Preface to the Reader.

HEN the Son of God had wrought that mighty Miracle of feeding 5000. Perfons with only Five Loaves and two small Fishes, he said to his Disciples; * Gather up the Fragments that Remain, that Rothing be Loft. This Preface no sooner fell to my Share, than this Passage was brought to my Mind; and very aptly to the Occasion. For our Blessed Lord having also Effectually Gathered and Fed his People by his Disciples in this Generation, it is a Duty we Owe to God and our felves, as well as to them, That we Gather up the Remainder of their Testimonies of Love and Service, that so nothing be Lost. To God we Owe it for his Unspeakable Benefit; to our selves, for our Example and Instruction; and to the Memories of such Deceased Brethren, as their Just but Fairer and more lasting Mo-numents, than those of Engraven Tables of Marble, or Statues of Brass: As their Works look beyond this World, so their Praise will out-live it. There is an Unfading Glory in the Labours of Good Men: And though Death is permitted to draw a Dark Shadow over their Persons, they will Live in the Just Reputation of their Good Works; the lively Characters of their Undying, Pious Minds: It cannot wither their Fame, or obliviate their Names; On the contrary, Death often silences Envy, and augments their deserved Praile. The The Author of these Collected Labours was one of them; and as he has left us, so has he left These to us for his Legacy; the better Part doubtless of his Estate, as besitted the Divine Nature of our Kindred. Not therefore for Ostentation, or to Indulge a Worldly Custom, but to the Glory of the Invisible God, the Ediscation of his Church, the Benefit of all People, and as a Testimony of our Respect to the Deceased Author, and of his Fidelity and Service to the Truth, This Ensuing Volume, Reader, is published, as thou sees: Which brings me to the Nature of it; and the several Parts, that do Compile it.

Divinity; Plain, Sound, Christian Divinity, the most Glorious and Entertaining Object of the Soul of Man is the Subject Matter of this following Book; Divinity, I fay, in all the right Senses of the Word: In its first and stricter Sense, to wit, the divine Nature or Godhead, this is Humbly and Reverently Considered; but more especially in its larger Acceptation, viz. Of the Knowledge of God, and those Do-Etrines of Truth and Order, that immediately relate to the Duty we Owe to God and Man, both in and out of Socity. In short Faith and Pactice (which is the Course Mankind. should steer through this World to the Haven of Everlasting Rest) as we cannot find a better Subject, so it will be hard to find it better treated and followed; not because he was more of a Scholar, than fome others, but in that he was more gifted, than many others. For this Knowledge of Divinity comes not by the Means of University-Learning; but that of the School of Christ by the Illumination of his Light and Spirit, and the Holy Dostrine and Discipline of his Cross; in one great but true Word, Regeneration: which is an experimental Science, and to be had resithout

without Money, and without Price, and that both by Gentle and Simple, Rich and Poor, &c. but not without Labour, Pain and Travail. Which made our bleffed Lord fay, * Labour not for the Bread that perishes; but for that which endureth to Everlasting Life. And the Apostle tells us, We must work out our Salvation with Trembling, and give Diligence to make our Calling and Election sure. It consists of divers + Operations, but all by the same Light and Spirit; and because all have need of it, all partake of it, that they may profit by it. It Enlightens all that come into the World, fays the beloved Disciple; and what soever may be known of God, his Mind and Will, is manifested in them, for || God (by the Revelation of this Light) hath shewn it unto them, says the Apostle to the Romans. And again; What soever is Reproved, is made manifest by it; It is made the Touchstone of our Lives and Conversations, for we are to bring our Deeds to it. It leads to the Benefit of the Blood of Jesus, That cleanseth from all Sin and gives us Fellowship with God and one with another, as his Children and People. It is our Armour also against all the Fiery Darts, and Furious Assaults and Crafty Workings of Satan, our great and common Enemy: Nay, the Nations of them that are faved, must walk in this Light. Yea, it is the Light of the Soul on Earth, and the Light of the Spirits of the Just made perfect in Heaven too in the divers Degrees of it: And Man is Darkness, as to Divine Matters, till he turns to this bleffed Light in him: which is the true Manifestation of the Son of God to and in the Soul and Mind of Man; the real Seed and Root of all divine Knowledge and Life in Man, which only gives him a Sight, Sense and Savour of divine Things, and of that Immortality he otherways vainly talks of, and hopes for. *The Spirit of Man is the Candle of the Lord indeed, when it is lighted by this glorious Light: but in the Wicked it is said to be often put out; not the Light it self, but Man's Spirit, which becomes a dark Candle again, (as it was, before it was enlightned by this true Light) through his Disobedience to it. It is called Light, because of God's Mind, and Man's and sure Equidence it gives of God's Mind, and Man's and fure Evidence it gives of God's Mind, and Man's Duty and Ways. That which is called Light, is also called Spirit, because of the Life and Sense it begets in the Soul of its Condition: It Quickens Man, that was dead in Sins and Trespasses; for Sin hardens the Heart, as well as darkens the Understanding: And this Glorious Principle by its Spiritual Efficacy makes it fensible, soft and Tender; so that the least Sin is felt, as well as discerned. Not an evil Thought passes, or a Temptation to it, but this living Heart turns against it: An Antipathy shews it self, and Get thee behind me Sature is the determined Sentence of the walls. tan, is the determined Sentence of the enliven'd Soul. It is of this Spirit the Apotlle speaks to the Corinthians, and it makes almost an Intire Chapter. He tells us, that it & fearches the deep things of God; and without which Man cannot discern spiritual things: And he gives a Reason for it too, grounded on his own Experience, the just Authority of his Confidence; because The natural Man perceiveth not the things of God, neither can he (as such) because they are spiritually discerned, The natural Man may talk of them, of God, his Nature and Attributes; of Christ, his Relation, Natures and Offices; of Regeneration, which is the great Work of the Son of God in in and upon Man: But Alas! that is all the Natural Man with all his Natural Powers and Skill is Capable of; he can go no deeper: 'Tis all Hear-say and Imagination. For they are a Mystery shut up close from all Unsanctified Hearts and Heads: Yea, they are all wrapt up, and strongly inclosed in this Holy Seed of Light and Spirit, that shines in the dark Hearts of Men, and through the Power of that Darkness they cannot Comprehend it. The Ground of which Darkness is Disobedience: Which made Christ say to the Jews; * If you will do the Will of God, you shall know of my Dostrine, if it be of God or not. I say, the Mystery, Power and Virtue of Christianity is shut up in this divine Seed: And if thou, O Reader! knowest it not, but art only speculatively a Christian, open thy Heart, and let it into the good Ground; and thou shalt quickly find the Efficacy and Excellency of it in the Fruits, that will spring from it: The Increase will be very great, and the & Taste thereof sweeter : much than the Honey or the Honey-Comb. She is a Tree of Life (said a Wise and a great King of old Time) to all them that lay hold upon her; and happy is every one, that retaineth her: for her Fruit is better than Gold, and her Revenue, than choice Silver. It was by him stiled Wisdom, because it made him wise; and will make every one, that is taught by it: For it makes People wise to Salvation by teaching them the Fear of the Lord, and to depart from Iniquity, and every evil Woy: All such are said to have a good Understanding. The Apostle Paul also calleth it the Grace of God, that bringeth Salvation, that hath appeared to all Men, &c. Brace, because it is God's Free Gift, not a 4

not our Merit or Purchase. * God so loved the World, he gave his only begotten Son to fave it; who was full of Grace and Truth: And of his Fulness we receive Grace for Grace in order to Salvation. In which Saying of the Apostle Five things are to be seriously remarked, as Comprehensive of the very Body of our Christian Divinity. First, the Principle, Talent or Gift, which God giveth to Man; and that is his Grace, The Grace of God, &c. Secondly, this Grace, Talent, Gift or Principle is sufficient to the End, for which it is given, viz, It bringeth Salvation: God bestows it for that Purpose. Paul might well say so, that had tried the Power and Virtue of it under the greatest Temptation: As God told him, his Grace was suffient for him; so he found it to his exceeding great Joy. Thirdly, The Universality of God's Bounty; It appears to all Men, more or less. It is so intended; Christ died for all, and distributes Grace to all, that all might come to the † Knowledge of the Truth, as it is in Jesus, and be saved. Fourthly, The Way, by which the Sufficiency and Universality of it is demonstrated, and that is, The Teaching Quality and Virtue of it, v. 12. Teaching us, that denying Ungodliness and worldly Lusts, we should live soberly, righteously and godly in this present World. This every one feels in his own Bosom at Times, and that of all Religions and of all Nations; A just Monitor, a secret Reprover, and a faithful Witness: Blessed are they, that give heed thereunto, and learn of it what to leave, and what to do; what to shun, and what to embrace: For it | leads in the Ways of Righteousness, and in the midst of the Paths of Judgment. It is by this, God shew-

eth Man his Thoughts, and what he doth require of him: This it is, that Man has made an Adversary by his Iniquities; which he must make Peace with, lett he bring him before the * Judge, and he cast him into Prison, and he come not out, till he has paid the uttermost Farthing. This Inward Teaching, Reproving, Exhorting Light, Spirit or Grace of God Learns us Two Lessons, which make up the holy Order of our Conversion and Saluttion. der of our Conversion and Salvation. 1. What we are to Deny: 2. What we are to Do. We are to deny Ungodliness and worldly Lusts; and it will shew us, what they are both within and without, in Thought as well as in Word and Deed, if we will attend to it, and watch and wait upon it. And though the grosser Evils, that carry the largest Characters of Impiety, are easily seen and observed; yet there are Lusts, that lie near, and stick close, that are less perceptibles and it may be are hereby by some shought ble; and it may be, are hardly by fome thought evil neither: As in Relation to Extreams in Food, Apparel, Furniture, Discourse, Converse, Gain, Honour, Revenge, Emulation, &c. And there is an Ungodliness in a Mystery too, which utterly mistakes and overthrows the true Nature and End of Religion, as well as palpable Enormities: Such is; fetting up the Form above the Power of Godliness, Humane Traditions above the Scripture, and Opposing that to the Spirit of God, which it Testifies of and so often refers unto, and making, and pressing Civil Edicts about Matters of Faith, and suffering none to Live and Enjoy what is their own, and prosecute their lawful Callings for the Maintenance of their Families; unless they will forgo Convictions, play the Hypocrite, be of their Creed, and receive their & Mark in their Fore. bead.

head, or at least in their Right Hand; by which Means they have made a worldly Interest and Empire of the Church, and of Religion (that should be the Purity and Peace of the World) a meer Step and Test to Temporal Preferment. These are the Things, under which Religion and indeed Civil Society, and true, Civil Policy groan, as well as other Impieties; though by worldly Men, and some, that would be thought Religious too, this is as little seen, as the more sensual Ungodliness is amended. For all which the Eternal God is come by many Judgments, and coming in * Flames of Fire to Execute Vengence upon the Wicked, whatever Carnal and Secure Minds think: And it is not the least of our Miseries; that we are but too Unsensible of it.

Thus we see, what we are Taught by the Grace to deny: Let us next consider the other Part of our Duty, which the Grace teacheth us, and that is, What we are to do? Teaching us, says the great and Zealous Apostle, that denying Ungodliness and worldly Lusts, we should live Soberly, Righteously and Godly in this present World. This is also a most Comprehensive Expression; a plain and easy Compend of our Astive Duty to God and Man,

Government of our Passions and Affections: § Let your Moderation be known unto all Men, said the same Apostle; His Reason was pressing and unanswerable, For the Lord is at Hand. So be Sober, for the Lord's at hand; and let Men see, that we are so. Though the Exhortation chiefly regards ourselves, that we may not Abuse or Disorder our selves, Overdo or Act in reference to our own Persons and Affairs: As if he had said;

be fober and moderate in thy Giving, Getting, Conversing; in thy Pains and Pleasures, in Thoughts, Words, and Deeds; in thy whole Man and Life.

Righteously, Refers to our Neighbour, to do as we would be done to: To defraud none, oppress none; but discharge all Relations and Conditions uprightly, to * Parents, Magistrates, Husband, Wife, Children, Servants, Neighbours, Strangers, Enemies: Just Weights and Measures, Old Land marks, and an even Ballance; These are well-pleasing to God in all Ranks and Relations.

Godly in this present World, relates chiefly to God, the Faith, Woship and Obedience we owe to him: Obedience by a pious Life; § For this is the Will of God, even our Sanctification: without Holiness none shall see him. So that to be godly, is to Live after God, not the World; and after his Spirit, not our Flesh; but to + Crucify the Flesh with the Lusts thereof, and put on the Lord Jefus Christ (his Meekness, his Patience, Humility, Mercy, Forgiveness, Love, Temperance and Righteousness) and make no more Provision for the Flesh to fulfil the Lust thereof: No more be in Pain, what we should eat or drink, or put on, or how we may make our selves Wealthy or Mighty in the Earth, after the Way of the Old Gentiles, that knew not God; as is the Custom of almost the whole Christian World (so called) at this very Day, (which General Declension shews, that a general Judgment, and an Over-flowing Scourge of God is at Hand:) but to seek the Kingdom of God first, and deny our selves, and watch and pray; waiting all the Days of our ¶ appointed Time, until our Great and Last Change shall come, So that Godliness is God-likeness; Translation, Renewing, yea, the First Resurrection, that those who Attain to it, the second Death shall have no Power over them. This * Godliness with Contentment is the greatest Gain, and prositable in all things; the Sum and Substance of Religion and of all God's Dispensations in the World; yea, the very End of Christ's Coming, and the blessed Fruit of his Victory over Hell, 'Death and the Grave; that Sin might have an End, the Devil's Works in Man and Woman be destroyed, and Man made an & holy Temple and Tabernacle for God to dwell in. This is Godliness, and this Godliness is the Way to please God; to lay up Treasure in Heaven, to be Fruitful in Grace, rich in Faith and good Works, and to lay hold on Eternal Life, and become Heirs of an Inheritance Incorruptible.

Which brings me to the Fifth and Last Thing observable from this Comprehensive Passage, viz. The Comfortable Reward and End of this Life and Grace, in vers. 13. Looking for that blessed Hope and the glorious Appearing of the great God, and our Saviour, Jesus Christ: That is, Looking for the Fulfilling of that blessed Hope; to Have, what they Hoped for: An Hope, that does not make Ashamed those that have it; but is an Anchor to the Soul in the greatest Storms, that Attend Men on their Way to Blessed ness. It is for the Accomplishment of this Hope, the gracious Livers have a Title to Expect and Wait. They that have been Taught by the Grace, what to deny, and what to do, and to look and live above the World, and by an Eye of Faith to pierce through the dark Clouds of Time, and stedsaftly to look into the things that are Eternal, they are but Travellers and Pilgrims, as were all the godly Fathers of old Time; and expect with them a * City, whose Builder and Maker is God. These wait for the glorious Appearing of the great God, and their Saviour Jesus Christ, as the Blessed End of their Hope; and to them he will certainly come, as the Glorious and Faithful Rewarder of the Faith, Obedience and Perseverance of his poor Disciples and Servants: They shall Reign with him a Thousand Tears, and for over. Their Obedience and Sufferings are but Temporal, but the Recompence Everlasting: § Eye hath not seen, nor Ear heard, nor has the Heart of Man been able to perceive the good Things, that God has laid up in Store for those that love him; But in the Heavens, that do not wax Old, and which will never pass away, those holy Gourts of God, the true Followers of Jesus, the Children of Light and Disciples of the Cross, that come through the many Tribulations (from Conviction to Conversion from Conversion to Conversion from Conversion to Conversion from Conversion to Conversion from Conversion to Conversion to Conversion to Conversion to Conversion from Conversion to on, from Conversion to Consummation, the End of all) shall Understand, Taste and Enjoy those Hidden and Divine Pleasures, that are as Ineffable, as they are Eternal.

This, Reader, is the Old Divinity, that of Christ and his blessed Apostles Time and Teaching, renewed in our Days by the fresh Breaking-forth of the same Light, Spirit and Grace, that brought this Doctrine of Immortality to Light in those Primitive and Happy Ages; yea, Immortality it self, a divine, Never-dying Life into the Soul, that which quickens it out of the sleepy and dead Estate, Sin brings it into, by which it looseth all Savour or Relish of Spiritual Things. I say, this is the Divinity God has Renewed among us, an experimental Work or Operation of his Light, Spirit and Grace in our Souls: This (Light) is the great Luminary of the Intellectual World, that expels the Darkness, and scatters the Mists of Sin and Death, that the Souls of Men labour under, where it is Received and Obeyed. This is the Day of God, in which the Whole World has a Visitation; that by which we are to see our Way to God, and Duty to him and all Men, as the outward Sun is the Means, by which we see our outward Ways, and the Difference of the soul of the Difference of the soul of the Difference outward ways, and the Difference of the soul of of the by which we see our outward Ways, and the Difference of outward Things. This was the Principle, that divinely endued the Author of the ensuing Vo-lume, and has enabled him to Write of God and his Attributes by the Power and Truth of them upon his own Soul: He felt his fustive in himself for his Disobedience; His Mercy by the Forgiveness of his Sins, through Faith and Repentance; His Holiness by the Sanctification of his Grace through Obedience to the Teachings of it; That God is a Spirit, by the Spiritual Operations upon his own Soul, the Spiritual Part of himself; And Omnipresent, because he felt his Presence, or him present as a Reprover, or a Comforter, where-ever he was or went: Omniscient, for the same Reason: because he could not think a for the same Reason; because he could not think a-miss, but he was sensible in himself, that God knew and saw it, by the Reproof that followed it: Omnipotent, because he Experienced that Power, by which the Soul is Redeemed from Death, and Sinners are made Saints; the most excellent and self-cuident Proof of God's Omnipotency or All softer. evident Proof of God's Omnipotency or All-sufficiency. For nothing can Regenerate, but that which Made; nor Renew, but that which Created: And as the Heavens are nobler than the Earth, fo is the Soul,

Soul, than the Body; Renovation and Redemption; than Creation; And Resurrection than our former Life,

This, Reader, thou shalt come to know to be true, as any Demonstration, that can be made to thy outward Senses, if thou wilt but turn in thy Mind to this Teacher, and wilt become the humble Scholar of this Divine Master, and learn of Him in true Silence and with Diligence. Ponder what I fay: Wouldst thou know God, and be fitted for his Heavenly Mansions, feek him in his Image, and thou wilt know the Original by it. Be thou but as Clay is in the Hands of the Potter, pliable, and he will form and fashion thee aright: He will make thee a Vessel of Honour for his own House and Use; and by the Self-denyal, Love, Purity, Patience, Righteousness, &c. that he will work in thee, or work thee into, thou shalt be able to pronounce truly and knowingly, God is, and that he is a Rewarder of them that fear him. Surely, there is a God in all the Earth: Then wilt thou be able to fay with holy David and Mary; * O my Soul, bless the Lord, and all that is within me, praise his holy Name: My Soul doth magnify the Lord, and my Spirit rejoyceth in God my Saviour; for he is good: for his Mercy endureth for ever! Amen, Lord Jesus! Amen.

I am now come to the Labours of our Author; and shall mention them according to their respective Times, with the Nature of their Subjects in brief, to Inform and Excite the Reader to their Perusal.

The First of them in Order of Place, was so in Order of Time; it is called, Truth Cleared of Calumnies: He writ it, at least published it 1670. The Occasion of it was a Book, intituled, A Dialogue between a Quaker, and a stable Christian: the Invention (it is supposed) of one W. Mitchell, a Preacher near Aberdeen; the Disingenuous Fruit of a long Controversy between him, and some other bitter Sticklers, and the People called Quakers, who as well by that Discourse, as in the Pulpits of those Times, were Represented (as was our Lord Jesus and his Followers) the worst of Men, possest of the Devil, and Blasphemers, under Pretence of being led by the Spirit: And for their Principles, that they devied the Spirit: And for their Principles, that they denied the true Christ, Angels, Heaven and Hell; That they held no Sort of Resurrection of the Body, nor final Judgment; were Enemies to Magistrates and Ministry; Comparing them with the worst of Hereticks, to inflame the People against them: A Field large enough for this Zealous Young Soldier to Engage his Adversary in, and where one of a less Capacity, than God had blessed him with, might, without any Prasumption, have comforted himself with an assured Success; which with much East and Plaintess he hath obtained a with much Ease and Plainness he hath obtained a-gainst the Goliah-like Vanity and Prasumption of the Author of the said Dialogue: And in which he has detected the Power and Evil Effects both of Ignorance and Malice, and shewn and defended the Innoscripture-Verity of their Principles. It is written with Strength and Moderation.

His next Publick Service of this kind was published in the same Year, called, Auerics to the Inhabitants of Aberdeen: It is the most Eminent Place in the North of Scotland, and near his Father's Seat, then alive, and many Years after. They contain the Principles and Practices of the Children of Error and Truth, wherein the Inhabitants of that Place especially might fee themselves, What they were, and what they should be; and remember some of them what they once pretended to seek for, and enjoyed, and were falled from: writ as an Apendix to the former Discourse:

His Third Book was writ in the Year following 1677. upon the same Controversy, and against the fame Opposer, namely W. Mitchel, intituled, william Mitchel Unmasked: Being a Rejoinder to that Persons Reply to his Truth Cleared from Calumnies. In which the Dispute rises high, and the Contest seems sharp and close; but to every Impartial Reader the Advantage evidently runs upon our Author's Side: Who appears rather Zealous than Heated, and sharp on his Enemy's Matter than Person: for he rather pities his Enemy, than triumphs over his Weakness and Envy. Here, as in an exact Draught, the Reader has an Account of the fabulous Principles given under our Names, and those that we really profess; and the Pleasure, even Men pretending to Religion take, to render a poor self-denying People that, which they are not: As if they feared, we should be in the Right, or hold Principles nearer, to what they profess themselves to believe, than is convenient for their Interest with the People to allow; lest that together with the Sobriety, their worst Enemies confess to be fo Conspicuous among them; should give them too great a Credit with their Hearers.

The next Year 1672: he writ A Scasonable Warning and Exhoctation to and Exposulation with the Inhabitants of Aberdeen, concerning this present Dispensation and Day of God's Libing Visitation towards them: A serious Title and Dedication, and a serious Discourse; they are be deeply deeply indebted to his Love, Labour and Memory. I pray God, it may be as Bread cast upon the Waters to the Inhabitants of that Northern City of this Famous Isle of Britain, and that they and theirs after these many Days that have past, may find it to their Spiritual Edification; that they may know, there was a Servant and Prophet of God among them, with the Testimony of the Everlasting Gospel, which is the Power of God revealed in Man, to Regenerate him: May it never rise up in Judgment against that People!

His Fifth Book was his Catechism writ in 1673. the Title, A Catechism and Confession of Faith, Approved of and Agreed unto by the General Aftembly of the Patriarchs, Prophets and Aposles, Christ himself Chief Speaker in and among them: Which containeth a true and faithful Account of the Pzincipics and Doctrines, which are most surely believed by the Churches of Chilt in Great Britain and Ireland, who are reproachfully called by the Name of Duakers; yet are found in the One Faith with the Primitive Church and Saints; as is most Clearly Demonstrated by some plain Scripture-Testimonies (without Consequences or Commentaries) which are here Collected and Inserted by way of Alusmer to a few Weighty, yet Easy and Familiar Duestions, fitted as well for the Wisest and Largest, as for the Weakest and Lowest Capacities: And Expostulation with and Appeal to all other Professor (of Religion.) It was a Scripture-Essay in the Heat of divers Controversies then on foot; and as of very good Use, so it has past Three Impressions before this. That at which the Author Aimed, was, giving the Clear and Native Sence and Authority of the Holy Ghost in Scripture upon every Point

Point of Faith and Practice, especially those that were Controverted; suggesting the Points successively in Questions from Head to Head, and giving Anfwer by proper Scriptures, without any Confequences, leaving it to every Reader to judge, how far the Que-Stion and Answer Agreed, and what Sence the Holy Ghost express as to the Point stated in the Question: Be it (for Example) of Faith, Works, Grace, Revela-tion, Justification, Sanctification, &c. And indeed, it were greatly to be defired, that where Men cannot Agree in their Comment, who yet Agree in the Text, they would strive to Improve Piety and Charity under Generalities, where they do and can Meet, and would * study to be quiet, and follow Peace with all Men, and Holiness, without which no Man shall see the Lord. It was a great Unhappiness to Men, as well as an Injury to Religion itself, that it has been branched and broken into so many Parts and Points; and more, that some Men have so boldly and critically Superfined upon them; but worst of all, that Governments have troubled themselves to give them Authority, and make them the currant Creeds of their Countries; and to deny and put down as Base and Adulterate, all Principles or Doctrines of a differing Sence, though they have an Intrinsick Worth, and the Exemplary Virtue of their Professors to recommend them. But I must remember, I am writing a Preface, and not a Book: And yet before I leave this, I must say, that I very much value the Simplicity of this Catechism, and the Design of the Writer in it; and wish, That those who seek a Satisfaction by Reading of Points in Religion, would seriously Read it: For the Collection that is made out of the Scriptures to every Head suggested by way of Question, carry that Clarity, Unity and Authority with them, that I would think should satisfy the Serious, and filence the Curious Inquirer.

The Sixth Book of the ensuing Volume came out in the Year 1674. It is called, The Anarchy of the Ranters and other Libertines, the Hierarchy of the Romanists and other pretended Churches, equally Resused and Resused, in a Twofold Apology so, the Church and Deople of God called Quakers, at. The Purpose of this Book was, as the rest of the Title shews, to Justify his Friends from Disorder against the Charge of one Sort of People; and Imposition and Tyranny over Conscience against the Missakes and Insinuations of another Sort of People: Shewing farther, That as the Antient Gospel is in this Age restored in its Purity by their Testimony; so the Apostolical Order of the Church of Christ is the Practice and Ornament of their Christian Society, and settled upon its only right Foundation, viz. the Love and Unity of the Spirit of Wisdom.

This Discourse touching the tender Place, both of

This Discourse touching the tender Place, both of those that Exercise a Coercive Authority over Conscience on the one hand, and of those, that to avoid the Extream, run into an Absolute, Personal Independency in Point of Order and Government, on the other hand, both Sorts were not a little disgusted; but the latter more especially, that thought themselves chiefly concerned in the Author's Intentions and Labour. And indeed, the Rise and Ground of the Discourse was the Dissatisfaction of some, that professed to be of the same Society, about the Methods of Proceeding, as a Christian Community for the Honour of our Holy Presession. Some mistock him; others too designedly fignedly Inveighed against him: The Animosity rise so high in some few Leading Persons of that Dissent, as to question his Sincerity to the Profession he made of Religion in general, whispering him to be Popishly Affected, if not a Papist; and perhaps a Graduated One too: And why? First, because he was Bred in France at School, under an Uncle, that was a Papist, if not a Priest: Secondly, because he maintained Church-Authority at as high a Rate, at least upon the same Principles. But for the First, his Father, who was always a Zealous Protestant, coming heartily to Embrace the Communion of the despised Quakers, and Chewing himself on Evernplant Mamber of their and shewing himself an Exemplary Member of their Society, commanded his Son over, being yet a Child, and only fent thither for the Advantage of a Relation, and of Learning French and Latin together; and that upon the pressing Importunity of his Father's own Brother, that was President of the Scotch Colledge, where the Learning common at our Schools, as well as at Universities, is daily taught.

To the Second Reason; It flows from Weakness or something worse. For first, If he defends the Necessity and Service of Order by any Arguments the Church of Rome has used to support her Power, it cannot conclude him of the same Principle or Spirit, unless it were to carry it to the same End and Extremity; which is denied. Next: Church-Government must no more be denied, because the Church of Rome pleads for it, than any other Truth that she afferts: There are Principles held by Jews and Turks in common with Christians, must Christians therefore renounce these Common Truths, or be branded with Judaism or Turcism? Nor is the Abuse of a Principle or Practice by any Society a Reason, why another Communion should be abused for Retaining or Using it. The Power we claim and use, differs both in its Nature and Object from the Power used by the Roman and other Churches too: In Nature, for ours is not Coercive and Penal upon the Persons or Estates of such as Dissent; and that not because we want Power, but because we believe it to be Evil to do so: But Theirs is Coercive and Penal either by themselves or their Proxy, the Civil Magistrate, who is a Member of their Church. In Object they disser, because their Authority regards Matters of Faith and Worship; but that we use, only Order, and the Government of Society. And here I must beseech those few, that are under any Dissatisfaction, into whose Hands this may come, to stop a while, and ponder with the Spirit of Meekness and Wisdom upon this Distinction, where I conceive the Stress lies; and the Matter in Controversy may receive a satisfactory Issue.

The Protestants accuse the Church of Rome with the Addition of Articles of Faish, and Institutions in Worship that are foreign to the Scripture, and the First Centuries or more primitive Ages of the Church; and charge their Dissent from her Communion upon that Head. The Protestant Dissenters impeach Protestant National Churches in some Sence about Articles of Faith, but plainly and strenuously with the Innovation and Imposition of diverse Institutions and Ceremonies in Worship, that are not found in Scripture; which is the best and truest Tradition of the Belief and Practice of those purer Times, in which they were written; and they lay their Separation upon this: Which has been followed with an Age of Severety on one Hand, as Zealous of Church-Discipline, and on the other Hand of great Sufferings both in Per-

fon and Estate out of Conscience and Zeal for the Simplicity, Purity and Example of Scripture-Worship against Humane Inventions. But this is neither our Case, nor our Dissenters Pretence; for we never Asfumed to our felves a Faith or Worship-Making-Power, nor did any one of the most scrupulous of them ever Charge it upon us. We pretend not to introduce fresh Points of Faith, or other Methods of Worship than it pleased God by his Heavenly Light and Spirit to lead us into at the Beginning of our bleffed Dispensation. There are no Forms of Words, set Gestures or peculiar Garments Dedicated and Injoined among us, or any Novelties, as to our Places of Words ship introduced, in which we Symbolize with others we Condemned, or differ from our selves in what we once owned. Our Case is plain Order, not Articles of Exists: and the Dispision of Garagement and cles of Faith; and the Discipline of Government, not of Worlbip: We are a Society, and therefore cannot be longer Independent one of another. We believe indeed for our felves, and ought to do fo, and came voluntarily into this Communion; the Ground of it being the Inward Perswasion of our own Minds, from a Spiritual Liking of Principles and Practice, and above all, that Divine Sense and Power, which we felt to unite our Hearts in the Communion of Worship (without which primitive Sense and Integrity, the best Part of the Fellowship will be lost, and the rest be but as a Body without the Spirit:) But being hereby drawn and engaged in Society, there is an Outward, a Civil and Temporal Part, that must be considered and discharged: though in Community to the spirit in Community the considered and discharged: though in Community the considered and discharged: though in Community the considered and discharged: though in Community the considered and discharged in the constant the con must be considered and discharged; though in Comparison of the Inmost Motives of our Fellowship, it is but as a Body to the Soul. And in this Sense we are not our own Masters; We are in Subjection, and b 4 must be in Subjection, a Kin one to another, and answerable one to another, and in some Sence one for another, at least to those that are without. For which Cause we cannot say as Cain Answered God, when he asked him, where his Brother was, I am not my Brother's Keeper: But as the Apostle said, We are not our own in Reference to the Title God hath to us, and that not only by Creation, but by Redemption also; and that Faith, Worship and Obedience we therefore owe to him. So in Society we are not our own, but Christ's and the Church's, to good Works and Services, yet all in Love. For Example: All Societies have Poor, Sick, Aged, Widows, Orphans, &c. These cannot be duly regarded and supplied, but by the Care of the Whole; nor that Care so effectually taken without Method; nor that Method settled without the Concurrence of the Communion: Here then is Power, and here is Order; what must be be then is Power, and here is Order; what must be called, that Opposes this? But yet further: All Societies Marry, Trade and Converse promiscuously, and have one Time or other some that are Unjust, Litigious, Licentious, and others; that though they may not fall under the Censure of those without, yet deviate from their first Testimony and Principles, upon which they joined themselves in Fellowship. What is to be done in this Case? Has this Society no Power to Establish such wholesom Methods, as may prevent Disorder and Scandal both to those within and those without? And is the not the proper Judge as well without? And is she not the proper Judge as well as Authorizer, of what is fittest to be done in such Cases? Remembring all along, that it is not about Things relating to Faith and Worship, or such a Sort of Exercise of Conscience towards God; but about such Things, as immediately refer to Conversation and Practice

Practice among Men (wherein nevertheless we ought to have the Fear of God before our Eyes, that as the Apostle says, We may do all things to the Praise and Glory of God) I say, here is no need of such an Exercise of Conscience in these Things, as if it had Faith for an Object. Nor would it sound congruous to common Sense, that because we may reasonably plead Conscience against acknowledging such an Article of Belief, or practising such an Institution of Worthin, which both G.O.D. for the Object subsets Worship, which hath GOD for the Object, where Conscience is not satisfied; therefore I may say, It is against my Conscience to comply with such Orders, as tend to support the Poor, visit the Sick, help the Aged, End Differences, Reprove the Licentious, Comfort the Tempted, Reclaim the Backslider: Or if I should say, It is against my Conseience to ask my Relation's Leave, or the Woman's I intend to Marry, before I propound my Design to her, or to give them, or the Society I am of, any Satisfaction of my Clearness from all others, by staying, before I Marry, such a due Time for Inquiry, as they think Sase and Decent, both for my Credit and their own; and which is at the same Time the General Practice of that Society, of which I am a Member: This, I say, has no Consequence or Coherence with the other Just Plea of Conscience, that has Faith and Worship for Objects. It must be therefore at least a Fruit of Inadvertency and Weaknefs, not to distinguish rightly between the Discipline of Worship, where Conformity is free, and the Discipline of Conversation and Society, where it is certainly Obligatory; or Society ceases. For what is Society, but a Voluntary Compound of Independent Persons, or the Resignation of Singles into Community? And what is every Member's Doing as it listeth, but a Difa Dissolution of that Society, and reducing it again into so many Singles or Personal Independencies? And this is the Mischievous Consequence of Liberty Misunderstood, and Challenged in the wrong Place. I beseech God to make those sensible of it, that are concerned in the Mistake, of whom I hope, and for whom I heartily wish the best; that they may see, we mean not any thing against the Truth, but for the Truth, nor to Enthral their Minds, but to Adorn their Conversation, and that of the Whole Society. their Conversation, and that of the Whole Society: And that what we plead for, do's not subject their Consciences, but their Conveniences only to the General Good, which every private Person of Course delivers up to the Benefit of Society, when-ever he Joins himself to it; and has what is better, in the Room of it, the Sweetness of Civil or Christian Fellowship. For if he serves others, which he was not equally obliged to before, he is also served of others, that formerly owed him no Obligation: For the rest, it is a good Life, which is a Duty incumbent; and so no Tyranny in Society to Require it, and Censure the Contrary. See then the Upshot, pray, of this whole Matter: Conscience is God's, therefore not our's to give, nor any Man's of Society to take or Usurp: Conveniences are our's, and those we submit to the Benefit of Society, when we enter into it, for the Advantages we receive from it. And a fust and sober Life is a general Duty; and therefore is not only no Error in the Church to Expect from every Member, but a Duty, in Her to Look after: As it is her particular Interest to see, that we walk faithfully up to the special Principles of Communion; and wherein we are Desicient. The may Exhaut and if Principles. ent, she may Exhort, and if Refractory, Rebuke; and if

and Command in that Case long ago provided.

I know, it is Objected, That most of those Methods. of proceeding, that are amongst us, as a Religious Society, came first from one or other of the Brethren, and had not a formal Settlement. But with all Humility let me Answer, That first, if it were so, they were Elders and Fathers, that were approved through ders and Fathers, that were approved through many Tryals, and worthy of double Honour. Next, They were fuch, as at the first we received gladly; and we could even have pluck'd out our Eyes to have shewn our true Value and great Affection for them, as those of old exprest for Paul: And if we received joyfully the greater things, that concern our Salvation, through their Ministry, Are they Unworthy or Unsit to Convey and communicate in the Love of God, good and wholesom Advice about the outward things of our Fellowship?

But, besides all that might be said upon this Head, to render our Compliance Reasonable or Christian, it is plain, that the Church of God, Gathered by the Ministration of his Spirit through his Servants, hath almost Universally received, and with Comfort and godly Profit practifed that good Order fo Recommended unto them by divers Elders and Brethren; particularly our Ever-honourable Elder Brother, Beorge for, that faithful Minister of our Lord Jefus Christ, and Eminent Apostle of our Time and Day, whom the Lord sent forth with a Testimony of the True Light within, Enlightning every Man that cometh into the World, and that in great Dread and Authority, who proved a Fruitful Branch, yielding much Fruit to him that had called him; living to fee many Thousands gathered to and Setled in that Testimony. He Preached the Light by Word and Writing; he Walked in the Light, and Suffered for it, and Departed in it; in which he Lives and Reigns for ever! And whoever Reads those Papers he writ to the Church of God in reference to these Things, will find, he uses very sparingly his Authority of Eldership; and whatever he might have said, that he hath said nothing, which did not Consist with the most Exemplary Sweetness and Humility, far short of that Power the Apostle * Paul used to the Corinthians, Philippians, Colossians, Thessalonians and Timothy, where, as well as in divers other Places, he Commands and Charges them over and over, as well in Matters of Order relating to the Well-Governing of their Christian Society, as Matters of Faith and Worship. And no Wonder; for he that had allowedly Injoined the greater, needed no earthly Dispensation to Require the Lesser. So that I must be feech fuch as are Diffatisfied, to look into the Way of God's Spirit in all Dispensations, more especially that of the primitive Church, and compare them with the Testimony of God's Servants in our Dispensation, and Weigh, in the Spirit of Love and Meekness, with a good Understanding the Treatise we are now upon (and another in Defence of it) in the following Volume, with the Liberty I have taken in a Preface upthis Occasion, to Open my self unto them for their better Understanding and Satisfaction, as to the Nature of those Things, and of that Power, which they take Offence at; and the Mind and End of their Friends, that Recommended, and sogenerally practise them. O that a divine Sense and Savour may fall upon them, and that the Antient Kindness may fpring! For if Love can cover real Faults, surely it can overcome imaginary ones, and Restore those, that have Misapprehended Persons or Things, to the Ancient, blessed Unity they once enjoyed. Here it is, that deep Saying of the Apostle may be Applied; * To the Pure all things are pure. Read this Discourse of the Anarchy of the Ranters, with such a Mind, and what is pure, will appear so to the right Mind; souther is the turn Mind, blessed are they that he was in for that is the pure Mind, bleffed are they that have it. A & Right Spirit was, what David prayed for, as well as a clean Heart. Consider First; If ever God varied his Dispensations in the Life-time of them, that were his Chiefest Instruments in them? Secondly, If he ever suffered them to fall away from them? Thirdly, If some Gathered by them, have not turned against them under such Pretence, or because their Exercise of Power or Rule in the Church? Fourthly, If such have not often come to Nought, and been manifested in time to the World, and at last gone visibly, in some Degree, back into the World; and so proved, that they have gone out from those Sons of the Morning, because they were not of them, as + John writes. Therefore let all that be Concerned, hear, and fear, and beware; Remembring, who smote at Moses, and who grieved Paul, and who it was, that John says,  Prated against him and the Brethren, in his Third Epistle, such as Insinuated, They took too much upon them; but were themselves found out of their Places. And let us all Remember, That if Obedience be supposed to live near to Bondage, so do's Liberty to Licentiousnes: And that both Obedience and Liberty Liberty are Excellent in their proper Places, and make a due and preserving Temper to one another in Civil and Religious Bodies; as doth the Ballance of Elements to all Bodies Natural. The Fear and Love of God dwell richly among us, that brings to and keeps in the most precious Unity!

Our Authors Seventh Discourse in order of Place (because of the same Subject, and wrote in Defence of it) but not in Order of Time, is called, A Mindication of the Book Intituled, The Anarchy of the Ranters, &c. Resused. It was writ in the Year 1679. drawn from the Author to Clear his former Discourse from the Mistakes and Scruples of such, as as did not Understand it, or seemed however Offended both with him and it. It is Didicated to the Communion in general he was of; written with a Serious and Clear Mind, and Love to those that were his Opposers.

I am now come to his Elaborate Apology published in 1675. Intituled: An Apology for the True Chistian Divinity, as the same is held forth and preached by the Deople called in scorn Quakers, etc. Dedicated to king Charles the Second. It was the most Comprehensive of all his Pieces, published in Latin, Dutch and English, and at least twice Printed in our own Tongue: It came out at the Close of a long and sharp Engagement between us of this Kingdom, and a Confederacy of Adversaries of almost all Persussions. It was his Happiness both to live in a more Retired Corner, and to Enjoy, at that Time, a Space of Quiet above his Brethren: Which, with the Consideration of their Three or Four Tears Toil, and a Sense of Service in himself, put him upon Undertaking and publishing this Discourse, as an Essay towards the Prevention of Future Controversy. It

First lays down our Avowed Principles of Belief and Practice, distinguished, from what our Enemies are pleased to say in our Names, who by making us Erroneous, give themselves the easier Task to Confute us; and then Triumph. After he has stated our Principles, he has put the Objections, which he had Collected out of our Adversaries Books, or that he did Apprehend might be made to those Principles; and Answers them: And lastly Cites divers Authors both Antient and Modern, especially some of the Primitive Ages, for further Illustration and Confirmation of our said Belief and Practice.

The Method and Style of the Book may be somewhat singular, and like a Scholar; for we make that Sort of Learning no Part of our divine Science. But that was not to shew himself; but out of his Tenderness to Scholars, and as far as the Simplicity and Purity of the Truth would permit, in Condescension to their Education and Way of Treating of those Points herein handled; Observing the Apostle's Example of Becoming all unto all (where there was nothing in himself to forbid it) that he might Win some. In sine, the Book fays so much for us and itself too, that I need say the less; but Recommend it to thy serious Perusal, Reader, as that which may be Instrumental with God's Blessing, to Inform thy Understanding, confirm thy Belief, and Comfort thy Mind about the excellent Things of God's Kingdom. To be fure, thou wilt meet with the Abused and Disguised Quaker in his own Shape, Complexion and proper Dress; so that if thou art not one of them, thou needest not longer follow common Fame or Prejudice against a People, though Afflitted from the first, yet not Forsaken to this Day: Ever blessed be the Name of the most High God, for he is good, for his Mercy endures for ever!

A Dispute follows this Apology, and in the same Year: It is Intituled, A Dispute between some Students of Divinity (so called) of Aberdeen, and the People called Quakers, held in Aberdeen, ac. Opponents of Students, Joh. Lefly, Al. Sheriff, P. Gellie: Pefendents, our Anthog R. Barclay, and George Keith, (who is a very Learned Man) and they both behaved themselves in Meekness and Christianity, the Success I leave the Reader to Observe: Only this I must say to him, it ended in the Convincement of divers Students of our Principles.

The next Year produced the tenth Treatise of this Volume, being 1676. It is called Quakerism Confirmed: A Lindication of the Chief Doctrines and Principles of the Quakers from the Objections of the Students of Divinity (so called) of Aberdeen, in their Book, called, Quakerism Canvaled. This we see is Controversial, and therefore I will fay the less; only the Reader must needs observe the Anger and Prejudice, that followed the good Success of the last Dispute, and to what a Pitch they carry Men, when Pride or Interest hath kindled them. It was well prayed of David indeed, Create in me a clean Heart, and Renew a right Spirit within me; For a Right Frame of Spirit will Govern the Will and Affections, keep from Mistakes, and hurtful Transports; yea, a Man of Conversation may want it sometimes, and be in Danger of Disorder. This Discerns, this Judges, this Directs: Blessed is the Man, that posselses it; he will not Judge before his Time, nor Judge wrongly; nor be partial, nor peevish, nor unstable: Which had those Students known, they would not have Resisted the lowly Truth, and so Unlearnedly Wrested the Words of it; and it would have been a better Tutor of Divinity to them, than all the Colledges in the World can yield. O ye Students and Professors of Divinity! Seek God, where he may be found, in Christ, and Christ in you by his Light and Spirit: Look not out, for the Kingdom is there, within you; read plain Scripture: In that * Seed, Talent and Leaven it lies Virtually, though as yet not Actively. Your Obedience to the Holy Manifestations of it in your selves will open its Power to you; and if you follow on to know, through obeying, you shall have the End of that blessed Prayer, Thy Kingdom come, thy Will be done in Earth, as it is in Heaven. Spend not your Time in vain, your pretious, your most-pretious Time! Let me a Stranger, but a Wellmost-pretious Time! Let me a Stranger, but a Well-wishing one, beseech you not to strain your Brains, break your Rest, and wander far, and gather nothing, but empty Notions; Husks indeed. Alas! What do you overcome? What do you enjoy by them? One Day in the Courts of God is more worth than it all; which Obedience to the Light of Christ in your Hearts brings you to: And there you will hear, see and taste of Divine Things; to which your Studies are but as Bread in a Picture to Real Bread. Then will your Souls live, and you will have the Key of Holy Scripe. Souls live, and you will have the Key of Holy Scripture, and know the Meaning of the Holy Men, and the Spirit, by which they Spake and Writ (which are Anigma's to the World) and that without the Help of your Costly and Tedious Commentators, who for the most part do but write by guess themselves. Then will you possess the Treasures of the Holy Antients, and know, what the Blessings of the everlasting Hills mean. This is Nectar and Ambrosia indeed.

indeed, the River of God! and here is the Olympus of the Sons of Light, the Mount Zion of David's Seed, the true Jews, where the Morning-Stars are feen, and heard to fing together for Joy !- But I must stop; I thought not of this Flight of Soul to Aberdeen: But God put it into my Heart thus to Visit you in particular, the chief Place of our Author's Labour of Love; and methinks, I hope and teel; That it shall not be in vain, nor this Remembrance of you, O Students and Inhabitants of that City and University

This Holy Spirit of Love, that filled my Pen in the last Paragraph, has seasoned me for this following Piece, writ in the Year 1677, and honoured with the best of Titles, viz. Universal Love, ac. The Occasion of it, to prevent the Abule of it on one hand, and recommend the Use and Practice of it on the other Hand. There are two great Extreams this Discourse observes, and moderates in the Spirit of Love and Wisdom. Those that suffer their Zeal to flame so inordinately, as to burn up all Appearances of Love and Tenderness to those, that are not of the fame Judgment and Interest; which is a most-pernicious Work of Satan, that common Enemy of Mankind, that turns the Zeal of Man upon his Fellow-Creature, that ought to be turned against him only, the Father of Wickedness. Nor is this done without great Subtilty; for he Transforms himself into an Angelical Appearance to Compass it: It must be all called a Zeal for the House of God; which if it only Ate up those that had it, would be less Mischie-vous to the World; but it Eats up other Folks, breaks Society, violates Relation, Invades Property, Robs God, and Destroys Man, a Fire of Hell, not of Heaven (for truly truly and excellently speaking, that is Love.) This Spirit Destroys instead of Informing: Christ's Spirit Intreats, Informs, and finally Saves both Body and Soul. People tinctured with this Religious (or rather Irreligious) Venom, are the worse for their Religion; their Natures are more Sowred, their Dispositions more Testy; less Bowels, less Humility, a worse Neighbour: The good Samaritan is of more Worth, than a whole Synagogue of them. Reader, beware of this Leaven of the Circumcision, the Pharisee, the spiteful Formalist, that vext Paul every-where, and were the great Enemies and Sticklers against the Truth in Power and Life: Their Generation is yet living, and fown too much about the World, and feem to be the Lords of it. But for all their Wisdom and Power, and the fair Shew they make in the Flesh, some after one Fashion, and some after another, Know Reader, that great is the Truth, and it shall prevail: The * Lamb shall have the Victory, who is the Light; and in the Dispised Light of the Lamb must the Nations of them that are saved, Walk.

The other Extrem is quite the Contrary, as all

The other Extream is quite the Contrary, as all Extreams are, but not so hurtful to the Concerns of this Life, though perhaps not less pernicious to the Inward Man, and in which Satan acts a Part for the most part out of Sight, by which he crastily Deceives and Ensnares some, that are simple-hearted, and commendable Livers, viz. Loving all equally without due Distinction, whatever their Perswasions be; and standing loose of all as to a Formal Communion, yet by their Latitude are (in a sort) of all, and Intitle themselves both by their Indisferency and their Love, to an Interest in them All, and all to an Interest in them. Our Author is weighty upon this Head; he shews, what Love is, its Excellency in its Root and Fruit; What Distinctions and Limitations true Love observes; and what People and Principles now Extant in the World, have the Rightfullest Claim to this Universal Love, from their Universality and Gentleness: To which I Recommend the Reader; taking this along with him, That true Love from Man springs from God's Love to Man. They that have Tasted of God's Goodness, and have had their own Tasted of God's Goodness, and have had their own Hearts softned by it, have an extraordinary Tenderness to Mankind: It is a most engaging Virtue; It Covers, Forgives, Excuses, Conquers all; nothing can stand before it. They that have known the Power of it, seel all Peoples Insirmities, and Sympathize with every one's Condition: They hate not thing but Sin; they Love all, can help and serve all; but especially the Houshold of Faith,

But it is speculating this Love too far, to Love all alike, as these Universalists tell us: For in Nature People do Love their Parents, Brethren, Husbands, Wives and Children better than others; and we cannot but Love the Religious Family we are of, more,

But it is speculating this Love too far, to Love all alike, as these Universalists tell us: For in Nature People do Love their Parents, Brethren, Husbands, Wives and Children better than others; and we cannot but Love the Religious Family we are of, more, because we feel them nearer to us, than another. But this (it may be) will not be denied in a fort; but then the proper Sense is somewhat Equivocated. viz. I find, says one, the Family of God every where in every Form and Sect, and that is my Church, which I love; and for that Reason I love every Society, and can communicate, as I see Cause, with every one of them. It is certain, we ought to see and Love the Good in All, and so far as Virtue shines in any Person, whatever is their Perswasion, so far there is a Loveliness; it is Comely, and of good Report: And though of a very differing Apprehension, as to Revealed and Traditional Points of Religion, yet they are to be loved; nay * Enemies, fuch as are Injurious to us in the highest Degree: But all this is with a Grain of Salt, under Restriction, and with due Bounds. For I am not obliged to turn Jew, Turk or Indian, because I honour their Virtue, and Love their Persons, as Fellow-Creatures: Nor am I bound to love an Enemy with the same Degree of Love I have for one, that is my Friend, Benefactor or Relation. To Worship God with those, that, though sober and upright among Men, worship him in Ways, my Conscience tells me are below, if not Contrary to the Nature of God, his revealed Will, and my own Sense of Duty and Worship, is an Extream, that makes all Ways of Worship indifferent, and in Consequence Impeaches the Dispensations of God, that have been to Carry Men farther, and to § Leave and Forget those things, that are behind: Yea, it causes the Offence of the Cross of God's Day and Dispensation to Cease, especially in trying and suffering Times; and opens a Door to a dangerous Temporizing. † Paul according to this Doctrine was much in the wrong, that he Reproved Peter for his Complacency with the Jews: And indeed, our Saviour and his Apostles will not escape Blameless for changing that Constitution, if it were Lawful for them to Continue to Worship God in the Jewish Manner. Nor did the primitive Christians well to be devoured by Wild Beasts, if they might have been permitted to Symbolize with the Heathen: For it is certain, there were many Extraordinary Gentiles, the Followers of Plato, Zeno, Seneca, Epectetus, Plutarch, Marc. Aurelius Antonius, &c. in those Times, that have left the Just Fame of ^{*} Phil. 4. 8. Heb. 6. 1, 2. Matt. 5. 24. & Phil. 3. 13. + Gal 2. 11, 12, 14.

Virtue to their Names by their sober Lives and rare Writings. I may converse kindly, but I cannot worship with one I differ from, even about that very Way of Worship; and if this be a Fault, we must impeach our Protestant Ancestors too. But on the other hand I must be Careful, I suffer not my self to be carried beyond Bounds in Diffent neither: The Difference must never run so far, as to beget a Dislike, and much less an Aversion of Spirit to his Person or Conversation that I differ from; this were Sinful, yet, alas! too common, and it may be, an hard Task to conquer, and a true Mark of Discipleship in all that overcome it. God Almighty root out and expel that Make-bait-Spirit among Men; that where there is not an Unity (for that comes up to Faith and Worship) we may exercise true Charity and Forbearance, especially, where there is any sincere Appearance of the Common Faith, and the Fruits of a * Fear towards God in general. But as God has Appeared its Code of The general. But as God has Appeared at fundry Times, and in divers Manners, fince the World began, so it was the Way of his Spirit and Method of his Providence to gather up the Sincere-minded into one, as fo many Grains do form one Lump; And therefore the Apostle to the Corinthians calls the Believers; one Bread, unto which, as a Standard, others were to be gathered, and upon which as a Foundation (of which Christ the Word was the Corner-stone) succeeding Believers were to be built. And I challenge all the Disaffected Societies and Forms without Distinction, or these Universalists I am upon, to shew any other Manner of God's Appearing to Men in any Age, or that in the same Age, or by the Primitive or sirst Instruments of such Appearance, there was a Change of DispenDispensation, or a Justifiable Declension, from what they testified of and were the Instruments to gather and settle People in? So that (to conclude) Universal Love is a blessed Truth, but with the Degrees, Limitations and Distinctions that the Spirit of God sets and gives us, whose * Fruit it is, and unto which we shall do well to take heed, that we at all times Love truly and rightly, not too little nor too much, but consider the Object and Motive of our Love, and we cannot fail in that great Duty of Love to all.

This Treatise of Universal Love is followed by another, styled, An Episse of Love, published at the End of the same Tear; Writ and sent by our Author, as A friendly Advice to the Ambassadors of the Seberal Princes of Europe, met at Nemmegen to Consult of the Deace of Christendom; shewing the True Cause of war, and proposing the best Means of Peace: To each of whom also was given one of his apologies, which were all received with Respect.

This Epistle has Ediscation in it to our present Times.

The Original Cause of War is not hard to Assign; the Apostle James has told it us long ago: He asks and Answers the Question thus; & From whence come Wars and Fightings among you? Come they not hence, even from your Lusts, that War in your Members? It is, what every one feels in himself, that has not overcome those Lusts, or whose Consciences are not seared with an hot Iron; though it is also, what very few make their due Reflections upon; else we should hear of less Blood and Misery. But if Lust be the Ground of War, what is become of the Dostrine of Christianity among those supposed Christians? And what are they, that shew a Pleasure in the Accounts of of the bloodiest Battles? Can a Christian of Christ's making look upon the Blood of Men, or hear of it without Horror and Distress of Spirit? Less surely can they shed it, or encourage those, that have a Delight or Part in that Man-slaying Work. But how low and grossy are some Professed Christians fallen from the Nature of true Religion, and the Purity and Power of the * Faith, that was once delivered to the Saints, and through Sufferings by them to us, that hang their Religion and Gospel upon their Swords and Guns, and pin it upon an Arm of Flesh; as if the Gospel could be overcome of that which cannot Touch it.

But how, I pray, did the Primitive Christians maintain their Ground, yea, grew upon their Adversaries (poor, Naked Men, and not of the greatest Quality or Capacity) and finally Vanquish Cruelty itself, but by † Faith and Patience? Thus they converted Executioners, overcome Emperours and Armies, and, by a fuccessive Course of Meek and Suffering Integrity, turned the Edge of the Sword, quenched the Flames of Fire with their own Blood, not the Blood of their Enemies; and finally, this Holy Constancy translated them from the Theatre of Slaughter to the Palaces and Diadems of Princes. This brings to my Remembers 200 Princes. brace a Passage our Author has in this Book, to this Effect; "That there is nothing a Greater Tarnish and " Withering to the Protestant Cause, than the Profes-" fors of it betaking themselves, and that early, to earth-" ly Powers and Weapons to preserve and promote it; which are not the Weapons of the Apostolical Warfare, and Inconsistent with the Nature, Power and Glory of Christ's Kingdom. For the Preservation of the Protestant Religion stands in a Spirit of true Reformation as well in Life as Doctrine, as plainly decayed, if not lost; and it is to be feared for that Reason, that God will blow upon all other Ways of supporting it, especially such, as we thought a Fault in our Enemies in Worldly Arts and Force. If we would be Zealous to purpose for the Protestant Cause, let us look to God, and not Man; * Examine our selves, try our selves, fee what is wanting in us both to God and Man. Let us return Home, Light our own Candle, and sweep our own House, and we shall find the Silver we have lost; the Zeal, Power and Purity of Soul, that make our Worship acceptable, our Prayers prevalent, our Lives Blameless and an Ornament to Religion. This Faith, this Holiness, this Reformation is the Cause of God; and the rest is our own; tho we gild the Pill, slatter our selves, and deceive others. This Spirit of Reformation knows no Man, no People, no Church after the Flesh: This goes on over-turning, overturning all Will-worship, Man-made-Faiths, Humane Inventions and Traditions of Men about Religion, till he Reigns in the Soul, whose Right it is to Rule: It is an Holy & Leaven, O Reader, that leavens the whole Lump into its own Nature, and makes fallen, degenerate, earthly-minded Man, that receives it, a Partaker of the Divine Nature. This the earliest and purest Protestants aimed at, that had their Eye to an eternal Country, the City, whose Builder and Maker is God, Free of Humane Confiderations, and the Mixture of Worldly Interests and Advantages. And to evidence the Truth of what I say, Read the Accounts that the Faithfulest Writers of those Times have obliged us with, and you shall taste the same thing even among the Martyrs themselves, where the Country and Mechanical People, those of the least Account, out-do those of Title, Learning and Preferment among Church-men themselves, as to the Life and Purity of Reformation and Zeal, and Courage for it, as Occasion offered to show both.

Wherefore, O ye Protestants of all forts, Return, Return, * Return to your first Love and Works, before it be too late: Rend your Hearts and not your Garments, and turn to the Lord your God: You have but a little Time, and a great Account to give. Think not to be long safe from your Enemies without, while you entertain your greatest Enemy within in dispight of God, his Spirit and Scripture, and your own Pretensions to Reformation. While you have so many Sins on your Enemy's Side to fight against you, they will ever have Power to Vex you, if not to Destroy you. And if in some Evils your Enemies Exceed, yet in Moral Ones you are not a for behind them: And Remember, they have their Beads, but you have your Bibles in your Hands, when you Transgress. God Almighty make you sensible with † True and Godly Sorrow, a Repentance never to be Repented of; that you may Overcome your Enemies by your Faith, Prayers and Love, and by the Power of your Example Recommend your Religion, and lead them out of Error and Blindness. Don't charge them, and do worse; for verily, that will undo you in the End. O that God would rend the Heavens, and come down in Showers of Love, and Quench the Flames, that every-where devour his Creation! That it would please him to still the furious Winds, and calm the raging Seas, and remove that Enmity, which is the Ground of all; and bring the Nations under his own heavenly Government, ment, where there is no need to * Learn War against one another any more: that they that have erred in Spirit, may come to Understanding; and those that have murmured, may learn Doctrine, even the Doctrine of our Lord Jesus Christ, which is a Doctrine of Love, Meekness, Mercy, Forbearance; a Doctrine of Self-denial, Humility and Holiness; a Doctrine, that Reconciles us to God, and one to another: And no Man can have the Benefit of the sirst, that Hates his Brother, and less, that Kills him for the Love of this World.

O it is a crying Sin with God, a strong Judgment upon us, and a sure Token both of more and nearer Calamities, that we are so Hard-hearted and Unsensible of it! Nay it looks, as if we were not to be moved, unless God himself would appear in the Air, and send Fire down to Consume all before our Eyes, and our selves in the Conclusion of the Tragedy. Is not the Wrath of God (do we think) Revealed sufficiently against us in the Faction, Strife, War, Blood and Poverty, that we see almost all over Europe this Day? God Almighty make People sensible and weary of it, and the Cause of it, their Sins; Sins against Light, against Conscience and Knowledge; their Unsait fulness to God and Man; their Scandalous Immorality, and most Inordinate Love of the World, the Ground of all Contention and Mischief: That so the Peace of God, which passeth Worldly Mens Understanding, may fill all our Hearts through Repentance and Conversion!

I have been the longer in my Notes upon this Occasion, than I expected; but our present Condition in Europe drew it from me, that needs an Olive-branch, the Doctrine of Peace, as much as ever.

Our Author's next Treatise was published 1679. being a Uindication of his Notable Apology for the Christian Divinity profest by the People called Quakers; in Reply to the Exceptions made against it by one John Brown, in his Book called, Quakerism the Path-way to Paganism. In which Vindication the Reader will find the Truth sisted from all the on the Reader will find the Truth lifted from all the Durt and Rubbish, with which her Malitious or Ignorant Adversaries have endeavoured to fully her Beauty, and disfigure and bury her out of the Sight and Knowledge of the People: The Defence being, like the Apology, performed with much Labour and Exactness, and so fully and plainly, that it leaves (one would think) no room for Objection with the Serious and Moderate Inquirer. I do justly Esteem his Inquirer. I do justly Esteem his Inquirer. mical Works: Though I cannot but every-where prefer those Labours in him and others, that have least to do with Controvers, and whose main and immediate Scope is the Engaging of the Soul into the Love of Holiness, the End of True Religion; for it leads into the blessed Communion of the Father, and of the Son, and gives the Possession of those Comforts and Refreshments, that no Tongue can Express, nor Soul by any other means enjoy: * For without Holiness (it is determined) no Man shall see the Lord, that is, with Peace. Yet Controversy handled in the Fear of God, and in the Openings of his Light and Spirit, that is ever the Openings of his Light and Spirit, that is ever present and sufficient to the Help of his People in all their Services, has also its Edistication, especially, where an earnest and Tender Desire to Inform the Mistaken, prevails above private Interest, or any Party, or personal Consideration; for God will witness to such Labours, bours, and follow them with his Bleffing: With which, I befeech him, to Crown our Beloved Friend's Services in this and all other Respects, that tend to the Exaltation of his Glorious Truth.

The last Tract our Author left us, (and which is the Conclusion of this Volume and Preface) was writ and published 1676. and is Intituled, The Politislity and Accelsity of the Inward and Immediate Revelation of the Spirit of God towards the foundation and Ground of true faith, probed in a Letter wit in Latin to a Person of Quality in Holland; and now also put into English. The Person, to whom it was writ, was a Learned Man, especially in the New Philosophy; very Free and Friendly, but not Fool enough to Resign to this Dostrine as entirely, as he ought; yet, I believe, better Reconciled to it, before he Died.

As the Revelation of Sin, Righteousness and Judgment, of Mercy, and Consolation, what to Avoid, what to Repent of, what to Desire, what to Do, and where to wait for Power to Avoid and Do, as we are thereby directed, is the Revelation chiefly infifted upon by us; so those that come to Answer the Love and Mercy of God in the first part of this Revelation, viz. the Sight of Sin, shall know the Aboundings of it from Day to Day; and from the Evidence and Authority of their own Experience shall be enabled, nay constrained to pronounce this Testimony of the Revelation maintained by the People called Quakers, 'Tis true and according to Scripture. I might Advance divers Arguments from the Nature of God and the Soul of Man, and from what may be, as well as what has been, the Truth of this Revelation; but that being done by our Author in this small Treatise in an Abstract

Abstract and proper Manner, I chose rather to speak Spiritually and Experimentally: And whoever is Lowly and poor enough in Spirit to Try the Truth of what I say, Shall comprehend with all Saints the Height, and Depth, and Length, and Breadth of the Love of God in Christ, to the Souls of Men by the Revelation of that true Light, and Spirit and Grace I have Testissed of in this Preface; and which the Wijest of the Men of this World can at best have but a Shadow and Idea of. Remember, Life is more than Food, and the Body, than Raiment; so is Bread better than Husks, Substance than Shadow, Realities than Imaginations of them; which is the best of their Case, that come not through the Obedience of the Truth and Discipline of Christ's Cross to enjoy them.

Reader, It is a most Important Point of the first Consideration to Men, without it no Knowledge of God, nor of Christ, that * Reveals God; and without that Knowledge no Salvation for the Souls of Men. So that this Volume ends with that, which all Men must begin with, if they will ever truly know God, and posses Eternal Life, viz. Revelation: Now some will say, Revelation, why, we have it: Have we not the Scriptures? Do you pretend to another Revelation? No, not another Truth, than is therein Mentioned. But this, Reader, will not do; I must ask Questions too: What is Revealed to thee by them? Thou readest of God, of Christ, of his Spirit, and hast framed an Image or Idea of them in thy Mind, But is that Revelation? Revelation in Religion is Knowledge, Experience, thy own Sight and Sense, that of which thou art a true Witness. Mind me, I beseech thee: Regeneration is the great Work of Religion; yea, Religion, true Christian Religion is Regeneration, as I before hinted, for it is the very End of Christ's Coming; we cannot be faved without it: Nay, it is called that very Salvation. Hear the Apostle: * But after the Kindness and Love of God our Saviour appeared, not by Works of Righteousness, which we have done, but according to his Mercy he Saved us by the Washing of Regeneratoin, and Renewing of the Holy Choft. which he fied us abundantly through Jefus Christ our Saviour. Now fo far is God Revealed to thee, and art thou truly Religious, as thou art Born again, Washed and Renewed by the Regenerating Spirit of God, and no further. If the Scripture were all the Revelation needful, the wicked Jews must have known it, as well as the Believing Jews; because they could read them, and had as good or better Natural Capacities to take the Grammatical and Literal Sense, of what they deliyer: But they were so far from understanding Christ and his Doctrine, though he did Wonders, and spake as we Read, among them, that Christ both tells us, they were blind; and Solemnly + thanks his Father, that he had hid those Secrets from the Wise and Prudent (of that Day) and Rebealed them unto Babes. And to this Christ himself beareth Testimony, when he faith, That & No Man knoweth the Father, but the Son, and he to whom the Son Rebealeth him: And as the Son Reveals the Father, fo the Father must bear Witness, Reveal and Draw to the Son, or Men cannot come to him, that Opens and Reveals the Father. Thus in that notable Saying of Christ to Peter, when asking him, But who fayest thou that I am? And he An-swering, Thou art Christ, the Son of the Living God; he replyed upon him: * Bleffed art thou Simon Bar-Jona, Flesh and Blood hath not Revealed this unto thee, but my Father, which is Heaven. So that tho' Peter both heard and saw abundance, of what Christ said and did, it was needful to fuch a Confession, that God should give a further Revelation of his Son. And if Peter wanted (under all the Advantages he had above us) this Revelation, Can we hope to know him without it? O no, Reader! As he knew him, thou must know him. For + none cometh to the Son, but whom the Father draweth; O mind these Drawings in thy own Soul! And how does the Father draw? Few (Alas!) trouble themselves to Weigh these Matters; and yet they must be Christians for all that. But what say the Schools, the Criticks, and Learned upon these things? Why, they search their Books, study and beat their Brains, and imagine the Meaning. Some say, it is by the Scripture; but that won't do, for that says no such thing: On the contrary, that the Father Reveals the Son, and draws to him, and the Son Reveals the Father; and not the Scripture, that tells us so, which is neither the Father nor the Son. Nor indeed, is it comprehensible, how the Father should Reveal the Son by Scripture, and the Son the Father; for fo the Scripture would Reveal both, which is the Reciprocal Work of the Father and Son. And were it fo, Caiphas would have known Christ, as well as Peter; and the Wicked would know both the Father and the Son, as well as the Good, because the Scriptures are as much in their Power: Which is Abfurd and Impossible. But others more Refined say; It is by the Spirit, opening the Scripture: As indeed the first Reformers, and all those that have been pushing on a further Reformation, ever fince have spoken; and have sounded their Belief of the Divine Authority of the Scriptures upon the Testimony and Revelation of the Spirit in them: These come near. But then what is this Spirit? How dost thou know it, its Manifestations, Revelations and Operations? And by what Tokens is it to be Known and Discerned? This is a Question not to be Answered, but by an experienced Man; for the Spirit of God Reveals not the deep things of God to the carnal and disobedient Man. Many are the Degrees, Steps and Lessons of this Holy Spirit of God in and to Man, as Man receives it, and obeys it, and daily inclines to Learn the Lesson it teaches. I may tell thee, Reader, and I am not far from the Matter, that this great Work is (as Mechanicks and Chymists speak) a Manual Operation, a spiritual Labour and Travel. * Work out your own Salvation, faith the Apostle, with Fear and Trembling; By whom? By him, by whom all things were made of old, and that maketh all things new, even Christ the Word, in whom is Life, and that Life is the Light of Men.

^{*} Tit. 3. 4, 5, 6. + Matth. 11. 25. § Luke 10. 22. Joh. 5. 37.

It is this Sort of Revelation we contend for, not that of particular Persons or things, past or to come, which refer not immediately to the Knowledge and Work of God in Man; by which God makes himself savingly known to Men. That Private or Particular Sort of Revelation is however called a Revelation also; as the Visions of the Prophets, Peter's Sense of the Hypocrify of Ananias and Sapphira, and Agabus's Foresight by the Holy Ghost of Paul's Sufferings at Jerusalem: This Sort of Extraordinary Knowledge is truly called Revelation. But this is not the Revelation we infift upon; though neither is this ceafed. Nor yet is it those Doctrines, as of the Incarnation of the Son of God, his Death, Resurrection and Ascension, &c. confirmed and Enforced upon the Belief of Men by the Authority of Miracles, which is also another Sort of Revelation; which being once done, need not to be Repeated, and of which the Wicked are as much Possessions, as the Good; the Matter of Fast I mean, of the visible Transaction of the Son of God, being Recorded in the Scriptures of Truth, which they alfo have in their Hands. But the Inward Sight, Sense and Knowledge of the Will of God by the Operation of his Light and Spirit shining and working in our Hearts, and the Spiritual Sense of that blessed Appearance of the Son of God in the Flesh, and the Moral End of it to our Benefit and Advantage, is no more conceivable by carnal Men, than is Regeneration, without which * no Man can enter into the Kingdom of God. Christ tells us, there is such a thing, and the two Principles of it, Water and Spirit; but he do's not tell us, what they are? how to be Obtained? what way they operate? or we are to Apply them, or our felves to them for that New Birth? No: this is referved a Secret to be unfolded to the Children of Obedience.

O Reader! & Great is the Mystery of Godlines! And if the Apostle said it of the Manifestation of the Son of God in the Flesh, if that be a Mystery (and if a Mystery, it is not to be spelt out, but by the Revelation of the Spirit) How much more is the Work of Regeneration a Mystery, that is wholly Inward and spiritual in its Operation? Who is sufficient for these Things? What Doctor? What Philosopher? What fort of Divine? Surely

Surely none, but one of God's making alone, that has past through the Degrees of Regeneration, which is the experimental, operative Revelation of the Spirit of God in Man. And this Revelation is a Fruit of his Omnipresence: He is ever * Present, his Eye beholds the Evil and the Good; but in a particular manner is over them that fear him, and trust in his Mercy. Yea, his Eyes are upon the Righteous, he searches the Heart, and tries the Reins, and sets Man's Thoughts in Order before him. This David knew, when he cried out, Whither shall I go from thy Spirit? Or whither shall I flee from thy Presence? And why? But because he is prefent as a Reprover, an Helper, a Comforter and Saviour: Which also made the same Royal Penitent and Prophet in his Fifty First Psalm pray & Cast me not away from thy Presence, and take not thy Holy Spirit from me. This also made him a Preacher to others: For if God would but hear his Prayer, and Restore to him the Joy of his Salvation, and uphold him by his free Spi-rit, he would teach Transgressors his Ways, and Sinners should be converted unto God: Which comes up to all I have said upon this Head, that the Way to be a Child of God, and Minister of his Truth, is the Inward Experience of the Revelation of the Spirit and Power of God in the Soul, without which David could not open his Mouth for God. He else-where tells us, hew Near God is to his People: The Meek will he Guide: The Secrets of the Lord are with them that Fear him: || The Lord is night unto them that are of a broken Heart; and saveth such, as are of a contrite Spirit. He calls them to taste and see, how good the Lord is to them that fear him: This was Revelation with a Witness:

^{*} Prov. 15. 3. Pfal. 33. 18. 1 Chr. 28. 9. Pfal. 7. 9. 139. 1, 9. Prov. 17. 10. Ch. 20. 12. Pfal. 139. 7. § Pfal. 51; 11, 12, 13. | Pf. 25. 9, 14. Pf. 34. 9, 18. Pf. 34. 8. Pf. 27. 10, 11.

Witness; no less than Two of the Spiritual Senses of the Soul at once. And though Father and Mother forsake him. God would take him up; whom he prayed to Teach him and Lead him in a plain Path: And in the Sense of God's Inward Goodness to his Soul, in this Way of Revelation and Omnipresency, he Triumphs thus: *Tea, though I walk through the Valley of the Shadow of Death, I will fear no Evil; for thou art with me, thy Rod and thy Staff they comfort me. Indeed, his whole Book of Psalms is a continued Evidence of that Revelation we plead for, and he cried, he waited for and he Enjoyed; who grew so well Acquainted with the Presence of God, that he could tell us, that in his & Presence was Life, and at his right Hand were Pleasures for ever.

Nor is this to be wondered at by the Professors of Christianity, since it is the Covenant God made of Old: To which the Prophet Jeremiah gives Testimony, † That he would put his Law in their Inward Parts, and write it in their Hearts, and he would be their God, and they should be his People—and know him from the least to the greatest. To which the Apostle refers in his Epistle to the Hebrews, as sulfilled in the Christian Dispensation then on foot: So Joel of the pouring out of the Spirit upon all Fesh, applied by Peter on the Day of Pentecost. And Paul to the Corinthians goes yet surther, and tells them, That God (in these latter Days) will dwell in them, and walk in them; and therefore Commands them not to touch the Unclean Thing. Now, if all this can be without Revelation, Inspiration, Divine Vision and Sensation in the Soul, we may Conclude, we do not hear, see, feel, taste faste and smell, what we do hear, see, feel, taste and smell every Day. I forbear many Scriptures, as, I in them, and they in me: He that is with you, shall be in you: I am with you to the End of the World; and that notable Saying of the Apostle; *When it pleased God to Reveal his Son in me, I consulted not with Flesh and Blood: He grounds his Call, Conversion and Ministry upon it; and can we hope now for a true and saving Knowledge or Ministry without it? By no means.

But our Author in this, as much as in any of his Tracts, acts the Scholar, and has not chosen this Way of Arguing; having to do with a Learned Man, that he Esteemed, and would be Entertained in a more Abstract Way of Arguing: Which made me the freer to express my felf, in this Manner, for their Sakes, that easily submit their Arguments to Scripture Authority, and that hunger and thirst after an inward En-joyment of that of which so many glorious things are said by the holy Men of God in Scripture; that they may be freed of Objections, and favour the clear and divine Truth of this Doctrine: That they may know, the Wells are opened now, as well as formerly. And that & Rivers of living Water flow out of the Bellies of true Believers now as well as then; which Christ spake of, meaning the Spirit, that should flow in and out of those that believed in him. And Reader, if thou wilt be a Witness hereof, & despise not the Day of small things; Embrace the Talent that is given thee, follow the Reproofs and Teachings of it, Wait upon it for Power to enable thee to overcome, what it Condemns: And if thou wilt Abstract thy self from the World, and the distracting Impressions and Idea's of it, into a true

Silence or Inactivity, and Quietness of Mind, believe me, thou wilt find the Heavenly Potter will mould and Form his Clay, and work in thee mightily to will and to do: For before Life is Death, and before an Active a Passive Life. Remember these things; and Almighty God give thee an experimental Understanding of them to his Glory, and thy Comfort here and for ever!

Thus Reader, am I come to the End of this Preface, and thou to the Beginning of this Author's Volume: Read with Confideration; be not hafty to Judge, what at first may not please thee; but be ready to Practise what thou likest: That Knowledge through Obedience may Increase, and GOD, the great Author of all Good, through his poor Instruments may have his Glory; who is Worthy for ever! Amen.

A Ccording to that True and Sincere Love in the Lord, which we had to our dear Brother, Robert Barclay, and Christian Respect, which lives in us to his Blessed Memory, and our Real Esteem and Value of his Faithful Tessimony, great Industry and Labour of Love for Promoting the Ever-living Truth, as it is in Christ, in his Day and Time;

We, whose Names are under-written, do sincerely Own, and have Satisfaction and Unity in Truth with this fore-going Preface and Relation, in the Behalf of him the said Robert Barclay, and his great and Memorable Service, Labours and Travels in the Gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ: To whom be the Glory and Dominion for ever!

GEORGE.

GEORGE FOX his Testimony concerning Robert Barclay.

Testimony concerning our Dear Brother in the Lord, Robert Barclay, who was a Wife and Faith-I ful Minister of Christ, and Writ many Precious Books in the Defence of the Truth in English and Latine; and after Translated into French and Dutch. He was a Scholar, and a Man of Great Parts; and underwent many Calumnies, Slanders and Reproaches, and Sufferings for the Name of Christ: But the Lord gave him Power over them all. He Travelled often up and down Scotland, and in England, and in Holland and Germany, and did good Service for the Lord; and was a Man of Repute among Men, and Preach'd the Everlasting Gospel of Christ Freely, turning People from Darkness to Light, and from the Power of Satan to God. And his Father was a Noble Man for the Lord and his Truth, and died in the Lord: And after, when his Son Robert had fulfilled his Ministry, and fi-nished his Testimony, he also died in the Lord, and is Bleffed, and at Reft, and Ceased from his Labours, and his Works follow him. Much more might be Written concerning this Faithful Brother in the Lord, and Pillar in the Church of Christ; who was a Man I very much loved for his Labour in the Truth; But I shall leave the Rest to his Country-Men. And the Lord Raise up more Faithful Labourers in Christ Jesus to stand in his Place; and preserve his Tender Wife and Children in the Truth. Amen!

A Testi-

ATestimony to the Memory of Robert Barclay: by his Faithful Friend William Penn.

Surprising was the News of the Death of Dear Robert Barclay to me particularly, from the Share I claim. ed in him, and the Esteem I had for him: But that which gave Weight to my Sorrow, was the Loss, that thereby comes to the Church of God; and especially in Scotland. For his Many and Excellent Gifts by Nature, Acquisition and Grace, his Zeal and Integrity, his Labour and Love so effectually shewn in the time he lived, both in his Ministry, Writings and other Services, and that he lived no longer, who was so well fitted to hive for the Service and Honour of the Truth, and the good of God's People, must render his Death more Afflicting to all those that defire to be rockoned of that Number. It was a Complaint of Old, that the Righteous were taken away, and none layed it to heart: I pray God, that the Taking away of this Accomplished Minister of Christ in the Prime of his Age, with other Precious and Honourable Brethren of late, may be laid close to heart by the Friends of God, especially where his and their Service lay, and he and they have been most Conversant.

The Overcasting of so many bright Stars almost together, and of the First Magnitude in our Horizon, from our Bodily View, is not the least Symptom or Token to me of an Approaching Storm, and perhaps so dreadful, that we may have fresh Cause to think them Happy, that are delivered from the Evils and Miscries, that may ensue. But this also calls every one home to his own Dwelling and Tent, to find and feel him that Repairs all Loss, and Supplies all Wants, and is All to a Faithful People.

This Worthy Young Man of God, whose Character I write, Concerning Robert Barclay.

(as well for their Example and Encouragement, that have, or hereafter may receive the Eternal Truth, in which he lived and died, and lives for ever, as for a Testimony to the Power and Goodness of God in raising him up to his Church, and to his lasting Memorial in the Churches of Christ, which is blessed for ever) was the Son of Collonel David Barclay, descended of the Barclays of Ma. thers in the Kingdom of Scotland, an Ancient and Honou-rable Family among Men, and of Catharine Gourdon, from the Gourdons of the House of the Duke of Gourdon. He was born at Edinburgh in the Year 1648. Educated in France; had the Advantage of that Tongue, as well as the Latine. He returned to Scotland about 1664, being Sixteen Years of Age, where, by the Example and Infruction of his Honest and Worthy Father, that in his Abscence had Received the Everlasting Truth, and his Converse with other Servants of God, he came to See and Tafte an Excellency in it; and was Convinced about the Year 1667. and Publickly owned the Testimony of the True Light, enlightning every Man: And came Early forth a Zealous and Fervent Witness for it; enduring the Cross, and despising the Shame, that attended his Discipleship: And received the Gist of the Ministry, as his greatest Honour; in which he laboured to bring others to God, and his Labour was not in vain in the Lord. He was much exercised in Controversy, from the many Contradictions, that fell upon the Truth, and upon him for its fake in his own Country chiefly; in which he ever acquitted himself with Honour to the Truth; particularly by his Apology for the Christian Divinity Professed by the People called Quakers, which contains a Collection of our Principles, our Enemies Obections, and our Answers, Augmented and Illustrated closely and amply with many Authorities for Confirmation. Also his Book of Church-Government, distinguishing between Tyranny and Anarchy, Imposition and Lawlesness; occa-fioned by the Scruples of some, and Partialities of others, that had a Tendency to a Division among us: They are standing Books of sound Judgment, and good Service to the Truth and Church of God. Nor must his Scripture-Catechism be forgotten, in that it opens the Mind of Truth upon Points of Doctrine in the Words of the Holy Ghost? excluding all Humane Glosses or Interpretation; which is an easie, safe and peaceable Method, the Tendency of it being to Silence and Commend the Curiosity of Man to the Text, which all own; and there leave Controversy, as the best Method to Unity and Peace, next that of the Spirit it self. And indeed, it was exactly suitable to his own Disposition, that preferred Truth before Victory, and Peace and Unity before Niceties, and a good Life before Worldly Learning.

We sometimes Travelled together both in this Kingdom, and in Holland, and some parts of Germany, and were Inward in divers Services from first to last: And the Apprehension and Sense I had of him, was this, He loved the Truth and Way of God, as Revealed among us, above all the World, and was not ashamed of it before Men; but Bold and Able in Maintaining it: Sound in Judgment, Strong in Argument, Chearful in Travails and Sufferings! of a pleasant Disposition, yet Solid, Plain and Exemplary in his Conversation. He was a Learned Man, a good Christian, an Able Minister, a Dutiful Son, a Loving Husband, a Tender and Careful Father, an Easte Master, and a good and kind Neighbour and Friend These Eminent Qualities in one, that had Imployed them so serviceably, and shat had not lived much above half the Life of a Man (having outlived his Father but four Tears, and died at least Thirty Tears short of his Age) aggravates the Loss of him, especially in that Nation, where he lived.

O Friends, if Precious in the Eyes of the Lord be the Death of his Saints, ought not their Labours and Death to be Precious to the Lord's People? Therefore I exhort those, that have survived this and other Worthy and Honourable Brethren, to take Care, that their Minds are not over-charged, and that they do not suffer their first Love on any score to Cool to those, that Travail and Labour in the Word and Destrine for their good: But that through their Faithfulness they may come to partake of like Precious Ministry, as well as of like Precious Faith; that so the great Harvest, that is at the Door, may be supplied with Able and Diligent Labourers. But more especially you of the Scotch Nation, and most of all you, his Near, Tender and Affectionate Relations, Wait to feel your Loss made up in and by him, that giveth Liberally, and upbraideth not; who is the best Teacher, Husband, Father and Master, who Repairs our Losses with Advantage: For in him we Lose nothing, that we Lose, because we have it again with Advantage even in this Life, and Fellowship, that out-lives time, and endures and abides for ever! In which the Lord preserve usuall to the end of our Race, that we may run it with Stedsastness, and finish it with Everlasting Joy.

Patrick Livingstone his Testimony concerning Robert Barclay.

Here is something, that rests upon my Spirit, to say concerning my Dearly Beloved Friend and Kinsman, Robert Barclay: Who was not only my Kinsman after the Flesh, but of a nearer and dearer Kindred, and Relation of a more Noble Seed and Offspring, which is not Corruptible, but Incorruptible; and my Dear Fellow-Labourer in the Service of the Gospel, as also my Fellow-Sufferer for the Truth in Aberdeen Prison.

And I have more in my Heart concerning him, than I can Express; nor do I find it meet to say all I can truly Testify of him.

For I had some small Knowledge of him, before he came to Profess the Truth; and ever since he came forth amongst us, I have had many Opportunities to be Refreshed with him in his Dostrine, after he came to have a Publick Testimony amongst us; and also in his Converfation both before and fince.

Seberal Testimonies

He was all-along a Man for Peace, and an Enemy to Strife and Diffention; but was a Peace-maker: I never knew him at any time to be in Passion or Anger.

He was a Man of a sweet, pleasant and chearful Temper, and above many for Evenness of Spirit: A Man of deep Reach in his Judgment and Understanding of Heavenly things, and also of the things that concerned him to know of this Life amongst Men.

He was Quick and Ready in his Understanding of Matters of Difference or Controversy; and had a notable Way of Deciding and Composing of them.

He was a Man of a Publick Spirit, and laboured for the Publick Good of all; but especially of those he was in Fellowship with.

Both as to the Inward and Outward he was a blamelefs Man in his Conversation; and he was both Solid, Sound and Comprehensive, in his Writings.

As for his Dollrine, he was Plain and Clear to the meanest Capacity; Discreet and Obliging therein.

And he was a Man generally Beloved of all, both of great and small; unless it were those that hated him for the Truth's sake, and his Vindicating of it both in Word and Writing against those that Opposed it; as his Writings will plainly demonstrate to all Impartial Readers of them.

And, Courteous Reader, I being now fatisfied with many more, that he is at his Rest with the Lord, and Reaps the Reward of his Trials, Travails and Sufferings for the Truth's fake both inwardly and outwardly, and now is out of the Reach, of what Envy and Malice can do against him; his Writings are Recommended to thy Serious and

Impartial Perusal, wherein thou may'st see more of him, than at present I can say: And so I remain

A Lover of Truth and Righteousness,

The Testimony of Andrew Jastray concerning Robert Barclay.

His Testimony I have in my Heart to give forth concerning my Dear Brother, who was one of the Lord's Worthies, and hath obtained the Crown of Victory over all the Rage of the Enemy and his Instruments, who still feek to make War with the Remnant of the Woman's Seed, who keep the Commandments of God: But they and their Rage and Enmity is Limited. bleffed be the Lord our God for ever! And the Hairs of the Heads of the Faithful are numbred, and the Angels of God pitch their Tents about them, that fear him in all their Troubles, and amidst all the Rage and Slanderous Tongues of this World, that are fet on Fire : As this Faithful and Worthy Servant of the Lord and his Everlasting Truth was a Living Witness of God's Faithfulness and Power in his Preservation; who being Dead (as to the Body) yet speaketh, and liveth, and walketh with him for ever, in whom his Delight and Joy was while in the Body, beyond all the Honours, Vain Pleasures and Enjoyments from below.

And though the Lord had Endued him with many large Gifts and Abilities, even as a Man beyond many (as was wellknown) fo as to be able to Converse with the Greatest; yet known it is to many of the Upright, that his chief Desire and Delight was to lay out all these Parts and Qualifications for doing good unto all, but especially to the Houshold of Faith: As the many great Services for Truth and Deliverances of Suffering Friends, which the Lord made him an Instrument of, both in his own Native Country, and in other Nations, can bear Witness. So that I may truly say, in all his great Endowments it was his Delight to make them serviceable to the true Israel of God; and his Sweet Savour and Memorial shall live (in many of their Hearts, and among all Sober, Discreet and Moderate People, who knew him) to Generations to come. And I am very bold to say, his Death could not but be matter of Exercise and Sorrow to all.

He was a Man, that laid out himself in the Ability of the large Understanding, given him to set forth the Beauty and Infallibility of the Grounds and Excellent Principles of Truth, and to open and prove the same over all Opposition of Gainsayers, to the reaching of the Understanding of many of the Great and Learned of the World, both at home and abroad, and to the begetting a better Opinion and Judgment concerning both the Principles and Practices of God's People (called in Derision Quakers) than had been held forth by the Crast and Malice of the Priests and others to be in the beginning, as Fools, Madmen, &c. and holding non-sensical and unreasonable, as well as Unscriptural Whimsies, and so forth. But God, who is Light, is wiping away the Reproaches and Slanders off his Blessed Truth and People, and will more and more exalt the Standard and Ensign thereof to gather the Nations unto it out of their Cruelties, Lusts and Roarings against one another, and of the overslowing of all Abominations among them, to the great provoking of God's Wrath.

Reformation from all which will never be known, nor Deliverance from the Bondage and Miseries thereby occa-fioned, by all the Might, Power and Fightings of the Carnal Sword, nor Politick Devices of Men; but only by the bleffed Power, Spirit and Grace of God, which hath appeared to all, to that very end to teach to deny Ungod-liness and Worldly Lusts, and to live Soberly, Righteously and Godly in this present World, if Men would turn to believe in and obey it. Which is our Testimony and Holy Principle we direct all unto; and which this Blessed Servant of the Church laid out himself in his many Excellent Writings (especially his Apology) to promulgate through the World with blessed Success not only in Printing, but in Travelling, having gone through a great part of Germany, Holland and other Countries in the Service of the Truth: And the Lord blessed him every way therein.

He was an Exemplary Husband, Parent and Master in his Family; so that the Beauty, good Order, Holiness, Gravity and Lowliness of the Truth shined therein, I can fay, to my Refreshment and many others, as in a Quiet Habitation.

He was a Man of great Meekness, Sweetness and Lowliness of Spirit, and of such a bearing, contented Mind, that though a Man of such Parts, and great Authority over Evil in his Servants and others, yet kept in such a Dominion over any thing, that would have disordered his own Spirit, that I can truly say, I never saw him in any peevish, angry, brittle or disordered Temper, since ever I knew him; though I had as much Intimacy and Frequency of Concerns with him as most here away.

He was so far from being listed up or Exalted by the great Gists he had received from his Maker, both in the Truth, and as a Man, that I can say, I have often desired to grow in the plain, down-right, humble and lowly Spirit, wherein he became as weak with the weakest, and poor with the poorest, and low with the lowest; as well as he could be deep with them that were deep: So that in a good Measure he had learned to become all things to all Men, with a true and upright Endeavour to Gain some.

I can fay, I have parted with a Most-Entire Friend and Counsellor: But Glory to him who lives for ever! Through great Mercy I know him, who is the Fountain of all Wisdom, Righteosness, Love and Pity; who I trust will make up this great Loss not only to me, but to his bleffed People and Church, especially in this his Native Country of Scotland, in and to which he had made him an Ornament, and as a Star and Shining Light. And Oh! that he may make me, and all whom he hath Convinced of his pretious Truth in our Native Country, whether living therein, or abroad, to Shine forth in the Glory, Beauty and Virtue thereof, and as the first Fruits thereof, and Witnesses of the great Glory, that shall livingly arise therein; though perhaps ushered in by great Tribulations, when our God shall wipe away the Reproaches thereof, and change its Name from Barren or Forfaken : Because our God hath a true, though a small Seed therein, in which he delighteth, and is Married thereunto; and many shall be the Children of the Lamb's Marriage therein, in due time, when the Leaven of the Pharifees is purged out, and the Bastard-Births of the Adulteresses and Whoredoms of a false Profession therein comes to be seen, and turned from.

As concerning this, our Dear Friend R. B. The Lord foon began his Work with him, shortly after he was brought home from France, wherein, in his Toung and Tender Years, he was brought up at Paris under his Uncle : And though at his Return thence but about fixteen Tears. yet it having pleased the Lord to bring his Dear and Worthy Father into his most pretious Truth, he having thereby occasion to be in the Meetings of God's Chosen People, who worship him in his own Name, Spirit and Power (and not in the Words of Man's Wisdom and Preparation) he was by the Virtue and Efficacious Life of this Bleffed Power shortly after reached, and that in the Time of Silence (a Mystery to the World;) and came so fast to grow therein through his great Love and Watchfulness to the Inward Appearance thereof, that not long after he was called out to the Publick Ministry, and declaring abroad what his Eyes had feen, and his Hands had bandled of this pure Word of Life. Yea, the Lord who loved him, counted him worthy fo Early to Call him to fome fome weighty and hard Services for his Truth in our Nations that a little after his coming out of the Age of Minority (as it is called) he was made willing in the Day of God's Power to give up his Body as a Sign and Wonder to this Generation, and to deny himself and all in him as a Man, so far as to become a Fool tor his sake, whom he loved, in going in Obedience to his Will in Sack cluth and Albes through Three of the Chief Streets of the City of Aberdeen: As his Testimony printed concerning it holds forth his Service therein; besides some weighty Services at several Steeple houses, and Sufferings in Prison for the Truth's Sake of the Enemy to the contrary.

What shall I say more concerning this Servant of the Lord, but that, Blessed are the Dead, that die in the Lord! Tea, saith the Spirit, from henceforth they rest from their Labours, and their Works follow them. He laid down the Body in the Holy and Honourable Truth, wherein he had served it about Twenty Three Tears, upon the Third Day of the Eighth Month 1690, near the Forty Second Tear of his Age, at his own House of Urie in Scotland; and it was laid in his own Burial-Ground there, upon the fixth Day of the same Month before many Friends and other People.

King's-wells the Ninth of the Eighth Month.

An Epitaph upon that Faithful Servant of the Lord, ROBERT BARCLAY of Ury.

There be too Few that take a true delight
On Virtuous Subjects a few Lines to Write;
In this degenerate Age most Poets use
On Scurril Numbers to Extend their Muse:
On Gilded Nothings they their Funcies strain,
Such as patch'd Plays, like to unhinge their Brain;
And think by this their Hearers to Excite,
To satiate their Carnal Appetite:
As if to Forge and Lie were not a Crime;
They thus exhaust their Talent, and their Time.
To shun this Scylla, and my self Acquit Unto his Friends, I offer this small Mite.
I do Consess, my Mind I cannot Raise

I do Confess, my Mind I cannot Raise
To give the Defunct his deserved Praise:
Him to Commend I need not Call the Arts,
He was Endu'd with Piety and Parts.
His Memory, I'm sure, is dear to all,
Who love the Truth, and wishes Babel's Fall;
Whilst here on Earth he did not Faint, nor Tire
To Preach Christ's Will without a Farthing Hire.
Though Crosses, Losses, and Imprisonment Stood in his Way, he holdly o'er them went.

His Soaring Soul by Grace and Education
His Elevated Virtue shin'd so Clear,
It did procure him Love from Prince and I eer.
He had from Heav'n his Mission and Vocation,
Which faithfully he shew'd to every Nation:
Where-e'er he Travel'd, or made some Abode,
He preach'd Repentance, and the Fear of God.
He as God's Instrument did often bring
The parched Souls to taste the living Spring;
These did stand up for Truth with Heart and Mind,
Who formerly were Bond-Slaves, and were blind:
God's Strength in him and Efficacious Power
Did at his Doctrine make the Devils lowre.

And is the Searcher of the inner Parts,

Lest that our Roving Minds should gad abroad,

And fix on something else besides our God,

Did Call him hence, secure from Carnal Fears

He Reaps with Joy, what he did Sow in Tears.

Now since all Flesh must nakedly Appear

At God's Tribunal, there their 'Counts to clear,

And since that we are Living Lumps of Clay,

Which the Great Potter can to Ashes bray,

Learn, Readers all, before your Glass be Run,

To deck your Souls, e're they to Judgment come.

THE

READER,

POR thy better understanding the Matters handled in this Treatise, I thought sit to premise somewhat by way of Preface; and indeed the Nature of the thing calleth for it, that thou mayst receive a true Information concerning the People here pleaded for, and so generally opposed; but more particularly in the City of Aberdeen, that thou mayst understand, how the Case stands betwixt them, and their Adversaries in it.

Know then, That after the Lord had raised up the Witnesses of this Day, and had opened in them, and unto them the Light and Glory thereof, divers of them at fundry Times were moved of the Lord to come into these Parts, and unto the Town of Aberdeen, in Love to the Seed, which there was to be gathered; but their Acceptance for divers Tears together, was very unsutable.

For the Enemy that had wrought, and was exalted in the Mystery of Iniquity, to darken the Appearance of this Day, had prepared and stirred up his Ministers, to resist them and their Testimony, by aspersing them with many gross Calumnies, Lies A 2 and Reproaches, as demented, diffracted, bodily possessed of the Devil, practifing Abominations under Colour of being led to them by the Spirit; and as to their Principles, Blasphemous Deniers of the true Christ, of Heaven, Hell, Angels, the Refurrection of the Body and Day of Judgment, Inconsistent with Magistracy, nothing better than John of Leyden and his Complices. This was the vulgar and familiar Language of the Pulpits, which was for a time received for unquestionable Truth; till about the Year 1663, some sober and ferious Professors, in and about the said Town, did begin to weigh thefe things more narrowly, and find the Savour of that Life in the Testimony of that So much reproached People, which some Years before had stirred in others, who were now come to a great Loss and Decay; and this gave them Occasion to examine the Principles and Ways of that People more exactly, which proving upon Inquiry, to be far otherways than they had been represented, gave them a further Occasion to see the Integrity and Soundness of that despised People, and of their Principles, on the one Hand; and on the other, to lee the prejudic'd Difingenuity and Enmity of their Accusers. In these the Lord caused his Word to prosper, (who were few in Number, yet noted as to their Sobriety in their former Way of Profession) and raised them up to own that People and their Testimony, and to become One with them. Now their Adversaries finding nothing in these, whom the Lord had raised up in these Parts, whereof to accuse them, as to their Conversation, these Calumnies must be cast upon Strangers, living some Hundred Miles distant, where these Untruths cannot be so casily disproved; but as to these at Home, the Tune must be turned. Therefore George Mildrum, who bath more particularly espoused the Quarrel against Truth and its Followers, than any of his Brethren, begins to fay, That it is no Wonder der to see Quakers forbear gross Out-breakings. for that Hereticks have formerly come as great a Length (but surely, Abstinence from gross Outbreakings, and a clean outward Conversation, is no good Argument against the Quakers) so now the Clamour is, Though they have been Professors, and that noted Ones too, and though they be beneft in their Conversation, yet they are deluded and deceived, and are Deceivers. And thus as of Old, the Truth and the Witnesses of it have always be enreproached by those of the Pharisaical Spirit; fo now: For sometimes they said, Christ had a Devil, sometimes the Apostles are drunk, and other times mad. Since these things have thus occurred, there hath been no little Industry used, to suppress this People by Threatnings and Persecution (on which Account divers of our Friends have been cast into Prison, and some detained long in, of the said Town) and also by Preaching and Writing, of which for thy Information receive this Account.

There were Thirty Queries fent by the Bishop of Aberdeen (so called) to Alexander Jaffray: Also about the same time, a Paper of three or four Sheets subscribed by G. M. Intituled, The State of the Controversy betwixt the Protestants and the Quakers. The Thirty Queries were not long ofter answered by G. K. in respect to A. J. his Sickness at that time, and returned to him from A. J. And Some time afterwards, George Mildrum his Paper, called, The State of the Controversy, &c. was answered by G. K. to which Papers of G. K. Somewhat was premised by A. J. which Papers being several times called for (but particularly in a Letter from G. M. his own Hand to A. J. wherein be intreats for an Answer, that be might know, as he said, in what things we did differ, or in what things we only seemed to differ) were sent to him within Nine Months after the Receipt of G. M. A 3 his his Papers. Before all which a Sermon on purpose was preached by G.M. against the Quakers in the Ninth Month 1666. wherein the Sum of both his Papers was afferted, only that it was digested in a Pulpitway, and introduced with an infinuating Discourse of his pretended Kindness for the Persons of some Quakers, and his Unwillingness to meddle with them, were it not his Office, and Zeal for the Truth did engage him to it; but if it had been so indeed, be would have faid no more of them than the Truth: whereas it is stuffed with Lies, which are positively afferted to be the Quakers Principles, by this pretended Preacher of the Gospel from his Chair of Verity (fo called) or rather of Falshood: Whereas yet G. M. his Papers aforementioned, were not so much as sent, far less answered, by which, according to the Words of his own Letter above-mentioned, he was to receive an Understanding of the Differences, and yet before be received this Understanding, whilst he was ignorant of the Differences, according to his own Confession, he is not ashamed to forge Numbers of Lies upon the Lord's People; and, as if they had been Truths, consisting in his Knowledge, to vent them before a Publick Auditory: which Sermon is largely answered by G. K. together with some Animadversions upon it from A.J. Also several Papers past betwixt W.M. and G.K. which had their Rise from some Queries sent by P. L. to W. M. answered by W. M. to which was returned a Reply, by P. L. the same was replied to by G. K. which baving received a Reply from W.M. was again replied to at length by G.K. It is now Two Years and upwards, since the last Papers, from our Friends Hands, were returned to the respective Priests; unto which, as yet, there is no Answer, nor any of them published; but instead of all, at last comes out a Dialogue (of which the Proverb is verified, verified, Partruriunt Montes, nascitur Mus) subferibed by no Hand, but generally understood to be W. M. and by him not denied: which whether it be to deal fairly or ingenuously, the Ingenuous may judge.

Ingenuous Dealing would have stated things, as related from our own Friends Hands, and given an Account of the many Scripture-Proofs and Arguments made Use of in our Friends Papers, which this Author in his Dialogue hath done nothing less, but deceitfully hath represented us, (considering what had pass'd before, to which he himself, whoever he is, could not but be privy) and disingenuously hath dissembled and waved almost all the Scripture-Proofs and Arguments, used by our Friends in their aforesaid Papers, as any may see, who are willing to look into the said Papers, Copies of which are in several Hands, and any who desire to read them, may have them readily from our Friends.

Therefore, however this Work of his may satisfy and deceive a benighted Multitude, whose Faith is pinned upon other Mens Sleeves, nevertheless I hope, it shall be an Occasion to discover these Men, to any who are ingenuous, and love not to be hoodwinked, but are willing to know the Truth.

So, Reader, having given thee this Account, I leave thee to the perusing of the following Papers, omitting these needless Apologies, and flattering Institutions, usual in Epistles of this Kind; my End being To answer the Good in all, and to starve, and not to feed the Evil in any. And I refer my self to that innocent and pure Principle, the Light of Christ Jesus in thee, which bears Testimony against all Evil; that thereby thou mayst try and A 4 examine, what is here written, and who are the Owners of Scripture, and who are the Wresters of it; which thou canst only truly discover and discern by the Spirit, from which the Scriptures came, even that inward Light and Word of Grace, that is able to build thee up, and establish thee in the Truth, unto which I recommend thee.

CALUMNIES.

To the AUTHOR.

AVING taken a ferious View of the Dialogue lately published by thee, and having weigh'd and considered it in the Fear of the Lord, I found it incumbent upon me to Reply unto it, both upon the Account of Truth, at which it strikes, and for thy Soul's fake, as also for others; that any simple Hearts, who have received Hurt by it, may be undeceived, and thy unfair Dealing may be manifested. In Order whereunto, before I enter upon the Examination thereof particularly, I have some things to lay before thee.

And First, As to the Manner and Method of thy Book by way of Dialogue, it is no ways allowable from thee, being but a meer Shift, to shuffle by those other Papers aforesaid, from being noticed or regarded, where all these Controversies are spoken to at large.

Secondly, The Nature of this Kind of Writing ought to have engaged thee, to fet down as largely, what could be faid on the one hand, as on the other, and to have brought in all the Proofs and Arguments alledged by the Quakers, or at least the most considerable; but in that thou far less a Christian, as any who have conversed with that People, cannot but be sensible of. Thou hast made a bare Representation of the Quakers Principles, and that so scanly and mincingly, that thou frequently givest thy self Occasion to sight against a Man of Straw. But that wherein thou hast manifested the Badness of thy Cause, and thy Weakness in pleading for it, is, that the Substance of what thou hast said is nothing else, but that which was writ in the Papers before mentioned, and so largely answered already: Whereof thou art altogether silent, and wouldst insinuate, that what thou hast here writ, was never answered by any Quaker; yea, is unanswerable.

Thirdly, In the Beginning of thy Epistle thou alledgest, That thou hast examined divers Opinions (of the People called Quakers) and after. Tryal found them to be 'naught; whereas thou hast not so much as mentioned, far less answered, the Arguments used by them, and in the Manner of signifying their Principles, thou givest not their own Words, but couchest them in such Words of thy own framing, as may bear the most disadvantageous Construction: Hence thou sayst, That they deny Original Sin; That they overturn the Doctrine of the Saints Perseverance; That they call the Ordinances of Christ, the Inventions of Men; all which things, as so conceived, are false.

Fourthly, There hath appeared in thee an Airy Spirit, full of Vanity and Self-Conceit, a thing which thou feemest much to cry out against in others, and wilt not see it in thy self; hence in thy Epistle thou boastest, that thou hast so succincily consuted their Errors, highly commending the Manner of thy Writing, as that which, for ought thou knowest, was never done by any, who never handled these Things with greater 1670. Plainness and Condescendingness to the meanest Capacity, and in so narrow a Compass, as thy own Words bear. The signifying, that it was the Judgment of some, that the Publishing of thy Papers might tend to Ediscation; the crying up of thy Zeal for the Ordinances, and many other Passages too tedious to relate, do very much evidence an itching Desire in thee to be commended and applauded in thy Enterprize.

Fiftbly, In the Writing and Framing of thy Difcourse, thou hast introduced thy self most childishly and ridiculously, and takest frequent Occasion to play upon thy own Words, and snatch at them, as if thou hadst got some great Advantage; not unlike Dogs, that bark at their own Shadow, or those Creatures that run and are mad, when they see themselves in a Looking-Glass, supposing it to be some other, when indeed it is but their own Image. That this is thy way, appears in many Pages in thy Book, as they are hereafter examined.

Now more particularly:

So foon as thou enterest upon the Matter of Debate, Page 2. thou beginnest with great Disingenuity; an Evidence of what may be expected, or will be found throughout the rest. For notwithstanding the Words of the Quaker are of thy own framing, and that they lie patent before thee; yet thou hast not had so much Honesty in thy Answer, as to subsume them aright. The Quaker says, I use not flattering Titles, and give thee not Heathenish Salutations and Bowings, lest I should sin, and be found an Idolater: In Answer to which thou beginnest with a false Subfumption, faying, Thou wonderest that he should call Salutations and Bowings Heathenish and Idolatrous. Indeed it is no strange thing, that thou and others mif-represent us, and bely us in repeating 1670. repeating our Words at a Distance, when in this manner of Writing thou canst not truly repeat those Words, which thou placest for ours, when they be just written before thee. Is it not one thing to fay, That Salutations that are Heathenish, or Heathenish Salutations cannot be used without Sin and Idolatry; and another thing to fay, That Salutations and Bowings are Heathenish and Idolatrous? Who is fo blind as not to fee here a vast Difference? As to the first, who dares deny it to be a Truth, that will offer to call himself a Christian? to wit, That Salutations and Bowings that are Heathenish, cannot be used without Idolatry and Sin? But as to the other. That Salutations and Bowings are Heathenish and Idolatrous, being taken in general, was never faid nor judged by the Quakers; and therefore to charge them with it, is utterly false, and a Lye: For such Salutations as Christ commands, and the Apostles practised, the Quakers dearly own, and frequently use, and find in them great Refreshment, because there-through the Life flows, and is communicated from one Vessel to another; but fuch Salutations thou art ignorant of, and of the Life that is there-through communicated, which bears Testimony against all that is Heathenish and Idolatrous, and leads out of it, and therefore in thy dark Mind wouldst from thence plead for the customary Salutations of the Heathen, as appears by the Proofs thou bringest, wherein thy Folly is very much manifested. Christ, sayst thou, commanded bis Disciples, when they entered into a House, to salute it; he did so: And what more? And if the House be worthy, their Peace shall be upon it, to wit, the Peace through the Salutation intimated or offered, because they brought to that House the Tender of the Gospel and glad Tidings, which was a good Salutation. But what wouldst thou infer from that? That we ought to do off our our Hats one to another; a thing which they 1670. never did, by whose Example thou wouldst press us to do it: and it is known, that it is a thing unusual in that Part of the World to this Day. That other Proof, alledged from Paul faluting the Churches, makes as little, if not far less, to the Purpose. Paul in his Epistles, who was at a great Distance, wisheth Grace and Peace to the Churches from God the Father and the Lord Fefus Christ; Ergo, We ought to take off our Hats. Can there be any thing more ridiculous? Is this the great Esteem ye put upon the Scriptures, to take the Salutations of the bleffed Apostle Paul, fignified by the Motions of the Holy Spirit, which was the very Bleffing of Paul to the Churches, or rather of the Spirit through him, for to prove your doing off Hats, one of the corrupt Customs of this World? Is not this to make a Mock of the Scriptures, and a stretching them to plead for that, against which is the natural Tendence of their Testimony? Next thou givest us Abraham's Practice; but every Practice of Abraham is not a Rule to us, nor to you either; the like may be faid of that of Moses. Though Moses did Obeisance to his Father in-Law, that makes nothing against us, far less his Kissing of him, and asking him of his Welfare; both which things the Quakers deny not. Thou acknowledgeft. that Religious Worship given to the Creature, is Idolatry. What is Religious Worship, but that which is given to God? And is not the Bowing of the Body, and Uncovering of the Head, the Signification of your Worship to God? And if ye give the same to the Creature also, where is the Difference? For in the external Signification it is not diftinguished, unless it be faid to be the Intention; which if it be, we shall have the Papifts pleading the same, for their Adoration of Images, and the Relitts of the Saints. And trus

1670. ly, your being found in these things, gives them Advantage in that Matter. That Courtesy and Christianity are not repugnant, we deny not; and therefore for Christians to be courteous one to another, is very fit, which indeed that the Apofile commands, we acknowledge: But that Courtely confilts in taking off Hats, and bowing to one another, that rests for thee to prove. In the next Place, to prove the Indifference of using the Plural Number instead of the Singular to one Perfon, thou fayst, thou art very confident, the Kingdom of God confists not in Words: So am I too; yet I strange thou shouldst say so, considering thy Principles, for what is all your Preaching but Words? Yea, what is the Scripture it felf (I mean that which ye have of it, to wit, the Letter) but Words? And feeing the very Gofpel, according to you, is but a Company of Words, being a Declaration of what past many Hundred Years ago, how has thy Zeal here to oppose the Quakers made thee forget thy felf in this Matter? Thou fayst, that to which the Singular Number is agreeable, the Plural may be applied to without making a Lye. The Proofs alledged for that be Matth. 23. 37. Luke 22. 31. 3 Epistle of John, Verse 13. evince nothing in this Matter; for the Context being rightly confidered, will clearly make out, that the Words are not applied to one fingle Person only, exclusively of others; and that of Luke is to a Flock, comprehending the Disciples, to whom he was speaking just before; but there is no confounding of the Number, where one fingle Person is only spoken to, and that without understanding of any more. And though indeed it were good, that the Difference were not greater, yet the Differences in these things evidence, that there be Differences in greater Matters. And in Respect that ye are estranged from the Principle, that leads

which is more than ye are aware of.

Page 3. Thou feemest to take great Advantage of these Words, Heretofore I walked according to my Light, and the same I do still, and while in the Integrity of my Heart, I walked in the Way thou art now in, I dare not fay, but God countenanced me in it. Here thou makest a great Stir, as if thou hadst brought the Quaker to a great Dilemma: But to pass by thy examining of the weak Objection, which thou makest in the Quaker's Behalf, which I believe was never alledged by any of them unto thee, as that wherewith they either only or chiefly defend themselves in this Matter; to wit, Solomon's facrificing at Gibeon. As in many other particulars, fo in this, thou statest the Quakers Part but too weakly and faintly, yea, difingenuously; for the Light, which we walk according unto, and defire to walk according to it for ever, is the Light of Christ in us, and not our Light otherwise than by the free Gift of God, which we do freely acknowledgedid shine in our Hearts in some Measure in the time we walked with you, (though we did not so know it) and gave us some Knowledge and Discerning of things, and begot a Measure of Integrity and Honesty of Heart towards the Lord in divers of us, and turned the Bent of our Hearts truly towards him in Measure. And the Lord countenanced and visited, and sometimes refreshed us fecretly in those Days, with a Regard to that Meafure of Integrity he found in us, and not because of, or in respect unto that way of Profession we then walked in, which Way was truly a Hurt unto us, and not Advantage. And it was not your Way, which we walked in with you, that the Lord countenanced, but the Integrity and Uprightness, which he had begot in us, and had placed

1670. placed in us, as a tender Plant, and as a Root in ory Ground, under the Oppression of your Way, which burthened it; and until we were brought out of your Way, by his Arm which drew us, his Seed and Plant in us suffered, and was oppresfed as a Cart with Sheaves: But after we were delivered from your Way, and turned to the Way we now walk in, the Seed and Plant, which fuffered, came to receive Strength, and be raifed unto Life and Dominion, as many are Witnesses at this Day. Nor is this thy Argument any other, but that which the Papists did throw against those, who sometimes walked with them in the Popish Way of Profession, some Hundred Years ago, when they came out from among them, whom the Lord visited while they were among them, and at times refreshed them, till he brought them forth to witness against them. For the Lord hath a People in Babylon, and hath his Sheep, which are scattered on the dry and barren Mountains of many Sorts and Ways of Professions, who have some tender Breathings and Desires after him, and with a Regard to his breathing Seed in them, he visits them, and refresheth them at times; which yet proves not, that they should remain where they are, in Babylon, and upon the dry Mountains of dead Professions and Observazions. For the Call of the Lord is unto them, to come out of Babylon, and his Arm is stretched forth to gather them off from all these Hills, unto his own Holy Hill, Mount Zion, that they may feed and lie down with them, who were as Sheep going aftray, but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of their Souls. Also may not those of the Episcopal Form object the same, against those who have left it upon a further Discovery; and yet it's like thou wilt not deny, but some, who have been under the Episcopal Form, had a Measure of Integrity to God, while under under it, and with a Regard to that the Lord at 1670. Times refreshed them. God does not frequently discover his Will to his Children all at once, nor lead them throughly out of things, out of which they are to come, in an Instant; and yet that he countenanceth them in their Travel, cannot be denied. Did not the Lord countenance Cornelius, before Peter came unto him? as appears by Ads 10. 4. And yet this was no Argument, that Cornelius should not own the Apo-Ales and Christians: And did not the Lord countenance the Disciples, though even when they were following him, they were ignorant of many things, and in some things wrong? And whether did not the Lord countenance Luther in his Testimony against the Pope, as well in the First, as in the Last Steps of it; although it appears, that when he first began to preach against Indulgences, he intended not fuch a thing as afterwards followed; but things opened more and more unto him, till they came unto that Period they were brought unto before his Death: And who of you will fay, that God did not countenance him from the Beginning, whilst he held many things, which he himself came to see to be wrong, and erred very grofly in the Matter of Consubstantiation. The like may be faid of John Husse, and others, whom you acknowledge to have been Martyrs. At last, thou endest it with a Question, asking, Whether it be safe to lean to the Audience of that Light, which one while faith, that fuch a Way is the Way of Christ, and another while, thou must come out of it, for it is the Way of Antichrist? To which, what is above mentioned, anfwers fufficiently; yet further, I may eafily retort the Question thus, upon the most of all the National Ministry in Scotland, who are now licking up that which they heretofore cried out against as Antichristian, and with Fire and Sword persecuted B which now they both Practife and avow themfelves in. Now as the Fault of this cannot be afcribed to the Scriptures, which is the Rule, whereby they pretend to be guided; fo neither can any Man's Inftability, that pretends to be guided by the Light, (if any fuch thing could be thewn) prove the Light a Guide not to be followed.

To prove, that Christ is not in all Men, thou arguest thus: Christ is not in all Men, because the Scripture speaks of a being without Christ in the World; to which thou addeft the Reason, The unconverted must needs be without Christ, because they want the uniting Principle, which is Faith. To answer, that Christ is in them, but not in Union with them, thou fayst, is a fond Distinction, because the Scriptures Way of expresing Peoples Union with Christ, is by afferting Christ to be in them, which thou takest for granted, and from thence drawest thy Conclusion: but if it be found to be false, then the whole Fabrick falls to the Ground (as indeed false it is) For even according to the Scriptures, the In-being of Christ in Men fometimes fignifies Union, and sometimes his Existence in them, working and operating in them by Way of Reproof and Judgment, as also by way of Call and Invitation, to prepare for Union with them, as appears by the very first Scripture cited by thee, John 15. 4, 5. which answers not thy Mind. For we say not, That where there is no Union, Fruit can be brought forth unto God: but mark the last Part of it, how much it makes against thee, Without me, fays Christ, ye can do nothing. For how becomes an unconverted Man a Convert, but by having Christ to work with him? And where does Christ co-operate? Does he not there, where the Work of Conversion is wrought, and is not that within? So

So that Christ must needs be in Men, before they 1670. be in Union with him, whereby the Faith may be wrought, by which they are united to him And as to that other Scripture, 1 Fohn 3. 24. thefe and other Scriptures, which might be cited, hold forth that In-being of Christ, which is by Union; but fay nothing against his In-being in them, where the Union is not; for he is in them who know him not, and are Darkness, John 1. Vers. 10. and 5. and he was crucified in the Corinthians and Galatians, which was in the Time of their Unbelief, I Corinth. 2. Ver. 2. and Galat. 3. Vers. 1. for the Words in the Greek are in bully i.e. In you; and indeed, there can be no greater Absurdity, than to say, That Christ is in no Man, but in them with whom he is united; for Christ is not separated from that Light and Seed, which is of him, that is in every Man, but is united with it, which bears Testimony against all Iniquity; but many times Men are far from being in Union with that in them, which witneffeth against all Sin, as Experience sufficiently teacheth." Then, if that be in them, which is pure, and if Christ be in that pure, then Christ is in them; and if they be not united with that which is pure in them, then are they not united with Christ, which is in the pure, that is in them.

It feems strange to thee, that Christ should be in the Heathen, and they not know him. Was it not as strange, that he should be among the Jews, who had the Letter, that did bear a Testimony of him, and they not know him? And that notwithstanding his Miracles, and other Proofs he gave of himself, they should so far mistake him, to judge him to be an Impostor and Blasphemer? Thou sayest, Is Christ so uncount to them be dwells in, as not to reveal himself unto them? But though we say, that Christ is in all Men, we do not say, he dwelleth in all Men; for

Dwelling

1670. Dwelling fignifieth more than In being: And yet I fay, he does reveal himself in some Measure. unto all, in whom he bears witness against Iniquity; for the Revelation of Christ unto one, is not always by giving the Knowledge of what past externally; but is a Revelation of the righteous Judgment against the Transgressor in them, which to fay, that the Heathen wanted, is false, and contrary to Scripture, Rom. 1. 18, 19, 20. John 3. 18, 19, 20. yea, and contrary to the very Acknowledgment of Americans, who have confessed, that there was that in them, which judged and reproved Evil. Whether or not their Ignorance of the outward Transaction, derogates any thing from their Capacity of Salvation? Comes hereafter in its Place to be examined; together with that other Saying of thine, wherein thou thewest the like Dif-ingenuity, viz. That the Saying, that every Man bath sufficient Light to lead bim to Life and Salvation, tends to put Christians in the same Condition with Pagans; because, sayst thou, Christians have no more; and the Preaching of the Gospel, and the Benefit of the Scriptures are little to be regarded; for without them Men have Sufficient Light to lead them to the Things of God. For the Saying, that Men have Sufficient Light, hath no such Tendency; for he that is truly and really a Christian, (and not nominally only) is one, that is united to Christ, and believes in him. Now, it is one thing to have the Light, and another to believe in it; which is clearly made out by that Scripture, While ye have the Light, believe in the Light, that ye may become the Children of it. And that it is a great Advantage to have the Knowledge of the Scripture, as outwardly, we deny not, for the Reaching and Raising of the Seed in them that are afar off; and also for the Comforting and Refreshing of them, in whom it is raised, as the Scriptures are used in that that Spirit which gave them forth: Therefore 1670. we labour and travel fo much for that End, and are found using the Scriptures Testimony. If it be faid, That therein we contradict our Principle, feeing it is possible, that People may be faved without the Scriptures : I answer, Nay; For many things are profitable, which are not of absolute Necessity. You your selves acknowledge, that other Books besides the Scriptures, are not of absolute Necessity unto Men's Salvation, and yet you judge not all other Books useless, yea, ye too much rely upon Books. Also you do not fay, that it is impossible, that any can be faved without Preaching upon the Scriptures; and yet you reckon not Preaching to be in vain. But do ye not rather contradict your Principles, who fay, that the Number of all those who ever can be faved, is so definite from all Eternity. (and that without Respect to their Faithfulnels or Diligence in the Using of the Means) in the Foreknowledge of God, that none of them can miss of Salvation, and yet keep such a Stir about Preaching and Ordinances? For you deny that God hath decreed Men unto Salvation, whom in his Foreknowledge he did foresee would be faithful and diligent in the Use of the Means.

Page 7, thou fayst, All Men bave not faving and Jufficient Light in them, because the Scripture saith, that some Men are brutish in their Knowledge. Jerem. 10. 19. But why didst not thou cite these Words, For the Pastors are become brutish, and have not sought the Lord, therefore they shall not prosper? We see the Proof of this at this Day. But from thence how makest thou it appear, that some Men want Saving Light? The Pastors are now as brutish as they were then; and it is, because they turn their Backs upon that Light, and will not follow it: Therefore we have the more

1670. need to bear Testimony unto it, and against their

Brutishness, who reject and despise it.

Next thou citest Rom. 3. 11. There is none that understandeth. But will that infer, that there is not any faving Light in them? Why understand they not, but because they are not turned to the Light, that can give them Understanding? It is supposed, fayst thou, that the Light in some may be Darkness. So it may indeed, to wit, that Light that is gathered from the Carnal and Earthly Wisdom, which is from below, where it takes the Letter of the Scriptures, and adds thereunto its Commentaries and Confequences, fetting up this in them as their only Light; we find, that Light proves but Darkness. But that will not infer, that the true Light, which comes from Christ, is or can be Darkness, unless in that Sence, as the Day of the Lord is called Darkness in Scripture. For even the true Light, unto them who reject it, is as Darkness, in that it gives them not that Comfort and Joy, which it giveth unto them who love it, and own it, but troubleth and affrighteth them, as the Night and the Darkness. So that these Scriptures stand in good Unity with the Principle of all Mens having Saving Light in them. Next thou objectest, That having of faving Light and Grace, presupposes Conversion. But that I deny: For on the contrary, Conversion presupposeth having Light and Grace, by which, and to which Men are to be converted. So that before a Man be converted, he must have faving Grace in order to convert him, even as the being healed of a Wound, presupposeth the Plaister or Salve; but not on the contrary, for the Application of the Plaister, presupposeth not the being healed. But whereas thou fayft, What need is there of his turning, when Men are in this State already? Thou mifrepresentest us; for we do not say, That all Men are in a State of Light and Grace. Tobe in a State of Grace, is to stand in Grace, which the 1670. Wicked do not stand in; yet this hinders not, but that Grace is communicated unto them, whereby they may come to a State, or standing in it, while the Day of their Visitation remains.

Again, thou undertakest to prove, That all Men bave not Sufficient Light, two Ways: First, That all Men have not the Spirit of God, Jude 19. To which I answer, That there may be sufficient Light in Men, who may be faid, after a certain manner, not to have the Spirit, as being such, who, though the Spirit be in them to invite, call and draw them unto God, yet refift his Drawings, and fo separate themselves from it so continuing, until the Day of God's Visitation unto them come to an End: Concerning whom it is true, that then they have not the Spirit, fo much as to invite and call them unto God, or to give unto them the least Tender of his Love. And though all have not the Spirit bringing forth the Fruits thereof in them, to wit, Love, Meekness, Gentleness, &c. as no wicked Persons have; yet all, even the Wicked, in a cerain Day, have the Spirit in them to reprove and convince, yea, to call upon them, and strive with them, in order unto their Conversion; for the Spirit of God re. proves the World of Sin, John 19. 8. And Atts 7. 50. Te stiff-necked and uncircumcifed, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: and Gen. 6. My Spirit shall not always strive with (or in) Man; and many more to that purpofe.

For a fecond Reason of its Insufficiency, theu sayst, It reveals not Jesus Christ a Saviour, in respect it gives not a Discovery of his Incarnation, Passion, Resurrection, &c. citing 1 Cor. 2. 2. And from this Place thou wouldstinfer, That the Apostle preserved the Knowledge of Christ, as crucified outwardly, to all other Knowledge. Answer; tho we willingly acknowledge, that to know him,

1670. even as he did outwardly come, and was crucified, Voc. is a good Knowledge, and of great Profit and Comfort to them who believe; yet we deny, that the Knowledge of Him, as outwardly crucified, is the best of all other Knowledge of Him, or to be preferred to all other ways of knowing him; nor does that Scripture, I Cor. 2. 2. prove it. For Paul is not speaking there of Christ, as crucified outwardly in Judea; but of him, as he was inwardly crucified in the Corinthians, when Paul first came unto them to preach the Gospel, as the Words do plainly import, being rightly translated out of the Greek; for I determined not to know any thing, eveniv, i.e. in you, but fefus Christ, and him crucified. This was the Apostle's Care and Travel in his Ministry, to declare and hold forth unto the Corintbians, and other Gentiles, Jesus Christ, who was crucified in them in his fuffering Seed, even that Seed of Light and Truth which suffered, and was crucified in them under the Burthen of their Transgression, in the Time of their Unbelief, and to preach Salvation, and Deliverance from Sin and Wrath, through fefus Christ according to his weak and low Appearance in them, in the fuffering Seed, through their believing in him, and clofing with him, as manifest therein. According to which he said to the Galatians, That Jesus Christ was evidently set before their Eyes, crucified in them, ev builv. Ephef. 3. vers. 8. he said, This Grace was given unto him to preach in the General, i. e. in the Gentiles, the unsearchable Riches of Christ. Parallel to which is that of the Apostle, Col. 1. 27. (for fo should all these Places be translated) which Riches of Christ lay hid and wrapped up in them, in the Seed of the Kingdom, which was the least of all Seeds. Even as the Riches and Fruitfulness of a Tree lies hid in the Seed of it, which comes to be brought forth, as the Seed takes Root, and and gets Liberty to grow up unto the due Stature: 1670. So for this the Apostle laboured, that People might know Christ in them, and might embrace bim in their Hearts, that so he might be formed in them, Gal. 4. 19. and they might know him to live in them, and his Life to rule in them; which is more than to know him as outwardly crucified. And indeed, none know the Weight and Greatness of what he suffered outwardly, but who know him first, as he hath suffered in them, and fuffer and become crucified with him, so as to have a Sympathy and Fellow-feeling with him; even as the Members suffer and are pained, when any thing hurts the Head or Heart. And whereas thou fayft, Tou fee, the Apostle judges the Knowledge of Christ crucified, to be that one thing necesfary; We deny, that the Knowledge of his being outwardly crucified, is that one thing necessary, for People must know him in them; Know ye not, that Christ is in you, except ye be Reprobates, 2 Cor. 13. 5.

As for thy Charge upon the Quaker, saying, With what Face can you blame me for being in Darkness, seeing your Opinion is, that all Men have sufficient Light in them, it is frivolous; for the Light, which is sufficient, be in thee, thy Opposition to the Light blinds thee, and hinders thee from seeing Light. A Man may have a Candle burning in his House, but if he putit under a Bushel, it will not give him the Sight of

That there is no other name under Heaven whereby any can be faved, but the Name of Jesus Christ, is granted; but that Name is another thing than the bare Expression, or Declaration and Knowledge of Words or things, as without. Because his Name is said to be a strong Tower. whereunto the Righteous sty and are safe; which is another thing, than the bare Naming of his Death and Cross without; for many Unrighteous plead a Right to that, and can fly unto it, aswe fee by the Example of the Papists (to whom, it feems, ye will needs join your felves in this manter) who fay, That the outward naming of Christ, and signing with the Cross, puts away Devils. And that we are of another Mind than you in this Matter, is much to our Advantage, because we know, the inward is the main thing, and where it is enjoyed, the Efficacy and Benefit of the outward cannot be wanting, though the distinct Knowledge of it be not had. The Knowledge of Christ's Cross within, which is his Power, that crucifies unto the World, is more than the Knowledge of the outward; and to know Christ after the Spirit, is more than to know him after the Flesh, as is clear from the Words of Paul; Though I have known Christ after the Flesh, yet benceforth know I bim so no more. The Apostle Peter knew well, that God was not fo narrow-hearted, as ye would have him to be; therefore he faid. That he had feen, that with God there was no Respect of Persons, but in every Nation, he that loveth Righteousnels and feareth God, is accepted of Him. You your felves dare not deny, but that some Infants and deaf Persons are saved by Christ, without the external Knowledge: If you fay, they are not in a Capacity to know these things; I answer, So neither are many of the Gentiles, who never had these things revealed unto them. But if the External Knowledge be necessary to the one, why not to the other? And if thou fayst, that some Infants are in the Decree of Election: I ask of thee, or any of you, who of you has feen the Decrees of God? And how knowest thou. that none of the Heathen are involled into them?

Death

And whereas thou fayit, Is not the Application of Christ's Blood and Sufferings necessary to them that would profit, and get Good thereby? For tho'

the Blood of Christ be a healing Plaister, yet the 1670. Plaister must be applied, e're the Sore can be healed. Now what Application can the Soul make of Christ's Blood, who knows no fuch thing? The Blood of Christ is applied by Faith, but true Faith is not a blind Faith. Answer. It is granted: But this Blood is known and felt within to wash and purge the Conscience; for Christ, as he is within. is not without his Blood, which is spiritual, even the pure Blood of the Vine, and is that Wine of the Kingdom, which is inwardly felt to wash and to refresh, which he gives to them, who know not distinctly the outward Shedding of the Blood. as it was many Hundred Years ago, and which many are ignorant of, who have heard much of the outward Shedding of his Blood, but know not the Blood, as shed and poured forth in them. to sprinkle their Consciences from dead Works; for it is a Mystery sealed up from all, who stand in Opposition to his Light within. But there mark thy own Words, The Plaisier must be applied, e're the Sore can be bealed. Must not then faving Grace be applied, e're the Soul be converted, or healed? Contrary to thy other Affertion, Page 7. That having of saving Light and Grace, presupposeth Conversion, that is, Healing.

As for thy deceitful Infinuation to render us odious, That if our Principles were generally owned, the Nations in one Age, or two, would be over-fpread with as palpable Darknefs, as the Heathen-Nations at this Day are; Seeing it has no just Ground, we return it upon thee as false and malitious. For it is the owning the Light, and other Principles held by us therein, which will make these Nations, and all others who own it and them, to overflow with the true and saving Knowledge of God and Christ; but so long as they follow such blind Guides as thy self, who oppose the Light, Darkness will cover them, as 1670. at this Day, notwithstanding all their Professions and Confessions of him, while in Works they deny him, and remain estranged from his Light in The Reason thou addest is blind and unreasonable; For, according to you (thou sayst) the Light within us is a sufficient Teacher, take heed to this, and there needs no more: For we fav, the Light within must not only be taken heed unto. but believed, and obeyed and walked in; which who do, it will lead them to read and make Use of the Scriptures, and will lead them to the Asfemblies of God's People, and to hear and receive the Ministry of those whom God sends; yea, to love and esteem them greatly for their Works fake; and it will lead them to own Christ, and the Benefits of his Death and Sufferings in the outward, and give them an Understanding, how to conceive and use aright those things, as op-

Page 10. Thou fayst, Christ is a Light, who communicateth Light to all Men; but where find you, that the Light communicated to all Men is Christ himself? We must not confound the Light-Giver with the Light or Enlightening given. Anfw. We do not confound them; but we must not divide or separate them, as thou and you do; for where the Light, or Enlightening from Christ is, there is Christ himself, he is not separated from it, but is in it, and with it: We must not be so gross as to conceive, that Christ enlightens Men in such a Way of outward Distance, as the Body of the Sun, being fo many Thousand Miles above the Clouds, enlightens our natural Eyes, but comes not near us otherwise, than by its Influence and Rays; for Christ is near unto every one, no less than his Influence, for in him we live, and move, and have our being. And this Nearness of his unto all Men, in a Day, is more than that general Presence, in respect whereof he abides with all the Works of his Hands, forasmuch as he is in 1670. them to enlighten them, that they may believe, Fohn 1. 9. compared with Verf. 7. P. 11. Here, because thou canst not deny, but that there is Light in all Men, thou fayst, It is commonly called the Light of Nature, and that some Remainders of Knowledge and Principles of Good remain in Man, after the Ruins of God's Image in him; as when a City is demolished, some Foundations of Houses do still remain. But how is this consistent with what you fay, to wit, That there is no good thing at all in Men unconverted; and that Man fell whelly from God; and that Adam's Fall was not in part, but wholly, as to all things that are good? And that we derive nothing from him, but that which is corrupted and defiled? But the Scriptures Testimony is plain, that fince the Fall, the free Gift or Grace of God is come upon all, unto Juflisication of Life. It is not said, Justification is come upon all; but the free Gift or Grace of God is come upon all unto Justification, so that all may be justified, if they did close with it, Rom. 5. 8. And God so loved the World, John 3. 16. And this is the Condemnation of the World, that Light is come into it, vers. 19. which is after the Fall. And whatever any may conceive, that remained in Man of the Image of God after the Fall, that could not have any Power to convince Man of Evil, or enable him to do any thing that is good, if it were not visited and influenced a new from the Fountain of Light and Life, but it would remain as a thing without all Life and Virtue, as a Candle extinguished. For by the Fall the Lamb, the Witness came to be flain, and remained fo, until the Spirit of Life again was fent from God into it, to give it Life and Power, to witness against Mens Transgressions: for a Witness that is wholly dead, cannot witness unto particular things of Fact against Men, as this inmard

1670. inward Witness in all Men doth, who do not again crucify it in themselves. And seeing Christ tasted Death for every Man, and the Grace that brings Salvation hath appeared to every Man, and the Gospel is preached in every Creature, as it is according to the Greek, in Heb. 2. Tit. 2. Col. 1. 23. It is manifest, that the Illumination given to every Man, is a New and fresh Visita-given to every Man, is a New and fresh Visitation of God's Love in Christ, freely given unto them for Salvation.

Now as to the Word Nature, if it be rightly understood, there shall be no great Difference about it. For if by Nature thou understandest the Nature that is corrupt and fallen, and that which fimply is derived from Adam, then we deny that that Nature can claim any Right to this Light, or that it can be faid to proceed from that Nature. But if thou understandest by Nature, the Nature that is spiritual and heavenly, and is derived from Christ, the second Adam, the quickning Spirit, the Lord from Heaven, then I fay, the Light may properly be called the Light of that Nature; in which Sence is to be understood that Place of the Apostle, Rom. 2. Vers. 14. cited by thee, where he saith, The Gentiles which have not the Law, did by Nature the Things contained in the Law. For who will be fo gross, as to fay, that the Gentiles by the corrupt Nature could do the things contained in the Law, which is pure and holy? But by that Nature which is one with the Law, to wit, Divine and Heavenly, they might do them. So that thou canst not but still be accounted a wilful Enemy to the Light, whilft thou opposeft it, and dost not turn to it, and by it come to fee the Evil of thy Ways, and forfake them.

Page 12. Though it be here afferted, in the Name of the Quakers, that the Scriptures are of excellent and blessed Use, yet thou wilt not believe it; and alledgest, They will not make the due use 1670. of them, for these Reasons, First, Because a Bible, thou fayst, is not to be seen in all our Meetings: But that will infer nothing at all; for we meet not to read the Scripture, but to wait on the Lord, and be taught of him, and receive from his Spirit what he pleaseth to administer, either in our selves, or through the Mouths of his Servants; and we meet to Worship God, whose Worship is to be performed in Spirit and in Truth, and not in external Reading. Thou fayft, Christ took the Book of the Prophet Isaiah, and read out of it: But was not this the Performance of a Legal Duty, and in Condescendency to the Fews Manner? For it was in the Synagogue; But did he ever constitute it as a Part of the Christian Worship, for one Man to take the Bible, and speak upon it, and all the Reft to be excluded from speaking, while he prattles his own barren empty Notions about it? Shew me, where that was the Practice or Order among the Apostles and primitive Christians? In the Churches Way, I Cor. 14. there is no fuch thing; but on the Contrary, Verse 29. Let the Prophets Speak two or three, and let the other judge; if any thing be revealed to another that sits by, let the first hold his Peace; for ye may all prophecy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted. By which it plainly appears, there was no fuch fettled Custom among them, but it is one of the main Inventions brought-in in the Apostacy, whereby Barrenness and Driness hathentred, and whereby the quickning, unlimited Life has been stopped from flowing through many Vessels. It is true. the Apostles at times cited Scriptures out of the Law and the Prophets, to shew their Fulfilling, or to open the Mind of the Spirit concerning them, which is frequent in our Meetings, to cite Scriptures, and open them in the same Life and Spirit that gave them forth, in the Order of the Spirit,

1670. Spirit, but not in the Order and Way of Man's Wisdom and Spirit, as is your Way, which savours · more of Aristotle's School, than of the Church of Christ. Secondly, As to what thou fayst, That it is not our Way, to encourage the People to read the Scriptures, and to try Doctrines by them; 'tis utterly false: for we desire, that all may come to try Doctrines even by the Scripture; but we bid them also come to the Light in them, to read and try Doctrines, and understand the true Sence of the Scriptures therein: And if People did fo. we know, that then your Juglings about them would be made manifest. But indeed, we are far from desiring People to heed your false Glosses and Commentaries upon them, whereby ye darken them, rather than interpret them. Thirdly, thou fayst, When you want an Inward Command to a Duty, I trow, the Outward Command of the Scripture is not regarded. Answ. Here thou writest as one unacquainted with the Law and New Covenant writ in the Heart; the inward Command is never wanting in the due Season to any Duty, as it is waited for; and the outward Testimony or Signification of the Command we regard in its Place. Is it not a regarding the outward to mind the inward Unction and Spirit, to which it directs? Which inward teacheth all things, and leadeth into all Truth, 1 John 2. 27. 1 Cor. 14. 15. John 16. 13. yea, do not fuch more regard the outward, than they who under Pretence of an outward Command, do run about these things in their own natural Will and Spirit, neglecting to wait upon the Lord for the Leading and Help of his Spirit? Thy comparing us to Servants, who will not be moved to work by their Master's Letter, &c. is vain and ridiculous, nor doth it reach us, for our Master's Letter is writ in our Hearts, and there we are to find it. Neither is our Master separated from us, as those Masters are, who use to write Letters to Servants to set them on work, 1670. while they are absent, and cannot help them by their Presence, for our Master is always with us, and he requires us to do all our Works by his immediate Counsel, Direction and Assistance, as present with us and in us: And that Nature we witness brought forth in us, which does not shift his Will, but delight in it to do it, and know it, whether told us by a lively Voice, or by any other inward Signification of his Spirit. Fourthly. And because thou are ignorant of that great Duty of Waiting upon the Lord in Silence, out of all thy own Thoughts and Words, and art trainpling it under foot, thou look'ft upon it as mif-fpent eime, or a meer looking upon the Ground; whereas, if ever thou comest to know the Scriptures aright, or to confer aright concerning them, fo as to profit, thou must first come to that Silence thou now fo much despisest. So that these things very well confift, though the World may judge otherways, whom thou wilt have to be Judges in the Case: but in the Judgment of those who are redeemed out of the World, we shall be found to put the Scriptures in their true Place.

Thou canst not but smile, thou sayst, that a Man of Understanding should grant the Scriptures to be a Declaration of God's Mind, and yet deny them to be God's Word; for what is a Word, but a Declar ration of one's Mind.

Answ. Here thy Lightness appears, which darkens thy Understanding: If thou must needs sinile, do it at thy Impertinent Reason. For tho Man's Word be the Declaration of his Mind, yet every Declaration of his Mind is not his Word; for Signs may be a Declaration of a Man's Mind, without his Word: and People usually distinguish betwixt a Man's Word, and his Writ. And so though the Scripture be a Declaration of God's Mind, yet it is not his Word properly; nor can those

1670. those Properties which are declared of the Word. belong to the Scriptures, as hath often been demonstrated, but to that inward and living Word, as it doth declare it felf, whether in the Heart, or in the Mouth. The Word of God is like unto Himself, Spiritual, yea, Spirit and Life; and therefore cannot be heard or read with the Natural External Senses, as the Scriptures can; nor does the Scriptures cited by thee, as Hofea I. I. foel 1. 1. Isaiah 38. 4. Feremiah 14. 1. prove thy Intent: For that Word which came unto the Prophets, was that from which the Scriptures were given forth, which Word you confess was immediate from God; but you say, It is ceased to come now. And did not all the Prophets prophefy from Christ, The Word? Thou mightest as well reason thus, That when it is said, The Spirit of the Lord came upon fuch a one, or to fuch an one, that therefore the Scripture is the Spirit, and so deny all Spirit, but that which is the Scripture; as some do in other Sells, calling the Writings of the Apostles and Evangelists the Spirit, and denying the Necessity of any other thing: which is abominable Deceit, and wrefting of Scripture: And that the Prophets declaring their Meffage, faid, Thus faith the Lord, proves that what God fpake in them, and through them, as the Living Word declared it felf, was the Word of God, but not the Letter or Writing. And whereas thou fayft, It is all one to fay, the Scripture faith, and God faith. Answ. By way of Inference and Collection it may be faid, they are one, because of their Agreement; yet the living Word and Speech of God is not the Scripture, more than the Sun Beam is the Shadow, though the one agrees with the other. Every one that reads, or hears the Scriptures read, hears not God immediately; now that which God speaks to any, or in any immediately, that is only his Word properly perly unto them. As they who only read my 1670. Letter, cannot be faid properly to hear me by Word of Mouth. Christ said to the Fews, Te bave not heard his Voice, though they heard the Scriptures; and though the Apostle useth some Scriptures out of the Old Testament, it proves not, he had not the Word of the Lord speaking then immediately in him, and to him. That Scripture thou biddest remark, I Thess. 2. 13. proves not thy intent neither: for the Word which they heard of the Apostles, was that living Word, declaring it felf through the Apostles, which was answered by the same in them who heard; they heard Christ of, in and through the Apostles, does it therefore follow that Christ is the Scripture? And laftly, Mark 7. 13. ferves thy Purpose no more than the rest: for the Pharifees, in striking at the Fifth Commandment, did confequently strike at the living inward Word which gave it forth, as those who struck at any of the Apostles, struck at Christ, yet none of the Apostles was Christ; as neither is the Scripture, as it is outwardly writ, to speak properly, the Word of God. And truly, the Reason why we may not call the Scriptures the Word of God (to speak properly) is, that People may be directed to that inward living Word; for by their being so much called the Word of God, they have been put in Christ's stead, and have been set up as an Idol, instead of that from whence they came: fo that to avoid this Hazard, we have put them in their due Place,

Page 14. To prove that it is the Mind and Will of God, that the Scriptures should be the Rule, thou citest Isa. 8. 20. To the-Law, and to the Testimony, &c. But it rests to be proved, that the Law and Testimony was not the inward Law, and that that Word, according to which they were to speak, was not the inward Word, which 1670 is said to be in the Heart. It is observable, that to prove this thou bringest John 7 49. where the Pharifees Say, Have any of the Rulers or Pharisees believed in him, but this People that know not the Law, are accurfed. This Place futes the Matter very well, but makes much against thee. For the Pharisees here were crying up the outward Law, and the Knowledge of it; averring, that the Ignorance of it caused the mean People to believe in Christ. So do ye now; ye pretend to cry up the Law, and say, The Ignorance of it occasions so many to leave you. And as they then were fetting the Law above Christ, and covering themselves with a Zeal for it, persecuting him, and reviling his Followers as Ignorants. So ye now, whilst ye are boasting of your great Knowledge in the Law, and in the Scripture, and your high Esteem of them, ye are despissing, crucifying the same Christ in his spiritual Appearance. and upbraiding his Followers now, as they did then, as Ignorants, and Contemners of the Law. And as to Luke 10. 26. How readest thou? This was spoke to one that was a Lawyer, or Interpreter of the Law, and relied upon it, fo Christ spoke this to check him; and besides the Dispensation of the Law, which this Lawyer was under, was different from that of the Gospel in this Matter, as may appear Heb. 8. 10. Again, as for Christ and his Apostles using the Scriptures, for convincing of their Opposers, so do we; and yet this proves not, that either he or we judge them to be the Rule, whereby to try all Things and Spirits, yea, even the Spirit of God Himfelf.

Page 15. Thou seemest to lay much Stress upon this, That it were impossible for us to prove to a few, or a Turk, that Jeius the Son of Mary is in very deed the Christ, without the Scripture. But I answer thee to that easily; by what Way will thou perswade a Turk to believe the Scriptures, 1670. or their Testimony, but by the inward Testimony of the Spirit? Calvin, after he has faid all that calvin, lib. can be faid of outward Ways, at last concludes, 1. cap. 7.

The only certain Way to know it indeed, is by his tast. the Testimony of the Spirit. And as to the Course that Paul took with the obstinate Jews, it was very commendable, because they faid, they believed the Scriptures, and feemed to esteem them much, though they opposed the Truth witnessed to in the Scriptures: So that it is evident, that some great Pretenders to the Scriptures can make a Cloak of them, to deny Christ himself, as ye do at this Day. And though Paul took that Course with the Jews, yet we see, he took no fuch Course with the Athenians, to whom he cited no Scripture, nor endeavoured to perswade them by it; but told them, they were the Offforing of God, and wished them to feel after him, who was not afar off from every one of them. Thirdly, fayst thou, The Saints had recourse to the Scriptures in the Examination of Doctrines. So have we too, as before has been declared: but that will not prove the Scripture is the Rule.

Page 16. Fourthly, thou fayst, We are commanded to search the Scriptures, Joh. 5. 39. Anfiv. The Words may be translated, You fearch the Scriptures, as Pasor translateth them; but we do acknowledge, the Scriptures are to be fearched, but are not to be rested in; which was the Fews Fault, who would not come to Christ to get Life, thinking to have Eternal Life in the Scriptures, which Christ checks them for. And that the Scriptures are profitable for Dollrine, Correction, Instruction, we own, (and are commended for their Dignity and Authority) but they are thus scriptures profitable only to such, as come to the Spirit, to profitable to whom? guide and direct them, how to make Use of them, whom? else they may prove an Occasion of Stumbling, 1670. as they did to the Pharifees. Hence it is faid, That the Man of God may be perfect; mark, the Man of God, not every Man: Now, no Man can be truly called the Man of God, but he that is led by the Spirit of God. Next thou wouldest undertake to prove, That it is not the Mind of God, that the Spirit within Men should be the Rule. In which thou fallest very short, as appears, by faying, That Christ made Use of the Scripture to prove bimfelf, &c. and not the Light within. And did these Jews receive him, who had the Scriptures? Did they not reject him? And why? Because they hearkened not unto the inward Voice and Testimony of the Father concerning him: and this was the Testimony, which he said was greater than that of Fohn, though Fohn was the greatest of the Prophets, and those who believe, had the Witness in themselves, I John 5. 10. but to the unbelieving Fews he faid, Te bave neither heard his Voice, nor feen his Shape. Secondly, thou fayst, There is an express Command to try the Spirits, I John 4. I. Answ. But is there any Word there of trying them by the Scripture? Cannot the Spirits be tried by the Trying Spi- Scripture? Cannot the Spirits be tried by the rits is by Spirit of God? Or, is there any better Way to the Spirit of trye them? How tried Peter the Spirit of Area try them? How tried Peter the Spirit of Ananias and Sapphira? And is not the Tryal and Discerning of Spirits the Priviledge of the Saints now? And how is it a peculiar Priviledge to Saints, unless it be done by the Spirit of God? For the Scriptures any can make use of; the Apostle John, writing to the Saints concerning Seducers, points them to the Anointing, which remained in them, and did teach them all things, and by this they did know all things, and consequently Spirits, 1 John 2. 20, 26. Thirdly, thou fayst, Undoubtedly there are strong Delusions, &c. Answ. There are so indeed: But was there any more strongly deluded than the Pharifees? Yet how much much did they lay Claim to the Scriptures? How 1670. came they then to be deluded, who was so skill'd in the Scriptures according to the Letter of them? And the poor People, who were not so skill'd, fo rightly to hit the Matter?

And as to thy Question, What Way Shall the Delusion be tried, if you neglect the Word of God, and look only within? Answ. As for the Word of God, nor yet the Scriptures-Testimony we neglect not; but what Way, thinkest thou, shall the Delusion be tried, if you neglect the Spirit within, and look only upon the Letter, and Words without you? If the Delufion be ftrong in the Heart, will it not twine and wrest the Scriptures without, to cause the Scriptures to seem for it? And suppose a Man be deluded with a Spirit of Delusion, what can help him, but God, whose Spirit searcheh all the deepest things of Satan, and can and doth discover them to those, who love to be undeceived, and are faithful to God, in what they certainly know? And tho' the fame deluding Spirit, who deceived first, may deceive over again, that makes nothing against the Insufficiency of the Spirit to discover the Delusion; but if a Man be deceived either first, or again, he is to blame himself for his Defect, in not being duly watchful and faithful, in what is discovered to him of God truly and certainly. Confider the Tendency of thy Argument, which strikes not only at the Certainty of the Saints Faith now from the Spirit within, and the Affurance of Knowledge therefrom, but also strikes at the very Certainty and Assurance of all the Faith and Knowledge, the holy Prophets and Men of God had from the Spirit within, when Scripture was not: We are in no greater Hazard to be deceived now, than they were then. You that fet up the Scripture, as your only Rule, the many Sects of you, what jangling and contesting C 4 another for his? Which all proceeds from their wandring from the Spirit, that gave forth the Scriptures. And as to fatisfying of others, we refer and recommend them to the same Spirit in them, to receive their Satisfaction from that, which only can and will satisfy them, who wait for it in Singleness.

Page 18. And whereas thou fayst, The Saints are led and guided by the Spirit, but it is according to the Scriptures. So say we too; but it doth not therefore follow, that the Spirit hath so tyed and limited himself to the Use of the Scriptures, as always to use them in every particular Step of his Guiding the Saints; the Spirit is free to use or not use the Scriptures at his Pleasure, and guideth the Saints in many particular Steps of their Life, for which there is no particular Scripture, either to approve, or disprove them in. As for the more the more sure Word of Prophecy, we grant it is the

The more the more sure Word of Prophecy, we grant it is the fire Word. Rule; but deny that that more sure Word is the Scriptures, but it is that Word in the Heart, from which the Scriptures came, and in and by which the Scriptures are to be interpreted. And is it not gross Blindness and Darkness, to say, The Scripture is more fure, than that Word, Light, Life and Spirit, from which they came? Had not the Scriptures all their Sureness from the inward Testimony of the Spirit? How then can they be more fure? Thy Example of the Schoolmafter and the Copy ferves not thy turn; for the Spirit is unto the Saints both their Teacher and their Copy; and they need not go forth for a Copy: And if they walk according to this, by looking upon it and eying it, they shall be good Scholars and Proficients. He writes them a living Copy in their Hearts, engraves it on fleshly Tables; whereas they who look upon no other Copy, but the Words without them, are those, who are ever learning, bus. hut never able to come to the Knowledge of the 1670.

Page 19. Thou askest, Why we disjoyn the Spirit and the Scriptures? citing Isaiab 50. 21. Answ. We are not to disjoyn what the Lord putteth together; fometimes the Spirit joineth or concureth with the Scripture-Words, and sometimes not: How many preach and pray, and read the Scriptures, and talk of them without the joint Concurrence of the Spirit? Which we fay, they ought not to do, the Scriptures should never be used to preach and pray, &c. but in the Concurrence and Assistance of the Spirit; for they are not of true Use to any, without the Spirit, but ye disjoin them, who would have Praying in the Letter, and using of it without the Motion of the Spirit. To fuch the Scripture is indeed but a dead Letter, and it is no ways a Reproach unto them, to be fo called. Yea, what are the best of Men without the Spirit, but dead Men? And this is not a Reproach to them, but their Glory; fo, nor is it to Scripture.

Thou fayst, They are said to be a killing Letter, and this shews, that they are not dead. Answ, A poor Argument indeed! Cannot dead things kill, the Letter if Men feed upon them? If thou feedest upon killeth. Sand, Gravel, Stones, Shells, will not these things kill thee, though they be dead? And if thou feedest upon the Letter without thee, and not upon the Life, thou canst not live: Yea, if one that lived, did depart from feeding upon the Life, to feed upon the Letter, it would kill him. And as for that Scripture, cited by thee, it makes very much against thee, to wit, Isaiah 59. 21. For it is one thing, for God toput Words into Men's Mouths, and far another, for Men to gather those Words from that without, and put them into their own Mouths; nor doth it say, that the Words God shall put into their Mouths Isaiah 1928

1670. shall be no other Words, more or less, but the express Scripture Words. Why art thou not assumed to cite this Scripture? Do ye not say, Tospeak, as the Infallible Spirit gives Utterance, is ceased? And consequently, God's putting Words into the Mouth, God's furnishing them with Words suggested from his own Spirit and Life, which the Holy Prophets and Apostles witnessed to speak as moved by the Holy Ghost, Do ye not say, this is ceased? Why then cited thou a Scripture, which is so plain and clear for it? But that thou art in Blindness and Confusion.

Page 19. In thy Procedure upon the Point of Justification, thou makest a large Step in that crooked Path of Deceit, wherein thou hadft too much traced from the Beginning; but now more abundantly than ever, thou displayes the Banner of thy Dif-ingenuity, and gatherest all thy Forces together, it should seem resolving, to give the Quakers a final Overthrow. And to make the Matter misty in the very Entry of it, thou raisest Dust to thy self, venting thy own filthy Imaginations under the Notion of coming from them, applauding thy Endeavours, as if thou wert studying to preserve pure the Principle of Fustification, in a Point, where none is jumbling it among us. As thou advancest a little further. (Page 20, 21.) having given a very fcant Account of their Doctrine in this Matter, couching it in most disadvantageous Terms, thou takest great Liberty to extend thy felf in a foolish and vain Excursion, as if, having fathomed the Quakers, thou hadft discovered them to be either turned, or turning rank Papists; therefore to trace thee throughly in this Matter, that if it be possible, thou mayst come to have a Discovery of thy Vanity and Malice, or though thou shouldst prove irrecoverable, yet others may have a View of both; I shall first in Honesty and Plainness declare the Principle Principle of Truth in this Matter, thereby observing thy Mis representations: Secondly shew, what Vast Difference is betwixt Us and the Papists therein: And Thirdly, make manifest, how much nearer of Kin ye are to the Papists, even as to this Particular and the things relating thereunto, than we; which may serve as a seasonable Shower, to allay that windy Triumph, which thou endeavours to establish unto thy self.

As to the First, We are justified by Christ Jesus, both as he appeared and was made manifest in the Flesh at Ferusalem, and also as he is made manifest and revealed in us: And thus we do not divide Christ, nor his Righteousness without, from his Righteousness within, but we do receive and embrace him wholly and undivided, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUS NESS, Jeremiah 23. 6. 1. 30. by which we are both made and accounted Righteous in the Sight of God, and which ought not, nor cannot be divided. And the chrift's Manner and Way, whereby his Righteousness Righteousness ours. and Obedience, Death and Sufferings without, become profitable unto us, and is made ours, is by receiving him, and becoming One with him In our Hearts, embraceing and entertaining that Holy Seed, which as it is embraced and entertained, becometh a Holy Birth In US, which in Scripture is called, Christ Formed Within; Christ within the Hope of Glory, Gal. 4. 19. Colloss. 1. 27. by which the Body of Sin and Death is done away, and we cleanfed, and washed, and purged from our Sins, not imaginarily, but really; and we really and truly made Righteous, and Holy, and Pure in the Sight of God; which Righteousness is properly enough said to be the Righteousness of Christ; for it is immediately from him, and stands in him, and is as unseperable from him, as the Beams are from the Sun; and it is, through the Union betwixt him and us, (his Righ-1670. teous Life, and Nature brought forth In us, and we made one with it, as the Branches are with the Vine) that we have a true Title and Right to what he hath done and Suffered for us: For, being so closly united to Christ, his Righteousness becometh ours, his Obedience ours, his Death and Sufferings ours: Thus we know him and the Power of his Resurrection, and the Fellowship of his Sufferings, being made conformable to his Death. Philip. 3. 10. by which Nearness and Fellowship we come to know an Unity with the Suffering Seed both in our selves and others, and therein to travel for its Raising and Deliverance; which yet no ways derogates from the Worth of the Sacrifice he offered up unto God, without the Gates of Jerusalem, while he humbled himself unto Death, even unto the Death of the Cross, tasting Death for every Man. This is an honest, and plain and true Account of our Belief in this Matter, and is in Substance one and the same with that, which at fundry times thou and thy Brethren haft received from us; notwithstanding the bare, fcanty and dif-ingenuous Account thou givest of us in this Matter.

Secondly, As to the Vast Difference, that lyeth betwixt Us and the Papists, any who are not wilfully blind may see it, who know their Doctrine and ours in this thing.

It is not the Works of Christ wrought in us, thou Christ nor the Works which we work in his Spirit and is our Justi-Power, that we rest and rely upon, as the Ground and Foundation of our fustification; but it is Christ himself, the Worker revealed in us, indwelling in us, his Life and Spirit covering us, that is the Ground of our Justification; and we seeling our selves in him, feeling him in us, and his Spirit, his Life covering us, we seel our fustification and Peace with God in him and through him, the alone Mediator betwixt God and Man.

Now.

Now, this Manner of Justification by the In- 1670. Dwelling of Christ in the Saints, and of his Spirit, is not held by the Papifts, but is expresly denied by them, and disputed against particularly by Bellarmine: And Christ Jesus himself is both first and last our Justification and Foundation of it. And as to being justified by Works, the Scripture is plain for it, and so we may not deny it, but plead for it, acording to the true Sense and Mind of the Spirit, as we are taught of him. But to be justified by him, is more than to be justified by works Works; and therefore are we justified in our wrought is Works, which we work in him, and because the Lord accepteth and justifieth us in him; therefore he accepteth and justifieth our Works wrought in him, and accepteth and justifieth us in Relation to these Works. And though it hath been said by us, that good Works, which are wrought in Christ, and are rather bis than ours, are Meritorious, yet we understand it not any other ways than thus; That all their Merit or Worth is from Christ. And feeing, they are faid in Scripture to have their Reward, and Reward and Merit are Relative Terms, inferring one another; in that Sense, wherein they are faid to be Rewarded, they may also be said to be Meritorious; which yet hinders not the Freedom of God's Grace in Justification: For we do verily believe and confess, that both the Works and the Reward are of the Free-Grace of God, and that the Lord giveth us all things not of Debt, or as being in our Debt, but of Free Gift; and his infinite Goodness and Wisdom hath seen it meet to promise a Reward to good Works, and so he doth reward them; because of his Goodness and Faithfulness, and not because he is addebted to any of us, otherwise than as he hath bound himself by his Promise. And this is contrary to that false Popish Dostrine, which affirms, That Men deserve a Reward from God for good Works.

1670. Works, upon the Account of strict Justice, without Respect to the Promise. And if it be anfwered, That all Papists do not say so, but are more moderate: Well then, I say, if some of them be moderate, and pass from the erroneous Opinion of Popery, and speak that which is true. if othersspeak what is true also in that Particular. should the Truth be accus'd and condemn'd for rank Popery, because, some Papists at times confess to it? You your felves know, that Papifts contradist one another in diversthings, and where Men directly contradict one another, one of the Sides must speak true: But as to that, wherein the Justification stands, and on which it is grounded. to wit, Christ himself as in-dwelling in the Saints none of all the Papists, for ought we ever heard, or read, do own it, but are against it. Again, As to the Works by which the Papists seek to be justified, they are such, as we believe none can be justified by, viz. their outward Observations, their Invocation of Saints, bowing to Images, faying Ave Maries, telling their Beads, their Pilgrimages, their Whipping themselves, their keeping Lent, and many other fuch like Works of voluntary Humility, by which they feek to be justified, though they are evil Works, as not done in the Faith and Power of God. Nor does it ferve thy turn to fay, That Papists think not, that Works considered as Evil and Sinful, are sufficient to justify them: for that is not the Question, Whether the Papists think to be justified by Works Sinful and Evil; but this is the Question, Whether the Papists think to be justified by Works. which are really Sinful and Evil, (however they may imagine them to be Good?) And herein, I say, we differ vastly from Papists; they think and seek to be justified by fuch Works, as are Evil in the Sight of God; whereas we believe, that by no such Works can any Man be justified. Other

weighty Differences could be shewed in Relation 1670. to this Matter, but what is here in short declared, may suffice to evince, that we differ widely from the Papists concerning Justification.

Thirdly. Look how near a Kin ye are to Papists, as in many other things, so in these relating to Justification. First, Do ye not say, That ye are not justified by Christ in-dwelling in you? So say the Papists. Secondly, Do ye not say, That the Way to attain to a State of Justification, is not by believing in the Word of Faith, which is in every Man, and in the Light wherewith Christ has enlightned every Man, that comes into the World? And so say the Papists: Who though they talk of Universal Grace, yet they deny, that this Universal Grace is an Evangelical Principle of Light, by believing in which Men can attain to a State of Justification immediately, Thrirdly, Do ye not say, That God's Act of Justification is not an immediate Testimony of his Spirit, declaring or pro-noucning Men Righteous? And so say the Papists. Fourthly, Do ye not fay, That Men are not to know their Justification, or that they are in a justified State, by an immediate Testimony of the Spirit in them by way of Object; for this were to affert immeate Revelation? So do the Papists: So by these few Instances given here, and by many other Instances given by others in other Particulars, try your selves, and first clear your selves of Popery before you or thou dost throw it upon us.

Now whereas thou alledgeft, That the Apostle in the Matter of Justification excludes all Works, e-ven those of Christ his working in the Saints, and which they work in him: 'Tisfalse; nor do the Scriptures, cited by thee, prove thy Intent, as Rom. 3. 20. Gal. 2. 16. Tit. 3. 5. thou fayst, The Apostle speaks of Works in General, without any Limitation: But herein thou contradictest works of the very express Scriptures cited by thee; for of the Sprin.

all these Scriptures speak of Works with a Limiration, as Rom. 3. 20. By the Deeds of the Law there shall no Flesh be justified; and Gal. 2. 16. Knowing, that a Man is not justified by the Works of the Law. Here the Works of the Law are excluded, but not the Works of Christ in us, which are not of the Law; for the Law or first Covenant was weak, and gave not Strength to them, who were under it, to fulfil Righteousness; but these who are in Christ Jesus, witnessed the Righteousness of the Law sulfilled in them, who walk not after the Fiesh, but after the Spirit. And as for that other Scripture, Tit. 3. 5. though it exclude Works of Men's doing, as of themselves; yet it excludes not all Works, nor inward Righteousness of Christ, but expresly includes it: According to his Mercy he faved us by the washing of Regeneration, and Renewing of the Holy Ghoft. Thou couldst not have brought a more plain Proof against thy self; for thou citest this Scripture as holding forth Justification. Now the A. postle faith, He faved us according to his Mercy by the Washing of Regeneration and the Renewing of the holy Ghost; and is not the Washing of Regeneration and Renewing of the Holy Ghost a Work, which comprehends many particular Works of the Spirit of Christ in the Saints? And is not Regeneration and the Renewing of the holy Ghost a Righteousness wrought in us? How is it then, that thou art not ashamed to charge us with Rank Popery, for faying, We are justified by a Righteousness wrought in us; seeing the very Scripture cited by thee is expresly for it? May we not pertinently return these Words upon thee, which thou mis appliest to us? Oh! tell it not in Gath, publish it not in the Streets of Askelon, &c. That a Man, who pretends to Teach others a-right in the Matter of Justification, hath so confounded himself, that to prove that fustification is not by a Righteousness wrought within, brings brings a Scripture which speaks expresly of Righ- 1670. teoulness within, to wit, that of Regeneration and Renovation, by which we are faved. And if any should say, The Words do not say, We are justified by the Washing of Regeneration and Renewing of the Holy Ghost; but we are Saved thereby, as intending Sansification, and not Justification. I Answer, This helps not the Author out of the Ditch; for he brings this Scripture forth applying it to the Matter of Justification. But again, It these Words exclude all Works gemerally, and without any Limitation, then they exclude all Works, which are wrought by the Spirit of Christ, from Sanctification; as if Men were sanctified by no Works of the Spirit of Christ within them. Or if it be said, that Works sanctificantof our own doing Self-Righteousness, are only ex- on by the cluded from having Place in our Sanctification, the Sprit. but not the Workswrought in and by the Spirit of Christ; then I say, Why may not the same Di-stinction have place in all these other Scriptures, which fay, We are not justified by Works, &c. And indeed, in all these Scriptures it holds true no lefs concerning Sanctification than concerning Justification: As thus, By the Deeds of the Law there shall no Flesh be sandified, knowing, that a Man is not fantified by the Works of the Law, &c. But it were vain to infer from this, that Men are fanctified by no Works of Righteousness wrought in them by the Spirit of Christ. Therefore it is as vain to infer that Men are justified by no Works of Righteousness, wrought in them by his Spirit. Page 22. Thou fayft, We can shift off Popery with this, that they are not our Good Works, which deserve and merit Justification, but the good Works of Christ's working in us. Yea, I say, we do justly cast off the Accusation of Popery, as having the express Testimony of Scripture, that we are justified by Works, to wit, such as are wrought

1670. in Christ, and by him in us James 2. 24. Tou fee withen, that a Man is justified by Works, and net by Faith only: Compared with Tit. 2. 5. before-mentioned. And as for the Papists Works, by which they feek to be justified, we do not acknowledge them to be fuch Works, as whereby or wherein any can be justified.

And whereas thou pleadest, That the good Works of Christ's working in us, are ours; citing Isai. 26.12. Matth. 5.16. &c. We grant it, but they are not ours in that Signification: as where it is faid, He that is entered into his Rest, bath ceased what Works from his own Works, Heb. 4. 10. There are Works which are so ours, that they are not the Works of the fanctifying, renewing Spirit of Christ in us; and fuch are Works both of open Unrighteoufness, and of self-feigned Righteousness, which has no better Root to bring them forth, than Man's own Will and Spirit: And by fuch Works we deny to be justified; yea, we deny all such Works, and the Justification by them, and defire to fland in a continual Denval unto them, and Forbearance from them. But again, there are fuch Works, which are fo ours that they are Christ's also, who works them in us, and by us, and are ours by his Free Grace; and by fuch Works, we affirm, Men are justified.

Page 23. Thou pleadest, That Men cannot be justified by any Works of Christ's working in them, because they are imperfect. And for their Imperfection, thou instancest, 1. Faith; because it is faid, O ye of little Faith, why doubt ye? Answ. True Faith. By this thou may'ft as well exclude Faith from Justification every way, as Works, if it were granted, that their Faith was imperfect; but that Scripture, nor no other, speaks not of imperfect Faith, but of little Faith. Now little Faith is perfect in the Measure of it, as a little Gold is perfett Gold. And though the Disciples had doubting, yet the Faith was not the doubting, nor was it made impure by it; for the least Measure of true Faith can never be defiled, otherwise it could not purify the Heart; it is like the Fire, which cannot be defiled with the Impurities of those things it works upon. And as for the Disciples at that time, as they were in part justified, or approved by the Lord in Relation to their Faith, so were they reproved, and not justified of him in Relation unto, or because of their doubting. But this Scripture, nor none other, proves not, that Faith was or is always accompanied with Doubting: Abraham believed God's Promise without doubting, and was strong in the Faith, giving Glory to God, and it was imputed unto him for Righteousness, Rom. 4. 20, 21, 22. And, said James, His Faith was perfetted by Works, Chap. 2. 22. For that which is perfect in a less Measure, can be further perfected in a greater. Secondly, Thou pleadest, that Knowledge is imperfect, because the Apostle saith, We know but in Part, I Cor. 13.9. But the Apostle does not say, our Knowledge is imperfect, or impure: We may know a thing in part, and yet that which we know of it, we may know perfectly. Thirdly, Thou pleadest for the Imperfection and Uncleanness of the Saints Obedience, from Eccles. 7. But that Place it not to be understood concerning all Men in all States and Times. There is an earthly, unrenewed State, and while Men are here, there is not a just Man among them, as Rom. 2. ver. 10. There is none righteous, no not one: And there is an heavenly renewed State, wherein a Man is born of God, and sinneth not, John 3. Verse 9. And faid the Apostle, Let no Man deceive you, he that doth Righteousness, is righteous; which imports, that there are righteous Men, who do Good. And, faid the Lord to the Servants that used their Talents, Well done, good and faithful Servant, 1670. Matth. 25. vers. 21, 23. And that other Scrip-Vture thou citeft, Ifai. 64. 6. ferves nothing thy self-Righte-turn: For the Prophet faith not, All our Righteoutness as sulfness, which is of thy working in us, who are Saints, is as filthy Rags; but Allour Righteousness, which we, even the best of the Saints, can perform of and from our sclves, are as filthy Rags; Man's best Works, his best Righteousness, which is of and from himself, is Filthiness and Unrighteousness before God, and he is to cease from all his own Works, Heb. 4. verf. 10. And it is plain, that when the Prophet in that Place faith, We are all as unclean, and there is none that calleth upon thy Name; He does understand the Multitude of the Jews, who generally were a carnal People, and relied upon their outward Observations, and did not Worship God in Spirit and in Truth; but did not understand it of all and every one among them: For he himfelf did call upon his Name. And that the Saints were washed and cleansed, see 1 Cor. 6.11. But ye are washed, are fantlified, are justified in the Name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God: And John 15. 2. Now we are clean through the Word, which I have spoken to you: And Ezek. 37. 33. At which time I shall cleanse you from all your Iniquities; I shall also cause the Cities to be inhabited: Which imports a Time upon Earth, wherein they should be made clean from all their Iniquities. And how! Art not thou and you ashamed to affirm, That the best Works of the Spirit of Christ in his Saints are as a filthy Rags? Does not the Apostle fay, That a meek and quiet Spirit is an Ornament, which is of a great Price even in the Sight of God ? How then can it be a filthy or menstruous Rag? A filthy and menstruous Rag is good for nothing, but must be thrown away upon all Accounts; and if that Holiness, and Righteousness and Meekness, which is of Christ his working in Men, be as filthy Rags, then according to your Doctrine, Men 1670. Should throw them away, as being not only unprofitable to fuffication, but to any other Use? Yea, a filthy and menstruous Rag Men do hide from the Sight of another, and do never wear it as an Ornament; whereas the Saints put on the meek, and quiet, and sober, and righteous Spirit, as an Ornament of great Price, not only in the

of Christ in the Saints are defiled and imperfect, because the Saints, who are subservient and instrumental in them, are unclean; and who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? Job 14.4. Answ. It is granted, that the Saints are subordinate Coworkers with Christ; but yet it follows not, that his Works in them, and by them are defiled. And though it is said, Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? This hinders not, but that the The Lord Lord can and doth make clean those, who have the uncean. been unclean; and so out of them, who are made clean, bring forth clean things. And though every one, in whom the Work of Santlification is begun, be not wholly cleanfed, but that there may be an unclean Part in them for a time; yet there is also a clean Part in them, who are in the least Measure sanctified: And so these, who work with the Spirit of Christ, work with him according to this clean Part; and it is the clean Part in them, which he maketh use of, as his Instrument. And as for the unclean Part, it is not to work with Christ, but to be chained down, and fetter. ed and bound up from working, to the end it may be wrought upon, that it may be cleanfed. And thus by Degrees the clean Part increaseth, and the unclean is diminished, till all the Uncleanness be wrought out. And where the unclean Part is let loofe to work, the pure Spirit of Christ

doth never join in working with it, but judgeth

and reproveth it; and therefore in fo far as the wunclean Part worketh in any, that Man, in whom it worketh, is not throughly justified and approved by the Lord: but there are, who witness the Cleanfing from all Uncleanness; and so as clean Veffels and Instruments throughout, bring forth clean things, clean Works.

Thy Example, how that clean Water passing through an unclean Pipe, receives a Tinsture of Un. The spiritu- cleanness, hits not the Case: For the Spiritual al water is Water is not like the common, gross, outward undefilable. Water, which an unclean Pipe can defile; but like the Fire and the Light, which though it touch unclean things, cannot be defiled by them. Every thing of the Spirit is undefilable, as the Spirit is, which no unclean thing can defile : And if thou wert well skilled in the outward Creation. thou might'ft find an outward Water fo pure, that passing through an unclean Pipe, shall not be defiled with it. But if thou knowest not these earthly things, and believest them not, as Christ faid, John 3. 12. How shalt thou believe, if we tell

A twofold Justification.

Page 25. Thou chargeft us with Erring grievously, in consounding Justification and Santtification. Answ, Justification is either taken for God his adjudging a Man, unto Eternal Life, and in that Sence it is not to be confounded with Sanctifica. tion; yet it is not to be separated there-from: for God adjudgeth no Man, but the Santlified, unto Eternal Life or Happiness. Or it is taken for the making a Man righteous; and then it is all one with Sanclification. And that thou fay'ft, The Word is most frequently used in Scripture in that Sence of adjudging, being opposed to Condemnation, Doth imply, thou hast not the Confidence to affert, That it is always fo used, as indeed it is not.

And

And whereas thou citest Philip. 3. 9. to prove, 1670. That the choicest Saints upon Earth have disclaimed all Righteousness wrought in them, by which they could be justified : I fay, that Scripture proves no fuch thing, and thy Observation to prove it is insufficient; to wit, that the Apostle doth not speak of his Righteousness, whilst he was a Pharifee, for that he disowned, ver. 6, 7. for admitting it, yet he was still to deny and disown the Work and Righteousness, which could proceed from his own Will and Spirit; even all the Willings and Runnings, which can arise from a Man's self-Rightefelf, though he be a Saint, without the immedie watched aate Operation of the Spirit of Christ, the Saints gaintt. have this to watch against, to keep down the active and working Self-will, and stop it from working the Self-Righteousness; which if it be not watched against, and stood against, will fall a working its Righteousnels, which God accepts not, as being but the bare Righteousness of Man; And this is that Righteousness which Paul denied to have, which he even calleth the Righteou[ne]s of the Law; but this, (which is of the Law) thou cunningly omittest, because it made against thee, it seems. Now what that Righteousness of God through Faith was, which he defires to have, he plainly expresseth, vers. 10. That he might know bim, and the Power of his Resurrection, and the Fellowship of his Sufferings, in being made conformable unto bis Death.

Now, is not the Knowledge of him, and the Power of his Resurrection, a Work of the Spirit of Christ in the Saints, by which they are justified? According to that, By his Knowledge shall my righteous Servant justify many? And is not the Fellowship of his Suffering, or the Suffering with him, a Work of his Spirit? And lastly, Is not the Conformity unto his Death a Work of his

1670. Spirit in the Saints, comprehending the whole

Work of Mortification?

Page 26. Thy last Argument from 2 Cor. 5. 21. is most absurd and impious, for accordingly it would follow, that as Christ was made Sin for us, or suffered for our Sins, who himself had no Sin, no, not in the least; So we may be made righteous before God, tho' we have no Righteousness, no Holiness, no Faith, no Repentance, no Mortification, no good Thing wrought in us. And doth not this strengthen the Wicked, Ungodly and Profane in their Presumption, to have Title to Christ's Righteousness? And so, to return thy mis-applied Instance in another Case; Suppose, some of the Prophane, who plead a Right to Christ's Righteoulnels, having lost some of their Number, should happen to hear thee disputing against all Good Works, as being profitable to Justification, might they not fay concerning thee and thy Brethren, who teach such Doctrine, We have not only got the lost Sheep, but the lost Shepherds, and the chiefest of them too on our Side, let us rejoyce, we have found them! We find, the Apostle makes a far better Inserence from Christ his dying for us,

2 Cor. 6. 15. He died for all, that they who live, might not any longer live to themselves, but to God; yea, and every where he holdeth forth Inward Holiness and Righteousness, as that without which no Man can lay claim to Christ: If any Man be in Christ, he is a New Creature; but he doth not fay, God reputes him a New Creature, though he be not really renewed. And though it be faid, that we are made righteous in bim; this hinders not (as thou vainly inferrest) That we are not made righteous by an inward Righteousness: For

he is in the Saints, and fulfils the Righteoufness The Rightes of the Law in them; That the Righteousness of the Law might be fulfilled in us, Rom. 8. 4. Therefiled in us, fore that 2 Cor. 5. 21. is thus to be understood, that Jesus Christ, who knew no Sin, was made to 1670. be Sin for us, that is, suffered for our Sins, that we, who had really finned, and fo deferved Wrath, might partake of the Love and Grace by him. and through the Workings thereof be made the Righteousness of God in him. For that the Apofile understood here a really being made righteous, . and not a being esteemed or held as righteous. while indeed impure, is very evident by the whole following Chapter, but especially towards the End; What Fellowship bath Righteousness with Unrighteousness? Wherefore come out from among them, touch not the unclean thing, be ye separate, and I will receive you, and ye shall be unto me for Sons and Daughters.

Now to be received of the Lord, is to be justified of him; and here we see plainly, that in order thereunto there is required a Righteousness. by which they must be separated from the Evil and Unclean, and must not touch it.

And whereas thou fay ft, That the holiest Actions of the Saints, because of the Sinfulness of these Actions, deserve Condemnation. I ask thee, Whether did the Apostles sin in writing the Scrip. Then writing the Scriptures, in Preaching Christ, and Gathering the tures was Sin Churches? Whether their being the Instruments in the holy made these things finful, which were done not according to only by the Command, but by the Power and W. M's Po-Virtue of Christ in them? And seeing thou canst not deny, but the Scriptures (called by thee the Word of God) were brought forth by the Holy Spirit in the holy Men of God, and did flow as Waters from the Spirit of God, which gave them forth, through the very first Penmen of them, because of the Uncleanness which thou supposest to have been in them? If thou fay'ft, Nay, thou contradictest thy former Instance of Clean Water, receiving a Tincture of Uncleanness from the unclean Pipe, through which it passeth: If thou fay'ft, filed and corrupted by the Pen-men of them, I leave it to all of any found Judgment, whether you or we be most Esteemers of the Scriptures, We, who say, They were Words pure as Gold, without any Tincture of Uncleanness or Corruption, as they came forth from the Spirit of God through the Penmen of them: Or Tou, if you say, That they were defiled with the Uncleanness of the Men, through which they were given forth? He who has any true Understanding, let him judge con-

Page 26. Thou blamest it, as an unsuitable thing for a Quaker to flay, That that People, to whom he is joined, are the most Christ-like Christians this Day upon the Earth: And yet will any of you fay less of your Way? For if yours be not the best Way, why do you plead so much for it? Why do ye preach it up? Why do you study to draw People to it, and complain of those who have left it? Now is not a good Principle a ready Way to lead People to good Practices? And are not these who are in the right Way, of the Flock of Christ? And is not Christ's Flock like unto him? Can it therefore be an unsutable thing for one, who supposeth himself to be of Christ's Flock, to fay, The Flock, with whom he is, is likest to Christ? Will any of you say less, except ye grant your selves not to be of Christ's Flock? We are not the most Christ-like People, say'st thou, by what we outwardly appear, because the Monks and Heremits therein excel us; nor yet by what we inwardly feel, because others different from us have felt as much.

As to the First, thou hast shewed thy Ignorance of the very Appearance of Christianity: for the Appearance of Christianity is not in sleeing the Society of Men, or retiring the outward Man, making Vows of voluntary Poverty; for any one, that hath the least Knowledge in true Mor. 1670. tification, may know, that where a Man's Meat and Provision is laid up for him, and that there is no Care of these things lying upon the Mind. but a full Liberty to live in Idleness (which is the Monks Case) it is an easy thing, in Self Will to take on a demure Deportment, or to wear Haircloth, or go barefoot; which by Custom becomes familiar. And truly, many of the Commons in Scotland are used to greater Hardships, than all that, and yet are far from having the Appearance of Christianity. But the Matter is, for Peoto be conversant in this World, to have their Occasions and Business in it, and to have Dealing with the Spirit of it, and yet to keep to the meek, lowly, fimple Appearance, using it as if they were not using it, by keeping out of its Spirit and Way in all Manner of Conversation: This is to be like unto Christ, who did not retire himself unto an Heremits Lodge, but conversed among Publicans and Sinners. Now let Your Flocks and the Quakers be compared together in this Particular, and let the Light in all Consciences judge, who are likest to Christ.

Secondly, To evidence, that some different from us have had as much Inward Feeling, thou fay'ft, Thou canst tell us of some, who have had so much of the Fear and Dread of God upon their Hearts, that they durst not adventure upon Sin. By this thou feemest to grant, that there are inward Feelings and Enjoyments among the Quakers, faying, What Good is it, that you truly feel that Persons different from you have not felt? And how doth this confift with your judging the Quakers fallen into Apostacy and Delusion of the Devil, and that they are possessed with the Devil? Can fuch have inward Feelings and Enjoyments of God? For my Part I am glad to hear, that any fuch have been, who have bad so much of the Fear and Dread 1670. Dread of God upon their Hearts, that they durst net adventure upon Sin; and I should be glad, and fo I know, would any of the Quakers be glad to meet with them. But now fuch, who have so much of the Fear of God upon their Hearts, that they durst not adventure upon Sin, would they not love to be perfect? Would they dispute against Perfection, and conclude it impossible? Would fuch, who dare not fin for a World, fin e. very Day, yea, every Moment, as you fay ye do? If they dare not fin, would they not refrain from Sin, and cease from it? And would they make use of that poor Evasion, which thou addest, that therefore they would not willingly fin for a World? As long as the Dread and Fear of God remains and stands over the Heart, Sin is shut out, and the Mind's Will is to fear God, and not to fin.

Thou canst tell us of others (thou say'st) who many Years lived in the sweet Sense of God's Favour, and have gone most triumphantly out of the World, with strong Perswasions of their Eternal Well-being. But would such have pleaded for Continuance in Sin? Doth not Continuance in Sin eclipse and take away the Sense of God's Favour? And further, would fuch have denied Fellowship

Immediate the Spirit.

Teachings of with God by immediate Revelation, as you do? Would they have denied the immediate Teach. ings of the Spirit, as you do? Do not some now living remember some of them, who had these Feelings, and did bear an express Testimony to the immediate Teachings of the Spirit, and immediate Fellowship with God, and plainly declared, That no Preaching was profitable, but that which came immediately from the Spirit? And found fault with the Ministers, that they preached from their Study and their Books, and wished them to put away or burn their Books, for that they were a Hurt to them? And some of those saw over and beyond, and unto the End of your so called 1670. Ordinance of outward Bread and Wine, and faid plainly, It was but a Shadow or Figure, and that Bread and those who witnessed the Substance, had no need of Wine. the other. And though those and some others, who witnessed fuch inward Feelings and Enjoyments of God, who were not called Quakers, nor had their Understandings so clearly opened as to many things, as the People called Quakers have; yet with the same Life in some Measure they have been acquainted, which is the Quakers Way, even Jesus Christ, who is the Way, the Truth and the Life. And fo as to those Examples thou giveft, which were witneffed (thou fay ft) some Twenty Tears ago, We deny not, but that the Lord did appear, and was near the Simple-hearted in Former Peels that Day: And fome who are now among the ings and En-Quakers, remember that Day, and have a Share in those Feelings and Enjoyments, which are now; and in the Experience and Enjoyment of them. can bear a true Testimony, that the Feelings and Enjoyments of this Day, unto those who follow the Lord in his Leadings, do far exceed, what was in that Day. And now the Sun is fet upon that Day; for the Lord is calling his People further: And those among us, who had those former Feelings, can witness, that while they would have been tasting of that Sweetness, and remained still with you, the Lord would not; but suffered Driness and Barrenness to come over them: And that which some time had been as a fruitful Field, to become a barren Wilderness, till they faw, that they were not to limit him to invented Forms, but were to forfake those things in his Will, in which through his Indulgence and Compassion he had sometimes appeared unto them, and to be found following the Footsteps of the Flock whom he is leading on to a further State, in which they find the Lord appearing more glorioully 1670. ously than ever, to their Resreshment: Glory to Him for evermore! But with you it is otherwise: For who among you witness these things at this Day? Yea, some of you are so ingenuous, as to confess, That ye find not these things now; and that this is a cloudy and gloomy Day; and it shall certainly so continue unto you, until ye come, and walk with us in the Light of the Lord. But because ye will not, but will confine the Lord in these Forms, whereunto ye have devoted your selves; therefore is Darkness over you, and your Prayers are become dry and barren, and full of Complaints of an Absent God. And what inward Joy from God any have felt among you, we cannot impute it to your Way, more than what some have felt of Refreshment in some other Professions and Forms, can be imputed to their Way.

Page 30. Thou fay'st, It is known, that we are Enemies to Singing of Pfalms, Baptism and the Baptism and Lord's Supper; And because we say, that we are the Lord's not against these things of Supper.

dis-ingenuous, or fuch as seek to delude People: Which Challenge is false, and a Calumny. For we do indeed own these things in the true Acceptation and meaning of them, and in the Substance and Reality; and if we do fo, are we difingenuous and deceitful, because we deny them in your The Shadow Acceptation, which only comprehends the Sha-for the Sub- dow, that passeth away? If Baptism, which is flance comprehended really and truly the Baptism of Christ, we own, by Professors and Participation of the Body and Blood of Christ, which is really so: I say, if these things be really owned by us, as they are indeed, can we be faid to deny them, because we use not the Shadow, as ye do, while ye are ignorant of, and Strangers to the Substance? Nay, it may be retorted much more properly, and without Deceit upon your selves, that ye do but pretendly in Words

Words own these things, while indeed ye deny them. So that herein ye are found to be the Equivocators, who are contending for the Husk, and will needs have it accounted the Kernel: and there can be no Error more dangerous, than to place the Shadow for the Substance; for such as fo do, are those that trample upon the precious Ordinances of Jesus Christ, in which the Work of Grace is begun and increased.

Page 32. To prove thy Affertions particularly singing of thou beginnest saying, That Singing of Psaims is psaims, as used by the an Ordinance of Jesus Christ; Whereby if thou saints allowunderstandest, that Singing of Psalms was used ed. by the Saints, that it is a Part of God's Worship when performed in his Will, and by his Spirit, and that yet it may be, and is warrantably per-formed among the Saints, it is a thing denied by no Quaker (so called) and it is not unusual among them; whereof I have my felf been a Witness, and have felt of the Sweetness and quickning Virtue of the Spirit therein, and at fuch Occasions ministred. And that at times David's Words may also be used, as the Spirit leads thereunto, and as they fute the Condition of the Party, is acknowledged without Dispute: but that without the Spirit in Self-will, not regarding how the thing futes their Condition, for a mixt Multitude to use and sing the Expressions of blesfed David, we deny. For that was not the Method the Apostle spoke of 1 Cor. 14. 15. when he said, I will sing with the Spirit, and I will sing with the Understanding also. Therefore, though Singing of Pfalms in the true Use of them be allowable; yet as used by you, it is abominable, and is a Mock Worship; because ye cannot deny, but that the Persons using it are a mixt Multitude, known to be Drunkards, Swearers, Whoremongers, &c. Now such cannot praise God, for they are The Dead dead in their Sins; and it is the Living that cannot praise praise 1670. praise him, and not the Dead. Next, All Lying is Abomination: but many times it falls out, that by Singing of Pfalms the People come to lye in the Presence of God, instead of worshipping him, by faying, I am not puft up in Mind, I have no deceitful Heart, I water my Couch with Tears; and much more of this Nature, which were the particular Experiences of David, and may be fafely faid by those that witness the same thing: but as to you that use them, are false and untrue. I fay, as thou dost, That though every Pfalm does not fute our Condition, yet in every Pfalm there may be Meditation for Edification. But this no ways meets the Case; for there is a great Difference betwixt meditating upon a Pfalm, and finging one, whereby we apply our felves to the Lord in the Words of David; which unless they fuit our Condition, cannot be done without a Lye.

Page 33 and 34. Thou comest to prove, That Baptism with Water is an Ordinance of Jesus Christ; for which thou givest as a Reason; First, Because John baptized with Water, and was really sent of God; which thing is not denied, because John's Baptism was a Baptism with Water: But that that was the Baptism, which was to continue, is the Matter in Question. To prove which thou bringest in thy

Second Reason, That the Baptism of Christ and the Baptism of John differed only in Circumstance, and not in Substance, because they agree in the Author, in the Matter, and in the End. To which

I Answer, That though they agreed in the Author, that will not conclude them to be one; because by the same Reason it might be said, that the Old Testament and the New are one, or that Circumcision and Baptism are one, for that God was the Author of both. As to the Matter, they are not one neither; for the one was a Baptism with Water, and the other a Baptism with the Spirit and with Fire, as John himself distinguish- 1670. eth them, Mark 1.8. Now in respect Baptism with Water can be administred, where the other The Baptisia (to wit, with the Spirit) is not, therefore they of John and are not one in Substance. They also agree not differ as the in the End; for the End of the one, to wit, Bop-the Shadow and tiss must Water, is but to point or shew forth stance. the other. So that as the Shadow and the Substance differ in their Ends, in like manner do these two: for the End of the Shadow is but to point to the Substance; the End of the Substance in this thing being to cleanse and purify the Heart, producing that Effect to such as it is truly administred unto; but the Shadow is frequently administred, and the Heart not cleansed; therefore they differ in their Ends. Now to shew, that they differ in Substance; it is written, Alts 19. 2, 4, 5. that there were of the Baptism of John, who had not fo much as heard of the Holy Ghost, far less received it: Now had the Baptism of John, and the Baptism of Christ been one, they could not have had the one, and been altogether ignorant of the other.

Spirit

For a Third Reason thou say'st, That Jesus Christ commanded and injoined the Disciples to baptize, and that Baptizing they used Water. But where he commands them to Baptize, (Matth. 28.) there is no Command to baptize them with Water, or into Water, but into the Name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit: So here is the Baptisin into the Spirit, but not into outward Water. And the Apostles were Ministers of the Spirit, and ministred the Spirit unto those who believed: And though they used the Water-Baptism at times, yet it rests to be proved, that they did it in Obedience to that general Command, Math. 28. and not in Condescendence to the People, who had received water-Bap-a great Esteem of John, and were so nursed up tilm used in Condescentiwith outward Ceremonies, that it was hard fud- on to the

Which also serves for Answer to thy Fourth Reafon, where thou instances Peter his baptizing Cornelius, after be received the Spirit; for Peter's Words imply no Command, but only that at that Occasion the thing might be done: Can any Man, faid he, forbid Water, that they may not be baptized? Acis 10. 47. And though it be faid, (Verse 48.) That he commanded them to be baptized in the Name of Christ; yet it holds forth no Command from Christ; only the thing being agreed upon, that it might be done, he did do it. But that the Apostles received no Commission to baptize with Water is clear, from that of Paul, where he faith, I thank God, I baptized none of you, but tism no Com Crispus and Gains, and the Houshold of Stephanus, the Apostles. Ge. For, said he, I was not fent to baptize, but to preach the Gospel, I Cor. 1. 16, 17. Now it is not questioned, but his Commillion was as large. as any of the Reft; for he himself said, that he was not inserior to the chiefest of the Apostles; but that he thereby denied, he was sent to administer the Hely Spirit, which is the Baptism of Christ, is absurd to think.

For a Fisth Reason, thou sayst, It is the Will of Christ, that this Ordinance should continue and abide in the Church; because he promised to be with bis Ministers to the End of the World: To which I Answer, That this Promise related to the Baptism of the Spirit, which is Christ's Baptism, is granted; but that it related to the Baptism of Water, is denied; for he was with Paul, who yet professed, he was not sent to baptize with Wa-And whereas some give their Meaning to Paul his Words, that he was not fent only, or principally to baptize with Water, this is an Addition to the Scripture Words, for which they can shew no sufficient Ground: And if Men will take take a Liberty to add to Scripture-Words from 1 their Spirit, they may wrest the Scriptures to defend the worst of Opinions, as when it is said, Thou shalt not bow down to them, nor Worship them. one was to put this Meaning upon it; Thou shalt not bow down to them, nor Worship them principally; and therefore would aver, that Graven Images may be Worshipped: This were a most perverse abosing of Scripture.

Sixthly, Thou fayft, Thefe who cast off this Ordinence, do what in them lyeth, to rob themselves of all the excellent Ends and Uses of it, which are held forth in these Scripture Expressions. Answ. That fuch who cast of the Baptism of Christ by the. Spirit, may incur that Hazard, it is granted; but that any fuch thing will follow from the not using of Water, is denied, as shall appear by examining the Scriptures cited. The First is, Alls 2. 28. Repent, and be baptized every one of you for the Remission of your Sins. Answ. Here is no Mention made of outward Water; and Repentance and Remission of Sins may be, and are found without it; and where it is, both these are frequently wanting. But though it should be understood of outward Water, it is spoke but to Particulars, and is nouniverfal Command. The Second is, 1 Pet. 3. 21. The like Figure whereunto even Baptism doth also save us: But the very sol water Baptism words do give an Answer to that, and versal comclear the Meaning not to be of Water-Baptism, to Particus faying, Not the putting away the Filth of the Flesh, lars. but the Answer of a good Conscience towards God, by the Resurrection of Jesus Christ. The Third is, Acts 22. 16. Arise and be baptized, and wash away thy Sins. But that a being baptized with Water, is a washing away of Sin, thou canst not from hence prove, feeing the contrary is abundantly witneffed. And suppose Water Baptism were here to be understood; being but spoke to One, it infers no univerfal E 2 universal Command. The Fourth is, Ephes. 5. Verse 26. That he might fanctify and cleanse it with the washing of Water. But by Water cannot here be understood outward Water, but that of the Word and Spirit; for the next Verse speaks of presenting it without Spot or Wrinkle, which the outward Water cannot do: See the like Place, John 3.5. Unless a Man be born of the Water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God. Now, if by Water here were to be understood outward Water, it would infer, that Water-Baptism is absolutely Necessary to Salvation, which thou fayst, thou canst not affirm with Papills. Lastly, thou citest Gal. 2. 7. For as many as have been baptized into Christ, have put on Christ. But Water-Baptisin cannot be here understood, because many, who are baptized with Water, never put on Christ, nor bear his Image, but the Devil's, and are found doing the Devil's Works. So that none of these Scriptures prove the Water-Baptisin to be of continual Necessity in the Church; for it being but a Figure, it was to give Place to that One Baptism, Ephes. 4. 5. And whereas it is faid by fome, That the Water-Baptism and the Baptism by the Spirit is but One; because of that Agreement betwixt the Signification of the Water and the Spirit thereby signified. This is a wresting of this Scripture, as much as if one should fay, That all the Types, Figures and Shadows of the Old-Testament were One with the Substance fignified by them, and confequently, that these Types are all now to be upheld and us'd: Whereas indeed the Coming of the Substance ends the Figures; among which are the divers Baptisms; for so should the Place be translated, Heb. 9 10. which were imposed until the time of Reformation, but are no longer binding, fince the Reformation is come.

Thou endest this Matter with Asserting, That 1670. thou canst safely say, That the Spirit of God con-curring with, and blessing his Ordinance, it is a profitable Means to further our Salvation. But if so be it be no Ordinance of Christ, as heretofore is proved, then we cannot expect, that the Spirit will concur with it; but indeed that he is provoked by it, confidering the Abuses in your Administration of it. As First, in administring it to Infants, for which ye have no Command nor of Infants. Example in Scripture. Next, In causing ignorant People to promise and ingage before God, that the Children shall forfake the Devil, the World and the Flesh, while they themselves be Slaves to all the Three. And many more Abuses; as that whereby ye pretend to Inrol Children, as Members of the Church of God, which is pure and Holy; it being oftentimes an Occasion of Excess and Drunkenness; and is indeed rather like an Inrolling under the Devil's Banner, feeing it is for most Part accompanied with doing his Work. Therefore, it is so far from being hazardous to contemn such an Ordinance of Man, that it cannot be but hurtful to continue in it. In the Third Place, (Page 39.) thou comest to prove, That the Lord's Supper (so called) is an Ordinance of fesus Christ: For which thou bringest as a First Reason, That Jesus Christ was the Author and Ordainer of it: But that proves not,

That it was to be of perpetual Continuance. Nor Supper (fo thy Second Reason; for though the Disciples called) not were bid do it in Remembrance of him; they perpetual. were not bid do it always. Neither will Als 2. Verse 42. (which thou bringest as a Third Proof) ferve thy Turn; for by comparing it with Verse 46. it is evident, that their breaking of Bread was their ordinary Eating; for it is said, They The break-continued daily with one Accord in the Temple, and from House breaking of Bread from House to House, did eat to House.

1670. their Meat with Gladness and Singleness of Heart. So that this was a daily eating from House to House, and not at all fuch an Eating as yours is, which you have but once, or twice or thrice in a Year, or at fuch fet times, as you appoint to your felves; whereas theirs was an Eating from House to House, wherein they received Food sufficient to their bodily Nourishment. Your eating is not fo; you will not have your facramental Bread and Wine (so called) to be used in private Houses or Families, and your Eating is rather a Mock-Eating, wherein you do not eat that which is Tufficient to the bodily Nourishment; as these did (Alls 2. 42. 46.) every one of you taking a little Bread, about the Quantity of a Bean, wherein ye have no Example from the Saints, but rather from the Papists, who have their Wafers. Again, This Eating mentioned, Acts 2. ver. 42, thicgs in Common.

Having all 46. is conjoyned with this, That they sold their Pofselfions, and had all things in Common; and so they did eat together daily in Common, which is not like your Eating. Now if you would make their Example and Practice your Rule, Why do ve not sell your Possessions, as they did, and have things in Common? Also, Why do ye not abstain from eating Blood, and things strangled, as they did? And why do ye not wash one anothers Feet, which they were as folemnly commanded to do, as to take and eat? &c. John 13. 14, 15. If you fay, These things were but to continue for a time: What Ground have ye to affirm, that there were not always to continue: And those of Water-Baptism and breaking Bread were to be always continued.

For a Fourth Reason, thou fayst, Paul recommended the Practice of this to the Church of Corinth, I Cor. 11. 23. Answ. That he recommended it unto them by way of Command, we deny; for he delivered unto them no Command to practice it, but that which he delivered unto 1670. them was the Relation of the Matter of Fall, as what the Lord did in the Night, wherein he was betraved. Thou fayest, The Apostic doth not onlybere relate the Matter of Fast, but likewise warrants the frequent Use of this Ordinance. It is one thing to warrant the Use of it, and far another, to command the Use of it. We do not deny, but the Use of it was lawful and warrantable at that time; but we fav, it was not commanded unto them, but left or permitted to them, as these Words import; As often as ye eat, &c. And again, Let a Man examine himself, and so let him cat. The Words imply no Command, but only that they were in the Use or Practice of it; and being therein, he gives them Direction, how they might use it, so as not to receive Hurt thereby. Now that the Corintbians were weak in many things, and did many things by Permission, is clear by the whole Strain of that Epistle to them. For a Fifth Reason thou sayst, Thou readest not its Abolish-in Scripture, where Christ and his Apostles did abo-ing lish it. Answ. If it were so, that then there was no absolute Need; for the very Institution inti-mates the abolishing thereof at Christ his coming, as to any Necessity by way of Command; tho afterwards it might have been used by way of Permission, being gradually to pass away as did other things. For Circumcision was abolished by the Coming of Christ; yet it was used after his Coming, together with divers other Jewish Ceremonies. But as concerning the Abolishing or Ending of it, see 1 Cor. 10. 15, 16, 17. I speak as unto wife Men, judge ye what I fay; the Cup of Blessing, which we bless, is it not the Communion of the Blood of Christ? The Bread, which we break, is it not the Communion of the Body of Christ? And then he proceeds to shew, what that Bread 1670. was: For (faith he) we being many, are one Bread. Now what is that one Bread? Is it the Outward, Bread, not many.

The One-or is it the inward and Spiritual? If it be the outward, then there is no inward and Spiritual Bread: Or if it be the inward and Spiritual, which is that One Bread, then that outward Bread (as being but a Figure) is ceased from being of Use, as to any Necessity. And this he spoke unto the Wife, who faw beyond the Shadow and Figure unto the Substance, the End of it; which was that Heavenly Bread and Refreshment, which Christ himselt giveth unto those Souls to feed upon, who know the Mystery of his Indwelling in them; which Bread is indeed his Body. So that now the Bread being One, which is the Body of Chrift, the outward Bread hath no Place in the Supper of the Lord; for then there should be not one Bread. but two; for the outward Bread, and the inward are two, and not One Bread.

And if any fay, The outward Bread, though it be not properly the Body of Christ and thing signified, yet it may be faid to be one with it, because of that Agreement betwint the Sign and the thing fignified. I Answer; That is not sufficient, why the outward Bread should be called the One Bread, or one with the thing fignified; otherwise by the fame Evasion one might plead for the Continuance of all the Sacrifices and Offerings of Rams, and Bulls and Goats, and fay, they are One with that one Offering of Christ, mentioned Heb. 10. 14. because they fignified that One Offering: Now were not this an abominable Wresting of the Apostle's Words, to fay, All these outward Offerings were the One Offering, because they did fignify it? For indeed, he does contra-diftinguish them from this One-Offering, that because of its being come, he infers, they were to pass away. And fo it is as plain, that the Apostle contra distinguished betwixt that One-Bread, and the the ontward Bread, together with the other Fi- 1670. gure and Shadows, according to which, writing to the Colossians, he saith, Coloss. 2. 16, 17. Let no Man condemn you in Meat or Diink, or Holy-Day, or New-Moon, or Sabboth Days, which are a Shadow of things to come; but the Body is of Christ. And he bids them seek the things above, and not the things, which the Apostle said, did perish in the using; saying, Touch not, taste not, bandle not, Coloss. 2. 10. 21, 22. compared with Coloff. 3. 1, 2. which he spoke, because they began to lay too great a Weight upon these things, and to hold them up as perpetual, which were to pass away.

For a Sixth Reason thou sayst, The Apostles and primitive Christians, who did partake of the Spirit in a large Measure, did use it. Answ. That they used it for some time, is granted; but that they used it, as of Necessity or Command, is denied; nor did they use it for themselves, but for the Sake of the Weak, who could not be suddenly

Thy Seventh Reason is, That it is the Mind and Will of God, that this Ordinance should be continu- Christ's seed in his Church, until the Second Coming of Christ is spiritual. to Judgment. By which Second Coming thou and you understand his outward Coming; for which you have no Ground to fay, that he bid them observe it, till his outward Coming so many Hundred Years after: For the Scripture speaks nothing so, but thus; -Te shew forth my Death, till I come. Now we fay, be did come according to his Promise, in a Spiritual and Inward Way of Appearance in their Hearts, feeding them with the Heavenly Food and Refreshment of his own Life and Spirit, which is the Substance. And concerning his Coming he speak unto them in many Places, particularly fohn 14, 18. I will not leave you Fatherles, I will come unto you. Tet field fee me. And Verse 23. If any Man love me, be will keep my Word, and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our Abode with him: Which Coming was inward, according to Verse 20 Tou in me, and I in you. And those that witnessed him thus come, needed not outward Bread and Wine to remember them of him; for his own Spirit would bring all things to their Remembrance: They need not look upon the Figure and Shadow, who have the Substance. Paul said, We look not upon things, which are visible; neither God's Con-will God's Condescendence to their Weakness, descendence

Mass of Heathenish Superstitions, prove a Command or a Rule to the whole Church, or a Warrant for any now to be found in the Administration thereof; and to hold up the outward Figure, do cloak themselves, by shutting out and denying the Spiritual Appearance of Christ, as he doth immediately Reveal himself in his Children, in whom he has made manifest the Substance, which ends the Shadow.

For an Eighth Reason thou sayst, That Persons, who cast off this Ordinance, are their Soul's great Enemies; for they stand in the Way of their Soul's Spiritual Good, in that this is a Spiritual Nourishing, Strengthning Ordinance, where Spiritual Food is offered, and delicate Meat and Drink, for strengthning Believers in their Fourney to Heaven. To which I Answer; That those, who neglect and despite having Fellowship and Communion with God, and laugh and scoff at the useful and necessary Duty of Waiting upon the Lord in Sitence, wherein his Children feel their Souls nou-

But now the Sun is set upon those, who will needs be upholding the Shadow in Opposition to the Substance; therefore their Table is become pollu-cd Table. ted, and may more truly be termed the Table of Devils, than the Communion of the Body of Chrift, where a mix'd Multitude of all Sorts of wicked Perfons, living out of God's Fear, fit down together, being feemingly in Words excommunicated from approaching by the Preacher, and yet presently admitted to it by the same. And to turn away from fuch an Ordinance, fo called, is no Sin nor Hurt; but all who become obedient to the Light of Christ in them, will find it their Place to forfake it, as being such an Ordinance, which the Apostle said, Touch not, taste not, handle not, which is all to perish with the Uling.

In the fourth Place, Page 41. thou wilt prove, That the Ministry of the Word is an Ordinance of Jesus Christ: because first Christ appointed Ministers and Pastors to be in his Church. But this cannot be afferted in Opposition to the Quakers, who grant the same. And why citest thou Eph. 5. 11. and 1, for 4. 8. which if they prove the Continuance of Pastors and Teachers, prove also the Continuance of Prophets, Evangelists and Apostles; which ye deny. As to the fecond Reafon, That the Ministry is not common to all, but that there be some Pastors and Teachers, is also owned by us: Yet that hinders not, but that any 1670. at a time may speak, when the Saints are met together, as the Lord moves by his Spirit: according to 1 Cor. 14. 31. For it is one thing to be particularly called to the Ministry; and another, to be moved to speak at a particular Time: Which Distinction that it was usual among the Apostles in the primitive Times, is easily observed in the fore-named Chapter. For a Third fter's Call is Reason thou say'st; Whom God calleth to the Minipot of Man. Stry, he doth it either immediately, without the Intervention of Men, or mediately by Men authorized for that Purpose: But for this thou bring'st no Proof, neither art thou able to make out, that ever God called any under the New Covenant mediately to their Ministry by Men, as they were not to have an immediate Call in themselves: Though the Approbation of good and experienced Men in its Place is not denied by us, but dearly owned. Fourthly thou fay'ft; Whoever pretends to an immediate Call, they ought for the Satisfaction of others to shew Signs and Tokens of their Apo-stleship. To which I answer: That those who come preaching the Gospel, not in Speech only, but The Proof of the fame also in Power and in the Holy Ghost, and in the Call. Evidence and Demonstration thereof, (as it is I Theff. 15. and 1 Cor. 2.4.) give sufficient Proof, that they are Called of God, though they come not with outward Miracles. And though Paul came to some with Miracles, where he preached the Gospel, yet many believed, who saw no outward Miracle. Also many of the Prophets wrought no Miracle, nor John the Baptist: And though some miraculous things came to passabout his Conception and Birth, those do not of themselves prove him to be a Prophet; for miracu-Outward Miracles. lous Things and Miracles were wrought upon many, who were no Prophets. If Miracles be ne-cessary to evince a Man sent of God, he must come with these Miracles before the People, which

Fohn

John did not. Nor did Jonas come with any 1670. Miracle to convince the Ninevites, but simply declared his Message. And John Calvin asserteth, Calv. 1. 4.

That there is no need of Miracles; and yet he c. 3. Inft. maintaineth, that in his Day God raised up Apostles or Evangelists, saying, That it was needful such should be, to bring back the poor People that had gone astray after Antichrist. Neither did any Protestants pretend to any Miracles, they pleading against the Papists, That there was no absolute need of any, in respect they preached not a New Gospel, but that which was already confirmed with Miracles by Christ and his Apostles. And fo thy Plea against us here is the same, that was urged by the Papists against the primitive Protestants. An evil and adulterous Generation, said Christ, seeketh after Miracles: And though Miracles should be given, they who will not believe the Testimony of the Spirit of God in their Con-sciences, bearing witness to the Truth, will not also believe, because of Miracles; as we see plainly in the Jews. And whereas thou fay'ft, John's Immediate Call is evident, by the special Predictions both of Malachy and Isaias concerning him. So are there many special Predictions concerning the Lord his pouring forth of his Spirit upon many in these latter Days, to prophely or minister, as the Spirit should put Words into their Mouths. And as for these Scriptures, Tit. 1.5. Acts 14.23. which thou bring'st in the Fifth Place, they prove not, that those Elders had not the Authority and Call of the Spirit of God in themselves. And whereas in the Sixth Place thou fay'ft; Though Ministers be set a part and ordained by Men, yet their Ministry is not from Men, but from God: I answer; Where the Inward Call and Authority of the Spirit of God is not witnessed, it cannot be said to be of God. And though Moses be said to confecrate Aaron, yet it doth not follow, that Agron

Ministry perfecting the Saints.

Aaren had no immediate Call from God. Seventhly, thou fay'ft, The Ministry is so necessary, that it is the Will of Jefus Chrift, that it should continue unto the End of the World, Eph. 5. 12, 13. But thy Proof from that Scripture is altogether impertinent as to you, who believe not, that the Saints can be perfected in this Life, feeing the Ministry is given for the Perfecting of them. And that this Perfection is on Earth, is clear from the following Verse; That henceforth we be no more as Children toffed to and fro: For in the other Life there is no Hazzard of being so tolled. And if the Ministry perfected not Men in this Life, it no-where perfecteth them; for in the other Life it hath no Operation upon them. The Law and Priefthood thereof was abolished, because it made nothing perfect; and if the Gospel-Ministry should not make perfect, it should also be abolished. And seeing your Ministry-perfecteth not, it is not the true Ministry of the Gospel; as indeed it is not, for it standeth not in the Power of God, nor is it exercised in the Will and Motion of God; your Ministry being such, that the whole ESSE, or BEING of it may be without faving Grace, or true Holiness; you exprefly affirming, That Holinefs is not necessary to the Being of a Minister, but that a Man may be a Minister of the Gospel, who ought to be received and heard, though he have not the least Grain of Holiness. Eighthly, thou fay'st, They who cast off the Ministry of the Word, wrong their own Souls, &c. Answ. If it be understood of the Ministry of Christ, it is granted; but if of yours, it is denied.

In the Fifth Place, Page 44. thou would'st prove, That the Lord's People are under a Tye and Engagement, to keep the First Day of the Week for a Sabbath. For a First Reason thou say'st, The Fourth Commandment requires the keeping holy of one Day in Seven. But as it requires the Obser- 1670. vation of one Day of Seven, fo it expresly instanceth that Day to be the Seventh, which Day ve keep not. Wherefore as to the fecond Reafon, If the Command be moral and perpetual, as thou callest it, it ought to be kept in every Point of it; which ye not doing, therein condemn your felves. But the outward Sabbath, or the keeping one The out-Day of the Week for a Sabbath, is not perpetual, ward sab-but abolished, together with the New-Moons and perpetuals other Feafts of the Jews. See Coloff. 2. 16, 17. Let no Man judge you in Meat or Drink, or Holy Day, or New-Moon, or Sabbath Days, which are a Shadow of things to come: See also Rom. 14. which plainly holds forth all Days under the Gospel to be alike: And said Paul to the Galatians; Te observe Days, &c. I am afraid of you. For a Third Reason thou fay'st; That Fefus Christ plainly intimates the Continuance of a Sabbath, because that speaking of the Desolation of Jerusalem, he said; Pray that your Flight be not in the Winter, nor on the Sabbath-Day. Anfw. But that Sabbath Day is neither here nor elsewhere said to be the first Day of the Week. The Fews were to flee at that time; and Christ holds forth their Difficulties, that it should be grievous unto them, to be put to it to flee on their Sabbath Day, or be killed; for they kept it in the Strictness of it. But as for any of your Sabbath-keepers, they are not fo strait-laced, but they will do less necessary things, than to flee from a Danger on that Day. And as the outward few defireth, that he may not be put to flee on his outward Sabbath; fo the inward Jew in Spirit defireth much more, that he may keep his Sabbath, which is his Spiritual Rest in Christ, that the Enemy oft seeketh to break, to cause him to flee on his Sabbath-Day: but this to you is a Mystery, viz. what the Sabbath of them who believe, is; Heb. 4. 9, 10. There remaineth

1670. maineth therefore a Sabbatisin to the People of God: And he that is entered into his Rest, hath ceased from his own Works, as God did from His.

And that this Sabbath or Rest is not an outward Day, is plain, because in the next Verse he faith: Let us labour therefore to enter into that Rest. But if it were an outward Day, it might be easily entered into; but this is such a Rest, as none can enter into, who hearken not to the Voice of the Lord by believing and obeying it. For a Fourth Reason thou say'st; Though ye keep not the same Day the Jews did, ye have the same Authority for keeping your Day, that they had for theirs. Hence Day not the this Day, that wee keep (fay'ft thou) is called the Lord's Day, Rev. 1. 10. it being fet apart by the Lord for his Service, and as a special Memorial of his Resurrection. Answ. But for all this here is no Probation at all, but meer Affertions: If ye have the same Authority, produce it, and let us fee it. John was in the Spirit on the Lord's Day, therefore the first Day of the Week ought to be kept; how hangs this together? Prove, that John meant the first Day of the Week. We read much in Scripture of the Day of the Lord, which is the Lord's Day; but no where do find it called the first Day of the Week, or any other Natural Day; for it is Spiritual: And as God called the Natural Light, Day, fo he calleth the Spiritual Light of his Appearance (where the Sun of Righteousness ariseth with Healing under his Wings) Day: And this is the Day of the Lord, wherein his People rejoyce, and are glad. And whereas thou fay'ft, It is fet apart by the Lord, as a spe. cial Memorial of bis Refurrection. This is thy naked Affertion, without any shadow of Proof: And if thou wilt fay, that therefore it is to be a Holv Day, because he rose on it; Is not this a fair In-let to all the Popish Holy Days? If ye keep one Day for his Refurrection, why not one Day

for his Conception, another for his Birth, another 1671. for the Annunciation of the Angel, another for his being Crucified, another for his Ascention ?. And then we shall not want Holy Days in good ftore. Fifthly thou fay'ft; Who oppose the Sabbath-Day, sin against Mercy, and Equity, and Ju-Rice. Anfw. It is granted: but who oppose your Day, which ye have made or imagined to be the Sabbath, do no Sin against any of the fore-said; if in other things they keep unto the Rule of Mercy and Justice. First, They sin not against Mercy, if through all the Days of the Week they be found in that, which is for the Good of themfelves, and their Neighbours; not laying too heavy Burthens upon their own Souls by exceffive Care and Labour in outward Things, nor yet forcing their bodily Strength beyond the Rule of Mercy and Love, nor imposing any things upon either Servants or Cattle, contrary to Mercy. For if the Law required Mercy even in thefe' things, much more the Gofpel; fo that we grant, Times of Rest are to be given unto Servants and Beafts, and Mercy is to be shewed unto them? more than under the Law. And thus is the End of the Sabbath answered, which was made for Sabbath. Man; yea, this is indeed to keep the Sabbath, To undo every Burden, and to let the Oppressed go free, both as to the inward, and the outward." And the Lord's People have frequent Times, more than once a Week, wherein, laying afide their outward Affairs for a Season, they may and do meet together to wait upon the Lord, and be quickned, and refreshed and instructed by him, and worship him in his Spirit, and may be useful unto one another in Exhortation, or Admonition, or any other way, as the Lord shall farnish. And fuch, who find any Distemper upon their Minds, through letting them go forth too much upon outward Things, may find the Lord allowing ing

0670. ing them any other Day or Time, no less than that, to get their Hearts reduced into a right Frame. And it were fad, if the Lord had only allowed but one Day of seven unto this Effect. The Lord inviteth and alloweth the weary and distempered, (who love to be cured of their Distempers) to come unto him every Day: And as for those, who abide not in a due Care every Day, to have their Hearts ordered aright, but let their Minds go forth excessively in outward Occasions all the Week; they provoke the Lord to thut them out from Access to him upon the First Day. And our Souls do oft bless the Lord, in allowing us many Times of Refreshment and Strengthning, to the Establishing and Confirming us in his Love and Life, and disburdening our Minds of earthly things much more frequently, than in one Day of feven. And as for finning against Justice, they cannot be charged with it, who give up unto the Lord not only one Day of feven, but all the feven, even all the Days of their Life unto his Service: for Equity and Justice calleth upon us to fpend all the feven in his Service, that our Hearts may continually be exercifed in his Fear and Love; and whatever we do, The first day we may do it to him, and in him. And as for of the the First Day of the Week, we meet together even Week. on that Day, (as we do on other Days) according to the Practice of the primitive Christians, to wait upon the Lord and worthip him; but to plead to obstinately as ye do, that the Fourth Commandment bindeth to a particular Observation of that Day, and yet to be found fo flack in the Observation of it, as you generally are in such an Inconfrancy, as the Quakers cannot own. And fo whereas thou would'it confine the Lord his giving Rest and Comfort to the Souls of his People, and the Falling of Manna to the First Days, calling them Spiritual Market-Days, as if there were no other; we cannot own it: knowing, that the 1670. Lord giveth Reft and Comfort every Day, and causeth the Manna plentifully to fall every Day to those that walk in his Fear, and wait upon him: and he has no such circumscribed Market-Day, as thou dreamest of. But that ye (I mean the Priests) make a Market-Day of that Day (so The Priests) that ye may call it Your Day, as thou say'st Page Market day. 44. Our Day) we know, wherein ye sell and vend your Babylonish Commodities, and will be forcing and compelling all to come, and buy of them; or if not, to send you Money, whether they receive ought or not; or else ye will endeavour by the Help of the Magistrate to have them punished. So that it is made manifest, that it is only the Inventions of Men, that we disown, and not any of the Ordinances of Jesus Christ.

Page 49. Thou grantest, the Word [Original Sin] is not found in Scripture; and yet thou pleadest for it, because (say'st thou) the thing intended by it is contained and expressed in Scripture. Answ. We deny, that the thing by you intended, is exprest in Scripture, to wit, That all Infants are Sinners before God, only for Adam's Sin; and that there are Reprobate Infants, who are fent to Hell only for Adam's first Sin: This we deny; nor do the Scriptures cited by thee prove it, Pfal. 51, Behold, I was conceived in Sin. But first, if this Infants not Place should prove the Infant guilty of any Sin, guilty of it should be of the Sin of its own immediate Parents; In Iniquity did my Mother bring me forth. Now you fay, the Infant is not guilty of the Sin of its own immediate Parents, but only of Adam's and Eve's first Sin; of which, this Scripture speaks nothing. 2. It doth not say, I was conceived and brought forth a Sinner, as you would have it; why make you Infants guilty of Adam's Sin, and not the Sins of their immediate Parents? Now it is granted, that there is a Seed none become guilty of Sin before God, until they

The seed of close with this Evil Seed: And in them who close with it, it becomes an Origin, or Fountain of E-with it, it becomes an Origin, or Fountain of Evil Thoughts, Defires, Words and Actions, which are their Sins who close with it. But that the Guilt of Adam's first Sin lies at the Door of Infants, who never actually finned, we deny. For a fecond Proof thou citest, Rom. 5. 12. alledging, It should be rendred, that in Adam all sinned. But it is no fuch Matter: For the Words, however they be truly translated, can never be so rendred, In Adam all Sinned: The strictest Translation of the Words is thus, [Upon which all have sinned, or, in which all have sinned.] They hold forth, how that Adam by his Sin gave an Entrance to Sin in the World, and Death by Sin; and fo upon this Occasion all others have sinned, to wit, actually in their own Person; so that all who ever sinned actually, it was upon the Occasion of Adam's Sin. For the Apostle is here speaking not of Infants, who are not capable of any Law, but of fuch, as have a Law, and act against it. Yea, from the Apostle's Words in the other following Verse it is plain, that Sin is not imputed to Infants. For faith he, Sin is not imputed where there is no Law. Now there is no Law given to Infants as such; for they are not capable of it. What the Law faith, it faith to them, who have in more or lefs fome Exercise of Understanding, which Infants new born have not. Or, if the Words be translated [In which all have finned] that Word WHICH hath a nearer Relative than Adam, to wit, Death; tor the Seed of Sin is justly called Death, because where it is joined unto and obeyed, it killeth: And fo in this Seed all have finned, who ever did actually fin. And as for the 18th Verse of Rom. 5. which is commonly used to prove Infants guilty and under Condemnation, it is not rightly tranflated:

lated; for the Word Judgment, or Condemnation, 1670. or Guilt, is not at all in the Greek; but those, who have drunk-in this Imagination, have added this Word to the Scripture: fo bending and bowing the Scripture to their false Opinion. And whereas thou fay'ft, We were all in the Loins of Adam; and therefore wouldest infer, That Infants are Sinners in bim, or guilty of his Sin. I fay, it follows not more than to fay, We are guilty of all the Sins of our Fore-fathers, because we have been in their Loins. Again, thou labourest to prove, that Infants are Sinners, because they are Subject to Pains, and Diseases and Death. But this proveth them not to be Sinners, as it proveth not, that the Earth is a Sinner, or that the Herbs and Trees of the Field are Sinners; for even thefe things have suffered by Adam's Fall a great Decay. And as for the outward Death of those that are The outfaved from Eternal Death, it is rather a Sleep, than ward and a Death, as Christ said concerning Lazarus, He Death. Sleepeth: And concerning the Maid; She is not dead, but fleepeth. And therefore that Scripture Rom 6. 23. cannot be applied to them, who die not or perish not eternally: for though the Saints lay down the outward Man, is not as the Punishment or Reward of their Sins, which are forgiven, and from which they are delivered: And so the Sting of Death being taken away in those who are faved, it is not that Death, which is the Wages of Sin. And feeing the Apostle said unto the Saints, that all things were theirs, even Death, it cannot be, that their Death should be reckoned the Wages of their Sin. How many of the bleffed Martyrs have looked upon their Suffering a most violent Death for Truth and Righteousness as a Gift of God? How then could it be faid to be the Wages of their Sins; which implies, as if their Sins were not all freely forgiven? F 3

Page 48. From this Doctrine (thou fay'ft) it will I follow, First, That all Infants, that die in their Infancy, are faved; and though Charity may be pleaded for this Opinion, (thou say'st) yet what Scrip-Infants dy- ture can be alledged for it? Answ. If I should ing, how fa- bring that Scripture, Suffer little Children to come. unto me, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven; It will much more naturally flow from the Words, than that they ought to be sprinkled, which is the Meaning ye put upon them. And whereas fome object; it is not faid of them, but of such. I answer; but that such includeth them and all others, who are like them in Harmlefness: otherwife if they had been excluded, he would not have given it as a Reason, why he bid suffer them to come unto him. But besides the 18th Chapt. Verse 20. of Ezekiel is a plain Proof, The Soul that sinneth, shall die; the Son shall not bear the Father's Iniquity: unless that the Son be found acting the fame Iniquity, and continuing in it; for then he visits the Iniquities of the Fathers upon the Children. Now thou hast produced no Scripture to prove, That any Infants do perish; and indeed, there is nothing in Scripture for it, but against it. Secondly, thou say'st, It would follow; that Infants dying in their Infancy, stood not in need of Christ, as a Saviour; for he is a Saviour to fave his People from their Sins. Answ. He is a Saviour not only to fave from Sins, but also from the Consequences of Sin, and not only from the Fruits and Branches of it, but from the Seed: And they are faved from Sin, who are not fuffered to fall into it. And so these Infants, whom the Lord takes away in their Infancy, that they might not fin, are faved from it. It is Salvation, to be kept from falling into a Pit as truly, as to be raken out of it after the falling in. And as for that Scripture, it maketh against you, Mat. 1.12. For it speaketh of a Salvation from Sin, whereas you you dream of a Salvation in your Sins: Nor doth 1670. Rom. 7. 24. speak of Infants; so thy citing it here is impertinent. And though there be a time, wherein there is a Crying out for Deliverance from the Body of Sin and Death; yet there is also a Time of Deliverance from it; even before the laying down of the outward Body, as is plain from Rom. 6. 6, 7. Knowing this, that the Old Man is crucified, and he that is dead, is freed from Sin: Yet we acknowledge, there is great Occasion to be low, and to be in great Fear and Care, lest Sin, which is once crucified, revive again.

falling away from Regeneration, and as ogveeing therein with Arminians. But if the Arminians hold a falling away from Regeneration, we hold no such Matter. For those who fall away, never attained unto the Regeneration, and fo were never the Children of God, but only were in the Way to it, by having attained to some Beginnings of Faith, from which some may and The falling have fallen away. For that it is expresly faid away from Falle is of by Christ; some believe, and afterwards full a themselves. way: and some depart from the Faith, and make Shipwrack of it: and fome, who have tafted the good Word of God, and the Powers of the World to come, Fall away. These and many such Instances are in Scripture; nor do the Scriptures cited by thee prove the contrary? as Philip. 1. 6. which is to be understood no otherwise, than as the Condition is performed upon their Part. As Heb. 3.14. We are made Partakers of Christ, if we hold fast the Principle of our Establishment, (or whereby we are established) firm unto the End; and so these who hold fast this Principle, witness the Work, which God hath begun in them, to be carried on until the Day of Christ, even till he be compleatly formed in them, and they in him. It may be supposed, that Paul was as confident, that God would 1670. would perfect the Work begun in himfelf, and vet he supposeth, it might be otherwise, where he faith; Lest preaching the Gospel to others, I my felf become a Cast-away. And though some fall away, the Difhonour of the foolish Builder cannot be cast upon God, but upon them, who fall away: for it standeth very well with the Wisdom and Power of God, to fuffer them to fall away, who knowingly and wilfully depart from the Lord, and will not concur with him in the Work, as subordinate Instruments; but resist him, tho' he invite and call, yea, draw them. The next thou citest, is 1 Pet. 15. Answ. Such as are fo kept by the Power of God, it is through Faith; but as they abide not in that Power through Faith, but wander from it, they fall, and cannot but fall away. And as for Ferem, 32. 40. cited by thee, it should be translated thus; I will put my Fear into their Hearts, that they may not depart from ma: So Junius and Tremellius's Version; or, not to depart from me, as the Septuagint hath it. Now to tay, That they may not depart, is one thing; and to fay, They cannot depart, is another. Yet where the Fear of God comes fo to be raifed and established in the Heart over all, we believe, such cannot depart: but every one is not attained to that State, where yet the Fear of God may have some Place. And as touching these other Scriptures, John 10. 27, 28, 29. and John 13. 1. I John 1. 29. they speak of those, who are come to a thorough-Regeneration, who (we'do believe) can never fall away; as being begot in the perfect Nature of the Elect Sheep and Children. doth it follow from this, that one may be a Child of God to Day, and a Child of the Devil to Morrow; for thefe, who are once properly the Children of God through a true and thorough Regeneration, can never become the Children of the Devil, nor be cast out of God's special Love, that he

he beareth to his own Children. For to end this 1670. Matter, thou fay'ft, It is safer to question the Truth of the Graces of those that fall away, than the Dottrine of the Perseverance of the Saints. But dost thou look upon the Quakers, as having fallen away? If thou dost, how comes it, that thou bespeakest them in thy Epistle, as those, who have had real Grace, faying to them; Did ye attain to that Knowledge of, and Acquaintance with God, which ye have, in the Use of Ordinances? And again, Te did run well, who did hinder you? And again; Why should they asperse these Ordinances, which have been the Means of their Con. -version? Or are these Words only a foab's Kiss, by which thou would'ft kiss the Quakers, while in the mean time thou haft a Sword hid under thy Cloak to ftrike them through under the fifth Rib? But the Quakers are aware of thee, and having on the Armour of God, are out of thy Reach.

In the last Place, Page 50. thou undertakest to prove, That our Errors (as thou callest them) tend to Irreligiousness and Atheism; because they tend to take away the Worship due to God. But it hath been heretofore proved, that we deny not true Worship, but only your idolatrous superstitious Worships, which cannot truly be called the Worship of God. Our Way (thou fay'ft) tends to Ir-Prayer be-religiousness: because frequently we go to Meat, fore Moat. and come from it without seeking a Blessing, or returning Thanks; which is to deny God a Part of that Worship, which is due to him, I Tim. 4. 4, 5. Answ. To receive the Gifts and Benefits of God with Thanksgiving, and to witness it blessed and fanctified to us by the Word and Prayer, is owned by us: and to know this fo, without taking off the Hat, or using of formal speaking of Words (though it be a thing frequently used by us also) tends to no Irreligiousness. For it is a thing usual amongst 1670. amongst us, when we sit down to eat, to wait upon the Lord for some time, that we may feel his Presence, and know our selves stated in his Fear, to which the Bleffing is: and as we there ftand, if any outward Expressions be required of any, then in God's Fear they may utter them: And this is to know the Bleffing indeed, and to be in the Place that is bleffed. But for People, that are converfing out of God's Fear, stated in a light, airy Spirit, not only many times Laughing and Scoffing, but some times even Blaspheming, prefently, fo foon as the Meat cometh, to clap off their Hats, and speak a few Words in a Custom; and fo foon as they have done, fall to their former Work again; Is not this Atheism and Irreligiousnels? For if fuch did think of God aright, and knew, what it were to fear him, they would be far from addressing themselves in such Postures unto him: neither could they be fo impudent, as to expect a Bleffing from him, while they fland in that Condition, to which the Curse is annexed.

In the fecond Place, Page 51. thou fay'ft; Doth not the taking Men off from Prayer, tend to Irreligiousness and Atheism? Now you teach, we must not pray in private, nor in Families without an Impulse; Therefore— Answ. This is no found Argument. To take Men off from Prayer, tends to Irreligiousness, is granted; but to say, That a Man cannot or ought not to pray without the Spirit's Drawing and Motion, which you commonly name by Impulse (a Word which common People do not understand) hath no such Tendency, or that it takes any off from Prayer, truly so called, is denied. For hath that a bad Tendency, which takes Men off from such Prayers, as are Abomination, and are not true Prayers, but hypocritical and deceitful? As all such Prayers are, that are performed without the Help of the Spirit.

Spirit. We fay, whofoever can pray to the 1670. Lord indeed, let them pray, we are not to forbid them; but that any can pray without the Spirit, that we deny; according to 1 Cor. 14. 15. I will pray with the Spirit, &c. And Rom. 8. 26. Like-wife the Spirit also helpeth our Insirmities, for we know not, what we should pray for, as we ought. Now if we know not what to pray for without the Spirit, how can we pray without it? Paul durst not adventure upon this Duty, without the Assistance of the Spirit (yea, he said, no Man could say, that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost) but here an arrogant Generation will needs be praying without it; which yet is not Prayer: and fuch Families, where this only is used, cannot be truly faid to call upon God, while fuch truly may be faid fo to do, that wait upon the Lord, and stand in his Fear, and bring forth the Fruits of Righteoufness; though they be not so much in the external Signification of Words; which also at times is found in our Families, as the Lord requireth it, and giveth Utterance. And whereas thou say'st; That thou believest it will be found, that some of us for the Space of a whole Year, have not so much as once bowed a Knee, to call upon God in their Families. What Ground hast thou for this thy Belief? May they not bow their Knees in their Families, though it be hid from the Observation of malicious Eyes, who may so asperse them? May they not pray in secret, and be feen of the Father to pray, according to Matth. 6. 6. Though they cannot be feen prayers in by the Eyes of malicious Spies? And where a fecret, withpublick Testimony in Words is required, it is also out Words. given; nor do we know any Friends of Truth, who have any, whom they can join with in Prayer in the Family, but do meet together in the Family, and wait together, breath together, and pray together; and that much oftner than thou

84 1670. infinuates, fornetimes without, and fometimes with the outward Signification of Words; fo that we return this thy Charge, as false and malicious. Thou fay'ft; If this Impulse be denied for Tears, Men all that while (according to us) must not pray. But here thou speakest as one wholly unacquainted with the Ways and Motions of the Spirit, to suppose such a Case which cannot be; Breathings for the Breathings and Motions of the Spirit, and especially unto Prayer, are very frequent unto frequent. those who wait for them, and are as necessary unto the Children of God, as their daily Bread, yea and more; which the Father with holdeth not, but giveth in due Season. But many times the Spirit of Prayer is felt to move, and is anfwered, when there is no Liberty given to speak Words in the hearing of others. Nor is thy other Supposition less vain and foolish; That if a Man were at the Gates of Death, and in Danger of present Drowning, yet without an Impulse (as thou callest it) he must not adventure to cry to God for Prayer with- Mercy and Help. For suppose he did cry without the Spi-out all Help of the Spirit, what would it avail him? Would it have any Acceptance with God? Shew us where ever a spiritless Prayer was accepted of God or required? Nay, it is a vain Oblation, which is expresly forbidden; and it is exprefly commanded, that praying be always in the Spirit, Eph. 6. 18. And as for the Saints, when they are dying, or in any Difficulty, we know, the Spirit of Prayer will never be wanting, to breath through them at fuch Occasions, and to give Words, as there is a Service for them.

But further thou alledgest; That this Principle of ours leadeth to woful Security; for what need you be disquieted for refraining Prayer before God, (thou fayst) or any other Piece of Service, seeing you have Salve at Hand to heal this Sore, and that is, the Want of an Impulse. Answ. If any fall into Security and refrain Prayer, is it not, that 1670. our Principle leadeth into it; for our Principle leadeth out of all Security into continual Watching unto Prayer, and waiting upon the Motions of the Spirit of God: Now if any feel not thefe Motions, they are nothing the lefs guilty, because by their Neglect they provoke the Lord to with-hold them, and render themselves out of Frame to feel or entertain them; and thus, who neglect the Worship of God, are justly under Condemnation; and if they have Peace, it is but a false Peace, which will fail them. And as for our Peace, we have found it to be great Peace; with God. but we have not come by it after fuch a Way, as thou dost falsly and rashly judge, as by neglecting the Worship of God, and stopping the Mouth of Conscience; but by being turned to that living Word and Law of God in our Hearts, by loving it, and cleaving to it, yea, by receiving the Reproofs and Chastisements of God through it, and submitting to the Judgment of it, when it hath been as a Hammer and as a sword, and as a Fire in us, breaking in Pieces and destroying all that false unsound Peace, we had created to our selves in the Day of our Alienation from the Light of God in us. And unto Peace we are come through great Tribulation of Soul, even such, as thou art a Stranger unto, being ignorant both of the one, and the other: And so hast therein shewed thy Folly in judging, what thou knowest not. And as for woful Secu-The Whores rity, we know not, where it more abounds, than Peace. among hypocritical Professors, who, with the Whore in the Proverbs, offer up their Sacrifices of Morning and Evening Prayers, and thereby create a Peace to themselves, though they let their Hearts go a Whoring after their Lufts all the Day. Did not the Pharifees pray much outwardly, and were much in other outward Practices of Devotion, and fo created a falfe Peace and Esteem to themselves? And 1670. And can you deny, but that there are many fuch among you, who make up a false Peace to themfelves, by leaning upon their outward Performances? Now what if I should charge this upon your Principle, wouldst thou think it fair Dealing?

Thirdly, Page 52. thou fayft; Doth not that Opinion tend to Atheism, which rendreth Mortification of Sin (even in this Life) useles, &c. Ans. Here thou dealest dis-ingenuously. Is Mortification of Sin useless, where the End of it is attained? And is not Perfection the End of Mortification? Again thou fayst; The Opinion of a Sinless Perfection wounds the very Vitals of Religion. Answ. who could have expected, that one, that pretends to Religion, would have been so brazen-

The End of faced, as to put such an Expression in Print? true Religion, What is the End of true Religion, but to lead out of Sin? Do the Vitals of Religion confist in Sinning, or in not Sinning? If it confist in Sinning, then they that fin most, are most Religious: But if it confift in not Sinning, and keeping the Commandments of God without Sin, then to plead for such a thing as attainable, hurteth not the Vitals of Religion: What! cannot the Saints live better without Sin, than with it? Yea furely, they can live well without that, which is a Burthen, and as Death unto their Life: They whose Life is in Sin, cannot live but in Sin; but the Saints Life is not in Sin, but in Righteousness. And thy Confequences are vain and foolish? As 1. That Men need not pray for Pardon of Sin; 2. That they need not the Blood of Christ, to cleanse them from Sin; 2. That they need not Repentance: For we grant, that All have finned, and fo need those things, by which they may attain unto Perfection; and who witness Perfection, come to witness the true Use of these things; and as the Blood of Christ cleanseth from all the Sin, so it preserveth clean, and such have received the Forgiveness of their Sins, being turned from 1670. them unto Righteousness, which is the fufilling of Repentance. And whereas thou fayft; Bring me to the particular Person, that is Sinless, and I shall apply to him that of the Apostle, I John 1. 8. Thou shewest openly thy Confusion; for by thy applying to him that of the Apostle, wouldst thou infer a Sinless Man to be a Sinning Man? That is a Contradiction: But though we should bring a Man to thee, that is made free from Sin by the Power of God, thou couldst no more judge of him, thana blind Man of Colours. And as to I fobn 1. 8. it is a plain Case; If we fay, we have no Sin, and have Fellowship with him, and yet walk in Darknels, (as Verse 6.) then we deceive our selves: So it is conditional, otherwise it would contradict what follows, Verse 9, and Chap. 2.4. and Chap. 3.6, 9. As to that of Sabbath, it is answered above. Page 53. Tour Religion (fayft thou) will be welcome to the worst and wickedest of Men; for you will please them exceedingly, in crying down of Ordinances, the Observation of the Sabbath, and private and Family Prayers, &c. Answ. We cry down no Ordinance of God, but your hypocritical Ways; and we know no worse Men, than those Hypocrites, whom we are so far from pleasing, in crying down their hypocritical Prayers and Perfor-Crying down mances, that they fret and gnash at us with their Hypocrity ples for the process. Teeth: And if they could get their Will, would tear the Hypous in Pieces, for witnessing against those things. And crite. they are very blind, who see not, that the denying of those things in Shadow and bare Formality, and establishing them in the Power and Substance, can no ways be acceptable to the Wicked, but most unpleasing to Hypocrites, who can perform the one, but not the other. But now let us examine, whether your Principles, or ours be Hypotrites most acceptable to the Wicked and Hypocrites. 1. and wicked Wicked Men and Hypocrites love well to hear, den's Principles of the

1670. that they can never be free from their Sins in this Life, and that they must always Sin. 2. They love well to hear, to be justified by Christ without them, and his Righteoufness without, but not by him, and his Righteousness within them. 3. They love well to hear, that the Words with. out them are the only Rule, which they can wrest according to their own corrupt Inclinations; but they love not to hear, that the Word and Light of God within, is to be their Rule, which they cannot wrest, nor bend. 4. They love well to hear, that they may use the Fashions and Customs of this World, bow and cringe, and give and receive the Honour of this World. They love to hear, they may use Sports, and Games, and Plays. 6. To wear Laces, and Ribbons, and Gold Rings, and other Superfluity. 7. They love well to hear, that Men must not expect to hear God immediately, being fuch as those, who said, Let not God speak unto us. 8. They love well to hear, that Water-Baptisin and giving of Bread and Wine, are the Ordinances of God, and the true Baptisin and Supper; for then they think they are Christians, if they partake of these outward things; and they are mad against us, who call them Shadows. And as for their Observation of that called the Sabbath, we find none more plead for it, than profane, light Men and Women; for they can eafily dispence to hear a Man talk for an Hour or two, and then have all the Rest of the Day to spend in Idleness, vain Communication, and frequenting the Ale-House, and decking themselves with vain Apparel. 10. They love to hear, that they may be Members of the Church, though they have no infallible Evidence of Holiness. 11. They love to hear of your Doctrine of Election and Reprobation. 12. And of your Doctrine, Once in Grace,

Grace, and ever in Grace, whereby they feed themselves in Presumption and Carelesness. Many other Particulars could be mentioned, but these may serve enough to shew, that your Principle are pleasing to the Wicked and Hypocrites, and ours displeasing. Next to come to Experience; where are the Drunkards, the Swearers, the Whore mongers, the envious licentious Persons, the Scorners, the Mockers, Whether are they yours, or ours? If our Principles be fo acceptable unto them. Why do they not inroll themselves among us? Why do they oppose us at our Meetings at Aberdeen, and else-where, and curse and rant, and use all manner of filthy Communication, and are ready to Stone us in the Streets? And none more found fo doing, than that Young Fry and Spawn of the Priesthood, who are bred at your Nurseries of Learning. Now whose Church-Members are those, yours or ours? Is not the Proverb verefied of you: Fowls of one Feather flock together?

Thou closest with addressing thy self to God with a notorious Lye, saying; Follow with thy Blessing, that which WE have been about: Meaning the Quaker and thy self, but it was none of the Quaker's Work; the Dialogue not being any real Conference: Is not this to deride, and take the Name of God in vain?

Some Things of Weighty Concernment, proposed in Meekness and Love by Way of Queries to the Serious Consideration of the Inhabitants of Aberdeen; which also may be of Use to such, as are of the same Mind with them else-where in this Nation. Added by Way of Appendix to Truth Clear'd of Calumnies.

Hether it be any wife warrantable in Common Equity, or true Christianity, for any Person or Persons to take Liberty, both in Pulpit and Print, to speak against a People as Dangerous and Heretical, and yet wholly debar that People from Vindicating themselves in either of these Ways, fofar as they can? Or whether it can be supposed, that any Persons, except they wholly give up themselves Implicitly to believe, the Accusers can make a true Judgment in that Case upon the Accused, especially considering the Maxim of Law, Quicunque inaudità alterà Parte, &c. i. e. He that without hearing both Parties pronounceth Judgment, though he decide the Right upon the Matter, hath not done the Part of a Just Judge. To which add the Consideration of these Passages of Scripture, 1 Thest. 5. 21. Prov. 18. 13. Ifai. 40. 2..

Quest. 2. Whether then it was not contrary to the Laws both divine and humane, for the Priests in Aberdeen to importune the Magistrates, to make

Quest.3. Whether also it was not both Anti-Scriptural and Popish in G. M. to prohibit his Hearers from reading of that Book, by comparing it with Polson? Whether that was not to keep People in Darkness, and Dependence upon him? Or with how little Reason could he desire such a thing, considering, he afferted it to contain an ample Confession of all those Errors he had charged them with? And if so, Whether it be likely, that it could prove dangerous, the Errors being so gross and monstrous, which by him and his Brethren are charged upon that People, that their confession them would rather scare People, than engage any to like them?

Quest. 4. And whether G. M. his bidding Peoabstain from that Book as Poison, without Tryal of what is in it, be not like unto the Papists Way, who bid their Neighbours abstain from the Protestants Books as Poison? And whether may not Poison be tryed (though not by eating it) in a Way that is not hazzardows to the Tryal, especially seeing, that which some may call Poison, may be afterward sound by sound Tryal, to be good and wholesom Food, yea, Medicine to expel

People?

Quest. 5. And seeing G. M. bids his Hearers abstain from the Quakers Words as Poison, Doth he not endanger such to be poisoned, whom he sends or allows to come to our Meetings to hear what is spoke? And what knoweth G. M. but his spies may be touched, so that it may be said, as it was then, Is Saul also among the Prophets?

A 2 Quest,

as Poilon, Why doth he bring them forth so much among his Hearers, if he thinks, he gives strong Antidotes against them? I have heard some of his own Hearers say, That that which he calls the Poison, wrought more effectually to perswade even out of his own Mouth, than all his Antidotes could do to dissipance?

Quest. 7. Whether the latter Part of that Allegence of G. M. (viz. That all they had charged on the Quakers, was confessed to in that Book) be not a manifest Untruth, in Respect the greatest Charges alledged by him against the Quakers, are therein utterly denied. As for Instance, the Matter of Pelagianism in Page 25. the Matter of Popery in Page 34. and of Arminianism Page

Quest. 8. Whether the said G. M. hath not manifeited very much Deceit, in saying also publickly, That the said Book afferts it, not only to be a thing easie, but pleasant for wicked People, to keep Holy the Sabbath Day, and to perform the Spiritual Duties commanded to be performed thereon, unless he understands them to be simply the disposing to bear a Mantalk for an Hour or two, and to have all the Rest of the Day to spend in Idleness, vain Communication, and frequenting the Ale-House, &c. which are the Words mentioned Page 72.

Quest. 9. Whether it be any way unsutable to to the Law of Charity, or to the meek Spirit of Christ, to use plain and downright Dealing, calling a Lyc a Lye? Or whether any be to be blamed for so doing, considering the Practice of all the Prophets, and of Christ's, and of his Apostles, how sharply they dealt with False Teachers; as may appear by the Scriptures? Isai. 56. 11. Lev. 23. to Verse 33. Ezek. 34. Hos. 4. from 6, to 10. Ibid. 5. 1. Mich. 3. 5. Matt. 3. 7. Febn 8.

Quest. 10. Whether then they be not prejudiced, who accuse the Quakers for using the same Terms, seeing they are willing to make the Application manifest, by comparing the Fruits of the present pretended Preachers with those that were of Old? As for Instance, Whether it be a Breach of either Moral Civility, or Christian Meekness to say; John Menzies Lyed, in asserting Robert Barclay to have been Educated in a Jesuites Colledge; seeing it is utterly False?

Quest. 11. And whether David Lyall may not be judged more guilty of foolish Rashness and Envy, than any of us of the Breach of Civility to reprove him for it, who, that he might not want something to say against the Quakers, alledged a notorious Untruth upon God, in saying; That the God of Heaven shut the Mouths of all the Quakers, that not one Word was spoken among them at their last Monthly-Meeting, the 3d of the 11th Month: Which divers of their own Church-Members can witness to be a LTE?

Quest. 12. Whether it be not a far greater Breach of Charity in the Priests of Aberdeen, not only to speak all manner of Evil sally against that People in the Pulpit, but also there to stir up both Magistrates and People to Imprison and Persecute them? Whether that be not more like the Practice of the Pharisees, and of Demetrius the Silver-Smith, than the Ministers of Christ?

Quest. 13. Whether beating, striking, punching, pulling out of Hair, and that openly in the Streets, threatning to stone and pistol their sober innocent Neighbours, and boasting, that tho' they should do so, they should be under no Hazzard of the Law, be like the Fruits-of Christ's Flock? Or whether such Practices and Boastings be not more abusive of, and destructive to Magistracy, than Meeting together in Sobriety and God's Fear, to wait upon him, and edify one aor If such Actions be not liker fohn a Leyden, and the Tumults and Cruelties of Munster, than any thing, that can be proved against the Quakers?

Quast. 14. Whether singing, dancing, swearing, asking if the Spirit become, whisting, and saying, the Spirit's upon them, in the Quaker's Meeting, be not barbarous and Atheistical, and Interruptions far of another Nature, than for honest Men in Seriousness to stand up in your Meeting-House, after your Preaching is ended, and preach Repentance; seeing these Practices above-mentioned evidence, how much ye stand in need of such an Advertisement: And both Reason and Christianity would say, it deserved more Civil and Christian Usage, than Imprisonment, or a Pair of Stocks?

Quest. 15. Whether David Lyall his Expressions, intimating his Fears of the Increase of Preachers, doth not shew him contrary to the Spirit of Moses, who wished, all the Lord's People might be Prophets; and to the Apostle Paul, I Cor. 14- 29. Te may all prophesy one by one; and to Luther, and many of the first Reformers and Martyrs, who held Preaching to be the common Priviledge of Christians, and so many of them being Tradef-Men, did Preach, judging it no Inconfistance: Though this Generation of lofty Priests (who may well be compared in many things to those idle Shavelings, whom Luther reproves) are loath to admit of any fuch thing? Knowing, if it once should be supposed, that Tradef Men, or Plough Men should Preach, it would also follow, that Preachers might be Tradef-Men, and fo win their Living with their Hands, as did the Apostle, 2 Cor. 4. 12, ibid. 9. 18. Whether if fo, it be not probable, fewer would be ambitious of that Office, than now are, and that there would be no fuch gaping for Pre-Sentations, fentations, the defirable Baits of Stipends being 1670. removed; and as it would abate the Pride and Sumptuousness of the Priests, so it would clip shorter the striped-Silk-Petticoats of their Wives, and other gawdy Apparel of their Children?

Quest. 16. Whether it can then be pertinently objected as a Token of Pride against the Quakers, that they Preach Repentance, especially against their doing it without Study or Premeditation, as if trusted to the Spirit of God for Utterance were Pride; which is expressly allowed, commanded and practised in the Scripture, Luc. 21. 14, 15. Alls 2. 4. 1 Cor. 2. 14. and 1 Cor. 14.

29. 1 Pet. 4. 11.

Quest. 17. Whether that doth not Homologate the Popish Argument for a Liturgy, alledging it to be Pride for Men to frame Prayers ex tempore, seeing there are Prayers framed by the Church, and by learned Menheretofore (as they fay) better than private Men can make off-Hand. containing whatever is applicable to the Condition of any Soul? Or whether it may not by the same Argument be pressed upon David Lyall, as a Point of Pride, for him or his Brethren to use any Prayer, except the Examplar left by Christ, commonly called the Lard's Prayer, seeing, they themselves make the Extent of it so large, as there can be no Condition of any particular Person, which they will not reduce to some of the Heads of it; and that Enlargments and Tautologies to God, are not only vain and need. less, but also by himself prohibited?

Quest. 18. And whether it savours more of Price, to preach without Premeditation, which is but a Speaking unto Man, than to Pray without Premeditation, which is a Speaking unto God? And seeing David Lyall and his Brethren pray ex tempore, and without Premeditation of any conceived Form of Prayer, may it not be of Pride as to this Matter, especially, when they do not pretend to pray by the immediate Teaching and Leading of the Spirit, in which the only true Prayer is framed, that is acceptable unto God?

Quest., 19. Whether or no it did not as well express a Mind filled with Pride, as contain a manifest Impertinency, for the same David Lyall to alledge as a Token of the Quakers Pride, that a little black Fellow came into the Church (such were bis Expressions) whether these Words, I say, savour not as little of Humility, as the thing it self is void of Reason, that either Littleness of Body, Blackness of Feature, or Meanness of outward Extract (for so I think he means by Fellow) are inconsistent with the Esse, or Being of a Preacher; which if they had, it's probable, himself could hardly have been admitted to be one?

Quest. 20. Whether if such Words and Expressions be the Fruits of Premeditation and Study, (which these Men cry up so much, and judge so needful) it deserves that Esteem they would have put upon it, or upon themselves because thereof; especially considering many more Impertinencies and Inconsistencies used by them in their Pulpits: Witness that one mentioned upon the same Occasion by the aforesaid D. L. to wit, that its better to be an Humble Devil, than a Proud Saint: Which if used by a School-Boy, would have deserved Hissing, if not Whips, as being Repugnantia in adjecto?

Let David Lyall, George Mildrum, John Menzies, Three Priests in Aberdeen, who have lately most appeared in Pulpit against them called Quakers, and among all their Fellow-Priests are berein mostly concerned, Answer these Queries, if they can, without using those Shists and Tergiversations, which the Papists used against the Primi-

THE

READER,

Aving seriously perused W. M. his late Animadversions upon my Book, I find, my Judgment of it, though a Party concerned, to jump with that which is the Sence of several Judicious Persons, who neither own nor walk in that Profession I am in; and therefore can the less be suspected of Partiality; viz. That they contain nothing of a solid or satisfactory Reply. For though he seems to take Notice of all the Particulars mentioned, yet he omits in many more than the Half, of what is said by me concerning them; and against that which he doth mention in my Name, his most frequent Arguments are without any Proof; having no other Bottom, but his own Judg-

Judgment, Thoughts and Conjectures, whereby it seems (forgetting, or mistaking his Work) he plays the Catechist, rather than the Disputant. This put me to some Stand, Whether it was fit to give him any Reply? Though truly, such as will be at the Pains to compare his with my last, will need little further. Yet knowing, how many are apt to take Things upon Trust, and to receive Mis-representations concerning us, who are a People fo generally Reproached; I found it expedient to write this succinct Reply, which may lead the Reader to a narrow Observation of the Invalidity of W. M. his Work against us; and may present in short his most obvious Omissions, his most manifest Contradictions, unvail his Dis-ingenuity, lay open his Weakness, and shew his Unstability (especially so far as he has deserved) in most of these Arguments he used in his Dialogue, as not being able further to maintain them; and discover, how faintly such New Ones, as he doth now bring forth, militate against us. Let it not startle thee, that so small a Bulk as this is, should answer his; for thou may'st perceive, several Pages of his taken up in the Capital Letters of the Contents of his many Heads and subdivided Sections; which makes it not unlike the City Mindus (whereof the Antients spoke) whose Gates were

So disproportionable in Greatness to the Quantity of the Town, that a certain Philosopher is said to have advised the Citizens To shur them, lest the City should slee out of them. We may very well so far extend the Parallel, as to aver, That the Contained in no ways an-(wers to the Contents; there is a deal of more Heads, than either Heart or Horns: several Sections, but small Substance, and a great Shew of Method, but very little Matter. I confess, I might have far more enlarged, this Duply, had I taken Notice of all the Impertinences, which herein come under my Observation; but that the more Judicious and Intelligent would ascribe these things not so much to the Cause, as his Weakness, who managed it. I desire to contend for Truth, and not for Victory; knowing, though I were so minded, the Triumph should be but Small, that I could gain from so Inconsiderable an Antagonist. Therefore, Reader, I shall wish thee for the Truth's sake, (that thou may be found truly owning it, and not something else instead of it) seriously to Read and Peruse these Papers, with such as relate unto them; and may that Spirit of Truth, which teacheth all things, so direct thy Understanding, as thou may'st discern, what Doctrine is truly and really most according cording to the Holy Scriptures! Which thou art heartily invited in this Matter to fearch and peruse,

By a Well-wisher of Thy Soul, and of all Men.

UNMASK'D:

OR,

The Staggering Instability of the pretended Stable Christian Discovered, his Omissions Observed, and Weakness Unvailed, &c.

HAT which first presents it self to my View, is W. M. his Epistle directed to me and the Quakers in and about Aberdeen, which he prefixes as his Confiderations upon my Preface; but that which is the substantial Part of it he hath left unanswered. For my Preface was, to shew the Method of the Priests of Aberdeen's Procedure against the Quakers, giving Account of most, if not all the Papers had past betwixt them, and also how by their Instagation some of us had been imprisoned; particularly the Falfness of G. Mildrum his Way with us, first in Pulpit to accuse us as Hereticks, and then in private to defire to know of us our Principles: but all this he hath wholly waved, it feems he either could not, or would not defend his own, nor his Brethrens double Dealing with us. As to what he mentions I take Notice

First, Of his denying, That any in or about Aberdeen hath reproached the Quakers, as Demented, Distracted, or bodily Possessed; checking me, for taking things upon Trust. Well, it sufficeth me, that they are ashamed of such Falshoods;

1672. though if need be, I can instance, that I had

Ground to fay fo.

Secondly, I take Notice, how that not being willing wholly to clear us, he faith; Some of us in England have given Ground to be so charged, by their extraordinarily Trembling, &c: But it is strange W. M. should so far forget himself, as to account this a Ground to charge People as Demented, &c. feeing there was a Season, wherein himself acknowledged, He seldom or never went to the Pulpit without sensible Trembling: Which if he dare to deny, I offer to prove by undeniable Testimonies. As to what he adds of Women going naked in the Streets, and some offering to raise the Dead; alledging for Proof Samuel Clark, the Newcastle Ministers, Paget's Heresiography. I answer; as these Calumnies have been particularly answered by our Friends in England, so they fignify no more against us (being writ by our declared Enemies) than Cochlaus Lyes against Luther, particularly that he affayed to Cast out Devils; or what the Popish Authors write of Calvin, That he made a Living Man counterfeit himself dead, that so be might raise him; and that Beza was stigmatized for Sodomy: and much more of this kind.

Fodn of Leyden. Thirdly, The thing I observe is his Comparing us to John of Leyden, and Ignatius Loyola, and that, because they Preached in the Streets, cried down wearing of Rings, and other Superfluities as we do, were against needless Salutations, spoke much of Mortification, and pretended to or expected Immediate Revelation. But our resembling them in these things, which the Apostles of Christ commanded and practised, will not prove the fesuites our Grandfathers (as W. M. terms) it more than their being found in them, will prove them the Grand Children of the Apostles. We must not forsake doing good, because Hypocrites seem to do fo, nor forbear to preach the Gospel, because 1672. Fudas did it: but as for the other Practifes of Fohn a Leyden, and Ignatius Loyola's Followers the fesuites, to wit, their cutting down all that would not be of their way, their affuming outward Power, their feeking to overturn Kingdoms, their preaching up War and Blood: The Principles and Practices of W. M. his Brethren do declare, how much more they resemble them, than the Quakers; who from the Pulpit blew the Trumpet of all the late Troubles, Seditions and Civil Diffentions, which have proved fo bloody and monstrous to the Inhabitants of this poor Island! And many of them have now turned their Backs upon that Cause, which they hunted out others to fight for; and some (to wit, W. N. and his Brethren at Aberdeen) can find out Jesuitical Di-finitions and Mental Reservations, whereby (notwithstanding they swore against all detestable Neutrality) they can make a shift to preach under Bishop, dispense with the Doxology, forbear Lecturing, and feveral other Parts of the Directorian Discipline, as W. M. has done at the Bithops Order, and yet keep a Referve for Presby: tery, in case it come again in Fashion.

Fourthly, I take Notice of the Impertinency of W. M. his bringing in this Story of Ignatius Loyola, upon my Saying; Some Professors in Aberdeen found that Savour of Life in the Quakers Testimony, which formerly had stirred among others, who were come to a great Decay. Now because it was obvious, I intended by these Professors who were come to a Decay. W. M. and some others of his Brethren, who pretended to be for Independency in that Day; but now were turned with the Times, knowing, how much it would reflect upon him to harp on this String, he runs away and says; These others are Ignatius Loyola, and thereupon makes the Comparison above-mentioned: which impertinent Digression is abundantly manifest.

H

Fifthly,

Fiftbly, I take Notice of his charging us, as 1670. rather Reproachers of others, than reproached, because of the plain Language we use against him The plain Language and his Brethren; alledging, We will not find uled in the Christ and his Apostles use the like to such, as pro-Scriptures. felled Christianity. For a Reproof of his Ignorance in the Scriptures let him read Rom. 16. 18. Phil. 2. 2. I Tim. 1. 19, 20. ib. chap. 4. 1,2,3, &c. ib. chap. 6. verf. 3, 4. 2 Tim. 2. 17. Tit. 1. 10, 11. 2 Pet. 2. 1, 2, 3. 1 Job. 2. 18, 19, &c. His adding, That they shew Earnestness of Desire, that Souls may be faved, and Willingness to promote that Design, saith nothing; except this Desire and Willingness proceed from the right Ground. Papists are as zealous in their Earnestness and Willinguess as they, and do no less profess Subjection to the Gospel, owning Christ to be the Messiah, and yet Calvin spared not to term them Impuros Canes, filthy Dogs. Innumerable are the Ex-wherein he chargeth me of Pride, Passion, Censoriousness, Folly, Contrariety to the Word of God, Ignorance, and endeavouring to promote the Popish Interest: but had he truly minded my Good in his Cautions, he should have produced some Reasons to prove me guilty of these Crimes. He concludes us Proud, for separating from them in Burying-Places; and so condemns the French Protestants, for doing the like from Papists. He salily chargeth us with placing Religion in forbearing Ribands, keeping on the Hat, and saying Thou and Thee; and therefore concludes me Ignorant of true Conversion: While his Ignorance of us hath made him thus caluminatious. He concludes us Advancers of the Popish Interest, because we decry their Ministry and Churches: While he borrows this very Argument from the Papifis,

pressions of this Kind used by the zealous Luther

Sixtbly, I take Notice of his Cautions to me,

Eurying-Grounds feparate. against them.

Papists, who used it against the first Reformers, alledging, that their crying down the Church of Rome, was a joining Hand with the Turks, who did the same; though then the first Reformers were no Turks, though they agreed with them in denying the Church of Rome. Neither are we Romanists, though with those of Rome we condemn them; especially considering, that it is, because of their too great Assinity with Papists, that we do so.

Seventhly, I take notice of his confessing, He never intends to tell the World the Scriptures we use; alledging, we abuse them. But if he could have proved we did fo, it would have tended more to our Disadvantage. And whereashe says, be resolves to write no more: I confess it will be his Wisdom; except he speak to better Purpose: It is a very apparent Subterfuge, to cover his Resolutions of not prosecuting further this Debate, by alledging, it will prove endless; and comparing us to Scolds, who will have the Last Word: Which in Reason can have no Place in this Matter, feeing being challenged by me of many great Omissions, he freely acknowledged, he had not, nor did not intend to answer me fully; and what he had writ, was but some Animadverfions: Which I have indeed found true, having allowed fome Time, as he defired, to read them; though it very hardly deferves, to be so much regarded.

As to his Epistle, if he had as really affected Retirement, as he pretends he does, he should have done well to have appeared in Publick with some more folid Stuff: He hath herein almost only shewed his Ingenuity, in that he acknowledgeth himself amongst the Weakest of our Opposers, comparing his Work but to a small Quantity of Water, brought to quench an House on Fire: We have indeed found it of less Force, than many,

Protestant Interest, against our Endeavours to overthrow it; but to how little Purpose, may, as it occurs, be manifested.

After he has made an intire Omission of what is particularly directed by me to him in my 1st 2d and 3d Pages, (as not being able to vindicate himself) he enters upon the Matter of Salutation, undertaking in his first Section, to prove such as are used by Gestures, wherein I observe—

First, His most manifest Omission of the first Part of mine concerning this thing, page 3. and 4. where I charge with Distingenuity in wrong subsuming of our Words; which he shuffleth over with this General, That after the Quakers

Secondly, He having expressed my Argument

against their Manner of Salutations, viz. That being it is the Expression or Signification of our all worship Worship to God, it ought not, nor cannot be given to the Creature without Idolatry; He maketh thereunto no direct Answer, but instead of one frames a Distinction of Worship in Civil and Sacred: The first (he faith) may be given to Men, but the second to God only; alledging, this Distinction to be founded on Scripture Luke IA. IO.

Then shalt thou have Worship in the Presence of them that sit at Meat with thee. Now these Words ought to be translated; Thou shalt have Glory, Praise or Renown; and therefore in the Latin it is, Et crit tibi Gloria: for so the Greek Words Doxa signifies, which W. M. will not shew me to signify Adoratio or Worship. It's therefore but a poor Argument, that has no better Bottom than this manifest Mistake of the Translation. For

other

Ction, nor former Affertion.

Thirdly, I observe his instancing of the Practices of Abraham, Lot, Joseph, Jacob, adding, That the' they be not to be followed in all things, yet in such they may, as are not elsewhere reprehended nor prohibited. For Answer; Let him look unto Rev. 22. 9. where the Agel refused it : And seeing, I suppose, he may have so much Charity for this beloved Disciple, as to judge, he was not tempted with Idolatry, especially in a Season, wherein God was revealing fuch pretious Things unto him; he may observe now, this holy Man was a Stranger to this unfcriptural Distinction of Civil and Religious Worship.

Fourthly, I observe his Endeavours to shift Affinity with Popery; but he hath no way difproved the Parity in that, wherein I compared them, viz. The Papifts diftinguish the Worship they give to God, and that they give to their Images only in the Intention, and not in the outward Signification: And ye distinguish the Worthip ye give to Men, and that ye give to God, only in the Intention, and not in the outward Signification. For ye bow and take off your Hats to the worst of Men, as well as to God; and therefore ye agree in fo far, as both have nothing but their simple Intention to plead the Difference, whereunto nothing is answered. He concludes his Section, saying; I feem to justify Moses his doing Obeysance to his Father-in-Law; adding, What is Obeyfance, but civil Reverence by bowing the Body? This is a fit Conclusion to close up fuch a filly Section; for after he has laboured long in vain, he concludes thus begging the thing in Question. And if Moses bowed himself, as I faid in my last, that makes nothing against us.

1672. had proved, how and where we deny them. But because he had something to say from Scripture for this (which we deny not, but own as much as himself) he would have it, in that he might feem with fome Credit to bring in his Inference, which is, That bowing of the Body, and expressing our Affections by Words, is agreeable to Scripture. The latter Part of this concerns not us, as being not denied: and for the first, of Bowing, it signifies nothing, until it be brought in with some more pressing Premisses. In this Section he acknowledges, That taking off the Hat is without any Hat-honour Scripture-Warrant: And from Argument passes here to Entreaties, begging, that it may not be quarrelled at. But feeing, the taking of it off, or uncovering of our Heads is that which the Apostle requires, as a Sign of Subjection in our Worthip towards God, 1 Cor. 11. 4, 7. we refolve to keep it to Him, and not to give it to Man: wherein if he will folve our Scruple according to Scripture, we may be the more eafily induced to answer his Desire. It is to be observed, that notwithstanding of this, we are not against outward Signification of Honour; though in the End of this Section he fallly would be infinuating the contrary.

He hath here subjoined a Third Sellion, which he termeth an Answer to my Objection, and which in Reason should have some Relation to Salutations, as being under this Head; though indeed it hath none at all, but is a meer Cavil at some of my Words upon another Subject, concerning the Single Language. Where, Page 11. I confess with him, that the Kingdom of God confifts not in Words, adding, that it feems inconfiftent with his Principles, feeing the Gospel according to him is but Words, yea, the Scripture it felf (I mean, that which ye have of it, to wit, the Letter:) Now this Parenthelis he hath distingenuto Man not warranted by Scriprure; but to God.

ously omitted; and thereupon goes about to explain their meaning of the Scripture, and the Scripture, and the Scriptly be accounted Subverters of the Christian Religion: But such shallow Criticisms brought in beside the Purpose, whereas other things more Material, are either wholly omitted, or scurvily shifted over) will easily appear to the impartial and judicious Reader.

In his Second Head, concerning our using Thou and Thee, which is the Singular Number to one Person, I observe-

First, How he hath given away his own Cause, By [rou] by confessing, that Luke 22. 31. is not under-all the Apostood of one exclusively of others, and there files, Luke fore no Wonder, if Christ used the plural Num-22.31, ber, feeing as W. M. confesses, he intended to speak to all the Apostles. As for that Expression of Bildad's, Job's Friend (granting both the Transcription and Translation to be true) shall this one Expression overturn the universal Practice of Christ and the whole Saints in Scripture? Or let him tell us plainly, whether these Words and Practices of Job's Friends, which are recorded, be for to be our Rule, so as we ought to imitate and follow them? Especially, where they contradict or differ from the Practice of Christ and his Apostles? But to follow this so frequent Practice of the Saints, is with W. M. to be proud, knowing nothing, but doting about Questions and Strife of Words; for so he mis-applies 1 Tim. 6. 4. and to his own Confusion, uses it himself in the end of his Epistle to the Reader, where he has these Words; I am thy Servant: and thereby hath Condemned himself as one of those Ignorant, Proud Boasters he speaks of, &c.

Secondly, The fecond thing I observe, that he produceth not one Argument against our Pradice in this thing, but his own groundless, yea, ly-

H 4 ing

1672. ing Imaginations and Conjectures, alledging; He is of the mind, that if the Translators had not kept to the Rigor of Construction, but Translated Atach, and so not Thou (which is the true fignification) but You, we had kept our old tone: Though bis disdainful Infinuation of our Ignorance be here apparent, yet Experience might have taught him and his Brethren, that even where the Translators have favoured them with their Escapes, the Quakers have both had Hebrew and Greek enough to find them out. It is also here to be observed, how easily W. M. can dispense with Mistakes (even wilful ones) in the Translators, when they make for his Purpose; thereby in effect (for all his Pretences of Exalting the Scripture and making it his Rule) he fignifies his Desire not so much to Square his Pradices to the Scripture, as by twining it like a Nose of Wax, to make it Square to them.

He Subscribeth his Third Head; An Undertaking to prove, That our Departing from them is not to be fuffified by their departing from Papists: Wherein is to be observed his manifest Omissions, which the Reader will see, by comparing the 7, 8, 9, and 10th Pages of my last, with this his Third Head.

Next, I Observe the Weakness of his Arguing in what he hath mentioned, wherein he Concludes; That because we Grant, we had a Measure of Integrity while among them, that therefore it was begot by their Ordinances so called. But doth not the same recur in the Case of the Primitive Protestants? Or will he say, That all of them were void of any Measure of Integrity, while they were among the Papists? Moreover, rapists not whereas he Objects, that the God visited some

Answer:

Answer; The same recurs in our Case; for 1672. whatever Advantages Luther had, either by the Use of the Bible, or otherways, had not we the same?

And therefore in the Third Place it is to be Obferved, that he hath altered the State of the Question, alledging it to be Incumbent upon me, to prove, that they were Converted by the Popish Traditions. Which is a wilful Mistake; for the Question (as may be seen in the Pages abovementioned) was, Whether God might not Countenance us with a regard to that Measure of Integrity he hath begot in our Hearts, though we are indeed wrong, as to our walking with them in their Way. And this I did Illustrate by the Example of the Disciples of Cornelius, and of Luther, who though he came but Gradually to his Discoveries, yet was Countenanced in the first as well as last Steps; yea, untwithstanding of his erring Grofly in the Matter of Transubstantiation. All this he hath wholly omitted, closing up this Head, by endeavouring to draw from my Words a Reflection upon P. L. as if I accounted an Objection coming from him Weak; but it is ill infered, to conclude P. L. from thence a Feeble Person. For though P. L. as well as I, might reckon it Weak Comparatively, in respect of others more Strong; yet he might judge it Strong enough for fuch Faint Disputers, as W. M. or his Brethren at Aberdeen to Answer: As that which he reckoned would put the Quakers to a great Nonplus, he proposed in his Dialogue upon this Occasion, a Query, viz. Whether it was fafe to lean to the Guidance of that Light, which one while fays, This is the Way of God, walk in it; another while, Come out of it, for it is Babylon? To which, beside the general Answer above mentioned, I shew him, how easily it might be Retorted upon most of all the National Ministry tradicting that, which they had formerly pleaded for as the Cause and Work of God: even then as this their Changeableness cannot be ascribed to the Scripture, which they pretend to be their Rule, neither will any Man's Instability, who pretends to be guided by the Light, prove, the Light ought not to be followed. This, because he felt might touch him and his Brethren too near, therefore he hath wholly omitted it.

wherein is to be observed,

First, How he has gone from the State of the Question, as it is in his Dialogue, Page 5. where he denies Christ to be in the Wicked or Unconverted in any other manner, than as he is in the very Brutes and unfenfible Creatures: But now he grants Christ to be in such as to common Operations: and Page 22. he fays, That the Light is in all Men, and that Christ is in all Men, in so far as his Light is in all Men. And thus he overthrows his chief Argument, used against us in his Dialogue, page 5. where he fays; That Christ is in none, but in such with whom He is in Union : For here he grants Christ's Light to be in all Men, even fuch as are not in Union with him; adding, that Where the Light of Christ is, there is Christ the Donator of it. Which is all we fay; fo then the Controversy is no more, if Christ or his Light be in all Men.

But after what Manner He is in them, and whether this Light be faving, yea or nay?

And here in the fecond Place I observe his shameless Distingenuity and Omission, in saying, It remains for me to prove, that this Light in all is faving: Whereby he would make the Reader believe, that I had never offered to prove this. For clearing of which I desire he may look into

Page 21. of my last, where from Rom. 5. 8. Joh. 1670. 3. 16, 19. Heb. 2. Tit. 2. 11. Col. 1. 23. IVV did prove, that the Universal Grace of God given to all Men is faving in its Nature, and in order to fave. And now, though no Rules of ffrick Debate could require me to proceed further, yet I shall go on to examine the Question, as he hath now stated it, viz. That such, as are not in Union with Christ, have not faving Grace. To prove this he produceth some Scriptures, where such as have faving Grace and Light, are said to be in Union with Christ, which is not in the least denied : But the Question is; Whether all, that have Saving Light, are in Union with Christ: which he hath not so much as offered to prove. And therefore it is here to be observed, how he hath not fo much as mentioned, far less medled with my Arguments, proving Javing Light and Grace to be in Men, before they be converted or in Union with Christ; shewing, He musts needs be in them, before He be in Union with them, that he may work the Faith, by which He may be united unto them: feeing, without him (the Scripture faith) we can do nothing, Joh. 15.5. as it is more amply contained in page 15. of my Last. Page 14. he feems to take some notice of an Example brought by me to shew, That faving Grace presupposes not Conversion. It is from the Instance of a Plaister, and a Wound; the being healed of a Wound, pre-Supposeth a Plaister; but the Application of the Plaister presupposeth not the being healed: This he rejects as not to the Purpose, because, as he faith, Who have Saving Grace, are in part healed, cured of the reigning Power of Sin: but for this he brings no Proof, nor hath not shewn us, wherein the Comparison answereth not after the like manner. In the same Page he addeth, That the Difference betwixt having of Saving Grace, and being in a State of Grace, is but the Figment of Cause for it, either from Scripture or Reason, but only be faith so. These are his most frequent and inforcing Arguments against us. Of this nature is his Arguing, Page 11. Reckoning it as a great Absurdity flowing from our Dostrine, that it would import Christ in some Measure to be in Christ in the the Americans, because He bears Testimony in them against Iniquity. But to prove this to be absurd, he produceth no Reason; and if we may believe the Apostle Paul, he tells us; That a Manifestation of the Spirit is given every one to prosit withal, 1 Cor. 12. 7. So this every one includes the Americans.

The second Absurdity, which he seeks to infer from this, hath no better Bottom; That then it might be faid, that Christ is revealed to Devils, and that we do the Heathens [mall Favour, in putting them but in the same Case with such. For the Revelation of Christ to Man, before the Day of their Visitation be expired, and to such after they have fin'd it out, is far different, as may appear by Luke 17. Likewise W. M. hath forgot, how eafily this Argument may be retorted upon himfelf; for it is not questioned, but Devils have enough of outward Knowledge, even fuch as is gathered from Scripture, and that which W. M. accounts the great Priviledge of Christians, doth it therefore follow, that Christians are in no better Condition than Devils?

And thus is answered another of his profuse Assertions, Page 12. That if Pagans have saving Light, their State should be as good, as the State of real Christians: For it is one thing to have saving Light, and another, to hearken to and receive it; else according to his own Argument, the State of Devils should be as good as the State of real Christians.

He

Headds; Where Saving Illumination is, there 1672. is Saving Faith, because there is a Concatination.

betwixt these Graces of the Spirit.

Answ. There is Grace given in Order to save, where Faith doth not follow upon it; which is evident by the Parable of the Seeds, Matt. 13. 3. it was the same Seed was sown in the Stony and Thorny Ground, that was sown in the Good Ground, and yet it only brought forth Fruit there. The light enlighteneth every Man; He came unto His Own, and they received Him not: But it was only To as many as received Him, that He gave Power to become the Sons of God.

And whereas he Objecteth, That where we are defired to believe in the Light, it is understood of Christ's Person, else it would import a Belief in a Creature.

I Answer, He that believeth in the Light, believeth in Christ; for where the Light of Christ is, as faith W. M. himself (Page 22) there is Christ himself.

In the same Page he further adds, That if Pagans have Saving Light, then there is no Spiritual Pagane Benefits accrues to Christians by the Scriptures and Light and Gospel. But he hath not heard us contra-diffin-Gospel. guish this Light from the Gospel. We say expresly, it is the Gospel, according to Col 1. 23. where the Apostle saith, That the Gospel, whereof be was a Minister, was preached to every Creature: This Scripture mentioned by me in my last, he hath wholly omitted. Nor is this Arguing of his concerning the bad Tendency of our Principle, but a-reiterate Clamour of what is already answered in Page 22. of my last; where I shew him, we distinguish betwixt things absolutly needful and things very profitable; and how they Admit of this Distinction themselves. alfo, how these bad Consequences of rendring the Gospel and Preaching useless, doth far more folPtedestination made low from their Doctrine of absolute Predestination; all which he hath also Omitted. Now such are far likelier than we, to prove David his praying for more Understanding, and that he might keep the Precepts of God; for being Predestinate to Life, he could not miss of it: And how can such but reckon it Folly for him to Pray, that he might keep the Precepts, whose Principles obliges them to believe, they can never be made able to keep them.

Page 13. To fay, That Men are Brutish in their Knowledge, because they turn their Backs upon the Light, he reckons a Begging of the Question, as having no Proof at all: Whereas it is particularly intimated, I fohn 1. 5, 6, 7. where the Cause of Men's walking in Darkness, is said to be their not walking in the Light; though it be Pastors, mentioned in that 10th of fer. 19. that are said to be brutish; yet he can't be induc'd to name them. It is easie to prove (though he infinuate the Contrary) that what in Scripture is called Darkness, hath Saving Light; seeing it is expressly mentioned, that the Light shineth in the Darkness, but the Darkness comprehended it not. And this was Saving, being Christ, who is the Saviour, Joh. 1. 5.

Brutish Pa-Stors.

> Nor doth his supposed Contradiction follow this, as if Men could be Spiritually Dead, and not Spiritually Dead, in Respect they have this in them, which is Saving: For though it be in them, yet it is not of them; he that believeth in one, faith Christ, though he be dead, yet shall he live, Joh. 11. 25. If Life be not in them, their permanent Condition, yet they may have some Touches of it; and the Principle of Life is Permanent even in those that are Spiritually dead: though many times as a Spark cover'd under the Ashes He addeth further; That according to us, such who are the Children of Darkness, may be called the Children of Light, because a Child of Light is as much, as one, in whom there is Saving Light

Light and Grace, citing for Proof Luk. 16. 8. 1672. the Words are; For the Children of this World are wifer in their Generation, than the Children of Light. But he offereth from this to infer, That such who are indeed the Children of Darkness, because of their Disobedience to the saving Light and Grace of Truth, that is in them: He has not offered so much as to mention.

Page 13. He confesseth with me, That the Light in some may be Darkness; but speaks not one Word, of what Light I mention, may be fo; Page 14. of mine, only adds, That we will do well, to exhort our Disciples, to take heed of our Light, not to it. But we desire not People to take heed to our Light, or their Light, as he Terms it, but to the Light, wherewith Christ Jesus bath Enlightned them; and in this there is no Danger. He greatly declares his Ignorance, in alledging, Our Way of bidding People heed the Light within is God is Light not warranted by Scripture; For God is Light, I Joh. 1. 3. Is he not in us? Acts 17. 27, 28. Must we not then there take heed unto him? Or is not that Light to be taken heed unto, which shineth in our Hearts, to give us the Knowledge of the Glory of God? 2 Cor. 4. 6. And is not the Word of God Light, which the Apostle saith expresly, is not far off, neither above us, below us, nor without us, but Nigh, even in our Mouths and in our Hearts, Rom. 10. 8. Deut. 30. 14. More-over W. M. himself confesseth, That the Light of Christ is in Wicked Men; and if so, let him tell us plainly, if Men ought not to take heed to the Light of Christ, where it is? How hath Darkness blinded him in this Matter!

Page 14. He repeats my Words falfly, alledging I fay; The Light is Darkness to them that reject it, instead of, is as Darkness. For I said plainly, The Light of Christ is not nor cannot be Darkness otherways, than as the Day of the 1672. Lord in Scripture is called Darkness: This he hath omitted.

Lord

Page 15. Having fought(but ineffectually) to overturn my Affertion, where I fay; " Some may " have Saving Light and Grace, who after a cer-" tain Manner may be faid not to have the Spi-" rit, Viz. as not bringing forth the Fruits of it : Averring; That unless I can prove, that the Spirit calls upon all in Order to Conversion, I cannot conclude, that all have the Spirit. Answ. As the one is easily proved, so is the other safely concluded: These are the plain Words of the Apoftle, 1 Cor. 12. 7. A Manifestation of the Spirit is given to every Man to prosit withal: Now it were not profitable unto them, if it did not Brive with them in Order to Convert them. That other Scripture, John 16. 8. he passes over. alledging; I should prove, the World there to be understood of All and every One: Though in Reason it might suffice for Answer, that there is nothing brought by him to shew, why the Word World here is not taken in it's Genuine and common Acceptation; yet the Apostle solves this Scruple in the following Verse; —Of Sin, because they believe not in me. Then if there, All Believers be included, Is not that all and every one in the World? for of the Saints there is not here any Question.

In his Second Section, Page 16. He beginneth with Omitting my Concession of the Benefit and Advantages, that accrue to those that believe, by the outward Knowledge of Christ: And mentioneth nothing of the State of the Question, which was; Whether any might be faved without this outward Knowledge? And to shew, that some might, I gave him the Instance of Deaf People and Children. To which he returneth nothing; but takes up the Paper to prove, That the Greek Prepesition is sometimes Translated [among];

Which

Which is not denied: Yet I shall find him Twenty to one, where it is rendred [in] and can no ways be said to be [among.] The Question is; The Prepoways be faid to be [among.] The Question is; The Prepoways the Reason alledged by hin proves it no more proways to be Among, to wit, That it would have perly.
been the Apostle's Grief, not his foy, to know, that the Light of Truth was born down Among them;
This was the Apostle's Joy, that the Corinthians came to be sensible, how they had Crucified Christ in them; that so looking upon, and taking heed to Him, whom they had Pierced, they might come to be healed by him.

Page 17. He flightly passes over that Expression of Paul, 2 Cor. 5. 16. where he saith, Henceforth know we Christ no more after the Flesh, but after the Spirit. (Adduced by me to shew, that Paul preferred a Spiritual Knowledge of Christ to all other.) As if the Apostle were here only condemning earthly Thoughts of Christ, as if, as King of Israel, he should begin a temporal Kingdom: But for this Exposition we have only the bare Authority of his own naked Assertion.

Page 18. For want of a true Spiritual Underflanding concerning what I mean by the Inward Blood of Christ, he bringeth forth his own malitious Guessings.

The First is, That I seem to incline to justify, that which hath been charged upon some of my Brethren, to wit, That we are not such Fools, as to hope to be Saved by that Jesus, that died at Jesusalem: As he hath no Ground to suspect such a thing from my Words; so there was never any Ground for such a Charge against any, owned of that People.

The Second is, That perhaps I intend, that Christ, as Man, dwells in us. There can none truly charge us with such Grosness, as to assert, The Manhood, or Vessel, that walked at Jerusalem, is in us; but

1672. if any of us have said, that Christ, as Man; dwells in us, they have faid no more than the ex-christ's in press Words of Scripture, I Pet. 3. 3, 4. Let dwelling in Man is spiri-your Adorning be the hidden Man of the Heart, Eph. 4. 24. That ye put on the New Man. Now what is this New-Man, but Christ Jesus? And therefore saith the Scripture, Rom. 13. 14. Put on the Lord Jesus Christ. Gal. 3. 27. As many as are baptized into Christ, have put on Christ. And this is Christ, which the Apostle travelled, that He might be formed in the Galatians, Gal. 4. 19. And whereof he admonisheth the Corinthians, that they should know Him in them, else they were Reprobates, 2 Cor. 13. 5. If it be hard for W. M. to take up the Meaning of these things, let him acknowledge his Ignorance in the Holy Scriptures, whose Language this is. In his Third Section, Page 19. he begins by of-fering to prove, Our Principles have a Tendency to introduce Paganism; and to contradict him, he reckons an Impertinency: But his ridiculous Vanity herein will appear, by looking upon Page 24. of my last. Neither bringeth he any Arguments to prove this, but such, whereby he might conclude the same against the Apostle Paul. The The Light Quakers, saith he; speaks of a Light within, to

stion of Pa-which who take heed, need no Teacher: And the Apostle speaks of a Knowledge or Light under the New Covenant, where there is no need of a Teacher, Heb. 8. 10, 11. So if the Tendency of the Apostle's Words be not to introduce Paganism, neither are ours. And because that W. M. finds, that notwithstanding of this we dispise not Teaching, but are led even by that Light, to hear and to receive the Ministry of them whom God fends; he concludes, that herein we are Inconfistant: adding, That some of us have been heard to say, That we only taught to bring People off from other Teachers to mind the Light within, that that then they will need none; which he concludes, 1672. would quickly make them like fuch, among whom the Name of Christ is not in Remembrance. But he might as well seek to infer the like Hazard and Contradiction from the plain Words of the Apostle, 1 Joh. 2. 27. Te have an Anointing, and ye need not, that any Manteach you; but as the same Anointing teacheth you of all things: And yet in the mean time was teaching them.

As for that Story mention'd by him, Of a certain Dying Man in Aberdeen, whom two Quakers Knowledge pressed so much to mind Christ within: It inferreth of Christ pre ferred before nothing for his Purpose; for that Dying Person the outward.

had abundance of the outward Knowledge of Christ, and they needed not Preach that to him, which he knew; therefore was he sensible of the Seasonableness of their Advice, saying, (as I am certainly informed by one of the two) How good a thing would it be for an old dying-Man like me, to know that Christ within, which ye speak of!

He bringeth not any thing of weight in his Fourth Section, as Reply to that which is contained in the 20th Page of my last, where I shew, "We do no ways confound the Light-Giver with "the Light, or Enlightning given: The Reason alledged here is, because we call that Light Jesus Christ, wherewith all Men are enlightned; which implyeth no more his Consequence, than that usual Expression, that it is the Sun, by which we are outwardly enlighted, implies any consounding of the Sun with the Beams.

Whereas in his last he said; There was a certain Light in all Men, and that as the Remainders of God's Image in him, since the Fall; in the End of Page 24. he explains it to be the Light of Reason and Understanding, and thereby makes the Reason of Man all one with Christ and the Spirit; which Page 10. and 22. he granted to be in Wicked Men, as to common Operations.

W. Ms Confusion.

After that he laboureth much in his Fifth Settion to prove, That Man retaineth some Good since the Fall; he instanceth nothing but the Soul, which he faith, is good and precious, and of great Excellency and Worth, and retains a Similitude to the Image of God, as being Spiritual and Immortal. Where it is observable, That he grants, the Souls of wicked and unconverted Men to be of great Worth and Excellency; and yet he denies the Works of the pure Spirit of God to be of any Worth or Excellency, and that because the Soul has a Share in them. If so be, the Souls of wicked Men are conform'd to the Image of God, because they are Spiritual and Immortal; then are Devils also conform to the Image of God, for they are also Spiritual and Immortal in the same Sense, that the Souls of wicked Men are.

Lastiy, I desire the Reader may here observe, how he hath entirely omitted that Part of Page 21. of mine, where I shew, " How and in what " Sense the Light is to be understood, or called " the Light of Nature, and of what Nature? Therein clearing us from the Aspersion of Pelaginism. By which Omission it may appear, how willing these Men are to Calumniate us, and apt to pass by that which tends to our Vindication.

Page 25. Head 5. Sect. 1. He alledgeth, We vilify the Scriptures, and that because we confess, That the End of our Meeting is not to Read them, but to wait on God; adding, that therefore we

Reading the make an Opposition betwixt Reading the Scriptures, scriptures is and Waiting on God. But as this Conclusion hath owned. no Proof, fo it is most Inconsequential: As if nothing could be distinguished, except it were oppofite: According to which he might Argue, that because preaching and praying are not all one, there-fore they are opposite. That some bave been countenanced of God in Reading the Scriptures, is not denied by us; and therefore the bringing of it forth against us, is wholly Impertinent. 1672.

And whereas he avers, That the Reading of the Scripture is the Means of having the Word of God to dwell richly in us, alluding to Col. 3. 16. He thould have first prov'd the Word there mentioned to be the Scripture, before he had been fo hafty to draw his Conclusion.

His alledging fome Passages, where Christ and others spake upon some Words of Scripture, faith nothing to the Purpose: For as I confessed, is was fometimes used by them; so I told him, it was also frequent among us. But the Question is, Whether their setled Custom of speaking upon a Text be according to Scripture? And thereupon I shew him, how Christ and his Apostles did preach without it; as Christ, Matt. 5. and in many other Places, : And Paul to the Athenians : But this of Paul mentioned by me in my last, he hath left unanswered.

And in Answer to 1 Cor. 14. 29, 30, 31, For ye may all Prophesy one by one, &c. He saith, This prophesying will not conduce to keep up the successive Talking of restricted on-Quakers; alledging it to be restricted to the Prophets by W. phets, which (he says) it will be hard to prove our M. sally. Preachers to be: Adding; That it maketh not against their Way, because Ministers speak among them two or three. Here though in Relation to us he reffricts this Place to the Prophets, yet in Relation to himself he doth it not; else he must prove their Ministers, that so speak, to be Prophets, as he defires me to do our Preachers: Now this he cannot, fince he fays pereintorily Page 97. That such a thing is ceased. And therefore this may thew, how he twines and wrefts the Scripture, to make it answer his corrupt Ends. It is a manifest Shift, to avert the Strength of this Place, where the Order of the Church, which is quite contrary to theirs, is expresly mentioned, To run to the Matter of Women's Speaking, thereby to Letter.

2. make a Degression to a new Debate; (which hath been largely defended by us, and particularly by Margaret Fell in a Book never yet answered) And as to the place alledged, we have often shewn, how it cannot be understood in a rigid literal Sense, else it would contradict the same Apostle, I Cor. 11. 5. where he proposeth to Women the Method and Manner of their Behaviour in their publick Preaching and Praying: The Promise was, that the Daughters as well as the Sons should Prophesy, Joel 2. 28. Als 2. 17.

As a Second Reason of our vilifying the Scriptures, he adds, and that by way of Derision, They will not have the Scripture called their Master's Letter (No forsooth) their Master's Letter is writ in their Hearts, &c. Answ. Here his Malice hath not only led him foolishly to deride us, but the Apostle, yea, God himself. For the Law God is our of God is our Master's Letter, and this is in our Master's Hearts if we be under the New Covenant. Help Hearts, if we be under the New-Covenant, Heb. 8. 10. I will put my Laws into their Minds, and write them in their Hearts; and Verse 11. They shall not need every Man to teach their Neighbour, for they shall all know me, &c. His Argument taken from Christ's writing to the Seven Churches of Asia, makes nothing against us, except he will be so rediculous to aver, that these Churches had no Rule, nor Knowledge of their Master's Will, before they received that writing; which if they had, it was not there only. And this was that Incumbent to be proved, for which that Example was brought; for the Testimony of Christ through his Servants, whether by Word or Writ, is dearly owned by us, as hath often been declared.

With the like Impudence he concludes, That we bend our Strength to evacuate the Authority of the Scriptures, and confirm negligent Atheifts in their contemptous flighting of them; because we speak

fpeak of walking, or doing our Work by the immediate Counsel of God. But he might as well babble against the beloved Disciple, 1 fob. 2. 24. The AnointTe have received an Anointing, and ye need not that sig is no coafirming of any Man should teach you; and yet was then atheise.

teaching them himself without Contradiction.

As for that Scripture, fob. 12. 24, 48. which he desires us to read, we find not, how in the least they strike against our Principle: for as it is without Doubt to us, that the Words which Christ spake, will stand in Judgment against him and his Brethren, because while in Words they pretend to exalt it, both in Principle and Practice they vilify and deny it.

As a third Reason he alledges, We prefer our filent Waiting to the Reading of Scriptures, as if we must first come to this, e're we can know the Scripture aright; adding, that this Waiting is defined by us, To be a silent Posture of the Heart, without thinking Good or Evil.

Answ. These Thoughts, which we say ought to be excluded from Waiting, are Man's own waiting exthoughts; not such as the Spirit of God sur-cludes Man's nisheth him with: And it is great Ignorance to Thoughts. say, That without this we can use the Scriptures aright; seeing the Things of God knoweth no Man, save the Spirit of God, I Cor. 2. II. As for his own Imaginations, which he subjoins concerning our Waiting, they signify nothing; because alledged without any Proof: We deny not, but that Faith, Hope and Charity is exercised in waiting, yet not without such Thoughts, as proceed from the Spirit of God. And whereas he finds, we clear our selves of this Calumny of being Vilisers of the Scripture, by shewing, how much it is our Desire to try Doctrines by them; he alledgeth: We have herein been suspected of Juggling; the Proof is, R. Farmer saith so. But R. Farmer's saying and W. M's saying is all one in this 1672. Matter; neither of them are to be trusted without Proof. Now the Reason, because we say, that the Scriptures are not the Saints Rule of knowing God and living to Him: But this is just to beg the thing in Question.

That Story mentioned by him, of a Quaker's telling a certain Woman in Aberdeen, that the might as well read a Latin Book, as the Bible, doth no ways prove, that we are against trying of Doctrines by the Scripture; feeing the Quaker he fpeaks of, might have had good Reason, to look upon that supposed Religious Woman, as one alienated from that Spiritual Key of David, which can alone truly open the Scriptures, and fo might well tell her; she would do well first to come to that, else her Reading might be so far from profiting her, that she might come to wrest them to her own Destruction, 2 Pet. 3. 16.

Sect. 2. Page 30. He begins with acknowledging, That something may be accounted the Declaration of ones Mind, which is not his Word: Tho' Page 12. of his Dialogue, he could not but smile at

To prove the Scriptures to be truly and proly called the Word of God, he subjoineth, That the

it, as Irrational.

Precepts of the Scriptures were uttered and spoke of God. But in answer to this I shew him Page 26. of my last, that the Properties peculiar to the Word, cannot be spoken of the Scripture, but of the Inward and Living Word. To which he replies nothing, only tells; There is a twofold Word, a Co-effential, Co-eternal Word, and a Spidiffinguish's ritual Word; the Temporal expressed Word, or the Word written in Time. But seeing he pretends to be pleading for the Scripture, he should have used the Language of it, and not such strange Anti scriptural Expressions, which are not to be found in all the Bible. Where doth he read of a Spiritual Temporal, expressed Word? A Part of my Arguments shewing, that these Scriptures, Hof. I. I. Foel I. I. Ifai. 38.4. are understood of that Word, from which the Scriptutes are given forth; he hath but mentioned, not answered: For I told him, Page 26. of my last, that where it is said, The Spirit of God came upon such a one, or to such a one, that therefore the Scripture is the Spirit: And fo as do the Socinians, call the Writings of the Prophets and Apostles the Spirit, denving the Necessity of any other Spirit? This he hath wholly omitted. And indeed. he seems pretty much to incline to the Socinians in this Matter, for he says; That the Scripture is the Sword of the Spirit, and that, because Christ in Sword of his conflict with Satan Said, It was written. But the Spirit. had this been Christ's only Sword, we must conclude, the Devil to have had the same; for he faid also, It is written: And according to this Doctrine, who hath a Bible in his Pocket, wanteth not the Sword of the Spirit: which favoureth of that Popish Foppery, That the Sign of the Cross puts away Devils; but Experience teacheth us, both these Opinions to be alike ridiculous. Upon this Occasion in his Dialogue, Page 13.

he afferted; That it is all one to say, The Scripture saith, and God saith. And whereas in Answer to this I told him, that they might be said to be one, because of their Agreement; yet were no more one, than the Sun-Beam and the Shadow is one, though they agree together. Because he knew not, what to reply to this, he mentions a Part of these Words of mine, and subjoins by way of Answer to them, That they tend to advance Humane Writings, and equal them with the Scripture, when they agree with what God saith. Which as it is a manifest Shift, and no Reply, so it is a notable Impertinency to say; There is any Hazzard of Advancing such Writings, as truther Account are the Scriptures to be esteemed?

Page 32. to prove, That Word mentioned

Mark 7. which he fancies is said to be made void, is not the Living Word, but the outward Pecept of the Scripture; he says, It is plainly held forth to be so, without any further Probation.

He addeth, Page 34. That it seems we think, they set up the Scriptures as an Idol, instead of that from which they come; asking, If we did ever hear them call it the Eternal Son of God, that

Saviour who died. &c. Answ. Though we have not heard you term the Scripture, yet it is not without Reason, we say, A National ye set them up in Christ's stead. For I have a Teacher's Letter under one of the present National Teach-Beliet of the er's Hand, wherein he says, The Scriptures are the alone Means of Salvation; yea, the alone Way, Truth and Life, and that none can be saved without them.

> And I have heard another call the Greek Teftament, The only Foundation. Now being thefe are the peculiar Properties of Christ, have we not Reason to say, that such as ascribe them to the Scriptures, put the Scriptures in Christ's stead? Though W. M. be pleased to term it unworthy

prove, that the Law and Testimony, mentioned Deut. 8. 20. was not an inward Law: The Reason alledged is, Because the Prophet opposes, what is The Law and written, as no Light, if it agree not to the Law and Testimony. But what then? Doth this prove the Testimony here not to be inward? He adds; That let People pretend what they will to a Law within, if it agree not with the Scripture-Word, there is no Light in them; and that the outward Law gets the Name of the Testimony. But granting him all this, it doth not in the least follow, that the Law and Testimony there mentioned, 1672. was not inward. It is more observably strange here, than in any other Place, with what shameless Confidence he afferts his own bare Affertions instead of Arguments.

After the like Manner, without answering a Word of what I infer, Page 27. of mine against him and his Brethren from John 7. 49. he concludes, That Scripture fits us better than them, because of our known, rash censuring. Upon which Supposition of his own he condemns us, as like to Pharisees without more ado: still also by way of Reply to me, he lays, It is not propable, that Christ checked the Lawyer, in Saying, How readest thou? Luke 10. 26. not offering to add any further Probation. And as for what he subjoineth, Page 7. That Christ used the Scripture about Divorcement, and in the Matter of the Sabbath; it doth no ways prove them to be the only Rule; for as is faid, we are willing to try Doctrines by them.

Page 37. He faith; It is false to affirm, that the Divine Authority of the Scriptures cannot be prov'd other ways, than by the Spirit's inward Testimony: adding, There are other Arguments, whereby it can folidly and convincingly be proved; and for this he inftanceth one which he fays, is excellently approv'd by R. Baxter. What then? because W. M. thinks, that Argument of R. Baxter will prove the Scriptures Authority without the Spirit; must we therefore be of the same Mind? I doubt very much, if R. Baxter think so much himself. Now W. M. his Deceit is very remarkable, in quoting fome Words of John Calvin, where he fays, If he John Calvins, were to deal with Arguments, he could produce mar restimony ny to prove the Laws came from God; for that I concerning never imagined, these Arguments could convincing tures. ly prove the Scriptures Authority without the Spirit, (which is the thing in debate) it appears in the very following Words, Lib. Inft. 1. c. 7. Sect. 4. But if we will well look to our Consciences, "that they be not troubled with Doubts, and " flick not at every Scruple, it is requifite, the "Per!wafion, whereof we have spoken, be taken "higher than Humane Judgment or Conjecture, viz. the secret Testimony of the Holy Spirit. And a little after in direct Opposition, to wit, his Words, he adds; This Word Shall not obtain Faith in the Hearts of Men, if it be not sealed by the Inward Testimony of the Spirit. It is necessary then, faith he, that the Saints Spirit, which Ipake by the Mouth of the Prophets, enter in our Hearts, and touch them livingly, to perswade us, that the Prophets have faithfully delivered that, which was commanded them from on High; and a little after. This then is a Perswasion which requires no Reasons: And again, This is a Perswasion, which cannot be Begotten, but by a heavenly Revelation. And in the Beginning of the next Chapter he adds. If we have not this certainly higher, and more firm than all humane Judgment, in vain is the Authority of the Scriptures proved by Arguments. This doth abundantly flew, how contrary W. M. is to Calvin in this Matter; and not to him alone, but to the whole Reformed Churches of France. who in their Confession of Faith, agreed upon by the first National Synod they ever had at Paris The Synod (Anno 1559.) fay thus, Art. 4. We know thefe at Paris con-Books to be Canonique, not so much by the common Consent of the Church, as by the Inward Testimony and Perswasion of the Holy Spirit. And whereas he adviseth me to read Calvin his 6th Chapter, but that it would prove too long a Digression, I could eafily fhew, that we are no fuch Contemners of the Scripture, as those he there speaks to. And what, if he contradict the Truth, which we and himself elsewhere acknowledge? I make use of his Testimony against W. M. and his Brethren, even as he did the Testimony of Augustine, 1672. Gregory and others of the Fathers against those of Rome, whom nevertheless he spared not to reject fome times: Read Inst. lib. 1. cap. 11. Selt. 5. lib. cap. Sect. 4. and in many other Places. Thus alfo is added that, which he adds about Pafor, whose Translation, he says, We follow in one thing, but not in another; for we are not bound to follow him further, than he follows the Truth. Nor doth W. M. here produce any Argument to prove, that these Words, Joh. 5.39. should be, Search the Scriptures, and not, Te fearch the Scriptures, but ye search his own bare Assertion; adding, That Christ did the scripnot check them, when he faid; In them ye think to tures, drebave Eternal Life: Whereas the very following Ind. See Words clearly import a Reproof, Te will not come Pafor. to me that ye might have Life. He says not, Seek for Life in the Scriptures, ye do well to think to find it there; but thus, Te think to have Eternal Life in the Scriptures, but will not come to me that ve might have Life.

cerning the Canonical Book in Scripture.

He ends this Section, asking; Seeing I grant the Scriptures are Profitable for Doctrine, Correction, Reproof, &c. Why I deny them to be a perfelt Rule? But I never denied them; and I told him also, they were thus profitable, not to every The Scrip-Man, but to the Man of God, i. e. he that's led tures profiby the Spirit of God. Now to this he replies no Man of God. thing; only tells me, The Man of God is most commonly understood of the Ministers of Christ fefus; which though I thould grant him, what he either can or would infer from it against my Ar-

Sect. 3. Page 40. He alledgeth; The Voice and Testimony of the Father, which Christ Speaks of to the Jews, not to have been inward, defiring the Reader to look to the Place: And thereupon he cites Job. 5. 36. where Christ speaks of his Miracles, as a greater Witness, than that of John.

1672. But his Deceit is abundantly manifest; for the Place mentioned by me was, 1 Job. 5. 10. For this is the Witness of God, which he testified of his Son, he that believeth in the Son of God, bath the Witness in bimself. Now, this he hath wholly omitted; and mentioned another in the stead of it, which makes nothing to the Purpofe. I deny not, but the Miracles were a a greater Witness, than that of John; but then will it therefore follow, that the inward Testimony of the Father is not greater also? This was the Matter in Question. After the like Manner he concludeth the Voice spoken of Job. 5. 37. Is not inward, but outward; citing for Proof Matt. 2. 27. 17, 18. the one is the Voice heard at Christ's being Baptized; the other at his being Transfigured: But what Way he seeks to infer from thence, That the Voice of the Father here spoken of by Christ to the fews, was not inward, but outward, he hath left unmentioned.

Likewise the Exposition he adds unto this Place, as if Christ were only here reproving the Ignorance of the Jews, whose Predecessors had heard so much of God; It would be the better received, that it had some other Bottom, than his own meer Affertion.

Page 14. He confesseth; That where we are defired to try the Spirits, there is no mention of trying them by the Scripture: And to my Question, asking, If there be any surer way of trying of Spirits, than by the Spirit of God? He returneth no Reply, but another Question, viz.

Whether there be any furer Way, than that for which the Bereans were commended?

Ananias I Answer, Tes, by the Spirit: Peter could neand Sapphi-ver have discerned Ananias and Sapphira by the erned by Scripture, and yet did it by the Spirit. To say the Spirit. (as he does) That this was a Matter of Fall, and not of Dollrine, and that it was Extraordinary, is a meer filly shift; for it was only by the Spirit 1672. of God; which is fo ordinary to Christians, that none can be truly one without it, Rom. 8. 9. If any Man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. And if this Spirit can discern the secret Hypocrify of the Heart in matters of Fact, far more the Errors and Mistake of the Understanding, in matters of Judgment, which all grant to be more Obvious.

And though I never averr'd, that John excluded all External Rules, by pointing to the Anointing; fo his Affertion to fay, That the Anointing directeth us to the Law and to the Testimony, as Supposing it to be outward; is but to beg the thing in question already refuted.

Page 43. As he affirmeth; That Man's being deluded proceeds not from the Scripture, but their own Blindness, so he acknowledges, That falling in Delusion, proceeds not from the Spirit, but from the Tricks and Deceits of Satan; and thereby he hath clearly confessed, what is afferted by me page 30. and not answered. And whereas he adds, That leaning to the Spirit, and forsaking the Scripture, provokes God to give Men up to strong Delusions: which he illustrateth by the Example of one J. Gilpin, once a Quaker; who by hearkening to a Voice within, was put upon Mischievous and Detestable Practices.

I Answer; He hath not proved, that we forfake the Scripture; nor will one Man's being deceived, by hearkening to a Voice within, prove the Spirit not to be a certain Rule; more than (as himself acknowledges) The Pharisees having the Scripture in Such high Esteem, and accounting them their Rule, will prove, their Delusion proceeded from them. That Story of Gilpin's was 7. Gilpin's largely answered about five Years ago by E. B. Story anand C. A. who have laid open his Deceit and Wickedness; neither can any of these Ridiculous

Pranks

1672. Pranks (granting/the Matter to be true) which he pretended to do by a Voice within, while appearing to be among us, prove the Insufficiency of that Light we Preach, or the Hazard of following it, more than his beaftly Drunkenness, and open Prophanity (naturally known in the Garrifon of Carlifle, where he was a Soldier) proves, he was led by the Scripture (which it is like he then pretended, was his Rule) unto these wicked Practices, which were the best Fruits of that Repentance W. M. feems fo much to congratulate in him. Such filthy Drofs, whom God purgeth out from among us, are fittest Persons to be Proselyted by him and his Brethren: And truly we are well rid of them, and can heartily spare such unto them; They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us : but they went out, that they might be made manifest, that they were not all of us, 1 Joh. 2. 16.

Page 43. He says, That though the Scripture be sufficient for discovering of Delusions, and ending of Differences in genere Objecti, yet the Spirit is necessary, in genere Causa Effectiva. Now this Necessity of the Spirit, he saith himself, is, That we may be right Discerners for removing our natural Depravedness: And now granting, the Scripture were sufficient in this Manner; will it therefore follow, that the Spirit within is not the Rule? Which was the Thing to prove in this Section. In so far as he acknowledges this Necessity of the Spirit's Work, he hath yielded to the Truth; yet it is observable, how in Contradiction to the Truth, he overturns it all again.

Page 47, 48. Where he expressly Pleads, For Preaching upon, and using the Scriptures, without the joint Concurrence of the Spirit; alledging, I have no ground to say, they ought not so to do. Then Consider; First, he said, The Spirit was necessary to remove the Depravidness of our Na- 1672. ture, that we might be Discerners, But now he Spirit, though our Nature be depraved; yea, the the Scripwe be in no Capacity to make a right Discerning, tues. And here he hath notably manifested his Affinity with the Jesuites, Arminians, Socinians, Pelagians, and Semipelagians, in faying, How many cold Hearts have been rubbed and chafed unto spiritual Heat, by reading and talking of the Scripture: For is not this to fet Nature a work, and to grant a Capacity in Man to beget Spiritual Heat without the joint Concurrence of the Spirit? And this is altogether agreeable to that known Maxim of the Semipelagians; Facienti quod in se est, Deus non denegat Gratiam: i.e. God will not deny him Grace, that doth what in him lies. And hereby the intelligent Reader may perceive, how much nearer a kin our Adversaries are to these Errors than we, notwithstanding they so falfly and frequently brand us with them in their Pulpits, and elsewhere; as also, that it is meery Constraint, when they are hardly put to it, that they now and then, and that in Contradiction to themselves, let a Word or two drop concerning a necessary Work of the Spirit.

Sect. 4. Page 45. He alledgeth; There is no con-

Sect. 4. Page 45. He alledgeth; There is no convincing People by this Rule of the Spirit within, because each Way may pretend to the Guidance of his Spirit, and so both remain obstinate: adding, That according to them the Scripture is the Rule, which lieth patent to both Parties; and though it do not actually convince the Stubborn, yet there is enough in it to satisfy any Inquisitive Adversary.

Answ. And is not that Spirit sufficient to satisfy any inquisitive Adversary, that's willing to be undeceived, which searcheth all things, even the deep things of God? There is no Inconvenience can be pressed from making the Spirit a Rule ly to jangle even in their comparing of it? And this W. M. cannot deny; but this hath been, because one or both Parties have been estranged from the true Testimony of the Spirit, What is then the Ultimate Recourfe, that can only refolve all Doubts even concerning the Meaning of the Scripture, but the certain Testimony of the Spirit? For if the Scriptures be only certain, because they came from the Spirit of God; then The creain-the Testimony of the Spirit must be more certain ty of the Te- than they; according to the received Maxim of the Schools, Propter quod unumquodque est tale, id ipsum magis oft tale: That which makes a thing certain, must be more certain than it. And this arguing against the Certainty of the Spirit, checks not only at the Certainty of the Saints Faith now from the Light within, and the Affurance of Knowledge, but at the Faith and Knowledge, which all the Saints and Holy Prophets had, not only before the Scripture was writ, but even in their Writing of them. We are in no greater Hazzard to be deceived now, than they were then; therefore the Apostle notably reproves fuch Pratlers against this Certainty, 1 Job. 4. 6. We are of God, he that knoweth God, heareth us, he that is not of God, heareth not us: hereby know we the Spirit of Truth, and the Spirit of Error.

Page 48. He asks, Why I complain for his improving Isa. 59. 21. but mentions not one Word of that part of Page 33. of mine, wherein I shew him how this Scripture made against him, as holding forth God's putting Words in Mens 1672.

Mouths; which they deny, as a thing ceased:

This the Reader, by looking to the Place may observe, that the Lord there promises, his Spirit and Word shall continue to direct his People, is not denied.

In his Dialogue Page 16. he fays; That the Scriptures cannot be faid to be a dead Letter, because they are called killing: And whereas I told him Page 33. of my Answer, "That as dead How the "Things do kill, if fed upon; so if Men feed Letter kills, " upon the Letter of the Scripture without the "Spirit, which is the Life, they will kill: He shifts a Reply to this, telling me, The Scripture is called killing, as being the Ministration of the Law, which threatens Death against the Sinner. What then? doth it therefore follow, that they are not dead, and deadly to fuch as feed upon them without the Spirit, which giveth Life? It is an apparent malicious Passion, to add; That the drinking in of the Lifeless, Poysonous Opinions of the Quakers, will prove hurtful to the Soul. Seeing he bringeth not the least Shadow of Proof for it. I observe, that he intitleth this Section, The Quakers Way ineffectual to convince an Opposer: And yet how is it, that he and his Bre Priests call thren, are so as a for the Masly so much crying out and clamouring against it found their feed their as dangerous, intreating and befeeching People fend their bottrine ato beware of us, and comparing our Words and gainst the Writings to Poyson, as that which is so ready to Luakers. gain Ground? I say, how comes it, that they are so pressing in their importunate, and often reiterate Pulpit-Exhortations to the Magistrates, to suppress, imprison us, and break up our Meetings, as fuch, against whom their Labours will prove altogether fruitless and ineffectual, if not affisted by the external Sword.

Sect. 5. P. 49. He undertakes to compare us with Papists, as having learned our Language about Scripture from them: but herein he hath notably manifested both his Self Contradiction and Ignorance. He alledgeth; We agree with Papists, in that we say. If the Delusion be strong in the Heart, it will twine the Scriptures to make them feem for it; and in that we fay, they are dead, and occasion Sects and Janglings; whereunto we always add, because the Spirit is wanting: And yet in this Sence he fully grants it himself, Page the Scriptures; And yet grants it himfelf, p. 46.

The Saints had a Rule before the Scriptures were writ.

43. faying, It is granted, that deluded Souls do wrest the Scriptures, &c. He concludes us one with Papists, for faying, There was a Rule before in confeshing, The Scripture was not a Rule to such Saints, as lived, before it was writ; Such then had fome Rule before the Scriptures. Thus far as to his Self-Contradictions. As to his Ignorance; Can there be any thing more fottish, to compare us with Papists, for our preferring and calling the Light within, as that which only makes the outward Dispensation of the Gospel profitable; and for our faying, that the Scripture is both our Teacher, and our Copy, according to which if we walk, we may profit without going forth for a Copy; feeing it is known, none to be more Enemies to these Doctrines, than Papists? And if we deny the Scripture to be the principal and compleat Rule of Faith, that proves us no ways to agree with Papists; except we all agreed with them, concerning what is the Rule of Faith: wherein we differ wider from Papists, than our Oppofers. Therefore that Sentence of Tertulian, viz. That Christ is always Crucified betwixt two Thieves, is impertinently objected by W. M. against us; and if the Lord will, it may in due Time be made appear to publick View, that it far better fuits our Adverlaries. He

He looks upon it as a great Absurdity, Pag. 51. 1672. To deny, the more fure Word of Prophecy, men tioned 2 Pet. 1. 19. to be the Scripture: alledging, The more I should have confused the Apostle, who expounds of prophecy it so, Vers. 20. But before he had been so perempt is not the tory in his Conclusion, he should have first pro-Scripiuce, but the spived, that the Apostle mentions these Words by rit. way of Exposition to the former. Seeing he thinks himself so secure here, why did he omit to answer that Part of Page 32. of mine, where I told him; that feeing the Scriptures have all their Surenels from the Spirit, they cannot be more fure than it? For to fay, that Scripture is more fure as to us, being a standing Record, than a transient Voice from Heaven, which may be mistaken or forgotten, answers nothing; seeing that more fure Word we speak of, is not a transient Voice, but that Word of God, which is always with us, nigh us, in our Hearts, if we be willing to hear it and regard it; and can far less be either forgotten or mistaken, than Scripture; for it fpeaks plain, home and near, even to fuch fome times, who would willingly both mistake and forget it, Heb. 4. 12.

Though I could freely refer his Sixth Head, concerning Justification, to be compared by the Judicious Reader with that which is contained from Page 34. of my last, to Page 48. as being a confused Mass, which needs no further Resutation; yet because he make a great Noise here, I shall subjoin these sew Observations a little to unvail him in this Matter.

And in his first Section, from Page 52, to 58. I observe, how hastily he passes over the Charges laid by me to his Door, Page 43. Which because he cannot clear himself of, therefore he hath not Leisure to answer.

Secondly, I observe, how, after he repeats my Words of our Sence of Justification (which the

K 3 Reader

In order to discover this, he proposeth; what may be the Sence of the Word justify in Scrip-

1672. Reader may see at length, Page 40. of my first) he can say nothing against them; but only I seem to infinuate, they had no need of inward Righteousness. It appears, his Guilt has made him sc Jealous in this thing, as if I had been reproaching him; where I only give an Account of my own Belief. His accusing or suspecting me of Fraud or Cheating, fignifies nothing, except he produce some Reason for it.

ture, as it imports the Sinners Justification before God? Which he determinately affirms, only to be a pronouncing, or accounting a Man righteous, and not a making him so: citing for Proof Prov. 17.15. Though [justify] in some Places may be so understood, as in this, which indeed hath no Relation to the Sinners Fusification before God; yet where it hath such a Relation, it may be understood otherways, viz. A making a Man just : as in that notable Expression of the Apostle Paul, I Cor. 6. 11. But ye are washed, ye are sanstified, ye are justified, &c. For if [justify] here were not to make Men righteous, but only to impute them or account them fo, then Washing and San-Imputative Etifying were not real, but only imputative also: Righteouf-nels a Cloak And at this rate the Corintbians could not be efor wicked-steemed truly washed of their Sins, which the Apostle mentions in the former Verse, such as Stealing, Drunkenness, Covetousness, but only thought or imputed fo: And this were to make the Chriftian Religion a Cloak for all Wickedness, as if Men were not by it truly cleanfed of these Evils, but on the contrary fostered in them. In these Places also Justification was taken in Relation to inward Righteousness, Rom. 8.30. Whom he called, them he also justified, and whom he justified, them be also glorified. Rev. 22. 11. Qui fustus est, Justificetur adbuc, for so the Greek and Latin hath hath it, which being rightly translated, is, He 1672. that is Just, let him be justified still. It is to be observed, that I deny not, but the Word [justify] is sometimes taken in Scripture for pronouncing Men just; though he falsly seems to infinuate the contrary.

Thirdly, I observe his alledging, That our speaking of being Justified by Christ revealed in us, is a falling in with the Popish Sence of Justification; adding, That our more full Agreement with them doth appear in that, wherein I say we differ from them. But here his shameless Distingenuity is manifest, in that he hath not answered at all Page 34, 35, 36. of my Last, as to that wherein I shew our Distagreement with Papists; and how this manner of Justification by the Indwelling of Christ is denied by them, and particularly disputed against by Bellarmine. For to prove our supposed Affinity with Papists, and imagined Opposition to Protestants, he formeth a Question, viz.

What is that, which causeth a Man to stand pardoned and so fust before God, and for which he is pronounced Righteous? Adding, That the Papists have herein recourse to insused Righteousness, but Protestants to the imputed Righteousness of Christ, namely, the Satisfaction and Merit of his Death.

But here is to be observed, how consusedly he hath tumbled things together, that ought to be distinguished; whereby he may the more securely lurk under them. Tho' Originally the Cause of both be the infinite Love of God, in which Christ was given, who offered up himself a most sweet and satisfactory Sacrifice, as the Ranson, the Atonement, the Propitiation for our Sins; but as to our being Justified, it is by Christ and our Justifie his Spirit, as he comes in our Hearts truly and cation is by really to make in righteous: which, because we his Spirit.

1672. are thus made, therefore are we accounted fo of whim, as the Apostle plainly intimates in 1 Cor. 6. 11. That it is by the Spirit of God we are justified: Nor is this any Connivance with Papifis. who, as is abovesaid, deny Justification in this And it is but to befool Children and fimple Ignorants, that he covers himself so such with the general Term of Protestants, as if our Doctrine were generally denied by all fuch; feeing many, and that very famous Protestants have been of our Mind, and have eagerly pleaded for this Real Righteousness, as to fusification, against his Sence of it; particularly Ofiander, one of the first and most renowned Reformers of Germany, who not without Ground averred, Luther to be of this Judgment.

And Miclanchthon, in the Apology of the Augustan Consession saith, To be Justified in Scripture not only signifieth to be pronounced just, but to be made just, or regenerate. Johannes Brentius and Chemnitius admit also of the same Signification; some of the so Epinus and Bucenus include in Justification not writers, only Forgiveness of Sins, but Regeneration and Righteousness wrought in us. And Borheus (five cation in the Cellanus) a German Protestant, and Professor of Theology at Basil; In the Imputation, saith he, by which Christ is ascribed and imputed to Believers for Righteousness, both the Merit of his Blood, and the Holy Spirit given unto us by the Virtue of his Merits, is equally included; and thus, faith he, we shall consider wholly Christ proposed to us unto Salvation, and not a Part of Him; Lib. in Gen. Again pag. 169, be faith; In our Justification Christ is considered, who breatheth and liveth in us; viz. Put on by us through his Spirit. And page 181. he faith, The Form of our Justification is the Divine Righteousness, whereby we are formed fust and God; this is fesus Christ, who is esteemed our Righteousness, partly by the Forgiveness of Sins, partly by the Restauration and 1672. Renovation to Integrity, lost by the Fall of the first Adam; He being put on by us, as the new and heavenly Adam, of which the Apostle, Ye have put on Christ, put him on, I say, as a Form, i. e. the Wisdom, Righteousness and Life of God. And Pareus de Just. Cont. Bellar. lib. 2. cap. 7. pag. 469. We, faith he, neither ever spoke nor thought the Righteonfacts of Christ to be imputed to us, that by it we were and might be named formally Righte. ous, as we have oft now shewed; for surely, that should no less fight with Reason, than if one quite absolved in Judgment, should say, he were formally Righteous by the Mercy of the Judge. These are the plain and positive Expressions of several famous Protestants; though W. M. reckons G. Kieth's Words, mentioned by him Page 55. as Popish, which are nothing different from these. And of late R. Baxter (whom W. M. pag. 37. terms, A Judicious Servant of God) holdeth this Doctrine throughout, in his Book termed, Aphorisms of Justification; who pag. 80. saith; That some ignorant Wretches gnash their Teeth at this Doctrine, as if it were flat Popery, not understanding the Nature of the Righteousness of the New Covenant, which is all out of Christ in our selves, though wrought by the Power of the Spirit of Christ. Page 195. he faith; How this differeth from the Papist, he need not tell any Scholar, who have read their Writings. Hereby the Intelligent Reader may observe, how ridiculous, if not malicious W. M. is, in making fuch a Noise, as if we were in this Matter. either going with Papists or opposing Protestants.

In his fecond Section, pag. 58. tho' he would be making a great Bussle of our speaking of Justification by Works, yet in the very Entry he cannot deny, but he is for it, according to the 1672. true Sence and Meaning of the Spirit: And therefore it remains to prove, that ours is not so.

His alledging from some Words of Samuel Fi-Ther, where he speaks of Works having Merit, faith nothing; for the Question recurs concerning the Signification of the Word Merit, which we use in a qualified Sence: for we say, That Works are no otherways Meritorious, than as they are rewarded; Merit and Reward being relative Terms, as I told him in my last, to which he returneth no Answer. And thus is solved Samuel Fisher's Using of that Argument, mentioned by him Page 60. (to whom he foolishly supposes, I cannot reconcile my self, without being of a higher Strain, than for a Reward of Merit) to wit; That as Condemnation is the Reward of Evil Works, so Eternal Salvation, and consequently Justification is the Reward of Good Works. Now, Merit in a qualified Sence doth not import an absolute Defert, according to strict Justice, as on our Part; but a Suitableness, Agreeableness, or Congruity, according to these Scriptures, Matt. 3. 8. Bring forth Fruits worthy of Repentance; the Greek Word agies which fignifieth Meritorious, or Worthy: And the same Greek Word is used in these other Scriptures; I Thess. 2. 12. Walk worthy of God, 2 Theff. 1. 5. That ye may be counted Worthy of the Kingdom of God. And thus R. Baxter speaketh of Merit in the Book above-mentioned, page 90. In a large Sence, faith he, as Promise is an Obligation, and the Thing promised is called Debt, so the Performers of the Conditions are called Worthy, and their Performance, Merit; though properly it is all of Grace, and not of Debt.

Moreover, whereas Augustine, Bernard and others of the Fathers use the Word Merit in this qualified Sence, W. M. and his Brethren can give it the Right Hand; but where we use it (notwith-Works are Meritorious by the promifed Reward upon Conditions. flanding we tell them the Simplicity of our 1672. Meaning) we must be upbraided with Popery.

It is here observable, how he turns it to my Reproach, That I feem to draw near, in the least, to any of the moderate Sort of Papists: And yet as to things, wherein I charged him of Affinity rapins and with them, he returneth no folid Answer, but W. M. agree fays; I must not be credited: Yea, he plainly not only draws near, but fully acknowledges his Agreement with them, faying; They hold fome things common with the Orthodox.

His Third and Fourth Section containeth not any thing of a folid Reply to that, which is writ from Page 36. to 44. of my last, which the Reader by comparing them may eafily observe: He begins, alledging; That Rom. 3. 28. Gal. 2. 19. must exclude all Works, even the Works of Christ in us; and that, because the Apostle must be supposed to exclude either Evil, or good Works: Not evil; therefore Good: And consequently the Works of Christ in us. But as I told him in my last, some Works may be good materially, which The works proceeding not from the Spirit of God, but Man's of the Spirit own Spirit, are therefore excluded: And thus the those of Case of Abraham doth not answer, who though Man's own spirit differ. a godly Man, was capable fometimes, to have done Works from his own Spirit.

It is here observeable, how he feeks to shift, that which I inforce upon Tit. 3. 5. alledging; He mentioned it in Opposition to Justification by Works, as the Meritorious Cause thereof: But of this there was not one Word, where he cites in his Dialogue Page 20. Nor doth he answer any thing for that, which I infer from this Scripture, shewing Page 40. of my last, (to which I refer the Reader, he having wholly omitted it) that by this Scripture (where the Apostle faith, According to his Mercy he hath saved us, by the Washing of Regeneration) the Apostle includes good Works.

1072. Works, as to Justification: Now all this he shuffles over, as Insulting, Triumphing Words; and yet notwithstanding he himself insults here, as though he had found us guilty of Popery: tho' what we fay in this Matter, be no other, than what is clearly afferted by these famous Proteflants above mentioned; and more particularly by R. Baxter in his Book aforefaid, from Page 185 to the End, where he fays, That we are justiof the Law field by Works in the same kind of Causuality, as by exc.uded Faith, viz. as Causæ fine quibus non, Conditions from Justififrom Julilitication; not or Qualifications of the New-Covenant, requisite the Works on our Part in Order to Justification; snewing, of the Gof-how the Apostle Paul, in the Places above-mentioned, excludes only the Works of the Law from Justification, and never at all the Works of the Gospel, as they are the Conditions of the New-Covenant: And there he refutes W. M's. Exposition upon Isai. 2. 12. As if our Justification were only justified by Works, or we declared just by them before Men. And seeing W. M. has declared, he hath so good an Esteem of R. Baxter, I refer him to read, how he is Refuted by him, as being too large to be here inferted.

Page 65, 66. To overturn that, which is faid by me concerning the Faith, Knowledge and Obedience of the Saints, Page 43, 44. of mine; but his Impertinency will be more than manifest, if the Reader does but look unto the Place: For I shew him, how Faith was not always attended with doubting, by the Example of Abraham; and therefore his Example of the Light and the Air is Little Faith foolish: For Faith and Doubt are not only diits Measure. Stinct, but opposite; and not mixt, as is Air and Light: And a little Gold may be perfect, and unmixed with Drofs; fo may little Faith be perfect in its Meafure, without Doubting. And though the Knowledge and Obedience of the Saints be not fuch, as there can nothing be added unto, or answerable to the infinite Love of God; 1672. vet that doth not prove them, in what they are, to be defined.

His Answer to that Scripture brought by me, 1. John 3. 9. He that's born of God, sinneth not: He that's is most Impious and Antichristian; as if the born of God Words imported only, He maketh not a Trade of impiously; Sinning. For accordingly he might argue, that explained by where it is faid, Commit no Adultery, do not Steal, Murder, &c. it is only understood, that we ought not to make a Trade of these Sins, but yet might practife them now and then.

Page 67. He addeth, That (as the Prophet, I/a. 64. 6. faith) not All our Righteousness, which is of thy working in us, is as filthy Rags; so neither what Righteousness we say, All our Righteousness, which we, even as filthy the best of Saints can perform of and from them Raggs. Selves, are as Filthy Raggs: From thence inferring; That because of this general Term All, even the Righteousness of Christ In us ought to be accounted as filthy Rags: But for this he bringeth no Proof; and as the Prophet faith All, so he faith Our, which implies it to be different from the Righteouiness of Christ. As he proceeds in the same Page, he is highly confused. First, he fays; It ought not to make us ashamed, that our Righteousness (understanding that which Christ works in us) are as filthy Rags; and then he faith. That they are a special Ornament to the Soul, making it in Beauty to resemble God: And again, to get Ground, he faith, That as fo, Imperfection cleaveth to the very Grace of God here: Absolute BLASPHEMY! Can there be any thing more confused and contradictory, than to fay; That Blasphemy. which is defiled, as filthy Rags, is a special Ornament to the Soul, or, makes it In Beauty to resemble God ?

In Answer to Page 45, 46. he replies nothing; only grants, That the Saints in Heaven are cleansed, is a meer begging the thing in Question. He closeth up the Sedion to prove, The Righteousness of the Saints is defiled, with his old Instance of Clean Water passing through an unclean Pipe, alledging it, By me not to be weakned, though it do no ways answer, what I said against it Page 41. to wit, "That Spiritual Water is not like outward Water, which an unclean Pipe can defile; but is like Water not co capable of Defilement.

W. M's

"clean things, cannot be defiled, because every thing of the Spirit is undefilable, as is the Spirit. And whereas he desires me To instruct him of an outward Water, which is not capable of Desilement; I refer him to a more diligent Study in his Physicks, of which, it seems, he is very ignorant: And that he may not have Reason to think this a Shift, let him read the Essays of the Virtuosi in France; and those termed the Royal Society at London: And he will find such a thing both practicable and practifed.

He begins his Fourth Section, Page 70. with a gross Piece of Distingenuity, in mentioning a Part of my Words, where I say, "fustification" is taken for making a Man Righteous, and then it is all one with Sanctification: Thereupon alledging; I confound fustification and Sanctication: Whereas he omits the very former Sentence, wherein I say; "fustification is also taked en, as God's fudging Men unto Eternal Life: But this Deceit, the Reader may at more Length observe by looking to Page 41. of my last. And in that he adds: Men are not made righteous by an Inward Righteousness; he doth greatly declare his Ignorance: For if Men can really be made Righteous, without Righteousness be really in them, by that which is wholly in another, then they might as well be really made Holy, without any inward Holiness: And this were rather to confound that, which God distinguisheth, 1672. and to alter the Scripture-Sense of the Word justi-fy. He alledgeth, That Phil. 3. 8. disclaims the Righteousness of Christ; but brings no Proof for it: And as to his Commentaries, he must advert, he is not in the Pulpit; and must bring nothing here without Probation. And whereas I shew, That this Argument from 2 Cor. 5. 12. is most abfurd and impious, because accordingly it would follow, that as Christ was made Sin for us, who himself knew no Sin, no not in the least; fo we may be made Righteous before God, tho' we have no Holinefs, no Faith, no good thing wrought in us : He terms this an impudent Wresting of his Words, alledging; That the Strength of his Argument lieth in that; As our Sins are inberent in us, and imputed to Christ; so his Righteousness is inherent in him, and imputed to us: Gloss of Im-But he doth not shew me, how this in the least pured Rightfolves the Confequence above deduced, which followeth as before. And as for that excellent Gloss, which he says, A certain one put upon these Words; it would appear the more such, that it had some Shadow of Proof for it. It is with a Fool's Consequence, that he calleth; This which I shew, was (deduceable from his Words) my Inference, charging me with it, as if I were Impious, and absurd to imagine, that God should accept one as Righteous in his Sight, and yet his Person remain abhorred, as an unboly Sinner: Did I ever affert any fuch thing? Or can there be any thing more rediculous, than for him to dream, I imagine that to be true, which I reprove in him as falle, abfurd and impious? In the like Manner he condemns me as Impious, for infinuateing, That they are against inward Holiness, seeing, as he says, They profess that without Holinefs none can fee God. It is true, they fay fo fometimes; and therein often contradict themfelves.

1672. felves, as isabove remarked: Yet feeing, they look not upon it, as any ways necessary to Justification, and term the best of it but as Filthy Rags; their feeming to plead for it, doth but bewray their Ignorance and Confusion. Now whereas to prove, that Works of the pure Spirit of God are not all as filthy Rags, I did inquire of him, If the Apostles did sin in writing the Scriptures?

He answers, First, That it was a singular, extraordinary thing; and so supposeth, they might bave been preserved.

Secondly, He demands, What were the Hazzard to over, that they were wanting in that, which they ought to have had?

As to the First, it is but an Evasion without Proof: What singular and extraordinary thing is in some of Paul's Epistles, which are concerning his outward Occasions? And if the last be admitted (as I find, he fears, he will be forced to do) it overturns his Example of Clean Water passing through an unclean Pipe; or else he must acknowledge the Scriptures are defiled, because they come through the Apostles, whom his Principles obliges him to believe, not to have been perfett.

In his Seventh Head Page 74. he summarily passes over, and that by large Omissions, what is contained in the 44, 45, 46, and 47. Pages of my last; which if the Reader do but reveiw, he may easily discover that silly Shift which he useth, to wit, That he means to be thristy of his Paper, in answering the Quakers Self-advancing Words. Seeing he is such a good Manager of his Paper, he might have bestowed some of that, he has lavished in the large Capital Titles of his many Heads and Sessions, to shew the Impertinency or Vanity of my Words; and then he might have been the better credited, after he has omitted my Answer, wherein I clear the Quakers from that have done, and do do.

He adds with a great Exclamation, Oh! it is intolerable Pride, to vilify all the Saints and Servants of God in the World, and to shut them out from being of Christ's Stock! A strange Inference! according to which we must conclude, that because' Luke called Theophilus Kgliss or most good, that therefore there was none Good, but he. W. M. Luke called will do well to go back to the Grammar-School, most Good, and there learn the Natures of Degrees of Comparison; and when he has instructed himself there, he may next look over his Logicks, and there he will find, that Majus & Minus non variat Specium, i. e. Less or more of a thing changeth not its Nature or Kind. I suppose, he will not deny, but there are several Sorts of Christians, who though they do all profess Christianity, yet are more or less pure in their Doctrine, Discipline or Practice. Is it not upon this Score, that the Calvinist hath separated from the Lutheran; and the Presbyter from the Episcopalian? Certainly W. M. himself lookt upon Independency, as more pure than Presbytery, when he separated with the Congregationists at Aberdeen, and Communicated a-Part with them; and yet his Practice now sheweth, that he doth not exclude even Episcopacy from Christ's Stock, though his Independant and Presbyterian Brethren do look upon it, if not within the Walls, at least in the Suburbs of Rome. Neither is this Calumny against us, as if we trusted in our sclves, that we were Righteous, and dispised others, (for so he misapplieth the Parable, Luke 18. 9) any other than the same, which those of Rome used against the First Reformers, to wit, they were Proud, and Boasters, as if all the World had been in Darkness before them; or as if they were Wifer, than than all the Doctors and Fathers of the Church, feeking to innovate the Order thereof, which had been Confirmed by the Unanimous Confent of fo many Generations.

It is observeable, how here, as in other Places, he is so ready to lay Claim to the Protestant Churches, alledging; That in Disdain I call them their Flocks; which is utterly false: I speak of their Flocks as inferior to the People called Quakers in Point of Mortification; but that I intended thereby the Protestant Churches, is but his groundless Conjecture. I let him understand, I look not upon their Flocks, as deferving the Name of Protestants, and that because of their some tro-shameless Degenerating from such, as were First testants des fo called; among whom, as I freely confess, there were feveral of a Heavenly and Spiritual Conversation: So I look upon W. M. and his Brethren's laying Claim unto them, but as the Jews, boasting of Abraham as their Father. After the fame difingenuous Manner he concludes, That the Persons he spoke of in his Dialogue, as having fuch notable Enjoyments of, and Communion with God, were from Quakerism, &c. But answers not a Word of Page 53. of mine, where I shew, that those Professors agreed with us in many of these things. wherein W. M. and his Brethren oppose us; but particularly in the Matter of the Spirit's immediate Teaching. It is then likely, they would have been far from us, especially considering, that feveral, who have received and own the Quakers Testimony at Aberdeen, are such, who were the most Intimate Friends even in spiritual Matters with these Professors; whereas W. M. and fome other of his Brethren, who walked also among them, that are not come to own the Quakers, and degenerated, and gone back unto that, which all of them acknowledged to be Antichristian: For which their gross Backsliding and Degenerating. rating, (to use rightly his own mis appied In- 1672. stance) it is without Doubt, these Professor would have look'd upon him and his Brethren as Monstrous, and abhorred their treacherous, Time-Serving Turnings with the greatest Detestation.

Head 8. Page 77. He avers us to be guilty of Equivocating, and that, because we say, "We The corrupt are for Baptism; and yet are against Baptism Acceptation of the word with Water. The Reason alledged is, because Baptism de-Baptism is commonly understood of Baptism with med-Water; and therefore to understand it otherways, he concludes, is to speak Lies in Hypocrify. &c. But this Conclusion is founded upon a Supposition denied by us, and therefore it is a meer begging of the thing in Question. For fince we deny that common (because corrupt) Acceptation of the Word Baptism, and give it the true one, (as in its Place thall be thewn) therefore we are not obliged to put another Meaning upon it, than we are perswaded it ought to be understood. But this Calumny against us, as Equivocators or Liars, W. M. hath also borrowed from the Papist, who used to upbraid the Protestants, for faying, They were for, or of the Catholick Church; because the Papist will have the Church of Rome only to be the Catholick Church: But the Proteflants denied her to be fo, and therefore would not call her fo; even as we deny the Sprinkling with Water to be Baptism, and therefore will not account it that which it is not, but referve the Name to that, which truly is the thing according to the Scriptures.

The like may be faid of the Lord's Supper, I mean that, which is fo called.

Head 9. Page 78. Because he can produce nothing against my Concession of Singing of Psalms, he suspects, I mean not honestly; and that because none of his Spies, whom he sends to our Meetings, have had Occasion to be Witnesses to our L 2

M. his Intelligencers fail him in this, as well as his Brother's David Lyall did, in telling him, That there was not one Word spoken among the Quakers at their Meeting, the 3d of the 11th Month, 1670. Which though a manifest Untruth in Matter of Fact, he spared not to bring forth in his Chair of Verity, upbraiding the Magistrates, as if God had miraculously sent an Officer to stop or impede our Worship; tho they had refused to do it. The Story of J. Nailor, which he subjoins, any may observe to be meerly brought in to render us Odious, and fill up the Paper though indeed it tends no ways to our Disadvantage, he being in that thing, and at that time altogether denied by us; and hath fince in fincere Re-Print freely acknowledged his Fall in that Hour of Temptation: Of whose sincere Repentance and true Return to the Fellowship of the Truth we have had many evident Tokens: Whereas, were we to retort, we could find a Thousand to one amerg your Church Members, many whereof are daily knit up for Thieving, Murder, &c. And fonie burnt for Witchcraft, without the least

Sense of true Repentance.

For to vindicate their Manner of Singing Sincingly with a mix'd Multitude, he alledgeth; That all what hitro-mortifice. Men, yea all the Earth are called to praise God. And though all be called to do fo, yet there are things absolutely needful previous to this Duty. And granting, their Want of Praising to be finful; yet the Way to prevent this Evil is, to come First to that, wherein they may be in a Capacity to do it acceptably: Therefore faith the Apostle, I will Sing with the Spirit, and I will Sing with the Understanding olfo, 1 Cor. 14. 15. Where he tpeaks of Singing, he always subjoins the Instrument, wherewith it is altogether needful that we take it. And that the same may be urged in the Cafe of Praying, without any Absurdity, 1672. in its Place shall be shewn. He says, It is no more a Lie to use Words in Singing, which sute rot our Condition, such as (I water my Couch with Tears; my Heart is not haughty) than to read them: But there is a great Difference betwixt Reading and Singing; in Reading we but relate the Conditions and Actions of others, as wholly distinct and extrinsick from our selves, but in Singing we do really address our selves to God as in Prayer: And it is no less a Lie, to sing to God Words, that fuit not our Condition, than to Pray with them. The Saints in Scripture used fuch Expressions, as did suit the present Posture of their Hearts, in their Spiritual Songs, fee Luc. 1. 46. and 2. 29. He shall not find me in the whole Bible, where they borrowed or fealed the Expressions of others Experience, which no ways suted with their own Condition: This is a meer bumane Invention, which has its original from Romish Vespers and Mattins, and from no other Foundation. Head 10. Concerning Baptism, Page 81. he alledgeth, That John distinguisheth not the Matter of his Baptism from Christ, but only his Work: But his Proof for this overthrows hunfelf. For fince, as he says truly, John could only administer John's Bap-Baptism with Water, but Christ with the Spirit; tism and this sheweth them to have differed in the Matter: Christ's different the For without Doubt, John could administer the Matter and Matter of his own Baptism. And whereas I told End, him, they differed in the End, because the one pointed to the other, even as the Shadow pointed to the Substance; instead of replying to this, he tells me; That the Scripture Speaking of John's Baptism, calls it the Baptism of Repentance, intimating, its End was, to signify and seal Remission of Sins, which likewise is the End of Christ's Bap-tism. As this no ways answers my Argument so it makes nothing to the Purpose: For it is one L 3 thing, Sins, and far another, to know and posses it; which is the End and constant Fruit of Christ's Baptism, Gal. 2. 27. As many of you (saith the Aposse) as have been baptized unto Christ, have put on Christ. And therefore it may be observed, that without any proof he concludes, that John's Baptism and Christ's agree both in the Matter and End.

me to shew, that they differed in Substance, he saith; The Meaning is, not that they were ignorant of the Person of the Holy Ghost: Contrary to the very express Scripture-Words, viz. We have not so much as heard, if there be any Holy Ghost. He saith further; That the Apostles did not a-new haptize such Persons, that had been haptized with the Baptism of John: In direct Contradiction to the Scripture Words, Verse 5. When they heard this they were haptized in the Name of the Lord Jesus: And when Paul had laid his Hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came upon them. Now Verse 3. sheweth; That they were baptized unto John's Baptism before; so let him clear himself here of giving the Scripture the Lie if he can

W. M. con- giving the Scripture the Lie, if he can.

Settion 2. Page 83. To prove the Perpetuity of Water-Baptism, he begins with that often answered Argument of the Apostle's Practice, adding; That tho' Christ (Matt. 28.) doth not mention Baptism with Water, so neither with the Spirit, alledging; That thus the one may be excluded as well as the other.

Anf. Seeing Christ commanded them to baptize, it cannot be denied, but it was with his own Baptism; which is that of the Spirit. He adds, That is Baptism of the Spirit were intended, it would infer a needless Tautelogy in the Command of Christ, as being all one triff not com Answ. Teaching, and making Men Holy and manded by Righteous, are different things. For he will grant, that he and his Brethren have been Teaching People these several Years, and yet he will 1672. have much ado, to prove, all their Church-Members are really made righteous and holy; Why then doth he account these two one, reckning it a Tautology, to express them severally? A little after he infinuates, (and that most falsly) That I deny Peter's commanding Cornelius to be baptized; concealing my express Words Page 58. which are these; " And though it be said; Ver. " 48. that he commanded them to be baptized in "the Name of Christ, yet it holds forth no " Command from Christ; only the thing being " agreed upon, that it might be done, he did do " it: This he hath left unanswered. And whereas he adds, That doing things in the Name of Christ, is as much as his Command. He bringeth no Proof for giving, but not granting, it did hold fo. Matt. 18. 20. in the Case of Meeting, that will not prove, it is always fo taken.

To evict my Objection against any determinate Commission the Apostles had of baptizing with Water, because Paul said, he was not sent to baptize, but to Preach, he returns; That if he had no Commission, be would have baptized none: But be baptized some; which would have been of Self-Will. Faul was not fent to Answ. He might object the same as to Circum battize. cision, that because the Apostle circumcised Timothy, therefore he had a Committion for it; he would not have done it of Self-Will. His Inference from Hof. 6. 6. For I defire Mercy, and not Sacrifice, as if from thence Paul were fent Principally to baptize, and not to Preach, as God there required only principally Mercy, not excluding Sacrifice; is most rediculous and inconsequential. Nor is there any Reason produced to shew the Party, the Apostles were commissioned to baptize, as principally as to Preach? Go Preach and Baptize, are knit together: But the Question is, Whether this be a Baptism with Water? Which remains

1672. yet unproved. And therefore his Additions to the Scripture is no ways justified; as if Paul had been fent to baptize with Water, but not Principally.

Page 86. He undertaketh to prove, that Matt. 28. 19. is meant of Water-Baptism, and not of the Spirit's Baptism: The Reason alledged there; Because the Baptism there mentioned, is the Action of the Apostles, and that to baptize with the Spirit is peculiar to Christ; adding, That it would be a confounding of the Duty commanded with the Promise of the Bleffing annexed to it: from thence he concludes. That Baptism with Water is to continue to militate the fame way against Teaching, which is the End of the World. Answ. The Reasons prove nothing, and might files: And though it be peculiar to Christ to perpetual. Teach by the Spirit, that did not hinder them to do it. Further, the very Apostles by laying on of Hands did administer the Holy Spirit, and so baptize with the Spirit, Alls 10. 44. 19. 6. And this is no confounding of the Promise with the Duty; for therein was the Promise and Bleffing fulfilled, that they did it effectually: And therefore from hence he had no Ground to conclude the Perpetuity of Water-Baptism. Moreover, whereas he cited in his Dialogue (Page 39.) Acts 2. 28. 1 Pet. 3. 21. Acts 22. 16. Eph. 5. 26. Gal. 3. 27. asholding forth the excellent Uses of Water Baptism, though I shew him Page 5. of mine, that these Scripture are only applicable to Baptism with the Spirit, and not to Sprinkling with Water: When Page 87. he comes to Reply > again, he offers not in the least to prove, that they are applicable to Baptism with Water, which is the thing in Question; but tells me, That those Scriptures strike against the Popish Opus Operatum. Quid'inde? What then? Doth it therefore follow, that they are applicable to Sprinkling with Wa-

Water-Bap- also there commanded, as the Action of the Apoter? Who is fo blind as not to fee through fuch 1672. filly Subterfuges? He addeth, That I proceed upon a wrong Supposition, as if they thought, Baptism with Water were of its self effectual to cleanse the Soul.

Answ. I never proceeded upon such a Supposition; that which I proceed upon is this, That Sprinkling they should call or account Sprinkling with Water, Baptism of the Baptism of Christ; whereas the Scripture de. Christ. clares it not to be so: 2 Pet. 3. 21. Baptism is not the Putting away the Filth of the Flesh, &c. And also ascribe such Scriptures to sprinkling with Water, as are only applycable to the Baptisin of the Spirit. Now this, as is faid above, he hath left unanswered.

Page 88. He faith, That the one Baptism spoken of Eph. 4. 5. cannot be called the Substance, and Baptism with Water the Shadow, because they are the fame thing. But this is pitifully to beg the thing in Question. And thus W. M's Arguments about Baptism run round; Baptism with Water is the one Baptism, because the one Baptism is commanded by Christ; and the one Baptism is Baptism with Water, because Baptism with Water is commanded by Christ. He wholly passes by that part of Page 60. of mine, where I shew, how absurd and Anti-scriptural their manner of Bap- . tizing is; and thereby he comes the more eafily to his Conclusion in this Matter.

Head 11. Concerning the Supper, Page 88, 89. he begins confessing, That Christ's instituting of the Supper doth not prove its Continuance; and here he carps at my speaking of it with this Addition (The Lord's Supper, so called) asking, Why I give it not the Name the Scripture gives it?

Answ. It is to be observed, that where I speak of it thus, Page 61. of my last, that it is in my Entry upon this Matter, addressing my self to him, my Words are, "Thou comest to prove, "that the Lord's Supper (so called) &c. where I intended not that, which was instituted by Christ,

The break- whereas I shew him, that by Breaking of Bread, from Honse Acts 2. 42. is meant their Ordinary Eating: His Answer is, That their Eating is not ordinary, but Sacramental; and the Text speaketh not of daily Eating, but a continuing daily in the Temple; and that the Syriack Exposition expounds it of the Eucharift. But it is in vain: he thinks by his Imaginations to overturn the plain Words of Scripture, Acts 2.46. And they continuing daily in the Temple with one accord, and breaking Bread from House to House, did cat their Meat with Gladness and Singleness of Heart. Can there be any thing more plain, than that their Breaking of Bread here, was their ordinary Eating? And as for his Talk of Sacramental Eating, where doth he read of such a Phrase in all the Bible? It is ill argued to fay, I am ignorant of the Way of some Protestant Churches, who use breaking of Bread once a Fortnight, or once a Month, because I fay, their doing of it once or twice a Year, is not according to the Example of fuch, as of Old · used it. Page 90. he adds. That though this Eat. ing, Acts 2.46. be conjoined with this, that they fold their Possessions, &c. yet we are to sollow them in the one, and not in the other; because the one was to continue, and not the other: But for this he bringeth no Proof, save his own bare Assertion. After the like manner, Page 91. he faith, That though abstaining from Blood and things strangled be commanded, yet the Apostle Paul repeats it, extending Christian Liberty, to what soever is Sold in the Shambles. But according to this he might argue; That though abstaining from Circumci-fion be there commanded, yet Paul's circumcizfor its Con- ing of Timothy might now warrant it. whereas he asketh, If Paul circumcised any other?

What if he had not? Church-History tells us, 1672. that many Years after several Bishops of Ferusalem were circumcised: it will not therefore follow, that was a Repealing of the Apostles Determination by the Holy Ghost, or that we should continue in the Use of Circumcision. He addeth. That Washing of one another's Fect, which was expresly commanded, was not, that we might practife it, but only to teach us Humility: For this he adds no Proof; it is only his own Conjecture. Upon all which I defire the Reader to observe, how W. M. can find Shifts, to evict those above-said, which are expresly commanded by Christ and his Apoftles; and yet make fuch a great Noise of our so Waterforbearing Water-Baptism and the External Sup-Baptism and per, which are not more/particularly pressed. nal Supper. As also, how we can say far more against the Perpetuity of these last, than they against the former; and yet they clamour against us, as if fo much as to call the constant Use of them in question, were to despise the Ordinances of Christ, &c. Heasketh, What clearer Command there can be, than these Words; Let a Man examine himfelf, and so let him eat? But this Question does not at all prove these Words to imply a Command. His Folly is observable, Page 92. where he desires, It may be observed, That the Corinthians were to be often in the Use of it, because it is said, As often as ye eat, &c. A rare Argument indeed, by which he might conclude, that to fay, as often as a Man Sins, he offends God, did import, we should fin often.

It is badly inferred, That this thing ought to

It is badly interred, That this thing ought to continue by Divine Authority, because the Apostle says, 1 Cor. 11. 23. That which I received of the Lord, have I delivered unto you; seeing the very following Words declare it, to have been the Account of the Matter of Fact, which he so received.

2. Sect. 1. Page 93. He flimly passes, what is contained p. 63, 64. of mine, alledging, I let off my great Guns, but make a Noise without any Spoil. The Reader by comparing these Pages together, will easily observe his Lurking in this particular.

To my Question, What the one Bread is, spoken of 1 Cor. 10. 15, 16. If it be the outward

He answers: It is both the inward and the

outward, and yet but one in respect of the Sacramental Union, which is between the Sign and the thing signified. Now to this I answered in the End of Page 64. of my last, that it cannot be called one, because of the Agreement betwixt the Sign and the thing fignified; else by the Same Inference one might plead for the Continuance of all the Sacrifices and Offerings, and fay, Difcontinu- they are all one with the one Offering mentioned offerings of Heb. 10. 14. because they signified that one Offerings of fering. And whereas W. M. reckons this a pitiful Evasion, saying, Any one may see a Non se. guitur in it: It would have become him better, to have proved this by Reason, than by his own bare Affertion; though any may observe this to be his constant Course, when other Arguments fail him. As he proceeds to prove the Continuance of this Practice, he fays, It cannot be denied, there was once a Command for it, and there is no Repeal of it. But the same recurs in Washing one anothers Feet, and Anointing the Sick with Oyl, Jam. 5. 14. which were as expresly commanded, and never repealed. And yet W. M. can eafily find a Gloss to evict these, reckoning it a finall Matter to forbear them. He addeth, That the Coming of Christ, till which, the Apostles were injoined to be in the Use of the Outward Supper, must be meant of his Outward Coming so many Years after; because such to whom Christ was come in the Spirit, were found in the Practice of it. But this proves no more its Continuance, 1672. Necessitate Pracepti (as he wordeth it) than the Circumcifing, and being circumcifed under the Gospel, will prove Circumcision to be binding upon us. He concludes, saying, That furely we are great Enemies to our Souls, that oppose this Ordinance: But answereth not one Word of p. 65. where I shew, how great Reason we have to forfake it; as also the many Abuses, wherewith they have corrupted it: it sufficeth him to say, That it is meeter to pass it by, than to reply unto it. For Part of it being about the Qualifications of Persons, W. M. is loth to tell his Judgment, least he should harp upon the Old Independent Controversy; it is dangerous to touch this String, especially while he enjoys his Hire under the Shadow of Episcopacy.

Head 12. Concerning the Ministry, Page 96. The Minihe hath nothing to fay against my affirming, fry of the that the Quakers own the Ministry of the Word. ed. Page 97. Speaking of Eph. 4. 11. where Paul Saith, Christ gave Some Apostles, Some Prophets, Some Evangelists, some Pastors and Teachers; He faith, The first three are Extraordinary and Temporary; the last two Ordinary and Perpetual: For this he brings no Proof at all, but that frequent Argument, his own bare Assertion. And whereas I told him, Page 69. of mine, That the former three were not ceased; citing for Proof Calvin, who Inst. lib. 4. cap. 3. avers, That in his Day God raised up Apostles and Evangelists; To this he answers not one Word. As he goes on, he re-peats my Words, where I say, That though we own the Ministry not to be common, yet that doth not hinder, but that any may speak, as the Saints are met together; according to 1 Cor. 14. 31. Asking, How I can make out, that in that Place is meant an ordinary Office? Though it might suffice for Answer, to ask, What Reason dinary and Extraordinary? Yet it is obvious, that the Apostle is here presenting the Ordinary Order of the Church; he needed not present an Order to Extraordinary Offices: for such as are extraordinarily sent, are also instructed how to go about their Office, and not limited to set Rules, else it were not Extraordinary. Page 98. He goeth about to prove this Distinction of Mediate and Immediate, asking; If the Prophets and Apo-

The call to sties were not called immediately? And if Timothy the Ministry was not set apart to the Work immediately, by the of Hands. Laying on of the Hands of the Presbytery? What then? As the Apostles being called by the Lord, did not hinder them from receiving the Approbation and Testimony of the Brethren; yea, laying on of Hands, as did Paul, who without doubt was as immediately fent, as any of the rest, Ads 9. 17. So Timothy's having the Hands of the Presbytery laid on him, doth not prove, he wanted an inward, immediate Call in himself. It is without any Proof at all what he subjoins; That Paul faying, he was an Apostle not by Man, doth oppose himself to ordinary Ministers. He adds, That feeing I fay, That those who come preaching the Gospel, not in Speech only, but also in Power, and in the Holy Ghost, and in the Evidence and Demonstration of the Spirit, give sufficient Proof, that they are called of God; he thinks, I should have favourable Thoughts of Protestant Ministers, who have given such Proofs of their Call.

Answ. He should have told me what these Protestant Ministers are, whom he says we impiously censure; or by what Rule he or his Brethren would be laying such Claim to be Protestant Ministers, so as to exclude the Quakers from being fuch.

he is so far from vindicating himself from this 1672. Charge, that he giveth again new Ground for it, faying, That Such as affert an immediate Call ought whether to give Tokens of it by Miracles, &c. adding, That Miracles are though John did no Miracles, yet his Call was at-prove a true tended with extraordinary things, at his Conception can. and Birth. Now this was the very Objection which the Papills made against the first Reformers, to whom Luther and Calvin replied; That though they had an immediate Call, yet there was no need of Miracles. And this Objection of W. M. is no other than that, which almost in totidem Verbis, in as many Words was objected to Beza. at the Conference of Poizy in France by Claudius Dispensus, Doctor of the Sarbone, who urged this very. Argument of John the Baptist, confirming his Call by the Testimony of Malachy, &c. alledging, That they ought to confirm their Call by Miracles. To whom these are Beza his express Words (Hist. Eccles. of France, p. 581.) " And as "to what Dispense thou alledgest, that extraor-"dinary Vocation is always approved by Mi-" racles, or by the Testimony of the Prophets; "I deny, that it is always so verified. But if we " must come to Miracles, do you not think, that " the Changing of the Life, the Fruit, which is " feen to proceed from this Doctrine in our Time " by Perfons fo contemptible, and fo much per-" fecuted by the greatest of the World, are not " fufficient Miracles? As faid the Apostle to the "Corinthians, that they were the Seals of his A-" postleship." So the rational Reader may obferve, that notwithstanding of W. M's so often laying Claim to the Protestant Churches, and Protestant Ministry, and crying out against us as Opposers of them, he so directly makes use of Popish Arguments against us, and how we defend our felves; by no other, but the very fame Anfwers the Protestants gave unto the Papists. Yea 1672. of late W. Rett, present Preacher of Dandy, in his Book against Papists, Printed but the last Year Miracles at Aberdeen, doth plead, That Miracles are not needful needful; instancing, that John the Baptist did none. And fo W. M. though he compare us to the fesuites in his Epistle, is so far one with them himself, that if his Evasion may be esteemed of Worth, whereby he seeks to overturn this Example of John, when brought by us, he will rather furnish the Fesuites with it, to fight against his Brother W. Rett, or rather borrow it out of their Artillery, whereby they fight against Protestants, than miss to have a hit at the Quakers. May we not truly apply the Instance in his Epistle to himself, that he is sailing in one Boat with Papists, though his Face seems to look averse from

Page 100. He faith, Whatever inward Call the diate call of Elders. mentioned, Tit. 1. 5. Acts 14, 23. had, yet they had not an immediate Call, which is by immediate Command and Voice of God without the Intervention of Men. But for this he adds no Proof at all; nor is there any Inconfistency betwixt being immediately called by Command from God, and afterwards being approved of Men; or that being approved and let apart by Man, excludes having an Immediate Call from God.

Sect. 1. Page 101. He fays, That Eph. 4. 13. is a pregnant and pertinent Proof for the Continuance of the Ministry; which I never denied: But this doth not answer my Saying, that it is impertinent, as to them who deny Perfection; feeing that Place says, The Ministry is for the per-festing of the Saints. Now to this he answers nothing; but that it cannot be gathered, that this Perfection is on the Earth: which is but his own Affertion; yea, by himself there after overthrown, faying, That the Ministry is given, that we may press after an absolute full Perfection, even

The Ministry is for Perfection. of Degrees: for it is a Folly to press after this, 1672. if there be no Hopes of attaining it. He wholly passes by my Objections against their Ministry, page 70. especially, in that they make not the Grace of God a necessary Qualification to the Esse or Being of a Preacher, without so much as making any mention of it: where I also shew, how contrary it is to the Order delivered by the Apoftles in Scripture. Therefore his Conclusion is false, to say, We cast off such a Ministry; seeing he was not able to prove theirs to be fuch, else he would not have wholly past in Silence my Reafons, shewing it not to be fo.

His Thirteenth Head, page 102. is concerning The Sabs the Subbath, or First Day of the Week's being so; bathas to which I defire the Reader first to take Notice, That as we believe, the Apostles and primitive Christians did meet this Day to worship God, so we, as following their Example, do the like, and forbear working, or using our lawful Occasions upon that Day, as much as our Adversaries. So that the Debate is only, Whether there be any inherent Holiness in this Day more than in an other? Or if there be any positive Command for it from Scripture? particularly, If the fourth Command bind us to the Observation of it? And here W. M. notwithstanding of his great Pretences to the Protestant Churches, doth wholly difagree from them in this thing; who are of our Mind as to it: the Generality of all the Protestants, both in Germany, France and elsewhere out of this Island, do look upon the supposed Morality of the First Day of the Week as altogether ridiculous: which may be feen in Calvin upon the Fourth Command, Lib. Inst. 2. c. 8. Self. 34. where he explains the Signification of it, as we do, viz. Typifying a Spiritual Rest, wherein lesv typisying a ing our own Works, the Spirit of God may work in Spiritual us. He there refutes W. M's Notion as a Jesoish M

Opi-

1672. Opinion, saying, Some false Doctors have abused ignorant People with it: adding, as we do, That the Aposile Paul reproves such Superstitions: Like-the Apossile Paul reproves such Superstitions: Like-The keeping wise he plainly afferts, That the keeping of the of the first first Day is only for Conveniency, and to preserve Week, why? Order in the Church, that the Saints might have a fit time set apart to meet together to worship: which we also fay. Hence doth appear the Folly of that impertinent Story mentioned by him Page 105. feeking to infer, That we agree with Papists, in taking away the fourth Command, as they have done the second: for by this he might conclude the first and chiefest Reformers guilty of Popery, whereas himself agrees with Papists, both against the Protestants abroad, and us, in pleading for this imaginary Holiness of the first Day of the Week, which in his Dialogue he fought to prove, because Christ did rise upon it; but to my Answer, shewing, he might from thence infer the rest of the Popish Holy-Days, of his Birth, Ascention, Conception, &c. he replies not one Word. He summarily passes over, what is said by me concerning this thing, pag. 73, 74, 75. which the Reader by looking unto, may observe. He alledgeth; The Fourth Command speaketh not precisely of the Seventh Day in Order from the Creation, and that the Beginning and Ending of it mentions the Sabbath-Day and not the Seventh. Quid inde? &c. What then? Is not the middle of the Command as observable; which saith expresly, But the Seventh Day is the Sabbath of the Lord? There God himself expounds the Sabbath to be the Seventh Day: And W. M. must not think we will reject this Exposition to accept of his proofless Glosses. My Argument drawn from Col. 2. 16, 17. Let no Man judge you in re-spect of an Holy Day or Sabbath-Days; and Rom. 14. 6. which sheweth all Days to be alike: and Gal. 4. 10, 11. Ye observe Days and Months, Times and Tears; He answereth, alledging, These reprove 1672. not Moral Days, but Ceremonial: adding, That the fourth Command binds to this, and therefore it canot be more abrogate, than any of the rest of the Ten Commands. But this is no Proof at all, only a meer beging the Question; he should have more convincingly proved, that the fourth Command binds to the Observation of this Day. Now the Apostle in these Places saith not, I am asraid of you, because ye observe Ceremonial Days: W. M. hath no Bottom for this Distinction. He confessed that Christ, Matth. 24. 20. speaketh nothing of the first Day of the Week; and therefore overthrows the Inference he makes in his Dialogue from it. And what I further add, to shew the Folly of this Inference from the Scripture, he hath wholly omitted; which the Reader may see, pag. 74, 75. of my last.

Page 106. He fays; O! the conscientious Keeping of the Sabbath is a comfortable Evidence of these that shall be admitted to this Rest, viz. the Rest of the Lamb. But seeing these Words are without any Proof, they are only like to have Credit with such filly, superstitious Bigots, as Calvin in the Place above mentioned reproves, and not with any folid ferious Christians.

Sell. 2. Pag. 107. To prove, that the first Day of the Week is set apart for the Service of God, The Lord's by Divine Authority, he citeth Rev. 1. 10. I was mited to a in the Spirit on the Lord's Day; but whereas I particular told him, this did no way prove that Day to be Day. the first Day of the Week, because the Day of the Lord's Day in Scripture is not limited to any particular Day.

He answers; That these two ought not to be confounded; for all Days, wherein the Lord executeth Judgment, are Days of the Lord: but the Lord's Day mentioned Rev. 1. is but one: For this he bringeth no Proof, but his own meer Assertion.

A.S

The Queen of Days, doth not prove that Lord's Day, ipoken of by John, to be the First Day; so if Ignatius had been of this Mind, and had estremed of it above other Days, that makes nothing against us: we know, this Superstition was creeping into the Church before Ignatius's Time; therefore the Apostle Paul warned the Galatians,

Gal. 4. 10, 11.

To prove this Day spoken of by John to be the First Day of the Week, he saith, Christ appeared to his Disciples, declared himself to be the Son of God upon the First Day of the Week; That it is supposed, that was the Day the Spirit was poured forth: And that Beza in an antient Greek Manuscript did find the first Day of the Week called the Lord's Day. But all this doth not in the least prove the Matter in Question; except this may suffice for Proof, W. M. thinks, this will infer the Day of the Lord spoken of by John, to be the first Day of the Week, Therefore it is so. There may be Superstition enough found in Old Greek Manuscripts: It is near Fourteen Hundred Years, since the Eastern and Western Churches

Superfitious were like to split about the Observation of Easter; Observing of and yet Protestants with good Reason look upprocessions of on that Controversy, as both Superstitious and Men. frivolous.

Now giving, but not granting this Day spoken of by John, were the First Day of the Week; How doth he prove from this, that the first Day of the Week is come to Christians, in Place of the Jewish Sabbath? Or that it stands as an Obligation upon them, as a Part of the Moral Law, whereunto we are bound by the fourth Command? Which though it be the chief Thing in Debate, remains yet unproved. Seeing then, he has had very few Proofs for these his supposed Ordinances, but such, as are only bottomed upon

his own Affirmations; the Judicious Reader may 1672.

judge, it is without Ground he concludes here, that we deny the Ordinances of Christ, and not the Inventions of Men.

His fourteenth Head, Page 109. is concerning original Sin (fo called) which the Reader by composition of grounded in Scripparing with pag. 75, 76, 77, 78. of mine, will ture. Gee, that he makes no real, but a meer Counterfeit shew of Answer. And I desire the Reader sirst to observe, That neither here, nor in his Dialogue he doth not so much as offer to prove, that this Phrase, Original Sin, is to be found in Scripture: And for all his Pretences to make the Scripture his Rule, he hath no Ground from this; but from Popish Tradition.

Secondly, That we grant a real Seed of Sin, desour sense rived from Satan, which Adam's Posterity is liable of it. to; But we say, None become guilty of this before God, until they close with this Evil Seed; and in them who close with it, it becomes an Origin or Fountain of Evil Thoughts, Desires, Words and Actions.

And as by granting all capable of receiving this real Seed of Sin, we differ from the Socinians and Pelagians; so by saying ["It is not the "Childrens Sin, until they do close with it] We agree with Zuinglius, a famous Protestant, who for this very Doctrine was condemned by the Council of Trent. in the Art. of the Fifth Sef. Conf. Trent. lib. 2. pag. 208. The Acts of which Council not only against us, but against this samous Founder of the Protestant Churches in Zuitsezland is that, which W. M. is here vindicating.

Thirdly, I defire the Reader may observe, That the thing he pleads for, is, That Infants are really guilty before God; That Infants are guilty before God simply for Adam's Sin; and that some of them who die in their Infancy, and never actually sin in their own Persons, do for this Sin of Adam Eter-

1672. nally perish. Now whether this Doctrine be suitable either to the Justice or Mercy of God, Heave whether the Christian Reader to judge. I shall examine Infinits are the Reasons he brings for it. His chief Argufor the Adment for this in his Dialogue, pag. 76. was; of Sin.

That because Children die, citing Rom. 23. Wages of Sin is Death. Now I thew him, p. 41. of mine, how that made nothing, because natural Death of the Saints is not the Wages of Sin; for their Sins are forgiven them, &c. This he hath not so much as mentioned, far less answered. And whereas he might as well argue, that not the Wa-the Earth, Trees and Herbs were Sinners, because they received great Decay by Adam's Sin; He flightly passes it over: alledging, It will not therefore follow, that all Mankind, who suffer Death, are not Sinners. Now this is no Answer, but a meer Shift; and the thing I intended against his Affertion, doth very naturally follow from my Argument thus; If (as W. M. fays) Infants be guilty of Adam's Sin, because they are subject to Diseases and Death, then the Beasts, who are subject to the like, and the Earth, Herbs and Trees, who have received their Decay, are Sinners before God: But this is abfurd; therefore the other. him answer this the next time more effectually.

The first Proof he brings here, is 1 Job. 3. 6. That which is born of the Flesh, is Flesh: adding, This intimates, Man by his natural Birth to be cor. rupt and fleshly. But for this his Gloss he bringeth no Proof: Though that which is born of the Flesh, be Flesh; he sheweth us not, how it followeth thence, that Infants are guilty of Adam's Sin, After the like manner he concludes this his Dowhether Etrine from Fob 14.4, Pfal. 5. 5. But as the Words

Infants are in these Places do not plainly express any such adam's sin thing, so he brings no Reasons to make his Confequences deduceable from them. After the like proofless Manner he alledgeth, Rom. 5. 14. By one

Man's

Man's Disobediance many were made Sinners: 1672. Now, though the Matter in question be, Whether these many were made Sinners, before they actually sinned in their own Persons? He doth not so much as offer to prove it. In the like manner, though David said, his Mother conceived him in Sin; he sheweth us not how it followeth from thence, that David was guilty of Sin before he actually Sinned. And here I observe, how he afferts, That Men are guilty of the Sin of their immoderate Parents; contrary to the plain Testimony of the Scripture, Ezek. 18. 20. The Son shall not bear the Iniquity of the Father. To prove Infants thus guilty, he further addeth Rom. 5. 12. alledging these Words, For that all have finned; includes Infants: But I shew him, this includes not Infants, because the Apostle clears it in the next Verse, saying, Sin is not imputed, where there is no Law: and that there being no Law to Infants, they cannot be guilty of Sin. To this he replies; There was a Law to Adam, and that he represented Mankind, and stood as a publick Person; Therefore Children had a Law in him: But for this Signification of his own he produceth no Proof; and it cannot be received, as being direct contrary to the Scripture abovementioned, The Son Shall not bear the Father's Iniquity. He alledgeth, That those the Apostle speaks of, who sinned not after the Similitude of Adam's Transgression, are Infants: But after his usual Manner bringeth not the least Proof for it. The 1 Cor. 15. 22. cited by him, is fo far from making any thing for his Purpose, that it maketh directly against him; which any, that have the least Grain of true Understanding, may perceive.

The Words are; As in Adam all died, even so in Nonedie in Christ all are made alive; for here All are said to Adam, undie in Adam, even as All are said to be made a unly join live in Christ: Now, as none are made alive in with his Unrighteous.

Christ, nels.

1672. Christ, until they actually receive and join with his Righteousness; so none die in Adam, until they actually receive and join with his Unrighteousness, &c. He maketh a deal a do, pag. 110, 111. about the Greek and, wherein tho' it were easy to refute him, were it not needless to fill up Paper with Grammatical Criticisms. For giving, but not granting, the Words might be translated, In Adam all have sinned; it will not from thence follow, that Infants are guilty, before they actually Sin: Seeing All are faid to die, or have finned in Adam, even as All are faid to be made alive in Christ; and yet none are said to be fo, until they actually receive his Righteousness, as is above demonstrated.

Page 113. He alledgeth; Though it be faid, that the Kingdom of God is of little Children, yet some Infants are not saved, because they are not of the Kingdom of Grace: But for this he bringeth no Proof at all. And I here take Notice, That he acknowledges, that God fanctifies and regenerates some Infants; and thereby he notably W. M. con contradicts his fecond Section concerning the Light; and page 29. of his Dialogue, where he condemus it, as a dangerous Error in us, to fay, Any can be faved without the outward Knowledge of Christ, of which Infants are not capable. To prove, That some Infants perish, even Eternally, he alledgeth, the Burning of Sodom and Gomorrab, citing Jude 7. But his wresting this Scripture is very manifest. For the Reason Jude gives of their suffering Vengeance, was, because they gave themselves up to Fornication, and went after strange Fleth: Now of this Infants were not capable; of whom therefore Jude speaks not one Word. He terms Impudent, or else Ignorant, for bringing Matth. 1. 22. against them, alledging, It is an unjust Charge, to say, they plead for a Salvation in their Sins : And yet he has the Im.

pudence immediately to aver it himself, saying, 1672. They are but in Part delivered or faved in this' Life: Do they not then dream of Salvation, while in Part they remain in their Sins? Compare Matth. 1. 21. with 1 Joh. 1.7. Christ is faid to cleanse us from All Iniquity, not a Part of it. It is a bad Inference drawn from my Affertion, that Children are not guilty of Sin, to fay, that therefore they need not a Saviour: I told him in my last, Christ was truly a Saviour unto them, How Christ in that he kept them from Sinning; as one, that's is a Saviour to Children, kept from falling in a Ditch, is as truly faved, as he that's taken out of one. It is altogether inconsequential to infer from this, That Christ died to save the holy Angels from Sin, because they are not Suffered to fall into it: For Christ is said only to have died for Adam's Posterity, of which Number Infants are, but not Angels. It is likewife without Reason, that he compares us to Pelagians; as if we took from Christ the Name Fefus, feeing it has been shewn, we own him to be Fesus, or Saviour to all, even to Infants.

He beginneth his fifteenth Head, concerning the Perseverance of the Saints, Page 115. alledg of Perseveing; That in saying, the Quakers hold not a fal-rance. Ting away from Regeneration, I seek to hide my self; Because G. Keith says, That Saints may fall away from Saving Grace; asking, if Saints be regenerate?

Saints; yet fome may be called Saints, who are not fully regenerate.

Page 116. He alledgeth; It is in vain to affert this falling away, because it is said, Some who believed afterwards fell away, and some make Shipwrack of the Faith; and some who tasted of the good Word of God, and the Powers of the Life to come, &c. Because they use to distinguish betwixt seeming counterseit Grace, and sound saving Grace, Answ.

ing of Scripture? For if so be, that Faith which they had, were not real, they were not to be blamed for falling away from it; it were their Mercy, to make Shipwrack of that which was are that fell counterfeit. The Apostle speaks positively, Heb. 6. 4. of the Capacity of fuch to fall away, who were once enlightned, who have tasted of the heavenly Gift, yea, who were Partakers of the Holy Ghost, and have tasted of the good Word of God, and the Powers of the World to come; he faith not, they feemed to be so: Nay, the very Context sheweth the contrary, faying, It is impossible to renew fuch again to Repentance. Now had this been all in Appearance, the Apostle needed not to speak of Renewing them again to Repentance, or fay, They crucify the Son of God afresh; seeing if fo, they had never been penitent, and been always Crucifiers of Christ. Whereas in Answer to Phil. 1. 6. I told him, "It might be supposed, "that Paul was as confident, that God would " perfect the Work in himself, as in any other: And yet he supposes the contrary, where he fays, Lest preaching the Gospel to others, I my self become a Cast-away. To this he replieth nothing, but citeth another Scripture, fer. 32. 29. I will give them one Heart, that they may fear me for ever. Though God give them this, that they may fear him, yet fuch may abuse the Gift of God, and fo run out of his Fear: he gives to all his Grace, and yet it is faid, that some turn it unto Grace unto Wantonness, Jude 4. He jeereth at my Answer Grace unto to Peter, saying; A goodly Reply, for sooth: as if he had said, If the Saints fall from Faith, they must fall. But he might spare his Insulting, until he had found some way to answer my Words, which are; "That those, that abide not in the " Power of God through Faith, must fall away: For he might as well fcoff at all the conditional Pro-

Promifes of the Gospel, such as, Hethat continueth stedfast to the End, shall obtain the Crown. To say, That Faith, and the Power of God concurs, to prevent the Saints falling away, answers nothing; for so long as these concur, we do not deny it: and though they be always willing to concur, yet it is clear, that some, who have believed not counterfeitly, but really, have departed from the Power, and so fallen away, as is above shewn.

Page 117. Upon the Words of Fer. 32. 40. he fays; It proves the Perseverance, or Impossibility of falling away, because it is said, God put his Fear in their Hearts for this End, that they might not depart from him. What then? that doth not prove, that they cannot depart from him: Christ came to his own for this End, that he might fave them; and yet it is faid, They received him not, Joh. I. II. He fays, I make short Work of these Scriptures, Joh. 10. 27, 28. Joh. 13. 1. I Joh. 2. 19. because I say, "They speak of those, who "were come to a thorough Regeneration: which he fays, Is without Proof. But the Reader by looking unto them, will find, they cannot be understood otherways, than of such, as are throughly Regenerate: and it appears, he was fenfible of this, having produced nothing to the contrary. And whereas he adds, That if those, who are throughly Regenerate, were only to perfevere, then this were the Priviledge of Saints in Heaven, and not in Earth, who never come to be fo. There can be nothing more ridiculous, than this Manner of Arguing; seeing that Question, Whether the Saints can be perfectly regenerate on Earth? is as much in debate, as the other. That Objection of his, as if from this Doctrine it might follow, One were a Child of God to Day, and a Child of the Devil to Morrow; I answered in my last Page 80. to which he returneth no Answer: him, to bring it forth here again. And whereas in Page 80. aforesaid, I thew him, how he contradicted himself in this Matter, by granting some of the Quakers to have been truly converted, and yet now to condemn them as Apostates: He is so far from reconciling it, that he avers it anew, in plain Terms, saying, p. 118. That some of them that have felt a gracious Operation on their Hearts; and Page 9. He cannot but think, That some of them were savingly wrought upon: and yet adds, That it is clear, that they have Apostatized from the Truth. Now to reconcile this, he hath nothing to say, but he trust, the Lord will convince them.

Anlw. As some of them, to whom he and his Brethren were forced to give the Testimony of gracious Persons, have already departed this Life not only not shrinking from, but even Testifying to these Truths he calls Error; so others, whom they have also accounted gracious, having been at Death's Door, have afferted the same Truth, and rejoyced in it: which fufficeth to overturn his vain Confidence. And truly, fuch a groundless Hope is but a poor Shift to reconcile so palpable a Contradiction; whereby, while in Words they condemn this Doctrine of the Capacity of Man's Falling away from Grace, yet as to the Experience of some Particulars, they are forced to acknowledge it, for fear they should fall in greater Inconveniences, of granting, some among the Quakers to be Choice Saints.

His Sixteenth Head, Page 119. is to prove the Danger of Quakerism, as he terms it. But that his Folly may appear in this Particular, I desire the Reader first to observe our Principle, which he concludes so hazzardous, even as repeated by himself Page 121. viz. That a Man cannot, nor ought not to Pray without the Spirit's Motion: And 1672. to Say, none can pray without it, hath no had Tendency; because all such Prayers, as are performed Praying with without the Help of the Spirit, are Abomination, granted by not true Prayers, but hypocritical and deceitful. W. M. Now he cannot deny this; and therefore grants it to be true: Yea, faith plainly in the next Page; That Prayer without the Spirit is Abomination. And whereas he adds; That forbearing of Prayer is also Abomination; we do not deny it: But freely confess, that forbearing of Prayer in the Wicked is Sinful. But the Way to prevent this, is not to commit a Second Evil, viz. to pray without the Spirit: They ought first to come to the Spirit, that thereby they may pray acceptably, according to that of Paul, Rom. 8. 26. Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our Instrmities: Prayer with-For we know not, what we should pray for as we out the Spi-ought; but the Spirit it self maketh Intercession for not. us with Groans, that cannot be uttered. I Cor. 14. 15. I will pray with the Spirit; which being brought by me in my last, he hath wholly omitted so much as to mention; far less to answer. And though omitting of Prayer be finful, yet to bid a Man pray without the Spirit, is as much as to defire a Man to fee without opening his Eyes. This thing may appear by a familiar Example, thus: Suppose a Servant turn Sluggard, and fleep, while he should be about his Master's Work; if when he is raifed out of his Bed, he should run naked to it, without taking along those Tools or Instruments, which are absolutely needful for the doing of it, What will he profit either himself, or his Master? Yea, he will but hinder the Work more: Even fo the Wicked, as they ought to pray, fo they ought first to come to the Spirit, whereby they may do it to the Glory of God, and their own Souls Good. Now though this be so undeniable, that he cannot gain.

1672. gainfay it; yet in Contradiction to the Truth and his own Concessions, he goes about to Cavil against it, alledging; It might take off Men as well from their necessary Works, because the ploughing of the Wicked is Sin; and that also it might follow from this, that Children should not bonour their Parents, and Husbands love their Wives, but when they have a Motion of the Spirit for it.

Answ. This Objection hath no Weight to overturn the Truth: For there is a great Difference betwixt these things, that relate to the Worship of God; and what relates to outward things, this of God either concerning our felves or our Neighbours. is Spiritual. The Worship of God is a Spiritual thing relating to himfelf, which we are commanded to perform in the Spirit; and God doth offer us his Spirit for the Performance of it: And because it is that, which is meerly relative betwixt God and the Soul, he doth not accept of it, but as so offered; we cannot pray, as we ought, faith the Apostle, But the Spirit helpeth, &c. Now, though these other things would, no doubt, be the more acceptable to God, and more frequently accompanied with his Bleffing, that they were done in the Sense of his Fear, and in the Drawings of his Spirit; yet they are materially good in themfelves, answering really their End to them, unto whom they immediately relate without it: But it is not fo of Prayer, which as it immediately Relates to God, so W. M. himself confesseth, The Prayer without the Spirit to be Abomination. Thus is also solved his Supposition Page 124. That if a Wicked Man contract Guilt, he may provoke the Lord to withdraw the Motions of the Spirit; and then his Not Praying is not Sin: For I have afferted, that the Not Praying of the Wicked is Sinful. And this doth not lull People in a finful Security; on the contrary they are alike rather to be lulled in fuch a Security, by being told, they may be fet about Prayer, when they please: Whereby 1672. they foster themselves in a groundless Hope, because of their now and then repeating their Words of Prayer, neither expecting nor looking for the Spirit's Affistance: Whereby instead of advancing in Grace and Righteousness, they do but reiterate Abominations; and so aggravate their own Guilt. And whereas here he is forced to acknowledge, that Motives of the Spirit will not be wanting to the Saints to pray, when they are at the Gates of Death, or in Danger of prefent Drowning: He asks me; What shall the Wicked do in this Case? Shall they not follow the Advise, robich Peter gave to Simon Magus, Acts 8. 22.

Pray God, if perhaps the Thoughts of thy Heart Let the wicked remay be forgiven thee? But here he minceth the pent, &c. Apostle's Words, which are ; Repent therefore of thy Wickedness, and pray, &c. here the Apostle puts Repentance before Prayer : It shall not be denied, but when the wicked have repented of their Wickedness, the Spirit will not be wanting to affift them to pray. It is therefore to little Purpose, that Page 120, and 121. he pleads for cra. Bleffing before Mear. ving a Bleffing, when we use the Creatures of God; calling the Neglett of it a prophane Custom: For we do not deny it; and condemn a prophane Neglect of it, as much as themselves. And as Christ had the Spirit without and above Measure. having always a ready Access to the Father; so we are glad and willing at fuch Occasions to express Words, if we find the Spirit affisting us so to do: Yea, we reckon, that we ought not to use the Creatures, without our Hearts be in some Measure retired to the Sense of God's Presence. and stayed in his Fear, whereby we may secretly breath for a Bleffing: For to speak audible Words is not effential. And therefore it is apparently malitious for him to fay; That when we are not stayed in God's Fear, we have Liberty and Freedom to fall to meat; my Words had no fuch importance, though he feeks to turn them. And yet can wholly omit much of Page 82. of mine, where I shew their Abuses in this Matter, how they mock God in it, and provoke him to withdraw his Bleffing. And whereas he fays; One of us confessed, That he had not called together, nor Prayed in his Family for a Twelve-month past: He should have produced the Person's Name, that we might have inquired concerning it; and therefore until he so do, we can lay no Stress upon it; but reject it as false: Especially considering, that W. M. being particularly challenged upon this, refuseth absolutely to do it; nor durst he aver, he had any better Ground for it, than Hear-say. Upon this Occasion he asks; If Abraham must not keep up Religion in his Family, because an Ishmael is in it? But this maketh nothing against us: For none of us, that are Masters of Families, have forborn to keep up the Worship of God, though Enemies of Truthhave been in it; whom we have not barred from being present: And for whom we have not been wanting to Pray: Though we cannot join with them in their Prayers (as W. M. adviseth us) until first they repent of their Wickedness. This was the Method of Pcter's Advice to Simon Magus, first to Repent, and then to Pray; asisabove shewed.

Praying for Enemies.

Self. Page 125, He fays; Quakerisin tends to make Mortification of Sin Useless; and to me (asking; Whether Mortification be useless, where the End of it (which is Perfection) is attained?) He answereth; That Perfection is twofold, comparitive and absolute; and seeing we are for an absolute Perfection, there is no Use for Mortification.

Perfection Answ. There can none come to this absolute attained by Perfection, (as he terms it) but by Mortification Mortification of Sin: And even such, as are so Perfect while on Earth, do constantly use Mortification to keep down Sin, least it rise again; and to resist the 1672. Temptations of the Enemy, wherewith even of fuch as be perfect, are daily assaulted. He alledgeth; I Triumph before the Victory, in quarrelling with him for saying; That a Sinless Perfection wounds the very Vitals of Religion: But his filly Subterfuge in this Place may eafily be discovered. I asked him in my last, " That seeing he " faid fo, Whether the Vitals of Religion con-" fifted in Sinning or not Sinning? Adding, That " if it consist in Sinning, they that Sin most are most Religious; but if it consist in not Sin-" ning, then to plead for such a thing as attain-" able, hurts not the Vitals of Religion: To this he answereth; That the Vitals of Religion confist in the Means appointed of God. Who feeth not this to be a meer Evasion? Why did he not give a direct Answer? But that he could not, without either denying his former Antichristian Expression, or else falling into palpable Grosness. And whereas he adds; That these Means are Repen-ance, Mortisication, Believing, Application of the Blood of Christ: Though it be no answer to my Question, I deny not, but that Religion consists in these things; but I suppose, he will not say, that they are Sinning. It is not in the least abfurd, that one, who hath attained to Perfection. may practife these Duties; Man, though he have attained to Perfection, cannot too much repent of his former Wickedness. And therefore it is without Ground, that he alledgeth, That I shift, and cannot deny, but the Forbearance of these Duties flow, as a Consequence, from our Principle. Nor is my faying (that they who come to Perfection, witness the true Use of these things) any Shift at all; though he be pleased to term it so without any Proof, after his wonted Manner: According to which he addeth; That under the Pretence of Perfection we take Men off from the Practice ty in the Vitals of it: Which though it fall of it felf, as being a meer Affertion; yet the contrary is abundantly shewn. He saith; He doth not contradict himself, in inferring, a sinless Man to be Sinful: He offirmed only; the Quaker's conceitedly sinless Men to be Sinful, who discover much Sin in their Pride, Passion Bitterness, railing Accusations: Adding; If such say, they have no Sin, they are but Liars, and the Truth is not in them.

Answ. There was no such Addition in his Dialogue, as conceitedly Sinless: But absolutely he said; Bring me to the Man, that is Sinless; and therefore his Contradiction remains. Moreover, let him name that Quaker, if he can, that told him, he was perfectly free from all Sin,, and yet was guilty of those Crimes he speaks of? Else he can deduce nothing from his own false Supposition.

Page 127. To prove the Saints Continuance always in Sin, he defires to remark, that I fob. 1.

8. It is even fuch, who have heard, feen and hanThe Saints dled of the Word of God, &cc. Who fay, If we were cleanfed have no Sin, we are Liars: And here is to be obfrighteouffels ferved his detestable Impudence in adding to the Scripture Words, citing Verse 7. which he repeats thus; We, who are cleansed from the Guilt of Sin: Whereas there is no such Word as Guilt in that Place; but only, We are cleansed from all Sin: Which imports a cleansing from the Filth. Mark these Words Verse 9. From All Unrighteousness: Now when the Guilt is only taken away, and the Filth remaineth (as W. M. falsly suppostre M. pleads es) they could not be faid to be cleanfed from All for a clean-Unright coufnefs. For it is an improper Speech to fing from fay, We are cleanfed from Guilt; It is from the Punishment, Filth we are cleanfed, and the Guilt is forgiven but not from its: Therefore faith the Apostle, Verse 9 first, act of sin. He is faithful to forgive us, and next he adds, To cleanse us from all Unrighteousness. Nor will 1672. Fobn's faying, If we say, we have no Sin, import John himself to be of that Number; more than the Apostle James speaking of the Tongue, Jam. 3. 9. faying, Therewith Curse we Men, who are made after the Similitude of God; will prove James to have been of these Cursers. Now in Answer to me, shewing, that that Scripture 1 Fob. 1. 8. is Conditional, else it would contradict what follows, Verse 9. Chap. 2. 4. and Chap. 2. 9. he returneth no Answer, but his own Affertions. He faith; The 9th Verle speaketh of Forgivenefs; but it also adds Cleanfing, as is above observed. He saith, That I Joh. 2. 4. is understood of a sincere not absolute keeping of the Commands of God; but for this he brings no Proof at all: He faith; That Joh. 3. 9. who foever is born of God sinneth not; Is meant of Sinning unto Death, from which the Child of God is secured: The Reason he gives of this Gloss, is, Because the Apostle Chap. 5. Ver. 16. Speaketh of a Sin unto Death; which Sin W. M. supposeth to be, that the Apostle means, He that's born of God, cannot Commit. But to prove this Supposition, we have nothing but his own meer Affertion: Reader, These are the best and strongest Arguments he hath to prove his Doctrines,

His Seventeenth Head, Page 128. is to shew, his Doctrines not to be acceptable to the Wicked; and his Eighteenth Head, Page 131. is, to prove Ours to be so: But he is so pitifully ridiculous in this Matter, that such as have the least Measure of Understanding, and are Unprejudiced, cannot but see his Weakness. Yet that he may be left altogether without a Cover, I shall answer his Objections, and leave the unbiassed Reader (as he desires) to judge, which Principles, in their Nature have most Tendency to strike at, or so-ster Wickedness? To prove, that it is not acceptable

1672. table to the Wicked to hear, they must always Sin, he fays; Some are so conceited of their Hone-fly, that they cannot be convinced of their Sins; And that Mortification of Sin is distassful to them: But how he makes this to answer the other, is not told us. If Hypocrites love not to hear of their Sins, it doth not therefore follow, that pleading for a conffant Continuance in Sin, is Continuance not acceptable to the Wicked; they may be the in Sin pleade easier induced to acknowledge their Sins, that ceptable to they hear it told them for found and folid Dothe Wicked Ctrine, that they may be reputed good Saints and Christians, though they always remain in them. To prove, that their Doctrine of Imputative Righteousness, and of Election and Reprobation, is not pleasing to the Wicked, he fays; Some wicked Men scoff at them: What then? So some wicked Men scotf at the Folly of Mahumetanism; Will it therefore follow, their Doctrine is good? The Question is; "Whether their Doctrine of " Men's being altogether reputed Righteous in the "Sight of God by a Righteougher's altogether " without them, and Men's being Elected to Life " from all Eternity, without any Respect to their " Deeds, be not more acceptable to the Wicked, " than to tell them, They must seek to be justifi-" ed by the Rightcoussor God wrought In them? "And as they are joined to the Elect Seed Christ "Jefus, born again and brought forth in them, " which worketh out all Iniquity and all Unrigh-" teousness in them? Now, this he hath not in the least offered to Answers After the like Manner, whereas I shew, " It is more acceptable to the "Wicked to hear, that the outward Letter is the "Rule, which they can bend and twine; than "the Inward, which cannot be fo twifted. fays; Some wicked Men could wish, there were no such outward Rule; and that some understand not, what is intended by God's immediate Speaking, but hate the Ministry of the Word. Both which An- 1672. fwers make nothing to the Purpose: What? tho' wicked Men hate the Scripture and the Ministry, Doth it therefore follow, that it is not more acceptable to them to hear, This is their Only Rule, which they can twine as they please, than the Inward, which cannot be twined, as the Scriptures may, nor bribed, as the Ministry of Men? He confesses, They allow of Laces, Ribbons, Gold-Rings, &c. and other Superfluities; and therefore cannot deny, but that their Dostrine therein is acceptable to the Wicked: His Shift is here; That People ought not to exceed their Rank and Quality: Alledging; The Apostle only con-demns this, 1 Tim. 2. 9. But that his detestable wresting of the Scripture may be manifest, I Modest Ap-shall cite the Apostle's Words; In like Manner al. parel. fo, that Women adorn themselves in modest Apparel, with Shamefac'dness and Sobriety; not with broidered Hair, or Gold, or Pearls, or costly Array. Is there any Word here, that they should only not exceed their Rank? Who cannot but abominate his abusing of Scripture? And whereas he says; He thinks they should be sparing of lawful Games and Recreations: It feems, their Deeds fuit not their Thoughts in this Matter; or else it must be accounted a Sparingness with him, not only to spend much of the Day in Field-Sports, but even largely of the Night in Carding, &c. For so to my certain Knowledge, some of his Brethren in the Priesthood of the Synod of Aberdeen are found doing, and justifying them the Salbath, he offereth not The Salbath in the least to answer that, wherein I shew, it was Acceptable to the Wicked according to the fame Rate. In Answer to my Affertion, That the Wicked love well to hear, That they may be Members of the Church, without having Infallible Evidence of Holiness: He asketh; If all the N 3 Mem-

1672. Members of the Quakers Church have fo? Ad-Vding; That our raw, conceited Proselytes are so ignorant, and yet so confident, that sober Men suspect them to be in a Fool's Paradice. First, As this is a meer Shift, and no Reply, to disprove the Principle aforefaid to be acceptable to the Wicked; fo likewise, if his Spirit had not been in a Raw. Conceited Posture, filled both with Ignorance and Confidence, he had not suffered himself so far to fall in a Fool's Paradice, as to imagine, this his meer proofless Calumny, with many more his groundless Affertions, would have any Weight with fober Men, not being backed with any Argument. He addeth; Their Doctrine, Once in Grace, and Ever in Grace, bath no Tendency to please the Wicked, because such never had Grace: and therefore have no Ground to think, that belongeth unto them. But seeing he himself confeffeth, That fuch, as bad true Grace, may fall both unto detestable Practices, and Blasphemous or Erroneous Principles; May not fuch then foster themselves in these Evils, by saying; That since they once hadtrue Grace, they can never totally fall from it? That Part of Page 47, 48. of mine, where I shew by Example, how the Wicked living among them, and being their Church-Members, and also Opposing and Vilifying us, did declare, their Principles to be more acceptable to the Wicked, than ours; he hath wholly waved: It feems, he knew of no Shift, how to shufle by this; and therefore found it fittest, altogether to Omit it.

Head 18. Page 131. He faith, The Quaker's Religion is exceeding fuitable to carnal Hearts: and thereupon he instanceth some Particulars, saying, They are pleasing to the Wicked; without offering any Reason. The Reader, upon the particular Debate of these Matters in their Places, will observe, how he was necessitated, to bottom

this Conclusion of these Principles being suitable 1672. to carnal Hearts, upon the meer Credit of his own Affirmation; and therefore it is no Wonder he w. m. is adds, that he is wearied, raking in this Dunghil. wearied with It is high time for him to leave off trampling in own Dung. fuch miry Stuff, as is the whole Bulk of his hil. Book; and no Doubt, a Dunghil is a very fit Term for fuch a dirty Product, as is these drossy Dregs of his dark Understanding. I charged him in the End of mine for Lying to God, for that in the Prayer he endeth his Dialogue with, he useth these Words; Follow with thy Blessing that which We have been about: Which now he is fo far from clearing himself of, that he now acknowledges, it was only a supposed Conference, and therefore it was a Lye, yea, a Mocking of God, to defire him to accompany a meer Supposition with his Bleffing. As for his expressing Pity towards the Seduced, and wishing God to reclaim them: It was not for that I challenged him; but for his defiring God to accompany with his Bleffing a meer Chymera, which never was: And therefore his best shift for this is; What is it, that some Men will not carp at, especially the Quakers? Of whom he addeth; Apious Minister bath said, that their Religion consists in Railing: And then he goes on, and tells some Terms, wherewith that Person says, The Quakers have named the Ministers of Christ.

Answ. First, The Testimony of his supposed pious Minister is no more to be received in this Case, than W. M. his own; and to say, The Quakers gave these Names be mentions to the Ministers of Christ, is to take for granted the thing in Debate; for the Quakers deny them to be such. And is just one, as if a Papist should say; Luther and his Associates Religion consisted in Railing, because they called (as to the Papists) their Holy Mother the Church of Rome a Strumpet, a Whore, the Mother of Fornications, Babylon, &c.

M. mentions the Quakers give his Brethen: Dare he deny, but there are some of his Fraternity guilty of all these Terms? And what knoweth he, but the Quakers have applied them aright? It is manifest enough, some of these Terms are too applicable to them all; fuch as blind Guides, Perfecutors. It is here Observeable, That among all these Denominations he alledges the Quakers give him and his Brethren, he hath Blind Guides omitted the Two, both most frequently used a-Persecutors, gainst them by the Quakers, and most universal-Hirelings ly deserved by his Fellow-Priests, viz. Head, Page 96. Concerning the Ministry, alledgeth; That these Words of the Apostle Paul, mentioned by me, 1 Cor. 14. 30. Ye may all Prophessy one by one; are restricted to Prophets, &c. not for the Common Order of the Church: Adding, That except we could prove all our Teachers to be Prophets, we ought not to lay Claim to that Scripture: I would desire him to answer his Brother Samuel Ruthersord's (Professor of Divinity at St. Andrew's, so called; who in his Book, intituled, The due Right of Presbytery, Page 466, 467.) Passorsare Eight Arguments, wherein he hath proved it to be called Proof Passors, &c. not of Extraordinary Prophets; phets. and thereby hathsaved me that Labour.

This coming to my Hands, after the Other was committed to the Press, was the Cause of its not being inferted in the due Place.

A Seasonable Warning, and Serious Exhortation to, and Expostulation with the Inhabitants of Aberdeen, concerning this present Dispensation and Day of God's Living Visitation towards them.

Reat, Unutterably great! Oye Inhabitants! is the Love of God, which flows in my Heart towards you, and in Bowels of unspeakable Compassion am I opened, am I enlarged unto you in the Sight and Sense of your Conditions, which the Lord hath discovered and Revealed unto me. O that your Eyes were opened, that ye might see and behold this Day of the Lord! and that your Ears were unstopped, to hear His Voice,

that

1672. that crieth aloud, and calleth One and All of you to REPENTANCE! And that your Hearts were foftned and inclined to difcern and perceive this bleffed Hour of his prefent Visitation, which is come unto you! He hath lifted up a Standard in the midst of you, and among your Brethren; He hath called already a Remnant, and enrolled them under his Banner, and he is calling ALL to come; he hath not left one without a Witness: Blessed are they, that receive him, and hear him in this Day of his Appearance. He hath fent forth, and is daily fending forth his Servants and Messengers, to invite you to Come and Partake with him of the Supper, of the Feast which he hath prepared! And among many others, whom at fundry Times he hath caufed to found forth his Testimony, I also have in the Name, and Power, and Authourity of God proclaimed his everlasting Gospel among you, and Preached, and held forth the glad Tidings of this glorious Dispensation, which is Christ, manifesting and revealing himself in and by his Light and Spirit in the Hearts of all Men, To lead them out of all Unrightcousness and Filthiness both of Flesh and Spirit; unto all Righteousness, Truth. Holiness, Peace and Joy in the Holy Ghost. But because many of you have despised this Day, and as ye have made merry over God's Witness in your Hearts, not liking there to entertain him in his meek, lowly, yet lovely Appearance; so have ye despised, mocked and rejected that which testifieth to this Witness without you. Therefore was I commanded of the Lord God, to pass through your Streets covered with Sackcloth and Ashes, calling you to REPENTANCE, that ye might yet more be awakened, and Alarm'd to take Notice of the Lord's Voice unto you; and not to despife these things, which belong to your Peace, while your Day lasteth, least herehereafter they be hid from your Eyes. And the 1670. Command of the Lord concerning this thing came unto me that very Morning, as I awakened, and the Burthen thereof was very great; yea, seemed almost insupportable unto me, (for such a thing, until that very Moment, had never entered me before, not in the most remote Consideration.) And fome, whom I called to declare to them this thing, can bear Witness, how great was the Agony of my Spirit, how I befought the Lord with Tears, that this Cup might pass away from me! Yea, how the Pillars of my Tabernacle were shaken, and how exceedingly my Bones trembled, until I freely gave up unto the Lord's Will. And this was the End and Tendency of my Testimony, to call you to Repentance by this Signal and Singular Step; which I, as to my own Will and Inclination, was as unwilling to be found in, as the worst and the wickedest of you can be averse from receiving, or laying it to Heart. Let all and every one of you, in whom there is yet alive the least Regard to God, or his Fear, Consider and Weigh this Matter in the Presence of God, and by the Spirit of Jesus Christ in your Hearts, which makes all things manifest; Search and Examine every one his own Soul, how far this Warning and Voice of the Lord is applicable unto them? and how great need they have to be truly humbled in their Spirits? returning to the Lord in their inward Parts with such true and unfeigned Repentance, as answers to the outward Cloathing of Sackcloth, and being Covered with Ashes. And in the Fear and Name of the Lord, I charge all upon this Occasion, to beware of a flight, frothy, jeering, mocking Spirit: For though such may be permitted to insult for a Season; yet God will turn their Laughter into Howling, and will Laugh when their Calamity cometh: And fuch are feen to be in one Spirit with those, who spat in the Face of the LORD JE.

1672. SUS, and buffeting him, bid him prophely, who Imote him. Therefore consider, O ya Inhabitants, and be ferious, standing in Fear: Where are ve who are called Christians? Among whom it is become a Wonder, A Stone of Stumbling, or Matter of Mockery, or a Ground of Reproach, for one in the Name of the LORD to invite you to Repentance in Sackcloth and Ashes! Would not the Heathen Condemn you in this thing? And will not Ninevel frand up in Judgment against you? How is it, that ye, that are called Christians, can willingly give Room to every idle Mountebank, and can fuffer your Minds to be drawn out to behold these sinful Divertisements, which indeed divert the Mind from the ferious Sense of God's Fear? The People can be gathered there, and neither the Magistrates complain of Tumult, nor yet Preachers, nor Professors cry out against it as Delusion, or Madness. O my Friends, confider, Can there be any more strongly Deluded, than for People daily to Acknowledge and Confess, They are Sinners, and Sinning, in Words; and to startle at that, which did so lively reprefent unto them, what they own to be their Condition? Were it in good Earnest, or were it from a true Sence of your Sins, that ye so frequently feem to acknowledge them, ye would not despise nor overlook that which calleth you to Repentance for it. How is it, that you can so considently array your selves in all manner of gaudy and superfluous Apparel? And exceed in luftful Powderings and Perfumes; and yet are ashamed and amazed at Sackcloth and Ashes, which according to your own Acknowledgment, is fo fuitable to your States? Is not this to glory in your Shame, and to be alhamed of that which ought to be, and would be your greatest Glory, to wit, True and Unfeigned Repentance ? I shall add, that which upon this Occasion I declared unto you, I was

I was for a Sign from the Lord unto you; I de- 1672. fire ye may not be among those, that wonder and Perish, but rather Repent and be Saved. And this is my Testimony unto you, whether you will hear or forbear; I have Peace with my God in what I have done, and am fatisfied, that his Requirings I have answered in this thing. have not fought yours, but you: I have not coveted your Gold or Silver, or any thing elfe; nor do I retain, or entertain the least Hatred, Grudge or Evil Will towards any within or without your Gates: but continue in pure and unfeigned Love towards all and every one of you, even those, who do most despise or reject me and my Testimony: being ready to bless those that curse, and to do good to those, that despitefully use me; and to be spent in the Will of the Lord for your fakes, that your Souls may be faved, and God over all may be glorified: For which I travel, and cry before the Throne of Grace, as becometh

A Servant of the Lord Jesus Christ,

Robert Barclay.

This came before ms to fignify unto you by Writing at Urie, the 12th of the first Month, 1672.

After this Paper was committed to the Press, fome Queries concerning this Matter were fent (to a Friend in Aberdeen) by One, who in the Inscription styles himself a Sober Inquirer; which Mask has quickly pulled off, either for Want of Wit, or from too much Malice against the Truth, by spreading these Queries at the same time among several Hands: which no truly Sober Inquirer would have done, until he had first received, or been been refused Satisfadion from him, to whom he particularly directed them. In Order therefore to dispel such cloudy Mists, as the Enemy seeks to raise for darkning the Day of God's Appearance through his Children, These Answers are judged sit to be here annexed.

The Premisses and Queries following upon them, being all one on the Matter, the First being Positions in General, and the other the particular Application of them hereto, they need not different Answers; both of them are herein comprehended and implied: As any that will be at the Pains to look after the Queries, and compare them, may observe.

To the First is therefore Answered;

1. R. B. denies his Message to have proceeded from any Light or Illumination in him as a Man; but from the Immediate Testimony of the Spirit of God in his Heart, A Manifestation of which Spirit is given to every Man to profit withal, according to the plain Testimony of the Scriptures, 1 Cor. 12. 7. 1 Joh. 2. 20, 27. Heb. 8. 10, 11, 12. The which Spirit and Anointing teaches all the Saints under the New Covenant, whereunto an Audible Voice is not required: For this is faid to be within them, and not without them. Nor can it be proved, that God spake always to the Prophets by an Audible Voice, or that such a thing is requisite to every true Revelation, received from the Spirit; else none could be truly certain, that the Scriptures came from the Spirit of God, until they received an Audible Voice by the outward Ear, confirming them of it: Nor could any have the Assurance of Salvation without the fame; both which the Generality of Protestants hold needful to Believers, and Calv. Testimony of the Spirit, without an Audible Voice. Nor was John Hus his Prophety of Luther, or George Wishart's of the Cardinal's Death alledged to have proceeded from an Outward Audible Voice; and yet proved both True: As likewise several others of latter Years, which might be mentioned.

2. A Message thus delivered from the Testimony of the Spirit of God in the Heart, reaches to the Manifestation of the same Spirit in the Hearts of those, to whom it is delivered; if they wilfully do not refift and shut it out. Thus the Ninivites were reached at the Call of Jonab; and those who heard Peter were pricked in their Hearts; yet neither the one or the other had fuch an immediate particular Call as fonab and Peter had; but the Testimony of the Spirit through these Two, touched, reached and raised that of God in their Hearts, and made it applicable unto them. Yet those that dispise this Light and Manifestation of God in themselves, may come to jeer, and mock at a Message proceeding from it through another, even as the Scribes and Pharifees did at Christ; and therefore were worthy of Condemnation, and judged by the Heathen, fuch as Tyre and Sidon, and Ninive. Even as it is with those of the same Spirit at this Day, who while they cry up the Writings of the Prophets, and other Scriptures, (as did the Pharifees) are despifing Prophefying, or the Teaching, or Leadings of the Spirit; which the Apostle declared to be the Nature of the New Covenant-Dispensation: And therefore no Wonder, if according to the Scripture, Prov. 28. 18. Where there is no Vision, the People perish.

3. The Affisters to this Action having had the thing declared unto them, retiring to the inward feel Union therewith; and fuch as went along, did not only find a true Liberty, (which might have fufficed) but some of them a Necessity to Concur with it. And as for the carrying of the Hat and Cloak, it was altogether Extrinsick, being neither Essential nor Circumstantial to the thing; nor so look'd upon by these who did it: Yet the Carping thereat shews in the Proposer a critical Mind, very void of Seriousness, which the Lord, as of Purpose to starve, hath permitted him to build that Part of the Query in Relation to A. H's Wife upon a false Report, the thing being a manifest Untruth.

And in Answer to the Second Proposition of the Premisses, it's the alone immediate Testimony of the Spirit of God, that can truly discover all fasse Pretenders and Delusions: which if any can, let them deny, without overturning the Basis of all Christian Religion, and rendering the

THE

Preface to the Reader.

READER,

CInce first that great Apostacy took Place in the Hearts and Heads of those, who began even in the Apostle's Days to depart from the Simplicity and Purity of the Gospel, as it was then delivered in its Primitive Splendor and Integrity; innumerable have been the manifold Inventions and Traditions, the different and various Notions and Opinions, wherewith Man (by giving Way to the vain and airy Imaginations of his own un-Stable Mind) hath burdened the Christian Faith; fo that indeed, first by adding these things, and afterwards by equalling them, if not exalting them above the Truth, they have at last come to be substitute in the Stead of it: So that in process in time, Truth came to be shut out of Doors, and another thing placed in the Room thereof; having a Shew and a Name, but wanting the Substance and Thing it Self. Nevertheless it pleased God to raise up Witnesses for himself almost in every Age and Generation, who, according to the Discoveries they received, bore some Testimony, less or more, against the Superstition and Apostacy of the Time: And in special manner through that appearing of the Light, which first broke forth in Germany about One Hundred and Fifty Years ago, and afterwards reached divers other Nations, the Beaft received a deadly Wound: And a very great Number did at one Time Protest against, and Rescind from the Church of Rome in divers of their most grais and fensual Doctrines and superstitious Traditions. But alas! It is for Matter of Lamentation, that the Successors of these Protestants are establishing and building up in themselves that, which their Fathers were pulling down instead of prosecuting and going on with so Good and Honourable a Work, which will easily appear.

The Generality of all Protestants (though in many other things miserably Rent and Shattered among themselves) do agree in dividing from the Church of Rome in these Two Particulars:

First, That every Principle and Dostrine of the Christian Faith is, and ought to be founded upon the Scripture; and that what soever Principles or Dostrines are not only not contrary, but even not accordin thereto, ought to be denied, as Antichristian.

Secondly, That the Scriptures themselves are plain and easie to be understood; and that every private Christian and Member of the Church ought to read and peruse them, that they may know their Faith and Belief founded upon them, and receive them for that Cause alone; and not, because any Church or Assembly has Compounded and Recommended them: the Choicest and Most-Pure of which they are obliged to look upon as Fallible.

Now, contrary to this their known and acknowledged Principle, they do most vigorously Prosecute and Persecute others with the like Severity, the Papists did their Fathers, for believing things, that are plainly set down in the Scriptures; and for not believing divers Principles, for which themselves are forc'd to recur to Tradition; and can by no means prove from Scripture. To shew which, I shall not here insist, having alotted a Chapter for it in the Book it self; because to put it here, would swell beyond the Bounds of a Preface.

Oh! How like do they flew themselves (I mention it with Regret) to the Scribes and Pharisees of Old, who of all Men most cried up and exalted Moses and the Prophets, boasting greatly of being Abraham's Children! And yet those were they, that were the greatest Opposers and Vilisiers of Christ, to whom Moses and all the Prophets gave Witness: Yea, their chief Accusations and Exceptions against Christ was, as being a Breaker of the Law, and a Blasphemer.

Can there any Comparison run more parallel, feeing, there is now found a People, who are greatly Persecuted, and bitterly revised, and accused as Hereticks by a Generation, that cry up and exalt the Scriptures; and yet this People's Principles are found in Scripture, word by word; tho' the most grievous, and indeed the greatest Calumny cast upon them is, that they Visisy and deny the Scriptures, and set up their own Imaginations instead of them.

To disprove which, this Catechism and Confession of Faith is compiled, and presented to thy Serious and Impartial View. If thou lovest the Scripture indeed, and desirest to hold the plain Doctrines there delivered, and not these Strange and Far-fetch'd Consequences; which Men have invented; thou shalt easily observe the whole Principles of the People called Q U A K E R S, plainly couched in Scripture Words, without Addition or Commentary: Especially in those things, their Adversaries Oppose them in, where the Scripture plainly decideth the Controversy for them, without Nicities and School Distinctions; which have been the Wisdom, by which the World hath not known God; and the Words, which have been multiplied without Knowledge, by which Counfel hath been darkned.

In the Answers to the Questions there is not one Word, that I know of, placed, but the express Words of Scripture: And if in some of the Questions there be somewhat Subsumed, of what in my Judgment is the plain and naked Import of the Words, it is not to impose my Sense upon the Reader; but to make way for the next Question, for the Dependence of the Matter's Sake. I Shall leave it to the Reason of any Understanding and judicious Man, who is not by affed by Self-Interest, (that great Enemy to true Equity) and who in the least Measure is willing to give way to the Light of Christ in his Conscience, if the Scriptures do not pertinently and aptly Answer to the Questions.

As I have upon serious Grounds Separated from most of the Confessions and Catechisms heretofore published; fo, not without Cause, I have now taken another Method. They usually place their Confession of Faith before the Catechism: I judge, it ought to be otherwise; in Regard that which is Easiest, and is composed for Children, or such as are Weak, ought in my Judgment to be placed First; it being most Regular, to begin with things that are Easie and Familiar, and lead on to things, that are more Hard and Intricate. Besides, that things be more largely opened in the Catechism, and divers Objections Answered, which are proposed in the Questions; the Reader having passed through that First, will more perfeely understand the Confession, which consisteth mainly in positive Assertions.

Not long after I had received and believed the Testimony I now bear, I had in my View both the Possibility and Facility of such a Work; and now after a more large and perfect Acquaintance with the Hely Scripture, I found Access to allow some time to set about it; and have also been helped to accomplish the fame.

I doubt not, but it might be enlarged by divers Citations, which are here omitted; as not being at present brought to my Remembrance: Yet I find Cause to be contented, in that God hath so tar affisted me in this Work by his Spirit, that good Remembrancer; the Manifestation of which,

which, as it is minded, will help fuch, as Seriously and Conscientiously Read this, to find out, and cleave to the TRUTH, and also Establish and Confirm those, who have already believed. Which of all things is most earnestly desired, and daily prayed for, By Prom Urie the Place of my Being in my Native Country of Scotland, the 11th of the 6th Month, 1673.

CHAPTER I.

Of GOD, and the True and Saving Knowledge of Him.

Question. Seeing it is a thing unquestioned by all Sorts of Christians, that the Hight of Happiness consisteth in coming to know and enjoy Eternal Life; what is it in the Sense and Judgment of Christ?

Answer. This is Life Eternal, that they might Joh. 17. 3. know thee, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent.

Q. How doth God reveal this Knowledge?

A. For God, who commanded the Light to 2 Cor. 4. Thine out of Darkness, hath shined in our Hearts, 6. to give the Light of the Knowledge of the Glory of God in the Face of Jesus Christ.

Q. How many Gods are there?

A. One God. We know, that an Idol is no-Eph. 4.9. thing in the World; and that there is none o. 1 Cor. 8. ther God but one. But to us there is but one 4, 6. God.

Q. What is God?

A. God is a Spirit. Joh. 4.24.

Q. Among all the Blessed, Glorious and Divine Excellencies of God, which are ascribed and given to him in the Scriptures, what is that, which is most needful for us to take notice of, as being the Message which the Apostles recorded in special Manner to declare of him now under the Gospel?

A. This

1673. A. This then is the Message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, That God 1 Joh. 1.5. is Light, and in him is no Darkness at all.

Q. What are they that bear Record in Heaven?

the Father, the Word and the Holy Ghost, and these three are one.

Q. How cometh any Man to know God the Father, according to Christ's Words?

Luke 10. A. All things are delivered to me of my Fa22. ther; and no Man knows who the Son is, but the Mal. 11. Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and 27. Joh. 14.6 he to whom the Son will reveal him. Jefus faith unto him, I am the Way, the Truth and the Life, no Man cometh unto the Father but by me.

Q. By whom, and after what Manner doth the

of Man, the Things which God hath prepared for them unto us by his Spirit: For the Spirit fearcheth all things, yea, the deep things of a Man, fave the Spirit of a Man, which is in him? Even fo the Things of God knoweth no Man, but the Spirit of the World, but the Spirit which is of God, that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my Name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your Remembrance, &c.

CHAP. II.

Of the Rule and Guide of Christians, and of the Scriptures.

Question. Eeing it is by the Spirit, that Christ re- The Spirit I veals the Knowledge of God in things the Guide. Spiritual, is it by the Spirit that we must be led under the Gospei?

Answer. But ye are not in the Flesh, but in Rom. S.o. the Spirit; if so be that the Spirit of God dwell 14. in you. Now, if any Man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the Sons of God.

Q. Is it an Inward Principle then, that is to be the Guide and Rule of Christians?

A. But the Ancinting, which ye have received 1 John 2. of him, abideth in you: And ye need not that 27any Man teach you, but as the fame Anointing teacheth you of all Things, and is Truth, and is no Lye; and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him.

But as touching Brotherly Love, ye need not Thef.4.9 that I write unto you; for ye your felves are taught of God to love one another.

Q. I perceive by this, that it is by an Inward Anointing and Rule, that Christians are to be taught? Is this the very Tenor of the New Covenant Difpensation?

A. For this is the Covenant that I will make The Awith the House of Israel, After those Days, faith noining, the Lord, I will put my Laws into their Mind, the Teach-and write them in their Hearts; and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me :a People : Heb. 8. And they shall not teach every Man his Neigh- 10, 11. bour, and every Man his Brother, faying, Know the Lord; for all shall know me, from the Least to the Greatest.

Joh. 6. 45. And they thall be all taught of God.

Q Did Christ then promise, that the Spirit should both abide with his Disciples, and be in them?

John 14. 16, 17. A. And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever, even the Spirit of Truth, whom the World cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him; but ye know him; for he dwells with you, and shall be in you.

Q. For what End were the Scriptures written?

Rom. 15. — A. For whatfoever things were written afore time, were written for our Learning, that we through Patience and Comfort of the Scriptures might have Hope.

Q. For what are they profitable?

Tim. 3. A. Thou hast known the Holy Scriptures, 15, 16, 17 which are able to make thee wiseunto Salvation, through Faith which is in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is given by Inspiration of God, and is profitable for Doctrine, for Reproof, for Correction, for Instruction in Righteousness, that the Man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good Works.

Q. Wherein consisteth the Excellency of the Scriptures ?

Pet. I.

20, 21.

A. Knowing this first, that no Prophesy of the Scriptures is of any private Interpretation: For the Prophesy came not in Old Time by the Will of Man, but Holy Men of God spake, as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.

Q. The Scriptures are then to be regarded, because they came from the Spirit; and they also tessify, that not they but the Spirit is to lead into all Truth? In what Respect doth Christ command to Search them?

A. Search

A. Search the Scriptures; for in them ye think 1673. ye have Eternal Life, and they are they which testify of me.

Q. I perceive, there was a Generation of Old, that greatly exalted the Scriptures, and yet would not believe, nor come to be guided by that the Scriptures directed to: How doth Christ bespeak such?

A. Do not think, that I will accuse you to the Joh. 5.45. Father; there is one that accuseth you, even 46,47. Moses, in whom ye trust: for had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me; for he wrote of me: But if ye believe not his Writings, how shall ye believe my Words?

Q. What ought then such to be accounted of, notwithstanding of their Pretences of being ruled by the Scriptures?

A. In which are some things hard to be un-2 Pet. 3. derstood, which they that are unlearned and un. 16. stable, wrest, as they do also the other Scriptures, unto their own Destruction.

CHAP. III.

Of JESUS CHRIST being manifest in the Flesh; the Use and End of it.

Question. W Hat are the Scriptures, which do most observably prophesy of Christ's Appearance ?

Answer. The Lord thy God will raise up unto Deut. 18. thee a Prophet from the Midst of thee, of thy 15. Brethren, like unto me, unto him ye shall hearken.

Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sa. 7. 14. Sign: Behold, a Virgin shall conceive and bear a Son, and shall call his Name Immanuel.

Q. After what Manner was the Birth of Christ?

A. Now, the Birth of Jesus Christ was on this Mat.1.13. wise: Whenas his Mother Mary was espoused to foseph (before they came together) she was found with Child of the Holy Ghost.

And the Angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary, The Birth for thou hast found Favour with God: And be-of Christ. hold thou shalt conceive in thy Womb, and bring forth a Son, and shalt call his Name Fesus: He shall be great, and shall be called The Son of Luke 1. the Highest, and the Lord God shall give unto 30, 31, 32, him the Throne of his Father David. Then said 34, 35. Mary unto the Angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a Man? Q. For what End did Christ appear in the World? Rom. 8.

A. For what the Law could not do, in that it was weak through the Flesh, God sending his Son in the Likeness of finful Flesh, and for Sin condemned Sin in the Flesh.

For this Purpose the Son of God was manifested, That he might destroy the Works of the De 8, 9. vil. And ye know, that he was manifested to take away our Sins.

Q. Was Jesus Christ really Crucified and Raised again?

A. For I delivered unto you first of all, that which I also received, how that Christ died for 3, 4. our Sins, according to the Scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he arose again the Third Day, according to the Scriptures.

Q. What End do the Scriptures afcribe unto the Coming, Death and Sufferings of Christ?

How much more shall the Blood of Christ, who through the Eternal Spirit offered himself without Spot to God, purge your Consciences from dead Works, to serve the living God.

For Christ also hath once suffered for Sins, the Just for the Unjust (that he might bring us to God) being put to Death in the Flesh, but quick-he laid down his Life for us.

Heb.9.15. And for this Cause he is the Mediator of the New Testament, that by Means of the Redemption of Transgressions that were under the First Testament, they which are called, might receive the Promise of the Eternal Inheritance.

Q. Is Christ then the Mediator?

J. For there is One God, and One Mediator between God and Man, the Man Christ Jesus, who gave himself a Ransom for all, to be testified in due Time.

Q. Was not Christ the Mediator, until he appeared, and was crucified in the Flesh?

Rev. 5.12. A. He is the Lamb, the and 13. 8. Foundation of the World.

Q. Is it then needful to believe, that the Saints of Old did partake of Christ, as then present with, and nourishing them?

i Cor.ic. A. Moreover, Brethren, I would not that ye 1,2,3,4. should be ignorant, how that all our Fathers were under the Cloud, and all passed through the Sea; and were all baptized unto Moses in the Cloud and and in the Sea; and did all eat the same spiritual 1673. Meat, and did all drink the same spiritual Drink: For they drank of that spiritual Rock that sollowed them, and that Rock was Christ.

Q. But whereas most of these Scriptures beforementioned do hold forth, that the Death and Sufferings of Christ were appointed for the destroying, removing and remitting of Sin: Did he so do it, while he was outwardly upon Earth, as not to leave any thing for himself to do in us, nor for us to do in and by his Strength?

Of the New Birth, the Inward Appearance of Christ in Spirit, and the Unity of the Saints with him.

Quest. DOTH Christ promise then to Come again to his Disciples?

Joh. 14. Come unto you.

18. Q. Was this only a Special Promise to these Disciples? Or is it not the Common Priviledge of the Saints?

Isa.57.15. A. For thus saith the High and Lofty One, that inhabits Eternity, whose Name is Holy, I dwell in the High and Holy Place, with him alfo that is of a Contrite and Humble Spirit, &c.

2 Cor. 6. For ye are the Temple of the Living God, as God hath faid, I will dwell in them and walk in them.

Rev. 3.20. Behold, I stand at the Door, and knock, if any Man hear my Voice, and open the Door, I will come in to him, and Sup with him, and he with me.

Q. Doth the Apostle Paul speak of the Son of God being Revealed in him.

Gal.1.15. A. But when it pleafed God, who feparated me from my Mother's Womb, and called me by his Grace, to Reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the Heathen.

Q. Is it needful then, to know Christ within?

2 Cor. 13. A. Examine your felves, whether ye be in the Faith, prove your own felves, Know ye not your own felves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be Reprobates?

Q. Was the Apostle Earnest, that this Inward Birth of Christ Chould be brought forth in any?

Gal. 4.19. A. My little Children, of whom I travel in Birth again, until Christ be formed in you?

Q. What saith the same Apostle of the Necessity of this Inward Knowledge of Christ, and of the

A. Wherefore henceforth know we no Man af16, 17.

ter the Flesh; yea, though we have known Christ after the Flesh; yet now henceforth know we him no more. Therefore if any Man be in Christ, he is a New Creature; Old things are passed away, behold all things are become New.

But

But ye have not so learned Christ; if so be 1673, that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the Truth is in Jesus, That ye put off Ephes. 4. concerning the former Conversation, the old Man, 21, 22, which is corrupt, according to the deceitful 23, 24. Lusts; and to be renewed in the Spirit of your Mind; and that ye put on the new Man, which after God is created in Righteousness and true Holiness.

Q. Is this Christ-within, the Mystery of God, and Hope of Glory, which the Apostle preached?

A. To whom God would make known, what Col. 1.27, are the Riches of the Glory of this Mystery a-28, mong the Gentiles, which is Christ in you, the Hope of Glory, whom ye preach.

Q. Doth the Apostle any where press the putting on of this New Birth?

A. Put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make Rom. 13. not Provision for the Flesh to fulfil the Lusts 14. thereof.

Q. Doth he write to any of the Saints, as having put off the Old, and put on the New Man?

A. For as many of you, as have been Baptized Gal. 3.27.

into Christ, have put on Christ.

Seeing that ye have put off the Old Man with Col. 3.9, his Deeds, and have put on the New Man, which 10- is renewed in Knowledge after the Image of him that created him.

Q. What speaketh Christ himself of the Necessity of this New Birth?

Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, John 3.3. verily, I say unto thee, Except a Man be born again, he cannot see the Kingdom of God.

Q. Of what Seed cometh this Birth?

A. Being born again, not of corruptible Seed, 1Pet.1.23 but of incorruptible, by the Word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.

Q. What doth the Apostle Paul witness of himfelf concerning this New Life?

A. I am

Q. What

1672. A. I am Crucified with Christ; nevertheless I live, yet not I, but Christ liveth in me.

Gal. 2.20. Q. What is the Preaching of the Cross of Christ?

1 Cor. 1. A. For the Preaching of the Cross is to them
18. that perish, Foolishness; but unto us that are saved, it is the Power of God.

Q. What Effect had this Cross in the Apostle? and how much preserreth he the New Creature to all outward and visible Ordinances and Observances?

Gal. 6.
A. But God forbid that I should glory, save in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the World is crucified unto me, and I unto the World: For in Jesus Christ neither Circumcision availeth any thing, nor Uncircumcision, but a New Creature.

Q. What speaketh Christ of the Unity of the Saints with him?

Joh. 14.20 A. At that Day ye shall know, that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you.

John 15. Abide in me, and I in you: As the Branch cannot bear Fruit of it felf, except it abide in the Vine, no more can ye, except ye abide in me. I am the Vine, ye are the Branches; He that abideth in me, and I in him, the fame bringeth forth much Fruit; for without me ye can do nothing.

Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also, which shall believe in me through their also, 20, 21,22, Word: That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us, that the World may believe it, that thou hast sent me. And the Glory which thou gavest me, I have given them, that they may be one, even as we are one: I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the World may know, that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me.

Q. What faith the Apostle Paul to this Purpose? 1670.

A. For both he that sanctifies, and they that are fanctified, are all of one; for which Cause he Heb.2.11 is not ashamed to call them Brethren.

Q. What faith the Apostle Peter?

A. Whereby are given unto us exceeding great 2 Pet.1.4. and precious Promises, that by these you might be Partakers of the Divine Nature, having efcaped the Corruption that is in the World through Lust.

CHAP. V.

Concerning the Light wherewith Jesus Christ hath enlightned every Man: The Universality and Sufficiency of God's Grace to all the World made manifest therein.

Question. Wherein consists the Love of God towards Fallen and Lost Man?

Answer. For God so loved the World, that he Joh. 3-16. gave his only begotten Son; that whosever believeth in him, should not Perish, but have everlasting Life.

In this was manifested the Love of God to-1 Joh.4.9. wards us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the World, that we might live.

Q What is intended here by the World? all and every Man, or only a few?

A. But we see Jesus, who was made a little Heb. 2.9. lower than the Angels, for the suffering of Death crowned with Glory and Honour, that he by the Grace of God, should taste Death for every Man.

And if any Man sin, we have an Advocate 1 Joh. 2. with the Father, Jesus Christ, the Righteous; 1, 2. and he is the Propitiation for our Sins, and not 1672. for ours only, but also for the Sins of the whole World.

> Q. Methinks, the Apostle John is very plain there, in mentioning the whole World, which must be not only the Saints, but all others; seeing he distinguisheth the World from himself, and all the Saints, to whom he then wrote: What Saith Paul elsewhere in this Matter ?

Col.1. 27, A. Christ in you the Hope of Glory, whom 28. we Preach, warning every Man, and teaching every Man in all Wisdom, That we may present every Man perfect in Christ Jesus.

1 Tim. 2. I exhort therefore, that first of all Supplica-3, 4, 6. tions, Prayers, Intercessions, and giving of Thanks be made for All Men; for this is good and acceptable in the Sight of God our Saviour, who will have all Men to be faved, and to come to the Knowledge of the Truth; who gave himself a Ransom for all, to be testified in due time. Q. What is the Apostle Peter's Testimony in this?

2 Pet.3.9. A. The Lord is not flack concerning his Promise (as some Men count Slackness) but is longfuffering to us ward, not willing, that any should Perish, but that All should come to Repentance.

Q. Are there any more Scripture Passages, that prove this Thing?

A. Say unto them, As I live, faith the Lord, Ezek. 33. I have no Pleasure in the Death of the Wicked; II. but that the Wicked turn from his Way, and Live.

Pfal. 145. The Lord is gracious, and full of Compassion; flow to Anger, and of great Mercy. The Lord is good to all, and his tender Mercies are over all .8, 9. his Works.

the World unto himself. 19.

Q. Seeing then, by these Scriptures it appears, that the Love of God is held out to all, that all might might have been or may be saved by Christ; what is 1673. to be judged of those, who assert, that God nor Christ never purposed Love nor Salvation to a great Part of Mankind; and that the Coming and Susferings of Christ never was intended, nor could be useful to their Justification; but will and must be effectual for their Condemnation: even according to God's Purpose, who from their very Insancy to their Grave with held from them all Means of Salvation? What saith the Scripture to such?

A. For God fent not his Son into the World to Joh. 3.17.

condemn the World, but that the World through him might be faved.

I am come a Light into the World, that whofoever believeth in me, should not abide in Dark-John 12.
nefs. And if any Man hear my Words and be-45, 47lieve not, I judge him not; for I came not to judge the World, but to save the World.

Q. From what Scripture then came thefe Men to wrest an Opinion so contrary to Truth?

A. For the Children being not yet born, nei-Rom. 9. ther have done any Good or Evil, that the Pur-11, 12,13. pofe of God according to Election might stand, it was said unto her, The Elder shall serve the Younger, as it is written, facob have I loved.

but Efau have I hated.

Q I perceive, in that Scripture it was only said, before the Children were born, The Elder shall serve the Younger; These other Words (facob have I loved, Esau have I hated) are mention'd out of the Prophet Malachy, who wrote them many Hundred Years after both were dead: Doth not the Scripture mention any other Cause of God's hating Esau, than meerly his Decree? What saith the same Apostle elsewhere?

A. Lest there be any Fornication, or prophane Heb. 12. Person, as Esau, who for one Morsel of Meat 16, 17, fold his Birth-right; for ye know, how that af-

1673. terward, when he would have inherited the Blef-fing, he was rejected.

Q. But seeing, that such alledge, that it is because of Adam's Sin, that many, even Children are Damned: Doth not the Scripture aver, that the Death of Christ was as large to Heal, as Adam's Sin could Condemn?

Rom. 5.

A. For if through the Offence of one many be dead, much more the Grace of God, and the Gift by Grace, which is by one Man, Jesus Christ. Therefore as by the Offence of One, Judgment came upon all Men to Condemnation, even so by the Righteousness of one, the free Gift came upon all Men unto Justification of Life.

Q. That proves abundantly, that Christ's Death is of sufficient Extent to make up any Hurt Adam's Sin brought upon Mankind? What is then the Cause of Condemnation?

John 3. A. He that believeth on him is not condemned; but he that believeth not, is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the Name of the Only begotten Son of God.

2 Thess. 2. And with all Deceivableness of Unrighteous10,11,12 ness in them that perish, because they received not the Love of the Truth, that they might be faved. And for this Cause God shall send them strong Delusions, that they should believe a Lye, that they all might be damned, who believe not the Truth, but had Pleasure in Unrighteousness.

Q. Seeing it is so of a Truth, according to the Scriptures Testimony, that God has purposed Love and Mercy to all, in the Appearance of his Son Jesus Christ; Is the Gospel or glad Tidings of this Salvation brought nigh unto all, by which they are put into a Capacity of receiving the Grace, and being saved by it.

Col. 1:23. A. If ye continue in the Faith grounded and fetled, and be not moved away from the Hope of the Gospel, which ye have heard, and which 1673. was preached to every Creature, which is under Heaven, whereof I Paul am made a Minister.

O. What is the Gospel?

A. I am not ashamed of the Gospel; for it is Rom. 1.16 the Power of God unto Salvation, unto every one that believeth.

Q. Is this Gospel bid?

A. If our Gospel be hid, it is hid to them that 2 Cor. 4. are lost, in whom the God of this World hath 3, 4. blinded the Minds of them which believe not, lest the Light of the glorious Gospel of Christ should shine unto them.

Q. Is this Light then come into the World? And are not Men condemned, because they love it not;

and not because it is bid from them?

A. And this is the Condemnation, that Light Joh. 3.19 is come into the World, and Men love Darkness rather than Light.

Q. Why do they fo?

A. Because their Deeds are evil.

Q. Is every Man enlightned by this Light?

A. He was not that Light, but was fent to Joh. 1.8,9. bear Witness of that Light, that was the true Light, which enlightneth every Man that cometh into the World.

Q. Doth this Light discover all things?

A. All things that are reproved, are made ma-Eph. 5.13. nifest by the Light; for whatsoever doth make manifest, is Light.

Q. Do Evil Men preach up this Light, or mind it?

A. Every one that doth Evil, hateth the Light, Joh. 3.20. neither cometh to the Light, lest his Deeds should be reproved.

They are of those that rebel against the Light. Job 24.13

Q. Do good Men love it, and follow it.

A. He that doth Truth, comes to the Light, Joh. 3, 21. that his Deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

Q. What

1673. Q. What Benefit doth redound to Such as Love

the Light, and walk in it?

I Joh. 1.7. A. If we walk in the Light, as he is in the Light, we have Fellowship one with another, and the Blood of Jesus Christ, his Son, cleanses us from all Sin.

Q. Doth Christ command to take Heed to the Light ?

Joh. 12.36 A. While ye have the Light, believe in the Light, that ye may be the Children of the Light.

Q. Were the Apostles commanded to turn People to the Light?

Acts 26.

A. Delivering thee from the People, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I fend thee to open their Eyes, and to turn them from Darkness unto Light, and from the Power of Satan unto God, that they may receive Forgivenese of Sins, and Inheritance among them which are fanctified through Faith that is in me.

Q. Doth this Light abide with every Man all his Life Time, in order to fave, or only during the Day of his Visitation?

Joh. 12.25 A. Yet a little while is the Light with you; walk while ye have the Light, lest Darkness come upon you.

Heb. 4. 7. Again, He limiteth a certain Day, faying in David, To Day, after fo long time, as it is faid, To Day, if ye will hear his Voice, harden not your Hearts.

Q. How can it be proved, that there is a Day, wherein People may know things concerning their Peace, which afterwards may be hid from them?

Luke 19.

A. And when he was come near, he beheld the City, and wept over it, faying, If thou hadft known, even thou, at leaft in this thy Day, the things which belong unto thy Peace; but now they are hid from thine Eyes.

Q. Is there any further Scripture Proof of the Lord's

Lord's Willingness to gather a People, who would 1673.

not, and therefore were condemned?

A. O ferusalem, ferusalem! thou that killest Mat. 23. the Prophets, and stonest them which are sent 37. unto thee, How oft would I have gathered thy Luke 13. Children together, even as a Hen gathereth her 34. Chickens under her Wings, and ye would not.

Then his Lord, after that he had called him, Mat. 18. faid unto him, O thou wicked Servant! I for-32,33,34. gave thee all the Debt, because thou desiredst me; thouldst not thou also have had Compassion on thy Fellow-Servant, even as I had pity on thee? And his Lord was wroth, and delivered him to the Tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him.

Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, Acts 13. It was necessary that the Word of God should first 46. have been spoken to you; but seeing ye put it from you, and judge your selves unworthy of Everlasting Life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles.

Because I have called, and ye refused, I have stretched out my Hand, and no Man regarded: Prov. 1. But ye have set at nought all my Counsel, and 24,25, 26. would none of my Reproof; I also will laugh at your Calamity, I will mock when your Fear cometh.

And at what Instant I shall speak concerning a Jer. 18. Nation, and concerning a Kingdom to build and 9, 10. to plant it; If it do Evil in my Sight, that it obey not my Voice, then will I repent of the Good, wherewith I said I would benefit them.

Q. Doth God's Spirit strive then for a Season, and afterwards forbear?

A. And the Lord said, My Spirit shall not al-Gen. 3.9. ways strive with Man.

Q. May it then be resisted?

A. Ye Stiff-necked and Uncircumcifed in Heart Acts 7.51. and Ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost, as your Fathers did, so do ye.

ven against all Ungodliness and Unrighteous-Rom. 1. ness of Man, who hold the Truth in Unrighteousness.

Q. Hath God manifested to Man, that which may be known of Himself?

Rom. 1. A. That which may be known of God, is manifest in them; for God hath shewed it unto them.

Q. Is then this Light or Seed sown in the Hearts of Evil Men?

A. And he spake many things to them in Pa-Mat. 13. rables: Behold, a Sower went forth to sow, and 3,4,5,7 when he sowed, some Seeds fell by the Way-side, &c. some fell among stony Places, &c. and some fell among Thorns, &c.

Q. Are those Places, where the Seed is said to have fallen, understood of the Heart of Man?

Mat. 13.

A. Hear ye therefore the Parable of the Sower, when any one heareth the Word of the Kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the Wicked One, and catcheth away that which was fown in his Heart: This is he which received the Seed by the Way-side, &c.

Q. Is this Seed small in its first Appearance?

Mat. 13.

A. The Kingdom of Heaven is like to a Grain of Mustard Seed, which a Man took and sowed in his Field, which indeed is the least of all Seeds.

Q. Forasmuch as many understand not this under the Notion and Appellation of Light or Seed, it being quite another Dialest than the common; though I must needs confess, it is the very Language of the Scriptures; Is there a saving Manifestation of the Spirit given unto all?

Cor. 12. A. The Manifestation of the Spirit is given to

7. every Man to profit withal.

Q. Sure, if it be to profit withal, it must be in order to save; for were it not useful, nor yet sufficient to save, what Profit could it be of: But in re- 1673.

gard some speak of a Grace that is common, and of a Grace that is saving, is there such a Grace common unto all, as brings Salvation?

A. The Grace of God, that brings Salvation, Tit. 2.11.

hath appeared to all Men.

Q. That which brings Salvation, must needs be saving; what doth that Grace teach us?

A. Teaching us, that denying Ungodliness Tit. 2.12. and worldly Lusts, we should live soberly, righteously and godly in this present World.

Q. Certainly, that which teacheth both Righteougness and Godliness, must be sufficient; for therein consisteth the whole Duty of Man: what saith the Apostle elsewhere of this Instructor?

A. And now, Brethren, I commend you to Ads 20. God, and to the Word of his Grace, which is 32. able to build you up, and to give you an Inheritance among all those that are sanctified.

Q. What is the Word of God?

A. The Word of God is quick and powerful, Heb. 4. and sharper than any two-edged Sword, piercing 12, 13. even to the dividing asunder of Soul and Spirit, and of the Joints and Marrow, and is a Discerner of the Thoughts and Intents of the Heart. Neither is there any Creature that is not manifest in his Sight, but all things are naked and open to the Eyes of him, with whom we have to do.

Q. Ought we not to take Heed to this Word?

A. We have also a more sure Word of Pro-2 Pet. 1. phecy, whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, 19. as unto a Light that shineth in a dark Place, until the Day dawn, and the Day-star arise in your Hearts.

Q. I perceive the Scriptures are very clear, both concerning the Universality and Sufficiency of this Light, Seed, Grace and Word of God, but is this Word nigh, or afar off? Inward or Outward?

A. Say

A. Say not in thine Heart, Who shall ascend into 1673. Heaven, that is, to bring Christ down from above; or who shall descend into the Deep, that Rom. 10. 6, 7, 8. is, to bring up Christ again from the Dead? But what faith it. The Word is nigh, in thy Mouth and in thy Heart; that is the Word of Faith, which we preach.

Q. That is clear as to the Word; Is there any Scripture speaks of the Light's being Inward?

A. God who commanded the Light to shine 2 Cor. 4. out of Darkness, hath shin'd in our Hearts, to 6, 7. give the Light of the Knowledge of the Glory of God in the Face of Jesus Christ. But we have this Treasure in Earthen Vessels, that the Excellency of the Power may be of God, and not of us.

Q. But seeing it is also called the Seed of the Kingdom, is the Kingdom of God also within?

A. The Kingdom of God comes not with Ob-Luke 17. fervation, neither shall they fay, Lo, here, or 20, 21. lo, there; for behold, the Kingdom of God is within you.

CHAP. VI.

Concerning Faith, Justification and Works.

Question. What is Faith?

Answer. Faith is the Substance Heb.11.1. of things hoped for, and the Evidence of things not feen.

Q. Is Faith of absolute Necessity?

Heb.11.6. A. Without Faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God, must believe that he is, and that he is a Rewarder of them, that diligently feek him.

Q. Are we justified by Faith?

A. Where-

A. Wherefore the Law was our School master, 1673. to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by Faith.

Q. What is the Nature of this Faith, that avail-eth to Justification?

A. For in Jesus Christ neither Circumcission a Gal. 5.6. vaileth any thing, nor Uncircumcission; but Faith, which worketh by Love.

Q. Are Works then necessary to Justification, as well as Faith?

A. But wilt thou know, O vain Man, that James 2. Faith without Works is dead? Was not Abra 20,21,22, bam our Father justified by Works, when he had 23, 24. offered Isaac his Son upon the Altar? Seest thou, how Faith wrought with his Works, and by Works was Faith made perfect? And the Scripture was suffilled, which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed to him for Righteouseness: He was called the Friend of God. Ye see then, how that by Works a Man is justified, and not by Faith only.

Q. If then both be equally required in Justification, what are these Works, which the Apostle excludes so much?

A. By the Deeds of the Law there shall no Rom. 3.

Flesh be justified in his Sight.

Q. But though we be not justified by the Deeds of the Law, is not this to exclude Boastings, that the Grace of God may be exalted?

A. For by Grace are ye faved, through Faith, Ephes. 2. and not of your selves, it is the Gift of God; 8, 9, 10. not of the Works, lest any Man should boast; for we are his Workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good Works.

Q. Are even the Works, which are performed by Grace, excluded? Are we never said to be saved or justified by them?

A. Not by Works of Righteousness, which we Tit. 3.5, have done, but according to his Mercy he saved 6, 7.

us,

1673. us, by the washing of Regeneration and renewving of the Holy Ghost, which he shed on us abundantly, through Jesus Christ our Saviour; that being justified by his Grace, we should be made Heirs, according to the Hope of Eternal Life.

> Q. I perceive then, that to be justified by Grace, is to be justified or saved by Regeneration, which cannot exclude the Works wrought by Grace, and by the Spirit; How doth the Apostle add in the next Verse, for the maintaining this against those that Cavil about the Law?

A. This is a faithful Saying, and thefe things Tit. 3.8, I will that thou affirm conftantly, that they. 9. which believe in God, might be careful to maintain good Works; these things are good and profitable unto Men: But avoid foolish Questions and Genealogies, and Contentions, and Strivings about the Law, for they are unprofitable and vain.

Q. Doth the Apostle Paul, that is so much against Justification by the Works of the Law, speak any where else of being Justified by the

A. But ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the Name of the Lord Je-I Cor. 6.

fus, and by the Spirit of our God.

Q. But since the Law gives not Power nor Ability to obey, and so falls short of Justification; Is there no Power under the Gospel, by which the Righteousness of the Law comes to be fulfilled inwardly?

A. For what the Law could not do, in that Rom. 8. it was weak through the Flesh, God sending his 3, 4. own Son in the Likeness of sinful Flesh, and for Sin condemned Sin in the Flesh; That the Righteousness of the Law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the Flesh, but after the Spirit?

Q. Seeing

O. Seeing then, there is Power in the Spirit, is 1672. not Works through it a Condition, upon which Life is proposed under the New Covenant?

A. For if ye live after the Flesh, ye shall die; Rom. 8. but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the Deeds 13.

of the Body, ye shall live.

Q. Do not the Apostles then frequently propose Life to People upon Condition of Repentance and other Works ?

A. Repent ye therefore, and be converted, Acts 3. that your Sins may be blotted out.

And if Children, then Heirs of God, and joint Rom. 8. Heirs with Christ, if so be that we may suffer 17. with him, that we also may be glorified together.

It is a faithful Saying; For if we be dead with 2 Tim. 2. him, we shall also live with him: If we suffer, 11,12,21. we shall also reign with him. If a Man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a Ves-sel unto Honour, fanctified and meet for the Mafter's Use, and prepared unto every good Work.

Remember therefore, from whence thou art Rev. 2.5. fallen, and repent, and do the first Works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and remove thy Candleftick out of his Place, except thou Repent.

Q. It appears clearly by these Passages, that the Apostle excludes only our Righteousness, which he Reward elsewhere explains, as being the Righteousness of of Works. the Law, from being necessary to Justification, and not such Works as the Law of the Spirit of Life leads to; and are not so much ours, as Christ in us: are not such good Works rewarded, though they require no absolute Merit, as being the Fruits of free Grace, yet doth not God Judge according to them, and may they not be faid to have a Reward ?

1673. A. But if a Man be just, and do that which is lawful and right, and hath not eaten upon the Ezek. 18. Mountains, neither hath lift up his Eyes to the 5,6,7,8,9 Idols of the House of Israel, neither has defiled his Neighbour's Wife, neither hath come near to a Menstruous Woman, and hath not oppressed any; but hath restored to the Debter his Pledge, hath spoiled none by Violence, hath given his Bread to the Hungry, and hath covered the Naked with a Garment; he that hath not given forth upon Usury, neither hath taken any Increase, that hath withdrawn his Hand from Iniquity, hath executed true Judgment between Man and Man, hath walked in my Statutes, and hath kept my Judgments to deal Truth, he is Just, he shall surely live, saith the Lord God.

It should seem, that the Purpose of God, in Christ sending his Son the Lord Fesus Christ, was not saves from simply to save Man by an Imputative Righte-Sinousness altogether without them; but also by the Washing of Regeneration, or an Inward Righteousness; What saith the Scripture further of this?

CHAP, VII.

Concerning Perfection, or Freedom from Sin.

Question. Perceive then by all these Scriptures afore-mentioned, that Christ, as well as he hath purchased Pardon for our Sins, hath Q3 39.

1672. also obtained Power, by which we may even here be cleansed from the Filth of them; may we expect then in this Life to be freed from the Dominion of Sin?

Rom. 6. A. For Sin shall not have Dominion over you. 14.

Q. For what Reafon?

A. For ye are not under the Law, but under Rom. 6. Grace. 14.

O. How cometh the Apostle then to cry out and complain of Sin, faying, Who shall deliver me from the Body of this Death? Doth be speak that as a Condition always permanent to him and other Saints, or only that which he had passed through?

What faith he afterwards? A. There is therefore now no Condemnation

1, 2, 3, 5, to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not 36,37,38, after the Flesh, but after the Spirit; for the Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus, hath made me free from the Law of Sin and Death. Who shall separate us from the Love of Christ? Shall Tribulation, or Distress, or Persecution, or Sword? (As it is written, For thy fake we are killed all the Day long, we are accounted as Sheep for the Slaughter.) Nay, in all these things we are more than Conquerors, through him that loved us. For I am perswaded, that neither Death, nor Life, nor Angels, nor Principalities, nor Powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor Height, nor Depth, nor any other Creature shall be able to separate us from the Love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Q. What faith that Aposile then unto such, who taking Occasion from his Words, should plead for Continuance in Sin for Term of Life, and think to be faved by the Imputative Righteousness of Christ.

as being under Grace?

A. What shall we say then? Shall we continue Rom. 6. in Sin that Grace may abound? God ferbid.

What then? Shall we fin, because we are not 1673. under the Law, but under Grace? God forbid.

Q. Is not the Apostle then so far from sup-Freedom posing that Condition, of being always under Sin, from Sin. to be his own constant Condition, or that of all the Saints, that he even supposes many of the then Church of Rome, to whom he wrote, to be free of it: How bespeaketh he them as in Relation to this Matter?

A. How shall we that are dead to Sin, live a- Rom. 6,2. ny longer therein? Know ye not, that so many -7, 11, of us, as were baptized into Jesus Christ, were 12, 13,16, baptized into his Death? Therefore we are buried with him by Baptisin into Death, that like as Christ was raised up from the Dead by the Glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in Newness of Life: For if we have been planted together in the Likeness of his Death, we shall be also in the Likeness of his Resurrection; knowing this, that our Old Man is crucified with him, that the Body of Sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve Sin; for he that is dead, is free from Sin. Likewise reckon ye also your selves to be dead indeed unto Sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Let not Sin therefore reign in your mortal Body, that ye should obey it in the Lusts thereof: Neither yield ye your Members as In-ftruments of Unrighteousness unto Sin; but yield your felves unto God, as those that are alive from the Dead, and your Members as Instruments of Righteousness unto God. Know ye not, that to whom ye yield your felves Servants to obey, his Servants ye are, to whom ye obey, whether of Sin unto Death, or of-Obedience unto Righteousness? But God be thanked, that ye were the Servants of Sin; but ye have obeyed from the Heart that Form of Doctrine, which was delivered unto you. Being then made free Q 4 from nefs: I speak after the Manner of Men, because of the Infirmity of your Flesh: for as ye have yielded your Members Servants to Uncleanness and to Iniquity; even so now yield your Members Servants to Righteousness, unto Holiness. For when ye were the Servants of Sin, ye were free from Righteousness; What Fruit had ye then in those things, whereof ye are now ashamed? For the End of those things is Death. But now being made free from Sin, and become Servants to God, ye have your Fruit unto Holiness, and the End Everlasting Life; for the Wages of Sin is Death; but the Gift of God is Eternal Life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Q. It would appear then, that God requires of us to be perfect?

Q. Is it then possible to keep the Commandments?

Matt. 11. A. My Yoke is easy, and my Burthen is light, 30. For this is the Law of God, that we keep his I Joh,5.3. Commandments, and his Commandments are not grievous.

Q. Is it necessary then for Salvation, to keep the Commandments.

Rev. 22.

A. Blessed are they that do his Commandments, that they may have Right to the Tree of Life, and may enter in through the Gates into the City.

Q. Do you understand by this Perfection, that any have so kept the Commandments, as never to bave sinned?

John I. A. If we fay, that we have not finned, we make him a Lyar, and his Word is not in us.

Q. Do you understand, that those who are Perfect, may say, they have no Sin; or only that having sinned, and so having Sin, in respect they once sinned, finned, as the Apostle in the Passage cited mentions? 1672.

May they notwithstanding thereof come to know Forgiveness for the Guilt, but also Cleansing from the Filth?

A. If we fay, we have no Sin, we deceive our I Joh. I. 8. felves, and the Truth is not in us: If we confess our Sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our Sins, and to cleanse us from all Unrighteous-ness.

Q. This Scripture feems to be very plain being compared with the other before mentioned: But because some are apt to mistake, and wrest the Words of that Apostle, what saith he elsewhere? Did he judge, any could know God, or be True Christians, who kept not the Commandments?

A. My little Children, these things write I, Joh. 2. unto you, that ye Sin not; and if any Man Sin, 1,3,4,5,6 we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus & 3.2, Christ the Righteous: And hereby do we know, that we know him, if we keep his Commandments. He that faith, I know him, and keepeth not his Commandments, is a Lyar, and the Truth is not in him: But who so keepeth his Word, in him verily is the Love of God perfected. Hereby know we, that we are in him. He that faith, he abideth in him, ought himfelf alfo to walk, even as he walked. Beloved, now are we the Sons of God, and it doth not yet appear, what we shall be; but we know, that when we shall appear, we shall be like him, for we shall see him, as he is: And every Man, that hatli this Hope in him, purifieth himself, even as he is pure. Whosoever committeth Sin, transgresseth also the Law; for Sin is the Transgresfion of the Law. And ye know, that he was manifested to take away our Sins. and in him is no Sin: Whofoever abideth in him, finneth not: Whofoever sinneth, hath not seen him, neither known him. Little Children, let no Man deceive teous, even as he is Righteous. He that committeth Sin, is of the Devil, for the Devil finneth from the Beginning: For this Purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the Works of the Devil. Whosoever is born of God, doth not commit Sin, for his Seed remaineth in him, and he cannot Sin, because he is born of God. In this the Children of God are manifest, and the Children of the Devil, whosoever doth not Righteousness, is not of God, neither he, that loveth not his Brother.

Q. It is very plain by these Passages, that the A-postles were far of another Mind, than those that plead for Sin during Term of Life; and much against the Deceit of those, who will esteem themselves good Christians, while they live in their Sins?

Matt. 7. 21, 24.

A. Not every one, that faith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the Kingdom of Heaven, but he that doth the Will of my Father, which is in Heaven. Therefore whosoever heareth these things of mine, and doth them, I will liken him unto a Wise Man, which built his House upon a Rock. If ye know these things, happy are ye,

Joh. 13.17 if ye do them.

Q. What Saith the Apostle Paul further, concerning the Needfulness of this thing?

A. Circumcifion is nothing, and Uncircumcifion is nothing; but the keeping of the Commandments of God.

Q. Was not this according to the Apostle Paul's Judgment, the very Intention of Christ, to have his Church and Children to be Pure and without Spot?

A. According as he hath chosen us in him be-Ephel. 4 fore the Foundation of the World, that we should be Holy and without Blame before him in Love. Ephel. 5. Even as Chirst also, loved the Church, and gave Ephel. 5. Even as Chirft also loved the Church, and gave 25,26, 27. himself for it, that he might fanctify and cleanse it, that he might present it to himself a glorious Church, not having Spot or Wrinkle, or any such thing; thing; but that it should be Holy and without 1673. Blemish.

Q. Doth not Paul press the same thing further, besides the other Passages above-mentioned?

A. Having therefore these Promises, dearly 2 Cor. 7. Beloved, Let us cleanse our selves from all Filthi. 1. ness of the Flesh and Spirit, perfecting Holiness in the Fear of God. Finally, Brethren sarewell, 2 Cor. 13. be Perfect. Christ in you the Hope of Glory, 11. whom we Preach, warning every Man, and teach. God, your whole Spirit, and Soul, and Body be 23. presented Blameless unto the Coming of our Lord Iesus Christ.

Q. Is not this then the very End, for which God appointed Teachers in his Church?

A. And he gave some Apostles, and some Pro-Ephes. 4. phets, and some Evangelists, and some Pastors 11,12,13. and Teachers, for the perfecting of the Saints, for the Work of the Ministry, for the Edifying of the Body of Christ, till we all come in the Unity of the Faith, and of the Knowledge of the Son of God, unto a Perfect Man, unto the Measure of the Stature of the Fulness of Christ.

Q. Seeing this is so much pressed by the Holy Men, doth not the Scripture, which cannot lie, give none of the Saints this Testimony, as being Free from Sin at sometimes, and so not always and daily Sinning, as is supposed?

A. Noah was a just Man, and perfect in his Ge-Gen. 6.9. nerations; and Noah walked with God. And the Lord said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my Servant Job, that there is none like him in Job. 1.8.

Luke 1.1, bia; and his Wife was of the Daughters of Aaron, and her Name was Elizabeth; and they were both Righteous before God, walking in all the Commandments and Ordinances of the Lord Blameless.

Q. That proves sufficiently as to particular Persons; but what doth the Scripture intimate of this Nature, even of considerable Numbers,? A. But God, who is rich in Mercy, for his Ephef. 2. great Love, wherewith he hath loved us, even 4, 5, 6. when we were dead in Sin, hath quickned us together with Christ, and hath raised us up together, and made us fit together in Heavenly Places in Christ Jesus. CHAP. VIII.

Concerning Perseevrance and Falling from GRACE.

Question. Is it enough for a Believer, to be fure, that be hath once received true Grace?

Or is there any further Certainty requisite?

Answer. Wherefore the rather, Brethren, give 2Pet. 1.10 Diligence to make your Calling and Election fure; for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall.

Q. May one that bath received true Grace, have Ground to fear, or Suppose he can fall?

A. But I keep under my Body, and bring it 1 Cor. 9s into Subjection, least that by any Means, when 27. I have preached to others, I my self should be a Cast-away.

Q. That greatly contradicteth the Doctrine of fuch as say, Once in Grace, Ever in Grace; but doth the Apostle Paul express this only out of an humble Esteem of himself? Or doth he judge or suppose the like of other Saints?

A. Take heed, Brethren, lest there be in any of Heb. 4. you an evil Heart of Unbelief, in departing from the Living God; but exhort one another daily, while it is called to Day, least any of you be hardned through the Deceitfulness of Sin. Let us labour therefore to enter into that Rest, Heb. 4.11. lest any Man fall after the same Example of Unbelief. For it is impossible for those who are Heb. 6. 4, once enlightned, and have tasted of the Heavenly 5, 6. Gift, and were made Partakers of the Holy Ghost, and have tasted the good Word of God, and the Powers of the World to come, If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto Repentance; seeing they Crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to open Shame. Looking diligently, left any Man fail of the Grace of God, lest any Root of Bitterness springing up, Heb. 12. trouble you, and thereby many be defiled. 15.

Q. Doth he speak this only by Supposition; or doth he assert it not only possible, but certain?

A. For the time will come, when they will not 2 Tim. 4. endure found Doctrine; but after their own Lusts 3,4. shall they heap to themselves Teachers, having itching Ears, and they shall turn away their Ears from the Truth, and shall be turned unto Fables.

Q. Doth the Apostle even judge it necessary to gaurd such a one, as his beloved Son Timothy against this Hazzard?

A. This Charge I commit unto thee, Son Timo-I Tim. 1. thy, according to the Prophefies which went be-18, 19. fore on thee, that thou by them mightest war the good Warfare, Holding Faith in a good Conscience, which fome having put away, concerning

Q. Doth the Apostle any where express his Fears of this, as a thing that may happen to any Number of People, who once truly received the Faith of Christ?

A. Well, because of Unbelief they were brok-Rom. II. en off; and thou standest by Faith, be not High-20. minded, but fear. Now, the Spirit speaketh ex-1 Tim.4.1

Q. What is the Apostle Peter's Mind; does be judge, judge, that such as have known the right Way, may 1673. for sake it?

A. Cursed Children, which have forsaken the 2 Pet. 2. Righteous Way, and are gone aftray, following 14,15,18, the Way of Balaam the Son of Bezor, who loved 20,21,22. the Ways of Unrightcousness; but was rebuked for his Iniquity: The dumb Ass speaking with Man's Voice, forbad the Madness of the Prophet. Thefe are Wells without Water, Clouds that are carried with a Tempest, to whom the Mist of Darkness is reserved for ever. For when they speak great swelling Words of Vanity, they allure through the Lust of the Flesh, through much Wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them, who live in Error: For if after they have escaped the Pollutions of the World through the Knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again Entangled therein and Overcome, the latter End is worfe with them, than the Beginning: For it had been better for them, not to have known the Way of Righteousness, than after they have known it, to turn from the holy Commandment delivered unto them. But it is happened to them according to the true Proverb, The Dog is turned to his Vomit, and the Sow that was washed, to her wallowing in the Mire.

Q. Gives he any Cautions to them that stand, as Supposing they may also fall?

A. Ye therefore, Beloved, seeing ye know 2Pet.3.17 these things before, beware, lest ye also being led away with the Error of the Wicked, fall from your own Stedsastness, Q. May a Man be truly a Branch in Christ, or a real Member of his Body, and afterwards he Cut Off?

A. If any Man abide not in me, he is cast forth, Joh. 15.6. as a Branch, and is withered.

Q. May a Righteous Man then depart from his Righteoufness?

A. Eut when the righteous Man turneth away 26, and from 23.13.

1673. from his Righteousness, and commits Iniquity, and dieth in them, for his Iniquity, that he hath done, shall he die.

Q. May a Believer come to such a Condition in this Life, from which he Cannot fall away?

Rev.3.12. A. Him that Overcometh, will I make a Pillar in the Temple of my God, and he shall go No More out; and I will write upon him the Name of my God, which is New ferusalem, who cometh down out of Heaven from my God; and will write upon him my New Name.

Q. May such an one come to be assured, that he is in this Condition?

Rom. 8.

A. For I am perswaded, that neither Death, nor Life, nor Angels, nor Principalities, nor Powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor Height, nor Depth, nor any other Creature shall be able to separate Us from the Love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

CHAP. IX.

Concerning the Church and Ministry.

Question. What is the Church?

Answer. But if I tarry long, that thou may'st know, how thou oughtest to behave thy self in the House of God, which is the Church of the Living God, the Pillar and Ground of Truth.

Q. Who is the Head of the Church?

Col. 1.13. A. Who hath delivered us from the Power of and 2. 19. Darkness, and hath translated us into the Kingdom of his dear Son; and he is the Head of the Body, the Chruch, from which all the Body by Joints and Bands having Nourishment ministred, and knit together, increaseth with the Increase of God.

Q. What

O. What kind of Persons make the Church?

A. Them that are fanctified in Christ Jesus. And the Lord added to the Church daily fuch as 1 Cor. 1. thould be faved. Acts2.47.

Q. Hath not Christ appointed any Officers in the Church for the Work of the Ministry?

A. Wherefore he faith, when he Ascended up Ephes. 4. on High, he led Captivity Captive, and gave 8, 11, 12. Gifts unto Men; and he gave some Apostles, and fome Prophets, and fome Evangelists, and fome Pastors, and some Teachers, for the perfecting of the Saints, for the Work of the Ministry, for the Edification of the Body of Christ.

Q. What kind of Men should such as are Teachers and Overfeers of the Chruch be?

A. A Bishop then must be blameless, the Hus t Tim. 3. band of one Wife, Vigilant, Sober, of good Be- 2, 3, 4, 5, haviour, given to Hospitality, apt to Teach, 6,7, not given to Wine, no Striker, not greedy of filthy Lucre; but Patient, not a Brawler, not Covetous, one that ruleth well his own House, having his Children in Subjection with all Gravity (for if a Man know not, how to rule his own House, how shall he take Care of the Church of God) not a Novice, lest being litted up with Pride, he fall into the Condemnation of the Devil. Moreover, he must have a good Report of them which are without, lest he fall into Reproach, and the Snare of the Devil.

For a Bishop must be Blameless, as the Ste-Tit. 1. 7, ward of God, not Self-willed, not foon Angry, 8, 9. not given to Wine, no Striker, not given to filthy Lucre, but a Lover of Hospitality, a Lover of good Men, Sober, Just, Holy, Temperate, holding fast the Faithful Word, as he hath been taught, that he may be able by found Doctrine

Q. What is incumbent upon such to do?

A. Take Heed therefore to your selves, and to Acts 20.28 all both to exhort, and to convince the Gain-fayers.

1672. all the Flock, over which the Holy Ghost hath made you Overseers, to feed the Church of God.

1Pet. 5.1, The Elders which are among you, I exhort, who am also an Elder, and a Witness of the Sufferings of Christ, and also a Partaker of the Glory, that shall be revealed; Feed the Flock of God, which is among you, taking the Oversight thereof not by Constraint, but willingly; not for filthy Lucre, but of a ready Mind; neither as being Lords over God's Heritage, but being Ensamples to the Flock.

Q. Though they be not to Lord it over the Flock, yet is there not a Respect due to them in their Place?

Tim. 5. A. Let the Elders that Rule well, be counted worthy of double Honour, especially they, who labour in the Word and Doctrine.

Q. Albeit then among true Christians every one that believeth, is to have the Witness in himself, being perswaded in himself by the Spirit; yet is there not also a real Subjection to be to one another in the Lord?

I Cor. 14. A. The Spirits of the Prophets are subject to the

Heb. 13. Obey them that have the Rule over you, and fubmit your felves; for they watch for your Souls, as they that must give Account, that they may do it with Joy, and not with Grief; for that is unprofitable for you.

Q. How ought true Teachers to Minister in the Church ?

A. As every Man hath received the Gift, even 1672. fo minister the same one to another, as good Stewards of the manifold Grace of God. If any 2 Pet. 4. speak, let him speak as the Oracles of God: It any. Man minister, let him do it, as of the Ability, which God giveth; that God in all things may be glorified, through Jesus Christ.

Q. I perceive then, that every true Minister of the Church of Christ is to minister of the Gist and Grace of God, which he hath received: But some are of the Judgment, that natural Wisdom or Parts, Human and Human Learning are the Qualifications, which Learning are of absolute Necessity for a Minister; but Grace they judge not to be so absolutely necessary, but that one may be a Minister without it: What saith the Scripture in this Case?

A. A Bishop must be sober, just, holy, tem-Tit, 1.6.8.

Q. Methinks, it is impossible for a Man to be Blameless, just, holy, sober, and temperate without the Grace of God: So that if these Qualifications be absolutely necessary, then surely, that without which a Man cannot be so qualified, must be necessary also: But what saith the Scripture, as to the Necessity of Natural Wisdom and Human Learning?

A. Where is the Wise? Where is the Scribe? I Cor. 10 Where is the Disputer of this World? Hath not 20,210 God made foolish the Wisdom of this World? For after that in the Wisdom of God the World by Wisdom knew not God, it pleased God, by the Foolishness of Preaching to Save them that believe.

Q. It feems then, the Preachings of the true Ministers are not gathered together by Wisdom and Learning: It hath been supposed, that a Man must be greatly Skilled in Learning to make a good Sermon; What is the Apostle's Judgment in the Case?

A. For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to 1 Cor. 1.

> Q. I perceive, the Apostle lays far more Stress upon the Demonstration and Power of the Spirit in a Preacher, than upon Human Literature? Ought Ministers then to Preach, as the Spirit Teacheth ther void of Wisdom?

Q. Though true Ministers speak not by the natu- 1672.

A. Howbeit, we speak Wisdom among them 1 Cor. 2. that are perfect; yet not the Wisdom of this 6, 7. World, nor of the Prince of this World, that came to nought; but we speak the Wisdom of God in a Mystery, even the hidden Wisdom, which God ordained before the World, to our Glory.

Q. What is the Reason, that Man by his Natural Wisdom is not capable to minister in the things of God?

A. For what Man knoweth the things of a Man, t Cor. 2, fave the Spirit of a Man, which is in him? e. 11, 14. ven so the things of God knoweth no Man, but the Spirit of God: But the natural Man receiveth not the Things of the Spirit of God; for they are Foolishness unto him; neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

Q. These Scriptures do Sufficiently hold forth, that the true Call to the Ministry is from God; that which maketh a Minister, is the Gift and Grace of Mainte-God; that the true and effectual Preaching of annoce. faithful Minister is such, as is from the inward Teaching and Leading of the Spirit of God: But what say the the Scriptures touching the Maintenance of Ministers?

A. Let him that is taught in the Word, Com. Gal. 6. 6, municate unto him that teacheth, in all good things.

If we have fown unto you spiritual things, is it i Cor. 9. a great Matter, if we shall reap carnal things? 11, 12, If others be Partakers of this Power over you, 13, 14. are not we rather: Nevertheless, we have not used this Power, but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the Gospel of Christ. Do ye not know, that they which minister about hely things, live of the things of the Temple: And they which wait at the Altar, are Partakers with the Altar? Even so hath the Lord ordained, that they which preach the Gospel, shall live of the Tim. 5. Gospel. For the Scripture saith, Thou shalt not muzzle the Ox, that treadeth out the Corn; and the Labourer is worthy of his Reward.

Q I perceive by these Scriptures, that there lyeth an Ohligation upon the Saints, to help with Outward Things such, as truly minister unto them Spiritual; but this seems to be Voluntary. Ought not therefore true Ministers to Preach, whether they be sure of this, or not? What suith the Apostle of himself in this Case? And what adviseth he others?

1 Cor. 9.

A. But I have used none of these things; neither have I written those things, that it should be so done unto me: For it were better for me to die, than that any Man should make my Glorying void. For though I preach the Gospel, I have nothing to glory of; for Necessity is laid upon me, yea, Wo is unto me, if I preach not the Gospel. For if I do this thing willingly, I have a Reward; but if against my Will a Dispensation of the Gospel is committed unto me, What is my Reward then? Verily, that when I preach the Gospel, I make the Gospel of Christ without Charge, that I abuse not my Power in the Gospel.

Acts 20. I have coveted no Man's Silver, or Gold, or 33,34,35. Apparel; yea, your felves know, that these Hands have ministred unto my Necessities, and to them that were with me. I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring, ye ought to support the Weak; and to remember the Words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to

to give, than to receive.

Q. It's observable, that the Apostle every where makes special Mention among the Qualifications of Teachers, that they be not given to Filthy Lucre; What ought we then to think of these Teachers, as will

will not preach without Hire? yea, that will by Vi- 1672. olence take from those, who receive no Spirituals from them? Are they like to be the Ministers of Christ: or what else saith the Scripture of such?

A. Yea, they are greedy Dogs, which can ne- 162.56.11.

cannot understand: They all look to their own Way, every one for his Gain from his Quarter.

Son of Man, Prophefy against the Shepherds Exek. 34. of Israel, Prophefy, and say unto them; Thus 2, 3, 8. saith the Lord God unto the Shepherds, Wo to the Shepherds of Israel, that do feed themselves: Should not the Shepherds feed the Flock? Ye eat the Fat, and ye cloath you with the Wool, ye kill them that are fed, but ye feed not the Flock. As I live, saith the Lord God, surely, because my Flock became a Prey, and my Flock became Meat to every Beast of the Field, because there was no Shepherd; neither did my Shepherds fearch for my Flock; but the Shepherds fed themselves, and fed not my Flock——

Thus faith the Lord concerning the Prophets, Mich. 3. that make my People Err, that bite with their 5.11. Teeth, and cry Peace; and he that puts not into their Mouths, they even prepare War against him, The Headsthereof judge for Reward, and the Priests thereof teach for Hire, and the Prophets thereof Divine for Money; yet will they lean upon the Lord, and say, Is not the Lord amongst us? None Evil can come upon us.

Q. These are plain Testimonies from the Prophets, Are there none such from the Apostles?

A. Perverse Disputings of Men of corrupt 1 Tim. 6. Minds, and destitute of the Truth, supposing, 5, 6, 7, 8, that Gain is Godliness; from such withdraw thy 9, 10. self: But Godliness with Contentment is great Gain. 2 Pet. 3. But there were false Prophets also among the 1, 2, 3,14, People, even as there shall be false Teachers among you, who privately shall bring in damnable Heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift Destruction: And many shall follow their pernicious Ways, by Reason of whom the Way of Truth shall be Evil spoken of. And through Covetousness shall they, with feigned Words, make Merchandize of you; whose Judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their Damnation slumbereth not: Having Eyes full of Adultery, and that cannot cease from Sin, beguiling unstable Souls; an Heart they have exercised with covetous Practices. Advantage.

O Ought there to be many Orders in the Church of God?

A. Let all things be done decently, and in 1 Cor. 14. Order.

Q. What good Order is prescribed in the Church concerning Preachers? Is it fit, that only one or two speak, or any more, if moved thereto?

A. If any thing be Revealed to another, that I Cor. 14. sitteth by, let the first hold his Peace; for ye 30,31,32, may all Prophefy, one by one, that all may 33. learn, and that all may be comforted. And the Spirits of the Prophets are subject to the Prophets: For God is not the Author of Confusion. but of Peace, as in all the Churches of the Saints.

Q. Is there any Promise, that Daughters as well

Sons shall Prophesy under the Gospel?

A. And it shall come to pass afterwards, that soel.2,28. I will pour out of my Spirit upon all Flesh, and your Sons and your Daughters shall Prophefy; your Old Men thall dream Dreams, your Young Men shall see Visions.

Q. Is that Promise fulfilled, and to be fulfilled?

A. But this is that, which was spoken by the Acts 16.17 Prophet foel, And it shall come to pass in the last Days (saith God) I will pour out my Spirit upon all Flesh, and your Sons and your Daughters shall Prophefy; and your Young Men shall fee Visions, and your Old Men shall dream Dreams.

Q. Is there any such Instance of Old in the Scripture?

A. And the same Man had four Daughters, Acts 21.9. Virgins, which did Prophefy.

Q. But may all Women speak? Or are any commanded to keep Silence in the Church?

A. Let your Women keep Silence in the 1 Cor. 14. Church; for it is not permitted unto them to 34, 35. speak:

1673. Speak: But they are commanded to be under Obedience, as also saith the Law. And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their Husbands at Home; for it is a Shame for Women to speak in the Church.

i Tim. 2. Let the Women learn in Silence with all Subjection. But I suffer not a Women to Teach, or usurp Authority over the Man; but to be in Silence.

Q. The first of these seems only to relate to Women that have Husbands; What comes of them that have none? The second speaks nothing of the Church, but only that she ought not to usurp Authority over the Man; hath this no Limitation? Doth not the same Apostle give Directions, how Women that speak, should behave themselves in the Church?

A. Every Man Praying or Prophefying, having his Head covered, dishonoureth his Head: But every Woman that Prayeth or Prophesieth with her Head uncovered, dishonoureth her Head; for that is even all one, as if she were shaven.

CHAP. X.

Concerning WORSHIP.

Question. W Hat is the Worship that is acceptable to God?

John 4.

Answer. But the Hour cometh, and now is, when the true Worshippers shall worship the Father in Spirit and in Truth; for the Father seeketh such to worship him. God is a Spirit, and they that worship him, must worship him in Spirit and in Truth.

Q. Seeing Prayer is a Part of Worship, when ought we to pray?

Luk. 18.1. A. And he spake a Parable unto them to this End, End, That Men ought always to pray, and not 1672.

Pray without ceasing.

Q. Hath God no Respect to the Manner of Cal- 5. 17.

A. For there is no Difference between the few Rom. 10. and the Greek; for the same Lord over all is 12. rich unto all, that call upon him.

Q. Doth God hear the Prayers of all that call upon him?

A. The Lord is nigh unto all them, that call Pfal. 145. upon him, to all that call upon him in Truth. 18.

The Lord is far from the Wicked; but he hears Prov. 15.

the Prayer of the Righteeus.

Now we know, that God heareth not Sinners; Joh. 9.38-but if any Man be a Worshipper of God, and doth his Will, him he heareth. And this is the Confidence, that we have in him, that if 1 Joh. 5. we ask any thing according to his Will, he hear- 14. eth us.

Q. After what Manner doth the Apostle then declare he will pray?

A. What is it then? I will pray with the Spi- 1 Cor. 14. rit, and I will pray with the Understanding al- 15. fo; I will sing with the Spirit, and I will sing with the Understanding also.

Q. Must we then pray always in the Spirit?

A. Praying always, with all Prayer and Sup-Eph.6.18. plication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all Perseverance and Supplication for all Saints.

Q. Since we are commanded to pray always in it, can we do it of our selves, without the Heip thereof?

A. Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our Infir-Rom. 8. mities; for we know not what we should pray 26, 27. for, as we ought; but the Spirit it self maketh Intercession for us, with Groanings which cannot be uttered. And he that searcheth the Hearts, 1672. Hearts, knoweth what is the Mind of the Spirit, because he maketh Intercession for the Saints according to the Will of God.

Q. I perceive, that without the Leadings and Help of the Spirit, Proyers are altogether unprofitable; may not a Man truly utter these things, that are Spiritual, without the Spirit's Assistance?

no Man speaking by the Spirit of God, calleth Jesus Accursed; and that no Man can say, that.

Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost.

Q. This is strange: It seems, the Spirit is much more necessary, than many called Christians suppose it to be; some of which can scarce give a good Account, whether they have it, or want it: But if a Man speak things true upon the Matter, are they not true as from him, if spoken without the Spirit?

A. And though they fay, The Lord liveth,

Jer. 5. 2. furely, they swear fally.

Q. It is apparent from all these Scriptures, that the True Worship of God is in Spirit; and as it is not limited to a certain Place, neither to any certain Time, what shall we think of them, that plead for the Observation of certain Days?

Gal. 4.9, A. But now, after that ye have known God, or rather, are known of God, how turn ye again to the weak and beggarly Elements, whereunto ye defire again to be in Bondage? Ye observe Days, and Months, and Times, and Years; I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you Labour in vain.

Col. 2. Let no Man therefore judge you in Meat or Drink, or in respect of an Holy Day, or of the New Moon, or of the Sabbath Day, which are a Shadow of things to come; but the Body is of Christ.

Q. Seeing it is so, may not some Christians as lawfully esteem all Days alike, as others may esteem some

Some Days above another? What Rule giveth the 1672.

Apostle in this Case?

A. One Man esteemeth one Day above another, Rom. 14. another esteemeth every Day alike; let every 5, 6. Man be fully perswaded in his own Mind: He that regardeth a Day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the Day to the Lord, he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord; for he giveth God Thanks: and he that eateth not to the Lord, he eateth not and giveth God Thanks.

Q. But is it not convenient and necessary, that there be a Day set a part to Meet and Worship God in? Did not the Apostles and primitive Christians use to meet upon the First Day of the Week, to make their Collections, and to Worship?

A. Now concerning the Collection for the 1 Cor. 16. Saints, as I have given Order to the Churches 1. of Galatia, even so do ye upon the First Day of the Week; let every one of you lay by him in Store, as God hath prosper'd him, that there be no Gatherings when I come.

CHAP. XI.

Concerning Baptism, and Bread and Wine.

Question. HOW many Baptisms are there?

Answer. One Lord, One Faith, Eph. 4. 5.

Q. What is this Baptism?

A. And the like Figure, whereunto even Bap-1 Pet. 3. tism doth now fave us, not the putting away the 21, 22. Filth of the Flesh, but the Answer of a good Conscience towards God, by the Resurrection of Jesus Christ, who is gone into Heaven, and is on the Right Hand of God; Angels and Authorities and Powers being made subject unto him.

Q. What

1672. Q. What saith John the Baptist of Christ's Baptism: How distinguisheth he it from his?

Mat.3.11. A. I indeed baptize you with Water unto Repentance; but he that cometh after me, is mightier than I, whose Shoos I am not worthy to bear, he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with Fire.

Q. Doth not Christ so distinguish it also?

Als 1.

A. And being affembled together with them, commanded them, that they should not depart from ferusalem; but wait for the Promise of the Father, which, saith he, ye have heard of me: For John truly baptized with Water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many Days hence.

Q. Doth not the Apostle Peter observe this?

Acts 11. A. And as I began to speak, the Holy Ghost fell on them, as on us at the Beginning; Then remembred I the Word of the Lord, how that he said, John indeed baptized with Water, but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost.

John's Q. Then it seems, John's Baptism must pass a-Baptism. way, that Christ's may take Place; because John must decrease, that Christ may increase?

Joh. 3. 30. A. He must increase, but I must decrease.

O. I perceive then, many may be sprinkled with and dipped and baptized in Water, and yet not Baptism. truly baptized with the Baptism of Christ: What are the real Effects in such, as are truly baptized with the Baptism of Christ?

A. Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ, were baptized into his Death? Therefore we are buried with him by Baptism into Death, that like as Christ was raised up from the Dead by the Glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in Newness of Life.

Gal. 2.27. For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ, have put on Christ.

Buried

Buried with him in Baptism, wherein also ye 1673. are rifen with him, through the Faith of the Operation of God, who hath raifed him from Col. 2. 12. the dead.

Q. I perceive, there was a Baptism of Water, which was John's Baptism, and is therefore by Bread and John himself contra-distinguished from Christ's; Wine .---Was there not likewise something of the like Nature appointed by Christ to his Disciples, of eating Bread, and drinking Wine in Remembrance of bim?

A. For I have received of the Lord that which I Cor. II. also I have delivered unto you, that the Lord 23, 24,25. Jesus the same Night, in which he was betrayed, took Bread, and when he had given Thanks, he brake it, and faid, Take, eat, this is my Body, which is broken for you; This do in Remembrance of Me. After the same Manner also he took the Cup, when he had supped, faying, This Cup is the New Testament in my Blood; This do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in Remembrance of me.

Q. How long was this to continue?

----discon-

A. For, as often as ye eat this Bread, and tinued. drink this Cup, ye do shew the Lord's Death till 26. he come.

Q. Did Christ promise to come again to his Dis-Christ's · coming---ciples?

A. I will not leave you comfortless; I will John 14. come to you. Jesus answered, and said unto him; 18, 23. If a Man love me, he will keep my Words; and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our Abode with him.

Q. Was this an Inward Coming?

A. At that Day ye shall know, that I am in Joh. 14. my Father, and ye in me, and I in you.

Q. But it would seem, this was even practised by the Church of Cosinth, after Christ was come inwardly; was it fo, that there were certain Appointments 1672. ments positively Commanded, yea, and Zealously and Conscientiously practised by the Saints of Old, Ascertain which were not of perpetual Continuance, nor yet appointments now needful to be practised in the Church?

perpetual.— A. It I then your Lord and Master have washyour Feet, ye ought also to wash one another's John 13. Feet: For I have given you an Example, that ye fhould do, as I have done to you.

For it seemed good to the holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater Burden, than these necessary things, That ye abstain from Meats offered to Idols, and from Blood, and from things strangled, and from Fornication; from which it ye keep your selves, ye shall do Well: Fare-well.

Jam. 5.14. Is any Man fick among you, let him call for the Elders of the Church, and let them pray over him, Anointing him with Oil in the Name of the Lord.

Q. These Cammands are no less positive, than the other; yea, some of them are asserted, as the very Sense of the Holy Ghost, as no less necessary, -- so Bread than abstaining from Fornication; and yet the Ge-and Wine nerality of Protestants have laid them aside, as not of perpetual Continuance: But what other Scriptures are there to shew, that it is not necessary, that of Bread and Wine to continue?

Rom. 14. A. For the Kingdom of God is not Meat and Drink; but Righteousness and Peace, and Joy in the Holy Ghost.

Col.2.16, Let no Man therefore judge you in Meat or in 20,21, 22. Drink, or in Respect of an Holy Day, or of the New-Moon, or of the Sabbath-Days: Wherefore if ye be dead with Christ from the Rudiments of the World, why, as though living in the World, are ye subject to Ordinances: (Touch not, taste not, handle not, which all are to perish with the Using) after the Commandments and Doctrines of Men.

Q. Thefe

Q. These Scriptures are very plain, and say as 1673. much for the Abelishing of this, as to any Necessia, sity, as ought can be alledged for the former: But The Spiritohat is the Bread then, wherewith the Saints are tual Bread to be nourished?

A. Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I fay unto you, Mofes gave you not that Bread from Heaven; but my Father giveth you the True Bread from Heaven, for the Bread of God Joh. 6.32, is he which comes down from Heaven, and giv-33,34,35, eth Life unto the World. Then faid they unto 45,49,50, him, Lord, evermore give us this Bread: And 51,52,53, Jesus said unto them, I am the Bread of Life; he 57,58, that cometh to me, shall never Hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst. I am that Bread of Life: Your Fathers did eat Manna in the Wilderness, and are dead: This is the Bread which cometh down from Heaven, that a Man may eat thereof, and not die. I am the living Bread which came down from Heaven; If any Man eat of this Bread, he shall live for ever: And the Bread that I will give him, is my Plesh, which I will give for the Life of the World. The fews therefore strove amongst themselves, saying, How can this Man give us his Flesh to eat? Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I fay unto you, Except you eat the Flesh of the Son of Man, and drink his Blood, ye have no Life in you: Whoso eateth my Flesh, and drinketh my Blood, hath Eternal Life, and I will raise him up at the last Day; For my Flesh is Meat indeed, and my Blood is Drink indeed. He that cateth my Flesh, and drinketh my Blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him. As the Living Father hath fent me, and I live by the Father, so he that cateth me, even he shall live by me. This is that Bread, which came down from Heaven; not as your Fathers 1672. did eat Manna, and are dead: He that eateth of this Bread, shall live for ever.

CHAP. XII.

Concerning the Life of a Christian in general, what and how it ought to be in this World.

Religion. Question. W Hat is the true Religion?

Answer. Pure Religion and Jam.1.27. Undefiled, is this, To visit the Fatherless and the Widow in their Affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the World.

Q: What is required of Man?

Mich. 6.8. A. He hath shewed thee, O Man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love Mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?

Isa. 66. 2. But to this Man will I look, even to him that is poor, and of a contrite Spirit, and trembles at my Word.

Q. Doth God then require People to be Quakers, Trembling to tremble at his Word? Was there any such among the Saints of Old?

A. Then were affembled unto me every one,

Ezra 9.4. that trembled at the Words of the God of Ifrael.

10.3. Now therefore let us make a Covenant with our God, to put away all the Wives, and fuch as are born of them, according to the Counfel of my Lord; and of those that tremble at the Commandment of our God.

Q. It seems, Exra loved well, and had a high Ouakers of Old. Esteem of Quakers, since he would have their Counsel followed: Do any other of the Prophets point out Quakers or Tremblers, as God's People?

A. Hear

A. Hear the Word of the Lord, ye that trem- 1673. ble at his Word: Your Brethren, that hated you, that cast you out for my Name's sake, said, Let 16a. 66. 50 the Lord be glorified; but he shall appear to your Joy, and they shall be ashamed.

And it shall be to me a Name of Joy, a Praise Jer. 33.95 and an Honour before all the Nations of the Earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them, and they shall Fear and Tremble for all the Goodness, and for all the Prosperity, that I procure unto it.

Q. The Prophets promise good Things there to Quakers: what becometh of those, that Tremble not, and are not such?

A. Hear now this, O foolish People, and with- jer. 5.21, out Understanding, which have Eyes, and see 22. not, which have Ears, and hear not; Fear ye not me, faith the Lord? Will ye not Tremble at my Presence? &c.

Q. Are then all God's Children Quakers? And o. God's are we commanded to quake or tremble in order Children. to our Salvation, both under the Law, and now under the Gospel?

A. Serve the Lord with Fear, and rejoyce with Pfal.2.11. Trembling. I make a Decree, that in every Dan. 6.26 Dominion of my Kingdom Men fear and tremble before the God of Daniel; for he is the Living God, and stedfast for ever. Work out your Phil.2.12: own Salvation with Fear and Trembling.

Command= Q. What be the chief Commandments?

A. Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with ments. all thy Heart, and with all thy Soul, and with Matt. 220 all thy Mind; This is the first and great 37,38,39% Commandment: And the fecond is like unto 40. it; Thou shalt love thy Neighbour as thy self: On these two Commandments hang all the Law and Prophets.

Q. What ought a Christian to seek after in the first Place?

1673. A. Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and his Righteousness, and all these things shall be Mat. 6.32. added unto you.

Behaviour. Q. How ought Christians to behave themselves in this World?

A. But this I say, Brethren, the Time is short: 29,30,31. It remaineth, that both they that have Wives, be as though they had none; and they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoyce, as though they rejoyced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not; and they that use this World, as not abusing it: For the Fashion of this World passeth away.

Q. What saith the Apostle Paul further, as that which is sit for Christian Men and Women to be found in?

Note: A. I will therefore, that Men Pray every where, lifting up holy Hands without Wrath and Doubting: In like manner also, that Women adorn themselves in modest Apparel, with Shamesac'dness and Sobriety; not with broidered Hair, or Gold, or Pearls, or costly Array; but (which becometh Women professing Godliness) with good Works.

Apparel. Q. I observe, the Apostle is much against the Vanity and Superfluity of Cloths among Christians;

what faith Peter to this?

A. Whose Adorning, let it not be that outward Adorning of Plaiting the Hair, of wearing of Gold, or of Putting on of Apparel: But let it be the hidden Man of the Heart, in that which is not corruptible; even the Ornament of a meek, quiet Spirit, which is in the Sight of God of great Price.

Respect of Q. The Apostle is very plain there; but what Persons. South the Scriptures, as to Respect of Persons among Christians?

James 2. A. My Brethren, have not the Faith of our 1,2,3,4,5, Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of Glory, with Re6,7,8,5.

fpect of Persons: For if there come unto your 1673. Affembly a Man with a Gold Ring ingoodly Apparrel; and there come in also a poor Man in vile Raiment; and ye have Respect to him that weareth the gay Cloathing, and fay unto him, Sit thou here in a good Place; and fay to the Poor, Stand thou there, or fit here under my Foot stool: Are ye not then partial in your felves, and are become Judges of evil Thoughts? Hearken, my beloved Brethren, liath not God chosen the Poor of this World, Rich in Faith, and Heirs of the Kingdom, which he hath promifed to them that Love him? But ye have despised the Poor. Do not Rich Men oppress you, and draw you before the Judgment Seat? Do they not Blaspheme that worthy Name, by the which ye are called? If ye fulfil the Royal Law according to the Scripture, Thou shalt love thy Neighbour as thy self, ye do well; but if ye have RESPECT to Persons, ye commit Sin, and are convinced of the Law, as Transgreffors.

Q. Though that be indeed sufficient to reprove the different Ranks among Christians, upon the Mister -Account of Riches or Birth: yet is there not a and Serrelative Respect among Christians, as betwint Ma. vants. ster and Servants? What Admonitions gives the A-postle in this Case?

A: Servants, be obedient to them that are your Eph. 6. 5, Masters according to the Flesh, with Fear and 6, 7, 8, 9. Trembling, in Singleness of your Heart, as unto Christ, not with Eye-Service, as Men-Pleasers; but as the Servants of Christ, doing the Will of God from the Heart; with good Will doing Service as to the Lord, and not to Men: knowing, that whatsoever good Thing any Man doth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be Bond or Free. And ye Masters, do the same Things unto them, forbearing Threatning;

1673. knowing, that your Master also is in Heaven; neither is there Respect of Persons with him.

Col. 3.22, Servants, obey in all things your Masters, ac-23,24,25 cording to the Flesh; not with Eye-Service, as Men-Pleasers; but in Singleness of Heart, searing God. And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto Men; knowing, that of the Lord ye shall receive the Reward of the Inheritance: For ye serve the Lord Christ. But he that doth Wrong, shall receive for the Wrong which he hath done; and

Col. 4. 1. there is no Respect of Persons. Masters, give unto your Servants that which is just and equal, knowing, that ye also have a Master in Heaven.

count their own Masters worthy of all Honour, that the Name of God and his Doctrine be not blasphemed. And they that have believing Masters, let them not despise them, because they are Brethren; but rather do them Service, because they are faithful and beloved, Partakers of the Benefit. These Things teach and exhort.

Tit. 2. 9, Exhort Servants to be obedient unto their own Masters, and to please them well in all Things; not answering again, not purloining; but shewing all good Fidelity, that they may adorn the Doctrine of God in all Things.

Pet. 2. Servants, be subject to your Masters with all 18, 19,20, Fear, not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward; for this is Thank-worthy, if a Man for Conscience towards God endure Griefs, suffering wrongfully. For what Glory is it, if when ye be buffeted for your Faults, ye shall take it patiently? But if when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God. For even hereunto were ye called, because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an Example, that we should follow his Steps.

Q. What good Admonitions gives the Scrip- 1672. ture, as to the Relation betwixt Parents and Chil- Parents dren?

A. Children, Obey your Parents in the Lord, dren. for this is right. Honour thy Father and thy Mother (which is the first Commandment with Ephes. 6. Promise) that it may be well with thee, and thou 1, 2, 3, 4. may'ft live long on the Earth. And ye Fathers, provoke not your Children to Wrath; but bring them up in the Nurture and Admonition of the Lord. Children, Obey your Parents in all Col.3. 20, Things; for this is well-pleasing unto the Lord. 21. Fathers, provoke not your Children to Anger, left they be discouraged.

Q. What between Husbands and Wives? Husband A. Wives, fubmit your felves unto your own and Wife.

Husbands, as unto the Lord; for the Husband is Eph.5.22, the Head of the Wife, even as Christ is the Head 23,24,25, of the Church, and he is the Saviour of the Bo-28,31,33. dy: Therefore, as the Church is subject unto Christ; so let the Wives be to their own Husbands in every thing. Husbands, love your Wives, even as Christ loved the Church, and gave himself for it; so ought Men to love their own Wives, as their own Bodies: He that loveth his Wife; loveth himself; for this Cause shall a Man leave his Father and Mother, and shall be joined unto his Wife, and they two shall be one Flesh. Nevertheless, let every one of you in particular, so love his Wife, even as himself; and the Wife see, that she Reverence her Husband. Husbands, love your Wives, and be not Col. 3.19. bitter against them. Likewise, ye Wives, be i Pet. 3. subject to your own Husbands, that if any 0. 1, 2, 7. bey not the Word, they also may without the Word be won by the Conversation of the Wives, while they behold your chast Conversation coupled with Fear. Likewise, ye Husbands, dwell with them according to Knowledge, giving Ho-S 4

1672. nour unto the Wife, as unto the Weaker Vessel, and as being Heirs together of the Grace of Life, that your Prayers be not hindered.

Christians Q. What is the Armour of a true Christian, and Armour -- wherewith ought be to wreftle?

A. Put on the whole Armour of God, that ye Ephel. 6. may be able to stand against the Wiles of the 11,12,13 Devil; for we wrestle not against Flesh and 14,15;16. Blood, but against Principalities, against Powers, against the Rulers of the Darkness of this World.

against the Rulers of the Darkness of this World, against Spiritual Wickedness in high Places: wherefore take unto you the whole Armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the Evil Day, and having done all, to stand therefore, having your Loins girt about with Truth, and having on the Breast Plate of Righteousness, and your Feet shod with the Preparation of the Gospel of Peace: above all, taking the Shield of Faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the siery Darts of the Wicked One; and take the Helmet of Salvation, and the Sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God.

and Q. What are Christians Weapons, and for what Weapons. End?

A. For though we walk in the Flesh, we do 2 Cor. 16. not war after the Flesh; (for the Weapons of our 3, 4, 5. Warfare are not Carnal, but mighty through God, to the Pulling down of strong Holds) casting down Imaginations, and every high Thing, that exalteth it self against the Knowledge of God; and bringing into Captivity every Thought to the Obedience of Christ.

No Strife- Q. Ought Strife and Envy to be among Chri-Stians?

James 3. A. Who is a wife Man, and endued with 13,14,15, Knowledge amongst you? Let him shew out of 16,17, 18. a good Conversation his Works with Meekness of Wisdom: But if ye have bitter Envying and Strife Strife in your Hearts, glory not, and lie not against the Truth. This Wisdom discendeth not from above; but is Earthly, Sensual, Devilish; for where Envying and Strife is, there is Confusion and every Evil Work. But the Wisdom that is from above, is first pure, then peaceable, and easy to be intreated, full of Mercy and good Fruits, without Partiality, and without Hypocrify: And the Fruit of Righteousness is sown in Peace of them that make Peace.

Q. Ought Wars to be among Christians? From Wars.

whence proceed they?

A. From whence come Wars and Fightings a- James 4. mong you? Come they not hence, even from 1, 2. your Lusts, that war in your Members? Ye lust, and have not; ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain; ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not.

Q. What faith Christ even of Desensive War? Not De-A. But I say unto you, that ye resist not E-sensive. vil; but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right Cheek, turn to him the other also. But I say, Mat. 5. unto you, which hear, Love your Enemies; do 39.

Q. What say the Apostles?

A. Recompence to no Man Evil for Evil. Not Rom. 12. rendering Evil for Evil, or Railing for Railing; 17. but contrary-wife Blefling: Knowing, that ye 1 Pet. 3.9. are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a Blefling. See, that none render Evil for Evil unto any Man; but ever follow that which Thess. is good, both among your selves, and to all 5.15. Men.

Q. It

Oath for Confirmation was to them an End of all Swearing. Strife: Is it not Lawful for Christians also to Swear?

Mat: 5. A. Again, ye have heard, that it hath been 33,34,35, faid by them of Old Time, Thou shalt not forfwear thy self; but shalt perform unto the Lord thine Oaths. But I say unto you, Swear not at all, neither by Heaven, for it is God's Throne; nor by the Earth, for it is his Footstool; neither by ferusalem, for it is the City of the great King; neither shalt thou Swear by thy Head, because thou canst not make one Hair white or black: But let your Communication be Tea, Tea, Nay, Nay; for whatsoever is more than these.

Jam. 5.12. cometh of Evil. But above all things, my Brethren, Swear not; neither by Heaven, neither by the Earth, neither by any other Oath: but let your Yea be Yea, and your Nay, Nay, left ye fall into Condemnation.

World's Q. Is it fit for Christians or Believers to re-Honour. ceive Carnal and Worldly Honour one from another?

Joh. 5.44. A. How can ye believe, which receive Honour one of another, and feek not the Honour, that cometh from God only?

Q. Doth God allow us to give flattering Titles to Men?

Titles.

Job 32.

A. Let me not, I pray you, accept any Man's Person: neither let megive flattering Titles unto Man; For I know not to give flattering Titles, in so doing my Maker would soon take me away.

Thee and Q. What should we say to such, as quarrel with thou. us for speaking proper sound Words, as Thou to one, You to many; which is Christ and the Saints Language in the Scripture?

Tim. 6. A. If any Man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome Words, even the Words of our Lord Jesus Christ; and to the Doctrine which is 1673. according to Godliness, he is proud, knowing, nothing; but doting about Questions, and Strifes of Words, whereof cometh Envy, Strife, Railings, Evil Surmizings. Hold fast the Form of 2 Tim.1. found Words, which theu hast heard of me in 13. Faith and Love, which is in Christ Jesus.

Q. What is the great Commandment given by Christ to his Disciples, as that which even declareth Love.

them to be such, and is also pressed by his Apostles?

A. A new Commandment I give unto you, Joh. 13.34 that ye love one another: As I have loved you, 35, and 15. that ye also love one another; by this shall all Men know, that ye are my Disciples, if ye have Love to one another. This is my Commandment, that ye love one another, as I have loved you: These things I command you, that ye love one another. Be ye therefore Followers of Eph. 5.1,2 God, as dear Children; and walk in Love, as Chrift also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an Ofiering and a Sacrifice to God, for a fweet-smeling Savour. If any Man say, I love I John 4. God, and hateth his Brother, he is a Liar; for 20, 21. he that loveth not his Brother, whom he hath feen, How can he love God, whom he hath not feen? And this Commandment have we from him, that he who loveth God, loveth his Brother alfo.

Q. Is Humility very needful for Christians? What Humility.

like must we be, e're we can enter the Kingdom?

A. And faid, verily, verily, I fay unto you, Matt. 18. Except ye be converted, and become as little 3, 4. Children, ye shall not enter into the Kingdom of Heaven; whosever therefore shall humble himfelf, as this little Child, the same is greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven.

Q. Ought Christians to lord over one another?

What Rule giveth Christ in this Case?

A. But Jesus called them unto him, and said,

Dominion over them; and they that are great,

Matt. 20. exercise Authority upon them: But it shall not25, 26, be so among you; but whosoever will be great among you, let him be your Minister; and whosoever will be Chief among you, let him be your Servant: Even as the Son of Man came not to be ministred unto, but to minister, and to give his Life a Ransom for many.

Q. How then are Christians in this World?

Matt. 10. A. Behold, I fend you forth, as Sheep in the Midst of Wolves; be ye therefore wise as Ser-Luk. 10.3. pents, and harmless as Doves. Go your Ways; behold, I fend you forth as Lambs among Wolves.

Q. Are we then to expect Afflictions and Persecutions here?

Matt. 10. A. And ye shall be hated of all Men for my Name's Sake; but he that endureth to the End, Mark 13. shall be saved. And ye shall be hated of all Men for my Name's Sake. If the World hate you, ye know that it hated me, before it hated you: If ye John 15. were of the World, the World would love his own; 18, 19. but because ye are not of the World, but I have chosen you out of the World, therefore the Jho. 16.33 World hateth you. These things I have spoken unto you, that ye might have Peace: In the World ye shall have Tribulation; but be of good Cheer, I have overcome the World. 2 Tim. 3. And all that will live godly in Christ Jesus, shall

Q. Ought we thento fear Persecution?

10, 28.

A. Fear not them, which kill the Body, but are not able to kill the Soul; but rather fear him, who is able to destroy both Soul and Body in Hell.

Luke 12. And I say unto you, my Friends, Be not asraid of them, that kill the Body, and after that have no more, that they can do: But I will fore warn you, whom ye shall fear; fear him, which after he hath killed, hath Power to cast into Hell, yea, 1672.

I say unto you, fear him.

Q. What Advantage is it to them, that suffer -- Advan-Persecution cheerfully, and Hazzards, to them that tageous.

Chunit?

A. Bleffed are they, which are persecuted for Matt. 5.10 Righteousness Sake; for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven. But if ye suffer for Righteousness Sake, 1 Pet.3.4. happy are ye; and be not afraid of their Terrour, neither be troubled. Whosoever therefore Matt. 10. shall confess me before Men, him will I confess al- 32,33, 37, fo before my Father, which is in Heaven; but 38, 39. whosoever thall deny me before Men, him will I also deny before my Father which is Heaven: He that loveth Father or Mother more than me, is not worthy of me; and he that taketh not his Cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me: He that findeth his Life, shall lose it; And he that loseth his Life for my Sake, shall find it. Alfo I fay unto you, Whofoever shall confess me Luke 12. before Men, him shall the Son of Man also con-8,9° fess before the Angels of God; but he that denieth me before Men, shall be denied before the Angels of God. Then faid Jesus unto his Disciples, Matt. 16. If any Man will come after me, let him deny him-24, 25. felf, and take up his Cross, and follow me for whosoever will fave his Life, shall lose it; and who soever will lose his Life for my Sake, shall find it. If we 2 Tim. 2. fuffer, we shall also reign with him; if we de-12. ny him, he also will deny us. If any come to Luke 14. me, and hate not his Father and Mother, and 26. Wife, and Children, and Brethren, and Sifters; yea, and his own Life, he cannot be my Disciple. And he said to them, If any Man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his Luke 9. Cross daily, and follow me; for whospever will 23, 24. save his Life, shall lose it: But whosoever will lose his Life for my Sake, the same shall save it. And when he had called the People to him, with Luke 3. his 34, 35.

his Disciples also, he said unto them, whosever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his Cross, and follow me: For whosever will save his Life, shall lose it; but whosever shall lose his Life for my Sake and the Gospel's, the same shall save it.

Q. There is nothing more certain, according to those Scriptures, than that Christians must suffer Persecution in this World, even in their Persons and Estates, But shall they not also suffer in their good Names, in being accounted Blasphemers. He-reticks and Deceivers.

Matt. 10. A. The Disciple is not above his Master, nor the Servant above his Lord; it is enough for the Disciple, that he be as his Master, and the Servant as his Lord: If they have called the Master of the House Beelzebub; How much more shall which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous Words against Moses, and against God:

And they stirred up the People, and the Elders, and the Scribes, and came upon him, and caught

Acts 17.6 him, and brought him to the Council. And when they found them not, they drew Jasan and certain Brethren to the Rulers of the City, crying, These that have turned the World up side

Act. 24.14 down, are come hither also. But this I confess unto thee, that after the Way, which they call Herefy, so worship I the God of my Fathers, believing all things, which are written in the Law,

Cor. 14 and the Prophets. Being defamed, we entreat:
We are made as Filth of the World, and are the 1Cor.6.8. Off-scouring of all things unto this Day; by Honour and Dishonour, by evil Report and good Report, as Deceivers, and yet true.

Q. It is easily apparent, from what is mentioned,

ed, that Christians are to expect Persecution and 1673. Tribulation; and that they are always the Sheep, and never the Wolves; the Persecuted, and never the Pray for Persecutors; the Afflitted, and not the Afflittors: persecutors The Reproached, and not the Reproachers: Is it not fit then, that Christians be so far from Persecuting others, that they ought to pray for the Perfecutors? Is this Christ's Command?

A. But I say unto you, Love your Enemies; Mat.5.44. bless them that curse you, do Good to them that hate you, and Pray for them which despightfully use you, and Persecute you.

Q. Was this Christ's own Practice ? By Christ's

A. Then faid Jesus, Father, forgive them; Luke 23. for they know not what they do, &c.

Q. Is Christ herein to be our Example?

A. For even hereunto were you called, because 1 Pet. 2. Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an Exam-12,22,23. ple, that ye should follow his Steps, who did no Example. Sin, neither was Guile found in his Mouth; who when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatned not, but committed himself unto him, that judgeth righteously,

Q. Is there an Instance of any Saints in Scrip-and Ste-ture, who followed his Example herein?

A. And he (Stephen) kneeled down, and cried Acts 7.60. with a loud Voice, Lord, lay not this Sin to their Charge, &c.

Q. It appears by all these Scriptures, that Christianity consisteth in the Exercise of Fear and Trembling, Humility, Patience and Self-denial; What Beware of ought we then to think of such, who place much of seducing their Religion in abstaining from Marriage, and cer-Spirits. tain Meats; Wor hipping of Angels, and other such Acts of Voluntary Humility?

A. Now the Spirit speaketh expresly, that in 1 Tim. 4. the latter times some shall depart from the Faith, 1, 2, 3. giving heed to seducing Spirits and Doctrines of Devils, speaking Lies in Hypocrify; having whether

ding to marry, and commanding to abstain from Meats, which God hath created, to be received with Thankfulness of them which believe, and

Col. 2.18 know the Truth. Let no Man beguile you of your Reward in voluntary Humility, and Worthipping of Angels; intruding into those things, which he hath not seen, vainly puft up by his slessly Mind.

CHAP. XIII.

Concerning MAGISTRACY.

Question. What is the Duty of a Magistrate?

Answer. The God of Israel faid, the Rock of Israel speak to me; He that Ruleth over Men, must be just, Ruling in the Fear of God.

Subjection Q. What do the Scriptures speak of the Duty of

Such, as are under Authority.

A. Let every Soul be subject to the higher Pow-1,2,3,4,5. ers; for there is no Power, but of God: The Powers that be, are ordained of God; whofoever therefore resists the Power, resists the Ordinance of God: And they that refift, shall receive to themselves Damnation. For Rulers are not a Terrour to good Works, but to the Evil. thou then be afraid of the Power? Do that which is Good, and thou shalt have Praise of the same; for he is the Minister of God to thee for Good. But if thou do that which is Evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the Sword in vain: For he is the Minister of God; a Revenger to execute Wrath upon him that doth Evil. Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for Wrath, but also for Conscience Sake. Submit your selves to 13,14, 15. every Ordinance of Man for the Lord's Sake, whether it be to the King as Supream; or unto 1673. Governours, as unto them, that are fent by him for the Punishment of Evil-Doers, and for the Praise of them that do Well: For so is the Will of God, that with Well-doing ye may put to Silence the Ignorance of foolish Men.

Q. Ought Tribute to be paid to them?

A. For, for this Cause pay you Tribute also; Rom. 13. for they are God's Ministers, attending continually 6, 7. upon this very thing: Render therefore to all their Dues, Tribute to whom Tribute is due, Cuftom to whom Custom, Fear to whom Fear, Honour to whom Honour. Then faith he unto them, Ren- Matt. 22. der therefore unto Cafar, the things which are 21. Calar's; and unto God the things that are God's.

trary to the Commands of Christ?

A. And they called them, and command them Ads. not to speak at all, nor teach in the Name of Je. 18,19, 20. fus: but Peter and John answered and said unto them, Whether it be right in the Sight of God, to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye; for we cannot but speak the things which we have feen and heard. And when they had Acts 5. brought them, they fet them before the Council, 27,28, 29. And the High Priest asked them, saying, Did not we straitly command you, that ye should not Teach in this Name; And behold, ye have filled ferusalem with your Doctrine, and intend to bring this Man's Blood upon us. Then Peter and the other Apostles answered, and faid, We ought to obey God rather, than Man.

faid unto them; Ye Men of Israel, take heed to your selves, what ye intend to do, as touching these Men: And now I say unto you, Refrain from these Men, and let them alone; for if this Counsel or this Work be of Men, it will come to nought; but if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even to fight against God, Tares. Q. What Command giveth Christ to his People under the Gospel, in Relation to this Matter? How doth he hold forth their Duty under the Parable of the Tares?

Matt. 13. A. So the Servants of the Houshold came, and 27,28, 29. faid unto him; Sir, didst thou not sow good Seed in thy Field? From whence then hath it Tares? He said unto them, An Enemy hath done this. The Servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up? But he said, Nay, lest while ye gather up the Tares, ye root up also the Wheat with them.

Tares, the Q. Doth he explain these Tares of the Wick-Wicked. ed, whom the Godly must not take upon them to cut off, lest through Mistake they hurt the Good; but leave it to God, to do it by his Angels?

1 Cor. 15. A. The Field is the World; the good Seed are 50.51.52 the Children of the Kingdom; but the Tares are 53.54.55 the Children of the wicked One; the Enemy that fowed them, is the Devil; the Harvest is the End of the World; and the Reapers are the Angels: And therefore the Tares are gathered and burnt in the Fire. So shall it be in the End of this World; the Son of Man shall send forth his Angels, and they shall gather out of his Kingdom all things that offend, and them which do Iniquity.

CHAP. XIV.

Concerning the RESURRECTION:

Question. WI Hat faith the Scripture of the Re-

Answer. And have Hope towards God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a Acts 24:19 Resurrection of the Dead, both of the Just and Unjust.

Q. To what different End shall the Good be raifed from the Bad? And how are they thereunto reserved?

A. Marvel not at this; for the Hour is coming, in the which all that are in the Graves, shall hear John 5.28, his Voice, and shall come forth; they that have 29 done Good, unto the Resurrection of Life; and they that have done Evil, unto the Resurrection of Condemnation. But the Heavens and the Earth, 2Pet 3:73 which are now, by the same Word are kept in Store, reserved unto Fire against the Day of Judgment, and Perdition of Ungodly Men.

Q. What must be answered to such as ask, How the Dead are raised; and with what Body?

A. Thou Fool, that which thou fowest, is not cor. 150 quickned, except it die: And that which thou 36,37.38, sowest, thou sowest not that Body which shall 39,40,41, be; but bare Grain, it may chance of Wheat, 42,43,440 or some other Grain: But God giveth it a Body, as it hath pleased him, and to every Seed his own Body. All Flesh is not the same Flesh; but there is one Kind of Flesh of Men, another Flesh of Beasts, another of Fishes, and another of Birds? There are also Celestial Bodies, and Bodies terrestrial; but the Glory of the Celestial is one, and the Glory of the Terrestrial is another. There is one Glory of the Sun, and another Glory of the Moon, and another Glory of the Stars; for one

Star differs from onother Star in Glory: So also is the Resurrection of the Dead: it is sown in Corruption, it is raised in Incorruption; it is sown in Dishonour, it is raised in Glory; it is sown in Weakness, it is raised in Power; it is sown a Natural Body, it is raised a Spiritual Body: There is a Natural Body, and there is a Spiritual Body.

Q. The Apostle seems to be very positive, that it is not that Natural Body, which we now have, that Shall rife, but a Spiritual Body.

1 Cor. 15. A. Now this I fay, Brethren, That Flesh and 50,51,52, Blood cannot inherit the Kingdom of God, nei-53,54,55, ther doth Corruption inherit Incorruption. Behold, I shew you a Mystery, We shall not all Sleep; but we shall all be changed in a Moment, in the Twinkling of an Eye, at the last Trump, (for the Trumpet shall found) and the Dead shall be raifed Incorruptible, and we shall be changed: For this Corruptible must put on Incorruption, and this Mortal must put on Immortality: So when this Corruptible shall have put on Incorruption, and this Mortal shall have put on Immortality, then shall be brought to pass the Saying, that is written; Death is swallowed up in Victory: O Death were is thy Sting? O Grave were is thy Victory?

CHAP. XV.

A Short Introduction to the CON-FESSION of FAITH.

Aving thus largely and evidently performed the chief Part of that, which I promised in this Treatise, in giving a full Account of our Principles in plain Scripture-Words; and also Answering swering by the Scriptures the chief and main Obje- 1673. ctions made against us; I come to a Confession of Faith: In which I shall not be so large, for that I judge it not convenient to make an Interpretation of all the Scriptures before-mentioned; which, if needful, the Reader may eafily observe, were not very difficult to do. But whereas a Confession of Faith called rather for an Affirmative Account of ones Own Faith, than for the Solution of Objections, or any thing of Debate in a Discursive Way, which is both more properly and pertinently performed in a Catechism; therefore I have here only done so. I am necessitated sometimes to intermix some Words for Coherence of the Matter, as sometimes (And) and sometimes (Therefore) and the like; but not such, as any ingenuous Person can offirm, do add to the Matter, or that may any wife justly be reckoned a Comment or Meaning: And therefore to avoid the Censure of the most Curious, Carping Criticks; thefe are marked with a different Character. Likewife unless I should have ridiculously offer'd to publish incongruous Grammar, there was a true Need sometimes to change the Mood and Person of a Verb: In all which Places, whofoever will look to the Words, shall find, it is done upon no Design to alter any whit the naked Import of them, As for Instance: Where Christ fays, I am the Light of the World, Were it proper for me to write thus, I am the Light, &c. Or can it be reckoned any whit Contradicting of my Purpose and Promise to write, Christ is the Light, where the First Person is changed to the Third? Also sometimes I express things, which are necessarly understood; as when any of the Apostles say, We, there instead of We, I write Apostles; and where they fay You, speaking of the Saints, there I mention Saints instead of it: For the Connexion of the Sentence sometimes requires it. As in the First Article in mentioning that of I John 1. 5. concerning T 3 God's 1672. God's being Light, and in such like Cases, which I know, no impartial Reader would have quarrelled, though wanting this Apology: Which I judged meet to premise, knowing, there is a Generation, who when they cannot find any real or substantial Ground against Truth and its Followers, will be Cavilling at such little Niceties; therefore such may see, this Objection is obviated.

i John 14.

ARTICLE II.

Concerning the Guide and Rule of Christians.

CHrist prayed to the Father, and he gave the Saints another Comforter, that was to abide with them for ever, even the Spirit of Truth, whom the World cannot receive, because it feeth him not, nor knoweth him. But the Saints know him; for he dwelleth with them, and is to be in them (k). Now if any Man have k John 14. not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his: For 16, 17. as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the Sons of God (1). For this is the Cove-1 Rom. 8. nant, that God hath made with the House of 1/- 9, 14. rael, He hath put his Laws in their Mind, and writ them in their Hearts; and they are all taught of God (m). And the Anointing, which m Heb. 8. they have received of him, abideth in them; and 10, 11. they need not, that any Man teach them, but as the same Anointing teacheth them of all things, and is Truth, and is no Lie (n). n I Joh. 2. 27.

ARTICLE III.

Concerning the Scriptures.

WHatsoever things were written aforetime, were written for our Learning, that we through Patience and Comfort of the Scriptures might have Hope (0), which are able o Rom. 15. to make wise unto Salvation through Faith, 4 which is in Christ Jesus: all Scripture being given by Inspiration of God, and is profitable for T 4 Doctrine, p 2 Tim. 3. throughly furnished unto all good Works (p).

Interpretation; for the Prophesy came not in Old time by the Will of Man, but Holy Men of God spake, as they were moved by the Holy q 2 Pet. 1. Ghost (q).

ARTICLE IV.

Concerning the Divinity of Christ, and his Being from the Beginning.

N the Beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God; and the same was in the Beginning with God: All things were made by him; and without r John 1. him was not any thing made, that was made (r). 1, 2, 3. ARTICLE V.

Concerning his Appearance in the Flesh.

not on him the Nature of Angels; but he took on him the Seed of Abraham, being in all things made like unto his Brethren (e). Touched e Heb. 2. with a Feeling of our Infirmities: and in all 16, 17. things tempted, like as we are, yet without Sin (f). He died for our Sins, according to the f Heb. 4. Scriptures; and he was buried, and he Rose again 15. the Third Day according to the Scriptures (g). g 1 Cor. 15.3, 4.

ARTICLE VI.

Concerning the End and Use of that Appearance.

That we may 4. 10,11. know him, and the Power of his Resurrection, and the Fellowship of his Sufferings, being made 5 Phil. 3. conformable to his Death (s).

ARTICLE VII.

Concerning the Inward Manifestation of Christ.

OD dwelleth with the Contrite and Humble z Isa. 57. in Spirit (t): For he said, he will dwell in them, and walk in them (u). And Christ standi 2 Cor. eth at the Door, and knocketh; if any Man 6. 16. hear his Voice, and open the Door, he will come unto him, and Sup with him, and he with him x Rev. 3.(x). And therefore ought we to Examine our own felves, and prove our own felves, knowing, 20. how that Christ is in us, except we be Reprobates (y). For this is the Riches of the Glory of 9 2 Col. 13. 5. the Myltery, which God would make known among (or rather IN) the Gentiles, CHRIST ¿ Col. 1. WITHIN, the Hope of Glory (z). 27.

ARTICLE VIII.

Concerning the New Birth.

Xcept a Man be born again, he cannot fee the Kingdom of God (a). Therefore ought we to put off the Old Man with his Deeds, and put on the New Man, which is renewed in Knowledge after the Image of him that created him, and which after God is created in Righteousness and and true Holiness (b): For henceforth know we 1673. no Man after the Flesh; yea, though we have known Christ after the Flesh, yet now henceforth be Ephes. know we him no more (c). For if any Man be Col. 3.10. in Christ, he is a New Creature: Old Things are c 2 Cor. past away; behold all things are become New (d). 5. 16. For such have put on the Lord Jesus Christ (e), d 2 Cor. and are renewed in the Spirit of their Minds (f); e Rom. World is crucisted unto them, and they unto the World (i). For in Christ Jesus neither Circumcistic Gal. 6. on availeth any thing, nor Uncircumciston, but 14. a New Creature (k).

ARTICLE X.

Concerning the Universal Love and Grace of God to all.

OD so loved the World, that he gave his only begotten Son, that who foever believeth in him, should not perish, but have everlasting Life (0). And in this was manifested the Love of God towards us, because that God sent his only begotten Son, that we might live through Him (p). So that if any Man fin, we have an pr Joh. Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the Righteous; and he is the Propitiation for our Sins; and not for ours only, but also for the Sins of the whole World (q): For by the Grace of q I Joh. 2. 1, 2. God he hath tasted Death for every Man (r), r Heb. 2. And gave himself a Ransom for all, to be testified in due Time (s): Willing all Men to be sas 1 Tim. yed, and to come to the Knowledge of the Truth (t); Not willing that any should perish, t 1 Tim. but that all fhould come to Repentance (u). For u 2 Pet God fent not his Son into the World to condemn the World; but that the World through Him might be faved (x). And Christ came a Light x Joh. 3. into the World, that whofoever believeth in him y Joh. 12. should not abide in Darkness (y): Therefore, as' by the Offence of One Judgment came upon all Men to Condemnation; even fo by the Righteousness of One, the free Gift came upon all Men Rom.5. to Justification of Life (z).

And this is c 2 Cor. the Condemnation, that Light is come into the 4. 3, 4. World, and Men love Darkness rather than Light, because their Deeds are Evil (d). And d John 3. this was the true Light, which lightneth every 19. Man that cometh into the World (e); By which e Joh. 1.9. all things that are reprovable, are made manifest: For whatsoever maketh manifest, is Light (f). Every one that doth Evil, hateth the Light, f Eph. 5. neither cometh to the Light, lest his Deeds should in. be reproved: but he that doth Truth, cometh to the Light, that, his Deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God (g). Andg Joh. 3. they that walk in the Light, as Christ is in the 20, 21. Light, have Fellowship one with another, and the Blood of Jesus Christ, his Son, cleanseth them from all Sin (b): Therefore cught we tob I Jch. 1. believe in the Light, while we have the Light, that we may be the Children of the Light (i). i Joh. 12. Therefore to Day, if we will hear his Voice, 36. let us not harden our Hearts (k): For Christ & Heb. 4. wept over ferusalem, saying, If thou hadst 7. known, even thou, at least in this thy Day, the Things which belong unto thy Peace: But now they are hid from thine Eyes (1). Concerning Faith and Justification.

For we are both washed, sanctified and justified 5. in the Name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God (k).

ARTICLE · XIII. Concerning Good Works.

If we live after the Flesh, we shall die; but if we through the Spirit do mortify the Deeds of the Body, we shall live (1): For they, which 1 Rom. 8. believe in God, must be careful to maintain good 13. ARTICLE XIV.

Concerning Perfection.

CIN shall not have Dominion over such, as r Rom. 6. are not under the Law, but under Grace (r). For there is no Condemnation to those that are 14. in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the Flesh. but after the Spirit; for the Law of the Spirit of Life maketh free from the Law of Sin and s Rom. 8. Death (s): For such are become dead unto Sin. and alive unto Righteousness; and being made 1, 2. free from Sin, are become Servants of Righteouft Rom. 6. ness (t). Therefore ought we to be perfect, as our Heavenly Father is perfect (u): For the 2. 18. n Mat. 5. Yoke of Christ is easy, and his Burthen is light (x); And his Commandments are not grievous x Matt. ARTICLE XVII. Concerning WORSHIP.

THE Hour cometh, and now is, when the true Worshippers shall worship the Father in Spirit and in Truth: for the Father feeketh y John 4. such to worship him (y). Concerning MAGISTRACY.

Et every Soul be Subject to the higher Powers; for there is no Power but of God: The Powers that be, are ordained of God. Whosoever therefore resists the Power, resists the Ordinance of God; and they that resist, shall receive to themselves Damnation. For Rulers are

Do that which is good, and thou shalt have Praise of the same; for he is the Minister of God to thee for Good. But if thou do that which is Evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the Sword in vain; for he is the Minister of God, a Revenger to execute Wrath upon him that doth Evil. Wherefore we must needs be subject, not only for Wrath, but also for Conscience sake: For for this Cause pay we also Tribute; for they are God's Ministers, attending continually upon this very thing. Render therefore to all their Dues, Tribute to whom Tribute is due, Custom to whom Custom, Fear to whom Fear, Honour to whom Honour (i). CHAP. XVII.

A Short Expostulation with, and Appeal to all other Professors.

OME, let us reason with you, all ye Professors of Christianity, of what Sort or Kind foever; and bring forth your Catechisms and Confessions of FAITH to that, which by most of your selves is accounted the Touch stone or Rule. And suffer your selves no more to be blinded, and to Err through your Ignorance of the Scriptures, and of the Power of God; but freely acknowledge and confess to that Glorious Gospel and Light, which the Scriptures so clearly witness to, and your Experience must needs answer: As also to these other Doctrines. which consequentially depend upon the Behalf of that Noble and truly Catholick Principle, wherein the Love of God is so mercifully exhibited to all Men, and his Justice and Mercy do like Twins fo Harmoniously Concord: His Mercy in the oft tendring of his Love through the Strivings and Wrestlings of his Light, during the Day of every Man's Visitation; and his Juflice, both in the Destroying and Cutting away of the wicked Nature and Spirit in those, that suffer themselves to be redeemed through his Judgments: And

The Noble Principle of Truth all are invited

And in the utter Overthrow of such, who re- 1673. belling against the Light, and doing Despight to the Spirit of Grace, hate to be reformed. Now not only this Fundamental Principle is clearly held forth in this Treatife, but all these that depend upon it, as the real and inward fu-flification of the Saints, through the Power and Life of Jesus revealed in them, their full and perfect Redemption from the Body of Death and Sin, as they grow up by the Workings and Prevalency of his Grace. And yet, lest Security should enter, there is great need of Watchfulness, in that they may even depart, after they have really witneffed a good Condition, and make Shipwrack of the Faith, and of a good Conscience, with all the Parts of the Doctrine of Christ, as they lie linked together like a Golden Chain, which doth very much evidence the Certainty and Virtue of Truth above all Heresies, Error and Deceit, however fo cunningly gilded with the specious Pretences thereof. For Truth is entire in all its Parts, and consonant to it self, without the least Jar; having a wonderful Coherence, and notable Harmony, answering together like the Strings of a well-tuned Instrument: The Harmo-Whereas the Principles of all other Professors, as of a well though in some things most of them come near, tuned instruand divers acknowledge that which is Truth; yet in most things they stray from it : So that their Principles greatly contradict and jar one against another. And though they may alledge Scriptures for some of their Principles; yet they are put strangely to wrest it, and to deny it for others. My Appeal then to, and Expostulation with all Sorts of Professors is, not to prove some one or two Points by the Scriptures (for there be some general Notions of Truth, which most (if not all) agree to) but the whole Body of our Principles, as they stand in Relation to each 1672. each other, which none of them all is able to do. For among the many Professors their Cate-chisms and Confessions of Faith, I find none (save the Dispensation of Truth now again revealed) but such, as in most of their Substantial Principles differ greatly, and in many contradict grosly the plain Text and Tenor of the Scripture.

I confess, there be certain Men in this Age, who with some plausible Appearance of Reality undertake this Talk: These are they, that joyn with, and own not wholly any Imbodied People; but while they pretend a general Love to all, yet find fault with some Part of every Sort. while in the mean time they scarce give any Account of their own Religion, and most of them prove at Bottom to have none at all. Thefe Men, I say, may perhaps acknowledge some general Truths, and also hold to the Letter of the Scripture in some other things, so as thereby to take Occasion largely to judge others; while themfelves offer not to bring these good things to Pra-Crice, they blame others for the Want or Neglect of. But such an Enterprize from these Men will not (when weighed) prove a Fulfilling of this Matter: Seeing it is not enough to acknowledge many Truths, but also to deny and witness against all Error; and likewise, not to fall short of any Truth, which ought to be acknowledged: Whereas these Sort of Men for the most Part cannot give Account of their Faith in many things needful to be believed; and whatever things they may acknowledge to be true, they Err most grievously, and cantradict a Truth most needful to be minded and answered, as is proved hereto, in that they stand not forth to appear for a-Pretenders my of these Discoveries, they pretend they have; hide their hut make a Shift to hide their Heads in Times of time of Trial, so as not to suffer for, nor with any. And al.

through these fine Pretences above-mentioned, through their Scruples of joyning with any, they can cunningly shun the Difficulties of Persecutions, that attend the particular Sects of Christians; yet by their general Charity and Love to all, claim a Share in any Benefits or Advantages, that accrew to one and all: Such then cannot honeftly lay Claim to justify their Principles and Practices from the Scriptures. But I leave thefe Straglers in Religion, and come again to the divers Sects.

To begin with these, that are most numerous, I think, I need not fay much to the Papifts in this Case; for they do not so much as pretend to prove all their Dogma's by the Scriptures: Sith Dagma's Tea it is one of thir chief Doctrines, That Tradition ditions and may Authorize Doctrines, without any Authority Councils. of Scriptures: Yea, the Counfel of Constance hath made bold to Command things to be believed Non obstante Scriptura; i. e. Though the Scriptures fay the Contrary. And indeed, it were their great Folly, to pretend to prove their Doctrines by Scripture; feeing, the Adoration of Saints and Images, Purgatory, and Prayer for the Dead, the Precedency of the Bishop of Rome, the Matter of Indulgencies, with much more Stuff of that Kind, hath not the least Shadow of Scripture for it.

Among Protestants I know, the Socinians are Socinians great Pretenders to the Scriptures, and in Words contrary to as much exalt them, as any other People: And scriptures. yet its strange to see, how that not only in many things they are not agreeable to them; but in some of their chief Principles quite contrary unto it: As in their denying the Divinity of Christ, which is as expresly mentioned, as any thing can be; And the Word was God, John 1. As also in denying his Being from the Beginning, against the very Tenour of that of John 1, and divers 1673. others; as at large is shewn in the Third Chapter of this Treatise. Divers other things as to them, might be mentioned; but this may suffice, to stop their Boasting in this Matter.

Arminians The Arminians are not more successful in their Denials do denying the Doctrine of Absolute Reprobation, and in afferting the Universal Extent of Christ's Death for All, than they are short in not placing this Salvation in that Spiritual Light, wherewith Man is enlightned by Christ; but wrongously afcribing a Part of that to the Natural Will and Capacity, which is due alone to the Grace and Power of God, by which the Work is both begun, carried on and accomplished. And herein relagians they, as well as both the Socinians and Pelagians, the like the web they do well in condemning their France.

though they do well in condemning their Errors; yet they miss it in settingup another, and not the Truth in Place thereof: And in that Respect are justly proved by such Scriptures, as their Adversaries (who otherwise are as far wrong as they) bring against them, in shewing the Depravity of Man's Will by Nature, and his Incapacity to do any Good, but as assisted by the Grace of God so to do.

On the other Hand its strange to observe, how many Protestants (the First Article of whose Confession of Faith is, to assert the the Scripture to be the Only Rule) should deny the Universal Extent of Christ's Death, contrary to the express Words of Scripture, which saith, He tasted Death for every Man: Or the Universality of Grace, and a sufficient Principle, which the Scriptures affert in as many positive Words, as (except we suppose the Pen-Men intended another thing, than they spake) it was possible to do, viz. A Manifessation of the Spirit is given to every Man to prosit withal; The Grace of God, that brings Salvation, bath appeared unto all Men: and many more before-mentioned. The like may be faid of their denying the Perfection of the Saints, and afferting ' the Impossibility of any Falling away from real Beginnings of true and faving Grace; contrary to so many express Scriptures, as are heretofore adduced in their proper Place. But to give all, that defire to be undeceived, a more full Opportunity to observe, how the Devil has abused many pretending to be Wife, in making them cloak with a Pretence of Scripture, false and pernicious Doctrines, I shall take a few of many Instances out of the Confession of Faith and Catechism made by the Divines at Westmister (so called,) because the same is not only most universally received and believed by the People of Britain and Ireland; but also containeth upon the Matter the Faith of the French Churches, and of most others, both in the Nether-Lands, and else-where: That it may appear, what wild Consequences these Men have sought, both contrary to the naked Import of the Words, and to all common Sense and Reason, to cover some of their Erroneous Principles.

CHAP. XVIII.

A short Examination of some of the Scripture-Proofs, alledged by the Divines at Westminster, to prove divers Articles in their Confession of Faith and Catechism.

It is not in the least my Design in this Chapter, to offer so large an Examination of any of their Articles, as might be done, nor yet of so many, as are very obvious; but only of Two or Three, to give the Reader a Taste of them for Examples sake: Whereby, as ex ungue Leonem,

1672. he may judge of most of all the Rest, if he will be at the Pains narrowly to look over and Examine them.

I shall begin with the First Chapter, Self. t. where they Affert Two things: First, That God has committed his Will wholly now to Writing. Secondly, That the former Ways of God's revealing his Will, as by Immediate Revelation, are now ceased. The Scriptures they bring to prove, are First, Prov. 22. 19, 20, -21. Verse 19. That thy Trust may be in the Lord, I have made known to thee this Day, even to thee. Verse 20. Have not I Written to thee excellent things in Counsel and Knowledge? Verse 21. That I might make thee know the Certainty of the Words of Truth, that thou mightest answer the Words of Truth to them that send unto thee. Luke 1. 3, 4. Verse 3. It seemed good to me also, having had perfect Understanding of all things from the very First, to write unto thee in Order, most excellent Theophilus, that thou mightest know the Certainty of these things, wherein thou hast been instructed. Rom. 15. 4. For what soever things were written aforetime, were written for our Learning, that we thro' Patience and Comfort of the Scriptures might have Hope. Matt. 4. 4, 7, 10. But be answered, and faid, It is written, Man Shall not live by Bread alone, but by every Word, that proceedethout of the Mouth of God. Verse 7. Fesus said unto him, It is written again, Thou shalt not Tempt the Lord thy God. Verse 10. Then saith Fesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan; for it is Written, Thou Malt Worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou ferve. Isai. 8. 19, 20. Verse 19. And when they shall say unto you, Seek unto them that have Familiar Spirits, and unto Wizzards, that peep and that mutter; Should not a People feek unto their God?

For the Living to the Dead? Verfe 20. To the Law and.

Their pretended Proofs for the written Word. and to the Testimony, if they speak not according to 1673. this Word, it is because there is no Light in them.

But is it not Matter of Admiration, that Men should be so beside themselves, as to imagine, these Testimonies doin the least prove their Assertion; or that others, that do not take things meerly upon Trust, would be so foolish, as to believe them: For though God made known and wrote excellent things to Solomon; Though Luke wrote unto Theophilus an Account of divers Transactions of Christ's outward Abode; (For many were never Written, John 21. Verse last, and 20. Many things 30. And there are also many other things, which fe-written. susdid, the which if they should be written every one, I suppose, that even the World it self could not contain the Books, that should be written: And many other things truly did Jesus in the Presence of his Disciples, which are not written in this Book); Though Christ made Use of divers Scriptures against Satan, and that Isaiab directed People to the Law, and to the Testimony; Who will be so mad as to fay, It naturally follows from thence, that God has now committed his Will wholly to Writing? Such a Confequence is no more deducible from these Scriptures, than if I should Argue thus; The Divines of Westminster have afferted many things without Ground, therefore they had Ground for nothing they said: Nay, it follows not by far fo naturally, seeing after the writing of all these Passages by them cited, according to their own Judgment, there were divers Scriptures written: So that it had been false for them to affert, That God had then committed his Counsel wholly to Writing; which indeed was not true: So it is most Irrational and Unwarrantable for any, to draw such a strange and strained Consequence from their Words.

For the Second, That the former Ways are now ceased, they alledge 2 Tim. 3. 15. where Paul

1672. writes to Timothy, faying, That from a Child he Pretended (Timothy) bath known the Holy Scriptures, which Pretended were able to make him Wise unto Salvation through Scripture Re Faith, which is in Christ Jesus. And Heb. 1. 1, 2. velations on-God, who at fundry times and in divers Manners spake in times past unto the Fathers by the Prophets, bath in these last Days spoken unto us by his Son, whom also he hath appointed Heir of all things, by whom also he made the Worlds. And 2 Pet. 1. 19. We have also a more sure Word of Prophesy, where. unto ye do well that ye take Heed, as unto a Light that shineth in a dark Place, until the Day dawn, and the Day Star arise in your Hearts. Which prove the Matter as little as the for-

Fobn's Revelarion when writ-

Erroneous.

Revelation was written long after: So that thefe former Ways were not then ceased. As for that of Peter, it is to beg the thing in Question, to fay, It is intended of the Scripture: And though it were, it proves not the Case at all. That of the Hebrews is so far from afferting the Matter they would have it, that it may be very aptly brought to prove the quite contrary. For God indeed speaks to us now by his Son; but to infer That the from thence, That the Son speaks only to us by the only by the Scriptures, remains yet unproved: And for the Scriptures, is Apostle to have afferted it, had been false; seeing the Revelations, which he and others afterwards had, were Inward, and so such were not ceafed. And if we may trust the same Apostle better than these Men, he tells us, that so soon as Christ was Revealed in him, he went strait and obeyed: And the same Apostle tells us, that Except Christ be in us, we are Reprobates. Sure, he is not dumb in us, feeing he fays, He will dwell in us, and walk in us, and be with us to the End

mer. If Paul had intended by that to Timothy, what those Divines would have, would not they have made the Apostle speak a manifest Untruth? Seeing they themselves acknowledge, that John's of the World. And John tells us, that the Inward 1672.

Anointing is to teach us all things; fo that we need not, as to any absolute Necessity, any Man to teach us: How then is this ceased, seeing God speaks to us by Christ, and Christ must be in us? Surely, these Men have not herein followed the Rule of the Scriptures; but rather endeavoured most grossy to wrest them, and make of them a Nose of Wax, notwithstanding their Prtences as to the Contrary in their Sixth Section, where they say: All things necessary are either expressy set down, or by good and necessary Consequences may be deduced.

Now that these two former Assertions are not expresly set down, they will not deny: Whether they follow by sound Consequence, any understanding Man may judge, by what is above obferved.

There are divers other things in the same Chapter, which will not abide the Test, for which the Scripture-Proofs alledged by them, are most ridiculous; which for Brevity's Sake I have omitted.

In Chap. 21. Self. 7. where they say, That the Sabbath from the Resurrection of Christ was changed into the First Day of the Week, which in Scripture (say they) is called the Lord's Day, and is to be continued to the End of the World, as the Christians Sabbath. In which they affert Three Things.

First, That the First Day of the Week is come in Place of the Seventh for a Sabbath. To prove which, they alledge I Cor. 16. 1, 2. Now concerning the Collection for the Saints, as I have the Distinct given Order to the Chuches of Galatia, even su do proofs, that ye. Upon the First Day of the Week let every one the list Day of you lay by him in Store, as God hath prospered is instead of him; that there be no Gathering, when I come, the Sabbath. Ats 20. 7. And upon the First Day of the Week,

X 2 when

Paul preached to them, ready to depart on the Morrow, and continued his Speech until Midnight.

That these Proofs affert not the things expresly, we need not, I suppose, dispute. Now to say, that because Paul desires the Corinthians to lay fornething by them in Store that Day; or because he break Bread, continued his Speech until Midnight; therefore the First Day of the Week is come in Place of the Sabbath: Is a Consequence more remarkable for its Sottishness, than to be credited for its Soundness. Indeed, to make so solemn an Article of Faith, as these Men would have the Morality of the First Day of the Week to be, would need a more positive and express Authority. The Text doth clearly enough tell the Reason of the Disciples Meeting so frequently, and of Paul's Preaching so long, because he was ready to depart to Morrow; it speaks not a Word of its being Sabbath.

Their Second Affertion, That the First Day of the Week is therefore called the Lord's Day, Is The Lord's drawn more strangely from that of Rev. I. 10. I was in the Spirit on the Lord's Day, and heard behind me a great Voice, as of a Trumpet: Whereas no particular Day of the Week is mentioned. So for them to say, John meaned the First Day of the Week, hath no more Proof, but their own bare Affertion.

For their Third Affertion, That it is to be contithe Sabnucd to the End of the World, as the Christian Sabbath Day.

bath, They that alledge these Scriptures, Exod20. 8, 10, 11. Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it Holy: But the Seventh Day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God; in it thou shalt not do any Work, thou northy Son, nor thy Daughter, nor thy Man-Sevant, nor thy Maid-Servant, nor thy Cattle, nor thy Stranger, which is within thy Gates: For in Six Days the Lord made Heaven and Earth, the Sea,

Sea and all that in them is, and rested the Seventh 1673. Day; wherefore the Lord bleffed the Sabbath Day, and ballowed it. Isai. 56. 2, 4, 6, 7. Matt. 5. 17, 18. Think not, that I am come to destroy the Law or the Prophets; I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil: For verily, I say unto you, Till Heaven and Earth pass, one fot or Tittle shall in no wife pass from the Law, till all be fulfilled.

If they prove any thing, they most needs prove the Continuance, of the Seventh Day; feeing in all the Law there is no mention made of the First The Seventh Day of the Week being a Sabbath. If these Day. may be reckoned good and found Confequences, I know no Absurdities so great, no Herefies so damnable, no Superstitions so ridiculous, but may be cloathed with the Authority of Scripture.

In their Twenty Seventh Chapter, in the 1, 2, 3. Sections, they speak at large of the Definition and Ntaure of Sacraments; but in all the Scripturesthey bring, there is not one Word of Sacraments. The Truthis, there was a good Reason for this Omission; for such a thing is not to be found in all the Bible. For them to alledge, The Word that the Thing signified is to be found in Scripture, not 10 ke (though that be also a begging of the Question) found in all will not excuse such, who elsewhere aver, The the Bible. Whole Counsel of God is contained in the Scripture, to forsake and reject the Tenour thereof, and scrape, out of the Rubbish of the Romish Tradition, for that which is reckoned by themselves so Substantial a Part of their Faith.

In their Fourth Section they affert Two things: First, That there are Two only Sacraments under the Gospel. Secondly, That these. Two are Baptism, and the Supper.

To prove which they alledge, Matt. 28. 19. Go ye therefore, and Teach all Nations, Baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, 1673. and of the Holy Gholt. 1 Cor. 11. 20, 23. When ye come together therefore into one Place, this is not to eat the Lord's Supper; for I have received of the Lord, that which also I delivered unto you, that the Lord Jesus the same Night, in which he was betrayed, took Bread. 1 Cor. 4. 1. Let a Man so account of us, as of the Ministers of Christ, and Stewards of the Mysteries of God. Heb. 5. 4. And no Man taketh this Honour to himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

Now granting, there were fuch a thing, as Sacraments, to be folemnly performed; all that these Scriptures will prove, is, That these Two are appointed to be performed: But that there are only Two, or that these are they (which is the thing afferted, and incumbent to be proved) there is not the least Shadow of Proof alledged. Fot ac. cording-to their own Definition of a Sacrament in the larger Catechism, where they say, The Parts of a Sacrament are Two; the one an outward and sensible Sign, used according to Christ's own Appointment; the other, an inward and Spiritual Grace thereby signified: Both the Washing of one another's Feet, and the Anointing the Sick with Oil doth answer to it, and many other Things. So that the Probation of a Sacrament at all, or of their being Two, Seven, yea, or Seventy, is all alike easy; seeing neither Name nor Number is to be found in the Scripture: They being the meer Conceits and Inventions of Men. And yet it is marvellous to fee, with how great Confidence fome Men do affert the Scripture to be their Rule; while they build up to confiderable Parts of their Doctrine without the least Scripture-Foundation. .

Thus I thought fit to pitch upon these Three, viz. the Scriptures, Sabbath and Sacraments, because these he Three of the main things, for which the Quakers are chiefly cried out against, and accused, as believing Erroneously concerning them. Now 1672. what we believe concerning these things, and how agreeable our Testimony herein is to the Scriptures, is heretofore sufficiently demonstrated: Also, how little Scripture-Proof these have for their centrary Assertions to us in these things, netwithstanding of their great Pretences to Scripture, will also appear to the Unby assertions.

PREFACE

READER.

SUCH is the Malignity of Man's Nature in his fallen State, and so averse is he from walking in the Straight and Even Path of TRUTH, that at every turn be is inclinable to lean either to the Right Hand or to the Left; yea, such as by the Work of God's Grace in their Hearts, and powerful Operation of his Spirit have obtained an Entrance in this way, are daily molested, and set upon on all Hands; some striving to draw them the one Way, some the other: And if through the Power of God they be kept faithful and stable, then are they Calumninated on both Sides; each likening or comparing them to the Worst of their Enemies.

Those that are acquainted with the Holy Scriptures, may observe this to be the Lot of the Saints in all Ages; but especially those, whose Place it hath been to Reform and Restore the Ruins of the House of God, when decayed, or any considerable Time have been liable to such Censures: Hence those that set about Repairing of the Walls of Jerusalem, were necessitated to work with the one Hand, and defend with the other.

Christ is accused of the Jews as a Samaritan; and by the Samaritans quarrelled for being a Jew. The Apostle Paul is whipped and imprisoned by the

II.

Work of an Apostacy, to keep up the Shadow of certain Truths; that there-through they might shelter other Evils. Thus the Jews made U/c of the Law and the Prophets to vindicate their Abuses; yea, and to Crucify Christ: And how much many Christians abuse the Scriptures and the Traditions of the Apostles, to uphold Things quite contrary to it, will in the General be readily acknowledged by molt.

But to descend more particularly; There be Two Things especially, both of which in their Primitive Use were appointed; and did very much contribute towards the Edification of the Church: The one is,

The Power and Authority, which the Apostles had given them of Christ, for the Gathering, Building up and Governing of his Church; by Virtue of which Power and Authority they also wrote the Holy Scriptures.

The other is, That Priviledge given to every Christian under the Gospel, to be led and guided by the Spirit of Christ, and to be taught thereof in all Things.

Now, both thefe in the Primitive Church wrought effectually towards the same End of Edification; and did (as in their Nature they may, and in their Use they ought to do) in a good Harmony very well consist together: But by the Workings of Satan and Perverseness of Men, they are made to fight against and destroy one another. For on the one Hand the Authority and Power, that resided in the Apostles while it is annexed and entailed to an outward Ordination and Succession of Teachers, is made Use of to cloak and cover all Manner of Abuses, even the Height of Idolatry and Superstition. For by Virtue of this Succession, these Men claiming the like Infallibility, that was in the Apostles (though they be Strangers to any inward Work, or Manifestation of the Spirit in their Hearts) will needs oblige all others to acquiesce and ogree to their Conclusions, bowever however different from, or contrary to the Truths of the Gospel; and yet for any to call such Conclusions in Question, or Examine them, is no less than a Hainous Herefy, descring Death, &c. Or while the Revelation of God's Mind is wholly bound up to these Things already delivered in the Scriptures, (as if God had spoke his last Words there * so faith to his People *) we are put with our own Natural

mong the Presbyteri-Exposition upon the James Dur. Understandings to debate about the Meanings of ted Man a- it, and forced to interpret them not as they plainly speak, but according to the Analogy of a certain ans, in his Faith made by Men, not so much contrived to anfwer the Scriptures, as the Scriptures are strained Revelations to vindicate it: which to doubt of, is also counted Herefy, deserving no less than Ejection out of our Native Country, and to be robbed of the common Aid our Nativity entitles us to. And on this hand. we may boildly say, both Papists and Protestants have greatly gone aside.

On the other Hand, some are so great Pretenders to Inward Motions and Revelations of the Spirit, that there are no Extravagancies so wild. which they will not cloak with it; and so much are they for every One's following their own Mind, as can admit of no Christian Fellowship and Community, nor of that good Order and Discipline, which the Church of Christ never was nor can be without. This gives an open Door to all Libertinism, and brings great Reproach to the Christian Faith. And on this Hand have foully fallen the German Anabaptists, so call'd, John of Leyden, Knipperdolling, &c. (in Case these monstrous Things committed by them be such as they are related) and some more moderate of that Kind have been found among the People in England, called Ranters; as it is true, the People called Quakers have been branded with both of these Extreams: It is as true, it bath been and is their Work to avoid them; and to be found in that even and good Path

Path of the Primitive Church, where all were (no doubt) led and afted by the Holy Spirit; and might all have Prophesied one by one; and yet there was a Subjection of the Prophets to the Spirits of the Prophets. There was an Authority some had in the Church, and yet it was for Edification, and not for Destruction: There was an Obedience in the Lord to such as were set over; and a being taught by such, and yet a Knowing of the Inward Anointing, by which each Individual was to be led into all Truth. The Work and Testimony the Lord bath given us is, to restore this again, and to set both these in their right Place, without causing them to destroy one another. To manifest how this is Accomplished, and Accomplishing among us, is the Business of this Treatise; which, I hope, will give some Satisfaction to Men of Sober Judgments, and impartial and unprejudicate Spirits: And may be made useful in the good Hand of the Lord, to Confirm and Establish Friends against their present Opposers; Which is mainly intended and earnestly prayed for By SECTION I.

The Introduction and Method of this Treatife.

Fter that the Lord God in his own ap The End of pointed Time had seen meet to put an Beginning of End to the Dispensation of the Law, the Gossel-which was delivered to the Children of Israel by recited. the Ministry of Moses; through and by whom he did communicate unto them in the Wilderness from Mount Sinai divers Commandments, Ordinances, Appointments and Observations, according as they are testified in the Writings of the Law; it pleased him to send his own Son the Lord Jesus Christ in the Fulness of Time: who having perfectly fulfilled the Law and the Righteousness thereof, gave Witness to the Dispensation of the Gospel. And having approved himfelf, and the Excellency of his Doctrine, by many great and wonderful Signs and Miracles, he fealed it with his Blood; and triumphing over Death (of which it was impossible for him to be held) he cherished and encouraged his despised Witnesses, who had believed in him, in that he appeared to them, after he was raised from the Dead; comforting them with the Hope and Affurance forance of the pouring forth of his Spirit, by which they were to be led and ordered in all things; in and by which he was to be with them to the End of the World, not suffering the Gates of Hell to prevail against them. By which Spirit come upon them, they being filled, were embolded to preach the Gospel without Fear; and in a short Time Thousands were added to the Church: and the Multitude of them that believed were of one Heart and of one Soul, and great Love and Zeal prevailed, and there was nothing lacking for a Season.

The Divers Sorts of them that were called in the Apoft.es Days.

But all that were caught in the Net, did not prove good and wholsom Fish; some were again to be cast into that Ocean, from whence they were drawn: Of those many that were called, all proved not chosen Vessels fit for the Master's Use; and of all that were brought into the great Supper, and Marriage of the King's Son, there were that were found without the Wedding-Garment. Some made a Shew for a Season, and afterwards fell away: there were that drew back; there were that made Shipwrack of Faith, and of a good Conscience: There were not only such as did backflide themselves, but sought to draw others into the same Perdition with themselves, feeking to overturn their Faith also: yea, there were that brought in Damnable Heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them. And also of those Members that became not wholly corrupt (for some were never again restored by Repentance:) there were that were weak, and fickly, and young; some were to be fed with Milk, and not with strong Meat; some were to be purged, when the Old Leaven received any Place; and some to be cut off for a Season, to be thut out (as it were) of the Camp for a Time, until their Leprofy were healed, and then to be received in again. More-

Moreover as to Outwards, there was the Care of 1674. the Poor, of the Widow, of the Fatherless, of the Strangers, &c. Therefore the Lord Jesus Christ, The Order who is the Head of the Body, the Church, (for church of the Church is the Body of Christ, and the Saints God in the Outward. are the several Members of that Body) knowing in his Infinite Wildom, what was needful for the good Ordering and Disposing all things in their proper Place, and for preferving and keeping all things in their right Station, did in the Dispensation and Cummunication of his Holy Spirit minister unto every Member a Measure of the same Spirit, yet divers according to Operation, for the Edification of the Body; fome Apostles, some Teachers, some Pastors, some Elders: There are Old Men, that are Young Men, there are Babes. For all are not Apostles, neither are all Elders, neither are all Babes; yet are all Members: And as fuch, all have a Sense and Feeling of the Life of the Body, which from the Head flows unto all the Body, as the Vintment of Aaron's Beard unto the Skirts of his Garment: And every Member has its Place and Station in the Body, fo long as it keeps in the Life of the Body; and all have need one of another: yet is no Member to assume another Place in the Body, than God has given it; nor yet to grudge or repine its Fellow-Member's Place; but to be content with its own: For the uncomely Parts are no less needful than the comely; and the less honourable than the more honourable: which the Apostle Paul holds forth in 1 Cor. 12. from Verse 13 to 30.

Now the Ground of all Schiffins, Divisions or The Ground Rents in the Body is, whenas any Member affilmes of Rents and another Place than is allotted it; or being gone from the Life and Unity of the Body, and loofing the Sense of it, lets in the Murmurer, the Eye that Watches for Evil, and not in holy Care over its Fellow-Members: And then, instead of coming down to fudgment in it felf, will stand up and judge its Fellow-Members, yea, the whole Body, or those whom God has set in a more Honourable and Eminent Place in the Body than it self. Such suffer not the Word of Exhortation; and term the Reproofs of Instruction (which is the Way of Life) Imposition and Oppression, and are not aware how far they are in the Things they condemn others for; while they spare not to reprove and revile all their Fellow-Members: Yet if they be but admonished themselves, they cryout, as if their great Charter of Gospel-Liberty were broken.

The Subtilty of that Spirit.

Now, though such, and the Spirit by which they are acted, be sufficiently seen and felt by Thousands, whose Hearts God has so established, as they are out of Danger of being intangled in that Snare; and who have Power and Strength in themselves to judge that Spirit, even in its most fubtil Appearances: Yet there are, who cannot fo well withstand the Subtilty and seeming Sincerity some such pretend to, though in Measure they have a Sight of them; and others, that cannot fo rightly distinguish between the precious and the vile; and some there are that through Weaknels and want of true Discerning, may be deceived, and the Simplicity in them betrayed for a Season; as it is written, With fair Speeches and smooth Words they deceive the Hearts of the Simple.

Therefore having, according to my Measure, received an Opening in my Understanding as to these things, from the Light of the Lord, and having been for some Time under the weighty Sense of them, I find at this Instant a Freedom to commit them to Writing, for the more Universal Benefit and Edification of the Church of Christ.

Now, for the more plain and clear Opening 1674. and Understanding of these things, it is sit to The Heads sum up this Treatise in these following general treated of; Heads, to be considered of:

First, From whence the Ground and Cause of this Controversy is, the Rife and Root of it?

Secondly, Whether there be now any Order and II.

Government in the Church of Christ?

Thirdly, What is the Order and Government which we plead for? In what Cases, and how sar it may extend? In whom the Power decisive is, and how it differeth? And is wholly another, than the Oppressing and Persecuting Principality of the Church of Rome, and other Anti-christian Assemblies.

SECTION II.

Concerning the Ground and Cause of this CONTROVERSY.

WHenas the Lord God by his mighty Power The Rest began to visit the Nations with the Dawn Dawning of the Heaven. ing of his Heavenly Day (for thus I write untoly Day of those that have received and believed the Truth) the Lord deficited. and that he fent forth his Instruments, whom he had fitted and prepared for his Work, having fashioned them not according to the Wisdom and Will of Man, but to his own heavenly Wildom and Counsel, they went forth and preached the Gospel in the Evidence and Demonstration of the And break-Spirit: Not in the enticing Words of Man's Wisdom; but in Appearance as Fools and Mad, to those that judged according to Man. But their Words and Testimony pierced through into the inner Man in the Heart, and reached to that of God in the Conscience; whereby as many as were simple hearted, and waited for the Redemp-

1674: tion of their Souls, received them as the Meffengers of the Most High God; and their Words were unto them, not as the Words of Men, but as the Words of God: for in the Receiving and Embracing the Testimony of Truth through them, they felt their Souls eased, and the acceptable Day began to dawn in and upon them.

Now what Evidence brought these Men to make their Testimony to be received? Did they entice? Did they flatter? Did they daub up? Did they preach Liberty to the Flesh, or Will of Man? Nay verily, they used no such Method: Their Words were as Thunder-Bolts, knocking down all that stood in their way, and pouring down the Judgment of God upon the Head of the Transgreffor every where. Did they spare the zealous Professor more than the open Profane? Nay verily, they condemned equally the Hypocrify of the one, as well as the Profanity of the other; yet wanted they not regard to the tender Seed and Plant of God in either. Did they give way? Did they yield to the Wildom of Man? To the Deceitfulness of the Serpent, that would reason Truth for themselves, saying, I must stay, until I be convinced of this and that, and the other thing; I fee not yet this to be wrong, or the other thing to be my Duty? How did they knock down this Manner of Reasoning by the Spirit of God, which wrought mightily in them, shewing and holding forth, that this is the Day of the Lord that is dawned; that all are invited to come; that none ought to tarry behind; that that which fo pleadeth, is the fame Spirit, which of Old Time faid in those that were invited, I cannot come yet, I must first marry a Wife; I must go prove my Toke of Oxen; I must go visit my Possessions; let me first bury my dead Father. Did not the Lord through them testify and declare against these things? And is there not a Cloud of Witnesles.

neffes, who felt the Enemy thus reasoning to keep 1674. us in the Forms, Fellowships, false Worships and foolish Fashions of this World? But we felt, as we were obedient, all thele things to be for Condemnation; and that, as we obeyed the pure Manifestation of the Light of Jesus in our Hearts. there was no Hesitation. We might and should have parted with all those things at the First; and what occasioned fuch Scruples, was but that which drew back, through being unwilling to give pure Obedience to the Cross of Christ: For as many as gave Obedience, and believed in the Light, found no Occasion of stumbling; but fuch as believed not were condemned already, because they believed not in him that appeared. Now the Boldness, and Courage, and Efficacy of The Courthese Messengers Testimony wrought such Asto-age of the nishment, Fear and Amazement in the Hearts of fuch as were ingenuous, that many began to be inwardly pricked, as in the Days of Old, and the Foundations of many began to be shaken; and some that were asleep were awakened, and many that were dead and buried in the Graves of Sin, and Formality, and Superstition and Idolatry of all Sorts, were alarmed; and many were brought in from the Hedges and the High-Ways, and the Truth was received by Thousands with great Cheerfulness and a Readiness of Mind: And the Feet of those were beheld to be beautiful upon the Mountains, that brought the glad Tidings of these good Things. And great Lowliness and Simplicity of Heart was upon such, that were newly Convinced of the Truth, and deep Humiliation of Spirit, and Subjection to the Power, both in themselves, and in those who were over them in the Lord, and had gathered them into the Truth.

But as it was in the Gatherings of Old, so it also fell out in this Day; all kept not their First Love

1674. Love: As among those Thousands, which Moses Vled out of Egypt, and carried through the Red Sea, who had Sung Praises to God upon the Banks of Salvation, many Carcales fell in the Wilderness; some who Murmured and longed to return again to the Flesh Pots of Egypt; and some for Opposing and contradicting the Servant, and Servants of the Lord, whom the Lord had made Use of to lead them out of Bondage, in faying; Te take too much upon you; Hath the Lord indeed only spoken by Moses? Hath he not spoken also by us? And as among these Multitudes, which were gathered by the Apostles, there were many, who continued not Faithful to the End; some returned back again with the Sow to the Puddle, after they were washed; some embraced the present World; fome again separated themselves, being sensual and without the Spirit, despising Dominion, and Speaking Evil of Dignities; their Mouths speaking great swelling Words, being puffed up, and not abiding in these things, which they were taught of the Apostles: So it is to be lamented, that among these many Thousands, whom the Apostles and Evangelists whom God raised up in This Day (for the gathering of his Seed and Peo. ple out of spiritual Egypt and Babylon into his pure Light and Life) did bring forth and gather, there are that have Falled upon the right Hand and the left. Some are turned back again into Egypt, running into the same Excess of Lust and Riot, from whence they were once purified and redeem'd:Some could not bear the Reproach of the Cross of Christ; and were by and anon offended in him: Some could not bear the Tribulations, Sufferings and Persecutions, which came for the Truth's Sake : and the Seed in them was foon fcorched with the Heat of the Day. And some not abiding in Subjection to the Truth in themselves, were not contented with that Place and Station in the Body, which which God had placed them in; but became 1674. vainly puft up in their fleshly Minds, intruding into those things which they have not feen: And would needs be Innovators, given to Change, and Innovators introducing new Dostrines and Practices, not on- causing Dily differing, but contrary to what was already delivered in the Beginning; making Parties, caufing Divisions and Rents, stumbling the Weak, and denying, despising and reviling the Apostles and Messengers of Christ, the Elders of the Church, who loved not their Lives unto Death, but through much Care, and Travel, and Watchings, and Whippings, and Bonds, and Beatings in daily Jeopardy gathered us by the mighty Power of God in the most pretious Truth. Yet in all this there hath nothing befallen us, but that which hath been the Antient Lot of the Church of Christ in the Primitive Times. Now He, that was careful for his Church and The good

People in old times, hath not been wanting to us Shepherd of in our Day; but as he has again Restored the over his Truth unto its primitive Integrity and Simplici Church and ty, and as he has delivered our Understandings People. from these false Doctrines and Priciples, which prevailed in the Apostacy; so he hath not gathered us to be As Sheep scattered without a Shepherd, that every one may run his own Way, and every one follow his own Will, and so to be as a confused Mass or Chaos without any Order; but He, even the LORD hath also gathered and is gathering us into the Good Order Discipline and Government of his own Son the Lord Jesus Christ: Therefore he hath laid Care upon fome beyond others, who Watch for the Souls of their Brethren, as they, that must give Account.

There are then Fathers, that have begotten us The Several unto Christ Jesus through the Gospel, of whom Stations in the Church. we ought to be Followers, and to remember their 1 Cor. 4.15, Ways, which be in Christ. There are then Fa. 16, 17.

thers and Childern, Instructors and Instructed, Elders and Young Men, yea, and Babes; there are that cannot cease, but must Exhort, Instruct, Reprove, Condemn, Judge; or else, for what End gave Christ the Gifts mentioned Epbes. 4. 11, 12?

And how are the Saints perfected? And the Body of Christ Edified of those, who came under the Cognizance, and as it were, the Test of this Order and Government? I may chiefly sum them up in Three Sorts (though there be divers others little subdivided Species of them.)

r Prophane Backfliding Apostates.

The First is, Those that turn openly back to the World again, through finding the Way of Truth too Narrow. These have not been capable to do us any cousiderable Hurt; for being as Salt, that has lost its Savour, they mostly prove a Stink among those, to whom they go: And I never knew any of them, that proved any ways fleadable to those, to whom they go. I find other Professors make but small Boast of any Profelytes they got out from among us; I hear little of their proving Champions for the Principles of others against us. And indeed, for the most Part they lose all Religion with the Truth: For I have heard some of them fay; That if ever they took on them to be Religious, they would come back again to the Quakers, &c.

2 Unwary Repenting Sinners.

Secondly, Those, who through Unwatchfulness, the secret Corruption of their own Hearts, and the mysterious or hidden Temptations of the Enemy have fallen into his Snares; and so have come under the Power of some Temptation or other, either of sleshly Lusts, or of Spiritual Wickedness: Who being seasonably warned by those that keep their Habitation, and faithful Overseers in the Church; have been again Restored by unseigned Repentance: Not kicking against the Pricks; but have rejoyced, that others watched over them for their Good: And are become 1674.

Monuments of God's Mercy unto this Day.

Thirdly, Such, who being departed from their self-Sepa-First Love and Antient Zeal for the Truth, be rating, troucome Cold and Lukewarn; and yet are ashamed blesome Opposers. to make open Apostacy, and to turn back again. fo as to deny all the Principles of Truth, they having had already fuch Evidence of Clearness upon their Understanding: Yet not keeping low in their own Habitations, but being puffed up, and giving Way to the restless Imaginations of their Exalted and Wondring Minds, fall out with their Brethren; cause Divisions; begin to find fault with every thing, and to look at others more, than at themselves; with swelling Words to talk of and preach up a Higher Dispensation, while they are far from living up to the Life and Perfection of this present; like unto such, who faid, We will not have this Man to Rule over ws: Cry out of Formality and Apostacy, because they are not followed in all things; and if they be reproved for their Unruliness, according to the good Order of the Church of Christ, then they cry out, Breach of Liberty, Oppression, Persecution! we will have none of your Order and Government; we are taught to follow the Light in our Consciences, and not the Orders of Men. Well, of this hereafter; but this gave the Rife of this Controversy: Which leads me to that, which I proposed in the Second Place,

SECTION III.

Whether there be now to be any-Order or Government in the Church of Christ.

N Answer to this Proposition I meddle not at this Time with those, that deny any such thing, 1674. thing, as a Church of Christ; I have reserved their Plea to another Place. Neither need I to be at much Pains to prove the Affirmative, to Church or- Wit. That their ought to be Government and Order der and Go. in the Church of Christ, unto the Generality of our Oppofers, both Papists and Protestants; who readily confess and acknowledge it, and have heretofore blamed us for Want of it. The' now fome of them, and that of the highest Pretenders, are become fo unreasonable, as to accuse us for the Use of it; improving it so far as they can, to our Disadvantage: For such is the Blindness of partial Envy; that whereas the supposed Want of it was once reckoned Heretical. now the present Performance of it is counted Criminal

These then, to whom I come to prove this Thing, are fuch, who having cast off the Yoke of the Crofs of Christ in themselves, refuse all Subjedion or Government: Denying, that any such thing ought to be, as disagreeing with the Testimony of Truth: Or those, who not being so wilful and obstinate in their Minds, yet are tearful or scrupulous in the Matter, in respect of the dangerous Confequences, they may apprehend, fuch a thing may draw after it.

For the clearing then as well the Mistakes of the one, as answering the Cavils of the other, I judge, the Truth of these following Affertions will fufficiently prove the Matter; which I shall make no great Difficulty to Evidence.

First, That Jesus Christ, the King and Head of Reafon I. the Church, did appoint and ordain, that there should be Order and Government init.

Secondly, That the Apostles and primitive Chri-11. stians, when they were filled with the Holy Ghost. and immediately led by the Spirit of God, did Pra-Etise and Commend it.

Thirdly, That the same Occasion and Necessity HI.

now occurring, which gave them Opportunity to exer- 1674. cife that Authority; the Church of Christ bath the Jame Power now, as ever, and are led by the Jame Spirit into the Same Practices.

As to the First, I know, there are some, that the very Name of a Church, and the very Words Order and Government, they are afraid of. Now the Abuse this I suppose hath proceeded, because of the great wold the true Hypocrify, Deceit and Oppression, that hathuse. been cloaked with the Pretence of these things; But why should the Truth be neglected, because Hypocrites have pretended to it? The right Institution of these things, which have been appointed and ordained of God, must not, nor ought not to be dispised, because corrupt Men have abused and perverted them. I know not any thing, that hath been more abused and perverted in the whole World, than the Name of a Christian; Shall we then renounce that Honourable Title, because so many Thousands of wicked Men, yea, Autichrists have falfly assumed it to themselves? The Man of Sin hath taken upon him to fit in the Temple of God, as God; yet we must not therefore deny, that God is in this Temple. If the Synagogue of Satan affumed the Name of the Church of Christ, and hath termed her Oppression and Violence, the Power and Authority thereof; Therefore must not the Church of Chirst and its Authority be exercised, where it truly is according to his Mind? This I prefix to warn all to beware of stumbling at things, which are Innocent in themselves; and that we may labour to hold the steady, even Path of Truth, without running in either of the Extreams. For that lefus Christ did appoint Order and Government to be in the Church, is very clear from his plain Words, Matt. 18. 15, 16, 17, 18. Ver. 15. More-Church-Orover, if thy Brother shall trestass against thee, goed by Christ tell bim his Fault tetween thee and him alone; if and the be of.

1674. be shall bear thee, thou hast gained thy Brother. Ver. 16. But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the Mouth of two or three Witnesses every Word may be established. Ver. 17. And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the Church: But if he neglect to hear the Church, let him be unto thee as an Heathen-Man. and a Publican. Ver. 18. Verily, I fay unto you, what soever ye shall bind on Earth, Shall be bound in Heaven; and what soever ye shall loose on Earth, shall be loofed in Heaven. From which Scripture it doth manifestly and evidently follow, First, That Jesus Christ intended, there should be a certain Order and Method in his Church, in the Procedure towards such as Transgress. Secondly, That he that refuseth to hear two, is become more guilty, (as hardned) than in refusing to hear him, that first reproved alone. Thirdly, That refusing to hear the Judgment of the Church, or whole Affembly, he doth thereby exclude himfelf, and thut out himfelf from being a Member; and is justly judged by his Brethren, as an Heathen and a Publican.

And lastly, that the Church, Gathering or Asfembly of God's People has Power to Examin and call to Account such, as appearing to be among them, or owning the same Faith with them, do Transgress; and in Case of their refusing to hear, or Repent, to Exclude them from their Fellowship: And that God hath a special Regard to the Judgment and Sense of his People thus orderly proceeding, fo as to hold fuch bound in Heaven, whom they bind on Earth, and fuch loofed in Heaven, whom they loofe on Earth. I am partly confident, that no rational Man will deny, but that these naturally follow from the abovementioned Scripture; and if there should be any found founreasonable, as to deny it, I could prove it by necessary and unevitable Consequences: Which

Which at present, as taking it for granted, I 1674. forbear to do. If it be reckoned fo great a Crime to offend one of the little Ones, that it were better for him, that so do, that a Milstone were banged about his Neck, and he were drowned in the Depth of the Sea; without Question, to Offend and Gainfay the whole Flock must be more criminal, and must draw after it a far deeper Judgment.

Now if there were no Order nor Government in the Church, what should become of those that Transgress? How should they be again Restored? The End Would not this make all Reproving, all Instruct order. ing, all Caring for, and Watching over one another, void and null? Why should Christ have desired them to proceed after this Method? Why doth he place fo much Weight upon the Judgment of the Church, as to make the refusing of Hearing it to draw so deep a Censure after it; which he will not have to follow the refusing to hear one or two apart, though the Matter be one and the same? And so as to the Substantial and Intrinfick Truth of the Thing, there lies the fame Obligation upon the Transgressor to hear that one, as well as all; for that one adviseth him to that which is Right and Good, as well as the whole: and they do but Homologate or Confirm that, which that one hath already afferted: Yet Jesus Christ, who is the Author of Order, and not of Confusion, will not have a Brother cut off, or reputed a Publican, for refusing to hear one or two, but for refusing to hear the Church. And if it be Objected, That the Church of Rome, and all other false Churches, make use of this Scripture, and cover their Perfecution, and Cruelty, and Oppression by it; and thou sayst no more than they say. I Answer; I suppose no Man will be fo Unreasonable, as to Affirm, that the Church of Rome abusing this Scripture, will make it false in it self; but how we differ in our Appli-

1674. cation of this Scripture, shall be spoken of hereafter. I am not now claiming Right to this Power, as due to us (that is referved for another Place:) but this, I fay, is that, which I now aver to be Manifest from the Scripture-Testimony, and to be in it felf an Unquestionable Truth, That Jesus Christ intended, there should be Order and Government in his Church; which is the Thing at present in Hand to be proved: which if it be so really true (as it cannot be denied) then I hope, it will also necessarily follow, that fuch, who really and truly are the Church of Christ, have Right to exercise this Order and Government.

Secondly, That the Apostles and Primitive Reason II. Christians did Practice Order and Government. Churchwe need but read the History of the Acts, Order Pradifed by the which I shall mention a few Pregnant and Unde-Apostles and niable Testimonies, as we may observe in the Primitive very first Chapter of the Asts, from Verse 13. to Christians. --- In Electithe End, where at the very First Meeting the OHIS.

Apostles and Brethren, held together after the Ascension of Christ, they began orderly to Appoint one to fulfil the Place of Judas; it may be thought, this was a Needless Ceremony; yet we see, how the Lord countenanced it. I hope, none will fay, that the Apostles appointing of these two Men, or of him, upon whom the Lot did not fall, Contradicted their Inward Freedom, or Imposed upon it; but both agreed very well together; the one in the Will and Movings of God in Appointing, and the other in the same in submitting to their Appointment.

Moreover, after they had received the Holy Ghoft, you may Read, Alls 6. fo foon as there --- in Diffri- was an Opportunity, how they wifely gave Order concerning the Distribution of the Poor, and Appointed some Men for that Purpose. So here butions for was Order and Government, according to the Present Necessity of the Case: And the Lord 1674. God was well pleased with it, and the Word of God encreased, and the Number of the Disciples multiplied in Ferufalem greatly. Might they not have said then, as some say now; We will give our Charity to whom we see Cause; and we will take no Notice of your Appointments and Orders? Whether would God have approved of fuch, yea, or nay?

Present

Thirdly, When that the Business of Circumcifion fell in, whether it was fit or not to Circumcise the Gentiles? We see, the Apostles saw not meet, To Suffer every one to follow their own Minds and Wills: They did not judge, as one confused- w. M. in Iy supposeth, That this Difference in an outward his Queries. Exercise would commend the Unity of the True Faith: Nay, they took another Method. It is faid expresly, A.7s 15. 16. And the Apostles and Elders came together to consider of this Mitter; and after there had been much disputing about it -in Diffe-(no doubt then, there were here Diversities of O-ring. pinions and Judgments) the Apostles and Ellers told their Judgments, and came also to a P. sitive Conclusion. Sure, some behaved to submir, else they should never have agreed. So those that were the Elders gave a Positive Judgment; and they were bold to fay; That it pleafed not only them, but the Holy Ghost. By all which it doth undeniably appear, that the Apostles, and Primitive Saints, practifed a Holy Order and Government among themselves: And I hope, none will be so bold as to say, they did these Things without the Leadings of the Spirit of God, and his Power and Authority concurring, and going along with them.

And that these Things were not only Singular The App-Practices; but that they held it Doctrin Illy, flesh brine that is to say, it was Doctrine, which they order or the preached, that there ought to be Order and Go. Church.

1674. vernment in the Church, is manifest from these following Testimonies. 1 Cor. 4. 15, 16, 17. (15.) 1 Cor. 4.15. For though you have Ten Thousand Instructors in 16, 17. Christ; yet have ye not many Fathers: for in Christ

Fefus I have begotten you through the Gospel. (16.) Wherefore I befeech you, be ye Followers of me. (17.) For this Cause have I sent unto you Timotheus, who is my beloved Son, and faithful in the Lord; who shall bring you into Remembrance of my Ways, which be in Christ, as I teach every where in every Church. Here the Apostle Paul is very Absolute: First, In that he desires them to be Followers of him. Secondly, In that he fends a Teacher, yea, a Minister, and Eminent Bishop or Overseer of the Church, for to put them in Mind of his Ways, which be in Christ, as he taught in every Church. No doubt, there were Apostates, and Diffenting Spirits in the Church of Corinth, that gave Paul Occasion thus to write, as he Testifies in the Beginning of the Chapter, how he was Judged by Jome of them; he shews, how they were grown High, ver. 8. Now ye are full, now ye are rich, ye have reigned as Kings without us, &c. Might not these Diffenters of Differing the Church of Corintb, have reasoned thus against

Reasonings Paul? Did not this Paul teach us, at first, to mind Church Go. the Measure of Grace in our selves, and follow that? (for no doubt, that was Paul's Doctrine) but now he begins to Lord it over us, and tells us, we must be Followers of him. Might not they have judged the Beloved Timothy to be far out of his Place? Might they not have faid; It feems it is not God that moved thee, and fent thee here by his Spirit; but Lordly Paul, that feeks Dominion over our Faith: It feems, thou comest not here to preach Christ, and wish us to be Followers of him, and of his Grace in our Hearts; but to mind us to follow Paul's Ways, and take notice, how he Teaches in every Church: We are not not concerned with him, nor with his Messenger, 1674. nor with none of your Orders; and so forth. Doth not this run very Plaufible? I question not, but there was fuch a Reasoning among the A-postate Corinthians; let such as are of the same kind among us, examine feriously, and Measure their Spirits truly hereby. Yea, he goes yet further in the following Chapter, ver. 3, 4. Ver.

3. As absent in Body, but present in Spirit, have 3 I Cor. 5. Judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this Deed. Ver. 4. In of giving Judament in the Name of our Lord fesus Christ, when ye are the Churchgathered together, and my Spirit with the Power of our Lord Jesus Christ, &c. Would not one think this to have been a very presumptuous Word? And yet who dare offer to condemn it? From all which I shall shortly observe, that it feems, it was judged no Inconfistancy nor Contradiction, to be Followers of the Grace in themselves, to be per-Swaded in their own Hearts, and also to be Followers of the Apostle Paul and of his Ways; because his Ways and Example was no other, than the Spirit of God in themselves would have led them to, if they had been Obedient. Therefore he found it needful to charge them positively to follow him, without adding this Reason. Next, the great Argument the Apostle uses to perswade them hereunto, upon which he mainly infifts, because he had begotten them into the Truth; Te have not many Fathers; for in Christ -As of Fa-Jesus I have begotten you through the Gospel: Wherefore I beseech you, be ye Followers of me. So he makes that as the Cause; which the same Apoftle also in his Expostulation with the Galatians, putting them in mind, how he preached the Gofpel to them at First, and Chap. 4. Ver. 15. Where is then the Blessedness ye spake of? For I bear you Record, if possible, ye would have plucked out your own Eyes, and given them unto me. We see then,

Now though the Papists greatly abuse this Place, as if hereby they could justify that Mass of Superstition, which they have heaped together; yet except we will deny the plain Scripture, we must needs believe, there lay an Obligation upon the Thessalonians to observe and hold these Appointments, and no Doubt, needful Institutions, which by the Apostles were recommended unto them: And yet who will fay, that they ought or were thereby commanded to do any thing contrary to that, which the Grace of God in their Hearts moved them to?

Jude 8. Likewise also these filthy Dreamers desile the Flesh, dispise Dominion, and speak Evil of Dignities.

I might at length enlarge, if needful, upon these Passages; any of which is sufficient to prove the Matter in Hand: But that what is faid, may fatisfy fuch, as are not wilfully Blind and Obstinate. For there can be nothing more plain from these Testimonies, than that the Antient Apostles and primitive Christians practised the Primitive Christians Order and Government in the Church; That forme ans Order did Appoint, and Ordain certain things; Con practifed in the Church. demn, and Approve certain Practices, as well as Doctrines by the Spirit of God: That there lay an Obligation in Point of Duty upon others to Obey and Submit: That this was no Fucroachment, nor Imposition upon their Christian Liberty; nor any ways contradictory to their being inwardly and immediately led by the Spirit of God in their Hearts: And lastly, That such, as are in the true Feeling and Sense, will find it their Places to Obey, and be one with the Church of Christ in such like Cases: And that it's such, as have loft their Sense and Feeling of the Life of the Body, that Diffent and are Disobedient under the false Pretence of Liberty. So that thus it is sufficiently proved, what I undertook in this Place.

Thirdly, I judge, their will need no great Arguments to prove, the People of God may and do well to Exercise the like Government upon the very like Occasion. For even Reason may teach us, that what proved good and wholfome Cures to the Diftemper of the Church in former Ages, will not now (the very like Diftempers falling in) prove hurtful and poisonable; espicially, if We have the Testimony of the same Spirit in our Hearts, not only allowing us, but commanding us foto do. It is ma-

We find (to our great Grief) that some walk disorderly; and some are pussed up, and strive to sow Division, labouring to stumble the Weak, and to cause Offences in the Church of Christ: What then is more suitable, and more Christian, than to follow the Foot-steps of the Flock, and to labour and travel for the Good of the Church, and for the removing all that is hurtful; even as the Holy Apostles, who walked with Jesus, did before us? If there be such that walk diforderly now; Must not they be Admonished, Rebuked and withdrawn from, as well as of Old? Or is fuch to be the Condition of the Church in these latter times, that all Iniquity must go unreproved? Must it be Herefy or Op, pression, to watch over one another in Love? To take Care for the Poor? To fee, that there be no Corrupt, no Defiled Members of the Body, and carefully and Christianly deal with them, for Restoring them, if possible? And for withrawing from them, if incurable? I am perswaded, that there are none, that look upon the Commands of Christ and his Apostles, the Practice and Experience of the primitive Church and Saints, as a sufficient Precedent to authorize a Practice now, that will deny the Lawfulness or Usefulness hereof; but must needs acknowledge the Necessity of But if it be Objected (as some have done) Do not you deny, that the Scripture is the adeob edion. quate Rule of Faith and Manners? And that the Commands or Practices of the Scripture are not a tufficient Warrant for you now to do any thing, without you be again Authorized, and led unto it by the same Spirit? And upon that Score, do you not forbear fome things both Practifed and 1674. Commanded by the primitive Church and Saints?

Well, I hope, I have not any thing weakned this Objection, but prefented it in its full Vigour and Strength: To which I shall clearly and diffinctly answer thus.

First, Seasons and Times do not alter the Na-rimes alter ture and Substance of Things in themselves; the Usings though it may cause Things to alter, as to the Command-

Usefulness, or not Usefulness of them.

Secondly, Things Commanded and practifed at certain Times and Seasons fall of themselves, whenas the Cause and Ground, for which they were commanded, is removed: As there is no need now for the Decision about Circumcision, seeing there are none Contend for it: Neither as to the Orders concerning things Offered to Idols; feeing there is now no fuch Occasion: Yet who will fay, that the Command enjoyn'd in the same Place, Alls 15. 20. To abstain from Fornication, is now made void? Seeing, there is daily need for its standing in Force, because it yet remains as a Temptation Man is incident to? We confess indeed, we are against such, as from the bare Letter of the Scripture, (though if it were feasonable now to debate it, we find but few to deal with, whose Practices are fo exactly squared) feek to uphold Customs, Forms or Shadows, when the Use, for which they were appointed, is removed, or the Substance it self known and witnessed: As we have sufficiently elsewhere answered our Opposers in the Case of Water-Baptism, and Bread and Wine, &c. So that the Objection, as to that, doth not hold; and the Difference is very wide, in Respect of such Things: The very Nature and Substance of which can never be dispensed with by the People of God, fo long as they are in this World; yea, without which they could not be his People. For the Doctrines, and Fundimental 1674. Principles of the Christian Faith we own and believe originally and principally, because they are the Truths of God; whereunto the Spirit of God in our Hearts hath constrained our Understandings to obey and submit. In the Second Place, we are greatly Confirmed, Strengthned and Com-

of the Apo- Apostles and Disciples of Christ, who by the Re-siles, &c. to velation of the same Spirit in the Days of Old believed, and have left upon Record the same our Hearts. Truths; to we having the same Spirit of Faith, according at it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore we speak. And we deny not, but some, that from the Letter have had the Notion of these Things, have thereby in the Mercy of God received Occasion to have them Revealed in the Life: For we freely acknowledge, (though often Calumniated to the contrary) that What soever Things were written aforetime, were written for our Learning; that we through Patience and Comfort of the Scriptures may have Hope. So then I hope, if the Spirit of God lead me now unto that which is Good, profitable, yea, and abfolutely needful in Order to the keeping my Conscience clear and void of Offence towards God and Man; none will be fo unreasonable as to say, I ought not to do it, because it is according to the Scriptures? Nor do I think, it will favour ill among any ferious, folid Christians, for me to be the more confirmed and perswaded, that I am led to this Thing by the Spirit, that I find it in my felf good and useful; and that upon the like Occasions Christ commanded it, and the Apostles and primitive Christians Practifed and Recommanded it.

Now feeing it is so, that we can boldly fay with a good Conscience in the Sight of God, That the same Spirit, which leads us to believe the Doctrines and Principles of the Truth, and to hold and maintain them again, after the Apo- 1674. flacy, in their primitive and ancient Purity, as they were delivered by the Apostles of Christ in the Holy Scriptures; I fay, that the same Spirit doth now lead us into the like Holy Order and Government to be exercised among us, as it was among them, being now the like Occasion and Opportunity ministred to us therefore; what can any Christianly or Rationally object against it? For that there is a real Cause for it, the A Real Thing it self speaketh; and that it was the Pra-Caese for the saints and Church of Old, is under Order. niable: What kind of Ground then can any fuch Oppofers have (being fuch, as scrupling at this, do notwithstanding acknowledge our Principle) that this were done by Imposition or Imitation, more than the Belief of the Doctrines and Principles? Seeing as it is needful to use all Diligence to convince and perswade People of the Truth. and bring them to the Belief of it (which yet we cannot do, but as Truth moves and draws in their Hearts) it is also no less needful, when a People is gathered, to keep and preferve them in Unity and Love, as becomes the Church of Christ; and to be careful, as faith the Apostle, That all Things be done decently, and in Order; and that all that is wrong, be removed, according to the Method of the Gospel; and the Good cherished and encouraged. So that we conclude, and that upon very good Grounds, That there ought now, as well as heretofore, to be Order and Government in the Church of Christ.

That which now cometh to be examined in the Head III.

Third Place is,

First, What is the Order and Government we plead for ?

Secondly, In what Coses, and how far it may extend? And in whom the Power Decisive is?

Thirdly,

other than the Oppressive and Persecuting Principality of the Church of Rome, and other Anti-christian Assemblies?

SECTION IV.

Of the Order and Government which we Plead for.

IT will be needful then, before I proceed to deferibe the Order and Government of the Church, to confider, what is or may be properly underflood by the Church: For fome (as I touched before) feem to be offended, or at least afraid of the very Word, because, The Power of the Church, The Order of the Church, The Judgment of the Church, and fuch like Pretences, have been the great Weapons, wherewith Antichrift and the Apostate Christians have been these many Genera. tions persecuting the Woman, and warring against the Man-Child. And indeed, great Disputes have been among the Learned Rabbies in the Apostacy concerning this Church, what it is, or what may be so accounted? Which I find not my Place at present to dive much in; but shall only give the true Sence of it, according to Truth, and the Scriptures plain Testimony.

what the Word CHURCH in it felf, and as used word church in the Scriptures, is no other but a Gathering, figurifies pro-Company or Assembly of certain People called or gaperty?

Thered teacther: For so the Greek Word?

thered together: For so the Greek Word Έκκλησία signifies (which is, that the Translators render Church) which Word is derived from the Verb Έκκαλέω, i.e. Evoco, I call out of, from the Root Καλέω, Voco, I call. Now though the English Word Church be only taken in such a Sence, as People are gathered together upon a Religious Account; yet the Greek Word, that is so rendered, 1674. is taken in general for every Gathering or Meeting together of People: And therefore where it is said, The Town Clark of the Ephesians dismissed the Tumult, that was gathered there together, the same Greek Word Ένκλησία is used, Alls 19. 41. ἀπέλυσε(dimist contain) 'Εκκλησίαν, he dismissed the Assembly (or the cionem.) Church.)

A Church then in the Scripture-Phrase is no o what a ther, than a Meeting or Gathering of certain Religious People, which (if it be taken in a Religious Sense, Church is? as most commonly it is) are gathered together in the Belief of the same Principles, Doctrines and Points of Faith, whereby as a Body they become diffinguished from others, and have a certain Relation among themselves; and a Conjunct Interest to the Maintaining and Propagating these Principles they judge to be right: And therefore have a certain Care and Overfight over one another, to prevent and remove all Occasions, that may tend to break this their Conjunct Interest, hinder the Propagation of it, or bring Infamy, Contempt, or Contumely upon it; or give fuch, as on the other hand are or may be banded together to undo them, just Occasion against them, to decry and defame them.

Now the Way to distinguish that Church, Ga-How to dithering, or Assembly of People, whereof Christ tringuish the truly is the Head, from such as falsy pretend from the thereto, is by considering the Principles and false. Grounds upon which they are gathered together, the Nature of that Hierarchy and Order they have among themselves, the Way and Method they take to uphold it, and the Bottom upon which it standeth; which will greatly contribute to clear all Mistakes.

Forasmuch as Santification and Holiness is the great and chief End among true Christians, which moves them to gather together; therefore the 1674. Apostle Paul defines the Church in his Salutation to the Corinthians, 1 Cor. 1. 2. Unto the Church of God which is at Corinth, them that are fandified in Christ Jesus, called to be Saints. So the Church is such as are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be Saints.

Apostle

The Churches Care over its Members. Vc.

The Power and Authority, Order and Government we speak of, is such, as a Church, Meeting, Gathering or Assembly claims towards those that have or do declare themselves Members, who own, believe and profess the same Doctrines and Principles of Faith with us, and go under the same Distinction and Denomination; whose Escapes, Faults and Errors may by our Adversaries justly be imputed to us, if not feafonably and Christianly reproved, reclaimed or condemned. For we are not fo foolish, as to concern our felves with those who are not of us; far less, who stand in Opposition to us, so as to reprove, instruct or reclaim them, as Fellow-Members or Brethren: Yet with a Respect to remove the general Reproach from the Christian Name, with a tender Regard to the Good of their immortal Souls, for the Zeal we owe to God's Glory, and for the Exaltation and Propagation of his everlafting Truth and Gospel in the Earth, we have not been wanting with the Hazzard of our Lives to feek the scattered Ones, holding forth the living and fure Foundation, and inviting and perswading all to obey the Gospel of Christ, and to take Notice of his Reproofs, as he makes himfelf manifest in and by his Light in their Hearts. So our Care and Travel is and hath been towards those that are without, that we may bring them into the Fellowship of the Saints in Light; and towards those that are brought in, that they may not be led out again, or drawn afide, either to the Left Hand, or the Right, by the Workings and Temptations of the Enemy. Thefe

These Things being thus cleared and opened, 1674. we do positively affirm, That we being a People of gathered together by the Power of God (which most if not all of those, that arising among our selves do oppose us herein, have acknowledged) into the Belief of certain Principles and Doctrines, and also certain Practifes and Performances, by which we are come to be separated and distinguished from others, so as to meet apart, and also to fuffer deeply for our Joint-Testimony; there are and must of Necessity be, as in the Gathering of us, fo in the Preserving of us while gathered, Diversities of Gifts and Operations for the Edi-Diversities fying of the whole Body. Hence faith the Apo- the Church. file, I Tim. 5. 17. Let the Elders, that rule well, be counted worthy of double Honour, especially they who labour in the Word and Doctrine: And this we suppose neither to be Popish, nor Antichristian; let our Opposers say it, as oft as they can, without reckoning the Apostles such.

Secondly, Forasmuch as all are not called in the same Station, some Rich, some Poor; some Servants, fome Mafters, fome Married, fome Unmarried; fome Widows, and fome Orphans, and so forth; it is not only convenient, but absolutely needful, that there be certain Meetings at certain Places and Times, as may best suit the Meetings a-Conveniencies of fuch, who may be most parti-bour Bustticularly concerned in them; where both those that are to take Care, may affemble, and those who may need this Care, may come and make known their Necessities, and receive Help, whether by Counsel or Supply, according to their respective Needs. This doth not at all contradict - oftablishthe Principle of being led inwardly and immedied by the ately by the Spirit; else how came the Apostle in Apostle. that Day of the Powerful Pouring forth of the Spirit of God to fet apart Men for this Purpose?

Sure, this was not to lead them from their in-

1674. ward Gnide; yea, of the contrary it is expresly Vaid, Look ye out among you seven Men of bonest Report, full of the Hely Ghost and Wisdom, whom we may appoint over this Business. Sure, they were not to undertake a Bufiness being full of the Holy Ghost, which might import a Contradiction to their being led by it: So we fee, it is both fit and fuitable to the Apostles Doctrine, to have Meetings about Business. Now if any should be so. whimfical or conceited, as to scruple their being at fet Places and Times, though thefe be nothing relative to the Effential Parts, but only Circum. stances relating to the Conveniency of our Perfons (which we must have regard to, so long as we are cloathed with Flesh and Blood: And such Notionists, as are against this Godly Care, work far more in their vain Imaginations, than they reduce to Practife; being like unto fuch, of whom the Apostle fames testified, who content themfelves with faying to the Naked, Be cloathed; and to the Hungry, Be fed; while they offer not in the least to minister to them those Things, which are needful for Cloathing and Feeding of them) Yet shall we not scruple to make it appear, that it is not without very good Ground, that we both appoint Places and Times. And first, as to the Place, I say as before, it is with our Bodies we must meet, as well as with our Spirits; and fo of Necessity we must convey our Bodies unto one Place, that we may speak and act in those things we meet for: And that must be in some certain Place, where all must know where to find it; having herein a regard to the Conveniencies and Occasions of such as meet. Were it fit, that those of the Church of Corinth should go do their Business at Antioch, or the Church of Jerusalem at Rome? Nay furely, God bath not given us our Reasons to no Purpose; but that we should make Use of them for his Glory, and the Good of

of our Brethren; yet always in Subjection to his 1674. Power and Spirit. And therefore we have respect to these Things in the Appointing of our Meetings, and do it not without a regard to the Lord, but in a Sense of his Fear. And so the like as to Times, which is no contradicting of the inward_And con-Leading of the Spirit. Else how came the Apo-venient Set file to appoint a Time to the Corintbians in their Times appointed. Contributions, desiring them, 1 Cor. 16. 2. To lay by them in Store upon the First Day of the Week, yea, faith he, not that he gave the same Order to the Church of Galatia. I know not, how any in Reason can quarrel about Set Times for outward Bufiness, it being done in a Subjection to God's Will, as all things ought to be: or else how can such, as fo do, but quarrel with the Apostle for this Imposition (at that rate) upon the Churches of Corinth and Galatia? We appoint no fet Times for the Performance of the Worship of God, so as to appoint Men to Preach and Pray at fuch and fuch fet Times; though we appoint Times to Meet together in the Name of the Lord, that we may feel his Presence, and he may move in and through whom he pleafeth without Limitation. Which Practice of Meeting together we are greatly en-Reasons for couraged to by the Promise of Christ and our own the Continu-Bleffed Experience; and also we are severely pro- faid Practice. hibited to lay it aside by the holy Apostle: and also on the other hand by the sad Experience of fuch, as by Negligence or Prejudice forfake the Assemblies of God's People; upon many of which is already fulfilled, and upon others daily fulfil-ing the Judgments threatned upon fuch Tranfgreffors: Read Heb. 10. from Verse 23 to the End. where that Duty is so feriously exhorted to, and the Contempt of it reckoned a wilful Sin, almost (if not altogether) unpardonable; yea, a treading under Foot the Son of God, and a Doing De-Spight to the Spirit of Grace; which is fulfilled in 1674. our Day, and proves the lamentable Fruits of fuch as have fo backflidden among us. And therefore having fo much good and real Ground for what we do herein, together with the Approbation and Encouragement of Christ and his Apoftles, both by Command and Practife, we can (as that both the Alpha and Omega, the Foundation and Cap-stone required) faithfully affirm in good Conscience, That God hath led us by his Spirit, both to appoint Places and Times, where we may see the Faces one of another; and to take Care one for another, provoking one another to Love and good Works. And our Faith and Confidence herein cannot be staggered by a meer Denyal in our Oppofers, which no Man of Conscience and Reafon will fay it ought; feeing the Thing it felf hath fuch a folid and real Cause and Foundation, fo good and fuitable a Pattern and Example, and that it is constantly confirmed to us, both by the Testimony of God's Spirit in our Hearts, and by the good Fruits and Effects which we daily reap thereby, as a Seal and Confirmation, that God is well pleased therewith, and approveth us in it.

Having thus far proceeded to shew, That there ought to be Order and Government among the People of God; and that that, which we plead for, is, That there may be certain Meetings set apart for that End; It is next to be considered, In what Cases, and how far it may extend?

In what Cases, and how far this Government extends? And sirst, as to Outwards and Temporals.

The Occafion of the fe

Rife for this Order among the Apostles; and Meetings a. I do verily believe, might have been among the first Occasions, that gave the like among us, 1672. and that is, The Care of the Poor; of Widows and Orphans. Love and Compassion are the great, yea, and the chiefest Marks of Christianity: Herchy shall it be known, faith Christ, that we are my Disciples, if ye love one another. And James the Apostle places Religion herein in the first place; Pure Religion (faith he) and Undefiled before God Lare for the and the Father is, to visit the Fatherless and Wi-Poor Widows in their Afflictions, &c. For this then, as dows and one main End do we made together the fatherless. one main End do we meet together, that Enquiry may be made, if there be any Poor of the Houfhold of Faith, that need, that they may be supplied; that the Widows may be taken Care of. that the Orphans and Fatherless may be bred up and Educated. Who will be fo Unchristian, as to reprove this good Order and Government, and to fay it is needless? But if any will thus object; May not the Spirit lead every one of you to give to them that need? What needs meeting about it, and such Formalities ?

I answer, The Spirit of God leads us so to do: what can they fay to the contrary? Nor is this a Practice any ways inconfiftent with being inwardly and immediately led by the Spirit; for the Spirit of God doth now, as well as in the Days of Old, lead his People into those things which are orderly, and of a good Report; for he is the God of Order, and not of Confusion: And therefore the holy Apostles judged it no Inconsistency The Examwith their being led by the Spirit to appoint Men ple of the full of the Holy Ghost and of Wisdom over the Bust-ness of the Poor. Now if to be full of the Holy Ghost be a Qualification needful for this Imploy. ment; furely, the Nature of their Imployment was not to render this so needful a Qualification useless and ineffectual, as if they were not to be led by it.

Moreover we see, though they were at that Time all filled with the Spirit, yet there was fomething wanting before this good Order was established. There was a Murmuring, that some Widows were neglected in the daily Ministration; and we must not suppose, the Apostles went about to remedy this Evil, that was creeping into the Church, without the Counfel of God by his Spirit, or that this Remedy they were led to, was stepping into Apostacy; neither can it be so said of us, we proceeding upon the like Occasion.

Contributions for the Poor.

If then it be thus needful and suitable to the Gospel to relieve the Necessities of the Poor, that as there was No Beggar to be among Israel of Old, fo far less now; must there not be Meetings to appoint Contribution, in Order to the performing these Things? Which is no other, but the giving of a general Intimation what the Needs are? That every one, as God moves their Hearts, and hath prospered them (without Imposition, Force or Limitation) may give towards these needful Uses. In which Case these Murmurers at our good Order in fuch Matters, may well think firange at the Apostle: How pressingly! how earnestly doth he reiterate his Defires and Provocations, fo to speak, in this Respect to the Corinthians, 1 Cor. 16.2. and the 8th and 9th Chapters of the 2d Epistle throughout!

Now though he testifies to them elsewhere, That they are the Temples of the Holy Ghost, and that the Spirit of God dwells in them; yet ceaseth he not to intreat and exhort, yea, and to give them certain Orders in this Matter.

Besides all these Reasons, which are sufficient to convince any unprejudicate Man, The fecret Approbation of God's Spirit accompanying us in this Thing, together with the Fruits and Effects of it; which Hundreds can witness to, whose Needs have been supplied, and themselves helped through through divers Difficulties; and the Testimonies 1674. of some already, and of many more Orphans and Fatherless Children, who have found no want Fatherless neither of Father nor Mother, or other Relations, Children put through the tender Love and Care of God's People in putting them in Trades and Imployments, and giving them all needful Education: Which will make it appear, e're this Age pass away, to those that have an Eye to see, that these are not the meer Doings and Orders of Men; but the Work of him who is appearing in ten Thousands of his Saints, to establish not only Truth, but Mercy and Righteousness in the Earth.

And for that End therefore in the second Place this Order reacheth the taking up and composing 2. To Comof Differences as to outward Things, which may pose Differences in the fall out betwixt Friend and Friend; for fuch Church in things may fall out through the Intricacies of di- Matters, vers Affairs, where neither hath any positive Intention to injure and defraud his Neighbour, as in many Cases might be instanced. Or if thro' the Workings and Temptations of him, whose work is to befet the Faithful, and People of the Lord, and to engender (fo far as he can) Strife and Division among them, any should step aside, as to offer to wrong or prejudice his Neighbour; we do boldly aver, as a People gathered together by the Lord unto the same Faith, and distinguished from all others by our Joint-Testimony and Sufferings, that we have Power and Authority to decide and remove these things among our selves, without going to others to seek Redress. And this in it self hath so much Reason, that I cannot tell if any that are not wholly prejudicate or obstinate, can blame it. For if we be of one Mind concerning Faith and Religion, and that it be our Joint-Interest to bring all others unto the same Truth with us, as supposing them to be wrong, what Confidence can we have to think A a 3 think of Reclaiming them, if the Truth we profess have not Efficacy, as to reconcile us among our selves in the Matters of this World: If we be forced to go out to others for Equity and Justice, because we cannot find it among our selves, how can we expect to invite them to come among us, when such Virtues, as which still accompany the Truth, are necessarily supposed to be wanting? Should we affirm otherwise, it were to destroy the Truth and Faith, we have been and are in the Lord's Hand building up: And indeed the Spirit and Practice of such as oppose us herein, hath no less Tendency.

Moreover, besides the Enforcing and Intrinsick

Reason of this Thing, we have the Concurrence, Approbation and Comfort of the Apostle's Testimony, 1 Cor. 6. Dare any of you, having a Matter against another, go to Law before the Unjust, and not before the Saints? If it be objected, Do you reckon all Unjust that are not of you? Think ye all other People void of Justice?

Believers not to go to Law b. fore the Unjust,

I answer, Though the Apostle useth this Expression, I am perswaded, be did not reckon all others unjust, that had not received then the Christian Faith. There were, no doubt, moral and just Men among the Heathen; and therefore the same Paul commends the Nobility of Festus. He reckons them there Unjust in respect of the Saints, or comparatively with them, as fuch as are not come to the just Principle of God in themselves to obey it and follow it: And therefore though he accounts them, who are least esteemed in the Church, capable to decide fuch Matters; yet he supposeth it safer to submit to their Judgment in fuch Cases, though it were by taking Wrong, or suffering Wrong, than to go before others to the greater Reproach of the Truth. hope, though many Occasions of this kind have fallen in among us, fince we have been a People, none none have had just Occasion to decline our Judg- 1674. ment. And though some should suppose themfelves to be wronged; yet if they should go bring their Matter before others, we might fay as the Apostle saith in the fore-mentioned Chapter, v. 7. This were thereby a Fault in them, and would evidence a greater Care of some outward Concern, than of the Honour and Interest of Truth: and therefore fuch as have a tender Regard that way, would rather fuffer, what to their Apprehensions may feem wrong. For in Matters, wherein two Parties are opposite in the Case of Meum and The Case of Tuum, it is somewhat hard to please both; ex Tuum. cept where the Power of Truth, and the righteous Judgment thereof reaching to that of God in the Conscience, hath brought to a true Acknowledgment him that hath been mistaken, or in the wrong: which hath frequently fallen out among us, to the often refreshing and confirming our Souls in the certain Belief, that Christ was fulfilling his Promises among us, In Restoring Judges, as at the first, and Counsellors, as in the Beginning. Now suppose, any should be so Pettish, or Hu-Going be-merous, as not to agree in such Matters to the lievers from Judgment of his Brethren, and to go before the the Judg-Unbelievers (for though I reckon them not such Brethren, is Unbelievers, as the Heathen of Old, because they a Dishonour Profess a Faith in God and Christ; yet I may safely say, they are Unbelievers as to these Principles and Doctrines which we know are the Truth of God; and in that Sense must be Unbelievers as to him, that so Appealeth to them from his Brethren.) I fay, such as so do, first commit a certain Hurt, and Evil, in staining the Honour and Reputation of the Truth they Profess; which ought to be dearer to us than our Lives. And even in that Outward Matter, for which they thus do, they run a Hazzard, not knowing, whether Things shall carry, as they expect: If they Loose, they have a double Prejudice; if they Gain, it is a too dear Rate, even with the Hurt of Truth's Reputation, which their Outward Advantage cannot make up. If then, it be Unlawful to do Evil, that Good may come of it, even a Spiritual Good; far less is it Lawful to do a Positive Evil of so deep a Dye, as to bring an Evil Report upon the good Land, and give the Uncircumcised an Occasion to Rejoice: Out of the Uncertain Hope of an Outward Gain, it is far better to suffer Loss, as the Apostle very well Argues in the Place abovementioned.

Indeed, if there be any such, have been, or appear to be of us, as suppose, There is not a Wise Man among us all, nor an Honest Man, that is able to judge betwixt his Brethen. We shall not covet to meddle in their Matter; being perswaded, that either they, or their Cause is nought. Though (Praises to God) among all those that have gone from us, either upon one Account or other, I never heard, that any were so minded towards us; but the most Part of them having let in the Offence of some Things, or Persons, have had this Unanimous Testimony concerning us, that Generally we are an Honest and Upright bearted People.

But whatever Sense our Enemies, or Apostates have of us, who look asquint on the Face of Truth, and can see nothing aright in those they love not, or are prejudicate against: This we can say in the last Place (besides the Reasons and Scripture above declared) that the Good Fruits, and Effects, which daily abound to the Houshold of Faith, in this, as well as the other Parts of the Government the Lord is establishing among us, doth more and more Commend it unto us; and consirmeth our Hearts in the certain Belief of that, which we can confidently Testifie in 1674. good Conscience, That God bath led us bereunto's by his Spirit: and we see the Hand of the Lord herein, which in due Time will yet more appear; that as through our Faithful Testimony, in the Hand of the Lord, that Antichristian and Apostatized Generation, the NATIONAL MI-Priests forced Muin-NISTRY, hath received a deadly Blow by tenance, and our discovering and witnessing against their For-Tythes, have receiv-ced Maintenance, and Tythes, against which we ed a deadly have testified by many Cruel Sufferings of all Blow. Kinds (as our Chronicles shall make known to Generations to come) fo that their Kingdom, in the Hearts of Thousands, begins to totter and loofe its Strength, and shall affuredly fall to the Ground, through Truth's prevailing in the Earth; so on the other Hand do we, by coming to Righteousness and Innocency, weaken the Strength of their Kingdom, who judge for Rewards (as well as such as Preach for Hire) and by not mini-flring Occasion to those, who have heaped up Riches, and lived in Excess, Lust and Riot, by feeding and preying upon the Iniquities and Contentions of the People. For as Truth and Righteousness prevails in the Earth, by our faithful Witnesling and keeping to it, the Nations shall come to be eased and disburdened of that deceitful Tribe of Lawyers, (as well as Priests) who Lawyers by their many Tricks, and Endless Intricacies, and Intricacies, and Intricacies formers have rendered Justice, in their Method, burden-cies formers former to honest Men, and seek not so much to Controverput an End, as to foment Controversies and Contentions, that they themselves may be still sed and upheld, and their Trade kept up. Whereas by Truth's Propagation, as many of these Controversies will die by Mens coming to be less Contentious; so when any Difference ariseth, the Saints giving Judgment, without Gift or Reward, or running into the Tricks and endless Labyrinths 1674. Labyrinths of the Lawyers, will foon Compose them. And this is that we are perswaded, the Lord is bringing about in our Day, though many do not, and many will not fee it; because it is indeed in a Way different and contrary to Man's Wisdom, who are now despising Christ in his Inward Appearance, because of the Meanness of it; as the Jews of Old did him in his Outward: Yet notwithstanding there were some then that did Witness, and could not be Silent, but must Testify that He was come. Even so now are there Thousands, that can set to their Seal, that he hath now again the Second time Appeared, and is appearing in Ten Thousands of his Saints; in and among whom (as a first Fruits of many more that shall be gathered) he is restoring the Christ's Golden Age, and bringing them into the Holy Golden Age. Order and Government of his own Son, who is ruling, and to rule in the midft of them, fetting forth the Counsellors as at the Beginning, and Judges as at First, and establishing Truth, Mercy, Righteousness and Judgment again in the Earth: Amen, Hallelujah!

3. To the Case of Marriages.

Thirdly, These Meetings take Care in the Case of Marriages, that all things be Clear; and that there may be nothing done in that Procedure, which afterwards may prove to the Prejudice of Truth, or of the Parties concerned; which being an Outward Thing (that is acknowledged in it felf to be Lawful) of the greatest Importance a Man, or Woman, can perform in this World; and from the Sudden, Unwary, or Diforderly Procedure whereof, very great Snares and Re-proaches may be cast both upon the Parties, and the Profession owned by them; therefore it doth very fitly, among other Things, when it occurs, come to be confidered of by the People of God, when Met, to take care to preferve all things right and favoury in the Houshold of Faith. We do believe, our Adversaries, that watch for Evil 1674. against us, would be glad, how Promiscuously or Disorderly we proceed in this weighty Matter; that so they might the more boldly accuse us, as Overturners of all Humane and Christian Order: But God hath not left us without his Counsel and Wisdom in this Thing; nor will he, that any should receive Just Occasion against us his People: And therefore in this weighty Concern, we, who can do nothing against the Truth, but all for, and with Regard to the Truth, have divers Testimonies for the Lord. And—

First, That we cannot Marry with those that 1. Our walk not in, and obey not the Truth, as being of Teltimony another Judgment, or Fellowship; or Pretending to rying with it, walk not suitable and answerable thereto.

Secondly, Nor can we go to the Hireling-Priests, lievers, to uphold their false and usurped Authority, who Priest take upon them to marry People without any Command, or Precedent for it from the Law of God.

Lastly, Nor can we suffer any such kind of Marri-3. In forages to pass among us, which either as to the Degrees bidden Deof Consanguinity, or otherwise, in it self is Unlawful, or from which there may be any just Re-

As to the first Two, they being Matter of Prin-Test. r. ciples received and believed, it is not my Work Against Unhere to debate them; only since they are received and owned as such (for which we can, and have given our sufficient Reasons elsewhere, as for our other Principles) we ought to care, how any, by walking otherwise, bring Reproach upon us. Yet not to pass them wholly by, as to the First; Besides the Testimony of the Spirit of God in our Hearts (which is the Original Ground of our Faith in all Things) we have the Testimony of the Apostle Paul, 2 Cor. 6. 14. Be ye not unequally Toked together, &c. Now if any thould think, it were much from this Scripture to plead 1674. it absolutely Unlawful in any Case, to join in Marriage with any (however otherwife Sober) because of their not being one with us in all Things: I shall speak my Judgment. To me it appears so; and to many more who have obtained Mercy; and we think, we have the Spirit of God. But whether it be Lawful or not, I can fay Positively, It is not Expedient, neither doth it Edify; and (as that which is of dangerous Consequence) doth give justly Offence to the Church of Christ: And therefore no true Tender Heart, will prefer his private Love to the Good and Interest of the whole Body.

Telt. 2. Against the

As for the Second, In that we deny the Priefts. Priests Usur-their Assumed Authority and Power to Marry, it is that which in no wife we can Refile from, nor can we own any in the doing of it; it being a Part of our Testimony against the Usurpations of that Generation, who never yet, that I ever heard of, could produce any Scripture-Proof, or Example for it. And feeing, none can pretend Conscience in the Matter (for they themselves Confess, that it is no Part of the Essence of Marriage;) if any pretending to be among us, should through Fear, Interest, or Prejudice to the Truth, come under and bow to that Image, have we not Reason to deny such Slavish and Ignoble Spirits, as mind not Truth and its Testimony?

Teft. 3. A-. gainst forbidden Degrees of Con-Sanguinity and Pre engagements, 17c.

Lastly, Seeing, if any walking with us, or going under the same Name, should bastily or diforderly go together, either being within the Degrees of Confanguinity, which the Law of God forbids, or that either Party should have been formerly under any Tye or Obligation to others, or any other vast Disproportion, which might bring a just Reflection upon us from our Oppofers; Can any blame us for taking Care to prevent these Evils, by appointing, that such as so defign, make known their Intentions to thefe Churches or Assemblies, where they are most known, that 1674. if any know just Cause of Hinderance, it may be mentioned, and a Timous Let put to the Hurt, either by stopping it, if they can be brought to condescend; or by refusing to be Witnesses and Concurrers with them in it, if they will not? For we take not upon us to hinder any to Marry, otherwise than by Advice, or Disconcerning our felves; neither do we judge, that fuch as do Marry contrary to our Mind, that therefore their Marriage is null and void in it felf, or may be Dissolved afterwards; Nay: All our Medling is in a holy Care for the Truth. For if the thing be right, all that we do, is to be Witnesses; and if otherwise, that we may say for our Vindication to fuch, as may upbraid us therewith, that we Advised otherwise, and did no ways concur in the Matter: That so they may bear their own Burden, and the Truth and People of God be cleared.

Now I am confident, that our Way herein is fo what kind answerable to Reason and Christianity, that of Persons that cannot bear none will blame us therefore; except either such, the good or whose Irregular and Impatient Lusts cannot suffer der of Truth. a Serious and Christian Examination, and an advifed and moderate Procedure; or fuch, who watching for Evil against us, are forry, we should proceed so Orderly, and would rather, we should suffer all manner of Irregularities and Abominations, that they might have the more to fay against us. But the solid and real Reasons we have for our Way herein, will sufficiently plead for us in the Hearts of all Sober Men; and moreover, the Testimony of God's Spirit in our Hearts doth abundantly Confirm us both against the Folly of the One, and the Envy of the other.

Fourthly, There being nothing more needful, 4. Our Care than to preserve Men and Women in Righteousness, or Separatafter they are brought into it; and also nothing ing Offenders, 1674. more certain, than that the great Enemy of Man's Soul feeks daily, how he may draw back again. and catch those, who have in some Measure efcaped his Snares, and known Deliverance from them; therefore do we also meet together, that we may receive an Opportunity to Understand. if any have fallen under his Temptations, that we may Restore them again, if possible; or otherwise Separate them from US. Surely, if we did not so, we might be justly blamed as such, among whom it were lawful to commit any Evil unreproved; indeed, this were to be guilty of that Libertinism, which some have fallly accused us of, and which hath been our Care all along, as became the People of God, to avoid: Therefore we have fought always to keep the House clean, by faithfully Reproving and Removing, according to the Nature of the Offence, and the Scandal following thereupon; private things privately, and publick things publickly. We defire not to propagate Hurt, and defile People's Minds with telling them fuch things, as tend not to Edify; yet do we not so cover over or smooth over any Wickedness, as not to deal Roundly with the Persons guilty, and causing them to take away the Scandal in their Acknowledgment before All, to whose Knowledge it hath come: Yet judge we not our selves obliged to tell that in Gath, or publish that in the Streets of Askelon, which make the Daughters of the Uncircumcifed Rejoyce; or strengthen Atheists and Ranters in their Obduredness, who feed more upon the Failings of the Saints, than to Imitate their true Repentance. And therefore where we find an unfeigning Returning to the Lord, we defire not to Remember that, which the Lord hath Forgotten; nor yet to throw Offences in the Way of the Weak, that they may flumble upon them.

And therefore I conclude, that our Care as to

these things also, is most needful, and a Part of 1674. that Order and Government, which the Church of Christ never was, nor can be Without; as doth abundantly appear by divers Scriptures heretofore mentioned.

SECTION VI.

How far this Government doth Extend in Matters Spiritual, and Purely Conscientious.

Hus far I have confidered the Order and Goward Things; and its Authority in Condemning or Removing fuch things, which in themselves are Evil, as being those, which none will readily justify: the Necessity of which things is such, that few but will acknowledge, the Care and Order in these Cases to be commendable and expedient.

Now I come to confider the things of another Kind, which either verily are, or are supposed to be Matters of CONSCIENCE, or at least, wherein People may lay Claim to Conscience in the Acting or Forbearing of them. In which the great Question is, How far in Such Cases the Church may give positive Orders, or Rules? How far her Authority reacheth or may be supposed to be binding, and ought to be submitted to? For the better clearing and Examination of which, it will be fit to confider.

First, Whether the Church of Christ have Power in any Cases, that are Matters of Conscience, to give a positive Sentence and Decision,, which may be Obligatory upon Believers?

Secondly, If so, In what Cases and Respects she may so do? Queff. If

And Lastly, In whom the Power Decisive is in Case of Controversy or Contention in such Matters ?- Which will also lead us To observe the vast Difference betwixt Us and the.

As to the First, Whether the Church of Christ Quest. I. have Power in any Cases, that are Matters of Conscience, to give a positive Sentence and Decision.

which may be Obligatory upon Believers-

Answ.

Articles of Faith are Matters of Conscience.

I Answer Affirmatively, She hath; and shall prove it from divers Instances, both from Scripture and Reason. For First, All Principles and Articles of Faith, which are held doctrinally, are in Respect to those that believe them, Mat-We know, the Papists do ters of Conscience. out of Conscience, (such as are zealous among them) adore, worship and pray to Angels, Saints and Images, yea, and to the Eucharift, as judging it to be really Christ Jesus; and so do others place Conscience in things that are absolutely wrong: Now I fay, We being gathered together into the Belief of certain Principles and Do-Ctrines without any Constraint or worldly Refpect, but by the meer Force of Truth upon our Understanding, and its Power and Influence upon our Hearts; these Principles and Doctrines, and the Practices necessarily depending upon them are, as it were, the Terms, that have drawn us together, and the * Bond, by which we became

I. Proof from Right Reafon.

^{*} Yet this is not so the Bond, but that we have also a more inward and invisible, to wit, the Life of Righteonsness, whereby we also have Unity with the upright Seed in all, even in those, whose Understandings are not yet so enlightned. But those, who are once enlightned, this is as an outward Bond; and if they fuffer themselves to be darkned through Disobedience, which is it does in the outward Bond, so it doth in the inward.

centered into One Body and Fellowship, and diftinguilhed from others. Now if any one or more to engaged with us should arise to teach any other Doctrine or Doctrines, contrary to thefe, which were Ground of our being One; who can deny, but the Body hath Power in fuch a Cale to declare, This is not according to the Truth we profels; and therefore we pronounce such and such Do. Etrines to be Wrong, with which we cannot have U. nity, nor yet any more Spiritual Fellowship with those as bold them? And so Cut themselves off from being Members by diffolving the very Bond, by which they were linked to the Body. Now this cannot be accounted Tyranny and Oppic Sion, no more than in a Civil Society, if one of the Society shall contradict one or more of the fundamental Articles, upon which the Society was contracted, it cannot be reckon'd a Breach or Iniquity in the whole Society to declare, that such Contradictors have done wrong, and forfeited their Right in that Society; in Case by the original Constitution the Nature of the Contradiction implys such a Forfeiture, as usually it is; and will no Doubt hold in Religious Matters. As if a Bo- The Distriction of the dy be gathered into one Fellowship by the Belief Principles of of certain Principles, he that comes to believe o a Fellowship therways, naturally scattereth himself; for that excludes the Cause, that gathered him, is taken away : therefrom And so those, that abide constant, in declaring and scatters. the thing to be so as it is, and in looking upon him and witnessing of him to others (if need be) to be fuch, as he has made himself; do him no Injury. I shall make the Supposition in the General, and let every People make the Application to themselves, abstracting from us; and then let Conscience and Reason in every impartial Reader declare, whether or not it doth not hold? Suppose a People really gathered unto the Belief of the true and certain Principles of the Golpel, if 1674. any of these People shall arise and Contradict any of those fundamental Truths, Whether has not such as stand, good Right to Cast such a one out from among them, and to pronounce positively, This is contrary to the Truth we profess and own; and therefore ought to be rejected, and not received, nor yet he that Asserts it, as one of us? And is not this Obligatory upon all the Members, feeing all are concerned in the like Care, as to themfelves, to hold the Right, and thut out the Wrong? I cannot tell, if any Man of Reason can well deny this? However I shall prove it next from the Testimony of the Scripture.

2 Proof from Scripture.

Gal, 1. 8. But though we, or an Angel from Heaven preach any other Gospel unto you, than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before; so say I now again, If any Man preach any other Gospel unto you, than that ye have received, let him be Accurfed.

I Tim. 1. 19, 20. Holding Faith and a good Conscience, which some having put away, concerning Faith have made Shipwrak. Of whom is Hymenæus and Alexander, whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to Blaspheme.

2 John 10. If there come any unto you, and bring not this Dostrine, receive him not into your House, neither bid him Rejoyce. (For so the Greek hath it.)

These Scriptures are so plain and clear in themfelves as to this Purpose, that they need no great Exposition to the unbyassed and unprejudicate Readed. Fore feeing it is fo, that in the true Church there may Men arise, and speak Perverse Things contrary to the Doctrine and Gospel already received; What is to be the Place of those, that hold the pure and Antient Truth? Must they look upon these perverse Men still, as their Brethren? Must they cherish them as Fellow-Meinbers, or must they judge, condemn and deny them? We must not think, the Apostle wanted Chari-

Charity, who will have them Accurfed; and 1674. that gave Hymeneus and Alexander over to Satan, Hymeneus after that they had departed from the true Faith, and Alexanthat they might learn not to Blasphenie. In der instanc-short, if we must (as our Opposers herein ac. d. knowledge) preserve and keep those, that are come to own the Truth, by the same Means they were gathered and brought into it; we must not cease to be plain with them, and tell them, when they are wrong; and by found Doctrine both Exhort and Convince Gain-fayers. If the Apostles of Christ of Old, and the Preachers of the Everlasting Gospel in this Day had told all People, however wrong they found them in their Faith and Principles, Our Charity and Love is fuch, We dare Charity and not judge you, nor separate from you; but let us falle love all live in Love together, and every own enjoy his own to cherish in Opinion, and all will be well: How should the Nations have been? Or what Way can they be brought to Truth and Righteousness? Would not the Devil love this Dollrine well, by which Darkness and Ignorance Error and Confusion might still continue in the Earth unreproved, and uncondemned? If it was needful then for the Apostles of Christ in the Days of Old to Reprove, without sparing to tell the High-Priests and great Professors among the Fews, That they were stubborn and stiff-necked, and always resisted the Holy Ghost, without being guilty of Imposition and Oppression, or want of true Love and Charity; and also for those Messen. gers the Lord raised up in this Day, to reprove and cry out against the Hireling Priests, and to tell the World openly both Profesfors and Prophane, That they were in Darkness and Ignorance, out of the Truth, Strangers and Aliens from the Common-Wealth of Israel; if God has gathered a People by this Means into the Belief of one and the fame Truth, Must not they, if they turn and depart from it, be Admonished, Reproved and B b 2 Con1674. Condemned (yea, rather than those, that are not yet come to the Truth) because they crucify afresh unto themselves the Lord of Glory, and put him to open Shame? It feems, the Apostle judged it very needful, they should be so dealt with, Tit. 1. 10. when he fays, There are many unruly and vain Talkers and Deceivers, especially they of the Circumcision, WHOSE MOUTHS MUST BE STOPPED, &c. Were fuch a Principle to be receiv'd or believed, That in the Church of Christ no Man should be Separated from, no Man condemned or excluded the Fellowship and Communion of the Body for his Judgment or Opinion in Matter of Faith, Than what Blasphemies so horrid, what Heresies so damnable, what Doctrines of Devils, but might harbour it self in the Church of Christ? What need then of sound Doctrine, if no Doctrine make unfound? What need of convincing and exhorting Gain-fayers, if to gainfay be no Crime? Where should the Unity of the Faith be? Were not this an Inlet to all Manner of Abomination? And to make void the whole Tendency of Christ and his Apostles Doctrine? And render the Gospel of none Effect? And give a Liberty to the unconstant and giddy Will of Man to Innovate, alter and overturn it at his Pleasure? So that from all that is above-mentioned, we do fafely conclude, That where a People are gathered together into the Belief of the Principles and Doctrines of the Gospel of Christ, if any of that People shall go from their Principles, and affert things false and Contrary, to what they have already received; fuch as stand and abide firm in the Faith, have Power by the Spirit of God, after they have used Christian Endeavours to convince and Reclaim them, upon their Obstinacy to Separate from fuch, and to Exclude them from their Spiritual Fellowship and Communion: For otherways if this be denied, farewel to all Chri-

Ctrine in the Church of Christ.

But Secondly, Taking it for granted, That the Quest. II. Church of Christ or Assembly of Believers may in some Cases, that are Matter of Conscience, pronounce a positive Sentence and Judgment without Hazzard of Imposition upon the Members, it comes to be inquired; In what Cases, and how farthis Power reacheth?

I Answer, First, As that which is most clear Answer. and undeniable; In the fundamental Principles and Doctrines of Faith, in Case any should offer to teach otherways, as is above declar'd and proved. But some may perhaps acknowledge that indeed, if any should contradict the known and owned Principles of Truth, and teach otherways, it were fit to cast out and exclude such; But what judgest thou as to lesser Matters, as in Principles of less Consequence, or in outward Ceremonies or Gestures, Whether it be fit to Press Uniformity in these things? For Answer to this, it is fit to con-

And Thirdly, The Consequence and Tendency of them.

But before I proceed upon these, I affirm, and that according to Truth, That as the Church and Affembly of God's People may and hath Power to Decide by the Spirit of God in Matters fundamental and weighty (without which no Decision nor Decree in whatever Matters is available) so the fame Church and Assembly also in other Matters of less Moment, as to themselves (yet being needful on of Matand expedient with a Respect to the Circumstance of ters of less Time, Place and other things that may fall in) may Momentin the Church and hath Power by the same Spirit, and not other-otligatory. ways, being acted, moved and affifted, and led B b 3

And this is that, which none that own Immediate Revelation, or a being inwardly led by the Spirit, to be now a thing expected or dispensed to the Saints, can without contradicting their own Principle deny; far less such, with whom I have to do in this Matter, who claiming this Previledge to Particulars, faying, That they being moved to do such and such things, though contrary to the Mind and Sense of their Brethren, are not to be judged for it; adding, Why may it not be fo, that God hath moved them to it? Now, if this be a sufficient Reason for them to suppose as to one or two, I may without Absurdity suppose it as well to the whole Body. And therefore as to the First, to wit,

Conf. 1. The Nature of the Things themselves. If it be fuch a thing, the doing or not doing whereof, that is either any Act, or the Forbearance of any, may bring a real Reproach or Ground of Accu-

Against the may bring a real Reproach of Ground of Reproach of station against the Truth professed and owned, and in and through which there may a visible Schism and Dissension arise in the Church, by which Truth's Enemies may be gratisted, and it felf brought into Dissessem; then it is sit for such, whose Care is to keep all right, to take Inspection in the Matter, to Meet together in the Fear of God, to wait for his Counsel, and to speak forth his Mind, according as he shall manifest himself in and among them. And this was the Practice of the primitive Church in the Matter of Circumcision. For here lay the Debate: Some thought it not needful to circumcise the Gentiles; others thought it a thing not to be dispensed with: And no doubt, of these (for we must remember, they were not the Rebellious 1674. Fews, but fuch as had already believed in Christ) there were, that did it out of Conscience, as judging Circumcifion to be still obligatory. For they said thus; Except ye be circumcised after the, Manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved. Now what Course took the Church of Antioch in these Cases? The Church Acts 15. 2. They determined, that Paul and Bar at Antioch fends a Case nabas, and certain other of them should go unto to Jerusa. Jerusalem, unto the Apostles and Elders about this ten for Ad-Question. We must not suppose, they wanted the Elders. the Spirit of God at Antioch, to have decided the Matter, neither that these Apostles neglected or went from their inward Guide in undertaking this Journey; yet we see, they judged it meet in this Matter to have the Advice and Concurrence of the Apostles and Elders, that were at Ferusa. lem, that they might be all of one Mind in the Matter. For there is no greater Property of the Church of Christ, than pure Unity in the Spirit, that is, a Confenting and Onene's in Judgment and Practices in Matters of Faith and Worship (which yet admits of different Measures, Growths and Motions, but never contrary and contradictory Ones; and in these Diversities of Operations, yet still by the same Spirit, the true Liberty is exercised, as shall be declared hereaster:) Therefore prayeth Christ, That they all may be One, as he and the Father is One. To which Purpose also let these following Scriptures be examined:

Rom. 12. 16. Be of the same Mind one towards another.

1 Cor. 1. 10. Now I befeech you, Brethren, by the Name of our Lord Fesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no Divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same Mind, and in the same Judgment.

Phil. 2. 2. Fulfil ye my foy, that ye be likeminded, having the same Love, being of one accord,

And yet more remarkable is that of the Apofile Paul to the Philippians, Chap. 3. Vers. 15.3 Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded; and if in any thing ye be otherways minded, God shall reveal even this unto you.

Vers. 16. Neverthess, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same Rule, let us mind the same thing.

Vers. 17. Brethren, be Followers together of me, and mark them which walk so, as ye have us for an Example.

So here, though the Apostle grants Forbear-Pretenders and Innovaance in things, wherein they have not yet attors judged by the Pow-tained; yet he concludes, they must walk so, as they have him for an Example, and fo confequently not contrary, or otherwise. And therefore we conclude, that whereas any in the Church of God pretending Conscience or Revelation, shall arife to teach and practife (however infignificant or finall in themselves) whether Principles or Practices, yet if they be contrary to fuch, as are already received as true, and confirmed by God's Spirit in the Hearts of the Saints, and that the introducing of these Things tend to bring Reproach upon the Truth, as fuch, as are not editying in themselves, and so stumble the Weak; those who have a true and right Discerning, may in and by the Power of God authorizing them (and no otherways) Condemn and Judge fuch Things: And they fo doing it, it will be Obligatory upon all the Members, that have a true Sense, because they will feel it to be so, and therefore submit to it. And thus far as to the Nature of themselves.

Secondly,

Secondly, As to the Spirit and Ground they pro- 1674. ceed from. Whatsoever Innovation, Difference or divers Appearance, whether in Doctrine or Conf. 2. For Answer, I make not here any Application as to particular Persons or Things; but if it be granted (as it cannot be denied) that there may arise Persons in the true Church, that may do fuch things from such a Spirit, though pretending Conscience and Tenderness; then it must almost allowed for be acknowledged, that such, to whom God Differential the Church hath given a true Discerning by his Spirit, may the Church and ought to judge such Practices, and the Spirit Transgresthey come from, and have no Unity with them. which if it be owned in the General, proves the Case, to wit, That some pretending Conscience in Things feeming indifferent, but yet it proceeding in them from a Spirit of Singularity, E. mulation or Strife, those that have received a Discerning thereof from the Lord, may and ought to judge the Transgressors, without being accounted Imposers, Oppressors of Conscience, or Strife; then such things that are seen so to be done, are they not to be avoided and forfaken? So that we are confident, our Judgment herein cannot be denied, or reputed Erroneous; except it be faid, That none will or can arise in the Church of Christ, pretending such things from such a Spiand must be rit: which I know not any that will, it being contrary to the express Prophesies of the Scripture, and the Experience of the Church in all Ages, as may appear from Mat. 24. 24. Acts 15. 54. I Tim. 4. 5. 2 Tim. 3. 8. Mark 13. 21, 22.

Or on the other Hand, that those that abide Faithful, and have a Discerning of Evils to reprove and those Evils, ought to be filent, and never ought warnto reprove and gain-stand them, nor yet warn and guard others against them; and that it is a Part of the commendable Unity of the Church of Christ, to suffer all such Things without taking Notice of them. I know none will fay fo; but if there be any so foolish, as to affirm it, let them confider these Scriptures, Gal. 2.4. 1 Tim. 1. 20. 2 Tim. 2. 24, 25. Tit. 1. 9, 10, 11.

Now if none of these hold true; but on the contrary, fuch Evils have been, and may be found to creep in among the People of God, and that fuch as fee them, may and ought to reprove them; then necessarily the doing so, is neither Imposition, Force nor Oppression.

As to the Third, concerning the Consequence 1674. and Tendency of them, it is mostly included in the two former: for whatsoever tendeth not to Coost. 3. Edification; but on the contrary to Destruction, Sowers of and to beget Discord among Brethren, is to be Discord among Brethren, mark avoided.

Rom. 16. 17. Now I beseech you, Brethren, mark avoided. them, which cause Divisions and Offences, contrary to the Dostrine which ye have learned, and avoid them.

And fince there is no greater Mark of the People of God, than to be at Peace among them-Tofollow felves; what soever tendeth to break that Bond of our selves-Love and Peace, must be testified against. Let it be observed, I speak always of the Church of Christ indeed, and deal with such, as are of another Mind: not as reckoning only false Churches not to have this Power, but denying it even to the true Church of Christ, as judging it not fit for her so to act, as in Relation to her Members. For though Christ be the Prince of Peace, and doth most of all commend Love and Unity to his Disciples; yet I also know, he came not to send Peace, but a Sword, that is, in dividing Man from the Lusts and Sins he hath been united to. And also it is the Work of his Disciples and Messengers to break the Bands and Unity of the To the Wicked, wherein they are banded against God the Bands of and his Truth, and the Confederacy of fuch as the Wicked. ftand in Unrighteoufness, by inviting and bringing as many as will obey, unto Righteoufness; whereby they become dif-united and separated from their Companions, with whom they were centered, and at Peace in the contrary and cur-prov. 20.26, fed Nature. 1674. from their Brethren; that they imay come to know the Brotherhood and Fellowship which is in the Light; from which none ought to scatter, nor to be scattered, but be more and more gathered thereunto. And this leads me to what I proposed in the Third Place under this Head of the True Churches Power in Matters Spiritual, or Purely Conscientions; which may be thus objected:

Quest. 3. If thou plead so much for an Oneness in the simallest Matters, wherein consisteth the Freedom and Liberty of the Conscience, which may be exercised by the Members of the true Church diversly,

In Answer to this Proposition, I affirm, first in general; That whatsoever Things may be supposed to proceed from the same Spirit, though divers in its Appearance, tending to the same End of Edification, and which in the Tendency of it layeth not a real Ground for Division or Dissention of Spirit, Fellow-Members ought not only to bear one another, but strengthen one another in them.

Now the Respects wherein this may be, I can describe no better than the Apostle Paul doth principally in two Places, which therefore will be fit to consider at Length for the Opening of this Matter; this being one of the weightiest Points pertaining to this Subject. Because as on the one Hand due Forbearance ought to be exercised in its right Place; so on the other, the many Devices and false Pretences of the Enemy creeping in here, ought to be guarded against.

Which I would not have fet down at large, but that there be some so careless (especially in Matters they like not) that they will scarce be at the Pains seriously to read over a Citation only named; and that also this being presented before the Reader in the Current of the Discourse, will fix the Nature of my Application the more in his Understanding. For the Apostle shews here here the Variety of the Operations of the divers 1574. Members of the Body of Christ, working to one The Sum of and the same End; as the divers Members of a the Premit-Man's Body towards the maintaining and uphold. fes.

ing of the whole. Now these are not placed in contrary Workings, for so they would destroy one another; and fo the Apostle in the ordering of them in three feveral Kinds proves this. First, Diversities of Gifts. Secondly, Differences of Administrations. Thirdly, Diversities of Operations: And that which is the Bond that keeps the Oneness, here he also mentions, to wit, The same Spirit, the same Lord, the same God: The Apostle names nothing of Contrariety or Opposition. But lest any should be so Critical, as to bring in here the School-Distinction of Contrarium Oppositum and Contradictorium; I shall not deny, but Contrariety or Opposition in the Sense it is sometimes taken, may be found in the Body without Schifm: As the comely Parts may be faid to be Opposite or Contrary to the Uncomely, or the left Hand contrary to the right, or the Foot opposite to the Head, as the uppermost Part to the undermost; or No Contrathe Doing a thing is contrary to the Forbearing riety in the of it; but as for that which is acknowledged to christ. be Propositions or Termini Contradictorii, that is Contradictory Propositions, which are in themselves irreconcilable, whereof one must be still wrong, and that still destroy one another, and work contrary Effects, they are not at all admitted, nor supposed to be in the Body of Christ; as I shall give in one Instance, Vers. 8. To one is given by instances the Spirit the Word of Wisdom, to another the Word of Knowledge by the Same Spirit: First, here are two different Gifts, but not contrary. Second. ly, There may fomething like Contrariety in the Sence afore-mentioned, be here supposed; as, fome may want this Gift of Wildom and Knowledge, and so to have is contrary to want (though as to these two, none may be absolutely said to want them; yet all have them not in the same Degree, as a special Gift; though as to some Gifts there may be an absolute Want, as that of Miracles and Interpretation of Tongues.) But should I suppose such a Contrariety, or more properly a Contradiction, as to Wisdom to oppose Folly, and to Knowledge Utter Ignorance; this were an Opposition not to be admitted of in the Body, because it were false to suppose, that to proceed from the same Spirit. And such Contravieties or Diversities, as cannot justly be supposed to proceed from the same Spirit of God, which is the Bond that links together, cannot be mutually entertained in the Body. So the Differences and Diversities, which the Apostle admits of, while he speaks largely in this Matter, are, That none ought to be offended at his Brother, that he bath not the same Work and Office in the Body, that he bath; but that every one keep in his own Place, as God hath appointed them; that neither them that are set in a higher Place, despise them that are set in a lower; nor them that are set in a lower, grudge and repine at such as are set higher: but all work in their proper Place towards the Edification of the Whole. And that the Apostle intends this, is manifest, where he draws to a Conclusion, Verl. 27. Now ye are the Body of Christ and Members in particular, and God hath set some in the Church, first, Apostles, Secondly Prophets, &c. and then he subsumes, Are all Apostles? &c.

of Works and Operations in the Body.

Which the same Paul again confirms, Ephef. 4.-8, 11. to the 17th, which was the second Place I intended; and shall only mention for Brevity's sake, leaving the Reader to consider of it at his Leisure.

of Fathers, Toung Men, and little Children: And 1674. by Peter, 1 Pet. 5. 1, 5. in that of Elders and Tounger. The true Liberty then in the Church of Liberty in Christ is exercised, whenas one judgeth not another church other in these different Places; but live in Love together, all minding the Unity and general Good of the Body, and to work their own Work in their own Place. Also the Forbearance of the Saints is exercised, whenas they judge not one another for being sound in the different Appearance either of Doing or Forbearing; which may be peculiar to their several Places and Stations in the Body: For that there is and may be Diversities of Works there, is excellently well expressed by the Apostle, viz.

Rom. 12.3. For I fay through the Grace given unto me, to every Man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly, than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every Man the Measure of Faith.

Vers. 4. For as we have many Members in one Body, and all Members have not the same Office; Vers. 5. So we being many, are one Body in Christ, and every one Members one of another.

Vers. 6. Having then Gists differing, according to the Grace that is given to us, whether Prophecy, let us Prophesy according to the Proportion of Faith:

Vers. 8. Or he that Exhorteth; on Exhortation: He that giveth, let him do it with Simplicity; he that Ruleth, with Diligence; he that sheweth Mercy, with Cheerfulness.

If any then should quarrel with his Brother, for exercising that which belongeth to the Office of the Body, Christ hath called him to, and would force him to exercise the same Office he doth, though he be not called to it; here is a

1674. Breach of Christian Liberty, and an Imposing upon it. Now all Schifms and Jars fall out in this

The Breach twofold Respect: Either when any Person or Per-of Liberty begets Jars sons assume another or an higher Place in the and Schiffns. As I Cor. 4. 3, 4. where fome judged Paul wrongously: 3 John 9. where one exalting himself above his Place, judged, whom he ought not. We fee then, what Diverfities be most usually in the Church of God, confisting in the Difference of the Gift proceeding from the same Spirit; and in the divers Places, that the feveral Members have in the same Body for the Edification of it; and every one being here in his own Station, is standing therein, is his Strength and Perfection; and to be in another, though higher and more eminent, would but weaken and hurt him: And so in this there ought to be a mutual Forbearance, that there may neither be a Coveting nor Aspiring on the one Hand, nor yet a Despising or Condemning on the other. An of For- But besides the Forbearance of this Nature, which bearance in is most ordinary and universal (and for the Exerthe Church, cife whereof there is and will still be a Need, so long as there is any Gathering or Church of Christ upon the Earth) there is a certain Liberty and Forbearance also, that is more particular, and has a Relation to the Circumstance of Times and Places, which will not hold univerfally: whereof we have the Example of the primitive Church, testified by the Scriptures in two or three Particulars. The first was, In Suffering Circumcision to the Jews for a Time, and not only so, but

And the third, In the Abstaining from Meats, I Cor. 8, throughout: Here the Apostle perswades to and recommends a Forbearance, because of the Weakness of some; for he says not any where, nor can it be found in all the Scriptures of the Gospel, that these Things such weak Ones were exercifed in, were Things indifpenfably necessary, or that it had been better for them, they had not been under fuch Scruples, providing it had been from a Principle of true Clearness, and Co of Faith.

Next again, These Acts of Forbearance were Acts of Fordone in a Condescension to the Weakness of such, bearance or upon whom the Antient (and truly deserved in connumber the its Season) Veneration of the Law had such a Law. deep Impression, that they could not yet dispense with all its Ceremonies and Customs: And to fuch the Apostle holds forth a twofold Forbearance.

First, A certain Compliance by fuch Believers, as were gathered out from the Fews: though To Jews. they saw over these things, yet it was fit they should condescend somewhat to their Countrymen and Brethren, who were weak.

Secondly, The like Forbearance in the Gentiles, not to judge them in these Things: but we see. To Gentiles. that it was not allowed for fuch weak Ones to propagate these Scruples, or draw others into thein; and that when as any of the Churches of of the Gentiles, who wanted this Occasion, would have been exercifing this Liberty, or pleading for it, the Apostle doth down-rightly condemn it, as I shall make appear in all the three Instances above-mentioned.

First, In that of Circumcision, Gal. 5. 2, 4. Behold, of Cirannia

Behold, I Paul Say unto you, that if ye be Cir-1674. vermeised, Christ shall profit you nothing; Christ is become of none Effect unto you: Whosoever of you are justified by the Law, ye are fallen from Grace.

Can there be any thing more positive? Might not some here have pretended Tenderness of Conscience, and have said, Though the Decree of the Apostles do dispense with Circumcision in me; yet if I find a Scruple in my self, and a Desire to it out of Tenderness, why should it be an Evil in me to do it, more than in the Jews that believe? We fee, there is no Room left here for fuch Reafoning.

Ot Observations of Days.

Secondly, As to Observations, Gal. 4. 9, 10, 11. Might not they have answered, What if we regard a Day to the Lord, must we not then? Are not these thy own Words? We see, that did not hold here, because in them it was a Returning to the Reggarly Elements.

Inst. 3. Of Meats. '

Thirdly, As to Meats, 1 Tim. 4.3. Here we fee, that is accounted a Doctrine of Devils; which in another Respect was Christian Forbearance. And therefore now, and that in the general Respect, he gives this Reason, Vers. 4. For every Creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with Thanksgiving of them that believe, and know the Truth. So we fee, that in these particular Things there is great need of Wariness in the Church of Christ; for that sometimes Forbearance under a Pretence of Liberty may be more hurtful, than down-right Judging. I suppose, if any should arise, and pretend Conscience, and claim a Liberty for Circumcision and the Purifications of the Law, whether all Chriflians would not with one Voice condemn it? And so as to Days and Meats, how do the Generality of Protestants judge it? Though I deny not, but there may and ought to be a mutual For,

Forbearance in the Church of Christ in certain fuch Cases, which may fall in; and a Liberty 'N there is in the Lord, which breaks not the Peace of the true Church: but in such Matters (as I observed at large before) both the Nature of the Things, the Spirit they come from, and the Occasion from whence, and their Consequence and Tendency is to be carefully observed.

SECTION VII.

Concerning the Power of DECISION.

CEeing then, it may fall out in the Church of Christ, that both some may assume another Place in the Body than they ought, and others may lay claim to a Liberty, and pretend Conscience in things they ought not, and that without Question the Wrong is not to be tolerated. but to be testified against, however specious its Appearance may be; and that it must and ought to be judged: The Question will arise. Who is the Head III. proper Judge or Judges, in whom resideth the Power Proposition of deciding this Controversy? And this is that, which I undertook in the next Place to treat of, as being the Specifick Difference, and distinguish. ing Property of the Church of Christ from all other Autichristian Assemblies and Churches of Man's Building and Framing.

To give a short, and yet clear and plain Anfwer to this Proposition: The only proper Judge of Controversies in the Church, is the Spirit of God, and the Power of deciding solely lies in it; as The Spirit of baving the only Unerring, Infallible and Certain God the Judgment belonging to it: which Infallibility is not proper Judge of Contronecessarily annexed to any Persons, Person or Places versies in what soever, by Virtue of any Office, Place or Sta the Church. tion any one may have, or have had in the Body of

That is to say, that any have Ground to reason thus, Because I am or have been such an eminent Member, therefore my fudgment is infallible; or, Because we are the greatest Number; or, that We live in such a Noted or Famous Place, or the like: Though some of these Reasons may and ought to have their true Weight in Case of Contradictory Assertions (as shall hereafter be observed) yet not so, as upon which either mainly or only the Infallible Judgment is to be placed; but upon the Spirit, as that which is the firm and unmoveable Foundation.

And now if I should go on no further, I have said enough to vindicate us from IMPOSITION, and from the Tyranny, whether of Popery, Prelacy, or Preshytery, or any such like we have or may twixt the Dispensation of the Law, and the Gospel or New Covenant; for that of Old all Answers were to be received from the Priests in the Tabernacle. For he, that appeared betwixt the Numbr. 89. People; and there were also Families of the Pro-Hos. 12. 16. phets, to whom they resorted for the Answer of 2 Chron. 18. the Lord (though sometimes as a Signification of John 6. 45. the further Glory, that was to be revealed, it Heb. 1.1,2 pleafed God to reveal his Mind to some, even to them, who were neither Prophets nor Prophets Sons) but under the Gospel, we are all to be taught of God, that is, none are excluded from his Priviledge by not being of the Tribe of Levi, or of the Children of the Prophets: Though this Priviledge is as truly exercised in some by affenting and obeying, to what God Commands and Reveals through others (they feeling Unity with it in the Life) as by such, who by the Revelation and Command of God's Spirit hold forth his Will to his People in certain Particulars, which which the same Spirit leads and commands them 1674. to obey. So that we fay, and that with a very good Ground, that it is no way Inconfistant with this found and unerring Principle, to affirm, That the Judgment of a certain Person or Judgment Persons in certain Cases is Infallible, or for a infallible proceeds certain Person or Persons to give a positive Judg-trom the ment, and pronounce it as Obligatory upon of fallible. thers, because the Foundations and Ground thereof is not because they are infallible, but because in these Things, and at that Time they were led by the Infallible Spirit. And therefore it will not shelter any in this Respect to pretend, I am not bound to obey the Distates of fallible Man; Is not this Popery, I not being perswaded in my self? Because it is not to be disobedient to them, but to the Judgment of Truth through them at fuch a Time; and one or more there not being perswaded, may as probably proceed from their being hardned, and being out of their Place, and in an Incapacity to hear the Requirings, as that the Thing is not required of them; which none can deny, but it may as well be supposed, as the Contrary. But for the further clearing of this Matter, before I conclude, I shall not doubt both to affirm and prove these following Propositions.

First, That there never will, nor can be want-Affert. 1. ing in Case of Controversy, the Spirit of God to give Judgment through some or other in the Church of Christ, so long as any Assembly can properly, or in any tolerable Supposition be fo termed.

Secondly, That God hath ordinarily, in the Affert. 2. ployed fuch, whom he had made use of in gathering of his Church, and infeeding and watching over them; though not excluding others.

Thirdly, That their de Fatto, or effectual Meet- Affert. 2. ing together, and giving a positive Judgment in C c 4 fuch

1674. fuch Cases, will not import Tyranny and Usurpa-Vion, or an Inconfistancy with the Universal Priviledge, that all Christians have, to be led by the Spirit; neither will the Pretences of any contradicting them, or refusing to submit upon the Account they see it not, or so, excuse them from being really guilty of disobeying God.

Affert. 1. Proved.

For the First, to those that believe the Scripture, there will need no other Probation, than that of Matt. 28. 20. And lo, I am with you alway even unto the End of the World. And Ver. 18. And the Gates of Hell shall not prevail against it. Now if the Church of Christ were so destitute prevail against.

The Infalli- of the Spirit of God, that in Case of Difference b'e Spirit the Gates of there were not any found, that by the Infallible Hell cannot Spirit could give a certain Judgment; Would not then the Gates of Hell prevail against it? For where is Strife and Division, and no effectual Way to put an End to it, there not only the Gates, but the Courts and inner Chambers of Darkness prevail; for where Envy and Strife is, there is Confusion and every Evil Work.

But that there may be here no Ground of Mistake, or Supposition, that we were annexing Infallibility to certain Persons, or limiting the Church to fuch; I understand not by the Church, every particular Gathering or Assembly, circumscribed to any particular Country or City: For I will not refuse, but divers of them, both apart and together, if not Established in God's Power, may Err. Nor yet do I lay the absolute Stress upon a general Assembly of Persons, as such, picked and chosen out of every one of those particular Churches; as if what the Generality or Plurality of those Conclude upon, were necessarily to be supposed to be the Infallible Judgment of Truth: Though to fuch an Assembly of Persons truly stated (as they ought) in God's Power, he hath heretofore Revealed his Will in. fuch fuch Cases; and yet may, as the most probable 1674. Way (which shall be spoken of hereafter:) Yet fuch, as are a meer Assembly, is not conclusive. Nor yet do I understand by the Church, every Gathering or Assembly of People, who may hold found and true Principles, or have a Form of Having Truth; for some may lose the Life and Power of the Form of Godlines, who notwithstanding may retain the Form or Notions of things, but yet are to be turned away from, because in so far (as I observed before) as Sanctification, to wit, those that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, make the Church, and give the right Definition to it: Where that is wholly wanting, the Church of Christ ceaseth to be; and there remains nothing but a Shadow without Substance. Such Assemblies then are like the dead Body, when the Soul is departed, which is no more fit to be converfed with; because it corrupts, and proves noisom to the Living. But by the Church of Christ I understand all those, that truly and really have received and hold the Truth, as it is in Jesus, and are in Measure fanctified, or fanctifying in and by the Power and Virtue thereof working in their inward Parts: and this may be made up of divers distinct Church. Gatherings or Churches in several Countries or Na. tions: I fay, fo long as these or any of them do retain that, which justly entitles them the Church or Churches of Christ, (which they may be truly call'd) though there may fall out some Differences, Divisions or Schisms among them: As we may see, there was no small Diffension in the Church of Antioch, and yet it ceased not to be a Church, Acts 15. 2. and 1 Cor. 1. 11.

The Erring Church or People -

For it bath been declared unto me of you, my Brethren, that there are Contentions among you, and yet Verse 2. he entitles them the Church of God, them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus: So long, I fay, as they truly retain this Title of the 1674. The certain Truth is never wanting Church of Christ.

Church of Christ, as being really such, there will never be wanting the certain Judgment of Truth. Judgment of For which, besides the positive Promise of Christ before-mentioned (which is not without Blasphemy to be called in Question, or doubted of) I shall add these Reasons. That feeing the Church of Christis his Body, of which he is the Head, it were to make Christ negligent of his Body, who stiles himself the good Shepherd, and hath faid, He will never leave nor forfake his own; or else (which is worse) it will infer a Possibility of Error, or Mistake in Christ, in whom, as the Head are the Eves of the Body, by which it is to be Ruled in all things. Next, We never find in all the Scripture fince the Gospel, that ever this was Wanting; but that God still gave Infallible Judgment by his Spirit in some of the Respects abovementioned. If the Transactions and Controverfies of the after-Centuries be alledged, I will boldly affirm and prove, That there was never a True Judgment wanting, fo long as the Nature and Efsence of the true Church was retained: If any will needs affirm otherwise, let them shew me where, and I shall answer it. Though I deny not (that after the Mystery of Iniquity did begin to work, or had so wrought first by intermixing, and afterward by altogether forfaking the Nature of Truth, retaining only the bare Name of the Church) but that there might be some scattered Ones, here and there one in a Nation, and now and then one in an Age, who by the Power and Virtue of the Spirit of Life working in them, might be truly fanctified; yet these were but as witnesses in Witnesses in Sackcloth, no ways sufficient to give these Assemblies, in which they were engrossed, the Appellation of the Church of Christ, coming no more under Observation by the Generality, nor having as to them any more Influence, than fome Tittle, or scarcely difcernable Sparks of Fire in many great Heaps and Mountains of Ashes. 1674. And thus much to prove, that where there is any Gathering or Assembly, which truly and properly may be called the Church of Christ, the Infallible Judgment will never be Wanting in Matters of Controversy.

Secondly, That ordinarily God hath in the com- Affert. 2. municating of his Will under his Gospel imployed Proved. such, whom he had made Use of in gathering of his Church, and in feeding and watching over them, though not excluding others. For as in a Natural Body (to which the Church of Christ is compared) the more-substantial and powerful Members do work most effectual; and their Help is most necessary to supply any Defect or Trouble in the Body: So also, if there be Diversities of Gifts in the Church (as is above proved) and some have a greater Measure, and some a lesser; those that have the greater, are more capable to do Good and to help the Body in its need, than others, that are weaker, and less powerful: Since there are Strong and Weak, Babes and Young-Men, who have overcome the Evil One, and in whom the Word of God abideth; fuch are more able, when the Enemy besets, to Resist (having already Overcome) than others, who are but yet wrestling, and not Conquerers. Now, every Controversy and Diffention in the Church comes from the Be-From the fetments of the Enemy; yet if any of these of the Energy strong or Young Men, or Powerful Members go my Diffentions arise. are as weak as any; and it is presupposing their Faithfulness in their Place, that I thus affirm, and no otherwise. Nor yet do I limit the Lord to this Method; For in him are all the Treasures both of our Wisdom and Strength; and the weakest in his Hand are as strong, as the strongest, who may now as well, as heretofore kill a Goliah by the Hand of little David: Yet we see, the Lord doth doth ordinarily make Use of the Strong to support the Weak; and indeed, when such as may be termed Weak, are so made Use of, it alters the Nature of their Place, and constitutes them in a higher and more eminent Degree. For though it was little David, it was also he, that was to be King of Ifrael. Though the Apostles were mean Men among the Jews; yet they were fuch, as were to be the Apostles of the Lord of Glory, Instruments to gather the lost Sheep of the House of Israel, and to Proclaim the acceptable Day of the Lord. And though Paul was once accounted the Least of all the Saints, a Child born out of due Time; yet was he him, who was

Now then let us consider, whom the Lord makes use of in the Affairs of the Primitive Church, and through whom he gave forth his Infallible Judgment ? Did he not begin first by Peter ? he was the first, that spake in the first Meeting they had, Ads I. and who first stood up after the pouring forth of the Spirit; and who first appeared before the Council of the fews, and spake in Behalf of the Gospel of Christ: Though Iam far from calling him (as some do) the Prince of the Apostles; yet I may safely say, he was one of the most antient and eminent, and to whom Christ in a Manner fomewhat more than ordinary had recommended the Feeding of his Flock. also, he was first made use of in Preaching to the Gentiles; and what Weight his and James's Words had in the Contest about Circumcision towards the bringing the Matter to a Conclusion, Alls 15. Yet that we may see, Infallibility was not inseparably annexed to him, he was found blamable in a certain Matter, Gal. 2. 11. notwithstanding his Sentence was positively received in many Particulars.

So

So also the Apostle Paul argues from his Gathering of the Churches of Corinth and Galatia, that they ought to be Followers of him; and positively concludes in divers things: And upon this Supposition exhorts the Churches (both he and Peter) in many Passages heretofore mentioned (which I will not, to avoid Repetition, again rehearse) To obey the Elders that watch for them; to hold such in Reputation, and to submit themselves to them that have additted themselves to the Ministry of the Saints, 1 Cor. 16. 15, 16.

Also we see, how the Lord makes use of John his beloved Disciple, to inform and reprove the Seven Churches of Asia; and no doubt, John (the rest by the usual Computation being at that Time all removed) was then the most noted and famous Elder alive: And indeed, I mind not, where under the Gospel Christ hath used any other Method, but that he always in Revealing his Will hath made Use of such, as he himself had before appointed Elders and Officers in his Church. Though it be far from us to limit the Lord, so as to exclude any from this Priviledge; nor yet on the other hand will the Possibility hereof be a fufficient Warrant to allow every obscure Member to stand up, and offer to Rule, Judge and Condemn the whole Body: Nor yet is it without Cause, that such an One's Message is jealoused, and called in Question, unless it have very great Evidence, and be bottomed upon fome very weighty and folid Caufe and Foundation. God doth fo furnish those whom he raises up, in a fingular Manner, of which (as I faid) I mind no Instance in the New Testament: And in the Old we fee, though it was strange, that little David should oppose himself to the great Goliah, vet he had before that killed both the Lyon and the Bear, which was no less improbable; and which of all is most observable, was before that Time 1674. by the Appointment of God, and the Hand of the Prophet Anointed King of Ifrael. Compare the 16th and 17th Chap. of the 1st of Samuel.

Affert. 3. proved.

Now as to the Third, That any particular Perfons de facto, or effectually giving out a positive Judgment, is no Incroaching nor Imposing upon their Brethren's Conscience, is necessarily included in what is said before; upon which for further Probation there will only need this short Reflec-That for any Member or Members in Obedience to the Lord to give forth a positive Judgment in the Church of Christ, is their proper Place and Office, they being called to it; and so for them to exercise that place in the Body, which the Head moves them to, is not to usurp Authority over their Fellow-Members: As on the other Hand to submit and obey, (it being the Place of some so to do) is not a Renouncing a being led by the Spirit; feeing the Spirit leads them so to do: And not to obey, in Case the Judgment be according to Truth, and the Spirit lead to it, is, no doubt, both offenfive and fin-ful. And that all this may be supposed in the Church of Christ without Absurdity, and so establish the above-mentioned Propositions, will appear by a short Review of the former Pasfages.

If that Peter and James their giving a positive Judgment in the Case of Difference in divers particulars, did not infer them to be Imposers, so neither will any so doing now, being led to it by the same Authority: Every one may easily make the Application. And on the contrary, if for any to have flood up and refifted their Judgment, pretending an Unclearness, or so, and thereby held up the Difference after their Sentence, breaking the Peace and Unity of the Alb 15,21. Church (Things being concluded with an It feemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us) I say, if fuch fuch would have given just Cause of Offence, and 1674. have been cut off, as Despisers of Dignities of Old, will not the like Case now occurring hold the same Conclusion? Now whether those Propositions do not hold upon the Principles before laid down and proved, I leave to every Ju-dicious and impartial Reader to judge.

Moreover we see, how positive the Apostle Paul is in many particulars throughout all his Epistles, infomuch as he faith, 2 Thess. ult. v. 14. If any Man obey not our Word by this Epistle, note that Man, and have no Company with him, that he may be ashamed. And in many more Places be-fore mentioned, where he commands them both to obey him and feveral others, who were ap- submiffion pointed (no doubt by the Spirit of God) to be and Obedi-Rulers among them; and yet who will fay, that Judgment of either the Apostle did more than he ought, in Truth, the Spirit of Commanding? Or they less, than they were o God leads inbliged to, in Submitting? And yet neither were to. to do any thing contrary or more, than the Spirit of God in themselves led them to, or allowed them in. And if the Church of God bear any Parity or Proportion now in these Days, with what it did of Old (as I know no Reason why it should not) the same Things may now be supposed to take Effect, that did then; and also be lawfully done upon the like Occasion proceeding from the same Spirit, and established upon the Same Basis and Foundation. And thus much as to that Part, to shew, In whom the Power of Decision is? Which being seriously and impartially confidered, is sufficient to clear us from the Tyranny either of Popery, or any other of that Nature, with those that are not either wilfully Blind, or very ignorant of Popish Principles, as the Judicious Reader may observe. But seeing, To manifest that Difference, was one of those 1673. Things proposed to be considered of, I shall now come to say something of it in its proper Place.

SECTION VIII.

How this Government altogether differeth from the Oppressing and Persecuting Principality of the Church of Rome, and other Anti-Christian Assemblies.

Head III. Propof. 3. proved. W Hatever Way we understand the Popish Principles in this Matter, whether of those that are most devoted to the See of Rome, as the King of Spain's Dominions, and the Princes of Italy; the Jesuites and Generality of all those called Religious Orders, who hold, that Papa in Cathedra non potest creare, licet absque Concilio; that is, That the Pope in his Chair cannot err, though without a Council; Or of those that are less devoted, who plead this Infallibility in the Pope and Council lawfully convened, who yet by the more zealous are reckoned Petty Schismaticks; I say, whatever Way we take them, all those that do pro-

Principles of ever Way we take them, all those that do prothe Romish fess themselves Members of the Romish Church, and are so far such, as to understand their own. Principles, do unquestionably acknowledge,

I. First, That no General Council can be lawfully called, without the Bishop of Rome, as Christ's Vicar and Peter's Successor call it.

II. Secondly, That either he himself, or some for him, as his Legates must be there present, and always preceed.

Thirdly, That the Members having Vote, are made up of Bishops or Presbyters, or Commissioners from the several Orders, being of the Clergy.

Fourthly?

V:

Fourthly, That what is concluded on by Plura-1674. lity of Votes, and Agreed to by the Pope and his IV. Legates, must necessarily be supposed to be the Judgment of the Infallible Spirit.

Fifthly, That all the Members of the Church are bound implicitly to Receive and Believe it, because it proceeds from a Council to be accounted Lawful in the Respects above-mentioned, without regard to the Intrinsick or Real Truths of the Things preferibed, or bringing them in any Respect to the Test or Examination of the Spirit of God in them. selves, or the Scriptures Testimony, or their Agreement or Disagreement with Truths formerly believed and received: for so much as to prove or try them by Way of Doubt, they reckon a Breach of the first Command; as on the other hand a Matter of Merit, implicitly to receive and believe them, however inconsistent with the Testimony of the Spirit in ones own Heart, Scripture, Truth and Reason.

Sixthly, That no Man as a Member of the Church of Christ in that simple Capacity, unless a Clergyman, or the Ambassador of some King, &c. can be admitted to Sit, Vote, or give his Judgment.

Seventhly, That it is in no Respect to be sup- VII: posed, that any Members, especially Laicks, whether in a particular City, Country or Nation, may meet concerning any Things relating to the Faith and Worship of the Church, and give by the Spirit of God any Judgment; but that all such Meetings are to be accounted Schismatical and Unlawful. And

Lastly, That the Promise of Infallibility, and VIII. the Gates of Hell not prevailing, is necessarily annexed to the Pope and Council called and authorized in the Manner above expressed:

Now if to deny every one of these Propositions, wherein all understanding Men know the Errors and Abuses of the Romish Church consist, be to be Popish? then indeed may we be supposed to be one with the Papists in this Matter, but no otherwise: So that the very Mentioning of these Things is sufficient to shew the Difference betwixt us and them. But if any will needs plead our Agreement with them thus;

Objection. The Papists affirm an Infallibility of Judgment in the Church of Christ, and so do you; therefore you are one with Papists.

Answ. 1. I Answer, that proves no more our Oneness in this Matter, then if it should be said, The Papists plead that, God ought to be Worshipped, and so do you; Therefore ye agree: Notwithstanding of the vast Differences as to that, which is not only known betwixt us and them, but betwixt them and all Protestants, who agree more with them in the Matter of Worship, than we do.

Next again, Infallibility in the Church (according as we hold it, and I have above defined it) no Man upon our Supposition (or Hypothesis) can deny it. For fince we first affert, as a Principle, Church isled

That no Gathering, no Church, nor Assembly of tallible spiPeople, however true their Principles or exact their Form be, are to be accounted the Church of Christ, except the Infallible Spirit lead and guide; what can be the Hazzard to say, that in such a Church there is still an Infallible Judgment? Indeed, this is so far from Popery, that it

* For some resolves in a Proposition quite contradictory to Popes have them. The Romanists say, That the Infallible been known to deny, or Spirit always accompanies the outward visible Proat least to fessors, and is annexed to the External Succession doubt the Truth of the of Bishops and Pastors, though ever so vitious as Scriptures, as to their Lives: yea, though perfett * Atheists and Infidels in their private Judgments, yet if outftory of Christ, and wardly professing the Catholick Eaith, and Subto call in question the jection to the Church, they must be Partakers of immortality the Infallible Spirit. We say the quite contrary, of the Soul, and the Re- That where there is either Vitiousness of Perfurrection. fons, fons, or Unfoundness of Judgment in the Par- 1674. ticular Members, these cannot by virtue of any outward Call or Succession they have, or any Profession they make, or Authority they may pretend to, so much as claim an Interest in any Part of the Church of Christ, or the Infallible Spirit.

So then, if we admit none to be Members of of the Church, but such as are led and guided The Infalliby the Spirit, it will be no Popery in the Second ment where Place to affirm, That where there is a Company it is? of People fo gathered, who are not any longer to retain justly the Name of the Church of Christ, than they are led and guided by his Spirit, or a Church fo qualified and defigned, there is still an Infallible Judgment. So that this Infallibility is not annexed to the Persons, to the Succession, to the bare visible Profession (though true, which the Church of Rome is denied to be) or to any Society, because of its Profession; but fingly and alone to the True, Real and Effectual Work of Sanctification and Regeneration, the New Creature brought forth in the Heart: And this is the Spiritual Man, which the Apostle saith, Judgeth all Things, 1 Cor. 2. 15. To affirm, there is an Infallibilty here, cannot well be condemned by any, or whoso doth, must needs say, the Spirit of God is fallible: For we place the Infallibility in the Spirit and in the Power, not in the Persons. And so these are the Degrees we ascend by; " Because such and such Men are led by the Spi-" rit of God, and are obedient to the Grace in " their Hearts, therefore are they Members and " Officers in the Church of Christ. And because "they are Members of the Church-of Christ in "the Respect before declared, therefore there is " an Infallible Judgment among them. We do not say, Because such Men profess the Christian Faith, and have received an outward Ordination, Dd 2

1674. and so are by a Lawful Succession formally established Officers in the Church, when they Meet together (according to certain Rules above declared) there is an Infallibility annexed to their Conclusions, and they cannot but decide what is Right; or rather, what they decide must needs be supposed to be Right. Who seeth not here a vast Disproportion?

Now we differ herein fundamentally, that is, as to the very Basis and Foundation upon which we build; and that not only from the Church of Rome, but also from the Generality of Protestants in this Matter. All Protestants do acknowsynodor Ge. ledge a General Council to be useful, yea, necesconfider the Basis upon which they proceed, and the Stress they lay upon it.

First, All jointly, both the Prelatical and Presbyterial will have this Synod or Council to confift of a Convocation of the Clergy, chosen and fent from the Particular Congregations, with some few Laick Elders, called together by the Civil Magistrate; in Case he be one in Judgment with them.

They decide by Plurality of Votes. And tho' they assume not an Absolute Infallibility, in that they reckon it possible for them to Err; yet do they reckon their Decisions Obligatory upon their Supposed Consonancy to the Scripture: and however do Affirm, That the Civil Magistrate hath Power to constrain all to Submit and Obey; or else to punish them either by Death, Banishment, Imprisonment, Confiscation of Goods, or some other Corporeal Pain; even though fuch be perswaded and offer to make appear, that the Decisions they refuse, are contrary to the Scriptures.

And Lastly: (Among the Papists) None, tho? otherwise Confessed to be a Member of the Church

Church both Knowing and Sober, except Com- 1674. missionate in some of the Respects above-de-clared, can be Admitted to Sit, vote and give his Judgment.

Any that will be at the Pains to apply this to the Foundation I before laid of the Infallibility of Judgment, in that we may account only to be truly called the Church of Christ, will easily see 3. we distinct the great Difference betwixt us; which I shall them both. fum up in these Particulars:

First, Do we Exclude any Member of the I. . Church of Christ, that may be truly accounted fo, to tell his Judgment?

Secondly, Do we say, Man ought to be perfecuted in his Outwards for his Dis-assent in Spirituals?

Thirdly, Do we plead, That Decision is to pass Conclusive, because of the Plurality of Votes?

And much more; which the Reader may obferve, from what is already mentioned: which that it may be all more Obvious at One View, will appear fomewhat clearly by this following Figure; which will give the Reader an Opportunity to Recollect, what lay heretofore more feattered.

I. The ROMANISTS II. The Generality of Pro-TESTANTS Jay, fay,

1. That there is an Infallibility in the Church: which Infallibility is, when the Pope calls a General Council of Bishops, &c. the Edification of the that what soever they con- Church. That such do clude and agree upon, consist of a Convocamust needs be the Infal-lible Judgment of the some few Laicks parti-Spirit of God, because of cularly Chosen. That

2. And that the Pope and Council, made up of certain of the Clergy, having One Outward and being Succession. lawfully Ordained according to the Canons, are to which that Church. that Promise is made, however wicked or depraved they be; yet this Infallible Judgment follows them, as being necessarily annexed to their Office, in which the Authority still stands in its full Strength and Vigour.

3. So that there lies an Obligation upon the whole Body of the Church to Obeytheir Decrees: And fuch as do not, are not only certainly Damned for their Disobedience, but that it is the Duty of the Civil Magistrate to punish such by Death, Banishment or Imprisonment, &c. in case they resuse.

all others, except those so Elected, have not any Right to Vote or give Judgment.

2. That fuch an Affembly fo constitute, may Ministerially determine Controversies of Faith, Cases of Conscience, Matters of Worthip, and authoritatively determine the fame. The Decision is to be by Plurality of Votes, without any necellary Respect to the Inward Holiness or Regeneration of the Perfons; if so be, they be Outwardly Called, Ordained and Invested in such a Place and Capacity, as gives them an Authority to be Members of fuch an Affembly.

3. What they thus decide (as they judge according to the Scripture) ought to be received with Reverence, and Submitted to: And those that do not, to be punished by the Civil Magistrate by Death, Banishment or Imprisonment, though they declare and be ready to evidence, that it is, because they are not Agreeable to the Scripture, they resuse they according to the scripture, they resuse they independently in the scripture.

III. The

III. The QUAKERS fay,

1674.

1. That whereas none truly ought, nor can be The Sanctifiaccounted the Church of Christ, but such as are ed Members. in a Measure Sanctified or Sanctifying by the Grace of God, and led by his Spirit; nor yet any made Officers in the Church, but by the Grace of God and Inward Revelation of his Spirit, (not by Outward Ordination or Succession:) from which none is to be excluded, if so called, whether Married, or a Tradesman, or a Servant.

2. If so be, in such a Church there should a rheir Infalrise any Difference, there will be an Infallible lible Judgment from the Spirit of God, which may be in a General Assembly; yet not limited to it, as excluding others: And may prove the Judgment of the Plurality; yet not to be decided thereby, as if the Infallibility were placed there, excluding the fewer. In which Meeting or Assembly upon such an Account, there is no Limitation to be of Persons particularly Chosen; but that all that in a True Sence may be reckoned of the Church, as being Sober and Weighty, may be present and give their Judgment.

3. And that the Infallible Judgment of Truth which cannot be wanting in such a Church) submitted whether it be given through one or more, ought to be submitted to, not because such Persons give it, but because the Spirit leads so to do: which every one coming to in themselves, will willingly and naturally affent to. And if any through Disobedience or Unclearness, do not all that the Church ought to do, she is to deny them her Spiritual Fellowship; in Case the Nature of their Disobedience be of that Consequence, as may deferve such a Censure: But by no Means for Matter of Conscience to Molest, Trouble or Persecute any in their Outwards.

out de facto, that the Teachers, Elders, or Plura: lity do decide, (and from thence will fay) This is like the Church of Rome, and other false Churches? It will be hard to prove that to be an Infallible Mark of a Wrong Judgment, as we have not faid it is of a Right. And indeed, to conclude it were fo, would necessarily condemn the Church in the Apostles Days, where we see, the Teachers and Elders, and so far as we can observe, the greater Number did agree to the Decision, Acts 1. 15. For if the Thing be Right, and according to Truth, it is so much the better, that the Elders and greater Number do agree to it; and if Wrong, their Affirming it will not make it Right: And truly, a Gathering, where the Elders and greater Number are always or most frequently Wrong, and the Younger and leffer Number Right, is fuch, as we cannot suppose the true Church of Christ to be. And if any will plead, that there is now no Infallible Judgment to be expected from the Spirit of God in the Church. it (no doubt) will leave the Diffenters as much in the Mist, and at as great a Loss, as those they diffent from; both being no better than Blind Men, hitting at Random, which will turn Chriflianity into Scepticism. And though we may acknowledge, that this Uncertainty prevails in the Generality of those called Churches; yet we do firmly believe (for the Reasons above declared, and many more that might be given) That the True Church of Christ has a more solid, stable Foundation; and being never separated from Christ, her Head, walks in a more certain, steady and unerring Path.

The

The Conclusion.

HE Substance then, of what is Afferted Asummary and Proved in this Treatise, resolves in Recollection of the whole these following Particulars:

First, That in the Church of Christ, when it consists of a visible People (for I speak not here of the Church in the dark Night of Apostacy, that consisted not of any Society visibly united) gathered into the Belief of certain Principles, and united in the Joint-Performance of the Worship of God, as Meeting together, Praying, Preaching, &c. there is and still must be a certain Order and Government.

Secondly, That this Government, as to the outward Form of it, confifts of certain Meetings, appointed principally for that End; yet not so, as to exclude Acts of Worship, if the Spirit move thereunto.

Thirdly, The Object of this Government is two-fold, Outwards and Inwards. The Outwards relate mainly to the Care of the Poor, of Widows and Fatherless; where may be also included Marriages, and the Removing of all Scandals in things undeniably wrong: The Inwards respect an Apostacy either in Principles or Practices, that have a Pretence of Conscience, and that either in denying some Truths already Received and Believed; or Afferting New Doctrines, that ought not to be received. Which again (to sub-divide) may either be in Things Fundamental, and of great Moment; or in Things of less Weight in themselves, yet proceeding from a

- tain Consequence of them tend to make Schisms, Divisions, Animosities, and in sum, to break that Bond of Love and Unity, that is so needful to be upheld and established in the Church of Christ. And here come also under this Consideration all Emulations, Strifes, Backbitings and Evil Surmisings.
 - IV. Fourthly, That in the true Church of Christ, (according to the Definition above given of it) there will in such Cases of Differences and Controversies still be an Infallible Judgment from the Spirit of God, either in one or other, few or more.
 - Fiftbly, That this Infallible Judgment is only V. and unalterably annexed and feated in the Spirit and Power of God; not to any particular Perfon or Persons, Meeting or Assembly, by Virtue of any setled Ordination, Office, Place or Station, that fuch may have or have had in the Church; no Man, Men nor Meeting standing or being invested in any Authority in the Church of Christ upon other Terms, than so long as he or they abide in the living Sense and Unity of the Life in their own Particulars: which who foever one or more inwardly departs from, iplo facto loses all Authority, Office or certain Discerning, he or they formerly have had; though retaining the true Principles and found Form, and (may be) not fall'n into any gross Practises, as may declare them generally to be thus withered and decayed.
 - VI. Sixthly, That Jesus Christ under the Gospel hath ordinarily revealed his Will in such Cases through the Elders, and Ministers of the Church, or a General Meeting; whose Testimony is neither to be despited or rejected without good Cause

Cause. Neither is their taking upon them really 1674. to decide, any just Ground to charge them with Imposition, or to quarrel with their Judgment; unless it can be proved, that they are decayed, and have lost their Discerning, as above.

Seventhly, That to Submit and Obey in fuch Cases, is no detracting from the Common Priviledge of Christians to be inwardly led by the Spirit, seeing the Spirit has led some heretosore so to do, and yet may. And that every Pretence of Unclearness is not a sufficient Excuse for Disobedience, seeing that may proceed from Obstinacy, or a Mind prepossessed with Prejudice: Yet say I not, any ought to do it, before they be clear; and who are, every Right will not want Clearness, in what they ought to do.

And Lastly, That these Principles are no ways VIII. tainted with Imposition, or contrary to true Liberty of Conscience: And that they fundamentally differ from the Usurpations both of Popery, Prelacy and Presbytery, or any other of that Nature.

Dear Friends and Brethren,

NTO all my Dear Friends and Brethren unto whose Hands this Paper may come, or who may be any ways more particularly Concerned in the Contents hereof, The Salutation

tion of my unfeigned Love in that Unchangable (1679.) Truth, whereunto it hath pleafed the Lord to Call me according to his great Mercy, so as to be a Partaker in some Measure of the Peace and Glory, which in this Day is Revealed; wherewith my Heart hath been often filled, as I have waited in Faithfulness, according to the Dispensation of Light manifested in me and to me. And fince it hath pleased God to make me a R. B's Miliving Witness of the pretious Truth, and to nistry. commit unto me any Share of the Ministry thereof. my Conscience, bears me Witness in the Sight of God, that I have Laboured (according to my Knowledge) to follow Love and Peace with all my Brethren, and to do those things, which might tend to advance, strengthen and confirm Unity, and Brotherly Love: As also to avoid, what had a Tendency to beget Strife, Jealousies, or Evil Surmises. Likewise I have studied as well in my Publick Testimony, as in my Writings, to His Writebeware of any thing, that to my Understanding ings. might minister just Occasion of Stumbling or Otfence to the least of my Brethren, or the youngeft and weakest Babe in the Truth: As such, as are Conversant with me in my own Country, as well as those elsewhere, where I have Travelled.

Nevertheless as I cannot shun my Part of that His Anar-Labour and Service, which my Lord and Master thy, &c. Christ Jesus calls me to; so in Obedience to his Requirings near five Years ago I wrote some Sheets concerning the Lawfulness and Necessity of the Government, and Order of the Truth: Having principally and only in my View therein, to bear a faithful Testimony against all false Liberty and Disorder on the one Hand, and against, Imposition and Dominion on the other Hand; intending no less to guard against the one, than the other: And this I did with particular Re-

(1679.) spect to some of my Near Friends, whom I found Viable to some Mistakes in that Matter. And I do fincerely declare before God, (who knows, I fpeak the Truth and lie not) that in the Writing thereof I had not the least Purpose nor Intention to Meddle with or Concern my felf in any of those Debates, that have fince fallen out a-Debates in mongst Friends in Westmoreland, or elsewhere, Relative thereunto: Much of which as it had Weftmoreland. not then a Being, when I wrote that Book, fo the Substance of that Matter was then unknown to me. And I can fafely fay, that I had not fo much as one Remote Thought, or any Remembrance of the least Beginning of that Affair, which knew during the Time of my Writing of it: So that nothing could be Intended by me therein Relative to that Matter. Which as it is sufficient His Innocen- to vindicate my Innocency and Integrity to all, as cy in that Matter. to Intentions; fo I cannot forbear also to fignify, that as often, as I have had Occasion, seriously and in the holy Fear and Dread of God to Reflect upon these Papers (which I have often done, because of the Opposition they have met with from fome) I have never found Occasion to Repent or Heart for my Work and Service in that Matter.

Moveover albeit I Laboured with all the Care and Circumspection I could, so to Express my self, as not to Offend in a Word; yet had I known, or could have fore-seen, that any thing in the Wording or Expressing thereof would have supplied or burt any. I have that Tenderness

(and hope always to have) to the least of the Houshold of Faith, that I would have rather Omitted or Changed any such Words or Expressions, than ministred them any Occasion of Dissatisfaction. And therefore I was not a little sur-

prized, when I understood, that Several Sheets of (1679.) Paper were spread abroad in Opposition to that Book of mine, at a time when I was wholly a Stranger to those Proceedings, by Reason of my Imprisonment for the Truth's Sake, especially by His Imprisonment. William Rogers, a Person, who not only to my felf, but afterwards before many Witnesses professed a singular Respect and Friendship to me; and yet without once Acquainting me.

Now what followed upon my Meeting with that Person at London near Two Years ago, will appear by a Copy of William Rogers's own Letter (annexed hereto) and the Sense of those Brethren, W. R's Sawho were Witnesses to that Transaction: So that resting thererupon in my own Innocency (especially, fince those in such Places, where the greatest Dissatisfaction was said to be, did for the most Part fignify to me their Satisfaction) I forbore hitherto to meddle any more in that Matter; hoping, it might have died of it felf.

And being Conscientiously gathered in that Spirit, wherein I defired rather to bear, than by feeking too earnestly to Vindicate my self, any ways advance or foment Controversies amongst R. B's A-Friends by multiplying Papers; having some versies to some those, he might (according to the Advice of the troversies. Brethren) called in his Papers: And as what related to me, his Letter sufficing, wherein he expresses my Sense of the things Scrupled by him, to his own Satisfaction, and his Belief of the Soundness of my Principles.

And truly, I have been so willing to starve that Spirit, that hath any Life in Divisions or Controverses of this Kind, either in my felf, or others; that fince I read those Papers of W. R's at London, now near Two Years ago, I have not so much as once looked out upon them, until now. And albeit I might have mentioned that Transaction without any Disadvantage to my self, but (1679.) otherwise; (as most, if not all present can Testify, yea, W. R's. own Letter doth import;) yet I do not remember, that I did ever fo much as once Mention it to any, unless their Inquiry occasioned it: Yea, I have wholly Concealed it to this Day from divers Friends, in whom I am nearly concerned; and whom I know, would be very apt to justify and commend my whole Procedure in that Matter. So unwilling was I to fill the Minds of any with fuch things; being otherways weightily Concerned as well with the inward Work of the Lord in my own Soul, as in those Concerns of Truth's Prosperity, both abroad, where I had a Service, and at Home, with Respect to the present Continued Sufferings, Friends lie under here. But fince he hath fofar vindication, walked in another Method, as to labour to keep up the Remembrance of these Things, and busy the Minds of Friends with them, having (as I am informed) made further Mention of these Papers to my Disadvantage, I am constrained to say fomething in my own Defence, and of the Truth Afferted by me: Wherein as the Lord knows the Integrity of my Intentions, and the Tenderness of my Heart, fo I hope, my Way herein will Commend it felf to that of God in the Consciences of all the Tender-hearted. And albeit those things, which were chiefly Scrupled at by any, be sufficiently Cleared by W. R's own Letter; yet that all may be satisfied in having them from mine own Hand, I am free to fignify this, as to them. Only I will premise this to the serious Consideration of not a few, who seemed to be startled at that Book, who retain that Tenderness to God, and Regard to the Hurt of their own Souls, as to make Conscience unjustly to Accuse the Innocent; that fince it was afferted by fome, and entertained as a Truth by divers, That that Book was writ upon Design, and with a particular Re-

Respect of Prejudice to some Persons (whom I did (1679.) not so much as once think on in Writing of it) with somewhat worse, (which I am not willing no Design in to Remember, far less to Mention) whether those Writing the that propagated and entertained fo false and Book as singgroundless a Jealousy to the Prejudice of the Innocent, have not Reason narrowly to Examine, What Spirit they were influenced by in so doing? (which certainly could not be of God:) And whether they ought not thence to take Occasion justly to Suspect the Effects and Fruits of the same Spirit in them, even where it hath Appeared in things, for which they may have fomewhat more to fay? Surely, with Men of inward Tenderness this cannot but have great Weight. And albeit that my Intentions were fo Clear in this Matter; yet I will not fay, but the Lord (whose Ways are unsearchable, and past sinding out) may have purposed, by those Papers seasonably to Reprove and fingle out a wrong Spirit: And therefore all concerned, had need in true Tenderness and godly Fear to beware, how they shut out and turn by A warning the Warnings and Admonitions of the Lord, by seek-from the Lord. ing to Carp at and find Fault with the innocent Instruments; least they be found foolishly (like those Dogs) to run after, and seek to bite the Stone, because they cannot reach the Hand, that threw it.

I have known this by manifold Experience to have been a Snare to many; and therefore without the least Prejudice or Reflection upon any (God knows) out of true Tenderness and Love do defire, it may be ferioufly weighed in the true Light by all, that may feel themselves concerned in this Matter.

But now First, as to the things Scrupled at, Explanation whereas some did suppose, That I did Ascribe to I. Friends Meetings an Absolute Jurisdiction over Property.

Men's Properties in outward things; therein Isee above p.
365, &c. have 365, &c. Fe

which, by the Apolite to the Corintmans (i Cor.
6.) is urged: That whereas there would a manifriends going feft Scandal arise from Friends going to Law togeto Law toe ther, that therefore such, as will rather go to Law, than seek to come to Agreement by the interposing of Friends, ought, with a Respect to their bringing such a Scandal, to be Censured; since it cannot be supposed, that any such Difference, as to outward things, can fall out among Friends, but some or other may be found, who either by their own Knowledge, or by Advice and Information of such, as may be known in the Matter Controverted, may bring it to an End.

Secondly, That whereas I fay, "There will not II. "be wanting in Case of Controversy the Spirit of Decision of "God, to give Judgment through one or other Differences." in the Church of Christ, so long as any Assem402, &c. "bly can properly, or in any tolerable Sense be those last Words I did infinuate, as if any Afsembly Assuming to themselves the Name of the Church of Christ, and having some Shew of it, may of Right claim the Power of such Decision, and ought accordingly to be Submitted unto: Such a thing never entred me; but was far from my Intentions. For albeit that I judge, that an Assembly may sometimes deserve the Name of the Church of Christ, or not to have lost the Claim, albeit not altogether so fresh and lively (at least in the Generality of its Members) and so under some Languishing and Hazzard to Decay, if Life do not again come up more abundantly: As may

The Seven be seen in the Example of the Seven Churches of Asia, whom notwithstanding of the several Weaknesses divers of them were under, yet the Apostle, or rather the Spirit of Christ by the Apostle dignifies with the Name of the Churches of Christ. Neither did I intend, to make this Judg (1679.) ment necessary to Attend every particular Church or Assembly: But by the Church there I understood it in a more Universal Sense, that is, Some or other among all the Churches of Christ; who being spoken of in the Complex, may be rightly termed the Church of Christ; and this is manifest in the same Example of the Churches of Asia.

For albeit we might suppose, theremight have been wanting in each of them some, to give forth this true Judgment concerning them; yet in Respect they were such, as in some tolerable Supposition might be termed the Churches of Christ, albeit some of them had left their First-Love, and were near to have their Candlestick Rev. 2. 4, 5, Removed; and some had the Doctrine of Balaam Chap. 3, 16, and of the Nicolations; and some suffered the Woman Fezabel: and some were Luke-warm, and ready to be Spewed out: Yet we fee, God would not suffer them to be without a Certain Judgment; but gave forth one through the Apostle John, who was a Member of the Church.

But to esteem, that any Assembly may be to-raise lerably supposed to be the Church of Christ, Church, where either the true Dollrines and Principles are wanting, or the true Life and Power in some good Measure, is not felt and known, is far from my Thoughts: Yea, how far I am Contraryminded, may be feen at large in my Apology upon the Tenth Proposition, now published in English, Page 291, 292, 293, 294, 295, 296, &c. *

Thirdly, Whereas it was thought strange, that Prop. 10. S. I should call Doctrines and Principles the EXPLAN. Bonds and Terms of our being together, I under- 111. ftand it only of an Outward Bond: And that I Principles a laid the Stress upon it no further, appears in that Bond. (1679.) Heart; which appears, by what is Printed at the

And William Rogers faying in his Papers, That this was but like the Entertainment of Christ in the Manger, shews too little of Christian Sobriety, and too much of a Scornful Reflection; for which I will rather chuse to forgive him; than therein to contend with him. For how much I value that Inward Bond (to wit, the Life of Righteoufness) beyond the Outward; and that I effeem the Outward not at all to be valued, but as it comes from the Inward, may be feen throughout all I have written in my Apology upon the Tenth Proposition, and elsewhere. And my Affirming, That any denying of any of the Truth's Principles and Doctrines is a Ground of Disowning, Wasonly in respect, that who do so, do manifestly thence make it appear, they have broken the Inward Bond first, from which that Outward did naturally spring and arise.

Fourtbly, If any do suppose, that by my As-EXPLAN. ferting, The Ancient Apostolick Order was Established amongst us upon the right Basis and Foun-IV. dation I intended, that those particular Orders relating to Outward Things, that were among our Order the Apostles, either was or were to be Established and its Foun-among us, they did much Mistake me: For I dation.

never purposed any such thing; but only to signify, that by Establishing the Government and Authority in and upon the Spirit only, and fuch as are led by it, we did Establish it upon the fame Basis and Foundation, whereupon, that Exercised in the Church in the Days of the Apo-Conformity stles, were built. For I am far from Believing, that the most Exact Conformity to the Order and Method of the Church in the Apostles Days, or even to what may now be appointed by the same Spirit, without the Inward Life and Virtuego along, fignifies any thing: For I know, that

nothing done by meer Imitation, will any thing (1674.) avail in the Worship and Service of God; and therefore that No Act done without Conviction, will any ways be profitable to the Doer. Yet that hindreth not, but that fuch, as forbear to do, what by the Testimony of God in his Servants is Commanded to be performed in the Church, are Juftly to be blamed and be judged therefore, in Respect, that through Disobedience and Unwatchfulness they have blinded themfelves from the Sight and Knowledge of their Duty. For if it should be said, No Man were to be Condemned for not doing that which he sees not to be his Duty; Then no Man were to be Con-The Harddemned, who had by Iniquity and Unwatchful ned and ness brought Hardness and Blindness upon himself not their for all the Iniquities he commits afterwards: And Duty. how would this tend to Establish Ranterism, the Substance of which is to bring their Consciences to that pass, as not to be sensible of any Checks? Then the Nations are not to be blamed for all their Idolatry, Wickedness and Superstition, for that they are not fenfible of the Evil of it? Whereas Truth teaches us to believe, That had they been faithful to the small Measure of Light in Things more obvious, it would have further opened and manifested other things. Then should The Jews not the Jews have been condemned for Crucify-Crucitying Christ Ignoring Christ, since Peter says, They did it ignorant-rantly. ly? And Paul testifies, That if they had known, they would not have crucified the Lord of Glory. Yea, then all those, that Persecuted and Burned the Protestant Martyrs, were not to be Judged Martyrs Infor it, because they suppose, they did well in it; stanced. even according to Christ's Testimony, who says, That in killing you, they shall think, they do God good Service. Shall Men then never be condemned for doing Evil or omitting their Duty, be-Ee 3

(1679.) cause they see it not? What Absurdity would follow thereupon, may eafily appear. And yet it's strange, that William Rogers in his Papers should labour fo much against this, Affirming very positively, That nothing ought to be given forth in the Church of Christ but by way of Recommendation, and not of Command: Wherein he doth either greatly Mistake the Matter, as affirmed by me; or otherways run into a far greater Inconveniency, than he is aware. For if he mean, That no Man of or from himself only, or by Virtue of any Office or Place he either hath, or hath born in the Church of Christ, ought to Command any thing to be performed in the Church, I freely agree to it, and have Afferted the same in very ful and ample Terms: But if he will fay, That no Man, albeit really moved by the Spirit of God, ought to go further, than a meer Recommendation, It is a most Insolent Limiting of God under a false Pretence of Liberty; and will necessarily conclude, That God hath not Power to command any thing, unless Men be content to agree to it. For the Controversy is here drawn to a narrow Compass.

For he that will allow, That God hath Power to command things to be practifed in the Church, and that those Commands must be conveyed by Immediate Revelation through some of the Members of the Church; and that it may fall out, that some of the Members of the Church may through Weakness or Unwatchfulness not be sensible; they must either acknowledge, that Such are to be Condemned; or say, that God hath not Power to command; or that there is no such Revelation now a-days, (as do the Priests and Truth's Enemies;) or, that Man is not condemnable for disobeying God, if he believe it not to be his Duty; which is as much as to say, that Unbelief is

Now let these things be seriously considered, (1674.) how this is or can be avoided, without granting the things affirmed by me? For what way can the Truth be afferted, the Honour and just Authority of God acknowledged; the Necessity of the Continuance of Immediate Revelation affirmed; and the Iniquity of Unbelief not justified, and the just Judgment of God upon the Rebellious and Disobedient vindicated, without Affirming what I have done? And if any can do this in Words more wary than I have done, I shall very readily agree to it. For that things may be proposed to the Church by way of Command, and further than a meer Recommendation, the whole Current of the Scripture shews, not only to the Churches among the Jews, where Moses and the Prophets do propose the Will of God to the performed very positively and peremptorily; but even under the New Covenant, as appears by the Eleventh of the Ads, and in many Places of Paul's Epistles: particularly that on 2 Thess. 3. 14. If any Man Obey not our Word by this Epistle, note that Man and have no Company with him, that he may be ashamed. This then being manifest with Respect to these Times, I would know of W. R. Whether Christ hath now lost any of his Authority, as he has left off to rule his Church immediately by his Spirit? And whether so to assirm, be not grosly to contradict the Antient and Primitive Doctrine of Friends?

Fifthly, Whereas some did suppose, that I did EXPLAN. make the Difference in the End but very small, betwixt Decisive Judgment among Friends, and Judgment. among Papists and other Persons, because I say, They place the Decisive Judgment in the Plurality of an Assembly made up of their Chief Teachers and Ministers: And albeit I limit it not to that, yet I feem to affirm, That it most usually is so con-Ee 4 veyed;

(1679.) veyed; and so the Difference only is, that they make it always fo, and I most usually.

To this I answer; That if in Charity I may suppose this Infinuation comes not from Malice, at least it proceeds from great Ignorance of the Popish Principle: And it were better for such to be filent, than to Judge of things they do not understand. For the Difference here is very great Papists and Fundamental, in respect both Papists and cession, &c. others do affirm, That Men by Virtue of an Outward Succession or Vocation may have true Right to sit, and give Judgment in such Assemblies; albeit they be void of true Holiness, and have not the Grace of God, which (they say) is no necessary Qualification to the Being of a Minister. So that they place the Power of Judgment not only in the Plurality of Votes absolutely (in which we differ from them) but also in the Judgment of fuch, as may without any Absurdity by their own Principles be supposed to be all and each of them void of the true Grace of God, and whom, even supposing them to be gratious, they affirm not at all to be led by the Immediate Spirit of Christ, which they say, is now ceased. Now can there be a greater Difference than is betwixt these two? (to wit) To affirm,-

That the Power of Decision is in an Assembly of Men being Members, of which Assembly the Grace of God is no necessary Qualification, and who deny any such thing, as to be Immediately led by the Spirit of Christ, as a thing not attainable in these Days; and yet that all Christians must be subject to what the Plurality of such an Assembly, so constituted, do determine ? And to affirm,-

That the Power of Decision is only and alone in the Spirit, not necessarily Tied to a General Assembly; but if it please God to make Use of such an Assembly, yet neither to the Plurality of them, but in and through such of his Servants, as he sees meet. And that none are capable or can be sup-(1679.) posed to be Members of Such an Assembly, or esteemed such, from whom such a fudgment can be expetted, or ought to be received, unless they be Men, in whom the Grace of God not only is, but hath truly wrought to Mortify and Regenerate them in a good Measure: In whom the Judgment of Truth really proceeding from the Spirit, will be manifest to all, who are truly Faithful; who will accordingly submit thereunto, not with Respect to the Men, but the Authority of God manifested in and through them. So that such, as see not this Judgment aright, will be justly Condemnable of God for their not Submitting; not as if they should be accepted of God, if they did Obey before Conviction. but because they brought this Blindness upon themselves through their Unfaithfulness and Unwatchfulness, which renders them both guilty of the Blindness and of the Disobedience occasioned by it?

The true Decision.

Now the Vastness of the Difference that is here manifest, cannot but be obvious to any, that will read and consider this impartially, and without Prejudice.

Thus I have passed through all the things that I understood any did scruple at; there being nought else, that I remember, which is not either Relative to some of the Particulars before-mentioned, or included in them. But if any wonder, why I have chosen this Method, and not rather made a formal Reply to W. R's Papers? I hope, these following Reasons will satisfy all sober and truly peaceable-minded Friends, who love Truth's Prosperity more than Jangling, as a sufficient Reason for my so doing.

First, Forasmuch as the greater Part of what Reason I. W. R. has writ, is wholly Built upon the Particulars heretofore mentioned, which Particulars being cleared, and his Mistakes therein removed (as his own Letter signifies) the Superstructure

nor yet reaching me; but only that Apprehenfion he supposed to be my Meaning, and to follow from my Words: For which End he oftentimes is so wary as to affirm in his Papers, That to his Understanding my Words seemed to Import, and my Meaning seems to be so. In which things fince himself saw (and I have manifested) his Mistake, I am not so great a Lover of Contention, as to busy either my self, or the Minds of others, with the Men of Straw of his Making.

But yet he was not so modest, nor kind to his Old Friend, but that fometimes he did feek to render my Words Odious (albeit the Mistake be his own) by a reiterate Repetition, in Repeating that of the Tolerable Supposition of a Church at every turn above Twenty Times: But also he very obviously wrests my Words, and seeks to impose upon me a Disadvantageous Meaning, that he may furnish himself an Occasion thereafter the more liberally to fmite at me. As where from the Apostle's Words [faying, And we have Confidence, ye will do the Things we command you, &c. and in another Place, where he defires those to whom he writes, to submit themselves to such as rule over them] I infer, That some did Appoint and Ordain some Things, and that there lay an Obligation in Point of Duty on others to Obev. &c.

Upon which W. R. very unfairly observes, It is to be doubted, his Meaning is, Others ought to Obey, whether they fee it their Duty, Yea or Nay. I leave such Dealing to the Reader's Judgment: surely, it is not answerable to that Candor and Justice, that W. R. lays claim to.

Secondly, Because W. R. in these Papers has taken Occasion to extend himself in long Digressions upon other Matters, not treated upon in that Book, and takes oft Occasion to infinuate his Jealousies of Persons and Things, that I med- (1679.) led not with: As where he makes a large Digref. fion (which takes up feveral Pages) concerning the Constitution of the Second-Days-Meeting at London, endeavouring what he can, to repre- W. R's Refent the Hurt and Abuse of it; and where he di-fections. vers times infinuates, that fome are Usurpers, or feeking to Usurp a furifdiction over the Con-Sciences of the Brethren; And that Some do believe, that God bath raised up some outward Per-Son to be among the Children of Light at this Day, as Moses was of Old among the Children of Israel, &c. And that some do lead many into a Temptation to run beyond their Line, by procuring a Multitude of Hands to confirm, what is given forth by one, or at least by a very few: With divers other things of this Kind, which takes up no small Part of his Papers. Now these things are not pertinently brought in against me; nor would I judge my felf less impertinent to enlarge in a Contest concerning those things, which do not immediately concern the Things under Debate; fince the Person or Persons aimed at by him in these Reflections, may take Occasion, as they find it their Place, to answer: And perhaps may have had Opportunity, to have discoursed with him divers of those things e're this time upon other Occasions.

Thirdly, Since a confiderable Part of W. R's Pa-Reason III. pers is taken up to Evidence (as he pretends) the Impertinent Application I make of the several Passages of the Apostles (which he thinks I have been too curious to collect) that make Mention of these Words, Order, Rule, Command and Government; how he evinces that, I leave to the serious Reader, being the more willing to bear his Respections in that Respect, that he is so bold (when he cannot Compass his Matter otherwise) not only to Censure me, but the Apostle Paul's Say-

(1674.) ing of 1 Tim. 1. 19, 20, (mentioned by me) That vit is not only not to the Purpose intended by me, but that it is not plain to the Purpose Paul himself intended, at least to ordinary Capacities: Adding, That the Method there proposed by the Apostle, Answers not that, which the Light within tells us.

Since then the Light he follows, is fuch, as W. R. Cenfores the A-finds Fault with the Apostle's Assertions; I may the more patiently bear his Affirming mine to be Erroneous. And whereas W. R. labours to make it appear, That the Scriptures brought by me to prove a Power of Decision in the Church, do not Affirm any such thing, because in these Scriptures there is no Mention made of the Church's Decision; Yet if he confider, that those Places do speak of the Separating from and Cutting off of divers Judgment Evinced. Persons, and Forsaking their Fellowship, to the Saints, who make up the Church of Christ, it necessarily presupposes a fudgment of the Church or Saints concerning those Persons, for which they are so Cut off from the Fellowship of the Body of Christ, which is his Church.

Fourthly, A great Part of W. R's Work is but a Building up, and then pulling down; wherein he apparently Contradicts himself: Yea, the whole Scope of his Book implies a manifest Contradiction. For whereas he plainly declares, his Writing to be a Plea for Christian Liberty, against Judging and Censuring one another, holding forth, That Diversity of Opinions and Judgments in Matters of Conscience (but especially in Such Matters as relate to Discipline and Government) is not nor ought to be a Breach of Unity, which he understands, may be supposed to be the Diversities of Gifts and Administrations mentioned in Scriptures; which he expresses in these Words upon Paul in Rom. 14. So then every one of us shall give an Account of himself unto God; let us not therefore Judge one another any more.

Reason IV.

And

And again he faith upon Verse 34. viz. Which (1679.) evidently shews, that Inasmuch as every one must Answer for himself, it is fit, every one should be A wrong lieve for himself, and so practise, without being shirts Inposed upon by others: And this is the Ground of all Christian Forbearance.

And again in another Place he saith, These things considered, and that also we find the Aposile's Exhorting the Churches not to be Judging one another with Respect to things relating to Conscience; there is great need to watch against this Censorious, Judging Spirit, least while any are Judging their Brethren, themselves become Castaways. He hath many more Expressions of this Kind.

Now, fince this is the whole Scope of W. R's Papers, and that he did, yea, hath (fince he wrote these Papers) acknowledged me to be his Christian Brother, and many more (at least them he did repute such) whom he Censures, Judges and Condemns through his whole Treatife, yea, fince his whole Papers are a Judging, Censuring and Condemning of me and my Judgment in Things pertaining to Conscience, and to my Judgment, in Matters of Government and outward Discipline, does not the Work imply a manifest Contradiction? So his very Writing contradicts the Matter he writes of and pleads for; especially, fince not only he makes fome General Cenfure of me and many others profeshing the same Fundamental Truths with him; but is very Particular and Peremptory, yea, infinuating Accu-w. R. 2 fations, as if I in particular intended to make falle Accuway for an Authority, to Rule over, at least some of my Brethren; as his very Conclusion intimates, and in divers other Places may be observed. And it will aggravate this Injury done by him the more, that the Reader may Observe as well in his own Letter, as in what is abovementioned.

Truth.

(1679.) mentioned, that this his Censure was built upon his own Mistakes: So that I hope, who consider these Things, will acknowledge a sufficient Anfwer is hereby returned, And albeit I my felf be fully farisfied; yet I should not have Churled the Pains of a particular Disquisition of every thing in Order, as Afferted by him (albeit he has not done that to mine) If I had not an Aversion from Multiplying Controversies of this kind: For the Defire I have to avoid that Sort of Work. and not for any Strength of Argumentation I observe in W. R's Papers, hath stop'd me from fo doing. But if any do apprehend that Strength of Reason in his Papers, as to Judge, I was Unable to Answer, or that this is not Satisfactory; it will but evidence the Weakness of their own Understanding to the more Judicious: shall not think much to bear their Censure. I value more my own inward Peace, and that of my Brethren, than to Obtain an Applause of my Natural Capacity; wherein, if any judge that W. R. do furpass me; I shall not therewith The Ercel- be troubled: For I more and more fee the Exceldency of the lency of that Simplicity that is in the Truth; simplicity of and of that Hairs that it leadeth to And and of that Unity, that it leadeth to. thence do more earnestly than ever desire to witness all, that is of and from Self, Crucified in me, and brought into true Subjection to the Cross of Christ; and there alone may be my Rejoycing: wherein I am at Unity with all those, who make Self of no Reputation for the Seed's fake; that the Prosperity of Truth may be Advanced, and the Peace of Ifrael preserved.

R. Barclay.

William Rogers's Letter of his and R. Barclay's Discourse about the Book before-mentioned, in the Presence of many Brethren; and also a Paper signifying the Brethrens Sense, touching the Discourse, then present.

Friends,

IT was upon me for several Weeks past, if my w. R's Let-Occasions would any wife permit, to come up to ter Clearing the City of London, to be present among Friends archy, &c. from divers Parts of the Nation at this Time, that fo I might have Opportunity to Confer with Friends. who were diffatisfied with me, touching what I had written in Answer to R. Barclay's Book of Government: And a few Days before my coming up, R. Barclay being in London writ unto me to come up, that we might have a Conference at large touching the same. This his Request laid the greater Obligation upon me to be present in London at this Time. On Conference had with him we agreed, That a Free Meeting might be had with Friends, in whose Presence R. B. and my Self might in all Coolness and Moderation confer together; that so all Mis-understandings might be removed, and the Truth be evidenced to the Consciences of the Brethren then present.

The Meeting for that End was this Day had, and a very Christian and Fair Debate was had, to the Satisfaction of both of us, as far as I can understand; and the Matters chiefly Objected by me, were fairly and Brother-like, and in much Love Discoursed: And upon the whole Matter I am satisfied, that R.B. is not principled so, as I and

(1679.) In particular he doth declare, that his Book teacheth not, That the Church of Christ hath Ju-Jurisdiction. risdiction over the outward Concerns of Friends in Case of Difference; without Assent of the Differing Parties; and that it was far from his Intentions.

For his Intention (as he declares) was only to manifest, That Friends ought to Submit their Cases of Difference to the Decision of the Church; and in Case of Refractoriness, that such Persons

That though R. B. in one Place affirms to this Purpose, That there never will, nor can be wanting, in Case of Controversy, the Spirit of God to give Judgment' through fome or other in the Church of Christ, as long as any Assembly can properly or in any tolerable Supposition be fo termed: He declares, that the Words are found; and further faith, That thereby he intends no other, but fuch Assemblies, as in Reality and Truth may be termed the Church of Christ. And whereas he faith to this Purpose; That it's Disobedience to God, not to Submit to the Sentence of fuch Assemblies, though the Persons refusing to submit, pretend, they see it not; yet be declares, that his Meaning thereby is not, That if they submit before Conviction of Conscience, they therein find Acceptance with the Lord: but rather to shew, That their Want of Sight is through Disobedience or Unwatchfulness to the Grace of God in themselves; which if they did take heed thereunto, would shew it their Duty to Obev.

Principles as Terms.

We also had Discourse touching his Assertion, That Principles and Dostrines, &c. believed, through the Force of Truth on the Understanding, are as it were the Terms: And in another Place of the Book produced it appeared, that he Asserted, Submission.

Afferted, There was a more Inward Bond (viz.) (1674). The Life of Righteousness; and that the Book declares, that we are gathered into the Belief of the Principles and Doctrines by the Truth its Power and Influence upon our Hearts, and that very Bond, by which we became centred into one Body and Fellowship, &c. And on a Debate the order thereof he acknowledged, That his Meaning was of the Costnot, they were the Original Bond; but rather as Fruits and Branches of that Bond: And so in that Respect might be as an Outward Bond, whereby we are united in an Heavenly Society.

We also had some Discourse touching his Title-Page, wherein he asserts, That the Antient, Apostolick Order of the Church of Christ is re-established on its right Basis and Foundation: touching which he declares, that his Meaning is, Not only with respect to all the outward Orders or Forms of Discipline in Government amongst us; but with respect to the Power of God, which in the Primitive Days was, and now is the great

And though R. Barclay hath given these Explications of his Meanings, yet the very Explications (as he saith) are to be found in his Book, if duly weighed.

Having given you an Account in short, of what Discoursed this Day amongst Friends; this surther lies upon me to signify unto you on the Be-balf of R. Barclay, I am satisfied, that he is not R.B. Cleat-Principled, as I and many by some Passages in his ed. Book took him to be. And since it is so, that many have taken an Offence against him for that Cause, and (as may be doubted) even so far, as to Reject his Testimony and Service for the Truth, it lies upon me as my Duty, even for his and the Truth's sake, to Warn all, that they take heed not to entertain a Prejudice against his Testimony, on Ff

(1679.) Jealousy, that may enter on the Score of any Apprehensions or Mistakes of his Book, and that Answer, that I have given thereto; but rather in an Unprejudiced Spirit, to Wait on the Lord to feel and savour his Testimony, even as if the Occasion taken had never been.

And I do freely Confess, That inasmuch as I were blame Publish't my Book, before I gave R. B. Notice of my Objections and Intentions therein, I acted in that Respect not according to Gospel Order, but am Justly worthy of Blame therein.

It is with me also to signify unto you, That I am abundantly satisfied, that R. B's Book of Government was Written at or before the Time of its Date; for that he Solemnly Affirms, it was so.

W. Rogers.

The Judgement of the Meeting.

Porasmuch as William Rogers of Bristol hath lately written a Book in Manuscript, against a Book of Robert Barclay's intituled The Anarchy of the Ranters, and Approved at the Second Days-Meeting in London, and hath dispersed his Manuscript in several Parts of this Nation, without so much as first giving either to the said R Barclay in particular, or the Second Days-Meeting in general, an Account of his Scruples or Dissatisfaction concerning the said Book of R. B's. Contrary to all Rules of Brotherly Love, Christian Fellowthip, Gospel Order, and Exemplary Practice of the Church of Christ, to the Defamation of the said R. B. the great Derogation from the Christian Authority of the said Meeting, and the general Differvice of Truth; especially being sent unto Persons who at present are Difaffected to the Unity of the Body of (1679.) Friends. And whereas on the Seventh Day of the Third Month, 1677. we whose Names are under written, were Met together in the City of London in the pure Fear and holy Dread of the Lord God Almighty, to hear, what the said W. R. had Objected against the said Book of R. Barclay's -- It Appeared to Us upon Deliberate, Serious and Impartial Hearing of the Matter in Controversy, that the Objections of the said W. R. lay not fo much against the Matter and Substance of the said R. E's Book, as against his way of Expressing some Passages therein; and that upon R. B's Defence and Explanation, the said W. R. did declare, That he was satisfied with R. B. as to his Principles; but that he thought, some Passages in his Book might have been better Worded; Confeshing, That he did not Brotherly, to publish his Book, before he bad Communicated his Exception to the faid R B. and the Brethren of the Second-Days Morning Meeting in London.

It is therefore the Inward Sense, Advice and Judgment of this Meeting, That the faid W. R. ought forthwith to deliver up into the Hands of Fames Claypoole that Copy of his faid Book (which he hath here with him) and as speedily as may be, Recal all fuch other Copies of his faid Book, as he knows to be dispersed in the Nation. or elsewhere: And that he also ought speedily to write a Letter to Friends in all those Places. where he doth, or shall know the said Book to be dispersed; and therein clear both the said R. B. and the Friends of the Second Days Meeting in London from all fuch Aspersions, as by Means of his faid Book may be cast upon him or them. And though it doth not appear to this Meeting by any thing, that the said W. R. hath Objected

(1674.) or Offered, that there is any Error or Unfoundnefs of Dodrine in the faid R. B's Book; yet forasmuch as there are some Terms or Expressions therein, which some conceive, might be made yet more Plain, Easy and Familiar; It is the Desire of this Meeting, That the said R. B. (as he feels in himself the Opening of Life thereunto) will in Christian Condescention to the Capacity of the Weak, write an Explanatory Post script to the said Book for the sake of all such, as may be supposed to have Mis-apprehended any Expression therein.

ADV ERTISEMENT.

HE Reader may Observe, That William Rogers's Papers (before Annexed) of his Discourse with R. B. about some Objections against his Book, whereupon he acknowledgeth himself satisfied, was Written in the Third Month, 1677. And their Narrative from Bristol, wherein W. R. and the rest thus Resect against R. B. was Written in and about the Eleventh and Twelsth Month, 1677. So that it appears to be Eight or Nine Months after. But is not this like J. S. and J. W's Papers of Con-Condemnation, which W. R. called a Rattle? For who could have thought, that W. R. could have had the Impudence, as after he had so plainly Confessed, and given it under his own Hand, That he was satisfied, to have again Published such Things against him?
