Magick Without Tears, Cap XVI (p 231)

* "It was part of my plan for the Equinox to prepare a final edition of the work of Dr. Dee and Sir Edward Kelly. I had a good many of the data and promised myself to complete them by studying the manuscripts in the Bodleian Library at Oxford --- which, incidentally, I did in the autumn; but it struck me that it would be useful to get my large paintings of the four Elemental Watch Towers which I had made in Mexico. I thought these were probably in Boleskine. I decided to go up there for a fortnight or so. Incidentally, I had the conveniences for conferring upon Neuberg the degree of Neophyte, he having passed brilliantly through this year as a Probationer.

I consequently asked him and an Emmanuel man named Kenneth Ward, to come More [Y,n]?

and stay with me. I had met Ward at Wastdale Head shortly before, having gone there to renew my ancient loves with the creeds of the gullies.

It happened that Ward was very keen on skiing. I had several pairs and offered to give him some. This casual circumstance proved an essential part of the chain by which I was ultimately dragged behind the chariot of the Secret Chiefs. At least I thought it was a chain. I did not realize that steel of such exquisite temper might be beaten into a sword fit for the hand of a free man.

To my annoyance, I could not find the Elemental Watch Towers anywhere in the house. I daresay I gave up looking rather easily. I had got into a state of disgusted indifference about such things. Rose might have destroyed them in a drunken fit, just as she might have pawned them if they had possessed any commercial value. I shrugged my shoulders accordingly, and gave up the search. The ski that I had promised Ward were not to be found any more than the Watch Towers. After putting Neuburg through his initiation*, we prepared to go to London. I had let the house, and my tenant was coming in on the first of July. We had four days in which to amuse ourselves; and we let ourselves go for a thorough good time. Thus like a thunderbolt comes the incident of June 28, thus described in my diary:

"Glory be to Nuit, Hadit, Ra-Hoor-Khuit in the Highest! A little before midday I was impelled mysteriously (though exhausted by playing fives, billiards, etc. till nearly six this morning) to make a final search for the Elemental Tablets. And lo! when I had at last abandoned the search, I cast mine eyes upon a hole in the loft where were ski, etc., and there, O Holy, Holy, Holy!

were not only all that I sought, but the manuscript of Liber Legis."^

The ground was completely cut away from under my feet. I remained for two whole days meditating on the situation --- in performing, in fact, a sort of supplementary Sammasati to that of 1905. Having the knack of it, I reached a very clear conclusion without too much difficulty. The essence of the situation was that the Secret Chiefs meant to hold me to my obligation. I understood that the disaster and misery of the last three years was due to my attempt to evade my duty. I surrendered unconditionally, as appears from the entry of July 1.

"I once more solemnly renounced all that I have or am. On departing (at midnight from the topmost point of the hill which crowns my estate) instantly shone the moon, two days before her fullness, over the hills among the clouds."

This record is couched in very general terms, but it was intended to cover the practical point of my resuming the task laid upon me in Cairo exactly as I might be directed to do by my superiors.

Magick Without Tears

Before closing the subject entirely I think it well to point out that there are quite a number of worlds on which a good deal of work remains to be done. In particular I cannot refrain from mentioning the work of Dr. Dee and Sir Edward Kelly. My own work on this subject has been so elaborate and extensive that I shall never sufficiently regret that I never had an opportunity of completing it, but I should like to emphasize that the obtaining of a book like Liber 418 is in itself so outstanding an achievement that it should serve as an encouragement to all Magicians.

Vision & the Voice, Intro

The Seer had not thought of continuing this work for nearly 9 years. It is not at all clear how the idea came to him in 1909, during a walk through the Desert with Frater O.V., (Victor Neuburg) a Probationer of the A{'.} A{'.},20but at Aumale a Hand suddenly smote its lightning into his heart, and he knew that now, that very day, he must take up _The Vision and the Voice_ from the point where he had laid it down in 1900. Parallel to this, it is also possible that he had in his ruck sack one of his earliest Magical Note Books, where hehad copied with infinite patience the 19 Calls or Keys obtained by Sir Edward Kelly from certain Angels and written down by Queen Elizabeth's astrologer, Dr. John Dee.

More [Y,n]?

The facts that stamp these Keys or Calls are these. Over 100 squares filled with letters were obtained by these two Magicians, in a manner which no one yet has quite understood. Dee would have one or more of these tables (as a rule 49 by 49) --- some full, others lettered only on alternate squares --- before him on a writing table. Kelly would sit at what they called the Holy Table, and gaze into a "Shewstone" in which he would see an Angel, who would point with a wand to letters on one of these charts in succession. Kelly would report, for example, "He points to column 6, rank 31", and so on, apparently not mentioning the letter, which Dee found and wrote down from the "Table" before him. When the Angel had finished, the message was rewritten backwards.

It had been dictated backwards as being too dangerous to communicate forwards --- each word being in its nature so powerful that its direct communication would have evoked forces which were not wanted at that time.

These Keys being re-written backwards, there then appeared conjurations in a language which they called "Enochian", or "Angelic". It is not a jargon; it has a grammar and a syntax of its own. It is far more sonorous, stately and impressive than even Greek or Sanskrit and the English translations, though in places difficult to understand, contain passages of a sustained sublimity that Shakespeare, Milton and the Bible do not surpass.

I agree that the names of the Great Elemental Kings are most likely inventions of Mathers, which does not completely dissipate my interest in them. I'd also like to find out the derivation of the Elemental Sigils, are these simply presented in a manuscript as such, or are they derived from the Sigillum or some other figure? The sigil of the Water tablet actually occurs on the Ensign of the Sun, and an approximation of the Sigil of the Air tablet occurs on the Sigillum, the Sigil of the Earth tablet occurs everywhere, but I haven't had much luck tracing the Sigil of the Fire Tablet.

I do have a copy of Turner's "Eli

The Kabbalistic values of the Enochian language are A.C.'s attributions taken from "The Complete Golden Dawn System of Magic", v.10,p.140.

The Hebrew values are taken from "Sepher Sephiroth".

The Greek values are taken from "Liber MCCLXIV: The Greek Qabalah" in "OTO Newsletter", II,7 & 8, p.16-40.

The English values are taken from "The English Qabalah", by J.E. Cornelius from the "OTO Newsletter", I, 3. page 20.

* As the letter C has only rough equivalence and no direct correlation in the Hebrew or Greek language or Qabalistic interpretations, the letter K has been used to represent the Enochian letter "Veh", and assigned the numerical value

ENOCIAN NUMERIC* NUMERIC* NUMERIC* ENGLISH HEBREW

The following are some of the attributions of the Sephirah that had been received during the period 06-12 through 06-28-1987, at which time while channelling information on the Enochian Symbolism, the interrelationship of the Four Watchtowers or Pillars, to the structure of the Tree of Life began to come through, expressed within the context of a tridimensional representation that may be a key to an Enochian Qabalistic system.

Within the scope of this text, the Tree of Life is taken out of the two dimensional context and transposed into a three dimensional perspective; More [Y,n]?

assuming the form of a pyramid, upon a descending inverted pyramid, upon another pyramid, set at a right angle that sits upon the final, inverted descending pyramid; in which each of the Sephirah below Kether and above Malkuth, become transpositional spheres that are at once a cornerstone, which are equally an apex, of an order of manifestation.

THE WORLDS:

Atziluth, the Archetypal World; within this system consists of the five Sephiroth of Kether, Chokmah, Binah, Chesed and Geburah, extending downward from the apex of Kether into a pyramid with the Sephiroth of Chokmah, Binah, Chesed and Geburah forming the base or corner stones.

More [Y,n]?

Briah, the Creative World; within this Tree of Life, is encompassed within a descending pyramid from the Sephiroth of Chokmah, Binah, Chesed and Geburah to an inverted apex in the Sephirah Tiphereth.

Yetzirah, the Formative World; is comprised of a pyramid that is set at a 45 degree right angle to the Worlds of Atziluth and Briah, and descending from the Sephirah Tiphereth forms a pyramid between the Sephiroth of Netzach, , Yesod and Daath.

Assiah, the Active World; the final inverted pyramid, is formed from the Sephiroth of Netzach, Hod, Yesod and Daath, descending to the Sephirah of Malkuth.

Subject: Footnotes to Dee's Oration & Translation

APOLOGIA ET POSTSCRIPTUM

This month we have presented Dr. John Dee's introductory Latin prayer from "Mysteriorum Liber Primus". It is notable that most medieval and Renaissance magical texts were prefaced with Christian supplications of this type, designed frequently to circumvent the enthusiasms of zealous inquisitors. Conjurors of every shade of gray veiled their evocative formulae under pages of righteous theological pretension. And more often than not it was the darkest demonologists who penned the purest prefatory prose.

It is quite possible, given the facts of John Dee's life amidst the contemporary religious and political institutions, that his motivation was in part to dissemble, with the introductory material here presented, the occult activities of his magical practice. It is also quite certain that these same phrases embody to a considerable extent Dee's sincere beliefs and intentions. Careful study of his introduction will reveal a great deal about the foundation and direction of the science of Enochian Magick.

In presenting this passage of Latin text, we have relied on Dee's own manuscript version (Sloane MSS. 3188), with aid of Ashmole's later transcript (Sloane MSS. 3677). Our translation of the text attempts to convey Dee's own sense and style, and it is our sincere desire to attract the attention of classical scholars more learned than ourselves for the correction of this version in future editions.

As always, a reproduction of the manuscripts and other materials used in the preparation of our text can be easily had from the CENTER FOR ENOCHIAN STUDIES for a supporting donation of $3.00 (please make checks payable to CASH, and request vol. I # 3).
