2nd. The more usual names of some countries, as of Ararat [or Armenia] in Genesis viii. 4; and of some persons, as of Ahasuerus [or Xerxes I.], Esther i. 1.

3rd. The translation of some proper names, when the argument rests upon their meaning; as in the case of Moses [or Raise up], Exod. ii. 10, and Isaiah lxiii. 11; and of Job [or the Persecuted], Job i. 1.

4th. The name of the speaker, as in Solomon's Song; or the name of the person spoken to, as in Psalm xlv.; or of the person spoken of, as in Daniel xi.

5th. The value of the Hebrew weights and measures, not with scientific exactness, but sufficiently so to explain the narrative, as a Shekel [or half ounce], an Ephah [or bushel].

6th. The chapter and verse of a former Book, when a reference is made to it in one of the later Books, as in Joshua viii. 31, xiv. 2, Nehemiah vii. 5.

And lastly, the Dates. These, in the earlier Books, are counted forward from the creation of Adam, by the age of each patriarch at the birth of his son; and they are marked A.M., as in Genesis v. vii. xi. xii., thus shewing the chronology accepted by the Hebrew writers. In the later Books, the dates are counted backward from the Christian era by the help of the eclipse in the fifth year of Nabopolassar's reign, and they are marked B.C., as in 1 Chron. iii. The two series of dates meet in the fourth year of Solomon's reign, in 1 Kings vi. 1.

In Page 600 the Books of the New Testament are set forth in the order in which they were probably written; in Page 766 is an Attempted Chronology of such portions of the Hebrew Scriptures as seem to declare their date; and in Page 768 is a table of the Chronology of Christ's Ministry.

This volume contains the fourth edition of the Hebrew Scriptures and the eighth of the New Covenant [or Testament].

THE BOOK OF GENESIS.

1 IN THE BEGINNING God created the heavens and the earth. ² And the earth was without form and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the breath of God moved upon the face of the waters.

³ And God said, 'Let there be light.' And there was light. ⁴ And God saw the light, that it was good. And God divided the light from the darkness. ⁵ And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning the first day.

⁶ And God said, 'Let there be a firmament in the middle of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.' ⁷ And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament. And it was so. ⁸ And God called the firmament the Heavens. And there was evening and there was morning the second day.

⁹ And God said, 'Let the waters under the heavens be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear.' And it was so. ¹⁰ And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he the Ocean. And God saw that it was good. ¹¹ And God said, 'Let the earth bring forth plants, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit after its kind, whose seed shall be within it, upon the earth.' And it was so. ¹² And the earth sent forth plants, the herb yielding seed after its kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was within it, after its kind. And God saw that it was good. ¹³ And there was evening and there was morning the third day.

¹⁴ And God said, 'Let there be Lights in the firmament of the heavens to divide between the day and the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days and years. ¹⁵ And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heavens to give light upon the earth.' And it was so. ¹⁶ And God made the two Great Lights; the greater Light to rule the day, and the lesser Light to rule the night. He made the stars also. ¹⁷ And God set them in the firmament of the heavens to give light upon the earth, ¹⁸ and to rule over the day and over the night and to divide the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good. ¹⁹ And there was evening and there was morning the fourth day.

that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged fowl after its kind. And God saw that it was good. ²² And God blessed them, saying, 'Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the ocean, and let the fowls multiply on the earth.' ²³ And there was evening and there was morning the fifth day.

²⁴ And God said, 'Let the earth bring forth the living creature after its kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and wild beast of the earth after its kind.' And it was so. ²⁵ And God made the wild beast of the earth after its kind, and cattle after their kind, and everything that creepeth upon the ground after its kind. And God saw that it was good. ²⁶ And God said, 'Let us make Man in our image, after our likeness. And let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowls of the heavens, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.' ²⁷ So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them. ²⁸ And God blessed them, and God said to them, 'Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the earth, and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowls of the heavens, and over every living thing that creepeth upon the earth.' ²⁹ And God said, 'Behold, I have given to you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; to you it shall be for food. ³⁰ And to every wild beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the heavens, and to everything that creepeth upon the earth, wherein there is a living soul, every green herb have I given for food.' And it was so. ³¹ And God saw everything that he had made, and, behold, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning the sixth day.

2 Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them. ² And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made. ³ And God blessed the seventh day, and made it holy; because that in it he had rested from all his work which God had created to be made.

4 THIS IS THE BIRTH-BOOK of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that Jehovah God made the earth and the heavens. ⁵ And every plant of the field was not yet on the earth, and every herb of the field was not yet growing; for Jehovah God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was not a man to till the ground. ⁶ But there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground. ⁷ And Jehovah God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and the man became a living soul.

⁸ And Jehovah God planted a garden in Eden, in the East; and there he put the man whom he had formed. ⁹ And out of the ground made Jehovah God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight and good for food; the Tree of Life also in the midst of the garden, and the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil.

¹⁰ And a river went out of Eden to water the garden; and from thence it was parted, and became four heads. ¹¹ The name of the first is the Pison; that is it which goeth round the whole land of Havilah [or Arabia], where there is gold. ¹² And the gold of that land is good; there are pearls and the onyx stone. ¹³ And the name of the second river is the Gihon; the same is it that goeth round the whole land of Cush [or Ethiopia]. ¹⁴ And the name of the third river is the Hiddekel [or the Tigris]; that is it which goeth toward the east of Assyria. And the fourth river is the Euphrates.

¹⁸ And Jehovah God said, 'It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a help meet for him.' ¹⁹ And out of the ground Jehovah God formed every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air; and brought it to the man [or Adam] to see what he would call it. And whatsoever Adam called a living creature, that was its name. ²⁰ And Adam gave names to all cattle, and to the fowls of the air, and to every wild beast of the field; but for Adam there was not found a help meet for him.

²¹ And Jehovah God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept. And he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof. ²² And the rib, which Jehovah God had taken from man, he formed into a woman, and brought her to the man. ²³ And Adam said, 'This was for the time a bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh. She shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man.' ²⁴ Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave to his wife; and they shall be one flesh. ²⁵ And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

³ Now the serpent was more subtil than any wild beast of the field which Jehovah God had made. And he said to the woman, 'Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the 'garden?' ² And the woman said to the serpent, 'We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden; ³ but of the fruit of the tree which is in the middle of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die.' ⁴ And the serpent said to the woman, 'Ye shall not surely die. ⁵ For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes will be opened, and ye will be as gods, knowing good and evil.' ⁶ And the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, and she took some of its fruit, and did eat, and gave also to her husband with her. And he did eat. ⁷ And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked. And they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons. ⁸ And they heard the voice of Jehovah God walking about in the garden in the cool of the day. And Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of Jehovah God amongst the trees of the garden.

⁹ And Jehovah God called to Adam, and said to him, 'Where art thou?' ¹⁰ And he said, 'I heard thy voice in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself.' ¹¹ And he said, 'Who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldest not eat?' ¹² And the man said, 'The woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat.' ¹³ And Jehovah God said to the woman, 'What is this that thou hast done?' And the woman said, 'The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat.' ¹⁴ And Jehovah God said to the serpent, 'Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every wild beast of the field; upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life. ¹⁵ And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall wound thy head, and thou shalt wound his heel.' ¹⁶ To the woman he said, 'I will greatly multiply thy labour and thy conception. With labour thou shalt bring forth children; and thy desire shall be to thy husband, and he shall rule over thee.' ¹⁷ And to Adam he said, 'Because thou hast hearkened to the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree, of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it; cursed is the ground for thy sake; with labour shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life. ¹⁸ Thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth to thee; and thou shalt eat the herb of the field. ¹⁹ In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return to the ground; for out of it wast thou taken. For dust thou art, and to dust shalt thou return.' ²⁰ And Adam called his wife's name Eve [or Life]; because she was the mother of all living.

'become as one of us, to know good and evil. And now, lest he put forth his hand, and take also of the Tree of Life, and eat, and live for ever;' ²³ therefore Jehovah God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to till the ground from whence he was taken. ²⁴ So he drove out the man. And he placed at the east of the garden of Eden the cherubs, and the flaming sword which turneth itself every way, to keep the way to the tree of life.

4 And Adam knew Eve his wife; and she conceived, and bare Cain [for Gotten], and she said, 'I have gotten a man from Jehovah.' ² And again she bare his brother Abel. And Abel was a feeder of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground. ³ And in the fulness of time it came to pass, that Cain brought some of the fruit of the ground an offering to Jehovah. ⁴ And Abel, he also brought of the firstlings of his flock and of the fat thereof. And Jehovah had respect to Abel and to his offering; ⁵ but to Cain and to his offering he had not respect. And Cain was very wroth, and his countenance fell. ⁶ And Jehovah said to Cain, 'Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance fallen? ⁷ If thou doest well, shalt thou not be accepted; and if thou doest not well, sin lieth at the doorway. * * * And unto thee shall be his desire, and thou shalt rule over him.'

⁸ And Cain said to Abel his brother, '* * *'

And it came to pass when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and slew him. ⁹ And Jehovah said to Cain, 'Where is Abel thy brother?' And he said, 'I know not. Am I my brother's keeper?' ¹⁰ And he said, 'What hast thou done? The voice of thy brother's blood crieth to me from the ground. ¹¹ And now art thou cursed from the ground, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brother's blood from thy hand. ¹² When thou tillest the ground, it shall not henceforth yield to thee its strength; a fugitive and a wanderer shalt thou be on the earth.' ¹³ And Cain said to Jehovah, 'My punishment is greater than I can bear. ¹⁴ Behold, thou hast driven me out this day from the face of the land; and from thy face shall I be hid. And I am become a fugitive and a wanderer on the earth. And it will come to pass that every one that findeth me will slay me.' ¹⁵ And Jehovah said to him, 'Therefore whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold.' And Jehovah set a mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should kill him. ¹⁶ And Cain went out from the presence of Jehovah, and dwelt in the land of Wandering, on the east of Eden.

¹⁷ And Cain knew his wife; and she conceived, and bare Enoch. And he builded a city, and called the name of the city, after the name of his son, Enoch.

¹⁸ And unto Enoch was born Irad; and Irad begat Mehujael; and Mehujael begat Methusael; and Methusael begat Lamech.

¹⁹ And Lamech took to him two wives; the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah. ²⁰ And Adah bare Jabal; he was the father of such as dwell in tents, and have cattle. ²¹ And his brother's name was Jubal; he was the father of all such as handle the harp and the pipe. ²² And Zillah, she also bare Tubal-cain, a sharpener of every tool of copper and iron. And the sister of Tubal-cain was Naamah. ²³ And Lamech said to his wives, 'Adah and Zillah, hear ye my voice; Ye wives of Lamech, hearken to my speech; For I have slain a man to mine own wounding, And a child to mine own hurt. ²⁴ If Cain shall be avenged [or punished] sevenfold, Truly Lamech seventy and sevenfold.'

²⁵ (And Adam knew his wife again; and she bare a son, and she called his name Seth [or Appointed]. 'For God' [said she] 'hath appointed me another seed instead of Abel, for Cain slew him.' ²⁶ And to Seth, to him also there was born a son, and he called his name Enos.) Then began men to call upon the name of Jehovah.

5 THIS IS THE BOOK OF THE BIRTHS OF MAN [OR ADAM]. In the day that God created man, in the likeness of God made he him; ² male and female created he them; and he blessed them, and called their name Adam, in the day when they were created. ³ And Adam lived a hundred and thirty years, and begat a son in his own likeness, after his image [A.M. 130]; and called his name Seth. ⁴ And the days of Adam after he had begotten Seth were eight hundred years; and he begat sons and daughters. ⁵ And all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirty years; and he died.

⁶ And Seth lived a hundred and five years, and begat Enos [A.M. 235]. ⁷ And Seth lived after he begat Enos eight hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters. ⁸ And all the days of Seth were nine hundred and twelve years; and he died.

⁹ And Enos lived ninety years, and begat Cainan [A.M. 325]. ¹⁰ And Enos lived after he begat Cainan eight hundred and fifteen years, and begat sons and daughters. ¹¹ And all the days of Enos were nine hundred and five years; and he died.

¹² And Cainan lived seventy years, and begat Mahalaleel [A.M. 395]. ¹³ And Cainan lived after he begat Mahalaleel eight hundred and forty years, and begat sons and daughters. ¹⁴ And all the days of Cainan were nine hundred and ten years; and he died.

¹⁵ And Mahalaleel lived sixty and five years, and begat Jared [A.M. 460]. ¹⁶ And Mahalaleel lived after he begat Jared eight hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters. ¹⁷ And all the days of Mahalaleel were eight hundred ninety and five years; and he died.

¹⁸ And Jared lived a hundred sixty and two years, and he begat Enoch [A.M. 622]. ¹⁹ And Jared lived after he begat Enoch eight hundred years, and begat sons and daughters. ²⁰ And all the days of Jared were nine hundred sixty and two years; and he died.

²¹ And Enoch lived sixty and five years, and begat Methuselah [A.M. 687]. ²² And Enoch walked with God after he begat Methuselah three hundred years, and begat sons and daughters. ²³ And all the days of Enoch were three hundred sixty and five years. ²⁴ And Enoch walked with God; and he was not; for God took him.

²⁵ And Methuselah lived a hundred eighty and seven years, and begat Lamech [A.M. 874]. ²⁶ And Methuselah lived after he begat Lamech seven hundred eighty and two years, and begat sons and daughters. ²⁷ And all the days of Methuselah were nine hundred sixty and nine years; and he died.

²⁸ And Lamech lived a hundred eighty and two years, and begat a son [A.M. 1056]. ²⁹ And he called his name Noah [or Rest], saying, 'This same shall comfort us concerning our work and the labour of our hands, because of the ground which Jehovah hath cursed.' ³⁰ And Lamech lived after he begat Noah five hundred ninety and five years, and begat sons and daughters. ³¹ And all the days of Lamech were seven hundred seventy and seven years; and he died.

³² And Noah was five hundred years old [A.M. 1556]; and Noah begat Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

6 And it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them, ² that the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took to themselves wives of all whom they chose. ³ And Jehovah said, 'My spirit shall not always strive with man for their sins; he is flesh; and his days shall be a hundred and twenty years.' ⁴ (There were giants [or Fallen ones] on the earth in those days.) And also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became the mighty men who were of old, men of name. ⁵ And Jehovah saw that the wickedness of man was great on the earth, and that every fashion of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. ⁶ And it repented Jehovah that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart. ⁷ And Jehovah said, 'I will blot out man whom I have created from the face of the earth; both man, and beast, and the creeping things, and the fowls of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them.' ⁸ But Noah found grace in the eyes of Jehovah.

⁹ This is THE BIRTH-BOOK OF NOAH. Noah was a just man, perfect in his generation. Noah walked with God. ¹⁰ And Noah begat three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth. ¹¹ The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence. ¹² And God looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted its way upon the earth. ¹³ And God said to Noah, 'The end of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is filled with violence through them; and, behold, I will destroy them with the earth.' ¹⁴ Make thee 'an ark of turpentine trees. Rooms shalt thou 'make in the ark, and shalt pitch it within and 'without with pitch. ¹⁵ And this is how thou shalt 'make it. The length of the ark shall be three 'hundred cubits, the breadth of it fifty cubits, and 'the height of it thirty cubits. ¹⁶ A window shalt 'thou make to the ark, and in a cubit shalt thou 'finish it above; and the door of the ark shalt thou 'set in the side thereof; rooms on the lower, second 'and third floors shalt thou make. ¹⁷ And behold, 'I, even I, will bring a Flood of waters upon the 'earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath 'of life, from under the heavens; and every thing 'that is on the earth shall perish. ¹⁸ But with thee 'will I establish my covenant; and thou shalt come 'into the ark, thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, 'and thy sons' wives with thee. ¹⁹ And of every 'living thing of all flesh, two of each shalt thou 'bring into the ark, to keep them alive with thee; 'they shall be male and female. ²⁰ Of fowls after 'their kind, and of cattle after their kind, of every 'creeping thing of the earth after its kind, two of 'each shall come unto thee to be kept alive. ²¹ And 'take thou to thee some of all food that is eaten, 'and thou shalt gather it to thee; and it shall be for 'food for thee, and for them.' ²² Thus did Noah; according to all that God commanded him, so did he.

7 And Jehovah said to Noah, 'Come thou and 'all thy house into the ark; for thee have I seen 'righteous before me in this generation.' ² Of 'every clean beast thou shalt take to thee by 'sevens, the male and its female; and of beasts 'that are not clean, two, the male and its female. ³ Of fowls also of the air by sevens, the male and 'the female; to keep seed alive upon the face of 'all the earth. ⁴ For after seven days, I will cause 'it to rain upon the earth for forty days and forty 'nights; and every living substance that I have 'made will I blot out from off the face of the 'earth.' ⁵ And Noah did according to all that Jehovah commanded him.

¹¹ In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on that day were all the fountains of the great deep broken open, and the windows of the heavens were opened. ¹² And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights. ¹³ In the course of that day entered Noah, and Shem, and Ham, and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them into the ark; ¹⁴ they, and every wild beast after its kind, and all the cattle after their kind, and every creeping thing that creepeth on the earth after its kind, and every fowl after its kind, every bird, every thing with wings. ¹⁵ And they went in unto Noah into the ark, two and two of all flesh, wherein is the breath of life. ¹⁶ And they that went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him. And Jehovah shut him in.

¹⁷ And the Flood was forty days upon the earth; and the waters increased, and bare up the ark, and it was lifted up above the earth. ¹⁸ And the waters prevailed, and were increased greatly upon the earth, and the ark went upon the face of the waters. ¹⁹ And when the waters had prevailed very greatly upon the earth, all the high mountains, that were under the whole heavens, were covered. ²⁰ Fifteen cubits upward did the waters prevail; and the mountains were covered. ²¹ And all flesh perished that moved upon the earth, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of wild beast, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, and every man; ²² all that breathed the spirit of life in their nostrils, of all that was on the dry land, died. ²³ And every living substance was wiped out which was upon the face of the ground, both man, and cattle, and the creeping things, and the fowl of the heavens; and they were wiped off from the earth; and Noah only remained, and they that were with him in the ark. ²⁴ And the waters prevailed upon the earth a hundred and fifty days.

⁸ Then God remembered Noah, and every living thing, and all the cattle that was with him in the ark. And God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters were assuaged. ² The fountains also of the deep and the windows of the heavens were stopped, and the rain from the heavens was restrained. ³ And the waters returned from off the earth gradually; and after the end of the hundred and fifty days the waters decreased. ⁴ And the ark rested in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, upon the mountains of Ararat [or Armenia]. ⁵ And the waters went on decreasing until the tenth month. In the tenth month, on the first day of the month, were the tops of the mountains seen.

⁶ And it came to pass at the end of forty days, that Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made; ⁷ and he sent forth a raven, which went forth, going and returning until the waters were dried up from off the earth. ⁸ Also he sent forth a dove from him, to see whether the waters were abated from off the face of the ground; ⁹ but the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned to him into the ark, for the waters were on the face of the whole earth. Then he put forth his hand, and took her, and brought her in to him into the ark. ¹⁰ And he stayed yet other seven days; and again he sent forth the dove out of the ark, ¹¹ and the dove came in to him at the time of the evening; and, lo, in her mouth was an olive leaf plucked off. So Noah knew that the waters were abated from off the earth. ¹² And he stayed yet other seven days; and sent forth the dove; and it returned not again to him any more.

¹³ And it came to pass in the six hundredth and first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from off the earth. And Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and, behold, the face of the ground was dry. ¹⁴ And in the second month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, the earth was dried. ¹⁵ And God spake to Noah, saying, ¹⁶ 'Go forth out of the ark, thou, and thy wife, and thy sons, and thy sons' wives with thee. ¹⁷ Bring forth with thee every living thing that is with thee, of all flesh, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of every creeping thing that creepeth on the earth; that they may breed abundantly on the earth, and be fruitful, and multiply on the earth.' ¹⁸ And Noah went forth, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him. ¹⁹ Every beast, every creeping thing, and every fowl, and whatsoever creepeth on the earth, after their families, went forth out of the ark.

²⁰ And Noah builded an altar to Jehovah; and took of every clean beast, and of every clean fowl, and offered burnt offerings on the altar. ²¹ And Jehovah smelled the sweet smell; and Jehovah said in his heart, 'I will not again curse the ground any more because of man; although the fashion of man's heart is evil from his youth; neither will I again smite any more every thing living as I have done. ²² During all the days of the earth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease.'

⁹ And God blessed Noah and his sons, and said to them, 'Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the earth. ² And the fear of you and the dread of you shall be upon every beast of the earth, and upon every fowl of the air, upon all that creepeth on the ground, and upon all the fishes of the sea; into your hand are they delivered. ³ Every moving thing that liveth shall be food for you; even as the green herb have I given you all. ⁴ But flesh with its life, that is, its blood, shall ye not eat. ⁵ And surely your blood of your lives will I require; at the hand of every wild beast will I require it, and at the hand of man; at the hand of every man's brother will I require the life of man. ⁶ Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed' (for in the image of God he had made man). ⁷ And you, be ye fruitful, and multiply; bring forth abundantly on the earth, and multiply thereon.'

⁸ And God spake to Noah, and to his sons with him, saying, ⁹ 'And I, behold, I will establish my covenant with you, and with your seed after you; ¹⁰ and with every living creature that is with you; of the fowl, of the cattle, and of every wild beast of the earth with you; from all that go out of the ark, to every wild beast of the earth. ¹¹ And I have established my covenant with you; neither shall all flesh be cut off any more by the waters of a Flood; neither shall there any more be a Flood to destroy the earth.' ¹² And God said, 'This is the token of the covenant which I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for generations for ever. ¹³ I have set my Bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a token of a covenant between me and the earth. ¹⁴ And it shall come to pass, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the Bow shall be seen in the cloud. ¹⁵ And I will remember my covenant, which is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and the waters shall no more become a Flood to destroy all flesh. ¹⁶ And the Bow shall be in the cloud; and I will look upon it, that I may remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is upon the earth.' ¹⁷ And God said to Noah, 'This is the token of the covenant which I have established between me and all flesh that is on the earth.' ¹⁸ And the sons of Noah, that went forth of the ark, were Shem, and Ham, and Japheth; and Ham is the father of Canaan. ¹⁹ These are the three sons of Noah, and of them was the whole earth overspread.

²⁰ And Noah was the first to be a husbandman. And he planted a vineyard, ²¹ and he drank of the wine and was drunken. And he was uncovered within his tent. ²² And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brethren who were without. ²³ And Shem and Japheth took a cloak and laid it on both their shoulders, and walked backward, and covered the nakedness of their father. And their faces were backward, and they saw not their father's nakedness. ²⁴ And Noah awoke from his wine, and knew what his younger son had done to him. ²⁵ And he said,

'Cursed be Canaan;

'A servant of servants shall he be to his brethren.'

²⁶ And he said,

'Blessed be Jehovah, the God of Shem;

'And Canaan shall be his servant [B.C. 1000].

²⁷ God will enlarge Japheth,

'And he shall dwell in the tents of Shem [B.C. 300];

'And Canaan shall be his servant.'

²⁸ And Noah lived after the Flood three hundred and fifty years. And all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years; and he died.

10 Now this is the BIRTH-BOOK OF THE SONS OF

NOAH, Shem, Ham, and Japheth. And unto them, were sons born after the Flood. ² The sons of JAPHETH; Gomer [or the Cimmerians], and Magog [or the Scythians], and Madai [or the Medes], and Javan [or the Ionians], and Tubal [or the Tibareni], and Meshech [or the Moschi], and Tiras [or the Thracians].

³ And the sons of Gomer; Ashkenaz, and Rip-hath, and Togarmah [parts of Armenia].

⁶ And the sons of HAM; Cush [or Ethiopia], and Mizraim [or Lower Egypt], and Phut [or North Africa], and Canaan. ⁷ And the sons of Cush; Seba [or Nubia], and Havilah, and Sabtah, and Raamah, and Sabtechah [parts of Arabia].

And the sons of Raamah; Sheba, and Dedan.

⁸ And Cush begat Nimrod. He was the first to be a mighty one on the earth. ⁹ He was a mighty hunter before Jehovah; therefore it is said, 'Even as Nimrod the mighty hunter before Jehovah.'

¹⁰ And the chief city of his kingdom was Babel [or Babylon], and Erech, and Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar [or Babylonia]. ¹¹ Out of that land went forth Asshur [or the Assyrians], and builded Nineveh, and the city Rehoboth, and Calah, ¹² and Resen between Nineveh and Calah; the same is the great city.

¹⁵ And Canaan begat Sidon his first-born, and Heth [or the Hittites], ¹⁶ and the Jebusites, and the Amorites, and the Girgasites, ¹⁷ and the Hivites, and the Arkites, and the Sinites, ¹⁸ and the Arvadites, and the Zemarites, and the Hamathites. And afterwards were the families of the Canaanites spread abroad. ¹⁹ And the boundary of the Canaanites was from Sidon as thou comest to Gerar, unto Gaza as thou comest to Sodom, and Gomorrah, and Admah, and Zebiiim, even unto Lasha.

²⁰ These are the sons of Ham, by their families, by their tongues, in their countries, and in their nations.

²¹ Unto Shem also were children born. He was the father of all the children of Eber, and the elder brother of Japheth.

²² The sons of SHEM; Elam [or Western Persia], and Asshur [or the Assyrians], and Arpachshad [or the Chaldees], and Lud [or the Lydians], and Aram [or the Syrians].

And the sons of Aram; Uz, and Hul, and Gether, and Mesh. ²⁴And Arep-cheshed begat Salah.

And Salah begat Eber [or the Hebrews].

²⁵And unto Eber were born two sons. The name of one was Peleg [or Division]; for in his days was the earth divided; and his brother's name was Joktan.

²⁶And Joktan begat Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hazramaveth [or Hadramout] and Jerah, ²⁷and Hadoram, and Uzal, and Diklah, ²⁸and Obal, and Abimael, and Sheba, ²⁹and Ophir, and Havilah, and Jobab; all these were the sons of Joktan. ³⁰And their dwelling was from Mesha, as thou comest unto Sephar [or Written], the mountain which was of old. ³¹These are the sons of Shem, by their families, by their tongues, in their lands, by their nations.

11 And the whole earth was of one way of speaking, and of one language. ²And it came to pass, as they journeyed eastward, that they found a valley in the land of Shinar; and they dwelt there. ³And they said one to another, 'Go to, let us make bricks and burn them thoroughly.' And they had the bricks for stone, and bitumen had they for mortar. ⁴And they said, 'Go to, let us build us a city and a tower, whose top may be in the heavens. And let us make us a name, lest we be scattered upon the face of the whole earth.' ⁵And Jehovah came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of Adam builded. ⁶And Jehovah said, 'Behold, the people is one, and they have all one way of speaking; and this they begin to do. And now nothing will be restrained from them, which they purpose to do. ⁷Go to, let us go down, and there confound their way of speaking; that they may not understand one another's way of speaking.' ⁸So Jehovah scattered them from thence upon the face of all the earth. And they left off to build the city. ⁹Therefore is the name of it called Babel [or Confusion]; because Jehovah did there confound the way of speaking of all the earth. And from thence did Jehovah scatter them upon the face of all the earth.

¹⁰This is the BIRTH-BOOK OF SHEM. Shem was a hundred years old, and begat Arep-cheshed two years after the Flood [A.M. 1658]. ¹¹And Shem lived after he begat Arep-cheshed five hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.

¹²And Arep-cheshed lived five and thirty years, and begat Salah [A.M. 1693]. ¹³And Arep-cheshed lived after he begat Salah four hundred and three years, and begat sons and daughters.

¹⁴And Salah lived thirty years, and begat Eber [A.M. 1723]. ¹⁵And Salah lived after he begat Eber four hundred and three years, and begat sons and daughters.

¹⁶And Eber lived four and thirty years and begat Peleg [A.M. 1757]. ¹⁷And Eber lived after he begat Peleg four hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters.

¹⁸And Peleg lived thirty years, and begat Ren [A.M. 1787]. ¹⁹And Peleg lived after he begat Ren two hundred and nine years, and begat sons and daughters.

²⁰And Ren lived two and thirty years, and begat Serug [A.M. 1819]. ²¹And Ren lived after he begat Serug two hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters.

²²And Serug lived thirty years and begat Nahor [A.M. 1849]. ²³And Serug lived after he begat Nahor two hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.

²⁴And Nahor lived nine and twenty years, and begat Terah [A.M. 1878]. ²⁵And Nahor lived after he begat Terah a hundred and nineteen years, and begat sons and daughters.

²⁶And Terah lived seventy years, and begat Abram, Nahor, and Haran [A.M. 1948].

27 Now this is the BIRTH-BOOK OF TERAH. Terah begat Abram, Nahor, and Haran; and Haran begat Lot. ²⁸And Haran died before his father Terah in the land of his birth, in Ur of the Chaldees. ²⁹And Abram and Nahor took to themselves wives. The name of Abram's wife was Sarai; and the name of Nahor's wife, Milcah, the daughter of Haran, the father of Milcah, and the father of Iscah. ³⁰And Sarai was barren; she had no child. ³¹And Terah took Abram his son, and Lot the son of Haran his son's son, and Sarai his daughter in law, his son Abram's wife; and they went forth with them from Ur of the Chaldees, to go into the land of Canaan. And they came to Haran, and dwelt there. ³²And the days of Terah were two hundred and five years; and Terah died in Haran.

12 Now Jehovah had said to Abram, 'Get thee out of thy country, and from thy birthplace, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee. ²And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing. ³And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee; and in thee shall all families of the earth bless themselves.' ⁴So Abram departed, as Jehovah had spoken to him; and Lot went with him. And Abram was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Haran [A.M. 2023]. ⁵And Abram took Sarai his wife, and Lot his brother's son, and all their substance that they had gathered, and the souls [or slaves] that they had gotten in Haran; and they went forth to go to the land of Canaan; and they came to the land of Canaan.

⁶And Abram passed over [the Jordan] into the land, to the place of Shechem, to the oak of Moreh. And the Canaanites were then in the land. ⁷And Jehovah appeared to Abram and said, 'Unto thy seed will I give this land.' And there builded he an altar to Jehovah, who had appeared to him.

⁸And he removed on from thence to a mountain on the east of Beth-el, and he pitched his tent, having Beth-el on the west, and Ai on the east. And there he builded an altar to Jehovah, and called on the name of Jehovah.

⁹ And Abram journeyed, going on and journeying towards the South country. ¹⁰ And there was a famine in the land, and Abram went down into Lower Egypt to sojourn there; for the famine was grievous in the land. ¹¹ And it came to pass, when he was come near to enter into Lower Egypt, that he said to Sarai his wife, 'Behold now, I know that thou art a fair woman to look upon. ¹² Therefore it will come to pass, when the Egyptians shall see thee, that they will say, This is his wife; and they will kill me, but they will save thee alive. ¹³ Say, I pray thee, thou art my sister; so that it may be well with me for thy sake; and my soul shall live because of thee.'

¹⁴ And it came to pass, that, when Abram was come into Lower Egypt, the Egyptians beheld the woman that she was very fair. ¹⁵ The princes also of Pharaoh [for The King] saw her, and praised her to Pharaoh. And the woman was taken into Pharaoh's house. ¹⁶ And he treated Abram well for her sake. And he had sheep, and oxen, and he asses, and men-servants, and maid-servants, and she asses, and camels. ¹⁷ And Jehovah plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai, Abram's wife. ¹⁸ And Pharaoh called to Abram, and said, 'What is this that thou hast done to me? Why didst thou not tell me that she was thy wife? ¹⁹ Why saidst thou, She is my sister? so that I took her to me to wife. Now therefore behold thy wife, take her, and go.' ²⁰ And Pharaoh commanded his men concerning him. And they sent him away, and his wife, and all that he had.

¹³ And Abram went up out of Egypt, he, and his wife, and all that he had, and Lot with him, into the South country [of Canaan]. ² And Abram was very rich in cattle, in silver, and in gold. ³ And he went on his journeys from the South country even to Beth-el, to the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Beth-el and Ai; ⁴ to the place of the altar, which he had made there at the first; and there Abram called on the name of Jehovah.

⁵ And Lot also, who went with Abram, had flocks, and herds, and tents. ⁶ And the land was not able to bear them, that they might dwell together; for their substance was great, so that they could not dwell together. ⁷ And there was a strife between the herdmen of Abram's cattle and the herdmen of Lot's cattle. And the Canaanites and the Perizzites dwelled then in the land. ⁸ And Abram said to Lot, 'Let there be no strife, I pray thee, between me and thee, and between my herdmen and thy herdmen; for we are brethren. ⁹ Is not the whole land before thee? Separate thyself, I pray thee, from me. If to the left hand, then I will go to the right; or if to the right hand, then I will go to the left.' ¹⁰ And Lot lifted up his eyes, and beheld all the Circle of the Jordan

¹⁴ And Jehovah said to Abram, after that Lot was separated from him, 'Lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art northward, and southward, and eastward, and westward.' ¹⁵ For all the land which thou seest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed for ever. ¹⁶ And I will make thy seed as the dust of the earth; so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy seed also be numbered. ¹⁷ Arise, walk about through the land in the length of it and in the breadth of it; for I will give it unto thee.' ¹⁸ Then Abram removed his tent, and went and dwelt at the Oaks of Mamre, which are in Hebron, and built there an altar unto Jehovah.

¹⁷ And the king of Sodom went out to meet him after his return from the slaughter of Chedorlaomer, and of the kings that were with him, at the Valley of the Plain, which is the King's Valley. ¹⁸ And Melchizedek king of Salem [or Jerusalem] brought forth bread and wine; and he was a priest of God the Most High. ¹⁹ And he blessed him and said, 'Blessed be Abram of God the Most High, possessor of heaven and earth; ²⁰ and blessed be God the Most High, who hath delivered up thine enemies unto thy hand.' And he [Abram] gave him tithes of all. ²¹ Then the king of Sodom said to Abram, 'Give me the souls [or slaves], and take the goods to thyself.' ²² And Abram said to the king of Sodom, 'I have lifted up my hand [in oath] to Jehovah God the Most High, the possessor of heaven and earth, ²³ that not a thread, not even a shoe-tie, not any thing that is thine will I take, lest thou shouldst say, I have made Abram rich; ²⁴ save only that which the young men have eaten, and the portion for the men who went with me, Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre; let them take their portion.'

¹⁵ After these things the word of Jehovah came to Abram in a vision, saying, 'Fear not, Abram; I am thy shield, thy reward shall be very great.' ² And Abram said, 'O Lord Jehovah, why shouldst thou give to me, seeing I go childless, and the possessor of my house will be this Eliezer of Damascus?' ³ And Abram said, 'Behold, to me thou hast given no seed; and lo, one born in my house will possess after me.' ⁴ And, behold, the word of Jehovah came to him, saying, 'This one shall not possess after thee; but he that shall come forth out of thine own bowels shall possess after thee.' ⁵ And he brought him forth abroad, and said, 'Look now toward the heavens, and number the stars, if thou be able to number them.' And he said to him, 'So shall thy seed be.' ⁶ And he believed in Jehovah; and he counted it to him for righteousness. ⁷ And he said to him, I am Jehovah who brought thee out from Ur of the Chaldees, to give to thee this land to possess it.' ⁸ And he said, 'O Lord Jehovah, whereby shall I know that I shall possess it?' ⁹ And he said to him, 'Take for me a heifer of three years old, and a she goat of three years old, and a ram of three years old, and a turtle-dove, and a young pigeon.' ¹⁰ And he took to him all these, and divided them each through the middle, and laid the pieces each against its fellow; but the birds divided he not. ¹¹ And when the birds of prey came down upon the carcasses, Abram drove them away. ¹² And when the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram; and lo, a fearful great darkness fell upon him. ¹³ And he said to Abram, 'Know of a surety that thy seed shall be a stranger in a land that is not theirs, and shall serve them; and they shall afflict them for four hundred years. ¹⁴ And also that nation, whom they shall serve, will I do justice on; and afterward shall they come out with great substance. ¹⁵ But thou shalt go to thy fathers in peace; thou shalt be buried in a good old age. ¹⁶ And the fourth generation shall come hither again; for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full.' ¹⁷ And it came to pass, that, when the sun went down, and it was dark, behold a smoking furnace, and a torch of fire that passed between those separated pieces. ¹⁸ In that day Jehovah made a covenant with Abram, saying, 'To thy seed have I given this land, from the river of Egypt unto the great river, the river Euphrates; ¹⁹ the Kenites, and the Kenizzites, and the Kadmonites, ²⁰ and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Rephaites, ²¹ and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Girgashites, and the Jebusites.'

¹⁶ Now Sarai Abram's wife bare him no children; and she had a handmaid, an Egyptian, whose name was Hagar [or Flight]. ² And Sarai said to Abram, 'Behold now, Jehovah hath restrained me from bearing. I pray thee, go in unto my handmaid; it may be that I may be builded up by her.' And Abram hearkened to the voice of Sarai. ³ And Sarai Abram's wife took Hagar her handmaid the Egyptian, after Abram had dwelt ten years in the land of Canaan, and gave her to her husband Abram to be his wife. ⁴ And he went in unto Hagar, and she conceived. And when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was despised in her eyes. ⁵ And Sarai said to Abram, 'My wrong be upon thee. I gave my handmaid unto thy bosom; and she sees that she hath conceived, and I am despised in her eyes. May Jehovah judge between me and thee.' ⁶ But Abram said to Sarai, 'Behold, thy handmaid is in thy hand; do to her as it pleaseth thee.' And when Sarai dealt hardly with her, she fled from her face.

⁷ And the angel of Jehovah found her by a fountain of water in the desert, by the fountain in the way to Shur [or Pelusium]. ⁸ And he said, 'Hagar, Sarai's handmaid, whence camest thou?' And whither art thou going? And she said, 'I am fleeing from the face of my mistress Sarai.' ⁹ And the angel of Jehovah said to her, 'Return to thy mistress, and submit thyself under her hands.' ¹⁰ And the angel of Jehovah said to her, 'I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be numbered for multitude.' ¹¹ And the angel of Jehovah said to her, 'Behold, thou art with child, and shalt bear a son, and shalt call his name Ishmael [or God heareth]; because Jehovah hath heard thy affliction. ¹² And he will be like a wild ass; his hand will be against every man; and every man's hand against him; and he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren.' ¹³ And she called on the name of Jehovah that spake to her [saying], 'Thou God hast been seen by me; for she said, 'Do I then here see after my vision?' ¹⁴ Therefore the well was called the Well Lehi-roi [of the Living-one, my vision]. Behold, it is between Kadesh and Bered. ¹⁵ And Hagar bare Abram a son; and Abram called his son's name, whom Hagar bare, Ishmael. ¹⁶ And Abram was eighty and six years old, when Hagar bare Ishmael to Abram.

¹⁷ And when Abram was ninety years old and nine, Jehovah appeared to Abram, and said to him, 'I am God Almighty; walk before me, and be thou perfect. ² And I will make my covenant between me and thee, and will multiply thee very greatly.' ³ And Abram fell on his face. And God talked with him, saying, ⁴ 'It is I; behold, my covenant is with thee, and thou shalt be a father of a multitude of nations. ⁵ Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram [Father-tall], but thy name shall be Abraham [Father-many]; for a father of a multitude of nations have I made thee. ⁶ And I will make thee very very fruitful, and I will make thee to become nations, and kings shall come out of thee. ⁷ And I will establish my covenant between me and thee and thy seed after thee in their generations for an everlasting covenant, to be a God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee. ⁸ And I will give to thee, and to thy seed after thee, the land of thy pilgrimage; all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession; and I will be their God.'

⁹ And God said to Abraham, 'Thou shalt keep my covenant therefore, thou, and thy seed after thee in their generations. ¹⁰ This is my covenant, which ye shall keep, between me and you and thy seed after thee; Every male among you shall be circumcised. ¹¹ And ye shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin; and it shall be for a token of the covenant betwixt me and you. ¹² And he that is eight days old shall be circumcised among you, every male in your generations, he that is born in the house, and he that is bought with money from any son of a foreigner, who is not of thy seed. ¹³ He that is born in thy house, and he that is bought with thy money, must needs be circumcised; and my covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant. ¹⁴ And the uncircumcised male whose flesh of his foreskin is not circumcised, that soul shall be cut off from his people; he hath broken my covenant.'

¹⁵ And God said to Abraham, 'As for Sarai thy wife, thou shalt not call her name Sarai, but Sarah [or Princess] shall her name be. ¹⁶ And I will bless her, and give to thee a son also of her.

'Ye, I will bless her, and she shall become nations; kings of peoples shall be of her.' ¹⁷ Then Abraham fell on his face, and laughed, and said in his heart, 'Shall a child be born to him that is a hundred years old? And shall Sarah, that is ninety years old, bear?' ¹⁸ And Abraham said to God, 'O that Ishmael might live in thy presence!' ¹⁹ And God said, 'In truth Sarah thy wife shall bear to thee a son; and thou shalt call his name Isaac [or He Laughed]. And I will establish my covenant with him to be an everlasting covenant with his seed after him. ²⁰ And as for Ishmael, I have heard thee. Behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him very greatly; twelve princes shall he beget, and I will make him a great nation. ²¹ But my covenant will I establish with Isaac, whom Sarah shall bear to thee at this set time in the next year.' ²² And he left off talking with him, and God went up from Abraham.

²³ And Abraham took Ishmael his son, and all that were born in his house, and all that were bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham's house; and circumcised the flesh of their foreskin in the course of that day, as God had said to him. ²⁴ And Abraham was ninety years old and nine, when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. ²⁵ And Ishmael his son was thirteen years old, when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. ²⁶ In the course of that day was Abraham circumcised, and Ishmael his son. ²⁷ And all the men of his house, those born in the house, and those bought with money from the son of the foreigner, were circumcised with him.

¹⁸ And Jehovah appeared to him at the Oaks of Mamre. And he was sitting in the doorway of the tent in the heat of the day. ² And he lifted up his eyes and looked, and, lo, three men stood by him. And when he saw them, he ran to meet them from the doorway of the tent, and bowed himself toward the ground, ³ and said, 'My lord, if now I have found favour in thy sight, pass not away, I pray, from thy servant. ⁴ Let a little water, I pray you, be fetched, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree. ⁵ And I will fetch a morsel of bread, and comfort ye your hearts. ⁶ After that ye shall pass on. For therefore are ye come to your servant.' And they said, 'So do, as thou hast said.' ⁷ And Abraham hastened into the tent to Sarah, and said, 'Make ready quickly three Seahs [or a bushel] of fine meal, knead it, and make hearth-cakes.' ⁸ And Abraham ran to the herd, and fetched a calf tender and good, and gave it to a young man; and he hastened to dress it. ⁹ And he took curds, and milk, and the calf which he had dressed, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree, and they did eat. ¹⁰ And they said to him, 'Where is Sarah thy wife?' And he said, 'Behold, in the tent.' ¹¹ And he said, 'I will certainly return to thee according to the time of life; and, lo, Sarah thy wife shall have a 'son.' And Sarah heard it in the doorway of the tent, which was behind him. ²¹ Now Abraham and Sarah were old and advanced in years; it had ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women. ²² Therefore Sarah laughed within herself, saying, 'After I am worn out shall I have pleasure, my lord being old also?' ²³ And Jehovah said to Abraham, 'Wherefore now did Sarah laugh, saying, 'Shall I of a surety bear a child, now I am old?' ²⁴ 'Is any thing too hard for Jehovah? At the time appointed I will return to thee, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son.' ²⁵ Then Sarah denied, saying, 'I laughed not; for she was afraid. And he said, 'Nay; but thou didst laugh.'

²⁶ And the men rose up from thence, and looked toward Sodom; and Abraham went with them to bring them on the way. ²⁷ And Jehovah said, 'Shall I hide from Abraham that thing which I do; ²⁸ seeing that Abraham shall surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall bless themselves in him? ²⁹ For I know him, that he will command his children and his household after him, and they will keep the way of Jehovah, to do righteousness and judgment; so that Jehovah may bring upon Abraham that which he hath spoken of him.' ³⁰ And Jehovah said, 'Because the cry over Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grievous; ³¹ I will go down now, and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which is come unto me; and if not, I will know.' ³² And the [two] men turned from thence, and went toward Sodom; but Abraham stood yet before Jehovah.

²³ And Abraham drew near, and said, 'Wilt thou also destroy the righteous with the wicked?' ²⁴ Peradventure there may be fifty righteous within the city; wilt thou also destroy and not bear with the place for the fifty righteous that are therein? ²⁵ That be far from thee to do after this manner to slay the righteous with the wicked; and that the righteous should be as the wicked, that be far from thee. Shall not the judge of all the earth do justice?' ²⁶ And Jehovah said, 'If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will bear with all the place for their sakes.' ²⁷ And Abraham answered and said, 'Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak to my Lord, though I am but dust and ashes; ²⁸ peradventure there shall lack five of the fifty righteous; wilt thou destroy all the city for lack of five?' And he said, 'If I find there forty and five, I will not destroy it.' ²⁹ And he spake to him yet again, and said, 'Peradventure there shall be forty found there.' And he said, 'I will not do it for the forty's sake.' ³⁰ And he said, 'Oh let not my Lord be angry, and I will speak; peradventure there shall thirty be found there.' And he said, 'I will not do it, if I find thirty there.' ³¹ And he said, 'Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak to my Lord; peradventure there shall be twenty found there.' And he said, 'I will not destroy it for the twenty's sake.' ³² And he said, 'Oh let not my Lord be 'angry, and I will speak yet but this once; peradventure ten shall be found there.' And he said, 'I will not destroy it for the ten's sake.' ³³ And Jehovah went his way, as soon as he had left off speaking with Abraham; and Abraham returned to his place.

¹⁹ And the two angels came to Sodom at evening; and Lot was sitting at the gate of Sodom. And Lot seeing them, rose up to meet them; and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground. ² And he said, 'Behold now, my lords, turn aside, I pray you, into your servant's house, and lodge the night, and wash your feet, and ye shall rise up early, and go on your ways.' And they said, 'Nay; but we will lodge the night in the street.' ³ And he pressed them greatly; and they turned aside unto him, and entered into his house. And he made for them a drinking feast, and did bake unleavened bread; and they did eat.

⁴ But before they lay down, the men of the city, even the men of Sodom, encompassed the house, both old and young, all the people from every quarter. ⁵ And they called to Lot, and said to him, 'Where are the men who came to thee this night?' 'Send them out to us, that we may know them.' ⁶ And Lot went out to the doorway to them, and shut the door after him, ⁷ and said, 'I pray you, brethren, do not so wickedly. ⁸ Behold now, I have two daughters who have not known man. Let me, I pray you, send them out to you, and do ye to them as is good in your eyes; only to these men do nothing; for therefore came they under the shadow of my roof.' ⁹ And they said, 'Stand back.' And they said, 'This one came in to sojourn, and he will needs be a judge. Now will we deal worse with thee, than with them.' And they pressed sore upon the man, even Lot, and came near to break the door.

¹⁰ But the men [the angels] put forth their hand, and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut to the door. ¹¹ And they smote the men that were at the doorway of the house with blindness, both small and great; so that they wearied themselves to find the doorway. ¹² And the men said to Lot, 'Whom hast thou here besides? Son in law, and thy sons, and thy daughters, and whatsoever thou hast in the city, bring them out of the place; ¹³ for we will destroy this place, because the cry over them is waxen great before the face of Jehovah; and Jehovah hath sent us to destroy it.' ¹⁴ And Lot went out, and spake to his sons in law, who had married his daughters, and said, 'Rise up, get you out of this place; for Jehovah will destroy the city.' But he seemed to his sons in law as one that jested.

¹⁵ And when the dawn arose, then the angels urged Lot, saying, 'Arise, take thy wife, and thy two daughters, who are found here; lest thou be consumed in the punishment of the city.' ¹⁶ And while he lingered, the men laid hold on his hand, and on the hand of his wife, and on the hand of his two daughters, through the mercy of Jehovah upon him. And they brought him forth, and set him without the city.

¹⁷ And it came to pass, when they had brought them forth outside, that he said, 'Escape for thy life; look not behind thee, neither stay thou in any part of the Circle [of the Jordan]. Escape to the Hill-country, lest thou be consumed.' ¹⁸ And Lot said to them, 'Oh, not so, my Lord. ¹⁹ Behold now, thy servant hath found grace in thy sight, and thou hast magnified thy kindness, which thou hast shewed to me in saving my life; and I cannot escape to the Hill-country, lest evil overtake me, and I die. ²⁰ Behold now, this city is near to thee unto, and it is within a little distance; Oh, let me escape thither, is it not within a little distance? and my soul shall live.' ²¹ And he said to him, 'See, I have accepted thee concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow the city of which thou hast spoken. ²² Haste thee, escape thither; for I cannot do any thing till thou be entered thither.' Therefore the name of the city was called Zoar [or Little].

²³ The sun was risen upon the earth when Lot entered into Zoar. ²⁴ Then Jehovah rained on Sodom and on Gomorrah brimstone and fire from Jehovah out of the heavens; ²⁵ and he overthrew those cities, and all the Circle [of the Jordan], and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew upon the ground. ²⁶ But his wife looked back from behind him, and she became a pillar of salt-stone. ²⁷ And Abraham got up early in the morning to the place where he stood before the face of Jehovah. ²⁸ And he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the Circle, and beheld, and lo, the smoke of the country went up as the smoke of a furnace.

²⁹ And it came to pass, when God destroyed the cities of the Circle, that God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in the which Lot dwelt. ³⁰ And Lot went up out of Zoar, and dwelt in the Hill-country, and his two daughters with him; for he feared to dwell in Zoar. And he dwelt in a cave, he and his two daughters. ³¹ And the firstborn said to the younger, 'Our father is old, and there is not a man in the land to come in unto us after the manner of all the earth. ³² Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we may preserve seed from our father.' ³³ And they made their father drink wine that night. And the firstborn went in and lay with her father; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose. ³⁴ And it came to pass on the morrow that the firstborn said to the younger, 'Behold I lay yesternight with my father. Let us make him drink wine this night also; and go thou in, and lie with him, that we may preserve seed from our father.' ³⁵ And they made their father drink wine that night also. And the younger arose and lay with him; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose. ³⁶ Thus were both the daughters of Lot with child by their father. ³⁷ And the firstborn bare a son, and called his name Moab [or By a father]. The same is the father of the Moabites unto this day. ³⁸ And the younger, she also bare a son, and called his name Ben-ammi [or Son of my kindred]. The same is the father of the Children of Ammon unto this day.

²⁰ And Abraham journeyed from thence toward the land of the South Country, and dwelled between Kadesh and Shur [or Pelusium], and sojourned in Gerar. ² And Abraham said of Sarah his wife, 'She is my sister.' And Abimelech king of Gerar sent, and took Sarah. ³ But God came to Abimelech in a dream by night, and said to him, 'Behold, thou art a dead man, for the woman whom thou hast taken; for she is a man's wife.' ⁴ But Abimelech had not come near her. And he said, 'O Lord, wilt thou slay also a righteous nation? ⁵ Said he not to me, She is my sister? And she, even she herself said, He is my brother. ⁶ In the honesty of my heart and the innocency of my hands have I done this.' ⁶ And God said to him in a dream, 'Yea, I know that thou didst this in the honesty of thy heart. And I also withheld thee from sinning against me; and therefore suffered I thee not to touch her. ⁷ Now therefore restore to the man his wife; for he is a prophet, and he shall pray for thee, and thou shalt live. And if thou restore her not, know thou, that thou shalt surely die, thou, and all that are thine.' ⁸ Therefore Abimelech rose early in the morning, and called all his servants, and told all these things in their ears. And the men were sore afraid. ⁹ Then Abimelech called Abraham, and said to him, 'What hast thou done to us? And in what have I offended thee, that thou hast brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? Thou hast done deeds to me that ought not to be done.' ¹⁰ And Abimelech said to Abraham, 'What sawest thou, that thou hast done this thing?' ¹¹ And Abraham said, 'Because I thought, Surely the fear of God is not in this place; and they will slay me for my wife's sake. ¹² And yet indeed she is my sister. She is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife. ¹³ And it came to pass, when God caused me to wander from my father's house, that I said to her, 'This is thy kindness which thou shalt shew to me; at every place whither we shall come, say of me, He is my brother.' ¹⁴ And Abimelech took sheep, and oxen, and men-servants, and women-servants, and gave them to Abraham, and restored to him Sarah his wife. ¹⁵ And Abimelech said, 'Behold, my land is before thee; dwell where it pleaseth thee.' ¹⁶ And to Sarah he said, 'Behold, I have given to thy brother a thousand pieces of silver. Behold, he is to thee a covering of the eyes against all that are with thee, and with all others.' Thus she was reproved. ¹⁷ So Abraham prayed to God; and God healed Abimelech, and his wife, and his maid-servants; and they bare children. ¹⁸ For Jehovah had fast closed up all the wombs of the house of Abimelech, because of Sarah Abraham's wife. ²¹ But Jehovah visited Sarah as he had said, and Jehovah did to Sarah as he had said.

² And Sarah conceived and bare to Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to him. ³ And Abraham called the name of his son that was born to him, whom Sarah bare to him, Isaac. ⁴ And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac being eight days old, as God had commanded him. ⁵ And Abraham was a hundred years old, when his son Isaac was born unto him [A.M. 2048]. ⁶ And Sarah said, 'God hath brought laughter on me; all that hear will laugh at me.' ⁷ And she said, 'Who would have said to Abraham, that Sarah should have given children suck? For I have borne a son unto his old age.' ⁸ And the child grew, and was weaned; and Abraham made a great drinking feast on the day that Isaac was weaned.

¹⁴ And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread, and a leathern bottle of water, and gave it to Hagar, putting it on her shoulder, and the child, and sent her away. And she departed and wandered in the desert of Beer-sheba. ¹⁵ And the water was finished from the leathern bottle, and she cast the child under one of the shrubs. ¹⁶ And she went, and sat her down over against him a good way off, as it were a bow-shot; for she said, 'Let me not see the death of the child.' And she sat over against him, and lifted up her voice, and wept. ¹⁷ And God heard the voice of the lad; and the angel of God called to Hagar out of heaven, and said to her, 'What aileth thee, Hagar? Fear not; for God hath heard the voice of the lad where he is. ¹⁸ Arise, lift up the lad, and hold him in thy hand; for I will make him a great nation.' ¹⁹ And God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water; and she went, and filled the leathern bottle with water, and gave to the lad drink. ²⁰ And God was with the lad; and he grew, and dwelt in the desert, and became an archer when he grew up. ²¹ And he dwelt in the desert of Paran. And his mother took for him a wife out of the land of Lower Egypt.

²² And it came to pass at that time, that Abimelech and Pichol the captain of his host spake to Abraham, saying, 'God is with thee in all that thou doest. ²³ Now therefore swear to me here by God that thou wilt not deal falsely with me, nor with my sons, nor with my kindred. According to the kindness that I have done to thee, thou shalt do to me, and to the land wherein thou hast sojourned.' ²⁴ And Abraham said, 'I will swear.' ²⁵ And Abraham reproved Abimelech because of a well of water, which Abimelech's servants had violently taken away. ²⁶ And Abimelech said, 'I know not who hath done this thing. Neither didst thou tell me, neither yet heard I of it, but to-day.' ²⁷ And Abraham took sheep and oxen, and gave them to Abimelech; and both of them made a covenant. ²⁸ And Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves. ²⁹ And Abimelech said to Abraham, 'What are these seven ewe lambs which thou hast set by themselves?' ³⁰ And he said, 'For thou shalt take these seven ewe lambs of my hand, that they may be a witness for me, that I have digged this well.' ³¹ Therefore he called that place Beer-sheba [or the Well of the Seven or the Oath]; because there they swore both of them. ³² Thus they made a covenant at Beer-sheba. Then Abimelech rose up, and Pichol the captain of his host, and they returned into the land of the Philistines. ³³ And [Abraham] planted a tamarisk-tree in Beer-sheba, and called there on the name of Jehovah, the everlasting God. ³⁴ And Abraham sojourned in the Philistines' land many days.

²² And it came to pass after these things that God did try Abraham, and said to him, 'Abraham.' And he said, 'Here I am.' ² And he said, 'Take now thy son, thine only one, Isaac, whom thou lovest, and get thee into the land of Moriah; and offer him up there for a burnt offering on one of the mountains which I will tell thee of.' ³ And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and saddled his ass, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son, and clave the wood for the burnt offering, and rose up, and went to the place of which God had told him. ⁴ Then on the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes, and saw the place afar off. ⁵ And Abraham said to his young men, 'Abide ye here with the ass; and I and the lad will go yonder and worship, and we will come again to you.' ⁶ And Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering, and laid it upon Isaac his son. And he took the fire in his hand, and the knife; and they went both of them together. ⁷ And Isaac spake to Abraham his father and said, 'My father.' And he said, 'Here I am, my son.' And he said, 'Behold the fire and the wood; but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?' ⁸ And Abraham said, 'My son, God will for himself shew the lamb for a burnt offering.' So they went both of them together. ⁹ And they came to the place which God had told him of. And Abraham built the altar there, and laid the wood in order, and bound Isaac his son, and laid him on the altar upon the wood. ¹⁰ And Abraham stretched forth his hand, and took the knife to slay his son. ¹¹ And the angel of Jehovah called to him out of the heavens, and said, 'Abraham, Abraham.' And he said, 'Here I am.' ¹² And he said, 'Lay not thy hand on the lad, neither do thou anything to him. For now I 'know that thou fearest God, seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only one, from me.' ¹³ And Abraham lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold, behind him a ram caught in a thicket by his horns. And Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up for a burnt offering in the stead of his son. ¹⁴ And Abraham called the name of that place Jehovah-jireh [or Jehovah will shew]; as it is said to this day, 'On the mount of Jehovah it will be shewn.'

¹⁵ And the angel of Jehovah called to Abraham out of the heavens a second time, ¹⁶ and said, 'By myself have I sworn, Jehovah hath said it; for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only one from me; ¹⁷ that in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heavens, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore; and thy seed shall possess the city gate of his enemies; ¹⁸ and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth bless themselves; because thou hast obeyed my voice.' ¹⁹ So Abraham returned to his young men, and they rose up and went together to Beer-sheba. And Abraham dwelt at Beer-sheba.

²⁰ And it came to pass after these things, that it was told Abraham, saying, 'Behold, Milcah, she hath also borne children unto thy brother Nahor; ²¹ Uz his firstborn, and Buz his brother, and Kemuel the father of Aram [or the Syrians], ²² and Chesed [or the Chaldeans], and Hazo, and Pildash, and Jidlah, and Bethuel.' ²³ And Bethuel begat Rebekah. These eight Milcah did bear to Nahor, Abraham's brother. ²⁴ And his concubine, whose name was Reumah she bare also Tebah, and Gaham, and Thahash and Maachah.

²³ And Sarah's life was a hundred and seven and twenty years; these were the years of the life of Sarah. ² And Sarah died in the city of Arba; the same is Hebron in the land of Canaan. And Abraham came to mourn for Sarah, and to weep for her.

³ And Abraham stood up from before his dead, and spake to the sons of Heth, saying, ⁴ 'I am a stranger and a sojourner with you. Give me a possession of a burying-place with you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight.' ⁵ And the children of Heth answered Abraham, saying to him, ⁶ 'Hear us, my lord; thou art a prince of God among us. In the choicest of our burying-places bury thy dead. Not a man of us will withhold from thee his burying-place, but that thou mayest bury thy dead.' ⁷ And Abraham rose up, and bowed himself to the people of the land, the children of Heth. ⁸ And he spake to them, saying, 'If it be your mind that I should bury my dead out of my sight; hear me, and intreat for me to Ephron the son of Zohar, that he may give me the cave of Machpelah, which he hath, which is in the end of his field. At its full price let him give it me for a possession of a burying-place amongst you.' ¹⁰ And Ephron was sitting among the children of Heth. And Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the hearing of the children of Heth, even of all that went in at the gate of his city, saying, ¹¹ 'Nay, my lord, hear me. The field give I thee, and the cave that is therein, I give it thee; in the presence of the sons of my people give I it thee. Bury thy dead.' ¹² And Abraham bowed down himself before the people of the land. ¹³ And he spake to Ephron in the hearing of the people of the land, saying, 'But if thou wilt, I pray thee hear me. I will give thee money for the field; take it of me, and I will bury my dead there.' ¹⁴ And Ephron answered Abraham, saying to him, ¹⁵ 'My lord, hearken to me. The land is worth four hundred Shekels [or 200 ounces] of silver; what is that betwixt me and thee? Bury therefore thy dead.' ¹⁶ And Abraham hearkened to Ephron; and Abraham weighed to Ephron the silver which he had named in the hearing of the sons of Heth, four hundred Shekels of silver, current money with the merchant.

¹⁷ And the field of Ephron, which was in Machpelah, which was before Mamre, the field, and the cave which was therein, and all the trees that were in the field, that were in all its borders round about, were made sure ¹⁸ unto Abraham as purchased in the presence of the children of Heth, before all that went in at the gate of his city. ¹⁹ And after this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah; the same is before Mamre, at Hebron in the land of Canaan. ²⁰ And the field, and the cave that is therein, were made sure unto Abraham for a possession of a burying-place by the sons of Heth.

²⁴ And Abraham was old and advanced in years; and Jehovah had blessed Abraham in all things. ² And Abraham said to his eldest servant of his house, that ruled over all that he had, ³ 'Put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh; ⁴ and I will make thee swear by Jehovah, the God of heaven, and the God of the earth, that thou shalt not take a wife unto my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I dwell; ⁵ but thou shalt go to my country and to my kindred, and fetch a wife for my son Isaac.' ⁶ And the servant said to him, 'Peradventure the woman will not be willing to follow me to this land. Must I needs take back thy son to the land from whence thou camest?' ⁷ And Abraham said to him, 'Beware thou that thou take not my son back thither. ⁸ Jehovah the God of heaven, who took me from my father's house, and from the land of my kindred, and who spake to me, and who sware to me saying, To thy seed will I give this land; he will send his angel before thee, and thou shalt fetch a wife for my son from thence. ⁹ And if the woman will not be willing to follow thee, then thou shalt be clear from this my oath; only take not back my son thither.' ¹⁰ And the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and sware to him concerning that matter.

¹⁰ Then the servant took ten camels of the camels of his master, and departed. And all the goods of his master went in his hand. And he arose, and went to Syria of the Rivers, to the city of Nahor. ¹¹ And he made his camels to kneel down without the city by a well of water at the time of the evening, at the time that women go out to draw water. ¹² And he said, 'O Jehovah, God of my master Abraham, I pray thee, send me good speed this day, and shew kindness to my master Abraham. ¹³ Behold, I stand here by a spring of water; and the daughters of the men of the city come out to draw water. ¹⁴ And let it come to pass, that the damsel to whom I shall say, 'Let down thy pitcher, I pray thee, that I may drink; and she shall say, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also; let the same be she that thou hast appointed for thy servant Isaac; and thereby shall I know that thou hast shewed kindness to my master.' ¹⁵ And thus it came to pass, before he had done speaking, that, behold, Rebekah came out, who was born to Bethuel, son of Milcah the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, with her pitcher upon her shoulder. ¹⁶ And the damsel was very fair to look upon, a maiden, and no man had known her. And she went down to the spring, and filled her pitcher, and came up. ¹⁷ And the servant ran to meet her, and said, 'Let me, I pray thee, sip a little water of thy pitcher.' ¹⁸ And she said, 'Drink, my lord.' And she hastened, and let down her pitcher on her hand, and gave to him drink. ¹⁹ And when she had done giving him drink, she said, 'I will draw water for thy camels also, until they have done drinking.' ²⁰ And she hastened, and emptied her pitcher into the drinking trough, and ran again to the well to draw water, and drew for all his camels. ²¹ And the man gazing at her held his peace, to know whether Jehovah had made his journey prosperous or not.

²² And it came to pass, as the camels had done drinking, that the man took a golden ring of half a Shekel [for a quarter ounce] weight, and two bracelets for her hands of ten Shekels weight of gold; ²³ and said, 'Whose daughter art thou? Tell me, I pray thee; is there room in thy father's house for us to lodge the night in?' ²⁴ And she said to him, 'I am the daughter of Bethuel the son of Milcah, whom she bare unto Nahor.' ²⁵ She said moreover to him, 'We have both straw and provender enough, and room to lodge the night in.' ²⁶ And the man bowed down his head and worshipped Jehovah. ²⁷ And he said, 'Blessed be Jehovah, the God of my master Abraham, who hath not withdrawn his kindness and his truth from my master. I am in the way. Jehovah hath led me to the house of my master's brethren.' ²⁸ And the damsel ran, and told her mother's household about these things.

²⁹ And Rebekah had a brother, and his name was Laban. And Laban ran outside to the man, unto the spring. ³⁰ And it came to pass, when he saw the ring, and the bracelets upon his sister's [or niece's] hands, and when he heard the words of Rebekah his sister, saying, 'Thus spake the man to me;' that he came to the man; and, behold, he stood by the camels at the spring. ³¹ And he said, 'Come in, thou blessed of Jehovah; wherefore standest thou without? for I have prepared the house, and a place for the camels.' ³² And the man came into the house; and he ungirded his camels, and gave straw and provender for the camels, and water to wash his feet, and the men's feet that were with him. ³³ And there was set food before him to eat; but he said, 'I will not eat, until I have told mine errand.' And he said, 'Speak on.' ³⁴ And he said, 'I am Abraham's servant. ³⁵ And Jehovah hath blessed my master greatly; and he is become great. And he hath given him flocks, and herds, and silver, and gold, and men-servants, and maid-servants, and camels, and asses. ³⁶ And Sarah my master's wife bare a son to my master when she was old; and to him hath he given all that he hath. ³⁷ And my master made me swear, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife to my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I dwell; ³⁸ but thou shalt go to my father's house, and to my family, and fetch a wife for my son. ³⁹ And I said to my master, Peradventure the woman will not follow me. ⁴⁰ And he said to me, Jehovah, before whose face I walk, will send his angel with thee, and prosper thy way; and thou shalt fetch a wife for my son from my family, and from my father's house; ⁴¹ then shalt thou be clear from my oath, when thou comest to my family; and if they give not thee one, thou shalt be clear from my oath. ⁴² And I came this day to the spring, and I said, O Jehovah, God of my master Abraham, if now thou do prosper my way which I go; ⁴³ behold I stand by the spring of water, and it shall come to pass that when the young woman cometh forth to draw water, and I say to her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water of thy pitcher to drink, ⁴⁴ and she saith to me, Both drink thou, and I will also draw for thy camels; let the same be the woman whom Jehovah hath appointed for my master's son. ⁴⁵ And before I had done speaking in my heart, behold, Rebekah came forth with her pitcher on her shoulder. And she went down to the spring, and drew water. And I said to her, Let me drink, I pray thee. ⁴⁶ And she made haste, and let down her pitcher from off her, and said, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also. So I drank, and she made the camels drink also. ⁴⁷ And I asked her, and said, Whose daughter art thou? And she said, The daughter of Bethuel the son of Nahor, whom Milcah bare unto him. And I put the ring on her nose, and the bracelets on her hands. ⁴⁸ And I bowed down my head, and worshipped Jehovah, and blessed Jehovah, the God of my master Abraham, who had led me in the right way to fetch my master's brother's daughter for his son. ⁴⁹ And now if ye will shew kindness and truth to my master, tell me; and if not, tell me; that I may turn to the right hand, or to the left.' ⁵⁰ Then Laban and Bethuel answered and said, 'The thing proceedeth from Jehovah; we 'cannot speak to thee bad or good.' ⁵¹ Behold 'Rebekah is before thee, take her, and go, and let 'her be the wife of thy master's son, as Jehovah 'hath spoken.' ⁵² And it came to pass, that, when Abraham's servant heard their words, he bowed to the ground in worship to Jehovah. ⁵³ And the servant brought forth jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment, and gave them to Rebekah. He gave also to her brother and to her mother precious things. ⁵⁴ And they did eat and drink, he and the men that were with him, and tarried all night.

And they rose up in the morning; and he said, 'Send me away to my master.' ⁵⁵ And her brother and her mother said, 'Let the damsel abide with 'us a few days, at the least ten; after that she 'shall go.' ⁵⁶ And he said to them, 'Delay me 'not, seeing that Jehovah hath prospered my way. 'Send me away that I may go to my master.' ⁵⁷ And they said, 'We will call the damsel, and 'inquire at her mouth.' ⁵⁸ And they called Rebekah, and said to her, 'Wilt thou go with this man?' And she said, 'I will go.' ⁵⁹ And they sent away Rebekah their sister, and her nurse, and Abraham's servant, and his men. ⁶⁰ And they blessed Rebekah, and said to her, 'Thou art our sister, mayest thou 'become thousands of ten thousands, and let thy 'seed possess the city-gate of those who hate them.' ⁶¹ And Rebekah arose, and her damsels, and they rode upon the camels, and followed the man. And the servant took Rebekah, and went his way.

⁶² And Isaac had come from the way of the well of Lehi-roi; for he dwelt in the land of the South-country. ⁶³ And Isaac went out to meditate in the field towards evening. And he lifted up his eyes, and saw, and behold, camels were coming. ⁶⁴ And Rebekah lifted up her eyes, and when she saw Isaac she lighted off the camel. ⁶⁵ And she said to the servant, 'What man is this that walketh in 'the field to meet us?' And the servant said, 'It 'is my master.' Therefore she took her veil, and covered herself. ⁶⁶ And the servant related to Isaac all things that he had done. ⁶⁷ And Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah's tent, and took Rebekah, and she became his wife, and he loved her. And Isaac was comforted after his mother's death.

25 Then again Abraham took a wife, and her name was Keturah. ² And she bare him Zimran, and Jokshan, and Medan, and Midian, and Ishbak, and Shuah. ³ And Jokshan begat Sheba and Dedan. And the sons of Dedan were the Asshurites, and the Letushites, and the Leummites. ⁴ And the sons of Midian; Ephah and Epher, and Hanoah, and Abida, and Eldaah. All these were the children of Keturah. ⁵ And Abraham gave all that he had to Isaac. ⁶ But to the sons of the concubines, whom Abraham had, Abraham gave gifts, and sent them away from Isaac his son, while he yet lived, eastward, to the East country.

⁷ And these are the days of the years of Abraham's life which he lived, a hundred and seventy-five years. ⁸ Then Abraham breathed his last, and died in a good old age, an old man, and full of years; and he was gathered to his people. ⁹ And his sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron the son of Zohar the Hittite, which is before Mamre; ¹⁰ the field which Abraham purchased of the sons of Heth. There was Abraham buried, and Sarah his wife. ¹¹ And it came to pass after the death of Abraham that God blessed his son Isaac; and Isaac dwelt by the well of Lehi-roi.

¹² Now this is the BIRTH-BOOK OF ISHMAEL, the son of Abraham, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's handmaid, bare unto Abraham. ¹³ And these are the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names, according to their birth-book. The firstborn of Ishmael, Nebaioth [or the Nabataeans]; and Kedar, and Adbeel, and Mibsam, ¹⁴ and Mishma, and Dumah, and Meshah, ¹⁵ Hadad, and Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah. ¹⁶ These are the sons of Ishmael, and these are their names, by their villages, and by their strongholds; twelve princes over their tribes. ¹⁷ And these are the years of Ishmael's life, a hundred and thirty and seven years. And he breathed his last and died; and was gathered to his people. ¹⁸ And they dwelt from Havilah to Shur [or Pelusium], which is before Lower Egypt, as thou goest toward Assyria. [His lot] fell before any of his brethren.

¹⁹ And this is the BIRTH-BOOK OF ISAAC the son of Abraham. Abraham begat Isaac. ²⁰ And Isaac was forty years old when he took Rebekah to wife, the daughter of Bethuel the Syrian of Padan [or the Plains] of Syria, the sister of Laban the Syrian. ²¹ And Isaac intreated Jehovah as to his wife, because she was barren. And Jehovah was intreated towards him, and Rebekah his wife conceived. ²² And the children struggled together within her; and she said, 'If it be so, why am I thus?' And she went to inquire of Jehovah. ²³ And Jehovah said to her,

'Two nations are in thy womb,
'And two tribes shall be separated from thy bowels;
'And the one tribe shall be stronger than the other
'tribe;

'And the more numerous shall serve the smaller.'

²⁴ And when her days to be delivered were fulfilled, behold, there were twins in her womb. ²⁵ And the first came out red-haired, all over like a hairy garment; and they called his name Esau [or Hairy]. ²⁶ And after that came his brother out, and his hand took hold on Esau's heel; and his name was called Jacob [or Holding the Heel]. And Isaac was sixty years old when she bare them [A.M. 2108]. ²⁷ And the boys grew; and Esau was a skilful hunter, a man of the field; and Jacob was a plain man, dwelling in tents. ²⁸ And Isaac loved Esau, because of the venison for his mouth; but Rebekah loved Jacob.

²⁹ And Jacob was boiling pottage; and Esau came from the field, and he was faint. ³⁰ And Esau said to Jacob, 'Feed me, I pray thee, with that very red food; for I am faint.' Therefore was his name called Edom [or Red]. ³¹ And Jacob said, 'Sell me this day thy birthright.' ³² And Esau said, 'Behold, I am at the point to die; and what profit shall this birthright do to me?' ³³ And Jacob said, 'Swear to me this day.' And he swore to him, and sold his birthright to Jacob. ³⁴ Then Jacob gave to Esau bread and pottage of lentiles. And he did eat and drink, and rose up, and went his way; thus Esau despised his birthright.

²⁶ And there was a famine in the land, beside the first famine that was in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went to Abimelech king of the Philistines at Gerar. ² And Jehovah appeared to him and said, 'Go not down into Lower Egypt; dwell in the land which I have told thee of. ³ Sojourn in this land, and I will be with thee, and will bless thee. For to thee, and to thy seed, I will give all these countries, and I will perform the oath which I swore unto Abraham thy father; ⁴ and I will make thy seed to multiply as the stars of heaven, and will give to thy seed all these countries; and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth bless themselves; ⁵ because that Abraham obeyed my voice, and kept my charge, my Commandments, my Statutes, and my Laws.'

⁶ And Isaac remained in Gerar. ⁷ And the men of the place asked him of his wife. And he said, 'She is my sister;' for he feared to say, 'She is my wife;' lest [said he] the men of the place should kill me for Rebekah; because she is fair to look upon.' ⁸ And it came to pass, when his days there had been many, that Abimelech king of the Philistines looked out at the window, and saw, and behold, Isaac was sporting with Rebekah his wife. ⁹ And Abimelech called Isaac, and said, 'Behold, of a surety she is thy wife; and how saidst thou, 'She is my sister?' And Isaac said to him, 'Because I said, Lest I die for her.' ¹⁰ And Abimelech said, 'What is this thou hast done to us? One of the people might soon have lain with thy wife, and thou wouldest have brought guilt upon us.' ¹¹ And Abimelech charged all the people, saying, 'He that toucheth this man or his wife shall surely be put to death.'

¹² Then Isaac sowed in that land, and received in the same year a hundredfold of barley. And Jehovah blessed him. ¹³ And the man waxed great, and went forward, and grew until he became very great. ¹⁴ For he had possession of flocks, and possession of herds, and great store of servants; and the Philistines envied him. ¹⁵ And all the wells which his father's servants had digged in the days of Abraham his father, the Philistines had stopped them, and filled them with sand. ¹⁶ And Abimelech said to Isaac, 'Go from us; for thou art much mightier than we.' ¹⁷ And Isaac departed thence, and pitched his tent in the valley of Gerar, and dwelt there.

after the names by which his father had called them. ¹⁹ And Isaac's servants digged in the valley, and found there a well of living water. ²⁰ And the herdmen of Gerar quarrelled with Isaac's herdmen, saying, 'The water is ours.' And he called the name of the well Esek [or Strife]; because they strove with him. ²¹ And they digged another well, and quarrelled for that also. And he called the name of it Sitnah [or Enmity]. ²² And he removed on from thence, and he digged another well; and for that they quarrelled not. And he called the name of it Rehoboth [or Room]; and he said, 'For now Jehovah hath made room for us, and we shall be fruitful in the land.'

²³ And he went up from thence to Beer-sheba. ²⁴ And Jehovah appeared to him the same night, and said, 'I am the God of Abraham thy father. Fear not, for I am with thee, and I will bless thee, and multiply thy seed for my servant Abraham's sake.' ²⁵ And he builded an altar there, and called upon the name of Jehovah, and pitched his tent there. And there Isaac's servants digged a well.

²⁶ Then Abimelech went to him from Gerar, and Ahuzzath his friend, and Phicol the captain of his army. ²⁷ And Isaac said to them, 'Wherefore come ye to me, seeing ye hate me, and have sent me away from you?' ²⁸ And they said, 'We have seen certainly that Jehovah is with thee; and we said, Let there be now an oath betwixt us, even betwixt us and thee, and let us make a covenant with thee; ²⁹ that thou wilt do us no hurt, as we have not touched thee, and as we have done to thee nothing but good, and have sent thee away in peace. Thou art now the blessed of Jehovah.' ³⁰ And he made them a drinking feast, and they did eat and drink. ³¹ And they rose up betimes in the morning, and swore one to another. And Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace. ³² And it came to pass the same day, that Isaac's servants came, and told him concerning the well which they had digged, and said to him, 'We have found water.' ³³ And he called it Shebah [or the Oath]. Therefore the name of the city is Beer-sheba unto this day.

²⁷ And it came to pass, that when Isaac was old, and his eyes were dim, so that he could not see, he called Esau his eldest son, and said to him, 'My son.' And he said to him, 'Here I am.' ² And he said, 'Behold now, I am old, I know not the day of my death. ³ Now therefore take, I pray thee, thy weapons, thy quiver and thy bow, and go out to the field, and hunt for me some venison; ⁴ and make me savoury meat, such as I love, and bring it to me, that I may eat; so that my soul may bless thee before I die.' ⁵ And Rebekah heard when Isaac spake to Esau his son. And Esau went to the field to hunt for venison, to bring it. ⁶ And Rebekah spake to Jacob her son, saying, 'Behold, I heard thy father speak to Esau thy brother, saying, ⁷ Bring me venison and make me savoury meat, that I may eat, and bless thee before Jehovah before my death. ⁸ Now therefore, my son, hearken to my voice according to what I command thee. ⁹ Go now to the flock, and fetch me from thence two good kids of the goats; and I will make them savoury meat for thy father, such as he loveth. ¹⁰ And thou shalt bring it to thy father that he may eat, so that he may bless thee before his death.' ¹¹ And Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, 'Behold, Esau my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth man. ¹² My father peradventure will feel me, and I shall seem to him as a deceiver; and I shall bring a curse upon me, and not a blessing.' ¹³ And his mother said to him, 'Upon me be thy curse, my son. Only hearken to my voice, and go fetch me to me.' ¹⁴ And he went, and fetched, and brought them to his mother. And his mother made savoury meat, such as his father loved.

¹⁵ And Rebekah took goodly raiment of her eldest son Esau, which were with her in the house, and put them upon Jacob her younger son. ¹⁶ And she put the skins of the kids of the goats on his hands, and on the smooth of his neck. ¹⁷ And she gave the savoury meat and the bread, which she had prepared, into the hand of her son Jacob. ¹⁸ And he came to his father, and said, 'My father.' And he said, 'Here I am; who art thou, my son?' ¹⁹ And Jacob said to his father, 'I am Esau thy firstborn; I have done according as thou badest me. Arise, I pray thee, sit and eat of my venison, so that thy soul may bless me.' ²⁰ And Isaac said to his son, 'How is it that thou hast found it so quickly, my son?' And he said, 'Because Jehovah thy God brought it before me.' ²¹ And Isaac said to Jacob, 'Come near, I pray thee, that I may feel thee, my son, whether thou be my very son Esau or not.' ²² And Jacob went near to Isaac his father; and he felt him, and said, 'The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau.' ²³ And he discerned him not, because his hands were hairy, as his brother Esau's hands. So he blessed him. ²⁴ And he said, 'Art thou my very son Esau?' And he said, 'I am.' ²⁵ And he said, 'Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my son's venison, so that my soul may bless thee.' And he brought it near to him, and he did eat. And he brought him wine, and he drank. ²⁶ And his father Isaac said to him, 'Come near now, and kiss me, my son.' ²⁷ And he came near, and kissed him. And he smelled the smell of his raiment, and blessed him, and said, 'Behold the smell of my son is as the smell of a field which Jehovah hath blessed; ²⁸ Therefore may God give thee of the dew of heaven, and of the fat of the land, and plenty of corn and wine.

²⁹ Let peoples serve thee, and tribes bow down to thee;
'Be thou lord over thy brethren,
'And let thy mother's sons bow down to thee;
'Cursed be they that curse thee,
'And blessed be they that bless thee.'

³⁰ And it came to pass, as soon as Isaac had made an end of blessing Jacob, and Jacob was yet scarce gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting. ³¹ And he also had made savoury meat, and brought it to his father, and said to his father, 'Let my father arise, and eat of his son's venison, so that thy soul may bless me.' ³² And Isaac his father said to him, 'Who art thou?' And he said, 'I am thy son, thy firstborn Esau.' ³³ And Isaac trembled with a very great trembling, and said, 'Who then is he that hath hunted venison, and brought it me, and I have eaten of all before thou camest, and have blessed him? Yea, and he will be blessed.' ³⁴ And when Esau heard the words of his father, he cried with a great and very bitter cry, and said to his father, 'Bless me, even me also, O my father.' ³⁵ And he said, 'Thy brother came with deceit, and hath taken away thy blessing.' ³⁶ And he said, 'Is it because he was named Jacob [or Supplanter], that he hath supplanted me these two times? He took away my birth-right; and, behold, now he hath taken away my blessing.' And he said, 'Hast thou not reserved a blessing for me?' ³⁷ And Isaac answered and said to Esau, 'Behold, I have made him thy lord, and all his brethren have I given to him for servants; and corn and wine have I given to him as a support; and what then can I do for thee, my son?' ³⁸ And Esau said to his father, 'Hast thou but one blessing, my father? Bless me, even me also, O my father.' And Esau lifted up his voice, and wept. ³⁹ And Isaac his father answered, and said to him, 'Lo, from the fat of the land shall be thy dwelling, and from the dew of heaven above;
⁴⁰ And by thy sword shalt thou live, and shalt serve thy brother.
'(But it will come to pass when thou shalt get free, 'Then thou shalt break his yoke from off thy neck.)'
⁴¹ And Esau was spiteful against Jacob because of the blessing wherewith his father blessed him. And Esau said in his heart, 'The days of mourning for my father are at hand; then will I slay my brother Jacob.' ⁴² And these words of Esau her elder son were told to Rebekah. And she sent and called Jacob her younger son, and said to him, 'Behold, thy brother Esau is vengeful against thee to kill thee. ⁴³ Now therefore, my son, hearken to my voice; and arise, flee thou to Laban my brother to Haran. ⁴⁴ And tarry with him a few days, until thy brother's fury turn away; ⁴⁵ until thy brother's anger turn away from thee, and he forget what thou hast done to him, and I send, and fetch thee from thence. Why should I be deprived also of you both in one day?'

⁴⁶ And Rebekah said to Isaac, 'I am weary of my life because of the daughters of Heth. If Jacob take a wife of the daughters of Heth, such as these who are of the daughters of the land, what will life be to me?' ²⁸ And Isaac called Jacob and blessed him, and charged him, and said to him, 'Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan.' ² Arise, go to the plains of Syria, to the house of Bethuel thy mother's father; and take to thee a wife from thence of the daughters of Laban thy mother's brother. ³ And may God Almighty bless thee, and make thee fruitful, and multiply thee, that thou mayest become an assembly of peoples. ⁴ And may he give thee the blessing of Abraham, to thee, and to thy seed with thee; that thou mayest possess the land of thy pilgrimage, which God gave to Abraham.' ⁵ And Isaac sent away Jacob. And he went to the plains of Syria unto Laban, son of Bethuel the Syrian, the brother of Rebekah, Jacob's and Esau's mother.

⁶ When Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob, and sent him away to the plains of Syria, to take to him a wife from thence; and that as he blessed him he gave him a charge, saying, 'Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan;' ⁷ and that Jacob hearkened to his father and his mother, and was gone to the plains of Syria; ⁸ and Esau seeing that the daughters of Canaan were evil in the eyes of Isaac his father; ⁹ then went Esau to Ishmael, and took besides his former wives, Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael, Abraham's son, the sister of Nebaioth, to be his wife.

¹⁰ And Jacob went out from Beer-sheba, and went toward Haran. ¹¹ And he lighted upon a certain place, and tarried there all night, because the sun was set. And he took one of the stones of that place, and put it for his pillow, and lay down in that place. ¹² And he dreamed, and beheld, a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to the heavens; and beheld, the angels of God going up and coming down on it. ¹³ And behold, Jehovah stood above it, and said, 'I am Jehovah, the God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac. The land whereon thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed. ¹⁴ And thy seed shall be as the dust of the earth; and thou shalt spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south. And in thee and in thy seed shall all the families of the land bless themselves. ¹⁵ And behold, I am with thee, and will keep thee in all places whither thou goest, and will bring thee again into this land; for I will not leave thee, until I have done that which I have spoken to thee of.' ¹⁶ And Jacob awaked out of his sleep, and he said, 'Surely Jehovah is in this place; and I knew it not.' ¹⁷ And he was afraid, and said, 'How dreadful is this place! This is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.' ¹⁸ And Jacob rose up early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put for his pillow, and set it up for a pillar, and poured oil upon the top of it. ¹⁹ And he called the name of that place Beth-el [or House of God]; but however the name of that city was Luz at the first. ²⁰ And Jacob vowed a vow, saying, 'If God will be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat, and raiment to put on, ²¹ and I come again to my father's house in peace; then shall Jehovah be my God. ²² And this stone, which I have set for a pillar, shall be God's house. And of all that thou shalt give me I will surely give to thee the tenth.'

²⁹ Then Jacob lifted up his feet, and went into the land of the children of the East. ² And he looked, and beheld a well in a field, and, lo, there were three flocks of sheep lying by it; for out of that well they watered the flocks. And a great stone was upon the well's mouth. ³ And thither were all the flocks gathered. (And they used to roll the stone from off the well's mouth, and to water the sheep, and to put the stone again upon the well's mouth in its place.) ⁴ And Jacob said to them, 'My brethren, whence be ye?' And they said, 'Of Haran are we.' ⁵ And he said to them, 'Know ye Laban the son of Nahor?' And they said, 'We know him.' ⁶ And he said to them, 'Is he well?' And they said, 'He is well; and, behold, Rachel his daughter cometh with the sheep.' ⁷ And he said, 'Lo, it is yet high day, neither is it time that the cattle should be gathered together. Water ye the sheep, and go and feed them.' ⁸ And they said, 'We cannot, until all the flocks be gathered together, and till they have rolled the stone from off the well's mouth. Then we water the sheep.'

¹⁵ And Laban said to Jacob, 'Because thou art my brother, shouldst thou therefore serve me for nought? Tell me what shall thy wages be?' ¹⁶ And Laban had two daughters; the name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel. ¹⁷ Leah had weak eyes; but Rachel was beautiful in form, and beautiful in countenance. ¹⁸ And Jacob loved Rachel; and said, 'I will serve thee seven years for Rachel thy younger daughter.' ¹⁹ And Laban said, 'It is better that I give her to thee, than that I should give her to another man.

'Abide with me.' ²⁰ And Jacob served seven years for Rachel; and they seemed to him but single days, in his love for her.

²¹ And Jacob said to Laban, 'Give me my wife, for my days are fulfilled, that I may go in unto her.' ²² And Laban gathered together all the men of the place, and made a drinking feast. ²³ And it came to pass in the evening, that he took Leah his daughter, and brought her to him; and he went in unto her. ²⁴ And Laban gave to her Zilpah his handmaid, for a handmaid to his daughter Leah. ²⁵ And it came to pass, that in the morning, behold, it was Leah. And he said to Laban, 'What is this thou hast done to me? Did not I serve with thee for Rachel? Wherefore then hast thou deceived me?' ²⁶ And Laban said, 'It must not be so done in our place, to give the younger before the first-born.' ²⁷ Fulfil the week of this one, and we will give to thee the other also for the service which thou shalt serve with me yet seven other years.' ²⁸ And Jacob did so, and fulfilled her week. And then he gave him Rachel his daughter to wife also. ²⁹ And Laban gave to Rachel his daughter Bilhah his handmaid to be her handmaid. ³⁰ And he went in also to Rachel, and he loved also Rachel more than Leah. And he served with him yet seven other years.

³¹ And when Jehovah saw that Leah was hated, he opened her womb; but Rachel was barren. ³² And Leah conceived, and bare a son, and she called his name Reuben [or See a son]; for she said, 'Surely Jehovah hath looked upon my affliction. Now therefore my husband will love me.' ³³ And she conceived again, and bare a son; and said, 'Because Jehovah hath heard that I was hated, he hath therefore given me this one also.' And she called his name Simeon [or Hearing]. ³⁴ And she conceived again, and bare a son, and said, 'Now this time will my husband be joined to me, because I have borne him three sons.' Therefore was his name called Levi [or Joined]. ³⁵ And she conceived again, and bare a son; and she said, 'This time will I praise Jehovah.' Therefore she called his name Judah [or Praise]. Then she left off bearing.

³⁰ And when Rachel saw that she bare Jacob no children, Rachel envied her sister; and said to Jacob, 'Give me children, or else I die.' ² And Jacob's anger was kindled against Rachel; and he said, 'Am I in God's stead, who hath withheld from thee the fruit of the womb?' ³ And she said, 'Behold my maid-servant Bilhah, go in unto her, and she shall bear upon my knees, that I also may be built up by her.' ⁴ And she gave him Bilhah her handmaid to wife. And Jacob went in unto her. ⁵ And Bilhah conceived, and bare a son unto Jacob. ⁶ And Rachel said, 'God hath judged me, and hath also heard my voice, and hath given me a son.' Therefore called she his name Dan [or Judgment]. ⁷ And Bilhah Rachel's handmaid conceived again, and bare to Jacob a second son. ⁸ And Rachel said, 'With wrestlings of God have I wrestled with my sister, and I have prevailed.' And she called his name Naphtali [or Wrestlings]. ⁹ When Leah saw that she had left bearing, she took Zilpah her handmaid, and gave her to Jacob to wife. ¹⁰ And Zilpah Leah's handmaid bare unto Jacob a son. ¹¹ And Leah said, 'Good fortune cometh.' And she called his name Gad [or Good Fortune]. ¹² And Zilpah Leah's handmaid bare unto Jacob a second son. ¹³ And Leah said, 'In my happiness, for daughters will call me happy.' And she called his name Asher [or Happy.]

¹⁴ And Reuben went in the days of wheat harvest, and found mandrakes in the field, and brought them to his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, 'Give me, I pray thee, of thy son's mandrakes.' ¹⁵ And she said to her, 'Is it a small matter that thou hast taken my husband, and wouldst thou take my son's mandrakes also?' And Rachel said, 'Therefore he shall lie with thee to-night for thy son's mandrakes.' ¹⁶ And Jacob came out of the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meet him, and said, 'Thou must come in unto me; for I have surely hired thee with my son's mandrakes.' And he lay with her that night. ¹⁷ And God hearkened to Leah, and she conceived, and bare to Jacob a fifth son. ¹⁸ And Leah said, 'God hath given me my hire, because I have given my handmaid to my husband.' And she called his name Issachar [or He is a hire]. ¹⁹ And Leah conceived again, and bare to Jacob a sixth son. ²⁰ And Leah said, 'God hath endowed me with a good dowry; this time will my husband dwell with me, because I have borne him six sons.' And she called his name Zebulun [or a Dwelling]. ²¹ And afterwards she bare a daughter, and called her name Dinah.

²² And God remembered Rachel, and God hearkened to her, and opened her womb. ²³ And she conceived, and bare a son; and said, 'God hath gathered in my reproach.' ²⁴ And she called his name Joseph [or He addeth]; saying, 'Jehovah will add to me another son.'

²⁵ And it came to pass, when Rachel had borne Joseph, that Jacob said to Laban, 'Send me away, that I may go to my own place, and to my country.' ²⁶ Give me my wives and my children, for whom I have served thee, and let me go. For thou knowest my service which I have done thee.' ²⁷ And Laban said to him, 'I pray thee, would that I had found favour in thine eyes. I have learned for certain that Jehovah hath blessed me for thy sake.' ²⁸ And he said, 'Fix with me thy wages, and I will give it.' ²⁹ And he said to him, 'Thou knowest how I have served thee, and how thy cattle was with me. ³⁰ For it was little which thou hadst before I came, and it hath burst forth into a multitude; and Jehovah hath blessed thee since my coming. And now when shall I provide for mine own house also?' ³¹ And he said, 'What shall I give thee?' And Jacob said, 'Thou shalt not give me any thing. If thou wilt do this thing for me, I will return and feed and watch over thy flock.' ³² I will pass through all thy flock to-day,

'removing from thence all the speckled and spotted lambs and kids, and all the brown lambs among the sheep, and the spotted and speckled among the goats; and of such shall be my hire. ³⁸ So shall my righteousness answer for me in time to come, when thou shalt go over my hire before thy face; every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats, and brown among the sheep, that shall be counted stolen by me.' ³⁴ And Laban said, 'Behold, I would it might be according to thy word.' ³⁵ And he removed that day the he goats that were ringstreaked and spotted, and all the she goats that were speckled and spotted, every one that had some white in it, and all the brown among the sheep, and gave them into the hand of his sons. ³⁶ And he set three days' journey betwixt himself and Jacob. And Jacob fed the rest of Laban's flocks. ³⁷ And Jacob took him green rods of poplar, and of the hazel and plane tree; and he peeled white streaks in them, making bare the white which was in the rods. ³⁸ And he set the rods which he had peeled before the flocks in the gutters in the watering troughs where the flocks came to drink; for they conceived when they came to drink. ³⁹ And the flocks conceived before the rods; and the flocks brought forth ringstreaked, speckled, and spotted. ⁴⁰ And Jacob did separate the lambs, and set the faces of the flocks towards the ringstreaked, and all the brown in Laban's flock; and he put his own droves by themselves, and put them not unto Laban's flocks. ⁴¹ And it came to pass, whensoever the stronger cattle did conceive, that Jacob laid the rods before the eyes of the cattle in the gutters, that they might conceive among the rods. ⁴² But when the cattle were feeble, he put them not; so the feebler were Laban's, and the stronger Jacob's. ⁴³ And the man increased very greatly, and had much cattle, and maid-servants, and men-servants, and camels, and asses.

³¹ And he heard the words of Laban's sons, saying, 'Jacob hath taken away all that was our father's; and of that which was our father's hath he gotten all this glory.' ² And Jacob beheld Laban's countenance, and behold, it was not toward him as before. ³ And Jehovah said to Jacob, 'Return to the land of thy fathers, and to thy kindred; and I will be with thee.' ⁴ And Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field unto his flock, ⁵ and said to them, 'I see your father's countenance, that it is not toward me as before; but the God of my father hath been with me. ⁶ And ye know that with all my power I have served your father. ⁷ And your father hath befuddled me, and changed my wages ten times. But God suffered him not to hurt me. ⁸ If he said thus, The speckled shall be thy wages; then all the cattle bare speckled; and if he said thus, The ringstreaked shall be thy hire; then bare all the cattle ringstreaked. ⁹ Thus God hath snatched away your father's cattle, and given them to me. ¹⁰ And it came to pass at the time that the cattle were heated, that I lifted up mine eyes, and saw

'in a dream, and, behold, the rams which leaped upon the cattle were ringstreaked, speckled, and spotted. ¹¹ And the angel of God said to me in the dream, Jacob. And I said, Here I am. ¹² And he said, Lift up now thine eyes, and see all the rams which leap upon the cattle are ringstreaked, speckled, and spotted; for I have seen all that Laban hath done to thee. ¹³ I am the God of Beth-el, where thou anointedst a pillar, and where thou vowedst a vow to me. Now arise, get thee out from this land and return to the land of thy kindred.' ¹⁴ And Rachel and Leah answered and said to him, 'Is there yet any portion or inheritance for us in our father's house? ¹⁵ Are we not counted by him foreigners? for he hath sold us, and hath also quite devoured our money. ¹⁶ For all the riches which God hath snatched from our father, it is ours, and our children's; now then, whatsoever God hath said to thee, do.'

²² And it was told to Laban on the third day, that Jacob was fled. And he took his brethren with him and pursued after him seven days' journey; and they overtook him in the hill-country of Gilead. ²⁴ And God came to Laban the Syrian in a dream by night, and said to him, 'Take heed that thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad.' ²⁵ Then Laban overtook Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent on a hill; and Laban with his brethren pitched on the hills of Gilead. ²⁶ And Laban said to Jacob, 'What hast thou done, that thou hast deceived me, and carried away my daughters, as captives taken with the sword? ²⁷ Wherefore didst thou conceal thy flight, and didst deceive me; and didst not tell me, that I might have sent thee away with mirth, and with songs, with timbrel, and with harp? ²⁸ And hast not suffered me to kiss my sons and my daughters? Thou hast now done foolishly. ²⁹ It is in the power of my hand to do you hurt. But the God of your father spake to me yesternight, saying, Take thou heed that thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad. ³⁰ And now thou wouldest needs be gone, because thou sore longedst after thy father's house, yet wherefore hast thou stolen my gods?' ³¹ And Jacob answered and said to Laban, 'Because I was afraid; for I said, Peradventure thou wouldest take by force thy daughters from me. ³² With whomsoever thou findest thy gods, let him not live. In the sight of our 'brethren discern thou what is thine with me, and 'take it to thee.' For Jacob knew not that Rachel had stolen them. ³³ And Laban went into Jacob's tent, and into Leah's tent, and into the two maid-servants' tents; but he found them not. Then went he out of Leah's tent, and entered into Rachel's tent. ³⁴ Now Rachel had taken the Teraphs, and put them in the camel's furniture, and sat upon them. And Laban feit about all the tent, but found them not. ³⁵ And she said to her father, 'Let it not displease my lord that I cannot 'rise up before thee; for the custom of women is 'upon me.' And he searched but found not the Teraphs. ³⁶ And Jacob was wroth, and quarrelled with Laban. And Jacob answered and said to Laban, 'What is my trespass? What is my sin, 'that thou hast so hotly pursued after me? ³⁷ Whereas thou hast felt about all my goods, 'what hast thou found of all thy household goods? 'Set it here before my brethren and thy brethren, 'that they may judge betwixt us both. ³⁸ These 'twenty years have I been with thee. Thy ewes 'and thy she goats have not lost their young, and 'the rams of thy flock have I not eaten. ³⁹ That 'which was torn of beasts I brought not to thee; 'I bare the loss of it. Of my hand didst thou re-quire it, whether stolen from me by day, or stolen 'from me by night. ⁴⁰ Thus I was; in the day 'the drought consumed me, and the frost by night; 'and my sleep departed from mine eyes. ⁴¹ Thus 'have I been twenty years in thy house; I served 'thee fourteen years for thy two daughters, and 'six years for thy cattle; and thou hast changed 'my wages ten times. ⁴² Except the God of my 'father, the God of Abraham, and He whom Isaac 'feareth, had been with me, surely thou hadst sent 'me away now empty. God hath seen mine afflic-tions and the labour of my hands, and he rebuked 'thee yesternight.' ⁴³ And Laban answered and said to Jacob, 'The daughters are my daughters, 'and the children are my children, and the cattle 'are my cattle, and all that thou seest is mine. 'And what can I do this day to these my daugh-ters, or to their children which they have borne? ⁴⁴ Now therefore come thou, let us make a coven-ant, I and thou; and let there be a witness be-tween me and thee.' ⁴⁵ And Jacob took a stone, and set it up for a pillar. ⁴⁶ And Jacob said to his brethren, 'Gather stones.' And they took stones and made a heap; and they did eat there upon the heap. ⁴⁷ And Laban called it [in Syriac] Jegar-sahadutha; but Jacob called it [in Hebrew] Gilead. ⁴⁸ And Laban said, 'This heap is a wit-ness between me and thee this day.' Therefore was the name of it called Gilead [or Witness-heap], ⁴⁹ and also Mizpah [or Watch-tower]; for he said, 'Jehovah will watch between me and 'thee, when we are out of sight one from another. ⁵⁰ If thou shalt afflict my daughters, or if thou 'shalt take other wives beside my daughters, though 'no man is with us, see, God is witness betwixt 'me and thee.' ⁵¹ And Laban said to Jacob, 'Behold this heap and behold the pillar, which I 'have cast betwixt me and thee; ⁵² this heap be 'witness, and the pillar be witness, that I will not 'pass over this heap to thee, and that thou shalt 'not pass over this heap and this pillar unto me, 'to do harm. ⁵³ The God of Abraham, and the 'God of Nahor, the God of their father, judge 'betwixt us.' And Jacob sware by him whom his father Isaac feared. ⁵⁴ Then Jacob sacrificed a sacrifice upon the hill, and called his brethren to eat bread. And they did eat bread, and tarried all night on the hill.

⁵⁵ And early in the morn ng Laban rose up, and kissed his sons and his daughters, and blessed them. And Laban departed, and returned to his own place.

32 And Jacob went on his way, and the angels of God met him. ² And when Jacob saw them, he said, 'This is God's camp.' And he called the name of that place Mahanaim [for the Camps].

⁶ And the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, 'We came to thy brother Esau, and also he cometh 'to meet thee, and four hundred men with him.' ⁷ Then Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed. And he divided the people that was with him, and the flocks, and herds, and the camels, into two camps. ⁸ And he said, 'If Esau come to the one 'camp, and smite it, then the camp which is left 'shall escape.' ⁹ And Jacob said, 'O God of my 'father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, 'Jehovah, who saidst to me, Return to thy country, 'and to thy kindred, and I will deal well with 'thee; ¹⁰ I am unworthy of any of the kindness, 'and of any of the truth, which thou hast shewed 'to thy servant; for with my staff I crossed over 'this Jordan; and now I am become two camps. ¹¹ Deliver me, I pray thee, from the hand of my 'brother, from the hand of Esau. For I fear him, 'lest he will come and smite me, and the mother 'with the children. ¹² And thou saidst, I will surely 'do thee good, and make thy seed as the sand of 'the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.'

¹³ And he lodged there that same night; and took of that which came to his hand a present for Esau his brother; ¹⁴ two hundred she goats, and twenty he goats, two hundred ewes, and twenty rams, ¹⁵ thirty milch camels with their colts, forty kine, and ten bulls, twenty she asses, and ten foals. ¹⁶ And he delivered them into the hand of his servants, every drove by itself: and said to his servants, 'Pass on before me, and put breathing 'space betwixt drove and drove.' ¹⁷ And he com-manded the foremost, saying, 'When Esau my 'brother meeteth thee, and asketh thee, saying,

'Whose art thou? and whither goest thou? and whose are these before thee?' ¹⁸ Then thou shalt say, 'They are thy servant Jacob's; it is a present sent to my lord Esau; and behold, he also is behind us.' ¹⁹ And so commanded he the second, and the third, and all that followed the droves, saying, 'On this manner shall ye speak to Esau, when ye find him.' ²⁰ And say ye, moreover, 'Behold thy servant Jacob is behind us.' For he said, 'I will appease him with the present that goeth before me, and afterward I will see his face; peradventure, he will accept me.' ²¹ So the present passed over before him; and himself lodged that night in the camp.

²² And he rose up that night, and took his two wives, and his two handmaids, and his eleven children, and crossed over the ford of the Jabbok. ²³ And he took them, and sent them over the stream, and sent over all that he had. ²⁴ And Jacob was left alone; and there wrestled a man with him until the dawn arose. ²⁵ And when he saw that he prevailed not against him, he touched the hollow of his thigh; and the hollow of Jacob's thigh was out of joint, as he wrestled with him. ²⁶ And he said, 'Let me go, for the dawn ariseth.' And he said, 'I will not let thee go, except thou bless me.' ²⁷ And he said to him, 'What is thy name?' And he said, 'Jacob.' ²⁸ And he said, 'Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel [or Contending with God]; for thou hast contended with God and with men, and hast prevailed.' ²⁹ And Jacob asked him, and said, 'Tell me, I pray thee, thy name.' And he said, 'Wherefore is it that thou dost ask after my name?' And he blessed him there. ³⁰ And Jacob called the name of the place Peniel [or the Face of God]; 'for I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved.' ³¹ And as he passed by Penuel the sun rose upon him, and he was lame in his thigh. ³² Therefore the children of Israel eat not of the sinew which shrank, which is upon the hollow of the thigh, unto this day; because [God] touched the hollow of Jacob's thigh on the sinew that shrank.

33 And Jacob lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold, Esau came, and with him four hundred men. And he divided the children born to Leah, and to Rachel, and to the two handmaids. ² And he put the handmaids and their children foremost, and Leah and her children after, and Rachel and Joseph hindermost. ³ And he passed on before them, and bowed himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother. ⁴ And Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck, and kissed him; and they wept. ⁵ And he lifted up his eyes, and saw the women and the children; and said, 'Who are those with thee?' And he said, 'The children with which God hath favoured thy servant.' ⁶ Then the handmaidens came near, they and their children, and they bowed themselves. ⁷ And Leah also, with her children, came near, and bowed themselves; and after came Joseph near and Rachel, and they bowed themselves. ⁸ And he said, 'What meanest thou by all this drove which I met?' And he said, 'To find favour in the sight of my lord.' ⁹ And Esau said, 'I have enough, my brother; be thine that which is thine.' ¹⁰ And Jacob said, 'Nay, I pray thee, if now I have found favour in thy sight, then receive my present at my hand (for therefore I have seen thy face, as though I had seen the face of God); and thou wilt be pleased with me.' ¹¹ Take, I pray thee, my blessing that is brought to thee; because God hath favoured me, and because I have everything.' And he urged him, and he took it. ¹² And he said, 'Let us take our journey, and let us go, and I will go with thee.' ¹³ And he said to him, 'My lord knoweth that the children are tender, and the flocks and herds with young ones are with me; and if men should overdrive them one day, all the flock will die.' ¹⁴ Let my lord, I pray thee, pass on before his servant; and I will lead on softly, according to the pace of the cattle that are before me, and according to the pace of the children, until I come to my lord to Seir.' ¹⁵ And Esau said, 'Let me now leave with thee some of the folk that are with me.' And he said, 'Why so? Let me find favour in the sight of my lord.' ¹⁶ So Esau returned that day on his way to Seir.

¹⁷ And Jacob journeyed to Succoth, and built him a house, and made booths for his cattle; therefore the name of the place is called Succoth [or Booths]. ¹⁸ And Jacob came in safety to the city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from the Plains of Syria; and pitched his tent before the city. ¹⁹ And he bought the parcel of a field, where he had spread his tent, at the hand of the children of Hamor, Shechem's father, for a hundred Kesitahs [or pieces of money]. ²⁰ And he set up there an altar, and called it after El the God of Israel.

⁶ And Hamor the father of Shechem went out to Jacob to speak with him. ⁷ And the sons of Jacob came in from the field when they heard it. And the men were grieved, and they were very wroth, because he had wrought folly in Israel in lying with Jacob's daughter; which thing ought not to be done. ⁸ And Hamor spake with them, saying, 'The soul of my son Shechem longeth for your daughter; I pray you give her to him to

'wife. ⁹ And make ye marriages with us, give your daughters with us, and take our daughters to you. ¹⁰ And ye shall dwell with us; and the land shall be before you; dwell and trade ye therein, and get you possessions therein.' ¹¹ And Shechem said to her father and to her brethren, 'Let me find grace in your eyes, and what ye shall say to me I will give. ¹² Multiply upon me greatly the purchase money and gift, and I will give according as ye shall say to me; but give me the damsel to wife.' ¹³ And the sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father deceitfully, and said, because he had defiled Dinah their sister; ¹⁴ and they said to them, 'We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one that is uncircumcised; for that were a reproach to us. ¹⁵ But in this will we consent to you; if ye will be as we be, that every male of you be circumcised; ¹⁶ then will we give our daughters to you, and we will take your daughters to us, and we will dwell with you, and we will become one people. ¹⁷ But if ye will not hearken to us, to be circumcised; then will we take our daughter, and we will be gone.' ¹⁸ And their words were good in the eyes of Hamor, and in the eyes of Shechem Hamor's son. ¹⁹ And the young man deferred not to do the thing, because he had delight in Jacob's daughter; and he was more honourable than all the house of his father.

²⁵ And it came to pass on the third day, when they were sore, that two of the sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brethren, took each man his sword, and came upon the city boldly, and slew all the males. ²⁶ And they slew Hamor and Shechem his son with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechem's house, and went out. ²⁷ The sons of Jacob came upon the slain, and plundered the city, because they had defiled their sister. ²⁸ They took their sheep, and their oxen, and their asses, and that which was in the city, and that which was in the field. ²⁹ And all their wealth, and all their little ones, and their wives took they captive, and plundered even all that was in the house.

³⁰ And Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, 'Ye have troubled me to make me to stink among the 'Canaanites and the Perizzites, the inhabitants of the land. And I am few in number, and they will gather themselves together against me, and slay me; and I shall be destroyed, I and my house.' ³¹ And they said, 'Should he deal with our sister as with a harlot?'

³⁵ And God said to Jacob, 'Arise, go to Beth-el, and dwell there: and make there an altar unto the God who appeared to thee when thou fleddest from the face of Esau thy brother.' ² Then Jacob said to his household, and to all that were with him, 'Put away the foreign gods that are among you, and be clean, and change your garments; ³ and let us arise, and go up to Beth-el; and I will make there an altar unto the God who answered me in the day of my distress, and was with me in the way which I went.' ⁴ And they gave to Jacob all the foreign gods which were in their hand, and the rings which were in their ears; and Jacob hid them under the oak which was by Shechem. ⁵ And they journeyed. And the terror of God was upon the cities that were round about them, and they did not pursue after the sons of Jacob.

⁶ So Jacob came to Luz, which is in the land of Canaan, that is, Beth-el, he and all the people that were with him. ⁷ And he built there an altar, and named the place after El [or God], Beth-el [or House of El]; because there God was revealed to him, when he fled from the face of his brother. ⁸ And Deborah Rebekah's nurse died, and she was buried beneath Beth-el under the oak; and the name of it was called the Oak of the Weeping women.

(⁹ And God appeared to Jacob again, when he came from the Plains of Syria, and blessed him. ¹⁰ And God said to him, 'Thy name is Jacob; thy name shall not be called any more Jacob, but Israel shall be thy name.' And he called his name Israel. ¹¹ And God said to him, 'I am El [or God] Almighty. Be fruitful and multiply; a nation and an assembly of nations shall be from thee, and kings shall come out of thy loins. ¹² And the land which I gave to Abraham and Isaac, to thee I will give it, and to thy seed after thee will I give the land.' ¹³ And God went up from him in the place where he talked with him. ¹⁴ And Jacob set up a pillar in the place where he talked with him, a pillar of stone; and he poured a drink offering thereon, and he poured oil thereon. ¹⁵ And Jacob called the name of the place where God spake with him, Beth-el.)

¹⁶ And they journeyed from Beth-el; and there was but a little way to come to Ephrath. And Rachel travailed, and she had hard labour. ¹⁷ And it came to pass, when she was in hard labour, that the midwife said to her, 'Fear not; for this also is a son for thee.' ¹⁸ And it came to pass, as her soul was in departing, for she died, that she called his name Ben-oni [or Son of my Sorrow]; but his father called him Benjamin. ¹⁹ And Rachel died, and was buried in the way to Ephrath, which is Beth-lehem. ²⁰ And Jacob set a pillar upon her grave; that is the pillar of Rachel's grave unto this day.

²¹ And Israel journeyed, and spread his tent beyond the Tower of E²²dar. ²² And it came to pass, when Israel dwelt in that land, that Reuben went and lay with Bilhah his father's concubine. And Israel heard it.

²³ Now the sons of Jacob were twelve; the sons of Leah; Reuben, Jacob's firstborn, and Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Zebulun; —²⁴ the sons of Rachel; Joseph and Benjamin; —²⁵ and the sons of Bilhah, Rachel's hand-maid; Dan and Naphtali; —²⁶ and the sons of Zilpah, Leah's handmaid, Gad and Asher. These were the sons of Jacob who were born to him in the Plains of Syria.

²⁷ And Jacob came to Isaac his father to Mamre, the city of Arba, which is Hebron, where Abraham and Isaac had sojourned. ²⁸ And the days of Isaac were a hundred and eighty years. ²⁹ And Isaac breathed his last, and died, and was gathered to his people, being old and full of days; and his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

36 Now this is THE BIRTH-BOOK OF ESAU, who is Edom. ² Esau took his wives of the daughters of Canaan; Adah the daughter of Ajalon the Hittite, and Aholibamah the daughter of Anah the daughter of Zibeon the Hivite; ³ and Bashemath Ishmael's daughter, sister of Nebajoth. ⁴ And Adah bare to Esau Eliphaz; and Bashemath bare Reuel; ⁵ and Aholibamah bare Jeshu, and Jaalam, and Korah. ⁵ These were the sons of Esau, which were born to him in the land of Canaan.

⁶ And Esau took his wives, and his sons, and his daughters, and every soul of his house, and his cattle, and all his beasts, and all his substance, which he had got in the land of Canaan; and went into a land away from the face of his brother Jacob. ⁷ For their riches were more than that they might dwell together; and the land of their pilgrimage could not bear them because of their cattle. ⁸ Thus dwelt Esau in mount Seir. Esau is Edom.

⁹ And this is THE BIRTH-BOOK OF ESAU the father of the Edonites of mount Seir. ¹⁰ These are the names of Esau's sons; Eliphaz the son of Adah the wife of Esau, Reuel the son of Bashemath the wife of Esau.—¹¹ And the sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, and Gatam, and Kenaz. ¹² And Timna was concubine to Eliphaz the son of Esau; and she bare to Eliphaz Amalek. These were the sons of Adah, Esau's wife.—¹³ And these were the sons of Reuel; Nahath and Zerah, Shammah and Mizzah. Those were the sons of Bashemath, Esau's wife.—¹⁴ And these were the sons of Aholibamah, the daughter of Anah the daughter of Zibeon, Esau's wife; and she bare to Esau Jeshu, and Jaalam, and Korah.

¹⁵ These were PRINCES OF THE SONS OF ESAU. The sons of Eliphaz the firstborn son of Esau; prince Teman, prince Omar, prince Zepho, prince

Kenaz, ¹⁶ prince Korah, prince Gatam, and prince Amalek. These were the princes that came of Eliphaz in the land of Edom: these were the sons of Adah.

²⁰ These were THE SONS OF SEIR the Horite, who inhabited the land; Lotan, and Shobal, and Zibeon, and Anah, ²¹ and Dishon, and Ezer, and Dishan. These were the princes of the Horites, the children of Seir in the land of Edom.—²² And the children of Lotan were Hori [or the Horites], and Hemim [or the Emites]; and Lotan's sister was Timna.—²³ And the children of Shobal were these; Alvan, and Manahath, and Ebal, Shepho, and Onam. ²⁴ And these were the children of Zibeon; both Ajah and Anah; this was that Anah that found the warm springs in the desert as he fed the asses of Zibeon his father.—²⁵ And the children of Anah were these; Dishon, and Aholibamah the daughter of Anah.—²⁶ And these were the children of Dishon; Hemdan, and Eshban, and Ithran, and Cheran.—²⁷ The children of Ezer were these; Bilhan, and Zaavan, and Akan.—²⁸ The children of Dishan were these; Uz, and Aran [or Hauran].

³² And Bela the son of Beor reigned in Edom; and the name of his city was Dinhabah.

³³ And Belah died, and Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his stead.

³⁴ And Jobab died, and Husham of the land of the Temanites reigned in his stead.

³⁵ And Husham died, and Hadad the son of Bedad, who smote Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in his stead; and the name of his city was Avith.

³⁶ And Hadad died, and Samlah of Masrekeh reigned in his stead.

³⁷ And Samlah died, and Saul of Rehoboth by the River [Euphrates] reigned in his stead.

³⁸ And Saul died, and Baalhanan the son of Achbor reigned in his stead.

³⁹ And Baalhanan the son of Achbor died, and Hadar [or Hadad, 1 Kings xi. 14] reigned in his stead; and the name of his city was Pau. And his wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab.

37 And Jacob dwelt in the land of his father's pilgrimage, in the land of Canaan. ² This is THE BIRTH-BOOK of JACOB. Joseph, being seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brethren; and the lad was with the sons of Bilhah, and with the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives; and Joseph brought unto his father an evil report of them. ³ Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was the son of his old age; and he made him a coat with long skirts. ⁴ And when his brethren saw that their father loved him more than all his brethren, they hated him, and could not speak peaceably to him.

⁵ And Joseph dreamed a dream, and he told it his brethren; and they hated him yet the more. ⁶ And he said to them, 'Hear, I pray you, this dream which I have dreamed. ⁷ For, behold, we were binding sheaves in the middle of the field, and lo, my sheaf arose, and also stood upright; and behold, your sheaves stood round about, and bowed down to my sheaf.' ⁸ And his brethren said to him, 'Shalt thou indeed reign over us? Or shalt thou indeed have dominion over us?' And they hated him yet the more for his dreams, and for his words.

⁹ And he dreamed yet another dream, and related it to his brethren, and said, 'Behold I have dreamed a dream more; and, behold, the sun and the moon and the eleven stars bowed down to me.' ¹⁰ And he related it to his father, and to his brethren. And his father rebuked him and said to him, 'What is this dream that thou hast dreamed? Shall I and thy mother and thy brethren indeed come to bow down ourselves to thee to the earth?' ¹¹ And his brethren envied him; but his father observed the saying.

¹² And his brethren went to feed their father's flock in Shechem. ¹³ And Israel said to Joseph, 'Do not thy brethren feed the flock in Shechem? Come, and I will send thee to them.' ¹⁴ And he said to him, 'Here I am.' And he said to him, 'Go, I pray thee, see whether it be well with thy brethren, and well with the flocks; and bring me word again.' So he sent him out of the valley of Hebron, and he came to Shechem. ¹⁵ And a certain man found him, and, behold, he was wandering in the field. And the man asked him, saying, 'What

'seekest thou?' ¹⁶ And he said, 'I seek my brethren.' 'Tell me, I pray thee, where they feed their flocks.' ¹⁷ And the man said, 'They are departed hence; for I heard them say, Let us go to Dothan.' And Joseph went after his brethren, and found them in Dothan.

²³ And it came to pass, when Joseph was come to his brethren, that they stripped Joseph out of his coat, the coat with long skirts that was on him; ²⁴ and they took him, and cast him into a pit. And the pit was empty, there was no water in it. And they sat down to eat bread. ²⁵ And they lifted up their eyes and looked, and, behold, a company of Ishmaelites had come from Gilead with their camels bearing spicery and balm and ladanum, going to carry it down to Lower Egypt. ²⁶ And Judah said to his brethren, 'What profit is it if we slay our brother, and conceal his blood?' ²⁷ Come, and let us sell him to the Ishmaelites, and let not our hand be upon him; for he is our brother and our flesh.' And his brethren hearkened to him. ²⁸ And as the Midianite merchantmen were passing, they drew and lifted up Joseph out of the pit, and sold Joseph to the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver. And they brought Joseph into Lower Egypt.

²⁹ And Reuben returned to the pit; and, behold, Joseph was not in the pit; and he rent his clothes. ³⁰ And he returned to his brethren, and said, 'The child is not; and I, whither shall I go?' ³¹ And they took Joseph's coat, and killed a goat, and dipped the coat in the blood; ³² and they sent the coat with long skirts, and they brought it to their father; and said, 'This have we found; know now whether it be thy son's coat or no.' ³³ And he knew it, and said; 'It is my son's coat; an evil beast hath devoured him. Joseph is without doubt torn to pieces.' ³⁴ And Jacob rent his clothes, and put sackcloth on his loins, and mourned for his son many days. ³⁵ And all his sons and all his daughters rose up to comfort him; but he refused to be comforted. And he said, 'For I will go down to the grave to my son mourning.' Thus his father wept for him. ³⁶ And the Midianites sold him into Lower Egypt to Potiphar, a chamberlain of Pharaoh's, a captain of the guard.

38 And it came to pass at that time, that Judah went down from his brethren, and turned into a certain Adullamite, whose name was Hirah. ² And Judah saw there a daughter of a certain Canaanite whose name was Shuah; and he took her, and went in unto her. ³ And she conceived, and bare a son; and he called his name Er. ⁴ And she conceived again, and bare a son; and she called his name Onan. ⁵ And she yet again conceived, and bare a son; and she called his name Shelah. And it was at Chezib that she bare him.

⁶ And Judah took a wife for Er his firstborn; and her name was Tamar. ⁷ And Er, Judah's firstborn was wicked in the sight of Jehovah; and Jehovah slew him. ⁸ And Judah said to Onan, 'Go in unto thy brother's wife, and marry her as 'brother in law, and raise up seed to thy brother.' ⁹ And Onan knew that the seed should not be his; and it came to pass, when he went in unto his brother's wife, that he spilled it on the ground, lest that he should give seed to his brother. ¹⁰ And the thing which he did was evil in the eyes of Jehovah; wherefore he slew him also. ¹¹ Then said Judah to Tamar his daughter in law, 'Remain a widow 'at thy father's house, till Shelah my son be grown'; for he said, 'Lest peradventure he die also, as his 'brethren did.' And Tamar went and dwelt in her father's house.

¹² And the days went on, and Judah's wife, the daughter of Shuah, died. And Judah was comforted, and went up to his sheep-shearers to Timnath, he and his friend Hirah the Adullamite. ¹³ And it was told Tamar, saying, 'Behold thy 'father in law goeth up to Timnath to shear his 'sheep.' ¹⁴ And she put her widow's garments off from her, and covered her with a veil, and wrapped herself, and sat at the doorway of the fountain, which is by the way to Timnath; for she saw that Shelah was grown, and she was not given to him to wife. ¹⁵ When Judah saw her, he thought her to be a harlot; because she had covered her face. ¹⁶ And he turned to her by the way, and said, 'Go 'to, I pray thee, let me come in unto thee;' (for he knew not that she was his daughter in law). And she said, 'What wilt thou give me, that thou 'mayest come in unto me?' ¹⁷ And he said, 'I 'will send thee a kid of the goats from the flock.' And she said, 'Wilt thou give me a pledge, till 'thou send it?' ¹⁸ And he said, 'What pledge shall 'I give thee?' And she said, 'Thy signet, and 'thy cord, and thy staff which is in thy hand.' And he gave them her, and came in unto her, and she conceived by him. ¹⁹ And she arose, and went away, and laid by her veil from her, and put on the garments of her widowhood. ²⁰ And Judah sent the kid of the goats by the hand of his friend the Adullamite, to receive his pledge from the woman's hand; but he found her not. ²¹ Then he asked the men of that place, saying, 'Where is the 'harlot, that was at the fountain by the way side?' And they said, 'There was no harlot in this place.' ²² And he returned to Judah, and said, 'I cannot 'find her; and also the men of the place said, that 'there was no harlot in this place.' ²³ And Judah said, 'Let her keep them, lest we be shamed.' Be-

²⁴ And it came to pass about three months after, that it was told Judah, saying, 'Tamar thy daughter 'in law hath played the harlot; and also, behold, 'she is with child by fornication.' And Judah said, 'Bring her forth, and let her be burnt.' ²⁵ When she was brought forth, she sent to her father in law, saying, 'By the man, whose these 'are, am I with child.' And she said, 'Discern, I 'pray thee, whose are these, the signet, and the 'cords, and the staff.' ²⁶ And Judah acknowledged them, and said, 'She hath been more righteous than 'I; because that I gave her not to Shelah my son.' And he knew her again no more. ²⁷ And it came to pass in the time of her travail, that, behold, twins were in her womb. ²⁸ And it came to pass, when she travailed, that the one put out his hand. And the midwife took and bound upon his hand a scarlet thread, saying, 'This came out first.' ²⁹ And it came to pass, as he drew back his hand, that, behold, his brother came out; and she said, 'How 'hast thou broken forth? This breach be upon 'thee.' Therefore his name was called Pharez [or Breach]. ³⁰ And afterward came out his brother, that had the scarlet thread upon his hand. And his name was called Zarah.

³⁹ And Joseph was brought down to Lower Egypt; and Potiphar, a chamberlain of Pharaoh, a captain of the guard, an Egyptian, bought him of the hands of the Ishmaelites, who had brought him down thither. ² And Jehovah was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man; and he was in the house of his master the Egyptian. ³ And his master saw that Jehovah was with him, and that Jehovah made all that he did to prosper in his hand. ⁴ And Joseph found grace in his sight, and waited upon him. And he made him overseer over his house, and all that he had he put into his hand. ⁵ And it came to pass from the time that he had made him overseer in his house, and over all that he had, that Jehovah blessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake; and the blessing of Jehovah was upon all that he had in the house, and in the field. ⁶ And he left all that he had in Joseph's hand; and he knew not aught he had, save the bread which he did eat. And Joseph was of a beautiful form and beautiful countenance.

⁷ And it came to pass after these things, that his master's wife cast her eyes upon Joseph; and she said, 'Lie with me.' ⁸ But he refused, and said to his master's wife, 'Behold, my master knoweth 'not what is with me in the house, and he hath put 'all that he hath into my hand; 'there is none 'greater in this house than I; neither hath he 'kept back anything from me but thee, because 'thou art his wife. How then can I do this great 'wickedness, and sin against God?' ¹⁰ And it came to pass, as she spake to Joseph day by day, that he hearkened not to her, to lie by her, or to be with her. ¹¹ And it came to pass about this time, that he went into the house to do his business; and there was none of the men of the house there within. ¹² And she caught him by his garment, saying, 'Lie with me.' And he left his garment in her hand, and fled, and got him forth. ¹³ And it came to pass, when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand, and was fled forth, ¹⁴ that she called to the men of her house, and spake to them, saying, 'See, he hath brought in a Hebrew 'to us to mock us. He came in unto me to lie 'with me, and I cried with a loud voice; ¹⁵ and it 'came to pass, when he heard that I lifted up my 'voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, 'and fled, and got him forth.'

¹⁶ And she laid up his garment by her, until his lord came home. ¹⁷ And she spake to him according to these words, saying, 'The Hebrew servant, 'whom thou hast brought unto us, came in unto 'me to mock me. ¹⁸ And it came to pass, as I 'lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled forth.' ¹⁹ And it came to pass, when his master heard the words of his wife, which she spake to him, saying, 'After this manner 'did thy servant to me;' that his wrath was kindled. ²⁰ And Joseph's master took him, and put him into the prison-house, a place where the king's prisoners were imprisoned. And he was there in the prison-house.

²¹ But Jehovah was with Joseph, and shewed him kindness, and gave him favour in the sight of the keeper of the prison-house. ²² And the keeper of the prison-house put into Joseph's hand all the prisoners that were in the prison-house; and whatsoever they did there, he was the doer of it. ²³ The keeper of the prison-house looked not to any thing that was under his hand; because Jehovah was with him, and that which he did, Jehovah made it to prosper.

of the cup-bearers related his dream to Joseph, and said to him, 'In my dream, behold, a vine 'was before me. ¹⁰ And on the vine were three 'branches; and it was as though it budded, its 'blossoms shot forth; and the clusters thereof 'ripened into grapes. ¹¹ And Pharaoh's cup was 'in my hand; and I took the grapes, and pressed 'them into Pharaoh's cup, and I gave the cup into 'Pharaoh's hand.' ¹² And Joseph said to him, 'This is the interpretation of it. The three 'branches are three days. ¹³ Yet within three days 'will Pharaoh lift up thy head, and restore thee to 'thine office; and thou shalt deliver Pharaoh's 'cup into his hand, after the former manner when 'thou wast his cup-bearer. ¹⁴ But do thou remember me when it shall be well with thee, and 'shew kindness, I pray thee, to me, and make 'mention of me to Pharaoh, and bring me out 'of this house. ¹⁵ For indeed I was stolen away 'out of the land of the Hebrews. And here also 'have I done nothing that they should put me into 'the dungeon-pit.'

¹⁶ When the chief of the bakers saw that the interpretation was good, he said to Joseph, 'I also 'was in my dream, and behold, I had three baskets 'of white bread on my head. ¹⁷ And in the upper- 'most basket there was some of all manner of food 'for Pharaoh, the work of the baker; and the birds 'did eat them out of the basket upon my head.' ¹⁸ And Joseph answered and said, 'This is the in- 'terpretation thereof. The three baskets are three 'days. ¹⁹ Yet within three days shall Pharaoh lift 'up thy head from off thee, and shall hang thee on 'a tree; and the birds shall eat thy flesh from off 'thee.'

²⁰ And it came to pass on the third day, which was Pharaoh's birthday, that he made a drinking feast unto all his servants. And he lifted up the head of the chief of the cup-bearers and the head of the chief of the bakers among his servants. ²¹ And he restored the chief of the cup-bearers to his butlership again; and he gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand; ²² but he hanged the chief of the bakers, as Joseph had interpreted to them. ²³ Yet did not the chief of the cup-bearers remember Joseph, but forgot him.

41 And it came to pass at the end of two years, that Pharaoh dreamed; and behold, he stood by the river. ² And behold, there came up out of the river seven cows, beautiful to look at and fat-fleshed; and they fed among the rushes. ³ And behold, seven other cows came up after them out of the river, ugly to look at and lean-fleshed; and they stood by the other cows on the brink of the river. ⁴ And the cows ugly to look at and lean-fleshed did eat up the seven cows beautiful to look at and fat. So Pharaoh awoke. ⁵ And he slept and dreamed the second time; and behold, seven ears of corn came up upon one stalk, plump and good. ⁶ And behold, seven thin ears and blighted with the east wind sprung up after them. ⁷ And the thin ears devoured the seven plump and full ears. And Pharaoh awoke, and behold, it was a dream. ⁸ And it came to pass in the morning, that his spirit was troubled; and he sent and called for all the sacred scribes of Lower Egypt, and all the wise men thereof. And Pharaoh related to them his dreams; but there was none that could interpret them to Pharaoh.

⁹ Then spake the chief of the cup-bearers to Pharaoh, saying, 'I do remember my faults this day.' ¹⁰ Pharaoh was wroth with his servants, and put me in ward in the captain of the guard's house, both me and the chief of the bakers. ¹¹ And we dreamed a dream in one night, I and he; we dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his own dream. ¹² And there was there with us a young man, a Hebrew, a servant to the captain of the guard; and we related to him, and he interpreted to us our dreams; to each man according to his dream he did interpret. ¹³ And it came to pass, as he interpreted to us, so it was; me he restored to mine office, and him he hanged.'

¹⁴ Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they brought him hastily out of the dungeon-pit. And he shaved himself, and changed his raiment, and came to Pharaoh. ¹⁵ And Pharaoh said to Joseph, 'I have dreamed a dream, and there is none that can interpret it. And I have heard say of thee, that thou canst understand a dream to interpret it.' ¹⁶ And Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, 'It is not in me; God will give an answer about the welfare of Pharaoh.' ¹⁷ And Pharaoh said to Joseph, 'In my dream, behold, I stood upon the bank of the river. ¹⁸ And behold, there came up out of the river seven cows, fat-fleshed and beautiful of form; and they fed among the rushes. ¹⁹ And behold, seven other cows came up after them, thin and very ugly in form and lean-fleshed, such as I never saw in all the land of Lower Egypt for badness. ²⁰ And the lean and the ugly cows did eat up the first seven fat cows. ²¹ And when they were in their insides, it could not be known that they were in their insides; but they were still ugly to look at, as at the beginning. So I awoke. ²² And I saw in my dream, and behold, seven ears came up on one stalk, full and good. ²³ And behold, seven ears, withered, thin, and blighted with the east wind, sprung up after them. ²⁴ And the thin ears devoured the seven good ears. And I told this to the sacred scribes; but there was none that could declare it to me.'

²⁵ And Joseph said to Pharaoh, 'The dream of Pharaoh is one. God hath declared to Pharaoh what he is about to do. ²⁶ The seven good cows are seven years; and the seven good ears are seven years. The dream is one. ²⁷ And the seven thin and ugly cows that came up after them are seven years; and the seven ears thin and blighted with the east wind will be seven years of famine. ²⁸ This is the thing which I have spoken to Pharaoh. What God is about to do he sheweth to Pharaoh. ²⁹ Behold, there come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Lower Egypt. ³⁰ And there will arise after them seven years of famine; and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Lower Egypt; and the famine will consume the land. ³¹ And the plenty will not be known in the land by reason of that famine following; for it will be very grievous. ³² And for that the dream was doubled unto Pharaoh in times; it is because the thing is established by God, and God is hastening to bring it to pass. ³³ Now therefore let Pharaoh look out a man discreet and wise, and set him over the land of Lower Egypt. ³⁴ Let Pharaoh do this, and let him appoint overseers over the land, and take up the fifth part of the produce of the land of Lower Egypt in the seven plenteous years. ³⁵ And let them gather up all the food of those good years that come, and lay up corn under the hand of Pharaoh for food in the cities and let them keep it. ³⁶ And let the food be for store to the land against the seven years of famine, which will be in the land of Lower Egypt; that the land be not cut off through the famine.'

³⁷ And the thing was good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all his servants. ³⁸ And Pharaoh said to his servants, 'Can we find such a one as this, a man in whom the spirit of God is?' ³⁹ And Pharaoh said to Joseph, 'Forasmuch as God hath made known to thee all this, there is none so discreet and wise as thou art. ⁴⁰ Thou shalt be over my house, and according to thy word shall all my people do homage; only on the throne will I be greater than thou.' ⁴¹ And Pharaoh said to Joseph, 'See, I have set thee over all the land of Lower Egypt.' ⁴² And Pharaoh took off his signet-ring from his hand, and put it on Joseph's hand, and arrayed him in vestures of fine linen, and put a collar of gold about his neck; and he made him to ride in the second chariot which he had; and they cried before him, Ab-rek [or Bow the head]. And he set him over all the land of Lower Egypt. ⁴³ And Pharaoh said to Joseph, 'I am Pharaoh, and without thee shall no man lift up his hand or his foot in all the land of Lower Egypt.' ⁴⁴ And Pharaoh called Joseph's name Zeph-net-Phenich [or Joseph the Phenician]; and he gave him to wife Asenath the daughter of Poti-pherah priest of On.

And Joseph went out over the land of Lower Egypt. ⁴⁵ And Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh king of Lower Egypt. And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Lower Egypt. ⁴⁶ And in the seven plenteous years the earth brought forth by handfuls. ⁴⁷ And he gathered up all the food of the seven years, which were in the land of Lower Egypt, and laid up the food in the cities; the food of the field, which was round about every city, laid he up in the same. ⁴⁸ And Joseph heaped corn as the sand of the sea, very much, until he left numbering; for it was without number.

⁵⁰ And unto Joseph were born two sons before the year of famine came, which Asenath the daughter of Poti-pherah priest of On bare unto him. ⁵¹ And Joseph called the name of the first-born Manasseh [or Forgetting]; 'For God' [said he] hath made me forget all my toil, and all my father's house.' ⁵² And the name of the second called he Ephraim [or Fruitful]; 'For God hath caused me to be fruitful in the land of my affliction.'

⁵³ And the seven years of the plenteousness that was in the land of Lower Egypt, were ended. ⁵⁴ And the seven years of famine began to come, according as Joseph had said. And the famine was in all lands; but in all the land of Lower Egypt there was bread. ⁵⁵ And when all the land of Lower Egypt was famished, the people cried to Pharaoh for bread. And Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians, 'Go to Joseph; what he saith to you, do.' ⁵⁶ And the famine was over all the face of the land. And Joseph opened all the store-houses, and sold corn to the Egyptians; and the famine waxed sore in the land of Lower Egypt. ⁵⁷ And all countries came into Lower Egypt to Joseph for corn; because that the famine was so sore in all lands.

42 Now when Jacob saw that there was corn in Lower Egypt, Jacob said to his sons, 'Why do ye look one upon another?' ² And he said, 'Behold, I have heard that there is corn in Lower Egypt. Get you down thither, and buy corn for us from thence; that we may live, and not die.' ³ And Joseph's ten brethren went down to buy corn from the Egyptians. ⁴ But Benjamin, Joseph's brother, Jacob sent not with his brethren; for he said, 'Lest peradventure mischief befall him.' ⁵ And the sons of Israel came to buy corn among those that came; for the famine was in the land of Canaan.

⁶ And Joseph was the governor over the land; he it was that sold corn to all the people of the land. And Joseph's brethren came, and bowed down themselves before him with their faces to the earth. ⁷ And Joseph saw his brethren, and he knew them, but made himself strange to them, and spake roughly to them; and he said to them, 'Whence come ye?' And they said, 'From the land of Canaan to buy food.' ⁸ And Joseph knew his brethren, but they knew not him. ⁹ And Joseph remembered the dreams which he dreamed of them, and said to them, 'Ye are spies; to see the nakedness of the land ye are come.' ¹⁰ And they said to him, 'Nay, my lord, but to buy food are thy servants come. ¹¹ We are all one man's sons; we are true men, thy servants are no spies.' ¹² And he said to them, 'Nay, but to see the nakedness of the land ye are come.' ¹³ And they said, 'Thy servants are twelve brethren; we are the sons of one man in the land of Canaan; and behold, the youngest is this day with our father, and one is not.' ¹⁴ And Joseph said to them, 'As to that which I spake to you, saying, Ye are spies; ¹⁵ hereby ye shall be proved. By the life of Pharaoh ye shall not go forth hence, except your youngest brother come hither. ¹⁶ Send one of you, and let him fetch your brother; and ye shall be kept in prison, that your words may be proved, whether there be any truth in you; or else by the life of Pharaoh surely ye are spies.' ¹⁷ And he put them all together into ward for three days. ¹⁸ And Joseph said to them on the third day, 'This do, and live; for I fear God. ¹⁹ If ye be true men, let one of your brethren be bound in the house of your prison; and go ye, carry corn for the famine of your houses. ²⁰ But bring your youngest brother to me; so shall your words be verified, and ye shall not die.' And they did so. ²¹ And they said one to another, 'We are verily guilty concerning our brother, in that we saw the distress of his soul, when he besought us, and we would not hearken. Therefore is this distress come upon us.' ²² And Reuben answered them, saying, 'Spake I not to you, saying, Do not sin against the child, and ye would not hearken? Therefore, behold, also his blood is required.' ²³ And they knew not that Joseph understood them; for an interpreter was between them. ²⁴ And he turned himself about from them, and wept; and returned to them again, and spake with them, and he took from them Simeon, and bound him before their eyes.

²⁹ And they came to Jacob their father to the land of Canaan, and told him all that had befallen them; saying, '³⁰ The man, the lord of the land, spake roughly to us, and treated us as spies of the country. ³¹ And we said to him, We are true men; we are no spies. ³² We are twelve brethren, sons of our father; one is not, and the youngest is this day with our father in the land of Canaan. ³³ And the man, the lord of the country, said to us, Hereby shall I know that ye are true men; leave one of your brethren with me, and for the famine of your households take and be gone. ³⁴ And bring your youngest brother to me. Then shall I know that ye are no spies, but that ye are true men; so will I deliver to you your brother, and ye shall traffic in the land.'

³⁵ And it came to pass as they emptied their sacks, that, behold, every man's bundle of money was in his sack. And when both they and their father saw the bundles of money, they were afraid. ³⁶ And Jacob their father said to them, 'Me have

'ye bereaved of my children. Joseph is not, and 'Simeon is not, and ye will take Benjamin. All 'these things are against me.' ³⁷And Reuben spake to his father, saying, 'Slay my two sons if I 'bring him not to thee. Deliver him into my 'hand, and I will bring him to thee again.' ³⁸And he said, 'My son shall not go down with you; for 'his brother is dead, and he is left alone. If 'mischief befall him by the way in which ye go, 'then will ye bring down my grey hairs with 'sorrow to the grave.'

43 And the famine was sore in the land. ²And it came to pass when they had finished eating the corn which they had brought out of Lower Egypt, their father said to them, 'Go again, 'buy us a little food.' ³And Judah spake to him saying, 'The man did solemnly protest unto us, 'saying, Ye shall not see my face, except your 'brother be with you.' ⁴If thou wilt send our 'brother with us, we will go down and buy thee 'food. ⁵But if thou wilt not send him, we will 'not go down; for the man said to us, Ye shall 'not see my face, except your brother be with you.' ⁶And Israel said, 'Wherefore dealt ye so ill with 'me, as to tell the man whether ye had yet a 'brother?' ⁷And they said, 'The man asked 'strictly about ourselves, and about our kindred, 'saying, Is your father yet alive? Have ye a 'brother? And we told him according to the 'tenor of these words. Could we certainly know 'that he would say, Bring your brother down?' ⁸And Judah said to Israel his father, 'Send the 'lad with me, and we will arise and go; that we 'may live and not die, both we, and thou, and 'also our little ones. ⁹I will be surety for him; 'of my hand shalt thou require him. If I bring 'him not to thee, and set him before thee, then 'let me bear the blame for ever. ¹⁰For except we 'had lingered, surely now we had returned this 'second time.' ¹¹And their father Israel said to them, 'If it must be so now, do this; take some of 'the best fruits of the land in your vessels, and 'carry down to the man a present, a little balm, 'and a little sweetmeat, spices, and ladanum, 'pistacia-nuts, and almonds. ¹²And take double 'money in your hand; and the money that was 'brought again in the mouth of your sacks, carry 'it back in your hand; peradventure it was 'an oversight. ¹³Take also your brother, and 'arise, go again to the man. ¹⁴And may God 'Almighty give you mercy before the man, that 'he may send with you your other brother and 'Benjamin. And if I should be bereaved of my 'children, I am bereaved.'

¹⁵And the men took that present, and they took double money in their hand, and Benjamin; and rose up, and went down to Lower Egypt, and stood before Joseph. ¹⁶And when Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to him who was over his house, 'Bring these men home and slay what 'is fitting, and make ready: for these men shall 'dine with me at noon.' ¹⁷And the man did as

Joseph bade; and the man brought the men to Joseph's house. ¹⁸And the men were afraid, because they were brought to Joseph's house; and they said, 'Because of the money that was returned in our sacks at the first time are we being 'brought in; that he may seek occasion against 'us, and fall upon us, and take us for bond-servants, and our asses.' ¹⁹And they came near to the man who was over Joseph's house, and they spake with him at the doorway of the house, ²⁰and said, 'O my lord, we came indeed down at the first 'time to buy food. ²¹And it came to pass, when 'we came to the resting-place, that we opened our 'sacks, and behold, every man's money was in the 'mouth of his sack, our money in full weight; and 'we have brought it again in our hands. ²²And 'other money have we brought down in our hands 'to buy food. We do not know who put our 'money in our sacks.' ²³And he said, 'Peace be 'to you, fear not. Your God, and the God of 'your father, gave you the hidden treasure in your 'sacks. I had your money.' And he brought Simeon out to them. ²⁴And the man brought the men into Joseph's house, and gave them water, and they washed their feet; and he gave provender to their asses. ²⁵And they made ready the present against Joseph came at noon. For they heard that they should eat bread there.

²⁶And when Joseph came home, they brought to him the present, which was in their hand, into the house, and bowed themselves to him to the earth. ²⁷And he asked them of their welfare, and said, 'Is your father well, the old man of whom 'ye spake? Is he yet alive?' ²⁸And they answered, 'Thy servant our father is in good 'health, he is yet alive.' And they bowed down their heads, and did reverence. ²⁹And he lifted up his eyes, and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, and said, 'Is this your younger 'brother, of whom ye spake to me?' And he said, 'God be gracious to thee, my son.' ³⁰And Joseph made haste; for his bowels did yearn upon his brother; and he sought where to weep. And he entered into his chamber, and wept there. ³¹Then he washed his face, and went out, and refrained himself, and said, 'Set on bread.' ³²And they set on for him by himself, and for them by themselves, and for the Egyptians, who did eat with him, by themselves; because the Egyptians might not eat bread with the Hebrews; for that is an abomination to the Egyptians. ³³And they sat before him, the firstborn according to his birth-right, and the youngest according to his youth; and the men marvelled one at another. ³⁴And he took portions from what was before himself for them; but Benjamin's portion was five times so much as any of their portions. And they drank, and were merry with him.

'the silver goblet, in the sack's mouth of the youngest, with the money for his corn.' And he did according to the word that Joseph had spoken. ³As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their asses. ⁴And when they were gone out of the city, and were not yet far off, Joseph said to him who was over his house, 'Rise up, follow after the men; and when thou dost overtake them, say to them, 'Wherefore have ye returned evil for good? ⁵Is not this it in which my lord drinketh, and where-by indeed he divineth? Ye have done evil in so doing.'

⁶And he overtook them, and spake to them these same words. ⁷And they said to him, 'Wherefore speaketh my lord according to these words? It were wrong that thy servants should do according to this thing. ⁸Behold, the money, which we found in our sacks' mouths, we brought again to thee out of the land of Canaan. How then should we steal out of thy lord's house silver or gold? ⁹With whomsoever of thy servants it be found, both let him die, and we also will be my lord's bond-servants.' ¹⁰And he said, 'Now also let it be according to your words. He with whom it is found shall be my bond-servant; and ye shall be blameless.' ¹¹Then they speedily took down every man his sack to the ground, and opened every man his sack. ¹²And he searched, beginning at the eldest, and he left off at the youngest. And the goblet was found in Benjamin's sack. ¹³Then they rent their clothes, and laded every man his ass, and returned to the city.

¹⁴And Judah and his brethren came to Joseph's house, and he was yet there. And they fell before him to the ground. ¹⁵And Joseph said to them, 'What deed is this that ye have done? Knew ye not that such a man as I can certainly divine?' ¹⁶And Judah said, 'What shall we say to my lord? What shall we speak? Or how shall we clear ourselves? God hath found out the iniquity of thy servants. Behold, we are my lord's servants, both we and he also in whose hand the goblet hath been found.' ¹⁷And he said, 'It were wrong in me that I should do so; but the man in whose hand the goblet hath been found, he shall be my servant; and as for you, get you up in peace to your father.'

¹⁸Then Judah came near to him, and said, 'Oh my lord, let thy servant, I pray thee, speak a word in my lord's ears, and let not thine anger burn against thy servant; for thou art even as Pharaoh. ¹⁹My lord asked his servants, saying, 'Have ye a father, or a brother? ²⁰And we said to my lord, We have an old father, and a little child of his old age; and his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother; and his father loveth him. ²¹And thou saidst to thy servants, 'Bring him down to me, that I may set mine eyes upon him. ²²And we said to my lord, The lad cannot leave his father. For if he should leave his father, he [the father] would die.' ²³And

'thou saidst to thy servants, Except your youngest brother come down with you, ye shall see my face no more. ²⁴And it came to pass when we came up to thy servant my father, we told him the words of my lord. ²⁵And our father said, 'Go again, and buy us a little food. ²⁶And we said, We cannot go down. If our youngest brother be with us, then will we go down. For we may not see the man's face, except our youngest brother be with us. ²⁷And thy servant my father said to us, Ye know that my wife bare me two sons; ²⁸and the one went out from me, and I said, Surely he is torn in pieces; and I have not seen him since; ²⁹and if ye take this also from me; and mischief befall him, ye will bring down my grey hairs with trouble to the grave. ³⁰Now therefore when I come to thy servant my father, and the lad be not with us; seeing that his life is bound up in his [the lad's] life; ³¹it will come to pass when he seeth that the lad is not with us, that he will die; and thy servants will bring down the grey hairs of thy servant our father with sorrow to the grave. ³²For thy servant became surety for the lad to my father, saying, If I bring him not to thee, then I will bear the blame to my father for ever. ³³Now therefore, I pray thee, let thy servant abide instead of the lad a bond-servant to my lord; and let the lad go up with his brethren. ³⁴For how shall I go up to my father, and the lad be not with me? lest I see the evil that shall come on my father.'

⁴⁵Then Joseph could not refrain himself before all them that stood by him; and he cried, 'Cause every man to go out from me.' And there stood no man with him while Joseph made himself known to his brethren. ²And he wept aloud; and the Egyptians heard, and the house of Pharaoh heard. ³And Joseph said to his brethren, 'I am Joseph. Doth my father yet live?' And his brethren could not answer him, for they were troubled at his presence. ⁴And Joseph said to his brethren, 'Come near to me, I pray you.' And they came near. And he said, 'I am Joseph your brother whom ye sold into Lower Egypt. ⁵Now therefore be not grieved, nor angry with yourselves, that ye sold me hither; for God did send me before you to preserve life. ⁶For these two years hath the famine been throughout the land; and there are yet five years, in the which there shall neither be ploughing nor harvest. ⁷And God sent me before you to preserve for you a posterity on the earth, and to save your lives by a great deliverance. ⁸So now it was not ye that sent me hither, but God. And he hath made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and a ruler throughout all the land of Lower Egypt. ⁹Haste ye, and go up to my father, and say to him, Thus saith thy son Joseph, God hath made me lord of all Lower Egypt; come down to me, tarry not. ¹⁰And thou shalt dwell in the land of Goshen, and thou shalt be near to me, thou, and thy children, and thy children's children, and thy

'flocks, and thy herds, and all that thou hast. ¹¹ And there will I nourish thee; for there are yet five years of famine; lest thou, and thy household, and all that thou hast, come to poverty. ¹² And behold, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that it is my mouth that speaketh to you. ¹³ And ye shall tell my father of all my glory in Lower Egypt, and of all that ye have seen; and ye shall haste and bring down my father hither.'

¹⁶ And the fame thereof was heard in Pharaoh's house, saying, 'Joseph's brethren are come.' And it was good in Pharaoh's eyes, and in his servants' eyes. ¹⁷ And Pharaoh said to Joseph, 'Say to thy brethren, This do ye; lade your beasts, and go, get you to the land of Canaan. ¹⁸ And fetch your father and your households, and come to me. And I will give you the best of the land of Lower Egypt, and ye shall eat the fat of the land. ¹⁹ Now thou art commanded, this do ye; take to you wagons out of the land of Lower Egypt for your little ones, and for your wives; and carry your father, and come. ²⁰ Also regard not your goods; for the best of all the land of Lower Egypt is yours.'

²¹ And the children of Israel did so. And Joseph gave them wagons, according to the command of Pharaoh, and gave them flesh meat for the way. ²² To all of them he gave each man two changes of raiment; but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver, and five changes of raiment. ²³ And to his father he sent after this manner; ten asses laden with the good things of Lower Egypt, and ten she asses laden with corn and bread, and food for his father by the way. ²⁴ So he sent his brethren away, and they departed. And he said to them, 'Be not alarmed by the way.' ²⁵ And they went up out of Lower Egypt, and came into the land of Canaan to Jacob their father, ²⁶ and told him, saying, 'Joseph is yet alive, and he is governor over all the land of Lower Egypt.' And Jacob's heart fainted, for he believed them not. ²⁷ And they told him all the words of Joseph, which he had said to them. And when he saw the wagons which Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob their father revived; ²⁸ and Israel said, 'It is enough; Joseph my son is yet alive. I will go and see him before I die.'

⁴⁶ And Israel took his journey with all that he had, and came to Beer-sheba, and sacrificed sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac. ² And God spake to Israel in the visions of the night, and said, 'Jacob, Jacob.' And he said, 'Here I am.' ³ And he said, 'I am El [for God], the God of thy father. Fear not to go down into Lower Egypt; for I will there make of thee a great nation. ⁴ I myself will go down with thee into Lower Egypt; and I will also surely bring thee up again; and

'Joseph shall put his hand upon thine eyes.' ⁵ And Jacob rose up from Beer-sheba. And the sons of Israel carried Jacob their father, and their little ones, and their wives, in the wagons which Pharaoh had sent to carry him. ⁶ And they took their cattle, and their goods, which they had gotten in the land of Canaan, and came into Lower Egypt, Jacob and all his seed with him. ⁷ His sons, and his sons' sons with him, his daughters, and his sons' daughters, and all his seed brought he with him into Lower Egypt.

⁸ And these are the NAMES OF THE CHILDREN OF ISRAEL, who came into Lower Egypt, Jacob and his sons, Reuben was Jacob's firstborn. ⁹ And the sons of REUBEN; Hanoch, and Phallu, and Hezron, and Carmi. ¹⁰ And the sons of SIMEON; Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar, and Shaul the son of a Canaanitish woman. ¹¹ And the sons of LEVI; Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. ¹² And the sons of JUDAH; Er, and Onan, and Sheiah, and Pharez, and Zarah; but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan. And the sons of Pharez were Hezron and Hamul. ¹³ And the sons of ISSACHAR; Tola, and Phuvah, and Job, and Shimron. ¹⁴ And the sons of ZEBULUN; Seread, and Elon, and Jahleel. ¹⁵ These were the sons of Leah, whom she bare to Jacob in the Plains of Syria, with his daughter Dinah. All the souls of his sons and his daughters were thirty and three.

¹⁶ And the sons of GAD; Ziphion, and Haggi, Shuni, and Ezbon, Eri, and Arodi, and Areli. ¹⁷ And the sons of ASHER; Jimnah, and Ishuah, and Isui, and Beriah, and Serah their sister; and the sons of Beriah; Heber and Malchiel. ¹⁸ These were the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to Leah his daughter, and these she bare unto Jacob, even sixteen souls.

¹⁹ The sons of Rachel Jacob's wife; Joseph and Benjamin. ²⁰ And unto JOSEPH in the land of Lower Egypt were born Manasseh and Ephraim, whom Asenath the daughter of Poti-pherah priest of On bare unto him. ²¹ And the sons of BENJAMIN were Belah, and Becher, and Ashbel, Gera, and Naaman, Ehi, and Rosh, Muppim, and Huppim, and Ard. ²² These were the sons of Rachel, who were born to Jacob; all the souls were fourteen.

²³ And the sons of DAN; Hushim. ²⁴ And the sons of NAPHTALI; Jahzeel, and Guni, and Jezer, and Shillem. ²⁵ These were the sons of Bilhah, whom Laban gave to Rachel his daughter, and she bare these unto Jacob. All the souls were seven.

²⁶ All the souls that came with Jacob into Lower Egypt, which came out of his loins, besides the wives of Jacob's sons, all the souls were sixty and six. ²⁷ And the sons of Joseph who were born to him in Lower Egypt, were two souls. All the souls of the house of Jacob, which came into Lower Egypt, were seventy.

²⁸ And he sent Judah before him to Joseph, to direct his face unto Goshen. And they came into the land of Goshen. ²⁹ And Joseph made ready his chariot, and went up to meet Israel his father, to Goshen. And when he appeared before him, he fell on his neck, and wept on his neck a good while.

³⁰ And Israel said to Joseph, 'Now let me die, since 'I have seen thy face, because thou art yet alive.'

³¹ And Joseph said to his brethren, and to his father's house, 'I will go up, and tell Pharaoh, and 'say to him, My brethren, and my father's house, 'which were in the land of Canaan, are come to me.

³² And the men are shepherds, for they are owners 'of cattle; and they have brought their flocks, and 'their herds, and all that they have. ³³ And it 'shall come to pass, when Pharaoh shall call you, and shall say, What is your occupation? ³⁴ that 'ye shall say, Thy servants have been owners of 'cattle from our youth even until now, both we, and also our fathers; so that ye may dwell in the 'land of Goshen; for every shepherd is an abomination to the Egyptians.'

47 Then Joseph came and told Pharaoh, and said, 'My father and my brethren, and their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have, are come 'out of the land of Canaan; and behold, they are 'in the land of Goshen.' ² And he took from among his brethren five men, and presented them to Pharaoh. ³ And Pharaoh said to his brethren, 'What is your occupation?' And they said to Pharaoh, 'Thy servants are shepherds, both we, and also our fathers.' ⁴ They said moreover to Pharaoh, 'For to sojourn in the land are we come; 'for thy servants have no pasture for their flocks; 'for the famine is sore in the land of Canaan. 'Now therefore, we pray thee, let thy servants dwell 'in the land of Goshen.' ⁵ And Pharaoh spake to Joseph, saying, 'Thy father and thy brethren are 'come to thee. ⁶ The land of Lower Egypt is before 'thee; in the best of the land make thy father and 'brethren to dwell, in the land of Goshen let them 'dwell. And if thou knowest any men of activity 'among them, then make them rulers over such 'cattle as I have.' ⁷ And Joseph brought in Jacob his father, and set him before Pharaoh. And Jacob blessed Pharaoh. ⁸ And Pharaoh said to Jacob, 'How many are the days of the years of thy life?' ⁹ And Jacob said to Pharaoh, 'The days of the 'years of my pilgrimage are a hundred and thirty 'years. Few and evil have the days of the years 'of my life been, and they have not attained to the 'days of the years of the life of my fathers in the 'days of their pilgrimage.' ¹⁰ And Jacob blessed Pharaoh, and went out from before Pharaoh [A.M. 2238].

¹¹ And Joseph settled his father and his brethren, and gave them a possession in the land of Lower Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Rameses [or Heliopolis], as Pharaoh had commanded. ¹² And Joseph nourished his father, and his brethren, and all his father's household, with bread, according to the number of their little ones.

¹³ And there was no bread in all the land; for the famine was very sore, so that the land of Lower Egypt and the land of Canaan fainted by reason of the famine. ¹⁴ And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Lower

Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the corn which they bought. And Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house. ¹⁵ And when money failed in the land of Lower Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came to Joseph, and said, 'Give us bread; for why should we die in 'thy presence? For the money is at an end.'

¹⁶ And Joseph said, 'Give your cattle; and I will 'give you for your cattle, if money is at an end.' ¹⁷ And they brought their cattle to Joseph. And Joseph gave them bread in exchange for horses, and for the cattle of the flocks, and for the cattle of the herds, and for the asses. And he provided them with bread in exchange for all their cattle for that year. ¹⁸ When that year was ended, they came to him the second year, and said to him,

'We will not hide it from my lord, how that our 'money faileth. My lord also hath our herds of 'cattle; there is not ought left in the sight of my 'lord, but our bodies, and our lands. ¹⁹ Wherefore 'should we die before thine eyes, both we and our 'land? Buy us and our land for bread, and we 'and our land will be servants to Pharaoh. And 'give us seed, that we may live, and not die, that 'the land be not desolate.' ²⁰ And Joseph bought all the land of Lower Egypt for Pharaoh. For the Egyptians sold every man his field, because the famine prevailed over them. So the land became Pharaoh's. ²¹ And as for the people, he removed them to cities from one end of the boundary of Lower Egypt even to the other end thereof. ²² Only the land of the priests bought he not. For the priests had an allotment from Pharaoh, and did eat of their allotment which Pharaoh gave them. Therefore they sold not their lands.

²³ Then Joseph said to the people, 'Behold, I 'have bought you this day and your land for 'Pharaoh; lo, here is seed for you, and ye shall 'sow the land. ²⁴ And it shall come to pass in the 'increase, that ye shall give the fifth part to 'Pharaoh, and four parts shall be your own, for 'seed of the field, and for your food, and for them 'of your households, and for food for your little 'ones.' ²⁵ And they said, 'Thou hast saved our 'lives. Let us find grace in the sight of my lord, 'and we will be Pharaoh's servants.' ²⁶ And Joseph made it a law over the land of Lower Egypt unto this day, that Pharaoh should have the fifth part; except the land of the priests only, which became not Pharaoh's.

²⁷ And Israel dwelt in the land of Lower Egypt, in the land of Goshen; and they had possessions therein, and grew and multiplied exceedingly. ²⁸ And Jacob lived in the land of Lower Egypt seventeen years; so Jacob's days, the years of his life, were a hundred forty and seven years. ²⁹ And the time drew nigh that Israel must die. And he called his son Joseph, and said to him, 'If now I 'have found grace in thy sight, put, I pray thee, 'thy hand under my thigh, and deal kindly and 'truly with me. Bury me not, I pray thee, in 'Lower Egypt. ³⁰ But I will lie with my fathers,

'and thou shalt carry me out of Lower Egypt, and bury me in their burying-place.' And he said, 'I will do as thou hast said.' ³¹ And he said, 'Swear to me.' And he swore to him. And Israel bowed himself upon the bed's head.

⁴⁸ And it came to pass after these things, that one told Joseph, 'Behold, thy father is sick.' And he took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim. ² And one told Jacob, and said, 'Behold, thy son Joseph is come to thee.' And Israel strengthened himself, and sat upon the bed.

³ And Jacob said to Joseph, 'God Almighty appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and blessed me, ⁴ and said to me, Behold, I will make thee fruitful, and multiply thee, and I will make of thee an assembly of peoples [or tribes]; and I will give this land to thy seed after thee for an everlasting possession. ⁵ And now thy two sons, who were born to thee in the land of Lower Egypt, before I came to thee into Lower Egypt, are mine; as Reuben and Simeon, so Ephraim and Manasseh shall be mine. ⁶ (And thy issue, which thou begettest after them, shall be thine.) They shall be called after the name of their brethren in their inheritance. ⁷ And as for me, when I came from the Plains [of Syria], Rachel died by me in the land of Canaan in the way, when yet there was but a little way to come unto Ephraim. And I buried her there in the way of Ephraim. The same is Beth-lehem.'

⁸ And Israel beheld Joseph's sons, and said, 'Who are these?' ⁹ And Joseph said to his father, 'They are my sons, whom God hath given me in this place.' And he said, 'Bring them, I pray thee, to me, and I will bless them.' ¹⁰ Now the eyes of Israel were heavy from age, so that he could not see. And he brought them near to him. And he kissed them, and embraced them. ¹¹ And Israel said to Joseph, 'I had not thought to see thy face; and lo, God hath shewed me also thy seed.' ¹² And Joseph brought them out from between his knees, and he bowed himself with his face to the earth. ¹³ And Joseph took them both, Ephraim in his right hand toward Israel's left hand, and Manasseh in his left hand toward Israel's right hand, and came near to him. ¹⁴ And Israel stretched out his right hand, and laid it upon Ephraim's head, who was the younger, and his left hand upon Manasseh's head, guiding his hands wittingly; although Manasseh was the firstborn. ¹⁵ And he blessed Joseph, and said, 'May the God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac did walk, the God who hath fed me all my life long unto this day, ¹⁶ the angel who redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads; and let my name be named on them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac; and let them swarm into a multitude in the midst of the land.' ¹⁷ And when Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand upon Ephraim's head, it displeased him; and he held up his father's hand, to remove it from off Ephraim's head unto Manasseh's head. ¹⁸ And Joseph said to his father, 'Not so, my father; for this is the firstborn; put thy right hand upon his head.' ¹⁹ And his father refused, and said, 'I know it, my son, I know it. He also will become a people, and he also will be great. But truly his younger brother will be greater than he, and his seed will become a multitude of nations.' ²⁰ And he blessed them that day, saying, 'In thee will Israel bless, saying, may God make thee as Ephraim and as Manasseh.' And he set Ephraim before Manasseh.

²¹ And Israel said to Joseph, 'Behold, I die; but God will be with you, and bring you again to the land of your fathers. ²² Moreover I have given to thee one mountain-tract above thy brethren, which I took out of the hand of the Amorites with my sword and with my bow.'

⁴⁹ And Jacob called to his sons, and said, 'Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you that which will befall you in after days.

² Come together, and hear, ye sons of Jacob; And hearken unto Israel your father.

³ REUBEN, thou art my firstborn, My might, and the beginning of my strength, Excellent in dignity, and excellent in power. ⁴ Unstable as water, thou shalt not be preferred; Because thou wentest up to thy father's bed; Then defiledst thou my couch by going up.

⁵ SIMEON and LEVI are brethren; Instruments of cruelty are their sword. ⁶ O my soul, come not thou into their friendship; Unto their assembly, mine honour, be not thou united; For in their anger they slew men, And in their self-will they hamstrung oxen. ⁷ Cursed be their anger, for it was fierce, And their wrath, for it was cruel; I will divide them in Jacob, and scatter them in Israel.

¹³ ZEBULUN shall dwell on the coast of the ocean; And he shall be on a coast fit for ships; And his farthest boundary shall be unto Sidon.

¹⁴ ISSACHAR is a bony ass

'Couching down among the cattle-fastenings;
 15 And he saw that the resting-place was good,
 16 And the land that it was pleasant;
 17 And he bowed his shoulder to the burden,
 18 And became a servant unto tribute.
 19 DAN shall judge his people,
 20 As one of the sceptres of Israel.
 21 (DAN shall be a serpent by the way,
 22 An adder in the path; he biteth the horse's heels,
 23 So that its rider [king Nadab] falleth backward.
 24 I have waited for thy salvation, O Jehovah.)

19 GAD, a troop shall attack him;
 20 But he shall attack the rear.
 21 Out of ASHER shall be his fat bread,
 22 And he shall yield dainties for the king.
 23 NAPHTALI is a hind let loose; he giveth
 24 'goodly words.
 25 JOSEPH is a fruitful bough, a fruitful bough
 26 'by a well;
 27 His branches mount over the wall.
 28 The archers have sorely grieved him,
 29 And shot at him, and laid snares for him.
 30 But his bow abode in strength,
 31 And the arms of his hands were made strong,
 32 By the hands of the Mighty One of Jacob;
 33 By the name of the Shepherd, the Stone of Israel;
 34 25 By the God of thy father, who will help thee,
 35 And the Almighty, who will bless thee,
 36 With the blessings of heaven above,
 37 The blessings of the deep that lieth beneath,
 38 The blessings of the breasts, and of the womb.
 39 26 May the blessings of thy father be mighty
 40 Above the blessings of the eternal mountains,
 41 As the glory of the everlasting hills.
 42 They shall be on the head of Joseph,
 43 And on the crown of the head of the chief of his 44 'brethren.

27 BENJAMIN is a wolf that teareth;
 28 In the morning he will devour the prey,
 29 And in the evening he will divide the spoil.
 30 All these are the twelve tribes of Israel; and 31 this it is that their father spake to them. And he 32 blessed them; every one according to his blessing 33 he blessed them. 29 And he charged them, and 34 said to them, 'I am to be gathered to my people;
 35 bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in 36 'the field of Ephron the Hittite, 30 in the cave that 37 'is in the field of Machpelah, which is before
 38 'Mamre, in the land of Canaan, which Abraham 39 'bought together with the field from Ephron the 40 'Hittite for a possession of a burying-place.
 41 31 There they buried Abraham and Sarah his 42 'wife; there they buried Isaac and Rebekah his 43 'wife; and there I buried Leah. 32 The purchase 44 'of the field and of the cave that is therein was 45 'from the children of Heth.' 33 And when Jacob 46 had made an end of commanding his sons, he 47 gathered up his feet on to the bed, and breathed 48 his last, and was gathered to his people.

50 And Joseph fell upon his father's face, and wept upon him, and kissed him. 51 And Joseph commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father. And the physicians embalmed Israel.

 3 And forty days were fulfilled for him; for so are fulfilled the days of those which are embalmed.
 And the Egyptians wept for him seventy days.

4 And when the days of weeping for him were past, Joseph spake to the house of Pharaoh, saying,
 5 'If now I have found grace in your eyes, speak, I
 6 'pray you, in the ears of Pharaoh, saying, 5 My 6 'father made me swear, saying, Lo, I die; in my 7 'grave which I have digged for myself in the land
 8 'of Canaan [ch. xxxiii. 19], there shalt thou bury 9 'me. Now, therefore, let me go up, I pray thee, 10 'and bury my father, and I will come again.' 6 And 7 Pharaoh said, 'Go up, and bury thy father, accord-
 8 'ing as he made thee swear.' 7 And Joseph went 9 up to bury his father; and with him went up all 10 the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his house,
 11 and all the elders of the land of Lower Egypt,
 12 and all the house of Joseph, and his brethren, 13 and his father's house. Only their little ones, and 14 their flocks, and their herds, they left in the land
 15 of Goshen. 9 And there went up with him both 16 chariots and horsemen. And the camp was very 17 great.

10 And they came to the threshing-floor of Atad, which is beyond the Jordan, and there they mourned with a great and very sore mourning.
 And he made a mourning for his father seven days. 11 And when the inhabitants of the land, 12 the Canaanites, saw the mourning at the threshing-
 13 floor of Atad, they said, 'This is a grievous mourn-
 14 'ing to the Egyptians.' Therefore the name of it 15 was called Abel-mizraim [the Mourning of the 16 Egyptians], which is beyond the Jordan. 12 And 17 his sons did unto him according as he commanded
 18 them.

13 And his sons carried him into the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, which Abraham bought together with the field for a possession of a burying-place from Ephron the Hittite, before Mamre.

14 And Joseph returned into Lower Egypt, he, and his brethren, and all that went up with him to bury his father, after he had buried his father.

15 And when Joseph's brethren saw that their father was dead, they said, 'Joseph will perad-16 'venture be unfriendly to us, and will certainly 17 'requite us all the evil which we dealt out to him.'
 18 And they sent a messenger to Joseph, saying,
 19 'Thy father did command before he died, saying,
 20 '17 So shall ye say to Joseph, Forgive, I pray thee
 21 'now, the trespass of thy brethren, and their sin;
 22 'for they dealt out evil to thee. And now, we 23 'pray thee, forgive the trespass of the servants of 24 'the God of thy father.' And Joseph wept when 25 they spake to him. 18 And his brethren also went 26 and fell down before his face; and they said,
 27 'Behold, we are thy servants.' 19 And Joseph 28 said to them, 'Fear not; for am I in the place of 29 'God? 20 Though ye meant evil against me, God
 30 'meant it for good, in order to bring to pass, as it

'is this day, the saving much people alive. ²¹ Now therefore fear ye not: I will nourish you, and 'your little ones.' And he comforted them, and spake to their hearts.

²² And Joseph dwelt in Lower Egypt, he, and his father's house. And Joseph lived a hundred and ten years. ²³ And Joseph saw Ephraim's children of the third generation; and the children of Machir the son of Manasseh were born upon

Joseph's knees. ²⁴ And Joseph said to his brethren, 'I die. And God will surely visit you, and bring you out of this land to the land about which he 'sware to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.' ²⁵ And Joseph made the children of Israel to swear, saying, 'God will surely visit you, and ye 'shall carry up my bones from hence.' ²⁶ So Joseph died, being a hundred and ten years old; and they embalmed him, and he was put into a coffin in Lower Egypt.

THE BOOK OF EXODUS.

1 NOW THESE ARE THE NAMES of the sons of Israel, who came into Lower Egypt with Jacob; every man came, and his household.

² Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah,

³ Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin,

⁴ Dan, and Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.

⁵ And all the souls that came out of the loins of Jacob were seventy souls; for Joseph was in Lower Egypt already. ⁶ And Joseph died, and all his brethren, and all that generation. ⁷ And the children of Israel were fruitful, and increased abundantly, and multiplied, and became very, very mighty; and the land was filled with them.

⁸ Now there arose up a NEW KING over Lower Egypt, who knew not Joseph. ⁹ And he said to his people, 'Behold, the people of the children of 'Israel are more and mightier than we. ¹⁰ Come 'on, let us deal wisely with them, lest they multiply, and it come to pass, that, when there falleth out 'any war, they join also unto those that hate us, 'and they fight against us, and go up out of the 'land.' ¹¹ Therefore they did set over them task-masters so as to afflict them with their burdens. And they built for Pharaoh store-cities, Pithom and Rameses. ¹² But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and spread abroad. And they were grieved because of the children of Israel. ¹³ And the Egyptians made the children of Israel to serve with rigour; ¹⁴ and they made their lives bitter with hard bondage, in mortar, and in bricks, and in all manner of service in the field. All their service, wherein they made them serve, was with rigour.

'alive?' ¹⁹ And the midwives said to Pharaoh, 'Because the Hebrew women are not as the 'Egyptian women; for they are lively, and are 'delivered ere the midwives come unto them.' ²⁰ Therefore God dealt well with the midwives; and the people multiplied, and became very mighty. ²¹ And it came to pass, because the midwives feared God, that he made unto them households. ²² And Pharaoh charged all his people, saying, 'Every son that is born ye shall cast into the river, 'and every daughter ye shall save alive.'

² And there went a man of the house of Levi, and took to wife a daughter of Levi. ² And the woman conceived, and bare a son. And she saw him that he was a goodly child, and she hid him three months. ³ And when she could not longer hide him, she took for him an ark of paper-reeds, and daubed it with bitumen and with pitch, and laid the child therein; and she laid it in the flags by the river's brink. ⁴ And his sister placed herself afar off, to know what would be done to him. ⁵ And the daughter of Pharaoh came down to wash at the river; and her maidens walked along by the river's side. And when she saw the ark among the flags, she sent her maid to fetch it. ⁶ And when she had opened it, she saw the child; and behold, the babe wept. And she had compassion on him, and said, 'This is one of the 'Hebrews' children.' ⁷ Then said his sister to Pharaoh's daughter, 'Shall I go and call to thee 'a nurse of the Hebrew women, that she may 'nurse the child for thee?' ⁸ And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, 'Go.' And the young woman went and called the child's mother. ⁹ And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, 'Take this child 'away and nurse it for me, and I will give thee 'thy wages.' And the woman took the child, and nursed it. ¹⁰ And the child grew, and she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. And she called his name Moses [or Raise up]; and she said, 'Because I raised him up out of the water.'

¹² And he looked this way and that way, and when he saw that there was no man, he slew the Egyptian and hid him in the sand. ¹³ And when he went out the second day, behold, two men of the Hebrews strove together. And he said to him that did the wrong, 'Wherefore smitest thou 'thy fellow?' ¹⁴ And he said, 'Who made thee a 'prince and judge over us? Thinkest thou to kill 'me, as thou killedst the Egyptian?' And Moses feared, and said, 'Surely this thing is known.' ¹⁵ Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to slay Moses. But Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of Midian. And he sat down by the well.

¹⁶ Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters; and they came and drew water, and filled the troughs to water their father's flock. ¹⁷ And the Shepherds came and drove them away. But Moses stood up and helped them, and watered their flock. ¹⁸ And when they came to Reuel their father, he said, 'How is it that ye are come so soon to-day?' ¹⁹ And they said, 'An Egyptian 'delivered us out of the hand of the Shepherds, 'and also drew water enough for us, and watered 'the flock.' ²⁰ And he said to his daughters, 'And 'where is he? Why is it that ye have left the 'man? Call him, that he may eat bread.' ²¹ And Moses was content to dwell with the man. And he gave to Moses Ziphrah his daughter. ²² And she bare a son, and he called his name Gershom [for a stranger there]; for he said, 'I have been a stranger in a foreign land.'

²³ And it came to pass, after many days, that the king of Egypt died. And the children of Israel sighed by reason of the bondage, and they cried, and their cry, by reason of the bondage, came up to God. ²⁴ And God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob. ²⁵ And God looked upon the children of Israel, and God understood.

3 Now Moses was feeding the flock of Jethro his father in law, the priest of Midian; and he led the flock to the back of the desert, and came to the Mountain of God, to Horeb. ² And the angel of Jehovah appeared to him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush. And he looked, and behold, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed. ³ And Moses said, 'I will now turn aside, and see this great 'sight, why the bush is not burnt.' ⁴ And when Jehovah saw that he turned aside to see, God called to him out of the midst of the bush, and said, 'Moses, Moses.' And he said, 'Here I am.' ⁵ And he said, 'Draw not nigh hither; put off thy 'shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon 'thou standest is holy ground.' ⁶ And he said, 'I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, 'the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.' And Moses hid his face; for he was afraid to look upon God. ⁷ And Jehovah said, 'I have surely 'seen the affliction of my people who are in Lower 'Egypt, and have heard their cry by reason of their

'taskmasters; for I know their sorrows; ⁸ and I will 'come down to deliver them out of the hand of 'the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that 'land to a land good and large, to a land flowing 'with milk and honey; to the place of the 'Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, 'and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the 'Jebusites. ⁹ And now, behold, the cry of the 'children of Israel is come unto me; and I have 'also seen the oppression wherewith the Egyptians 'oppress them. ¹⁰ Come now therefore, and I will 'send thee to Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring forth 'my people the children of Israel out of Egypt.' ¹¹ And Moses said to God, 'Who am I, that I should 'go to Pharaoh, and that I should bring forth 'the children of Israel out of Egypt?' ¹² And he said, 'Certainly I will be with thee; and this 'shall be a token to thee, that I have sent thee; 'when thou bringest forth the people out of 'Egypt, ye shall serve God upon this mountain.' ¹³ And Moses said to God, 'Behold, when I come 'to the children of Israel, and say to them, The 'God of your fathers hath sent me to you; and 'they say to me, What is his name? what shall I 'say to them?' ¹⁴ And God said to Moses, 'I AM I 'THAT AM.' And he said, 'Thou shalt thou say 'to the children of Israel; I AM hath sent me to 'you.' ¹⁵ And God said moreover to Moses, 'Thou 'shalt thou say to the children of Israel; Jehovah, 'the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, 'the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath 'sent me to you; this is my name for ever, and 'this is my memorial to generations of generations. ¹⁶ Go, and gather the elders of Israel together, 'and say to them, Jehovah, the God of your 'fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of 'Jacob, appeared to me, saying, I have surely 'visited you, and seen that which is done to you 'in Egypt; ¹⁷ and I have said, I will bring you 'up out of the affliction of Egypt to the land of 'the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the 'Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, 'and the Jebusites, to a land flowing with milk 'and honey. ¹⁸ And they will hearken to thy 'voice. And thou shalt come, thou and the elders 'of Israel, to the King of Egypt, and ye shall say 'to him, Jehovah, the God of the Hebrews, hath 'met with us; and now let us go, we beseech thee, 'three days' journey into the desert, that we may 'sacrifice to Jehovah our God. ¹⁹ And I know 'that the king of Egypt will not let you go, no, 'not by a mighty hand. ²⁰ And I will stretch out 'my hand, and smite Lower Egypt with all my 'wonders which I will do in the midst thereof; 'and after that he will let you go. ²¹ And I will 'give this people favour in the sight of the 'Egyptians. And it shall come to pass, that, 'when ye go, ye shall not go empty. ²² But every 'woman shall borrow of her neighbour, and of her 'that sojourneth in her house, jewels of silver and 'jewels of gold, and raiment; and ye shall put 'them upon your sons, and upon your daughters; 'and ye shall spoil the Egyptians.'

4 And Moses answered and said, 'But, behold, they will not believe me, nor hearken to my voice; for they will say, Jehovah hath not appeared to thee.' 2 And Jehovah said to him, 'What is that in thy hand?' And he said, 'A rod.' 3 And he said, 'Cast it on the ground.' And he cast it on the ground, and it became a serpent; and Moses fled from before it. 4 And Jehovah said to Moses, 'Put forth thy hand, and take it by its tail.' And he put forth his hand, and caught it, and it became a rod in his hand; 5 'So that they may believe that Jehovah, the God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath appeared to thee.' 6 And Jehovah said furthermore to him, 'Put now thy hand into thy bosom.' And he put his hand into his bosom; and when he took it out, behold, his hand was leprous as snow. 7 And he said, 'Put thy hand into thy bosom again.' And he put his hand into his bosom again, and plucked it out of his bosom, and behold, it was turned again as his flesh. 8 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe thee, neither hearken to the voice of the first sign, that they will believe the voice of the latter sign. 9 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe even these two signs, neither hearken to thy voice, that thou shalt take some of the water of the river, and pour it upon the dry land; and the water which thou takest out of the river shall become blood upon the dry land.' 10 And Moses said to Jehovah, 'O my lord, I am not a man of words, neither heretofore, nor since thou hast spoken to thy servant; but I am slow of speech, and of a slow tongue.' 11 And Jehovah said to him, 'Who hath given a mouth to man? Or who maketh him dumb, or deaf, or seeing, or blind? Is it not I, Jehovah?' 12 Now therefore go, and I will be with thy mouth, and will teach thee what thou shalt say.' 13 And he said, 'O my lord, send, I pray thee, by the hand of him whom thou shouldst send.' 14 And the anger of Jehovah was kindled against Moses, and he said, 'Is not Aaron the Levite thy brother?' 15 I know that he can speak well. And also, behold, he cometh forth to meet thee. And when he seeth thee, he will be glad in his heart.' 16 And thou shalt speak to him, and thou shalt put the words into his mouth; and I will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach you what ye shall do. 17 And he shall be thy spokesman to the people. And he shall be, even he shall be to thee for a mouth, and thou shalt be to him for a God. 18 And thou shalt take this rod in thy hand, wherewith thou shalt do the signs.'

19 And Moses went and returned to Jethro his father in law, and said to him, 'Let me go, I pray thee, and return to my brethren who are in Lower Egypt, and see whether they be yet alive.' And Jethro said to Moses, 'Go in peace.'

20 And Jehovah said to Moses in Midian, 'Go, return to Lower Egypt; for all the men are dead

'who sought thy life.' 21 And Moses took his wife and his sons, and made them ride on an ass, and he returned to the land of Lower Egypt. And Moses took the rod of God in his hand. 22 And Jehovah said to Moses, 'When thou goest to return into Lower Egypt, see that thou do all those wonders before Pharaoh, which I have put in thy hand. But I will harden his heart, that he shall not let the people go.' 23 And thou shalt say to Pharaoh, 'Thus saith Jehovah, Israel is my son, even my firstborn; 24 and I say to thee, Let my son go, that he may serve me; and if thou refuse to let him go, behold, I will slay thy son, even thy firstborn.'

25 And it came to pass by the way at the resting-place, that Jehovah met him, and sought to kill him. 26 And Ziphrah took a sharp stone, and cut off the foreskin of her son; and she cast [the stone] at his feet, and said, 'Surely thou art a bridegroom of bloodshed to me.' 27 But he drew back from it. Then she said, 'Thou art a bridegroom of bloodshed because of the circumcision.'

28 And Jehovah said to Aaron, 'Go into the desert to meet Moses.' And he went, and met him at the Mount of God, and kissed him. 29 And Moses related to Aaron all the words of Jehovah who had sent him, and all the signs which he had commanded him. 30 And Moses and Aaron went and gathered together all the elders of the children of Israel. 31 And Aaron spake all the words which Jehovah had spoken to Moses, and he did the signs in the sight of the people. 32 And the people believed. And when they heard that Jehovah had visited the children of Israel, and that he had looked upon their affliction, then they bowed their heads and worshipped.

33 And afterwards Moses and Aaron went in, and said to Pharaoh, 'Thus saith Jehovah the God of Israel, Let my people go, that they may hold a feast unto me in the desert.' 34 And Pharaoh said, 'Who is Jehovah, that I should obey his voice to let Israel go? I know not Jehovah, neither will I let Israel go.' 35 And they said, 'The God of the Hebrews hath met with us. Let us go, we pray thee, three days' journey into the desert, and sacrifice to Jehovah our God; lest he fall upon us with pestilence, or with the sword.' 36 And the king of Egypt said to them, 'Wherefore do ye, Moses and Aaron, hinder the people from their works? Get you to your burdens.' 37 And Pharaoh said, 'Behold, the people of the land now are many, and ye make them rest from their burdens.'

38 And Pharaoh commanded the same day the taskmasters over the people, and their officers, saying, 'Ye shall not continue to give the people straw to make the bricks as heretofore; let them go and gather straw for themselves.' 39 And the tale of the bricks, which they did make heretofore, ye shall lay upon them; ye shall not diminish aught thereof. For they are idle; therefore they cry, saying, Let us go and sacrifice to our God.'

'⁹ Let the work be heavy upon the men, that they may labour therein; and let not their false words be regarded.' ¹⁰ And the taskmasters of the people went out, and their officers, and they spake to the people, saying, 'Thus saith Pharaoh, I will not give you straw. ¹¹ Go ye, get for yourselves straw where ye can find it. Yet not aught of your work shall be diminished.' ¹² So the people scattered themselves abroad throughout all the land of Lower Egypt to gather stubble for straw. ¹³ And the taskmasters urged them, saying, 'Fulfil your works, each day's work in its day, as when there was straw.' ¹⁴ And they beat the officers of the children of Israel, whom Pharaoh's taskmasters had set over them, saying, 'Wherefore have ye not fulfilled your task in making bricks both yesterday and to-day, as heretofore?'

¹⁵ Then the officers of the children of Israel came and cried to Pharaoh, saying, 'Wherefore dealest thou thus with thy servants? ¹⁶ There is no straw given to thy servants, and they say to us, Make bricks; and behold, thy servants are beaten; but the fault is in thine own people.' ¹⁷ But he said, 'Ye are idle, ye are idle; therefore ye say, Let us go and do sacrifice to Jehovah. ¹⁸ Go therefore now, and work; for there shall no straw be given you, yet shall ye deliver the tale of bricks.' ¹⁹ And the officers of the children of Israel did see that they were in evil case, after it was said, 'Ye shall not diminish aught from your bricks of your daily task.' ²⁰ And they met Moses and Aaron, who stood to meet them, as they came forth from Pharaoh; ²¹ and they said to them, 'May Jehovah look upon you, and judge; because ye have made us to have a bad odour in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of his servants, to put a sword in their hand to slay us.'

²² And Moses returned to Jehovah, and said, 'O Lord, wherefore hast thou evil-treated this people? Why is it that thou hast sent me? ²³ For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in thy name, he hath done evil to this people; neither hast thou delivered thy people at all.' G And Jehovah said to Moses, 'Now shalt thou see what I will do to Pharaoh; for with a strong hand shall he let them go, and with a strong hand shall he drive them out of his land.'

² And God spake to Moses, and said to him, 'I am Jehovah. ³ And I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, as El [or God] Almighty, but by my name Jehovah was I not known to them. ⁴ And I also established my covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their sojournings, wherein they sojourned. ⁵ And I have also heard the groaning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keep in bondage; and I will remember my covenant. ⁶ Therefore say to the children of Israel, I am Jehovah, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will deliver you out of their bondage, and I will redeem you with a stretched-out arm, and with great judgments. ⁷ And I will 'take you to me for a people, and I will be to you a God. And ye shall know that I am Jehovah your God, who bringeth you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians. ⁸ And I will bring you into the land, concerning the which I did lift up my hand [in oath] to give it to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; and I will give it you for a possession. I am Jehovah.' ⁹ And Moses spake so to the children of Israel. But they hearkened not to Moses for anguish of spirit, and for cruel bondage.

(¹⁴ These were the heads of their fathers' houses. The sons of REUBEN the firstborn of Israel; Hanoch, and Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi; these were the families of Reuben. ¹⁵ And the sons of SIMEON; Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar, and Shaul the son of the Canaanitish woman; these were the families of Simeon. ¹⁶ And these are the names of the sons of LEVI according to their birth-book; Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari. And the years of the life of Levi were a hundred thirty and seven years. ¹⁷ The sons of Gershon; Libni and Shimi, according to their families. ¹⁸ And the sons of Kohath; Amram, and Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel. And the years of the life of Kohath were a hundred thirty and three years. ¹⁹ And the sons of Merari; Mahali and Mushi; these were the families of Levi according to their birth-book.

²⁰ And Amram took him Jochebed his aunt to wife; and she bare him Aaron and Moses. And the years of the life of Amram were a hundred and thirty and seven years. ²¹ And the sons of Izhar; Korah, and Nepheg, and Zichri. ²² And the sons of Uzziel; Mishael, and Elzaphan, and Sithri. ²³ And Aaron took him Elisheba, daughter of Aminadab, sister of Naashon, to wife; and she bare him Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. ²⁴ And the sons of Korah; Assir, and Elkanah, and Abiasaph; these were the families of the Korahites. ²⁵ And Eleazar the son of Aaron took him one of the daughters of Putiel to wife; and she bare him Phinehas. These were the heads of the fathers of the Levites according to their families. ²⁶ These were that Aaron and Moses, to whom Jehovah said, 'Bring out the children of Israel from the land of Lower Egypt according to their hosts.' ²⁷ These were they who spake to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring out the children of Israel from Lower Egypt. These were that Moses and Aaron.)

²⁸ AND IT CAME TO PASS on the day when Jehovah spake to Moses in the land of Lower Egypt, ²⁹ that Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, 'I am Jehovah; speak thou to Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I say to thee.' ³⁰ And Moses said before Jehovah; 'Behold I am of uncircumcised lips, and how shall Pharaoh hearken to me?' ⁷ And Jehovah said to Moses, 'See, I have made thee a god to Pharaoh; and Aaron thy brother shall be thy prophet. Thou shalt speak all that I command thee; and Aaron thy brother shall speak to Pharaoh, that he send the children of Israel out of his land. And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and I will multiply my signs and my wonders in the land of Lower Egypt. ⁴ But Pharaoh shall not hearken to you, and I will lay my hand upon Lower Egypt, and bring forth mine armies, even my people the children of Israel, out of the land of Lower Egypt by great judgments; ⁵ and the Egyptians shall know that I am Jehovah, when I stretch forth my hand upon Lower Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among them.' ⁶ And Moses and Aaron did as Jehovah commanded them, so did they. ⁷ And Moses was eighty years old, and Aaron eighty and three years old when they spake to Pharaoh.

⁸ And Jehovah spake to Moses and to Aaron, saying, ⁹ When Pharaoh shall speak to you, saying, 'Show a wonder for you; then thou shalt say to Aaron, Take thy rod, and cast it before Pharaoh, and it shall become a SERPENT.' ¹⁰ And Moses and Aaron went in unto Pharaoh, and they did as Jehovah had commanded. And Aaron cast down his rod before Pharaoh, and before his servants, and it became a serpent. ¹¹ Then Pharaoh also called the wise men and the sorcerers. And the sacred scribes of Lower Egypt, they also did in like manner with their hidden arts. ¹² For they cast down every man his rod, and they became serpents; but Aaron's rod swallowed up their rods. ¹³ And Pharaoh's heart was hardened, that he hearkened not to them; as Jehovah had said.

¹⁴ And Jehovah said to Moses, 'Pharaoh's heart is hardened, he refuseth to let the people go. ¹⁵ Get thee to Pharaoh in the morning; lo, he goeth out to the water; and thou shalt stand by the river's brink to meet him; and the rod which was turned to a serpent shalt thou take in thy hand. ¹⁶ And thou shalt say to him, Jehovah the God of the Hebrews hath sent me to thee, saying, Let my people go, that they may serve me in the desert; and behold, hitherto thou wouldest not hear. ¹⁷ Thus saith Jehovah, in this thou shalt know that I am Jehovah. Behold, I will smite with the rod that is in my hand upon the waters which are in the river, and they shall be turned to BLOOD. ¹⁸ And the fish that is in the river shall die, and the river shall stink; and the Egyptians shall loath to drink water from the river.'

¹⁹ And Jehovah said to Moses, 'Say to Aaron, Take thy rod, and stretch out thy hand over the waters of Lower Egypt, over their rivers, over their streams, and over their ponds, and over every gathering of their waters, that they may become blood; and that there may be blood throughout all the land of Lower Egypt, both in vessels of wood, and in vessels of stone.' ²⁰ And Moses and Aaron did so, as Jehovah commanded. And he lifted up the rod, and smote the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his servants; and all the waters that were in the river were turned to blood. ²¹ And the fish that was in the river died; and the river stank, and the Egyptians could not drink water from the river; and the blood was throughout all the land of Lower Egypt. ²² Thus also did the sacred scribes of Lower Egypt with their hidden arts. And Pharaoh's heart was hardened, neither did he hearken to them; as Jehovah had said. ²³ And Pharaoh turned and went into his house, neither did he set his heart to this also. ²⁴ And all the Egyptians digged round about the river for water to drink; for they could not drink of the waters of the river.

²⁵ And seven days were fulfilled, after Jehovah had smitten the river. ⁸ And Jehovah said to Moses, 'Go to Pharaoh, and say to him, Thus saith Jehovah, Let my people go, that they may serve me. ² And if thou refuse to let them go, behold, I will smite all thy boundaries with Frogs. ³ And the river shall bring forth frogs abundantly, which shall go up and come into thy house, and into thy bedchamber, and upon thy bed, and into the house of thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thine ovens, and into thy kneading-troughs. ⁴ And the frogs shall come up both on thee, and on thy people, and on all thy servants.'

⁸ Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, 'Intreat Jehovah, that he may take away the frogs from me, and from my people, and I will let the people go, that they may sacrifice to Jehovah.' ⁹ And Moses said to Pharaoh, 'Honour me with a time when I shall intreat for thee, and for thy servants, and for thy people, to destroy the frogs from thee and thy houses, that they may remain in the river only.' ¹⁰ And he said, 'To-morrow.' And he said, 'Be it according to thy word; so that thou mayest know that there is none like unto Jehovah our God. ¹¹ And the frogs shall depart from thee, and from thy houses, and from thy servants, and from thy people; they shall remain in the river only.' ¹² And Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh. And Moses cried to Jehovah because of the frogs which he had brought against Pharaoh. ¹³ And Jehovah did according to the word of Moses; and the frogs died out of the houses, out of the villages, and out of the fields; ¹⁴and they gathered them up in heaps and heaps; and the land stank. ¹⁵But when Pharaoh saw that there was breathing-time, he hardened his heart, and hearkened not to them; as Jehovah had said.

¹⁶And Jehovah said to Moses, 'Say to Aaron, "Stretch out thy rod, and smite the dust of the land, that it may become GNATS throughout all the land of Lower Egypt." ¹⁷And they did so; and Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod, and smote the dust of the earth, and it became gnats on man, and on beast; all the dust of the earth became gnats, throughout all the land of Lower Egypt. ¹⁸And the sacred scribes did the same with their hidden arts to send away the gnats, but they could not. So the gnats were on man and on beast. ¹⁹Then the sacred scribes said to Pharaoh, "This is the finger of God." But Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he hearkened not to them; as Jehovah had said.

²⁰And Jehovah said to Moses, 'Rise up early in the morning, and place thyself before Pharaoh; lo, he cometh forth to the water. And say to him, Thus saith Jehovah, Let my people go, that they may serve me. ²¹Else, if thou wilt not let my people go, behold I will send BEETLES upon thee, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thy houses; and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of beetles, and also the ground whereon they are. ²²And I will set apart in that day the land of Goshen, in which my people dwell, that no beetles shall be there; to the end thou mayest know that I Jehovah am in the midst of the land. ²³And I will put a division between my people and thy people; to-morrow shall this sign be.' ²⁴And Jehovah did so. And there came a grievous swarm of beetles into the house of Pharaoh, and into his servants' houses, and into all the land of Lower Egypt; the land was corrupted by reason of the beetles.

²⁵And Pharaoh called for Moses and for Aaron, and said, 'Go ye, sacrifice to your God in the land.' ²⁶And Moses said, 'It is not right so to do; for we should sacrifice the abomination [or ox-god] of the Egyptians to Jehovah our God. Lo, should we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and will they not stone us?' ²⁷We will go three days' journey into the desert, and sacrifice to Jehovah our God, as he shall command us.' ²⁸And Pharaoh said, 'I will let you go, that ye may sacrifice to Jehovah your God in the desert; only ye shall not go very far away. Do ye intreat for me.' ²⁹And Moses said, 'Behold, I go out from thee, and I will intreat Jehovah that the beetles may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people, to-morrow. But let not Pharaoh deal deceitfully any more in not letting the people go to sacrifice to Jehovah.' ³⁰And Moses went out from Pharaoh, and intreated Jehovah. ³¹And Jehovah did according to the word of Moses; and he removed the beetles from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people; there remained not one. ³²But Pharaoh hardened his heart at this time also, neither would he let the people go.

⁹ Then Jehovah said to Moses, 'Go to Pharaoh, and tell him, Thus saith Jehovah the God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me. ²For if thou refuse to let them go, and wilt hold them still, ³behold, the hand of Jehovah will be upon thy cattle which is in the field, upon the horses, upon the asses, upon the camels, upon the oxen, and upon the sheep; there shall be a very grievous PESTILENCE. ⁴And Jehovah will sever between the cattle of Israel and the cattle of the Egyptians; and there shall nothing die of all that is the children of Israel's.' ⁵And Jehovah appointed a set time, saying, 'To-morrow Jehovah will do this thing in the land.' ⁶And Jehovah did that thing on the morrow, and all the cattle of the Egyptians died; but of the cattle of the children of Israel died not one. ⁷And Pharaoh sent, and behold, there was not so much as one of the cattle of the Israelites dead. But the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he did not let the people go.

⁸ And Jehovah said to Moses and to Aaron, 'Take to you both your hands full of wood ashes of the furnace, and let Moses sprinkle it towards the heavens in the sight of Pharaoh. ⁹And it shall become small dust in all the land of Lower Egypt, and shall be a BOIL breaking forth with blains upon man and upon beast throughout all the land of Lower Egypt.' ¹⁰And they took wood ashes of the furnace, and stood before Pharaoh; and Moses sprinkled it up toward the heavens; and it became a boil with blains breaking forth upon man and upon beast. ¹¹And the sacred scribes could not stand before Moses because of the boils; for the boil was on the sacred scribes, and on all the Egyptians. ¹²But Jehovah hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he hearkened not to them; as Jehovah had spoken to Moses.

¹³ And Jehovah said to Moses, 'Rise up early in the morning, and place thyself before Pharaoh, and say to him, Thus saith Jehovah the God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me. ¹⁴For I will at this time send all my plagues upon thy heart, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people; that thou mayest know that there is none like me in all the earth. ¹⁵For now I will stretch out my hand, and I will smite thee and thy people with pestilence; and thou shalt be cut off from the earth. ¹⁶And in very deed for this cause have I set thee up, for to shew in thee my power; and that my name may be declared throughout all the earth. ¹⁷As yet exaltest thou thyself against my people, that thou wilt not let them go. ¹⁸Behold, to-morrow about this time I will cause it to rain a very grievous HAIL, such as hath not been in Lower Egypt since the day of the foundation thereof even until now. ¹⁹Send therefore now, hasten away thy cattle, and all that thou hast in the field; for ‘upon every man and beast which shall be found ‘in the field, and shall not be brought home, the ‘hail shall come down upon them, and they shall ‘die.’ ²⁰ He that feared the word of Jehovah among the servants of Pharaoh made his servants and his cattle flee into the houses; ²¹ and he that gave no heed to the word of Jehovah left his servants and his cattle in the field. ²² And Jehovah said to Moses, ‘Stretch forth thy hand toward the ‘heavens, that there may be hail in all the land of ‘Lower Egypt, upon man, and upon beast, and ‘upon every herb of the field, throughout the land ‘of Lower Egypt.’ ²³ And Moses stretched forth his rod toward the heavens; and Jehovah sent thunder and hail, and the fire ran along on the ground; and Jehovah rained hail on the land of Lower Egypt. ²⁴ So there was hail, and fire tearing about in the midst of the hail, very grievous, such as there had been none like it in all the land of Lower Egypt since it became a nation. ²⁵ And the hail smote throughout all the land of Lower Egypt all that was in the field, both man and beast; and the hail smote every herb of the field, and brake every tree of the field. ²⁶ Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel were, was there no hail.

²⁷ And Pharaoh sent, and called for Moses and Aaron, and said to them, ‘I have sinned this time; ‘Jehovah is righteous, and I and my people are ‘wicked. ²⁸ Intreat Jehovah; for there have been ‘too many of God’s thunderings and hail; and I ‘will let you go, and ye shall stay no longer.’ ²⁹ And Moses said to him, ‘As soon as I am gone ‘out of the city, I will spread abroad my hands to ‘Jehovah; and the thunders shall cease, neither ‘shall there be any more hail; so that thou mayest ‘know that the earth is Jehovah’s. ³⁰ But as ‘for thee and thy servants, I know that ye do ‘not yet fear before Jehovah God.’ ³¹ And the flax and the barley were destroyed; for the barley was in the ear, and the flax was in flower. ³² But the wheat and the spelt were not destroyed; for they were not grown up. ³³ And Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh, and spread abroad his hands to Jehovah; and the thunders and hail ceased, and the rain was not poured upon the earth. ³⁴ And when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunders were ceased he sinned yet more, and hardened his heart, he and his servants. ³⁵ And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, neither would he let the children of Israel go; as Jehovah had spoken by the hand of Moses.

10 And Jehovah said to Moses, ‘Go in unto ‘Pharaoh; for I have hardened his heart, and the ‘heart of his servants, so that I may shew these ‘my signs before him; ² and that thou mayest re- ‘late in the ears of thy son, and of thy son’s son, ‘what things I have wrought in Lower Egypt, and ‘my signs which I have done among them; that ‘ye may know that I am Jehovah.’ ³ And Moses and Aaron came to Pharaoh, and said to him, ‘Thus saith Jehovah the God of the Hebrews,

‘How long wilt thou refuse to humble thyself ‘before me? Let my people go, that they may ‘serve me. ⁴ Else, if thou refuse to let my people ‘go, behold, to-morrow will I bring Locusts into ‘thy boundaries. ⁵ And they shall cover the face ‘of the land, that one cannot be able to see the ‘land. And they shall eat the residue of that ‘which is escaped, which remaineth to you from ‘the hail, and shall eat every tree which groweth ‘for you out of the field. ⁶ And they shall fill thy ‘houses, and the houses of all thy servants, and ‘the houses of all the Egyptians; which neither ‘thy fathers, nor thy fathers’ fathers have seen, ‘since the day that they were upon the earth until ‘this day.’ And he turned himself, and went out from Pharaoh.

⁷ And Pharaoh’s servants said to him, ‘How ‘long shall this man be a snare to us? Let the ‘men go, that they may serve Jehovah their God. ‘Knowest thou not yet that Lower Egypt is de- ‘stroyed?’ ⁸ And Moses and Aaron were brought again to Pharaoh. And he said to them, ‘Go, ‘serve Jehovah your God. But who and which ‘are they that shall go?’ ⁹ And Moses said, ‘We ‘will go with our young and with our old, with ‘our sons and with our daughters, and with our ‘flocks and with our herds will we go; for it is ‘our feast unto Jehovah.’ ¹⁰ And he said to them, ‘Let Jehovah be so with you, as I will let you go, ‘and your little ones. Look to it; for evil is ‘before you. ¹¹ Not so. Go now, ye that are grown ‘men, and serve Jehovah; for that is what ye did ‘desire.’ And they were driven out from Pharaoh’s presence.

¹² And Jehovah said to Moses, ‘Stretch out thy ‘hand over the land of Lower Egypt for locusts, ‘that they may come up upon the land of Lower ‘Egypt, and eat every herb of the land, even all ‘that the hail hath left.’ ¹³ And Moses stretched forth his rod over the land of Lower Egypt, and Jehovah brought an east wind upon the land all that day, and all the night; and when it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts. ¹⁴ And the locusts went up over all the land of Lower Egypt, and rested within all the boundaries of Lower Egypt. Very grievous were they. Before them there were no such locusts as they, neither after them shall be such. ¹⁵ For they covered the face of the whole land, so that the land was dark- ened; and they did eat every herb of the land, and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left. And there was not left any green thing on the trees, or on the herbs of the field, through all the land of Lower Egypt.

¹⁶ Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron in haste, and he said, ‘I have sinned against Je- ‘hovah your God, and against you. ¹⁷ Now there- ‘fore forgive, I pray thee, my sin only this once, ‘and intreat Jehovah your God, that he may take ‘away from me this death only.’ ¹⁸ And he went out from Pharaoh, and intreated Jehovah. ¹⁹ And Jehovah turned a very strong west wind, which took away the locusts, and cast them into the Red Sea; there remained not one locust within all the boundaries of Lower Egypt. ²⁰ But Jehovah hardened Pharaoh's heart, so that he would not let the children of Israel go.

²¹ And Jehovah said to Moses, 'Stretch out thy hand toward the heavens, that there may be DARKNESS over the land of Lower Egypt, and they shall grope in the dark.' ²² And Moses stretched forth his hand toward the heavens; and there was a thick darkness in all the land of Lower Egypt for three days. ²³ They saw not one another, neither rose any from his place for three days; but unto all the children of Israel there was light in their dwelling-places. ²⁴ And Pharaoh called to Moses, and said 'Go ye, serve Jehovah; only let your flocks and your herds be stayed. Let your little ones also go with you.' ²⁵ And Moses said, 'Thou must give into our hands also sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may sacrifice to Jehovah our God.' ²⁶ Our cattle also shall go with us; for there shall not a hoof be left behind; for thereof must we take to serve Jehovah our God; and we ourselves know not with what we must serve Jehovah, until we come thither.' ²⁷ But Jehovah hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he would not let them go. ²⁸ And Pharaoh said to him, 'Get thee from me, take heed to thyself, see my face no more; for in that day thou seest my face thou shalt die.' ²⁹ And Moses said, 'Thou hast spoken well, I will see thy face again no more.'

¹¹ And Jehovah said to Moses, 'Yet will I bring one plague more upon Pharaoh, and upon Lower Egypt; afterwards he will let you go hence. When he shall let you go, he will surely thrust you out hence altogether. ² Speak now in the ears of the people, and let every man borrow of his neighbour, and every woman of her neighbour, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold.' ³ And Jehovah gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover, the man Moses was very great in the land of Lower Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh's servants, and in the sight of the people. ⁴ And Moses said, 'Thus saith Jehovah, About midnight will I go out into the midst of Lower Egypt. ⁵ And all the FIRSTBORN in the land of Lower Egypt shall die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sitteth on his throne, even to the firstborn of the maid-servant that is behind the mill-stones; and all the firstborn of cattle. ⁶ And there shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Lower Egypt, such as there was none like it, nor shall be like it any more. ⁷ But against any of the children of Israel shall not a dog sharpen its tongue, against man or beast; so that ye may know that Jehovah doth put a difference between the Egyptians and Israel. ⁸ And all these thy servants shall come down to me, and bow down themselves to me, saying, Get thee out, and all the people that follow thee. And after that I will go out.' And he went out from Pharaoh in a great anger.

⁹ And Jehovah said to Moses, 'Pharaoh shall not hearken to you; so that my wonders may be multiplied in the land of Lower Egypt.' ¹⁰ And Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh. And Jehovah hardened Pharaoh's heart, so that he would not let the children of Israel go out of his land.

¹² AND JEHOVAH SPAKE to Moses and Aaron in the Land of Lower Egypt, saying, ² 'This month [of Abib, or barley in ear] shall be unto you the beginning of months; it shall be the first month of the year to you. ³ Speak ye to all the congregation of Israel, saying, In the tenth day of this month they shall take to them every man a lamb [or kid], for the house of their fathers, a lamb for a house. ⁴ And if the household be too little for the lamb, let him and his neighbour that is next to his house take it according to the number of the souls; every man according to his eating shall ye count for the lamb. ⁵ The lamb shall be without blemish, a male of the first year. Ye may take it out from the sheep, or from the goats. ⁶ And ye shall keep it up until the fourteenth day of the same month; and the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it at twilight [or between the evenings]. ⁷ And they shall take some of the blood, and strike it on the two side posts and on the upper lintel of the houses, wherein they shall eat it. ⁸ And they shall eat the flesh in that same night, roast with fire, and unleavened bread; with bitter herbs they shall eat it. ⁹ Ye shall not eat any of it raw, nor cooked at all with water, but roasted with fire; its head with its shanks, and with its inner parts. ¹⁰ And ye shall let nothing of it remain until the morning; and that which remaineth of it until the morning ye shall burn with fire. ¹¹ And thus shall ye eat it; with your loins girded, your shoes on your feet, and your staff in your hand, and ye shall eat it as in flight; it is Jehovah's PASSOVER. ¹² For I will pass through the land of Lower Egypt that same night, and will smite all the firstborn in the land of Lower Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the gods of the Egyptians I will execute judgment; I am Jehovah. ¹³ And the blood shall be to you for a token on the houses, where ye are. And when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be on you as a destroyer, when I smite the land of Lower Egypt. ¹⁴ And that same day shall be to you for a memorial; and ye shall keep it as a feast to Jehovah throughout your generations; ye shall keep it as a feast by a statute for ever.

¹⁵ Seven days shall ye eat UNLEAVENED BREAD; even the first day ye shall put away leaven out of your houses; for whosoever eateth leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that soul shall be cut off from Israel. ¹⁶ And on the first day there shall be a holy convocation, and on the seventh day there shall be a holy convocation to you; no manner of work shall be done in them,

‘save that which is to be eaten by every one, that ‘only may be done by you. ¹⁷ And ye shall observe
‘the [feast of] Unleavened Bread; for in the course
‘of that day I brought your armies out of the land
‘of Lower Egypt; therefore shall ye observe this ‘day in your generations by statute for ever. ¹⁸ In ‘the first month, on the fourteenth day of the ‘month in the evening, ye shall eat unleavened ‘bread, until the one and twentieth day of the ‘month in the evening. ¹⁹ During seven days shall ‘there be no leaven found in your houses. For ‘whosoever eateth that which is leavened, even ‘that soul shall be cut off from the congregation
‘of Israel, whether he be a stranger, or one born ‘in the land. ²⁰ Ye shall eat nothing leavened; in ‘all your habitations shall ye eat unleavened bread.’

²¹ Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel, and said to them, ‘Draw out and take to you lambs
‘according to your families, and kill the passover.
²² And ye shall take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it ‘in the blood that is in the basin, and strike the ‘upper lintel and the two side posts with the blood
‘that is in the basin; and none of you shall go out
‘by the doorway of his house until the morning.
²³ For Jehovah will pass through to smite the ‘Egyptians; and when he seeth the blood on the ‘upper lintel, and on the two side posts, Jehovah ‘will pass by the doorway, and will not suffer the ‘destroyer to come into your houses to smite.
²⁴ And ye shall observe this thing for a statute to ‘thee and to thy sons for ever. ²⁵ And it shall come ‘to pass, when ye be come into the land which ‘Jehovah will give you, according as he hath prom‘ised, that ye shall keep this service. ²⁶ And it ‘shall come to pass, when your children shall say
‘to you, What mean ye by this service? ²⁷ that ye ‘shall say, It is the sacrifice of Jehovah’s passover, ‘who passed over the houses of the children of ‘Israel in Lower Egypt, when he smote the Egyp‘tians, and delivered our houses.’ And the people bowed the head and worshipped. ²⁸ And the children of Israel went away, and did as Jehovah had commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

²⁹ And it came to pass, that at midnight Jehovah smote all the firstborn in the land of Lower Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sat on his throne to the firstborn of the captive that was in the dungeon, and all the firstborn of cattle. ³⁰ And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Lower Egypt; for there was not a house where there was not one dead. ³¹ And he called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, ‘Rise up, ‘and get you forth from among my people, both ‘ye and the children of Israel; and go, serve ‘Jehovah as ye have said. ³² Also take your flocks
‘and your herds, as ye have said, and be gone;
‘and bless me also.’ ³³ And the Egyptians were urgent upon the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste; for they said, ‘We are all ‘dead men.’ ³⁴ And the people took their dough before it was leavened, their kneading troughs being bound up in their clothes upon their shoulders.

³⁵ And the children of Israel did according to the word of Moses; and they borrowed of the Egyptians jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment.
³⁶ And Jehovah gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they lent to them. And they spoiled the Egyptians.

³⁷ And the CHILDREN OF ISRAEL JOURNEYED from Rameses [or Heliopolis] to Succoth [or Scene], about six hundred thousand on foot that were men, beside the little children. ³⁸ And a mixed [or Arab] multitude went up also with them; and flocks, and herds, even very much cattle. ³⁹ And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they brought forth out of Lower Egypt, for it was not leavened; because they were thrust out of Lower Egypt, and could not tarry, neither had they prepared for themselves any flesh-meat.

⁴⁰ Now the sojourning of the children of Israel, who dwelt in Lower Egypt, was four hundred and thirty years. ⁴¹ And it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years [A.M. 2668], even in the course of that day it came to pass, that all the armies of Jehovah went out from the land of Lower Egypt. ⁴² It is a night to be much observed unto Jehovah for bringing them out from the land of Lower Egypt; this is that night of Jehovah to be observed by all the children of Israel in their generations.

⁴³ And Jehovah said to Moses and Aaron,
‘This is the STATUTE OF THE PASSOVER. There ‘shall no son of a foreigner eat thereof; ⁴⁴ but ‘every man’s servant that is bought for money,
‘when thou hast circumcised him, then shall he ‘eat thereof. ⁴⁵ A sojourner and a hired servant ‘shall not eat thereof. ⁴⁶ In one house shall it be ‘eaten; thou shalt not carry forth ought of the ‘flesh abroad out of the house; neither shall ye ‘break a bone thereof. ⁴⁷ All the congregation of ‘Israel shall keep it. ⁴⁸ And when a stranger shall ‘sojourn with thee, and will keep the passover to ‘Jehovah, let all his males be circumcised, and ‘then let him come near and keep it; and he shall ‘be as one that is born in the land; for no uncir‘cumcised person shall eat thereof. ⁴⁹ One law ‘shall be to him that is home-born, and to the ‘stranger that sojourneth among you.’ ⁵⁰ Thus did all the children of Israel; as Jehovah commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they. ⁵¹ And it came to pass in the course of that day, that Jehovah did bring the children of Israel out of the land of Lower Egypt by their armies.

13 And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying,
‘Sanctify unto me all the firstborn, whatsoever
‘openeth the womb among the children of Israel, ‘both of man and of beast; it is mine.’ ³ And Moses said to the people, ‘Remember this day, in ‘which ye came out from Lower Egypt, out of the ‘house of bondage; for by strength of hand Je‘hovah brought you out from hence; and there ‘shall no leavened bread be eaten. ⁴ This day came ‘ye out in the month of Abib [or Barley in ear].

¹¹ And it shall be when Jehovah shall bring thee into the land of the Canaanites, as he swore to thee and to thy fathers, and shall give it thee, that thou shalt set apart unto Jehovah all that openeth the womb [or is firstborn], and every firstling that cometh of the cattle which thou hast; the males shall be Jehovah's. ¹² And every firstling of an ass thou shalt redeem with a lamb [or kid]; and if thou wilt not redeem it, then thou shalt break its neck; and all the firstborn of man among thy sons shalt thou redeem.

¹³ And it shall be when thy son asketh thee hereafter, saying, What is this? that thou shalt say to him, By strength of hand Jehovah brought us out from Lower Egypt, from the house of bondage; ¹⁴ and it came to pass, when Pharaoh would hardly let us go, that Jehovah slew all the firstborn in the land of Lower Egypt, both the firstborn of man, and the firstborn of cattle; therefore I sacrifice to Jehovah all that openeth the womb, being males; but all the firstborn of my sons I redeem. ¹⁵ And it shall be for a sign upon thy hand, and for frontlets between thine eyes; for by strength of hand Jehovah brought us forth out of Lower Egypt.

¹⁶ AND IT CAME TO PASS, when Pharaoh had let the people go that God led them not by the way of the land of the Philistines, although that was near; for God said, Lest peradventure the people repent when they see war, and they return to Lower Egypt. ¹⁷ But God led the people about by the way of the desert of the Red Sea. And the children of Israel went up armed out of the land of Lower Egypt. ¹⁸ And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him; for he had made the children of Israel to swear strictly, saying, God will surely visit you; and ye shall carry up my bones away hence with you. ¹⁹ And they took their journey from Succoth, and encamped in Etham [or Thaum], on the edge of the desert. ²⁰ And Jehovah went before them by day in a pillar of cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light; to go by day and night. ²¹ He took not away the pillar of cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, from before the people.

²⁶ And it was told the king of Egypt that the people fled. And the heart of Pharaoh and of his servants was turned against the people; and they said, Why have we done this, that we have let Israel go from serving us? ²⁷ And he made ready his chariot and took his people with him. ²⁸ And he took six hundred chosen chariots, and all the chariots of Lower Egypt, and a chief-of-three [or chariot-warrior] over every one of them. ²⁹ And Jehovah hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued after the children of Israel. And the children of Israel went out with a high hand. ³⁰ But the Egyptians pursued after them, all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, and his horsemen, and his forces, and overtook them encamping by the sea, beside the Bay of Hiroth, before Baal-zephon.

³¹ And when Pharaoh drew nigh, the children of Israel lifted up their eyes, and behold, the Egyptians marched after them; and they were sore afraid. And the children of Israel cried out to Jehovah. ³² And they said to Moses, Because there were no burial-places in Egypt, hast thou taken us away to die in the desert? Wherefore hast thou dealt thus with us, to carry us forth out of Lower Egypt? ³³ Is not this the word that we did tell thee in Lower Egypt, saying, Let us alone that we may serve the Egyptians? For it had been better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the desert. ³⁴ And Moses said to the people, Fear ye not, stand still, and see the salvation of Jehovah, which he will work for you to-day. For the Egyptians whom ye have seen to-day, ye shall see them again no more for ever. ³⁵ Jehovah will fight for you, and ye shall be quiet. ³⁶ And Jehovah said to Moses, Wherefore criest thou to me? Speak to the children of Israel, that they journey forward. ³⁷ But lift thou up thy rod, and stretch out thy hand over the sea, and divide it; and the children of Israel shall go on dry ground through the midst of the sea. ³⁸ And I, behold, I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they shall follow them; and I will get me honour upon Pharaoh, and upon all his forces, upon his chariots, and 'upon his horsemen. ¹⁸ And the Egyptians shall know that I am Jehovah, when I have gotten me 'honour upon Pharaoh, upon his chariots, and upon 'his horsemen.'

¹⁹ And the angel of God, who went before the camp of Israel, removed and went behind them; and the pillar of cloud removed from before their face, and stood behind them. ²⁰ And it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel; and it was a cloud and darkness. But it gave light by night. And the one came not near the other all the night. ²¹ And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and Jehovah caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and made the sea dry land; and the waters were divided. ²² And the children of Israel went into the midst of the sea upon dry ground; and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left. ²³ And the Egyptians pursued, and went in after them to the midst of the sea, even all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen. ²⁴ And it came to pass that in the morning watch Jehovah, in the pillar of fire and of cloud, looked at the host of the Egyptians, and troubled the host of the Egyptians; ²⁵ and he took off their chariot wheels, and they drove them heavily; so that the Egyptians said, 'Let us flee from the face of 'Israel; for Jehovah fighteth for them against the 'Egyptians.'

²⁶ And Jehovah said to Moses, 'Stretch out 'thy hand over the sea, that the waters may come 'again upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, 'and upon their horsemen.' ²⁷ And Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea; and the sea returned to its strength when the morning appeared; and the Egyptians fled at meeting it; and Jehovah overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea. ²⁸ And the waters returned, and covered the chariots, and the horsemen, and all the forces of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them; there remained not so much as one of them. ²⁹ But the children of Israel walked upon dry land in the midst of the sea; and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left. ³⁰ Thus Jehovah saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the sea shore. ³¹ And Israel saw with what a great hand Jehovah wrought against the Egyptians; and the people feared Jehovah, and believed in Jehovah, and his servant Moses.

² Jah is my strength and my song,
And he is become my salvation;
He is my God, and I will glorify him;
My father's God, and I will exalt him.

³ Jehovah is a man of war; Jehovah is his name.

⁴ Pharaoh's chariots and his forces he cast into the sea;

And his chosen chariot-warriors sank in the Red Sea.

⁵ The depths covered them;

They sank down to the bottom as a stone.

⁶ Thy right hand, O Jehovah, is glorious in power;
Thy right hand, O Jehovah, dasheth down the enemy,

⁷ And in the greatness of thine excellence
Thou overthrewest them that rise up against thee;
Thou sendest thy wrath; it devoureth them as stubble.

⁸ And by a blast of thy nostrils the waters were heaped up.

The floods stood upright as a heap,
The depths were drawn together in the heart of the sea.

⁹ The enemy said, 'I will pursue, I will overtake,
'I will divide the spoil; my soul shall be satisfied
'on them;

'I will draw my sword, my hand shall repossess them.'
¹⁰ Thou didst blow with thy breath, the sea covered them;

They sank like lead in the mighty waters.

¹¹ Who is like unto thee, O Jehovah, among the gods?

Who is like unto thee, glorious in holiness,
Fearful in praises, doing wonders?

¹² Thou didst stretch out thy right hand,
The earth swallowed them.

¹³ Thou in thy kindness hast led the people whom thou hast redeemed;

Thou hast guided them in thy might to thy holy abode.

¹⁴ The peoples have heard, and they tremble;
Pangs have taken hold on the inhabitants of Philistia.

¹⁵ Then the princes of Edom were amazed;
The mighty men of Moab, trembling shall seize them;
All the inhabitants of Canaan shall melt away.

¹⁶ Fear and dread shall fall upon them,
By the might of thine arm they will be as still as a stone;

While thy people cross over [the Jordan], O Jehovah,
While the people cross over, whom thou hast purchased.

¹⁷ Thou wilt bring them in, and wilt plant them
On the mountain of thine inheritance,
The place, O Jehovah, that thou hast made for thy dwelling,

The Sanctuary, O Lord, which thy hands have established,

¹⁸ Where Jehovah will reign for ever and ever.

²⁰ And Miriam the prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took a timbrel in her hand; and all the women went out after her with timbrels and with dances. ²¹ And Miriam answered them,

'Sing ye to Jehovah, for he hath triumphed gloriously; 'The horse and its rider hath he thrown into the sea.'

²² So Moses brought Israel from the Red Sea, and they went out into the desert of Shur [or Pelusium]; and they went three days in the desert, and found no water.

²³ And when they came to Marah, they could not drink of the waters of Marah, for they were bitter. Therefore the name of it was called Marah [or Bitter]. ²⁴ And the people murmured against Moses, saying, 'What shall we drink?' ²⁵ And he cried to Jehovah; and Jehovah showed him a tree, which when he had cast into the waters, the waters were made sweet. There he made for them a statute and an ordinance, and there he proved them, ²⁶ and said, 'If thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of Jehovah thy God, and wilt do that which is 'right in his sight, and wilt give ear to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put 'none of these diseases upon thee, which I have put 'upon the Egyptians; for I Jehovah will heal thee.'

²⁷ And they came to Elim [or the Trees], where were twelve springs of water, and seventy palm trees; and they encamped there by the waters.

² And the whole congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron in the desert. ³ And the children of Israel said to them, 'O that it had been granted to us to die by the 'hand of Jehovah in the land of Lower Egypt, 'when we sat by the flesh pots, while we did eat 'bread to the full; for ye have brought us forth 'into this desert, to kill this whole assembly with 'hunger.' ⁴ Then said Jehovah to Moses, 'Behold, 'I will rain bread from heaven for you; and the 'people shall go out and gather a daily rate in its 'day, so that I may prove them, whether they will 'walk in my law or no. ⁵ And it shall come to 'pass, that on the sixth day they shall prepare that 'which they bring in; and it shall be twice as 'much as they gather day by day.' ⁶ And Moses and Aaron said to all the children of Israel, 'At 'evening, then ye shall know that Jehovah hath 'brought you out from the land of Lower Egypt. ⁷ And in the morning, then ye shall see the Glory 'of Jehovah; for he heareth your murmurings 'against Jehovah. And what are we that ye 'murmur against us?' ⁸ And Moses said, 'This 'shall be, when Jehovah shall give you in the 'evening flesh to eat, and in the morning bread to 'the full; for Jehovah heareth your murmurings 'which ye murmur against him. And what are 'we? Your murmurings are not against us, but 'against Jehovah.'

⁹ And Moses said to Aaron, 'Say to all the con- 'gregation of the children of Israel, Come near 'before Jehovah; for he hath heard your murmur- 'ings.' ¹⁰ And it came to pass, as Aaron spake to the whole congregation of the children of Israel that they looked toward the desert, and behold the Glory of Jehovah appeared in the cloud. ¹¹ And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, '¹² I have heard 'the murmurings of the children of Israel. ¹² Spe- 'to them, saying, At twilight [or between the eve- 'ings] ye shall eat flesh, and in the morning 'shall be filled with bread; and ye shall know that 'I am Jehovah your God.' ¹³ And it came to pass that in the evening the quails came up, and covered the camp; and in the morning the dew lay round about the camp. ¹⁴ And when the dew that lay was gone up, behold, on the face of the desert there was a small kernel, as small as the hoar frost on the ground. ¹⁵ And when the children of Israel saw it, they said one to another, 'What is it?' for they knew not what it was.

And Moses said to them, 'This is the bread 'which Jehovah hath given you to eat. ¹⁶ This 'is the word which Jehovah hath commanded; Gather 'of it every man according to his eating, an Omer [or five pints] for every head, according to the 'number of your souls; take ye every man for the 'that are in his tent.' ¹⁷ And the children of Israel did so, and gathered, some much, some little. ¹⁸ And when they did measure it in an Omer, he that gathered much had nothing over, and he that gathered little had no lack. They had gathered every man according to his eating.

¹⁹ And Moses said to them, 'Let no man leave 'any of it till the morning.' ²⁰ And they hearkened not to Moses; but some men left some of it until the morning, and it bred worms and stank. And Moses was wroth with them. ²¹ And they gathered it every morning, every man according to his eating; and when the sun waxed hot, it melted.

²² And it came to pass, that on the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two Omers for one man; and all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses. ²³ And he said to them, 'This is that which Jehovah hath said, To-morrow 'is the rest of the holy sabbath unto Jehovah; 'bake that which ye will bake, and boil that which 'ye will boil; and that which remaineth over 'keep up for you to be kept until the morning.' ²⁴ And they laid it up till the morning, as Moses bade, and it did not stink, neither was there any worm therein. ²⁵ And Moses said, 'Eat that to-day; for 'to-day is a sabbath unto Jehovah. To-day ye will 'not find it in the field. ²⁶ Six days ye shall gather 'it; but on the seventh day, which is the sabbath, 'in it there shall be none.'

²⁷ And it came to pass, that there went out some of the people on the seventh day for to gather, and they found none. ²⁸ And Jehovah said to Moses, 'How long refuse ye to keep my commandments, 'and my laws? ²⁹ See, for that Jehovah hath given you the sabbath, therefore he giveth you on the 'sixth day the bread of two days; abide ye every 'man in his place, let no man go out of his place 'on the seventh day.' ³⁰ So the people rested on the seventh day. ³¹ And the house of Israel called the name thereof MANNA [or What is it]. And it was like coriander seed, white; and the taste of it was like wafers made with honey.

³² And Moses said, 'This is the thing which Jehovah commandeth; Fill an Omer of it to be kept for your generations; so that they may see the bread wherewith I fed you in the desert, when I brought you forth from the land of Lower Egypt.'

³³ And Moses said to Aaron, 'Take a pot, and put an Omer full of Manna therein, and lay it up before Jehovah, to be kept for your generations.'

³⁴ As Jehovah commanded Moses, so Aaron laid it up before the Testimonials, to be kept. ³⁵ And the children of Israel did eat Manna forty years, until they came to a land inhabited; they did eat Manna until they came to the borders of the land of Canaan.

³⁶ Now an Omer is the tenth part of an Ephah [or bushel].

¹⁷ And all the congregation of the children of Israel journeyed from the desert of Sin, on their journeys, by the command of Jehovah, and pitched in Rephidim. And there was no water for the people to drink. ² And the people did strive against Moses, and said, 'Give us water, that we may drink.' And Moses said to them, 'Why strive ye against me? Why do ye try Jehovah?' ³ And the people thirsted there for water; and the people murmured against Moses, and said, 'Wherefore is this that thou hast brought us up out of Lower Egypt, to kill us and our children and our cattle with thirst?' ⁴ And Moses cried to Jehovah, saying, 'What shall I do to this people? Yet a little and they will stone me.' ⁵ And Jehovah said to Moses, 'Go on before the people, and take with thee some of the elders of Israel; and thy rod, wherewith thou smotest the river, take in thy hand, and go. ⁶ Behold, I will stand before thee there upon the rock in Horeb; and thou shalt smite the rock, and there shall come water out of it, that the people may drink.' And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel. ⁷ And he called the name of the place Massah [or Trial], and Meribah [or Strife], because of the striving of the children of Israel, and because they tried Jehovah, saying, 'Is Jehovah among us, or not?'

⁸ Then came Amalek, and fought with Israel in Rephidim. ⁹ And Moses said to Joshua, 'Choose us out men and go out, fight with Amalek; to-morrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the rod of God in my hand.' ¹⁰ So Joshua did as Moses had said to him, and fought with Amalek; and Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill. ¹¹ And it came to pass, when Moses held up his hand, that Israel prevailed; and when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed. ¹² But Moses' hands were heavy; and they took a stone, and put it under him, and he sat thereon; and Aaron and Hur stayed up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side; and his hands were steady until the going down of the sun. ¹³ And Joshua discomfited Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

¹⁴ And Jehovah said to Moses, 'Write this for a memorial in a book, and rehearse it in the ears of Joshua; for I will utterly blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under the heavens.' ¹⁵ And Moses built an altar, and called the name of it Jehovah-nissi; ¹⁶ for he said, 'Because the hand upon the throne of Jah will have war for Jehovah against Amalek from generation to generation.'

¹⁸ When Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses' father in law, heard of all that God had done for Moses, and for Israel his people, that Jehovah had brought Israel out of Lower Egypt; ² then Jethro, Moses' father in law, took Zippah, Moses' wife, after he had sent her away, ³ and her two sons; of which the name of the one was Gershom [or a Stranger there]; for he said, 'I have been a stranger in a foreign land; ⁴ and the name of the other was Eliezer [or God will help]; for the God of my father [said he] was my help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh.' ⁵ And Jethro, Moses' father in law, came with his sons and his wife to Moses into the desert, where he encamped at the Mount of God; ⁶ and he said to Moses, 'I thy father in law Jethro am come to thee, and thy wife, and her two sons with her.' ⁷ And Moses went out to meet his father in law, and bowed down and kissed him; and they asked each other of their welfare; and they came into the tent. ⁸ And Moses related to his father in law all that Jehovah had done to Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, and all the trouble that had befallen them by the way, and how Jehovah delivered them. ⁹ And Jethro rejoiced for all the good which Jehovah had done to Israel, whom he had delivered out of the hand of the Egyptians. ¹⁰ And Jethro said, 'Blessed be Jehovah, who hath delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh, who hath delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians. ¹¹ Now I know that Jehovah is greater than all gods; for in the thing wherein they dealt proudly he was above them.' ¹² And Jethro, Moses' father in law, took a burnt offering and sacrifices for God; and Aaron came, and all the elders of Israel, to eat bread with Moses' father in law before God.

¹³ And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses sat to judge the people. And the people stood by Moses from the morning to the evening. ¹⁴ And when Moses' father in law saw all that he did to the people, he said, 'What is this thing that thou doest to the people? Why sittest thou thyself alone, and all the people stand by thee from morning to evening?' ¹⁵ And Moses said to his father in law, 'Because the people come to me to inquire of God. ¹⁶ When they have a matter they come to me; and I judge between one and another, and I make known the statutes of God, and his laws.' ¹⁷ And Moses' father in law said to him, 'The thing that thou doest is not good. ¹⁸ Thou wilt surely wear away, both thou, and this people that is with thee; for this thing

'is too heavy for thee; thou art not able to perform it thyself alone. ¹⁹ Hearken now to my voice, I will give thee counsel, and God shall be with thee. Be thou before God for the people, that thou mayest bring the causes unto God; ²⁰ and thou shalt warn them as to the statutes and the laws, and shalt make known to them the way wherein they must walk, and the work that they must do. ²¹ Moreover, thou shalt provide out of all the people able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness; and place such over them, to be captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds, captains of fifties, and captains of tens. ²² And let them judge the people at all seasons. And it shall be, that every great matter they shall bring to thee, but every small matter they shall judge themselves. So it will be easier for thyself, and they will bear the burden with thee. ²³ If thou shalt do this thing, and God command thee so, then thou wilt be able to endure, and all this people will also go to their place in peace.' ²⁴ And Moses hearkened to the voice of his father in law, and did all that he had said. ²⁵ And Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them chiefs over the people, captains of thousands, captains of hundreds, captains of fifties, and captains of tens. ²⁶ And they judged the people at all seasons; the hard causes they brought to Moses, but every small matter they judged themselves.

²⁷ And Moses let his father in law depart; and he went his way into his own land.

19 In the third month of the going forth of the children of Israel out of the land of Lower Egypt, the same day came they into the desert of Sinai. ² For they departed from Rephidim, and came to the desert of Sinai, and encamped in the desert; and there Israel encamped before the Mountain. ³ And Moses went up unto God; and Jehovah called to him out of the Mountain, saying, 'Thus shalt thou say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel, ⁴ Ye have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bare you on eagles' wings, and brought you to myself. ⁵ Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure to me above all peoples; for all the earth is mine. ⁶ And ye shall be to me a kingdom of priests, and a holy nation. THESE ARE THE WORDS which thou shalt speak to the children of Israel.' * * *

⁷ And Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and laid before them all these Words which Jehovah had commanded him. ⁸ And all the people answered together, and said, 'All that Jehovah hath spoken we will do.' And Moses brought back the words of the people to Jehovah.

⁹ And Jehovah said to Moses, 'Lo, I come to thee in a thick cloud, in order that the people may hear when I speak with thee, and may believe in thee for ever.' And Moses told the words of the people to Jehovah. ¹⁰ And Jehovah said to Moses, 'Go to the people, and sanctify them to-day and to-morrow, and let them wash their clothes, ¹¹ and be ready against the third day; for on the third day Jehovah will come down in the sight of all the people upon mount Sinai. ¹² And thou shalt set bounds to the people round about, saying, Take heed to yourselves, lest ye go up to the Mountain or touch the border of it; whosoever toucheth the Mountain shall be surely put to death. ¹³ There shall not a hand touch it, but he shall surely be stoned, or shot through; whether it be beast or man, it shall not live. When the jubilee-trumpet soundeth long, they shall come up to the Mountain.' ¹⁴ And Moses went down from the Mountain to the people; and sanctified the people; and they washed their clothes. ¹⁵ And he said to the people, 'Be ready against the third day; come not nigh a woman.'

¹⁶ And it came to pass on the third day when it was morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and a heavy cloud upon the Mountain, and the voice of the trumpet was very loud; so that all the people that were in the camp trembled. ¹⁷ And Moses brought forth the people out of the camp to meet with God; and they stood at the lower part of the Mountain. ¹⁸ And mount Sinai was altogether on a smoke, because Jehovah descended upon it in fire; and the smoke thereof ascended as the smoke of a furnace, and the whole Mountain trembled greatly. ¹⁹ And when the voice of the trumpet went on and was very loud, Moses spake, and God answered him by a voice. And Jehovah came down upon mount Sinai, on the top of the mountain. ²⁰ And Jehovah called Moses up to the top of the Mountain; and Moses went up. ²¹ And Jehovah said to Moses, 'Go down, charge the people, lest they break through unto Jehovah to see, and many of them perish. ²² And let the priests also, who come near to Jehovah, sanctify themselves, lest Jehovah break forth upon them.' ²³ And Moses said to Jehovah, 'The people cannot come up to mount Sinai; for thou chargedst us, saying, Set bounds about the Mountain, and sanctify it.' ²⁴ And Jehovah said to him, 'Go, get thee down, and thou shalt come up, thou, and Aaron with thee; but let not the priests and the people break through to come up unto Jehovah, lest he break forth upon them.' ²⁵ So Moses went down to the people, and spake to them.

20 And God spake all THESE WORDS, saying, ¹ I am Jehovah thy God, who hath brought thee out of the land of Lower Egypt, out of the house of bondage. ² Thou shalt have no other gods before my face.

³ Thou shalt not make to thee a graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in the heavens above, or that is on the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth; ⁴ thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them. For I Jehovah thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the chil'dren unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me; ⁶and showing kindness unto the thousandth of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

⁷Thou shalt not take the name of Jehovah thy God to a falsehood; for Jehovah will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name to a falsehood.

⁸Remember the sabbath day [or day of rest], to keep it holy. ⁹Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work; ¹⁰but the seventh day is the sabbath of Jehovah thy God. In it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy city gates. ¹¹For in six days Jehovah made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested on the seventh day; wherefore Jehovah blessed the sabbath day, and made it holy.

¹²Honour thy father and thy mother; that thy days may be long upon the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee.

¹³Thou shalt not kill.

¹⁴Thou shalt not commit adultery.

¹⁵Thou shalt not steal.

¹⁶Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

¹⁸And all the people saw the thunderings and the lightnings, and the noise of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking. And when the people saw it, they removed and stood afar off. ¹⁹And they said to Moses, 'Speak thou with us, and we will hear; but let not God speak with us, lest we die.'²⁰ And Moses said to the people, 'Fear not; for God is come in order to prove you, and in order that his fear may be before your faces, that ye sin not.'²¹ And the people stood afar off, and Moses drew near to the thick darkness where God was.

²²And Jehovah said to Moses, 'Thus thou shalt say to the children of Israel, Ye have seen that I have talked with you from the heavens. ²³Ye shall not make with me gods of silver, neither shall ye make unto you gods of gold. ²⁴AN ALTAR OF EARTH thou shalt make unto me, and shalt sacrifice thereon thy burnt offerings, and thy peace offerings, thy sheep, and thine oxen. In all places where I record my name I will come to thee, and I will bless thee. ²⁵And if thou wilt make to me an altar of stones, thou shalt not build it of hewn stone; for if thou lift up thy tool upon it, thou hast polluted it. ²⁶Neither shalt thou go up by steps to mine altar, that thy nakedness be not uncovered thereon.

'seventh he shall go out free for nothing. ³If he came in by himself, he shall go out by himself; if he had a wife, then his wife shall go out with him. ⁴If his master have given him a wife, and she have borne him sons or daughters; the wife and her children shall be her master's, and he shall go out by himself. ⁵And if the servant shall plainly say, I love my master, my wife, and my children, I will not go out free; ⁶then his master shall bring him unto God; he shall also bring him to the door, or to the door post; and his master shall bore his ear through with an awl; and he shall serve him for ever.

⁷And if a man sell his daughter to be a hand-maid, she shall not go out as the men-servants do. ⁸If she please not her master, who hath betrothed her to himself, then shall he let her be redeemed. He shall have no power to sell her to a foreign people, seeing he hath dealt deceitfully with her. ⁹And if he have betrothed her to his son, he shall deal with her after the manner of daughters. ¹⁰If he take to himself another wife; her food, her raiment, and her rights of marriage, shall he not diminish. ¹¹And if he do not these three unto her, then shall she go out free without money.

¹²He that smiteth a man, so that he die, shall be surely put to death. ¹³And if a man lie not in wait, but God let any one fall into his hand; then I will appoint thee a place whither he shall flee. ¹⁴But if a man come with fierceness upon his neighbour, to slay him with guile; thou shalt take him from mine altar, that he may die.

¹⁵And he that smiteth his father, or his mother, shall be surely put to death.

¹⁶And he that stealeth a man, and selleth him, or hath him found in his hand, shall surely be put to death.

¹⁷And he that curseth his father, or his mother, shall surely be put to death.

¹⁸And if men strive together, and one smite another with a stone, or with his fist, and he die not, but be laid on his bed; ¹⁹if he rise again, and walk to and fro abroad upon his stick, then shall he that smote him be unpunished; only he shall pay for the loss of his time, and shall cause him to be thoroughly healed.

²²And if men strive, and hurt a woman with child, so that her fruit depart from her, and yet no mischief follow; he shall be charged with a fine, according as the woman's husband will lay upon him; and he shall pay as the judges determine. ²³And if any mischief follow, then thou shalt give life for life, ²⁴eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot, ²⁵burning for burning, wound for wound, stripe for stripe.

²⁸ And if an ox gore a man or a woman, that he die; then the ox shall be surely stoned, and his flesh shall not be eaten; and the owner of the ox shall be unpunished. ²⁹ But if the ox were wont to gore in time past, and it had been testified to its owner, and he had not kept it in, and it hath killed a man or a woman; the ox shall be stoned, and its owner also shall be put to death. ³⁰ If there be laid on him a ransom, then he shall give as the redemption of his life whatsoever is laid upon him. ³¹ Whether it have gored a son, or have gored a daughter, according to this judgment shall it be done to him. ³² If the ox shall gore a man-servant or maid-servant; he shall give to their master thirty Shekels of silver [or sixty shillings] and the ox shall be stoned.

²² If a man shall steal an ox, or a sheep, and kill it or sell it; he shall restore five oxen for an ox, and four sheep for each sheep. ³ If the thief be found breaking in, and be smitten that he die, there shall be no blood-guilt for him. ³ If the sun be risen upon him, there shall be blood-guilt for him. He shall make full restitution; if he have nothing, then he shall be sold for his theft. ⁴ If the theft be certainly found in his hand, whether it be ox, or ass, or sheep; he shall restore double value.

⁷ If a man shall deliver to his neighbour money or goods to keep, and it be stolen out of the man's house; if the thief be found, let him restore double. ⁸ If the thief be not found, then the master of the house shall be brought unto God, to see whether he have put his hand to his neighbour's goods. ⁹ For every thing missing, for ox, for ass, for sheep, for cloak, or for every lost thing, which the other saith was there, the cause of both parties shall come before God; and whom God shall condemn, he shall pay double to his neighbour.

¹⁰ If a man deliver to his neighbour an ass, or an ox, or a sheep, or any cattle, to keep; and it die, or be hurt, or be carried off, no man seeing it; ¹¹ then shall an oath of Jehovah be between them both, that he hath not put his hands to his neighbour's goods, and the owner of it shall accept thereof; and he shall not make it good. ¹² And if it be certainly stolen from him, he shall make it good to its owner. ¹³ If it be torn by wild beasts, then let him bring it for a witness, and he shall not make good what was torn.

¹⁴ And if a man borrow [a beast] of his neighbour, and if it be hurt, or die, its owner not being with it, he shall surely make it good. ¹⁵ But if its owner be with it, he shall not make it good. If it be a hired thing, it came for its hire.

¹⁶ And if a man entice a maiden that is not betrothed, and lie with her, he shall surely purchase her to be his wife. ¹⁷ If her father utterly refuse to give her to him, he shall pay money according to the purchase money of maidens.

¹⁸ Thou shalt not suffer a sorceress to live.

¹⁹ Whosoever lieth with a beast shall surely be put to death.

²⁰ He that sacrificeth to any god, save to Jehovah only, he shall be utterly destroyed.

²¹ Thou shalt neither vex a stranger, nor oppress him; for ye were strangers in the land of Lower Egypt. ²² Ye shall not afflict any widow, or fatherless child. ²³ If thou afflict them in any wise, and they cry at all unto me, I will surely hear their cry; ²⁴ and my wrath shall wax hot, and I will kill you with the sword; and your wives shall be widows, and your children fatherless.

²⁵ If thou lend money to any of my people that is poor by thee, thou shalt not be to him as a usurer, neither shalt thou lay upon him usury. ²⁶ If thou at all take thy neighbour's cloak to pledge, thou shalt deliver it to him when the sun goeth down; ²⁷ for that is his only covering, it is his cloak for his skin, wherein he sleepeth. And it shall come to pass, when he crieth unto me, that I will hear; for I am gracious.

²⁸ Thou shalt not revile God, nor curse the ruler among thy people.

²⁹ Thou shalt not delay to offer of thy fulness [or harvest] and of thy tears [or vintage]; the first-born of thine offspring [or fruits] shalt thou give unto me. ³⁰ Likewise shalt thou do with thine oxen, and with thy sheep; seven days it shall be with its dam; on the eighth day thou shalt give it to me.

²³ Thou shalt not bear a false report; put not thy hand with the wicked to be an unrighteous

‘⁴ If thou meet thine enemy’s ox or his ass going astray, thou shalt surely bring it back to him. ⁵ If thou see the ass of him that hateth thee lying under its burden, and shouldst forbear to loosen it, thou shalt surely be forsaken with it.

‘⁸ And thou shalt take no bribe; for the bribe blindeth the open-eyed, and perverteth the words of the righteous. ⁹ Also thou shalt not oppress a stranger; for ye know the heart of the stranger, seeing ye were strangers in the land of Lower Egypt.

‘¹⁴ Three times in the year thou shalt keep a feast to me. ¹⁵ Thou shalt keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread; (thou shalt eat unleavened bread seven days, as I commanded thee, at the time appointed of the month Abib; for in it thou camest out of Lower Egypt; and none shall appear before me empty;)—¹⁶ and the Feast of reaping the First-fruits of thy labours, which thou hast sown in thy field;—and the Feast of In-gathering, which is towards the end of the year, when thou hast gathered in thy labours out of the field. ¹⁷ Three times in the year all thy males shall appear before the Lord Jehovah.

‘²⁰ Behold, I send an angel before thee, to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place which I have prepared. ²¹ Give heed to him, and obey his voice, provoke him not; for he will not pardon your transgressions; for my name is on him. ²² But if thou shalt indeed obey his voice, and do all that I speak; then I will be an enemy to thine enemies, and an oppressor to thine oppressors. ²³ For mine angel shall go before thee, and bring thee to the Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites; and I will cut them off. ²⁴ Thou shalt not bow down to their gods, nor serve them, nor do after their works; but thou shalt utterly overthrow them, and quite break down their images. ²⁵ And ye shall serve Jehovah your God, and he will bless thy bread, and thy water; and I will take sickness away from the midst of thee. ²⁶ There shall nothing cast her young, nor be barren in thy land. The number of thy days I will fulfil. ²⁷ I will send the dread of me before thee, and I will destroy all the people to whom thou shalt come, and I will make all thine enemies turn their backs to thee. ²⁸ And I will send hornets before thee, which shall drive out the Hivites, the Canaanites, and the Hittites, from before thee. ²⁹ I will not drive them out from before thee in one year; lest the land become desolate, and the wild beasts of the field multiply against thee. ³⁰ By little and little I will drive them out from before thee, until thou be fruitful and hast inherited the land. ³¹ And I will set thy boundaries from the Red Sea even to the Sea of the Philistines, and from the [southern] desert to the River [Euphrates]. For I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand; and thou shalt drive them out before thee. ³² Thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor with their gods. ³³ They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me; for if thou serve their gods it will surely be a snare to thee.’

²⁴ And he said to Moses, ‘Come up to Jehovah, thou, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel; and worship ye afar off.’ ² And Moses alone came near to Jehovah; but they came not nigh; neither did the people go up with him. ³ And Moses came and related to the people all the Words of Jehovah, and all the Judgments. And all the people answered with one voice, and said, ‘All the words which Jehovah hath said will we do.’ ⁴ And Moses wrote all the words of Jehovah, and rose up early in the morning, and builded an altar at the foot of the Mountain, and twelve pillars, for the twelve tribes of Israel. ⁵ And he sent young men of the children of Israel, who offered up burnt offerings, and sacrificed peace offerings of oxen unto Jehovah. ⁶ And Moses took half of the blood, and put it in basins; and half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar. ⁷ And he took the Book of the Covenant, and read in the ears of the people; and they said, ‘All that Jehovah hath said will we do, and be obedient.’ ⁸ And Moses took the blood and sprinkled it on the people, and said, ‘Behold the blood of the covenant, which Jehovah hath made with you concerning all these words.’ ⁹ Then went up Moses, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel; ¹⁰ and they saw the God of Israel. And there was under his feet as it were a paved work of a sapphire stone, and as it were the body of the heavens in its clearness. ¹¹ And upon the nobles of the children of Israel he laid not his hand. And they beheld God, and yet did eat and drink.

¹² And Jehovah said to Moses, 'Come up to me 'on to the Mountain, and be there; and I will 'give thee TABLES OF STONE, and the Law and 'the Commandments which I have written; that 'thou mayest teach them.' ¹³ And Moses rose up, and his minister Joshua; and Moses went up on to the Mountain of God. ¹⁴ And he said to the elders, 'Tarry ye here for us, until we come again 'to you. And behold, Aaron and Hur are with 'you; he who hath any matters to do, let him 'come to them.'

¹⁵ And Moses went up on to the Mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain. ¹⁶ And the Glory of Jehovah abode upon mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days; and on the seventh day he called to Moses out of the midst of the cloud. ¹⁷ And the appearance of the Glory of Jehovah was like devouring fire on the top of the Mountain in the eyes of the children of Israel. ¹⁸ And Moses went into the midst of the cloud, and got him up on to the Mountain; and Moses was on the Mountain forty days and forty nights.

25 And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ² 'Speak to the children of Israel, that they bring 'to me a HEAVE OFFERING; of every man whose 'heart maketh him willing ye shall take my heave 'offering. ³ And this is the heave offering which 'ye shall take from them; gold, or silver, or cop- 'per, ⁴ or blue, or purple, or bright scarlet, or fine 'linen, or goats' hair, ⁵ or rams' skins dyed red, or 'seals' skins, or acacia wood, ⁶ oil for the light, 'spices for anointing oil, and for sweet-smelling 'incense, ⁷ onyx stones, or stones to be set on the 'Ephod [or priest's robe], and on the breast-plate. ⁸ And let them make me a Sanctuary; that I may 'dwell among them. ⁹ According to all that I am 'shewing to thee, namely the pattern of the Taber- 'nacle, and the pattern of all its vessels, even so 'shall ye make it.

¹⁰ And they shall make an ARK of acacia wood; 'two cubits and a half shall be its length, and a 'cubit and a half its breadth, and a cubit and a 'half its height. ¹¹ And thou shalt overlay it with 'pure gold, within and without shalt thou overlay 'it, and shalt make upon it a border of gold round 'about. ¹² And thou shalt cast four rings of gold 'for it, and put them in its four bottom corners; 'and two rings shall be on the one side-plank of 'it, and two rings on the other side-plank of it. ¹³ And thou shalt make staves of acacia wood and 'overlay them with gold. ¹⁴ And thou shalt put 'the staves into the rings on the side-planks of the 'Ark, that the Ark may be borne with them. ¹⁵ The staves shall be in the rings of the Ark, 'they shall not be taken from it. ¹⁶ And thou 'shalt put into the Ark the Testimonials which I 'shall give thee

'two cubits and a half shall be its length, and a 'cubit and a half its breadth. ¹⁸ And thou shalt 'make two cherubs of gold, of beaten work shalt 'thou make them, at the two ends of the Cover. ¹⁹ And make one cherub at the one end, and the 'other cherub at the other end of the Cover; ye 'shall make the cherubs on its two ends. ²⁰ And 'the cherubs shall stretch forth their wings on 'high, over-shadowing the Cover with their wings; 'and their faces shall look one to another; toward 'the Cover shall the faces of the cherubs be. ²¹ And thou shalt put the cover above upon 'the Ark; and in the Ark thou shalt put the 'Testimonials that I shall give thee. ²² And there 'I will be met by thee, and I will speak with thee 'from above the Cover, from between the two 'cherubs which are upon the Ark of the Testi- 'monials, of all things which I shall give to thee 'in command for the children of Israel.

³¹ And thou shalt make a LAMP-STAND of pure 'gold; of beaten work shall the lamp-stand be 'made; its shaft and its branches, its cups, its 'buds, and its flowers, shall be of the same. ³² And 'six branches shall come out of the sides of it; 'three branches of the lamp-stand out of the one 'side, and three branches of the lamp-stand out of 'the other side. ³³ Three cups made like almond- 'blossoms shall be on one branch, each with a bud 'and a flower; and three cups made like almond 'blossoms on the other branch, each with a bud 'and a flower; so on the six branches that come 'out of the lamp-stand. ³⁴ And on the lamp-stand 'itself shall be four cups made like almond-blossoms, 'with their buds and their flowers. ³⁵ And there 'shall be a bud under two branches of the same, 'and a bud under two branches of the same, and a 'bud under two branches of the same, for the six 'branches that come out of the lamp-stand. ³⁶ Their 'buds and their branches shall all of it be one beaten 'work of pure gold. ³⁷ And thou shalt make its 'seven lamps; and they shall light its lamps that 'they may give light over against it. ³⁸ And its 'snuffers, and its snuff dishes, shall be of pure gold.

¹⁵ And thou shalt make the boards for the Tabernacle of acacia wood standing upright. ¹⁶ Ten cubits shall be the length of a board, and a cubit and a half cubit shall be the breadth of one board. ¹⁷ Two holders shall there be for one board, to be fastened one opposite to the other; thus shalt thou make for all the boards of the Tabernacle. ¹⁸ And thou shalt make the boards for the Tabernacle, twenty boards on the south or right hand side. ¹⁹ And thou shalt make forty sockets of silver sunk into the twenty boards; two sockets sunk into the one board for its two holders, and two sockets sunk into the other board for its two holders. ²⁰ And for the second side-wall of the Tabernacle which is toward the north there shall be twenty boards, ²¹ and their forty sockets of silver; two sockets sunk into the one board, and two sockets sunk into the other board. ²² And for the back of the Tabernacle westward thou shalt make six boards. ²³ And two boards shalt thou make for the corners of the Tabernacle at the back. ²⁴ And they shall be coupled together towards the bottom, and they shall be well joined together at its head to one ring; thus shall it be for them both; they shall be for the two corners. ²⁵ And they shall be eight boards, and their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets; two sockets sunk into one board, and two sockets sunk into another board.

³¹ And thou shalt make a VEIL of blue, and purple, and bright scarlet, and fine twined linen; cherubs of embroidered work shall be made on it. ³² And thou shalt set it upon four pillars of acacia wood overlaid with gold; their hooks shall be of gold, on four sockets of silver. ³³ And thou shalt set up the Veil under the curtain-hooks. And thou shalt bring in thither within the Veil the Ark of the Testimonials; and the Veil shall divide unto you between the Holy [room] and the Holy of Holies. ³⁴ And thou shalt put the Cover upon the Ark of the Testimonials in the Holy of Holies. ³⁵ And thou shalt set the Table outside of the Veil, and the Lamp-stand over against the Table against the south side-wall of the Tabernacle; and thou shalt put the Table against the north side-wall. ³⁶ And thou shalt make a Screen at the doorway of the Tent, of blue, and purple, and bright scarlet, and fine twined linen, wrought with needle-work. ³⁷ And thou shalt make for the Screen five pillars of acacia wood, and shalt overlay them with gold, and their hooks shall be of gold. And thou shalt cast five sockets of copper for them.

²⁷ And thou shalt make the ALTAR of acacia wood, five cubits long, and five cubits broad; the altar shall be four-square; and its height shall be three cubits. ² And thou shalt make the horns of it on its four corners; its horns shall be of the same; and thou shalt overlay it with copper. ³ And thou shalt make its pans for its

'bone-ashes, and its shovels, and its sprinkling
'buckets, and its fleshhooks, and its firepans; all
'the vessels thereof thou shalt make of copper.
'⁴And thou shalt make for it a grating of network
'of copper; and upon the network shalt thou
'make four copper rings in its four corners. ⁵And
'thou shalt put it under the outer edge of the 'Altar beneath, that the network may be up to 'the half of the Altar. ⁶And thou shalt make
'staves for the Altar, staves of acacia wood, and
'overlay them with copper. ⁷And the staves
'shall be put into the rings, and the staves shall
'be on the two side-planks of the Altar, to carry 'it. ⁸Hollow with boards shalt thou make it; as 'it was shewed thee on the Mountain, so shall
'they make it.

'⁹And thou shalt make the COURT of the Taber'nacle. For the south or right hand side there 'shall be hangings for the Court of fine twined
'linen of a hundred cubits long for one side.
'¹⁰And its twenty pillars and their twenty sockets
'shall be of copper; the hooks of the pillars and 'their cross-rods shall be of silver. ¹¹And like'wise for the north side in length there shall be 'hangings of a hundred cubits long, and its twenty 'pillars, and their twenty sockets of copper; the
'hooks of the pillars, and their cross-rods of silver.
'¹²And for the breadth of the Court on the west 'side shall be hangings of fifty cubits, their pillars
'ten, and their sockets ten. ¹³And the breadth
'of the Court on the front or east side, shall be 'fifty cubits. ¹⁴The hangings of one half of the 'front shall be fifteen cubits, their pillars three,
'and their sockets three. ¹⁵And on the other 'half of the front shall be hangings of fifteen
'cubits, their pillars three, and their sockets three.

'¹⁶And for the gate of the Court shall be a 'screen of twenty cubits, of blue, and purple, and
'bright scarlet, and fine twined linen, wrought
'with needlework; and their pillars shall be four,
'and their sockets four. ¹⁷All the pillars round
'about the Court shall have cross-rods of silver;
'their hooks shall be of silver, and their sockets of 'copper. ¹⁸The length of the Court shall be a 'hundred cubits, and the breadth fifty everywhere,
'and the height five cubits * * * of fine twined
'linen, and their sockets of copper. ¹⁹All the 'vessels of the Tabernacle in all the service there-
'of, and all its tent-pins, and all the tent-pins of 'the Court, shall be of copper.

'²⁰And thou shalt command the children of 'Israel, that they bring thee clear beaten olive 'oil for the light, to cause the lamp to burn always
'²¹in the Tent of Meeting, outside of the Veil
'which is before the Testimonials. Aaron and 'his sons shall keep it in order from evening to 'morning before Jehovah. This shall be a statute
'for ever unto their generations on the behalf of 'the children of Israel.

'28 And take thou to thee Aaron thy brother,
'and his sons with him, from among the chil'dren of Israel, that he may minister unto me in the

'PRIEST'S OFFICE, even Aaron, Nadab and Abihu,
'Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron's sons. ²And thou 'shalt make holy garments for Aaron thy brother
'for glory and for beauty. ³And thou shalt speak
'to all that are wise-hearted, whom I have filled 'with the spirit of wisdom, that they may make 'Aaron's garments to sanctify him, that he may
'minister unto me in the priest's office. ⁴And
'these are the garments which they shall make; a
'Breastplate, and an Ephod [or waistcoat], and a 'Robe [or skirt], and a brodered Under-coat, a
'Mitre, and a Girdle; and they shall make holy
'garments for Aaron thy brother, and his sons,
'that he may minister unto me in the priest's office.

'⁵And they shall take gold, and blue, and
'purple, and bright scarlet, and fine linen. ⁶And
'they shall make the EPHOD [or waistcoat] of 'gold, of blue, and of purple, of bright scarlet, and
'fine twined linen, with embroidered work. ⁷It
'shall have two shoulder-straps, joining it together
'at its two edges; and so it shall be joined together.
'⁸And the Embroidered Girdle of the Ephod,
'which is upon it, shall be of the same, according 'to the work thereof; even of gold, of blue, and
'purple, and bright scarlet, and fine twined linen.
'⁹And thou shalt take two onyx stones, and en-
'grave on them the names of the children of Israel;
'¹⁰six of their names on one stone, and six names
'of the rest on the other stone, according to their 'birth. ¹¹With the work of an engraver in stone,
'like the engravings of a signet, shalt thou engrave
'the two stones with the names of the children of 'Israel. Encircled in Checkerwork-Buttons of 'gold, thou shalt make them. ¹²And thou shalt
'put the two stones on the shoulder-straps of the 'Ephod for stones of memorial to the children of 'Israel; and Aaron shall bear their names before
'Jehovah on his two shoulders for a memorial.

'¹³And thou shalt make the Checkerwork-
'Buttons of gold; ¹⁴and two chains of pure gold
'twisted; of cord-like work shalt thou make 'them, and thou shalt fasten the cord-like chains
'to the Checkerwork-Buttons.

'¹⁵And thou shalt make the BREASTPLATE OF 'JUDGMENT with embroidered work; after the 'work of the Ephod thou shalt make it; of gold,
'of blue, and of purple, and of bright scarlet, and
'of fine twined linen, shalt thou make it. ¹⁶Square
'it shall be in two halves: a span shall be the 'length thereof, and a span shall be the breadth
'thereof. ¹⁷And thou shalt set in it settings of 'stones, even four rows of stones; a row of a ruby,
'a topaz, and a carbuncle, shall be the first row.
'¹⁸And the second row shall be an emerald, a 'sapphire, and a diamond. ¹⁹And the third row
'a figure, an agate, and an amethyst. ²⁰And the 'fourth row a chrysolite, and an onyx, and a
'jasper; they shall be woven with gold in their 'settings. ²¹And the stones shall be with the 'twelve names of the children of Israel, with their 'names, like the engravings of a signet; every 'one with its name shall they be for the twelve tribes.

'²² And thou shalt make upon the Breastplate chains twisted of cord-like work of pure gold. ²³ And thou shalt make upon the Breastplate two rings of gold, and shalt put the two rings on the two ends of the Breastplate. ²⁴ And thou shalt put the two cords of gold in the two rings which are on the ends of the Breastplate. ²⁵ And the other two ends of the two cords thou shalt fasten in the two Checkerwork-Buttons, and put them on the shoulder-straps of the Ephod, on the front part of it.

'²⁶ And thou shalt make two rings of gold, and thou shalt put them on the two ends of the Breastplate on its edge, which is against the Ephod inward. ²⁷ And two other rings of gold thou shalt make, and shalt put them on the two shoulder-straps of the Ephod, towards the bottom, on its forepart, near its joining, above the Embroidered Girdle of the Ephod. ²⁸ And they shall bind the Breastplate by its rings to the rings of the Ephod with a riband of blue, that it may be above the Embroidered Girdle of the Ephod, and that the Breastplate be not loosed from the Ephod. ²⁹ And Aaron shall bear the names of the children of Israel on the Breastplate of Judgment on his heart, when he goeth in unto the Holy [room], for a memorial before Jehovah continually.

'³⁰ And thou shalt put on to the Breastplate of Judgment the URIM and the THUMMIM; and they shall be upon Aaron's heart, when he goeth in to the presence of Jehovah. And Aaron shall bear the judgment of the children of Israel upon his heart before Jehovah continually.

'³¹ And thou shalt make the ROBE [or skirt] of the Ephod all of blue. ³² And the opening shall be at the top of it, in the middle of it. It shall have a border of woven work round about the opening of it, as it were the opening of a coat of mail, that it be not rent. ³³ And upon the bottom hem of it thou shalt make pomegranates of blue, and of purple, and of bright scarlet, round about its bottom hem; and bells of gold between them round about; ³⁴ a golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, upon the bottom hem of the Robe round about. ³⁵ And it shall be upon Aaron to minister; and its sounds shall be heard when he goeth in unto the Holy [room] before Jehovah, and when he cometh out, that he die not.

'³⁶ And thou shalt make a BRIGHT PLATE of pure gold, and engrave upon it, like the engravings of a signet, HOLINESS TO JEHOVAH. ³⁷ And thou shalt put it on a blue riband, that it may be upon the Mitre; upon the front of the Mitre it shall be. ³⁸ And it shall be upon Aaron's forehead, that Aaron may bear the iniquity of the holy things, which the children of Israel shall hallow in all their holy gifts; and it shall be 'always upon his forehead, that they may be accepted before Jehovah.

'³⁹ And thou shalt work checkerwork on the UNDER-COAT of fine linen, and thou shalt make the Mitre of fine linen, and thou shalt make the Girdle of embroidered work.

'⁴⁰ And for the sons of Aaron thou shalt make under-coats, and thou shalt make for them girdles; and high caps shalt thou make for them, for glory and for beauty. ⁴¹ And thou shalt put them on Aaron thy brother, and his sons with him; and shalt anoint them, and fill their hands [with offerings], and sanctify them, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office. ⁴² And thou shalt make for them linen breeches to cover their naked flesh; from the loins even to the thighs they shall reach; ⁴³ and they shall be on Aaron, and on his sons, when they come to the Tent of Meeting, or when they come near to the Altar to minister in the holy place; that they bear not iniquity, and die. It shall be a statute for ever to him and his seed after him.

'²⁹ And this is the thing that thou shalt do to them TO MAKE THEM HOLY, to minister to me in the priest's office. Take one bullock, the young of a bull, and two rams without blemish, and unleavened bread, either pricked cakes unleavened tempered with oil, or wafers unleavened anointed with oil; of wheaten flour shalt thou make them. ³ And thou shalt put them into one basket, and bring them in the basket with the bullock and the two rams. ⁴ And Aaron and his sons thou shalt bring to the doorway of the Tent of Meeting, and shalt wash them with water. ⁵ And thou shalt take the garments, and put upon Aaron the Under-coat, and the Robe of the Ephod, and the Ephod, and the Breastplate, and shalt bind the Ephod on him with the Embroidered Girdle of the Ephod. ⁶ And thou shalt put the Mitre upon his head, and put the Holy Crown upon the Mitre. ⁷ Then shalt thou take the anointing oil, and pour it upon his head, and anoint him. ⁸ And thou shalt bring his sons, and put under-coats on them. ⁹ And thou shalt gird them with girdles, Aaron and his sons, and bind high caps on them. And the priest's office shall be theirs by a statute for ever; and thou shalt fill the hands of Aaron and his sons [with offerings].

'¹⁰ And thou shalt bring the bullock before the Tent of Meeting; and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the bullock. ¹¹ And thou shalt slay the bullock before Jehovah, by the doorway of the Tent of Meeting. ¹² And thou shalt take some of the blood of the bullock, and put it on the horns of the Altar with thy finger, and shalt pour all the blood at the base of the Altar. ¹³ And thou shalt take all the fat that covereth the inner parts, and the lobe that is above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and shalt burn them for incense upon the Altar. ¹⁴ But the flesh of the

' bullock, and its skin, and its dung, shalt thou
' burn with fire on the outside of the camp ; it is a
' SIN OFFERING.

' ¹⁵ Thou shalt also take the one ram ; and
' Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon
' the head of the ram. ¹⁶ And thou shalt slay the ' ram, and thou shalt take its blood, and sprinkle
' it round about on the Altar. ¹⁷ And thou shalt
' cut the ram into its pieces, and wash its inner
' parts, and its shanks, and put them to its pieces,
' and to its head. ¹⁸ And thou shalt burn the ' whole ram for incense upon the Altar ; it is a
' BURNT OFFERING to Jehovah ; it is a sweet savour,
' an offering made by fire unto Jehovah.

' ¹⁹ And thou shalt take the other ram ; and
' Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon
' the ram's head. ²⁰ Then shalt thou slay the ram,
' and take some of its blood, and put it upon the ' tip of the right ear of Aaron, and upon the tip of ' the right ear of his sons, and upon the thumb of ' their right hand, and upon the great toe of their right
' foot, and sprinkle the blood upon the Altar round
' about. ²¹ And thou shalt take some of the blood
' that is upon the Altar, and of the anointing oil,
' and sprinkle it on Aaron, and on his garments,
' and on his sons, and on the garments of his sons
' with him ; and he shall be made holy, and his
' garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments
' with him. ²² Also thou shalt take of the ram the ' fat and the fat tail, and the fat that covereth the ' inner parts, and the lobe of the liver, and the two ' kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and the ' right leg ; for it is a ram of consecration ; ²³ and
' one circular loaf of bread, and one pricked cake
' of oiled bread, and one wafer out of the basket
' of the unleavened bread that is before Jehovah.
' ²⁴ And thou shalt put the whole into the hands of ' Aaron, and into the hands of his sons ; and thou ' shalt wave them for a WAVE OFFERING before
' Jehovah. ²⁵ And then thou shalt take them from ' their hands, and burn them as incense upon the ' Altar with the burnt offering, for a sweet savour
' before Jehovah ; it is an offering made by fire
' unto Jehovah.

' ²⁶ And thou shalt take the breast of the ram
' of Aaron's consecration, and wave it for a wave
' offering before Jehovah ; and it shall be thy por' tion. ²⁷ And thou shalt sanctify the breast of
' the wave offering, and the leg of the heave offer' ing, which is waved and which is heaved up, of ' the ram of the consecration, even of that which ' is for Aaron, and of that which is for his sons ;
' ²⁸ and it shall be Aaron's and his sons by a statute
' for ever from the children of Israel ; for it is
' a HEAVE OFFERING. And it shall be a heave
' offering from the children of Israel out of the ' sacrifice of their peace offerings [or love-feasts],
' even their heave offering unto Jehovah.

' ²⁹ And the holy garments of Aaron shall be ' his sons' after him, to be anointed therein, and ' to be consecrated in them. ³⁰ And that one of ' his sons that is [chief] Priest in his stead shall

' put them on for seven days, when he cometh
' into the Tent of Meeting to minister in the holy
' place.

' ³¹ And thou shalt take the ram of THE CONSE-' CRATION, and cook its flesh in the Holy Place.
' ³² And Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of ' the ram, and the bread that is in the basket, by
' the doorway of the Tent of Meeting. ³³ And
' they shall eat those things whereby atonement
' was made, that they may be consecrated to be ' made holy. But a stranger shall not eat thereof,
' because they are holy. ³⁴ And if aught of the ' flesh of the consecrations, or of the bread, remain
' unto the morning, then thou shalt burn the re' mainder with fire ; it shall not be eaten, because ' it is holy. ³⁵ And thus shalt thou do to Aaron,
' and to his sons, according to all things which I ' have commanded thee ; seven days shalt thou
' consecrate them.

' ³⁶ And thou shalt offer every day a bullock as
' a sin offering for the atonement ; and thou shalt
' cleanse the Altar from sin, when thou makest
' atonement for it, and thou shalt anoint it, to ' sanctify it. ³⁷ Seven days thou shalt MAKE
' ATONEMENT FOR THE ALTAR, and shalt sanctify it,
' and it shall be an Altar most holy ; whatsoever
' toucheth the Altar shall be holy.

' ³⁸ Now this is that which thou shalt offer
' upon the Altar ; two lambs of the first year DAY
' BY DAY continually. ³⁹ The one lamb thou shalt
' offer in the morning ; and the other lamb thou
' shalt offer at twilight [or between the evenings] ;
' ⁴⁰ and with the one lamb a tenth part [of an
' Ephah] of flour mingled with the fourth part of ' a Hin [or two and a half pints] of beaten oil ;
' and for a drink offering the fourth part of a Hin
' of wine. ⁴¹ And the other lamb thou shalt offer
' at twilight, and shalt do thereto according to the ' meal offering of the morning, and according to
' the drink offering thereof, for a sweet savour, an ' offering made by fire unto Jehovah. ⁴² This shall ' be a continual burnt offering throughout your ' generations at the doorway of the Tent of Meet' ing before Jehovah ; where I shall be met by you,
' to speak to thee there. ⁴³ And there I shall be ' met by the children of Israel, and it shall be ' made holy by my glory. ⁴⁴ When I have sancti-
' fied the Tent of Meeting and the Altar, I will
' sanctify also both Aaron and his sons, to minister
' to me in the priest's office. ⁴⁵ And I will dwell
' among the children of Israel, and will be their
' God. ⁴⁶ And they shall know that I am Jehovah
' their God, who brought them forth out of the ' land of Lower Egypt, that I may dwell among ' them. I am Jehovah their God.

' ³⁰ And thou shalt make an ALTAR TO BURN
' INCENSE UPON ; of acacia wood shall thou make
' it. ² A cubit shall be its length, and a cubit its ' breadth ; foursquare shall it be ; and two cubits
' shall be its height. Its horns shall be of the ' same. ³ And thou shalt overlay it with pure
' gold, on its top, and on its sides round about,

'and on its horns; and thou shalt make to it a border of gold round about. ⁴And two golden rings shalt thou make to it under its border, on its two side-planks, at the two sides of it shalt thou make them; and they shall be for places for the staves to carry it with. ⁵And thou shalt make the staves of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold. ⁶And thou shalt put it before the Veil that is by the Ark of the Testimonials, before the Cover that is over the Testimonials, where I shall be met by thee. ⁷And Aaron shall burn thereon sweet incense every morning; when he dresseth the lamps, he shall burn incense upon it. ⁸And when Aaron lighteth the lamps at twilight, he shall burn incense on it, a perpetual incense before Jehovah throughout your generations. ⁹Ye shall offer up no strange incense thereon, nor burnt offering, nor meal offering; neither shall ye pour drink offering thereon. ¹⁰And Aaron shall make atonement upon its horns once in a year with the blood of the sin offering of atonements; once in a year shall he make atonement upon it throughout your generations. It is most holy unto Jehovah.'

¹¹And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ¹²'When thou takest the sum of the children of Israel at their registering, then shall they give every man a ransom for his soul unto Jehovah, when thou registerest them; that there be no plague among them, when thou registerest them. ¹³This they shall give, every one that cometh up to the registering, HALF A SHEKEL after the holy Shekel (a Shekel [or two shillings] is twenty Gerahs); a half Shekel shall be the heave offering to Jehovah. ¹⁴Every one that cometh up to the registering, from twenty years old and above, shall give a heave offering to Jehovah. ¹⁵The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less than half a Shekel, in giving a heave offering to Jehovah, to make atonement for your souls. ¹⁶And thou shalt take the atonement money of the children of Israel, and shalt appoint it for the service of the Tent of Meeting, that it may be a memorial for the children of Israel before Jehovah, to make atonement for your souls.'

¹⁷And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ¹⁸'Thou shalt also make a COPPER LAVEN, and its stand of copper, to wash with. And thou shalt put it between the Tent of Meeting and the Altar, and thou shalt put water therein. ¹⁹And Aaron and his sons shall wash their hands and their feet thereat. ²⁰When they go into the Tent of Meeting, they shall wash with water, that they die not; or when they come near to the Altar to minister, to burn offerings made by fire as incense to Jehovah. ²¹So they shall wash their hands and their feet, that they die not; and it shall be a statute for ever to them, even to him and to his seed throughout their generations.'

²²Moreover Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ²³'Take thou also to thee the chief spices; of unpressed myrrh five hundred Shekels [or 250 ounces], and of cinnamon spice half so much, even two hundred and fifty Shekels, and of calamus spice two hundred and fifty Shekels, ²⁴and of cassia five hundred Shekels, after the holy Shekel, and of olive oil a Hin [or ten pints]. ²⁵And thou shalt make it a holy ANOINTING OIL, a compound compounded after the art of the apothecary; it shall be a holy anointing oil. ²⁶And thou shalt anoint the Tent of Meeting therewith, and the Ark of the Testimonials, ²⁷and the Table and all its vessels, and the Lamp-stand and its vessels, and the Altar of Incense, ²⁸and the Altar of Burnt Offerings with all its vessels, and the Laver and its stand. ²⁹And thou shalt sanctify them, that they may be most holy; whatsoever toucheth them shall be holy. ³⁰And thou shalt anoint Aaron and his sons, and make them holy, that they may minister unto me, in the priest's office. ³¹And thou shalt speak to the children of Israel, saying, This shall be a holy anointing oil unto me throughout your generations. ³²Upon man's flesh shall it not be poured, neither shall ye make any other like it, after the composition of it. It is holy, and it shall be holy unto you. ³³Whosoever compoundeth any like it, or whosoever putteth any of it upon a stranger shall even be cut off from his people.'

³⁴And Jehovah said to Moses, 'Take to thee sweet spices, stacte, and onycha, and galbanum; these sweet spices with pure frankincense; of each there shall be weight for weight. ³⁵And thou shalt make it an INCENSE, a compound after the art of the apothecary, salted, pure, and holy. ³⁶And thou shalt beat some of it very small, and put some of it before the Testimonials in the Tent of Meeting, where I shall be met by thee; it shall be to you most holy. ³⁷And as for the incense which thou shalt make, according to this composition, ye shall not make such for yourselves; it shall be to thee holy for Jehovah. ³⁸Whosoever shall make like to that, to smell thereto, shall even be cut off from his people.'

³¹And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ²'See, I have called by name Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah. ³And I will fill him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship, ⁴to devise cunning works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in copper; ⁵and in cutting of stones to set them, and in carving of timber, to work in all manner of workmanship. ⁶And I, behold, I have given with him Aholiab, the son of Abisamach, of the tribe of Dan. And in the hearts of all that are wise-hearted I have put wisdom, that they may make all that I have commanded thee; ⁷the Tent of Meeting, and the Ark of the Testimonials, and the Cover that is thereupon, and all the vessels of the Tent, ⁸and the Table and its vessels, and the Pure Lamp-stand with all its vessels, and the Altar of Incense, ⁹and the Altar of Burnt Offerings with all its vessels, and the

'Laver and its stand,¹⁰ and the Knitted Garments, 'both the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and 'the garments of his sons, to minister in the priest's 'office,¹¹ and the Anointing Oil, and Sweet Incense 'for the holy place; according to all that I have 'commanded thee shall they do.'

¹² And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying,¹³ 'Speak 'thou also to the children of Israel, saying, Verily 'my SABBATHS ye shall keep; for it is a sign be- 'tween me and you throughout your generations; 'that ye may know that I am Jehovah that doth 'sanctify you. ¹⁴ Ye shall keep the sabbath there- 'fore; for it is holy unto you. Every one that 'defileth it shall surely be put to death; for who- 'soever doeth any work therein, that soul shall be 'cut off from among his people. ¹⁵ Six days may 'work be done; but on the seventh day is the 'sabbath of rest, holy to Jehovah. Whosoever 'doeth any work on the sabbath day, he shall 'surely be put to death. ¹⁶ Therefore the children 'of Israel shall keep the sabbath, to observe the 'sabbath throughout their generations; ¹⁷ it is a 'covenant for ever. It is a sign between me and 'the children of Israel for ever; for in six days 'Jehovah made the heavens and the earth, and on 'the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed.'

¹⁸ And he gave to Moses, when he had made an end of speaking with him on mount Sinai, two Tables of Testimony, Tables of Stone, written with the finger of God.

³² And when the people saw that Moses de- layed to come down from the Mountain, the people assembled themselves unto Aaron, and said to him, 'Rise up, make for us gods, that shall go before 'us; for as for this Moses, the man that brought 'us up out of the land of Lower Egypt, we know 'not what is become of him.' ² And Aaron said to them, 'Break off the golden rings, which are in 'the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your 'daughters, and bring them to me.' ³ And all the people brake off the golden rings which were in their ears, and brought them to Aaron. ⁴ And he received them at their hand, and fashioned it with a graving tool, and he made it a MOLTEN CALF. And they said, 'These are thy gods, O Israel, who 'brought thee up out of the land of Lower Egypt.' ⁵ And when Aaron saw it, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made proclamation, and said, 'To- morrow is a feast to Jehovah.' ⁶ And they rose up early on the morrow, and offered up burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings [or made love feasts]; and the people sat down to eat, and they drank, and rose up to play.

⁷ And Jehovah said to Moses, 'Go, get thee 'down; for thy people, which thou broughtest up 'out of the land of Lower Egypt, have corrupted 'themselves; ⁸ they have turned aside quickly out 'of the way which I commanded them; they have 'made for them a molten calf, and they worship it, 'and sacrifice thereunto, and say, These are thy 'gods, O Israel, which have brought thee up out 'of the land of Lower Egypt.'

⁹ And Jehovah said to Moses, 'I have seen this 'people, and behold, it is a stiff-necked people. '¹⁰ Now therefore let me alone, that my wrath may 'wax hot against them, and that I may consume 'them; and I will make of thee a great nation.'

¹⁷ And when Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said to Moses, 'There 'is a noise of war in the camp.' ¹⁸ And he said, 'It is not the noise of a shout for victory, neither 'is it the noise of a shout for being overcome; but 'the noise of a shout do I hear.' ¹⁹ And it came to pass as soon as he came nigh to the camp, that he saw the calf, and the dancing. And Moses' anger waxed hot, and he cast the Tables out of his hands, and brake them at the bottom of the Mountain. ²⁰ And he took the calf which they had made, and burnt it in the fire, and ground it to powder, and strewed it on the face of the water, and made the children of Israel drink it. ²¹ And Moses said to Aaron, 'What did this people to 'thee, that thou hast brought so great a sin upon 'them?' ²² And Aaron said, 'Let not the anger 'of my lord wax hot; thou knowest the people, 'that they are set on mischief. ²³ For they said 'to me, Make for us gods, which shall go before 'us; for as for this Moses, the man that brought 'us up out of the land of Lower Egypt, we know 'not what is become of him. ²⁴ And I said to 'them, Whosoever hath any gold, let them break 'it off. So they gave it me; then I cast it into 'the fire, and there came out this calf.' ²⁵ And when Moses saw that the people were in disorder: (for Aaron had put them into disorder unto being a byword among their enemies); ²⁶ then Moses stood at the gate of the camp, and said, 'Who is 'for Jehovah? Let him come to me.' And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves together unto him. ²⁷ And he said to them, 'Thus saith Jehovah

'the God of Israel, Put ye every man his sword by his side, and go in and out from gate to gate throughout the camp, and slay every man his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbour.' ²⁸ And the children of Levi did according to the word of Moses: and there fell of the people on that day about three thousand men. ²⁹ For Moses had said, 'Fill your hands [or 'consecrate yourselves'] to-day to Jehovah, even every man upon his son, and upon his brother; that he may bestow upon you a blessing this day.'

³⁰ And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses said to the people, 'Ye have sinned a great sin; and now I will go up unto Jehovah; peradventure I shall make atonement for your sin.' ³¹ And Moses returned to Jehovah, and said, 'Oh, this people have sinned a great sin, and have made to them gods of gold. ³² Yet now, if thou wilt, forgive their sin—; and if not, blot me, I pray thee, out of thy book which thou hast written.' ³³ And Jehovah said to Moses, 'Whosoever hath sinned against me, him will I blot out of my book. ³⁴ Therefore now go, lead the people to the place of which I have spoken to thee; behold, mine Angel shall go before thee. Nevertheless, in the day when I visit I will visit their sin upon them.' ³⁵ And Jehovah smote the people, because they made the calf which Aaron made.

33 And Jehovah said to Moses, 'Depart, go up hence, thou and the people which thou hast brought up out of the land of Lower Egypt, unto the land of which I swear to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, To thy seed will I give it; and I will send an angel before thee; and I will drive out the Canaanites, the Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites;—³ unto a land flowing with milk and honey. For I will not go up in the midst of thee; for thou art a stiff-necked people; lest I consume thee on the way.' ⁴ And when the people heard these evil tidings, they mourned; and no man did put on him his ornaments. ⁵ For Jehovah had said to Moses, 'Say to the children of Israel, Ye are a stiff-necked people; I will come up into the midst of thee in a moment, and consume thee; therefore now put off thy ornaments from thee, that I may know what to do to thee.' ⁶ And the children of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments by the Mountain of Horeb.

⁷ And Moses took the Tent, and pitched it without the camp, afar off from the camp, and called it the Tent of Meeting. And it came to pass, that every one who would inquire of Jehovah went out to the Tent of Meeting, which was without the camp. ⁸ And it came to pass, when Moses went out unto the Tent, that all the people rose up, and stood every man at the doorway of his own tent, and looked after Moses, until he came to the Tent. ⁹ And it came to pass, as Moses came to the Tent, the Pillar of Cloud descended, and stood at the doorway of the Tent, and talked with Moses. ¹⁰ And all the people saw the Pillar of Cloud standing at the Tent door; and all the people rose up and worshipped, every man at his own tent door. ¹¹ And Jehovah spake to Moses face to face, as a man speaketh to his friend. And he returned again into the camp; but his servant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, departed not out of the Tent.

¹² And Moses said to Jehovah, 'See, thou sayest to me, Bring up this people; and thou hast not let me know whom thou wilt send with me. 'Yet thou hast said, I know thee by name, and thou hast also found grace in my sight. ¹³ Now therefore, I pray thee, if I have found grace in thy sight, shew me now thy way, that I may know thee, so that I may find grace in thy sight; and do thou consider that this nation is thy people.' ¹⁴ And He said, 'My presence shall lead, and I will give thee rest.' ¹⁵ And he said to him, 'If thy presence lead not, carry us not up hence. ¹⁶ For wherein shall it be certainly known that I and thy people have found grace in thy sight? Is it not in that thou goest with us? So shall we be separated, I and thy people, from all the people that are on the face of the earth.' ¹⁷ And Jehovah said to Moses, 'I will do this thing also that thou hast spoken; for thou hast found grace in my sight, and I know thee by name.' ¹⁸ And he said, 'I beseech thee, show me thy Glory.' ¹⁹ And He said, 'I will make all my goodness pass before thee, and I will proclaim Jehovah by name before thee; and I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will shew mercy on whom I will shew mercy.' ²⁰ But He said, 'Thou canst not see my face; for there shall no man see me and live.' ²¹ And Jehovah said, 'Behold there is a place by me, and thou shalt stand upon the rock. ²² And it shall come to pass, while my Glory passeth by, that I will put thee in a cleft of the rock, and will cover thee with my hand while I pass by. ²³ And then I will take away my hand, and thou shalt see my back; but my face shall not be seen.'

34 And Jehovah said to Moses, 'Hew for thyself two Tables of Stone like the first; and I will write upon the tables the words that were on the first tables, which thou breakest. ² And be ready in the morning, and come up in the morning to mount Sinai, and present thyself there to me on the top of the Mountain. ³ And no man shall come up with thee, neither let any man be seen throughout all the Mountain; neither let the flocks nor herds feed on the face of that Mountain.' ⁴ And he hewed two tables of stone like the first. And Moses rose up early in the morning, and went up to mount Sinai, as Jehovah had commanded him, and he took in his hand the two Tables of Stone. ⁵ And Jehovah descended in a cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed Jehovah by name. ⁶ And Jehovah passed by before him, and proclaimed, 'Jehovah, Jehovah, a God merciful and gracious, slow to wrath, and abundant in kindness and truth, ⁷ keeping kind'ness for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, but not wholly acquitting; visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children's children, unto the third and to the fourth generation.' ⁸ And Moses made haste, and bowed his head to the earth, and worshipped. ⁹ And he said, 'If now I have found grace in thy sight, O LORD, let my Lord, I pray thee, go among us; for this is a stiff-necked people; and pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for thine inheritance.'

¹⁰ And [Jehovah] said, 'Behold, I make a covenant before all thy people; I will do marvels, such as have not been created in all the earth, nor in any nation; and all the people among which thou art shall see the work of Jehovah, for it is a fearful thing that I will do with thee.' ¹¹ Observe thou that which I command thee this day. Behold, I drive out before thee the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites. ¹² Take heed to thyself, lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land whither thou goest, lest it be for a snare in the midst of thee. ¹³ But ye shall destroy their altars, break their images, and cut down their groves of Ashera; ¹⁴ for thou shalt worship no other god; for Jehovah, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God; ¹⁵ lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and they go astray after their gods, and sacrifice to their gods, and one call thee, and thou eat of his sacrifice; ¹⁶ and thou take some of their daughters for thy sons; and their daughters go astray after their gods, and make thy sons to go astray after their gods. ¹⁷ Thou shalt make for thee no molten gods.

¹⁸ The FEAST OF UNLEAVENED BREAD shalt thou keep. Seven days thou shalt eat unleavened bread, as I commanded thee, at the appointed time of the month Abib [or of barley in ear]; for in the month Abib thou camest out from Lower Egypt.

¹⁹ Every one that openeth the womb [or is firstborn] is mine; and every firstling among thy cattle, whether ox or sheep [or goat], that is male. ²⁰ But the firstling of an ass thou shalt redeem with a lamb [or kid]; and if thou redeem it not, then shalt thou break its neck. All the firstborn of thy sons thou shalt redeem. And none shall appear before me empty-handed.

²¹ Six days thou shalt work, but on the seventh day thou shalt rest; in plowing time and in harvest thou shalt rest.

²² And thou shalt observe the FEAST OF WEEKS [or of Pentecost] at the Firstfruits of wheat harvest, and the FEAST OF INGATHERING [or of Tabernacles] at the turn of the year. ²³ Thrice in the year shall all thy males appear before the Lord Jehovah, the God of Israel. ²⁴ For I will cast out the nations before thee, and enlarge thy boundaries; neither shall any man covet thy land, when thou shalt go up to appear before Jehovah thy God thrice in the year.

²⁷ And Jehovah said to Moses, 'Write thou THESE WORDS; for after the tenor of these words I have made a covenant with thee and with Israel.' ²⁸ And he was there with Jehovah forty days and forty nights; he did neither eat bread, nor drink water. And he wrote upon the Tables the words of the covenant, the Ten Commandments.

²⁹ And it came to pass, when Moses came down from mount Sinai with the two Tables of the Testimony in Moses' hand, when he came down from the Mountain, that Moses knew not that the skin of his face shone with rays while He talked with him. ³⁰ And when Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone with rays; and they were afraid to come nigh him. ³¹ And Moses called to them; and Aaron and all the rulers among the congregation returned to him; and Moses talked with them. ³² And afterward all the children of Israel came nigh; and he gave them in command all that Jehovah had spoken with him on mount Sinai. ³³ And when Moses had done speaking with them, he put a veil on his face. ³⁴ But when Moses went in before Jehovah to speak with him, he took the veil off, until he came out. And he came out and spake to the children of Israel that which he was commanded. ³⁵ And the children of Israel saw the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face shone with rays; and Moses put the veil upon his face again, until he went in to speak with Him.

³⁵ And MOSES ASSEMBLED all the congregation of the children of Israel, and said to them, 'These are the words which Jehovah hath commanded, that ye should do them. ² Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day there shall be to you a holy day, a sabbath of rest to Jehovah; whosoever doeth work therein shall be put to death. ³ Ye shall kindle no fire throughout your habitations on the sabbath day.'

'every wise-hearted man among you shall come, and make all that Jehovah hath commanded; ¹¹the Tabernacle, its Tent, and its covering, its curtain-hooks, and its boards, its cross-bars, its pillars, and its sockets, ¹²the Ark, and its staves, the Cover, and the Veil which screeneth, ¹³the Table, and its staves, and all its vessels, and the Presence-bread, ¹⁴the Lamp-stand also for the light, and its vessels, and its lamps, with the oil for the light, ¹⁵and the Incense Altar, and its staves, and the Anointing Oil, and the sweet incense, and the screen for the doorway at the doorway of the Tabernacle, ¹⁶the Altar of Burnt Offering, with the copper grating for it, its staves, and all its vessels, the laver and its stand, ¹⁷the hanging of the Court, its pillars, and their sockets, and the screen for the gate of the Court, ¹⁸the tent-pins of the Tabernacle, and the tent-pins of the Court, and their cords, ¹⁹the Knitted Garments, to do service in the holy place, both the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the priest's office.'

²⁰And all the congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses. ²¹And they came every one whose heart stirred him up, and every one whom his spirit made willing, and they brought Jehovah's heave offering for the work of the Tent of Meeting, and for all its service, and for the holy garments. ²²And they came, the men with the women, as many as were willing-hearted, and brought clasps, and earrings, and rings, and hanging drops, all jewels of gold. And every man that waved brought a wave offering of gold to Jehovah; ²³and every man with whom was found blue, or purple, or bright scarlet, or fine linen, or goats' hair, or skins of rams dyed red, or seals' skins, brought them. ²⁴Every one that heaved a heave offering of silver or copper brought Jehovah's heave offering; and every man with whom was found acacia wood for any work of the service, brought it. ²⁵And all the women that were wise-hearted did spin with their hand, and brought that which they had spun, both of blue, and of purple, and of bright scarlet, and of fine linen. ²⁶And all the women whose heart stirred them up in wisdom spun the goats' hair. ²⁷And the rulers brought onyx stones, and stones to be set, for the Ephod, and for the Breastplate; ²⁸and spice, and oil for the light, and for the anointing oil, and for the sweet incense. ²⁹The children of Israel brought a free-will offering to Jehovah, every man and woman, whose heart made them willing to bring for all manner of work, which Jehovah by the hand of Moses had commanded to be made.

³⁰And Moses said to the children of Israel, 'See, Jehovah hath called by name Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah; ³¹and he hath filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship; ³²and to devise curious works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in copper, ³³and in the cutting of stones to 'set them, and in carving of wood to make any manner of curious work. ³⁴And he hath put in his heart that he may teach, both he, and Aholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan. ³⁵Them hath he filled with wisdom of heart to work all manner of work, of the engraver, and of the cunning workman, and of the embroiderer, in blue, and in purple, in bright scarlet, and in fine linen, and of the weaver, even of them that do any work, and of those that devise curious work.'

³⁶Then wrought Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every wise-hearted man, in whom Jehovah put wisdom and understanding to know how to work all manner of work for the service of the Holy Place, according to all that Jehovah had commanded. ²And Moses called Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every wise-hearted man, in whose heart Jehovah had put wisdom, even every one whose heart stirred him up to come near unto the work to do it. ³And they took from before Moses all the heave offering, which the children of Israel had brought for the work of the service of the Holy Place, to make it with. And they brought yet to him free-will offerings every morning. ⁴And all the wise men that wrought all the work of the Holy Place, came every man from his work which they were making; ⁵and they spake to Moses, saying, 'The people are bringing much more than enough for the service of the work, which Jehovah hath commanded to be made.' ⁶And Moses gave command, and they caused it to be proclaimed in the camp, saying, 'Let neither man nor woman make any more work for the heave offering of the Holy Place.' So the people were restrained from bringing. ⁷For the work they had was enough for all work to make it, and too much.

⁸And all the wise-hearted men among them that wrought the work of the TABERNACLE made ten curtains of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and bright scarlet. With cherubs of embroidered work made he them. ⁹The length of one curtain was eight and twenty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits; the curtains were all of one size. ¹⁰And he joined five of the curtains one to another, and five curtains he joined one to another. ¹¹And he made loops of blue on the edge of one curtain at the end of the joining; in like manner he made them at the outermost edge of the curtain at the joining with the second. ¹²Fifty loops made he in one curtain, and fifty loops made he at the edge of the second curtain which was at the joining, the loops answering one to another. ¹³And he made fifty curtain-hooks of gold, and joined the curtains one to another with the curtain-hooks; so it became one Tabernacle.

¹⁴And he made curtains of goats' hair for the Tent over the Tabernacle; eleven curtains he made them. ¹⁵The length of one curtain was thirty cubits, and four cubits was the breadth of one curtain; the eleven curtains were of one size. ¹⁶And he joined five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves. ¹⁷And he made fifty loops on the outermost edge of the curtain at the joining, and fifty loops made he upon the edge of the second curtain which joineh. ¹⁸ And he made fifty curtain-hooks of copper to join the Tent together, that it might be one. ¹⁹ And he made a covering for the Tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering of seals' skins above that.

²⁰ And he made the boards for the Tabernacle of acacia wood, standing up. ²¹ The length of a board was ten cubits, and the breadth of each board a cubit and a half-cubit. ²² One board had two holders, fastened one to the other; thus did he make for all the boards of the Tabernacle. ²³ And he made the boards for the Tabernacle; twenty boards for the south or right-hand side; ²⁴ and he made forty sockets of silver sunk into the twenty boards; two sockets sunk into one board for its two holders, and two sockets sunk into another board for its two holders. ²⁵ And for the other side-wall of the Tabernacle, on the north side, he made twenty boards, ²⁶ and their forty sockets of silver; two sockets sunk into one board, and two sockets sunk into another board. ²⁷ And for the back part of the Tabernacle westward, he made six boards. ²⁸ And two boards made he for the corners of the Tabernacle at the back part. ²⁹ And they were coupled together towards the bottom, and well-joined together at its head to one ring; thus he did to both of them in both the corners. ³⁰ And there were eight boards; and their sockets were sixteen sockets of silver, two sockets sunk into every board.

³⁵ And he made the VEIL of blue, and purple, and bright scarlet, and fine twined linen; with cherubs made he it of embroidered work. ³⁶ And he made thereunto four pillars of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold; their hooks were of gold; and he cast for them four sockets of silver. ³⁷ And he made a screen for the doorway of the Tent, of blue, and purple, and bright scarlet, and fine twined linen, wrought with needlework; ³⁸ and its five pillars with their hooks. And he overlaid their heads and their cross-rods with gold; but their five sockets were of copper.

³⁷ And Bezaleel made the ARK of acacia wood; two cubits and a half was the length of it, and a cubit and a half the breadth of it, and a cubit and a half the height of it. ² And he overlaid it with pure gold within and without, and made a border of gold to it round about. ³ And he cast for it four rings of gold, for the four bottom corners of it; even two rings upon its one side-plank, and two rings upon its other side-plank. ⁴ And he made staves of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold. ⁵ And he put the staves into the rings by the side-planks of the Ark, to carry the Ark.

¹⁰ And he made the TABLE of acacia wood; two cubits was its length, and a cubit its breadth, and a cubit and a half its height. ¹¹ And he overlaid it with pure gold, and made thereunto a border of gold round about. ¹² Also he made thereunto a rim of a hand breadth round about; and made a border of gold for its rim round about. ¹³ And he cast for it four rings of gold, and put the rings upon the four corners that were at its four feet. ¹⁴ Over against the rim were the rings, as places for the staves to carry the Table. ¹⁵ And he made the staves of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold, to carry the Table. ¹⁶ And he made the vessels which were upon the Table, its dishes, and its ladles, and its purifying jars, and its cups to pour with, of pure gold.

¹⁷ And he made the LAMP-STAND of pure gold; of beaten work made he the Lamp-stand; its shaft, and its branch, its cups, its buds, and its flowers, were of the same; ¹⁸ and six branches going out of its sides; three branches of the Lamp-stand out of the one side of it, and three branches of the Lamp-stand out of the other side of it; ¹⁹ three cups as of almond-blossoms on one branch, a bud and a flower; and three cups as of almond-blossoms on another branch, a bud and a flower; so throughout the six branches going out of the Lamp-stand. ²⁰ And on the Lamp-stand itself were four cups as of almond-blossoms, their buds and their flowers; ²¹ and a bud under two branches of the same, and a bud under two branches of the same, for the six branches going out of it. ²² Their buds and their branches were of the same; all of it was one beaten work of pure gold. ²³ And he made its seven lamps, and its snuffers, and its snuff-dishes, of pure gold. ²⁴ Of a Kikar's weight of pure gold made he it, and all its vessels.

²⁵ And he made the INCENSE ALTAR of acacia wood. The length of it was a cubit, and the breadth of it a cubit; it was foursquare; and two cubits was its height; its horns were of the same. ²⁶ And he overlaid it with pure gold, both the top of it, and its sides round about, and its horns; also he made unto it a border of gold round about. ²⁷ And he made two rings of gold for it under its border, on its two side-planks, at its two sides, to be places for the staves to carry it therewith. ²³ And he made the staves of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold.

²⁹ And he made the holy ANOINTING OIL, and the pure incense of sweet spices, the work of the apothecary.

38 And he made the ALTAR of burnt offering of acacia wood. Five cubits was its length, and five cubits its breadth; it was foursquare; and three cubits its height. ² And he made its horns on the four corners of it; its horns were of the same; and he overlaid it with copper. ³ And he made all the vessels of the Altar, the pots, and the shovels, and the sprinkling buckets, and the flesh-hooks, and the firepans; all its vessels made he of copper. ⁴ And he made for the Altar a copper grating of network under its outer edge beneath unto the midst of it. ⁵ And he cast four rings for the four ends of the copper grating, to be places for the staves. ⁶ And he made the staves of acacia wood, and overlaid them with copper. ⁷ And he put the staves into the rings on the side-planks of the Altar, to carry it therewith. He made it hollow with boards.

⁹ And he made the COURT. On the south, or right hand side, the hangings of the court were of fine twined linen, a hundred cubits; ¹⁰ their twenty pillars and their twenty sockets were of copper; the hooks of the pillars and their cross-rods were of silver. ¹¹ And for the north side [the hangings] were a hundred cubits, their twenty pillars and their twenty sockets were of copper, the hooks of the pillars and their cross-rods of silver. ¹² And for the west side were hangings of fifty cubits, their pillars ten, and their sockets ten; the hooks of the pillars and their cross-rods of silver. ¹³ And for the front side eastward they were of fifty cubits. ¹⁴ The hangings for the one half of the front were fifteen cubits, their pillars three, and their sockets three; ¹⁵ and for the other half of the front, (namely, on this and that side of the court-gate), were hangings of fifteen cubits, their pillars three, and their sockets three. ¹⁶ All the hangings of the court round about were of fine twined linen. ¹⁷ And the sockets for the pillars were of copper; the hooks of the pillars and their cross-rods of silver; and the coating of their heads of silver; and all the pillars of the court had cross-rods of silver. ¹⁸ And the screen for the gate of the Court was needlework, of blue, and purple, and bright scarlet, and fine twined linen; and twenty cubits was the length, and the height in the breadth was five cubits, answerable to the hangings of the court. ¹⁹ And their four pillars and their four sockets were of copper; their hooks of silver, and the coating of their heads and their cross-rods, of silver. ²⁰ And all the tent-pins of the Tabernacle, and of the Court round about, were of copper.

²¹ This is the sum of the Tabernacle, even of the Tabernacle of the Testimonials, as it was counted, according to the command of Moses, for the service of the Levites, by the hand of Ithamar, son to Aaron the priest. ²² And Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made all that Jehovah had commanded Moses. ²³ And with him was Aholiab, son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver, and a cunning workman, and an embroiderer in blue, and in purple, and in bright scarlet, and in fine linen. ²⁴ All the gold that was wrought for the work in all the work of the Holy Place, even the gold of the wave offering, was of the weight of twenty and nine Kikars, and seven hundred and thirty Shekels, after the holy Shekel. ²⁵ And the silver of them that were registered of the congregation was an hundred Kikars [or hundredweights], and a thousand seven hundred and seventy-five Shekels [or half-ounces], after the holy Shekel; ²⁶ a Bekah for every head, that is, half a Shekel, after the holy Shekel, for every one that came up to be registered, from twenty years old and upward, for six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty men. ²⁷ And of the hundred Kikars of silver were cast the sockets of the Holy Place, and the sockets of the Veil; a hundred sockets of the hundred Kikars, a Kikar for a socket. ²⁸ And of the thousand seven hundred seventy and five Shekels he made hooks for the pillars, and overlaid their heads, and made cross-rods for them. ²⁹ And the copper of the wave offering was seventy Kikars, and two thousand and four hundred Shekels. ³⁰ And therewith he made the sockets to the doorway of the Tent of Meeting, and the copper Altar, and the copper grating for it, and all the vessels of the Altar, ³¹ and the sockets of the Court round about, and the sockets of the Court-gate, and all the tent-pins of the Tabernacle, and all the tent-pins of the Court round about. 39 And of the blue, and purple, and bright scarlet, they made knitted garments to minister in the Holy Place, and they made the holy garments for Aaron; as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

² And he made the EPHOD [or Waistcoat] of gold, blue, and purple, and bright scarlet, and fine twined linen. ³ And they did beat the gold into thin plates, and cut it into wires, to work it into the blue, and into the purple, and into the bright scarlet, and into the fine linen, with embroidered work. ⁴ They made the shoulder-straps for it, to join together; by the two edges was it joined together. ⁵ And the Embroidered Girdle of his Ephod, that was upon it, was of the same, according to the work thereof; of gold, blue, and purple, and bright scarlet, and fine twined linen; as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

⁶ And they wrought onyx stones inclosed in Checkerwork Buttons of gold, graven, as signets are engraven, with the names of the children of Israel. ⁷ And he put them on the shoulder-straps of the Ephod, as stones for a memorial to the children of Israel; as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

⁸ And he made the BREASTPLATE of embroidered work, like the work of the Ephod; of gold, blue, and purple, and bright scarlet, and fine twined linen. ⁹ It was foursquare; they made the Breastplate in two halves. A span was its length and a span its breadth, in two halves. ¹⁰ And they set on it four rows of stones; a row of a ruby, a topaz, and a carbuncle; this was the first row. ¹¹ And the second row an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond. ¹² And the third row, a figure, an agate, and an amethyst. ¹³ And the fourth row, a chrysolite, an onyx, and a jasper; they were inclosed in checkerwork buttons of gold in their settings. ¹⁴ And the stones were with the names of the children of Israel, they were twelve with their names, like the engravings of a signet, every one with its name, for the twelve tribes. ¹⁵ And they made upon the Breastplate chains twisted of cord-like work of pure gold. ¹⁶ And they made the two Checkerwork Buttons of gold, and two gold rings; and put the two rings on the two ends of the Breastplate. ¹⁷ And they put the two cords of gold in the two rings on the ends of the Breastplate. ¹⁸ And the two ends of the two cords they fastened in the two Checkerwork Buttons, and put them on the shoulder-straps of the Ephod, on the front part of it. ¹⁹ And they made two rings of gold, and put them on the two ends of the Breastplate, on its edge, which was against the Ephod inward. ²⁰ And they made two other gold rings, and put them on the two shoulder-straps of the Ephod lower down, on the fore-part of it, near its joining, above the Embroidered Girdle of the Ephod. ²¹ And they did bind the Breastplate by its rings to the rings of the Ephod with a riband of blue, that it might be above the Embroidered Girdle of the Ephod, and that the Breastplate might not be loosed from the Ephod; as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

²⁷ And they made the UNDER-COATS of fine linen of woven work for Aaron, and for his sons, ²⁸ and the MITRE of fine linen, and the ornamented high caps of fine linen, and the linen breeches of fine twined linen, ²⁹ and the GIRDLE of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and bright scarlet, of needlework; as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

³⁰ And they made the BRIGHT PLATE of the holy Crown of pure gold, and wrote upon it a writing, like to the engravings of a signet, HOLINESS TO JEHOVAH. ³¹ And they tied unto it a riband of blue, to fasten it on the Mitre, above it; as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

³² Thus was all the work of the Tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting finished; and the children of Israel did according to all that Jehovah had commanded Moses, so did they. ³³ And they brought the Tabernacle to Moses, the Tent and all its furniture, its curtain-hooks, its boards, and its cross-bars, and its pillars, and its sockets, ³⁴ and the covering of rams' skins dyed red, and the covering of seals' skins, and the Veil which screeneth; ³⁵ the Ark of the Testimonials and its staves, and the Cover; ³⁶ the Table, and all its vessels, and the Presence-bread, ³⁷ the Pure Lamp-stand, with its lamps, even the ceremonial lamps and all its vessels, and the oil for light, ³⁸ and the golden altar, and the anointing oil, and the sweet incense, and the screen for the doorway of the Tent; ³⁹ the copper Altar, and the copper grating for it, its staves, and all its vessels, the laver and its stand; ⁴⁰ the hangings of the court, its pillars, and its sockets, and the screen for the court-gate, its cords, and its tent-pins, and all the vessels of the service of the Tabernacle, for the Tent of Meeting, ⁴¹ the Knitted Garments to minister in the Holy Place, even the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and his sons' garments, to minister in the priest's office. ⁴² According to all that Jehovah had commanded Moses, so the children of Israel made all the work. ⁴³ And Moses did look upon all the work, and behold, they had done it as Jehovah had commanded, even so had they done it; and Moses blessed them.

40 And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ¹ On the first day of the first month shalt thou set up the Tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting. ² And thou shalt put therein the Ark of the Testimonials, and shalt screen the ark with the Veil. ³ And thou shalt bring in the Table, and set in order its ceremonial things: and thou shalt bring in the Lamp-stand, and light its lamps. ⁴ And thou shalt set the Altar of gold for the incense before the Ark of the Testimonials, and shalt put the screen of the doorway to the Tabernacle. ⁵ And thou shalt set the Altar of burnt offering before the doorway of the Tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting. ⁶ And thou shalt set the Laver between the Tent of Meeting and the Altar, and shalt put water therein. ⁷ And thou shalt set up the Court round about, and hang up the screen at the Court-gate. ⁸ And thou shalt take the anointing oil, and shalt anoint the Tabernacle, and all that is therein, and shalt make it holy, and all its vessels; and it shall be holy. ⁹ And thou shalt anoint the Altar of burnt offering, and all its vessels, and sanctify the altar; and it shall 'be an altar most holy. ¹¹ And thou shalt anoint the Laver and its stand, and sanctify it. ¹² And thou shalt bring Aaron and his sons unto the doorway of the Tent of Meeting, and thou shalt wash them with water. ¹³ And thou shalt clothe Aaron with the holy garments, and anoint him, and sanctify him; that he may minister unto me in the priest's office. ¹⁴ And thou shalt bring his sons, and clothe them with under-coats; ¹⁵ and thou shalt anoint them as thou didst anoint their father, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office; for their anointing shall surely be an everlasting priesthood throughout their generations.' ¹⁶ And Moses did according to all that Jehovah had commanded him, so did he.

¹⁷ And it came to pass in the first month in the second year, on the first day of the month, that the Tabernacle was reared up. ¹⁸ And Moses reared up the Tabernacle, and fastened its sockets, and set up its boards, and put in its cross-bars, and reared up its pillars. ¹⁹ And he spread abroad the Tent over the Tabernacle, and put the covering of the Tent above upon it; as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

²⁴ And he put the Lamp-stand in the Tent of Meeting, over against the Table, at the side of the Tabernacle southward. ²⁵ And he lighted the lamps before Jehovah, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

²⁶ And he put the golden Altar in the Tent of Meeting before the Veil; ²⁷ and he burnt the sweet incense thereon; as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

³⁰ And he set the Laver between the Tent of Meeting and the Altar, and put water there, to wash with. ³¹ And Moses and Aaron and his sons washed their hands and their feet thereat, ³² when they went into the Tent of Meeting; and when they came near to the Altar, they washed, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

³³ And he reared up the Court round about the Tabernacle and the Altar, and set up the screen of the court-gate. So Moses finished the work. ³⁴ And the cloud covered the Tent of Meeting, and the glory of Jehovah filled the Tabernacle. ³⁵ And Moses was not able to enter into the Tent of Meeting, because the cloud abode thereon, and the glory of Jehovah filled the Tabernacle. ³⁶ And when the cloud was taken up from over the Tabernacle, the children of Israel journeyed onward in all their journeys; ³⁷ but if the cloud were not taken up, then they journeyed not till the day that it was taken up. ³⁸ For the cloud of Jehovah was upon the Tabernacle by day, and fire was on it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel, throughout all their journeys.

THE BOOK OF LEVITICUS.

1 AND JEHOVAH CALLED to Moses, and spake to him from the Tent of Meeting, saying, ² Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, If any man of you bring a gift [or Corban] to Jehovah of the cattle, ye may bring your gift either of the herd, or of the flock. ³ If his Gift be a BURNT OFFERING of the herd, let him bring a male without blemish; he shall bring it to the doorway of the Tent of Meeting, that it may be accepted for him before Jehovah. ⁴ And he shall place his hand on the head of the burnt offering; and it shall be accepted for him to make atonement for him. ⁵ And he shall slay the bullock before Jehovah. And the priests, the Sons of Aaron, shall bring the blood, and sprinkle the blood round about upon the Altar that is by the doorway of the Tent of Meeting. ⁶ And he shall flay the burnt offering, and cut it into its pieces. ⁷ And

'the Sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire upon the Altar, and lay wood in order upon the fire. ⁸ And the priests, the Sons of Aaron, shall lay the pieces, the head, and the fat, in order upon the wood that is on the fire which is upon the Altar; ⁹ but its inner parts and its shanks shall he wash in water; and the priest shall burn all for incense on the Altar, to be a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto Jehovah.

with its head and its fat; and the priest shall lay them in order on the wood that is on the fire which is upon the Altar. ¹³ But he shall wash the inner parts and the shanks with water; and the priests shall bring it all, and burn it for incense upon the Altar; it is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto Jehovah.

¹⁴ And if the burnt offering for his Gift to Jehovah be of fowls, then he shall bring his Gift of turtledoves, or of young pigeons. ¹⁵ And the priest shall bring it to the Altar, and nip off its head, and burn it for incense on the Altar; and its blood shall be wrung out against the side of the Altar. ¹⁶ And he shall pluck away its crop with its filth, and cast it beside the Altar on the east part, by the place of the bone-ashes. ¹⁷ And he shall cleave it in its wings, but shall not divide it asunder; and the priest shall burn it for incense upon the Altar, upon the wood that is upon the fire; it is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto Jehovah.

² And when any person will bring a Gift of a MEAL OFFERING to Jehovah, his Gift shall be of fine flour; and he shall pour oil upon it, and put frankincense thereon. ² And he shall bring it to the Sons of Aaron the priests. And he shall take thereout his handful of the flour thereof, and of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof; and the priest shall burn this memorial of it for incense upon the Altar, to be an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto Jehovah. ³ And the remnant of the meal offering shall be Aaron's and his sons'; it is a thing most holy of the offerings made by fire unto Jehovah.

¹¹ No meal offering, which ye shall bring to Jehovah, shall be made with leaven; for ye shall burn no portion of leaven, or honey, as an offering made by fire unto Jehovah. ¹² Ye shall bring them as a Gift of the first-fruits to Jehovah; but they shall not be burnt on the altar for a sweet savour,

¹³ And every gift of thy meal offering shalt thou salt with salt; neither shalt thou leave out the salt of the covenant of thy God from thy meal offering; with all thy Gifts thou shalt bring salt. ¹⁴ And if thou bring a meal offering of first-fruits to Jehovah, thou shalt bring for the meal offering of thy first-fruits ears of corn dried by the fire, the grain rubbed out of ripe ears of corn. ¹⁵ And thou shalt put oil upon it, and lay frankincense thereon; it is a meal offering. ¹⁶ And the priest shall burn for incense the memorial of it, part of the rubbed out grains thereof, and part of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof; it is an offering made by fire unto Jehovah.

³ And out of the sacrifice of the peace offering he shall bring, as an offering made by fire unto Jehovah, the fat that covereth the inner parts, and all the fat that is with the inner parts, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the loins, and the lobe above the liver, with the kidneys. He shall take it away, and the Sons of Aaron shall burn it for incense on the Altar upon the burnt offering, which is upon the wood that is on the fire; it is an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto Jehovah.

⁶ And if his Gift for a sacrifice of peace offering to Jehovah be of the flock; male or female, he shall bring it without blemish. ⁷ If he bring a lamb for his Gift, then shall he bring it before Jehovah, and he shall lay his hand upon the head of his Gift, and slay it before the Tent of Meeting; and the Sons of Aaron shall sprinkle its blood round about upon the Altar. ⁸ And out of the sacrifice of the peace offering he shall bring, as an offering made by fire unto Jehovah, its fat, and the whole fat tail; he shall take it off hard by the backbone; and the fat that covereth the inner parts, and all the fat that is with the inner parts, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the loins, and the lobe above the liver, with the kidneys. He shall take it away, and the priest shall burn it for incense upon the altar; it is the food of the offering made by fire unto Jehovah.

¹² And if his Gift be a she goat, then he shall bring it before Jehovah, and he shall lay his hand upon its head and slay it before the Tent of Meeting; and the Sons of Aaron shall sprinkle its blood upon the altar round about. ¹⁴ And he shall bring thereof as his Gift, as an offering made by fire unto Jehovah, the fat that covereth the inner parts, and all the fat that is with the inner parts, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the loins, and the

'lobe above the liver with the kidneys. He shall take it away, ¹⁶ and the priest shall burn them for incense upon the Altar; it is the food of the offering made by fire for a sweet savour; all the fat is Jehovah's. ¹⁷ This shall be a perpetual statute for your generations throughout all your dwellings, that ye eat neither fat nor blood.'

4 And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ² 'Speak to the children of Israel, saying, When a soul shall SIN THROUGH IGNORANCE against any of the commandments of Jehovah concerning things which ought not to be done, and shall do against any one of them; ³ if the anointed priest do sin to bring guilt upon the people; then let him bring for his sin, which he hath sinned, a young bullock without blemish unto Jehovah for a SIN OFFERING. ⁴ And he shall bring the bullock to the doorway of the Tent of Meeting before Jehovah; and he shall lay his hand upon the bullock's head, and slay the bullock before Jehovah. ⁵ And the anointed priest shall take some of the bullock's blood, and bring it to the Tent of Meeting. ⁶ And the priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle some of the blood seven times before Jehovah, on the face of the holy Veil. ⁷ And the priest shall put some of the blood upon the horns of the altar of sweet incense before Jehovah, which is within the Tent of Meeting; and then shall pour all the rest of the blood of the bullock at the base of the Altar of the Burnt Offering, which is at the doorway of the Tent of Meeting. ⁸ And he shall take off from it all the fat of the bullock of the sin offering; the fat that covereth the inner parts, and all the fat that is with the inner parts, ⁹ and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the loins, and the lobe above the liver, with the kidneys. He shall take it away, ¹⁰ as it was taken off from the bullock of the sacrifice of peace offerings; and the priest shall burn them for incense upon the Altar of the Burnt Offering. ¹¹ And the skin of the bullock, and all its flesh, with its head, and with its shanks, and its inner parts, and its dung, ¹² even the whole bullock shall he put forth without the camp unto a clean place, where the bone-ashes are poured out, and burn it on wood with fire; where the bone-ashes are poured out shall it be burnt.

¹³ And if the whole congregation of Israel sin through ignorance, and the thing be hidden from the eyes of the assembly, and they have done somewhat against any of the commandments of Jehovah, which should not be done, and are guilty; ¹⁴ when the sin, which they have sinned against it, is known, then the assembly shall bring a young bullock for a sin offering, and bring it before the Tent of Meeting. ¹⁵ And the elders of the congregation shall lay their hands upon the head of the bullock before Jehovah; and the bullock shall be slain before Jehovah. ¹⁶ And the anointed priest shall bring some of the bullock's blood to the Tent of Meeting; ¹⁷ and the priest shall dip

'his finger in some of the blood, and sprinkle it seven times before Jehovah, on the face of the Veil. ¹⁸ And he shall put some of the blood upon the horns of the Altar, which is before Jehovah, that is within the Tent of Meeting, and then shall pour out all the rest of the blood at the base of the Altar of the Burnt Offering, which is at the doorway of the Tent of Meeting. ¹⁹ And he shall take off all its fat from it, and burn it for incense upon the Altar. ²⁰ And he shall do with the bullock as he did with the bullock of the sin offering, so shall he do with this; and the priest shall make atonement for them, and it shall be forgiven them. ²¹ And he shall put forth the bullock without the camp, and burn it as he burned the first bullock; it is the sin offering of the assembly.

²² When a ruler hath sinned, and done somewhat through ignorance against any of the commandments of Jehovah his God in what should not be done, and is guilty; ²³ if perhaps his sin, wherein he hath sinned, come to his knowledge; then he shall bring his Gift, a he goat, a male without blemish. ²⁴ And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the goat, and slay it in the place where they slay the burnt offering before Jehovah; it is a sin offering. ²⁵ And the priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the Altar of Burnt Offering, and then shall pour out the rest of its blood at the base of the Altar of Burnt Offering. ²⁶ And he shall burn as incense all its fat upon the altar, as the fat of the sacrifice of peace offerings; and the priest shall make atonement for him as concerning his sin, and it shall be forgiven him.

²⁷ And if any soul of the people of the land sin through ignorance, in doing somewhat against any of the commandments of Jehovah, which ought not to be done, and he be guilty; ²⁸ if perhaps his sin, which he hath sinned, come to his knowledge; then he shall bring his Gift, a she goat, a female without blemish, for his sin which he hath sinned. ²⁹ And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the sin offering, and slay the sin offering in the place of the burnt offering. ³⁰ And the priest shall take some of its blood with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the Altar of Burnt Offering, and then shall pour out all the rest of its blood at the base of the Altar. ³¹ And he shall take away all its fat, as the fat is taken away from off the sacrifice of the peace offerings; and the priest shall burn it for incense upon the altar for a sweet savour unto Jehovah; and the priest shall make atonement for him, and it shall be forgiven him. ³² And if he bring a lamb as his Gift for a sin offering, he shall bring it a female without blemish. ³³ And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the sin offering, and slay it for a sin offering in the place where they slay the burnt offering. ³⁴ And the priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, and put it upon the horns

'of the Altar of Burnt Offering, and then shall pour out all the rest of its blood at the bottom of the altar. ³⁵ And he shall take away all the fat thereof, as the fat of the lamb is taken away from the sacrifice of the peace offerings; and the priest shall burn them for incense upon the altar, according to the offerings made by fire unto Jehovah; and the priest shall make atonement for him for his sin that he hath committed, and it shall be forgiven him.

'⁵ And if a soul sin, and hear the voice of an oath [or vow], and is a witness of what he hath either seen or known; if he do not declare it, then he shall bear his iniquity. ² Or if a soul touch any unclean thing, whether it be a carcase of an unclean beast, or a carcase of unclean cattle, or the carcase of unclean creeping things, even if it be hidden from him; yet he shall be unclean, and guilty. ³ Or if he touch the uncleanness of man, whatsoever uncleanness it be that a man shall be unclean with, even if it be hidden from him; or when he knoweth of it, then he shall be guilty. ⁴ Or if a soul swear thoughtlessly with his lips to do evil, or to do good, whatsoever it be that a man shall thoughtlessly swear, and it be hidden from him; when he knoweth of it, then he shall be guilty in one of these. ⁵ And it shall be, when he shall be guilty in one of these things, that he shall confess that he hath sinned in that thing; ⁶ and he shall bring his GUILT OFFERING unto Jehovah for his sin which he hath sinned, a female from the flock, a lamb, or a she goat, for a sin offering; and the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin.

'⁷ And if he be not able to bring so much as a lamb [or kid], then he shall bring for his guilt, in which he hath sinned, two turtle doves, or two young pigeons, unto Jehovah; one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering. ⁸ And he shall bring them to the priest, who shall take that which is for the sin offering first, and nip off its head from its neck, but shall not divide it asunder. ⁹ And he shall sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering against the side of the altar; and the rest of the blood shall be wrung out at the base of the altar; it is a sin offering. ¹⁰ And he shall offer the second for a burnt offering, according to the ordinance; and the priest shall make atonement for him for the sin which he hath sinned, and it shall be forgiven him.

'¹¹ But if he be not able to bring two turtle doves, or two young pigeons, then he that sinned shall bring for his Gift the tenth part of an Ephah [or Bushel] of fine flour for a sin offering. He shall put no oil upon it, neither shall he put any frankincense thereon; for it is a sin offering. ¹² Then shall he bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take his handful of it, as a memorial thereof, and burn it for incense on the altar, according to the offerings made by fire unto Jehovah; it is a sin offering. ¹³ And the priest shall make atonement for him as touching his sin

'that he hath sinned in one of these, and it shall be forgiven him. And [the remnant] shall be the priest's as a meal offering.'

'¹⁴ And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ¹⁵ 'If a soul commit a trespass, and SIN THROUGH IGNORANCE IN THE HOLY THINGS OF Jehovah; then he shall bring for his Guilt offering unto Jehovah a ram without blemish out of the flock, at thy valuation in Shekels of silver, after the holy Shekel, for a guilt offering. ¹⁶ And he shall make amends for what he hath sinned in holy things, and shall add the fifth part thereto, and give it to the priest; and the priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the guilt offering, and it shall be forgiven him. ¹⁷ And if a soul sin, and commit any of these things which are forbidden to be done by the commandments of Jehovah; though he know it not, yet is he guilty, and shall bear his iniquity. ¹⁸ And he shall bring a ram without blemish out of the flock, at thy valuation, for a guilt offering, unto the priest; and the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin of ignorance wherein he sinned in ignorance, and knew it not; and it shall be forgiven him. ¹⁹ It is a guilt offering; he hath certainly been guilty against Jehovah.'

'⁶ And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ² 'When a soul shall sin, and commit a trespass against Jehovah, and deceive his neighbour in that which was delivered him to keep, or in a thing placed in his hand; or by robbery; or hath defrauded his neighbour; ³ or hath found that which was lost, and lieth concerning it, and sweareth falsely, in any of all these that a man doeth, sinning therein; ⁴ then it shall be, because he hath sinned, and is guilty, that he shall restore what he took by robbery, or the thing which he hath gotten by fraud, or that which was delivered him to keep, or the lost thing which he found, ⁵ or all that about which he hath sworn falsely; he shall even restore it in the principal, and shall add the fifth part more thereto, and give it to him to whom it belongeth, in the day of his guilt offering. ⁶ And he shall bring his guilt offering unto Jehovah, a ram without blemish out of the flock, at thy valuation, for a guilt offering to the priest. ⁷ And the priest shall make atonement for him before Jehovah; and it shall be forgiven him for any thing of all that he hath done so as to be guilty therein.'

'⁸ And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ⁹ 'Command Aaron and his sons, saying, This is the LAW OF THE BURNT OFFERING. The burnt offering is to be upon the embers upon the Altar all night until the morning, and the fire of the altar shall be burning on it. ¹⁰ And the priest shall put on his linen upper garment, and his linen breeches shall he put upon his flesh, and take up the bones, ashes which the fire hath consumed with the burnt offering on the altar, and he shall put them beside the altar. ¹¹ And he shall put off his garments, and cast forth the

'bone-ashes without the camp to a clean place. ¹²And the fire upon the altar shall be burning on it; it shall not be put out; and the priest shall kindle wood on it every morning, and lay the burnt offering in order upon it; and he shall burn thereon the fat of the peace offerings for incense. ¹³A continual fire shall be burning upon the altar; it shall never go out.

¹⁴And this is the LAW OF THE MEAL OFFERING. The Sons of Aaron shall bring it before Jehovah, to the front of the altar. ¹⁵And he shall take of it his handful, of the flour of the meal offering, and of the oil thereof, and all the frankincense which is upon the meal offering, and shall burn it for incense upon the altar for a sweet savour, for a memorial of it, unto Jehovah. ¹⁶And the remainder thereof shall Aaron and his sons eat; unleavened shall it be eaten, in the Holy Place; in the court of the Tent of Meeting they shall eat it. ¹⁷It shall not be baked with leaven. I have given it unto them for their portion of my offerings made by fire; it is most holy, as is the sin offering, and as the guilt offering. ¹⁸All the males among the children of Aaron shall eat of it. This shall be a statute for ever in your generations concerning the offerings unto Jehovah made by fire; whatsoever toucheth them shall be holy.

¹⁹And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ²⁰'This is the [CONSECRATION] Gift of Aaron and of his sons, which they shall bring to Jehovah in the day when he is anointed; the tenth part of an Ephah [or bushel] of fine flour for a continual meal offering, half of it in the morning, and half of it in the evening. ²¹In a frying-pan it shall be dressed with oil; and when it is fried, thou shalt bring it in, and the cooked pieces of the meal offering shalt thou bring for a sweet savour to Jehovah. ²²And the priest of his sons that is anointed in his stead shall dress it. This is a statute for ever unto Jehovah; it shall be wholly burnt for incense. ²³For every meal offering of the priest shall be wholly consumed; it shall not be eaten.'

²⁴And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ²⁵'Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, This is the LAW OF THE SIN OFFERING. In the place where the burnt offering is slain, shall the sin offering be slain before Jehovah; it is most holy. ²⁶The priest that offereth it for sin shall eat it; in the Holy Place shall it be eaten, in the court of the Tent of Meeting. ²⁷Whatsoever shall touch the flesh thereof shall be holy, and when there is sprinkled any of the blood thereof upon any garment, thou shalt wash that whereon it was sprinkled in the Holy Place. ²⁸But the earthen vessel wherein it is boiled shall be broken; and if it be boiled in a copper vessel, it shall be both scoured and rinsed in water. ²⁹All the males among the priests shall eat thereof; it is most holy. ³⁰And no sin offering, whereof any of the blood is brought into the Tent of Meeting, to 'make atonement in the Holy Place, shall be eaten; it shall be burnt in the fire.

⁷And this is the LAW OF THE GUILT OFFERING; it is most holy. ²In the place where they slay the burnt offering shall they slay the guilt offering; and its blood shall he sprinkle round about upon the altar. ³And he shall bring of it all its fat, the fat tail, and the fat that covereth the inner parts, ⁴and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the loins, and the lobe that is above the liver with the kidneys. He shall take it away, ⁵and the priest shall burn them for incense upon the altar for an offering made by fire unto Jehovah; it is a guilt offering. ⁶Every male among the priests shall eat thereof; it shall be eaten in the Holy Place; it is most holy. ⁷As the sin offering is, so is the guilt offering; there is one law for them; the priest that maketh atonement therewith shall have it. ⁸And the priest that offereth any man's burnt offering, even the priest shall have to himself the skin of the burnt offering which he hath offered. ⁹And all the meal offering that is baked in the oven, and all that is dressed in the kettle, and on the frying-pan, shall be the priest's that offereth it. ¹⁰But every meal offering, whether mingled with oil, or dry, shall all the sons of Aaron have, one as much as another.

¹¹And this is the LAW OF THE SACRIFICE OF PEACE OFFERINGS [or love-feasts], which he shall bring to Jehovah. ¹²If he bring it for a thanksgiving, then he shall bring with the sacrifice of thanksgiving unleavened pricked cakes mingled with oil, or unleavened wafers anointed with oil, or fine flour to be fried as pricked cakes mingled with oil. ¹³Beside the pricked cakes, he shall bring for his Gift leavened bread with the sacrifice of thanksgiving of his peace offerings. ¹⁴And of it he shall bring one out of the whole Gift for a heave offering to Jehovah, to the priest that sprinkleth the blood of the peace offerings; it shall be his. ¹⁵And the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving shall be eaten on the day of his Gift; he shall not leave any of it until the morning. ¹⁶But if the sacrifice of his Gift be a vow, or a freewill offering, it shall be eaten on the same day that he bringeth his sacrifice, and on the morrow also the remainder of it shall be eaten; ¹⁷but the remainder of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day shall be burnt with fire. ¹⁸And if any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings be eaten at all on the third day, it shall not be accepted, neither shall it be reckoned unto him that bringeth it; it is putrid, and the soul that eateth of it shall bear the iniquity of it. ¹⁹And the flesh that toucheth any unclean thing shall not be eaten; it shall be burnt with fire. And as for the flesh, all that be clean may eat the flesh; ²⁰but the soul that eateth of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings, that are for Jehovah, having his uncleanness upon him, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

²² And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ²³ Speak to the children of Israel, saying, Ye shall EAT NO FAT, of ox, or of sheep, or of goat. ²⁴ And the fat of the beast that dieth of itself, and the fat of that which is torn with beasts, may be used in any work; but ye shall in no wise eat of it. ²⁵ For whosoever eateth the fat of the cattle of which men bring an offering made by fire unto Jehovah, even the soul that eateth it shall be cut off from his people. ²⁶ Moreover ye shall EAT NO BLOOD, either of fowl or of beast, in any of your dwellings. ²⁷ Whatsoever soul it be that eateth any blood, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.'

8 And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ² Take Aaron and his sons with him, and the garments, and the anointing oil, and the bullock for the sin offering, and the two rams, and a basket of unleavened bread; ³ and assemble thou all the congregation together unto the doorway of the Tent of Meeting. ⁴ And Moses did as Jehovah commanded him; and the congregation was assembled together unto the doorway of the Tent of Meeting. ⁵ And Moses said to the congregation, 'This is the thing which Jehovah hath commanded to be done.' ⁶ And Moses brought Aaron and his sons, and washed them with water. ⁷ And he put on him the under-coat, and girded him with the girdle, and clothed him with the Robe, and put the Ephod on him, and he girded him with the Embroidered Girdle of the Ephod, and bound the Ephod unto him therewith. ⁸ And he put the Breastplate on him; also he put on the Breastplate the Urim and the Thummim. ⁹ And he put the Mitre upon his head; also on the Mitre, even on its front, did he put the Bright Plate of Gold, the holy crown; as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

¹⁰ And Moses took the anointing oil, and anointed the Tabernacle and all that was therein, and made them holy. ¹¹ And he sprinkled some of it on the Altar seven times, and anointed the Altar and all its vessels, and the Laver and its stand, to make them holy. ¹² And he poured some of the anointing oil upon Aaron's head, and anointed him to make him holy. ¹³ And Moses brought the Sons of Aaron, and put under-coats on them, and girded them with girdles, and bound high caps upon them; as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

¹⁸ And he brought the ram for the BURNT OFFERING. And Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram; ¹⁹ and he killed it. And Moses sprinkled the blood upon the Altar round about. ²⁰ And he cut the ram into its pieces; and Moses burnt for incense the head, and the pieces, and the fat. ²¹ And he washed the inner parts and the shanks in water; and Moses burnt the whole ram for incense upon the Altar. It was a burnt offering for a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto Jehovah; as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

²² And he brought the other ram, the ram of the CONSECRATION OFFERING. And Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram; ²³ and he slew it. And Moses took some of its blood, and put it upon the tip of Aaron's right ear, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the great toe of his right foot. ²⁴ And he brought Aaron's sons, and Moses put some of the blood on the tip of their right ear, and on the thumbs of their right hands, and on the great toes of their right feet; and Moses sprinkled the blood upon the Altar round about. ²⁵ And he took the fat, and the fat tail, and all the fat that was upon the inner parts, and the lobe of the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and the right leg. ²⁶ And out of the basket of unleavened bread, that was before Jehovah, he took one unleavened pricked cake, and one pricked cake of oiled bread, and one wafer, and put them on the fat, and upon the right leg. ²⁷ And he put all upon Aaron's hands, and on his sons' hands, and waved them for a wave offering before Jehovah. ²⁸ And Moses took them from off their hands, and burnt them for incense on the Altar upon the burnt offering; they were consecration offerings for a sweet savour; it is an offering made by fire unto Jehovah. ²⁹ And Moses took the breast, and waved it for a wave offering before Jehovah; of the ram of the consecration offering it was Moses' portion, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

9 And it came to pass on the eighth day, that Moses called Aaron and his sons, and the elders of Israel; ² and he said to Aaron, 'Take to thyself a young calf for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering, both without blemish, and bring them before Jehovah. ³ And to the children of Israel thou shalt speak, saying, Take ye a he goat for a sin offering; and a calf and a lamb, both of the first year, without blemish, for a burnt offering; ⁴ also a bullock and a ram for peace offerings, to sacrifice before Jehovah; and a meal offering mingled with oil; for to-day Jehovah will appear unto you.' ⁵ And they brought what Moses commanded before the Tent of Meeting; and all the congregation drew near and stood before Jehovah. ⁶ And Moses said, 'This is the thing which Jehovah

'hath commanded that ye should do; and the 'Glory of Jehovah shall appear to you.' ⁷ And Moses said to Aaron, 'Go nigh to the Altar, and offer thy sin offering, and thy burnt offering, and make atonement for thyself, and for the people; and offer the people's Gift, and make atonement for them; as Jehovah hath commanded.' ⁸ Aaron therefore went nigh to the Altar, and slew the calf of the sin offering, which was for himself. ⁹ And the sons of Aaron brought the blood to him; and he dipped his finger in the blood, and put it on the horns of the Altar, and poured out the blood at the base of the Altar; ¹⁰ but the fat, and the kidneys, and the lobe of the liver, of the sin offering, he burnt for incense upon the Altar; as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

¹¹ And the flesh and the hide he burnt with fire without the camp. ¹² And he slew the burnt offering; and Aaron's sons presented to him the blood, which he sprinkled round about upon the Altar. ¹³ And they presented the burnt offering to him, in its pieces, and the head; and he burnt them for incense upon the Altar. ¹⁴ And he washed the inner parts and the shanks, and burnt them for incense upon the burnt offering on the Altar. ¹⁵ And he brought the people's Gift, and took the goat, which was the sin offering for the people, and slew it, and offered it for sin, as the first. ¹⁶ And he brought the burnt offering, and offered it according to the ordinance. ¹⁷ And he brought the meal offering, and filled his hands therewith, and burnt it for incense upon the Altar, beside the burnt offering of the morning. ¹⁸ He slew also the bullock and the ram for a sacrifice of peace offerings, which was for the people; and Aaron's sons presented to him the blood, which he sprinkled upon the Altar round about, ¹⁹ and the fat of the bullock and of the ram, the fat tail, and that which covereth [the inner parts], and the kidneys, and the lobe of the liver; ²⁰ and they put the fat upon the breasts, and he burnt the fat for incense upon the Altar. ²¹ And the breasts and the right leg Aaron waved for a wave offering before Jehovah; as Moses had commanded. ²² And Aaron lifted up his hand toward the people, and blessed them, and came down from offering the sin offering, and the burnt offering, and peace offerings.

²³ And Moses and Aaron went into the Tent of Meeting, and came out, and blessed the people; and the glory of Jehovah appeared to all the people. ²⁴ And there came a fire out from before Jehovah, and it consumed upon the Altar the burnt offering and the fat. And all the people saw it, and they shouted, and fell on their faces.

10 And Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, took each of them his censor, and put fire therein, and put incense thereon, and brought strange fire before Jehovah, which he had not commanded them. ² And there went out fire from before Jehovah, and devoured them, and they died before Jehovah. ³ Then Moses said to Aaron, 'This is what Jehovah spake, saying, I will be sanctified in 'them that come nigh unto me, and before all the people I will be glorified.' And Aaron held his peace. ⁴ And Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel the uncle of Aaron, and said to them, 'Come near, carry your brethren from before the Holy Place out of the camp.' ⁵ So they went near, and carried them in their under-coats out of the camp; as Moses had said. ⁶ And Moses said to Aaron, and to Eleazar, and to Ithamar, his sons, 'Disarray not your heads, neither rend open your clothes; lest ye die, and lest He be angry with all the congregation; but let your brethren, the whole house of Israel, bewail the burning which Jehovah hath kindled. ⁷ And ye shall not go away from the doorway of the Tent of Meeting, lest ye die; for the anointing oil of Jehovah is upon you.' And they did according to the word of Moses.

¹² And Moses spake to Aaron, and to Eleazar, and to Ithamar, his sons that were left, 'Take the meal offering that remaineth of the offerings to Jehovah made by fire, and eat it without leaven beside the Altar; for it is most holy. ¹³ And ye shall eat it in the Holy Place, because it is thy due, and thy sons' due, out of the offerings to Jehovah made by fire; for so I am commanded. ¹⁴ And the wave breast and heave leg shall ye eat in a clean place; thou, and thy sons, and thy daughters with thee; for they are thy due, and thy sons' due, which are given out of the sacrifices of peace offerings of the children of Israel. ¹⁵ The heave leg and the wave breast shall they bring with the offerings made by fire of the fat, to wave it for a wave offering before Jehovah; and it shall be thine, and thy sons' with thee, by a statute for ever; as Jehovah hath commanded.' ¹⁶ And Moses diligently sought the goat of the sin offering; and behold, it was burnt; and he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, the sons of Aaron who were left, saying, ¹⁷ 'Wherefore have ye not eaten the sin offering in the Holy Place, seeing it is most holy, and it hath been given to you to bear the iniquity of the congregation, to make atonement for them before Jehovah? ¹⁸ Behold, the blood of it was not brought inside into the Holy Place. Ye should indeed have eaten it in the Holy Place, as I commanded.' ¹⁹ And Aaron said to Moses, 'Behold, this day have they brought their sin offering and their burnt offering before Jehovah; and such and such things have befallen me. And if I had eaten the sin offering to-day, would it have been good in the sight of Jehovah?'

¹³ And these ye shall have in abomination among the fowls; they shall not be eaten, they are an abomination; the eagle, and the ossifrage, and the ospray, ¹⁴ and the vulture, and the kite after its kind; ¹⁵ every raven after its kind; ¹⁶ and the ostrich, and the night hawk, and the falcon, and the hawk after its kind, ¹⁷ and the little owl, and the cormorant, and the ibis, ¹⁸ and the swan, and the pelican, and the gier eagle, ¹⁹ and the stork, the heron after its kind, and the hoopoe, and the bat.

²⁰ All creeping things with wings, going upon all four, shall be an abomination to you. ²¹ Yet these may ye eat of every creeping thing with wings that goeth upon all four, these which have legs above their feet, to leap with upon the earth; ²² even these of them ye may eat; the locust after its kind, and the bald locust after its kind, and the Hargol locust after its kind, and the grasshopper after its kind. ²³ But all other creeping things with wings, which have four feet, shall be an abomination to you. ²⁴ And because of these ye shall be unclean; whosoever toucheth their carcase shall be unclean until the evening. ²⁵ And whosoever beareth nought of the carcase of them shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the evening. ²⁶ Even every beast which divideth the foot, and is not cloven with a cleft, nor cheweth the cud, those are unclean to you; every 'one that toucheth them shall be unclean. ²⁷ And whatsoever goeth on the flat of its feet, among all animals that go on all four, those are unclean to you; whose toucheth their carcase shall be unclean until the evening. ²⁸ And he that beareth their carcase shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the evening; they are unclean to you.

²⁹ These also shall be unclean to you among the creeping things that creep upon the earth; the mole, and the mouse, and the lizard after its kind, ³⁰ and the Anakah-lizard, and the Keech-lizard, and the Letaô-lizard, and the Chemet-lizard, and the chameleon. ³¹ These are unclean to you among all that creep; whosoever doth touch them, when they be dead, shall be unclean until the evening. ³² And upon whatsoever thing any of them, when they are dead, doth fall, it shall be unclean; whether it be any vessel of wood, or raiment, or skin, or sack, whatsoever vessel it be, wherein any work is done, it must be put into water, and it shall be unclean until the evening; then it shall be clean. ³³ And every earthen vessel, wherinto any of them falleth, whatsoever is in it shall be unclean; and ye shall break it. ³⁴ Of all food which may be eaten, that on which such water cometh shall be unclean; and all drink that may be drunk in every such vessel shall be unclean. ³⁵ And every thing whereupon any part of their carcase falleth shall be unclean; whether it be oven, or ranges for pots, they shall be broken down; for they are unclean, and shall be unclean to you. ³⁶ Nevertheless a well or pit wherein there is plenty of water, shall be clean; but that which toucheth their carcase shall be unclean. ³⁷ And if any part of their carcase fall upon any sowing seed which is to be sown, it shall be clean. ³⁸ But if any water be put upon the seed, and any part of their carcase fall thereon, it shall be unclean to you. ³⁹ And if any beast, of which ye may eat, die; he that toucheth its carcase shall be unclean until the evening. ⁴⁰ And he that eateth of its carcase shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening; he also that carrieth its carcase shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the evening.

⁴¹ And every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth is an abomination; it shall not be eaten. ⁴² Whatsoever goeth upon the belly, and whatsoever goeth upon all four, or whatsoever hath numerous feet among all creeping things that creep upon the earth, them ye shall not eat; for they are an abomination. ⁴³ Ye shall not make yourselves abominable with any creeping thing that creepeth, neither shall ye make yourselves unclean with them, that ye should be defiled thereby. ⁴⁴ For I am Jehovah your God. Ye shall therefore sanctify yourselves, and ye shall be holy; for I am holy. Neither shall ye defile yourselves with any manner of creeping thing that moveth upon the earth. ⁴⁵ For I am Jehovah that bringeth you up out of the land of Lower Egypt, to be your God. Ye shall therefore

'fore be holy, for I am holy.' ⁴⁶ This is the law of the beasts, and of the fowl, and of every living creature that moveth in the waters, and of every creature that creepeth upon the earth; ⁴⁷ to make a difference between the unclean and the clean, and between the animal that may be eaten and the animal that may not be eaten.

12 And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ² Speak to the children of Israel, saying, If a woman have conceived seed, and borne a male child; then she shall be unclean seven days; as in the days of the separation for her infirmity shall she be unclean. ³ And in the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised. ⁴ And she shall then continue in the blood of her purifying three and thirty days; she shall touch nothing holy, nor come into the Sanctuary, until the days of her purifying be fulfilled. ⁵ But if she bear a female child, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her separation; and she shall continue in the blood of her purifying sixty and six days. ⁶ And when the days of her purifying are fulfilled, for a son, or for a daughter, she shall bring a lamb of the first year for a burnt offering, and a young pigeon, or a turtledove, for a sin offering, to the doorway of the Tent of Meeting, to the priest; and he shall bring it before Jehovah, and make atonement for her; and she shall be cleansed from the issue of her blood. This is the law for her that hath borne a child, whether a male or a female. ⁸ And if she be not able to bring so much as a lamb [or kid], then she shall bring two turtledoves, or two young pigeons; the one for a burnt offering, and the other for a sin offering; and the priest shall make atonement for her, and she shall be clean.

13 And Jehovah spake to Moses and Aaron, saying, ² When a man shall have in the skin of his flesh a RISING, whether a SCURF, or a SPOT, and it be in the skin of his flesh like the plague of leprosy; then he shall be brought to Aaron the priest, or to one of his sons the priests; ³ and the priest shall look on the plague in the skin of the flesh; and when the hair in the plague is turned white, and the plague appear to be deeper than the skin of his flesh; it is a plague of leprosy; and the priest shall look on him, and pronounce him unclean. ⁴ If the Spot be white in the skin of his flesh, and appear to be not deeper than the skin, and the hair thereof be not turned white; then the priest shall shut up him that hath the plague for seven days. ⁵ And the priest shall look on him on the seventh day; and behold, if the plague in his sight be at a stay, and the plague spread not in the skin; then the priest shall shut him up for seven days more. ⁶ And the priest shall look on him again on the seventh day; and behold, if the plague be somewhat faint, and the plague spread not in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean. It is but a scurfiness; and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean. ⁷ If the scurfiness spread much abroad in the 'skin, after that he hath been seen by the priest for his cleansing, he shall be seen by the priest again. ⁸ And if the priest see that, behold, the scurfiness spreadeth in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a leprosy.

¹⁸ The flesh also, in which, even in its skin, was a BOIL, and is healed, ¹⁹ and there be in the place of the boil a white rising, or a spot reddish-white, and it be showed to the priest; ²⁰ and if, when the priest looketh, behold, it appeareth deeper than the skin, and the hair thereof be turned white; the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a plague of leprosy broken out on the boil. ²¹ But if the priest look on it, and behold, there be no white hairs therein, and if it be not deeper than the skin, but be somewhat faint; then the priest shall shut him up for seven days. ²² And if it spread much abroad in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a plague. ²³ But if the spot stay in its place, and spread not, it is the scar of a boil; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

²⁴ Or if there be any flesh, in the skin whereof there is a HOT BURNING, and the quick flesh that burneth have a Spot, reddish-white, or white; ²⁵ then the priest shall look upon it; and behold, if the hair in the Spot be turned white, and it appear to be deeper than the skin, it is a leprosy broken out on the burning; and the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is the plague of leprosy. ²⁶ But if the priest look on it, and behold, there be no white hair in the Spot, and it be no deeper than the skin, but be somewhat faint; then the priest shall shut him up for seven days. ²⁷ And the priest shall look upon him on the seventh day; and if it be spread much abroad in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is the plague of leprosy. ²⁸ And 'if the Spot stay in its place, and spread not in the skin, but it be somewhat faint; it is the rising of a burning, and the priest shall pronounce him clean; for it is the scar of a burning.

²⁹ If a man or woman have a PLAGUE UPON THE HEAD or on the beard; ³⁰ then the priest shall see the plague; and behold, if it appear to be deeper than the skin; and there be in it a yellow thin hair; then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a scall, it is a leprosy upon the head or beard. ³¹ And if the priest look on the plague of the scall, and behold, it appear to be not deeper than the skin, but there is no dark hair in it; then the priest shall shut him up that hath the plague of the scall for seven days. ³² And on the seventh day the priest shall look on the plague; and behold, if the scall spread not, and there be in it no yellow hair, and the scall appear to be not deeper than the skin; ³³ he shall be shaven, but the scall shall he not shave; and the priest shall shut up him that hath the scall for seven days more. ³⁴ And on the seventh day the priest shall look on the scall; and behold, if the scall be not spread in the skin, nor appear to be deeper than the skin; then the priest shall pronounce him clean; and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean. ³⁵ But if the scall spread much in the skin after his cleansing, ³⁶ then the priest shall look on him; and behold, if the scall be spread in the skin, the priest shall not seek for yellow hair; he is unclean. ³⁷ But if the scall appear to be at a stay, and there is dark hair grown up therein; the scall is healed, he is clean; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

³⁸ If a man also or a woman have Spots in the skin of their flesh, even white spots; ³⁹ then the priest shall look; and behold, if the spots in the skin of their flesh be faint white; it is a freckle, a spot that breaketh out in the skin; he is clean. ⁴⁰ And the man whose head is without hair, he is bald; yet is he clean. ⁴¹ And if he hath his head without hair on the part towards his face, he is forehead bald; yet is he clean. ⁴² And if there be in the bald head, or bald forehead, a reddish white sore, it is a leprosy breaking out on his bald head, or on his bald forehead. ⁴³ Then the priest shall look upon it; and behold, if the rising of the sore be reddish white on his bald head, or on his bald forehead, as the leprosy appeareth in the skin of the flesh; ⁴⁴ he is a leprous man, he is unclean; the priest shall pronounce him utterly unclean; his plague is in his head. ⁴⁵ And the leper in whom the plague is, his clothes shall be rent open and his head disarrayed, and he shall cover his beard, and shall cry, Unclean, unclean. ⁴⁶ All the days wherein the plague shall be in him he shall be pronounced unclean. He is unclean; he shall dwell alone; without the camp shall his dwelling be.

⁴⁷ The GARMENT also that the plague of leprosy is in, whether it be in a garment of wool, or in a garment of flax; ⁴⁸ whether it be in the warp, or 'in the woof; of flax, or of wool; whether in a 'skin, or in anything made of skin; ⁴⁰and if the 'plague be greenish or reddish in the garment, or 'in the skin, either in the warp or in the woof, or

'in anything of skin; it is a plague of leprosy, and 'shall be shewed to the priest. ⁵⁰And the priest
'shall look upon the plague, and shut up it that 'hath the plague for seven days. ⁵¹And he shall 'look on the plague on the seventh day; if the 'plague be spread in the garment either in the 'warp, or in the woof, or in a skin, of any work
'that is made of skin; the plague is a fretting
'leprosy; it is unclean. ⁵²He shall therefore burn
'that garment, whether warp or woof, in wool or
'in flax, or anything of skin, wherein the plague
'is; for it is a fretting leprosy; it shall be burnt
'in the fire. ⁵³And if the priest shall look, and
'behold, the plague be not spread in the garment,
'either in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything
'of skin; ⁵⁴then the priest shall command that 'they wash the thing wherein the plague is, and
'he shall shut it up seven days more. ⁵⁵And the 'priest shall look on the plague, after that it is 'washed; and behold, if the plague have not 'changed its colour, and the plague be not spread;
'it is unclean; thou shalt burn it in the fire; it is 'an inward fret, whether on the back or on the 'front. ⁵⁶And if the priest look, and behold, the 'plague be somewhat faint after the washing of it;
'then he shall rend it out of the garment, or out
'of the skin, or out of the warp, or out of the
'woof. ⁵⁷And if it appear still in the garment,
'either in the warp, or in the woof, or anything of 'skin; it is a breaking out; thou shalt burn that 'wherein the plague is with fire. ⁵⁸And the gar'ment, either warp, or woof, or anything of skin,
'which thou shalt wash, if the plague be departed
'from them, then it shall be washed the second 'time, and shall be clean.' ⁵⁹This is the law of the plague of leprosy in a garment of wool or of flax, either in the warp, or woof, or anything of skin, to pronounce it clean, or to pronounce it unclean.

14. And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ²'This
'shall be the law of the LEPER ON THE DAY OF HIS
'CLEANSING. He shall be brought to the priest;
'³and the priest shall go forth out of the camp;
'and the priest shall look, and behold, if the plague
'of leprosy be healed in the leper, ⁴then shall the 'priest command to take for him that is to be 'cleansed, two birds alive and clean, and cedar 'wood, and bright scarlet and hyssop. ⁵And the 'priest shall command that one of the birds be 'killed in an earthen vessel over running water.
'⁶As for the living bird, he shall take it, and the 'cedar wood, and the bright scarlet, and the 'hyssop, and shall dip them and the living bird in 'the blood of the bird that was killed over the 'running water. ⁷And he shall sprinkle upon him
'that is to be cleansed from the leprosy seven 'times, and shall pronounce him clean, and shall
'let the living bird loose into the open field.
'⁸And he that is to be cleansed shall wash his 'clothes, and shave off all his hair, and bathe him'self in water, that he may be clean; and after 'that he shall come into the camp, and shall tarry

'abroad out of his tent for seven days. ⁹But it 'shall be on the seventh day, that he shall shave
'off all his hair; his head, and his beard, and his 'eyebrows, even all his hair he shall shave off; and
'he shall wash his clothes, also he shall bathe
'his flesh in water, and he shall be clean. ¹⁰And
'on the eighth day he shall take two he lambs
'without blemish, and one ewe lamb of the first 'year without blemish, and three tenth parts [of 'an Ephah, or fifteen pints] of fine flour for a meal
'offering, mingled with oil, and one Log [or pint]
'of oil. ¹¹And the priest that maketh him clean
'shall present the man that is to be made clean,
'and those things, before Jehovah, at the doorway
'of the Tent of Meeting. ¹²And the priest shall 'take the one he lamb, and bring it for a Guilt
'offering, and the Log of oil, and wave them for a 'wave offering before Jehovah. ¹³And he shall
'slay the he lamb in a place where he shall slay
'the Sin offering and the Burnt offering, in the 'Holy Place; for as the sin offering is the priest's,
'so is the guilt offering; it is most holy. ¹⁴And
'the priest shall take some of the blood of the 'guilt offering, and the priest shall put it upon the 'tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed,
'and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon
'the great toe of his right foot. ¹⁵And the priest
'shall take some of the Log of oil, and pour it into 'the palm of the priest's left hand. ¹⁶And the 'priest shall dip his right finger in the oil that is in 'his left hand, and shall sprinkle some of the oil
'with his finger seven times before Jehovah; ¹⁷and
'of the rest of the oil that is in his hand shall the 'priest put some upon the tip of the right ear of 'him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb
'of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his 'right foot, upon the blood of the guilt offering;
'¹⁸and the rest of the oil that is in the priest's 'hand he shall pour upon the head of him that is 'to be cleansed; and the priest shall make atone'ment for him before Jehovah. ¹⁹Then the priest
'shall offer the Sin offering, and make atonement
'for him that is to be cleansed from his unclean-
'ness; and afterward he shall slay the Burnt
'offering. ²⁰And the priest shall offer up the
'burnt offering and the meal offering on the Altar;
'and the priest shall make atonement for him, and
'he shall be clean.

²¹And if he be poor, and cannot get so much;
'then he shall take one lamb for a Guilt offering 'to be waved, to make atonement for himself, and
'one tenth part [of an Ephah] of fine flour mingled
'with oil for a meal offering, and a Log of oil;
'²²and two turtle doves or two young pigeons, such
'as he is able to get; and the one shall be a Sin
'offering, and the other a Burnt offering. ²³And
'he shall bring them on the eighth day of his
'cleansing to the priest, to the doorway of the 'Tent of Meeting, before Jehovah. ²⁴And the 'priest shall take the lamb of the Guilt offering,

‘and the Log of oil, and the priest shall wave them for a wave offering before Jehovah. ²⁵ And he shall slay the lamb of the guilt offering, and the priest shall take some of the blood of the guilt offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot. ²⁶ And the priest shall pour some of the oil into the palm of the priest’s left hand. ²⁷ And the priest shall sprinkle with his right finger some of the oil that is in his left hand seven times before Jehovah. ²⁸ And the priest shall put some of the oil that is in his hand upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, upon the place of the blood of the Guilt offering. ²⁹ And the rest of the oil that is in the priest’s hand he shall put upon the head of him that is to be cleansed, to make atonement for him before Jehovah. ³⁰ And he shall offer the one of the turtledoves, or of the young pigeons, such as he can get; ³¹ even such as he is able to get, the one for a Sin offering, and the other for a Burnt offering, with the meal offering; and the priest shall make atonement for him that is to be cleansed before Jehovah.’ ³² This is the law of him in whom is the plague of leprosy, whose hand is not able to get that which pertaineth to his cleansing.

³³ And Jehovah spake to Moses and to Aaron, saying, ³⁴ ‘When ye be come into the land of Canaan, which I give to you for a possession, and I put the plague of LEPROSY IN A HOUSE of the land of your possession; ³⁵ then he that owneth the house shall come and tell the priest, saying, ‘It seemeth to me there is as it were a plague in the house. ³⁶ Then the priest shall command that they prepare the house, before the priest go in to see the plague, that all that is in the house be not made unclean; and afterward the priest shall go in to see the house. ³⁷ And he shall look on the plague, and behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with streaks, greenish or reddish, which appear to be deeper than the wall, ³⁸ then the priest shall go out of the house to the doorway of the house, and shut up the house for seven days. ³⁹ And the priest shall come again on the seventh day, and shall look; and behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house, ⁴⁰ then the priest shall command that they take out the stones in which the plague is, and they shall cast them into an unclean place without the city. ⁴¹ And he shall scrape the house within round about, and they shall pour out the dust [or mortar] that they scrape off without the city into an unclean place. ⁴² And they shall take other stones, and put them in the place of those stones; and he shall take other mortar, and shall plaster the house. ⁴³ And if the plague come again, and break out in the house, after that he hath taken out the stones, and after he hath scraped the house, and after it is plastered; ⁴⁴ then the priest shall come and look, and behold, if the plague be

⁴⁸ But if the priest shall come in, and look, and behold, the plague hath not spread in the house, after the house was plastered; then the priest shall pronounce the house clean, because the plague is healed. ⁴⁹ And he shall take to cleanse the house from its sin two birds, and cedar wood, and bright scarlet, and hyssop. ⁵⁰ And he shall kill the one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water. ⁵¹ And he shall take the cedar wood, and the hyssop, and the bright scarlet, and the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the slain bird, and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times. ⁵² And he shall cleanse the house from its sin with the blood of the bird, and with the running water, and with the living bird, and with the cedar wood, and with the hyssop, and with the bright scarlet; ⁵³ and he shall let go the living bird out of the city into the open fields, and make atonement for the house; and it shall be clean.’

⁵⁴ This is the law for all manner of plague of leprosy, and for scall, ⁵⁵ and for the leprosy of a garment, and of a house, ⁵⁶ and for a rising, and for a scurf, and for a spot; ⁵⁷ to teach, in the day when it is unclean, and in the day when it is clean; this is the law of leprosy.

15 And Jehovah spake to Moses and to Aaron, saying, ² ‘Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, When any man hath a RUNNING ISSUE out of his flesh, because of his issue he is unclean. ³ And this shall be his uncleanness in his issue; whether his flesh run with his issue, or his flesh be stopped from his issue, it is his uncleanness. ⁴ Every bed, whereon he lieth that hath the issue, is unclean; and everything whereon he sitteth, shall be unclean. ⁵ And whosoever toucheth his bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening. ⁶ And he that sitteth on any thing whereon he sat that hath the issue shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening. ⁷ And he that toucheth the flesh of him that hath the issue shall wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening. ⁸ And if he that hath the issue spit upon him that is clean; then he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening. ⁹ And every riding-cloth that he that hath the issue rideth upon shall be unclean. ¹⁰ And whosoever toucheth any thing that was under him shall be unclean until the evening; and he that beareth any of those things shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening. ¹¹And whomsoever he toucheth that hath the issue, when he hath not rinsed his hands in water, he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening. ¹²And the vessel of earth, which he toucheth that hath the issue, shall be broken; and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water. ¹³And when he that hath an issue is cleansed of his issue; then he shall number to himself seven days for his cleansing, and wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in running water, and shall be clean. ¹⁴And on the eighth day he shall take to him two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, and come before Jehovah to the doorway of the Tent of Meeting, and give them to the priest. ¹⁵And the priest shall offer them, the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering; and the priest shall make atonement for him before Jehovah for his issue. ¹⁶And if any man's seed of copulation go out from him, then he shall bathe all his flesh in water, and be unclean until the evening. ¹⁷And every garment, and every skin, whereon is the seed of copulation, shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the evening. ¹⁸The woman also with whom the man shall lie with seed of copulation, they shall both bathe themselves in water, and be unclean until the evening.

¹⁹And if a WOMAN HAVE AN ISSUE, and her issue in her flesh be blood, she shall be in her separation seven days; and whosoever toucheth her shall be unclean until the evening. ²⁰And every thing that she lieth upon in her separation shall be unclean; every thing also that she sitteth upon shall be unclean. ²¹And whosoever toucheth her bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening. ²²And whosoever toucheth anything that she sat upon shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening. ²³And if it be on her bed, or anything whereon she sitteth, when he toucheth it, he shall be unclean until the evening. ²⁴And if a man really lie with her, then her uncleanness of separation shall be upon him, and he shall be unclean seven days; and all the bed whereon he lieth shall be unclean. ²⁵And if a woman have an issue of her blood many days not in the time of her separation, or if it flow beyond the time of her separation; all the days of the issue of her uncleanness shall be as the days of her separation; she shall be unclean. ²⁶Every bed whereon she lieth all the days of her issue shall be to her as the bed of her separation; and whatsoever she sitteth upon shall be unclean, as the uncleanness of her separation. ²⁷And whosoever toucheth those things shall be unclean, and shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening. ²⁸But if she be cleansed of her issue, then she shall number to herself seven days, and after that she shall be clean. ²⁹And on the eighth day she shall take to herself two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, and bring them to the priest, to the doorway of the Tent of Meeting. ³⁰And the priest shall make of the one a sin offering and of the other a burnt offering; and the priest shall make atonement for her before Jehovah for the issue of her uncleanness. ³¹Thus shall ye separate the children of Israel from their uncleanness; that they die not in their uncleanness, when they defile my Tabernacle that is among them. ³²This is the law of him that hath an issue, and of him whose seed of copulation goeth from him, and is defiled therewith; ³³and of her that is sick in her separation, and of one that hath an issue, whether man or woman, and of the man that lieth with her that is unclean.

16 And Jehovah spake to Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they drew near before Jehovah, and died; ²and Jehovah said to Moses, 'Speak to Aaron thy brother, that he come not at all times into the Holy Place within the Veil to the face of the Cover which is upon the Ark, that he die not; for I will appear in the cloud above the Cover. ³THUS SHALL AARON COME INTO THE HOLY PLACE; with a young bullock for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering. ⁴He shall put on the holy linen under-coat, and he shall have the linen breeches upon his flesh, and he shall be girded with a linen girdle, and with the linen mitre shall he be attired. These are holy garments; and he shall bathe his flesh in water, and so put them on. ⁵And he shall take from the congregation of the children of Israel two he goats for a sin offering, and one ram for a burnt offering. ⁶And Aaron shall bring the bullock of the sin offering, which is for himself, and make atonement for himself, and for his house. ⁷And he shall take the two goats, and present them before Jehovah at the doorway of the Tent of Meeting. ⁸And Aaron shall cast lots upon the two goats; one lot for Jehovah, and the other lot for the SCAPEGOAT. ⁹And Aaron shall bring the goat upon which Jehovah's lot fell, and offer it for a sin offering. ¹⁰But the goat, on which the lot fell to be the scapegoat, shall be presented alive before Jehovah, to make atonement with it, and to let it go for a scape-goat into the desert.

¹¹And Aaron shall bring the bullock of the sin offering, which is for himself, and shall make atonement for himself, and for his house, and shall slay the bullock of the sin offering which is for himself. ¹²And he shall take a censer full of burning coals of fire from off the Altar before Jehovah, and both his hands full of sweet incense beaten small, and shall bring it within the Veil. ¹³And he shall put the incense upon the fire before Jehovah, that the cloud of the incense may hide the Cover that is over the Testimonials, that he die not. ¹⁴And he shall take some of the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it with his finger upon the face of the Cover eastward; and

¹⁵ Then shall he slay the goat of the sin offering that is for the people, and bring its blood within the Veil, and do with that blood as he did with the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it upon the Cover, and before the Cover. ¹⁶ And he shall make atonement for the Holy Place, because of the uncleanness of the children of Israel, and because of their transgressions in all their sins; and so shall he do for the Tent of Meeting, which dwelleth among them in the midst of their uncleanness. ¹⁷ And there shall be no man in the Tent of Meeting when he goeth in to make atonement in the Holy Place, until he come out, and have made atonement for himself, and for his house, and for all the assembly of Israel. ¹⁸ And he shall go out unto the Altar that is before Jehovah, and make atonement for it; and shall take some of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the goat, and put it upon the horns of the Altar round about. ¹⁹ And he shall sprinkle some of the blood upon it with his finger seven times, and cleanse it, and make it holy from the uncleanness of the children of Israel.

²⁰ And when he hath made an end of making atonement for the Holy Place, and for the Tent of Meeting, and for the Altar, he shall bring the live goat; ²¹ and Aaron shall lay both his hands upon the head of the live goat, and confess over it all the iniquities of the children of Israel, and all their transgressions in all their sins, putting them upon the head of the goat, and shall send it away by the hand of a fit man into the desert. ²² And the goat shall bear upon itself all their iniquities to a land not inhabited; and he shall let go the goat in the desert. ²³ And Aaron shall come into the Tent of Meeting, and shall put off the linen garments, which he put on when he went into the Holy Place, and shall leave them there; ²⁴ and he shall bathe his flesh with water in a holy place, and put on his garments, and come forth, and offer his burnt offering, and the burnt offering of the people, and make atonement for himself, and for the people. ²⁵ And the fat of the sin offering shall he burn for incense upon the Altar.

²⁶ And he that let go the goat for the scape-goat, shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward come into the camp. ²⁷ And the bullock for the sin offering, and the goat for the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the Holy Place, shall one carry forth without the camp; and they shall burn in the fire their skins, and their flesh, and their dung. ²⁸ And he that burneth them shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp.

²⁹ And it shall be a statute for ever unto you, that in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, ye shall AFFLICT YOUR SOULS [or fast], and do no work at all, whether it be one of your own country, or a stranger that sojourneth among you; ³⁰ for on that day atonement shall be made for you, to cleanse you, that ye may be clean from all your sins before Jehovah. ³¹ It shall be a sabbath of rest unto you, and ye shall afflict your souls, by a statute for ever. ³² And the priest, whom he shall anoint, and whose hands he shall fill [with offerings] to minister in the priest's office in his father's stead, shall make atonement, and shall put on the linen clothes, even the holy garments; ³³ and when he hath made atonement for the holy Sanctuary, then he shall make atonement for the Tent of Meeting, and for the Altar, and he shall make atonement for the priests, and for all the people of the assembly. ³⁴ And this shall be an everlasting statute unto you, to make atonement for the children of Israel for all their sins once a year.' And he did as Jehovah commanded Moses.

¹⁷ And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ² Speak to Aaron and to his sons, and to all the children of Israel, and say to them, This is the thing which Jehovah hath commanded, saying, ³ What man soever there be of the house of Israel, that killeth an ox, or lamb, or goat, in the camp, or that killeth it on the outside of the camp, ⁴ and BRINGETH IT NOT to the doorway of the Tent of Meeting, to offer a Gift to Jehovah before the Tabernacle of Jehovah, blood shall be imputed to that man; he hath shed blood; and that man shall be cut off from among his people; ⁵ to the end that the children of Israel may bring their slaughterings [or sacrifices], which they sacrifice in the open field, even that they may bring them to Jehovah, to the doorway of the Tent of Meeting to the priest, and may sacrifice them as sacrifices of peace offerings to Jehovah. ⁶ And the priest shall sprinkle the blood upon the Altar of Jehovah at the doorway of the Tent of Meeting, and shall burn the fat as incense for a sweet savour to Jehovah. ⁷ (And they shall no more sacrifice their sacrifices to Satyrs, after whom they have gone astray.) This shall be a statute for ever to them throughout their generations. ⁸ And thou shalt say to them, Whatsoever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who sojourn among you, that offereth up a burnt offering or a sacrifice, ⁹ and bringeth it not to the doorway of the Tent of Meeting, to offer it to Jehovah, even that man shall be cut off from among his people.

¹⁰ And whatsoever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among you, that EATETH ANY BLOOD; I will even set my face against that soul that eateth blood, and will cut him off from among his people. ¹¹ For the life of the flesh is in the blood; and I have given it to you for the altar to make atonement for your souls; for it is the blood that maketh atonement for the soul. ¹² Therefore I said to the children of Israel, No soul of you shall eat blood, neither shall any stranger that sojourneth among you eat blood. ¹³ And whatsoever man there be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn

‘among you, that hunteth and catcheth any beast
‘or fowl that may be eaten; he shall even pour
‘out the blood thereof, and cover it with dust.
‘¹⁴ Because the life of all flesh is its blood; it is ‘for its life. Therefore I said to the children of ‘Israel, Ye shall eat the blood of no manner of ‘flesh; for the life of all flesh is its blood; whoso‘ever eateth it shall be cut off. ¹⁵ And every soul ‘that eateth that which died of itself, or that which ‘was torn by beasts, whether he be one of your ‘own country, or a stranger, he shall both wash his ‘clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be un‘clean until the evening; then shall he be clean.
‘¹⁶ But if he wash them not, nor bathe his flesh,
‘then he shall bear his iniquity.’

18 And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ² ‘Speak
‘to the children of Israel, and say to them, I am ‘Jehovah your God. ³ After the doings of the land
‘of Lower Egypt, wherein ye dwelt, shall ye not ‘do; and after the doings of the land of Canaan, ‘whither I bring you, shall ye not do; neither ‘shall ye walk in their statutes. ⁴ Ye shall do my ‘judgments, and shall keep my statutes, to walk ‘therein; I am Jehovah your God. ⁵ Ye shall ‘therefore keep my statutes, and my judgments;
‘which if a man do, he shall live by them; I am ‘Jehovah.

⁶ No man of you shall approach to any that is ‘NEAR OF KIN, to uncover nakedness; I am Jehovah.
‘⁷ The nakedness of thy father, even the nakedness
‘of thy mother, shalt thou not uncover; she is thy ‘mother, thou shalt not uncover her nakedness.
‘⁸ The nakedness of thy father’s wife shalt thou ‘not uncover; it is thy father’s nakedness. ⁹ The ‘nakedness of thy sister, the daughter of thy father,
‘or daughter of thy mother, whether she be born
‘at home, or born abroad, even their nakedness ‘thou shalt not uncover. ¹⁰ The nakedness of thy ‘son’s daughter, or of thy daughter’s daughter, even ‘their nakedness thou shalt not uncover; for theirs
‘is thine own nakedness. ¹¹ The nakedness of thy ‘father’s wife’s daughter, begotten of thy father,
‘she is thy sister, thou shalt not uncover her naked‘ness. ¹² Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of ‘thy father’s sister; she is near of kin to thy father.
‘¹³ Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy ‘mother’s sister; for she is near of kin to thy ‘mother. ¹⁴ Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness
‘of thy father’s brother, thou shalt not approach to ‘his wife; she is thine aunt. ¹⁵ Thou shalt not ‘uncover the nakedness of thy daughter-in-law;
‘she is thy son’s wife; thou shalt not uncover her ‘nakedness. ¹⁶ Thou shalt not uncover the naked‘ness of thy brother’s wife; it is thy brother’s
‘nakedness. ¹⁷ Thou shalt not uncover the naked‘ness of a woman and her daughter, neither shalt ‘thou take her son’s daughter, or her daughter’s ‘daughter, to uncover her nakedness; for they are ‘near of kin to her; it is wickedness. ¹⁸ Neither ‘shalt thou take a wife to her sister, to vex her, to ‘uncover her nakedness beside the other in her ‘life time.

¹⁹ Also thou shalt not approach to a woman to ‘uncover her nakedness, during her separation for ‘her uncleanness. ²⁰ Moreover thou shalt not lie ‘carnally with thy neighbour’s wife, to defile thy‘self with her. ²¹ And thou shalt not let any of ‘thy seed pass through [the fire] to Molech, neither ‘shalt thou profane the name of thy God; I am ‘Jehovah. ²² Thou shalt not lie with mankind, as
‘with womankind; it is abomination. ²³ Neither ‘shalt thou lie with any beast to defile thyself
‘therewith; neither shall any woman stand before
‘a beast to lie down thereto; it is confusion.

²⁴ Defile not ye yourselves in any of these ‘things; for in all these the nations are defiled ‘which I am casting out before you. ²⁵ And the ‘land is defiled; therefore I will visit its iniquity ‘upon it, and the land vomiteth out her inhabitants.
‘²⁶ Yourselves shall therefore keep my statutes and ‘my judgments, and shall not commit any of these ‘abominations; neither any of your own nation,
‘nor any stranger that sojourneth among you;
‘²⁷ (for all these abominations have the men of the ‘land done, who were before you, and the land is ‘defiled;) ²⁸ that the land vomit not out you also,
‘when ye defile it, as it vomited out the nations
‘that were before you. ²⁹ For whosoever shall ‘commit any of these abominations, even the souls ‘that commit them shall be cut off from among ‘their people. ³⁰ Therefore shall ye keep my charge,
‘that ye commit not any one of these abominable ‘customs, which were committed before you, and ‘that ye defile not yourselves therein; I am ‘Jehovah your God.’

19 And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ² ‘Speak
‘to all the congregation of the children of Israel,
‘and say to them, Ye shall be holy; for I Jehovah
‘your God am holy.

³ Ye shall reverence every man his mother, and ‘his father, and keep my sabbaths; I am Jehovah
‘your God.

⁴ Turn ye not to idols, nor make to yourselves
‘molten gods; I am Jehovah your God.

⁵ And when ye sacrifice a sacrifice of peace ‘offerings to Jehovah, ye shall sacrifice it so that ‘it may be accepted for you. ⁶ It shall be eaten
‘on the day that ye sacrifice it, and on the morrow;
‘and what remaineth until the third day shall be ‘burnt in the fire. ⁷ And if it be eaten at all on ‘the third day, it is putrid; it will not be accepted.
‘⁸ Therefore he that eateth it shall bear his iniquity, ‘because he hath profaned what was holy unto ‘Jehovah; and that soul shall be cut off from ‘among his people.

⁹ And when ye reap the harvest of your land,
‘thou shalt not wholly reap the corners of thy field, ‘neither shalt thou gather the gleanings of thy ‘harvest. ¹⁰ And thou shalt not glean thy vine‘yard, neither shalt thou gather up the fallen grapes
‘of thy vineyard; thou shalt leave them for the ‘poor and the stranger; I am Jehovah your God.

¹¹ Ye shall not steal, neither deal falsely,

'neither lie one to his fellow. ¹² And ye shall not swear by my name falsely, or profane the name of thy God; I am Jehovah.

¹³ Thou shalt not defraud thy neighbour, neither rob him. The wages of him that is hired shall not abide with thee all night until the morning.

¹⁴ Thou shalt not curse the deaf, nor put a stumbling-block before the blind, but thou shalt fear thy God; I am Jehovah.

²⁰ And when a man lieth carnally with a woman, that is a handmaid, betrothed to a husband, and not at all ransomed, nor hath had freedom given her; there shall be a punishment, they shall not be put to death, because she was not free; ²¹ and he shall bring his guilt offering to Jehovah, to the doorway of the Tent of Meeting, even a ram for a guilt offering. ²² And the priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the guilt offering before Jehovah for his sin which he hath sinned; and the sin which he hath sinned shall be forgiven him.

²³ And when ye shall come into the land, and shall have planted any trees for food, then ye shall count their fruit as unclean; three years shall it be as unclean to you; it shall not be eaten. ²⁴ But in the fourth year all its fruit shall be holy for praises to Jehovah; ²⁵ and in the fifth year shall ye eat its fruit, that it may continue to yield to you its increase; I am Jehovah your God.

²⁶ Ye shall not eat anything with the blood; neither shall ye use divination, nor observe clouds.

²⁹ Do not prostitute thy daughter, to cause her to go astray; lest the land fall to lewdness, and the land become full of wickedness.

³⁰ Ye shall keep my sabbaths, and reverence my Sanctuary; I am Jehovah.

³¹ Turn not to the speaking bottles [of ventriloquists], neither seek after wizards, to be defiled by them; I am Jehovah your God.

³² Thou shalt rise up before the hoary head, and honour the face of the old man, and fear thy God; I am Jehovah.

³³ And if a stranger sojourn with you in your land, ye shall not vex him. ³⁴ But the stranger that sojourneth with you shall be to you as one born among you, and thou shalt love him as thyself; for ye were strangers in the land of Lower Egypt; I am Jehovah your God.

³⁵ Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment, in measures of length, or of weight, or of bulk. ³⁶ Just balances, just weights, a just Ephah, and a just Hin, shall ye have; I am Jehovah your God, who brought you out of the land of Lower Egypt. ³⁷ And ye shall observe all my statutes, and all my judgments, and do them; I am Jehovah.'

20 And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ² Again thou shalt say to the children of Israel, 'Whosoever he be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn in Israel, that giveth any of his seed to MOLECH; he shall surely be put to death; the people of the land shall stone him with stones. ³ And I will set my face against that man, and will cut him off from among his people; because he hath given of his seed to Molech, so as to defile my Sanctuary, and to profane my holy name. ⁴ And if the people of the land do any ways hide their eyes from that man, when he giveth of his seed to Molech, and kill him not; ⁵ then I will set my face against that man, and against his family, and will cut him off, and all that go astray after him, to go astray after Molech, from among their people.

⁶ And the soul that turneth after speaking bottles, and after wizards, to go astray after them, I will even set my face against that soul, and will cut him off from among his people. ⁷ Sanctify yourselves therefore, and be ye holy; for I am Jehovah your God. ⁸ And ye shall keep my statutes, and do them; I am Jehovah who sanctify you.

¹⁰ And the man that COMMITTETH ADULTERY with another man's wife, even he that committeth adultery with his neighbour's wife, the adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be put to death.

'with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination; they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon themselves. ¹⁴ And if a man take a wife and her mother, it is wickedness; they shall be burnt with fire, both he and they; that there be no wickedness among you. ¹⁵ And if a man lie with a beast, he shall surely be put to death; and ye shall slay the beast. ¹⁶ And if a woman approach to any beast, and lie down thereto, thou shalt kill the woman and the beast; they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon themselves. ¹⁷ And if a man shall take his sister, his father's daughter, or his mother's daughter, and see her nakedness, and she see his nakedness; it is a wicked thing, and they shall be cut off in the sight of the children of their people; he hath uncovered his sister's nakedness; he shall bear his iniquity. ¹⁸ And if a man shall lie with a woman having her sickness, and shall uncover her nakedness; he hath laid bare her fountain, and she hath uncovered the fountain of her blood; and both of them shall be cut off from among their people. ¹⁹ And thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy mother's sister, nor of thy father's sister, for they layeth bare his near of kin; they shall bear their iniquity. ²⁰ And if a man shall lie with his aunt, he hath uncovered his uncle's nakedness; they shall bear their sin; they shall die childless. ²¹ And if a man shall take his brother's wife, it is an unclean thing; he hath uncovered his brother's nakedness; they shall be childless.

²² Ye shall therefore keep all my statutes, and all my judgments, and do them; that the land, whither I bring you to dwell therein, vomit you not out. ²³ And ye shall not walk in the statutes of the nations, which I am casting out before you; for they committed all these things, and I abhor them. ²⁴ But I have said to you, Ye shall possess their land, and I will give it to you to possess it, a land that floweth with milk and honey. I am Jehovah your God, who have put a difference between you and the peoples; ²⁵ ye shall therefore put a difference between clean beasts and unclean, and between unclean fowls and clean; and ye shall not make your souls abominable by beast, or by fowl, or by anything that creepeth on the ground, which I have separated from you as unclean. ²⁶ And ye shall be holy unto me; for I Jehovah am holy, and have separated you from the peoples that ye should be mine.

21 And Jehovah said to Moses, 'Speak to the priests the SONS OF AARON, and say to them, There shall none of them be defiled for the dead among his people; ² but for his kin, that is near to him, that is, for his mother, and for his father, and for his son, and for his daughter, and for his brother, ³ and for his sister a maiden, that is nigh to him, who hath had no husband, for her may he be defiled.

⁷ They shall not take a wife that is a harlot, or profane; neither shall they take a woman that hath been put away from her husband; for he is holy unto his God. ⁸ Thou shalt sanctify him therefore; for he bringeth near the bread of thy God; he shall be holy unto thee; for I Jehovah, who sanctify you, am holy. ⁹ And the daughter of any priest, if she profane herself by going astray, she profaneth her father; she shall be burnt with fire.

¹³ And he shall take a wife in her maidenhood. ¹⁴ A widow, or a divorced woman, or one profaned by being a harlot, these he shall not take; but he shall take a maiden of his own people to wife. ¹⁵ So shall he not profane his seed among his people; for I Jehovah do sanctify him.'

¹⁶ And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ¹⁷ 'Speak to Aaron, saying, Whosoever he be of thy seed in their generations that hath any blemish, let him not approach to bring near the bread of his God. ¹⁸ For whatsoever man he be that hath a blemish, he shall not approach; a blind man, or a lame, or he that hath a limb shortened, or too long, ¹⁹ or a man that is broken-footed, or broken-handed, ²⁰ or crook-backed, or a dwarf, or that hath a blemish in his eye, or is scurvy, or scabbed, or hath his stones broken; ²¹ no man of the seed of Aaron the priest that hath a blemish shall approach to bring nigh the offerings of Jehovah made by fire; he hath a blemish; he shall not approach to bring nigh the bread of his God. ²² He shall eat the bread of his God, both of the most holy, and of the holy. ²³ Only he shall not go in within the Veil, nor come nigh to the Altar, because he hath a blemish; that he profane not my Sanctuary; for I Jehovah do sanctify them.' ²⁴ And Moses told it to Aaron, and to his sons, and to all the children of Israel.

22 And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ² 'Speak to Aaron, and to his sons, as to when they should separate themselves from THE HOLY THINGS of the children of Israel, and not profane my holy name in those things which they hallow unto me; I am Jehovah. ³ Say to them, Whosoever he be of all your seed among your generations, that goeth nigh to the holy things, which the children of Israel hallow unto Jehovah, having his uncleanness upon him, that soul shall be cut off from my presence; I am Jehovah. ⁴ What man soever of the seed of Aaron is a leper, or hath a running issue; he shall not eat of the holy things, until he be clean. And whoso toucheth any thing that is unclean by the dead, or a man whose seed goeth from him; ⁵ or whosoever toucheth any creeping thing, whereby he may be made unclean, or a man of whom he may take uncleanness, whatsoever uncleanness he hath; ⁶ the soul which hath touched any such shall be unclean until evening, and shall not eat of the holy things, unless he wash his flesh with water. ⁷ And when the sun is down, he shall be clean, and shall afterward eat of the holy things, because it is his bread. ⁸ That which dieth of itself, or is torn by beasts, he shall not eat to defile himself therewith; I am Jehovah. ⁹ They shall therefore keep my charge, lest they bear sin for it, and die therefore, if they profane it; I Jehovah do sanctify them.

¹⁷ And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ¹⁸ 'Speak to Aaron, and to his sons, and to all the children of Israel, and say to them, Whosoever he be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers in Israel, that will bring his Gift for all his vows, and for all his freewill offerings, which they will bring to Jehovah for a burnt offering; ¹⁹ in order that it may be accepted for you, LET IT BE A MALE WITHOUT BLEMISH, of the heaves, of the sheep, or of the goats. ²⁰ But whatsoever hath a blemish, that shall ye not bring; for it will not be accepted for you. ²¹ And when a man bringeth a sacrifice of peace offerings to Jehovah to perform his vow, or as a freewill offering in heaves or sheep [or goats], it shall be perfect to be accepted; there shall be no blemish therein. ²² Blind, or broken, or maimed, or having a wen, or scurvy, or scabbed, ye shall not bring these to Jehovah, nor make an offering by fire of them upon the Altar unto Jehovah. ²³ Either a bullock, or a lamb [or kid] that hath a limb too long or too short, that mayest thou offer for a freewill offering; but for a vow it shall not be accepted. ²⁴ Ye shall not bring to Jehovah that which hath had its testicles bruised, or crushed, or torn out, or cut; neither shall ye make any such in your land. ²⁵ Neither from the hand of the son of a foreigner shall ye bring as the bread of your God of any of these; because their corruption is in them, and blemishes are in them; they shall not be accepted for you.'

²⁶ And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ²⁷ 'When a calf, or a lamb, or a kid, is born, then it shall be seven days under its dam; and from the eighth day and thenceforth it shall be accepted as a Gift for an offering made by fire unto Jehovah. ²⁸ And whether cow or ewe [or she goat], ye shall not kill it and its young both in one day. ²⁹ And when ye will sacrifice a sacrifice of thanksgiving to Jehovah, sacrifice it so that it may be accepted for you. ³⁰ On the same day it shall be eaten; ye shall leave none of it until the morning; I am Jehovah.'

³¹ Therefore shall ye keep my commandments, and do them; I am Jehovah. ³² Neither shall ye profane my holy name; but I will be hallowed among the children of Israel; I am Jehovah who hallow you, ³³ that brought you out of the land of Lower Egypt, to be your God; I am Jehovah.'

23 And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ² 'Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, Concerning the APPOINTED FEASTS of Jehovah, which ye shall proclaim to be holy convocations, these are my Appointed Feasts.

³ Six days shall work be done; but the SEVENTH DAY is a sabbath of rest, a holy convocation; ye shall do no work, it is the sabbath of Jehovah in all your dwellings.

⁴ These are the Appointed Feasts of Jehovah, the holy convocations, which ye shall proclaim in their seasons. ⁵ In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, at twilight [or between the evenings], is Jehovah's PASSOVER.

⁶ And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the Feast of UNLEAVENED BREAD unto Jehovah. Seven days ye must eat unleavened bread. ⁷ On the first day ye shall have a holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work therein. ⁸ And ye shall bring offerings made by fire unto Jehovah for seven days. On the seventh day, which is a holy convocation, ye shall do no servile work.'

⁹ And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ¹⁰ 'Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, When

'ye be come into the land which I give to you, and shall reap the harvest thereof, then ye shall bring a sheaf, the first of your harvest, to the priest.
¹¹ And he shall wave the sheaf before Jehovah, so that it may be accepted for you; on the morrow after the Sabbath the priest shall wave it.
¹² And ye shall offer that day, when ye wave the sheaf, a he lamb without blemish of the first year for a burnt offering unto Jehovah.
¹⁴ And ye shall eat neither bread, nor parched corn, nor ripe ears of corn, during the whole of that day, until ye have brought a Gift to your God. This shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

¹⁵ And ye shall count to you from the morrow after the Sabbath, even from the day that ye brought the sheaf of the wave offering. They shall be seven regular Sabbaths [or weeks].
¹⁶ Unto the morrow after the seventh Sabbath shall ye number fifty days; and then ye shall bring a new meal offering to Jehovah.
¹⁷ Ye shall bring out of your habitations two wave loaves; they shall be of two tenth parts of fine flour; they shall be baked with leaven; they are the FIRST-FRUITS unto Jehovah.
¹⁹ Then ye shall sacrifice one he goat for a sin offering, and two lambs of the first year for a sacrifice of peace offerings.
²⁰ And the priest shall wave them with the bread of the First-fruits for a wave offering before Jehovah, with the two lambs; they shall be holy to Jehovah for the priest.

²³ And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ²⁴ 'Speak to the children of Israel, saying, In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, ye shall have a day of rest, a memorial, a BLOWING OF TRUMPETS, a holy convocation.
²⁵ Ye shall do no servile work; but ye shall bring an offering made by fire unto Jehovah.'

²⁶ And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ²⁷ 'Also on the tenth day of this seventh month, which is

'the DAY OF ATONEMENT, shall be a holy convocation unto you; and ye shall afflict your souls [or fast], and shall bring an offering made by fire unto Jehovah.
²⁸ And ye shall do no work during the whole of that day; for it is a day of atonement, to make atonement for you before Jehovah your God.
²⁹ For whatsoever soul it be that shall not afflict himself during the whole of that day, he shall be cut off from among his people.
³⁰ And whatsoever soul it be that doeth any work during the whole of that day, the same soul will I destroy from among his people.
³¹ Ye shall do no manner of work; this shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.
³² It shall be unto you a Sabbath of rest, and ye shall afflict your souls; on the ninth day of the month in the evening, from evening unto evening, shall ye celebrate your Sabbath.'

³³ And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ³⁴ 'Speak to the children of Israel, saying, On the fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be the FEAST OF TABERNACLES, for seven days unto Jehovah.
³⁵ On the first day shall be a holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work therein.

³⁷ These are the Appointed Feasts of Jehovah, which ye shall proclaim to be holy convocations, to bring an offering made by fire unto Jehovah, a burnt offering, and a meal offering, a sacrifice, and drink offerings, a day's portion upon its day; beside the sabbaths of Jehovah, and beside your gifts, and beside all your vows, and beside all your freewill offerings, which ye give to Jehovah.

'³⁹ Also on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, at your Ingathering of the increase of the land, ye shall keep the Feast [of Tabernacles] unto Jehovah for seven days; on the first day shall be a day of rest, and on the eighth day shall be a day of rest.
⁴¹ And ye shall keep it a feast unto Jehovah for seven days in the year. This shall be a statute for ever in your generations; ye shall keep it as a feast in the seventh month.
⁴² Ye shall dwell in booths for seven days; all that are Israelites born shall dwell in booths; so that your generations may know that I made the children of Israel to dwell in booths [for at Succoth], when I brought them out of the land of Lower Egypt; I am Jehovah your God.'
⁴⁴ And Moses declared to the children of Israel the Appointed Feasts of Jehovah.)

²⁴ And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ²⁵ 'Command the children of Israel, that they bring to thee clear beaten olive oil for the light, to 'cause the lamp to burn continually. ³ On the 'outside of the Veil of the Testimonials, in the 'Tent of Meeting, shall Aaron set it in order from 'the evening unto the morning before Jehovah 'continually. This shall be a statute for ever in 'your generations. ⁴ He shall set in order the 'lamps upon the pure lamp-stand before Jehovah 'continually.

¹⁰ AND THE SON of an Israelitish woman, who was also the son of an Egyptian man, went out among the children of Israel; and this son of the Israelitish woman and a man of Israel strove together in the camp. ¹¹ And the Israelitish woman's son BLASPHEMED THE NAME [of Jehovah], and cursed. And they brought him to Moses; (and his mother's name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.) ¹² And they put him in ward, until they might be instructed by the mouth of Jehovah. ¹³ And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ¹⁴ 'Bring forth without the camp 'him that hath cursed; and let all that heard him 'lay their hands upon his head, and let all the 'congregation stone him. ¹⁵ And thou shalt speak 'to the children of Israel, saying, Whosoever 'curseth his God shall bear his sin. ¹⁶ And he 'that blasphemeth the Name of Jehovah, he shall 'surely be put to death, all the congregation shall 'certainly stone him; as well the stranger, as he 'that is born in the land, when he blasphemeth 'The Name, shall be put to death.

¹⁷ And he that smiteth the life of any man 'shall surely be put to death. ¹⁸ And he that 'smiteth the life of a beast shall make it good; life 'for life. ¹⁹ And if a man cause a blemish in his 'neighbour; as he hath done, so shall it be done 'to him; ²⁰ hurt for hurt, eye for eye, tooth for 'tooth; as he hath caused a blemish in a man, so 'shall it be done to him again. ²¹ And he that 'killeth a beast, he shall make it good; and he 'that killeth a man, he shall be put to death. ²² Ye shall have one manner of law, as well for 'the stranger, as for one of your own country; for 'I am Jehovah your God.'

²³ And Moses spake to the children of Israel, that they should bring forth out of the camp him that had cursed, and stone him with stones. And the children of Israel did as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

²⁵ AND JEHOVAH SPAKE to Moses on mount Sinai, saying, ² 'Speak to the children of Israel, 'and say to them, When ye come into the land 'which I give you, then shall the land keep a sab- 'bath unto Jehovah. ³ Six years thou shalt sow thy 'field, and six years thou shalt prune thy vineyard, 'and gather in its increase; ⁴ but on THE SEVENTH 'YEAR shall be a sabbath of rest to the land, a sab- 'bath for Jehovah; thou shalt neither sow thy 'field, nor prune thy vineyard. ⁵ That which 'springeth up of its own accord from thy last 'harvest thou shalt not have a reaping of, neither 'shalt thou make a gathering of the grapes of thy 'Nazarite [or undressed vine]; for it is a year of 'rest to the land. ⁶ But the sabbath of the land 'may be food for you; for thee, and for thy ser- 'vant, and for thy handmaid, and for thy hired 'servant, and for thy stranger that sojourneth with 'thee, ⁷ and for thy cattle, and for the wild beasts 'that are in thy land, shall all its increase be food.

⁸ And thou shalt number seven sabbaths of 'years unto thee, seven times seven years; and 'the space of the seven sabbaths of years shall be 'unto thee forty and nine years. ⁹ Then shalt 'thou cause a loud trumpet to sound on the tenth 'day of the seventh month, on the day of atone- 'ment shall ye make the trumpet sound through- 'out all your land. ¹⁰ And ye shall hallow THE 'FIFTIETH YEAR, and proclaim liberty throughout 'the land to all the inhabitants thereof; it shall 'be a Jubilee to you; and ye shall return every 'man to his possession, and ye shall return every 'man to his family. ¹¹ A Jubilee year shall that 'fiftieth year be to you; ye shall not sow, neither 'have a reaping of that which springeth up of itself 'in it, nor make a gathering of its Nazarite [or 'undressed vine]. ¹² For it is the Jubilee; it shall 'be holy unto you. Ye shall eat the increase 'thereof out of the field. ¹³ In this year of Jubilee, 'ye shall return every man to his possession.

¹⁴ And when thou sellest ought to thy neigh- 'bour, or buyest of thy neighbour's hand, ye shall 'not oppress one another. ¹⁵ According to the 'number of years after the Jubilee thou shalt buy 'of thy neighbour, and according to the number of 'years of the crops he shall sell to thee. ¹⁶ Ac- 'cording to the multitude of years thou shalt in- 'crease its price, and according to the fewness of 'years thou shalt lessen the price of it; for the 'number of the crops is what he selleth to thee. ¹⁷ Ye shall not therefore oppress one another; 'but thou shalt fear thy God; for I am Jehovah 'your God.

¹⁸ Therefore ye shall do my statutes, and keep 'my judgments, and do them; and ye shall dwell 'in the land in safety. ¹⁹ And the land shall yield 'its fruit, and ye shall eat your fill, and dwell 'therein in safety. ²⁰ And if ye shall say, What 'shall we eat on the seventh year? behold, we 'shall not sow, nor gather in our increase:—²¹ then

'I will command my blessing upon you in the sixth year, and it shall bring forth increase for three years. ²² And ye shall sow in the eighth year, and eat yet of former increase until the ninth year; until its increase come in ye shall eat of the former.

³⁵ And if thy BROTHER BECOME POOR, and his hand faileth near thee; then thou shalt relieve him as a stranger or a sojourner; and he shall live with thee. ³⁶ Take thou no usury of him, or increase; but fear thy God, and let thy brother live with thee. ³⁷ Thou shalt not give him thy money upon usury, nor lend him thy victuals for increase. ³⁸ I am Jehovah your God, who brought you forth out of the land of Lower Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan, and to be your God. ³⁹ And if thy brother become poor near thee, and sell himself to thee; thou shalt not make him to serve the service of a bondservant. ⁴⁰ As a hired servant, as a sojourner, he shall be with thee, and shall serve thee until the year of Jubilee; ⁴¹ and then he shall depart from thee, both he and his children with him, and shall return to his own family, and to the possession of his fathers shall he return. ⁴² For they are my servants, whom I brought forth out of the land of Lower Egypt; they shall not be sold as bondservants are sold. ⁴³ Thou shalt not rule over him with rigour; but shalt fear thy God.

⁴⁴ Both thy bondservants, and thy handmaids, which thou shalt have, shall be of the nations that are round about you; some of them ye may buy as bondservants and handmaids. ⁴⁵ Moreover of the children of the strangers that do sojourn among you, some of them ye may buy, and of their families that are with you, which they beget in your land; and they shall be your possession. ⁴⁶ And ye shall take them as an inheritance for your children after you, to inherit for a possession for ever; ye shall exact service of them; but over your brethren the children of Israel, ye shall not rule one over another with rigour.

² Ye shall keep my sabbaths, and reverence my Sanctuary; I am Jehovah.

³ If ye walk in my statutes, and keep my commandments, and do them; ⁴ then I will give you your rains in their seasons, and the land shall yield its increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit. ⁵ And your threshing-time shall reach to the vintage, and the vintage shall reach

‘to the sowing time; and ye shall eat your bread to the full, and dwell in your land safely. ⁶ And I will give peace in the land, and ye shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid; and I will get rid of evil beasts out of the land, neither shall the sword go through your land. ⁷ And ye shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword. ⁸ And five of you shall chase a hundred, and a hundred of you shall chase ten thousand; and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword. ⁹ For I will turn to you, and make you fruitful, and multiply you, and establish my covenant with you. ¹⁰ And ye shall eat old store, and bring forward the old because there is the new. ¹¹ And I will set my Tabernacle among you; and my soul shall not abhor you. ¹² And I will walk about among you, and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people. ¹³ I am Jehovah your God, who brought you forth out of the land of Lower Egypt, that ye should not be their bondservants; and I broke the rod of your yoke and made you to go upright.

¹⁴ But if ye will not hearken to me, and will not do all these commandments; ¹⁵ and if ye despise my statutes, or if your soul abhor my judgments, so as not to do all my commandments, but that ye break my covenant; ¹⁶ I also will do this to you; I will even appoint over you terror, consumption, and fever, that shall consume the eyes and cause sorrow of heart; and ye shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it. ¹⁷ And I will set my face against you, and ye shall be smitten before your enemies; they that hate you shall rule over you; and ye shall flee when none pursueth you. ¹⁸ And if ye will not yet for all this hearken unto me, then I will punish you seven times more for your sins. ¹⁹ And I will break the pride of your power; and I will make your heavens as iron and your earth as copper. ²⁰ And your strength shall be spent in vain, for your land shall not yield her increase, neither shall the trees of the land yield their fruits. ²¹ And if ye walk contrary to me, and shall not be willing to hearken to me; I will bring seven times more plagues upon you according to your sins. ²² I will also send wild beasts [or foreigners] among you, who shall rob you of your children, and destroy your cattle, and make you few in number; and your highways shall be made desolate.

²⁷ And if for all this ye will not hearken to me, but walk contrary to me; ²⁸ then I will walk contrary to you also in fury; and I, even I, will chastise you seven times for your sins. ²⁹ And ye shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters shall ye eat. ³⁰ And I will destroy your High Places [or altars], and cut down your sun-images, and cast your carcases upon the carcases of your filthy idols, and my soul shall abhor you. ³¹ And I will make your cities waste, and bring your sanctuaries into desolation, and I will not smell the savour of your sweet odours. ³² And I will bring the land into desolation; and your enemies that dwell therein shall be astonished at it. ³³ And I will scatter you among the Nations, and I will draw out a sword after you; and your land shall be desolate, and your cities shall be waste. ³⁴ Then shall the land enjoy its sabbaths, as long as it lieth desolate, and ye be in your enemies' land; even then shall the land rest, and pay off its sabbaths. ³⁵ As long as it lieth desolate it shall rest; because it did not rest in your sabbaths, when ye dwelt upon it. ³⁶ And upon them that are left of you I will send a faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies; and the sound of a shaken leaf shall put them to flight; and they shall flee, as fleeing from a sword; and they shall fall when no one pursueth. ³⁷ And they shall stumble one upon another, as it were before a sword, when no one pursueth; and ye shall have no power to stand before your enemies. ³⁸ And ye shall perish among the Nations, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up. ³⁹ And they that are left of you shall pine away in their iniquity in your enemies' lands; and also in the iniquities of their fathers shall they pine away with them.

⁴⁰ But if they shall confess their iniquity, and the iniquity of their fathers, with their trespass which they trespassed against me, and also that they have walked contrary to me; ⁴¹ (yea, I also will walk contrary to them, and will bring them into the land of their enemies;) if then their un-circumcised hearts be humbled, and they then accept of the punishment of their iniquity; ⁴² then will I remember my covenant with Jacob, and also my covenant with Isaac, and also my covenant with Abraham will I remember; and I will remember the land. ⁴³ The land also shall be left by them, and shall enjoy its sabbaths, while it lieth desolate without them; and they shall accept of the punishment of their iniquity; because, and whereas they cast away my judgments, and their soul abhorred my statutes. ⁴⁴ And yet for all that, when they be in the land of their enemies I will not cast them away, neither will I abhor them, to destroy them utterly, and to break my covenant with them; for I am Jehovah their God. ⁴⁵ But I will for their sakes remember the covenant of their ancestors whom I brought forth out of the land of Lower Egypt in the sight of the Nations, that I might be their God; I am Jehovah. ⁴⁶ These are the statutes and judgments and laws, which Jehovah made between himself and the children of Israel on mount Sinai by the hand of Moses.

² And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ² Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, When a man will PERFORM HIS VOW, persons shall be for Jehovah by thy valuation. ³ And thy valuation shall be of the male from twenty years old even unto sixty years old, even thy valuation shall be fifty Shekels of silver [or 100 shillings], after the holy Shekel. ⁴ And if it be a female, then thy valuation shall be thirty Shekels. ⁵ And if it be from five years old even unto twenty years old, then thy valuation shall be of the male twenty Shekels, and for the female ten Shekels. ⁶ And if it be from a month old even to five years old, then thy valuation shall be of the male five Shekels of silver, and for the female thy valuation shall be three Shekels of silver. ⁷ And if it be from sixty years old and above; if it be a male, then thy valuation shall be fifteen Shekels, and for the female ten Shekels. ⁸ But if he be poorer than thy valuation, then he shall present himself before the priest, and the priest shall value him; according to his ability that vowed shall the priest value him.

⁹ And if it be a BEAST whereof men bring a Gift to Jehovah, all that any man giveth of such to Jehovah shall be holy. ¹⁰ He shall not alter it, nor change it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good; and if he shall at all change beast for beast, then it and the exchange thereof shall both be holy. ¹¹ And if it be any unclean beast, of which they do not bring a Gift to Jehovah, then he shall present the beast before the priest; ¹² and the priest shall value it, how far it be good or bad; as thou, the priest valuest it, so shall it be. ¹³ But if he will certainly redeem it, then he shall add a fifth part thereof to thy valuation. ¹⁴ And when a man shall sanctify HIS HOUSE to be holy unto Jehovah, then the priest shall value it, how far it be good or bad; as the priest shall value it, so shall it stand. ¹⁵ And if he that sanctified it will redeem his house, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of thy valuation to it, and it shall be his.

sanctify his field after the Jubilee, then the priest shall reckon to him the money according to the years that remain, even unto the year of the Jubilee, and it shall be abated from thy valuation. ¹⁹ And if he that sanctified the field will certainly redeem it, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of thy valuation to it, and it shall be assured to him. ²⁰ And if he will not redeem the field, or if he have sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed any more. ²¹ But the field when it goeth out in the Jubilee, shall be holy unto Jehovah, as a field devoted; the possession thereof shall be the priest's. ²² And if a man sanctify unto Jehovah a field which he hath bought, which is not of the fields of his possession; ²³ then the priest shall reckon to him the proportion of thy valuation, even unto the year of the Jubilee; and he shall give thy valuation on that day, as holy unto Jehovah. ²⁴ In the year of the Jubilee the field shall return to him of whom it was bought, even to him to whom the possession of the land did belong. ²⁵ And all thy valuations shall be according to the holy Shekel; twenty Gerahs shall be the Shekel [or half ounce].

²⁶ Only the FIRSTLING OF THE CATTLE, which is Jehovah's firstling, no man shall sanctify it; whether it be ox, or sheep [or goat]; it is Jehovah's. ²⁷ And if it be of an unclean beast, then he shall ransom it according to thy valuation, and shall add a fifth part of it thereto; or if it be not redeemed, then it shall be sold according to thy valuation. ²⁸ Notwithstanding, no devoted thing that a man shall devote to Jehovah of all that he hath, whether of man or beast, or of the field of his possession, shall be sold or redeemed; every devoted thing is most holy unto Jehovah. ²⁹ No devoted one, of men who shall be devoted, shall be ransomed; he shall surely be put to death.

³⁰ And all the TITHE OF THE LAND, whether of the seed of the land, or of the fruit of the tree, is Jehovah's; it is holy unto Jehovah. ³¹ And if a man will certainly redeem ought of his tithes, he shall add thereto the fifth part thereof. ³² And of all the tithe of the herd, or of the flock, even of whatsoever passeth under the [tithing] rod, the tenth shall be holy unto Jehovah. ³³ He shall not search whether it be good or bad, neither shall he change it; and if he doth certainly change it, then both it and the exchange thereof shall be holy; it shall not be redeemed. ³⁴ These are the commandments which Jehovah commanded Moses for the children of Israel on Mount Sinai.

THE BOOK OF NUMBERS.

1 AND Jehovah spake to Moses in the desert of Sinai, in the Tent of Meeting, on the first day of the second month, in the second year after they were come out of the land of Lower Egypt [A.M.

2669], saying, ² Take ye the sum of all the congregation of the children of Israel, by their families by the house of their fathers, with the number of their names, every male by their polls;

³ from twenty years old and upward, all that go forth to war in Israel; thou and Aaron shall REGISTER THEM by their armies. ⁴ And with you there shall be a man of every tribe, every one the head of the house of his fathers. ⁵ And these are the names of the men that shall stand with you;

⁶ of Reuben, Elizur the son of Shedeur;

⁶ of Simeon, Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai;

⁷ of Judah, Nahshon the son of Amminadab;

⁸ of Issachar, Nethaneel the son of Zuar;

⁹ of Zebulun, Eliab the son of Helon;

¹⁰ of the children of Joseph; of Ephraim, Elishama the son of Ammihud; of Manasseh, Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur;

¹¹ of Benjamin, Abidan the son of Gideoni;

¹² of Dan, Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai;

¹³ of Asher, Pagiel the son of Ocran;

¹⁴ of Gad, Eliasaph the son of Deuel;

¹⁵ of Naphtali, Ahira the son of Enan.'

¹⁶ These were the men chosen from the congregation, princes of the tribes of their fathers, heads of thousands in Israel.

¹⁷ And Moses and Aaron took these men who were appointed by their names; ¹⁸ and they assembled all the congregation together on the first day of the second month, and they declared their pedigrees after their families, by the house of their fathers, with the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward by their polls. ¹⁹ As Jehovah had commanded Moses, so he registered them in the desert of Sinai.

²⁰ And they were the children of REUBEN, Israel's eldest son; their birth-book, by their families, by the house of their fathers, with the number of the names, by their polls, every male from twenty years old and upward, all that go forth to war; ²¹ those that were registered of them of the tribe of Reuben, were six and forty thousand and five hundred;

²⁸ Of the children of ISSACHAR; their birth-book, by their families, by the house of their fathers, with the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that go forth to war; ²⁹ those that were registered of them of the tribe of Issachar, were four and fifty thousand and four hundred;

³⁰ Of the children of ZEBULUN; their birth-book, by their families, by the house of their fathers, with the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that go forth to war; ³¹ those that were registered of them of the tribe of Zebulun, were seven and fifty thousand and four hundred;

³⁴ Of the children of MANASSEH; their birth-book, by their families, by the house of their fathers, with the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that go forth to war; ³⁵ those that were registered of them of the tribe of Manasseh, were two and thirty thousand and two hundred;

³⁶ Of the children of BENJAMIN; their birth-book, by their families, by the house of their fathers, with the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that go forth to war; ³⁷ those that were registered of them of the tribe of Benjamin, were five and thirty thousand and four hundred;

⁴⁴ These are those that were registered, whom Moses and Aaron registered, and the twelve princes of Israel; each one was for the house of his fathers. ⁴⁵ So were all those that were registered of the children of Israel by the house of their fathers, from twenty years old and upward, all that go forth to war in Israel; ⁴⁶ and all they that were registered were six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty.

⁴⁷ But the LEVITES after the tribe of their fathers did not register themselves among them.

¹⁵ For Jehovah had spoken to Moses, saying, ¹⁶ 'Only the tribe of Levi thou shalt not register, neither take the sum of them among the children of Israel. ¹⁷ But thou shalt appoint the Levites over the Tabernacle of the Testimonials, and over all its vessels, and over all things that belong to it; they shall bear the Tabernacle, and all its vessels; and they shall minister to it, and shall encamp round about the Tabernacle. ¹⁸ And when the Tabernacle setteth forward, the Levites shall take it down; and when the Tabernacle is to be pitched, the Levites shall set it up; and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death. ¹⁹ And the children of Israel shall pitch their tents, every man by his own camp, and every man by his own standard, throughout their hosts. ²⁰ But the Levites shall pitch round about the Tabernacle of the Testimonials, that Wrath come not upon the congregation of the children of Israel; and the Levites shall keep the charge of the Tabernacle of the Testimonials.' ²¹ And the children of Israel did according to all that Jehovah had commanded Moses, so did they.

² And Jehovah spake to Moses and to Aaron, saying, ³ 'Every man of the children of Israel shall pitch by his own standard, with the sign of their father's house; over against and round about the Tent of Meeting shall they pitch.

¹¹ On the south side shall be the standard of the camp of REUBEN by their hosts; and the captain of the children of Reuben shall be Elizur the son of Shedeur.' ¹² (And his host, and those that were registered thereof, were six and forty thousand and five hundred.) ¹³ And those who pitch by him shall be the tribe of SIMEON; and the captain of the children of Simeon shall be Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.' ¹⁴ (And his host, and those that were registered of them, were nine and fifty thousand and three hundred.) ¹⁵ Then the tribe of GAD; and the captain of the children of Gad shall be Eliasaph the son of Reuel.' ¹⁶ (And his host, and those that were registered of them, were five and forty thousand and six hundred and fifty. ¹⁷ All that were registered in the camp of Reuben were a hundred thousand and one and fifty thousand and four hundred and fifty, by their hosts.) 'And they shall set forth in the second rank.

¹⁹ On the west side shall be the standard of the camp of EPHRAIM by their hosts; and the captain of the children of Ephraim shall be Elishama the son of Ammihud.' ²⁰ (And his host, and those that were registered of them, were forty thousand and five hundred.) ²¹ And by him shall be the tribe of MANASSEH; and the captain of the children of Manasseh shall be Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.' ²² (And his host, and those that were registered of them, were two and thirty thousand and two hundred.) ²³ Then the tribe of BENJAMIN; and the captain of the children of Benjamin shall be Abidan the son of Gideon.' ²⁴ (And his host, and those that were registered of them, were five and thirty thousand and four hundred. ²⁵ All that were registered of the camp of Ephraim were a hundred thousand and eight thousand and a hundred, by their hosts.) 'And they shall go forward in the third rank.

²⁶ The standard of the camp of DAN shall be on the north side by their hosts; and the captain of the children of Dan shall be Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.' ²⁷ (And his host, and those that were registered of them, were two and sixty thousand and seven hundred.) ²⁸ And those that encamp by him shall be the tribe of ASHER; and the captain of the children of Asher shall be Pagiel the son of Ocran.' ²⁹ (And his host, and those that were registered of them, were one and forty thousand and five hundred.) ³⁰ Then the tribe of NAPHTALI; and the captain of the children of Naphtali shall be Ahira the son of Enan.' ³¹ (And his host, and those that were registered of them, were three and fifty thousand and four hundred. ³² All they that were registered in the camp of Dan were a hundred thousand and seven and fifty thousand and six hundred.) 'They shall go hindmost with their standards.'

³³ These are those which were registered of the children of Israel by the house of their fathers; all those that were registered of the camps by their hosts were six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty. ³⁴ But the Levites did not register themselves among the children of Israel; as Jehovah had commanded Moses. ³⁵ And the children of Israel did according to all that Jehovah had commanded Moses; thus they pitched by their standards, and thus they set forward, every one after their families, according to the house of their fathers.

³⁶ This also is the BIRTH-BOOK OF AARON AND MOSES in the day that Jehovah spake with Moses on Mount Sinai. ³⁷ And these are the names of the sons of Aaron; Nadab the firstborn, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. ³ These are the names of the sons of Aaron, the anointed priests, whose hands he filled [with offerings] to minister in the priest's office. ⁴ And Nadab and Abihu died before Jehovah, when they brought strange fire before Jehovah, in the desert of Sinai; and they had no sons; and Eleazar and Ithamar ministered in the priest's office in the sight of Aaron their father.

⁵ And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ⁶ 'Bring the tribe of Levi near, and present them before Aaron the priest, that they may minister to him. ⁷ And they shall keep his charge, and the charge of the whole congregation before the Tent of Meeting, to do the service of the Tabernacle. ⁸ And they shall keep all the instruments of the Tent of Meeting, and the charge of the children of Israel, to do the service of the Tabernacle. ⁹ And thou shalt give the Levites to Aaron and to his sons; they are wholly given to him out of the children of Israel. ¹⁰ And thou shalt appoint Aaron and his sons, and they shall keep their priest's office; and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death.'

¹⁸ And these are the names of the sons of GERSHON by their families; Libni, and Shimei.

¹⁹ And the sons of KOHATH by their families; Amram and Izchar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

²¹ Of GERSHON was the family of the Libnites, and the family of the Shimites; these were the families of the Gershonites. ²² Those that were registered of them in the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, even those that were registered of them were seven thousand and five hundred. ²³ The families of the Gershonites did pitch behind the tabernacle westward. ²⁴ And the chief of the house of the father of the Gershonites was Eliasaph the son of Lael. ²⁵ And the charge of the sons of Gershon in the Tent of Meeting was the Tabernacle, and the Tent, its covering, and the screen for the doorway of the Tent of Meeting, ²⁶ and the hangings of the Court, and the screen for the doorway of the Court, which was round about the Tabernacle and the Altar, and its cords for all the service thereof.

²⁷ And of KOHATH was the family of the Amramites, and the family of the Izeharites, and the family of the Hebronites, and the family of the Uzzielites; these were the families of the Kohathites. ²⁸ In the number of all the males from a month old and upward, they were eight thousand and six hundred, keeping the charge of the Holy Place. ²⁹ The families of the sons of Kohath pitched on the side of the Tabernacle southward. ³⁰ And the chief of the house of the father of the families of the Kohathites was Elizaphan the son of Uzziel. ³¹ And their charge was the Ark, and the Table, and the Lamp-stand, and the altars, and the holy vessels wherewith they minister, and the screen, and all the service thereof. ³² And Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest was chief over the chiefs of the Levites, and had the oversight of them that kept the charge of the Holy Place.

³³ Of MERARI was the family of the Mahlites, and the family of the Mushites; these are the families of Merari. ³⁴ And those that were registered of them in the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, were six thousand and two hundred. ³⁵ And the chief of the house of the father of the families of Merari was Zuriel the son of Abihail; these pitched on the side of the Tabernacle northward. ³⁶ And the appointed charge of the sons of Merari was the boards of the Tabernacle, and its cross-bars, and its pillars, and its sockets, and all its vessels, and all that serveth thereto, ³⁷ and the pillars of the Court round about, and their sockets, and their tent-pins and their cords.

³⁸ But those that encamped before the Tabernacle in front, even before the Tent of Meeting eastward, were Moses, and Aaron and his sons, keeping the charge of the Sanctuary for the charge of the children of Israel; (and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death). ³⁹ All that were registered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron registered by the command of Jehovah, by their families, all the males from a month old and upward, were two and twenty thousand.

⁴⁰ And Jehovah said to Moses, 'Register all the firstborn of the males of the children of Israel from a month old and upward, and take the number of their names. ⁴¹ And thou shalt take the Levites for me (I am Jehovah) instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel; and the cattle of the Levites instead of all the firstlings among the cattle of the children of Israel.' ⁴² And Moses registered, as Jehovah commanded him, all the firstborn among the children of Israel. ⁴³ And all the firstborn males by the number of names, from a month old and upward, of those that were registered of them, were two and twenty thousand two hundred and seventy and three.

⁴⁴ And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ⁴⁵ 'Take the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites instead of their cattle; and the Levites shall be mine; I am Jehovah. ⁴⁶ And for the two hundred and seventy and three of the firstborn of the children of Israel, that are to be redeemed, who are over and above the Levites; ⁴⁷ thou shalt even take five Shekels apiece by the poll, after the holy Shekel shalt thou take them; (the Shekel is twenty Gerahs;) ⁴⁸ and thou shalt give the silver, wherewith those that are over and above are to be redeemed, to Aaron and to his sons.' ⁴⁹ And Moses took the silver for the redemption of them that were over and above them that were redeemed by the Levites; ⁵⁰ of the firstborn of the children of Israel took he the silver, a thousand three hundred and sixty and five Shekels, after the holy Shekel; ⁵¹ and Moses gave the silver of them that were redeemed to Aaron and to his sons, according to the word of Jehovah, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

4 And Jehovah spake to Moses and to Aaron, saying, ² 'Take the sum of the SONS OF KOHATH from among the sons of Levi, by their families, by the house of their fathers, ³ from thirty years old and upward even until fifty years old, all that enter into the host, to do the work in the Tent of Meeting. ⁴ This shall be the service of the sons of Kohath in the Tent of Meeting, about the most holy things; ⁵ and when the camp setteth forward, Aaron shall come, and his sons, and they shall take down the screening Veil, and cover the Ark of the Testimonials with it; ⁶ and shall put thereon a covering of seals' skins, and shall spread over it a cloth wholly of blue, and shall put in its staves. ⁷ And upon the Presence-table they shall spread a cloth of blue, and put thereon the dishes, and the [incense] ladles, and the purifying jars, and cups to pour with; and the continual bread shall be thereon. ⁸ And they shall spread upon them a cloth of bright scarlet, and cover the same with a covering of seals' skins, and shall put in its staves. ⁹ And they shall take a cloth of blue, and cover the Lamp-stand of the light, and its lamps, and its snuffers, and its snuff-dishes, and all its oil vessels, wherewith they minister to it. ¹⁰ And they shall put it and all its vessels within a covering of seals' skins, and shall put it upon a hand-bar. ¹¹ And upon the golden altar they shall spread a cloth of blue, and cover it with a covering of seals' skins, and shall put to it its staves. ¹² And they shall take all the instruments of ministry, wherewith they minister in the Holy Place, and put them in a cloth of blue, and cover them with a covering of seals' skins, and shall put them on a hand-bar. ¹³ And they shall take away the bone-ashes from the Altar, and spread a purple cloth thereon. ¹⁴ And they shall put upon it all its vessels, wherewith they minister about it, even

'the censers, the fleshhooks, and the shovels, and the sprinkling buckets, all the vessels of the altar; and they shall spread upon it a covering of seals' skins, and put to it its staves. ¹⁵ And when Aaron and his sons have made an end of covering the holy things, and all the holy vessels, as the camp is to set forward, after that, the sons of Kohath shall come to bear it; but they shall not touch any holy thing, lest they die. These things shall be the burden of the sons of Kohath in the Tent of Meeting. ¹⁶ And to Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest shall be the oversight of the oil for the light, and the sweet incense, and the continual meal offering, and the anointing oil, and the oversight of all the Tabernacle, and of all that therein is in the Holy Place, and in its vessels.'

¹⁷ And Jehovah spake to Moses and to Aaron, saying, ¹⁸ 'Cut ye not off the tribe of the families of the Kohathites from among the Levites; ¹⁹ but thus do to them, that they may live and not die, when they approach the Holy of Holies. Aaron and his sons shall go in, and appoint them every one to his service and to his burden; ²⁰ but they shall not go in to look at the holy things for a moment, lest they die.'

²¹ And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ²² 'Take also the sum of the SONS OF GERSHON, by the house of their fathers, by their families; ²³ from thirty years old and upward, until fifty years old shalt thou register them; all that come in to join the host, to do the work in the Tent of Meeting. ²⁴ This is the service of the families of the Gershonites, to serve, and for burdens; ²⁵ and they shall carry the curtains of the Tabernacle, and the Tent of Meeting, its covering, and the covering of seals' skins that is above upon it, and the screen for the doorway of the Tent of Meeting, ²⁶ and the hangings of the Court, and the screen for the doorway of the gate of the Court, which is round about the Tabernacle and the Altar, and their cords, and all the instruments of their service, and all that is made for them; so shall they serve. ²⁷ At the command of Aaron and his sons shall be all the service of the sons of the Gershonites, for all their burdens, and for all their service; and ye shall appoint to them in charge all their burdens. ²⁸ This is the service of the families of the sons of the Gershonites in the Tent of Meeting; and their charge shall be under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

‘service; and by name ye shall register the instruments of the charge of their burden.’³³ This shall be the service of the families of the sons of Merari, for all their service in the Tent of Meeting, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.’

³⁴ And Moses and Aaron and the Chiefs of the congregation registered the SONS OF THE KOHATHITES by their families, and by the house of their fathers,³⁵ from thirty years old and upward, even unto fifty years old, every one that came into the host, for service in the Tent of Meeting.³⁶ And those that were registered of them by their families were two thousand seven hundred and fifty.³⁷ These were they that were registered of the families of the Kohathites, all that might do service in the Tent of Meeting, whom Moses and Aaron did register by the command of Jehovah by the hand of Moses.

³⁸ And those that were registered of the SONS OF GERSHON, by their families, and by the house of their fathers,³⁹ from thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, every one that came into the host, for service in the Tent of Meeting;⁴⁰ even those that were registered of them, by their families, by the house of their fathers, were two thousand and six hundred and thirty.⁴¹ These were they that were registered of the families of the sons of Gershon, of all that might do service in the Tent of Meeting, whom Moses and Aaron did register by the command of Jehovah.

⁴² And those that were registered of the families of the sons of MERARI, by their families, by the house of their fathers,⁴³ from thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, every one that came into the host, for service in the Tent of Meeting;⁴⁴ even those that were registered of them by their families, were three thousand and two hundred.⁴⁵ These were those that were registered of the families of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron registered by the command of Jehovah by the hand of Moses.

⁴⁶ All those that were registered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron and the Chiefs of Israel registered by their families, and by the house of their fathers,⁴⁷ from thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, every one that came to do the work of the service, and the work of the burden in the Tent of Meeting;⁴⁸ even those that were registered of them, were eight thousand and five hundred and eighty.⁴⁹ By the command of Jehovah they were registered by the hand of Moses, every one for his work, and for his burden; thus were they registered by him, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

5 And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying,² ‘Command the children of Israel that they put out of the camp every leper, and every one that hath an issue, and whosoever is defiled by the dead;³ both male and female shall ye put out, without the camp shall ye put them; that they defile not their camps, in the midst whereof I dwell.’⁴ And the children of Israel did so, and put them out without the camp; as Jehovah spake to Moses, so did the children of Israel.

⁵ And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying,⁶ ‘Speak to the children of Israel, When a man or woman shall commit any wrong against man, to do a trespass against Jehovah, and that person be guilty;⁷ then they shall confess their wrong which they have done; and he shall recompense his guilt with the principal thereof, and add to it the fifth part thereof, and give it to him against whom he hath been guilty.’⁸ But if the man have no kinsman for the guilt to be recompensed to, let the guilt be recompensed to Jehovah, even to the priest, beside the ram of the atonement, whereby atonement is made for him.⁹ And every heave offering of all the holy things of the children of Israel, which they bring to the priest, shall be his;¹⁰ And every man’s hallowed things shall be his; whatsoever any man giveth to the priest, it shall be his.’

‘and the woman shall say, Amen, amen. ²³ And the priest shall write these self-curses in a book, and he shall blot them out with the bitter water; ²⁴ and he shall cause the woman to drink the bitter water that causeth the curse; and the water that causeth the curse shall enter into her, and be bitter. ²⁵ Then the priest shall take the jealousy offering out of the woman’s hand, and shall wave the offering before Jehovah, and bring it to the Altar. ²⁶ And the priest shall take a handful of the offering, even a memorial thereof, and burn it for incense upon the Altar, and afterward shall cause the woman to drink the water. ²⁷ And when he hath made her to drink the water, then it shall come to pass, that, if she be defiled, and have done trespass against her husband, that the water that causeth the curse shall enter into her to be bitter, and her belly shall swell, and her thigh shall rot; and the woman shall be self-cursed among her people. ²⁸ And if the woman be not defiled, but be clean; then she shall be guiltless, and shall conceive seed.’ ²⁹ This is the LAW OF JEALOUSIES, when a wife goeth aside instead of her husband, and is defiled; ³⁰ or when the spirit of jealousy cometh upon a man, and he be jealous over his wife, and shall set the woman before Jehovah, and the priest shall execute upon her all this law. ³¹ Then shall the man be guiltless from iniquity, and this woman shall bear her iniquity.

6 And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ² ‘Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, When either man or woman will perform his vow, the vow of a NAZARITE [or one separated], by separating himself unto Jehovah; ³ he shall separate himself from wine and strong drink, and shall drink no vinegar of wine, or vinegar of strong drink, neither shall he drink any liquor of grapes, nor eat moist grapes, or dried. ⁴ All the days of his separation shall he eat nothing that is made of the grape-vine, from the stones of the grapes even to the skins. ⁵ All the days of the vow of his separation there shall no razor come upon his head; until the days be fulfilled, in which he separateth himself unto Jehovah, he shall be holy, and shall let the locks of the hair of his head grow. ⁶ All the days that he separateth himself unto Jehovah he shall come near no dead body. ⁷ He shall not make himself unclean for his father, or for his mother, for his brother, or for his sister, when they die; because the Separation unto his God is upon his head. ⁸ All the days of his separation he is holy unto Jehovah.

⁹ And if any man die very suddenly by him, and he hath defiled the head of his Separation; then he shall shave his head in the day of his cleansing, on the seventh day shall he shave it. ¹⁰ And on the eighth day he shall bring two turtle-doves, or two young pigeons, to the priest, to the doorway of the Tent of Meeting. ¹¹ And the priest shall offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, and make atonement for him,

‘for that he sinned by the dead body, and shall hallow his head that same day. ¹² And he shall separate unto Jehovah the days of his Separation, and shall bring a lamb of the first year for a guilt offering; but the days that were before shall be lost, because his Separation was defiled.

¹³ And this is the law of the Nazarite, on the day when the days of his Separation are fulfilled. He shall be brought to the doorway of the Tent of Meeting; ¹⁴ and he shall bring his Gift to Jehovah, one he lamb of the first year without blemish for a burnt offering, and one ewe lamb of the first year without blemish for a sin offering, and one ram without blemish for a peace offering. ¹⁵ And a basket of unleavened bread, pricked cakes of fine flour mingled with oil, or wafers of unleavened bread anointed with oil, and their meal offering, and their drink offering. ¹⁶ And the priest shall bring them before Jehovah, and shall offer his sin offering, and his burnt offering. ¹⁷ And he shall offer the ram for a sacrifice of peace offerings unto Jehovah, with the basket of unleavened bread; the priest shall offer also his meal offering, and his drink offering. ¹⁸ And the Nazarite shall shave the head of his Separation at the doorway of the Tent of Meeting, and shall take the hair of the head of his Separation, and put it in the fire which is under the sacrifice of the peace offerings. ¹⁹ And the priest shall take the cooked shoulder of the ram, and one unleavened pricked cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and shall put them upon the hands of the Nazarite, after the hair of his separation is shaven. ²⁰ And the priest shall wave them for a wave offering before Jehovah. This is holy for the priest, with the wave breast and heave leg. And after that the Nazarite may drink wine.’ ²¹ This is the law of the Nazarite who hath vowed, and of his gift to Jehovah for his Separation, beside anything that his hand shall get. According to the vow which he vowed, so he must do by the law of his Separation. ²² And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ²³ ‘Speak to Aaron, and to his sons, saying, In this wise ye shall bless the children of Israel, saying to them,

²⁴ May Jehovah bless thee, and keep thee;
²⁵ May Jehovah make his face shine on thee, and be gracious to thee;
²⁶ May Jehovah lift up his face on thee, and give thee peace.

²⁷ And they shall put my name upon the children of Israel; and I will bless them.’

7 And it came to pass on the day that Moses had fully set up the Tabernacle, and had anointed it, and made it holy, and all its instruments, and the Altar and all its vessels, and had anointed them, and made them holy; ² that the princes of Israel, heads of the house of their fathers, who were the princes of the tribes, and were placed over them that were registered, brought Gifts. ³ And they brought their Gifts before Jehovah, six covered wagons, and twelve oxen; a wagon for two of the princes, and for each one an ox. And they brought them before the Tabernacle. ⁴ And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ⁵ 'Take them from them, that they may be used for the service of the Tent of Meeting, and thou shalt give them to the Levites, to every man according to his service.' ⁶ And Moses took the wagons and the oxen, and gave them to the Levites. ⁷ Two of the wagons and four of the oxen he gave to the sons of Gershon, according to their service. ⁸ And four of the wagons and eight of the oxen he gave to the sons of Merari, according to their service, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest. ⁹ But to the sons of Kohath he gave none; because the holy service belonging to them was that they should carry upon their shoulders.

¹⁰ And the princes brought the DEDICATING GIFTS for the Altar in the day that it was anointed, even the princes brought their Gifts before the Altar. ¹¹ And Jehovah said to Moses, 'They shall bring their Gift, each prince on his day, for the dedicating of the altar.'

¹² And he that brought his Gift on the first day was Nahshon the son of Amminadab, of the tribe of Judah. ¹³ And his Gift was one silver dish of the weight of a hundred and thirty Shekels, one silver sprinkling bucket of seventy Shekels, after the holy Shekel; both of them were full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meal offering; ¹⁴ one ladle of ten Shekels of gold, full of incense; ¹⁵ one young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering; ¹⁶ one he goat for a sin offering; ¹⁷ and for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the gift of Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

²⁴ On the third day Eliab the son of Helon, prince of the children of Zebulun; ²⁵ his Gift was one silver dish of the weight of a hundred and thirty Shekels, one silver sprinkling bucket of seventy Shekels, after the holy Shekel; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meal offering; ²⁶ one ladle of ten Shekels of gold, full of incense; ²⁷ one young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering; ²⁸ one he goat for a sin offering; ²⁹ and for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the gift of Eliab the son of Helon.

³⁰ On the fourth day Elizur the son of Shedeur, prince of the children of Reuben; ³¹ his Gift was one silver dish of the weight of a hundred and thirty Shekels, one silver sprinkling bucket of seventy Shekels, after the holy Shekel; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meal offering; ³² one ladle of ten Shekels of gold, full of incense; ³³ one young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering; ³⁴ one he goat for a sin offering; ³⁵ and for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the Gift of Elizur the son of Shedeur.

³⁶ On the fifth day Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai, prince of the children of Simeon; ³⁷ his Gift was one silver dish of the weight of a hundred and thirty Shekels, one silver sprinkling bucket of seventy Shekels, after the holy Shekel; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meal offering; ³⁸ one ladle of ten Shekels of gold, full of incense; ³⁹ one young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering; ⁴⁰ one he goat for a sin offering; ⁴¹ and for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the Gift of Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

⁴² On the sixth day Eliasaph the son of Deuel, prince of the children of Gad; ⁴³ his Gift was one silver dish of the weight of a hundred and thirty Shekels, one silver sprinkling bucket of seventy Shekels, after the holy Shekel; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meal offering; ⁴⁴ one ladle of ten Shekels of gold, full of incense; ⁴⁵ one young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering; ⁴⁶ one he goat for a sin offering; ⁴⁷ and for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the Gift of Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

⁵⁴ On the eighth day Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur, prince of the children of Manasseh; ⁵⁵ his Gift was one silver dish of the weight of a hundred and thirty Shekels, one silver sprinkling bucket of seventy Shekels, after the holy Shekel; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meal offering; ⁵⁶ one ladle of ten Shekels of gold, full of incense; ⁵⁷ one young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering; ⁵⁸ one he goat for a sin offering; ⁵⁹ and for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the Gift of Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

⁶⁰ On the ninth day Abidan the son of Gideoni, prince of the children of Benjamin; ⁶¹ his Gift was one silver dish of the weight of a hundred and thirty Shekels, one silver sprinkling bucket of seventy Shekels, after the holy Shekel; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meal offering; ⁶² one ladle of ten Shekels of gold, full of incense; ⁶³ one young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering; ⁶⁴ one he goat for a sin offering; ⁶⁵ and for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the Gift of Abidan the son of Gideoni.

⁶⁶ On the tenth day Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai, prince of the children of Dan; ⁶⁷ his Gift was one silver dish of the weight of a hundred and thirty Shekels, one silver sprinkling bucket of seventy Shekels, after the holy Shekel; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meal offering; ⁶⁸ one ladle of ten Shekels of gold, full of incense; ⁶⁹ one young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering; ⁷⁰ one he goat for a sin offering; ⁷¹ and for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the Gift of Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

⁷⁸ On the twelfth day Ahira the son of Enan, prince of the children of Naphtali; ⁷⁹ his Gift was one silver dish of the weight of a hundred and thirty Shekels, one silver sprinkling bucket of seventy Shekels, after the holy Shekel; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meal offering; ⁸⁰ one ladle of ten Shekels of gold, full of incense; ⁸¹ one young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering; ⁸² one he goat for a sin offering; ⁸³ and for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the Gift of Ahira the son of Enan.

⁸⁹ And when Moses was gone into the Tent of Meeting to speak with Him, then he heard the voice of one speaking to him from off the Cover that was upon the Ark of the Testimonials, from between the two Cherubs; and he spake to him. S And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ² 'Speak to Aaron, and say to him, When thou lightest the lamps, the seven lamps shall give light over against the Lamp-stand.' ³ And Aaron did so; he lighted the lamps thereof over against the Lamp-stand, as Jehovah commanded Moses. ⁴ And this work of the Lamp-stand was of beaten gold, unto its shaft, unto its flowers, was beaten work; according to the pattern which Jehovah had shewed Moses, so he had made the Lamp-stand.

to me. ¹⁷For all the firstborn of the children of Israel are mine; both man and beast; on the day that I smote every firstborn in the land of Lower Egypt I made them holy for myself. ¹⁸And I took the Levites instead of all the firstborn of the children of Israel. ¹⁹And I gave the Levites as a gift to Aaron and to his sons from among the children of Israel, to do the service of the children of Israel in the Tent of Meeting, and to make atonement for the children of Israel; that there be no plague among the children of Israel, when the children of Israel come nigh unto the Holy Place. ²⁰And Moses, and Aaron, and all the congregation of the children of Israel, did to the Levites according to all that Jehovah commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so the children of Israel did to them. ²¹And the Levites purified themselves from sin, and they washed their clothes; and Aaron offered them as a wave offering before Jehovah; and Aaron made atonement for them to cleanse them. ²²And after that went the Levites in to do their service in the Tent of Meeting before Aaron and before his sons; as Jehovah had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so did they to them.

²³And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ²⁴'This is what belongeth to the LEVITES; From twenty and five years old and upward they shall go in to join the host upon the service of the Tent of Meeting; ²⁵and from the age of fifty years they shall return from the service of the host, and shall serve no more; ²⁶but shall minister with their brethren in the Tent of Meeting, to keep the charge, and shall do no service. Thus shalt thou do to the Levites touching their charge.'

⁹And Jehovah spake to Moses in the desert of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they were come out of the land of Lower Egypt [A.M. 2669], saying, ²'Let the children of Israel also keep the PASSOVER at its appointed season. ³On the fourteenth day of this month, at twilight [or between the evenings], ye shall keep it in its appointed season; according to all the statutes of it, and according to all the ordinances thereof, shall ye keep it.' ⁴And Moses spake to the children of Israel, that they should keep the Passover. ⁵And they kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month at twilight in the desert of Sinai; according to all that Jehovah had commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel.

⁶And there were certain men, who were defiled by the dead body of a man, so that they could not keep the Passover on that day; and they came before Moses and before Aaron on that day. ⁷And these men said to him, 'We are defiled by the dead body of a man; wherefore are we kept back, that we may not bring the Gift of Jehovah in its appointed season among the children of Israel?' ⁸And Moses said to them, 'Stand still, and I will hear what Jehovah will command concerning you.' ⁹And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ¹⁰'Speak to the children of Israel, saying, If any man of you or of your posterity shall be unclean by reason of a dead body, or be on a journey afar off, yet he shall keep the Passover unto Jehovah. ¹¹On the fourteenth day of the second month at twilight they shall keep it, and eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. ¹²They shall leave none of it unto the morning, nor break any bone of it; according to all the statutes of the Passover they shall keep it. ¹³But the man that is clean, and is not on a journey, and forbearth to keep the Passover, even the same soul shall be cut off from among his people; because he brought not the Gift of Jehovah in its appointed season, that man shall bear his sin. ¹⁴And if a stranger shall sojourn among you, and will keep the Passover unto Jehovah; according to the statutes of the Passover, and according to the ordinances thereof, so shall he do; ye shall have one statute, both for the stranger, and for him that was born in the land.'

¹⁵And during the day, when the TABERNACLE WAS REARED up, the cloud covered the Tabernacle with the Tent of the Testimonials; and in the evening there was upon the Tabernacle as it were the appearance of fire, until the morning. ¹⁶So it was always; the cloud covered it [by day], and the appearance of fire by night. ¹⁷And at the signal of the cloud being taken up from the Tent, then after that the children of Israel journeyed; and in the place where the cloud abode, there the children of Israel pitched their tents. ¹⁸At the command of Jehovah the children of Israel journeyed, and at the command of Jehovah they pitched. Every day that the cloud abode upon the Tabernacle they rested in their tents. ¹⁹And when the cloud tarried upon the Tabernacle many days, then the children of Israel kept the charge of Jehovah, and journeyed not. ²⁰And so it was, when the cloud was a few days upon the Tabernacle. According to the command of Jehovah they abode in their tents, and according to the command of Jehovah they journeyed. ²¹And so it was, when the cloud abode from the evening unto the morning, and that the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they journeyed; whether it were by day or by night that the cloud was taken up, they journeyed. ²²Or whether it were two days, or a month, or a year, that the cloud tarried upon the Tabernacle, remaining thereon, the children of Israel abode in their tents, and journeyed not; but when it was taken up, they journeyed. ²³At the command of Jehovah they rested in the Tents, and at the command of Jehovah they journeyed; they kept the charge of Jehovah, at the command of Jehovah by the hand of Moses.

¹⁰And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ²'Make to thee TWO TRUMPETS of silver; of beaten work shalt thou make them; that thou mayest use them for the calling of the congregation, and for the journeying of the camps. ³And when they shall blow with them, all the congregation shall gather themselves unto thee at the doorway of the Tent of Meeting. ⁴And if they blow but with

'one trumpet, then the princes, who are heads of the thousands of Israel, shall gather themselves unto thee. ⁵When ye blow an alarm, then the camps that are encamped on the east side shall go forward. ⁶When ye blow an alarm the second time, then the camps that are encamped on the south side shall take their journey. They shall blow an alarm for their journeys. ⁷But when the assembly is to be assembled, ye shall blow, but ye shall not sound an alarm. ⁸And the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow with the trumpets; and they shall be to you by a statute for ever throughout your generations. ⁹And if ye go to war in your land against the enemy that oppresseth you, then ye shall blow an alarm with the trumpets; and ye shall be remembered before Jehovah your God, and ye shall be saved from your foes. ¹⁰Also in the day of your gladness, and in your solemn days, and in the beginnings of your months, ye shall blow with the trumpets over your burnt offerings, and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings; that they may be to you for a memorial before your God; I am Jehovah your God.'

¹¹And it came to pass on the twentieth day of the second month, in the second year, that the cloud was taken up from off the Tabernacle of the Testimonials. ¹²And the children of Israel JOURNEYED ON THEIR JOURNEYS out of the desert of Sinai; and the cloud rested in the desert of Paran. ¹³And they first took their journey according to the command of Jehovah by the hand of Moses.

¹⁷And the Tabernacle was taken down; and the sons of Gershon, and the sons of Merari set forward, bearing the TABERNACLE.

¹⁸And the standard of the camp of REUBEN set forward according to their hosts; and over his host was Elizur the son of Shedeur. ¹⁹And over the host of the tribe of the children of SIMEON was Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai. ²⁰And over the host of the tribe of the children of GAD was Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

²¹And the Kohathites set forward, bearing the SANCTUARY; and [the others] did set up the Tabernacle against they came.

²²And the standard of the camp of the children of EPHRAIM set forward according to their hosts; and over his host was Elishama the son of Ammihud. ²³And over the host of the tribe of the children of MANASSEH was Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur. ²⁴And over the host of the tribe of the children of BENJAMIN was Abidan the son of Gideoni.

²⁵And the standard of the camp of the children of DAN set forward, which was the rearguard of all the camps throughout their hosts; and over his host was Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai. ²⁶And over the host of the tribe of the children of ASHER was Pagiel the son of Ocran. ²⁷And over the host of the tribe of the children of NAPHTALI was Ahira the son of Enan. ²⁸Thus were the journeyings of the children of Israel according to their hosts, when they set forward.

²⁹AND MOSES SAID TO HOBAE, the son of Reuel the Midianite, Moses' father in law, 'We are journeying to the place of which Jehovah said, I will give it to you. Come thou with us, and we will do thee good; for Jehovah hath spoken good concerning Israel.' ³⁰And he said to him, 'I will not go; but I will depart to mine own land, and to my kindred.' ³¹And he said, 'Leave us not, I pray thee; forasmuch as thou knowest how we are to encamp in the desert, and thou mayest be to us instead of eyes. ³²And it shall be, if thou go with us, yea, it shall be, that what goodness Jehovah shall do to us, the same will we do to thee.'

³³And they departed from the Mountain of Jehovah three days' journey; and the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah went before them in the three days' journey, to search out a resting place for them. ³⁴And the cloud of Jehovah was upon them by day when they went out of the camp. ³⁵And it came to pass when the Ark set forward, that Moses said,

'Rise up, O Jehovah, and let thine enemies be scattered; and let them that hate thee flee before thee.'

³⁶And when it rested, he said, 'Return, O Jehovah, unto the ten thousand thousands of Israel.'

¹¹And when the people complained, it was evil in the ears of Jehovah. And Jehovah heard it; and his anger was kindled; and the fire of Jehovah burnt among them, and consumed them that were in the uttermost parts of the camp. ²And the people cried for help unto Moses, and when Moses prayed to Jehovah, the fire was quenched. ³And he called the name of the place Taberah [for Burning]; because the fire of Jehovah burnt among them.

⁴And the gathered rabble that was among them fell a longing; and the children of Israel also turned back and wept, and said, 'Who will give us flesh to eat? ⁵We remember the fish, which we did eat in Lower Egypt without purchase; the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlic; ⁶but now our soul is dried away; there is nothing at all, beside the 'Manna, before our eyes.' ⁷(And the Manna was as coriander seed, and the colour thereof as the colour of pearls. ⁸And the people went to and fro, and gathered it, and ground it in handmills, or bruised it in a mortar, and cooked it in pots, and made cakes of it; and the taste of it was as the taste of oil cake. ⁹And when the dew fell upon the camp in the night, the Manna fell with it.) ¹⁰Then Moses heard the people weep throughout their families, every man in the doorway of his tent; and the anger of Jehovah was kindled greatly; Moses also was displeased. ¹¹ And Moses said to Jehovah, 'Wherefore hast thou afflicted thy servant? And wherefore have I not found favour in thy sight, that thou layest the burden of all this people upon me? ¹² Have I conceived all this people? Have I begotten them, that thou shouldst say to me, Carry them in thy bosom, as a nursing father beareth a sucking child, unto the land of which thou swarest to their fathers? ¹³ Whence should I have flesh to give to all this people? for they weep unto me, saying, Give us flesh, that we may eat. ¹⁴ I am not able to bear all this people alone, because it is too heavy for me. ¹⁵ And if thou deal thus with me, kill me, I pray thee, out of hand, if I have found favour in thy sight; and let me not see my wretchedness.'

¹⁶ And Jehovah said to Moses, 'Gather unto me SEVENTY men of the ELDERS of Israel, whom thou knowest to be the elders of the people, and thy officers; and bring them to the Tent of Meeting, that they may place themselves there with thee. ¹⁷ And I will come down and talk with thee there; and I will set apart some of the spirit which is upon thee, and will put it upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with thee, that thou bear it not thyself alone. ¹⁸ And say thou to the people, Sanctify yourselves against to-morrow, and ye shall eat flesh; for ye have wept in the ears of Jehovah, saying, Who will give us flesh to eat? for it was well with us in Lower Egypt. Therefore Jehovah will give you flesh, and ye shall eat. ¹⁹ Ye shall eat not one day, nor two days, nor five days, neither ten days, nor twenty days; ²⁰ but even a whole month, until it come out at your nostrils, and it be loathsome to you; because ye have despised Jehovah who is among you, and have wept before him, saying, Why came we forth out of Lower Egypt?' ²¹ And Moses said, 'The people among whom I am, are six hundred thousand men on foot; and thou hast said, I will give them flesh, that they may eat a whole month. ²² Shall flocks and herds be slain for them, and suffice for them? If all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, will it suffice for them?' ²³ And Jehovah said to Moses, 'Is Jehovah's hand shortened? Thou shalt now see whether my word will come to pass unto thee or not.'

²⁴ And Moses went out, and told the people the words of Jehovah, and gathered seventy men of the elders of the people, and set them round about the Tent. ²⁵ And Jehovah came down in a cloud, and spake to him, and set apart some of the spirit that was upon him, and gave it to the seventy elders; and it came to pass, that, when the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied. ²⁶ But two of the men were not gathered in, but remained in the camp; the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad. And the spirit rested upon them; and they were of them that were enrolled, but they went not out unto the Tent; and they prophesied in the camp. ²⁷ And there ran a young man, and told Moses, and said, 'Eldad and Medad do prophesy in the camp.' ²⁸ And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of Moses, one of his chosen men, answered and said, 'My lord Moses, forbid them.' ²⁹ And Moses said to him, 'Enviest thou for my sake? Oh that all Jehovah's people were prophets, and that Jehovah would put his spirit upon them!' ³⁰ And Moses got him into the camp, he and the elders of Israel.

³¹ And there went forth a wind from Jehovah, and brought up quails from the sea, and scattered them over the camp, as it were a day's journey on this side, and as it were a day's journey on the other side, round about the camp, and as it were two cubits high upon the face of the earth. ³² And the people stood up all that day, and all the night, and all the next day, and they gathered the quails. He that gathered least gathered ten Homers [or ninety bushels]. And they spread them all abroad for themselves round about the camp. ³³ And while the flesh was yet between their teeth, ere it was chewed, the wrath of Jehovah was kindled against the people, and Jehovah smote the people with a very great plague. ³⁴ And he called the name of that place the Burial-place at Taavah [or Longing]; because there they buried the people that longed. ³⁵ And the people journeyed from the Burial-place at Taavah unto the Village [of Paran].

And while they were at the Village, 12 Miriam and Aaron spake against Moses because of the Cushite [or Ethiopian] woman whom he had married; for he had married a Cushite woman. ² And they said, 'Hath Jehovah indeed spoken only by Moses? Hath he not spoken also by us?' And Jehovah heard it. ³ Now the man Moses was greatly harassed, above all the men that were upon the face of the earth.) ⁴ And Jehovah said suddenly to Moses, and to Aaron, and to Miriam, 'Come out ye three unto the Tent of Meeting.' And they three came out. ⁵ And Jehovah came down in the pillar of cloud, and stood at the doorway of the Tent, and called Aaron and Miriam. And they both came forth. ⁶ And he said, 'Hear now my words; If there be a prophet of Jehovah among you, I will make myself known to him in a vision, and will speak to him in a dream. ⁷ Not so shall it be with my servant Moses. He is faithful in all my house. ⁸ With him will I speak mouth to mouth, even by being seen, and not in dark speeches; and the likeness of Jehovah shall he behold. Wherefore then were ye not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?' ⁹ And Jehovah's anger was kindled against them; and he went away. ¹⁰ And the cloud departed from off the Tent; and behold, Miriam became leprous, like snow. And Aaron turned towards Miriam, and behold, she was leprous. ¹¹ And Aaron said to Moses, 'Alas, my lord, I beseech thee, lay not upon us the sin, wherein we have done foolishly, and wherein we have sinned. ¹² Let her not be

'as one dead, of whom the flesh is half consumed 'when he cometh out of his mother's womb.' ¹³And Moses cried to Jehovah, saying, 'Heal her now, O 'God, I beseech thee.' ¹⁴And Jehovah said to Moses, 'If her father had but spit in her face, 'should she not be ashamed seven days? Let her 'be shut out from the camp seven days, and after 'that let her be brought in again.' ¹⁵And Miriam was shut out from the camp seven days; and the people journeyed not till Miriam was brought in again. ¹⁶And afterwards the people removed from the Village, and pitched in the desert of Paran [at Kadesh].

¹³ And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ² 'Send 'thou men that they may spy out THE LAND of 'Canaan, which I give to the children of Israel; 'of every tribe of their fathers shall ye send a man, 'every one a ruler among them.' ³And Moses by the command of Jehovah sent them from the desert of Paran; all those men were heads of the children of Israel. ⁴And these were their names;

For the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur;

⁵ For the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori; ⁶ For the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh;

⁷ For the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph;

⁸ For the tribe of Ephraim, Oseha the son of Nun;

⁹ For the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu;

¹⁰ For the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the son of Sodi;

¹¹ For the tribe of Joseph, namely, for the tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi, the son of Susi;

¹² For the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the son of Gemalli;

¹³ For the tribe of Asher, Sethur the son of Michael;

¹⁴ For the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi;

¹⁵ For the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Machi.

¹⁷ And Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said to them, 'Get you up this way 'into the South country, and go up to the Hill 'country; ¹⁸ and see the land, what it is; and the 'people that dwelleth therein, whether they be 'strong or weak, whether few or many; ¹⁹ and 'what the land is that they dwell in, whether it be 'good or bad; and what cities they be that they 'dwell in, whether in camps, or in fenced cities; ²⁰ and what the land is, whether it be fat or lean, 'whether there be wood therein, or not. And be 'ye of good courage, and bring some of the fruit 'of the land.' Now the time was the time of the first-ripe grapes.

²¹ So they went up, and spied out the land (from the desert of Zin unto Rehob, at the Pass of Hamath). ²² And they went up into the South country, and came to Hebron; where Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmi, the children of Anak were. (Now Hebron was built [B.C. 930?] seven years before Zoan [or Tanis] in Lower Egypt.) ²³ And they came to the valley of Eshcol, and cut down from thence a branch with one cluster of grapes, and they bare it between two men upon a staff, with some of the pomegranates, and of the figs. ²⁴ The place was called the valley of Eshcol [or the Cluster], because of the cluster of grapes which the children of Israel cut down from thence.

²⁵ And they returned from spying out the land at the end of forty days. ²⁶ And they went and came to Moses, and to Aaron, and to all the congregation of the children of Israel, unto the desert of Paran, to Kadesh; and brought back word to them, and to all the congregation, and shewed them the fruit of the land. ²⁷ And they related to him, and said, 'We came to the land whither thou sentest 'us, and surely it floweth with milk and honey; 'and this is the fruit of it. ²⁸ Nevertheless, the 'people are strong that dwell in the land, and the 'walled cities are very great; and moreover we 'saw children of Anak there. ²⁹ The Amalekites 'dwell in the land of the South country; and the 'Hittites, and the Jebusites, and the Amorites, 'dwell in the Hill country; and the Canaanites 'dwell by the sea, and by the side of the Jordan.' ³⁰ And Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, 'Let us go up at once, and possess it; for we 'are well able to overcome it.' ³¹ But the men that went up with him said, 'We are not able to go up 'against the people; for they are stronger than 'we.' ³² And they brought an evil report of the land which they had spied out unto the children of Israel, saying, 'The land, through which we have 'gone to spy it out, is a land that eateth up its in-'habitants; and all the people that we saw in it 'are men of great stature. ³³ And there we saw 'the Giants, sons of Anak, who come of the Giants '[or Fallen ones]; and we were in our own sight 'as grasshoppers, and so we were in their sight.'

¹⁴ And all the congregation lifted up and gave forth their voice. And the people wept that night. ² And all the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron. And the whole congregation said to them, 'Oh that we had died in 'the land of Lower Egypt! or that we had died in 'this desert! ³ And wherefore is Jehovah bring-'ing us to this land, to fall by the sword, that our 'wives and our little ones should be a prey? Were 'it not better for us to return to Lower Egypt?' ⁴ And they said one to another, 'Let us make a 'captain, and let us return to Lower Egypt.' ⁵ Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the children of Israel. ⁶ And Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, who were of them that spied out the land, rent their clothes. ⁷ And they spake to all the congregation of the children of Israel, saying, 'The land which we passed through to spy 'it out, is very very good land. ⁸ If Jehovah 'delight in us, then he will bring us unto this land, 'and give it us, a land which floweth with milk 'and honey. ⁹ Only rebel not ye against Jehovah, 'neither fear ye the people of the land; for they 'will be bread for us. Their shelter is departed

'from over them, and Jehovah is with us; fear them not.' ¹⁰ But all the congregation bade stone them with stones.

Then the glory of Jehovah appeared in the Tent of Meeting unto all the children of Israel. ¹¹ And Jehovah said to Moses, 'How long will this people provoke me? And how long will it be ere they believe me, for all the signs which I have done among them? ¹² I will smite them with pestilence, and dispossess them, and will make of thee a greater nation and mightier than they.' ¹³ And Moses said to Jehovah, 'Then the Egyptians will hear it (for thou broughtest up this people in thy might from among them); ¹⁴ and they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land. They have heard that thou Jehovah art among this people, that thou Jehovah hast been seen face to face, and that thy cloud standeth over them, and that thou goest before them, by day time in a pillar of cloud, and in a pillar of fire by night. ¹⁵ Now if thou shouldst kill all this people as one man, then the nations which have heard the fame of thee will speak, saying, ¹⁶ Because Jehovah was not able to bring this people into the land of which he swore unto them, therefore he hath slain them in the desert. ¹⁷ And now, I beseech thee, let the power of my LORD be great, according as thou hast spoken, saying, ¹⁸ Jehovah is slow to anger, and of great kindness, forgiving iniquity and transgression, but not wholly acquitting, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation. ¹⁹ Pardon, I beseech thee, the iniquity of this people according to the greatness of thy kindness, and as thou hast borne with this people from Lower Egypt, even until now.' ²⁰ And Jehovah said, 'I have pardoned according to thy word; and as truly as I live, all the earth shall be filled with the glory of Jehovah. ²² Because all those men who have seen my glory, and my signs, which I did in Lower Egypt and in the desert, have tried me now these ten times, and have not hearkened to my voice; ²³ surely they shall not see the land of which I swore unto their fathers, neither shall any of them that provoked me see it. ²⁴ But my servant Caleb, because he had another spirit with him, and hath wholly followed me, him will I bring into the land whereto he went; and his seed shall possess it.' ²⁵ (Now the Amalekites and the Canaanites dwelt in the Valley.) 'To-morrow turn you, and journey towards the desert by the way of the Red sea.'

²⁶ And Jehovah spake to Moses and to Aaron, saying, ²⁷ 'How long shall I bear with this evil congregation, who murmur against me? I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel, which they murmur against me. ²⁸ Say to them, As I live, Jehovah hath said it, as ye have spoken in mine ears, so will I do to you. ²⁹ Your carcasses shall fall in this desert; and all that were registered of you, even your whole number, from twenty years old and upward, who have murmured against me, ³⁰ surely ye shall not come into the land, concerning which I lifted up my hand [in oath] to do make you dwell therein, save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun. ³¹ But your little ones, which ye said should be a prey, them will I bring in, and they shall know the land which ye have despised. ³² But as for you, your carcasses, they shall fall in this desert. ³³ And your children shall be shepherds in the desert for forty years, and shall bear your fornications, until your carcasses be wasted in the desert. ³⁴ After the number of the days in which ye spied out the land, even forty days, one day for each year, shall ye bear your iniquities, even forty years, and ye shall know my estrangement. ³⁵ I Jehovah have said, I will surely do it unto all this evil congregation, that are gathered together against me; in this desert, they shall be wasted, and there they shall die.' ³⁶ And the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land, who returned, and made all the congregation to murmur against him, by bringing up a slander upon the land, ³⁷ even those men that did bring up the evil slander upon the land, died by the plague before Jehovah. ³⁸ But of the men that went to spy out the land, Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, lived still. ³⁹ And Moses told these sayings to all the children of Israel; and the people mourned greatly.

⁴⁰ And they rose up early in the morning, and got them up on to the top of the mountain, saying, 'Lo, here we are, and we will go up to the place which Jehovah hath spoken of; for we have sinned.' ⁴¹ And Moses said, 'Wherefore now do ye in this transgress the command of Jehovah? But it will not prosper.' ⁴² Go not up, for Jehovah is not among you; that ye be not smitten before your enemies. ⁴³ For the Amalekites and the Canaanites are there before you, and ye will fall by the sword; for whereas ye are turned away from following Jehovah, therefore Jehovah will not be with you.' ⁴⁴ But they presumed to go up to the top of the mountain; nevertheless the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah, and Moses, departed not out of the camp. ⁴⁵ Then the Amalekites came down, and the Canaanites who dwelt on that mountain, and smote them, and discomfited them, even unto Hormah [or Destruction].

¹⁵ And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ² Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, 'When ye come into the land of your habitations, which I give to you, ³ and ye will make an offering by fire unto Jehovah, a burnt offering, or a sacrifice on performing a vow, or on a free-will offering, or on your solemn feasts, to make a sweet savour unto Jehovah, out of the herd, or out of the flock; ⁴ then shall he that bringeth his Gift to Jehovah bring a meal offering of a tenth part [of an Ephah] of flour mingled with the fourth part of a Hin of oil. ⁵ And the fourth part of a Hin of wine for a drink offering shalt thou prepare with the burnt offering or the sacrifice, for one lamb. ⁶ Or for a ram, thou shalt prepare for a meal offering two tenth parts of flour mingled

¹⁷ And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ¹⁸ ‘Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, When ye come into the land whither I am bringing you, ¹⁹ then it shall be, that, when ye eat of the bread of the land, ye shall heave up a heave offering to Jehovah. ²⁰ Ye shall heave up a pricked cake of the first of your dough for a heave offering; as ye do the heave offering of the threshing-floor, so shall ye heave it. ²¹ Out of the first of your dough ye shall give to Jehovah a heave offering in your generations.’

²² And if ye shall SIN IN IGNORANCE, and not observe all these commands which Jehovah hath spoken to Moses, ²³ even all that Jehovah hath commanded you by the hand of Moses, from the day that Jehovah gave his commandments, and henceforward among your generations; ²⁴ then it shall be, if aught be committed by ignorance unseen by the congregation, then all the congregation shall offer one young bullock for a burnt offering, for a sweet savour unto Jehovah, with its meal offering and its drink offering, according to the ordinance, and one he goat for a sin offering. ²⁵ And the priest shall make atonement for all the congregation of the children of Israel, and it shall be forgiven them; for it is a sin of ignorance; and they shall bring their Gift, an offering made by fire unto Jehovah, and their sin offering before Jehovah, for their sins of ignorance; ²⁶ and it shall be forgiven to all the congregation of the children of Israel, and to the stranger that sojourneth among them; seeing that all the people were in ignorance. ²⁷ And if any soul sin in ignorance, then he shall bring a she goat of the first year for a sin offering. ²⁸ And the priest shall make atonement for the soul that sinneth ignorantly, when he sinneth in ignorance before Jehovah, to make atonement for him; and it shall be forgiven him. ²⁹ Ye shall have one law for him that doeth any thing through ignorance, both for him that is born among the children of Israel, and for the stranger that sojourneth among them. ³⁰ But the soul that doeth aught with a high hand, whether he be born in the land, or a stranger, the same blasphemeth Jehovah; and that soul shall be cut off from among his people. ³¹ Because he hath despised the word of Jehovah, and hath broken his commandment, that soul shall be utterly cut off; his iniquity shall be upon him.’

³² And while the children of Israel were in the desert, they found a man that gathered STICKS UPON THE SABBATH DAY. ³³ And they that found him gathering sticks brought him to Moses and Aaron, and to all the congregation. ³⁴ And they put him in ward, because it had not been declared what should be done to him. ³⁵ And Jehovah said to Moses, ‘The man shall be surely put to death; all the congregation shall stone him with stones without the camp.’ ³⁶ And all the congregation brought him without the camp, and stoned him with stones, and he died; as Jehovah commanded Moses.

³⁷ And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ³⁸ ‘Speak to the children of Israel, and bid them that they make for themselves FRINGES in the borders of their garments throughout their generations, and that they put upon the fringe of the borders a riband of blue. ³⁹ And it shall be to you for a fringe, that ye may look upon it, and remember all the commandments of Jehovah, and do them; and that ye seek not after your own heart and your own eyes, after which ye use to go astray; ⁴⁰ so that ye may remember, and do all my commandments, and be holy unto your God. ⁴¹ I am Jehovah your God, who brought you out of the land of Lower Egypt, to be your God; I am Jehovah your God.’

¹⁶ Now KORAH, the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, and DATHAN AND ABIRAM, the sons of Eliab, and ON, the son of Peleth, sons of Reuben, undertook, ² and rose up before Moses, with certain of the children of Israel, two hundred and fifty princes of the congregation, chosen men of the congregation, men of name; ³ and they assembled themselves against Moses and against Aaron, and said to them, ‘Ye take too much upon you, seeing that all the congregation are holy, every one of them, and Jehovah is among them. Wherefore then lift ye up yourselves above the assembly of Jehovah?’ ⁴ And when Moses heard it, he fell upon his face. ⁵ And he spake to Korah and to all his company, saying, ‘Even to-morrow Jehovah will shew who belongeth to him, and who is holy; and will cause him to come near to him; even him whom he shall choose will he cause to come near to him. ⁶ This do; take to 'yourselves censers, Korah, and all his company ;

 7 and put fire therein, and put incense on them
 'before Jehovah to-morrow ; and it shall be that 'the man whom Jehovah doth choose, he shall be 'holy. Ye take too much upon you, ye sons of
 'Levi.' 8 And Moses said to Korah, 'Hear, I pray
 'you, ye sons of Levi. 9 Is it a small thing to you,
 'that the God of Israel hath separated you from
 'the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to 'himself to do the service of the Tabernacle of Je'hovah, and to stand before the congregation to 'minister unto them ? 10 And he hath brought
 'thee near, and all thy brethren the sons of Levi
 'with thee ; and seek ye the priesthood also ?
 11 For which cause both thou and all thy company 'are gathered together against Jehovah. And
 'what is Aaron that ye murmur against him ?

12 And Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab. And they said, 'We will not 'come up. 13 Is it a small thing that thou hast
 'brought us up out of a land that floweth with 'milk and honey, to kill us in the desert, except
 'thou make thyself altogether a prince over us ?
 14 Moreover thou hast not brought us into a land 'that floweth with milk and honey, or given us in'heritance of fields and vineyards. Wilt thou put 'out the eyes of these men ? We will not come 'up.' 15 And Moses was very wroth, and said to Jehovah, 'Respect not thou their meal offering ;
 'I have not taken one ass from them, neither have
 'I hurt one of them.'

16 And Moses said to Korah, 'Be thou and all 'thy company before Jehovah, thou, and they, and
 'Aaron, to-morrow. 17 And take ye every man his
 'censer, and put incense on them, and bring ye
 'before Jehovah every man his censer, two hundred 'and fifty censers ; thou also, and Aaron, each of 'you his censer.' 18 And they took every man his censer, and put fire in them, and laid incense thereon, and stood at the doorway of the Tent of Meeting with Moses and Aaron. 19 And Korah assembled all the congregation against them to the doorway of the Tent of Meeting ; and the glory of Jehovah appeared unto all the congregation.

20 And Jehovah spake to Moses and to Aaron, saying, 21 'Separate yourselves from among this 'congregation, that I may consume them in a 'moment.' 22 And they fell upon their faces and said, 'O El [for God], thou God of the spirits of all 'flesh, shall one man sin, and wilt thou be wroth
 'with all the congregation ?' 23 And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, 24 'Speak to the congrega'tion, saying, Get you up from about the dwelling of 'Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.' 25 And Moses rose up and went to Dathan and Abiram ; and the elders of Israel followed him. 26 And he spake to the congregation saying, 'Depart, I pray you,
 'from the tents of these wicked men, and touch
 'nothing of theirs, lest ye be consumed in all their 'sins.' 27 So they got up from the dwelling of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, on every side ; and Dathan and Abiram came out, and stood in the doorway of their tents, with their wives, and their sons, and their little ones. 28 And Moses said,

 'Hereby ye shall know that Jehovah hath sent me
 'to do all these works ; for they are not done of 'mine own mind. 29 If these men die the common
 'death of all men, or if they be visited after the 'visitation of all men ; then Jehovah hath not sent 'me. 30 But if Jehovah create a new thing, and
 'the earth open her mouth, and swallow them up,
 'with all that belong to them, and they go down
 'alive into the grave ; then ye shall understand 'that these men have provoked Jehovah.' 31 And it came to pass, as he had made an end of speaking all these words, that the ground that was under them clave asunder. 32 And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up and their houses, and all the men that belonged unto Korah, and all their goods. 33 They, and all that belonged to them, went down alive into the grave, and the earth closed upon them ; and they perished from among the assembly. 34 And all Israel that were round about them fled at their cry ; for they said,
 'Lest the earth swallow us up also.'

35 And there came out a fire from Jehovah, and consumed the two hundred and fifty men that brought the incense. 36 And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, 37 'Speak to Eleazar the son of Aaron
 'the priest, that he take up the censers out of the 'burning, and scatter thou the fire yonder ; 38 for 'these sinners against their own souls have hallowed
 'the censers ; and let them be made into broad 'plates as a coating for the Altar. For they 'brought them before Jehovah, therefore they are
 'hallowed ; and they shall be a sign unto the chil'dren of Israel.' 39 And Eleazar the priest took the copper censers, which they that were burnt had brought ; and they beat them out into a coating for the altar, 40 to be a memorial to the children of Israel, in order that no stranger, who is not of the seed of Aaron, should come near to burn incense before Jehovah ; and that he be not as Korah, and as his company ; as Jehovah had said to him by the hand of Moses.

41 But on the morrow all the congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron, saying, 'Ye have killed the people 'of Jehovah.' 42 And it came to pass, when the congregation was assembled against Moses and against Aaron, that they looked toward the Tent of Meeting ; and behold, the cloud covered it, and the glory of Jehovah was seen. 43 And Moses and Aaron came before the Tent of Meeting. 44 And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, 45 'Get you up
 'from among this congregation, that I may con'sume them as in a moment.' And they fell upon their faces. 46 And Moses said to Aaron, 'Take a 'censer, and put fire thereon from off the altar, and
 'add incense, and go quickly to the congregation, and 'make atonement for them ; for there is wrath
 'gone out from Jehovah ; the plague is begun.'
 47 And Aaron took as Moses said, and ran into the midst of the assembly ; and behold, the plague was begun among the people. And he put on incense, and made atonement for the people. ³⁸ And he stood before the dead and the living; and the plague was stayed. ⁴⁰ Now they that died in the plague were fourteen thousand and seven hundred, beside them that died about the matter of Korah. ⁵⁰ And Aaron returned to Moses to the doorway of the Tent of Meeting; and the plague was stayed.

¹⁷ And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ² 'Speak to the children of Israel, and take from every one of them a staff for the house of their fathers, from all their princes for the house of their fathers twelve staffs. Write thou every man's name upon his staff. ³ And thou shalt write Aaron's name upon the staff of Levi; for one staff shall be for the head of the house of their fathers. ⁴ And thou shalt lay them up in the Tent of Meeting before the Testimonials, where I am met by you. ⁵ And it shall come to pass, that the man's staff, whom I shall choose, shall blossom; and I will make to cease from me the murmurings of the children of Israel which they murmur against you.'

¹² And the children of Israel spake to Moses, saying, 'Behold, we die, we perish, we all perish. ¹³ Whosoever cometh anywise near to the Tabernacle of Jehovah will die. Have we not yet ended our dying?'

¹⁸ And Jehovah said to Aaron, 'Thou and thy sons and thy father's house with thee shall bear the iniquity of the Sanctuary; and thou and thy sons with thee shall bear the iniquity of your PRIESTHOOD. ² And thy brethren also of the tribe of Levi [or those joined], the tribe of thy father, bring thou with thee, that they may be joined to thee, and minister to thee; but thou and thy sons with thee shall be before the Tent of the Testimonials. ³ And they shall keep thy charge, and the charge of all the Tent; only they shall not come nigh unto the holy vessels and the Altar, that neither they, nor ye also, die. ⁴ And they shall be joined to thee, and keep the charge of the Tent of Meeting, for all the services of the Tent; and a stranger shall not come nigh unto you. ⁵ And ye shall keep the charge of the Holy Place, and the charge of the Altar; that there be no wrath any more upon the children of Israel. ⁶ And I, behold, I have taken your brethren the Levites from among the children of Israel; to you they are given as a gift for Jehovah, to do the service of the Tent of Meeting. ⁷ Therefore thou and thy sons with thee shall keep your priest's office for everything belonging to the Altar, and within the Veil; and ye shall do the service; I will give to you your priesthood as a gift; and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death.'

⁸ And Jehovah spake to Aaron, 'Behold, I also have given to thee the charge of my heave offerings of all the hallowed things of the children of Israel; to thee have I given them as a portion, and to thy sons, by a statute for ever. ⁹ THIS SHALL BE THINE out of the most holy things, reserved from the fire; every Gift of theirs, even every meal offering of theirs, and every sin offering of theirs, and every guilt offering of theirs, which they shall render to me, shall be most holy for thee and for thy sons. ¹⁰ In the most holy place shalt thou eat it; every male shall eat it; it shall be holy unto thee. ¹¹ And this is thine; the heave offering of their gift, with all the wave offerings of the children of Israel, I have given them to thee, and to thy sons and to thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever; every one that is clean in thy house shall eat of it. ¹² All the best of the oil, and all the best of the grape juice, and of the corn, the first of them which they shall give to Jehovah, these have I given thee; ¹³ the firstfruits of all that is in their land, which they shall bring to Jehovah, shall be thine; every one that is clean in thy house shall eat of it. ¹⁴ Every thing devoted in Israel shall be thine. ¹⁵ Every thing that openeth the womb [or is first-born] in all flesh, which they bring to Jehovah, whether of men or beasts, shall be thine. Nevertheless the first-born of man shalt thou surely cause to be redeemed, and the firstlings of unclean beasts shalt thou cause to be redeemed. ¹⁶ And those that are to be redeemed, from a month old shalt thou cause to be redeemed, according to thy valuation, for the money of five Shekels, after the holy Shekel, which is twenty Gerahs. ¹⁷ But the firstling of a cow, or the firstling of a sheep, or the firstling of a goat, thou shalt not cause to be redeemed; they are holy; thou shalt sprinkle their blood upon the altar, and shalt burn their fat as incense for an offering made by fire, for a sweet savour unto Jehovah. ¹⁸ And the flesh of them shall be thine, as the wave breast and as the right leg are thine. ¹⁹ All the heave offerings of the holy things which the children of Israel heave up unto Jehovah, have I given to thee, and to thy sons and thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever; it is a covenant of salt for ever before Jehovah to thee and to thy seed with thee.'

²⁰ And Jehovah said to Aaron, 'Thou shalt have 'no inheritance in their land, neither shalt thou have any portion among them; I am thy portion and thine inheritance among the children of Israel. ²¹And behold, I have given to the children of Levi all THE TITHES in Israel for an inheritance, in exchange for their work which they do in the service of the Tent of Meeting. ²²Neither must the children of Israel henceforth come nigh the Tent of Meeting, lest they bear sin and die. ²³But the Levites shall do the service of the Tent of Meeting, and they shall bear their iniquity. ²⁴This shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations, that among the children of Israel they have no inheritance whatever. ²⁵But the tithes of the children of Israel, which they heave up as a heave offering unto Jehovah, I have given to the Levites to inherit; therefore, I have said to them, Among the children of Israel they shall have no inheritance whatever.'

²⁵And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ²⁶'Thus shalt thou speak to the Levites, and say to them, When ye take from the children of Israel the tithes which I have given to you from them for your inheritance, then ye shall heave up out of it a heave offering for Jehovah, even a TENTH PART OF THE TITHE. ²⁷And this your heave offering shall be reckoned unto you, as though it were the corn of the threshing-floor, and as the fulness of the wine-press. ²⁸Thus out of all your tithes, which ye receive of the children of Israel, ye also shall heave up a heave offering unto Jehovah; and ye shall give thereof Jehovah's heave offering to Aaron the priest. ²⁹Out of all your gifts ye shall heave up every heave offering of Jehovah, out of all the best thereof, even the hallowed part thereof out of it. ³⁰Therefore thou shalt say to them, When ye have heaved the best thereof from it, then [the rest of] it shall be counted to the Levites as the increase of the threshing-floor, and as the increase of the wine-press. ³¹And ye shall eat it in every place, ye and your households; for it is your wages in exchange for your service in the Tent of Meeting. ³²And ye shall bear no sin by reason of it, when ye have heaved from it the best of it; neither shall ye pollute the holy things of the children of Israel, lest ye die.'

19 And Jehovah spake to Moses and to Aaron, saying, ²'This is the statute of the law which Jehovah hath commanded, saying, Speak to the children of Israel, that they bring to thee a red heifer without spot, wherein is no blemish, and upon which never came yoke. ³And ye shall give her to Eleazar the priest, that he may bring her forth without the camp, and one shall slay her before his face. ⁴And Eleazar the priest shall take some of her blood with his finger, and sprinkle some of her blood directly before the Tent of Meeting seven times. ⁵And one shall burn the heifer in his sight; her skin, and her flesh, and her blood, with her dung, shall he burn. ⁶And the priest shall take cedar wood, and hyssop, and bright scarlet, and cast it into the midst of the burning of the heifer. ⁷Then the priest shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp, and the priest shall be unclean until the evening. ⁸And he that burneth her shall wash his clothes in water, and bathe his flesh in water, and shall be unclean until the evening. ⁹And a man that is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer, and lay them up without the camp in a clean place, and it shall be kept for the congregation of the children of Israel for a WATER OF SEPARATION; it is a purification for sin. ¹⁰And he that gathereth up the ashes of the heifer, shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the evening. And this shall be unto the children of Israel, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among them, for a statute for ever. ¹¹He that toucheth the dead body of any man shall be unclean seven days. ¹²He shall purify himself from the sin with it on the third day, and on the seventh day he shall be clean; but if he purify not himself on the third day, then on the seventh day he shall not be clean. ¹³Whosoever toucheth the dead body of any man that is dead, and purifieth not himself, defileth the Tabernacle of Jehovah; and that soul shall be cut off from Israel; because the Water of Separation was not sprinkled upon him, he shall be unclean; his uncleanness is yet upon him.

¹⁴This is the law, when a man dieth in a tent; all that come into the tent, and all that is in the tent, shall be unclean seven days. ¹⁵And every open vessel, which hath no covering tied over it, is unclean. ¹⁶And whosoever in the open fields toucheth one that is slain with a sword, or a dead body, or the bone of a man, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days. ¹⁷And for an unclean person they shall take some of the dust of the burnt [heifer] of purification for sin, and running water shall be put thereto in a vessel. ¹⁸And a clean person shall take hyssop, and dip it in the water, and sprinkle it upon the tent, and upon all the vessels, and upon the persons that were there, and upon him that touched the bone, or the one slain, or the dead body, or the grave. ¹⁹And the clean person shall sprinkle upon the unclean on the third day, and on the seventh day; and on the seventh day he shall purify himself from the sin, and wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and he shall be clean at evening. ²⁰But the man that shall be unclean, and shall not purify himself, that soul shall be cut off from among the assembly, because he hath defiled the Sanctuary of Jehovah; the Water of Separation hath not been sprinkled upon him; he is unclean. ²¹And it shall be a perpetual statute unto them, that he that sprinkleth the Water of Separation shall wash his clothes; and he that toucheth the Water of Separation shall be unclean until evening. ²²And whosoever the unclean person toucheth shall be unclean; and the soul that toucheth it shall be unclean until evening.'

20 Then came the children of Israel, even the whole congregation, INTO THE DESERT OF ZIN in the first month; and the people abode in Kadesh; and Miriam died there, and was buried there. ² And there was no water for the congregation; and they assembled themselves against Moses and against Aaron. ³ And the people strove with Moses, and spake, saying, 'Oh that we had died when our brethren died before Jehovah!' ⁴ And why have ye brought the assembly of Jehovah into this desert, that we and our beasts should die there? ⁵ And wherefore have ye made us to come up out of Lower Egypt, to bring us to this evil place? 'It is no place of seed, or of figs, or of vines, or of pomegranates; neither is there any water to drink.' ⁶ And Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly to the doorway of the Tent of Meeting, and they fell upon their faces; and the glory of Jehovah appeared to them.

⁷ And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ⁸ 'Take the Staff [that budded], and assemble thou the congregation, thou, and Aaron thy brother, and speak ye to the rock before their eyes, that it give forth its water; and thou shalt bring forth to them water out of the rock; so thou shalt give the congregation and their beasts drink.' ⁹ And Moses took the staff from before Jehovah, as he commanded him. ¹⁰ And Moses and Aaron assembled the assembly together before the rock, and he said to them, 'Hear now, ye rebels; must we fetch you water out of this rock?' ¹¹ And Moses lifted up his hand, and with his staff he smote the rock twice; and the water came out abundantly, and the congregation drank, and their beasts also. ¹² And Jehovah said to Moses and Aaron, 'Because ye believed me not, to sanctify me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore ye shall not bring this assembly into the land which I have given them.' ¹³ This is the water of Meribah [for Strife]; because the children of Israel strove with Jehovah, and he was sanctified in them.

¹⁴ And Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom, [saying], 'Thus saith thy brother Israel, Thou knowest all the trouble that hath befallen us; ¹⁵ how our fathers went down into Lower Egypt, and we have dwelt in Lower Egypt a long time; and the Egyptians illtreated us, and our fathers. ¹⁶ And when we cried unto Jehovah, he heard our voice, and sent an angel, and hath brought us forth out of Lower Egypt; and behold, we are in Kadesh, a city in the uttermost of thy boundary. ¹⁷ Let us pass, I pray thee, through thy country. We will not pass through the fields, or through the vineyards, neither will we drink of the water of the wells; we will go by the king's highway; we will not turn to the right hand nor to the left, until we have passed thy boundaries.' ¹⁸ And Edom said to him, 'Thou shalt not pass by me, lest I come out against thee with the sword.' ¹⁹ And the children of Israel said to him, 'We will go by the highway; and if I and my cattle drink of thy water, then will I pay the price of it. I will only, without doing 'anything else, go through on my feet.' ²⁰ And he said, 'Thou shalt not go through.' And Edom came out against him with much people, and with a strong hand. ²¹ Thus Edom refused to give Israel passage through his boundary; wherefore Israel turned away from him.

²¹ And when the king of Arad, the Canaanite, who dwelt in the South country, heard tell that Israel was coming by the way of the spies; then he fought against Israel, and took some of them prisoners. ² And Israel vowed a vow to Jehovah, and said, 'If thou wilt indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will utterly destroy their cities.' ³ And Jehovah hearkened to the voice of Israel, and delivered up the Canaanites; and they utterly destroyed them and their cities; and he called the name of the place Hormah [for Destruction].

⁴ And they journeyed from mount Hor by the way of the Red sea, to go round the land of Edom. And the soul of the people was much discouraged on the way. ⁵ And the people spake against God, and against Moses, 'Wherefore have ye brought us up out of Lower Egypt to die in the desert? for there is no bread nor water; and our soul loatheth this light bread.' ⁶ And Jehovah sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people; and much people of Israel died. ⁷ Therefore the people came to Moses, and said, 'We have sinned, for we have spoken against Jehovah, and against thee; pray to Jehovah, that he take away the serpents from us.' And Moses prayed for the people. ⁸ And Jehovah said to Moses, 'Make to thee a fiery serpent, and set it upon a standard; and it shall come to pass, that every one that is bitten, when he looketh upon it, shall live.' ⁹ And Moses made a serpent of copper, and put it upon a standard; and it came to pass, that if a serpent had bitten any man, when he looked upon the serpent of copper, he lived.

¹⁰ And the children of Israel journeyed, and pitched in Oboth.

¹¹ And they journeyed from Oboth, and pitched at Aim of the Hebrews, in the desert which is before Moab, toward the sunrise.

¹² From thence they journeyed, and pitched in the valley of the Zered.

¹³ From thence they journeyed, and pitched on the other side of the Arnon, which is in the desert that cometh out of the boundary of the Amorites; for the Arnon is the boundary of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites. ¹⁴ Wherefore it is said in the book of the Wars;

‘Jehovah showed himself at the Red Sea;

‘And at the brooks of the Arnon;

¹⁵ And at the source of the brooks that turn to ‘Shebeth-Ar,

‘And lean upon the boundary of Moab.

¹⁶ And from thence they went to Beer [or the Well]; that is the well whereof Jehovah spake to Moses, ‘Gather the people together, and I will ‘give them water.’ ¹⁷ Then Israel sang this song,

‘Spring up, O well; (Sing ye unto it);

¹⁸ O well, which the princes digged,

‘The nobles of the people hollowed out,

‘With the staff of power, with their staves.’

And from the desert they went to Mattanah;

¹⁹ and from Mattanah to Nahaliel;

and from Nahaliel to Bamoth;

²⁰ and from Bamoth to the valley, that is in the country of Moab, to the top of Pisgah, which is seen over the face of the Wilderness.

²¹ And Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, saying, ²² ‘Let me pass through thy ‘land. We will not turn into the fields, or into ‘the vineyards; we will not drink of the waters of ‘the well; but we will go along by the king’s ‘highway, until we be past thy boundaries.’ ²³ And Sihon would not suffer Israel to pass through his boundary; but Sihon gathered all his people together, and went out against Israel into the desert. And he came to Jahazab, and fought against Israel.

²⁴ And Israel smote him with the edge of the sword, and possessed his land from the Arnon unto the Jabbok, even unto the children of Ammon. For the boundary of the Children of Ammon was strong.

²⁵ And Israel took all these cities; and Israel dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all its suburbs. ²⁶ For Heshbon was the city of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab, and taken all his land out of his hand, even unto the Arnon.

²⁷ Therefore they that speak in proverbs say,

‘Come into Heshbon, let it be built,

‘And let the city of Sihon be prepared;

²⁸ For a fire is gone out of Heshbon,

‘A flame from the city of Sihon;

‘It hath devoured Ar of Moab,

‘And the lords of the high places of the Arnon.

²⁹ Alas for thee, O Moab!

‘Thou art undone, O people of [the god] Chemosh;

‘He hath given his sons into flight,

‘And his daughters into captivity,

‘Unto Sihon king of the Amorites.

³⁰ And their sown fields hath Heshbon destroyed ‘unto Dibon.

‘And their waste fields unto Nophah, which is by ‘Medeba.’

³¹ Thus Israel dwelt in the land of the Amorites. ³² And Moses sent to spy out Jaazer, and they took its suburbs, and dispossessed the Amorites that were there.

³³ And they turned and went up by the way of Bashan. And Og the king of Bashan went out against them, he, and all his people, to battle at Edrei. ³⁴ And Jehovah said to Moses, ‘Fear him ‘not; for I have delivered him into thy hand, ‘and all his people, and his land; and thou shalt ‘do to him as thou didst to Sihon king of the ‘Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon.’ ³⁵ So they smote him, and his sons, and all his people, until there was no one remaining left to him; and they possessed his land.

²² And the children of Israel journeyed, and pitched in the barren plains of Moab beyond the Jordan by Jericho.

² AND BALAK THE SON OF ZIPPOR saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites. ³ And Moab was sore afraid, because of the people, for they were many; and Moab was distressed because of the children of Israel. ⁴ And Moab said to the elders of Midian, ‘Now this company will lick up ‘all that are round about us, as the ox licketh up ‘the grass of the field.’ And Balak the son of Zippor was king of Moab at that time. ⁵ He sent messengers therefore to BALAAM the son of Beor to Pethor, which is by the River [Euphrates], in the land of the children of his people, to call him, saying, ‘Behold, there is a people come out from ‘Lower Egypt; behold, they cover the face of the ‘earth, and they abide over against me. ⁶ Come ‘now therefore, I pray thee, curse for me this ‘people; for they are too mighty for me. Peradventure I shall be able to smite them, and I shall ‘drive them out of the land; for I know that he ‘whom thou blessest is blessed, and he whom thou ‘cursest shall be cursed.’ ⁷ And the elders of Moab and the elders of Midian departed with instruments of divination in their hand; and they came to Balaam, and spake to him the words of Balak. ⁸ And he said to them, ‘Lodge here this ‘night, and I will bring you word again, according ‘as Jehovah shall speak to me.’ And the princes of Moab abode with Balaam. ⁹ And God came to Balaam, and said, ‘What men are these with thee?’ ¹⁰ And Balaam said to God, ‘Balak the son of ‘Zippor, king of Moab, hath sent to me, [saying,] ‘Behold, there is a people come out of Lower ‘Egypt, who cover the face of the earth. Come ‘now, curse them for me; peradventure I shall be ‘able to overcome them, and shall drive them out.’ ¹¹ And God said to Balaam, ‘Thou shalt not go ‘with them; thou shalt not curse the people; for ‘they are blessed.’ ¹² And Balaam rose up in the morning, and said to the princes of Balak, ‘Get ‘you into your land; for Jehovah refuseth to give 'me leave to go with you.' ¹⁴ And the princes of Moab rose up, and they went to Balak, and said, 'Balaam refuseth to come with us.'

¹⁵ And Balak sent yet again princes, more, and more honourable than they. ¹⁶ And they came to Balaam, and said to him, 'Thus saith Balak the son of Zippor, Let nothing, I pray thee, hinder thee from coming to me. ¹⁷ For I will greatly honour thee, and I will do whatsoever thou sayest to me. Come therefore, I pray thee, curse for me this people.' ¹⁸ And Balaam answered and said to the servants of Balak, 'If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the command of Jehovah my God, to do less or more. ¹⁹ Now therefore, I pray you, tarry ye also here this night, that I may know what Jehovah will say to me more.' ²⁰ And God came to Balaam at night, and said to him, 'If the men are come to call thee, rise up and go with them; but yet the word which I shall say to thee, that shalt thou do.'

²¹ And Balaam rose up in the morning, and saddled his ass, and went with the princes of Moab. ²² And God's anger was kindled because he went. And the angel of Jehovah placed himself in the way for a hinderer against him. Now he was riding upon his ass, and his two servants were with him. ²³ And the ass saw the angel of Jehovah standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand. And the ass turned aside out of the way, and went into the field. And Balaam smote the ass, to turn her into the way. ²⁴ But the angel of Jehovah stood in a hollow path in the vineyards, with a fence on this side, and a fence on that side. ²⁵ And when the ass saw the angel of Jehovah, she squeezed herself to the wall, and squeezed Balaam's foot against the wall; and he smote her again. ²⁶ And the angel of Jehovah went further, and stood in a narrow place, where was no way to turn either to the right hand or to the left. ²⁷ And when the ass saw the angel of Jehovah, she lay down under Balaam. And Balaam's anger was kindled, and he smote the ass with a stick. ²⁸ And Jehovah opened the mouth of the ass, and she said to Balaam, 'What have I done to thee, that thou hast smitten me these three times?' ²⁹ And Balaam said to the ass, 'Because thou hast mocked me; I would there were a sword in my hand, for now would I kill thee.' ³⁰ And the ass said to Balaam, 'Am not I thine ass, upon which thou hast ridden ever since I was thine unto this day. Was I ever wont to do so to thee?' And he said, 'Nay.' ³¹ Then Jehovah opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the angel of Jehovah standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand. And he bowed down his head, and fell flat on his face. ³² And the angel of Jehovah said to him, 'Wherefore hast thou smitten thine ass these three times? Behold, I went out to be a hinderer, because the way is dangerous in front of me. ³³ And the ass saw me, and turned from me these three times. Unless she had turned from me, surely now also I

'had slain thee, and saved her alive.' ³⁴ And Balaam said to the angel of Jehovah, 'I have sinned; for I knew not that thou stoodest in the way against me. Now therefore, if it displeaseth thee, I will get me back again.' ³⁵ And the angel of Jehovah said to Balaam, 'Go with the men; but only the word that I shall speak to thee, that thou shalt speak.' So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

³⁶ And when Balak heard that Balaam was come, he went out to meet him to a city of Moab, which is on the boundary of the Arnon, which is on the utmost boundary. ³⁷ And Balak said to Balaam, 'Did I not earnestly send to thee to call thee? Wherefore camest thou not to me? Am I not able indeed to honour thee?' ³⁸ And Balaam said to Balak, 'Lo, I am come to thee. Have I now any power at all to say any thing? The word that God putteth into my mouth, that I shall speak.'

³⁹ And Balaam went with Balak, and they came to the City of Huzoth. ⁴⁰ And Balak sacrificed oxen and sheep, and sent to Balaam, and to the princes that were with him.

⁴¹ And it came to pass on the morrow, that Balak took Balaam, and brought him up to Bamoth-Baal [or the High places of Baal], that thence he might see the utmost part of the people. ²³ And Balaam said to Balak, 'Build for me here seven altars, and prepare for me here seven oxen and seven rams.' ³ And Balak did as Balaam had spoken; and Balak and Balaam offered up on every altar a bullock and a ram. ³ And Balaam said to Balak, 'Place thyself by thy burnt offering, and I will go. Peradventure Jehovah will happen to meet me; and whatsoever he showeth me I will tell thee.' And he went to the heights. ⁴ And God met Balaam. And he said to Him, 'I have prepared seven altars, and I have offered up on every altar a bullock and a ram.' ⁵ And Jehovah put a word into Balaam's mouth, and said, 'Return to Balak, and thus thou shalt speak.' ⁶ And he returned to him, and lo, he was placed by his burnt offering, he, and all the princes of Moab. ⁷ And he took up his parable, and said,

'Balak hath brought me from Syria,
'The king of Moab out of the mountains of the East;
[Saying,] Come, curse for me Jacob;
'And come, defy Israel.—

⁸ How shall I curse him, whom God hath not 'cursed?

'Or how shall I defy him, whom Jehovah hath not 'defied?

⁹ For from the top of the rocks I see him,
'And from the hills I look round upon him.

'Lo, the people shall dwell alone,
'And shall not reckon themselves among the Nations.

¹⁰ Who can count the dust of Jacob,
'Or the number of the fourth part of Israel?

'May my soul die the death of the righteous,
'And may my last end be like theirs!

¹¹ And Balak said to Balaam, 'What hast thou

'done to me? I took thee to curse mine enemies, and behold, thou hast blessed them altogether.'
¹² And he answered and said, 'Must I not take heed to speak that which Jehovah hath put into my mouth?'

¹³ And Balak said to him, 'Come, I pray thee, with me to another place, from whence thou mayest see them. Thou shalt see but the utmost part of them, and shalt not see them all; and curse them for me from thence.'

¹⁴ And he brought him into a field with a wide view, on the top of Pisgah, and built seven altars, and offered up a bullock and a ram on every altar.
¹⁵ And [Balaam] said to Balak, 'Place thyself here by thy burnt offering, while I meet [Jehovah] yonder.'
¹⁶ And Jehovah met Balaam, and put a word into his mouth, and said, 'Go again to Balak and say thus.'
¹⁷ And when he came to him, behold, he had placed himself by his burnt offering, and the princes of Moab with him. And Balak said to him, 'What hath Jehovah spoken?'
¹⁸ And he took up his parable, and said,

'Rise up, Balak, and hear;
 'Hearken unto me, thou son of Zippor;
¹⁹ God is not a man, that he should lie;
²⁰ Neither a son of Adam, that he should repent.
 'Hath he said, and will he not do it?
 'Or hath he spoken, and will he not perform it?
²¹ Behold, I have received a command to bless;
 'And He hath blessed; and I cannot reverse it.
²² He hath not beheld iniquity in Jacob.
 'Neither hath he seen perverseness in Israel;
 'Jehovah his God is with him,
 'And the shout of a king is among them.
²³ God brought them forth out of Lower Egypt,
 'He was to them as the strength of the buffalo.

²⁴ Surely there can be no enchantment against Jacob,
 'Neither can there be any divination against Israel;
 'In a fit time it shall be told to Jacob
 'And to Israel what God hath wrought.
²⁵ Behold, the people shall rise up as an African lion,
 'And lift himself up as a lion;
 'He shall not lie down until he eat of the prey,
 'And drink the blood of the slain.'

²⁶ And Balak said to Balaam, 'Thou neither cursest them wholly, nor blessest them wholly.'
²⁷ But Balaam answered and said to Balak, 'Told not I thee, saying, All that Jehovah shall speak, that I must do?'

²⁸ And Balak said to Balaam, 'Come, I pray thee, I will bring thee to another place; peradventure it will please God that thou mayest curse them for me from thence.'
²⁹ And Balak brought Balaam to the top of Peor, that is seen over the face of the Wilderness.
³⁰ And Balaam said to Balak, 'Build for me here seven altars, and prepare for me here seven bullocks and seven rams.'
³¹ And Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered up a bullock and a ram on every altar.

³² And Balaam saw that it pleased Jehovah to bless Israel, and he went not, as at other times, to seek for enchantments, but he set his face toward the desert.

³³ And Balaam lifted up his eyes, and he saw Israel encamped according to their tribes; and the spirit of God came upon him.
³⁴ And he took up his parable and said,

'It is the inspired word of Balaam the son of Beor, and the inspired word of the man whose eyes were opened,
³⁵ the inspired word of him who heard the words of God, who saw the vision of the Almighty, falling [into a trance], but having his eyes uncovered.

³⁶ How goodly are thy tents, O Jacob,
 'And thy tabernacles, O Israel!
³⁷ As the valleys are they spread forth,
 'As gardens by the river's side,
 'As lign-aloes which Jehovah hath planted,
 'As cedar trees beside the waters.
³⁸ Waters shall flow out of his buckets,
 'And his seed shall be on many waters;
 'And his king shall be higher than Agag [or the Amalekites],
 'And his kingdom shall be exalted.
³⁹ God brought him forth out of Lower Egypt,
 'He was to him as the strength of the buffalo.

'He shall eat up the nations his enemies,
 'And shall break their bones,
 'And shall pierce them through with his arrows.
⁴⁰ He stooped down, he lay down as a lion [Gen. xlix. 9],
 'And as an African lion; who shall rouse him up?
 'Blessed be he that blesseth thee,
 'And cursed be he that curseth thee' [G. xxvii. 29].

⁴¹ And Balak's anger was kindled against Balaam, and he smote his hands together. And Balak said to Balaam, 'I called thee to curse mine enemies, and behold, thou hast altogether blessed them these three times.
⁴² Therefore now flee thou to thy place. I said, I would greatly honour thee; but lo, Jehovah hath kept thee back from honour.'
⁴³ And Balaam said to Balak, 'Spake I not also to thy messengers whom thou sentest to me, saying,
⁴⁴ If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the command of Jehovah, to do either good or bad of mine own mind? What Jehovah shall say, that will I speak.
⁴⁵ And now, behold, I go to my people.

'(Come, I will inform thee what this people will do to thy people in the latter days.'
⁴⁶ And he took up his parable, and said, 'It is the inspired word of Balaam the son of Beor, and the inspired word of the man whose eyes were opened;
⁴⁷ the inspired word of him who heard the words of God, and knew the knowledge of the Most High, who saw the vision of the Almighty, falling [into a trance], but having his eyes uncovered.

⁴⁸ I shall see him, but not now;
 'I shall look round upon him, but not nigh.
 'There will come a Star [or Maccabee] out of Jacob,
 'And a Sceptre will rise out of Israel,
 'And he will smite the sides of Moab,

'And destroy all the children of tumult.

¹⁸And Edom will be a possession [1 Macc. v. 3],

'Seir also will be the possession of its enemies,

'And Israel will do valiantly.

¹⁹One sprung from Jacob will have dominion,

'And will destroy those that remain from the city.'

²⁰And he looked on Amalek, and he took up his parable, and said, 'Amalek was the first of the 'nations; but his latter end will be that he perish 'for ever.'

²¹And he looked on the Kenites, and took up his parable, and said, 'Strong is thy dwelling 'place, and thou puttest thy nest in the Rock [or 'Petra]. ²²Nevertheless, the Kenite will be 'wasted. Till when will Asshur [or Syria] carry 'thee captive?'

²³And he took up his parable, and said, 'Alas, 'who shall be alive when God doeth this? ²⁴And 'galleys from the coast of Chittim [or the Romans] 'will even afflict Asshur [or the Syrians]; and 'they will afflict Eber [or the Hebrew people]. 'But however, he himself [Antiochus] will perish 'for ever' [1 Macc. vi. 16].)

²⁵And Balaam rose up, and went and returned to his place; and Balak also went upon his way.

²⁵And Israel abode in Shittim, and the people began to commit fornication with the daughters of Moab, ²who called the people to the sacrifices of their gods. And the people did eat, and bowed down to their gods. ³And Israel joined himself to Baal-peor; and the anger of Jehovah was kindled against Israel. ⁴And Jehovah said to Moses, 'Take all the chiefs of the 'people, and hang them up before Jehovah against 'the sun, that the fierceness of the anger of Jeho- 'vah may be turned away from Israel.' ⁵And Moses said to the judges of Israel, 'Slay ye every 'one his men that were joined to Baal-peor.'

¹⁰And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ¹¹'Phi- 'nehas, the son of Eleazar the son of Aaron, the 'priest, hath turned my wrath away from the 'children of Israel, while he was jealous with my 'jealousy among them, and I consumed not the 'children of Israel in my jealousy. ¹²Therefore 'say thou, Behold I give to him my covenant of 'peace. ¹³And he shall have it, and his seed after 'him, even the covenant of an everlasting priest'hood; because he was jealous for his God, and 'made atonement for the children of Israel.'

¹⁴Now the name of the Israelite that was slain, even that was slain with the Midianitish woman, was Zimri, the son of Salu, a prince of the house of his father among the Simeonites. ¹⁵And the name of the Midianitish woman that was slain was Cozbi, the daughter of Zur; he was head of the tribe of his father's house in Midian.

¹⁶And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ¹⁷'Vex 'the Midianites, and smite them. ¹⁸For they vex 'you with their wives, wherewith they have be- 'guiled you in the matter of Peor, and in the 'matter of Cozbi, the daughter of a prince of 'Midian, their sister, who was slain in the day of 'the plague for the matter of Peor.'

²⁶And it came to pass after the plague, that Jehovah spake to Moses, and to Eleazar the son of Aaron, the priest, saying, ²'Take the sum of 'ALL THE CONGREGATION of the children of Israel, 'from twenty years old and upward, after their 'fathers' house, all in Israel that are able to go 'forth to war.' ³And Moses and Eleazar the priest spake with him in the barren plains of Moab by the Jordan near Jericho, saying, * * *

⁴Those from twenty years old and upward, as Jehovah commanded Moses, even the children of Israel, who went forth out of the land of Lower Egypt, were ⁵REUBEN, the eldest son of Israel; the sons of Reuben; Hanoch, and the family of the Hanochites; of Pallu, the family of the Palluites; ⁶of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites; of Carmi, the family of the Carmites. ⁷These are the families of the Reubenites. And they that were registered of them were three and forty thousand and seven hundred and thirty. ⁸And the sons of Pallu; Eliab. ⁹And the sons of Eliab; Nemuel, and Dathan, and Abiram. This is that Dathan and Abiram, the chosen men of the congregation, who strove against Moses and against Aaron in the company of Korah, when they strove against Jehovah; ¹⁰and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up together with Korah, when that company died, when the fire devoured two hundred and fifty men; and they became an example. ¹¹Notwithstanding the children of Korah died not.

¹²The sons of SIMEON after their families; of Nemuel, the family of the Nemuelites; of Jamin, the family of the Jaminites; of Jachin, the family of the Jachinites; ¹³of Zarah, the family of the Zarhites; of Shaul, the family of the Shaulites, ¹⁴These are the families of the Simeonites, two and twenty thousand and two hundred.

¹⁵The sons of GAD after their families; of Zephon, the family of the Zephonites; of Haggi, the family of the Haggites; of Shuni, the family of the Shunites; ¹⁶of Ozni, the family of the Oznites; of Eri, the family of the Erites; ¹⁷of Arod, the family of the Arodites; of Areli, the family of the Arelites. ¹⁸ These are the families of the sons of Gad according to those that were registered of them, forty thousand and five hundred.

¹⁹ The sons of JUDAH were Er and Onan; and Er and Onan had died in the land of Canaan. ²⁰ And the sons of Judah after their families were; of Shelah, the family of the Shelanites; of Pharez, the family of the Pharezites; of Zarah, the family of the Zarhites. ²¹ And the sons of Pharez were; of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites; of Hamul, the family of the Hamulites. ²² These are the families of Judah according to those that were registered of them, six and seventy thousand and five hundred.

²³ The sons of ISSACHAR after their families; Tola and the family of the Tolaites; of Pua, the family of the Punites; ²⁴ of Jashub, the family of the Jashubites; of Shinron, the family of the Shinronites. ²⁵ These are the families of Issachar according to those that were registered of them, four and sixty thousand and three hundred.

²⁶ The sons of ZEBULUN after their families; of Sered, the family of the Seredites; of Elon, the family of the Elonites; of Jahleel, the family of the Jahleelites. ²⁷ These are the families of the Zebulunites according to those that were registered of them, sixty thousand and five hundred.

³⁵ These are the sons of EPHRAIM after their families; of Shuthelah, the family of the Shuthelites; of Becher, the family of the Becherites; of Tahan, the family of the Tahanites. ³⁶ And these are the sons of Shuthelah; of Eran, the families of the Eranites. ³⁷ These are the families of the sons of Ephraim according to those that were registered of them, two and thirty thousand and five hundred. These are the sons of Joseph after their families.

³⁸ The sons of BENJAMIN after their families; of Bela, the family of the Belaites; of Ashbel, the family of the Ashbelites; of Ahiram, the family of the Ahiramites; ³⁹ of Shephupham, the family of the Shuphamites; of Hupham, the family of the Huphamites. ⁴⁰ And the sons of Bela were Ard and Naaman, and the family of the Ardites; and of Naaman, the family of the Naamites. ⁴¹ These are the sons of Benjamin after their families; and they that were registered of them were five and forty thousand and six hundred.

⁴² These are the sons of DAN after their families; of Shuham, the family of the Shuhamites. These are the families of Dan after their families. ⁴³ All the families of the Shuhamites, according to those that were registered of them, were four and sixty thousand and four hundred.

⁴⁸ The sons of NAPHTALI after their families were, of Jahzeel, the family of the Jahzeelites; of Guni, the family of the Gunites; ⁴⁹ of Jezer, the family of the Jezerites; of Shillem, the family of the Shillemites. ⁵⁰ These are the families of Naph-tali after their families; and they that were registered of them were five and forty thousand and four hundred. ⁵¹ These were registered of the children of Israel, six hundred thousand and a thousand seven hundred and thirty.

⁵² And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ⁵³ 'Unto these the land shall be divided for an inheritance according to the number of names. ⁵⁴ To those that are many thou shalt give the greater inheritance, and to those that are few thou shalt give the less inheritance; to every one shall his inheritance be given according to those that were registered of him. ⁵⁵ Notwithstanding the land shall be divided by casting lots; according to the names of the tribes of their fathers they shall inherit. ⁵⁶ According to the lot shall the inheritance thereof be divided between the many and the few.'

⁵⁷ And these are they that were registered of the LEVITES after their families; of Gershon, the family of the Gershonites; of Kohath, the family of the Kohathites; of Merari, the family of the Merarites. ⁵⁸ These are the families of the Levites; the family of the Libnites, the family of the Hebronites, the family of the Mahlites, the family of the Mushites, the family of the Korahites. And Kohath begat Amram. ⁵⁹ And the name of Amram's wife was Jochebed, the daughter of Levi, whom her mother bare to Levi, in Lower Egypt. And she bare to Amram, Aaron and Moses, and Miriam their sister. ⁶⁰ And unto Aaron was born Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. ⁶¹ And Nadab and Abihu died, when they brought strange fire before Jehovah. ⁶² And those that were registered of them were three and twenty thousand, all males from a month old and upward; for they did not register themselves among the children of Israel, because there was no inheritance given them among the children of Israel.

⁶³ These are they that were registered by Moses and Eleazar the priest, who registered the children of Israel in the barren plains of Moab by the Jordan near Jericho. ⁶⁴ But among these there was not a man of them whom Moses and Aaron the priest registered, when they registered the children of Israel in the desert of Sinai. ⁶⁵ For Jehovah had said of them, 'They shall surely die in the desert.' And there was not left a man of them, save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun.

27 Then came the DAUGHTERS OF ZELOPHEHAD, the son of Hephher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of Manasseh the son of Joseph; and these are the names of his daughters; Mahlah, Noah, and Hoglah, and Milcah and Tirzah. ² And they stood before Moses, and before Eleazar the priest, and before the princes and all the congregation, by the doorway of the Tent of Meeting, saying, ³ 'Our father died in the desert, and he was not in the company of them that gathered themselves together against Jehovah in the company of Korah; but he died in his own sin, and had no sons. ⁴ Why should the name of our father be done away from among his family because he hath no son? Give to us a possession among the brethren of our father.' ⁵ And Moses brought their cause before Jehovah. ⁶ And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ⁷ 'The daughters of Zelophehad speak right. Thou shalt surely give them a possession of an inheritance among their father's brethren; and thou shalt cause the inheritance of their father to pass unto them. ⁸ And thou shalt speak to the children of Israel, saying, If a man die and have no son, then ye shall cause his inheritance to pass to his daughter. ⁹ And if he have no daughter, then ye shall give his inheritance to his brethren. ¹⁰ And if he have no brethren, then ye shall give his inheritance to his father's brethren. ¹¹ And if his father have no brethren, then ye shall give his inheritance to his kinsman that is next to him of his family, and he shall possess it.' And this is unto the children of Israel a statute of judgment, as Jehovah commanded Moses.

¹⁵ And Moses spake to Jehovah, saying, ¹⁶ 'Let Jehovah, the God of the spirits of all flesh, set a man over the congregation, who may go out before them, and who may go in before them, and who may lead them out, and who may bring

'them in; that the congregation of Jehovah be not as sheep that have no shepherd.' ¹⁸ And Jehovah said to Moses, 'Take to thee Joshua the son of Nun, a man in whom is the spirit, and lay thy hand upon him; ¹⁹ and set him before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation; and give him a charge in their sight. ²⁰ And thou shalt put some of thine honour upon him so that all the congregation of the children of Israel may be obedient. ²¹ And he shall stand before Eleazar the priest, who shall ask counsel for him after the judgment of the Urim before Jehovah. At his command shall they go out, and at his command they shall come in, both he, and all the children of Israel with him, even all the congregation.' ²² And Moses did as Jehovah commanded him. And he took Joshua, and set him before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation; ²³ and he laid his hands upon him, and gave him a charge, as Jehovah commanded by the hand of Moses.

28 And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ² 'Command the children of Israel, and say to them, The Gifts of my bread for the offerings made by fire, for a sweet savour unto me, shall ye observe to bring to me in their due season. ³ And thou shalt say to them, This is the offering made by fire which ye shall bring to Jehovah; two lambs of the first year without spot DAY BY DAY, for a continual burnt offering. ⁴ The one lamb shalt thou offer in the morning, and the other lamb shalt thou offer at twilight [or between the evenings]; ⁵ and a tenth part of an Ephah [or of a bushel] of flour for a meal offering, mingled with the fourth part of a Hin [or of ten pints] of beaten oil. ⁶ It is a continual burnt offering, which was ordained at mount Sinai [Exod. xix. 38] for a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto Jehovah. ⁷ And the drink offering thereof shall be the fourth part of a Hin for the one lamb; in the Holy Place shalt thou cause the strong wine to be poured unto Jehovah for a drink offering. ⁸ And the other lamb shalt thou offer at twilight. As the meal offering of the morning, and as its drink offering, thou shalt offer it, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto Jehovah.

⁹ And on the SABBATH DAY two lambs of the first year without spot, and two tenth parts of flour for a meal offering, mingled with oil, and its drink offering. ¹⁰ This is the burnt offering of the sabbath in its week, beside the continual burnt offering, and its drink offering.

¹¹ And in the BEGINNINGS OF FOUR MONTHS ye shall bring a burnt offering to Jehovah; two young bullocks, and one ram, seven lambs of the first year without spot; ¹² and three tenth parts of flour for a meal offering, mingled with oil, for each bullock; and two tenth parts of flour for a meal offering, mingled with oil, for the one ram; ¹³ and a tenth part of flour mingled with oil, for a meal offering for each lamb; for a burnt offering of a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto Jehovah. ¹⁴ And their drink offerings shall be half a

'Hin for wine for a bullock, and the third part of a Hin for a ram, and a fourth part of a Hin for a lamb. This is the burnt offering of the new moon in its month throughout the months of the year.

¹⁵ And one he goat for a sin offering unto Jehovah shall be offered, beside the continual burnt offering, and its drink offering.

¹⁶ And in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, is THE PASSOVER of Jehovah.

¹⁷ And on the fifteenth day of this month is the FEAST; seven days shall unleavened bread be eaten.

¹⁸ On the first day shall be a holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work therein; ¹⁹ but ye shall bring an offering made by fire for a burnt offering unto Jehovah; two young bullocks and one ram, and seven lambs of the first year. They shall be unto you without blemish; ²⁰ and their meal offering shall be of flour mingled with oil;

three tenth parts shall ye offer for a bullock, and two tenth parts for a ram; ²¹ a tenth part shalt thou offer for every lamb, throughout the seven lambs; ²² and one goat for a sin offering, to make atonement for you. ²³ Ye shall offer these beside the burnt offering in the morning, which is for a continual burnt offering. ²⁴ After this manner ye shall offer daily, throughout the seven days, the bread belonging to the offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto Jehovah; it shall be offered beside the continual burnt offering, and its drink offering. ²⁵ And on the seventh day ye shall have a holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work.

²⁶ Also on the Day of the First-fruits, when ye bring a new meal offering to Jehovah, in your [FEAST OF] WEEKS [or Pentecost], ye shall have a holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work.

²⁷ But ye shall bring a burnt offering for a sweet savour unto Jehovah; two young bullocks, one ram, seven lambs of the first year; ²⁸ and their meal offering of flour mingled with oil, three tenth parts for each bullock, two tenth parts for the one ram, ²⁹ a tenth part for each lamb, throughout the seven lambs; ³⁰ and one he goat, to make atonement for you. ³¹ Ye shall offer them beside the continual burnt offering, and its meal offering (they shall be unto you without blemish), and their drink offerings.

²⁹ And in the seventh month, on the first day of the month, ye shall have a holy convocation;

ye shall do no servile work; it is the day of BLOWING TRUMPETS unto you. ² And ye shall offer a burnt offering for a sweet savour unto Jehovah, one young bullock, one ram, and seven lambs of the first year without blemish. ³ And their meal offering shall be of flour mingled with oil, three tenth parts for the bullock, and two tenth parts for the ram, ⁴ and one tenth part for each lamb, throughout the seven lambs; ⁵ and one he goat for a sin offering, to make atonement for you;

⁶ (beside the burnt offering of the new moon, and its meal offering, and the continual burnt offering, and its meal offering, and their drink offerings, according to their ordinance,) for a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto Jehovah.

⁷ And on the tenth day of this seventh month ye shall have a holy convocation, and ye shall

AFFLICT YOUR SOULS [or fast]. Ye shall not do any work therein; ⁸ but ye shall bring a burnt offering unto Jehovah for a sweet savour; one young bullock, one ram, and seven lambs of the first year; they shall be unto you without blemish.

⁹ And their meal offering shall be of flour mingled with oil, three tenth parts to the bullock, and two tenth parts to the one ram, ¹⁰ a tenth part for each lamb, throughout the seven lambs; ¹¹ one he goat for a sin offering; beside the sin offering of atonement, and the continual burnt offering, and the meal offering of it, and their drink offerings.

¹² And on the fifteenth day of the seventh month ye shall have a holy convocation, ye shall do no servile work, and ye shall keep THE FEAST [of Tabernacles] unto Jehovah during seven days.

¹³ And ye shall bring a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto Jehovah;

thirteen young bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year; they shall be without blemish. ¹⁴ And their meal offering shall be of flour mingled with oil, three tenth parts for every bullock of the thirteen bullocks, two tenth parts for each ram of the two rams, ¹⁵ and a tenth part for each lamb of the fourteen lambs; ¹⁶ and one he goat for a sin offering; beside the continual burnt offering, its meal offering, and its drink offering.

¹⁷ And on the second day twelve young bullocks, two rams, fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish. ¹⁸ And their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, according to their number, after the ordinance; ¹⁹ and one he goat for a sin offering;

beside the continual burnt offering, and its meal offering, and their drink offerings.

²⁰ And on the third day eleven bullocks, two rams, fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish. ²¹ And their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, according to their number, after the ordinance; ²² and one goat for a sin offering;

beside the continual burnt offering, and its meal offering, and its drink offering.

²³ And on the fourth day ten bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish. ²⁴ Their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, according to their number, after the ordinance; ²⁵ and one he goat for a sin offering;

beside the continual burnt offering, its meal offering, and its drink offering.

²⁶ And on the fifth day nine bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish. ²⁷ And their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, according to their number, after the ordinance; ²⁸ and one goat for a sin offering;

beside the continual burnt offering, and its meal offering, and its drink offering.

²⁹ And on the sixth day eight bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish. ³⁰ And their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, according to their number, after the ordinance; ³¹ and one goat for a sin offering;

beside the continual burnt offering, and its meal offering, and its drink offering.

³² And on the seventh day seven bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish. ³³ And their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and

²⁹ And on the sixth day eight bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs, of the first year without blemish. ³⁰ And their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, according to their number, after the ordinance; ³¹ and one goat for a sin offering; beside the continual burnt offering, its meal offering, and its drink offering.

30 And Moses spake to the heads of the tribes concerning the children of Israel, saying, 'This is the thing which Jehovah hath commanded. ² If a man Vow a Vow to Jehovah, or swear an oath to bind his soul with a bond, he shall not profane his word, he shall do according to all that proceedeth out of his mouth.

⁹ But the vow of a widow, or of her that is divorced, all wherewith she hath bound her soul, shall stand against her. ¹⁰ And if she vowed in her husband's house or bound her soul by a bond with an oath; ¹¹ and her husband heard, and held his peace at her, and disallowed her not; then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she bound her soul shall stand. ¹² But if her husband hath utterly made them void on the day he heard; then whatsoever proceedeth out of her lips concerning her vows, or concerning the bond of her soul, shall not stand; her husband hath made them void; and Jehovah will forgive her. ¹³ Every vow, and every binding oath to afflict the soul, her husband may establish it, or her husband may make it void. ¹⁴ But if her husband altogether hold his peace at her from day to day; then he establisheth all her vows, or all her bonds, which are upon her; he establisheth them, because he held his peace at her in the day that he heard. ¹⁵ But if he shall anyways make them void after that he hath heard; then he shall bear her iniquity.' ¹⁶ These are the statutes which Jehovah commanded Moses, between a man and his wife, between the father and his daughter, while she is in her youth in her father's house.

31 And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ² 'Avenge the children of Israel on the Midianites; afterward shalt thou be gathered to thy people.' ³ And Moses spake to the people, saying, 'Arm some of yourselves as men for the war, and let them go against the Midianites, to carry the vengeance of Jehovah against Midian. ⁴ Of every tribe a thousand, throughout all the tribes of Israel, shall ye send to the war.' ⁵ So there were set apart out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand of every tribe, twelve thousand armed for war. ⁶ And Moses sent them to the war, a thousand of every tribe, and Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, to the war, with the holy instruments and the trumpets to blow in his hand. ⁷ And they warred against the Midianites, as Jehovah commanded Moses; and they slew all the males. ⁸ And they slew the kings of Midian, with those that they overthrew: namely, Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, five kings of Midian; Balaam also the son of Beor they slew with the sword. ⁹ And the children of Israel took the women of Midian captives, and their little ones, and took as spoil all their cattle, and all their flocks, and all their goods. ¹⁰ And they burnt all their cities in the places where they dwelt, and all their strongholds, with fire. ¹¹ And they took all the spoil, and all the booty, both of men and of beasts. ¹² And they brought the captives, and the booty, and the spoil, to Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and to the congregation of the children of Israel, to the camp at the barren plains of Moab, which are by the Jordan near Jericho.

thousands, and captains over hundreds, who came from the army of the war. ¹⁵ And Moses said to them, 'Have ye saved all the women alive? ¹⁶ Behold, these caused the children of Israel, through the counsel of Balaam, to commit trespass against Jehovah in the matter of Peor, and there was a plague among the congregation of Jehovah. ¹⁷ Now therefore kill every man among the little ones, and kill every woman that hath known man by lying with him. ¹⁸ But all the women children, that have not known a man by lying with him, keep alive for yourselves. ¹⁹ And do ye abide without the camp seven days; whosoever hath killed any person, and whosoever hath touched any slain, purify both yourselves and your captives on the third day, and on the seventh day. ²⁰ And purify all your raiment, and all that is made of skins, and all work of goats' hair, and all things made of wood.' ²¹ And Eleazar the priest said to the men of war that went to the battle, 'This is the statute of the law which Jehovah commanded Moses; ²² only the gold, and the silver, the copper, the iron, the mixed metal, and the lead, ²³ everything that may abide the fire, ye shall make it pass through the fire, and it shall be clean; nevertheless it shall be purified with the Water of Separation; and all that abideth not the fire ye shall make pass through the water. ²⁴ And ye shall wash your clothes on the seventh day, and ye will be clean, and afterward ye may come into the camp.'

²⁵ And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ²⁶ 'Take the SUM OF THE BOOTY that was taken captive, both of man and of beast, thou, and Eleazar the priest, and the chief fathers of the congregation. ²⁷ And divide the booty into two parts; between them that took the war upon them, who went out to battle, and between all the congregation. ²⁸ And levy a tribute to Jehovah from the men of war who went out to battle; one soul out of five hundred, both of the persons, and of the beeves, and of the asses, and of the flocks; ²⁹ take it out of their half, and give it to Eleazar the priest, for a heave offering to Jehovah. ³⁰ And out of the children of Israel's half, thou shalt take one portion out of fifty, of the persons, of the beeves, of the asses, and of the flocks, of all manner of cattle, and give them to the Levites, who keep the charge of the Tabernacle of Jehovah.' ³¹ And Moses and Eleazar the priest did as Jehovah commanded Moses. ³² And the booty, being the rest of the prey which the men of the army had caught, was six hundred thousand and seventy thousand and five thousand sheep [or goats], ³³ and two and seventy thousand beeves, ³⁴ and one and sixty thousand asses, ³⁵ and two and thirty thousand persons in all, of women that had not known man by lying with him. ³⁶ And the half, which was the portion of them that went out to war, was in number three hundred thousand and thirty thousand and seven thousand, and five hundred sheep [or goats]. ³⁷ And the tribute to Jehovah of the flock was six hundred and seventy-five. ³⁸ And the beeves were six and thirty thousand; of which the tribute to Jehovah was two and seventy. ³⁹ And the asses were thirty thousand and five hundred; of which the tribute to Jehovah was one and sixty. ⁴⁰ And the persons were sixteen thousand; of which the tribute to Jehovah was two and thirty persons. ⁴¹ And Moses gave the tribute, which was the heave offering to Jehovah, to Eleazar the priest, as Jehovah had commanded Moses. ⁴² And out of the children of Israel's half, which Moses divided from the men that warred, (⁴³ now the half for the congregation was three hundred thousand and thirty thousand and seven thousand and five hundred sheep [or goats], ⁴⁴ and six and thirty thousand beeves, ⁴⁵ and thirty thousand and five hundred asses, ⁴⁶ and sixteen thousand persons,) ⁴⁷ even out of the children of Israel's half, Moses took one portion out of fifty, both of man and of beast, and gave them to the Levites, who kept the charge of the Tabernacle of Jehovah; as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

⁴⁸ And the officers that were over thousands of the host, the captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds, came near to Moses; ⁴⁹ and they said to Moses, 'Thy servants have taken the sum of the men of war that are under our charge, and there lacketh not one man of us. ⁵⁰ We have therefore brought a Gift for Jehovah, what every man hath found, of jewels of gold, ankle-chains, and bracelets, rings, earrings, and hanging drops, to make atonement for our souls before Jehovah.' ⁵¹ And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold from them, even all wrought jewels. ⁵² And all the gold of the heave offering that they offered up to Jehovah, from the captains of thousands, and from the captains of hundreds, was sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty Shekels. (⁵³ The men of the army had taken spoil, every man for himself.) ⁵⁴ And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold from the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it into the Tent of Meeting, for a memorial for the children of Israel before Jehovah.

32 Now the CHILDREN OF REUBEN and the CHILDREN OF GAD had a very great multitude of cattle; and when they saw the land of Jazer, and the land of Gilead, that behold, the place was a place for cattle; ² the children of Gad and the children of Reuben came and spake to Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and to the princes of the congregation, saying, ³ 'Ataroth, and Dibon, and Jazer, and Nimrah, and Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Sibam, and Nebo, and Beon [or Beth-maon], ⁴ even the country which Jehovah smote before the congregation of Israel, is a land for cattle; and thy servants have cattle; ⁵ therefore,' said they, 'if we have found grace in thy sight, let this land be given to thy servants for a possession, and bring us not over the Jordan.' ⁶ And Moses said to the children of Gad and to the children of Reuben, 'Shall your brethren go to war, and shall ye sit here? ⁷ And why discourage ye the heart of the children of Israel from going over into the land which Jehovah hath given them? ⁸ Thus did your fathers, when I sent them from Kadesh-barnea to see the land. ⁹ For when they went up unto the valley of Eshcol, and saw the land, they discouraged the heart of the children of Israel, that they should not go into the land which Jehovah had given them. ¹⁰ And the anger of Jehovah was kindled at that time, and he sware, saying, ¹¹ Surely none of the men that came up out of Lower Egypt, from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land of which I sware unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob; because they have not wholly followed me; ¹² save Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite, and Joshua the son of Nun; for they have wholly followed Jehovah. ¹³ And the anger of Jehovah was kindled against Israel, and he made them to wander in the desert for forty years, until all the generation, that had done evil in the sight of Jehovah, was consumed. ¹⁴ And behold, ye are risen up in your fathers' stead, an increase of sinful men, to augment yet the fierce anger of Jehovah toward Israel. ¹⁵ For if ye turn away from following him, he will yet again leave them in the desert; and ye will destroy all this people. ¹⁶ And they came near to him, and said, We will build walled sheepfolds here for our cattle, and cities for our little ones; ¹⁷ but we ourselves will hasten armed before the children of Israel, until we have brought them to their place. And our little ones shall dwell in the fenced cities because of the inhabitants of the land. ¹⁸ We will not return to our houses, until the children of Israel have gained for themselves every man his inheritance. ¹⁹ For we will not inherit with them beyond the Jordan and forward, because our inheritance is fallen to us beyond the Jordan eastward. ²⁰ And Moses said to them, If ye will do this thing, if ye will go armed before Jehovah to war, ²¹ and will go all of you armed over the Jordan before Jehovah, until he hath driven out his enemies from before him, ²² and the land be subdued before Jehovah; then afterward ye shall return, and be guiltless before Jehovah, and before Israel; and this land shall be your possession before Jehovah. ²³ But if ye will not do so, behold, ye have sinned against Jehovah; and be sure that your sin will find you out. ²⁴ Build you cities for your little ones, and walled folds for your flocks; and do that which hath proceeded out of your mouth. ²⁵ And the children of Gad and the children of Reuben spake to Moses, saying, Thy servants will do as my lord commandeth. ²⁶ Our little ones, our wives, our possessions, and all our cattle, shall be there in the cities of Gilead; ²⁷ but thy servants will cross over, every man armed for war, before Jehovah to battle, as my lord saith.

before Jehovah, and the land shall be subdued before you; then ye shall give them the land of Gilead for a possession. ³⁰ But if they will not cross over with you armed, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Canaan. ³¹ And the children of Gad and the children of Reuben answered, saying, As Jehovah hath said to thy servants, so will we do. ³² We will cross over armed before Jehovah into the land of Canaan, that the possession of our inheritance beyond the Jordan may be ours. ³³ And Moses gave to them, even to the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, and to half the tribe of Manasseh the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, the land, with its cities within the boundaries, even the cities of the country round about.

33 THESE ARE THE JOURNEYS of the children of Israel, who went forth out of the land of Lower Egypt with their armies under the hand of Moses and Aaron. ² And Moses wrote their goings out according to their journeys by the command of Jehovah; and these are their journeys according to their goings out. ³ And they removed from Rameses [or Heliopolis] in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month; on the morrow after the Passover the children of Israel went out with a high hand in the sight of all the Egyptians, while the Egyptians were burying all their first-born, whom Jehovah had smitten among them. Upon their gods also Jehovah executed judgments. ⁵ And the children of Israel removed from Rameses, and encamped at Succoth [or Scene, Exod. xii. 37].

⁶ And they removed from Succoth, and encamped at Etham [or Thoum], which is on the edge of the desert. [Exod. xiii. 20.]

¹⁰ And they removed from Elim, and encamped by the Red sea.

¹¹ And they removed from the Red sea, and encamped in the desert of Sin. [Exod. xvi. 1.]

¹² And they removed from the desert of Sin, and encamped at Dophkah [the Crushing place of the ore].

¹³ And they removed from Dophkah, and encamped in Alush [the Pounding place].

¹⁴ And they removed from Alush, and encamped at Rephidim [the Spreading place], where was no water for the people to drink. [Exod. xvii. 1.]

¹⁵ And they removed from Rephidim, and encamped in the desert of Sinai. [Exod. xix. 1.—Numb. x. 12.]

¹⁶ And they removed from the desert of Sinai, and encamped at the Burial-place at Taavah. [Numb. xi. 34.]

¹⁷ And they removed from the Burial-place at Taavah, and encamped at the Village. [Numb. xi. 35.]

¹⁸ And they removed from the Village, and encamped at Rithmah [or the Broom-bushes].

¹⁹ And they removed from Rithmah, and encamped at Rimmon-parez [or the Pomegranate Gap].

²⁰ And they removed from Rimmon-parez, and encamped at Libnah [or the White Poplars].

²¹ And they removed from Libnah, and encamped at Rissah [or the place of Dew, Exod. xvi. 13].

²² And they removed from Rissah, and encamped in Kehelathah [or the place of the Assemblies].

²³ And they removed from Kehelathah, and encamped at mount Shephar [or Serbal, Exod. xix. 2].

²⁴ And they removed from mount Shephar, and encamped at Haradah [or Tremblings, Ex. xix. 16].

²⁵ And they removed from Haradah, and encamped in Makeheloth [or Assemblings, Exod. xxxii. 1].

²⁶ And they removed from Makeheloth, and encamped at Tahath [or the Bottom, Exod. xxxii. 19].

²⁷ And they removed from Tahath, and encamped at Tarah.

²⁸ And they removed from Tarah, and encamped in Mithcah [or Sweetness].

²⁹ And they removed from Mithcah, and encamped in Hashmonah [or Fertility].

³⁰ And they removed from Hashmonah, and encamped at Mosera [or Chastisement, Deut. x. 6].

³¹ And they removed from Mosera, and encamped at [the Well of] the sons of Jaakan. [Deut. x. 6.]

³² And they removed from the Sons of Jaakan, and encamped at the Pass of Gidgad. [Deut. x. 7.]

³³ And they removed from the Pass of Gidgad, and encamped in Jotbathah [or Pleasantness, Deut. x. 7].

³⁴ And they removed from Jotbathah, and encamped at Ebronah [or the Passage].

³⁵ And they removed from Ebronah, and encamped at Ezion-gaber [or Man's bones].

³⁶ And they removed from Ezion-gaber and encamped in the desert of Zin, that is at Kadesh. [Numb. xx. 1.]

³⁷ And they removed from Kadesh, and encamped at mount Hor, on the edge of the land of Edom. [Numb. xx. 22.] ³⁸ And Aaron the priest went up on to mount Hor at the command of Jehovah, and died there, in the fortieth year after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Lower Egypt [A. M. 2707], in the fifth month on the first day of the month. ³⁹ And Aaron was a hundred and twenty and three years old when he died on mount Hor. ⁴⁰ And the king of Arad, the Canaanite, who dwelt in the South country, in the land of Canaan, heard of the coming of the children of Israel.

⁴¹ And they removed from mount Hor, and encamped in Zalmonah [or the place of Shade].

⁴² And they removed from Zalmonah, and encamped in Punon.

⁴³ And they removed from Punon, and encamped in Oboth [or the Reeds, Numb. xxi. 10].

⁴⁴ And they removed from Oboth, and encamped at Aim of the Hebrews, on the border of Moab. [Numb. xxi. 11.]

⁴⁵ And they removed from Aim, and encamped in Dibon of Gad. [Numb. xxi. 13.]

⁴⁶ And they removed from Dibon of Gad, and encamped in Almon near Diblathaim.

⁴⁷ And they removed from Almon near Diblathaim, and encamped on the mountains of the Hebrews, before Nebo.

⁴⁸ And they removed from the mountains of the Hebrews, and encamped in the barren plains of Moab, by the Jordan near Jericho [Numb. xxii. 1].

⁴⁹ And they encamped by the Jordan, from Bethjesimoth, even to the Meadows of Shittim in the barren plains of Moab. [Numb. xxv. 1.]

⁵⁰ And Jehovah spake to Moses in the barren plains of Moab by the Jordan near Jericho, saying,

⁵¹ 'Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, 'When ye are passed over the Jordan into the land 'of Canaan; ⁵² then ye shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, and destroy 'all their graven stones, and destroy all their 'molten images, and pluck down all their High 'Places [or altars]. ⁵³ And ye shall drive them 'out from the land, and shall dwell therein; for I 'have given you the land to possess it. ⁵⁴ And ye 'shall divide the land by casting lots for an inheritance among your families. To those who 'are many ye shall give the greater inheritance, 'and to those who are few ye shall give the less 'inheritance; every man's shall be in the place 'where his lot falleth; according to the tribes of 'your fathers ye shall take to yourselves the inheritance. ⁵⁵ But if ye will not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you; then it 'shall come to pass, that those whom ye let remain 'of them shall be pricks in your eyes, and thorns 'in your sides, and shall vex you throughout the 'land wherein ye dwell. ⁵⁶ Moreover it shall come to 'pass that I will do to you as I thought to do to them.'

⁵⁴ And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying,

² 'Command the children of Israel, and say to them, When ye come into the land of Canaan, this is the land that shall be divided by lots unto you for an inheritance, even the land of Canaan to the boundaries thereof, ³ and your SOUTH SIDE shall be from the desert of Zin along by the borders of Edom, and your south boundary at the east shall be the outmost point of the Salt Sea. ⁴ And your boundary shall turn southward by the hill road of Akrabbin, and pass on to Zin; and the going forth thereof shall be on the south to Kadesh-barnea, and shall go on to the Village, to Adar, and pass on to Azemon. ⁵ And the boundary shall fetch a compass from Azemon to the valley of Lower Egypt, and the goings forth of it shall be at the sea.

⁶ And as for the WEST BOUNDARY, ye shall even have the Great Sea for a boundary; this shall be your west boundary.

¹⁰ And ye shall point out your EAST BOUNDARY from the Village of Ainen to Shepham. ¹¹ And the boundary shall go down from Shepham to Riblah, on the east side of Ain; and the boundary shall go down, and shall sweep along the east side of the Sea of Chinnereth [or Gennesaret]. ¹² And the boundary shall go down by the Jordan, and the goings out of it shall be at the Salt Sea. This shall be your land with its boundaries round about.'

¹³ And Moses commanded the children of Israel, saying, 'This is the land which ye shall take as an inheritance by casting lots, which Jehovah commanded to give to the nine tribes, and to the half tribe; ¹⁴ for the tribe of the children of the Reubenites according to the house of their fathers, and the tribe of the children of the Gadites according to the house of their fathers, have received their inheritance; and half the tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance. ¹⁵ The two tribes and the half tribe have received their inheritance beyond the Jordan near Jericho, in the east toward the sunrising.'

¹⁶ And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ¹⁷ 'These are the names of the men who shall divide the land unto you as an inheritance; Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun. ¹⁸ And ye shall take one prince of every tribe, to divide the land for inheritance. ¹⁹ And the names of the men are these;

'Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Je-phunneh.

²⁰ And of the tribe of the children of Simeon, Shemuel the son of Ammihud.

²¹ Of the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad the son of Chilson.

²² And the prince of the tribe of the children of Dan, Bukki, the son of Jogli.

²³ The prince of the children of Joseph, for the tribe of the children of Manasseh, Hanniel the son of Ephod.

²⁴ And the prince of the tribe of the children of Ephraim, Kemuel the son of Shiphtan.

²⁵ And the prince of the tribe of the children of Zebulun, Elizaphan the son of Parnach.

²⁶ And the prince of the tribe of the children of Issachar, Paltiel the son of Azzan.

²⁷ And the prince of the tribe of the children of Asher, Ahihud the son of Shelomi.

²⁸ And the prince of the tribe of the children of Naphtali; Pedahel the son of Ammihud.'

²⁹ These are they whom Jehovah commanded to divide the inheritance unto the children of Israel in the land of Canaan.

35 And Jehovah spake to Moses in the barren plains of Moab by the Jordan near Jericho, saying, ² 'Command the children of Israel, that they give to the LEVITES out of the inheritance of their possession CITIES to dwell in; and ye shall give also to the Levites pasture lands for the cities round about them. ³ And the cities shall they have to dwell in; and the pasture lands of them shall be for their cattle, and for their goods, and for all their beasts. ⁴ And the pasture lands of the cities, which ye shall give to the Levites, shall reach from the wall of the city and outward a thousand cubits round about. ⁵ And ye shall measure on the outside of the city an east side of two thousand cubits, and a south side of two thousand cubits, and a west side of two thousand cubits, and a north side of two thousand cubits; and the city shall be in the midst. This shall be to them the pasture lands of the cities. ⁶ And among the cities which ye shall give to the Levites there shall be six cities for refuge, which ye shall appoint for the manslayer, that he may flee thither; and to them ye shall add forty and two cities. ⁷ All the cities which ye shall give to the Levites shall be forty and eight cities, them and their pasture lands. ⁸ And the cities which ye shall give shall be out of the possession of the children of Israel. From them that have many ye shall give many; but from them that have few ye shall give few; every one shall give some of his cities to the Levites according to his inheritance which he inheriteth.'

⁹ And Jehovah spake to Moses, saying, ¹⁰ 'Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, When ye have passed over the Jordan into the land of Canaan; ¹¹ then ye shall appoint for you cities to be CITIES OF REFUGE for you; that the manslayer may flee thither, who killeth any person unawares. ¹² And they shall be unto you cities for refuge from the avenger [or next akin]; that the manslayer die not, until he stand before the congregation in judgment. ¹³ And of the cities which ye shall give, six cities shall ye have for refuge. ¹⁴ Ye shall give three cities beyond the Jordan, and

'three cities shall ye give in the land of Canaan, which shall be cities of refuge. ¹⁵ These six cities shall be a refuge, both for the children of Israel, and for the stranger, and for the sojourner among them; that every one that killeth any person unawares may flee thither. ¹⁶ And if he smite him with an instrument of iron, so that he die, he is a murderer; the murderer shall surely be put to death. ¹⁷ And if he smite him with a stone from the hand, wherewith he may die, and he die, he is a murderer; the murderer shall surely be put to death. ¹⁸ Or if he smite him with a hand weapon of wood, wherewith he may die, and he die, he is a murderer; the murderer shall surely be put to death. ¹⁹ The avenger of blood himself shall slay the murderer; when he meeteth him, he shall slay him. ²⁰ And if he thrust him in hatred, or hurl at him by laying of wait, that he die; ²¹ or in enmity smite him with his hand that he die; he that smote him shall surely be put to death; for he is a murderer; the avenger of blood shall slay the murderer, when he meeteth him. ²² But if he thrust him suddenly without enmity, or have cast upon him any instrument without laying of wait, ²³ or with any stone wherewith a man may die, seeing him not, and it fall upon him, that he die, and he was not his enemy, neither sought his harm; ²⁴ then the congregation shall judge between him that smote and the avenger of blood according to these judgments. ²⁵ And the congregation shall deliver the manslayer out of the hand of the avenger of blood, and the congregation shall restore him to the city of his refuge, whither he was fled; and he shall abide in it until the death of the high priest, who had been anointed with the holy oil. ²⁶ But if the manslayer shall at any time come without the boundary of the city of his refuge, whither he was fled; ²⁷ and the avenger of blood find him without the boundary of the city of his refuge, and the avenger of blood kill the manslayer, blood shall not be upon him; ²⁸ because he should have remained in the city of his refuge until the death of the high priest. But after the death of the high priest the manslayer shall return into the land of his possession. ²⁹ So these things shall be for a statute of judgment unto you throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

³⁰ Whoso killeth any person, the murderer shall be put to death by the mouth of two witnesses; but one witness shall not testify against any person to cause him to die. ³¹ And ye shall take no ransom for the life of a murderer, who is guilty of death; but he shall surely be put to death. ³² And ye shall take no ransom for him that is fled to the city of his refuge, that he should come again to dwell in the land until the death of the priest. ³³ So ye shall not pollute the land wherein ye are; for blood it polluteth the 'land; and there can be no atonement for the land from the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of him that shed it. ³⁴ Defile not therefore the land which ye shall inhabit, wherein I myself dwell; for I Jehovah dwell among the children of Israel.'

36 And the chiefs of the fathers of the families of the children of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of the sons of Joseph, came near and spake before Moses, and before the princes, the chiefs of the fathers of the children of Israel; and they said, 'Jehovah commanded my lord [Numb. xxvii.] to give the land for an inheritance by lot to the children of Israel; and my lord was commanded by Jehovah to give the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother to his daughters. ³ But if they be married to any of the sons of the other tribes of the children of Israel, then will their inheritance be taken from the inheritance of our fathers, and will be added to the inheritance of the tribe whereunto they are received; so it will be taken from the lot of our inheritance. ⁴ And when the jubilee of the children of Israel shall be, then will their inheritance be added to the inheritance of the tribe whereunto they are received; so will their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.' ⁵ And Moses commanded the children of Israel according to the word of Jehovah, saying, 'The tribe of the sons of Joseph hath said well. ⁶ This is the thing which Jehovah doth command concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, Let them be wives to whom they think best; only within the family of the tribe of their father shall they be wives. ⁷ So the inheritance of the children of Israel shall not move about from tribe to tribe; for every one of the children of Israel shall keep himself to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers. ⁸ And every daughter that possesseth an inheritance in any tribe of the children of Israel, shall be wife to one of the family of the tribe of her father, so that the children of Israel may possess every man the inheritance of his fathers. ⁹ And the inheritance shall not move about from one tribe to another tribe; but every one of the tribes of the children of Israel shall keep itself to its own inheritance.' ¹⁰ Even as Jehovah commanded Moses, so did the daughters of Zelophehad; ¹¹ for Mahlah, Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, were married to their father's brothers' sons. ¹² They were married into the families of the sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of the family of their father. ¹³ These are the commands and judgments which Jehovah commanded by the hand of Moses unto the children of Israel in the barren plains of Moab by the Jordan near Jericho.

THE BOOK OF DEUTERONOMY.

1 THUS far are the words which Moses spake to all Israel beyond the Jordan, in the Desert, in the Arabah [or Barren Valley], over against the Red Sea, between Paran and Tophel, even at Libnah, and at the village [of Paran], and at Dizahab.

² There are eleven days' journeys from Horeb on the way towards mount Seir unto Kadesh-barnea.

³ AND IT CAME TO PASS in the fortieth year [A.M. 2707], in the eleventh month, on the first day of the month, that Moses spake to the children of Israel, according to all that Jehovah had given him in command unto them; ⁴ after he had slain Sihon the king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, who dwelt at Ashtaroth in Edrei. ⁵ Beyond the Jordan, in the land of Moab, began Moses to explain this law, saying, ⁶ Jehovah our God spake to us in Horeb, saying, Ye have dwelt long enough in this hill country. ⁷ Turn you, and take your journey, and go to the hill country of the Amorites and to all their neighbours, in the Barren Valley, in the Hill country, and in the Low country, and in the South country, and by the sea coast, which is the land of the Canaanites, and to Lebanon, as far as the Great River, the river Euphrates. ⁸ See, I have set the land before you; go ye in and possess the land which Jehovah gave unto your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give to them and to their seed after them.

⁹ And I spake to you at that time [Numb. xi. 14], saying, I am not able to bear you myself alone. ¹⁰ Jehovah your God hath multiplied you, and behold, ye are this day as the stars of the heavens for multitude. ¹¹ (May Jehovah the God of your fathers make you a thousand times so many more as ye are, and bless you, as he hath promised you!) ¹² How can I myself alone bear your cumbrance, and your burden, and your strife? ¹³ Take to yourselves men, wise, and understanding, and known among your tribes, and I will make them your chiefs. ¹⁴ And ye answered me and said, The thing which thou hast spoken is good to be done. ¹⁵ So I took the chiefs of your tribes [Exod. xviii. 25], men wise and known, and made them chiefs over you, captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds, and captains of fifties, and captains of tens, and officers among your tribes. ¹⁶ And I commanded your judges at that time, saying, Hear the causes between your brethren, and judge righteously between every man and his brother, and the stranger that is with him. ¹⁷ Ye shall not respect persons in judgment; ye shall hear the small as well as the great; ye shall not be afraid of the face of man, for the judgment is God's; and the cause that is too hard for you, bring it unto me, and I will hear it. ¹⁸ And I commanded you at that time all the things which ye should do.

¹⁹ And when we departed from Horeb we went through all that great and terrible desert, which ye saw by the way of the hill country of the Amorites, as Jehovah our God commanded us; and we came to Kadesh-barnea [Numb. xii. 16]. ²⁰ And I said to you, Ye are come to the hill country of the Amorites, which Jehovah our God hath given to us. ²¹ See, Jehovah thy God hath set the land before thee. Go up and possess it, as Jehovah the God of thy fathers hath said to thee; fear not, neither be discouraged. ²² And ye came near to me every one of you, and said, We will send men before us, and they shall search out the land for us, and bring word again to us by what way we must go up, and into what cities we shall come. ²³ And the saying pleased me well; and I took twelve men of you, one for each tribe [Numb. xiii. 1]; ²⁴ and they turned and went up to the hill country, and came unto the valley of Eshcol, and spied it out. ²⁵ And they took some of the fruit of the land in their hands, and brought it down to us, and brought us word again, and said, It is a good land which Jehovah our God hath given to us.

²⁶ Notwithstanding ye would not go up, but rebelled against the commands of Jehovah your God. ²⁷ And ye murmured in your tents, and said, Because Jehovah hated us, he hath brought us forth out of the land of Lower Egypt, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites to destroy us. ²⁸ Whither are we going up? Our brethren have made our heart faint, saying, The people is greater and taller than we; the cities are great and walled up to the heavens; and moreover we have seen the sons of the Anakites [or Giants] there. ²⁹ Then I said to you, Dread not, neither be afraid of them. ³⁰ Jehovah your God who goeth before you, he will fight for you, according to all that he did for you in Lower Egypt before your eyes; ³¹ and in the desert, where thou hast seen how that Jehovah thy God bare thee, as a man doth bare his son, in all the way that ye went, until ye came into this place.

' he hath wholly followed Jehovah. ³⁷ Also Jehovah was angry with me for your sakes, saying, Thou also shalt not go in thither. ³⁸ But Joshua the son of Nun, who standeth before thee, he shall go in thither; encourage him; for he shall cause Israel to inherit it. ³⁹ Moreover your little ones, which ye said should be a prey, and your children, who in that day had no knowledge between good and evil, they shall go in thither, and to them will I give it, and they shall possess it. ⁴⁰ But as for you turn you, and take your journey into the desert by the way of the Red Sea.

⁴¹ Then ye answered and said to me, We have sinned against Jehovah; we will go up and fight, according to all that Jehovah our God commanded us. And when ye had girded on every man his weapons of war, ye were ready to go up into the hill country. ⁴² And Jehovah said to me, Say to them, Go not up, neither fight; for I am not among you; lest ye be smitten before your enemies. ⁴³ So I spake to you; and ye would not hear, but rebelled against the commands of Jehovah, and went presumptuously up into the hill country. ⁴⁴ And the Amorites, who dwelt in that hill country, came out against you, and chased you, as bees do, and smote you in Seir, even to Hormah. ⁴⁵ And ye returned and wept before Jehovah; but Jehovah would not hearken to your voice, nor give ear to you. ⁴⁶ And ye dwelt in Kadesh as many days as the days that ye had been dwelling there.

dwelt therein in times past, a people great, and many, and tall, as the Anakites; ¹¹ who also were accounted giants, as the Anakites; but the Moabites call them Emites [or Terrible ones]. ¹² The Horites [or Men of Caves] also dwelt in Seir beforetime; but the children of Esau dispossessed them, and destroyed them from before them, and dwelt in their stead; as Israel had done to the land of his possession, which Jehovah gave to them.) ¹³ Now rise up, and get you over the brook Zered.

¹⁴ And we went over the brook Zered. ¹⁴ And the time in which we came from Kadesh-barnea, until we passed over the brook Zered, was thirty and eight years; until all the generation of the men of war were wasted out from among the camp, as Jehovah had sworn to them. ¹⁵ For indeed the hand of Jehovah was against them, to destroy them from among the camp, until they were consumed.

¹⁶ So it came to pass, when all the men of war were consumed and dead from among the people, ¹⁷ that Jehovah spake to me, saying, ¹⁸ Thou art this day to pass by Ar, the boundary of Moab. ¹⁹ And when thou comest nigh over against the Children of Ammon, distress them not, nor meddle with them; for I will not give thee any of the land of the Children of Ammon for a possession; because I have given it to the children of Lot for a possession. ²⁰ (That also was accounted a land of giants. Giants dwelt therein in old time; and the Ammonites call them Zamzummites; ²¹ a people great, and many, and tall, as the Anakites. But Jehovah destroyed them from before them, and dispossessed them; and they dwelt in their stead; ²² as he did for the children of Esau, who dwell in Seir, when he destroyed the Horites from before them, and dispossessed them; and they dwell in their stead even unto this day. ²³ And as for the Avites who dwell in villages, even unto Gaza, them the Caphtorites [or Philistines], who came forth out of Caphtor [in the Delta], destroyed, and dwelt in their stead.) ²⁴ Rise ye up, take your journey, and pass over the river Arnon. See, I have given into thy hand Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land; begin to possess it, and contend with him in battle. ²⁵ This day will I begin to put the dread of thee and the fear of thee upon the peoples that are under the whole heavens, that shall hear report of thee, and shall tremble, and be in anguish because of thee.

²⁶ And I sent messengers out of the desert of Kedemoth unto Sihon king of Heshbon [Numb. xxi. 21], with words of peace, saying, ²⁷ Let me pass through thy land by the highway. I will go by the highway, I will neither turn to the right hand nor to the left. ²⁸ Thou shalt sell me food for money, that I may eat, and shalt give me water for money, that I may drink; only I will pass through on my feet; ²⁹ (as the children of Esau who dwell in Seir, and the Moabites who dwell in Ar, did unto me;) until I shall pass over

'the Jordan into the land which Jehovah our God
'giveth us. ³⁰ But Sihon king of Heshbon would 'not let us pass through him; for Jehovah thy 'God hardened his spirit, and made his heart ob'stinate, so that he might deliver him into thy
'hand, as at this day.

³¹ And Jehovah said to me, See, I have begun 'to give Sihon and his land before thee; begin to
'dispossess him, that thou mayest possess his land.
'³² Then Sihon came out against us, he and all his 'people, to fight at Jahazah. ³³ And Jehovah our 'God delivered him up before us; and we smote
'him, and his sons, and all his people. ³⁴ And we 'took all his cities at that time, and utterly de'stroyed the men, and the women, and the little 'ones, of every city; we left none to remain. ³⁵ The 'cattle only took we for a prey unto ourselves, and
'the spoil of the cities which we took. ³⁶ From
'Aroer, which is by the edge of the valley [or
'chasm] of the Arnon, and the city that is in the 'valley, even unto Gilead, there was not one city
'too strong for us; Jehovah our God delivered up
'all before us. ³⁷ Only unto the land of the Chil'dren of Ammon thou camest not, nor unto any 'place on the river Jabbok, nor to the cities in the 'hill country, nor to whatsoever Jehovah our God
'forbad us.

'³ Then we turned, and went up the way to
'Bashan. And Og the king of Bashan came out 'against us, he and all his people to battle at
'Edrei [Numb. xxi. 33]. ² And Jehovah said to me,
'Fear him not; for I will deliver him, and all his
'people, and his land, into thy hand; and thou 'shalt do unto him as thou didst unto Sihon king
'of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon. ³ So
'Jehovah our God delivered into our hands Og
'also, the king of Bashan, and all his people; and
'we smote him until no one was left to him re'maining. ⁴ And we took all his cities at that 'time, there was not a city which we took not from 'them, sixty cities, all the region of Argob, the 'kingdom of Og in Bashan. ⁵ All these cities were
'fenced with high walls, doors, and cross-bars;
'besides towns of the villagers a great many. ⁶ And
'we utterly destroyed them, as we had done to 'Sihon king of Heshbon, utterly destroying the 'men, women, and little ones, of every city. ⁷ But 'all the cattle, and the spoil of the cities, we took
'to ourselves for a prey. ⁸ And we took at that 'time out of the hand of the two kings of the 'Amorites the land that was beyond the Jordan,
'from the river Arnon unto mount Hermon; ⁹ (the
'Sidonians call Hermon Sirion; and the Amorites
'call it Senir;) ¹⁰ 'all the cities of the Table-land,
'and all Gilead, and all Bashan, unto Salchah and
'Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.' ¹¹ (For only Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of the giants. Behold, his bedstead was a bedstead of iron; is it not in Rabbah of the Children of Ammon? Nine cubits was its length, and four cubits its breadth, after the cubit of a man.)

¹² 'And this land, which we possessed at that 'time, from Aroer, which is by the river Arnon,

'and half the hill country of Gilead, and the cities
'thereof, gave I to the Reubenites and to the 'Gadites. ¹³ And the rest of Gilead, and all Bashan,
'being the kingdom of Og, gave I to the half tribe
'of Manasseh; all the region of Argob, with all
'Bashan, which was called the Land of the Giants.
'¹⁴ Jair the son of Manasseh took all the region of 'Argob to the boundary of the Geshurites and the 'Maachathites; and called them after his own
'name in Bashan, the Hamlets of Jair, unto this 'day. ¹⁵ And I gave Gilead to Machir. ¹⁶ And to 'the Reubenites and to the Gadites I gave from
'Gilead even to the river Arnon to the middle of 'the valley, and the boundary even to the river
'Jabbok, which is the boundary of the Children of 'Ammon; ¹⁷ the Barren Valley also, and the Jordan,
'even as a boundary from Chinnereth [or Genne-
'saret] even to the sea of the Barren Valley, even
'the Salt Sea, under the hill sides of Pisgah on 'the east.

'¹⁸ And I commanded you at that time,
'saying, Jehovah your God hath given you this 'land to possess it. Ye shall pass over armed 'before your brethren the children of Israel, all 'that are sons of valour. ¹⁹ But your wives and 'your little ones, and your cattle, (for I know that 'ye have much cattle,) shall abide in your cities
'which I have given you; ²⁰ until Jehovah have 'given rest to your brethren, as well as to you, and
'until they also possess the land which Jehovah
'your God hath given them beyond the Jordan;
'and then shall ye return every man unto his pos'session, which I have given you.

'²¹ And I commanded Joshua at that time, say'ing, Thine eyes have seen all that Jehovah your
'God hath done to these two kings; so will Jeho'vah do to all the kingdoms unto which thou passest
'over [the Jordan]. ²² Ye shall not fear them; for
'Jehovah your God he will fight for you.

'²³ And I besought Jehovah at that time, say'ing, ²⁴ O Lord Jehovah, thou hast begun to shew
'thy servant thy greatness, and thy mighty hand;
'for what God is there in the heavens or on the 'earth, that can do according to thy works, and
'according to thy might? ²⁵ I pray thee, let me 'go over and see the good land that is beyond the 'Jordan, that goodly hill country, and Lebanon.
'²⁶ But Jehovah was wroth with me for your sakes,
'and would not hearken unto me. And Jehovah
'said to me, Let it suffice thee; speak no more to 'me of this matter. ²⁷ Get thee up on to the top 'of Pisgah, and lift up thine eyes westward, and 'northward, and southward, and eastward, and see
'it with thine eyes; for thou shalt not pass over
'this Jordan. ²⁸ But command Joshua, and en'courage him, and strengthen him; for he shall 'pass over before this people, and he shall cause
'them to inherit the land that thou wilt see. ²⁹ So
'we abode in the valley over against Beth-peor.

'⁴ Now therefore hearken, O Israel, to the 'statutes and to the judgments which I teach you,

'for to do them, so that ye may live, and go in and possess the land which Jehovah the God of your fathers giveth you. ²Ye shall not add to the word which I command you, neither shall ye take ought from it, that ye may keep the commands of Jehovah your God which I command you.

³Your eyes have seen what Jehovah did because of Baal-peor; for all the men that followed Baal-peor, Jehovah thy God hath destroyed them from among you. ⁴But ye that did cleave to Jehovah your God are alive every one of you this day.

⁵See, I have taught you statutes and judgments, even as Jehovah my God commanded me, that ye should do so in the land whither ye go to possess it. ⁶Keep them therefore, and do them; for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the peoples, who shall hear of all these statutes, and shall say, Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people. ⁷For what great nation is there that hath God nigh unto them, as Jehovah our God is in all things that we call upon him for? ⁸And what great nation is there, that hath statutes and judgments so righteous as all this law, which I set before you this day? ⁹Only take heed to thyself, and keep thy soul diligently, lest thou forget the things which thine eyes have seen, (and lest they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life; but teach them to thy sons, and to thy sons' sons,)

¹⁰on the day that thou stoodest before Jehovah thy God in Horeb, when Jehovah said to me, Assemble unto me the people, and I will make them to hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and that they may teach their children. ¹¹And ye came near and stood at the bottom of the mountain; and the mountain burned with fire unto the midst of the heavens, with darkness, clouds, and thick darkness. ¹²And Jehovah spake to you out of the midst of the fire. Ye heard the voice of the words, but saw no form; there was only a voice. ¹³And he declared to you his covenant, which he commanded you to perform, even Ten Commandments; and he wrote them upon two tables of stone. ¹⁴And Jehovah commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and judgments, that ye might do them in the land whither ye pass over [the Jordan] to possess it.

¹⁵Take ye therefore good heed to yourselves, (for ye saw no manner of form on the day that Jehovah spake to you in Horeb, out of the midst of the fire;) ¹⁶lest ye corrupt yourselves, and make to you a graven image, the form of any idol, the likeness of male or female, ¹⁷the likeness of any beast that is on the earth, the likeness of any winged fowl that flieth in the air, ¹⁸the likeness of any thing that creepeth on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the waters beneath the earth; ¹⁹and lest thou lift up thine eyes to the heavens, and when thou seest the sun, and the moon, and the stars, even all the host of heaven, thou shouldst be misled to worship them, and serve them. Because Jehovah thy God hath pertioned out them unto all the peoples under the whole heavens; ²⁰but Jehovah hath taken you, and brought you forth out of the iron furnace, even out of Lower Egypt, to be unto him a people of inheritance, as ye are this day.

²¹Furthermore Jehovah was angry with me for your sakes, and sware that I should not pass over the Jordan, and that I should not go in unto the good land, which Jehovah thy God giveth thee for an inheritance. ²²But I must die in this land, I must not pass over the Jordan. But ye shall pass over and possess that good land. ²³Take heed to yourselves, lest ye forget the covenant of Jehovah your God, which he made with you, and make for yourselves a graven image, the likeness of any thing which Jehovah thy God hath forbidden thee. ²⁴For Jehovah thy God is a devouring fire, a jealous God.

³²For ask now of the former days, which were before thee, since the day that God created man upon the earth, and ask from the one side of the heavens unto the other, hath there been any such thing as this great thing is, or hath there been heard like it? ³³Did ever a people hear the voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as thou hast heard, and live? ³⁴Or hath God essayed to go and take to him a nation from the midst of another nation, by trials, by signs, and by wonders, and by war, and by a mighty hand, and by a stretched out arm, and by great terrors, according to all that Jehovah your God did for you in Lower Egypt before your eyes? ³⁵Unto thee it was shewed, that thou mightest know that Jehovah he is God; there is none else beside him. ³⁶Out of the heavens he made thee to hear his voice, that he might instruct thee; and upon earth he showed thee his great fire; and thou

'heardest his words out of the midst of the fire. ³⁷ And because he loved thy fathers, therefore he chose their seed after them, and brought thee out in his sight by his mighty power out of Lower Egypt; ³⁸ to drive out nations from before thee greater and mightier than thou art, to bring thee in, to give thee their land for an inheritance, as it is at this day. ³⁹ Know therefore this day, and lay it up in thy heart, that Jehovah he is God in the heavens above, and upon the earth beneath; there is none else. ⁴⁰ Thou shalt keep therefore his statutes, and his commands, which I command thee this day, that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, and so that thou mayest prolong thy days upon the land, which Jehovah thy God giveth thee, for ever.'

⁴¹ Then Moses set apart THREE CITIES beyond the Jordan toward the sun-rising; ⁴² that the manslayer might flee thither, who should kill his neighbour unawares, and hated him not in times past; and that fleeing to one of these cities he might live; ⁴³ namely, Bezer in the desert, on the Table land, for the Reubenites; and Ramoth in Gilead for the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan for the Manassites.

⁴⁴ NOW THIS IS THE LAW which Moses set before the children of Israel.

⁵ And Moses called all Israel, and said to them, 'HEAR, O ISRAEL, the statutes and judgments which I speak in your ears this day, that ye may learn them, and keep, and do them. ² Jehovah our God made a covenant with us in Horeb. ³ Jehovah made not this covenant with our fathers, but with us, even us, who are all of us here alive this day. ⁴ Jehovah talked with you face to face on the mountain out of the midst of the fire, ⁵ (I stood between Jehovah and you at that time, to shew you the word of Jehovah; for ye were afraid by reason of the fire, and went not up on to the mountain,) saying,

⁶ I am Jehovah thy God, who brought thee out of the land of Lower Egypt, from the house of bondage. ⁷ Thou shalt have none other gods before me.

⁸ Thou shalt not make to thee a graven image,

'the likeness of any thing that is in the heavens above, or that is on the earth beneath, or that is in the waters beneath the earth; ⁹ thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them; for I Jehovah thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me, ¹⁰ and showing kindness unto the thousandth of them that love me and keep my commandments.

¹² Keep the sabbath-day [or day of rest] to sanctify it, as Jehovah thy God hath commanded thee. ¹³ Six days thou shalt labour, and do all thy work; ¹⁴ but the seventh day is the sabbath of Jehovah thy God; in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, nor thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thine ox, nor thine ass, nor any of thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy city gates; so that thy man-servant, and thy maid-servant may rest as well as thou. ¹⁵ And remember that thou wast a servant in the land of Lower Egypt, and that Jehovah thy God brought thee out thence by a mighty hand, and by a stretched out arm; therefore Jehovah thy God commanded thee to keep the sabbath-day.

¹⁶ Honour thy father and thy mother, as Jehovah thy God hath commanded thee; that thy days may be prolonged, and that it may go well with thee, upon the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee.

¹⁷ Thou shalt not kill.

¹⁸ Neither shalt thou commit adultery.

¹⁹ Neither shalt thou steal.

²⁰ Neither shalt thou bear false witness against thy neighbour.

²¹ Neither shalt thou desire thy neighbour's wife.

'Neither shalt thou covet thy neighbour's house, his field, or his man-servant, or his maid-servant, his ox, or his ass, or anything that is thy neighbour's.

²² These words Jehovah spake to all your assembly on the mountain out of the midst of the fire, of the cloud, and of the thick darkness, with a great voice; and he added no more. And he wrote them on Two Tables of stone, and delivered them to me.

²³ And it came to pass, when ye heard the voice out of the midst of the darkness, while the mountain did burn with fire, that ye came near to me, even all the heads of your tribes, and your elders; ²⁴ and ye said, Behold, Jehovah our God hath shewed us his glory and his greatness, and we have heard his voice out of the midst of the fire; we have seen this day that God doth talk with man, and he liveth. ²⁵ Now therefore why should we die? For this great fire will consume us; if we hear the voice of Jehovah our God any more, then we shall die. ²⁶ For who is there of all flesh, that hath heard the voice of the living

'God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as we 'have, and hath lived? ²⁷Go thou near, and hear
'all that Jehovah our God shall say; and speak
'thou to us all that Jehovah our God shall speak
'to thee; and we will hear it, and do it.—²⁸And
'Jehovah heard the voice of your words, when ye
'spake to me; and Jehovah said to me, I have heard
'the voice of the words of this people, which they 'have spoken to thee; they have done well in all that 'they have spoken. ²⁹O that there were such a heart
'in them, that they would fear me, and keep all my 'commandments always, so that it might be well
'with them, and with their children for ever!
'³⁰Go, say to them, Get you into your tents again.
'³¹But as for thee, stand thou here by me, and I 'will speak to thee all the commandments, and the 'statutes, and the judgments, which thou shalt
'teach them, that they may do them in the land
'which I give them to possess it.—³²Ye shall ob'serve to do therefore as Jehovah your God hath 'commanded you; ye shall not turn aside to the 'right hand or to the left. ³³Ye shall walk in all
'the ways which Jehovah your God hath com'manded you, so that ye may live, and that it may 'be well with you, and that ye may prolong your
'days in the land which ye shall possess.

'⁶ Now these are the commandments, the 'statutes, and the judgments which Jehovah your 'God commanded to teach you, that ye might do 'them in the land whither ye are passing over [the 'Jordan] to possess it; ²so that thou mightest fear
'Jehovah thy God, to keep all his statutes and his 'commandments, which I command thee, thou and
'thy son, and thy son's son, all the days of thy life;
'and so that thy days may be prolonged. ³Hear
'therefore, O Israel, and observe to do it; that it 'may be well with thee, and that ye may increase
'mightily, as Jehovah the God of thy fathers hath 'promised thee, in the land that floweth with milk
'and honey.

'⁴ HEAR, O ISRAEL; Jehovah is our God, Jeho-
'vah alone. ⁵And thou shalt love Jehovah thy 'God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and
'with all thy might. ⁶And these words which I
'command thee this day, shall be in thy heart;
'⁷and thou shalt press them upon thy children, and
'shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thy house,
'and when thou walkest by the way, and when
'thou liest down, and when thou risest up. ⁸And
'thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thy hand,
'and they shall be as frontlets between thine eyes.
'⁹And thou shalt write them upon the door-post of 'thy house, and on thy city gates.

'¹⁰ And it shall be, when Jehovah thy God
'shall have brought thee into the land which he
'swore unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac,
'and to Jacob, to give thee great and goodly cities,
'which thou buildedst not, ¹¹and houses full of all
'good things, which thou filledst not, and wells
'dugged, which thou diggedst not, vineyards and
'olive trees, which thou plantedst not; when thou 'shalt have eaten and be full, ¹²then beware lest

'thou forget Jehovah, who brought thee forth out of 'the land of Lower Egypt; from the house of 'bondage. ¹³Thou shalt fear Jehovah thy God,
'and serve him, and shalt swear by his name. ¹⁴Ye
'shall not go after other gods, of the gods of the 'peoples who are round about you; ¹⁵(for Jehovah 'thy God is a jealous God among you); lest the 'anger of Jehovah thy God be kindled against thee,
'and destroy thee from off the face of the earth.

'¹⁶Ye shall not try Jehovah your God, as ye 'tried him at Massah. ¹⁷Ye shall diligently keep
'the commandments of Jehovah your God, and his 'testimonials, and his statutes, which he hath com'manded thee. ¹⁸And thou shalt do that which 'is right and good in the sight of Jehovah; so that 'it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest
'go in and possess the good land of which Jehovah
'swore to thy fathers, ¹⁹to cast out all thine enemies
'from before thee, as Jehovah hath spoken. ²⁰When
'thy son asketh thee in time to come, saying, What 'mean the testimonials, and the statutes, and the 'judgments, which Jehovah our God hath com'manded you? ²¹then thou shalt say to thy son,
'We were Pharaoh's bondmen in Lower Egypt;
'and Jehovah brought us out of Lower Egypt with
'a mighty hand. ²²And Jehovah shewed signs and
'wonders, great and sore, upon the Egyptians,
'upon Pharaoh, and upon all his household, before
'our eyes. ²³And he brought us out from thence,
'so that he might bring us in, to give us the land
'of which he swore to our fathers. ²⁴And Jehovah
'commanded us to do all these statutes, to fear
'Jehovah our God, for our good always, that he 'might preserve us alive, as at this day. ²⁵And
'it shall be our righteousness, if we observe to do
'all these commandments before Jehovah our God,
'as he hath commanded us.

'⁷ When Jehovah thy God shall bring thee
'into the land whither thou goest to possess it, and 'hath cast out many nations from before thee, the 'Hittites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites,
'and the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, and the 'Hivites, and the Jebusites, seven nations greater
'and mightier than thou; ²and when Jehovah thy 'God hath delivered them up before thee, and thou
'hast smitten them, thou shalt utterly destroy
'them; thou shalt make no covenant with them,
'nor shew mercy to them. ³Neither shalt thou
'make marriages with them; thy daughter thou 'shalt not give to his son, nor his daughter shalt
'thou take to thy son. ⁴For they will turn away
'thy son from following me, that they may serve
'other gods; so will the anger of Jehovah be 'kindled against you, and destroy thee suddenly.
'⁵But thus shall ye deal with them; ye shall 'destroy their altars, and break down their images,
'and cut down their groves of Ashera, and burn
'their graven images with fire. ⁶For thou art a 'holy people unto Jehovah thy God. Jehovah thy 'God hath chosen thee to be a peculiar people unto 'himself, above all the peoples that are upon the 'face of the earth. ⁷Jehovah did not set his love

upon you, nor choose you because ye were more in number than any of the peoples; for ye were the fewest of all the peoples. ⁸ But because Jehovah loved you, and because he would keep the oath which he had sworn unto your fathers, hath Jehovah brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt. ⁹ Know therefore that Jehovah thy God, he is God, the faithful God, who keepeth covenant and kindness with them that love him and keep his commandments to a thousand generations; ¹⁰ and repayeth them that hate him to their face, to destroy them. He will not be backward toward him that hateth him, he will repay him to his face. ¹¹ Thou shalt therefore keep the commandments, and the statutes, and the judgments, which I command thee this day, to do them.

¹² And the end will be, if ye hearken to these judgments, and keep, and do them, that Jehovah thy God will keep unto thee the covenant and the kindness which he sware to thy fathers. ¹³ And he will love thee, and bless thee, and multiply thee. He will also bless the fruit of thy womb, and the fruit of thy land, thy corn, and thy grape juice, and thine oil, the increase of thy kine, and the breeding of thy flocks, in the land which he sware unto thy fathers to give thee. ¹⁴ Thou shalt be blessed above all peoples; there shall not be male or female barren among you, or among your cattle. ¹⁵ And Jehovah will take away from thee all sickness, and will put none of the evil diseases of the Egyptians, which thou knowest, upon thee; but will lay them upon all them that hate thee. ¹⁶ And thou shalt consume all the peoples which Jehovah thy God shall deliver up to thee; thine eye shall have no pity upon them; neither shalt thou serve their gods; for that will be a snare unto thee. ¹⁷ If thou shalt say in thy heart, These nations are more than I; how can I dispossess them? ¹⁸ thou shalt not be afraid of them; but shalt well remember what Jehovah thy God did to Pharaoh, and to all Lower Egypt; ¹⁹ the great trials which thine eyes saw, and the signs, and the wonders, and the mighty hand, and the stretched out arm, whereby Jehovah thy God brought thee out; so will Jehovah thy God do to all the peoples before whom thou art afraid. ²⁰ Moreover Jehovah thy God will send the hornet among them, until they that are left, and that hide themselves from thee, be destroyed. ²¹ Thou shalt not be affrighted at them; for Jehovah thy God is among you, a mighty God and to be feared. ²² And Jehovah thy God will cast out those nations from before thee by little and little; thou mayest not consume them at once, lest the wild beasts of the field increase upon thee. ²³ But Jehovah thy God will deliver them unto thee, and will confound them with a mighty confusion, until they be destroyed. ²⁴ And he will deliver their kings into thy hand, and thou shalt destroy their name from under the heavens; there will no man be able to stand before thee, until thou have destroyed them. ²⁵ The graven images of their gods shall ye burn with fire. Thou shalt not desire the silver or gold that is on them, nor take it to thee, lest thou be ensnared therewith; for it is an abomination to Jehovah thy God. ²⁶ Neither shalt thou bring an abomination [or idol] into thy house, lest thou be an accursed thing like it; but thou shalt utterly detest it, and thou shalt utterly abhor it; for it is an accursed thing.

⁸ All the commandments which I command thee this day shall ye observe to do, so that ye may live, and multiply, and go in and possess the land of which Jehovah sware unto your fathers. ² And thou shalt remember all the way which Jehovah thy God led thee these forty years in the desert, to humble thee, and to prove thee, to know what was in thy heart, whether thou wouldest keep his commandments, or no. ³ And he humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with the Manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know; so that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread only, but by whatever proceedeth out of the mouth of Jehovah doth man live. ⁴ Thy raiment was not worn out upon thee, neither did thy foot swell, these forty years. ⁵ Thou shalt also consider in thy heart, that, as a man chasteneth his son, so Jehovah thy God chasteneth thee. ⁶ Therefore thou shalt keep the commandments of Jehovah thy God, to walk in his ways, and to fear him. ⁷ For Jehovah thy God bringeth thee into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and underground waters that spring out in the valleys and on the hills; ⁸ a land of wheat, and barley, and vines, and fig trees, and pomegranates; a land of the oil-bearing olive, and of honey; ⁹ a land wherein thou shalt eat bread without scarceness, thou shalt not lack any thing in it; a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills thou mayest dig copper. ¹⁰ When thou hast eaten and art full, and hast blessed Jehovah thy God for the good land which he hath given thee; ¹¹ then beware that thou forget not Jehovah thy God, so as not to keep his commandments, and his judgments, and his statutes, which I command thee this day; ¹² lest when thou hast eaten and art full, and hast built goodly houses, and dwelt therein; ¹³ and when thy herds and thy flocks multiply, and thy silver and thy gold is multiplied, and all that thou hast is multiplied; ¹⁴ then thy heart be lifted up, and thou forget Jehovah thy God, who brought thee forth out of the land of Lower Egypt, from the house of bondage; ¹⁵ who led thee through that great and terrible desert, of fiery serpents, and scorpions, and drought, where there was no water; who brought forth water for thee out of the rock of iron-stone; ¹⁶ who fed thee in the desert with Manna, which thy fathers knew not, so that he might humble thee, and so that he might prove thee, to do thee good at thy latter end; ¹⁷ and thou say in thy heart, Mine own strength and the might of mine own hand hath gotten for me this wealth.—¹⁸ But thou shalt re-

'member Jehovah thy God; (for it is he that giveth thee strength to get wealth,) that he may establish his covenant which he swore unto thy fathers, as it is at this day. ¹⁹ And it shall be, if thou do at all forget Jehovah thy God, and walk after other gods, and serve them, and worship them, I protest against you this day that ye shall surely perish. ²⁰ As the nations which Jehovah destroyeth before your face, so shall ye perish; because ye would not be obedient to the voice of Jehovah your God.

'O HEAR, O ISRAEL; Thou art to pass over the Jordan this day, to go in to dispossess nations greater and mightier than thyself, cities great and fenced up to the heavens, a people great and tall, the children of the Anakites, whom thou knowest, and of whom thou hast heard say, Who can stand before the children of Anak? ³ Understand therefore this day that Jehovah thy God is he who passeth over before thee; as a devouring fire he will destroy them, and he will bring them down before thy face; so shalt thou drive them out, and destroy them quickly, as Jehovah hath said to thee. ⁴ Speak not thou in thy heart, when Jehovah thy God casteth them out from before thee, saying, For my righteousness Jehovah hath brought me in to possess this land; but it is for the wickedness of these nations Jehovah doth drive them out from before thee. ⁵ Not for thy righteousness, or for the uprightness of thy heart, dost thou go in to possess their land; but for the wickedness of these nations Jehovah thy God doth drive them out from before thee, and that he may perform the word which Jehovah swore to thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. ⁶ Understand therefore, that Jehovah thy God giveth thee not this good land to possess it for thy righteousness; for thou art a stiffnecked people.

⁷ Remember, and forget not, how thou provokedst Jehovah thy God to wrath in the desert. From the day that thou didst depart out of the land of Lower Egypt, until ye came to this place, ye have been rebellious against Jehovah. ⁸ And in Horeb ye provoked Jehovah to wrath, so that Jehovah was angry with you to have destroyed you. ⁹ When I was gone up on to the Mountain to receive the tables of stone, even the Tables of the Covenant which Jehovah made with you, then I abode on the Mountain forty days and forty nights, I neither did eat bread nor drink water. ¹⁰ And Jehovah delivered to me the two tables of stone written with the finger of God; and on them was written according to all the words which Jehovah spake with you on the Mountain, out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly. ¹¹ And it came to pass at the end of forty days and forty nights, that Jehovah gave to me the two tables of stone, even the Tables of the Covenant. ¹² And Jehovah said to me, Arise, get thee down quickly from hence; for thy people whom thou hast brought out of Lower Egypt have corrupted themselves; they 'are quickly turned aside out of the way which I commanded them; they have made for themselves a molten image.

¹³ Furthermore Jehovah spake to me, saying, I have seen this people, and behold, it is a stiff-necked people. ¹⁴ Let me alone, that I may destroy them, and blot out their name from under the heavens; and I will make of thee a nation mightier and greater than they. ¹⁵ So I turned and came down from the Mountain, and the Mountain burned with fire, and the two Tables of the Covenant were in my two hands. ¹⁶ And I looked, and behold, ye had sinned against Jehovah your God, and had made to you a molten calf; ye had turned aside quickly out of the way which Jehovah had commanded you. ¹⁷ And I seized the Two Tables, and cast them out of my two hands, and brake them before your eyes; ¹⁸ and I threw myself down before Jehovah, as at the first, for forty days and forty nights; I did neither eat bread, nor drink water, because of all your sins which ye sinned, in doing wickedly in the sight of Jehovah, to provoke him to anger. ¹⁹ For I was afraid of the anger and wrath whereby Jehovah was wrath against you to destroy you. But Jehovah hearkened to me at that time also. ²⁰ And Jehovah was very angry with Aaron to have destroyed him; and I prayed for Aaron also at the same time. ²¹ And I took your sin, the Calf which ye had made, and burnt it with fire, and stamped it, and ground it thoroughly, until it was as small as dust; and I cast the dust thereof into the brook that came down from the Mountain. ²² And at Taberah, and at Massah, and at the Burial-place of Taavah, ye provoked Jehovah to wrath. ²³ Likewise when Jehovah sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, Go up and possess the land which I have given you; then ye rebelled against the commands of Jehovah your God, and ye believed him not, nor hearkened to his voice. ²⁴ Ye have been rebellious against Jehovah from the day that I knew you. ²⁵ Thus I threw myself down before Jehovah for forty days and forty nights, as I had before thrown myself down; because Jehovah had said he would destroy you. ²⁶ I prayed therefore to Jehovah, and said, O Lord Jehovah, destroy not thy people and thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed through thy greatness, which thou hast brought forth out of Lower Egypt with a mighty hand. ²⁷ Remember thy servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; look not to the stubbornness of this people, nor to their wickedness, nor to their sin; ²⁸ lest the land whence thou broughtest us out say, Because Jehovah was not able to bring them into the land which he promised them, and because he hated them, he hath brought them out to slay them in the desert.—²⁹ Yet they are thy people and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest out by thy mighty power and by thy stretched-out arm.

¹⁰ At that time Jehovah said to me, Hew for thee two Tables of Stone like the first, and

‘come up to me on to the Mountain; and make for thyself an Ark of wood. ² And I will write on the Tables the words that were on the first Tables which thou brakest, and thou shalt put them into the ark.—³ And I made an ark of acacia wood, and I hewed two tables of stone like the first, and I went up on to the Mountain, having the two tables in my hand. ⁴ And He wrote on the tables, according to the first writing, the Ten Commandments, which Jehovah spake to you on the Mountain out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly. And Jehovah gave them to me. ⁵ And I turned myself and came down from the Mountain, and put the Tables in the Ark which I had made; and there they are, as Jehovah commanded me.’

¹⁰ And I stayed upon the Mountain, as at the first time, forty days and forty nights; and Jehovah hearkened to me at that time also, and Jehovah would not destroy thee. ¹¹ And Jehovah said to me, Arise, go on thy journey before the people, that they may go in and possess the land which I swear to their fathers to give to them.

¹² And NOW, O ISRAEL, what doth Jehovah thy God require of thee, but to fear Jehovah thy God, to walk in all his ways, and to love him, and to serve Jehovah thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul, ¹³ to keep the commandments of Jehovah, and his statutes, which I command thee this day for thy good? ¹⁴ Behold, the heavens and the heaven of heavens are Jehovah's thy God, the earth also, with all that therein is. ¹⁵ Jehovah had a delight in thy fathers only to love them, and he chose their seed after them, even you above all the peoples, as it is this day. ¹⁶ Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no more stiffnecked. ¹⁷ For Jehovah your God is God of gods, and Lord of lords, the great God, mighty and to be feared, who regardeth not persons, nor taketh a bribe. ¹⁸ He executeth the judgment of the fatherless and widow, and loveth the stranger, in giving him bread and raiment. ¹⁹ Love ye therefore the stranger; for ye were strangers in the land of Lower Egypt. ²⁰ Thou shalt fear Jehovah thy God: him shalt thou serve, and to him shalt thou cleave, and shalt swear by his name. ²¹ He is thy praise, and he is thy God, that hath done for thee these great

‘and terrible things, which thine eyes have seen. ²² Thy fathers went down into Lower Egypt with seventy souls; and now Jehovah thy God hath made thee as the stars of the heavens for multitude. ²³ Therefore thou shalt love Jehovah thy God, and keep his charge, and his statutes, and his judgments, and his commandments, always.

²⁴ And know ye this day; for [I speak] not with your children who have not known, and who have not seen the chastisement of Jehovah your God, his greatness, his mighty hand, and his stretched-out arm, and his signs and his deeds which he did in the midst of Lower Egypt to Pharaoh the king of Egypt, and to all his land; and what he did to the army of the Egyptians, to their horses, and to their chariots; how he made the water of the Red sea to overflow them as they pursued after you, and how Jehovah hath destroyed them unto this day; and what he did to you in the desert, until ye came into this place; and what he did to Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, the son of Reuben; how the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their households, and their tents, and all the living substance that was in their possession, in the midst of all Israel. ⁷ For your eyes have seen all the great deeds of Jehovah which he did. ⁸ Therefore shall ye keep all the commands which I command you this day, so that ye may be strong, and may go in and possess the land, whither ye are passing over [the Jordan] to possess it; and so that ye may prolong your days in the land, of which Jehovah sware to your fathers to give to them and to their seed, a land that floweth with milk and honey. ¹⁰ For the land, whither thou goest in to possess it, is not as the land of Lower Egypt, from whence ye came out, where thou sowedst thy seed, and wateredst it with thy foot, as a garden of herbs. ¹¹ But the land whither ye are passing over to possess it, is a land of hills and valleys, and drinketh water of the rain of the heavens; ¹² a land which Jehovah thy God careth for always. The eyes of Jehovah thy God are upon it, from the beginning of the year even unto the end of the year.

¹³ And it will come to pass, if ye shall hearken diligently to my commands which I command you this day, to love Jehovah your God, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul, ¹⁴ that I will give you the rain of your land in its due season, the early rain and the latter rain, that thou mayest gather in thy corn, and thy grape juice, and thine oil. ¹⁵ And I will send grass into thy fields for thy cattle, that thou mayest eat and be full. ¹⁶ Take heed to yourselves, that your heart be not deceived, and ye turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them; ¹⁷ and then Jehovah's wrath be kindled against you, and he shut up the heavens, and there be no rain, and the land yield not its increase, and ye perish quickly from off the good land which Jehovah giveth you.

¹⁸ Therefore shall ye lay up these my words in 'your heart and in your soul, and bind them for a sign upon your hand, and let them be as frontlets between your eyes. ¹⁹ And ye shall teach them to your children, speaking of them when thou sittest in thy house, and when thou walkest by the way, when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. ²⁰ And thou shalt write them upon the doorposts of thy house, and upon thy city gates; ²¹ so that your days may be multiplied, and the days of your children, in the land which Jehovah swore unto your fathers to give them, as the days of heaven upon the earth. ²² For if ye shall diligently keep all these commands which I command you, to do them, to love Jehovah your God, to walk in all his ways, and to cleave to him, ²³ then will Jehovah dispossess all these nations from before you, and ye shall dispossess nations greater and mightier than yourselves. ²⁴ Every place whereon the soles of your feet shall tread shall be yours; from the [southern] desert even unto Lebanon, from the River, the river Euphrates, even unto the Western sea shall your boundary be. ²⁵ There shall no man be able to stand before you. Jehovah your God will lay the fear of you and the dread of you upon all the land that ye shall tread upon, as he hath said to you.

²⁶ See, I set before you this day a BLESSING AND A CURSE; ²⁷ the blessing, if ye obey the commandments of Jehovah your God, which I command you this day; ²⁸ and the curse if ye will not obey the commandments of Jehovah your God, but turn aside out of the way which I command you this day, to go after other gods, which ye have not known. (²⁹ And it shall come to pass, when Jehovah thy God hath brought thee in unto the land whether thou goest to possess it, that thou shalt put the blessing upon Mount Gerizim, and the curse upon Mount Ebal. ³⁰ Are they not beyond the Jordan westward, by the way where the sun goeth down in the land of the Canaanites, who dwell in the Barren Valley over against Gilgal, beside the oaks of Moreh? ³¹ For ye shall pass over the Jordan to go in to possess the land which Jehovah your God giveth you, and ye shall possess it, and dwell therein.) ³² And ye shall observe to do all the statutes and judgments which I set before you this day.

there, even to his habitation shall ye seek, and thither thou shalt come. ⁶ And thither ye shall bring your Burnt Offerings, and your Sacrifices, and your Tithes, and Heave Offerings of your hand, and your Vows, and your Freewill Offerings, and the Firstlings of your herds and of your flocks. ⁷ And there ye shall eat before Jehovah your God, and ye shall rejoice in all that ye put your hand to, ye and your households, wherein Jehovah thy God hath blessed thee. ⁸ Ye shall not do after all the things that we are doing here this day, every man whatsoever is right in his own eyes. ⁹ For ye are not as yet come to the resting-place and to the inheritance which Jehovah your God giveth you.

¹⁰ But when ye go over the Jordan, and dwell in the land which Jehovah your God giveth you to inherit, and when he giveth you rest from all your enemies round about, so that ye dwell in safety; ¹¹ and there be a Place which Jehovah your God shall choose to cause his Name to dwell there; thither shall ye bring all that I command you; your Burnt Offerings and your Sacrifices, your Tithes, and the Heave Offering of your hand, and all your choice Vows which ye vow unto Jehovah. ¹² And ye shall rejoice before Jehovah your God, ye, and your sons, and your daughters, and your men-servants, and your maid-servants, and the Levite that is within your city gates, for he hath no part nor inheritance with you. ¹³ Take heed to thyself that thou offer not up thy burnt offerings in every place that thou seest; ¹⁴ but in The Place which Jehovah shall choose in one of thy tribes, there thou shalt offer up thy burnt offerings, and there thou shalt do all that I command thee. ¹⁵ Notwithstanding in every desire of thy soul, thou mayest kill and eat flesh within all thy city gates, according to the blessing of Jehovah thy God which he hath given thee. The unclean and the clean person may eat thereof, as of the roebuck, and as of the hart. ¹⁶ Only ye shall not eat the blood; ye shall pour it upon the earth as water.

God hath chosen to put his Name there be too far from thee [Lev. xvii. 5], then thou shalt kill of thy herd, and of thy flock, which Jehovah hath given thee, as I have commanded thee, and thou shalt eat within thy city gates in every desire of thy soul. ²² Even as the roebuck and the hart is eaten, so thou shalt eat them: the unclean and the clean shall eat of them alike. ²³ Only be sure that thou eat not the blood; for the blood is the life; and thou mayest not eat the life with the flesh. ²⁴ Thou shalt not eat it, thou shalt pour it upon the earth as water. ²⁵ Thou shalt not eat it; so that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, when thou shalt do that which is right in the sight of Jehovah.

²⁶ However thy holy things which thou hast, and thy vows, thou shalt take and go to the Place which Jehovah shall choose. ²⁷ And thou shalt offer thy burnt offerings, the flesh and the blood, upon the Altar of Jehovah thy God; and the blood of thy sacrifices shall be poured out upon the Altar of Jehovah thy God, and thou shalt eat the flesh. ²⁸ Observe and hear all these words which I command thee, so that it may go well with thee and with thy children after thee forever, when thou doest that which is good and right in the sight of Jehovah thy God.

¹³ If there arise among you a PROPHET, or a dreamer of dreams, and he giveth thee a sign or a wonder, ² and the sign or the wonder come to pass, whereby he spake to thee, saying, ³ Let us go after other gods, which thou hast not known, and let us serve them; ⁴ thou shalt not hearken to the words of that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams; for Jehovah your God is trying you, to know whether ye love Jehovah your God with all your heart and with all your soul. ⁵ Ye shall walk after Jehovah your God, and shall fear him, and keep his commandments, and obey his voice, and ye shall serve him, and cleave unto him. ⁶ And that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams, shall be put to death; because he hath spoken rebellion against Jehovah your God, who brought you out of the land of Lower Egypt, and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, to withdraw thee out of the way which Jehovah thy God commanded thee to walk in. So shalt thou put the evil away from the midst of thee.

¹² If thou shalt hear say in one of thy cities, which Jehovah thy God hath given thee to dwell there, saying, ¹³ Certain men, the sons of Belial, are gone out from among you, and have withdrawn the inhabitants of their city, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, which ye have not known; ¹⁴ then shalt thou inquire, and make search, and ask diligently; and behold, if it be truth, and the thing certain, that such abomination is wrought among you; ¹⁵ thou shalt surely smite the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, destroying it utterly, and all that is therein, and the cattle thereof, with the edge of the sword. ¹⁶ And thou shalt gather all the spoil of it into the middle of the broad place there, and shalt burn the city with fire, and all the spoil thereof every whit, unto Jehovah thy God; and it shall be a heap for ever; it shall not be built again. ¹⁷ And there shall cleave nought of the accursed thing to thy hand; so that Jehovah may turn from the fierceness of his anger, and shew thee mercy, and have compassion upon thee, and multiply thee, as he hath sworn to thy fathers, ¹⁸ when thou shalt hearken to the voice of Jehovah thy God, to keep all his commandments which I command thee this day, to do what is right in the eyes of Jehovah thy God.

³ Thou shalt not eat any abominable thing. ⁴ These are the beasts which ye shall eat; the ox, the lamb of the sheep, and the kid of the goat, the hart, and the roebuck, and the fallow deer, and the wild goat, and the pygarg, and the wild ox, and the chamois. ⁶ And every beast that divideth the feet, and cleaveth the cleft into two

'claws, and cheweth the cud among beasts, that ye shall eat. ⁷ Nevertheless these ye shall not eat of them that chew the cud, or of them that divide the cloven foot; as the camel, and the hare, and the coney; for they chew the cud, but divide not the foot; therefore they are unclean to you. ⁸ And the swine, because it divideth the foot, yet cheweth not the cud, it is unclean to you; ye shall not eat of their flesh, nor touch their dead carcase.

¹¹ Of all clean birds ye shall eat. ¹² But these are they of which ye shall not eat; the eagle, and the ossifrage, and the ospray, ¹³ and the vulture, and the kite, and the black vulture after its kind, ¹⁴ and every raven after its kind, ¹⁵ and the ostrich, and the night hawk, and the falcon, and the hawk after its kind, ¹⁶ the little owl and the ibis, and the swan, ¹⁷ and the pelican, and the gier eagle, and the cormorant, ¹⁸ and the stork, and the heron after its kind, and the hoopoe, and the bat. ¹⁹ And every creeping thing that flieth is unclean to you; they shall not be eaten. ²⁰ But of all clean fowls ye may eat.

²¹ Ye shall not eat of anything that dieth of itself; (thou shalt give it to the stranger that is within thy city gates, that he may eat it; or thou mayest sell it to a foreigner;) for thou art a holy people unto Jehovah thy God. Thou shalt not boil a kid in its mother's milk.

²² Thou shalt TRULY TITHE all the increase of thy seed, that the field bringeth forth year by year. ²³ And thou shalt eat before Jehovah thy God, in The Place which he shall choose to cause his Name to dwell there, the tithe of thy corn, of thy grape-juice, and of thine oil, and the firstlings of thy herds and of thy flocks; so that thou mayest learn to fear Jehovah thy God always. ²⁴ And if the way be too long for thee, so that thou art not able to carry it; when The Place is too far from thee, which Jehovah thy God shall choose to set his Name there, when Jehovah thy God hath blessed thee; ²⁵ then shalt thou turn it into money, and hold fast the money in thy hand, and shalt go to The Place which Jehovah thy God shall choose; ²⁶ and thou shalt bestow that money for whatsoever thy soul longeth after, for oxen, or for sheep, or for wine, or for strong drink, or for whatsoever thy soul asketh of thee, and thou shalt eat there before Jehovah thy God, and thou shalt rejoice, thou, and thy household, ²⁷ and the Levite that is within thy city gates; thou shalt not forsake him; for he hath no part nor inheritance with thee. ²⁸ At the end of three years thou shalt bring forth all the tithe of thine increase the same year, and shalt lay it up within thy city gates; ²⁹ and the Levite, (because he hath no part nor inheritance with thee,) and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, which are within thy city gates, shall come, and shall eat and be satisfified; so that Jehovah thy God may bless thee in all the work of thy hand which thou doest.

¹⁵ At the end of every seven years thou shalt make A RELEASE. ² And this is the manner of the release. Every creditor that lendeth ought to his neighbour his hand shall release it; he shall not exact it of his neighbour, or of his brother; when Jehovah's release is proclaimed. ³ Of a foreigner thou mayest exact it again; but that which is thine with thy brother thy hand shall release; ⁴ so that there shall be no poor among you. For Jehovah will greatly bless thee in the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee for an inheritance to possess it, ⁵ if thou only hearken carefully to the voice of Jehovah thy God, to observe to do all these commands which I command thee this day. ⁶ For Jehovah thy God hath blessed thee, as he promised thee; and thou shalt lend on pledge to many nations, but thou shalt not borrow on pledge; and thou shalt rule over many nations, but they shall not rule over thee.

¹² If thy brother, a Hebrew man, or a Hebrew woman, sell himself to thee, and serve thee for six years; then in the seventh year thou shalt let him go free from thee. ¹³ And when thou sendest him out free from thee, thou shalt not let him go away empty; ¹⁴ thou shalt furnish him freely out of thy flock, and out of thy threshing-floor, and out of thy winepress; of that wherewith Jehovah thy God hath blessed thee thou shalt give to him. ¹⁵ And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bond-servant in the land of Lower Egypt, and Jehovah thy God redeemed thee; therefore I command thee this thing to-day. ¹⁶ And it shall be, if he say to thee, I will not go away from thee; because he loveth thee and thy house, because he is well with thee; ¹⁷ then thou shalt take an awl, and thrust it through his ear into the door, and he shall be thy servant for ever. And also unto thy maid-servant thou shalt do likewise. ¹⁸ It shall not seem hard to thee when thou sendest him

'away free from thee; for he hath been doubly 'worth a hired servant, in serving thee for six 'years; and Jehovah thy God will bless thee in all
'that thou doest.

'¹⁹ All the FIRSTLING MALES that are born of 'thy herd and of thy flock thou shalt sanctify unto 'Jehovah thy God. Thou shalt do no work with 'the firstling of thy bullock, nor shear the firstling
'of thy sheep; ²⁰ thou shalt eat it before Jehovah
'thy God year by year in The Place which Jehovah
'shall choose, thou and thy household. ²¹ But if 'there be any blemish therein, as if it be lame, or
'blind, or have any ill blemish, thou shalt not 'sacrifice it to Jehovah thy God. ²² Thou mayest 'eat it within thy city gates; and the unclean and the 'clean person may eat it alike, as the roebuck, and 'as the hart. ²³ Only thou shalt not eat its blood;
'thou shalt pour it upon the ground as water.

'¹⁶ Observe the month of Abib [or Barley in
'ear], and keep THE PASSOVER unto Jehovah th
'God; for in the month of Abib Jehovah thy God
'brought thee forth out of Lower Egypt by night.
'² Thou shalt therefore sacrifice the Passover unto 'Jehovah thy God, of the flock or of the herd, in 'The Place which Jehovah shall choose to cause
'his Name to dwell there. ³ Thou shalt eat no
'leavened bread with it; seven days shalt thou eat
'Unleavened Bread therewith, even the bread of 'affliction; for thou camest forth out of the land
'of Lower Egypt in flight; so that thou mayest
'remember the day when thou camest forth out of 'the land of Lower Egypt all the days of thy life.
'⁴ And there shall be no leaven seen with thee 'within all thy boundary for seven days; neither
'shall there any of the flesh, which thou sacrificest
'the first day at evening, remain all night until the 'morning. ⁵ Thou mayest not sacrifice the Pass-
'over within any of thy city gates, which Jehovah
'thy God giveth thee; ⁶ but at The Place which
'Jehovah thy God shall choose to cause his Name
'to dwell therein, there thou shalt sacrifice the 'Passover at eventide, at the going down of the 'sun, at the season that thou camest forth out of 'Lower Egypt. ⁷ And thou shalt cook and eat it
'in The Place which Jehovah thy God shall choose;
'and in the morning thou shalt turn and go to thy
'tents. ⁸ Six days thou shalt eat unleavened bread;
'and on the seventh day shall be a day of restraint
'[from work] to Jehovah thy God; thou shalt do
'no work therein.

'⁹ Seven weeks shalt thou number unto thee.
'Begin to number the seven weeks from when thou
'beginnest to put the sickle to the standing corn.
'¹⁰ And thou shalt keep the FEAST OF WEEKS unto 'Jehovah thy God with a freewill offering propor'tioned to thy hand, which thou shalt give accord'ing as Jehovah thy God hath blessed thee. ¹¹ And
'thou shalt rejoice before Jehovah thy God, thou,
'and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy man-ser'vant, and thy maid-servant, and the Levite that 'is within thy city gates, and the stranger, and the 'fatherless, and the widow, that are among you, in 'The Place which Jehovah thy God hath chosen to 'cause his Name to dwell there. ¹² And thou shalt 'remember that thou wast a bond-servant in 'Lower Egypt. And thou shalt observe and do

'these statutes.

'¹³ Thou shalt observe THE FEAST OF TABER-
'NACLES [or Booths] during seven days, at thine
'ingathering from thy threshing-floor and from
'thy wine-press. ¹⁴ And thou shalt rejoice in thy 'feast, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and
'thy man-servant, and thy maid-servant, and the 'Levite, the stranger, and the fatherless, and the 'widow, that are within thy city gates. ¹⁵ Seven 'days shalt thou keep feast unto Jehovah thy God
'in The Place which Jehovah shall choose; because 'Jehovah thy God will bless thee in all thine in'crease, and in all the works of thy hands, therefore
'thou shalt surely rejoice.

'¹⁶ Three times in a year shall all thy males
'appear before Jehovah thy God in The Place
'which he shall choose; in the Feast of Unleavened 'Bread, and in the Feast of Weeks, and in the 'Feast of Tabernacles. And they shall not appear 'before Jehovah empty; ¹⁷ every man shall give
'as his hand is able, according to the blessing of 'Jehovah thy God which he hath given thee.

'¹⁸ Judges and officers shalt thou make to thee
'at all thy city gates, which Jehovah thy God
'giveth thee, throughout thy tribes; and they shall
'judge the people with just judgment. ¹⁹ Thou 'shalt not wrest judgment; thou shalt not respect
'persons, neither take a bribe; for the bribe doth
'blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the words 'of the righteous. ²⁰ That which is altogether just 'shalt thou follow, so that thou mayest live, and
'possess the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee.

'²¹ Thou shalt not plant for thee a grove of 'Ashera of any trees near to the altar of Jehovah thy 'God, which thou shalt make for thee. ²² Neither
'shalt thou set up for thee any image, which Je'hovah thy God hateth. ¹⁷ Thou shalt not sacrifi'ce to Jehovah thy God any bullock, or sheep,
'[or goat], wherein is blemish, of any evil-favoured-
'ness; for that is an abomination unto Jehovah
'thy God.

'² If there be found among you, within any of 'thy city gates which Jehovah thy God giveth thee,
'man or woman, that hath wrought wickedness in
'the sight of Jehovah thy God, in transgressing his 'covenant, ³ and hath gone and served other gods,
'and worshipped them, either the sun, or moon, or 'any of the host of the heavens, which I have not
'commanded; ⁴ and it be told thee, and thou hast
'heard of it, and inquired diligently, and behold, it
'be true, and the thing certain, that such abomina-
'tion hath been done in Israel; ⁵ then shalt thou
'bring forth that man or that woman, who have 'done that wicked thing, unto thy city gates, even 'that man or that woman, and shalt stone them
'with stones, till they die.

'⁶ At the mouth of two witnesses, or three wit'nesses, shall he that is worthy of death be put to death; but at the mouth of one witness he shall not be put to death. ⁷The hands of the witnesses shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterward the hands of all the people. So thou shalt put the evil away from among you.

⁸If a matter be too hard for thee in judgment, between blood and blood, between plea and plea, and between stroke and stroke, being matters of controversy at thy city gates; then shalt thou arise, and get thee up to The Place which Jehovah thy God shall choose; ⁹and thou shalt come to the priests the Levites, and to the judge that shall be in those days, and thou shalt inquire; and they shall show thee the sentence of judgment; ¹⁰and thou shalt do according to the command of the sentence, which they from That Place which Jehovah shall choose shall shew thee; and thou shalt observe to do according to all that they teach thee; ¹¹according to the command of the law which they shall teach thee, and according to the judgment which they shall tell thee, thou shalt do; thou shalt not turn aside from the sentence which they shall shew thee, to the right hand, nor to the left. ¹²And the man that will do presumptuously, so as not to hearken to the priest that standeth to minister there before Jehovah thy God, or to the judge, even that man shall die; and thou shalt put away the evil from Israel. ¹³And all the people shall hear, and shall fear, and do no more presumptuously.

¹⁴When thou art come to the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee, and shalt possess it, and shalt dwell therein, and shalt say, I will set a king over me, like all the nations that are about me; ¹⁵thou shalt surely set as king over thee him whom Jehovah thy God shall choose; one from among thy brethren shalt thou set as king over thee; thou mayest not set a foreigner over thee, who is not thy brother. ¹⁶But he shall not multiply horses to himself, nor cause the people to return to Lower Egypt, to the end that he should multiply horses; forasmuch as Jehovah hath said to you, Ye shall henceforth return no more that way. ¹⁷Neither shall he multiply wives to himself, that his heart turn not away. Neither shall he greatly multiply to himself silver and gold. ¹⁸And it shall be, when he sitteth upon the throne of his kingdom, that he shall write for himself a copy of this Law in a book out of that which is before the priests the Levites. ¹⁹And it shall be with him, and he shall read therein all the days of his life; so that he may learn to fear Jehovah his God, to keep all the words of this Law and these statutes, to do them; ²⁰that his heart be not lifted up above his brethren, and that he turn not aside from the commandment, to the right hand, or to the left; to the end that he may prolong his days in his kingdom, he, and his children, in the midst of Israel.

¹⁸The priests the Levites, (all the tribe of Levi), shall have no part nor inheritance with Israel; they shall eat the offerings to Jehovah made by fire, and his inheritance. ²And they shall have no inheritance among their brethren; Jehovah is their inheritance, as he hath said to them. ³And this shall be the priests' due from the people, from them that sacrifice a sacrifice, whether it be ox, or sheep, [or goat]; and they shall give to the priest the shoulder, and the two cheeks, and the stomach. ⁴The first of thy corn, of thy grape juice, and of thine oil, and the first of the fleece of thy sheep, shalt thou give him. ⁵For Jehovah thy God hath chosen him out of all thy tribes, to stand to minister in the name of Jehovah, him and his sons for ever. ⁶And if a Levite come from any of thy city gates out of all Israel, where he sojourned, and come with all the desire of his mind to The Place which Jehovah shall choose; ⁷then he shall minister in the name of Jehovah his God, as all his brethren the Levites do, who stand there before Jehovah. ⁸They shall have like portions to eat, beside that which cometh of the sale of his patrimony.

⁹When thou art come into the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not learn to do after the abominations of those nations. ¹⁰There shall not be found among you any one that maketh his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, or that useth divination, or an observer of clouds, or an enchanter [with serpents], or a sorcerer, ¹¹or a master of charms, or a conjurer of speaking bottles [or ventriloquism], or a wizard, or an inquirer of the dead. ¹²For all that do these things are an abomination unto Jehovah; and because of these abominations Jehovah thy God doth dispossess them from before thee. ¹³Thou shalt be perfect with Jehovah thy God. ¹⁴For these nations, which thou shalt dispossess, hearkened to observers of clouds, and to diviners; but as for thee, Jehovah thy God hath not suffered thee so to do.

¹⁵Jehovah thy God will raise up unto thee a prophet from the midst of thee, one of thy brethren, like unto me; unto him ye shall hearken; ¹⁶according to all that thou askedst of Jehovah thy God in Horeb in the day of the assembly, saying, Let me not hear again the voice of Jehovah my God, neither let me see this great fire any more that I die not.—¹⁷And Jehovah said to me, They have well done in what they have spoken. ¹⁸I will raise them up a prophet from among their brethren, like unto thee, and will put my words in his mouth; and he shall speak to them all that I shall command him. ¹⁹And it shall come to pass, that whosoever will not hearken to my words which he shall speak in my name, I will require it of him. ²⁰But the prophet that shall presume to speak a word in my name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or that shall speak in the name of other gods, even that prophet shall die.—²¹And if thou say in thy heart, How shall we know the word which Jehovah hath not spoken? ²²When the prophet speaketh in the name of Jehovah, if the thing follow not, nor

'come to pass, that is a thing which Jehovah hath not spoken, but the prophet hath spoken it presumptuously; thou shalt not be afraid of him.

'19 When Jehovah thy God hath cut off the nations, whose land Jehovah thy God giveth thee, and thou dispossesest them, and dwellest in their cities, and in their houses; 2 thou shalt separate THREE CITIES for thee in the midst of thy land, which Jehovah thy God giveth thee to possess it. 3 Thou shalt prepare thee a highway, and divide the boundaries of thy land, which Jehovah thy God giveth thee to inherit, into three parts, that every manslayer may flee thither. 4 And this is the case of the manslayer, who shall flee thither, that he may live. Whoso killeth his neighbour without knowing it, or whom he hated not in time past; 5 or whose goeth into the wood with his neighbour to hew down the trees, and his hand fetcheth a stroke with the axe to cut the tree, and the iron head slippeth from the handle, and lighteth upon his neighbour, that he die; he shall flee unto one of those cities, and live; 6 lest the avenger of the blood pursue the manslayer, while his heart is hot, and overtake him, because the way is long, and slay him; whereas he was not worthy of death, inasmuch as he hated him not in time past. 7 Therefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt separate three cities for thee. 8 And if Jehovah thy God enlarge thy boundary, as he hath sworn unto thy fathers, and give thee all the land which he promised to give to thy fathers, 9 when thou shalt keep all these commandments to do them, which I command thee this day, to love Jehovah thy God, and to walk ever in his ways; then shalt thou add THREE CITIES MORE for thee, beside these three; 10 so that innocent blood be not shed within thy land, which Jehovah thy God giveth thee for an inheritance, and bloodshed be upon thee. 11 But if any man hate his neighbour, and lie in wait for him, and rise up against him, and smite him mortally that he die, and he fleeth into one of these cities; 12 then the elders of his city shall send and fetch him thence, and deliver him into the hand of the avenger of blood, that he may die. 13 Thine eye shall not pity him, but thou shalt put away the innocent blood from off Israel, that it may go well with thee.

'14 Thou shalt not remove thy neighbour's landmark, which they of old time have set up as a mark in thine inheritance, which thou shalt inherit in the land that Jehovah thy God giveth thee to possess it.

'15 One witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin; in any sin that he sinneth, at the mouth of TWO WITNESSES, or at the mouth of three witnesses shall the matter be established. 16 If an injurious witness rise up against any man to testify against him a wrong; 17 then both the men, between whom the controversy is, shall stand before Jehovah, before the priests and the judges, who shall be in these 'days; 18 and the judges shall make diligent inquisition; and behold, if the witness be a false witness, and hath testified falsely against his brother; 19 then shall ye do to him as he hath thought to have done to his brother; so shalt thou put away the evil from among you. 20 And those who remain shall hear, and fear, and shall henceforth commit no more any such evil among you. 21 And thine eye shall not pity; but life shall go for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

'20 When thou goest out TO BATTLE against thine enemies, and seest horses, and chariots, of a people more than thou, be not afraid of them; for Jehovah thy God is with thee, who brought thee up out of the land of Lower Egypt. 2 And it shall be, when ye are come nigh to the battle, that the priest shall approach and speak to the people, 3 and shall say to them, Hear, O Israel, ye approach this day to battle against your enemies; let not your hearts faint, fear not, and do not hasten to flee, neither be ye terrified because of them; 4 for Jehovah your God is he that goeth with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.—5 And the officers shall speak to the people, saying, What man is there that hath built a new house, and hath not dedicated it? let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man dedicate it. 6 And what man is he that hath planted a vineyard, and hath not yet had the spoil of it? let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man have the spoil of it. 7 And what man is there that hath betrothed a wife, and hath not taken her? let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man take her.—8 And the officers shall speak further to the people, and they shall say, What man is there that is fearful and faint-hearted? let him go and return to his house, lest he make his brethren's heart to faint as well as his own heart.—9 And it shall be, when the officers have made an end of speaking to the people, that they shall appoint captains of the armies to be at the head of the people.

'10 When thou comest nigh UNTO A CITY to fight against it, then proclaim peace unto it. 11 And it shall be, if it make thee an answer of peace, and open to thee, then it shall be, that all the people that is found therein shall be tributaries to thee, and they shall serve thee. 12 And if it will make no peace with thee, but will make war against thee, then thou shalt besiege it; 13 and when Jehovah thy God hath delivered it into thy hands, thou shalt smite every male thereof with the edge of the sword; 14 but the women and the little ones, and the cattle, and all that is in the city, even all the plunder thereof, shalt thou seize to thyself; and thou shalt eat the plunder of thine enemies, which Jehovah thy God hath given thee. 15 Thus shalt thou do to all the cities which are very far off from thee, which are not of the cities of these nations that are here. 16 But of the cities

'of these peoples, which Jehovah thy God doth give thee for an inheritance, thou shalt save alive nothing that breatheth; ¹⁷ but thou shalt utterly destroy them; namely, the Hittites, and the Amorites, the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites; as Jehovah thy God hath commanded thee; ¹⁸ to the end that they may not teach you to do after all their abominations, which they have done to their gods; so would ye sin against Jehovah your God.

²¹ If any one be FOUND SLAIN in the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee to possess it, lying in the field, and it be not known who hath smitten him; ² then thine elders and thy judges shall come forth, and they shall measure unto the cities which are round about him that is slain; ³ and it shall be, that the city which is nearest to the slain man, even the elders of that city shall take a heifer which hath not been wrought with, which hath not drawn in the yoke; ⁴ and the elders of that city shall bring down the heifer unto a stony valley, which is neither plowed nor sown, and shall break the neck of the heifer there in the valley. ⁵ And the priests the sons of Levi shall come near; for them Jehovah thy God hath chosen to minister to him, and to bless in the name of Jehovah; and by their word shall every controversy and every stroke be tried; ⁶ and all the elders of that city, that are nearest to the slain man, shall wash their hands over the heifer that had its neck broken in the valley; ⁷ and they shall answer and say, Our hands have not shed this blood, neither have our eyes seen it. ⁸ Forgive, O Jehovah, thy people Israel, whom thou hast redeemed, and lay not innocent blood to thy people Israel's charge.—And the blood shall be forgiven them. ⁹ So shalt thou put away the innocent blood from among you, when thou shalt do that which is right in the sight of Jehovah.

¹⁰ When thou goest forth to war against thine enemies, and Jehovah thy God hath delivered them into thy hands, and thou hast taken them captive, ¹¹ and thou seest AMONG THE CAPTIVES A WOMAN of beautiful form, and hast a desire unto her, that thou wouldst have her for thy wife; ¹² then thou shalt bring her to thy house; and she shall shave her head and pare her nails; ¹³ and she shall put the raiment of her captivity from off her, and shall remain in thy house, and bewail her father and her mother a month; and after that thou shalt go in unto her, and be her husband, and she shall be thy wife. ¹⁴ And it shall be, if thou have no delight in her, then thou shalt let her go whither she will; but thou shalt not sell her at all for money, thou shalt not make her a slave, because thou hast humbled her.

¹⁵ If a man have TWO WIVES, the one beloved, and the other hated, and they have borne him sons, both the beloved and the hated; and if the firstborn son be hers that was hated; ¹⁶ then it shall be, in the day that he maketh his sons to inherit that which he hath, that he may not make the son of the beloved to be the firstborn, before the son of the hated, who was firstborn. ¹⁷ But he shall acknowledge the son of the hated for the firstborn by giving him a double portion of all that he hath; for he is the beginning of his strength; the right of the firstborn is his.

¹⁸ If a man have a stubborn and REBELLIOUS SON, who will not obey the voice of his father, or the voice of his mother, and that, when they have chastened him, will not obey them; ¹⁹ then shall his father and his mother lay hold on him, and bring him out to the elders of his city, and to the gate of his place; ²⁰ and they shall say to the elders of his city, This our son is stubborn and rebellious, he will not obey our voice; he is a riotous liver, and a drunkard.—²¹ And all the men of his city shall stone him with stones, that he die; so shalt thou put the evil away from among you; and all Israel shall hear, and shall fear.

²² And if a man have committed a sin worthy of death, and he be put to death, and thou hang him on a tree; ²³ his body shall not remain all night upon the tree, but thou shalt surely BURY HIM THAT DAY; (for he that is hanged is accused of God); that thy land be not defiled, which Jehovah thy God giveth thee for an inheritance.

²² Thou shalt not see thy brother's ox or his sheep [or goat] go astray, and hide thyself from them; thou shalt in any case bring them again to thy brother. ² And if thy brother be not nigh unto thee, or if thou know him not, then thou shalt gather it to thine own house, and it shall be with thee until thy brother seek after it, and thou shalt restore it to him. ³ And in like manner shalt thou do with his ass; and so shalt thou do with his raiment; and with any lost thing of thy brother's which he hath lost, and thou hast found, shalt thou do likewise, thou mayest not hide thyself. ⁴ Thou shalt not see thy brother's ass or his ox fall down by the way, and hide thyself from them; thou shalt surely help him to lift them up.

⁵ The woman shall not wear a man's clothes; neither shall a man put on a woman's garment; for all that do so are abomination unto Jehovah thy God.

⁶ If a bird's nest chance to be before thee in the way, in any tree, or on the ground, whether they be young ones, or eggs, and the mother sitting upon the young, or upon the eggs, thou shalt not take the mother with the young; ⁷ but

'thou shalt surely let the mother go, and take the young to thee; that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy days.

⁸ When thou buildest a new house, then thou shalt make a battlement for thy roof, that thou bring not bloodshed on thy house, if a man fall dead from thence.

⁹ Thou shalt not sow thy vineyard with mingled seed; lest both the seed which thou hast sown, and the increase of the vineyard, be defiled. ¹⁰ Thou shalt not plow with an ox and an ass together.

¹¹ Thou shalt not wear cloth of divers sorts, as of wool and flax together.

¹² Thou shalt make for thee tassels on the four corners of thy cloak, wherewith thou coverest thyself.

¹³ If any man take a wife, and go in unto her, and hate her, ¹⁴ and lay a shameful charge against her, and bring up an evil name upon her, and say, 'I took this woman, and when I came to her, I found her not a maiden; ¹⁵ then shall the father of the damsel, and her mother, take and bring forth the tokens of the damsel's virginity to the elders of the city at the city gate; ¹⁶ and the damsel's father shall say to the elders, I gave my daughter to this man to wife, and he hateth her; ¹⁷ and lo, he hath laid a shameful charge against her, saying, I found not thy daughter a maiden; and yet these are the tokens of my daughter's virginity. And they shall spread the cloth before the elders of the city. ¹⁸ And the elders of that city shall take that man and chastise him; ¹⁹ and they shall amerce him in a hundred shekels of silver, and give them to the father of the damsel, because he hath brought up an evil name upon a maiden of Israel. And she shall be his wife; he may not put her away all his days. ²⁰ But if this thing be true, and the tokens of virginity be not found for the damsel; ²¹ then they shall bring out the damsel to the doorway of her father's house, and the men of her city shall stone her with stones that she die; because she hath wrought folly in Israel, to go astray in her father's house; so shalt thou put evil away from among you.

²² If a man be found lying with a woman married to a husband, then they shall both of them die, both the man that lay with the woman, and the woman; so shalt thou put away the evil from Israel. ²³ If a damsel that is a maiden be betrothed to a husband, and a man find her in the city, and lie with her; ²⁴ then ye shall bring them both out to the gate of that city, and ye shall stone them with stones that they die; the damsel, because she cried not for help, being in the city; and the man, because he hath humbled his neighbour's wife; so thou shalt put away the evil from among you. ²⁵ But if a man find a betrothed damsel in the field, and the man force her, and lie with her; then the man only that lay with her shall die; ²⁶ but to the damsel thou shalt do nothing; there is in the damsel no sin worthy of 'death. For as when a man riseth against his neighbour, and slayeth him, even so is this matter; ²⁷ for he found her in the field, and the betrothed damsel cried for help, and there was none to save her. ²⁸ If a man find a damsel that is a maiden, who is not betrothed, and lay hold on her, and lie with her, and they be found; ²⁹ then the man that lay with her shall give to the damsel's father fifty [Shekels] of silver, and she shall be his wife; because he hath humbled her, he may not put her away all his days.

³⁰ A man shall not take his father's wife, and uncover his father's skirt.

⁹ When the camp goeth forth against thine enemies, then keep thyself from every evil thing. ¹⁰ If there be among you any man, that is not clean by reason of what chanceth him by night, then shall he go abroad out of the camp, he shall not come within the camp; ¹¹ but it shall be, when evening cometh on, he shall wash himself with water; and when the sun is down, he shall come into the camp again. ¹² Thou shalt have a marked place also without the camp, whither thou shalt go forth abroad; ¹³ and thou shalt have a paddle upon thy weapon; and it shall be, when thou wilt ease thyself abroad, thou shalt dig therewith, and shalt turn back and cover that which goeth from thee; ¹⁴ for Jehovah thy God walketh about in the midst of thy camp, to deliver thee, and to give up thine enemies before thee; therefore shall thy camp be holy; that he see no uncleanness in thee, and turn away from thee.

¹⁷ There shall be no prostitute of the daughters of Israel, nor a male prostitute of the sons of Israel. ¹⁸ Thou shalt not bring the hire of a harlot, or the price of a dog, into the house of Jehovah thy God for any vow; for even both these are abomination unto Jehovah thy God.

²¹ When thou shalt vow A VOW unto Jehovah thy God, thou shalt not be slack to pay it; for Jehovah thy God will surely require it of thee; and it would be sin in thee. ²² But if thou shalt forbear to vow, it shall be no sin in thee. ²³ That which is gone out of thy lips thou shalt keep and perform according as thou hast vowed unto Jehovah thy God, even the freewill offering which thou hast promised with thy mouth.

²⁶ When a man hath taken a wife, and married her, and it come to pass that she find no favour in his eyes, because he hath found some uncleanness in her; then let him write her a BILL OF DIVORCEMENT, and give it into her hand, and send her out of his house. ² And when she is departed out of his house, she may go and be another man's wife. ³ And if the latter husband hate her, and write her a bill of divorcement, and giveth it into her hand, and sendeth her out of his house; or if the latter husband die, who took her to be his wife; ⁴ her former husband, who sent her away, may not take her again to be his wife, after that she is defiled; for that is abomination before Jehovah; and thou shalt not cause the land to sin, which Jehovah thy God giveth thee for an inheritance.

⁶ No man shall take in pledge the handmill or the upper millstone; for he taketh a man's life in pledge.

⁸ Take heed in the plague of leprosy, that thou observe diligently, and do according to all that the priests the Levites shall teach you; as I commanded them, so ye shall observe to do. ⁹ Remember what Jehovah thy God did to Miriam by the way, when ye came out of Lower Egypt.

¹⁶ The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, neither shall the children be put to death for the fathers; every man shall be put to death for his own sin.

¹⁹ When thou reapest thy harvest in thy field, and hast forgotten a sheaf in the field, thou shalt not go back again to fetch it; it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow; so that Jehovah thy God may bless thee in all the work of thy hands. ²⁰ When thou beatest thine olive tree, thou shalt not go over the boughs again; it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow. ²¹ When thou gatherest the grapes of thy vineyard, thou shalt not glean it afterward; it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow. ²² And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bond-servant in the land of Lower Egypt. Therefore I command thee to do this thing.

²³ If there be a quarrel between men, and they come to judgment, that the judges may judge them; then they shall acquit the righteous, and condemn the guilty. ²⁴ And it shall be, if the guilty man be worthy to be beaten, that the judge shall cause him to lie down, and to be beaten before his face, according to his guilt, by a certain number. ²⁵ Forty stripes he may give him, and not exceed; lest, if he should exceed, and beat him above these with many stripes, then thy brother should seem vile unto thee.

⁴Thou shalt not muzzle the ox when he treadeth out [the corn].

⁵If brethren dwell together, and one of them die, and have no child, the wife of the dead man shall not marry abroad to a stranger; her husband's brother shall go in unto her, and take her to him to wife, and perform the duty of a husband's brother to her. ⁶And it shall be, that the first-born which she beareth shall succeed in the name of his brother which is dead, that his name be not blotted out of Israel. ⁷And if the man like not to take his brother's wife, then let his brother's wife go up to the city gates to the elders, and say, My husband's brother refuseth to raise up unto his brother a name in Israel, he will not perform the duty of my husband's brother. ⁸Then the elders of his city shall call him, and speak to him. And if he stand to it, and say, I like not to take her; ⁹then shall his brother's wife come to him in the presence of the elders, and loose his shoe from off his foot, and spit in his face, and shall answer and say, So shall it be done to that man that will not build up his brother's house. ¹⁰And his name shall be called in Israel, The house of him that hath his shoe loosed.

¹⁷Remember what Amalek did to thee by the way, when ye came forth out of Lower Egypt; ¹⁸how he met thee by the way, and smote the hindmost of thee, even all that were feeble behind thee, when thou wast faint and weary; and he feared not God. ¹⁹Therefore it shall be, when Jehovah thy God hath given thee rest from all thine enemies round about, in the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee for an inheritance to possess it, that thou shalt blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under the heavens; thou shalt not forget it.

²⁰And it shall be, when thou art come into the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee for an inheritance, and thou possessest it, and dwellest therein; ²¹that thou shalt take some of the FIRST OF ALL THE FRUITS of the earth, which thou shalt bring of thy land that Jehovah thy God giveth thee, and shalt put it in a basket, and shalt go to The Place which Jehovah thy God shall choose to cause his Name to dwell there. ³And thou shalt go to the Priest that shall be in those days, and say to him, I acknowledge this day unto Jehovah thy God, that I am come to the country which Jehovah sware to our fathers for to give us. ⁴And the Priest shall take the basket out of thy hand, and set it down before the Altar of Jehovah thy God. ⁵And thou shalt answer and say before Jehovah thy God, A Syrian wanderer was my father, and he went down into Lower Egypt, and sojourned there with a few men, and became there a nation, great, mighty, and populous. ⁶And the Egyptians ill-treated us, and afflicted us, and laid upon us hard bondage. ⁷And when we cried to Jehovah the God of our fathers, Jehovah heard our voice, and looked on our affliction, and our labour, and our oppression. ⁸And Jehovah brought us forth out of Lower Egypt with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with great terribleness, and with signs, and with wonders. ⁹And he hath brought us into this place, and hath given us this land, a land that floweth with milk and honey. ¹⁰And now, behold, I have brought the first of the fruits of the land, which thou, O Jehovah, hast given me.— ¹¹And thou shalt set it down before Jehovah thy God, and worship before Jehovah thy God. And thou shalt rejoice in every good thing which Jehovah thy God hath given to thee, and to thy house, thou, and the Levite, and the stranger that is among you.

¹²When thou hast made an end of tithing all the tithes of thine increase on the third year, which is the year of tithing, and hast given it to the Levite, the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, that they may eat within thy city gates, and be filled; ¹³then thou shalt say before Jehovah thy God, I have put away the hallowed things out of my house, and I have also given them to the Levite, and to the stranger, to the fatherless, and to the widow, according to all thy commandments which thou hast commanded me; I have not transgressed thy commandments, neither have I forgotten them. ¹⁴I have not eaten thereof in my mourning, neither have I put away aught thereof for any unclean use, nor given aught thereof for the dead; but I have hearkened to the voice of Jehovah my God, and have done according to all that thou hast commanded me. ¹⁵Look down from heaven, thy holy habitation, and bless thy people Israel, and the land which thou hast given us, as thou swarest to our fathers, a land that floweth with milk and honey.

¹⁶This day Jehovah thy God hath commanded thee to do these statutes and judgments; thou shalt therefore keep and do them with all thy heart, and with all thy soul. ¹⁷Thou hast this day allowed it to be said that Jehovah is thy God, and that thou wilt walk in his ways, and keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his judgments, and hearken to his voice. ¹⁸And Jehovah hath this day allowed it to be said that thou art

'his peculiar people, as he hath promised thee, and
'that thou shouldest keep all his commandments;
'¹⁹ and that he would make thee high above all the 'nations which he hath made, in praise, and in
'name, and in honour; and that thou shouldest
'be a holy people unto Jehovah thy God, as he 'hath spoken.'

27 AND MOSES WITH THE ELDERS of Israel commanded the people, saying, 'Keep all the com'mands which I command you this day. ² And it 'shall be on the day when ye shall pass over the 'Jordan unto the land which Jehovah thy God
'giveth thee, that thou shalt set thee up great 'stones, and plaister them with plaister. ³ And
'thou shalt write upon them all the words of this 'law, when thou art passed over, that thou mayest
'go in to the land which Jehovah thy God giveth
'thee, a land that floweth with milk and honey;
'as Jehovah the God of thy fathers hath promised
'thee. ⁴ Therefore it shall be when ye be gone
'over the Jordan, that ye shall set up these stones,
'which I command you this day, on mount Ebal,
'and thou shalt plaister them with plaister. ⁵ And
'there shalt thou build an altar unto Jehovah thy 'God, an altar of stones; thou shalt not lift up any 'iron tool upon them. ⁶ Thou shalt build the altar of 'Jehovah thy God of whole stones; and thou shalt 'offer up burnt offerings thereon to Jehovah thy 'God; ⁷ and thou shalt sacrifice peace offerings,
'and shall eat there, and rejoice before Jehovah
'thy God. ⁸ And thou shalt write upon the stones
'all the words of this law, cutting [the letters] deep.'

² And Moses and the priests the Levites spake to all Israel, saying, 'Take heed, and hearken, O
'Israel; this day thou art become the people of 'Jehovah thy God. ¹⁰ Thou shalt therefore hearken
'to the voice of Jehovah thy God, and do his com'mandments and his statutes, which I command
'thee this day.'

¹¹ (And Moses commanded the people the same day, saying, ¹² 'These shall stand upon mount
'Gerizim to bless the people, when ye are come
'over the Jordan; Simeon, and Levi, and Judah,
'and Issachar, and Joseph, and Benjamin. ¹³ And
'these shall stand upon mount Ebal to curse; ¹⁴
'Reuben, Gad, and Asher, and Zebulun, Dan, and
'Naphtali. ¹⁴ And the Levites shall speak, and say
'to all the men of Israel with a loud voice,

'¹⁵ Cursed be the man that maketh a graven or
'molten image, an abomination unto Jehovah, the 'work of the craftsman's hands, and putteth it in 'a secret place. And all the people shall answer
'and say, Amen [or True].

'¹⁶ Cursed be he that lightly esteemeth his father
'or his mother. And all the people shall say, Amen.

'¹⁷ Cursed be he that removeth his neighbour's
'landmark. And all the people shall say, Amen.

'¹⁸ Cursed be he that maketh the blind to wander
'out of the way. And all the people shall say, Amen.

'¹⁹ Cursed be he that turneth aside judgment

'from the stranger, the fatherless, or the widow.
'And all the people shall say, Amen.

'²⁰ Cursed be he that lieth with his father's 'wife; because he uncovereth his father's skirt.
'And all the people shall say, Amen.

'²¹ Cursed be he that lieth with any manner of 'beast. And all the people shall say, Amen.

'²² Cursed be he that lieth with his sister, the 'daughter of his father, or the daughter of his 'mother. And all the people shall say, Amen.

'²³ Cursed be he that lieth with his mother in 'law. And all the people shall say, Amen.

'²⁴ Cursed be he that smiteth his neighbour
'secretly. And all the people shall say, Amen.

'²⁵ Cursed be he that taketh a bribe to slay an in'nocent person. And all the people shall say, Amen.

'²⁶ Cursed be he that confirmeth not the words
'of this law to do them. And all the people shall 'say, Amen.)

'28 And it shall come to pass, if thou shalt
'hearken diligently to the voice of Jehovah thy 'God, to observe and to do all his commandments
'which I command thee this day, that Jehovah thy 'God will set thee on high above all nations of the 'earth. ² And all THESE BLESSINGS shall come on 'thee, and overtake thee, if thou shalt hearken to
'the voice of Jehovah thy God.

'³ Blessed shalt thou be in the city, and blessed
'shalt thou be in the field.

'⁴ Blessed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the 'fruit of thy land, and the fruit of thy cattle, the 'increase of thy kine, and the breeding of thy flocks.

'⁵ Blessed shall be thy basket and thy kneading-
'trough.

'⁶ Blessed shalt thou be when thou comest in,
'and blessed shalt thou be when thou goest out.

'⁷ Jehovah will cause thine enemies that rise up 'against thee to be smitten before thy face; they 'shall come out against thee one way, and flee before
'thee seven ways.

'⁸ Jehovah will command the blessing upon thee
'in thy storehouses, and in all that thou settest thy 'hand to; and he will bless thee in the land which
'Jehovah thy God giveth thee.

'⁹ Jehovah will establish thee a holy people
'unto himself, as he hath sworn to thee, if thou
'wilt keep the commandments of Jehovah thy God,
'and walk in his ways. ¹⁰ And all the peoples of 'the earth shall see that thou art called by the 'name of Jehovah; and they shall be afraid of thee.

'¹¹ And Jehovah will make thee to overflow for 'good, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of 'thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy ground, in the 'land which Jehovah sware unto thy fathers to 'give thee.

'¹² Jehovah will open to thee his good treasure-
'house, the heavens, to give the rain to thy land
'in its season, and to bless all the work of thy hand;

'and thou shalt lend unto many nations, and thou shalt not borrow.

'¹³ And Jehovah will make thee the head, and not the tail; and thou shalt be above only, and thou shalt not be beneath; if that thou hearken to the commandments of Jehovah thy God, which I command thee this day, to observe and to do them, ¹⁴and thou go not aside from any of the words which I command you this day, to the right hand, or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them.

'¹⁵ But it shall come to pass, if thou wilt not hearken to the voice of Jehovah thy God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes, which I command thee this day; that all THESE CURSES shall come against thee, and overtake thee;

'¹⁶ Cursed shalt thou be in the city, and cursed shalt thou be in the field.

'¹⁷ Cursed shall be thy basket and thy kneading-trough.

'¹⁸ Cursed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy land, the increase of thy kine, and the breeding of thy flocks.

'¹⁹ Cursed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and cursed shalt thou be when thou goest out.

'²⁰ Jehovah will send upon thee cursing, vexation, and rebuke, in all that thou settest thy hand to for to do, until thou be destroyed, and until thou perish quickly; because of the wickedness of thy doings, whereby thou hast forsaken me.

'²¹ Jehovah will make the pestilence cleave to thee until he have consumed thee from off the land, whither thou goest to possess it.

'²² Jehovah will smite thee with a consumption, and with a fever, and with an inflammation, and with an extreme burning, and with drought, and with blight, and with mildew; and they shall pursue thee until thou perish. ²³ And thy heavens that are over thy head shall be copper, and the earth that is under thee shall be iron.

'²⁴ Jehovah will make the rain of thy land to be sand and dust; from the heavens shall it come down upon thee, until thou be destroyed.

'²⁵ Jehovah will cause thee to be smitten before thine enemies; thou shalt go out against them one way, and flee before them seven ways; and thou shalt be scattered into all the kingdoms of the earth. ²⁶ And thy carcass shall be food unto all the fowls of the air, and unto the beasts of the earth, and no man shall frighten them away.

'²⁷ Jehovah will smite thee with the boils of Lower Egypt, and with the swellings, and with the scurvy, and with the itch, whereof thou canst not be healed.

'²⁸ Jehovah will smite thee with madness, and blindness, and astonishment of heart; ²⁹and thou shalt grope at noonday, as the blind man gropeth in darkness, and thou shalt not prosper in thy ways; and thou shalt be only oppressed and plundered evermore, and no man shall save thee.

'³⁰ Thou shalt betroth a wife, and another man shall lie with her. Thou shalt build a house, and thou shalt not dwell therein. Thou shalt plant a vineyard, and shalt not have the spoil thereof. ³¹Thine ox shall be slain before thine eyes, and thou shalt not eat thereof. Thine ass shall be violently taken away from before thy face, and shall not be restored to thee. Thy flocks shall be given to thine enemies, and thou shalt have none to rescue them. ³² Thy sons and thy daughters shall be given to another people, and thine eyes shall fail with looking for them all the day long; and there shall be no might in thy hand. ³³ The fruit of thy land, and of all thy labour, shall a people, which thou knowest not, eat up; and thou shalt be only oppressed and crushed alway; ³⁴so that thou shalt be made mad by the sights before thine eyes which thou shalt see.

'³⁵ Jehovah will smite thee in the knees, and in the legs, with a sore boil that cannot be healed, from the sole of thy foot to the top of thy head.

'³⁶ Jehovah will bring thee and thy king whom thou shalt set over thee, to a nation [the Babylonians] which neither thou nor thy fathers have known; and there shalt thou serve other gods, of wood and stone. ³⁷ And thou shalt become an astonishment, a proverb, and a byword, among all the peoples whither Jehovah shall drive thee.

'³⁸ Thou shalt carry much seed out into the field, and shalt gather but little in; for the locust shall consume it. ³⁹ Thou shalt plant vineyards, and dress them, but shalt neither drink of the wine, nor gather the grapes; for the worms shall eat them. ⁴⁰ Thou shalt have olive trees throughout all thy boundaries, but thou shalt not anoint thyself with the oil; for thine olives shall cast their fruit. ⁴¹ Thou shalt beget sons and daughters; but they shall not be thine; for they shall go into captivity. ⁴² All thy trees and fruit of thy land shall the Tsalsal locust take possession of. ⁴³ The stranger that is among thee shall get up above thee very high; and thou shalt come down very low. ⁴⁴ He shall lend to thee, and thou shalt not lend to him; he shall be the head, and thou shalt be the tail.

'⁴⁵ Moreover all these curses shall come against thee, and shall pursue thee, and overtake thee, till thou be destroyed; because thou hearkenedst not to the voice of Jehovah thy God, to keep his commandments, and his statutes which he commanded thee. ⁴⁶ And they shall be upon thee for a sign and for a wonder, and upon thy seed for ever. ⁴⁷ Because thou servedst not Jehovah thy God with joyfulness, and with gladness of heart, for the abundance of all things; ⁴⁸ therefore shalt thou serve thine enemies which Jehovah shall send against thee, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in want of all things; and he will put a yoke of iron upon thy neck, until he have destroyed thee.

'⁴⁹ Jehovah will bring up against thee a nation [the Scythians] from far, from the end of the ‘earth, flying as the eagle; ⁵⁰ a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand; a nation of fierce countenance, which will not regard the person of the old, nor shew favour to the young. ⁵¹ And it will eat the fruit of thy cattle, and the fruit of thy land, until thou be destroyed; who also will not leave to thee either corn, grape-juice, or oil, or the increase of thy kine, or the breeding of thy flocks, until it have destroyed thee. ⁵² And he will besiege thee in all thy city gates, until thy high and fenced walls come down, wherein thou trustedst, throughout all thy land; and he will besiege thee in all thy city gates throughout all thy land, which Jehovah thy God hath given thee. ⁵³ And thou shalt eat the fruit of thine own body, the flesh of thy sons and of thy daughters whom Jehovah thy God hath given thee, in the siege, and in the distress, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee. ⁵⁴ The man that is tender among you, and very delicate, his eye shall be evil toward his brother, and toward the wife of his bosom, and toward the remnant of his children which he shall leave; ⁵⁵ so that he will not give to any of them any of the flesh of his children whom he eateth; because he hath nothing left him in the siege, and in the distress, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee in all thy city gates. ⁵⁶ The tender and delicate woman among you, that would not venture to set the sole of her feet upon the ground for delicateness and tenderness, her eye shall be evil toward the husband of her bosom, and toward her son, and toward her daughter, ⁵⁷ and toward herafter-birth that cometh out from between her feet, and toward her children which she shall bear; for she shall eat them secretly for want of all things in the siege and distress, wherewith thine enemy shall distress thee in thy city gates.

⁵⁸ If thou wilt not observe to do all the words of this law that are written in this Book, that thou mayest fear this glorious and fearful name of Jehovah thy God; ⁵⁹ then Jehovah will make thy plagues wonderful, and the plagues of thy seed, even plagues great, and of long continuance, and sicknesses sore, and of long continuance. ⁶⁰ Moreover he will bring back upon thee all the diseases of the Egyptians which thou wast afraid of; and they shall cleave to thee. ⁶¹ Also every sickness, and every plague, which is not written in this Book of the Law, them will Jehovah bring upon thee, until thou be destroyed. ⁶² And ye shall be left few in number, whereas ye were as the stars of heaven for multitude; because thou didst not hearken to the voice of Jehovah thy God. ⁶³ And it shall come to pass, that as Jehovah did rejoice over you to do you good and to multiply you; so Jehovah will rejoice over you to destroy you, and to bring you to nought; and ye shall be plucked from off the land whither thou goest to possess it.

‘other; and there thou shalt serve other gods, which neither thou nor thy fathers have known, even wood and stone. ⁶⁵ And among those nations shalt thou find no ease, neither shall the sole of thy foot have a resting place; but Jehovah will give thee there a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and sorrow of soul. ⁶⁶ And thy life shall hang in doubt before thee; and thou shalt fear night and day, and shalt have none assurance of thy life. ⁶⁷ In the morning thou shalt say, Oh that it were evening! and at evening thou shalt say, Oh that it were morning! because of thy heart’s fear, wherewith thou shalt fear, and because of the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see. ⁶⁸ And Jehovah will bring thee into Lower Egypt again with ships, by the way whereof I said to thee, Thou shalt see it no more again. And there ye shall be sold to your enemies for bond-servants and handmaids, and no man shall redeem you.’ 29 These are the words of the Covenant, which Jehovah commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab, beside the Covenant which he made with them in Horeb.

2 AND MOSES CALLED to all Israel, and said to them, ‘Ye have seen all that Jehovah did before your eyes in the land of Lower Egypt to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land; ³ the great trials which thine eyes have seen, those signs and great wonders. ⁴ Yet up to this day Jehovah hath not given you a heart to understand, and eyes to see, and ears to hear. ⁵ And I have led you for forty years in the desert; your clothes are not worn out upon you, and thy shoe is not worn out from off thy foot. ⁶ Ye have not eaten bread, neither have ye drunk wine or strong drink; so that ye might know that I am Jehovah your God. ⁷ And when ye came to this place, Sihon the king of Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, came out against us unto battle. And we smote them; ⁸ and we took their land, and gave it for an inheritance to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half tribe of Manasseh. ⁹ Keep therefore the words of this Covenant, and do them, so that ye may prosper in all that ye do.

¹⁴ Neither with you only do I make this covenant and this oath [or self-curse]; ¹⁵ but both with him that is here with us standing this day before Jehovah our God, and also with him that 'is not here with us this day; ¹⁶(for ye know how we have dwelt in the land of Lower Egypt; and how we passed in the midst of the nations which ye passed through; ¹⁷and ye saw their abominations, and their filthy idols, of wood and stone, of silver and gold, which were among them); ¹⁸lest there should be among you man, or woman, or family, or tribe, whose heart turneth away this day from Jehovah our God, to go and serve the gods of those nations; lest there should be among you a root that beareth hemlock or wormwood; ¹⁹and it come to pass, when he heareth the words of this self-curse, that he bless himself in his heart, saying, I shall have peace, though I walk in the stubbornness of my heart, so that drunkenness may destroy thirst.—²⁰Jehovah will not forgive him, but then the anger of Jehovah and his jealousy shall smoke against that man, and all the self-curses that are written in this Book shall lie upon him, and Jehovah will blot out his name from under the heavens. ²¹And Jehovah will separate him unto evil out of all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the Covenant that are written in this Book of the Law; ²²so that the generation to come of your children that shall rise up after you, and the foreigners that shall come from a far land, shall say, when ye see the plagues of that land, and the sicknesses wherewith Jehovah hath made it sick; ²³and that the whole land is burnt up with brimstone, and salt; that it is not sown, nor beareth herb, and that no grass groweth therein, like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zebibim, which Jehovah overthrew in his anger, and in his wrath;—²⁴even all nations shall say, Wherefore hath Jehovah done thus to this land? what meaneth the heat of this great anger? ²⁵Then men shall say, Because they have forsaken the Covenant of Jehovah the God of their fathers, which he made with them when he brought them forth out of the land of Lower Egypt; ²⁶for they went and served other gods, and worshipped them, gods whom they knew not, and whom he had not portioned out unto them. ²⁷And the anger of Jehovah was kindled against this land, to bring upon it all the curses that are written in this Book. ²⁸And Jehovah rooted them out of their land in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation, and cast them into another land, as it is this day. ²⁹Hidden things belong to Jehovah our God; but those things which are revealed belong to us and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this Law.

³⁰And it shall come to pass, when all these things are come upon thee, the blessing and the curse, which I have set before thee, and thou shalt call them to mind among all the nations, whither Jehovah thy God hath driven thee, and shalt return to Jehovah thy God, and shalt hearken to his voice according to all that I command thee this day, thou and thy children, with all thy heart, and with all thy soul; ³that then Jehovah thy God will bring home thy Captivity;

and will return and gather thee from all the peoples whither Jehovah thy God hath scattered thee. ⁴If thou be driven away to the utmost parts of the heavens, from thence will Jehovah thy God gather thee, and from thence will he fetch thee. ⁵And Jehovah thy God will bring thee into the land which thy fathers possessed, and thou shalt possess it; and he will do thee good, and multiply thee above thy fathers. ⁶And Jehovah thy God will circumsise thy heart, and the heart of thy seed, to love Jehovah thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, so that thou mayest live. ⁷And Jehovah thy God will put all these self-curses upon thine enemies, and on them that hate thee, who persecuted thee. ⁸And thou shalt return and hearken to the voice of Jehovah, and do all his commandments which I command thee this day. ⁹And Jehovah thy God will make thee to overflow in every work of thy hand, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy land, for good; for Jehovah will return to rejoice over thee for good, as he rejoiced over thy fathers; ¹⁰if thou shalt hearken to the voice of Jehovah thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which are written in this Book of the Law, and if thou turn to Jehovah thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul.

¹¹For this commandment which I command thee this day, it is not too hard for thee, neither is it far off. ¹²It is not in heaven, that one should say, Who shall go up for us to heaven, and bring it to us, that we may hear it, and do it? ¹³Neither is it beyond the sea, that one should say, Who shall go over to the parts beyond the sea for us, and bring it to us, that we may hear it, and do it? ¹⁴But the word is very nigh to thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart, that thou mayest do it.

¹⁵See, I have set before thee this day life and good, and death and evil; ¹⁶in that I command thee this day to love Jehovah thy God, to walk in his ways, and to keep his commandments and his statutes and his judgments, that thou mayest live and multiply; and Jehovah thy God will bless thee in the land whither thou goest to possess it. ¹⁷But if thy heart turn away, so that thou wilt not hear, but shalt be drawn away and worship other gods, and serve them; ¹⁸I declare to you this day that ye shall surely perish, and that ye shall not prolong your days upon the land, whither thou passest over the Jordan to go to possess it. ¹⁹I call heaven and earth to witness this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing; therefore choose life, so that both thou and thy seed may live, ²⁰that thou mayest love Jehovah thy God, and mayest hearken to his voice, and mayest cleave to him; for he is thy life, and the length of thy days; that thou mayest dwell in the land which Jehovah sware to thy fathers, Abraham/Isaac, and Jacob, to give them.'

And Moses went and spake these words to all Israel. ² And he said to them, 'I am a hundred and twenty years old this day; I can no more go out and come in; also Jehovah hath said to me, 'Thou shalt not go over this Jordan. ³ Jehovah thy God, he will go over before thee; he will destroy these nations from before thee, and thou shalt dispossess them; and Joshua, he shall go over before thee, as Jehovah hath said. ⁴ And Jehovah will do to them as he did to Sihon and to Og, the kings of the Amorites, and to their land when he destroyed them. ⁵ And Jehovah will give them up before your face, that ye may do to them according to all the commands which I have commanded you. ⁶ Be strong and of a good courage, fear not, nor be afraid of them; for Jehovah thy God, he it is that doth go with thee; he will not fail thee nor forsake thee.' ⁷ And Moses called to Joshua, and said to him in the sight of all Israel, 'Be strong and of a good courage; for thou must go with this people to the land which Jehovah hath sworn to their fathers to give them; and thou shalt cause them to inherit it.' ⁸ And Jehovah, he it is that doth go before thee; he will be with thee, he will not fail thee, neither forsake thee. Fear not, neither be dismayed.'

⁹ And Moses wrote THIS LAW, and delivered it to the priests the sons of Levi, who bare the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah, and to all the elders of Israel. ¹⁰ And Moses commanded them, saying, 'At the end of every seven years, at the appointed time of the Year of Release, at the Feast of Tabernacles, ¹¹ when all Israel is come to appear before Jehovah thy God in The Place which he shall choose, thou shalt read this law before all Israel in their hearing. ¹² Assemble the people, men, and women, and little ones, and thy stranger that is within thy city gates, so that they may hear, and so that they may learn and fear Jehovah your God, and may take heed to do all the words of this Law; ¹³ and that their children, who have not known, may hear, and learn to fear Jehovah your God, as long as ye live in the land whither ye go over the Jordan to possess it.'

¹⁴ And Jehovah said to Moses, 'Behold, thy days approach that thou must die. Call Joshua, and present yourselves in the Tent of Meeting, that I may give him a charge.' And Moses and Joshua went, and presented themselves in the Tent of Meeting. ¹⁵ And Jehovah appeared in the Tent, in a pillar of cloud; and the pillar of cloud stood over the doorway of the Tent.

¹⁶ And Jehovah said to Moses, 'Behold, thou wilt sleep with thy fathers; and this people will rise up, and go astray after the gods of the foreigners of the land whither they go to be among them, and they will forsake me, and break my Covenant which I have made with them. ¹⁷ Then my anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and I will hide my face from them, and they shall be devoured, and many evils and troubles shall befall them; so that they will say in that day, Have not these evils befallen us because our God is not among us? ¹⁸ And I will surely hide my face in that day because of all the evils which they shall have done, in that they are turned to other gods. ¹⁹ Now therefore write ye this Song for you, and teach it to the children of Israel. Put it in their mouths, so that this Song may be a witness for me against the children of Israel. ²⁰ For when I shall have brought them into the land of which I swear unto their fathers, that floweth with milk and honey; and they shall have eaten and filled themselves, and waxen fat; then will they turn unto other gods, and serve them, and provoke me, and break my Covenant. ²¹ And it shall come to pass, when many evils and troubles are befallen them, that this Song shall testify against them as a witness; for it shall not be forgotten out of the mouths of their seed. For I knew their imagination which they would do, even this day, before I have brought them into the land of which I swear.' ²² Moses therefore wrote this Song on the same day, and taught it to the children of Israel.

²³ And he gave Joshua the son of Nun a charge, and said, 'Be strong and of a good courage; for thou shalt bring the children of Israel into the land of which I swear to them; and I will be with thee.' ²⁴ And it came to pass, when Moses had made an end of writing the words of this Law in a book, until they were finished, ²⁵ that Moses commanded the Levites, who bare the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah, saying, ²⁶ 'Take this Book of the Law, and put it by the side of the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah your God, that it may be there for a witness against thee. ²⁷ For I know thy rebellion, and thy stiff neck. While I am yet alive with you this day, ye have been rebellious against Jehovah; and how much more after my death? ²⁸ Assemble unto me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speak these words in their ears, and may call heaven and earth to bear witness against them. ²⁹ For I know that after my death ye will utterly corrupt yourselves, and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you; and evil will befall you in the latter days; because ye will do evil in the sight of Jehovah, to provoke him to anger by the work of your hands.'

³⁰ And Moses spake in the ears of all the assembly of Israel the words of THIS SONG until they were ended.

32 Give ear, O ye heavens, and I will speak; And hear, O earth, the words of my mouth. ² My doctrine shall drop down as the rain, My speech shall distil as the dew, As showers upon the tender herb, As and as much rain upon the grass; ³ Because I publish the name of Jehovah.

'Ascribe ye greatness unto our God; ⁴ He is the Rock, his work is perfect. ⁵ For all his ways are judgment.

'A God of truth and without iniquity,
'Just and upright is he.

'⁵ Their faults are their ruin ;

'They are not his children ;

'They are a perverse and crooked generation.

'⁶ Do ye thus requite Jehovah,

'O people foolish and unwise ?

'Is not he thy father that hath bought thee ?

'He made thee, and established thee.

'⁷ Remember the days of old,

'Consider the years of many generations ;

'Ask thy father and he will shew thee,

'Thy elders, and they will tell thee.

'⁸ When the Most High gave inheritances to the 'Nations,

'When he separated the sons of Adam,

'He set the boundaries of the peoples,

'According to the number of the children of Israel.

'⁹ For Jehovah's portion is his people ;

'Jacob is the lot of his inheritance.

'¹⁰ He found him in a desert land,

'And in the waste and howling wilderness ;

'He led him about, he instructed him,

'He guarded him as the apple of his eye.

'¹¹ As an eagle stirreth up her nest,

'Hovereth over her young, spreadeth her wings,

'Taket them up, beareth them on her pinions ;

'¹² So Jehovah alone did lead him.

'And there was no foreign god with him.

'¹³ He made him to ride on the high places of the 'earth,

'And made him to eat the increase of the fields,

'And he made him to suck honey out of the rock,

'And oil out of the crag of iron-stone ;

'¹⁴ Curds of kine, and milk of sheep, with fat of
'lambs,

'And rams of the breed of Bashan, and he-goats,

'With the fat of kidneys of wheat ;

'And thou didst drink the foaming blood of the 'grape.

'¹⁵ But Jeshurun [or Israel] waxed fat and kicked ;

'(Thou art fat, thou art thick, thou art gross ;)

'Then he forsook the God who made him,

'And lightly esteemed the Rock of his salvation.

'¹⁶ They moved him to jealousy by strange devices ;

'By abominations provoked they him to anger.

'¹⁷ They sacrificed to demons, not to God ;

'To gods whom they knew not,

'To new devices, that came from near,

'Which your fathers were not affrighted at.

'¹⁸ Of the Rock that begat thee thou wast unmindful,

'And didst forget the God that formed thee.

'¹⁹ Then Jehovah saw it, and he was angry

'At the provocation of his sons, and of hisdaughters.

'²⁰ And he said, I will hide my face from them,

'I will see what their end will be ;

'For they are a very froward generation,

'Children in whom is no faithfulness.

'²¹ They make me jealous with what is not God ;

'They make me angry with their Vanities ;

'And I will make them jealous with what is not a
'people ;

'I will make them angry with a foolish nation.

'²² For a fire is kindled in mine anger,

'And it shall burn unto the lowest hell,

'And it shall consume the land and its increase,

'And set on fire the foundations of the mountains,

'²³ I will heap evils upon them ;

'I will spend mine arrows upon them.

'²⁴ While faint with hunger, and devoured with heat,

'And with the destruction of bitterness,

'I will also send the teeth of beasts upon them,

'With the poison of the serpents of the dust.

'²⁵ Abroad the sword shall destroy,

'And in the chambers terror,

'Both the young man and the maiden,

'The suckling with the man of gray hairs.

'²⁶ I said, I would scatter them to the winds,

'I would make the memory of them to cease among 'men ;

'²⁷ Were I not afraid of the taunt of the enemy,

'Lest thy adversaries should misunderstand,

'And lest they should say, Our own high hand,

'And not Jehovah, hath done all this.

'²⁸ For they are a nation void of counsel,

'Neither is there any understanding in them.

'²⁹ O that they were wise, and understood this,

'That they would consider their latter end !

'³⁰ How could one man chase a thousand,

'And two put ten thousand to flight,

'Except their Rock had sold them,

'And Jehovah had delivered them up ?

'³¹ For their rock is not as our Rock,

'Even our enemies themselves being judges.

'³² For their vines are of the vines of Sodom,

'And of the fields of Gomorrah ;

'Their grapes are poisonous berries, their clusters
'bitter ;

'³³ Their wine is the poison of serpents,

'And the cruel venom of asps.

'³⁴ Is not this laid up in store with me,

'And sealed up among my treasures ?

'³⁵ To me belong vengeance and recompence,

'At a time when their foot shall slip ;

'For the day of their calamity is at hand,

'And what is prepared for them is hastening on.

'³⁶ For Jehovah will do justice to his people,

'And repent himself for his servants' sake,

'When he seeth that their power is gone,

'And none remain either bondsman or free.

'³⁷ And he will say, Where are their gods,

'The rock in whom they trusted,

'³⁸ Who did eat the fat of their sacrifices,

'And drank the wine of their drink offerings ?

'Let them rise up and help you,

'And let them be a protection to you.

'³⁹ See now that I, even I, am He,

'And there is no god beside me ;

'I kill, and I make alive ; I wounded, and I will heal ;

'Neither is there any that can deliver out of my hand.

'⁴⁰ For I lift up my hand to heaven [in oath],

'And I say, As I live for ever,

'⁴¹ If I sharpen the lightning of my sword,

'And my hand take hold on judgment ;

'I will render vengeance against mine enemies,
'And will repay them that hate me.

⁴² 'I will make mine arrows drunk with blood,
'And my sword shall devour the flesh,
'With the blood of the slain and of the captives,
'From the head of the leaders of the enemy.

⁴³ 'Rejoice, O ye nations, his people ;
'For he will avenge the blood of his servants,
'And will render vengeance against his adversaries,
'And will forgive his land and his people.'

⁴⁴ 'And Moses came and spake all the words of this Song in the ears of the people, he, and Hoshea [or Joshua] the son of Nun.

⁴⁵ 'And Moses made an end of speaking all these words to all Israel ; ⁴⁶ and he said to them, 'Set 'your hearts to all the words which I testify against
'you this day, which ye shall command your children
'to observe to do, all the words of this Law. ⁴⁷ For 'it is not a vain thing for you ; because it is your 'life ; and through this thing ye shall prolong your
'days in the land, whither ye go over the Jordan
'to possess it.'

⁴⁸ 'And Jehovah spake to Moses in the course of that day, saying, ⁴⁹ 'Get thee up on to this 'mountain of the Hebrews, mount Nebo, which is 'in the land of Moab, that is over against Jericho ;
'and look at the land of Canaan, which I give to 'the children of Israel for a possession. ⁵⁰ And
'thou shalt die on the mount whither thou goest
'up, and be gathered to thy people ; as Aaron thy 'brother died on mount Hor, and was gathered to 'his people ; ⁵¹ because ye trespassed against me
'among the children of Israel at the waters of 'Meribah near Kadesh, in the desert of Zin ;
'because ye sanctified me not in the midst of the 'children of Israel. ⁵² Yet thou shalt see the land
'before thee ; but thou shalt not go thither to the 'land which I give to the children of Israel.'

33 And this is THE BLESSING, wherewith Moses the man of God blessed the sons of Israel before his death. ² And he said,

(Jehovah came from Sinai,
And dawned upon them from Seir ;
He shined forth from the mountain in Paran,
And he came to Meribah near Kadesh. [Numb.
xx. 13].

From his right hand came streams of water for them.
³ Yea, he longed after the peoples.

All his holy ones were in thy hand's charge,
And they fell down at thy feet to receive of thy words,
⁴ Even the Law which Moses commanded us,
As a possession for the assembly of Jacob.

⁵ And he was king in Jeshurun [or Israel],
When the heads of the people were assembled,
Jointly with the tribes of Israel.)

⁶ 'Let Reuben live, and not die ; but let his 'men be few.'

⁷ And this is for Judah ; and he said,
'Hear, O Jehovah, the voice of Judah,
'And bring him unto his people ;

'His own hands are sufficient for him ;
'But be thou a help to him against his enemies.'

⁸ And of Levi he said,
'Let thy Thummim and thy Urim be with thy
'godly man,

'Whom thou didst prove at Massah,
'With whom thou strovest at the waters of Meribah ;
'⁹ Who said of his father and of his mother, I see
'him not ;

'Neither did he acknowledge his brethren,
'Nor knew he his own children.
'For they kept thy word, and guarded thy covenant.

¹⁰ They shall teach thy judgments unto Jacob,
'And thy law unto Israel ;
'They shall put incense before thy nose,
'And whole burnt offerings upon thine altar.

¹¹ Bless, O Jehovah, his substance,
'And accept the work of his hands ;
'Smite through the loins them that rise against him,
'And them that hate him, that they rise not again.'

¹² And of Benjamin he said,
'Beloved of Jehovah, may he dwell in safety by him ;
'May He cover him all the day long,
'And may He dwell between his shoulders.'

¹³ And of Joseph he said,
'May his land be blessed by Jehovah,
'With the precious things of heaven, with the dew,
'And with the underground waters that lie beneath,

¹⁴ And with the precious productions of the sun,
'And with the precious gifts of the moons,
'¹⁵ And with the chief things of the ancient moun'tains,

'And with the precious things of the everlasting hills,
'¹⁶ And with the precious things of the earth and
'its fulness.

'And the goodwill of Him that dwelt in the Bush ;
'May it come upon the head of Joseph,
'And on the crown of the head of the chief of his
'brethren.

¹⁷ His glory is as his own firstborn ox,
'And his horns as the horns of a buffalo ;
'With them he shall gore the peoples,
'United together to the ends of the land ;
'And they are the ten thousands of Ephraim,
'And they are the thousands of Manasseh.'

¹⁸ And of Zebulun he said,
'Rejoice, Zebulun, in thy goings out ;
'And, Issachar, in thy tents.
'¹⁹ They shall call the peoples to the mountain ;
'There they shall sacrifice sacrifices of righteousness ;
'When they suck of the abundance of the ocean,
'And of the treasures [the dye] hidden in the sand.'

²⁰ And of Gad he said,
'Blessed be he that enlargeth Gad.
'He dwelleth as an African lion,
'He tearth the arm and the crown of the head.

²¹ And he provided the first part for himself,
'For there [in Gilead] the Lawgiver set his portion ;
'Yet he came [to Canaan] with the heads of the 'people,
'He executed the righteousness of Jehovah,
'And his judgments together with Israel.'

²² And of Dan he said,
'Dan is a lion's whelp; he leapeth down from
'Bashan.'

²³ And of Naphtali he said,
'O Naphtali, satisfied with favour,
'And full of the blessing of Jehovah;
'Possess thou the west and the south-west.'

²⁴ And of Asher he said,
'Let Asher be blessed with children;
'Let him be acceptable to his brethren,
'And let him dip his foot in oil.
'²⁵ Thy door-locks shall be iron and copper;
'And as thy days, so shall thy strength be.

²⁶ There is none like unto the God of Jeshurun,
'Who rideth upon the heavens for thy help,
'And through the skies in his excellence.
'²⁷ The dwelling-place of God is from of old,
'And underneath are the everlasting arms.
'And he will thrust out the enemy from before thee;

'And will say, Destroy them.
'²⁸ Israel then shall dwell in safety alone;
'The eye of Jacob shall be on a land of corn and wine;
'Also his heavens shall drop down dew.

²⁹ Happy art thou, O Israel, who is like unto thee,
'O people saved by Jehovah, the shield of thy help;
'Who is also the sword of thine excellence!
'And thine enemies shall fawn upon thee;
'And thou shalt tread on their high places.'

34 And Moses went up from the barren plains of Moab to the mountain of Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, that is over against Jericho. And Jehovah showed him all the land of Gilead, unto Dan; ² and all Naphtali, and the land of Ephraim, and Manasseh, and all the land of Judah, unto the Western sea; ³ and the South country, and the Circle of the valley of Jericho the city of palm trees, unto Zoar. ⁴ And Jehovah said to him, 'This is the 'land of which I swear to Abraham, to Isaac, and 'to Jacob, saying, I will give it to thy seed. I 'have caused thee to see it with thine eyes, but

'thou shalt not go over [the Jordan] thither.'
⁵ So Moses the servant of Jehovah died there in the land of Moab according to the word of Jehovah. ⁶ And they buried him in a valley in the land of Moab, over against Beth-peor; but no man knoweth of his burial-place unto this day. ⁷ And Moses was a hundred and twenty years old when he died; his eye was not dim, nor his natural force abated. ⁸ And the children of Israel wept for Moses in the barren plains of Moab for thirty days; and then the days of weeping and mourning for Moses were ended.

⁹ And Joshua the son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom; for Moses had laid his hands upon him. And the children of Israel hearkened to him, and did as Jehovah commanded Moses.
¹⁰ And there hath not arisen a prophet since in Israel like Moses, whom Jehovah knew face to face, ¹¹ in all the signs and the wonders, which Jehovah sent him to do in the land of Lower Egypt to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land, ¹² and in all that mighty hand, and in all the great terror which Moses worked in the sight of all Israel.

THE BOOK OF JOSHUA.

1 NOW AFTER THE DEATH of Moses the servant of Jehovah it came to pass, that Jehovah spake to Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' minister, saying,
'² Moses my servant is dead; now therefore arise,
'cross over this Jordan, thou, and all this people,
'unto the land which I give to them, even to the 'children of Israel. ³ Every place that the sole of 'your foot shall tread upon, that have I given to 'you, as I said to Moses. ⁴ From the [southern]
'desert and this Lebanon even unto the Great 'River, the river Euphrates, all the land of the 'Hittites, and unto the Great Sea [or the Medi'terranean] toward the going down of the sun,
'shall be your boundary. ⁵ There shall not any 'man be able to stand before thee all the days of 'thy life. As I was with Moses, so I will be with 'thee. I will not fail thee, nor forsake thee. ⁶ Be 'strong and of good courage; for thou shalt cause
'this people to inherit the land which I swear unto
'their fathers to give them. ⁷ Only be thou strong
'and very courageous, that thou mayest observe to 'do according to all the law which Moses, my 'servant, commanded thee. Turn not aside from

'it to the right hand or to the left, so that thou
'mayest do wisely whithersoever thou goest. ⁸ This 'Book of the Law shall not depart out of thy 'mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and 'night, so that thou mayest observe to do accord'ing to all that is written therein. For then thou 'shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou
'shalt do wisely. ⁹ Have not I commanded thee?
'Be strong and of good courage; be not afraid,
'neither be thou dismayed; for Jehovah thy God
'is with thee whithersoever thou goest.'

¹⁰ Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying, ¹¹ 'Pass through the middle of the 'camp, and command the people, saying, Prepare 'for yourselves victuals; for within three days ye
'shall pass over this Jordan, to go in to possess
'the land, which Jehovah your God giveth you to 'possess it.'

¹² And to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the Half Tribe of Manasseh, spake Joshua, saying, ¹³ 'Remember the word which Moses the servant of Jehovah commanded you, saying, Jehovah your God hath given you rest, and hath given you this land. ¹⁴ Your wives, your little ones, and your cattle, shall remain in the land which Moses gave you beyond the Jordan; but ye shall cross over armed before your brethren, all the warriors of valour, and help them; ¹⁵ until Jehovah shall give rest to your brethren, as to you, and they also have possessed the land which Jehovah your God giveth them. Then ye shall return to the land of your possession, and possess it, which Moses the servant of Jehovah gave you beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise.' ¹⁶ And they answered Joshua, saying, 'All that thou commandest us we will do, and whithersoever thou sendest us, we will go. ¹⁷ According as we hearkened to Moses in all things, so will we hearken to thee. Only Jehovah thy God be with thee, as he was with Moses. ¹⁸ Whosoever he be that doth rebel against thy command, and will not hearken to thy words in all that thou commandest us, he shall be put to death; only be strong, and of good courage.'

2 And Joshua the son of Nun sent out of Shittim two men as spies secretly, saying, 'Go view the land, and Jericho.' And they went, and came into a harlot's house, named Rahab, and they lodged there. ² And it was told the king of Jericho, saying, 'Behold, there came men in hither to-night, out of the children of Israel, to search out the land.' ³ And the king of Jericho sent to Rahab, saying, 'Bring forth the men that are come to thee, who are come into thy house; for they are come to search out all the land.' ⁴ And the woman took the two men and hid them, and said thus, 'There came men unto me, but I know not whence they were. ⁵ And it came to pass at the shutting of the city gate, when it was dark, that the men went out. Whither the men went I know not. Pursue after them quickly; for ye will overtake them.' ⁶ But she had brought them up to the roof of the house, and had hidden them with the stalks of flax, which she had laid in order upon the roof. ⁷ And the men pursued after them on the way to the Jordan unto the fords. And as soon as they that pursued after them were gone out, they shut the city gate.

⁸ And before they were laid down, she came up unto them upon the roof; ⁹ and she said to the men, 'I know that Jehovah hath given you the land, and that the fear of you is fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land faint because of you. ¹⁰ For we have heard how Jehovah dried up the water of the Red Sea for you, when ye came out of Lower Egypt; and what ye did to the two kings of the Amorites, that were beyond the Jordan, Sihon and Og, whom ye utterly destroyed. ¹¹ And as soon as we had heard, our hearts did melt, neither did there remain any more courage in any man, because of you; for Jehovah your God, he is God in heaven above, and on earth beneath. ¹² Now, therefore, I pray you, swear to me by Jehovah, since I have shewed you kindness, that ye will also shew kindness to my father's house; and give me a true token; ¹³ and that ye will save alive my father, and my mother, and my brethren, and my sisters, and all that they have, and deliver our lives from death.' ¹⁴ And the men answered her, 'Our life for yours unto death, if ye utter not this our business. And it shall be, when Jehovah hath given us the land, that we will deal kindly and truly with thee.' ¹⁵ Then she let them down by a cord through the window; for her house was upon the wall of the rampart, and she dwelt upon the rampart. ¹⁶ And she said unto them, 'Get you to the Hill country, lest the pursuers meet you; and hide yourselves there for three days, until the pursuers be returned; and afterward may ye go your way.' ¹⁷ And the men said to her, 'We will be blameless of this thine oath which thou hast made us to swear. ¹⁸ Behold, when we come into the land, thou shalt bind this line of scarlet thread in the window which thou didst let us down by; and thou shalt gather thy father, and thy mother, and thy brethren, and all thy father's household, home unto thee. ¹⁹ And it shall be that whosoever shall go out of the doors of thy house into the street, his blood shall be upon his head, and we will be guiltless. And whosoever shall be with thee in the house, his blood shall be on our head, if any hand be upon him. ²⁰ But if thou utter this our business, then we will be quit of thine oath which thou hast made us to swear.' ²¹ And she said, 'According unto your words, so be it.' And she sent them away, and they departed. And she bound the scarlet line in the window. ²² And they went and came to the Hill country, and abode there three days, until the pursuers were returned. And the pursuers sought them throughout all the way, but found them not. ²³ So the two men returned, and went down from the Hill country, and crossed over [the Jordan], and came to Joshua the son of Nun, and related to him all that had befallen them. ²⁴ And they said to Joshua, 'Truly Jehovah hath delivered into our hands all the land; for even all the inhabitants of the country do faint because of us.'

3 And Joshua rose early in the morning; and they removed from Shittim, and came to the Jordan, he and all the children of Israel, and lodged there before they crossed over. ² And it came to pass after three days, that the officers went through the camp; ³ and they commanded the people, saying, 'When ye see the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah your God, and the priests the Levites bearing it, then ye shall remove from your place, and go after it. ⁴ Yet there shall be a space between you and it, about two thousand cubits by measure. Come not near unto it, in order that ye may know the way by which ye must go. For ye have not passed this way heretofore.' ⁵ And Joshua said to the people, 'Sanctify your-

'selves; for to-morrow Jehovah will do wonders 'among you.' ⁶ And Joshua spake to the priests, saying, 'Take up the Ark of the Covenant, and 'cross over [the Jordan] before the people.' And they took up the Ark of the Covenant, and went before the people. ⁷ And Jehovah said to Joshua, 'This day will I come to magnify thee in the eyes 'of all Israel, that they may know that as I was 'with Moses, so I will be with thee. ⁸ And thou 'shalt command the priests that bear the Ark of the 'Covenant, saying, When ye are come to the brink 'of the water of the Jordan, ye shall stand still in 'the Jordan.'

⁹ And Joshua said to the children of Israel, 'Come hither, and hear the words of Jehovah your 'God.' ¹⁰ And Joshua said, 'Hereby ye shall know 'that the living God is among you, and that he 'will without fail drive out from before you the 'Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Hivites, and 'the Perizzites, and the Girgashites, and the 'Amorites, and the Jebusites. ¹¹ Behold, the Ark 'of the Covenant of the Lord of all the earth 'passeth over before you into the Jordan. ¹² Now 'therefore take to you twelve men out of the tribes 'of Israel, out of every tribe a man. ¹³ And it shall 'come to pass, as soon as the soles of the feet of 'the priests that bear the Ark of Jehovah, the Lord 'of all the earth, shall rest in the waters of the 'Jordan, that the waters of the Jordan will be cut 'off, even the waters that come down from above; 'and they will stand up in a heap.'

¹⁴ And it came to pass, when the people removed from their tents to cross over the Jordan, and the priests bearing the Ark of the Covenant before the people; ¹⁵ and as they that bare the Ark were come to the Jordan, and the feet of the priests that bare the Ark were dipped in the brim of the water, (for the Jordan is full on all its banks during all the time of harvest,) ¹⁶ that the waters which were coming down from above stood and rose up in a heap very far from the city of Adam, that is beside Zaretan; and those that were going down toward the Sea of the Barren Valley, even the Salt Sea, failed, and were cut off; and the people crossed over [the Jordan] right against Jericho. ¹⁷ And the priests that bare the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah stood firm on dry ground in the midst of the Jordan, and all the Israelites crossed over on dry ground, until all the nation had finished passing over the Jordan.

'over before the Ark of Jehovah your God into the 'midst of the Jordan, and take up every man of 'you a stone upon his shoulder, according to the 'number of the tribes of the children of Israel; ⁶ in order that this may be a sign among you, so 'that when your children ask in time to come, say- 'ing, What mean ye by these stones? ⁷ then ye 'shall answer them, Because the waters of the 'Jordan were cut off before the Ark of the Cove- 'nant of Jehovah; when it crossed over the Jordan, 'the waters of the Jordan were cut off; and these 'stones shall be for a memorial unto the children 'of Israel for ever.' ⁸ And thus the children of Israel did, as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones out of the midst of the Jordan, as Jehovah had spoken to Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, and carried them over with them to the place where they lodged, and laid them down there. ⁹ And Joshua set up twelve stones in the midst of the Jordan, in place of the foot-way of the priests who bare the Ark of the Covenant. And they are there unto this day.

¹⁰ And the priests who bare the Ark stood in the midst of the Jordan, until every thing was finished that Jehovah commanded Joshua to speak to the people, according to all that Moses had commanded Joshua; and the people hastened and crossed over. ¹¹ And it came to pass, when all the people had finished crossing over, that the Ark of Jehovah crossed over, and the priests, in the presence of the people. ¹² And the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh, crossed over armed in the presence of the children of Israel, as Moses had spoken to them. ¹³ About forty thousand prepared for war crossed over before Jehovah unto battle, to the barren plains of Jericho. ¹⁴ On that day Jehovah magnified Joshua in the sight of all Israel; and they feared him, as they had feared Moses, all the days of his life.

¹⁵ And Jehovah spake to Joshua, saying, ¹⁶ Com- 'mand the priests that bear the Ark of the Testi- 'monials, that they come up out of the Jordan.' ¹⁷ Joshua therefore commanded the priests, saying, 'Come ye up out of the Jordan.' ¹⁸ And it came to pass, when the priests that bare the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah were come up out of the midst of the Jordan, and the soles of the priests' feet were lifted up unto the dry land, that the waters of the Jordan returned unto their place, and flowed on all its banks, as before. ¹⁹ And the people came up out of the Jordan on the tenth day of the first month, and encamped in Gilgal, on the east border of Jericho. ²⁰ And those twelve stones, which they took out of the Jordan, did Joshua set up in Gilgal. ²¹ And he spake to the children of Israel, saying, 'When your children shall ask their fathers in time 'to come, saying, What are these stones? ²² then 'ye shall let your children know, saying, Israel 'crossed over this Jordan on dry land. ²³ For Jeho- 'vah your God dried up the waters of the Jordan

'from before you, until ye had crossed over, as 'Jehovah your God did to the Red sea, which he 'dried up from before us, until we had crossed over; '23 in order that all the peoples of the land might 'know the hand of Jehovah, that it is mighty; and 'in order that ye might fear Jehovah your God 'for ever.'

5 AND IT CAME TO PASS, when all the kings of the Amorites, who were beyond the Jordan westward, and all the kings of the Canaanites, who were by the Sea, heard that Jehovah had dried up the waters of the Jordan from before the children of Israel, until we had crossed over, that their heart melted, neither was there spirit in them any more, because of the children of Israel.

2 At that time Jehovah said to Joshua, 'Make 'to thee knives of flints, and circumcise again the 'children of Israel the second time.' 3 And Joshua made to himself knives of flints, and circumcised the children of Israel at the hill of Orclot [or the Foreskins]. 4 And this is the cause why Joshua did circumcise. All the people that came out of Lower Egypt that were males, even all the men of war, had died in the desert by the way, as they came out of Lower Egypt. 5 Now all the people that came out were circumcised; but all the people that were born in the desert by the way as they came out of Lower Egypt, them they had not circumcised. 6 For the children of Israel walked forty years in the desert, till all the nation that were men of war, that came out of Lower Egypt, were consumed because they obeyed not the voice of Jehovah; unto whom Jehovah sware that he would not shew them the land, which Jehovah sware unto their fathers that he would give us, a land that floweth with milk and honey. 7 And their children whom he raised up in their stead, them Joshua circumcised; for they were uncircumcised, because they had not circumcised them by the way. 8 And it came to pass, when they had done circumcising all the nation, that they abode in their places in the camp, till they were whole. 9 And Jehovah said to Joshua, 'This day have I rolled away the 'reproach of Egypt from off you.' Therefore the name of the place is called Gilgal [or a Wheel] unto this day.

10 And the children of Israel encamped at Gilgal, and kept the passover on the fourteenth day of the month at evening in the barren plains of Jericho. 11 And they did eat of the produce of the land on the morrow after the passover, unleavened cakes, and parched corn in the course of that day. 12 And the Manna ceased on the morrow as they did eat of the produce of the land; neither had the children of Israel Manna any more; but they did eat of the fruit of the land of Canaan that year.

13 And it came to pass, when Joshua was by Jericho, that he lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, there stood a man over against him with his sword drawn in his hand. And Joshua went to him, and said to him, 'Art thou for us, or for 'our adversaries?' 14 And he said, 'Nay; but as 'prince of Jehovah's host am I now come.' And Joshua fell on his face to the earth, and did worship him, and said to him, 'What saith my lord to 'his servant?' 15 And the prince of Jehovah's host said to Joshua, 'Put off thy shoe from off thy foot; 'for the place whereon thou standest is holy.' And Joshua did so. 6 (Now Jericho was closely shut up because of the children of Israel. None went out, and none came in.) 2 And Jehovah said to Joshua, 'See, I have given into thy hand 'Jericho, and the king thereof, and the warriors 'of valour. 3 And ye shall encompass the city, all 'ye men of war, and go round about the city once. 4 Thus shalt thou do for six days. 5 And seven 'priests shall bear before the Ark seven jubilee 'trumpets. And on the seventh day ye shall en- 'compass the city seven times, and the priests shall 'blow with the trumpets. 6 And it shall come to 'pass, that when they make a long blast with the 'jubilee horn, and when ye hear the sound of the 'trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great 'shout; and the wall of the city shall fall down 'flat, and the people shall go up every man straight 'before him.'

6 And Joshua the son of Nun called the priests, and said to them, 'Take up the Ark of the Cove- 'nant, and let seven priests bear seven jubilee 'trumpets before the Ark of Jehovah.' 7 And he said to the people, 'Pass on, and encompass the 'city, and let the armed men pass on before the 'Ark of Jehovah.' 8 And it came to pass, when Joshua had spoken to the people; that the seven priests bearing the seven jubilee trumpets before Jehovah passed on, and blew with the trumpets; and the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah followed after them. 9 And the armed men went before the priests that blew with the trumpets, and the rear-guard came after the Ark, going on, and blowing with the trumpets. 10 And Joshua had commanded the people, saying, 'Ye shall not shout, 'nor make any noise with your voice, neither shall 'any word proceed out of your mouth, until the 'day when I bid you shout; then shall ye shout.' 11 So the Ark of Jehovah encompassed the city, going round it once. And they came into the camp, and lodged in the camp. 12 And Joshua rose early in the morning, and the priests took up the Ark of Jehovah. 13 And the seven priests bearing the seven jubilee trumpets before the Ark of Jehovah went on continually, and blew with the trumpets. And the armed men went before them; and the rear-guard came after the Ark of Jehovah, going on, and blowing with the trumpets. 14 And on the second day they encompassed the city once, and returned into the camp. So they did for six days. 15 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they rose early at the rising of the dawn, and encompassed the city after the same manner seven times. Only on that day did they encompass the city seven times. 16 And it came to pass at the seventh time, when the priests blew with the trumpets, Joshua said to the people, 'Shout; for

²⁰ So the people shouted; and they blew with the trumpets. And it came to pass, when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, and the people shouted with a great shout, that the wall fell down flat, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city. ²¹ And they utterly destroyed all that was in the city, both man and woman, both young and old, and ox, and sheep, and ass, with the edge of the sword.

²² But Joshua had said to the two men that had spied out the land, 'Go into the harlot's house, and bring out thence the woman, and all that she hath, as ye swear unto her.' ²³ And the young men that were spies went in, and brought out Rahab, and her father, and her mother, and her brethren, and all that she had; and they brought out all her kindred, and left them without the camp of Israel. ²⁴ And they burnt the city with fire, and all that was therein; only the silver, and the gold, and the vessels of copper and of iron, they put into the treasury of the House of Jehovah. ²⁵ And Joshua saved Rahab the harlot alive, and her father's household, and all that she had; and she dwelleth in Israel unto this day; because she hid the messengers, which Joshua sent to spy out Jericho. ²⁶ And Joshua adjured them at that time, saying, 'Cursed be the man before Jehovah that riseth up and buildeth up this city of Jericho; he shall lay the foundation thereof in his firstborn, and in his youngest son shall he set up the doors of it.' ²⁷ So Jehovah was with Joshua; and his fame was throughout all the land.

⁷ But the children of Israel committed a trespass in the accursed thing; for Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zarah, of the tribe of Judah, took some of the accursed thing; and the anger of Jehovah was kindled against the children of Israel. ² And Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is near Beth-aven, (on the east side of Beth-el,) and spake to them, saying, 'Go up and spy the land.' And the men went up and spied Ai. ³ And they returned to Joshua, and said to him, 'Let not all the people go up; but let about two thousand or about three thousand men go up and smite Ai. Weary not all the people by sending them thither; for they are but few.' ⁴ So there went up thither of the people about three thousand men; but they fled before the men of Ai. ⁵ And the men of Ai smote of them about thirty and six men. For they chased them from before the city gate unto the breaches, and smote them in the going down. Therefore the hearts of the people melted, and became as water.

⁶ And Joshua rent his clothes, and fell to the earth upon his face before the Ark of Jehovah until the eventide, he and the elders of Israel, and they put dust upon their heads. ⁷ And Joshua said, 'Alas, O Lord Jehovah, wherefore hast thou at all brought this people over the Jordan, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us? Oh that we had been content, and had dwelt on the other side of the Jordan; O Lord, what is to be said after Israel hath turned their backs before their enemies? ⁸ For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear of it, and will environ us round, and cut off our name from the earth. And what wilt thou do for thy great name? ⁹ And Jehovah said to Joshua, 'Get thee up; wherefore art thou thus fallen upon thy face? ¹⁰ Israel hath sinned, and they have also transgressed my covenant which I commanded them. For they have even taken some of the accursed thing, and have both stolen, and dissembled, and they have also put it among their own baggage. ¹¹ Therefore the children of Israel could not stand up before their enemies, but turned their backs before their enemies, because they had become accursed. Neither will I be with you any more except ye destroy the accursed thing from among you. ¹² Get thee up, sanctify the people, and say, 'Sanctify yourselves against to-morrow; for thus saith Jehovah the God of Israel, There is an accursed thing in the midst of thee, O Israel; thou canst not stand up before thine enemies until ye put away the accursed thing from among you. ¹³ In the morning therefore ye shall be brought up according to your tribes. And it shall be that the tribe which Jehovah shall take shall be brought up according to its families; and the family which Jehovah shall take shall be brought up by houses; and the house which Jehovah shall take shall be brought up man by man. ¹⁴ And it shall be, that he that is taken with the accursed thing shall be burnt with fire, he and all that he hath; because he hath transgressed the covenant of Jehovah, and because he hath done wickedly in Israel.'

¹⁵ So Joshua rose up early in the morning, and brought up Israel by their tribes; and the tribe of Judah was taken. ¹⁶ And he brought up the families of Judah; and the family of the Zarahites was taken. And he brought up the family of the Zarahites man by man; and Zabdi was taken. ¹⁷ And he brought up his house man by man; and Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zarah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken. ¹⁸ And Joshua said to Achan, 'My son, give, I pray thee, glory to Jehovah the God of Israel, and make confession unto him; and tell me now what thou hast done; hide it not from me.' ¹⁹ And Achan answered Joshua, and said, 'Indeed I have sinned against Jehovah the God of Israel, and thus and

'thus have I done. ²¹When I saw among the 'spoils a goodly Babylonian mantle, and two 'hundred Shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold 'weighing fifty Shekels [or twenty-five ounces], 'then I coveted them, and took them; and behold, 'they are hidden in the earth in the midst of my 'tent, and the silver under it.' ²²So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent; and behold, it was hidden in his tent, and the silver under it. ²³And they took them out of the midst of the tent, and brought them to Joshua, and to all the children of Israel, and laid them out before Jehovah. ²⁴And Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zarah, and the silver, and the mantle, and the wedge of gold, and his sons, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, and his sheep, and his tent, and all that he had; and they brought them to the valley of Achor [for Trouble]. ²⁵And Joshua said, 'Why hast thou troubled us? Jehovah will 'trouble thee this day.' And all Israel stoned him with stones, and burned them with fire, and they overwhelmed them with stones. ²⁶And they raised over him a great heap of stones which remain unto this day. So Jehovah turned from the fierceness of his anger. Therefore the name of that place has been called, The Valley of Achor, unto this day.

8 And Jehovah said to Joshua, 'Fear not, neither be thou dismayed. Take all the people of war with thee, and arise, go up to Ai. See, I 'have given into thy hand the king of Ai, and his 'people, and his city, and his land. ²And thou 'shalt do to Ai and her king as thou didst to 'Jericho and her king; only the spoil thereof, and 'the cattle thereof, shall ye take for a prey to yourselves. Lay an ambush for the city behind it.' ³So Joshua arose, and all the people of war, to go up against Ai. And Joshua chose out thirty thousand men, warriors of valour, and sent them away by night. ⁴And he commanded them, saying, 'See, 'ye shall lie in wait against the city, behind the 'city. Go not very far from the city, but be ye 'all ready. ⁵And I, and all the people that are 'with me, will go near to the city. And it shall 'come to pass, when they come out against us as 'at the first, that we will flee before them, ⁶and 'they will come out after us, till we have drawn 'them from the city. For they will say, They flee 'before us, as at the first. Therefore we will flee 'before them. ⁷Then ye shall rise up from the 'ambush, and seize upon the city; and Jehovah 'your God will deliver it into your hand. ⁸And 'it shall be, when ye have taken the city, that ye 'shall set the city on fire. According to the com- 'mand of Jehovah shall ye do. See, I have com- 'manded you.'

⁹Joshua therefore sent them forth. And they went to lie in ambush, and abode between Beth-el and Ai, on the west side of Ai; but Joshua lodged that night among the people. ¹⁰And Joshua rose up early in the morning, and mustered the people, and went up, he and the elders of Israel, before the people to Ai. ¹¹And all the people of war that were with him went up, and drew nigh, and came before the city, and encamped on the north side of Ai. And there was a valley between them and Ai. ¹²And he took about five thousand men, and set them to lie in ambush between Beth-el and Ai, on the west side of the city. ¹³And when the people had set all the camp that was on the north of the city, and their liers in wait on the west of the city, Joshua went that night into the midst of the valley.

¹⁴And it came to pass, when the king of Ai saw it, that they hastened and rose up early, and the men of the city went out against Israel to battle, he and all his people, at a time appointed, before the Barren Valley; but he knew not that there was an ambush against him behind the city. ¹⁵And Joshua and all Israel were beaten before them, and fled by the way of the desert. ¹⁶And all the people that were in Ai were called together to pursue after them. And they pursued after Joshua, and were drawn away from the city. ¹⁷And there was not a man left in Ai or Beth-el, that went not out after Israel. And they left the city open, and pursued after Israel. ¹⁸And Jehovah said to Joshua, 'Stretch out with the spear that is in thy 'hand towards Ai; for I will give it into thy hand.' And Joshua stretched out with the spear that he had in his hand toward the city. ¹⁹And the ambush arose quickly out of their place. And they ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand, and they entered into the city, and took it, and hastened, and set the city on fire. ²⁰And when the men of Ai looked behind them, they saw, and behold, the smoke of the city ascended up to heaven, and they had no power to flee this way or that way. ²¹And the people that fled to the desert turned upon the pursuers. And Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city, and that the smoke of the city ascended, and they returned, and smote the men of Ai. ²²And the others issued out of the city against them; so they were in the midst of Israel, some on this side, and some on that side. And they smote them, so that they let none of them remain or escape. ²³And the king of Ai they took alive, and brought him to Joshua.

²⁴And it came to pass, when Israel had made an end of slaying all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, in the desert wherein they chased them, and when they were all fallen on the edge of the sword, until they were consumed, that all the Israelites returned unto Ai, and smote it with the edge of the sword. ²⁵And so it was, that all that fell that day, both of men and women, were twelve thousand, even all the men of Ai. ²⁶For Joshua drew not his hand back, wherewith he stretched out the spear, until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai. ²⁷Only the cattle and the spoil of that city Israel took for a prey to themselves, according to the word of Jehovah which he commanded Joshua. ²⁸And Joshua burnt Ai, and made it a heap for ever, a desolation unto this day. ²⁹And the king of Ai, he hanged on a tree until eventide. And as soon as the sun was down, Joshua commanded that they should take his carcase down from the tree, and cast it at the entering of the gate of the city; and they raised thereon a great heap of stones, that remaineth unto this day.

³⁰ (Then Joshua built an altar to Jehovah the God of Israel on mount Ebal, ³¹ as Moses the servant of Jehovah commanded the children of Israel, as it is written in the Book of the Law of Moses [Deut. xvii. 4, 5, 6], an altar of whole stones, over which no man hath lifted up any iron; and they offered up thereon burnt offerings to Jehovah, and sacrificed peace offerings. ³² And he wrote there upon the stones a copy of the Law of Moses, which he wrote in the presence of the children of Israel. ³³ And all Israel, and their elders, and officers, and their judges, stood on this side and on that side of the Ark before the priests the Levites, who bare the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah, as well the stranger, as he that was born among them; half of them over against mount Gerizim, and half of them over against mount Ebal; as Moses the servant of Jehovah had before commanded that they should bless the people of Israel. ³⁴ And afterward he read all the words of the Law, the blessings and cursings, according to all that is written in the Book of the Law [Deut. xxviii.]. ³⁵ There was not a word of all that Moses had commanded which Joshua read not before all the assembly of Israel, with the women, and the little ones, and the strangers that were walking among them.)

9 AND IT CAME TO PASS, when all the kings who were beyond the Jordan, in the Hill country, and in the Low country, and in all the coasts of the Great Sea over against Lebanon, the Hittite, and the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, heard of it; ² that they gathered themselves together, to fight with Joshua and with Israel, with one accord.

³ And when the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and to Ai, ⁴ they also did work wilily, and went and took provisions for themselves, and took worn out sacks upon their asses, and wine-skins worn out, and rent, and bound up; ⁵ and shoes worn out and patched upon their feet, and worn out cloaks upon them; and all the bread of their provision was dry with mouldiness. ⁶ And they went to Joshua to the camp at Gilgal, and said to him, and to the men of Israel, 'We are come from a far country; now therefore make ye a league with us.' ⁷ And the men of Israel said to the Hivites, 'Peradventure ye dwell among us; and how shall we make a league with you?' ⁸ And they said to Joshua, 'We are thy servants.' And Joshua said to them, 'Who are ye? and whence come ye?' ⁹ And they said to him, 'From a very far country thy servants are come because of the name of Jehovah thy God; for we have heard the fame of him, ¹⁰ and all that he did in Lower Egypt, and all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites, that were beyond the Jordan, to

'Sihon king of Heshbon, and to Og king of Bashan, who was at Ashtaroth. ¹¹ Therefore our elders and all the inhabitants of our country spake to us, saying, Take in your hands victuals for the journey, and go to meet them, and say to them, We are your servants. Therefore now make ye a league with us. ¹² This our bread we took hot for our provision out of our houses on the day we came forth to go unto you; but now, behold, it is dry, and it is mouldy. ¹³ And these wine-skins, which we filled, were new; and behold, they are rent; and these our cloaks and our shoes are worn out by reason of the very long journey.' ¹⁴ And they received the men by reason of their victuals, and asked not counsel at the mouth of Jehovah. ¹⁵ And Joshua made peace with them, and made a league with them, to let them live; and the princes of the congregation sware to them.

¹⁶ And it came to pass at the end of three days after they had made a league with them, that they heard that they were their neighbours, and that they dwelt among them. ¹⁷ And the children of Israel journeyed, and came to their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon, and Chephirah, and Beeroth, and the City of Jearim. ¹⁸ And the children of Israel smote them not, because the princes of the congregation had sworn unto them by Jehovah the God of Israel. And all the congregation murmured against the princes. ¹⁹ But all the princes said to all the congregation, 'We have sworn to them by Jehovah the God of Israel; now therefore we may not touch them. ²⁰ This we will do to them; we will even let them live, lest wrath be upon us, because of the oath which we sware unto them.' ²¹ And the princes said to them, 'Let them live; but let them be hewers of wood and drawers of water unto all the congregation, as the princes have promised them.'

²² And Joshua called for them, and he spake to them, saying, 'Wherefore have ye deceived us, saying, We are very far from you; whereas ye dwell among us? ²³ Now therefore ye are cursed, and there shall none of you be freed from being bond servants, and hewers of wood and drawers of water for the House of my God.' ²⁴ And they answered Joshua, and said, 'Because it was certainly told to thy servants, how that Jehovah thy God commanded his servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you, and therefore we were sore afraid for our lives because of you, and we have done this thing. ²⁵ And now, behold, we are in thy hand; as it is good and right in thine eyes to do unto us, do.' ²⁶ And so did he unto them, and delivered them out of the hand of the children of Israel, that they slew them not. ²⁷ And Joshua made them that day hewers of wood and drawers of water for the congregation, and for the Altar of Jehovah, even unto this day, in The Place which he chose.

10 Now it came to pass, when Adoni-zedec king of Jerusalem had heard how Joshua had taken

Ai, and had utterly destroyed it; as he had done to Jericho and her king, so he had done to Ai and her king; and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were among them; ² that they feared greatly, because Gibeon was a great city, as one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all the men thereof were warriors. ³ Therefore Adoni-zedec king of Jerusalem sent to Hoham king of Hebron, and to Piram king of Jarmuth, and to Japhia king of Lachish, and to Debir king of Eglon, saying, ⁴ 'Come up unto me, and help me, that we may smite Gibeon; for it hath made peace with Joshua and with the children of Israel.' ⁵ Therefore the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon, gathered themselves together, and went up, they and all their hosts, and encamped before Gibeon, and made war against it.

⁶ And the men of Gibeon sent to Joshua to the camp to Gilgal, saying, 'Slacken not thy hand from thy servants; come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us. For all the kings of the Amorites that dwell in the Hill country are gathered together against us.' ⁷ So Joshua went up from Gilgal, he, and all the people of war with him, and all the warriors of valour. ⁸ And Jehovah said to Joshua, 'Fear them not; for I have delivered them into thy hand. There shall not a man of them stand before thee.' ⁹ Joshua therefore came to them suddenly, and went up from Gilgal all night. ¹⁰ And Jehovah discomfited them before Israel, and smote them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them along the way of the hill-road up to Beth-horon, and smote them unto Azekah, and unto Makkedah. ¹¹ And it came to pass, as they fled from before Israel, and were in the going down from Beth-horon, that Jehovah cast down great stones from heaven upon them unto Azekah; and they died. They were more who died with hailstones than they whom the children of Israel had slain with the sword.

¹³ And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, till the nation had avenged themselves on their enemies.

Is not this written in the Book of Jasher? So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and hastened not to go down for about a whole day. ¹⁴ And there was no day like that before it or after it, that Jehovah hearkened to the voice of a man; for Jehovah fought for Israel.

¹⁵ And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, unto the camp to Gilgal. ¹⁶ But these five kings fled, and hid themselves in a cave at Makkedah. ¹⁷ And it was told Joshua, saying, 'The five kings are found hidden in a cave at Makkedah.' ¹⁸ And Joshua said, 'Roll great stones upon the mouth of

'the cave, and set men by it for to keep them. ¹⁹ And stay ye not, but pursue after your enemies, and smite the hindmost of them; suffer them not to enter into their cities. For Jehovah your God hath delivered them into your hand.' ²⁰ And it came to pass, when Joshua and the children of Israel had made an end of slaying them with a very great slaughter, till they were consumed, that those of them who escaped fled, and entered into the fenced cities. ²¹ And all the people returned to the camp to Joshua at Makkedah in peace; no one sharpened his tongue against any of the children of Israel.

²² Then said Joshua, 'Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out those five kings unto me out of the cave.' ²³ And they did so, and brought forth those five kings unto him out of the cave, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon. ²⁴ And it came to pass when they brought out those kings unto Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said to the captains of the men of war which went with him, 'Come near, put your feet upon the necks of these kings.' And they came near and put their feet upon the necks of them. ²⁵ And Joshua said to them, 'Fear not, nor be dismayed, be strong and of good courage; for thus will Jehovah do to all your enemies against whom ye fight.' ²⁶ And afterward Joshua smote them, and slew them, and hanged them on five trees; and they were hanging upon the trees until the evening. ²⁷ And it came to pass at the time of the going down of the sun, that Joshua commanded, and they took them down off the trees, and cast them into the cave wherein they had been hidden, and laid great stones on the cave's mouth, which remain until this very day.

²⁸ And on that day Joshua took Makkedah, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof; he utterly destroyed them, and all the souls that were therein; he let none escape. And he did to the king of Makkedah as he had done to the king of Jericho.

²⁹ Then Joshua passed from Makkedah, and all Israel with him, to Libnah, and fought against Libnah. ³⁰ And Jehovah delivered it also, and its king, into the hand of Israel. And he smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein; he let none in it escape; but did to its king as he had done to the king of Jericho.

³¹ And Joshua passed from Libnah, and all Israel with him, unto Lachish, and encamped against it, and fought against it. ³² And Jehovah delivered Lachish into the hand of Israel. And he took it on the second day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein, according to all that he had done to Libnah.

³³ Then Horam king of Gezer came up to help Lachish; and Joshua smote him and his people, until he had left him none to escape.

³⁴ And from Lachish Joshua passed to Eglon, and all Israel with him; and they encamped against it, and fought against it. ³⁵ And they took it on that day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein he utterly destroyed that day, according to all that he had done to Lachish.

³⁶ And Joshua went up from Eglon, and all Israel with him, unto Hebron; and they fought against it. ³⁷ And they took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and its king, and all its cities, and all the souls that were therein; he let none escape, according to all that he had done to Eglon; but destroyed it utterly, and all the souls that were therein.

³⁸ And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to Debir; and fought against it. ³⁹ And he took it, and its king, and all its cities; and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed all the souls that were therein. He let none escape; as he had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir, and to its king; as he had done also to Libnah, and to its king.

⁴⁰ So Joshua smote all the land of the Hill country, and of the South country, and of the Low country, and of the Hill-sides, and all their kings. He let none escape, but utterly destroyed all that breathed, as Jehovah the God of Israel had commanded. ⁴¹ And Joshua smote them from Kadesh-barnea even unto Gaza, and all the land of Goshen, even unto Gilbeon. ⁴² And all these kings and their lands did Joshua take at one time, because Jehovah the God of Israel fought for Israel. ⁴³ And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, unto the camp to Gilgal.

¹¹ And it came to pass, when Jabin king of Hazor had heard, he sent to Jobab king of Madon, and to the king of Shimron [or Samaria], and to the king of Achshaph, ² and to the kings that were on the north, in the Hill country, and in the Barren Valley south of Chinneroth [or Gennesaret], and in the Low Country, and on the Heights of Dor on the Sea; ³ and to the Canaanite on the east and on the west, and to the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Jebusite in the Hill country, and to the Hivite under Hermon in the land of Mizpeh [or the Watch-tower]. ⁴ And they went out, they and all their hosts with them, much people, even as the sand that is upon the sea shore in multitude, with horses and chariots very many. ⁵ And when all these kings were met together, they came and encamped together at the Waters of Merom, to fight against Israel.

⁶ And Jehovah said to Joshua, 'Be not afraid because of them; for to-morrow about this time will I deliver them all up slain before Israel. Thou shalt ham-string their horses, and burn their chariots with fire.' ⁷ So Joshua came, and all the people of war with him, against them by the Waters of Merom suddenly; and they fell upon them. ⁸ And Jehovah delivered them into the hand of Israel, who smote them, and chased them to Great Sidon, and to Misarepoth [or Sarepta] on the Sea, and to the valley of Mizpeh eastward; and they smote them, until they left them none to escape. ⁹ And Joshua did to them as Jehovah bade him; he ham-strung their horses, and burnt their chariots with fire.

¹⁰ And Joshua at that time turned back, and took Hazor, and smote the king thereof with the sword. For Hazor beforetime was the capital of all those kingdoms. ¹¹ And they smote all the souls that were therein with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying them; there was not left any thing that breathed; and he burnt Hazor with fire. ¹² And all the cities of those kings, and all the kings of them, did Joshua take, and smote them with the edge of the sword, and he utterly destroyed them, as Moses the servant of Jehovah had commanded. ¹³ But as for the cities that stood on their mounds, Israel burned none of them, save Hazor only, that did Joshua burn. ¹⁴ And all the spoil of these cities, and the cattle, the children of Israel took for a prey to themselves; but every human being they smote with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them, neither left they any thing that breathed. ¹⁵ As Jehovah had commanded Moses his servant, so had Moses commanded Joshua, and so did Joshua do. He left nothing undone of all that Jehovah had commanded Moses.

¹⁶ So Joshua took all that land, the Hill country, and all the South country, and all the land of Goshen, and the Low country, and the Barren Valley, and the hill country of Israel, and the low country of the same, ¹⁷ from the Smooth Hill, the Ascent to Scir, even to Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon under mount Hermon. And all their kings he took, and smote them, and slew them. ¹⁸ Joshua made war for a long time with all those kings. ¹⁹ There was not a city that made peace with the children of Israel, save the Hivites, the inhabitants of Gibeon; all the others they took in battle. ²⁰ For it was of Jehovah to harden their hearts, that they should come against Israel in battle, so that he might destroy them utterly, and that they might receive no mercy, but that he might destroy them, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

²¹ And at that time came Joshua, and cut off the Anakites from the Hill country, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, and from all the hill country of Judah, and from all the hill country of Israel; Joshua destroyed them utterly with their cities. ²² There was none of the Anakites left in the land of the children of Israel; only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod, they remained. ²³ So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that Jehovah had said to Moses; and Joshua gave it for an inheritance unto Israel according to their divisions by their tribes. And the land rested from war.

12 NOW THESE ARE THE KINGS of the land, whom the children of Israel smote, and possessed their land beyond the Jordan TOWARD THE SUN-RISING, from the river Arnon unto mount Hermon, and all the Barren Valley on the east;—² Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon and ruled from Aroer, which is upon the edge of the valley [or chasm] of the Arnon, both over the middle of the valley, and over half Gilead, even unto the river Jabbok, which is the boundary of the Children of Ammon; ³ and over the Barren Valley to the Sea of Chinneroth [or Gennesaret] on the east, and unto the Sea of the Barren Valley, even the Salt Sea on the east, on the way to Beth-jeshimoth; and from the south, under the Hill-sides of Pisgah; ⁴ and also the boundary of Og king of Bashan, who was of the remnant of the giants, that dwelt at Ashtaroth and at Edrei, ⁵ and who ruled in mount Hermon, and in Salcah, and in all Bashan, unto the boundary of the Geshurites and Maachathites, and over half Gilead, which is the boundary of Sihon king of Heshbon.—⁶ Them did Moses the servant of Jehovah and the children of Israel smite. And Moses the servant of Jehovah gave it for a possession unto the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh.

⁷ And these are the kings of the land whom Joshua and the children of Israel smote beyond the Jordan ON THE WEST, from Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon even to the Smooth Hill, the Ascent to Seir; which Joshua gave to the tribes of Israel for a possession according to their divisions; ⁸ in the Hill country, and in the Low country, and in the Barren Valley, and in the Hill-sides, and in the desert, and in the South country; the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites;

⁹ the king of Jericho, one;
 the king of the Ai which is beside Beth-el, one;
¹⁰ the king of Jerusalem, one;
 the king of Hebron, one;
¹¹ the king of Jarmuth, one;
 the king of Lachish, one;
¹² the king of Eglon, one;
 the king of Gezer, one;
¹³ the king of Debir, one;
 the king of Geder, one;
¹⁴ the king of Hormah, one;
 the king of Arad, one;
¹⁵ the king of Libnah, one;
 the king of Adullam, one;
¹⁶ the king of Makkedah, one;
 the king of Beth-el, one;
¹⁷ the king of Tappuah, one;
 the king of Hopher, one;
¹⁸ the king of Aphek, one;
 the king of Lasharon [or Sharon], one;
¹⁹ the king of Madon, one;
 the king of Hazor, one;
²⁰ the king of Shimron-meron, one;
 the king of Achshaph, one;
²¹ the king of Taanach, one;
 the king of Megiddo, one;
²² the king of Kedesh, one;
 the king of Jokneam at Carmel, one;
²³ the king of Dor, on the heights of Dor, one;
 the king of the Nations at Gilgal [or Galilee], one;

²⁴ the king of Tirzah, one. All the kings were thirty and one.

¹³ Now Joshua was old and advanced in years; and Jehovah said to him, 'Thou art old and advanced in years, and there remaineth yet very much land to be possessed. ² This is the land that yet remaineth; all the Circle of the Philistines, and all the Geshurites,—³ from the Shihor [or Nile], which is before Lower Egypt, even unto the boundary of Ekron northward, which is counted to the Canaanites; five chiefs of the Philistines; [namely] the Gazathites, and the Ashdodites, the Askalonites, the Gathites, and the Ekronites; and also the Avites ⁴ on the south;—⁵ all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah [or the naked coast], that is beside the Sidonians, unto Aphek, to the boundary of the Amorites;—⁶ and the land of the Gebalites, and all Lebanon, toward the sunrise, from Baal-gad under mount Hermon unto the Pass of Hamath;—⁶ all the inhabitants of the Hill country from Lebanon unto Misarepeth on the Sea, even all the Sidonians. These will I drive out from before the children of Israel. Only divide thou it by lot unto the Israelites for an inheritance, as I have commanded thee. ⁷ Now therefore divide this land for an inheritance unto the nine tribes, and the half tribe of Manasseh.'

⁸ With these the Reubenites and the Gadites received their inheritance, which Moses gave them, BEYOND THE JORDAN EASTWARD, even as Moses the servant of Jehovah gave them; ⁹ from Aroer, that is upon the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and the city that is in the middle of the valley and all the Table-land of Medeba unto Dibon; ¹⁰ and all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, unto the border of the children of Ammon; ¹¹ and Gilead, and the border of the Geshurites and Maachathites, and all mount Hermon, and all Bashan unto Salcah; ¹² all the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei, who remained of the remnant of the giants. And these did Moses smite, and cast them out. ¹³ Nevertheless the children of Israel cast not out the Geshurites, nor the Maachathites; but the Geshurites and the Maachathites dwell among the Israelites until this day. ¹⁴ Only to the tribe of Levi he gave no inheritance; the offerings to Jehovah the God of Israel made by fire are their inheritance, as he said to them [Deut. xviii. 2].

¹⁵ And Moses gave to the TRIBE OF THE CHILDREN OF REUBEN for their families. ¹⁶ And their boundary was from Aroer, that is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and the city that is in the middle of the valley, and all the Table-land by Medeba; ¹⁷ Heshbon, and all its cities that are on the Table-land; Dibon, and Bamoth-baal, and Beth-baal of Maon, ¹⁸ and Jahazah, and Kedemoth, and Mephaath, ¹⁹ and Kirjathaim, and Sibmah, and Zareth-shahar on the mount of the valley, ²⁰ and Beth-peor, and the Hill-sides of Pisgah, and Beth-jeshimoth, ²¹ and all the cities of the Table-land, and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses smote with the princes of Midian, Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, who were Sihon's princes, dwelling in the land. ²² Balaam also the son of Beor, the soothsayer, did the children of Israel slay with the sword among those that were slain by them. ²³ And the boundary of the children of Reuben was the Jordan. And this was the boundary of the inheritance of the children of Reuben for their families, the cities and the villages thereof.

²⁴ And Moses gave to the TRIBE OF GAD, even to the children of Gad for their families. ²⁵ And their boundary was Jazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the children of Ammon, unto Aroer, that is before Rabbah; ²⁶ and from Heshbon unto Ramath-mizpeh, and Betonim; and from Mahanaim unto the boundary of Debir; ²⁷ and in the valley, Beth-aram, and Beth-nimrah, and Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, the Jordan and its boundary, even unto the edge of the Sea of Chinnereth beyond the Jordan eastward. ²⁸ This is the inheritance of the children of Gad for their families, the cities, and their villages.

²⁹ And Moses gave to the HALF TRIBE OF MANASSEH. And this was for the half tribe of the children of Manasseh for their families. ³⁰ And their boundary was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the Hamlets of Jair, which are in Bashan, sixty cities; ³¹ and half Gilead, and Ashtaroth, and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, belonged to the children of Machir the son of Manasseh, even to the one half of the children of Machir for their families. ³² These are what Moses did distribute for inheritance in the barren plains of Moab beyond the Jordan, by Jericho, eastward. ³³ But to the tribe of Levi Moses gave not any inheritance. Jehovah the God of Israel was their inheritance, as he said unto them.

¹⁴ And these are what the children of Israel inherited in the LAND OF CANAAN, which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed for inheritance to them. ² By casting of lots was their inheritance, as Jehovah had commanded by the hand of Moses [Numb. xxvi. 55], for the nine tribes, and for the half tribe. ³ For Moses had given the inheritance of two tribes and a half tribe beyond the Jordan; but to the Levites he gave no inheritance among them. ⁴ For the children of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim. And they gave no part to the Levites in the land, save cities to dwell in, with their pasture lands for their cattle and for their substance. ⁵ As Jehovah had commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did, and they divided the land.

⁶ (Then the children of Judah came to Joshua in Gilgal; and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite said to him, 'Thou knowest the word that Jehovah said to Moses the man of God concerning me and thee in Kadesh-barnea. ⁷ Forty years old was I when Moses the servant of Jehovah sent me from Kadesh-barnea to spy out the land; and I brought him word again as it was in my heart. ⁸ Nevertheless my brethren that went up with me made the heart of the people to melt; but I wholly followed Jehovah my God. ⁹ And Moses swore on that day, saying, Surely the land whereon thy feet have trodden shall be thine for an inheritance, and thy children's for ever, because thou hast wholly followed Jehovah my God. ¹⁰ And now, behold, Jehovah hath kept me alive, as he said these forty and five years, since Jehovah spake this word to Moses, while Israel walked in the desert. And now, behold I am this day [A.M. 2714] eighty and five years old. ¹¹ As yet I am as strong this day as I was in the day that Moses sent me. As my strength was then, even so is my strength now, for war, both to go out, and to come in. ¹² Now therefore give me this hill country, whereof Jehovah spake in that day; for thou hast heard in that day how the Anakites are there, and the cities are great and fenced; if so be Jehovah will be with me, then I shall drive them out, as Jehovah said.' ¹³ And Joshua blessed him, and gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh Hebron for an inheritance. ¹⁴ Hebron therefore became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite unto this day, because that he wholly followed Jehovah the God of Israel. ¹⁵ And the name of Hebron before was the City of Arba, who was a great man among the Anakites. And the land had rest from war.)

¹⁵ And the lot of the tribe of the CHILDREN OF JUDAH for their families was to the boundary of Edom; the desert of Zin southward was at the southern limit.

² (And their south boundary was from the end of the Salt Sea, from the bay that looketh southward. ³ And it went out to the south of the hill-road of Acrabbim, and passed along to Zin, and went up on the south to Kadesh-barnea, and passed on to Hebron [the village], and went up to Adar [the area], and it went round to Karkaa [the floor], and passed toward Azemon [force], and went out unto the valley of Lower Egypt; and the goings out of that boundary were as the sea. This shall be your south boundary.)

⁵ And the east boundary was the Salt Sea, unto the end of the Jordan.

And the boundary on the north side was from the bay of the sea at the end of the Jordan. ⁶ And the boundary went up to Beth-hogla, and passed along by the north of Beth-arabah. And the boundary went up to the Stone of Bohan the son of Reuben. ⁷ And the boundary went up toward Debir from the valley of Achor, and so northward, looking toward Gilgal, that is over against the hill-road, to Adummin, which is on the south side of the brook. And the boundary passed toward the waters of Ain-shemon, and the goings out thereof were at Ain-rogel. ⁸ And the boundary went up by the Valley of the Son of Hinnom unto the south corner of the Jebusites; the same is Jerusalem. And the boundary went up to the top of the hill that lieth before the Valley of Hinnom westward, which is at the end of the Valley of the Giants northward. ⁹ And the boundary was drawn from the top of the hill to the well of the Water of Nephtoah, and went out to the cities of mount Ephron; and the boundary was drawn to Baalah, which is the City of Jearim. ¹⁰ And the boundary went round from Baalah westward to mount Seir, and passed along to the north corner of mount Jearim, which is Chesalon, and went down to Bethshemesh, and passed on to Timnah. ¹¹ And the boundary went out unto the north corner of Ekron. And the boundary was drawn to Shieron, and passed along to mount Baalah, and went out unto Jabneel; and the goings out of the boundary were at the Sea.

¹² And the west boundary was at the Great Sea. And this boundary is the boundary of the children of Judah round about for their families.

(¹³ And to Caleb the son of Jephunneh he gave a part among the children of Judah, according to the command of Jehovah to Joshua, even the city of Arba the father of Anak, it is Hebron. ¹⁴ And Caleb drove thence the three sons of Anak [or Giants], Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmi, who were born of Anak. ¹⁵ And he went up thence to the inhabitants of Debir; and the name of Debir [or the place of the Oracle] before was the City of Sepher [or Writing]. ¹⁶ And Caleb said, 'He that smiteth the City of Sepher, and taketh it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter to wife.' ¹⁷ And Othniel the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, took it. And he gave him Achsah his daughter to wife. ¹⁸ And it came to pass, as she came to him, that she persuaded him, asking of her father a field; and she lighted off her ass; and Caleb said to her, 'What wouldest thou?' ¹⁹ And she answered, 'Give me a blessing; for thou hast given me the land of the South country; give me also springs of water [or hill-sides]. And he gave her the Upper Springs, and the Lower Springs.)

³¹ and Ziklag, and Madmenah, and Sansannah, ³² and Lebaoth, and Shilhim, and Ain, and Rimmon. All the cities are twenty and nine, with their villages.

³³ In the Low country, Eshtaol, and Zoreah, and Ashnah, ³⁴ and Zanoah, and Ain-gannim, Tappuah, and Ainam—³⁵ Jarmuth, and Adullam, Socoh, and Azekah, ³⁶ and Shaarim, and Adithaim, and Gederah, and Gederothaim; fourteen cities with their villages.

³⁷ Zenan, and Hadashah, and the Tower of Gad, ³⁸ and Dilean, and Mizpeh, and Joktheel.

³⁹ Lachish, and Bozkath, and Eglon, ⁴⁰ and Cabbon, and Lahmam, and Kithlish, ⁴¹ and Gederoth, Beth-dagon, and Naamah, and Makkedah; sixteen cities with their villages.

⁴² Libnah, and Ether, and Ashan, and Jiphtah, and Ashnah, and Nezib, ⁴³ and Keilah, and Achezib, ⁴⁴ and Mareshah; nine cities with their villages.

⁴⁵ Ekron, with its suburbs and its villages.

⁴⁶ From Ekron even unto the sea, all that lay near Ashdod, with their villages.

⁴⁷ Ashdod with its suburbs and its villages.

Gaza with its suburbs and its villages, unto the valley of Lower Egypt, and the Great Sea, and its boundary.

⁴⁸ And in the Hill country, Shamir, and Jattir, and Socoh, ⁴⁹ and Dannah, and the City of Sannah, which is Debir, ⁵⁰ and Anab, and Eshtemoah, and Anim, ⁵¹ and Goshen, and Holon, and Giloh; eleven cities with their villages.

⁵² Arab, and Dumah, and Eshean, ⁵³ and Janum, and Beth-tappuah, and Aphekah, ⁵⁴ and Hunteh, and the City of Arba, which is Hebron, and Zior; nine cities with their villages.

⁵⁵ Maon, Carmel, and Ziph, and Juttah, ⁵⁶ and Jezreel, and Jokdeam, and Zanoah, ⁵⁷ Cain; Gibeah, and Timnah; ten cities with their villages.

⁵⁸ Halhul, Beth-zur, and Gedor, ⁵⁹ and Maarath, and Beth-anoth, and Eltekon; six cities with their villages.

⁶⁰ The City of Baal, which is the City of Jearim, and Rabbah; two cities with their villages.

⁶¹ In the Desert,

Beth-arabah, Middin, and Secacah, ⁶² and Nibshan, and the city of Salt, and Aiu-gedi; six cities with their villages.

⁶³ But as for the Jebusites the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the children of Judah could not drive them out; but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Judah at Jerusalem unto this day.

16 And the lot of the CHILDREN OF JOSEPH went forth from the Jordan by Jericho, to the water of Jericho, on the east of the desert that goeth up from Jericho through the hill-country of Beth-el. ² And it goeth out from Beth-el to Luz, and passeth along to the boundary of the Archites at Ataroth. ³ And it goeth down westward to the boundary of the Japhletites, to the boundary of Beth-horon the Lower, and to Gezer. And the goings out thereof are at the sea. ⁴ So the children of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, took their inheritance.

⁵ And the boundary of the CHILDREN OF EPHRAIM for their families was thus; even the [southern] boundary of their inheritance on the east side was Ataroth-addar, unto Beth-horon the Upper. ⁶ And the boundary went out westward to Michmethah, on the north side. And the boundary went about eastward unto Taanath-shiloh, and passed by it on the east to Janohah. ⁷ And it went down from Janohah to Ataroth, and to Naarath, and touched upon Jericho, and went out at the Jordan. ⁸ The [northern] boundary went from Tappuah westward unto the brook Kanah; and the goings out thereof were at the sea. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephraim for their families. ⁹ And the separate cities for the children of Ephraim were among the inheritance of the children of Manasseh, all the cities with their villages. ¹⁰ And they drove not out the Canaanites that dwelt in Gezer; but the Canaanites dwell among the Ephraimites unto this day, and serve under tribute.

¹¹ There was also a lot for the TRIBE OF MANASSEH; for he was the firstborn of Joseph; [to wit] for Machir the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead; because he was a man of war, therefore he had Gilead and Bashan. ¹² There was also a lot for the rest of the children of Manasseh for their families; [to wit] for the children of Abiezer, and for the children of Helek, and for the children of Asriel, and for the children of Shechem, and for the children of Hephher, and for the children of Shemida; (these were the male children of Manasseh the son of Joseph) for their families.

¹³ But Zelophehad, the son of Hephher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but daughters; and these are the names of his daughters, Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. ¹⁴ And they came near before Eleazar the priest, and before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the princes, saying, 'Jehovah commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brethren.' Therefore according to the command of Jehovah he gave them an inheritance among the brethren of their father. ¹⁵ And there fell ten portions to Manasseh, beside the land of Gilead and Bashan, which were beyond the Jordan; ¹⁶ because the daughters of Manasseh inherited their inheritance among his sons; and the rest of Manasseh's sons had the land of Gilead.

boundary of Manasseh was on the north side of the brook, and the outgoings of it were at the sea. ¹⁰ Southward it was Ephraim's, and northward it was Manasseh's, and the sea is its boundary; and they touched on Asher on the north, and on Issachar on the east. ¹¹ And Manasseh had within Issachar and within Asher, Beth-shean and its suburbs, and Ibleam and its suburbs, and the inhabitants of Dor and its suburbs, and the inhabitants of Ain-dor and its suburbs, and the inhabitants of Taanach and its suburbs, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its suburbs, even three regions. ¹² Yet the children of Manasseh could not drive out the inhabitants of those cities; but the Canaanites chose to dwell in that land. ¹³ Yet it came to pass, when the children of Israel were waxen strong, that they put the Canaanites to tribute, but did not utterly drive them out.

¹⁴ And the children of Joseph spake to Joshua, saying, 'Why hast thou given me but one lot and one portion to inherit, seeing I am a great people, forasmuch as Jehovah hath blessed me hitherto?' ¹⁵ And Joshua answered them, 'If thou be a great people, then get thee up to the forest, and cut down for thyself there in the land of the Perizzites [or Villagers], and of the Rephaites [or Giants], if the hill country of Ephraim press too closely upon thee.' ¹⁶ And the children of Joseph said, 'The hill country is not enough for us; and all the Canaanites that dwell in the land of the Valley have chariots of iron, both they who are of Beth-shean and its suburbs, and they who are of the valley of Jezreel.' ¹⁷ And Joshua spake to the house of Joseph, even to Ephraim and to Manasseh, saying, 'Thou art a great people, and hast great power; thou shalt not have one lot only. ¹⁸ But the hill country shall be thine; for it is a forest and thou shalt cut it down. ¹⁹ And the outgoings of it shall be thine; for thou shalt drive out the Canaanites, though they have iron chariots, and though they be strong.'

¹⁸ And the whole congregation of the children of Israel assembled together at Shiloh, and set up the Tent of Meeting there. And the land was subdued before them. ² And there remained among the children of Israel SEVEN TRIBES which had not yet received their inheritance. ³ And Joshua said to the children of Israel, 'How long will ye be slow to go to possess the land, which Jehovah the God of your fathers hath given you? ⁴ Appoint for yourselves three men for each tribe; and I will send them, and they shall rise, and go about through the land, and describe it according to the inheritance of them; and they shall come again to me. ⁵ And they shall divide it for yourselves into seven parts. Judah shall abide within their boundary on the south, and the house of Joseph shall abide within their boundary on the north. ⁶ Ye shall therefore describe the land in seven parts, and bring [the description] hither to me, that I may cast lots for you here before Jehovah our God. ⁷ But the Levites have no part

'among you; for the priesthood of Jehovah is their inheritance; and Gad, and Reuben, and half the tribe of Manasseh, have received their inheritance beyond the Jordan, on the east which Moses the servant of Jehovah gave them.'

⁸ And the men arose, and went away. And Joshua charged them that went to describe the land, saying, 'Go and go about through the land, and describe it, and come again to me, that I may here cast lots for you before Jehovah in Shiloh.' ⁹ And the men went and passed through the land, and described it by cities into seven parts in a book, and came again to Joshua to the camp at Shiloh. ¹⁰ And Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before Jehovah. And there Joshua divided the land unto the children of Israel according to their divisions.

¹¹ And the lot of the tribe of the CHILDREN OF BENJAMIN came up for their families; and the boundary of their lot came forth between the children of Judah and the children of Joseph. ¹² And their boundary on the north side was from the Jordan; and the boundary went up to the north corner of Jericho, and went up through the hill country westward; and its goings out were at the desert of Beth-aven. ¹³ And the boundary went over from thence toward Luz, to the south corner of Luz, which is Beth-el; and the boundary came down to Ataroth-adar, near the hill that lieth on the south side of Beth-horon the Lower. ¹⁴ And the boundary was drawn, and turned round on its western side southward, from the hill that lieth before Beth-horon southward; and its goings out were at the City of Baal, which is the City of Jearim, a city of the children of Judah. This was the west side. ¹⁵ And the south side was from the end of the city of Jearim, and the boundary went out towards the west, and then went out to the well of the waters of Nephtoa. ¹⁶ And the boundary came down to the end of the hill that lieth before the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, and which is in the Valley of the Giants on the north, and came down to the Valley of Hinnom, to the south corner of the Jebusites [or Jerusalem], and came down to Ain-rogel. ¹⁷ And it was drawn from the north, and went forth to Ain-shemesh, and went forth toward Geliloth, which is over against the hill-road of Adummim, and came down to the Stone of Bohan the son of Reuben, ¹⁸ and passed along toward the corner over against the Barren Valley northward, and went down to the Barren Valley. ¹⁹ And the boundary passed along to the north corner of Beth-hoglah; and the outgoings of the boundary were at the north bay of the Salt Sea at the south end of the Jordan. This was the south boundary. ²⁰ And the Jordan was the boundary of it on the east side. This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, by its boundaries, round about, for their families.

²¹ Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin for their families were Jericho, and Beth-hoglah, and the Valley of Keziz,

²² and Beth-arabah, and the Zemaraites, and Beth-el,

²³ and the Avites, and Parah, and Ophrah, ²⁴ and the town of the Ammonites, and the Ophnites, and Geba; twelve cities with their villages; ²⁵ Gibeon, and Ramah, and Beeroth,

¹⁹ And the second lot came out to Simeon, even for the tribe of the CHILDREN OF SIMEON for their families. And their inheritance was within the inheritance of the children of Judah. ² And they had in their inheritance

Beersheba, and Sheba, and Moladah, ³ and the Village of Shual, and Balah, and Azem, ⁴ and Eltolad, and Bethu-el, and Hormah,

⁵ and Ziklag, and Beth-marecaboth [the place of Chariots], and the Village of Susah [or of Horses], ⁶ and Beth-lebaoth, and Sharuhin; thirteen cities and their villages;

⁷ Ain, Rimmon, and Ether, and Ashan; four cities and their villages;

⁸ and all the villages that were round about these cities to Baalath-beer, Ramath of the South Country. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon for their families. ⁹ Out of the portion of the children of Judah was the inheritance of the children of Simeon; for the portion of the children of Judah was too much for them. Therefore within the inheritance of these, the children of Simeon had their inheritance.

¹⁰ And the third lot came up for the CHILDREN OF ZEBULUN for their families. And the boundary of their inheritance was unto Sarid; ¹¹ and their boundary went up toward the west, and Maralah, and reached to Dabbasheth, and reached to the brook that is before Jokneam; ¹² and turned from Sarid eastward toward the sunrise unto the boundary of Chesloth-tabor, and then goeth out to Daberath, and goeth up to Japhia, ¹³ and from thence it passeth on along on to the east to Gath-hepher, (now Kazin,) and goeth out to Rimmon, and is drawn to Neah. ¹⁴ And the boundary encompasseth it on the north side to Hannathon; and its goings out are in the valley of Jiphthah-el; ¹⁵ and Kattah, and Nahallal, and Shimron, and Idalah, and Bethlehem; twelve cities with their villages. ¹⁶ This is the inheritance of the children of Zebulun for their families, these cities with their villages.

¹⁷ And the fourth lot came out to Issachar, for the CHILDREN OF ISSACHAR for their families.

¹⁸ And their boundary was toward Jezreel, and Chesloth, and Shunem, ¹⁹ and Haphraim, and Shihon, and Anaharath, ²⁰ and Rabboth, and Kishion, and Abez, ²¹ and Remeth, and Ain-gannim, and Ain-haddah, and Beth-pazzez;

²⁴ And the fifth lot came out for the tribe of the CHILDREN OF ASHER for their families. ²⁵ And their boundary was Helkath, and Hali, and Beten, and Achshaph, ²⁶ and Almelech, and Amad, and Mashal, and it reacheth to Carmel on the Sea, and to the White Shihor [or the Shihor of Lebanon]. ²⁷ And it turneth back toward the sunrising to Bethedagon, and reacheth to Zebulun, and to the valley of Jiphthah-el toward the north side of Bethemek, and Neiel, and goeth out to Cabul on the left hand, ²⁸ and Hebron, and Rehob, and Hammon, and Kanah, as far as Great Sidon. ²⁹ And then the boundary turneth to Ramah, and as far as the strong city Tyre; and the boundary turneth to Hosah; and its goings out are at the sea along the coast to Achezib. ³⁰ Ummah also, and Aphek, and Rehob; twenty and two cities with their villages. ³¹ This is the inheritance of the tribe of Asher for their families, these cities with their villages.

³² The sixth lot came out to the children of Naphtali, even for the CHILDREN OF NAPHTALI for their families. ³³ And their boundary was from Heleph, from the Oak of Zaananim, and the Adamites, Nekeb, and Jabneel, unto Lakum; and its goings out were at the Jordan. ³⁴ And then the boundary turneth westward to Aznoth-tabor, and goeth out from thence to Hukkuk. And it toucheth on Zebulun on the south side, and it toucheth on Asher on the west side, and on the Judah [or the head-springs] of the Jordan toward the sunrising. ³⁵ And the fenced cities are Ziddim, Zer, and Hamath, Rakkath, and Chinnereth [or Gennesaret], ³⁶ and Adamah, and Ramah, and Hazor, ³⁷ and Kedesh, and Edrei, and Ain-hazor, ³⁸ and Iron, and Migdol-el [or Magdala], Horem, and Beth-anath, and Beth-shemesh; nineteen cities with their villages. ³⁹ This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naphtali for their families, the cities and their villages.

⁴⁰ And the seventh lot came out for the tribe of the CHILDREN OF DAN for their families. ⁴¹ And the boundary of their inheritance was Zorah, and Eshtaol, and Ir-shemesh, ⁴² and Shaalabbin, and Ajalon, and Jethlah, ⁴³ and Elon, and Timnath, and Ekron, ⁴⁴ and Eltekeh, and Gibbethon, and Baalath, ⁴⁵ and Jehud, and the Sons of Berak, and Gath-rimmon, ⁴⁶ and the Water of Jarkon, and Rakkon, with the boundary over against Joppa.

⁴⁷ And the boundary of the children of Dan went out too little for them. Therefore the children of Dan went up and fought against Leshem, and took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and possessed it, and dwelt therein, and called Leshem, Dan, after the name of Dan their father. ⁴⁸ This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan for their families, these cities with their villages.

⁴⁹ When they had made an end of dividing the land for inheritance by their boundaries, the children of Israel gave an inheritance to Joshua the son of Nun among them; ⁵⁰ according to the command of Jehovah they gave him the city, which he asked, even Timnath-serah in the hill country of Ephraim; and he built the city, and dwelt therein. ⁵¹ These are the inheritances, which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, divided for an inheritance by lot in Shiloh before Jehovah, at the doorway of the Tent of Meeting. So they made an end of dividing the country.

20 (And Jehovah spake to Joshua, saying, ² 'Speak to the children of Israel, saying, Appoint ³ for yourselves the CITIES OF REFUGE, whereof I ⁴ spake to you by the hand of Moses, [Numb. xxxv. 11.] ⁵ that the manslayer that killeth any ⁶ person unawares and unwittingly may flee thither. ⁷ And they shall be your refuge from the avenger ⁸ of blood. ⁹ And when he that doth flee to one of ¹⁰ those cities shall stand at the entrance of the gate ¹¹ of the city, and shall declare his cause in the ears ¹² of the elders of that city, they shall take him into ¹³ the city unto them, and give him a place, that he ¹⁴ may dwell among them. ¹⁵ And if the avenger of ¹⁶ blood pursue after him, then they shall not deliver the manslayer up into his hand; because he ¹⁷ smote his neighbour unwittingly, and hated him ¹⁸ not beforetime. ¹⁹ And he shall dwell in that city, ²⁰ until he stand before the congregation for judgment, until the death of the high priest that shall ²¹ be in those days; then shall the slayer return, ²² and come to his own city, and to his own house, ²³ to the city from whence he fled.' ²⁴ And they sanctified Kedesh in Galilee in the hill country of Naphtali, and Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and the City of Arba, which is Hebron, in the hill country of Judah. ²⁵ And beyond the Jordan by Jericho in the east, they assigned Bezer in the desert upon the Table-land out of the tribe of Reuben, and Ramoth in Gilead out of the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan out of the tribe of Manasseh. ²⁶ These were the cities appointed for all the children of Israel, and for the stranger that sojourneth among them, that whose killeth any person unawares might flee there, and that he die not by the hand of the avenger of blood, until he stand before the congregation.

21 Then the heads of the fathers of THE LEVITES came near to Eleazar the priest, and to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel; ² and they spake to them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, 'Jehovah commanded by the hand of Moses [Numb. xxxv.] to give us cities to dwell in, with their pasture lands for our cattle.' ³ And the children of Israel gave to the Levites out of their inheritance, at the command of Jehovah, these cities and their pasture lands. ⁴ And the lot came out for the families of the Kohathites. And the children of Aaron the priest, who were of the Levites, had by lot out of the tribe of Judah, and out of the tribe of the Simeonites, and out of the tribe of Benjamin, thirteen cities. ⁵ And the rest of the children of Kohath had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Ephraim, and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh, ten cities.—⁶ And the children of Gershon had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities.—⁷ The children of Merari for their families had out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities. ⁸ And the children of Israel gave by lot to the Levites these cities with their pasture lands, as Jehovah had commanded by the hand of Moses.

⁹ And they gave out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, these cities which are here mentioned by name, ¹⁰ which the CHILDREN OF AARON, being of the families of the Kohathites, who were of the children of Levi, had; for theirs was the first lot. ¹¹ And they gave them the city of Arba the father of Anak, which city is Hebron, in the hill country of Judah, with its pasture lands round about it. ¹² But the fields of the city, and its villages, gave they to Caleb the son of Jephunneh for his possession.

¹³ Thus they gave to the children of Aaron the priest, Hebron with its pasture lands, to be a city of refuge for the manslayer;

and Libnah with its pasture lands,

¹⁴ and Jattir with its pasture lands, and Eshtemoa with its pasture lands,

¹⁵ and Holon with its pasture lands, and Debir with its pasture lands,

¹⁶ and Ain with its pasture lands, and Juttah with its pasture lands, and Beth-shemesh with its pasture lands; nine cities out of those two tribes.

¹⁷ And out of the tribe of Benjamin,

Gibeon with its pasture lands,

Geba with its pasture lands,

¹⁸ Anathoth with its pasture lands, and Almon with its pasture lands; four cities.

¹⁹ All the cities of the children of Aaron, the priests, were thirteen cities with their pasture lands.

²⁰ And the families of the children of Kohath, the Levites THAT REMAINED OF THE CHILDREN OF KOHATH, even they had the cities of their lot out of the tribe of Ephraim. ²¹ For they gave them Shechem with its pasture lands in the hill country of Ephraim, to be a city of refuge for the manslayer; and Gezer with its pasture lands, ²² and Kibzaim with its pasture lands, and Beth-horon with its pasture lands; four cities.

²³ And out of the tribe of Dan,

Eltekeh with its pasture lands,

Gibbethon with its pasture lands,

²⁴ Ajalon with its pasture lands,

Gath-rimmon with its pasture lands; four cities.

²⁵ And out of the half tribe of Manasseh,

Tanach with its pasture lands, and Gath-rimmon with its pasture lands; two cities.

²⁶ All the cities were ten with their pasture lands for the families of the children of Kohath, that remained.

²⁷ And to the CHILDREN OF GERSHON, of the families of the Levites, out of the other half tribe of Manasseh they gave Golan in Bashan with its pasture lands, to be a city of refuge for the manslayer; and Beashterah with its pasture lands; two cities.

²⁸ And out of the tribe of Issachar,

Kishon with its pasture lands,

Daberath with its pasture lands,

²⁹ Jarmuth with its pasture lands,

Ain-gannim with its pasture lands; four cities.

³⁰ And out of the tribe of Asher,

Mashal with its pasture lands,

Abdon with its pasture lands,

³¹ Helkath with its pasture lands, and Rehob with its pasture lands; four cities.

³² And out of the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galilee with its pasture lands, to be a city of refuge for the manslayer; and Hamath-dor with its pasture lands, and Kartan with its pasture lands; three cities.

³³ All the cities of the Gershonites for their families were thirteen cities with their pasture lands.

³⁴ And to the families of the CHILDREN OF MERARI, the rest of the Levites, out of the tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam with its pasture lands, and Kartah with its pasture lands,

³⁵ Dimnah with its pasture lands,

Nahalal with its pasture lands; four cities.

³⁶ And out of the tribe of Reuben,

Bezer with its pasture lands,

and Jahazah with its pasture lands,

³⁷ Kedemoth with its pasture lands, and Mephaath with its pasture lands; four cities.

³⁸ And out of the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead with its pasture lands, to be a city of refuge for the manslayer; and Mahanaim with its pasture lands,

³⁹ Heshbon with its pasture lands,

Jazer with its pasture lands; four cities in all.

⁴⁰ So all the cities for the children of Merari for their families, which were remaining of the families of the Levites, were by their lot twelve cities.

⁴¹ All the cities of the Levites within the possession of the children of Israel were forty and eight cities with their pasture lands. ⁴² These cities were every one with their pasture lands round about them ; thus were all these cities.)

⁴³ And Jehovah gave to Israel all the land which he swore to give to their fathers ; and they possessed it, and dwelt therein. ⁴⁴ And Jehovah gave them rest round about, according to all that he swore unto their fathers ; and there stood not a man of all their enemies before them ; Jehovah delivered all their enemies into their hand. ⁴⁵ There failed not aught of any good thing which Jehovah had spoken to the house of Israel ; all came to pass.

22 Then Joshua called the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, ² and said to them, 'Ye have kept all that Moses the servant of Jehovah commanded you, and have obeyed my voice in all that I commanded you. ³ Ye have not left your brethren these many days unto this day, but have kept the charge of the command of Jehovah your God. ⁴ And now Jehovah your God hath given rest to your brethren, as he promised them. Therefore now turn ye, and get you to your tents, and to the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of Jehovah gave you beyond the Jordan. ⁵ But take diligent heed to do the commandment and the law, which Moses the servant of Jehovah charged you, to love Jehovah your God, and to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and to cleave to him, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul.' ⁶ So Joshua blessed them, and sent them away. And they went to their tents. ⁷ (Now to the one half of the tribe of Manasseh Moses had given possession in Bashan ; but to the other half thereof gave Joshua among their brethren beyond the Jordan westward.) And when Joshua sent them away to their tents, then he blessed them, ⁸ and he spake to them, saying, 'Return with much riches to your tents, and with very much cattle, with silver, and with gold, and with copper, and with iron, and with very much raiment. Divide the spoil of your enemies with your brethren.'

⁹ And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh returned, and departed from the children of Israel out of Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go to the land of Gilead, to the land of their possession, whereof they had possessed themselves, according to the command of Jehovah by the hand of Moses. ¹⁰ And when they came to the Circle of the Jordan, which is in the land of Canaan, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh built there an altar by the Jordan, a great altar to look at. ¹¹ And the children of Israel heard say, 'Behold the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh have built an altar over against the land of Canaan, in the Circle of the Jordan, beyond the children of Israel.' ¹² And when the children of Israel heard of it, the whole congregation of the children of Israel gathered themselves together at Shiloh, to go up to war against them. ¹³ And the children of Israel sent to the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, into the land of Gilead, Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, ¹⁴ and with him ten princes, of each chief house one prince throughout all the tribes of Israel ; and each one was a head of the house of their fathers among the thousands of Israel.

¹⁵ And they came to the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, unto the land of Gilead, and they spake with them, saying, ¹⁶ 'Thus saith the whole congregation of Jehovah, What trespass is this that ye have committed against the God of Israel, to turn away this day from following Jehovah, in that ye have builded for yourselves an altar, that ye might rebel this day against Jehovah ? ¹⁷ Is the iniquity of Peor too little for us, from which we are not cleansed unto this day, although there was a plague in the congregation of Jehovah, ¹⁸ but that ye must turn away this day from following Jehovah ? And it will be, seeing ye rebel to-day against Jehovah, that to-morrow he will be wroth with the whole congregation of Israel. ¹⁹ Notwithstanding, if the land of your possession be unclean, then pass ye over unto the land of the possession of Jehovah, wherein the Tabernacle of Jehovah dwelleth, and take possession among us ; but rebel not against Jehovah, nor rebel against us, in building for you an altar other than the Altar of Jehovah our God. ²⁰ Did not Achan the son of Zerah commit a trespass in the accursed thing, and wrath fell on all the congregation of Israel ? and that man perished not alone in his iniquity.'

²¹ Then the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh answered, and said to the heads of the thousands of Israel, ²² 'Jehovah the God of gods, Jehovah the God of gods, he knoweth, and Israel he shall know. If it be in rebellion, or if in transgression against Jehovah, save us not this day. ²³ If we have built us an altar to turn from following Jehovah, or if to offer up thereon burnt offering or meal offering, or if to offer sacrifices of peace offerings thereon, let Jehovah himself require it. ²⁴ And if we have not rather done it for fear of this thing, saying, In time to come your children might speak to our children, saying, What have ye to do with Jehovah the God of Israel ? ²⁵ For Jehovah hath made the Jordan a boundary between us and you, ye children of Reuben and children of Gad ; ye have no part in Jehovah. So shall your children make our children cease from fearing Jehovah. ²⁶ Therefore we said, Let us now prepare to build us an altar, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice ; ²⁷ but let it be a witness between us, and you, and our generations after us, that we may do the services of Jehovah in his presence with our burnt offerings, and with our sacrifices, and with our peace offerings ; that your children may not say to our children in time to 'come, Ye have no part in Jehovah. ²⁸Therefore said we, that it shall be, when they should so say 'to us or to our generations in time to come, that 'we may say, Behold the pattern of the Altar of 'Jehovah, which our fathers made. It is not for 'burnt offerings, nor for sacrifices; but it is a 'witness between us and you. ²⁹It were wicked 'in us for us to rebel against Jehovah, and to turn 'this day from following Jehovah, to build an altar 'for burnt offerings, for meal offerings, or for 'sacrifices, other than the Altar of Jehovah our 'God that is before his Tabernacle.'

³⁰And when Phinehas the priest, and the princes of the congregation, and heads of the thousands of Israel which were with him, heard the words that the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the children of Manasseh spake, it was good in their eyes. ³¹And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest said to the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the children of Manasseh, 'This day we perceive that 'Jehovah is among us, because ye have not committed this trespass against Jehovah. Now ye 'have delivered the children of Israel out of the 'hand of Jehovah.' ³²And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, and the princes, returned from the children of Reuben, and from the children of Gad, out of the land of Gilead, unto the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel, and brought them word again. ³³And the thing was good in the eyes of the children of Israel; and the children of Israel blessed God, and did not intend to go up against them in battle, to destroy the land wherein the children of Reuben and Gad dwelt. ³⁴And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad called the altar * * * 'for it shall be a witness between us that Jehovah is God.'

23 AND IT CAME TO PASS a long time after Jehovah had given rest unto Israel from all their enemies round about, that Joshua grew old and advanced in years. ²And Joshua called for all Israel, for their elders, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers, and said to them, 'I am old and advanced in years; ³and ye 'have seen all that Jehovah your God hath done 'to all these nations before your face; for Jehovah 'your God is he that hath fought for you. ⁴See, 'I have divided unto you by lot these nations that 'remain, to be an inheritance for your tribes, from 'the Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut 'off, even unto the Great Sea towards the sunset. ⁵'And Jehovah your God, he will expel them 'from before you, and drive them from out of 'your sight; and ye shall possess their land, as 'Jehovah your God promised unto you. ⁶Be ye 'therefore very courageous to keep and to do all 'that is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, 'turning not aside therefrom to the right hand or 'to the left; ⁷so that ye come not among these 'nations, these that remain among you; neither 'make mention of the name of their gods, nor 'cause to swear by them, neither serve them, nor

'bow yourselves to them; ⁸but cleave to Jehovah 'your God, as ye have done unto this day. ⁹For 'Jehovah hath driven out from before you great 'nations and strong; and as for you, no man 'hath been able to stand before you unto this day. ¹⁰'One man of you shall chase a thousand; for 'Jehovah your God, he it is that fighteth for you, 'as he hath promised you. ¹¹Take good heed 'therefore to yourselves, that ye love Jehovah 'your God. ¹²Else if ye do in any wise go back, 'and cleave unto the remnant of these nations, 'even these that remain among you, and shall 'make marriages with them, and go in unto them, 'and they to you; ¹³know for a certainty that 'Jehovah your God will no more drive out these 'nations from before you; but they will be snares 'and traps unto you, and scourges in your sides, 'and thorns in your eyes, until ye perish from off 'this good land, which Jehovah your God hath 'given you. ¹⁴And behold, this day I am going 'the way of all the earth; and ye know in all 'your hearts and in all your souls, that not one 'thing hath failed of all the good things which 'Jehovah your God spake concerning you; all are 'come to pass unto you, and not one thing hath 'failed thereof. ¹⁵Therefore it shall come to pass, 'that as all good things are come upon you, which 'Jehovah your God promised to you; so will 'Jehovah bring upon you all evil things, until 'he have destroyed you from off this good land 'which Jehovah your God hath given you; ¹⁶when 'ye transgress the covenant of Jehovah your God, 'which he commanded you, and go and serve other 'gods, and bow yourselves to them; then shall 'the anger of Jehovah be kindled against you, and 'ye will perish quickly from off the good land 'which he hath given to you.'

24 And Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called for the elders of Israel, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers; and they presented themselves before God. ²And Joshua said to all the people, 'Thus saith Jehovah the God of Israel, 'Your fathers dwelt on the other side of the River ' [Euphrates] in old times, even Terah, the father 'of Abraham, and the father of Nachor, and they 'served other gods. ³And I took your father 'Abraham from the other side of the River, and 'led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and 'multiplied his seed, and gave him Isaac. ⁴And 'to Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau; and I gave to 'Esau mount Seir, to possess it; but Jacob and 'his children went down into Lower Egypt. ⁵I 'sent Moses also and Aaron, and I plagued the 'Egyptians, according to that which I did among 'them. And afterward I brought you out; ⁶and 'I brought your fathers out of Lower Egypt; and 'ye came to the sea; and the Egyptians pursued 'after your fathers with chariots and horsemen 'unto the Red Sea. ⁷And when they cried to 'Jehovah, he put darkness between you and the 'Egyptians, and brought the sea upon them, and 'covered them. And your eyes have seen what I 'did in Lower Egypt. And ye dwelt in the desert for many years. ⁸ And I brought you into the land of the Amorites, who dwelt beyond the Jordan; and they fought with you. And I gave them into your hand, that ye might possess their land; and I destroyed them from before you. ⁹ Then Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose and warred against Israel; and he sent and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you. ¹⁰ But I would not hearken unto Balaam; therefore he blessed you greatly. So I delivered you out of his hand. ¹¹ And ye went over the Jordan, and came to Jericho. And the men of Jericho, fought against you, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Girgashites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites; and I delivered them into your hand. ¹² And I sent the hornet before you, which drove them out from before you, even the two kings of the Amorites; but not with thy sword, nor with thy bow. ¹³ And I have given you a land for which ye did not labour, and cities which ye built not, and ye dwell in them; and of the vineyards and oliveyards which ye planted not, do ye eat.—¹⁴ Now therefore fear Jehovah, and serve him in sincerity and in truth; and put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the River [Euphrates], and in Lower Egypt, and serve ye Jehovah. ¹⁵ And if it seem evil to you to serve Jehovah, choose ye this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the River, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell; but as for me and my house, we will serve Jehovah.'

¹⁶ And the people answered and said, 'It were wicked in us to forsake Jehovah, to serve other gods; ¹⁷ for Jehovah our God, he it is that brought us up and our fathers out of the land of Lower Egypt, from the house of bondage, and who did those great signs in our sight, and guarded us on all the way wherein we went, and among all the peoples through whom we passed. ¹⁸ And Jehovah drove out from before us all the peoples, even the Amorites who dwell in the land; therefore will we also serve Jehovah; for he is our God.' ¹⁹ And Joshua said to the people, 'Ye cannot serve Jehovah; for he is a holy God; he is a jealous God; he will not forgive your transgressions nor your sins. ²⁰ If ye forsake Jehovah, and serve foreign gods, then he will turn and do you hurt, and consume you, after that he hath done you good.'

²¹ And the people said to Joshua, 'Nay, but we will serve Jehovah.' ²² And Joshua said to the people, 'Ye are witnesses against yourselves, that ye have chosen for yourselves Jehovah to serve him.' And they said, 'We are witnesses.' ²³ 'Now therefore put away [said he] the foreign gods which are among you, and incline your heart to Jehovah the God of Israel.' ²⁴ And the people said to Joshua, 'Jehovah our God will we serve, and his voice will we obey.' ²⁵ So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and set them a statute and an ordinance in Shechem. ²⁶ And Joshua wrote these words in the Book of the Law of God, and took a great stone, and set it up there under the oak that was in the Sanctuary of Jehovah. ²⁷ And Joshua said to all the people, 'Behold, this stone shall be a witness unto us; for it hath heard all the words of Jehovah which he spake to us. It shall be therefore a witness unto you, lest ye deny your God.' ²⁸ So Joshua let the people depart, every man to his inheritance. [Here follows Judges ii. 6.]

²⁹ And it came to pass after these things, that Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of Jehovah, died, being a hundred and ten years old [A.M. 2739]. ³⁰ And they buried him within the boundary of his inheritance in Timnath-serah, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, on the north side of the hill of Gaash. ³¹ And Israel served Jehovah all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders that outlived Joshua, and who had known all the works of Jehovah, that he had done for Israel. ³² And the bones of Joseph, which the children of Israel brought up out of Lower Egypt, buried they in Shechem, in a parcel of ground which Jacob bought of the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem for a hundred Kesitahs [or pieces of silver]; and it became the inheritance of the children of Joseph. ³³ And Eleazar the son of Aaron died; and they buried him in the hill of Phinehas his son, which was given to him in the hill country of Ephraim.

THE BOOK OF JUDGES.

NOW AFTER THE DEATH OF JOSHUA it came to pass, that the children of Israel asked Jehovah, saying, 'Who shall go up for us against the Canaanites first, to fight against them?' ² And Jehovah said, 'Judah shall go up. Behold, I have delivered the land into his hand.' ³ And Judah said to Simeon his brother, 'Come up with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Canaanites; and I likewise will go with thee into thy lot.' So Simeon went with him. ⁴ And Judah went up; and Jehovah delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand. And they slew of them in Bezek ten thousand men. ⁵ And they found the lord of Bezek in Bezek; and they fought against him, and they slew the Canaanites and the Perizzites. ⁶ But the lord of Bezek fled; and they pursued after him, and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and his great toes. ⁷ And the lord of Bezek said, 'Seventy

'kings, having their thumbs and their great toes cut off, gathered [crumbs] under my table. As I have done, so God hath required me.' And they brought him to Jerusalem, and there he died.

⁸Now the children of Judah fought against Jerusalem, and took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and set the city on fire. ⁹And afterwards the children of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites, that dwelt in the Hill country, and in the South country, and in the Low country. ¹⁰And Judah went against the Canaanites, that dwelt in Hebron; (now the name of Hebron before was the City of Arba;) and they slew Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai. ¹¹And from thence he went against the inhabitants of Debir; and the name of Debir [or the place of the Oracle] before was the city of Sepher [or Writing]. ¹²And Caleb said, He that smiteth the city of 'Sepher, and taketh it, to him will I give Achsah 'my daughter to wife.' ¹³And Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother, took it. And he gave him Achsah his daughter to wife. ¹⁴And it came to pass, when she came to him, that she persuaded him, asking of her father a field. And she lighted from off her ass; and Caleb said to her, 'What wilt thou?' ¹⁵And she said to him, 'Give me a blessing; for thou hast given me the South 'land; give me also springs of water [or hill-sides].' And Caleb gave her the Upper Springs and the Lower Springs.

¹⁶And the children of the Kenite, Moses' father in law, went up out of the City of Palmtree [or Jericho] with the children of Judah into the desert of Judah, which lieth in the south country of Arad; and they went and dwelt among the people.

¹⁷And Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they slew the Canaanites that inhabited Zephath, and utterly destroyed it. And he called the name of the city Hormah. ¹⁸Also Judah took Gaza with its boundary, and Askalon with its boundary, and Ekron with its boundary. ¹⁹And Jehovah was with Judah; and he drove out the inhabitants of the Hill country; but could not drive out the inhabitants of the Valley, because they had chariots of iron. ²⁰And they gave Hebron to Caleb, as Moses had said; and he drove out thence the three sons of Anak.

²¹And the children of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites that inhabited Jerusalem; but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Benjamin in Jerusalem unto this day.

²²And the house of Joseph, they also went up against Beth-el; and Jehovah was with them. ²³And the house of Joseph sent to spy out Beth-el. (Now the name of the city before was Luz.) ²⁴And those on the watch saw a man come forth out of the city, and they said to him, 'Shew us, we pray 'thee, an entrance into the city, and we will do 'thee kindness.' ²⁵And when he showed them an entrance into the city, they smote the city with the edge of the sword; but they let go the man and all his family. ²⁶And the man went into the land of the Hittites, and built a city, and called the name thereof Luz; which is its name unto this day.

²⁷Neither did Manasse drive out the inhabitants of Beth-shean and its suburbs, nor Taanach and its suburbs, nor the inhabitants of Dor and its suburbs, nor the inhabitants of Ibleam and its suburbs, nor the inhabitants of Megiddo and its suburbs; but the Canaanites would dwell in that land. ²⁸And it came to pass, when Israel was strong, that they put the Canaanites to tribute, and did not utterly drive them out.

²⁹Neither did Ephraim drive out the Canaanites that dwelt in Gezer; but the Canaanites dwelt in Gezer among them.

³⁰Neither did Zebulun drive out the inhabitants of Kitron, nor the inhabitants of Nahalol; but the Canaanites dwelt among them, and were tributaries.

³¹Neither did Asher drive out the inhabitants of Accho, nor the inhabitants of Sidon, nor of Ahlab, nor of Achezib, nor of Helbah, nor of Aphik, nor of Rehob; ³²but the Asherites dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land; for they did not drive them out.

³⁴And the Amorites forced the children of Dan into the hill country; for they would not suffer them to come down to the valley. ³⁵But the Amorites would dwell in mount Heres, in Ajalon, and in Shaalbm; yet the hand of the house of Joseph prevailed, so that they became tributaries. ³⁶(And the boundary of the Amorites was from the hill-road of Akrabbim, from Sela [or Petra], and upward.)

2 And the angel of Jehovah came up from Gilgal to Bochim, and said, 'I made you to go up 'out of Lower Egypt, and have brought you to the 'land of which I swear unto your fathers; and I 'said, I will never break my covenant with you, '2 while ye make no covenant with the inhabitants 'of this land; ye shall throw down their altars. 'But ye have not obeyed my voice. Why have 'ye done this? ³Therefore I also said, I will not 'drive them out from before you; but they shall 'be in your sides; and their gods shall be a snare 'unto you.' ⁴And it came to pass, when the angel of Jehovah spake these words to all the children of Israel, that the people lifted up their voice, and wept. ⁵And they called the name of that place Bochim [or Weepers]. And they sacrificed there unto Jehovah.

6 NOW WHEN JOSHUA HAD LET THE PEOPLE DEPART, the children of Israel went every man to his inheritance to possess the land. ⁷And the people served Jehovah all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders that outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great works of Jehovah, that he had done for Israel. ⁸ And Joshua, the son of Nun, the servant of Jehovah, died, being a hundred and ten years old [A.M. 2739]. ⁹ And they buried him within the boundary of his inheritance in Timnath-heres, in the hill country of Ephraim, on the north side of the hill of Gaash.

¹⁰ And also all that generation were gathered to their fathers; and there arose another generation after them, which knew not Jehovah, nor yet the works which he had done for Israel. ¹¹ And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of Jehovah, and served Baal. ¹² And they forsook Jehovah the God of their fathers, who brought them out of the land of Lower Egypt, and they followed other gods, of the gods of the peoples that were round about them, and bowed themselves unto them, and provoked Jehovah to anger. ¹³ And they forsook Jehovah, and served Baal and Ashtaroth. ¹⁴ And the anger of Jehovah was hot against Israel, and he delivered them into the hands of spoilers that spoiled them, and he sold them into the hands of their enemies round about, so that they could not any longer stand before their enemies. ¹⁵ Whithersoever they went out, the hand of Jehovah was against them for evil, as Jehovah had said, and as Jehovah had sworn to them. And they were greatly distressed.

¹⁶ And Jehovah raised up Judges, who delivered them out of the hand of those that spoiled them. ¹⁷ And yet they hearkened not to their judges, but they went astray after other gods, and bowed themselves unto them. They turned quickly out of the way which their fathers walked in, obeying the commandments of Jehovah. But they did not so. ¹⁸ And when Jehovah raised up for them Judges, then Jehovah was with the judge, and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge; for it repented Jehovah because of their groanings by reason of them that oppressed them and vexed them. ¹⁹ And it came to pass, when the judge was dead, that they returned, and corrupted themselves more than their fathers, in following other gods to serve them, and to bow down unto them; they ceased not from their own doings, nor from their stubborn way. ²⁰ And the anger of Jehovah was hot against Israel; and he said, 'Because that this nation hath transgressed my covenant which I commanded their fathers, and have not hearkened to my voice; ²¹ I also will not henceforth drive out any from before ²² them of the nations which Joshua left when he died; ²³ in order through them to prove Israel, whether they will keep the way of Jehovah to walk therein, as their fathers did keep it, or not.' ²⁴ Therefore Jehovah left those nations, without driving them out hastily; neither did he deliver them into the hand of Joshua.

3 Now these are THE NATIONS which Jehovah left to prove by them as many of Israel as had not known any of the wars of Canaan; ² only that the generations of the children of Israel might know, to teach them war, at the least such as before knew nothing thereof; [namely] ³ five chiefs of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hivites that dwelt on mount Lebanon, from mount Baal-hermon unto the Pass of Hamath. ⁴ And they were to prove Israel by them, to know whether they would hearken to the commandments of Jehovah, which he commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses. ⁵ And the children of Israel dwelt among the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites. ⁶ And they took their daughters to be their wives, and gave their daughters to their sons, and served their gods.

⁷ And the CHILDREN OF ISRAEL DID EVIL in the sight of Jehovah, and forgot Jehovah their God, and served Baal and Ashera. ⁸ Therefore the anger of Jehovah was hot against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of the most wicked Cushan, king of Syria of the Rivers. And the children of Israel served the most wicked Cushan for eight years. ⁹ And when the children of Israel cried to Jehovah, Jehovah raised up a deliverer to the children of Israel, who delivered them, even Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother. ¹⁰ And the spirit of Jehovah came upon him, and he judged Israel, and went out to war. And Jehovah delivered the most wicked Cushan, king of Syria, into his hand; and his hand prevailed against the most wicked Cushan. ¹¹ And the land had rest for forty years. And Othniel the son of Kenaz died.

¹² And the CHILDREN OF ISRAEL DID EVIL again in the sight of Jehovah. And Jehovah strengthened Eglon the king of Moab against Israel, because they had done evil in the sight of Jehovah. ¹³ And he gathered to him the Children of Ammon and Amalek, and went and smote Israel, and possessed the city of Palm-trees [for Jericho]. ¹⁴ So the children of Israel served Eglon the king of Moab eighteen years. ¹⁵ But when the children of Israel cried to Jehovah, Jehovah raised them up a deliverer, Ehud the son of Gera, a Benjamite, a man crippled in the right hand. And by his hand the children of Israel sent a present to Eglon the king of Moab. ¹⁶ And Ehud made him a dagger which had two edges, of a span's length; and he did gird it under his outer garment upon his right thigh. ¹⁷ And he brought the present to Eglon king of Moab. And Eglon was a very fat man. ¹⁸ And it came to pass that when he had made an end to give the present, he sent away the people that bare the present. ¹⁹ But he himself turned again from the quarries that were by Gilgal, and said, 'I have a secret errand unto thee, O king.' And he said, 'Let there be silence.' And all that stood by him went out from him. ²⁰ And Ehud came to him; and he was sitting in a cool upper chamber, which he had for himself alone. And Ehud said, 'I have a message from God unto thee.' And he arose out of his seat. ²¹ And Ehud put forth his left hand, and took the dagger from his right thigh, and thrust it into his belly. ²² And the haft also went in after the blade; and the fat closed upon the blade, for he did not draw the dagger out of his belly; and it came out behind. ²³ Then Ehud went forth into the porch, and shut the doors of the upper chamber upon him, and locked them. ²⁴ When he was gone out, his servants came; and when they saw that, behold, the doors of the upper chamber were locked, they said, 'Surely he covereth his feet in his cool chamber.' ²⁵ And they tarried till they were ashamed; and behold, he opened not the doors of the upper chamber. Therefore they took the key, and opened them; and behold, their lord was fallen down dead on the ground. ²⁶ And Ehud escaped while they tarried, and passed beyond the quarries, and escaped to Seirath [or the Goat walks]. ²⁷ And it came to pass, when he was come, that he blew a trumpet in the hill country of Ephraim, and the children of Israel went down with him from the hill country, and he before them. ²⁸ And he said to them, 'Follow after me; for Jehovah hath delivered your enemies the Moabites into your hand.' And they went down after him, and took the fords of the Jordan toward Moab, and suffered not a man to pass over. ²⁹ And they slew of Moab at that time about ten thousand men, all lusty, and all men of valour; and there escaped not a man. ³⁰ So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. And the land had rest for eighty years.

³¹ And after him was Shamgar the son of Anath, who slew of the Philistines six hundred men with an ox goad. And he also delivered Israel.

4 And the CHILDREN OF ISRAEL DID EVIL again in the sight of Jehovah when Ehud was dead. ² And Jehovah sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor; the captain of whose host was Sisera, who dwelt in Harosheth of the Gentiles [or Galilee]. ³ And the children of Israel cried to Jehovah. For he had nine hundred chariots of iron; and twenty years he mightily oppressed the children of Israel.

⁴ And Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lappidoth, she judged Israel at that time. ⁵ And she dwelt under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Beth-el in the hill country of Ephraim; and the children of Israel came up to her for judgment. ⁶ And she sent and called Barak the son of Abinoam out of Kedesh in Naphtali; and she said to him, 'Hath not Jehovah the God of Israel commanded, [saying], Go and draw toward mount Tabor, and take with thee ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali and of the children of Zebulun? ⁷ And I will draw unto thee to the brook Kishon, Sisera, the captain of Jabin's army, with his chariots and his rabble; and I will deliver him into thy hand.' ⁸ And Barak said to her, 'If thou wilt go with me, then I will go. But if thou wilt not go with me, then I will not go.' ⁹ And she said, 'I will surely go with thee. Not withstanding, there will be no honour for thee on the journey that thou takest; for Jehovah will sell Sisera into the hand of a woman.' And Deborah arose, and went with Barak to Kedesh.

¹⁰ And Barak called together Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh; and he went up with ten thousand men at his feet. And Deborah went up with him. ¹¹ Now Heber the Kenite had severed himself from the Kenites, the children of Hobab the brother in law of Moses, and had pitched his tent at the oak of Zaannim, which is by Kedesh. ¹² And they told Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam was gone up to mount Tabor. ¹³ And Sisera called together all his chariots, even nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people that were with him, from Harosheth of the Gentiles unto the brook Kishon. ¹⁴ And Deborah said to Barak, 'Up; for this is the day in which Jehovah hath delivered Sisera into thy hand. Is not Jehovah gone out before thee?' So Barak went down from mount Tabor, and ten thousand men after him. ¹⁵ And Jehovah discomfited Sisera, and all his chariots, and all his host, with the edge of the sword before Barak; so that Sisera lighted down off his chariot, and fled away on his feet. ¹⁶ But Barak pursued after the chariots, and after the host, unto Harosheth of the Gentiles. And all the host of Sisera fell by the edge of the sword; and there was not one man left.

¹⁷ Howbeit Sisera fled away on his feet to the tent of Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite; for there was peace between Jabin the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite. ¹⁸ And Jael went out to meet Sisera, and she said to him, 'Turn in, my lord, turn in to me; fear not.' And when he had turned in unto her into the tent, she covered him with a blanket. ¹⁹ And he said to her, 'Give me, I pray thee, a little water to drink; for I am thirsty.' And she opened a bottle of milk, and gave him drink, and covered him. ²⁰ And he said to her, 'Stand in the doorway of the tent, and it shall be, when any man doth come and inquire of thee, and say, Is there any man here? that thou shalt say, No.' ²¹ Then Jael Heber's wife took a tent-pin, and took a hammer in her hand, and went to him softly, and smote the pin into his temples, and drove it down into the ground; for he was fast asleep and weary. So he died. ²² And behold, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael went out to meet him, and said to him, 'Come, and I will shew thee the man whom thou seekest.' And when he came in unto her, behold, Sisera lay dead, and the tent-pin was in his temples. ²³ So God subdued on that day Jabin the king of Canaan before the children of Israel. ²⁴ And the hand of the children of Israel prospered, and was heavy upon Jabin the king of Canaan, until they had destroyed Jabin king of Canaan.

5 Then sang Deborah and Barak the son of Abinoam on that day, saying,

² 'For the leaders undertaking to lead in Israel, For the self-devotion of the people, bless ye O Jehovah.

³ Hear, O ye kings ; give ear, O ye princes ;
 I, even I, will sing unto Jehovah ;
 I will sing praise to Jehovah the God of Israel.

⁴ O Jehovah, when thou wentest out from Seir,
 When thou marchest out of the field of Edom,
 The earth trembled, and the heavens dropped,
 The thick clouds also dropped water.

⁵ The mountains were shaken at the presence of Jehovah,
 Even Sinai at the presence of Jehovah the God of Israel.

⁶ In the days of Shamgar the son of Anath,
 In the days of Jael, the highways were unoccupied,
 And travellers on foot journeyed through by-paths.
⁷ Rulers of villages had ceased in Israel, they had ceased,

Until I Deborah arose, I arose a mother in Israel.

⁸ They had chosen new gods ;
 Then there was war at the city gates.

Was there a shield seen, or a spear,

Among forty thousands in Israel ?

⁹ My heart is toward the lawgivers of Israel,

That devoted themselves for the people.

Bless ye Jehovah.

¹⁰ Ye that ride on white asses, ye that sit on carpets,

And ye that walk by the way, speak ye.

¹¹ Above the noise of men dividing [booty] at the wells,

There shall they set forth the righteousness of Jehovah,

Even the righteousness of his village rulers in Israel.

Then Jehovah's people came down to the city gates,

[saying,] ¹² Awake, awake, Deborah, awake ;

Awake, utter a song. Arise, Barak,

And lead thy captivity captive, thou son of Abinoam.

¹³ Then came down a remnant of the mighty ones
 [of Judah],

Jehovah's people came down for me against the warriors.

¹⁴ Branches out of Ephraim went against Amalek, Thy followers, O Benjamin, against the peoples next thee.

Out of Machir [or Manasseh] came down lawgivers,
 And out of Zebulun they that hold the staff of a scribe.

¹⁵ And the princes of Issachar were with Deborah ;
 As Issachar, so Barak ; he rushed on foot into the Valley.

At the brooks of Reuben were great thoughts of heart.

¹⁶ Why remainedst thou among the sheepfolds,
 To listen to the pipings for the flocks ?

At the brooks of Reuben were great searchings of heart.

¹⁷ Gilead [or Gad] abode beyond the Jordan ;
 And why did Dan remain a stranger among ships ?

Asher continued on the sea shore, and abode in his havens.

¹⁸ Zebulun was a people that risked its life unto death,

And Naphtali in the high places of the field.

¹⁹ The kings came and fought,

Then fought the kings of Canaan

At Taanach by the waters of Megiddo ;

Booty of silver they took not away.

²⁰ The stars fought from heaven ;

In their courses they fought against Sisera.

²¹ The river Kishon swept them away,

That ancient river, the river Kishon.

(O my soul, go on thy way with strength.)

²² Then did the horsehoofs strike in the wheelings,

The wheelings of their mighty ones.

²³ Curse ye Meroz, said the angel of Jehovah,

Curse ye bitterly the inhabitants thereof ;

Because they came not to the help of Jehovah,

To the help of Jehovah against the warriors.

²⁴ Blessed above women be Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite.

Blessed shall she be above women in a tent.

²⁵ He asked for water, and she gave him milk ;

She brought forth curds in a lordly bowl.

²⁶ She put her hand to the tent-pin,

And her right hand to the workman's hammer ;

And she hammered, smiting Sisera on his head,

And she pierced and struck through his temples.

²⁷ Between her feet he bowed, he fell, he lay down ;

Between her feet he bowed, he fell ;

Where he bowed there he fell, struck dead.

²⁸ Sisera's mother looked out at a window,

And she complained through the lattice, [saying,]

Why tarrieth his chariot in coming ?

Why loiter the wheels of his chariots ?—

²⁹ The wise among her ladies answered her,

Yea, she returned answer to herself, [saying,]

³⁰ Do they not prevail ? They are dividing the spoil ;

To every man a damsel, two damsels ;

To Sisera a spoil of coloured cloth,

A spoil of coloured cloth of needlework,

Of coloured cloth of needlework on both sides,

For the necks of them that take the spoil.

³¹ So let all thine enemies perish, O Jehovah :

But let them that love him be as the going forth of the sun in its might.

And the land had rest for forty years.

6 And the CHILDREN OF ISRAEL DID EVIL in the sight of Jehovah ; and Jehovah delivered them into the hand of Midian for seven years. ² And the hand of Midian prevailed against Israel. Because of the Midianites the children of Israel made for themselves the caverns which are in the mountains, and the caves, and the strongholds. ³ And so it was, when Israel had sown their seed, that the Midianites came up, and the Amalekites, and the children of the East, even they came up against them ; ⁴ and they encamped against them, and destroyed the increase of the earth, till thou come unto Gaza, and left no sustenance for Israel, neither sheep, nor ox, nor ass. ⁵ For they came up with their cattle and their tents, and they came as locusts for multitude ; for both they and their camels were without number. And they entered into the land to destroy it. ⁶ And Israel was greatly impoverished because of the Midianites; and the children of Israel cried unto Jehovah.

⁷ And it came to pass, when the children of Israel cried to Jehovah because of the Midianites, ⁸ that Jehovah sent a prophet to the children of Israel, who said to them, 'Thus saith Jehovah the God of Israel. I brought you up from Lower Egypt, and brought you forth out of the house of bondage; ⁹ and I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all that oppressed you, and drove them out from before you, and gave you their land; ¹⁰ and I said to you, I am Jehovah your God; fear not the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell. But ye have not obeyed my voice.' ¹¹ And the angel of Jehovah came and sat under an oak which was in Ophrah, that pertained unto Joash the Abi-ezrite. And his son Gideon was threshing wheat in the winepress, to hide it from the Midianites. ¹² And the angel of Jehovah appeared to him, and said to him, 'Jehovah is with thee, thou warrior of valour.' ¹³ And Gideon said to him, 'Oh my lord, if Jehovah be with us, why then is all this befallen us? ¹⁴ And where are all his wondrous works which our fathers told us of, saying, Did not Jehovah bring us up from Lower Egypt? But now Jehovah hath forsaken us, and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites.' ¹⁵ And Jehovah looked upon him, and said, 'Go in this thy might, and thou shalt save Israel from the hands of the Midianites. Have not I sent thee?' ¹⁶ And he said to him, 'Oh my Lord, wherewith shall I save Israel? Behold, my family is the poorest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father's house.' ¹⁷ And Jehovah said to him, 'Surely I will be with thee, and thou shalt smite the Midianites as one man.' ¹⁸ And he said to him, 'If now I have found grace in thy sight, then shew me a sign that thou talkest with me.' ¹⁹ Depart not hence, I pray thee, until I come to thee, and bring forth my meal offering, and set it before thee.' And he said, 'I will tarry until thou come again.'

²⁰ And Gideon went in, and made ready a kid of the goats, and unleavened cakes of an Ephah [or bushel] of meal. The flesh he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot, and brought it out to him under the oak, and presented it. ²¹ And the angel of God said to him, 'Take the flesh and the unleavened cakes, and lay them upon this rock, and pour out the broth.' And he did so. ²² Then the angel of Jehovah put forth the end of the staff that was in his hand, and touched the flesh and the unleavened cakes; and there rose up fire out of the rock, and consumed the flesh and the unleavened cakes. Then the angel of Jehovah departed out of his sight. ²³ And when Gideon perceived that he was the angel of Jehovah, Gideon said, 'Alas, O Lord Jehovah! for whereas I have seen the angel of Jehovah face to face.' ²⁴ And Jehovah said to him, 'Peace be unto thee; fear not; thou shalt not die.' ²⁵ Then Gideon built an altar there unto Jehovah, and called it Jehovah-shalom [or peace]; unto this day it is yet in Ophrah of the Abi-ezrites.

²⁶ And it came to pass on the same night, that Jehovah said to him, 'Take thy father's young bullock, even the second bullock of seven years old, and throw down the altar of Baal that thy father hath, and cut down the grove of Ashera that is by it.' ²⁷ And build an altar unto Jehovah thy God upon the top of this rock, in the ordered manner, and take the second bullock, and offer up a burnt offering with the wood of the grove of Ashera which thou shalt cut down.' ²⁸ Then Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as Jehovah had said to him; and so it was, because he feared his father's household, and the men of the city, that he could not do it by day, that he did it by night.

²⁹ And when the men of the city rose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was cast down, and the grove of Ashera was cut down that was by it, and the second bullock was offered up on the altar that was built. ³⁰ And they said one to another, 'Who hath done this thing?' And when they inquired and asked, they said, 'Gideon the son of Joash, hath done this thing.' ³¹ Then the men of the city said to Joash, 'Bring out thy son, that he may die; because he hath cast down the altar of Baal, and because he hath cut down the grove of Ashera that was by it.' ³² And Joash said to all that stood against him, 'Will ye plead for Baal? Will ye save him? He that will plead for him, let him be put to death whilst it is yet morning. If he be a god, let him plead for himself, because one hath cast down his altar.' ³³ Therefore on that day he called him Jerubbabai [or Let Baal plead], saying, 'Let Baal plead against him, because he hath thrown down his altar.'

³⁴ Then all the Midianites and the Amalekites, and the Children of the East gathered themselves together, and crossed over [the Jordan], and encamped in the valley of Jezreel. ³⁵ But the spirit of Jehovah came upon Gideon, and he blew a trumpet; and he called together the Abi-ezrites after him. ³⁶ And he sent messengers throughout all Manasseh; who also were called together after him. And he sent messengers to Asher and to Zebulun, and to Naphtali; and they came up to meet them. ³⁷ And Gideon said to God, 'If thou wilt save Israel by my hand, as thou hast said, behold I will put a fleece of wool on the threshing-floor; and if the dew be on the fleece only, and it be dry upon all the earth, then shall I know that thou wilt save Israel by my hand, as thou hast said.' ³⁸ And it was so. For he rose up early on the morrow, and squeezed the fleece, and wringed the dew out of the fleece, a bowl full of water. ³⁹ And Gideon said to God, 'Let not thine anger be hot against me, and I will speak but this once. Let me prove, I pray thee, but this once with the fleece. Let it now be dry upon the 'fleece only, and upon all the ground let there be 'dew.' ⁴⁰ And God did so that night. For it was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

⁷ Then Jerubbaal, who is Gideon, and all the people that were with him, rose up early, and encamped beside the Well of Harod; so that the camp of the Midianites was on the north side of them, by the hill of Moreh, in the valley. ² And Jehovah said to Gideon, 'The people that are with 'thee are too many for me to give the Midianites 'into their hands, lest Israel vaunt themselves 'against me, saying, Mine own hand hath saved 'me. ³ Now therefore go to, proclaim in the 'ears of the people, saying, Whosoever is fearful 'and afraid, let him return and wander around the 'hill country of Gilead.' And there returned of the people twenty and two thousand; and there remained ten thousand. ⁴ And Jehovah said to Gideon, 'The people are yet too many. Bring 'them down unto the water, and I will try them 'for thee there. And it shall be, that of whom I 'say to thee, This shall go with thee, the same 'shall go with thee; and of whomsoever I say to 'thee, This shall not go with thee, the same shall 'not go.' ⁵ So he brought down the people to the water. And Jehovah said to Gideon, 'Every one 'that lappeth out of the water with his tongue, as 'a dog lappeth, him shalt thou set by himself; 'likewise every one that kneeleth down upon his 'knees to drink.' ⁶ And the number of them that 'lapped with their hand to their mouth, were three hundred men; but all the rest of the people knelt down upon their knees to drink water. ⁷ And Jehovah said to Gideon, 'By the three hundred men 'that lapped will I save you, and will deliver the 'Midianites into thy hand. And all the other 'people may go every man to his own place.' ⁸ So the people took victuals in their hand, and their trumpets. And he sent all the rest of Israel every man to his tent, and retained those three hundred men. And the camp of Midian was beneath him in the valley.

⁹ And it came to pass the same night, that Jehovah said to him, 'Arise, get thee down against 'the camp; for I have delivered it into thy hand. ¹⁰ But if thou fear to go down, go thou down with 'Phurah thy servant to the camp. ¹¹ And thou 'shalt hear what they say; and afterward shall 'thy hands be strengthened to go down to the 'camp.' Then went he down with Phurah his servant to the outside of the armed men that were in the camp. ¹² And the Midianites and the Amalekites and all the Children of the East lay along in the valley like locusts for multitude; and their camels were without number, as the sand that is by the sea side for multitude. ¹³ And when Gideon was come, behold, there was a man that told a dream unto his fellow, and said, 'Behold, I 'dreamed a dream; and lo, a cake of barley bread 'was turned over into the camp of Midian, and it 'came to a tent, and smote it that it fell, and over-

'turned it, so that the tent fell.' ¹⁴ And his fellow answered and said, 'This is nothing else save the 'sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel; 'into his hand hath God delivered Midian and all 'the camp.' ¹⁵ And it was so, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream, and the interpretation thereof, that he worshipped, and returned into the camp of Israel, and said, 'Arise; for Jehovah 'hath delivered into your hand the camp of Midian.'

¹⁶ And he divided the three hundred men into three companies; and he put trumpets in the hand of all of them, with empty pitchers, and torches within the pitchers. ¹⁷ And he said to them, 'Look 'on me, and do likewise. And behold, when I come 'to the outside of the camp, it shall be that, as I 'do, so shall ye do. ¹⁸ When I blow with a trumpet, 'I and all that are with me, then blow ye also 'with the trumpets on every side of all the camp, 'and say, For Jehovah, and for Gideon.'

¹⁹ Then Gideon, and the hundred men that were with him, came to the outside of the camp in the beginning of the middle watch, when they had but newly set the watchmen. And they blew the trumpets, and brake the pitchers that were in their hands. ²⁰ And the three companies blew the trumpets, and brake the pitchers, and held the torches in their left hands, and the trumpets in their right hands to blow with. And they cried, 'The sword is for Jehovah, and for Gideon.' ²¹ And they stood every man in his place round about the camp. And all the host ran, and cried out, and fled. ²² And the three hundred blew the trumpets, and Jehovah set every man's sword against his fellow, even throughout all the host. And the host fled to Beth-shittah in Zererath [or Zeredath], and to the border of Abelmeholah, unto Tabbath. ²³ And the men of Israel were called together out of Naphtali, and out of Asher, and out of all Manassah, and pursued after the Midianites.

²⁴ And Gideon sent messengers throughout all the hill country of Ephraim, saying, 'Come down 'against the Midianites, and take possession before 'them of the waters unto Beth-barah [or Beth-'abarah] and the Jordan.' Then all the men of Ephraim were called together, and took possession of the waters unto Beth-barah and the Jordan. ²⁵ And they took two princes of the Midianites, Oreb and Zeeb; and they slew Oreb upon the rock Oreb; and Zeeb they slew at the winepress of Zeeb. And they pursued the Midianites, and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon from the other side of the Jordan.

⁸ And the men of Ephraim said to him, 'Why 'hast thou done this thing to us, that thou calledst 'us not when thou wentest to fight against the 'Midianites?' And they did chide with him sharply. ² And he said to them, 'What have I 'done now in comparison with you? Is not 'Ephraim's grape-gleaning better than Abi-ezer's 'vintage? ³ God hath delivered into your hands 'the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb; and what 'was I able to do in comparison with you?' Then their anger was abated toward him, when he had said that word.

⁴ And Gideon came to the Jordan, and crossed over, he, and the three hundred men that were with him, faint, yet pursuing. ⁵ And he said to the men of Succoth, 'Give, I pray you, some circular loaves of bread to the people that follow me; for they are faint, and I am pursuing after Zebah and Zalmunna the kings of Midian.' ⁶ And the princes of Succoth said, 'Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thy hand, that we should give bread to thine army?' ⁷ And Gideon said, 'Therefore when Jehovah hath delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, then I will tear your flesh with the thorns of the desert, and with briers.'

⁸ And he went up thence to Penuel, and he spake to them in like wise. And the men of Penuel answered him as the men of Succoth had answered. ⁹ And he spake also to the men of Penuel, saying, 'When I come again in peace, I will break down this tower.'

¹³ And Gideon the son of Joash returned from battle before the sun was up, ¹⁴ and caught a young man of the men of Succoth, and inquired of him. And he described to him the princes of Succoth, and the elders thereof, even seventy and seven men. ¹⁵ And he came to the men of Succoth, and said, 'Behold Zebah and Zalmunna, with whom ye did upbraid me, saying, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thy hand, that we should give bread to thy men that are weary?' ¹⁶ And he took the elders of the city, and the thorns of the desert and briers, and with them he taught the men of Succoth. ¹⁷ And he beat down the tower of Penuel, and slew the men of the city.

¹⁸ Then said he to Zebah and Zalmunna, 'What manner of men were they whom ye slew at Tabor?' And they said, 'As thou art, so were they; each one resembled the children of a king.' ¹⁹ And he said, 'They were my brethren, the sons of my mother. As Jehovah liveth, if ye had saved them alive, I would not slay you.' ²⁰ And he said to Jether his firstborn, 'Rise up, and slay them.' But the youth drew not his sword; for he feared, because he was yet a youth. ²¹ Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, 'Rise up thyself, and fall upon us; for as the man is, so is his strength.' And Gideon rose up, and slew Zebah and Zalmunna, and took away the moon-shaped ornaments that were on their camels' necks.

²² Then the men of Israel said to Gideon, 'Rule thou over us, both thou, and thy son, and thy son's son also; for thou hast delivered us from the hand of Midian.' ²³ And Gideon said to them, 'I will not rule over you; neither shall my son rule over you; Jehovah shall rule over you.' ²⁴ And Gideon said to them, 'I would ask a request of you, that ye would give me every man the earrings out of his booty.' (For they [the enemy] had golden earrings, because they were Ishmaelites.) ²⁵ And they answered, 'We will willingly give them.' And they spread a garment, and did cast therein every man the earrings of his booty. ²⁶ And the weight of the golden earrings that he requested was a thousand and seven hundred [Shekels] of gold; beside the moon-shaped ornaments, and earrings, and purple raiment that was on the kings of Midian, and beside the chains that were about their camels' necks. ²⁷ And Gideon made thereof an Ephod [or image], and put it in his city, even in Ophrah; and all Israel went thither astray after it. And it became a snare unto Gideon and to his house. ²⁸ Thus was Midian subdued before the children of Israel, so that they lifted up their heads no more. And the land had rest for forty years in the days of Gideon.

²⁹ And Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and dwelt in his own house. ³⁰ And Gideon had seventy sons of his body begotten; for he had many wives. ³¹ And his concubine that was in Shechem, she also bare him a son, whose name he called Abimelech. ³² And Gideon the son of Joash died in a good old age, and was buried in the burial-place of Joash his father, in Ophrah of the Abi-ezrites.

³³ And it came to pass, as soon as Gideon was dead, that the children of Israel turned again, and went astray after Baal, and made Baal-berith their god. ³⁴ And the children of Israel remembered not Jehovah their God, who had delivered them out of the hands of all their enemies on every side; ³⁵ neither shewed they kindness to the house of Jerubbaal, namely, Gideon, according to all the goodness which he had shewed to Israel.

⁹ And Abimelech the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem to his mother's brethren, and spake with them, and with all the family of the house of his mother's father, saying, ² 'Speak, I pray you, in the ears of all the men of Shechem, which is better for you? Shall all the sons of Jerubbaal, who are seventy men, reign over you, or shall one man reign over you? Remember also that I am your bone and your flesh.' ³ And his mother's brethren spake of him in the ears of all the men of Shechem all these words. And their hearts inclined to follow Abimelech; for they said, 'He is our brother.' ⁴ And they gave him seventy pieces of silver out of the house of Baal-berith, wherewith Abimelech hired vain and light persons, who followed him; ⁵ and he went to his father's house at Ophrah, and slew his brethren the sons of Jerubbaal, being seventy men, upon one stone. But Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left; for he hid himself. ⁶ And all the men of Shechem gathered themselves together, and all of Beth-Millo [the Tower], and went, and made Abimelech king, by the oak of the pillar that was in Shechem.

⁷ And when they told it to Jotham, he went and stood on the top of mount Gerizim, and lifted up his voice and cried, and said to them, 'Hearken to me, ye men of Shechem, that God may hearken to you. ⁸ The trees went forth on a time to anoint a king over them; and they said to the olive tree, 'Reign thou over us. ⁹ But the olive tree said to them, Should I leave my fatness, wherewith by me they honour God and man, and go to bear sway over the trees? ¹⁰ And the trees said to the fig tree, Come thou, and reign over us. ¹¹ But the fig tree said to them, Should I leave my sweetness, and my good fruit, and go to bear sway over the trees? ¹² Then said the trees to the vine, Come thou, and reign over us. ¹³ And the vine said to them, Should I leave my grape juice, which cheereth gods and men, and go to bear sway over the trees? ¹⁴ Then said all the trees to the bramble, Come thou, and reign over us. ¹⁵ And the bramble said to the trees, If in truth ye anoint me king over you, then come and put your trust in my shadow. And if not, fire shall come out of the bramble, and devour the cedars of Lebanon.

¹⁶ Now therefore, if ye have done truly and sincerely, in that ye have made Abimelech king, and if ye have dealt well with Jerubbaal and with his house, and if ye have done to him according to the deserving of his hands; ¹⁷ (for my father fought for you, and cast his life in front, and delivered you out of the hand of Midian; ¹⁸ and ye are risen up against my father's house this day, and have slain his sons, seventy men, upon one stone, and have made Abimelech, the son of his maid-servant, king over the men of Shechem, because he is your brother;) ¹⁹ if ye then have dealt truly and sincerely with Jerubbaal and with his house this day, then rejoice ye in Abimelech, and let him also rejoice in you. ²⁰ But if not, let fire come out from Abimelech, and devour the men of Shechem, and Beth-Millo; or let fire come out from the men of Shechem, and from Beth-Millo, and devour Abimelech.' ²¹ Then Jotham ran away, and fled and went to Beer, and dwelt there, out of sight of Abimelech his brother.

²² When Abimelech had ruled three years over Israel, ²³ then God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the men of Shechem; and the men of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech; ²⁴ that the cruelty done to the seventy sons of Jerubbaal might come, and their blood be laid upon Abimelech their brother, who slew them; and upon the men of Shechem, who strengthened his hands to slay his brethren. ²⁵ And the men of Shechem set liers in wait for him on the tops of the mountains, and they robbed all that came along that way by them. And it was told to Abimelech. ²⁶ And Gaal the son of Ebed came with his brethren, and went over to Shechem; and the men of Shechem trusted in him. ²⁷ And they went out into the fields and gathered their vineyards, and trod the grapes, and made rejoicings, and went into the house of their god, and did eat and drink, and cursed Abimelech. ²⁸ And Gaal the son of Ebed said, 'Who is Abimelech, and who was Shechem, that we should serve him? Is not he the son of Jerubbaal? And Zebul is his officer. Serve ye the men of Hamor the father of Shechem; for why should we serve him? ²⁹ And oh that some one would put this people under my hand! then would I remove Abimelech.' And he said to Abimelech, 'Increase thine army, and come out.'

³⁰ And when Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, his anger was kindled. ³¹ And he sent messengers to Abimelech craftily, saying, 'Behold, Gaal the son of Ebed and his brethren are come to Shechem; and behold, they fortify the city against thee. ³² Now therefore rise up by night, thou and the people that is with thee, and lie in wait in the field. ³³ And it shall be, that in the morning, as soon as the sun is up, thou shalt rise early, and rush forward upon the city. And behold, when he and the people that is with him come out against thee, then mayest thou do to them as thy hand is able.'

³⁴ And Abimelech rose up, and all the people that were with him, by night, and they laid wait against Shechem in four companies. ³⁵ And Gaal the son of Ebed went out, and stood at the entrance of the gate of the city. And Abimelech rose up and the people that were with him, from the lying in wait. ³⁶ And when Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, 'Behold, there come people down from the tops of the mountains.' And Zebul said to him, 'Thou seest the shadow of the mountains as if they were men.' ³⁷ And Gaal spake again and said, 'See, there come people down from near the very middle of the land, and another company come along by the Oak of the Cloud-observers.' ³⁸ Then said Zebul to him, 'Where is now thy mouth, wherewith thou saidst, Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him? Is not this the people that thou hast despised? Go out, I pray now, and fight with them.' ³⁹ And Gaal went out before the men of Shechem, and fought against Abimelech. ⁴⁰ And Abimelech chased him; and he fled before him, and many were overthrown and wounded, even unto the entrance of the city gate. ⁴¹ And Abimelech remained at Arumah. And Zebul thrust out Gaal and his brethren, that they should not dwell in Shechem.

⁴² And it came to pass on the morrow, that the people went out into the field; and they told Abimelech. ⁴³ And he took the people, and divided them into three companies, and laid wait in the field. ⁴⁴ And he looked, and behold the people were come forth out of the city. And he rose up against them, and smote them. ⁴⁴ And Abimelech, and the company that was with him, rushed forward, and stood at the entrance of the gate of the city; and the two other companies rushed forward upon all that were in the fields, and smote them. ⁴⁵ And Abimelech fought against the city all that day; and he took the city, and slew the people that was therein, and destroyed the city, and sowed it with salt.

⁴⁶ And when all the men of the Tower of Shechem heard, they entered into a watch-tower of the house of El-Berith. ⁴⁷ And it was told Abimelech, that all the men of the Tower of Shechem were gathered together. ⁴⁸ And Abimelech got him up to mount Zalmon, he and all the people that were with him. And Abimelech took an axe in his hand, and cut down a bough from the trees, and took it, and laid it on his shoulder, and said to the people that were with him, 'What ye have seen me do, 'make haste, and do as I have done.' ⁴⁹ And all the people likewise cut down every man his bough, and followed Abimelech, and put them to the watch-tower, and set the watch-tower on fire upon them; so that all the men of the Tower of Shechem also died, about a thousand men and women.

⁵⁰ Then went Abimelech to Thebez, and encamped against Thebez, and took it. ⁵¹ But there was a strong tower in the middle of the city, and thither fled all the men and women, and all the chiefs of the city, and shut it to them, and got them up to the roof of the tower. ⁵² And Abimelech came to the tower, and fought against it, and went near to the doorway of the tower, to burn it with fire. ⁵³ And a certain woman cast an upper millstone upon Abimelech's head, and she brake his scull. ⁵⁴ Then he called hastily to the young man his armour-bearer, and said to him, 'Draw thy sword, and slay me, that men say not of me, A woman slew him.' And his young man thrust him through, and he died. ⁵⁵ And when the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they departed every man to his own place. ⁵⁶ Thus God rendered back the wickedness of Abimelech, which he did to his father, in slaying his seventy brethren; ⁵⁷ and all the evil of the men of Shechem did God render back upon their heads; and upon them came the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal.

10 And after Abimelech there arose to deliver Israel Tola the son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar; and he dwelt in Shamir in the hill country of Ephraim. ² And he judged Israel for twenty and three years; and he died, and was buried in Shamir.

³ And after him arose Jair, the Gileadite, and he judged Israel for twenty and two years. ⁴ And he had thirty sons that rode on thirty ass-colts. And they had thirty cities, which are called the Hamlets of Jair unto this day, which are in the land of Gilead. ⁵ And Jair died, and was buried in Camon.

⁶ And the CHILDREN OF ISRAEL DID EVIL AGAIN

in the sight of Jehovah, and served Baal, and Ashtaroth, and the gods of Syria, and the gods of Sidon, and the gods of Moab, and the gods of the Children of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines, and forsook Jehovah, and served not him. ⁷ And the anger of Jehovah was hot against Israel, and he sold them into the hands of the Philistines, and into the hands of the Children of Ammon. ⁸ And that year they vexed and crushed the children of Israel for eighteen years, all the children of Israel that were beyond the Jordan in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead. ⁹ Moreover the Children of Ammon passed over the Jordan to fight also against Judah, and against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim; so that Israel was sore distressed. ¹⁰ And the children of Israel cried unto Jehovah, saying, 'We have sinned against thee, both because we have forsaken our God, and also have served Baal.' ¹¹ And Jehovah said to the children of Israel, 'Did not [I deliver you] from the Egyptians, and from the Amorites, from the Children of Ammon, and from the Philistines? ¹² The Sidonians also, and the Amalekites, and the Maonites, did oppress you; and ye cried to me, and I delivered you out of their hand. ¹³ Yet ye have forsaken me, and ye serve other gods; therefore I will deliver you no more. ¹⁴ Go and cry unto the gods which ye have chosen; let them deliver you in the time of your distress.' ¹⁵ And the children of Israel said to Jehovah, 'We have sinned. Do thou to us whatsoever seemeth good unto thee; only deliver us, we pray thee this day.' ¹⁶ And they put away the foreign gods from among them, and served Jehovah; and his soul was sore cut for the misery of Israel.

¹⁷ Then the Children of Ammon were called together; and they encamped in Gilead. And the children of Israel assembled themselves together, and encamped in Mizpeh. ¹⁸ And the people and princes of Gilead said one to another, 'What man is he that will begin the fight against the Children of Ammon? He shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.'

11 Now Jephthah the Gileadite was a warrior of valour, and he was the son of a harlot. And Gilead begat Jephthah. ² And Gilead's wife bare him sons. And his wife's sons grew up, and they thrust out Jephthah, and said to him, 'Thou shalt not inherit in our father's house; for thou art the son of another woman.' ³ Then Jephthah fled from his brethren, and dwelt in the land of Tob. And there were gathered vain men to Jephthah; and they went out with him.

⁴ And it came to pass in process of time, that the Children of Ammon made war against Israel. ⁵ And it was so that, when the Children of Ammon made war against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to fetch Jephthah out of the land of Tob. ⁶ And they said to Jephthah, 'Come and be our captain, that we may fight against the Children of Ammon.' ⁷ And Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, 'Did not ye hate me, and thrust me out of my father's 'house? And why are ye come to me now when ye are in distress?' ⁸ And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, 'Therefore we turn again to thee now, that thou mayest go with us, and fight against the Children of Ammon, and be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.' ⁹ And Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, 'If ye bring me home again to fight against the Children of Ammon, and Jehovah deliver them before me, shall I be your head?' ¹⁰ And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, 'May Jehovah be the hearer between us, if we do not so according to thy words.' ¹¹ Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and captain over them. And Jephthah uttered all his words before Jehovah in Mizpeh.

¹² And Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the Children of Ammon, saying, 'What hast thou to do with me, that thou art come against me to fight in my land?' ¹³ And the king of the Children of Ammon said to the messengers of Jephthah, 'Because Israel took away my land when they came up out of Lower Egypt, from the Arnon even unto the Jabbok, and unto the Jordan. Now therefore restore those lands again peaceably.' ¹⁴ And Jephthah sent messengers yet again to the king of the Children of Ammon, ¹⁵ and said to him, 'Thus saith Jephthah, Israel took not away the land of Moab, nor the land of the Children of Ammon. ¹⁶ But when Israel came up from Lower Egypt, and walked through the desert unto the Red sea, and came to Kadesh; ¹⁷ then Israel sent messengers unto the king of Edom, saying, Let me, I pray thee, pass through thy land. But the king of Edom would not hearken thereto. And in like manner they sent to the king of Moab; but he would not consent. And Israel abode in Kadesh. ¹⁸ Then they went through the desert, and went round the land of Edom, and the land of Moab, and came by the east side of the land of Moab, and encamped on the other side of the Arnon, but came not within the boundary of Moab. For the Arnon was the boundary of Moab. ¹⁹ And Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon. And Israel said to him, Let us pass, we pray thee, through thy land unto my place. ²⁰ But Sihon trusted not Israel to pass through his boundary. And Sihon gathered all his people together, and encamped in Jahazah, and fought against Israel. ²¹ And Jehovah the God of Israel delivered Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel. And they smote them. So Israel seized all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that country. ²² And they seized all the boundary of the Amorites, from the Arnon even unto the Jabbok, and from the desert even unto the Jordan. ²³ So now Jehovah the God of Israel hath dispossessed the Amorites from before his people Israel, and shouldst thou dispossess us?' ²⁴ Shalt not thou possess that which Chemosh thy god giveth thee to possess? So whomsoever Jehovah our God shall dispossess from before us, them will we possess. ²⁵ And now

'art thou anything better than Balak the son of Zippor, the king of Moab? Did he ever strive against Israel, or did he ever fight against them?' ²⁶ While Israel dwelt in Heshbon and its suburbs, and in Aroer and its suburbs, and in all the cities that are on the banks of the Arnon, there were three hundred years. Why therefore did ye not recover them within that time? ²⁷ Therefore I have not sinned against thee, and thou doest me wrong to war against me. May Jehovah the Judge be judge this day between the children of Israel, and the Children of Ammon.' ²⁸ Howbeit the king of the Children of Ammon hearkened not to the words of Jephthah which he sent to him.

²⁹ Then the spirit of Jehovah came upon Jephthah, and he passed over Gilead, and Manasseh, and passed over Mizpeh of Gilead, and from Mizpeh of Gilead he passed over to the Children of Ammon. ³⁰ And Jephthah vowed a vow unto Jehovah, and said, 'If thou shalt without fail deliver the Children of Ammon into my hands, ³¹ then it shall be, that whatsoever cometh forth of the doors of my house to meet me, when I return in peace from the Children of Ammon, shall surely be Jehovah's, and I will offer it up for a burnt offering.' ³² So Jephthah passed over to the Children of Ammon to fight against them; and Jehovah delivered them into his hands. ³³ And he smote them from Aroer, even till thou come to Minnith, even twenty cities, and unto the Meadow of the Vineyards, with a very great slaughter. Thus the Children of Ammon were subdued before the children of Israel.

³⁴ And Jephthah came to Mizpeh to his house, and behold, his daughter came out to meet him with timbrels and with dances; and she was his only child; beside her he had neither son nor daughter. ³⁵ And it came to pass, when he saw her, that he rent his clothes, and said, 'Alas, my daughter! thou hast brought me very low, and thou art one of them that trouble me; for I have opened my mouth unto Jehovah, and I cannot go back.' ³⁶ And she said to him, 'My father, as thou hast opened thy mouth unto Jehovah, do to me according to that which hath gone forth out of thy mouth; forasmuch as Jehovah hath taken vengeance for thee of thine enemies the Children of Ammon.' ³⁷ And she said to her father, 'Let this thing be done for me. Let me alone two months, that I may go up and down upon the mountains, and bewail my virginity, I and my companions.' ³⁸ And he said, 'Go.' And he sent her away for two months. And she went with her companions, and she bewailed her virginity upon the mountains. ³⁹ And it came to pass at the end of two months, that she returned to her father, who did with her according to his vow which he had vowed; and she had known no man. And it was a custom in Israel, ⁴⁰ that the daughters of Israel went yearly to celebrate the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite four days in a year.

and said to Jephthah, 'Wherefore passedst thou over to fight against the Children of Ammon, and didst not call us to go with thee? We will burn thy house upon thee with fire.' ² And Jephthah said to them, 'I and my people were at great strife with the Children of Ammon; and when I called to you, ye delivered me not out of their hands.' ³ And when I saw that thou wast no help, I put my life in my hands, and I passed over against the Children of Ammon, and Jehovah delivered them into my hand. Wherefore then are ye come up unto me this day, to fight against me?' ⁴ Then Jephthah gathered together all the men of Gilead, and fought with Ephraim. And the men of Gilead smote Ephraim because they said, 'Ye Gileadites are fugitives of Ephraim among the Ephraimites, and among the Manassites.' ⁵ And the Gileadites seized the fords of the Jordan before the Ephraimites. And it was so, that those Ephraimites who were escaped said, 'Let me cross over.' And the men of Gilead said to each, 'Art thou an Ephraimite?' And he said, 'Nay.' ⁶ Then said they to him, 'Say now Shibboleth.' And he said, 'Sibboleth.' For he could not frame to speak it right. Then they took him, and slew him at the fords of the Jordan. And there fell at that time of the Ephraimites forty and two thousand. ⁷ And Jephthah judged Israel for six years. Then died Jephthah the Gileadite, and was buried in one of the cities of Gilead.

⁸ And after him Ibban of Beth-lehem [in Zebulun] judged Israel. ⁹ And he had thirty sons; and thirty daughters, whom he sent abroad; and he took in thirty daughters from abroad for his sons. And he judged Israel for seven years. ¹⁰ Then died Ibban, and was buried at Beth-lehem.

¹³ And after him Abdon the son of Hillel, a Pirathonite, judged Israel. ¹⁴ And he had forty sons and thirty grandsons, that rode on seventy ass-colts. And he judged Israel for eight years. ¹⁵ And Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite died, and was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the hill country of the Amalekites.

13 And the CHILDREN OF ISRAEL DID EVIL again in the sight of Jehovah; and Jehovah delivered them into the hand of the Philistines for forty years. ² And there was a certain man of Zorah, of the family of the Danites, whose name was Manoah; and his wife was barren and bare not. ³ And the angel of Jehovah appeared to the woman, and said to her, 'Behold now, thou art barren, and bearest not; but thou shalt conceive, and bear a son. ⁴ Now therefore beware, I pray thee, and drink not wine nor strong drink, and eat not any unclean thing. ⁵ For lo, thou shalt conceive, and bear a son; and no razor shall come on his head. For the child shall be a Nazarite [or Set apart] unto God from the womb; and he

'shall be first to deliver Israel out of the hand of the Philistines.' ⁶ Then the woman came and told her husband, saying, 'A man of God came to me, and his appearance was like the appearance of the angel of God, very terrible. But I asked him not whence he was, neither told he me his name. ⁷ But he said to me, Behold, thou shalt conceive, and bear a son; and now drink no wine nor strong drink, neither eat any unclean thing; for the child shall be a Nazarite to God from the womb to the day of his death.' ⁸ Then Manoah entreated Jehovah, and said, 'O my Lord, let the man of God whom thou didst send come again to us, and teach us what we shall do to the child that shall be born.' ⁹ And God hearkened to the voice of Manoah; and the angel of God came again to the woman as she sat in the field; but Manoah her husband was not with her. ¹⁰ And the woman made haste, and ran, and shewed to her husband, and said to him, 'Behold, the man hath appeared to me, that came to me the other day.' ¹¹ And Manoah arose, and went after his wife, and came to the man, and said to him, 'Art thou the man that spakest to the woman?' And he said, 'I am.' ¹² And Manoah said, 'Now let thy words come to pass. What shall be the treatment of the child, and his doings?' ¹³ And the angel of Jehovah said to Manoah, 'Of all that I said to the woman let her beware. ¹⁴ She may not eat of anything that cometh of the grape-vine; neither let her drink wine or strong drink, nor eat any unclean thing. All that I commanded her let her observe.' ¹⁵ And Manoah said to the angel of Jehovah, 'I pray thee, let us detain thee, until we shall have made ready a kid of the goats for thee.' ¹⁶ And the angel of Jehovah said to Manoah, 'Though thou detain me, I will not eat of thy bread. And if thou makest a burnt offering, thou must offer it up to Jehovah.' For Manoah knew not that he was the angel of Jehovah. ¹⁷ And Manoah said to the angel of Jehovah, 'What is thy name, that when thy sayings come to pass we may do thee honour?' ¹⁸ And the angel of Jehovah said to him, 'Why askest thou thus after my name, seeing it is wonderful?' ¹⁹ So Manoah took a kid of the goats and a meal offering, and offered them up on a rock unto Jehovah. And a wondrous thing was done; and Manoah and his wife saw it. ²⁰ For it came to pass when the flame went up toward the heavens from off the altar, that the angel of Jehovah went up in the flame of the altar. And Manoah and his wife saw it, and fell on their faces to the ground. ²¹ But the angel of Jehovah did no more appear to Manoah and to his wife. Then Manoah knew that he was the angel of Jehovah. ²² And Manoah said to his wife, 'We shall surely die, because we have seen God.' ²³ But his wife said to him, 'If Jehovah were pleased to kill us, he would not have received a burnt offering and a meal offering at our hands, neither would he have shewed us all these things, nor would he be at this time have told us such things as these.' ²⁴ And the woman bare a son, and called his name

Samson. And the child grew, and Jehovah blessed him. ²⁵ And the spirit of Jehovah began to move him in the Camp of Dan between Zorah and Eshtaol.

14 And Samson went down to Timnath, and saw a woman in Timnath, one of the daughters of the Philistines. ² And he came up, and told his father and his mother, and said, 'I have seen a woman in Timnath, one of the daughters of the Philistines. Now therefore get her for me to wife.' ³ Then his father and his mother said to him, 'Is there never a woman among the daughters of thy brethren, or among all my people, that thou goest to take a wife of the uncircumcised Philistines?' And Samson said to his father, 'Do thou get her for me; for she pleaseth me well.' ⁴ And his father and his mother knew not that it was of Jehovah, that he sought an occasion against the Philistines. For at that time the Philistines had dominion over Israel.

⁵ Then went Samson down, and his father and his mother, to Timnath, and they came to the vineyards of Timnath; and behold a lion's whelp roared on meeting him. ⁶ And the spirit of Jehovah came upon him, and he rent it as he would have rent a kid, and he had nothing whatever in his hand. But he told not his father or his mother what he had done. ⁷ And he went down, and talked with the woman, and she pleased Samson well. ⁸ And after a time he returned to take her, and he turned aside to see the carcase of the lion; and behold, there was a swarm of bees and honey in the body of the lion. ⁹ And he took thereof in his hands, and went on and eat, and he came to his father and mother, and he gave to them, and they did eat; but he told them not that he had taken the honey out of the body of the lion.

¹⁰ So his father went down to the woman; and Samson made there a drinking feast; for so used the young men to do. ¹¹ And it came to pass, when they saw him, that they brought thirty companions to be with him. ¹² And Samson said to them, 'I will now put forth a riddle to you. If ye can certainly declare it to me within the seven days of the drinking feast, and find it out, then I will give you thirty shirts and thirty changes of garments.' ¹³ But if ye are unable to declare it to me, then shall ye give me thirty shirts and thirty changes of garments.' And they said to him, 'Put forth thy riddle, that we may hear it.' ¹⁴ And he said to them, 'Out of the eater came forth food, and out of the strong came forth sweetness.' And they could not in three days declare the riddle. ¹⁵ And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they said to Samson's wife, 'Entice thy husband, that he may declare to us the riddle, lest we burn thee and thy father's house with fire. Have ye called us to dispossess us? Is it not so?' ¹⁶ And Samson's wife wept before him, and said, 'Thou dost but hate me, and lovest me not. Thou hast put forth a riddle to the children of my people, and hast not declared it to me.' And he said to her, 'Behold, I have not declared it to my father nor

'to my mother, and shall I declare it to thee?' ¹⁷ And she wept before him the seven days, while their drinking feast lasted. And it came to pass on the seventh day, that he declared it to her, because she pressed him; and she declared the riddle to the children of her people. ¹⁸ And the men of the city said to him on the seventh day before the sun went down, 'What is sweeter than honey? and what is stronger than a lion?' And he said to them, 'If ye had not plowed with my heifer, ye had not found out my riddle.' ¹⁹ And the spirit of Jehovah came upon him, and he went down to Askalon, and slew thirty men of them, and took their spoil, and gave changes of garments unto them that expounded the riddle. And his anger was kindled, and he went up to his father's house. ²⁰ And Samson's wife was given to his companion, who had been his friend.

15 But it came to pass after a while, in the time of wheat harvest, that Samson visited his wife with a kid of the goats; and he said, 'I will go in to my wife into the chamber.' But her father would not suffer him to go in. ² And her father said, 'I verily thought that thou hadst utterly hated her; therefore I gave her to thy companion. Is not her younger sister fairer than she? Let her be thine, I pray thee, instead of her.' ³ And Samson said concerning them, 'This time shall I be more blameless than the Philistines, though I do them an evil.' ⁴ And Samson went and caught three hundred foxes, and took torches, and turned tail to tail, and put each torch in the midst between two tails. ⁵ And when he had set the torches on fire, he let them go into the standing corn of the Philistines, and burnt up both the shocks, and also the standing corn, with the olive-gardens. ⁶ Then the Philistines said, 'Who hath done this?' And they answered, 'Samson, the son in law of the Timnite, because he had taken his wife, and given her to his companion.' And the Philistines came up, and burnt her and her father with fire. ⁷ And Samson said to them, 'Though ye have done thus, yet will I be avenged of you, and after that I will cease.' ⁸ And he smote them hip and thigh with a great slaughter.

And he went down and dwelt in a cleft in the rock Etam. ⁹ Then the Philistines went up, and encamped in Judah, and spread themselves in Lehi. ¹⁰ And the men of Judah said, 'Why are ye come up against us?' And they answered, 'To bind Samson are we come up, to do to him as he hath done to us.' ¹¹ Then three thousand men of Judah went down to the cleft in the rock Etam, and said to Samson, 'Knowest thou not that the Philistines are rulers over us? And what is this that thou hast done to us?' And he said to them, 'As they did to me, so have I done to them.' ¹² And they said to him, 'We are come down to bind thee, that we may deliver thee into the hand of the Philistines.' And Samson said to them, 'Swear to me that ye will not fall upon me yourselves.' ¹³ And they spake to him, saying, 'No; but we will bind thee

'fast, and deliver thee into their hand; but surely 'we will not kill thee.' And they bound him with two new cords, and brought him up from the rock.

¹⁴ And when he came to Lehi, the Philistines shouted on meeting him. And the spirit of Jehovah came upon him, and the cords that were upon his arms became as flax that was burnt with fire, and his hands were loosed from off his hands. ¹⁵ And he found a fresh cheek-bone of an ass, and put forth his hand, and took it, and slew a thousand men therewith. ¹⁶ And Samson said, 'With the cheek-bone of an ass, a heap of heaps, 'With the cheek-bone of an ass have I slain a 'thousand men.'

¹⁷ And it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking, that he cast away the cheek-bone out of his hand, and called that place the hill of Lehi [for the Cheek].

¹⁸ And he was sore athirst, and called on Jehovah, and said, 'Thou hast given this great deliverance into the hand of thy servant; and now shall 'I die for thirst, and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised?' ¹⁹ But God clave the hollow place which is in Lehi, and there came water thereout. And when he had drunk, his spirit came again, and he revived. Therefore he called its name the Well of Kore [or Of him that called], which is in Lehi unto this day. ²⁰ And he judged Israel in the days of the Philistines for twenty years.

¹⁶ Then went Samson to Gaza, and saw there a harlot, and went in unto her. ² And on the Gazites saying, 'Samson is come hither;' they compassed him in, and laid wait for him all night in the gate of the city, and kept themselves quiet all the night, saying, 'In the morning when it is 'light, we will kill him.' ³ And Samson lay till midnight, and arose at midnight; and seized upon the doors of the gate of the city, and the two posts, and he pulled them up with the cross-bar, and put them upon his shoulders, and carried them up to the top of the hill that is before Hebron.

⁴ And it came to pass afterward, that he loved a woman in the valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah. ⁵ And the lords of the Philistines came up to her, and said to her, 'Entice him, and see 'wherein his great strength lieth, and by what 'means we may prevail against him, that we may 'bind him to overpower him; and we will give 'thee every one of us eleven hundred pieces of 'silver.' ⁶ And Delilah said to Samson, 'Tell me, 'I pray thee, wherein thy great strength lieth, and 'wherewith thou mightest be bound to overpower 'thee.' ⁷ And Samson said to her, 'If they bind 'me with seven green withs that were never dried, 'then shall I be weak, and be as another man.' ⁸ Then the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven green withs which had not been dried, and she bound him with them. ⁹ Now there were men lying in wait, abiding with her in the chamber. And she said to him, 'The Philistines are 'upon thee, Samson.' And he brake the withs, as a thread of tow is broken when it smelleth the fire. So his strength was not known.

¹⁰ And Delilah said to Samson, 'Behold, thou 'hast befooled me, and told me lies. Now tell me, 'I pray thee, wherewith thou mightest be bound.' ¹¹ And he said to her, 'If they bind me fast with 'new ropes wherewith no work hath been done, 'then shall I be weak, and be as another man.' ¹² Delilah therefore took new ropes, and bound him therewith; and said to him, 'The Philistines 'are upon thee, Samson.' And there were liers in wait abiding in the chamber. And he brake them from off his arms like a thread.

¹³ And Delilah said to Samson, 'Hitherto thou 'hast mocked me, and told me lies. Tell me 'wherewith thou mightest be bound.' And he said to her, 'If thou weavest the seven locks of 'my head into the web.' ¹⁴ And she fastened it with the pin, and said to him, 'The Philistines 'are upon thee, Samson.' And he awaked out of his sleep, and pulled away the weaving pin and the web.

¹⁵ And she said to him, 'How canst thou say, 'I love thee, when thy heart is not with me? 'Thou hast befooled me these three times, and 'hast not told me wherein thy great strength lieth.' ¹⁶ And it came to pass, when she pressed him daily with her words, and urged him, so that his soul was vexed unto death, ¹⁷ that he told her all his heart, and said to her, 'There hath not come a 'razor upon my head; for I have been a Nazarite 'unto God, from my mother's womb. If I be 'shaven, then my strength will go from me, and I 'shall become weak, and be like any other man.' ¹⁸ And when Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, 'Come up this once, for he hath 'told me all his heart.' Then the lords of the Philistines came up to her, and brought the silver in their hand. ¹⁹ And she made him sleep upon her knees. And she called for a man, and she caused him to shave off the seven locks of his head. And she began to overpower him, and his strength went from him. ²⁰ And she said, 'The Philistines 'are upon thee, Samson.' And he awoke out of his sleep, and said, 'I will go out as at other times 'before, and shake myself.' And he wist not that Jehovah was departed from him. ²¹ But the Philistines took him, and put out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with copper fetters; and he did grind in the prison house.

²² Howbeit the hair of his head began to grow again as before he was shaven. ²³ And the lords of the Philistines gathered themselves together for to sacrifice a great sacrifice unto Dagon their god, and to rejoice; for they said, 'Our god hath delivered Samson our enemy into our hand.' ²⁴ And when the people saw him they praised their god; for they said, 'Our god hath delivered into our 'hands our enemy, and the destroyer of our coun- 'try, who slew many of us.' ²⁵ And it came to pass, when their hearts were merry, that they said,

'Call for Samson, that he may make sport for us.' And they called for Samson out of the prison-house; that he might make sport before them; and they set him between the pillars. ²⁶ And Samson said to the lad that held him by the hand, 'Place me so that I may feel the pillars whereupon the house standeth, that I may lean upon them.' ²⁷ Now the house was full of men and women; and all the lords of the Philistines were there; and there were upon the roof about three thousand men and women, that looked on while Samson was made sport of. ²⁸ And Samson called to Jehovah, and said, 'O Lord Jehovah, remember me, I pray thee, and strengthen me, I pray thee, only this once, O God, that I may be at once avenged of the Philistines for my two eyes.' ²⁹ And Samson bent himself toward the two middle pillars upon which the house stood, and on which it was borne up, the one on his right hand, and the other on his left. ³⁰ And Samson said, 'Let me die with the Philistines.' And he bowed himself with all his might; and the house fell upon the lords, and upon all the people that were therein. So the dead which he slew at his death, were more than they which he slew in his life. ³¹ Then his brethren and all the house of his father came down, and took him, and brought him up, and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the burying-place of Manoah his father. And he judged Israel for twenty years.

17 AND THERE WAS A MAN of the hill country of Ephraim, whose name was Micah. ² And he said to his mother, 'The eleven hundred pieces of silver that were taken from thee, about which thou cursedst, and spakedst of also in mine ears, behold, the silver is with me; I took it. And his mother said, 'Blessed be thou of Jehovah, my son.' ³ And when he had restored the eleven hundred pieces of silver to his mother, his mother said, 'I had wholly dedicated the silver unto Jehovah from my hand for my son, to make a graven image and a molten image. And now I shall restore it to thee.' ⁴ And he restored the money to his mother. And his mother took two hundred pieces of the silver, and gave them to the metal founder, who made thereof a graven image and a molten image. And they were in the house of Micah. ⁵ And the man Micah had a house of gods, and he made an Ephod [or priestly robe], and Teraphs [or images], and he filled the hands of one of his sons [with offerings], who became his priest.

⁶ In those days there was no king in Israel, but every man did that which was right in his own eyes. ⁷ And there was a young man of Beth-lehem in Judah of the family of Judah, who was a Levite, and he sojourned there. ⁸ And the man departed out of the city from Beth-lehem of Judah to sojourn where he could find a place. And he came to the hill country of Ephraim to the house of Micah, as he journeyed. ⁹ And Micah said to him, 'Whence comest thou?' And he said to him, 'I am a Levite of Beth-lehem in Judah, and I go to 'sojourn where I may find a place.' ¹⁰ And Micah said to him, 'Dwell with me, and be unto me a father and a priest, and I will give thee ten pieces of silver by the year, and a suit of apparel, and thy victuals.' So the Levite went in. ¹¹ And the Levite was content to dwell with the man; and the young man was unto him as one of his sons. ¹² And Micah filled the hand of the Levite [with offerings]; and the young man became his priest, and was in the house of Micah. ¹³ Then said Micah, 'Now know I that Jehovah will do me good, seeing I have the Levite for my priest.'

18 In those days there was no king in Israel; and in those days the tribe of the Danites sought them an inheritance to dwell in; for unto that day no inheritance had fallen unto them among the tribes of Israel. ² And the children of Dan sent of their family five men from their borders, men of valour, from Zorah, and from Eshtaol, to spy out the land, and to search it; and they said to them, 'Go, search the land.' And they came to the hill country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, and they lodged there. ³ When they were by the house of Micah, they knew the voice of the young man the Levite; and they turned in thither, and said to him, 'Who brought thee hither? And what doest thou in this place? And what hast thou here?' ⁴ And he said to them, 'Thus and thus dealeth Micah with me, and he hath hired me, and I am his priest.' ⁵ And they said to him, 'Ask, we pray thee, of God, that we may know whether our way which we go shall be prosperous.' ⁶ And the priest said to them, 'Go in peace; before Jehovah is your way wherein ye go.'

⁷ Then the five men departed, and came to Laish, and saw the people that were therein, how they dwelt as if in safety, according to the laws of the Sidonians, quiet and trusting. And no one possessed power in the land, that might hurt them in anything. But they were far from the Sidonians, and had no dealings with any man.

⁸ And they came to their brethren to Zorah and Eshtaol. And their brethren said to them, 'What say ye?' ⁹ And they said, 'Arise, that we may go up against them. For we have seen the land, and behold, it is very good. And are ye still? Be not slothful to go, and to enter to possess the land.' ¹⁰ When ye go, ye shall come to a people secure, and to a land wide in its sides. For God hath given it into your hands; a place where there is no want of any thing that is on the earth.'

¹¹ And there removed from thence of the family of the Danites, out of Zorah and out of Eshtaol, six hundred men girded with weapons of war. ¹² And they went up, and encamped by the city of Jearim in Judah. Therefore they called that place the Camp of Dan unto this day. Behold, it is to the west of the City of Jearim. ¹³ And they passed thence unto the hill country of Ephraim, and came to the house of Micah. ¹⁴ Then spake the five men that went to spy out the land of Laish, and said to their brethren, 'Do ye know that there is

'in these houses an Ephod, and Teraphs, and a graven image, and a molten image? Now therefore consider what ye have to do.' ¹⁵ And they turned thitherward, and came to the house of the young man the Levite, even to the house of Micah, and saluted him. ¹⁶ And the six hundred men girded with their weapons of war, who were of the children of Dan, stood by the entrance of the gate. ¹⁷ And the five men that went to spy out the land went up, and came in thither, and took the graven image, and the Ephod, and the Teraphs, and the molten image. And the priest stood at the entrance of the gate with the six hundred men that were girded with weapons of war; ¹⁸ and these went into Micah's house, and took the graven image, the Ephod, and the Teraphs, and the molten image. Then said the priest to them, 'What do ye?' ¹⁹ And they said to him, 'Hold thy peace, lay thy hand upon thy mouth, and go with us, and be to us a father and a priest. Is it better for thee to be a priest unto the house of one man, or that thou be a priest unto a tribe and a family in Israel?' ²⁰ And the priest's heart was glad, and he took the Ephod, and the Teraphs, and the graven image, and went in the midst of the people. ²¹ So they turned and departed, and put the little ones and the cattle and the heavy baggage before them.

²² And when they were a good way from the house of Micah, the men that were in the houses near to Micah's house were called together, and they overtook the children of Dan. ²³ And they cried to the children of Dan. And they turned their faces, and said to Micah, 'What aileth thee, that thou art called together?' ²⁴ And he said, 'Ye have taken away my gods which I made, and the priest, and ye are gone away. And what have I more? And what is this that ye say to me, What aileth thee?' ²⁵ And the children of Dan said to him, 'Let not thy voice be heard among us, lest men of bitter souls run upon you, and thou lose thy life, with the lives of thy household.' ²⁶ And the children of Dan went on their way. And Micah saw that they were too strong for him, and he turned and went back to his house.

²⁷ And they took the things which Micah had made, and the priest which he had, and they came to Laish, to a people that were quiet and trusting. And they smote them with the edge of the sword, and burnt the city with fire. ²⁸ And there was no deliverer, because it was far from Sidon, and they had no dealings with any man; and it was in the valley that is by Beth-rehob. And they built the city, and dwelt therein. ²⁹ And they called the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan their father, who was born unto Israel. Howbeit the name of the city was Laish at the first. ³⁰ And the children of Dan set up for themselves the graven image; and Jonathan, the son of Gershom, the son of Manasseh, he and his sons were priests to the tribe of the Danites until the day of the captivity of the land [B.C. 722]. ³¹ And they set up for themselves Micah's graven image, which he had made, all the time that the house of God was in Shiloh.

¹⁸ AND IT CAME TO PASS in those days, when there was no king in Israel, that there was a certain Levite sojourning in the back of the hill country of Ephraim, who took to him a concubine out of Beth-lehem of Judah. ² And his concubine played the harlot against him, and went away from him to her father's house to Beth-lehem of Judah, and was there a year and four months. ³ And her husband arose and went after her, to speak kindly unto her, and to bring her again, having his servant with him, and a couple of asses; and she brought him into her father's house. And when the father of the damsel saw him, he rejoiced to meet him. ⁴ And his father in law, the damsel's father, retained him. And he abode with him three days; so they did eat and drink, and lodged there. ⁵ And it came to pass on the fourth day, when they arose early in the morning, that he rose up to depart. And the damsel's father said to his son in law, 'Comfort thy heart with a morsel of bread, and afterward ye shall go.' ⁶ And they sat down and did eat and drink both of them together. And the damsel's father said to the man, 'Be pleased, I pray thee, to tarry all night, and let thy heart be merry.' ⁷ And when the man rose up to depart, his father in law urged him; therefore he returned and lodged the night there. ⁸ And he arose early in the morning on the fifth day to depart; and the damsel's father said, 'Comfort thy heart, I pray thee.' And they tarried until decline of day, and they did eat both of them. ⁹ And when the man rose up to depart, he and his concubine and his servant, his father in law, the damsel's father said to him, 'Behold, now the day draweth toward evening; I pray you tarry all night. Behold, it is the decline of day; lodge here, that thy heart may be merry; and tomorrow get you early on your way, that thou mayest go to thy tent.' ¹⁰ But the man would not tarry that night, but he rose up and departed, and came over against Jebus, which is Jerusalem; and there were with him two asses saddled, his concubine also was with him. ¹¹ And when they were by Jebus, the day was far spent; and the servant said to his master, 'Come, I pray thee, and let us turn aside into this city of the Jebusites, and lodge the night in it.' ¹² And his master said to him, 'We will not turn aside hither into a city of foreigners, that belongeth not to the children of Israel; we will pass over to Gibeah.' ¹³ And he said to his servant, 'Come, and let us draw near to one of these places and lodge all night in Gibeah, or in Ramah.' ¹⁴ And they passed on and went their way; and the sun went down upon them when they were by Gibeah, which belongeth to Benjamin. ¹⁵ And they turned aside thither, to go in and to lodge in Gibeah. And when he went in, he sat him down in the broad place of the city; for there was no man that took them into his house to lodge. ¹⁶ And behold, there came an old man from his work out of the field at evening, and the man was also of the hill country of Ephraim; and he sojourned in Gibeah; but the men of the place were Benjamites. ¹⁷ And he lifted up his eyes, and he saw the wayfaring man in the broad place of the city. And the old man said, 'Whither goest thou? and whence comest thou?' ¹⁸ And he said to him, 'We are passing from Beth-lehem of Judah toward the back of the hill country of Ephraim; from thence am I.' ¹⁹ And I went to Beth-lehem of Judah, but I am going to the House of Jehovah; and there is no man that receiveth me into his house. ²⁰ Yet there is both straw and provender for our asses; and there is bread and wine also for me, and for thy handmaid, and for the young man who is with thy servant. There is no want of any thing.' ²¹ And the old man said, 'Peace be with thee; only let all thy wants lie upon me; only lodge not in the broad place.' ²² So he brought him into his house, and gave provender to the asses. And they washed their feet, and did eat and drink.

²³ Now as they were making their hearts merry, behold, the men of the city, men who were sons of Belial, beset the house round about, and beat at the door, and spake to the master of the house, the old man, saying, 'Bring forth the man that came into thy house, that we may know him.' ²⁴ And the man, the master of the house, went out to them, and said to them, 'Nay, my brethren, I pray you, do not so wickedly; seeing that this man is come into my house, do not this folly.' ²⁵ Behold, here is my daughter a maiden, and his concubine; let me bring them out, and humble ye them, and do with them what seemeth good to you; but to this man do not so vile a thing.' ²⁶ But the men would not hearken to him. So the man took his concubine, and brought her forth to them outside; and they knew her, and abused her all the night until the morning. And when the day began to spring, they let her go. ²⁷ Then came the woman in the dawn of the morning, and fell down at the doorway of the man's house where her lord was, till it was light. ²⁸ And her lord rose up in the morning, and opened the doors of the house, and went out to go his way; and behold, the woman his concubine was fallen down at the doorway of the house, and her hands were upon the threshold. ²⁹ And he said to her, 'Up, and let us be going.' But none answered. Then the man took her [body] up upon the ass, and the man rose up, and got him to his place.

³⁰ And when he was come into his house, he took a knife, and laid hold on his concubine, and divided her, even to her bones, into twelve pieces, and sent her into all the boundaries of Israel. ³¹ And it was so, that all that saw it said, 'There was no such deed done nor seen from the day that the children of Israel came up out of the land of Lower Egypt unto this day. Consider of it, take advice, and speak your minds.'

³² Then all the children of Israel went out, and the congregation was assembled together as one man, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, with the land of Gilead, unto Jehovah in Mizpeh. ³³ And the chiefs of all the people, even of all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of God's people, four hundred thousand men on foot that drew sword. ³⁴ (Now the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel were gone up to Mizpeh.) Then said the children of Israel, 'Tell us, how was this wickedness?' ³⁵ And the Levite, the husband of the woman that was killed, answered and said, 'I came into Gibeah that belongeth to Benjamin, I and my concubine, to lodge. ³⁶ And the men of Gibeah rose against me, and beset the house round about upon me by night, and thought to have slain me; and my concubine they forced, that she died. ³⁷ And I took my concubine, and cut her in pieces, and sent her through every country of the inheritance of Israel; for they have committed lewdness and folly in Israel. ³⁸ Behold, ye are all children of Israel; give here your advice and counsel.' ³⁹ And all the people arose as one man, saying, 'We will not any of us go to his tent, neither will we any of us turn into his house. ⁴⁰ But now this shall be the thing which we will do to Gibeah, by lot against it; ⁴¹ and we will take ten men out of a hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and a hundred out of a thousand, and a thousand out of ten thousand, to fetch victuals for the people, that they may do, when they come to Gibeah of Benjamin, according to all the folly that they have done in Israel.' ⁴² So all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, bound together as one man.

⁴³ And the tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, 'What wickedness is this that is done among you? ⁴⁴ Now therefore deliver to us the men, the children of Belial, who are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death, and put away evil from Israel.' But the children of Benjamin would not hearken to the voice of their brethren the children of Israel; ⁴⁵ and the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together out of the cities unto Gibeah, to go out to battle against the children of Israel. ⁴⁶ And the children of Benjamin mustered at that time out of the cities twenty and six thousand men that drew the sword, beside the inhabitants of Gibeah, who mustered seven hundred chosen men. ⁴⁷ Among all this people there were seven hundred chosen men left-handed; every one could sling with a stone at a hair, and not miss. ⁴⁸ And the men of Israel, beside Benjamin, mustered four hundred thousand men that drew the sword; all these were men of war.

⁴⁹ And the children of Israel arose, and went up to Beth-el, and asked counsel of God, and said, 'Which of us shall go up first to battle against the children of Benjamin?' And Jehovah said, 'Judah shall go up first.' ⁵⁰ And the children of Israel rose up in the morning, and encamped against Gibeah. ⁵¹ And the men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin; and the men of Israel set the battle in array against them at Gibeah.

²⁶ Then all the children of Israel, and all the people, went up, and came to Beth-el, and wept, and sat there before Jehovah, and fasted that day until evening, and offered up burnt offerings and peace offerings before Jehovah. ²⁷ And the children of Israel inquired of Jehovah, (for the Ark of the Covenant of God was there in those days, ²⁸ and Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, stood before it in those days,) saying, 'Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother, or shall I cease?' And Jehovah said, 'Go up; for to-morrow I will deliver them into thy hand.' ²⁹ And Israel set liers in wait round about Gibeah. ³⁰ And the children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and put themselves in array against Gibeah, as at the other times. ³¹ And the children of Benjamin went out against the people.

They were drawn away from the city; and they began to smite some of the people. There were slain in the field about thirty men of Israel, as at the other times, in the highways, of which the one goeth up to Beth-el, and the other to Gibeah. ³² And the children of Benjamin said, 'They are smitten down before us, as at the first.' But the children of Israel said, 'Let us flee, and draw them away from the city unto the highways.' ³³ And all the men of Israel rose up out of their place, and put themselves in array at Baal-tamar; and the liers in wait of Israel rushed forth out of their places, even out of the cave of Gibeah. ³⁴ And there came forward against Gibeah ten thousand men chosen out of all Israel. And the battle was sore; but they knew not that evil was near them. ³⁵ And Jehovah smote Benjamin before Israel; and the children of Israel destroyed of the Benjamites that day twenty and five thousand and a hundred men; all these drew the sword. ³⁶ So the children of Benjamin saw that they were smitten.

For the men of Israel gave place to the Benjamites, because they trusted to the liers in wait whom they had set beside Gibeah. ³⁷ And the liers in wait hastened, and rushed upon Gibeah; and the liers in wait drew themselves along, and smote all the city with the edge of the sword. ³⁸ Now there was an appointed sign between the men of Israel and the liers in wait, that they should make a great fire-signal of smoke to rise up out of the city. ³⁹ And when the men of Israel retired in the battle, Benjamin began to smite them; and there were slain of the men of Israel about thirty men; for they said, 'Surely they are smitten down before us, as in the first battle.' ⁴⁰ But when the fire-signal began to rise up out of the city as a pillar of smoke, the Benjamites looked behind them, and behold, the whole of the city was going up in smoke to heaven. ⁴¹ And when the men of Israel turned again, the men of Benjamin were amazed; for they saw that evil was come upon them. ⁴² Therefore they turned before the men of Israel unto the way of the desert. But the battle overtook them; and them who came out of the cities they destroyed in the midst of them. ⁴³ They inclosed the Benjamites round about, they chased them from the resting-place, and trod them down unto over against Gibeah toward the sunrising. ⁴⁴ And there fell of Benjamin eighteen thousand men; all these were men of valour. ⁴⁵ And they turned and fled toward the desert unto the rock of Rimmon. And they gleaned of them in the highways five thousand men; and pursued hard after them to Gidom, and slew two thousand men of them. ⁴⁶ So that all that fell that day of Benjamin were twenty and five thousand men that drew the sword; all these were men of valour. ⁴⁷ But six hundred men turned and fled to the desert unto the rock of Rimmon, and abode in the rock of Rimmon for four months. ⁴⁸ And the men of Israel turned again upon the children of Benjamin, and smote them with the edge of the sword, as well the men of the city, as the cattle, and all that came to hand. Also they set on fire all the cities that they came to.

²¹ Now the men of Israel had sworn in Mizpeh, saying, 'There shall not any of us give his daughter to Benjamin to wife.' ² And the people came to Beth-el, and abode there till evening before God, and lifted up their voices, and wept a great weeping, ³ and said, 'O Jehovah God of Israel, why is this come to pass in Israel, that there should be to-day one tribe lacking in Israel?' ⁴ And it came to pass on the morrow, that the people rose early, and built there an altar, and offered up burnt offerings, and peace offerings. ⁵ And the children of Israel said, 'Who is there among all the tribes of Israel that came not up with the assembly unto Jehovah?' For they had made a great oath against him that came not up to Jehovah to Mizpeh, saying, 'He shall surely be put to death.' ⁶ And the children of Israel repented them for Benjamin their brother, and said, 'There is one tribe cut off from Israel this day. ⁷ How shall we do for wives for them that remain, seeing we have sworn by Jehovah that we will not give them any of our daughters for wives?' ⁸ And they said, 'What one is there of the tribes of Israel that came not up to Mizpeh to Jehovah?' And behold, there had come not a man to the camp from Jabesh in Gilead to the assembly. ⁹ For the people mustered; and behold, there were none of the inhabitants of Jabesh in Gilead there. ¹⁰ And the congregation sent thither twelve thousand men of the sons of valour, and commanded them, saying, 'Go and smite the inhabitants of Jabesh in Gilead with the edge of the sword, with the women and the little children. ¹¹ And this is the thing that ye shall do, Ye shall utterly destroy every male, and every woman that hath lain by man.' ¹² And they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh in Gilead four hundred young maidens, that had known no man by lying with any male; and they brought them to the camp to Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan. ¹³ And the whole congregation sent some to speak to the children of Benjamin that were at the rock of Rimmon, and to proclaim peace unto them. ¹⁴ And Benjamin came again at that time. And they gave them wives whom they had saved alive of the women of Jabesh in Gilead; and yet so they sufficed them not.

¹⁵ And the people repented them for Benjamin, because that Jehovah had made a breach in the tribes of Israel. ¹⁶ Then the elders of the congregation said, 'How shall we do for wives for them that remain, seeing the women are destroyed out of Benjamin?' ¹⁷ And they said, 'There must be an inheritance of deliverance for Benjamin, that a tribe be not blotted out of Israel. ¹⁸ Howbeit we may not give them wives of our daughters;

'for the children of Israel have sworn, saying, 'Cursed be he that giveth a wife to Benjamin.' ¹⁹ Then they said, 'Behold, there is a feast of Jehovah yearly in Shiloh, which is on the north side of Beth-el, on the east side of the highway that goeth up from Beth-el to Shechem, and on the south of Lebonah.' ²⁰ Therefore they commanded the children of Benjamin, saying, 'Go, and lie in wait in the vineyards; ²¹ and see, and behold, if the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in dances, then come ye out of the vineyards, and catch for yourselves every man his wife of the daughters of Shiloh, and go to the land of Benjamin. ²² And it shall be, when their fathers or their brethren come to us to complain, that we will say to them, Be favourable to them for our sakes; because we took not each man his wife in the war. For ye did not give to them; at that time, ye would have been guilty.' ²³ And the children of Benjamin did so, and took them wives, according to their number, of them that danced, whom they caught; and they went and returned to their inheritance, and built the cities, and dwelt in them. ²⁴ And the children of Israel departed thence at that time, every man to his tribe and to his family, and they went out from thence every man to his inheritance. ²⁵ In those days there was no king in Israel; every man did that which was right in his own eyes.

THE BOOK OF RUTH.

NOW IT CAME TO PASS in the days when the judges ruled, that there was a famine in the land. And a certain man of Beth-lehem of Judah went to sojourn in the fields of Moab, he and his wife, and his two sons. ² And the name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife Naomi, and the name of his two sons Mahlon and Chilion, Ephrathites of Beth-lehem of Judah. And they came into the fields of Moab, and continued there. ³ And Naomi's husband Elimelech died; and she was left, and her two sons. ⁴ And they took them wives of the women of Moab; the name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other Ruth; and they dwelled there about ten years. ⁵ And Mahlon and Chilion died also both of them; and the woman was left without her two sons and her husband.

⁶ Then she arose with her daughters in law, that she might return from the fields of Moab; for she had heard in the fields of Moab how that Jehovah had visited his people in giving them bread. ⁷ Therefore she went forth out of the place where she was, and her two daughters in law with her; and they went on the way to return to the land of Judah. ⁸ And Naomi said to her two daughters in law, 'Go, return each to her mother's house. May Jehovah deal kindly with you, as ye have dealt with the dead, and with me.' ⁹ May Jeho-

'vah grant you that ye may find a resting-place each of you in the house of her husband.' Then she kissed them; and they lifted up their voice, and wept. ¹⁰ And they said to her, 'Surely we will return with thee to thy people.' ¹¹ And Naomi said, 'Turn again, my daughters. Why will ye go with me? Are there yet any more sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands?' ¹² Turn again, my daughters, go your way; for I am too old to have a husband. If I should say, 'I have hope, if I should have a husband also tonight, and should also bear sons; would ye thereupon tarry till they were grown?' ¹³ Would ye thereupon shut yourselves up from having husbands? Nay, my daughters; for it grieveth me much for your sakes that the hand of Jehovah is gone out against me.' ¹⁴ And they lifted up their voice, and wept again. And Orpah kissed her mother in law; but Ruth clave unto her. ¹⁵ And she said, 'Behold, thy sister in law is gone back to her people, and to her gods. Return thou after thy sister in law.' ¹⁶ And Ruth said, 'Press me not to leave thee, or to return from following thee. For whither thou goest, I will go; and where thou lodgest, I will lodge. Thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God. ¹⁷ Where thou diest, will I die; and there will I be buried. May

'Jehovah do so to me, and more also, if ought but 'death part thee and me.' ¹³ When she saw that she was steadfastly minded to go with her, then she left off speaking to her.

¹⁹ So they two went until they came to Beth-lehem. And it came to pass, when they were come to Beth-lehem, that all the city was moved about them, and the women said, 'Is this Naomi?' ²⁰ And she said to them, 'Call me not Naomi [or My De-light], call me Mara [or Bitterness]. For the 'Almighty hath dealt very bitterly with me. ²¹ I 'went out full, and Jehovah hath brought me home 'again empty. Why then call ye me Naomi, seeing Jehovah hath testified against me, and the 'Almighty hath afflicted me?' ²² So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter in law, with her, who returned out of the fields of Moab. And they came to Beth-lehem in the beginning of the barley harvest.

² And Naomi had a friend of her husband's, a mighty man of wealth, of the family of Elimelech; and his name was Boaz. ² And Ruth the Moabitess said to Naomi, 'Let me now go to the field, and 'glean among the ears of corn after some one in 'whose sight I may find grace.' And she said to her, 'Go, my daughter.' ³ And she went, and came, and gleaned in the field after the reapers. And her hap was to light on a part of the field belonging to Boaz, who was of the family of Elimelech. ⁴ And behold, Boaz came from Beth-lehem, and said to the reapers, 'May Jehovah be 'with you.' And they answered him, 'May Jehovah bless thee.' ⁵ Then said Boaz to his servant that was set over the reapers, 'Whose damsel is 'this?' ⁶ And the servant that was set over the reapers answered and said, 'It is the Moabitish 'damsel that came back with Naomi out of the 'fields of Moab. ⁷ And she said, I pray you, let me glean and gather after the reapers among the 'sheaves. So she came, and hath continued even 'from the morning until now, when she tarried a 'little in the house.' ⁸ Then said Boaz to Ruth, 'Hearst thou not, my daughter? Go not to glean 'in another field, neither go from hence, but abide 'here fast by my maidens. ⁹ Let thine eyes be on 'the field that the men do reap, and go thou after 'the maidens. Have I not charged the young men that they shall not touch thee? And when thou art athirst, go to the vessels, and drink of that 'which the young men have drawn.' ¹⁰ Then she fell on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and said to him, 'Why have I found grace in thine 'eyes, that thou shouldst take knowledge of me, 'seeing I am a foreigner?' ¹¹ And Boaz answered and said to her, 'It hath fully been shewed me, all 'that thou hast done to thy mother in law since 'the death of thy husband; and how thou hast 'left thy father and thy mother, and the land of 'thy birth, and art come to a people which thou 'knewest not heretofore. ¹² May Jehovah recom-pence thy work, and a full reward be given thee by Jehovah the God of Israel, under whose wings

'thou art come to trust.' ¹³ Then she said, 'Let 'me find favour in thy sight, my lord; because 'thou hast comforted me, and because thou hast 'spoken to the heart of thy handmaid, though I 'be not like one of thy handmaidens.' ¹⁴ And Boaz said to her, 'At meal-time come thou hither, 'and eat of the bread, and dip thy morsel in the 'vinegar.' And she sat beside the reapers; and they reached to her parched corn, and she did eat, and had enough, and more than enough. ¹⁵ And when she was risen up to glean, Boaz commanded his young men, saying, 'Let her glean even among 'the sheaves, and reproach her not. ¹⁶ And let fall 'also some of the handfuls on purpose for her, and 'leave them, that she may glean them, and rebuke 'her not.'

¹⁷ So she gleaned in the field until evening, and beat out what she had gleaned. And it was about an Ephah [or Bushel] of barley. ¹⁸ And she took it up, and went into the city. And her mother in law saw what she had gleaned. And she brought it forth, and gave to her what remained after she was satisfied. ¹⁹ And her mother in law said to her, 'Where hast thou gleaned to-day? and where 'hast thou worked? Blessed be he that did take 'knowledge of thee.' And she shewed her mother in law with whom she had worked, and said, 'The 'man's name with whom I worked to-day is Boaz.' ²⁰ And Naomi said to her daughter in law, 'Blessed 'be he of Jehovah, who hath not left off his kind-ness to the living and to the dead.' And Naomi said to her, 'The man is near of kin to us, he hath 'a kinsman's rights toward us.' ²¹ And Ruth the Moabitess said, 'He said to me also, Thou shalt 'keep fast by my young men, until they have ended 'all my harvest.' ²² And Naomi said to Ruth her daughter in law, 'It is good, my daughter, that thou 'go out with his maidens, and that men meet thee 'not in any other field.' ²³ So she kept fast by the maidens of Boaz to glean unto the end of the barley harvest and of the wheat harvest; and dwelt with her mother in law.

³ Then Naomi her mother in law said to her, 'My daughter, shall I not seek a resting-place for 'thee, that it may be well with thee? ² And now 'is not Boaz one of our friends, with whose maidens 'thou wast? Behold, he winnoweth barley to-night 'on the threshing-floor. ³ Wash thyself therefore, 'and anoint thee, and put thy cloak upon thee, and 'get thee down to the threshing-floor; but make 'not thyself known to the man, until he shall have 'done eating and drinking. ⁴ And it shall be, when 'he lieth down, that thou shalt mark the place 'where he shall lie, and thou shalt go in, and un-cover his feet, and lay thee down; and he will 'tell what thou shalt do.' ⁵ And she said to her, 'All that thou sayest to me I will do.' ⁶ And she went down unto the threshing-floor, and did according to all that her mother in law bade her. ⁷ And when Boaz had eaten and drunk, and his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of corn. And she came softly and uncovered his feet, and laid her down. ⁸ And it came to pass at midnight, that the man was uneasy, and turned himself. And behold a woman lay at his feet. ⁹ And he said, 'Who art thou?' And she answered, 'I am Ruth thy handmaid. Spread therefore thy skirt over thy handmaid; for thou art one with a kinsman's rights.' ¹⁰ And he said, 'Blessed be thou of Jehovah, my daughter. For thy latter kindness is better than the former, inasmuch as thou followest not young men, whether poor or rich.' ¹¹ And now, my daughter, fear not; I will do to thee all that thou requirest. For all my people at the city gate do know that thou art a virtuous woman. ¹² And now, though it is true that I am one with a kinsman's rights, yet there is a kinsman nearer than I. ¹³ Tarry this night, and it shall be in the morning, that if he will perform unto thee the part of a kinsman, well; let him do the kinsman's part. But if he doth not like to do the part of a kinsman to thee, then will I do the part of a kinsman to thee myself, as Jehovah liveth. Lie down until the morning.' ¹⁴ And she lay at his feet until the morning. And she rose up before a man could know his friend by sight. And he said, 'Let it not be known that a woman came into the threshing-floor.' ¹⁵ Also he said, 'Bring the kerchief that thou hast upon thee, and hold it.' And when she held it, he measured six measures of barley, and laid it on her, and went into the city. ¹⁶ And when she came to her mother in law, she said, 'Who art thou, my daughter?' And she told her all that the man had done to her. ¹⁷ And she said, 'These six measures of barley gave he me; for he said to me, Go not empty unto thy mother in law.' ¹⁸ Then said she, 'Sit still, my daughter, until thou know how the matter will fall. For the man will not be at rest until he have finished the thing this day.'

⁴ Then went Boaz up to the city gate, and sat him down there. And behold the kinsman of whom Boaz had spoken came by. And he said to him, 'Ho, such a one! turn aside, sit down here.' And he turned aside, and sat down. ² And he took ten men of the elders of the city, and said, 'Sit ye down here.' And they sat down. ³ And he said to the kinsman, 'Naomi, that is come again out of the fields of Moab, selleth a parcel of the field, which was our brother Elimelech's. ⁴ And I thought to reveal it to thine ear, saying, Buy it, before the inhabitants, and before the elders of my people. If thou wilt redeem it as a kinsman, redeem it; but if thou wilt not redeem it, then tell me, that I may know. For there is none to redeem it as a kinsman beside thee; and I am after thee.' And he said, 'I will redeem it.' ⁵ Then said Boaz, 'What day thou buyest the field from the hand of Naomi, thou must buy it also from Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the dead, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance.' ⁶ And the kinsman said, 'I cannot redeem it for myself, lest I mar mine own inheritance; redeem thou my right to thyself; for I cannot redeem it.' ⁷ Now this was done in former time in Israel concerning redeeming and concerning exchange; in order to confirm all things, a man took off his shoe, and gave it to his neighbour; and this was the testimony in Israel. ⁸ Therefore the kinsman said to Boaz, 'Buy it for thyself.' So he took off his shoe. ⁹ And Boaz said to the elders, and to all the people, 'Ye are witnesses this day, that I have bought all that was Elimelech's, and all that was Chilion's and Mahlon's from the hand of Naomi. ¹⁰ Moreover Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, have I purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, that the name of the dead be not cut off from among his brethren, and from the city gate of his place. Ye are witnesses this day.' ¹¹ And all the people that were at the city gate, and the elders said, 'We are witnesses. May Jehovah make the woman that is come into thy house like Rachel and like Leah, which two did build up the house of Israel. And do thou worthily in Ephrath, and may thy name be famous in Beth-lehem. ¹² And may thy house be like the house of Pharez, whom Tamar bare unto Judah, from the seed which Jehovah shall give thee of this young woman.' ¹³ So Boaz took Ruth, and she was his wife. And when he went in unto her, Jehovah gave her conception, and she bare a son. ¹⁴ And the women said to Naomi, 'Blessed be Jehovah, who hath not left thee this day without a kinsman, that his name may be famous in Israel, and he shall be unto thee a restorer of thy life, and a nourisher of thy grey hairs. For thy daughter in law, who loveth thee, hath borne him. She is better to thee than seven sons.' ¹⁶ And Naomi took the child, and laid it in her bosom, and became nurse unto it. ¹⁷ And the women her neighbours gave it a name, saying, 'There is a son born to Naomi.' And they called his name Obed. He is the father of Jesse, the father of David.

¹⁸ Now this is the birth-book of Pharez. Pharez begat Hezron, ¹⁹ and Hezron begat Ram, and Ram begat Amminadab, ²⁰ and Amminadab begat Nahshon, [Numb. x. 14.] and Nahshon begat Salmon, ²¹ and Salmon begat Boaz, and Boaz begat Obed, ²² and Obed begat Jesse, and Jesse begat David.

THE FIRST BOOK OF SAMUEL.

NOW THERE WAS a certain man of Ramathaim of the Zuphites, of the hill country of Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephrathite. ² And he had two wives; the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the second Peninnah. And Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children. ³ And this man went up out of his city yearly to worship and to sacrifice unto Jehovah of hosts in Shiloh. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, the priests of Jehovah, were there. ⁴ And when the time was that Elkanah sacrificed, he gave to Peninnah his wife, and to all her sons and her daughters, portions [of the meat]. ⁵ But to Hannah he gave a double portion, for he loved Hannah; but Jehovah had shut up her womb. ⁶ And her rival also provoked her sore, in order to make her fret, because Jehovah had shut up her womb. ⁷ And so was done year by year, as often as she went up to the house of Jehovah; so she provoked her. Therefore she wept, and did not eat. ⁸ Then said Elkanah her husband to her, 'Hannah, why weepest thou? And why eatest thou not? And why is thy heart grieved? Am not I better to thee than ten sons?'

⁹ So Hannah rose up after she had eaten in Shiloh, and after she had drunk. And Eli the priest sat upon a seat by the door-post of the temple of Jehovah. ¹⁰ And she was bitter of soul, and prayed to Jehovah, and wept sore. ¹¹ And she vowed a vow, and said, 'O Jehovah of hosts, if thou wilt indeed look on the affliction of thy handmaid, and remember me, and not forget thy handmaid, but wilt give to thy handmaid a man child, then I will give him to Jehovah all the days of his life, and there shall no razor come upon his head.' ¹² And it came to pass, as she continued praying before Jehovah, that Eli marked her mouth. ¹³ Now Hannah, she spake in her heart; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard; therefore Eli thought she had been drunken. ¹⁴ And Eli said to her, 'How long wilt thou be drunken? Put away thy wine from thee.' ¹⁵ And Hannah answered and said, 'No, my lord, I am a woman of a sorrowful spirit. I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but I poured out my soul before Jehovah. ¹⁶ Count not thy handmaid for a daughter of Belial. For out of the abundance of my complaint and grief have I been speaking hitherto.' ¹⁷ Then Eli answered and said, 'Go in peace. And may the God of Israel grant thee thy petition that thou hast asked of him.' ¹⁸ And she said, 'Let thy handmaid find grace in thy sight.' So the woman went her way, and did eat, and her countenance was not as it had been.

¹⁹ And they rose up in the morning early, and worshipped before Jehovah, and returned, and came to their house at Ramah. And Elkanah knew Hannah his wife; and Jehovah remembered her. ²⁰ Therefore it came to pass, when the time was come about, after Hannah had conceived, that she bare a son, and called his name Samuel, [saying,] 'Because I have asked him of Jehovah.' ²¹ And the man Elkanah, and all his house, went up to sacrifice to Jehovah the yearly sacrifice, and his vow. ²² But Hannah went not up, for she said to her husband, 'Wait until the child be weaned, and I may bring him, that he may appear before Jehovah, and there abide for ever.' ²³ And Elkanah her husband said to her, 'Do what seemeth good to thee. Tarry until thou have weaned him; only may Jehovah establish his word.' So the woman abode, and gave her son suck until she weaned him.

²⁴ And when she had weaned him, she took him up with her, with three bullocks, and one Ephah [or Bushel] of meal, and a bottle of wine, and she brought him to the House of Jehovah in Shiloh. And the child was very young. ²⁵ And they slew a bullock, and brought the child to Eli. ²⁶ And she said, 'Oh my lord, as thy soul liveth, my lord, I am the woman that stood by thee here, praying to Jehovah. ²⁷ I prayed for this child; and Jehovah hath given me my petition which I asked of him. ²⁸ And also I have lent him to Jehovah, as long as he liveth he shall be a loan to Jehovah.' And they worshipped Jehovah there.

2 And Hannah prayed and said, 'My heart rejoiceth in Jehovah, My horn is exalted in Jehovah; My mouth is enlarged over mine enemies; Because I rejoiced in thy salvation. ² None is holier as Jehovah; for beside thee is none; Neither is there any rock like our God.

³ Talk no more so exceeding proudly, With arrogance coming out of your mouth; For Jehovah is a God of knowledge, And by him actions are weighed; ⁴ The bows of the warriors are broken, And they that stumbled are girded with strength; ⁵ The full have hired out themselves for bread, And the hungry are so no longer; ⁶ The woman hitherto barren hath borne seven, And she that hath many children languisheth.

⁷ Jehovah killeth and maketh alive; He bringeth down to the grave, and bringeth up. ⁸ Jehovah maketh poor, and maketh rich; He bringeth low, and he also lifteth up. ⁹ He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, And lifteth up the beggar from the dunghill, To make them sit among princes; And he maketh them to inherit a throne of glory. ¹⁰ For the pillars of the earth are Jehovah's, And upon them he hath set the world.

‘And he will keep the feet of his godly ones,
 ‘He and the wicked will be silent in darkness ;
 ‘For by strength will no man prevail.
 ‘They that strive against Jehovah will be dismayed ;
 ‘Out of heaven will he thunder upon them ;
 ‘Jehovah will judge the ends of the earth ;
 ‘And he will give strength to his king,
 ‘And exalt the horn of his anointed.’

¹¹ And Elkanah went to Ramah to his house. And the child did minister unto Jehovah before Eli the priest.

¹² Now the sons of Eli were sons of Belial ; they knew not Jehovah. ¹³ And the priests’ custom with the people was, that, when any man sacrificed a sacrifice, the priest’s servant came, while the flesh was boiling, with a fleshhook of three teeth in his hand ; ¹⁴ and he struck it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot ; all that the fleshhook brought up the priest took for himself. So they did in Shiloh to all the Israelites that came thither. ¹⁵ Also before they burnt the fat for incense, the priest’s servant came, and said to the man that sacrificed, ‘Give flesh to be roasted for the priest ; for he will not receive cooked flesh of thee, but ‘raw.’ ¹⁶ And if any man said to him, ‘Let them ‘not fail to burn the fat for incense at once, and ‘then take as much as thy soul desireth ;’ then he would answer him, ‘Nay ; but thou shalt give it ‘me now ; and if not, I will take it by force.’ ¹⁷ Therefore the sin of the young men was very great before Jehovah ; for men abhorred to make the offering to Jehovah.

²⁰ And Eli blessed Elkanah and his wife, and said, ‘May Jehovah give thee seed of this woman ‘in place of that asked for, which is lent to Jehovah.’ And they went to their own home. ²¹ And Jehovah visited Hannah, so that she conceived, and bare three sons and two daughters. And the child Samuel grew before Jehovah.

²² Now Eli was very old, and heard all that his sons did to all Israel ; and how they lay with the women that crowded to the doorway of the Tent of Meeting. ²³ And he said to them, ‘Why do ye do ‘such things ? For I hear of your evil dealings by ‘all this people. ²⁴ Nay, my sons ; for it is no good ‘report that I hear. Ye make Jehovah’s people to ‘transgress. ²⁵ If one man sin against another, ‘God may acquit him ; but if a man sin against ‘Jehovah, who shall entreat for him ?’ Notwithstanding, they hearkened not to the voice of their father, because it was the wish of Jehovah to slay them. ²⁶ And the child Samuel grew on, and was in favour both with Jehovah and also with men.

²⁷ And there came a man of God to Eli, and said to him, ‘Thus saith Jehovah, Did I plainly ‘reveal myself to the house of thy father, when ‘they were in Lower Egypt in Pharaoh’s house ?

 ‘²⁸ And did I choose him out of all the tribes of ‘Israel to be my priest, to offer up on mine altar, ‘to burn incense, to wear an Ephod before me ?
 ‘And did I give to the house of thy father all the ‘offerings made by fire of the children of Israel ?
 ‘²⁹ Wherefore kick ye at my sacrifice and at my ‘meal offering, which I have commanded in my ‘habitation ; and honourest thy sons above me, to ‘make yourselves fat with the chiefest of all the ‘offerings of Israel my people ? ³⁰ Therefore (Jehovah the God of Israel hath said it) I said indeed that thy house, and the house of thy father, ‘should walk before me for ever ; but now, Jehovah hath said it, be it far from me ; for them that ‘honour me I will honour, and they that despise ‘me shall be lightly esteemed. ³¹ Behold, the days ‘will come that I will cut off thy seed, and the ‘seed of thy father’s house, that there shall not be ‘an old man in thy house. ³² And thou shalt see ‘adversity in thy habitation, in all wherein Israel ‘hath prospered ; and there shall not be an old ‘man in thy house for ever. ³³ And the man of ‘thine, whom I shall not cut off from mine altar, ‘shall be to consume thine eyes, and to grieve thy ‘soul. And all the increase of thy house shall die ‘when men. ³⁴ And this shall be a sign unto thee, ‘that shall come upon thy two sons, on Hophni and ‘Phinehas ; in one day they shall die both of ‘them. ³⁵ And I will raise up for myself a faithful ‘priest [Zadok], that shall do according to that ‘which is in my heart and in my soul. And I will ‘build unto him a sure house ; and he shall walk ‘before mine anointed all his days. ³⁶ And it shall ‘come to pass, that every one that is left in thy ‘house shall come and crouch to him for a silver ‘Gerah [or penny] and a circular loaf of bread, and ‘shall say, Put me, I pray thee, into one of the ‘priests’ offices, that I may eat a morsel of bread.’

3 And the child Samuel ministered unto Jehovah before Eli. And the word of Jehovah was precious in those days ; divine visions were not frequent. ² And it came to pass at that time, when Eli was laid down to sleep in his place, and his eyes began to be weak, that he could not see ; ³ and before the lamp of God was put out, and Samuel was laid down to sleep in the temple of Jehovah, where the Ark of God was ; ⁴ that Jehovah called to Samuel. And he answered, ‘Here ‘I am.’ ⁵ And he ran to Eli, and said, ‘Here I ‘am ; for thou calledst me.’ And he said, ‘I ‘called not ; lie down again.’ And he went and lay down. ⁶ And Jehovah called yet again, ‘Samuel.’ And Samuel arose, and went to Eli, and said, ‘Here I am ; for thou didst call me.’ And he answered, ‘I called not, my son ; lie down ‘again.’ ⁷ Now Samuel did not yet know Jehovah, neither was the word of Jehovah yet revealed to him. ⁸ And Jehovah called Samuel again the third time. And he arose and went to Eli, and said, ‘Here I am, for thou didst call me.’ And Eli perceived that Jehovah had called the child.

⁹Therefore Eli said to Samuel, 'Go, lie down; and 'it shall be, if He call thee, thou shalt say, Speak, 'O Jehovah; for thy servant heareth.' So Samuel went and lay down in his place. ¹⁰And Jehovah came, and stood, and called as at other times, 'Samuel, Samuel.' Then Samuel answered, 'Speak; 'for thy servant heareth.' ¹¹And Jehovah said to Samuel, 'Behold, I will do a thing in Israel, at 'which both the ears of every one that heareth it 'shall tingle. ¹²In that day I will perform 'against Eli all things which I have spoken concerning his house, from beginning to end. ¹³For 'I have told him that I will judge his house for 'ever for the iniquity which he knoweth; because 'his sons made themselves vile, and he restrained 'them not. ¹⁴And therefore I have sworn unto 'the house of Eli, that the iniquity of Eli's house 'shall not be purged by sacrifice nor meal offering 'for ever.'

¹⁵And Samuel lay until the morning, and then he opened the doors of the House of Jehovah. And Samuel feared to show to Eli the vision. ¹⁶Then Eli called Samuel, and said, 'Samuel, my 'son.' And he answered, 'Here I am.' ¹⁷And he said, 'What is the thing that hath been spoken 'to thee? I pray thee, hide it not from me. God 'do so to thee, and more also, if thou hide a word 'from me of all the things that were spoken to 'thee.' ¹⁸And Samuel told him every word, and hid nothing from him. And he said, 'It is Jeho- 'vah. Let him do what seemeth him good.'

¹⁹And Samuel grew, and Jehovah was with him; and he did let none of his words fall to the ground. ²⁰And all Israel from Dan even to Beer-sheba knew that Samuel was established to be a prophet of Jehovah. ²¹And Jehovah continued to appear in Shiloh; for Jehovah revealed himself to Samuel in Shiloh by the word of Jehovah; and the word of Samuel came to all Israel.

NOW ISRAEL WENT OUT against the Philistines to battle, and pitched beside Eben-ezer; and the Philistines pitched in Aphek. ²And the Philistines set themselves in array against Israel; and when the battle spread, Israel was smitten before the Philistines. And there were slain of the ranks in the field about four thousand men.

³And when the people were come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, 'Wherefore hath 'Jehovah smitten us to-day before the Philistines? 'Let us fetch the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah 'out of Shiloh unto us, that, when it cometh among 'us, it may save us out of the grasp of our enemies.' ⁴So the people sent to Shiloh, and they carried from thence the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah of hosts, who dwelleth between the cherubs. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the Ark of the Covenant of God. ⁵And it came to pass when the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah came into the camp, that all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the earth rang again. ⁶And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, 'What meaneth the noise

'of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews? And they understood that the Ark of Jehovah was come into the camp. ⁷And the Philistines were afraid, for they said, 'God is come into the camp.' And they said, 'Woe unto us! for there hath not 'been such a thing heretofore. ⁸Woe unto us! 'who shall deliver us out of the hand of these 'mighty Gods? These are the very Gods that 'smote the Egyptians with all the slaughter in the 'desert. ⁹Be strong, and acquit yourselves like 'men, O ye Philistines, that ye be not servants to 'the Hebrews, as they have been servants to you. 'Acquit yourselves like men, and fight.' ¹⁰And the Philistines fought, and Israel was smitten, and they fled every man to his tent. And there was a very great slaughter; for there fell of Israel thirty thousand men on foot. ¹¹And the Ark of God was taken; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were slain.

¹²And there ran a man of Benjamin out of the ranks, and came to Shiloh the same day with his clothes rent, and with earth upon his head. ¹³And when he came, lo, Eli sat upon a seat by the way-side watching; for his heart trembled for the Ark of God. And when the man came into the city, and told it, all the city cried out. ¹⁴And when Eli heard the noise of the crying, he said, 'What 'meaneth the noise of this tumult? And the man came in hastily, and told Eli. ¹⁵Now Eli was ninety and eight years old; and his eyes were fixed, and he could not see. ¹⁶And the man said to Eli, 'I am he that came out of the ranks, and I 'fled to-day out of the ranks.' And he said, 'What is there done, my son?' ¹⁷And he that brought the news answered and said, 'Israel is fled 'before the Philistines, and there hath been also a 'great slaughter among the people, and thy two 'sons also, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, and the 'Ark of God is taken.' ¹⁸And it came to pass, when he made mention to him of the Ark of God, that he fell from off the seat backward by the side of the city gate, and his neck broke, and he died. For he was an old man, and heavy. And he had judged Israel for forty years.

¹⁹And his daughter in law, Phinehas' wife, was with child, near to be delivered. And when she heard the tidings that the Ark of God was taken, and that her father in law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself and travailed; for her pains came upon her. ²⁰And about the time of her death, the woman that stood by her said to her, 'Fear not; for thou hast borne a son.' But she answered not, neither did she give her heart to it. ²¹And she named the child I-chabod [or No-glory], saying, 'The glory is departed from 'Israel; because the Ark of God was taken, and because of her father in law and her husband. ²²And she said, 'The glory is departed from 'Israel; for the Ark of God is taken.'

⁵And the Philistines took the Ark of God, and brought it from Eben-ezer to Ashdod. ²When the Philistines took the Ark of God, they brought set into the house of Dagon [or the Fish God], and set it by the side of Dagon. ³And when the men of Ashdod arose early on the morrow, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the ground before the Ark of Jehovah. And they took Dagon, and set him in his place again. ⁴And when they arose early on the morrow morning, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the ground before the Ark of Jehovah; and Dagon's head and both the palms of his hands were cut off upon the threshold; only the fishy part was left to him. ⁵Therefore neither the priests of Dagon, nor any that come into Dagon's house, tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod unto this day.

⁶And the hand of Jehovah was heavy upon the men of Ashdod, and he destroyed them, and smote them with swellings, even Ashdod and the boundaries thereof. ⁷And when the men of Ashdod saw that it was so, they said, 'The Ark of the God of Israel shall not abide with us. For his hand is hard upon us, and upon Dagon our God.' ⁸They sent therefore and gathered all the lords of the Philistines unto them, and said, 'What shall we do with the Ark of the God of Israel?' And they answered, 'Let Gath carry about the Ark of the God of Israel.' And they carried the Ark of the God of Israel about. ⁹And it was so, that, after they had carried it about, the hand of Jehovah was against the city with a very great trouble. And he smote the men of the city, both small and great, and swellings broke out upon them. ¹⁰Therefore they sent away the Ark of God to Ekron.

And it came to pass, as the Ark of God came to Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, saying, 'They have carried about the Ark of the God of Israel unto us, to slay us and our people.' ¹¹So they sent and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and said, 'Send away the Ark of the God of Israel, and let it go again to its own place, that it slay us not, and our people.' For there was a deadly trouble throughout all the city; the hand of God was very heavy there. ¹²And the men that died not were smitten with the swellings; and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

⁶ And the Ark of Jehovah was in the country of the Philistines for seven months. ² And the Philistines called for the priests and the diviners, saying, 'What shall we do to the Ark of Jehovah?' 'Tell us wherewith we shall send it to its own place.' ³ And they said, 'If ye send away the Ark of the God of Israel, send it not away empty; but in any wise return to him a guilt offering. Then ye shall be healed, and it shall be known to you why His hand was not removed from you.' ⁴ Then said they, 'What shall be the guilt offering which we shall return to him?' They answered, 'According to the number of the lords of the Philistines, five golden swellings and five golden mice; for one plague is on you all, and on your lords. ⁵ Therefore ye shall make images of your swellings, and images of your mice that mar the land; and ye shall give glory to the God of Israel. Per-

'adventure he will lighten his hand from off you, and from off your gods, and from off your land. ⁶ Wherefore then do ye harden your hearts, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? ⁷ When he had wrought wonderfully among them, did they not let the people go, and they departed? ⁸ Now therefore take and make a new cart, and take two milk cows, on which there hath come no yoke, and tie the cows to the cart, and send their calves home from them. ⁹ And take the Ark of Jehovah, and lay it upon the cart; and put the jewels of gold, which ye return him for a guilt offering, in a coffer by the side thereof; and send it away, that it may go. ¹⁰ And see, if it goeth up by the way of its own boundary to Beth-shemesh, then He hath done us this great evil. But if not, then we shall know that it is not His hand that smote us; it was a chance that happened to us.'

¹⁰ And the men did so, and took two milk cows, and tied them to a cart, and shut up their calves at home. ¹¹ And they laid the Ark of Jehovah upon the cart, and the coffer with the mice of gold and the images of their boils. ¹² And the cows took the straight way on the way of Beth-shemesh, and went along the one highway, lowing as they went, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left; and the lords of the Philistines went after them unto the boundary of Beth-shemesh. ¹³ And the men of Beth-shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley; and they lifted up their eyes, and saw the Ark, and rejoiced to see it. ¹⁴ And the cart came into the field of Joshua, a Beth-shemite, and stood there, where there was a great stone. And they cut up the wood of the cart, and offered up the cows as a burnt offering to Jehovah. ¹⁵ And the Levites took down the Ark of Jehovah, and the coffer that was with it, wherein the jewels of gold were, and put them on the great stone. And the men of Beth-shemesh offered up burnt offerings and sacrificed sacrifices the same day to Jehovah. ¹⁶ And when the five lords of the Philistines had seen it, they returned to Ekron the same day.

¹⁷ And these are the golden boils which the Philistines returned for a guilt offering unto Jehovah; for Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Askalon one, for Gath one, for Ekron one; ¹⁸ and the golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, both of fenced cities, and of hamlets of the villagers. And the great [stone] of Abel [or mourning], whereon they set down the Ark of Jehovah, is a witness unto this day in the field of Joshua, the Beth-shemite.

¹⁹ And [Jehovah] smote the men of Beth-shemesh, because they had looked into the Ark of Jehovah, even he smote of the people fifty thousand and seventy men. And the people mourned, because Jehovah had smitten many of the people with a great slaughter. ²⁰ And the men of Beth-shemesh said, 'Who is able to stand before Jehovah this holy God? And to whom shall he go up from us?' ²¹ And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of the City of Jearim, saying, 'The Philistines have sent back the Ark of Jehovah. Come ye down, and fetch it up to yourselves.'

7 And the men of the City of Jearim came, and fetched up the Ark of Jehovah; and they brought it into the house of Abinadab in Gibeon [for Gibeon], and they sanctified Eleazar his son to keep the Ark of Jehovah. 2 And it came to pass from the day that the Ark abode in the City of Jearim, that the days were many; for it was twenty years; and all the house of Israel lamented after Jehovah.

3 And Samuel spake to all the house of Israel, saying, 'If ye do return to Jehovah with all your hearts, and put away the foreign gods and Ash-toroth from among you, and prepare your hearts unto Jehovah, and serve him alone; then he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines.' 4 Then the children of Israel did put away Baal and Ashtaroth, and served Jehovah alone. 5 And Samuel said, 'Gather all Israel to Mizpeh, and I will pray for you unto Jehovah.' 6 And they gathered themselves together to Mizpeh, and drew water, and poured it out before Jehovah, and fasted on that day, and said there, 'We have sinned against Jehovah.' And Samuel judged the children of Israel in Mizpeh.

7 And when the Philistines heard that the children of Israel were gathered together to Mizpeh, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the children of Israel heard it, they were afraid of the Philistines. 8 And the children of Israel said to Samuel, 'Cease not to cry to Jehovah our God for us, that he may save us out of the hand of the Philistines.' 9 And Samuel took a suckling lamb, and offered it up for a whole burnt offering unto Jehovah. 10 And Samuel cried to Jehovah on behalf of Israel; and Jehovah answered him. And as Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel. But Jehovah thundered with a great noise on that day upon the Philistines, and discomfited them; and they were smitten before Israel. 11 And the men of Israel went out from Mizpeh, and pursued the Philistines, and smote them, until they came under Beth-car. 12 Then Samuel took a stone, and set it between Mizpeh and Shen, and called the name of it Eben-ezer [or Stone of Help], saying, 'Hitherto hath Jehovah helped us.'

13 So the Philistines were subdued, and they came no more within the boundary of Israel. And the hand of Jehovah was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel. 14 And the cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron even unto Gath; and the boundaries thereof did Israel deliver out of the hands of the Philistines. And there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.

15 And Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life. 16 And he went from year to year in circuit to Beth-el, and Gilgal, and Mizpeh, and judged

Israel in all those places. 17 And his return was to Ramah; for there was his house. And there he judged Israel; and there he built an altar unto Jehovah.

8 And it came to pass, when Samuel was old, that he made his sons judges over Israel. 2 Now the name of his firstborn was Joel; and the name of his second, Abiah. They were judges in Beer-sheba. 3 And his sons walked not in his ways, but turned aside after lucre, and took bribes, and perverted judgment. 4 Then all the elders of Israel gathered themselves together, and came to Samuel at Ramah, 5 and said to him, 'Behold, thou art old, and thy sons walk not in thy ways. Now make us a king to judge us like all the nations.' 6 But the thing was evil in the eyes of Samuel, when they said, 'Give us a king to judge us.' And Samuel prayed to Jehovah. 7 And Jehovah said to Samuel, 'Hearken to the voice of the people in all that they say to thee. For they have not rejected thee, but they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them.' 8 According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even unto this day, wherewith they have forsaken me, and served other gods, so do they also to thee. 9 But now hearken to their voice. Howbeit yet protest solemnly unto them, and shew them the manner of the king that will reign over them.'

10 And Samuel told all the words of Jehovah to the people that asked of him a king. 11 And he said, 'This will be the manner of the king that will reign over you. He will take your sons, and appoint them for himself, for his chariots, and to be his horsemen; and some shall run before his chariots. 12 And he will appoint for himself captains over thousands, and captains over fifties; and will take some to plough his ground, and to reap his harvest, and to make his instruments of war, and instruments of his chariots. 13 And he will take your daughters to be ointment makers, and to be cooks, and to be bakers. 14 And he will take your fields, and your vineyards, and your oliveyards, even the best of them, and give them to his servants. 15 And he will take the tenth of your seed, and of your vineyards, and give to his chamberlains, and to his servants. 16 And he will take your men-servants, and your maid-servants, and your goodliest young men, and your asses, and put them to his work. 17 He will take the tenth of your sheep. And ye will be his servants. 18 And ye will cry out in that day because of your king which ye shall have chosen for yourselves; and Jehovah will not answer you in that day.' 19 Nevertheless the people refused to obey the voice of Samuel; and they said, 'Nay; but we will have a king over us; 20 that we also may be like all the nations; and that our king may judge us, and go out before us, and fight our battles.' 21 And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and he rehearsed them in the ears of Jehovah. 22 And Jehovah said to Samuel, 'Hearken to their voice,

'and make them a king.' And Samuel said to the men of Israel, 'Go ye every man to his city.'

9 NOW THERE WAS A MAN of Benjamin, whose name was Kish, the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Bechorath, the son of Aphiah, the son of a man a Jaminite [or a Benjamite], a warrior of valour. ² And he had a son, whose name was Saul, a choice young man, and a goodly; and there was not among the children of Israel a goodlier man than he. From his shoulders and upward he was taller than any of the people. ³ And the asses of Kish Saul's father were lost. And Kish said to Saul his son, 'Take now one of the servants with thee, and arise, go seek the asses.'

⁴ And he passed through the hill country of Ephraim, and passed through the land of Shalisha, but they found them not. Then they passed through the land of Shalim, and there they were not. And he passed through the land of the Jaminites, but they found them not. ⁵ And when they were come to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant that was with him, 'Come, and let us return; lest my father leave caring for the asses, and fear for us.' ⁶ And he said to him; 'Behold now, there is in this city a man of God, and he is a man to be honoured. All that he saith cometh surely to pass. Now let us go thither; peradventure he can shew us our way that we should go.' ⁷ Then said Saul to his servant, 'But, behold, if we go, what shall we bring the man? For the bread is spent in our vessels, and there is not a present to bring to the man of God. What have we?' ⁸ And the servant answered Saul again, and said, 'Behold, I happen to have in my hand the fourth part of a Shekel of silver. That will I give to the man of God, to tell us our way.' ⁹ Beforetime in Israel, when a man went to inquire of God, thus he spake, 'Come, and let us go to the seer; for a Prophet of to-day was beforetime called a Seer.' ¹⁰ Then said Saul to his servant, 'Well said; come, let us go.' So they went to the city where the man of God was.

¹¹ And as they went up the hill-road to the city, they found young maidens going out to draw water, and said to them, 'Is the seer here?' ¹² And they answered them, and said, 'He is. Behold, he is before you. Make haste now, for he came to-day to the city; for there is a sacrifice of the people to-day on the High Place [or Altar].' ¹³ As soon as ye be come into the city, ye shall straightway find him, before he go up to the High Place to eat. For the people will not eat until he come, because he doth bless the sacrifice; and afterwards they that be bidden will eat. Now therefore get you up; for about this time ye will find him.' ¹⁴ And they went up into the city. And when they were come into the city, behold, Samuel came out against them, for to go up to the High Place.

¹⁵ Now Jehovah had revealed to Samuel in his ear a day before Saul came, saying, ¹⁶ 'To-morrow about this time I will send to thee a man out of the land of Benjamin, and thou shalt anoint him to be

'captain over my people Israel, that he may save my people out of the hand of the Philistines. For I have looked upon my people, because their cry is come unto me.' ¹⁷ And when Samuel saw Saul, Jehovah said to him, 'Behold the man whom I spake to thee of! This same shall rule over my people.' ¹⁸ Then Saul drew near to Samuel in the city gate, and said, 'Tell me, I pray thee, where the seer's house is.' ¹⁹ And Samuel answered Saul and said, 'I am the seer. Go up before me to the High Place. For ye shall eat with me to-day, and to-morrow I will let thee go, and will tell thee all that is in thy heart.' ²⁰ And as for thine asses that were lost three days ago, set not thy heart on them; for they are found. And on whom is all the desire of Israel? Is it not on thee, and on all thy father's house?' ²¹ And Saul answered and said, 'Am not I a Benjamite, of the smallest of the tribes of Israel? and my family the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? Wherefore then speakest thou so to me?' ²² And Samuel took Saul and his servant, and brought them into the chamber, and gave to them a place at the head of them that were bidden, who were about thirty men. ²³ And Samuel said to the cook, 'Bring the portion which I gave thee, of which I said unto thee, Set it by thee.' ²⁴ And the cook took up the leg, and that which was upon it, and set it before Saul. And [Samuel] said, 'Behold that which is left! Set it before thee, and eat. For unto this appointed time hath it been kept for thee since I said, I have invited the people.' So Saul did eat with Samuel that day.

²⁵ And when they were come down from the High Place into the city, he spake with Saul upon the roof of the house. ²⁶ And they arose early. And it came to pass as daybreak arose, that Samuel called to Saul on the roof of the house, saying, 'Up, that I may send thee away.' And Saul arose, and they went out both of them, he and Samuel, abroad. ²⁷ And as they were going down to the end of the city, Samuel said to Saul, 'Bid the servant pass on before us,' (and he passed on,) 'but stand thou still a while, that I may shew thee the word of God.'

10 Then Samuel took a vial of oil, and poured it on his head, and kissed him, and said, 'Is it not that Jehovah hath anointed thee to be captain over his inheritance? ² When thou art departed from me to-day, then thou shalt find two men by Rachel's sepulchre in the border of Benjamin at Zelzah; and they will say to thee, The asses which thou wentest to seek are found; and lo, thy father hath left the care of the asses, and feareth for you, saying, What shall I do for my son?' ³ Then shalt thou go on forward from thence and beyond; and thou shalt come to the Oak of Tabor, and there shall meet thee three men going up to God to Bethel, one carrying three kids, and another carrying three circular loaves of bread, and another carrying a bottle of wine. ⁴ And they will salute thee, and give thee two loaves of bread;

'which thou shalt receive from their hands. ⁵ After that thou shalt come to the Gibeah [or Hill] of God, where is the garrison of the Philistines. And it shall come to pass, when thou art come thither to the city, that thou wilt meet a band of prophets coming down from the High Place with a psaltery, and a timbrel, and a pipe, and a harp, before them; and they will prophesy; ⁶ and the spirit of Jehovah will come upon thee, and thou wilt prophesy with them, and wilt be turned into another man. ⁷ And let it be, when these signs are come to thee, that thou do as thy hand shall find; for God is with thee. ⁸ And thou shalt go down before me to Gilgal; and behold I will come down to thee to offer up burnt offerings, and to sacrifice sacrifices of peace offerings. Seven days shalt thou tarry, till I come to thee, and shew thee what thou shalt do.'

⁹ And it was so, that when he had turned his back to go from Samuel, God gave him another heart; and all those signs came to pass that day. ¹⁰ And when they came thither to Gibeah, behold, a band of prophets met him. And the spirit of God came upon him, and he prophesied among them. ¹¹ And it came to pass, when all that knew him beforetime saw that, behold, he prophesied with the prophets, then the people said one to another, 'What is this that is come unto the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?' ¹² And one of the same place answered and said, 'But who is their father?' Therefore it became a proverb, 'Is Saul also among the prophets?'

¹³ And when he had made an end of prophesying, he came to the High Place. ¹⁴ And Saul's uncle said to him and to his servant, 'Whither went ye?' And he said, 'To seek the asses; and when we saw that they were no where, we came to Samuel.' ¹⁵ And Saul's uncle said, 'Tell me, I pray thee, what Samuel said to you.' ¹⁶ And Saul said to his uncle, 'He told us plainly that the asses were found.' But of the matter of the kingdom, he told him not what Samuel had said.

¹⁷ And Samuel called the people together unto Jehovah to Mizpeh. ¹⁸ And he said to the children of Israel, 'Thus saith Jehovah the God of Israel, 'I brought up Israel out of Lower Egypt, and delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all the kingdoms of them that oppressed you. ¹⁹ And ye have this day rejected your God, who himself saved you out of all your evils and your troubles; and ye have said to him, 'Nay, but set a king over us. Now therefore present yourselves before Jehovah by your tribes, and by your thousands.' ²⁰ And when Samuel had caused all the tribes of Israel to come near, the tribe of Benjamin was taken. ²¹ When he had caused the tribe of Benjamin to come near by their families, the family of Matri was taken, and Saul the son of Kish was taken; and when they sought him he could not be found. ²² Therefore they inquired of Jehovah further, 'Hath the man yet come hither?' And Jehovah answered, 'Behold, he

'hath hidden himself among the baggage.' ²³ And they ran and fetched him thence. And when he presented himself among the people he was higher than any of the people from his shoulders and upward. ²⁴ And Samuel said to all the people, 'See ye him whom Jehovah hath chosen, that there is none like him among all the people?' And all the people shouted, and said, 'May the king live.' ²⁵ Then Samuel told the people the Manner of the Kingdom, and wrote it in a book, and laid it up before Jehovah. And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house. ²⁶ And Saul also went home to Gibeah; and there went with him a band of men, whose hearts God had touched. ²⁷ But the sons of Belial said, 'How shall this man save us?' And they despised him, and brought him no presents. But he was as though he heard not.

¹¹ Then Nahash the Ammonite came up, and encamped against Jabesh in Gilead. And all the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, 'Make a covenant with us, and we will serve thee.' ² And Nahash the Ammonite answered them, 'On this condition will I make a covenant with you, that I may thrust out all your right eyes, and that I lay it for a reproach upon all Israel.' ³ And the elders of Jabesh said to him, 'Give us seven days' respite, that we may send messengers to all the boundaries of Israel; and then, if there be no man to save us, we will come out to thee.'

⁴ Then came the messengers to Gibeah of Saul, and told the tidings in the ears of the people. And all the people lifted up their voices, and wept. ⁵ And behold, Saul was coming after the herd out of the field. And Saul said, 'What aileth the people that they weep?' And they told him the tidings of the men of Jabesh. ⁶ And the spirit of God came upon Saul when he heard those tidings, and his anger was kindled greatly. ⁷ And he took a yoke of oxen, and hewed them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the boundaries of Israel by the hands of messengers, saying, 'Whosoever cometh not forth after Saul and after Samuel, so shall it be done to his oxen.' And the fear of Jehovah fell on the people, and they came out as one man. ⁸ And when he mustered them in Bezek, the children of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand. ⁹ And they said to the messengers that came, 'Thus shall ye say to the men of Jabesh in Gilead, To-morrow, by the time the sun is hot, ye shall have help.' And the messengers came and shewed it to the men of Jabesh. And they were glad. ¹⁰ Therefore the men of Jabesh said, 'To-morrow we will come out to you, and ye shall do with us all that is good in your eyes.' ¹¹ And it was so on the morrow, that Saul put the people in three companies. And they came into the midst of the camp in the morning watch, and slew the Ammonites until the heat of the day. And it came to pass, that they which remained were scattered, so that two of them were not left together.

And the people said to Samuel, 'Who is he

'that said, Shall Saul reign over us? Bring the men that we may put them to death.' ¹³ And Saul said, 'There shall not a man be put to death this day; for to-day Jehovah hath wrought salvation in Israel.'

¹⁴ Then said Samuel to the people, 'Come, and let us go to Gilgal, and renew the kingdom there.' ¹⁵ And all the people went to Gilgal; and there they made Saul king before Jehovah in Gilgal; and there they sacrificed sacrifices of peace offerings before Jehovah. And there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

¹² And Samuel said to all Israel, 'Behold, I have hearkened to your voice in all that ye said to me, and have made a king over you. ² And now, behold, the king walketh before you. And I am old and greyheaded; and behold, my sons are with you. And I have walked before you from my childhood unto this day. ³ Behold, here I am. Witness against me before Jehovah and before his anointed. Whose ox have I taken? or whose ass have I taken? or whom have I defrauded? whom have I oppressed? or from whose hand have I received any bribe to blind mine eyes therewith? and I will restore it you.' ⁴ And they said, 'Thou hast not defrauded us, nor oppressed us, neither hast thou taken aught from any man's hand.' ⁵ And he said to them, 'Jehovah is witness against you, and his anointed is witness this day, that ye have not found aught in my hand.' And they answered, 'He is witness.' ⁶ And Samuel said to the people, 'It is Jehovah that made Moses and Aaron, and that brought your fathers up out of the land of Lower Egypt. ⁷ Now therefore stand still, that I may reason with you before Jehovah of all the righteous acts of Jehovah, which he did to you and to your fathers. ⁸ When Jacob was come into Lower Egypt, and your fathers cried to Jehovah, then Jehovah sent Moses and Aaron, who brought forth your fathers out of Lower Egypt, and made them to dwell in this place. ⁹ And when they forgot Jehovah their God, he sold them into the hand of Sisera, captain of the army at Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab; and they fought against them. ¹⁰ And they cried to Jehovah, and said, We have sinned, because we have forsaken Jehovah, and have served Baal and Ashtaroth. But now deliver us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will serve thee. ¹¹ And Jehovah sent Jerubbaal, and the Danite [or Samson], and Jephthah, and Samuel, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side, and ye dwelled safe. ¹² And when ye saw that Nahash the king of the Children of Ammon came against you, ye said to me, Nay; but a king shall reign over us; when Jehovah your God was your king. ¹³ Now therefore behold the king whom ye have chosen, and whom ye asked for! And behold, Jehovah hath set a king over you. ¹⁴ If ye will fear Jehovah, and will serve him, and will obey his voice, and not rebel against the commands of Jehovah, then shall both ye, and also the king that reigneth over you, continue following Jehovah your God. ¹⁵ But if ye will not obey the voice of Jehovah, but rebel against the commands of Jehovah, then will the hand of Jehovah be against you, as it was against your fathers. ¹⁶ Now therefore stand and see this great thing, which Jehovah will do before your eyes. ¹⁷ Is it not wheat harvest to-day? I will call to Jehovah, and he will send thunder and rain; that ye may perceive and see that your wickedness is great, which ye have done in the sight of Jehovah, in asking for yourselves a king.' ¹⁸ So Samuel called to Jehovah; and Jehovah sent thunder and rain that day. And all the people greatly feared Jehovah and Samuel. ¹⁹ And all the people said to Samuel, 'Pray for thy servants unto Jehovah thy God, that we die not. For we have added to all our sins this evil, to ask for ourselves a king.' ²⁰ And Samuel said to the people, 'Fear not. Ye have done all this wickedness; yet turn not aside from following Jehovah, but serve Jehovah with all your heart. ²¹ And turn ye not aside after vain things, which cannot profit nor deliver; for they are vain. ²² For Jehovah will not forsake his people for his great name's sake; because it hath pleased Jehovah to make you his people. ²³ Moreover as for me, it were wrong that I should sin against Jehovah in ceasing to pray for you; but I will teach you the good and the right way. ²⁴ Only fear Jehovah, and serve him in truth with all your heart; for consider how great things he hath done for you. ²⁵ But if ye shall still do wickedly, ye will be cut off, both ye and your king.'

¹³ Saul was [fifty] years old when he began to reign; and when he had reigned two years over Israel, ² Saul chose him three thousand men of Israel; whereof two thousand were with Saul in Michmash and in the hill country of Beth-el, and a thousand were with Jonathan at Gibeah of Benjamin. And the rest of the people he sent every man to his tent. ³ And Jonathan smote the garrison of the Philistines that was at Gibeah, and the Philistines heard of it. And Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, 'Let those on the further side [of the Jordan] hear.' ⁴ And all Israel heard say that Saul had smitten the garrison of the Philistines, and that Israel also was had in abomination with the Philistines. And the people were called together after Saul to Gilgal. ⁵ And the Philistines gathered themselves together to fight with Israel, thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and people as the sand which is on the sea shore in multitude. And they came up, and pitched in Michmash, eastward from Beth-aven. ⁶ When the men of Israel saw that they were in a difficulty, (for the people were distressed,) then the people did hide themselves in caves, and in thickets, and in rocks, and in high towers, and in pits. ⁷ But those from the further side crossed over the Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead. As for Saul, he was yet in Gilgal, and all the people followed him trembling. ⁸ And he tarried seven days, according to the set time that Samuel had appointed. But Samuel came not to Gilgal; and the people were being scattered from him. ⁹ And Saul said, 'Bring hither a burnt-offering to 'me, and peace offerings.' And he offered up the burnt offering. ¹⁰ And it came to pass, that as soon as he had made an end of offering up the burnt offering, behold, Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him, that he might bless him. ¹¹ And Samuel said, 'What hast thou done?' And Saul said, 'Because I saw that the people were 'being scattered from me, and that thou earnest 'not within the days appointed, and that the 'Philistines were gathering themselves together at 'Michnash; ¹² therefore said I, the Philistines will 'come down now upon me to Gilgal, and I have not 'entreated the face of Jehovah; I forced myself 'therefore, and offered up a burnt offering.' ¹³ And Samuel said to Saul, 'Thou hast done foolishly. 'Thou hast not kept the command of Jehovah thy 'God, which he commanded thee. For now would 'Jehovah have established thy kingdom upon Israel 'for ever. ¹⁴ But now thy kingdom shall not continue. Jehovah hath sought for himself a man 'after his own heart; and Jehovah hath commanded him to be a captain over his people, 'because thou hast not kept what Jehovah commanded thee.'

¹⁵ And Samuel arose, and got him up from Gilgal to Gibeah of Benjamin. And Saul mustered the people that were found with him, about six hundred men. ¹⁶ And Saul, and Jonathan his son, and the people that were found with them, abode in Gibeah of Benjamin; but the Philistines encamped in Michnash.

¹⁷ And the plunderers came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies. One company turned to the way that leadeth to Ophrah, unto the land of Shual; ¹⁸ and another company turned the way to Beth-horon; and another company turned to the way of the boundary that looketh to the valley of Zeboim toward the desert.

¹⁹ Now there was no smith found throughout all the land of Israel; for the Philistines said, 'Lest 'the Hebrews make them swords or spears.' ²⁰ But all the Israelites went down to the Philistines, to sharpen every man his plowshare, and his coulter, and his axe, and his mattock. (²¹ But there was a file for the edges of the mattocks, and the coulters, and the three-pronged forks, and the axes, and to point the goads.) ²² So it came to pass in the day of battle, that there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people that were with Saul and Jonathan; but with Saul and with Jonathan his son was there found. ²³ And the garrison of the Philistines went out to the passage at Michnash.

¹⁴ Now it came to pass upon a day, that Jonathan the son of Saul said to the young man that bare his armour, 'Come, and let us go over to 'the Philistines' garrison, that is on the other side,

But he told not his father. ² And Saul tarried in the uttermost part of Gibeah under [the rock of] Rimmon which is in Migron. And the people that were with him were about six hundred men; and ³ Ahiah, the son of Ahitub, I-chabod's brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, Jehovah's priest in Shiloh, wearing an Ephod [or priestly robe]. And the people knew not that Jonathan was gone. ⁴ And between the passages, by which Jonathan sought to pass over to the Philistines' garrison, there was a crag of rock on the one side, and a crag of rock on the other side. And the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh. ⁵ The one crag was situate northward over against Michnash, and the other southward over against Gibeah. ⁶ And Jonathan said to the young man that bare his armour, 'Come, and let us go over to the garrison of these uncircumcised; it may be that 'Jehovah will work for us. For there is no hindrance to Jehovah to save by many or by few.' ⁷ And his armour-bearer said to him, 'Do all that 'is in thy heart. Turn thee; behold, I am with 'thee according to thy heart.' ⁸ Then said Jonathan, 'Behold, we will pass over to the men, and we will 'discover ourselves to them. ⁹ If they say thus to 'us, Tarry until we come to you; then we will 'stand still in our place, and will not go up to 'them. ¹⁰ But if they say thus, Come up to us; 'then we will go up. For Jehovah hath delivered 'them into our hand; and this shall be the sign to 'us.' ¹¹ And both of them discovered themselves to the garrison of the Philistines; and the Philistines said, 'Behold, the Hebrews come forth out of 'the holes where they had hid themselves.' ¹² And the men of the garrison answered Jonathan and his armour-bearer, and said, 'Come up to us, and we 'will shew you a thing.' And Jonathan said to his armour-bearer, 'Come up after me; for Jehovah 'hath delivered them into the hand of Israel.' ¹³ And Jonathan climbed up upon his hands and upon his feet, and his armour-bearer after him; and they fell before Jonathan; and his armour-bearer slew after him. ¹⁴ And that first slaughter, which Jonathan and his armour-bearer made, was about twenty men, within as it were the half of a field, which a yoke of oxen might plow. ¹⁵ And there was trembling in the camp, in the field, and among all the people; the garrison, and the plunderers, they also trembled, and the earth quaked; so it was a trembling before God. ¹⁶ And the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked, and behold, the crowd melted away, and they went and were scattered. ¹⁷ Then said Saul to the people that were with him, 'Mustered 'now, and see who is gone from us.' And when they had mustered, behold, Jonathan and his armour-bearer were not there. ¹⁸ And Saul said to Ahiah, 'Bring hither the Ark of God.' For the Ark of God was at that time with the children of Israel. ¹⁹ And it came to pass, while Saul talked to the priest, that the tumult that was in the camp of the Philistines went on and increased. ²⁰ And Saul said to the priest, 'Withdraw thy hand.' And Saul and all the people that were with him were called together, and they came to the battle. And behold, every man's sword was against his fellow, in very great confusion. ²¹ Moreover the Hebrews that were with the Philistines before that time, who went up with them into the camp from round about, even they also turned to be with the Israelites that were with Saul and Jonathan. ²² Likewise all the men of Israel which had hid themselves in the hill country of Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines fled, even they also followed hard after them in the battle. ²³ So Jehovah saved Israel that day.

But the battle passed over to Beth-aven. ²⁴ And the men of Israel were distressed that day; for Saul had adjured the people, saying, 'Cursed be the man that eateth any food until evening, and I shall have been avenged on mine enemies.' So none of the people tasted any food. ²⁵ And all they of the land came to a wood; and there was honey upon the face of the field. ²⁶ And when the people were come into the wood, behold, the honey flowed; but no man put his hand to his mouth; for the people feared the oath. ²⁷ But Jonathan had not heard when his father charged the people with the oath. Therefore he put forth the end of the staff that was in his hand, and dipped it in a honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth; and his eyes were enlightened. ²⁸ Then answered one of the people, and said, 'Thy father strictly charged the people with an oath, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth any food this day.' And the people were faint. ²⁹ Then said Jonathan, 'My father hath troubled the land. See, I pray you, how mine eyes have been enlightened, because I tasted a little of this honey.' ³⁰ How much more, if haply the people had eaten freely to-day of the spoil of their enemies which they found? For had there not been now a much greater slaughter among the Philistines?

³¹ And they smote the Philistines that day from Michmash to Ajalon. And the people were very faint. ³² And the people rushed upon the spoil, and took sheep, and oxen, and calves, and slew them on the ground. And the people did eat with the blood. ³³ And they told Saul, saying, 'Behold, the people sin against Jehovah, in that they eat with the blood.' And he said, 'Ye have dealt treacherously. Roll a great stone unto me this day.' ³⁴ And Saul said, 'Scatter yourselves among the people, and say to them, Bring hither to me every man his ox, and every man his sheep, and slay them here, and eat; and sin not against Jehovah in eating with the blood.' And all the people brought every man his ox with him that night, and slew them there. ³⁵ And Saul built an altar unto Jehovah. The same was the first altar that he built unto Jehovah.

³⁶ And Saul said, 'Let us go down after the Philistines by night and plunder them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them.' And they said, 'Do whatsoever is good

'in thine eyes.' Then said the priest, 'Let us draw near hither unto God.' ³⁷ And Saul asked counsel of God, 'Shall I go down after the Philistines? Wilt thou deliver them into the hand of Israel?' But he answered him not that day. ³⁸ And Saul said, 'Draw near hither, all ye pillars of the people; and know and see wherein this sin hath been this day.' ³⁹ For, as Jehovah the saviour of Israel liveth, though it be in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die.' But there was not a man among all the people that answered him. ⁴⁰ Then said he to all Israel, 'Be ye on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side.' And the people said to Saul, 'Do what seemeth good unto thee.' ⁴¹ Then Saul said to Jehovah, 'O God of Israel, let [the lot] declare the truth.' And Saul and Jonathan were taken; but the people escaped. ⁴² And Saul said, 'Cast [lots] between me and Jonathan my son.' And Jonathan was taken. ⁴³ Then said Saul to Jonathan, 'Tell me what thou hast done.' And Jonathan told him, and said, 'I did but taste a little honey with the end of the staff that was in my hand, and lo, I must die.' ⁴⁴ And Saul answered, 'God do so and more also; for thou shalt surely die, Jonathan.' ⁴⁵ And the people said to Saul, 'Shall Jonathan die, who hath wrought this great salvation in Israel? It were wrong: as Jehovah liveth, there shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground. For he hath wrought with God this day.' So the people rescued Jonathan, that he died not. ⁴⁶ Then Saul went up from following the Philistines; and the Philistines went to their own place.

⁴⁷ So Saul took the kingdom over Israel, and fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, and against the Children of Ammon, and against Edom, and against the kings of Zobah, and against the Philistines; and whithersoever he turned himself, he punished them. ⁴⁸ And he did mighty acts, and smote the Amalekites, and delivered Israel out of the hands of them that plundered them.

⁴⁹ Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan, and Ishui, and Melchi-shua. And the names of his two daughters were these; the name of the first-born Merab, and the name of the younger Michal. ⁵⁰ And the name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam, the daughter of Ahimaaz; and the name of the captain of the host was Abner, the son of Ner, Saul's uncle. ⁵¹ And Kish the father of Saul, and Ner the father of Abner, were sons of Abiel. ⁵² And the war was sore against the Philistines all the days of Saul. And when Saul saw any mighty man, or any son of valour, he took him to himself.

15 Samuel also said to Saul, 'Jehovah sent me to anoint thee to be king over his people, over Israel; now therefore hearken thou to the voice of the words of Jehovah.' ² Thus saith Jehovah of hosts; I took note of what Amalek did to Israel, what he laid upon him in the way, when he came up from Lower Egypt. ³ Now go and smite the Amalekites, and utterly destroy all that they have,

'and be not tender to them; but slay both man and woman, babe and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass.' ⁴ And Saul called to the people, and mustered them in Telaim, two hundred thousand men on foot, and ten thousand men of Judah. ⁵ And Saul came to a city of Amalek, and laid wait in the valley. ⁶ And Saul said to the Kenites, 'Go, depart, get you down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them. For ye shewed kindness to all the children of Israel, when they came up out of Lower Egypt.' So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites. ⁷ And Saul smote the Amalekites from Havilah until thou comest to Shur [or Pelusium], that is over against Lower Egypt. ⁸ And he took Agag the king of the Amalekites alive, and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword. ⁹ But Saul and the people spared Agag, and the best of the sheep, and of the oxen, and those of the second sort, and the lambs, and all that was good, and were not willing utterly to destroy them. But every thing that was vile and refuse, that they destroyed utterly.

¹⁰ Then came the word of Jehovah to Samuel, saying, ¹¹ 'It repenteth me that I have set up Saul to be king; for he is turned back from following me, and hath not performed my commands.' And it grieved Samuel; and he cried to Jehovah all night. ¹² And when Samuel rose early to meet Saul in the morning, it was told Samuel, saying, 'Saul came to Carmel, and behold, he set up for himself a way-mark, and he hath made a circuit, and passed over [the Jordan], and hath gone down to Gilgal.'

¹³ And Samuel came to Saul. And Saul said to him, 'Blessed be thou of Jehovah. I have performed the command of Jehovah.' ¹⁴ And Samuel said, 'What meaneth then this bleating of the sheep in mine ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?' ¹⁵ And Saul said, 'They have brought them from the Amalekites. For the people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen, for a sacrifice unto Jehovah thy God; and the rest we have utterly destroyed.' ¹⁶ Then Samuel said to Saul, 'Stay, and I will tell thee what Jehovah hath said to me this night.' And he said to him, 'Say on.' ¹⁷ And Samuel said, 'Though thou wast little in thine own sight, art thou not the head of the tribes of Israel, and Jehovah anointed thee king over Israel?' ¹⁸ And 'Jehovah sent thee on a journey, and said, Go and utterly destroy the sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them until they be consumed.' ¹⁹ 'Wherefore then didst thou not obey the voice of Jehovah, but didst rush upon the spoil, and didst evil in the eyes of Jehovah?' ²⁰ And Saul said to Samuel, 'Yea, I have obeyed the voice of Jehovah, and have gone in the way which Jehovah sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have utterly destroyed the Amalekites.' ²¹ But the people took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the chief of the things doomed to be destroyed, to sacrifice to Jehovah thy God in Gilgal.' ²² And Samuel said, 'Hath Jehovah delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obedience to the voice of Jehovah? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams.' ²³ For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as idolatry and Teraphs [or Images]. Because thou hast rejected the word of Jehovah, he also will reject thee from being king.' ²⁴ And Saul said to Samuel, 'I have sinned. For I have transgressed the command of Jehovah, and thy words; because I feared the people, and obeyed their voice.' ²⁵ Now therefore, I pray thee, pardon my sin, and return with me, that I may worship Jehovah.' ²⁶ And Samuel said to Saul, 'I will not return with thee. For thou hast rejected the word of Jehovah, and Jehovah will reject thee from being king over Israel.'

²⁷ And as Samuel turned about to go away, he laid hold on the skirt of his mantle, and it rent. ²⁸ And Samuel said to him, 'Jehovah hath rent the kingdom of Israel from thee this day, and hath given it to a neighbour of thine, that is better than thou.' ²⁹ And also the Strength of Israel will not lie nor repent. For he is not a man, that he should repent.' ³⁰ Then he said, 'I have sinned. Yet honour me now, I pray thee, before the elders of my people, and before Israel, and return with me, that I may worship Jehovah thy God.' ³¹ So Samuel returned after Saul; and Saul worshipped Jehovah.

³² Then said Samuel, 'Bring ye hither to me Agag the king of the Amalekites.' And Agag came to him with joy. And Agag said, 'Surely the bitterness of death is removed.' ³³ But Samuel said, 'As thy sword hath made women childless, so shall thy mother be childless among women.' And Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before Jehovah in Gilgal.

³⁴ Then Samuel went to Ramah; and Saul went up to his house in Gibeah of Saul. ³⁵ And Samuel came no more to see Saul until the day of his death; for Samuel was sorry about Saul. And Jehovah repented that he had made Saul king over Israel.

¹⁶ And Jehovah said to Samuel, 'How long wilt thou be sorry about Saul, seeing I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? Fill thy horn with oil, and go, I will send thee to Jesse the Beth-lehemite; for I have provided me a king among his sons.' ² And Samuel said, 'How can I go? If Saul hear it, he will kill me.' And Jehovah said, 'Take a heifer with thee, and say, I am come to sacrifice to Jehovah.' ³ And call Jesse to the sacrifice; and I will shew thee what thou shalt do. And thou shalt anoint unto me him whom I name unto thee.' ⁴ And Samuel did that which Jehovah spake; and he came to Beth-lehem. And the elders of the town trembled at meeting him, and said, 'Comest thou peaceably?' ⁵ And he said, 'Peaceably. I am come to sacrifice unto Jehovah.' Sanctify yourselves, and come 'with me to the sacrifice.' And he sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice.

⁶ And it came to pass, when they were come, that he saw Eliab, and said, 'Surely the anointed of Jehovah is before him.' ⁷ But Jehovah said to Samuel, 'Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him. For it is not what man seeth. For man looketh on the eyes, but Jehovah looketh on the heart.' ⁸ Then Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, 'Neither hath Jehovah chosen this one.' ⁹ Then Jesse made Shammah to pass by. And he said, 'Neither hath Jehovah chosen this.' ¹⁰ Again, Jesse made seven of his sons to pass before Samuel. And Samuel said to Jesse, 'Jehovah hath not chosen these.' ¹¹ And Samuel said to Jesse, 'Are here all the young men?' And he said, 'There remaineth yet the youngest, and behold, he keepeth the sheep.' And Samuel said to Jesse, 'Send and fetch him. For we will not go away till he come hither.'

¹² And he sent, and brought him in. Now he was red-haired, and withal of beautiful eyes, and goodly to look at. And Jehovah said, 'Arise, anoint him; for this is he.' ¹³ Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the midst of his brethren. And the spirit of Jehovah came upon David from that day forward. So Samuel rose up, and went to Ramah.

¹⁴ But the spirit of Jehovah departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from Jehovah troubled him. ¹⁵ And Saul's servants said to him, 'Behold now, an evil spirit from God troubleth thee.' ¹⁶ Let our lord now command thy servants, who are before thee, to seek out a man who is a skilful player on the harp. And it shall come to pass, when the evil spirit from God is upon thee, that he shall play with his hand, and thou wilt be well.' ¹⁷ And Saul said to his servants, 'Provide me now a man that can play well, and bring him to me.' ¹⁸ Then answered one of the young men and said, 'Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Beth-lehemite, that is skilful in playing, and a mighty valiant man, and a man of war, and prudent in matters, and a comely person, and Jehovah is with him.' ¹⁹ Therefore Saul sent messengers to Jesse, and said, 'Send me David thy son, who is with the sheep.' ²⁰ And Jesse took an ass laden with bread, and a bottle of wine, and a kid of the goats, and sent them by the hand of David his son to Saul. ²¹ And David came to Saul, and stood before him. And he loved him greatly. And he became his armour bearer. ²² And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, 'Let David, I pray thee, stand before me; for he hath found favour in my sight.' ²³ And it came to pass, when the spirit from God was upon Saul, that David took a harp, and played with his hand. So spirit came on Saul, and he was well, and the evil spirit departed from him.

¹⁷ NOW THE PHILISTINES gathered together their armies to battle, and were gathered together at Sochoh, which belongeth to Judah, and pitched between Sochoh and Azekah, in Ephes-dammim. ² And Saul and the men of Israel were gathered together, and pitched in the valley of Elah, and set the battle in array against the Philistines. ³ And the Philistines stood on a mount on the one side, and Israel stood on a mount on the other side. And there was a low ground between them. ⁴ And there went out a champion out of the camp of the Philistines, named Goliath, of Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span. ⁵ And he had a helmet of copper upon his head, and he was clothed with a coat of mail with scales; and the weight of the coat of mail was five thousand Shekels [or one hundred and fifty pounds] of copper. ⁶ And he had greaves of copper upon his legs, and a javelin of copper between his shoulders. ⁷ And the staff of his spear was like a weaver's beam; and his spear's head was of six hundred Shekels of iron. And one bearing a shield went before him. ⁸ And he stood and called to the ranks of Israel, and said to them, 'Why are ye come out to set your battle in array? Am I not a Philistine, and ye servants to Saul? Choose ye a man for yourselves, and let him come down to me. ⁹ If he be able to fight with me, and to kill me, then will we be your servants. But if I prevail against him, and kill him, then shall ye be our servants, and serve us.' ¹⁰ And the Philistine said, 'I defy the army of Israel this day. Give me a man, that we may fight together.' ¹¹ And Saul and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, and they were dismayed, and greatly afraid.

¹² Now David was the son of that Ephrathite of Beth-lehem in Judah, whose name was Jesse. And he had eight sons; and the man went among men for an old man in the days of Saul. ¹³ And the three eldest sons of Jesse went and followed Saul to the battle. And the names of his three sons that went to the battle were Eliab the first-born, and next unto him Abinadab, and the third Shammah. ¹⁴ And David was the youngest. And the three eldest followed Saul, ¹⁵ but David went and returned from Saul to feed his father's sheep at Beth-lehem. ¹⁶ And the Philistine drew near morning and evening, and presented himself forty days. ¹⁷ And Jesse said to David his son, 'Take now for thy brethren an Ephah [or Bushel] of this parched corn, and these ten loaves, and run to the camp to thy brethren. ¹⁸ And carry these ten slices of cheese to the captain of their thousand, and look after the welfare of thy brethren, and fetch their pledge.' ¹⁹ Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines.

²¹ For Israel and the Philistines had put themselves in array, rank against rank. ²² And David left behind him his baggage in the hand of the keeper of the baggage, and ran into the ranks, and came and saluted his brethren. ²³ And as he talked with them, behold there came up the champion, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, out of the ranks of the Philistines, and spake according to the same words. And David heard them. ²⁴ And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man, fled from him, and were sore afraid. ²⁵ And the men of Israel said, 'Have ye seen this man 'that is come up? Surely to defy Israel is he 'come up. And it shall be, that the man who 'killeth him, the king will enrich him with great 'riches, and will give him his daughter, and make 'his father's house free in Israel.' ²⁶ And David spake to the men that stood by him, saying, 'What 'shall be done to the man that killeth this Philistine, and taketh away the reproach from Israel? 'For who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he 'should defy the army of the living God?' ²⁷ And the people answered him after this manner, saying, 'So shall it be done to the man that killeth him.' And Eliab his eldest brother heard when he spake to the men. ²⁸ And Eliab's anger was kindled against David, and he said, 'Why camest thou 'down hither? And with whom hast thou left 'those few sheep in the desert? I know thy pride, and the naughtiness of thy heart. For thou art 'come down that thou mightest see the battle.' ²⁹ And David said, 'What have I now done? Is 'not this a cause?' ³⁰ And he turned away from him toward another, and spake after the same manner. And the people answered him again after the former manner.

³¹ And when the words were heard which David spake, they rehearsed them before Saul. And he sent for him. ³² And David said to Saul, 'Let no 'man's heart fail because of him; thy servant will 'go and fight with this Philistine.' ³³ And Saul said to David, 'Thou art not able to go against this 'Philistine to fight with him. For thou art but a 'lad, and he a man of war from his youth.' ³⁴ And David said to Saul, 'Thy servant kept his father's 'sheep, and there came a lion, and with him a 'bear; and he took a lamb out of the flock. ³⁵ And 'I went out after him, and smote him, and delivered 'it out of his mouth. And when he rose against 'me, I caught him by his beard, and smote him, 'and slew him. ³⁶ Thy servant slew both the lion 'and the bear. And this uncircumcised Philistine 'shall be as one of them, seeing he hath defied the 'army of the living God.' ³⁷ David said moreover, 'Jehovah, who delivered me out of the paw of the 'lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will de- 'liver me out of the hand of this Philistine.' And Saul said to David, 'Go, and may Jehovah be with 'thee.'

³⁸ And Saul clothed David with his own garments, and he put a helmet of copper upon his head; also he clothed him with a coat of mail.

³⁹ And David girded his sword upon his garments, and he endeavoured to go; for he had not tried. And David said to Saul, 'I cannot go with these; 'for I have not tried.' And David put them off him. ⁴⁰ And he took his staff in his hand, and chose him five smooth stones out of the brook, and put them in a shepherd's bag which he had, and in a scrip; and his sling was in his hand. And he drew near to the Philistine. ⁴¹ And the Philistine came on and drew near to David; and the man that bare the shield went before him. ⁴² And when the Philistine looked about, and saw David, he despised him. For he was but a youth, and red-haired, with a beautiful countenance. ⁴³ And the Philistine said to David, 'Am I a dog, that 'thou comest to me with staves?' And the Philistine cursed David by his gods. ⁴⁴ And the Philistine said to David, 'Come to me, and I will give 'thy flesh to the fowls of the air, and to the beasts 'of the field.' ⁴⁵ Then said David to the Philistine, 'Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a 'spear, and with a javelin. But I come to thee in 'the name of Jehovah of hosts, the God of the 'army of Israel, whom thou hast defied. ⁴⁶ This 'day will Jehovah deliver thee into my hand; and 'I will smite thee, and take thy head from thee; 'and I will give the carcases of the hosts of the 'Philistines this day to the fowls of the air, 'and to the wild beasts of the earth; that all 'the earth may know that there is a God in 'Israel. ⁴⁷ And all this assembly shall know that 'Jehovah saveth not with sword and spear. For 'the battle is Jehovah's, and he will give you into 'our hands.'

⁴⁸ And it came to pass, when the Philistine arose, and came and drew nigh to meet David, that David hastened, and ran toward the army to meet the Philistine. ⁴⁹ And David put his hand in his bag, and took thence a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistine in his forehead, that the stone sunk into his forehead. And he fell upon his face to the earth. ⁵⁰ So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone; and he smote the Philistine, and slew him. And there was no sword in David's hand. ⁵¹ And David ran, and stood upon the Philistine, and took his sword, and drew it out of its sheath, and slew him, and cut off his head therewith.

And when the Philistines saw their warrior was dead, they fled. ⁵² And the men of Israel and of Judah arose, and shouted, and pursued the Philistines, until thou come to the valley, and to the gates of Ekron. And the wounded of the Philistines fell down by the way to Shaarim, even to Gath, and to Ekron. ⁵³ And the children of Israel returned from chasing after the Philistines, and they plundered their camp.

⁵⁴ And David took the head of the Philistine, and brought it to Jerusalem; but he put his armour in his tent.

⁵⁵ And when Saul saw David go forth against the Philistine, he said to Abner, the captain of the host, 'Abner, whose son is this youth?' And Abner said, 'As thy soul liveth, O king, I do not know.'⁶⁶ And the king said, 'Inquire thou whose son the 'stripling is.'⁶⁷ And as David returned from smiting the Philistine, Abner took him, and brought him before Saul with the head of the Philistine in his hand.⁶⁸ And Saul said to him, 'Whose son 'art thou, thou young man?' And David answered, 'I am the son of thy servant Jesse the Beth-lehemite.'¹⁸ And it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking to Saul, that the soul of Jonathan was knit with the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul.² And Saul took him that day, and would let him go no more home to his father's house.³ Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul.⁴ And Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was upon him, and gave it to David, and his garments, even to his sword, and to his bow, and to his belt.⁵ And David went out whithersoever Saul sent him. He behaved himself wisely; and Saul set him over the men of war; and he was accepted in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul's servants.

⁶ And it came to pass as they came, when David was returned from smiting the Philistine, that the women came out of all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet king Saul, with timbrels, with joy, and with musical triangles.⁷ And the women sang in answers as they played, and said, 'Saul 'hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousand.'⁸ And Saul was very wroth, and that saying displeased him; and he said, 'They have given 'to David ten thousands, and to me they have 'given but thousands. And what can he have more 'but the kingdom?'⁹ And Saul had an eye on David from that day and forward.

¹⁰ And it came to pass on the morrow, that the evil spirit from God came upon Saul, and he prophesied in the midst of the house. And David played on the harp with his hand, as at other times. And there was a spear in Saul's hand.¹¹ And Saul cast the spear, for he said, 'I will smite David even 'to the wall with it.'¹² And David avoided out of his presence twice.¹³ And Saul was afraid of the presence of David, because Jehovah was with him, and was departed from Saul.¹⁴ Therefore Saul removed him from him, and made him his captain over a thousand. And he went out and came in before the people.¹⁵ And David behaved himself wisely in all his ways; and Jehovah was with him.¹⁶ Therefore when Saul saw that he behaved himself very wisely, he was in dread of his presence.¹⁷ But all Israel and Judah loved David because he went out and came in before them.

¹⁸ And Saul said to David, 'Behold my elder 'daughter Merab, her will I give thee to wife. 'Only be thou valiant for me, and fight Jehovah's 'battles.' For Saul said, 'Let not my hand be 'upon him, but let the hand of the Philistines be 'upon him.'¹⁹ And David said to Saul, 'Who am 'I? And what is my life, or my father's family in 'Israel, that I should be son in law to the king?'²⁰ But it came to pass at the time when Merab Saul's daughter should have been given to David, that she was given unto Adriel the Meholathite to wife.

²¹ And Saul's daughter Michal loved David. And they told Saul, and the thing pleased him.²² And Saul said, 'I will give her to him, that she 'may be a snare to him, and that the hand of the 'Philistines may be on him.' Therefore Saul said to David, 'Thou shalt this day be my son in law in 'one of the twain.'²³ And Saul commanded his servants, [saying,] 'Speak to David secretly, and 'say, Behold, the king hath delight in thee, and all 'his servants love thee. Now therefore be the king's 'son in law.'²⁴ And Saul's servants spake those words in David's ears. And David said, 'Seemeth 'it to you a light thing to be a king's son in law, 'seeing that I am a poor man, and lightly esteemed?'²⁵ And Saul's servants told him, saying, 'On this 'manner spake David.'²⁶ And Saul said, 'Thus 'shall ye say to David, The king desireth not any 'purchase-money, but a hundred foreskins of the 'Philistines, to be avenged of the king's enemies.' And Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.²⁷ And when his servants told David these words, it pleased David well to be the king's son in law. But the days were not expired.²⁸ Therefore David arose and went, he and his men, and slew of the Philistines two hundred men; and David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full tale to the king, that he might be the king's son in law. And Saul gave him Michal his daughter to wife.²⁹ And Saul saw and knew that Jehovah was with David, and that Michal Saul's daughter loved him.³⁰ And Saul was yet the more afraid of David; and Saul became David's enemy all his days.³¹ Then the princes of the Philistines went forth [to battle]; and it came to pass, whenever they went forth, that David behaved himself more wisely than all Saul's servants; so that his name was much valued.

³² And Saul spake to Jonathan his son, and to all his servants, that they should kill David.³³ But Jonathan Saul's son delighted much in David. And Jonathan told David, saying, 'Saul my father 'seeketh to kill thee. Now therefore, I pray thee, 'take heed to thyself in the morning, and abide in 'a secret place, and hide thyself.'³⁴ And I will go 'out and stand beside my father in the field where 'thou art, and I will speak with my father of thee; 'and what I see, that I will tell thee.'

³⁵ And Jonathan spake good of David unto Saul his father, and said to him, 'Let not the king sin 'against his servant David; because he hath not 'sinned against thee, and because his works toward 'thee have been very good.'³⁶ For he did put his 'life in his hand, and smote the Philistine; and 'Jehovah wrought a great salvation for all Israel. 'Thou sawest it, and didst rejoice. Wherefore then 'wilt thou sin against innocent blood, to slay David 'without a cause?'³⁷ And Saul hearkened to the voice of Jonathan. And Saul sware, 'As Jehovah liveth, he shall not be slain.' ⁷ And Jonathan called David; and Jonathan showed him all those things. And Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence, as in times past.

⁸ And there was war again. And David went out, and fought with the Philistines, and smote them with a great slaughter; and they fled from before him. ⁹ And the evil spirit from Jehovah was upon Saul, as he sat in his house with his spear in his hand. And David was playing on the harp with his hand. ¹⁰ And Saul sought to smite David even to the wall with the spear; but he slipped away out of Saul's presence. And he smote the spear into the wall. And David fled, and escaped that night.

¹¹ Saul also sent messengers to David's house to watch him, and to slay him in the morning. And Michal David's wife told him, saying, 'If thou save not thy life to-night, to-morrow thou wilt be slain.' ¹² So Michal let David down through a window; and he went, and fled, and escaped. ¹³ And Michal took the Teraph [for image], and laid it in the bed, and put a pillow of goats' hair for his bolster, and covered it with a cloth. ¹⁴ And when Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, 'He is sick.' ¹⁵ And Saul sent the messengers to see David, saying, 'Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may slay him.' ¹⁶ And when the messengers were come in, behold, there was the Teraph in the bed, with a pillow of goats' hair for his bolster. ¹⁷ And Saul said to Michal, 'Why hast thou deceived me so, and sent away mine enemy, that he is escaped?' And Michal answered Saul, 'He said to me, Let me go; why should I kill thee?'

¹⁸ So David fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel to Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and dwelt in Naioth. ¹⁹ And it was told Saul, saying, 'Behold, David is in Naioth at Ramah.' ²⁰ And Saul sent messengers to take David. And when they saw the company of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as appointed over them, the spirit of God was upon Saul's messengers, and they also prophesied. ²¹ And when it was told Saul, he sent other messengers, and they also prophesied. And Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they also prophesied. ²² Then he went also himself to Ramah, and came to a great well that is in Sechu. And he asked, and said, 'Where are Samuel and David?' And one said, 'Behold, they are in Naioth at Ramah.' ²³ And he went thither to Naioth in Ramah; and the spirit of God was upon him also, and he went on his journey, and prophesied, until he came to Naioth in Ramah. ²⁴ And he stripped off his clothes also, and prophesied before Samuel in like manner, and lay down naked all that day and all that night. Therefore they say, 'Is Saul also among the prophets?'

²⁰ And David fled from Naioth in Ramah, and came and said before Jonathan, 'What have I done? What is mine iniquity? And what is

'my sin before thy father, that he seeketh my life?' ² And he said to him, 'It were wrong; thou shalt not die. Behold, my father doeth nothing either great or small, but that he revealeth it to mine ear. And why should my father hide this thing from me? It will not be so.' ³ And David sware moreover and said, 'Thy father certainly knoweth that I have found grace in thine eyes; and he saith, Let not Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved; but truly as Jehovah liveth, and as thy soul liveth, there is but a step between me and death.' ⁴ Then said Jonathan to David, 'Whatsoever thy soul asketh, I will even do it for thee.' ⁵ And David said to Jonathan, 'Behold, to-morrow is the new moon, and I should not fail to sit with the king at meat. But let me go, that I may hide myself in the field until the third day at evening.' ⁶ If thy father at all miss me, then say, 'David earnestly asked leave of me that he might run to Beth-lehem his city. For there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the family.' ⁷ If he say thus, 'It is well; thy servant will have peace. But if he be very wrath, then be sure that evil is determined by him.' ⁸ Therefore thou shalt deal kindly with thy servant; for thou hast brought thy servant into a covenant of Jehovah with thee. Notwithstanding, if there be in me iniquity, slay me thyself; for why now shouldest thou bring me to thy father?' ⁹ And Jonathan said, 'It were wrong toward thee, if I should know certainly that evil is determined by my father to come upon thee, and I do not tell it thee.'

¹⁰ Then said David to Jonathan, 'Who shall tell me? Or what if thy father answer thee roughly?' ¹¹ And Jonathan said to David, 'Come, and let us go out into the field.' And they went out both of them into the field. ¹² And Jonathan said to David, 'May Jehovah the God of Israel, when I have searched out from my father about this time to-morrow, or the third day, and behold, there be good toward David, and I then send not to thee, and reveal it to thine ear,—¹³ may Jehovah do so and much more to Jonathan. And if it please my father to do thee evil, I will also reveal it to thine ear, and send thee away, that thou mayest go in peace. And may Jehovah be with thee, as he hath been with my father.' ¹⁴ And thou shalt not only while yet I live shew me the kindness of Jehovah, that I die not; ¹⁵ but also thou shalt not cut off thy kindness from my house for ever; no, not when Jehovah hath cut off the enemies of David every one from the face of the earth.' ¹⁶ So Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David, [saying,] 'Let Jehovah even require it at the hand of David's enemies.' ¹⁷ And Jonathan caused David to swear again, because he loved him. For he loved him as he loved his own soul.

¹⁸ Then Jonathan said to him, 'To-morrow is the new moon; and thou wilt be missed, because thy seat will be empty.' ¹⁹ And when thou hast stayed to the third day, then thou shalt go down

'quickly, and come to the place where thou didst hide thyself on the day of the deed, and shalt remain by the stone Ezel. ²⁰ And I will shoot three arrows on the side thereof, as though I shot at a mark. ²¹ And behold, I will send a lad, [saying,] 'Go, find out the arrows. If I expressly say to the lad Behold, the arrows are on this side of thee, take him, and come; for there is peace to thee, and no hurt; as Jehovah liveth. ²² But if I say thus to the young man, Behold, the arrows are beyond thee; go, for Jehovah hath sent thee away. ²³ And as to the matter which I and thou have spoken of, behold, Jehovah be between me and thee for ever.' ²⁴ So David hid himself in the field.

And when the new moon was come, the king sat him down to meat, to eat. ²⁵ And the king sat upon his seat, as at other times, upon a seat by the wall; and Jonathan stood; and Abner sat by Saul's side, and David's place was empty. ²⁶ Nevertheless Saul spake not anything that day; for he thought, Something hath befallen him, he is not clean; surely he is not clean. ²⁷ And it came to pass on the morrow, which was the second new-moon day, that David's place was empty. And Saul said to Jonathan his son, 'Wherefore cometh not the son of Jesse to meat, neither yesterday, nor to-day?' ²⁸ And Jonathan answered Saul, 'David earnestly asked leave of me to go to Beth-lehem. ²⁹ And he said, Let me go, I pray thee; for our family hath a sacrifice in the city; and my brother, he hath commanded me to be there. And now, if I have found favour in thine eyes, let me slip away, I pray thee, and see my brethren. Therefore he cometh not to the king's table.' ³⁰ Then Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said to him, 'Thou son of perverse rebellions, do not I know that thou hast chosen the son of Jesse to thine own shame, and to the shame of thy mother's nakedness?' ³¹ For as long as the son of Jesse liveth upon the ground, thou and thy kingdom will not be established. Therefore now send and fetch him to me, for he is doomed to die.' ³² And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said to him, 'Wherefore shall he be slain? What hath he done?' ³³ And Saul cast his spear at him to smite him. Thereby Jonathan knew that it was determined by his father to slay David. ³⁴ So Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and did eat no meat the second new-moon day. For he was grieved for David, because his father had put him to shame.

³⁵ And it came to pass in the morning, that Jonathan went out into the field at the time appointed unto David, and a little lad with him. ³⁶ And he said to his lad, 'Run, find out now the arrows which I shoot.' And as the lad ran, he shot an arrow to pass over him. ³⁷ And when the lad was come to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried after the lad, and said, 'Is not the arrow beyond thee?' ³⁸ And Jonathan cried after the lad, 'Make speed, haste,

'stay not.' And Jonathan's lad gathered up the arrows, and came to his master. ³⁹ But the lad knew not any thing; only Jonathan and David knew the matter. ⁴⁰ And Jonathan gave his weapons to the lad that was with him, and said to him, 'Go, carry them to the city.'

⁴¹ As soon as the lad was gone, David arose from the south side, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himself three times. And they kissed one another, and wept one with another, until David exceeded. ⁴² And Jonathan said to David, 'Go in peace, forasmuch as we have sworn both of us in the name of Jehovah, saying, Jehovah be between me and thee, and between my seed and thy seed for ever.' And he arose and departed. And Jonathan went into the city.

21 Then came David to Nob to Ahimelech the priest. And Ahimelech was afraid on meeting David, and said to him, 'Why art thou alone, and no man with thee?' ² And David said to Ahimelech the priest, 'The king hath commanded me a business, and hath said to me, Let no man know any thing of the business whereabout I send thee, and what I have commanded thee. And I have made known to my servants such and such a place.—' ³ Now therefore what is under thy hand? Give me five loaves of bread into my hand, or what there is to be found.' ⁴ And the priest answered David, and said, 'There is no common bread under my hand, but there is holy bread; if the young men have kept themselves at least from women.' ⁵ And David answered the priest, and said to him, 'Of a truth women have been kept from us hitherto since I came out, and the vessels of the young men are holy, and if this manner is common, yet it would be sanctified this day in the vessel.' ⁶ So the priest gave him holy bread. For there was no bread there but the presence bread, that had been taken from the presence of Jehovah, to put hot bread on the day when this was taken away. ⁷ Now a certain man of Saul's servants was there that day, detained before Jehovah; and his name was Doeg, an Edomite, the chiefest of the herdsmen that belonged to Saul. ⁸ And David said to Ahimelech, 'And is there not here under thy hand spear or sword? For I have neither brought my sword nor my weapons in my hand, because the king's business required haste.' ⁹ And the priest said, 'The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom thou slewest in the valley of Elah, behold, it is here wrapped in a cloth behind the Ephod [or priestly dress]. If thou wilt take that, take it; for there is no other save that here.' And David said, 'There is none like that; give it me.'

¹⁰ And David arose, and fled that day from before Saul, and went to Achish the king of Gath. ¹¹ And the servants of Achish said to him, 'Is not this David the king of the land? Did they not sing one to another of him in dances, saying, Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands?' ¹² And David laid up these words in his heart, and was sore afraid of Achish the king of Gath. ¹³ And he changed his behaviour before them, and feigned himself mad in their hands, and scribbled on the doors of the city gate, and let his spittle fall down upon his beard. ¹⁴ Then said Achish to his servants, 'Lo, ye see the man is mad. Wherefore then have ye brought him to me?' ¹⁵ Have I need of mad men, that ye have brought this man to play the mad man in my presence? Shall this man come into my house?

²² David therefore departed thence, and escaped to a cave near Adullam. And when his brethren and all his father's house heard it, they went down thither to him. ² And every one that was in distress, and every one that was in debt, and every one that was bitter of soul, gathered themselves unto him; and he became a captain over them. And there were with him about four hundred men.

³ And David went thence to Mizpeh of Moab. And he said to the king of Moab, 'Let my father and my mother, I pray thee, come forth, and be with you, till I know what God will do to me.' ⁴ And he brought them before the king of Moab. And they dwelt with him all the while that David was in the fastness. ⁵ And the prophet Gad said to David, 'Abide not in the fastness; depart, and get thee into the land of Judah.' Then David departed, and came into the forest of Hareth.

⁶ When Saul heard that David was discovered, and the men that were with him, (now Saul was sitting in Gibeah under a tamarisk tree in Ramah, having his spear in his hand, and all his servants were standing about him;) ⁷ then Saul said to his servants that stood about him, 'Hear now, ye Benjamites. Will the son of Jesse give to every one of you fields and vineyards? Will he make you all captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds; ⁸ that all of you have conspired against me, and no one revealed to mine ear that my son had made a league with the son of Jesse, and no one of you was sorry for me, or revealed to mine ear that my son had stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?' ⁹ Then answered Doeg the Edomite, who was standing near the servants of Saul, and said, 'I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub. ¹⁰ And he inquired of Jehovah for him, and gave him victuals, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine.'

¹¹ Then the king sent to call Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's house, the priests that were in Nob. And they came all of them to the king. ¹² And Saul said, 'Hear now, thou son of Ahitub.' And he answered, 'Here I am, my lord.' ¹³ And Saul said to him, 'Why have ye conspired against me, thou and the son of Jesse, in that thou hast given him bread, and a sword, and hast inquired of God for him, that he should rise against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?' ¹⁴ Then Ahimelech answered the king, and said, 'And who is so faithful among all thy servants as David? And he is the king's son in law, and cometh to thy councils, and is honoured in thy house. ¹⁵ Did I on that day begin to inquire of God for him? It were wrong in me. Let not the king impute any thing to his servant, nor to all the house of my father. For thy servant knew nothing of all this, less or more.' ¹⁶ And the king said, 'Thou shalt surely die, Ahimelech, thou, and all thy father's house.' ¹⁷ And the king said to the runners that stood about him, 'Turn, and slay the priests of Jehovah; because their hand also is with David, and because they knew when he fled, and did not reveal it to mine ear.' But the servants of the king would not put forth their hand to fall upon the priests of Jehovah. ¹⁸ And the king said to Doeg, 'Turn thou, and fall upon the priests.' And Doeg the Edomite turned, and he fell upon the priests, and slew on that day eighty and five persons that did wear a linen Ephod. ¹⁹ And Nob, the city of the priests, smote he with the edge of the sword, both men and women, babes and sucklings, and oxen, and asses, and sheep, with the edge of the sword.

²⁰ And one of the sons of Ahimelech the son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, escaped, and fled after David. ²¹ And Abiathar told David that Saul had slain the priests of Jehovah. ²² And David said to Abiathar, 'I knew it in that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul. I have occasioned the death of all the persons of thy father's house. ²³ Abide thou with me, fear not. For he that seeketh my life seeketh thy life. But with me thou shalt be taken care of.'

²³ Then they told David, saying, 'Behold, the Philistines are fighting against Keilah, and they are robbing the threshing-floors.' ² Therefore David inquired of Jehovah, saying, 'Shall I go and smite these Philistines?' And Jehovah said to David, 'Go and smite the Philistines, and save Keilah.' ³ And David's men said to him, 'Behold, we are afraid here in Judah. How much more then if we come to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines?' ⁴ Then David inquired of Jehovah yet again. And Jehovah answered him and said, 'Arise, go down to Keilah; for I will deliver up the Philistines into thy hand.' ⁵ So David and his men went to Keilah, and fought with the Philistines, and brought away their cattle, and smote them with a great slaughter. So David saved the inhabitants of Keilah. ⁶ And it came to pass, when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David to Keilah, that he came down with an Ephod [or priestly dress] in his hand.

⁷ And it was told Saul that David was come to Keilah. And Saul said, 'God hath thrown him off into my hand; for he is shut in, by entering into a town that hath doors and cross-bars.' ⁸ And Saul called all the people together to war, to go down to Keilah, to besiege David and his men. ⁹ And David knew that Saul was plotting mischief against him; and he said to Abiathar the priest, 'Reach hither the Ephod.' ¹⁰ Then said David, 'O Jehovah God of Israel, thy servant hath certainly heard that Saul seeketh to come to Keilah, to destroy the city for my sake. ¹¹ Will the men of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? Will Saul come down, as thy servant hath heard? O Jehovah God of Israel, I beseech thee, tell thy servant.' And Jehovah said, 'He will come down.' ¹² Then said David, 'Will the men of Keilah deliver up me and my men into the hand of Saul?' And Jehovah said, 'They will deliver thee up.'

¹³ Then David and his men, who were about six hundred, arose and departed out of Keilah, and went about whithersoever they could go. And it was told Saul that David was escaped from Keilah; but he forbore to go forth. ¹⁴ And David abode in the desert in fastnesses, and abode in the hill country in the desert of Ziph. And Saul sought him every day, but God delivered him not into his hand. ¹⁵ And David saw that Saul was come out to seek his life. And David was in the desert of Ziph in a thicket-camp. ¹⁶ And Jonathan Saul's son arose, and went to David into the thicket-camp, and strengthened his hand in God. ¹⁷ And he said to him, 'Fear not; for the hand of Saul my father will not find thee. And thou wilt be king over Israel, and I shall be next in rank to thee; and that also Saul my father knoweth.' ¹⁸ And they two made a covenant before Jehovah. And David abode in the thicket-camp, and Jonathan went to his house.

¹⁹ Then came up the Ziphites to Saul to Gibeah, saying, 'Doth not David hide himself with us in fastnesses in a thicket-camp, in the hill of Hachilah, which is on the south of the Wilderness?' ²⁰ Now therefore, O king, come down according to all the desire of thy soul to come down; and our part shall be to deliver him up into the king's hand.' ²¹ And Saul said, 'Blessed be ye of Jehovah; for ye have compassion on me.' ²² Go, I pray you, prepare yet, and know and see his place where his footstep is, and who hath seen him there. For it is told me that he dealeth very subtly. ²³ See therefore, and take knowledge of all the hiding-places where he hideth himself, and come ye again to me with the certainty, and I will go with you. And it shall come to pass, if he be in the land, that I will search him out throughout all the thousands of Judah.' ²⁴ And they arose, and went to Ziph before Saul. But David and his men were in the desert of Maon, in the Arabah [or Barren Valley], on the south of the Wilderness. ²⁵ Saul also and his men went to seek him. And they told David. Therefore he went down to Sela [or Petra], and abode in the desert of Maon. And when Saul heard, he pursued after David in the desert of Maon. ²⁶ And Saul went on this side of the mountain, and David and his men on that side of the mountain. And David made haste to get away from Saul's sight; for Saul and his men surrounded David and his men to take them.

²⁷ But there came a messenger to Saul, saying, 'Haste thee, and come; for the Philistines have spread themselves over the land.' ²⁸ Therefore Saul returned from pursuing after David, and went against the Philistines. Therefore they called that place the Rock of Divisions [for Divided Rock]. ²⁹ And David went up from thence, and dwelt in strong holds at Ain-gedi.

²⁴ And it came to pass, when Saul was returned from following the Philistines, that it was told him, saying, 'Behold, David is in the desert of Ain-gedi.' ² Then Saul took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seek David and his men upon the face of the rocks of the wild goats. ³ And he came to the walled sheepfolds by the way, where was a cave. And Saul went in to cover his feet; and David and his men were waiting in the back of the cave. ⁴ And David's men said to him, 'Behold the day of which Jehovah said to thee, Behold, I will deliver up thine enemy into thy hand, that thou mayest do to him as it shall seem good in thine eyes.' Then David arose, and cut off the skirt of Saul's robe privily. ⁵ And it came to pass afterward, that David's heart smote him, because he had cut off Saul's skirt. ⁶ And he said to his men, 'It were wrong in me before Jehovah that I should do this thing to my lord, the anointed of Jehovah, to stretch forth my hand against him, seeing he is the anointed of Jehovah.' ⁷ So David stayed his men with these words, and suffered them not to rise against Saul. But Saul rose up out of the cave and went on his way. ⁸ David also arose afterward, and went out of the cave, and cried after Saul, saying, 'My lord the king.' And when Saul looked behind him, David stooped with his face to the earth, and bowed himself. ⁹ And David said to Saul, 'Wherefore hearkenest thou to men's words, who say, Behold, David seeketh thy hurt?' ¹⁰ Behold, this day thine eyes have seen how Jehovah had delivered thee to-day into my hand in the cave. And some bade me kill thee. But mine eye spared thee; and I said, I will not put forth my hand against my lord; for he is the anointed of Jehovah. ¹¹ Moreover, my father, see, yea, see the skirt of thy robe in my hand. For in that I cut off the skirt of thy robe, and killed thee not, know thou and see that there is neither evil nor transgression in my hand, and I have not sinned against thee; yet thou huntest my soul to take it. ¹² May Jehovah judge between me and thee, and Jehovah avenge me of thee. But my hand shall not be upon thee. ¹³ As saith the proverb of the ancients, Wickedness goeth forth from the wicked; but my hand shall not be upon thee. After whom is the king of Israel come out? ¹⁴ After whom dost thou pursue? After a dead dog, after a single flea. ¹⁵ Jehovah therefore be judge, and do justice between me and thee, and see, and plead my cause, and get justice for me from thy hand.'

¹⁶ And it came to pass, when David had made an end of speaking these words to Saul, that Saul said, 'Is this thy voice, my son David?' And Saul lifted up his voice, and wept. ¹⁷ And he said to David, 'Thou art more righteous than I. For thou hast rewarded me with good, whereas I have rewarded thee with evil. ¹⁸ And thou hast shewed this day how that thou hast dealt well with me. Forasmuch as when Jehovah had delivered me up into thy hand thou killedst me not. ¹⁹ For if a man find his enemy, will he let him go well away? Therefore may Jehovah reward thee with good for what thou hast done to me this day. ²⁰ And now, behold, I know well that thou wilt surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel will be established in thy hand. ²¹ Swear now therefore unto me by Jehovah, that thou wilt not cut off my seed after me, and that thou wilt not destroy my name out of my father's house.' ²² And David swore unto Saul. And Saul went home; but David and his men got them up unto the strong hold.

25 And Samuel died. And all the Israelites were gathered together, and mourned for him, and buried him in his house at Ramiah. And David arose, and went down to the desert of Paran. ² And there was a man in Maon, whose business was in Carmel. And the man was very great, and he had three thousand sheep, and a thousand goats; and he was shearing his sheep in Carmel. ³ Now the name of the man was Nabal; and the name of his wife Abigail. And she was a woman of good understanding, and of a beautiful countenance; but the man was churlish and evil in his doings; and he was a Calebite.

⁴ And David heard in the desert that Nabal did shear his sheep. ⁵ And David sent out ten young men; and David said to the young men, 'Get you up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and greet him in my name. ⁶ And thus shall ye say, Life and peace be to thee, and peace to thy house, and peace to all that thou hast. ⁷ And now I have heard that thou hast shearers. Now thy shepherds who were with us, we hurt them not, neither was there aught missing unto them, all the while they were in Carmel. ⁸ Ask thy young men, and they will shew thee. Therefore let the young men find favour in thine eyes. For we come in a good day. ⁹ Give, I pray thee, whatsoever thy hand cometh upon to thy servants, and to thy son David.' ⁹ And when David's young men came, they spake to Nabal according to all those words in the name of David. And when they ceased, ¹⁰ Nabal answered David's servants, and said, 'Who is David? And who is the son of Jesse? There are many servants now a days that break away every man from his master. ¹¹ Shall I then take my bread, and my water, and my flesh that I have killed for my shearers, and give it to men, whom I know not whence they are?' ¹² So David's young men turned their way, and went again, and came and told him all those sayings. ¹³ And David said to his men, 'Gird ye on every man his sword.' And they girded on every man his sword; and David also girded on his sword. And there went up after David about four hundred men; and two hundred remained by the baggage.

Nabal's wife, saying, 'Behold, David sent messengers out of the desert to bless our master; and he railed on them. ¹⁵ But the men have been very good to us, and we were not hurt, neither missed we any thing, as long as we went about with them, when we were in the fields. ¹⁶ They were a rampart to us both by night and day, all the days that we were with them keeping the sheep. ¹⁷ Now therefore know and consider what thou wilt do; for evil is determined against our master, and against all his household. For he is such a son of Belial, that a man cannot speak to him.'

¹⁸ Then Abigail made haste; and took two hundred loaves, and two bottles of wine, and five sheep ready dressed, and five Seahs [or a bushel and a quarter] of parched corn, and a hundred cakes of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on the asses. ¹⁹ And she said to her servants, 'Go on before me; behold, I come after you.' But she told not her husband Nabal. ²⁰ And it was so, as she rode on the ass, that she came down by the covert of the hill, and behold, David and his men came down against her; and she met them. ²¹ Now David had said, 'Surely in vain have I guarded all that this man hath in the desert, so that nothing was missed of all that belonged to him. And he hath requited me evil for good. ²² So and more also do God to the enemies of David, if I leave of all that belong to him by the morning light even one man or boy.' ²³ And when Abigail saw David, she hastened, and lighted off the ass, and fell before David on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, ²⁴ and fell at his feet, and said, 'Upon me, my lord, upon me let this iniquity be. And let thy handmaid, I pray thee, speak in thine ears; and hear thou the words of thy handmaid. ²⁵ Let not my lord, I pray thee, give thought to this man of Belial, even Nabal. For as his name is, so is he. Nabal [or Fool] is his name, and folly is with him. But I thy handmaid saw not the young men of my lord, whom thou didst send. ²⁶ Now therefore, my lord, as Jehovah liveth, and as thy soul liveth, seeing Jehovah hath withholden thee from going into bloodshed, and from helping thyself with thine own hand, now let thine enemies, and they that seek evil to my lord, be as Nabal. ²⁷ And now this blessing [or gift] which thy maid-servant hath brought to my lord, let it even be given to the young men that walk in my lord's footsteps. ²⁸ I pray thee, forgive the trespass of thy handmaid. For Jehovah will certainly make my lord a sure house; because my lord fighteth the battles of Jehovah, and evil hath not been found in thee all thy days. ²⁹ Yet a man is risen to pursue thee, and to seek thy soul. But the soul of my lord is bound up in the bundle of life with Jehovah thy God; and the souls of thine enemies, them shall he sling out, as out of the middle of the hollow of a sling. ³⁰ And it shall come to pass, when Jehovah shall have done to my lord according to all the good that he hath spoken concerning thee, and shall have appointed thee to be chief over

Israel; ³¹ that this shall be no grief to thee, nor stumbling-block of heart to my lord, either that thou hast shed blood without cause, or that my lord hath helped himself. When Jehovah shall have dealt well with my lord, then remember thou thy handmaid.'

³² And David said to Abigail, 'Blessed be Jehovah the God of Israel, who sent thee this day to meet me. ³³ And blessed be thy advice, and blessed be thou, who has kept me this day from going into bloodshed, and from helping myself with mine own hand. ³⁴ For in very deed, as Jehovah the God of Israel liveth, who hath kept me back from hurting thee, except thou hadst hastened and come to meet me, surely there had not been left unto Nabal by the morning light even one man or boy.' ³⁵ So David received from her hand that which she had brought him, and said to her, 'Go up in peace to thy house. See, I have hearkened to thy voice, and have accepted thy person.'

³⁶ And Abigail came to Nabal; and behold, he held a drinking feast in his house, like the drinking feast of a king; and Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunken. Therefore she told him nothing, less or more, until the morning light. ³⁷ But it came to pass in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabal, and his wife had told him these things, that his heart died within him, and he became as a stone. ³⁸ And it came to pass, about ten days after, that Jehovah smote Nabal, and he died.

³⁹ And when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, 'Blessed be Jehovah, who hath pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and hath kept his servant from wickedness. For Jehovah hath returned the wickedness of Nabal upon his own head.' And David sent and talked with Abigail, to take her to him to wife. ⁴⁰ And when the servants of David were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spake to her, saying, 'David sent us to thee, to take thee to him to wife.' ⁴¹ And she arose, and bowed herself on her face to the earth, and said, 'Behold, let thy handmaid be a maid-servant to wash the feet of my lord's servants.' ⁴² And Abigail hastened, and arose, and rode upon an ass, with five damsels of hers that went at her feet. And she went after David's messengers, and became his wife. ⁴³ David also had taken Ahinoam of Jezreel; and they were also both of them his wives. ⁴⁴ But Saul had given Michal his daughter, David's wife, to Phalti the son of Laish, who was of Gallim.

26 And the Ziphites came to Saul to Gibeah, saying, 'Doth not David hide himself on the hill of Hachilah, which is before the Wilderness?' ² Then Saul arose, and went down to the desert of Ziph, having three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, to seek David in the desert of Ziph. ³ And Saul pitched on the hill of Hachilah, which is before the Wilderness, by the way. But David abode in the desert, and he saw that Saul had come after him into the desert. ⁴ David therefore sent out spies, and understood that Saul was come in very deed.

⁵ And David arose, and came to the place where Saul had pitched. And David beheld the place where Saul lay, and Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his host. And Saul lay within the entrenchment of wagons, and the people pitched round about him. ⁶ Then answered David and said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Abishai the son of Zeruiah [David's sister], the brother to Joab, saying, 'Who will go down with me to Saul to the camp?' And Abishai said, 'I will go down with thee.' ⁷ So David and Abishai came to the people by night. And behold, Saul lay sleeping within the entrenchment of wagons, and his spear stuck in the ground at his bolster. And Abner and the people lay round about him. ⁸ Then said Abishai to David, 'God hath delivered thine enemy into thy hand this day. Now therefore let me smite him, I pray thee, with the spear even to the earth at once, and I will not smite him the second time.' ⁹ And David said to Abishai, 'Destroy him not. For who can stretch forth his hand against the anointed of Jehovah, and be guiltless?' ¹⁰ And David said, 'As Jehovah liveth, Jehovah will smite him; either his day will come to die, or he will go down into battle, and perish. ¹¹ It were wrong in me before Jehovah that I should stretch forth my hand against the anointed of Jehovah. But, I pray thee, take thou now the spear that is at his bolster, and the cruse of water, and let us go our way.' ¹² So David took the spear and the cruse of water from Saul's bolster; and they got them away, and no man saw it, nor knew it, neither awaked; for they were all asleep; because a deep sleep from Jehovah was fallen upon them.

¹³ Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of a hill afar off; a great space being between them. ¹⁴ And David cried to the people, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, 'Answerest thou not, Abner?' Then Abner answered and said, 'Who art thou that criest to the king?' ¹⁵ And David said to Abner, 'Art not thou a man? And who is like to thee in Israel? Wherefore then hast thou not guarded thy lord the king?' ¹⁶ For there came one of the people in to destroy the king thy lord. ¹⁶ This thing is not good that thou hast done. As Jehovah liveth, ye are doomed to die, because ye have not guarded your lord, the anointed of Jehovah. And now see where the king's spear is, and the cruse of water that was at his bolster.' ¹⁷ And Saul knew David's voice, and said, 'Is this thy voice, my son David?' And David said, 'It is my voice, my lord, O king.' ¹⁸ And he said, 'Wherefore doth my lord thus pursue after his servant? For what have I done? Or what evil is in my hand?' ¹⁹ Now therefore, I pray thee, let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If Jehovah have stirred thee up against me, let him accept an offering of incense;

'but if sons of Adam have done it, cursed be they before Jehovah. For they have driven me out this day from abiding in the inheritance of Jehovah, saying, Go, serve other gods. ²⁰ Now therefore, let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of Jehovah. For the king of Israel is come out to seek even one flea, as when one doth hunt a partridge on the mountains.' ²¹ Then said Saul, 'I have sinned; return, my son David. For I will no more do thee harm, because my soul was precious in thine eyes this day. Behold, I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly.' ²² And David answered and said, 'Behold the king's spear! And let one of the young men come over and fetch it. ²³ May Jehovah render back to every man his righteousness and his faithfulness. For Jehovah delivered thee into my hand to-day, but I would not stretch forth my hand against the anointed of Jehovah. ²⁴ And behold, as thy life was valued this day in mine eyes, so let my life be valued in the eyes of Jehovah, and let him deliver me out of all tribulation.' ²⁵ Then Saul said to David, 'Blessed be thou, my son David. Thou wilt both do great things, and also wilt surely prevail.' So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

²⁷ And David said in his heart, 'I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul. There is nothing better for me than that I should escape safely into the land of the Philistines; and Saul will despair of me, to seek me any more within any boundary of Israel, and I shall escape out of his hand.' ² And David arose, and he passed over with the six hundred men that were with him unto Achish, the son of Maach, king of Gath. ³ And David dwelt with Achish at Gath, he and his men, every man with his household, even David with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelite, and Abigail the Carmelite, Nabal's wife. ⁴ And it was told Saul that David was fled to Gath. And he sought no more again for him.

⁵ And David said to Achish, 'If I have now found grace in thine eyes, let them give me a place in one of the cities in the fields, that I may dwell there. For why should thy servant dwell in the royal city with thee?' ⁶ Then Achish gave him Ziklag that day; wherefore Ziklag hath belonged to the kings of Judah unto this day. ⁷ And the number of days that David dwelt in the country of the Philistines was a year and four months.

⁸ And David and his men went up, and invaded the Geshurites, and the Gezerites, and the Amalekites; for those were of old the inhabitants of the land, as thou goest to Shur [or Pelusium], even to the land of Lower Egypt. ⁹ And David smote the land, and left neither man nor woman alive, and took away the sheep, and the oxen, and the asses, and the camels, and the clothing, and returned, and came to Achish. ¹⁰ And Achish said, 'Have ye not made an invasion to-day?' And David said, 'Against the South country of Judah, and against the South country of the Jerahmeelites,

'and unto the South country of the Kenites.' ⁽¹¹ And David had saved neither man nor woman alive, to bring to Gath, saying, 'Lest they should tell about us, saying, So did David, and such will be his manner all the days that he dwelleth in the country of the Philistines.)' ¹² And Achish believed David, saying, 'He hath made his people Israel utterly to abhor him; therefore he will be my servant for ever.'

²⁸ And it came to pass in those days that the Philistines gathered their armies together for warfare, to fight with Israel. And Achish said to David, 'Know thou assuredly, that thou shalt go out with me in the camp, thou and thy men.' ² And David said to Achish, 'Surely thou shalt know what thy servant can do.' And Achish said to David, 'Therefore will I make thee the guard of my head every day.'

³ Now Samuel was dead, and all Israel had mourned for him, and buried him in Ramah, even in his own city. And Saul had put away the speaking bottles [of ventriloquists], and the wizards out of the land. ⁴ And the Philistines gathered themselves together, and came and pitched in Shunem. And Saul gathered all Israel together, and they pitched in Gilboa. ⁵ And when Saul saw the camp of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart greatly trembled. ⁶ And when Saul inquired of Jehovah, Jehovah answered him not, neither by dreams, nor by Urim, nor by prophets.

⁷ Then said Saul to his servants, 'Seek me a woman that is the owner of a speaking bottle, that I may go to her, and inquire of her.' And his servants said to him, 'Behold, there is a woman the owner of a speaking bottle at Ain-dor.' ⁸ And Saul disguised himself, and put on other raiment, and he went, and two men with him. And they came to the woman by night. And he said, 'I pray thee, divine unto me by the speaking bottle, and bring up to me him whom I shall name to thee.' ⁹ And the woman said to him, 'Behold, thou knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath cut off the speaking bottles, and the wizards, out of the land. Wherefore then layest thou a snare for my life, to cause me to die?' ¹⁰ And Saul swore to her by Jehovah, saying, 'As Jehovah liveth, there shall no punishment happen to thee for this thing.' ¹¹ Then said the woman, 'Whom shall I bring up unto thee?' And he said, 'Bring up unto me Samuel.' ¹² And when the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice. And the woman spake to Saul, saying, 'Why hast thou deceived me? For thou art Saul.' ¹³ And the king said to her, 'Be not afraid. For what sawest thou?' And the woman said to Saul, 'I saw a god rising up out of the earth.' ¹⁴ And he said to her, 'What form is he of?' And she said, 'An old man riseth up; and he is wrapped in a mantle.' And Saul knew that it was Samuel, and he stooped with his face to the ground, and bowed himself.

And Samuel said to Saul, 'Why hast thou

'disturbed me, to bring me up?' And Saul answered, 'I am sore distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and God is departed from me and answereth me no more, neither by the hand of the prophets, nor by dreams. Therefore I have called thee, that thou mayest make known to me what I shall do.' ¹⁶ Then said Samuel, 'Wherefore is departed thou ask of me, seeing Jehovah is departed from thee, and is become thine enemy?' ¹⁷ And Jehovah will do for himself, as he spake by my hand. For Jehovah will tear the kingdom out of thy hand, and will give it to thy neighbour David; ¹⁸ because thou obeyedst not the voice of Jehovah, nor executedst his fierce wrath upon the Amalekites; therefore hath Jehovah done this thing unto thee this day. ¹⁹ Moreover Jehovah will also deliver Israel with thee into the hand of the Philistines. And to-morrow shalt thou and thy sons be with me. Jehovah also will deliver the camp of Israel into the hand of the Philistines.' ²⁰ Then straightway Saul fell his whole length on the earth, and was sore afraid, because of the words of Samuel. And there was no strength in him; for he had eaten no bread all the day, nor all the night.

²¹ And the woman came to Saul, and saw that he was sore troubled, and said to him, 'Behold, thy handmaid hath obeyed thy voice, and I have put my life in my hand, and have hearkened to thy words which thou spakest to me.' ²² Now therefore, I pray thee, hearken thou also to the voice of thy handmaid, and let me set a morsel of bread before thee; and eat that thou mayest have strength when thou goest on thy way.' ²³ But he refused, and said, 'I will not eat.' But his servants, together with the woman, pressed him; and he hearkened to their voice. So he arose from the earth, and sat upon the bed. ²⁴ And the woman had a stalled calf in the house. And she hastened, and killed it, and took meal, and kneaded it, and did bake unleavened bread thereof. ²⁵ And she brought it before Saul, and before his servants; and they did eat. Then they rose up, and went away that night.

29 Now the Philistines gathered together all their armies to Aphek; and the Israelites pitched by a fountain which is in Jezreel. ² And the lords of the Philistines passed on by hundreds, and by thousands; and David and his men passed on in the rear with Achish. ³ Then said the princes of the Philistines, 'What do these Hebrews do here?' And Achish said to the princes of the Philistines, 'Is not this David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, who hath been with me this year, or these two years, and I have found no fault in him since he revolted, until this day?' ⁴ And the princes of the Philistines were wroth with him. And the princes of the Philistines said to him, 'Make this man return, that he may go again to his place which thou hast appointed for him, and let him not go down with us to battle, lest in the battle he be an adversary to us. For wherewith should

'he reconcile himself to his master? Would it not be with the heads of these men?' ⁵ Is not this David, of whom they sang one to another in dances, saying, Saul slew his thousands, and David his ten thousands?'

⁶ Then Achish called David, and said to him, 'Surely, as Jehovah liveth, thou hast been upright, and thy going out and thy coming in with me in the camp, is good in mine eyes. For I have not found evil in thee since the day of thy coming to me unto this day. Nevertheless in the eyes of the lords thou art not good.' ⁷ Therefore now return, and go in peace, that thou displease not the lords of the Philistines.' ⁸ And David said to Achish, 'But what have I done? And what hast thou found in thy servant so long as I have been with thee unto this day, that I should not go fight against the enemies of my lord the king?' ⁹ And Achish answered and said to David, 'I know that thou art good in mine eyes, as an angel of God. Notwithstanding, the princes of the Philistines have said, He shall not go up with us to the battle.' ¹⁰ Therefore now rise up early in the morning with thy master's servants that are come with thee. And as soon as ye be up early in the morning, and have light, depart.' ¹¹ So David and his men rose up early to depart in the morning, to return into the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

30 And it came to pass, when David and his men were come to Ziklag on the third day, that the Amalekites had invaded the South country, and Ziklag. And they had smitten Ziklag and burned it with fire; ² and had taken the women captives, that were therein. They slew not any, either small or great, but carried them away, and went on their way.

³ So David and his men came to the city, and behold, it had been burned with fire; and their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, had been taken captive. ⁴ Then David and the people that were with him lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to weep. ⁵ And David's two wives were taken captive, Ahinoam the Jezreelite, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite. ⁶ And David was greatly distressed; for the people spake of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was made bitter, every man, for his sons and for his daughters. But David encouraged himself in Jehovah his God. ⁷ And David said to Abiathar the priest, Ahimelech's son, 'I pray thee, bring me hither the Ephod' [or priestly dress]. And Abiathar brought thither the Ephod to David. ⁸ And David inquired of Jehovah, saying, 'Shall I pursue after this troop? Shall I overtake them?' And he answered him, 'Pursue. For thou shalt surely overtake them, and without fail recover all.'

⁹ So David went, he and the six hundred men that were with him, and came to the valley of the Besor; and there some that were to be left behind stayed. ¹⁰ But David pursued, he and four hundred men. For two hundred stayed behind, who were so faint that they could not go over the valley of the Besor. ¹¹ And they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David, and gave him bread, and he did eat; and they made him drink water; ¹² and they gave him a slice of a cake of figs, and two cakes of raisins. And when he had eaten, his spirit came again to him. For he had eaten no bread, nor drunk any water, for three days and three nights. ¹³ And David said to him, 'To whom belondest thou? And whence art thou?' And he said, 'I am a young man of Lower Egypt, servant to an Amalekite; and my master left me, because three days ago I fell sick. ¹⁴ We made an invasion upon the South country of the Cherethites [or Philistines], and upon what belongeth to Judah, and upon the South country of Caleb; and we burned Ziklag with fire.' ¹⁵ And David said to him, 'Canst thou bring me down to this troop of men?' And he said, 'Swear unto me by God that thou wilt neither kill me, nor deliver me up into the hand of my master, and I will bring thee down to this troop.'

¹⁶ And when he had brought him down, behold, they were spread abroad over the face of all the land, eating and drinking, and keeping holiday, because of all the great spoil that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Judah. ¹⁷ And David smote them from the twilight even unto the evening of the next day. And there escaped not a man of them, save four hundred young men, who rode upon camels, and fled. ¹⁸ And David recovered all that the Amalekites had carried away. And David recovered his two wives. ¹⁹ And there was nothing lacking to them, neither small nor great, neither sons nor daughters, neither plunder, nor anything that they had taken to themselves. David brought back all. ²⁰ And David took all the flocks and the herds. They drove those cattle to the front, and said, 'This is David's spoil.'

²¹ And David came to the two hundred men, who were so faint that they could not follow David, whom they had made also to abide in the valley of the Besor. And they went forth to meet David, and to meet the people that were with him. And when David came near to the people, he saluted them. ²² Then answered all the wicked men and men of Belial, of those that went with David, and said, 'Because they went not with us, we will not give them aught of the spoil that we have recovered, save to every man his wife and his children, whom they may lead away, and depart.' ²³ Then said David, 'Ye shall not do so, my brethren, with that which Jehovah hath given us, who hath preserved us, and given the troop that came against us into our hand. ²⁴ For who will hearken to you in this matter? But as his share is that goeth down to the battle, so shall his share be that carrieth by the baggage. They shall share alike.' ²⁵ And it was so from that day forward, that he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel unto this day.

²⁶ And when David came to Ziklag, he sent some of the spoil to the elders of Judah, even to his friends, saying, 'Behold a blessing [or present] for you out of the spoil of the enemies of Jehovah;' ²⁷ to them that were in Beth-el [or Bethu-el], and to them that were in Ramoth of the South Country, and to them that were in Jattir, ²⁸ and to them that were in Aroer, and to them that were in Siphmoth, and to them that were in Eshtemoa, ²⁹ and to them that were in Rachal, and to them that were in the cities of the Jerahmeelites, and to them that were in the cities of the Kenites, ³⁰ and to them that were in Hormah, and to them that were in Chor-ashan, and to them that were in Athach, ³¹ and to them that were in Hebron, and to all the places where David himself and his men had wandered about.

31 Now the Philistines fought against Israel. And the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down slain on mount Gilboa. ² And the Philistines followed hard upon Saul and upon his sons; and the Philistines slew Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Melchishua, Saul's sons. ³ And the battle went sore against Saul, and the archers hit him; and he was sore wounded by the archers. ⁴ Then Saul said to his armour-bearer, 'Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith; lest these uncircumcised come and thrust me through, and make sport of me.' But his armour-bearer would not; for he was sore afraid. Therefore Saul took a sword, and fell upon it. ⁵ And when his armour-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise upon his sword, and died with him. ⁶ So Saul died, and his three sons, and his armour-bearer, and all his men, that same day together.

⁷ And when the men of Israel that were beyond the Jordan [of Ajalon], and they that were beyond the Jordan, saw that the men of Israel fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook the cities and fled; and the Philistines came and dwelt in them. ⁸ And it came to pass on the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his three sons fallen on mount Gilboa. ⁹ And they cut off his head, and stripped off his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to publish it in the house of their idols, and among the people. ¹⁰ And they put his armour in the house of Ashtaroth; and they fastened his body to the wall of Beth-shan.

¹¹ And when the inhabitants of Jabesh in Gilead heard of that which the Philistines had done to Saul, ¹² all the valiant men arose, and went all night, and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth-shan, and came to Jabesh, and burnt them there. ¹³ And they took their bones, and buried them under a tamarisk tree at Jabesh, and fasted for seven days.

THE SECOND BOOK OF SAMUEL.

NOW IT CAME TO PASS after the death of Saul, when DAVID was returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites, that David abode two days in Ziklag. ²And it came to pass on the third day, that behold, a man came out of the camp from Saul with his clothes rent, and earth upon his head; and so it was, when he came to David, that he fell to the ground and bowed himself. ³And David said to him, 'From whence comest thou?' And he said to him, 'Out of the camp of Israel am I 'escaped.' ⁴And David said to him, 'How went 'the matter? I pray thee tell me.' And he answered, that the people were fled from the battle, and many of the people also were fallen and dead; and Saul and Jonathan his son were dead also. ⁵And David said to the young man that told him, 'How knowest thou that Saul and Jonathan his 'son are dead?' ⁶And the young man that told him said, 'As I happened by chance to be upon 'mount Gilboa, behold, Saul was leaning upon his 'spear; and behold, the chariots and the horsemen 'were close upon him. ⁷And when he looked be- 'hind him, he saw me, and called to me. And I 'answered, Here I am. ⁸And he said to me, Who 'art thou?' And I answered him, I am an Ama- 'lekite. ⁹And he said to me, Stand, I pray thee, 'upon me, and slay me; for giddiness is come upon 'me, while my life is yet whole in me. ¹⁰So I stood 'upon him, and slew him, because I was sure that 'he could not live after that he was fallen. And I 'took the crown that was upon his head, and the 'bracelet that was on his arm, and have brought 'them hither to my lord.' ¹¹Then David took hold of his clothes, and rent them; and likewise all the men that were with him. ¹²And they mourned, and wept, and fasted until evening, for Saul, and for Jonathan his son, and for Jehovah's people, and for the house of Israel; because they were fallen by the sword.

¹³And David said to the young man that told him, 'Whence art thou?' And he answered, 'I 'am the son of a stranger, an Amalekite.' ¹⁴And David said to him, 'How wast thou not afraid to 'stretch forth thy hand to destroy the anointed of 'Jehovah?' ¹⁵And David called one of the young men, and said, 'Go near, and fall upon him.' And he smote him that he died. ¹⁶And David said to him, 'Thy blood be on thine own head. For thy 'mouth hath testified against thee, saying, I have 'slain the anointed of Jehovah.'

¹⁷And David sang this lamentation over Saul and over Jonathan his son; ¹⁸also he bade them teach the children of Judah [the poem of] the Bow; behold, it is written in the Book of Jasher.

¹⁹'The Antelope, O Israel, is slain on thy high 'places;
'How are the warriors fallen!

²⁰Tell it not in Gath,
'Publish it not in the streets of Askalon;
'Lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice,
'Lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph.
²¹Ye mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew,
'Nor rain upon you, nor fields of heave offerings;
'For there the shield of the warriors was vilely
'cast away,
'The shield of Saul, not anointed with oil.
²²From the blood of the slain, from the fat of 'the warriors,
'The Bow of Jonathan turned not back,
'And the sword of Saul returned not empty.
²³Saul and Jonathan were lovely and pleasant in 'their lives,
'And in their death they were not divided.
'They were swifter than eagles, stronger than lions.
²⁴Ye daughters of Israel, weep over Saul,
'Who clothed you in scarlet, with delicacies,
'Who put ornaments of gold upon your apparel.
²⁵How are the warriors fallen in the midst of the 'battle!
'O Jonathan, thou wast slain on thine own high 'places.
²⁶I am distressed for thee, my brother Jonathan.
'Very pleasant hast thou been unto me.
'Thy love for me was wonderful, passing the love
'of women.
²⁷How are the warriors fallen,
'And the weapons of war perished!

²And it came to pass after this, that David inquired of Jehovah, saying, 'Shall I go up unto 'any one of the cities of Judah?' And Jehovah said to him, 'Go up.' And David said, 'Whither 'shall I go up?' And he said, 'Unto Hebron.' ²So David went up thither, and his two wives also, Ahinoam the Jezreelite, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite. ³And his men that were with him did David bring up, every man with his household. And they dwelt in the cities of Hebron. ⁴And the men of Judah came, and there they anointed DAVID KING over the house of Judah [B.C. 1016].

And some told David, saying, 'The men of 'Jabesh in Gilead are they that buried Saul.' ⁵And David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh in Gilead, and said to them, 'Blessed be ye of Jeho- 'vah, that ye have shewed this kindness to Saul 'your lord, and have buried him. ⁶And now may 'Jehovah shew kindness and truth to you. And 'I also will requite you this good, because ye have 'done this thing. ⁷Therefore now let your hands 'be strengthened, and be ye sons of valour. For 'your master Saul is dead, and also the house of 'Judah have anointed me king over them.'

⁸But Abner the son of Ner, captain of Saul's host, took ISH-DOSHETH [or Ish-baal] the son of Saul, and brought him over [the Jordan] to Mahanaim; ⁹ and made him king over Gilead, and over the Ashurites, and over Jezreel, and over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, and over all Israel. ¹⁰ Ish-bosheth Saul's son was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and he reigned two years. But the house of Judah followed David. ¹¹ And the number of days that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

¹² And Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon. ¹³ And Joab the son of Zeruiah [David's sister], and the servants of David, went out. And they met together by the pool of Gibeon. And they sat down, the one on the one side of the pool, and the other on the other side of the pool. ¹⁴ And Abner said to Joab, 'Let the young men 'now arise and play before us.' And Joab said, 'Let them arise.' ¹⁵ Then there arose and went over by number twelve of Benjamin, who belonged to Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of David. ¹⁶ And they caught every one his fellow by the head, and thrust his sword in his fellow's side; so they fell down together. Therefore that place was called the field of Zurim [or Enemies], which is in Gibeon. ¹⁷ And the battle was very sore that day. And Abner was beaten, and the men of Israel, before the servants of David.

¹⁸ And there were three sons of Zeruiah there, Joab, and Abishai, and Asahel. And Asahel was as light of foot as one of the antelopes of the field. ¹⁹ And Asahel pursued after Abner; and he turned not to go to the right hand nor to the left from following Abner. ²⁰ Then Abner looked behind him, and said, 'Art thou Asahel?' And he answered, 'I am.' ²¹ And Abner said to him, 'Turn aside to thy right hand or to thy left, and lay hold on one 'of the young men, and take to thyself his spoil.' But Asahel would not turn aside from following him. ²² And Abner said again to Asahel, 'Turn 'thee aside from following me. Wherefore should 'I smite thee to the ground? How then should I 'hold up my face before Joab thy brother?' ²³ Howbeit he refused to turn aside. Therefore Abner with the hinder end of the spear smote him under the fifth rib, so that the spear came out behind him. And he fell down there, and died in the same place. And it came to pass, that as many as came to the place where Asahel fell down and died, stood still. ²⁴ Joab also and Abishai pursued after Abner. And the sun went down when they were come to the hill of Ammah, that lieth before Giah by the way of the desert of Gibeon.

²⁵ And the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together after Abner, and became one band, and stood on the top of a hill. ²⁶ Then Abner called to Joab, and said, 'Shall the sword devour 'for ever? Knowest thou not that there will be 'bitterness in the latter end? How long shall it 'be then, ere thou bid the people return from following their brethren?' ²⁷ And Joab said, 'As

'God liveth, even if thou hadst not spoken, yet 'surely in the morning the people had gone up from 'following every one his brother.' ²⁸ So Joab blew a trumpet, and all the people stood still, and pursued after Israel no more, neither fought they any more. ²⁹ And Abner and his men walked all that night through the Barren Valley, and passed over the Jordan, and went through all the Rugged Country, and they came to Mahanaim.

³⁰ And Joab returned from following Abner. And when he had gathered all the people together, there lacked of David's servants nineteen men and Asahel. ³¹ But the servants of David had smitten some of Benjamin, and of Abner's men, so that three hundred and sixty men died. ³² And they took up Asahel, and buried him in the burial-place of his father, which was at Beth-lehem. And Joab and his men went all night, and day broke upon them in Hebron.

3 Now the war was long between the house of Saul and the house of David. But David waxed stronger and stronger, and the house of Saul waxed weaker and weaker. ² And unto David were sons born in Hebron; and his first-born was Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelite; ³ and his second, Chileab, of Abigail, the wife of Nabal the Carmelite; and the third, Absalom the son of Maach the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur; ⁴ and the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith; and the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital; ⁵ and the sixth, Ithream, by Eglah David's wife. These were born to David in Hebron.

⁶ And it came to pass, while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner made himself strong in the house of Saul. ⁷ And Saul had a concubine, whose name was Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah. And [Ish-bosheth] said to Abner, 'Wherefore hast thou gone 'in unto my father's concubine?' ⁸ Then was Abner very wrath for the words of Ish-bosheth, and said, 'Am I a dog's head, who against Judah 'do shew kindness this day to the house of Saul 'thy father, to his brethren, and to his friends, 'and have not delivered thee into the hand of 'David, that thou chargest on me to-day the 'wickedness of this woman?' ⁹ So do God to Abner, 'and more also, except as Jehovah hath sworn to 'David, even so will I do to him; ¹⁰ to transfer the 'kingdom from the house of Saul, and to set up the 'throne of David over Israel and over Judah, from 'Dan even to Beer-sheba.' ¹¹ And he could not answer Abner a word again, because he feared him.

¹² And Abner sent messengers to David on his behalf, saying, 'Whose is the land?' saying also, 'Make thy league with me, and behold my hand 'shall be with thee, to turn all Israel unto thee.' ¹³ And he said, 'It is good; I will make a league 'with thee. But one thing I require of thee, 'namely, thou shalt not see my face, except thou 'first bring Michal Saul's daughter, when thou 'comest to see my face.' ¹⁴ And David sent messengers to Ish-bosheth Saul's son, saying, 'Deliver 'to me my wife Michal, whom I espoused to me 'for a hundred foreskins of the Philistines.' ¹⁵ And Ish-bosheth sent, and took her from her husband Phaltiel the son of Laish. ¹⁶ And her husband went with her, going and weeping behind her to Bahurim. Then said Abner to him, 'Go, return.' And he returned.

¹⁷ And Abner talked with the elders of Israel, saying, 'Ye sought for David in times past to be 'king over you. ¹⁸ Now then do it. For Jehovah 'hath spoken of David, saying, By the hand of my 'servant David I will save my people Israel out of 'the hand of the Philistines, and out of the hand of 'all their enemies.' ¹⁹ And Abner also spake in the ears of Benjamin. And Abner went also to speak in the ears of David in Hebron all that seemed good in the eyes of Israel, and in the eyes of the whole house of Benjamin. ²⁰ So Abner came to David to Hebron, and twenty men with him. And David made for Abner and for the men that were with him a drinking feast. ²¹ And Abner said to David, 'I will arise and go, and will gather 'all Israel to my lord the king, that they may make 'a league with thee, and that thou mayest reign 'over all that thy heart desireth.' And David sent Abner away; and he went in peace.

²² And behold, the servants of David and Joab came from an inroad, and brought in a great spoil with them. But Abner was not with David in Hebron; for he had sent him away, and he was gone in peace. ²³ When Joab and all the host that was with him were come, they told Joab, saying, 'Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he 'hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace.' ²⁴ Then Joab came to the king, and said, 'What 'hast thou done? Behold, Abner came to thee; 'why is it that thou hast sent him away, and he is 'quite gone? ²⁵ Thou knowest Abner the son of 'Ner, that he came to deceive thee, and to know 'thy going out and thy coming in, and to know all 'that thou doest.' ²⁶ And when Joab was come out from David, he sent messengers after Abner, who brought him back again from the Pit of Sirah. But David knew it not. ²⁷ And when Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside within the city gate to speak with him quietly, and smote him there under the fifth rib, so that he died, because of the blood of Asahel his brother.

²⁸ And afterwards when David heard it, he said, 'I and my kingdom are guiltless before Jehovah 'for ever from the blood of Abner the son of Ner. ²⁹ Let it rest on the head of Joab, and on all his 'father's house; and let the house of Joab never 'be without one that hath an issue, or that is a 'leper, or that leaneth on a crutch, or that falleth 'on the sword, or that lacketh bread.' ³⁰ So Joab and Abishai his brother slew Abner, because he had killed their brother Asahel at Gibeon in the battle. ³¹ And David said to Joab, and to all the people that were with him, 'Rend your clothes, 'and gird yourselves with sackcloth, and mourn 'over Abner.' And king David himself followed the bier. ³² And they buried Abner in Hebron. And the king lifted up his voice, and wept at the grave of Abner; and all the people wept. ³³ And the king sang a lament over Abner, and said,

'Should Abner die as a fool dieth?
'³⁴ Thy hands were not bound,
'Nor thy feet put into fetters;
'As a man falleth before wicked men,
'So didst thou fall.'

And all the people wept again over him. ³⁵ And when all the people came to make David eat bread while it was yet day, David sware, saying, 'So do God to me, and more also, if I taste bread, 'or aught else, till the sun be down.' ³⁶ And all the people took notice of it, and it was good in their eyes; as whatsoever the king did was good in the eyes of all the people. ³⁷ And all the people and all Israel understood that day that it was not of the king to slay Abner the son of Ner. ³⁸ And the king said to his servants, 'Know ye not that 'there is a prince and a great man fallen this day 'in Israel? ³⁹ And I am this day weak, though 'anointed king; and these men the sons of Zeruiah 'are too hard for me. Jehovah will reward the 'doer of evil according to his wickedness.'

⁴ And when Saul's son heard that Abner was dead in Hebron, his hands were feeble, and all the Israelites were troubled. ² And Saul's son had two men that were captains of bands. The name of the one was Baanah, and the name of the other Rechab, the sons of Rimmon, a Beerothite, of the children of Benjamin; (for Beeroth also was reckoned to Benjamin; ³ and the Beerothites fled to Gittaim, and were sojourners there until this day.)

⁴ And Jonathan the son of Saul had a son that was lame of his feet. He was five years old when the tidings came of Saul and Jonathan out of Jezreel, and his nurse took him up, and fled. And it came to pass, as she made haste to flee, that he fell, and became lame. And his name was Mephibosheth [or Mephi-baal].

⁵ And the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, went, and came about the heat of the day to the house of Ish-bosheth, who lay on a bed at noon. ⁶ And they came thither into the midst of the house, as though they would have fetched wheat; and they smote him under the fifth rib; and Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped. ⁷ For when they came into the house, he lay on his bed in his bedchamber, and they smote him, and slew him, and beheaded him, and took his head, and got them away through the Barren Valley all night. ⁸ And they brought the head of Ish-bosheth to David in Hebron, and said to the king, 'Behold the head of Ish-bosheth the son of 'Saul thine enemy, who sought thy life; and Je-'hovah hath avenged my lord the king this day 'upon Saul, and upon his seed.' ⁹ And David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said to them, 'As 'Jehovah liveth, who hath redeemed my soul out

'of all adversity,¹⁰ when one told me, saying, Behold, Saul is dead, and he was in his own eyes a bringer of good tidings, I took hold of him and slew him in Ziklag, which was my reward for his tidings;¹¹ how much more, when wicked men have slain a righteous person in his own house upon his bed? Shall I not therefore now require his blood at your hand, and take you away from the earth?'¹² And David commanded his young men, and they slew them, and cut off their hands and their feet, and hanged them up over the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ish-bosheth, and buried it in the burial-place of Abner in Hebron.

5 Then came all the heads of the tribes of Israel to David in Hebron, and spake, saying, 'Behold, we are thy bone and thy flesh.'² Also in time past, when Saul was king over us, thou wast he that leddest out and broughtest in Israel. And Jehovah said to thee, Thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be a leader over Israel.'³ So all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron; and king David made a league with them in Hebron before Jehovah. And they anointed DAVID KING OVER ISRAEL [B.C. 1008].⁴ (David was thirty years old when he began to reign [B.C. 1016], and he reigned forty years.⁵ In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months; and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years over all Israel and Judah.)

6 And the king and his men went to Jerusalem to the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land. And they spake to David, saying, 'Thou shalt not come in hither, for even the blind and the lame will drive thee off;' meaning, David cannot come in hither.⁷ Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion; the same is the city of David.⁸ And David said on that day, 'Let every one get up through the water-course, and smite the Jebusites, even to the lame and the blind, that are hated of David's soul.' (Therefore they say [Lev. xxi. 18], 'The blind and the lame shall not come into the House.') So David dwelt in the stronghold, and called it the city of David. And David built round about from Millo [or the castle] and inward.¹⁰ And David went on, and grew great, and Jehovah the God of hosts was with him.

11 And Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, and cutters of wood and cutters of stone for walls; and they built David a house.¹² And David perceived that Jehovah had exalted him king over Israel, and that he had established his kingdom for his people Israel's sake.

13 And David took him more concubines and wives out of Jerusalem, after he was come from Hebron; and there were yet sons and daughters born to David.¹⁴ And these are the names of those that were born to him in Jerusalem; Sham-muah, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomon,¹⁵ and Ibhaz, and Elishua, and Nepheg, and Japhia,¹⁶ and Elishama, and Eliada, and Eliphalet.

17 But when the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel, all the Philistines came up to seek David. And David heard of it, and went down to the stronghold.¹⁸ The Philistines also came and spread themselves in the Valley of the Giants.¹⁹ And David inquired of Jehovah, saying, 'Shall I go up to the Philistines? Wilt thou deliver them up into my hand?' And Jehovah said to David, 'Go up; for I will surely deliver the Philistines into thy hand.'²⁰ And David came to Baal-perezim, and David smote them there, and said, 'Jehovah hath broken forth upon mine enemies before me, as the breaking-forth of waters.' Therefore he called the name of that place Baal-perezim [or—of breaking-forth].²¹ And there they left their images, and David and his men carried them away.

22 And the Philistines came up yet again, and spread themselves in the Valley of the Giants.²³ And when David inquired of Jehovah, he said, 'Thou shalt not go up; but go round about behind them, and come upon them over against the balsam trees.'²⁴ And let it be when thou hearest the sound of marching on the tops of the balsam trees, that then thou shalt bestir thyself; for then will Jehovah go out before thee, to smite the camp of the Philistines.'²⁵ And David did so as Jehovah had commanded him; and he smote the Philistines from Gibeah [or Gibeon] until thou come to Gezer.

6 Again, David gathered together all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand.² And David arose, and went with all the people that were with him from Baalah of Judah, to bring up from thence the Ark of God, whose name is called by the name of Jehovah of hosts that dwelleth between the cherubs.³ And they set the Ark of God upon a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab that was in Gibeah; and Uzza and his brother, the sons of Abinadab, drove the new cart.⁴ And they brought it out of the house of Abinadab which was at Gibeah [or Gibeon], with the Ark of God. And his brother went before the Ark.⁵ And David and all the house of Israel played before Jehovah on all manner of instruments made of fir-wood, even on harps, and on psalteries, and on timbrels, and on tinkling rods, and on cymbals.

6 And when they came to Nachon's threshing-floor, Uzzah stretched forth to the Ark of God, and took hold of it; for the oxen stumbled.⁷ And the anger of Jehovah was kindled against Uzzah. And God smote him there for his rashness; and there he died by the Ark of God.⁸ And David was displeased, because Jehovah had made a breach upon Uzzah. And he called the name of the place Perez-uzzah [or the breach of Uzzah], as it is this day.⁹ And David was afraid of Jehovah that day, and said, 'How shall the Ark of Jehovah come to me?'¹⁰ So David would not remove the Ark of Jehovah unto himself into the city of David; but David carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.¹¹ And the Ark of Jehovah continued in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite for three months. And Jehovah blessed Obed-edom, and all his household.

¹² And it was told king David, saying, 'Jehovah hath blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that belongeth to him, because of the Ark of God.' So David went and brought up the Ark of God from the house of Obed-edom into the city of David with rejoicing. ¹³ And it was so, that when they that carried the Ark of Jehovah had gone six paces, he sacrificed oxen and fatlings. ¹⁴ And David danced before Jehovah with all his might; and David was girded with a linen Ephod [or priestly dress]. ¹⁵ So David and all the house of Israel brought up the Ark of Jehovah with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet. ¹⁶ And as the Ark of Jehovah came into the city of David, Michal Saul's daughter looked through a window, and saw king David leaping and dancing before Jehovah; and she despised him in her heart.

¹⁷ And they brought in the Ark of Jehovah, and set it in its place, in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it. And David offered up burnt offerings and peace offerings before Jehovah. ¹⁸ And as soon as David had made an end of offering up burnt offerings and peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of Jehovah of hosts. ¹⁹ And he dealt among all the people, even among the whole multitude of Israel, as well to the women as to the men, to every one a pricked cake of bread, and a measure [of wine], and a raisin cake. Then all the people departed every one to his house.

²⁰ Then David returned to bless his household. And Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, 'How glorious was the king of Israel to-day, who uncovered himself to-day in the eyes of the handmaids of his servants, as one of the vain fellows shamelessly uncovereth himself!' ²¹ And David said to Michal, 'It was before Jehovah, who chose me before thy father, and before all his house, to appoint me leader over the people of Jehovah, over Israel. Therefore did I make merry before Jehovah. ²² And I am even too vile for this; and I am base in mine own sight; and with the maid-servants whom thou hast spoken of, together with them may I be had in honour.' ²³ And Michal the daughter of Saul had no child unto the day of her death.

⁷ And it came to pass, when the king sat in his house, and Jehovah had given him rest round about from all his enemies; ² that the king said to Nathan the prophet, 'See now, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the Ark of God dwelleth within curtains.' ³ And Nathan said to the king, 'Go, do all that is in thy heart; for Jehovah is with thee.' ⁴ But it came to pass that night, that the word of Jehovah came to Nathan, saying, ⁵ 'Go and tell my servant David, Thus saith Jehovah, Shalt thou build me a house for me to dwell in? ⁶ Whereas I have not dwelt in a house since the time that I brought up the children of Israel out of Lower Egypt, even to this day, but I have been going about in a tent and in a tabernacle. ⁷ In all the places wherein I have gone about with all the children of Israel spake I a word with any of the heads of the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to feed my people Israel, saying, Why build ye not for me a house of cedar? ⁸ Now therefore so shalt thou say to my servant David, Thus saith Jehovah of hosts, I took thee from the sheepcote, from following the sheep, to be the leader over my people Israel. ⁹ And I was with thee whithersoever thou wentest, and I have cut off all thine enemies out of thy sight, and have made for thee a great name, like unto the name of the great men that are on the earth. ¹⁰ Moreover I have appointed a place for my people Israel, and have planted them, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more; neither shall the sons of wickedness afflict them any more, as beforetyme. ¹¹ And since the time that I commanded Judges to be over my people Israel, I have also caused thee to rest from all thine enemies. Also Jehovah telleth thee that Jehovah will make for thee a house. ¹² For when thy days be fulfilled, and thou shalt sleep with thy fathers, I will set up thy seed after thee, which shall proceed out of thy bowels, and I will establish his kingdom. ¹³ He shall build a House for my Name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom for ever. ¹⁴ I will be his father, and he shall be my son. If he commit iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men, and with the stripes of the sons of Adam. ¹⁵ But my kindness shall not depart away from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away from before thee. ¹⁶ And thy house and thy kingdom shall be established for ever before thee; thy throne shall be established for ever.' ¹⁷ According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak to David.

¹⁸ Then went king David in, and sat before Jehovah, and he said, 'Who am I, O Lord Jehovah? and what is my house, that thou hast brought me hither?' ¹⁹ And this was yet a small thing in thy sight, O Lord Jehovah; but thou hast spoken also of thy servant's house, for a great while to come. And this is a law for men, O Lord Jehovah. ²⁰ And what can David say more to thee? for thou, O Lord Jehovah, knowest thy servant. ²¹ For thy word's sake, and according to thine own heart, hast thou done all these great things, to make thy servant know them. ²² Therefore thou art great, O Jehovah God. For there is none like thee, neither is there any God beside thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears. ²³ And what one nation in the earth is like thy people Israel, whom God went to redeem for a people to himself, and to make for him a name, and to do for you great things and terrible, for thy land, before thy people, whom thou redeemedst to thee from Lower Egypt, from the Nations and their gods? ²⁴ For thou hast confirmed to thyself thy people Israel to be a people unto thee for ever. And thou, Jehovah, art become their God. ²⁵ And now, O Jehovah God, the word that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant, and concerning his house, raise it up for 'ever, and do as thou hast said. ²⁶ And let thy name be magnified for ever, saying, Jehovah of hosts is the God over Israel, and let the house of thy servant David be established before thee. ²⁷ For thou, O Jehovah of hosts, God of Israel, hast revealed to the ear of thy servant, saying, I will build for thee a house; therefore hath thy servant found in his heart to pray this prayer unto thee. ²⁸ And now, O Lord Jehovah, thou art that God, and thy words are truth, and thou hast promised this goodness unto thy servant. ²⁹ Therefore now let it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may continue for ever before thee. For thou, O Lord Jehovah, hast spoken; and with thy blessing let the house of thy servant be blessed for ever.'

8 And after this it came to pass, that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them. And David took the bridle of the chief city out of the hand of the Philistines.

² And he smote Moab, and measured them with a line, making them to lie on the ground; even with two lines measured he to put to death, and with one full line to keep alive. And the Moabites became David's servants, and brought gifts.

³ David smote also Hadadezer, the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, as he went to recover his border at the river Euphrates. ⁴ And David took from him a thousand and seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand men on foot. And David lamed all the chariot horses, but reserved of them for a hundred chariots. ⁵ And when the Syrians of Damascus came to succour Hadadezer king of Zobah, David slew of the Syrians twenty and two thousand men. ⁶ Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus; and the Syrians became servants to David, and brought gifts. And Jehovah gave victory to David whithersoever he went. ⁷ And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem. ⁸ And from Bethan, and from Berothai [or Beyrout], cities of Hadadezer, king David took exceeding much copper.

⁹ When Toi king of Hamath heard that David had smitten all the host of Hadadezer, ¹⁰ then Toi sent Joram his son to king David, to salute him, and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer, and smitten him; for Hadadezer had wars with Toi. And [Joram] brought with him vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and vessels of copper. ¹¹ These also king David did make holy unto Jehovah, with the silver and gold that he had made holy out of all nations which he subdued; ¹² of Syria, and of Moab, and of the Children of Ammon, and of the Philistines, and of Amalek, and of the spoil of Hadadezer, son of Rehob, king of Zobah.

¹³ David also made for himself a name on his return from smiting the Syrians in the valley of Salt, eighteen thousand of them. ¹⁴ And he put garrisons in Edom; throughout all Edom, put he garrisons, and all the men of Edom became David's servants. And Jehovah gave victory to David whithersoever he went.

¹⁵ And David reigned over all Israel; and David executed judgment and righteousness unto all his people. ¹⁶ And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the host; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder; ¹⁷ and Zadok the son of Ahitub and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar were priests; and Seraiah was the scribe; ¹⁸ and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over both the axe-bearers and the runners; and David's sons were priests.

9 And David said, 'Is there any one that is left of the house of Saul, that I may show him kindness for Jonathan's sake?' ² And there was of the house of Saul a servant whose name was Ziba. And when they had called him to David, the king said to him, 'Art thou Ziba?' And he said, 'Thy servant is he.' ³ And the king said, 'Is there not yet a man of the house of Saul, that I may shew the kindness of God unto him?' And Ziba said to the king, 'Jonathan hath yet a son, who hath been hurt in his feet.' ⁴ And the king said to him, 'Where is he?' And Ziba said to the king, 'Behold, he is in the house of Machir, the son of Ammiel, in Lo-debar.'

⁵ Then king David sent, and fetched him out of the house of Machir, the son of Ammiel, from Lo-debar. ⁶ Now when Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, was come to David, he fell on his face, and did reverence. And David said, 'Mephibosheth.' And he answered, 'Behold thy servant!' ⁷ And David said to him, 'Fear not; for I will surely shew thee kindness for Jonathan thy father's sake, and will restore to thee all the land of Saul thy father; and thou shalt eat bread at my table continually.' ⁸ And he bowed himself, and said, 'What is thy servant that thou shouldest look upon such a dead dog as I am?' ⁹ Then the king called to Ziba, Saul's servant, and said to him, 'I have given to thy master's son all that pertained to Saul and to all his house. ¹⁰ Thou therefore, and thy sons, and thy servants, shall till the land for him, and thou shalt bring in the fruits, that thy master's son may have bread to eat; but Mephibosheth thy master's son shall eat bread always at my table.' Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants. ¹¹ Then said Ziba to the king, 'According to all that my lord the king commandeth his servant, so will thy servant do.' 'As for Mephibosheth,' [said the king], 'he shall eat at my table, as one of the king's sons.' ¹² And Mephibosheth had a young son, whose name was Micha. And all that dwelt in the house of Ziba were servants unto Mephibosheth. ¹³ But Mephibosheth dwelt in Jerusalem. For he did eat continually at the king's table; and he was lame in both his feet.

10 And it came to pass after this, that the king of the Children of Ammon died, and Hanun his son reigned in his stead. ² Then said David, 'I will shew kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father shewed kindness to me.' And David sent to comfort him by the hand of his servants for his father. And David's servants came into the land of the Children of Ammon. ³ And the princes of the Children of Ammon said to Hanun their lord, 'Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters to thee? Hath not David sent his servants to thee in order to search the city, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it?' ⁴ Therefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaved off the one half of their beards, and cut off their garments in their middle, at their buttocks, and sent them away. ⁵ When they told it to David, he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed; and the king said, 'Tarry at Jerichountil your beards be grown, and then return.'

⁶ And when the Children of Ammon saw that they stank before David, the Children of Ammon sent and hired the Syrians of Beth-rehob, and the Syrians of Zoba, twenty thousand men on foot, and the king of Maacah with a thousand men, and of the king of Tob twelve thousand men. ⁷ And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of the warriors. ⁸ And the Children of Ammon came out and put the battle in array at the entrance of the gate [of Rabbah]; and the Syrians of Zoba and of Rehob, and the men of Tob and Maacah, were by themselves in the field. ⁹ When Joab saw that a front of the battle was against him before and behind, he chose some of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians. ¹⁰ And the rest of the people he delivered into the hand of Abishai his brother, that he might put them in array against the Children of Ammon. ¹¹ And he said, 'If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me; but if the Children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will come and help thee. ¹² Be strong, and let us make ourselves strong for our people, and for the cities of our God; and Jehovah will do what seemeth to him good.' ¹³ And Joab drew nigh, and the people that were with him, into the battle against the Syrians. And they fled before him. ¹⁴ And when the Children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, then fled they also before Abishai, and entered into the city. So Joab returned from the Children of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem.

¹⁵ And when the Syrians saw that they were smitten before Israel, they gathered themselves together. ¹⁶ And Hadarezer sent, and brought out the Syrians that were beyond the River [Euphrates]. And they came to Helam; and Shobach the captain of the host of Hadarezer went before them. ¹⁷ And when it was told David, he gathered all Israel together, and passed over the Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Syrians set themselves in array against David, and fought with him. ¹⁸ And the Syrians fled before Israel; and David destroyed seven hundred chariots of the Syrians, and forty thousand horsemen, and smote Shobach the captain of their host, who died there. ¹⁹ And when all the kings that were servants to Hadarezer saw that they were smitten before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and served them. So the Syrians feared to help the Children of Ammon any more.

⁵ And the woman conceived, and sent and told David, and said, 'I am with child.' ⁶ And David sent to Joab, [saying,] 'Send me Uriah the Hittite?' And Joab sent Uriah to David. ⁷ And when Uriah was come to him, David demanded of him how Joab did, and how the people did, and how the war prospered. ⁸ And David said to Uriah, 'Go down to thy house, and wash thy feet.' And Uriah departed out of the king's house, and there followed him a gift from the king. ⁹ But Uriah lay down at the doorway of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and went not down to his own house. ¹⁰ And when they had told David, saying, 'Uriah went not down to his house,' David said to Uriah, 'Camest thou not from a journey? Why then didst thou not go down to thy house?' ¹¹ And Uriah said to David, 'The Ark, and Israel, and Judah, abide in booths; and my lord Joab, and the servants of my lord, are encamped in the open fields; shall I then go into my house, to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? As thou livest, and as thy soul liveth, I will not do this thing.' ¹² And David said to Uriah, 'Tarry here to-day also, and to-morrow I will let thee depart.' So Uriah abode in Jerusalem that day, and the morrow. ¹³ And when David had called him, he did eat and drink before him; and he made him drunk. And at evening he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of his lord, but went not down to his house.

¹⁴ And it came to pass in the morning, that David wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah. ¹⁵ And he wrote in the letter, saying, 'Set ye Uriah in the front of the hottest battle, and retire ye from him, that he may be smitten, and die.' ¹⁶ And it came to pass, when Joab observed the city, that he assigned Uriah to a place where he knew that valiant men were. ¹⁷ And the men of the city went out, and fought with Joab. And there fell some of the people of the servants of David; and Uriah the Hittite died also.

¹⁸ Then Joab sent and told David all the things concerning the war; ¹⁹ and charged the messenger, saying, 'When thou hast made an end of telling the matters of the war to the king, ²⁰ and if so be that the king's wrath arise, and he say to thee, 'Wherefore approached ye so nigh to the city when ye did fight? Knew ye not that they would shoot from the wall?' ²¹ Who smote Abimelech the son of Jerubbosheth [or Jerubbaal]? Did not a woman cast a piece of a mill-stone upon him from the wall, that he died in Thebez? Why went ye nigh the wall? then say thou, Thy servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.'

²² So the messenger went, and came and shewed David all that Joab had sent him for. ²³ And the messenger said to David, 'Surely the men prevailed against us, and came out to us into the field, and we were upon them even unto the entrance of the city gate. ²⁴ And the shooters shot from off the wall upon thy servants; and some of the king's servants are dead, and thy servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.' ²⁵ Then David said to the messenger, 'Thou shalt thou say to Joab, Let not this thing be evil in thine eyes, for the sword devoureth one as well as another. Make thy battle more strong against the city, and overthrow it. And encourage thou him.'

²⁶ And when the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she mourned for her husband. ²⁷ And when the mourning was past, David sent and fetched her to his house, and she became his wife, and bare him a son.

But the thing that David had done was evil in the eyes of Jehovah. 12 And Jehovah sent Nathan to David. And he came to him, and said to him, 'There were two men in one city; the one rich and the other poor. ² The rich man had very many flocks and herds. ³ But the poor man had nothing, save one little ewe lamb, which he had bought and nourished up; and it grew up together with him, and with his children; it did eat of his own crust, and drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosom, and was unto him as a daughter. ⁴ And there came a traveller to the rich man. And he spared to take of his own flock and of his own herd, to dress for the wayfaring man that was come to him; but took the poor man's lamb, and dressed it for the man that was come to him.' ⁵ And David's anger was greatly kindled against the man; and he said to Nathan, 'As Jehovah liveth, the man that hath done this shall surely die. ⁶ And he shall restore the lamb fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity.' ⁷ And Nathan said to David, 'Thou art the man. Thus saith Jehovah the God of Israel, I anointed thee king over Israel, and I delivered thee out of the hand of Saul. ⁸ And I gave thee thy master's house, and thy master's wives into thy bosom, and gave thee the house of Israel and of Judah; and if that had been too little, I would moreover have given to thee such and such things. ⁹ Wherefore hast thou despised the commandment of Jehovah, to do evil in his eyes? Thou hast smitten Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and hast taken his wife to be thy wife, and hast slain him with the sword of the Children of Ammon. ¹⁰ Now therefore the sword shall never depart from thy house, because thou hast despised me, and hast taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be thy wife. ¹¹ Thus saith Jehovah, Behold, I will raise up evil against thee out of thine own house, and I will take thy wives before thine eyes, and give them to thy neighbour, and he shall lie with thy wives in the sight of this sun. ¹² For thou didst it secretly. But I will do this thing before all Israel, and before the sun.' ¹³ And David said to Nathan, 'I have sinned against Jehovah.' And Nathan said to David, 'Jehovah also hath put away thy sin; thou shalt not die. ¹⁴ Howbeit, because by this deed thou hast given great occasion to the enemies of Jehovah to blaspheme, the son also that is born unto thee shall surely die.'

¹⁵ And Nathan departed to his house. And Jehovah struck the child that Uriah's wife had borne unto David, and it was very sick. ¹⁶ David therefore besought God for the child; and David kept his fast, and went in, and stayed all night, and lay upon the earth. ¹⁷ And the elders of his house arose, and went to him, to raise him up from the earth. But he would not, neither did he eat bread with them. ¹⁸ And it came to pass on the seventh day, that the child died. And the servants of David feared to tell him that the child was dead. For they said, 'Behold, while the child was yet alive, we spake to him, and he would not hearken to our voice. How then, if we tell him that the child is dead? He may do some evil.' ¹⁹ But when David saw that his servants whispered, David perceived that the child was dead. Therefore David said to his servants, 'Is the child dead?' And they said, 'He is dead.' ²⁰ Then David arose from the earth, and washed, and anointed himself, and changed his apparel, and came into the House of Jehovah, and worshipped. Then he came to his own house; and when he asked, they set bread before him, and he did eat. ²¹ Then said his servants to him, 'What thing is this that thou hast done? Thou didst fast and weep for the child, while it was alive; but when the child was dead, thou didst rise and dost eat bread.' ²² And he said, 'While the child was yet alive, I fasted and wept; for I said, Who knoweth whether Jehovah will be gracious to me, that the child may live? ²³ But now he is dead, wherefore should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he will not return to me.'

¹³ And it came to pass after this, that Absalom the son of David had a fair sister, whose name was Tamar; and Amnon the son of David loved her. ² And Amnon was so vexed, that he fell sick for his sister Tamar. For she was a maiden; and in the eyes of Amnon it was difficult to do anything to her. ³ But Amnon had a friend, whose name was Jonadab, the son of Shimeah David's brother. And Jonadab was a very subtle man. ⁴ And he said to him, 'Why art thou, being the king's son, so falling away from morning to morning? Wilt thou not tell me?' And Amnon said to him, 'I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister.' ⁵ And Jonadab said to him, 'Lay thee down on thy bed, and make thyself sick. And when thy father cometh to see thee, say to him, I pray thee, let my sister Tamar come, and give me bread, and dress the food in my sight, that I may see it, and eat it from her hand.'

⁶ So Amnon lay down, and made himself sick. And when the king was come to see him, Amnon said to the king, 'I pray thee, let Tamar my sister come, and make me a couple of pancakes in my sight, that I may eat from her hand.' ⁷ Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, 'Go now to thy brother Amnon's house, and dress him food.' ⁸ So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was laid down. And she took dough, and kneaded it, and made pancakes in his sight, and did cook the pancakes. ⁹ And she took a pan, and poured them out before him. But he refused to eat. And Amnon said, 'Put out all men from me.' And they went out every man from him. ¹⁰ And Amnon said to Tamar, 'Bring the food into the chamber, that I may eat from thy hand.' And Tamar took the pancakes which she had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother. ¹¹ And when she had brought them to him to eat, he took hold of her, and said to her, 'Come lie with me, my sister.' ¹² And she answered him, 'Nay, my brother, do not humble me; for no

'such thing ought to be done in Israel. Do not thou this folly. ¹³ And I, whither shall I cause my shame to go? And as for thee, thou shalt be as one of the fools in Israel. Now therefore, I pray thee, speak to the king; for he will not withhold me from thee.' ¹⁴ Howbeit he would not hearken to her voice; but, being stronger than she, humbled her, and lay with her. ¹⁵ Then Amnon hated her with very great hatred; so that the hatred wherewith he hated her was greater than the love wherewith he had loved her. And Amnon said to her, 'Arise, be gone.' ¹⁶ And she said to him, 'There is no cause. This evil in sending me away is greater than the other that thou didst to me.' But he would not hearken to her. ¹⁷ Then he called his servant that ministered to him, and said, 'Put now this woman away from me outside, and bolt the door after her.' ¹⁸ And she had a garment with long skirts upon her; for with such robes were the king's maiden daughters apparelled. Then his servant brought her outside, and bolted the door after her.

²³ And it came to pass after two years, that Absalom had sheep-shearers in Baal-hazor, which is beside Ephraim. And Absalom invited all the king's sons. ²⁴ And Absalom came to the king, and said, 'Behold now thy servant hath sheep-shearers; let the king, I beseech thee, and his servants go with thy servant.' ²⁵ And the king said to Absalom, 'Nay, my son, let us not all now go, lest we be chargeable unto thee.' And he pressed him. Howbeit he would not go, but blessed him. ²⁶ Then said Absalom, 'If not, I pray thee let my brother Amnon go with us.' And the king said to him, 'Why should he go with thee?' ²⁷ But Absalom pressed him, that he sent Amnon and all the king's sons with him.

²⁸ Now Absalom commanded his servants, saying, 'Mark ye now when Amnon's heart is merry with wine, and when I say to you, Smite Amnon; then kill him, fear not. Will ye not, since I have commanded you? Be courageous, and be sons of valour.' ²⁹ And the servants of Absalom did to Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons arose, and every man rode upon his mule and fled.

³⁰ And it came to pass, while they were on the way, that tidings came to David, saying, 'Absalom

'hath slain all the king's sons, and there is not one of them left.' ³¹ Then the king arose, and rent his garments, and lay on the earth; and all his servants stood by rending their garments. ³² And Jonadab, the son of Shimeah David's brother, answered and said, 'Let not my lord suppose that they have slain all the young men the king's sons. For Amnon only is dead. For it was by the command of Absalom, having been determined from the day that he humbled his sister Tamar.' ³³ Now therefore let not my lord the king take the thing to his heart, to think that all the king's sons are dead. For Amnon only is dead.' ³⁴ But Absalom fled. And the young man that was on the look-out lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold, there came much people by the way of the hill side behind him. ³⁵ And Jonadab said to the king, 'Behold, the king's sons are come. As thy servant said, so it is.' ³⁶ And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of speaking, that, behold, the king's sons came, and lifted up their voices and wept. And the king also and all his servants wept with a very great weeping.

³⁷ But Absalom fled, and went to Talmai, the son of Ammihud, king of Geshur. And [David] mourned for his son every day. ³⁸ So Absalom fled, and went to Geshur, and was there three years.

³⁹ And king David pined to go forth to Absalom; for he was comforted concerning Amnon, seeing he was dead. ¹⁴ And Joab the son of Zeruiah knew that the king's heart was toward Absalom. ² And Joab sent to Tekoah, and fetched thence a wise woman. And he said to her, 'I pray thee, act the mourner, and put on now mourning apparel, and anoint not thyself with oil, and be as a woman that hath a long time mourned for one dead.' ³ And come to the king, and speak in this manner unto him.' So Joab put the words into her mouth.

⁴ And when the woman of Tekoah spake to the king, she fell on her face to the ground, and did reverence, and said, 'Help, O king.' ⁵ And the king said to her, 'What aileth thee?' And she answered, 'I am indeed a widow woman, and my husband is dead. ⁶ And thy handmaid had two sons, and they two strove together in the field, and there was none to part them, but the one smote the other, and slew him. ⁷ And behold, the whole family is risen against thy handmaid, and they said, Deliver up him that smote his brother, that we may kill him, for the life of his brother whom he slew; and we will destroy the heir also. And so they will quench my coal which is left, so as not to leave to my husband either name or remainder upon the face of the earth.' ⁸ And the king said to the woman, 'Go to thy house, and I will give charge concerning thee.' ⁹ And the woman of Tekoah said to the king, 'My lord, O king, the iniquity be on me, and on my father's house; and the king and his throne be guiltless.' ¹⁰ And the king said, 'Whosoever saith aught to thee, bring him to me, and he shall not touch thee any more.' ¹¹ Then said she, 'I pray

'thee, let the king remember Jehovah thy God, that the revengers of blood may not destroy any more, lest they destroy my son.' And he said 'As Jehovah liveth, there shall not one hair of thy son fall to the earth.' ¹² Then the woman said, 'Let thy handmaid, I pray thee, speak one word to my lord the king.' And he said, 'Say on.' ¹³ And the woman said, 'Wherefore then hast thou thought such a thing against the people of God? For the king while speaking this thing is as one who is faulty, in that the king doth not fetch home again his banished one. ¹⁴ For we must needs die, and are as water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again; neither doth God respect any person; yet doth he devise means, that his banished one be not expelled from him. ¹⁵ Now therefore that I am come to speak of this thing to my lord the king, it is because the people have made me afraid. And thy handmaid said, I will now speak to the king; it may be that the king will perform the request of his maidservant. ¹⁶ For the king will hear, to deliver his maidservant out of the hand of the man that would destroy me and my son together out of the inheritance of God. ¹⁷ Then thy handmaid said, Let the word of my lord the king now be a comfort. For as an angel of God, so is my lord the king to hearken to good and bad. And may Jehovah thy God be with thee.'

¹⁸ Then the king answered and said to the woman, 'Hide not from me, I pray thee, the thing that I shall ask thee.' And the woman said, 'Let the lord my king now speak.' ¹⁹ And the king said, 'The hand of Joab is with thee in all this.' And the woman answered and said, 'As thy soul liveth, my lord the king, none can turn to the right hand or to the left from aught that the lord my king hath spoken. For thy servant Joab, he bade me, and he put all these words in the mouth of thy handmaid. ²⁰ For to bring about a change in the face of this matter hath thy servant Joab done this thing. And my lord is wise, according to the wisdom of an angel of God, to know all things that are in the earth.' ²¹ And the king said to Joab, 'Behold now, I have done this thing. Go therefore, bring the young man Absalom again.' ²² And Joab fell to the ground on his face, and bowed himself, and blessed the king. And Joab said, 'To-day thy servant knoweth that I have found grace in thy sight, my lord, O king, in that the king hath fulfilled the request of his servant.' ²³ So Joab arose and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem. ²⁴ And the king said, 'Let him turn to his own house, and let him not see my face.' So Absalom turned to his own house, and saw not the king's face.

²⁵ And in all Israel there was not a man so beautiful, so greatly to be praised as Absalom. From the sole of his foot even to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him. ²⁶ And when he cropped the hair of his head, (for it was at every year's end that he cropped it; because it was heavy on him, therefore he cropped it;) he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred Shekels [or six pounds] after the king's weight. ²⁷ And unto Absalom there were born three sons, and one daughter, whose name was Tamar; she was a woman of a beautiful countenance.

²⁸ So Absalom dwelt two years in Jerusalem, and saw not the king's face. ²⁹ Therefore Absalom sent for Joab, to have sent him to the king; but he would not come to him. And when he sent again the second time, he would not come. ³⁰ Therefore he said to his servants, 'See, Joab's field is 'near mine, and he hath barley there; go and set 'it on fire.' And Absalom's servants set the field on fire. ³¹ Then Joab arose, and came to Absalom to his house, and said to him, 'Wherefore have thy 'servants set my field on fire?' ³² And Absalom answered Joab, 'Behold, I sent to thee, saying, 'Come hither, that I may send thee to the king, to 'say, Wherefore am I come from Geshur? It had 'been good for me to have been there still. Now 'therefore let me see the king's face; and if there 'be any iniquity in me, let him kill me.' ³³ So Joab came to the king, and told him. And when he had called for Absalom, he came to the king, and bowed himself to him, with his face to the ground before the king. And the king kissed Absalom.

¹⁵ And it came to pass after this, that Absalom prepared for himself a chariot and horses, and fifty men to run before him. ² And Absalom rose up early, and stood beside the way of the city gate. And it was so, that when any man that had a quarrel came to the king for judgment, then Absalom called to him, and said, 'Of what city art 'thou?' And he said, 'Thy servant is of one of 'the tribes of Israel.' ³ And Absalom said to him, 'See, thy matters are good and right; but there is 'no man from the king to hear thee.' ⁴ Absalom said moreover, 'Oh that I were made judge in the 'land, that every man who hath any quarrel or 'cause might come to me, and I would do him justice!' ⁵ And it was so, that when any man came nigh to him to do him reverence, he put forth his hand, and took him and kissed him. ⁶ And on this manner did Absalom to all Israel that came to the king for judgment. So Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

⁷ And it came to pass at the end of forty years, that Absalom said to the king, 'I pray thee, let 'me go and pay unto Jehovah, in Hebron, my vow, 'which I have vowed. ⁸ For thy servant vowed a 'vow while I abode at Geshur in Syria, saying, If 'Jehovah shall indeed bring me again to Jerusalem, 'then I will serve Jehovah.' ⁹ And the king said to him, 'Go in peace.' So he arose, and went to Hebron. ¹⁰ But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, 'As soon as ye hear the 'sound of the trumpet, then ye shall say, Absalom 'reigneth in Hebron.' ¹¹ And with Absalom went two hundred men out of Jerusalem, that were called; and they went in their simplicity; and they knew not any thing. ¹² And Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counsellor, from Giloh his city, while he sacrificed sacrifices. And the conspiracy was strong; for the people increased continually with Absalom.

¹³ And there came one who told David, saying, 'The hearts of the men of Israel are after Absalom.' ¹⁴ And David said to all his servants that were with him in Jerusalem, 'Arise, and let us 'flee; for we shall not else escape from Absalom. 'Make speed to depart, lest he overtake us suddenly, and bring evil upon us, and smite the city 'with the edge of the sword.' ¹⁵ And the king's servants said to the king, 'Behold, we are thy servants for whatsoever my lord the king wisheth.' ¹⁶ And the king went forth, and all his household in his footsteps. And the king left ten women, who were concubines, to keep the house. ¹⁷ And the king went forth, and all the people in his footsteps, and tarried in a house that was afar off. ¹⁸ And all his servants passed on beside him; and all the axe-bearers, and all the runners, and all the Gathites, six hundred men who came in his footsteps from Gath, passed on before the king.

¹⁹ Then said the king to Ittai the Gathite, 'Wherefore goest thou also with us? Return and 'abide with the king, for thou art a foreigner, and 'also an exile from thy place. ²⁰ Whereas thou 'camest but yesterday, should I this day make thee 'to wander with us in our goings? Seeing I go 'whither I may, return thou, and take back thy 'brethren. Kindness and truth be with thee.' ²¹ And Ittai answered the king, and said, 'As 'Jehovah liveth, and as my lord the king liveth, 'surely in what place my lord the king shall be, 'whether in death or in life, even there also will 'thy servant be.' ²² And David said to Ittai, 'Go 'and pass on.' And Ittai the Gathite passed on, and all his men, and all the little ones that were with him. ²³ And all the country wept with a loud voice, and all the people passed on. The king also himself passed on by the valley of the Kidron, and all the people passed on, toward the way of the desert.

²⁴ And lo Zadok also, and all the Levites were with him, bearing the Ark of the Covenant of God. And they set down the Ark of God; and Abiathar went up, until all the people had done passing out of the city. ²⁵ And the king said to Zadok, 'Carry 'back the Ark of God into the city. If I shall find 'favour in the eyes of Jehovah, he will bring me 'again, and will let me see both it, and his habitation. ²⁶ But if he say thus, I have no delight in 'thee; behold, here I am, let him do to me as 'seemeth good unto him.' ²⁷ The king said also to Zadok the priest, 'Dost thou see fit? Return into 'the city in peace, and Ahimaaz thy son, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar, your two sons with you. ²⁸ See, I will tarry in the barren valleys of the 'desert, until there come word from you to certify 'me.' ²⁹ Zadok therefore and Abiathar carried the Ark of God again to Jerusalem. And they dwelt there.

³⁰ And David went up by the hill road [of the mount] of Olives, and wept as he went up, and had his head covered, and he went barefoot. And all the people that were with him covered every man his head, and they went up, weeping as they went up. ³¹ And some one told David, saying, 'Ahiathophel is among the conspirators with Absalom.' And David said, 'O Jehovah, I pray thee, turn the counsel of Ahiathophel into foolishness.'

³² And it came to pass, that when David was come to the top [of the mount], where he worshipped God, behold, Hushai the Archite came to meet him with his coat rent, and earth upon his head; ³³ to whom David said, 'If thou passeth on with me, then thou wilt be a burden to me. ³⁴ But if thou return to the city, and say to Absalom, I will be thy servant, O king; as I have been thy father's servant hitherto, so will I now also be thy servant; then mayest thou for me defeat the counsel of Ahiathophel. ³⁵ And hast thou not there with thee Zadok and Abiathar the priests? Therefore it shall be, that what thing soever thou shalt hear out of the king's house, thou shalt tell it to Zadok and Abiathar the priests. ³⁶ Behold, they have there with them their two sons, Ahimaaz Zadok's son, and Jonathan Abiathar's son; and by their hand ye shall send to me every thing that ye hear.' ³⁷ So Hushai David's friend came into the city, and Absalom came into Jerusalem.

16 And when David was a little past the top [of the mount], behold, Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth met him, with a couple of asses saddled, and upon them two hundred loaves of bread, and a hundred cakes of raisins, and a hundred of summer fruits [or figs], and a leathern bottle of wine. ² And the king said to Ziba, 'What meanest thou by these?' And Ziba said, 'The asses are for the king's household to ride on; and the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat; and the wine, that such as be faint in the desert may drink.' ³ And the king said, 'And where is thy master's son?' And Ziba said to the king, 'Behold, he abideth at Jerusalem. For he said, To-day will the house of Israel restore me the kingdom of my father.' ⁴ Then said the king to Ziba, 'Behold, all that belonged to Mephibosheth shall be thine.' And Ziba said, 'I humbly beseech thee that I may find grace in thy sight, my lord, O king.'

⁵ And when king David came to Bahurim, behold, thence came out a man of the family of the house of Saul, whose name was Shimei, the son of Gera; he came forth, and cursed still as he came. ⁶ And he cast stones at David, and at all the servants of king David. And all the people and all the warriors were on his right hand and on his left. ⁷ And thus said Shimei when he cursed, 'Go away, go away, thou man of bloodshed, and thou man of Belial.' ⁸ Jehovah hath returned upon thee all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose stead thou hast reigned; and Jehovah hath delivered the kingdom into the hand of Absalom thy son. And behold, thou art taken in thine own mischief, because

'thou art a man of bloodshed.' ⁹ Then said Abishai the son of Zeruiah to the king, 'Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Let me go over, I pray thee, and take off his head.' ¹⁰ And the king said, 'What is it to me and to you, ye sons of Zeruiah? So let him curse; for if Jehovah hath said to him, Curse David, who shall then say, Wherefore hast thou done so?' ¹¹ And David said to Abishai, and to all his servants, 'Behold, my son, who came forth of my bowels, is seeking my life; how much more now may this son of a Jaminite do it? Let him alone, and let him curse; for Jehovah hath bidden him. ¹² It may be that Jehovah will look on mine affliction, and that Jehovah will requite me good for his cursing this day.' ¹³ And as David and his men went by the way, Shimei went along on the hill's side over against him, and cursed as he went, and threw stones at him, and cast dust. ¹⁴ And the king, and all the people that were with him, came weary, and refreshed themselves there.

¹⁵ And Absalom, and all the people the men of Israel came to Jerusalem, and Ahiathophel with him. ¹⁶ And it came to pass, when Hushai the Archite, David's friend, was come to Absalom, that Hushai said to Absalom, 'May the king live, may the king live.' ¹⁷ And Absalom said to Hushai, 'Is this thy kindness to thy friend? Why wentest thou not with thy friend?' ¹⁸ And Hushai said to Absalom, 'Nay; but whom Jehovah, and this people, and all the men of Israel, choose, his I will be, and with him will I abide. ¹⁹ And again, whom should I serve? Am I not in the presence of his son? As I have served in thy father's presence, so will I be in thy presence.'

²⁰ Then said Absalom to Ahiathophel, 'Give counsel among you what we shall do.' ²¹ And Ahiathophel said to Absalom, 'Go in unto thy father's concubines, which he hath left to keep the house; and all Israel will hear that thou art abhorred by thy father. Then will the hands of all that are with thee be strong.' ²² So they spread for Absalom a tent upon the roof; and Absalom went in unto his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel. ²³ And the counsel of Ahiathophel, which he counselled in those days, was as if a man had inquired at the word of God; so was all the counsel of Ahiathophel both with David and with Absalom.

17 Moreover Ahiathophel said to Absalom, 'Let me now choose out twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue after David this night. ² And I will come upon him while he is weary and weak in the hands, and will make him afraid. ³ And all the people that are with him will flee; and I will smite the king when he is alone. ⁴ And I will bring back all the people unto thee. When every man whom thou sekest is returned, all the people will be in peace.' ⁵ And the saying was right in the eyes of Absalom and in the eyes of all the elders of Israel. ⁶ Then said Absalom, 'Call now Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear like'wise what is in his mouth.' ⁶ And when Hushai was come to Absalom, Absalom spake to him, saying, 'Ahitophel hath spoken after this manner; shall we do after his saying? If not, speak thou.' And Hushai said to Absalom, 'The counsel that Ahitophel hath given is not good at this time.'

⁷ And Hushai said, 'Thou knowest thy father and his men, that they are warriors, and they are chafed in their minds, as a bear robbed of her whelps in the field. And thy father is a man of war, and will not lodge with the people. ⁸ Behold, he is hid now in some pit, or in some other place. And it will come to pass, when some of them be overthrown at the first, that whosoever heareth it will say, There is a slaughter among the people that follow Absalom. ⁹ And he also that is a son of valour, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, will utterly melt; for all Israel knoweth that thy father is a warrior, and they that be with him are sons of valour. ¹⁰ Therefore I counsel that all Israel be generally gathered unto thee, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, as the sand that is by the sea for multitude; and that thou go to battle in thine own person. ¹¹ So shall we come upon him in some place where he shall be found, and we will light upon him as the dew falleth on the ground. ¹² And of him and of all the men that are with him there shall not be left so much as one. ¹³ Moreover, if he be got into a city, then shall all Israel bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it as into a river, until there be not one small stone found there.' ¹⁴ And Absalom and all the men of Israel said, 'The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahitophel.' For Jehovah had appointed to defeat the good counsel of Ahitophel, to the end that Jehovah might bring evil upon Absalom.

¹⁵ Then said Hushai to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, 'Thus and thus did Ahitophel counsel Absalom and the elders of Israel; and thus and thus have I counselled. ¹⁶ Now therefore send quickly, and tell David, saying, Lodge not this night in the barren valleys of the desert, but speedily pass over [the Jordan]; lest the king be swallowed up, and all the people that are with him.' ¹⁷ Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz had stayed by Ain-rogel; for they might not be seen to come into the city. And a wench went and told them; and they went and told king David. Nevertheless a lad saw them, and told Absalom. ¹⁸ But they went both of them away quickly, and came to a man's house in Bahurim, who had a well in his court; into which they went down. ¹⁹ And the woman took and spread a covering over the well's mouth, and scattered ground corn thereon; and the thing was not known. ²⁰ And when Absalom's servants came to the woman to the house, they said, 'Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?' And the woman said to them, 'They are gone over the brook of water.' And when they had sought and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem. ²¹ And it came to pass, after they were departed, that they came up out of the well, and went and told king David, and said to David, 'Arise, and pass quickly over the water; for thus hath Ahitophel counselled against you.' ²² Then David arose, and all the people that were with him, and they passed over the Jordan. By the morning light there lacked not one of them that was not gone over the Jordan.

²³ And when Ahitophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his ass, and arose, and went to his house, to his city, and gave orders to his household, and hanged himself, and died, and was buried in the burial place of his father.

²⁴ Then David came to Mahanaim. And Absalom passed over the Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him. ²⁵ And Absalom made Amasa captain of the host instead of Joab. This Amasa was the son of a man, whose name was Ithra, an Israelite, that went in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash, and sister to Zeruiah Joab's mother. ²⁶ So Israel and Absalom pitched in the land of Gilead.

²⁷ And it came to pass, when David was come to Mahanaim, that Shobi the son of Nahash of Rabbah of the Children of Ammon, and Machir the son of Ammiel of Lo-debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite of Rogelim, ²⁸ brought beds, and basons, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and meal, and parched corn, and beans, and lentiles, and parched pulse, ²⁹ and honey, and curds, and sheep, and cheese of cows, for David, and for the people that were with him, to eat. For they said, 'The people is hungry, and weary, and thirsty, in the desert.'

¹⁸ And David mustered the people that were with him, and set captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them. ² And David sent forth a third part of the people under the hand of Joab, and a third part under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, and brother of Joab, and a third part under the hand of Ittai the Gathite. And the king said to the people, 'I will surely go forth with you myself also.' ³ But the people answered, 'Thou shalt not go forth. For if we flee away, they will not care about us; neither if half of us die, will they care about us. But now thou art worth ten thousand of us; therefore now it is better that thou succour us from out of the city' [of Mahanaim]. ⁴ And the king said to them, 'What seemeth to you best I will do.' And the king stood by the side of the city gate, and all the people went out by hundreds and by thousands. ⁵ And the king commanded Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, 'Deal gently for my sake with the young man Absalom.' And all the people heard when the king gave all the captains charge concerning Absalom.

⁶ So the people went out into the field against Israel; and the battle was in the forest of Ephraim. ⁷ And there the people of Israel were defeated before the servants of David, and there was there a great defeat that day of twenty thousand men. ⁸ For the battle was there spread over the face of all the country; and the forest devoured more people that day than the sword devoured.

⁹ And Absalom met the servants of David. And Absalom rode upon a mule, and the mule went under the thick boughs of a great oak, and his head was caught in the oak, and he was taken up between the heavens and the earth; and the mule that was under him passed on. ¹⁰ And a certain man saw it, and told Joab, and said, 'Behold, I saw Absalom hanged in an oak.' ¹¹ And Joab said to the man that told him, 'And behold, thou sawest him, and why didst thou not smite him there to the ground? And I would have given thee ten pieces of silver and a girdle.' ¹² And the man said to Joab, 'Though I should feel the weight of a thousand pieces of silver in my hand, yet would I not put forth my hand against the king's son. For in our hearing the king charged thee and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Let everyone take care of the young man Absalom.' ¹³ Otherwise I should have wrought falsehood against mine own life. For there is no matter hid from the king, and thou thyself wouldst have set thyself against me.' ¹⁴ Then said Joab, 'I may not tarry thus with thee.' And he took three darts in his hand, and thrust them through Absalom's heart while he was yet alive in the midst of the oak. ¹⁵ And ten young men that bare Joab's armour surrounded and smote Absalom, and slew him. ¹⁶ And Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel; for Joab held back the people. ¹⁷ And they took Absalom, and cast him into a great pit in the forest, and laid a very great heap of stones upon him. And all Israel fled every one to his tent.

¹⁸ Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and reared up for himself a pillar, which is in the king's dale; for he said, 'I have no son to keep my name in remembrance.' And he called the pillar after his own name. And it is called unto this day Absalom's monument.

¹⁹ Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok, 'Let me now run, and bear the king tidings, how that Jehovah hath done him justice against the hand of his enemies.' ²⁰ And Joab said to him, 'Thou art not a man to bear tidings this day, but thou shalt bear tidings another day; but this day thou shalt not bear tidings, because it is that the king's son is dead.' ²¹ Then said Joab to a Cushite [or Negro], 'Go tell the king what thou hast seen.' And the Cushite bowed himself to Joab, and ran. ²² Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok yet again to Joab, 'But however it be, let me, I pray thee, also run after the Cushite.' And Joab said, 'Wherefore wilt thou run, my son, seeing that thou hast no fortunate tidings?' ²³ 'But however it is,' [said he,] 'let me run.' And he said to him, 'Run.' Then Ahimaaz ran by the way of the Circle of [the Jordan], and outran the Cushite.

²⁴ And David was sitting between the two city gates. And the watchman went up to the roof over the city gate to the wall, and lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold a man running alone.

²⁵ And the watchman cried, and told the king,

And the king said, 'If he be alone, there is tidings in his mouth.' And he came apace and drew near. ²⁶ And the watchman saw another man running. And the watchman called to the gate-keeper, and said, 'Behold, a man is running alone.' And the king said, 'He also bringeth tidings.' ²⁷ And the watchman said, 'Methinketh the running of the foremost is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok.' And the king said, 'He is a good man, and cometh with good tidings.' ²⁸ And Ahimaaz called, and said to the king, 'All is well.' And he bowed down to the earth upon his face before the king, and said, 'Blessed be Jehovah thy God, who hath delivered up the men that lifted up their hands against my lord the king.' ²⁹ And the king said, 'Is the young man Absalom safe?' And Ahimaaz answered, 'When Joab sent the king's servant, and me thy servant, I saw a great tumult, but I knew not what it was.' ³⁰ And the king said to him, 'Turn aside, and stand here.' And he turned aside, and stood still. ³¹ And behold, the Cushite came. And the Cushite said, 'Tidings for my lord the king. For Jehovah hath done thee justice this day against the hand of all them that rose up against thee.' ³² And the king said to the Cushite, 'Is the young man Absalom safe?' And the Cushite answered, 'May the enemies of my lord the king, and all that rise against thee to do thee hurt, be as that young man is.' ³³ And the king was much moved, and went up to the chamber over the city gate, and wept. And as he went, thus he said, 'O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom! I would that I had died instead of thee, O Absalom, my son, my son!'

¹⁹ And it was told Joab, 'Behold, the king weepeth and mourneth for Absalom.' ² And the victory that day was turned into mourning unto all the people. For the people heard say that day how the king was grieved for his son. ³ And the people got them by stealth that day into the city, as people being ashamed steal away when they flee in battle. ⁴ But the king covered his face, and the king cried with a loud voice, 'O my son Absalom, O Absalom, my son, my son!' ⁵ And Joab came into the house to the king, and said, 'Thou hast shamed this day the faces of all thy servants, who this day have saved thy life, and the lives of thy sons and of thy daughters, and the lives of thy wives, and the lives of thy concubines; ⁶ in that thou lovest those that hate thee, and hatest those that love thee. For thou hast declared this day, that princes and servants are nothing to thee. For this day I perceive, that if Absalom had lived, and all we had died this day, then it had been right in thine eyes. ⁷ Now therefore arise, go forth, and speak to the heart of thy servants. For I swear by Jehovah, if thou go not forth, there will not tarry one with thee this night. And that will be worse unto thee than all the evil that hath come upon thee from thy youth until now.' ⁸ Then the king arose, and sat at the city gate, and they told to all the people, saying, 'Behold

'the king doth sit at the city gate.' And all the people came before the king.

Then Israel fled every man to his tent. ⁹ And all the people were quarrelling throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, 'The king saved us out of the hand of our enemies, and he delivered us out of the hand of the Philistines; and now he is fled out of the land for Absalom. ¹⁰ And Absalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battle. Now therefore why are ye silent about bringing the king back?' ¹¹ And king David sent to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, saying, 'Speak to the elders of Judah, saying, Why are ye the last to bring the king back to his house? seeing the speech of all Israel is come to the king, even to his house. ¹² Ye are my brethren, ye are my bones and my flesh. Wherefore then are ye the last to bring back the king?' ¹³ And say ye to Amasa, Art thou not of my bone, and of my flesh? God do so to me, and more also, if thou be not captain of the host before me for the future in the room of Joab.' ¹⁴ And he turned the heart of all the men of Judah, even as one man; so that they sent to the king, [saying] 'Return thou, and all thy servants.' ¹⁵ So the king returned, and came to the Jordan. And Judah came to Gilgal, to go to meet the king, to conduct the king over the Jordan.

¹⁶ And Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjaminite, who was of Bahurim, hastened and came down with the men of Judah to meet king David. ¹⁷ And there were a thousand men of Benjamin with him, and Ziba the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him; and they smoothed the passage of the Jordan before the king. ¹⁸ And there went over a ferry-boat to carry over the king's household, and to do what was good in his eyes. And Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king, as he was come over the Jordan. ¹⁹ And he said to the king, 'Let not my lord impute iniquity unto me, neither do thou remember that which thy servant did perversely on the day that my lord the king went out of Jerusalem, that the king should take it to his heart. ²⁰ For thy servant knoweth that I have sinned; therefore, behold, I am come the first this day of all the house of Joseph to go down to meet my lord the king.' ²¹ But Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said, 'Shall not Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed the anointed of Jehovah?' ²² And David said, 'What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah, that ye should this day be accusers before me? Shall any man be put to death this day in Israel? For do not I know that I am this day king over Israel?' ²³ Therefore the king said to Shimei, 'Thou shalt not die.' And the king sware to him.

²⁴ And Mephibosheth the son of Saul came down to meet the king, and had neither dressed his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he came again in peace. ²⁵ And it came to pass, when he was come to Jerusalem to meet the king, that the king said to him, 'Wherefore wentest not thou with me, Mephibosheth?' ²⁶ And he answered, 'My lord, O king, my servant deceived me. For thy servant said, I will saddle for me an ass, that I may ride thereon, and go with the king; because thy servant is lame. ²⁷ And he hath slandered thy servant unto my lord the king. But my lord the king is as an angel of God. Do therefore what is good in thine eyes. ²⁸ For all of my father's house were but dead men before my lord the king. Yet didst thou set thy servant among those that did eat at thine own table. What right therefore have I yet to cry any more to the king?' ²⁹ And the king said to him, 'Why speakest thou any more of thy matters? I have said, Thou and Ziba divide the land.' ³⁰ And Mephibosheth said to the king, 'Yea, let him take all, forasmuch as my lord the king is come again in peace to his own house.'

³¹ And Barzillai the Gileadite had come down from Rogelim, and he went over the Jordan with the king, to conduct him over the Jordan. ³² Now Barzillai was a very aged man, even eighty years old. And he had provided the king with food during his stay at Mahanaim; for he was a very great man. ³³ And the king said to Barzillai, 'Come thou over with me, and I will feed thee with me in Jerusalem.' ³⁴ And Barzillai said to the king, 'How many years have I to live, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem?' ³⁵ I am this day eighty years old; and can I discern between good and evil? Can thy servant taste what I eat or what I drink? Can I hear any more the voice of singing men and singing women? Wherefore then should thy servant be henceforth a burden to my lord the king? ³⁶ Thy servant will go a little way over the Jordan with the king. And why should the king reward me with such a reward?' ³⁷ Let thy servant, I pray thee, turn back again, that I may die in mine own city, by the grave of my father and of my mother. But behold thy servant Chimham; let him go over with my lord the king; and do to him what shall seem good to thee.' ³⁸ And the king answered, 'Chimham shall go over with me, and I will do to him that which shall seem good to thee; and whatsoever thou shalt require of me, that will I do for thee.' ³⁹ And all the people went over the Jordan. And when the king was come over, the king kissed Barzillai, and blessed him. And he returned to his own place.

⁴⁰ Then the king went on to Gilgal, and Chimham went on with him; and all the people of Judah conducted the king, and also half the people of Israel. ⁴¹ And behold, all the men of Israel came to the king and said to the king, 'Why have our brethren the men of Judah stolen thee away, and have brought the king, and his household, and all David's men with him, over the Jordan?' ⁴² And all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, 'Because the king is near of kin to us. And why

'are ye angry for this matter? Have we eaten at all at the king's cost? or hath he given us any gift?' ⁴³And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah and said, 'We have ten parts in the king, and we have also more right in David than ye. Why then did ye despise us, that our advice should not be first had in bringing back our king? And the words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel. ²⁰And there happened to be there a man of Belial [of wickedness], whose name was Sheba, the son of Bichri, a Jaminite [or Benjamite]. And he blew a trumpet, and said, 'We have no part in David, neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse; every man to his tent, O Israel.' ²So every man of Israel went up from following David, and followed Sheba the son of Bichri. But the men of Judah clave to their king, from the Jordan even to Jerusalem.

³And David came to his house at Jerusalem. And the king took the ten women his concubines, whom he had left to guard the house, and put them in a guard-house, and fed them, but went not in unto them. So they were shut up unto the day of their death, living in widowhood.

⁴Then said the king to Amasa, 'Call together unto me the men of Judah within three days, and be thou here present.' ⁵So Amasa went to call together Judah; but he tarried longer than the set time which he had appointed him. ⁶And David said to Abishai, 'Now will Sheba the son of Bichri do us more harm than did Absalom. Take thou thy lord's servants, and pursue after him, lest he get for himself fenced cities, and escape from our eyes.' ⁷And there went out after him Joab's men, and the axe-bearers, and the runners, and all the warriors. And they went out of Jerusalem, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri. ⁸When they were at the great stone which is in Gideon, Amasa came to meet them. And Joab had girded his outer garment that he had put on, and upon it was girded a sword fastened upon his loins in its sheath; and as he went forth it fell out. ⁹And Joab said to Amasa, 'Art thou in health, my brother?' And Joab took Amasa by the beard with the right hand to kiss him. ¹⁰But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's hand. So he smote him therewith in the fifth rib, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and struck him not again; and he died. And Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bichri. ¹¹And one of Joab's young men stood by him, and said, 'He that favoureth Joab, and he that is for David, let him go after Joab.' ¹²And Amasa wallowed in blood in the midst of the highway. And when the man saw that all the people stood still, he removed Amasa out of the highway into the field, and cast a cloth upon him, when he saw that every one that came by him stood still. ¹³When he was put aside out of the highway, every man went on after Joab, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

¹⁴And [Sheba] went through all the tribes of Israel unto Abel, and to Beth-maachah. And all the chosen men were gathered together, and went also after him. ¹⁵And they came and besieged him in Abel near Beth-maachah, and they cast up a siege-mound against the city, and it stood against the rampart. And all the people that were with Joab battered the wall to throw it down. ¹⁶Then cried a wise woman out of the city, 'Hear, hear; say, I pray you, unto Joab, Come near hither that I may speak with thee.' ¹⁷And when he was come near to her, the woman said, 'Art thou Joab?' And he answered, 'I am he.' Then she said to him, 'Hear the words of thy handmaid.' And he answered, 'I do hear.' ¹⁸Then she spake, saying, 'They were wont to speak in old times, saying, 'They shall surely ask at Abel; and so they ended a matter. ¹⁹We are peaceable and faithful in Israel; thou seekest to destroy a city, and a chief city in Israel. Why wilt thou swallow up Jehovah's inheritance?' ²⁰And Joab answered and said, 'Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy. ²¹The matter is not so. But a man from the hill country of Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri by name, hath lifted up his hand against king David. Deliver up him only, and I will depart from the city.' And the woman said to Joab, 'Behold, his head shall be thrown to thee over the wall.' ²²Then the woman went to all the people in her wisdom: And they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and cast it out to Joab. And he blew a trumpet, and they retired from the city, every man to his tent. And Joab returned to Jerusalem to the king.

²³Now Joab was over all the host of Israel; and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Axe-bearers and over the Runners; ²⁴and Adoram was over the tribute; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder; ²⁵and Sheva was scribe; and Zadok and Abiathar were priests; ²⁶and Ira also the Jairite was a priest unto David.

²¹Then there was a famine in the days of David for three years, year after year; and David inquired of Jehovah. And Jehovah answered, 'It is for Saul, and for the house of bloodshed, because he slew the Gibeonites.' ²And the king called the Gibeonites, and said to them; (now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites; and the children of Israel had sworn to them; but Saul sought to slay them in his zeal for the children of Israel and Judah); ³and David said to the Gibeonites, 'What shall I do for you? And wherewith shall I make atonement, that ye may bless Jehovah's inheritance?' ⁴And the Gibeonites said to him, 'We will have no silver nor gold from Saul, nor from his house; neither for us shall any man be put to death within [the land of] Israel.' And he said, 'What ye shall say, that will I do for you.' ⁵And they answered the king, 'The man that consumed us, and that devised against us, that we should be destroyed from remaining within any of the boundaries of Israel, let seven men of his sons

'be delivered to us, and we will impale them unto 'Jehovah, in Gibeah of Saul, the chosen of Je- 'hovah.' And the king said, 'I will give them.'⁷ But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of the oath of Jehovah that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul.⁸ But the king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bare unto Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth; and the five sons of Michal [for Merab] the daughter of Saul, whom she bare to Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholahite;⁹ and he delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they impaled them on the hill before Jehovah. And they fell all seven together, and were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first [month], in the beginning of the barley harvest.¹⁰ And Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth, and spread it for her upon the rock, from the beginning of harvest until water dropped upon them out of the heavens, and she suffered neither the birds of the air to rest on them by day, nor the wild beasts of the field by night.

¹¹ And it was told David what Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah the concubine of Saul had done.¹² And David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the men of Jabesh in Gilead, who had stolen them from the broad place in Beth-shan, where the Philistines had hanged them, when the Philistines had slain Saul in Gilboa.¹³ And he brought up from thence the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son; and they gathered up the bones of them that were impaled.¹⁴ And the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son buried they in the land of Benjamin, in Zelah, in the burial-place of Kish his father; and they performed all that the king commanded. And after that God was intreated for the land.

¹⁵ Moreover the Philistines had yet again war with Israel. And David went down, and his servants with him, and fought against the Philistines; and David waxed faint.¹⁶ And Ishbi-benob, who was of the sons of the giant, the weight of whose spear was three hundred [Shekels] of copper in weight, he being girded with a new sword, thought to have slain David.¹⁷ But Abishai the son of Zeruiah succoured him, and smote the Philistine, and killed him. Then the men of David sware to him, saying, 'Thou shalt go no more out with us 'to battle, that thou quench not the lamp of Israel.'

¹⁸ And it came to pass after this, that there was again a battle with the Philistines at Gob. Then Sibbechai the Hushathite slew Saphi, who was of the sons of the giant.¹⁹ And there was again a battle in Gob with the Philistines, where Elhanan the son of Jaare, one of the weavers, a Beth-lemite, slew Goliath the Gathite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.²⁰ And there was again a battle in Gath, where was a man of great stature, that had on every hand six fingers, and on every foot six toes, four and twenty in number; and he also was born to the giant.²¹ And when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimeah the brother of David slew him.²² These four were born to the giant in Gath, and they fell by the hand of David, even by the hand of his servants.

²² And David spake to Jehovah the words of THIS SONG in the day that Jehovah had delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul.² And he said,

'Jehovah is my rock, and my fortress, and my 'deliverer;

'³ My God, my rock, in whom I will trust;
'My shield, and the horn of my salvation;
'My high tower, and my refuge, my saviour;
'Thou savest me from violence.

'⁴ With praises I will call on Jehovah;
'So shall I be saved from mine enemies.
'⁵ When the waves of death encompassed me,
'The floods of wickedness made me afraid;
'⁶ The cords of hell encompassed me about;
'The snares of death were before me;

'⁷ In my distress I called on Jehovah,
'Yea I called to my God;
'And he heard my voice out of his temple;
'And my cry did enter into his ears.
'⁸ Then the earth shook and trembled;
'The foundations of the heavens were disquieted,
'And they were shaken because he was wrath.
'⁹ There went up a smoke out of his nostrils,
'And fire out of his mouth devoured;
'Coals were kindled by it.

'¹⁰ He bowed the heavens also, and came down;
'And darkness was under his feet.

'¹¹ And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly;
'And he was seen upon the wings of the wind.
'¹² And he made darkness pavilions round about him,
'The gatherings of waters, thick clouds of the skies.
'¹³ At the brightness before him were coals of fire
'kindled.

'¹⁴ Jehovah thundered from the heavens,
'And the Most High gave forth his voice.
'¹⁵ And he sent out arrows, and scattered them;
'Lightning, and he discomfited them.
'¹⁶ And the channels of the sea were seen,
'The foundations of the world were laid bare,
'At Jehovah's rebuke, at a blast of the breath of 'his nostrils.

'¹⁷ He stretched forth from above, he took me;
'He raised me up out of great waters;
'¹⁸ He delivered me from my strong enemy,
'From my foes, for they were too strong for me.
'¹⁹ They came against me in the day of my calamity;
'But Jehovah was my support.

'²⁰ He brought me forth also into open space;
'He delivered me, because he delighted in me.
'²¹ Jehovah recompensed me according to my
'righteousness;
'According to the cleanness of my hands he re'warded me.

'²² For I have kept the ways of Jehovah,
'And have not wickedly departed from my God.
'²³ For all his judgments were before me;
'And as for his statutes, I did not depart from them.

²⁴ I was also upright before him,
²⁵ And I have kept myself from mine iniquity.
²⁶ And Jehovah rewarded me according to my righteousness;
 According to my cleanness before his eyes.
²⁷ With the merciful thou shewest thyself merciful,
 And with an upright man thou shewest thyself upright.
²⁸ With the pure thou shewest thyself pure;
 And with the froward thou shewest thyself perverse.
²⁹ And the afflicted people thou savest;
 But bringest down thine eyes upon the haughty,
³⁰ For thou art my lamp, O Jehovah;
 And Jehovah will enlighten my darkness.
³¹ For by thee I would run through a troop;
 By my God would I leap over a wall.
³² As for God, his way is perfect;
 The word of Jehovah is tried;
 He is a shield to all those that trust in him.
³³ For who is God, save Jehovah?
 And who is a rock, except our God?
³⁴ God is my fortress of strength;
 And he sheweth to the perfect his path.
³⁵ He maketh my feet like deer's feet;
 And setteth me upon my high places.
³⁶ He teacheth my hands to war;
 So that a bow of copper is bent by mine arms.
³⁷ Thou also givest me the shield of thy salvation;
 And thy answering my prayer maketh me great.
³⁸ Thou hast widened my steps under me;
 So that my ankles do not totter.
³⁹ I pursued mine enemies and destroyed them;
 And I turned not back till they were consumed.
⁴⁰ And I consumed them, and shattered them;
 That they rise not; yea, they are fallen under my feet.
⁴¹ For thou didst gird me with strength for battle;
 Thou subduedst under me those that rose up against me.
⁴² Thou also gavest me the necks of mine enemies,
 That I might destroy them that hate me.
⁴³ They cried for help, but there was none to save;
 Even unto Jehovah, but he answered them not.
⁴⁴ Then did I beat them small as the dust of the earth,
 I pounded them, I crushed them as the mire of the street.
⁴⁵ Thou also deliveredst me from the strivings of my people.
 Thou hast kept me to be the head of nations;
 A people whom I know not serve me;
⁴⁶ Sons of the foreigner fawn before me;
 When the ear heareth, they are obedient to me.
⁴⁷ Sons of the foreigner fade away,
 And they gird themselves in their border-fastnesses.
⁴⁸ Jehovah liveth; and blessed be my rock;
 And exalted be my God, the rock of my salvation.
⁴⁹ It is God that giveth me vengeance,
 And that bringeth down the peoples under me,
 And that bringeth me forth from mine enemies.

Thou also liftest me above those that rise up against me;
⁵⁰ Thou hast delivered me from the man of violence.
⁵¹ Therefore I confess thee, Jehovah, among the nations,
 And I will sing praises unto thy name.
⁵² He is a tower of salvation to his king;
 And he sheweth kindness to his anointed,
 To David, and to his seed for evermore.

23 Now these are the last words of David, the inspired word of David the son of Jesse, and the inspired word of the man who was raised up on high, the anointed of the God of Jacob, and sweet psalmist of Israel. ²⁴ The spirit of Jehovah spake within me, and his word was on my tongue; ²⁵ the God of Israel said to me, the Rock of Israel spake—
 A ruler of men must be just,
 Ruling in the fear of God.
²⁶ And he shall be as the light of the morning,
 When the sun riseth, in a morning without clouds;
 Shining after rain on the grass of the earth:—
²⁷ Although my house be not right with God;
 Yet he hath made with me an everlasting covenant,
 Ordered in all things, and to be kept.
 For this is all my salvation, and all my desire.
²⁸ For the wicked are not made to grow,
²⁹ They all shall be thrust away as thorns, Because they cannot be taken hold of with the hands;
³⁰ But the man that shall touch them
 Must be fenced with iron and the staff of a spear;
 And they shall be utterly burned with fire in their place.

³¹ These are the names of the warriors whom David had; Josheb-bassebet, the Tachmonite, head of the Chiefs-of-three [or chariot-warriors]; the same was Adino the Eznite; because of eight hundred, whom he slew at one time. ³² And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo the son of Ahohi, one of the three warriors with David, when they defied the Philistines that were there gathered together to battle, and the men of Israel were gone away; ³³ he arose and smote the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand clave unto the sword. And Jehovah wrought a great salvation that day; and the people returned after him only to spoil. ³⁴ And after him was Shamhah the son of Agee the Hararite. And the Philistines were gathered together to Lehi, where there was a piece of ground full of lentiles. And the people fled from the Philistines. ³⁵ But he stood in the midst of the piece of ground, and defended it, and slew the Philistines. And Jehovah wrought a great salvation. ³⁶ And three of the thirty chiefs went down, and came to David in the harvest time to the cave near Adullam; and the Philistine wild beasts pitched in the Valley of the Giants. ³⁷ And David was then in a stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Beth-lehem. ³⁸ And David longed, and said, 'Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, which is by the city gate!' ³⁹ And the three warriors brake through the camp of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the city gate, and took it, and brought it to David. Nevertheless he would not drink thereof, but poured it out unto Jehovah. ¹⁷ And he said, 'It were wrong in me, O Jehovah, that I should do this. This is the blood of the men that went in jeopardy of their lives.' Therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three warriors.

¹⁸ And Abishai, the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was a chief among three. And he lifted up his spear against three hundred, and slew them, and had a name among the three. ¹⁹ Was he not most honourable of the three? therefore he was their captain. Howbeit he attained not unto the three.

²⁰ And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, who had done many acts, he slew two lion-like men of Moab. He went down also and slew a lion in the midst of a pit in the time of snow. ²¹ And he slew an Egyptian, a goodly man. And the Egyptian had a spear in his hand; but he went down to him with a stick, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him with his own spear. ²² These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and had a name among the three warriors. ²³ He was honourable among the thirty, but he attained not to the three. And David set him over his council.

²⁴ And again the anger of Jehovah was kindled against Israel, and he moved David against them, saying, 'Go number Israel and Judah.' ² And the king said to Joab the captain of the forces that were with him, 'Go now to and fro through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, and register ye the people, that I may know the number of the people.' ³ And Joab said to the king, 'Now may Jehovah thy God add to the people, how many soever they be, a hundred-fold, and

'may the eyes of my lord the king see it. But why doth my lord the king delight in this thing?' ⁴ Notwithstanding, the king's word prevailed against Joab, and against the captains of the forces. And Joab and the captains of the forces went out from the presence of the king, to register the people of Israel.

⁵ And they passed over the Jordan, and pitched in Aroer, on the right [or south side] of the city that lieth in the midst of the valley of Gad, and toward Jazer. ⁶ Then they came to Gilead, and to the land of the Lower-Hodeshites; and they came to Dan-jaan [or Paneas], and passed round to Sidon, ⁷ and came to the stronghold of Tyre, and to all the cities of the Hivites, and of the Canaanites; and they went out to the South country of Judah, even to Beer-sheba. ⁸ So when they had gone to and fro through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days. ⁹ And Joab gave up the sum of the register of the people to the king. And there were in Israel eight hundred thousand valiant men that drew the sword; and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.

¹⁰ And David's heart smote him after that he had numbered the people. And David said to Jehovah, 'I have sinned greatly in what I have done. And now, I beseech thee, O Jehovah, take away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly.' ¹¹ And when David was up in the morning, the word of Jehovah came to the prophet Gad, David's seer, saying, ¹² 'Go and say to David, Thus saith Jehovah, I offer thee three things; choose for thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee.' ¹³ So Gad came to David, and told him, and said to him, 'Shall seven years of famine come to thee in thy land? Or wilt thou flee three months before thine enemies, while they pursue thee? Or that there be three days' pestilence in thy land? Now advise, and see what answer I shall return to him that sent me.' ¹⁴ And David said to Gad, 'I am in a great strait. Let us now fall into the hand of Jehovah; for his mercies are many; and let me not fall into the hand of man.'

¹⁵ So Jehovah sent a pestilence upon Israel from the morning even to the time appointed; and there died of the people from Dan even to Beer-sheba seventy thousand men. ¹⁶ And when the angel stretched out his hand upon Jerusalem to destroy it, Jehovah repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that was destroying the people, 'It is enough. Stay now thy hand.' And the angel of Jehovah was by the threshing-place of Araunah the Jebusite. ¹⁷ And David spake to Jehovah when he saw the angel that smote the people, and said, 'Lo, I have sinned, and I have done wickedly; but these sheep, what have they done? Let thy hand, I pray thee, be against me, and against my father's house.'

¹⁸ And Gad came that day to David, and said to him, 'Go up to an altar unto Jehovah on the

'threshing-floor of Araunah the Jebusite.' ¹⁹ And David, according to the saying of Gad, went up as Jehovah commanded. ²⁰ And Araunah looked, and saw the king and his servants coming on toward him. And Araunah went out, and bowed himself before the king on his face upon the ground. ²¹ And Araunah said, 'Wherefore is my lord the king come to his servant?' And David said, 'To buy the threshing-floor of thee, to build an altar unto Jehovah, that the plague may be stayed from the people.' ²² And Araunah said to David, 'Let my lord the king take and offer up what seemeth good to him. Behold, here are oxen for burnt offering, and threshing instruments and instruments of the oxen for wood.' ²³ All these things did king Araunah give to the king. And Araunah said to the king, 'May Jehovah thy God accept thee.' ²⁴ And the king said to Araunah, 'Nay; but I will surely buy it of thee at a price; neither will I offer up burnt offerings to Jehovah my God of that which doth cost me nothing.' So David bought the threshing-floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver. ²⁵ And David built there an altar to Jehovah, and offered up burnt offerings and peace offerings. So Jehovah was intreated for the land, and the plague was stayed from Israel.

THE FIRST BOOK OF THE KINGS.

Now king David was old and stricken in years; and they covered him with clothes, but he got no heat. ² Therefore his servants said to him, 'Let them seek for my lord the king a young woman, a maiden; and let her stand before the king, and let her be a companion to him, and let her lie in thy bosom, that my lord the king may get heat.' ³ So they sought for a fair young woman throughout all the boundaries of Israel, and found Abishag a Shunemite, and brought her to the king. ⁴ And the young woman was very fair, and she was a companion to the king, and waited upon him; but the king knew her not.

⁵ Then Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, 'I will be king.' And he prepared for himself a chariot and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him. ⁶ And his father had not blamed him at any time saying, 'Why hast thou done so?' And he also was of a very handsome figure; and his mother bare him after Absalom. ⁷ And he took counsel with Joab the son of Zeruiah, and with Abiathar the priest; and they helped Adonijah as followers. ⁸ But Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and Nathan the prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and the warriors who belonged to David, were not with Adonijah. ⁹ And Adonijah slew sheep and oxen and fat cattle by the stone of Zoheleth, which is by Ain-rogel, and called all his brethren the king's sons, and all the men of Judah the king's servants. ¹⁰ But Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah, and the warriors, and Solomon his brother, he called not.

¹¹ Then Nathan spake to Bath-sheba the mother of Solomon, saying, 'Hast thou not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith doth reign, and David our lord knoweth it not?' ¹² Now therefore come, let me, I pray thee, give thee counsel, that thou mayest save thine own life, and the life of thy son Solomon. ¹³ Go and get thee in unto king David, and say to him, Didst not thou, my lord, O king, swear to thy handmaid, saying,

'Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne? Why then doth Adonijah reign?' ¹⁴ Behold, while thou yet talkest there with the king, I also will come in after thee, and confirm thy words.'

¹⁵ And Bath-sheba went in unto the king into the chamber. And the king was very old; and Abishag the Shunemite ministered to the king. ¹⁶ And Bath-sheba bowed, and did reverence to the king. And the king said, 'What wouldest thou?' ¹⁷ And she said to him, 'My lord, thou didst swear by Jehovah thy God unto thy handmaid, saying, 'Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne.' ¹⁸ And now, behold, Adonijah reigneth; and now, my lord the king, thou knowest it not. ¹⁹ And he hath slain oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and hath called all the sons of the king, and Abiathar the priest, and Joab the captain of the army; but Solomon thy servant hath he not called. ²⁰ And thou, my lord, O king, the eyes of all Israel are on thee, that thou shouldst tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him. ²¹ Or it will come to pass, when my lord the king shall sleep with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon shall be counted offenders.'

²² And lo, while she yet talked with the king, Nathan the prophet also came in. ²³ And they told the king saying, 'Behold Nathan the prophet.' And when he was come in before the king, he bowed himself before the king with his face to the ground. ²⁴ And Nathan said, 'My lord, O king, hast thou said, Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne?' ²⁵ For he is gone down this day, and hath slain oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and hath called all the king's sons, and the captains of the army, and Abiathar the priest; and behold, they eat and drink before him, and say, May king Adonijah live. ²⁶ But me, even me thy servant, and Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and

'thy servant Solomon, hath he not called. ²⁷ Is 'this thing done by my lord the king, and thou 'hast not shewed to thy servant who should sit on 'the throne of my lord the king after him?' ²⁸ Then king David answered and said, 'Call to me Bath-sheba.' And she came into the king's presence, and stood before the king. ²⁹ And the king sware, and said, 'As Jehovah liveth, who hath redeemed 'my soul out of all distress,' ³⁰ even as I swear to 'thee by Jehovah the God of Israel, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and 'he shall sit upon my throne in my stead; or even so will I certainly do this day.' ³¹ Then Bath-sheba bowed with her face to the earth, and did reverence to the king, and said, 'May my lord king 'David live for ever.' ³² And king David said, 'Call to me Zadok the priest, and Nathan the 'prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada.' And they came in before the king. ³³ The king also said to them, 'Take with you the servants of your 'lord, and cause Solomon my son to ride upon mine 'own mule, and bring him down to Gihon. ³⁴ And 'let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet 'anoint him there to be king over Israel. And 'blow ye with a trumpet and say, May king Solomon live. ³⁵ Then ye shall go up after him, and 'he shall come and sit upon my throne; for he 'shall be king in my stead; and I have appointed 'him to be ruler over Israel and over Judah.' ³⁶ And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king and said; 'Amen; may Jehovah the God of 'my lord the king say so too. ³⁷ As Jehovah hath 'been with my lord the king, even so may he be 'with Solomon, and make his throne greater than 'the throne of my lord king David.'

³³ So Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Axe-bearers, and the Runners, went down, and caused Solomon to ride upon king David's mule, and brought him to Gihon. ³⁹ And Zadok the priest took a horn of oil out of the tent, and anointed Solomon. And they blew a trumpet; and all the people said, 'May king Solomon live.' ⁴⁰ And all the people went up after him, and the people piped with pipes, and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth was rent with the sound of them.

⁴¹ And when Adonijah and all the guests that were with him heard it they made an end of eating. And when Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, 'Wherefore is this noise of the city being 'in an uproar?' ⁴² And while he yet spake, behold Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came. And Adonijah said to him, 'Come in; for thou 'art a man of valour, and bringest good tidings.' ⁴³ And Jonathan answered and said to Adonijah, 'Verily our lord king David hath made Solomon 'king. ⁴⁴ And the king hath sent with him Zadok 'the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah 'the son of Jehoiada, and the Axe-bearers, and 'the Runners, and they have caused him to ride 'upon the king's mule. ⁴⁵ And Zadok the priest 'and Nathan the prophet have anointed him to be

'king in Gihon. And they are come up from 'thence rejoicing, so that the city is in an uproar. 'This is the noise that ye have heard. ⁴⁶ And also 'Solomon sitteth on the throne of the kingdom. ⁴⁷ And moreover the king's servants came to bless 'our lord king David, saying, May God make the 'name of Solomon better than thy name, and make 'his throne greater than thy throne. And the 'king bowed himself upon the bed. ⁴⁸ And also 'thus said the king, Blessed be Jehovah the God 'of Israel, who hath given one to sit on my throne 'this day, mine eyes even seeing it.' ⁴⁹ And all the guests that were with Adonijah were afraid, and rose up, and went every man his own way.

⁵⁰ And Adonijah feared because of Solomon, and arose, and went, and caught hold on the horns of the altar. ⁵¹ And it was told Solomon, saying, 'Behold Adonijah feareth king Solomon. For lo, 'he hath taken hold on the horns of the altar, saying, Let king Solomon swear to me to-day that 'he will not slay his servant with the sword.' ⁵² And Solomon said, 'If he will be a worthy man, 'there shall not a hair of him fall to the earth. 'But if wickedness shall be found in him, then he 'shall die.' ⁵³ So king Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar. And he came and bowed himself to king Solomon; and Solomon said to him, 'Go to thy house.'

2 Now David's days drew nigh that he should die; and he charged Solomon his son, saying, ² 'I 'go the way of all the earth; be thou strong there- 'fore, and be a man; ³ and keep the charge of 'Jehovah thy God, to walk in his ways, to keep 'his statutes, his commandments, and his judg- 'ments, and his testimonies, as it is written in the 'Law of Moses, so that thou mayest do wisely in 'all that thou doest, and whithersoever thou 'turnest thyself; ⁴ so that Jehovah may establish 'his word which he spake concerning me, saying, 'If thy children take heed to their way, to walk 'before me in truth with all their heart and with 'all their soul, there shall not fail thee (said he) a 'man on the throne of Israel. ⁵ Moreover thou 'knowest also what Joab the son of Zeruiah did to 'me, even what he did to the two captains of the hosts 'of Israel, to Abner the son of Ner, and to Amasa 'the son of Jether, whom he slew, and shed the 'blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war 'upon his belt that was about his loins, and in his 'shoes that were on his feet. ⁶ Do therefore ac- 'cording to thy wisdom, and let not his hoary head 'go down to the grave in peace. ⁷ But show kind- 'ness to the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let 'them be among those that eat at thy table; for 'so they came to me when I fled from before Ab- 'salom thy brother. ⁸ And behold, thou hast with 'thee Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite, of 'Bahurim, who cursed me with a violent curse in 'the day when I went to Mahanaim. But he came 'down to meet me at the Jordan, and I swear to 'him by Jehovah, saying, I will not put thee to 'death with the sword. ⁹ Now therefore, hold

'him not guiltless; for thou art a wise man, and knowest what thou oughtest to do to him, and his hoary head bring thou down to the grave with blood.'

¹⁰ So David slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David. ¹¹ And the days that David reigned over Israel were forty years. Seven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jerusalem.

¹² Then sat Solomon upon the throne of David his father [B.C. 976]; and his kingdom was established greatly. ¹³ And Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bath-sheba the mother of Solomon. And she said, 'Comest thou peaceably?' And he said, 'Peaceably.' ¹⁴ He said moreover, 'I have somewhat to say to thee.' ¹⁵ And she said, 'Say on.' And he said, 'Thou knowest that the kingdom was mine, and that all Israel set their faces on me, that I should reign. Howbeit the kingdom is turned about, and is become my brother's; for it was his from Jehovah. ¹⁶ And now I ask one petition of thee; turn me not back.' And she said to him, 'Say on.' ¹⁷ And he said, 'Speak, I pray thee, to Solomon the king, (for he will not turn thee back,) that he give me Abishag the Shunemite to wife.' ¹⁸ And Bath-sheba said, 'Well; I will speak for thee to the king.' ¹⁹ Bath-sheba therefore went to king Solomon, to speak to him for Adonijah. And the king rose up to meet her, and bowed himself to her, and sat down on his throne, and caused a throne to be placed for the king's mother; and she sat on his right hand. ²⁰ Then she said, 'I desire one small petition of thee; turn me not back.' And the king said to her, 'Ask on, my mother, for I will not turn thee back.' ²¹ And she said, 'Let Abishag the Shunemite be given to Adonijah thy brother to wife.' ²² And king Solomon answered and said to his mother, 'And why dost thou ask Abishag the Shunemite for Adonijah? Ask for him the kingdom also; (for he is mine elder brother;) even for him, and for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah.' ²³ Then king Solomon swore by Jehovah, saying, 'God do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah have not spoken this word against his own life. ²⁴ Now therefore, as Jehovah liveth, who hath established me, and made me sit on the throne of David my father, and who hath made for me a house, as he promised, Adonijah shall be put to death this day.' ²⁵ And king Solomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the son of Jehoiada. And he fell upon him that he died. ²⁶ And to Abiathar the priest said the king, 'Get thee to Anathoth, to thine own fields; for thou art worthy of death. But I will not at this time put thee to death, because thou didst bear the Ark of the Lord Jehovah before David my father, and because thou hast been afflicted in all wherein my father was afflicted.' ²⁷ So Solomon thrust out Abiathar from being priest unto Jehovah; that he might fulfil the word of Jehovah, which he spake concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.

²⁸ Then tidings came to Joab; for Joab had turned aside after Adonijah, though he turned not aside after Absalom. And Joab fled to the Tent of Jehovah, and caught hold on the horns of the altar. ²⁹ And it was told king Solomon that Joab was fled to the Tent of Jehovah, and behold, he is by the altar. Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, 'Go, fall upon him.' ³⁰ And Benaiah came to the Tent of Jehovah, and said to him, 'Thus saith the king, Come forth. And he said, 'Nay; but I will die here.' And Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, 'Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me.' ³¹ And the king said to him, 'Do as he hath said, and fall upon him, and bury him; that thou mayest take away the wanton bloodshed, which Joab shed, from me, and from the house of my father. ³² And Jehovah will return his blood upon his own head, who fell upon two men, more righteous and better than he, and slew them with the sword, my father David not knowing thereof, to wit, Abner the son of Ner, captain of the host of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, captain of the host of Judah. ³³ Their blood shall therefore return upon the head of Joab, and upon the head of his seed for ever; but upon David, and upon his seed, and upon his house, and upon his throne, shall there be peace for ever from Jehovah.' ³⁴ So Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up, and fell upon him, and slew him. And he was buried in his own house in the desert. ³⁵ And the king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his room over the host; and Zadok the priest did the king put in the room of Abiathar.

³⁶ And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said to him, 'Build for thee a house in Jerusalem, and dwell there, and go not forth thence any whither. ³⁷ For it shall be, that on the day thou goest out, and passest over the valley of the Kidron, thou shalt know for certain that thou shalt surely die; thy blood shall be upon thine own head.' ³⁸ And Shimei said to the king, 'The saying is good. As my lord the king hath said, so will thy servant do.' And Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem many days. ³⁹ And it came to pass at the end of three years, that two of the servants of Shimei ran away unto Achish son of Maachah king of Gath. And they told Shimei, saying, 'Behold, thy servants are in Gath.' ⁴⁰ And Shimei arose, and saddled his ass, and went to Gath to Achish to seek his servants. And Shimei went, and brought his servants from Gath. ⁴¹ And it was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and was come again. ⁴² And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said to him, 'Did I not make thee to swear by Jehovah, and protested to thee, saying, Know for certain, that on the day thou goest out, and walkest abroad any whither, thou shalt surely die? And thou saidst to me, The word that I have heard is good. ⁴³ Why then hast thou not kept the oath of Jehovah, and the command that I charged thee with?' ⁴⁴ The king said moreover to Shimei, 'Thou knowest

'all the wickedness which thy heart is privy to, that thou didst to David my father. Therefore Jehovah returneth thy wickedness upon thine own head; ⁴⁵ and king Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before Jehovah for ever.' ⁴⁶ So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; who went out, and fell upon him, that he died. And the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

3 And Solomon joined himself by marriage to Pharaoh king of Lower Egypt, and took Pharaoh's daughter, and brought her into the City of David, until he had made an end of building his own house, and the House of Jehovah, and the wall of Jerusalem round about. ² The people sacrificed only on High Places, because there was no House built unto the name of Jehovah, until those days. ³ And Solomon loved Jehovah, walking in the statutes of David his father; only he sacrificed and burnt incense on High Places. ⁴ And the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there; for that was the great High Place. A thousand burnt offerings did Solomon offer up on that altar.

⁵ In Gibeon Jehovah appeared to Solomon in a dream by night. And God said, 'Ask what I shall give thee.' ⁶ And Solomon said, 'Thou hast shewed to thy servant David my father great kindness, according as he walked before thee in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with thee; and thou hast kept for him this great kindness, that thou hast given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day.' ⁷ And now, 'O Jehovah, my God, thou hast made thy servant king instead of David my father; and I am but a little child; I know not how to go out or come in.' ⁸ And thy servant is in the midst of thy people which thou hast chosen, a great people, that cannot be numbered nor counted for multitude. ⁹ Give therefore thy servant an understanding heart to judge thy people, that I may discern between good and bad. For who is able to judge this thy so great people?' ¹⁰ And the speech was good in the eyes of Jehovah, that Solomon had asked this thing. ¹¹ And God said to him, 'Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked for thyself length of days; neither hast asked riches for thyself, nor hast asked the life of thine enemies; but hast asked for thyself understanding to discern judgment; ¹² behold, I have done according to thy words; lo, I have given thee a wise and an understanding heart, so that there was none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee.' ¹³ And 'I have also given thee that which thou hast not asked, both riches and honour; so that there shall not be a man among the kings like unto thee all thy days.' ¹⁴ And if thou wilt walk in my ways, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as thy father David did walk, then I will lengthen thy days.' ¹⁵ And Solomon awoke; and behold, it was a dream. And he came to Jerusalem, and stood before the ark of the covenant of Jehovah, and offered up burnt offerings, and sacrificed peace offerings, and made a drinking feast to all his servants.

¹⁶ Then came there two women, that were harlots, to the king, and stood before him. ¹⁷ And the one woman said, 'O my lord, I and this woman dwell in one house; and I was delivered of a child with her in the house.' ¹⁸ And it came to pass the third day after that I was delivered, that this woman was delivered also. And we were together; there was no stranger with us in the house, save we two in the house.' ¹⁹ And this woman's son died in the night; because she overlaid it. ²⁰ And she arose at midnight, and took my son from beside me, while thy handmaid slept, and laid it in her bosom, and laid her dead son in my bosom. ²¹ And when I rose in the morning to give my son suck, behold, it was dead. But when I had considered it well in the morning, behold, it was not my son, whom I had borne.' ²² And the other woman said, 'Nay; but the living is my son, and the dead is thy son.' And this said, 'No; but the dead is thy son, and the living is my son.' Thus they spake before the king. ²³ Then said the king, 'The one saith, This is my son that liveth, and thy son is the dead. And the other saith, Nay; but thy son is the dead, and my son is the living.' ²⁴ And the king said, 'Bring me a sword.' And they brought a sword before the king. ²⁵ And the king said, 'Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one woman, and half to the other.' ²⁶ Then spake the woman whose the living son was unto the king, for her bowels yearned upon her son, and she said, 'O my lord, give her the living child, and in no wise slay it.' But the other said, 'Let it be neither mine nor thine, but divide it.' ²⁷ Then the king answered and said, 'Give her the living child, and in no wise slay it; she is its mother.' ²⁸ And all Israel heard of the judgment which the king had judged; and they feared the king; for they saw that the wisdom of God was in him, to do judgment.

4 So king Solomon was king over all Israel. ² And these were the princes which he had, Azariah the son of Zadok was the priest; ³ Elihoreph and Ahijah, the sons of Shisha, were the scribes; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was the recorder; ⁴ And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the army; And Zadok and Abiathar were priests; ⁵ And Azariah the son of Nathan was over the officers; And Zabud the son of Nathan, a priest, was the king's friend; ⁶ And Ahishar was over the household; And Adoniram the son of Abda was over the tribute [or labour-levy].

⁷ And Solomon had twelve officers over all Israel, who provided victuals for the king and his household; each man in his month in a year provided victuals. ⁸ And these are the names; The son of Hur, in the hill country of Ephraim;

⁹ The son of Dekar, in Makaz, and in Shaalbim, and Bethshemesh, and Elon near Beth-hanan;

¹⁰ The son of Heseid, in Aruboth; to him belonged Sochoh, and all the land of Hopher;

¹¹ The son of Abinadab, in all the Heights of Dor; he had Taphath the daughter of Solomon to wife;

¹² Baana the son of Ahilud; to him belonged Taanach and Megiddo, and all Beth-shean, which is by Zartanah beneath Jezreel, from Beth-shean, to Abel-meholah, even unto the further side of Jokneam;

¹³ The son of Geber, in Ramoth in Gilead; to him belonged the Hamlets of Jair the son of Manasseh, which are in Gilead; to him also belonged the region of Argob, which is in Bashan, sixty great cities with walls and gate-bars of copper;

¹⁴ Abinadab the son of Iddo had Mahanaim;

¹⁵ Ahimaaz was in Naphtali; he also took Basmath the daughter of Solomon to wife;

¹⁶ Baanah the son of Hushai was in Asher and in Judah;

¹⁷ Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah, in Issachar;

¹⁸ Shimei the son of Elah, in Benjamin;

¹⁹ Geber the son of Uri was in the country of Gilead, in the country of Sihon king of the Amorites, and of Og king of Bashan; and he was the only officer that was in the land.

²⁰ Judah and Israel were many, as the sand which is by the sea in multitude, eating and drinking, and making merry.

²¹ And Solomon had sway over all kingdoms from the River [Euphrates] unto the land of the Philistines, and unto the boundary of Lower Egypt. They brought presents, and served Solomon all the days of his life.

²² And Solomon's provision for one day was thirty Cors [each 75 gallons] of fine flour, and sixty Cors of meal, ²³ ten fatted oxen, and twenty oxen out of the pastures, and a hundred sheep, beside harts, and roebucks, and fallow deer, and fatted fowl.

²⁴ For he had dominion over all the region beyond [or westward of] the River [Euphrates], from Tiphah even to Gaza, over all the kings beyond the River. And he had peace on all sides round about him.

²⁵ And Judah and Israel dwelt safely, every man under his vine and under his fig tree, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, all the days of Solomon.

²⁶ And Solomon had forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen.

²⁷ And those officers provided victual for king Solomon, and for all that came to king Solomon's table, every man in his month. They lacked nothing.

²⁸ Barley also and straw for the [draft] horses and swift horses brought they to the place where they were; every man according to his charge.

²⁹ And God gave Solomon wisdom and understanding exceeding much, and largeness of heart, even as the sand that is on the sea shore.

³⁰ And Solomon's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the children of the East country, and all the wisdom of Egypt.

³¹ For he was wiser than all mankind; than Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, and Chalcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol. And his name was in all the nations round about. ³² And he spake three thousand proverbs; and his songs were a thousand and five.

³³ And he spake of trees, from the cedar tree that is on Lebanon even to the hyssop that springeth out of the wall. He spake also of beasts, and of fowl, and of creeping things, and of fishes.

³⁴ And there came some of all the peoples to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all kings of the earth that had heard of his wisdom.

⁵ And Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants to Solomon; for he had heard that they had anointed him to be king in the room of his father; for Hiram had been ever a lover of David.

² And Solomon sent to Hiram, saying, ³ 'Thou knowest how that David my father could not build a house unto the name of Jehovah his God for the wars which were about him on every side, until Jehovah put them under the soles of his feet.'

⁴ But now Jehovah my God hath given me rest on every side; there is neither adversary nor evil opposer.

⁵ And behold, I purpose to build a house unto the name of Jehovah my God, as Jehovah spake to David my father, saying, Thy son, whom I will set upon thy throne in thy room, he shall build the House unto my name.

⁶ Now therefore command thou that they hew for me cedar trees out of Lebanon; and my servants shall be with thy servants; and unto thee will I give hire for thy servants according to all that thou shalt say; for thou knowest that there is not among us any that hath skill to hew timber like the Sidonians.'

⁷ And it came to pass, when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he rejoiced greatly, and said, 'Blessed be Jehovah this day, who hath given to David a wise son over this great people.'

⁸ And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, 'I have heard what thou sentest to me for; and I will do all thy desire concerning timber of cedar and concerning timber of fir.'

⁹ My servants shall bring them down from Lebanon to the sea; and I will convey them by sea as floats to the place that thou shalt appoint me, and I will take them to pieces there, and thou shalt receive them. And then thou shalt accomplish my desire, in giving food for my household.'

¹⁰ So Hiram gave Solomon cedar trees and fir trees according to all his desire.

¹¹ And Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand Cors of wheat for food to his household, and twenty Cors of beaten oil. Thus gave Solomon to Hiram year by year.

¹² And Jehovah gave Solomon wisdom, as he promised him; and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon; and they two made a league together.

¹³ And king Solomon raised a labour levy out of all Israel; and the labour levy was thirty thousand men.

¹⁴ And he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month by courses. A month they were in Lebanon, and two months at home. And Adoniram was over the labour levy.

¹⁵ And Solomon had seventy thousand that bare burdens, and eighty thousand hewers in the mountains,

¹⁶ besides the captains of Solomon's officers who were over the work, three thousand and three hundred, who ruled over the people that wrought in the work. ¹⁷ And the king commanded, and they brought great stones, costly stones, hewed stones, to lay the foundation of the House. ¹⁸ And Solomon's builders, and Hiram's builders, and the men of Gebal [or Byblus], did hew them. So they prepared the timber and the stones to build the House.

⁶ And it came to pass in the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel [A.M. 3148 and B.C. 973], in the month of Zif, which is the second month, that he began to build the House of JEHOVAH. ² And the House which king Solomon built for Jehovah, its length was sixty cubits, and its breadth twenty cubits, and its height thirty cubits. ³ And the porch before the Great Hall of the House, twenty cubits was its length on the face of the breadth of the House; and ten cubits was its breadth before the House. ⁴ And for the House he made windows with closed lattices.

⁵ And against the wall of the House he built floors [for chambers] round about the walls of the house, round about both the Great Hall and the Place of the Oracle; and he made rows of CHAMBERS round about. ⁶ The nethermost Floor was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad; for on the outside of the House he made narrowed rests round about, so that nothing should be fastened into the walls of the House. ⁷ And the House, when it was in building, was built of stone made ready before it was brought thither; so that there was neither hammer nor axe nor any tool of iron heard in the House, while it was in building. ⁸ The entrance for the middle row of chambers was in the right front corner of the House; and they went up with winding stairs into the middle [row], and out of the middle into the third. ⁹ So he built the House, and finished it; and panelled the House, the vault-beams, and the boards, with cedar. ¹⁰ And he built a floor, [or inner gallery,] against all the House, five cubits high; and it rested on the House with timbers of cedar.

¹¹ And the word of Jehovah came to Solomon, saying, ¹² 'Concerning this House which thou art building, if thou wilt walk in my statutes, and execute my judgments, and keep all my commandments to walk in them, then will I perform my word with thee, which I spake to David thy father; ¹³ and I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel.'

that is the Great Hall, the fore-part of it, was forty cubits long. ¹⁸ And the cedar of the House within was carved with gourds and open flowers. All was cedar; there was no stone seen.

¹⁹ AND THE PLACE OF THE ORACLE he prepared in the inner room, to set there the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah. ²⁰ And the Place of the Oracle in the fore-part was twenty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in breadth, and twenty cubits in its height. And he overlaid it with pure gold; and so overlaid the altar which was of cedar. ²¹ So Solomon overlaid the House within with pure gold. And he made a partition by the chains of gold before the Place of the Oracle; and he overlaid it with gold. ²² And the whole House he overlaid with gold, until he had finished all the House. Also the whole altar that was at the Place of the Oracle he overlaid with gold.

²³ And within the Place of the Oracle he made TWO CHERUBS of olive wood, each ten cubits high. ²⁴ And five cubits was the one wing of the cherub, and five cubits the other wing of the cherub; from the tip of the one wing to the tip of the other were ten cubits. ²⁵ And the other cherub was ten cubits; both the cherubs were of one measure and one shape. ²⁶ The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was it of the other cherub. ²⁷ And he set the cherubs within the inner room. And they stretched forth the wings of the cherubs, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall; and their wings touched one another in the middle of the room. ²⁸ And he overlaid the cherubs with gold. ²⁹ And he carved all the walls of the House round about with carved figures of cherubs and palm trees and open flowers, in the inner and in the outer room. ³⁰ And the floor of the House he overlaid with gold, in the inner, and in the outer room.

³¹ And for the entrance of the Place of the Oracle he made doors of olive wood; the pilaster of the door-posts was a fifth part [of the wall]. ³² The two doors also were of olive wood; and he carved upon them carvings of cherubs and palm trees and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold, and spread the gold upon the cherubs, and upon the palm trees. ³³ So also made he for the entrance of the Great Hall door-posts of olive wood, a fourth part [of the wall]. ³⁴ And the two doors were of fir wood. There were two folding leaves to the one door, and two folding leaves to the other door. ³⁵ And he carved thereon cherubs and palm trees and open flowers; and covered them with gold fitted upon the figured work.

³⁶ And he built the INNER COURT with three rows of hewed stone, and a row of cedar rails.

³⁷ In the fourth year was the foundation of the House of Jehovah laid, in the month Zif; ³⁸ and in the eleventh year [B.C. 966], in the month Bul, which is the eighth month, was the House finished throughout all its parts, and according to all the fashion of it. So was he seven years in building it.

⁷ And Solomon was building HIS OWN HOUSE thirteen years, and he finished all his house.

² And he built the HOUSE OF THE FOREST OF LEBANON. Its length was a hundred cubits, and its breadth fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits, upon four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams upon the pillars. ³ And it was panelled with cedar above upon the beams which lay on the pillars; being forty-five, fifteen in a row. ⁴ And there were lattice-windows in three rows; and light was against light in three ranks. ⁵ And all the openings and side posts were squared with the lattice-windows; and light was against light in three ranks. ⁶ And he made a porch of pillars. Its length was fifty cubits, and its breadth thirty cubits. And the porch was before those, and the pillars and the thick beam were before those [of the house].

⁷ Then he made the PORCH OF THE THRONE where he might judge, even the porch of judgment. And it was panelled with cedar from the floor to the roof. ⁸ And his house where he dwelt had a COURT IN THE REAR, from the house to this porch, which was of the like work.

Solomon made also a HOUSE FOR PHARAOH'S DAUGHTER, whom he had taken to wife, like to this porch.

⁹ All these were of costly stones, according to the measures of the hewed stones, sawed with saws, within and without, even from the foundation to the coping, and so on the outside toward the GREAT COURT. ¹⁰ And the foundation was of costly stones. The great stones were stones of ten cubits, and stones of eight cubits. ¹¹ And on the upper surface were costly stones, after the measure of the hewed stones, and cedars. ¹² And the Great Court was inclosed with three rows of hewed stones, and a row of cedar rails, both toward the Inner Court of the House of Jehovah, and toward the Porch of the House.

¹³ And king Solomon sent and fetched Hiram out of Tyre. ¹⁴ He was the son of a widow of the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in copper; and he was filled with wisdom, and understanding, and with knowledge to work all works in copper. And he came to king Solomon, and wrought all his work. ¹⁵ And he cast the TWO PILLARS of copper. Eighteen cubits was the height of each pillar; and a line of twelve cubits did encompass either of the two pillars. ¹⁶ And he made two capitals of molten copper, to set upon the tops of the pillars. The height of the one capital was five cubits, and the height of the other capital was five cubits; ¹⁷ and trellises of trellis work, with wreaths of chain work, for the capitals which were upon the top of the pillars, seven for the one capital, and seven for the other capital. ¹⁸ And he made the pillars, and two rows of pomegranates round about on the one trellis work, to cover the capital that was on the top; and so did he for the other capital. ¹⁹ But the capitals that were on the top of the pillars within the porch were of lily work, four cubits.)

And the capitals on the two pillars also were above, over against the round moulding which was beyond the trellis-work; and the pomegranates were two hundred in rows round about on each of the two capitals. ²¹ And he set up the pillars at the porch of the great Hall [of the temple]; and he set up the right pillar, and called its name Jachin; and he set up the left pillar, and called its name Boaz. ²² And on the top of the pillars was lily work, so was the work of the pillars finished.

²³ And he made a molten WATER-CISTERN, of ten cubits from brim to brim. It was round all about, and its height was five cubits. And a line of thirty cubits did encompass it round about. ²⁴ And under the brim of it round about there were gourds encompassing it, ten in a cubit, encircling the Water-cistern round about in two rows. The gourds were cast in their moulds. ²⁵ It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east. And the Water-cistern was set above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward. ²⁶ And its thickness was a hand breadth [or three inches]; and its brim was wrought like the brim of the cup of the flower of a lily. It contained two thousand Baths [or 15,000 gallons].

²⁷ And he made TEN BASIN-STANDS of copper; four cubits was the length of one Basin-stand, and four cubits its breadth, and three cubits the height of it. ²⁸ And the work of the Basin-stands was on this manner. They had side-panels, and the side-panels were between joinings. ²⁹ And on the side-panels that were between the joinings were lions, oxen, and cherubs. And thus also it was upon the top above the joinings. And beneath the lions and oxen were garlands made of hanging work. ³⁰ And every Basin-stand had four copper wheels, and axles of copper. And its four corners were their supports. Under the basin [or laver] were molten supports; at the side of each were garlands. ³¹ And the mouth of it within the top-ledge and above was a cubit; and its mouth was a ring, as the work of the Basin-stand, a cubit and a half. And also upon the mouth of it were gravings; and their side-panels were four-square, not round. ³² And under the side-panels were four wheels; and the axle-trees of the wheels were fixed in the Basin-stand. And the height of a wheel was a cubit and half a cubit. ³³ And the work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot-wheel; their axle-trees, and their circles, and their spokes, and their naves, were all molten. ³⁴ And there were four supports to the four corners of each Basin-stand; and the supports were part of the Basin-stand itself. ³⁵ And on the top of the Basin-stand was there an encompassing ring of half a cubit high. And on the top of the Basin-stand were its handles; and its side-panels were part of the same. ³⁶ For on the plates of its handles, and on its side-panels, he engraved cherubs, lions, and palm trees, according to the open space in each, and garlands round about. ³⁷ After this manner he made the ten Basin-stands; all of them were of one casting, one measure, and one shape.

³⁸ Then made he ten LAVERS [or Basins] of copper; one Laver contained forty Baths [or 300 gallons]; and every Laver was four cubits; and upon every one of the ten Basin-stands was one Laver. ³⁹ And he put five Basin-stands at the right front corner of the House, and five at the left front corner of the House; and he set the Water-cistern near the right front corner of the House eastward over against the south. ⁴⁰ And Hiram made the Lavens, and the Ladles, and the Sprinkling Buckets.

So Hiram made an end of doing all the work that he made for king Solomon for the House of Jehovah; ⁴¹ the two pillars, and the bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the two pillars; and the two trellis-works to cover the two bowls of the capitals which were upon the top of the pillars; ⁴² and four hundred pomegranates for the two trellis-works, (even two rows of pomegranates for each trellis-work) to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were upon the pillars; ⁴³ and the ten basin-stands, and ten lavens on the basin-stands; ⁴⁴ and one water-cistern, and twelve oxen under the water-cistern; ⁴⁵ and the pots, and the ladles, and the sprinkling buckets; and all these vessels, which Hiram made to king Solomon for the House of Jehovah, were of polished copper. ⁴⁶ In the Circle of the Jordan did the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zarthan. ⁴⁷ And Solomon left all the vessels [unweighed], because they were very very many; the weight of the copper was not sought for.

⁴⁸ And Solomon made all the vessels that were for the House of Jehovah; the Golden Altar, and the Table of gold, whereupon the presence-bread was, ⁴⁹ and the Lamp-stands of pure gold, five on the right side, and five on the left, before the Place of the Oracle, with the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs of gold, ⁵⁰ and the bowls, and the snuffers, and the sprinkling buckets, and the spoons, and the censers of pure gold; and the hinges of gold, both for the doors of the inner room, the Holy of Holies, and for the doors of the house, to wit, for the Great Hall. ⁵¹ So was ended all the work that king Solomon made for the House of Jehovah. And Solomon brought in the things which David his father had dedicated; the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, did he put among the treasures of the House of Jehovah.

⁴ And they brought up the Ark of Jehovah, and the Tent of Meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the Tent, even those did the priests and the Levites bring up. ⁵ And king Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, that were assembled unto him, were with him before the Ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen, that could not be told nor numbered for multitude. ⁶ And the priests brought in the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah to its place, into the Place of the Oracle of the House, into the Holy of Holies, even under the wings of the cherubs. ⁷ For the cherubs spread forth their wings to the place of the Ark, and the cherubs covered over the Ark and its staves from above. ⁸ And so long were the staves, that the ends of the staves were seen from the Holy [room] in front of the Place of the Oracle, but they were not seen on the outside. And there they are unto this day. ⁹ There was nothing in the Ark save the Two Tables of Stone, which Moses put there at Horeb, when Jehovah made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Lower Egypt.

¹⁰ And it came to pass, when the priests went out of the Holy Place, that the cloud filled the house of Jehovah, ¹¹ so that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud; for the glory of Jehovah had filled the House of Jehovah. ¹² Then spake Solomon, 'Jehovah said that he would dwell in the thick darkness. ¹³ I have surely built thee a house to dwell in, a settled place for thee to abide in for ever.' ¹⁴ And the king turned his face about, and blessed all the assembly of Israel; and all the assembly of Israel stood; ¹⁵ and he said, 'Blessed be Jehovah the God of Israel, who spake with his mouth to David my father, and hath with his hand fulfilled it, saying, ¹⁶ Since the day that I brought forth my people Israel out of Lower Egypt I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a house, that my Name might be therein; but I chose David to be over my people Israel.—¹⁷ And it was in the heart of David my father to build a House for the Name of Jehovah the God of Israel. ¹⁸ And Jehovah said to David my father, Whereas it was in thy heart to build a House for my Name, thou didst well that it was in thy heart. ¹⁹ Nevertheless thou shalt not build the House; but thy son that shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the House for my Name.—²⁰ And Jehovah hath performed his word that he spake, and I am risen up in the room of David my father, and I sit on the throne of Israel, as Jehovah promised, and I have built a House for the Name of Jehovah the God of Israel. ²¹ And I have set there a place for the Ark, wherein is the Covenant of Jehovah, which he made with our fathers when he brought them out of the land of Lower Egypt.'

²² And Solomon stood before the Altar of Jehovah in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and spread forth his hands towards heaven; ²³ and he said, 'O Jehovah God of Israel, there is no God like thee, in heaven above, or on earth beneath,

' who keepest covenant and kindness with thy servants that walk before thee with all their heart ;
' ²⁴ who hast kept with thy servant David my father what thou promisedst him ; and thou spakest with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thy hand, as it is this day. ²⁵ Now therefore, O Jehovah God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father what thou promisedst him, saying, There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit upon the throne of Israel ; if so be that thy sons keep to their way, to walk before me as thou hast walked before me.—²⁶ And now, O God of Israel, let thy word, I pray thee, be verified, which thou didst speak to thy servant David my father.

' ²⁷ But will God in truth dwell on the earth ? Behold, the heavens and the heaven of heavens cannot contain thee ; how much less this House which I have built ? ²⁸ Turn thou therefore to the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O Jehovah my God, to hearken to the cry and to the prayer, which thy servant prayeth before thee to-day ; ²⁹ that thine eye may be open toward this House night and day, toward the Place of which thou hast said, My name shall be there ; that thou mayest hearken to the prayer which thy servant shall pray toward this place. ³⁰ And hearken thou to the supplication of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, when they shall pray toward this place ; and hear thou in heaven thy dwelling-place ; and when thou hearest, forgive.

' ³¹ In whatever a man sin against his neighbour, and an oath [or self-curse] be laid upon him to make him swear, and the oath come before thine altar in this House ; ³² then hear thou in heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, condemning the wicked, by bringing his way upon his own head ; and justifying the righteous, by giving to him according to his righteousness.

' ³³ When thy people Israel be smitten down before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee, and shall turn again to thee, and confess thy name, and pray, and make supplication to thee in this House ; ³⁴ then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again unto the land which thou gavest to their fathers.

' ³⁵ When the heavens are shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee ; if they pray toward this place, and confess thy name, and turn from their sin, when thou afflictest them ; ³⁶ then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, that thou mayest teach them the good way wherein they should walk, and give rain upon thy land, which thou hast given to thy people for an inheritance.

' ³⁷ If there be in the land famine, if there be pestilence, blight, mildew, locust, or if there be caterpillar ; if their enemy besiege them in the land at their city gates ; for every plague, for every sickness, ³⁸ what prayer and supplication

'soever be made by any man, or by any one of thy people Israel, who shall know every man the plague of his own heart, and spread forth his hands towards this House ; ³⁹ then hear thou in heaven thy dwelling-place, and forgive, and do, and give to every man according to his ways, whose heart thou knowest, (for thou, even thou only, knowest the hearts of all the sons of Adam ;)
' ⁴⁰ so that they may fear thee all the days that they live upon the face of the land which thou gavest to our fathers.

' ⁴¹ Moreover concerning a foreigner, that is not of thy people Israel, but cometh out of a far country for thy Name's sake ; ⁴² (for they will hear of thy great Name, and of thy strong hand, and of thy stretched out arm ;) when he shall come and pray toward this House ; ⁴³ hear thou in heaven, thy dwelling-place, and do according to all that the foreigner calleth to thee for ; so that all the peoples of the earth may know thy Name, to fear thee, as do thy people Israel ; and that they may know that this House, which I have builded, is called by thy Name.

' ⁴⁴ When thy people go out to battle against their enemy, whithersoever thou shalt send them, and shall pray to Jehovah toward the city which thou hast chosen, and toward the House that I have built for thy Name ; ⁴⁵ then hear thou in heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.

' ⁴⁶ When they sin against thee, (for there is no man that sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and give them up to the enemy, so that they carry them away captives to the land of the enemy far or near ; ⁴⁷ yet if they shall again lay it to heart in the land whither they were carried, and turn and make supplication to thee in the land of them that carried them away, saying, We have sinned, and have done perversely, we have committed wickedness ; ⁴⁸ and so shall return to thee with all their heart, and with all their soul, in the land of their enemies, who led them away captive, and shall pray to thee toward their land, which thou gavest to their fathers, toward the city which thou hast chosen, and the House which I have built for thy Name ; ⁴⁹ then hear thou in heaven thy dwelling-place their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause, ⁵⁰ and forgive thy people what they have sinned against thee, and all their transgressions wherein they have transgressed against thee, and grant them to find mercy in the sight of them who carried them captive, that they may have mercy on them ; ⁵¹ for they are thy people and thine inheritance, whom thou broughtest forth out of Lower Egypt, from the midst of the furnace of iron ; ⁵² that thine eyes may be open unto the supplication of thy servant, and unto the supplication of thy people Israel, to hearken to them in all that they call for unto thee. ⁵³ For thou didst separate them from among all the peoples of the earth, to be thine inheritance, as thou spakest by the hand

'of Moses thy servant, when thou broughtest our fathers out of Lower Egypt, O Lord Jehovah.'

⁵⁴ And it was so, that when Solomon had made an end of praying all this prayer and supplication to Jehovah, he arose from before the altar of Jehovah, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread up to heaven. ⁵⁵ And he stood and blessed all the assembly of Israel with a loud voice, saying, ⁵⁶ 'Blessed be Jehovah that hath given a resting-place to his people Israel, according to all that he promised; there hath not failed one word of all his good promise, which he promised by the hand of Moses his servant. ⁵⁷ May Jehovah our God be with us, as he was with our fathers; let him not leave us, nor forsake us; ⁵⁸ that he may incline our hearts to him, to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments and his statutes, and his judgments, which he commanded our fathers. ⁵⁹ And let these my words, wherewith I have made supplication before Jehovah, be nigh to Jehovah our God day and night, that he may maintain the cause of his servant, and the cause of his people Israel, each matter on its own day; ⁶⁰ so that all the peoples of the earth may know that Jehovah is God, and that there is none else. ⁶¹ Let your heart therefore be perfect with Jehovah our God, to walk in his statutes, and to keep his commandments, as at this day.'

⁶² And the king, and all Israel with him, sacrificed a sacrifice before Jehovah. ⁶³ And Solomon sacrificed as a sacrifice of peace offerings which he sacrificed to Jehovah, two and twenty thousand oxen, and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the House of Jehovah. ⁶⁴ The same day did the king hallow the middle of the Court that was before the House of Jehovah; for there he offered burnt offerings, and meal offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings; because the copper altar that was before Jehovah was too little to receive the burnt offerings, and meal offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings.

⁶⁵ And at that time Solomon held the Feast [of Tabernacles], and all Israel with him, a great assembly, from the Pass of Hamath unto the valley of Lower Egypt, before Jehovah our God, seven days and seven days, even fourteen days. ⁶⁶ On the eighth day he sent the people away. And they blessed the king, and went to their tents joyful and glad of heart for all the goodness that Jehovah had done to David his servant, and to Israel his people.

⁹ And it came to pass, when Solomon had finished the building of the House of Jehovah, and the king's house, and all Solomon's desire which he was pleased to do, ² that Jehovah appeared to Solomon the second time, as he had appeared to him at Gibeon. ³ And Jehovah said to him, 'I have heard thy prayer and thy supplication, that thou hast made before me. I have hallowed this House, which thou hast built, to put my Name there for ever; and mine eyes and my heart shall be there

'perpetually. ⁴ And if thou wilt walk before me, as David thy father walked, in honesty of heart, and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded thee, and will keep my statutes and my judgments; ⁵ then I will establish the throne of thy kingdom upon Israel for ever, as I promised to David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man upon the throne of Israel.— ⁶ But if ye shall at all turn from following me, ye or your children, and will not keep my commandments and my statutes which I have set before you, but go and serve other gods, and bow down before them; ⁷ then will I cut off Israel from the face of the land which I have given them; and this House, which I have hallowed for my Name, will I cast out of my sight; and Israel shall be a proverb and a byword among all the peoples; ⁸ and this House shall be set on high, that every one that passeth by it may be astonished, and hiss; and they shall say, Why hath Jehovah done thus to this land, and to this House? ⁹ And they shall answer, Because they forsook Jehovah their God, who brought forth their fathers out of the land of Lower Egypt, and have taken hold upon other gods, and have bowed down to them, and served them; therefore hath Jehovah brought upon them all this evil.'

¹⁰ And it came to pass at the end of twenty years, when Solomon had built the two houses, the House of Jehovah, and the king's house, ¹¹ after Hiram the king of Tyre had furnished Solomon with cedar trees and fir trees, and with gold, according to all his desire, that then king Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee. ¹² And Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him; and they were not pleasing in his eyes. ¹³ And he said, 'What cities are these which thou hast given me, my brother? And he called them the land of Cabul unto this day. ¹⁴ And Hiram sent to the king a hundred and twenty Kikars of Gold. ¹⁵ And this is the reason of the labour-levy which king Solomon raised; for to build the House of Jehovah, and his own house, and Millo [or the Castle], and the wall of Jerusalem, and Hazor, and Megiddo, and Gezer. ¹⁶ For Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up, and taken Gezer, and burnt it with fire, and slain the Canaanites that dwelt in the city, and had given it as a dowry for his daughter, Solomon's wife. ¹⁷ And Solomon built Gezer, and Beth-horon the lower, ¹⁸ and Baalath, and Tadmor [or Palmyra] in the inland desert, ¹⁹ and all the cities of store that Solomon had, and cities for his chariots, and cities for his horsemen, and that which Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

²⁰ And all the people that were left of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, who were not of the children of Israel, ²¹ their children that were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel also were not able utterly to destroy, upon those did Solomon levy a tribute of bond-service unto this day. ²² But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no bond-servants; but they were men of war, and his servants, and his princes, and his chiefs-of-three [or chariot warriors], and rulers of his chariots, and his horsemen. ²³ These were the captains of the officers that were over Solomon's work, five hundred and fifty, that bare rule over the people that laboured in the work.

²⁴ And Pharaoh's daughter came up out of the city of David unto her house which Solomon had built for her. Then did he build Millo.

²⁵ And three times in a year did Solomon offer up burnt offerings and peace offerings on the Altar which he built unto Jehovah, and he burnt incense on that which was in the presence of Jehovah. So he finished the house.

10 And when the queen of Sheba had heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of Jehovah, she came to prove him with hard questions. ² And she came to Jerusalem with a very great train of camels that bare spices, and very much gold, and precious stones. And when she was come to Solomon, she spake to him of all that was in her heart. ³ And Solomon told her all her questions; there was not any thing hidden from the king, which he told her not. ⁴ And when the queen of Sheba had seen all Solomon's wisdom, and the house that he had built, ⁵ and the food of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their apparel, and his cup-bearers, and his Ascent [or Bridge] by which he went up into the House of Jehovah; there was no more spirit in her. ⁶ And she said to the king, 'It was a true report that I heard in mine own land of thine acts and of thy wisdom. ⁷ Howbeit I believed not the words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it; and behold, the half was not told me. Thy wisdom and prosperity exceedeth the fame which I heard. ⁸ Happy are thy men, happy are these thy servants, that stand continually before thee, and that hear thy wisdom. ⁹ Blessed be Jehovah thy God, who delighted in thee, to set thee on the throne of Israel; because Jehovah loveth Israel for ever, therefore made he thee king, to do judgment and righteousness.' ¹⁰ And she gave the king a hundred and twenty Kikars of gold, and of spices very great store, and precious stones. There came no more such abundance of spices as these which the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon.

¹¹ And the ships also of Hiram, that brought gold from Ophir, brought in from Ophir great plenty of Almug [or ebony] trees; and precious stones. ¹² And the king made of the almug trees stair-rails for the House of Jehovah, and for the king's house, harps also and psalteries for singers; there came no such almug trees, nor were seen unto this day. ¹³ And king Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatsoever she asked, beside that which Solomon gave her as of the king's hand. So she turned and went to her own country, she and her servants.

¹⁴ Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred sixty and six Kikars of gold, ¹⁵ beside that of the traders, and of the traffic of the merchants, and of all the kings of Arabia, and of the Pachas [or governors] of the country.

¹⁶ And king Solomon made two hundred targets of gold beaten thin; six hundred [shekels] of gold went to one target. ¹⁷ And he made three hundred shields of gold beaten thin; three Minæ of gold went to one shield. And the king put them in the House of the Forest of Lebanon.

²¹ And all king Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were of pure gold; none were of silver; that was accounted as nothing in the days of Solomon. ²² For the king had at sea ships of Tarshish [or Tarsus], with the ships of Hiram. Once in three years came the ships of Tarshish, bringing gold, and silver, tusks of ivory, and apes, and parrots. ²³ So king Solomon was greater than all the kings of the land for riches and for wisdom.

²⁶ And Solomon gathered together chariots and horsemen; and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he bestowed in the chariot-cities, and with the king at Jerusalem. ²⁷ And the king made silver to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made he to be as the sycamore trees that are in the Low Country for abundance. ²⁸ And Solomon had horses brought out of Lower Egypt; a troop of the king's merchants received the troop [of horses] at a price. ²⁹ And a chariot came up and went out of Lower Egypt for six hundred [Shekels or three hundred ounces] of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty. And so for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria did they bring them out by their hands.

¹¹ But king Solomon loved many foreign women, together with the daughter of Pharaoh, women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonians, and Hittites; ² of the nations concerning which Jehovah had said to the children of Israel, 'Ye shall not go in unto them, neither shall they come in unto you; for surely they will turn away your heart after their gods;' Solomon clave unto these in love. ³ And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines; and his wives turned away his heart. ⁴ For it came to pass, when Solomon was old, that his wives turned away his heart after other gods; and his heart was not perfect with Jehovah his God, as was the heart of David his father. ⁵ For Solomon went after Ashtaroth the goddess of the Sidonians, and after Milcom [or Molech] the abomination of the Ammonites. ⁶ And Solomon did evil in the sight of Jehovah, and went not fully after Jehovah, as David his father had done. ⁷ Then did Solomon build a High Place for Chemosh, the abomination of Moab, on the hill that is in front of Jerusalem, and for Molech, the abomination of the children of Ammon. ⁸ And likewise did he for all his foreign wives, who burnt incense and sacrificed to their own gods. ⁹ And Jehovah was angry with Solomon, because his heart was turned from Jehovah the God of Israel, who had appeared unto him twice, ¹⁰ and had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods. But he kept not that which Jehovah had commanded. ¹¹ Therefore Jehovah said to Solomon, 'Forasmuch as this is done by thee, and thou hast not kept my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded thee, I will surely rend the kingdom from thee, and will give it to thy servant. ¹² Notwithstanding, in thy days I will not do it for David thy father's sake; but I will rend it out of the hand of thy son. ¹³ Howbeit I will not rend away all the kingdom; but will give one tribe to thy son for David my servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake which I have chosen.'

¹⁴ And Jehovah raised up an adversary unto Solomon, Hadad the Edomite. He was of the seed of the kings of Edom. ¹⁵ For it came to pass, when David was in Edom, and Joab the captain of the army was gone up to bury the slain, after he had smitten every male in Edom, (¹⁶ for six months did Joab remain there with all Israel, until he had cut off every male in Edom,) ¹⁷ that Hadad fled, he and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him, to go into Lower Egypt; Hadad being yet a little child. ¹⁸ And they arose out of Midian, and came to Paran. And they took men with them out of Paran, and they came to Lower Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Lower Egypt; who gave him a house, and promised him victuals, and gave him land. ¹⁹ And Hadad found great favour in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him to wife the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tahpenes the queen. ²⁰ And the sister of Tahpenes bare him Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house. And Genubath was in Pharaoh's household among the sons of Pharaoh.

²¹ And when Hadad heard in Lower Egypt that David slept with his fathers, and that Joab the captain of the army was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, 'Let me depart, that I may go to mine own country.' ²² Then Pharaoh said to him, 'But what hast thou lacked with me, that, behold, thou seekest to go to thine own country?' And he answered, 'Nothing; howbeit let me go in anywise.'

²³ And God raised up against him as an adversary Rezon the son of Eliadah, who had fled from his lord Hadadezer king of Zobah. ²⁴ And he gathered men unto him, and became captain over a troop, when David slew them [of Zobah]. And they went to Damascus, and dwelt therein, and reigned in Damascus. ²⁵ And he was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, beside the mischief that Hadad did. And he harassed Israel, and reigned over Syria.

²⁶ And Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephraimite of Zereda, whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow woman, though he was Solomon's servant, yet he lifted up his hand against the king. ²⁷ And this was the cause that he lifted up his hand against the king. Solomon had built Millo [for the castle], and had repaired the breaches of the city of David his father. ²⁸ And the man Jeroboam was a warrior of valour. And Solomon seeing the young man that he had done the work, he made him ruler over all the charge of the house of Joseph. ²⁹ And it came to pass at that time when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him in the way; and he had clad himself with a new cloak; and they two were alone in the field. ³⁰ And Ahijah caught the new cloak that was on him, and rent it into twelve pieces. ³¹ And he said to Jeroboam, 'Take to thyself ten pieces; for thus saith Jehovah the God of Israel, Behold, I will rend the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give ten tribes to thee; (³² but he shall have one tribe for my servant David's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel;) ³³ because that they have forsaken me, and have worshipped Ashtaroth the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the god of the children of Ammon, and have not walked in my ways, to do that which is right in mine eyes, and to keep my statutes and my judgments, as did David his father. ³⁴ Howbeit I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand; but I will make him prince all the days of his life for David my servant's sake, whom I chose because he kept my commandments and my statutes. ³⁵ But I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand, and will give it to thee, even ten tribes. ³⁶ And to his son will I give one tribe, so that there may be a lamp for David my servant always before me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen for myself to put my Name there. ³⁷ And I will take thee, and thou shalt reign according to all that thy soul desireth, and thou shalt be king over Israel.'

³⁸ And it shall be, if thou wilt hearken unto all that I command thee, and wilt walk in my ways, and do what is right in my sight, to keep my statutes, and my commandments, as David my servant did; that I will be with thee, and will build unto thee a sure house, as I built for David, and will give Israel unto thee. ³⁹ And I will for this afflict the seed of David, but not for ever. ⁴⁰ Solomon sought therefore to kill Jeroboam. And Jeroboam arose, and fled into Lower Egypt, unto Shishak king of Lower Egypt, and was in Lower Egypt until the death of Solomon.

12 And REHOBAM went to Shechem; for all Israel were come to Shechem to make him king. ² And it came to pass, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it, (for he was as yet in Lower Egypt, whither he was fled from the presence of king Solomon, and Jeroboam dwelt in Lower Egypt,) ³ that they sent and called him. And Jeroboam and all the assembly of Israel came, and spake to Rehoboam, saying, ⁴ Thy father made our yoke grievous; now therefore do thou lighten the grievous service of thy father, and his heavy yoke which he put upon us, and we will serve thee. ⁵ And he said to them, Depart yet for three days, then come again to me. And the people departed.

⁶ And king Rehoboam consulted with the old men, that stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, and said, How do ye advise, that I may return answer to this people? ⁷ And they spake to him, saying, If thou wilt be a servant unto this people this day, and wilt serve them, and answer them, and speak good words to them, then they will be thy servants for ever. ⁸ But he forsook the counsel of the old men, which they had counselled him, and consulted with the young men that had grown up with him, and who stood before him. ⁹ And he said to them, What counsel give ye, that we may return answer to this people, who have spoken to me, saying, Do thou lighten the yoke which thy father did put upon us? ¹⁰ And the young men that had grown up with him spake to him, saying, Thus shalt thou speak to this people that spake to thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but do thou lighten it unto us—thus shalt thou say to them, My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins. ¹¹ And now whereas my father did lade you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke. My father hath chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

¹² So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king had appointed, saying, Come to me again on the third day. ¹³ And the king answered the people roughly, and forsook the old men's counsel that they counselled him, ¹⁴ and he spake to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, and I will add to your yoke. My father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions. ¹⁵ And the king hearkened not to the people; for the guidance was from Jehovah, so that he might perform his saying, which Jehovah spake by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite unto Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

¹⁶ So when all Israel saw that the king hearkened not to them, the people returned answer to the king, saying, What portion have we in David? Neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse. To your tents, O Israel. Now see to thine own house, David. So Israel departed to their tents. ¹⁷ But as for the children of Israel that dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

¹⁸ Then king Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was over the tribute; and all Israel stoned him with stones, that he died. Therefore king Rehoboam made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem. ¹⁹ So Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

²⁰ And it came to pass, when all Israel heard that JEROBOAM was come again, that they sent and called him to the congregation, and made him king over all Israel [B.C. 936]. There was none that followed the house of David, but only the tribe of Judah.

²¹ And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah, with the tribe of Benjamin, a hundred and eighty thousand chosen men, who were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the son of Solomon. ²² But the word of God came to Shemaiah, a man of God, saying, ²³ Speak to Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the remnant of the people, saying, ²⁴ Thus saith Jehovah, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel. Return every man to his house; for this thing is from me. They hearkened therefore to the word of Jehovah, and returned to depart, according to the word of Jehovah.

²⁵ Then Jeroboam built Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and dwelt therein. And he went out from thence, and built Penuel. ²⁶ And Jeroboam said in his heart, Now will the kingdom return to the house of David, ²⁷ if this people go up to do sacrifice in the House of Jehovah at Jerusalem; then will the heart of this people turn again unto their lord, even unto Rehoboam king of Judah, and they will kill me, and turn again to Rehoboam king of Judah. ²⁸ Whereupon the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold. And he said to them, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem; behold thy gods, O Israel, who brought thee up out of the land of 'Egypt.' ²⁹ And he set the one in Beth-el, and the other put he in Dan. ³⁰ And this thing became a sin ; for the people went up before the one, even unto Dan. ³¹ And he made a House of High Places [for Altars], and made priests of the lowest of the people, who were not of the sons of Levi. ³² And Jeroboam ordained a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like the feast that is in Judah, and he offered up on the altar. So did he in Beth-el, sacrificing to the calves that he had made. And he placed in Beth-el the priests of the High Places which he had made. ³³ So he went up to the altar which he had made in Beth-el on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, even in a month which he had set apart of his own heart ; and he ordained a feast unto the children of Israel ; and he went up to the altar to burn incense.

¹³ And behold, there came A MAN OF GOD out of Judah by the word of Jehovah unto Beth-el ; and Jeroboam stood at the altar to burn incense. ² And he cried against the altar by the word of Jehovah, and said, ' O altar, altar, thus saith Jehovah ; Behold, a child will be born unto the house of David, Josiah by name ; and upon thee will he sacrifice the priests of the High Places who burn incense upon thee, and men's bones shall be burned upon thee.' ³ And he gave a sign the same day, saying, ' This is the sign which Jehovah hath spoken ; Behold, the altar shall be rent, and the bone-ashes that are upon it shall be poured out.' And it came to pass, when king Jeroboam heard the saying of the man of God, who had cried against the altar in Beth-el, that he put forth his hand from the altar, saying, ' Lay hold on him.' And his hand, which he put forth against him, dried up, so that he could not pull it in again to him. ⁵ The altar also was rent, and the bone-ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of Jehovah. ⁶ And the king answered and said to the man of God, ' Intreat now the face of Jehovah thy God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored to me again.' And the man of God intreated the face of Jehovah, and the king's hand was restored him again, and became as it was before. ⁷ And the king said to the man of God, ' Come home with me, and refresh thyself, and I will give thee a reward.' ⁸ And the man of God said to the king, ' If thou wilt give me half thy house, I will not go in with thee, neither will I eat bread nor drink water in this place. ⁹ For so was it charged me by the word of Jehovah, saying, ' Eat no bread, nor drink water, nor return again by the same way that thou camest.' ¹⁰ So he went another way, and returned not by the way that he came to Beth-el.

¹¹ Now there dwelt an old prophet in Beth-el ; and his sons came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Beth-el ; the words which he had spoken to the king, then they told also to their father. ¹² And their father said to them, ' What way went he ? ' For his sons had seen what way the man of God went, who came from Judah. ¹³ And he said to his sons, ' Saddle for me the ass.' So they saddled for him the ass ; and he rode thereon, ¹⁴ and went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak. And he said to him, ' Art thou the man of God that camest from Judah ? ' And he said, ' I am.' ¹⁵ Then he said to him, ' Come home with me, and eat bread.' ¹⁶ And he said, ' I may not return with thee, nor go in with thee ; neither will I eat bread nor drink water with thee in this place ; ¹⁷ for it was said to me by the word of Jehovah, ' Thou shalt eat no bread nor drink water there, nor turn again to go by the way that thou camest.' ¹⁸ And he said to him, ' I am a prophet also as thou art ; and an angel spake to me by the word of Jehovah, saying, Bring him back with thee into thy house, that he may eat bread and drink water.' But he lied unto him. ¹⁹ So he went back with him, and did eat bread in his house, and drank water.

²⁰ And it came to pass, as they sat at the table, that the word of Jehovah came to the prophet that brought him back ; ²¹ and he cried to the man of God that came from Judah, saying, ' Thus saith Jehovah, Forasmuch as thou hast disobeyed the mouth of Jehovah, and hast not kept the command which Jehovah thy God commanded thee, ²² but camest back, and hast eaten bread and drunk water in the place, of which he did say to thee, Eat no bread, and drink no water ; thy carcass shall not come unto the burial-place of thy fathers.'

²³ And it came to pass, after he had eaten bread, and after he had drunk, that he saddled the ass for the prophet whom he had brought back. ²⁴ And when he was gone, a lion met him by the way, and slew him. And his carcass was cast in the way, and the ass stood by it, the lion also stood by the carcass. ²⁵ And behold, men passed by, and saw the carcass cast in the way, and the lion standing by the carcass : and they came and told it in the city where the old prophet dwelt.

²⁶ And when the prophet that brought him back from the way heard thereof, he said, ' It is the man of God, who was disobedient to the command of Jehovah. Therefore Jehovah hath delivered him to the lion, which hath torn him, and slain him according to the word of Jehovah which he spake to him.' ²⁷ And he spake to his sons, saying, ' Saddle for me the ass.' And they saddled it. ²⁸ And he went and found his carcass cast in the way, and the ass and the lion standing by the carcass. The lion had not eaten the carcass, nor torn the ass. ²⁹ And the prophet took up the carcass of the man of God, and laid it upon the ass, and brought it back. And the old prophet came to the city, to mourn and to bury him. ³⁰ And he laid his carcass in his own burying-place ; and they mourned over him, [saying], ' Alas, my brother ! ' ³¹ And it came to pass, after he had buried him, that he spake to his sons, saying,

'When I am dead, then bury me in the burying-place wherein the man of God is buried; lay my bones beside his bones; ³² for the saying which he cried by the word of Jehovah against the altar in Beth-el, and against all the houses of the High Places which are in the cities of Samaria, shall surely come to pass.'

³³ After this thing Jeroboam returned not from his evil way, but made again some of the lowest of the people priests of the High Places. Whosoever would, he filled his hands [with offerings], and he became one of the priests of the High Places. ³⁴ And this thing became sin unto the house of Jeroboam, even to cut it off, and to destroy it from off the face of the earth.

14 At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam fell sick. ² And Jeroboam said to his wife, 'Arise, I pray thee, and disguise thyself, that thou be not known to be the wife of Jeroboam; and get thee to Shiloh. Behold, Ahijah the prophet is there, who told me that I should be king over this people.' ³ And take in thy hand ten loaves, and cracknels, and a bottle of honey, and go to him; he will tell thee what will become of the child.' ⁴ And Jeroboam's wife did so, and arose, and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah. But Ahijah could not see; for his eyes were set by reason of his old age. ⁵ And Jehovah said to Ahijah, 'Behold, the wife of Jeroboam cometh to ask a thing of thee for her son; for he is sick. Thus and thus shalt thou say to her; for it shall be, when she cometh in, that she shall feign herself to be a stranger.' ⁶ And it was so, when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet, as she came in at the doorway, that he said, 'Come in, thou wife of Jeroboam; why now feignest thou thyself to be a stranger? For I am sent to thee with heavy tidings.' ⁷ Go, tell Jeroboam, Thus saith Jehovah the God of Israel, Forasmuch as I exalted thee from among the people, and made thee prince over my people Israel, ⁸ and I rent the kingdom away from the house of David, and gave it to thee; and yet thou hast not been as my servant David, who kept my commandments, and who followed me with all his heart, to do that only which was right in mine eyes; ⁹ but thou hast done evil above all that were before thee; and hast gone and made for thyself other gods and molten images, to provoke me to anger, and hast cast me behind thy back; ¹⁰ therefore, behold, I will bring evil upon the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam every man and boy, whether bondsman or free in Israel; and I will put away behind me the house of Jeroboam, as a man putteth away dung, till it be all gone. ¹¹ Him of Jeroboam that dieth in the city shall the dogs eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat; for Jehovah hath spoken it. ¹² Arise thou therefore, get thee to thine own house; when thy feet enter into the city, the child shall die. ¹³ And all Israel shall mourn for him, and bury him; for he only of Jeroboam shall come to a burial-place, because in him there is found some good thing toward Jehovah the God of Israel in the house of Jeroboam. ¹⁴ Moreover Jehovah will raise up for himself a king over Israel, who will cut off the house of Jeroboam that day. And what if it be even now? ¹⁵ For Jehovah will smite Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water, and he will root up Israel out of this good land, which he gave to their fathers, and will scatter them beyond the river [Euphrates], because they have made their images of Ashera, provoking Jehovah to anger. ¹⁶ And he will give Israel up because of the sins of Jeroboam, which he did sin, and wherein he made Israel to sin.' ¹⁷ And Jeroboam's wife arose, and departed, and came to Tirzah; and when she came to the threshold of the house, the child died. ¹⁸ And they buried him; and all Israel mourned for him, according to the word of Jehovah, which he spake by the hand of his servant Ahijah the prophet.

¹⁹ And the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he warred, and how he reigned, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel. ²⁰ And the days which Jeroboam reigned were two and twenty years; and he slept with his fathers, and Nadab his son reigned in his stead.

²¹ And Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty and one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which Jehovah did choose out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there. And his mother's name was Naamah an Ammonite woman. ²² And Judah did evil in the sight of Jehovah, and they provoked him to jealousy with their sins which they committed, above all that their fathers had done. ²³ For they also built for themselves High Places, and images, and groves of Ashera, on every high hill, and under every green tree. ²⁴ And there were also sodomites in the land; they did according to all the abominations of the nations which Jehovah had cast out before the children of Israel.

²⁵ And it came to pass in the fifth year of king Rehoboam [B.C. 932], that Shishak king of Lower Egypt came up against Jerusalem. ²⁶ And he took away the treasures of the House of Jehovah, and the treasures of the king's house; he even took away all. And he took away all the shields of gold which Solomon had made. ²⁷ And king Rehoboam made in their stead shields of copper, and committed them unto the hands of the chief of the Runners, who kept the door of the king's house. ²⁸ And it was so whenever the king went into the house of Jehovah, that the Runners bare them, and brought them back into the Runners' chamber.

²⁹ Now the rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah? ³⁰ And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all their days. ³¹ And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And his mother's name was Naamah an Ammonite woman. And Abijam his son reigned in his stead.

¹⁵ Now in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam the son of Nebat [B.C. 919] reigned ABIJAM over Judah. ² Three years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Maachah, the daughter of Absalom. ³ And he walked in all the sins of his father, which he had done before him: and his heart was not perfect with Jehovah his God, as the heart of David his father. ⁴ Nevertheless for David's sake did Jehovah his God give him a lamp in Jerusalem, to set up his son after him, and to establish Jerusalem; ⁵ because David did what was right in the eyes of Jehovah, and turned not aside from anything that he commanded him all the days of his life, save only in the matter of Uriah the Hittite. ⁶ And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life.

⁹ And in the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel [B.C. 917] reigned ASA over Judah. ¹⁰ And forty and one years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his [grand] mother's name was Maachah, the daughter of Absalom. ¹¹ And Asa did what was right in the eyes of Jehovah, as David his father had done. ¹² And he took away the sodomites out of the land, and removed all the filthy idols that his fathers had made. ¹³ And also Maachah his [grand]mother, even her he removed from being queen, because she had made a frightful idol to Ashera. And Asa destroyed her frightful idol, and burnt it in the valley of the Kidron. ¹⁴ But the High Places were not removed. Nevertheless Asa's heart was perfect with Jehovah all his days. ¹⁵ And he brought in the things which his father had made holy, and the things which himself had made holy, into the House of Jehovah, silver, and gold, and vessels.

¹⁶ And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days. ¹⁷ And Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, that he might not suffer any to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah. ¹⁸ Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasures of the House of Jehovah, and the treasures of the king's house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants; and king Asa sent them to Ben-hadad [Ist], the son of Tabrimon, the son of Hezion, king of Syria, who dwelt at Damascus, saying, ¹⁹ 'There is a league between me and thee, and between my father and thy father; behold, I have sent to thee a present of silver and gold; come and break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me.' ²⁰ So Ben-hadad hearkened to king Asa, and sent the captains of the hosts which he had against the cities of Israel, and smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel near Beth-maachah, and all Chinneroth [or Gennesaret], with all the land of Naphtali. ²¹ And it came to pass, when Baasha heard thereof, that he left off building Ramah, and dwelt in Tirzah. ²² Then king Asa made a proclamation throughout all Judah; no one was exempted; and they took away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha had builded; and king Asa built with them Geba of Benjamin, and Mizpah.

²⁵ And NADAB the son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah [B.C. 916], and he reigned over Israel two years. ²⁶ And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin.

²⁷ And BAASHA the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him; and Baasha smote him at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines; for Nadab and all Israel laid siege to Gibbethon. ²⁸ Even in the third year of Asa king of Judah did Baasha slay him, and reigned in his stead. ²⁹ And it came to pass when he reigned, that he smote all the house of Jeroboam. He left not to Jeroboam any that breathed, until he had destroyed him, according to the saying of Jehovah, which he spake by the hand of his servant Ahijah the Shilonite; ³⁰ because of the sins of Jeroboam which he sinned, and which he made Israel to sin, by his provocation wherewith he provoked Jehovah the God of Israel to anger. ³¹ Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

³² And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days. ³³ In the third year of Asa king of Judah [B.C. 915] began Baasha the son of Ahijah to reign over all Israel in Tirzah for twenty and four years. ³⁴ And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah, and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin.

¹⁶ Then the word of Jehovah came to Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha, saying, ² 'Forasmuch as I raised thee out of the dust, and made thee prince over my people Israel; and thou hast walked in the way of Jeroboam, and hast made my people Israel to sin, to provoke me to anger with their sins; ³ behold, I will take away the posterity of Baasha, and the posterity of his house; and will make thy house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat. ⁴ Him of Baasha that dieth in the city shall the dogs eat; and him of his that dieth in the fields shall the fowls of the air eat.'

⁸ In the twenty and sixth year of Asa king of Judah [B.C. 892] began ELAH the son of Baasha to reign over Israel in Tirzah for two years. ⁹ And his servant Zimri, captain of half his chariots, conspired against him, as he was in Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, who was over his house in Tirzah. ¹⁰ And Zimri went in and smote him, and killed him in the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah [B.C. 891], and he reigned in his stead. ¹¹ And it came to pass when he began to reign, as soon as he sat on his throne, that he slew all the house of Baasha; he left him not a man or boy, neither of his kinsfolks, nor of his friends. ¹² Thus did Zimri destroy all the house of Baasha, according to the word of Jehovah, which he spake against Baasha by the hand of Jehu the prophet, ¹³ for all the sins of Baasha, and the sins of Elah his son, which they sinned, and by which they made Israel to sin, in provoking Jehovah the God of Israel to anger with their vanities. ¹⁴ Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

¹⁵ In the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah [B.C. 891] did ZIMRI reign for seven days in Tirzah. And the people were encamped against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines. ¹⁶ And the people that were encamped heard say, Zimri hath conspired, and hath also slain the king; wherefore all Israel made Omri, the captain of the host, king over Israel that day in the camp. ¹⁷ And Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah. And it came to pass, when Zimri saw that the city was taken, that he went into the strong tower of the king's house, and he burnt over himself the king's house with fire, and he died ¹⁸ for his sins which he had sinned in doing evil in the eyes of Jehovah, in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he did, in making Israel to sin. ¹⁹ Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his conspiracy that he made, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

²¹ Then were the people of Israel divided into two parts [B.C. 891]. Half of the people followed TIBNI the son of Ginath, to make him king; and half followed OMRI. ²² But the people that followed Omri prevailed against the people that followed Tibni the son of Ginath; and when Tibni died, then Omri reigned [alone], ²³ in the thirty and first year of Asa king of Judah [B.C. 887].

OMRI reigned over Israel twelve years; six years he reigned in Tirzah, ²⁴ and then he bought the hill Samaria from Shemer for two Kikars [or hundred weights] of silver; and he built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built, after the name of Shemer, owner of the hill, Samaria. ²⁵ But Omri wrought evil in the eyes of Jehovah, and did worse than all that were before him. ²⁶ For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin, to provoke Jehovah the God of Israel to anger with their vanities. ²⁷ Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and his might that he shewed, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel? ²⁸ So Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria; and Ahab his son reigned in his stead.

²⁹ And in the thirty and eighth year of Asa king of Judah [B.C. 880] began AHAB the son of Omri to reign over Israel; and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty and two years. ³⁰ And Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the eyes of Jehovah above all that were before him. ³¹ And it came to pass, as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he took to wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonians, and went and served Baal, and worshipped him. ³² And he reared up an altar for Baal in the house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria. ³³ And Ahab made an image of Ashera; and Ahab did more to provoke Jehovah the God of Israel to anger than all the kings of Israel that were before him.

17 And ELIJAH the Tishbite, who was of the inhabitants of Gilead, said to Ahab, 'As Jehovah the God of Israel liveth, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word.' ² And the word of Jehovah came to him, saying, ³ 'Get thee hence, and turn thee eastward, and hide thyself in the valley of the Cherith, that is before [or on the east side of] the Jordan. ⁴ And it shall be, that thou shalt drink of the brook; and I have commanded the ravens to feed thee there.' ⁵ So he went and did according to the word of Jehovah; for he went and dwelt in the valley of the Cherith, that is before the Jordan. ⁶ And the ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening; and he drank of the brook. ⁷ And it came to pass at last, that the brook dried up, because there had been no heavy rain in the land.

⁸ And the word of Jehovah came to him, saying, ⁹ 'Arise, get thee to Zarephath [or Sarepta], which belongeth to Sidon, and dwell there; behold, I have commanded a widow woman there to feed

'thee.' ¹⁰ So he arose and went to Zarephath. And when he came to the entrance of the city, behold, a widow woman was there gathering sticks. And he called to her and said, 'Fetch me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessel, that I may drink.' ¹¹ And as she was going to fetch it, he called to her, and said, 'Bring me, I pray thee, a morsel of bread 'in thy hand.' ¹² And she said, 'As Jehovah thy God liveth, I have not a cake, but a handful of meal in a pitcher, and a little oil in a cruse; and behold, I am gathering two sticks, that I may go in and dress it for me and my son, that we may eat 'it and die.' ¹³ And Elijah said to her, 'Fear not; go and do as thou hast said; but make me thereof a little cake first, and bring it out to me, and afterwards make for thee and for thy son.' ¹⁴ For thus saith Jehovah the God of Israel, The pitcher of meal shall not be finished, neither shall the cruse of oil fail, until the day that Jehovah sendeth heavy rain upon the face of the earth.' ¹⁵ And she went and did according to the saying of Elijah; and she, and he, and her house, did eat for many days. ¹⁶ And the pitcher of meal was not finished, neither did the cruse of oil fail, according to the word of Jehovah, which he spake by the hand of Elijah.

¹⁷ And it came to pass after these things, that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick; and his sickness was so sore, that there was no breath left in him. ¹⁸ And she said to Elijah, 'What have I to do with thee, O thou man of God? Art thou come to me to call my sins to remembrance, and to slay my son?' ¹⁹ And he said to her, 'Give me thy son.' And he took him out of her bosom, and carried him up into the upper chamber, where he abode, and laid him upon his own bed. ²⁰ And he cried to Jehovah, and said, 'O Jehovah, my God, hast thou also brought evil upon the widow with whom I sojourn, to slay her son?' ²¹ And he stretched himself upon the child three times, and cried to Jehovah, and said, 'O Jehovah my God, I pray thee, let this child's soul return again into his body.' ²² And Jehovah hearkened to the voice of Elijah; and the soul of the child returned into his body again, and he lived. ²³ And Elijah took the child, and brought him down out of the upper chamber into the house, and delivered him to his mother. And Elijah said, 'See, thy son liveth.' ²⁴ And the woman said to Elijah, 'Now by this I know that thou art a man of God, and that the word of Jehovah in thy mouth is truth.'

¹⁸ And it came to pass after many days, that the word of Jehovah came to Elijah in the third year, saying, 'Go, shew thyself to Ahab; and I will send rain upon the face of the earth.' ² And Elijah went to shew himself to Ahab. And the famine was sore in Samaria. ³ And Ahab called Obadiah, who was over his house. (Now Obadiah feared Jehovah greatly; ⁴ for it was so, when Jezebel cut off the prophets of Jehovah, that Obadiah took a hundred prophets, and hid them by fifties in a cave, and fed them with bread and water.) ⁵ And Ahab said to Obadiah, 'Go into the land, to all wells of water, and to all brooks; peradventure we may find grass to save the horses and mules alive, that we lose not all the beasts.' ⁶ So they divided the land between them to pass throughout it. Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself.

⁷ And as Obadiah was on the way, behold Elijah met him. And he knew him; and he fell on his face, and said, 'Art thou then my lord Elijah?' ⁸ And he answered him, 'I am; go, tell thy lord, Elijah is here.' ⁹ And he said, 'In what have I sinned, that thou wouldest deliver thy servant into the hand of Ahab, to slay me?' ¹⁰ As Jehovah thy God liveth, there is no nation or kingdom, whither my lord hath not sent to seek thee. And when they said, He is not here; he made the kingdom and nation to swear, that they had not found thee. ¹¹ And now thou sayest, 'Go, tell thy lord, Elijah is here.' ¹² And it will come to pass, as soon as I am gone from thee, that the spirit of Jehovah will carry thee whither I know not; and so when I come and tell Ahab, and he cannot find thee, he will slay me. But I thy servant fear Jehovah from my youth. ¹³ Was it not told my lord what I did when Jezebel slew the prophets of Jehovah, how I hid a hundred men of Jehovah's prophets by fifties in a cave, and fed them with bread and water?' ¹⁴ And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Elijah is here; and he will slay me.' ¹⁵ And Elijah said, 'As Jehovah of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, I will surely shew myself to him to-day.' ¹⁶ So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him. And Ahab went to meet Elijah.

¹⁷ And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said to him, 'Art thou he that troubleth Israel?' ¹⁸ And he answered, 'I have not troubled Israel; but thou, and thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of Jehovah, and thou hast followed Baal. ¹⁹ Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel unto mount Carmel, and the prophets of Baal four hundred and fifty, and the prophets of the images of Ashera four hundred, who eat at Jezebel's table.' ²⁰ So Ahab sent among all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together to mount Carmel. ²¹ And Elijah drew nigh unto all the people, and said, 'How long halt ye between two opinions? If Jehovah be God, follow him; but if Baal, then follow him.' And the people answered him not a word. ²² Then said Elijah to the people, 'I, one only, remain a prophet of Jehovah; but Baal's prophets are four hundred and fifty men. ²³ Let them therefore give us two bullocks. And let them choose one bullock for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on wood, and put no fire to it. And I will dress the other bullock, and lay it on wood, and put no fire to it. ²⁴ And call ye on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of Jehovah. And the God that answereth

'by fire, let him be 'God.' And all the people answered and said, 'It is well spoken.'

²⁵ And Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, 'Choose ye one bullock for yourselves, and dress it 'first; for ye are many; and call on the name of 'your gods, but put no fire to it.'²⁶ And they took the bullock which was given them, and they dressed it, and called on the name of Baal from morning even unto noon, saying, 'O Baal, answer 'us.' But there was no voice, nor any that answered. And they limped about upon the altar which was made.²⁷ And it came to pass at noon, that Elijah mocked at them, and said, 'Cry with 'a loud voice, for he is a god. Either he is think- 'ing, or he hath stepped aside, or he is on a jour- 'ney; or peradventure he sleepeth, and must be 'awaked.'²⁸ And they cried with a loud voice, and cut themselves after their manner with swords and spears, till the blood gushed out upon them.²⁹ And it came to pass, when mid-day was past, and they prophesied until the time of offering up the meal offering, that there was neither voice, nor any to answer, nor any that regarded.³⁰ And Elijah said to all the people, 'Come near to me.' And all the people came near to him, and he re- paired the altar of Jehovah that was broken down.³¹ And Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, (unto whom the word of Jehovah had come, saying, Israel shall be thy name),³² and with the stones he built the altar in the name of Jehovah. And he made a trench about the altar, as great as would contain two Seahs [or half a bushel] of seed.³³ And he put the wood in order, and cut the bullock in pieces, and laid it on the wood, and said, 'Fill four 'pitchers with water, and pour it on the burnt 'offering, and on the wood.'³⁴ And he said, 'Do 'it the second time.' And they did it the second time. And he said, 'Do it the third time.' And they did it the third time.³⁵ And the water ran round about the altar; and the trench also was filled with water.³⁶ And it came to pass at the time of offering up the meal offering, that Elijah the prophet came near, and said, 'O Jehovah, God 'of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Israel, let it be 'known this day that thou art God in Israel, and 'that I am thy servant, and that I have done all 'these things at thy word.'³⁷ Answer me, O Je- 'hovah, answer me, that this people may know 'that thou Jehovah art God, and do thou turn 'their heart back again.'³⁸ Then the fire of Jehovah fell, and consumed the burnt offering, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench.³⁹ And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces. And they said, 'Jehovah, he is God; Jehovah, he 'is God.'⁴⁰ And Elijah said to them, 'Seize the 'prophets of Baal; let not a man of them escape.' And they seized them. And Elijah brought them down to the valley of the Kishon, and slew them there.

⁴¹ And Elijah said to Ahab, 'Get thee up, eat

'and drink; for there is a sound of the noise of 'heavy rain.'⁴² So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. And Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and he cast himself down upon the earth, and put his face between his knees,⁴³ and said to his servant, 'Go up now, look toward the sea.' And he went up, and looked, and said, 'There is nothing what- 'ever.' And he said, 'Go again, seven times.'⁴⁴ And it came to pass at the seventh time, that he said, 'Behold, there ariseth a little cloud out of 'the sea, like a man's hand.' And he said, 'Go 'up, say to Ahab, Harness thy chariot, and get 'thee down, that the heavy rain stop thee now.'⁴⁵ And it came to pass in the mean while, that the heavens were black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab rode, and went to Jezreel.⁴⁶ And the hand of Jehovah was on Elijah; and he girded up his loins, and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

¹⁹ And Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and withal how he had slain all the prophets with the sword.² Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, 'So let the gods do to me, and 'more also, if I make not thy life as the life of one 'of them by to-morrow about this time.'³ And he was afraid, and he arose, and went for his life, and came to Beer-sheba, which belongeth to Judah, and left his servant there.⁴ But he himself went a day's journey into the desert, and came and sat down under a broom tree. And he asked for him- self that he might die; and he said, 'It is enough. 'Now, O Jehovah, take away my life; for I am 'not better than my fathers.'⁵ And as he lay and slept under the broom tree, behold, then an angel touched him, and said to him, 'Arise and eat.'⁶ And he looked, and behold, a cake baked on the hearth and a cruse of water at his head-rest. And he did eat and drink, and laid himself down again.⁷ And the angel of Jehovah came again the second time, and touched him, and said, 'Arise and eat; 'because the journey is too great for thee.'⁸ And he arose, and did eat and drink, and went on the strength of that food forty days and forty nights unto the mount of God in Horeb.

⁹ And he came thither to a cave, and lodged there. And behold, the word of Jehovah came to him, and said to him, 'What doest thou here, 'Elijah?'¹⁰ And he said, 'I have been very 'jealous for Jehovah the God of hosts. For the 'children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, 'thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets 'with the sword; and I only am left; and they 'seek my life, to take it away.'¹¹ And he said, 'Go forth, and stand upon the mount before Jeho- 'vah.' And behold, Jehovah passed by; and a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and brake in pieces the rocks before Jehovah; but Je- hovah was not in the wind. And after the wind there was an earthquake; but Jehovah was not in the earthquake.¹² And after the earthquake there was a fire; but Jehovah was not in the fire. And after the fire there was a still small voice.¹³ And it was so, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his face in his mantle, and went out, and stood in the entering in of the cave.

And behold, the voice came to him, and said, 'What doest thou here, Elijah?' ¹⁴ And he said, 'I have been very jealous for Jehovah the God of hosts. For the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and I only am left; and they seek my life to take it away.' ¹⁵ And Jehovah said to him, 'Go, return on thy way to the desert of Damascus; and when thou comest, anoint Hazael to be king over Syria.' ¹⁶ And Jehu the [grand] son of Nimshi shalt thou anoint to be king over Israel; and Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah shalt thou anoint to be prophet in thy room. ¹⁷ And it shall come to pass, that him that escapeth the sword of Hazael shall Jehu slay; and him that escapeth from the sword of Jehu shall Elisha slay. ¹⁸ Yet I have left me seven thousand in Israel, all whose knees have not bowed to Baal, and all whose mouth hath not kissed him.'

¹⁹ So he departed thence, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who was plowing; twelve yoke of oxen were before him, and he with the twelfth. And Elijah passed over to him, and cast his mantle upon him. ²⁰ And he left the oxen, and ran after Elijah, and said, 'Let me, I pray thee, kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow thee.' And he said to him, 'Go, return; for what have I done to thee?' ²¹ And he returned back from him, and took a yoke of oxen, and slew them, and boiled their flesh in the vessels of the oxen, and gave to the people, and they did eat. Then he arose, and went after Elijah, and ministered unto him.

20 And Ben-hadad [the IInd], the king of Syria, gathered all his host together. And there were thirty and two kings with him, and horses, and chariots. And he went up and besieged Samaria, and warred against it. ² And he sent messengers to Ahab king of Israel into the city, and said to him, 'Thus saith Ben-hadad, ³ Thy silver and thy gold are mine; thy wives also and thy children, even the goodliest, are mine.' ⁴ And the king of Israel answered and said, 'My lord, O king, according to thy saying, I am thine, and all that I have.' ⁵ And the messengers came again, and said, 'Thus speaketh Ben-hadad, saying, ⁶ As I sent to thee, saying, Thou shalt deliver to me thy silver, and thy gold, and thy wives, and thy children; ⁷ so I will send my servants to thee to-morrow about this time, and they shall search thy house, and the houses of thy servants; and it shall be, that all that is pleasant in thine eyes, they shall put it in their hand, and take it away.'

⁷ Then the king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and said, 'Mark, I pray you, and see how this man seeketh mischief. For he sent to me for my wives, and for my children, and for my silver, and for my gold; and I denied him not.' ⁸ And all the elders and all the people said to him, 'Hearken not to him, nor consent.' ⁹ Therefore he said to the messengers of Ben-hadad, 'Tell my lord the king, All that thou didst send for to thy servant at the first I will do; but this thing I may not do.' And the messengers departed; and brought him word again. ¹⁰ And Ben-hadad sent to him, and said, 'May the gods do so to me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people that follow me.' ¹¹ And the king of Israel answered and said, 'Tell him, ¹² Let not him that girdeth on [his sword] boast himself as he that putteth it off.' ¹² And it came to pass, when [Ben-hadad] heard this message, as he was drinking, he and the kings in the pavilion, that he said to his servants, 'Set yourselves in array.' And they set themselves in array against the city.

¹³ And behold, there came a prophet to Ahab king of Israel, saying, 'Thus saith Jehovah, Hast thou seen all this great multitude? Behold, I will deliver it into thy hand this day; and thou shalt know that I am Jehovah.' ¹⁴ And Ahab said, 'By means of whom?' And he said, 'Thus saith Jehovah, Even by the young men of the princes of the provinces.' Then he said, 'Who shall begin the battle?' And he answered, 'Thou.' ¹⁵ Then he mustered the young men of the princes of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty-two. And after them he mustered all the people, even all the children of Israel, being seven thousand. ¹⁶ And they went out at noon. But Ben-hadad was drinking himself drunk in the pavilion, he and the kings, the thirty and two kings that helped him. ¹⁷ And the young men of the princes of the provinces went out first. And Ben-hadad sent out; and they told him, saying, 'There are men come out of Samaria.' ¹⁸ And he said, 'Whether they be come out for peace, take them alive; or whether they be come out for war, take them alive.' ¹⁹ So these young men of the princes of the provinces came out of the city, also the army which followed them. ²⁰ And they slew every one his man. And the Syrians fled; and Israel pursued them. And Ben-hadad the king of Syria escaped on a horse with the horsemen. ²¹ And the king of Israel went out, and smote the horses and chariots, and slew the Syrians with a great slaughter.

²³ And the servants of the king of Syria said to him, 'Their gods are gods of the hills; therefore they were stronger than we; but if we fight against them on level ground, shall we not be stronger than they?' ²⁴ And do this thing. Take the kings away, every man out of his place, and put Pachas [or governors] in their room. ²⁵ And prepare for thyself an army, like the army that fell away from thee, horse for horse, and chariot

'for chariot. And we will fight against them on level ground, and shall we not be stronger than they?' And he hearkened to their voice, and did so.

²⁶ And it came to pass at the return of the year, that Ben-hadad mustered the Syrians, and went up to Aphek, to fight against Israel. ²⁷ And the children of Israel were mustered, and were victualled, and went against them. And the children of Israel pitched before them like two little flocks of kids; but the Syrians filled the country. ²⁸ And there came a man of God, and spake to the king of Israel, and said, 'Thus saith Jehovah, Because the Syrians have said, Jehovah is God of the hills, but he is not God of the valleys, therefore will I deliver all this great multitude into thy hand, and ye shall know that I am Jehovah.' ²⁹ And they encamped one opposite the other for seven days. And so it was, that on the seventh day the battle was joined. And the children of Israel slew of the Syrians a hundred thousand men on foot in one day. ³⁰ But the rest fled to Aphek into the city; and the wall fell upon twenty and seven thousand of the men that were left.

And Ben-hadad fled, and came into the city, into an inner chamber. ³¹ And his servants said to him, 'Behold now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings. Let us, I pray thee, put sackcloth on our loins, and ropes round our heads, and go out to the king of Israel; peradventure he will save thy life.' ³² So they girded sackcloth on their loins, and put ropes round their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and said, 'Thy servant Ben-hadad saith, I pray thee, let me live. And he said, 'Is he yet alive? He is my brother.' ³³ Now the men did watch for an omen, and did hasten to learn for certain whether it was of him. And they said, 'Thy brother Ben-hadad.' Then he said, 'Go ye, bring him.' Then Ben-hadad came forth to him; and he caused him to come up into the chariot. ³⁴ And [Ben-hadad] said to him, 'The cities, which my father took from thy father, I will restore; and thou shalt make highways for thee into Damascus, as my father made into Samaria.' Then [said Ahab], 'I will send thee away with this covenant.' So he made a covenant with him, and sent him away.

³⁵ And a certain man of the sons of the prophets said to his neighbour by the word of Jehovah, 'Smite me, I pray thee.' And the man refused to smite him. ³⁶ Then said he to him, 'Because thou hast not obeyed the voice of Jehovah, behold, as soon as thou art departed from me, a lion shall slay thee.' And as soon as he was departed from near him, a lion found him, and slew him. ³⁷ Then he found another man, and said, 'Smite me, I pray thee.' And the man smote him, so that in smiting he wounded him. ³⁸ So the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, and disguised himself with a covering upon his eyes. ³⁹ And as the king passed by, he cried to the king, and he said, 'Thy servant went out into the midst of the battle; and behold, a man turned aside, and brought a man unto me, and said, Keep this man. If by any means he be missing, then shall thy life be for his life, or else thou shalt pay a Kikar [or hundred-weight] of silver. ⁴⁰ And as thy servant was busy here and there, he was gone.' And the king of Israel said to him, 'So shall thy judgment be; thyself hast decided it.' ⁴¹ And he hastened, and took the covering away from his eyes; and the king of Israel discerned him that he was one of the prophets. ⁴² And [the prophet] said to him, 'Thus saith Jehovah, Because thou hast let go out of thy hand a man whom I had appointed to utter destruction, therefore thy life shall go for his life, and thy people for his people.' ⁴³ And the king of Israel went to his house heavy and troubled, and came to Samaria.

²¹ And it came to pass after these things, that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard, which was in Jezreel, hard by the palace of Ahab king of Samaria. ² And Ahab spake to Naboth, saying, 'Give me thy vineyard, that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it is near to my house; and I will give thee for it a better vineyard than it; or, if it seem good to thee, I will give thee the worth of it in silver.' ³ And Naboth said to Ahab, 'It were wrong in me before Jehovah, that I should give the inheritance of my fathers to thee.' ⁴ And Ahab came into his house heavy and troubled because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him; for he had said, 'I will not give thee the inheritance of my fathers.' And he laid him down upon his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no bread.

⁵ But Jezebel his wife came to him, and said to him, 'Why is thy spirit so sad, that thou eatest no bread?' ⁶ And he said to her, 'Because I spake to Naboth the Jezreelite, and said to him, Give me thy vineyard for money; or else, if it please thee, I will give thee another vineyard for it.' And he answered, 'I will not give thee my vineyard.' ⁷ And Jezebel his wife said to him, 'Dost thou now govern the kingdom of Israel? Arise, and eat bread, and let thy heart be merry; I will give thee the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.' ⁸ So she wrote letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters to the elders and to the nobles that were in his city, dwelling with Naboth. ⁹ And she wrote in the letters, saying, 'Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people.' ¹⁰ And set two men, sons of Belial, before him, to bear witness against him, saying, 'Thou didst bless [or curse] God and the king.' And then put him forth, and stone him, that he may die. ¹¹ And the men of his city, even the elders and the nobles who were the inhabitants in his city, did as Jezebel had sent to them, and as it was written in the letters which she had sent to them. ¹² They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people. ¹³ And there came in two men, sons of Belial, and sat before him. And the men of Belial witnessed against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, 'Naboth did bless [or curse] God and the king.' Then they carried him forth out of the city, and stoned him with stones, that he died. ¹⁴ Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, 'Naboth is stoned, and is dead.'

¹⁵ And it came to pass, when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned, and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, 'Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give thee for money; for Naboth is not alive but dead.' ¹⁶ And it came to pass, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

¹⁷ And the word of Jehovah came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, ¹⁸ 'Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, who is in Samaria. Behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, whither he is gone down to possess it. ¹⁹ And thou shalt speak to him, saying, Thus saith Jehovah, Hast thou murdered, and also taken possession? And thou shalt speak to him, saying, Thus saith Jehovah, In the place where the dogs licked the blood of Naboth shall the dogs lick thy blood, even thine.' ²⁰ And Ahab said to Elijah, 'Hast thou found me, O mine enemy?' And he answered, 'I have found thee. Because thou hast sold thyself to work evil in the sight of Jehovah, ²¹ behold, I will bring evil upon thee, and will take away thy posterity, and will cut off from Ahab every man and boy, whether bondsman or free in Israel, ²² and I will make thy house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah, for the provocation wherewith thou hast provoked me to anger, and made Israel to sin.' ²³ And of Jezebel also spake Jehovah, saying, 'The dogs shall eat Jezebel at the rampart of Jezreel. ²⁴ Him of Ahab that dieth in the city the dogs shall eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat.' (²⁵ But there was none like Ahab, who did sell himself to work wickedness in the sight of Jehovah, whom Jezebel his wife stirred up. ²⁶ And he did very abominably in following filthy idols, according to all that the Amorites did, whom Jehovah had cast out before the children of Israel.) ²⁷ And it came to pass, when Ahab heard those words, that he rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and walked slowly.

²⁸ And the word of Jehovah came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, 'Seest thou how Ahab humbleth himself before me? Because he humbleth himself before me, I will not bring the evil in his days; but in his son's days will I bring the evil upon his house.'

²² AND THEY CONTINUED THREE years without war between Syria and Israel. ² And it came to pass in the third year, that Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to [Ahab] the king of Israel. ³ And the king of Israel said to his servants, 'Know ye that Ramoth in Gilead is ours, and are we still, and take it not out of the hand of the 'king of Syria?' ⁴ And he said to Jehoshaphat, 'Wilt thou go with me to battle to Ramoth in Gilead?' And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, 'I am as thou art, my people as thy people, my horses as thy horses.' ⁵ And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, 'Inquire, I pray thee, at the word of Jehovah to-day.'

⁶ Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said to them, 'Shall I go against Ramoth in Gilead to battle, or shall I forbear?' And they said, 'Go up; for the Lord will deliver it into the hand of the king.' ⁷ And Jehoshaphat said, 'Is there not here a prophet of Jehovah besides, that we might inquire of him?' ⁸ And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, 'There is yet one man, by whom we may inquire of Jehovah. But I hate him; for he doth not prophesy good concerning me, but evil. He is Micaiah the son of Imlah.' And Jehoshaphat said, 'Let not the king say so.' ⁹ Then the king of Israel called a chamberlain, and said, 'Hasten hither Micaiah the son of Imlah.'

¹³ And the messenger that was gone to call Micaiah spake to him, saying, 'Behold now, the words of the prophets speak good to the king with one mouth. Let thy word, I pray thee, be like the word of one of them, and speak thou good.' ¹⁴ And Micaiah said, 'As Jehovah liveth, what Jehovah saith to me that will I speak.'

¹⁵ So he came to the king. And the king said to him, 'Micaiah, shall we go against Ramoth in Gilead to battle, or shall we forbear?' And he answered him, 'Go, and prosper; for Jehovah will deliver it into the hand of the king.' ¹⁶ And the king said to him, 'How many times shall I adjure thee that thou tell me nothing but what is true in the name of Jehovah?' ¹⁷ And he said, 'I saw all Israel scattered toward the hills, as sheep that have not a shepherd. And Jehovah said, These have no master; let them return every man to his house in peace.' ¹⁸ And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, 'Did I not tell thee that he would prophesy no good concerning me, but evil?' ¹⁹ And [Micaiah] said, 'Hear thou therefore the word of Jehovah. I saw Jehovah sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing by him on his right hand and on his left. ²⁰ And Jehovah said, Who will entice Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth in Gilead? And one said on this manner, and another said on that manner.' ²¹ And there came forth a Spirit, and

'stood before Jehovah, and said, I will entice him. ²² And Jehovah said to him, Wherewith? And he said, I will go forth, and I will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And he said, Thou shalt entice him, and prevail also; go forth, and do so. ²³ Now therefore, behold, Jehovah hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these thy prophets; and Jehovah hath spoken evil concerning thee.' ²⁴ But Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah went near, and smote Micaiah on the cheek, and said, 'Which way went the spirit of Jehovah from me to speak to thee?' ²⁵ And Micaiah said, 'Behold, thou shalt see in that day, when thou shalt go into an inner chamber to hide thyself.' ²⁶ And the king of Israel said, 'Take Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son; ²⁷ and say, Thus saith the king, Put this man in the prison, and feed him with the bread of affliction and with the water of affliction, until I come in safety.' ²⁸ And Micaiah said, 'If thou return at all in safety, Jehovah hath not spoken by me.' (Moreover he said [Mic. i. 1.], 'Hear, O ye peoples, every one of you.')

²⁹ So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth in Gilead. ³⁰ And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, that he would disguise himself and enter into the battle, 'But put thou on thy robes.' And the king of Israel disguised himself, and went into the battle. ³¹ And the king of Syria commanded his thirty and two captains of his chariots, saying, 'Fight neither with small nor great, save only with the king of Israel.' ³² And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, 'Surely it is the king of Israel.' And they turned aside to fight against him. And Jehoshaphat cried out. ³³ And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him.

³⁴ And a certain man drew a bow at a venture, and smote the king of Israel between the shoulder joints and the breastplate; wherefore he said to the driver of his chariot, 'Turn thy hand, and carry me out of the host; for I am wounded.' ³⁵ And the battle increased that day. And the king was propped up in his chariot in face of the Syrians, and died at evening; and the blood ran out of the wound into the hollow of the chariot. ³⁶ And there went a cry throughout the camp about the going down of the sun, saying, 'Every 'man to his city, and every man to his own country.' ³⁷ So the king died, and was brought to Samaria; and they buried the king in Samaria. ³⁸ And the chariot was washed in the pool of Samaria; and the dogs licked up his blood; and the harlots washed in it; according to the word of Jehovah which he spake.

³⁹ Now the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, and the ivory house which he built, and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel? ⁴⁰ So Ahab slept with his fathers; and Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead.

⁴¹ And JEHOSEPHAT the son of Asa began to reign over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel [B.C. 877]. ⁴² Jehoshaphat was thirty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. ⁴³ And he walked in all the ways of Asa his father; he turned not aside from it, doing what was right in the eyes of Jehovah. Nevertheless the High Places were not taken away; for the people sacrificed and burnt incense yet on the High Places. ⁴⁴ And Jehoshaphat remained at peace with the king of Israel.

⁴⁷ There was then no king in Edom; a [Jewish] officer reigned. ⁴⁸ Jehoshaphat made ships of Tarshish to go to Ophir for gold. But they went not; for the ships were wrecked at Ezion-geber. ⁴⁹ Then said Ahaziah the son of Ahab to Jehoshaphat, 'Let my servants go with thy servants in the ships.' But Jehoshaphat would not. ⁵⁰ And Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father [B.C. 853]; and Jehoram his son reigned in his stead.

⁵¹ AHAZIAH the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah [B.C. 861], and reigned two years over Israel. ⁵² And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin; ⁵³ for he served Baal, and worshipped him, and provoked to anger Jehovah the God of Israel, according to all that his father had done.

THE SECOND BOOK OF THE KINGS.

THEN Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab.

² And Ahaziah fell down through a lattice in his upper chamber that was in Samaria, and was sick. And he sent messengers, and said to them, 'Go, inquire of Baal-zebul the god of Ekron whether I shall recover of this sickness.' ³ But the angel of Jehovah said to Elijah the Tishbite,

'Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say to them, Is it because there is not a God in Israel, that ye go to inquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron?' ² Now therefore thus saith Jehovah, Thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die.' And Elijah departed.

⁵ And when the messengers returned to him [the king], he said to them, 'Why now are ye returned?' ⁶ And they said to him, 'There came a man up to meet us, and said to us, Go, turn again to the king who sent you, and say to him, Thus saith Jehovah, Is it because there is not a God in Israel, that thou sendest to inquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron? Therefore thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die.' ⁷ And he said to them, 'What manner of man was he that came up to meet you, and told you these words?' ⁸ And they answered him, 'He was a hairy man, and girt with a girdle of leather about his loins.' And he said, 'It is Elijah the Tishbite.'

⁹ Then [the king] sent to him a captain of fifty with his fifty. And he went up to him; and behold, he sat on the top of the mountain. And he spake to him, 'Thou man of God, the king hath said, Come down.' ¹⁰ And Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, 'If I be a man of God, then shall fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty.' And there came down fire from heaven, and it consumed him and his fifty.

¹¹ Again also he sent to him another captain of fifty with his fifty. And he answered and said to him, 'O man of God, thus hath the king said, Come down quickly.' ¹² And Elijah answered and said to them, 'If I be a man of God, fire shall come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty.' And the fire of God came down from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty.

¹³ And he sent again a captain of the third fifty with his fifty. And the third captain of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Elijah, and besought him, and said to him, 'O man of God, I pray thee, let my life, and the life of these fifty thy servants, be precious in thy sight.' ¹⁴ Behold there came fire down from heaven, and consumed the two captains of the former fifties with their fifties; therefore let my life now be precious in thy sight.' ¹⁵ And the angel of Jehovah said to Elijah, 'Go down with him; be not afraid of him.'

And he arose, and went down with him to the king. ¹⁶ And he said to him, 'Thus saith Jehovah, Forasmuch as thou hast sent messengers to inquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron, is it because there is no God in Israel to inquire of his word? Therefore thou shalt not come down off that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die.' ¹⁷ So he died according to the word of Jehovah which Elijah had spoken. And Jehoram [his brother] reigned in his stead, in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, because he had no son. ¹⁸ Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

² And it came to pass, when Jehovah would take up Elijah into heaven by a whirlwind, that Elijah went with Elisha from Gilgal. ² And Elijah said to Elisha, 'Tarry here, I pray thee; for Jehovah hath sent me to Beth-el.' And Elisha said, 'As Jehovah liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee.' So they went down to Beth-el. ³ And the sons of the prophets that were at Beth-el came forth to Elisha, and they said to him, 'Knowest thou that Jehovah will take up thy master above thy head to-day?' And he said, 'Yea, I know it. Hold ye your peace.' ⁴ And Elijah said to him, 'Elisha, tarry here, I pray thee; for Jehovah hath sent me to Jericho.' And he said, 'As Jehovah liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee.' So they came to Jericho.

⁵ And the sons of the prophets that were at Jericho came to Elisha, and said to him, 'Knowest thou that Jehovah will take up thy master above thy head to-day?' And he answered, 'Yea, I know it. Hold ye your peace.' ⁶ And Elijah said to him, 'Tarry, I pray thee, here; for Jehovah hath sent me to the Jordan.' And he said, 'As Jehovah liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee.' And they two went on.

⁷ And fifty men of the sons of the prophets went, and stood within sight afar off; and they two stood by the Jordan. ⁸ And Elijah took his mantle, and wrapped it together, and smote the waters, and they were divided hither and thither, so that they two went over on dry ground.

⁹ And it came to pass when they were gone over, that Elijah said to Elisha, 'Ask what I shall do for thee, before I be taken away from thee.' And Elisha said, 'I pray thee, let a double portion of thy spirit be upon me.' ¹⁰ And he said, 'Thou hast asked a hard thing. Nevertheless, if thou see me when I am taken from thee, it shall be so unto thee; but if not, it shall not be so.' ¹¹ And it came to pass, as they went on walking, and talked, that, behold, there came a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, and parted them both asunder. And Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven. ¹² And Elisha saw it, and he cried, 'My father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof.' And he saw him no more. And he took hold of his own clothes, and rent them in two pieces. ¹³ He took up also the mantle of Elijah that fell from him. And he went back, and stood by the bank of the Jordan; ¹⁴ and he took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, when he smote the waters, and said, 'Where is Jehovah the God of Elijah?' And he also smote the waters, and they were divided hither and thither; and Elisha went over.

¹⁵ And when the sons of the prophets who were within sight at Jericho saw him, they said, 'The spirit of Elijah doth rest on Elisha.' And they came to meet him, and bowed themselves to the ground before him. ¹⁶ And they said to him, 'Behold now, there be with thy servants fifty men, 'sons of strength; let them go, we pray thee, and seek thy master; lest peradventure the spirit of 'Jehovah hath taken him up, and cast him on some 'mountain, or into some valley.' And he said, 'Ye shall not send.' ¹⁷ And when they urged him till he was ashamed, he said, 'Send.' They sent therefore fifty men. And they sought for three days, but found him not. ¹⁸ And when they came again to him, (for he tarried at Jericho,) he said to them, 'Did I not say to you, Go not?'

¹⁹ And the men of the city said to Elisha, 'Behold, I pray thee, the situation of this city is 'pleasant, as my lord seeth; but the waters are 'bad, and the ground barren.' ²⁰ And he said, 'Bring me a new dish, and put salt therein.' And they brought it to him. ²¹ And he went forth unto the spring of the waters, and cast the salt in there, and said, 'Thus saith Jehovah, I have healed these 'waters; there shall not be from thence any more 'death or barrenness.' ²² So the waters were healed unto this day, according to the saying of Elisha which he spake.

²³ And he went up from thence to Beth-el. And as he was going up by the way, there came forth little children out of the city, and mocked him, and said to him, 'Go up, thou bald head; go up, thou 'bald head.' ²⁴ And he turned back, and looked on them, and cursed them in the name of Jehovah. And there came forth two she bears out of the forest, and tore in pieces forty and two children of them. ²⁵ And he went from thence to mount Carmel, and from thence he returned to Samaria.

3 NOW JEHOAM the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah [B.C. 860], and reigned twelve years. ² And he did evil in the eyes of Jehovah; only not like his father, or like his mother. For he put away the image of Baal that his father had made. ³ Nevertheless he cleaved to the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin; he departed not therefrom.

⁴ Now Mesha king of Moab was a sheep master, and rendered to the king of Israel a hundred thousand lambs, and the wool of a hundred thousand rams. ⁵ But it came to pass, when Ahab was dead, that the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel. ⁶ And king Jehoram went out of Samaria at the same time, and mustered all Israel. ⁷ And he went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, 'The king of Moab hath rebelled 'against me. Wilt thou go with me against the 'Moabites to battle?' And he said, 'I will go up; 'I am as thou art, my people as thy people, and my 'horses as thy horses.' ⁸ And he said, 'Which way 'shall we go up?' And he answered, 'The way 'through the desert of Edom.' ⁹ So the king of Israel went, and the king of Judah, and the king of Edom. And they went round about for a seven days' journey; and there was no water for the host, and for the cattle that followed them. ¹⁰ And the king of Israel said, 'Alas! that Jehovah hath 'called these three kings together, to deliver them 'into the hand of the Moabites!' ¹¹ But Jehoshaphat said, 'Is there not here a prophet of Jehovah, 'that we may inquire of Jehovah by him?' And one of the king of Israel's servants answered and said, 'Here is Elisha the son of Shaphat, who 'poured water on the hands of Elijah.' ¹² And Jehoshaphat said, 'The word of Jehovah is with 'him.' So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him. ¹³ And Elisha said to the king of Israel, 'What have I to 'do with thee? Get thee to the prophets of thy 'father, and to the prophets of thy mother.' And the king of Israel said to him, 'Nay; for Jehovah 'hath called these three kings together, to deliver 'them into the hand of the Moabites.' ¹⁴ And Elisha said, 'As Jehovah of hosts liveth, before 'whom I stand, surely, were it not that I regard 'the presence of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I 'would not look toward thee, nor see thee.' ¹⁵ But 'now bring me a minstrel.' And it came to pass, when the minstrel played, that the hand of Jehovah came upon him. ¹⁶ And he said, 'Thus saith 'Jehovah, Make this valley full of ditches.' ¹⁷ For 'thus saith Jehovah, Ye shall not see wind, neither 'shall ye see rain; yet that valley shall be filled 'with water, that ye may drink, both ye, and your 'cattle, and your beasts.' ¹⁸ And this is but a light 'thing in the eyes of Jehovah; he will also deliver 'the Moabites into your hand.' ¹⁹ And ye shall 'smite every fenced city, and every choice city, 'and shall fell every good tree, and stop all wells 'of water, and mar every good piece of land with 'stones.'

²⁰ And it came to pass in the morning, when the meal offering was offered up, that, behold, there came water by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water. ²¹ And when all the Moabites heard that the kings were come up to fight against them, they called together all that were able to wear a belt, and upward; and they stood at the boundary. ²² And they rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone upon the water, and the Moabites who were within sight saw the waters as red as blood. ²³ And they said, 'This is 'blood. The kings are surely slain, and they have 'smitten one another. Now therefore, Moabites, 'to the spoil.' ²⁴ And when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them. And they went forward there smiting the Moabites. ²⁵ And they beat down the cities, and on every good piece of land cast every man his stone, and filled it; and they stopped all the wells of water, and felled all the good trees; until in Kir-hareseth they left only the stones thereof. Howbeit the slingers went about it and smote it. ²⁶ And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was too sore for him, he took with him seven hundred men that drew swords, to break through unto the king of Edom; but they could not. ²⁷ But he took his [the king of Edom's] eldest son that should have reigned in his stead, and offered him up for a burnt offering upon the wall. And there came great indignation over Israel. And they departed from him, and returned to their own land.

4 NOW THERE CRIED a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets unto Elisha, saying, 'Thy servant my husband is dead; and thou knowest that thy servant did fear Jehovah. And the creditor is come to take unto him my two sons to be bond-servants.' 2 And Elisha said to her, 'What shall I do for thee? Tell me, what hast thou in the house?' And she said, 'Thy handmaid hath not anything in the house, save a pot of oil.' 3 Then he said, 'Go, borrow for thyself vessels abroad of all thy neighbours, even empty vessels. Let them not be few.' 4 And when thou art come in, thou shalt shut the door upon thee and upon thy sons, and shalt pour out into all those vessels, and thou shalt set aside that which is full.' 5 So she went from him, and shut the door upon her and upon her sons, who carried to her while she poured out. 6 And it came to pass when the vessels were full, that she said to her son, 'Bring me yet a vessel.' And he said to her, 'There is not a vessel more.' And the oil stayed. 7 Then she came and told the man of God. And he said, 'Go sell the oil, and pay thy debt, and live thou and thy children on the rest.'

8 AND IT FELL ON A DAY, that Elisha passed to Shunem, where was a great woman; and she constrained him to eat bread. And so it was, that as oft as he passed by, he turned in thither to eat bread. 9 And she said to her husband, 'Behold now, I perceive that this is a holy man of God, who passeth by us continually.' 10 Let us make a little chamber, I pray thee, on the wall; and let us set for him there a bed, and a table, and a chair, and a lamp-stand. And it may be, when he cometh to us, that he will turn in thither.' 11 And it fell on a day, that he came thither, and he turned into the chamber, and lay there. 12 And he said to Gehazi his servant, 'Call this Shunemite.' And when he had called her, she stood before him. 13 And he said to him, 'Say now to her, Behold, thou hast been over careful for us with all this care; what is to be done for thee? Wouldest thou be spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the host?' And she answered, 'I dwell among mine own people.' 14 And he said, 'What then is to be done for her?' And Gehazi answered, 'Verily she hath no child, and her husband is old.' 15 And he said, 'Call her.' And when he had called her, she stood in the doorway. 16 And he said, 'About the set season, according to the time of life, thou shalt embrace a son.' And she said, 'Nay, my lord, thou man of God, do not lie unto thy handmaid.' 17 And the woman conceived, and bare a son at the set season that Elisha had said unto her according to the time of life.

18 And when the child was grown, it fell on a day, that he went out to his father to the reapers. 19 And he said to his father, 'My head, my head.'

And he said to a lad, 'Carry him to his mother.' 20 And when he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees till noon, and then died. 21 And she went up, and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the door upon him, and went out. 22 And she called to her husband, and said, 'Send to me, I pray thee, one of the young men, and one of the asses, that I may run to the man of God, and come again.' 23 And he said, 'Wherefore wilt thou go to him to-day? It is neither new moon nor sabbath.' And she said, 'It shall be well.' 24 Then she saddled an ass, and said to her servant, 'Drive, and go forward; slack not thy riding for me, except I bid thee.' 25 So she went and came to the man of God at mount Carmel. And it came to pass, when the man of God saw her afar off, that he said to Gehazi his servant, 'Behold that is the Shunemite.' 26 Run, now, I pray thee, to meet her, and say to her, Is it well with thee? Is it well with thy husband? Is it well with the child?' And she answered, 'It is well.' 27 And when she came to the man of God to the mountain, she caught him by his feet. But Gehazi came near to thrust her away. And the man of God said, 'Let her alone; for her soul is vexed within her. And Jehovah hath hidden it from me, and hath not told me.' 28 Then she said, 'Did I ask a son of my lord? Did I not say, Do not deceive me?' 29 Then he said to Gehazi, 'Gird up thy loins, and take my staff in thy hand, and go thy way. If thou meet any man, salute him not; and if any salute thee, answer him not again. And lay my staff upon the face of the child.' 30 And the mother of the child said, 'As Jehovah liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee.' And he arose and followed her. 31 And Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staff upon the face of the child; but there was neither voice nor attention. Therefore he returned to meet him, and told him, saying, 'The child is not awaked.' 32 And when Elisha was come into the house, behold, the child was dead, and laid upon his bed. 33 He went in therefore, and shut the door upon them twain, and prayed to Jehovah. 34 And he went up, and lay upon the child, and put his mouth upon his mouth, and his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands. And he stretched himself upon him; and the flesh of the child waxed warm. 35 Then he returned, and walked in the house to and fro; and went up, and stretched himself upon him; and the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes. 36 And he called Gehazi, and said, 'Call this Shunemite.' So he called her. And when she was come in unto him, he said, 'Take up thy son.' 37 Then she went in, and fell at his feet, and bowed herself to the ground, and took up her son and went out.

38 AND ELISHA CAME again to Gilgal; and there was a famine in the land; and the sons of the prophets were sitting before him. And he said to his servant, 'Set on the great pot, and boil pottage for the sons of the prophets.' 39 And one went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine, and gathered thereof wild gourds his lap full; and he came and cut them up into the pot of pottage. For they knew them not. ⁴⁰ So they poured out for the men to eat. And it came to pass, as they were eating of the pottage, that they cried out, and said, 'O thou man of God, there is death in the pot.' And they could not eat thereof. ⁴¹ But he said, 'Then bring meal.' And he cast it into the pot; and he said, 'Pour out for the people, that they may eat.' And there was nothing evil in the pot.

⁴² And there came a man from Baal-shalisha, and brought to the man of God bread of the first fruits, twenty loaves of barley and ripe ears of corn in his bag. And he said, 'Give to the people that they may eat.' ⁴³ And his serving man said, 'What? Should I set this before a hundred men?' He said again, 'Give to the people, that they may eat; for thus saith Jehovah, They shall eat, and shall have to spare.' ⁴⁴ So he set it before them, and they did eat, and had to spare according to the word of Jehovah.

5 NOW NAAMAN, captain of the host of the king of Syria, was a great man with his lord, and honourable, because by him Jehovah had given deliverance to Syria. But this warrior of valour was a leper. ² And the Syrians had gone out in troops, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little maid; and she waited on Naaman's wife. ³ And she said to her mistress, 'I wish that my master were with the prophet that is in Samaria; for he would recover him of his leprosy.' ⁴ And [Naaman] went in and told his lord, saying, 'Thus and thus said the maid that is of the land of Israel.' ⁵ And the king of Syria said, 'Go to, go, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel.' And he departed, and took with him ten Kikars [or hundred weights] of silver, and six thousand pieces of gold, and ten changes of raiment. ⁶ And he brought to the king of Israel the letter, which said, 'Now when this letter is come to thee, behold, I have herewith sent Naaman my servant to thee, that thou mayest recover him of his leprosy.' ⁷ And it came to pass when the king of Israel had read the letter that he rent his clothes and said, 'Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this one doth send to me to recover a man of his leprosy? Therefore consider, I pray you, and see how he seeketh a quarrel against me.'

⁸ And it was so, when Elisha the man of God had heard that the king of Israel had rent his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying, 'Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? Let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel.' ⁹ So Naaman came with his horses and with his chariot, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha. ¹⁰ And Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, 'Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and thy flesh shall come again to thee, and thou shalt be clean.' ¹¹ But Naaman was wroth, and went away, and said, 'Behold, I said to myself, He will surely come out, and stand, and call on the name of Jehovah his God, and wave his hand over the place and recover the leper.' ¹² Are not Ammana and Pharpar, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? May I not wash in them, and be clean?' So he turned and went away in a rage. ¹³ And his servants came near, and spake to him, and said, 'My father, if the prophet had bid thee do some great thing, wouldest thou not have done it? How much rather then, when he saith to thee, Wash, and be clean?' ¹⁴ Then went he down, and dipped himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God; and his flesh came again like unto the flesh of a little child, and he was clean.

¹⁵ And he returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and came and stood before him. And he said, 'Behold, now I know that there is no God in all the earth, but in Israel. Now, therefore, I pray thee, take a blessing [or present] from thy servant.' ¹⁶ But he said, 'As Jehovah liveth, before whom I stand, I will receive none.' And he urged him to take it; but he refused. ¹⁷ And Naaman said, 'Shall there not then, I pray thee, be given to thy servant two mules' burden of earth? For thy servant will henceforth offer neither burnt-offering nor sacrifice unto other gods, but unto Jehovah.' ¹⁸ In this thing may Jehovah pardon thy servant, that when my lord goeth into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and he leameth on my hand, I also bow myself in the house of Rimmon. When I bow down myself in the house of Rimmon, may Jehovah pardon thy servant in this thing.' ¹⁹ And he said to him, 'Go in peace.' So he departed from him a little way.

²⁰ But Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, 'Behold, my master hath spared Naaman this Syrian, in not receiving at his hands that which he brought. But as Jehovah liveth, I will run after him, and take somewhat from him.' ²¹ So Gehazi followed after Naaman. And when Naaman saw him running after him, he lighted down from the chariot to meet him, and said, 'Is all well?' ²² And he said, 'All is well. My master hath sent me, saying, Behold, even now there are come to me from the hill country of Ephraim two young men of the sons of the prophets; give them, I pray thee, a Kikar of silver, and two changes of garments.' ²³ And Naaman said, 'Be pleased to take two Kikars.' And he pressed him, and bound two Kikars of silver in two bags, with two changes of garments, and laid them upon two of his servants; and they bare them before him. ²⁴ And when he came to the mount, he took them from their hand, and bestowed them in the house. And he sent away the men; and they departed. ²⁵ But he went in, and stood before his master. And Elisha said to him, 'Whence comest thou, Gehazi?' And he said,

'Thy servant went no whither.' ²⁶ And he said to him, 'My mind was not absent when the man turned again from his chariot to meet thee. Is it a time to receive silver, and to receive garments, and oliveyards, and vineyards, and sheep, and oxen, and men-servants, and maid-servants?' ²⁷ The leprosy therefore of Naaman shall cleave to thee, and to thy seed for ever.' And he went out from his presence a leper as white as snow.

⁶ AND THE SONS OF THE PROPHETS said to Elisha, 'Behold now, the place where we dwell with thee is too small for us. ² Let us go, we pray thee, to the Jordan, and take thence every man a beam, and let us make for ourselves a place there, where we may dwell.' And he answered, 'Go ye.' ³ And one said, 'Be pleased, I pray thee, to go with thy servants.' And he answered, 'I will go.' ⁴ So he went with them. And when they came to the Jordan, they cut down wood. ⁵ But as one was felling a beam, he let fall the axe head into the water. And he cried, and said, 'Alas, master!' for it was borrowed. ⁶ And the man of God said, 'Where fell it?' And he shewed him the place. And he cut a stick, and cast it in thither; and it made the iron to swim. ⁷ And he said, 'Take it up to thee.' And he put out his hand, and took it.

⁸ THEN THE KING OF SYRIA warred against Israel, and took counsel with his servants, saying, 'In such and such a place shall be my camp.' ⁹ And the man of God sent to the king of Israel, saying, 'Beware that thou pass not such a place; for thither the Syrians are coming down.' ¹⁰ And the king of Israel sent to the place which the man of God had told him and warned him of, and took heed there, not once nor twice.

¹¹ Therefore the heart of the king of Syria was sore troubled for this thing; and he called his servants, and said to them, 'Will ye not shew me who that belongeth to us is for the king of Israel?' ¹² And one of his servants said, 'None, my lord, O king. But Elisha, the prophet that is in Israel, telleth the king of Israel the words that thou speakest in thy bed-chamber.' ¹³ And he said, 'Go and see where he is, that I may send and fetch him.' And it was told him, saying, 'Behold, he is in Dothan.' ¹⁴ Therefore sent he thither horses, and chariots, and a great host; and they came by night, and encompassed the city about. ¹⁵ And when the servant of the man of God was risen early, and gone forth, behold, a host encompassed the city both with horses and chariots. And his servant said to him, 'Alas, my master! how shall we do?' ¹⁶ And he answered, 'Fear not; for they that are with us are more than they that are with them.' ¹⁷ And Elisha prayed, and said, 'O Jehovah, I pray thee, open his eyes, that he may see.' And Jehovah opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw. And behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha.

¹⁸ And when [the Syrians] came down to him,

Elisha prayed to Jehovah and said, 'Smite this nation, I pray thee, with blindness.' And he smote them with blindness according to the word of Elisha. ¹⁹ Then Elisha said to them, 'This is not the way, neither is this the city. Follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom ye seek.' But he led them to Samaria. ²⁰ And it came to pass, when they were come into Samaria, that Elisha said, 'O Jehovah, open the eyes of these men, that they may see.' And Jehovah opened their eyes, and they saw; and behold, they were in the midst of Samaria. ²¹ And the king of Israel said to Elisha, when he saw them, 'My father, shall I smite them? Shall I smite them?' ²² And he answered, 'Thou shalt not smite them. Wouldest thou smite those whom thou hast taken captive with thy sword and with thy bow? Set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink, and may go to their master.' ²³ And he prepared great provision for them; and when they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. So the troops of Syria came no more into the land of Israel.

²⁴ AND IT CAME TO PASS after this, that Ben-Hadad [the IInd] king of Syria gathered all his host, and went up, and besieged Samaria. ²⁵ And there was a great famine in Samaria. And behold, they besieged it, until an ass's head was sold for eighty pieces of silver, and the fourth part of a Cab [or three pints] of herb Dove's-dung for five pieces of silver. ²⁶ And as the king of Israel was passing by upon the wall, there cried a woman unto him, saying, 'Help, my lord, O king.' ²⁷ And he said, 'If Jehovah do not help thee, whence shall I help thee? Out of the barnfloor, or out of the winepress?' ²⁸ And the king said to her, 'What aileth thee?' And she answered, 'This woman said to me, Give thy son, that we may eat him to-day, and we will eat my son to-morrow.' ²⁹ So we boiled my son, and did eat him. And I said to her on the next day, Give thy son, that we may eat him. And she hath hid her son.'

³⁰ And it came to pass when the king heard the words of the woman, that he rent his clothes; and he passed by upon the wall, and the people looked, and behold, he had sackcloth within upon his flesh. ³¹ Then he said, 'God do so and more also to me, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat shall stand on him this day.' ³² But Elisha sat in his house, and the elders sat with him. And [the king] sent a man from before him; but ere the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, 'See ye how this son of a murderer hath sent to take away my head? Look, when the messenger cometh, shut the door, and hold him fast at the door. Is not the sound of his master's feet behind him?'

³³ And while he yet talked with them, behold, the messenger came down to him. And he said, 'Behold, this evil is from Jehovah; why should I tarry for Jehovah any longer?' ⁷ Then Elisha said, 'Hear ye the word of Jehovah. Thus saith

'Jehovah, To-morrow about this time shall a Seah [or two gallons] of fine flour be sold for a Shekel [or two shillings], and two Seahs of barley for a Shekel, at the city gate of Samaria.' ² Then the chief-of-three [or chariot warrior], on whose hand the king leaned, answered the man of God, and said, 'Behold, even if Jehovah would make windows in the heavens, could this thing be?' And he said, 'Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not eat thereof.'

³ And there were four leprous men at the entering in of the city gate; and they said one to another, 'Why sit we here until we die?' ⁴ If we say, 'We will enter into the city, then the famine is in the city, and we shall die there; and if we sit still here we die also. Now therefore come, and let us desert to the camp of the Syrians. If they save us alive, we shall live; and if they kill us, we shall not die.'⁵ And they rose up in the twilight, to go to the camp of the Syrians. And when they were come to the uttermost part of the camp of the Syrians, behold, there was no man there. ⁶ For the Lord had made the host of the Syrians to hear a noise of chariots, and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great host; and they said one to another, 'Lo, the king of Israel hath hired against us the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come upon us.'⁷ Therefore they arose and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their asses, even the camp as it was, and fled for their life. ⁸ And when these lepers came to the uttermost part of the camp they went into one tent, and did eat and drink, and carried thence silver, and gold and raiment, and went and hid it. And they came again, and entered into another tent, and carried thence also, and went and hid it. ⁹ Then they said one to another, 'We do not do right. This day is a day of good tidings, and we hold our peace. If we tarry till the morning light, we shall get some punishment. Now therefore come, that we may go and tell the king's household.'¹⁰ So they came and called to the gate-keeper of the city. And they told them, saying, 'We came to the camp of the Syrians, and behold, there was no man there, neither voice of man, but horses tied, and asses tied, and the tents as they were.'¹¹ And he called the gate-keepers; and they told it to the king's house within.

¹² And the king arose in the night, and said to his servants, 'Let me now show you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we suffer hunger; therefore are they gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, When they come out of the city, we shall catch them alive, and get into the city.'¹³ And one of his servants answered and said, 'Let some take, I pray thee, five of the horses that remain, which are left here, (behold, they that are consumed are as all the multitude of the Israelites,) and let us send and see.'¹⁴ They took therefore two chariots with horses; and the king sent after the host of the Syrians, saying, 'Go and see.'¹⁵ And they went after them unto the Jordan. And lo, all the way was full of garments and vessels, which the Syrians had cast away in their hasty flight. And the messengers returned, and told the king.

¹⁶ And the people went out, and plundered the camp of the Syrians. So a Seah of fine flour was sold for a Shekel, and two Seahs of barley for a Shekel, according to the word of Jehovah. ¹⁷ And the king appointed the chief-of-three on whose hand he leaned to have the charge of the city gate. But the people trod upon him in the city gate, and he died, as the man of God had said, who spake when the king came down to him. ¹⁸ And it came to pass as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, 'Two Seahs of barley for a Shekel, and a Seah of fine flour for a Shekel, shall be to-morrow about this time at the city gate of Samaria.'¹⁹ And that chief-of-three had answered the man of God, and said, 'Now, behold, even if Jehovah should make windows in the heavens, could such a thing be?' And he said, 'Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not eat thereof.'²⁰ And so it fell out unto him. For the people trod upon him at the city gate, and he died.

⁸ Then spake Elisha to the woman, whose son he had restored to life, saying, 'Arise, and go thou and thy household, and sojourn wheresoever thou canst sojourn; for Jehovah hath called for a famine; and it will also come upon the land seven years.'² And the woman arose, and did after the saying of the man of God; and she went with her household, and sojourned in the land of the Philistines for seven years. ³ And it came to pass, at the seven years' end, that the woman returned out of the land of the Philistines. And she went forth to cry to the king for her house and for her field. ⁴ And the king talked with Gehazi the servant of the man of God, saying, 'Recount to me, I pray thee, all the great things that Elisha hath done.'⁵ And it came to pass, as he was recounting to the king how he had restored a dead body to life, that, behold, the woman, whose son he had restored to life, cried to the king for her house and for her field. And Gehazi said, 'My lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her son, whom Elisha restored to life.'⁶ And when she asked the woman, she recounted it to him. So the king appointed unto her a certain chamberlain, saying, 'Restore all that was hers, and all the increase of the field since the day that she left the land, even until now.'

⁷ And Elisha came to Damascus. And Benhadad the king of Syria was sick. And it was told him, saying, 'A man of God is come hither.'⁸ And the king said to Hazael, 'Take a present in thy hand, and go, meet the man of God, and inquire of Jehovah by him, saying, Shall I recover from this sickness?' ⁹ So Hazael went to meet him, and took a present in his hand, even of every good thing of Damascus, forty camels' burden, and came and stood before him, and said, 'Thy son

'Ben-hadad king of Syria hath sent me to thee, saying, 'Shall I recover from this sickness?' ¹⁰ And Elisha said to him, 'Go, say to him, Thou shalt certainly recover. Howbeit Jehovah hath shewed me that he shall certainly die.' ¹¹ And he set his countenance and settled it, until he was ashamed. And the man of God wept. ¹² And Hazael said, 'Why weepeth my lord?' And he answered, 'Because I know the evil that thou wilt do unto the children of Israel. Their strongholds wilt thou set on fire, and their young men wilt thou slay with the sword, and wilt dash to pieces their babes, and rip up their women with child.' ¹³ And Hazael said, 'But what, is thy servant a dog, that he should do this great thing?' And Elisha answered, 'Jehovah hath showed me that thou wilt be king over Syria.' ¹⁴ So he departed from Elisha, and came to his lord; who said to him, 'What said Elisha to thee?' And he answered, 'He told me that thou shouldst certainly recover.' ¹⁵ And it came to pass on the morrow, that [Hazael] took a thick cloth, and dipped it in water, and spread it on his face, so that he died; and Hazael reigned in his stead.

¹⁶ And in the fifth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel [B.C. 868], while Jehoshaphat was yet king of Judah, JEHORAM the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah began to reign. ¹⁷ Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. ¹⁸ And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab; for the daughter of Ahab was his wife, and he did evil in the sight of Jehovah. ¹⁹ Yet Jehovah would not destroy Judah for David his servant's sake, as he promised him to give to him always a lamp for his children.

²⁰ In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves. ²¹ So Joram went over to Zair, and all the chariots with him. And he rose by night, and smote the Edomites, who encompassed him about, and the captains of the chariots. But the people fled to their tents. ²² And Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same time. ²³ And the rest of the acts of Joram, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah? ²⁴ And Joram slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead.

²⁵ In the twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel [B.C. 849] did AHAZIAH the son of Jehoram king of Judah begin to reign. ²⁶ Two and twenty years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign; and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Athaliah, the [grand] daughter of Omri king of Israel. ²⁷ And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did evil in the sight of Jehovah, as did the house of Ahab, for he was a son in law of the house of Ahab. ²⁸ And he went with Joram the son of Ahab to the war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth in Gilead. And the Syrians wounded Joram. ²⁹ And king Joram went back to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him at Ramoth, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

⁹ And Elisha the prophet called one of the sons of the prophets, and said to him, 'Gird up thy loins and take this vial of oil in thy hand, and go to Ramoth in Gilead. ² And when thou comest thither, look out there for Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi; and go in, and make him arise up from among his brethren, and carry him to an inner chamber. ³ Then take the vial of oil, and pour it on his head, and say, Thus saith Jehovah, I have anointed thee to be king over Israel. Then open the door, and flee, and tarry not.'

⁴ So the young man, the servant of the prophet, went to Ramoth in Gilead. ⁵ And when he came, behold, the captains of the host were sitting; and he said, 'I have an errand to thee, O captain.' And Jehu said, 'Unto which of us all?' And he said, 'To thee, O captain.' ⁶ And he arose, and went into the house. And he poured the oil on his head, and said to him, 'Thus saith Jehovah the God of Israel, I have anointed thee to be king over the people of Jehovah, even over Israel. ⁷ And thou shalt smite the house of Ahab thy master, that I may avenge the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of Jehovah, upon Jezebel. ⁸ For the whole house of Ahab shall perish; and I will cut off from Ahab every man and boy, whether bondsman or free in Israel. ⁹ And I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Abijah. ¹⁰ And the dogs shall eat Jezebel in the field of Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her.' And he opened the door, and fled.

¹¹ Then Jehu came forth to the servants of his lord. And one said to him, 'Is all well? Wherefore came this madman to thee?' And he said to them, 'Ye know the man and his communication.' ¹² And they said, 'It is false; tell us now.' And he said, 'Thus and thus spake he to me, saying, Thus saith Jehovah, I have anointed thee to be king over Israel.' ¹³ Then they hastened, and took every man his garment, and put it under him on the steps of the stairs, and blew with trumpets, saying, 'Jehu is king.' ¹⁴ So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi conspired against Joram. (Now Joram had kept watch in Ramoth in Gilead, and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Syria. ¹⁵ But king Joram was returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria.) And Jehu said, 'If it be your minds, then let none escape to go forth out of the city to go to tell it in Jezreel.'

¹⁶ So Jehu rode, and went to Jezreel; for

Joram lay there. And Ahaziah king of Judah was come down to see Joram. ¹⁷ And there stood a watchman on the tower in Jezreel, and he saw the company of Jehu as he came, and said, 'I see a company.' And Joram said, 'Take a horse-man, and send to meet them, and let him say, 'Is it peace?' ¹⁸ So there went one on horseback to meet him, and said, 'Thus saith the king, Is it peace?' And Jehu said, 'What hast thou to do with peace? Turn thee behind me.' And the watchman told, saying, 'The messenger came to them, but he cometh not again.' ¹⁹ Then he sent out a second on horseback, who came to them, and said, 'Thus saith the king, Is it peace?' And Jehu answered, 'What hast thou to do with peace? Turn thee behind me.' ²⁰ And the watchman told, saying, 'He came even unto them, and cometh not again. And the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi; for he driveth furiously.' ²¹ And Joram said, 'Make ready.' And his chariot was made ready. And Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot, and they went out against Jehu, and met him in the field of Naboth the Jezreelite. ²² And it came to pass, when Joram saw Jehu, that he said, 'Is it peace, Jehu?' And he answered, 'Why should it be peace, while the fornications of thy mother Jezebel and her witchcrafts are so many?' ²³ And Joram turned his hands and fled, and said to Ahaziah, 'There is treachery, O Ahaziah.' ²⁴ And Jehu drew a bow with his full strength, and smote Jehoram between his arms; and the arrow went out at his heart, and he sunk down in his chariot. ²⁵ Then said [Jehu] to Bidkar, a chief-of-three [or chariot-warrior], 'Take him up, and cast him into the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite. For remember how that, when I and thou rode together after Ahab his father, Jehovah laid this burden upon him [saying], ²⁶ Surely I have seen in time past the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sons, Jehovah hath said it. And I will requite thee in this parcel of ground, Jehovah hath said it.—Now therefore take and cast him into the parcel of ground, according to the word of Jehovah.'

²⁷ But when Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden house. And Jehu followed after him, and said, 'Smite him also in the chariot.' It was at the hill-road to Gur, which is by Ibleam. And he fled to Megiddo, and died there. ²⁸ And his servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his burial-place with his fathers in the city of David. ²⁹ And Ahaziah reigned over Judah in the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab [B.C. 862].

³⁰ And when Jehu was come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she painted her eyes, and dressed her head, and looked out at a window. ³¹ And as Jehu entered in at the city gate, she said, 'Had Zimri peace, who slew his master?' ³² And he lifted up his face to the window, and said, 'Who is on my side? Who?' And there looked out to him two or three chamberlains. ³³ And he said, 'Throw her down.' So they threw her down. And some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses. And he trod her under foot. ³⁴ And when he was come in, he did eat and drink. Then he said, 'Go, see now to this cursed woman, and bury her; for she is a king's daughter.' ³⁵ And they went to bury her. But they found no more of her than the skull, and the feet, and the palms of her hands. ³⁶ Therefore they came again, and told him. And he said, 'This is the word of Jehovah, which he spake by the hand of his servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, In the parcel of ground of Jezreel shall dogs eat the flesh of Jezebel; ³⁷ and the carcase of Jezebel shall be as dung upon the face of the field in the parcel of ground of Jezreel; so that they shall not say, 'This is Jezebel.'

10 And Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. And Jehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria, to the rulers of Jezreel, the elders, and to them that brought up Ahab's children, saying, ² 'Now as soon as this letter cometh to you, seeing your master's sons are with you, and there are with you chariots and horses, a fenced city also, and arms; ³ look even out the best and meekest of your master's sons, and set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house.' ⁴ But they were very much afraid, and said, 'Behold, the two kings could not stand before him; how then shall we stand?' ⁵ And he that was over the household, and he that was over the city, the elders also, and the bringers up of the children, sent to Jehu, saying, 'We are thy servants, and will do all that thou shalt bid us. We will not make any king. Do thou what is good in thine eyes.' ⁶ Then he wrote a letter a second time to them, saying, 'If ye be mine, and if ye will hearken to my voice, take ye the heads of the men your master's sons, and come to me to Jezreel by this time to-morrow.' Now the king's sons, being seventy men, were with the great men of the city, who had brought them up. ⁷ And it came to pass when the letter came to them, that they took the king's sons, and slew them, seventy men, and put their heads in baskets, and sent them to him at Jezreel.

⁸ And there came a messenger, and told him, saying, 'They have brought the heads of the king's sons.' And he said, 'Lay ye them in two heaps at the entering in of the city gate until the morning.' ⁹ And it came to pass in the morning, that he went out, and stood, and said to all the people, 'Ye are righteous. Behold, I conspired against my master, and slew him; but who slew all these?' ¹⁰ Know therefore that there shall fall to the ground nothing of the word of Jehovah, which Jehovah spake concerning the house of Ahab. For Jehovah hath done that which he spake by the hand of his servant Elijah.' ¹¹ So Jehu slew all that remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men and his companions, and his priests, until he left of him none remaining.

¹² And he arose and departed, and came to Samaria. And as he was at a shearing house of shepherds on the way, ¹³ Jehu met with the brethren of Ahaziah king of Judah, and said, 'Who are ye?' And they answered, 'We are the brethren of Ahaziah; and we go down to salute the children of the king and the children of the queen.' ¹⁴ And he said, 'Take them alive.' And they took them alive, and slew them at the pit of the shearing house, even two and forty men; neither left he a man of them.

¹⁵ And when he was departed thence, he found Jehonadab a son of Rechab [or a chariot driver] coming to meet him. And he blessed him, and said to him, 'Is thy heart right, as my heart is with thy heart?' And Jehonadab answered, 'It is.' 'If it be, give me thy hand.' And he gave him his hand; and took him up to him into the chariot. ¹⁶ And he said, 'Come with me, and see my zeal for Jehovah.' So they made him ride in his chariot. ¹⁷ And when he came to Samaria, he slew all that remained unto Ahab in Samaria, till he had destroyed him, according to the saying of Jehovah, which he spake to Elijah.

¹⁸ And Jehu gathered all the people together, and said to them, 'Ahab served Baal a little; but Jehu will serve him much.' ¹⁹ Now therefore call to me all the prophets of Baal, all who serve him, and all his priests; let none be wanting; for I have a great sacrifice to do to Baal. Whosoever shall be wanting, he shall not live.' But Jehu did it in subtlety, to the intent that he might destroy those who served Baal. ²⁰ And Jehu said, 'Sanctify a day of restraint for Baal.' And they proclaimed it. ²¹ And Jehu sent through all Israel. And all those who served Baal came, so that there was not a man left that came not. And they came into the house of Baal; and the house of Baal was full from one end to another. ²² And he said to him that was over the wardrobe, 'Bring forth vestments for all those who serve Baal.' And he brought them forth the vestments. ²³ And Jehu went, and Jehonadab the son of Rechab, into the house of Baal, and said to those who served Baal, 'Search and look that there be here with you none of those who serve Jehovah, but those who serve Baal only.' ²⁴ And when they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings, Jehu appointed eighty men without, and said, 'The man who allows the escape of any of the men whom I have brought into your hands, his life shall be instead of the life of him.' ²⁵ And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, that Jehu said to the runners and to the chiefs-of-three [or chariot warriors], 'Go in, and smite them; let none come forth.' And they smote them with the edge of the sword. And the runners and the chiefs-of-three cast them out, and then went to the city of the house of Baal. ²⁶ And they brought forth the images out of the house of Baal, and burned them. ²⁷ And they brake down the image of Baal, and brake down the house of Baal, and made it a draught house unto this day. ²⁸ Thus Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.

²⁹ Howbeit from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, Jehu departed not from after them, to wit, the golden calves that were in Beth-el, and that were in Dan. ³⁰ And Jehovah said to Jehu, 'Because thou hast done well in executing what is right in mine eyes, and hast done to the house of Ahab according to all that was in my heart, thy children of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel.' ³¹ But Jehu took no heed to walk in the law of Jehovah the God of Israel with all his heart; for he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam, who made Israel to sin.

³² In those days Jehovah began to cut Israel short; and Hazael smote them in all the boundaries of Israel; ³³ from the Jordan towards the rising of the sun, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer, which is by the river Arnon; even Gilead and Bashan.

11 And when ATHALIAH the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal. ² But Jehosheba, the daughter of king Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons who were slain. And they hid him, even him and his nurse, in the bedchamber from Athaliah, so that he was not slain. ³ And he was with her hidden in the House of Jehovah for six years. And Athaliah did reign over the land.

⁴ And on the seventh year [B.C. 843] Jehoada sent and fetched the captains over hundreds, [with the axe-bearers and the runners, and brought them to him into the house of Jehovah, and made a covenant with them, and took an oath from them in the House of Jehovah, and then shewed them the king's son. ⁵ And he commanded them, saying, 'This is the thing that ye shall do. Of you that come in on the sabbath, a third part shall be keepers of the watch of the king's house; ⁶ and a third part shall be at the Gate of the Turning; and a third part at the gate behind the runners. So shall ye keep the watch of the House against a carrying off. ⁷ And of all you that go out on the sabbath, two parts shall keep the watch of the House of Jehovah about the king. ⁸ And ye shall encompass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand; and he that cometh unto the ranks, let him be slain. And be ye with the king as he goeth out and as he cometh in.'

⁹ And the captains over the hundreds did according to all things that Jehoiada the Priest commanded. And they took every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that should go out on the sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the Priest. ¹⁰ And to the captains over hundreds did the Priest give king David's spears and shields, that were in the House of Jehovah. ¹¹ And the runners stood every man with his weapons in his hand, round about the king, from the right front corner of the House to the left front corner of the House, against the Altar and against the House. ¹² And he brought forth the king's son, and put the crown upon him, and the Testimonials, and they made him king, and anointed him. And they clapped their hands, and said, 'May the king live.'

¹³ And when Athaliah heard the noise of the runners and of the people, she came to the people into the House of Jehovah. ¹⁴ And when she looked, behold, the king stood upon the pillar, as was the custom, and the captains and the trumpeters by the king, and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew with trumpets. And Athaliah rent her clothes and cried 'Treason, Treason.' ¹⁵ But Jehoiada the Priest commanded the captains of hundreds, the officers of the host, and said to them, 'Lead her forth within the ranks; and let 'him that followeth her be slain with the sword.' For the Priest had said, 'Let her not be slain in 'the House of Jehovah.' ¹⁶ And they laid hands on her; and she went by the way by which the horses came into the king's house; and there was she slain.'

¹⁷ And Jehoiada made a covenant between Jehovah and the king and the people, that they should be Jehovah's people; between the king also and the people. ¹⁸ And all the people of the land went into the house of Baal, and brake it down; his altars and his images brake they in pieces thoroughly, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. And the Priest appointed to the offices in the House of Jehovah. ¹⁹ And he took the captains over hundreds, and the axe-bearers, and the runners, and all the people of the land; and they brought down the king from the House of Jehovah, and came by the way of the gate of the runners to the king's house. And he sat on the throne of the kings. ²⁰ And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was in quiet; and they slew Athaliah with the sword at the king's house. ²¹ Seven years old was Jehoash when he began to reign.

12 In the seventh year of Jehu [B.C. 843] JEHOASH began to reign; and forty years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zibiah of Beer-sheba. ² And Jehoash did what was right in the sight of Jehovah all his days wherein Jehoiada the Priest instructed him. ³ But the High Places were not taken away; and the people still sacrificed and burnt incense on the High Places.

⁴ And Jehoash said to the priests, 'All the 'money of the holy things that is brought into the House of Jehovah, the current money of every one, the head-money of his taxation, and all the money that cometh into any man's heart to bring into the house of Jehovah, let the priests take it to themselves, every man from his friend; and let them repair the breaches of the House, where-soever any breach shall be found.' ⁶ But it was so, that in the three and twentieth year of king Jehoash the priests had not repaired the breaches of the House.

⁷ Then king Jehoash called for Jehoiada the Priest, and the other priests, and said to them, 'Why repair ye not the breaches of the House? Now therefore receive no more money from your friends, but deliver it for the breaches of the House.' ⁸ And the priests consented to receive no more money from the people, neither to be the repairers of the breaches of the House. ⁹ But Jehoiada the Priest took a chest, and bored a hole in the lid of it, and set it near the altar, on the right hand as one cometh into the House of Jehovah. And the priests that kept the door put therein all the money that was brought into the House of Jehovah.

¹⁰ And it was so, when they saw that there was much money in the chest, that the king's scribe and the high priest came up, and they put it up in bags, and counted the money that was found in the House of Jehovah. ¹¹ And they gave the money, when weighed, into the hands of them that did the work, that had the oversight of the House of Jehovah; and they brought it forth to the carpenters and builders, that worked upon the House of Jehovah, ¹² and to the masons, and hewers of stone, and to buy timber and hewed stone to repair the breaches of the House of Jehovah, and for all that was laid out for the House to repair it. ¹³ However, there were not made for the House of Jehovah bowls of silver, snuffers, sprinkling buckets, trumpets, any vessels of gold, or vessels of silver, of the money that was brought into the House of Jehovah. ¹⁴ But they gave that to the workmen, and repaired therewith the House of Jehovah. ¹⁵ Moreover they reckoned not with the men into whose hand they delivered the money to be given to the workmen; for they dealt faithfully. ¹⁶ The guilt-offering money and sin-offering money was not brought into the House of Jehovah; it was the priests'.

¹⁹ And the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah? ²⁰ And his servants arose, and made a conspiracy, and slew Joash at Beth-Millo [for the castle], at the going down to Silla. ²¹ For Jozachar the son of Shimeath, and Jehozabad the son of Shomer, his servants, smote him, and he died. And they buried him with his fathers in the city of David; and Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

¹³ In the three and twentieth year of Joash the son of Ahaziah king of Judah [B.C. 821] JEHOAHAZ the son of Jehu began to reign for seventeen years over Israel in Samaria. ² And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah, and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin; he departed not therefrom.

³ And the anger of Jehovah was kindled against Israel, and he delivered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria, and into the hand of Benhadad [IIrd] the son of Hazael all their days. ⁴ [And Jehoahaz besought the face of Jehovah, and Jehovah hearkened to him; for he saw the oppression of Israel, because the king of Syria oppressed them. ⁵ And Jehovah gave to Israel a saviour [Jehoash of Judah]; so that they went out from under the hand of the Syrians. And the children of Israel dwelt in their tents as aforetime. ⁶ Nevertheless they departed not from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, who made Israel to sin, but walked therein; and there remained the image of Ashera also in Samaria.] ⁷ For there were left no people to Jehoahaz save only fifty horsemen, and ten chariots, and ten thousand men on foot; for the king of Syria had destroyed them, and had made them like the dust to be trampled on.

¹⁰ In the thirty and seventh year of Joash king of Judah [B.C. 807] began JEHOASH the son of Jehoahaz to reign over Israel in Samaria, for sixteen years. ¹¹ And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah. He departed not from any of the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin; but he walked therein. ¹² And the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, and his might wherewith he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel? ¹³ And Joash slept with his fathers; and Jeroboam sat upon his throne. And Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

¹⁴ Now Elisha was fallen sick of his sickness whereof he died. And Joash the king of Israel came down to him, and wept over his face, and said, 'O my father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof.' ¹⁵ And Elisha said to him, 'Take a bow and arrows.' And he took to him a bow and arrows. ¹⁶ And he said to the king of Israel, 'Put thy hand upon the bow.' And he put his hand upon it. And Elisha put his hands upon the king's hands. ¹⁷ And he said, 'Open the window eastward.' And he opened it. Then Elisha said, 'Shoot.' And he shot. And he said, 'The arrow of Jehovah's deliverance, and the arrow of deliverance from Syria. For thou shalt smite the Syrians in Aphek, till thou have consumed them.' ¹⁸ And he said, 'Take the arrows.' And he took them. And he said to the king of Israel, 'Smite upon the ground.' And he smote thrice, and stayed. ¹⁹ And the man of God was wroth with him, and said, 'On smiting five or six times, then hadst thou smitten Syria till thou hadst consumed it. Whereas now thou shalt smite Syria but thrice.' ²⁰ And Elisha died, and they buried him.

And the bands of the Moabites invaded the land at the coming in of the year. ²¹ And it came to pass, as they were burying a man, that behold, they spied a band of men; and they cast the man into the sepulchre of Elisha. And when the man was let down, and touched the bones of Elisha, he came to life, and stood up on his feet.

²² [Now Hazael king of Syria had oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz. ²³ But Jehovah was gracious to them, and had compassion on them, and turned to them, because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and would not destroy them, neither cast he them from his presence as yet. ²⁴ So Hazael king of Syria died; and his son Benhadad [the IIrd.] reigned in his stead.] ²⁵ And Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz returned and took out of the hand of Benhadad the son of Hazael the cities, which he had taken out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father by war. Three times did Joash beat him, and recover the cities of Israel.

¹⁴ In the second year of Joash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel [B.C. 806] reigned AMAZIAH the son of Joash king of Judah. ² He was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem. ³ And he did what was right in the sight of Jehovah, yet not like David his father. He did according to all things as Joash his father did. ⁴ However the High Places were not taken away. As yet the people sacrificed and burnt incense on High Places.

⁵ And it came to pass, as soon as the kingdom was confirmed in his hand, that he slew his servants who had slain the king his father. ⁶ But the children of the murderers he did not put to death; according to that which is written in the Book of the Law of Moses [Deut. xxiv. 16], wherein Jehovah commanded, saying, The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, nor the children be put to death for the fathers; but every man shall be put to death for his own sin.

⁷ He slew in the Valley of Salt ten thousand Edomites, and took Sela [or Petra] by war, and called the name of it Joktheel [or captured by God] unto this day.

⁸ Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, 'Come, let us look one another in the face.'⁹ And Jehoash the king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, 'The thistle that was on Lebanon sent to the cedar that was on Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife. But there passed by a wild beast that was on Lebanon, and trod down the thistle.'¹⁰ Thou hast indeed smitten Edom, and thy heart hath lifted thee up. Glory thou at this, and tarry at home. For why shouldst thou rush into trouble, that thou shouldst fall, even thou, and Judah with thee?'¹¹ But Amaziah would not hear. Therefore Jehoash king of Israel went up; and he and Amaziah king of Judah looked one another in the face at Beth-shemesh, which belongeth to Judah.¹² And Judah was smitten down before Israel; and they fled every man to their tents.¹³ And Jehoash king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Jehoash the son of Ahaziah, at Beth-shemesh; and he came to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem near the gate of Ephraim unto the Corner Gate, four hundred cubits.¹⁴ And he took all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the House of Jehovah, and in the treasures of the king's house, and hostages, and returned to Samaria.

¹⁵ Now the rest of the acts of Jehoash which he did, and his might, and how he fought with Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?¹⁶ And Jehoash slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel; and Jeroboam his son reigned in his stead.

¹⁷ And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel fifteen years.¹⁸ And the rest of the acts of Amaziah, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?¹⁹ And they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem; and he fled to Lachish. But they sent after him to Lachish, and slew him there.²⁰ And they brought him on horses; and he was buried at Jerusalem with his fathers in the city of David.²¹ And all the people of Judah took Azariah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king instead of his father Amaziah.²² He had built Elath, and restored it to Judah. After that the king slept with his fathers.

²³ In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah [B.C. 792] JEROBOAM the son of Joash king of Israel began to reign in Samaria for forty and one years.²⁴ And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah. He departed not from any of the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.²⁵ He restored the boundary of Israel from the Pass of Hamath unto the Sea of the Barren Valley, according to the word of Jehovah the God of Israel, which he spake by the hand of his servant Jonah the son of Amittai, the prophet, who was of Gath-hepher.²⁶ For Jehovah saw the affliction of Israel, that it was very bitter; for there remained none, whether bondsman or free, nor was there any helper for Israel.²⁷ And Jehovah said not that he would blot out the name of Israel from under heaven; but he saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joash.

²⁸ Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, and all that he did, and his might, how he warred, and how he recovered Damascus, and Hamath of Judah, for Israel, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?²⁹ And Jeroboam slept with his fathers, the kings of Israel; and Zachariah his son reigned in his stead.

¹⁵ In the twenty and seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel [B.C. 778] began AZARIAH [or UZZIAH] son of Amaziah king of Judah to reign.² Sixteen years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned two and fifty years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jecholiah of Jerusalem.³ And he did what was right in the sight of Jehovah according to all that his father Amaziah had done;⁴ save that the High Places were not removed; the people still sacrificed and burnt incense on High Places.⁵ And Jehovah smote the king, so that he was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a house of beds [or a hospital]. And Jotham the king's son was over the house, judging the people of the land.

⁶ And the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?⁷ So Azariah slept with his fathers; and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David; and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

⁸ In the thirty and eighth year of Azariah king of Judah [B.C. 764] did ZACHARIAH the son of Jeroboam reign over Israel in Samaria for six months.⁹ And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah, as his fathers had done. He departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.¹⁰ And Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him, and smote him before the people, and slew him, and reigned in his stead.¹¹ And the rest of the acts of Zachariah, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel.¹² This was the word of Jehovah which he spake to Jehu, [ch. x. 30] saying, 'Thy sons shall sit on the throne of Israel unto the fourth generation.' And so it came to pass.

¹³ SHALLUM the son of Jabesh began to reign in the nine and thirtieth year of Uzziah [or Azariah] king of Judah [B.C. 763], and he reigned a month in Samaria.¹⁴ For Menahem the son of Gadi went up from Tirzah, and came to Samaria, and smote Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria, and slew him, and reigned in his stead.¹⁵ And the rest of the acts of Shallum, and his conspiracy which he made, behold they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel.

¹⁶ Then MENAHEM smote TIPHSAH, and all that were therein, and its boundaries from Tirzah. Because they opened not to him, therefore he smote it; and all the women therein that were with child he ripped up. ¹⁷ In the nine and thirtieth year of Azariah king of Judah [B.C. 763] began Menahem the son of Gadi to reign over Israel for ten years in Samaria. ¹⁸ And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah. He departed not all his days from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

¹⁹ Pul the king of Assyria came against the land. And Menahem gave Pul a thousand Kikars [or hundred weights] of silver, that his hand might be with him to confirm the kingdom in his hand. ²⁰ And Menahem exacted the money from Israel, even from all the mighty men of wealth, for each man fifty Shekels [or 100 shillings] of silver, to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria turned back, and stayed not there in the land. ²¹ And the rest of the acts of Menahem, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel? ²² And Menahem slept with his fathers; and Pekahiah his son reigned in his stead.

²³ In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah [B.C. 752] PEKAHIAH the son of Menahem began to reign over Israel in Samaria for two years. ²⁴ And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah. He departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin. ²⁵ But Pekah the son of Remaliah, one of his chiefs-of-three [or chariot warriors], conspired against him, and smote him in Samaria, in the strong tower of the king's house, with Argob and Ariah; (and with him were fifty men of the sons of the Gileadites;) and he killed him, and reigned in his room. ²⁶ And the rest of the acts of Pekahiah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel.

²⁷ In the two and fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah [B.C. 750] PEKAH the son of Remaliah began to reign over Israel in Samaria for twenty years. ²⁸ And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah. He departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

²⁹ In the days of Pekah king of Israel came Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and took Ijon, and Abel near Bath-maachah, and Janoah, and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali, and carried them captive to Assyria. ³⁰ And Hoshea the son of Elah made a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and smote him, and slew him, and reigned in his stead, in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah [B.C. 730]. ³¹ And the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel.

³² In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah king of Israel [B.C. 749] began JOTHAM the son of Uzziah king of Judah to reign. ³³ Five and twenty years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jerusha, the daughter of Zadok. ³⁴ And he did what was right in the sight of Jehovah; he did according to all that his father Uzziah had done. ³⁵ Howbeit the High Places were not removed; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on High Places. He built the Upper Gate of the House of Jehovah.

³⁶ Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah? ³⁷ In those days Jehovah began to send against Judah Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah. ³⁸ And Jotham slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father; and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

⁵ Then Rezin king of Syria and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel came up to Jerusalem to war; and they besieged Ahaz, but could not overcome him. ⁶ At that time Rezin king of Syria recovered Elath to Syria, and drove the Jews from Elath. And the Edomites came to Elath, and dwell there unto this day.

¹⁰ And king Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria. And he saw the altar that was at Damascus; and king Ahaz sent to Urijah the Priest the likeness of the altar, and the pattern of it, according to all the workmanship of it. ¹¹ And Urijah the Priest built an altar according to all that king Ahaz had sent from Damascus; so Urijah the Priest made it against king Ahaz came from Damascus. ¹² And when the king was come from Damascus, the king saw the altar. And the king approached to the altar, and offered up thereon. ¹³ And he burnt his burnt offering and his meal offering, and poured his drink offering, and sprinkled the blood of his peace offering, upon the altar. ¹⁴ And he brought also the copper altar, which was before Jehovah, from the front of the House, from between the [Great] Altar and the House of Jehovah, and put it on the north side of the Altar. ¹⁵ And king Ahaz commanded Urijah the Priest, saying, 'Upon the Great Altar 'burn the morning burnt offering, and the evening 'meal offering, and the king's burnt offering, and 'his meal offering, with the burnt offering of all 'the people of the land, and their meal offering, 'and their drink offerings; and sprinkle upon it 'all the blood of the burnt offering, and all the 'blood of the sacrifice; and the copper altar shall 'be for me to inquire by.' ¹⁶ And Urijah the Priest did according to all that king Ahaz commanded. ¹⁷ And king Ahaz cut off the panels of the basinstands, and removed the Laver [or basin] from off them, and took down the Water-cistern from off the copper oxen that were under it, and put it upon the pavement of stones. ¹⁸ And the shelter [or portico] for the sabbath that they had built on to the House, and the king's entrance on the outside, carried he all round the House of Jehovah for the king of Assyria.

¹⁷ In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah [B.C. 730], began HOSHEA the son of Elah to reign in Samaria over Israel for nine years. ² And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah, but not as the kings of Israel that were before him. ³ Against him came up Shalmaneser king of Assyria; and Hoshea became his servant, and gave him presents. ⁴ And the king of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea; for he had sent messengers to Seve king of Egypt, and brought no present to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year. Therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison.

⁵ And the king of Assyria came up throughout all the land, and went up to Samaria, and besieged it for three years. ⁶ In the ninth year of Hoshea [B.C. 722] the king of Assyria took Samaria, and carried Israel away into Assyria, and placed them in Halah [or Calah], and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes. ⁷ For so it was, that the children of Israel had sinned against Jehovah their God, who had brought them up out of the land of Lower Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and they had feared other gods, ⁸ and they had walked in the statutes of the nations whom Jehovah cast out from before the children of Israel, and of the kings of Israel, which they had made. ⁹ And the children of Israel did secretly those things that were not right against Jehovah their God, and they built them High Places in all their cities, from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city. ¹⁰ And they set them up images and groves of Ashera on every high hill, and under every green tree. ¹¹ And there they burnt incense in all the High Places, as did the nations whom Jehovah had carried away before them; and they wrought wicked things to provoke Jehovah to anger; ¹² for they served the filthy idols whereof Jehovah had said to them, 'Ye shall 'not do this thing.' ¹³ And Jehovah protested against Israel, and against Judah, by the hand of all the prophets, and all the seers, saying, 'Turn 'ye from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes, according to all the Law 'which I commanded your fathers, and which I 'sent to you by the hand of my servants the 'prophets.' ¹⁴ Notwithstanding they would not hear, but hardened their necks, like to the neck of their fathers, who did not believe in Jehovah their God. ¹⁵ And they rejected his statutes and his covenant that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies by which he protested against them; and they followed vanity, and became vain, and went after the nations that were round about them, concerning whom Jehovah had charged them, that they should not do like them. ¹⁶ And they left all the commandments of Jehovah their God, and made for themselves molten images, even two calves, and made a grove of Ashera, and worshipped all the host of the heavens, and served Baal. ¹⁷ And they caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, and used divination and enchantments, and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of Jehovah, to provoke him to anger. ¹⁸ Therefore Jehovah was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his presence. There was none left but the tribe of Judah only. ¹⁹ Also Judah kept not the commandments of Jehovah their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made.

²⁰ And Jehovah rejected all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hands of plunderers, until he had cast them out of his presence. ²¹ For he rent Israel from the house of David; and they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king. And Jeroboam drove Israel from following Jehovah, and made them sin a great sin. ²² And the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they departed not from them; ²³ until Jehovah removed Israel out of his presence, as he had said by the hand of all his servants the prophets. So was Israel carried away out of their own land to Assyria unto this day.

²⁴ And the king of Assyria brought men from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from Ava, and from Hamath, and from Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel. And they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof. ²⁵ And so it was at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they feared not Jehovah; therefore Jehovah sent lions among them, which slew some of them. ²⁶ Therefore they spake to the king of Assyria, saying, 'The nations 'which thou hast removed, and placed in the 'cities of Samaria, know not the manner of the 'God of the land. Therefore he hath sent lions 'among them, and behold, they slay them, because 'they know not the manner of the God of the 'land.' ²⁷ Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, 'Carry thither one of the priests whom ye 'carried away from thence; and let them go and 'dwell there, and let him teach them the manner 'of the God of the land.' ²⁸ Then one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and dwelt in Beth-el, and taught them how they should fear Jehovah.

²⁹ Howbeit every nation made gods of their own, and put them in the houses of the High Places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities wherein they dwelt. ³⁰ And the men of Babylon made Tabernacles for damsels, and the men of Cuthah made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima, ³¹ and the Avites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites burnt their children in fire to Adrammelech and Anan-melech, the gods of Sepharvaim. ³² And there were some who feared Jehovah, and yet made for themselves of the lowest of them priests of the High Places, and there were some who acted for themselves in the houses of the High Places. ³³ And some feared Jehovah, and some served their own gods, after the manner of the nations who had carried away [the Israelites] from thence. ³⁴ Unto this day they do after the former manners. They fear not Jehovah, neither do they after their statutes, or after their ordinances, or after the law and commandment which Jehovah commanded the children of Jacob, whom he named Israel; ³⁵ with whom Jehovah had made a covenant, and charged them, saying, 'Ye shall not fear other 'gods, nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, 'nor sacrifice to them. ³⁶ But Jehovah, who 'brought you up out of the land of Lower Egypt 'with great power and stretched out arm, him 'shall ye fear, and him shall ye worship, and to 'him shall ye do sacrifice. ³⁷ And the statutes, 'and the judgments, and the law, and the com- 'mandment, which he wrote for you, ye shall ob- 'serve to do for evermore; and ye shall not fear 'other gods. ³⁸ And the covenant that I have 'made with you ye shall not forget; neither shall 'ye fear other gods. ³⁹ But Jehovah your God ye 'shall fear; and he will deliver you out of the 'hand of all your enemies.' ⁴⁰ Howbeit they did not hearken, but they did after their former manner. ⁴¹ So these nations feared Jehovah, and yet served their graven images, both their children, and their children's children. As did their fathers, so do they unto this day.

18 Now it came to pass in the third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel [B.C. 728], that HEZEKIAH the son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign. ² Twenty and five years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Abi, the daughter of Zechariah. ³ And he did what was right in the sight of Jehovah, according to all that David his father had done. ⁴ He removed the High Places, and brake the images, and cut down the groves of Ashera, and brake in pieces the copper serpent that Moses had made. For unto those days the children of Israel did burn incense to it. And it was called Ne-hushtan. ⁵ He trusted in Jehovah the God of Israel; so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor any that were before him. ⁶ For he clave to Jehovah, and departed not from following him, but kept his commandments which Jehovah had commanded Moses. ⁷ And Jehovah was with him. He prospered whithersoever he went forth; and he rebelled against the king of Assyria, and served him not. ⁸ He smote the Philistines, even unto Gaza, and its boundaries, from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city.

⁹ And it came to pass in the fourth year of king Hezekiah [B.C. 724], which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria, and besieged it. ¹⁰ And at the end of three years he took it; even in the sixth year of Hezekiah, that is the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel [B.C. 722], Samaria was taken. ¹¹ And the king of Assyria did carry away Israel to Assyria, and put them in Halah, and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes; ¹² because they obeyed not the voice of Jehovah their God, but transgressed his covenant, and all that Moses the servant of Jehovah had commanded, and would not hear them nor do them.

¹⁷ And the king of Assyria sent Tartan and Rab-saris [or the chief eunuch] and Rab-shakeh [or the chief butler] from Lachish to king Hezekiah with a great army against Jerusalem. And they went up and came to Jerusalem. And when they were come up, they came and stood by the conduit of the Upper Pool, which is in the highway of the fuller's field. ¹⁸ And when they had called to the king, there came forth to them Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder. ¹⁹ And Rab-shakeh said to them, 'Say ye now to 'Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of 'Assyria, What trust is this wherein thou trustest? ²⁰ They speak only words of the lips, as counsel 'and strength for war. Now on whom dost thou 'trust, that thou hast rebelled against me? ²¹Now, behold, thou trustest thyself on the support of this broken reed, even on Egypt, on which if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all that trust on him. ²²But if ye say to me, We trust in Jehovah our God; is not that he whose High Places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away? And he saith to Judah and Jerusalem, Ye shall worship him before this altar in Jerusalem. ²³Now therefore give pledges, I pray thee, to my lord the king of Assyria, and I will deliver to thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to put chariots to them. ²⁴How then wilt thou turn away the face of one Pacha [or captain] of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? ²⁵Am I now come up without Jehovah against this place to destroy it? Jehovah said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.' ²⁶Then said Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna, and Joah, to Rab-shakeh, 'Speak, I pray thee, to thy servants in the Syriac language; for we understand it. And speak not to us in the Jewish language in the ears of the people that are on the wall.'

²⁷But Rab-shakeh said to them, 'Hath my master sent me to thy master, and to thee, to speak these words? Hath he not sent me to the men that sit upon the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own urine with you?' ²⁸Then Rab-shakeh stood and cried with a loud voice in the Jewish language, and spake, and said, 'Hear ye the word of the Great King, the king of Assyria. ²⁹Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you; for he will not be able to deliver you out of his hand. ³⁰Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in Jehovah, saying, Jehovah will surely deliver us, and this city will not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria. ³¹Hearken not to Hezekiah. For thus saith the king of Assyria, Make peace with me, and come out to me, and then eat ye every man of his own vine, and every man of his own fig tree, and drink ye every man the waters of his own cistern; ³²until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and of grape juice, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of the oil-olive, and of honey, that ye may live and not die. And hearken not to Hezekiah, when he persuadeth you, saying, Jehovah will deliver us. ³³Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered at all his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? ³⁴Where are the gods of Hamath, and of Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Avah? Have they delivered Samaria out of my hand? ³⁵Who are they among all the gods of the countries, that have delivered their country out of my hand, that Jehovah should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?' ³⁶But the people held their peace, and answered him not a word; for the king's command was, saying, Answer him not.'

³⁷Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rab-shakeh. 19 And it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the House of Jehovah. ² And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz. ³ And they said to him, 'Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of scoffing; for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth. ⁴ It may be Jehovah thy God will hear all the words of Rab-shakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to defy the living God; and will reprove the words which Jehovah thy God hath heard. Therefore lift up a prayer for the remnant that is left.'

⁵ So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah. ⁶ And Isaiah said to them, 'Thus shall ye say to your master, Thus saith Jehovah, Be not afraid of the words which thou hast heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me. ⁷ Behold, I will send a breath upon him, and he shall hear a rumour, and shall return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.'

⁸ So Rab-shakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah; for he had heard that he had moved his camp from Lachish. ⁹ And when he heard say of Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, 'Behold, he is come out to fight against thee;' he sent messengers again to Hezekiah, saying, ¹⁰ 'Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God in whom thou trustest deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria. ¹¹ Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly. And shalt thou be delivered? ¹² Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed; as Gozan, and Harau, and Rezep, and the children of Eden who were in Tel-ashar? ¹³ Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and of Avah?'

¹⁴ And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messenger, and read it. And Hezekiah went up unto the House of Jehovah, and spread it before Jehovah. ¹⁵ And Hezekiah prayed before Jehovah, and said, 'O Jehovah God of Israel, who dwellest between the cherubs, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. Thou hast made the heavens and the earth. ¹⁶ Bow down thine ear, O Jehovah, and hear. Open thine eyes, O Jehovah, and see. And hear the words of Sennacherib, who hath sent him to defy the living God. ¹⁷ Of a truth, O Jehovah, the kings of Assyria have laid waste the nations

‘and their lands, ¹⁸ and have cast their gods into the fire. For they were no gods, but the work of men’s hands, wood and stone; therefore they have destroyed them. ¹⁹ Now therefore, O Jehovah our God, I beseech thee, save us out of his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou, Jehovah, art God, even thou only.’

²⁰ Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, ‘Thus saith Jehovah the God of Israel, ‘That which thou hast prayed to me against Senacherib king of Assyria I have heard. ²¹ This is the word which Jehovah hath spoken concerning him;

‘The virgin the daughter of Zion despiseth thee, she laugheth thee to scorn. The daughter of Jerusalem shaketh her head after thee. ²² Whom hast thou defied and blasphemed? And against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high? Even against the Holy One of Israel. ²³ By the hand of thy messengers thou hast defied the Lord, and hast said, With the multitude of my chariots I am come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon, and I will cut down its tall cedar trees, and its choice fir trees; and I will enter into its remotest lodgings, and into the thicket of its garden [or Carmel]. ²⁴ I have digged and have drunk strange waters, and with the sole of my feet I will dry up all the canals of Lower Egypt.

²⁵ Hast thou not heard long ago how I did it, and of ancient times that I proposed it? Now have I brought it to pass, that it should be for thee to lay waste fenced cities into ruinous heaps. ²⁶ But their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded; they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb; as grass on the housetops, or blight [on corn] before it be grown to stalk. ²⁷ But thine abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, I know, and thy rage against me. ²⁸ Because thy rage against me and thine insolence are come up into mine ears, therefore I will put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.

²⁹ And this shall be a sign unto thee, in this year shall be eaten what groweth of itself, and in the second year that which springeth from the same; and in the third year they shall sow, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruits thereof. ³⁰ And the escaped of the house of Judah shall increase, those left shall take root downward, and bear fruit upward. ³¹ For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and they that escape out of mount Zion. The zeal of Jehovah of hosts shall do this.

³² Therefore thus saith Jehovah concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shields, nor cast up a siege-mound against it. ³³ By the way that he came, by the same shall he return; and he shall not come into this city; Jehovah hath said it. ³⁴ For I will be a shield to

³⁵ And it came to pass that night, that the angel of Jehovah went forth, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians a hundred and eighty and five thousand; and when men arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses. ³⁶ And Senacherib king of Assyria moved his camp, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh.

³⁷ (And it came to pass [B.C. 633], as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword. And they escaped into the land of Ararat [or Armenia]. And Esarhaddon his son reigned in his stead.)

²⁰ In those days [B.C. 713] was Hezekiah sick unto death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came to him, and said to him, ‘Thus saith Jehovah, Set thy house in order, for thou shalt die, and not live.’ ² Then he turned his face to the wall and prayed to Jehovah, saying, ³ ‘I beseech thee, O Jehovah, remember now how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done what is good in thy sight.’ And Hezekiah wept with a great weeping. ⁴ And it came to pass, before Isaiah was gone out into the middle court, that the word of Jehovah came to him, saying, ⁵ ‘Turn again, and tell Hezekiah the captain of my people, Thus saith Jehovah, the God of David thy father; I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears; behold, I will heal thee; on the third day thou shalt go up unto the House of Jehovah. ⁶ And I will add to thy days fifteen years; and I will deliver thee and this city out of the grasp of the king of Assyria; and I will be a shield over this city for mine own sake, and for my servant David’s sake.’

⁷ And Isaiah said, ‘Take ye a cake of figs.’ And they took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered. ⁸ And Hezekiah said to Isaiah, ‘What shall be the sign that Jehovah will heal me, and that I shall go up into the House of Jehovah on the third day?’ ⁹ And Isaiah said, ‘This shall be a sign to thee from Jehovah, that Jehovah will do the thing that he hath spoken. Shall the shadow go forward ten degrees, or go back ten degrees?’ ¹⁰ And Hezekiah answered, ‘It is a light thing for the shadow to grow longer ten degrees; nay, but let the shadow return backward ten degrees.’ ¹¹ And Isaiah the prophet cried to Jehovah, And he brought the shadow ten degrees backward, by which it had gone down on the sun-dial of Ahaz.

¹² At that time Berodach-baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah; for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick. ¹³ And Hezekiah hearkened to them, and shewed them all the house of his spicery, the silver, and the gold, and the scents, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures. There was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not.

¹⁴ Then came Isaiah the prophet to king Hezekiah, and said to him, 'What said these men? And from whence came they to thee?' And Hezekiah said, 'From a far country, they are come from Babylon.' ¹⁵ Then he said, 'What have they seen in thy house?' And Hezekiah answered, 'All that is in my house have they seen. There is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them.' ¹⁶ And Isaiah said to Hezekiah, 'Hear the word of Jehovah. ¹⁷ Behold, days will come when all that is in thy house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to Babylon. Nothing shall be left, saith Jehovah. ¹⁸ And some of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and they shall be chamberlains in the palace of the king of Babylon.' ¹⁹ Then said Hezekiah to Isaiah, 'Good is the word of Jehovah which thou hast spoken.' And he said, 'Oh that peace and certainty may be in my days.'

21 MANASSEH was twelve years old when he began to reign [B.C. 698], and he reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hephzi-bah. ² And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah, after the abominations of the nations, whom Jehovah cast out before the children of Israel. ³ For he built up again the High Places which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; and he reared up altars for Baal, and made an image of Ashera, as did Ahab king of Israel; and he worshipped all the host of the heavens, and served them. ⁴ And he built altars in the house of Jehovah, of which Jehovah said, 'In Jerusalem will I put my name.' ⁵ And he built altars for all the host of the heavens in the two courts of the House of Jehovah. ⁶ And he made his son to pass through the fire, and observed clouds, and used enchantments, and dealt with speaking bottles [or ventriloquism] and wizards; he wrought much wickedness in the sight of Jehovah, to provoke him to anger. ⁷ And he set a graven image of Ashera that he had made in the House, of which Jehovah had said to David, and to Solomon his son, 'In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever. ⁸ Neither will I make the feet of Israel move any more out of the land which I gave their fathers; if they will only observe to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the Law that my servant Moses commanded them.' ⁹ But they hearkened not. And Manasseh seduced them to do more evil than did the nations whom Jehovah destroyed from before the children of Israel.

¹⁰ And Jehovah spake by the hand of his servants the prophets, saying, ¹¹ 'Because Manasseh king of Judah hath done these abominations, and hath done wickedly above all that the Amorites did, who were before him, and hath made Judah also to sin with his filthy idols; ¹² therefore thus saith Jehovah the God of Israel, Behold, I am bringing such evil upon Jerusalem and Judah, that whosoever heareth of it, both his ears shall tingle. ¹³ And I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab. And I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipeth a dish, wiping it, and turning it upon its face. ¹⁴ And I will forsake the remnant of mine inheritance, and deliver them into the hand of their enemies; and they shall become a prey and a spoil to all their enemies; ¹⁵ because they have done that which was evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger, since the day their fathers came forth out of Egypt, even unto this day.' ¹⁶ Moreover Manasseh shed innocent blood very much, till he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another; beside his sin wherewith he made Judah to sin, in doing what was evil in the sight of Jehovah.

¹⁹ Amon was twenty and two years old when he began to reign [B.C. 643], and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Meshullameth, the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah. ²⁰ And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah, as his father Manasseh had done. ²¹ And he walked in all the ways that his father had walked in, and served the filthy idols that his father served, and worshipped them. ²² And he forsook Jehovah the God of his fathers, and walked not in the way of Jehovah. ²³ And the servants of Amon conspired against him, and killed the king in his own house. ²⁴ And the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

²⁵ Now the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah? ²⁶ And he was buried in his sepulchre in the garden of Uzza; and Josiah his son reigned in his stead.

22 JOSIAH was eight years old when he began to reign [B.C. 641], and he reigned thirty and one years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jedidah, the daughter of Adaiah of Boscath. ² And he did what was right in the sight of Jehovah, and walked in all the way of David his father, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left.

³ And it came to pass in the eighteenth year of king Josiah [B.C. 624], that the king sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, the son of Meshullam, the scribe, to the House of Jehovah, saying, ⁴ 'Go up to Hilki-ah the high priest, that he may sum up the silver which is brought into the House of Jehovah, which the keepers of the door have gathered from the people. ⁵ And let them deliver it into the hand of those doers of the work, that have the oversight of the House of Jehovah; and then let them give it to the doers of the work that are in the House of Jehovah, to repair the breaches of the House, ⁶ to the carpenters, and builders, and masons, and to buy timber and hewn stone to repair the House.' ⁷ Howbeit there was no reckoning made with them of the silver that was delivered into their hand, because they dealt faithfully.

⁸ And Hilki-ah the high priest said to Shaphan the scribe, 'I have found a Book of the Law in the House of Jehovah.' And Hilki-ah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it. ⁹ And Shaphan the scribe came to the king, and brought the king word again, and said, 'Thy servants have melted [or coined] the silver that was found in the House, and have delivered it into the hand of them that do the work, that have the oversight of the House of Jehovah.' ¹⁰ And Shaphan the scribe shewed the king, saying, 'Hilki-ah the priest hath delivered me a book.' And Shaphan read it before the king. ¹¹ And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the Book of the Law, that he rent his clothes. ¹² And the king commanded Hilki-ah the priest, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Achbor the son of Michaiah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asahiah a servant of the king's, saying, ¹³ 'Go ye, inquire of Jehovah for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that is found; for great is the wrath of Jehovah that is kindled against us, because our fathers have not hearkened to the words of this book, to do according to all that which is written concerning us.'

¹⁴ So Hilki-ah the priest, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asahiah, went to Huldah, the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the second [or lower city];) and they spake with her. ¹⁵ And she said to them, 'Thus saith Jehovah the God of Israel, Tell the man that sent you to me, ¹⁶ Thus saith Jehovah; Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon its inhabitants, even all the words of the Book which the king of Judah hath read; ¹⁷ Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the work of their hands; therefore my wrath is kindled against this place and shall not be quenched. ¹⁸ But to the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of Jehovah, thus shall ye say to him, Thus speaketh Jehovah the God of Israel, As touching the words which thou hast heard; ¹⁹ because thy heart was tender, and thou hast humbled thyself before Jehovah, when thou heardest what I spake against this place, and against its inhabitants, that they should

'become a desolation and a curse, and thou hast rent thy clothes, and wept before me, I also have hearkened; Jehovah hath said it. ²⁰ Behold therefore, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered to thy grave in peace; and thine eyes shall not see all the evil which I will bring upon this place.' And they brought the king word again.

²¹ And the king sent, and they gathered to him all the elders of Judah and of Jerusalem. ²² And the king went up into the House of Jehovah, and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, both small and great. And he read in their ears all the words of the Book of the Covenant which was found in the House of Jehovah. ²³ And the king stood upon the pillar, and made a covenant before Jehovah, to walk after Jehovah, and to keep his commandments and his testimonies and his statutes with all their heart and all their soul, to perform the words of this covenant that were written in this book. And he made all the people stand to the covenant. ²⁴ And the king commanded Hilki-ah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the door, to bring forth out of the Temple of Jehovah all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for Ashera, and for all the host of the heavens; and he burned them without Jerusalem in the fields of the Kidron, and carried the ashes of them to Beth-el. ²⁵ And he put down the idolatrous priests, whom the kings of Judah had ordained, that incense might be burned in the High Places in the cities of Judah, and in the places round about Jerusalem, even them that burned incense to Baal, to the sun, and to the moon, and to the signs of the Zodiac, and to all the host of the heavens. ²⁶ And he brought out the image of Ashera from the House of Jehovah, without Jerusalem, unto the valley of the Kidron, and burned it in the valley of the Kidron, and stamped it small to powder, and cast the powder thereof upon the graves of the children of the people. ²⁷ And he brake down the houses of the sodomites, that were by the House of Jehovah, where the women wove tents for Ashera. ²⁸ And he brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah, and defiled the High Places where the priests had burned incense, from Geba to Beer-sheba, and brake down the High Places at the city gates, even that which was at the entrance of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which was on a man's left hand at the gate of the city. ²⁹ Nevertheless the priests of the High Places came not up to the altar of Jehovah in Jerusalem, but they did eat of the unleavened bread among their brethren. ³⁰ And he defiled Topheth, which is in the valley of the children of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to Molech. ³¹ And he took away the [images of] horses that the kings of Judah had given to the Sun, at the entering in of the House of Jehovah, near the chamber of Nathan-melech the chamberlain, which was in the suburbs [or lower city], and burned the chariots of the Sun with fire. ¹² And the altars that were on the roof of the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the House of Jehovah, did the king beat down, and brake them down from thence, and cast the dust of them into the valley of the Kidron. ¹³ And the High Places that were before Jerusalem, which were on the right hand of the Mount of Corruption [or of Olives], which Solomon the king of Israel had builded for Ashtarothe the abomination of the Sidonians, and for Chemosh the abomination of the Moabites, and for Milcom the abomination of the Children of Ammon, did the king defile. ¹⁴ And he brake in pieces the images, and cut down the groves of Ashera, and filled their places with the bones of men.

¹⁵ Moreover the altar that was at Beth-el, at the High Place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, had made, both that altar and the High Place he brake down, and burned the High Place, and stamped it small to powder, and burned the grove of Ashera. ¹⁶ And as Josiah turned himself, he saw the sepulchres that were there on the mount, and sent, and took the bones out of the sepulchres, and burned them upon the altar, and polluted it, according to the word of Jehovah which the man of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these words [1 Kings, xiii. 2]. ¹⁷ Then [Josiah] said, 'What grave-stone is that that I see?' And the men of the city told him, 'It is the sepulchre of the man of God, who came from Judah, and proclaimed these things that thou hast done against the altar of Beth-el.' ¹⁸ And he said, 'Let him alone; let no man move his bones.' So they let his bones alone, with the bones of the prophet that came out of Samaria.

¹⁹ And all the houses also of the High Places that were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to call forth Wrath, Josiah took away, and did to them according to all the acts that he had done in Beth-el. ²⁰ And he sacrificed upon the altars all the priests of the High Places that were there, and he burned men's bones upon them, and returned to Jerusalem.

²⁴ Moreover the speaking bottles [of the ventriloquists], and the wizards, and the Teraphs [or images], and the filthy idols, and all the abominations that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, did Josiah put away, so that he might perform the words of the law which were written in the book that Hilkiah the Priest found in the House of Jehovah. ²⁵ And like unto him was there no king before him, that turned to Jehovah with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the Law of Moses; neither after him arose there any like him.

²⁶ Notwithstanding Jehovah turned not from the fierceness of his great wrath, wherewith his anger was kindled against Judah, because of all the provocations that Manasseh had provoked him with. ²⁷ And Jehovah said, 'I will remove Judah also from before my face, as I have removed Israel, and will cast off this city Jerusalem which I have chosen, and the House of which I said, 'My name shall be there.'

²⁸ Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah?

³¹ JEHOAHAZ was twenty and three years old when he began to reign [B.C. 610]; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. ³² And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah, according to all that his fathers had done. ³³ And Pharaoh Nechoh put him in bands at Riblah in the land of Hamath, that he might not reign in Jerusalem; and put a fine upon the land of a hundred Kikars of silver, and a Kikar of gold. ³⁴ And Pharaoh Nechoh made Eliakim the son of Josiah king in the room of Josiah his father. (And he turned his name to Jehoiakim.) And he took Jehoahaz away. And he came to Egypt, and died there.

³⁵ And JEHOIAKIM gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh; but he taxed the land to give the money according to the command of Pharaoh. He exacted the silver and the gold of the people of the land, of every one according to his taxation, to give it to Pharaoh Nechoh. ³⁶ Jehoiakim was twenty and five years old when he began to reign [B.C. 610]; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zebudah, the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah. ³⁷ And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah, according to all that his fathers had done.

²⁴ In his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his servant for three years; then he turned and rebelled against him. ² And Jehovah sent against him bands of the Chaldees, and bands of the Syrians, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the Children of Ammon, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of Jehovah, which he spake by the hand of his servants the prophets. ³ Surely at the command of Jehovah came this upon Judah, to remove them from before his face, for the sins of Manassah, according to all that he did; ⁴ and also for the innocent blood that he shed; for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood; which Jehovah would not pardon.

⁸ JEHOIACHIN was eighteen years old when he began to reign [B.C. 600], and he reigned in Jerusalem three months. And his mother's name was Nehusta, the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem. ⁹ And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah, according to all that his father had done.

¹⁰ At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against Jerusalem, and the city was besieged. ¹¹ And Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came against the city, and his servants did besiege it. ¹² And Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he, and his mother, and his servants, and his princes, and his chamberlains; and the king of Babylon took him in the eighth year of his [Nebuchadnezzar's] reign. ¹³ And he carried out thence all the treasures of the House of Jehovah, and the treasures of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold which Solomon king of Israel had made in the Temple of Jehovah, as Jehovah had said. ¹⁴ And he carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the warriors of valour, even ten thousand captives, and all the carpenters and smiths. None remained, save the poorest sort of the people of the land. ¹⁵ And he carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon, and the king's mother, and the king's wives, and his chamberlains, and the mighty of the land, those carried he into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon. ¹⁶ And all the men of might, even seven thousand, and carpenters and smiths a thousand, all that were warriors apt for war, even them the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon. ¹⁷ And the king of Babylon made Mattaniah his father's brother king in his stead. And he changed his name to Zedekiah.

¹⁸ ZEDEKIAH was twenty and one years old when he began to reign [B.C. 599], and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. ¹⁹ And he did evil in the eyes of Jehovah, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. ²⁰ For through the anger of Jehovah it came to pass on Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

²⁵ And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign [B.C. 591], in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he, and all his army, against Jerusalem, and encamped against it. And they built a line of forts against it round about. ² And the city was besieged until the eleventh year of king Zedekiah [B.C. 589]. ³ And on the ninth day of the [fourth] month the famine prevailed in the city, and there was no bread for the people of the land. ⁴ Then the city was broken up, and all the men of war [fled] by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which is by the king's garden; (now the Chaldees were against the city round about;) and [Zedekiah] went by the way of the Barren Valley. ⁵ And the army of the Chaldees pursued after the king, and overtook him in the barren plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him. ⁶ Then they took the king, and brought him up to the king of Babylon to Riblah; and they gave judgment upon him. ⁷ And they slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes. And he put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him with fetters of copper, and carried him to Babylon.

¹³ And the pillars of copper that were in the House of Jehovah, and the basin-stands, and the copper water-cistern that was in the House of Jehovah, the Chaldees brake in pieces, and carried the copper of them to Babylon. ¹⁴ And the pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the [incense] ladles, and all the vessels of copper wherewith they ministered, took they away. ¹⁵ And of the censers, and the sprinkling buckets, of such as were of gold, the captain of the guard took away the gold, and of such as were of silver, the silver. ¹⁶ The two pillars, one water-cistern, and the basin-stands which Solomon had made for the House of Jehovah; the copper of all these vessels was without weight. ¹⁷ The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, and the capital upon it was copper; and the height of the capital three cubits; and the trellis-work, and pomegranates upon the capital round about, all of copper. And the second pillar had, like unto these, upon the trellis work.

¹⁸ And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the door. ¹⁹ And out of the city he took a chamberlain who had the charge of the men of war, and five men of them that waited upon the king's presence, who were found in the city, and the scribe the captain of the host, who mustered the people of the land, and sixty men of the people of the land that were found in the city. ²⁰ And Nebuzar-adan captain of the guard took these, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah. ²¹ And the king of Babylon smote them, and slew them at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away out of their land.

²² And as for the people that remained in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, even over them he made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, governor. ²³ And when all the captains of the armies, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, there came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah

the son of a Maachathite, they and their men. ²⁴ And Gedaliah sware to them, and to their men, and said to them, 'Fear not to be the servants of the Chaldees. Dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it will be well with you.' ²⁵ But it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the seed royal, came, and ten men with him, and smote Gedaliah, that he died, and the Jews and the Chaldees that were with him at Mizpah. ²⁶ And all the people, both small and great, and the captains of the armies, arose, and went to Egypt; for they were afraid of the Chaldees.

²⁷ AND IT CAME TO PASS in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah [B.C. 564], in the twelfth month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, that Evil-merodach king of Babylon, in the year that he began to reign, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah out of his prison. ²⁸ And he spake kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon; ²⁹ and changed his prison garments. And he did eat bread continually in his presence all the days of his life. ³⁰ And his allowance was a continual allowance given him from the king, a daily rate on its day, all the days of his life.

⁴³ Now these were the kings that reigned in THE LAND OF EDOM before any king reigned over the children of Israel; Bela the son of Beor. And the name of his city was Dinhabah.

⁴⁴ And when Bela was dead, Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his stead.

⁴⁵ And when Jobab was dead, Husham of the land of the Temanites reigned in his stead.

⁴⁶ And when Husham was dead, Hadad the son of Bedad, who smote Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in his stead. And the name of his city was Avith.

⁴⁷ And when Hadad was dead, Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his stead.

⁴⁸ And when Samlah was dead, Shaul of Rehoboth by the River reigned in his stead.

⁴⁹ And when Shaul was dead, Baal-hanan the son of Achbor reigned in his stead.

⁵⁰ And when Baal-hanan was dead, Hadad [1 Kings xi. 14] reigned in his stead; and the name of his city was Pai; and his wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab.

⁵¹ And Hadad died; and the princes of Edom were, the prince of Timnah, the prince of Aliah, the prince of Jetheth, ⁵² the prince of Aholibamah, the prince of Elah, the prince of Pinon, ⁵³ the prince of Kenaz, the prince of Teman, the prince of Mibzar, [or Petra], ⁵⁴ the prince of Magdiel, the prince of Iram. These were the princes of Edom.

2 These were the SONS OF ISRAEL;

Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun, ² Dan, Joseph, And Benjamin, Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.

³ THE SONS OF JUDAH were Er, and Onan, and Shelah; which three were born unto him of the daughter of Shua the Canaanitess. And Er, the firstborn of Judah, was evil in the sight of Jehovah; and he slew him. ⁴ And Tamar his daughter in law bare to him Pharez and Zarah. All the sons of Judah were five.

⁵ The sons of Pharez were Hezron, and Hamul. ⁶ (And the sons of Zarah were Zimri, and Ethan, and Heman, and Calcol, and Darda; five of them in all.

⁷ And the sons of Carmi were Achar [or Troubler], the troubler of Israel, who transgressed in the accursed thing.

⁸ And the sons of Ethan; Azariah.)

⁹ The sons also of Hezron, that were born unto him, were Jerahmeel, and Ram, and Calubi [or Caleb].

¹⁰ And Ram begat Amminadab; And Amminadab begat Nahshon, a prince of the children of Judah;

¹¹ And Nahshon begat Salma, and Salma begat Boaz,

¹² and Boaz begat Obed,

And Obed begat Jesse,

¹³ and Jesse begat his firstborn Eliab, and Abinadab the second, and Shimma the third, ¹⁴ Nethaneel the fourth, Raddai the fifth, ¹⁵ Ozem the sixth, David the seventh; ¹⁶ and their sisters were Zeruiah, and Abigail.

And the sons of Zeruiah were Abishai, and Joab, and Asahel, three. ¹⁷ And Abigail bare Amasa; and the father of Amasa was Jether the Ishmaelite.

¹⁸ And Caleb the son of Hezron begat children of Azubah his wife, and of Jerioth. And her sons are these; Jeshur, and Shobab, and Ardon. ¹⁹ And when Azubah was dead, Caleb took unto him Ephrath, who bare him Hur. ²⁰ And Hur begat Uri. And Uri begat Bezaleel.

²¹ And afterwards Hezron went in to the daughter of Machir the father of Gilead, whom he married when he was sixty years old; and she bare him Segub. ²² And Segub begat Jair, who had three and twenty cities in the land of Gilead,

²⁵ And the sons of Jerahmeel the firstborn of Hezron were, Ram the firstborn, and Bunah, and Oren, and Ozem, and Ahijah. ²⁶ Jerahmeel had also another wife, whose name was Atarah; she was the mother of Onam.

²⁷ And the sons of Ram the firstborn of Jerahmeel were, Maaz, and Jamin, and Eker. ²⁸ And the sons of Onam were, Shammai and Jada.

And the sons of Shammai were Nadab, and Abishur. ²⁹ And the name of the wife of Abishur was Abihail, and she bare him Ahban, and Molid.

³⁰ And the sons of Nadab were Seled, and Appaim; and Seled died without children.

³¹ And the sons of Appaim were Ishi.

And the sons of Ishi were Sheshan. And the children of Sheshan, Ahlai.

³² And the sons of Jada the brother of Shammai were Jether, and Jonathan; and Jether died without children. ³³ And the sons of Jonathan were Peleth, and Zaza. These were the sons of Jerahmeel.

³⁴ Now Sheshan had no sons, but daughters. And Sheshan had a servant, an Egyptian, whose name was Jarha. ³⁵ And Sheshan gave his daughter to Jarha his servant to wife; and she bare him Attai.

³⁶ And Attai begat Nathan, and Nathan begat Zabab,

³⁷ and Zabab begat Ephal, and Ephal begat Obed,

³⁸ and Obed begat Jehu, and Jehu begat Azariah,

³⁹ and Azariah begat Helez, and Helez begat Eleasah,

⁴⁰ and Eleasah begat Sisamai, and Sisamai begat Shallum,

⁴¹ and Shallum begat Jekamiah, and Jekamiah begat Elishama [2 Kings xxv. 25].

⁴² Now the sons of Caleb the brother of Jerahmeel were, Mesha his firstborn, who was the father of Ziph; and the sons of Moreshah the father of Hebron.—⁴³ And the sons of Hebron were Korah, and Tappuah, and Rekem, and Shema.—⁴⁴ And Shema begat Raham, the father of Jorkoam.— And Rekem begat Shammai.—⁴⁵ And the son of Shammai was Maon.—And Maon was the father of Beth-zur.

⁴⁶ And Ephah, Caleb's concubine, bare Haran, and Moza, and Gazez.—And Haran begat Gazez.—

⁴⁷ And the sons of Jahdai were Regem, and Jotham, and Geshan, and Pelet, and Ephah, and Shaaph.

⁴⁸ Maachah, Caleb's concubine, bare Sheber, and Tirhanah. ⁴⁹ She bare also Shaaph the father of Madmenah, Sheva the father of Machbenah, and the father of Gibeab; and the daughter of Caleb was Achsa.

⁵⁰ These were the sons of Caleb, the son of Hur, the firstborn of Ephratha; Shobal the father of the City of Jearim, ⁵¹ Salma the father of Beth-lehem, Hareph the father of Beth-gader.—⁵² And Shobal the father of the City of Jearim had sons; Haroeh, and half of the Manahethites. ⁵³ And the families of the City of Jearim were, the Ithrites, and the Puhites, and the Shumathites, and the Mishraites; of them came the Zorathites, and the Eshtaulites.—⁵⁴ The sons of Salma were Beth-lehem, and the Netophathites, Ataroth of the house of Joab and half of the Manahethites, the Zorites.

⁵⁵ And the families of the scribes that dwelt at Jabez were the Tirathites, the Shimeathites, and Suchathites. These were the Kenites [or Arabs] that came of Hemath, the father of the house of Rechab [or the chariot-drivers].

3 Now these were THE SONS OF DAVID, which were born to him in Hebron; the firstborn, Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess; the second, Daniel, of Abigail the Carmelitess; ² the third, Absalom the son of Maachah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur; the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith; ³ the fifth, Shephatiah of Abital; the sixth, Ithream by Eglah his wife. ⁴ These six were born to him in Hebron; and there he reigned seven years and six months; and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years.

⁵ And these were born to him in Jerusalem; Shimea, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomon, four of Bath-shua the daughter of Ammiel; ⁶ Ibhar also, and Elishama, and Eliphelet, ⁷ and Nogah, and Nopheg, and Japhia, ⁸ and Elishama, and Eliada, and Eliphelet, nine. ⁹ These were all the sons of David, beside the sons of the concubines, and Tamar their sister.

¹⁰ And Solomon's son was

¹⁵ And the sons of Josiah were, the firstborn Johanan, the second JEHOIAKIM [or Eliakim, B.C. 610—600], the third ZEDEKIAH [or Mattaniah, B.C. 599—589], the fourth SHALLUM [or Jehoahaz, B.C. 610].

¹⁶ And the sons of Jehoiakim; JECONIAH [or Jehoachin, B.C. 600] his son, Zedekiah his son.

¹⁷ And the sons of Jeconiah; Assir, Shealtiel his son,¹⁸ and Malchiram, and Pedaiah, and Shenazar, Jecamiah, Hoshama, and Nedabiah.

¹⁹ And the sons of Pedaiah were, ZERUBBABEL [or Shesh-bazzar, Ezra i. 8, B.C. 538], and Shimei.

And the sons of Zerubbabel were, Meshullam, and Hananiah, and Shelomith their sister,²⁰ and Hashubah [a sister], and Ohel, and Berechiah, and Hesediah who dwelt at Hesed, five.

²¹ And the sons of Hananiah were, Pelatiah, and Jesaiah; the sons of Rephaiah, the sons of Arnan, the sons of Obadiah, the sons of Shechaniah.

²² And the sons of Shechaniah; Shemaiah (and the sons of Shemaiah), Hattush [Ezra viii. 3, B.C. 476], and Igeal, and Bariah, and Neariah, and Shaphat, six.

²³ And the sons of Neariah; Elioenai, and Hezekiah, and Azrikam, three.

²⁴ And the sons of Elioenai were, Hodaiah, and Eliashib, and Pelaiah, and Akkub, and Johanan, and Dalaiah, and Anani, seven.

4 THE SONS OF JUDAH;

Pharez, Hezron [his son], and Carmi [or Caleb his son], and Hur [his son], and Shobal [his son].

² And Reaiah the son of Shobal begat Jahath; and Jahath begat Ahumai, and Lahad. These are the families of the Zorathites.

³ And these were of the father of Etam; Jezreel, and Ishma, and Idbash; and the name of their sister was Zeleponi; ⁴ and Penuel the father of Gedor, and Ezer the father of Hushah. These are the sons of Hur, the firstborn of Ephrathah, the father of Beth-lehem.

⁵ And Ashur the father of Tekoa had two wives, Helah and Naarah. ⁶ And Naarah bare to him Ahuzam, and Hopher, and the Temenites, and the Abashtarites. These were the sons of Naarah. ⁷ And the sons of Helah were, Zereth, and Jezoar, and Ethnan.

⁸ And Coz begat Anub, and Zobebah, and the families of Aharhel the son of Harum.

⁹ And Jabez was more honourable than his brethren; and his mother called his name Jabez, saying, 'Because I bare him with labour.' ¹⁰ And Jabez called on the God of Israel, saying, 'Oh that thou wouldst bless me indeed, and enlarge my boundary, and that thy hand might be with me, and that thou wouldst keep me from evil, that it may not make me sorrowful!' And God granted him that which he requested.

¹³ And the sons of Kenaz; Othniel, and Seraiah; and the sons of Othniel; Hathath. ¹⁴ And Meono-thai begat Ophrah. And Seraiah begat Joab, the father of the valley of Charashim [or Carpenters]; for they were carpenters.

¹⁵ And the sons of Caleb the son of Jephunneh; Iru, Elah, and Naam; the sons of Elah, even Kenaz.

¹⁶ And the sons of Jehaleleel; Ziph, and Ziphah, Tiria, and Asareel.

¹⁷ And the sons of EZRA were, Jether, and Merod, and Ephraim, and Jalon. And [Mered's wife] bare Miriam, and Shammai, and Ishbah the father of Eshtemoa. ¹⁸ And his wife the Jewess bare Jered the father of Gedor, and Heber the father of Socho, and Jekuthiel the father of Zanoah. ¹⁹ And these are the sons of Bithiah the daughter of a Pharaoh, whom Merod took; and the sons of his wife Hudiah [or the Jewess] the sister of Naham, were the father of Keilah the Garmite, and Eshtemoa the Maachathite.

²⁰ And the sons of Shimon were, Amnon, and Rinnah, Ben-hanai, and Tilon. And the sons of Ishi were, Zoheth, and Ben-zoheth.

²¹ The sons of Shelah the son of Judah were, Er the father of Lecah, and Laadah the father of Moreshah, and the families of the house of them that wrought fine linen at Beth-Ashbea, ²² and Jokim, and the men of Chozeba, and Joash, and Saraph, who were lords in Moab, and the inhabitants of Lehem. And in the ancient doings ²³ these were the potters, and those that dwelt in plantations and walled yards. There they dwelt for the king upon his work.

²⁴ THE SONS OF SIMEON were, Nemuel, and Jamin, Jarib, Zerach, and Shaul;

²⁵ Shallum his son, Mibsam his son, Mishma his son. ²⁶ And the sons of Mishma; Hamuel his son, Zacchur his son, Shimei his son.

³⁴ And Meshobab, and Jamlech, and Joshah the son of Amaziah, ³⁵ and Joel, and Jehu the son of Josibiah, the son of Seraiah, the son of Asiel, ³⁶ and Elioenai, and Jaakobah, and Jeshohaiah, and Asaiah, and Adiel, and Jesimiel, and Benaiah, ³⁷ and Zira, the son of Shiphi, the son of Allon,

 the son of Jedaiah,
 the son of Shimri,
 the son of Shimaiah [or Shimei]; ²³ these who came with names were princes in their families; and the house of their fathers was spread abroad greatly. ³⁹ And they went to the entrance of Geder, even to the east side of the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks. ⁴⁰ And they found fat pasture and good, and the land was wide in its sides, and quiet and peaceable; for men of Ham had dwelt there aforesaid. ⁴¹ And these written by name came in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and smote their tents, and the Maonites that were found there, and destroyed them utterly unto this day, and dwelt there in their stead; because there was pasture there for their flocks. ⁴² And some of these, even of the sons of Simeon, five hundred men, went to mount Seir, having for their captains Pelatiah, and Neariah, and Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi. ⁴³ And they smote the rest of the Amalekites that were escaped, and dwelt there unto this day.

5 And the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel, (for he was the firstborn; but, as he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph the son of Israel; and the genealogy is not to be reckoned after the birthright. ² For Judah became great above his brethren, and of him came the chief ruler; but the birth-right was Joseph's;) ³ the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel were, Hanoch, and Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.

⁴ The sons of Joel;

Shemaiah his son,

Gog his son,

Shimei his son,

⁵ Micah his son,

Reaia his son,

Baal his son,

⁶ Beerah his son, whom Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria carried away captive [B.C. 722]. He was prince of the Reubenites. ⁷ And his brethren by their families, when the genealogy was reckoned for their birth-book, were the chief, Jeeël, and Zechariah, ⁸ and Bela the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel, who dwelt in Aroer, even unto Nebo and Baal-maon; ⁹ and eastward he inhabited unto the entrance of the desert which reaches from the river Euphrates; because their cattle were multiplied in the land of Gilead. ¹⁰ And in the days of Saul they made war with the Hagarites, who fell by their hand. And they dwelt in their tents throughout all the land east of Gilead.

the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz; ¹⁵ Ahi the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, was chief of the house of their fathers. ¹⁶ And they dwelt in Gilead, in Bashan, and in its suburbs, and in all the pasture lands of Sharon, upon their borders. ¹⁷ All these were reckoned by genealogies in the days of Jotham king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam king of Israel.

¹⁸ The sons of Reuben, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, of valiant men, men able to bear shield and sword, and to aim with bow, and trained to war, were forty and four thousand seven hundred and sixty that went out to the army. ¹⁹ And they made war with the Hagarites, and Jetur [or the Itureans], and Nephish, and Nodab. ²⁰ And they were helped against them; and the Hagarites were delivered into their hand, and all that were with them; for they cried to God in the battle, and he was intreated towards them; because they put their trust in him. ²¹ And they took away their cattle; of their camels fifty thousand, and of sheep two hundred and fifty thousand, and of asses two thousand, and of men a hundred thousand souls. ²² For there fell down many slain, because the war was of God. And they dwelt there in their stead until the Captivity [B.C. 722].

²³ And the children of the half tribe of Manasseh dwelt in the land. They increased from Bashan unto Baal-hermon and Senir, and mount Hermon. ²⁴ And these were the heads of the house of their fathers, even Ephraim, and Ishi, and Eliel, and Azriel, and Jeremiah, and Hodaviah, and Jahdiel, warriors of valour, men of name, and heads of the house of their fathers. ²⁵ And they transgressed against the God of their fathers, and went astray after the gods of the people of the land, whom God destroyed from before them. ²⁶ And the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul king of Assyria, and the spirit of Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria, and he carried them away, even the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, and brought them to Halah [or Calah], and Habor, and Hara, and to the river Gozan, unto this day.

6 THE SONS OF LEVI were Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

² And the sons of Kohath; Amram, Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel.

³ And the children of Amram; Aaron, and Moses, and Miriam.

And the sons of Aaron; Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

⁴ Eleazar begat Phinehas,

⁴⁶ the son of Amzi,

the son of Bani,

the son of Shamer,

⁴⁷ the son of Mahli,

the son of Mushi,

the son of Merari,

the son of Levi.

⁴⁸ Their brethren also the Levites were appointed to all the service of the Tabernacle of the House of God.

⁴⁹ But Aaron and his sons burned incense upon the altar of the burnt offering, and on the altar of incense, for all the work of the Holy of Holies, and to make atonement for Israel, according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded.

⁵⁰ And these are the sons of Aaron ;

Eleazar his son,
Phinehas his son,
Abishua his son,
⁵¹ Bukki his son,
Uzzi his son,
Zerahiah his son,
⁵² Meraioth his son,
Amariah his son,
Ahitub, his son,
⁵³ Zadok his son,
Ahimaaz his son,

⁵⁴ And these are their dwelling places throughout their strongholds in their boundaries, for the sons of Aaron, of the families of the Kohathites ; for it was their lot. ⁵⁵ And they gave them Hebron in the land of Judah, and its pasture lands round about it. ⁵⁶ But the fields of the city, and its villages, they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh.

⁵⁷ And to the sons of Aaron they gave these cities [of Judah], Hebron for a refuge, and Libnah with its pasture lands, and Jattir, and Eshtemoa, with their pasture lands, ⁵⁸ and Hilan with its pasture lands, Debir with its pasture lands, ⁵⁹ and Ashan with its pasture lands, and Beth-shemesh with its pasture lands ;

⁶⁰ and out of the tribe of Benjamin, Geba with its pasture lands, and Alemeth with its pasture lands, and Anathoth with its pasture lands. All their cities among their families were thirteen cities.

⁶¹ And to the sons of Kohath, who were left of the family of that tribe, were given out of the Half Tribe, namely, the half of Manasseh, by lot, ten cities.

⁶² And to the sons of Gershom for their families out of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities.

⁶⁵ And they gave by lot out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, and out of the tribe of the children of Benjamin, these cities which have been mentioned by name.

⁶⁶ And some of the families of the sons of Kohath had cities and their boundaries out of the tribe of Ephraim. ⁶⁷ And they gave to them as cities, Shechem, in the hill country of Ephraim, with its pasture lands for a refuge, and Gezer with its pasture lands,

⁶⁸ and Jokmeam with its pasture lands, and Beth-horon with its pasture lands, ⁶⁹ and Ajalon with its pasture lands, and Gath-rimmon with its pasture lands ;

⁷⁰ and out of the Half Tribe of Manasseh, Aner with its pasture lands, and Bileam with its pasture lands, for the remaining families of the sons of Kohath.

⁷² and out of the tribe of Issachar, Kedesh with its pasture lands, Daberath with its pasture lands, ⁷³ and Ramoth with its pasture lands, and Anem with its pasture lands ;

⁷⁴ And out of the tribe of Asher, Mashal with its pasture lands, and Abdon with its pasture lands, ⁷⁵ and Hukok with its pasture lands, and Rehob with its pasture lands ;

⁷⁶ and out of the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galilee with its pasture lands, and Hammon with its pasture lands, and Kirjathaim with its pasture lands.

⁷⁷ To the rest of the children of Merari were given out of the tribe of Zebulun, Rimmon with its pasture lands, Tabor with its pasture lands ;

⁸⁰ and out of the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead with its pasture lands, and Mahanaim with its pasture lands, ⁸¹ and Heshbon with its pasture lands, and Jazer with its pasture lands.

7 NOW THE SONS OF ISSACHAR WERE Tola, and Puah, Jashub, and Shimron, four.

² And the sons of Tola ; Uzzi, and Rephaiah, and Jeriel, and Jahmai, and Jibsam, and Shemuel, heads of their father's house, to wit, of Tola ; they were warriors of might, whose number in their birth-book was in the days of David two and twenty thousand and six hundred.

⁶ OF BENJAMIN WERE Bela, and Becher, and Jediel, three. ⁷ And the sons of Bela ; Ezbon, and Uzzi, and Uzziel, and Jerimoth, and Iri, five; heads of the house of their fathers, warriors of valour; and they were reckoned by their genealogies twenty and two thousand and thirty and four. ⁸And the sons of Becher; Zemira, and Joash, and Eliezer, and Elieoenai, and Omri, and Jerimoth, and Abiah, and Anathoth, and Alameth. All these are the sons of Becher. ⁹And they were reckoned by their genealogy after their birth-book, heads of the house of their fathers, warriors of valour, twenty thousand and two hundred. ¹⁰The sons also of Jediel; Bilhan; and the sons of Bilhan; Jeush, and Benjamin, and Ehud, and Chenaanah, and Zethan, and Tharshish, and Ahishahar. ¹¹All these the sons of Jediel, by the heads of their fathers, warriors of valour, were seventeen thousand and two hundred, fit to go out to war for battle. ¹²Shuppim also, and Huppim, the sons of Ir; Hushin, the sons of Aher.

¹³THE SONS OF NAPHTALI were Jahziel, and Guni, and Jezer, and Shallum, the sons of Bilhah.

¹⁴THE SONS OF MANASSEH were Ashriel, whom [his wife] bare; (but his concubine the Syrian bare Machir the father of Gilead.) ¹⁵And Machir took to wife the sister of Huppim and Shuppim, whose name was Maachah. And the name of the second was Zelophehad. And Zelophehad had daughters. ¹⁶And Maachah the wife of Machir bare a son, and she called his name Peresh; and the name of his brother was Sheresh. And his sons were Ulam and Rakem. ¹⁷And the sons of Ulam; Bedan. These were the sons of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh. ¹⁸And his sister Moleketh bare Ishod, and Abiezer, and Mahalah.—¹⁹And the sons of Shemidah were Ahian, and Shechem, and Likhi, and Aniam.

²⁰And THE SONS OF EPHRAIM were Shuthelah, (and Bered was his son, and Tahath his son, and Eladah his son, and Tahath his son, ²¹and Zabad his son, and Shuthelah his son,) and Ezer, and Elead. And them the men of Gath that were born in that land slew, because they came down to take away their cattle. ²²And Ephraim their father mourned many days, and his brethren came to comfort him. ²³And when he went in to his wife, she conceived, and bare a son, and he called his name Beriah [or In Evil], because it went evil with his house. ²⁴(And his daughter was Sherah, who built Beth-horon the Lower, and the Upper, and Uzzen-sheerah.)

²⁵And Rephah was his son, also Resheph, and Telah his son,

and Tahan his son,
²⁶Laadan his son,
Ammihud his son,
Elishama his son,
²⁷Nun his son,
Joshua his son,

²⁸And their possessions and dwellings were, Beth-el and its suburbs, and eastward Naaran, and westward Gezer, with its suburbs; Shechem also and its suburbs, unto Ai and its suburbs; ²⁹and by the side of the sons of Manasseh, Bethshean and its suburbs, Taanach and its suburbs, Megiddo and its suburbs, Dor and its suburbs. In these dwelt the children of Joseph the son of Israel.

³⁰THE SONS OF ASHER were Imnah, and Isuah, and Ishuai, and Beriah, and Serah their sister.

³¹And the sons of Beriah were Heber, and Malchiel, who was the father of Birzavith.

³²And Heber begat Japhlet, and Shomer, and Hotham, and Shua their sister.

³³And the sons of Japhlet were Pasach, and Bimhal, and Ashvath. These were the sons of Japhlet.—³⁴And the sons of Shomer his brother were Rohgah, Jehubbah, and Aram.—³⁵And the sons of his brother Helem were Zophah, and Imna, and Shelesh, and Amal.

³⁶The sons of Zophah; Suah, and Harnepher, and Shual, and Beri, and Imrah, ³⁷Bezer, and Hod, and Shamma, and Shilshah, and Ithran, and Beera.—

³⁸And the sons of Jether; Jephunneh, and Pispah, and Ara.—³⁹And the sons of Ulla; Arah, and Haniel and Rezia.—⁴⁰All these were the sons of Asher, heads of their father's house, choice warriors of valour, chief of the princes. And the number throughout the genealogy of them that were apt to the war and to battle was twenty and six thousand men.

8 And BENJAMIN BEGAT Bela his firstborn, Ashbel the second, and Aharah the third, ²Nohah the fourth, and Rapha the fifth. ³And the sons of Bela were Addar, and Gera, and Abihud, ⁴and Abishua, and Naaman, and Ahoah, ⁵and Gera, and Shephuphan, and Huram.

⁶And these were the sons of Ehud [the son of Gera]; these were the heads of the fathers of the inhabitants of Geba, and they removed them to Manabeth, ⁷even Naaman, and Ahiah, and Gera; he removed these, and begat Uzza, and Ahihud.

⁸And he early begat children in the country of Moab, after he had sent them away. Hushim and Baara were his wives. ⁹And he begat Hodesh his wife, Jobab, and Zibia, and Mesha, and Malcham, ¹⁰and Jeuz, and Shachia, and Mirma. These were his sons, heads of the fathers. ¹¹And of Hushim he begat Abitub, and Elpaal.

¹²The sons of Elpaal; Eber, and Misham, and Shamer, who built Ono, and Lydda, with their suburbs; ¹³Beriah also, and Shema, who were heads of the fathers of the inhabitants of Ajalon, who drove away the inhabitants of Gath; ¹⁴and their brethren were Shashak, and Jeremoth.—¹⁵And Zebadiah, and Arad, and Ader, ¹⁶and Michael, and Ispah, and Joha, were the sons of Beriah; ¹⁷and Zebadiah, and Meshullam, and Hezeki, and Heber, ¹⁸and Ishmerai, and Jezliah, and Jobab, were the sons of Elpaal; ¹⁹and Jikmai, and Zichri, and Zabdi, ²⁰and Elienai, and Zilthai, and Elich, ²¹and Adnah, and Beraiah, and Shimrath, were the sons of Shemai [or Shema]; ²²and

Ishpan, and Heber, and Eliel,²³ and Abdon, and Zichri, and Hanan,²⁴ and Hananiah, and Elam, and Anthothijah,²⁵ and Iphedeiah, and Penuel, were the sons of Shashak;—²⁶and Shamsberai, and Shehariah, and Athaliah,²⁷ and Jaresiah, and Eliah, and Zichri, were the sons of Jeroham [or Jeremoth].²⁸ These were heads of the fathers after their birth-book, chief men. These dwelt in Jerusalem.

²⁹ And in Gibeon dwelt the father of Gibeon whose wife's name was Maachah; ³⁰ and his first-born son Abdon, and then Zur, and Kish, and Baal, [and Ner], and Nadab,³¹ and Gedor, and Ahio, [and Mikloth,] and Zacher [or Zechariah].

³² And Mikloth begat Shimeah. (And they also dwelt with their brethren in Jerusalem, over against their brethren.)

³³ And Ner begat Kish; and Kish begat SAUL; and Saul begat Jonathan, and Malchi-shua, and Abinadab, and ISH-BAAL [2 Sam. ii. 8];

³⁴ and the son of Jonathan was Merib-baal [2 Sam. iv. 4];

and Merib-baal begat Micah; ³⁵ and the sons of Micah were, Pithon, and Melech, and Terea, and Ahaz;

³⁶ and Ahaz begat Jehoadah; and Jehoadah begat Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri;

and Zimri begat Moza;

³⁷ and Moza begat Binea;

Rapha was his son;

Eleasah his son;

Azel his son; ³⁸ and Azel had six sons, whose names are these, Azrikam his firstborn, and Ishmael, and Sheariah, and Obadiah, and Hanan. All these were the sons of Azel.—³⁹ And the sons of Eshkek his brother were Ulam his firstborn, Jehush the second, and Eliphelet the third.

⁴⁰ And the sons of Ulam were warriors of valour, archers, and had many sons, and sons' sons, a hundred and fifty. All these were of the sons of Benjamin.

9 So all Israel were reckoned by genealogies. And behold, such as had been carried away to Babylon for their transgression were written in the Book of the kings of Israel and Judah,² even the former inhabitants that were in their possessions in their cities, the Israelites, the priests, the Levites, and the Nethins [or Temple-servants]. [B.C. 537.]

³ And in Jerusalem there dwelt some of the children of Judah and some of the children of Benjamin, and some of the children of Ephraim, and Manasseh; ⁴ Uthai the son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, of the children of Pharez the son of Judah; ⁵ and of the Shilonites; Asaiah the firstborn, and his sons; ⁶ and of the sons of Zarah; Jeuel, and their brethren, six hundred and ninety;—⁷ and of the sons of Benjamin; Sallu, the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Hosenuah, and Ibneiah the son of Jeroham, and Elah the son of Uzzi, the son of Michri, and Meshullam the son of Shephathiah, the son of Reuel, the son of Ibnijah; ⁸ and their brethren, according to their birth-book, nine hundred and fifty-six. All these men were chief of the fathers in the house of their fathers.

¹⁰ And of the Priests; Jedaiah, and Jehoiarib, and Jachin; ¹¹ and Azariah [1 Chron. vi. 14] the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the ruler of the House of God; ¹² and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashur, the son of Malchijah, and Maasiai the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer; ¹³ and their brethren, heads of the house of their fathers, a thousand and seven hundred and sixty; very able men for the work of the service of the House of God.

¹⁴ And of the Levites; Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari; ¹⁵ and Bakbakkar, Heresh, and Galal, and Mattaniah the son of Micah, the son of Zichri, the son of Asaph; ¹⁶ and Obadiah the son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthan, and Berechiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, that dwelt in the villages of the Netophathites. ¹⁷ And the gate-keepers were Shallum, and Akkub, and Talmon, and Ahiman, and their brethren; Shallum was the chief, ¹⁸ who hitherto waited at the east side of the king's gate. These sons of Levi were gate-keepers in the camps [or courts]. ¹⁹ And Shallum the son of Core, the son of Abiasaph, the son of Korah, and his brethren, of the house of his father, the Korahites, were over the work of the service, door-keepers of the Tent [or House]; and their fathers, being over the camp [or court] of Jehovah, were chief of the entry. ²⁰ And Phinehas the son of Eleazar had been the ruler over them in time past, and Jehovah was with him. ²¹ And Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was gate-keeper of the entrance of the Tent of Meeting. ²² All these who were chosen to be gate-keepers at the gates were two hundred and twelve. These were reckoned by their genealogy in their villages, whom David and Samuel the seer had ordained in their office of trust. ²³ So they and their sons had the charge of the gates of the House of Jehovah, namely the House of the Tent, by watches. ²⁴ At the four quarters were the gate-keepers, toward the east, west, north, and south. ²⁵ And their brethren, who were in their villages, were to come after seven days from time to time with them. ²⁶ For in this office of trust there were these Levites, the four chief gate-keepers; and they were over the chambers and treasuries of the House of God.

²⁷ And they lodged round about the House of God because the charge was upon them, and the opening thereof every morning belonged to them. ²⁸ And some of them had the charge of the vessels of the service, that they should bring them in by tale, and carry them away by tale. ²⁹ Some of them also were appointed over the vessels, and all the instruments of the Holy Place, and over the fine flour, and the wine, and the oil, and the frankincense, and the spices. ³⁰ And some of the sons of the priests mixed the ointment of spices. ³¹ And Mattithiah, one of the Levites, who was the firstborn of Shallum the Korahite, was in the office of trust over the things that were made in the pans. ³² And other of their brethren, of the sons of the Kohathites, were over the Ceremonial Bread, to prepare it every sabbath. ³³ And as to these matters the singers, the chiefs of the fathers of the Levites, who remained in the chambers were free; for they were employed on their work day and night. ³⁴ These chief fathers of the Levites were chief according to their birth-book; these dwelt at Jerusalem.

³⁵ And in Gibeon dwelt the father of Gibeon, Jehiel, whose wife's name was Maachah; ³⁶ and his firstborn son was Abdon, then Zur, and Kish, and Baal, and Ner, and Nadab, ³⁷ and Gedor, and Ahio, and Zechariah, and Mikloth. ³⁸ And Mikloth begat Shimeam. (And they also dwelt with their brethren in Jerusalem, over against their brethren.)

³⁹ And Ner begat Kish [1 Sam. ix. 1]; and Kish begat Saul;—and Saul begat Jonathan, and Malchishua, and Abinadab, and Ish-baal;

⁴⁰ and the son of Jonathan was Merib-baal; and Merib-baal begat Micah;—⁴¹ and the sons of Micah were

Pithon, and Melech, and Tahrea, [and Ahaz];

⁴² and Ahaz begat Jarah;

and Jarah begat Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri;

and Zimri begat Moza;

⁴³ and Moza begat Binea;

and Rephaiah was his son;

Eleasah his son;

⁴⁴ Azel his son; and Azel had six sons, whose names are these, Azrikam his firstborn, and Ishmael, and Sheariah, and Obadiah, and Hanan; these were the sons of Azel.

10 NOW THE PHILISTINES fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down slain in the hill country of Gilboa. ² And the Philistines followed hard after Saul, and after his sons; and the Philistines slew Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchishua, the sons of Saul. ³ And the battle went sore against Saul, and the archers hit him, and he was wounded by the archers. ⁴ Then said Saul to his armour-bearer, 'Draw thy sword, and thrust me through there-with; lest these uncircumcised come and make sport of me.' But his armour-bearer would not; for he was sore afraid. So Saul took the sword, and fell upon it. ⁵ And when his armour-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise on the sword, and died. ⁶ So Saul died, and his three sons, and all his house died together. ⁷ And when all the men of Israel that were in the valley saw that they fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, then they forsook their cities and fled; and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

⁸ And it came to pass on the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen in the hill country of Gilboa. ⁹ And when they had stripped him, they took his head, and his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to carry good tidings to their idols and to the people. ¹⁰ And they put his armour in the house of their gods, and fastened his skull in the temple of Dagon.

¹¹ And all Jabesh in Gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul; ¹² and they arose, all the valiant men, and took away the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven days. ¹³ So Saul died for his transgression which he committed against Jehovah, even against the word of Jehovah, which he kept not, and also for asking counsel of a speaking bottle [or ventriloquist], to inquire of it; ¹⁴ and he inquired not of Jehovah; therefore He slew him, and turned the kingdom [of Judah] unto David the son of Jesse [B.C. 1016].

11 Then all Israel gathered themselves to DAVID unto Hebron, saying, 'Behold, we are thy bone and thy flesh.' ² And moreover in time past, 'even when Saul was king, thou wast he that leddest out and broughtest in Israel; and Jehovah thy God said to thee, Thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be ruler over my people Israel.' ³ Therefore came all the elders of Israel to the king to Hebron; and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before Jehovah; and they anointed David king over Israel [B.C. 1008], according to the word of Jehovah by the hand of Samuel.

⁴ And David and all Israel went to Jerusalem which is Jebus; where the Jebusites were, the inhabitants of the land. ⁵ And the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, 'Thou shalt not come hither.' Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion, which is the city of David. ⁶ And David said, 'Whosoever smiteth the Jebusites first shall be chief and captain.' So Joab the son of Zeruiah went first up, and he became chief. ⁷ And David dwelt in the stronghold; therefore they called it the city of David. ⁸ And he built the city round about, even from Millo [for the castle] round about; and Joab repaired the rest of the city. ⁹ So David waxed greater and greater; for Jehovah of hosts was with him.

¹⁰ These also are the CHIEFS OF THE WARRIORS whom David had, who strengthened themselves with him in his kingdom, and with all Israel, to make him king, according to the word of Jehovah concerning Israel. ¹¹ And this is the list of the warriors whom David had; Jashobeam the son of Hachmoni, the chief of the chiefs-of-three [or chariot warriors]; he lifted up his spear against three hundred slain by him at one time. ¹² And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, who was one of the three warriors. ¹³ He was with David at Pas-dammim, and there the Philistines were gathered together to battle, where was a parcel of ground full of barley; and the people fled from before the Philistines. ¹⁴ And they set themselves in the midst of that parcel, and delivered it, and slew the Philistines; and Jehovah saved them by a great deliverance. ¹⁵ Now three of the thirty captains went down to the rock to David, into the cave near Adullam; and the camp of the Philistines was pitched in the Valley of Giants. ¹⁶ And David was then in the stronghold, and the Philistines' garrison was then at Beth-lehem. ¹⁷ And David longed, and said, 'Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, that is at the city gate!' ¹⁸ And the three brake through the camp of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the city gate, and took it, and brought it to David. But David would not drink it, but poured it out to Jehovah, ¹⁹ and said, 'May my God forbid it me, that I should do this thing. Shall I drink the blood of these men with their lives? for with their lives have they brought it.' Therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three warriors. ²⁰ And Abishai the brother of Joab, he was chief of the three; for lifting up his spear against three hundred, he slew them, and had a name among the three. ²¹ Of the three, he was more honourable than the two; for he was their captain.

²² And unto the three attained not Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, who had done many acts. He slew two lion-like men of Moab; also he went down and slew the lion in a pit on a snowy day. ²³ And he slew the Egyptian, a man of great stature, five cubits high; and in the Egyptian's hand was a spear like a weaver's beam; and he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him with his own spear. ²⁴ These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and had a name among the three warriors. ²⁵ Behold, he was honourable above the thirty, but attained not to the three; and David set him over his counsel.

²⁶ Also the warriors of the armies were, Asahel the brother of Joab [2 Sam. ii. 18], Elhanan the son of Dodo of Beth-lehem,

²⁷ Shammoth the Harorite,

Helez the Pelonite,

²⁸ Ira the son of Ikesh the Tekoite,

Abiezer the Antothite,

²⁹ Sibbecai the Hushathite,

Ithai the Ahohite,

³⁰ Maharai the Netophathite,

Heled the son of Baanan the Netophathite,

³¹ Ithai the son of Ribai, of Gibeah of the sons of Benjamin,

Benaiah the Pirathonite,

³² Hurai of the valleys of Gaash,

Abiel the Arabathite,

³³ Azmaveth the Baharumite,

Eliabha the Shaalbonite,

³⁴ the sons of Hashem the Gizonite,

Jonathan the son of Shage the Hararite,

³⁵ Ahiam the son of Sacar the Hararite,

Eliphal the son of Ur,

³⁶ Hephher the Mecherathite,

Ahijah the Pelonite,

³⁷ Hezro the Carmelite,

Naarai the son of Ezbai,

³⁸ Joel the brother of Nathan,

Mibhar the son of a Hagarite,

³⁹ Zelek the Ammonite,

Naharai the Berothite, the armour-bearer of Joab

the son of Zeruiah,

⁴⁰ Ira the Ithrite,

Gareb the Ithrite,

⁴¹ Uriah the Hittite [2 Sam. xi. 3],

Zabad the son of Ahlai,

⁴² Adina the son of Shiza the Reubenite, a chief of the Reubenites, and thirty with him,

⁴³ Hanan the son of Maachah, and Joshaphat the Mithnite,

⁴⁴ Uzzia the Ashterathite,

Shama and Jehiel the sons of Hotham the Arerite,

⁴⁵ Jedial the son of Shimri, and Joha his brother, the Tizite,

⁴⁶ Eliel the Mahavite,

and Jeribai, and Joshaviah, the sons of Elnaam,

and Ithmah the Moabite,

⁴⁷ Eliel, and Obed, and Jasiel the Mesobaite.

12 Now these are THEY THAT CAME TO DAVID to Ziklag, while he yet kept himself close because of Saul the son of Kish; and they were among the warriors, helpers of the war. ² They were armed with bows, and could use both the right hand and the left for stones and for arrows out of a bow. They were of Saul's brethren of Benjamin. ³ The chief were Ahiezer and Joash, the sons of Shemaiah the Gibeathite; and Jeziel, and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth; and Berachah, and Jehu the Antothite, ⁴ and Ismaiah the Gibeonite, a warrior among the thirty, and over the thirty; and Jeremiah, and Jahaziel, and Johanan, and Josabad the Gederathite, ⁵ Eluzai, and Jerimoth, and Baaliah, and Shemariah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite, ⁶ Elkanah, and Jesiah, and Azareel, and Joezer, and Jashobeam, the Korahites, ⁷ and Joelah, and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham of Gedor.

⁸ And of the Gadites there separated themselves unto David, into the stronghold to the desert, warriors of might, and men of war fit for the battle, that could handle shield and spear, whose faces were like the faces of lions, and were as roes upon the mountains for swiftness;

⁹ Ezer the first,

Eliel the seventh,

Obadiah the second,

¹² Johanan the eighth,

Eliab the third,

Elzabad the ninth,

¹⁰ Mishmannah the fourth, ¹³ Jeremiah the tenth,

Jeremiah the fifth,

Machbanai the eleventh.

¹¹ Attai the sixth,

¹⁴ These were of the sons of Gad, chiefs of the host; one of the least was as good as a hundred, and the greatest as a thousand. ¹⁵ These are they that crossed over the Jordan in the first month, when it had overflowed all its banks; and they put to flight all them of the valley, both toward the east, and toward the west.

¹⁶ And there came some of the sons of Benjamin and Judah to the stronghold unto David. ¹⁷ And David went out to meet them, and answered and said to them, 'If ye be come peaceably to me to help me, my heart shall become one with you; but if ye be come to betray me to mine enemies, seeing there is no wrong in my hands, may the God of our fathers look thereon, and rebuke it.'

¹⁸ Then the spirit came over Amasai, the chief of the chiefs-of-three, [and he said,] 'Peace be to thee, O David, and with thee, O son of Jesse; peace be to thee, and peace be to thy helpers; for thy God is thy helper.' Then David received them, and made them captains of the troop.

¹⁹ And there revolted some of Manasseh to David, when he came with the Philistines against Saul to battle. (But he helped them not; for the lords of the Philistines upon advice sent him away, saying, 'He will revolt to his master Saul against our heads.')

²⁰ As he went to Ziklag, there revolted to him from Manasseh, Adnah, and Jozabad, and Jediael, and Michael, and Jozabad, and Elihu, and Zilthai, chiefs of the thousands that were of Manasseh.

²¹ And they helped David against the troop [of Amalekites]; for they were all warriors of valour, and were captains in the host. ²² For at that time day by day they came to David to help him, until they were a great camp, like a camp of God.

²³ And these are the NUMBERS OF THE CHIEFS that were ready armed to the war, and came to David to Hebron, to turn the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the command of Jehovah.

²⁴ The sons of Judah that bare shield and spear were six thousand and eight hundred, ready armed to the war.

²⁵ Of the sons of Simeon, warriors of valour for the war, seven thousand and one hundred.

²⁶ Of the sons of Levi four thousand and six hundred.

²⁷ And Jehoiada was the leader of the Aaronites, and with him were three thousand and seven hundred; ²⁸ and Zadok, a young warrior of valour, and of his father's house twenty and two captains.

²⁹ And of the sons of Benjamin, the brethren of Saul, three thousand; for hitherto the greatest part of them had kept guard over the house of Saul.

³⁰ And of the sons of Ephraim twenty thousand and eight hundred, warriors of valour, men of name throughout the house of their fathers.

³¹ And of the Half Tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, who were appointed by name, to come and make David king.

³² And of the sons of Issachar, who had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do; the heads of them were two hundred; and all their brethren were at their command.

³³ Of Zebulun, such as went forth to battle, trained to war, with all instruments of war, fifty thousand, who could keep rank; they were not of double heart.

³⁴ And of Naphtali a thousand captains, and with them thirty and seven thousand with shield and spear.

³⁵ And of the Danites trained to war twenty and eight thousand and six hundred.

³⁶ And of Asher, such as went forth to battle, trained to war, forty thousand.

³⁷ And from the other side of the Jordan, of the Reubenites, and of the Gadites, and of the Half Tribe of Manasseh, with all instruments of war for the battle, a hundred and twenty thousand.

³⁸ All these men of war, that could keep rank, came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over all Israel; and all the rest also of Israel were of one heart to make David king.

³⁹ And they were there with David three days, eating and drinking; for their brethren had prepared for them. ⁴⁰ Moreover they that were friendly to them, even as far as Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, brought bread on asses, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen, and as food, meal, cakes of figs, and cakes of raisins, and wine, and oil, and oxen, and sheep abundantly; for there was joy in Israel.

¹³ And David consulted with the captains of thousands and hundreds, and with every leader.

² And David said to all the assembly of Israel, 'If it seem good to you, and it be of Jehovah our God, let us send abroad to our brethren every where, that are left in all the land of Israel, and with them also to the priests and Levites who are in the cities of their pasture lands, that they may gather themselves unto us; ³ and let us bring round the Ark of our God to us; for we inquired not at it in the days of Saul.' ⁴ And all the assembly said that they would do so; for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

⁵ So David assembled all Israel together, from the Shihor [or Nile] of Egypt even unto the Pass of Hamath, to bring the Ark of God from the city of Jearim. ⁶ And David went up, and all Israel, to Baalath, to the City of Jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up thence the Ark of God, of Jehovah who dwelleth between the cherubs, by whose name it is called. ⁷ And they carried the Ark of God in a new cart out of the house of Abinadab; and Uzza and his brother drove the cart. ⁸ And David and all Israel played before God with all their might, and with singing, and with harps, and with psalteries, and with timbrels, and with cymbals, and with trumpets.

⁹ And when they came to the threshing-floor of Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold the Ark; for the oxen stumbled. ¹⁰ And the anger of Jehovah was kindled against Uzza, and he smote him, because he put his hand to the Ark; and there he died before God. ¹¹ And David was displeased because Jehovah had made a breach upon

Uzza; wherefore that place is called Perez-uzza [or the Breach of Uzza] to this day. ¹² And David was afraid of God that day, saying, 'How shall I bring the Ark of God home to me?' ¹³ So David removed not the Ark to himself to the city of David, but carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite. ¹⁴ And the Ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house three months. And Jehovah blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that he had.

⁸ And when the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David. And David heard of it, and went out against them. ⁹ And the Philistines came and spread themselves in the valley of Giants. ¹⁰ And David inquired of God, saying, 'Shall I go up against the Philistines? and wilt thou deliver them into my hand?' And Jehovah said to him, 'Go up; for I will deliver them into thy hand.' ¹¹ So they came up to Baal-perezim; and David smote them there. Then David said, 'God hath broken in upon mine enemies by my hand like the breaking forth of waters.' Therefore they called the name of that place Baal-perezim [or — of Breaking forth]. ¹² And they had left their gods there; and David gave a command, and they were burned with fire.

¹³ And the Philistines yet again spread themselves abroad in the valley. ¹⁴ Therefore David inquired again of God; and God said to him, 'Go not up after them; go round away from them, and come upon them over against the balsam trees.' ¹⁵ And it shall be, when thou shalt hear a sound of marching on the tops of the balsam trees, that then thou shalt go out to battle; for God is gone forth before thee to smite the camp of the Philistines.' ¹⁶ David therefore did as God commanded him; and they smote the camp of the Philistines from Gibeon even to Gezer. ¹⁷ And the name of David went out into all lands; and Jehovah brought the fear of him upon all the nations.

¹⁸ And [David] made for himself houses in the city of David, and prepared a place for the Ark of God, and pitched for it a tent. ² Then David said, 'None ought to carry the Ark of God but the Levites; for them hath Jehovah chosen to carry the Ark of God, and to minister unto him for 'ever.' ³ And David assembled all Israel in Jerusalem, to bring up the Ark of Jehovah to its place, which he had prepared for it. ⁴ And David gathered together the sons of Aaron, and the Levites; ⁵ Of the sons of Kohath; Uriel the chief, and his brethren a hundred and twenty; ⁶ Of the sons of Merari; Asaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred and twenty; ⁷ Of the sons of Gershon; Joel the chief, and his brethren a hundred and thirty; ⁸ Of the sons of Elizaphan; Shemaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred; ⁹ Of the sons of Hebron; Eliel the chief, and his brethren eighty; ¹⁰ Of the sons of Uzziel; Amminadab the chief, and his brethren a hundred and twelve.

¹¹ And David called for Zadok and Abiathar the Priests, and for the Levites, Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab. ¹² And he said to them, 'Ye are the chief of the fathers of the Levites; sanctify yourselves, both ye and your brethren, that ye may bring up the Ark of Jehovah the God of Israel to the place that I have prepared for it. ¹³ For because ye did it not at the first, Jehovah our God made a breach upon us, for that we sought him not after the due order.' ¹⁴ So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the Ark of Jehovah the God of Israel. ¹⁵ And the sons of the Levites bare the Ark of God upon their shoulders with the staves thereon, as Moses had commanded according to the word of Jehovah. ¹⁶ And David spake to the chief of the Levites to appoint their brethren to be the singers with instruments of music, psalteries and harps and cymbals, who should sound by lifting up the voice with joy. ¹⁷ So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel; and of his brethren, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari their brethren, Ethan the son of Kushaiah; ¹⁸ and with them their brethren of the second degree, Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, the gate-keepers. ¹⁹ And the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were appointed to sound with cymbals of copper; ²⁰ and Zechariah, and Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with psalteries as for female voices; ²¹ and Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, and Azariah, with harps on the [lower] octave, to be chiefs. ²² And Chenaniah was chief of the Levites in leading the song; he instructed in leading the song, because he was skilful. ²³ And Berechiah and Elkanah were gate-keepers for the Ark. ²⁴ And Shebaniah, and Jehoshaphat, and Nethaneel, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, did blow with the trumpets before the Ark of God; and Obed-edom and Jehiah were gate-keepers for the Ark.

²⁵ So David and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah out of the house of Obed-edom with joy. ²⁶ And it came to pass, when God helped the Levites that bare the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah, that they sacrificed seven bullocks and seven rams. ²⁷ And David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites that bare the Ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the master in leading the song with the singers. David also had upon him an Ephod [or priestly dress] of linen. ²⁸ Thus all Israel brought up the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah with shouting, and with sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, making a noise with psalteries and harps.

²⁹ And it came to pass, as the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah came to the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looking out at a window saw king David skipping about and playing; and she despised him in her heart.

¹⁶ So they brought the Ark of God, and set it in the midst of the Tent that David had pitched for it; and they brought burnt offerings and peace offerings before God. ² And when David had made an end of offering up the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of Jehovah. ³ And he dealt to every one of Israel, both man and woman, to every one a circular loaf of bread, and a measure [of wine], and a raisin cake. ⁴ And he appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the Ark of Jehovah, and to make mention of the doings, and to give thanks, and to speak the praises of Jehovah the God of Israel; ⁵ Asaph, the chief, and next to him Zechariah, Jehiel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Matthiah, and Eliab, and Benaiah, and Obed-edom; and Jehiel with psalteries and with harps. And Asaph made a sound with cymbals; ⁶ and Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests with trumpets, continually before the Ark of the Covenant of God.

⁷ Then first on that day David delivered [this psalm] to thank Jehovah into the hand of Asaph and his brethren.

⁸ Give thanks unto Jehovah, call upon his name, Make known his deeds among the peoples.

⁹ Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him, Meditate ye on all his wondrous works.

¹⁰ Glory ye in his holy name; Let the heart of them rejoice that seek Jehovah.

¹¹ Seek Jehovah and his strength, Seek his face continually.

¹² Remember his marvellous works that were done, His wonders, and the judgments of his mouth.

¹³ O ye seed of Israel his servant, Ye children of Jacob, his chosen ones.

¹⁴ He is Jehovah our God; His judgments are on all the earth.

¹⁵ Remember his covenant for ever, The word which he commanded to a thousand generations,

¹⁶ Which he bargained with Abraham,

And swore unto Isaac.

¹⁷ And he confirmed the same to Jacob for a statute, To Israel for an everlasting covenant, ¹⁸ saying, 'Unto thee I give the land of Canaan, 'For the lines of your inheritance;'

¹⁹ While ye were small in number, A few, and strangers in it.

²⁰ And when they went about from nation to nation,

And from one kingdom to another people,

²¹ He suffered no man to do them wrong;

Yea, he reprov'd kings for their sakes, [saying,]

²² 'Touch not mine anointed ones,

'And hurt not my prophets.'

²³ Sing unto Jehovah all the earth;

Spread the tidings of his salvation from day to day.

²⁴ Declare his glory among the Nations;

His marvellous works among all the peoples,

²⁵ For great is Jehovah, and greatly to be praised;

He also is to be feared above all gods.

²⁶ For all the gods of the peoples are idols;

But Jehovah made the heavens.

²⁷ Glory and honour are in his presence;

Strength and gladness are in his Place.

²⁸ Give unto Jehovah, ye families of the peoples, Give unto Jehovah glory and strength.

²⁹ Give unto Jehovah the glory due to his name;

Bring a meal-offering, and come into his presence;

Worship Jehovah in robes of holiness.

³⁰ Tremble before him all the earth;

Yea, the world is established so as not to be shaken.

³¹ Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice;

And let men say among the nations, Jehovah reigneth.

³² Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof;

Let the fields rejoice, and all that is therein.

³³ Then shall the trees of the forest sing before Jehovah,

When he cometh to judge the earth.

³⁴ O give thanks unto Jehovah; for he is good; For his kindness endureth for ever.

³⁵ And say ye, 'Save us, O God of our salvation.

'And gather us together, and deliver us from the Nations,

'To confess thy holy name, to triumph in thy praise.'

³⁶ Blessed be Jehovah the God of Israel from everlasting to everlasting. And all the people said 'Amen,' and praised Jehovah.

³⁷ So he left there before the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah Asaph and his brethren, to minister before the Ark continually, for every day's work; ³⁸ and Obed-edom with their brethren, sixty and eight; and Obed-edom the son of Jeduthun and Hosah were gate-keepers; ³⁹ and he left Zadok the Priest and his brethren the priests, before the Tabernacle of Jehovah at the High Place [or altar] that was at Gibeon, ⁴⁰ to offer up burnt offerings unto Jehovah upon the altar of the burnt offering continually morning and evening, and to do according to all that is written in the law of Jehovah, which he commanded Israel; ⁴¹ and with them were Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest that were chosen, who were appointed by name, to 'give thanks to Jehovah, for his kindness endureth for ever;' ⁴² and with them, Heman and Jeduthun, were trumpets and cymbals for those that should make a sound, and musical instruments of God. And the sons of Jeduthun were at the gate. ⁴³ And all the people departed every man to his house; and David returned to bless his house.

¹⁷ Now it came to pass, as David sat in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, 'Lo, I dwell in a house of cedars, but the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah is under curtains.' ² Then Nathan said to David, 'Do all that is in thy heart; for God is with thee.' ³ And it came to pass the same night, that the word of God came to Nathan, saying, ⁴ 'Go and tell David my servant, 'Thus saith Jehovah, Thou shalt not build me a house to dwell in; ⁵ for I have not dwelt in a house since the day that I brought up Israel unto this day; but have gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another. ⁶ Wheresoever I have walked about with all Israel, spake I a word to any of the Judges of Israel, whom I commanded to feed my people, saying, Why have ye not built me a house of cedars?' ⁷ Now therefore thus shalt thou say to my servant David, Thus saith Jehovah of hosts, I took thee from the sheep-cote, from following the sheep, that thou shouldst be ruler over my people Israel; ⁸ and I have been with thee whithersoever thou hast walked, and I have cut off all thine enemies from before thee, and I have made for thee a name like the name of the great men that are on the earth. ⁹ Also I have ordained a place for my people Israel, and have planted them, and they dwell in their place, and shall be moved no more; neither shall the children of wickedness waste them any more, as at the beginning. ¹⁰ And since the time that I commanded Judges to be over my people Israel, I have moreover subdued all thine enemies.

'Furthermore I tell thee that Jehovah will build for thee a house. ¹¹ For it shall come to pass, when thy days are fulfilled for thee to go to be with thy fathers, that I will raise up thy seed after thee, who shall be one of thy sons; and I will establish his kingdom. ¹² He shall build me a House, and I will establish his throne for ever. ¹³ I will be his father, and he shall be my son; and I will not take my kindness away from him, as I took it from him [Saul] that was before thee. ¹⁴ But I will settle him in my House and in my kingdom for ever; and his throne shall be established for ever.' ¹⁵ According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak to David.

¹⁶ And David the king came and set before Jehovah, and said, 'Who am I, O Jehovah God, and what is my house, that thou hast brought me hither?' ¹⁷ And yet this is a small thing in thine eyes, O God; for thou speakest of thy servant's house for a great while to come, and hast regarded me as a succession of men of high degree, 'O Jehovah God. ¹⁸ What can David ask more of thee for the honour of thy servant? For thou knowest thy servant. ¹⁹ O Jehovah, for thy servant's sake, and according to thine own heart, hast thou done all this greatness, in making known all this greatness. ²⁰ O Jehovah, there is none like thee, neither is there any God beside thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears. ²¹ And what one nation on the earth is like thy people Israel, whom God went to redeem to be his own people, to make unto thee a Name of greatness and terribleness, by driving out nations from before thy people, whom thou hast redeemed out of Lower Egypt? ²² For thou didst make thy people Israel to be thine own people for ever; and thou, O Jehovah, becamest their God. ²³ Therefore, now, O Jehovah, let the thing that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant and concerning his house be confirmed for ever; and do as thou hast said. ²⁴ Let it even be confirmed, that thy Name may be magnified for ever, saying, Jehovah of hosts is the God of Israel, even a God to Israel; and let the house of David thy servant be established before thee. ²⁵ For thou, O my God, hast revealed to the ear of thy servant that thou wilt build for him a house, because thy servant hath found in his heart to pray before thee. ²⁶ And now, O Jehovah, thou art God, and hast promised this goodness to thy servant. ²⁷ Now it hath pleased thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may be before thee for ever, since thou hast blessed it, O Jehovah, and it will be blessed for ever.'

² And he smote Moab; and the Moabites became David's servants, paying tribute.

³ And David smote Hadarezer king of Zobah unto Hamath, as he went to establish his dominion by the river Euphrates. ⁴ And David took from him a thousand chariots, and seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand men on foot. David also hamstrung all the chariot horses, but reserved of them for a hundred chariots. ⁵ And when the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadarezer king of Zobah, David slew of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men. ⁶ Then David put [garrisons] in Syria of Damascus; and the Syrians became David's servants, paying tribute. Thus Jehovah gave victory to David whithersoever he went. ⁷ And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadarezer, and brought them to Jerusalem. ⁸ Likewise from Tibhath, and from Chum, cities of Hadarezer, brought David very much copper, wherewith Solomon made the copper water-cistern, and the pillars, and the vessels of copper.

⁹ Now when Tou king of Hamath heard how

David had smitten all the host of Hadarezer king of Zobah, ¹⁰ he sent Hadoram his son to king David, to ask for peace of him, and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadarezer, and smitten him; (for Hadarezer was fighting against you;) and with him all manner of vessels of gold and silver and copper. ¹¹ These also king David dedicated to Jehovah, with the silver and the gold that he brought from all these nations; from Edom, and from Moab, and from the Children of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from Amalek. ¹² Moreover Abishai the son of Zeruiah slew of the Edomites in the Valley of Salt eighteen thousand. ¹³ And he put garrisons in Edom; and all the Edomites became David's servants.

Thus Jehovah gave victory to David whithersoever he went. ¹⁴ So David reigned over all Israel, and executed judgment and righteousness among all his people. ¹⁵ And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the host; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud recorder. ¹⁶ And Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Abimelech the son of Abiathar, were the priests; and Shavsha was scribe; ¹⁷ and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the axe-bearers and the runners; and the sons of David were chief at the side of the king.

¹⁹ Now it came to pass after this, that Nahash the king of the Children of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his stead. ² And David said, 'I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father shewed kindness to me.' And David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. So the servants of David came into the land of the Children of Ammon to Hanun, to comfort him. ³ But the princes of the Children of Ammon said to Hanun, 'Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters to thee? Are not his servants come to thee for to search, and to overthrow, and to spy out the land?' ⁴ Therefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaved them, and cut off their garments in half at their middle, and sent them away. ⁵ Then some went, and told David about the men. And he sent to meet them; for the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, 'Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.'

were come were by themselves in the field. ¹⁰ Now when Joab saw that there was a front of the battle against him both before and behind, he chose men out of all the choice of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians. ¹¹ And the rest of the people he delivered into the hand of Abishai his brother, and they set themselves in array against the Children of Ammon. ¹² And he said, 'If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me; but if the Children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will help thee. ¹³ Be of good courage and let us behave ourselves valiantly for our people, and for the cities of our God; and 'Jehovah will do what is good in his sight.' ¹⁴ So Joab and the people that were with him drew nigh before the Syrians unto the battle; and they fled before him. ¹⁵ And when the Children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, they likewise fled before Abishai his brother, and entered into the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.

¹⁶ And when the Syrians saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they sent messengers, and drew forth the Syrians that were beyond the River [Euphrates]; and Shophach the captain of the host of Hadarezer went before them. ¹⁷ And it was told David; and he gathered all Israel, and passed over the Jordan, and came upon them, and he set the battle in array against them. So when David had put the battle in array against the Syrians, they fought with him. ¹⁸ But the Syrians fled before Israel; and David slew of the Syrians seven thousand men in chariots, and forty thousand men on foot, and killed Shophach the captain of the host. ¹⁹ And when the servants of Hadarezer saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they made peace with David, and became his servants; neither would the Syrians help the Children of Ammon any more.

⁴ And it came to pass after this, that there arose war at Gezer with the Philistines; at which time Sibbechai the Hushathite slew Saphi, one of the children of the giant; and they were subdued. ⁵ And there was war again with the Philistines; and Elhanan the son of Jair slew Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gathite, whose spear staff was like a weaver's beam. ⁶ And yet again there was war at Gath, where was a man of great stature, whose fingers and toes were six and six, or four and twenty; and he also was born of the giant. ⁷ But when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea David's brother slew him. ⁸ These were born unto the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

²¹ And Satan stood up against Israel, and provoked David to number Israel. ² And David said to Joab and to the rulers of the people, 'Go, number Israel from Beer-sheba even to Dan; and bring the number of them to me, that I may know it.' ³ And Joab said, 'May Jehovah make his people a hundred times more than they are; but, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? Why then doth my lord require this thing? why will he be a cause of guilt to Israel?' ⁴ Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab. Therefore Joab departed, and went about throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem. ⁵ And Joab gave the sum of the register of the people to David. And all they of Israel were a thousand thousand and a hundred thousand men that drew sword; and Judah was four hundred and seventy thousand men that drew sword. ⁶ But Levi and Benjamin registered he not among them; for the king's word was abominable to Joab.

⁷ And God was displeased with this thing; therefore he smote Israel. ⁸ And David said to God, 'I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing; but now, I beseech thee, take away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly.' ⁹ And Jehovah spake to Gad, David's seer, saying, ¹⁰ 'Go, and tell David, saying, Thus saith Jehovah, I offer thee three things; choose to thee one of them, that I may do it to thee.' ¹¹ So Gad came to David, and said to him, 'Thus saith Jehovah, Take to thee ¹² either three years' famine; or three months to be destroyed before thy foes, while that the sword of thine enemies overtaketh thee; or else three days of the sword of Jehovah, even the pestilence, in the land, and the angel of Jehovah destroying throughout all the boundaries of Israel. Now therefore advise thyself what word I shall bring again to Him that sent me.' ¹³ And David said to Gad, 'I am in a great strait; let me fall now into the hand of Jehovah; for very many are his mercies; but let me not fall into the hand of man.'

¹⁴ So Jehovah sent pestilence upon Israel; and there fell of Israel seventy thousand men. ¹⁵ And God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it. And as he was destroying, Jehovah beheld, and he repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed, 'It is enough; stay now thy hand.' And the angel of Jehovah stood by the threshing-floor of Ornan [or Araunah] the Jebusite. ¹⁶ And David lifted up his eyes, and saw the angel of Jehovah standing between the earth and the heavens, having his drawn sword in his hand, stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell upon their faces. ¹⁷ And David said to God, 'Is it not I that commanded the people to be numbered? even I it is that have sinned and done evil indeed; but as for these sheep, what have they done? Let thy hand, I pray thee, O Jehovah my God, be on me, and on my father's house; but not on thy people, that they should be plagued.'

¹⁸ Then the angel of Jehovah commanded Gad to say to David, that David should go up, and set up an altar to Jehovah on the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite. ¹⁹ And David went up at the saying of Gad, which he spake in the name of Jehovah. ²⁰ And Ornan turned back, and saw the angel; and then his four sons with him hid themselves. Now Ornan was threshing wheat. ²¹ And as David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and he went out of the threshing-floor, and bowed himself to David with his face to the ground. ²² Then David said to Ornan, 'Grant me the place of this threshing-floor, that I may build an altar thereon unto Jehovah; thou shalt grant it me for the full price, that the plague may be stayed from the people.' ²³ And Ornan said to David, 'Take it to thee, and let my lord the king do what is good in his eyes. See, I will give thee the oxen also for burnt offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the meal offering. I give it all.' ²⁴ And king David said to Ornan, 'Nay, but I will verily buy it for the full price; for I will not take that which is thine for Jehovah, nor offer up burnt offerings without cost.' ²⁵ So David gave to Ornan for the place six hundred Shekels [or half ounces] of gold by weight. ²⁶ And David built there an altar to Jehovah, and offered up burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called upon Jehovah. And He answered him by fire from heaven upon the altar of burnt offering. ²⁷ And Jehovah commanded the angel; and he put up his sword again into its sheath.

²⁸ At that time when David saw that Jehovah had answered him on the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite, then he sacrificed there. ²⁹ For the tabernacle of Jehovah, which Moses had made in the desert, and the altar of the burnt offering, were at that time on the High Place at Gibeon. ³⁰ But David could not go before it to inquire of God; for he was afraid because of the sword of the angel of Jehovah.

²² Then David said, 'Here shall be the House of Jehovah God, and this shall be the altar of the burnt offering for Israel.' ² And David commanded to gather together the strangers that were in the land of Israel; and he set masons to hew wrought stones to build the House of God. ³ And David prepared iron in abundance for the pivots for the doors of the gates, and for the joinings; and copper in abundance without weight; ⁴ also cedar trees without number; for the Sidonians and they of Tyre brought much cedar wood to David. ⁵ And David said, 'Solomon my son is young and tender, and the house that is to be builded for 'Jehovah must be exceeding magnificent, of fame and of glory throughout all countries; I will therefore now make preparation for it.' So David prepared abundantly before his death.

⁶ Then he called for Solomon his son, and charged him to build a House for Jehovah the God of Israel. ⁷ And David said to Solomon, 'My son, as for me, it was in my mind to build a House unto the Name of Jehovah my God. ⁸ But the word of Jehovah came to me, saying, Thou hast shed blood abundantly, and hast made great wars; thou shalt not build a House unto my Name, because thou hast shed much blood upon the earth in my sight. ⁹ Behold, a son shall be born to thee, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies round about. For his name shall be Solomon [or Peaceable]; and I will give peace and quietness to Israel in his days. ¹⁰ He shall build a House for my Name; and he shall be my son, and I will be his father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever.—¹¹ Now, my son, may Jehovah be with thee; and may thou prosper, and build the House of Jehovah thy God, as he hath said of thee. ¹² Only may Jehovah give thee wisdom and understanding, and give thee charge concerning Israel, that thou mayest keep the law of Jehovah thy God. ¹³ Then shalt thou prosper, if thou takest heed to fulfil the statutes and judgments which Jehovah commanded Moses concerning Israel. Be strong, and of good courage; fear not, nor be dismayed. ¹⁴ Now, behold, in my poverty I have prepared for the House of Jehovah gold to the weight of a hundred thousand Kikars, and a thousand thousand Kikars of silver; and of copper and iron without weight, for it is in abundance; timber also and stone have I prepared; and thou mayest add thereto. ¹⁵ Moreover there are workmen with thee in abundance, hewers and workers of stone and timber, and all manner of cunning men for every manner of work. ¹⁶ Of the gold, the silver, and the copper, and the iron, there is no number. Arise, and be doing, and may Jehovah be with thee.'

¹⁷ David also commanded all the princes of Israel to help Solomon his son, [saying], ¹⁸ 'Is not Jehovah your God with you? And hath he not given you rest on every side? for he hath given the inhabitants of the land into my hand; and the land is subdued before Jehovah, and before his people. ¹⁹ Now set your heart and your soul to seek Jehovah your God; arise therefore, and build ye the Sanctuary of Jehovah God, to bring the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah, and the holy vessels of God, into the House that is to be built to the Name of Jehovah.'

²³ So when David was old and full of days, he made Solomon his son king over Israel. ² And he gathered together all the princes of Israel, with the priests and the Levites. ³ Now the LEVITES were numbered from the age of thirty years and upwards; and their number by their polls of the males was thirty and eight thousand. ⁴ 'Of these' [said David] 'twenty and four thousand are to be overseers of the work of the House of Jehovah; and six thousand are to be officers and judges; ⁵ moreover four thousand are to be gate-keepers; and four thousand are to praise Jehovah with the instruments which I made to praise therewith.' ⁶ And David divided them into courses among the sons of Levi, namely, Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

⁷ Of the Gershonites were Laadan, and Shimef. —⁸ The sons of Laadan; the chief was Jehiel, and Zetham, and Joel, three.—⁹ The sons of Shimei; Shelomith, and Haziël, and Haran, three. These were the chief of the fathers of [the family of] Laadan.—¹⁰ And the sons of Shimei were Jahath, Zina, and Jeush, and Beriah. These four were the sons of Shimei. ¹¹ And Jahath was the chief, and Zizah the second; but Jeush and Beriah had not many sons; therefore they were in one register, according to their father's house.

¹² The sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, four.—¹³ The sons of Amram; Aaron and Moses. And Aaron was separated, that he should sanctify the Holy of Holies, he and his sons for ever, to burn incense before Jehovah, to minister unto him, and to bless in his name for ever; ¹⁴ but of Moses the man of God, his sons were named of the tribe of Levi. ¹⁵ The sons of Moses were Gershom, and Eliezer. ¹⁶ Of the sons of Gershom, Shebuel was the chief. ¹⁷ And the sons of Eliezer were Rehabiah the chief. And Eliezer had none other sons; but the sons of Rehabiah were very many.—¹⁸ Of the sons of Izhar; Shelomith the chief.—¹⁹ Of the sons of Hebron; Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.—²⁰ Of the sons of Uzziel; Micah the first, and Ishiah the second.

²¹ The sons of Merari were Mahli, and Mushi.—The sons of Mahli were Eleazar and Kish.—²² And Eleazar died, and had no sons, but daughters; and their brethren the sons of Kish took them. ²³ The sons of Mushi were Mahli, and Ader, and Jeremoth, three.

²⁴ These were the sons of Levi after the house of their fathers; even the chief of the fathers, as they were registered by number of names by their polls, that did the work for the service of the House of Jehovah, from the age of twenty years and upward. ²⁵ For David said, 'Jehovah the God of Israel hath given rest to his people, that they may dwell in Jerusalem for ever; ²⁶ and also to the Levites, that they shall no more carry the Tabernacle nor any vessels of it for its service.' ²⁷ For by the last words of David the sons of Levi were numbered from twenty years old and above; ²⁸ because their place was at the side of the sons of Aaron for the service of the House of Jehovah, in the courts, and in the chambers, and in the purifying of all holy things, and the work of the service of the House of God; ²⁹ both for the ceremonial bread, and for the fine flour for meal offering, whether for the unleavened wafers, or for the pan, or to be fried, and for all measures of liquids and solids; ³⁰ and to stand every morning to thank and praise Jehovah, and likewise at evening; ³¹ and to offer up all burnt offerings to Jehovah on the sabbaths, on the new moons, and on the set feasts, by number, according as was commanded unto them, continually before Jehovah; ³² and that they should keep the charge of the Tent of Meeting, and the charge of the Holy Place, and the charge of the sons of Aaron their brethren, in the service of the House of Jehovah.

24 Now these are the COURSES OF THE SONS OF AARON. The sons of Aaron were Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. ² But Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no children; therefore Eleazar and Ithamar executed the priest's office. ³ And David distributed them, both Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, according to their offices in their service. ⁴ And there were more chief men found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Ithamar. And they were divided into courses. Among the sons of Eleazar there were sixteen chief men of the house of their fathers, and eight among the sons of Ithamar of the house of their fathers. ⁵ Thus were they divided by lot, one sort with another. For the governors of the Holy Place, and the governors [of the house] of God, were of the sons of Eleazar, and of the sons of Ithamar. ⁶ And Shemaiah the son of Nethaneel the scribe, one of the Levites, wrote them before the king, and the princes, and Zadok the priest, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and before the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites; one principal household being taken for Eleazar, and one taken for Ithamar.

⁷ Now the first lot came forth to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah, ⁸ the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim, ⁹ the fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin, ¹⁰ the seventh to Ha-koz, the eighth to Abijah, ¹¹ the ninth to Jeshuah, the tenth to Shecaniah, ¹² the eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim, ¹³ the thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab, ¹⁴ the fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer, ¹⁵ the seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Aphones, ¹⁶ the nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezkel, ¹⁷ the one and twentieth to Jachin, the two and twentieth to Gamul, ¹⁸ the three and twentieth to Delaiah, the four and twentieth to Maaziah. ¹⁹ These were the orderings of them in their service to come into the House of Jehovah, according to the ordinances made for them by the hand of Aaron their father, as Jehovah the God of Israel had commanded him.

²⁰ And the rest of the sons of Levi were these. Of the sons of Amram; Shubael. Of the sons of Shubael; Jehdeiah. ²¹ Of Rehabiah; of the son of Rehabiah, the first was Ishiah.—²² Of the Izharites; Shelomoth. Of the sons of Shelomoth; Jahath.—²³ And the sons [of Hebron]; Jeriah, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, Jekameam the fourth.—²⁴ Of the sons of Uzziel; Micah. Of the sons of Micah; Shamir. ²⁵ The brother of Micah was Ishiah. Of the sons of Ishiah; Zechariah.

²⁶ The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi; the sons of Jaaziah; Beno. ²⁷ The sons of Merari by Jaaziah; Beno, and Shoham, and Zaccur, and Ibri. ²⁸ Of Mahli came Eleazar, who had no sons. ²⁹ Of Kish; the son of Kish was Jerahmeel. ³⁰ The sons also of Mushi; Mahli, and Ader, and Jemmoth.

These were the sons of the Levites after the house of their fathers. ³¹ These likewise cast lots equally with their brethren the sons of Aaron in the presence of David the king, and Zadok, and Ahimelech, and the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites; even the chief fathers equally with their younger brethren.

25 Moreover David and the captains of the host separated to the service some of the sons of Asaph, and of Heman, and of Jeduthun, who should prophesy with HARPS, with PSALTERIES, and with CYMBALS. And the number of the men for the work according to their service was;—² of the sons of Asaph; Zaccur, and Joseph, and Nethaniah, and Asarelah, the sons of Asaph by the side of Asaph, who prophesied by the side of the king;—³ of Jeduthun; the sons of Jeduthun; Gedaliah, and Zeri, and Jeshaiah, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, six, by the side of their father Jeduthun, who prophesied with a harp, to give thanks and to praise Jehovah;—⁴ of Heman; the sons of Heman; Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, and Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, and Romamti-ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth. ⁵ All these were the sons of Heman the king's seer in the words of God, to lift up the horn. And God gave to Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.

⁶ All these were by the side of their fathers, Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman, for song in the House of Jehovah, with cymbals, psalteries, and harps, for the service of the House of God, by the side of the king. ⁷ So the number of them, with their brethren that were instructed in the songs of Jehovah, even all that were skilful, was two hundred eighty and eight. ⁸ And they cast lots, ward against ward, as well the small as the great, the skilful as the scholar.

⁹ Now the first lot came forth for Asaph to Joseph. The second to Gedaliah, who with his brethren and sons were twelve.

¹⁰The third to Zaccur, who with his sons, and his brethren, were twelve.

¹¹The fourth to Izri, who with his sons, and his brethren, were twelve.

¹²The fifth to Nathaniah, who with his sons, and his brethren, were twelve.

¹³The sixth to Bukkiah, who with his sons, and his brethren, were twelve.

¹⁴The seventh to Jesharelah, who with his sons, and his brethren, were twelve.

¹⁵The eighth to Jeshaiah, who with his sons, and his brethren, were twelve.

¹⁶The ninth to Mattaniah, who with his sons, and his brethren, were twelve.

¹⁷The tenth to Shimei, who with his sons, and his brethren, were twelve.

¹⁸The eleventh to Azareel, who with his sons, and his brethren, were twelve.

¹⁹The twelfth to Hashabiah, who with his sons, and his brethren, were twelve.

²⁰The thirteenth to Shubael, who with his sons, and his brethren, were twelve.

²¹The fourteenth to Mattithiah, who with his sons, and his brethren, were twelve.

²²The fifteenth to Jeremoth, who with his sons, and his brethren, were twelve.

²³The sixteenth to Hananiah, who with his sons, and his brethren, were twelve.

²⁴The seventeenth to Joshbekashah, who with his sons, and his brethren, were twelve.

²⁵The eighteenth to Hanani, who with his sons, and his brethren, were twelve.

²⁶The nineteenth to Mallothi, who with his sons, and his brethren, were twelve.

²⁷The twentieth to Eliathah, who with his sons, and his brethren, were twelve.

²⁸The one and twentieth to Hothir, who with his sons, and his brethren, were twelve.

²⁹The two and twentieth to Giddalti, who with his sons, and his brethren, were twelve.

³⁰The three and twentieth to Mahazioth, who with his sons, and his brethren, were twelve.

³¹The four and twentieth to Romamti-ezer, who with his sons, and his brethren, were twelve.

26 Concerning the courses of the GATE-KEEPERS; of the Korahites was Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of Asaph. ²And the sons of Meshelemiah were Zechariah the firstborn, Jediael the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth, ³Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Elioenai the seventh.—⁴And the sons of Obed-edom were Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, and Sacar the fourth, and Nethaneel the fifth, ⁵Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peulthai the eighth; for God had blessed him. ⁶Also unto Shemaiah his son were sons born, that ruled throughout the house of their father; for they were warriors of valour. ⁷The sons of Shemaiah; Othni, and Rephael, and Obed, Elzabad, whose brethren were sons of valour, Elihu, and Semachiah. ⁸All these of the sons of Obed-edom, they and their sons and their brethren, able men of strength for the service, were sixty and two of Obed-edom.—⁹And Meshelemiah had sons and brethren, sons of valour, eighteen. ¹⁰Also Hosah, of the sons of Merari, had sons; Simri the chief, (for though he was not the firstborn, yet his father made him the chief,) ¹¹Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth. All the sons and brethren of Hosah were thirteen. ¹²Among these were the courses of the gate-keepers, as the chief men, having wards jointly with their brethren, to minister in the House of Jehovah.

¹³And they cast lots, as well the small as the great, according to the house of their fathers, for every gate. ¹⁴And the lot eastward fell to Shelemiah [or Meshelemiah]. Then for Zechariah his son, a counsellor of wisdom, they cast lots; and his lot came out northward. ¹⁵To Obed-edom southward; and to his sons the House of the Stores [or the armoury]. ¹⁶To Shuppim and Hosah westward, with the gate of Shallecheth [or the bridge], by the causeway that goeth up, ward jointly with ward. ¹⁷Eastward were six Levites, northward four a day, southward four a day, and toward the Store-rooms two and two. ¹⁸At Parbar [or the Lower City] westward, four at the causeway, and two at Parbar. ¹⁹These are the courses of the gate-keepers among the sons of the Korahites, and among the sons of Merari.

²⁰And of the Levites, Ahijah was over the treasures of the House of God, and over the treasures of the holy things. ²¹Of the sons of Laadan, the sons of the Gershonite Laadan, the chief fathers, even of Laadan the Gershonite, were Jehieli; ²²the sons of Jehieli; Zetham, and Joel his brother, who were over the treasures of the House of Jehovah.

²³Of the Amramites, of the Izharites, of the Hebronites, of the Uzzielites;—²⁴and Shebuel the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, was ruler of the treasures; ²⁵and his brethren by Eliezer; Rehabiah his son, and Jeshaiah his son, and Joram his son, and Zichri his son, and Shelomith his son. ²⁶This Shelomith and his brethren were over all the treasures of the holy things, which David the king, and the chief fathers, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the captains of the host, had made holy. They made them holy. ²⁷out of the spoils won in battle, to maintain the House of Jehovah. ²⁸And all that Samuel the seer, and Saul the son of Kish, and Abner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Zeruiah, had made holy; and whosoever had made anything holy, it was under the hand of Shelomith, and of his brethren.—²⁹Of the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons were for the outward business over Israel, for officers and judges.—³⁰Of the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his brethren, sons of valour, a thousand and seven hundred, were over the offices of Israel, beyond the Jordan westward in all the business of Jehovah, and in the service of the king. ³¹Among the Hebronites was Jerijah the chief among the Hebronites, according to the first book of his fathers. In the fortieth year of the reign of David they were sought for, and there were found among them warriors of valour at Jazer of Gilead. ³² And his brethren, sons of valour, were two thousand and seven hundred chief fathers, whom king David made rulers over the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, for every matter pertaining to God or the king.

27 Now the CHILDREN OF ISRAEL after their number, to wit, the chief fathers and captains of thousands and hundreds, and their officers that served the king in any matter of the courses, who came in and went out month by month throughout all the months of the year, in each of the courses, were twenty and four thousand.

² Over the first course for the first month was Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel; and in his course were twenty and four thousand. ³ One of the children of Pharez was the chief of all the captains of the hosts for the first month.

⁴ And over the course of the second month was Dodai an Ahothite, and of his course was Mikloth also the ruler; in his course likewise were twenty and four thousand.

⁵ The third captain of the host for the third month was Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, a chief priest; and in his course were twenty and four thousand. ⁶ This is that Benaiah, who was a warrior among the thirty, and over the thirty; and in his course was Ammizabad his son.

⁷ The fourth captain for the fourth month was Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him; and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

⁸ The fifth captain for the fifth month was Shamhuth the Izrahite; and in his course twenty and four thousand.

⁹ The sixth captain for the sixth month was Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite; and in his course twenty and four thousand.

¹⁰ The seventh captain for the seventh month was Helez the Pelonite, of the children of Ephraim; and in his course twenty and four thousand.

¹¹ The eighth captain for the eighth month was Sibbecai the Hushathite, of the Zarhites; and in his course twenty and four thousand.

¹² The ninth captain for the ninth month was Abiezer the Anetothite, of the Benjamites; and in his course twenty and four thousand.

¹³ The tenth captain for the tenth month was Maharai the Netophathite, of the Zarhites; and in his course twenty and four thousand.

¹⁴ The eleventh captain for the eleventh month was Benaiah the Pirathonite, of the children of Ephraim; and in his course twenty and four thousand.

¹⁵ The twelfth captain for the twelfth month was Heldai the Netophathite, of Othniel; and in his course twenty and four thousand.

¹⁶ Furthermore over the TRIBES OF ISRAEL; the ruler of the Reubenites was Eliezer the son of Zichri; of the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Maachah; ¹⁷ of the Levites, Hashabiah the son of Kemuel; of the Aaronites, Zadok; ¹⁸ of Judah, Elihu, one of the brethren of David; of Issachar, Omri, the son of Michael; ¹⁹ of Zebulun, Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah; of Naphtali, Jerimoth the son of Azriel; ²⁰ of the children of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azaziah; of the Half Tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedaiah; ²¹ of the Half of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo the son of Zechariah; of Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Abner; ²² of Dan, Azareel the son of Jehoram.

These were the captains of the tribes of Israel. ²³ But David took not the number of them from twenty years old and under; because Jehovah had said he would increase Israel like to the stars of the heavens. ²⁴ Joab the son of Zeruiah began to number, but he finished not, because there fell wrath for it against Israel; neither was the number put in the numbering in the Chronicles of king David.

²⁵ And over the king's treasures was Azmaveth the son of Adiel;—and over the storehouses in the fields, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the towers, was Jehonathan the son of Uzziab;—²⁶ and over them that did the work of the field for tillage of the ground was Ezri the son of Cheleb;—and over the vineyards was Shimei the Ramathite;—²⁷ over the increase of the vineyards for the wine cellars was Zabdi the Shuppimite;—²⁸ and over the olive trees and the sycamore trees that were in the Low Country was Baalhanan the Gederite;—and over the cellars of oil was Joash;—²⁹ and over the herds that fed in Sharon was Shitrai the Sharonite;—and over the herds that were in the valleys was Shaphat the son of Adlai; ³⁰ over the camels also was Obil the Ishmaelite;—and over the she asses was Jehdeiah the Meronothite;—³¹ and over the sheep and goats was Jaziz the Hagarite. All these were the stewards of the substance which was king David's. ³² Also Jonathan David's uncle was a counsellor; he was a man of understanding, and a scribe. And Jehiel the son of Hachmoni was with the king's sons, ³³ and Ahithophel was the king's counsellor. And Hushai the Archite was the king's companion. ³⁴ And after Ahithophel was Jehoiada the son of Benaiah, and Abiathar; and the captain of the king's army was Joab.

23 And David assembled all the captains of Israel, the captains of the tribes, and the captains of the courses that ministered to the king, and the captains over the thousands, and captains over the hundreds, and the stewards over all the substance and possession of the king, and of his sons, with the chamberlains, and the warriors, even every warrior of valour, unto Jerusalem. ² Then David the king stood up upon his feet, and said, 'Hear me, my brethren, and my people. I had in my heart to build a house of rest for the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah, and for the footstool of our God, and had made ready for the building; ³ but God said to me, Thou shalt not build a house for my Name, because thou hast been a man of war, and hast shed blood.—⁴ Howbeit Jehovah the God of Israel chose me before all the house of my father to be king over Israel for ever. For he hath chosen Judah to be the ruler; and of the house of Judah, the house of my father; and among the sons of my father he liked me to make me king over all Israel. ⁵ And of all my sons (for Jehovah hath given me many sons), he hath chosen Solomon my son to sit upon the throne of Jehovah's kingdom over Israel. ⁶ And he said to me, Solomon thy son, he shall build my House and my courts; for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father. ⁷ Moreover, I will establish his kingdom for ever, if he be constant to do my commandments and my judgments, as at this day.—⁸ Now therefore in the sight of all Israel the assembly of Jehovah, and in the hearing of our God, keep and seek for all the commandments of Jehovah your God; so that ye may possess this good land, and leave it for an inheritance for your children after you for ever. ⁹ And thou, Solomon my son, know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind. For Jehovah searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the fashions of the thoughts. If thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever. ¹⁰ Take heed now; for Jehovah hath chosen thee to build a house for the Sanctuary. Be strong, and do it.

¹¹ Then David gave to Solomon his son, the pattern of the porch, and of the houses thereof, and of its treasures, and of its upper chambers, and of its inner rooms, and of the chamber for the Cover [of the Ark], ¹² and the pattern of all that he had in his mind, of the courts of the House of Jehovah, and of all the chambers round about, of the treasures of the House of God, and of the treasures of the holy things; ¹³ also for the courses of the priests and the Levites, and for all the work of the service of the House of Jehovah, and for all the vessels of service in the House of Jehovah. ¹⁴ He gave gold by weight for things of gold, for all instruments of all manner of service; [silver also] for all instruments of silver by weight, for all instruments of every kind of service; ¹⁵ even the weight for the lamp-stands of gold, and for their lamps of gold, by weight for every lamp-stand, and for its lamps; and for the lamp-stands of silver by weight, both for the lamp-stand, and also for its lamps, according to the use of every lamp-stand. ¹⁶ And by weight he gave gold for the ceremonial tables, for every table; and likewise silver for the tables of silver; ¹⁷ also pure gold for the flesh-hooks, and the sprinkling buckets, and the cups; and for the golden cups with covers [he gave gold] by weight for every covered cup; and [silver] by weight for every covered cup of silver; ¹⁸ and for the altar of incense refined gold by weight; and gold for the pattern of the [cover of the Ark, or] chariot of the cherubs, that spread out and overshadowed the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah. ¹⁹ All this, [said David] Jehovah made me understand in writing by his hand, even all the works of this pattern. ²⁰ And David said to Solomon his son, Be strong and of good courage, and do it; fear not, nor be dismayed; for Jehovah God, even my God, will be with thee; he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee, until thou hast finished all the work for the service of the House of Jehovah. ²¹ And behold, the courses of the priests and the Levites are for all the service of the House of God; and there shall be with thee for all manner of workmanship every willing man, skilful for every manner of service; also the captains and all the people will be wholly at thy command.

²⁹ And David the king said to all the assembly, Solomon my son, whom alone God hath chosen, is yet young and tender, and the work is great; for the Palace is not for man, but for Jehovah God. ² Now I have prepared with all my might for the House of my God the gold for things of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and the copper for things of copper, the iron for things of iron, and wood for things of wood; onyx stones, and stones to be set, stones glistening and of divers colours, and all manner of precious stones, and marble stones in abundance. ³ Moreover, because I have set my affection on a house for my God, I have of mine own peculiar goods, of gold and silver, which I have given for the House of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy House, ⁴ even three thousand Kikars of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand Kikars of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses with; ⁵ the gold for things of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and for all manner of work to be made by the hands of artificers. And who then is willing to come with his hands full this day unto Jehovah?

¹⁰ And David blessed Jehovah in the sight of all the assembly. And David said, Blessed art thou, Jehovah the God of Israel our father, from everlasting to everlasting. ¹¹ Thine, O Jehovah, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the strength, and the majesty; for all that is in the heavens and on the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O Jehovah, and thou art exalted as head above all. ¹² Both riches and honour come of thee, and thou reignest over all; and in thy hand is power and might; and in thy hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all. ¹³ Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name. ¹⁴ But who am I, and what is my people, that we should obtain strength to offer so willingly after this sort? For all things come from thee, and of thine own hand have we given unto thee. ¹⁵ For we are strangers before thee, and sojourners, as were all our fathers; our days on the earth are as a shadow, and we have no hope. ¹⁶ O Jehovah our God, all this store that we have prepared to build thee a house for thy holy Name cometh from thy hand, and is all thine own. ¹⁷ I know also, my God, that thou triest the heart, and hast pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of my heart I have willingly offered all these things; and now have I seen with joy thy people, who are present here, to offer willingly unto thee. ¹⁸ O Jehovah, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, keep this for ever within the fashion of the thoughts of the heart of thy people, and prepare their heart unto thee; ¹⁹ and give to Solomon my son a perfect heart to keep thy commandments, thy testimonies, and thy statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the Palace [or temple], for the which I have prepared.'

²⁰ And David said to all the assembly, 'Now bless Jehovah your God.' And all the assembly blessed Jehovah the God of their fathers, and bowed down their heads, and worshipped Jehovah, and the king. ²¹ And they sacrificed sacrifices unto Jehovah, and offered up burnt offerings to Jehovah on the morrow after that day, even a thousand bullocks, a thousand rams, and a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and also sacrifices in abundance for all Israel. ²² And they did eat and drink before Jehovah on that day with great gladness. And they made Solomon the son of David to be king the second time, and anointed him unto Jehovah to be the chief governor, and Zadok to be priest.

²³ Then Solomon sat on the throne of Jehovah as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Israel obeyed him. ²⁴ And all the princes, and the warriors, and all the sons likewise of king David, submitted themselves unto Solomon the king. ²⁵ And Jehovah magnified Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and bestowed upon him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel.

²⁶ Thus David the son of Jesse reigned over all Israel. ²⁷ And the time that he reigned over Israel was forty years; seven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jerusalem. ²⁸ And he died in a good old age, full of days, riches, and honour; and Solomon his son reigned in his stead [B.C. 976]. ²⁹ Now the acts of David the king, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of Samuel the seer, and in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the book of Gad the seer, ³⁰ with all his reign and his might, and the times that went over him, and over Israel, and over all the kingdoms of the countries.

THE SECOND BOOK OF THE CHRONICLES.

AND SOLOMON the son of David strengthened himself in his kingdom, and Jehovah his God was with him, and magnified him exceedingly. ² Then Solomon spake to all Israel, to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every prince in all Israel, the chief of the fathers. ³ So Solomon, and all the assembly with him, went to the High Place [or altar] that was at Gibeon; for there was the Tent of Meeting of God, which Moses the servant of Jehovah had made in the desert. ⁴ (But, indeed, the Ark of God had David brought up from the City of Jearim to the place which David had prepared for it; for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem.) ⁵ And the altar of copper that Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, he had put before the Tabernacle of Jehovah; and Solomon and the assembly sought unto it. ⁶ And Solomon went up thither to the altar of copper before Jehovah, which was at the Tent of Meeting, and offered up a thousand burnt offerings upon it.

⁷ In that night did God appear to Solomon, and said to him, 'Ask what I shall give thee.' ⁸ And Solomon said to God, 'Thou hast shewed great kindness to David my father, and hast made me to reign in his stead. ⁹ Now, O Jehovah God, let thy promise to David my father be established; for thou hast made me king over a people like the dust of the earth in multitude. ¹⁰ Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people. For who can judge this thy people, that is so great?' ¹¹ And God said to Solomon, 'Because this was in thy heart, and thou hast not asked riches, wealth, or honour, nor the life of thine enemies, neither yet hast asked long life; but hast asked wisdom and knowledge for thyself, that thou mayest judge my people, over whom I have made thee king; ¹² wisdom and knowledge is granted to thee; and I will give thee riches, and wealth, and honour, such as none of the kings have had that have been before thee, neither shall there any after thee have the like.'

¹³ Then Solomon came from the High Place that was at Gibeon to Jerusalem, from before the Tent of Meeting, and reigned over Israel. ¹⁴ And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen; and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, which he placed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem. ¹⁵ And the king made silver and gold at Jerusalem as plecteous as stones, and cedar trees made he as the sycamore trees that are in the Low Country for abundance. ¹⁶ And Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and a troop of the king's merchants received the troop [of horses] at a price. ¹⁷ And they fetched up, and brought forth out of Egypt a chariot for six hundred pieces of silver [or twelve hundred shillings], and a horse for a hundred and fifty; and so brought they for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria by their means.

² And Solomon determined to build a house for the Name of Jehovah, and a house for his kingdom. ³ And Solomon told out seventy thousand men to bear burdens, and eighty thousand to hew on the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred to oversee them. ⁴ And Solomon sent to Huram the king of Tyre, saying, 'As thou didst deal with David my father, and didst send to him cedars to build him a house to dwell therein; ⁵ behold, I would build a house to the Name of Jehovah my God, to make it holy unto him, and to burn before him sweet incense, and for the continual ceremonial, and for the burnt offerings of the morning and evening, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts of Jehovah our God. This is to be for ever to Israel. ⁶ And the House which I am about to build shall be great; for great is our God above all gods. ⁷ But who hath obtained strength to build for him a House, seeing the heavens and the heaven of heavens cannot contain him? Who am I then, that I should build him a House, save only to burn incense before him? ⁸ Send me now therefore a man skilful to work in gold, and in silver, and in copper, and in iron, and in purple, and crimson, and blue, and that knoweth how to make carvings with the skilful men that are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom David my father did provide. ⁹ Send me also cedar trees, fir trees, and algum trees, out of Lebanon; for I know that thy servants know how to cut timber on Lebanon; and behold, my servants shall be with thy servants, ¹⁰ even to prepare me timber in abundance; for the house which I am about to build shall be great and wonderful. ¹¹ And behold, I will give to thy servants, the hewers that cut timber, twenty thousand Cors [of nine bushels each] of threshed wheat, and twenty thousand Cors of barley, and twenty thousand Baths [of seven gallons and a half each] of wine, and twenty thousand Baths of oil.'

¹¹ Then Huram the king of Tyre answered in a writing, which he sent to Solomon, 'Because Jehovah hath loved his people, he hath made thee king over them.' ¹² Huram said moreover, 'Blessed

'be Jehovah the God of Israel, that made the heavens and earth, who hath given to David the king a wise son, endued with prudence and understanding, that might build a house for Jehovah, and a house for his kingdom. ¹³ And now I have sent a skilful man, endued with understanding, Huram-Abi, ¹⁴ the son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre, who knoweth how to work in gold, and in silver, in copper, in iron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in fine linen, and in crimson; also to carve any manner of carving, and to find out every device which shall be put to him, with thy skilful men, and with the skilful men of my lord David thy father. ¹⁵ Now therefore the wheat, and the barley, the oil, and the wine, which my lord hath spoken of, let him send to his servants. ¹⁶ And we will cut wood out of Lebanon, as much as thou shalt need; and we will bring it to thee in floats by sea to Joppa; and thou shalt carry it up to Jerusalem.'

¹⁷ And Solomon numbered all the strangers that were in the land of Israel, after the numbering wherewith David his father had numbered them; and they were found a hundred and fifty thousand and three thousand and six hundred. ¹⁸ And he set seventy thousand of them to be bearers of burdens, and eighty thousand to be hewers on the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred overseers to make the people work.

³ Now in these things Solomon was instructed for the building of the House of God. The length by cubits after the first measure was sixty cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits. ⁴ And of the Porch that was at the front, the length was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the height was a hundred and twenty. And he overlaid it on the inside with pure gold. ⁵ And the Greater Room he coated with fir timber, which he overlaid with fine gold, and set thereon palm trees and chains. ⁶ And he covered the House with precious stones for beauty; and the gold was gold of Parvaim. ⁷ He overlaid also the House, the beams, the lintels, and the walls thereof, and the doors thereof, with gold; and he carved cherubs on the walls.

⁸ And he made the chamber of the HOLY OF HOLIES; its length was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and its breadth twenty cubits; and he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to six hundred Kikars. ⁹ And the weight of the nails was fifty Shekels [or half ounces] of gold. And he overlaid the upper chambers with gold. ¹⁰ And in the chamber of the HOLY OF HOLIES he made TWO CHERUBS of image work, and overlaid them with gold. ¹¹ And the wings of the cherubs were twenty cubits long; one wing being five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house; and the other wing being five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other cherub. ¹² And one wing of the other cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house; and the other wing was five cubits also, joining to the wing of the first cherub. ¹³ The wings of these cherubs spread themselves forth twenty cubits. And they stood on their feet, and their faces were toward the chamber.

¹⁴ And he made the VEIL of blue, and purple, and crimson, and fine linen, and he wrought cherubs thereon.

¹⁵ Also he made before the House TWO PILLARS of thirty and five cubits high, and the capital that was on the top of each of them was five cubits. ¹⁶ And he made chains [as] in the place of the Oracle, and put them on the heads of the pillars; and made a hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chains. ¹⁷ And he reared up the pillars before the Great Hall, one on the right hand, and the other on the left; and called the name of that on the right hand Jachin, and the name of that on the left Boaz.

⁴ Moreover he made an ALTAR OF COPPER, twenty cubits its length, and twenty cubits its breadth, and ten cubits its height.

² Also he made a molten WATER-CISTERN of ten cubits from brim to brim, round all about, and five cubits its height; and a line of thirty cubits did encompass it round about. ³ And under it were images of oxen [and there were gourds], which did encompass it round about, ten in a cubit, encircling the Water-cistern round about in two rows. The oxen were cast in their moulds. ⁴ It stood upon the twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east. And the Water-cistern was set above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward. ⁵ And the thickness of it was a hand-breadth [or three inches]; and the brim of it was like the work of the brim of the cup of the flower of a lily. It held the contents of three thousand Baths [or 22,000 gallons].

⁶ He made also ten LAVERS [or Basons], and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them. The work of the burnt offering they cleansed in them; but the water-cistern was for the priests to wash in. ⁷ And he made ten LAMP-STANDS of gold according to one pattern, and set them in the Great Hall, five on the right hand, and five on the left. ⁸ He made also ten Tables, and placed them in the Great Hall, five on the right side, and five on the left. And he made a hundred Sprinkling Buckets of gold.

⁹ Furthermore he made the COURT OF THE PRIESTS, even the Great Terrace, and doors for the Terrace, and overlaid the doors of them with copper. ¹⁰ And he set the Water-cistern on the right front corner [of the House] eastward, over against the south. ¹¹ And Hiram made the Pots, and the Ladles, and the Sprinkling Buckets.

And Hiram finished making the work that he was to make for king Solomon for the House of God; ¹² to wit, the two pillars, and the bowls, and the capitals which were on the top of the two pillars, and the two trellis works to cover the two bowls of the capitals which were on the top of the pillars; ¹³ and four hundred pomegranates on the two trellis works; two rows of pomegranates on each trellis work to cover the two bowls of the capitals which were upon the face of the pillars. ¹⁴ He made also the bason-stands; and lavers made he upon the bason-stands; ¹⁵ one water-cistern, and twelve oxen under it. ¹⁶ The pots also, and the ladles, and the flesh-hooks, and all their instruments, did Hiram-Abiv make for king Solomon for the House of Jehovah of polished copper. ¹⁷ In the Circle of the Jordan did the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zeredathab. ¹⁸ Thus Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance; for the weight of the copper was not sought for.

¹⁹ And Solomon made all the vessels that were for the House of God, the Golden Altar also, and the Tables whereon the Presence Bread was set; ²⁰ moreover the lamp-stands with their lamps, that they should burn according to the ordinance before the Place of the Oracle, of pure gold; ²¹ and the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, made he of gold, and that perfect gold; ²² and the snuffers, and the sprinkling buckets, and the spoons, and the censers, of pure gold; and at the entrance of the House, the inner doors thereof for the Holy of Holies, and the doors of the House for the Great Hall, were of gold.

⁵ Thus all the work that Solomon made for the House of Jehovah was finished; and Solomon brought in the things that David his father had made holy; and the silver, and the gold, and all the vessels, put he among the treasures of the House of God.

² Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Israel, unto Jerusalem, to bring up the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah out of the city of David, which is Zion. ³ Therefore all the men of Israel assembled themselves unto the king at the Feast [of Tabernacles] which was in the seventh month. ⁴ And all the elders of Israel came; and the Levites took up the Ark. ⁵ And they brought up the Ark, and the Tent of Meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the Tent, these did the priests the Levites bring up. ⁶ Also king Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel that were assembled unto him before the Ark, sacrificed sheep and oxen, which could not be counted nor numbered for multitude. ⁷ And the priests brought in the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah to its place, into the chamber of the Oracle into the House, to the Holy of Holies, under the wings of the cherubs; ⁸ for the cherubs spread forth their wings over the place of the Ark, and the cherubs covered the Ark and its staves above. ⁹ And so long were the staves, that the ends of the staves from the Ark were seen before the Place of the Oracle; but they were not seen on the outside. And there it is unto this day. ¹⁰ There was nothing in the Ark save the Two Tables which Moses put therein at Horeb, when Jehovah made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of Lower Egypt.

¹¹ And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the Holy [room]; (for all the priests that were present were made holy, and did not then wait by courses;) ¹² also the Levites, who were the singers, all of them of Asaph, of Heman, of Judathun, with their sons and their brethren, being arrayed in fine linen, having cymbals and psalteries and harps, stood at the east side of the altar, and with them a hundred and twenty priests sounding with trumpets, ¹³ it came even to pass, as the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking Jehovah; and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpet and cymbals and instruments of music and praised Jehovah [saying,] For he is good; for his kindness endureth for ever; that then the House was filled with a cloud, even the House of Jehovah; ¹⁴ so that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud; for the glory of Jehovah had filled the House of God.

⁶ Then said Solomon, 'Jehovah hath said that he would dwell in the thick darkness. ² But I have built a house of habitation for thee, and a place for thy dwelling for ever.' ³ And the king turned his face, and blessed the whole assembly of Israel. And all the assembly of Israel stood. ⁴ And he said, 'Blessed be Jehovah the God of Israel, who hath with his hands fulfilled that which he spake with his mouth to my father David, saying, ⁵ Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Lower Egypt, I chose no city among all the tribes of Israel to build a house in, that my Name might be there; neither chose I any man to be a ruler over my people Israel; ⁶ but I have chosen Jerusalem, that my name might be there; and have chosen David to be over my people Israel.—⁷ Now it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of Jehovah the God of Israel. ⁸ But Jehovah said to David my father, Forasmuch as it was in thy heart to build a house for my Name, thou didst well in that it was in thy heart. ⁹ Notwithstanding thou shalt not build the house; but thy son who shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house for my Name.—¹⁰ Jehovah therefore hath performed his word that he hath spoken; for I am risen up in the room of David my father, and am set on the throne of Israel, as Jehovah promised, and have built the House for the name of Jehovah the God of Israel. ¹¹ And in it have I put the Ark, wherein is the Covenant of Jehovah, that he made with the children of Israel.' ¹² And he stood before the Altar of Jehovah in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and spread forth his hands. ¹³ For Solomon had made a platform of copper, of five cubits long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the Terrace [or court]. And upon it he stood, and kneeled down upon his knees before all the assembly of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven, ¹⁴ and said, 'O Jehovah God of Israel, there is no God like thee in the heavens nor on the earth; who keepest covenant and kindness with thy servants, that walk before thee with all their heart; ¹⁵ who hast kept with thy servant David my father what thou promisedst him; and thou spakest with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thy hand, as it is this day. ¹⁶ Now therefore, O Jehovah God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father what thou promisedst him, saying, There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit upon the throne of Israel; if so be that thy sons keep to their way to walk in my law, as thou hast walked before me.—¹⁷ And now, O Jehovah God of Israel, let thy word be verified, which thou didst speak to thy servant David.

¹⁸ But will God in truth dwell with men on the earth? Behold, the heavens and the heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house which I have built! ¹⁹ Turn thou therefore to the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O Jehovah my God, to hearken to the cry and to the prayer which thy servant prayeth before thee; ²⁰ that thine eyes may be open toward this House day and night, toward the Place of which thou hast said thou wouldest put thy Name there; to hearken to the prayer which thy servant shall pray toward this place. ²¹ And hearken thou to the supplications of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, which they shall pray toward this place; and hear thou from thy dwelling place, even from heaven; and when thou hearest, forgive.

²² If a man sin against his neighbour, and an oath [or self-curse] be laid upon him to make him swear, and the oath come before thine altar in this House; ²³ then hear thou from heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, requiting the wicked, by bringing his way upon his own head; and justifying the righteous, by giving to him according to his righteousness.

²⁴ And if thy people Israel be smitten down before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee; and shall turn again and confess thy name, and pray, and make supplication before thee in this House; ²⁵ then hear thou from heaven, and forgive the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again to the land which thou gavest to them and to their fathers.

²⁶ When the heavens are shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee; if they pray toward this Place, and confess thy

'Name, and turn from their sin, when thou dost afflict them; ²⁷ then hear thou from heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, when thou hast taught them the good way wherein they should walk; and send rain upon thy land, which thou hast given to thy people for an inheritance.

²⁸ If there be famine in the land, if there be pestilence, if there be blight, or mildew, locusts, or caterpillars; if it be that their enemies besiege them in the land at the city gates; whatsoever plague or whatsoever sickness there be; ²⁹ what prayer or what supplication soever shall be made by any man, or by all thy people Israel, when every one shall know his own plague and his own grief, and shall spread forth his hands toward this House; ³⁰ then hear thou from heaven thy dwelling place, and forgive, and render to every man according to all his ways, because thou knowest his heart; (for thou only knowest the hearts of the sons of Adam;) ³¹ so that they may fear thee, to walk in thy ways all the days that they live upon the face of the land which thou gavest to our fathers.

³² Moreover concerning the foreigner, who is not of thy people Israel, but is come from a far country for thy great Name's sake, and for thy mighty hand, and thy stretched out arm; if they come and pray toward this House; ³³ then hear thou from heaven thy dwelling place, and do according to all that the foreigner calleth to thee for; so that all the peoples of the earth may know thy Name, and fear thee, as doth thy people Israel, and may know that this House which I have built is called by thy Name.

³⁶ When they sin against thee, (for there is no man that sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them over before their enemies, and they carry them away captives to a land whether far off or near; ³⁷ yet if they lay it to heart in the land whither they are carried captive, and turn and make supplication to thee in the land of their captivity, saying, We have sinned, we have done amiss, and have dealt wickedly; ³⁸ if they return to thee with all their heart, and with all their soul, in the land of their captivity, whither they have carried them captives, and pray toward their land, which thou gavest to their fathers, and toward the city which thou hast chosen, and toward the House which I have built for thy Name; ³⁹ then hear thou from heaven thy dwelling place their prayer and their supplications, and maintain their cause, and forgive thy people whatever they have sinned against thee.

⁴⁰ Now, my God, let, I beseech thee, thine eyes be open, And thine ears attentive to the prayers of this place. ⁴¹ And now arise, O Jehovah God, into thy resting place, Thou, and the Ark of thy strength. Let thy priests, O Jehovah God, be clothed with salvation, And let thy godly ones rejoice in goodness. ⁴² O Jehovah God, turn not away the face of thine anointed; Remember the kindness assured to David thy servant.

⁷ Now when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of Jehovah filled the house. ² And the priests could not enter into the House of Jehovah, because the glory of Jehovah had filled the House of Jehovah. ³ And when all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of Jehovah upon the House, they knelt down with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshipped, and gave thanks unto Jehovah, 'For he is good; for his kindness endureth for ever.'

⁴ Then the king and all the people sacrificed sacrifices before Jehovah. ⁵ And king Solomon sacrificed a sacrifice of twenty and two thousand oxen, and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the House of God. ⁶ And the priests waited on their offices; and the Levites also with instruments of music of Jehovah, (which David the king had made to give thanks to Jehovah, for his kindness endureth for ever, when David praised by their hands;) and the priests sounded trumpets before them, and all Israel stood. ⁷ Moreover Solomon hallowed the Middle of the Court that was before the House of Jehovah. For there he offered burnt offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the copper altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offerings, and the meal offerings, and the fat.

¹¹ Thus Solomon finished the House of Jehovah, and the king's house. And all that came into Solomon's heart to make in the House of Jehovah, and in his own house, he prosperously effected.

¹² And Jehovah appeared to Solomon by night, and said to him, 'I have heard thy prayer, and

'have chosen this place to myself for a house of sacrifice. ¹³If I shut up the heavens that there be no rain, or if I command locusts to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people ; ¹⁴if my people, who are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways ; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land. ¹⁵Now mine eyes shall be open, and mine ears attentive to the prayers of this place. ¹⁶For now have I chosen and hallowed this House, that my Name may be there for ever ; and mine eyes and my heart shall be there perpetually. ¹⁷And as for thee, if thou wilt walk before me, as David thy father walked, and do according to all that I have commanded thee, and wilt observe my statutes and my judgments ; ¹⁸then will I establish the throne of thy kingdom, according as I have covenanted with David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man to be ruler in Israel.—¹⁹But if ye turn away, and forsake my statutes and my commandments, which I have set before you, and shall go and serve other gods, and worship them ; ²⁰then will I pluck them up by the roots out of my land which I have given to them ; and this House which I have hallowed for my Name, will I cast out of my sight, and will make it to be a proverb and a byword among all the peoples. ²¹And then this House, which is high, shall become an astonishment to every one that passeth by it ; so that he shall say, Why hath Jehovah done thus to this land, and to this House ?—²²And it shall be answered, Because they forsook Jehovah the God of their fathers, who brought them forth out of the land of Lower Egypt, and they laid hold on other gods, and worshipped them, and served them. Therefore hath he brought all this evil upon them.'

8 And it came to pass at the end of twenty years, wherein Solomon had been building the House of Jehovah, and his own house, ²that the cities which Hiram had given to Solomon, Solomon built them, and caused the children of Israel to dwell there.

³Then Solomon went to Hamath in Zobah, and prevailed against it. ⁴He built Tadmor [or Palmyra] in the desert, and all the store cities, which he built in Hamath. ⁵Also he built Beth-horon the Upper, and Beth-horon the Lower, fenced cities, with walls, doors, and cross-bars ; ⁶and Baalath and all the store cities that Solomon had, and all the chariot cities, and the cities of the horsemen, and all Solomon's desire that he desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

⁷As for all the people that were left of the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of Israel, ⁸for those of their children, who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel consumed not, them did Solomon put under tribute until this day. ⁹But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no servants for his work ; but they were men of war, and captains of his chiefs-of-three, even captains of his chariots and horsemen. ¹⁰And these were the chief of king Solomon's officers, even two hundred and fifty, that bare rule over the people.

¹¹And Solomon brought up the daughter of Pharaoh out of the city of David unto the house that he had built for her ; for he said, 'My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places are holy, whereunto the Ark of Jehovah hath come.'

¹²Then Solomon offered up burnt offerings unto Jehovah on the Altar of Jehovah, which he had built before the Porch, ¹³even after a certain rate every day, offering up according to the command of Moses, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons ; and on the solemn feasts, three times in the year, even at the Feast of Unleavened Bread, and at the Feast of Weeks, and at the Feast of Tabernacles. ¹⁴And he appointed, according to the order of David his father, the courses of the priests to their service, and of the Levites to their charges, to praise and minister before the priests, for the business of every day ; the gate-keepers also by their courses at every gate ; for so had David the man of God commanded. ¹⁵And they departed not from the command of the king unto the priests and Levites concerning any matter, or concerning the treasures. ¹⁶Now all the work of Solomon was prepared unto the day of the foundation of the House of Jehovah, and until it was finished. So the House of Jehovah was perfected.

9 And when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to try Solomon with hard questions at Jerusalem, with a very great company, and camels laden with spices, and gold in abundance, and precious stones. And when she was come to Solomon, she spake to him of all that was in her heart. ²And Solomon told her all her questions ; and there was nothing hid from Solomon which he told her not. ³And when the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built, ⁴and the food of his table, and the sitting of his ministers, and the attendance of his servants, and their apparel ; his cup-bearers also, and their apparel ; and his ascent [or bridge] by which he went up into the House of Jehovah ; there was no more spirit in her. ⁵And she said to the king, 'It was a true report which I heard in mine own land, of thine acts, and of thy wisdom. Howbeit I believed not their words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it ; and be-

'hold, the one half of the greatness of thy wisdom was not told me; for thou exceedest the fame that I heard. ⁷ Happy are thy men, and happy are these thy servants, who stand continually before thee, and hear thy wisdom. ⁸ Blessed be Jehovah thy God, who delighted in thee to set thee on his throne, to be king for Jehovah thy God; because thy God loved Israel, to establish them for ever, therefore made he thee king over them, to do judgment and righteousness.' ⁹ And she gave the king a hundred and twenty Kikars of gold, and of spices great abundance, and precious stones. Neither was there any such spice as the queen of Sheba gave king Solomon.

¹⁰ And the servants also of Hiram, and the servants of Solomon, who brought gold from Ophir, brought alnum [or ebony] trees and precious stones. ¹¹ And the king made of the alnum trees stairs to the House of Jehovah, and to the king's house, and harps and psalteries for singers. And there were none such seen before in the land of Judah. ¹² And king Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatsoever she asked, beside [the value of] what she had brought unto the king. So she turned, and went away to her own land, she and her servants.

¹³ Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and sixty and six Kikars of gold; ¹⁴ beside that which the traders and merchants brought. And all the kings of Arabia and the Pachas [or governors] of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon.

²⁰ And all the drinking vessels of king Solomon were of gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were of pure gold. Nothing of silver was accounted as anything in the days of Solomon. ²¹ For the king's ships went to Tarshish with the servants of Hiram; once every three years came the ships of Tarshish bringing gold, and silver, tusks of ivory, and apes, and parrots. ²² And king Solomon passed all the kings of the land in riches and wisdom. ²³ And all the kings of the land sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, that God had put in his heart. ²⁴ And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and cloaks, armour, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year.

10 AND REHOBAM went to Shechem; for to Shechem were all Israel come to make him king. ² And it came to pass, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who was in Lower Egypt, whither he had fled from the presence of Solomon the king, heard it, that Jeroboam returned out of Lower Egypt. ³ And they sent and called him. So Jeroboam and all Israel came and spake to Rehoboam, saying, ⁴ Thy father made our yoke grievous. Now therefore ease thou somewhat the grievous servitude of thy father, and his heavy yoke that he put upon us, and we will serve thee. ⁵ And he said to them, 'Come again to me after three days.' And the people departed.

⁶ And king Rehoboam took counsel with the old men that had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, 'What counsel give ye me to return answer to this people?' ⁷ And they spake to him, saying, 'If thou be kind to this people, and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be thy servants all thy days.' ⁸ But he forsook the counsel which the old men gave him, and took counsel with the young men that had grown up with him, that stood before him. ⁹ And he said to them, 'What counsel give ye that we may return answer to this people, who have spoken to me, saying, Ease somewhat the yoke that thy father did put upon us?' ¹⁰ And the young men that had grown up with him spake to him, saying, 'Thus shalt thou answer the people that spake to thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it somewhat lighter for us;—thus shalt thou say to them, My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins.' ¹¹ For whereas my father laded a heavy yoke upon you, I will put more to your yoke. My father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.'

¹² So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king bade, saying, 'Come again to me on the third day.' ¹³ And the king answered them roughly; and king Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the old men, ¹⁴ and spake to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, 'My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add thereto; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.' ¹⁵ So the king hearkened not to the people; for the course of events was of God, in order that Jehovah might perform his word which he spake by the hand of Abihail the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

¹⁶ And when all Israel saw that the king would not hearken to them, the people answered the king, saying, 'What portion have we in David?' and, 'We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse. Every man to your tents, O Israel; now, David, see to thine own house.' So all Israel went to their tents. ¹⁷ But as for the children of Israel that dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

11 And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he assembled of the house of Judah and Benjamin a hundred and eighty thousand chosen men, who were warriors, to fight against Israel, that he might bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam. ² But the word of Jehovah came to Shemaiah a man of God, saying, ³ 'Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying, ⁴ Thus saith Jehovah, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren. Return ye every man to his house; for this thing is done by me.' And they obeyed the words of Jehovah, and returned from going against Jeroboam.

⁵ And Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and built cities for defence of Judah. ⁶ He built even Beth-lehem, and Etam, and Tekoa, ⁷ and Beth-zur, and Shoco, and Adullam, ⁸ and Gath, and Moreshah, and Ziph, ⁹ and Adoraim, and Lachish, and Azekah, ¹⁰ and Zorah, and Ajalon, and Hebron, which are fenced cities in Judah and in Benjamin. ¹¹ And he strengthened the defences, and put captains in them, and store of victual, and of oil and wine. ¹² And in every several city he put shields and spears, and made them exceeding strong. And Judah and Benjamin belonged to him.

¹³ And the priests and the Levites that were in all Israel resorted to him out of all their boundaries. ¹⁴ For the Levites left their pasture lands and their possession, and came to Judah and Jerusalem. (For Jeroboam and his sons had cast them off from executing the priest's office unto Jehovah. ¹⁵ And he had set up for himself priests for the High Places [or Altars], and for the Satyrs, and for the Calves which he had made.) ¹⁶ And after them out of all the tribes of Israel such as set their hearts to seek Jehovah the God of Israel came to Jerusalem, to sacrifice unto Jehovah the God of their fathers. ¹⁷ So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong for three years; because for three years they walked in the way of David and Solomon.

¹⁸ And Rehoboam took to wife Maalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David, and of Abihail the daughter of Eliab the son of Jesse. ¹⁹ And she bare him sons; Jeush, and Shamariah, and Zaham. ²⁰ And after her he took Maachah the daughter of Absalom. And she bare him Abihail, and Attai, and Ziza, and Shelomith. ²¹ And Rehoboam loved Maachah the daughter of Absalom above all his wives and his concubines; (for he took eighteen wives, and sixty concubines; and begat twenty and eight sons, and sixty daughters.) ²² And Rehoboam made Abihail the son of Maachah to be the chief, to be ruler among his brethren; for he thought to make him king. ²³ And he dealt wisely, and dispersed some of all his sons throughout all the countries of Judah and Benjamin, unto every fenced city; and he gave them victual in abundance. And he desired a multitude of wives.

12 And it came to pass, when Rehoboam had established the kingdom, and had strengthened himself, that he forsook the Law of Jehovah, and all Israel with him. ² And it came to pass, that in the fifth year of king Rehoboam [B.C. 932] Shishak king of Lower Egypt came up against Jerusalem, (because they had transgressed against Jehovah,) ³ with twelve hundred chariots, and sixty thousand horsemen; and the people were without number that came with him out of Lower Egypt; the Libyans, the Sukkiims [or Troglodytæ], and the Ethiopians. ⁴ And he took the fenced cities which belonged to Judah, and came to Jerusalem.

⁵ Then came Shemaiah the prophet to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Judah, that were gathered together at Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said to them, 'Thus saith Jehovah, Ye have forsaken me, and therefore have I also left you in the hand of Shishak.' ⁶ Thereupon the princes of Israel and the king humbled themselves; and they said, 'Jehovah is righteous.' ⁷ And when Jehovah saw that they humbled themselves, the word of Jehovah came to Shemaiah, saying, 'They have humbled themselves; therefore I will not destroy them, but for a little while I will grant them deliverance; and my wrath shall not be poured out upon Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak. ⁸ Nevertheless they shall be his servants; that they may understand my service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countries.' ⁹ So Shishak king of Lower Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the House of Jehovah, and the treasures of the king's house; he took all. He took away also the shields of gold which Solomon had made. ¹⁰ Instead of which king Rehoboam made shields of copper, and committed them to the hands of the chief of the runners, that kept the entrance of the king's house. ¹¹ And whenever the king entered into the House of Jehovah, the runners came and fetched them; and they took them back again into the runners' chamber. ¹²And when he humbled himself, the anger of Jehovah turned from him, that he would not destroy him altogether; and also in Judah things went well.

¹³So king Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and reigned; for Rehoboam was one and forty years old when he began to reign; and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which Jehovah had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there. And his mother's name was Naamah an Ammonitess. ¹⁴And he did evil, because he prepared not his heart to seek Jehovah.

¹⁵Now the acts of Rehoboam, first and last, are they not written in the Book of Shemaiah the prophet, and of Iddo the seer concerning genealogies? And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all their days. ¹⁶And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David; and Abijah his son reigned in his stead.

13 In the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam [B.C. 919] began ABIJAH to reign over Judah. ²He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Michaiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam. ³And Abijah began the battle with an army of valiant men of war, four hundred thousand chosen men. Jeroboam also set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, warriors of valour. ⁴And Abijah stood up upon mount Zemaraim, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, and said, 'Hear me, thou 'Jeroboam, and all Israel; ⁵ought ye not to 'know that Jehovah the God of Israel gave the 'kingdom over Israel to David for ever, even to 'him and to his sons by a covenant of salt? ⁶Yet 'Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solo- 'mon the son of David rose up, and rebelled against 'his lord. ⁷And there were gathered unto him 'vain men, the sons of Belial, and they strength- 'ened themselves against Rehoboam the son of 'Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and tender- 'hearted, and could not withstand them. ⁸And 'now ye think to withstand the kingdom of Jeho- 'vah in the hand of the sons of David. And ye 'are a great multitude, and there are with you the 'Golden Calves which Jeroboam made you for 'gods. ⁹Have ye not cast out the priests of Jeho- 'vah, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and have 'made you priests after the manner of the peoples 'of the lands? so that whosoever cometh to fill his 'hands with a young bullock and seven rams [as 'an offering], the same may be a priest of them 'that are no gods. ¹⁰But as for us, Jehovah is 'our God, and we have not forsaken him; and the 'priests, who minister unto Jehovah, are the sons 'of Aaron, and the Levites wait upon their busi- 'ness. ¹¹And they burn unto Jehovah every 'morning and every evening burnt offerings, and 'sweet incense. The Ceremonial Bread also set

'they upon the Pure Table; and the lamp-stand 'of gold with its lamps, to burn every evening; 'for we keep the charge of Jehovah our God; but 'ye have forsaken him. ¹²And behold, God him- 'self is with us for our captain, and his priests 'with sounding trumpets to sound an alarm against 'you. O children of Israel, fight ye not against 'Jehovah the God of your fathers; for ye will not 'prosper.'

¹³But Jeroboam caused liers in wait to come about behind them; so some were before Judah, and the liers in wait were behind them. ¹⁴And when Judah looked back, behold, the battle was before and behind; and they cried to Jehovah, and the priests sounded with the trumpets, ¹⁵and the men of Judah gave a shout. And as the men of Judah shouted, it came to pass, that God smote Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah. ¹⁶And the children of Israel fled before Judah; and God delivered them into their hand. ¹⁷And Abijah and his people slew them with a great slaughter. So there fell down slain of Israel five hundred thousand chosen men. ¹⁸Thus the children of Israel were brought under at that time, and the children of Judah prevailed, because they relied upon Jehovah the God of their fathers. ¹⁹And Abijah pursued after Jeroboam, and took cities from him, Beth-el with its suburbs, and Jeshanah with its suburbs, and Ephraim with its suburbs. ²⁰Neither did Jeroboam recover strength again in the days of Abijah. And Jehovah struck him, and he died.

²¹But Abijah waxed mighty, and took to him- self fourteen wives, and begat twenty and two sons, and sixteen daughters. ²²And the rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways, and his doings, are written in the Commentary of the prophet Iddo. 14 So Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David; and Asa his son reigned in his stead [B.C. 917].

In his days the land was quiet for ten years. ²And ASA did what was good and right in the eyes of Jehovah his God; ³for he took away the altars of the foreigner, and the High Places, and brake down the images, and cut down the groves of Ashera, ⁴and he commanded Judah to seek Jehovah the God of their fathers, and to obey the Law and the Commandment. ⁵Also he took away out of all the cities of Judah the High Places and the sun-images; and the kingdom was quiet before him. ⁶And he built fenced cities in Judah. For the land had rest, and there was no war against him in those years; because Jehovah had given him rest. ⁷Therefore he said to Judah, 'Let us 'build these cities, and make about them walls, 'and towers, doors, and crossbars, while the land 'is yet before us; because we have sought Jehovah 'our God, we have sought him, and he hath given 'us rest on every side.' So they built and prospered. ⁸And Asa had an army of men that bare targets and spears, out of Judah three hundred thousand; and out of Benjamin, that bare shields and drew bows, two hundred and eighty thousand. All these were warriors of valour.

⁹ And there came out against them Zerah the Ethiopian [or of Upper Egypt] with a host of a thousand thousand, and three hundred chariots. And he came to Moreshah. ¹⁰ Then Asa went out against him, and they set the battle in array in the valley of Zephathah at Moreshah. ¹¹ And Asa cried to Jehovah his God, and said, 'O Jehovah, 'it is nothing with thee to give help against many, 'even unto them that have no power. Help us, 'O Jehovah our God; for we rest on thee, and in 'thy name we go against this multitude. O Je- 'hovah, thou art our God; let not man prevail 'against thee.' ¹² So Jehovah smote the Ethiopians before Asa, and before Judah; and the Ethiopians fled. ¹³ And Asa and the people that were with him pursued them unto Gerar. And the Ethiopians were overthrown, so that they could not recover themselves; for they were destroyed before Jehovah, and before his host. And they [of Judah] carried away very much spoil. ¹⁴ And they smote all the cities round about Gerar; for the terror of Jehovah came upon them. And they plundered all the cities; for there was exceeding much plunder in them. ¹⁵ They smote also the tents of cattle, and carried away sheep and camels in abundance, and returned to Jerusalem.

¹⁵ And the spirit of God came upon Azariah, the son of Oded; ² and he went out to meet Asa, and said to him, 'Hear ye me, Asa, and all Judah 'and Benjamin. Jehovah will be with you, while 'ye be with him; and if ye seek him, he will be 'found by you; but if ye forsake him, he will for- 'sake you.' ³ Now for a long season Israel was 'without the true God, and without a teaching 'priest, and without the Law. ⁴ But when they in 'their trouble did turn to Jehovah the God of 'Israel, and sought him, he was found by them. ⁵ And in those times there was no peace to him 'that went out, nor to him that came in, but great 'vexations were upon all the inhabitants of the 'countries. ⁶ And nation was destroyed by nation, 'and city by city; for God did vex them with all 'adversity. ⁷ Be ye strong therefore, and let not 'your hands be weak; for your work shall be re- 'warded.' ⁸ And when Asa heard these words, and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he took courage, and put away the abominations [or idols] out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities which he had taken from the hill country of Ephraim, and he renewed the Altar of Jehovah, that was before the Porch of Jehovah. ⁹ And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and the strangers with them out of Ephraim and Manasseh, and out of Simeon; for they revolted to him out of Israel in abundance, when they saw that Jehovah his God was with him.

¹⁰ So they gathered themselves together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa [B.C. 903]. ¹¹ And they sacrificed to Jehovah at that time, out of the spoil which they had brought, seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep. ¹² And they entered into a covenant to seek Jehovah the God of their fathers with all their heart and with all their soul; ¹³ and that whosoever would not seek Jehovah the God of Israel should be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman. ¹⁴ And they sware to Jehovah with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with trumpets, and with cornets. ¹⁵ And all Judah rejoiced at the oath; for they had sworn with all their heart, and sought him with their whole desire. And Jehovah was found by them, and gave them rest round about.

¹⁶ And Maachah his mother, Asa the king removed from being queen, because she had made a frightful idol to Ashera; and Asa cut down her frightful idol, and beat it to pieces, and burnt it in the valley of the Kidron. ¹⁷ But the High Places [or altars] were not taken away out of Israel. Nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect all his days. ¹⁸ And he brought into the House of God the things that his father had dedicated, and that he himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels. ¹⁹ And there was no more war until the five and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa [B.C. 902].

¹⁶ In the six and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa [B.C. 901], Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah, and built Ramah, to the intent that he might let none go out or come in to Asa king of Judah. ² Then Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the House of Jehovah and of the king's house, and sent to Ben-hadad [Ist] king of Syria, who dwelt at Damascus, saying, ³ 'Let there be a league between me and thee, as 'there was between my father and thy father. 'Behold, I have sent to thee silver and gold; go, 'break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, 'that he may depart from me.' ⁴ And Ben-hadad hearkened to king Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel; and they smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel at the Waters [of Merom], and all the store cities of Naphtali. ⁵ And it came to pass, when Baasha heard it, that he left off building Ramah, and let his work cease. ⁶ Then Asa the king brought all Judah; and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha was building; and he built therewith Geba and Mizpah.

⁷ And at that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah, and said to him, 'Because thou 'hast relied on the king of Syria, and not relied on 'Jehovah thy God, therefore is the host of the king 'of Syria escaped out of thy hand. ⁸ Were not the 'Ethiopians and the Libyans a huge host, with 'very many chariots and horsemen? yet, because 'thou didst rely on Jehovah, he delivered them 'into thy hand. ⁹ For the eyes of Jehovah run to 'and fro throughout the whole earth, to show him- 'self strong in the behalf of them whose heart is 'perfect toward him.' Herein thou hast done fool- 'ishly. Therefore from henceforth thou shalt have

'wars.' ¹⁰ Then Asa was wroth with the seer, and put him in a prison house; for he was in a rage with him because of this thing. And Asa oppressed some of the people at the same time.

¹¹ And behold, the acts of Asa, first and last, lo, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel. ¹² And Asa in the thirty and ninth year of his reign [B.C. 879] was diseased in his feet, until his disease was exceeding great. Yet in his disease he sought not to Jehovah, but to the physicians. ¹³ And Asa slept with his fathers, and died in the one and fortieth year of his reign [B.C. 877]. ¹⁴ And they buried him in his own sepulchre, which he had digged for himself in the city of David, and laid him in a bed which was filled with sweet spices, and divers kinds of compounds made by the apothecaries' art. And they made a very great burning for him.

⁷ Also in the third year of his reign [B.C. 875] he sent to his princes, even to Ben-hai, and to Obadiah, and to Zechariah, and to Nethaneel, and to Micaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah. ⁸ And with them he sent Levites, even Shemaiah, and Nethaniah, and Zebadiah, and Asahel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehonathan, and Adonijah, and Tobijah, and Tob-adonijah, the Levites; and with them Eli-shama and Jehoram, the priests. ⁹ And they taught in Judah, and had the Book of the Law of Jehovah with them, and went about throughout all the cities of Judah, and taught the people.

¹⁰ And the terror of Jehovah fell upon all the kingdoms of the lands that were round about Judah, so that they made no war against Jehoshaphat. ¹¹ Also some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents, and tribute silver; and the Arabians brought him flocks, seven thousand and seven hundred rams, and seven thousand and seven hundred he goats.

¹² And it came to pass that Jehoshaphat waxed great exceedingly, and he built in Judah castles, and cities of store. ¹³ And he had much business in the cities of Judah, and men of war, warriors of valour, in Jerusalem. ¹⁴ And these are the registers of them according to the house of their fathers; of Judah, the captains of thousands; Adnah the captain, and with him warriors of valour three hundred thousand. ¹⁵ And next to him was Jehohanan the captain, and with him two hundred and eighty thousand. ¹⁶ And next him was Amasiah the son of Zichri, who willingly offered himself unto Jehovah; and with him two hundred thousand warriors of valour. ¹⁷ And of Benjamin, Eliada a warrior of valour, and with him armed men with bow and shield two hundred thousand. ¹⁸ And next him was Jehozabab, and with him a hundred and eighty thousand ready prepared for the war. ¹⁹ These waited on the king, beside those whom the king put in the fenced cities throughout all Judah.

¹⁸ Now Jehoshaphat had riches and honour in abundance, and joined himself by marriage with Ahab. ² And after some years he went down to Ahab to Samaria. And Ahab sacrificed sheep and oxen for him in abundance, and for the people that he had with him, and urged him to go up to Ramoth in Gilead. ³ And Ahab king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, 'Wilt thou go with me to Ramoth in Gilead?' And he answered him, 'I am as thou art, and my people as thy people; and we will be with thee in the war.' ⁴ And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, 'Inquire, I pray thee, at the word of Jehovah to-day.'

⁵ Therefore the king of Israel gathered together of the prophets four hundred men, and said to them, 'Shall we go to Ramoth in Gilead to battle, or shall I forbear?' And they said, 'Go up; for God will deliver it into the king's hand.' ⁶ But Jehoshaphat said, 'Is there not here a prophet of Jehovah besides, that we might inquire of him?' ⁷ And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, 'There is yet one man by whom we may inquire of Jehovah. But I hate him; for he never prophesied good unto me, but always evil. The same is Micaiah the son of Imlah.' And Jehoshaphat said, 'Let not the king say so.' ⁸ And the king of Israel called for one of his chamberlains, and said, 'Hasten hither Micaiah the son of Imlah.'

¹² And the messenger that went to call Micaiah spake to him, saying, 'Behold, the words of the prophets declare good to the king with one voice; let thy word therefore, I pray thee, be like one of theirs, and speak thou good.' ¹³ And Micaiah said, 'As Jehovah liveth, even what my God saith, that will I speak.'

¹⁴ And when he was come to the king, the king said to him, 'Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth in Gilead to battle, or shall I forbear?' And he said, 'Go ye up, and prosper, and they will be delivered into your hand.' ¹⁵ And the king said to him, 'How many times shall I adjure thee that thou say nothing but the truth to me in the name of Jehovah?' ¹⁶ Then he said, 'I saw all Israel scattered upon the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd. And Jehovah said, These have no master; let them return therefore every man to his house in peace.' ¹⁷ And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, 'Did I not tell thee that he would not prophesy good unto me, but evil?' ¹⁸ Again [Micaiah] said, 'Therefore hear the word of Jehovah. I saw Jehovah sitting upon his throne, and all the host of heaven standing on his right hand and on his left. ¹⁹ And Jehovah said, Who will entice Ahab king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth in Gilead?' And he said, 'One spake after this manner, and another spake after that manner.' ²⁰ Then there came out a Spirit, and he stood before Jehovah, and said, I will entice him. And Jehovah said to Him, Wherewith? ²¹ And he said, I will go out, and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And [Jehovah] said, Thou shalt entice him, and thou shalt also prevail; go out, and do even so. ²² Now therefore, behold, Jehovah hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of these thy prophets; and Jehovah hath spoken evil against thee.' ²³ Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and smote Micaiah upon the cheek, and said, 'By which way passed the spirit of Jehovah from me to speak to thee?' ²⁴ And Micaiah said, 'Behold, thou shalt see on that day when thou shalt go into an inner chamber to hide thyself.'

²⁵ Then the king of Israel said, 'Take ye Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son; ²⁶ and say, Thus saith the king, Put this man in the prison, and feed him with the bread of affliction, and with the water of affliction, until I return in safety.' ²⁷ And Micaiah said, 'If thou in any wise return in safety, then hath not Jehovah spoken by me.' (And he said [Mic. i. 1], 'Hear, O ye peoples, every one of you.')

²⁸ So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth in Gilead. ²⁹ And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, 'I will disguise myself and will go to the battle; but put thou on thy robes.' So the king of Israel disguised himself; and they went to the battle. ³⁰ Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of the chariots that were with him, saying, 'Fight ye not with small or great, save only with the king of Israel.' ³¹ And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat that they said, 'It is the king of Israel.' Therefore they encompassed about him to fight. But Jehoshaphat cried out, and Jehovah helped him; and God moved them to depart from him. ³² For it came to pass, that when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back again from pursuing him.

³³ And a certain man drew a bow at a venture, and smote the king of Israel between the shoulder joints and the breastplate; therefore he said to the driver of his chariot, 'Turn thy hand, that thou mayest carry me out of the host; for I am wounded.' ³⁴ And the battle increased that day. Howbeit the king of Israel propped himself up in his chariot in face of the Syrians until the evening; and about the time of the sun going down he died.

¹⁹ And Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned to his house in safety to Jerusalem. ² And Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him, and said to king Jehoshaphat, 'Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate Jehovah? Therefore is wrath upon thee from before Jehovah. ³ Nevertheless there are good things found in thee, in that thou hast burned the groves of Ashera out of the land, and hast prepared thy heart to seek God.' ⁴ And Jehoshaphat dwelt at Jerusalem.

And he returned and went out through the people from Beer-sheba to the hill country of Ephraim, and brought them back to Jehovah the God of their fathers. ⁵ And he set judges in the land throughout all the fenced cities of Judah, city by city, ⁶ and said to the judges, 'Take heed what ye do; for ye judge not for man, but for Jehovah, who is with you in giving judgment. ⁷ Therefore now let the terror of Jehovah be upon you. Take heed and do it; for there is no iniquity with Jehovah our God, nor respect of persons, nor taking of bribes.'

⁸ Moreover in Jerusalem did Jehoshaphat set some of the Levites, and of the priests, and of the chief of the fathers of Israel, to declare the judgment of Jehovah, and for controversies; and they dwelt in Jerusalem. ⁹ And he charged them, saying, 'Thus shall ye do in the fear of Jehovah, faithfully, and with a perfect heart. ¹⁰ And what controversy soever shall come before you from your brethren that dwell in their cities between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and judgments, ye shall even warn them that they be not guilty against Jehovah, and so wrath come upon you, and upon your brethren. ¹¹ This do, and ye shall not be guilty. ¹² And behold, Amariah the chief priest is over you in all matters of Jehovah; and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, for all the king's matters. And the Levites shall be officers before you. Deal courageously, and Jehovah will be with the good.'

²⁰ It came to pass after this also, that the children of Moab, and the Children of Ammon and with them some of the Ammonites [or Maonites], came against Jehoshaphat to battle. ² Then there came some that told Jehoshaphat, saying, 'There cometh a great trouble against thee from beyond the [Dead] sea, from Syria; and behold, they are in Hazazon

'of the Palm-trees, which is Ain-gedi.' ³ And Jehoshaphat feared, and set his face to seek Jehovah. And he proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah. ⁴ And Judah gathered themselves together, to seek Jehovah; even out of all the cities of Judah they came to seek Jehovah. ⁵ And Jehoshaphat stood in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem, in the House of Jehovah, before the New Court, ⁶ and said, 'O Jehovah, God of our fathers, art not thou 'King in heaven? And thou rulest over all the 'kingdoms of the Nations. And in thy hand there 'is power and might, so that none is able to with- 'stand thee. ⁷ Art not thou our God, who didst 'drive out the inhabitants of this land from before 'thy people Israel, and gavest it to the seed of 'Abraham thy friend for ever? ⁸ And they dwelt therein, and have built for thee a Sanctuary therein 'for thy Name, saying, ⁹ If, when evil cometh upon 'us, as the sword, judgment, or pestilence, or 'famine, we stand before this House, and in thy 'presence (for thy Name is in this House), and cry 'unto thee in our affliction, then thou wilt hear 'and wilt help.—¹⁰ And now, behold, the Children 'of Ammon and Moab and mount Seir, whom thou 'wouldest not let Israel invade, when they came 'out of the land of Lower Egypt, but they turned 'from them, and destroyed them not; ¹¹ behold, 'how they reward us, by coming to cast us out of 'thy possession which thou hast given us to possess. ¹² O our God, wilt thou not judge them? for we 'have no might against this great rabble that 'cometh against us. Neither know we what to do. 'But our eyes are upon thee.' ¹³ And all Judah stood before Jehovah, with their little ones, their wives, and their sons.

¹⁴ Then upon Jahaziel, the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite of the sons of Asaph, came the spirit of Jehovah in the midst of the assembly; ¹⁵ and he said, 'Hearken ye, all Judah, and ye in- 'habitants of Jerusalem, and thou king Jehosha- 'phat; Thus saith Jehovah to you, Be not afraid 'nor cast down by reason of this great rabble; for 'the battle is not yours but God's. ¹⁶ To-morrow 'go ye down against them. Behold, they come up 'by the hill-road of Ziz; and ye shall find them at 'the end of the valley, before the desert of Jeruel. ¹⁷ Ye shall not need to fight in this battle. Set 'yourselves, stand ye still, and see the salvation of 'Jehovah with you, O Judah and Jerusalem. Fear 'not, nor be cast down; to-morrow go out against 'them; for Jehovah is with you.' ¹⁸ And Jeho- 'shaphat bowed his head with his face to the ground. And all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell before Jehovah, worshipping Jehovah. ¹⁹ And the Levites, of the children of the Kohathites, and of the children of the Korahites, rose up to praise Jehovah the God of Israel with a loud voice on high.

²⁰ And they arose early in the morning, and went forth into the desert of Tekoa. And as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, 'Hear ye, 'O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem; Be'lieve in Jehovah your God, so shall ye be esta- 'blished; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper.' ²¹ And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed singers unto Jehovah, and those who should praise in holy robes, as they went out before the army, and should say, 'Give ye thanks unto Je- 'hovah; for his kindness endureth for ever.' ²² And when they began to sing and to praise, Jehovah set liers in wait against the Children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, who were come against Judah; and they were smitten. ²³ For the Children of Ammon and Moab stood up against the in- habitants of mount Seir, utterly to slay and destroy them. And when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, they every one helped to de- stroy the other. ²⁴ And when Judah came to the Watch Tower in the desert, they looked unto the rabble, and behold, they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and none had escaped.

²⁵ And when Jehoshaphat and his people came to take away the spoil of them, they found among them in abundance both riches with the dead bodies, and precious jewels, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away. And they were three days in gathering of the spoil, it was so much. ²⁶ And on the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of Berachah; for there they blessed Jehovah. There- fore the name of the same place was called, The valley of Berachah [or Blessing], unto this day.

²⁷ Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat at the head of them, to go again to Jerusalem with joy; for Jehovah had made them to rejoice over their enemies. ²⁸ And they came to Jerusalem with psalteries and harps and trumpets unto the House of Jehovah. ²⁹ And the terror of God was on all the kingdoms of those countries, when they had heard that Jeho- vah fought against the enemies of Israel. ³⁰ So the kingdom of Jehoshaphat was quiet; for his God gave him rest round about.

³¹ And Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah. He was thirty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. ³² And he walked in the way of Asa his father, and departed not from it, doing what was right in the sight of Jehovah. ³³ How- beit the High Places were not taken away; for as yet the people had not prepared their hearts unto the God of their fathers. ³⁴ Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, the first and the last, behold, they are written in the Book of Jehu the son of Hanani, who is mentioned in the Book of the Kings of Israel [1 Kings xvi. 1].

³⁵ And after this did Jehoshaphat king of Judah join himself with Ahaziah king of Israel, who did very wickedly. ³⁶ And he joined himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish; and they made the ships in Ezion-geber. ³⁷ Then Eliezer the son of Dodavah of Moreshah prophesied against Jeho- shaphat, saying, 'Because thou hast joined thyself

'with Ahaziah, Jehovah hath broken thy works.' And the ships were broken, so that they were not able to go to Tarshish.

21 Now Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David [B.C. 853]. And JEHORAM his son reigned in his stead. 2 And he had brethren the sons of Jehoshaphat, Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah. All these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Judah. 3 And their father gave them great gifts of silver, and of gold, and of precious things, with fenced cities in Judah; but the kingdom gave he to Jehoram, because he was the firstborn. 4 And when Jehoram was risen up to the kingdom of his father, he strengthened himself, and slew all his brethren with the sword, and some also of the princes of Israel.

5 Jehoram was thirty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. 6 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, like as did the house of Ahab; for he had the daughter of Ahab to wife; and he did what was evil in the eyes of Jehovah. 7 Howbeit Jehovah would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and as he had promised to give a lamp to him and to his sons for ever.

8 In his days the Edomites revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made for themselves a king. 9 Then Jehoram went forth with his princes, and all his chariots with him. And he rose up by night, and smote the Edomites who encompassed him, and the captains of the chariots. 10 But the Edomites revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. At the same time also did Libnah revolt from under his hand; because he had forsaken Jehovah the God of his fathers, 11 and had moreover made High Places in the hill countries of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to go astray, and compelled Judah thereto.

12 And there was brought a writing to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, 'Thus saith Jehovah the God of David thy father, Because thou hast not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat thy father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah, 13 but hast walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and hast made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to go astray, like to the going astray of the house of Ahab, and also hast slain thy brethren of thy father's house, who were better than thyself; 14 behold, with a great plague will Jehovah smite thee people, and thy sons, and thy wives, and all thy goods. 15 And thou wilt have great sickness by disease of thy bowels, until thy bowels fall out by reason of the sickness day by day.'

16 Moreover Jehovah stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and of the Arabians, that were by the side of the Ethiopians. 17 And they came up into Judah, and brake into it, and carried away all the substance that was found in the king's house, and his sons also, and his wives; so that there was never a son left him, save Jehoahaz [or Ahaziah], the youngest of his sons. 18 And after all this Jehovah smote him in his bowels with a disease that could not be cured. 19 And it came to pass, that day by day, by the end of two years, his bowels had fallen out by reason of his sickness, and he died of sore diseases. And his people made no burning for him, like the burning of his fathers. 20 Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years, and departed without being desired. Howbeit they buried him in the city of David, but not in the burial places of the kings.

22 And the inhabitants of Jerusalem made AHAZIAH his youngest son king in his stead [B.C. 849]; for the band of men that came with the Arabians to the camp had slain all the eldest. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah reigned. 2 Forty and two years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Athaliah the daughter of Omri. 3 He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab; for his mother was his counsellor to do wickedly. 4 Therefore he did evil in the sight of Jehovah like the house of Ahab; for after the death of his father they were his counsellors to his destruction. 5 He walked also after their counsel, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to fight against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth in Gilead. And the Syrians smote Jehoram. 6 And he returned to be healed in Jezreel because of the wounds wherewith they wounded him at Ramoth, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria. And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab at Jezreel, because he was sick. 7 And the downfall of Ahaziah was from God, by coming to Jehoram. For when he was come, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom Jehovah had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab. 8 And it came to pass, that, when Jehu was executing judgment upon the house of Ahab, then he found the princes of Judah, and the sons of the brethren of Ahaziah, that ministered to Ahaziah, and he slew them. 9 And he sought for Ahaziah. And they caught him, (for he had hidden himself in Samaria,) and brought him to Jehu, and slew him. But they gave him burial; 'Because,' said they, 'he is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought Jehovah with all his heart.' So the house of Ahaziah had no power to keep the kingdom.

10 But when ATHALIAH the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal of the house of Judah. 11 But Jehoshabath, the king's daughter, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons that were slain, and put him and his nurse in a bed chamber. So Jehoshabath, the daughter of king Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the Priest, (for she was the sister of Ahaziah,) hid him from Athaliah, so that she slew him not.

¹² And he was with them hidden in the House of God for six years. And Athaliah reigned over the land [B.C. 849].

23 And in the seventh year [B.C. 849] Jehoiada strengthened himself, and took the captains of hundreds, Azariah the son of Jeroham, and Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, and Azariah the son of Obed, and Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri, into covenant with him. ² And they went round about in Judah, and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the chief of the fathers of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem. ³ And all the assembly made a covenant on behalf of the king in the House of God. And he said to them, 'Behold, the king's son shall reign, as Jehovah hath said of the sons of David. ⁴ This is the thing that ye shall do. ⁵ A third part of you, both of the priests and of the Levites, who come in on the sabbath, shall be gate-keepers at the gates; ⁶ and a third part shall be at the king's house; and a third part at the Foundation Gate; and all the people shall be in the courts of the House of Jehovah. ⁷ But let none come into the House of Jehovah, save the priests, and they of the Levites that minister. ⁸ They shall go in, for they are holy; but all the people shall keep the watch of Jehovah. ⁹ And the Levites shall encompass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whosoever else cometh into the House, he shall be put to death. But be ye with the king when he cometh in, and when he goeth out.' ¹⁰ So the Levites and all Judah did according to all things that Jehoiada the Priest had commanded; and they took every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, together with them that were to go out on the sabbath; for Jehoiada the Priest dismissed not the courses. ¹¹ Moreover Jehoiada the Priest delivered to the captains of hundreds the spears, and shields, and bucklers, that had been king David's, which were in the House of God. ¹² And he set all the people, every man having his sword in his hand, from the right front corner of the House to the left front corner of the House, along by the altar and by the House, round about the king. ¹³ Then they brought out the king's son, and put upon him the crown, and the testimonials, and made him king. And Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and said, 'May the king live.'

¹² Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people to the House of Jehovah. ¹³ And she looked, and behold, the king stood upon his pillar at the entrance, and the princes and the trumpets by the king; and all the people of the land rejoiced, and sounded with the trumpets, also the singers with instruments of music, and such as taught to sing praise. Then Athaliah rent her clothes, and said, 'Treason, Treason.' ¹⁴ Then Jehoiada the Priest brought out the captains of hundreds that were set over the army, and said to them, 'Lead her forth within the ranks; and

'whoso followeth her, let him be slain with the sword.' For the Priest said, 'Slay her not in the House of Jehovah.' ¹⁵ So they laid hands on her; and when she was come to the entrance of the Horse Gate of the king's house, they slew her there.

¹⁶ And Jehoiada made a covenant between himself, and all the people, and the king, that they should be Jehovah's people. ¹⁷ Then all the people went to the house of Baal, and brake it down, and brake his altars, and his images in pieces, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. ¹⁸ Also Jehoiada appointed the offices of the House of Jehovah by the hand of the priests the Levites, whom David had distributed over the House of Jehovah, to offer up the burnt offerings of Jehovah, as written in the law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing, as by command of David. ¹⁹ And he set the gate-keepers at the gates of the House of Jehovah, that no one that was unclean in anything should enter in. ²⁰ And he took the captains of hundreds, and the nobles, and the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought down the king from the House of Jehovah. And they came through the Upper Gate into the king's house, and set the king upon the throne of the kingdom. ²¹ And all the people of the land rejoiced. And the city was quiet, for they had slain Athaliah with the sword.

24 JOASH was seven years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zibiah of Beer-sheba. ² And Joash did what was right in the sight of Jehovah all the days of Jehoiada the Priest. ³ And Jehoiada took for him two wives; and he begat sons and daughters.

⁴ And it came to pass after this, that Joash was minded to repair the House of Jehovah. ⁵ And he gathered together the priests and the Levites, and said to them, 'Go out to the cities of Judah, and gather from all Israel money to strengthen the House of your God from year to year, and see that ye hasten the matter.' Howbeit the Levites hastened it not.

¹¹ Now it came to pass, that at the time that the chest was brought unto the king's office by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, the king's scribe and the high priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to its place again. Thus they did day by day, and they gathered money in abundance. ¹² And the king and Jehoiada gave it to such as did the work of the service of the House of Jehovah; and they hired masons and carpenters to repair the House of Jehovah, and also such as wrought iron and copper to strengthen the House of Jehovah. ¹³ So the workmen wrought the work; and the mending went on upon the work by their hands; and they set the House of God in its first state, and made it strong. ¹⁴ And when they had finished it, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada; and of it were made vessels for the House of Jehovah, even vessels to minister, and to offer with, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered up burnt offerings in the House of Jehovah continually all the days of Jehoiada.

¹⁵ But Jehoiada waxed old, and was full of days when he died; a hundred and thirty years old was he when he died. ¹⁶ And they buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, both toward God, and toward his House.

¹⁷ Now after the death of Jehoiada came the princes of Judah, and bowed down before the king. Then the king hearkened to them. ¹⁸ And they left the House of Jehovah the God of their fathers, and served images of Ashera and idols; and wrath came on Judah and Jerusalem for this their guilt. ¹⁹ Yet He sent prophets to them, to bring them again to Jehovah. And they testified against them. But they would not give ear. ²⁰ And the spirit of God came over Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the Priest. And he stood above the people, and said to them, 'Thus saith God, Why transgress ye the commandments of Jehovah? And ye cannot prosper, because ye have forsaken Jehovah, and he will forsake you.' ²¹ And they conspired against him, and stoned him with stones at the command of the king in the court of the House of Jehovah. ²² Thus Joash the king remembered not the kindness which Jehoiada the father had done to him, but slew his son. And when he [Zechariah] died, he said, 'May Jehovah look upon it, and require it.'

²³ And it came to pass at the turn of the year, that the host of Syria came up against him. And they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoil of them unto the king of Damascus. ²⁴ For the army of the Syrians came with a small company of men, and Jehovah delivered a very great host into their hand, because they had forsaken Jehovah the God of their fathers. So they executed judgment against Joash.

²⁵ And when they were departed from him (for they left him in great diseases), his servants conspired against him for the blood of the sons of Jehoiada the Priest, and they slew him on his bed, and he died [B.C. 804]. And they buried him in the city of David, but they buried him not in the burial places of the kings. ²⁶ And these are they that conspired against him; Zabab the son of Shimeath an Ammonite woman, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith a Moabite woman. ²⁷ Now about his sons, and the greatness of the tribute laid on him, and the foundation of the House of God, behold, they are written in the Commentary of the Book of Kings. And Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

²⁵ AMAZIAH was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem. ² And he did what was right in the sight of Jehovah, but not with a perfect heart. ³ And it came to pass, when the kingdom was established to him, that he slew his servants that had killed the king his father. ⁴ But he slew not their children, but did as it is written in the Law in the Book of Moses, where Jehovah commanded, saying, The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers, but every man shall die for his own sin.

⁵ Moreover Amaziah gathered Judah together, and made them captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, according to the houses of their fathers, throughout all Judah and Benjamin. And he registered them from twenty years old and above, and he found them to be three hundred thousand choice men, able to go forth to war, that could handle spear and shield. ⁶ He hired also a hundred thousand warriors of valour out of Israel for a hundred Kikars [or hundred weights] of silver. ⁷ But there came a man of God to him, saying, 'O king, let not the army of Israel go with thee; for Jehovah is not with Israel, or any of the children of Ephraim.' ⁸ But if thou wilt go, 'do it, be strong for the battle. Yet God will make thee fall before the enemy; for God hath power to help, and to cast down.' ⁹ And Amaziah said to the man of God, 'But what shall we do for the hundred Kikars which I have given for the army of Israel?' And the man of God answered, 'Jehovah is able to give thee much more than this.' ¹⁰ Then Amaziah separated them, (to wit, the army that was come to him out of Ephraim,) for them to go home again. Therefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home in great anger.

¹¹ And Amaziah strengthened himself, and led forth his people, and went to the Valley of Salt, and he smote of the Children of Seir ten thousand. ¹² And ten thousand did the Children of Judah take captive alive. And they brought them to the top of Selah [or Petra], and cast them down from the top of the rock, so that they all were broken in pieces.

¹⁴ Now it came to pass, after that Amaziah was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the gods of the Children of Seir, and set them up to be his gods, and bowed himself down before them, and burned incense to them. ¹⁵ Therefore the anger of Jehovah was kindled against Amaziah; and he sent to him a prophet, who said to him, 'Why hast thou sought after the gods of the people, who were not able to deliver their own people out of thy hand?' ¹⁶ And it came to pass, as he talked with him, that [the king] said to him, 'Art thou made counsellor of the king? Forbear; why shouldst thou be smitten?' Then the prophet forbore, and said, 'I know that God hath counselled to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkened to my counsel.'

¹⁷ Then Amaziah king of Judah took advice, and sent to Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, 'Come, let us look one another in the face.' ¹⁸ And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, 'The bramble that was on Lebanon sent to the cedar that was on Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife. And there passed by a wild beast that was on Lebanon, and it trod down the bramble. ¹⁹ Thou sayest, Lo, thou hast smitten the Edomites;—and thy heart lifteth thee up to boast. Abide now at home; why shouldst thou rush into trouble, so that thou shouldst fall, even thou, and Judah with thee?' ²⁰ But Amaziah would not hear; for it came of God, that he might deliver them into his hand, because they had sought after the gods of Edom. ²¹ So Joash the king of Israel went up; and they looked one another in the face, he and Amaziah king of Judah, at Beth-shemesh, which belongeth to Judah. ²² And Judah was smitten down before Israel, and they fled every man to his tent. ²³ And Joash the king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, at Beth-shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem from the Gate of Ephraim towards the Corner Gate, four hundred cubits. ²⁴ And he took all the gold and the silver, and all the vessels that were found in the House of God with Obed-edom, and the treasures of the king's house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria.

²⁵ And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah, lived after the death of Joash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel fifteen years. ²⁶ Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, the first and the last, behold, are they not written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel? ²⁷ Now after the time that Amaziah did turn away from following Jehovah, they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem; and he fled to Lachish. But they sent to Lachish after him, and slew him there. ²⁸ And they brought him upon horses, and buried him with his fathers in the city of Judah [B.C. 778]. ²⁶ And all the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the room of his father Amaziah. ² He built Eloth, and restored it to Judah, after the king slept with his fathers.

³ Sixteen years old was UZZIAH [or Azariah] when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and two years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jeoliah of Jerusalem. ⁴ And he did what was right in the sight of Jehovah, according to all that his father Amaziah did. ⁵ And he sought God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding in the visions of God. And as long as he sought Jehovah, God made him to prosper. ⁶ And he went forth and warred against the Philistines, and brake down the wall of Gath, and the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod. And he built cities about Ashdod, and among the Philistines. ⁷ And God helped him against the Philistines, and against the Arabians that dwelt in Gur-baal, and the Maonites. ⁸ And the Ammonites gave gifts to Uzziah. And his name spread abroad even to the entering in of Egypt; for he strengthened himself exceedingly.

¹⁶ But when he became strong, his heart was lifted up to his destruction; for he transgressed against Jehovah his God, and went into the Great Hall [of the temple] of Jehovah to burn incense upon the altar of incense. ¹⁷ And Azariah the Priest went in after him, and with him eighty priests of Jehovah, that were valiant men. ¹⁸ And they withstood Uzziah the king, and said to him, 'It is not for thee, Uzziah, to burn incense unto Jehovah, but for the priests the sons of Aaron, ⁴ that are made holy to burn incense. Go thou out of the Sanctuary; for thou hast trespassed; ⁵ neither shall it be for thine honour from Jehovah God.' ¹⁹ Then Uzziah was wroth. And he had a censer in his hand to burn incense; and while he was wroth with the priests, the leprosy even rose up in his forehead before the priests in the House of Jehovah, from off the altar of incense. ²⁰ And Azariah the chief priest, and all the priests, looked upon him, and behold, he was leprous in his forehead; and they hurried him out from thence. Yea, himself hastened also to go out, because Jehovah had smitten him. ²¹ And Uzziah the king was a leper unto the day of his death. And he dwelt in a house of beds [or hospital], being a leper. For he was kept away from the House of Jehovah; and Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land.

²² Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, the first and the last, did Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, write. ²³ So Uzziah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of the burial-place which belonged to the kings; for they said, 'He is a leper.' And Jotham his son reigned in his stead [B.C. 749].

27 JOTHAM was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jerushah, the daughter of Zadok. ² And he did what was right in the sight of Jehovah, according to all that his father Uzziah did. Howbeit he entered not into the Great Hall [of the Temple] of Jehovah. But the people did yet corruptly.

³ He built the Upper Gate of the House of Jehovah; and on the wall at Ophel [the suburb] he built much. ⁴ Moreover, he built cities in the hill country of Judah, and in the thicket-camps he built forts and towers.

28 AHAZ was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. But he did not do what was right in the sight of Jehovah, like David his father. ² For he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and made also molten images for Baal. ³ Moreover he burnt incense in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, and burnt his children in the fire, after the abominations of the nations whom Jehovah had cast out before the children of Israel. ⁴ He sacrificed also and burnt incense on the High Places, and on the hills, and under every green tree. ⁵ Therefore Jehovah his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria. And they smote him, and carried away a great multitude of them captives, and brought them to Damascus. And he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who smote him with a great slaughter. ⁶ For Pekah the son of Remaliah slew in Judah a hundred and twenty thousand in one day, who were all sons of valour; because they had forsaken Jehovah the God of their fathers. ⁷ And Zichri, a warrior of Ephraim, slew Maseiah the king's son, and Azrikam the governor of the household, and Elkanah that was next to the king. ⁸ And the children of Israel carried away captive of their brethren two hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and took also much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria.

⁹ But a prophet of Jehovah was there, whose name was Oded. And he went out before the host that came to Samaria, and said to them, 'Behold, because Jehovah the God of your fathers was wroth with Judah, he hath delivered them into your hand, and ye have slain them in a rage that reacheth up to heaven. ¹⁰ And now ye purpose to keep under the children of Judah and Jerusalem for bondservants and handmaids unto you. ¹¹ But are there not surely with you, even with you, sins against Jehovah your God? ¹² Now hear me therefore, and send back the captives, which ye have taken captive of your brethren; for the fierce wrath of Jehovah is upon you.' ¹³ Then certain of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against them that came from the war, ¹⁴ and said to them, 'Ye shall not bring in the captives hither. For whereas guilt against Jehovah is already upon us, ye intend to add more to our sins and to our guilt. ¹⁵ For our guilt is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel.' ¹⁶ So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the assembly. ¹⁷ And the men who were appointed by name rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil they clothed all that were naked among them. They even clothed them, and put shoes upon them, and gave them to eat and to drink, and anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them upon asses, and brought them to Jericho, the city of palm trees, near to their brethren. Then they returned to Samaria.

¹⁸ At that time did king Ahaz send to the kings of Assyria to help him. ¹⁹ For again the Edomites had come and smitten Judah, and carried away captives. ²⁰ The Philistines also had spread themselves over the cities of the Low Country, and of the South Country of Judah, and had taken Bethshemesh, and Ajalon, and Gederoth, and Shocho with its suburbs, and Timnah with its suburbs, Ginzoh also and its suburbs. And they dwelt there.¹⁹ For Jehovah brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of Israel. For he made Judah disorderly, and he transgressed sore against Jehovah.²⁰ And Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria came upon him, and distressed him, but strengthened him not.²¹ For Ahaz took away a portion out of the House of Jehovah, and out of the house of the king, and from the princes, and gave it to the king of Assyria. But he was no help to him.

²² And in the time of his distress this king Ahaz did trespass yet more against Jehovah.²³ For he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus, who smote him. And he said, 'Because the gods of the kings of Syria help them, therefore will I sacrifice to them, that they may help me.' But they were the ruin of him, and of all Israel.²⁴ And Ahaz gathered together the vessels of the House of God, and cut in pieces the vessels of the House of God, and shut up the doors of the House of Jehovah, and he made for himself altars in every corner of Jerusalem.²⁵ And in every city of Judah he made High Places to burn incense to other gods, and provoked to anger Jehovah the God of his fathers.

²⁶ Now the rest of his acts and of all his ways, the first and the last, behold, they are written in the book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.²⁷ And Ahaz slept with his fathers. And they buried him in the city, even in Jerusalem. But they brought him not into the burial-place of the kings of Israel. And Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead [B.C. 727].

29 HEZEKIAH began to reign when he was five and twenty years old, and he reigned nine and twenty years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Abijah the daughter of Zechariah.² And he did what was right in the sight of Jehovah, according to all that David his father had done.³ He in the first year of his reign, in the first month, opened the doors of the House of Jehovah, and repaired them.⁴ And he brought the priests and the Levites, and gathered them together into the Eastern Broad Place.⁵ And he said to them, 'Hear me, ye Levites, sanctify now yourselves, and sanctify the House of Jehovah the God of your fathers, and carry forth the filthiness out of the Holy [Place].⁶ For our fathers have trespassed and done what was evil in the eyes of Jehovah our God, and have forsaken him, and have turned away their faces from the Tabernacle of Jehovah, and turned their backs.⁷ Also they have shut up the doors of the Porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense nor offered up burnt offerings in the Holy [Place] to the God of Israel.⁸ Therefore the wrath of Jehovah was upon Judah and Jerusalem, and he hath delivered them to trembling, to astonishment, and to hissing, as ye

'see with your eyes.⁹ For lo, our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this.¹⁰ Now it is in my heart to make a covenant with Jehovah the God of Israel, that his fierce wrath may turn away from us.¹¹ My sons, be not now negligent; for Jehovah hath chosen you to stand before him, to minister unto him, and that ye should be ministers and incense-burners unto him.'

¹² Then the Levites arose, Mahath the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites;—and of the sons of Merari; Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jehaleleel;—and of the Gershonites; Joah the son of Zimnah, and Eden the son of Joah;—¹³ and of the sons of Elizaphan; Shimri, and Jeiel;—and of the sons of Asaph; Zechariah, and Mattaniah;—¹⁴ and of the sons of Heman; Jehiel, and Shimei;—and of the sons of Jeduthun; Shemaiah, and Uzziel.¹⁵ And they gathered their brethren, and sanctified themselves, and came, according to the command of the king, in the words of Jehovah, to cleanse the House of Jehovah.¹⁶ And the priests went into the Inner Room of the House of Jehovah, to cleanse it. And they brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the Great Hall of Jehovah into the court of the House of Jehovah. And the Levites took it, to carry it out abroad into the valley of the Kidron.¹⁷ Now they began on the first day of the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month came they to the porch of Jehovah; and they sanctified the House of Jehovah in eight days; and on the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end.

¹⁸ Then they went in to Hezekiah the king, and said, 'We have cleansed all the House of Jehovah, and the Altar of burnt offering, with all its vessels, and the ceremonial table, with all its vessels.¹⁹ Moreover all the vessels, which king Ahaz in his reign did defile in his transgression, have we prepared and sanctified, and behold, they are before the Altar of Jehovah.'

²⁰ Then Hezekiah the king rose early, and gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the House of Jehovah.²¹ And they brought seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven he goats, for a sin offering for the kingdom, and for the sanctuary, and for Judah. And he commanded the priests the sons of Aaron to offer them up on the Altar of Jehovah.²² So they killed the bullocks, and the priests took the blood, and sprinkled it on the Altar. Likewise, when they had killed the rams, they sprinkled the blood upon the Altar; they killed also the lambs, and they sprinkled the blood upon the Altar.²³ And they brought forward the he goats for the sin offering before the king and the assembly; and they laid their hands upon them.²⁴ And the priests killed them, and with their blood they cleaned the Altar from sin, to make atonement for all Israel. For the king had commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be for all Israel. ²⁵ And he set the Levites at the House of Jehovah with cymbals, with psalteries, and with harps, according to the command of David, and of Gad the king's seer, and of Nathan the prophet; for from the hand of Jehovah came the command by the hand of his prophets. ²⁶ And the Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets. ²⁷ And Hezekiah commanded to offer up the burnt offering on the Altar. And when the burnt offering began, then began the song of Jehovah with the trumpets, and under the guidance of the instruments of David king of Israel. ²⁸ And all the assembly worshipped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded; and all this continued until the burnt offering was finished. ²⁹ And when they had made an end of offering, the king and all that were present with him knelt down and worshipped.

³⁰ Moreover Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praise to Jehovah with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer. And they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped. ³¹ Then Hezekiah answered and said, 'Now ye have filled your hands [with offerings] unto Jehovah, come near and bring the sacrifices and thank offerings into the House of Jehovah.' And the assembly brought in the sacrifices and thank offerings; and as many as were of a willing heart, brought burnt offerings. ³² And the number of the burnt offerings, which the assembly brought, was seventy bullocks, a hundred rams, and two hundred lambs. All these were for a burnt offering to Jehovah. ³³ And the holy animals were six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep. ³⁴ But the priests were too few, so that they could not take the skin off all the burnt offerings. Therefore their brethren the Levites did help them, till the work was ended, and until the priests had sanctified themselves. For the Levites were more right in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests. ³⁵ And also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace offerings and with drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the House of Jehovah was prepared. ³⁶ And Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, that God had made preparation for the people. For the thing was done suddenly.

30 Then Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote public letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the House of Jehovah at Jerusalem, to keep the passover unto Jehovah the God of Israel. ² For the king had taken counsel, and his princes, and all the assembly in Jerusalem, to keep the passover in the second month. ³ For they could not keep it at the fit time, because the priests had not sanctified themselves sufficiently, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem. ⁴ And the thing was right in the eyes of the king and in the eyes of all the assembly. ⁵ So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beer-sheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the passover unto Jehovah the God of Israel at Jerusalem; for they had not done it according as it was written for a long time. ⁶ So the runners went with the public letters under the hand of the king and of his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the command of the king, saying, 'Ye children of Israel, turn again to Jehovah the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and he will return to the remnant of you, that are escaped out of the hand of the kings of Assyria. ⁷ And be not ye like your fathers, and like your brethren, who trespassed against Jehovah the God of their fathers, who therefore gave them up to desolation, as ye see. ⁸ Now be ye not stiff-necked, as your fathers were, but hold out your hands to Jehovah, and come to his Sanctuary, which he hath sanctified for ever; and serve Jehovah your God, that the fierceness of his wrath may turn away from you. ⁹ For if ye turn again to Jehovah, your brethren and your children will find compassion before them that have led them captive, so that they shall come again into this land. For Jehovah your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if ye return to him.' ¹⁰ So the runners passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh even unto Zebulun. But they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them. ¹¹ Nevertheless some men of Asher and Manasseh and of Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem. ¹² Whereas in Judah the hand of God was to give them one heart to do the command of the king and of the princes, by the word of Jehovah.

¹³ Now there were gathered together at Jerusalem much people to keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread in the second month, a very great assembly. ¹⁴ And they arose, and took away the altars for sacrifice that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense took they away, and cast them into the valley of the Kidron. ¹⁵ Then they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the second month. And the priests and the Levites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought in the burnt offerings to the House of Jehovah. ¹⁶ And they stood in their place after their manner, according to the Law of Moses the man of God. The priests sprinkled the blood, which they received from the hand of the Levites. ¹⁷ For there were many in the assembly that were not sanctified; therefore the Levites had the charge of the killing of the passover animals for every one that was not clean, to sanctify them unto Jehovah. ¹⁸ For out of the multitude of the people many of Ephraim, and Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet did they eat the passover otherwise than it was written. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, 'May the good Jehovah pardon every one ¹⁹ that prepareth his heart to seek God, Jehovah the God of his fathers, though he be not according to the purification of the Holy Place.' ²⁰ And Jehovah hearkened to Hezekiah, and healed the people.

²¹And the children of Israel that were present at Jerusalem kept the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days with great gladness; and the Levites and the priests praised Jehovah day by day, with loud instruments unto Jehovah. ²²And Hezekiah spake to the heart of all the Levites that were skilful in the good skill of Jehovah. And they did eat throughout the solemn feast for seven days, sacrificing peace offerings, and making confession to Jehovah the God of their fathers. ²³And the whole assembly took counsel to keep seven other days. And they kept the seven days with gladness. ²⁴For Hezekiah king of Judah brought up for the assembly a thousand bullocks and seven thousand sheep; and the princes brought up for the assembly a thousand bullocks and ten thousand sheep. And a great number of priests sanctified themselves. ²⁵And all the assembly of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the assembly that came out of Israel, and the strangers that came out of the land of Israel, and they that dwelt in Judah, rejoiced. ²⁶So there was great joy in Jerusalem; for since the days of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there was not the like in Jerusalem. ²⁷Then the priests the Levites arose and blessed the people. And He heard their voice; and their prayer came up to His holy dwelling place, even unto heaven.

³¹Now when all this was finished, all Israel that were present went out to the cities of Judah, and brake the images in pieces, and cut down the groves of Ashera, and threw down the High Places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, in Ephraim also and Manasseh, until they had utterly destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned, every man to his possession, into their own cities.

²And Hezekiah appointed the courses of the priests and the Levites after their courses, every man according to his service, the priests and Levites for burnt offerings and for peace offerings, to minister, and to give thanks, and to praise at the gates of the camps [or courts] of Jehovah. ³He appointed also the king's portion of his substance for the burnt offerings, to wit, for the morning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the solemn feasts, as it is written in the Law of Jehovah. ⁴Moreover he commanded the people that dwelt in Jerusalem to give the portion of the priests and the Levites, so that they might be encouraged in the Law of Jehovah.

⁵And as soon as the command came abroad, the children of Israel brought in abundance the first of the corn, the grape juice, and oil, and honey, and of all the increase of the field; and the tithe of all things brought they in abundantly. ⁶And the children of Israel and Judah, that dwelt in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the tithe of holy things which were made holy to Jehovah their God, and laid them in heaps. ⁷In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished them in the seventh month.

⁸And when Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they blessed Jehovah, and his people Israel. ⁹Then Hezekiah questioned with the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps. ¹⁰And Azariah the chief priest of the house of Zadok answered him, and said, 'Since they began to bring the heave offerings into the House of Jehovah, we have had enough to eat, and have left plenty; for Jehovah hath blessed his people; and that which is left is this great store.'

¹¹Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare chambers in the House of Jehovah. And they prepared them. ¹²And they brought in the heave offerings and the tithes and the dedicated things faithfully; and over them Cononiah the Levite was ruler, and Shimei his brother was the next. ¹³And Jehiel, and Azariah, and Nabath, and Asahel, and Jerimoth, and Jozabab, and Eliel, and Ismachiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah, were overseers under the hand of Cononiah and Shimei his brother by the appointment of Hezekiah the king, and Azariah the ruler of the House of God. ¹⁴And Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the gate-keeper toward the east, was over the free-will offerings of God, to distribute the heave offerings of Jehovah, and the most holy things. ¹⁵And under him were Eden, and Miniamin, and Jeshua, and Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, in the cities [or courts] of the priests, in the office of trust, to distribute unto their brethren by courses, as well to the great as to the small; ¹⁶beside those of the males who were registered by their genealogy, from three years old and upward, even unto every one that entereth into the House of Jehovah, his daily portion for their service in their offices according to their courses; ¹⁷both to the priests who were registered by their genealogy by the house of their fathers, and to the Levites from twenty years old and upward, in their offices by their courses; ¹⁸and to those of all their little ones, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, who were registered by their genealogy, through all the assembly; for in their office of trust they sanctified themselves in holiness. ¹⁹Also unto the Sons of Aaron, the priests, who were in the fields, the pasture lands of their cities, in every several city, the men that are above expressed by name, were to give portions, even to all the males among the priests, and to all that were registered by their genealogies among the Levites.

²⁰And thus did Hezekiah throughout all Judah; and he did what was good and right and truthful before Jehovah his God. ²¹And in every work that he began in the service of the House of God, and in the Law, and in the Commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and he prospered.

³²After these things, and the establishment thereof, Sennacherib king of Assyria came, and entered into Judah, and encamped against the fenced cities, and thought to win them by storm for himself. ² And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib was come, and that he was purposed to fight against Jerusalem, ³ he took counsel with his princes and his warriors to stop the waters of the fountains which were without the city. And they helped him. ⁴ So there was gathered much people together, who stopped all the wells [or tanks] and the brook that flowed through the midst of the land, saying, 'Why should the 'kings of Assyria come, and find much water?' ⁵ Also he strengthened himself, and built up all the wall that was broken, and raised it up to the towers, and another wall on the outside, and he repaired the Millo [or Castle] of the City of David, and made swords and shields in abundance. ⁶ And he set captains of war over the people, and gathered them together to him in the Broad Place of the [Ephraim] Gate of the city; and he spake to their heart, saying, ⁷ 'Be strong and courageous, be not 'afraid nor cast down for the king of Assyria, nor 'for all the rabble that is with him; for there are 'more with us than with him. ⁸ With him is an 'arm of flesh; but with us is Jehovah our God to 'help us, and to fight our battles.' And the people rested themselves upon the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

⁹ After this did Sennacherib king of Assyria send his servants to Jerusalem (but he himself was near Lachish, and all his power with him), unto Hezekiah king of Judah, and unto all Judah that were in Jerusalem, saying, ¹⁰ 'Thus saith Sennacherib king of Assyria, Whereon do ye trust, 'that ye abide in the stronghold of Jerusalem?' ¹¹ 'Doth not Hezekiah persuade you to give over 'yourselves to die by famine and by thirst, saying, 'Jehovah our God will deliver us out of the grasp 'of the king of Assyria?' ¹² Hath not the same 'Hezekiah taken away his High Places and his 'altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, 'saying, Ye shall worship before only one altar, 'and burn incense upon it?' ¹³ Know ye not what 'I and my fathers have done to all the peoples 'of the lands? Were the gods of the nations of those 'lands any ways able to deliver their lands out of my 'hand?' ¹⁴ Who was there among all the gods 'of those nations that my fathers utterly destroyed, 'that could deliver his people out of my hand, that 'your God should be able to deliver you out of my 'hand?' ¹⁵ Now therefore let not Hezekiah deceive 'you, nor persuade you in this manner, neither yet 'believe him. For no god of any nation or king-'dom was able to deliver his people out of my 'hand, or out of the hand of my fathers. How 'much less shall your God deliver you out of my 'hand?' ¹⁶ And his servants spake yet more against Jehovah God, and against his servant Hezekiah. ¹⁷ He wrote also letters to rail against Jehovah the God of Israel, and to speak against him, saying, 'As the gods of the nations of other 'lands have not delivered their people out of my 'hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliver 'his people out of my hand.' ¹⁸ Then they cried with a loud voice in the Jewish language unto the people of Jerusalem that were on the wall, to affright them, and to trouble them; so that they might take the city. ¹⁹ And they spake against the God of Jerusalem, as against the gods of the peoples of the land, which are the work of the hands of man.

²⁰ And for this cause Hezekiah the king, and the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz, prayed and cried to heaven. ²¹ And Jehovah sent an angel, who cut off all the warriors of valour, and the leaders and captains in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he was come into the house of his god, they that came forth of his own bowels slew him there with the sword. ²² Thus Jehovah saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all others, and guided them on every side. ²³ And many brought gifts unto Jehovah to Jerusalem, and precious things to Hezekiah king of Judah. So that he was raised up in the eyes of all the nations from thenceforth.

²⁴ In those days Hezekiah was sick to the death; and he prayed to Jehovah. And He spake to him, and gave him a wonderful sign. ²⁵ But Hezekiah rendered not again according to the benefit done unto him; for his heart was lifted up. Therefore there was wrath upon him, and upon Judah and Jerusalem. ²⁶ Then Hezekiah humbled himself for the lifting up of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of Jehovah came not upon them in the days of Hezekiah.

²⁷ And Hezekiah had exceeding much riches and honour. And he made for himself treasuries for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all manner of pleasant jewels; ²⁸ storehouses also for the increase of corn, and grape juice, and oil; and stalls for all manner of cattle, and flocks for the stalls. ²⁹ Moreover he provided for himself cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance; for God had given him very great riches. ³⁰ This same Hezekiah also stopped the upper watercourse of Gihon, and brought it straight down on the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all his works. ³¹ Howbeit in the business of the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, who sent to him to inquire of the wonderful sign that was done in the land, God left him, to try him, that he might know all that was in his heart.

33 MANASSEH was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem; ² but did evil in the sight of Jehovah, like the abominations of the nations, which Jehovah had cast out before the children of Israel. ³ For he built again the High Places which Hezekiah his father had broken down, and he reared up altars for Baal, and made images of Ashera, and worshipped all the host of the heavens, and served them. ⁴ Also he built altars in the House of Jehovah, whereof Jehovah had said, 'In Jerusalem shall my Name be for ever;' ⁵ even he built altars for all the host of the heavens in the two courts of the House of Jehovah. ⁶ And he caused his children to pass through the fire in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom. Also he observed clouds, and used enchantments, and used witchcraft, and dealt with a speaking bottle [or ventriloquism], and with wizards. He did much evil in the sight of Jehovah, to provoke him to anger. ⁷ And he set a carved image, the idol which he had made, in the House of God, of which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, 'In this House, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen before all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever; ⁸ neither will I any more remove the foot of Israel from out of the land which I have appointed for your fathers; if only they will take heed to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole Law and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand of Moses.' ⁹ So Manasseh made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to err and to do worse than the nations which Jehovah had destroyed before the children of Israel.

¹⁰ And Jehovah spake to Manasseh, and to his people. But they would not hearken. ¹¹ Therefore Jehovah brought upon them the captains of the host of the king of Assyria, who took Manasseh with grappling hooks, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon. ¹² And when he was in affliction, he besought the face of Jehovah his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers, ¹³ and prayed to him. And He was entreated towards him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that Jehovah he was God.

¹⁴ Now after this he built a wall on the outside of the city of David, from the west side, near the Gihon in the valley, even unto the entering in at the Fish Gate, and he carried it round to Ophel [the suburb], and raised it up to a very great height; and he put captains of war in all the fenced cities of Judah. ¹⁵ And he took away the foreign gods, and the idol out of the House of Jehovah, and all the altars that he had built on the mountain of the House of Jehovah, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city. ¹⁶ And he repaired the altar of Jehovah, and sacrificed thereon sacrifices of peace offerings and thank offerings, and commanded Judah to serve Jehovah the God of Israel. ¹⁷ Nevertheless the people did sacrifice still on the High Places, yet unto Jehovah their God only.

¹⁸ Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers that spake to him in the name of Jehovah the God of Israel, behold, they are written in the Acts of the kings of Israel. ¹⁹ His prayer also, and how [God] was entreated towards him, and all his sins, and his trespass, and the places wherein he built High Places, and set up images of Ashera and graven images, before he was humbled; behold, they are written in the Sayings of the Seers. ²⁰ So Manasseh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house; and Amon his son reigned in his stead [B.C. 643].

²¹ AMON was two and twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. ²² But he did evil in the sight of Jehovah, as did Manasseh his father. For Amon sacrificed to all the carved images which Manasseh his father had made, and served them. ²³ And he humbled not himself before Jehovah, as Manasseh his father had humbled himself; but Amon trespassed more and more. ²⁴ And his servants conspired against him, and slew him in his own house. ²⁵ But the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead [B.C. 641].

34 JOSIAH was eight years old when he began to reign, and He reigned in Jerusalem one and thirty years. ² And he did what was right in the sight of Jehovah, and walked in the ways of David his father, and turned neither to the right hand, nor to the left. ³ For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet a young man, he began to seek after the God of David his father; and in the twelfth year he began to cleanse Judah and Jerusalem from the High Places, and the images of Ashera, and the carved images, and the molten images. ⁴ And they brake down the altars of Baal in his presence; and the Sun-images, that were on high above them, he cut down; and the images of Ashera, and the carved images, and the molten images, he brake in pieces, and made dust of them, and strewed it upon the face of the graves of them that had sacrificed to them. ⁵ And he burnt the bones of the priests upon their own altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem. ⁶ And so did he in the cities of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even unto Naphtali in their ruined places round about. ⁷ And when he had broken down the altars, and the images of Ashera, and had beaten the carved images into powder, and cut down all the Sun-images throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.

⁸ Now in the eighteenth year of his reign [B.C. 624], when he had cleansed the land, and the House, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the House of Jehovah his God. ⁹ And when they came to Hilkiah the high priest, they delivered the money of the income of the House of God, which the Levites that kept the doors had gathered out of the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin; and they returned to Jerusalem. ¹⁰ And they put it into the hand of them that had the oversight of the work in the House of Jehovah; and they gave it to the workmen that worked in the House of Jehovah, for the breaches and to repair the House. ¹¹ And to the artificers and builders gave they it, to buy hewn stone, and timber for joists, and to roof the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed. ¹² And the men did the work faithfully. And over them were appointed Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to direct; and of the Levites, all that had skill in instruments of music. ¹³ Also some were over the bearers of burdens, and were overseers of all that wrought the work in any manner of service; and of the Levites some were scribes, and officers, and gate-keepers.

¹⁴ And when they brought out the money of the income of the House of Jehovah, Hilkiyah the priest found a Book of the Law of Jehovah given by the hand of Moses. ¹⁵ And Hilkiyah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, 'I have found a Book of the Law in the House of Jehovah.' And Hilkiyah delivered the book to Shaphan. ¹⁶ And Shaphan carried the book to the king, when he brought the king word back again, saying, 'All that was committed to the hand of thy servants they are doing it.' ¹⁷ And they have melted [or coined] the silver that was found in the House of Jehovah, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and to the hand of the workmen.' ¹⁸ Then Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, 'Hilkiyah the Priest hath given me a book.' And Shaphan read it before the king. ¹⁹ And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the Law, that he rent his clothes. ²⁰ And the king commanded Hilkiyah, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Abdon the son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asahiah a servant of the king's, saying, ²¹ 'Go, inquire of Jehovah for me, and for them that are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found. For great is the wrath of Jehovah that is poured out upon us, because our fathers have not kept the word of Jehovah, and to do after all that is written in this book.'

²² And Hilkiyah, and they whom the king had appointed, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvath, the son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the second [or Lower city]); and they spake to her to that effect. ²³ And she answered them, 'Thus saith Jehovah the God of Israel, 'Tell ye the man that sent you to me, ²⁴ thus saith Jehovah, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all these self-curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah: ²⁵ Be'cause they have forsaken me, and have burned incense to other gods, so that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore my wrath shall be poured out upon this place, and shall not be quenched.—²⁶ And as for the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of Jehovah, so shall ye say to him, Thus saith Jehovah the God of Israel, as touching the words which thou hast heard; ²⁷ Because thy heart was tender, and thou didst humble thyself before God, when thou heardest his words against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, and humbledst thyself before me, and didst rend thy clothes, and weep before me; I have even heard thee also, Jehovah hath said it. ²⁸ Behold, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered to thy grave in peace, neither shall thine eyes see all the evil that I will bring upon this place, and upon the inhabitants of the same.' So they brought the king word again.

²⁹ Then the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. ³⁰ And the king went up into the House of Jehovah, and all the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people, great and small. And he read in their ears all the words of the Book of the Covenant that was found in the House of Jehovah. ³¹ And the king stood in his place, and made a covenant before Jehovah, to walk after Jehovah, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant which are written in this book. ³² And he caused all that were present in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand to it. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers. ³³ And Josiah took away all the abominations [or idols] out of all the countries that belonged to the children of Israel, and made all that were present in Israel to serve, even to serve Jehovah their God. And all his days they departed not from following Jehovah, the God of their fathers.

³⁵ Moreover Josiah kept a Passover unto Jehovah in Jerusalem. And they killed the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month. ² And he set the priests over their charges, and encouraged them to the service of the House of Jehovah. ³ And he said to the Levites that taught all Israel, who were holy to Jehovah, 'Put the holy Ark in the House which Solomon the son of David king of Israel did build; it shall not be a burden upon your shoulders. Serve ye now Jehovah your God, and his people Israel, and prepare yourselves by the houses of your fathers, after your courses, as in the writing of David king of Israel, and in the writing of Solomon his son. ⁵ And stand ye in the Holy Place according to the classes of the house of the fathers of your brethren the sons of the people, and after the division of the house of the fathers of the Levites. ⁶ So kill the passover, and sanctify yourselves, and prepare your brethren,

'that they may do according to the word of Jehovah by the hand of Moses.' ⁷ And Josiah brought for the sons of the people, out of the flock, lambs and kids, the whole needed for the passover offerings, for all that were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bullocks. These were out of the king's substance. ⁸ And his princes brought as a freewill offering for the people, for the priests, and for the Levites; even Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, rulers of the House of God, gave to the priests two thousand and six hundred passover animals, and three hundred oxen. ⁹ Conaniah also, and Shemaiah and Nethaneel, his brethren, and Hashabiah, and Jeiel and Jozabad, chief of the Levites, brought for the Levites five thousand passover animals, and five hundred oxen. ¹⁰ So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the Levites in their courses, according to the king's command. ¹¹ And they killed the passover, and the priests sprinkled [the blood] from their hands, and the Levites took the skin off. ¹² And they removed the burnt offerings, that they might give them, according to the classes of the houses of the fathers, unto the sons of the people, to bring to Jehovah, as it is written in the Book of Moses. And so did they with the oxen. ¹³ And they cooked the passover with fire according to the ordinance. But the other holy offerings cooked they in pots, and in kettles, and in pans, and divided them speedily among all the sons of the people. ¹⁴ And afterward they made ready for themselves, and for the priests; because the priests the sons of Aaron were busied in offering up the burnt offerings and the fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the sons of Aaron. ¹⁵ And the singers the sons of Asaph were in their place, according to the command of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer. And the gate-keepers were at every gate; they could not depart from their service; therefore their brethren the Levites prepared for them. ¹⁶ So all the service of Jehovah was prepared the same day, to keep the Passover, and to offer up burnt offerings on the altar of Jehovah, according to the command of king Josiah. ¹⁷ And the children of Israel that were present kept the Passover at that time, and the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days. ¹⁸ And there was no Passover like to that kept in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet; neither did the kings of Israel keep such a Passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel that were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁹ In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah [B.C. 624] was this Passover kept.

²⁰ After all this, when Josiah had prepared the House, Necho king of Egypt came up to fight at Carchemish by the Euphrates. And Josiah went out against him. ²¹ But [Necho] sent messengers to him, saying, 'What have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah? I come not against thee this day, but against the house wherewith I have war.' For God commanded me to make haste. Forbear

'thee from God, who is with me, that he destroy thee not.' ²² Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and hearkened not to the words of Necho from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo. ²³ And the archers shot at king Josiah. And the king said to his servants, 'Take me away; for I am sore wounded.' ²⁴ His servants therefore took him out of that chariot, and put him into the second chariot that he had; and they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died. And he was buried in the burial-place of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah. ²⁵ And Jeremiah lamented for Josiah. And all the singing men and the singing women speak of Josiah in their lamentations to this day, and have made them an ordinance in Israel. And behold, they are written in the Lamentations.

²⁶ Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his kindness, according to what is written in the law of Jehovah, ²⁷ and his acts, the first and the last, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

36 Then the people of the land took JEHOHAZ the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's stead in Jerusalem [B.C. 610]. ² Jehoahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. ³ And the king of Egypt put him aside at Jerusalem, and laid a tribute on the land of a hundred Kikars [or hundred weights] of silver and a Kikar of gold. ⁴ And the king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem. And he turned his name to Jehoiakim. And Necho took Jehoahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt.

⁵ JEHOIAKIM was twenty and five years old when he began to reign [B.C. 610], and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And he did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah his God. ⁶ Against him came up Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and bound him in copper fetters, to carry him to Babylon. ⁷ Nebuchadnezzar also carried some of the vessels of the House of Jehovah to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon. ⁸ Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and his abominations which he did, and what befell him, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah. And Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead [B.C. 600].

⁹ JEHOIACHIN was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem; and he did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah. ¹⁰ And at the return of the year, king Nebuchadnezzar sent, and brought him to Babylon, with the goodly vessels of the House of Jehovah, and made Zedekiah his [father's] brother king over Judah and Jerusalem [B.C. 599].

¹¹ ZEDEKIAH was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. ¹² And he did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah his God, and humbled not himself before Jeremiah, who was a prophet from the mouth of Jehovah. ¹³ And he also rebelled against king Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God. But he stiffened his neck, and hardened his heart from turning to Jehovah the God of Israel.

¹⁴ Moreover all the chiefs of the priests, and of the people, had transgressed very much after all the abominations of the Nations, and polluted the House of Jehovah, which he had hallowed in Jerusalem. ¹⁵ And Jehovah the God of their fathers sent to them by the hand of his messengers [or preachers], rising up betimes, and sending; because he had compassion on his people, and on his dwelling-place. ¹⁶ But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and misused the prophets, until the wrath of Jehovah arose against his people, till there was no remedy. ¹⁷ Therefore he brought upon them the king of the Chaldees, who slew their young men with the sword in the House of their Sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young man or maiden, old man, or him that had white hairs. He gave them all into his hand. ¹⁸ And all the vessels of the House of God, great and small, and the treasures of the House of Jehovah, and the treasures of the king, and of his princes; all these he brought to

Babylon [B.C. 589]. ¹⁹ And they burnt the House of God, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem, and burnt all its palaces with fire, and destroyed all its goodly vessels. ²⁰ And them that had escaped from the sword carried he away to Babylon; where they were servants to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Persia; ²¹ to fulfil the word of Jehovah by the mouth of Jeremiah [in chap. xxv. 11], until the land had enjoyed her sabbaths. All the days of her desolation she kept sabbath, to fulfil seventy years.

²² Now in the first year of CYRUS KING OF PERSIA [B.C. 538], that the word of Jehovah which was in the mouth of Jeremiah [chap. xxix. 10] might be accomplished, Jehovah stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying, ²³ Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, All the kingdoms of the earth hath Jehovah the God of heaven given me; and he hath charged me to build him the House in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whoever there is among you of all his people, may Jehovah his God be with him; and let him go up.

THE BOOK OF EZRA.

NOW IN THE FIRST YEAR of Cyrus king of Persia [B.C. 538], that the word of Jehovah by the mouth of Jeremiah [ch. xxix. 10] might be fulfilled, Jehovah stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying, ² Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, Jehovah the God of heaven hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth; and he hath charged me to build for him the House at Jerusalem, which is in Judah. ³ Whoever there is among you of all his people, may his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the House of Jehovah the God of Israel, (he is God,) which is in Jerusalem. ⁴ And whosoever is left in any place where he sojourneth, let the men of his place help him with silver, and with gold, and with goods, and with cattle, beside the free-will offering for the House of God that is in Jerusalem.

⁵ Then rose up the chief of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, with all them, whose spirit God had stirred up, to go up to build the House of Jehovah which is in Jerusalem. ⁶ And all they that were about them strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with cattle, and with precious things; beside all that was willingly offered.

⁷ Also Cyrus the king brought forth the vessels of the House of Jehovah, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought forth out of Jerusalem, and had put them in the house of his gods; ⁸ even those did Cyrus king of Persia bring forth by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and numbered them unto Sheshbazzar [or Zerubbabel], the Prince of Judah. ⁹ And this is the number of them; thirty dishes of gold, a thousand dishes of silver, nine and twenty knives, ¹⁰ thirty covered cups of gold silver covered cups of a second sort four hundred and ten, and other vessels a thousand. ¹¹ All the vessels of gold and of silver were five thousand and four hundred. All these did Sheshbazzar bring up with them of the captivity that went up from Babylon to Jerusalem.

² Now these are THE CHILDREN OF THE PROVINCE [of Judea] that went up out of the captivity, of those that had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away to Babylon; and they came again to Jerusalem and Judah, every one to his own city.

² Those who came with Zerubbabel; Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mizpar, Bigvai, Rehum, Baanah.

⁴² THE SONS OF THE GATE-KEEPERS ;

the sons of Shallum, the sons of Ater, the sons of Talmon, the sons of Akkub, the sons of Hatita, the sons of Shobai, in all a hundred thirty and nine.

⁴³ THE NETHINS [or Temple-servants] ;

the sons of Ziha, the sons of Hasupha, the sons of Tabbaoth, ⁴⁴ the sons of Keros, by Miz

the sons of Siaha, the sons of Padon, ⁴⁵ the sons of Lebanah, the sons of Hagabah, the sons of Akkub, ⁴⁶ the sons of Hagab, the sons of Shalmai, the sons of Hanan, ⁴⁷ the sons of Giddel, the sons of Gahar, the sons of Reaiah, ⁴⁸ the sons of Rezin, the sons of Nekoda, the sons of Gazzam, ⁴⁹ the sons of Uzza, the sons of Paseah, the sons of Besai, ⁵⁰ the sons of Asnah, the sons of Maonim, the sons of Nephusim, ⁵¹ the sons of Bakbuk, the sons of Hakupha, the sons of Harhur, ⁵² the sons of Bazluth, the sons of Mehida, the sons of Harsha, ⁵³ the sons of Barkos, the sons of Sisera, the sons of Thamah, ⁵⁴ the sons of Neziah, the sons of Hatipha.

⁵⁵ THE SONS OF SOLOMON'S SERVANTS ; the sons of Sotai, the sons of Sophereth, the sons of Peruda, ⁵⁶ the sons of Jaalah, the sons of Darkon, the sons of Giddel, ⁵⁷ the sons of Shephatiah, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Pochereth of Zebaim, the sons of Ami. ⁵⁸ All the Nethins, and the sons of Solomon's servants, were three hundred ninety and two.

⁵⁹ And these are they that went up from Tel-melah, Tel-haresha, Cherub, Addan, and Immer ; but they COULD NOT SHEW THEIR FATHER'S HOUSE, and their seed, whether they were of Israel ; ⁶⁰ the sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, the sons of Nekoda, six hundred fifty and two. ⁶¹ And of the sons of the priests ; the sons of Habaiah, the sons of Koz, the sons of Barzillai, who took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called after their name ; ⁶² these sought the writings of their genealogy, but they were not found ; therefore were they as polluted, put from the priesthood. ⁶³ And the Tirshatha [or Persian governor, Zerubbabel] said to them that they should not eat from the Holy of Holies, till there stood up a priest with Urim and with Thummim.

⁶⁴ The whole assembly together was forty thousand two thousand three hundred and sixty, ⁶⁵ beside their servants, and their handmaids, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven. And there were among them two hundred singing men and singing women. ⁶⁶ Their horses were seven hundred thirty and six ; their mules, two hundred forty and five ; ⁶⁷ their camels, four hundred thirty and five ; their asses, six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

⁶⁸ And some of the chief of the fathers, when they came to the House of Jehovah which is at Jerusalem, offered freely for the House of God to set it up in its place ; ⁶⁹ they gave after their ability unto the treasure of the work sixty and one thousand Darics [or pounds sterling] of gold, and five thousand Minahs [or 11,000 pounds' weight] of silver, and one hundred priests' under-coats. ⁷⁰ So the priests, and the Levites, and some of the people, and the singers, and the gate-keepers, and the Nethins, dwelt in their cities, and all Israel in their cities. ⁷¹

3 AND WHEN THE SEVENTH MONTH was come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together as one man to Jerusalem. 2 Then rose up Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and his brethren, and builded the Altar of the God of Israel, to offer up burnt offerings thereon, as it is written in the Law of Moses the man of God. 3 And they built the Altar on its foundations; for fear was upon them because of the peoples of the countries. And they offered up burnt offerings thereon unto Jehovah, burnt offerings morning and evening. 4 And they kept the Feast of Tabernacles, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt offerings by number, according to the ordinance, each day's number in its own day. 5 And afterward they offered up the continual burnt offering, both of the new moons, and of all the solemn feasts of Jehovah, that were made holy, and for every one that willingly offered a freewill offering unto Jehovah. 6 From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt offerings unto Jehovah. But the foundation of the Temple of Jehovah was not yet laid.

7 Now they gave money to the masons, and to the carpenters; and food, and drink, and oil, to them of Zidon, and to them of Tyre, to bring cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea coast at Joppa, according to the grant that they had from Cyrus king of Persia. 8 And in the second year of their coming to the House of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the remnant of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem; and they appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to set forward the work of the House of Jehovah. 9 Then stood Jeshua with his sons, and his brethren, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah [or Hodaviah] as one man, to set forward the workmen in the House of God; the sons of Henadad, with their sons and their brethren the Levites. 10 And when the builders laid the foundation of the Temple of Jehovah, they set the priests in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with cymbals, to praise Jehovah, after the ordinance of David king of Israel. 11 And they sang together by courses in praising and giving thanks to Jehovah; 'for he is good, for his kindness endureth for ever toward Israel.' And all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised Jehovah, because the foundation of the House of Jehovah was laid. 12 And many of the priests and Levites and chief of the fathers, who were old men, that had seen the former House, when the foundation of this House was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted aloud for joy; 13 so that the people could not distinguish the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people; for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

4 Now when the adversaries of Judah and

Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity were building the Temple unto Jehovah the God of Israel; 2 then they came to Zerubbabel, and to the chief of the fathers, and said to them, 'Let us build with you; for we enquire of your God, as ye do; and we have sacrificed unto him since the days of Esar-haddon king of Assyria, who brought us up hither.' 3 But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Israel, said to them, 'Ye have nothing to do with us to build the House unto our God; but we ourselves alone will build unto Jehovah the God of Israel, as king Cyrus the king of Persia had commanded us.' 4 Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them while building, 5 and hired counsellors against them, to defeat their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.

6 AND IN THE REIGN OF AHASUERUS [or Cambyses], in the beginning of his reign [B.C. 529], wrote they an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem; 7 even in the days of Artaxerxes wrote Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their companions, to Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the writing of the letter was written in Syriac letters, and translated into the Syriac tongue.

* 8 Rehum the keeper of the decrees and Shimshai the scribe wrote a PUBLIC LETTER against * Jerusalem to Artaxerxes [or Cambyses] the king * in this manner; 9 then wrote Rehum the keeper * of the decrees, and Shimshai the scribe, and the * rest of their companions; the Dinaites, the * Apharsathchites, the Tarpelites, the Apharsites * [or Persians], the Erechvites, the Babylonians, * the Sushanites, the Dehavites, and the Elamites, * 10 and the rest of the nations whom the great * and noble Asuapper carried away, and set in the * cities of Samaria, and the rest that are beyond * the River [Euphrates], and so forth. 11 This is * the copy of the public letter that they sent to * him.

* 'Unto Artaxerxes the king; thy servants * 'the men beyond the River, and so forth. * 12 Be it known to the king, that the Jews who * 'came up from near thee to us are come to Jeru- * 'salem, and are building the rebellious and the * 'bad city, and are completing its walls, and re- * 'pairing the foundations. 13 Be it known now * 'to the king, that, if this city be builded, and * 'the walls be completed, then will they not * 'pay custom, tribute, and road-service, and in * 'the end thou wilt bring loss upon the kings. * 14 Now because we have salt [or maintenance] * 'from the palace, and it is not meet for us to see * 'the king's dishonour, therefore have we sent * 'and certified the king; 15 so that search may be * 'made in the book of the records of thy fathers; * 'so shalt thou find in the book of the records, * 'and know that this city is a rebellious city, * 'and hurtful to kings and provinces, and that

* 'they have made sedition within the same of
* 'old time; for which cause was this city de-
* 'stroyed. ¹⁶ We certify the king that, if this
* 'city be builded again, and its walls completed,
* 'by this means thou wilt have no portion beyond
* 'the River [Euphrates].'

* ¹⁷ The king sent answer,
* 'Unto Rehum the keeper of the decrees, and
* 'to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of
* 'their companions that dwell in Samaria, and
* 'to the rest beyond the River, peace, and so
* 'forth.

* ¹⁸ The letter which ye sent to us hath been
* 'plainly read before me. ¹⁹ And of myself I
* 'made a decree, and search hath been made, and
* 'it is found that this city of old time hath made
* 'insurrection against kings, and that rebellion
* 'and sedition have been made therein. ²⁰ There
* 'have been mighty kings also over Jerusalem,
* 'who have ruled over all the countries beyond
* 'the River; and custom, tribute, and road-
* 'service was paid to them. ²¹ Make ye now a
* 'decree to cause these men to cease, and that
* 'this city be not builded, until a decree shall be
* 'made by myself. ²² Take heed now that ye
* 'fail not to do this; why should damage grow
* 'to the hurt of the kings?'

* ²³ Now when the copy of king Artaxerxes'
* letter was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the
* scribe, and their companions, they went up in
* haste to Jerusalem to the Jews, and made them
* to cease by strength of arm and by power.
* ²⁴ Then ceased the work of the House of God
* which is at Jerusalem. So it ceased until the * second year of THE REIGN OF DARIUS king of * Persia.

* 5 Then [B.C. 520] the prophets, Haggai the * prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo, proph* esied to the Jews that were in Judah and
* Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel,
* even to them. ² Then rose up Zerubbabel the * son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak,
* and began to build the House of God which is at
* Jerusalem; and with them were the prophets of
* God helping them.

* ³ At the same time came to them Tatnai the
* Pacha [or governor] beyond the River, and
* Shethar-boznai, and their companions, and said
* thus to them, 'Who hath made a decree for you
* 'to build this House, and to complete this wall?'
* ⁴ Then we told them in like manner what were
* the names of the men that were making this * building. ⁵ But the eye of their God was upon
* the elders of the Jews that those men could not
* cause them to cease till a decree of Darius came;
* and then they returned answer by letter concern* ing this.

* ⁶ The copy of THE PUBLIC LETTER that Tatnai,
* the Pacha beyond the River, and Shethar-boznai,
* and his companions the Apharsachites, who were
* beyond the River, sent to Darius the king

* ⁷ They sent a letter to him, wherein was written
* thus;

* 'Unto Darius the king, all peace.
* ⁸ Be it known to the king, that we went into the * 'province of Judea, to the House of the great
* 'God, which is being builded with great stones,
* 'and timber is being laid in the walls, and this
* 'work goeth on fast, and prospereth in their
* 'hands. ⁹ Then asked we those elders, and said
* 'to them thus, Who made a decree for you to
* 'build this House, and to complete these walls?
* ¹⁰ We asked their names also, to certify thee,
* 'that we might write the names of the men that
* 'were the chief of them. ¹¹ And thus they re-
* 'turned us answer, saying, We are the servants
* 'of the God of heaven and earth, and are build-
* 'ing the House that was builded these many
* 'years ago, which a great king of Israel builded
* 'and completed. ¹² But after that our fathers
* 'had provoked the God of heaven unto wrath,
* 'he gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar
* 'the king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who de-
* 'stroyed this house, and carried the people
* 'away to Babylon. ¹³ But in the first year
* 'of Cyrus the king of Babylon the same king
* 'Cyrus made a decree to build this House of
* 'God. ¹⁴ And the vessels also of gold and silver
* 'of the House of God, which Nebuchadnezzar
* 'took out of the Temple that was in Jerusalem,
* 'and carried them into the temple of Babylon,
* 'those did Cyrus the king take out of the temple
* 'of Babylon, and they were delivered to one,
* 'whose name was Sheshbazzar [or Zerubbabel],
* 'whom he had made Pacha; ¹⁵ and said to him,
* 'Take these vessels, go, place them in the Temple
* 'that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God
* 'be builded in its place. ¹⁶ Then came the same
* 'Sheshbazzar, and laid the foundation of the
* 'House of God which is in Jerusalem; and since
* 'that time even unto now hath it been in
* 'building, and yet it is not finished. ¹⁷ Now
* 'therefore if it seem good to the king, let there
* 'be search made in the king's treasure house,
* 'which is there at Babylon, whether it be so,
* 'that a decree was made by Cyrus the king to
* 'build this House of God at Jerusalem, and let
* 'the king send his pleasure to us concerning this
* 'matter.'

* 6 Then Darius the king made A DECREE,
* [saying]

* 'Whereas search hath been made in the house
* 'of the writings, where the treasures are laid up
* 'in Babylon, ² and there hath been found at
* 'Achemetha [or Egbatana], in the palace that is
* 'in the province of the Medes, a roll, and therein
* 'is a record thus written;

* ³ In the first year of Cyrus the king, the same
* 'Cyrus the king made a decree concerning the
* 'House of God at Jerusalem,—Let the House be
* 'builded, the Place where they offered sacrifices,
* 'and let its foundations be strongly laid; its height
* 'sixty cubits, and its breadth sixty cubits; [let

* 'the Great Court be inclosed with] ⁴ three rows
* 'of great stones, and a row of new timber; and
* 'let the expenses be given out of the king's
* 'house; ⁵ and also let the golden and silver
* 'vessels of the House of God, which Nebuchad-
* 'nezzar took forth out of the temple which is at
* 'Jerusalem, and brought to Babylon, be restored,
* 'and brought again to the temple which is at
* 'Jerusalem, each to its place, and place them in
* 'the House of God;

* ⁶ Now therefore ye, Tatnai the Pacha beyond
* 'the River, Shethar-boznai, and your companions
* 'the Apharsachites, who are beyond the River,
* 'be ye far from thence. ⁷ Let alone the work of
* 'this House of God; let the Pacha of the Jews
* 'and the elders of the Jews build this House of
* 'God in its place. ⁸ Moreover of myself I make
* 'a decree as to what ye shall do to the elders of
* 'these Jews for the building of this House of
* 'God; that out of the king's goods, which are
* 'out of the tribute beyond the River, forthwith
* 'expenses be given to these men, that they be
* 'not hindered. ⁹ And that which they have
* 'need of, both young bullocks, and rams, and
* 'lambs, for the burnt offerings to the God of
* 'heaven, wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to
* 'the appointment of the priests who are at
* 'Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day
* 'without fail; ¹⁰ so that they may bring gifts of
* 'sweet savour to the God of heaven, and pray
* 'for the life of the king, and of his sons. ¹¹ Also
* 'of myself I make a decree, that whosoever shall
* 'alter this command, let a beam be pulled down
* 'from his house, and being set up, let him be
* 'hanged thereon; and let his house be made a
* 'dunghill for this. ¹² And may the God that
* 'hath caused his name to dwell there overthrow
* 'all kings and people that shall put their hand
* 'to alter and to destroy this House of God which
* 'is at Jerusalem. I Darius have made the
* 'decree; let it be done with speed.'

* ¹³ Then Tatnai the Pacha beyond the River,
* 'Shethar-boznai, and their companions, according
* 'to that which Darius the king had sent, so did
* 'they speedily. ¹⁴ And the elders of the Jews
* 'build, and they prospered through the pro-
* 'phesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah
* 'the son of Iddo. And they builded and finished
* 'it, according to the command of the God of
* 'Israel, and according to the decree of Cyrus,
* 'and Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia.

* ¹⁵ And this house was finished on the third
* 'day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth
* 'year of the reign of Darius the king [B.C. 516].

* ¹⁶ And the children of Israel, the priests, and
* 'the Levites, and the rest of the children of the
* 'captivity, kept the dedication of this House of
* 'God with joy, ¹⁷ and brought as a gift at the
* 'dedication of this House of God a hundred bul-
* 'locks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs;
* 'and for a sin offering for all Israel, twelve he
* 'goats, according to the number of the tribes of

* Israel. ¹⁸ And they set the priests in their
* 'divisions and the Levites in their courses, for
* 'the service of God, which is at Jerusalem; as it
* 'is written in the Book of Moses.

* ¹⁹ And the children of the captivity kept the
* 'Passover upon the fourteenth day of the first
* 'month. ²⁰ For the priests and the Levites were
* 'purified together, all of them were pure, and they
* 'killed the passover for all the children of the cap-
* 'tivity, and for their brethren the priests, and for
* 'themselves. ²¹ And the children of Israel, who
* 'were come back out of captivity, and all such as
* 'had separated themselves unto them from the filth-
* 'iness of the Gentiles of the land, to seek Je-
* 'hovah the God of Israel, did eat. ²² And they
* 'kept the feast of Unleavened Bread seven days
* 'with joy; for Jehovah had made them joyful, and
* 'turned the heart of the king of Assyria [Darius]
* 'unto them, to strengthen their hands in the work
* 'of the House of God, the God of Israel.

* ⁷ Now after these things, in THE REIGN OF
* 'ARTAXERXES [Xerxes I.] king of Persia, the chief
* 'priest was Ezra,

the son of Seraiah [1 Ch. vi. 14],	the son of Meraioth,
the son of Azariah,	⁴ the son of Zeremiah,
the son of Hilkiah,	the son of Uzzi,
² the son of Shallum,	the son of Bukki,
the son of Zadok,	² the son of Abishua,
the son of Ahitub,	the son of Phinehas,
³ the son of Amariah,	the son of Eleazar,
the son of Azariah,	the son of Aaron.

* ⁶ This Ezra went up from Babylon; and he was
* 'a ready scribe in the Law of Moses, which Jehovah
* 'the God of Israel had given; and the king granted
* 'him all his request, because the band of Jehovah,
* 'his God was upon him. ⁷ And there went up some
* 'of the children of Israel, and of the priests, and
* 'the Levites, and the singers, and the gate-keepers,
* 'and the Nethins, unto Jerusalem, in the seventh
* 'year of Artaxerxes the king [B.C. 479]. ⁸ And he
* 'came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was
* 'in the seventh year of the king. ⁹ For on the first
* 'day of the first month began he to go up from
* 'Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month
* 'came he to Jerusalem, because the good hand of
* 'his God was upon him. ¹⁰ For Ezra had prepared
* 'his heart to seek the Law of Jehovah, and to
* 'do it, and to teach in Israel the statutes and judg-
* 'ments.

* ¹¹ Now this is the COPY OF THE LETTER that the
* 'king Artaxerxes gave to Ezra the priest, the scribe,
* 'even a scribe of the words of the commandments
* 'of Jehovah, and of his statutes to Israel.

* ¹² Artaxerxes, king of kings, unto Ezra the
* 'priest, a scribe perfect in the law of the
* 'God of heaven, and so forth.

* ¹³ Of myself I make a decree, that all they of
* 'the people of Israel, and of his priests and
* 'Levites, in my kingdom, who are minded of
* 'their own freewill to go up to Jerusalem, do go
* 'with thee. ¹⁴ Forasmuch as thou art sent from
* 'before the king, and his seven counsellors, to

* 'inquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, according to the Law of thy God which is in thy hand; ¹⁹ and to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counsellors have freely offered unto the God of Israel, whose habitation is in Jerusalem, ¹⁶ and all the silver and gold that thou canst find in all the province of Babylon, with the freewill offering of the [Jewish] people, and of the priests, who offer willingly for the House of their God which is in Jerusalem; ¹⁷ that thou mayest buy speedily with this money bullocks, rams, lambs, with their meal offerings and their drink offerings, and bring them unto the Altar of the House of your God which is in Jerusalem. ¹⁸ And whatsoever shall seem good to thee, and to thy brethren, to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, that do after the will of your God. ¹⁹ The vessels also that are given thee for the service of the House of thy God, those do thou restore before the God of Jerusalem. ²⁰ And whatsoever more shall be needful for the House of thy God, which thou shalt have occasion to bestow, bestow it out of the king's treasure house. ²¹ And of myself I, Artaxerxes the king, do make a decree to all the treasurers who are beyond the River, that whatsoever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the Law of the God of heaven, shall require of you, it be done speedily, ²² unto a hundred Kikars [or hundred weights] of silver, and to a hundred Cors [or nine hundred bushels] of wheat, and to a hundred Baths [or seventy-five gallons] of wine, and to a hundred Baths of oil, and salt without measure. ²³ Whatsoever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be diligently done for the House of the God of heaven; for why should there be wrath against the kingdom of the king and his sons? ²⁴ Also we certify you, that touching any of the priests and Levites, singers, doorkeepers, Nethins, or servants of this House of God, it shall not be lawful to impose custom, tribute, or road-service, upon them. ²⁵ And thou, Ezra, after the wisdom of thy God, that is in thy hand, set magistrates and judges, who may judge all the people that are beyond the River, all such as know the laws of thy God; and teach ye them that know them not. ²⁶ And whatsoever will not do the law of thy God, and the law of the king, let judgment be executed speedily upon him, whether it be unto death, or to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment.'

²⁷ Blessed be Jehovah the God of our fathers, who hath put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the House of Jehovah which is in Jerusalem; ²⁸ and hath extended kindness to me before the king, and his counsellors, and before all the king's mighty princes. And I was strengthened because the hand of Jehovah my God was upon me; and I gathered together out of Israel chief men to go up with me.

8 NOW THESE are the chief of their fathers, and this is the genealogy of them that went up with me from Babylon, in the reign of Artaxerxes the king.

² Of the sons of Phinehas; Gershom; of the sons of Ithmar; Daniel; of the sons of David; Hattush, ³ one of the sons of Shechaniah; of the sons of Pharosh; Zechariah, and with him were reckoned by genealogy of the males a hundred and fifty.

⁴ Of the sons of the Pacha of Moab; Elihoenai the son of Zarahiah, and with him two hundred males.

⁵ Of the sons of Shechaniah; the son of Jahaziel, and with him three hundred males.

⁶ Of the sons also of Adin; Ebed the son of Jonathan, and with him fifty males.

⁷ And of the sons of Elam; Jeshaiah the son of Athaliah, and with him seventy males.

⁸ And of the sons of Shephatiah; Zebadiah the son of Michael, and with him eighty males.

⁹ Of the sons of Joab; Obadiah the son of Jehiel, and with him two hundred and eighteen males.

¹⁰ And of the sons of Shelomith; the son of Josiphiah, and with him a hundred and sixty males.

¹¹ And of the sons of Bebai; Zechariah the son of Bebai, and with him twenty and eight males.

¹² And of the sons of Azgad, Johanan the youngest son, and with him a hundred and ten males.

¹³ And of the latter sons of Adonikam, whose names are these, Eliphelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah, and with them sixty males.

¹⁴ Of the sons also of Bigvai; Uthai, and Zabbud, and with them seventy males.

¹⁵ And I gathered them together to the river that runneth to Ahava; and there abode we in tents three days; and I viewed the people, and the priests, and found there none of the sons of Levi. ¹⁶ Then sent I for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, chief men; also for Joairib, and for Elnathan, men of understanding. ¹⁷ And I sent them with command unto Iddo the chief at the place Caspia, and I told them what they should say to Iddo, and to his brethren the Nethins, at the place Caspia, that they should bring to us ministers for the House of our God. ¹⁸ And because of the good hand of our God upon us, they brought us a man of understanding, of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel, even Sherebiah, with his sons and his brethren, eighteen; —¹⁹ and Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiah of the sons of Merari, his brethren and their sons, twenty; —²⁰ also of the Nethins, whom David and the princes had given for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethins; all of them were appointed by name.

²¹ Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river of Ahava, that we might afflict ourselves before our God, to seek from him a right way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance. ²² For I was ashamed to ask from the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way; because we had spoken to the king, saying, 'The hand of our God is upon all them for 'good that seek him; but his power and his wrath 'is against all them that forsake him.' ²³ So we fasted and besought our God for this; and he was entreated towards us.

²⁴ Then I separated twelve of the chief of the priests, Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them, ²⁵ and I weighed unto them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, the heave offering for the House of our God, which the king and his counsellors, and his lords, and all Israel there present, had offered; ²⁶ I even weighed unto their hand six hundred and fifty Kikars [or hundred weights] of silver, and silver vessels a hundred Kikars, and of gold a hundred Kikars; ²⁷ also twenty covered cups of gold, of a thousand Darics; and two vessels of fine yellow copper [or brass], as precious as gold. ²⁸ And I said to them, 'Ye are 'holy unto Jehovah; the vessels are holy also; 'and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering 'to Jehovah the God of your fathers. ²⁹ Watch 'ye, and keep them, until ye weigh them before 'the chief of the priests and the Levites, and chief 'of the fathers of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the 'chambers of the House of Jehovah.' ³⁰ So the priests and the Levites took the weight of the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem unto the house of our God.

³¹ Then we departed from the river of Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go to Jerusalem; and the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy, and of such as lay in wait by the way.

³² And we came to Jerusalem, and abode there three days. ³³ And on the fourth day was the silver and the gold and the vessels weighed in the House of our God by the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the Priest; and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them was Jobabab the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of Binnui, the Levites; ³⁴ by number and by weight of every one; and all the weight was written at that time. ³⁵ Also the children of those that had been carried away, who were come out from the captivity, brought burnt offerings to the God of Israel, twelve bullocks for all Israel, ninety and six rams, seventy and seven lambs, with twelve he goats for a sin offering; all this was a burnt offering unto Jehovah. ³⁶ And they delivered the king's decrees to the king's Satraps [or lieutenants], and to the Pachas [or governors] beyond the River [Euphrates]. And they furthered the people, and the House of God.

9 Now when these things were finished, the princes came to me, saying, 'The people of Israel, 'and the priests, and the Levites, have not separated 'themselves from the peoples of the lands, doing 'according to their abominations, even of the 'Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, 'and the Amorites. ² For they have taken some 'of their daughters for themselves, and for their 'sons; so that the holy seed have mingled themselves with the peoples of the lands; yea, the 'hand of the princes and Sagins [servants of Persia] 'hath been chief in this transgression.' ³ And when I heard this thing, I rent my garment, and my mantle, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down desolate. ⁴ Then were assembled unto me every one that trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of those that had been in captivity; and I sat desolate until the evening meal offering.

⁵ And at the evening meal offering I arose up from afflicting myself; and having rent my garment and my mantle, I fell upon my knees, and spread out my hands unto Jehovah my God, ⁶ and said, 'O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up 'my face to thee, my God; for our iniquities are 'increased over our head, and our guilt is grown 'up unto the heavens. ⁷ Since the days of our 'fathers have we been in great guilt unto this day; 'and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and our 'priests, been delivered into the hand of the kings 'of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to 'plunder, and to confusion of face, as it is this day. ⁸ And now for a little moment grace hath been 'shewed from Jehovah our God, to leave us a 'remnant to escape, and to give us a tent-pin in 'his Holy Place, that our God may give light to 'our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our 'bondage. ⁹ For we were bondservants; yet our 'God did not forsake us in our bondage, but extended kindness to us in the sight of the kings of 'Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up the House 'of our God, and to repair the ruins thereof, and 'to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem. ¹⁰ And now, O our God, what shall we say after 'this? for we have forsaken thy commands, ¹¹ which 'thou hast commanded by the hand of thy servants 'the prophets [Deut. vii. 1, xxiii. 6], saying, The 'land, unto which ye go to possess it, is an unclean 'land with the uncleanness of the peoples of the 'lands, with their abominations, which have filled 'it from end to end with their filthiness. ¹² Now 'therefore give not your daughters to their sons, 'neither take their daughters to your sons,—nor 'seek peace with them or their goodwill for ever; 'so that ye may be strong, and eat the good of the 'land, and leave it for an inheritance to your 'children for ever. ¹³ And after all that is come 'upon us for our evil deeds, and for our great guilt, 'seeing that thou our God hast punished us less 'than our iniquities deserve, and hast given us such 'deliverance as this; ¹⁴ should we again break thy 'commandments, and join in marriage with the 'peoples of these abominations? Wouldest not 'thou be angry with us till thou hadst consumed 'us, so that there should be no remnant nor escap- 'ing? ¹⁵ O Jehovah God of Israel, thou art 'righteous; for we are left the escaped, as it is 'this day. Behold, we are before thee in our guilt; 'for we cannot stand before thee because of this.'

10 Now when Ezra had prayed, and when he had confessed, weeping and casting himself down before the House of God, there gathered themselves to him out of Israel a very great assembly of men and women and children; for the people wept a great weeping. ² And Shechaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered and said to Ezra, 'We have trespassed against our God, and have taken foreign women of the peoples of the land to dwell with us. Yet now there is hope in Israel concerning this thing. ³ Therefore let us now make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those that tremble at the command of our God; and let it be done according to the Law. ⁴ Arise; for this matter belongeth to thee; we also will be with thee; be of good courage, and do it.' ⁵ Then arose Ezra, and made the chief priests, the Levites, and all Israel, to swear that they should do according to this word. And they swear.

⁶ Then Ezra rose up from before the House of God, and went into the chamber of Johanan the son of Eliashib; and when he came thither, he did eat no bread, nor drink water; for he mourned over the transgression of them that had been in captivity. ⁷ And they made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem unto all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together to Jerusalem; ⁸ and that whosoever would not come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be forfeited, and himself separated from the assembly of those that had been in captivity.

⁹ Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together unto Jerusalem within three days. It was the ninth month, and the twentieth day of the month; and all the people sat in the Broad Place of the House of God, trembling because of this matter, and for the great rain. ¹⁰ And Ezra the Priest rose up, and said to them, 'Ye have transgressed, and have taken foreign women to dwell with you, to increase the guilt of Israel. ¹¹ Now therefore make confession unto Jehovah the God of your fathers, and do his pleasure; and separate yourselves from the peoples of the land, and from your foreign wives.' ¹² Then all the assembly answered and said with a loud voice, 'As thou hast said, so must we do. ¹³ But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand outside, neither is this a work of one day or of two; for we are many that have transgressed in this thing. ¹⁴ Let now our rulers be set over all the assembly, and let all them that have taken foreign women to dwell with them in our cities come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and the judges thereof, until the fierce wrath of our God for this matter be turned from us.'

¹⁵ So Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahaziah the son of Tikvah were set over this matter; and

Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite helped them. ¹⁶ And the children of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest, with certain chief of the fathers, after the house of their fathers, and all of them by their names, were separated, and sat down on the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter. ¹⁷ And by the first day of the first month they made an end of the matter with all the men that had taken foreign women to dwell with them.

¹⁸ And among the sons of the Priests there were found some that had taken foreign women to dwell with them; namely, of the sons of Jeshua the son of Jozadak and his brethren; Maaseiah, and Eliezer, and Jarib, and Gedeliah. ¹⁹ And they gave their hands that they would put away their wives; and being guilty, they gave a ram of the flock for their guilt.—²⁰ And of the sons of Immer; Hanani, and Zebadiah.—²¹ And of the sons of Harim; Maaseiah, and Elijah, and Shemaiah, and Jehiel, and Uziah.—²² And of the sons of Pashur; Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethaneel, Jozabad, and Elasa.

²³ Also of the Levites; Jozabad, and Shimei, and Kelaiah, (the same is Kelita,) Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer.

²⁴ Of the Singers also; Eliashib. And of the Gate-keepers; Shallum, and Telem, and Uri.

²⁵ And of Israel; of the sons of Pharosh; Ramiah, and Jeziah, and Malchiah, and Miamim, and Eleazar, and Malchijah, and Benaiah.—²⁶ And of the sons of Elam; Mattaniah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, and Abdi, and Jeremoth, and Elijah.—²⁷ And of the sons of Zattu; Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, and Jeremoth, and Zabad, and Aziza.—²⁸ And of the sons of Bebai; Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, and Athlai.—²⁹ And of the sons of Bani; Meshullam, Mulluch, and Adaiah, Jashub, and Sheal, and Ramoth.—³⁰ And of the sons of the Pacha of Moab; Adna, and Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezaleel, and Binnui, and Manasseh.—³¹ And of the sons of Harim; Eliezer, Ishiah, Malchiah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, ³² Benjamin, Malluch, and Shemariah.—³³ Of the sons of Hashum; Mattenai, Mattathai, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, and Shimei.—³⁴ Of the sons of Bani; Maadai, Amram, and Uel, ³⁵ Benaiah, Bedeiah, Chelluh, ³⁶ Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib, Mattaniah, ³⁷ Mattenai, and Jaasar, ³⁸ and Bani, and Binnui, Shimei, ³⁹ and Shelemiah, and Nathau, and Adaiah, ⁴⁰ Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai, ⁴¹ Azareel, and Shelemiah, Shemariah, ⁴² Shallum, Amariah, and Joseph.—⁴³ Of the sons of Nebo; Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jadau, and Joel, Benaiah.

⁴⁴ All these had taken foreign wives; and some of them had wives by whom they had children.

THE BOOK OF NEHEMIAH.

THE WORDS OF NEHEMIAH the son of Hachaliah.

Now it came to pass in the month Chisleu, in the twentieth year [of Artaxerxes Longimanus, B.C. 445] as I was in Susa the royal city, ²that Hanani, one of my brethren came, he and certain men of Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews that had escaped, who were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem. ³And they said to me, 'The remnant that are left of the captivity there in the Province [of Judea] are in great affliction and reproach; the wall of Jerusalem also is broken down, and its gates are burned with fire.' ⁴And it came to pass, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned some days; and I fasted, and prayed before the God of heaven, ⁵and said, 'I beseech thee, O Jehovah God of heaven, O great and terrible God, that keepest covenant and kindness for them that love him and observe his commandments; ⁶let thine ear now be attentive, and thine eyes open, that thou mayest hearken to the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee now, day and night, for the children of Israel thy servants, and I confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against thee. Both I and my father's house have sinned. ⁷We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, which thou commandedst thy servant Moses. ⁸Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, 'If ye transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the peoples; ⁹but if ye turn to me, and keep my commandments, and do them; though some of you be cast out unto the uttermost part of the heavens, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them to the Place that I have chosen to cause my name to dwell there. ¹⁰Now these are thy servants and thy people, whom thou didst redeem by thy great power, and by thy strong hand. ¹¹O Lord, I beseech thee, let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, who delight to fear thy name; and prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him to find mercy in the sight of this man.' For I was the king's cupbearer.

² And it came to pass in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that wine was before him; and I took up the wine, and gave it to the king. Now I had not been before-time sad in his presence. ²Therefore the king said to me, 'Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? This is nothing else but sorrow of heart.' Then I was very sore afraid, ³and said to the king, 'Let the king live for ever. Why should not my countenance be sad, when the city, the house of my father's sepulchres, lieth waste, and its gates are consumed with fire?'

⁴Then the king said to me, 'For what then dost thou make request?' So I prayed to the God of heaven. ⁵And I said to the king, 'If it please the king, and if thy servant have found favour in thy sight, that thou wouldest send me to Judah, to the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that I may build it up.' ⁶And the king said to me, (the queen also sitting beside him), 'For how long a time shall thy journey be, and when wilt thou return?' So it pleased the king to send me, and I gave him a fixed time. ⁷Moreover I said to the king, 'If it please the king, let royal letters be given me to the Pachas [or governors] beyond the River [Euphrates] that they may convey me forward till I come into Judah; and a royal letter to Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the citadel which belongeth to the House, and for the wall of the city, and for the House that I am going to.' And the king gave them me, because the good hand of my God was upon me.

⁹Then I came to the Pachas beyond the River, and gave to them the king's royal letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me. ¹⁰When Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly that there was come a man to seek the welfare of the children of Israel. ¹¹So I came to Jerusalem, and was there three days.

¹²And I arose in the night, I and some few men with me; neither told I any man what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem; neither was there any beast with me, save the beast that I rode upon. ¹³And I went out by night by the Valley Gate, and to the front of the Dragon Well, and to the Dung Gate, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, which were broken down, and its gates were consumed with fire. ¹⁴Then I went on to the Fountain Gate, and to the King's Pool; but there was no place for the beast that was under me to pass. ¹⁵Then went I up in the night by the Brook [Kidron], and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entered by the Valley Gate, and so returned. ¹⁶And the Sagins [servants of Persia] knew not whither I went, or what I did; neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the Sagins, nor to the rest that did the work.

¹⁷Then said I to them, 'Ye see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem lieth waste, and its gates are burned with fire; come, and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more a reproach.' ¹⁸Then I told them of the hand of my God which was good upon me; as also of the king's words that he had spoken to me. And they said, 'Let us rise up and build.' So they strengthened their hands for the good work. ¹⁹But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, heard it, they laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, 'What is this thing that ye are doing? Will ye rebel against the king?' ²⁰ Then answered I them, and said to them, 'The God of heaven he will prosper us; therefore we his servants will arise and build. But ye have no portion, nor right, nor memorial in Jerusalem.'

³ Then Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brethren the priests, and they builded the Sheep Gate; they sanctified it, and set up the doors of it; even unto the Tower of Meah they sanctified it, unto the Tower of Hananeel. ² And next to him builded the men of Jericho. And next to them builded Zaccur the son of Imri.

³ But the Fish Gate did the sons of Seneah build, who also laid its beams, and set up its doors, its locks, and its cross-bars. ⁴ And next to them repaired Meremoth the son of Urijah, the son of Koz. And next to them repaired Meshullam the son of Berechiah, the son of Meshezabeel. And next to them repaired Zadok the son of Baana. ⁵ And next to them the Tekoites repaired; but their nobles put not their necks to the work of their Lord.

⁶ Moreover Jehoiada the son of Paseah, and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah repaired the Old Gate; they laid its beams, and set up its doors, and its locks, and its cross-bars. ⁷ And next to them repaired Melatiah the Gibeonite, and Jadon the Meronothite, the men of Gibeon, and of Mizpah, unto the throne of the Pacha beyond the River.

⁹ And next to them repaired Rephaiah the son of Hur, the ruler of half the neighbourhood round Jerusalem. ¹⁰ And next to him repaired Jedaiah the son of Harumaph, even over against his own house. And next to him repaired Hattush the son of Hashabniah. ¹¹ Malchijah the son of Harim, and Hashub the son of the Pacha of Moab, repaired a second portion, and the Tower of the Furnaces. ¹² And next to him repaired Shallum the son of Lohesh, the ruler of half the neighbourhood round Jerusalem, he and his daughters.

¹⁵ And the Fountain Gate repaired Shallum the son of Col-hozeh, the ruler of the neighbourhood round Mizpah; he built it, and roofed it, and set up its doors, its locks, and its cross-bars, and the wall at the pool of Siloah by the king's garden, and unto the stairs that go down from the city of David. ¹⁶ After him repaired Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, the ruler of half the neighbourhood round Bethzur, unto the place over against the Sepulchres of David, and to the Pool that had been made, and to the House of the warriors.

¹⁷ And after him repaired the Levites, Rehun the son of Bani. Next to him repaired Hashabiah, the ruler of half the neighbourhood round Keilah, in his neighbourhood. ¹⁸ After him repaired their brethren, Bavai the son of Henadad, the ruler of half the neighbourhood round Keilah. ¹⁹ And next to him Ezer the son of Jeshua, the ruler of Mizpah, repaired a second portion over against the going up to the Armoury at the Turning [of the wall].

⁴ But it came to pass, that when Sanballat heard that we were building the wall, he was wroth, and became very angry, and mocked the Jews. ⁵ And he spake before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said, 'What are these feeble Jews doing? Will they make themselves free? Will they sacrifice? Will they make an end in a day? Will they revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which are burned?' ³ And Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, 'Even that which they are building, if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall.'

⁴ (Hear, O our God, for we are despised; and turn back their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a prey into a land of captivity; ⁵ and cover not their iniquity, and let not their sin be blotted out from before thee; for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders.)

⁶ So built we the wall; and all the wall was joined together as far as the half thereof; for the people had a mind to work.

⁷ But it came to pass, that when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the repairing of the walls of Jerusalem went on, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very wroth, ⁸ and conspired all of them together to come and to fight against Jerusalem, and to bring trouble on it. ⁹ Then we made our prayer to our God, and set a watch against them day and night, in face of them. ¹⁰ And Judah said, 'The strength of the bearers of burdens faileth, and there is much rubbish; so that we are not able to build the wall.' ¹¹ And our adversaries said, 'They shall not know, neither see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease.' ¹² And it came to pass, that when the Jews that dwelt near them came they said to us ten times, 'From all the places whence ye shall return they will be upon us.'

¹³ Therefore I set in the lower places behind the wall in the waste places, I even set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows. ¹⁴ And I looked, and rose up, and said to the nobles, and to the Sagins, and to the rest of the people, 'Be not ye afraid of them; remember the Lord, who is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses.'

¹⁵ And it came to pass when our enemies heard that it was known to us, and God had brought their counsel to nought, then we returned all of us to the wall, every one to his work. ¹⁶ And it came to pass, from that time forth, that the half of my servants laboured in the work, and the other half of them held both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the coats of mail; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah. ¹⁷ They that builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, being loaded, every one with one of his hands laboured in the work, and with the other hand he held a sword. ¹⁸ For the builders, every one had his sword girded to his waist, and so he builded. And he that sounded the trumpet was by me.

¹⁹ And I said to the nobles, and to the Sagins, and to the rest of the people, 'The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, one far from another. ²⁰ In what place therefore ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us; our God will fight for us.' ²¹ So we laboured in the work; and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning till the stars came out. ²² Likewise at the same time said I to the people, 'Let every one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, so that in the night they may be a guard to us, and may labour in the day.' ²³ So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard who followed me, none of us put off our clothes; every one [went with] his sword for water.

⁵ And there was a great cry of the people and of their wives against their brethren the Jews. ² For there were some that said, 'We, our sons, and our daughters, are many; therefore we will get corn, that we may eat, and live.' ³ Some also there were that said, 'We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might get corn, because of the dearth.' ⁴ There were also some that said, 'We have borrowed money upon our lands and vineyards for the king's tribute.' ⁵ Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children; and lo, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought unto bondage already; and no power have we; for other men have our lands and vineyards.'

⁶ And I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words. ⁷ Then my heart took counsel within me, and I rebuked the nobles, and the Sagins, and said to them, 'Ye exact usury, every one from his brother.' And I appointed a great assembly against them. ⁸ And I said to them, 'We after our ability have redeemed our brethren the Jews, who were sold to the Gentiles; and ye even sell your brethren. And they are sold to us.' Then held they their peace, and found no answer. ⁹ Also I said, 'It is not good that ye do. Ought ye not to walk in the fear of our God because of the reproach of the Gentiles our enemies?' ¹⁰ I likewise, and my brethren, and my servants, are creditors against them for money and corn. I pray you let us leave off this usury. ¹¹ Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their olive-yards, and their houses, also the hundredth part [monthly] of the money, and of the corn, the grape juice, and the oil, for which ye are creditors against them.' ¹² Then said they, 'We will restore them, and will require nothing from them; so will we do as thou sayest.' Then I called the priests, and took an oath from them, that they should do according to this promise. ¹³ Also I shook my lap, and said, 'So God shake out every man from his house, and from the fruit of his labour, that performeth not this promise, even thus be he shaken out, and emptied.' And all the assembly said, 'Amen,' and praised Jehovah. And the people did according to this promise. © Microsoft

¹⁴ Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their Pacha in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year [B.C. 445] even unto the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king [B.C. 433], that is, twelve years, I and my brethren have not eaten the bread of a Pacha. ¹⁵ But the former Pachas that had been before me were a burden upon the people, and had taken from them bread and wine, besides forty Shekels [or eighty shillings] of silver [monthly]. Yea even their servants bare rule over the people. But so did not I, because of the fear of God. ¹⁶ Yea, also I continued at the work of this wall, neither bought we any land; and all my servants were gathered thither unto the work. ¹⁷ Moreover there were at my table a hundred and fifty of the Jews and Sagins, even those that came to us from among the Gentiles that are about us. ¹⁸ Now that which was prepared for me daily was one ox and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine. And with this I desired not the bread of a Pacha, because the bond-service was heavy upon this people.

6 Now it came to pass, when it was reported to Sanballat, and Tobiah, and Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies, that I had builded the wall, and that there was no breach left therein; (though at that time I had not set up the doors at the gates); ² then Sanballat and Geshem sent to me saying, 'Come, let us meet together in the villages in the valley of Ono.' But they purposed to do me mischief. ³ And I sent messengers to them, saying, 'I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down. Why should the work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you?' ⁴ Yet they sent to me four times after this manner, and I answered them after the same manner.

⁵ Then Sanballat sent his servant to me after the same manner the fifth time with a public letter open in his hand; ⁶ wherein was written, 'It is reported among the Gentiles, and Geshemu saith it, that thou and the Jews purpose to rebel; for which cause thou buildest the wall, that thou mayest be their king, according to these words.' ⁷ And thou hast also appointed prophets to preach of thee at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in Judah. And now it will be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together.' ⁸ Then I sent to him, saying, 'There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou feignest them out of thine own heart.' ⁹ For they all made us afraid, saying, 'Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it be not done.'

(Now, therefore, strengthen thou my hands.)

¹⁰ Afterward I came to the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabeel, who was in bondage; and he said, 'Let us meet together in the House of God, within the Great Hall, and let us shut the doors of the Great Hall; for they 'will come to slay thee; yea, in the night will they come to slay thee.' ¹¹ And I said, 'Should such a man as I flee? And who is there, that, being as I am, would go into the Great Hall [of the Temple] to save his life? I will not go in.' ¹² And I considered, and behold, God had not sent him; but he pronounced this prophecy against me, because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. ¹³ For this was he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and should sin, that they might have matter for an evil report, so that they might reproach me.

¹⁴ (My God, think thou upon Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and on the prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets, who would have put me in fear.)

¹⁵ So the wall was finished on the twenty and fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty and two days. ¹⁶ And it came to pass, that when all our enemies heard thereof, and all the Gentiles that were about us saw these things, they were much cast down in their own eyes; for they perceived that this work was wrought of our God.

¹⁷ Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah sent many public letters unto Tobiah; and those of Tobiah came unto them. ¹⁸ For there were many men in Judah sworn unto him, because he was the son in law of Shechaniah the son of Arah; and his son Johanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah. ¹⁹ Also they reported his good deeds before me, and uttered my words to him. And Tobiah sent public letters to put me in fear.

7 Now it came to pass, when the wall was built, and I had set up the doors, and the gatekeepers and the singers and the Levites were appointed, ² that I gave my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the ruler of the palace, charge over Jerusalem; for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many. ³ And I said to them, 'Let not the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun be hot; and while they stand by, let them shut the doors, and bar them; and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, every one in his watch, and every one over against his own house.' ⁴ Now the city was large and great; but the people were few therein, and the houses were not builded. ⁵ And my God put into my heart to gather together the nobles, and the Sagins, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy. And I found a register of the genealogy of them that came up at the first, and I found written therein [Ezra ii.—iii. 1]; ⁶ These are the children of the Province [of Judea], that went up out of the captivity, of those that had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away, and they came again to Jerusalem and to Judah, every one to his city; ⁷ those who came with Zerubbabel [B.C. 538], were Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Baanah,

The number of men of THE PEOPLE of Israel was this;

⁸ The sons of Pharoah, two thousand a hundred seventy and two.

⁹ The sons of Shephatiah, three hundred seventy and two.

¹⁰ The sons of Arah, six hundred fifty and two.

³⁴ The sons of the other Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four.

³⁵ The sons of Harim, three hundred and twenty.

³⁶ The sons of Jericho, three hundred forty and five.

³⁷ The sons of Lydda, Hadid, and Ono, seven hundred twenty and one.

³⁸ The sons of Senaah, three thousand nine hundred and thirty.

³⁹ THE PRIESTS;

The sons of Jedariah, of the house of Jeshua, nine hundred seventy and three.

⁴⁰ The sons of Immer, a thousand, fifty and two.

⁴¹ The sons of Pashur, a thousand two hundred forty and seven.

⁴² The sons of Harim, a thousand and seventeen.

⁴³ THE LEVITES; the sons of Jeshua, of Kadmiel and of the sons of Hodevah, seventy and four.

⁴⁴ THE SINGERS; the sons of Asaph, a hundred forty and eight.

⁴⁵ THE GATE-KEEPERS;

the sons of Shallum, the sons of Ater, the sons of Talmon, the sons of Akkub, the sons of Hatita, the sons of Shobai, a hundred thirty and eight.

⁴⁶ THE NETHINS [or Temple-servants];

the sons of Ziha, the sons of Hashupha, the sons of Tabbaoth, ⁴⁷ the sons of Keros, the sons of Sia, the sons of Pudon, ⁴⁸ the sons of Lebana, the sons of Hagaba, the sons of Shatmai, ⁴⁹ the sons of Hanan, the sons of Giddel, the sons of Gahar, ⁵⁰ the sons of Reaiah, the sons of Rezin, the sons of Nekoda, ⁵¹ the sons of Gazzam, the sons of Uzza, the sons of Phaseah, ⁵² the sons of Besai, the sons of Maonim, the sons of Nephishesim, ⁵³ the sons of Bakkub, the sons of Hakupha, the sons of Harhur, ⁵⁴ the sons of Bazlith, the sons of Mehida, the sons of Harsha, ⁵⁵ the sons of Barkos, the sons of Sisera, the sons of Tamah, ⁵⁶ the sons of Neziah, the sons of Hatipha.

⁵⁷ The sons of SOLOMON'S SERVANTS;

the sons of Sotai, the sons of Sophereth, the sons of Perida, ⁵⁸ the sons of Jaala, the sons of Darkon, the sons of Giddel, ⁵⁹ the sons of Shephatiah, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Pochereth of Zebaim, the sons of Amon. ⁶⁰ All the Nethins, and the sons of Solomon's servants, were three hundred ninety and two.

⁶¹ And these are they that went up also from Tel-melah, Tel-haresha, Cherub, Addon, and Immer; but they could not shew their father's house, nor their seal, whether they were of Israel; ⁶² the sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, the sons of Nekoda, six hundred forty and two; ⁶³ and of the priests; the sons of Habaiah, the sons of Koz, the sons of Barzillai, who took one of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite to wife, and was called after their name; ⁶⁴ these sought the writings of their genealogy, but they were not found; therefore were they, as polluted, put from the priesthood. ⁶⁵ And the Tirshatha [or Persian governor Zerubbabel] said to them, that they should not eat from the Holy of Holies, till there stood up a priest with Urim and Thummim.

⁶⁶ The whole assembly together was forty thousand two thousand three hundred and sixty, ⁶⁷ beside their servants and their handmaids, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven; and they had two hundred forty and five singing men and singing women. ⁶⁸ Their horses, seven hundred thirty and six; their mules, two hundred forty and five; ⁶⁹ their camels, four hundred thirty and five; six thousand seven hundred and twenty asses.

under coats. ⁷¹ And some of the chief of the fathers gave to the treasure of the work twenty thousand Darics of gold, and two thousand and two hundred Minahs [or five thousand pounds weight] of silver. ⁷² And that which the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand Darics of gold, and two thousand Minahs of silver, and sixty and seven priests' under coats. ⁷³ So the priests, and the Levites, and the gate-keepers, and the singers, and some of the people, and the Netūins, and all Israel, dwell in their cities.

And when the seventh month [B.C. 538] was come, the children of Israel were in their cities.

⁸ And [1 Esdras ix. 38—55] all the people gathered themselves together as one man into the Broad Place that was before the Water Gate; and they spake to Ezra the scribe [B.C. 478] to bring the Book of the Law of Moses, which Jehovah had commanded to Israel. ² And Ezra the priest brought the Law before the assembly both of men and women, and all that could hear with understanding, upon the first day of the Seventh month. ³ And he read therein before the Broad Place that was before the Water Gate from daybreak until midday, before the men and the women, and those that could understand; and the ears of all the people were upon the Book of the Law. ⁴ And Ezra the scribe stood upon a tower of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Anaiah, and Urijah, and Hilkiah, and Maasciah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedaiah, and Mishael, and Malchiah, and Hashum, and Hashbadana, Zechariah, and Meshullam. ⁵ And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people; (for he was above all the people;) and when he opened it, all the people stood up; ⁶ and Ezra blessed Jehovah, the great God. And all the people answered, 'Amen, Amen,' with lifting up their hands; and they bowed their heads, and worshipped Jehovah with their faces to the ground. ⁷ Also Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maasciah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pellaiah, and the Levites, caused the people to understand the law; and the people stood in their place. ⁸ So they read in the Book in the Law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading.

⁹ And Nehemiah who was the Tirshatha, and Ezra the Priest the scribe, and the Levites that taught the people, said to all the people, 'This day is holy unto Jehovah your God; mourn not, nor weep.' For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the Law. ¹⁰ Then he said to them, 'Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions to them for whom nothing is prepared; for this day is holy unto our Lord. Neither be ye grieved; for joy in Jehovah is your strength.' ¹¹ So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, 'Hold your peace, for the day is holy; neither be ye grieved.' ¹² And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood the words that were made known to them.

¹³ And on the second day were gathered together the chief of the fathers of all the people, the priests and the Levites, unto Ezra the scribe, even to be made to understand the words of the Law. ¹⁴ And they found written in the Law which Jehovah had commanded by the hand of Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in booths in the Feast of the seventh month; ¹⁵ and that they should publish and make proclamation in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, Go forth unto the hill country, and fetch olive branches, and pine branches, and myrtle branches, and palm branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written.

¹⁶ So the people went forth, and brought them, and made themselves booths, every one upon the roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of the House of God, and in the broad place of the Water Gate, and in the broad place of the Gate of Ephraim. ¹⁷ And all the assembly of them that were come home out of the captivity made booths, and sat under the booths; for since the days of Joshua the son of Nun unto that day had not the children of Israel done so. And there was very great gladness. ¹⁸ Also day by day, from the first day unto the last day he [Ezra] read in the Book of the Law of God. And they kept the Feast [of Tabernacles] for seven days; and on the eighth day was a day of restraint [from work], according to the ordinance.

⁹ Now on the twenty and fourth day of this month [B.C. 444] the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, and with sackcloth, and earth upon them. ² And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all the sons of foreigners; and they stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers. ³ And they stood up in their place, and read in the Book of the Law of Jehovah their God a fourth part of the day; and a fourth part they confessed, and worshipped Jehovah their God.

⁴ Then stood up upon the steps these of the Levites, Jeshua, and the sons of Kadmiel, Shebaniah, the sons of Sherebiah, the sons of Chenani, and they cried with a loud voice unto Jehovah their God. ⁵ Then the Levites, Jeshua, and Kadmiel, the sons of Hashabniah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, 'Stand up and bless Jehovah your God from everlasting to everlasting; and let them bless thy glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise. ⁶ Thou, even thou, art Jehovah alone; thou hast made the heavens, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth, and all things that are thereon, the ocean, and all that is therein, and thou preservest them all alive; and the host of heaven worshippeth thee. ⁷ Thou art Jehovah God, who didst choose Abram, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gavest him the name of Abraham; ⁸ and didst find his heart faithful before thee, and madest the covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Girgashites, to give it to his seed; and thou hast performed thy words; for thou art righteous. ⁹ And thou didst see the affliction of our fathers in Lower Egypt, and hearest their cry by the Red sea; ¹⁰ and shewedst signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land; for thou knewest that they dealt proudly against them. So didst thou make for thyself a name, as it is this day. ¹¹ And thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and those who pursued them thou threwest into the deep, as a stone into the mighty waters. ¹² Moreover thou leddest them in the day by a pillar of cloud; and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way wherein they should go. ¹³ Thou camest down also upon Mount Sinai, and spakest with them from heaven, and gavest them right judgments, and true laws, good statutes and commandments; ¹⁴ and madest known to them thy holy sabbath, and commandedst them commandments, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant; ¹⁵ and gavest them bread from heaven for their hunger, and broughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and promisedst them that they should go in to possess the land about which thou hadst lifted up thy hand [in oath] that thou wouldst give it to them. ¹⁶ But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments, ¹⁷ and refused to obey, neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage. But thou art a God of pardons, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in kindness, and forsookest them not. ¹⁸ Yea, when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is thy God that brought thee up out of Lower Egypt, and had wrought great provocations; ¹⁹ yet thou in thy manifold mercies forsookest them not in the desert. The pillar of cloud was not removed from them by day, to lead them in the way, neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the way wherein they should go. ²⁰ Thou gavest also thy good spirit to instruct them, and withheldst not thy manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst. ²¹ Yea, for forty years didst thou sustain them in the desert, so that they lacked nothing; their cloaks were not worn out, and their feet swelled not.

²² Moreover thou gavest them kingdoms and peoples, and didst divide them into districts; so they took possession of the land of Sihon, and the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan. ²³ Their children also multipliedst thou as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it. ²⁴ So the children went in and possessed the land, and thou subdest before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings and the peoples of the land, that they might do with them as they would. ²⁵ And they took strong cities, and a fat land, and gained possession of houses full of all good things, wells digged, vineyards, and oliveyards, and fruit trees in abundance; so they did eat and were filled, and became fat, and delighted themselves in thy great goodness.

²⁶ Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy Law behind their backs, and slew thy prophets who protested against them to turn them to thee; and they wrought great provocations. ²⁷ Therefore thou deliveredst them into the hand of their oppressors, who vexed them. Yet in the time of their trouble, when they cried to thee, thou hearest them from heaven; and according to thy manifold mercies thou gavest them saviours [the Persians], who saved them out of the hand of their oppressors. ²⁸ But when they had rest, they did evil again before thee. Therefore ledest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them. Yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou hearest them from heaven; and many times didst thou deliver them according to thy mercies. ²⁹ And thou didst protest against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law. Yet they dealt proudly, and hearkened not to thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, (which if a man do, he shall live in them;) and they turned a stubborn shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hearken. ³⁰ Yet for many years didst thou bear with them, and didst protest against them by thy spirit in the ear of thy prophets; yet would they not give ear. Therefore gavest thou them into the hand of the peoples of the lands. ³¹ Nevertheless for thy great mercies' sake thou didst not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for thou art a gracious and merciful God.

³² Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the terrible God, who keepest covenant and kindness, let not all the trouble seem little before thee, that hath come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all thy people, since the time of the kings of Assyria, unto this day. ³³ Howbeit thou art just in all that is come upon us; for thou hast done right, but we have done wickedly; ³⁴ and as for our kings, our princes, our priests, and our fathers, they have not kept thy law, nor hearkened to thy commandments and thy testimonies, wherewith thou didst testify against them. ³⁵ For they have not served thee in their kingdom, and in thy great goodness that thou gavest them, and in the large and fat land which thou gavest before them, neither turned they from their wicked works. ³⁶ Behold, we are bond-servants this day, and as

‘for the land that thou gavest unto our fathers to eat the fruit thereof and the good thereof, behold, we are bond-servants in it. ³⁷ And it yieldeth much increase unto the kings whom thou hast set over us because of our sins. Also they have dominion over our bodies and over our cattle, at their pleasure; and we are in great distress. ³⁸ And because of all this we make a sure covenant, and write it; and our princes, Levites, and priests, have sealed it.’

10 NOW THOSE THAT SET THEIR SEALS were, Nehemiah, the Tirshatha [or Persian governor], the son of Hachaliah, and Zidkijah, ² Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah, ³ Pashur, Amariah, Malchijah, ⁴ Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch, ⁵ Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah, ⁶ Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch, ⁷ Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin, ⁸ Maaziah, Bilgai, Shemaiah. These were the PRIESTS.

⁹ And the LEVITES; both Jeshua the son of Azaniah,

Binnui of the sons of Henadad, Kadmiel, ¹⁰ and their brethren, Shebaniah, Hodijah, Kelita, Pelaiiah, Hanan, ¹¹ Micha, Rehob, Hashabiah, ¹² Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah, ¹³ Hodijah, Bani, Beninu.

¹⁴ The chief of the PEOPLE; Pharosh, the Pacha of Moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani, ¹⁵ Bunni, Azgad, Bebai, ¹⁶ Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin, ¹⁷ Ater, Hizkijah, Azzur, ¹⁸ Hodijah, Hashum, Bezai, ¹⁹ Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai, ²⁰ Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir, ²¹ Meshezabel, Zadok, Jaddua, ²² Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah, ²³ Hoshea, Hananiah, Hashub, ²⁴ Lohesh, Pileha, Shobek, ²⁵ Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah, ²⁶ and Ahijah, Hanan, Anan, ²⁷ Malluch, Harim, Baanah.

²⁸ And the rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the gate-keepers, the singers, the Nethins, and all they that had separated themselves from the peoples of the lands unto the law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, every one having knowledge, and having understanding; ²⁹ they clave to their brethren, their nobles, and entered into a self-curse, and into an oath, to walk in God's law, which was given by the hand of Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the Commandments of Jehovah our Lord, and his Judgments and his Statutes; ³⁰ and that we would not give our daughters to the peoples of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons; ³¹ and if the people of the land bring wares or any victuals on the sabbath day to sell, that we would not buy it of them on a sabbath, or on a holy day; and that we would release the seventh year, and the exaction of every debt.

³² Also we made ordinances for us, to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a Shekel for the service of the House of our God; ³³ for the ceremonial bread, and for the continual meal offering, and for the continual burnt offering, of the sabbaths, of the new moons, for the solemn feasts, and for the holy things, and for the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel, and for all the work of the House of our God. ³⁴ And we cast the lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people, for the gift of wood, to bring it to the House of our God, after the houses of our fathers, at times appointed year by year, to burn upon the Altar of Jehovah our God, as it is written in the Law [Lev. vi. 12]. ³⁵ And to bring the firstfruits of our ground, and the firstfruits of all fruit of all trees, year by year, unto the House of Jehovah; ³⁶ also the firstborn of our sons, and of our cattle, as it is written in the Law [Numb. xviii. 15], and the firstlings of our herds and of our flocks, to bring to the House of our God, unto the priests that minister in the House of our God; ³⁷ and that we should bring the first of our dough, and our heave offerings, and the fruit of all manner of trees, the grape juice, and the oil, unto the priests, to the chambers of the House of our God; and the tithes of our ground unto the Levites, that the same Levites might have the tithes in all the cities of our tillage. ³⁸ And the Priest the son of Aaron shall be with the Levites, when the Levites take tithes; and the Levites shall bring up the tithe of the tithes unto the House of our God, to the chambers, into the treasure house. ³⁹ For the children of Israel and the children of Levi shall bring the heave-offering of the corn, of the grape juice, and the oil, unto the chambers, where are the vessels of the Sanctuary, and the priests that minister, and the gate-keepers, and the singers; and we will not forsake the House of our God.

11 And the rulers of the people dwelt at Jerusalem; the rest of the people also cast lots, to bring one of ten to dwell in Jerusalem the holy city, and nine parts to dwell in other cities. ² And the people blessed all the men, that willingly offered themselves to dwell at Jerusalem.

³ AND THESE ARE THE CHIEFS of the Province [of Judea] that dwelt in Jerusalem, (but in the cities of Judah dwelt every one in his possession in their cities), to wit, Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the Nethins, and the children of Solomon's servants. ⁴ And at Jerusalem dwelt some of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin.

Of the children of Judah; Athaiah the son of Uzziab, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalaleel, of the children of Pharez; ⁵ and Maaseiah, the son of Baruch, the son of Col-hozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of Shiloni. ⁶ All the sons of Pharez that dwelt at Jerusalem were four hundred sixty and eight valiant men.

⁷ And these are the sons of Benjamin; Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Koliaih, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jesaiah. ⁸ And after him Gabbai, Sallai, nine hundred twenty and eight. ⁹ And Joel the son of Zichri was their chief; and Judah the son of Senuah was over the Second [or Lower] city.

¹⁰ Of the Priests; Jedaiah the son of Joiarib, [the son of] Jachin, [the son of] Seraiah, the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, was the ruler of the House of God. ¹² And their brethren that did the work of the House were eight hundred twenty and two; and Adayah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashur, the son of Malchiah, ¹³ and his brethren, chief of the fathers, two hundred forty and two; and Amashai the son of Azareel, the son of Ahasai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer, ¹⁴ and their brethren, mighty men of valour, a hundred twenty and eight; and their chief was Zabdiel, the son of one of the great men.

¹⁵ Also of the Levites; Shemaiah the son of Hashub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni; ¹⁶ and Shabbethai and Jozabad, of the chief of the Levites, had the oversight of the outward business of the House of God. ¹⁷ And Mattaniah the son of Micha, the son of Zabdi the son of Asaph, was the chief to begin the thanksgiving in prayer; and Bakbukiah, the second among his brethren, and Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun. ¹⁸ All the Levites in the holy city were two hundred eighty and four.

¹⁹ Moreover the Gate-keepers, Akkub, Talmon, and their brethren that kept guard at the gates, were a hundred seventy and two.

²⁰ And the residue of Israel, of the priests, and the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, every one in his inheritance. ²¹ But the Nethins dwelt in [the suburb] Ophel; and Ziha and Gispera were over the Nethins.

²² The chief also of the Levites at Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micha.

Some of the sons of Asaph, the singers, were over the business of the House of God; ²³ for it was the command of the king [of Persia] concerning them, that an assured portion should be for the singers, a rate day by day. ²⁴ And Pethahiah the son of Meshezabel, of the children of Zarah the son of Judah, was at the king's hand in all matters concerning the people.

²⁵ And for the villages in their fields, some of the children of Judah dwelt.

at the City of Arba, and in its suburbs, and at Dibon, and in its suburbs, and at Jekabzeel [or Kabzeel], and in its villages, ²⁶ and at Jeshua, and at Moladah, and at Beth-pheret, ²⁷ and at the village of Shual, and at Beer-sheba, and its suburbs, ²⁸ and at Ziklag, and at Mekonah, and in its suburbs, ²⁹ and at Ain-rimmon, and at Zarah, and at Jarmuth, ³⁰ Zanoah, Adullam, and their villages, at Lachish, and its fields, at Azekah, and in its suburbs. And they were encamped from Beer-sheba unto the valley of Hinnom.

³¹ The children also of Benjamin dwelt from Geba to Michmash, and Aija, and Beth-el, and in its suburbs.

³² and at Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah, ³³ the village of Ramah, Gittaim, ³⁴ Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat, ³⁵ Lydda, and Ono, the valley of Charashim [or the Carpenters].

³⁶ And of the Levites, some divisions belonging to Judah were in Benjamin.

¹² Now these are the priests and the Levites that went up with Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua [B.C. 538]; Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra, ² Amariah, Malluch, Hattush, ³ Shechaniah, Rehum, Meremoth, ⁴ Iddo, Ginnetho, Abijah, ⁵ Miamin, Maadiah, Bilgah, ⁶ Shemaiah, and Joiarib, Jedaiah, ⁷ Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah, Jedaiah. These were the chief of the priests and of their brethren in the days of Jeshua.

⁸ Moreover the Levites; Jeshua, Einnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah, who was over the thanksgiving, he and his brethren. ⁹ Also Bakbukiah and Unni, their brethren were over against them in keeping watch.

[¹⁰ And Jeshua [son of] Jozadak; 1 Chr. vi. 15] begat Joiakim, Joiakim also begat Eliashib, and Eliashib begat Joiada, ¹¹ and Joiada begat Jonathan, and Jonathan begat Jaddua [priest B.C. 340.]

¹² And in the days of Joiakim [B.C. 490] were priests, the chief of the fathers; of Seraiah, Meraiah;—of Jeremiah, Hananiah;—¹³ of Ezra, Meshullam;—of Amariah, Jehohanan; ¹⁴ of Malluchi, Jonathan;—of Shebaniah, Joseph; ¹⁵ of Harim, Adna;—of Meraioth, Helkai;—¹⁶ of Iddo, Zechariah;—of Ginnethon, Meshullam;—¹⁷ of Abijah, Zichri;—of Miniamin, * * *;—of Moadiah, Piltai;—¹⁸ of Bilgah, Shammua;—of Shemaiah, Jehonathan;—¹⁹ and of Joiarib, Mattenai;—of Jedaiah, Uzzi;—²⁰ of Sallai, Kallai;—of Amok, Eber;—

²¹ of Hilkiah, Hashabiah; of Jedaiah, Nethaneel.

[²² The Levites the chief of the fathers were recorded in the days of Eliashib [B.C. 460], of Joiada [B.C. 430], and of Johanan [or Jonathan, B.C. 390], and of Jaddua [B.C. 350]; also the priests, until the reign of Darius [Codomanus] the Persian [B.C. 335]. ²³ The sons of Levi, the chief of the fathers, were recorded in the Book of Chronicles, even until the days of Johanan, the [grand]son of Eliashib.)

²⁴ And the chief of the Levites; Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brethren over against them, to praise and to give thanks, according to the command of David the man of God, ward over against ward. ²⁵ Mattaniah, and Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, Akkub, were gate-keepers keeping the ward at the storerooms near the gates. ²⁶ These were in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the Pacha, and of Ezra the Priest, the scribe.

²⁷ And at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication and to rejoice, both with thanksgivings, and with singing, with cymbals, psalteries, and with harps. ²⁸ And the sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the Circle round about Jerusalem, and from the villages of the Nephathites; ²⁹ also from Beth-Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba and Azmaveth; for the singers had builded them villages round about Jerusalem. ³⁰ And the priests and the Levites purified themselves and purified the people, and the gates, and the wall. ³¹ Then I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall, and appointed two great companies of them that gave thanks. One went to the right hand upon the wall toward the Dung Gate; ³² and after them went Hoshai, and half of the princes of Judah, ³³ and Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam, ³⁴ Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah, ³⁵ and some of the priest's sons with trumpets; namely, Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph; ³⁶ and his brethren, Shemaiah, and Azareel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethaneel, and Judah, Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of God; and Ezra the scribe before them. ³⁷ And at the Fountain Gate, which was over against them, they went up by the stairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above the house of David, even unto the Water Gate eastward. ³⁸ And the other company of them that gave thanks went the opposite way, and I after them, and the half of the people upon the wall, from beyond the Tower of the Furnaces even unto the Broad Wall; ³⁹ and from above the Gate of Ephraim, and above the Old Gate, and above the Fish Gate, and the Tower of Hananeel, and the Tower of Meah, even unto the Sheep Gate; and they stood still in the Watch-house Gate. ⁴⁰ So the two companies of them that gave thanks stood in the House of God, and I, and the half of the Sagins with me; ⁴¹ and the priests; Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets; ⁴² and Maaseiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malchijah, and Elam, and Ezer. And the singers sang aloud, with Jezrahiah their chief. ⁴³ Also on that day they sacrificed great sacrifices, and rejoiced; for God had made them rejoice with great joy. The wives also and the children rejoiced; so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.

⁴⁴ And at that time were some appointed over the chambers of the treasures, of the heave offerings, of the firstfruits, and of the tithes, to gather into them out of the fields of the cities the portions fixed by the Law [Numb. xviii.] for the priests and Levites. For Judah rejoiced because of the priests and the Levites that waited. ³⁴ And both the singers and the gate-keepers kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification, according to the command of David to Solomon his son [2 Chron. viii. 14]. ⁴⁶ For in the days of David and Asaph of old there had been a head of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving unto God. ⁴⁷ And all Israel in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, had given the portions of the singers and the gate-keepers, every day its portion; and they had set apart some as holy for the Levites; and the Levites had set apart some as holy for the Sons of Aaron.

¹³ On that day they read in the Book of Moses in the ears of the people; and therein was found written, that the Ammonite and the Moabite should not come into the assembly of God for ever; because they met not the children of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Balaam against them, that he should curse them; howbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing. ³ And it came to pass, when they had heard the Law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude.

⁴ Now before this, Eliashib the Priest, being set over the chamber of the House of our God, was allied unto Tobiah; ⁵ and he had prepared for him a great chamber, where aforetime they had laid the meal offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of corn, of grape juice, and of oil, which were commanded to be given to the Levites, and the singers, and the gate-keepers; and the heave offerings for the priests. ⁶ But in all this time was not I at Jerusalem; for in the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon [B.C. 433] I had come to the king.

BUT AT LAST [B.C. 423 ?] I obtained leave of the king, ⁷ and I came to Jerusalem, and understood of the evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah, in preparing him a chamber within the courts of the House of God. ⁸ And it grieved me sore. Therefore I cast forth all the household stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber. ⁹ Then I commanded, and they cleansed the chambers. And thither brought I again the vessels of the House of God, with the meal offering and the frankincense.

¹⁰ And I perceived that the portions of the Levites had not been given them; and the Levites and the singers, that did the work, were fled every one to his field. ¹¹ Then contended I with the Sagins, and said, 'Why is the House of God forsaken?' And I gathered them together, and set them in their place. ¹² Then all Judah brought the tithes of the corn and the grape juice and the oil unto the treasuries. ¹³ And I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah. And next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah; for they were counted faithful, and their office was to distribute to their brethren.

¹⁴ (Remember me, O my God, for this, and wipe not out my good deeds that I have done for the House of my God, and for the observances thereof.)

¹⁵ In those days I saw in Judah some treading wine presses on the sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses; yea, even wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath day; and on the day wherein they sold victuals I protested against it. ¹⁶ There dwelt men of Tyre also therein, who brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath to the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem. ¹⁷ Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said to them, 'What evil thing is 'this that ye do, and profane the sabbath-day?' ¹⁸ Did not your fathers do thus? and our God 'brought all this evil upon us, and upon this city. 'Yet ye will bring more wrath upon Israel by 'profaning the sabbath.' ¹⁹ And it came to pass, that when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the doors should be shut, and I commanded that they should not be opened till after the sabbath; and some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath day. ²⁰ So the merchants and sellers of all kind of wares lodged for the night outside Jerusalem once or twice. ²¹ Then I protested against them, and said to them, 'Why lodge ye over against the 'wall? If ye do so again, I will lay hands on 'you.' From that time forth came they no more on the sabbath. ²² And I commanded the Levites that they should cleanse themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the sabbath day.

(Remember this also, O my God, for my sake, and spare me according to thy great kindness.)

²³ In those days also saw I Jews that had taken to dwell with them wives of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab; ²⁴ and their children spake half in the speech of Ashdod, and did not know how to speak in the Jewish language, but according to the language of each people. ²⁵ And I contended with them, and cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, [saying,] 'Ye shall not give your daughters 'to their sons, nor take any of their daughters to 'your sons or to yourselves. ²⁶ Did not Solomon 'king of Israel sin in these things? And among 'many nations was there no king like him who 'was beloved of his God, and God made him king 'over all Israel. Nevertheless even him did foreign 'women cause to sin. ²⁷ Shall we then hearken to 'you to do all this great evil, to transgress against 'our God in taking foreign women to dwell with 'you?' ²⁸ And one of the sons of Joiada the son of Eliashib, the high priest, had married a daughter of Sanballat the Horonite. Therefore I chased him from me.

²⁹ (Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood, and the covenant of the priesthood, and of the Levites.)

³⁰ Thus cleansed I them from all foreigners, and appointed the wards of the priests and the Levites, every one on his work; ³¹ and for the Gift of wood, at the times appointed, and for the firstfruits.

(Remember me, O my God, for good.)

THE BOOK OF ESTHER.

NOW IT CAME TO PASS in the days of Ahasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus [or Xerxes I.] who reigned from India even to Ethiopia, over a hundred and seven and twenty provinces); ² that in those days, when the king Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Susa, the royal city, ³ in the third year of his reign [B.C. 483], he made a drinking feast unto all his princes and his servants; the power of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him; ⁴ when he shewed the glorious riches of his kingdom and the honour of his excellent majesty for many days, even a hundred and eighty days. ⁵ And at the end of those days the king made a drinking feast of seven days unto all the people that were present in Susa the royal city, both unto great and small, in the court of the garden of the king's palace; ⁶ white linen, calico, and blue cloth, were fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings, and pillars of white marble; the couches were of gold and silver, upon a pavement of porphyry, and white marble, and mother of pearl, and tortoise-shell. ⁷ And they gave them drink in vessels of gold, (the vessels being diverse one from another,) and royal wine in abundance, according to the state of a king. ⁸ And the drinking was according to the decree that no one should restrain. For so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that every man should do according to his own pleasure. ⁹ Also Vashti the queen made a drinking feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus.

¹⁰ On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven chamberlains that served in the presence of Ahasuerus the king, ¹¹ to bring Vashti the queen before the king with the crown royal, to shew the peoples and the princes her beauty; for she was fair to look on. ¹² But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's command, which was by the hand of his chamberlains. Therefore was the king very wrath, and his anger burned within him. ¹³ And the king said to the wise men who understood the times, (for so was the king's manner toward all that understood law and judgment; ¹⁴ and the next to him was Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media, who saw the king's face, and who sat the first in the kingdom;) ¹⁵ 'What should be done to the queen Vashti according to law, because she hath not performed the command of the king Ahasuerus by the hand of the chamberlains?' ¹⁶ And Memucan answered before the king and the princes, 'Vashti the queen hath not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the people that are in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus. ¹⁷ For the deed of the queen shall come abroad to all the women, so that they shall despise their husbands in their eyes, when they are told that the king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not. ¹⁸ Thus will the ladies of Persia and Media who have heard of the deed of the queen, say this day to all the king's princes. Thus there will be not a little contempt and wrath. ¹⁹ If it please the king, let there go a royal command from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, and let it not be transgressed, That Vashti come no more before king Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal estate to one of her companions that is better than she. ²⁰ And when the king's decree which he shall make shall be heard throughout all his kingdom, (for it is great,) all the wives shall give to their husbands honour, both to great and small.'

²¹ And the saying pleased the king and the princes; and the king did according to the word of Memucan. ²² And he sent letters into all the king's provinces, into every province according to its way of writing, and to every people according to their language, that every man should bear rule in his own house, and that it should be published according to the language of every people.

² After these things, when the wrath of king Ahasuerus was appeased, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and what was decreed against her. ³ Then said the king's servants that ministered to him, 'Let there be fair young maidens sought for the king; and let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young maidens into Susa the royal city, to the house of the women, unto the custody of Hege the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women; and let their things for purification be given them; ⁴ and let the young woman who pleaseth the king be queen instead of Vashti.' And the thing pleased the king, and he did so,

⁵ Now in Susa the royal city there was a certain Jew, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Jaminite [or Benjamite], ⁶ who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captivity which had been carried away with Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away. ⁷ And he was nursing Hadassah, that is, Esther, his uncle's daughter; for she had neither father nor mother, and the young woman was beautiful of form and fair; whom Mordecai, when her father and mother were dead, took for his own daughter. ⁸ So it came to pass, when the king's command and his decree was heard, and when many young women were gathered together into Susa the royal city to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was brought also to the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women. ⁹ And the young woman pleased him, and she obtained kindness from him; and he speedily gave her her things for purification, with her portions of food, and seven of the young women out of the king's house who were meet to be given her; and he changed her and her young women unto the best place of the house of the women. ¹⁰ Esther had not shewed her people nor her kindred; for Mordecai had charged her that she should not shew it. ¹¹ And Mordecai walked up and down every day before the court of the women's house, to know the welfare of Esther, and what should become of her.

¹² Now when every young woman's turn was come to go in to king Ahasuerus, after that she had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, (for thus were the days of their purifications accomplished, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odours, and with the things for the purifying of the woman;) ¹³ then thus came the young woman to the king; whatsoever she asked for was given to her to go with her out of the house, of the women to the king's house. ¹⁴ In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's chamberlain, who kept the concubines. She came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were called by name.

of Vashti. ¹⁸ Then the king made a great drinking feast for all his princes and his servants, even Esther's drinking feast; and he made a release to the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the state of a king.

¹⁹ And when the maidens were gathered together the second time, then Mordecai sat at the king's gate. ²⁰ Esther had not yet shewed her kindred nor her people, as Mordecai had charged her; for Esther did the command of Mordecai, like as when she was being brought up by him. ²¹ In those days, while Mordecai sat at the king's gate, two of the king's chamberlains, Bigthan and Teresh, of those who kept the door, were wroth, and sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus. ²² And the thing was known to Mordecai, who told it to Esther the queen; and Esther certified the king thereof in Mordecai's name. ²³ And when the matter was sought, it was found out; therefore they were both hanged on a tree; and it was written in the Book of the Chronicles before the king.

³ After these things did king Ahasuerus promote Haman the son of Medatha the Agagite [or Amalekite], and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes that were with him. ² And all the king's servants, that were at the king's gate, bowed and worshipped Haman; for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordecai bowed not, nor worshipped him. ³ Then the king's servants, who were at the king's gate, said to Mordecai, 'Why transgressest thou the king's command?' ⁴ Now it came to pass, when they spake daily to him, and he hearkened not to them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's matters would stand; for he had told them that he was a Jew. ⁵ And when Haman saw that Mordecai bowed not, nor worshipped him, then was Haman full of wrath. ⁶ But he scorned to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had shewed him the people of Mordecai. Therefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the people of Mordecai.

⁸ And Haman said to king Ahasuerus, 'There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the peoples in all the provinces of thy kingdom; and their laws are diverse from all people; neither keep they the king's laws; therefore it is not for the king's profit to suffer them. ⁹ If it please the king, let it be written that they may be destroyed; and I will pay ten thousand Kikars [or hundred weights] of silver into the hands of those that have the charge of the business, to bring it into the king's treasuries.' ¹⁰ And the king took his ring from his hand, and gave it to Haman the son of Medatha the Agagite, the oppressor of the Jews. ¹¹ And the king said to Haman, 'The silver is given to thee, the people also, to do with them as it seemeth good to thee.' ¹² Then were the king's scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and there was written according to all that Haman commanded unto the king's Satraps, and to the Pachas that were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province according to its own way of writing, and to every people according to their own language; in the name of king Ahasuerus was it written, and sealed with the king's ring. ¹³ And the letters were sent by the hands of runners into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all the Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to take the spoil of them for a prey. ¹⁴ The copy of the writing to be given for a law in every province was published to all peoples, that they should be ready against that day. ¹⁵ The runners went out, being hastened by the king's command; and the law was given in Susa, the royal city. And the king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city of Susa was disturbed.

⁴ When Mordecai perceived all that was done, Mordecai rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried with a loud and bitter cry; ² and came even before the king's gate; for none might enter into the king's gate when clothed with sackcloth. ³ And in every province, whithersoever the king's command and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping and beating the breast. Many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

⁴ So Esther's maids and her chamberlains came and told it her. Then was the queen exceedingly grieved; and she sent raiment to clothe Mordecai, and to take away his sackcloth from him; but he received it not. ⁵ Then called Esther for Hatach, one of the king's chamberlains, whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and she gave him a command to Mordecai, to know what it was, and why it was. ⁶ So Hatach went forth to Mordecai to the broad place of the city, which was before the king's gate. ⁷ And Mordecai told him of all that had happened to him, and of the sum of silver that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the Jews, to destroy them. ⁸ Also he gave him a copy of the writing of the decree that was given at Susa to destroy them, to shew it to Esther, and to declare it to her, and to charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make supplication to him, and to make request before him for her people. ⁹ And Hatach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai.

¹⁰ Again Esther spake to Hatach, and gave him command to Mordecai; ¹¹ 'All the king's servants, and the people of the king's pro'vinces, do know, that whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come to the king into the inner court, who is not called, there is one law of his to put him to death, except such to whom the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live. And I have not been called to come in unto the king these thirty days.' ¹² And they told to Mordecai Esther's words. ¹³ Then Mordecai commanded to answer Esther, 'Think not with thyself that the king's house will escape more than all the Jews.' ¹⁴ For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then will there breathing and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place; but thou and thy father's house will be destroyed. And who knoweth whether thou art not come to the state of queen for such a time as this?' ¹⁵ Then Esther bade them to answer Mordecai, ¹⁶ 'Go, gather together all the Jews that are present in Susa, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink for three days, night or day; I also and my young women will fast likewise; and in such wise will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law. And if I perish, I perish.' ¹⁷ So Mordecai went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

5 Now it came to pass on the third day, that Esther put on her royal apparel, and stood in the inner court of the king's house, in front of the king's house; and the king sat on his royal throne in the royal house, in front of the doorway of the house. ² And it was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that she obtained favour in his sight. And the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand. So Esther drew near, and touched the top of the sceptre. ³ Then said the king to her, 'What wilt thou, queen Esther? and what is thy request? It shall be even given to thee to the half of the kingdom.' ⁴ And Esther answered, 'If it seem good to the king, let the king and Haman come this day to the drinking feast that I have prepared for him.' ⁵ Then the king said, 'Cause Haman to make haste, that he may do as Esther hath said.'

So the king and Haman came to the drinking feast that Esther had prepared. ⁶ And the king said to Esther while drinking the wine, 'What is thy petition? and it shall be granted to thee. And what is thy request? even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed.' ⁷ Then answered Esther, and said, 'My petition and my request is; ⁸ if I have found favour in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition, and to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the drinking feast that I shall prepare for them, and I will do to-morrow as the king hath said.'

⁹ Then went Haman forth that day joyful and with a glad heart. But when Haman saw Mordecai at the king's gate, that he rose not up, nor moved for him, Haman was full of indignation against Mordecai. ¹⁰ Nevertheless Haman refrained himself; and when he came home, he sent and called for his friends, and Zeresh his wife. ¹¹ And Haman recounted to them the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had promoted him, and how he had raised him above the princes and servants of the king. ¹² Haman said moreover, 'Yea, Esther the queen did let no man come in with the king to the drinking feast that she had prepared but myself; and to-morrow also am I invited to her with the king.' ¹³ Yet all this profiteth me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate.' ¹⁴ Then said Zeresh his wife and all his friends to him, 'Let a pole be made of fifty cubits high, and in the morning speak thou to the king that Mordecai may be hanged thereon. Then go thou in joyfully with the king to the drinking feast.' And the thing pleased Haman; and he caused the pole to be made.

6 On that night the king could not sleep, and he commanded to bring the book of records of the Chronicles. And they were read before the king. ² And it was found written that Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains, the keepers of the door, who sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus. ³ And the king said, 'What honour and dignity hath been done to Mordecai for this?' Then said the king's servants that ministered to him, 'There hath been nothing done for him.' ⁴ And the king said, 'Who is in the court?' Now Haman was come into the outer court of the king's house, to speak to the king to hang Mordecai on the pole that he had prepared for him. ⁵ And the king's servants said to him, 'Behold, Haman standeth in the court.' And the king said, 'Let him come in.' ⁶ So Haman came in. And the king said to him, 'What shall be done to the man whom the king delighteth to honour?' Now Haman said in his heart, 'To whom would the king delight to do honour more than to myself?' ⁷ And Haman answered the king, 'For the man whom the king delighteth to honour, let the royal apparel be brought which the king useth to wear, and the horse that the king rideth upon, and the crown royal which is set upon his head; ⁹ and let this apparel and horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that they may array the man whom the king delighteth to honour, and bring him on horseback into the broad place of the city, and proclaim before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delighteth to honour.' ¹⁰ Then the king said to Haman, 'Make haste and take the apparel and the horse, as thou hast said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew, that sitteth at the king's gate. Let nothing fail of all that thou hast spoken.' ¹¹ Then took Haman the apparel and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and brought him on horseback into the broad place of the city, and proclaimed before him, 'Thus shall it be done 'to the man whom the king delighteth to honour.'

¹² And Mordecai came again to the king's gate.

Then Haman hastened to his house mourning, and having his head covered. ¹³ And Haman related to Zeresh his wife and all his friends every thing that had befallen him. Then said his wise men and Zeresh his wife unto him, 'If Mordecai be of the seed of the Jews, before whom thou hast begun to fall, thou shalt not prevail against him, but shalt surely fall before him.' ¹⁴ And while they were yet talking with him, came the king's chamberlains, and hastened to bring Haman to the drinking feast that Esther had prepared.

⁷ So the king and Haman came to drink with Esther the queen. ² And the king said again to Esther on the second day while drinking the wine, 'What is thy petition, queen Esther? and it shall be granted thee. And what is thy request? and it shall be performed, even to the half of the kingdom.' ³ Then Esther the queen answered and said, 'If I have found favour in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request; ⁴ for we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. And if we had been sold for bondservants and handmaids, I had held my tongue, because the oppressor would not profit by the king's loss.' ⁵ Then the king Ahasuerus answered and said to Esther the queen, 'Who is he, and where is he, whose heart hath puffed him up to do so?' ⁶ And Esther said, 'The oppressor and enemy is this wicked Haman.' Then Haman was afraid before the king and the queen.

⁷ Then the king arose in his wrath from drinking the wine, and went into the palace garden; and Haman stood up to make a request for his life to Esther the queen; for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king. ⁸ Then the king returned out of the palace garden into the house of the wine-drinking; and Haman was fallen on the couch whereon Esther was. Then said the king, 'Will he force the queen also before me in the house?' As the word went out of the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face. ⁹ And Harbonah, one of the chamberlains, said before the king, 'Behold also, the pole fifty cubits high, which Haman had made for Mordecai, who had spoken good for the king, standeth in the house of Haman.' Then the king said, 'Hang him thereon.' ¹⁰ So they hanged Haman on the pole that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath calmed.

³ And Esther spake yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, and wept, and besought him to put away the mischief of Haman the Aga-gite, and his device that he had devised against the Jews. ⁴ Then the king held out the golden sceptre toward Esther. So Esther arose, and stood before the king, ⁵ and she said, 'If it please the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the thing seem to be right before the king, and I be pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman the son of Medatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews that are in all the king's provinces. ⁶ For how thus can I endure to look upon the evil that shall happen to my people? or how thus can I endure to look upon the destruction of my kindred?' ⁷ Then the king Ahasuerus said to Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew, 'Behold, I have given to Esther the house of Haman; and him they have hanged upon the pole, because he laid his hand upon the Jews. ⁸ Write ye also for the Jews, as it liketh you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring.' For the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, may no man reverse.

⁹ Then were the king's scribes called at that time in the third month, that is, the month Sivan, on the three and twentieth day thereof; and it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded unto the Jews, and to the Satraps, and the Pachas and rulers of the provinces which are from India unto Ethiopia, a hundred twenty and seven provinces, to every province according to its own way of writing, and to every people according to their own language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their language.

9 Now in the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar, on the thirteenth day of the same, when the king's command and his decree drew near to be put in execution, on the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them, (though it was turned to the contrary, that the Jews themselves had power over them that hated them,) ² the Jews were assembled in their cities throughout all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as sought their hurt. And no man could withstand them; for the fear of them fell upon all the peoples. ³ And all the rulers of the provinces, and the Satraps, and the Pachas, and those who did the business of the king, helped the Jews; because the fear of Mordecai fell upon them. ⁴ For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces; for this man Mordecai waxed greater and greater. ⁵ Thus the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and did what they pleased unto those that hated them. ⁶ And in Susa the royal city the Jews slew and destroyed five hundred men.

⁷ And they slew Parshandatha, and Dalphon, and Aspatha, ⁸ and Poratha, and Adalia, and Aridatha, ⁹ and Parmashta, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Vajezatha,—¹⁰ the ten sons of Haman the son of Medatha, the oppressor of the Jews; but on the spoil laid they not their hand. ¹¹ On that day the number of those that were slain in Susa the royal city was brought before the king.

¹² And the king said to Esther the queen, 'The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Susa the royal city, and the ten sons of Haman. What have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? And what is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee. And what is thy request further? and it shall be done.' ¹³ Then said Esther, 'If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews who are in Susa to do to-morrow also according unto this day's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged upon the pole.' ¹⁴ And the king commanded it so to be done. And the decree was given at Susa; and they hanged Haman's ten sons. ¹⁵ And the Jews that were in Susa assembled together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and slew three hundred men at Susa; but on the prey they laid not their hand.

¹⁶ And the other Jews that were in the king's provinces assembled together and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of their foes five and seventy thousand, (but they laid not their hands on the prey,) ¹⁷ on the thirteenth day of the month Adar. And on the fourteenth day of the same rested they, and made it a day of feasting and gladness. ¹⁸ But the Jews that were at Susa assembled together on the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof; and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness. ¹⁹ Therefore the Jews of the villages, that dwell in the towns of the country, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, and a good day, and of sending portions one to another.

²⁰ And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters to all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both nigh and far, ²¹ to establish this among them, that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly, ²² as the days wherein the Jews rested from their enemies, and the month which was turned unto them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning into a good day; that they should make them days of feasting and joy, and of sending portions one to another, and gifts to the poor. ²³ And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written to them; ²⁴ because Haman the son of Medatha, the Agagite, the oppressor of all the Jews, had devised against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, that is, the [divining] lot, to crush them, and to destroy them; ²⁵ but when [Esther] came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he devised against the Jews, should return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the pole. ²⁶ Therefore they called these days Purim after the name Pur. Therefore for all the words of this royal letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and which had come to them, ²⁷ the Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as joined themselves to them, so as it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to their writing, and according to their appointed time every year; ²⁸ and that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them perish from their seed.

²⁹ Then Esther the queen, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with all authority, to confirm this second royal letter of Purim. ³⁰ And he sent the letters to all the Jews, to the hundred twenty and seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of peace and truth, ³¹ to confirm these days of Purim in their appointed times, according as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen had enjoined them, and as they had decreed for themselves and for their seed, the matters of the fastings and their cry. ³² And the command of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim; and it was written in a book.

10 And the king Ahasuerus laid a tribute upon the land, and upon the isles of the sea [the Greeks]. ² And all the acts of his power and of his might, and the declaration of the greatness of Mordecai, wherunto the king advanced him, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia? ³ For Mordecai the Jew was next unto king Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews, and accepted by the multitude of his brethren, seeking the good of his people, and speaking peace to all his seed.

THE BOOK OF JOB.

THERE WAS A MAN in the land of Uz, whose name was Job [for the Persecuted]; and that man was honest and upright, and one that feared God, and turned aside from evil. ² And there were born unto him seven sons and three daughters. ³ His substance also was seven thousand sheep and goats, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she asses, and very many servants; so that this man was great above all the Children of the East. ⁴ And his sons went and made a drinking feast in their houses, every one on his day; and they sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them. ⁵ And it was so, as the days of the feasting went round, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered up burnt offerings according to the number of them all; for Job said, 'It may be that my sons have sinned, and 'blessed [or cursed] God in their hearts.' Thus did Job every day.

⁶ Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before Jehovah, and Satan for the Accuser came also among them. ⁷ And Jehovah said to Satan, 'Whence comest thou?' Then Satan answered Jehovah, and said, 'From going to and fro on the earth, and from walking up and down on it.' ⁸ And Jehovah said to Satan, 'Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him on the earth, an honest and an upright man, one that feareth God, and turneth aside from evil?' ⁹ Then Satan answered Jehovah, and said, 'Doth Job fear God for nought? ¹⁰ Hast not thou made a hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? Thou hast blessed the work of his hands; and his substance is spread abroad in the land. ¹¹ But however put forth thy hand now, and touch all that he hath, and he will surely bless [or curse] thee to thy face.' ¹² And Jehovah said to Satan, 'Behold, all that he hath is in thy hand; only put not forth thy hand upon himself.' So Satan went forth from the presence of Jehovah.

¹³ And there was a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house; ¹⁴ and there came a messenger to Job, and said, 'The oxen were plowing, and the she asses feeding beside them; ¹⁵ and the men of Sheba fell upon them and took them away; yea, they have smitten the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.'

¹⁶ While this one was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, 'The fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burned up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.'

¹⁷ While this one was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, 'The Chaldeans made out three bands, and rushed upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and smitten the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.'

¹⁸ While this one was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, 'Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house; ¹⁹ and behold, there came a great wind from across the desert, and it smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.'

²⁰ Then Job arose, and rent his mantle, and shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worshipped, ²¹ and said,

'Naked came I out of my mother's womb,
'And naked shall I return thither.
'Jehovah gave and Jehovah hath taken away;
'Blessed be the name of Jehovah.'

²² In all this Job sinned not, nor charged want of wisdom upon God.

² Again there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before Jehovah, and Satan came also among them to present himself before Jehovah. ² And Jehovah said to Satan, 'From whence comest thou?' And Satan answered Jehovah, and said, 'From going to and fro on the earth, and from walking up and down on it.' ³ And Jehovah said to Satan, 'Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him on the earth, an honest and an upright man, one that feareth God, and turneth aside from evil? And still he holdeth fast his honesty, although thou movest me against him, to destroy him without cause.' ⁴ And Satan answered Jehovah, and said, 'Skin for skin, yea, all that a man hath will he give for his life. ⁵ But put forth thy hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will surely bless [or curse] thee to thy face.' ⁶ And Jehovah said to Satan, 'Behold, he is in thy hand; only take care of his life.'

⁷ So Satan went forth from the presence of Jehovah, and smote Job with sore boils from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head.

⁸ Then he took him a potsherd to scrape himself with; and he sat down among the ashes. ⁹ And his wife said to him, 'Dost thou still hold fast thine honesty? Bless [or curse] God, and die.' ¹⁰ But he said to her, 'Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh. What? shall we receive good from God, and shall we not receive evil?' In all this did not Job sin with his lips.

¹¹ Now three of Job's friends heard of all this evil that was come upon him, and they came every one from his own place; Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite; for they had agreed together to come to mourn with him and to comfort him. ¹² And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, and knew him not, they lifted up their voice and wept; and they rent every one his mantle, and sprinkled dust upon their heads toward heaven. ¹³ So they sat down with him upon the ground for seven days and seven nights, and none spake a word to him; for they saw that his grief was very great.

³ After this opened JOB his mouth, and cursed his [birth] day. ² And Job spake, and said,

³ Let the day perish wherein I was born, [Jeremiah xx. 14],

And the night which said, 'A man child is conceived.'

⁴ Let that day be darkness;

Let not God regard it from above,
Neither let the light shine upon it.

⁵ Let darkness and the shadow of death stain it;
Let a cloud dwell on it, let day-darkness terrify it.

⁶ As for that night, let a gloom seize upon it;
Let it not rejoice among the days of the year,
Let it not come into the number of the months.

⁷ Lo, let that night be barren,
Let no joyful voice come therein.

⁸ Let the day cursers declare it accursed,
Those who are ready to rouse the crocodile.

⁹ Let the stars of its morning twilight be darkened;
Let it look for light, but have none;

Neither let it see the eyelids of the dawn;

¹⁰ Because it closed not the doors of the womb to me,
So as to hide sorrow from mine eyes.

¹¹ Why did I not die from the womb?
And perish when I came out of the belly?

¹² Wherefore were the knees ready for me?

Or why the breasts when I would suck?

¹³ For now should I have lain down and been quiet;
I should have slept; then had I been at rest,

¹⁴ With the kings and counsellors of the land,
Who built the ruined buildings for themselves;

¹⁵ Or with princes that had gold,

Who filled their houses with silver;

¹⁶ Or as a hidden untimely birth I had not been;
As babes that never saw the light.

¹⁷ There the wicked cease from troubling;

And there the wearied in their strength are at rest.

¹⁸ There the prisoners are at ease together;

They hear not the voice of the taskmaster.

¹⁹ The small and the great are both there;

And the bond-servant is free from his master.

²⁰ Why is light given to him that is in misery,

And life to those that are bitter in soul;

²¹ Who long for death, but it cometh not,

And dig for it more than for hidden treasures;

²² Who would rejoice even unto delight,

And would be glad, if they could find the grave?

²³ Why unto a man whose way is hidden,

And whom God hath hedged in from behind?

²⁴ For my sighing cometh together with my food,

And my groans are poured out like the waters.

²⁵ For I feared a fearful thing, and it came upon me,
And that which I dreaded is come unto me.

²⁶ I was not in foolish security, neither was I idle,
Neither was I enjoying rest; yet trouble came.

4 Then ELIPHAZ the Temanite ANSWERED and said,

² If we venture a thought with thee, wilt thou be weary?

But who can put restraint upon his words?

³ Behold, thou hast instructed many,
And thou hast strengthened the weak hands [Isaiah xxxv. 3].

⁴ Thy words have upholden him that was stumbling,
And thou hast confirmed the feeble knees.

⁵ But now it is come upon thee, and thou art weary;
It toucheth upon thee, and thou art troubled.

⁶ Is not thy pious fear a confidence to thee,
A hope to thee, even the honesty of thy ways?

⁷ Remember, now, who ever perished when innocent?
Or where have the righteous been cut off?

⁸ But as I have seen, they that plow iniquity [Hosea x. 12],

And they that sow trouble, reap the same.

⁹ By the blast of God they perish;
And by the breath of his nostrils are they consumed.

¹⁰ There is a roar of the Lion [Assyria],

And a voice of the Black Lion [Babylon];

And the teeth of the young lions are broken;

¹¹ The Panther [Egypt] perisheth for lack of prey,
And the whelps of the African lion are scattered abroad.

¹² Now a word was secretly brought to me,

And mine ear received the whisper thereof.

¹³ In troubled thoughts from the visions of the night,

When deep sleep falleth on men,

¹⁴ Fear came upon me, and trembling,

Which made all my bones to shake.

¹⁵ Then a Spirit glided before my face;

The hair of my flesh bristled up;

¹⁶ It stood, but I could not discern its form;

An image was straight before mine eyes.

There was silence, and I heard a voice, [saying,]

'Shall mortal man be more just than God?

'Shall a man be more pure than his Maker?

¹⁸ Behold he trusteth not his servants [Is. xlii. 19];

'And his messengers he chargeth with folly;

¹⁹ How much more them that dwell in houses of
'clay,

'Whose foundation is in the dust,

'Who are crushed together with the moth?

²⁰ They are destroyed between morning and evening;

'They perish wholly without any one regarding it.

²¹ Is not the excellence that was in them taken 'away?

'They die and are without wisdom.'

5 Call now; is there any one that will answer thee?

And to which of the Holy Ones wilt thou turn?

² For vexation killeth the foolish man,

And envy slayeth the silly one.

³ I have myself seen the foolish man taking root;

But suddenly I declared his habitation accursed.
⁴ His children are far from safety,
 Or crushed at the city-gate, without a deliverer.
⁵ Their harvest the hungry man eateth up,
 And taketh it even out of the thorn-hedge ;
 And destruction swalloweth up their substance.
⁶ Though affliction cometh not forth from the dust,
 Neither doth trouble spring out of the ground ;
⁷ Yet man is born unto trouble,
 As the sparks from the fire fly upward.
⁸ Truly I myself would seek unto God,
 And unto God would I commit my cause.
⁹ He doth great things and unsearchable ;
 Marvellous things even without number.
¹⁰ He giveth rain upon the face of the earth,
 And sendeth waters upon the face of the fields ;
¹¹ To set up on high those that are low ;
 That those that mourn may be raised up into safety.
¹² He disappointeth the devices of the crafty,
 So that their hands cannot perform their wise plans.
¹³ He taketh the wise in their own craftiness ;
 And the counsel of the cunning is thrown headlong.
¹⁴ They meet with darkness in the daytime,
 And they grope in the noonday as in the night.
¹⁵ But he saveth the desolate man from their mouth,
 And the needy man from the hand of the mighty.
¹⁶ So that the poor man may have hope ;
 And iniquity shutteth her mouth.
¹⁷ Behold, happy is the man whom God correcteth ;
 And despise not thou the chastening of the Almighty ;
¹⁸ For he maketh sore, and he bindeth up ;
 He woundeth, and his hands make whole.
¹⁹ He will deliver thee in six troubles ;
 Yea, in seven there will no evil touch thee.
²⁰ In famine he will redeem thee from death ;
 And in war from the power of the sword.
²¹ Thou shalt be hidden from the scourge of the tongue ;
 And shalt not be afraid of violence when it cometh ;
²² At violence and at famine thou shalt laugh ;
 And shalt not be afraid of the wild beasts of the earth.
²³ For thy league shall be with the stones of the field ;
 And the beasts of the field will be at peace with thee.
²⁴ And thou shalt know that thy tent will be safe ;
 And shalt visit thy cattle-stall, and not miss any thing.
²⁵ Thou shalt know also that thy seed will be many,
 And thine offspring as the grass of the earth.
²⁶ Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age,
 Like as a shock of corn standeth up in its season.
²⁷ Lo this, we have searched it out, so it is ;
 Hear it, and know thou it for thyself.
⁶ But JOB ANSWERED and said,
 Oh that my grief were thoroughly weighed,
 And my calamity laid in the balances against it !
³ For now it is heavier than the sand of the sea ;
 Therefore my words were hasty.

⁴ For the arrows of the Almighty are upon me,
 The poison whereof drinketh up my spirit ;
 The terrors of God set themselves in array against me.
⁵ Doth the wild ass bray when he hath grass ?
 Or loweth the ox over his fodder ?
⁶ Can that which is unsavoury be eaten without salt ?
 Or is there any taste in the white of an egg ?
⁷ My soul refuseth to touch them,
 They are as putridity in my food.
⁸ Oh that I might have my request ;
 And that God would grant me what I long for !
⁹ Even that it would please God to crush me ;
 That he would let loose his hand, and cut me off !
¹⁰ Then should I yet have comfort ;
 Yea, I would rejoice in the pain which spareth not ;
 For I have not denied the words of the Holy One.
¹¹ What is my strength, that I should hope ?
 And what is mine end, that I should prolong my life ?
¹² Is my strength the strength of stones ?
 Or is my flesh of copper ?
¹³ Or rather am I not without help ?
 And safe counsel is driven quite from me.
¹⁴ As for him that withholdeth pity from his friend,
 Even he forsaketh the fear of the Almighty.
¹⁵ My brethren have dealt deceitfully as a brook ;
 And they pass away as the stream of brooks,
¹⁶ Which are dirty by reason of the ice,
 And wherein the snow hides itself,
¹⁷ In what time they flow on they vanish ;
 When it is hot, they are consumed out of their place ;
¹⁸ Travelling companies turn aside from their way,
 They go into the waste, and perish.
¹⁹ The travelling companies of Tema looked,
 The marching companies of Sheba waited for them.
²⁰ They were confounded, because they had hoped ;
 They came thither, and were disappointed.
²¹ For now ye are become thus,
 Ye see a casting down, and ye are afraid.
²² Is it because I said, ' Bring unto me ?'
 Or ' Give a ransom for me out of your substance ?'
²³ Or, ' Deliver me from the enemy's hand ?'
 Or, ' Redeem me from the hand of the oppressors ?'
²⁴ Teach ye me, and I will hold my tongue ;
 And let me know how I have sinned in ignorance.
²⁵ How forcible are right words !
 But what doth your arguing confute ?
²⁶ Do ye imagine to confute with words,
 And the speeches of one that is desperate by a breath ?
²⁷ Yea, ye cast [a net] for the fatherless,
 And ye dig [a pitfall] for your friend.
²⁸ Now therefore may it please you to look upon me ;
 And it will be evident unto you if I lie.
²⁹ Answer, I pray you, let there be no injustice ;
 Yea, answer again, let my righteousness be in it.
³⁰ Is there injustice on my tongue ?
 Cannot my palate discern perverse things ?

7 Is there not a warfare for man upon earth ?
 And are not his days like the days of a hireling ?
 2 As a labourer panteth for the shade,
 And as a hireling waiteth for his wages ;
 3 So am I made to inherit months of vanity,
 And wearisome nights are numbered to me.
 4 When I lie down, then I say,
 5 When shall I rise, and night be fled ?
 And I am full of tossings to and fro until the dawn.
 6 My flesh is clothed with maggots and clods of dust ;
 My skin is broken, and become loathsome.
 7 My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle,
 And are spent without hope.

7 'Remember [O God] that my life is but wind ;
 Mine eye will not again see good.
 8 The eye of him that hath seen me will not regard me.
 9 Thine eyes are upon me, and I am not.
 10 As the cloud is consumed and vanisheth away ;
 So he that goeth down to the grave will not come up.
 11 He will return no more to his house,
 Neither will his place know him any more.
 12 Therefore I will not refrain my mouth ;
 I will speak in the anguish of my spirit ;
 I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.

12 Am I a sea, or a dragon,
 That thou settest a watch on me ?
 13 When I say, My bed shall comfort me,
 My couch shall ease my complainings ;
 14 Then thou scarest me with dreams,
 And terrifiest me by visions ;
 15 So that my soul chooseth strangling,
 And death rather than these my bones.
 16 I am become loathsome ; I would not live always ;
 Let me alone ; for my days are vanity.
 17 What is man, that thou shouldst magnify him ?
 And that thou shouldst set thy mind upon him ?
 18 And that thou shouldst visit him every morning,
 And try him every moment ?
 19 How long wilt thou not look away from me,
 Nor let me alone while I swallow down my spittle ?
 20 Had I sinned, what can I do against thee,
 O thou that watchest over mankind ?
 Why hast thou set me as a mark for thee,
 So that I am a burden to myself ?
 21 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression,
 And take away mine iniquity ?
 For now I shall lie down to sleep in the dust,
 And thou wilt seek me at dawn,
 But I shall not be.'

8 Then BILDAD the Shuhite ANSWERED, and said,
 2 How long wilt thou speak these things,
 And the words of thy mouth be like a strong wind ?
 3 Doth God pervert judgment ?
 Or doth the Almighty pervert justice ?
 4 If thy children sinned against him,
 And he gave them up into the power of their trespass ;
 5 Yet if thou wouldest seek unto God betimes,
 And make thy supplication to the Almighty ;

6 If thou wert pure and upright ;
 Surely now he would awake up for thee,
 And make thy righteous habitation prosperous.
 7 Though thy beginning should be small,
 Yet thy latter end would greatly increase.
 8 For inquire, I pray thee, of the former age,
 And rely on what was searched out by their fathers ;
 9 (For we are of yesterday, and know nothing,
 Because our days upon earth are a shadow ;)
 10 Will not they teach thee, and tell thee,
 And utter words out of their heart ?
 11 Can the paper-reed grow up without mire ?
 Can the rush grow without water ?
 12 Whilst it is yet in its freshness, it is not cut down,
 But it withereth before any other herb.
 13 So are the paths of all that forget God ;
 And the hope of the ungodly man will perish ;
 14 Whose confidence will be cut off,
 And whose trust will be as a spider's web.
 15 He will lean upon his house, but it will not stand ;
 He will hold fast to it, but it will not endure.
 16 He is full of sap before the sun [riseth],
 And his branch shooteth forth in his garden ;
 17 But his roots wrap themselves about a heap of ruins,
 And he hath a vision of a house of stones.
 18 If [God] destroy him from his place,
 Then it will deny him, [saying,] 'I have not seen
 thee.'
 19 Behold, this is the joy of his way,
 And out of the dust will others spring up.

20 Behold, God will not cast away an honest man,
 Neither will he take the evil doers by the hand ;
 21 He will yet fill thy mouth with laughing,
 And thy lips with shouting [for joy].
 22 They that hate thee will be clothed with shame ;
 And the tent of the wicked will come to nought.
 9 Then JOB ANSWERED and said,
 2 Of a truth I know that it is so ;
 But how can a man be justified with God ?
 3 If anyone wisheth to plead with him,
 He cannot answer him as to one charge of a thousand.
 4 [God is] wise in heart, and mighty in strength,
 Who shall be stubborn against him and be safe ?
 5 It is he that removeth mountains, and men know not,
 That he overturneth them in his anger ;
 6 He that shaketh the earth out of her place,
 And the pillars thereof tremble ;
 7 He that commandeth the sun, and it shineth not,
 And setteth a seal upon the stars ;
 8 He alone spread out the heavens,
 And he treadeth upon the high waves of the sea.
 9 He made the Great Bear, Orion, and the Pleiades,
 And the Chambers [of the Zodiac] in the south.
 10 He doeth great things past finding out ;
 Yea, and wonders that cannot be numbered.
 11 Lo, he cometh against me and I see him not ;

And he passeth on, but I perceive him not.
 12 Behold, he taketh away, who can make him restore?

Who shall say to him, 'What doest thou?'
 13 If God will not withdraw his anger,
 The boastful helpers do stoop under him [Is. xxx. 7].

14 How much less shall I answer him,
 Even should I choose out my words with him;
 15 Whom, if I were righteous, I would not answer,
 But I would make supplication to my Judge.

16 If I had called, and he had answered me,
 I could not believe he had hearkened to my voice.
 17 For he rusheth against me with a tempest,

And multiplieth my wounds without cause.
 18 He will not suffer me to take my breath,
 But filleth me with bitterness.

19 If [I would strive] by strength, lo, he is strong;
 And if by pleading, who will appoint me a time?

20 If I were righteous, should mine own mouth condemn me?

If I were honest, should it also prove me perverse?
 21 I am honest; do I not know my soul?
 Shall I deny mine own life?

22 It is a singular thing, therefore I said it,
 He destroyeth both the honest and the wicked.

23 When the scourge slayeth suddenly,
 He laugheth at the trials of the innocent.

24 The earth is given into the hand of the wicked;
 He covereth the faces of its judges.
 If not so, who is it?

25 Now my days are swifter than a runner;
 They flee away, they see no good.

26 They glide away as ships of reeds;
 As the eagle darteth on its food.

27 If I say, 'I will forget my complaining,
 'I will leave off my countenance, and be cheerful;'

28 I think with terror of all my troubles,
 I know that thou wilt not hold me innocent.

29 I am held wicked, why then should I labour in vain?

30 If I wash myself with snow water,
 And make my hands clean with soap;

31 Yet wilt thou plunge me in the ditch,
 And then my clothes will make me to be abhorred.

32 For he is not a man, as I am, that I should answer him,

And that we should come together in judgment.

33 Neither is there any umpire betwixt us,
 That might lay his hand upon us both.

34 Let him take his rod away from me,
 And let not the fear of him terrify me;

35 Then will I speak, and not fear him,
 When it is not so with me.

10 My soul is weary of my life;
 I will leave off my complaining to myself;
 I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.

2 I will say to God, 'Do not condemn me;
 'Shew me wherefore thou contendest with me.'

3 Is it good for thee to oppress,
 'To despise the labour of thy hands,

'And to shine upon the counsel of the wicked?

4 'Hast thou eyes of flesh?
 'Or seest thou as man seeth?

5 'Are thy days as the days of man?
 'Are thy years as man's days,

6 'That thou inquirest after mine iniquity,
 'And searchest after my sin?

7 'It is within thy knowledge that I am not wicked;

8 'But there is none that can deliver out of thy hand.
 'Thy hands laboured at me and made me

9 'Together round about; yet thou dost destroy me.
 'Remember, I pray, that thou madest me as the 10 'clay;

 'And wilt thou bring me again into dust?

11 'Didst thou not pour me out as milk,
 'And make me solid like cheese?

12 'Thou didst clothe me with skin and flesh,
 'And didst fence me with bones and sinews.

13 'Thou didst grant to me life and favour,
 'And thy watchfulness preserveth my spirit.

14 'And these things hast thou hid in thy heart;
 'I know that this is with thee.

15 'If I had sinned then thou hadst marked me,
 'And thou wouldest not acquit me from mine

16 'iniquity.
 'If I had been wicked, woe unto me;

17 'But I am righteous, yet I cannot lift up my head.
 'I am full of confusion, when I look on mine

18 'affliction;
 'As a black lion when roused thou huntest me.

19 'And again thou shewest thyself marvellous upon me.

20 'Thou renewest thy witnesses against me,
 'And increasest thine indignation upon me;

21 'Changes and warfare are against me.
 'Why then didst thou bring me forth from the 22 'womb?

 'Oh that I had died, and no eye had seen me!

23 'I should be as though I had not been,
 'Had I been carried from the womb to the grave.

24 'Are not my days few? cease then,
 'And let me alone that I may be cheerful a little,

25 'Before I go whence I shall not return,
 'To the land of darkness and the shadow of death;

26 'A land of gloom, as thickest darkness,
 'Of the shadow of death and without order,

27 'And where what shineth is as thickest darkness.'

11 Then ZOPHAR the Naamathite ANSWERED and said,

2 'Shall a multitude of words not be answered?
 And shall a man be justified by his lips?

3 'Should thy lies make men hold their peace?
 And shalt thou mock, and none make thee ashamed?

4 'For thou sayest, 'My morals are pure,
 'And I am clean in thine eyes.'

5 'But oh that God would speak,
 And open his lips against thee,

6 'And shew thee the secrets of wisdom;
 For they are manifold in purpose!

7 'Knowthen that God forgiveth thee some of thysins.
 'Canst thou by searching find out God?

- Canst thou find out the perfection of the Almighty ?
- ⁸ It is as high as heaven ; what canst thou do ?
 Deeper than hell ; what canst thou know ?
- ⁹ The measure thereof is longer than the earth,
 And broader than the sea.
- ¹⁰ If he assail, and shut up, and call to judgment,
 Then who can hinder him ?
- ¹¹ For he knoweth the falsehood of men ;
 He seeth iniquity also ; and will he not consider it ?
- ¹² For empty man may become wise,
 When the wild ass's colt is born a man.
- ¹³ If thou wilt prepare thy heart,
 And stretch out thy hands toward him ;
- ¹⁴ If thou put away the iniquity in thy hand,
 And not wilt wickedness dwell in thy tents ;
- ¹⁵ Surely then shalt thou lift up thy face without spot ;
 Yea, thou shalt be steadfast, and shalt not fear ;
- ¹⁶ Because thou shalt forget thy misery,
 Or remember it as waters that pass away ;
- ¹⁷ And thy lifetime shall rise clearer than the noonday ;
 The gloom shall become as the morning.
- ¹⁸ And thou shalt be secure, because there is hope ;
 Though put to shame thou shalt rest in safety.
- ¹⁹ Also thou shalt lie down and none shall frighten
 thee ;
 Yea, many shall entreat thy countenance.
- ²⁰ But the eyes of the wicked shall fail,
 And their means of escape shall perish,
 And their hope shall be as a puff of breath.
- 12 And JOB ANSWERED and said,
² No doubt but ye are the people,
 And wisdom will die with you.
- ³ But I have understanding as well as you ;
 I am not inferior to you.
- Yea, with whom are there not such things as these ?
- ⁴ I am as one laughed at by his neighbour, [who saith]
 ' He calleth upon God, and let him answer him.'
 The just upright man is laughed to scorn ;
- ⁵ Contempt for the ruined is a feeling of those at ease ;
 It is ready for them that slip with the feet.
- ⁶ The tents of robbers prosper,
 And they that provoke God are free from care ;
 And into their hand God bringeth abundantly.
- ⁷ But ask now the beasts, and they will teach
 thee ;
 And the fowls of the air, and they will tell thee ;
⁸ Or speak to the earth, and it will teach thee ;
 And the fishes of the sea will declare to thee.
- ⁹ Who among all these knoweth not,
 That the hand of Jehovah hath done this ?
- ¹⁰ In his hand is the soul of every thing living,
 And the breath of every man's flesh.
- ¹¹ Doth not the ear try words ?
 And the palate taste its own food ?
- ¹² With the grey headed is wisdom ;
 And in length of days is understanding.
- ¹³ With him is wisdom and strength,
 To him belong counsel and understanding.
- ¹⁴ Lo, he breaketh down, and it cannot be built again ;
 He shutteth up a man, and he cannot be set free.
- ¹⁵ Lo, he withholdeth the waters, and they dry up ;
- And he sendeth them out, and they overturn the land.
- ¹⁶ With him is strength and safe counsel ;
 The misled and the misleader are his.
- ¹⁷ He leadeth counsellors away plundered,
 And maketh the judges foolish.
- ¹⁸ He looseth the bond of kings,
 And bindeth a girdle upon their lions.
- ¹⁹ He leadeth priests away plundered,
 And overthroweth the mighty.
- ²⁰ He closeth the lips of the confident,
 And taketh away understanding from the aged.
- ²¹ He poureth contempt upon tyrants,
 And looseth the belt of the strong ;
- ²² He uncovereth deep things out of darkness,
 And bringeth forth to light the shadow of death.
- ²³ He increaseth nations, and he destroyeth them ;
 He scattereth nations, and leadeth them back ;
- ²⁴ He taketh away the heart of the chiefs in the land,
 And causeth them to wander in a pathless waste.
- ²⁵ They grope in the dark without light,
 And he maketh them to stagger like a drunken man.
- 13 Lo, mine eye hath seen all this,
 Mine ear hath heard and understood it.
- ² What ye know, I also know.
 I am not inferior unto you.
- ³ I would indeed speak to the Almighty,
 And I should desire to reason with God ;
- ⁴ But ye on the contrary are forgers of lies,
 Ye are all physicians of no value.
- ⁵ Oh that ye would altogether hold your peace !
 For that would be wisdom in you.
- ⁶ Hear now my reasoning.
 And hearken to the pleadings of my lips.
- ⁷ Will ye speak wickedly on behalf of God ?
 And talk deceitfully on his behalf ?
- ⁸ Will ye regard his person, or plead on behalf of God ?
- ⁹ Will it be good when he shall cross-examine you ?
 Or as a man is befooled, will ye so befool him ?
- ¹⁰ He will surely reprove you if ye secretly regard persons.
- ¹¹ Will not his excellence make you afraid ?
 And the dread of him fall upon you ?
- ¹² Your memorable examples are parables of ashes,
 Your defensive [arguments] are defences of clay.
- ¹³ Hold your peace toward me, that I also may speak,
 And let come on me whatever will ;
- ¹⁴ Against whatever it is, I will take my flesh in my teeth,
 And I will put my life in the hollow of my hand.
- ¹⁵ Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him ;
 Yea I will maintain my ways before him.
- ¹⁶ He also will be my salvation ;
 For an ungodly man shall not come into his presence.
- ¹⁷ Hearken ye diligently unto MY SPEECH [to God].
 And to my Declaration with your ears.
- ¹⁸ Behold now, I have ordered my cause ;
 ' I know that I shall be acquitted.
- ¹⁹ Who is he that will plead against me ?
 ' For now, if I hold my tongue, I shall die.
- ²⁰ Only do thou, O God, two things for me ;
 ' Then will I not hide myself from thy face.

13 Withdraw thy hand far from me ;
 And let not the dread of thee make me afraid.
 14 Then call thou, and I will answer ;
 Or let me speak, and do thou reply to me.
 15 How many are mine iniquities and sins ?
 Make me to know my transgression and my sin.
 16 Wherefore hidest thou thy face,
 And considerest me as thine enemy ?
 17 Wilt thou frighten a leaf driven to and fro ?
 And wilt thou pursue the dry chaff ?
 18 For thou writest bitter charges against me,
 And makest me to inherit the sins of my youth.
 19 Thou puttest my feet also in the stocks,
 And lockest narrowly unto all my paths ;
 Thou settest a print upon the soles of my feet ;
 20 And this [body] as a rotten thing, wasteth away,
 As a garment that a moth eateth.
 14 Man that is born of woman
 Is of few days, and full of trouble.
 2 He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down ;
 He fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.
 3 And dost thou open thine eyes upon such a one,
 And bringest thou me into judgment with thee ?
 4 Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean ?
 ' No one.
 5 Since his days are determined,
 The numbering of his months is with thee,
 Thou hast appointed his bounds that he cannot pass ;
 6 Look away from him, that he may have rest,
 Till he shall accomplish, as a hireling, his day ;
 7 For there is hope of a tree, if it be cut down,
 That it may sprout again, and its branch may not ' cease.
 8 Though its root wax old in the earth,
 And its trunk die in the ground ;
 9 Yet through the scent of water it will bud,
 And bring forth sprouts like a plant.
 10 But a strong man dieth, and is laid low ;
 Yea, man breatheth his last, and where is he ?
 11 As the waters flow out of a lake,
 And a river decayeth and drieth up ;
 12 So a man lieth down, and riseth not.
 Till the heavens be no more, they shall not awake,
 Nor be roused out of their sleep.
 13 Oh that thou wouldest hide me in hell,
 Wouldest keep me in secret until thy wrath be
 ' past,
 Wouldest appoint me a set time, and then re' member me !
 14 If a man die, shall he live again ?
 All the days of my warfare will I wait,
 Till the relieving-guard come for me.
 15 Thou shalt call, and I will answer thee ;
 Thou wilt have a desire to the work of thy hands.
 16 Though now thou numberest my steps ;
 Thou dost not keep watch against my sinning.
 17 My transgression is sealed up in a packet,
 And thou fastenest up mine iniquity.
 18 And surely the mountain falling weareth
 ' away,
 And the rock is removed out of its place.
 19 The waters wear away the stones ;

' Their floods wash away the earth's dust ;
 ' And thou destroyest a man's hope.
 20 Thou overpowerest him for ever, and he passeth ;
 ' Thou changest his face, and sendest him away.
 21 His sons come to honour, and he knoweth it not ;
 ' Or they are humbled, and he perceiveth it not of
 ' them.
 22 Only his flesh upon him is pained,
 ' And his soul within him mourneth.'
 15 AGAIN ELIPHAZ the Temanite ANSWERED and said,
 2 Doth a wise man utter windy knowledge,
 And fill his belly with the east wind ?
 3 Should he reason with unprofitable talk ?
 Or with speeches wherewith he can do no good ?
 4 Yea, thou castest off reverence,
 And restrainest prayer in the presence of God.
 5 For thy mouth teacheth thine iniquity.
 And thou chooseth the tongue of the crafty.
 6 Thine own mouth condemneth thee, and not I ;
 Yea, thine own lips bear witness against thee.
 7 Wast thou born the first of men ?
 Or wast thou brought forth before the hills ?
 8 Hast thou listened to the secret counsel of God ?
 And dost thou keep back wisdom to thyself ?
 9 What knowest thou, that we know not ?
 What understandest thou, which is not in us ?
 10 Among us are both grey headed and aged men,
 Much older in days than thy father.
 11 Are the consolations of God too small for thee ?
 Or the words spoken tenderly towards thee ?
 12 Whither doth thy heart carry thee away ?
 And what do thine eyes look fierce at,
 13 That thou turnest thy spirit against God,
 And testest such words go out of thy mouth ?
 14 What is man, that he should be pure ?
 And one born of woman, that he should be right' eous ?
 15 Behold, He trusteth not in his Holy Ones [or angels] ;
 Yea, the heavens are not pure in his sight.
 16 How much more abominable and corrupt is a man,
 Who drinketh iniquity like water !
 17 I will shew thee, hear me ;
 And what I have seen I will declare ;
 18 What wise men have told and not withheld,
 [As they received it] from their fathers ;
 19 Unto whom for themselves alone the land was given,
 And no stranger passed among them.
 20 The wicked man is in pain all his days,
 And from the oppressor the number of his years is hidden.
 21 A sound of terrors is in his ears ;
 In prosperity the destroyer cometh upon him.
 22 He is not sure that he shall come safe out of the dark,
 And he is waited for of the sword.
 23 He wandereth abroad for food everywhere ;
 He knoweth that a day of darkness is ready at ' hand.

²⁴ Trouble and anguish make him afraid ;
 They overpower him, as a king ready for battle.
²⁵ For he hath stretched out his hand against God,
 And he strengtheneth himself against the Almighty.
²⁶ He runneth upon him with his neck,
 With the thick bosses of his shields.
²⁷ Though he covereth his face with his fatness,
 And maketh folds of fat on his flanks,
²⁸ Yet he shall dwell in desolated cities,
 In houses which no man inhabiteth,
 Which are ready to become heaps of ruins.
²⁹ He shall not be rich, neither will his wealth continue,
 Neither will their perfection reach over the earth.
³⁰ He shall not depart out of darkness ;
 The lightning will dry up his branches,
