITES prepared, knowingly.

unbalanced adjective 1 he is unbalanced and dangerous: unstable, mentally ill, deranged, demented, disturbed, unhinged, insane, mad, out of one's mind, non compos mentis; informal crazy, loopy, loony, nuts, nutty, cracked, screwy, batty, dotty, cuckoo, bonkers, mental, off one's head, round the bend/twist; Brit. informal barmy, potty, crackers, barking, off one's rocker; N. Amer.

informal nutso, squirrely; dated touched.

2 a most unbalanced article: biased, prejudiced, one-sided, partisan, inequitable, unjust, unfair, parti pris.

– OPPOSITES sane, unbiased.

unbearable adjective intolerable, insufferable, insupportable, unendurable, unacceptable, unmanageable, more than flesh and blood can stand, overpowering; informal too much.

– OPPOSITES tolerable.

unbeatable adjective invincible, unstoppable, unassailable, indomitable, unconquerable, unsurpassable, matchless, peerless; supreme.

unbeaten adjective undefeated, unconquered, unsurpassed, unequalled, unrivalled; triumphant, victorious, supreme, matchless, second to none.

unbecoming adjective 1 an unbecoming sundress: unflattering, unattractive, unsightly, plain, ugly, hideous; unsuitable. 2 conduct unbecoming to the Senate: inappropriate, unfitting, unbefitting, unsuitable, unsuited, inapt, out of keeping, untoward, incorrect, unacceptable; unworthy, improper, unseemly, undignified.

– OPPOSITES flattering, appropriate.

unbelief noun atheism, non-belief, agnosticism, apostasy, irreligion, godlessness, nihilism; scepticism, cynicism, disbelief, doubt.

– OPPOSITES faith.

unbelievable adjective incredible, beyond belief, inconceivable, unthinkable, unimaginable; unconvincing, far-fetched, implausible, improbable; informal hard to swallow.

– OPPOSITES credible.

unbend verb 1 I couldn't unbend my knees: straighten (out), extend, flex, uncurl. 2 if you'd only unbend a little: relax, unwind, de-stress, loosen up, let oneself go; informal let one's hair down, let it all hang out, hang loose.

unbending adjective 1 an unbending man: aloof, formal, stiff, reserved, remote, forbidding, cool, unfeeling, unemotional, unfriendly, austere; informal uptight, stand-offish. 2 unbending attitudes: uncompromising, inflexible, unyielding, hard-line, tough, strict, firm, resolute, determined, unrelenting, relentless, inexorable, intransigent, immovable.

unbiased adjective impartial, unprejudiced, neutral, non-partisan, disinterested, detached, dispassionate, objective, open-minded, equitable, even-handed, fair.

– OPPOSITES prejudiced.

unbidden adjective 1 an unbidden guest: uninvited, unasked, unsolicited; unwanted, unwelcome. 2 unbidden excitement: spontaneous, unprompted, voluntary, unforced, unplanned, unpremeditated; informal off-the-cuff.

unbind verb untie, unchain, unfetter, unshackle, unfasten, untether, undo, loosen; release, free, liberate.

unblemished adjective impeccable, flawless, faultless, perfect, pure, whiter than white, clean, spotless, unsullied, unspoil, undefiled, untouched, untarnished, unpolluted; incorrupt, guiltless, sinless, innocent, blameless, informal squeaky clean.

– OPPOSITES flawed.

unborn adjective 1 your unborn child:

embryonic, fetal, in utero; expected.

2 the unborn generations: future, coming, forthcoming, subsequent.

unbounded adjective unlimited, boundless, limitless, illimitable; unrestrained, unrestricted, unconstrained, uncontrolled, unchecked, unbridled; untold, immeasurable, endless, unending, interminable, everlasting, infinite, inexhaustible.

– OPPOSITES limited.

unbreakable adjective shatterproof, indestructible, imperishable, durable, long-lasting; toughened, sturdy, stout, resistant, hard-wearing, heavy-duty.

– OPPOSITES fragile.

unbridled adjective unrestrained, unconstrained, uncontrolled, uninhibited, unrestricted, unchecked, uncurbed, rampant, runaway, irrepressible, unstoppable, intemperate, immoderate.

– OPPOSITES restrained.

unbroken adjective 1 the last unbroken window: undamaged, unimpaired, unharmed, unscathed, untouched, sound, intact, whole, perfect. 2 an unbroken horse: untamed, undomesticated, wild, feral. 3 an unbroken chain of victories:

uninterrupted, continuous, endless, constant, unremitting, ongoing. 4 his record is still unbroken: unbeaten, undefeated, unsurpassed, unrivalled, unmatched, supreme.

unburden verb she had a sudden wish to unburden herself: open one's heart, confess, tell all; informal come clean; old use unbosom oneself.

uncalled for adjective gratuitous, unnecessary, needless, inessential; undeserved, unmerited, unwarranted, unjustified, unreasonable, unfair, inappropriate, pointless; unasked, unsolicited, unrequested, unprompted, unprovoked, unwelcome.

uncanny adjective 1 the silence was uncanny: eerie, unnatural, unearthly, other-worldly, ghostly, strange, abnormal, weird, bizarre, freakish; Scottish eldritch; informal creepy, spooky, freaky. 2 an uncanny resemblance: striking, remarkable, extraordinary, exceptional, incredible, noteworthy, notable, arresting.

unceasing adjective incessant, ceaseless, constant, continual, unabating, interminable, endless, unending, never-ending, everlasting, eternal, perpetual, continuous, non-stop, uninterrupted, unbroken, unremitting, persistent, relentless, unrelenting, unrelieved, sustained.

unceremonious adjective 1 an

unceremonious dismissal: abrupt, sudden, hasty, hurried, summary, perfunctory, undignified; rude, impolite, discourteous, offhand. 2 an unceremonious man: informal, casual, relaxed, easy-going, familiar, natural, open; informal laid-back.

– OPPOSITES formal.

uncertain adjective 1 the effects are uncertain: unknown, debatable, open to question, in doubt, undetermined, unsure, in the balance, up in the air; unpredictable, unforeseeable, incalculable; risky, chancy; informal iffy. 2 uncertain weather: changeable, variable, changeful, irregular, unpredictable, unreliable, unsettled, erratic, fluctuating.

3 Ed was uncertain about the decision: unsure, doubtful, dubious, undecided, irresolute, hesitant, blowing hot and cold, vacillating, vague, unclear, ambivalent, in two minds. 4 an uncertain smile: hesitant, tentative, faltering, unsure, unconfident.

– OPPOSITES predictable, sure, confident.

unchangeable adjective unalterable, immutable, invariable, changeless, fixed, hard and fast, cast-iron, set in stone, established, permanent, enduring, abiding, lasting, indestructible, ineradicable, irreversible.

– OPPOSITES variable.

unchanging adjective consistent, constant, regular, unvarying, predictable, stable, steady, fixed, permanent, perpetual, eternal; sustained, lasting, persistent.

uncharitable adjective mean, mean-spirited, unkind, selfish, self-centred, inconsiderate, thoughtless, insensitive, unfriendly, unsympathetic, uncaring, ungenerous, ungracious, unfair.

uncharted adjective unexplored, undiscovered, unmapped, untravelled, unfamiliar, unplumbed, unknown.

uncivil adjective impolite, rude, discourteous, disrespectful, unmannerly, bad-mannered, impertinent, impudent, ungracious; brusque, sharp, curt, offhand, gruff, churlish; informal off, fresh.

– OPPOSITES polite.

uncivilized adjective uncouth, coarse, rough, boorish, vulgar, philistine, uneducated, uncultured, uncultivated, benighted, unsophisticated, unpolished; ill-bred, ill-mannered, thuggish, loutish; barbarian, primitive, savage, brutish; old use rude.

unclean adjective 1 unclean premises: dirty, filthy, grubby, grimy, mucky, foul, impure, tainted, soiled, unwashed; polluted, contaminated, infected, insanitary, unhygienic, unhealthy, germ, disease-ridden; informal yucky, cruddy; Brit. informal grotty, gungy. 2 sex was considered unclean: sinful, immoral, bad, wicked, evil, corrupt, impure, unwholesome, sordid, disgusting, debased, degenerate, depraved. 3 an unclean meat: impure; forbidden, taboo.

– OPPOSITES pure, halal, kosher.

unclear adjective uncertain, unsure, unsettled, up in the air, debatable, open to question, in doubt, doubtful; ambiguous, equivocal, indefinite, vague, mysterious, obscure, hazy, foggy, nebulous; informal iffy.

– OPPOSITES evident.

unclothed adjective naked, bare, nude, stripped, undressed, in a state of nature; informal in one's birthday suit, in the buff, in the raw, in the altogether, in the nuddy; Brit. informal starkers; Scottish informal in the scud; N. Amer. informal buck naked.

– OPPOSITES dressed.

uncomfortable adjective 1 an uncomfortable chair: painful, disagreeable, intolerable, unbearable, confining, cramped.

2 I felt uncomfortable in her presence: uneasy, awkward, nervous, tense, strained, edgy, restless, embarrassed, troubled, worried, anxious, unquiet, fraught; informal rattled, twitchy; N. Amer. informal discombobulated, antsy.

– OPPOSITES relaxed.

uncommitted adjective 1 uncommitted voters: floating, undecided, non-partisan, unaffiliated, neutral, impartial, independent, undeclared, uncertain; informal sitting on the fence. 2 the uncommitted male: unmarried, unattached, unwed, partnerless; footloose and fancy free, available, single, lone.

– OPPOSITES aligned, attached.

uncommon adjective 1 an uncommon plant: unusual, abnormal, rare, atypical, unconventional, unfamiliar, strange, odd, curious, extraordinary, outlandish, novel, singular, peculiar, queer, bizarre; alien; informal weird, oddball, offbeat. 2 abductions are uncommon: rare, scarce, few and far between, exceptional, abnormal, isolated, infrequent, irregular; Brit. out of the common. 3 an uncommon capacity for hard work: remarkable, extraordinary, exceptional, singular, particular, marked, outstanding, noteworthy, significant, especial, special, signal, superior, unique, unparalleled, prodigious; informal mind-boggling.

uncommonly adverb unusually, remarkably, extraordinarily, exceptionally, singularly, particularly, especially, decidedly, notably, eminently, extremely, very; N. English right; informal awfully, terribly, seriously; Brit. informal jolly, dead.

uncommunicative adjective taciturn, quiet, unforthcoming, reserved, reticent, laconic, tongue-tied, mute, silent, tight-lipped; guarded, secretive, close, private; distant, remote, aloof, withdrawn, unsocial; informal mum, stand-offish.

– OPPOSITES talkative.

uncomplicated adjective simple, straightforward, clear, accessible, undemanding, unchallenging, unsophisticated, trouble-free, painless, effortless, easy, elementary, idiot-proof, plain sailing; informal a piece of cake, child's play, a cinch, a doddle, a breeze, a walk in the park; Brit. informal easy-peasy.

– OPPOSITES complex.

uncompromising adjective inflexible, unbending, unyielding, unshakeable, resolute, rigid, hard-line, immovable, intractable, firm, determined, iron-willed, obstinate, stubborn, adamant, obdurate, intransigent, headstrong, pig-headed; Brit. informal bloody-minded.

– OPPOSITES flexible.

unconcerned adjective 1 he is unconcerned about their responses: indifferent, unmoved, apathetic, uninterested, incurious, dispassionate, heedless, unmindful; cool, lukewarm, unenthusiastic. 2 she tried to look unconcerned: untroubled, unworried, unruffled, insouciant, nonchalant, blasé, carefree, casual, relaxed, at ease, (cool, calm, and collected); informal laid-back.

– OPPOSITES interested, anxious.

unconditional adjective unquestioning, unqualified, unreserved, unlimited, unrestricted, wholehearted; complete, total, entire, full, absolute, out-and-out, unequivocal.

unconnected adjective 1 the earth wire was unconnected: detached, disconnected, loose. 2 unconnected tasks: unrelated, dissociated, separate, independent, distinct, different, disparate, discrete. 3 unconnected chains of thought: disjointed, incoherent, disconnected, rambling, wandering, diffuse, disorderly, haphazard, disorganized, garbled, mixed, muddled, aimless.

– OPPOSITES attached, related, coherent.

unconscionable adjective 1 the unconscionable use of test animals: unethical, amoral, immoral, unprincipled, indefensible, wrong; unscrupulous, unfair, underhand, dishonourable. 2 we had to wait an unconscionable time: excessive, unreasonable, unwarranted, uncalled for, unfair, inordinate, immoderate, undue, inexcusable, unnecessary, needless; informal over the top, OTT.

– OPPOSITES ethical, acceptable.

unconscious adjective 1 she made sure he was unconscious: insensible, senseless, insentient, insensate, comatose, inert, knocked out, stunned; motionless, immobile, prostrate; informal out cold, out for the count, dead to the world; Brit. informal spark out. 2 she was unconscious of the pain: heedless, unmindful, disregarding, oblivious to, insensible to, impervious to, unaffected by, unconcerned by, indifferent to; unaware, unknowing. 3 an unconscious desire: subconscious, latent, suppressed, subliminal, sleeping, inherent, instinctive, involuntary, uncontrolled, spontaneous; unintentional, unthinking, unwitting, inadvertent; informal gut.

– OPPOSITES aware, voluntary.

• noun fantasies raging in the unconscious: subconscious, psyche, ego, id, inner self.

uncontrollable adjective 1 the crowds were uncontrollable: unmanageable, out of control, ungovernable, wild, unruly, disorderly, recalcitrant, turbulent, disobedient, delinquent, defiant, undisciplined; formal refractory. 2 an uncontrollable rage: ungovernable, irrepressible, unstoppable, unquenchable; wild, violent, frenzied, furious, mad, hysterical, passionate.

– OPPOSITES compliant.

unconventional adjective unusual, irregular, unorthodox, unfamiliar, uncommon, unwonted, out of the ordinary, atypical, singular, alternative, different; new, novel, innovative, groundbreaking, pioneering, original, unprecedented; eccentric, idiosyncratic, quirky, odd, strange, bizarre, weird, outlandish, curious; abnormal, anomalous, aberrant, extraordinary; nonconformist, bohemian, avant-garde; informal way out, far out, offbeat, wacky, madcap, zany; Brit. informal rum; N. Amer. informal kooky, wacko.

– OPPOSITES orthodox.

unconvincing adjective improbable, unlikely, implausible, incredible, unbelievable, questionable, dubious, doubtful; strained, laboured, far-fetched, unrealistic, fanciful, fantastic; feeble, weak, transparent, poor, lame, ineffectual, half-baked; informal hard to swallow.

– OPPOSITES persuasive.

uncooperative adjective unhelpful, awkward, disobliging, recalcitrant, perverse, contrary, stubborn, wilful, stiff-necked, unyielding, unbending, inflexible, immovable, obstructive, difficult, obstreperous, disobedient; Brit. informal bloody-minded.

– OPPOSITES obliging.

uncoordinated adjective clumsy, awkward, blundering, bumbling, lumbering, flat-footed, heavy-handed, graceless, gawky, ungainly, ungraceful; inept, unhandy, unskilful, inexpert, maladroit, bungling; informal butterfingers, cack-handed, ham-fisted; Brit. informal all (fingers and) thumbs; N. Amer. informal klutzy.

– OPPOSITES dexterous.

uncouth adjective uncivilized, uncultured, uncultivated, unrefined, unpolished, unsophisticated, common, low, rough, coarse, crude, loutish, boorish, oafish; churlish, uncivil, rude, impolite, discourteous, disrespectful, unmannerly, bad-mannered, ill-bred, indecorous, vulgar, crass, indelicate; Brit. informal yobbish.

– OPPOSITES refined.

uncover verb 1 she uncovered the sandwiches: expose, reveal, lay bare; unwrap, unveil; strip, denude. 2 they uncovered a money-laundering plot: detect, discover, come across, stumble on, chance on, find, turn up, unearth, dig up; expose, bring to light, unmask, unveil, reveal, lay bare, make known, make public, betray, give away; informal blow the whistle on.

unctuous adjective sycophantic, ingratiating, obsequious, fawning, servile, grovelling, subservient, cringing, humble, hypocritical, insincere, gushing, effusive; glib, smooth, slick, slippery, oily, greasy; informal smarmy, slimy, sucky, soapy.

undaunted adjective unafraid, undismayed, unflinching, unshrinking, unabashed, fearless, dauntless, intrepid, bold, valiant, brave, courageous, plucky, mettlesome, gritty, indomitable, confident, audacious, daring; informal gutsy, spunky.

– OPPOSITES fearful.

undecided adjective unresolved, uncertain, unsure, unclear, unsettled, indefinite, undetermined, unknown, in the balance, up in the air, debatable, arguable, moot, open to question, doubtful, dubious, borderline, ambiguous, vague; indecisive, irresolute, hesitant, tentative, wavering, vacillating, uncommitted, ambivalent, in two minds; informal iffy.

– OPPOSITES certain.

undefined adjective 1 some matters are still undefined: unspecified, unexplained, unspecific, indeterminate, unsettled; unclear, woolly, imprecise, inexact, indefinite, vague. 2 undefined shapes: indistinct, indefinite, formless, indistinguishable, vague, hazy, misty, shadowy, nebulous, blurred, blurry.

– OPPOSITES definite, distinct.

undemonstrative adjective unemotional, unaffectionate, impassive, dispassionate, restrained, reserved, unresponsive, uncommunicative, unforthcoming, stiff, guarded, aloof, distant, detached, remote, withdrawn; cool, cold, frosty, frigid; informal stand-offish.

undeniable adjective indisputable, indubitable, unquestionable, beyond doubt, beyond question, undebatable, incontrovertible, incontestable, irrefutable, unassailable; certain, sure, definite, positive, conclusive, plain, obvious, unmistakable, self-evident, patent, emphatic, categorical, unequivocal.

– OPPOSITES questionable.

under preposition 1 they hid under a bush: beneath, below, underneath. 2 the rent is under £250: less than, lower than, below. 3 branch managers are under the retail director: subordinate to, junior to, inferior to, subservient to, answerable to, responsible to, subject to, controlled by. 4 forty homes are under construction: undergoing, in the process of. 5 the town was under water: flooded by, immersed in, submerged by, sunk in, engulfed by, inundated by. 6 our finances are under pressure: subject to, liable to, at the mercy of.

– OPPOSITES above, over.

• adverb coughing and spluttering she went under: down, lower, below, underneath, beneath; underwater.

underclothes plural noun underwear, undergarments, underclothing, underthings, lingerie; informal undies, frillies; Brit. informal smalls; old use underlinen.

undercover adjective covert, secret, clandestine, underground, surreptitious, furtive, cloak-and-dagger, hole-and-corner, hugger-mugger, stealthy, hidden, concealed; informal hush-hush, sneaky.

– OPPOSITES overt.

undercurrent noun 1 dangerous undercurrents in the cove: undertow, underflow, underswell, underset. 2 the undercurrent of despair in his words: undertone, overtone, suggestion, connotation, intimation, hint, nuance, trace, suspicion, whisper, tinge; feeling, atmosphere, aura, echo; informal vibes.

undercut verb 1 the firm undercut their rivals: stake less than, undersell, underbid. 2 his authority was being undercut: undermine, weaken, impair, sap, threaten, subvert, sabotage, ruin, destabilize, wreck.

underdog noun weaker party, victim, loser, scapegoat; informal little guy, fall guy, stooge.

underestimate verb underrate, undervalue, do an injustice to, be wrong about, sell short, play down, understate; minimize, de-emphasize, underemphasize, diminish, downgrade, gloss over, trivialize; miscalculate, misjudge, misconstrue, misread.

– OPPOSITES exaggerate.

undergo verb go through, experience, undertake, face, submit to, be subjected to, come in for, receive, sustain, endure, brave, bear, tolerate, stand, withstand, weather; Brit. informal wear.

underground adjective 1 an underground car park: subterranean, buried, sunken, basement. 2 underground organizations: clandestine, secret, surreptitious, covert, undercover, closet, hole-and-corner, cloak-and-dagger, hugger-mugger, back-alley, hidden, sneaky, furtive; resistance, subversive; informal hush-hush. 3 the underground art scene: alternative, radical, revolutionary, unconventional, unorthodox, avant-garde, experimental, innovative. • noun 1 he took the underground: underground railway, metro; N. Amer. subway; Brit. informal tube. 2 information from the French underground: resistance (movement); partisans, guerrillas, freedom fighters; (historical) Maquis.

undergrowth noun shrubbery, vegetation, greenery, ground cover, underwood, brushwood, brush, scrub, covert, thicket, copse; bushes, plants, brambles, herbage; N. Amer. underbrush.

underhand adjective deceitful, dishonest, dishonourable, disreputable, unethical, unprincipled, immoral, unscrupulous, fraudulent, dubious, unfair; treacherous, duplicitous, double-dealing; devious, artful, crafty, conniving, scheming, sly, wily; clandestine, sneaky, furtive, covert, cloak-and-dagger; N. Amer. sly; informal crooked, shady, bent, low-down; Brit. informal dodgy; Austral./NZ informal shonky.

– OPPOSITES honest.

underline verb 1 she underlined a phrase: underscore, mark, pick out, emphasize, highlight. 2 the programme underlines the benefits of exercise: emphasize, stress, highlight, accentuate, accent, focus on, spotlight, point up, play up; informal rub in.

underling noun subordinate, inferior, junior, minion, lackey, flunkey, menial, retainer, vassal, subject, hireling, servant, henchman, factotum, gofer; Brit. informal skivvy, dogsbody.

– OPPOSITES boss.

underlying adjective 1 the underlying aims of the research: fundamental, basic, primary, prime, central, principal, chief, key, elementary, intrinsic, essential. 2 an underlying feeling of irritation: latent, repressed, suppressed, unrevealed, undisclosed, unexpressed, concealed, hidden, masked.

undermine verb 1 their integrity is being undermined: subvert, sabotage, threaten, weaken, compromise, diminish, reduce, impair, mar, spoil, ruin, damage, hurt, injure, cripple, sap, shake. 2 we undermined the building: tunnel under, dig under, burrow under, sap. 3 the damp had so undermined the wall that it collapsed: erode, wear away, eat away at.

– OPPOSITES strengthen, support.

underprivileged adjective needy, deprived, disadvantaged, poor, destitute, in straitened circumstances, on one's uppers, on one's beam-ends, impoverished, poverty-stricken, indigent; Brit. on the breadline; formal penurious.

– OPPOSITES wealthy.

underrate verb undervalue, underestimate, do an injustice to, sell short, play down, understate, minimize, diminish, downgrade, trivialize.

– OPPOSITES exaggerate.

undersized adjective underdeveloped, stunted, small, short, little, tiny, petite, slight, compact, miniature, mini, diminutive, dwarfish, pygmy; Scottish wee; informal pint-sized, pocket-sized, knee-high to a grasshopper, baby, teeny-weeny, itty-bitsy.

– OPPOSITES overgrown.

understand verb 1 he couldn't understand anything we said: comprehend, grasp, take in, see, apprehend, follow, make sense of, fathom; unravel, decipher, interpret; informal work out, figure out, make head or tail of, get one's head around, take on board, get the drift of, catch on to, get; Brit. informal twig, suss (out). 2 she understood how hard he'd worked: appreciate, recognize, realize, acknowledge, know, be aware of, be conscious of; informal be wise to; formal be cognizant of. 3 I understand that you wish to go: believe, gather, take it, hear (tell), notice, see, learn; conclude, infer, assume, surmise, fancy.

understandable adjective 1 make it understandable to the layman: comprehensible, intelligible, coherent, clear, explicit, unambiguous, transparent, plain, straightforward, digestible, user-friendly. 2 an understandable desire to be happy: unsurprising, expected, predictable, inevitable; reasonable, acceptable, logical, rational, normal, natural; justifiable, justified, defensible, excusable, pardonable, forgivable.

understanding noun 1 test your understanding of the language:

comprehension, apprehension, grasp, mastery, appreciation, assimilation, absorption; knowledge, awareness, insight, skill, expertise, proficiency; informal know-how; formal cognizance.

2 a young man of brilliant understanding: intellect, intelligence, brainpower, brains, judgement, reasoning, mentality; insight, intuition, shrewdness, acumen, sagacity, wisdom, wit; informal nous, savvy, know-how. 3 it was my understanding that this was free: belief, perception, view, conviction, feeling, opinion, intuition, impression, assumption, supposition.

4 he treated me with understanding: compassion, sympathy, pity, feeling, concern, consideration, kindness, sensitivity, decency, humanity, charity, goodwill, mercy, tolerance. 5 we had a tacit understanding: agreement, arrangement, deal, bargain, settlement, pledge, pact, compact, contract, covenant, bond.

– OPPOSITES ignorance, indifference.

• adjective an understanding friend: compassionate, sympathetic, sensitive, considerate, tender, kind, thoughtful, tolerant, patient, forbearing, lenient, merciful, forgiving, humane; approachable, supportive, perceptive.

understate verb play down, downplay, understate, underplay, de-emphasize, trivialize, minimize, diminish, downgrade, brush aside, gloss over; informal soft-pedal, sell short.

– OPPOSITES exaggerate.

understudy noun stand-in, substitute, replacement, reserve, fill-in, locum, proxy, back-up, relief, standby, stopgap, second, ancillary; informal sub; N. Amer. informal pinch-hitter.

undertake verb tackle, take on, assume, shoulder, handle, manage, deal with, be responsible for; engage in, take part in, go about, set about, get down to, get to grips with, embark on; attempt, try, endeavour; informal have a go at; formal essay.

undertaker noun funeral director; N. Amer. mortician.

undertaking noun 1 a risky undertaking: enterprise, venture, project, campaign, scheme, plan, operation, endeavour, effort, task, activity, pursuit, exploit, business, affair, procedure; mission, quest. 2 sign this undertaking to comply with the rules: pledge, agreement, promise, oath, covenant, vow, commitment, guarantee, assurance, contract.

undertone noun 1 he said something in an undertone: low voice, murmur, whisper, mutter. 2 the story's dark undertones: undercurrent, overtone, suggestion, nuance, vein, atmosphere, aura, tenor, flavour; vibrations.

undervalue verb underrate, underestimate, play down, understate, underemphasize, diminish, minimize, downgrade, reduce, brush aside, gloss over, trivialize, hold cheap; informal sell short.

underwater adjective submerged, immersed, sunken, subaqueous; undersea, submarine.

underwear noun underclothes, underclothing, undergarments, underthings, lingerie; informal undies, frillies; Brit. informal smalls; old use underlinen.

underworld noun 1 Osiris, god of the underworld: the netherworld, the nether regions, hell, the abyss; eternal damnation; Gehenna, Tophet, Sheol, Hades; Brit. the other place; literary the pit. 2 the violent underworld of Southwark: criminal world, gangland; criminals, gangsters; informal mobsters.

– OPPOSITES heaven.

WORD LINKS

chthonic relating to or inhabiting the underworld

Cerberus (in Greek mythology) the dog guarding the entrance to the underworld

Charon (in Greek mythology) the man who ferried the souls of the dead to the underworld

Styx (in Greek mythology) a river in the underworld underwrite verb sponsor, support, back, insure, indemnify, subsidize, pay for, finance, fund; informal foot the bill for; N. Amer. informal bankroll.

undesirable adjective 1 undesirable side effects: unpleasant, disagreeable, nasty, unwelcome, unwanted, unfortunate, infelicitous. 2 some very undesirable people: unpleasant, disagreeable, obnoxious, nasty, awful, terrible, dreadful, frightful, repulsive, repellent, abhorrent, loathsome, hateful, detestable, deplorable, horrible, appalling, insufferable, intolerable, despicable, contemptible, odious, vile, unsavoury; informal ghastly, horrid; Brit. informal beastly.

– OPPOSITES pleasant, agreeable.

undignified adjective unseemly, demeaning, unbecoming, unworthy, unbecoming, degrading, shameful, dishonourable, ignominious, discreditable, ignoble, untoward, unsuitable; scandalous, disgraceful, indecent, low, base; informal infra dig.

undisciplined adjective unruly, disorderly, disobedient, badly behaved, recalcitrant, wilful, wayward, delinquent, naughty, rebellious, insubordinate, disruptive, errant, out of control, uncontrollable, wild; disorganized, unsystematic, unmethodical, lax, slapdash, slipshod, sloppy; Brit. informal stropic, bolshie; formal refractory.

undisguised adjective obvious, evident, patent, manifest, transparent, overt, unconcealed, unhidden, unmistakable, undeniable, plain, clear, clear-cut, explicit, naked, visible; blatant, flagrant, glaring, bold; informal standing/sticking out a mile.

undisputed adjective undoubted, indubitable, uncontested, incontestable, unchallenged, incontrovertible, unequivocal, undeniable, irrefutable, unmistakable, sure, certain, definite, accepted, acknowledged, recognized.

— OPPOSITES doubtful.

undistinguished adjective unexceptional, indifferent, run-of-the-mill, middle-of-the-road, ordinary, average, commonplace, mediocre, humdrum, lacklustre, forgettable, uninspired, uneventful, unremarkable, inconsequential, featureless, nondescript, middling, moderate; N. Amer. garden-variety; informal nothing special, no great shakes, nothing to write home about, OK, so-so, bog standard; Brit. informal common or garden; N. Amer. informal bush-league.

— OPPOSITES extraordinary.

undivided adjective complete, full, total, whole, entire, absolute, unqualified, unreserved, unmitigated, unbroken, consistent, thorough, exclusive, dedicated; focused, engrossed, absorbed, attentive, committed.

undo verb 1 he undid another button:

unfasten, unbutton, unhook, untie, unlace; unlock, unbolt; loosen, disentangle, extricate, release, detach, free, open; disconnect, disengage, separate. 2 they will undo a decision by the law lords: revoke, overrule, overturn, repeal, rescind, reverse, countermand, cancel, annul, nullify, invalidate, void, negate; Law vacate; formal abrogate. 3 she undid much of the good work done: ruin, undermine, subvert, overturn, scotch, sabotage, spoil, impair, mar, destroy, wreck, eradicate, obliterate; cancel out, neutralize, thwart, foil, frustrate, hamper, hinder, obstruct; informal blow, put the kibosh on, foul up, muck up; Brit. informal scupper; N. Amer. informal rain on someone's parade.

— OPPOSITES fasten, ratify, enhance.

undoing noun 1 she plotted the king's undoing: downfall, defeat, conquest, deposition, overthrow, ruin, ruination, elimination, end, collapse, failure, debasement; Waterloo. 2 their complacency was their undoing: fatal flaw, Achilles' heel, weakness, weak point, failing, misfortune, affliction, curse.

undone adjective 1 some work was left undone: unfinished, incomplete, half-done, unaccomplished, unfulfilled, unconcluded; omitted, neglected, disregarded, ignored; remaining, outstanding, deferred, pending, on ice; informal on the back burner. 2 (formal) she had lost and was utterly undone: done for, finished, ruined, destroyed, doomed, lost, defeated, beaten; informal washed up.

— OPPOSITES finished, successful.

undoubted adjective undisputed, unchallenged, unquestioned, indubitable, incontrovertible, irrefutable, incontestable, sure, certain, unmistakable; definite, accepted, acknowledged, recognized.

undoubtedly adverb doubtless, indubitably, doubtlessly, no doubt, without (a) doubt; unquestionably, indisputably, undeniably, incontrovertibly, clearly, obviously, patently, certainly, definitely, surely, of course, indeed.

undress verb he undressed and got into bed:

strip (off), disrobe, take off one's clothes; Brit. informal peel off.

■ in a state of undress naked, (in the) nude, bare, stripped, unclothed, undressed, in a state of nature; informal in one's birthday suit, in the raw, in the buff, in the nuddy; Brit. informal starkers.

undue adjective excessive, immoderate, intemperate, inordinate, disproportionate; uncalled for, unneeded, unnecessary, non-essential, needless, unwarranted, unjustified, unreasonable; inappropriate, unmerited, unsuitable, improper.

— OPPOSITES appropriate.

undulate verb rise and fall, surge, swell, heave, ripple, flow; wind, wobble, oscillate.

undying adjective abiding, lasting, enduring, permanent, constant, infinite; unceasing, perpetual, ceaseless, incessant, unending, never-ending; immortal, eternal, deathless.

unearth verb 1 workmen unearthed an artillery shell: dig up, excavate, exhume, disinter, root out, unbury. 2 I unearthed an interesting fact: discover, uncover, find, come across, hit on, bring to light, expose, turn up, hunt out, nose out.

unearthly adjective 1 an unearthly chill in the air: other-worldly, supernatural, preternatural, alien; ghostly, spectral, phantom, mysterious, spine-chilling, hair-raising; uncanny, eerie, strange, weird, unnatural, bizarre; Scottish eldritch; informal spooky, creepy, scary. 2 (informal) they rose at some unearthly hour: unreasonable, preposterous, abnormal, extraordinary, absurd, ridiculous, unheard of; informal ungodly, unholy.

— OPPOSITES normal, reasonable.

uneasy adjective 1 the doctor made him feel uneasy: worried, anxious, troubled, disturbed, agitated, nervous, tense, nervy, overwrought, edgy, apprehensive, restless, discomfited, perturbed, fearful, uncomfortable, unsettled; informal jittery. 2 he had an uneasy feeling: worrying, disturbing, troubling, alarming, dismaying, disquieting, unsettling, disconcerting, upsetting. 3 the victory ensured an uneasy peace: tense, awkward, strained, fraught; precarious, unstable, insecure.

— OPPOSITES calm, stable.

uneconomic, uneconomical adjective unprofitable, uncommercial, non-viable, loss-making, worthless; wasteful, inefficient, improvident.

uneducated adjective untaught, unschooled, untutored, untrained, unread, unscholarly, illiterate, unlettered, ignorant, ill-informed, uninformed; uncouth, unsophisticated, uncultured, unaccomplished, unenlightened, philistine, benighted, backward.

– OPPOSITES learned.

unemotional adjective reserved, undemonstrative, sober, restrained, passionless, emotionless, unsentimental, unexcitable, impassive, phlegmatic, stoical, equable; cold, cool, unfeeling.

unemployed adjective jobless, out of work, between jobs, unwaged, unoccupied, redundant, laid off; on benefit; Brit. signing on; N. Amer. on welfare; Brit. informal on the dole, 'resting'.

unending adjective endless, never-ending, interminable, perpetual, eternal, ceaseless, incessant, unceasing, non-stop, uninterrupted, continuous, continual, constant, persistent, unbroken, unabating, unremitting, relentless.

unendurable adjective intolerable, unbearable, insufferable, insupportable, more than flesh and blood can stand.

unenthusiastic adjective indifferent, apathetic, half-hearted, lukewarm, casual, cool, lacklustre, offhand, unmoved; cursory, perfunctory.

– OPPOSITES keen.

unenviable adjective disagreeable, nasty, unpleasant, undesirable, horrible, thankless; unwanted, unwished-for.

unequal adjective 1 they are unequal in length: different, dissimilar, unlike, unlike, disparate, unmatched, uneven, irregular, varying, variable. 2 the unequal distribution of wealth: unfair, unjust, disproportionate, inequitable, biased. 3 an unequal contest: one-sided, uneven, unfair, ill-matched, unbalanced, lopsided. 4 she felt unequal to the task: inadequate for, incapable of, unqualified for, unsuited to, incompetent at, not up to; informal not cut out for.

– OPPOSITES identical, fair.

unequaled adjective unbeaten, matchless, unmatched, unrivalled, unsurpassed, unparalleled, peerless, incomparable, inimitable, second to none, unique.

unequivocal adjective unambiguous, unmistakable, indisputable, incontrovertible, indubitable, undeniable; clear, clear-cut, plain, explicit, specific, categorical, straightforward, blunt, candid, emphatic, manifest.

– OPPOSITES ambiguous.

unerring adjective unailing, infallible, perfect, flawless, faultless, impeccable, unimpeachable; sure, true, assured, deadily; informal sure-fire.

unethical adjective immoral, amoral, unprincipled, unscrupulous, dishonourable, dishonest, wrong, deceitful, unconscionable, fraudulent, underhand, wicked, evil, corrupt; unprofessional, improper.

uneven adjective 1 uneven ground: bumpy, rough, lumpy, stony, rocky, potholed, rutted, pitted, jagged. 2 uneven teeth: irregular, unequal, unbalanced, lopsided, askew, crooked, asymmetrical, unsymmetrical.

3 uneven quality: inconsistent, variable, varying, fluctuating, irregular, erratic, patchy. 4 an uneven contest: one-sided, unequal, unfair, unjust, inequitable, ill-matched, unbalanced.

– OPPOSITES flat, regular, equal.

uneventful adjective unexciting, uninteresting, monotonous, boring, dull, tedious, humdrum, routine, unvaried, ordinary, run-of-the-mill, pedestrian, mundane, predictable.

– OPPOSITES exciting.

unexceptional adjective ordinary, average, typical, everyday, mediocre, run-of-the-mill, middle-of-the-road, indifferent; informal OK, so-so, nothing special, no great shakes, fair-to-middling.

unexpected adjective unforeseen, unanticipated, unpredicted, unlooked-for, without warning; sudden, abrupt, surprising, out of the blue.

unfailing adjective his unfailing good humour: constant, reliable, dependable, steadfast, steady; endless, undying, unfading, inexhaustible, boundless, ceaseless.

unfair adjective 1 the trial was unfair: unjust, inequitable, prejudiced, biased, discriminatory; one-sided, unequal, uneven, unbalanced, partisan. 2 his comments were unfair: undeserved, unmerited, uncalled for, unreasonable, unjustified; Brit. informal out of order. 3 unfair play: unsporting, unsportsmanlike, dirty, below the belt, underhand, dishonourable. 4 you're being very unfair: inconsiderate, thoughtless, insensitive, selfish, mean, unkind, unreasonable.

– OPPOSITES just, justified.

unfaithful adjective 1 her husband had been unfaithful: adulterous, faithless, fickle, untrue, inconstant; informal cheating, two-timing. 2 an unfaithful friend: disloyal, treacherous, traitorous, untrustworthy, unreliable, undependable, false, two-faced, double-crossing, deceitful; literary perfidious.

– OPPOSITES loyal.

unfaltering adjective steady, resolute, resolved, firm, steadfast, fixed, decided, unswerving, unwavering, tireless, indefatigable, persistent, unyielding, relentless, unremitting, unrelenting.

– OPPOSITES unsteady.

unfamiliar adjective 1 an unfamiliar part of the city: unknown, new, strange, foreign, alien. 2 the unfamiliar sounds: unusual, uncommon, unconventional, novel, different, exotic, unorthodox, odd, peculiar, curious, uncharacteristic, anomalous, out of the ordinary. 3 investors unfamiliar with the stock market: unacquainted, unused, unaccustomed, unconversant, inexperienced, uninformed, unenlightened, ignorant, new to, a stranger to.

unfashionable adjective out of fashion, outdated, old-fashioned, outmoded, out of style, dated, unstylish, passé, démodé; informal out, square, out of the ark.

unfasten verb undo, open, disconnect, remove, untie, unbutton, unzip, loose, loosen, free, unlock, unbolt.

unfathomable adjective 1 his dark and unfathomable eyes: inscrutable, incomprehensible, enigmatic, indecipherable, obscure, esoteric, mysterious, mystifying, deep, profound.

2 unfathomable water: deep, immeasurable, unfathomed, unplumbed, bottomless.

– OPPOSITES penetrable.

unfavourable adjective 1 unfavourable comment: adverse, critical, hostile, inimical, unfriendly, unsympathetic, negative; discouraging, disapproving, uncomplimentary, unflattering.

2 the unfavourable economic climate: disadvantageous, adverse, inauspicious, unpropitious, gloomy; unsuitable, inappropriate, inopportune.

– OPPOSITES positive.

unfeeling adjective he is not an unfeeling man: uncaring, unsympathetic, unemotional, uncharitable; heartless, hard-hearted, hard, harsh, austere, cold, cold-hearted.

– OPPOSITES compassionate.

unfeigned adjective sincere, genuine, real, true, honest, unaffected, unforced, heartfelt, wholehearted.

– OPPOSITES insincere.

unfettered adjective unrestrained, unrestricted, unconstrained, free, unbridled, unchecked, uncontrolled.

– OPPOSITES restricted.

unfinished adjective 1 an unfinished essay: incomplete, uncompleted; partial, undone, half-done; imperfect, unpolished, unrefined, sketchy, fragmentary, rough. 2 the door can be supplied unfinished: unpainted, unvarnished, untreated.

– OPPOSITES complete.

unfit adjective 1 the film is unfit for children | unfit for duty: unsuitable, unsuited, inappropriate, unequipped, inadequate, not designed; incapable of, unable to do something, not up to, not equal to; informal not cut out for, not up to scratch. 2 I am unfit: unhealthy, out of condition/shape, in poor condition.

unflagging adjective tireless, persistent, dogged, tenacious, determined, resolute, staunch, single-minded, unrelenting, unfaltering, unailing.

– OPPOSITES inconstant.

unflappable adjective (informal) imperturbable, unexcitable, cool, calm, {cool, calm, and collected}, self-controlled, cool-headed, level-headed; informal laid-back.

– OPPOSITES excitable.

unflattering adjective 1 an unflattering review: unfavourable, uncomplimentary, harsh, unsympathetic, critical, hostile, scathing. 2 an unflattering dress: unattractive, unbecoming, unsightly, ugly, plain, ill-fitting.

– OPPOSITES complimentary, becoming.

unflinching adjective resolute, determined, single-minded, dogged, resolved, firm, committed, steady, unwavering, unflagging, unswerving, unfaltering, untiring, undaunted, fearless.

unfold verb 1 May unfolded the map: open out, spread out, flatten, straighten out, unroll. 2 I watched the events unfold: develop, evolve, happen, take place, occur, transpire, progress. 3 she unfolded her tale to Joanna: narrate, relate, recount, tell, reveal, disclose, divulge, communicate, report, recite.

unforeseen adjective unpredicted, unexpected, unanticipated, unplanned, unlooked-for, not bargained for.

– OPPOSITES expected.

unforgettable adjective memorable, not/never to be forgotten, haunting, catchy; striking, impressive, outstanding, extraordinary, exceptional.

– OPPOSITES unexceptional.

unforgivable adjective inexcusable, unpardonable, unjustifiable, indefensible, inexpiable, irremissible.

– OPPOSITES venial.

unfortunate adjective 1 unfortunate people: unlucky, hapless, out of luck, luckless, wretched, miserable, forlorn, poor, pitiful; informal down on one's luck. 2 an unfortunate start to our holiday: adverse, disadvantageous, unfavourable, unlucky, unwelcome, unpromising, inauspicious, unpropitious; formal grievous.

3 an unfortunate remark: regrettable, inappropriate, unsuitable, infelicitous, tactless, injudicious.

– OPPOSITES lucky, auspicious.

unfortunately adverb unluckily, sadly, regrettably, unhappily, alas, sad to say; informal worse luck.

unfounded adjective groundless, baseless, unsubstantiated, unproven, unsupported, uncorroborated, unconfirmed, unverified, unattested, without basis, without foundation, speculative, conjectural.

– OPPOSITES proven.

unfriendly adjective 1 an unfriendly look: hostile, disagreeable, antagonistic, aggressive; ill-natured, unpleasant, surly, sour, unamiable, uncongenial; inhospitable, unneighbourly, unwelcoming, unkind, unsympathetic; unsociable, antisocial; aloof, cold, cool, frosty, distant, unapproachable; informal stand-offish, starchy. 2 unfriendly terrain: unfavourable, disadvantageous, unpropitious, inauspicious, hostile.

– OPPOSITES amiable, favourable.

ungainly adjective awkward, clumsy, ungraceful, graceless, inelegant, gawky, maladroit, gauche, uncoordinated; old use lumberly.

– OPPOSITES graceful.

ungodly adjective 1 ungodly behaviour: unholy, godless, irreligious, impious, blasphemous, sacrilegious; immoral, corrupt, depraved, sinful, wicked, evil, iniquitous. 2 (informal) he called at an ungodly hour: unreasonable, unsocial, antisocial; informal unearthly.

ungovernable adjective uncontrollable, unmanageable, anarchic, intractable; unruly, disorderly, rebellious, riotous, wild, mutinous, undisciplined.

ungracious adjective rude, impolite, uncivil, discourteous, ill-mannered, bad-mannered, uncouth, disrespectful, insolent, impertinent, offhand.

– OPPOSITES polite.

ungrateful adjective unappreciative, unthankful, ungracious.

– OPPOSITES thankful.

unguarded adjective 1 an unguarded frontier: undefended, unprotected, unfortified; vulnerable, insecure, open to attack. 2 an unguarded remark: careless, ill-considered, incautious, thoughtless, rash, foolhardy, foolish, indiscreet, imprudent, injudicious, ill-judged, insensitive; literary temerarious. 3 an unguarded moment: unwary, inattentive, off guard, distracted, absent-minded.

unhappiness noun sadness, sorrow, dejection, depression, misery, cheerlessness, downheartedness, despondency, despair, desolation, wretchedness, glumness, gloom, gloominess, dolefulness; melancholy, low spirits, mournfulness, woe, heartache, distress, chagrin, grief, pain; informal the blues.

unhappy adjective 1 an unhappy childhood: sad, miserable, sorrowful, dejected, despondent, disconsolate, morose, broken-hearted, heartbroken, down, downcast, dispirited, downhearted, depressed, melancholy, mournful, gloomy, glum, despairing, doleful, forlorn, woebegone, woeful, long-faced, joyless, cheerless; informal down in the mouth/dumps, fed up, blue. 2 in the unhappy event of litigation: unfortunate, unlucky, luckless; ill-starred, ill-fated, doomed; informal jinxed; literary star-crossed. 3 I was unhappy with the service I received: dissatisfied, displeased, discontented, disappointed, disgruntled. 4 'disorganized capitalism' seems an unhappy term: inappropriate, unsuitable, inapt, unfortunate; regrettable, ill-chosen.

– OPPOSITES cheerful.

unharmed adjective 1 they released the hostage unharmed: uninjured, unhurt, unscathed, safe (and sound), alive and well, in one piece, without a scratch. 2 the tomb was unharmed: undamaged, unbroken, unmarred, unspoiled, unsullied, unmarked; sound, intact, perfect, unblemished, pristine.

– OPPOSITES injured, damaged.

unhealthy adjective 1 an unhealthy lifestyle: harmful, detrimental, destructive, injurious, damaging, deleterious; malign, noxious, poisonous, insalubrious, baleful. 2 an unhealthy pallor: ill-looking, ill, unwell, in poor health, ailing, sick, sickly, poorly, indisposed, weak, frail, delicate, infirm, washed out, run down, peaky.

3 an unhealthy obsession with drugs: unwholesome, morbid, macabre, twisted, abnormal, warped, depraved, unnatural; informal sick.

unheard of adjective 1 such behaviour was unheard of: unprecedented, exceptional, extraordinary, out of the ordinary, unthought of, undreamed of, unbelievable, inconceivable, unimaginable, unthinkable; formal unexampled. 2 a game unheard of in the UK: unknown, unfamiliar, new.

– OPPOSITES common, well known.

unheeded adjective disregarded, ignored, neglected, overlooked, unnoted, unrecognized.

unhinged adjective deranged, demented, unbalanced, out of one's mind, crazed, mad, insane, disturbed; informal crazy, mental, bonkers, batty, loopy, bananas, touched.

– OPPOSITES sane.

unholy adjective 1 a grin of unholy amusement: ungodly, godless, irreligious, impious, blasphemous, sacrilegious, profane, irreverent; wicked, evil, immoral, corrupt, depraved, sinful. 2 (informal) an unholy row: shocking, dreadful, outrageous, appalling, terrible, horrendous, frightful. 3 an unholy alliance: unnatural, unusual, improbable, made in Hell.

unhoped for adjective unexpected, unanticipated, unforeseen, unlooked-for, undreamed of, out of the blue.

– OPPOSITES expected.

unhurried adjective leisurely, easy, easy-going, relaxed, slow, deliberate, measured, calm.

– OPPOSITES hasty.

unhygienic adjective insanitary, unsanitary, dirty, filthy, contaminated, unhealthy, unwholesome, insalubrious, polluted, foul.

– OPPOSITES sanitary.

unidentified adjective unknown, unnamed, anonymous, incognito, nameless, unfamiliar, strange.

– OPPOSITES known.

unification noun union, merger, fusion, fusing, amalgamation, coalition, combination, confederation, federation, synthesis, joining.

uniform adjective 1 a uniform temperature: constant, consistent, steady, invariable, unvarying, unfluctuating, unchanging, stable, static, regular, fixed, even, equal. 2 pieces of uniform size: identical, matching, similar, equal; same, like, homogeneous, consistent.

– OPPOSITES variable.

• noun a soldier in uniform: costume, livery, regalia, suit, ensemble, outfit; regimentals, colours; informal get-up, rig, gear; old use habit.

uniformity noun 1 uniformity in tax law: constancy, consistency, conformity, invariability, stability, regularity, evenness, homogeneity, homogeneousness, equality.

2 a dull uniformity: monotony, tedium, tediousness, dullness, dreariness, flatness, sameness.

– OPPOSITES variation, variety.

unify verb unite, bring together, join (together), merge, fuse, amalgamate, coalesce, combine, blend, mix, bind, consolidate.

– OPPOSITES separate.

unimaginable adjective unthinkable, inconceivable, incredible, unbelievable, unheard of, unthought of, untold, undreamed of, beyond one's wildest dreams.

unimaginative adjective uninspired, uninventive, unoriginal, uncreative, commonplace, pedestrian, mundane, ordinary, routine, humdrum, workaday, run-of-the-mill, hackneyed, trite.

unimpeachable adjective trustworthy, reliable, dependable, above suspicion, irreproachable.

– OPPOSITES unreliable.

unimpeded adjective unrestricted, unhindered, unblocked, unhampered, free, clear.

unimportant adjective insignificant, inconsequential, trivial, minor, trifling, of little/no importance, of little/no consequence, of no account, irrelevant, peripheral, extraneous, petty, paltry; informal piddling; formal of no moment.

uninhabited adjective 1 much of this land was uninhabited: unpopulated, unpeopled, unsettled. 2 an uninhabited hut: vacant, empty, unoccupied, untenanted, to let.

uninhibited adjective 1 uninhibited dancing:

unrestrained, unrepressed, abandoned, wild, reckless; unrestricted, uncontrolled, unchecked, intemperate, wanton.

2 I'm pretty uninhibited: unreserved, unrepressed, liberated, unself-conscious, free and easy, relaxed, informal, open, outgoing, extrovert, outspoken, frank, forthright; informal upfront.

– OPPOSITES repressed.

uninspired adjective unimaginative, uninventive, pedestrian, mundane, unoriginal, commonplace, ordinary, routine, humdrum, run-of-the-mill, hackneyed, trite; spiritless, passionless.

uninspiring adjective boring, dull, dreary, unexciting, unstimulating; dry, colourless, bland, lacklustre, tedious, humdrum, run-of-the-mill.

unintelligent adjective stupid, ignorant, dense, brainless, mindless, foolish, dull-witted, slow, simple-minded, vacuous, vapid, idiotic, obtuse; informal thick, dim, dumb, dopey, half-witted, dozy.

unintelligible adjective 1 unintelligible sounds: incomprehensible, indiscernible, mumbled, indistinct, unclear, slurred, inarticulate, incoherent, garbled. 2 unintelligible graffiti: illegible, indecipherable, unreadable.

unintentional adjective unintended, accidental, inadvertent, involuntary, unwitting, unthinking, unpremeditated, unconscious.

– OPPOSITES deliberate.

uninterested adjective indifferent, unconcerned, uninvolved, apathetic, lukewarm, unenthusiastic.

uninteresting adjective unexciting, boring, dull, tiresome, wearisome, tedious, dreary, lifeless, humdrum, colourless, bland, insipid, banal, dry, pedestrian; informal samey.

– OPPOSITES exciting.

uninterrupted adjective unbroken, continuous, continual, undisturbed, untroubled.

– OPPOSITES intermittent.

uninvited adjective 1 an uninvited guest:

unasked, unexpected; unwelcome, unwanted. 2 uninvited suggestions:

unsolicited, unrequested, unsought.

uninviting adjective unappealing, unattractive, unappetizing, off-putting; bleak, cheerless, dreary, dismal, depressing, grim, inhospitable.

– OPPOSITES tempting.

union noun 1 the union of art and nature:

unification, uniting, joining, merging, merger, fusion, fusing, amalgamating, amalgamation, coalition, combination, synthesis, blend, blending, mingling. 2 the crowd moved in union: unity, accord, union, harmony, agreement, concurrence; formal concord. 3 his daughter's union: marriage, wedding, alliance; coupling, intercourse, copulation. 4 representation by a union: association, trade union, league, guild, confederation, federation.

– OPPOSITES separation, parting.

unique adjective 1 each site is unique:

distinctive, individual, special, idiosyncratic; single, sole, lone, unrepeatable, unrepeatable, solitary, exclusive, rare, uncommon, unusual; informal one-off. 2 a unique insight into history: remarkable, special, singular, noteworthy, notable, extraordinary; unequalled, unparalleled, unmatched, unsurpassed, incomparable; formal unexampled. 3 species unique to the island: peculiar, specific.

unison noun

■ in unison 1 they lifted their arms in unison: simultaneously, at (one and) the same time, (all) at once, (all) together. 2 we are in complete unison: in agreement, in accord, in harmony, as one; formal in concord.

unit noun 1 the family is the fundamental unit of society: component, element, constituent, subdivision. 2 a unit of currency: quantity, measure, denomination. 3 a guerrilla unit: detachment, contingent, division, company, squadron, corps, regiment, brigade, platoon, battalion; cell, faction.

unite verb 1 uniting the nation: unify, join, link, connect, combine, amalgamate, fuse, weld, bond, bring together, knit together. 2 environmentalists and activists united: join together, join forces, combine, band together, ally, cooperate, collaborate, work together, pull together, team up. 3 he sought to unite comfort with elegance: merge, mix, blend, mingle, combine; literary commingle.

– OPPOSITES divide.

united adjective 1 a united Germany:

unified, integrated, amalgamated, joined, merged; federal, confederate. 2 a united response: common, shared, joint, combined, communal, cooperative, collective, collaborative, concerted. 3 they were united in their views: in agreement, agreed, in unison, of the same opinion, like-minded, as one, in accord, in harmony, in unity.

United States of America noun

America, the USA, the US; informal the States, the US of A, Uncle Sam; literary Columbia.

unity noun 1 European unity: union, unification, integration, amalgamation; coalition, federation, confederation. 2 unity between opposing factions: harmony, accord, cooperation, collaboration, agreement, consensus, solidarity; formal concord. 3 the organic unity of the universe: oneness, singleness, wholeness, uniformity, homogeneity.

– OPPOSITES division, discord.

universal adjective general, ubiquitous, comprehensive, common, omnipresent, all-inclusive; global, worldwide, international, widespread.

universally adverb invariably, always, without exception, in all cases; everywhere, worldwide, globally, internationally; widely, commonly, generally.

universe noun 1 the physical universe:

cosmos, macrocosm, totality; infinity, all existence. 2 the universe of computer hardware: province, world, sphere, preserve, domain.

WORD LINKS

cosmic relating to the universe cosmology the science of the origin and development of the universe astronomy the study of stars, planets, and the universe

Big Bang the explosion of dense matter said to have marked the origin of the universe university noun college, academy, institute; alma mater; N. Amer. school; historical polytechnic.

WORD LINKS

matriculation university enrolment freshman a first-year university student undergraduate a student who has not taken their first degree graduate a person who has been awarded a degree postgraduate a student studying for a second degree don, professor a university teacher campus a university's grounds and buildings tenure a permanent teaching post at a university unjust adjective 1 the attack was unjust:

biased, prejudiced, unfair, inequitable, discriminatory, partisan, partial, one-sided. 2 an unjust law: wrongful, unfair, undeserved, unmerited, unwarranted, uncalled for, unreasonable, unjustifiable, indefensible.

– OPPOSITES fair.

unjustifiable adjective 1 an unjustifiable extravagance: indefensible, inexcusable, unforgivable, unpardonable, uncalled for, without justification, unwarrantable; excessive, immoderate. 2 an unjustifiable slur on his character: groundless, unfounded, baseless, unsubstantiated, unconfirmed, uncorroborated.

– OPPOSITES reasonable.

unkempt adjective untidy, messy, scruffy, disordered, dishevelled, disarranged, rumpled, wind-blown, ungroomed, bedraggled, in a mess, messed up; tousled, uncombed; N. Amer. informal mussed up.

– OPPOSITES tidy.

unkind adjective 1 everyone was being unkind to him: uncharitable, unpleasant, disagreeable, nasty, mean, mean-spirited, cruel, vicious, spiteful, malicious, callous, unsympathetic, unfeeling, uncaring, hurtful, ill-natured, hard-hearted, cold-hearted; unfriendly, uncivil, inconsiderate, insensitive, hostile; informal bitchy, catty; Brit. informal beastly. 2 unkind weather: inclement, intemperate, rough, severe, filthy.

unkindness noun nastiness, unpleasantness, disagreeableness, cruelty, malice, meanness, mean-spiritedness, viciousness, callousness, hard-heartedness, cold-heartedness; unfriendliness, inconsiderateness, hostility; informal bitchiness, cattiness.

unknown adjective 1 the outcome was unknown: undisclosed, unrevealed, secret; undetermined, undecided, unresolved, unsettled, unsure, unascertained.

2 unknown country: unexplored, uncharted, unmapped, untravelled, undiscovered.

3 persons unknown: unidentified, unnamed, nameless, anonymous. 4 firearms were unknown to the Indians: unfamiliar, unheard of, new, novel, strange. 5 unknown artists: obscure, unheard of, unsung, minor, insignificant, unimportant, undistinguished.

– OPPOSITES familiar.

unlawful adjective illegal, illicit, illegitimate, against the law; criminal, felonious; prohibited, banned, outlawed, proscribed, forbidden.

– OPPOSITES legal.

unleash verb let loose, release, (set) free, unloose, untie, untether, unchain.

unlettered adjective illiterate, uneducated, poorly educated, unschooled, unlearned, ignorant.

– OPPOSITES educated.

unlike preposition 1 England is totally unlike Jamaica: different from, unlike, dissimilar to. 2 unlike Linda, Chrissy was a bit of a radical: in contrast to, as opposed to.

– OPPOSITES similar too.

• adjective a meeting of unlike minds:

dissimilar, unlike, disparate, contrasting, antithetical, different, diverse, heterogeneous, divergent, at variance, varying, at odds; informal like chalk and cheese.

unlikely adjective 1 it is unlikely they will ever recover: improbable, doubtful, dubious.

2 an unlikely story: implausible, improbable, questionable, unconvincing, far-fetched, unrealistic, incredible, unbelievable, inconceivable, unimaginable; informal tall, cock-and-bull.

– OPPOSITES probable, believable.

unlimited adjective 1 unlimited supplies of water: inexhaustible, limitless, illimitable, boundless, immeasurable, incalculable, untold, infinite, endless, never-ending.

2 unlimited travel: unrestricted, unconstrained, unrestrained, unchecked, unbridled, uncurbed. 3 unlimited power: total, unqualified, unconditional, unrestricted, absolute, supreme.

– OPPOSITES finite, restricted.

unload verb 1 we unloaded the van: unpack, empty; old use unlade. 2 they unloaded the cases from the lorry: remove, offload, discharge. 3 the state unloaded its 25 per cent stake: sell, discard, jettison, offload, get rid of, dispose of; palm something off on someone, foist something on someone, fob something off on someone; informal dump, junk, get shot/shut of.

unlock verb unbolt, unlatch, unbar, unfasten, open.

unlooked-for adjective unexpected, unforeseen, unanticipated, unsought, unpredicted, undreamed of, fortuitous, chance, serendipitous.

unloved adjective uncared-for, unwanted, friendless, unvalued; rejected, unwelcome, shunned, spurned, neglected, abandoned.

unlucky adjective 1 he was unlucky not to score: unfortunate, luckless, out of luck, hapless, ill-fated, ill-starred, unhappy; informal down on one's luck; literary star-crossed.

2 an unlucky number: unfavourable, inauspicious, unpropitious, ominous, cursed, ill-fated, ill-omened, disadvantageous, unfortunate.

– OPPOSITES fortunate, favourable.

unmanageable adjective 1 the huge house was unmanageable: troublesome, awkward, inconvenient; cumbersome, bulky, unwieldy. 2 his behaviour was becoming unmanageable:

uncontrollable, ungovernable, unruly, disorderly, out of hand, difficult, disruptive, undisciplined, wayward; informal stropky; old use contumacious.

unmanly adjective effeminate, effete, unmasculine; weak, soft, timid, timorous, limp-wristed; informal sissy, wimpish, wimpy.

– OPPOSITES virile.

unmannerly adjective rude, impolite, uncivil, discourteous, bad-mannered, ill-mannered, disrespectful, impertinent, impudent, insolent; uncouth, boorish, oafish, loutish, ill-bred, coarse.

– OPPOSITES polite.

unmarried adjective unwed(d), single;

spinster, bachelor; unattached, available, eligible, free.

unmatched adjective 1 a talent for publicity unmatched by any other politician: unequaled, unrivalled, unparalleled, unsurpassed. 2 unmatched clarity and balance: peerless, matchless, without equal, without parallel, incomparable, inimitable, superlative, second to none, in a class of its own.

unmentionable adjective taboo, censored, forbidden, banned, proscribed, prohibited, not to be spoken of, ineffable, unspeakable, unutterable, unprintable, off limits; informal no go.

unmerciful adjective ruthless, cruel, harsh, merciless, pitiless, cold-blooded, hard-hearted, callous, brutal, severe, unforgiving, inhumane, inhuman, heartless, unsympathetic, unfeeling.

unmistakable adjective distinctive, distinct, telltale, indisputable, indubitable, undoubted; plain, clear, definite, obvious, evident, self-evident, manifest, patent, unambiguous, unequivocal, pronounced, as plain as the nose on your face.

unmitigated adjective absolute, unqualified, categorical, complete, total, downright, outright, utter, out-and-out, undiluted, unequivocal, veritable, perfect, consummate, pure, sheer.

unmoved adjective 1 he was totally unmoved by her outburst: unaffected, untouched, unimpressed, undismayed, unworried; aloof, cool, cold, dry-eyed; unconcerned, uncaring, indifferent, impassive, unemotional, stoical, phlegmatic, equable; impervious (to), oblivious (to), heedless (of), deaf to. 2 he remained unmoved on the crucial issues: steadfast, firm, unwavering, unswerving, resolute, decided, resolved, inflexible, unbending, implacable, adamant.

unnatural adjective 1 wanting to help other people is not unnatural: abnormal, unusual, uncommon, extraordinary, strange, freak, odd, peculiar, unorthodox, exceptional, irregular, atypical. 2 a flash of unnatural colour: artificial, man-made, synthetic, manufactured. 3 unnatural vice: perverted, warped, twisted, deviant, depraved, degenerate; informal kinky, pervy, sick. 4 her voice sounded unnatural: affected, artificial, stilted, forced, laboured, strained, false, fake, insincere; informal put on, phoney. 5 they condemned her as an unnatural woman: uncaring, unfeeling, heartless, cold-blooded, hard-hearted, callous, cruel, inhumane.

– OPPOSITES normal, genuine.

unnecessary adjective unneeded, inessential, not required, uncalled for, useless, unwarranted, unwanted, undesired, dispensable, unimportant, optional, extraneous, expendable, disposable, redundant, pointless, purposeless.

– OPPOSITES essential.

unnerve verb demoralize, discourage, dishearten, dispirit, daunt, alarm, frighten, dismay, disconcert, discompose, perturb, upset, discomfit, take aback, unsettle, disquiet, fluster, agitate, shake, ruffle, throw off balance; informal rattle, faze, shake up; Brit. informal put the wind up; N. Amer. informal discombobulate.

– OPPOSITES hearten.

unobtrusive adjective 1 she was unobtrusive and shy: self-effacing, retiring, unassuming, quiet; shy, bashful, timid, timorous, reserved, withdrawn, introvert(ed), unforthcoming, unassertive. 2 unobtrusive service: inconspicuous, unnoticeable, low-key, discreet, circumspect, understated, unostentatious.

– OPPOSITES extrovert, conspicuous.

unoccupied adjective 1 an unoccupied house: vacant, empty, uninhabited; free, available, to let. 2 an unoccupied territory: uninhabited, unpopulated, unpeopled, unsettled. 3 many young people were unoccupied: at leisure, idle, free, with time on one's hands, at a loose end.

– OPPOSITES inhabited, populated, busy.

unofficial adjective 1 unofficial figures: unauthenticated, unconfirmed, uncorroborated, unsubstantiated, off the record. 2 an unofficial committee: informal, casual; unauthorized, unsanctioned, unaccredited.

– OPPOSITES confirmed, formal.

unorthodox adjective 1 unorthodox views on management: unconventional, unusual, radical, nonconformist, avant-garde, eccentric; informal off the wall, way out, offbeat. 2 unorthodox religious views: heterodox, heretical, nonconformist, dissenting.

– OPPOSITES conventional.

unpaid adjective 1 unpaid bills: unsettled, outstanding, due, overdue, owing, owed, payable, undischarged; N. Amer. delinquent, past due. 2 unpaid charity work: voluntary, volunteer, honorary, unremunerative, unsalaried, pro bono (publico).

unpalatable adjective 1 unpalatable food: unappetizing, unappealing, unsavoury, inedible, uneatable; disgusting, revolting, nauseating, tasteless, flavourless. 2 the unpalatable truth: disagreeable, unpleasant, regrettable, unwelcome, lamentable, dreadful, hateful.

– OPPOSITES tasty.

unparalleled adjective exceptional, unique, singular, rare, unequalled, unprecedented, without parallel, without equal; matchless, peerless, unrivalled, unsurpassed, unexcelled, incomparable, second to none; formal unexampled.

unperturbed adjective untroubled, undisturbed, unworried, unconcerned, unmoved, unflustered, unruffled, undismayed; calm, composed, cool, collected, unemotional, self-possessed, self-assured, level-headed, unfazed, laid-back.

unpleasant adjective 1 a very unpleasant situation: disagreeable, irksome, troublesome, annoying, irritating, vexatious, displeasing, distressing, nasty, horrible, terrible, awful, dreadful, hateful, miserable, invidious, objectionable, offensive, obnoxious, repugnant, repulsive, repellent, revolting, disgusting, distasteful, nauseating, unsavoury. 2 an unpleasant man: nasty, disagreeable, unfriendly, rude, spiteful, mean, mean-spirited; insufferable, unbearable, obnoxious, annoying, irritating.

3 an unpleasant taste: unappetizing, unpalatable, unsavoury, unappealing, bitter, sour, rancid; disgusting, revolting, nauseating, sickening.

– OPPOSITES agreeable, likeable.

unpolished adjective 1 unpolished wood: unvarnished, unfinished, untreated, natural. 2 his unpolished ways: unsophisticated, unrefined, uncultured, uncultivated, coarse, vulgar, crude, rough (and ready), awkward, clumsy, gauche. 3 an unpolished performance: slipshod, rough, crude, uneven.

– OPPOSITES varnished, sophisticated.

unpopular adjective disliked, friendless, unliked, unloved; unwelcome, avoided, ignored, rejected, shunned, spurned, cold-shouldered.

unprecedented adjective unparalleled, unequalled, unmatched, unrivalled, without parallel, without equal, out of the ordinary, unusual, exceptional, singular, remarkable, unique; unheard of, unknown, new, groundbreaking, revolutionary, pioneering; formal unexampled.

unpredictable adjective 1 unpredictable results: unforeseeable, uncertain, unsure, doubtful, dubious, in the balance, up in the air, arbitrary. 2 unpredictable behaviour: erratic, moody, volatile, unstable, capricious, temperamental, mercurial, changeable, variable.

unprejudiced adjective 1 unprejudiced observation: objective, impartial, unbiased, neutral, non-partisan, detached, disinterested. 2 unprejudiced attitudes: unbiased, non-discriminatory, tolerant, liberal, broad-minded, unbigoted.

– OPPOSITES partisan, intolerant.

unpremeditated adjective unplanned, unprepared, spontaneous, impromptu, spur-of-the-moment, unrehearsed; informal off-the-cuff.

– OPPOSITES planned.

unprepared adjective 1 we were unprepared for the new VAT regime: unready, off (one's) guard, surprised, taken aback; informal caught napping, caught on the hop. 2 they are unprepared to support the reforms: unwilling, disinclined, loath, reluctant, resistant, opposed.

– OPPOSITES ready, willing.

unpretentious adjective 1 he was thoroughly unpretentious: unaffected, modest, unassuming, without airs, natural, straightforward, open, honest, sincere, frank. 2 an unpretentious hotel: simple, plain, modest, humble, unostentatious, homely, unsophisticated.

unprincipled adjective immoral, unethical, unscrupulous, dishonourable, dishonest, deceitful, devious, corrupt, crooked, wicked, evil, villainous, shameless, base, low.
– OPPOSITES ethical.

unproductive adjective 1 unproductive soil: sterile, barren, infertile, unfruitful; poor. 2 unproductive meetings: fruitless, futile, vain, idle, useless, worthless, valueless, pointless, ineffective, ineffectual, unprofitable, unrewarding.
– OPPOSITES fruitful.

unprofessional adjective 1 unprofessional conduct: improper, unethical, unprincipled, unscrupulous, dishonourable, disreputable, unseemly, unbecoming, indecorous; informal, shady, crooked. 2 he accused the detectives of being unprofessional: amateurish, amateur, unskilled, unskilful, inexperienced, unqualified, inexperienced, incompetent, second-rate, inefficient.

unpromising adjective inauspicious, unfavourable, unpropitious, discouraging, disheartening, gloomy, bleak, black, portentous, ominous, ill-omened.
– OPPOSITES auspicious.

unqualified adjective 1 an unqualified accountant: uncertificated, unlicensed, untrained, inexperienced. 2 those unqualified to look after children: unsuitable, unfit, ineligible, incompetent, unable, incapable. 3 unqualified support: unconditional, unreserved, unlimited, without reservations, categorical, unequivocal, unambiguous, wholehearted; complete, absolute, downright, undivided, total, utter.

unquestionable adjective indubitable, undoubted, beyond question, beyond doubt, indisputable, undeniable, irrefutable, incontestable, incontrovertible, unequivocal; certain, sure, definite, self-evident, evident, manifest, obvious, apparent, patent.

unravel verb 1 he unravelled the strands: untangle, disentangle, separate out, unwind, untwist. 2 detectives are trying to unravel the mystery: solve, resolve, clear up, puzzle out, get to the bottom of, explain, clarify, make head or tail of; informal figure out, suss (out). 3 society is starting to unravel: fall apart, fail, collapse, go wrong.
– OPPOSITES entangle.

unreadable adjective 1 unreadable writing: illegible, hard to read, indecipherable, unintelligible, scrawled, crabbed. 2 heavy, unreadable novels: dull, tedious, boring, uninteresting, dry, wearisome, difficult, heavy. 3 Nathan's expression was unreadable: inscrutable, enigmatic, impenetrable, cryptic, mysterious, deadpan, poker-faced.
– OPPOSITES legible, accessible.

unreal adjective imaginary, fictitious, pretend, make-believe, made-up, dreamed-up, mock, false, illusory, mythical, fanciful; hypothetical, theoretical; informal phoney.

unrealistic adjective 1 it is unrealistic to expect changes overnight: impractical, impracticable, unfeasible, non-viable; unreasonable, irrational, illogical, senseless, silly, foolish, fanciful, idealistic, romantic, starry-eyed. 2 unrealistic images: unlikelike, non-realistic, unnatural, non-representational, abstract.

– OPPOSITES pragmatic, lifelike.

unreasonable adjective 1 an unreasonable woman: uncooperative, unhelpful, disobliging, unaccommodating, awkward, contrary, difficult; obstinate, obdurate, wilful, headstrong, pig-headed, intractable, intransigent, inflexible; irrational, illogical, prejudiced, intolerant. 2 unreasonable demands: unacceptable, preposterous, outrageous; excessive, immoderate, disproportionate, undue, inordinate, intolerable, unjustified, unwarranted, uncalled for.

unrecognizable adjective unidentifiable, unknowable; disguised.

unrefined adjective 1 unrefined clay: unprocessed, untreated, crude, raw, natural, unprepared, unfinished. 2 unrefined men: uncultured, uncultivated, uncivilized, uneducated, unsophisticated; boorish, oafish, loutish, coarse, vulgar, rude, uncouth.

– OPPOSITES processed.

unrelated adjective 1 unrelated incidents: separate, unconnected, independent, unassociated, distinct, discrete, disparate. 2 a reason unrelated to my work: irrelevant, immaterial, inapplicable, unconcerned, beside the point, not pertinent, not germane.

unrelenting adjective 1 the unrelenting heat: continual, constant, continuous, relentless, unremitting, unabating, unrelieved, incessant, unceasing, endless, unending, persistent. 2 an unrelenting opponent: implacable, inflexible, uncompromising, unyielding, unbending, relentless, determined, dogged, tireless, unflagging, unshakeable, unswerving, unwavering.
– OPPOSITES intermittent.

unreliable adjective 1 unreliable volunteers: undependable, untrustworthy, irresponsible, fickle, capricious, erratic, unpredictable, inconstant, faithless. 2 an unreliable indicator: questionable, open to doubt, doubtful, dubious, suspect, unsound, tenuous, fallible; risky, chancy, inaccurate; informal iffy, dicey.

unremitting adjective relentless, unrelenting, continual, constant, continuous, unabating, unrelieved, sustained, unceasing, ceaseless, endless, unending, persistent, perpetual, interminable.

unrepentant adjective impenitent, unrepenting, remorseless, unashamed, unapologetic, unabashed.

unreserved adjective 1 unreserved support: unconditional, unqualified, without reservations, unlimited, categorical, unequivocal, unambiguous; absolute, complete, thorough, wholehearted, total, utter, undivided. 2 an unreserved young man: uninhibited, extrovert, outgoing, unrestrained, open, unconstrained, unselfconscious, outspoken, frank, candid. 3 unreserved seats: unbooked, unallocated, unoccupied, free, empty, vacant.

– OPPOSITES qualified, reticent, booked.

unresolved adjective undecided, unsettled, undetermined, uncertain, open, pending, open to debate/question, doubtful, in doubt, up in the air.

– OPPOSITES decided.

unrest noun disruption, disturbance, trouble, turmoil, disorder, chaos, anarchy; discord, dissension, dissent, strife, protest, rebellion, uprising, rioting.

– OPPOSITES peace.

unrestrained adjective uncontrolled, unconstrained, unrestricted, unchecked, unbridled, unlimited, unfettered, uninhibited, unbounded, undisciplined.

unrestricted adjective unlimited, open, free, clear, unhindered, unimpeded, unhampered, unchecked, unrestrained, unconstrained, unblocked, unbounded, unconfined, unqualified.

– OPPOSITES limited.

unripe adjective immature, unready, green, sour.

unrivalled adjective unequalled, without equal, unparalleled, without parallel, unmatched, unsurpassed, unexcelled, incomparable, beyond compare, inimitable, second to none.

unruffled adjective 1 an unruffled voice: calm, composed, self-controlled, self-possessed, untroubled, unperturbed, at ease, relaxed, serene, cool, {cool, calm, and collected}, cool-headed, unemotional, equanimous, equable, stoical; informal unfazed. 2 an unruffled sea: tranquil, calm, smooth, still, flat, motionless, placid, waveless, pacific, like a millpond.

unruly adjective disorderly, rowdy, wild, unmanageable, uncontrollable, disobedient, disruptive, undisciplined, wayward, wilful, headstrong, irrepressible, obstreperous, difficult, intractable, out of hand, recalcitrant; boisterous, lively; formal refractory; old use contumacious.

– OPPOSITES disciplined.

unsafe adjective 1 the building was unsafe: dangerous, risky, perilous, hazardous, life-threatening, high-risk, treacherous, insecure, unsound; harmful, injurious, toxic. 2 the verdict was unsafe: unreliable, insecure, unsound, questionable, open to question/doubt, doubtful, dubious, suspect, fallible; informal iffy.

– OPPOSITES harmless, secure.

unsaid adjective unspoken, unuttered, unstated, unexpressed, unvoiced, untalked-of, suppressed; tacit, implicit, understood, not spelled out, taken as read, inferred, implied.

unsanitary adjective unhygienic, insanitary, dirty, filthy, unclean, contaminated, unhealthy, germ-ridden, disease-ridden, infested, insalubrious, polluted.

– OPPOSITES hygienic.

unsatisfactory adjective disappointing, dissatisfying, undesirable, disagreeable, displeasing; inadequate, unacceptable, poor, bad, substandard, weak, mediocre, not good enough, not up to par, defective, deficient, imperfect, inferior; informal leaving a lot to be desired, no great shakes, not much cop.

unsavoury adjective 1 unsavoury portions of food: unpalatable, unappetizing, distasteful, disagreeable, unappealing, unattractive; inedible, uneatable, disgusting, revolting, nauseating, sickening, foul, nasty, vile; tasteless, bland, flavourless; informal yucky.

2 an unsavoury character: disreputable, unpleasant, disagreeable, nasty, mean, rough; immoral, degenerate, dishonourable, dishonest, unprincipled, unscrupulous, low, villainous; informal shady, crooked.

– OPPOSITES tasty, appetizing.

unscathed adjective unharmed, unhurt, uninjured, undamaged, in one piece, intact, safe (and sound), unmarked, untouched, unscratched.

– OPPOSITES harmed, injured.

unscrupulous adjective unprincipled, unethical, immoral, conscienceless, shameless, reprobate, exploitative, corrupt, dishonest, dishonourable, deceitful, devious, underhand, unsavoury, disreputable, evil, wicked, villainous; informal crooked, shady; dated dastardly.

unseat verb 1 the horse unseated his rider: dislodge, throw, dismount, upset, unhorse.

2 an attempt to unseat the party leader:

depose, oust, remove from office, topple, overthrow, bring down, dislodge, supplant, usurp, overturn, eject.

unseemly adjective indecorous, improper, unbecoming, unfitting, unbecoming, unworthy, undignified, indiscreet, indelicate, ungentlemanly, unladylike.

– OPPOSITES decorous.

unseen adjective hidden, concealed, obscured, camouflaged, out of sight, imperceptible, undetectable, unnoticeable, unnoticed, unobserved.

unselfish adjective altruistic, disinterested, selfless, self-denying, self-sacrificing; generous, philanthropic, public-spirited, charitable, benevolent, caring, kind, considerate, noble.

unsettle verb discompose, unnerve, upset, disturb, disquiet, perturb, discomfit, disconcert, alarm, dismay, trouble, bother, agitate, fluster, ruffle, shake (up), throw, unbalance, destabilize; informal rattle, faze.

unsettled adjective 1 an unsettled life: aimless, directionless, purposeless, without purpose; rootless, nomadic. 2 an unsettled child: restless, restive, fidgety, anxious, worried, troubled, fretful; agitated, ruffled, uneasy, disconcerted, discomposed, unnerved, ill at ease, edgy, on edge, tense, nervous, apprehensive, disturbed, perturbed; informal rattled. 3 unsettled weather: changeable, changing, variable, varying, inconstant, inconsistent, ever-changing, erratic, unstable, undependable, unreliable, uncertain, unpredictable, protean. 4 the question remains unsettled: undecided, to be decided, unresolved, undetermined, uncertain, open to debate, doubtful, in doubt, up in the air. 5 the debt remains unsettled: unpaid, payable, outstanding, owing, owed, to be paid, due, undischarged; N. Amer. delinquent, past due. 6 unsettled areas: uninhabited, unpopulated, unpeopled, desolate, lonely.

unshakeable adjective steadfast, resolute, staunch, firm, decided, determined, unswerving, unwavering; unyielding, inflexible, dogged, obstinate, persistent, indefatigable, tireless, unflagging, unremitting, unrelenting, relentless.

unsightly adjective ugly, unattractive, unprepossessing, unlovely, disagreeable, displeasing, hideous, horrible, repulsive, revolting, offensive, grotesque, monstrous, ghastly.

– OPPOSITES attractive.

unskilful adjective inexpert, incompetent, inept, unskilled, amateurish, unprofessional, inexperienced, untrained, unpractised; informal ham-fisted, ham-handed, cack-handed.

unskilled adjective untrained, unqualified; manual, blue-collar, labouring, menial; inexpert, inexperienced, unpractised, amateurish, unprofessional.

unsociable adjective unfriendly, uncongenial, unneighbourly, unapproachable, introverted, reticent, reserved, withdrawn, aloof, distant, remote, detached, unsocial, antisocial, taciturn, silent, quiet; informal stand-offish.

– OPPOSITES friendly.

unsolicited adjective uninvited, unsought, unasked for, unrequested.

unsophisticated adjective 1 she seemed terribly unsophisticated: unworldly, naive, simple, innocent, ignorant, green, immature, callow, inexperienced, childlike, artless, guileless, ingenuous, natural, unaffected, unassuming, unpretentious. 2 unsophisticated software: simple, crude, basic, rudimentary, primitive, rough and ready; straightforward, uncomplicated, uninvolved.

U unsound adjective 1 structurally unsound: rickety, flimsy, wobbly, unstable, crumbling, damaged, rotten, ramshackle, insubstantial, unsafe, dangerous. 2 this submission appears unsound: untenable, flawed, defective, faulty, ill-founded, flimsy, unreliable, questionable, dubious, tenuous, suspect, fallacious, fallible; informal iffy. 3 of unsound mind: disordered, deranged, disturbed, demented, unstable, unbalanced, unhinged, insane; informal touched.

– OPPOSITES strong.

unsparing adjective 1 he is unsparing in his criticism: merciless, pitiless, ruthless, relentless, remorseless, unmerciful, unforgiving, implacable, uncompromising; stern, strict, severe, harsh, tough, rigorous. 2 unsparing approval: ungrudging, unstinting, willingly given, free, free-handed, ready; lavish, liberal, generous, magnanimous, open-handed.

unspeakable adjective 1 unspeakable delights: indescribable, beyond description, inexpressible, unutterable, indefinable, unimaginable, inconceivable, marvellous, wonderful. 2 an unspeakable crime: dreadful, awful, appalling, horrific, horrifying, horrendous, abominable, frightful, fearful, shocking, ghastly, gruesome, monstrous, heinous, egregious, deplorable, despicable, execrable, vile.

unspecified adjective unnamed, unstated, unidentified, undesignated, undefined, unfixed, undecided, undetermined, uncertain; nameless, unknown, indefinite, indeterminate, vague.

unspectacular adjective unremarkable, unexceptional, undistinguished, unmemorable; ordinary, average, commonplace, mediocre, run-of-the-mill, indifferent.

– OPPOSITES remarkable.

unspoilt adjective unimpaired, as good as new/before, perfect, pristine, immaculate, unblemished, unharmed, unflawed, undamaged, untouched, unmarked, untainted.

unspoken adjective unstated, unexpressed, unuttered, unsaid, unvoiced, unarticulated, undeclared, not spelled out; tacit, implicit, implied, understood, taken as read.

– OPPOSITES explicit.

unstable adjective 1 icebergs are notoriously unstable: unsteady, rocky, wobbly, rickety, shaky, unsafe, insecure, precarious. 2 unstable coffee prices: changeable, volatile, variable, fluctuating, irregular, unpredictable, erratic. 3 he was mentally unstable: unbalanced, of unsound mind, mentally ill, deranged, demented, disturbed, unhinged.

– OPPOSITES steady, firm.

unsteady adjective 1 she was unsteady on her feet: unstable, rocky, wobbly, rickety, shaky, tottery, dodder, insecure. 2 an unsteady flow: irregular, uneven, varying, variable, erratic, spasmodic, changeable, changing, fluctuating, inconstant, intermittent, fitful.

– OPPOSITES stable, regular.

unstinted adjective unintended praise: lavish, liberal, generous, open-handed, ungrudging, unsparing, willingly given, ready, profuse, abundant, ample.

unstudied adjective natural, easy, unaffected, unforced, uncontrived, unstilted, unpretentious, without airs, artless.

unsubstantiated adjective unconfirmed, unsupported, uncorroborated, unverified, unattested, unproven; unfounded, groundless, baseless, without foundation.

unsuccessful adjective 1 an unsuccessful attempt: failed, without success, abortive, ineffective, fruitless, profitless, unproductive; vain, futile, useless, pointless, worthless. 2 an unsuccessful business: unprofitable, loss-making. 3 an unsuccessful candidate: failed, losing, beaten; unlucky, out of luck.

unsuitable adjective 1 an unsuitable product: inappropriate, unsuited, ill-suited, inapt, inapposite, unacceptable, unfitting, unbecoming, incompatible, out of place/keeping. 2 an unsuitable moment: inopportune, infelicitous; formal malapropos.
– OPPOSITES appropriate, opportune.

unsullied adjective spotless, untarnished, unblemished, unspoil, untainted, impeccable, undamaged, unimpaired, stainless, immaculate, unflawed.
– OPPOSITES tarnished.

unsung adjective unacknowledged, uncelebrated, unacclaimed, unapplauded, unhailed; neglected, unrecognized, overlooked, forgotten.
– OPPOSITES celebrated.

unsure adjective 1 she felt very unsure: unconfident, unassertive, insecure, hesitant, diffident, anxious, apprehensive. 2 Sally was unsure what to do: undecided, irresolute, dithering, equivocating, in two minds, in a quandary. 3 some teachers are unsure about the proposed strike: dubious, doubtful, sceptical, uncertain, unconvinced. 4 the date is unsure: not fixed, undecided, uncertain.
– OPPOSITES confident.

unsurpassed adjective unmatched, unrivalled, unparalleled, unequalled, matchless, peerless, without equal, inimitable, incomparable, unsurpassable; formal unexemplary.

unsurprising adjective predictable, foreseeable, (only) to be expected, foreseen, anticipated, par for the course; informal inevitable, on the cards.

unsuspecting adjective unsuspecting, unwary, unaware, unconscious, ignorant, unwitting; trusting, gullible, credulous, ingenuous, naive.
– OPPOSITES wary.

unswerving adjective unwavering, unflinching, steadfast, unshakeable, staunch, firm, resolute, stalwart, dedicated, committed, constant, single-minded, dogged, indefatigable, unyielding, unbending, indomitable.

unsympathetic adjective 1 unsympathetic staff: uncaring, unconcerned, unfeeling, insensitive, unkind, pitiless, heartless, hard-hearted. 2 the government was unsympathetic to these views: opposed, against, (dead) set against, antagonistic, ill-disposed; informal anti. 3 an unsympathetic character: unlikeable, disagreeable, unpleasant, objectionable, unsavoury, uncongenial, unfriendly, unneighbourly, unapproachable.
– OPPOSITES caring.

unsystematic adjective unmethodical, uncoordinated, disorganized, unplanned, indiscriminate; random, inconsistent, irregular, erratic, casual, haphazard, chaotic.

untamed adjective wild, feral, undomesticated, unbroken.

untangle verb 1 I untangled the fishing tackle: disentangle, unravel, unsnarl, straighten out, untwist, untwine, unknot. 2 untangling a mystery: solve, resolve, puzzle out, fathom, clear up, clarify, get to the bottom of; informal figure out; Brit. informal suss out.

untarnished adjective unsullied, unblemished, untainted, impeccable, undamaged, unspoil, unimpaired, spotless, stainless.

untenable adjective indefensible, undefendable, insupportable, unsustainable, unjustified, unjustifiable, flimsy, weak, shaky.

unthinkable adjective unimaginable, inconceivable, unbelievable, incredible, beyond belief, implausible.

unthinking adjective 1 an unthinking woman: thoughtless, inconsiderate, insensitive; tactless, undiplomatic, indiscreet. 2 an unthinking remark: absent-minded, heedless, thoughtless, careless, injudicious, imprudent, unwise, foolish, reckless, rash, precipitate; involuntary, inadvertent, unintentional, spontaneous, impulsive, unpremeditated.

– OPPOSITES thoughtful, intentional.

untidy adjective 1 untidy hair: scruffy, tousled, dishevelled, unkempt, messy, disordered, disarranged, messed up, rumpled, bedraggled, uncombed, ungroomed, straggly, ruffled, tangled, matted, wind-blown; informal mussed up; N. Amer. informal raggedy. 2 the room was untidy: disordered, messy, in a mess, disorderly, disorganized, in disorder, cluttered, in a muddle, muddled, in chaos, chaotic, haywire, topsy-turvy, in disarray, at sixes and sevens; informal higgledy-piggledy.
– OPPOSITES neat, orderly.

untie verb undo, unknot, unbind, unfasten, unlace, untether, unhitch, unmoor; loose, (set) free, release, let go.

until preposition & conjunction 1 I was working until midnight: (up) till, up to, up until; N. Amer. through. 2 this did not happen until 1998: before, prior to, previous to, up to, up until, (up) till, earlier than.

untimely adjective 1 an untimely interruption: ill-timed, badly timed, mistimed; inopportune, inappropriate; inconvenient, unwelcome, infelicitous; formal malapropos. 2 his untimely death: premature, (too) early, too soon, before time.
– OPPOSITES opportune.

untiring adjective vigorous, energetic, determined, resolute, enthusiastic, keen, zealous, spirited, dogged, tenacious, persistent, persevering, staunch; tireless, unflagging, unfailing, unflinching, unwavering, indefatigable, unrelenting, unswerving; formal pertinacious.

untold adjective 1 untold damage: boundless, measureless, limitless, unlimited, infinite, immeasurable, incalculable. 2 untold billions: countless, innumerable, endless, limitless, numberless, an infinite number of, without number, uncountable; numerous, many, multiple; literary multitudinous, myriad. 3 the untold story: unreported, unrecounted, unrevealed, undisclosed, undivulged, unpublished.

– OPPOSITES limited.

untouched adjective 1 the food was untouched: uneaten, unconsumed, undrunk. 2 one of the few untouched areas: unspoilt, unmarked, unblemished, unsullied, undefiled, undamaged, unharmed; pristine, natural, immaculate, in perfect condition, unaffected, unchanged, unaltered.

untoward adjective unexpected, unanticipated, unforeseen, unpredictable, unpredicted, surprising, unusual; unwelcome, unfavourable, adverse, unfortunate, infelicitous; formal malapropos.

untrained adjective unskilled, untaught, unschooled, untutored, unpractised, inexperienced; unqualified, unlicensed, amateur, non-professional.

untried adjective untested, unestablished, new, experimental, unattempted, trial, test, pilot, unproven.

– OPPOSITES established.

untroubled adjective unworried, unperturbed, unconcerned, unruffled, undismayed, unbothered, unagitated, unflustered; insouciant, nonchalant, blasé, carefree, serene, relaxed, at ease, happy-go-lucky; informal laid-back.

untrue adjective 1 these suggestions are totally untrue: false, untruthful, fabricated, made up, invented, concocted, trumped up; erroneous, wrong, incorrect, inaccurate; fallacious, unsound, unfounded, misguided. 2 he was untrue to his friends: unfaithful, disloyal, faithless, false, treacherous, traitorous, deceitful, deceiving, duplicitous, double-dealing, insincere, unreliable, undependable, inconstant; informal two-timing; literary perfidious.

– OPPOSITES correct, faithful.

untrustworthy adjective dishonest, deceitful, double-dealing, treacherous, traitorous, two-faced, duplicitous, dishonourable, unprincipled, unscrupulous, corrupt; unreliable, undependable.

– OPPOSITES reliable.

untruth noun 1 a patent untruth: lie, falsehood, fib, fabrication, invention, falsification, cock and bull story, half-truth, exaggeration; story, myth, piece of fiction; informal tall story, fairy tale, whopper; Brit. informal porky (pie). 2 the total untruth of the story: falsity, falsehood, falseness, untruthfulness, fallaciousness, fictitiousness; fabrication, dishonesty, deceit, deceitfulness.

untruthful adjective 1 the answers may be untruthful: false, untrue, fabricated, made up, invented, trumped up; erroneous, wrong, incorrect, inaccurate, fallacious, fictitious.

2 an untruthful person: lying, mendacious, dishonest, deceitful, duplicitous, false, double-dealing, two-faced; informal crooked, bent; literary perfidious.

– OPPOSITES honest.

untutored adjective uneducated, untaught, unschooled, ignorant, unsophisticated, uncultured, unenlightened.

– OPPOSITES educated.

untwine verb. See untwist.

untwist verb untwine, disentangle, unravel, unsnarl, unwind, unroll, uncoil, unfurl, open (out), straighten (out).

unused adjective 1 the notebook is unused | unused food: unutilized, unemployed, unexploited, not in service; left over, remaining, uneaten, unconsumed, unneeded, not required, to spare, surplus.

2 he was unused to such directness:

unaccustomed, new, a stranger, unfamiliar, unacquainted, old use strange.

– OPPOSITES accustomed.

unusual adjective 1 an unusual sight: uncommon, abnormal, atypical, unexpected, surprising, unfamiliar, different; strange, odd, curious, out of the ordinary, extraordinary, unorthodox, unconventional, outlandish, singular, peculiar, bizarre; rare, scarce, few and far between, thin on the ground, exceptional, isolated, occasional, infrequent; informal weird, offbeat, way out, freaky. 2 a man of unusual talent: remarkable, extraordinary, exceptional, singular, particular, outstanding, notable, noteworthy, distinctive, striking, significant, special, unique, unparalleled, prodigious.

– OPPOSITES common.

unutterable adjective 1 an existence of unutterable boredom: indescribable, beyond description, inexpressible, unspeakable, undefinable, inconceivable; extreme, great, overwhelming; dreadful, awful, appalling, terrible. 2 unutterable joy: marvellous, wonderful, superb, splendid, unimaginable, profound, deep.

unvarnished adjective 1 unvarnished wood: bare, unpainted, unpolished, unfinished, untreated. 2 the unvarnished truth: straightforward, plain, simple, stark; truthful, realistic, candid, honest, frank, forthright, direct, blunt, straight from the shoulder.

unveil verb reveal, present, disclose, divulge, make known, make public, communicate, publish, broadcast; display, show, exhibit, put on display; release, bring out.

unwanted adjective 1 an unwanted development: unwelcome, undesirable, undesired, unpopular, unfortunate, unlucky, unfavourable, untoward; unpleasant, disagreeable, displeasing, distasteful, objectionable; regrettable, deplorable, lamentable; unacceptable, intolerable, awful, terrible, wretched, appalling. 2 tins of unwanted pet food: unused, left over, surplus, superfluous; uneaten, unconsumed, untouched. 3 an unwanted guest: uninvited, unbidden, unasked, unrequested, unsolicited. 4 many ageing people feel unwanted: friendless, unloved, uncared-for, forsaken, rejected, shunned; superfluous, useless, unnecessary.

– OPPOSITES welcome.

unwarranted adjective 1 the criticism is unwarranted: unjustified, unjustifiable, indefensible, inexcusable, unforgivable, unpardonable, uncalled for, unnecessary, unreasonable, unjust, groundless, excessive, immoderate, disproportionate.

2 an unwarranted invasion of privacy:

unauthorized, unsanctioned, unapproved, uncertified, unlicensed; illegal, unlawful, illicit, illegitimate, criminal, actionable.

– OPPOSITES justified.

unwary adjective incautious, careless, thoughtless, heedless, inattentive, unwatchful, off one's guard.

unwavering adjective steady, fixed, resolute, resolved, firm, steadfast, unswerving, unfaltering, untiring, tireless, indefatigable, unyielding, relentless, unremitting, unrelenting, sustained.

– OPPOSITES unsteady.

unwelcome adjective 1 I was made to feel unwelcome: unwanted, uninvited. 2 even a small increase is unwelcome: undesirable, undesired, unpopular, unfortunate, unlucky; disappointing, upsetting, distressing, disagreeable, displeasing; regrettable, deplorable, lamentable.

unwell adjective ill, sick, poorly, indisposed, ailing, not (very) well, not oneself, under/below par, peaky, queasy, nauseous; Brit. off colour; informal under the weather, not up to snuff, funny, peculiar, lousy, rough; Brit. informal grotty; Austral./NZ informal crook; dated queer.

unwholesome adjective 1 unwholesome air: unhealthy, noxious, poisonous; insalubrious, unhygienic, insanitary; harmful, injurious, detrimental, destructive, damaging, deleterious, baleful. 2 unwholesome Web pages: improper, immoral, indecent, corrupting, depraving, salacious.

– OPPOSITES healthy, seemly.

unwieldy adjective cumbersome, unmanageable, unmanoeuvrable; awkward, clumsy, massive, heavy, hefty, bulky, weighty.

– OPPOSITES manageable.

unwilling adjective 1 unwilling conscripts: reluctant, unenthusiastic, hesitant, resistant, grudging, involuntary, forced. 2 he was unwilling to take on that responsibility: disinclined, reluctant, averse, loath; (be unwilling to do something) not have the heart to, baulk at, demur at, shy away from, flinch from, shrink from, have qualms about, have misgivings about, have reservations about.

– OPPOSITES keen.

unwillingness adjective disinclination, reluctance, hesitation, diffidence, wavering, vacillation, resistance, objection, opposition, doubts, second thoughts, scruples, qualms, misgivings; old use disrelish.

unwind verb 1 Ella unwound the scarf from her neck: unroll, uncoil, unravel, untwine, untwist, disentangle, open (out), straighten (out). 2 unwinding after work: relax, loosen up, ease up/off, slow down, de-stress, unbend, rest, put one's feet up, take it easy; informal chill out, wind down, let it all hang out, cool out; N. Amer. informal hang loose.

unwise adjective injudicious, ill-advised, imprudent, foolish, silly, inadvisable, impolitic, misguided, foolhardy, irresponsible, rash, hasty, overhasty, reckless.

– OPPOSITES sensible.

unwitting adjective 1 an unwitting accomplice: unknowing, unconscious, unsuspecting, oblivious, unaware, innocent. 2 an unwitting mistake: unintentional, unintended, inadvertent, involuntary, unconscious, accidental.

– OPPOSITES conscious.

unwonted adjective unusual, uncommon, unaccustomed, unfamiliar, unprecedented, exceptional, extraordinary, remarkable, singular, surprising.

– OPPOSITES usual.

unworldly adjective 1 a gauche, unworldly girl: naïve, simple, inexperienced, innocent, green, raw, callow, immature, unsophisticated, gullible, ingenuous, artless, guileless, childlike, trusting, credulous. 2 unworldly beauty: unearthly, otherworldly, ethereal, ghostly, preternatural, supernatural, paranormal, mystical; rare extramundane. 3 an unworldly religious order: non-materialistic, spiritualistic, religious.

unworthy adjective 1 he was unworthy of trust: undeserving, ineligible, unqualified, unfit. 2 unworthy behaviour: unbecoming, unsuitable, inappropriate, unbefitting, unfitting, unseemly, improper; discreditable, shameful, dishonourable, despicable, ignoble, contemptible, reprehensible.

– OPPOSITES deserving, becoming.

unwritten adjective tacit, implicit, unvoiced, taken for granted, accepted, recognized, understood; traditional, customary, conventional; oral, verbal, spoken, vocal, word-of-mouth.

unyielding adjective 1 unyielding spikes of cane: stiff, inflexible, unbending, inelastic, firm, hard, solid, tough, tight, compact, compressed, dense. 2 an unyielding policy: resolute, inflexible, uncompromising, unbending, unshakeable, unwavering, immovable, intractable, intransigent, rigid, stiff, firm, determined, dogged, obstinate, stubborn, adamant, obdurate, tenacious, relentless, implacable, single-minded; formal pertinacious.

up-and-coming adjective promising, budding, rising, on the up and up, with potential; talented, gifted, able.

upbeat adjective (informal) optimistic, cheerful, cheery, positive, confident, hopeful, sanguine, bullish, buoyant.

– OPPOSITES pessimistic, negative.

upbraid verb reprimand, rebuke, admonish, chastise, chide, reprove, reproach, scold, berate, take to task, lambaste, give someone a piece of one's mind, haul over the coals, lecture; informal tell off, give someone a talking-to, dress down, give someone an earful, rap over the knuckles, bawl out, lay into; Brit. informal tick off, carpet, tear off a strip, give someone what for, give someone a rocket/rollicking; N. Amer. informal chew out, ream out; Austral. informal monster; formal castigate; rare reprehend.

upbringing noun childhood, early life, formative years, teaching, instruction, care, bringing-up, rearing.

update verb 1 security measures are continually updated: modernize, upgrade, bring up to date, improve, overhaul; N. Amer. bring up to code. 2 I'll update him on today's developments: brief, bring up to date, inform, fill in, tell, notify, apprise, keep posted; informal clue in, put in the picture, bring/keep up to speed.

upgrade verb 1 there are plans to upgrade the rail system: improve, modernize, update, bring up to date, make better, ameliorate, reform; rehabilitate, recondition, refurbish, renovate; N. Amer. bring up to code. 2 he was upgraded to a seat in the cabinet: promote, give promotion to, elevate, move up, raise; old use prefer.

– OPPOSITES downgrade, demote.

upheaval noun disruption, disturbance, trouble, turbulence, disorder, confusion, turmoil, pandemonium, chaos, mayhem, cataclysm; revolution, change.

uphill adjective 1 an uphill path: upward, rising, ascending, climbing. 2 an uphill job: arduous, difficult, hard, tough, taxing, demanding, exacting, stiff, formidable, exhausting, tiring, wearisome, laborious, gruelling, back-breaking, punishing, burdensome, onerous, Herculean; informal no picnic, killing; old use toilsome.

– OPPOSITES downhill.

uphold verb 1 the court upheld his claim for damages: confirm, endorse, sustain, approve, support, back (up), stand by, champion, defend. 2 they've a tradition to uphold: maintain, sustain, continue, preserve, protect, keep, hold to, keep alive, keep going.

– OPPOSITES overturn, oppose.

upkeep noun 1 the upkeep of the road: maintenance, repair(s), service, servicing, care, preservation, conservation; running. 2 the child's upkeep: (financial) support, maintenance, keep, subsistence, care.

uplift verb she needs something to uplift her spirits: boost, raise, buoy up, lift, cheer up, perk up, enliven, brighten up, lighten, stimulate, inspire, ginger up, revive, restore; informal buck up.

uplifted adjective raised, upraised, elevated, upthrust; held high, erect, proud.

uplifting adjective inspiring, stirring, inspirational, rousing, moving, touching, affecting, cheering, heartening, encouraging, life-affirming.

upper adjective 1 the upper floor: higher, superior; top. 2 the upper echelons of the party: senior, superior, higher-level, higher-ranking, top.

– OPPOSITES lower.

■ the upper hand an advantage, the edge, the whip hand, a lead, a head start, ascendancy, superiority, supremacy, sway, control, power, mastery, dominance, command.

upper-class adjective aristocratic, noble, of noble birth, patrician, titled, blue-blooded, high-born, well born, elite, landowning, landed, born with a silver spoon in one's mouth; Brit. county, upmarket; informal upper-crust, top-drawer, {huntin', shootin', and fishin'}, classy; Brit. informal posh; old use gentle, of gentle birth.

uppermost adjective 1 the uppermost branches: highest, top, topmost. 2 their own problems remained uppermost in their minds: predominant, of greatest importance, to the fore, foremost, dominant, principal, chief, main, paramount, major.

uppish adjective (informal) arrogant, bumptious, full of oneself, puffed up, conceited, swollen-headed, pompous, self-assertive, overbearing, throwing one's weight about, cocky, cocksure, haughty, self-important, superior, presumptuous, overweening; informal snooty, uppity, high and mighty, too big for one's boots.

upright adjective 1 an upright position: vertical, perpendicular, plumb, straight (up), straight up and down, bolt upright, erect, on end; on one's feet; Heraldry rampant. 2 an upright member of the community: honest, honourable, upstanding, respectable, high-minded, law-abiding, right-minded, worthy, moral, ethical, righteous, decent, good, virtuous, principled, high-principled, of principle, noble, incorruptible.

– OPPOSITES horizontal, dishonourable.

uprising noun rebellion, revolt, insurrection, mutiny, revolution, insurgence, rioting, riot; civil disobedience, unrest, anarchy; coup, coup d'état, putsch.

uproar noun 1 the uproar in the kitchen continued for some time: turmoil, disorder, confusion, chaos, commotion, disturbance, rumpus, tumult, turbulence, mayhem, pandemonium, bedlam, noise, din, clamour, hubbub, racket; shouting, yelling, babel; informal hullabaloo; Brit. informal row. 2 there was an uproar when he was dismissed: outcry, furore, fuss, commotion, hue and cry, rumpus, ruckus, brouhaha; informal hullabaloo, stink, ructions; Brit. informal row.

– OPPOSITES calm.

uproarious adjective an uproarious party: riotous, rowdy, noisy, loud, wild, unrestrained, unruly, rip-roaring, rollicking, boisterous; informal rumbustious; N. Amer. informal rambunctious.

– OPPOSITES quiet.

uproot verb 1 don't pick or uproot wild flowers: pull up, root out, deracinate, grub out/up. 2 a revolution is necessary to uproot the social order: eradicate, get rid of, eliminate, root out, destroy, put an end to, do away with, wipe out, stamp out.

– OPPOSITES plant.

upset verb 1 the accusation upset her: distress, trouble, perturb, dismay, disturb, discompose, unsettle, disconcert, disquiet, worry, bother, agitate, fluster, throw, ruffle, unnerve, shake; hurt, sadden, grieve. 2 he upset a tureen of soup: knock over, overturn, upend, tip over, topple (over); spill; old use overset. 3 the dam will upset the ecological balance: disrupt, interfere with, disturb, throw out, turn topsy-turvy, throw into confusion, mess up.

• noun 1 a legal dispute will cause worry and upset: distress, trouble, perturbation, dismay, disquiet, worry, bother, agitation; hurt, grief. 2 a stomach upset: disorder, complaint, ailment, illness, sickness, malady; informal bug; Brit. informal lurgy.

• adjective 1 I was upset by the news: distressed, troubled, perturbed, dismayed, disturbed, unsettled, disconcerted, worried, bothered, anxious, agitated, flustered, ruffled, unnerved, shaken; hurt, saddened, grieved; informal cut up, choked; Brit. informal gutted. 2 an upset stomach: disturbed, unsettled, queasy, bad, poorly; informal gippy.

– OPPOSITES unperturbed, calm.

upshot noun result, end result, consequence, outcome, conclusion; effect, repercussion, reverberations, ramification; dated issue.

– OPPOSITES cause.

upside down adjective 1 an upside-down canoe: upturned, upended, wrong side up, overturned, inverted; capsized. 2 they left the flat upside down: in disarray, in disorder, jumbled up, in a muddle, untidy, disorganized, chaotic, all over the place, in chaos, in confusion, topsy-turvy, at sixes and sevens; informal higgledy-piggledy. upstanding adjective 1 an upstanding member of the community: honest, honourable, upright, respectable, high-minded, law-abiding, right-minded, worthy, moral, ethical, righteous, decent, good, virtuous, principled, high-principled, of principle, noble, incorruptible. 2 the upstanding feathered plumes: upright, erect, vertical; standing, on one's feet; Heraldry rampant.

– OPPOSITES dishonourable.

upstart noun parvenu(e), arriviste, nouveau riche, vulgarian; status-seeker, social climber.

up to date adjective 1 up-to-date equipment: modern, contemporary, the latest, state-of-the-art, new, present-day, up to the minute; advanced; informal bang up to date, mod. 2 the newsletter will keep you up to date: informed, up to speed, in the picture, in touch, au fait, au courant, conversant, familiar, knowledgeable, acquainted, aware; informal plugged-in.

– OPPOSITES out of date, old-fashioned.

upturn noun improvement, upswing, turn for the better; recovery, revival, rally, resurgence, increase, rise, jump, leap, upsurge, boost, escalation.

– OPPOSITES fall, slump.

upward adjective an upward trend: rising, on the rise, ascending, climbing, mounting; uphill.

– OPPOSITES downward.

• adverb the smoke drifts upward. See UPWARDS.

upwards adverb he inched his way upwards: up, upward, uphill; to the top.

– OPPOSITES downward.

■ upward(s) of more than, above, over, in excess of, exceeding, beyond.

urban adjective town, city, municipal, metropolitan, built-up, inner-city, suburban.

– OPPOSITES rural.

urbane adjective suave, sophisticated, debonair, worldly, cultivated, cultured, civilized; smooth, polished, refined, self-possessed; courteous, polite, civil, well mannered, mannerly, charming, gentlemanly, gallant.

– OPPOSITES uncouth, unsophisticated.

urchin noun ragamuffin, waif, stray; imp, rascal; derogatory guttersnipe; dated gamin; old use mudlark, scapegrace, street Arab.

urge verb 1 she urged him to try again: encourage, exhort, enjoin, press, entreat, implore, call on, appeal to, beg, plead with; egg on, spur, push, pressure, pressurize; formal adjure; literary beseech. 2 she urged her horse down the lane: spur (on), force, drive, impel. 3 I urge caution in interpreting these results: advise, counsel, advocate, recommend.

• noun his urge to travel: desire, wish, need, compulsion, longing, yearning, hankering, craving, appetite, hunger, thirst; fancy, impulse; informal yen, itch.

urgent adjective 1 the urgent need for more funding: acute, pressing, dire, desperate, critical, serious, grave, intense, crying, burning, compelling, extreme, high-priority, top-priority; life-and-death. 2 an urgent whisper: insistent, persistent, importunate, earnest, pleading, begging.

urinate verb pass water, relieve oneself; informal spend a penny, have/take a leak, pee, piddle, widdle; Brit. informal wee, have a Jimmy (Riddle), have a slash; N. Amer. informal take a whizz; formal micturate.

usable adjective ready/fit for use, able to be used, at someone's disposal; working, in working order, functioning, functional, serviceable, operational, up and running.

usage noun 1 energy usage: use, consumption, utilization. 2 the usage of equipment: use, utilization, operation, manipulation, running, handling. 3 the intricacies of English usage: phraseology, parlance, idiom, way of speaking/writing, mode of expression; idiolect. 4 the usages of polite society: custom, practice, habit, tradition, convention, rule, observance; way, procedure, form; formal praxis, wont; (usages) mores.

use verb 1 she used her key to open the front door: utilize, make use of, avail oneself of, employ, work, operate, wield, ply, apply, manoeuvre, manipulate, put to use, put into service. 2 the court will use its discretion in making an order: exercise, employ, bring into play, practise, apply. 3 use your troops well and they will not let you down: manage, handle, treat, deal with, behave/act towards. 4 I couldn't help feeling that she was using me: take advantage of, exploit, manipulate, take liberties with, impose on, abuse; capitalize on, profit from, trade on, milk; informal cash in on, walk all over. 5 we have used all the available funds: consume, get/go through, exhaust, deplete, expend, spend; waste, fritter away, squander, dissipate. • noun 1 the use of such weapons: utilization, usage, application, employment, operation, manipulation. 2 his use of other people for his own ends: exploitation, manipulation; abuse. 3 what is the use of that?: advantage, benefit, service, utility, usefulness, help, good, gain, avail, profit, value, worth, point, object, purpose, sense, reason. 4 composers have not found much use for the device: need, necessity, call, demand, requirement.

used adjective a used car: second-hand, pre-owned, nearly new, old; worn, hand-me-down, handed-down, cast-off; Brit. informal reach-me-down.

– OPPOSITES new.

■ used to accustomed to, no stranger to, familiar with, at home with, in the habit of, experienced in, versed in, conversant with, acquainted with.

useful adjective 1 a useful multi-purpose tool: functional, practical, handy, convenient, utilitarian, serviceable, of use, of service; informal nifty. 2 a useful experience: beneficial, advantageous, helpful, worthwhile, profitable, rewarding, productive, constructive, valuable, fruitful. 3 (informal) they had some very useful players: competent, capable, able, skilful, skilled, talented, proficient, accomplished, good, handy.

– OPPOSITES useless, disadvantageous, incompetent.

useless adjective 1 it was useless to try | a piece of useless knowledge: futile, to no avail, in vain, vain, pointless, to no purpose, unavailing, hopeless, ineffectual, ineffective, to no effect, fruitless, unprofitable, profitless, unproductive; broken, kaput; old use bootless. 2 (informal) he was useless at his job: incompetent, inept, ineffective, incapable, inadequate, hopeless, bad; informal pathetic, a dead loss.

– OPPOSITES useful, beneficial, competent.

usher verb she ushered him to a window seat:

escort, accompany, take, show, see, lead, conduct, guide, steer, shepherd.

• noun ushers showed them to their seats: guide, attendant, escort.

■ usher something in herald, mark the start of, signal, ring in, show in, set the scene for, pave the way for; start, begin, introduce, open the door to, get going, set in motion, get under way, kick off, launch.

usual adjective habitual, customary, accustomed, normal, routine, regular, standard, typical, established, set, settled, stock, conventional, traditional, expected, predictable, familiar; average, general, ordinary, everyday; literary wonted.

– OPPOSITES exceptional.

usually adverb normally, generally, habitually, customarily, routinely, typically, ordinarily, commonly, conventionally, traditionally; as a rule, in general, more often than not, in the main, mainly, mostly, for the most part.

usurp verb 1 Richard usurped the throne: seize, take over, take possession of, take, commandeer, assume. 2 the Hanoverian dynasty had usurped the Stuarts: oust, overthrow, remove, topple, unseat, depose, dethrone; supplant, replace.

utensil noun implement, tool, instrument, device, apparatus, gadget, appliance, contrivance, contraption, aid; informal gizmo.

utilitarian adjective practical, functional, serviceable, useful, sensible, efficient, utility, workaday; plain, unadorned, undecorative.

– OPPOSITES decorative.

utility noun usefulness, use, benefit, value, advantage, advantageousness, help, helpfulness, profitability, practicality, effectiveness, avail, service; formal efficacy.

utilize verb use, make use of, put to use, employ, avail oneself of, bring/press into service, bring into play, deploy, draw on, exploit.

utmost adjective 1 a matter of the utmost importance: greatest, highest, maximum, most, uttermost; extreme, supreme, paramount. 2 the utmost tip of Shetland: furthest, farthest, furthestmost, farthestmost, extreme, very, uttermost, outermost, endmost.

• noun a plot that stretches credulity to the utmost: uttermost, maximum, limit.

Utopia noun paradise, heaven, heaven on earth, Eden, Garden of Eden, Shangri-La, Elysium; idyll, nirvana, ideal place; literary Arcadia.

Utopian adjective idealistic, visionary, romantic, starry-eyed, fanciful, unrealistic; ideal, perfect, paradisaal, heavenly, idyllic, blissful, Elysian; literary Arcadian.

utter<sup>1</sup> adjective that's utter nonsense: complete, total, absolute, thorough, perfect, downright, out-and-out, outright, thoroughgoing, all-out, sheer, arrant, positive, prize, rank, pure, real, veritable, consummate, categorical, unmitigated, unqualified, unadulterated, unalloyed.

utter<sup>2</sup> verb 1 he uttered an exasperated snort: emit, let out, give, produce. 2 he hardly uttered a word: say, speak, voice, express, articulate, pronounce, enunciate, verbalize, vocalize.

utterance noun remark, comment, word, statement, observation, declaration, pronouncement.

utterly adverb completely, totally, absolutely, entirely, wholly, fully, thoroughly, quite, altogether, one hundred per cent, downright, outright, in all respects, unconditionally, perfectly, really, to the hilt, to the core; informal dead.

uttermost adjective & noun. See UTMOST.

U-turn noun a complete U-turn in economic policy; volte-face, turnaround, about-face, reversal, shift, change of heart, change of mind, backtracking, change of plan; Brit. about-turn.

Vv

vacancy noun 1 there are vacancies for computer technicians: opening, position, situation vacant, post, job, opportunity, place. 2 Cathy stared into vacancy, seeing nothing: empty space, emptiness, nothingness, void. 3 a vacancy of mind: empty-headedness, lack of intelligence, brainlessness, vacuousness, vacuity, stupidity.

vacant adjective 1 a vacant house: empty, unoccupied, available, not in use, free, unfilled; uninhabited, untenanted.

2 a vacant look: blank, expressionless, unresponsive, emotionless, impassive, uninterested, vacuous, empty, glazed, glassy; unintelligent, dull-witted, dense, brainless, empty-headed.

– OPPOSITES full, occupied, expressive.

vacate verb 1 he was forced to vacate the premises: leave, move out of, evacuate, quit, depart from; abandon, desert. 2 he will be vacating his post next year: resign from, leave, stand down from, give up, bow out of, relinquish, retire from; informal quit.

– OPPOSITES occupy, take up.

vacation noun 1 his summer vacations in France: holiday, trip, tour, break, mini-break; leave, time off, recess, furlough; informal hol, vac; formal sojourn. 2 the squatters' vacation of the occupied land: departure, evacuation, abandonment, desertion.

vacillate verb dither, be indecisive, be undecided, waver, hesitate, be in two minds, blow hot and cold, keep changing one's mind; Brit. haver, hum and haw; informal dilly-dally, shilly-shally.

vacillating adjective irresolute, indecisive, dithering, undecided, hesitant, wavering, ambivalent, divided, uncertain, in two minds, blowing hot and cold; informal dilly-dallying, shilly-shallying.

– OPPOSITES resolute.

vacuous adjective silly, inane, unintelligent, foolish, stupid, fatuous, idiotic, brainless, witless, vapid, vacant, empty-headed; informal dumb, gormless, moronic, brain-dead.

– OPPOSITES intelligent.

vacuum noun 1 people longing to fill the spiritual vacuum in their lives: emptiness, void, nothingness, vacancy. 2 the political vacuum left by the Emperor's death: gap, space, lacuna, void. 3 (informal) I use the vacuum for cleaning the rug: vacuum cleaner; Brit. informal vac; trademark Hoover.

vagabond noun. See VAGRANT noun.

vagary noun change, fluctuation, variation, quirk, peculiarity, oddity, eccentricity, unpredictability, caprice, foible, whim, whimsy, fancy.

vagrant noun a temporary home for vagrants: tramp, drifter, down-and-out, derelict, beggar, itinerant, wanderer, nomad, traveller, vagabond, transient, homeless person, beachcomber; informal knight of the road; N. Amer. hobo; Austral. bagman; informal bag lady; N. Amer. informal bum; literary wayfarer. • adjective vagrant beggars: homeless, drifting, transient, roving, roaming, itinerant, wandering, nomadic, travelling, vagabond, rootless, of no fixed address/abode.

vague adjective 1 a vague shape: indistinct, indefinite, indeterminate, unclear, ill-defined; hazy, fuzzy, misty, blurred, blurry, faint, shadowy, dim, obscure, nebulous, amorphous. 2 a vague description: imprecise, rough, approximate, inexact, non-specific, generalized, ambiguous, equivocal, hazy, woolly. 3 they had only vague plans: hazy, uncertain, undecided, unsure, unclear, unsettled, indefinite, indeterminate, unconfirmed, up in the air, speculative. 4 she was so vague in everyday life: absent-minded, forgetful, dreamy, abstracted, with one's head in the clouds; informal scatty, not with it.

– OPPOSITES clear, precise, certain.

vaguely adverb 1 she looks vaguely familiar: slightly, a little, a bit, somewhat, rather, in a way; faintly, obscurely; informal sort of, kind of. 2 he fired his rifle vaguely in our direction: roughly, more or less, approximately.

3 he smiled vaguely: absent-mindedly, abstractedly, vacantly.

– OPPOSITES very, exactly.

vain adjective 1 he was vain about his looks: conceited, narcissistic, self-loving, self-admiring, self-regarding, egotistic, egotistical; proud, arrogant, boastful, cocky, immodest, swaggering; informal big-headed; literary vainglorious. 2 a vain attempt: futile, useless, pointless, to no purpose, in vain; ineffective, ineffectual, inefficacious, impotent, unavailing, to no avail, fruitless, profitless, unproductive, unsuccessful, failed, abortive, for nothing; thwarted, frustrated, foiled; old use bootless.

– OPPOSITES modest, successful.

■ in vain 1 they tried in vain to save him: unsuccessfully, without success, to no avail, to no purpose, fruitlessly. 2 his efforts were in vain. See VAIN sense 2.

valediction noun farewell, goodbye, adieu, leave-taking.

valedictory adjective farewell, goodbye, leaving, parting; last, final.

valet noun manservant, man, personal attendant, gentleman's gentleman, Jeeves; Military, dated batman.

valetudinarian noun an elderly valetudinarian: hypochondriac; invalid.

• adjective he was earnest, fussy, and valetudinarian: hypochondriac, obsessed with one's health, neurotic; sickly, ailing, poorly, in poor health, weak, infirm, valetudinary.

valiant adjective brave, courageous, plucky, valorous, intrepid, heroic, gallant, lionhearted, bold, fearless, daring, audacious; unflinching, unshrinking, unafraid, dauntless, undaunted, doughty, indomitable, mettlesome, stout-hearted, spirited; informal game, gutsy, spunky.

– OPPOSITES cowardly.

valid adjective 1 a valid criticism: well founded, sound, reasonable, rational, logical, justifiable, defensible, viable, bona fide; cogent, effective, powerful, convincing, credible, forceful, strong, weighty. 2 a valid contract: legally binding, lawful, legal, official, signed and sealed, contractual; in force, in effect, effective.

validate verb 1 clinical trials now exist to validate this claim: prove, substantiate, corroborate, verify, support, back up, bear out, confirm, justify, vindicate, authenticate. 2 250 course proposals were validated: ratify, endorse, approve, agree to, accept, authorize, legalize, legitimize, warrant, license, certify, recognize.

– OPPOSITES disprove.

valley noun dale, vale; hollow, gully, gorge, ravine, canyon, rift; Brit.combe, dene; N. English clough; Scottish glen, strath; literary dell, dingle.

valour noun bravery, courage, pluck, intrepidity, nerve, daring, fearlessness, audacity, boldness, dauntlessness, stout-heartedness, heroism, backbone, spirit; informal guts, spunk; Brit. informal bottle; N. Amer. informal moxie.

– OPPOSITES cowardice.

valuable adjective 1 a valuable watch: precious, costly, high-priced, high-cost, expensive, dear; worth its weight in gold, worth a king's ransom, priceless. 2 a valuable contribution: useful, helpful, beneficial, invaluable, productive, constructive, effective, advantageous, worthwhile, worthy, important.

– OPPOSITES cheap, worthless, useless.

valuables plural noun precious items, costly items, prized possessions, personal effects, treasures.

value noun 1 houses exceeding £250,000 in value: price, cost, worth; market price, monetary value, face value. 2 the value of adequate preparation cannot be understated: worth, usefulness, advantage, benefit, gain, profit, good, help, helpfulness, avail; importance, significance. 3 society's values are passed on to us as children: principles, ethics, moral code, morals, standards, code of behaviour.

• verb 1 his estate was valued at £45,000: evaluate, assess, estimate, appraise, price, put/set a price on. 2 she valued his opinion: think highly of, have a high opinion of, hold in high regard, rate highly, esteem, set (great) store by, appreciate, respect; prize, cherish, treasure.

valued adjective cherished, treasured, dear, prized; esteemed, respected, highly regarded.

valueless adjective worthless, of no value, useless, to no purpose, (of) no use, profitless, futile, pointless, vain, in vain, to no avail, to no effect, fruitless, unproductive, idle, ineffective, unavailing; old use bootless.

vamp<sup>1</sup> verb (informal) the design had been vamped up: improve, revamp, redesign, remodel, restyle, rework, make over; renovate, refurbish, redecorate, recondition, rehabilitate, overhaul, repair; informal do up, give something a facelift; N. Amer. informal rehab.

vamp<sup>2</sup> noun (informal) a raven-haired vamp: seductress, temptress, siren, femme fatale, Mata Hari; flirt, coquette, tease.

van noun he was in the van of the movement. See VANGUARD.

vanguard noun forefront, van, advance guard, spearhead, front, front line, fore, lead, cutting edge; leaders, founders, founding fathers, pioneers, trailblazers, trendsetters, innovators, groundbreakers.

– OPPOSITES rear.

vanish verb 1 he vanished into the darkness: disappear, be lost to sight/view, become invisible, vanish into thin air, recede from view. 2 all hope of freedom vanished: fade (away), evaporate, melt away, come to an end, end, cease to exist, pass away, die out, be no more.

– OPPOSITES appear, materialize.

vanity noun 1 she had none of the vanity often associated with beautiful women: conceit, narcissism, self-love, self-admiration, self-regard, egotism; pride, arrogance, boastfulness, cockiness, swagger; informal big-headedness; literary vainglory. 2 the vanity of all desires of the will: futility, uselessness, pointlessness, worthlessness, fruitlessness.

– OPPOSITES modesty.

vanquish verb conquer, defeat, beat, trounce, rout, triumph over, be victorious over, get the better of, worst; overcome, overwhelm, overpower, overthrow, quash, subdue, subjugate, quell, crush, bring someone to their knees; informal lick, hammer, clobber, thrash, demolish, wipe the floor with, make mincemeat of, massacre, slaughter, annihilate; Brit. informal stuff; N. Amer. informal cream, shellac.

vapid adjective insipid, uninspired, colourless, uninteresting, feeble, flat, dull, boring, tedious, tired, unexciting, uninspiring, unimaginative, lifeless, tame, vacuous, bland, trite.

– OPPOSITES lively, colourful.

vapour noun haze, mist, steam, condensation; fumes, exhalation, fog, smog, smoke.

variable adjective changeable, changing, varying, shifting, fluctuating, changeful, irregular, inconstant, inconsistent, fluid, unsteady, unstable, unsettled, fitful, mutable, protean, wavering, vacillating, capricious, fickle, volatile, unpredictable, unreliable; informal up and down.

– OPPOSITES constant.

variance noun difference, variation, discrepancy, dissimilarity, disagreement, conflict, divergence, deviation, contrast, contradiction, imbalance, incongruity.
■ at variance 1 his recollections were at variance with documentary evidence: inconsistent, at odds, not in keeping, out of keeping, out of line, out of step, in conflict, in disagreement, different, differing, divergent, discrepant, dissimilar, contrary, incompatible, contradictory, irreconcilable, incongruous. 2 they were at variance with their previous allies: in disagreement, at odds, at cross purposes, at loggerheads, in conflict, in dispute, at outs, quarrelling.

variant noun there are a number of variants of the same idea: variation, form, alternative, adaptation, alteration, modification, permutation.

• adjective a variant spelling: alternative, other, different, divergent, derived, modified.

variation noun 1 regional variations in farming practice: difference, dissimilarity; disparity, contrast, discrepancy, imbalance; technical differential; formal dissimilitude. 2 opening times are subject to variation: change, alteration, modification; diversification. 3 there was very little variation from an understood pattern: deviation, variance, divergence, departure, fluctuation. 4 hurling is an Irish variation of hockey: variant, form, alternative form; development, adaptation, alteration, diversification, modification.

varied adjective diverse, assorted, miscellaneous, mixed, sundry, wide-ranging, heterogeneous, multifarious; disparate, motley.

variegated adjective multicoloured, particoloured, multicolour, many-coloured, many-hued, polychromatic, colourful, prismatic, rainbow-like, kaleidoscopic; mottled, striated, marbled, streaked, speckled, flecked, dappled; informal splotchy, splodgy.

– OPPOSITES plain, monochrome.

variety noun 1 the lack of variety in the curriculum: diversity, variation, diversification, multifariousness, heterogeneity, many-sidedness; change, difference. 2 a wide variety of flowers and shrubs: assortment, miscellany, range, array, collection, selection, mixture, medley, multiplicity; mixed bag, motley collection, potpourri. 3 fifty varieties of pasta: sort, kind, type, class, category, style, form; make, model, brand; strain, breed, genus.

– OPPOSITES uniformity.

various adjective diverse, different, differing, varied, varying, a variety of, assorted, mixed, sundry, miscellaneous, heterogeneous, disparate, motley; literary divers.

varnish noun & verb lacquer, shellac, japan, enamel, glaze; polish.

vary verb 1 estimates of the development cost vary: differ, be different, be dissimilar. 2 rates of interest vary over time: fluctuate, rise and fall, go up and down, change, alter, shift, swing. 3 the diaphragm is used for varying the aperture of the lens: modify, change, alter, adjust, regulate, control, set; diversify. 4 the routine never varied: change, alter, deviate, differ, fluctuate.

vassal noun (historical) vassal, liegeman, man, vavasour, serf, helot.

vast adjective huge, extensive, expansive, broad, wide, boundless, immeasurable, limitless, infinite; enormous, immense, great, massive, colossal, tremendous, mighty, prodigious, gigantic, gargantuan, mammoth, monumental; giant, towering, mountainous, titanic, Brobdingnagian; informal jumbo, mega, monster, whopping, humongous, astronomical; Brit. informal ginormous.

– OPPOSITES tiny.

vat noun tub, tank, cistern, barrel, butt, cask, tun, drum, basin; vessel, receptacle, container, holder, reservoir.

vault<sup>1</sup> noun 1 the highest Gothic vault in Europe: arched roof, dome, arch. 2 the vault under the church: cellar, basement, underground chamber; crypt, undercroft, catacomb, burial chamber. 3 valuables stored in the vault: strongroom, safe deposit, safety deposit.

vault<sup>2</sup> verb he vaulted over the gate: jump over, leap over, spring over, bound over; hurdle, clear.

vaunt verb boast about, brag about, make much of, crow about, parade, flaunt; acclaim, praise, extol, celebrate; informal show off about; formal laud.

veer verb turn, swerve, swing, sheer, career, weave, wheel; change direction/course, go off course, deviate.

vegetate verb do nothing, idle, languish, laze, lounge, loll; moulder, stagnate; informal veg out, slob out; Brit. informal slummock; N. Amer. informal bum around, lollygag.

vegetation noun plants, flora; greenery, foliage, herbage, verdure.

WORD LINKS

herbicide a substance used to kill vegetation vehement noun passion, force, forcefulness, ardour, fervour, violence, urgency, strength, vigour, intensity, keenness, enthusiasm, zeal.

vehement adjective passionate, forceful, ardent, impassioned, heated, spirited, urgent, fervent, violent, fierce, strong, forcible, powerful, emphatic, vigorous, intense, earnest, keen, enthusiastic, zealous.
– OPPOSITES mild, apathetic.

vehicle noun 1 a stolen vehicle: means of transport, conveyance; car, automobile, motorcycle, motorbike, van, bus, coach, lorry, truck; N. Amer. informal auto. 2 a vehicle for the communication of original ideas: channel, medium, means (of expression), agency, agent, instrument, mechanism, organ, apparatus.

WORD LINKS

automotive relating to vehicles tare the weight of a vehicle without its fuel or load weighbridge a machine for weighing vehicles tachograph a device recording a commercial road vehicle's speed over a period of time veil noun a thin veil of high cloud made the sun hazy: covering, cover, screen, curtain, mantle, cloak, mask, blanket, shroud, canopy, cloud, pall.

• verb the peak was veiled in mist: envelop, surround, swathe, enfold, cover, conceal, hide, screen, shield, cloak, blanket, shroud; obscure; literary enshroud, mantle.

veiled adjective veiled threats: disguised, camouflaged, masked, covert, hidden, concealed, suppressed, underlying, implicit, implied, indirect.

– OPPOSITES overt.

vein noun 1 a vein in his neck pulsed: blood vessel. 2 the mineral veins in the rock: layer, lode, seam, stratum, stratification, deposit. 3 white marble with grey veins: streak, marking, mark, line, stripe, strip, band, thread, strand; technical stria, striation. 4 he closes the article in a humorous vein: mood, humour, frame of mind, temper, disposition, attitude, tenor, tone, key, spirit, character, feel, flavour, quality, atmosphere; manner, way, style.

WORD LINKS

vascular, venous relating to veins phlebotomy surgical incision of a vein velocity noun speed, pace, rate, tempo, momentum, impetus; swiftness, rapidity; literary fleetness, celerity.

venal adjective corrupt, corruptible, bribable, open to bribery; dishonest, dishonourable, untrustworthy, unscrupulous, unprincipled; mercenary, greedy; informal bent.

– OPPOSITES honourable, honest.

vendetta noun feud, blood feud, quarrel, argument, falling-out, dispute, fight, war; bad blood, enmity, rivalry, conflict, strife.

vendor noun seller, retailer, purveyor, dealer, trader, tradesman, shopkeeper, merchant, supplier, stockist; huckster, pedlar, hawk; N. Amer. storekeeper.

veneer noun 1 American cherry wood with a maple veneer: surface, lamination, layer, overlay, facing, covering, finish, exterior. 2 a veneer of sophistication: facade, front, false front, show, outward display, appearance, impression, semblance, guise, disguise, mask, masquerade, pretence, camouflage, cover.

venerable adjective respected, venerated, revered, revered, honoured, esteemed, hallowed, august, distinguished, eminent, great.

venerate verb revere, reverence, worship, hallow, hold sacred, exalt, adore, honour, respect, esteem; old use magnify.

eneration noun reverence, worship, adoration, exaltation, devotion, honour, respect, esteem, high regard.

vengeance noun revenge, retribution, retaliation, requital, reprisal, satisfaction, an eye for an eye (and a tooth for a tooth).
■ with a vengeance vigorously, strenuously, energetically, with a will, with might and main, with all the stops out, for all one is worth, all out, flat out, at full tilt; informal hammer and tongs, like crazy, like mad; Brit. informal like billy-o.

vengeful adjective vindictive, revengeful, out for revenge, unforgiving, grudge-bearing.

– OPPOSITES forgiving.

venial adjective forgivable, pardonable, excusable, allowable, permissible; slight, minor, unimportant, insignificant, trivial, trifling.

– OPPOSITES unforgivable, mortal.

venom noun 1 snake venom: poison, toxin; old use bane. 2 his voice was full of venom: rancour, malevolence, vitriol, spite, vindictiveness, malice, maliciousness, ill will, animosity, animus, bitterness, antagonism, hostility, bile, hate, hatred; informal bitchiness, cattiness.

venomous adjective 1 a venomous snake | the spider's venomous bite: poisonous, toxic; dangerous, deadly, lethal, fatal, mortal. 2 venomous remarks: vicious, spiteful, rancorous, malevolent, vitriolic, vindictive, malicious, poisonous, virulent, bitter, acrimonious, antagonistic, hostile, cruel; informal bitchy, catty; literary malefic, maleficent.

– OPPOSITES harmless, benevolent.

vent noun an air vent: outlet, inlet, opening, aperture, hole, gap, orifice, space; duct, flue, shaft, well, passage, airway.

• verb the crowd vented their fury on the pitch: let out, give vent to, give free rein to, release, pour out, express, give expression to, air, voice, give voice to, ventilate.

ventilate verb 1 the greenhouse must be properly ventilated: air, aerate, oxygenate, air-condition; freshen, cool. 2 the workers ventilated their discontent: express, give expression to, air, communicate, voice, give voice to, verbalize, discuss, debate, talk over.

venture noun a business venture: enterprise, undertaking, project, scheme, operation, endeavour, speculation, plunge, gamble, experiment.

•verb 1 we ventured across the moor: set out, go, travel, journey. 2 may I venture an opinion? put forward, advance, proffer, offer, air, suggest, submit, propose, moot, ventilate. 3 I ventured to ask her to come and dine with me: dare, make so bold as, presume; take the liberty of; informal stick one's neck out, go out on a limb.

veracious adjective (formal). See TRUTHFUL senses 1, 2.

verbal adjective oral, spoken, stated, said, verbalized; unwritten.

verbatim adverb word for word, letter for letter, line for line, to the letter, literally, exactly, precisely, closely, faithfully; formal literatim.

verbiage noun verbosity, padding, wordiness, prolixity, long-windedness; Brit. informal waffle.

verbose adjective wordy, loquacious, garrulous, talkative, voluble; long-winded, lengthy, prolix, tautological, pleonastic, periphrastic, circumlocutory, circuitous, discursive, digressive, rambling; informal mouthy, gabby; Brit. informal waffly.

– OPPOSITES succinct, laconic.

verbosity noun wordiness, loquacity, garrulity, talkativeness, volubility; long-windedness, lengthiness, verbiage, prolixity, tautology, circumlocution, discursiveness; Brit. informal waffle.

verdant adjective green, leafy, grassy; lush, rich; literary verdured, verdurous.

verdict noun judgement, adjudication, decision, finding, ruling, resolution, pronouncement, conclusion, opinion; Law determination.

verge noun 1 the verge of the lake: edge, border, margin, side, brink, rim, lip; fringe, boundary, perimeter; literary bourn, marge, skirt. 2 Spain was on the verge of an economic crisis: brink, threshold, edge, point.

•verb a degree of caution that verged on the obsessive: approach, border on, be close/near to, be tantamount to; tend towards, approximate to, resemble.

verification noun confirmation, substantiation, proof, corroboration, support, attestation, validation, authentication, endorsement.

verify verb substantiate, confirm, prove, corroborate, back up, bear out, justify, support, uphold, attest to, testify to, validate, authenticate, endorse, certify.

– OPPOSITES refute.

vernacular noun 1 he wrote in the vernacular to reach a wider audience: everyday language, colloquial language, conversational language, common parlance; dialect, regional language, regionalisms, patois; informal lingo, local lingo. 2 (informal) the vernacular of today's youth: language, parlance; idiom, slang, jargon; informal lingo, -speak, -ese.

versatile adjective adaptable, flexible, all-round, multifaceted, multitalented, resourceful; adjustable, multi-purpose, all-purpose, handy.

verse noun 1 Elizabethan verse: poetry, versification; poems, lyrics, balladry; literary poesy. 2 a verse he'd composed to mark my anniversary: poem, lyric, ballad, sonnet, ode; limerick, rhyme, ditty. 3 a poem with sixty verses: stanza, canto, couplet; strophe.

– OPPOSITES prose.

version noun 1 his version of events: account, report, statement, description, record, story, rendering, interpretation, explanation, understanding, reading, impression, side. 2 the English version will be published next year: edition, translation, impression. 3 they have replaced coal-burning fires with gas versions: form, sort, kind, type, variety, variant.

vertex noun apex, peak, tip, top.

vertical adjective upright, erect, perpendicular, plumb, straight up and down, on end, standing, upstanding, bolt upright, upended.

– OPPOSITES horizontal.

vertigo noun dizziness, giddiness, light-headedness, loss of balance; Veterinary Medicine sturdy.

verve noun enthusiasm, vigour, energy, pep, dynamism, go, elan, vitality, vivacity, buoyancy, liveliness, animation, zest, sparkle, spirit, ebullience, life, brio, gusto, eagerness, keenness, passion, zeal, relish, feeling, ardour, fire; informal zing, zip, vim, pizzazz, oomph.

very adverb that's very kind of you: extremely, exceedingly, exceptionally, extraordinarily, tremendously, immensely, hugely, intensely, acutely, abundantly, singularly, uncommonly, unusually, decidedly, particularly, supremely, highly, remarkably, really, truly, mightily; informal terrifically, awfully, fearfully, terribly, devilishly, majorly, seriously, mega, ultra, damn, damned; Brit. informal ever so, well, hellish, dead, jolly; N. Amer. informal real, mighty, awful, darned; informal, dated devilish, frightfully; old use exceeding.

– OPPOSITES slightly.

•adjective 1 those were his very words: exact, actual, precise. 2 the very thought of food made her feel ill: mere, simple, pure; sheer.

vessel noun 1 a fishing vessel: boat, ship, craft, watercraft; literary barque. 2 pour the mixture into a heatproof vessel: container, receptacle; basin, bowl, pan, pot; urn, cask, barrel, drum, butt, vat.

vest verb executive power is vested in the President: confer on, entrust to, invest in, bestow on, grant to, give to; endow, lodge, lay, place.

vestibule noun entrance hall, hall, hallway, entrance, porch, portico, foyer, lobby, anteroom, antechamber, waiting room.

vestige noun 1 the last vestiges of colonialism: remnant, fragment, relic, echo, indication, sign, trace, mark, legacy, reminder; remains. 2 she showed no vestige of emotion: bit, touch, hint, suggestion, suspicion, shadow, scrap, tinge, speck, shred, jot, iota, whit, scintilla, glimmer; informal smidgen, tad.

vestigial adjective 1 vestigial limbs: rudimentary, undeveloped; non-functional; Biology primitive. 2 he felt a vestigial flicker of anger from last night: remaining, surviving, residual, leftover, lingering.

vestments noun robes, clothes, garments, attire, costume, garb, uniform, trappings, finery, regalia.

vet verb press releases are vetted by an executive council: check, examine, scrutinize, investigate, inspect, look over, screen, assess, evaluate, appraise; informal check out.

• noun I took the cat to the vet: veterinary surgeon, animal doctor, horse doctor; N. Amer. veterinarian; dated veterinary.

veteran noun a veteran of 16 political campaigns: old hand, past master, doyen; informal old-timer, old stager, old warhorse.

– OPPOSITES novice.

• adjective a veteran diplomat: long-serving, seasoned, old, hardened; adept, expert, well trained, practised, experienced; informal battle-scarred.

veto noun parliament's right of veto: rejection, dismissal; prohibition, proscription, embargo, ban, interdict.

– OPPOSITES approval.

• verb the president vetoed the bill: reject, turn down, throw out, dismiss; prohibit, forbid, interdict, proscribe, disallow, embargo, ban; informal kill, put the kibosh on, give the thumbs down to.

– OPPOSITES approve.

vex verb annoy, irritate, anger, infuriate, exasperate, irk, gall, pique, put out, antagonize, get on someone's nerves, ruffle someone's feathers, make someone's hackles rise; Brit. rub up the wrong way; informal aggravate, peeve, miff, rile, nettle, needle, get (to), bug, hack off, get up someone's nose, get someone's goat, get someone's back up, give someone the hump, get someone's dander up; Brit. informal wind up, nark, get on someone's wick; N. Amer. informal tee off, tick off, burn up, rankle; informal, dated give someone the pip.

vexation noun annoyance, irritation, exasperation, indignation, anger, crossness, displeasure, pique, disgruntlement; informal aggravation.

vexatious adjective annoying, irritating, infuriating, exasperating, maddening, trying, tiresome, troublesome, bothersome, irksome, vexing, galling; informal aggravating, pesky.

vexed adjective 1 a vexed expression: annoyed, irritated, cross, angry, infuriated, exasperated, irked, piqued, displeased, put out, disgruntled; informal aggravated, peeved, nettled, miffed, miffy, riled, hacked off, hot under the collar; Brit. informal narked, shirty; N. Amer. informal teed off, ticked off, sore, bent out of shape; old use wroth. 2 the vexed issue of immigration: disputed, in dispute, contested, in contention, contentious, debated, at issue, controversial, moot; problematic, difficult, knotty, thorny.

viable adjective feasible, workable, practicable, practical, usable, possible, realistic, achievable, attainable, realizable; informal doable.

– OPPOSITES impracticable.

vibrant adjective 1 a vibrant and passionate woman: spirited, lively, full of life, energetic, vigorous, vital, full of vim and vigour, animated, sparkling, effervescent, vivacious, dynamic, stimulating, exciting, passionate, fiery; informal peppy, feisty. 2 she was vibrant with excitement: quivering, trembling, shaking, shivering, shuddering, quavering, quaking. 3 vibrant colours: vivid, bright, striking, brilliant, strong, rich. 4 his vibrant voice: resonant, sonorous, reverberant, resounding, ringing, echoing; strong, rich, full.

– OPPOSITES lifeless, pale.

vibrate verb 1 the floor beneath them vibrated: quiver, shake, tremble, shiver, shudder, judder, throb, pulsate; rock, oscillate, swing, sway, move to and fro. 2 a low rumbling sound began to vibrate through the car: reverberate, resonate, resound, ring, echo.

vibration noun tremor, shaking, quivering, quaking, judder, juddering, shuddering, throb, throbbing, pulsation.

vicar noun minister, rector, priest, parson, clergyman, clergywoman, cleric, churchman, churchwoman, ecclesiastic, pastor, father, man/woman of the cloth, man/woman of god, curate, chaplain, preacher; Scottish kirkman; N. Amer. dominie; informal reverend, padre, Holy Joe, sky pilot; Austral. informal josser; dated divine.

vicarious adjective indirect, second-hand, secondary, derivative, derived, surrogate, substitute; empathetic, empathic.

vice noun 1 youngsters may be driven to vice: immorality, wrongdoing, wickedness, badness, evil, iniquity, villainy, corruption, misconduct; sin, sinfulness, ungodliness; depravity, degeneracy, dissolution, dissipation, debauchery, decadence, lechery; crime, transgression; formal turpitude; old use trespass. 2 smoking is my only vice: shortcoming, failing, flaw, fault, defect, weakness, deficiency, limitation, imperfection, blemish, foible, frailty.

– OPPOSITES virtue.

vice versa adverb conversely, inversely, contrariwise; reciprocally.

vicinity noun 1 she lives in the vicinity:

neighbourhood, surrounding area, locality, locale, (local) area, district, region, quarter, zone; environs, surroundings, precincts; N. Amer. vicinage; informal neck of the woods.

2 (old use) the forest's vicinity to the dockyards. See PROXIMITY.

■ in the vicinity of around, about, nearly, circa, approaching, roughly, something like, more or less; in the region of, in the neighbourhood of, near to, close to; Brit. getting on for.

vicious adjective 1 a vicious killer: brutal, ferocious, savage, violent, dangerous, ruthless, remorseless, merciless, heartless, callous, cruel, harsh, cold-blooded, inhuman, fierce, barbarous, barbaric, brutish, bloodthirsty, fiendish, sadistic, monstrous, murderous, homicidal. 2 a vicious hate campaign: malicious, malevolent, malignant, malign, spiteful, vindictive, venomous, poisonous, rancorous, mean, cruel, bitter, acrimonious, hostile, nasty; defamatory, slanderous; informal catty.

– OPPOSITES gentle, kindly.

vicissitude noun change, alteration, transition, shift, reversal, downturn; inconstancy, instability, uncertainty, unpredictability, chanciness, fickleness, variability, changeability, fluctuation, vacillation; ups and downs.

victim noun 1 a victim of crime: sufferer, injured party, casualty; fatality, loss; loser.

2 the victim of a confidence trick: dupe, stooge, gull, fool; target, prey, quarry, object, subject, focus, recipient; informal sucker, fall guy, chump, muggins, charlie; N. Amer. informal patsy, pigeon, sap. 3 a sacrificial victim: sacrifice, (burnt) offering, scapegoat.

■ fall victim to fall ill with, be stricken with, catch, develop, contract, pick up; succumb to; informal go down with.

victimize verb persecute, pick on, push around, bully, abuse, discriminate against, ill-treat, mistreat, maltreat, terrorize; exploit, prey on, take advantage of, dupe, cheat, double-cross; informal get at, have it in for, give someone a hard time, hassle, lean on.

victor verb winner, champion, conqueror, vanquisher, hero; prizewinner, medallist; informal champ, top dog.

– OPPOSITES loser.

victorious adjective triumphant, conquering, vanquishing, winning, champion, successful, top, first.

victory noun success, triumph, conquest, win, favourable result, landslide, coup, vanquishment; mastery, superiority, supremacy; informal walkover, thrashing, trouncing.

– OPPOSITES defeat.

virtuals plural noun (dated). See FOOD sense 1.

vie verb compete, contend, contest, struggle, fight, battle, cross swords, lock horns, jockey; war, feud.

view noun 1 the view from her flat:

outlook, prospect, panorama, vista, scene, aspect, perspective, spectacle, sight; scenery, landscape. 2 we agree with this view: opinion, point of view, viewpoint, belief, judgement, thinking, notion, idea, conviction, persuasion, attitude, feeling, sentiment, concept, hypothesis, theory; stance, standpoint, approach. 3 the church came into view: sight, perspective, vision, visibility.

• verb 1 they viewed the landscape: look at, eye, observe, gaze at, stare at, ogle, contemplate, regard, scan, survey, inspect, scrutinize; informal check out, get a load of, gawp at; Brit. informal clock; N. Amer. informal eyeball; literary espy, behold. 2 the law was viewed as a last resort: consider, regard, look on, see, perceive, judge, deem, reckon.

■ in view of considering, bearing in mind, taking into account, on account of, in the light of, owing to, because of, as a result of.

■ on view on display, on exhibition, on show.

viewer noun watcher, spectator, onlooker, observer; (viewers) audience, crowd; literary beholder.

viewpoint noun. See VIEW noun sense 2.

vigilant adjective watchful, observant, attentive, alert, eagle-eyed, hawk-eyed, on the lookout, on one's toes, on the qui vive; wide awake, on one's guard, cautious, wary, circumspect, heedful, mindful; informal beady-eyed.

– OPPOSITES inattentive.

vigorous adjective 1 the child was vigorous:

robust, healthy, hale and hearty, strong, sturdy, fit; hardy, tough, athletic; bouncing, thriving, flourishing, blooming; energetic, lively, active, perky, spirited, vibrant, vital, zestful; informal peppy, bouncy, in the pink.

2 a vigorous defence of policy: strenuous, powerful, forceful, spirited, mettlesome, determined, aggressive, eager, zealous, ardent, fervent, vehement, passionate; tough, blunt, hard-hitting; informal punchy.

– OPPOSITES weak, feeble.

vigorously adverb strenuously, strongly, powerfully, forcefully, energetically, heartily, with might and main, for dear life, for all one is worth, all out, fiercely, hard; informal like mad, like crazy; Brit. informal like billy-o.

vigour noun robustness, health, hardiness, strength, sturdiness, toughness; bloom, radiance, energy, life, vitality, verve, spirit; zeal, passion, determination, dynamism, zest, pep, drive; informal oomph, get-up-and-go; Brit. informal welly.

– OPPOSITES lethargy.

vile adjective foul, nasty, unpleasant, bad, disagreeable, horrid, horrible, dreadful, abominable, atrocious, offensive, obnoxious, odious, unsavoury, repulsive, disgusting, distasteful, loathsome, hateful, nauseating, sickening, disgraceful, appalling, shocking, sorry, shabby, shameful, dishonourable, execrable, heinous, abhorrent, deplorable, monstrous, wicked, evil, iniquitous, depraved, debased; contemptible, despicable, reprehensible; informal gross, rank, God-awful, low-down, lousy; Brit. informal beastly; old use scurvy.

– OPPOSITES pleasant.

vilify verb disparage, denigrate, defame, run down, revile, abuse, speak ill of, criticize, condemn; malign, slander, libel; N. Amer. slur; informal pull apart, lay into, slam, bad-mouth; Brit. informal rubbish, slate; Austral./NZ informal bag, monster; formal derogate, calumniate.

– OPPOSITES commend.

villain noun criminal, lawbreaker, offender, felon, convict, malefactor, miscreant, wrongdoer; gangster, gunman, thief, robber; rogue, scoundrel, reprobate, ruffian, hoodlum; Law malfeasant; informal crook, con, crim, baddy; dated cad, knave; old use blackguard.

villainous adjective wicked, evil, iniquitous, sinful, nefarious, vile, foul, monstrous, outrageous, atrocious, abominable, reprehensible, hateful, odious, contemptible, horrible, heinous, egregious, diabolical, fiendish, vicious, murderous; criminal, illicit, unlawful, illegal, lawless; immoral, corrupt, degenerate, sordid, depraved, dishonourable, dishonest, unscrupulous, unprincipled; informal crooked, bent, low-down, dirty, shady; dated dastardly.

– OPPOSITES virtuous.

villainy noun wickedness, badness, evil, iniquity, wrongdoing, dishonesty, unscrupulousness, roguery, delinquency; crime, vice, criminality, lawlessness, lawbreaking, corruption; Law malfeasance; informal crookedness; formal turpitude; old use knavery.

vindicate verb 1 he was vindicated by the jury: acquit, clear, absolve, exonerate; discharge, liberate, free, redeem; informal let off (the hook); formal exculpate. 2 I had fully vindicated my request: justify, warrant, substantiate, ratify, authenticate, verify, confirm, corroborate, prove, defend, support, back, evidence, endorse.

vindictive adjective vengeful, revengeful, unforgiving, resentful, acrimonious, bitter; spiteful, mean, rancorous, venomous, malicious, malevolent, nasty, cruel, unkind; informal catty.

– OPPOSITES forgiving.

vintage noun 1 1986 was a classic vintage: year. 2 he lost a vintage through frost: (grape) harvest, crop, yield. 3 furniture of Louis XV vintage: period, era, epoch, time, origin; genre, style, kind, sort, type. • adjective 1 vintage French wine: high-quality, quality, choice, select, superior, best. 2 vintage motor vehicles: classic, ageless, timeless; old, antique, heritage, historic. 3 his reaction was vintage Francis: characteristic, typical, pure.

violate verb 1 this violates fundamental human rights: contravene, breach, infringe, break, transgress, overstep, disobey, defy, flout; disregard, ignore. 2 the tomb was violated: desecrate, profane, defile, degrade, debase; damage, vandalize, deface, destroy.

3 he drugged and then violated her: rape, assault, force oneself on, abuse, molest, interfere with; dated deflower, defile, dishonour, ruin; literary ravish.

– OPPOSITES respect.

violation noun 1 a violation of human rights: contravention, breach, infringement, infraction, transgression, defiance; neglect. 2 a violation of their private lives: invasion, breach, infraction; trespass, intrusion, encroachment. 3 she was threatened with violation: rape, (sexual) assault, (sexual) abuse, molestation, interference; dated defloration, defilement, dishonour; old use ravishment.

violence noun 1 police violence: brutality, brute force, ferocity, savagery, cruelty, sadism, barbarity, brutishness. 2 the violence of the blow: forcefulness, force, power, strength, might, savagery, ferocity, brutality. 3 the violence of his passion: intensity, severity, strength, force, vehemence, power, potency, fervency, ardency, ferocity, fury.

violent adjective 1 a violent alcoholic: brutal, vicious, savage, rough, aggressive, threatening, fierce, wild, ferocious; barbarous, barbaric, thuggish, cut-throat, homicidal, murderous, cruel. 2 a violent blow: powerful, forceful, hard, sharp, smart, strong, vigorous, mighty, hefty; savage, ferocious, brutal, vicious. 3 violent jealousy: intense, extreme, strong, powerful, vehement, intemperate, unbridled, uncontrollable, ungovernable, inordinate, consuming, passionate.

– OPPOSITES gentle, weak, mild.

VIP noun celebrity, famous person, very important person, personality, big name, star, superstar; dignitary, luminary, worthy, grandee, lion, notable, notability, personage; informal heavyweight, celeb, bigwig, big shot, big cheese, nob, honcho, top dog, megastar; N. Amer. informal big wheel, (big) kahuna, high muckamuck.

virago noun harridan, shrew, dragon, termagant, vixen; fishwife, witch, hellcat, she-devil, tartar, martinet, spitfire, ogress; informal battleaxe; old use scold.

virgin noun she remained a virgin: chaste woman, celibate; formal virgo intacta; literary maiden, maid, vestal.

• adjective 1 virgin forest: untouched, unspoilt, untainted, immaculate, pristine, flawless; spotless, unsullied, unpolluted, undefiled, perfect; unchanged, intact; unexplored, uncharted, unmapped. 2 virgin girls: chaste, virginal, celibate, abstinent; unmarried, unwed, maiden, maidenly; pure, uncorrupted, incorrupt, undefiled, unsullied, innocent; literary vestal.

virginal adjective. See VIRGIN adjective sense 2.

virginity noun chastity, maidenhood, honour, purity, innocence; celibacy, abstinence; informal cherry; old use virtue.

virile adjective manly, masculine, male; strong, tough, vigorous, robust, muscular, muscly, brawny, rugged, sturdy, husky; red-blooded, fertile; informal macho, laddish, butch, beefy, hunky.

– OPPOSITES effeminate.

virtual adjective effective, in effect, near (enough), essential, practical, to all intents and purposes; indirect, implied, implicit, unacknowledged, tacit.

virtually adverb almost, practically, nearly, close to, verging on, just about, as good as, essentially, to all intents and purposes, effectively, in effect, all but, more or less, as near as dammit; roughly, approximately; informal pretty much, pretty well.

virtue noun 1 the simple virtue of peasant life: goodness, virtuousness, righteousness, morality, integrity, dignity, rectitude, honour, decency, respectability, nobility, worthiness, purity; principles, ethics.

2 promptness was not one of his virtues: good point, good quality, strong point, asset, forte, attribute, strength, talent. 3 I can see no virtue in this: merit, advantage, benefit, usefulness, strength, efficacy.

– OPPOSITES vice, failing, disadvantage.

■ by virtue of because of, on account of, by dint of, by means of, by way of, via, through, as a result of, as a consequence of, on the strength of, owing to, thanks to, due to, by reason of.

virtuosity noun skill, skilfulness, mastery, expertise, prowess, proficiency, ability, aptitude; excellence, brilliance, talent, genius, artistry, flair, panache, finesse, wizardry; informal know-how.

virtuoso noun the pianist is clearly a virtuoso: genius, expert, (past) master, maestro, artist, prodigy, marvel, adept, professional, doyen, veteran; star, champion; informal hotshot, wizard, pro, ace; Brit. informal dab hand.

– OPPOSITES duffer.

● adjective a virtuoso violinist: skilful, expert, accomplished, masterly, master, consummate, proficient, talented, gifted, adept, able, good, competent, capable; impressive, outstanding, exceptional, magnificent, supreme, first-rate, brilliant, excellent; informal superb, mean, ace.

– OPPOSITES incompetent.

virtuous adjective righteous, good, moral, ethical, upright, upstanding, high-minded, principled, exemplary; law-abiding, irreproachable, blameless, guiltless, unimpeachable, honest, honourable, reputable, decent, respectable, noble, worthy, meritorious; pure, whiter than white, saintly, angelic; informal squeaky clean.

virulent adjective 1 virulent herbicides: poisonous, toxic, venomous, noxious, deadly, lethal, fatal, mortal, dangerous, harmful, injurious, pernicious, damaging, destructive; literary deathly, noxious. 2 a virulent epidemic: infectious, infective, contagious, communicable, transmittable, transmissible, spreading, pestilential; informal catching. 3 a virulent attack on morals: vitriolic, malicious, malevolent, hostile, spiteful, venomous, vicious, vindictive, bitter, rancorous, acrimonious, scathing, caustic, withering, nasty, savage, harsh.

– OPPOSITES harmless, amicable.

viscous adjective sticky, gummy, gluey, adhesive, tacky, adherent, treacly, syrupy; glutinous, gelatinous, thick, viscid, mucous, mucoid, mucilaginous; informal gooey, gloopy; N. Amer. informal gloppy.

visible adjective perceptible, perceivable, seeable, observable, noticeable, detectable, discernible; in sight, in/on view, on display; evident, apparent, manifest, transparent, plain, clear, conspicuous, obvious, patent, unmistakable, unconcealed, undisguised, prominent, salient, striking, glaring.

vision noun 1 her vision was blurred by tears: eyesight, sight, observation, (visual) perception; eyes; view, perspective.

2 nightmarish visions of the dead:

apparition, spectre, phantom, ghost, wraith, manifestation; hallucination, illusion, mirage; informal spook; literary phantasm, shade. 3 visions of a better future: dream, daydream, reverie; plan, hope; fantasy, pipe dream, delusion. 4 his speech lacked vision: imagination, creativity, inventiveness, innovation, inspiration, intuition, perception, insight, foresight, prescience.

5 Melissa was a vision in lilac: beautiful sight, feast for the eyes, pleasure to behold, delight, dream, beauty, picture, joy, marvel, sensation; informal sight for sore eyes, stunner, knockout, looker, peach; Brit. informal smasher.

WORD LINKS

visual, optical relating to vision visionary adjective 1 a visionary leader:

inspired, imaginative, creative, inventive, ingenious, enterprising, innovative; insightful, perceptive, intuitive, prescient, discerning, shrewd, wise, clever, resourceful; idealistic, romantic, quixotic, dreamy; informal starry-eyed. 2 (old use) a visionary image. See IMAGINARY.

● noun 1 a visionary pictured him in hell: seer, mystic, oracle, prophet(ess), soothsayer, augur, diviner, clairvoyant, crystal-gazer; Scottish spaewife; literary sibyl. 2 a visionary can't run a business effectively: dreamer, daydreamer, idealist, romantic, fantasist, utopian.

visit verb 1 I visited my dear uncle: call on, pay a visit to, go to see, look in on; stay with, holiday with; stop by, drop by; N. Amer. visit with, go see; informal pop in on, drop in on, look up. 2 Alex was visiting America: stay in, stop over in, spend time in, holiday in, vacation in; tour, explore, see; informal do. 3 they were visited with many epidemics: afflict, attack, trouble, torment; old use smite. ● noun 1 she paid a visit to her mum: (social) call. 2 a visit to the museum: trip to, tour of, look round; stopover, stay; holiday, break, vacation; formal sojourn.

visitation noun 1 the bishop's pastoral visitations: (official) visit, tour of inspection, survey, examination.

2 a visitation from God: apparition, vision, appearance, manifestation, materialization.

3 Jehovah punished them by visitations:

affliction, scourge, bane, curse, plague, blight, disaster, tragedy, catastrophe; punishment, retribution, vengeance.

visitor noun 1 I am expecting a visitor:

guest, caller; company; old use visitant. 2 the monument attracts foreign visitors: tourist, traveller, holidaymaker, day tripper, tripper, vacationer, vacationist, sightseer; pilgrim; foreigner, outsider, stranger, alien; Brit. informal emmet, grockle.

vista noun view, prospect, panorama, aspect, perspective, spectacle, sight; scenery, landscape.

visual adjective 1 visual defects: optical, optic, ocular, eye; vision, sight. 2 a visual indication that the alarm works: visible, perceptible, perceivable, discernible.

visualize verb envisage, envision, conjure up, picture, call to mind, see, imagine, evoke, dream up, fantasize about, conceptualize, contemplate.

vital adjective 1 it is vital that action is taken: essential, of the essence, critical, crucial, indispensable, all-important, imperative, mandatory, urgent, pressing, burning, compelling, high-priority; informal earth-shattering, world-shaking. 2 the vital organs: major, main, chief; essential, necessary. 3 he is young and vital: lively, energetic, active, sprightly, spry, spirited, vivacious, exuberant, bouncy, enthusiastic, vibrant, zestful, sparkling, dynamic, vigorous, lusty, hale and hearty; informal peppy, punky, full of beans, bright-eyed and bushy-tailed.

– OPPOSITES unimportant, minor, listless.

vitality noun liveliness, life, energy, spirit, vivacity, exuberance, buoyancy, bounce, verve, vim, pep, brio, zest, sparkle, dynamism, passion, fire, vigour, drive; informal get-up-and-go.

vitriolic adjective acrimonious, rancorous, bitter, caustic, mordant, acerbic, trenchant, virulent, spiteful, savage, venomous, poisonous, malicious, splenetic; nasty, mean, cruel, unkind, harsh, vindictive, scathing, barbed, wounding, sharp, cutting, withering, sarcastic; informal bitchy, catty.

vituperate verb (old use). See REVILE.

vituperation noun invective, revilement, condemnation, opprobrium, scolding, criticism, disapprobation, fault-finding; blame, abuse, insults, vilification, denunciation, obloquy, denigration, disparagement, slander, libel, defamation, slurs, aspersions; vitriol, venom; informal flak; Brit. informal stick; formal castigation.

– OPPOSITES praise.

vivacious adjective lively, spirited, bubbly, ebullient, buoyant, sparkling, light-hearted, jaunty, merry, happy, jolly, cheery, cheerful, perky, sunny, breezy, enthusiastic, irrepressible, vibrant, vital, zestful, energetic, dynamic; informal peppy, bouncy, upbeat, chirpy; dated gay.

– OPPOSITES dull.

vivid adjective 1 a vivid blue sea: bright, colourful, brilliant, radiant, vibrant, strong, bold, deep, intense, rich, warm. 2 a vivid account of urban poverty: graphic, evocative, realistic, lifelike, faithful, authentic, clear, detailed, lucid, striking, arresting, impressive, colourful, rich, dramatic, lively, stimulating, interesting, fascinating, scintillating; memorable, powerful, stirring, moving, haunting.

– OPPOSITES dull, vague.

viz. adverb namely, that is to say, in other words, to wit, specifically; such as, as, like, for instance, for example; formal videlicet.

vocabulary noun 1 she has an extensive vocabulary: lexicon, lexis. 2 we listed the terms in a vocabulary: wordbook, dictionary, wordfinder, glossary, lexicon, thesaurus.

vocal adjective 1 vocal sounds: vocalized, voiced, uttered, articulated, oral; spoken, said. 2 a vocal critic of the government: vociferous, outspoken, forthright, plain-spoken, blunt, frank, candid, open; vehement, vigorous, emphatic, insistent, forceful, zealous, clamorous.

vocation noun calling, life's work, mission, purpose, function; profession, occupation, career, job, employment, trade, craft, business, line (of work), métier.

vociferous adjective. See VOCAL sense 2.

vogue noun the skirt is enjoying a new vogue: fashion, trend, fad, fancy, craze, rage, enthusiasm, passion, obsession, mania; fashionableness, popularity, currency, favour; informal trendiness.

■ in vogue fashionable, vogueish, stylish, modish, up to date, up to the minute, modern, current; prevalent, popular, in favour, in demand, sought-after, all the rage; chic, smart, le dernier cri; informal trendy, hip, cool, big, happening, now, in, with it; N. Amer. informal tony, kicky.

voice noun 1 she lost her voice: power of speech. 2 he gave voice to his anger: expression, utterance, verbalization, vocalization. 3 the voice of the people: opinion, view, feeling, wish, desire, vote, input. 4 a powerful voice for conservation: mouthpiece, representative, spokesperson, intermediary; forum, vehicle, instrument, channel, organ, agent.

• verb they voiced their opposition: express, vocalize, communicate, declare, state, assert, reveal, proclaim, announce, table, air, ventilate, vent; utter, say, speak, articulate; informal come out with.

WORD LINKS

vocal relating to the human voice register a particular part of the range of a voice falsestto a high-pitched voice above the normal range inflection, intonation, lilt, modulation variation in the tone or pitch of the voice ventriloquist an entertainer who seems to make their voice come from a dummy void noun the void of space: vacuum, emptiness, nothingness, blankness, vacuity; (empty) space, gap, cavity, chasm, abyss, gulf, pit.

• verb 1 the contract was voided: invalidate, annul, nullify; negate, quash, cancel, countermand, repeal, revoke, rescind, retract, withdraw, reverse, undo, abolish; Law vacate; formal abrogate. 2 they voided their bladders: evacuate, empty, drain, clear, purge. 3 bacteria are voided in the urine: eject, expel, emit, discharge, pass, excrete, exude, eliminate.

– OPPOSITES validate, fill.

• adjective 1 vast void spaces: empty, vacant, blank, bare, clear, free, unfilled, unoccupied, uninhabited. 2 a country void of man or beast: devoid of, empty of, vacant of, bereft of, free from; lacking, wanting, without. 3 the election was void: invalid, null, ineffective, non-viable, useless, worthless, nugatory.

– OPPOSITES full, occupied, valid.

volatile adjective 1 a volatile personality: unpredictable, changeable, variable, inconstant, inconsistent, erratic, irregular, unstable, turbulent, blowing hot and cold, varying, shifting, fluctuating, fluid, mutable; mercurial, capricious, whimsical, fickle, flighty, impulsive, temperamental, highly strung, excitable, emotional, fiery, moody, tempestuous. 2 the atmosphere is too volatile for an election: tense, strained, fraught, uneasy, uncomfortable, charged, explosive, inflammatory, turbulent; informal nail-biting; Brit. informal dodgy. 3 a volatile organic compound: evaporative, vaporous; explosive, inflammable; unstable, labile.

– OPPOSITES stable, calm.

volition noun

■ of one's own volition of one's own free will, of one's own accord, by choice, by preference; voluntarily, willingly, readily, freely, intentionally, consciously, deliberately, on purpose, purposely; gladly, with pleasure.

volley noun barrage, cannonade, battery, bombardment, salvo, fusillade; storm, hail, shower, deluge, torrent; historical broadside.

voluble adjective talkative, loquacious, garrulous, verbose, wordy, chatty, gossipy, effusive, gushing, forthcoming, conversational, communicative, expansive; articulate, fluent; informal mouthy, gabby, gassy, windy.

– OPPOSITES taciturn.

volume noun 1 a volume from the library:

book, publication, tome, hardback, paperback, title; manual, almanac, compendium. 2 a glass syringe of known volume: capacity, cubic measure, size, magnitude, mass, bulk, extent; dimensions, proportions, measurements. 3 a huge volume of water: quantity, amount, proportion, measure, mass, bulk. 4 she turned the volume down: loudness, sound, amplification.

voluminous adjective capacious, roomy, spacious, ample, full, big, large, generous; billowing, baggy, loose-fitting; formal commodious.

voluntarily adverb of one's own free will, of one's own accord, of one's own volition, by choice, by preference; willingly, readily, freely, intentionally, deliberately, on purpose, purposely, spontaneously; gladly, with pleasure.

voluntary adjective 1 attendance is voluntary: optional, discretionary, elective, non-compulsory, volitional; Law permissive. 2 voluntary work: unpaid, unsalaried, for free, without charge, for nothing; honorary, volunteer; Law pro bono (publico).

– OPPOSITES compulsory, paid.

volunteer verb 1 I volunteered my services: offer, tender, proffer, put forward, put up, venture. 2 he volunteered as a driver: offer one's services, present oneself, make oneself available.

• noun each volunteer was tested three times: subject, participant, case, client, patient; informal guinea pig.

voluptuous adjective 1 a voluptuous model: curvaceous, shapely, ample, buxom, full-figured, Junoesque, Rubenesque; seductive, alluring, sultry, sensuous, sexy; informal curvy, busty. 2 she was voluptuous by nature: hedonistic, sybaritic, epicurean, pleasure-loving, self-indulgent; decadent, intemperate, immoderate, dissolute, sensual, licentious.

– OPPOSITES scrawny, ascetic.

vomit verb 1 he needed to vomit: be sick, spew, fetch up; heave, retch, reach, gag; N. Amer. get sick; informal throw up, puke, chunder, chuck up, hurl; Brit. informal honk; Scottish informal boke; N. Amer. informal barf, upchuck. 2 I vomited my breakfast: regurgitate, bring up, spew up, cough up; informal chuck up, throw up, puke; Brit. informal sick up; N. Amer. informal spit up. 3 the printer is vomiting paper: eject, issue, emit, expel, discharge, disgorge, throw out, spew out, belch.

• noun a coat stained with vomit: sick; informal chunder, puke, spew; N. Amer. informal barf; Medicine vomitus.

voracious adjective insatiable, unquenchable, unappeasable, prodigious, uncontrollable, compulsive, gluttonous, greedy, rapacious; enthusiastic, eager, keen, avid, desirous, hungry, ravenous; informal piggyish.

vortex noun whirlwind, whirlpool, gyre, maelstrom, eddy, swirl.

vote noun 1 a rigged vote: ballot, poll, election, referendum, plebiscite; show of hands. 2 in 1918 women got the vote: suffrage, voting rights, franchise; voice, say.

• verb 1 only half of them voted: go to the polls, cast one's vote. 2 I vote we have one more game: suggest, propose, recommend, advocate, move, table, submit.

■ vote someone in elect, return, select, choose, pick, adopt, appoint, designate, opt for, plump for, decide on.

WORD LINKS

psephology the study of elections and voting electorate all the people entitled to vote enfranchise give someone the right to vote abstain formally choose not to vote teller a person appointed to count votes

vouch verb

■ vouch for attest to, confirm, affirm, verify, swear to, testify to, bear out, back up, support, stick up for, corroborate, substantiate, prove, uphold, give credence to, endorse, certify, warrant, validate.

voucher noun

coupon, token, ticket, licence, permit, carnet, pass; chit, slip, stub, docket; Brit. informal chitty; N. Amer. informal ducat, comp.

vouchsafe verb 1 the grace which God had vouchsafed him: grant, give, accord; confer on, bestow on, favour with. 2 you never vouchsafed that information before: disclose, reveal, divulge, impart, give away, make known, broadcast, air; informal blab, spill; Brit. informal cough. 3 if he would only vouchsafe to talk with them: deign, condescend, stoop, lower oneself, humble oneself, demean oneself.

– OPPOSITES withhold, conceal.

vow noun a vow of silence: oath, pledge, promise, bond, covenant, commitment, avowal, profession, affirmation, attestation, assurance, guarantee; word (of honour); formal troth.

• verb I vowed to do better: swear, pledge, promise, avow, undertake, engage, make a commitment, give one's word, guarantee; old use plight.

WORD LINKS

votive offered in fulfilment of a vow votary a person who has taken vows to dedicate their life to God voyage noun the voyage lasted 120 days:

journey, trip, expedition, excursion, tour; hike, trek; pilgrimage, quest, crusade, odyssey; cruise, passage, flight, drive.
 • verb he voyaged through Peru: travel, journey, tour, globetrot; sail, steam, cruise, fly, drive; informal gallivant; old use peregrinate.

vulgar adjective 1 a vulgar joke: rude, indecent, indelicate, offensive, distasteful, coarse, crude, ribald, risqué, naughty, suggestive, racy, earthy, off colour, bawdy, obscene, lewd, salacious, smutty, dirty, filthy, pornographic, X-rated; informal sleazy, raunchy, blue, locker-room; Brit. informal saucy, close to the bone; N. Amer. informal gamy; euphemistic adult. 2 the decor was lavish but vulgar: tasteless, crass, tawdry, ostentatious, flamboyant, overdone, showy, gaudy, garish, brassy, kitsch, tinselly, loud; informal flash, flashy, tacky, over the top. 3 it was vulgar for a woman to whistle: impolite, ill-mannered, unmannerly, indecorous, unseemly, ill-bred, boorish, uncouth, crude, rough; unsophisticated, unrefined, common.

– OPPOSITES tasteful, decorous.

vulnerable adjective 1 a vulnerable city: in danger, in peril, in jeopardy, at risk, endangered, unsafe, unprotected, unguarded; open to attack, assailable, exposed, wide open; undefended, unfortified, unarmed, defenceless, helpless, pregnable. 2 he is vulnerable to criticism: exposed to, open to, liable to, prone to, prey to, susceptible to, subject to, an easy target for; old use susceptible of.

– OPPOSITES resilient.

Ww

wacky adjective (informal). See ECCENTRIC adjective.

wad noun 1 a wad of cotton wool: lump, clump, mass, plug, pad, hunk, wedge, ball, cake, nugget; bit, piece; Brit. informal wodge.

2 a wad of dollar bills: bundle, roll, pile, stack, sheaf; N. Amer. bankroll. 3 a wad of tobacco: quid, twist, plug, chew.

• verb the teddy bear was wadded with cotton: stuff, pad, fill, pack; wrap, cover, cushion.

wadding noun stuffing, filling, filler, packing, padding, cushioning, quilting.

waddle verb toddle, dodder, totter, wobble, shuffle; duckwalk.

wade verb 1 they waded in the icy water:

paddle, wallow, dabble, squelch; informal splosh. 2 I had to wade through some hefty documents: plough, plod, trawl, labour, toil; study, browse; informal slog.

waffle (Brit. informal) verb they waffled on about the baby: prattle, chatter, babble, ramble, jabber, gibber, gabble, prate, drivel; informal blather; Brit. informal rabbit, witter, natter.

• noun my panic reduced the interview to waffle: prattle, drivel, nonsense, twaddle, gibberish, mumbo-jumbo; informal hot air, poppycock, bunk, hogwash, gobbledegook.

wag verb 1 smoke wafted through the air:

drift, float, glide, whirl, travel. 2 a breeze wafted the smell towards us: convey, carry, transport, bear; blow, puff.

wag<sup>1</sup> verb 1 the dog's tail wagged frantically: swing, swish, switch, sway, shake, quiver, twitch, whip; informal waggle. 2 he wagged his stick at them: shake, wave, wiggle, flourish, brandish.

• noun 1 a feeble wag of her tail: swing, shake, swish, switch, quiver, twitch, whip; informal waggle. 2 a wag of the finger: shake, flourish, wiggle, wobble, wave; informal waggle.

wag<sup>2</sup> noun (informal) he's a bit of a wag. See JOKER.

W

wage noun 1 the farm workers' wages: pay, payment, remuneration, salary, stipend, fee, honorarium; income, revenue; profit, gain, reward; earnings; formal emolument. 2 the wages of sin is death: reward, recompense, retribution; returns, deserts.

• verb they waged war on the guerrillas: engage in, carry on, conduct, execute, pursue, prosecute, proceed with.

wager noun a wager of £100: bet, gamble, speculation; stake, pledge, ante; Brit. informal flutter.

• verb I'll wager a pound on the home team: bet, gamble, lay odds, put money on; stake, pledge, risk, venture, hazard, chance; informal punt.

waggle verb (informal). See WAG<sup>1</sup> verb senses 1, 2.

waif noun ragamuffin, urchin; foundling, orphan, stray; derogatory guttersnipe; dated gamin.

wail noun a wail of anguish: howl, bawl, yowl, cry, moan, groan; shriek, scream, yelp.

• verb the children began to wail: howl, weep, cry, sob, moan, groan, keen, lament, yowl, snivel, whimper, whine, bawl, shriek, scream, yelp, caterwaul; Scottish greet; informal blubber, blub.

wait verb 1 we'll wait in the airport: stay (put), remain, rest, stop, halt, pause; linger, loiter, dally; informal stick around; old use tarry.

2 she had to wait until her bags arrived:

stand by, hold back, bide one's time, hang fire, mark time, kill time, waste time, kick one's heels, twiddle one's thumbs; informal hold on, hang around, sit tight, hold one's horses. 3 they were waiting for the kettle to boil: await; anticipate, expect, be ready.

4 that job will have to wait: be postponed, be delayed, be put off, be deferred; informal be put on the back burner, be put on ice.

• noun a long wait: delay, hold-up, interval, interlude, intermission, pause, break, stay, cessation, suspension, stoppage, halt, interruption, lull, respite, recess, moratorium, hiatus, gap, rest.

■ wait on someone serve, attend to, cater for/to; minister to, take care of, look after, see to.

waiter, waitress noun server, stewardess, steward, attendant, garçon; hostess, host; butler, servant, page; N. Amer. waitperson.

waive verb 1 he waived his right to a hearing:

relinquish, renounce, give up, abandon, surrender, yield, reject, dispense with, abdicate, sacrifice, refuse, turn down, spurn.

2 the manager waived the rules: disregard, ignore, overlook, set aside, forgo, drop.

wake<sup>1</sup> verb 1 at 4.30 am Mark woke up:

awake, waken (up), awaken, rouse oneself, stir, come to, come round, bestir oneself.

2 she woke her husband: rouse, waken; Brit. informal knock up. 3 the shock woke him up a bit: activate, stimulate, galvanize, enliven, stir up, spur on, ginger up, buoy up, invigorate, perk up, revitalize; informal pep up. 4 they woke up to what we were saying: realize, become aware of, become conscious of, become mindful of. 5 the name woke an old memory: evoke, conjure up, rouse, stir, revive, awaken, rekindle, rejuvenate, stimulate.

– OPPOSITES sleep.

• noun a mourner at a wake: vigil, watch; funeral.

wake<sup>2</sup> noun the cruiser's wake: backwash, wash, slipstream, turbulence; trail, path.

■ in the wake of in the aftermath of, after, subsequent to, following, as a result of, as a consequence of, on account of, because of, owing to.

wakeful adjective 1 he had been wakeful all night: awake, restless, restive, tossing and turning; old use watchful. 2 I was suddenly wakeful: alert, watchful, vigilant, on the lookout, on one's guard, attentive, heedful, wary.

– OPPOSITES asleep, inattentive.

waken verb. See WAKE<sup>1</sup> verb senses 1, 2.

Wales noun Cymru; Brit. the Principality; informal the Land of Song.

WORD LINKS

Cymric, Cambrian Welsh

walk verb 1 they walked along the road: stroll, saunter, amble, trudge, plod, hike, tramp, trek, march, stride, troop, patrol, step out, wander, ramble, tread, prowl, footslog, promenade, roam, traipse; stretch one's legs; informal mosey, pootle, hoof it; Brit. informal yomp; formal perambulate. 2 he walked her home: accompany, escort, guide, show, see, usher, take, chaperone, steer, shepherd.

• noun 1 country walks: stroll, saunter, amble, promenade; ramble, hike, tramp, march; turn, airing; dated constitutional.

2 her elegant walk: gait, step, stride, tread. 3 the riverside walk: pathway, path, footpath, track, walkway, promenade, footway, pavement, trail, towpath.

■ walk all over someone (informal) be firm or they'll walk all over you: take advantage of, impose on, exploit, use, abuse, misuse, manipulate, take liberties with; informal take for a ride, run rings around.

■ walk of life class, status, rank, caste, sphere, arena; profession, career, vocation, job, occupation, employment, business, trade, craft; province, field; dated station.

■ walk out 1 he walked out in a temper: leave, depart, get up and go, storm off/out, flounce out, absent oneself; informal take off.

2 teachers walked out in protest: (go on) strike, stop work; protest, mutiny, revolt; Brit. informal down tools.

■ walk out on someone desert, abandon, leave, betray, throw over, jilt, run out on, rat on; informal chuck, dump, ditch.

walker noun hiker, Rambler, traveller, roamer, rover, stroller; pedestrian; literary wayfarer.

walkout noun strike, stoppage, industrial action; revolt, rebellion.

walkover noun easy victory, rout, landslide; informal piece of cake, doddle, pushover, cinch, breeze, picnic, whitewash; N. Amer. informal duck soup; dated snip.

wall noun 1 brick walls: barrier, partition, enclosure, screen, panel, separator. 2 an ancient city wall: fortification, rampart, barricade, bulwark, stockade. 3 break down the walls that stop world trade: obstacle, barrier, fence; impediment, hindrance, block, check.

• verb 1 tenements walled in the courtyard: enclose, bound, encircle, confine, hem, close in, shut in, fence in. 2 the doorway had been walled up: block, seal, close, brick up.

WORD LINKS

buttress a projecting support built against a wall cornice a moulding round the wall of a room, just below the ceiling dado rail a waist-high moulding round the wall of a room skirting a wooden board running along the base of an interior wall wainscot, wainscoting wooden panelling on the lower part of the walls of a room mural a picture painted directly on a wall fresco a painting done on wet plaster on a wall or ceiling wallet noun purse; N. Amer. billfold, pocket-book; Brit. dated notecase.

wallop verb (informal). See THUMP verb sense 1.

wallow verb 1 buffalo wallowed in the lake: loll about/around, lie about/around, splash about/around; slosh, wade, paddle; informal splosh. 2 a ship wallowing in stormy seas: roll, lurch, toss, plunge, reel, rock, flounder, keel, list; labour. 3 she seems to wallow in self-pity: luxuriate, bask, take pleasure, take satisfaction, indulge (oneself), delight, revel, glory; enjoy, like, love, relish, savour; informal get a kick out of.

wan adjective 1 she looked so wan and frail: pale, pallid, ashen, white, grey; anaemic, colourless, bloodless, waxen, chalky, pasty, peaky, sickly, washed out, drained, drawn, ghostly. 2 the wan light of the moon: dim, faint, weak, feeble, pale, watery.

– OPPOSITES flushed, bright.

wand noun baton, stick, staff, bar, dowel, rod; twig, cane, birch, switch; historical caduceus.

wander verb 1 I wandered around the estate: stroll, amble, saunter, walk, dawdle, potter, ramble, meander; roam, rove, range, drift, prowl; Scottish & Irish stravaig; informal traipse, mosey, tootle; Brit. informal mooch. 2 we are wandering from the point: stray, depart, diverge, veer, swerve, deviate, digress, drift, get sidetracked. 3 the child wandered off: get lost, lose one's way, go astray. 4 the road wanders along the shore: meander, wind, twist, curve, zigzag, bend, snake.

• noun let's go for a wander: stroll, amble, saunter, walk, potter, ramble, prowl, promenade; turn, breather, airing; informal traipse, mosey, tootle; Brit. informal mooch; dated constitutional.

wanderer noun traveller, rambler, hiker, migrant, globetrotter, roamer, rover; itinerant, rolling stone, bird of passage, nomad; tramp, drifter, vagabond, vagrant; Brit. informal dosser; N. Amer. informal hobo, bum; literary wayfarer.

wane verb 1 the moon is waning: decrease, diminish, dwindle. 2 their support was waning: decline, diminish, decrease, dwindle, shrink, tail off, ebb, fade (away), lessen, peter out, fall off, recede, slump, flag, weaken, give way, wither, evaporate, die out; literary evanesce.

– OPPOSITES wax, grow.

■ on the wane declining, decreasing, diminishing, dwindling, shrinking, contracting, tapering off, subsiding, ebbing, fading away, dissolving, petering out, winding down, falling off, on the way out, receding, flagging, melting away, crumbling, withering, disintegrating, evaporating, dying out.

wangle verb (informal). See CONTRIVE.

want verb 1 do you want more coffee? desire, wish for, hope for, fancy, care for, like; long for, yearn for, crave, hanker after, hunger for, thirst for, cry out for, covet; need; informal have a yen for, be dying for. 2 (informal) his toaster wants repairing: need, require, demand, cry out for. 3 (informal) you want to be more careful: should, ought, need, must. 4 (old use) his poem wants a name: lack, be without, have need of, be devoid of, be bereft of.

● noun 1 the want of vigilance: lack, absence, non-existence, unavailability; dearth, deficiency, inadequacy, insufficiency, paucity, shortage, scarcity, deficit. 2 a time of want: need, neediness, austerity, privation, deprivation, poverty, impoverishment, penury, destitution; famine, drought. 3 all her wants would be taken care of: wish, desire, demand, longing, yearning, fancy, craving, hankering; need, requirement; informal yen.

wanting adjective 1 the defences were found wanting: deficient, inadequate, lacking, insufficient, imperfect, unacceptable, flawed, faulty, defective, unsound, substandard, inferior, second-rate, poor, shoddy; Brit. informal not much cop. 2 the kneecap is wanting in amphibians: absent, missing, lacking, non-existent. 3 millions were left wanting for food: without, lacking, deprived of, devoid of, bereft of, in need of; deficient in, short on; informal minus.

– OPPOSITES sufficient, present.

wanton adjective 1 wanton destruction: deliberate, wilful, malicious, spiteful, wicked, cruel; gratuitous, unprovoked, motiveless, arbitrary, groundless, unjustifiable, needless, unnecessary, uncalled for, senseless, pointless, purposeless, meaningless, empty. 2 a wanton seductress: promiscuous, immoral, immodest, indecent, shameless, unchaste, fast, impure, abandoned, lustful, lecherous, lascivious, libidinous, licentious, dissolute, debauched, degenerate, corrupt, whorish, disreputable; dated loose.

– OPPOSITES justifiable, chaste.

war noun 1 the Napoleonic wars: conflict, warfare, combat, fighting, (military) action, bloodshed, struggle; battle, skirmish, fight, clash, engagement, encounter; offensive, attack, campaign; hostilities; jihad, crusade. 2 the war against drugs: campaign, crusade, battle, fight, struggle, movement, drive.

– OPPOSITES peace.

● verb rival Emperors warred against each other: fight, battle, combat, wage war, take up arms; feud, quarrel, struggle, contend, wrangle, cross swords; attack, engage, take on, skirmish with.

WORD LINKS

martial relating to war belligerent engaged in a war combatant a person or nation fighting during a war friendly fire weapon fire from one's own side that kills or injures one's own forces collateral damage unintentional casualties or destruction in civilian areas during a war armistice, ceasefire, truce an agreement to stop fighting for a time reparations compensation for war damage paid by a defeated state warble verb larks warbled in the sky: trill, sing, chirp, chirrup, cheep, twitter, tweet, chatter, peep.

● noun a warble pierced the air: trill, song, chirp, chirrup, chirr, cheep, twitter, tweet, chatter, peep, call.

ward noun 1 the surgical ward: room, department, unit, area. 2 the most marginal ward in Westminster: district, constituency, division, quarter, zone, parish. 3 the boy is my ward: dependant, charge, protégé.

■ ward someone off fend off, repel, repulse, beat back, chase away; informal send packing.

■ ward something off 1 she warded off the blow: parry, avert, deflect, block; evade, avoid, dodge. 2 garlic is worn to ward off evil spirits: rebuff, avert, keep at bay, fend off, stave off, resist, prevent, obstruct, foil, frustrate, thwart, check, stop.

warden noun 1 the flats have a resident warden: superintendent, caretaker, janitor, porter, custodian, watchman, concierge, doorman. 2 a game warden: ranger, custodian, keeper, guardian, protector. 3 he was handcuffed to a warden: prison officer, guard, jailer, warder, wardress, keeper, sentry; informal screw. 4 (Brit.) the college warden: principal, head, governor, master, mistress, rector, provost, president, director, chancellor; N. Amer. informal prexy.

warder, wardress noun. See WARDEN sense 3.

wardrobe noun 1 she opened the wardrobe: cupboard, cabinet, locker; N. Amer. closet. 2 her wardrobe has an outfit for every mood:

collection of clothes; garments, attire, outfits; trousseau.

warehouse noun storeroom, storehouse, store, depot, depository, stockroom; magazine; granary; informal lock-up.

wares plural noun merchandise, goods, products, produce, stock, commodities; lines, range.

warfare noun fighting, war, combat, conflict, (military) action, hostilities; bloodshed, battles, skirmishes.

warlike adjective aggressive, belligerent, warring, bellicose, pugnacious, combative, bloodthirsty, jingoistic, sabre-rattling; hostile, threatening, quarrelsome; militaristic, militant; informal gung-ho.

warlock noun sorcerer, wizard, magus, (black) magician, enchanter; old use mage.

warm adjective 1 a warm kitchen: hot, cosy, snug; informal toasty. 2 a warm day in spring: balmy, summery, sultry, hot, mild, temperate; sunny, fine. 3 warm water: heated, tepid, lukewarm. 4 a warm sweater: thick, chunky, thermal, winter, woolly. 5 a warm welcome: friendly, cordial, amiable, genial, kind, pleasant, fond; welcoming, hospitable, benevolent, benign, charitable; sincere, genuine, wholehearted, heartfelt, enthusiastic, eager, hearty. 6 (informal) they haven't found it, but they're warm: close, near; informal hot.

– OPPOSITES cold, chilly, light, hostile.

• verb warm the soup in that pan: heat (up), reheat, cook; thaw (out), melt; N. Amer. warm over; informal zap; Brit. informal hot up.

– OPPOSITES chill.

■ warm to/towards everyone warmed to him: like, take to, get on (well) with; informal hit it off with.

■ warm up limber up, loosen up, stretch, work out, exercise; prepare, rehearse.

■ warm someone up the compère warmed up the crowd: enliven, liven, stimulate, animate, rouse, stir, excite; informal get going.

warm-blooded adjective 1 mammals are warm-blooded: Zoology homeothermic, homeothermal. 2 a warm-blooded woman: passionate, ardent, red-blooded, emotional, intense, impetuous, lively, spirited, fiery, tempestuous.

– OPPOSITES poikilothermic, reserved.

warmed-up adjective 1 a warmed-up pasty: reheated; N. Amer. warmed-over. 2 warmed-up ideas: unoriginal, derivative, imitative, uninspired; copied, plagiarized, rehearsed; hackneyed, stale, tired, banal; informal old hat.

– OPPOSITES original.

warm-hearted adjective kind, warm, big-hearted, tender-hearted, tender, loving, caring, feeling, unselfish, selfless, benevolent, humane, good-natured; friendly, sympathetic, understanding, compassionate, charitable, generous.

warmonger noun militarist, hawk, jingoist, sabre-rattler, aggressor, belligerent.

warmth noun 1 the warmth of the fire: heat, warmth, hotness; cosiness. 2 the warmth of their welcome: friendliness, amiability, geniality, cordiality, kindness, tenderness, fondness; benevolence, charity; enthusiasm, eagerness, ardour, fervour, effusiveness.

warn verb 1 David warned her that it was too late: notify, alert, apprise, inform, tell, make someone aware, forewarn, remind; informal tip off, put wise. 2 police are warning galleries to be alert: advise, exhort, urge, counsel, caution.

warning noun 1 the earthquake came without warning: (advance) notice, forewarning, alert; hint, signal, sign, alarm bells; informal a tip-off. 2 a health warning: caution, notification, information; exhortation, injunction; advice. 3 a warning of things to come: omen, premonition, foreboding, prophecy, prediction, forecast, token, portent, signal, sign; literary foretold. 4 his sentence is a warning to other drunk drivers: example, deterrent, lesson, caution, exemplar, message, moral. 5 a written warning: admonition, caution, remonstrance, reprimand, censure; informal dressing-down, talking-to, telling-off.

warp verb 1 timber which is too dry will warp: buckle, twist, bend, distort, deform, misshape, malform, curve, bow, contort. 2 he warped the mind of her child: corrupt, twist, pervert, deprave.

– OPPOSITES straighten.

warrant noun 1 a warrant for his arrest: authorization, order, licence, permit, document; writ, summons, subpoena; mandate, decree, fiat, edict. 2 a travel warrant: voucher, chit, slip, ticket, coupon, pass. 3 there's no warrant for this assumption: justification, grounds, cause, rationale, basis, authority, licence, sanction, vindication.

• verb 1 the charges warranted a severe sentence: justify, vindicate, call for, sanction, validate; permit, authorize; deserve, excuse, account for, legitimize; support, license, approve of; merit, qualify for, rate, be worthy of, be deserving of. 2 we warrant that the texts do not infringe copyright: guarantee, affirm, swear, promise, vow, pledge, undertake, state, assert, declare, profess, attest; vouch, testify, bear witness; formal aver.

warranty noun guarantee, assurance, promise, commitment, undertaking, agreement.

warring adjective opposing, conflicting, at war, fighting, battling, quarrelling; competing, hostile, rival.

warrior noun fighter, soldier, serviceman, combatant.

wary adjective 1 he was trained to be wary: cautious, careful, circumspect, on one's guard, chary, alert, on the lookout, on one's toes, on the qui vive; attentive, heedful, watchful, vigilant, observant; informal wide awake. 2 we are wary of strangers: suspicious, chary, leery, careful, distrustful, mistrustful, sceptical, doubtful, dubious.

– OPPOSITES inattentive, trustful.

wash verb 1 he washed in the bath: clean oneself, have a wash; bathe, bath, shower, soak, freshen up; formal perform one's ablutions; dated make one's toilet. 2 she washed her hands: clean, cleanse, sponge, scrub, wipe, scour; shampoo, lather; sluice, swill, douse, swab, disinfect. 3 she washed off the blood: remove, expunge, eradicate; sponge off, scrub off, wipe off, rinse off. 4 the women were washing clothes: launder, clean, rinse; literary lave. 5 waves washed against the hull: splash, lap, splosh, dash, break, beat, surge, ripple, roll. 6 the wreckage was washed up downriver: sweep, carry, convey, transport; deposit. 7 guilt washed over her: affect, rush through, surge through, course through, flood over, flow over. 8 the stonework was washed with pastel paint: paint, colour, tint, shade, dye, stain; coat, cover. 9 (informal) this story just won't wash: be accepted, be acceptable, be plausible, be convincing, hold up, hold water, stand up, bear scrutiny.

– OPPOSITES dirty, soil.

• noun 1 she needs a wash: clean, shower, dip, bath, soak; formal ablutions. 2 that shirt should go in the wash: laundry, washing. 3 antiseptic skin wash: lotion, salve, preparation, rinse, liquid; liniment, embrocation. 4 the wash of a motor boat: backwash, wake, trail, path. 5 the wash of the waves on the beach: surge, flow, swell, sweep, rise and fall, roll, splash. 6 water thinned out the crayon into a wash: paint, stain, film.

■ wash one's hands of disown, renounce, reject, forswear, disavow, give up on, turn one's back on, cast aside, abandon; formal abjure.

washed out adjective 1 a washed-out denim jacket: faded, bleached, decolorized, stonewashed; pale, light, drab, muted. 2 he looked washed out after his exams: exhausted, tired, worn out, weary, fatigued, spent, drained, enervated, run down; informal all in, done in, dog-tired, bushed, beat, zonked; Brit. informal knackered; N. Amer. informal pooped, tucked out.

– OPPOSITES bold, energetic.

washout noun (informal). See FAILURE senses 2, 3.

waspish adjective irritable, touchy, testy, cross, snappish, cantankerous, splenetic, short-tempered, bad-tempered, moody, crotchety, crabby, ratty; informal grouchy.

waste verb 1 he doesn't like to waste money: squander, mispend, misuse, fritter away, throw away, lavish, dissipate, throw around; informal blow, splurge. 2 kids are wasting away in the streets: grow weak, grow thin, shrink, decline, wilt, fade, flag, deteriorate, degenerate, languish. 3 the disease wasted his legs: emaciate, atrophy, wither, debilitate, shrivel, shrink, weaken, enfeeble. 4 (literary) our country was wasted by the enemy. See DEVASTATE sense 1. 5 (N. Amer. informal) I saw them waste the guy. See MURDER verb sense 1.

– OPPOSITES conserve, thrive.

• adjective 1 waste material: unwanted, excess, superfluous, left over, scrap, useless, worthless; unusable, unprofitable. 2 waste ground: uncultivated, barren, desert, arid, bare; desolate, void, uninhabited, unpopulated; wild.

• noun 1 a waste of money: misuse, misapplication, misemployment, abuse; extravagance, wastefulness, lavishness.

2 household waste: rubbish, refuse, litter, debris, dross, junk, detritus, scrap; dregs, scraps; sewage, effluent; N. Amer. garbage, trash. 3 the frozen wastes of the South Pole: desert, wasteland, wilderness, emptiness, wilds.

■ lay waste. See LAY¹.

wasted adjective 1 a wasted effort: squandered, misspent, misdirected, misused, dissipated; pointless, useless, needless, unnecessary. 2 a wasted opportunity: missed, lost, forfeited, neglected, squandered, bungled; informal down the drain. 3 I'm wasted in this job: underemployed, underused, too good for; neglected, forgotten, disregarded. 4 his wasted legs: emaciated, atrophied, withered, shrivelled, weak, frail, shrunken, skeletal, rickety, scrawny, wizened. 5 (informal) everybody at the party was wasted. See DRUNK adjective.

wasteful adjective prodigal, profligate, uneconomical, extravagant, lavish, excessive, imprudent, improvident; thriftless, spendthrift; needless, useless.

– OPPOSITES frugal.

wasteland noun wilderness, desert; wilds, wastes, badlands.

waster noun (informal) idler, loafer, good-for-nothing, ne'er-do-well, slob, lounge, shirker, sluggard, laggard; informal loser, skiver, slacker, lazybones; N. Amer. informal bum; literary wastrel.

wastrel noun (literary). See WASTER.

watch verb 1 she watched him as he spoke: observe, view, look at, eye, gaze at, stare at, gape at, peer at; contemplate, survey, keep an eye on; inspect, scrutinize, scan, examine, study, ogle, regard, mark; informal check out, get a load of, recce; N. Amer. informal eyeball; literary behold. 2 he was being watched by the police: spy on, keep in sight, track, monitor, survey, follow, keep under surveillance; informal keep tabs on, stake out. 3 will you watch the kids? look after, mind, keep an eye on, take care of, supervise, tend, attend to; guard, safeguard, protect. 4 we stayed to watch the boat: guard, protect, shield, defend, safeguard; cover, patrol, police. 5 watch what you say: be careful, mind, be aware of, pay attention to, consider, pay heed to.

– OPPOSITES ignore, neglect.

• noun 1 Bill looked at his watch: timepiece, chronometer; wristwatch, pocket watch, stopwatch. 2 we kept watch on the yacht: guard, vigil, lookout, an eye; observation, surveillance, vigilance.

■ watch out be careful, be watchful, be on your guard, beware, be wary, be cautious, mind out, look out, pay attention, take heed, take care, keep an eye open/out, keep one's eyes peeled, be vigilant.

watchdog noun 1 they use watchdogs to ward off trespassers: guard dog. 2 a consumer watchdog: ombudsman, monitor, scrutineer, inspector, supervisor; custodian, guardian, protector.

watcher noun onlooker, spectator, observer, viewer, fly on the wall; witness, bystander; spy; informal rubberneck; literary beholder.

watchful adjective observant, alert, vigilant, attentive, awake, aware, heedful, sharp-eyed, eagle-eyed; on the lookout, on the qui vive, wary, cautious, careful, chary.

watchman noun security guard, custodian, warden; sentry, guard, patrolman, lookout, sentinel, scout, watch.

watchword noun guiding principle, motto, slogan, maxim, mantra, catchword, catchphrase, byword; informal buzzword.

water noun 1 a glass of water: technical H<sub>2</sub>O; dated Adam's ale. 2 a house down by the water: sea, ocean; lake, river.

• verb 1 water the plants: sprinkle, moisten, dampen, wet, spray, splash; soak, douse, souse, drench, saturate; hose (down). 2 my mouth watered: moisten, become wet, leak, salivate.

■ hold water be tenable, ring true, bear scrutiny, make sense, stand up, hold up, be convincing, be plausible, be sound.

■ water something down 1 staff had watered down the drinks: dilute, water, thin (out), weaken; adulterate, doctor, mix; informal cut. 2 the proposals were watered down: moderate, temper, mitigate, tone down, soften, tame; understate, play down, soft-pedal.

WORD LINKS

aquatic, aqueous relating to water aqueduct a structure for carrying water across a country reservoir a large lake used as a water supply dowsing, dowsing search for underground water with a divining rod irrigate supply water to land or crops hydropathy, hydrotherapy the treatment of illness through the use of water hydrophilic tending to mix with or dissolve in water hydrophobic tending to repel or fail to mix with water hydrophobia extreme fear of water, as a symptom of rabies dehydration the loss or removal of water waterfall noun cascade, cataract, falls, rapids; N. English force.

waterproof adjective a waterproof jacket: watertight, water-repellent, water-resistant, damp-proof; impermeable, impervious; rubberized, waxed.

• noun (Brit.) she put on a waterproof: raincoat, anorak, oilskin, cagoule; Brit. mackintosh; Brit. informal mac.

watertight adjective 1 a watertight plastic container: impermeable, impervious, (hermetically) sealed; waterproof, water-repellent, water-resistant, damp-proof. 2 a watertight alibi: indisputable, unquestionable, incontrovertible, irrefutable, unassailable, impregnable; foolproof, sound, flawless, airtight, conclusive.

– OPPOSITES leaky, flawed.

watery adjective 1 a watery discharge: liquid, fluid, aqueous; technical hydrous. 2 a watery meadow: wet, damp, moist, sodden, soggy, squelchy, soft; saturated, waterlogged; boggy, marshy, swampy, miry, muddy.

3 watery porridge: thin, runny, weak, sloppy, dilute, diluted; tasteless, flavourless, insipid, bland. 4 the light was watery and grey: pale, wan, faint, weak, feeble; informal wishy-washy. 5 watery eyes: tearful, moist, rheumy; informal teary, weepy; formal lachrymose.

– OPPOSITES dry, thick, bright.

wave verb 1 he waved his flag furiously: move up and down, move to and fro, wag, shake, swish, sweep, swing, brandish, flourish, wield; flick, flutter; informal waggle. 2 the grass waved in the breeze: ripple, flutter, undulate, stir, flap, sway, shake, quiver, move. 3 the waiter waved them closer: gesture, gesticulate, signal, beckon, motion.

• noun 1 she gave him a friendly wave: gesture, gesticulation; signal, sign, motion.

2 he surfs the big waves: breaker, roller, comb, boomer, ripple, white horse; (waves) swell, surf, froth; Austral. bombora; old use billow. 3 a wave of immigrants:

flow, rush, surge, flood, stream, tide, deluge, spate. 4 a wave of self-pity: surge, rush, stab, dart, upsurge; thrill, frisson; feeling. 5 his hair grew in thick waves:

curl, kink, corkscrew, twist, ringlet, coil. 6 electromagnetic waves: vibration, oscillation, ripple.

■ make waves (informal) cause trouble, be disruptive, be troublesome; make an impression, get noticed.

■ wave something aside dismiss, reject, brush aside, shrug off, disregard, ignore, discount, play down; informal pooh-pooh.

■ wave someone/something down flag down, hail, stop, summon, call, accost.

waver verb 1 the candlelight wavered in the draught: flicker, quiver, twinkle, glimmer, wink, blink. 2 his voice wavered: falter, wobble, tremble, quaver. 3 he wavered between the choices: be undecided, be irresolute, hesitate, dither, equivocate, vacillate, fluctuate; think twice, change one's mind, blow hot and cold; Brit. haver, hum and haw; informal shilly-shally, sit on the fence.

wavy adjective curly, curvy, curved, undulating, squiggly, rippled, crinkly, kinked, zigzag.

wax verb 1 the moon is waxing: get bigger, increase, enlarge. 2 (literary) price sensitivity is waxing: increase, grow, develop, rise, expand, escalate, intensify, spread, mushroom, snowball.

– OPPOSITES wane.

■ wax lyrical be enthusiastic, enthuse, rave, gush, get carried away.

waxen adjective pallid, pale, pasty, wan, ashen, colourless, anaemic, bloodless, washed out, white, grey, whitish, waxy, drained, sickly.

– OPPOSITES ruddy.

waxy adjective. See WAXEN.

way noun 1 a way of reducing the damage: method, process, procedure, technique, system; plan, strategy, scheme; means, mechanism, approach. 2 she kissed him in her brisk way: manner, style, fashion, mode; modus operandi, MO. 3 I've changed my ways: practice, habit, custom, policy, procedure, convention, routine, modus vivendi; trait, attribute, peculiarity, idiosyncrasy; conduct, behaviour, manner, style, nature, personality, temperament, disposition, character; formal wont. 4 which way leads home? route, course, direction; road, street, track, path. 5 I'll go out the back way: door, gate, exit, entrance, entry; route. 6 a short way downstream: distance, length, stretch, journey; space, interval, span. 7 April is a long way away: time, stretch, term, span, duration. 8 a car coming the other way: direction, bearing, course, orientation, line, tack. 9 (informal) what do they call it down your way? area, region, district, neighbourhood, locality, locale; informal neck of the woods, parts; Brit. informal manor; N. Amer. informal hood, nabe. 10 in some ways, he may be better off: respect, regard, aspect, facet, sense; detail, point, particular. 11 the country is in a bad way: state, condition, situation, circumstances, position; predicament, plight; informal shape. ■ by the way incidentally, by the by, in passing, en passant.

■ give way 1 the government gave way and passed the bill: yield, back down, surrender, concede defeat, give in, submit, succumb; acquiesce, agree, assent; informal throw in the towel/sponge, cave in. 2 the door gave way: collapse, give, cave in, fall in, come apart, crumple. 3 grief gave way to guilt: be replaced by, be succeeded by, be followed by, be supplanted by.

■ on the way coming, imminent, forthcoming, approaching, impending, close, near, on us; proceeding, en route, in transit.

wayfarer noun (literary). See WANDERER.

waylay verb 1 we were waylaid and robbed: ambush, hold up, attack, assail, rob; informal mug, stick up. 2 several people waylaid her to chat: accost, detain, intercept, take aside, pounce on, importune; informal buttonhole.

way-out adjective (informal) unconventional, avant-garde, outlandish, eccentric, quirky, unusual, bizarre, strange, peculiar, odd, uncommon; informal far out, offbeat, oddball, off the wall; Brit. informal rum.

– OPPOSITES ordinary.

wayward adjective wilful, headstrong, stubborn, obstinate, obdurate, perverse, contrary, disobedient, insubordinate, undisciplined; rebellious, defiant, uncooperative, recalcitrant, unruly, wild, unmanageable, erratic; difficult, impossible; formal refractory.

– OPPOSITES docile.

weak adjective 1 they are too weak to move: frail, feeble, delicate, fragile; infirm, sick, sickly, debilitated, incapacitated, ailing, indisposed, decrepit; tired, fatigued, exhausted; informal weedy. 2 bats have weak eyes: inadequate, poor, feeble; defective, faulty, deficient, imperfect, substandard. 3 a weak excuse: unconvincing, untenable, tenuous, implausible, unsatisfactory, poor, inadequate, feeble, flimsy, lame, hollow; informal pathetic. 4 I was too weak to be a rebel: spineless, craven, cowardly, pusillanimous, timid; irresolute, indecisive, ineffectual, inept, effete, meek, tame, ineffective, impotent, soft, faint-hearted; informal yellow, weak-kneed, gutless, chicken. 5 a weak light: dim, pale, wan, faint, feeble, muted. 6 a weak voice: indistinct, muffled, muted, hushed, faint, low. 7 weak coffee: watery, diluted, dilute, watered down, thin, tasteless, flavourless, bland, insipid, wishy-washy. 8 a weak smile: unenthusiastic, feeble, half-hearted, lame.

– OPPOSITES strong, powerful, convincing, resolute, bright, loud.

weaken verb 1 the virus weakened him terribly: enfeeble, debilitate, incapacitate, sap, enervate, tire, exhaust, wear out; wither, cripple, disable. 2 she tried to weaken the shock for him: reduce, decrease, diminish, lessen, moderate, temper, dilute, blunt, mitigate, soften. 3 our morale weakened: decrease, dwindle, diminish, wane, ebb, subside, peter out, fizzle out, tail off, decline, falter. 4 the move weakened her authority: impair, undermine, compromise; invalidate, negate, discredit.

weakling noun milksop, namby-pamby, coward, pushover; informal wimp, weed, sissy, drip, softie, doormat, chicken, yellow-belly, scaredy-cat; N. Amer. informal wuss, pussy.

weakness noun 1 with old age came weakness: frailty, feebleness, enfeeblement, fragility, delicacy; infirmity, sickness, sickliness, debility, incapacity, indisposition, decrepitude; informal weediness. 2 he has worked on his weaknesses: fault, flaw, defect, deficiency, weak point, failing, shortcoming, imperfection, Achilles' heel. 3 a weakness for champagne: fondness, liking, partiality, preference, love, penchant, soft spot, predilection, inclination, taste, eye; enthusiasm, appetite. 4 the President was accused of weakness: timidity, cravenness, cowardliness, pusillanimity; indecision, irresolution, ineffectuality, ineptitude, meekness, powerlessness, ineffectiveness, impotence. 5 the weakness of this argument: untenability, implausibility, poverty, inadequacy, transparency; flimsiness, hollowness. 6 the weakness of the sound: indistinctness, mutedness, faintness, feebleness, lowness; dimness, paleness.

weak-willed adjective spineless, weak, irresolute, indecisive; impressionable, persuadable, persuasible, submissive, unassertive, compliant, pusillanimous; informal wimpish, chicken.

weal noun welt, wound, lesion, swelling; scar, cicatrix, mark, blemish.

wealth noun 1 a gentleman of wealth:

affluence, prosperity, riches, means, substance, fortune; money, cash, lucre, capital, treasure, finance; assets, possessions, resources, funds; property, stock, reserves, securities, holdings; informal wherewithal, dough, bread. 2 a wealth of information: abundance, profusion, plethora, mine, store, treasury, bounty, cornucopia; informal lot, load, heap, mass, mountain, stack, ton; Brit. informal shedload; formal plenitude.

– OPPOSITES poverty, dearth.

WORD LINKS

Mammon wealth seen as an evil or corrupting influence

El Dorado a legendary place of great wealth plutocrat a person who is powerful because of their wealth parvenu a person who has recently become wealthy.

See also MONEY.

wealthy adjective rich, affluent, moneyed, well off, well-to-do, prosperous, comfortable, propertied; of substance; informal well heeled, rolling in it, in the money, made of money, filthy rich, stinking rich, loaded, flush, quids in.

– OPPOSITES poor.

wear verb 1 he wore a suit: dress in, be clothed in, have on, sport; put on, don. 2 Barbara wore a smile: bear, have (on one's face), show, display, exhibit; give, put on, assume. 3 the bricks have been worn down: erode, abrade, rub away, grind away, wash away, crumble (away), wear down; corrode, eat away (at), dissolve. 4 the tyres are wearing well: last, endure, hold up, bear up, prove durable. 5 (Brit. informal) I've asked him twice, but he won't wear it: allow, permit, authorize, sanction, condone, indulge, agree to, approve of; put up with, take, stand, support; accept, stomach, swallow, tolerate, countenance; informal hack, abide; Brit. informal stick; formal brook; old use suffer.

• noun 1 you won't get much wear out of that: use, wearing, service, utility, value; informal mileage. 2 evening wear: clothes, clothing, garments, dress, attire, garb, wardrobe; informal get-up, gear, togs; Brit. informal kit, clobber; formal apparel; literary array. 3 the varnish which will withstand wear: damage, friction, erosion, attrition, abrasion.

■ wear something down he wore down her resistance: gradually overcome, slowly reduce, erode, wear away, exhaust, undermine.

■ wear off the novelty soon wore off: fade, diminish, lessen, dwindle, decrease, wane, ebb, peter out, fizzle out, pall, disappear, vanish, run out.

■ wear on the afternoon wore on: pass, elapse, proceed, advance, progress, go by, roll by, march on, slip by/away, fly by/past.

■ wear out deteriorate, become worn, wear thin, fray, become threadbare, wear through.

■ wear something out use up, consume, go through.

■ wear someone out fatigue, tire out, weary, exhaust, drain, sap, overtax, enervate, debilitate, jade, prostrate; informal whack, poop, shatter, frazzle, do in; Brit. informal knacker.

wearing adjective tiring, exhausting, wearying, fatiguing, enervating, draining, sapping; demanding, exacting, taxing, arduous, gruelling, punishing, difficult, hard, tough, laborious, strenuous, rigorous.

wearisome adjective. See WEARING.

weary adjective 1 he was weary after cycling: tired, worn out, exhausted, fatigued, sapped, dog-tired, spent, drained, prostrate, enervated; informal all in, done in, dead beat, ready to drop, bushed, worn to a frazzle, shattered; Brit. informal knackered, whacked; N. Amer. informal pooped, tuckered out. 2 she was weary of the arguments: tired of, bored by, sick of; informal fed up with. 3 a weary journey: tiring, exhausting, wearying, fatiguing, enervating, draining, sapping, wearing, trying, demanding, taxing, arduous, gruelling, difficult, hard, tough.

– OPPOSITES fresh, keen, refreshing.

• verb 1 she was wearied by her illness: tire, fatigue, wear out, overtire, exhaust, drain, sap, enervate, debilitate, enfeeble, prostrate; informal whack, bush, shatter, frazzle, poop, do in; Brit. informal knacker. 2 don't risk wearying the reader: bore, tire; irk, irritate, exasperate. 3 he wearied of the struggle: tire of, become bored by, sicken of; have had enough of; informal become fed up with.

– OPPOSITES refresh, interest.

wearying adjective. See WEARING.

weather noun what's the weather like?

forecast, outlook; meteorological conditions, climate, atmospheric pressure, temperature; elements.

• verb we weathered the recession: survive, come through, ride out, pull through; withstand, endure, rise above, surmount, overcome, resist; informal stick out.

weathered adjective weather-beaten, worn; tanned, bronzed; lined, creased, wrinkled, gnarled.

weave<sup>1</sup> verb 1 flowers were woven into their hair: entwine, lace, twist, knit, intertwine, braid, plait. 2 he weaves colourful plots: invent, make up, fabricate, construct, create, contrive, spin; tell, recount, relate.

weave<sup>2</sup> verb he had to weave his way through the crowds: thread, wind, wend; dodge, zigzag.

web noun 1 a spider's web: mesh, net, lattice, latticework, lacework, webbing; gauze, gossamer. 2 a web of friendships: network, nexus, complex, set, chain.

wed verb 1 they are old enough to wed: marry, get married, become husband and wife; informal tie the knot, walk down the aisle, get spliced, get hitched. 2 he will wed his girlfriend: marry, take as one's wife/ husband, lead to the altar; informal make an honest woman of; old use espouse. 3 she wedded the two forms of spirituality: unite, unify, join, combine, amalgamate, fuse, integrate, bond, merge.

– OPPOSITES divorce, separate.

wedded adjective 1 wedded bliss: married, matrimonial, marital, conjugal, nuptial; Law spousal; literary connubial. 2 he is wedded to his work: dedicated to, devoted to, attached to, fixated on, single-minded about.

wedding noun marriage (service/rites), nuptials, union; old use espousal.

WORD LINKS

nuptial relating to a wedding wedge noun 1 the door was secured by a wedge: tapered block, chock, stop. 2 a wedge of cheese: triangle, segment, slice, section; chunk, lump, slab, hunk, block, piece.

• verb she wedged her case between two bags: squeeze, cram, jam, ram, force, push, shove; informal stuff, bung.

wedlock noun marriage, (holy) matrimony, married state, union.

wee adjective (Scottish) little, small, tiny, minute, miniature, mini, compact, undersized, diminutive, dwarf, midget, infinitesimal, microscopic, nanoscopic, minuscule; informal teeny, teeny-weeny, itty-bitsy, half-pint, dinky; Brit. informal titchy, diddy; N. Amer. informal little-bitty.

– OPPOSITES big.

weed verb

■ weed something/someone out isolate, separate out, sort out, sift out, winnow out, filter out, set apart, segregate; eliminate, get rid of, remove; informal lose.

weedy adjective (informal) puny, feeble, weak, frail, undersized, slight, skinny; informal pint-sized.

weekly adjective weekly instalments: once a week; lasting a week; formal hebdomadal.

• adverb the directors meet weekly: once a week, every week, each week, on a weekly basis; by the week, per week, a week.

weep verb even the toughest soldiers wept:

cry, shed tears, sob, snivel, whimper, whine, wail, bawl, keen; Scottish greet; informal boohoo, blub, blubber; Brit. informal grizzle.

• noun you sit and have a weep: cry, sob, snivel, whimper, bawl; informal blub, blubber; Brit. informal grizzle.

weepy adjective (informal) tearful, close to tears, upset, distressed, sad, unhappy; in tears, crying, weeping, snivelling; informal teary; formal lachrymose.

weigh verb 1 she weighs the vegetables: measure the weight of, put on the scales. 2 he weighed 118 kg: have a weight of, tip the scales at. 3 the situation weighed heavily on him. See WEIGH SOMEONE DOWN sense 2. 4 he has to weigh up the possibilities: consider, contemplate, think about, mull over, chew over, reflect on, ruminate about, muse on; assess, appraise, analyse, investigate, inquire into, look into, examine, review, explore, take stock of. 5 they need to weigh benefit against risk: balance, evaluate, compare, juxtapose, contrast.

■ weigh someone down 1 my fishing gear weighed me down: burden, saddle, overload, overburden, encumber, hamper, handicap.

2 the silence weighed me down: oppress, depress, lie heavy on, burden, cast down, hang over, gnaw at, prey on (one's mind); trouble, worry, bother, disturb, upset, haunt, nag, torment, afflict, plague.

weight noun 1 the weight of the book:

heaviness, mass, load, burden, pressure, force; poundage, tonnage. 2 his recommendation will carry great weight:

influence, force, leverage, sway, pull, importance, significance, consequence, value, substance, power, authority; informal clout. 3 a weight off her mind: burden, load, millstone, albatross, encumbrance; trouble, worry, strain. 4 the weight of the evidence is against him: preponderance, majority, bulk, body, lion's share, predominance; most, almost all.

WORD LINKS

gravimetric relating to the measurement of weight weighty adjective 1 a weighty tome: heavy, thick, bulky, hefty, cumbersome, ponderous.

2 a weighty subject: important, significant, momentous, consequential, far-reaching, key, major, vital, critical, crucial; serious, grave, solemn. 3 a weighty responsibility: burdensome, onerous, heavy, oppressive, taxing, troublesome. 4 weighty arguments: compelling, cogent, strong, forceful, powerful, potent, effective, sound, valid, telling; impressive, persuasive, convincing, influential, authoritative.

– OPPOSITES light, trivial, weak.

weird adjective 1 weird apparitions: uncanny, eerie, unnatural, supernatural, unearthly, other-worldly, ghostly, mysterious, strange, abnormal, unusual; Scottish eldritch; informal creepy, spooky, freaky. 2 (informal) a weird sense of humour: bizarre, quirky, outlandish, eccentric, unconventional, unorthodox, idiosyncratic, surreal, crazy, peculiar, odd, strange, queer, freakish, zany, madcap, outré; informal wacky, freaky, way-out, offbeat, off the wall; Brit. informal rum; N. Amer. informal wacko.

– OPPOSITES normal, conventional.

weirdo noun (informal). See ECCENTRIC noun.

welcome noun a welcome from the vicar: greeting, salutation; reception, hospitality; the red carpet.

• verb 1 welcome your guests in their own language: greet, salute, receive, meet, usher in. 2 we welcomed their decision: be pleased by, be glad about, approve of, appreciate, embrace; informal give the thumbs up to.

• adjective welcome news: pleasing, agreeable, encouraging, gratifying, heartening, promising, favourable, pleasant; gladly received, wanted, appreciated, popular, desirable.

weld verb fuse, bond, stick, join, attach, seal, splice, melt, solder.

welfare noun 1 the welfare of children:

well-being, health, comfort, security, safety, protection, prosperity, success, fortune; interest, good. 2 we cannot claim welfare: social security, (state) benefit, public assistance; pension, credit, support; sick pay, unemployment benefit; Brit. informal the dole.

well<sup>1</sup> adverb 1 please behave well:

satisfactorily, nicely, correctly, properly, fittingly, suitably, appropriately. 2 they get on well together: harmoniously, agreeably, pleasantly, nicely, happily, amicably, amiably, peaceably; informal famously. 3 he plays the piano well: skilfully, ably, competently, proficiently, adeptly, deftly, expertly, admirably, excellently. 4 treat your employees well: decently, fairly, kindly, generously, honestly. 5 mix the ingredients well: thoroughly, completely; effectively, rigorously, carefully. 6 I know her quite well: intimately, thoroughly, deeply, profoundly, personally. 7 they studied the car market well: carefully, closely, attentively, rigorously, in depth, exhaustively, in detail, meticulously, scrupulously, conscientiously, methodically, completely, comprehensively, fully, extensively. 8 they speak well of him: admiringly, highly, approvingly, favourably, appreciatively, warmly, enthusiastically, glowingly. 9 she makes enough money to live well: comfortably, in (the lap of) luxury, prosperously. 10 you may well be right: quite possibly, conceivably, probably; undoubtedly, certainly, unquestionably. 11 he is well over forty: considerably, very much, a great deal, substantially, easily, comfortably, significantly. 12 she could well afford it: easily, comfortably, readily, effortlessly.

– OPPOSITES badly.

• adjective 1 she was completely well again: healthy, fine, fit, robust, strong, vigorous, blooming, thriving, hale and hearty, in good shape, in good condition, in good trim, in fine fettle; informal in the pink. 2 all is not well: satisfactory, all right, fine, in order, as it should be, acceptable; informal OK, hunky-dory; N. Amer. & Austral./NZ informal jake; Brit. informal, dated tickety-boo. 3 it would be well to tell us in advance: advisable, sensible, prudent, politic, commonsensical, wise, judicious, expedient, recommended, advantageous, beneficial, profitable, desirable; a good idea.

– OPPOSITES unwell, unsatisfactory, inadvisable.

■ as well too, also, in addition, additionally, into the bargain, besides, furthermore, moreover, to boot.

■ as well as together with, along with, besides, plus, and, with, on top of, not to mention, to say nothing of, let alone.

well<sup>2</sup> noun 1 she drew water from the well:

borehole, bore, spring, waterhole. 2 he's a bottomless well of forgiveness: source, supply, fount, reservoir, mine, fund, treasury.

• verb tears welled from her eyes: flow, spill, stream, run, rush, gush, roll, cascade, flood, spout; seep, trickle; burst, issue.

well advised adjective wise, prudent, sensible.

well balanced adjective. See BALANCED senses 1, 2, 3.

well behaved adjective orderly, obedient, disciplined, peaceable, docile, controlled, restrained, cooperative, compliant; mannerly, polite, civil, courteous, respectful, proper, decorous, refined, polished.

– OPPOSITES naughty.

well-being noun. See WELFARE sense 1.

well bred adjective well brought up, polite, civil, mannerly, courteous, respectful; ladylike, gentlemanly, genteel, cultivated, urbane, proper, refined, polished, well behaved.

well built adjective sturdy, strapping, brawny, burly, hefty, muscular, muscly, strong, rugged, lusty, Herculean; informal hunky, beefy, husky, hulking.

– OPPOSITES puny.

well dressed adjective smart, fashionable, stylish, chic, modish, elegant, neat, spruce, trim, dapper; N. Amer. trig; informal snazzy, natty, snappy, sharp; N. Amer. informal spiffy, fly.

– OPPOSITES scruffy.

well founded adjective justifiable, justified, warranted, legitimate, defensible, valid, admissible, allowable, understandable, excusable, acceptable, reasonable, sensible, sound.

– OPPOSITES groundless.

well heeled adjective (informal). See WEALTHY.

well known adjective 1 well-known principles: familiar, widely known, popular, common, everyday, established. 2 a well-known family of architects: famous, famed, prominent, notable, renowned, distinguished, eminent, illustrious, celebrated, acclaimed, important.

– OPPOSITES obscure.

well mannered adjective polite, courteous, civil, mannerly, genteel, decorous, respectful, refined, polished, civilized, urbane, well bred.

well-nigh adverb almost, nearly, just about, more or less, practically, virtually, all but, as good as, nearing, approaching, nigh on; roughly, approximately; informal pretty much.

well off adjective 1 her family's very well off. See WELL-TO-DO. 2 the prisoners were relatively well off: fortunate, lucky, comfortable; informal sitting pretty. 3 the island is not well off for harbours: well supplied with, well stocked with, well furnished with, well equipped with.

well read adjective knowledgeable, well informed, well versed, erudite, scholarly, literate, educated, cultured, bookish, studious; dated lettered.

– OPPOSITES ignorant.

well spoken adjective articulate, nicely spoken; refined, polite; Brit. informal posh.

well-to-do adjective wealthy, rich, affluent, moneyed, well off, prosperous, comfortable, propertied; informal rolling in it, in the money, loaded, well heeled, flush, made of money, quids in, worth a packet, on easy street.

welter noun confusion, jumble, tangle, mess, hotchpotch, mishmash, mass.

wend verb meander, make one's way, wander, amble, stroll, saunter, drift, roam, swan, traipse, walk; journey, travel; informal mosey, tootle.

west adjective western, westerly, occidental.

wet adjective 1 wet clothes: damp, moist, soaked, drenched, saturated, sopping, dripping, soggy; waterlogged, squelchy. 2 it was cold and wet: rainy, raining, pouring, teeming, showery, drizzly, drizzling; damp. 3 the paint is still wet: sticky, tacky; fresh. 4 a wet mortar mix: aqueous, watery, sloppy. 5 (Brit. informal) the cadets were a bit wet: feeble, silly, weak, foolish, inept, ineffectual, effete, soft, namby-pamby, timid, spiritless, cowardly, spineless; informal sissy, pathetic, drippy, wimpish, weedy, chicken; Brit. informal soppy.

– OPPOSITES dry, fine, brave.

• verb wet the clothes before ironing them: dampen, damp, moisten; sprinkle, spray, splash; soak, saturate, flood, douse, souse, drench.

– OPPOSITES dry.

• noun 1 the wet of his tears: wetness, damp, moisture, moistness, soggy; wateriness. 2 the race was held in the wet: rain, drizzle, precipitation; spray, dew, damp. 3 (Brit. informal) come on, don't be such a wet: namby-pamby, weakling, milksop, Milquetoast, baby, coward; informal wimp, weed, drip, sissy, softie, chicken, scaredy-cat; Brit. informal big girl's blouse; N. Amer. informal pantywaist, pussy.

whack (informal) verb she whacked him on the head. See STRIKE verb sense 1.

• noun 1 he got a whack with a stick. See BLOW sense 1. 2 (Brit.) everyone will get their whack. See SHARE noun.

wharf noun quay, pier, dock, berth, landing, jetty; harbour, dockyard, marina.

whoodle verb coax, cajole, inveigle, induce, entice, charm, tempt, beguile, flatter, persuade, influence, win someone over, bring someone round, convince, prevail on, get round; informal sweet-talk, soft-soap.

wheel noun a wagon wheel: disc, hoop, ring, circle.

• verb 1 she wheeled the trolley away: push, trundle, roll. 2 the flock of doves wheeled round: turn, go round, circle, orbit.

W

whoeeze verb the illness left her wheezing; breathe noisily, gasp, whistle, hiss, rasp, croak, pant, cough.

• noun 1 she still had a slight wheeze: rasp, croak, whistle, hiss, pant, cough. 2 (Brit. informal) I've thought of a brilliant wheeze. See RUSE.

whereabouts noun location, position, site, place, situation, spot, point, vicinity; home, address, locale, neighbourhood; bearings, orientation.

wherewithal noun money, cash, capital, finance(s), funds; resources, means, ability, capability; informal dough, bread, loot, the necessary, boodle, dibs, ducats; Brit. informal dosh, brass, lolly, readies; N. Amer. informal bucks; US informal greenbacks.

whet verb 1 he whetted his knife on a stone: sharpen, hone, strop, grind, file. 2 something to whet your appetite: stimulate, excite, arouse, rouse, kindle, trigger, spark, quicken, stir, inspire, animate, fuel, fire, activate, tempt, galvanize.

– OPPOSITES blunt.

whiff noun 1 I caught a whiff of perfume: faint smell, trace, sniff, scent, odour, aroma. 2 (Brit. informal) there's a terrible whiff in here: stench, stink, smell, reek; Brit. informal pong, niff, hum; Scottish informal guff; N. Amer. informal funk. 3 the faintest whiff of irony: trace, hint, suggestion, impression, suspicion, soupçon, nuance, intimation, tinge, vein, shred, whisper, air, element, overtone.

4 whiffs of smoke from the boiler: puff, gust, flurry, breath, draught, waft.

while noun we chatted for a while: time, spell, stretch, stint, span, interval, period; duration, phase; Brit. informal patch.

• verb tennis helped to while away the time: pass, spend, occupy, use up, kill.

whim noun 1 she bought it on a whim: impulse, urge, notion, fancy, foible, caprice, conceit, vagary, crotchet, inclination.

2 human whim: capriciousness, whimsy, caprice, volatality, fickleness, idiosyncrasy.

whimper verb he was whimpering in pain: whine, cry, sob, moan, snivel, wail, groan; Brit. informal grizzle.

• noun she gave a whimper of protest: whine, cry, sob, moan, bleat, wail, groan.

whimsical adjective 1 a whimsical sense of humour: fanciful, playful, mischievous, waggish, quaint, curious, droll; eccentric, quirky, idiosyncratic, unconventional, outlandish, queer; informal offbeat, freaky. 2 the whimsical arbitrariness of autocracy: volatile, capricious, fickle, changeable, unpredictable, variable, erratic, mercurial, mutable, inconstant, inconsistent, unstable, protean.

whine noun 1 the dog gave a whine: whimper, cry, mewl, howl, yowl. 2 the whine of the motor: hum, drone. 3 a whine about the quality of service: complaint, grouse, grumble, murmur; informal gripe, moan, grouch, whinge, bellyache, beef.

• verb 1 a child was whining: wail, whimper, cry, mewl, moan, howl, yowl. 2 the lift began to whine: hum, drone. 3 he's always whining about something: complain, grouse, grouch, grumble, moan, carp, mutter, murmur; informal gripe, bellyache, whinge.

whinge (informal) verb I whinged about the weather. See WHINE verb sense 3.

• noun his tale is one long whinge. See WHINE noun sense 3.

whip noun he would use a whip on his dogs:

lash, scourge, strap, belt; historical cat-o'-nine-tails.

• verb 1 he whipped the boy: flog, scourge, flagellate, lash, strap, belt, thrash, beat, tan someone's hide. 2 whip the cream: whisk, beat. 3 he whipped his listeners into a frenzy: rouse, stir up, excite, galvanize, electrify, stimulate, inspire, fire up, get someone going, inflame, agitate, goad, provoke. 4 (informal) he whipped round the corner. See DASH verb sense 1. 5 (informal) then he whipped out a revolver: pull, whisk, snatch, pluck, jerk; informal yank; Scottish informal wheech. 6 (Brit. informal) he whipped the necklace. See STEAL verb sense 1.

whippersnapper noun (informal) upstart, stripling; informal pipsqueak, squirt; Brit. informal squirt; N. Amer. informal snip.

whirl verb 1 leaves whirled in eddies of wind: rotate, circle, wheel, turn, revolve, orbit, spin, twirl; Scottish birl. 2 they whirled past: hurry, race, dash, rush, run, sprint, bolt, dart, gallop, career, charge, shoot, hurtle, hare, fly, speed, scurry; informal tear, belt, pelt, scoot; Brit. informal bomb; N. Amer. informal hightail it. 3 his mind was whirling: spin, reel, swim.

• noun 1 a whirl of dust: swirl, flurry, eddy. 2 the mad social whirl: hurly-burly, activity, bustle, rush, flurry, fuss, turmoil, merry-go-round; informal to-do. 3 Laura's mind was in a whirl: spin, daze, stupor, muddle, jumble; confusion; informal dither. 4 (informal) go on, give it a whirl: try, test; informal go, shot, bash, stab.

whirlpool noun 1 a river full of whirlpools: eddy, vortex, maelstrom; N. Amer. informal suckhole. 2 the health club has a whirlpool: spa bath, hot tub; trademark jacuzzi.

whirlwind noun 1 the building was hit by a whirlwind: tornado, hurricane, typhoon, cyclone, vortex; Austral. willy-willy; N. Amer. informal twister. 2 a whirlwind of activity: maelstrom, welter, bedlam, mayhem, babel, swirl, tumult, hurly-burly, commotion, confusion; informal madhouse; N. Amer. three-ring circus.

• adjective a whirlwind romance: rapid, lightning, headlong, impulsive, breakneck, meteoric, sudden, swift, fast, quick, speedy; informal quickie.

whisk verb 1 the cable car will whisk you to the top: speed, hurry, rush, sweep, hurtle, shoot; Scottish informal wheech. 2 she whisked the cloth away: pull, snatch, pluck, tug, jerk; informal whip, yank; Scottish informal wheech. 3 he whisked out of sight: dash, rush, race, bolt, dart, gallop, career, charge, shoot, hurtle, hare, fly, speed, zoom, scurry, scuttle, scamper; informal tear, belt, pelt, scoot, zip, whip. 4 horses whisk their tails: flick, twitch, wave. 5 whisk the egg yolks: whip, beat, mix.

• noun 1 the horse gave a whisk of its tail: flick, twitch, wave, sweep. 2 blend the eggs with a whisk: beater, mixer, blender.

whisky noun the water of life; Irish & Scottish usquebaugh.

whisper verb 1 Alison whispered in his ear: murmur, mutter, mumble, speak softly, breathe. 2 (literary) the wind whispered in the grass: rustle, murmur, sigh, moan, whoosh, whirr, swish, blow, breathe.

– OPPOSITES roar.

• noun 1 she spoke in a whisper: murmur, mutter, mumble, low voice, undertone. 2 (literary) the wind died to a whisper: rustle, murmur, sigh, whoosh, swish. 3 I heard a whisper that he's left town: rumour, story, report, speculation, insinuation, suggestion, hint; informal buzz. 4 not a whisper of interest. See WHIT.

whit noun scrap, bit, speck, iota, jot, atom, crumb, shred, grain, mite, touch, trace, shadow, suggestion, whisper, suspicion, scintilla; informal smidgen, smidge.

white adjective 1 a clean white bandage: colourless, unpigmented, bleached, natural; snowy, milky, chalky, ivory. 2 her face was white with fear: pale, pallid, wan, ashen, bloodless, waxen, chalky, pasty, peaky, washed out, drained, drawn, ghostly, deathly. 3 white hair: snowy, grey, silver, silvery, hoary, grizzled. 4 a whiter than white government: virtuous, moral, ethical, good, righteous, honourable, reputable, wholesome, honest, upright, upstanding, irreproachable; decent, worthy, noble; blameless, spotless, impeccable, unsullied, unblemished, uncorrupted, untainted; informal squeaky clean.

– OPPOSITES black, flushed, immoral.

white-collar adjective clerical, professional, executive, salaried, office.

whiten verb make white, make pale, bleach, blanch, lighten, fade; Brit. Military blanco; old use white.

whitewash noun 1 the report was a whitewash: cover-up, camouflage, deception, facade, veneer, pretext. 2 a four-match whitewash: walkover, rout, landslide; informal pushover, cinch, breeze.

– OPPOSITES exposé.

• verb don't whitewash what happened:

cover up, sweep under the carpet, hush up, suppress, draw a veil over, conceal, veil, obscure, keep secret; gloss over, downplay, soft-pedal.

– OPPOSITES expose.

whittle verb 1 he sat whittling a piece of wood: pare, shave, trim, carve, shape, model. 2 his powers were whittled away: erode, wear away, eat away, reduce, diminish, undermine, weaken, subvert, compromise, impair, impede, hinder, cripple, disable, enfeeble, sap. 3 the ten teams have been whittled down to six: reduce, cut down, cut back, prune, trim, slim down, pare down, shrink, decrease, diminish.

whole adjective 1 the whole report: entire, complete, full, unabridged, uncut. 2 a whole marble mantelpiece: intact, in one piece, unbroken; undamaged, flawless, faultless, unmarked, perfect.

– OPPOSITES incomplete.

• noun 1 a single whole: entity, unit, body, discrete item, ensemble. 2 the whole of the year: all, every part, the lot, the sum (total).

■ on the whole overall, all in all, all things considered, for the most part, in the main, in general, generally (speaking), as a (general) rule, by and large; normally, usually, more often than not, almost always, most of the time, typically, ordinarily.

wholehearted adjective committed, positive, emphatic, devoted, dedicated, enthusiastic, unshakeable, unswerving; unqualified, unreserved, without reservations, unconditional, unequivocal, unmitigated; complete, full, total, absolute.
– OPPOSITES half-hearted.

wholesale adverb the images were removed wholesale: extensively, on a large scale, comprehensively; indiscriminately, without exception.

– OPPOSITES selectively.

• adjective wholesale destruction: extensive, widespread, large-scale, wide-ranging, comprehensive, total, mass; indiscriminate.
– OPPOSITES partial.

wholesome adjective 1 wholesome food: healthy, health-giving, healthful, good (for one), nutritious, nourishing; natural, uncontaminated, organic. 2 wholesome fun: moral, ethical, good, clean, virtuous, pure, innocent, chaste; uplifting, edifying, proper, correct, decent; informal squeaky clean.

wholly adverb 1 the measures were wholly inadequate: completely, totally, absolutely, entirely, fully, thoroughly, utterly, quite, perfectly, downright, in every respect, in all respects; informal one hundred per cent. 2 they rely wholly on you: exclusively, only, solely, purely, alone.

whoop noun whoops of delight: shout, cry, call, yell, roar, scream, shriek, screech, cheer; informal holler.

• verb he whooped for joy: shout, cry, call, yell, roar, scream, shriek, screech, cheer; informal holler.

whopper noun (informal) 1 what a whopper! monster, brute, giant, colossus, mammoth, monstrosity; informal jumbo. 2 Joseph's story is a whopper. See LIE noun.

whopping adjective (informal). See HUGE.

whorehouse noun. See BROTHEL.

whorl noun loop, coil, hoop, ring, curl, swirl, twist, spiral, helix.

wicked adjective 1 wicked deeds: evil, sinful, immoral, wrong, morally wrong, wrongful, bad, iniquitous, corrupt, black-hearted, base, mean, vile; villainous, nefarious, erring, foul, monstrous, shocking, outrageous, atrocious, abominable, reprehensible, hateful, detestable, despicable, odious, contemptible, horrible, heinous, egregious, execrable, fiendish, vicious, murderous, barbarous; criminal, illicit, unlawful, illegal, lawless, felonious, dishonest, unscrupulous; Law malfeasance; informal crooked; Brit. informal beastly; dated dastardly; rare peccable. 2 the wind was wicked: disagreeable, unpleasant, foul, bad, nasty, irksome, troublesome, annoying, irritating, displeasing, hateful, detestable. 3 a wicked sense of humour: mischievous, playful, naughty, impish, roguish, arch, puckish, cheeky. 4 (informal) she makes wicked cakes. See EXCELLENT.

– OPPOSITES virtuous.

wickedness noun evildoing, evil, sin, sinfulness, iniquity, vileness, baseness, badness, wrongdoing, dishonesty, unscrupulousness, roguery, villainy, viciousness, degeneracy, depravity, immorality, vice, corruption, corruptness, devilry, fiendishness; Law malfeasance; informal crookedness; formal turpitude.

wide adjective 1 a wide river: broad, extensive, spacious, vast, spread out. 2 their mouths were wide with shock: fully open, agape, wide open. 3 a wide range of opinion: comprehensive, ample, broad, extensive, large, large-scale, wide-ranging, exhaustive, general, all-inclusive. 4 his shot was wide: off target, off the mark, wide of the mark/target, inaccurate.

– OPPOSITES narrow.

• adverb 1 he opened his eyes wide: fully, to the fullest/furthest extent, as far/much as possible. 2 he shot wide: off target, wide of the mark/target, inaccurately.

wide awake adjective fully awake, conscious, sleepless, insomniac; old use watchful.

– OPPOSITES asleep.

wide-eyed adjective 1 the whole class was wide-eyed: staring in amazement, goggle-eyed, open-mouthed, dumbstruck, amazed, surprised, astonished, astounded, stunned, staggered; informal flabbergasted; Brit. informal gobsmacked. 2 wide-eyed visitors: innocent, naive, impressionable, ingenuous, childlike, unsophisticated, credulous, trusting, unquestioning, gullible.

widen verb 1 a proposal to widen the motorway: broaden, make/become wider, open up/out, expand, extend, enlarge. 2 the Party must widen its support: increase, augment, boost, swell, enlarge.

wide open adjective 1 his eyes were wide open: fully open, open wide, agape. 2 the championship is wide open: unpredictable, uncertain, unsure, in the balance, up in the air; informal anyone's guess. 3 they were wide open to attacks: vulnerable, exposed, unprotected, defenceless, undefended, at risk, in danger.

widespread adjective general, extensive, universal, common, global, worldwide, international, omnipresent, ubiquitous, across the board, predominant, prevalent, rife, broad, rampant, pervasive.

– OPPOSITES limited.

width noun 1 the width of the river: wideness, breadth, broadness, thickness, span, diameter, girth. 2 the width of experience required: range, breadth, compass, scope, span, scale, extent, extensiveness, comprehensiveness.

– OPPOSITES length, narrowness.

wield verb 1 he was wielding a sword:

brandish, flourish, wave, swing; use, employ, handle. 2 he has wielded power since 1972: exercise, exert, hold, maintain, command, control.

wife noun spouse, partner, mate, consort, woman, helpmate, helpmeet, bride; informal old lady, wifey, better half, missus; Brit. informal other half, her indoors, trouble and strife.

WORD LINKS

uxorial relating to a wife uxorious very fond of one's wife uxoricide the killing of one's wife wiggle verb jiggle, wriggle, twitch, shimmy, joggle, wag, wobble, shake, twist, squirm, writhe; informal waggle.

wild adjective 1 wild animals: untamed, undomesticated, feral; fierce, ferocious, savage. 2 wild flowers: uncultivated, native, indigenous. 3 wild tribes: primitive, uncivilized, uncultured; savage, barbarous, barbaric. 4 wild hill country: uninhabited, unpopulated, uncultivated; rugged, rough, inhospitable, desolate, barren. 5 a wild night: stormy, squally, tempestuous, turbulent, boisterous. 6 her wild black hair: dishevelled, tousled, tangled, windswept, untidy, unkempt; N. Amer. mussed up. 7 wild behaviour: uncontrolled, unrestrained, out of control, undisciplined, unruly, rowdy, disorderly, riotous. 8 wild with excitement: very excited, delirious, in a frenzy; tumultuous, passionate, vehement, unrestrained. 9 (informal) I was wild with jealousy: distraught, frantic, beside oneself, in a frenzy, hysterical, deranged, berserk; informal mad, crazy. 10 (informal) Hank went wild when he found out. See FURIOUS sense 1. 11 (informal) his family weren't wild about me: very keen, very enthusiastic, enamoured, infatuated, smitten; informal crazy, mad, nutty/nuts. 12 Bill's wild schemes: madcap, ridiculous, ludicrous, foolish, stupid, foolhardy, idiotic, absurd, silly, ill-considered, senseless, nonsensical; impractical, impracticable, unworkable; informal crazy, crackpot, cockeyed. 13 a wild guess: random, arbitrary, haphazard, uninformed.

– OPPOSITES tame, cultivated, calm, disciplined.

wilderness noun 1 the Siberian wilderness: wilds, wastes, inhospitable region; desert. 2 a litter-strewn wilderness: wasteland.

wildlife noun (wild) animals, fauna.

wilds plural noun remote areas, wilderness; backwoods; N. Amer. backcountry, backland; Austral./NZ outback, bush, backblocks, booy; N. Amer. informal boondocks, tall timbers.

wiles plural noun tricks, ruses, ploys, schemes, dodges, manoeuvres, subterfuges, artifices; guile, artfulness, cunning, craftiness.

wilful adjective 1 an act of wilful destruction: deliberate, intentional, done on purpose, premeditated, planned, conscious. 2 a wilful child: headstrong, strong-willed, obstinate, stubborn, pig-headed, recalcitrant, uncooperative, obstreperous, ungovernable, unmanageable; Brit. informal bloody-minded, bolshie; N. Amer. informal balky; formal refractory; old use froward, contumacious.

– OPPOSITES accidental, amenable.

will<sup>1</sup> verb accidents will happen: have a tendency to, are bound to, do.

will<sup>2</sup> noun 1 the will to succeed: determination, will power, strength of character, resolution, resolve, resoluteness, single-mindedness, purposefulness, drive, commitment, dedication, doggedness, tenacity, tenaciousness, staying power. 2 they stayed against their will: desire, wish, preference, inclination, intention, intent. 3 God's will: wish, desire, decision, choice; decree, command. 4 his father's will: (last will and) testament.

• verb 1 do what you will: want, wish, please, see/think fit, think best, like, choose, prefer. 2 God willed it: decree, order, ordain, command. 3 she willed the money to her husband: bequeath, leave, hand down, pass on, settle on; Law devise.

WORD LINKS

intestate not having made a will before dying testator a person who has made a will executor a person appointed to carry out the terms of a will probate the official process of proving that a will is valid codicil a supplement to a will bequest, legacy something left in a will willing adjective 1 I'm willing to give it a try: ready, prepared, game, disposed, inclined, of a mind, minded; happy, glad, pleased, agreeable, amenable. 2 willing help: readily given, willingly given, ungrudging.

– OPPOSITES reluctant.

willingly adverb voluntarily, of one's own free will, of one's own accord; readily, without reluctance, ungrudgingly, cheerfully, happily, gladly, with pleasure.

willingness noun readiness, inclination, will, wish, desire.

willowy adjective tall, slim, slender, svelte, lissom, sylphlike, long-limbed, graceful, lithe; informal slinky.

will power noun. See will<sup>2</sup> noun sense 1.

willy-nilly adverb 1 cars were parked willy-nilly: haphazardly, at random, randomly.

2 we are, willy-nilly, in a new situation: whether one likes it or not, of necessity; informal like it or lump it; formal perforce, nolens volens.

wilt verb 1 the roses had begun to wilt: droop, sag, become limp, flop; wither, shrivel (up).

2 wilting in the heat: languish, flag, droop, become listless. 3 Shelley's happy mood wilted: fade, ebb, wane, evaporate, melt away.

– OPPOSITES flourish.

wily adjective shrewd, clever, sharp, sharp-witted, astute, canny, smart; crafty, cunning, artful, sly, scheming, calculating, devious; informal tricky, foxy; old use subtle.

– OPPOSITES naïve.

wimp noun (informal) coward, namby-pamby, milksop, weakling; informal drip, sissy, weed, pansy, scaredy-cat, chicken; Brit. informal wet, mummy's boy, big girl's blouse; N. Amer. informal cupcake, pantywaist, wuss, pussy; Austral./NZ informal sook; old use poltroon.

win verb 1 Steve won the race: be the victor in, be the winner of, come first in, take first prize in, triumph in, be successful in. 2 she was determined to win: come first, be the winner, be victorious, carry/win the day, come out on top, succeed, triumph, prevail. 3 he won a cash prize: secure, gain, collect, pick up, walk away/off with, carry off; informal land, net, bag, scoop. 4 Ilona won his heart: captivate, steal.

– OPPOSITES lose.

• noun a 3–0 win: victory, triumph, conquest.

– OPPOSITES defeat.

■ win someone round/over persuade, talk round, convince, sway, prevail on.

wince verb he winced at the pain: grimace, pull a face, flinch, blench, start.

• noun a wince of pain: grimace, flinch, start.

wind<sup>1</sup> noun 1 the trees were swaying in the wind: breeze, current of air; gale, hurricane; informal blow; literary zephyr. 2 Jez got his wind back: breath; informal puff. 3 flatulence, gas; formal flatus.

■ get wind of (informal) hear about/of, learn of, find out about, be told about, be informed of; informal hear something on the grapevine.

■ in the wind on the way, coming, about to happen, in the offing, in the air, on the horizon, approaching, looming, brewing, afoot; informal on the cards.

WORD LINKS

anemometer an instrument for measuring wind speed

Beaufort scale a scale for wind speed

wind<sup>2</sup> verb 1 the road winds up the mountain: twist (and turn), bend, curve, loop, zigzag, weave, snake. 2 he wound a towel around his waist: wrap, furl, entwine, lace. 3 Anne wound the wool into a ball: coil, roll, twist, twine.

■ wind down 1 (informal) he needed to wind down: relax, unwind, calm down, cool down/off, ease up/off, take it easy, rest, put one's feet up; informal chill (out), cool out; N. Amer. informal hang loose. 2 the campaign was winding down: draw to a close, come to an end, tail off, slack(en) off, slow down.

■ wind something down bring to a close/end, wind up, close down.

■ wind up (informal) end up, finish up, find oneself, land up; informal fetch up.

■ wind someone up 1 (Brit. informal) Katie was just winding me up: tease, make fun of, chaff; informal take the mickey out of, send up, rib, josh, kid, have on, pull someone's leg; N. Amer. informal pull someone's chain; Austral./NZ informal poke mullock at. 2 David was winding him up on purpose: annoy, anger, irritate, exasperate, get on someone's nerves, provoke, goad; Brit. rub up the wrong way; informal aggravate, rile, niggle, bug, put someone's back up, get up someone's nose, hack off; Brit. informal nark; N. Amer. informal ride.

■ wind something up 1 Richard wound up the meeting: conclude, bring to an end/close, end, terminate; informal wrap up. 2 the company has been wound up: close (down), dissolve, put into liquidation.

winded adjective out of breath, breathless, gasping for breath, panting, puffing, puffed out; informal out of puff.

windfall noun bonanza, jackpot, pennies from heaven.

winding noun the windings of the stream: twist, turn, turning, bend, loop, curve, zigzag, meander.

• adjective the winding country roads: twisting and turning, meandering, windy, twisty, bending, curving, zigzag, zigzagging, serpentine, sinuous, snaking.

– OPPOSITES straight.

windpipe noun trachea, pharynx; throat.

windswept adjective 1 the windswept moors: exposed, bleak, bare, desolate. 2 his windswept hair: dishevelled, tousled, wind-blown, unkempt, untidy; N. Amer. mussed up.

windy adjective 1 a windy day: breezy, blowy, fresh, blustery, gusty; wild, stormy, squally, tempestuous, boisterous. 2 a windy hillside: windswept, exposed, open to the elements, bare, bleak. 3 (informal) windy speeches. See LONG-WINDED. 4 (Brit. informal) she still felt a bit windy. See ANXIOUS sense 1.

– OPPOSITES still, sheltered.

wine noun informal plonk, vino, the grape; literary vintage.

WORD LINKS

vinous relating to wine oenology the study of wines oenophile a connoisseur of wines viticulture the cultivation of grape vines vintner a wine merchant sommelier a wine waiter wing noun 1 a bird's wings: literary pinion. 2 the east wing of the house: part, section, side; annexe, extension; N. Amer. ell. 3 the radical wing of the party: faction, camp, caucus, arm, branch, group, section, set, coterie, cabal.

• verb 1 a seagull winged its way over the sea: fly, glide, soar. 2 the bomb winged past: hurtle, speed, shoot, whizz, zoom, streak, fly. 3 she was shot at and winged: wound, graze, hit.

■ wing it (informal) improvise, play it by ear, extemporize, ad lib; informal busk it.

wink verb 1 he winked an eye at her: blink, flutter, bat. 2 the diamond winked in the moonlight: sparkle, twinkle, flash, glitter, gleam, shine, scintillate.

• noun a wink of light: glimmer, gleam, glint, flash, flicker, twinkle, sparkle.

■ wink at turn a blind eye to, close one's eyes to, ignore, overlook, disregard; connive at, condone, tolerate.

winkle verb

■ winkle something out worm out, prise out, dig out, extract, draw out, obtain, get.

winner noun victor, champion, conqueror, vanquisher, hero; medallist; Brit. victor ludorum; informal champ, top dog.

– OPPOSITES loser.

winning adjective 1 the winning team will receive £5,000: victorious, successful, triumphant, vanquishing, conquering; first, top. 2 a winning smile: engaging, charming, appealing, endearing, sweet, cute, winsome, attractive, pretty, prepossessing, fetching, lovely, adorable, delightful, disarming, captivating; dated taking.

winnings plural noun prize money, gains, prize, booty, spoils; proceeds, profits, takings, purse.

winnow verb separate (out), divide, sort out, sift out, filter out; isolate, find, identify; remove, get rid of.

winsome adjective. See WINNING sense 2.

wintry adjective 1 wintry weather: bleak, cold, chilly, chill, frosty, freezing, icy, snowy, arctic, glacial, bitter, raw; informal nippy; Brit. informal parky. 2 a wintry smile: unfriendly, unwelcoming, cool, cold, frosty, frigid.

– OPPOSITES summery, warm.

wipe verb 1 Beth wiped the table: rub, mop, sponge, swab; clean, dry, polish. 2 he wiped the marks off the window: rub off, clean off, clear up, remove, get rid of, take off, erase, efface. 3 she wiped the memory from her mind: obliterate, expunge, erase, blot out, blank out.

● noun he gave the table a wipe: rub, mop, sponge, swab; clean, polish.

■ wipe someone/something out destroy, annihilate, eradicate, eliminate; slaughter, massacre, kill, exterminate; demolish, raze to the ground; informal take out, zap; N. Amer. informal waste; literary slay.

wire noun cable, lead, flex.

wiry adjective 1 a wiry man: sinewy, tough, athletic, strong; lean, spare, thin, stringy, skinny. 2 wiry hair: coarse, rough, strong; curly, wavy.

– OPPOSITES flabby, smooth.

wisdom noun 1 we questioned the wisdom of the decision: sagacity, intelligence, sense, common sense, shrewdness, astuteness, smartness, judiciousness, judgement, prudence, circumspection; logic, rationale, rationality, soundness, advisability. 2 the wisdom of the East: knowledge, learning, erudition, scholarship, philosophy; lore.

– OPPOSITES folly.

wise adjective a wise old man: sage, sagacious, intelligent, clever, learned, knowledgeable, enlightened; astute, smart, shrewd, sharp-witted, canny, knowing; sensible, prudent, discerning, judicious, perceptive, insightful, perspicacious; rational, logical, sound, sane; Brit. informal fly; formal sapient.

– OPPOSITES foolish.

■ wise to (informal) aware of, familiar with, acquainted with; formal cognizant of.

wisecrack noun (informal) joke, witticism, quip, jest, sally; pun, bon mot; informal crack, gag, funny, one-liner.

wish verb 1 I wished for power: desire, want, hope for, covet, dream of, long for, yearn for, crave, hunger for, lust after; aspire to, set one's heart on, seek, fancy, hanker after; informal have a yen for, itch for; old use be desirous of. 2 they can do as they wish: want, desire, feel inclined, feel like, care; choose, please, think fit. 3 I wish you to send them a message: want, desire, require. 4 I wished him farewell: bid.

● noun 1 his wish to own a Mercedes: desire, longing, yearning, inclination, urge, whim, craving, hunger; hope, aspiration, aim, ambition, dream; informal hankering, yen, itch. 2 her parents' wishes: request, requirement, bidding, instruction, direction, demand, order, command; want, desire; will; literary behest.

wishy-washy adjective 1 he's so wishy-washy: feeble, ineffectual, weak, rapid, effete, spineless, limp, namby-pamby, spiritless, indecisive; informal wet, pathetic. 2 wishy-washy soup: watery, weak, thin; tasteless, flavourless, insipid. 3 a wishy-washy colour: pale, insipid, pallid, muted.

– OPPOSITES strong, tasty, vibrant.

wisp noun strand, tendril, lock; scrap, shred, thread.

wispy adjective thin, fine, feathery, flyaway.

wistful adjective a long, wistful sigh: nostalgic, yearning, longing; plaintive, regretful, rueful, melancholy, mournful; pensive, reflective, contemplative.

wit noun 1 he needed all his wits to escape: intelligence, shrewdness, astuteness, cleverness, caniness, (common) sense, wisdom, sagacity, judgement, acumen, insight; brains, mind; informal nous, gumption, savvy, horse sense; Brit. informal common; N. Amer. informal smarts. 2 my sparkling wit: witiness, humour, funniness, drollery; repartee, badinage, banter, wordplay; jokes, witticisms, quips, puns. 3 she's such a wit: comedian, humorist, comic, joker, jokester; informal wag; informal, dated card, caution.

witch noun 1 the witch cast a spell: sorceress, enchantress, hex; Wiccan; old use pythoness. 2 (informal) she's a right old witch: hag, crone, harpy, harridan, she-devil; informal battleaxe.

witchcraft noun sorcery, (black) magic, witching, witchery, wizardry, thaumaturgy, spells, incantations; Wicca; Irish pishogue.

witch doctor noun medicine man, shaman, healer.

with preposition accompanied by, escorted by; alongside, in addition to, as well as.

withdraw verb 1 she withdrew her hand from his: remove, extract, pull out, take out; take back, take away. 2 the ban on advertising was withdrawn: abolish, cancel, lift, set aside, end, stop, remove, reverse, revoke, rescind, repeal, annul, void. 3 she withdrew the allegation: retract, take back, go back on, recant, disavow, disclaim, repudiate, renounce; back down, climb down, backtrack, back-pedal, do a U-turn, eat one's words. 4 the troops withdrew from the city: leave, pull out of, evacuate, quit, retreat from. 5 his partner withdrew from the project: pull out of, back out of, bow out of; get cold feet. 6 they withdrew to their rooms: retire, retreat, adjourn, decamp; leave, depart, absent oneself; formal repair; dated remove; literary betake oneself.

– OPPOSITES insert, introduce, deposit, enter.

withdrawal noun 1 the withdrawal of subsidies: removal, abolition, cancellation, discontinuation, termination, elimination. 2 the withdrawal of the troops: departure, pull-out, exit, exodus, evacuation, retreat.

withdrawn adjective introverted, quiet, unsociable, inhibited, uncommunicative, unforthcoming, reticent, reserved, retiring, private, reclusive; shy, timid; aloof; informal stand-offish.

– OPPOSITES outgoing.

wither verb 1 the flowers withered in the sun: shrivel (up), dry up; wilt, droop, go limp, fade, perish. 2 the muscles in his leg withered: waste (away), shrivel (up), shrink, atrophy. 3 her confidence withered: diminish, dwindle, shrink, lessen, fade, ebb, wane; evaporate, disappear.

– OPPOSITES thrive, grow.

withering adjective scornful, contemptuous, scathing, stinging, devastating; humiliating, mortifying.

– OPPOSITES admiring.

withhold verb 1 he withheld important information: hold back, keep back, refuse to give; retain, hold on to; hide, conceal, keep secret; informal sit on. 2 she could not withhold her tears: suppress, repress, hold back, fight back, choke back, control, check, restrain, contain.

within preposition 1 within the prison walls: inside, in, enclosed by, surrounded by; within the bounds of, within the confines of. 2 within a few hours: in less than, in under, after only.

– OPPOSITES outside.

without preposition 1 thousands were without food: lacking, short of, deprived of, in need of, wanting, needing, requiring. 2 I don't want to go without you: unaccompanied by, unescorted by; in the absence of.

withstand verb resist, weather, survive, endure, cope with, stand, tolerate, bear, defy, brave, hold out against, bear up against; stand up to, face, confront.

witless adjective foolish, stupid, unintelligent, idiotic, brainless, mindless; fatuous, inane, half-baked, empty-headed, slow-witted; informal thick, birdbrained, pea-brained, dopey, dim, dim-witted, half-witted, dippy, lamebrained, wooden-headed; Brit. informal daft; Scottish & N. English informal glaikit.

witness noun 1 witnesses claimed that he started the fight: observer, onlooker, eyewitness, spectator, viewer, watcher; bystander, passer-by. 2 a whisky bottle was the only witness of his mood: evidence, indication, proof, testimony.

• verb 1 who witnessed the incident? see, observe, watch, view, notice, spot; be present at, attend; literary behold. 2 the will is correctly witnessed: countersign, sign, endorse, validate; N. Amer. notarize. 3 his writings witness an inner toughness: attest to, testify to, bear witness to, confirm, evidence, prove, verify, corroborate, substantiate; show, demonstrate, indicate, reveal, bespeak.

witter verb (Brit. informal). See GABBLE verb.

witticism noun joke, quip, jest, pun, play on words, bon mot; informal one-liner, gag, funny, crack, wisecrack.

witty adjective humorous, amusing, droll, funny, comic, comical, chucklesome; jocular, facetious, waggish; sparkling, scintillating, entertaining; clever, quick-witted.

wizard noun 1 the wizard cast a spell over them: sorcerer, warlock, magus, (black) magician, enchanter; old use mage. 2 a financial wizard: genius, expert, master, virtuoso, maestro, marvel, Wunderkind; informal hotshot, demon, whizz-kid, buff, pro, ace; Brit. informal dab hand; N. Amer. informal maven.

wizardry noun sorcery, witchcraft, witchery, witching, (black) magic, enchantment; spells, charms; Irish pishogue.

wizened adjective wrinkled, lined, creased, shrivelled (up), withered, weather-beaten, shrunken, gnarled.

wobble verb 1 the table wobbled: rock, teeter, jiggle, sway, see-saw, shake. 2 he wobbled across to the door: teeter, totter, stagger, lurch. 3 her voice wobbled: tremble, shake, quiver, quaver, waver. 4 for a few days the minister wobbled: hesitate, vacillate, waver, dither, shilly-shally, blow hot and cold; Scottish swither.

• noun 1 she stood up with a wobble: totter, teeter, sway. 2 the operatic wobble in her voice: tremor, quiver, quaver, trembling, vibrato.

wobbly adjective 1 a wobbly table: unsteady, unstable, shaky, rocky, rickety; unsafe, precarious; uneven, unbalanced; informal wonky. 2 her legs were a bit wobbly: shaky, quivery, weak, unsteady; informal trembly, like jelly. 3 I feel so wobbly: faint, dizzy, light-headed, giddy, weak (at the knees), groggy, muzzy; informal woozy.

– OPPOSITES stable.

woe noun 1 a long tale of woe: misery, sorrow, distress, wretchedness, sadness, unhappiness, heartache, heartbreak, despondency, despair, depression, gloom, melancholy; adversity, misfortune, disaster, suffering, hardship; literary dolour. 2 financial woes: trouble, difficulty, problem, trial, tribulation, misfortune, setback, reverse.

– OPPOSITES joy.

woebegone adjective sad, unhappy, miserable, dejected, disconsolate, forlorn, crestfallen, downcast, glum, gloomy, doleful, downhearted, despondent, melancholy, sorrowful, mournful, woeful, depressed, wretched, desolate; informal down in the mouth, down in the dumps, blue.

– OPPOSITES cheerful.

woeful adjective 1 her face was woeful.

See WOEBEGONE. 2 a woeful tale: tragic, sad, miserable, cheerless, gloomy, sorry, pitiful, pathetic, traumatic, depressing, heart-breaking, heart-rending, tear-jerking.

3 the team's woeful performance: dreadful, awful, terrible, atrocious, appalling, abysmal, disgraceful, deplorable, shameful, hopeless, lamentable; substandard, poor, inadequate, inferior, unsatisfactory; informal rotten, crummy, pathetic, pitiful, lousy, dire; Brit. informal duff, pathetic, rubbish.

– OPPOSITES cheerful, excellent.

wolf verb devour, gobble (up), guzzle, gulp down, bolt; informal put away, demolish, shovel down, scoop (down), get outside of, Hoover up, trough; Brit. informal gollop; N. Amer. informal scarf (down/up), snarf (down/up).

WORD LINKS

lupine relating to wolves werewolf, lycanthrope (in folklore) a person who periodically changes into a wolf wolfish adjective (informal) lascivious, lecherous, lustful; predatory, rapacious.

woman noun 1 a woman got out of the car:

lady, girl, female; matron; Scottish & N. English lass, lassie; Irish colleen; informal chick, girlie, filly, biddy; Brit. informal bird; Scottish & N. English informal wife; N. Amer. informal sister, dame, broad, gal, jane; Austral./NZ informal sheila; literary maid, maiden, damsel; old use wench, gentlewoman. 2 he found himself a new woman: girlfriend, sweetheart, partner, significant other, innamorata, lover, mistress; fiancée; wife, spouse; informal bird, fancy woman, missus, better half; Brit. informal other half, Dutch, trouble and strife; Irish informal mot; N. Amer. informal squeeze; dated lady friend, lady-love; old use leman.

WORD LINKS

female, feminine relating to women distaff side the female side of a family gynaecology the branch of medicine concerning women matriarchy a society in which women hold the power matrilineal based on relationship with the mother or female line of descent misogyny hatred of women yin (in Chinese philosophy) the passive female principle of the universe womanhood noun 1 she was on the brink of womanhood: adulthood, maturity; literary muliebriety. 2 she's an ideal of womanhood: womanliness, femininity. 3 the stereotype of Soviet womanhood: women, womenfolk; womankind, womenkind, woman; the female sex.

womanish adjective effeminate, girlish, girlie, unmanly, unmasculine.

– OPPOSITES manly.

womanizer noun philanderer, Casanova, Don Juan, Romeo, Lothario, ladies' man, playboy, seducer, rake, roué, libertine, lecher; informal skirt-chaser, ladykiller, lech.

womankind noun women, woman, the female sex, womenkind, womanhood, womenfolk.

womanly adjective 1 womanly virtues: feminine, female; old use feminal. 2 her womanly figure: voluptuous, curvaceous, shapely, ample, Junoesque, Rubenesque, buxom, full-figured; informal curvy, busty.

– OPPOSITES masculine, boyish.

wonder noun 1 she was speechless with wonder: awe, admiration, wonderment, fascination; surprise, astonishment, amazement. 2 the wonders of nature:

marvel, miracle, phenomenon, sensation, spectacle, beauty; curiosity.

• verb 1 I wondered what was on her mind:

ponder, think about, meditate on, reflect on, muse on, speculate about, conjecture; be curious about. 2 people wondered at such bravery: marvel, be amazed, be astonished, stand in awe, be dumbfounded, gape, goggle; informal be flabbergasted.

wonderful adjective marvellous, magnificent, superb, glorious, sublime, lovely, delightful; informal super, great, fantastic, terrific, tremendous, sensational, incredible, fabulous, fab, awesome, magic, ace, wicked, far out; Brit. informal smashing, brilliant, brill; N. Amer. informal peachy, dandy, neat; Austral./NZ informal beaut, bonzer; Brit. informal, dated champion, wizard, spiffing, topping; N. Amer. informal, dated swell.

– OPPOSITES awful.

wonky adjective (Brit. informal) 1 a wonky picture. See CROOKED sense 3. 2 wonky stools. See WOBBLY sense 1.

wont adjective (literary) he was wont to arise at 5.30: accustomed, used, given, inclined.

• noun (formal) Paul drove fast, as was his wont: custom, habit, way, practice, convention, rule.

wonted adjective (literary) customary, habitual, usual, accustomed, familiar, normal, conventional, routine, common.

woo verb 1 Richard wooed Joan: pay court to, pursue, chase (after); dated court, romance, seek the hand of, set one's cap at, make love to. 2 the party wooed voters with promises: seek, pursue, curry favour with, try to win, try to attract, try to cultivate. 3 an attempt to woo him out of retirement: entice, tempt, coax, persuade, wheedle; informal sweet-talk.

wood noun 1 polished wood: timber, planks, planking; logs; N. Amer. lumber. 2 a walk through the woods: forest, woodland, trees; copse, coppice, grove; Brit. spinney; old use greenwood.

WORD LINKS

ligneous consisting of wood carpenter, joiner, cabinetmaker a person who makes wooden objects or structures lathe a machine for shaping wood wooded adjective forested, afforested, tree-covered, woody; literary sylvan, bosky.

wooden adjective 1 a wooden door: wood, timber, woody; ligneous. 2 wooden acting: stilted, stiff, unnatural, awkward, leaden; dry, flat, stodgy, lifeless, passionless, spiritless, soulless. 3 her face was wooden: expressionless, impassive, poker-faced, emotionless, blank, vacant, unresponsive.

woodland noun woods, wood, forest, trees; old use greenwood.

woodwork noun carpentry, joinery.

wool noun 1 sheep's wool: fleece, hair, coat; floccus. 2 a sweater made of cream wool: yarn.

■ pull the wool over someone's eyes (informal) deceive, fool, trick, hoodwink, dupe, delude; informal lead up the garden path, put one over on, bamboozle, con.

wool-gathering noun daydreaming, dreaming, reverie, musing, abstraction, preoccupation; absent-mindedness, forgetfulness.

woolly adjective 1 a woolly hat: woollen, wool, fleecy. 2 a sheep's woolly coat: fleecy, shaggy, hairy, fluffy, flocculent. 3 woolly generalizations: vague, ill-defined, hazy, unclear, fuzzy, blurry, foggy, nebulous, imprecise, inexact, indefinite; confused, muddled.

● noun (informal) sweater, pullover, jersey, cardigan; Brit. jumper; Brit. informal cardy.

woozy adjective (informal). See GROGgy.

word noun 1 the Italian word for 'ham': term, name, expression, designation, locution, vocable; formal appellation. 2 his words were meant kindly: remark, comment, observation, statement, utterance, pronouncement. 3 I've got three weeks to learn the words: script, lyrics, libretto. 4 I give you my word: promise, word of honour, assurance, guarantee, undertaking; pledge, vow, oath, bond; formal troth. 5 I want a word with you: talk, conversation, chat, tête-à-tête, heart-to-heart, one-to-one; discussion, consultation; informal confab, powwow; formal confabulation. 6 there's no word from the hospital: news, information, communication, intelligence; message, report, communiqué, dispatch, bulletin; informal info, gen, dope; literary tidings. 7 word has it he's turned over a new leaf: rumour, hearsay, talk, gossip; informal the grapevine, the word on the street. 8 I'm waiting for the word from HQ: instruction, order, command; signal, prompt, cue, tip-off; informal go-ahead, thumbs up, green light. 9 his word was law: command, order, decree, edict; bidding, will. 10 our word now must be success: motto, watchword, slogan, catchword, buzz word.

● verb the question was carefully worded: phrase, express, put, couch, frame, formulate, style; say, utter.

■ have words quarrel, argue, disagree, squabble, bicker, fight, wrangle, dispute, fall out, clash; Brit. informal row.

■ in a word briefly, to be brief, in short, in a nutshell, to come to the point, to cut a long story short, not to put too fine a point on it; to sum up, to summarize, in summary.

■ word for word 1 they took down the speeches word for word: verbatim, letter for letter, to the letter; exactly, faithfully. 2 a word-for-word translation: verbatim, literal, exact, direct, accurate, faithful; unadulterated, unabridged.

WORD LINKS

verbal, lexical relating to words semantic relating to the meaning of words syntax the arrangement of words to make a well-formed sentence etymology an account of the origins of a word wording noun phrasing, phraseology, words, language, expression, terminology.

wordplay noun punning, puns, play on words; wit, witticisms, repartee.

wordy adjective long-winded, verbose, prolix, lengthy, protracted, long-drawn-out, rambling, circumlocutory, periphrastic, pleonastic; loquacious, garrulous, voluble; informal windy; Brit. informal waffly.

– OPPOSITES succinct.

work noun 1 a day's work in the fields:

labour, toil, slog, drudgery, exertion, effort, industry, service; informal grind, sweat, elbow grease; Brit. informal graft, fag; Austral./NZ informal yakka; literary travail. 2 I'm looking for work:

employment, a job, a post, a position, a situation; occupation, profession, career, vocation, calling. 3 haven't you got any work?

tasks, jobs, duties, assignments, projects; chores. 4 works of literature: composition, piece, creation; opus, oeuvre. 5 this is the work of a radical faction: handiwork, doing, act, deed. 6 a lifetime spent doing good works:

deeds, acts, actions. 7 the complete works of Shakespeare: writings, oeuvre, canon, output. 8 a car works: factory, plant, mill, foundry, yard, workshop, shop. 9 the works of a clock: mechanism, machinery, workings, parts, movement, action; informal insides.

10 (informal) for only $60 you can get the works: everything, the full treatment; informal the lot, the whole shebang, the full nine yards; Brit. informal the full monty.

– OPPOSITES leisure.

● verb 1 staff worked late into the night: toil, labour, exert oneself, slave (away); keep at it, keep one's nose to the grindstone; informal slog (away), beaver away, plug away, put one's back into it, knock oneself out, sweat blood; Brit. informal graft, fag; literary travail. 2 he worked in education for years: be employed, have a job, earn one's living, do business. 3 farmers worked the land: cultivate, farm, till, plough. 4 his car was working perfectly: function, go, run, operate; informal behave. 5 how do I work this machine? operate, use, handle, control, manipulate, run. 6 their play worked: succeed, work out, turn out well, go as planned, get results, be effective; informal come off, pay off, do the trick. 7 blusher can work miracles: bring about, accomplish, achieve, produce, perform, create, engender, contrive, effect.

8 (informal) the chairman was prepared to work it for Phil: arrange, manipulate, contrive; pull strings; N. Amer. pull wires; informal fix, swing, wangle. 9 he worked the crowd into a frenzy: stir (up), excite, drive, move, rouse, fire, galvanize; whip up, agitate. 10 work the mixture into a paste: knead, squeeze, form; mix, stir, blend. 11 he worked the blade into the padlock: manoeuvre, manipulate, guide, edge. 12 her mouth worked furiously: twitch, quiver, convulse. 13 he worked his way through the crowd: manoeuvre, make, thread, wind, weave, wend.

– OPPOSITES rest, fail.

■ work on someone persuade, manipulate, influence; coax, cajole, wheedle, soften up; informal twist someone's arm, lean on.

■ work out 1 the bill works out at £50: amount to, add up to, come to, total; Brit. tot up to. 2 my idea worked out. See WORK verb sense 6. 3 things didn't work out the way she planned: end up, turn out, go, come out, develop; happen, occur; informal pan out. 4 he works out at the local gym: exercise, train.

■ work something out 1 work out what you can afford: calculate, compute, reckon up, determine. 2 I'm trying to work out what she meant: understand, comprehend, puzzle out, sort out, make sense of, get to the bottom of, make head or tail of, unravel, decipher, decode; informal figure out; Brit. informal suss out. 3 they worked out a plan: devise, formulate, draw up, put together, develop, construct, arrange, organize, contrive, concoct; hammer out, negotiate.

■ work something up stimulate, rouse, raise, arouse, awaken, excite.

workable adjective practicable, feasible, viable, possible, achievable; realistic, reasonable, sensible, practical; informal doable.

– OPPOSITES impracticable.

workaday adjective ordinary, average, run-of-the-mill, middle-of-the-road, conventional, unremarkable, unexceptional, undistinguished, commonplace, mundane, humdrum, pedestrian; routine, everyday, day-to-day; N. Amer. garden-variety; informal bog-standard, nothing to write home about, ten a penny, a dime a dozen; Brit. informal common or garden.

– OPPOSITES exceptional.

worker noun 1 a strike by 500 workers: employee, member of staff; workman, labourer, hand, operative, operator; proletarian; artisan, craftsman, craftswoman; wage-earner, breadwinner. 2 (informal) I got a reputation for being a worker: hard worker, toiler, workhorse; informal busy bee, eager beaver, workaholic; N. Amer. informal wheel horse.

workforce noun employees, staff, workers, personnel, labour force, manpower; human resources; informal livelihood.

working adjective 1 working mothers: employed, in (gainful) employment, in work, waged. 2 a working waterwheel: functioning, operating, running, active, operational, functional, serviceable; informal up and running. 3 a working knowledge of contract law: sufficient, adequate, viable; useful, effective.

– OPPOSITES unemployed, faulty.

• noun 1 the working of a carburettor: functioning, operation, running, action, performance. 2 the workings of a watch: mechanism, machinery, parts, movement, action, works; informal insides.

workman noun (manual) worker, labourer, hand, operative, operator; employee; journeyman, artisan.

workmanlike adjective the team put up a solid, workmanlike performance: efficient, competent, professional, proficient, skilful, adept, masterly.

workmanship noun craftsmanship, artistry, craft, art, artisanship, handiwork; skill, expertise, technique.

workout noun exercise session, keep-fit session, training session, drill; warm-up; exercises, aerobics; informal, dated daily dozen.

workshop noun 1 a car repair workshop: factory, works, plant; garage. 2 the craftsmen had a chilly workshop: workshop, studio, atelier. 3 a workshop on combating stress: study group, discussion group, seminar, class.

world noun 1 he travelled the world: earth, globe, planet. 2 life on other worlds: planet, satellite, moon, star, heavenly body, orb. 3 the academic world: sphere, society, circle, arena, milieu, province, domain, orbit, preserve, realm, field, discipline, area. 4 she would show the world that she was strong: everyone, everybody, people, mankind, humankind, humanity, the (general) public, the population, the populace, all and sundry, every mother's son, {every Tom, Dick, and Harry}, every man jack. 5 a world of difference: huge amount, good deal, great deal, abundance, wealth, profusion, mountain; plenty; informal heap, lot, load, ton, masses; Brit. informal shedload. 6 she renounced the world: society, secular interests, temporal concerns, earthly concerns.

WORD LINKS

global, mondial relating to the whole world worldly adjective 1 his youth was wasted on worldly pursuits: earthly, terrestrial, temporal, mundane; mortal, human, material, materialistic, physical, carnal, fleshly, bodily, corporeal, sensual. 2 a worldly man: sophisticated, experienced, worldly-wise, knowledgeable, knowing, enlightened, shrewd, mature, seasoned, cosmopolitan, urbane, cultivated, cultured.

– OPPOSITES spiritual, naive.

worldly-wise adjective. See WORLDLY sense 2. worldwide adjective global, international, intercontinental, universal; ubiquitous, extensive, widespread, far-reaching, wide-ranging, all-embracing.

– OPPOSITES local.

worm nounWORD LINKS

vermiform resembling a worm vermicide a substance used to kill worms worn adjective 1 his hat was worn: shabby, worn out, threadbare, tattered, in tatters, holey, falling to pieces, ragged, frayed, moth-eaten, scruffy, having seen better days; informal tatty, ratty, the worse for wear; N. Amer. informal raggedy. 2 her face looked worn. See WORN OUT sense 2.

– OPPOSITES smart, fresh.

worn out adjective 1 a worn-out shirt. See WORN sense 1. 2 by evening they looked worn out: exhausted, fatigued, tired (out), weary, drained, worn, drawn, wan, sapped, spent; careworn, haggard, hollow-eyed, pinched, pale, peaky; informal all in, done in, dog-tired, dead beat, fit to drop, shattered; Brit. informal knackered; N. Amer. informal pooped, tucked out. 3 worn-out ideas: obsolete, antiquated, old, stale, hackneyed, trite, overused, overworked, clichéd, unoriginal, commonplace, pedestrian, prosaic, stock, conventional; informal played out, old hat.

– OPPOSITES smart, fresh.

worried adjective anxious, perturbed, troubled, bothered, concerned, upset, distressed, distraught, disquieted, uneasy, fretful, agitated, nervous, edgy, on edge, tense, overwrought, worked up, keyed up, stressed; apprehensive, fearful, afraid, frightened, scared; informal uptight, a bundle of nerves, on tenterhooks, jittery, jumpy, twitchy, in a stew, all of a dither, in a flap, in a sweat, het up, rattled; Brit. informal windy, having kittens; N. Amer. informal antsy, squirrely.

– OPPOSITES carefree.worrisome adjective. See WORRYING.

worry verb 1 she worries about his health: fret, be concerned, be anxious, agonize, brood, panic, lose sleep, get worked up; informal get stressed, get in a flap, get in a state, stew, torment oneself. 2 is something worrying you? trouble, bother, make anxious, disturb, distress, upset, concern, disquiet, fret, agitate, unsettle, perturb, scare, fluster, stress, tax, torment, plague, bedevil; prey on one's mind, weigh down, gnaw at; informal rattle, bug, get to. 3 a dog worried his sheep: attack, savage, maul, mutilate, mangle, go for; molest, torment, persecute.

• noun 1 I'm beside myself with worry: anxiety, perturbation, distress, concern, uneasiness, unease, disquiet, fretfulness, restlessness, nervousness, nerves, agitation, edginess, tension, stress; apprehension, fear, dread, trepidation, misgiving, angst; informal butterflies (in the stomach), the willies, the heebie-jeebies. 2 the rats are a worry: problem, cause for concern; nuisance, pest, plague, trial, trouble, vexation, bane, bugbear; informal pain (in the neck), headache, hassle, stress.

worrying adjective alarming, worrisome, daunting, perturbing, niggling, bothersome, troublesome, unsettling, nerve-racking; distressing, disquieting, upsetting, traumatic, problematic; informal scary, hairy.

worsen verb 1 insomnia can worsen a patient's distress: aggravate, exacerbate, compound, add to, intensify, increase, magnify, heighten, inflame, augment; informal add fuel to the fire. 2 the recession worsened: deteriorate, degenerate, decline, go downhill; informal go to pot, go to the dogs, hit the skids, nosedive.

– OPPOSITES improve.worship noun 1 the worship of saints:

reverence, veneration, adoration, glorification, glory, exaltation; devotion, praise, thanksgiving, homage, honour; dulia, latria; formal laudation; old use magnification. 2 morning worship: service, religious rite, prayer, praise, devotion, religious observance; matins, vespers, evensong. 3 he contemplated her with worship: admiration, adulation, idolization, lionization, hero-worship.

• verb they worship pagan gods: revere, reverence, venerate, pay homage to, honour, adore, praise, pray to, glorify, exalt, extol; hold dear, cherish, treasure, esteem, adulate, idolize, deify, hero-worship, lionize; informal put on a pedestal; formal laud; old use magnify.

worst verb defeat, beat, prevail over, triumph over, trounce, rout, vanquish, conquer, master, overcome, overwhelm, overpower, crush; outdo, outclass, outstrip, surpass; informal thrash, lick, best, clobber, drub, slaughter, murder, wipe out, crucify, demolish, wipe the floor with, take to the cleaners, walk all over, make mincemeat of; Brit. informal stuff; N. Amer. informal shellac.

worth noun 1 evidence of the rug's worth: value, price, cost; valuation, quotation, estimate. 2 the intrinsic worth of education: benefit, advantage, use, value, virtue, utility, service, profit, help, aid; desirability, appeal; significance, sense; informal mileage, percentage; old use behoof. 3 a sense of personal worth: worthiness, merit, value, excellence, calibre, quality, stature, eminence, consequence, importance, significance, distinction.

worthless adjective 1 the item was worthless: valueless; poor quality, inferior, second-rate, low-grade, cheap, shoddy, tawdry; informal crummy, rubbishy, ten a penny; Brit. informal twopenny-halfpenny; N. Amer. informal nickel-and-dime. 2 your conclusions are worthless: useless, no use, ineffective, ineffectual, fruitless, unproductive, unavailing, pointless, nugatory, valueless, inadequate, deficient, meaningless, senseless, insubstantial, empty, hollow, trifling, petty, inconsequential, lame, paltry, pathetic; informal a dead loss. 3 his worthless son: good-for-nothing, ne'er-do-well, useless, despicable, contemptible, low, ignominious, corrupt, villainous, degenerate, shiftless, feckless; informal no-good, lousy.

– OPPOSITES valuable, useful.worthwhile adjective valuable, useful, of use, of service, beneficial, rewarding, advantageous, positive, helpful, profitable, gainful, fruitful, productive, constructive, effective, effectual, meaningful, worthy.

worthy adjective a worthy citizen: virtuous, righteous, good, moral, ethical, upright, upstanding, high-minded, principled, exemplary; law-abiding, irreproachable, blameless, guiltless, unimpeachable, honest, honourable, reputable, decent, respectable, noble, meritorious, admirable; pure, whiter than white, saintly, angelic; informal squeaky clean.

– OPPOSITES disreputable.

• noun local worthies: dignitary, personage, grandee, VIP, notable, notability, pillar of society, luminary, leading light, big name; informal heavyweight, bigwig, top dog, big shot, big cheese; N. Amer. informal big wheel, big kahuna.

– OPPOSITES nobody.

■ be worthy of deserve, merit, warrant, rate, justify, earn, be entitled to, qualify for.

would-be adjective aspiring, budding, promising, prospective, potential, hopeful, keen, eager, ambitious; informal wannabe.

wound noun 1 a chest wound: injury, lesion, cut, gash, laceration, tear, slash; graze, scratch, abrasion; bruise, contusion; Medicine trauma. 2 the wounds inflicted by the media: insult, blow, slight, offence, affront; hurt, damage, injury, pain, distress, grief, anguish, torment.

• verb 1 he was critically wounded: injure, hurt, harm; maim, mutilate, disable, incapacitate, cripple; lacerate, cut, graze, gash, stab, slash. 2 her words had wounded him: hurt, scar, damage, injure; insult, slight, offend, affront, distress, disturb, upset, trouble; grieve, sadden, pain, sting, shock, traumatize, torment.

wraith noun ghost, spectre, spirit, phantom, apparition, manifestation; informal spook; literary shade, phantasm.

wrangle noun a wrangle over money: argument, dispute, disagreement, quarrel, falling-out, fight, squabble, altercation, war of words, shouting match, tiff; informal set-to, run-in, slanging match; Brit. informal barney, row, bust-up.

• verb we wrangled over the details: argue, quarrel, bicker, squabble, fall out, have words, disagree, be at odds, fight, battle, feud, clash; informal scrap; Brit. informal row.

wrap verb 1 she wrapped herself in a towel: swathe, bundle, swaddle, muffle, cloak, envelop, encase, cover, fold, wind. 2 I wrapped the vase carefully: parcel (up), package, pack (up), bundle (up); gift-wrap. • noun he put a wrap round her: shawl, stole, cloak, cape, mantle, scarf, pashmina, poncho, serape; historical pelisse.

■ wrap something up (informal) conclude, finish, end, wind up, round off, terminate, stop, cease, finalize, complete, tie up; informal sew up.

wrapper noun 1 a sweet wrapper: wrapping, packaging, paper, cover, covering; jacket, sheath. 2 (N. Amer.) she wore a cotton wrapper: housecoat, bathrobe, dressing gown, robe, kimono, peignoir.

wrath noun anger, rage, fury, outrage, spleen, vexation, (high) dudgeon, crossness, displeasure, annoyance, irritation; literary ire, choler.

– OPPOSITES happiness.

wreak verb inflict, bestow, mete out, administer, deliver, impose, exact, create, cause, result in, effect, engender, bring about, perpetrate, unleash, vent; formal effectuate.

wreath noun garland, circlet, chaplet, crown, festoon, lei; ring, loop, circle.

wreath verb 1 a pulpit wreathed in holly: festoon, garland, drape, cover, bedeck, deck, decorate, ornament, adorn. 2 blue smoke wreathed upwards: spiral, coil, loop, wind, curl, twist, snake, curve.

wreck noun 1 salvage teams landed on the wreck: shipwreck, sunken ship, derelict; shell, hull. 2 the wreck of a stolen car: wreckage, debris, remainder, ruins, remains. • verb 1 he had wrecked her car: demolish, crash, smash up, damage, destroy; vandalize, deface, desecrate, write off; N. Amer. informal trash, total. 2 his ship was wrecked: shipwreck, sink, capsiz, run aground. 3 the crisis wrecked his plans: ruin, spoil, disrupt, undo, put a stop to, frustrate, blight, crush, quash, dash, destroy, scotch, shatter, devastate, sabotage; informal mess up, screw up, foul up, put paid to, stymie, put the kibosh on, nix; Brit. informal scupper, dish.

wreckage noun. See WRECK noun senses 1, 2.

wrench noun 1 she felt a wrench on her shoulders: tug, pull, jerk, jolt, heave; informal yank. 2 hold the piston with a wrench: spanner, monkey wrench. 3 a wrench in his arm: sprain, twist, strain, rick, crick. 4 leaving was an immense wrench: painful parting, traumatic event; pang, trauma. • verb 1 he wrenched the gun from her hand: tug, pull, jerk, wrest, heave, twist, pluck, grab, seize, snatch, force, prise; N. Amer. pry; informal yank. 2 she wrenched her ankle: sprain, twist, turn, strain, rick, crick, pull; injure, hurt.

wrest verb wrench, snatch, seize, grab, prise, pluck, tug, pull, jerk, dislodge; N. Amer. pry; informal yank.

wrestle verb grapple, fight, struggle, contend, vie, battle, wrangle; scuffle, tussle, brawl; informal scrap.

wretched noun 1 the wretches killed themselves: poor creature, poor soul, poor thing, poor unfortunate; informal poor devil, poor beggar. 2 I wouldn't trust the old wretch: scoundrel, villain, ruffian, rogue, rascal, reprobate, criminal, miscreant, good-for-nothing; informal heel, creep, louse, rat, swine, dog, lowlife, scumbag; informal, dated rotter, bounder, blighter; old use blackguard.

wretched adjective 1 I felt so wretched without you: miserable, unhappy, sad, heartbroken, grief-stricken, sorrowful, distressed, desolate, devastated, despairing, disconsolate, downcast, dejected, crestfallen, cheerless, depressed, melancholy, morose, gloomy, mournful, doleful, dismal, forlorn, woebegone; informal blue; literary dolorous. 2 I feel wretched: ill, unwell, poorly, sick, below par; Brit. off colour; informal under the weather, out of sorts. 3 their living conditions are wretched: harsh, hard, grim, stark, difficult; poor, impoverished; pitiful, pathetic, miserable, cheerless, sordid, shabby, seedy, dilapidated; informal scummy; Brit. informal grotty. 4 the wretched dweller in the shanty town: unfortunate, unlucky, luckless, ill-starred, blighted, hapless, poor, pitiable, downtrodden, oppressed; literary star-crossed. 5 he's a wretched coward: despicable, contemptible, reprehensible, base, vile, loathsome, hateful, detestable, odious, ignoble, shameful, shabby, worthless; informal dirty, rotten, low-down, lousy. 6 wretched weather: terrible, awful, dire, atrocious, dreadful, bad, poor, lamentable, deplorable; informal God-awful; Brit. informal beastly. 7 I don't want the wretched money: informal damn, damned, blasted, blessed, flaming, confounded, rotten; Brit. informal flipping, blinking, blooming, bloody.

– OPPOSITES cheerful, well, comfortable, fortunate, excellent.

wriggle verb 1 she tried to hug him but he wriggled: squirm, writhe, wiggle, jiggle, jerk, thresh, flounder, flail, twitch, twist and turn; snake, worm, slither. 2 he wriggled out of his responsibilities: avoid, shirk, dodge, evade, elude, sidestep; escape from; informal duck. • noun the baby gave a wriggle: squirm, jiggle, wiggle, twitch, twist.

wring verb 1 wring out the clothes: twist, squeeze, screw, scrunch, knead, press, mangle. 2 concessions were wrung from the government: extract, elicit, force, exact, wrest, wrench, squeeze, milk; informal bleed. 3 his expression wrung her heart: rend, tear at, harrow, pierce, stab, wound, rack; distress, pain, hurt.

wrinkle noun 1 fine wrinkles around her mouth: crease, fold, pucker, line, crinkle, furrow, ridge, groove; informal crow's feet. 2 (informal) learn the wrinkles from someone more experienced: guideline, hint, tip, pointer, clue, suggestion; (wrinkles) advice, guidance. • verb his coat tails wrinkled up: crease, pucker, gather, line, crinkle, crimp, crumple, rumple, ruck up, scrunch up.

writ noun summons, subpoena, warrant, arraignment, indictment, citation, court order.

W write verb 1 he wrote her name in the book: put in writing, write down, put down, jot down, note (down), take down, record, register, log, list; inscribe, sign, scribble, scrawl, pencil. 2 I wrote a poem: compose, draft, think up, formulate, compile, pen, dash off, produce. 3 he had her address and promised to write: correspond, write a letter, communicate, get in touch, keep in contact; informal drop someone a line.

■ write someone/something off 1 they have had to write off loans: forget about, disregard, give up on, cancel, annul, wipe out. 2 he wrote off his new car: wreck, smash up, crash, destroy, demolish, ruin; N. Amer. informal total. 3 who would write off a player of his stature? disregard, dismiss, ignore.

writer noun author, wordsmith, man/woman of letters, penman; novelist, essayist, biographer; journalist, columnist, correspondent; scriptwriter, playwright, dramatist, dramaturge, tragedian; poet; informal scribbler, scribe, pen-pusher, hack.

writhe verb squirm, wriggle, thrash, flail, toss, toss and turn, twist, twist and turn, struggle.

writing noun 1 I can't read his writing: handwriting, hand, script, print; penmanship, calligraphy, chirography; informal scribble, scrawl. 2 the writings of Gertrude Stein: works, compositions, books, publications, oeuvre; papers, articles, essays.

WORD LINKS

graphology the study of handwriting palaepigraphy the study of ancient writing systems holograph, autograph a manuscript in an author's own handwriting transcribe put something into written form wrong adjective 1 the wrong answer: incorrect, mistaken, in error, erroneous, inaccurate, inexact, imprecise, fallacious, wide of the mark, off target, unsound, faulty; informal off beam, out. 2 he knew he had said the wrong thing: inappropriate, unsuitable, inapt, inapposite, undesirable; ill-advised, ill-considered, ill-judged, impolitic, injudicious, infelicitous, unfitting, out of keeping, improper; informal out of order. 3 I've done nothing wrong: illegal, unlawful, illicit, criminal, dishonest, dishonourable, corrupt; unethical, immoral, bad, wicked, sinful, iniquitous, nefarious, blameworthy, reprehensible; informal crooked. 4 there's something wrong with the engine: amiss, awry, out of order, not right, faulty, defective.

– OPPOSITES right, correct, appropriate, legal.

• adverb she guessed wrong: incorrectly, wrongly, inaccurately, erroneously, mistakenly.

• noun 1 the difference between right and wrong: immorality, sin, sinfulness, wickedness, evil; unlawfulness, crime, corruption, villainy, dishonesty, injustice, wrongdoing, misconduct, transgression.

2 an attempt to compensate for past wrongs: misdeed, offence, injury, crime, transgression, peccadillo, sin; injustice, outrage, atrocity; Law tort; old use trespass.

– OPPOSITES right.

• verb 1 she was determined to forget the man who had wronged her: ill-use, mistreat, do an injustice to, do wrong to, ill-treat, abuse, harm, hurt, injure; informal do the dirty on. 2 perhaps I am wronging him: malign, misrepresent, do a disservice to, impugn, defame, slander, libel.

■ get someone/something wrong

misunderstand, misinterpret, misconstrue, mistake, misread, take amiss; get the wrong idea/impression; informal get the wrong end of the stick, be barking up the wrong tree.

■ go wrong 1 I've gone wrong somewhere: make a mistake, make an error, miscalculate; informal slip up, screw up, make a boo-boo; Brit. informal boob. 2 their plans went wrong: go awry, go amiss, fail, be unsuccessful, fall through, come to nothing; backfire, misfire, rebound; informal come to grief, come a cropper, go up in smoke; Brit. informal go adrift. 3 the radio's gone wrong: break down, malfunction, fail, stop working, crash, give out; informal be on the blink, conk out, go kaput; Brit. informal play up, pack up.

■ in the wrong to blame, blameworthy, at fault, reprehensible, responsible, culpable, answerable, guilty; old use peccant.

wrongdoer noun offender, lawbreaker, criminal, felon, delinquent, villain, culprit, evildoer, sinner, transgressor, malefactor, miscreant, rogue, scoundrel; informal crook, wrong 'un; Law malfeasant; old use trespasser.

wrongdoing noun crime, lawbreaking, lawlessness, criminality, misconduct, misbehaviour, malpractice, corruption, immorality, sin, sinfulness, wickedness, evil, vice, iniquity, villainy; offence, felony, wrong, misdeed, misdemeanour, fault, peccadillo, transgression; Law malfeasance, tort; formal malversation; old use trespass.

wrongful adjective unjustified, unjust, unwarranted, unfair, undue, undeserved, unreasonable, groundless, indefensible, inappropriate, improper, unlawful, illegal, illegitimate.

– OPPOSITES rightful.

wrought up adjective agitated, tense, stressed, overwrought, nervous, on edge, edgy, keyed up, worked up, anxious, nervy, flustered, fretful, upset; informal in a state, in a stew, het up, wound up, uptight, jumpy, in a tizz/tizzy; Brit. informal strung up; N. Amer. informal spooky, squirrelly.

– OPPOSITES calm.

wry adjective 1 his wry humour: ironic, sardonic, satirical, mocking, sarcastic; dry, droll, witty, humorous. 2 a wry expression: unimpressed, displeased, annoyed, irritated, irked, vexed, piqued, disgruntled, dissatisfied; informal peeved. 3 a wry neck: twisted, crooked, contorted, distorted, deformed, misshapen; Scottish thrawn.

Xx

xenophobic adjective jingoistic, chauvinistic, flag-waving, excessively nationalistic, isolationist; prejudiced, bigoted, intolerant.

Xerox noun (trademark) photocopy, copy, duplicate, reproduction; trademark photostat.

Xmas noun (informal). See CHRISTMAS.

X-ray noun radiograph, roentgenogram, radiogram.

WORD LINKS

radiography the making of images using X-rays radiology the science dealing with X-rays radiotherapy the treatment of disease using X-rays tomography displaying a cross section through the body using X-rays

barium meal substance swallowed so that the digestive system can be X-rayed

Yy

yahoo noun (informal) boor, lout, oaf, thug, barbarian, Neanderthal, brute, bully boy; informal clod, roughneck, bruiser; Brit. informal yobbo, yob, oik.

yank verb (informal) jerk, pull, tug, wrench; snatch, seize.

yap verb 1 the dogs yapped about his heels: bark, woof, yelp. 2 (informal) what are they yapping on about? See BABBLE verb sense 1.

yardstick noun standard, measure, gauge, scale, guide, guideline, indicator, test, touchstone, barometer, criterion, benchmark, point of reference, model, pattern.

yarn noun 1 you need to use a fine yarn: thread, cotton, wool, fibre, filament; ply. 2 (informal) a far-fetched yarn: story, tale, anecdote, saga, narrative; informal tall tale/story, cock and bull story, shaggy-dog story, spiel.

yawning adjective gaping, wide open, wide, cavernous, deep; huge, great, big.

year noun twelve-month period, calendar year; literary sun, summer, winter; old use twelvemonth.

WORD LINKS

annual happening once a year or lasting a year biannual happening twice a year biennial taking place every other year annuity a fixed sum of money paid each year decade a period of ten years century a period of a hundred years millennium a period of a thousand years yearly adjective a yearly payment: annual, once a year, every year, each year.

• adverb the guide is published yearly:

annually, once a year, per annum, every year, each year.

yearn verb long, pine, crave, desire, want, wish, hanker, covet, lust, pant, hunger, thirst, ache, eat one's heart out, have one's heart set on; informal have a yen, itch.

yearning noun longing, craving, desire, want, wish, hankering, urge, hunger, thirst, appetite, lust, ache; informal yen, itch.

yell verb he yelled in agony: cry out, call out, call at the top of one's voice, shout, howl, yowl, wail, scream, shriek, screech, yelp, squeal; roar, bawl; informal holler.

• noun a yell of rage: cry, shout, howl, yowl, scream, shriek, screech, yelp, squeal; roar; informal holler.

yellow adjective 1 yellow hair | a yellow shirt: flaxen, golden, gold, blonde, fair; lemon, daffodil-yellow, mustard. 2 (informal) he'll have to prove he's not yellow. See COWARDLY.

yelp noun & verb squeal, shriek, howl, yowl, yell, cry, shout, yawp; informal holler.

yen noun (informal) hankering, yearning, longing, craving, urge, desire, want, wish, hunger, thirst, lust, appetite, ache; fancy, inclination; informal itch.

yea adverb all right, very well, of course, by all means, sure, certainly, absolutely, indeed, affirmative, in the affirmative, agreed, roger; Scottish, N. English, & old use aye; Nautical aye aye; informal yeah, yep, yup, uh-huh, okay, OK, okey-dokey, okey-doke; Brit. informal righto, righty-ho; N. Amer. informal surely; old use or formal yea.

– OPPOSITES no.

yes-man noun (informal) sycophant, toady, creep, fawner, flatterer, lickspittle, doormat; informal bootlicker; Brit. informal poodle; N. Amer. informal suck-up.

yet adverb 1 he hasn't made up his mind yet: so far, thus far, as yet, up till/to now, until now. 2 don't celebrate just yet: now, right now, at this time; already, so soon. 3 he was doing nothing, yet he appeared purposeful: nevertheless, nonetheless, even so, but, however, still, notwithstanding, despite that, in spite of that, for all that, all the same, just the same, at the same time, be that as it may; old use nathless. 4 he supplied yet more unsolicited advice: even, still, further, in addition, additionally, besides, into the bargain, to boot.

yield verb 1 too many projects yield poor returns: produce, bear, give, supply, provide, afford, return, bring in, earn, realize, generate, deliver, pay out. 2 the nobility had yielded power to the new capitalist class: relinquish, surrender, cede, remit, part with, hand over; make over, bequeath, leave. 3 the Duke was forced to yield: surrender, capitulate, submit, relent, admit defeat, back down, climb down, give in, give up the struggle, lay down one's arms, raise/show the white flag, throw in the towel/sponge.

4 he yielded to her demands: give in to, give way to, submit to, bow down to, comply with, agree to, consent to, go along with; grant, permit, allow; informal cave in to; formal accede to. 5 the floorboards yielded underfoot: bend, give, give way.
 – OPPOSITES withhold, resist, defy.
 • noun risky investments usually have higher yields: profit, gain, return, dividend, earnings.

job, jobbo noun (Brit. informal). See HOOLIGAN.

yoke noun 1 the horses were loosened from the yoke: harness, collar, coupling. 2 countries struggling under the yoke of imperialism: tyranny, oppression, domination, hegemony, enslavement, servitude, subjugation, subjection, bondage, thrall; bonds, chains, fetters, shackles. 3 the yoke of marriage: bond, tie, connection, link.
 • verb 1 a pair of oxen were yoked together: harness, hitch, couple, tether, fasten, attach, join. 2 their aim of yoking biology and mechanics: unite, join, link, connect; tie, bind, bond.

yokel noun bumpkin, peasant, provincial, rustic, country cousin, countryman/woman; Irish informal culchie; N. Amer. informal hayseed, hillbilly, hick; Austral. informal bushy.

young adjective 1 young people: youthful, juvenile; junior, adolescent, teenage; in the springtime of life, in one's salad days.
2 she's very young for her age: immature, childish, inexperienced, unsophisticated, naive, unworldly; informal wet behind the ears. 3 the young microbrewery industry: fledgling, developing, budding, in its infancy, emerging.

– OPPOSITES old, elderly, mature.

• noun 1 a robin feeding its young: offspring, progeny, family, babies. 2 the young don't care nowadays: young people, children, youngsters, youth, the younger generation, juveniles, minors; informal kids, young 'uns.

youngster noun child, teenager, adolescent, youth, juvenile, minor, junior; boy, girl; Scottish & N. English lass, lassie; informal lad, kid, whippersnapper, young 'un, teen.

youth noun 1 he had been a keen sportsman in his youth: early years, young days, teens, teenage years, adolescence, boyhood, girlhood, childhood; minority; formal juvenescence. 2 she had kept her youth and beauty: youthfulness, freshness, bloom, vigour, energy. 3 local youths: young man, boy, juvenile, teenager, adolescent, junior, minor; informal lad, kid. 4 the youth of the nation: young people, young, younger generation, next generation; informal kids.

– OPPOSITES adulthood, old age.

youthful adjective young-looking, spry, sprightly, vigorous, active; young, boyish, girlish; fresh-faced, in the springtime of life, in one's salad days.

– OPPOSITES old, elderly.

Zz

zany adjective eccentric, peculiar, odd, unconventional, strange, bizarre, weird; mad, crazy, comic, madcap, funny, quirky, idiosyncratic; informal wacky, screwy, nutty, oddball, off the wall; Brit. informal daft; N. Amer. informal kooky, wacko.

– OPPOSITES conventional, sensible.

zap verb (informal) 1 they were zapped by anti-radar missiles. See DESTROY sense 5. 2 racing cars zapped past. See SPEED verb sense 1.

zeal noun passion, ardour, love, fervour, fire, avidity, devotion, enthusiasm, eagerness, keenness, appetite, relish, gusto, vigour, energy, intensity; fanaticism.

– OPPOSITES apathy.

zealot noun fanatic, enthusiast, extremist, radical, Young Turk, diehard, activist, militant; bigot, dogmatist, sectarian, partisan; informal fiend, maniac, ultra, nut.

zealous adjective fervent, ardent, fervid, fanatical, passionate, impassioned, devout, devoted, committed, dedicated, enthusiastic, eager, keen, avid, vigorous, energetic, intense, fierce; literary perfervid.

– OPPOSITES apathetic.

zenith noun highest point, high point, crowning point, height, top, acme, peak, pinnacle, apex, apogee, crown, crest, summit, climax, culmination, prime, meridian.

– OPPOSITES nadir.

zero noun 1 the sum's wrong—you've left off a zero: nought, nothing, nil, o; Computing null character; dated cipher; old use naught. 2 I rated my chances as zero: nothing (at all), nil, none; N. English nowt; informal zilch, nix, sweet Fanny Adams, sweet FA, not a dicky bird; Brit. informal damn all, not a sausage; N. Amer. informal zip, nada, diddly-squat; old use naught, nought.

■ zero in on focus on, focus attention on, centre on, concentrate on, home in on, fix on, pinpoint, highlight, spotlight; informal zoom in on.

zero hour noun the appointed time, the critical moment, the moment of truth, the point/moment of decision, the Rubicon, the crux; informal the crunch.

zest noun 1 she had a great zest for life:

enthusiasm, gusto, relish, appetite, eagerness, keenness, avidity, zeal, fervour, ardour, passion; verve, vigour, liveliness, sparkle, fire, animation, vitality, dynamism, energy, brio, pep, spirit, exuberance, high spirits; informal zing, zip, oomph, vim, pizzazz, get-up-and-go. 2 he wanted to add some zest to his life: piquancy, tang, flavour, savour, taste, spice, spiciness, relish, bite; excitement, interest, an edge; informal kick, punch, zing, oomph. 3 the zest of an orange: rind, peel, skin.

– OPPOSITES apathy, indifference, blandness.

zigzag adjective twisting, twisty, full of twists and turns, serpentine, meandering, snaking, snaky, winding, crooked.

– OPPOSITES straight.

zing noun (informal). See ZEST sense 1.

zip (informal) noun he's full of zip. See ENERGY.

• verb I zipped back along the M20. See SPEED verb sense 1.

zone noun area, sector, section, belt, stretch, region, territory, district, quarter, precinct, locality, neighbourhood, province.

zoom verb (informal). See SPEED verb sense 1.

Also available:

Concise Oxford English Dictionary
The world's best-selling concise dictionary 9780199548415

The Concise Oxford English Dictionary is available on CD-ROM for easy lookup on your computer. This best-selling dictionary is also available in a variety of other electronic formats, so that you have access to the dictionary wherever you are. For more information on Oxford dictionaries visit:

www.oup.com

Concise Oxford Thesaurus

Third edition

- ◆ Choose the right word with the most useful synonyms given first and thousands of example sentences
- ◆ Access the information you need quickly with new, clear design
- ◆ Discover more and find the word on the tip of your tongue with unique Word Link features
- ◆ Broaden your vocabulary and get quick answers to word puzzles and crosswords with a new centre section of thematic lists

300,000 synonyms and antonyms

500 Word Links

Powered by Oxford Corpus

OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS

www.oup.com

Our dictionary entries are powered by the Oxford English Corpus, part of the largest language research project in the world. Containing more than two billion words, collected daily from sources ranging from novels and newspapers to chat rooms and blogs, the Oxford English Corpus means that Oxford dictionaries empower you with the most authoritative and up-to-date information on the English language.

Find out more at: www.askoxford.com/oec ISBN 978-0-19-921513-3

9 780199 215133

£20.00 RRP $44.95 CAN