KAMEA OF VENUS

PHILOSOPHUS 4=7

The kamea of Venus consists of a seven drawn into itself. This gives rise to a total of forty-nine numbers, whereof seven numbers on each side give rise to a total of 175, and the sum of all makes 1225. From this kamea certain sigils of names with Intelligences to good and a spirit to evil are obtained.

In a future grade, we will expose practical methods of using this kamea and earlier kameas given to you in previous grades. More importantly, we will instruct you in a more potent method of creating sigils for telemata etc..
