THE
OF A
FREE-MASON,
ETC., ETC.

I.—Concerning GOD and RELIGION.

A MASON is obliged, by his tenure, to obey the moral law; and if he rightly understand the art he will never be a stupid atheist nor an irreligious libertine. He, of all men, should best understand that God seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh at the outward appearance, but God looketh to the heart. A mason is, therefore, particularly bound never to act against the dictates of his conscience. Let a man's religion or mode of worship be what it may, he is not excluded from the order, provided he believe in the glorious architect of heaven and earth, and practise the sacred duties of morality. Masons unite with the virtuous of every persuasion in the firm and pleasing bond of fraternal love; they are taught to view the errors of mankind with compassion, and to strive, by the purity of their own conduct, to demonstrate the superior excellence of the faith they may profess. Thus masonry is the centre of union between good men and true, and the happy means of conciliating friendship amongst those who must otherwise have remained at a perpetual distance.

II.—Of the CIVIL MAGISTRATE, SUPREME and SUBORDINATE.

A MASON is a peaceable subject to the civil powers, wherever he resides or works, and is never to be concerned in plots and conspiracies against the peace and welfare of the nation, nor to behave himself undutifully to inferior magistrates. He is cheerfully to conform to every lawful authority; to uphold, on every occasion, the interest of the community, and zealously promote the prosperity of his own country. Masonry has ever flourished in times of peace and been always injured by war, bloodshed, and confusion; so that kings and princes, in every age, have been much disposed to encourage the craftsmen on account of their peaceableness and loyalty, whereby they practically answer the cavils of their adversaries and promote the honour of the fraternity. Craftsmen are bound by peculiar ties to promote peace, cultivate harmony, and live in concord and brotherly love.

III.—Of LODGES.

A LODGE is a place where free-masons assemble to work and to instruct and improve themselves in the mysteries of the antient science. In an extended sense it applies to persons as well as to place; hence every regular assembly or duly organised meeting of masons is called a lodge. Every brother ought to belong to some lodge, and be subject to its by-laws and the general regulations of the craft. A lodge may be either general or particular, as will be best understood by attending it, and there a knowledge of the established usages and customs of the craft is alone to be acquired. From antient times no master or fellow could be absent from his lodge, especially when warned to appear at it, without incurring a severe censure, unless it appeared to the master and wardens that pure necessity hindered him.

The persons made masons or admitted members of a lodge must be good and true men, free-born, and of mature and discreet age and sound judgment, no bond-men, no women, no immoral or scandalous men, but of good report.

IV.—Of MASTERS, WARDENS, FELLOWS, and APPRENTICES.

ALL preferment among masons is grounded upon real worth and personal merit only; that so the lords may be well served, the brethren not put to shame, nor the royal craft despised; therefore no master or warden is chosen by seniority, but for his merit. It is impossible to describe these things in writing, and therefore every brother must attend in his place, and learn them in a way peculiar to this fraternity. Candidates may, nevertheless, know that no master should take an apprentice unless he has sufficient employment for him; and, unless he be a perfect youth, having no maim or defect in his body that may render him incapable of learning the art, of serving his master's lord, and of being made a brother, and then a fellow-craft in due time, after he has served such a term of years as the custom of the country directs; and that he should be descended of honest parents; that so, when otherwise qualified, he may arrive to the honour of being the warden, and then the master of the lodge, the grand warden, and at length the grand master of all the lodges, according to his merit.

No brother can be a warden until he has passed the part of a fellow-craft, nor a master until he has acted as a warden, nor grand warden until he has been master of a lodge, nor grand master unless he has been a fellow-craft before his election, who is also to be nobly born, or a gentleman of the best fashion, or some eminent scholar, or some curious architect, or other artist descended of honest parents, and who is of singularly great merit in the opinion of the lodges. And for the better, and easier, and more honourable discharge of his office, the grand master has the power to choose his own deputy grand master, who must then be, or have formerly been, the master of a particular lodge, and who has the privilege of acting whatever the grand master, his principal, should act, unless the said principal be present, or interpose his authority by letter.

These rulers and governors supreme and subordinate, of the antient lodge, are to be obeyed in their respective stations by all the brethren, according to the old charges and regulations, with all humility, reverence, love, and alacrity.

N.B.—In antient times no brother, however skilled in the craft, was called a master-mason until he had been elected into the chair of a lodge.

V.—Of the MANAGEMENT of the CRAFT in WORKING.

ALL masons shall work honestly on working days, that they may live creditably on holy days; and the time appointed by the law of the land, or confirmed by custom, shall be observed.

The most expert of the fellow-craftsmen shall be chosen or appointed the master, or overseer of the lord's work; who is to be called master by those that work under him. The craftsmen are to avoid all ill language, and to call each other by no disobliging name, but brother or fellow; and to behave themselves courteously within and without the lodge.

The master, knowing himself to be able of cunning, shall undertake the lord's work as reasonable as possible, and truly dispend his goods as if they were his own; nor to give more wages to any brother or apprentice than he really may deserve.

Both the master and the masons receiving their wages justly, shall be faithful to the lord, and honestly finish their work, whether task or journey; nor put the work to task that hath been accustomed to journey.

None shall discover envy at the prosperity of a brother, nor supplant him, nor put him out of his work, if he be capable to finish the same; for no man can finish another's work so much to the lord's profit, unless he be thoroughly acquainted with the designs and draughts of him that began it.

When a fellow-craftsman is chosen warden of the work under the master, he shall be true both to master and fellows, shall carefully oversee the work in the master's absence, to the lord's profit; and his brethren shall obey him.

All masons employed shall meekly receive their wages without murmuring or mutiny, and not desert the master till the work be finished.

A younger brother shall be instructed in working, to prevent spoiling the materials for want of judgment and for increasing and continuing of brotherly love.

All the tools used in working shall be approved by the grand lodge.

No labourer shall be employed in the proper work of masonry; nor shall free-masons work with those that are not free, without an urgent necessity; nor shall they teach labourers and unaccepted masons as they should teach a brother or fellow.

VI.—Of BEHAVIOUR.

I.—IN THE LODGE WHILE CONSTITUTED.

YOU are not to hold private committees, or separate conversation, without leave from the master ; nor to talk of anything impertinently or unseemly, nor interrupt the master or wardens, or any brother speaking to the master ; nor behave yourself ludicrously or jestingly while the lodge is engaged in what is serious and solemn ; nor use any unbecoming language upon any pretence whatsoever, but to pay due reverence to your master, wardens and fellows, and put them to worship.

If any complaint be brought, the brother found guilty shall stand to the award and determination of the lodge, who are the proper and competent judges of all such controversies (unless you carry them by appeal to the grand lodge), and to whom they ought to be referred, unless a lord's work be hindered the meanwhile, in which case a particular reference may be made, but you must never go to law about what concerneth masonry, without an absolute necessity apparent to the lodge.

2.—BEHAVIOUR AFTER THE LODGE IS OVER, AND THE BRETHREN NOT GONE.

YOU may enjoy yourselves with innocent mirth, treating one another according to ability, but avoiding all excess, or forcing any brother to eat or drink beyond his inclination, or hindering him from going when his occasions call him, or doing or saying anything offensive, or that may forbid an easy and free conversation ; for that would blast our harmony, and defeat our laudable purposes. Therefore no private piques or quarrels must be brought within the door of the lodge, far less any quarrels about religion, or nations, or state policy, we being only, as masons, of the universal religion above-mentioned ; we are also of all nations, tongues, kindreds, and languages, and are resolved against all politics, as what never yet conduced to the welfare of the lodge, nor ever will.

3.—BEHAVIOUR WHEN BRETHREN MEET WITH-OUT STRANGERS, BUT NOT IN A LODGE FORMED.

YOU are to salute one another in a courteous manner, as you will be instructed, calling each other brother, freely giving mutual instruction, as shall be thought expedient, without being overseen or overheard, and without encroaching upon each other, or derogating from that respect which is due to any brother, were he not a mason ; for though all masons are, as brethren, upon the same level, yet masonry takes no honour from a man that he had before ; nay, rather it adds to his honour, especially if he has deserved well of the brotherhood, who must give honour to whom it is due, and avoid ill manners.

4.—BEHAVIOUR IN PRESENCE OF STRANGERS, NOT MASONS.

You shall be cautious in your words and carriage, that the most penetrating stranger shall not be able to discover or find out what is not proper to be intimated ; and sometimes you shall divert a discourse, and manage it prudently for the honour of the worshipful fraternity.

5.—BEHAVIOUR AT HOME AND IN YOUR NEIGHBOURHOOD.

You are to act as becomes a moral and wise man ; particularly not to let your family, friends, and neighbours, know the concerns of the lodge, &c., but wisely to consult your own honour, and that of your antient brotherhood, for reasons not to be mentioned here. You must also consult your health by not continuing together too late or too long from home after lodge hours are past ; and by avoiding of gluttony or drunkenness, that your families be not neglected or injured, nor you disabled from working.

6.—BEHAVIOUR TOWARDS A STRANGE
BROTHER.

You are cautiously to examine him in such a method as prudence shall direct you, that you may not be imposed upon by an ignorant, false pretender, whom you are to reject with contempt and derision, and beware of giving him any hints of knowledge.

But if you discover him to be a true and genuine brother, you are to respect him accordingly ; and if he is in want you must relieve him if you can, or else direct him how he may be relieved. You must employ him some days, or else recommend him to be employed. But you are not charged to do beyond your ability ; only to prefer a poor brother that is a good man and true before any other poor people in the same circumstances.

Finally.—All these charges you are to observe and also those that shall be communicated to you in another way; cultivating brotherly love, the foundation and cope-stone, the cement and glory, of this antient fraternity, avoiding all wrangling and quarrelling, all slander and backbiting, nor permitting others to slander any honest brother but defending his character and doing him all good offices, as far as is consistent with your honour and safety, and no farther. And if any of them do you injury, you must apply to your own or his lodge; and from thence you may appeal to the grand lodge at the quarterly communication, as has been the antient laudable conduct of our forefathers in every nation; never taking a legal course but when the case cannot be otherwise decided, and patiently listening to the honest and friendly advice of master and fellows, when they would prevent your going to law with strangers, or would excite you to put a speedy period to all law-suits, that so you may find the affair of masonry with the more alacrity and success; but with respect to brothers or fellows at law, the master and brethren should kindly offer their mediation, which ought to be thankfully submitted to by the contending brethren; and if that submission is impracticable, they must, however, carry on their process, or law-suit, without wrath and rancour (not in the common way), saying or doing nothing which may hinder brotherly love and good offices to be renewed and continued, that all may see the benign influence of masonry, as all true masons have done from the beginning of the world, and will do to the end of time.

Amen, so mote it be.

GENERAL LAWS

GOVERNMENT OF THE CRAFT.

Preliminary

findings of any such Board or Committee, and to act either in whole or in part upon its recommendations. A report of the case with all necessary particulars shall be forwarded as soon as practicable to the Grand Secretary for transmission to the proper authority, unless the Provincial or District Grand Master shall consider the case of insufficient importance to require this to be done. The decision of the Provincial or District Grand Master shall be final, unless an appeal be made to the Grand Lodge.

No power to erase or expel.

76. The Provincial or District Grand Master has no power to erase a Lodge or expel a Brother; when, therefore, a case is such as, in his judgment, to require the erasure of a Lodge, or the expulsion of a Brother, he shall make a special report to the Grand Secretary.

To report proceedings to the Grand Secretary.

77. The Provincial or District Grand Master shall transmit to the Grand Secretary annually an account, in writing, of his proceedings, and of the state of Masonry within his Province or District. He is to forward to the Grand Master a summary of the minutes of every Provincial or District Grand Lodge within one month of the holding thereof, together with the names of all Brethren appointed to Provincial or District Grand Office, and the names and numbers of the Lodges to which they belong.

78. A Provincial or District Grand Master shall hold an annual Provincial or District Grand Lodge, at which the appointment of the Provincial or District Grand Officers shall be made, and shall also hold such other meetings of the Provincial or District Grand Lodge as he shall consider necessary. All such meetings shall be held within the Province or District, unless a dispensation is granted by the Grand Master.

Meetings of Provincial and District Grand Lodges.

79. The Provincial or District Grand Lodge is to be declared open and declared closed in due form when the Provincial or District Grand Master presides, and in form on all other occasions, yet with the same authority.

Opening and Closing of Provincial or District Grand Lodge.

80. The Provincial or District Grand Lodge has the power of framing and revising suitable by-laws for its own government, which may provide for the appointment or constitution of Committees and the definition of their powers, and of making and altering regulations to be observed by the private Lodges and Brethren in the Province or District, but no such by-law or regulation nor any revision or alteration thereof shall be in conflict with or contrary to anything contained in these Rules nor be valid until submitted to, and approved by, the Provincial or District Grand Master and the Grand Master.

81. In every District of less than seven Lodges there may be, and in every District consisting of seven or more Lodges there shall be, a Board of General Purposes composed of a President, appointed annually by the District Grand Master, and the holders, not exceeding seven in number, of such offices in the District Grand Lodge as may be specified by the by-laws, ex-officio, and of such a number of other members of the District Grand Lodge, not exceeding sixteen, as may be so specified, of whom one-half shall be elected, in such a manner as the by-laws may prescribe, by the District Grand Lodge, and the other half shall be appointed by the District Grand Master.

The Board shall be entrusted with such administrative powers, authorities and duties as may be specified in the by-laws or may from time to time be delegated to it (subject to revocation and review) by the District Grand Master, and it shall also act in an advisory and consultative capacity by making recommendations to the District Grand Master or the District Grand Lodge, as the case may require, for the welfare of the Craft and the better regulation of the District.

In every District there may also be a District Board of Benevolence composed of a District President, appointed annually by the District Grand Master, and of such a number of other members, not exceeding eight in number, as may be specified in the by-laws, of whom one-half shall be elected, in such a manner as the by-laws may prescribe, by the District Grand Lodge, and the other half shall be appointed by the District Grand Master.

In respect of both Boards, the by-laws may provide for the retirement of the elected and appointed members in rotation, and for the filling of vacancies. No election or appointment of any such member shall be for a period exceeding three years, but this shall not render him ineligible for re-election or re-appointment if thought fit.

82. Correct minutes of the proceedings of the Provincial or District Grand Lodge or of any Board or Committee thereof shall be properly kept in suitable books, which shall be produced by the Provincial or District Grand Master, for the inspection of the Grand Master or the Grand Lodge, whenever required.

Provincial
Grand Lodge
Funds.

83. Great advantage having been experienced from the establishment of a local fund for charitable and other Masonic purposes, each Provincial Grand Lodge may direct payments to be made by the Provincial Grand Officers and the Lodges in the Province for this desirable purpose (in addition to the contributions payable to the Grand Lodge). The payments by Lodges shall not exceed the following sums, viz., three shillings per annum for every member whose name appears on the returns required by the Provincial Grand Lodge in accordance with Rule 149, ten shillings for every member who has been initiated therein or who has joined from a Lodge not under the Grand Lodge, and two shillings and sixpence for every other member who has joined the Lodge, since the last payment. A Provincial Grand Lodge may also direct the payment of the following fees :—

For registering a new Lodge	2	2	0
For registering by-laws ..	0	5	0
For registering amendments of by-laws	0	5	0
For a dispensation.. ..	0	5	0

This fund cannot be established without the concurrence of at least two-thirds of the members present in the Provincial Grand Lodge, nor unless each Lodge in the Province shall have had due notice of the meeting, and of the intention to propose the establishment of such fund, nor until the decision shall have been confirmed at a subsequent meeting of the Provincial Grand Lodge, of which meeting due notice shall have been given.

If such fund be established, the mode of contribution by Lodges shall in no circumstances be departed from, except as hereinafter provided, though the Provincial Grand Lodge may diminish any of the payments, or exact only part of them at its discretion.

Provided always that any Provincial Grand Lodge may increase the above yearly payment from three shillings to six shillings under the following regulations :—

- (1) That notice in writing of the increase proposed, and also of the day of meeting of the Provincial Grand Lodge for the discussion of the subject, be sent to each Lodge in the Province two months at least prior to such meeting.
- (2) That if the proposed payment be agreed to by two-thirds at least of the members present at the meeting of the Provincial Grand Lodge, a day shall be appointed for considering the confirmation thereof, at a period of not less than three months from the first meeting, and a copy of the resolution so agreed to shall be sent to each Lodge with the summons for the second meeting. Provided that no motion for the non-confirmation of any such resolution shall be entertained by the Provincial Grand Lodge unless notice in writing thereof shall have been given to the Provincial Grand Secretary within one month of the first meeting, and placed upon the summons to the second meeting.

When the resolution has been confirmed by a majority of the members present at the second meeting, a copy thereof shall be transmitted to the Grand Master for his approval.

When the Grand Master shall have given his approval, the resolution shall become operative and the increased payment shall be payable from the commencement of the annual period next following that in which the Provincial Grand Lodge confirmed the resolution. Provided also that, when a Provincial Grand Lodge has passed an effective resolution for increasing the quarterly payment formerly due under this Rule, that resolution shall be effective to increase the corresponding annual sum now payable.

A Provincial Grand Lodge may also require the payment of such Fees of Honour and fines as may be authorised by its by-laws.

84. Each District Grand Lodge may direct the payments allowed in Rule 83 to be made by the District Grand Officers and the Lodges in the District, and in addition may require payment to their District Fund of fees larger than are allowed to Provincial Grand Lodges, providing the following procedure is adopted:—

That notice in writing of the increased fees proposed, and also of the day of meeting for the discussion of the subject, be sent to each Lodge in the District two months at least prior to the meeting.

That if the proposed payments be agreed to by two-thirds at least of the members present, a day shall be appointed for considering the confirmation thereof, at a period of not less than three months from the first meeting, and a copy of the resolutions so agreed to shall be sent forthwith to each Lodge with the summons for the second meeting.

That any Lodge whose officers may not be able to attend by reason of their distance from the place of assembly be permitted to state its opinions in writing: provided the same be despatched to the District Grand Secretary within the period of one month from the date of receiving the summons for the second meeting.

When the resolutions have been confirmed by a majority of the members present at the second meeting, a copy thereof shall be transmitted to the Grand Master for his approval, together with copies of any opinions which may have been received in writing.

Such accounts must be produced annually at the meeting of the Provincial or District Grand Lodge specified in the by-laws for that purpose, and a copy thereof transmitted to the Lodges under the Province or District.

86. In order to avoid delay, and for the accommodation of Lodges under a District Grand Master, those Lodges may make their Grand Lodge returns and payments to the District Grand Master or such Brother as he may direct, but for the due remittance of which to the Grand Lodge the District Grand Master shall be personally responsible; the District Grand Master is thereupon to issue Grand Lodge Certificates furnished to him for the purpose, which Certificates are to be countersigned as specified in the following Rule.

The holders of such rank shall be entitled, during the Grand Master's pleasure, to wear at all Masonic meetings the distinctive regalia prescribed under Rules 246, 249, 260, 265 and 268, but can claim precedence as such only within the Lodges in which Overseas Grand Rank is conferred.

Petition for Warrant for new Lodge.

94. Every application for a warrant to hold a new Lodge must be by petition to the Grand Master, signed by not less than seven Master Masons regularly registered under the Constitution of the Grand Lodge. Provided that in the case of petitions for Lodges to meet in Districts, or abroad not within the territory of any District Grand Lodge, it shall suffice if at least four-sevenths in number of the signatories are Brethren so registered, but no Brother not so registered shall sign any petition unless he be regularly registered under the Constitution of a Grand Lodge recognised by the Grand Lodge, and shall at the same time declare in writing his adherence to the Book of Constitutions, and promise due obedience to the Grand Master and the Rules and Regulations of the Grand Lodge. The petition must specify every Lodge to which each signatory belongs and every Lodge to which he has at any time belonged, and in respect of each of the signatories be accompanied by a Certificate in accordance with Rule 175 from every such Lodge showing that he is not indebted to it. To every such petition must be added a recommendation, signed in open Lodge by the Master and Wardens of a regular Lodge under the Grand Lodge with the approval of a majority of the Brethren then present, and notice that the petition is to be submitted for approval must have been given on the summons convening the meeting at which it is to be considered. The petition must then be transmitted to the Grand Secretary for the decision of the Grand Master, provided that, if the Lodge is proposed to be holden in a Province or District, the petition, with the Certificates and recommendation, is in the first instance to be forwarded to the Provincial or District Grand Master, as the case may be, who is to transmit the same with his observations thereon to the Grand Secretary for such decision as beforementioned.

95. The Grand Master, upon receipt of a Provisional Warrant presented in accordance with Rule 94 for Lodges in Districts, and recommended by a District Grand Master, may authorise such District Grand Master to grant a provisional warrant for the formation of the new Lodge pending the issue of a regular warrant of constitution.

96. The following is the form of petition for a warrant to hold a new Lodge:—

petition for warrant.

“ To the M. W. The Grand Master of the United Fraternity of Antient Free and Accepted Masons of England :

We, the undersigned, being regularly registered Master Masons of the Lodges mentioned against our respective names, having the prosperity of the Craft at heart, are anxious to exert our best endeavours to promote and diffuse the genuine principles of the art ; and, for the conveniency of our respective dwellings and other good reasons, we are desirous of forming a new Lodge, to be named

. In consequence of this desire, we pray for a warrant of constitution, empowering us to meet as a regular Lodge, at on the

, and there to discharge the duties of Masonry, in a constitutional manner, according to the forms of the Order and the laws of the Grand Lodge ; and we have nominated and do recommend Brother [A.B.], who has served the office of Warden in a regular Lodge to be the first Master, Brother [C.D.] to be the first Senior Warden, and Brother [E.F.] to be the first Junior Warden of the said Lodge. Should the prayer of this petition be granted, we promise strict obedience to the commands of the Grand Master and the laws and regulations of the Grand Lodge.”

97. Every new Lodge shall be solemnly constituted, according to antient usage, by the Grand Master or by some other Grand Officer or Master or Past Master of a Lodge appointed to act for him. No Brother shall be installed as Master or invested as a Warden except the Brother named in the warrant for such office, unless by sanction of the Grand Master. No Lodge shall be acknowledged, nor its Officers admitted as such into the Grand Lodge, or a Provincial or District Grand Lodge, nor any of its members as such entitled to petition the Board of Benevolence or enjoy any Masonic privilege, unless such Lodge has been regularly constituted and registered.

98. Every Lodge must be distinguished by a name or title, as well as a number, and no Lodge shall be permitted to make any alteration in its name or title without the approval of the Grand Master, and, in Provinces or Districts, that of the Provincial or District Grand Master also.

99. Lodges shall rank in precedence in the order of their numbers as registered in the books of the Grand Lodge. The Grand Stewards' Lodge shall not have a number, but shall be registered in the books of the Grand Lodge, and placed in the printed list at the head of all other Lodges, and rank accordingly.

New Lodge must be regularly constituted.

Precedence of Lodges.

Local precedence of Lodges in Provinces and Districts.

100. Every Lodge shall have a local as well as a general rank, so that if any Lodge be removed from one Masonic area into another, although it is to retain its original number in the Grand Lodge books, and preserve the same rank in the Grand Lodge, and in all public meetings out of the area into which it may have been removed, yet within such area it is to rank immediately after the last Lodge registered therein at the time of such removal, both at any Provincial or District Grand Lodge or at any public ceremony within the area, unless the Grand Master, Pro Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master, or an Assistant Grand Master presides. The seniority of Provincial or District Lodges in their particular Provinces or Districts is to be determined by the date of their registry in the books of the Provincial or District Grand Lodge.

A Lodge not to act without a Warrant.

101. Except under the provisions of Rule 95, no Lodge may meet without a warrant of constitution from the Grand Master, which is to be specially entrusted to each Master at his installation, to be held by him in safe custody on behalf of the Grand Master. The Master shall produce it at every meeting of the Lodge. This regulation does not apply to the Lodge of Antiquity, No. 2, and the Royal Somerset House and Inverness Lodge, No. 4, which act under immemorial constitutions.

102. The warrant of a Lodge is the property of the Grand Master. It must be retained for the sole use of the Lodge to which it is granted. Any Lodge concerned in transferring or improperly disposing of any warrant shall be liable to be erased, and every Brother so concerned shall be deemed to have committed a Masonic offence. The warrant must not bear any endorsement or other inscription except with the authority of the Grand Master.

Warrant not to be sold or irregularly procured.

103. If a warrant be lost or improperly withheld from those lawfully entitled to hold or use the same, or withheld by competent Masonic authority, the Lodge must suspend its meetings until a warrant of confirmation has been applied for and granted by the Grand Master, or until the warrant so lost or withheld be found or restored, in which case the warrant of confirmation, if any, shall be returned forthwith to the Grand Master.

Warrant lost or withheld.

Officers of a Lodge.

104. The regular Officers of a Lodge shall be the Master and his two Wardens, a Treasurer, a Secretary, two Deacons, an Inner Guard and a Tyler. The Master may also appoint as additional officers a Chaplain, a Director of Ceremonies, an Assistant Director of Ceremonies, an Almoner, an Organist, an Assistant Secretary, and a Steward or Stewards, but no others. No Brother can hold more than one regular office in the Lodge at one and the same time, but the Master may appoint a Brother who is holding a regular office to one additional office also.

A Brother who is not a subscribing member of the Lodge may not hold any office therein except that of Tyler.

A Lodge in its by-laws may provide that the services of its Secretary be equivalent to the appropriate subscription to the Lodge, but shall remit to the Grand Lodge and to Provincial or District Grand Lodge the requisite payments due in respect of his membership of the Lodge.

The Officers of a Lodge shall take precedence for investiture and otherwise in the following order: Master, Senior Warden, Junior Warden, Chaplain (if any), Treasurer, Secretary, Director of Ceremonies (if any), Senior Deacon, Junior Deacon, Assistant Director of Ceremonies (if any), Almoner (if any), Organist (if any), Assistant Secretary (if any), Inner Guard, Steward (if any) and Tyler.

No Brother has any right to claim advancement. The appointment of all Officers, except the Master, the Treasurer and (if elected) the Tyler, is in the sole discretion and power of the Master.

The Immediate Past Master, as such, is not an officer of the Lodge. He holds his position and responsibilities by virtue of his Master-ship, and retains that position until a succeeding Master becomes Immediate Past Master. He reoccupies the position if such succeeding Master should die or cease to be a member of the Lodge while holding the position of Immediate Past Master.

The Immediate Past Master takes precedence in the Lodge immediately in front of the Chaplain, or, if there be no Chaplain, then immediately in front of the Treasurer.

105. Every Lodge shall annually, on the day named in its By-Laws for the purpose, proceed to elect a Master by ballot from among those of its members who have, or previously to the installation of such Master shall have, served for one year (that is to say from one regular installation meeting until the next regular installation at the corresponding period in the following year) the office of Master, or of Senior Warden or of Junior Warden, in a regular Lodge warranted under the Grand Lodge, or who shall have been rendered eligible by dispensation under Rule 109. The ballot shall be declared in favour of the member thus qualified who has received the largest number of votes of the members present and voting.

At the next regular meeting the Master so elected shall be duly installed according to ancient usage, provided that no motion that the Master Elect be not installed has been moved and carried in the manner herein provided. A motion to this effect shall be entertained by the Lodge only if written notice thereof, signed by the Proposer and Seconder, and a separate statement, similarly signed, of the reasons for moving the motion, shall have been given to the Secretary of the Lodge at least fourteen days previously to the meeting. In that case copies of the proposed motion and of the separate statement shall be forwarded forthwith to the Master Elect by the Secretary, and a copy of the proposed motion, but not a copy of the separate statement, shall be printed on the summons convening the meeting. Should the motion, on a ballot being taken, receive the support of three-fourths of the members present, the election shall be void and the members shall forthwith proceed to elect some other qualified Brother as Master. The installation of the Master then elected, shall, subject to the foregoing proviso, take place within five weeks of the date of election either at the next regular meeting of the Lodge, if such be held within that period, or at an emergency meeting specially called for that purpose. The Master Elect, shall, subject to the foregoing proviso, then be duly installed, and he and the Wardens invested by him shall, at the date of the next regular installation meeting, be deemed to have filled the offices of Master and Wardens respectively for one year, in compliance with the provisions of Rule 9 and this Rule.

No Master Elect shall assume the Master's Chair until he has been regularly installed.

106. If not less than seven days before the day appointed for the regular installation meeting of the Lodge, the Master Elect should die or become disqualified or incapacitated, or send to the Master a notice in writing of his intention not to accept the office of Master, then a summons shall be issued to each member of the Lodge stating the fact and intimating that on the said day the Brethren will again proceed to elect a Master. The installation of the Master then elected shall, subject to the provisions of Rule 105, take place within five weeks of the date of election either at the next regular meeting of the Lodge, if such be held within that period, or at an emergency meeting specially called for the purpose. The Master Elect shall then be duly installed, and he and the Wardens then invested shall at the date of the next regular installation meeting be deemed to have filled the offices of Master and Wardens respectively for one year, in compliance with the provisions of Rules 9 and 105.

Provided that, where there is a period of not less than two months between the regular days of election and installation of Master, and any of the events before mentioned (rendering the election of the Master ineffective) occur not less than six weeks before the regular day of installation, then the Master may summon an emergency meeting, to be held not less than three weeks before such day of installation, for the purpose of electing another Master, and the Master then elected shall, subject to the provisions of Rule 105, be installed on the regular day of installation, as if he had been elected on the regular day of election.

107. If less than seven days before the day appointed for the regular installation meeting of the Lodge the Master Elect should die or become disqualified or incapacitated, or send to the Master a notice in writing of his intention not to accept the office of Master, then the outgoing Master shall continue as Master of the Lodge until the end of the period for which the Master Elect was elected, and shall at such meeting invest the Wardens and other Officers (if any) selected by the Master Elect, or, as to any not so selected, to be appointed by himself, together with the Treasurer and Tyler.

108. If on the day appointed for the regular installation meeting of the Lodge the Master Elect (though ready and willing to act as such) is unavoidably prevented from attending the meeting, the installation shall be postponed and shall take place within five weeks of the date of such regular installation meeting, either at the next regular meeting of the Lodge, if such be held within that period, or at an emergency meeting called for the purpose. The Master Elect shall be installed, and he and his Wardens then invested shall at the date of the next regular installation meeting be deemed to have filled the offices of Master and Wardens respectively for one year, in compliance with the provisions of Rules 9 and 105.

Provided that if the Master Elect does not attend at the regular or emergency meeting last above mentioned his election shall be void, and the outgoing Master shall continue as Master of the Lodge until the end of the period for which the Master Elect was elected, and shall at such meeting invest the Wardens and other Officers (if any) selected by the Master Elect, or, as to any not so selected, to be appointed by himself, together with the Treasurer and Tyler, and the Wardens then invested shall at the date of the next regular installation meeting be deemed to have filled the offices of Wardens for one year, in compliance with the provisions of Rules 9 and 105.

Qualification
of Warden for Master's Chair.

109. If the investiture of a Warden shall not have taken place at the meeting at which the Master was installed, and thereby the member appointed has not served the office for one year as aforesaid, he cannot be included among those eligible for election as Master of the Lodge except by dispensation from the Grand Master, which can only be granted on petition setting forth the circumstances in which the investiture was delayed, the actual service of the member in the Warden's Chair, and the special reasons for asking the Grand Master's intervention. The Installing Master shall not proceed to the installation of a Master unless satisfied that the requirements of Rule 105 have been complied with, or unless such dispensation shall have been produced to him.

110. Should a Prince of the Blood Royal ^{Deputy} Master. honour any private Lodge by accepting the office of Master, he may appoint a Deputy Master, qualified in compliance with the provisions of Rule 105, who shall be regularly installed, and be entitled, when in office, to all the privileges of Master, and, after he has served his period of office, to those of a Past Master.

111. Every Master Elect, before being ^{Master's} obligation. placed in the Chair, shall solemnly pledge himself to preserve the Landmarks of the Order, to observe the antient usages and established customs, and strictly to enforce them within his own Lodge.

112. The Treasurer shall be elected by the ^{Election of} Treasurer. members by ballot on the regular day of election of the Master.

Tyler of a Lodge.

113. The Tyler shall be elected by the members on the regular day of election of the Master. A Lodge, however, may resolve that a subscribing member of the Lodge shall be Tyler without emolument, in which case he shall be appointed with the other Officers by the Master.

In cases where the Tyler is elected by the members, he may at any time be removed for cause deemed sufficient by a majority of the members present at a regular meeting of the Lodge.

Every Tyler must be a Master Mason and registered as such in the books of the Grand Lodge.

115. No Brother shall continue Master of the same Lodge for more than two years in succession, unless by a dispensation, which may be granted by the Grand Master, or in a Province or District by the Provincial or District Grand Master, in cases of necessity; but he may again be elected after he has been out of office one year.

This regulation shall not apply to a Prince of the Blood Royal who appoints a Deputy, but it shall apply to the Deputy.

No Brother shall be Master of two or more Lodges at the same time without a dispensation from the Grand Master, or, if the Lodges are in the same District, then from the District Grand Master.

118. The Master and Wardens and members of every Lodge, when summoned to do so, shall attend the Grand Master or his Deputy or Assistant, or the Provincial or District Grand Master or his Deputy or Assistant, or the Board of General Purposes, or any other Board or Committee authorised by the Grand Lodge; and, if required, shall produce the warrant, books and papers of the Lodge, and each Brother so summoned his Grand Lodge Certificate, all or any of which may be retained by any of the said authorities.

Failure to comply with the terms of a summons under this Rule shall render any Brother liable to suspension and to being reported to the Grand Lodge.

119. If the Master shall die, be removed, or be rendered permanently incapable of discharging the duties of his office, the Senior Warden, or in his absence the Junior Warden, or in the absence of both Wardens the Immediate Past Master, or in his absence the Senior Past Master of the Lodge shall summon the Lodge until the next installation of Master.

If the Master be not present, the Immediate Past Master, or if he be absent the Senior Past Master of the Lodge present, or if no Past Master of the Lodge be present the Senior Installed Master who is a subscribing member of the Lodge shall take the Chair. And if no Installed Master who is a subscribing member of the Lodge be present, then the Senior Warden, or in his absence the Junior Warden, shall rule the Lodge. If the Master's absence be only temporary and circumstances so permit, he may exercise such authority over the affairs of the Lodge as devolves upon him by virtue of his office. He may request a duly qualified Brother to occupy the Chair to confer degrees as if he himself were present in the Lodge.

120. Should the Master be dissatisfied with the conduct of any of the Officers, he may lay the cause of complaint before the Lodge at a regular meeting. Particulars of the complaint shall be sent at least seven days before such meeting to the Officer concerned. If it shall appear to the majority of the members present that the complaint be well founded, the Master shall have power to displace such Officer, and to appoint another.

Removal

121. If a vacancy shall occur in a regular office other than that of Master, such office shall be filled for the remainder of the year by the election or appointment (according to the normal method of filling the office) of a member not serving a regular office in the Lodge at the time the vacancy occurred. If an election be required, due notice thereof shall appear on the summons.

Offices.

122. The Grand Master has full authority to preside in any Lodge, and to order any of his Grand Officers to attend him. His Wardens, if present and so commanded, are to act as Wardens of the Lodge while he presides; but the Grand Master may command the Wardens of the Lodge or any Master Masons to act as Wardens.

The Pro Grand Master, if the Grand Master be not present, has the same authority.

The Deputy Grand Master, if the Grand Master and the Pro Grand Master be not present, has the same authority.

125. No Brother subject to the Grand Lodge shall be admitted into a Lodge unless he be personally known to, and vouched for, by one of the Brethren present, or unless he shall be well vouched for after due examination. He shall, if required, produce his Grand Lodge Certificate and proof of good standing in his Lodge or Lodges.

Admission of Visitors.

No Brother who is not subject to the Grand Lodge shall be admitted unless his Certificate shows that he has been initiated according to the antient rites and ceremonies in a Lodge belonging to a Grand Lodge professing belief in T.G.A.O.T.U., such Certificate not to be regarded as valid unless granted by a Grand Lodge recognised by the Grand Lodge, nor unless he himself shall acknowledge that this belief is an essential Landmark of the Order, and is able to produce proof of his good standing in his Lodge or Lodges. It is incumbent on the Master of any Lodge to which a visitor from another Constitution seeks admission to satisfy himself by adequate enquiries, if need be, from the Grand Secretary, that such Constitution is recognised by the Grand Lodge.

Every visitor during his presence in a Lodge is subject to its relevant by-laws.

Refusal of admission to visitors.

126. It is within the power of the Master of every private Lodge to refuse admission to any visitor of known bad character or whose presence is in his opinion likely to disturb the harmony of the Lodge.

Disqualification to visit.

127. In the case of a Brother who has ceased to be a subscribing member of every Lodge of which he has at any time been a member, the following provisions shall have effect, viz. :

(a) If he comes within the provisions of this Rule by reason of his exclusion under Rule 148 or Rule 181, he shall not be permitted to attend any Lodge or Lodge of Instruction until he again becomes a subscribing member of a Lodge.

(b) In any other case he shall not be permitted to attend any one Lodge more than once until he again becomes a subscribing member of a Lodge, and upon such one attendance he shall append the word "unattached" to his signature in the attendance book, stating therein the name and number of the Lodge of which he was last a subscribing member.

Nothing in this Rule shall preclude the attendance of a Brother at any Lodge of which he is an Honorary Member.

128. All Lodges held within ten miles London Lodges. from Freemasons' Hall, London, are London Lodges, and are to pay London dues and fees. The Master of every such Lodge shall cause to be sent to the Grand Secretary a copy of the summons to every regular and emergency meeting of the Lodge at the same time as it is issued to the members.

129. All Lodges held at a greater distance Provincial or District Lodges. than ten miles from Freemasons' Hall, London, are Provincial or District Lodges.

are, subject to the provisions of Rule 91, Provincial or District Lodges, and are under the immediate superintendence of the Provincial or District Grand Master within whose jurisdiction they meet.

Military Lodges abroad.

130. When any Military Lodge, under the Grand Lodge, shall meet out of England, it shall be conducted so as not to give offence to the Masonic authorities of the country or place in which it is holden, never losing sight of the duties it owes to the Grand Lodge, to which communication is ever to be made, and all fees and dues regularly transmitted.

Surrender or exchange of warrant of Military Lodge.

131. If the military body to which a Lodge is attached be disbanded, the Brethren shall transmit the warrant to the Grand Secretary ; but, if a competent number of the Brethren remain together, they may apply for another warrant of the same number, authorising a Lodge to be holden as a civil Lodge, at such place as may be convenient and approved of by the Grand Master, such warrant to be granted without any additional expense.

Sanction for Lodge of Instruction.

132. No Lodge of Instruction shall be holden unless under the sanction of a regular warranted Lodge, or by the licence and authority of the Grand Master. The Lodge giving its sanction, or the Brethren to whom such licence is granted, shall be responsible for seeing that the proceedings are in accordance with the Antient Charges, Landmarks and Regulations of the Order as established by the Grand Lodge.

133. The times and places of meeting of Lodges of Instruction in London shall be submitted for approval to the Grand Secretary, and in Provinces and Districts to the Provincial and District Grand Secretaries respectively.

Time and place of meeting of Lodges of Instruction to be approved.

134. Lodges of Instruction shall keep minutes recording the names of all Brethren present at each meeting, and of Brethren appointed to hold office, and such minutes shall be produced when called for by the Grand Master, the Provincial or District Grand Master, the Board of General Purposes, or the Lodge granting the sanction.

Minutes of Lodges of Instruction.

Any Officer who is in possession of any property of a Lodge of Instruction shall, upon ceasing to hold his office, hand over such property to his successor, or to such person or persons as the Lodge giving its sanction, or the Grand Master, or other competent authority, shall direct.

Withdrawal of sanction
from Lodge of Instruction.

135. If a Lodge which has given its sanction for a Lodge of Instruction being held shall see fit, it may at any regular meeting withdraw that sanction by a resolution of the Lodge, provided that notice of intention to withdraw the sanction be inserted in the summons for that meeting, and at the same time be communicated to the Secretary of the Lodge of Instruction. A decision to withdraw the sanction of the Lodge shall be notified to the Lodge of Instruction, which shall thereupon cease to exist. The decision shall also be notified to the Grand Secretary or the Provincial or District Grand Secretary, as the case may be.

The Grand Master may at any time withdraw a licence given by him for a Lodge of Instruction, which shall thereupon cease to exist.

Whenever a Lodge of Instruction ceases to exist, the books, papers, and other documents become the property of, and must be handed over to, the Lodge under whose sanction it worked, or to the Grand Secretary on behalf of the Grand Master. The other property of the Lodge of Instruction shall be disposed of in such a manner as its members shall properly determine.

136. Every Lodge has the power of framing ^{By-Laws.} proper by-laws for its government, but no by-law nor any alteration thereof shall come into operation until approved in accordance with these Rules. The by-laws and every alteration thereof must be submitted to the Grand Secretary for the approval of the Grand Master, and, in the case of a Provincial or District Lodge, the same shall in the first instance be sent to the Provincial or District Grand Secretary for the approval of the Provincial or District Grand Master, and for subsequent transmission to the Grand Secretary. When finally approved, the by-laws must be printed, and a copy sent to the Grand Secretary, and also in the case beforementioned to the Provincial or District Grand Secretary.

137. The by-laws shall specify the regular ^{Time and place of meeting.} days and place of meeting of the Lodge, also the regular meeting for the election of Master, Treasurer and (if he is to be elected) Tyler, and the regular meeting for the installation of Master, which shall be the regular meeting next following that specified for his election. There is no power to cancel any regular meeting, nor may any meeting of the Lodge be held other than at the specified place and on the specified day, except as otherwise provided in these Rules. No meeting of a Lodge may be adjourned.*

Submission to by-laws.

138. A copy of the by-laws shall be delivered to the Master on his installation, and his acceptance thereof shall be deemed to be a solemn pledge on his part that he will observe and enforce them.

Every Brother shall be supplied with a printed copy of the by-laws of the Lodge when he becomes a member, and his acceptance thereof shall be deemed to be a declaration of his submission to them.

Prohibited days for Meetings.

139. In no case may a meeting of the Grand Lodge, or of any Provincial or District Grand Lodge, or of any private Lodge be held upon Christmas Day, Good Friday, or a Sunday, and the provisions of this Rule are subject always to those days being prohibited days for any such meeting.

Meetings falling upon prohibited days or public holidays.

In case the specified day for the regular meeting of a Lodge shall fall upon Christmas Day, Good Friday, a Sunday, or a public holiday, then the meeting shall be held on such alternative day (being not more than seven days before nor more than seven days after the specified day) as the Master shall direct, save only that in the case of the specified day falling upon a public holiday the meeting may be held upon that day provided that it be not a prohibited day.

If in any Lodge it should be desired to hold a regular meeting upon a day other than the specified day then the Grand Master or, in a Province or District, the Provincial or District Grand Master may, on good cause shown, grant a dispensation for the holding of such meeting on an alternative day being not more than fourteen days before nor more than fourteen days after the specified day.

For the purpose of computing the interval of four weeks mentioned in Rule 172, a meeting shall always be considered as having been held on the actual day on which it was held, and not on the specified day for which such actual day was substituted. For all other purposes a meeting held on an alternative day shall be deemed to have been held on the specified day.

140. Not more than one meeting of a Lodge may be held on one and the same day. When, on good cause shown, a dispensation shall first have been granted by the Grand Master, or, in a Province or District, the Altering day of meeting by dispensation.

Emergency Meetings.

Provincial or District Grand Master, an emergency meeting of a Lodge may be called by the authority of the Master, or, if he be not available, then of the Senior Warden, or, if he also be not available, then of the Junior Warden, but on no pretence without such authority. No business which these Rules require to be transacted only at a regular meeting shall be transacted at an emergency meeting, and the business to be transacted thereat shall not include any business whatsoever except such as is mentioned on the summons convening the meeting nor shall the minutes of any previous meeting be read or confirmed at an emergency meeting, except in so far as any such minutes relate to or affect the validity of the business so mentioned.

Removal
of Lodges.

141. Without prejudice to any power conferred by its warrant any Lodge may be removed from one house to another, if the following provisions are strictly complied with:—

- (a) If at any regular meeting a notice of motion for the removal of the Lodge signed by not fewer than seven subscribing members be given, the Master shall cause such motion, which may also propose a consequential alteration of the days of meeting, to be placed on the summons for the next regular meeting or for a special meeting called for the sole purpose of considering and finally deciding the motion, for either of which not less than seven days' notice shall be given.

- (b) The motion shall not be carried unless two-thirds of the members voting shall vote in favour of it, and, if carried, shall effect, subject to all necessary approvals, the appropriate alterations in the by-laws of the Lodge.
- (c) No Lodge shall be removed without the consent of the Grand Master, and, if the removal be to or from or within a Province or District, the consent of the Provincial or District Grand Master concerned must first be obtained. Consent to removal.
- (d) When a Lodge shall have resolved to alter its place or day of meeting, a copy of the alterations of the by-laws shall forthwith be submitted for approval in accordance with Rule 136, together with a copy of the minutes relating to such alterations. Removal to be recorded.
- (e) If it is desired permanently to remove the Lodge, and it is not possible at once to specify a particular place of future Temporary removal.

meeting, the Master shall apply for an appropriate dispensation or appropriate dispensations in accordance with Rule 142. The dispensation, if granted, shall be for such period as is specified therein and shall authorise the Lodge to meet and carry on its business until the provisions of these Rules have been complied with.

Removal of Lodges for one meeting.

142. If any meeting of a Lodge at its regular place should for any reason be impracticable or undesirable, the Master shall forthwith apply to the Grand Master or the Provincial or District Grand Master, as the case may be, for a dispensation to meet at a specified place to carry on the general business of the Lodge, and, if the specified place be outside the area of jurisdiction in which the Lodge regularly meets, a dispensation shall be applied for from each of the authorities concerned.

Property,
Furniture,
Jewels,
Books,
Papers, etc.,
of a Lodge.

143. All property of a Lodge not vested in special trustees belongs to, and is the property of, the Master and Wardens for the time being, in trust for the members of the Lodge. If any Lodge shall pledge its jewels and furniture or any part thereof, or permit or suffer any charge or lien thereon to arise or to be created, then its warrant is liable to be forfeited.

Every member of a Lodge is bound on ceasing to hold an office in the Lodge forthwith to hand over to his successor in such office all books, papers, documents and other property, if any, in his possession or under his control by virtue of his having held such office.

144. Every Lodge shall keep a Minute Minutes. Book in which the Master or the Secretary shall regularly enter from time to time :—

First.—The names of all persons initiated, passed or raised in the Lodge, or becoming members thereof, with the dates of their proposal, initiation, passing and raising or admission respectively, together with their ages, addresses, titles and professions or occupations.

Secondly.—The names of all members present at each meeting of the Lodge, and of all visiting Brethren with the names and numbers of their Lodges and their Masonic ranks.

Thirdly.—Minutes of all the proceedings of the Lodge.

The minutes of each meeting of a Lodge shall at the regular meeting next following be read and submitted for confirmation as a true record of fact.

Lodge Subscriptions.

145. All members entitled to the same privileges of a Lodge must pay annually the same amount of subscription, save that, if the by-laws so provide, a smaller rate of annual subscription may be fixed for members who, for some cause satisfactory to the Lodge, are not in a position to enjoy such privileges regularly.

No Lodge may by its by-laws or otherwise provide that any subscribing member thereof shall not be entitled to receive summonses, or be disqualified from holding office therein, but a Lodge may in its by-laws provide that members who are in default in the payment of their subscriptions for some specified period, not less than three months after their becoming due, shall be deprived while so in default of all or any of the rights of voting, proposing or seconding candidates, and being appointed or elected to office.

Annual Return of Members.

146. Every Lodge, by its Secretary, shall within three months after the end of each of its financial years transmit to the Grand Secretary, upon a printed form which he will provide, a return of the persons who were during such year its subscribing members, specifying in the case of every member who during such year was initiated in, or passed or raised in or for the Lodge, the date of every such ceremony; and in the case of every member who joined or rejoined the Lodge during such year the date of his joining or rejoining and the name and number of every Lodge to which he then belonged or had at any time previously belonged; and in the case of all new members (whether by initiation or joining or rejoining) their ages, addresses, titles, and professions or occupations. Particulars shall also be given in the return of the dates of election to Honorary Membership, and of the deaths, resignations or exclusions of subscribing members which have occurred during such year. Such return shall be signed by the Master and the Secretary, and it shall be the duty of every Lodge to keep a register of its subscribing members and to enter therein all the particulars which are required to be specified on the return.

147. Every Lodge when it makes the return required by the preceding Rule shall remit the proper fees and contributions in respect of every member whose name appears thereon, irrespective of whether the subscription has been paid or not.

But (i) the words "in arrears" (stating the full period of such arrears) shall be written against the name of any member whose subscription shall not have been paid up to the end of the annual period in respect of which the return is made.

(ii) When any such arrear is cleared, the period in respect of which the subscription shall have been paid shall be noted against the member's name on the next annual return.

Cessation of membership when three years in arrear.

148. Should the subscription of a member to his Lodge remain unpaid for three full years, at the expiration of that period he shall cease to be a member of the Lodge, which fact shall be reported to the Lodge at the next regular meeting, and recorded on the minutes. He can only become a member again by regular proposition and ballot according to Rule 163, and the Lodge shall require payment of the arrears as a condition precedent to his election. This Rule shall not prevent any Lodge proceeding against any of its members under Rule 181 in respect of sums due for a shorter period than three years, if so provided in its by-laws. When a Brother ceases to be a member under this Rule, the fact shall be forthwith notified to the Grand Secretary and, if the Lodge be within a Province or District, also to the Provincial or District Grand Secretary.

The provisions of Rules 9, 163, 175 and 182 shall apply in the case of a Brother ceasing to be a member under this Rule as if he had been excluded by vote.

149. If a Lodge be in a Province or District, it shall make returns similar to those required to be made to the Grand Secretary once in each year, or oftener if required, to the Provincial or District Grand Secretary, and transmit therewith all moneys payable to the Provincial or District Grand Lodge.

Returns by Lodges in Provinces and Districts.

150. To prevent injury to individuals, by being excluded from the privileges of Masonry through neglect in not registering their names or not paying their Grand Lodge dues, any Brother so circumstanced, on producing sufficient proof that he has paid the full fees to his Lodge, including the registration fee, shall not suffer any disability by reason of such neglect, and the offending Lodge shall be reported to the Board of General Purposes for detaining moneys which are the property of the Grand Lodge.

Rights of Brethren not prejudiced by neglect to make returns, etc.

the Master, make a return to the Grand Secretary of the Master, Wardens, and Past Masters of the Lodge, and of all members who claim to be entitled to attend the Grand Lodge as Past Masters, under Rule 9, having served the office of Master in some other Lodge, specifying the Lodge in which each of them has served the office of Master; and no Brother shall be permitted to attend the Grand Lodge unless his name shall appear in such return. This return shall also contain the full names and addresses of the Master and Secretary, both of whom shall sign the return.

Penalty for neglect to make returns.

152. If any Lodge shall neglect to make its return and payments to the Grand Lodge for a period of six months after the same are due according to these regulations, it shall be liable to erasure or to a lesser penalty under Rule 179 and in addition the Board of General Purposes may impose such penalty as it considers fitting upon any of the members of the Lodge who have been responsible for the neglect. The Master, Wardens, and Past Masters shall not be permitted to attend the Grand Lodge or sit upon any Board or Committee by virtue of any qualification derived from a Lodge until the proper returns and payments to the Grand Lodge from that Lodge have been made.

153. All moneys due to, or held for, the Lodge shall be paid or remitted to the Treasurer direct, who shall without undue delay deposit the same in an account in the name of the Lodge at a bank to be approved by resolution of the Lodge. The Treasurer shall make such payments as are duly authorised, or have been sanctioned by the Lodge. All cheques must bear the signature of the Treasurer and (unless the Lodge resolves to the contrary) of at least one other member authorised by the Lodge. The Treasurer shall regularly enter a complete record of all moneys passing through his hands in the proper books of account, which shall be the property of the Lodge, and which, together with all Lodge funds and property in his possession, shall be transferred to his successor upon investiture. He shall prepare a statement of accounts annually, at a date to be determined by the members, showing the exact financial position of the Lodge, which statement shall be verified and audited by a Committee appointed by the Lodge, after which it shall be submitted to the members for their consideration not later than the second regular meeting after the date to which the accounts are made up. The books of account shall be produced for inspection in open Lodge, or on other suitable occasion, if required by a resolution of the Lodge.

Lodge Committees.

154. A Lodge, if authorised by its by-laws, may appoint a Committee of its members for the purpose of considering and reporting upon proposals for membership of the Lodge. The Lodge by resolution may specifically refer any other matter to such Committee (or other Committee specially appointed in open Lodge) for consideration and report, or with power to act within such limits as the Lodge may define, but no Committee can be invested with any general executive powers. Any Committee may submit to the Lodge for consideration any matter which it may deem to be for the benefit of the Lodge. The Master ex-officio shall belong to, and be entitled to preside over, every Committee of the Lodge.

Lodge may regulate its own proceedings.

155. The members present at any Lodge duly summoned have an undoubted right to regulate their own proceedings, provided they are consistent with the general laws and regulations of the Craft; but a protest against any resolution or proceeding, based on the ground of its being contrary to the laws and usages of the Craft, and for the purpose of complaining or appealing to a higher Masonic authority, may be made, and such protest shall be entered in the Minute Book if the Brother making the protest shall so request.

156. Whenever it shall happen that the ^{Voting.} votes are equal upon any question to be decided by a majority, either by ballot or otherwise, the Master in the chair or the Warden ruling the Lodge shall give a second or casting vote.

157. No person shall be made a Mason ^{Qualification} while under the age of twenty-one years, ^{for} unless ^{Initiation.} by dispensation of the Grand Master or Provincial or District Grand Master. Every candidate must be a free man, and in reputable circumstances.

158. If a candidate for initiation seeks ^{Enquiries as} admission to a Lodge in a locality in which ^{to candidates} he has neither a permanent residence nor a ^{from other} regular place of business or employment, ^{localities.} he shall state in writing his reasons for so doing, and his reason for not seeking admission to a Lodge in the locality of his residence or principal place of business. In such a case the Lodge to which he seeks admission, upon the receipt of a proposal form for initiation, shall forthwith make enquiries as to the candidate's suitability from the Masonic Authority having jurisdiction over the locality of his residence or principal place of business. A candidate coming within the provisions of this Rule shall not be proposed in open Lodge until the Masonic Authority has replied to the enquiries.

Candidates
for Initiation.

159. Except as provided by Rule-160, a candidate for initiation may be proposed and seconded at a regular meeting only, and he must be balloted for at the next regular meeting. If the ballot be not so taken the proposal shall lapse. The particulars required of the candidate, as well as of his proposer and seconder, shall be furnished to the Secretary of the Lodge, previously to the meeting of the Lodge at which the proposal is to be made. For this purpose the printed form of application approved by the Board of General Purposes and for the time being in use, must be employed. Copies of such printed form will be supplied by the Grand Secretary. The proposer and seconder of a candidate must either be subscribing members of the Lodge, or be qualified in this respect by Rule 167; the candidate must be personally known to them and they must be able to state that he is a man of good reputation and well fitted to become a member of the Lodge. When a candidate is not initiated on the day of his election, the date of such election shall be stated on the summons for the meeting at which the initiation is to take place. If a candidate is not initiated within one year after his election, the election shall be void. Every Brother upon initiation shall be supplied with a copy of the Book of Constitutions, and his acceptance thereof shall be deemed a declaration of his submission to its contents.

160. In cases where the length of the procedure under Rule 159 would impose serious hardship upon a prospective candidate, any two members of a Lodge may send in writing to the Master, the name, age, profession or occupation (if any), and place of abode of the candidate, and the circumstances which in their opinion render it desirable that such candidate, who must be personally known to them, should be initiated as a matter of urgency. If in the opinion of the Master the urgency be real, and that hardship upon the candidate would be serious, he shall require the candidate and his proposer and seconder respectively to furnish the appropriate particulars to the Secretary of the Lodge on the printed form of application mentioned in Rule 159, not less than fourteen days previously to the regular or emergency meeting of the Lodge at which the proposal is to be submitted, and the ballot taken, and the candidate, if elected, is to be thereupon initiated.

A statement by the Master of the cause of the urgency and the nature of the hardship shall in every case be specified in the summons (issued in accordance with Rule 164) for the regular or emergency meeting at which the proposal is to be submitted. The Master, previously to the ballot being taken, shall state in open Lodge the cause of the urgency and the nature of the hardship, and such matters shall be recorded in the Lodge minutes.

161. No Lodge under the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge shall initiate any candidate whose usual place of residence is in Ireland or Scotland or any place where the Grand Lodge of Ireland or the Grand Lodge of Scotland has exclusive Masonic jurisdiction without first communicating with the Grand Secretary in order that he may make enquiries of the Grand Secretary of the Jurisdiction from which the candidate comes, before a ballot is taken for his election.

Candidates
from Ireland and Scotland.

This Rule shall not apply to members of Her Majesty's Forces on the Active List, or to members of any University who are candidates for initiation in a Lodge specially associated with that University.

162. Every candidate before his initiation must subscribe his name at full length to a ^{Declaration} _{by Candi-} ^{date.} declaration of the following import, viz. :—

I, _____, being a free man, and of the full age of twenty-one years, do declare that, unbiassed by the improper solicitation of friends, and uninfluenced by mercenary or other unworthy motive, I do freely and voluntarily offer myself a candidate for the mysteries of Masonry; that I am prompted by a favourable opinion conceived of the institution, and a desire of knowledge; and that I will cheerfully conform to all the antient usages and the established customs of the Order.

163. A Brother desiring to become a ^{Joining} _{Members.} joining or rejoining member of a Lodge must be proposed and seconded at a regular meeting only. He must be balloted for at the next regular meeting. If the ballot be not so taken, the proposal shall be void. If elected, he must take up his membership within one year, and if he fails to do so the election shall be void.

The particulars required of the candidate, as well as of his proposer and seconder, shall be furnished to the Secretary of the Lodge previously to the meeting of the Lodge at which the proposition is to be made. For this purpose the printed form of application mentioned in Rule 159 must be employed. The proposer and seconder of a candidate must be qualified in the same manner and fulfil the same requirements as are mentioned in Rules 159 and 167 with respect to the proposer and seconder of a candidate for initiation.

Before the ballot is taken the candidate must produce to the Secretary of the Lodge his Grand Lodge Certificate, and, in accordance with Rule 175, a certificate of good standing from each of the Lodges of which he is a member to show that all dues have been paid, as well as a certificate from each of the Lodges of which he has ceased to be a member, stating the circumstances in which he left the Lodge, and whether at that time all dues were paid, or have since been paid. If any of such Lodges has ceased to exist, and the candidate is not in possession of the necessary certificate, there shall be substituted a certificate from the Grand Secretary stating all relevant facts so far as they are known.

If any Brother who has been excluded from a Lodge or who has resigned without having complied with its by-laws or the general regulations of the Craft seeks to join another Lodge, the circumstances of such exclusion or resignation shall be stated to the Lodge before the ballot is taken, the better to enable the Brethren to exercise their discretion as to his admission. If a Lodge accepts such a Brother as a joining member, it shall be liable for any arrears that may be owing by him to the Lodge or Lodges from which he has been excluded or has resigned.

In the event of a Brother who has been initiated in a Lodge not under the Grand Lodge applying to join a Lodge under the Grand Lodge, the Secretary of the Lodge shall, before the ballot is taken, apply to the Grand Secretary (or in the case of a District Lodge, to the District Grand Secretary) to ascertain that the Grand Lodge under which the Brother was initiated is recognised by the Grand Lodge.

The declaration shall be made in the Lodge which the Brother is joining or in some other Lodge under the Grand Lodge, or in writing witnessed by a Brother, who shall state the name, number and Jurisdiction (which must be the Grand Lodge or a Jurisdiction recognised by the Grand Lodge) of the Lodge to which he himself belongs. The declaration validates the election retrospectively and must be recorded in the Lodge minutes.

A copy of the Book of Constitutions must be presented to each such joining Brother.

It is competent for a Lodge to specify in its by-laws that the form containing the particulars of a candidate shall be deposited with the Secretary for a reasonable number of days before the meeting at which the candidate is to be proposed, such number being specified in the by-laws, but the period of fourteen days mentioned in Rule 160 shall in no case be abridged.

Rejection

165. No person shall be made a Mason in, or admitted a member of, a Lodge, if, on the ballot, three black balls appear against him; but the by-laws of a Lodge may enact that two black balls or one black ball shall exclude a candidate; and the by-laws may also enact that a reasonable period therein prescribed shall elapse before any rejected candidate can be proposed again in that Lodge.

Members.

167. A Lodge shall have power, after notice placed on the summons, to elect as an Honorary Member any Brother of good standing and worthy of such distinction by reason of his services to the Craft, or to the particular Lodge, who is, or within the previous year has been, a subscribing member of a regular Lodge. The motion for his election shall be voted on by ballot and declared carried unless three or more black balls appear against it. Such Honorary Member, who shall not be liable for any fees payable to the Lodge, shall possess the right of attending the meetings of the Lodge, but not, unless he ceases to be an Honorary Member by becoming a subscribing member of the Lodge in accordance with Rules 163 and 164, of making or voting upon any proposition or holding any office in the Lodge. The Grand Lodge and Provincial or District Grand Lodge dues under Rules 83, 84 and 270 shall not be paid in respect of an Honorary Member, and his name shall not be included in the list of subscribing members returned to the Grand Lodge in accordance with Rule 146 or the return required by Rule 151.

Where, however, the distinction of Honorary Membership has been conferred upon a Past Master because of the services he has rendered to the Lodge, he shall, if he has been a subscribing member thereof, be entitled to propose or second candidates for admission to the Lodge.

Number of candidates on the same day limited.

168. No Lodge shall initiate or confer any one degree on more than two candidates on the same day unless by dispensation from the Grand Master or the Provincial or District Grand Master. The application for such dispensation shall specify the names of the candidates, the degree to be conferred and the special circumstances in which the application is made.

Fee for Initiation.

169. When a person is made a Mason (except as provided in the following Rule) he shall on or before the day of his initiation pay to the Lodge the initiation fee prescribed in the by-laws which shall be not less than the minimum fee hereby prescribed, that is to say, five guineas inclusive of the registration fee in England, and three guineas exclusive of the registration and certificate fees abroad. No Lodge shall forgo or defer the payment of these sums or any part thereof.

Initiation and status of serving Brethren.

170. A person may be initiated as a serving Brother without any fee by the Lodge in which he is to serve or by any Lodge for the service of the Grand Lodge or a Provincial or District Grand Lodge, subject to a dispensation first being obtained from the Grand Master or the Provincial or District Grand Master.

Every such initiation and the circumstances thereof shall be specially notified to the Grand Secretary in the return made to him, and the serving Brother shall be registered free of expense, but shall be obliged to pay for a special Grand Lodge Certificate the fee prescribed. A Brother initiated as a serving Brother can only become a member of a Lodge by being elected thereto as a joining member and paying thereto the same fee as an initiate therein, but from and after such election and payment he shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges to which he would have been entitled if he had been initiated in a Lodge otherwise than as a serving Brother. Upon the first registration of a serving Brother as a joining member of a Lodge the appropriate fee for the registration of an initiate shall be paid by such Lodge, and the Brother shall be entitled to return the special Grand Lodge Certificate originally issued to him, in exchange for a Grand Lodge Certificate of the same date as his original Certificate.

A serving Brother may himself pay through the Lodge in which he was initiated such sums as would, if he were a member thereof, be payable in respect of him to the Fund of Benevolence pursuant to Rule 271, and when such payments have been made for ten years at least in the aggregate, he shall be eligible to be relieved in case of distress, but such payments shall not be receivable except while the Brother is actually serving the Lodge in question and has not joined the same or any other Lodge under the foregoing provisions of this Rule.

A Tyler not initiated as a serving Brother is not qualified himself to pay the dues referred to in the preceding paragraph, neither may any Lodge pay such dues for him unless he is a subscribing member thereof.

Proposer responsible for fees.

171. The member who proposes a candidate shall be responsible to the Lodge for all fees payable under its by-laws in respect of the initiation of such candidate.

Interval between degrees.

172. Except abroad as provided by Rule 90, no Lodge shall confer a degree on any Brother at a less interval than four weeks from his receiving the previous degree, and every ceremony performed in contravention of this provision (unless validated as mentioned below) shall be void. The Grand Master shall refer every breach of this Rule to the Board of General Purposes pursuant to Rule 232, and may if he thinks proper upon the recommendation of the Board grant a dispensation validating any such ceremony retrospectively, subject to such (if any) conditions as he may consider proper.

173. No Lodge of which he is not a member shall pass or raise a Brother who has been initiated in another Lodge except at the written request of the Master (or in his absence a Warden) and the Secretary of the Lodge in which he was initiated.

Conferment
of Degrees
by request.

In the case of a request by or on behalf of a Lodge under a recognised Grand Lodge to have a degree conferred on a Brother in a Lodge under the Grand Lodge, the request must be countersigned by the Grand Secretary of the recognised Grand Lodge and by him forwarded to the Grand Secretary for transmission to the Lodge, in which the degree is to be conferred.

In the converse case a request by or on behalf of a Lodge under the Grand Lodge to have a degree conferred on a Brother in a Lodge under a recognised Grand Lodge, the request must be countersigned by the Grand Secretary and by him forwarded to the Grand Secretary of the recognised Grand Lodge for transmission to the Lodge in which the degree is to be conferred.

Whenever a Brother has been passed or raised under any of the provisions of this Rule a document certifying such passing or raising shall forthwith be forwarded to the Grand Secretary and to the Lodge to which the candidate belongs.

Application for Grand Lodge
Certificate.

174. Applications for Grand Lodge Certificates must be made by the Lodge in which the Brother has been initiated to the Grand Secretary, on the appropriate form provided by him, except in the case of District Lodges where the District Grand Master is authorised by Rule 87 to issue Certificates, in which case the application must be made to the District Grand Secretary.

Fee for Certificate
must be paid.

The fee payable for the registration of a Mason, in accordance with Rule 270, shall be paid and sent, together with the proposal form, on the registration of a Brother's name by the Lodge in which he was initiated. No Certificate can be issued until the appropriate fee is paid and the proposal form duly completed is received.

Who entitled to Certificate.

Every Brother in good standing shall be entitled to a Grand Lodge Certificate immediately upon his being registered in the books of the Grand Lodge as having received the third degree; but a Brother may in special circumstances obtain a Certificate of the first or second degree, and, after he has been advanced to a superior degree, shall be entitled free of charge to exchange such Certificate for one of the superior degree.

A Brother's Grand Lodge Certificate should be presented to him in open Lodge, and the fact entered on the minutes, but, in cases where this cannot conveniently be done, the Certificate shall be sent to him by registered post, and the Secretary shall report the fact at the next regular meeting of the Lodge so that it be duly recorded.

Presentation of Certificate.

A Grand Lodge Certificate must immediately upon receipt be signed in the margin by the Brother to whom it is issued.

Certificate
must be signed.

In case a Certificate be lost or destroyed, of which satisfactory proof must be adduced, the Grand Secretary may issue a duplicate to the Brother to whom the original was issued upon payment of the fee prescribed in Rule 270.

Lost
Certificate.

175. A Lodge shall grant a Certificate free of charge to a Brother whenever required by him in each of the following cases :—

Grants of Certificates
by Private Lodges.

- (a) When he is a member of the Lodge, a Certificate to that effect and stating (if such be the case) that he is not indebted to the Lodge; and

(b) When he has been but is no longer a member of the Lodge, a Certificate stating whether he ceased to be a member by resignation or by exclusion, giving the date and circumstances thereof, and stating whether he was at the time indebted to the Lodge and, if so, whether and at what time such indebtedness was discharged by him.

The Certificate shall be dated, and, unless handed to the Brother himself, shall be transmitted by registered post, the envelope being plainly marked on the outside, "Private and Confidential."

Except as provided by this Rule no Lodge shall grant a Certificate of any kind to a Brother.

Membership of quasi-Masonic and other organisations.

176. A person who has in any way been connected with any organisation which is quasi-Masonic, imitative of Masonry, or regarded by the Grand Lodge as irregular or as incompatible with the Craft, may not be initiated into the Craft except by leave of the Grand Master or the Provincial or District Grand Master, as the case may be.

A Brother who subsequent to his initiation has in any way been or is connected with any such organisation as above-mentioned shall be bound to disclaim and finally to sever such connection, or on failure so to do when called upon to do so by any proper Masonic authority shall be liable to suspension or expulsion and shall not thereafter be entitled to a resumption of his Masonic privileges or to relief from the Board of Benevolence until he shall have petitioned the Grand Master, made due submission, and obtained grace.

177. No Brother shall publish or cause to be published anything which according to the established principles of Masonry ought not to be published. Printing or publishing proceedings.

No Brother, without the consent of the Grand Master or the Provincial or District Grand Master as the case may be, shall publish or cause to be published the proceedings of any Lodge.

No Brother, without the like consent, shall publish or circulate or cause to be published or circulated any document relating to any case before a regularly constituted Masonic tribunal, except that copies of documents may be furnished for the use of such tribunal if sent through the Grand Secretary or the Provincial or District Grand Secretary or the Chairman or Secretary of the Board or Committee forming the tribunal, as the case may require.

Public appearance in Masonic Clothing.

178. No Brother shall appear clothed in any of the jewels, collars or badges of the Craft, in any procession, meeting or assemblage at which persons other than Masons are present, or in any place of public resort, unless the Grand Master or the Provincial or District Grand Master, as the case may be, shall have previously given a dispensation for Brethren to be there present in Masonic clothing.

Breaches of Regulations.

179. A Lodge or Brother offending against any law or regulation of the Craft, to the breach of which no specific penalty is attached, shall, at the discretion of the Grand Lodge, or of any of its delegated authorities, or of a Provincial or District Grand Master, be subject to admonition, fine or suspension.

If a Lodge be suspended, the members thereof are not relieved of their responsibility to pay the dues to the Grand Lodge, or to Provincial or District Grand Lodge, and each member is liable for his share of proper expenses incurred by the Lodge during the period of suspension.

If a Brother be suspended, the penalty may be made to apply to his membership of a particular Lodge or Lodges, or to all, or some only, of his Masonic privileges, and such Brother remains liable for his subscription to any Lodge from which he has been suspended.

If fine be the punishment awarded, it shall, ^{Fines.} for the first offence, be not less than one pound nor more than five pounds; for the second offence of a similar nature within three years, it shall not be less than two nor more than ten pounds; and if the Lodge or Brother shall refuse to pay the fine, or be guilty of a third offence within three years of the second offence, the Lodge shall be liable to be erased or the Brother to be expelled.

All fines shall be applied to the Fund of Benevolence of the Grand Lodge or Provincial or District Grand Lodge as the case may be.

180. If any Brother behave in Lodge in ^{Misbehaviour in Lodge.} such a manner as to disturb the harmony of the Lodge, he shall be formally admonished by the Master; and if he persist in his irregular conduct, he shall be punished by censure, fine, or exclusion for the remainder of the meeting, according to the opinion of the majority of the members present, or the case may be reported to higher Masonic authority.

Permanent
exclusion.

181. Any Lodge may by resolution exclude any member for sufficient cause, provided a notice in writing shall have been served upon him not less than fourteen days previously to the meeting at which the complaint is to be considered, together with the particulars of the complaint made against him, stating the time and place appointed for its consideration when he may attend and be heard. Not less than seven days' notice in writing shall also be served upon each member of the Lodge of the intention to propose such a resolution. The name of the Brother concerned shall not appear in the notice served upon the members of the Lodge. The notices shall be considered duly served if sent by post to the last-known address of each member, but, in the case of the member against whom the complaint is made, the notice shall be sent by registered post, the envelope being plainly marked on the outside "Private and Confidential." The voting shall be by ballot, and the power of exclusion cannot be exercised unless two-thirds of the members present vote in favour of it. The name of every Brother excluded from a Lodge, with the cause of the exclusion, shall forthwith be sent to the Grand Secretary and, if the Lodge be within a Province or District, also to the Provincial or District Grand Secretary.

N.B.—The term expelled is only used when a Brother is removed from the Craft by the Grand Lodge. Upon a removal of a Brother from a private Lodge, the term excluded only is applicable.

182. (a) If the Grand Master be satisfied that any Brother has been excluded without due cause or that the provisions of Rule 181 have not been complied with, he may, either of his own motion or on the complaint of the Brother who has been excluded, order him to be reinstated, and may suspend any Lodge which fails to comply with that order.
- (b) A Provincial or District Grand Master has the same power within his Province or District.
- (c) A complaint under this Rule must be made within three months after the exclusion of the Brother who makes it.
- (d) No appeal shall lie from any decision of the Grand Master under this Rule, but an appeal may be made under Rule 185 against a decision of a Provincial or District Grand Master

if the Grand Registrar shall be of opinion that such decision is one that requires further consideration.

tions.

183. A member of a Lodge may at any time resign his membership (either immediately or as from some later date specified by him at the time), by notifying such resignation either by a written notice to the Secretary or orally to the Lodge at a regular meeting. If the resignation be so notified to the Secretary, he shall (unless it had in the meantime been withdrawn by a further written notice to him), communicate it to Lodge at the next regular meeting thereof. The resignation, if notified to the Secretary and reported to the Lodge, takes effect from the time such notification in writing was received by the Secretary, or, if communicated orally to the Lodge, takes effect forthwith, or (in either case) as from the later date (if any) as has been so specified as above-mentioned. No acceptance of the resignation is necessary, and, subject to the following provisions, it is, after notification or communication to the Lodge, irrevocable. Provided first that if, when the resignation is notified or communicated to the Lodge as aforesaid, the member be desired by a majority of the members present and voting to withdraw his resignation, it shall, if within twenty-one days thereafter he does so withdraw it, be considered cancelled; and, secondly, the resignation of a Brother notified or communicated to a Lodge after a notice has been served upon him, in accordance with Rule 181, that a resolution is to be proposed to exclude him from the Lodge, cannot be withdrawn, and such resignation does not prevent the Lodge considering and voting upon such resolution if it so desires, but, unless the Lodge has resolved that the Brother shall be excluded, it may in such a case proceed in the manner indicated in the first proviso of this Rule.

184. Any Masonic question, dispute or difference, other than one coming under Rule 181 or Rule 182, which cannot be settled between the parties to it shall be reduced into writing and delivered as follows:—

Provincial or District Grand Master, with a view to the same being dealt with in accordance with Rules 74 and 75.

Provided that on the request of a Provincial or District Grand Master and with the approval of the Board of General Purposes the same may be referred by the Grand Secretary to an Appeal Committee constituted under Rule 185A and dealt with in accordance with Rules 185B, 185C, 185D and 185E.

Appeals.

185. Any Lodge or Brother feeling aggrieved by a decision given under the foregoing Rule may appeal against such decision to the Grand Lodge. The appeal must be made in writing, specifying the particular grievance complained of, and be transmitted, with all relevant documents, to the Grand Secretary, accompanied by a certificate that duplicates of the appeal and of such relevant documents have been sent by the appellant to the authority against whose decision the appeal is made, and also to the opposite party, if any; and upon the receipt of the appeal and certificates by the Grand Secretary, he shall forthwith give notice thereof to the authority whose decision is thereby called in question, and also to the opposite party, if any; and on the hearing of the appeal the proof of the service of the notice and copies of the appeal shall, unless admitted, be upon the appellant. Such notices shall be considered duly served if proved to have been sent by registered post.

No appeal can be entertained unless couched in proper and respectful language, nor unless made within three months after the decision appealed from or such, if any, longer period as the Grand Master may allow.

185a. Every appeal shall be referred by the Grand Secretary to an Appeal Committee to be appointed in the case of an appeal against a decision of the Board of General Purposes by the Grand Registrar from amongst members of the Grand Lodge who are not members of the Board of General Purposes, and in all other appeals by the Board of General Purposes from amongst members of the Grand Lodge.

185b. An Appeal Committee shall fully investigate the case referred to it and shall have power to require the attendance before it of any Brother and the production by any Lodge or Brother of any books or documents including power to direct that any books or documents shall be sent to the Committee.

185c. Any Brother being an appellant or an opposite party in the appeal shall be entitled to state his case in writing and to appear before the Appeal Committee either in person or by any authorised representative who is a member of the Grand Lodge.

Any Lodge being an appellant or an opposite party in the appeal shall be entitled to state its case in writing and to appear by any authorised representative who is either a member of the Lodge or a member of the Grand Lodge.

185d. An Appeal Committee shall report :—

(a) in the case of an appeal from the Board of General Purposes direct to the Grand Lodge ; and

(b) in every other case to the Board of General Purposes, which shall bring the report before the Grand Lodge.

185e. No recommendation contained in a report shall have effect until accepted by a resolution of the Grand Lodge.

Meeting to discuss formation of Sovereign Grand Lodge.

tion for that purpose, it shall be lawful for any Lodge to hold a special meeting, or meetings, to discuss and resolve on the question of the formation of a Sovereign Grand Lodge for or including the District or part thereof, or any neighbouring District or part thereof, or any Lodge or Lodges not in a District. Such dispensation may be granted subject to any conditions that the District Grand Master may deem proper, and also to provisions enabling two or more Lodges to unite in the special meeting ; and if the District Grand Master should refuse to grant a dispensation, an appeal from such refusal may be made to the Grand Master. In a territory in which more than one District Grand Lodge exists the same procedure shall be adopted in each District, and before any Grand Lodge shall be recognised as having jurisdiction over the whole of such territory the consent of each District Grand Lodge shall be certified by the District Grand Master thereof.

187. Whenever the Grand Lodge shall, with the assent of the Grand Master, recognise a Grand Lodge as a regular and independent Sovereign Body, having jurisdiction in any territory where a District Grand Lodge or Lodges not in a District exist, and the Grand Regulations to be observed by Lodges in the jurisdiction of a new Sovereign Grand Lodge.

Master shall signify that it is not his intention to grant for the future any warrant for a new Lodge in that jurisdiction, the following rules shall apply :—

1. Within six months after recognition the Master of every Lodge in such jurisdiction shall convene a special meeting of the Lodge on not less than twenty-one days' notice to every member ; failing the Master, the District Grand Master, or, failing him, his Deputy shall convene such meeting, and preside thereat.
2. The Brethren present at such meeting, whose names appear as subscribing members on the last return filed with the Grand Secretary, shall decide whether they desire that the Lodge shall continue under the Grand Lodge of England or join the new Grand Lodge. If the decision be to join the new Grand Lodge, the Brethren shall, at the same meeting, decide in whom the property and effects of the Lodge shall be vested, and the warrant shall be forthwith returned to the Grand Secretary to be delivered up to the Grand Master. A majority of two-thirds of the members present shall be required to carry such resolutions.

3. No questions shall be discussed or put at such meeting other than those above prescribed.
4. Immediately after such meeting a full copy of the minutes and a list from the signature book of all members attending, together with the numbers voting for or against, shall be sent to the Grand Secretary, verified under the hand of the presiding Master, and countersigned by the Secretary of the Lodge.
5. No second meeting shall be called to discuss the above-mentioned questions without the special leave of the Grand Master.

188. Whenever the number of subscribing members of any Lodge, as shown on the last return to Grand Lodge, shall be fewer than five, the Lodge shall cease to meet, and the warrant, books, and papers shall be delivered up to the Grand Master, who may, nevertheless, if he thinks proper, grant a dispensation to enable the members to meet, subject to such conditions as he may deem expedient, until he has finally decided whether the Lodge shall be continued or erased.

Lodge failing to meet.

189. Should a Lodge fail to meet for one year, it shall be liable to be erased.

Surrender of Warrant.

190. Upon the dissolution of a Lodge, the warrant, together with all the books and papers relating to the affairs of the Lodge, must be delivered up to the Grand Master. Its other property shall be disposed of as the Lodge may, prior to its dissolution, have resolved, or in default of or subject to any such resolution, as the Grand Master may direct. A warrant cannot in any circumstances be transferred.

BOARD OF BENEVOLENCE.

191. The fund appropriated to the object of benevolence shall be devoted solely to charity. Fund of Benevolence.

192. The Grand Lodge may at any time and from time to time make grants out of the Fund of Benevolence for charitable purposes. Applications or recommendations for such grants must be previously submitted to the Board of Benevolence. Subject thereto the Fund shall be administered by the Board for the purpose of relieving distress. Meetings and constitution of the Board of Benevolence

The Board shall consist of a President to be appointed by the Grand Master in accordance with Rule 18; two Vice-Presidents to be appointed annually by the Grand Master at the Grand Lodge in December and eight Installed Masters, four of whom shall represent the London Lodges and four the Provincial Lodges, to be elected in the manner and to serve for the period prescribed in Rules 193 and 194 respectively. Appointment of Vice-Presidents.

The distribution and application of the Fund by the Board shall take place at the meetings to be held on the third Wednesday of every month.

The Board shall apply towards the cost of administration of the Fund ten per cent. of the sums payable to the Fund of Benevolence under Rule 271.

Election of Members representing
London
Lodges.

193. The four Installed Masters to represent London Lodges shall be members of the Grand Lodge qualified by membership of a London Lodge. Each of them shall serve for a period of four years and on the 30th November in each year one in rotation shall retire but, subject to the provisions of Rule 196, be eligible for re-election. Nominations of them may be made by Brethren who are members of the Grand Lodge qualified in respect of membership of a London Lodge.

A nomination shall be in writing and delivered to the Grand Secretary on or before the first Tuesday in November in each year, and shall contain the name of the Installed Master, his Masonic Rank, and the name and number of the Lodge in London under the Grand Lodge of which he is a subscribing member, provided that not more than one member of any Lodge shall be eligible as such for nomination, but a duly qualified Brother being a subscribing member of another Lodge may be nominated in respect of his membership of such other Lodge.

In the case of more than the requisite number of Brethren being so nominated, the election shall be by ballot at the December Quarterly Communication, for which purpose the names of the candidates so proposed shall be printed on a balloting card in alphabetical order with the Masonic Rank of each candidate and the number of his Lodge, a copy of which card shall be delivered to every member of a London Lodge attending the December Quarterly Communication. The balloting cards shall be deposited in ballot boxes provided for that purpose and must not be signed. The result of the poll shall be ascertained and notified in the manner prescribed in Rule 224. In the event of an equality of votes the Grand Master or other Presiding Officer shall give a casting or deciding vote.

194. The four Installed Masters to represent Provincial Lodges shall be members of the Grand Lodge qualified by membership of a Provincial Lodge. Each of them shall serve for a period of four years and on the 30th November in each year one in rotation shall retire but, subject to the provisions of Rule 196, be eligible for re-election.

Election of Members
representing Provincial Lodges.

Each Province in Provincial Grand Lodge assembled shall be entitled on or before the 30th June in every year to nominate one duly qualified Brother for election. Such nomination, containing the name of the Brother together with the number of his Provincial Lodge and his Masonic Rank, shall, within fourteen days, be forwarded to the Grand Secretary, who shall prepare a list of candidates and send a copy thereof on or before the 30th September of the same year to each Provincial Grand Master in the form of a voting paper containing the names of the several candidates, the numbers of their Lodges, their Masonic Ranks and the Province by which each nomination has been made.

A Provincial Grand Master cannot give more than one vote for any one candidate.

The voting papers shall be returned on or before the following 31st October to the Grand Secretary by whom the votes shall be counted, and the name of the candidate who has received the highest number of votes shall be announced to the Grand Lodge at the next December Quarterly Communication. In the event of an equality of votes the Grand Master or other presiding Officer shall give a casting or deciding vote.

If two or more candidates are proposed in a Provincial Grand Lodge, the decision as to which of them shall be nominated shall be made by that Provincial Grand Lodge.

195. If the President or either of the Vice-Presidents shall die, resign or be removed the Grand Master shall appoint a member of the Grand Lodge to fill the vacancy. If a member elected to represent the London Lodges shall die, resign, be removed, cease to be a member of the Grand Lodge or be appointed President or Vice-President, the vacancy shall be filled at the earliest Quarterly Communication for which it can conveniently be arranged by the election of a duly qualified Brother to serve for the remainder of the term, and for the purposes of such election nominations in writing shall be submitted to the Grand Secretary not later than twenty-eight days after the occurrence of the vacancy.

If a member elected to represent the Provincial Lodges shall die, resign, be removed, cease to be a member of the Grand Lodge or be appointed President or Vice-President, the Provincial Grand Master of the Province of the Brother concerned shall appoint a duly qualified Provincial Brother to serve in his stead for the remainder of the term. Such appointment shall be made by the Provincial Grand Master and notified to

fication
of elected Members.

196. A member of the Board representing London or Provincial Lodges shall be eligible for re-election at the end of the term for which he was elected unless he shall have been deemed to have resigned in accordance with the following provision.

If a member of the Board representing London or Provincial Lodges shall not have attended at least half the number of meetings of the Board held during any one year (unless in the opinion of the Board such absence was due to illness or other good cause), he shall be deemed to have resigned the Board for the period for which he was elected.

Absence of President or Vice-Presidents.

197. In the absence of the President, the Senior Vice-President, and in the absence of both, the Junior Vice-President shall preside; should all three be absent, the Brother present who is highest in Masonic rank shall preside. If either of the Vice-Presidents shall be absent, or be in the chair, his place shall be filled in like manner.

Responsibility of presiding
Brother.

198. The Brother presiding shall be bound strictly to enforce all the regulations of the Craft respecting the distribution of the fund, and shall be satisfied, before any petition is read, that all the required formalities have been complied with.

199. The members shall not be subject to canvass or solicitation, but shall have their minds free from prejudice, to decide on the merits of each case with the impartiality and purity of Masonic feeling. If it shall appear that this rule has been wilfully transgressed, the consideration of the case shall be deferred for the space of three months.

Canvassing
not per-

200. If any member of the Board shall canvass or otherwise solicit on behalf of a petitioner, the Grand Lodge may, on the fact being proved, disqualify him from attending as a member of the Board of Benevolence for twelve months.

Penalty for canvassing.

201. No member shall at any time vote upon the petition of any person for whom he may have improperly allowed himself to be canvassed, or to whom he is related, nor upon the petition of a Brother, or widow or child of a Brother who is, or was, a member of a Lodge to which he himself belongs. Such member may be heard on the merits of the petition, but must then withdraw.

Disqualification from voting.

Qualifications for relief.

202. Except as provided in this Rule or in Rule 170, no Brother registered under the Grand Lodge shall receive the benefit of the Fund of Benevolence unless he has paid the full initiation or joining fee, has been a subscribing member of a Lodge or Lodges under the Grand Lodge for at least five years, and his dues in respect of that period have been paid to the Fund. Any Brother who has ceased subscribing for the immediate past twenty years shall not be eligible to petition the Board unless he had previously subscribed to a Lodge or Lodges for fifteen years or upwards. Provided that if by any resolution of the Grand Lodge the payment of the subscriptions and quarterly dues on account of any Brother has been excused during a state of war, the period of abstention from such payment may be deemed as part of the period of five years or fifteen years, as the case may be, for the purpose of this Rule. In reckoning the period of five or fifteen years herein mentioned, the payment of subscriptions concurrently to more than one Lodge shall be considered only as a single subscription.

The Board may in its discretion relieve any case notwithstanding that the qualifying period has not been completed or that the Brother's subscriptions during the qualifying period have not been paid in full provided that it is proved to the satisfaction of the Board that the Brother's failure to complete the qualifying period or fully to pay all subscriptions as the case may be is due to physical incapacity preventing him from so doing.

203. If on enquiry into any petition it shall appear that a Lodge has neglected to register the Brother in respect of whose membership the petition is presented, or to transmit the dues in respect of him to the Grand Lodge, the Board of Benevolence shall forthwith report the case to the Board of General Purposes that the Lodge may be proceeded against, and the petition shall not be prejudiced by such default of the Lodge.

Neglect by Lodges to make payments to be reported.

204. The Board of Benevolence may grant relief to the indigent widow or for the indigent child or children under the age of 21 years of a deceased Brother (a) who would at the time of his death himself have been qualified to receive relief under Rule 202, or (b) who, having been initiated in a Lodge under the Grand Lodge, and having continued a subscribing member to such a Lodge from his initiation to the time of his death, shall have died within five years of such initiation.

Relief of widows and children

No application in respect of any child shall be made later than five years after the death of the father.

Certificates
required.

205. Before the petition of a widow or child shall be considered, the certificates of the deceased Brother's marriage and death, or burial, and, in the case of children, the certificates also of their births, shall be deposited with the Grand Secretary. In the case of the petition of a Brother on whom his wife is stated to be dependent, the certificates of his marriage and of the births of his dependent children, if any, shall, if required, be deposited. In the case of the loss of any of the above-mentioned certificates, or the impossibility of procuring them, the Board may grant relief if such loss or impossibility of procuring them be proved, and the facts otherwise established to the satisfaction of the Board.
