

Truth Seeker Tracts

Bound Truth Seeker Tracts were sold as a set of four volumes and Bank of Wisdom does not generally republish partial sets, our rule being ‘all or none.’ But Truth Seeker Tracts volumes are so rare that we may never find the missing two volumes, Vols. 2. And 4. As these volumes are made up of single tracts bound into books, each tract being complete in itself, and no continuing page numbering through the books, there is no need to wait and hope that the missing two volumes will be found. So we are reproducing Vol. 1 and Vol. 3 of the four vol. set. If the other volumes should be found they will be included on a future CD-ROM.

These Tracts are quite rare as they date from the 1870s, and they serve to give some insight of the battle for truth against established superstition in America at that time.
