

Famous Quotes on Spiritualism

Don't you believe that there is in man a deep so profound as to be hidden even to him in whom it is?

St. Augustine

The spiritual is the parent of the practical.

Thomas Carlyle

Be free all worthy spirits, and stretch yourselves, for greatness and for height.

George Champman

I'm aware that people I have loved and have died and are in the spirit world look after me.

Princess of Wales Diana

What I am trying to do is to unmuddle the metaphysical.

Wayne Dyer

The foundations of a person are not in matter but in spirit.

Ralph Waldo Emerson

All earthly delights are sweeter in expectation than in enjoyment; but all spiritual pleasures more in fruition than in expectation.

Francois Fénelon

The man or woman who concentrated on "Things" can hardly be trusted to use those things for the essential good of mankind. Only those who have guided the development of their spirit as well as their mind are really; qualified to use wisely the things that man's reason has enabled him to fashion out of nature's raw materials.

E. S. Fields

His spiritual life has been exaggerated by a chronic attack of mental gallstones.

Oliver St. John Gogarty

Ghost only exist for those who wish to see them.

Holtei

Your treasure house is within; it contains all you'll ever need.

Hui-Hai

The sensual and spiritual are linked together by a mysterious bond, sensed by our emotions, though hidden from our eyes. To this double nature of the visible and invisible world -- to the profound longing for the latter, coupled with the feeling of the sweet necessity for the former, we owe all sound and logical systems of philosophy, truly based on the immutable principles of our nature, just as from the same source arise the most senseless enthusiasms.

Karl Wilhelm Von Humboldt

Aldous Huxley

Spirit is matter seen in a stronger light.

L. P. Jacks

He who interrupts the course of his spiritual exercises and prayer is like a man who allows a bird to escape from his hand; he can hardly catch it again.

St. John of the Cross

There is no easy formula for determining right and wrong livelihood, but it is essential to keep the question alive. To return the sense of dignity and honor to manhood, we have to stop pretending that we can make a living at something that is trivial or destructive and still have sense of legitimate self-worth. A society in which vocation and job are separated for most people gradually creates an economy that is often devoid of spirit, one that frequently fills our pocketbooks at the cost of emptying our souls.

Sam Keen

As long as I can remember I feel I have had this great creative and spiritual force within me that is greater than faith, greater than ambition, greater than confidence, greater than determination, greater than vision. It is all these combined. My brain becomes magnetized with this dominating force which I hold in my hand.

Bruce Lee

Whether we name divine presence synchronicity, serendipity, or graced moment matters little. What matters is the reality that our hearts have been understood. Nothing is as real as a healthy dose of magic which restores our spirits.

Nancy Long

It must be of the spirit if we are to save the flesh.

Douglas MacArthur

Under all that we think, lives all we believe, like the ultimate veil of our spirits.

Antonio Machado

At the center of our being is a point of nothingness which is untouched by sin and by illusion, a point of pure truth, a point or spark which belongs entirely to God, which is never at our disposal, from which God disposes of our lives, which is inaccessible to the fantasies of our own mind or the brutalities of our own will.

Thomas Merton

Once spirit was God, then it became man, and now it is even becoming mob.

Friedrich Nietzsche

Spiritual power begins by directing animal power to other than egoistic ends.

John Ruskin

Physical strength is measured by what we can carry; spiritual by what we can bear.

Source Unknown

There are some people who have the quality of richness and joy in them and they communicate it to everything they touch. It is first of all a physical quality; then it is a quality of the spirit.

Thomas Wolfe
