ACTIVITIES OF KU KLUX KLAN ORGANIZATIONS IN THE UNITED STATES

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1965

UNITED STATES HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
SUBCOMMITTEE OF THE
COMMITTEE ON UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES,
Washington, D.C.

PUBLIC HEARINGS

A subcommittee of the Committee on Un-American Activities met, pursuant to call, at 10 a.m. in the Caucus Room, Cannon House Office Building, Washington, D.C., Hon. Edwin E. Willis (chairman) presiding.

(Subcommittee members: Representatives Edwin E. Willis, of Louisiana, chairman; Joe R. Pool, of Texas; Charles L. Weltner, of Georgia; John M. Ashbrook, of Ohio; and John H. Buchanan, Jr., of Alabama.)

Subcommittee members present: Representatives Willis, Pool, Weltner, Ashbrook, and Buchanan.

Committee member also present: Representative George F. Senner, Jr., of Arizona.

Staff members present: Francis J. McNamara, director; William Hitz, general counsel; Alfred M. Nittle, counsel; Donald T. Appell, chief investigator; and Philip R. Manuel, investigator.

The CHAIRMAN. The subcommittee will come to order.

Under the rules of the House, the Chair is required to make an opening statement, and I now proceed to make it.

The regular members of the subcommittee are myself, as chairman, Mr. Pool of Texas, Mr. Weltner of Georgia, the ranking minority or Republican member, Mr. Ashbrook of Ohio, and Mr. Buchanan of Alabama.

We are very pleased, however, to have with us a member of the full committee, Mr. Senner. I would hope as we go along that other members of the full committee might be able to attend for as long as they desire.

Now for the opening statement.

This subcommittee of the House Committee on Un-American Activities is convened to hold hearings pursuant to a resolution unanimously adopted by the full committee on March 30, 1965. That resolution reads as follows:

WHEREAS, at the commencement of the 89th Congress the Chairman instructed the staff to commence a preliminary inquiry into the activities of the

Ku Klux Klan organizations in the United States to assist the Committee in determining whether it should authorize an investigation of the Klan organizations; and

WHEREAS, the Committee on February 2, 1965, by resolution, unanimously directed the Chairman to continue the preliminary inquiry; and

WHEREAS, the Chairman has today made a report to the Committee on the results of this preliminary inquiry, which report clearly indicates that the nature and scope of the Klan organizations' activities are such that the Committee should authorize an investigation; and

WHEREAS, the President's recent public appeal also demonstrates that such an investigation is justified and necessary; and

WHEREAS, the President has offered the full cooperation of the Executive Branch of the Government in such an investigation; now therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Committee undertake an investigation of the various Klan organizations and their activities with the view of holding hearings for the purpose of aiding Congress in any necessary remedial legislation; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that inasmuch as the appropriation for the Committee's work for this session is not sufficient to enable it to undertake this investigation in addition to other investigations already approved and under way, the Chairman is directed to request a supplemental appropriation of $50,000 to conduct an investigation of Ku Klux Klan organizations; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Chairman is directed to continue the preliminary inquiry into the activities of the Black Muslims, the Minutemen and the American Nazi Party previously authorized by the Committee, for the purpose of determining whether an investigation of these groups is called for.

As this resolution indicates, the committee's decision to undertake an investigation of Ku Klux Klan organizations in this country was made only after careful consideration and on the basis of certain information concerning Klan activities then in its possession. Late last year, the committee discussed the growing activities of the Ku Klux Klans and a suggestion was made by Mr. Pool that an investigation be considered.

Before any formal investigation is authorized by the committee, it is usual to make a preliminary inquiry. The staff was, therefore, directed to do so in this instance. Other Members of Congress subsequently expressed themselves on the subject, particularly Mr. Weltner, who called the matter to the attention of our colleagues on the floor of the House.

At its organizational meeting on February 2 of this year, the committee unanimously authorized the continuance of this preliminary inquiry. Thereafter, the staff reported to the committee from time to time and, on March 30, the committee voted unanimously that a formal investigation be undertaken for the purpose of holding hearings which would assist the Congress in drafting such remedial legislation as it deemed appropriate and necessary to deal with the problems created by Klan activities.

On April 14 of this year, the House of Representatives, by a vote of 312 to 43, adopted House Resolution 310, authorizing the expenditure of $50,000 for the committee's investigation of Ku Klux Klan organizations.

What must Congress know to determine whether legislation is called for in this area and, if so, what type legislation will be effective?

It must know the objectives and purposes of the Ku Klux Klans, their structure and organizations, their affiliated organizations, and groups created or controlled by them or organized to support, defend, and assist them. The Congress must know their constitutions and bylaws, the type of activities in which they engage, how they are controlled, who their key officers are, how Klan groups are financed, and what their funds are used for. It must know whether the Klans subscribe to—and use—illegal means to achieve either declared or concealed objectives. The Congress must know whether the operations and actions directed and carried out by Klan leaders and certain members are in accord with the wishes of the membership as a whole, or whether certain activities are engaged in without the knowledge and approval of the membership. It must know whether Klan recruits are informed of the true nature and purposes of the Klans—or whether they are hoodwinked into joining them. It must also know, of course, something of the size, strength, and scope of the Klan movement. These are the matters which are the subject of this inquiry.

At the time the committee decision to conduct this inquiry was announced, certain Klan leaders stated publicly that they welcomed the investigation. Those statements were encouraging, if true. It is the committee's hope that they really meant them.

The investigative work done by the committee preparatory to these hearings, in my belief, has been thorough. It is my intention that these hearings will be fair in every respect. For this reason, Klan leaders and members will have nothing to fear or lose by cooperating fully with the committee by telling all, and everything, they know about Klan operations. They have nothing to fear or lose, that is, if they have nothing to hide—nothing to hide from the Congress, nothing to hide from the American people, and nothing to hide from the rank-and-file Klan membership.

I would point out to all witnesses summoned to testify in this inquiry that it is being conducted by a duly and lawfully constituted committee of the House of Representatives of the United States Congress, the lawmaking branch of our Government, and that the courts have held, over and over again, that every American citizen has a duty to answer all pertinent questions asked him in such an inquiry.

The Supreme Court in a 1957 decision growing out of another inquiry by this committee reiterated a fundamental principle of our Government when it stated:

The power of Congress to conduct investigations is inherent in the legislative process.

It then went on to say:

It is unquestionably the duty of all citizens to cooperate with the Congress in its efforts to obtain the facts needed for intelligent legislative action. It is their unremitting obligation to respond to subpoenas, to respect the dignity of the Congress and its committees and to testify fully with respect to matters within the province of proper investigation. (U.S. v. Watkins, 354 U.S. 178.) [Emphasis added.]

That this was not a new or novel holding by the Court is indicated by many much earlier rulings of similar nature and, for example, by a relatively recent report of a special committee of the American Bar Association which in 1953—without evoking any protest—stated that:

Every citizen, when called as a witness, has the duty to disclose any facts within his knowledge sought by a court or by a duly constituted legislative committee.

Generally, the committee recognizes only one valid reason for a witness' refusal to answer pertinent questions—the invocation of the fifth amendment, a statement by the witness that it is his belief that an honest answer to the question might lead to his being prosecuted for a criminal act.

The various Klan organizations operating in this country today proclaim that they are patriotic, 100 percent Americans, Christian, moral, and law abiding. I hope, therefore, that we will not, in these hearings, experience what we have so often seen in practically all of our investigations in other areas of the committee's jurisdiction—witness after witness finding it necessary, or feeling the need, to invoke the fifth amendment, again and again, when asked, not about his beliefs, but about his actions.

All witnesses, as I have said—and I stress this—will have the right to make proper invocation of the fifth amendment in this inquiry. The American people, however, are not likely to look with favor on such recourse by persons who proclaim from the rooftops that they are saviors of America and patriots second to none. The public cannot be expected to approve such action in these hearings any more than it has in other inquiries in which witnesses have taken refuge in constitutional provisions even while conspiring to destroy the Constitution.

And talking about conspiracy, I would add this point: There are various kinds of conspiracy, in addition to that which is aimed at the destruction of our Government, and all kinds are outlawed. As Justice Robert H. Jackson stated in his concurring opinion in the case of Dennis versus United States: "The Constitution does not make conspiracy a civil right."

In his concurring opinion in another case, that of American Communications Association versus Douds. Justice Jackson pointed out that:

The conspiracy principle has traditionally been employed to protect society against all "ganging up" or concerted action in violation of its laws. No term passes that this Court does not sustain convictions based on that doctrine for violations of the antitrust laws or other statutes. * * * (A.C.A. v. Douds, 339 U.S. 382.)

Conspiracy to take a man's life, to injure him, or to deny certain groups of people their rights is no more protected by the Constitution than is conspiracy to destroy our Government. Conspiracy, in and of itself, is so inimical to ordered society that there is a broad Federal statute which makes it a crime to conspire to commit any offense against the United States. (Title 18, U.S.C., sec. 371.)

And there is a third, specific kind of conspiracy I must mention here—the secret ganging up of any group to punish or harm a person in any way because that person has, in line with his duties as a citizen, testified before a congressional committee, giving the committee the kind of information the Congress must have to enact laws for the general welfare.

That kind of conspiracy, like all other forms, is outlawed. In fact, influencing or injuring witnesses is so destructive of the American way of life, eating away at its legislative foundation, that it is a criminal act even when there is no conspiracy involved in it. The very act of harming, or of attempting to harm, influence, or intimidate, a subpoenaed witness to keep him from talking or of injuring or threatening a witness because he has cooperated with the Congress by giving testimony is punishable by 5 years in prison and/or a fine of $5,000.

And I want to state for the record, here and now, that no one had better attempt to violate this law in regard to any witness under subpoena to testify in this inquiry. If anyone does, then just as certainly as I am sitting here today, I will do all in my power to see that the guilty party, or parties, are punished according to the law, and I know that all other members of the committee feel the same way about it because we have discussed it many times.

Being informed, as they are, of the facts developed to date in this investigation, the subcommittee members have quite naturally formed certain tentative opinions of some Klan groups and their leaders. However, we are not going to prejudge the issue. These facts have raised questions in our minds, but in any human undertaking there can be error, and it is also possible that there might be some explanation for certain of the facts we have uncovered. That is one reason why this public hearing is being held—to test the accuracy of our investigative effort and to give the persons concerned an opportunity to answer the questions that have been raised in our minds—to deny, to qualify, to confirm, to explain.

This is as it should be. Congress cannot legislate on the basis of investigation alone. It should, and must, test the results of its investigations, except when national security precludes it, in public hearings. This is what we have done in the past; it is what we will do in the future. This is in conformity with the rules of the House and with court decisions. We are engaged in the business of the people of the United States, and they have a right to be able to see and judge for themselves how that business is being conducted.

Let me remind all that this is an inquiry, not a prosecution. We are an investigating committee. We are charged with the duty of developing facts about the Klans and making them a part of a public record, not to convict anyone of anything, but for the purpose of assisting the Congress in the performance of its legislative function.

In conclusion, let me urge all witnesses summoned to testify in these hearings to testify fully and honestly, without evasion or subterfuge and without fear. This is your duty. If you truly have the national interest at heart, this is what you will do. By way of both encouragement and warning, I want to say that this is a country of law, that it is strong and secure; and that no individuals, groups, or conspiracies within its borders can, or will, prevail against its laws.

I now offer for inclusion in the record the July 19, 1965, order of appointment of the subcommittee to conduct these hearings.

That order reads as follows, that order of mine as chairman, addressed to Mr. McNamara, the director of the committee:

Pursuant to the provisions of the law and the Rules of this Committee, I hereby appoint a subcommittee of the Committee on Un-American Activities, consisting of Honorable Joe R. Pool, Honorable Charles L. Weltner, Honorable John M. Ashbrook, and Honorable John H. Buchanan, Jr., as associate members, and myself, as Chairman, to conduct hearings in Washington, D.C., commencing on or about Tuesday, July 20, 1965, and/or at such other times thereafter and places as said subcommittee shall determine, as contemplated by the resolution adopted by the Committee on the 30th day of March, 1965, authorizing hearings concerning the activities of the various Ku Klux Klan organizations in the United States.

Please make this action a matter of Committee record.

If any member indicates his inability to serve, please notify me.

Given under my hand this 19th day of July, 1965.

EDWIN E. WILLIS

Chairman, Committee on Un-American Activities.

(At this point Representative Ichord entered the hearing room.)

The CHAIRMAN. I am pleased to announce that another member of the full committee, Mr. Ichord, of Missouri, has arrived.

If there are any members of the House present, and I recognize at least one, Mrs. Kelly of New York, it would be a pleasure to have them take a seat with us. Come on, Edna.

I don't expect any, but there cannot be demonstrations in the audience, either in approval or disapproval of the conduct of these hearings. We must maintain decorum, and that is consistent with the rules of the House.

I have already announced that under the rules of the House, even the radio and TV people are under certain limitations. They respect that. They would like to be inside, but that is the rule of the House that I am carrying out.

I will read another rule of the House after a while concerning the functions of attorneys appearing for witnesses before the committee. That is another rule of the House that will be observed and enforced.

I would like to say this preliminary to calling our first witness: In the course of these hearings, it will be necessary, because of the nature of the groups we are investigating, to make frequent use of terms which, although familiar to the witnesses, will be completely foreign to Members of Congress, the public, and the press, on which the public must rely for information about these hearings. The subcommittee has, therefore, decided that before the first Klan witness is called, in order to assist in better understanding of the matters that will be developed and referred to in this inquiry, certain background information concerning the Klans, their structure, titles, and terminology should be placed in the record. For that purpose, I ask that Mr. Donald T. Appell be sworn.

Do you solemnly swear that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mr. APPELL. I do, sir.

TESTIMONY OF DONALD T. APPELL

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Appell, you are the chief investigator of this committee; are you not?

Mr. APPELL. I am, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. How long have you been employed in this investigative work for the committee?

Mr. APPELL. I have been with the committee since January of 1947.

The CHAIRMAN. And your duties stretch as far back as the Alger Hiss-Whittaker Chambers episode?

Mr. APPELL. That is correct.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Appell, you were assigned, were you not, to supervise the investigative phase of the committee's inquiry into the Klans?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir; from the preliminary stage starting the end of last year, and from an active investigative phase from March of this year, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Would you give us a brief history of the Klan movement in the United States, just enough, Mr. Appell, to provide the essential background for the hearings, the type of information that, although there are many books and treatises written on the subject, the type of background that there appears to be no dispute about?

Mr. APPELL. Yes.

The CHAIRMAN. Will you proceed to do that?

Mr. APPELL. As you said, Mr. Chairman, many books have been written on the history of the Klan movement; but, briefly, we would like to point out that the first Ku Klux Klan was formed in Pulaski, Tennessee, in December of 1865. It grew rapidly and its "dens," as the local clubs were then called, spread throughout and beyond the borders of Tennessee. In 1867 a conference attended by representatives of these dens collected together in a convention that was held in Nashville, Tennessee. A constitution was formally adopted and Confederate General Nathan Bedford Forrest was chosen the Grand Wizard, or leader, of the Ku Klux Klan.

Whatever may have been the original purpose in the formation of the first Ku Klux Klan, the organization was soon engaging in acts of violence. General Forrest officially disbanded his Ku Klux Klan in January 1869. Klan groups, however, continued to operate, and their lawlessness grew to such proportions that on March 23, 1871, President Grant sent the following message to the Congress:

A condition of affairs now exists in some of the States of the Union rendering life and property insecure, and the carrying of the mails and the collection of the revenue dangerous. The proof that such a condition of affairs exists in some localities is now before the Senate. That the power to correct these evils is beyond the control of State authorities, I do not doubt; that the power of the Executive of the United States, acting within the limits of existing laws, is sufficient for present emergencies is not clear. * * *

He also recommended that legislation be enacted, and a joint congressional committee was formed. From April to September of 1871, hearings were held relating to the lawless conduct of "The Ku-Klux [Klan] Conspiracy" in North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, and Mississippi. On April 20, 1871, the President approved, and I shall quote, "An act to enforce the provisions of the fourteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States, and for other purposes."

It has been estimated that the post-Civil War Klan attained a peak membership of about a half-million members.

The Klan was revived in 1915 by William Joseph Simmons, of Atlanta, Georgia, and in the mid-1920's achieved its all-time membership peak which has been variously estimated as between 3 million and 5 million members.

Exposés of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., as the first 20th century Klan was termed, were published by many newspapers in the early 1920's, and the House Rules Committee held brief hearings on it in 1921. In 1924, following widely publicized murder cases in which Klansmen were involved, the membership again began to decline.

On August 18, 1940, not long before this country's entry into World War II, Klansmen took part in a rally at the German-American Bund's Camp Nordland, in the State of New Jersey. This led to an investigation by the Special Committee on Un-American Activities, which held hearings on the Klan in 1940 and 1942.

The Klan became dormant after America's entry into World War II and was formally dissolved in 1944, when the Internal Revenue Bureau sued the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan for $685,000 in back taxes.

Following World War II there was limited revival of the Klan, led by the formation of Dr. Samuel Green's Association of Georgia Klans in 1946. Other localized Klans sprang up in the late 1940's and early 1950's. Klan strength has definitely been on the upswing in the last few years, with some leaders talking about operations on a nationwide scale.

The CHAIRMAN. Now, Mr. Appell, during the course of the last few months you have informed the committee on a number of occasions of the fear of the Klan which you and other investigators found in certain areas while interviewing various persons in relation to this inquiry.

Would you now summarize for the record what the investigative staff observed in relation to this matter?

Mr. APPELL. This will be a very brief summary, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. The committee wants it that way. We are just laying the foundation for a proper understanding of the conduct of this inquiry.

Mr. APPELL. In certain areas of the South, investigators found a very real fear of the Klan existing among Klansmen themselves, ex-Klansmen, victims of the Klan, and the general public. The investigative staff encountered this fear time after time in interrogating, and trying to interrogate, sources of information. It was a major obstacle to the development of all the information we hoped to obtain—a very real bar to cracking wide open the veil of secrecy that surrounds many of the operations of the "Invisible Empire," as it is called, of the Ku Klux Klans.

These people fear Klan harassment in the form of threatening letters and telephone calls. They fear economic reprisals, cross-burnings on their property, beatings, bombings, and, yes, even death. Rightly or wrongly, they blame much of the violence of this type that has taken place in the South in recent years on the Klans.

The oath taken by all Klan members, which we hope shortly to make a part of the hearing record, contains a section on secrecy which reads as follows, and this is Section II of the oath called Secrecy:

I most solemnly swear—that I will forever—keep sacredly secret—the signs, words and grip—and any and all other—matters and knowledge—of the * * * *—and here the particular Klan is supposed to be mentioned—regarding which a most rigid secrecy—must be maintained—which may at any time—be communicated to me—and will never—divulge same nor even cause same to be divulged—to any person in the whole world—unless I know positively—that such person is a member of this Order—in good and regular standing—and not even then—unless it be—for the best interest of this Order.

In continuation:

I most sacredly vow—and most positively swear—that I will never yield to bribe—flattery—threats—passion—punishment—persecution—persuasion—nor any enticements whatever—coming from or offered by—any person or persons—male or female—for the purpose of—obtaining from me—a secret or secret information—of the * * * *—

and the particular Klan is to be named—

I will die rather than divulge same—so help me God—

Also, Mr. Chairman, under a series of oaths taken, with the title of "Ishness," we find this additional oath of secrecy:

I swear that I will keep secure to myself—a secret of a [Klan]*sman—when same is committed to me—in the sacred bond of [Klan]*smanship—the crime of violating THIS solemn oath—treason against the United States of America—rape—and malicious murder—alone excepted.

Any member or former member of the Klan who reveals information about Klan activities violates this oath, except for the saving clause.

For this reason, persons who are or have been members of the Klans fear reprisals if they reveal information about Klan activities—reprisals not only against themselves, but much more, in many cases, against their families—against their wives, their children, their sisters, their brothers, even their parents and close relatives.

Some have said that they feel that they can take care of themselves, or at least are willing to risk trying to do so, but they are naturally concerned about others in their families. They have also pointed out that, after revealing what they know about the Klans, they could move to another area or State where they would be safely out of the Klans' reach. The problem, however, is that other close relatives and members of their families are not all in a position to do this, and they fear Klan vengeance on them, even though they themselves would be safe.

It is difficult for a person who has never lived in an area where certain Klans have been active to appreciate how strong and widespread this fear is.

This fear, and in some cases actual terror, which the Klans have succeeded in creating, not only makes it difficult to develop full information about the Klans, but is also a serious impediment to law enforcement and, of course, a source of Klan strength and influence.

The CHAIRMAN. Now, Mr. Appell, quite a bit has been written on the subject of Klan infiltration of law enforcement agencies. What have you and other investigators found relative to this subject?

MR. APPELL. There is and has been some infiltration of law enforcement agencies by the Klans. The experience of the committee's investigative staff during the past 6 months, however, indicates that without question the overwhelming majority of police and law enforcement officers in the South are neither Klan members nor sympathetic to the Klans. On the whole, the committee investigators received excellent cooperation from both State and local law enforcement agencies. In most cases they did everything they could to assist us.

There have been a few instances, however, in which we deliberately avoided contacting law enforcement officers because our preliminary investigation indicated either Klan sympathy or even, in some cases, Klan membership. Mr. Chairman, I would like to point out one experience I had which, I think, illustrates this point.

Some months ago I covered a Klan rally that was held on the outskirts of a Southern town. I drove out on various roads leading from the town without being able to locate the site of the rally. I returned to the town and saw a policeman standing on the sidewalk talking to the proprietor of a local store. I stopped my car, walked over to the officer, and asked him if he could direct me to the site of the Klan rally.

He at first appeared uncertain, but then recalled the location and gave me directions. I thanked him and returned to my car. No sooner had I shut the door than a hand came through the open window on the driver's side. Following the arm to the body, I discovered it belonged to the policeman I had left on the sidewalk and who must have run to catch up to me. I grasped his hand, thinking he wanted to introduce himself. Instead, he rotated my hand clockwise until it was in a horizontal position. Fortunately, I had done a little research and I recognized this as one of the official Klan handshakes, and I rotated his hand in the opposite direction until it was parallel to the ground.

Frankly, Mr. Chairman, I didn't know what to do next, but he took me off the spot by stating that he sure would like to attend the rally, but he was on duty and it was outside of his patrol area.

This experience, however, was an exception to the rule. I have already read into the record the secrecy section of the Klan oath. The wording of this oath indicates that if a law enforcement officer should join the Klan and become a dedicated member of it, placing this oath above all others, he would place himself in the position of not being able to fully discharge his duties as a law enforcement officer.

Finally, I would make these points relative to the accusation made by some that law enforcement agencies in the South have deliberately failed to solve crimes of violence which, rightly or wrongly, have been attributed to the Klans. First, Klansmen make use of citizens band radios for communication among themselves. In addition, they have equipment which enables them to intercept police radio calls. With quick means of communication, hot rods, and being in a position to know where police patrol cars are at a given time, they can judge pretty well when and where they can commit an act of violence and have time to make a getaway.

Second, of course, there is the fear that I have already referred to. Because of this fear, a considerable period of time often elapses before the police learn that an act of violence has been committed. We have seen evidence of this—records which show that hours pass before local police or sheriffs' departments receive word of the commission of a crime. This is, of course, a very real obstacle to the apprehension of guilty parties.

THE CHAIRMAN. While on the subject of law enforcement and investigative agencies and their efforts to apprehend those guilty of crimes of violence, I want, at this point, to take the opportunity to pay tribute to an organization recognized by the overwhelming majority of Americans as a truly fine one. I am referring, of course, to the FBI. During the past 6 months, the committee's investigators have been reporting to me and to the committee regularly on what they have found on their field trips.

On the basis of what they have told us—and we all know they have spoken the truth—agents of the FBI are doing outstanding work in areas where the Klans are operating. It is my conviction that if it weren't for the dedication, the outstanding and hard work of these men, there would have been much more Klan violence in the South than we have seen in the last few years.

In this respect, as in others, the FBI on all levels merits the respect and gratitude of the American public, and I express the gratitude of this committee to the FBI. In my opinion, it is the finest investigative agency in the world.

Finally, Mr. Appell, I believe you have a number of exhibits to submit for the record concerning the Klan organizations operating in the United States, their structures and organization, terminology and related matters, including, I think, an exhibit which names key officers of the largest of the Klan groups, most of them self-identified and self-proclaimed, and all of whose identities, of course, have been confirmed by committee investigation.

The committee would be pleased to have you proceed with the introduction and identification of these exhibits,¹ in which effort I think you might want to be joined by Mr. Manuel, who has been so helpful in this investigation, and perhaps by Mr. Hitz, and Mr. Nittle, another counsel of the committee. I will have something else to say about that soon.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, we have projected this that I am going to present on slides. The first one that we will deal with is Ku Klux Klan terminology.

Mr. APPELL. We come to the Invisible Empire, which we have referred to already, which is the overall territorial jurisdiction of a Ku Klux Klan; the Kloran, the official ritual book of the Ku Klux Klan; Klankraft, Ku Klux Klan spirit and knowledge of all matters pertaining to the Ku Klux Klan; the Klectokon, the Klan initiation fee; the Kalendar, the special Klan terminology to designate days, months, and years; the Imperial Klonvokation, a national convention of a Ku Klux Klan organization; the Imperial Kloncilium, the supreme advisory and governing board of a Ku Klux Klan organization; the Realm, a territorial subdivision of the Invisible Empire embracing a State; the Province, a territorial subdivision of a realm, embracing a congressional district, with a realm having as many provinces as there are congressional districts within the State boundaries; the Klorero, a realm or State convention; also the realm governing and advisory board; the Klonverse, a convention of the province leaders.

Continuing with the terminology, Mr. Chairman, we have a Klan or Klavern. This is the smallest unit and would compare with a local club of any other national organization. The reason that we show it as a Klan or Klavern is that technically, within the constitution of a Klan organization, the unit is a Klan, but because there are so many different Klans, it is popularly referred to as a Klavern.

The Klanton is the territorial jurisdiction of a Klan or Klavern.

A Klonklave is a secret convention or meeting of a Klan.

Aliens are all of us who are not members of a Ku Klux Klan.

Like other orders, they have Kloranic degrees. K-UNO is the Order of Probationary Citizenship in the Invisible Empire. K-DUO, Knights of Kamellia, Primary Order of Knighthood. K-TRIO, Knights of the Great Forest—Order of American Chivalry. K-QUAD, Knights of the Midnight Mystery—Superior Order of Knighthood and Spiritual Philosophies.

With respect to the fourth order, Mr. Chairman, we have had testimony from a man who has been in the Klan many years that no one has ever had to take the fourth order because it hasn't even been written yet, and if it were completed, and it is now being worked on, it would take 16 hours to confer and it would require $40,000 worth of equipment.

We now, Mr. Chairman, will deal with the model Klan organization chart.

Mr. APPELL. We go from the Imperial Office. You will note footnote designations. This compares with national offices of a normal organization. Positions are filled by vote of delegates to Imperial Klonvokation or national convention.

From the Imperial Office we flow to the Realm Office. As you can see from the footnote designation, this compares with the State division of a national office and is not an autonomous body. Offices are filled by vote of delegates to a klorero or State convention. Before a State has a sufficient number of Klaverns or members to hold elections, the offices are filled by appointments of the Imperial Wizard.

The next is the Province Office. And, as we note, the provinces conform to the boundaries of a congressional district and are as many as there are congressional districts in a State. Offices are filled by vote of delegates to a klonverse or district convention.

MODEL KLAN ORGANIZATION CHART

- *1 Compares with National Offices - positions filled by vote of delegates, to Imperial Klonvokation or National Convention.
- *2 Compares with State division of National Office - is not autonomous body. Offices filled by vote of delegates to a Klorero or State Convention.
- *3 Provinces conform to the boundaries of a Congressional District. Provinces are as many as Congressional Districts assigned a given state. Offices filled by vote of delegates to Klonverse or District Convention.
- *4 Compares with a club of a National or State organization. Offices filled by election of club membership.
- *5 Organizer appointed by Imperial Wizard or Grand Dragon - receives portion of Kledokon or initiation fee paid by new member until Klavern has 25 members.
- *6 Realm officers and Kleagles are appointed by the Imperial Wizard until membership has grown to strength sufficient to hold elections.

Then we come to the smallest order of the Klan or Klavern, which is in footnote 4, which compares with a club of a national or state organization, with offices filled by election of club membership. As a service function out of the office of the Imperial Wizard, and sometimes out of the office of the realm leader or Grand Dragon, these men are appointed by either the Imperial Wizard, who also is the Supreme Kleagle or organizer for the organization.

We now deal with the Imperial (National) Offices, and the number and titles given to these.

We have attempted to make an analogy between the office as it would relate to a national organization that we all might be familiar with.

Mr. APPELL. The Imperial Wizard is the national president, the supreme chief executive officer, the Supreme Kleagle or organizer.

Then we have the Imperial Klaliff, who would compare with a national vice president; the Imperial Klokard, the national director of propaganda; the Imperial Kludd, the national chaplain; the Imperial Kligrapp, the national secretary; the Imperial Klabee, the national treasurer; the Imperial Kladd, the national secretary to the president; the Imperial Klarogo, the national inner guard of conventions or national executive board meetings; the Imperial Klexer, the national outer guard of conventions or national executive board meetings; the Imperial Klonsel, the national legal adviser; the Imperial Night-Hawk, the national auditor and chairman of a 3- to 5-member audit and advisory committee.

All of these together are known as the Imperial Wizard and his Genii.

We next pass to the realm, Mr. Chairman.

Mr. APPELL. Here we find that these men, after they are of sufficient strength, are elected at a State klorero, or convention, by delegates from Klans or Klaverns. I will point out in this that the top man of a realm is known by the title of Grand Dragon.

I will remove this in order to show that the other offices are the same, but preceding the office on a State level they are referred to as Grand Klaliff, grand klokard, grand et cetera.

I wish to point out that this body of men is known as the Grand Dragon and his Hydras.

We next go to the subdivision within the State, or the province, the district offices.

Mr. APPELL. The great titan is the highest officer of a province and could be considered its president.

There are three great klaliffs that operate as an advisory board; the great kligrapp or secretary, the great klabee or treasurer, the

Here we come to the Klan or Klavern, the club offices.

Mr. APPELL. Here the top man is the exalted cyclops. The men under him hold the same titles. However, as you will note, they are not preceded by the word of either "Grand" or "Imperial" and this body is known as the exalted cyclops and his terrors.

Mr. Chairman, I would like to deal with a graph of the United Klans of America.

Mr. APPELL. I would like to, with your permission, state that basically this organization grows out of an organization formed in 1955 known as the U.S. Klans. Following the death of its leader, Eldon Edwards, in 1960, it split with a great bulk of its leadership creating an organization which is known as the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc.

This organization was formed in February of 1961. Joining with this organization was the Alabama Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, which was formed in part by Robert M. Shelton after he had been replaced by Edwards as Grand Dragon of the U.S. Klans for the State of Alabama.

Sometime, in May or June of 1961, these bodies came together; and in July of 1961, Mr. Shelton was elected its Imperial Wizard and has held that office since.

Starting off with what could be grabbed away from the membership of the U.S. Klans, the organization has grown to what we picture here today.

We have set this graph up, Mr. Chairman, so that realms are displayed as a realm because, according to our investigation, there is sufficient Klan strength to hold elections. We will, as we go down this chart, list States without a prefix of "realm" because the Klan does not have, according to our investigation, sufficient strength to form or elect bodies within themselves, so we have listed them merely as a State and have designated persons who, according to our investigation, and also which is confirmed by public press sources, are people Mr. Shelton has appointed as Grand Dragons in these various areas.

These are not in the order in which they were formed as the United Klans came into being in 1961, but are set forth to show how the United Klans looks today according to our investigation.

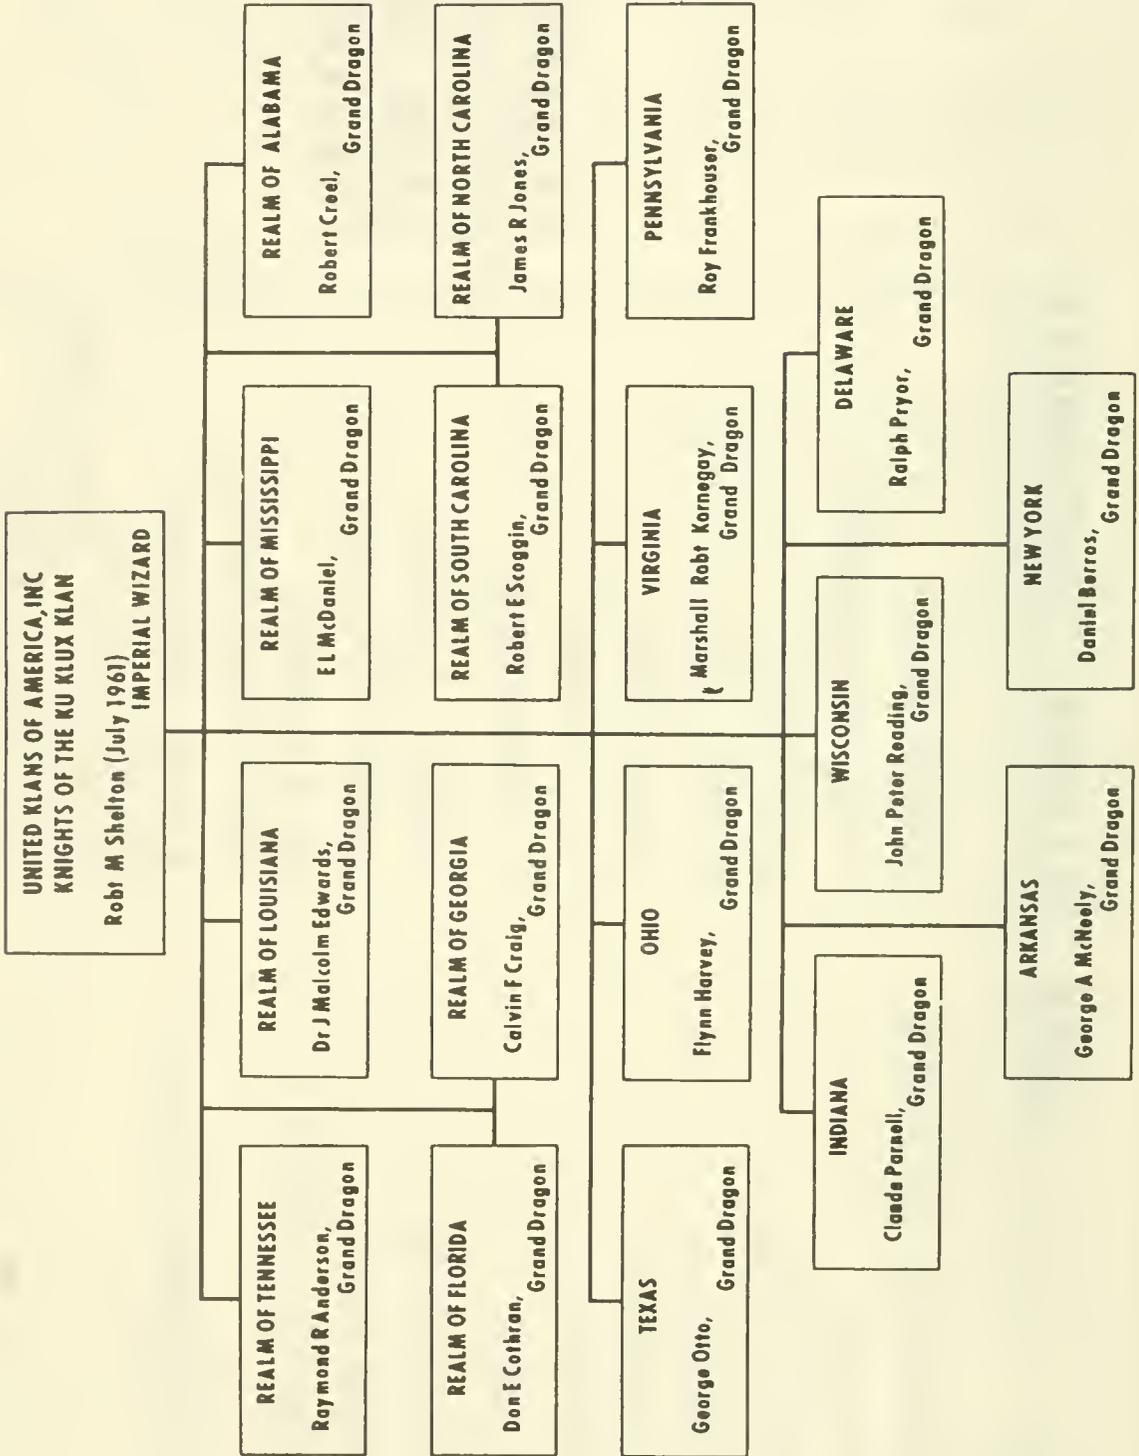

There is the Realm of Tennessee, headed by Grand Dragon Anderson; the Realm of Louisiana headed by Grand Dragon Dr. Edwards; the Realm of Mississippi headed by Grand Dragon McDaniel; the Realm of Alabama headed by Grand Dragon Creel; the Realm of Florida, headed by Grand Dragon Cothran; the Realm of Georgia headed by Grand Dragon Craig; the Realm of South Carolina headed by Grand Dragon Scoggin; the Realm of North Carolina headed by Grand Dragon Jones.

In Ohio we have designated the leader in the State, Mr. Harvey; in Texas it is Mr. Otto; in Virginia, Mr. Kornegay, who, until being designated Grand Dragon of Virginia, was a paid employee of the Klan in North Carolina; in Pennsylvania, Mr. Frankhouser; in Indiana, Claude Parnell; in Wisconsin, John Peter Reading; in Delaware, Ralph Pryor; in Arkansas, George A. McNeely; and in New York, Daniel Burros.

Mr. Chairman, for investigative purposes, we have divided the Klan organizations into basically three divisions, the United Klans of America and a group of autonomous Klans formed within an association, and then a few Klan organizations which sit outside of either Mr. Shelton's Klan or the association.

I would now like to show those Klans within the National Association.

Mr. APPELL. This National Association is, as I said, an informal sort of arrangement under the chairmanship of James R. Venable, of Georgia. They meet roughly three times a year. Their purpose in meeting is to discuss common problems among the Klans within the association.

There is the Dixie Klans, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. We have Mr. Jack W. Brown heading it. It is our investigative understanding that he has died within the past several days.

The Improved Order of U.S. Klans, with Earl E. George; the Original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, with Murry H. Martin.

You will note that the Dixie Klans, Inc., has Klaverns in Tennessee, Georgia, and Alabama. The Improved Order of U.S. Klans has Klaverns in Alabama and Florida.

Then we deal with the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., which is an autonomous Klan group, and also under the leadership of Mr. Venable. This organization has Klaverns in Louisiana, Georgia, North Carolina, and Alabama.

Then there is the Association of South Carolina Klans, comprised solely within the jurisdiction of South Carolina.

Then the U.S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., out of which the big Klan of Mr. Shelton's grew, and it is under the leadership of Mr. H. J. Jones; the Association of Georgia Klans, under Charles Maddox; and the United Florida Ku Klux Klan under Jason E. Kersey.

The next, Mr. Chairman, are Klan groups which we establish as independent Klan organizations.

(A slide of the following was shown:)

[Committee Exhibit No. 9]

Independent Klan Organizations

1. White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (Mississippi).
2. Anti-Communist Christian Association (Louisiana) formerly the Original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.
3. Association of Arkansas Klans.
4. Militant Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (Florida).
5. Mississippi Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

Mr. APPELL. Membershipwise, they range from a very important Klan in Mississippi known as the White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Mississippi, down to a one-man Klan organization that I will point out as we uncover this list.

In the order of their importance, the White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Mississippi; the Anti-Communist Christian Association is next. This was formerly a part of the Original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. They are confined mainly within the Sixth Congressional District of Louisiana, which is the Bogalusa area as the predominant point.

The third is the Association of Arkansas Klans, very small.

Fourth is the Militant Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, a Florida group which has started an organization effort within the last 3 months; and the Mississippi Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, which, according to the best of our information, is comprised solely of its top officer.

Mr. Chairman, this concludes my part of the presentation, and I would like to have you call as the next witness Mr. Philip Manuel, a member of the investigative staff, who will deal with a breakdown of these Klans by States in order to show the location and what our investigation established as far as Klaverns or clubs are concerned.

The CHAIRMAN. That will be done.

Will you raise your right hand?

You do solemnly swear that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mr. MANUEL. Yes, sir.

TESTIMONY OF PHILIP R. MANUEL

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, the exhibits which I am about to show are a compilation of all Klaverns which the committee investigation has determined were in existence in the years 1964 and 1965 to the present time.

I want to emphasize that, in some cases, some Klaverns which existed for part or all of 1964 may not be in existence today. The committee investigation has shown that, by the nature of the various Klan organizations, Klaverns are both established and dissolved in a relatively short time and the secrecy under which the Klan groups operate makes their detection very difficult.

Therefore, these exhibits are intended to show the concentration by county of Klaverns of the various Klan groups which are known to have been in existence for the period January 1964 to the present time.

I wish to emphasize that the investigative staff is not claiming that these are the only Klaverns which exist, or have existed, for the period January 1964 to the present. There is a possibility that other Klaverns exist, or have existed, of which the staff has no knowledge.

I also wish to point out that additional information is still being collected which may possibly enlarge the committee's knowledge in this matter. An additional exhibit I will display after the State maps will give a listing of the county, city, or town in which the particular Klavern is located, plus the cover name by which the Klavern is known.

The committee investigation has revealed that some Klan groups, and in particular the United Klans of America, Inc., make extensive use of cover names when establishing bank accounts, for example, or post office boxes or making group reservations at some hotel or other business establishment.

Now, Mr. Chairman, I will proceed to show each individual State exhibit, starting with the State of Virginia.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Manuel, for the record, please describe your background as an investigator and how long you have been with the committee.

Your name, of course, is Philip Manuel.

Mr. MANUEL. Philip R. Manuel. I have been employed by the Committee on Un-American Activities since the 1st of January 1964. Prior to that date I was a special agent of the Counterintelligence Corps of the Department of the Army, in which capacity I served from 1960 until the date that I joined the staff of the committee.

The CHAIRMAN. Were you not in the CIA?

Mr. MANUEL. No, sir. It is commonly known as CIC, the Counterintelligence Corps of the United States Army, the Department of Defense.

Now I will proceed with the State of Virginia.

Mr. MANUEL. You will see shown the State map of Virginia. The red dots on this map, Mr. Chairman, represent the Klaverns which the committee investigation has shown to exist in this State at the present time. I want to point out that until June of 1965 the State's Grand Dragon and principal offices were located in the area of Chesapeake, Virginia. Since June of 1965, a new Grand Dragon has been appointed whom Mr. Appell identified as Marshall Kornegay, and he has been active, the committee investigation shows, in this particular area, and the committee investigation has shown that three additional Klaverns have been established since he took over.

The identities of these Klaverns are as follows, as far as the county, city, and, where known, the Klavern name and designation.

I want to do this very briefly and as quickly as possible as each of these, Mr. Chairman, the staff hopes to enter into the record as exhibits.

The CHAIRMAN. We will do that after you finish. Proceed.

Let me say at this point that the exhibits identified by Mr. Appell will be received in evidence in the order in which they were presented by him, and the exhibits now being identified by Mr. Manuel will be received in evidence in the record in the order and at the points identified by Mr. Manuel.

Mr. MANUEL. Next the committee staff would like to present its results of investigation as far as North Carolina is concerned.

Maps of North Carolina shown on slides. See Committee Exhibits Nos. 12 and 13, pp. 1549, 1550.)

Mr. MANUEL. I would like to point out that the dark black lines that you see on each of these maps are taken from the exact congressional districts at the start of the present Congress. That would be current as of January 1964. The significance of this is that, as Mr. Appell has stated—

The CHAIRMAN. 1965.

Mr. MANUEL. 1965. I am sorry.

As Mr. Appell has stated, the congressional districts are synonymous with the province breakdowns of the various Klan groups.

I will first represent by the red dots, which you will see on this overlay, the locations which the committee investigation has shown to exist at the present time covering the years 1964 and 1965 in the State of North Carolina.

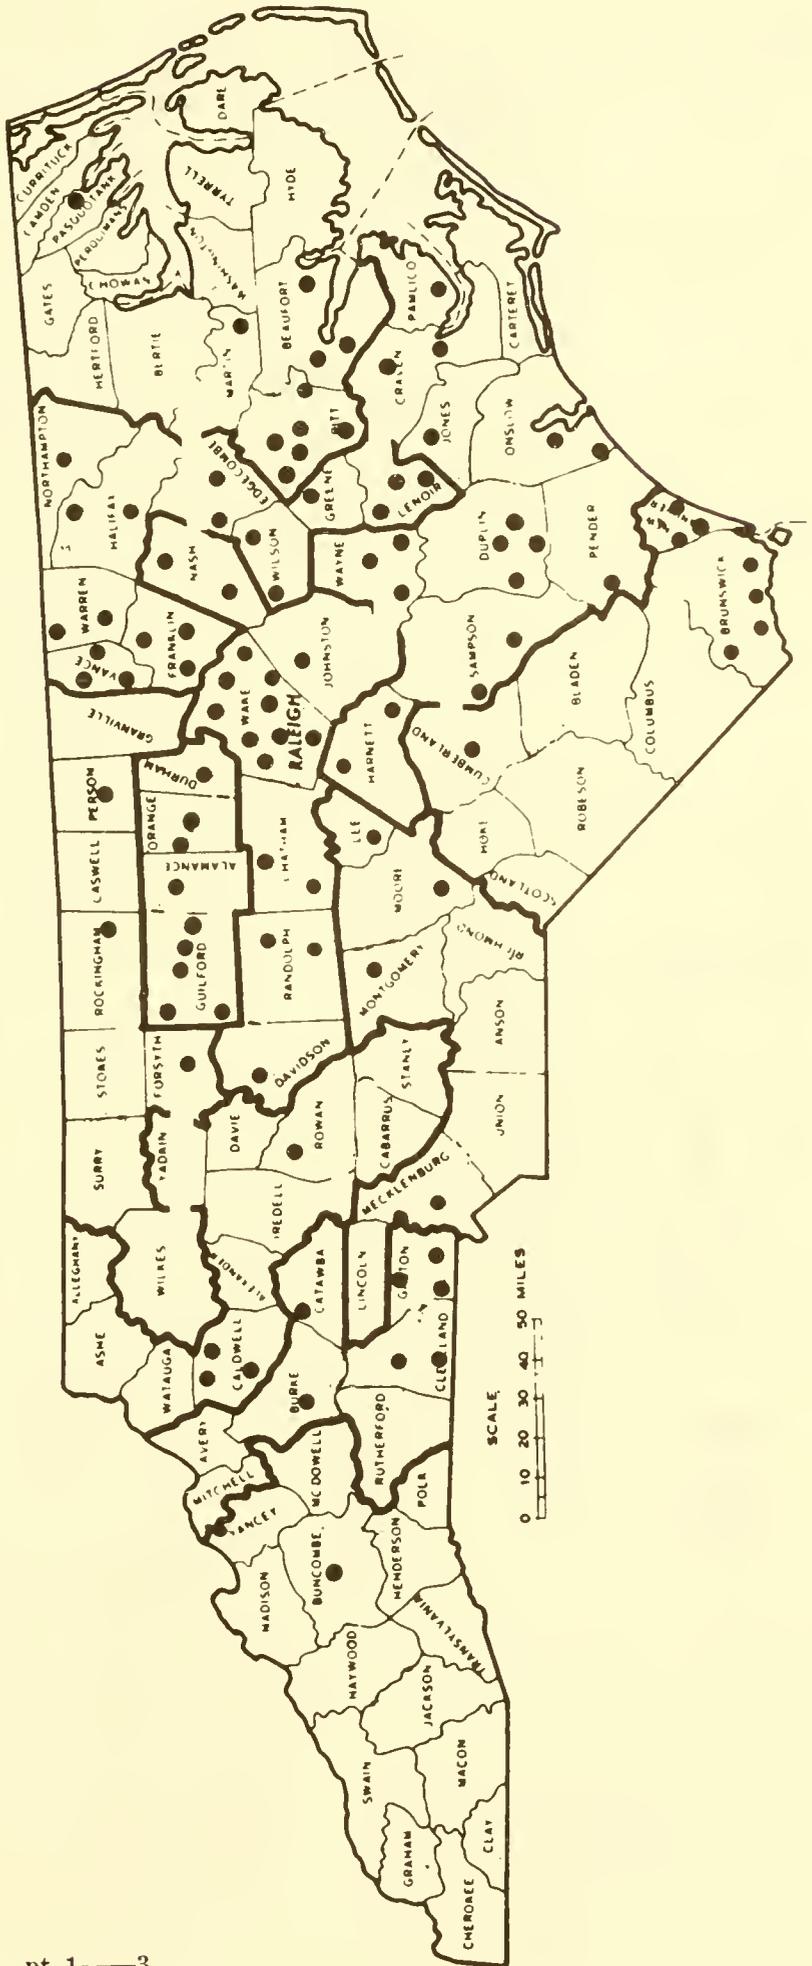

The committee investigation has shown that we have a total of 112 Klaverns which the investigation has uncovered of the UKA in North Carolina (Exhibit No. 12). There is one additional Klavern located in Wilson County, North Carolina, represented by the green dot, and that signifies a Klavern of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (Exhibit No. 13).

As an additional exhibit, I would like to display briefly the county, city and town, and Klavern name or designation, where known, for each of the Klaverns which were plotted on the map.

Mr. MANUEL. As I say, there were 112 Klaverns of the UKA which the committee found in the State of North Carolina, which is by far the most active State in terms of Klaverns and membership of the UKA.

The CHAIRMAN. This is still North Carolina?

Mr. MANUEL. Still North Carolina, Mr. Chairman.

The last one is the Klavern of the National Knights which was established very recently in Wilson County, North Carolina.

MR. MANUEL. You will see on the screen a map of the State of Georgia. The first Klan group we will cover, again, is the United Klans of America (Exhibit No. 23). Each Klavern is shown by means of the red dots in the respective county in which the committee investigation has shown that these Klaverns exist.

Another Klan group in the State of Georgia is the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (Exhibit No. 24) headed by James Venable, whom Mr. Appell previously identified. Their headquarters are located in Tucker, Georgia, in DeKalb County.

The Dixie Klans (Exhibit No. 25), previously identified, has two Klaverns in the State of Georgia, and they exist as shown in these respective counties.

Another Klan group located in the State of Georgia is the Improved Order of U.S. Klans (Exhibit No. 26), whose headquarters is shown in Lithonia, Georgia, in DeKalb County.

Another Klan group in Georgia is located in Chatham County, outside of the city of Savannah, in a town called Bloomingdale, Georgia, and its name is the Association of Georgia Klans (Exhibit No. 27).

Also in Georgia, in Fulton County, in a city called College Park, there is a headquarters of a Klan group known as the U.S. Klans (Exhibit No. 28).

First for the Klaverns of the United Klans of America, the county, city or town, and, where known, the cover name of each Klavern.

Mr. MANUEL. The committee investigation has revealed that the following Klaverns of the United Klans of America are in existence in the State of Florida. They are designated, again, by the red dots on the map inside the limits of the counties in which they are located (Exhibit No. 33).

In the State of Florida, in addition to the United Klans of America, there is a separate Klan group, previously identified by Mr. Appell, which is known as the United Florida Klans, a relatively active group. Its Klaverns are listed by county as you see on this particular map (Exhibit No. 34).

Also in the State of Florida, previously identified by Mr. Appell, is a separate Klan organization known as the Militant Knights of the Ku Klux Klan whose headquarters are in Jacksonville, Florida (Exhibit No. 35).

Also in the State of Florida, a separate and very small Klan group, which meets on an irregular basis, according to committee information, is located in the town of Oldsmar, Florida, in Pinellas County, and it is known as the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (Exhibit No. 36).

A listing of each Klavern of the United Klans is as follows, showing the county in which it is located, the city or town, and the cover name or Klavern designation which it uses.

Mr. MANUEL. Again starting out with the United Klans of America, the committee investigation has revealed these Klaverns exist as shown on the map in the counties indicated.

Calling your attention to the city of Tuscaloosa, Alabama, this is the headquarters of the United Klans of America (Exhibit No. 40).

In Alabama also is a Klavern of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (Exhibit No. 41).

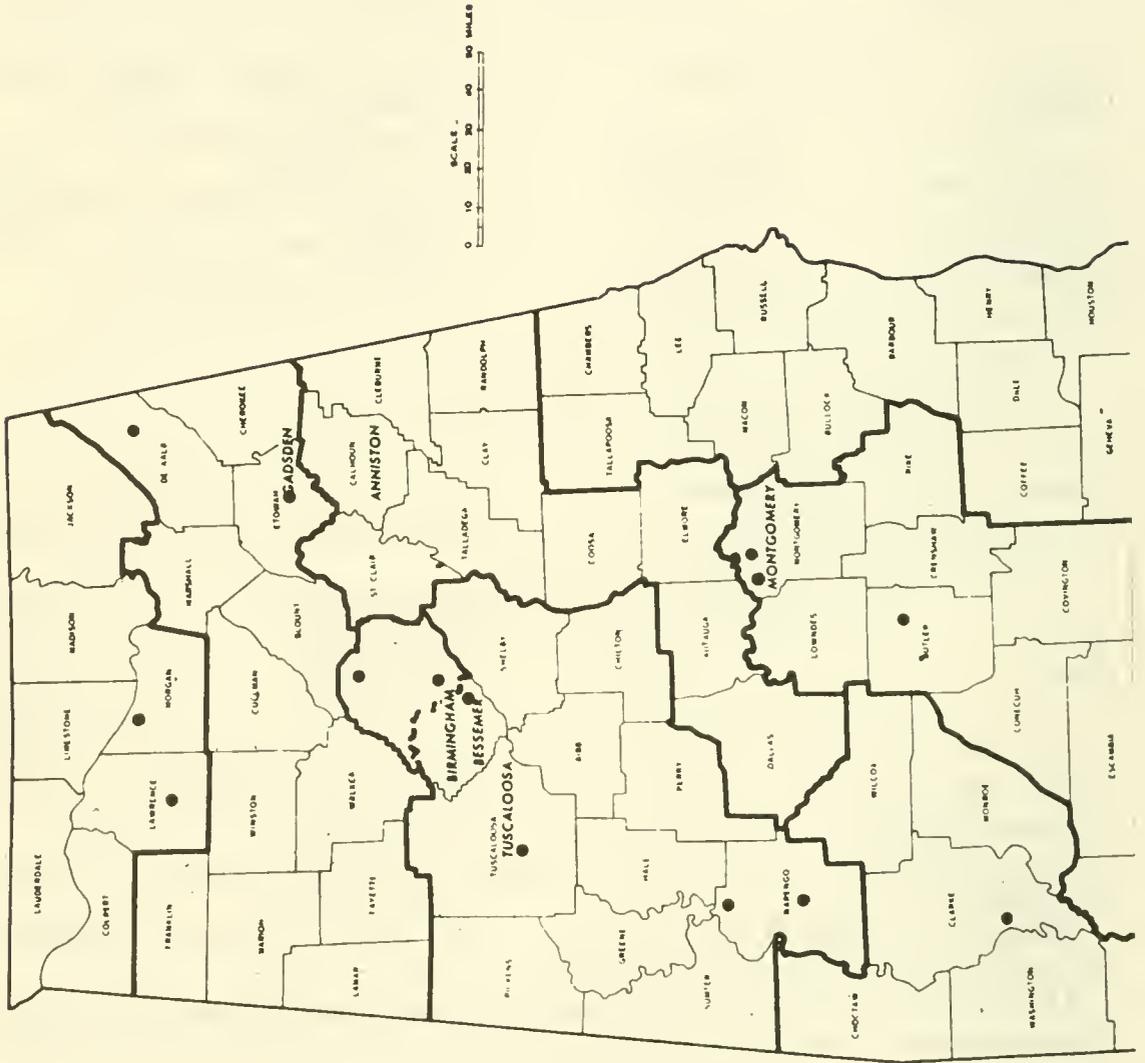

The CHAIRMAN. That is not affiliated with the United Klans of America?

Mr. MANUEL. No, sir. It is a separate Klan group. This is a Klavern of the Improved Order of U.S. Klans, which the committee investigation has revealed was in existence in the period 1964 to the present, and they also have two other Klaverns in Bullock County (Exhibit No. 42).

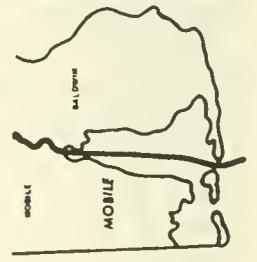

Also in the State of Alabama, in Anniston, is a Klavern of the Dixie Klans, which I have previously identified as having its headquarters in Chattanooga, Tennessee (Exhibit No. 43).

This is a listing of the Klaverns of the United Klans of America, with county, city, and cover name.

LOUISIANA

As previously identified by Mr. Appell, another organization exists, mainly in the State of Louisiana, known as the Original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and the locations of their Klaverns, as far as the committee investigation has determined, is shown on the map by means of these purple dots (Exhibit No. 51).

The committee investigation has shown that as far as the Original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan are concerned, there are three factions within this group, which will later be brought out, and the group whose name is the Anti-Communist Christian Association, as previously identified by Mr. Appell, is located mostly in the Sixth Congressional District of the State of Louisiana.

Another fact I wish to bring out is that recently the portion of the Original Knights which operated in the area of Monroe, Louisiana, and included most of this group, has recently, according to committee investigation, gone over to the United Klans of America.

If you want to superimpose this, we can establish that most of these now are Klans of the United Klans of America.

The CHAIRMAN. I notice you don't have any dots in the Third Congressional District, which is mine.

Mr. MANUEL. We didn't find any dots [Klaverns] in the Third Congressional District, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. Nor any individuals.

Mr. MANUEL. And to finish off the State of Louisiana, there are two Klaverns of the National Knights previously identified at Ouachita and Shreveport, shown on the map (Exhibit No. 52).

Again, here is an individual listing that the committee investigation has determined. It is shown with the parish, the city or town, the Klavern name, and designation of the United Klans.

Mr. MANUEL. The next State which will be covered by this presentation is the State of Arkansas.

(Maps of Arkansas shown on slides. See Committee Exhibits Nos. 56 and 57, pp. 1590, 1591.)

Mr. MANUEL. Committee investigation has revealed that recently the United Klans of America has appointed a Grand Dragon for the State of Arkansas who operates in the vicinity of Strong, Arkansas. And committee investigation has revealed that three Klaverns of the United Klans of America exist in the State of Arkansas in the areas designated on the map (Exhibit No. 56).

Also in the State of Arkansas, previously identified by Mr. Appell, is an organization known as the Association of Arkansas Klans. Committee investigation has found that they have two Klaverns in the State, one located at Pine Bluff, Arkansas, and the other at Texarkana (Exhibit No. 57).

A separate listing of the Klaverns of Arkansas is as follows in the cities listed. The one at Strong, Arkansas, is the State headquarters of the UKA in that State.

Mr. MANUEL. The next State the committee staff would like to cover is the State of Texas, where committee investigation has found that recently there has been some activity on the part of the United Klans of America, having established a State headquarters in the area of Houston, Texas, with two separate Klaverns being noted in this area and one also in Dallas, Texas.

Mr. MANUEL. A listing of these Klaverns is as follows for the State of Texas.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, with the conclusion of the map and the other exhibits on the State of Texas, this concludes the presentation of the individual States.

However, there is one final exhibit which I would like to show to the committee showing the areas of influence. There are other States which were not shown on the maps in which committee investigation has revealed some activity on the part of the United Klans.

I would like to explain this, if I may.

Mr. MANUEL. On the Vu-graph you see a map of the eastern half of the United States, and although Mr. Appell has gone over this in some detail, I would like to point out that the United Klans of America has established headquarters in each of the following States, in addition to the States that I have gone over separately with the maps.

They have now headquarters in the State of Pennsylvania, one in Delaware, a headquarters in New York, a headquarters in the State of Ohio, one in Indiana, and one in Wisconsin.

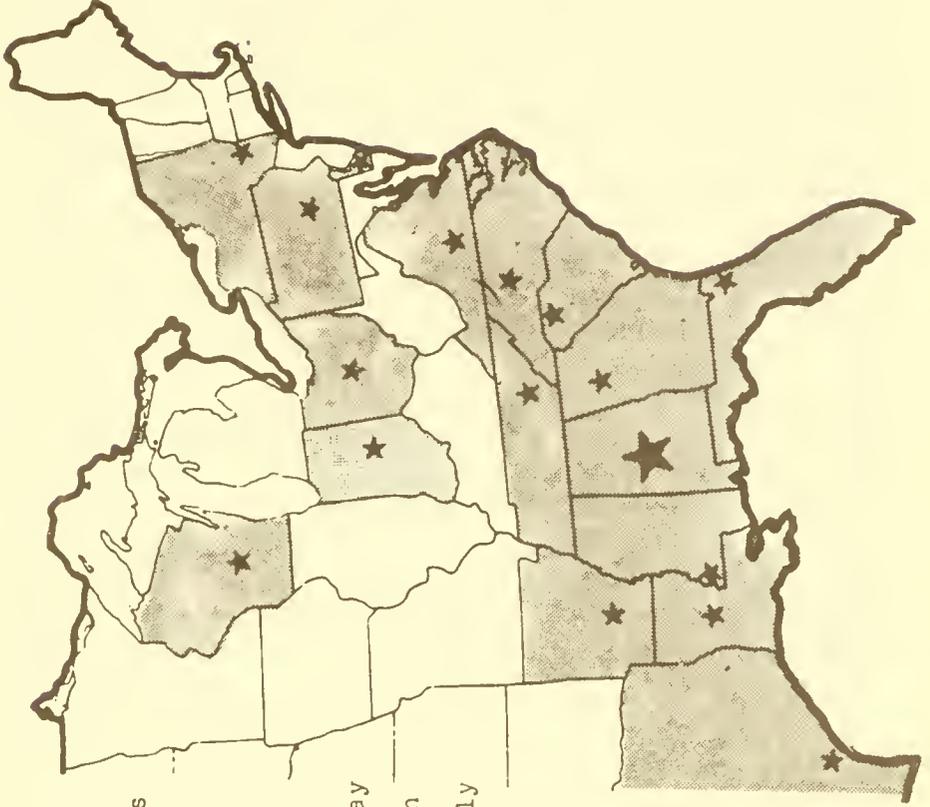

The identity and headquarters of these State realm divisions are shown as follows:

For the State of Alabama, it has its headquarters in Bessemer, Alabama, the Grand Dragon previously identified as Robert Creel; Georgia, headquarters in Atlanta, the Grand Dragon, Calvin Craig; Mississippi, headquarters located in Natchez, Mississippi, the Grand Dragon, Edward McDaniel; Louisiana, headquarters in Jonesboro, of the UKA, the Grand Dragon being James Edwards; in Florida, the headquarters is Jacksonville and the Grand Dragon is Donald Cothran; South Carolina has its UKA headquarters in Spartanburg and its Grand Dragon is Robert Scoggin; North Carolina, headquarters in Granite Quarry, and its Grand Dragon is J. R. Jones; in the State of Virginia, to the best of the committee's information, at this time they have not established a definite State headquarters. However, its Grand Dragon is Marshall R. Kornegay. The Realm of Tennessee has its headquarters in Maryville, Tennessee, and its Grand Dragon is Raymond Anderson. The State of Arkansas has its headquarters in Strong, Arkansas, and its Grand Dragon is George McNeely. The State of Texas has its headquarters in Houston and its Grand Dragon is George Otto. The State of Ohio has its headquarters in Columbus, Ohio, and its Grand Dragon is Flynn Harvey. The State of Delaware has its headquarters in south Wilmington and its Grand Dragon, at this time, is Ralph Pryor. The State of New York has its headquarters in Queens, and its Grand Dragon is Daniel Burros. The State of Wisconsin has its headquarters in Madison, and John P. Reading is the Grand Dragon of that realm. The State of Pennsylvania is headquartered in Reading, Pennsylvania, and its Grand Dragon is Roy Frankhouser. Finally, the Realm of Indiana, located at Greenfield, Indiana, with its Grand Dragon being an individual named Claude Parnell.

This final sheet will indicate an area of influence of the United Klans of America ranging through the Southeastern States. I want to make this point clear, that the organizations in the Northeastern States whose maps I did not show individually, committee investigation has shown, are recent attempts on the part of the UKA to establish headquarters and gain membership in momentum in these northeastern areas.

To the committee's knowledge, there is not sufficient membership at this time, in some cases, to establish what would be an organization compared to other parts of the country.

That, Mr. Chairman, concludes the presentation of these particular exhibits.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Appell, would you resume the stand, please?

TESTIMONY OF DONALD T. APPELL—Resumed

The CHAIRMAN. Would you flash back the slide on the Independent Klan Organizations?

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I will cover all of them, but there is one thing I think of interest to the committee that I should point out. The White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan in Mississippi grew out of a split within the Original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Louisiana, which, in 1963, formed a realm in the State of Mississippi.

There was a leadership struggle or a disagreement with leadership, as happens so often in the Klan, and this realm membership, which was about 200 in Mississippi, broke away from the Original Knights and they formed the White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. This was the only Ku Klux Klan organization in Mississippi until around July of 1964, when one of the leaders of the White Knights was appointed Grand Dragon of the UKA. And since that time there have been numerous defections from the White Knights into the UKA.

This Anti-Communist Christian Association—this group was also a part of the Original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, which was basically a Louisiana organization. After the split in leadership—this group split once—it split again, and with the second split the group in the Sixth Congressional District went independent.

The group which was located up around Monroe and the Shreveport areas chartered themselves as what was known as the Original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc. Their purpose was to try to get all of these Klan groups together under their head. But they failed, and within the last several weeks the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., went, almost en masse, into the UKA.

Then there is the Association of Arkansas Klans, which Mr. Manuel has dealt with, the Militant Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Florida, origin of just a few months ago, and finally the one-man Klan, the Mississippi Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, located down in Biloxi.

Is this clear, Mr. Chairman?

The CHAIRMAN. Yes.

Mr. APPELL. Thank you, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Manuel, I think you wanted to address yourself to this other map?

Mr. MANUEL. Yes, Mr. Chairman, I wanted to call your attention and that of the committee to the map on the wall in back of the committee.

On this map has been compiled all of the Klaverns and their locations in specific cities which I have shown in this series of exhibits.

The CHAIRMAN. It is a composite map?

Mr. MANUEL. Yes, sir; showing all the Klan groups and their locations in the area in which the committee has worked.

On that composite map is listed all of the Klaverns which I have shown on the screen.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you very much.

I would like to take this occasion to express the appreciation of the committee to the Tecnifax Corporation for being so helpful to our staff members in the preparation of these maps and slides which have been exhibited. They have done, in my opinion—and this is the first time I have seen them—a very magnificent job and we certainly want to thank the Tecnifax Corporation for their great contribution to these hearings.

After consulting with the members, I intend to adjourn for lunch.

Mr. Pool, would you care to say anything?

Mr. POOL. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

I think in the very short time that the committee staff had to work on this, in their investigative work, and I had a lot of experience in that during World War II—you usually need a long time to really get into the facts—I think in the very short time that this committee staff has had to work on this that they have done an excellent job. They have made a very thorough investigation.

I think the hearings to come will show that the background and history they have given here this morning are very excellent.

I want to make one other comment, that some people have said that you shouldn't have an investigation because you might even increase the membership of the Klan by having it, by giving them publicity. But in view of the maps that we have seen here and the widespread membership, I think certainly that this thing has been increasing in membership and that we certainly should look into it and Congress should be informed of this.

That is the work of this committee, to get the facts. And then if legislation is needed, we will see about that, too.

Thank you.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Weltner?

Mr. WELTNER. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

I have been very interested in this investigation and I am convinced that the matters to come forth as a result of this will be of great interest to the South and to the people of the South.

I join my colleague, Mr. Pool, in commending our staff. I think they have done a particularly outstanding duty. It has not been easy; it has not been pleasant. But they have given it their entire time and attention.

I simply wish to say that these hearings will fully justify the decision made by the House Committee on Un-American Activities on March 30 to proceed with this most important inquiry.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Ashbrook?

Mr. ASHBROOK. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. I will associate myself with what has been said. But I would like to make one additional point. The House Committee on Un-American Activities, of course, is a different committee, dealing with hostile subjects. It may seem that this was a little tedious, a little drawn out. But those of us who have been associated with this for about 10 months now realize that we have merely scratched the surface.

Our committee has but one real means of determining the facts and deducing information. Because we deal with hostile subjects—whether they be communism, travel to Cuba, or the Ku Klux Klan—we have to develop, through thorough investigation, the information for our committee. This is done by firsthand reports. It is done by conferring with other agencies of the Government, such as the FBI.

In the case of the Ku Klux Klan, as in previous investigations, it will be based on bit-by-bit piecing-together of all the parts as we gather them. This requires a lot of work.

There has been 10 months of hard work that has already gone into this investigation, and only those of us who have been intimately connected with it have any realization of the thousands of hours of work which have gone into the staff preparation to this point. Actually, the chairman has stated there are 20,000 man-hours which have gone into this work. As in the past, we will develop the record bit by bit, piece by piece, on the basis of concrete, provable information.

I point this out because sometimes it has been alleged that we were dragging our feet. It took 10 full months before we could reach this point. I certainly commend the staff. There is no question in my mind on the basis of the information that I have seen to date that we are going to be able to present this in a proper perspective, and we are going to be able to show the need for remedial legislation.

I hope that as the months drag out—and I am afraid this will run into months—we will recognize that in bringing forth testimony sometimes it will seem tedious, sometimes it will seem trivial.

This committee has been very successful in the past in developing information, developing the whole picture on a piece-by-piece, bit-by-bit technique. As a matter of fact, again dealing with the hostile subject, this is the only way we have been able to do it.

Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Buchanan?

Mr. BUCHANAN. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

I want to join with the others in saying how much I appreciate this thorough and excellent job done by the investigative staff.

My interest in this investigation is that of one who loves the South and its people and who understands that, while the South is not inhabited by angels, it is inhabited by people who are law-abiding Americans and who, in overwhelming majority, deplore acts of violence or terrorism. The people who have been guilty of the commission of such acts are, in fact, the greatest enemies to the people of the South.

I want to underline, therefore, Mr. Chairman, both as a Southerner and as a member of this committee, something you said a few moments ago when you were introducing this hearing or beginning it—that he who has nothing to hide has nothing to fear.

We are not here to convict or prosecute people. We are here to get the truth and to follow the truth wherever it may lead us and to draw conclusions from that truth. Therefore, unless a man has something to hide from the Congress or the American people or from even the rank-and-file members of the Klan organization, he has nothing to fear or no reason to hesitate in giving testimony before this committee. Only those who have something to hide or to fear stand hesitant to let the full light of truth be cast upon their activities. This is true of the members of the Klans as of any other outfit.

So, as a Southerner and as a member of this committee, I am glad to be a part of this investigation and feel we are doing something not only for the Nation but for the South in conducting it.

The CHAIRMAN. Though not a member of the subcommittee yet equally interested, Mr. Ichord, from Missouri.

We appoint subcommittees for convenience, because of the necessity for a quorum at all times. But the full committee members are all interested in this work.

Mr. Ichord.

Mr. ICHORD. Mr. Chairman, I would like to take this opportunity to commend the staff and the subcommittee for the very obvious extensive and thorough work which the staff and the subcommittee have done in bringing about these public hearings.

I know that the subcommittee has spent many hours in executive hearings, which is required by the rules of the House and by the rules of this committee before public hearings can be held.

I compliment the staff and the committee for the work that you have done. I am very interested in seeing just what these public hearings develop.

The CHAIRMAN. And from the West, Mr. Senner, of Arizona.

Mr. SENNER. Mr. Chairman, the hour is late. I will not add too much to the record, other than to say that I join my colleagues in their remarks today.

The CHAIRMAN. The committee will stand in recess until 1:30.

(Members present at time of recess: Representatives Willis, Pool, Weltner, Ashbrook, and Buchanan, of the subcommittee, and also Representatives Ichord and Senner.)

(Whereupon, at 12 noon, Tuesday, October 19, 1965, the subcommittee recessed, to reconvene at 1:30 p.m. the same day.)

(The subcommittee reconvened at 1:30 p.m., Hon. Edwin E. Willis, chairman, presiding.)

(Members present: Representatives Willis, Pool, Weltner, and Buchanan, of the subcommittee, and also Representative Senner.)

The CHAIRMAN. The subcommittee will please come to order.

Let me say that the subcommittee appreciates the attitude and decorum of the audience, our guests. We welcome you here and we are glad to have you.

I wish to state that the general counsel of this committee is Mr. William Hitz, who, for some 30 years before he became attached to the committee some time ago, was connected with the Department of Justice here in Washington. Mr. Hitz is an outstanding attorney, and it had been anticipated that he would conduct the interrogation, or most of it, anyway. But a couple of weeks ago he was told by his physician to take it easy for a couple of weeks.

He is with us, immediately to my left and in front of me, and will be with us during the hearings, but will not take the burden, the chief burden, of examining the witnesses. Instead, the witnesses, for the most part, will be interrogated by Mr. Appell and Mr. Manuel.

As a matter of fact, Mr. Appell is an old hand at that—at interrogating witnesses. Furthermore, up until some years ago it was the custom of this committee, as it is with many others, to have a lay member of the staff do the interrogation. Mr. Appell has done that innumerable times in the last few years in executive sessions and very frequently in open sessions prior to that.

So with that, Mr. Appell, will you please call your first witness?

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to call Mr. Robert M. Shelton.

The CHAIRMAN. The news media will please desist.

Please raise your right hand, sir.

Do you solemnly swear that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mr. SHELTON. I will affirm. I won't swear, but I will affirm.

The CHAIRMAN. What is that?

Mr. SHELTON. I said not swear, but to affirm.

The CHAIRMAN. You do not swear, but you do affirm. I have to propose a different oath.

Do you affirm, having declined to swear, that you will tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth in these hearings?

Mr. SHELTON. I do.

TESTIMONY OF ROBERT MARVIN SHELTON, ACCOMPANIED BY COUNSEL, LESTER V. CHALMERS, JR.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, will you state your full name for the record, please?

Mr. CHALMERS. Mr. Chairman, I am Lester V.—

The CHAIRMAN. We will develop that. That is introductory.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, will you state your full name for the record, please?

Mr. SHELTON. Robert Marvin Shelton.

Mr. APPELL. Are you represented by counsel?

Mr. SHELTON. I am, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Will counsel please identify himself for the record?

Mr. CHALMERS. Lester V. Chalmers, Jr., from North Carolina, a member of the North Carolina Bar.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, when and where were you born?

Mr. SHELTON. Tuscaloosa, Alabama, in June of 1929.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton—

The CHAIRMAN. At this point, I wish to do what I did this morning. It is customary. You heard me say this morning that under the rules of the House the function of the news media, specifically the TV and radio, and photograph-taking, was limited, under the rules of the House, and that under the rules of the House the audience, of course, was required to keep good order and decorum.

(At this point Representative Ashbrook entered the hearing room.)

The CHAIRMAN. I want to read the rules of the committee which, of course, carries out the rules of the House, with respect to the function of counsel before this committee.

[A] At every hearing, public or executive, every witness shall be accorded the privilege of having counsel of his own choosing.

[B] The participation of counsel during the course of any hearing and while the witness is testifying shall be limited to advising said witness as to his legal rights. Counsel shall not be permitted to engage in oral argument with the Committee, but shall confine his activity to the area of legal advice to his client.

Sir, I read that to you not with any thought that I expect or suppose or have a notion that you will do otherwise, but we must proceed according to the rules of the House, and I am carrying them out.

Thank you very much.

By the way, we now have another member of our full committee here, Mr. Del—Congressman Del Clawson.

We are glad to have you, Del.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, are you appearing before the committee this afternoon in accordance with a subpoena served upon you by a United States marshal on October 11, 1965?

Mr. SHELTON. Yes, somewhere in the neighborhood of that date.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, I hand you a document, a copy of a document, which the committee obtained from the secretary of state's office of the State of Georgia. It is entitled "Certified Statement for Annual Registration of a Corporation." It is dated September 15, 1964. The name of the corporation is set forth on the registration statement and is the "Invisible Empire United Klans Knights Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc.," signed "Robert M. Shelton," president, dated September 10, 1964.

I ask you to look at this document, sir, and to answer whether or not this is a copy of a document filed by you?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, is this question directed to me as an individual or is it directed to me as an officer of a corporation?

Mr. APPELL. It is directed to you, as the document implies, as president of that corporation.

Mr. SHELTON. Could I talk to my counsel, please?

Mr. APPELL. Surely.

(Witness confers with counsel.)

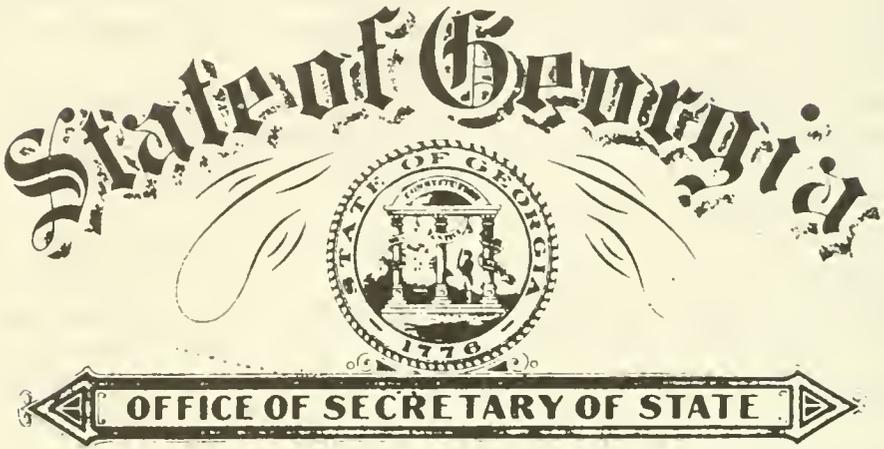

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to deliver to this committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 7, 1965—

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton—

Mr. SHELTON. —for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation, and the same will not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the Rules Committee, adopted by the 89th Congress, or House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I hereby certify that the above statement furnished the Secretary of State of Georgia for record, as required by law, is correct.

Signed by: Robert L. Shelton DATE: Sept 15 1961 TITLE: (OVER)

The CHAIRMAN. This document, as I understand, was not ordered to be produced here under subpoena. Is that right, Mr. Appell?

Mr. APPELL. I have only asked him whether this was a document, a copy of a document, which he filed with the secretary of state of Georgia. I have not asked for the production of any documents called for by his subpoena, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Thus far.

Mr. APPELL. Thus far; yes, sir.

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. SHELTON. I would like to call your attention to the scope of the investigation, as declining to deliver to the committee any records, documentations or otherwise, material requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 7, 1965, for that information is not relevant or germane to the subject under investigation, and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress or by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I ask that the witness be directed to answer the question.

The CHAIRMAN. Yes.

This document, the production and identification of this document, is completely germane and proper to the subject under inquiry and is part of the necessary material required to perform our duties in this investigation.

I, therefore, order and direct you to answer the question.

Let me tell you why I do that, why I use those words, so you can understand. You have counsel and you may take his advice. The decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States indicate and hold that when this committee concludes or determines that an answer to a question is proper that, to be perfectly frank about it, if the subject may result in a citation for contempt, that the witness must be directed to answer the question.

In other words, it is, in effect, a warning.

Mr. Witness, you are on thin ice. Your refusal to answer that question may lead to contempt citation. I will not have to repeat that over and over again, that there may be further implications.

Therefore, I order and direct you to answer that question.

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me under the amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Are you now specifically invoking the privileges of the fifth amendment?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I am invoking the privileges of the 5th amendment, the 1st amendment, the 4th amendment, and the 14th amendment of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Why?

Mr. SHELTON. I decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that it might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights, as is so stipulated and guaranteed to me in amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Do you honestly believe that to answer this simple question as to whether, in effect, you certified to the secretary of state or some other official in Georgia that you were president of a corporation would subject you to criminal prosecution, would tend to incriminate you?

Mr. SHELTON. Again I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reasons previously stated, because it is my honest and sincere feeling that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me under the amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14th of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. In view of the invocation of the fifth amendment, and your repeating it after I asked you if you honestly felt that it might tend to incriminate you, you, of course, are on solid ground. That is to say with respect to the invocation.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, I hand you—

The CHAIRMAN. That does not mean that you are not going to be questioned on all the things you were going to be questioned on, even with that answer.

Go on.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, I hand you a copy of a document obtained from the Office of Secretary of State, which is a charter application executed the 21st day of February 1961, with the incorporators listed in the document as Robert Day, George Sligh, William A. Daniel, Sr., and M. Wesley Morgan, Sr.

I ask you if this is the original incorporation paper of the organization with which you are now affiliated?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, again, is this question directed to me as an individual, or is it directed to me as an officer of a corporation?

Mr. APPELL. It is directed to you as the president of the corporation. (Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. SHELTON. May I further confer with my counsel, please?

The CHAIRMAN. You may.

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reasons that I honestly feel that any answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me under amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

(Document marked "Robert Shelton Exhibit No. 2." This exhibit will be reproduced in a forthcoming report on Klan organizations.)

The CHAIRMAN. Now ask him the question as an individual.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, with respect to the first document, you asked whether I asked you as an individual or in your corporate capacity, and also with respect to the second document, and I specifically directed it to your position as a corporate officer.

Now let me ask you again with respect to you as an individual and the document filed with the secretary of state, the annual registration certificate.

Did you as an individual file it?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reasons that I honestly feel that any answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Now with respect to the second document I handed you, I ask you whether or not that is the charter of an organization which you, as an individual, now head?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reasons that I honestly feel that any answer that I might give would tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me under amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, I now hand you a document, which is headed "Constitution And Laws Of The United Klans Of America, Inc., Knights Of The Ku Klux Klan."

I ask whether or not this is the constitution of an organization which you now head?

Mr. SHELTON. Could I refer to my counsel, please?

(Witness confers with counsel.)

(At this point Representative Ichord entered the hearing room.)

The CHAIRMAN. What is the pending question?

Mr. APPELL. Whether or not that is the Constitution and Laws of the order, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. That is a very simple question, Mr. Shelton. You have been fiddling with that book for a long time. I order and direct you to answer that question.

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reasons that I honestly feel that any answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Proceed.

Mr. APPELL. May I have the document?

The CHAIRMAN. Proceed. Ask the next question.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, this document states on its face "As amended, ratified and approved by the Imperial Kloucilium at Birmingham, Alabama, September, 1964."

The inside face of the back cover is imprinted, "By Proclamation of The Imperial Wizard, Robert M. Shelton," signed with a reproduced signature of Robert M. Shelton, "Imperial Wizard."

I would like to ask you, sir, whether or not that is your signature?

(Document handed to witness.)

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, is this question directed to me as an individual or is it directed to me as an officer of a corporation?

Mr. APPELL. In both capacities.

The CHAIRMAN. Both.

Mr. SHELTON. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reasons that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Do you feel that a proclamation signed by yourself as the Imperial Wizard incriminates you?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as is guaranteed to me by the amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. You are invoking your constitutional privileges, but I feel, and I suppose the committee does, too, that this is incredible. Proceed.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, did this document supersede a constitution and laws or manual put into effect when the organization was formed in July of 1961?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, is this question directed to me as an individual or is it directed to me as an officer of the corporation?

The CHAIRMAN. Let me ask you—maybe you have some kind of distinction that I don't catch—why do you ask that question?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me under the amendments No. 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. The committee cannot tolerate applauses or demonstrations, pro or con, in these hearings.

Let me say this is serious with me. I was trying to be fair with you. I have been a lawyer for 39 years. Maybe I miss the point.

Are you drawing a distinction? You are asking us to explain in what capacity we are questioning you. I thought I had missed the point.

Mr. APPELL. The subpoena served upon you by a United States marshal on October 11, 1965, called upon you to produce, and I will quote from the subpoena attachment:

All books, records, documents, correspondence and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and affiliated organizations, namely the Alabama Rescue Service, United Klansmen of America, Whiteman's Defense Fund, Christian News Service, in your possession, custody control, or maintained by or available to you as Imperial Wizard of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

That is part 1, Mr. Chairman, and I would like to ask for a production of those documents at this time, sir.

Mr. SHELTON. I respectfully decline to deliver to this committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 7, 1965, for that information is not relevant nor germane to the subject under investigation, and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid legislation or in any such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

The CHAIRMAN. I order and direct you to answer that question. Let me say, before the order, that the position of this committee is that these documents called for are very relevant, very pertinent, very appropriate and essential in connection with this investigation and, therefore, I overrule your refusal to respond to the subpoena.

So I order and direct you to answer that question.

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to turn over to this committee any records under subpoena for the reason that I honestly feel that any material that I might turn over would tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me under the amendments No. 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, do you refuse——

The CHAIRMAN. Wait a second.

As I understand, Mr. Appell, these documents that are being ordered to be produced by that subpoena, are being ordered to be produced by him as president of the corporation and as Imperial Wizard of that organization; is that correct?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Appell, your answer to my question is in the affirmative; is that correct?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. All right.

Now, Mr. Shelton, this subpoena is an order for you to produce documents in your possession in the capacity of president, as well as Imperial Wizard, of your organization. This has nothing to do with your refusal to answer a question. This is an order to produce documents pursuant to a subpoena duces tecum. Of course, the fifth amendment invocation is improper under these circumstances.

Furthermore, and for other reasons, why the invocation is improper is when documents are ordered to be produced before a court or before a committee, the court or the committee has a right to inspect those documents and find out more about their contents, their pertinency, their scope and nature and so forth.

Therefore, your invocation of the fifth amendment the Chair rules improper, and you are now ordered and directed to produce the documents requested and demanded by the subpoena in the capacity I have described.

Mr. APPELL. There is a direction to you, Mr. Shelton.

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to turn over any records, books, or materials so subpoenaed for the reason that I honestly feel that any material turned over might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, at the hour of 1:25 o'clock p.m. on the 11th day of October 1965, when you were served, were you the Imperial Wizard of the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reasons that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, part 2 of your subpoena called for you to produce:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by or available to you, in your capacity as Imperial Wizard of the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, which the "Constitution and Laws" of said organization authorize and require to be maintained by you and any other officer of said organization, the same being in your possession, custody or control.

Are you prepared to submit the documents called for by your Constitution and Laws?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to turn over any documents under the listing of the subpoena dated October 7, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that any such material might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me under amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I ask that the witness be directed to produce the documents called for by the Constitution and Laws.

The CHAIRMAN. I direct you to produce those documents.

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I decline to turn over any documents as listed by the subpoena of October 7, 1965, for I personally and honestly feel that any material that I might turn over to the committee would tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by the amendments No. 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. The last question referred to documents requested and ordered to be produced under part 2 of the subpoena. You understand that, do you, and my demand for production has to do with the documents referred to in part 2 of the subpoena?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reasons that I honestly feel that any answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. ASHBROOK. Mr. Chairman, I am sure that the witness is very proud to have committed such a long passage to memory. But to facilitate the hearings I suggest we inform him of his ability to invoke this by just referring to the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Yes, I might explain that to counsel.

It is usual, or not unusual, let's put it, in cases of repeated invocation of the fifth amendment, instead of literally repeating all the words, to say that he declines to answer on the grounds previously stated, if he wants to. It is up to him.

The CHAIRMAN. I just made a suggestion. You can act the way you want. I want to make it clear that the documents just referred to, required to be produced under part 2 of the subpoena which has been served upon you, and you are being asked to produce them both as president of the corporation and as Imperial Wizard of the United Klans of America.

I just want to make the record clear. The subpoena was directed to you in that capacity, as president and Imperial Wizard.

If you understand that, you don't have to repeat the invocation, but you may do it if you wish.

Do you understand that?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that the answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me under the amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Now, let me ask you this question: If the previous questions that were posed to you before we reached the subpoena had been addressed to you not only as an individual and an official, but also as an Imperial Wizard, would your answers have been the same?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that the answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. And I take it that the suggestion made a while ago, that instead of going through this ritual of reading the paper you have in front of you, that you might simply say that you decline to answer for reasons previously stated, is declined by you; is that correct?

Mr. SHELTON. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me under amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Am I to understand that your reason for not following my suggestion is that in addition to your refusing to answer by invoking repeatedly your privileges under the fifth amendment also involves an attitude of delaying the proceedings?

Mr. SHELTON. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me under amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. POOL. Mr. Chairman—

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Pool?

Mr. POOL. Have you advised other Klansmen throughout the country that they should not take the fifth amendment?

Mr. SHELTON. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reasons that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights—

Mr. POOL. It is all right for you to take the fifth—

Mr. SHELTON. —as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. POOL. In other words, it is all right for you to take the fifth amendment, but they shouldn't take it; they should come up and testify?

Mr. SHELTON. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that the answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. POOL. Well, is membership in the Ku Klux Klan considered by you to be a membership that will incriminate you?

Mr. SHELTON. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reasons that I honestly feel that the answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. POOL. All right, answer this question, if you will: Are you ashamed to be a member of the Ku Klux Klan?

Mr. SHELTON. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. POOL. And to that question—this is not a question but a statement—to that question, then, you took the fifth amendment.

The CHAIRMAN. All right, proceed.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, part 3 of your subpoena called for you to produce:

Copies of unexecuted forms relating to applications for membership, applications and issuance of charters; copies of Constitutions and By-Laws; manuals; and unexecuted forms and documents used by Kligrapps (Imperial, Realm and Klan or Klavern), and Klabees (Imperial, Realm and Klan or Klavern), Grand Dragons (Realm), Kleagles (Imperial, Realm, Province, and Klan, or Klavern); all of which are in your possession, custody or control, or available to you as Imperial Wizard of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and its affiliated organizations, the Alabama Rescue Service and United Klansmen of America, and which are used in connection with the business and affairs of said organizations.

I ask you to produce—I direct you to produce those documents.

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to produce these documents called for under this subpoena for the reason that I honestly feel that these documents might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I ask for a direction for the witness to produce the documents.

The CHAIRMAN. I order and direct you to produce those documents for the reasons I have already indicated.

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to produce these documents under question for the reason that I honestly feel that the answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, part 4 of your subpoena called upon you to produce:

Copies of U.S. Treasury Department, Internal Revenue Service, Form 1120, [which is titled] "U.S. Corporation Income Tax Return", for the fiscal years 1961 through June 30, 1965, filed by you as President and/or Imperial Wizard, United Klans of America, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., with the U.S. Treasury Department, Internal Revenue Service.

I direct you to produce those documents.

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to turn over these documents under subpoena for the reason that I honestly feel that these documents might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

(At this point Mr. Ashbrook returned to the hearing room.)

The CHAIRMAN. That demand is made upon you as president of the corporation, and as Imperial Wizard of the Klan. I order and direct you to produce those documents pursuant to that subpoena in that capacity.

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to produce these documents in question for the reason that I honestly feel they might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments, 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Supplemental to the reasons on which I ruled that your invocation is improper, I call to your attention, and to that of your counsel, decisions of the courts holding that if pertinent to the investigation, and this is pertinent, it is proper to subpoena from the taxpayer involved, or the president of the corporation, a copy of Federal income tax returns. I wanted to make that clear.

That case is U.S. versus O'Mara, 122 Fed. Supp. 399, and incidentally, it was a contempt citation case, contempt before a committee of Congress.

Proceed.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, part 5 of your subpoena attachment called for you to produce:

Copies of U.S. Treasury Department, Internal Revenue Service, Form 1040 [which is titled] "U.S. Individual Income Tax Return", for the calendar years 1958 through 1964, filed by you as an individual taxpayer with the U.S. Treasury Department, Internal Revenue Service.

I direct that you produce the documents at this time.

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to turn over this document in question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. I order and direct you to produce the documents.

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to produce these documents in question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Did you not, on October 14, 1965, in Hotel Stafford, Tuscaloosa, tell our investigator, Mr. Louis Russell, that you would not invoke the fifth amendment?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that it might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Did you not, as late as yesterday, in the company of the attorney next to you, call on the director of this committee, Mr. Francis McNamara, and then and there tell him—both you and your lawyer—that you would cooperate in every way possible with this committee?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. And may I say that I am not in the least reproaching your legal counsel's advice. I am seeking facts. I just want to say that. I know it was just told to me that counsel had said that he would, of course, have to protect the rights of his client, or words to that effect.

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, with the indulgence of the committee, I would like to refer to the Constitution and Laws of the order and those sections of the Constitution and Laws that places the responsibility upon the Imperial Wizard to do certain things and to carry out certain functions of his office.

Section 3, under the "Duties, Prerogatives and Powers of the Imperial Wizard," reads:

He shall issue charters for Klans, specify conditions on which charters shall be issued, and shall have the power to open and close charters of Klans at his discretion or upon request of a Klan. He shall have full authority and power to suspend or revoke charters of Klans, for cause.

Mr. Shelton, do you have communications relating, and documents relating, to the issue of charters?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by the amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Section 6 provides "he," referring to the Imperial Wizard, or as the Constitution and Laws say, the president—and "he" is used in the context of both president and Imperial Wizard:

He shall have full authority to issue decrees, edicts, mandates, rulings and instructions covering any matter not specifically set forth in this Constitution, or emphasizing any matter of this Constitution, and all such decrees, edicts, mandates, ruling and instructions must be respected and obeyed promptly and faithfully by all members of this Order on penalty of Suspension upon approval of the Imperial Board.

Do you have in your possession any decrees, edicts, mandates, rulings, or instructions issued by you?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Section 9 says "he," referring to the Imperial Wizard or president—shall have full power and authority to suspend from office at any time any officer of this Order, or any rank or station or capacity, or any employee whomsoever, on the ground of incompetency, disloyalty, neglect of duty, or for unbecoming conduct.

Do you have in your possession any documents relating to the suspension of any officer, member, or employee?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to produce any such documents in question for the reason that I honestly feel that my presentation of documents might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Section 10 provides "he," referring to the Imperial Wizard and president—shall have and hold full and original authority and power, office and title of "Supreme Kleagle."

As this Constitution and Laws describes the Supreme Kleagle as the Supreme Organizer, do you have any documents in your possession with respect to the organization or organizational activities of organizers or the establishment of realms?

Mr. SHELTON. May I speak with my counsel?

The CHAIRMAN. Yes.

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reasons that I honestly feel that the answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. In that connection, with reference to this series of questions, isn't it a fact that you have said many times that you didn't believe in violence, and if people engaged in violence that you had means of suspending or rejecting those members? And also is it not a fact that that is just a sham and you never have expelled any member because of violence even though you knew they had committed violence, and that is what the provisions in this document are talking about?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Section 11 provides "he," the Imperial Wizard or president—shall issue and sign all commissions or other credentials of this Order in promulgating same, and affix the Imperial Seal thereto; and he shall contract, in the name of this Order, with other members for its extension, financing, management, operation and business interests.

Do you have in your possession any documents related to and within Section 11?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that the answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, there are many other sections of the constitution which relate to the documents, decrees, and edicts issued by the Imperial Wizard or president. However, I shall now pass to that portion of the constitution which relates itself to financial documents.

Under Article XIII, which deals with paraphernalia, regalia, emblems, ensigns, and insignia, Section 3:

All articles, designs and things referred to or implied in Sections 1 and 2, above, and Article X, Section 7, of this Constitution, and all property, real and personal, shall ever be and remain the property of this Order and such supplies can only be procured from the Imperial Wizard by the required requisition therefor, and this also shall apply to all supplies used by any subordinate jurisdiction and any and all jewelry or other articles used by a member upon the approval of the Imperial Board.

Mr. Shelton, do you maintain records of receipts of money for sales of supplies to realms or to Klans or Klaverns within the realms?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. ASHBROOK. Mr. Chairman, could I ask a question at that point?

The CHAIRMAN. Yes.

Mr. ASHBROOK. Mr. Shelton, in your invitation to men to join your organization, which bears your picture and has your name, you make the following statement, which appears most interesting at this point. You say:

We will never cower before any master or bend to any threat. It is our heritage to stand erect, proud, and unafraid; to think and act for ourself; enjoy the benefits of our creation, and to face the world boldly and say: . . . This I have done!

It is your feeling that this is what you are doing at the present time, standing and facing the world boldly and saying, "This I have done!" or is this invitation for people to join the Klan, like most of what we have seen, just somewhat of a ruse?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reasons that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. The question before the one you declined to answer had to do with your maintenance of financial records, and to that you invoked the fifth amendment. Is fear of answer involving possible incrimination because of financial irregularities and failure properly to report your income to the Federal Government or the State of Alabama in your income tax returns?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reasons that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Have you, in fact, faithfully used and expended and utilized all funds coming to you as president of your corporation and as Imperial Wizard and spent it for purposes received, or have you, in fact, misappropriated any of those funds?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, Article XV, Section 1, says on revenues:

The revenues of this Order shall consist of: First, a per capita tax, which shall be known as the Imperial Tax, which shall be a sum of fifty cents ($.50) per month. Second, all profits realized from the placing of paraphernalia, regalia, supplies, jewelry, uniforms, costumes, stationery, and any and all other articles used in the work of this Order, or by any member. Third, all interest accruing [sic] on investments made by this Order.

Mr. Shelton, do you maintain financial records covered by Section 1, Article XV?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Shelton, I assure you this question has no religious connotations. I respect your rights in full under the Constitution, including your religious persuasion. But as a proper question in my opinion, under this investigation, I am compelled to ask you this question, as it is in my opinion perfectly proper:

You have, as part of your ritual an oath of allegiance which was quoted in part this morning and I will repeat part of it here:

"I, in the presence of God and Man—most solemnly pledge, promise and swear" that I will do thus and so, and it finally winds up, "I will die rather than divulge same—so help me God."

Yet in appearing before this committee you refused to take an oath and chose to affirm. I respected that right. In fact, I posed the proper opening form of oath. The question that comes to my mind is this:

It appears that you are willing to swear and cause all your members to swear—and I will put the word "swear" in quotes—with reference to Klan matters; yet you only affirmed here today. Is the reason that you consider an oath only with respect to the Klan, and thereby hold that oath above an oath in appearance before a congressional committee?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me under amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Isn't it a fact that according to the tenets of your Klan organization, that your primary obligation, your true allegiance, is to the Klan, above allegiance to your Government or anything else?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me under the amendments of 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Proceed.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, I hand you a series of oaths: Section I.—Obedience; Section II.—Secrecy; Section III.—Fidelity; Section IV.—[Klan]*ishness.

I ask you if these are the series of oaths administered to members of the United Klans of America.

The CHAIRMAN. I hope you will not invoke the fifth amendment on the ground of possible self-incrimination in referring to an oath.

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. I think I am going to direct you, and I hereby direct you, to answer that question.

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Now, I renew the suggestion I made a while ago that instead of going through that ritual—which by now you are reading faster, incidentally—instead of doing that, I offer again that you simply say that you decline to answer for reasons previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Do you accept that suggestion?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

(At this point Mr. Weltner returned to the hearing room.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, the series of oaths that I handed to you, did you, as an individual, ever take them? Were they ever administered to you as an individual?

Mr. SHELTON. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, you were asked about the receipt of money provided for by Section 1 of Article XV. Does the United Klans of America, Inc., as an organization, or yourself as an individual, maintain a bank account under the name of the Alabama Rescue Service at "The First National Bank of Tuscaloosa," Tuscaloosa, Alabama?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question on the grounds of the previous statement.

The CHAIRMAN. Oh? You decline to answer for reasons previously stated?

Mr. SHELTON. Heretofore stated.

(At this point Mr. Buchanan returned to the hearing room.)

The CHAIRMAN. That is fine.

Mr. SHELTON. That is, in my previous answer.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, the Committee on Un-American Activities has served subpoenas upon The First National Bank of Tuscaloosa for the production of certain books and records maintained under the name of Alabama Rescue Service.

The CHAIRMAN. Before you go into that, let me ask this question: Isn't the Alabama Rescue Service a plain front organization?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question on the grounds previously stated and included thereof.

The CHAIRMAN. And does not your organization and its various ramifications throughout the several States have several front organizations, such as clubs, gun clubs, and any number of others?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question on the previous grounds stated thereof.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, again before we get to the subpoena, were you interviewed by an agent of the Internal Revenue Service on 1 of 3 days, August 6, 7, or 8, 1963,¹ by Internal Revenue Service Agent Roy Heddy when you were accompanied by Mr. James R. Jones?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question on the grounds as previously stated and included thereof.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to read into the record a report furnished us by the Internal Revenue Service in respect to a request made of the President of the United States for permission to review certain tax records which the committee has the authority to do under Executive order. This memorandum, prepared by Albert B. Niemann, revenue officer, High Point, contains this paragraph:

Revenue Officer Heddy called me this morning stating he had conferred with Mr. Shelton and with Mr. Jones, and had received the following information. The Realm of North Carolina is simply a geographical subdivision of the National Chapter and is used only to identify a given area, i.e., the State of North Carolina. It is not an organization and has no funds, income or expense, therefore no returns are due. The North Carolina Rescue Service does not exist. Mr. Shelton stated that there is an Alabama Rescue Service which is simply a book-keeping function, wherein funds are placed in that name in the bank and disbursements made from that checking account—in the state of Alabama. No such checking account exists in the state of North Carolina, according to Mr. Shelton and Mr. Jones, therefore, no returns are due.

Mr. Shelton, is that a truthful reporting of an interview conducted of you and Grand Dragon Jones by Internal Revenue Agent Heddy?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds heretofore stated.

Mr. APPELL. As it was reported to us, is it correct?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds heretofore stated.

(Document marked "Robert Shelton Exhibit No. 5" and retained in committee files.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, in accordance with the subpoena served upon The First National Bank of Tuscaloosa, the committee has received records of the Alabama Rescue Service going back to May 13, 1963. Together with the production of documents called for, there were copies of signature cards.

Mr. Shelton, I hand you the first signature card containing the names of Fredrick G. Smith and Alvin B. Sisk and ask you whether or not they were officers of the United Klans of America using a book-keeping function known as the Alabama Rescue Service.

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectively decline to answer that question based on the grounds heretofore stated.

by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, Section 5 of Article X of the Constitution and Laws of the United Klans of America in dealing with the Imperial Klabee, or as the Constitution and Laws provide, the treasurer, the normal designation of a Klabee, or treasurer, does it not read this way:

Imperial Klabee: Is the Supreme Treasurer of this Order and is, therefore, the custodian of its funds, and he shall countersign all checks with the Imperial Wizard, and he shall make a full and complete report of his office to the regular Klonyokation each and every year.

Was Mr. Montgomery, T. M. Montgomery, the Klabee?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds of the statement expressed heretofore.

The CHAIRMAN. Was Mr. T. M. Montgomery a member of the Klan?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason based on the grounds that have been heretofore stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Where does he live?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds as heretofore stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Who is he?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds heretofore stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Did you not, on October 14, 1965, at the Hotel Stafford, in Tuscaloosa, ask our investigator, Mr. Louis Russell, whom you called upon rather than he calling upon you, if—

T. M. Montgomery was also to be subpoenaed since he had been questioned regarding this person by the F.B.I. He claimed to have told them that "this is for me to know and you to find out." He [Shelton] claimed that no one would ever know who T. M. Montgomery is.

Did you make that statement to our investigator, Louis Russell, in that hotel in Tuscaloosa on October 14?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds as heretofore stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, is it not a fact that T. M. Montgomery is not a man, but a woman?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds as heretofore stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, according to the bank records—

The CHAIRMAN. Wait a moment.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, is it not a fact that the signature "T. M. Montgomery" was executed by a woman, Mrs. Carol Long?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds heretofore stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, I now hand you—Mr. Shelton, was Mrs. Carol Long ever an employee in your office at 401 Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds heretofore stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, I hand you—

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Shelton, I must tell you that these questions are not a fishing expedition, that we have information that we expect to produce—full proof—that the T. M. Montgomery is not a man; that she is a woman, and she is the lady just identified by Mr. Appell. I want you to think about that.

Is your answer still the invocation of the fifth amendment?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly think that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, on May 14, 1964, a third signature card was filed with The First National Bank of Tuscaloosa, Tuscaloosa, Alabama, and this signature card contains the signatures of Robert M. Shelton and James J. Hendrix, with the designation following the name Hendrix, "Treas.," which I presume is the abbreviation of treasurer, with the address of "401 Alston Bldg., City."

The CHAIRMAN. And that is with reference to what bank?

Mr. APPELL. This is the bank account at The First National Bank, Tuscaloosa, Alabama, in the name of the Alabama Rescue Service, the same account we have been discussing with the two previous signature cards.

(Document handed to witness.)

The CHAIRMAN. Is the name James J. Hendricks or Hendrick?

Mr. APPELL. H-e-n-d-r-i-x.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Appell read to you a while ago the provision of your own Constitution and Laws to the effect that the treasurer or the individual required to countersign checks with you, or having the authority independently to draw checks, must be the treasurer of the United Klans of America.

Was James J. Hendrix the treasurer of your Klan organization?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds heretofore stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Was James J. Hendrix a member of the Klan?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds as heretofore stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Where does James J. Hendrix live?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds heretofore stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Is there such a person as James J. Hendrix?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds heretofore stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Isn't it true that James J. Hendrix is not a male, but a female—a lady?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds as heretofore stated.

The CHAIRMAN. I give you the privilege—I am not going to ask you—I give you the privilege of naming that lady.

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I—

The CHAIRMAN. And tell you before you answer that we have definite proof of who that lady is.

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reasons that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

(Witness confers with counsel.)

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Shelton, you will be excused for a moment, but you are ordered not to leave this room.

Mr. SHELTON. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Call your next witness, Mr. Appell.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I should like to call as the next witness Mrs. Carol Long.

The CHAIRMAN. Do you solemnly swear that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mrs. LONG. No, sir; I do not swear; I affirm.

The CHAIRMAN. Do you affirm?

Mrs. LONG. I certainly do.

The CHAIRMAN. Do you affirm that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, so help you God?

Mrs. LONG. I certainly do.

TESTIMONY OF CAROL LONG, ACCOMPANIED BY COUNSEL,
LESTER V. CHALMERS, JR.

Mr. APPELL. Will you state your full name for the record?

Mrs. LONG. Mrs. Carol Long.

Mr. APPELL. Are you represented by counsel?

Mr. CHALMERS. She is.

Mr. APPELL. Will you please identify yourself for the record?

Mr. CHALMERS. Lester V. Chalmers, Jr., attorney at law, 501 First Federal Building, Raleigh, North Carolina.

Mr. APPELL. Are you appearing before the committee this morning in accordance with a subpoena served upon you by a United States marshal at 11:55 o'clock a.m., the 11th day of October 1965?

Mrs. LONG. Yes, sir. I am not sure about the correct time.

Mr. APPELL. Mrs. Long, were you ever employed or did you ever receive income from the United Klans of America or Alabama Rescue Service?

Mrs. LONG. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights that are guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mrs. Long, I hand you a Recordak copy of a check drawn on the Alabama Rescue Service, Suite 401 Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama, drawn on The First National Bank of Tuscaloosa, Tuscaloosa, Alabama, dated 8-2-63, made payable to cash in the amount of $50 signed "Robert M. Shelton, T. M. Montgomery," and endorsed on the reverse thereof "Carol Long."

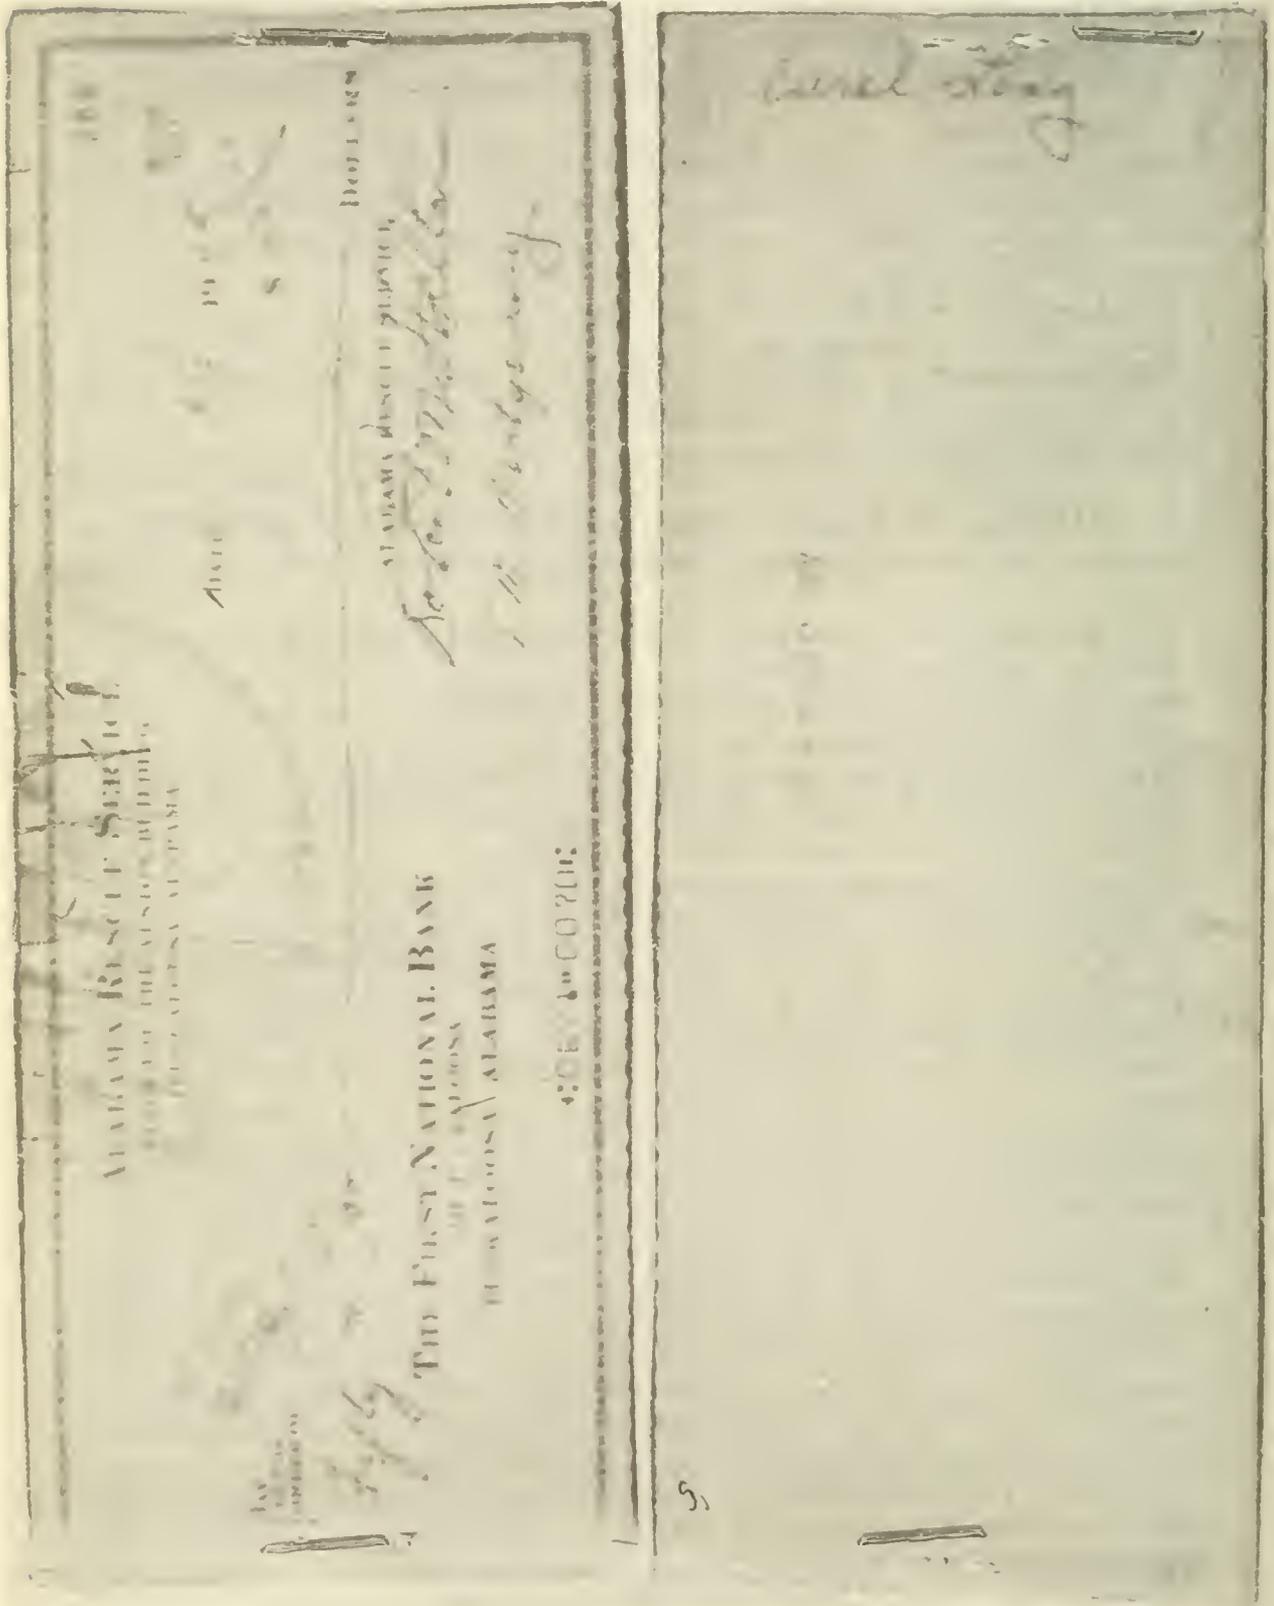

Would you examine that check and answer as to whether or not the endorsement on the reverse of the check, the name "Carol Long," was signed by you?

Mrs. LONG. I would like to consult my counsel.

Mrs. LONG. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.
 (Document marked "Carol Long Exhibit No. 1" follows:)

CAROL LONG EXHIBIT NO. 1

The CHAIRMAN. Mrs. Long, is it not a fact, an honest fact, that the signature "T. M. Montgomery," as a maker of the check, and the signature "Carol Long," as the endorser of the check, are one and the same handwriting?

Mrs. LONG. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights that are guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. I think I ought to tell you, because this may lead to just such things as you are talking about, that we will adduce in a few moments proof that it is the same handwriting.

Mrs. LONG. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights that are guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mrs. Long, were you ever employed by the Park Street Furniture Company?

Mrs. LONG. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Mrs. Long, I hand to you two documents, which are contracts for the purchases of appliances by customers of the "Park Street Furniture Co.," one dated 11-27-64, which shows that it was executed by Carol Long; the other dated 11-28-64 for a Philco washer which was purchased by Mr. Fred Montgomery. I ask you whether these contracts were executed by you in your hand.

Mrs. LONG. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights that are guaranteed me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America, sir.

Mr. CHALMERS. Mr. Chairman, I would like to call Rule XII to the attention of the chairman and to the other members of the committee and asked respectfully that Mrs. Shelton be accorded the provisions under Rule XII.

The CHAIRMAN. I will read the rule aloud:

The confidential relationship between husband and wife shall be respected and, for reasons of public policy, one spouse shall not be questioned concerning the activities of the other, except when a majority of the Committee or Subcommittee shall determine otherwise.

That is all right. We could have called a meeting with reference to Mrs. Shelton. We could have done it. We are not going to do it in this instance. We are not going to question her about activities of her husband. We are going to question her about her activities.

Mr. APPELL. Mrs. Shelton, are you appearing before the committee today in accordance with the subpoena served upon you at 11:20 a.m. on the 11th day of October 1965?

Mrs. SHELTON. About that time.

Mr. APPELL. Mrs. Shelton, have you ever been employed or worked in the offices of the United Klans of America, also known as the Alabama Rescue Service, Room 401, Alston Building, in Tuscaloosa?

Mrs. SHELTON. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. As a matter of fact, Mrs. Shelton, it was in that office that you and I first met; was it not?

Mrs. SHELTON. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mrs. Shelton, did you ever hear of, and know the identity of, T. M. Montgomery?

Mrs. SHELTON. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mrs. Shelton, I hand to you a copy of a signature card which the committee obtained through a subpoena from The First National Bank of Tuscaloosa, Alabama, showing that this signature card was made effective on May 14, 1964, for the Alabama Rescue Service, with signatures of "Robert M. Shelton; James J. Hendrix, Treas., 401 Alston Bldg., City."

I ask you if you signed the name "James J. Hendrix."

Mrs. SHELTON. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

(Document previously marked "Robert Shelton Exhibit No. 8." See p. 1622.)

Mr. APPELL. Mrs. Shelton, is it a fact that you did sign the name "James J. Hendrix"?

Mrs. SHELTON. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Isn't it a fact that there is no such person as James J. Hendrix?

Mrs. SHELTON. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Mrs. Shelton, you will be excused for a moment, but you are ordered to remain in the room.

Call your next witness.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to call Mr. Philip Schmitz.

The CHAIRMAN. Please raise your right hand.

Do you solemnly swear the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mr. SCHMITZ. I do.

TESTIMONY OF PHILIP L. SCHMITZ

Mr. APPELL. What is your name, sir?

Mr. SCHMITZ. Philip L. Schmitz.

Mr. APPELL. What is your business or occupation?

Mr. SCHMITZ. I am a documents analyst, sometimes referred to as a handwriting expert, for the U.S. Veterans' Administration in Washington, D.C.

Mr. APPELL. What are your duties as a documents analyst?

Mr. SCHMITZ. My duties involve the examination and comparison of handwriting, handprinting, typewriting, indented, obliterated writing, alterations, erasures, ink studies, and related material that concern the establishment of whether or not a document is genuine or fraudulent.

Mr. APPELL. What educational training and background have you received?

Mr. SCHMITZ. I have a bachelor of science degree from St. Thomas College, St. Paul, Minnesota, and have conducted studies and researches in this field of document examination for a period of over 20 years.

Mr. APPELL. What did you do in a special way to prepare yourself for the work you are now doing?

Mr. SCHMITZ. After graduation from college, I received an appointment with the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Washington, D.C. Shortly after entering the FBI, I was assigned to the Document Section of the FBI Laboratory, where I worked under the direct supervision of qualified document analysts.

During this time, I received the course of instruction, attended lectures and conferences, and conducted researches and studies on the subject, working on actual cases under the direct supervision of experienced document examiners.

After reaching a satisfactory degree of proficiency, I was appointed special agent for the FBI as a senior document identification specialist and was granted the right to testify as an expert witness in documents identification matters, representing the FBI and the U.S. Government.

I spent approximately 3 years in the U.S. Army as an investigator and later as an investigating officer. Since January of 1947, I have been with the Identification and Detection Division of the U.S. Veterans' Administration, doing the same type of work I did with the FBI. I have conducted lectures and prepared papers on this subject.

Mr. APPELL. As a matter of fact, Mr. Schmitz, did you not do much of the documents work for this committee in the Alger Hiss-Whittaker Chambers matter?

Mr. SCHMITZ. Yes, I did.

Mr. APPELL. Have you ever testified as an expert witness?

Mr. SCHMITZ. Yes; on many occasions I have been called to testify as an expert witness in this field. I have testified before the Federal district courts, both criminal and civil, in Washington, D.C. I testified in Massachusetts, New York, Alabama, Florida, California. I have testified before Veterans' Administration hearing boards in central office in Washington, D.C.; in Chicago, Illinois; Memphis, Tennessee. And on a number of occasions I have been called to testify, but defendant has entered a plea of guilty prior to my having the opportunity to actually take the stand.

Mr. APPELL. Are you a member of any recognized scientific society?

Mr. SCHMITZ. Yes; I am a fellow member of the American Academy of Forensic Sciences and was elected to the chairmanship of the Questioned Documents Section of that organization, which I considered a very high honor.

Only recently I was elected to regular membership in the American Society of Questioned Document Examiners, which is a very select group of well-qualified document examiners. This is an international society with a very limited membership. I believe it is about 37. I consider my election to this organization as one of the highest honors I have ever received.

Mr. APPELL. Have you assisted in training document analysts for foreign countries?

Mr. SCHMITZ. Yes. Our laboratory has assisted the AID, the Agency for International Development, in training document examiners from a number of foreign countries, including the Philippine Islands, Lebanon, Libya, Turkey, Thailand, Tunisia, Ethiopia, and Brazil. I believe there are about eight countries so far.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Schmitz, in connection with the committee's investigation into this matter, were numerous documents submitted to you for your examination for the purpose of attempting to identify the person who wrote the names "T. M. Montgomery" and "James J. Hendrix"?

Mr. SCHMITZ. That is true.

Mr. APPELL. From these documents, have you been able to establish the authorship of T. M. Montgomery and James J. Hendrix?

Mr. SCHMITZ. Yes, I have.

Mr. APPELL. Have you prepared certain documents and exhibits which you would like at this time to present for the consideration of the committee?

Mr. SCHMITZ. Yes.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to ask that the witness be given permission to proceed with his own slides and with his own explanation of those documents.

The CHAIRMAN. The witness will proceed.

Mr. SCHMITZ. Prior to the demonstration, I would just like to make one or two points. Handwriting identification is based on the principle that no two individuals write exactly alike. In order to actually make an identification, there must be a strong combination of similarities in handwriting and no unexplained major differences.

One person might ask the question: "How is handwriting identified?" It is not by general qualities, but by small, inconspicuous writing characteristics that each of us has in our own writing and as we write we are unaware that they exist.

If differences do occur, the question that must be answered by the examiner is: "Are they natural variations or are they wide divergencies which actually point to different writers?"

Natural variations are desirable, that is, desirable for an identification. Wide divergencies would point to a different writer.

I have prepared a chart which I would like to exhibit at his time. (Comparison Chart "A" as shown on slide appears opposite this page.)

Mr. SCHMITZ. In explaining this chart, this particular signature refers to an income tax form dated February 14, 1963 [indicating], a joint return submitted by Robert M. Shelton and Mrs. Betty L. Shelton. It has her known signature.

This signature [indicating] refers to an income tax form dated April 18, 1960, a joint return submitted by Betty L. Shelton and Robert M. Shelton.

This signature [indicating] refers or is contained on income tax form dated April 16, 1962. It is of the same variety.

The fourth item is a bank deposit slip at the First National Bank, Tuscaloosa, Alabama, and as you can see is dated April 27, 1964.

The fifth item is a bank deposit slip which is dated January 29, 1965. These are all listed under known writing. There is a separation in here.

On this side we have questioned writing. Beneath that we have the signature of "James J. Hendrix" as it appears on a bank signature card dated May 14, 1964, which was previously identified by Mr. Appell.

This signature of James J. Hendrix [indicating] appears on a check of the Alabama Rescue Service, check No. 640, dated April 2, 1965.

This signature [indicating] refers to a similar check of the Alabama Rescue Service, No. 502, dated August 25, 1964.

This final entry appears also on the same check, No. 502, in the body of the check, dated August 25, 1964.

In summarizing this chart, the three signatures at the top left were considered known since they appeared on the income tax forms of Betty L. Shelton. The bottom two signatures appear on bank deposit slips.

The writing on the top three signatures was compared with the writing on the bank deposit slips.

Then after identifying these two together [indicating], all of this writing was in turn compared with the questioned writing.

I would like to point out just a few points that are brought out in the identification of this writing.

The capital "M" in "Mrs." the center stroke, lower down, does not come down to meet the line as do the two outside strokes.

This similar type "M" appears also on the bank deposit slip, as you will notice, and also appears—

The CHAIRMAN. Pardon me, but isn't that "Robert M. Shelton"?

Mr. SCHMITZ. Robert M. Shelton; yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. We are talking about Betty.

Mr. SCHMITZ. This is a bank deposit slip. That is correct, sir. I am showing that Betty Lou Shelton made the deposit in the name of Robert M. Shelton.

The CHAIRMAN. In other words, what you are saying is that the name "Robert M. Shelton" was written by Mrs. Shelton?

Mr. SCHMITZ. This is what I am demonstrating; yes, sir.

So that "M" is comparable to the "M" in Robert M. Shelton, and the "M" in the latter signature of Robert M. Shelton.

Next I would like to point out the entire name "Shelton" as it appears in the first line, in the second line, in the third line, and especially compare this name "Shelton" with this name "Shelton" down here [indicating], and it is not very difficult to see the extreme similarity in the capital "S," the formation of the "h," especially the one down here [indicating], and the "e," the "l," and going across to the "ton." Take the "h," for example, as it appears in the first signature, and you see a high approach to the "h," forming this loop which stops at the lower right side.

A similar "h" appears in the second signature and also in the third signature, and a similar type "h" also appears down here in the fifth signature.

If we drop across over here to the word "Thirty," you will find a similar approach stroke, with the same type "h."

I would also like to point out that we have a variation in this "h," what we refer to as a natural variation, with it being just a little bit lower. But similar characteristics throughout the signature prove it is a natural variation.

Bringing to your attention the small "e" as it appears in Betty and in Shelton, and Betty in the second signature and in Shelton in the second signature, and Betty in the third signature and Shelton in the third signature.

Also in the fourth signature, we find the "e" in Robert, and we find in the fifth signature a small "e," especially in Shelton, and in Shelton in the fourth signature also.

Going over to this die, the "e" in Hendrix, the first entry on the right side; the "e" in Hendrix and the "e" in James, and the "e" in Hendrix and the "e" in James, and also the "e" in the word "hundred" [indicating].

The point I am trying to emphasize is that the "e's" are extremely small and extremely consistent throughout all of the writing.

Note next the "It" combination, which, if the "t" cross were eliminated, would be a double "l." You can see the loop in the "t." It is very consistent as it goes to the second signature and the third signature "Shelton."

It also appears in the fourth signature and also in the fifth signature.

It appears over on this side [indicating] in the word "Thirty." You will note the loop in the "T" in Thirty.

'And the small "o" in the word "Shelton," you will notice the loop on this is not a common type loop, but is a loop which is extremely on the right side and is quite wide.

It also appears down here in this name "Shelton," showing that the person who wrote the first one also wrote the fourth one. And it is in the fifth name "Shelton."

Now if you will take a look at the one on the right side, you will see it has the same identification, of the loop on the right.

And the small "n" as it appears in the second signature of Shelton also appears on the third signature, appears in the fourth signature, appears in the fifth signature and when we get to the sixth signature we have "Hendrix" where the same type of "n" is formed.

Down in this entry, you find the "n" appearing three times, once in "One," "Hundred," and the word "and," all three of them tying in with the same type.

Note the "Apr"—short for April—as it appears in the fourth entry and also appears in the third entry. It is not very difficult to see the extreme similarity in the formation of somewhat of a backhand formation.

Next take a look, if you will, at the capital "J" in January, and also note the initial "J" in James J. Hendrix. It is almost a retrace, a backhand retrace.

Then, if you will, note that it also occurs in this third signature of Hendrix on two occasions. It comes to a definite point.

Now let's take a look at the same "J" with the "a" combination, "Ja," and this is an extremely high identifying characteristic as the motion goes from the bottom of the "J," looping high into the top, into the "a."

You will notice that same type of approach going high into the top into the "a." It appears in this James J. Hendrix signature [indicating], in this one, and in this James J. Hendrix signature.

Another point is the capital "C" in City, as it appears in the fifth one on the left side, and also in the letters "GMAC." Incidentally, if I didn't mention before, this capital "M" appeared on this side in the first, and on this side, in the fifth one, and also in the GMAC.

Another point is the capital "H," which is quite consistent throughout. You will notice in the "H's" the loop on the "H" is very small and hugs in very tightly.

I ask you to note with that the similar type of approach to the capital "M," a small, hugging motion, and right in here [indicating] the same type of thing and also here, showing a very strong similarity.

Also you have the loop in "Mrs." in the name "Mrs. Betty L. Shelton."

Another point is the small "d" as in Hendrix. You can see the "d" that appears there [indicating], and it also appears here in very similar formation, it appears here in very similar formation [indicating], and then down here you find the same type of "d" on three occasions, in "Hundred," twice, and at the end of the word "and."

Finally, one little note is the "y" in "Betty," compared with the "y" in "Thirty," a crossover mark, not a rounded loop, but a crossover mark.

Without going into further characteristics, I concluded as a result of this study that all of the writing on the documents that are depicted here was written by one person, namely, Betty Lou Shelton, whose known handwriting specimens appear on the income tax forms.

I have prepared a second chart comparable to the first one in most respects.

Mr. SCIMITZ. I would like to explain the source of the signatures on this chart. The first signature—

The CHAIRMAN. This has reference to Carol H. Long?

Mr. SCIMITZ. That is correct; yes, sir.

The first signature was obtained from the Park Street Furniture Company, slip No. 1375, which is dated 11-28-64.

The second signature appears on the income tax form of Carol H. Long, dated April 14, 1965.

The third entry was taken from the furniture slip No. 1375, the same as the first signature was.

The fourth entry, this "TV" was taken from furniture slip No. 1939, dated November 27, 1964.

The fifth entry, "by Carol Long," also appeared on furniture slip No. 1939. These are all listed under known writing of Carol Long.

Under questioned writing, we have the signature "T. M. Montgomery" which appears on the bank signature card of The First National Bank of Tuscaloosa, Alabama, previously identified.

The second entry "T. M. Montgomery" and the date on the right, 8-2-63, were taken from a check of the Alabama Rescue Service, Tuscaloosa, Alabama. The third entry is taken from check No. 344, dated 12-5-63, of the Alabama Rescue Service, Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

The next entry is from check No. 353, dated 12-19-63, of the Alabama Rescue Service, Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

The first entry on the last line of the right side is from check No. 344, which is the same as the third line, which is dated 12-5-63. This entry next to it of "Fifty" was taken from check No. 284, the same as the second one, the second line.

And the final entry on the last line was taken from check No. 346, dated 12-6-63, of the Alabama Rescue Service.

Now that they have been identified, I would like to point out first of all what I imagine people are able to observe as handwriting characteristics and draw their own conclusions.

However, I would like to point out those similarities in handwriting characteristics.

First, I would like to point out, comparing this known signature of Fred Montgomery which was written by Carol Long with the questioned signature of T. M. Montgomery as it appeared on the bank signature card, and running a cross comparison, first note the capital "M," the approach to the capital "M," and the formation of the letter there, and as it appears over here on questioned, the similarity is tremendous, the loop, the center part, where it doesn't extend to the bottom, the third loop, the rounded portions at the top, and the rounded portions at the lower right side. That also appears in this approach to the "M" in the second line. You have a similar approach to "Montgomery" in the third line, you have a similar approach to "Montgomery" in the signature on the fourth line.

The small "o," which, as you will recall, in the previous chart looped off to the right, this individual has a different handwriting characteristic, namely, it is a large loop and loops at the top of the "o." It is quite evident here in Montgomery, twice on the first line of known writing, and is evident in the second line, in Carol.

It is evident on the fourth line in the word "Carol," where it is very heavy.

It is also evident up here twice in this "o" in Montgomery and this "o" in Montgomery [indicating], and in the second line it is evident in this "o" and this "o" [indicating].

The next point to bring out would be the small letter "n" as it appears in the second line on the known side, in the name "Long," and in the fourth line in the name "Long."

It appears over here in Montgomery in the first line. You will notice the same type of an "n," a large loop and then a second loop. You will also notice it on the second line in Montgomery.

May I also point out that we have variations. And this is what we look for in document identification, natural variation.

There is the small "n" as it appears in signature number one, which also appears in signature number seven and also in number eight, somewhat of a variation. However, they are consistent.

Next note, if you will, the small "t." The cross of the "t" is extremely low in comparison to where the average individual does, and it also appears the same over on the right side. It is present in this "t" in Montgomery, in this "t," and in this "t" in Montgomery [indicating].

The "g" is very long, and the "y" in Montgomery. You will notice a similar formation at bottom, a looping stroke, very large. Not a straight stroke and back up again, but a large looping stroke.

It appears here in Long and in the "g" and in the "y" in Montgomery. It also appears down here in the name of Long.

Over here in questioned, it appears once here [indicating], once here, and once here, in the sixth, seventh, and eighth [indicating].

There is also variation in the "y," if you will see here the word "By," where it is a little elongated. But you have a similar type "y" over here as it appears in the word "Fifty." It shows it is consistent in both the known and the questioned writing.

Next is something that some people don't stop to think about, the formation of the lower part of the "g" in comparison to the lower part of the "y." If you were to put a line there you would see a downhill motion, a downhill trend.

In other words, the "y" end is lower than the "g." If you will take a look at all of the Montgomery signatures the "y" is lower than the "g," the "y" is lower than the "g," the "y" is lower than the "g," the "y" is lower than the "g" [indicating], consistently.

A point or two more to make: A capital "F" in Fred compares with the capital "F" in the word "Fifty."

The capital "T" in TV, a printed "T," which gives a sheltered or umbrella-type effect over the "V" which is beneath it, and then notice the "T" in T. M. Montgomery, which gives the same sheltered effect [indicating], and also the "T" in the word "Twelve," the same type of effect.

Other "T's" I would like you to note also where you have a somewhat similar effect, which is an angle. It is not a horizontal line, but it is on an angle, a lower left and going up to the right, higher, with the crossbar with the same features. Also, you will notice that they are off center. Actually, the right side of the "T" cross is longer than the left side.

Finally, one other point I would like to emphasize is this particular habit of this individual in preparing a diagonal for the date. If you will notice, it looks more like a reverse motion "P" than anything else, but it is a very consistent habit, and it goes right along with the habit of making a capital "L," the first stroke of the capital "L" and the first stroke of the diagonal. You will notice that it occurs here and here [indicating] on her income tax form, and it also occurs on the Park Furniture Company form and in the name "Long." It occurs twice on the income tax form.

And it occurs over here on the right side, if you will notice, the date of 8-2, 12-5, and down here [indicating] and down here [indicating], the diagonals.

So there are sufficient handwriting characteristics present, and I think it is only right to conclude that all of the writing on the documents under the questioned area was written by the same person, namely, Carol H. Long, who prepared the writing on the opposite side of the document.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Schmitz, can you summarize that which you have detailed as a conclusion, an expert conclusion, which you have arrived at with respect to the signature of James J. Hendrix?

Mr. SCHMITZ. Yes, I believe so. I reached the conclusion that the signatures "James J. Hendrix" appearing on the signature card which was stamp-dated May 14, 1964, of the First National Bank, Tuscaloosa, Alabama, and also appearing on Alabama Rescue Service check number 502, dated 8-25-64, and on Alabama Rescue Service check number 640, dated April 2, 1965, were all written by Betty Lou Shelton, whose known handwriting appears on income tax forms dated April 18, 1960, April 16, 1962, and February 14, 1963.

I reached a further conclusion that Betty Lou Shelton also prepared handwritten entries on deposit slips dated April 27, 1964, January 29, 1965, as well as handwritten entries and signatures of James J. Hendrix on numerous other checks of the Alabama Rescue Service.

Mr. APPELL. Have you arrived at a conclusion which may summarize your detailed explanation with respect to the signature "T. M. Montgomery"?

Mr. SCHMITZ. Yes. I reached the conclusion that the signatures "T. M. Montgomery" on the signature card of The First National Bank of Tuscaloosa, Alabama, for the Alabama Rescue Service, which card was undated, and the signatures "T. M. Montgomery" on check number 284, dated 8-2-63, check number 344, dated 12-5-63, and check number 353, dated 12-19-63, all of the Alabama Rescue Service, were written by Carol H. Long, whose known writing appears on income tax form of April 14, 1965, as well as on Park Street Furniture Company agreement form number 1939, which is dated November 27, 1964, and on 1375, which was dated November 28, 1964.

I reached the additional conclusion that Carol Long wrote the signatures "T. M. Montgomery" on numerous other checks of the Alabama Rescue Service and also prepared handwritten entries on many of these checks.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I have no further questions to ask of Mr. Schmitz.

Mr. WELTNER. I have a question or two.

The CHAIRMAN. Proceed.

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Schmitz, is there any doubt in your mind whatsoever concerning the conclusions you have just stated?

Mr. SCHMITZ. None whatsoever.

Mr. WELTNER. You have stated, then, as an expert, that there is no room for any erroneous interpretation or conclusion on your part, and you are stating as a fact that these signatures, as you mentioned, were affixed to documents by the same persons?

Mr. SCHMITZ. This is my reasoned judgment.

Mr. WELTNER. Thank you, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you very much.

I want to again thank Tecnifax Corporation for providing their facilities to make these exhibits possible.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like that these exhibits of Mr. Schmitz be made a part of the record.

The CHAIRMAN. That will be done.

The committee will now stand in recess for a few minutes.

(A brief recess was taken from 4:10 p.m. to 4:15 p.m. All subcommittee members were present at time of recess and when hearings resumed. Representative Senner was also present when hearings resumed.)

The CHAIRMAN. The committee will please come to order.

It is now well past 4 o'clock, and inasmuch as we will be going into other areas of inquiry and evidence, the committee, during the recess, has voted to recess at this time until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Mr. Shelton, you will return here tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Mrs. Shelton and Mrs. Long, if you desire to go back to Alabama, you are excused, if you want to be excused. You can come tomorrow or not come, as you wish, but Mr. Shelton will return at 10 o'clock and he is still under subpena.

The committee is in recess until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

(Members present at time of recess: Representatives Willis, Pool, Weltner, Ashbrook, and Buchanan, of the subcommittee, and also Representative Senner.)

(Whereupon, at 4:16 p.m., Tuesday, October 19, 1965, the subcommittee recessed, to reconvene at 10 a.m., Wednesday, October 20, 1965.)

TESTIMONY OF ROBERT MARVIN SHELTON, ACCOMPANIED BY COUNSEL, LESTER V. CHALMERS, JR.—Resumed

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, would you give the committee a brief résumé of your educational background?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reasons that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. This is just preliminary and background information. I order and direct you to answer that question.

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reasons that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, would you give the committee a brief résumé of your employment background?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, as the Imperial Wizard or president of the United Klans of America, Inc., the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, by a vote of a kloncilium or by a vote of a klonvokation, were you given a guaranteed salary for the office that you held?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, the money that came to you in the form of the imperial tax paid by Klans or Klaverns within your jurisdiction, and placed into a bank account known in the name of the Alabama Rescue Service, was this account yours to do with as you pleased, or were you under any supervision and control with respect to the disbursement of that money by either the Kloncilium or the klonvokation?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reasons that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, the Washington Post of October 17, 1965, contained a story by Paul Good, datelined Atlanta, Georgia, which related to a rally held there, I assume last weekend. This article quotes Calvin F. Craig, whom we believe to be the Grand Dragon of the State of Georgia—I will ask you, Is he your Grand Dragon for the State of Georgia?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Consitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, the Washington Post quoted Mr. Craig as saying that he drives a Falcon and says that a Cadillac driven by Imperial Wizard Shelton is Klan property.

May I ask you, Is that car registered in the name of the Klan?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

(Document marked "Robert Shelton Exhibit No. 9" and retained in committee files.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, the committee's investigation uncovered the fact that in December of 1962 you purchased a 1963 Grand Prix Pontiac from Stansell Pontiac-Cadillac, Inc.; that the cost of this car was $4,728 and that you paid $986 cash, leaving a balance of $3,742; that you financed this car with GMAC with insurance and finance charges making a total indebtedness to GMAC of $4,900 payable in 36 equal installments of $136.33; and that the present outstanding balance is $681.65.

On the 14th of November 1964, a 1961 Cadillac sedan was substituted for the Pontiac.

Were the checks, payments on the Pontiac, and the Cadillac when it was substituted for the Pontiac, paid for from the funds of the United Klans of America in the name of the Alabama Rescue Service and drawn by checks against that account?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds heretofore stated.

Mr. APPELL. Isn't it a fact that the automobile is not registered in the name of the United Klans of America?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds heretofore stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, an analysis of the account shows that hundreds of dollars were disbursed from this fund to a company known as the Lorch's Diamond Shop. Can you tell me what that money purchased?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reasons that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

(Analysis of Alabama Rescue Service bank account marked "Robert Shelton Exhibit No. 10" and retained in committee files. Records from Lorch's Diamond Shop introduced in record on Oct. 25, 1965, marked "Robert Shelton Exhibit 10-A" follow:)

I do hereby constitute and appoint my wife as my attorney in fact, for me and my stead, to hereinafter purchase such merchandise as she may see fit from Lorch's Diamond Shop, and to execute for me and in my name a sales contract similar to this one covering such purchase.

Signed Mrs. Betty Shelton

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, this analysis of the checks drawn against that account shows that a sum in excess of $5,600 was drawn to cash, and endorsements on the reverse of those checks show that they were cashed at Piggly-Wiggly Stores, cashed at service stations, and cashed at other places. Can you explain to us the number of checks for cash and why they were all drawn for cash?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, it is the committee's—

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Shelton, why is it, in answer to one or two previous questions you invoked the privilege of the fifth amendment by saying that you relied on the grounds previously stated, and as we now go along you are repeating from the piece of paper you are reading from?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. I might say that there are reasons for me to ask that question. I deliberately noticed when you did it.

Proceed.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, it is the committee's information that the United Klans of America, Inc., files with the Internal Revenue Service a corporate tax return on a fiscal year basis from July 1 of one year to June 30th of the following year.

It is a fact that on July 29, 1965, you, signing as "President" of the United Klans of America, filed the corporate tax return?

Mr. SHELTON. May I counsel, please?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reasons that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, isn't it a fact that on this corporate return you showed income from all sources of $18,487.60?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, an analysis of the United Klan bank account at The First National Bank of Tuscaloosa, which is carried under the name of the Alabama Rescue Service, shows that there were checks written against that account in the amount of $18,036.95.

Do you mean to tell me that the difference of that, which is approximately $450, is all of the income that the Klan received in all of its realms? As you told the Internal Revenue agent, as I quoted to you yesterday, these are just geographical subdivisions, so that any income they had it was your responsibility to report. Do you mean to tell me that their income was only what you report here, the difference of $450?

Mr. SHELTON. May I counsel?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reasons that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, are you acquainted with an organization known as Heritage Enterprises, Inc?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reasons that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to have entered into the record at this point a certified copy of the Certificate of Incorporation of Heritage Enterprises, Inc.

The CHAIRMAN. It will be admitted into the record at this point.

Mr. APPELL. This document, Mr. Chairman, is dated December 5, 1963, and it shows as the officers and directors of the corporation—and I would like to quote from the page that contains this information:

The names and post office addresses of the directors chosen for the first year are as follows:

| Name | Address |
|----------------------|---|
| Robert M. Shelton | 1708 East 15th Street, Tuscaloosa, Alabama |
| William Otto Perkins | Route # 1, Northport, Alabama |
| Donald E. Luna | 4315—51 Avenue North, Birmingham, Alabama |
| R. J. W. Kimble, Jr. | 1309 Panorama Drive Vestavia Hills, Birmingham, Alabama |
| Calvin Fred Craig | 772 Pearce Street S.W., Atlanta, Georgia |

Mr. Shelton, isn't it a fact that all of the men whose names I have read to you, with the exception of Mr. Kimble, are members of the Ku Klux Klan?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, under the subscription list of capital stocks of the Heritage Enterprises, Inc., I find the following: Donald E. Luna, 115 shares, $1,150; R. J. W. Kimble, Jr., 55 shares, $550; William Otto Perkins, 25 shares, $250.

I wish to ask you, Is not this a false accounting of shares recorded by the corporation?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Did you receive a $150 advance from Mr. Kimble after the advancement of the idea of the Heritage Enterprises, Inc.?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. As a matter of fact, Mr. Shelton, in order to kick off this Heritage Enterprises, Inc., did you not call a klonvokation to be held at the Dinkler-Tutwiler Hotel in Birmingham, Alabama, in February 1964?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to enter into the record at this point copies of three letters, one dated December 31, 1963, addressed to Mr. Don Luna, Suite 401, Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama; another dated January 3, 1964, to Mr. Luna, at the same address; and a letter dated January 29, 1964, addressed to Mr. Robert [Bob] Shelton at the same address.

These letters are from the Catering Manager of the Dinkler-Tutwiler Hotel in Birmingham, Alabama.

I would like to just quote for the record the first paragraph to the letter to Mr. Shelton dated January 29, 1964:

We are pleased to confirm our Grand Ballroom for your Banquet on February 8th, and your meeting on February 9th.

The CHAIRMAN. The letters will be admitted into the record at this point.

(Documents marked "Robert Shelton Exhibits Nos. 13-A through 13-C," respectively, and retained in committee files.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, as a part of the 2-day meeting, part of which was social and part of which was official Klan business, did you not present to the people assembled, Mr. Kimble, who operated an insurance agency in Bessemer, Alabama, and a man by the name of Harry Richardson, who was representing the Continental Assurance Company, for them to give sales pitches to your assembled delegates in the interest of this policy?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. In connection with your arrangements with Mr. Richardson and the Continental Assurance Company, didn't you sort of become the adviser to him on representatives in each State to handle the health-life policies which were going to be underwritten by the Continental Assurance Company?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to enter into the record at this point a letter dated March 15, 1964, addressed to Mr. Robert Shelton, at 401 Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama, which, in turn, was forwarded to Mr. Harry Richardson and which contains the following note at the bottom of the original letter: "Write this man a [sic] make Arrangements for meeting with Dr. Edwards to set up Insurance Program for La.," Signed "Bob."

I would like to ask you, sir, is that your signature and your handwriting?

(Document handed to witness.)

(Document marked "Robert Shelton Exhibit No. 14" appears on p. 1649.)

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Shelton, I notice that you are wearing a button in your lapel. I would like to give you the privilege of explaining that, if you want to.

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, at the February meeting at the Dinkler-Tutwiler Hotel, did you assemble your Grand Dragons from various areas and other delegates to a klonvokation?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, as a matter of fact, because you made the arrangements for the banquet facilities, was your suite of rooms gratis?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, the committee subpoenaed from the Dinkler-Tutwiler Hotel all records in their possession with respect to registration of guests. And I have, and would like to enter into the record at this point, the original registration cards of Robert M. Shelton and Raymond R. Anderson—and I ask you, Mr. Shelton, at that time whether he was your Grand Dragon from Tennessee.

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. I note, Mr. Chairman, that Mr. Anderson's registration includes Mrs., also.

ROBERT SHELTON EXHIBIT NO. 14

Jonesboro, Louisiana

March 15, 1964

Mr. Robert Shelton
401 Alston Building
Tuscaloosa, Alabama

Dear Bob,

John Bates and Leamon Hodnett advised me to write to you concerning the possibility of establishing the general agency for the Heritage Insurance Comrany.

I have been interested in this concern since you mentioned the ooperation on one of your recent trips to Louisiana. At the present time I am licensed to sell Pan-American and Vulcan lines of ordinary life insurance. I have had some experience in the fire and casualty business when I worked for my father's agency during high school and college.

My regular employment is the Assistant Cashier at the Jackson Parish Bank and I handle the credit life insurance department in addition to other bank duties. The Pan American and Vulcan is my own personal line of insurance.

If it is possible to do so I would like to get together with a representative of the Heritage Insurance Company and see if there is something we can work out in the way of a general agency. I am not experienced in the way of getting state charters and such but I am willing to learn both for the organization and my own benefit.

John tells me that you plan a trip to Louisiana in a couple of weeks or so and if it is possible I would like to see you in connection with this business.

If you should come to Jonesboro and don't find John or Leamon right away call me at the bank phone 3394 or my house 3959.

Sincerely,

David F. Stinson

Mr. APPELL. Another original registration at the hotel is J. R. Jones. Is James R. Jones your Grand Dragon from the State of North Carolina?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Another registration for the same dates in February is Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Scoggin. Was R. E. Scoggin your Grand Dragon for South Carolina at that time?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. At the klonvokation that was held there, were not elections held for certain offices on the imperial staff?

Mr. APPELL. Was Mr. Robert Thompson, of Georgia, elected Imperial Klaliff, or vice president, at that meeting?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Was Mr. W. O. Perkins, whom we have just mentioned in connection with the Heritage Enterprises, Inc., papers elected as Kligrapp, or imperial secretary, at that meeting?

Mr. APPELL. Was Mr. Fredrick Smith elected Imperial Klabeer or imperial treasurer at that meeting?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, at the same hotel in September of 1964 did you hold another klonvokation?

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to enter into the record at this point a letter dated June 23, 1964, on the letterhead of the United Klans of America, Inc., Suite 401, The Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama, Office of the Imperial Wizard. [Reads full text of letter.]

Dear Mr. Marcel:

We would like to have a confirmation on the date we previously agreed on February 9th about September 5th and 6th for our banquet and convention.

RLS:bs

Mr. APPELL. Under the same subpoena of the Dinkler-Tutwiler Hotel we received original copies of hotel registrations and, in the case of this meeting, cards which were printed by the Dinkler-Tutwiler Hotel which were distributed to the United Klans of America for them to make advance reservations.

I would like to enter at this point the original registration of Mr. Robert M. Shelton, which shows the stamped date of September 4, 1964; Mr. Raymond R. Anderson, who, according to the registration form, was accompanied by Mr. Claude L. Abbott, dated September 5, 1964; the original request for a reservation, and I would like, Mr. Chairman, to read this. It is a printed form, printed, as I said earlier, by the Dinkler-Tutwiler Hotel. It states on the top:

"Make Your Hotel Reservations Now!" and there is printed:

"I will be attending the convention of" followed by a blank space, which this card has filled in as the Alabama Rescue Service.

"I will arrive Friday, the 4th [approximately] 11 p.m. I will depart Sunday the 6th [approximately] 5 p.m. Reserve for me the following accommodations: double bedroom," with the typed signature, "J. M. Edwards, 424 6th St., Jonesboro, Louisiana."

I also attach to this as part of the same exhibit the original registration card of Dr. and Mrs. James M. Edwards.

(Documents marked "Robert Shelton Exhibits Nos. 18-A through 18-D," respectively, appear on pp. 1656, 1657.)

Mr. APPELL. I ask if Dr. Edwards is your Grand Dragon for Louisiana.

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I feel my answer may tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to enter into evidence a request for—

The CHAIRMAN. Have you already placed the last documents into the record?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Very well.

Mr. APPELL. I would like to enter into evidence at this point, Mr. Chairman, a request for hotel accommodations for the purpose of attending the Alabama Rescue Service, with the indication that the party intended to arrive on August 2 and claims to leave August 5. It is signed by James R. Jones, P. O. Box 321, Granite Quarry, North Carolina.

I have attached as part of the exhibit the original registration of Mr. Jones, which shows that he checked in at 10:28 on September 2, 1964.

Was Mr. Jones in September your Grand Dragon for the State of North Carolina?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

(Documents marked "Robert Shelton Exhibits Nos. 19-A and 19-B," respectively, appear on p. 1658.)

Mr. APPELL. I would like to enter into the record at this point, Mr. Chairman, a request for hotel accommodations for the purpose of attending the Alabama Rescue Service convention, signed E. L. McDaniel, 2156 Second Street, Natchez, Mississippi, and the original registration card is stamped September 5, 1964.

Was E. L. McDaniel your Grand Dragon for the State of Mississippi at the time he registered in the hotel on September 5?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer right tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. During the business part of this convention, Mr. Shelton, were there additional elections to imperial office of the organization which you call the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, but which is chartered the "Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc.," additional elections to the imperial staff, imperial offices?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. As a matter of fact, Mr. Shelton, weren't you re-elected at this klonvokation unopposed?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me under amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Was there also elected to the imperial level at this klonvokation as the Klokard Mr. Robert Collins of Birmingham, Alabama?

Mr. SHELTON. May I counsel?

Mr. SHELTON. Would you repeat the question?

Mr. APPELL. Was Mr. Robert Collins, of Birmingham, Alabama, elected as Klokard?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, it is the committee's information, based on its investigation, that also elected to the imperial staff at that time, and I shall name all of the officers before I ask you the question:

As the Imperial Kludd or chaplain, the Reverend George Dorsett, from North Carolina; as the Imperial Kladd, Mr. Robert Hudgins, of Raleigh, North Carolina; as the Imperial Klarogo or inner guard, Mr. Walter Brown, of Sumter, South Carolina; as the Imperial Klexter, Mr. Robert Korman, of Miami, Florida; as the Imperial Night-Hawk, Dr. Amos Pedigo.

Were those men elected at that klonvokation?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, as a result of a demand by the secretary of state of North Carolina, did you execute on July 2 and file with the secretary of state of North Carolina on July 7 an Application for Certificate of Authority for a foreign corporation to do business in the State of North Carolina?

Mr. SHELTON. May I counsel, please?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. The form required by the State of North Carolina under section 7 calls for the names and addresses of all of the directors and officers of the corporation.

This application, Mr. Chairman, was filed in the name of the "Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc.," setting forth that it was a Georgia corporation.

The CHAIRMAN. Are the officers named?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, they are named.

The CHAIRMAN. Name them and ask the question.

Mr. APPELL. The names listed are "Robert M. Shelton, President; Mr. Melvin Sexton, Secretary; Mr. Robert Thompson, Vice-President; Mr. W. O. Perkin,¹ Treasurer."

I would like to ask, due to the fact that your constitution calls for 16 officers, why you did not fully comply with the North Carolina law and set forth all of the officers and directors as this document called for?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to ask that a copy of this certification be made a part of the record at this point.

The CHAIRMAN. The document is admitted, but before its admission, the reservations and all previous documents, if they have not already been offered, will be received in evidence as they were respectively referred to.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, I note here that Mr. Melvin Sexton is listed as secretary, and I also note in the corporate return filed in July of 1965 with the Internal Revenue Service that Melvin Sexton signs as secretary.

When and under what circumstances did he replace Mr. W. O. Perkins as the Kligrapp or secretary of the organization?

Mr. SHELTON. May I counsel?

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, would you repeat the question, please?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir. I said that Mr. Melvin Sexton is shown on this document and is also shown on the corporate return filed in July 1965 as secretary.

I would like to know when he replaced Mr. W. O. Perkins as secretary, imperial secretary, or Imperial Kligrapp.

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Did this action happen at the same time Mr. Perkins replaced Mr. Smith as treasurer?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, would you repeat that question, please?

Mr. APPELL. Yes. Isn't it true that you were separated from service because of your request for a hardship discharge because of the need to help your parents operate a grocery store on July 9, 1951, and isn't it a further fact that you returned to your employment as a tirebuilder or tireworker at the Goodrich Tire & Rubber Company, Tuscaloosa, Alabama, on August 7, less than 30 days after your discharge?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. And this was when a lot of our boys were losing—

The CHAIRMAN. Proceed with the next question.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, are you the holder of a citizens band raido license?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to enter into the record at this point an application for a citizens band license, Class D, signed by Robert M. Shelton, notarized by Alvin B. Sisk, whose name we discussed yesterday in connection with the first signature card of the Alabama Rescue Service.

I would like to read from this form: "How is radio to be used in connection with applicant's business or personal activities?" And there is stated thereunder: "To be used in connection with Emergency rescue activities."

Item 9 is an addendum to the original form. It is amended to read as follows:

This radio equipment is to be used in connection with my personal activities and business. I am in the business of selling two-way radio equipment to customers in this area. I conduct my business under my own name.

There was requested permission to operate six mobile units.

Is that a truthful application, Mr. Shelton?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, would you repeat that question?

Mr. APPELL. Is that a truthful application?

Mr. SHELTON. Would you repeat the question concerned?

Mr. APPELL. I will show you the document and ask you to look at the entries on it, and answer if the application was truthfully executed.

(Document handed to witness.)

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Shelton, did you ever engage in individual rescue service?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Isn't it a fact that you misstated—to use a harsh word—the purpose of the application just referred to, to your Government, but that this application was to be used, and has in fact been used, in connection with that phony front outfit, the Alabama Rescue Service, which is part of your so-called Invisible Empire operations?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. ASHBROOK. Mr. Chairman?

The CHAIRMAN. Yes.

Mr. ASHBROOK. Many rescue services specialize in pets and animals. Possibly your rescue service directed their attention towards this species. Would that be correct?

Mr. CHALMERS. Mr. Chairman, may I state that I don't see any legislative purpose in answering a question like that.

The CHAIRMAN. That is a proper question. We are probing into whether there was any validity attached to the application in connection with any kind of rescue. I mentioned the human kind, and Mr. Ashbrook referred to other kinds. I think it is a proper question. But we will not prolong it.

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, have you and other members of the Klan in the Tuscaloosa, Alabama, area, used these citizens band radios which you have in your possession for the purpose of conducting Klan activities?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me, in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Have you used the citizens band radios for the purpose of intimidating any citizens in the Tuscaloosa, Alabama, area?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, I show you a photograph of yourself seated in front of a typewriter, talking over a piece of radio equipment.

I ask you to examine the photograph, the three pieces of radio equipment shown in the photograph, and I ask you whether or not any of this equipment can be used to monitor police channels.

(Photograph handed to witness.)

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

ROBERT SHELTON EXHIBIT NO. 23

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, were you ever employed by the Dixie Engineering Corporation of Mobile, Alabama?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Isn't it a fact that you received at least $4,000 from that employment and performed no services?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. I think I should rephrase the question to come within the exact information of the committee. Isn't it a fact that you received at least $4,000 from the company named because you knew your way around in Montgomery and because of your ability to exercise political influence?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. And again in fairness, which is not a question but which conforms to the information of the committee, it is my impression, anyway, that the payments were made by a rather unwilling victim of yours.

Mr. SHELTON. May I confer with counsel?

The CHAIRMAN. I didn't ask a question, but if you want to I will put it in the shape of a question.

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to enter into the record at this point original checks payable—some to Robert M. Shelton, some to Robert Shelton, some to R. C. Shelton, and we have testimony that these are all one and the same man, which represent payments to him by the Dixie Engineering Company.

I would like them to be entered into the record at this point.

(Documents marked "Robert Shelton Exhibits Nos. 24-A through 24-H," respectively, appear on pp. 1671-1673.)

Mr. APPELL. I would like to ask you whether or not it is a fact that you failed to report much of this income on your personal income tax return.

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. The checks have been received in evidence at the point where they were referred to.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, have you an employee in the office by the name of Lewis E. Perkins?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to have entered into the record at this point telephone toll slips which we subpoenaed by a subpoena duces tecum from the telephone company, which shows that the telephone bills to the Alabama Rescue Service are sent care of

Mr. Shelton, I have a document dated the 10th day of June 1957, signed by "E. L. Edwards As President (Imperial Wizard), Wm. A. Daniel, Sr., As Secretary (Kligrapp)," which notification says that Robert M. Shelton is the agent of the U.S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., for the State of Alabama.

Is that a factual document, sir?

(Document handed to witness.)

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. On November 4, 1959, were you removed from your office of Grand Dragon by Imperial Wizard E. L. Edwards?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to have entered into the record at this point the document designating Mr. Shelton as agent for the U.S. Klans.

The CHAIRMAN. The document will be received in evidence at this point.

Mr. APPELL. I would like to introduce in evidence at this point a document of the U.S. Klans, with the heading at the top "E. L. Edwards, Imperial Wizard, P.O. Box 21, College Park, Georgia," addressed to the Secretary of State, State of Alabama, Montgomery, Alabama:

Signed "E. L. Edwards," 25 November 1959.

The CHAIRMAN. The document will be received in evidence at this point.

(Document marked "Robert Shelton Exhibit No. 29.")

Mr. APPELL. The next document, Mr. Chairman, is a change of designation of agent and it replaces Mr. Robert M. Shelton as Grand Dragon by Mr. Alvin "Horne."

The CHAIRMAN. That will be received in evidence.

(Document marked "Robert Shelton Exhibit No. 30." Exhibits Nos. 27-30 appear on pp. 1678-1681.)

Mr. APPELL. The date of that document, Mr. Chairman, is April 11, 1960.

Mr. Shelton, what brought about this removal of you as Grand Dragon for the U.S. Klans in the State of Alabama?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, the press of that day, the Montgomery Advertiser of May 30, 1960, says "Robert M. Shelton, Tuscaloosa"——

The CHAIRMAN. You are referring to a period before the creation of the United Klans of America; are you not?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

I will have to start againn, Mr. Chairman. [Continues reading:]

Robert M. (Bobby) Shelton of Tuscaloosa has been ousted as Grand Dragon of the Alabama Ku Klux Klan and replaced by a former Dragon, Alvin Horn of Rt. 4, Talladega.

The story goes on to quote Mr. Shelton as follows:

"Edwards has replaced me (with Horn) as Grand Dragon." He said he was notified of the change "about a week ago."

The ousted Klan leader said he and Edwards "had some differences of opinion about policies and procedure."

"I am organizing an independent group here in Alabama," he said——

The CHAIRMAN. Those are the words of Shelton?

Mr. APPELL. This is a quote of Shelton; yes, sir. [Continues reading.]

"I would say about 70 per cent of the members of the old group have already joined the new Klan."

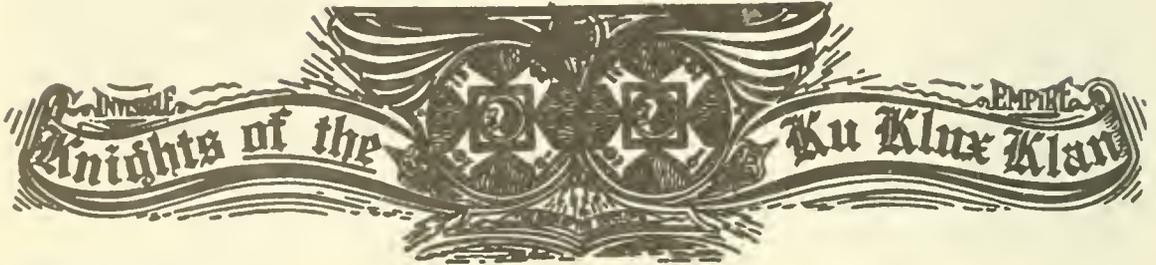

As to the reasons that you were replaced as quoted in this article, Mr. Shelton, are they factual?

ROBERT SHELTON EXHIBIT NO. 31

133rd Year—No. 104

Klan Names

Horn Chief, Shelton Out

Ex-Grand Dragon

Claims 70 Per Cent

Switch To New Group

Robert M. (Bobby) Shelton of Tuscaloosa has been ousted as Grand Dragon of the Alabama Ku Klux Klan and replaced by a former Dragon, Alvin Horn of Rt. 4, Talladega.

Shelton has begun organizing an "Independent" Klan group as a result and claims about 70 per cent membership switchover to his camp.

These developments came to light Friday through records of the secretary of state where official papers of the KKK incorporation are on file.

NEW AGENT

Secretary of State Bettye Frink was notified April 11 that Horn had been appointed the new "authorized agent" of the Klan for Alabama. The change was announced in a letter from E. L. Edwards, Atlanta, Ga., Imperial Wizard of the U.S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. State law requires the listing of "authorized agents" for foreign corporations doing business in Alabama.

Although Edwards' letter did not state that Shelton had been removed as Grand Dragon, it said he was removed as authorized agent.

Shelton, contacted in Tuscaloosa, said:

"Edwards has replaced me (with Horn) as Grand Dragon." He said he was notified of the change "about a week ago."

INDEPENDENT GROUP

The ousted Klan leader said he and Edwards "had some differences of opinion about policies and procedure."

"I am organizing an independent group here in Alabama," he said. "I would say about 70 per cent of the members of the old group have already joined the new Klan."

Although the Shelton Klan group hasn't been named formally, he said it would be "the Ku Klux Klan — we can use that name; it's not copyrighted."

As to the difference between the two Klans, Shelton said of his group, "The leader won't have so much dictatorial powers — that's how Edwards rips his."

Asked if he thought he had been removed for personal reasons, Shelton replied, "I wouldn't want to comment on that."

NO SUBSTITUTE

Edwards was not available for comment in Atlanta.

The Secretary of State received a letter dated Nov. 4, 1959, from Edwards instructing that Shelton's name be removed as "authorized agent" for the U.S. Klans. No substitute was named then.

Later, Edwards wrote Mrs. Frink that Shelton was to be reinstated. Then on April 11, he wrote a third letter authorizing Horn as agent in place of Shelton.

Horn, a 48-year-old Baptist minister, could not be located through Talladega and Clay County sources. It was reported he recently had moved but his whereabouts were not known by relatives.

UNFAVORABLE PUBLICITY

Horn had served as Grand Dragon of the KKK in Alabama but resigned in 1957 after unfavorable publicity stemming from his marriage to a 15-year-old girl. Shelton was his successor.

The clergyman was indicted on a murder charge in 1950 following the nightrider slaying of Charlie Hurst, Pell City. Hurst was shot down shortly after telling his son he thought the Klan was after him. The charge against Horn was dismissed in October, 1952.

Shelton's active role in the 1958 gubernatorial campaign in behalf of John Patterson won him considerable statewide attention. More recently he charged that his KKK activities had cost him his long-time job with the B. F. Goodrich Tire and Rubber Co.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, the committee's investigation established that in the days of the U.S. Klans, that the Klans and Klaverns forwarded their money to the Grand Dragon, who took out of the entire package his share and then forwarded to the imperial office, the imperial office share.

Is it a fact that you were removed because you weren't making a proper accounting of funds to the imperial staff?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Appell, you asked him, "Is it a fact?" The form of the question might be misconstrued. I think you can phrase it this way, that it is the committee's information that it is a fact, and does he wish to affirm or deny it.

Mr. APPELL. Will you answer the question?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, will you rephrase the question or repeat it?

The CHAIRMAN. It is the committee's information that you were replaced because of financial reasons. Is that true or not? Is our information true or not?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. It is the committee's further information, Mr. Shelton, that you were ordered to appear before an Imperial Klouncilium and to produce the books and records of your realm and that you failed to do so.

Is this information that the committee has obtained true or false?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, the staff has no further questions of Mr. Shelton—pardon me, sir, I do have.

Mr. Shelton, the committee has obtained from the State of Alabama a Certificate of Incorporation dated May 17, 1960—16 days after the notice of Imperial Wizard Edwards that he had removed you—of the incorporation of the Alabama Knights, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc.

This document shows that the incorporators, trustees, and addresses are as follows: Robert M. Shelton, 1708 East 15th Street, Tuscaloosa, Alabama; H. M. Shelton, 1700 East 15th Street, Tuscaloosa, Alabama; and James Elmore, 2920 Birmingham Highway, Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

Did you participate in the incorporation of the Alabama Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc.?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, could I counsel?

The CHAIRMAN. Yes.

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, could I ask that the document you are referring to be read, in order to determine?

The CHAIRMAN. Hand it to him.

The CHAIRMAN. You understand that we will then question you. If you want to read it, read it. You may read it out loud, and then we will question you.

Mr. SHELTON [returning document]. Thank you, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, there is a great deal more material that the staff intends to interrogate Mr. Shelton about. However, from this phase of the inquiry I ask that Mr. Shelton be excused as a witness, to return on November 15.

The CHAIRMAN. Before ruling on that, the Chair wishes to say this: I invite your attention, Mr. Shelton, to what I am about to say.

Yesterday you refused to produce documents called for by a subpoena duces tecum served on you on October 11 of this year. You were in the hearing room for the greater part of my opening statement as I read it. You did come in a few minutes late.

A copy of the opening statement was handed to you and your attorney.

That is true, is it not?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Counsel, I am directing my question to you. That is true, is it not?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir; for the record.

The CHAIRMAN. You were observed reading the statement, and it is my understanding that both you and your counsel not only read the statement but, I assume, but that you carried it with you.

My opening statement spelled out with indisputable clarity, I believe, the things the subcommittee desires to know, the information that it wishes to place on this record to assist the Congress in the enactment of remedial legislation. Those things were specified in paragraph 4, page 2, of my opening statement, describing the purposes of these hearings, and so on.

I don't see, and the committee members do not see, how anyone could argue, after reading the committee resolution of March 30, contained on page 1 of the statement, and House Resolution 310 specifically authorizing this investigation, copies of which, by the way, were given you and your attorney by the staff the day before yesterday, and my opening statement—we say no one could argue, after reading the documents and the records, that papers and documents pertaining to the structure and organization, incorporation, finances, corporate tax returns, and so forth, of each and every Klan organization are not pertinent to this inquiry.

I am saying I don't see how anyone can so argue, that these things are not pertinent to this inquiry. The first full paragraph of the attachment to the subpoena served upon you called on you to produce certain records and documents as an official and representative of the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., the Alabama Rescue Service, the Whiteman's Defense Fund, and the United Klansmen of America.

I want to clarify just this one point: Did you and your attorney know the contents of my opening statement at the time you were on the witness stand and refused to produce these documents?

I further want to warn you that unless your answer to this question is that you did not know the contents of this opening statement, your course of action yesterday is completely without legal justification and may result in a contempt citation.

So I again ask: Did you and your attorney know the contents of my opening statement at the time you were on the stand and refused to produce those documents?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, could I counsel?

The CHAIRMAN. Yes. This is a legal question. I think you ought to.

Mr. CHALMERS. May I state this to the chairman and to the other members of the committee: At the time answers were given yesterday afternoon I myself had not fully read the opening statement of the chairman of the committee.

I, of course, cannot answer for my client. But it is my information, if I may state it, that I doubt very seriously if he read the statement fully.

The CHAIRMAN. The question is not did you read it, necessarily. Did you know, from hearing me read the statement, the contents of my opening statement, before he took the witness stand?

Mr. CHALMERS. No, sir; not fully and completely, I did not.

The CHAIRMAN. Then I will give the benefit of the doubt to your client.

Do you wish 5 minutes' or 10 minutes' recess to read it now?

Mr. CHALMERS. I would like about a 10-minute recess to confer with my client, if it would be permissible.

The CHAIRMAN. That request is granted.

I now hand each of you a copy of my opening statement.

Mr. CHALMERS. May I state to the chairman I have a copy in my files.

The CHAIRMAN. All right.

The committee is now in recess for 10 minutes. I wish that order be maintained during the recess.

(Whereupon, at 11:40 a.m. the subcommittee recessed. All subcommittee members present at time of recess.)

(The subcommittee reconvened at 11:47 a.m. with all subcommittee members present.)

The CHAIRMAN. The subcommittee will come to order.

The equipment of the press, TV, and radio will be removed.

Let the record show that the committee stood in recess for approximately 10 minutes to give Mr. Shelton and his counsel the opportunity to read and familiarize themselves in greater detail concerning my opening statement, particularly the part I referred to a moment ago, paragraph 4 on page 2.

I take it, Mr. Chalmers, that you have had that opportunity?

Mr. CHALMERS. That is correct; yes.

The CHAIRMAN. By the way, Mr. Chalmers, I want to compliment you for your demeanor before this committee. I think you deserve it.

Mr. CHALMERS. Thank you, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. In view of that, namely, that both counsel and his client now concede, admit for clarity, that they are familiar with my opening statement, which spells out the purposes of these hearings, and on the basis of which I ruled on the pertinency of the documents referred to in the subpoena, I wish, nevertheless, Mr. Shelton, to ask you four questions, or make four directions.

I now order and direct you to produce the documents referred to in the first paragraph of the attachment to the subpoena dated October 7, 1965, and according to the marshal's return served on you on October 11.

Mr. SHELTON. May I counsel?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, is this question directed to me as an individual or directed to me as an officer of a corporation?

The CHAIRMAN. I covered that in my statement of a while ago, but I will repeat it.

The subpoena which was served on you called on you to produce certain documents as an official and representative of the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klans of America, Inc., the Alabama Rescue Service, the Whiteman's Defense Fund, and the United Klansmen of America.

So that is the capacity, as an officer and as an Imperial Wizard and as a representative of these organizations.

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to deliver to this committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 7, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule IV of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, of House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to turn over these documents in question for the reason that I honestly feel that by doing so it might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. I now order and direct you to produce the documents called for in paragraph 2 of the attachment to the same subpoena.

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 7, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same will not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule IV of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to turn over these documents for the reason that I honestly feel that by doing so it might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. I now order and direct you to produce the documents referred to in paragraph 3 of the attachment to that subpoena.

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to deliver to this committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 7, 1965, for that information is not relevant—

Mr. SHELTON. —is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule IV of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to turn over these documents in question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me—the documents might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. I order and direct you to produce the documents referred to in paragraph 4 of the attachment to the subpoena referred to.

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to deliver to this committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 7, 1965, for that information is not relevant or germane to the subject under investigation and the same will not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule IV of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to turn any records over to this committee for the reason that I honestly feel that by doing so it might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Do you understand that the orders I made on you to produce all these documents, including those in paragraph 4, were addressed to you in your representative capacities as I indicated?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. I wish to say, and I assume counsel agrees, that the committee rejects your reasons for not producing these documents.

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Shelton, yesterday I referred to a memorandum dated October 14, 1965, made by our investigator, Mr. Louis Russell, and I referred to and asked you about certain things you said to him on that day in the Hotel Stafford in Tuscaloosa.

Now I ask you this: Our investigator, Mr. Louis Russell, said that on that day, in that hotel, you said this:

He [Shelton] said that he would bring about the defeat of Chairman Willis in Louisiana, and that the Chairman would be besieged by telephone calls before the hearing began.

Mr. Russell further stated:

He [Shelton] claimed to have a book on every member of the Committee and said that Congressman Weltner was tied in with the Communists and that President Johnson got his first political job from Aubrey Williams.

Did he tell the truth or did he falsify?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Let me say that, so far as I am concerned, I not only welcome, but challenge and dare you to come in my congressional district and fight me politically.

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Chairman——

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Weltner.

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Shelton, I have not asked you any questions thus far. I had hoped that you would cooperate with this committee, and I am disappointed that you have not done so. I do not criticize you for claiming any right that you have under the Constitution. That is your right as an American citizen, and I have no quarrel with you or any other American citizen for exercising any right guaranteed by the Constitution.

I don't have any questions, but I do have this comment: It seems to me that you obviously have the ability to organize and that you have proved some qualities of leadership and you have shown energy in your tasks.

I submit that it is unfortunate for our section of the country, yours and mine, that your leadership and ability and energy have been given over to dividing Southern people rather than uniting them.

Mr. Chairman, I have no further comment and no questions.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Buchanan.

Mr. BUCHANAN. Mr. Chairman, unless my eyes deceived me during the recess, the witness was speaking very freely to the press. And unless the reports are inaccurate, I understand he has spoken rather freely in various places concerning the fact that he would welcome this investigation. I wonder, therefore, if we might have better results if we conducted this investigation in a cornfield and let the press interrogate him.

However, I would say what you said at the outset, Mr. Chairman, and I would ask the chairman and counsel to correct me if I am in error on this point:

I think your counsel has advised you well and I will not argue with your right, of course, to invoke the fifth amendment. I would say, however, that evidence has been offered here before this committee concerning your use of certain funds, the alleged signing of checks to some $5,600 cash, the manner in which they were countersigned, the purchase of an automobile, diamonds purchased, and this sort of thing, evidence of an ouster from the U.S. Klans with financial questions surrounding it, evidence concerning your military record and circumstances and time at which it came to an end.

I would say that, as I said before this hearing began, he that has nothing to hide has nothing to fear. We are not in the business of prosecuting or convicting, but we are here to get the facts and know the truth. We are, I think you can see, with or without your cooperation, producing evidence in this hearing. We are going to continue this investigation and this hearing. Evidence will be produced.

While I am not going to make any inferences from the numerous times that you have invoked the fifth amendment, I will simply say this: that for those who have eyes to see and ears to hear, it may well prove that the record in your case will speak very clearly for itself, Mr. Shelton.

Mr. SHELTON. Thank you sir.

The CHAIRMAN. I understand that Mr. Appell has another question he overlooked asking.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I have two very short and simple questions.

Mr. Shelton, in connection with your being on the payroll of the Dixie Engineering Company, it is the committee's understanding that during an investigation by the Federal Public Roads Administration or Bureau, you were questioned by agents of the United States Government with respect to your being on the payroll of the Dixie Engineering Corporation and that you refused to answer the Federal Bureau's agent's questions. Is this true, sir?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, the committee, during its many months attending Klan rallies and other things, has noted with great interest the ability of the Klan to collect large sums of money in cash at these rallies.

What percentage of the take of the rallies that you have attended has come into your hands in the form of cash?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, would you repeat that question, please?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir. We have observed at numerous rallies that collections are taken up in the form of cash collections and that these collections, at different times and at different rallies, have reached considerable sums, in the hundreds of dollars.

I am asking you what part of this money collected at these rallies has been turned over to you.

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, the committee also subpoenaed from The First National Bank of Tuscaloosa, Alabama, your personal bank account. And the ledger sheet of this account, together with a deposit slip dated November 2, 1964, shows that there was deposited in the form of checks, although the checks are not enumerated—it could be one or it could be more—$2,125.

Was that money, money which you had received in the form of an imperial tax from Klans throughout the United States?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, would you repeat that question, please?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir. Was this deposit of $2,125 deposited to your personal account on November 2, 1964, money which was received by you as imperial tax from the Klans or Klaverns located throughout the United States?

Mr. SHELTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

(Bank account records marked "Robert Shelton Exhibit No. 33" and retained in committee files.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, the staff has no further questions, and I ask that Mr. Shelton—

The CHAIRMAN. Wait a moment.

I wish to reiterate and to stress what I said two or three times in my opening statement: that whatever has been said here by anyone about your right, Mr. Shelton, to invoke the privileges of the fifth amendment should not be considered as relating to the rulings I have made as chairman, and on this I also reiterate and stress that the committee here is in unanimous agreement.

Mr. ASHBROOK. Mr. Chairman, I would like the record to show specifically that this is the understanding of the committee. By no statements made has there been any waiver. As one member of the committee, I confirm what you have said and what the record will so show.

Mr. CHAIRMAN. I am sure that all the members would feel the same.

Mr. WELTNER. Subject to the reservation of personal satisfaction as to the application of the law.

Mr. BUCHANAN. Mr. Chairman, I confirm without reservation what you have said, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Ichord?

Mr. ICHORD. Mr. Chairman, in that connection I would like to state that I have attended most of these proceedings as an interested member of the full committee and of the Congress. Of course, the purpose of these hearings is to develop information concerning the activities of the Klan and to develop information that would serve as a basis for the Congress making a decision as to whether legislation is needed to curb the activities of the Klan, or what kind of legislation is needed.

This, Mr. Chairman, is the first time during my service on the committee that we have had witnesses before the committee to be questioned about their activities with organizations other than Communist organizations, Communist fronts and similar extremist organizations.

I wanted to make note of the fact, Mr. Chairman, that the attorney for Mr. Shelton has carried out his duties in a very commendable way. I have observed that he has fully advised his client as to his constitutional rights.

You have done it in a way that is commendable and in a way that contrasts pleasantly with the way that some of the lawyers have advised witnesses in Communist investigations conducted by this committee. Unfortunately, Mr. Shelton has not chosen to give us any information concerning the activities of the Klan except his name, his birth place, and his age. I regret that fact, but that is his constitutional right.

Sir, I do commend you on the way you carried out your duties as his attorney.

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Chairman, may I also, following Mr. Ichord's comments, point out that this hearing has been conducted without the protests and demonstrations that have occurred within and without hearings of this committee in the past. I recall quite well the difficult task that befell our distinguished chairman in Chicago in the effort to maintain order and dignity in the proceedings.

Perhaps the absence of protests or demonstrators to this proceeding casts some light on the validity and sincerity of those protests when they do occur.

Mr. POOL. Mr. Chairman, I want to add my support to the chairman on the rulings he has made, and I want to point that out for the record.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you very much.

I simply express the hope that as we go along we will proceed with equal decorum and dignity.

Mr. Shelton, your subpoena is continued. That is, you remain under subpoena until November 15. We will be calling you again and will be questioning you on a variety of areas of your and your organization's activities.¹

The committee will stand in recess until 1:45.

(Subcommittee members present at time of recess: Representatives Willis, Pool, Weltner, Ashbrook, and Buchanan.)

(Whereupon, at 12:15 p.m., Wednesday, October 20, 1965, the subcommittee recessed, to reconvene at 1:45 p.m. the same day.)

(Subcommittee members present at time of reconvening: Representatives Willis, Pool, and Ashbrook.)

The CHAIRMAN. The subcommittee will please come to order.

Mr. Appell, call your next witness.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. James R. Jones.

I am sorry. Pardon me, Mr. Chairman.

Mr. Jones, you are not going to be called at this time.

Mr. Chairman, I would like to call Mr. Philip R. Manuel, a member of the investigative staff of the committee.

The CHAIRMAN. Let the Chair say this: that Mr. Shelton was questioned at some length concerning certain financial transactions and he chose to invoke the fifth amendment. All witnesses may as well know that this procedure is not going to deter us from putting the facts on the line.

Most of the questions asked of Mr. Shelton were supported by introduction of documentary evidence, checks and other documents. And, of course, there can be no stronger evidence than written documents which really speak even more accurately than words. But in certain phases of Mr. Shelton's testimony we will bring out affirmative evidence because he forces us to do it.

Proceed.

Mr. Manuel has been sworn, but this will be a new phase.

Do you solemnly swear that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mr. MANUEL. I do.

¹ Mr. Shelton was not recalled, and on January 6, 1966, was discharged from further appearance under his subpoena.

TESTIMONY OF PHILIP R. MANUEL—Resumed

Mr. APPELL. For the record, state your full name, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Philip R. Manuel.

Mr. APPELL. And you are a member of the investigative staff of the Committee on Un-American Activities?

Mr. MANUEL. That is correct.

Mr. APPELL. In the course of the current investigation, did the staff establish that tax and dues payable to United Klans of America from its Klans or Klaverns located throughout the United States were deposited into the account known as the Alabama Rescue Service?

Mr. MANUEL. Yes; that is correct.

Mr. APPELL. What documentation establishes this as a fact?

Mr. MANUEL. Well, the committee has established that most of the checks drawn by Klans or Klaverns of the United Klans are made payable to the Alabama Rescue Service and, further, the Alabama Rescue Service account at The First National Bank in Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

For documentation of this, I wish to present several checks, out of many, which the committee has in its possession, all properly obtained by committee subpoena.

The CHAIRMAN. On the banks?

Mr. MANUEL. Yes, sir. These records reflect the individual organizations which made payments to the Alabama Rescue Service. In addition to having checks made payable to the Alabama Rescue Service, I wish to show that some checks were made payable to the United Klans of America, which later were found in the account of the Alabama Rescue Service at The First National Bank in Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

As my first example of this, I wish to introduce a check of the Rowan Sportsmen's Club, dated March 2, 1965, in the amount of $46, drawn on the Security Bank & Trust Co. of Spencer, North Carolina, signed by Fred L. Wilson and Wayne Dayvault, and the notation on the check says it is for dues.

The endorsement on the reverse side of this check has the notation "For deposit in Alabama Rescue Service Account Only."

(Check marked "Philip Manuel Exhibit No. 1" appears on p. 1693.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Manuel, while we are discussing this question of dues, on the basis of our investigation have we established, or has the committee established, the staff established, the division of dues to the imperial level?

Mr. MANUEL. Yes, sir; it has.

Mr. APPELL. Could you state for the record what this amount is?

Mr. MANUEL. As of September 1964, the amount is 50 cents per month per member for imperial tax, which is supposed to be paid to the headquarters of the United Klans of America.

Mr. APPELL. Do you have additional documentation which shows deposits of checks made payable to the United Klans of America deposited into the Alabama Rescue account?

Mr. MANUEL. Yes, sir. In addition to the one just mentioned of the Rowan Sportsmen's Club which illustrates the point, I further wish to add a check dated August 27, 1965, made payable to the United Klans of America in the amount of $30. The notation is for payment

The CHAIRMAN. What about the second check? Who is the maker of that check and what is that outfit?

Mr. MANUEL. This is made payable to the United Klans of America.

The CHAIRMAN. No. The maker?

Mr. MANUEL. The maker is Charles L. Miller, 2512 Airline Highway, in Kenner, Louisiana.

Mr. ASHBROOK. For whom?

Mr. APPELL. Is it not a fact that, according to the staff investigation, many Klaverns and Klans do not maintain bank accounts, but that they maintain and transmit money through personal accounts and also in the form of U.S. postal money orders?

Mr. MANUEL. That is correct, sir, and I have some illustrations of that in the form of a personal check. The last example was also a personal check.

I have another personal check made by Mr. George A. Otto, dated September 8, 1965, payable to the order of the United Klans of America in the amount of $50, drawn on the Bank of the Southwest, in Houston, Texas.

Mr. APPELL. And that, according to your investigation, is remittance by a Klavern, perhaps under a cover name, to the United Klans or sometimes to the Alabama Rescue Service as that cut on dues collected locally?

Mr. MANUEL. That is correct.

Mr. APPELL. Would you further identify Mr. Otto?

Mr. MANUEL. Committee investigation has established that Mr. George Otto is the Grand Dragon, recently appointed, in the State of Texas of the United Klans of America.

The CHAIRMAN. And your testimony is that in many cases remittance for Shelton's outfit, the United Klans of America, is sometimes made by individuals, individual checks, and not in the name of a Klavern by name or any front by name?

Mr. MANUEL. That is correct. We picked examples of both things.

The CHAIRMAN. So we will have a general understanding of what this is about, you do have many cases, however, of local Klaverns dealing with banks also?

Mr. MANUEL. That is correct.

Mr. POOL. On the signature on the check of Mr. Otto, read the whole signature, will you?

Mr. MANUEL. It is signed "George A. Otto," and it is on a personal check which is stamped "George A. or Martha O. Otto," of 7702 Appleton, Houston, Texas.

Mr. POOL. The word "trust" is not there? It is not a trust account at all?

Mr. MANUEL. No, sir.

Mr. POOL. Thank you.

The CHAIRMAN. Proceed.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Manuel, through an analysis of the account of the Alabama Rescue Service, are there checks endorsed by Carol Long?

Mr. MANUEL. Yes, sir. Out of the material received by the committee, we have a total of 14 checks endorsed by Carol Long made out to cash. They are signed on the check headed "Alabama Rescue Service," drawn on "The First National Bank of Tuskaloosa, Tuskaloosa, Alabama," signed by Robert M. Shelton, T. M. Montgomery. The endorsement on the reverse side is made with the signature of Carol Long.

The CHAIRMAN. And we have established that T. M. Montgomery is Carol Long.

Mr. MANUEL. That is correct, sir. The total amount of these 14 checks is $705.

(Checks marked "Philip Manuel Exhibit No. 4." One of said checks appear on p. 1696; balance retained in committee files.)

Mr. POOL. What dates do they cover, or about what period of time?

Mr. MANUEL. They cover from the 2d of August 1963 until the 11th day of February 1964.

The CHAIRMAN. August 1963 to what?

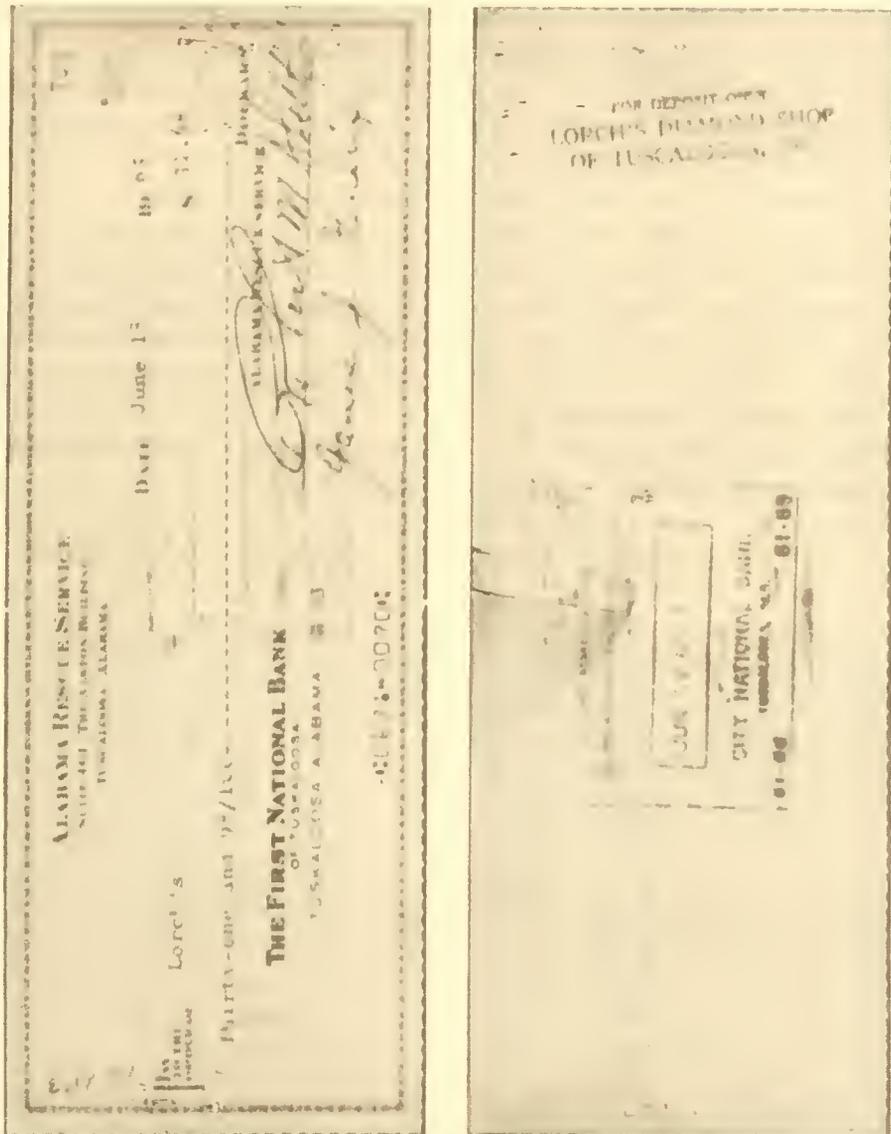

Mr. MANUEL. August 1963 to February of 1964.

The CHAIRMAN. That is a period of 6 months.

Mr. POOL. That is a similar time to the $500 checks that questions were asked about earlier in the hearing room when Mr. Shelton was on the stand. I believe those $500 checks, and I think they totaled (Checks marked "Philip Manuel Exhibit No. 5." One of said checks follows; balance retained in committee files.)

PHILIP MANUEL EXHIBIT NO. 5

Mr. POOL. To whom were the checks made payable?

Mr. MANUEL. They were made payable in some cases to Lorch's Diamond Shop and in other cases to Lorch's. However, the endorsement on the reverse side is always "For deposit only, Lorch's Diamond Shop of Tuscaloosa, Inc."

Mr. POOL. What is the total amount?

Mr. MANUEL. The total amount of these checks is $469.93.

Mr. POOL. Do you know what they were given for? Do you have any information on that?

Mr. MANUEL. No, sir.

Mr. POOL. They couldn't be for that diamond ring that the Imperial Wizard Shelton has been wearing here in this hearing room; could they? Do you know anything about that?

Mr. MANUEL. I have no knowledge of that, sir.

Mr. POOL. Did you notice the ring he was wearing?

Mr. MANUEL. Yes, sir.

Mr. POOL. Have you any idea how many carats that ring is?

Mr. MANUEL. I do not.

Mr. POOL. It looked like it was worth more than $400. There must have been some other checks somewhere.

Mr. APPELL. Do the canceled checks received from The First National Bank, Tuscaloosa, Alabama, reflect payments to GMAC, General Motors Acceptance Corporation?

Mr. MANUEL. Yes, sir. The committee has in its possession 14 canceled checks made payable to GMAC, in most instances in the amount of $136.33, which was payment for a car.

Mr. ASHBROOK. All checks are in the same amount?

Mr. MANUEL. There was one check that includes two payments in the amount $272.66. However, these 14 checks total $2,044.95. In some cases, these checks were made payable to cash and signed by Robert M. Shelton and James J. Hendrix. However, on the reverse side they are endorsed by the General Motors Acceptance Corporation of Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

The CHAIRMAN. We have established that James J. Hendrix is none other than Mrs. Shelton.

Mr. MANUEL. According to expert testimony.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Manuel, from an analysis of the canceled checks, what is the total amount written by checks in which the payee is "Cash"?

Mr. MANUEL. For the fiscal year 1964, the total amount of checks made payable to cash was $5,581.50.

The CHAIRMAN. And they were all drawn by, or signed as maker, by whom?

Mr. MANUEL. Robert M. Shelton and James J. Hendrix.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. and Mrs. Shelton.

Mr. MANUEL. According to expert testimony.

Mr. POOL. Have you finished all your checks?

Mr. MANUEL. No.

Mr. POOL. You have some more?

Mr. MANUEL. Yes.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Manuel, as a result of an analysis of the canceled checks which we received from the bank, how many and over what period—how many checks were signed by Robert M. Shelton and T. M. Montgomery, and how many checks were signed as the maker of the check by Robert M. Shelton and James J. Hendrix?

Mr. MANUEL. From the period July 1, 1963, to August 13, 1965, committee investigation has established that the total number of checks signed by both Robert M. Shelton and James J. Hendrix is 301. The checks signed by both Robert M. Shelton and T. M. Montgomery is 131. Total checks signed by Robert Shelton is 432.

The CHAIRMAN. And they were variously used for such items as, you said, a diamond ring—

Mr. ASHBROOK. He didn't say that.

The CHAIRMAN. Well, a jewelry shop, GMAC, and cash. Any other categories?

Mr. MANUEL. There are some checks made payable to grocery stores.

(At this point Mr. Buchanan entered the hearing room.)

Mr. POOL. So he was using this money he took in for traveling-around money, you might call it, cash, for diamonds, cars, and now he is getting his groceries out of it. Is that your testimony?

Mr. MANUEL. There are some checks made payable to grocery stores; yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. And that came out of the account—

Mr. MANUEL. Of the Alabama Rescue Service.

The CHAIRMAN. —of the Alabama Rescue Service, which is a front, the cover name for the United Klans of America, and representing dues collected from these poor members here and there in the States we have described.

Mr. MANUEL. From the membership of the Klaverns; that is correct, Mr. Chairman.

(At this point Mr. Weltner entered the hearing room.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I have no further questions of this witness.

The CHAIRMAN. All right. Call your next witness.

Mr. APPELL. Now, Mr. Chairman, I would like to call Mr. James R. Jones.

The CHAIRMAN. The photographers will have to desist. Please raise your right hand.

Do you solemnly swear that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mr. JONES. I do.

TESTIMONY OF JAMES ROBERTSON JONES, ACCOMPANIED BY COUNSEL, LESTER V. CHALMERS, JR.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, will you state your full name for the record, please, sir?

Mr. JONES. James Robertson Jones.

Mr. APPELL. Are you appearing here this afternoon in response to a subpoena served upon you by a deputy United States marshal at 10:20 o'clock a.m., on the 11th day of October 1965?

Mr. JONES. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Are you represented by counsel?

Mr. JONES. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Will counsel please identify himself?

Mr. CHALMERS. My name is Lester V. Chalmers, Jr. I am an attorney at law, Raleigh, North Carolina, 501 First Federal Building.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, when and where were you born?

Mr. JONES. Rowan County.

The CHAIRMAN. Will you speak into the microphone?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer to that question for reasons that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. These are what we call identifying and preliminary questions, and I can't conceive your constitutional rights being impaired by answering this question, and perhaps others along the same line.

I therefore order and direct you to answer the question.

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question for reasons that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, would you give to the committee a brief résumé of your educational background?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question for reasons that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. I order and direct you to answer that question.

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question for reasons that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Of course, we respect your invocation of the rights if you honestly believe, as you just read there. But do you honestly believe that if you answer that simple question as to your educational background it could possibly involve you in anything?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question for reasons that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. I notice you are reading your answers. I am not being technical about a witness' right to invoke constitutional privileges. But if you know, can you tell me upon what basis you are invoking the first amendment?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question for reasons that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. The 14th amendment talks about equal protection of the law and things of that kind. On what basis are you possibly invoking the 14th amendment?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer to that question for reasons that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. What about the fourth amendment? On what basis are you invoking that?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question for reasons that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. I invite you in all seriousness and in the interest of orderly procedure, if you wish on advice of your counsel, to simply say, if you intend from here on to have some more invocations, that you decline to answer the questions on the grounds previously stated.

I make that suggestion, and I invite you to follow that course if you want to.

Ask the next question.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, would you briefly outline for the committee your employment background?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question for reasons that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, your subpoena served upon you on October 11, 1965, called for you to produce certain documents. Were you present in the hearing room yesterday when the chairman read his opening statement? Did you receive a copy of the opening statement and do you understand its contents prior to my asking for a demand for those documents?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to deliver——

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. CHALMERS. Mr. Chairman, may I state to the committee—

The CHAIRMAN. What is the pending question?

Mr. APPELL. I asked him if he was present when your opening statement was made, whether he received a copy of the opening statement, and whether or not he understood the content of the opening statement.

Mr. CHALMERS. Mr. Chairman, may I state to the committee, and to you, sir, that my client has been informed of the opening statement and is well aware of the contents thereof, and has been informed by me also of that fact and what the opening statement contains.

The CHAIRMAN. That is correct, is it not? You can answer that. Well, you speak for your client?

Mr. CHALMERS. I am speaking for my client, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you for that expeditious way of proceeding.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, part 1 of the attachment to your subpoena, which was made a part of the subpoena, called upon you to produce:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of Ku Klux Klan, and affiliated organizations, namely, the Alabama Rescue Service, New Bern and Blounts Creek Fund, in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by you or available to you as Grand Dragon, Realm (State) of North Carolina, of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

I now ask you to produce those documents, sir.

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 8, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation, and the same would not aid the Congress in consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such required within the scope of that authorized by Rule IV of the House rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Jones, the committee does not accept your reasons for refusal to answer. It does not accept any of your constitutional invocations, and is of the opinion that your failure to produce the documents enumerated may well result in a contempt citation, in a recommendation by this subcommittee to the full committee, and by the full committee to the House of Representatives, for a contempt citation.

The CHAIRMAN. I hope it won't be necessary for me to repeat the reasons why the committee does not accept your reasons for refusal to produce these documents.

Is that understood, Mr. Counsel?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. In this instance I therefore order and direct you, Mr. Jones, to produce those documents called for by part 1 of the attachment to your subpoena.

May I have the privilege from here on to say for the reasons previously given the committee rejects the refusal to produce the documents.

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir; and may I state to the chairman and to the committee my client is well aware of the implications.

The CHAIRMAN. I don't know if you answered the question, Mr. Jones.

Did he?

I now order and direct you to produce those documents enumerated in part 1 of the attachment to your subpoena.

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 8, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation, and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule IV of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Counselor, would you listen to me now?

My own general counsel suggests that I ask you if it is understood that, first, he heard my questioning of Mr. Shelton along these lines, and second, are you still satisfied that you well understand the purposes and objectives and pertinency of evidence now being presented as described in my opening statement, and with all of that knowledge he still persists in refusing to produce the documents? That is understood?

Mr. CHALMERS. Let me speak to my client.

(Counsel confers with witness.)

Mr. CHALMERS. Mr. Chairman, I think, sir, I am not fully familiar how we can stipulate to something in this hearing, but we certainly do not desire to extend it out. My client, sir, heard what the chairman told Mr. Shelton this morning.

The CHAIRMAN. And that includes the fact that I told Mr. Shelton, and it applies to him, too, that this order is for him to respond to the subpoena by producing these documents on the basis of his representative capacity as Grand Dragon?

Mr. CHALMERS. I can't go that far, sir. I am sorry, I can't go that far. I can stipulate, sir, to this, that the subpoena reads to James R. Jones, and that based on that, the original subpoena which we have here, I imagine, he was ordered to produce the items listed in number 1, that he heard your statements with respect to what Mr. Shelton said, that Mr. Shelton was told this morning, that he heard and is familiar with the opening statement made by the chairman yesterday, and that he realizes the possibility of a contempt citation based on the subpoena served upon him dated October 8, 1964.

I don't know what date it was served on him.

The CHAIRMAN. Look at paragraph 1.

Mr. CHALMERS. I see that. Let me say this—

The CHAIRMAN. I call to your attention, Mr. Chalmers, that paragraph 1 of the attachment to the subpoena calls for certain records for him, of course, to produce, but it reads "or maintained by you"— documents * * * in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by you or available to you as Grand Dragon, Realm (State) of North Carolina, of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

So the capacity is there.

Mr. CHALMERS. I am certain, sir, that the wording of a subpoena speaks for itself, and certainly whatever is there we will certainly stipulate on that this subpoena was served on him based upon what was said in the subpoena itself.

The CHAIRMAN. If you have any objection, you are a good lawyer, and I will recess and serve another one on him.

Mr. CHALMERS. No, sir; I do not.

The CHAIRMAN. Is it agreed to the understanding that he is being directed to produce these documents in his possession, control, custody or control, or maintained by him, or available to him as Grand Dragon?

In other words, as an official of the organizations technically enumerated in that subpoena? We can agree to that. I think it is self-evident that it speaks for itself and that is what it means. But if you have any technical reasons, let's recess and I will serve another one on him.

Mr. CHALMERS. We expressly state, sir, that we will stipulate that the subpoena says what it means.

The CHAIRMAN. What is it you can't stipulate, then?

Mr. CHALMERS. I can stipulate, sir, that he heard your opening statement.

The CHAIRMAN. I understand that.

Mr. CHALMERS. I can stipulate that this subpoena was served on him asking him to produce these records.

The CHAIRMAN. In his capacity enumerated?

Mr. CHALMERS. As whatever the capacity is in there, sir. I wish I could approach the bench.

The CHAIRMAN. Come up here.

(Discussion off the record.)

The CHAIRMAN. May I suggest that perhaps what good counsel has in mind is that he can't stipulate and agree that his client is the Grand Dragon of this order, but that he does stipulate that he is directed to produce these documents as Grand Dragon.

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. In other words, we will have to establish that he is Grand Dragon.

Mr. CHALMERS., Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. We will ask him that question right away.

Mr. CHALMERS. All right, sir. Thank you, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. By the way, we have evidence under oath in the record that he is, seriously.

The bells have rung and while this committee under the rules of the House is authorized to sit continuously there is an important vote going on.

The committee will stand in recess in order to respond to that roll-call. We will resume at 3:15.

But before that, may I ask you while this thing is on our minds, what you said in response to my colloquy and technical discussion we had with reference to this witness, Mr. Jones, that is your same position with respect to Mr. Shelton?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir; that is correct.

The CHAIRMAN. The committee will stand in recess until 3:15.

(Whereupon, at 2:50 p.m. the subcommittee recessed. All subcommittee members present at time of recess.)

(The subcommittee reconvened at 3:35 p.m. Subcommittee members present: Representatives Willis, Pool, Ashbrook, and Buchanan.)

The CHAIRMAN. The subcommittee will be in order.

The photographers will remove their equipment.

Proceed, Mr. Appell.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, under the attachment to the subpoena, section 2, you are called upon to produce:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by or available to you, in your capacity as Grand Dragon, Realm (State) of North Carolina, of the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, which the "Constitution and Laws" of said organization authorize and require to be maintained by you and any other officer of said organization, the same being in your possession, custody or control.

I now ask you to produce those documents.

The CHAIRMAN. Now let me say this: It is understood, I take it, so we won't have to cover it any more, that under the first paragraph of this attachment, and under this one, and under others to follow, that the subpoena duces tecum directs him to produce those documents in his capacity recited in that paragraph.

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir; that is stipulated, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Please answer the question.

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records requested by this committee under the subpoena dated October 8, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation, and the same would not aid the Congress in consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized by the Rule IV of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to deliver records or documents for I honestly feel they might tend to incriminate me and be a violation of my rights as guaranteed by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I ask for a direction.

The CHAIRMAN. I will do that.

Mr. Jones, I now order and direct you for the reasons previously indicated, which your counsel has stipulated need not be repeated, to produce those documents.

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as required by this committee under subpoena dated October 8, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation, and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized by the investigation, by Rule IV of the House rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee such records or documents for the reason that I honestly feel they might tend to incriminate me and be a violation of my rights guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, part 3 of the subpoena calls for you to produce:

Copies of U.S. Treasury Department, Internal Revenue Service, Form 1120, [titled] "U.S. Corporation Income Tax Return," for the fiscal years 1961 through June 30, 1965, filed by you as Grand Dragon, Realm (State) of North Carolina, United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

I now ask you to produce those documents in your possession.

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as required by this committee—as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 8, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation, and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule IV of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any such records as requested as they might tend to incriminate me and violate my rights as guaranteed me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

(At this point Mr. Weltner entered the hearing room.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, is it not a fact that you filed no corporate tax return?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, is it not a fact that during the 3 days of August 6, 7, and 8, 1965, the North Carolina Klan was holding rallies in the Wilson, North Carolina, area?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. And isn't it a further fact that Internal Revenue Agent Roy Heddy conferred with Mr. Shelton and yourself and received the following information, and I quote from a report supplied to the committee:

The Realm of North Carolina is simply a geographical subdivision of the National Chapter and is used only to identify a given area, i.e. [that is], the State of North Carolina. It is not an organization and has no funds, income or expense, therefore no returns are due. * * *

Wasn't that statement made to the Internal Revenue Service agent by you and Mr. Shelton as reported by the agent?

Mr. JONES. May I consult counsel?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question for reasons that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

(Document previously marked "Robert Shelton Exhibit No. 5.")

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, under paragraph 4—section 4—of the attachment which was made a part of the subpoena, you were ordered to produce:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and affiliated organizations, namely, the Alabama Rescue Service, and the Realm (State) of North Carolina and the Capital City Restoration Association, in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by you or available to you as Grand Dragon, Realm (State) of North Carolina of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, which relate to insurance contracts between the Capital City Restoration Association and the International Life and Accident Insurance Company.

I now ask you to produce those documents in your possession.

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to deliver to this committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 8, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation, and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule IV of the House rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to this committee those documents as requested as I honestly feel they might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. For reasons previously stated, and which it has been stipulated I need not repeat, you are hereby ordered and directed to produce those documents.

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to deliver to this committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 8, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation, and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule IV of the House rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones—

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to deliver those records requested by this committee for I honestly feel they might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, section 5 of the attachment which was made a part of the subpoena calls for:

Copies of U.S. Treasury Department, Internal Revenue Service, Form 1040, [titled] "U.S. Individual Income Tax Return," for the calendar years 1958 through 1964, filed by you as an individual taxpayer with the U.S. Treasury Department, Internal Revenue Service.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, I ask you to produce the documents called for in section 5.

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to deliver to this committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 8, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation, and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule IV of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to this committee these records for the reason I honestly feel to do so might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Is that all concerning the production of documents?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Let me say this: As previously indicated, you were ordered for the reasons I stated, and you refused to produce the documents referred to in paragraphs 1, 2, and 4 for reasons you indicated, which I did not accept, and I further point out that this could lead to an ultimate citation for contempt.

It is noted that I did not order you to produce, right now, the documents referred to in paragraphs 3 and 5, namely corporation tax returns.

I did not do that because, according to the information supplied to us by the Internal Revenue Service you did not file, so it is unnecessary for me to direct you to produce them, therefore.

Incidentally, if my information is correct, you are in worse trouble than a citation for contempt.

Proceed.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, I hand you an application for a Post Office Box, No. 321, dated 6-28-65, signed James R. Jones, with the name of the firm or corporation being "Ku Klux Klan—District Manager."

I ask you if you executed that application for a post office box?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, I hand you a document, North Carolina Domestic Corporation Franchise Tax Report, due July 31, 1965, with an affirmation of the taxpayer dated July 20, 1965, signed James R. Jones, Grand Dragon, North Carolina.

I ask you if you signed this document and formally filed it with the State of North Carolina?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in REPORT AND TAX DUE BY JULY 31, 1965 — N. C. DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE, RALEIGH, N. C.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Jones, you were questioned about your education and you invoked the fifth amendment. I thereupon directed you to answer that question. Again you refused.

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline—

The CHAIRMAN. Wait a second. I haven't asked the question yet.

Mr. JONES. I thought you did.

The CHAIRMAN. No. I am very serious in this respect. I don't mean anything by the question. I think perhaps counsel himself might concede that his client has had very little education. I think it is obvious from the way he has been reading the documents.

Will counsel concede that? I am not going to hold it against him.

Mr. CHALMERS. May I have a conference?

The CHAIRMAN. Yes.

(Counsel confers with witness.)

Mr. CHALMERS. May I state to the Chairman and to the committee that my client did not graduate from high school.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, the "Constitution And Laws Of The United Klans of America, Inc., Knights Of The Ku Klux Klan," under Article XV, "Revenues and Property Titles," Section 3, reads:

The revenues of a Realm shall consist of: First, such portion of the Imperial revenue received from that Realm as may be fixed by proclamation of the National Klonvokation. Second, a per capita tax, to be known as a Realm Tax, in such amount as the Klorero may determine, in no case to be less than 25 cents per month.

Do you maintain financial records for reporting the receipt of money from Klaverns in the form of a State tax?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

(Document previously marked "Robert Shelton Exhibit No. 3.")

The CHAIRMAN. I think you are doing fine now.

Mr. APPELL. I show you a copy of an advertisement which appeared in the Dunn, North Carolina, daily Record, on January 5, 1965, which seeks additional membership in the Ku Klux Klan, which invites people to make inquiry if they are interested in membership in North Carolina, Box 321, Granite Quarry, North Carolina, the box to which I just handed you the application, and I ask you if you have any correspondence or applications in your possession with respect to membership.

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "James Jones Exhibit No. 3 and retained in committee files.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, I will hand you a document dated July 19, 1965, addressed "Esteemed Klansmen" and it is signed "Yours for God and Country, James R. Jones, Grand Dragon."

It is signed "James R. Jones, Grand Dragon."

In handing you the document, I want to ask you if you are the author of the document, and I wish to call your attention to paragraph 2 which reads:

Enclosed you will find a 3 x 5 card, in the top left corner, I want your unit number and mailing address, Under that I want your E.C.'s name, home address and telephone number; under that, your Secretary, address and telephone number.

The CHAIRMAN. And EC stands for exalted cyclops?

Mr. APPELL. That is correct, sir.

I ask you, Mr. Shelton, whether or not you sent that letter, whether that is your signature.

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. CHALMERS. May I ask you to see if you did not call him Mr. Shelton rather than Mr. Jones?

Mr. APPELL. Please correct the record. I did not mean to call Mr. Jones Mr. Shelton, if I did.

Mr. Jones?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "James Jones Exhibit No. 4" follows:)

July 19, 1965

Esteemed Klansmen,

It has been brought to my attention that some towns and counties while putting out posters and circulars, put these in mail boxes. This as you know and have been told is illegal. The postmaster general says I am going to pay for each poster and circular and in turn, each county and town responsible is also going to pay. From now on please do not mess with anything belonging to the federal government.

Enclosed you will find a 3 X 5 card, in the top left corner, I want your unit number and mailing address, Under that I want your E. C.'s name, home address and telephone number; under that, your Secretary, address and telephone number.

For you Kleagles and people starting new units, first get in touch with your Titan to let him know so we can organize our efforts, in a given town or county.

September 4th and 5th is National Meeting in Tuscaloosca, Alabama. This is the 100th year of the Klan and we expect to have a parade in robes, horses and all, a full Klan parade. Everyone should start making arrangements, so North Carolina can be well represented.

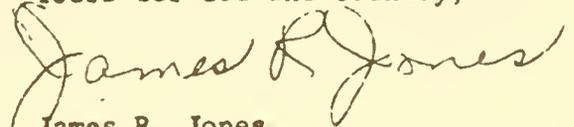

There has been a lot of unnecessary talking and confusion behind the ropes at Rallys. This distracts the speakers and the audience, so please refrain from this as much as possible.

At the Tennessee State Meeting, Mr. Shelton said in no uncertain terms, any man in leadership capacity of United Klans of America found under the influence of alcohol, will be replaced without fear or favor. The next 90 days the leadership of this organization will be under fire from all sides. Your petty politicians are getting scared, so not drinking in public is a small sacrifice to pay for the freedom of our country, Your help and cooperation is expected and will be appreciated.

The upcoming Rallys will be a strain on everyone so if your Rally is on a given day, you are expected to have a representative at the Rally before your Rally to help tear down platform and drive truck back to your town.

Please leave electrical equipment on the truck alone. You are also expected to have all needed equipment for your Rally at the Rally site at least by noon on the Rally date.

Yours for God and Country,

James R. Jones,
Grand Dragon

Mr. APPELL. In response to the request made of Klans within the State of North Carolina, did you, in response to your demand of July 19, 1965, receive 3 by 5 cards containing the information called for?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Are those cards still in your possession?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Have they been destroyed?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, the committee, by subpoena dated—

The CHAIRMAN. May I ask a question of you, Mr. Appell?

These cards you just referred to—by the way, you better offer them and all of the documents for the record.

All documents previously referred to are now made a part of the record in the respective orders identified.

Now, Mr. Appell, these cards you just referred to sent by, according to you, Mr. Jones to other people, do they indicate a listing of membership by name, by number, or both, in this instance? What would be your interpretation?

Mr. APPELL. What Mr. Jones asked for was the full identity—the name, address, and telephone number of the exalted cyclops and the name, address, and telephone number of the secretary or kligrapp of each of the Klaverns within his jurisdiction.

The CHAIRMAN. But with respect to membership, I now ask you concerning the testimony on it whether it is not a fact established by the investigation that ordinary members are given numbers, or usually referred to by numbers rather than by names, except that somewhere down the line someone has a list of names with numbers but usually the members are known by numbers.

Is that not a fact? If I haven't stated is correctly, please correct me.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, during the investigation we were advised, and we have received testimony, that in many cases an application is destroyed immediately upon its being executed and that, within the Klavern itself, a man is known by a number rather than a name and that when a roster is passed during a Klavern meeting, in order to determine who is there, the man indicates his presence by putting down a number which is assigned to him.

The CHAIRMAN. And these numbers do not necessarily always start from number 1 and go on, but might start with number 400 and go on; is that correct?

Mr. APPELL. That is true, sir, and do not necessarily run in a numerical sequence even within the Klavern itself.

The CHAIRMAN. And that is for security reasons?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Proceed.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, we received, as a result of the subpoena served on August 17, 1965, upon the manager of Mill Fabrics, Inc., 126 Statesville Boulevard, Salisbury, North Carolina, invoices covering the purchase of material, one invoice of 2-20-65, 1,064½ yards of acetate satin, 69 cents a yard, 10 percent discount, sales tax, total invoice: $680.89; May 14, 1965, 211 yards of Princeton satin, 69 cents a yard with the discount plus a sales tax, a total invoice of $134.96; May 18, 1965, 60 yards of 38-inch buckram, 69 cents a yard with discount added to sales tax, $38.38; on May 20, 1965, 1,029 yards of Princeton satin, 69 cents a yard, $710.01, less discount, plus sales tax, a total invoice of $658.18; May 26, 1965, 107 yards of carded cotton broadcloth, 39 cents a yard, $41.73, less discount, plus sales tax, a total invoice of $38.69; July 13, 1965, 1,453 yards of Princeton acetate satin, 69 cents a yard, or $1,002.57, less discount, plus sales tax, $929.38; 90 yards of unicorn buckram, 69 cents a yard, $62.10, less discount, plus sales tax, $57.57, or a total of 3,757½ yards of satin.

The CHAIRMAN. Who got the business?

Mr. APPELL. The invoices are all billed to Mr. James R. Jones, Box 321, Granite Quarry, North Carolina.

The CHAIRMAN. I don't understand that. Whose invoices?

Mr. APPELL. These are the invoices of Mill Fabrics, Inc., upon whom we served a subpoena.

The CHAIRMAN. Let's be frank. Are those the people who make the sheets? I am serious.

Mr. APPELL. This is just for the bulk material, sir. I wanted to ask of Mr. Jones after he purchased this satin material what he did with it.

The CHAIRMAN. It is not all satin.

Mr. APPELL. Satin and then there is buckram, which is the stiffening material that holds the peak up, and then, of course, broadcloth, which is a little cheaper grade material.

The CHAIRMAN. So all the boys don't wear the same outfits?

Mr. APPELL. No, sir; and the boys don't pay the same price, whether it is broadcloth or satin.

The CHAIRMAN. Ask your question.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, did you purchase this material as I have set forth in these invoices?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, the staff, in figuring up these invoices, shows that the average cost of satin is 64 cents a yard, and that it takes approximately 5 yards to make a small robe.

Mr. JONES, it is the committee's information that you sell the satin robes for $15. Is that information correct as far as the cost of the robe?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. After you purchase the material, who do you get to manufacture the robes for you?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Before the next question, Mr. Manuel testified that Shelton's order, United Klans of America, got a cut of 50 cents on the dues. Can you state right now at this point, so we can follow you, what our information is, if any, as to the cut the Imperial Wizard's outfit receives from the apparel?

Mr. APPELL. $15 for the satin robe, sir, and 25 cents per man per capita dues per month.

The CHAIRMAN. Who gets the $15?

Mr. APPELL. This is a good question. This is a question which Mr. Jones can answer because he purchased the material and we want to know who makes the profit, the enormous profit off of these robes.

The CHAIRMAN. All right.

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. I ask you again, Mr. Appell, what is your best information as to who gets what part or the whole of this $15 item?

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, after whatever Mr. Jones pays to have the material made into the robe, the profit goes to Mr. Jones.

Mr. Chairman, I would like to ask that the invoices to which I have just referred be entered as exhibits at this point in the order in which they were referred to.

The CHAIRMAN. The documents will be accepted in the record at this point.

(Documents marked "James Jones Exhibits Nos. 5-A through 5-G," respectively, and retained in committee files.)

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Reporter, I will repeat again that all documents previously identified will be inserted in the record at the respective points where they were identified.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, did the United Klans of America, in North Carolina, hold a rally at Dunn, North Carolina, approximately May 25, 1965?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. It is the committee's knowledge that at these rallies there is always a pitch made for money for the purpose of either putting people on the road as paid, salaried people, or for some other appeal. In working this appeal, do you operate what would be commonly known as a shill game, in that when you start asking for money you have your people come up and make presentations of $100 or $50 in order to try to sucker other people into donating the same large sums of money?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States.

The CHAIRMAN. Here we go again. Maybe I am dumb, but why go back to the long form of invocation?

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, I hand you a photograph in which there is a man dressed in what appears to be a Klan robe counting money. I want to ask you, first, if you know the identity of that man.

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

(Photograph marked "James Jones Exhibit No. 6" follows:)

REV. GEORGE DORSETT, KU KLUX KLAN CHAPLAIN

The CHAIRMAN. Before the next question, Mr. Appell, you asked Mr. Jones whether it was not a fact that the old shill or come-see game was employed at these rallies, where a basket or a hat is passed around in a fashion whereby confederates or chosen people put in rather unusual sums as a pitch for others to kick in more than what they would normally do or can afford.

Does the investigation establish that to be a fairly common practice?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. Jones, what happens to this money after it is collected at these rallies, as this man is counting it out here?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Do you maintain an account in the name of the United Klans of America, care of James R. Jones, at the Wachovia Bank and Trust Company, Salisbury, North Carolina?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. By the way, Mr. Appell, I must caution you that the questions I propounded to you assume that the oath you took yesterday still obtains. You understand that, do you?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir; I do, very well, sir.

Mr. Jones, the committee has obtained through subpoena an account from the Wachovia Bank and Trust Company in the name of the United Klans of America, Inc., care of James R. Jones, Post Office Box 321, Granite Quarry, North Carolina, which, according to the ledger cards of the account, was opened on May 13, 1965, with a deposit in the form of currency of $759, a check of $25, or a total deposit of $784, and that from that starting date of May 13, 1965, through September 19, 1965, from May through September, there has been deposited to that account $16,903.37.

Where did that money come from, Mr. Jones?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. How many months would that be?

Mr. APPELL. May 13th to September 19th is 4 months.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Jones, Mr. Appell asked you where this money came from, and you invoked your privilege. Now I ask you, did you deposit in this bank or other accounts all the funds you received from dues, apparel, drives, basket-passing, and all other sources?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

(Bank records marked "James Jones Exhibit No. 7-A" and retained in committee files.)

Mr. APPELL. Is the Reverend George Dorsett a paid employee of the United Klans of America, North Carolina?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. I wish you could give the committee a very accurate response to this question of mathematics. What portion of these deposits such as have been made, and I hope it is all that you received, would be for these various items—apparel, dues, collections, drives, so-called defense fund, and so on? Could you break that down for us?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

(At this point Mr. Buchanan returned to the hearing room.)

The CHAIRMAN. You see, that would aid the committee, if this is the only bank account, in knowing what the dues are, and knowing what you keep, in fixing the numbers of your organization. As to the United Klans of America, our information is that their bank deposits, mostly if not all, are receipts from dues, so it will be fairly easy later on to figure that out. I suppose Mr. Appell will cover that subject in due time.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, with respect—

The CHAIRMAN. I was just asking if you want to go into it at this time. I don't want to break your continuity of thought.

Mr. APPELL. This account does not deal with dues.

Mr. Jones, is it not a fact that from this account you made payments to the Reverend George Dorsett on July 23, 1965, August 6, August 14, August 20, August 28, September 3, September 10, September 17, one payment of $100 and seven payments of $150 or a total of $1,150?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

(Checks marked "James Jones Exhibit No. 7-B.")

Mr. ASHBROOK. Did you say "Reverend"?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Will you establish who he is? Who is Dorsett?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Why was he given that money?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. From this account, did you make 13 payments at $150 each which, according to the regularity of the payments, appear to be weekly payments of $150 a week to Boyd Hamby for a total of $1950?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

(Checks marked "James Jones Exhibit No. 7-C.")

Mr. APPELL. Did you make payments from this account to Grady B. Mars, 16 checks at $150 each for a total of $2,400?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

(Checks marked "James Jones Exhibit No. 7-D.")

Mr. APPELL. Did you make payments from this account to Marshall R. Kornegay, 8 payments at $150 each, for a total to him of $1200?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

(Checks marked "James Jones Exhibit No. 7-E.")

Mr. APPELL. Did you make 12 payments for $150 to Donald E. Leazer?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

(Checks marked "James Jones Exhibit No. 7-F." One check from each of said exhibits 7-B through 7-F appears on pp. 1720, 1721; balance retained in committee files.)

Mr. APPELL. Isn't it a fact that each of these gentlemen, in addition to holding some type of official capacity within the United Klans of North Carolina, were known within the Klan circles as paid organizers?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, did you maintain in the name of the United Klans of America an account at the Farmers & Merchants Bank at Granite Quarry, North Carolina?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, an analysis of this account shows that starting with a deposit on 9-11-63, in the amount of $31, that there has been deposited into that account, in addition to that which we dealt with in the first account, through September 4, 1965, $7,659.25.

The CHAIRMAN. That is a period of slightly less than a year?

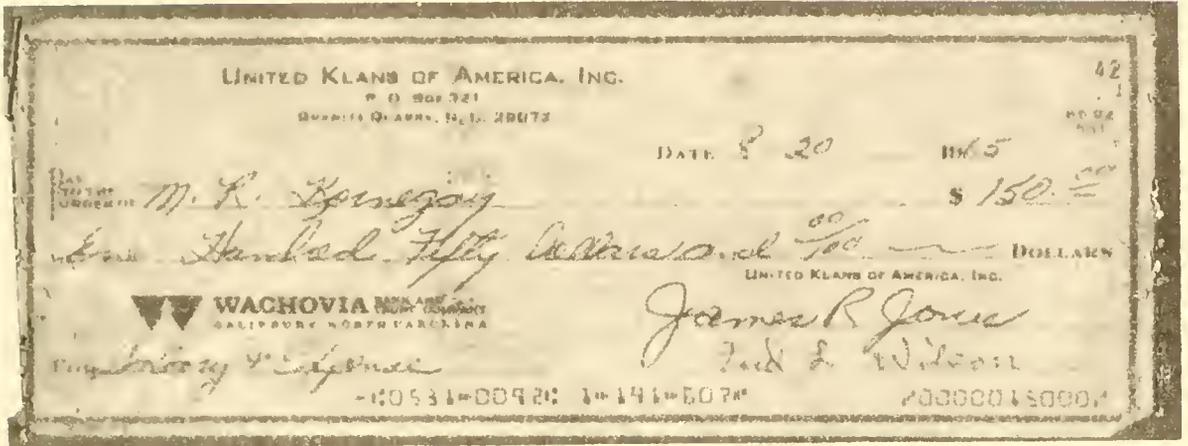

Mr. APPELL. No, sir. September 1963 through 8-16-65.

Mr. ASHBROOK. September 1964?

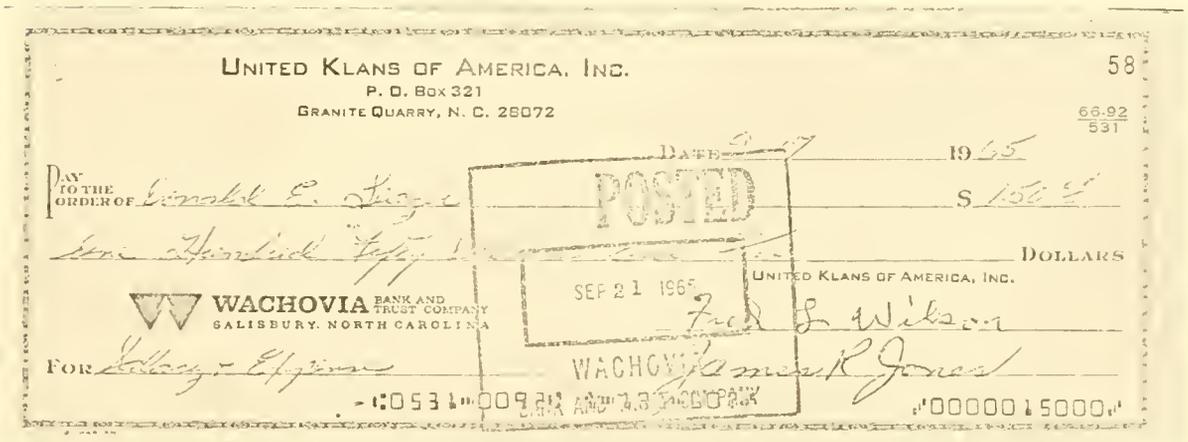

Mr. APPELL. 1963, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. September 1963 through August?

JAMES JONES EXHIBIT No. 7-E

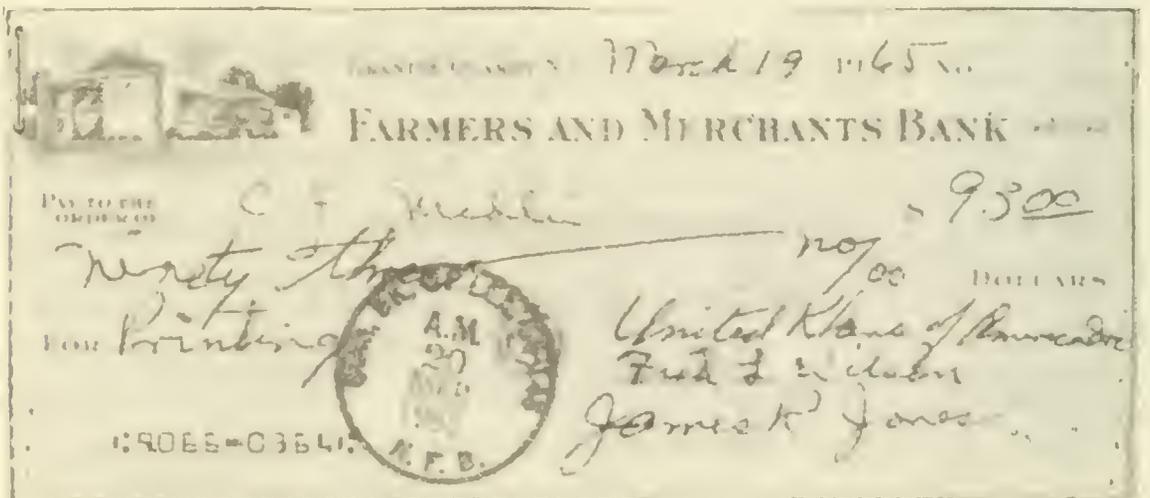

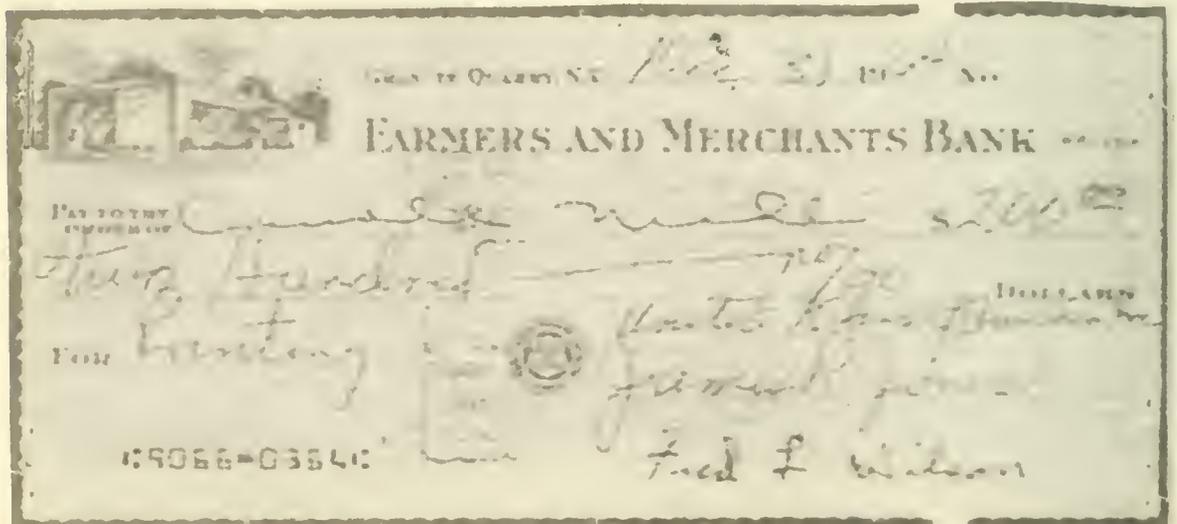

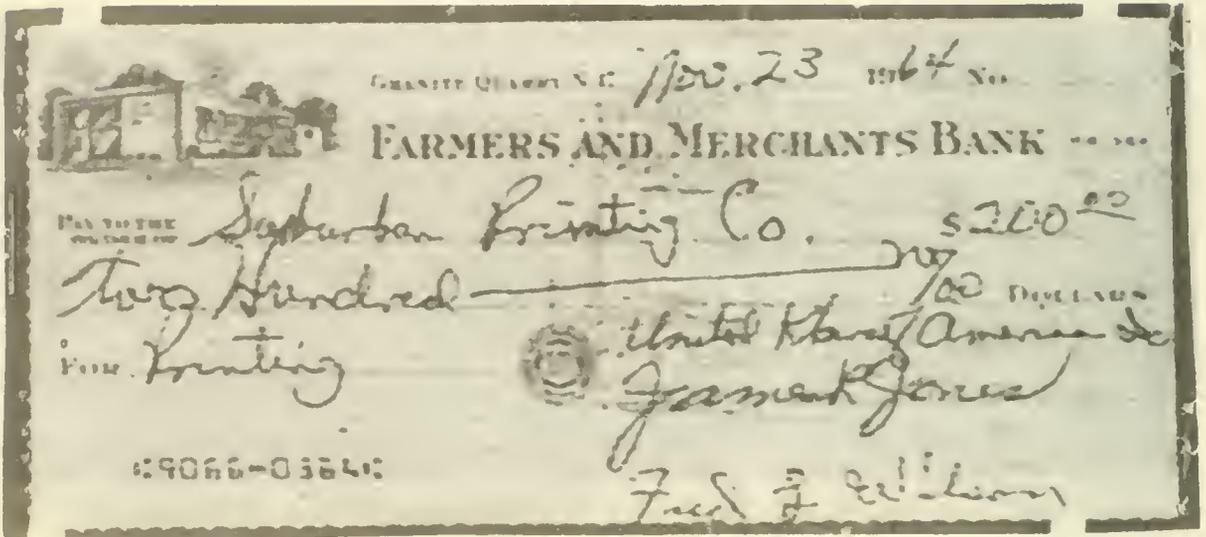

JAMES JONES EXHIBIT No. 7-F

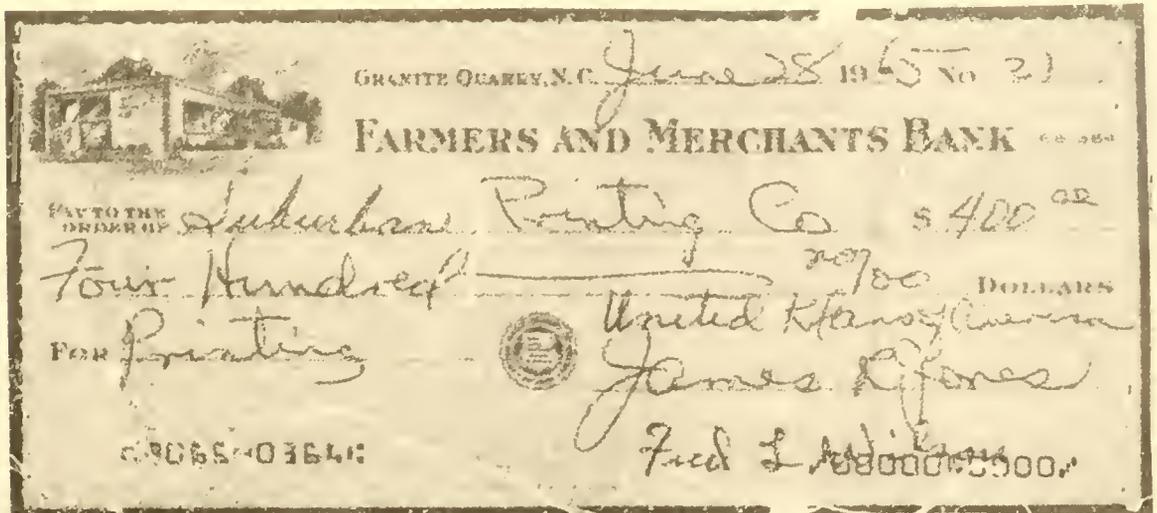

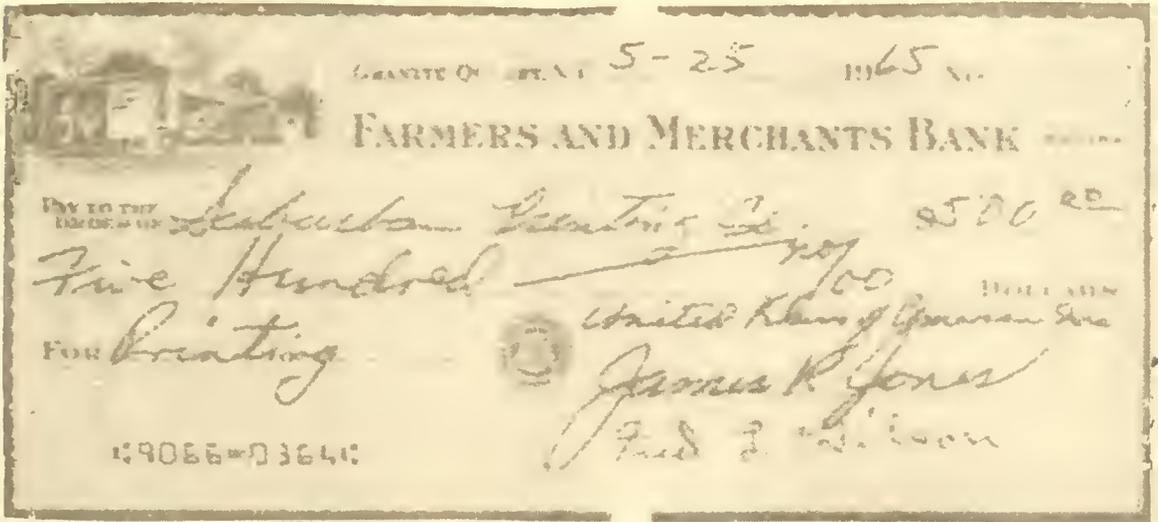

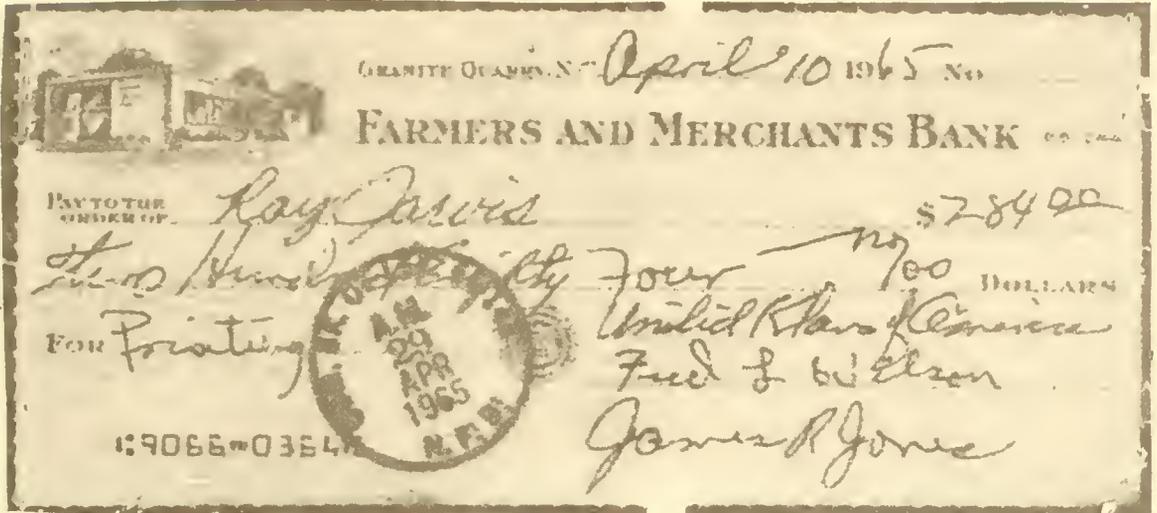

Mr. APPELL. August 16, 1965.
The CHAIRMAN. It is a period of slightly less than 2 years; is that right?
Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.
Mr. JONES, from what source was money placed into this account?
Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.
Mr. APPELL. Did you write checks against this account for printing in the amount of $3,677?
Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.
Mr. APPELL. Did you write checks to yourself in the amount of $1,525?
Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. In view of the fact that this is a check by yourself to yourself, I will hand you one and give you an opportunity to see the document, because I would like to ask you who the cosigner on that account is, Fred L. Wilson.

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Isn't it a fact that at the time that check was drawn Fred L. Wilson was treasurer of the Realm of North Carolina, United Klans of America?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that questions based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Isn't it a further fact that he is a member of the same Klavern that you are?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Does our investigation answer that question in the affirmative?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. The two questions?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. JONES, do you know Roy Woodle?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I saw him on a CBS-TV show, and he talked about how money went to different places that no one knew where it went to. Did you ever pay him any money?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. On June 4, 1965, didn't you make a payment to Roy Woodle out of the account at the Farmers & Merchants Bank for $20?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I note in this account, Mr. Jones, that there is a check dated August 4, 1965, payable to "M. R. Korneagay" in the amount of $200. This check reads, "Mistake In Acc[ount]. Washington # 57, Blounts Creek # 25."

Can you tell us what that refers to, sir?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton, the account shows that there were two checks drawn against this account, one on September 19, 1964, in the amount of $30; another on October 27, 1964, in the amount of $1,530. The purpose for which the check was drawn was to purchase a truck. Is that truck titled in the name of the United Klans of America or in your own personal name?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

(Checks marked "James Jones Exhibits Nos. 8-B through 8-E," respectively, and retained in committee files.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, do you maintain a bank account at the Security Bank and Trust Company in Salisbury, North Carolina, in the name of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Jones?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Is it not a fact—I place it to you as a fact—that money received from Klaverns in the form of dues are deposited to you, by you, into that account rather than in the accounts in the name of the United Klans of America?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Appell, you placed that question as a fact?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. And repeat it, please. I didn't catch it.

Mr. APPELL. I asked Mr. Jones if it was not a fact that he deposited to the personal account in the name of Mr. and Mrs. Jones, money which he receives from Klaverns in the form of tax.

Mr. Jones, are you acquainted with the Craven County Improvement Association?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I show you a check subpoenaed from the First-Citizens Bank & Trust Company, the account of the Craven County Improvement Association. The check is dated 6-12-1964. It is in the amount of $5. It says on its face "Tax," and I note that it was deposited, according to the check itself, at the Security Bank & Trust Co. after being endorsed by James R. Jones, and the deposit slips accompanying the committee subpoena from the bank reflect the deposit of this check.

The CHAIRMAN. Are you referring now to the account in the name of Mr. and Mrs. Jones?

Mr. APPELL. Yes; I am, sir.

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

(Check marked "James Jones Exhibit No. 9" follows:)

JAMES JONES EXHIBIT NO. 9

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, we have many accounts of the Klans in North Carolina, all of which consistently reflect that the money paid to Mr. Jones in tax either goes into the account of Mr. and Mrs. Jones or else they are cashed by Mr. Jones in various and sundry places, and I would assume that no bookkeeping record is kept.

Mr. Chairman, with respect to the account of Mr. and Mrs. Jones, an analysis of this account shows that the account was opened in——

The CHAIRMAN. Do you have the analysis?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir; I have the analysis, and I am going to deal with it right now.

Mr. Chairman, the analysis of the account of Mr. and Mrs. Jones, as reflected by the ledger cards submitted to the committee in response——

The CHAIRMAN. That is in just one account?

Mr. APPELL. Just one account, sir, shows that the account was opened on January 1, 1961, and that there was deposited to this account during the entire year of 1-1-61 to 10-31-61 a total of $87.50.

The CHAIRMAN. How much?

Mr. APPELL. $87.50. During the year 1-1-62 to 12-31-62 there was deposited into that account during the entire year a total of $98.

Checks written against that account in that year totaled $97.39, and the balance at the end of the year 1962 was $6.53.

During the year January 1, 1963, to 12-31-1963 there was deposited to that account a total of $162. There was disbursed or checks written against the account for $165.83, leaving a balance at the end of 1963 of $2.70.

It is the committee's information that Mr. Jones became Grand Dragon in August of 1963 and that during the year 1964 there was deposited to that account $1,745.85. During the year 1965, from January 8, 1965, through September 3, 1965, there has been deposited to that account $4,216.20.

The CHAIRMAN. That makes a total of what? Do you have the ready figure? If not, the record will speak for itself.

Mr. APPELL. Of all three accounts, sir?

The CHAIRMAN. Are you talking about three accounts or 3 or 4 years?

Mr. APPELL. We have only totaled the years from January 1, 1964, through 12-31-64, and January 1, 1965, through 8-14-65. The figure shows that the total deposits in 1964 were $1,745.85; total deposits in 1965 were $4,216.20. That, roughly, Mr. Chairman, is $5,962.05 over that 2-year period.

The CHAIRMAN. I suppose you will develop it, but let me ask you this general question, counsel:

Let me ask it of you first, Mr. Jones.

Mr. Jones, you heard these deposits in the joint account of you and your wife. My question is: Is it correct that these funds came from Klan sources?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

(Bank records marked "James Jones Exhibit No. 10" and retained in committee files.)

The CHAIRMAN. What were they disbursed for? Were they disbursed for Klan purposes or for your individual use?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. I wish you would consider that, Mr. Appell, but we have to leave because there is a record vote going on a very important bill. You can make an observation, but we will have to recess until tomorrow.

Mr. APPELL. The observation that I would like to make, Mr. Chairman, is that if we took the money that the committee found to have been deposited during the fiscal year 1965, and we deal only with the fiscal year 1965, deposited into the Alabama Rescue Service account—

The CHAIRMAN. Are you talking about another account now?

Mr. APPELL. I want to tie that of Mr. Shelton's account in the Alabama Rescue Service into what we have found in the fiscal year deposited in Mr. Jones' account, Mr. Shelton—

The CHAIRMAN. This is Mr. Jones.

Mr. APPELL. Yes, but Mr. Shelton, if he had reported all income from all Klan sources and if he had just included the income into North Carolina with the income that went into his organization in Tuscaloosa, he would have reported on the basis of what we have discovered, and only on the Imperial and State level, $32,845.20.

The CHAIRMAN. That is Mr. Shelton?

Mr. APPELL. Who claims he was reporting income from all sources in his corporate return filed with the Treasury Department.

The CHAIRMAN. And I suppose you will have much more to say about other bank accounts.

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir, as this hearing proceeds, we will.

The CHAIRMAN. The committee will have to stand in recess until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

(Whereupon, at 4:24 p.m., Wednesday, October 20, 1965, the subcommittee recessed, to reconvene at 10 a.m., Thursday, October 21, 1965.)

TESTIMONY OF JAMES ROBERTSON JONES, ACCOMPANIED BY COUNSEL, LESTER V. CHALMERS, JR.—Resumed

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, yesterday you were asked to give the committee the benefit of your employment background. Is it not a fact that since 1960 you have not had what could be considered regular employment with any employer?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Isn't it a fact that your gross income for 1960 was $3,872.98?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Isn't it a fact that your gross income in 1961 was $1,630.75?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Isn't it a fact that your gross income for 1962 was $3,579?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Isn't it a fact that your gross income for 1963 was $2,766.35?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, in reporting a gross income in 1963 of $2,766.35—

The CHAIRMAN. Do you mean on his income tax return?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir. —you reduced that income so that you came out on your tax return losing $113.65 for the year. You deducted as an item of expense 30,000 miles of travel in your automobile at 9 cents a mile, or $2,700. How much of that 30,000 miles was traveled by you as an official of the United Klans of America?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Isn't it a fact that in your 1964 income tax you reported a gross income from only one employer, the United Klans of America, in the amount of $8,923.05?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. What year was that?

Mr. APPELL. 1964, Mr. Chairman.

Mr. APPELL. The gross income was $8,923.05, Mr. Chairman.

Mr. Jones, as deductions from that gross income, did you not deduct items which you were paid for from the bank accounts of the United Klans of America?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

(At this point Representative Pool entered the hearing room.)

The CHAIRMAN. Was the reported income of $8,923 a true and correct gross income you received for 1964 from all sources?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, the staff would like to introduce as exhibits at this time—and, Mr. Chairman, with your permission, I would like to ask that all documents exhibited during the testimony of Mr. Jones be admitted in evidence in the sequence in which they are offered in order that I not ask on each individual occasion.

The CHAIRMAN. That leaves a loophole as to the order in which they are offered. Offer them in each instance. Why don't you say "as referred to"?

Mr. APPELL. As referred to, sir.

Mr. ASHBROOK. Mr. Chairman, could I ask a question?

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Ashbrook?

Mr. ASHBROOK. The question up to now, Mr. Jones, was in regard to your return. The legislative pertinence and purpose deals with whether, in fact, you have received any money, expense money, as a Klan leader or a member of a Klan.

Have you, in fact, received expense money for the duties that you have as a Klan leader in your State?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. I might point out that the income tax return itself indicates that the total earnings or income reported was derived from the United Klans of America.

Did you not say that, Mr. Appell?

Mr. APPELL. The form itself Mr. Chairman, is an attachment to the return. It is entitled "Profit (Or Loss) From Business Or Profession." The first line states "James R. Jones." The second line, "A," states: "Principal business activity: United Klans of America; product, Service." Gross income, $8,923.05.

Mr. Jones reduces this in order to pay tax on a net income of $1,991.55 as follows: Robes, $531.51; Interest, $112.31; Telephone (toll calls), $484.05; Electronic Repairs, $314.98; Printing Literature, $2,941.77; Auto Expense, Gas, Oil, Repairs et cetera, $1,851.28; Depreciation, a 1964 truck which, incidentally, Mr. Chairman, we showed yesterday was paid from the United Klans of America bank account at Granite Quarry, North Carolina, depreciation, 1964 International truck, purchased 9-1-64, cost $2,030, 3 years expectancy, $215.60; Expense, Lodging Away From Home, $480, or a total expense, the great bulk of which is paid from accounts in the name of the United Klans of America, in the amount of $6,931.50.

The CHAIRMAN. The question now, Mr. Jones, is this, and it may be repetitious but it will be final: Is it not a fact that some, most, and practically all of these deductions that you claimed from your reported income you had already received from the United Klans of America or from some of your Klaverns?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

(Income Tax Returns for Years 1960-1964, inclusive, marked "James Jones Exhibits Nos. 11-A through 11-E," respectively, and retained in committee files.)

Mr. CHALMERS. Mr. Chairman, may I state to you, sir, and to the committee, that that is exactly the reason we did not bring any income tax returns up here, because we were well aware that those income tax returns were available to the committee from another source and we knew that those income tax returns——

The CHAIRMAN. I am surprised at that coming from you, sir. Let me see that subpoena.

That is for the birds and that is for the press.

I ask your client or you. Do you say that we had the information called for in any more items that you know of?

Mr. CHALMERS. No, sir, Mr. Chairman; I am not saying that. No, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. And you refuse, or your client refused, to produce all of the items listed in the attachment to the subpoena based on alleged self-incrimination, which were rejected. Do you contend that all of the items called for would be self-incriminating?

Mr. CHALMERS. I cannot stipulate to that, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. I will ask him.

Is it your contention that you refuse to produce the items, the page of them, called for by the attachment to the subpoena because it would incriminate you if you produced them?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question on the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Of course, if you wish to be selective about it, you may not.

Proceed.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, yesterday we went into your account or the account in the name of the United Klans of America maintained by the Wachovia Bank which showed considerable deposits starting with May 13, 1965.

In July, or toward the end of July of 1965, did you say to the Klansmen throughout North Carolina in a communication by you, and I quote:

Money coming in for people on the road is slow. The payroll for the Klan employees is $600.00 per week, so in order to keep these people at work, we are going to have to have more support.

Please make payroll checks sent in, payable to United Klans of America, Wachovia Account or special account.

Isn't it a fact that between May 13th and June 28th you had placed into that account $5,046.55, had paid out only $750, and you are telling your membership that money is coming in slow?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "James Jones Exhibit No. 12" and retained in committee files.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, I have in my hand a document, on the stationery of the United Klans of America——

Mr. POOL. On that last question you asked, what was your authority for that last statement?

Mr. APPELL. A statement by Mr. Jones sent out to Klaverns throughout the State of North Carolina.

Mr. POOL. Was that mailed to them?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. POOL. Do you have copies of it?

Mr. APPELL. We have excerpts, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. I suppose that will be offered in evidence.

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. Jones, we have a document on the letterhead of the "United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Klu Klux Klan, P.O. Box 84, Whitnel, N.C." This is a form letter addressed "Dear Sir":

It has been brought to our attention that you are a sound believer in the "RIGHTS FOR THE WHITES".

We know that you would like to become a member of your local Klan, but due to your business or other reasons you cannot afford to. This is why we are writing you this letter of top secret.

We would like you to know that you can help fight for the freedom of all whites just as hundreds of others are doing, by making a donation to your local Klu Klux Klan unit. Your donation will be used to help make our community a better place to live.

Your donation will be of top secret and will not be revealed to anyone.

So whether making a donation or not, please place this letter in the enclosed self-addressed stamped envelope and mail today.

Thanking you for your donation and cooperation.

Please make your check payable [as this one says] to: Caldwell Improvement Assn. Thank you.

K K K K

Mr. Jones, were form letters similar to this sent to businessmen and other people throughout the State of North Carolina?

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Appell, I happen to have in my office, and I don't know if you have it, a circular by, I think, the United Klans, although I will have to verify it, or perhaps it is Shelton's, indicating in plain print on the circular a similar appeal to this one, to the effect that donations would be income tax deductible. I notice in this particular one that is not included.

Mr. APPELL. No, sir; it is not. It is the committee's information that back in 1961 Calvin Craig, the Grand Dragon—

The CHAIRMAN. That is the one I am talking about.

Mr. APPELL. —Calvin Craig, the Grand Dragon of North Carolina, put out a circular in which he put on the bottom that it was tax exempt. He was advised by the Internal Revenue that it was not a tax exempt organization.

Mr. Shelton, through counsel, requested the Internal Revenue Service to forward him copies of the necessary forms in which an organization could be declared tax exempt, and he never executed the forms and the United Klans of America, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, or under the name of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., have never been granted tax exempt status by the United States Government.

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Chairman, the record ought to show that Calvin Craig is the Grand Dragon of Georgia, not of North Carolina.

Mr. APPELL. I am sorry, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. That is the document I have reference to.

As I say, though, to make the record straight, this letter, at least, does not make that claim.

Mr. APPELL. It does not, Mr. Chairman.

Mr. Chairman, I would like to have received in the record at this point, and I do not intend to go into the items, these documents. The staff has throwaways or leaflets announcing Klan rallies in the State of North Carolina starting Sunday, April 4, 1965, and running through one they expect to have this Saturday, October 23, at Supply, North Carolina.

The CHAIRMAN. Let me see one.

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir. There is a total of 67 of these, all of which, of course, except the ones they haven't held, they have passed the plate at, they have sought donations of money. I would like to ask that these circulators be accepted into the record at this point in the order of their date.

The CHAIRMAN. It will be so ordered, and the document previously referred to, specifically, the letter just read, will be inserted into the record at the point where Mr. Appell described it.

(Documents marked "James Jones Exhibits Nos. 14-1 through 14-67," respectively, and retained in committee files.)

Mr. APPELL. The committee subpoenaed from the Suburban Printing Company, Lexington, North Carolina, invoices of printing work done by them during the years 1964 and 1965.

The CHAIRMAN. It is a fact, is it not, Mr. Jones, that these throwaways or leaflets were widely distributed in large numbers, in thousands?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. One of the invoices submitted to the committee in accordance with this subpoena is an invoice—

The CHAIRMAN. What subpoena?

Mr. APPELL. A subpoena on the Suburban Printing Company of Lexington, North Carolina. — is dated October 8, 1965, billed to James R. Jones, Box 321, Granite Quarry, North Carolina. It shows that the order number was No. 527.

The CHAIRMAN. You don't have to describe it in great detail.

Mr. APPELL. It calls for 10,000 copies of "Widows Benevolent Fund Applications" at a cost of $115.36.

Mr. Jones, who is the custodian of the Widows Benevolent Fund?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "James Jones Exhibit No. 15-A.")

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to ask that this form of application printed for Mr. Jones by the Suburban Printing Company be entered into the record as this point, and I would like to read from it. It is to be signed by the applicant. It says:

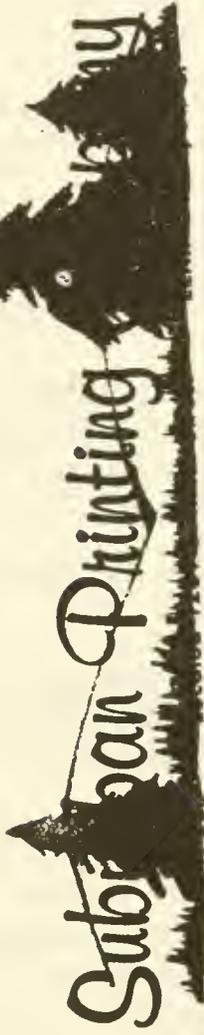

I, hereby, agree that to benefit from this plan I must stay in good standing within my own unit and must pay promptly the $1.00 assessment fee in case of death of any member. I, hereby, agree that in case of my leaving the unit for any reason that I will forfeit any and all benefits and monies I may have paid in.

Under the "NAME of UNIT," there is an amount of $999.95.

Is that the amount that would be paid to the widow or beneficiaries of a deceased Klansman in case of death out of this fund?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

had discussed this matter under the North Carolina State insurance laws.

The CHAIRMAN. Let me ask you this question: I happen to know from personal knowledge of a plan somewhat, I gather, along these lines, that the people who pay in and subsequently no longer belong to the organization must forfeit what was previously paid. That is number one.

Number two, I accept this statement that in case of death the widow, if her husband was still in good standing and had not forfeited, would receive $999.95. But the hitch is that there are usually many more members than are needed to get $999.95, so there is a huge profit on the side and the net result is that the more who die the more money they make.

I am not saying that is the plan, but I will ask you if that is substantially the plan, Mr. Jones.

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, did a—

The CHAIRMAN. Wait a moment. What is the name? Is that a corporate entity?

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, our only knowledge of this comes from the subpoena on the Suburban Printing Company.

The CHAIRMAN. What is the name of it?

Mr. APPELL. Widows Benevolent Fund.

The CHAIRMAN. Is there a corporation by that name, Mr. Jones?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Whether it is a corporation or an entity in the form of a partnership, in which case a memorandum return would have to be made, a return by that Widows Benevolent Fund—an income tax return—I would judge would have to be filed. Do you know whether an income tax return has been regularly filed by the Widows Benevolent Fund?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, in December of 1964, or late November 1964, did you, together with a few of your top leaders, decide that it would be a good idea to coerce the Klan leadership into presenting you with a 1964 Cadillac?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Did you receive and accept that Cadillac?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, with respect to the Cadillac, I would like to enter into the record at this point a document obtained through subpoena from the Farmers & Merchants Bank, which is a note signed by James Robertson Jones in the amount of $5,868, calling for payment at the rate of $163 a month for a 1964 Cadillac, serial number 64G074473, including radio, heater, spare tire, wheel, and all other accessories. "Witness my hand * * * the 15 day of December, 1964, James Robertson Jones."

The CHAIRMAN. Ask him if he signed it.

Mr. APPELL. I show you this document, Mr. Jones, and ask you if you did sign that note?

(Document handed to witness.)

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "James Jones Exhibit No. 16.")

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, after the decision was made by your leadership to buy you this 1964 Cadillac, were Klans assessed sums of money for the purpose of paying off the note which you signed?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, the ledger sheet supplied by the Granite Quarry Bank [Farmers & Merchants Bank], showing the payments made, shows that between January 26, 1965, and September 29, 1965, there had been paid off on this automobile—well, the balance owed had been reduced to $898.10.

The CHAIRMAN. Have any payments been made since September?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "James Jones Exhibit No. 17." Exhibits Nos. 16 and 17 appear on pp. 1742, 1743-1744.)

Mr. POOL. What was that total?

Mr. APPELL. The balance on September 29 owed on the car was $898.10.

Mr. Jones, isn't it a fact that Mr. Kornegay made a report to the membership as the chairman of the car committee in which he claimed that:

Listed below are the latest amounts paid on Cadillac:

I show you this document addressed to "Esteemed Klansmen" and ask you if this is a factual copy of a document sent out by Mr. Kornegay?

(Document handed to witness.)

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

mitted by the exalted cyclops, the heads of these various Klaverns; am I correct?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. It is my understanding that all of the Klaverns have, just like your higher unit, some sort of rules, constitution, and bylaws, requiring that expenditures be approved by someone.

Do you know whether these exalted cyclops just took it upon themselves, with your committee group, to make these payments, or whether they were approved by the general membership of these various Klaverns?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Do you know whether the general membership has ever known anything about this transaction?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, this letter from which I have just read, addressed to the "Esteemed Klansmen," accompanied a letter addressed to the "Esteemed Klansmen" signed by Mr. James R. Jones as the Grand Dragon, North Carolina.

He says, and I quote from just one or two paragraphs, although I ask that the entire document and the one previous be placed in the record at this point, "Mr. M. R. Kornegay"—

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Appell, you will have to have a general pattern. It will be confusing if you offer some. All those you talk about will be received in evidence as you describe them. Either that or you will have to offer each one.

Mr. APPELL. I prefer your previous suggestion.

I will quote from two paragraphs of the letter which accompanied the Kornegay letter which I just read. This is signed by James R. Jones, Grand Dragon, North Carolina:

Mr. M. R. Kornegay is no longer with us. He is now Grand Dragon of Virginia, being Grand Dragon of Virginis [sic] he has all the problems he can handle.

It was a pleasure having him in the State of North Carolina but please refrain from bothering him with North Carolina problems.

Money on the car from now on will be made out to Mrs. James R. Jones and sent to the State Office. Enclosed you will find a letter showing the amount each unit has sent in, if this is not right please let me know.

As soon as time permits I will send out the letter on the State meeting. If I can be of any help don't hesitate to call.

Yours for God & Country.

/s/ James R. Jones.

And following this is a note: "P.S. Syble"—and this is the name of Mr. Jones' wife—

The CHAIRMAN. I don't think you ought to question him about her.

Mr. APPELL. Following the "P.S." which I will not go into on your instruction, Mr. Chairman, there is a listing of dates to remember: September 8, Henderson, and there is an additional listing of locations and dates where rallies are to be held.

Mr. Chairman, these "Esteemed Klansmen" letters are not dated.

I would like to convey to you my sincere appreciation for the work and money put into this endeavor for your Grand Dragon. Please look at your unit and the amount paid and if it is not up to what you know is your fair share, please send in the balance. Send all money for Cadillac to: Mrs. James R. Jones, P. O. Box 321, Granite Quarry.

Also, I would like to take this opportunity to say that I have truly enjoyed meeting with you and being a part of this fine organization. I know that with the type of Klanspeople we have here that North Carolina will certainly go forward on this hard road back to a great America. May you forever give your leaders your unwavering loyalty and full support, so they may do a better job.

HANG TOGETHER OR HANG ALONE.

A stage driver passed o'er a trail one day
 Past meadow and woodland he took his way
 His long whip snapping with unerring aim, whether standing or moving, 'twas just the same.
 A horsefly fell to his snaky lash
 Shot out as sure as the lightning'a flash;
 A grasshopper here, a butterfly there,
 Fell to his aim, as they winged the air.
 A hornet's nest hung on a limb nearby,-
 But the driver passed that carefully by.
 "How come?" the passengers cried surprised.
 "Why", answered he, "they're organized!"
 Horsefly, butterfly, grasshopper, too
 Their fate is a lesson and warning to you,
 You will flutter and fall like the hoppers and flies,
 Unless, like the hornets, you're organized!

JAMES JONES EXHIBIT NO. 18-B

Esteemed Klansmen,

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for the fine cooperation we have had in July and August and hope to get the same cooperation at the rallies in September and October. The next 90 days in North Carolina may prove to be rough, so let me ask you to conduct yourself as the fine people I know you are.

The first Sunday in October for the people in the Second Congressional District at 3 P. M. in Enfield, N. C. over the Fire Department there will be a Province meeting to elect new Province officers in the Second Congressional District. All units are expected to have (10) ten men from each unit present as voting delegates.

The second Sunday in October, 3rd Congressional District will be expected to have the same amount of delegates at the Klavern Hall in Dunn to elect new Province Officers and Titan widows benevolent fund application forms. If you need them write the State office. We want to get them in as soon as possible. They must be in by October 15th or it will not be able to be put in effect.

Mr. M. R. Kornegay is no longer with us. He is now Grand Dragon of Virginia, being Grand Dragon of Virginia he has all the problems he can handle.

It was a pleasure having him in the State of North Carolina but please refrain from hothering him with North Carolina problems.

Money on the car from now on will be made out to Mrs. James R. Jones and sent to the State Office. Enclosed you will find a letter showing the amount each unit has sent in, if this is not right please let me know.

As soon as time permits I will send out the letter on the State meeting. If I can be of any help don't hesitate to call.

Yours for God & Country

The CHAIRMAN. Does this letter purport to have been sent to the general membership or to the exalted cyclops of the Klaverns? I want the record to be straight on that. I didn't mean to be putting words in his mouth when I asked a question. I want information.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, only Mr. Jones can answer to the full extent of the distribution of the "Esteemed Klansmen" letter.

The CHAIRMAN. I asked him. Well, the document will speak for itself.

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir. The point I wish to make is that giving notice to the membership of a rally to be held on September 8th, this document had to be mailed prior to September 8th and, therefore, Mr. Kornegay's report that $4,522.59 had been sent in and the total paid out was $4,522.59 does not jibe with the statement of payments as received by us from the bank.

If we total up the amounts paid and the dates upon which they were paid, there was only $3,914.90 paid into this fund prior to September 1 of 1965.

The CHAIRMAN. I will ask this direct question: Mr. Jones, did you pocket or keep or use personally these car payments, which obviously had been agreed upon, instead of applying them all to your note?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, I ask you as a fact if you also own a 1964 Dodge station wagon?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, the Department of Motor Vehicles of the State of North Carolina, Raleigh, North Carolina, in response to an inquiry made of them, has sent us a letter.

I would like to read two paragraphs:

License DR-6195 was issued to James Robertson Jones, Granite Quarry, North Carolina covering 1964 Dodge Station Wagon, serial 7542584426. Mr. Jones purchased this vehicle new from Ray Bandy, Inc., of Rocky Mount, North Carolina. North Carolina title 6413226 was mailed to lien holder, Farmers and Merchants Bank, Granite Quarry as they hold $2150.00 chattel mortgage dated April 22, 1964. Date of purchase from Ray Bandy, Inc. by Mr. Jones is April 23, 1964.

License DR-6196 was issued to James Robertson Jones, Box 321, Granite Quarry, North Carolina covering 1964 Cadillac Tudor, serial 64G074473. Mr. Jones purchased this vehicle used from Charles Lindbergh Martin of Raleigh, North Carolina on December 17, 1964. North Carolina title 6551686A was mailed to lien holder, Farmers and Merchants Bank, Granite Quarry as they hold $5868.00 chattel mortgage dated December 17, 1964.

Mr. Jones, the ledger card—

The CHAIRMAN. Let's ask him about that.

Mr. Jones, I noticed when Mr. Appell was reading this letter from the most reliable authority we know to inquire from, namely the Motor Vehicle Bureau of North Carolina, you leaned to your counsel and smiled.

I ask you whether this letter is correct? I want to ask you another question after that.

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "James Jones Exhibit No. 19-A" and retained in committee files.)

The CHAIRMAN. We are giving you an opportunity to affirm or deny documentary evidence obtained in good faith and from most reliable sources. We did the same thing to Mr. Shelton yesterday and then he blabbered something to the press and TV about we were wrong in one instance or something.

Do you intend after leaving the stand, since you are smiling to your counsel, to say you caught us in one instance?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. By the way, Mr. Appell now tells me and refreshes my memory with reference to an item of $2,135 which Mr. Shelton talked about outside the room, saying that our counsel knew all along that that was from an insurance policy from which he collected accident benefits, that nothing of the kind is in the record.

What Mr. Appell questioned Mr. Shelton about was very proper. In effect, Mr. Appell said to Mr. Shelton "I notice that there is an item, a deposit in your account, of $2,135. What is the source of that money?"

Mr. Appell didn't say it was from any evil source. He just asked him a question.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, according to the ledger card maintained by the Farmers & Merchants Bank, Granite Quarry, North Carolina, relative to the 1964 Dodge, it shows that the first payment on this car in the amount of $73.75 was made in May 1964.

The CHAIRMAN. You are talking about the Dodge?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir; the Dodge.

We asked you yesterday whether or not the tax which you received from Klaverns, and we exhibited to you at least one document to show that tax from Klaverns was placed into the bank account in the name of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Jones, was not payments for this 1964 Dodge made from this account into which tax from Klaverns was received?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

(Ledger sheet marked "James Jones Exhibit No. 19-B" appear on pp. 1750, 1751.)

Mr. APPELL. I hand you six checks totaling $442.50.

Mr. Jones, an analysis of the account shows—

The CHAIRMAN. You showed him six checks. Ask him a question.

Mr. APPELL. Do these checks properly reflect, as they state on their face, payments from your account to the Farmers & Merchants Bank in the amount of $73.75? That is from the account to which the Klan tax is deposited.

The CHAIRMAN. It is a Klan account?

Mr. APPELL. But it is in the name of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Jones.

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. In other words, as I follow the questioning, the point is that Klan dues money was used to pay on the account of that Dodge?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Is that correct, Mr. Jones?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. If you used Klan money to pay that, that would be just as much income to you as anything else, reportable on your income tax return. That is why I asked the question.

Mr. JONES. I respectfully—

The CHAIRMAN. I didn't ask another question.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, an analysis of the account of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Jones, together with the UKA account at the Farmers & Merchants Bank and the Wachovia Bank in Salisbury, failed to reflect payments by check, many payments by check, made on this automobile.

Did you on any occasion use cash which you received in your position as Grand Dragon to make some of these payments?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, are you—

The CHAIRMAN. I should have asked and I now ask about the checks exhibited, having been proved to come from Klan sources, did the membership authorize you to use that Klan money?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer the question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, has the governing body of the State of North Carolina ever fixed for you a salary in your position as Grand Dragon?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Now, Mr. Jones, I might as well ask you this question: Do you honestly believe that your answer to this last question and to all other questions previously asked might tend to incriminate you?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. The right to invoke the privilege of the fifth amendment is based on an honest fear of self-incrimination or criminal prosecution.

Now I think also in fairness to you I should point out this, but first I will ask a question.

Do you intend, after you leave this stand, to issue a statement explaining and answering some of these very questions we are talking about, that we have asked you?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. I do hope you honestly so believe because, having invoked the fifth amendment on all of these questions, if you do speak out and answer some of them, or perhaps question the veracity or integrity of some of these questions, that would pretty well destroy your honesty in the invocation and might result, and will result, I think, as we consider it, in our questioning Mr. Shelton when he returns about what he did say outside, after he had the opportunity to answer questions.

I am not in the least questioning your right to make any statement you want to make. I am talking about evidence before this committee. I am testing your honesty in the invocation. That is all.

Any statement you wish to make outside this room, go to it. But I do admonish you of the situation it places you in.

Proceed.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, section 4 of the attachment to your subpoena which was made a part of the subpoena, called upon you to produce certain books and records relating to an insurance contract between the Capital City Restoration Association and the International Life and Accident Insurance Company.

What is the Capital City Restoration Association?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Isn't it a fact that it is a cover name of a Klavern of the United Klans of America?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, I hand you a series of checks, some made payable to cash, some made payable to the United Klans of America, and some made payable to James R. Jones, and I ask you if it isn't a fact that these checks reflect that the payments were for the stated purpose for which drawn, tax, and if the imprint of the check doesn't show the Capital City Restoration Association and if this does not establish the fact that it is a cover for a Klan unit?

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

(Documents marked "James Jones Exhibit No. 21" and retained in committee files.)

Mr. APPELL. I show you another group of checks written by the Capital City Restoration Association, and invite your specific attention to the first one, dated October 26, 1964, in the amount of $16.75, made payable to the Alabama Rescue Service, and invite your attention to the purpose for which drawn, which is set forth on this check as "Imperial Tax."

I ask you if this does not establish that this is a cover for a Klan unit?

(Documents handed to witness.)

The CHAIRMAN. What do you mean by cover? A front?

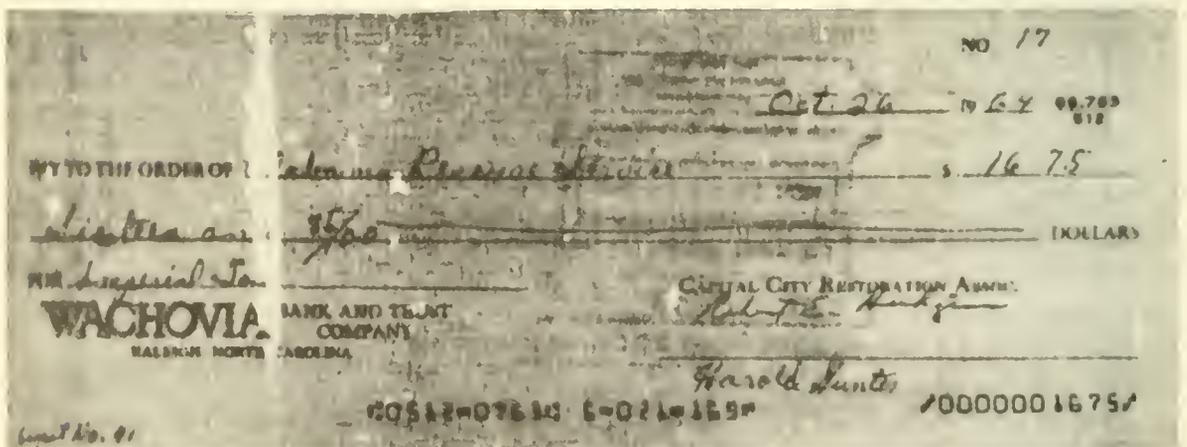

Mr. APPELL. A front.

The CHAIRMAN. In other words, the invisibility beyond the invisible.

(Documents marked "James Jones Exhibit No. 22." Check of October 26, 1964, follows; balance retained in committee files.)

JAMES JONES EXHIBIT NO. 22

Mr. APPELL. Dealing further with the Capital City Restoration Association, did the Klan, using the Capital City Restoration Association, enter into a contract with the International Life and Accident Insurance Company to write medical policies, hospital and medical policies, for Klansmen throughout the State of North Carolina?

(At this point Mr. Weltner returned to the hearing room.)

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Jones, I don't want the question to imply the illegality, per se, of an insurance plan within an organization.

We simply want the facts and what the insurance plan is, whether it is an entity, who is deriving the profits and so on. That is the purpose of the question.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, at the time this plan was being sold to the Klansmen throughout North Carolina, was it held out by you and others that the premium paid on the first, the first month's premium, would be used in part to pay your expenses traveling throughout the State, and that a portion of this would be returned to the Klavern for its expenses?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I have a letter which says at the top, "TO BE READ ON ALL KLAVERN HALL FLOORS":

TO ALL KLANSMEN:

As you know we have a group hospital plan for Klansmen of North Carolina. This is a first, for it is practically impossible to get a company to recognize our group and give us this VAST coverage at the price we are paying. On April 6, 1965 (for one week) we paid out a total of $1,400.25 for claims to our Brother Klansmen.

I would like to interrupt the reading right here, Mr. Jones, and ask you isn't it a fact that you did not pay out that amount of money during that week, and that you knew it?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. [Continues reading:]

The total paid out so far, since the beginning of this Group Policy, is a tremendous sum. This money has gone to help our Klansmen who, if they did NOT have this plan, would have had to pay the hospital bills themselves. In order to keep this program as it is, we must hold it in line with claims. Therefore we must have immediately 400 NEW applicants to add to this group in the next two weeks. We must also keep the ones that have already participated in this plan, so be sure to keep yours paid.

We are sorry to say we have only about 250 in this plan out of our whole North Carolina Group. Of the original 250, only 111 are paying.

Mr. Chairman, I will skip rather than read the whole thing and conclude with:

Enclosed is information sheets.

Yours for God and Country.

JAMES R. JONES, Grand Dragon

P.S. We must build this group to 500 paying members. Help us save this plan.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Jones, at this point I ask you this question: A number of documents have been offered in evidence, signed by yourself, calling yourself the Grand Dragon of North Carolina. Are you the Grand Dragon of North Carolina?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. The accompanying document, Mr. Chairman, is headed "An Insurance Program Designed For Capital City Restoration Association And Affiliated Groups In North Carolina."

I hand you these, Mr. Jones, to ask whether this is a copy of a document that you sent out, together with the enclosure?

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

(Documents marked "James Jones Exhibit No. 23" follow:)

JAMES JONES EXHIBIT NO. 23

TO BE READ ON ALL KLAVERN HALL FLOORS

TO ALL KLANSMEN:

As you know we have a group hospital plan for Klansmen of North Carolina.

This is a first, for it is practically impossible to get a company to recognize our group and give us this VAST coverage at the price we are paying. On April 6, 1965 (for one week) we paid out a total of $1,400.25 for claims to our Brother Klansmen. The total paid out so far, since the beginning of this Group Policy, is a tremendous sum. This money has gone to help our Klansmen who, if they did NOT have this plan, would have had to pay the hospital bills themselves. We must also keep the ones that have already participated in this plan, so be sure to keep yours paid.

We are sorry to say we have only about 250 in this plan out of our whole North Carolina Group. Of the original 250, only 111 are paying.

Since we pay in to a Company LESS than we receive, you can readily see the position we find ourselves in.

I could not get any hospital insurance before we got this through and so were a lot of other Klansmen in the same boat with me. Now that we have this, and see the benefit it has already been to our local units, are we going to continue to support people that do not support us or are we going to join this hospital plan and HELP people that helps us.

Our North Carolina Group is growing by leaps and bounds and with it we must help keep the ONE COMPANY that is on our side to stay with us.

Some few of our units have joined with a majority of the unit and some DO NOT have a SINGLE ONE from their unit in this Hospital Plan.

It is most urgent and important, that we take this under advisement and support this group plan NOW by getting your unit covered.

I went out on a limb from the first by promising this company 1000 members and this certainly would not be but a small percentage of our number of Klansmen. As you can see NO ONE will support us unless we support them.

Klansmen, are we going to lose this group plan or are we going to support and keep a White Man's Company behind us?

This plan will pay even if you have another plan that pays also.

Enclosed is information sheets.

Kligrapp: Get the names from your unit and send to me of the ones that do not have it now, but will take it now.

Send reply on Hospital Insurance to: P.O. Box 9183, Raleigh, North Carolina.

Proposal Prepared and Submitted by M. R. Kornegay.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Jones, I said awhile ago that insurance programs, benefits, by many organizations are duly recorded as completely legal and certainly in vogue and certainly exercised. Most of them, so far as I know, have very noble causes. Here is an opportunity really to talk about this program. Especially, you have an opportunity to say that, as the document you sign states, you are making no profits.

Didn't that passage in there say that no profits were made, Mr. Appell?

Mr. APPELL. I didn't read that part.

The CHAIRMAN. I misunderstood you, then. There was a general statement at the very beginning.

Is it in there?

Mr. APPELL. I don't see it, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. I thought you indicated that it said something about "We don't take in more than we disburse" or something.

Mr. APPELL. What it said was "we must hold it in line with the claims. Therefore we must have immediately 400 NEW applicants * * *."

The CHAIRMAN. Before that.

Mr. APPELL. "This money has gone to help our Klansmen who, if they did NOT have this plan, would have had to pay the hospital bills themselves."

The CHAIRMAN. Before that.

Mr. APPELL. I will start from the first :

This is a first, for it is practically impossible to get a company to recognize our group and give us this VAST coverage at the price we are paying. On April 6, 1965 (for one week) we paid out a total of $1,400.25 for claims to our Brother Klansmen. The total paid out so far—

The CHAIRMAN. Let's see the document.

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. [Reading:]

This is a first, for it is practically impossible to get a company to recognize our group and give us this VAST coverage at the price we are paying.

Well, it didn't say what I thought it said.

But there is an opportunity, nevertheless, Mr. Jones, for you to say is this insurance plan self-sustaining only, or are profits made from it?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Proceed.

I was wrong. It did not say what I thought it said. I am glad I caught it.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, the committee has obtained from the Insurance Department of the State of North Carolina all of the applications executed by Klansmen under this program, and while the insurance coverage called for Capital City Restoration Association and affiliated groups, we have pulled from the entire number of applications some which relate to affiliated groups.

I wish to ask you as I name the affiliated group whether you, as the Grand Dragon of North Carolina, knew this affiliated group to be, like the Capital City Restoration Association, a unit of the Klan.

Harnett County Improvement Association, P.O. Box 48, Dunn, North Carolina?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Isn't it a fact, Mr. Jones, that you have in the State of North Carolina as in all the States that I know of, large numbers of cover groups, front groups, such as gun clubs and others of that type, that are actually high-sounding names to use to camouflage, or as a matter of security, in the use of these names, when, in fact, they are Klan groups and Klaverns. Isn't that true?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. And I say our investigative work indicates that that is definitely true. Isn't it true?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Another of the affiliated groups listed on one of the applications for hospital-surgical coverage is the New Hanover Improvement Association, Inc., P.O. Box 1104, Wilmington, North Carolina.

Is this Improvement Association one of your Klan units?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Within the New Hanover County Improvement Association, do you possess any knowledge as to whether or not, within its membership, there are law enforcement officers?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on ground previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. A hospital-surgical coverage application also designates as an affiliated unit the Town & Country Sportsman Club, P.O. Box 244, Durham, North Carolina.

Is this Town & Country Sportsman Club a Klan unit?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. An additional application shows an affiliated group, Warrenton Improvement Association, Norlina, P.O. Box 156, North Carolina.

Do you know the Warrenton Improvement Association to be a Klan group unit?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Another of the affiliated units, according to an application, is the Halifax County Sportsman Club, Box 611, Enfield, North Carolina.

Do you know it to be a Klan unit?

Mr. APPELL. Another application which lists an affiliated unit shows Kings Mountain, North Carolina, No. 55, P.O. Box 681, Kings Mountain, North Carolina.

Do you know Kings Mountain, North Carolina, No. 55, to be the numerical designation of a Klan unit in North Carolina?

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, this applicant is James D. Carter. Was James D. Carter a province titan within the Klan in North Carolina?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. As a matter of fact, at a rally, didn't he come up to you and push his robes into your gut and tear up his membership card in front of your face?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Another affiliated unit is listed merely as Number 23.

I read it, Mr. Chairman, as Sanford, without the designation of the State, although the applicant lists his residence as Sanford, North Carolina.

Do you have a unit in North Carolina known as Unit Number 23?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Another affiliated unit, Mr. Jones, is shown as Number 38, Goldsboro, North Carolina. Do you have a unit known as Number 38 in Goldsboro, North Carolina?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Another of the affiliated groups, according to the application, is the Limestone Fishing Club, P.O. Box 313, Beulaville, North Carolina. Is the Limestone Fishing Club a unit of the Klan in North Carolina?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. The last of the affiliated units that we could find within the applications is the Keystone Club, 1069 Henderson, North Carolina. Is the Keystone Club known to you as an affiliated, as a Klan within the State of North Carolina?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, was there an important meeting of the Klan held in Rockwell, North Carolina, on August 22, 1965?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Did you at this meeting make a financial report to the membership?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Did you report that the total taken in was approximately $14,125 to date, and that you had paid out $11,000, had a balance of $3,125.18, and that some bills were outstanding and that the balance in the bank as of this date, which is August 22, 1965, was $1,625.18?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Isn't it a fact, Mr. Jones, that during the period of time from the first of 1965 to the date of your report that you had taken in $21,974.22, disbursed $15,111.77, and had a balance in the bank at that time of $6,862.45?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Appell, are you asking the question as a fact which has been verified?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. And all of these questions have been verified by investigation?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir, by an analysis of the bank accounts. I would like to point out, Mr. Chairman, that the staff does not know whether this is all the money that has come in.

The CHAIRMAN. That was the question I was about to ask him.

Mr. Jones, Mr. Appell, following good and honest investigative practice, is questioning you from material subpoenaed from or received from the bank, a bank, which could be erroneous. You are being given an opportunity to verify or dispute these figures. I will ask you this question.

As of the date when, according to verifiable bank records, you had—

Mr. APPELL. He had received during the period from the first of 1965 to the period of his report $21,974.22.

The CHAIRMAN. This is according to material received from the bank. In fact, as of that date, had you or had you not—I will put it two ways this time because I am talking about the facts developed—had you or had you not received more funds that you either had not put into the bank or kept for yourself? Is that all you had received and did you deposit it all in the bank?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Is it, or is it not, a fact that you have other accounts in other banks besides the one we are now talking about?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Chairman, can Mr. Appell repeat the figures as contained in the report submitted?

Mr. APPELL. His report to the membership was the total taken in to date approximately $14,125, and paid out approximately $11,000.

Mr. WELTNER. That is all.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to observe that the figure of $21,974 brought in does not include $4,969.90 which was paid toward the automobile, and I wish to also point out that an analysis of accounts of Klans or Klaverns shows that many checks payable to Mr. Jones, made payable to J. R. Jones, are never deposited in any bank account because the endorsements on the reverse thereof show that Mr. Jones has cashed these checks at places other than at his bank.

The CHAIRMAN. Proceed.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, at approximately March 1st, or in the period within the first few days of March, was a State meeting of the Klan of North Carolina held?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. At this meeting—

The CHAIRMAN. What was the date of that?

Mr. APPELL. In the first few days of March 1965, sir.

At this meeting, were you nominated and elected——

The CHAIRMAN. "Were you or were you not?"

Mr. APPELL. Were you or were you not elected——

The CHAIRMAN. If you know it to be a fact——

Mr. APPELL. Isn't it a fact that you were nominated and elected to your office of Grand Dragon without opposition?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Isn't it a fact that George Dorsett and Grady Mars were nominated to the office of treasurer and that Grady Mars was elected?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Isn't it a fact that Jim Hackney, M. R. Kornegay, Reverend Woodle, were nominated for the office of klokard and that Mr. M. R. Kornegay was elected?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Isn't it a fact that there were nominated for the position of kludd or chaplain the Reverend Roy Woodle and Bill McCubbins and —— Morgan ¹ and that Reverend Woodle was elected?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Isn't it a fact that when it came to the nomination for the office of grand kligrapp or secretary, that a motion was made, seconded, and carried to let you, as the Grand Dragon, appoint your own secretary?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Did you appoint your own secretary and, if so, who is the person?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Isn't it a fact that Fred Wilson was elected without opposition to the position of grand klabee?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Isn't it a fact that Bill Brown, Robert Reaves, and Jack Murray, Jr., were nominated to the position of grand kladd and that Robert Reaves was elected?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Isn't it a fact that Albert Outlaw, Wayne Rivers, and J. T. Shepard were nominated for the position of klarogo, with Albert Outlaw being elected?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Isn't it a fact that Joe Norman, Clarence Brindle, and Ray Tripp were nominated for the position of klexter, with Clarence Brindle elected?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Isn't a fact that Boyd Hanby was elected without opposition to the position of grand night-hawk?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Isn't it a fact that it was announced at that meeting that the constitution and bylaws of the United Klans of America, Inc., were being changed so that they would provide that all imperial and grand officers are elected for a period of 2 years?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. What was it before?

Mr. APPELL. It staggered, Mr. Chairman, with the Imperial Wizard being 3 years, with the Imperial Klabee being 2 years, the Imperial Kligrapp being 2 years, and certain other officers only for a period of 1 year.

The CHAIRMAN. All right.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, preceding this election, I ask you if it is a fact if at one time Woody Goodwin, of Wilmington, North Carolina, was your Klaliff or vice president?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I ask you if it is a fact that Arthur C. Leonard, of Salisbury, North Carolina, was the grand klokard.

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Did you ask if it was a fact?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

Is it or is it not a fact that Arthur C. Leonard was the grand klokard?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previous stated.

Mr. APPELL. Is it not a fact that W. R. McCubbins, M-c-C-u-b-b-i-n-s, was grand kludd?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Prior to the election that I previously discussed with you, was it a fact that Charles Deese of Salisbury, North Carolina, was grand kligrapp or secretary?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Is it not a fact that Ray Terry, of Durham, North Carolina, prior to the election that we have discussed, was the grand kladd?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Is it not a fact that Buck Hoarse,¹ of Lexington, was at one time the grand inner guard?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Is it not a fact that he was replaced on August 6, 1964, by M. R. Kornegay?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Is it not a fact that at one time Jim McLamb of Wilmington, North Carolina, was the grand outer guard under you as Grand Dragon?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Appell tells me that he cannot conclude with this witness before lunch, so the committee will stand in recess until 1:30.

(Whereupon, at 12 noon, Thursday, October 21, 1965, the subcommittee recessed, to reconvene at 1:30 p.m. the same day.)

The CHAIRMAN. Please proceed.

TESTIMONY OF JAMES ROBERTSON JONES—Resumed

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, within the United Klans of America, is it the practice to issue official charters to Klans under cover names, such as improvement associations?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question for reasons that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me, in violation of my rights as guaranteed me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the United Klans of America did issue a formal charter in the name of the Craven County Improvement Association, New Bern, North Carolina, Klan No. 33.

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I hand you a copy of that charter and ask you if it is not a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny it, if it is not a fact that your name appears as the Grand Dragon, and Mr. Robert M. Shelton's name appears, Mr. W. O. Perkins' name appears there, but appears to have been signed for him by someone having the initials "C L" and that it was accepted for that Klavern by Raymond D. Mills.

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "James Jones Exhibit No. 26" follows:)

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny it, that there was created the New Bern and Blounts Creek Fund, Grady B. Mars or James R. Jones, Arcola Rural Station, Warrenton, North Carolina, for the purpose of raising funds for the defense of Raymond Mills.

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. I will ask Mr. Appell, as I am not sure, but did you establish that Mr. Mills pleaded guilty? Did you ask him that? Did you put that to him as a fact and ask him to affirm or deny that fact?

Mr. APPELL. I do not remember, sir, so I will.

Did Raymond Mills, in the course of the trial, change his plea from not guilty to guilty of the crimes for which he was indicted?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. It is more than that. I put it to you as a fact that the court records show that he did plead guilty. I ask you to affirm or deny that fact.

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, Mr. Jones, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the total amount deposited into that account was $645.16.

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny that fact, that as far as loans or advances of money in behalf of Mills, that on May 3, 1965, a check was drawn against this account in the amount of $260, signed by Grady B. Mars, which check contained a notation "90 day note, Lonnie R. Mills, Rt. 2, Vanceboro, N.C."

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

JAMES JONES EXHIBIT NO. 28

The CHAIRMAN. What was the total amount collected for that defense fund, Mr. Appell?

Mr. APPELL. $645.16.

The CHAIRMAN. Understand the situation, Mr. Jones. As I understand it, the campaign went on to collect this amount of money to defend Mr. Mills, and the account shows, I believe—what?

Mr. APPELL. There was deposited $645.16. As for withdrawals from the account, Mr. Chairman, there was a check in the amount of $57 which was a debit to the account because the check submitted was "insufficient funds." There was a check written, as I described in the record, and the third check that was written against the account was a cashier's check which was used to close the account, and the maker of that check was Grady B. Mars.

Mr. WELTNER. Would counsel identify Grady Mars from the trial records that have been offered into evidence?

Mr. APPELL. Grady B. Mars, according to the record, Mr. Weltner, is the Klaliff or vice president, of the Realm of North Carolina. Incidentally, he is a paid worker or organizer at the rate of $150 per week.

The CHAIRMAN. How much was there deposited, Mr. Appell?

Mr. APPELL. There was a total deposit of $645.16.

The CHAIRMAN. Give me the items of withdrawal.

Mr. APPELL. There was a debit of $57 which constituted a check which bounced because of insufficient funds, and there were two withdrawals.

The CHAIRMAN. $57 NSF?

Mr. APPELL. Yes. And a $260 withdrawal which was marked as a 90-day loan to Lonnie Mills, and a check in the amount of $328.16 which was used to close the account and to purchase a cashier's check, the disposition of which we have no knowledge.

The CHAIRMAN. Now, Mr. Jones, I am asking you—I am not putting it to you as a fact, because I don't know the fact—whether this cashier's check was used by Grady Mars to remit to Mr. Mills, as part of his legal defense.

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Now, I do put it to you as a fact, and I ask you to deny or affirm that fact, that instead of giving the $260 to Mr. Mills for his defense, you loaned him the money.

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, coming to us from our investigation, that many fund-raising campaigns for legal defense, in many areas—I am not sure about the particular areas within your jurisdiction—while the funds were raised for defense, the poor defendants never got a nickel out of them. Has that occurred within your realm?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Proceed.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, after the arrest of Raymond Mills, what investigation did your organization conduct for the purpose of determining the guilt or innocence of Mr. Mills as it involved membership in your organization?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. On March 1, 1965, at the same meeting at which you made a report on finances, did you make a report that Mr. Raymond Mills had been suspended for his own protection and state further, "Let me make it clear 'he has not been banished' and all units are asked to help financially."

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that while your organization and others generally pretend to have rules and regulations and procedures to expel members who commit violence, and you pretend to be against violence, you have never expelled a member known to you to have committed acts of violence.

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I should like the record to show that the charter document which was exhibited to Mr. Jones was presented to the committee as a result of a subpoena duces tecum served upon Raymond Mills, who appeared before the committee in executive session on August 24, 1965.

The CHAIRMAN. And a transcript of that charter will appear in the record at the point it was commented on.

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. JONES. Mr. Mills also submitted to us, in accordance with the subpoena, rough notes of minutes of Klavern meetings, the Craven County Improvement Association.

The CHAIRMAN. And that was done pursuant to a subpoena?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

There is an entry of a meeting in August which reports that 20 members were present. The "opening ceremony [sic] was carried out. The first business was to naturalize 3 new members, #100 #75 #77. It was an impressive ceremony [sic]," read the notes.

"The E.C. gave first part of Oath The Vice President gave the second and third parts. #15 explained"—it looks like it should read, Mr. Chairman, "that the" but it reads "the the"——

The CHAIRMAN. Start the sentence again.

Mr. APPELL. [Reading:]

The E.C. gave first part of Oath The Vice President gave the second and third parts. #15 explained the [sic] the person who owned the building was pressing for us to buy it.

The Klokan brought up new members We also decide to burn 3 cross [sic] one at Oscar Funerl [sic] Home, one on Brices Creek Road, and one in Pamlico County. The meeting was then adjourind [sic]. The Klaxter built the cross for us.

Mr. Jones, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that there was a cross burned in front of the Oscar Funeral Home on either October 17 or 18, 1964.

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I ask for a correction of the record, Mr. Chairman. The date should be August 17th or August 18th.

Does that change your answer in any way, Mr. Jones?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "James Jones Exhibit No. 29" follows:)

That concludes the listing, Mr. Jones, and I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that these cross burnings did take place.

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. What action did you take as Grand Dragon to determine how many of these cross burnings, if not all of them, were carried out by members of your organization, the United Klans of America?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Were any of your members suspended for engaging in any of the cross burnings in which these Klansmen participated?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, in connection with a subpoena served upon the Suburban Printing Company, we received a copy of an invoice dated June 11, 1965, billed to the Ku Klux Klan, Box 321, see exhibit No. 31, Granite Quarry, North Carolina, Order No. 394, 200,000 copies of Negro Pepsi handbills, printed two sides, $350.

Mr. APPELL. Before issuing that document, did you make an investigation to determine who the wife of the Negro vice president of Pepsi-Cola, Harvey Russell, was?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that she was the daughter of Colonel Franklin A. Dennison, who was the first Negro raised to field grade rank in World War I, and who died in the early 1920's holding the rank of a brigadier general in the United States Army.

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Who was he?

Mr. APPELL. The first Negro field grade officer in the United States Army.

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the Pepsi-Cola Company came to you personally and advised you of the fact, and that you did nothing to stop the circulation of that leaflet.

(Document handed to witness.)

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that when you travel around North Carolina in your position as Grand Dragon, that you carry on your person, concealed in a shoulder holster, a .38 caliber snub-nose revolver, that you have a carbine strapped to the inside of the driver's door, and that you carry a .30-06 rifle in your trunk with a large supply of ammunition.

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, the staff has no further questions of Mr. Jones.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Jones, the committee has established that in certain Klaverns, and I am not putting it to you as a fact that it is true in yours, but I am going to ask you if this or similar kinds of activities are engaged in—and the document I have is entitled "HARRASMENT" [sic]. And I can't read it all because it is very long, but I will come to pertinent activities of harassment.

It starts with this sentence "An Enemy's Army which has been harassed for a long time may be easily defeated," and that is a quotation from an old Sanskrit proverb. It says:

Each local unit must make a thorough study of the technique of harassing the enemy at little or no cost to themselves. All members should tax their minds to devise new means and methods of accomplishing this important work.

In general, harassing should always have a humorous twist to it and should be in the nature of Halloween Pranks. This does not mean that it should be executed in a careless or haphazard manner. It must be done seriously and soberly and with a definite aim in mind. The purpose of preserving the humorous twist to the work is to obscure the deadly seriousness behind the work—and so on.

Besides asking the members to devise acts of harassment of their own, there is a list of 16 suggested:

1. [Using] Roofing nails
2. Sugar and Molasses [in tanks]
3. Firecrackers
4. Snakes and Lizards
5. Mad Dogs
6. Itching Powder
7. Stink Bombs
8. Tear Gas
9. Paint
10. Lacquer Thinner
11. Slingshots, Marbles, BB guns, Air Rifles, Bow and Arrow, cross bows
12. Blank cartridges and pistols
13. Roman Candles

14. Skyrockets
15. Salt and pepper
16. Noismakers [sic]

And then the document goes on to talk about other much more serious acts. But those are suggested acts of harassment, in addition to which there is the use of telephone calls, and so on.

I am asking you in all seriousness, and I give you the opportunity to affirm or deny, whether within your realm such acts of harassment leading to worse involvement—and we will come to that in these hearings—are employed within your realm?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "James Jones Exhibit No. 34." This exhibit will be reproduced in a forthcoming report on the Ku Klux Klan organizations.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I have one more question.

Mr. Jones, at the public rallies that are held within North Carolina by the Klan, do you have a security detail or a security patrol which operates there, as well as a security patrol within the Realm of North Carolina?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. At these rallies, do you deliberately harass the press and other people whom you invite to attend because of something—that their appearance might not look good or they might have a camera at a public rally that you invite them to, and you don't want them to take photographs?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Don't you even go so far as to shake these people down, search their cars, and do all the other things that law enforcement authorities could never do under the Constitution?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I have no further questions, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. I think I only have one question, a general one.

Mr. Jones, it appears that you only have had a grammar school education, and for which I don't reproach you in the least, and from the evidence have had barely any employment at all for the past few years.

Then all of a sudden it would appear you became a Grand Dragon and have the use of a Cadillac, another vehicle, and frankly—if I am wrong, you can correct it—seem to be living rather high on the hog.

My question is this, and it is an important question in the inquiry, I assure you: Are you typical of the type of people in leadership, such as Grand Dragons, in Shelton's United Klans of America, Inc.?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. That is all I have.

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Chairman, I have one matter that I should like to present and that is the following: We have heard of the indications presented by Mr. Appell as to the Klan's abhorrence of acts of violence and the efforts the Klan employs to prevent members from engaging in acts of violence. As portion of that posture on the part of the Klan we learn of the supposed ejection, banishment, or suspension of Raymond D. Mills who pleaded guilty to bombing cars in New Bern, North Carolina, Mills being the then exalted cyclops of the Craven County Improvement Association, I believe that Klavern was called.

I know that Mr. Mills on June 3, 1965, pleaded guilty to that offense, and I further know that that should be fairly plain evidence of an act of violence on the part of a Klan member. If that were the case, then surely if the North Carolina Realm undertook to banish members who committed acts of violence, then he would be banished.

Bear in mind, that is June 3, 1965. On August 24, 1965, several months later, in executive testimony before our committee—

The CHAIRMAN. May I say that that executive testimony has, by a vote of the committee, been released for our use. Under our rules, executive evidence must remain so except by a vote of the committee. Because of the necessity to use this evidence, the committee, by formal action, did release it.

Mr. WELTNER. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Mr. Mills stated at that executive session, reading from the transcript at page 340:

Let me say this to clarify one thing, Mr. Willis. I don't know of any FBI being into the organization. They may have men into our organization, but let me say this: We have men in organizations, also.

The entire statement plainly indicates and affirms that Mr. Mills, notwithstanding his conviction several months prior to August 24, still under oath acknowledged his membership in the Realm of North Carolina, United Klans of America.

I should like to pose this question to the witness, to ask whether or not Mr. Mills has been banished, or whether or not his membership in the Realm of North Carolina, or in the United Klans of America has been terminated?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. WELTNER. I have no further questions, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Buchanan.

Mr. BUCHANAN. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Mr. Jones, I assume, if I understand the structure of your organization, that Mr. Robert M. Shelton, the Imperial Wizard, is your leader. Consequently, I wonder, given the very interesting evidence presented at this hearing as to the financial activities of Mr. Shelton, given the evidence presented yesterday and today about your handling of the funds of your North Carolina organization—I wonder if you received any instructions in the handling of funds of your organization from the Inferior Lizard—I mean the Imperial Wizard—Mr. Robert M. Shelton.

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. BUCHANAN. No further questions, Mr. Chairman.

Mr. SENNER. Mr. Jones, is the corporation the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, authorized to do business in the State of North Carolina?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously indicated.

Mr. SENNER. Is it a foreign corporation?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. SENNER. I noticed in your 1965 North Carolina Initiation Franchise Tax Report, you are a foreign corporation, the name of the corporation being Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., and you are listed as president, signed James R. Jones, Grand Dragon, North Carolina.

You list your assets as none, capital stock as none, your total receipts as none, the total tangible property in North Carolina as none, your net worth none, and your liabilities none. Apparently you pay a minimum of tax to do business in that State of $10. Is this correct?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. SENNER. Isn't it a fact that you are violating the laws of the State of North Carolina in the conducting of business in that State in the manner in which Mr. Appell has related these events?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. SENNER. Mr. Chairman, I have no further questions.

Mr. POOL. I have a question, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Pool.

Mr. POOL. During the testimony, I believe we had some testimony about the purchase of white satin cloth. Do you have a cloak that you have made out of this white satin cloth?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. POOL. In other words, you prefer to be swathed in the fifth amendment; is that it?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Jones, a moment ago I read a list of suggested forms of harassments with an appeal to members to devise some of their own.

I didn't say, because I don't know, honestly, whether those are the types of harassments that you approve and tolerate. Obviously, you tolerate and approve burning crosses. But you declined to answer.

I might say that the committee investigation discloses that in addition to the list of suggested acts of harassment, some of them devised by the members, there are such things as throwing dead rats in front of homes and in mail boxes, chickens with their necks cut off, and dead bugs.

I am not saying you engage in that, but I am asking you whether you engage in that type of harassment within your realm, in addition to cross-burnings, which have been established?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Finally, and this will be my last question, Mr. Shelton is Imperial Wizard of the United Klans of America, and you are one of his Dragons, according to our established evidence. I take it that the Grand Dragons under Shelton in the various realms in various States constitute some sort of a board of directors or board of advisors to the Imperial Wizard.

I want to ask you this question, because it is very important: Did you know, did Shelton advise you, and did he obtain the consent of the Grand Dragons throughout his whole larger realm, that checks were being signed against the imperial account by a person allegedly known, a man allegedly known, as James J. Hendrix who turned out to be Mrs. Shelton and by a man allegedly known as T. M. Montgomery, who turned out to be Carol Long?

It is important to know the policy or who is advising with whom in these financial transactions. Did you know about that? Were you consulted? Did you give your consent?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Ashbrook.

Mr. ASHBROOK. Mr. Chairman, I would like to ask the witness one question. The Goldsboro, North Carolina, News-Argus, of Sunday, August 15, 1965, carries a front page story with the caption headed "Klan Can Rule, [Dragon Declares]." Reporter John Rains, Mr. Jones, quotes you as, among other things, lashing out at "Negroes, jews, communists and 'white niggers,'" whatever that is, and that you said that, "the only way to fight communists and integrationists is by swinging election or 'with bullets.'"

This is a direct quote that is attributed to you by John Rains, reporter for this newspaper. I am wondering if you would, in light of your protestations of playing down violence, answer for this committee whether or not this is factual reporting of what you said at the Klan meeting in Goldsboro, North Carolina, on that date?

Mr. JONES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. ASHBROOK. No further questions, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Appell, is that all?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Jones, you are excused for the day, but you will be continued under subpoena until November 14.¹

Mr. ASHBROOK. Mr. Chairman, I would like to have this article made a part of the record, the one that I referred to.

The CHAIRMAN. Without objection, that will be done.

(Document marked "James Jones Exhibit No. 35" and retained in committee files.)

The CHAIRMAN. The committee will stand in recess for 10 minutes. (Whereupon, at 2:45 p.m. a brief recess was taken. All subcommittee members were present at time of recess and when hearings resumed.)

The CHAIRMAN. The subcommittee will be in order. Call your next witness, Mr. Appell.

Mr. APPELL. Marshall R. Kornegay.

The CHAIRMAN. Please raise your right hand.

Do you solemnly swear that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I think maybe the witness nodded in taking the oath. The record could not record his nod.

The CHAIRMAN. The reporter didn't get your response.

You do solemnly swear that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mr. KORNEGAY. Yes, sir.

TESTIMONY OF MARSHALL ROBERT KORNEGAY, ACCOMPANIED BY COUNSEL, LESTER V. CHALMERS, JR.

Mr. APPELL. Would you please state your full name for the record, sir?

Mr. KORNEGAY. Marshall Robert Kornegay.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Kornegay, are you appearing here today in accordance with a subpoena served upon you at 6:20 o'clock p.m., on the 10th day of October 1965, by an investigator of this committee, Mr. Neil E. Wetterman?

Mr. KORNEGAY. Somewhere about that.

Mr. POOL. Somewhere about that.

Mr. KORNEGAY. Somewhere about that date.

The CHAIRMAN. But you were served, and you are appearing pursuant to that subpoena?

Mr. KORNEGAY. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Are you represented by counsel?

Mr. KORNEGAY. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Would the counsel please identify himself for the record, please?

Mr. CHALMERS. My name is Lester V. Chalmers, Jr., attorney at law, Room 501, First Federal Building, Raleigh, North Carolina.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Kornegay, when you answered my question as to where you were served, you said sometime about that date. I would like to ask you exactly when and where you were served with the subpoena.

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Counsel, do you understand the question?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir. I am certain we can enter into a stipulation. I have Mr. Kornegay's subpoena before me right now.

The CHAIRMAN. Will you stipulate the time of service and place?

Mr. CHALMERS. Whatever the record shows, I will certainly stipulate to that.

The CHAIRMAN. State the time and place shown by the return.

Mr. APPELL. 6:20 p.m., Mr. Chairman, the subpoena shows on the reverse thereof that Investigator Wetterman, according to his return on the reverse of the subpoena, served Mr. Kornegay on a farm located on the south side of Route 58, 8 miles east of Danville, Virginia, at the location of a Klan rally at 6:20 p.m. on the 10th day of October 1965.

The CHAIRMAN. And Counsel, you do have authority to make that stipulation?

(Counsel confers with witness.)

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir; I do.

The CHAIRMAN. Because this is technical. As sure as I am talking to you, [I] wouldn't take advantage of it, if anything comes out of this, but I must ask you this. I noticed that you consulted with your client. He agrees that you have that authority to make this stipulation?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Kornegay, when and where were you born?

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. POOL. Are you an American citizen?

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel—

The CHAIRMAN. We will not have any demonstrations.

Mr. KORNEGAY. —feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by the constitutional amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. I now order and direct you to answer the question before last, which is simply laying the foundation, which is preliminary in identifying you, namely when and where were you born?

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. POOL. Mr. Chairman?

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Pool.

Mr. POOL. Do you honestly feel that it would incriminate you to admit that you are an American citizen?

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. The question is such that the Chair feels obligated to direct you to answer it. I can't see how anything incriminating is involved in admission or denial of American citizenship.

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Kornegay, I state it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you were born on September 10, 1928, in Sampson County, North Carolina.

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you are a graduate of Pine Grove, North Carolina, high school.

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Kornegay, under the terms of the subpoena served upon you, and an attachment thereto which was made a part of the subpoena, you were ordered and directed to produce items called for in five paragraphs.

I will now read to you paragraph No. 1:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and affiliated organizations, namely, the Alabama Rescue Service, in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by you or available to you as Grand Dragon, Realm (State) of Virginia of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

I now demand the production of those documents in accordance with the terms of the subpoena.

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 4, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation, and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule IV of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to deliver to this committee the documents requested for I honestly feel that to do so might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. We have been through this before, but we have to establish a record in each instance.

Mr. Chalmers, I take it that you admit and speak for your client that he has been in the room and that he is familiar with the opening statement I made regarding the relevancy and pertinency, from our point of view, of the documents sought to be produced.

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir; that is so stipulated.

The CHAIRMAN. And I take it that, speaking for your client, you stipulate that for the reasons indicated in other instances of appearance before this committee, that the committee takes the position that his reasons for refusing to produce them are not well founded. Is that correct?

Mr. CHALMERS. If they are not well founded?

The CHAIRMAN. I mean from our point of view.

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. And I think you also would stipulate, as you did in previous instances, that the subpoena was served on him and ordered him to produce those documents mentioned in paragraph 1 of the attachment to the subpoena in his capacity as Grand Dragon, Realm (State) of Virginia of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

Mr. CHALMERS. Sir, if you recall what I said yesterday afternoon—

The CHAIRMAN. Well, you state it.

Mr. CHALMERS. I will stipulate what the subpoena shows, that it was served.

The CHAIRMAN. In other words, since your client does not admit that he is Grand Dragon, you don't wish to testify for him in that respect, but you admit that the subpoena calls for him to do that in that capacity.

Mr. CHALMERS. In that capacity; yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. And I understand the stipulations we have just entered into, you on behalf of your client, and me as chairman speaking for the committee, will apply to all pertinent paragraphs in this attachment relative to the production of other documents without the necessity of our having to repeat the stipulation in each instance.

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. And I will be accorded the privilege of saying for the reasons already indicated, he will be directed to produce them.

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

May I suggest this to the chairman in the interest of time? I don't know whether it can be done. But in the interest of time and saving a lengthy record, could we also stipulate, you for the committee and me for my client, that his answers to your direction with respect to the other paragraphs in the subpoena will be the same.

The CHAIRMAN. That is satisfactory.

Mr. CHALMERS. Thank you, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Now, Mr. Kornegay, I order and direct you to produce all the documents called for by the subpoena duces tecum in paragraph 1.

Mr. KORNEGAY. Sir, I respectfully decline to deliver to this committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 4, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation, and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule IV of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to this committee those documents called for and requested in the subpoena for I honestly feel that the delivery of these documents might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by the amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Chalmers, I think to be perfectly clear I must ask you to stipulate that you understand that the reason for this direction is pursuant to our understanding of the jurisprudence, and that that indicates we don't agree with his refusal, and that his refusal to produce these documents pursuant to the subpoena may lead to a citation by the House for contempt.

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir; I discussed that with my client and he is thoroughly familiar with it.

I was just wondering, Mr. Chairman, for the record, with respect to the other items, 2, 3, 4, and 5, is there any further need for any stipulation in connection therewith?

The CHAIRMAN. I personally think, and I am asking our counsel to look them over, that it would be sufficient to have one more direction to produce the documents called for by the other paragraphs. I don't know how many there are.

Mr. CHALMERS. Whatever the chairman thinks is best.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Kornegay, under the terms of the subpoena, you were ordered to bring with you and produce items called for in an attachment which was made part of the subpoena, part 2:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and affiliated organizations, namely, the Alabama Rescue Service, the Realm (State) of North Carolina and Capital City Restoration Association, in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by or available to you as an officer or employee of the Realm (State) of North Carolina, of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

The CHAIRMAN. We have stipulated that you would read them all.

Mr. APPELL. All right, sir.

(3) All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by or available to you, in your capacity as Grand Dragon, Realm (State) of Virginia, United Klans of America, Inc, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, which the "Constitution and Laws" of said organization authorize and require to be maintained by you and any other officer of said organization, the same being in your possession, custody or control.

(4) All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda relating to any insurance contracts between the Capital City Restoration Association and the International Life and Accident Insurance Company.

(5) Copies of U.S. Treasury Department, Internal Revenue Service, Form 1040, [titled] "U.S. Individual Income Tax Return," for the calendar years 1958 through 1964, filed by you as an individual taxpayer with the U.S. Treasury Department, Internal Revenue Service.

Mr. Kornegay, I call for you to produce the documents called for by paragraphs 2, 3, 4, and 5.

Mr. Chairman, I have been advised by counsel that I should demand each separately.

I now call for the production of those called for in paragraph 2. (Witness confers with counsel.)

The CHAIRMAN. His answer should be with respect to each one. He will have to answer to each of the demands.

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to deliver to this committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 4, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation, and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid, remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule IV, of the House rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to this committee any documents as requested for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. For the reasons previously indicated, to which a stipulation has been made by your counsel, Mr. Kornegay, I order and direct you to produce the documents you were ordered to produce by the subpoena served upon you.

MR. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to deliver to this committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 4, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation, and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid, remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule IV of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to this committee any records or documents as requested, for the reason that I honestly feel to do so might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

MR. APPELL. Mr. Kornegay, I now ask you, under the conditions and terms of the subpoena, to produce those documents which I read to you which are called for in paragraph 3.

MR. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 4, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation, and the same would not aid the Congress in consideration of any valid, remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule IV of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to this committee any and all documents as requested for to do so I honestly feel might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

MR. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I now ask for a direction for the production of those documents called for in paragraph 3.

THE CHAIRMAN. For reasons previously stated, and as to which a stipulation has been made, Mr. Kornegay, I order and direct you to produce those documents thus called for in paragraph 3 of the attachment to the subpoena served upon you.

MR. KORNEGAY. Sir, I respectfully decline to deliver to this committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 4, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation, and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid, remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule IV of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to this committee any and all documents as requested by the subpoena for to do so I honestly feel might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments, 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

MR. APPELL. Mr. Kornegay, under the conditions of the subpoena which called upon you to bring with you and to produce, I now demand the production of those documents called for in paragraph 4.

MR. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 4, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation, and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid, remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule IV of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to this committee any and all records as requested by the subpoena for I honestly feel that to do so might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

MR. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, may I ask for a demand from the Chair, sir?

THE CHAIRMAN. For the reasons previously indicated, and as to which a stipulation has been made with your counsel speaking for you, Mr. Kornegay, I order and direct you to produce the documents called for by paragraph 4 of the attachment to the subpoena duces tecum served upon you.

MR. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to deliver to this committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 4, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation, and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid, remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule IV of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to this committee any and all records as requested by the subpoena for to do so I honestly feel might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

MR. APPELL. Mr. Kornegay, under the terms of the subpoena served upon you, which called for you to bring with you and to produce documents, I now demand the production of those documents called for in paragraph 5.

MR. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to deliver to this committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 4, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation, and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid, remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule IV of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to this committee any and all documents as requested by the subpoena for to do so I honestly feel might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

THE CHAIRMAN. Mr. Kornegay, paragraph 5, unlike paragraphs 1, 2, 3, and 4, calls for the production of your individual income tax returns. You have invoked the fifth amendment, the provisions of the fifth amendment, against self-incrimination to that demand.

I now order you to produce the documents called for in paragraph 5.

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline—

The CHAIRMAN. No, I am not demanding.

In other words, I accept his invocation on paragraph 5.

Mr. CHALMERS. I am sorry.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Kornegay, would you give the committee a brief resume of your employment background?

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I ask that the subpoena be made a part of the record at this point, and I ask that all additional documents be offered in evidence in the order in which they are presented.

The CHAIRMAN. That course will be followed, Mr. Reporter.

In preparing the record you will follow the rules previously announced, namely, that each document exhibited will be received in sequence, in the order in which they have been referred to and exhibited.

(Document marked "Marshall Kornegay Exhibit No. 1" and retained in committee files.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Kornegay, do you presently hold a license to engage in the sale of insurance in the State of North Carolina?

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. In 1957, did you lose your insurance license?

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that in 1957 you lost your insurance license in the State of North Carolina.

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. I would like to read into the record documents obtained from the Insurance Department of the State of North Carolina with respect to the insurance license held by Mr. Kornegay prior to February of 1957.

The first letter is from the Southland Life Insurance Company, addressed to Mr. Cecil Duncan, North Carolina Department of Insurance, Raleigh, North Carolina:

Re: Marshall Robert Kornegay.

Dear Cecil:

We advised your department Monday, February 25, 1957, to cancel the insurance license for the above named.

Mr. Kornegay left us at the close of business Friday, February 22, 1957, without showing up his account. We have already this week found approximately $100.00 shortage in two cases and we anticipate further shortage on this debit.

We will advise you further as to the amount of the shortage and to what action has been taken regarding same.

The CHAIRMAN. That is addressed to whom?

Mr. APPELL. That is addressed to Mr. Cecil Duncan of the North Carolina Department of Insurance, signed by T. E. Williamson, District Manager, Southland Life Insurance Company.

I would now like to read a letter dated April 3, 1957, addressed to Mr. M. R. Kornegay, Route 1, Turkey, North Carolina:

DEAR MR. KORNEGAY:

We have completed the inspection of debit number 12, and we have found a total shortage on this debit of $342.71. You have a credit in our office of $48.95, deducting this amount from the total shortage would leave a balance of $293.76

As required by law under general statutes 14-96.1 this is being turned over to the North Carolina Insurance Department as of today. I know you will want to contact the Insurance Department immediately regarding this.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ T. E. Williamson,
T. E. WILLIAMSON,
District Manager.

I hand you this, Mr. Kornegay, and ask if you received the original of this copy?

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Kornegay, I read to you a letter dated April 4, 1957:

Mr. M. R. KORNEGAY,
Route 1,
Turkey, N.C.

DEAR SIR:

In accordance with G.S. 14-96.1 the Southland Life Insurance Company has reported a shortage of $342.71 less $48.75 credits, leaving a net balance due at this time of $293.76.

It is a violation of the criminal laws of this State to not properly account for premiums collected while acting as a licensed agent and unless full restitution is made immediately it will be necessary for this Department to take appropriate action. Your license has been cancelled and tagged.

Very truly yours,

C. C. DUNCAN,
Deputy Commissioner.

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you did receive the original of the copy that I am now showing you.
(Document handed to witness.)

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I would like to now read, Mr. Chairman, a letter dated April 17, 1957, on the letterhead of the Southland Life Insurance Company, from T. E. Williamson, District Manager, addressed to Mr. C. C. Duncan, Deputy Commissioner of Insurance, North Carolina Department of Insurance, Labor Building, Raleigh, North Carolina:

Re: M. R. Kornegay

Dear Mr. Duncan:

As you will recall Mrs. Kornegay contacted you on April 8, 1957, and arranged with you to make full settlement with us on Monday, April 15, 1957. As of this date we have heard nothing from these folks, and would appreciate if you would take what further action you see fit in this case.

Sincerely,

/s/ T. E. Williamson,
T. E. WILLIAMSON,
District Manager.

A letter on the letterhead of the Southland Life Insurance Company, dated April 26, 1957, on the stationery of T. E. Williamson, District Manager, to Mr. C. C. Duncan, Deputy Commissioner, North Carolina Department of Insurance, Labor Building, Raleigh, North Carolina:

Re: M. R. Kornegay

Dear Cecil:

I am glad to advise that a friend of Mr. Kornegay's came by our office yesterday and paid the shortage of $293.76 which was due by him. This gives us a complete settlement with this man.

Sincerely,

/s/ Tom
T. E. WILLIAMSON,

(Documents marked "Marshall Kornegay Exhibits Nos. 2-A through 2-E," respectively, and retained in committee files.)

I want the record to show that you are at perfect liberty to say that you did repay those funds. I am saying that our information is as stated. I do not want you to say later on that we knew all along this, thus, and the other thing, so this is an opportunity to speak up at this time.

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

When the acid ate through the capsule, the powder was ignited which set off a minor explosion and ignited the gasoline.

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Was this demonstration, to your knowledge, known by the Grand Dragon, Mr. James R. Jones?

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

(Documents previously marked “James Jones Exhibit No. 7–E.” See p. 1721.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Kornegay, did the membership of the United Klans in the State of North Carolina know that you were receiving $150 a week salary from them, from their money?

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Kornegay, I hand you a document which is an undated document, prepared earlier than the document to which I referred this morning in interrogating Mr. Jones. This document is signed “Marshall Robert Kornegay, Grand Klokar of N.C., Chairman—Car Committee.”

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, at the time this document was distributed to all Klans in the North Carolina area that you held the position set forth on that document.

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked “Marshall Kornegay Exhibit No. 4” follows:)

This is a combined total of $1,314.59.

Fellow Klansmen, the time for our pay off on this auto is rapidly coming around. We have only $402.29 left in the car fund at this time. As you can see by the figures, we must have a substantial amount sent in to pay off this obligation.

We have recieved some money from 31 units (including 3 Ladies units) which only gives us 28 men's units cooperating.

According to the ones that have helped, we must get approximately $175.00 per unit to pay the amount off.

If your unit hasn't contributed any money, please send us a check as soon as possible. If you have sent a small amount please make up the difference to the full amount of $175.00 if at all possible.

I would like to thank personally each and every Klansman that has helped the car committee in this tremendous undertaking. I would also like to say that our Grand Dragon has appreciated the Honor bestowed upon him, by all of us, more than words could ever convey.

This beautiful auto has been one of the shining examples of white men getting together in great show of Klansmanship.

As you know the words of our oath unite us in a strong common bond of fellowship each man for each other and the group for each man.

Let us continue to be brothers and to stand up for what we know is right.

The God given right to be white and the God given right to be free.

Send money to: Mr. M. R. Kornegay, P. O. Box 9183, Raleigh, N. C.

Thank you Brother Klansmen!

Marshall Robert Kornegay
Grand Klokard of N. C.
Chairman - Car Committee

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like the record to show—and I am not going to deal with the dollar signs of the money that had been paid into the Cadillac fund because I have referred to that and it is in the record of this morning—

The CHAIRMAN. Give a résumé of the document.

Mr. APPELL. The thing I wanted to do, Mr. Chairman, is that the document this morning says that from, let's say, Sanford, there was so much money received. I would like to show in the record at this time that the unit number of the Klavern is shown on this document. Therefore, the unit in Dunn is Unit 22; the unit in Farmville is Unit No. 37; the unit in Beulaville is No. 48—

The CHAIRMAN. By unit, do you mean Klavern?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir. That is the number assigned to the Klavern.

The unit in Greensboro is Unit 10; the unit in Durham is No. 9; the unit in Williamston is No. 4; the unit in Rocky Mount is No. 24; the unit in Louisburg is No. 29; the unit in Raleigh is No. 41; the unit in Blounts Creek is No. 35; the unit at New Bern is No. 33; the unit at Nashville is No. 51; the unit at Tarboro is No. 43; the unit at Norlina is No. 30; the unit at Cherryville is No. 34; the unit at Salisbury is No. 1.

Incidentally, Mr. Chairman, the committee's investigation established that even under the days of the old U.S. Klan, the unit in Salisbury was also No. 1.

The unit at Sanford is No. 23; the unit at Atkinson, No. 26; the unit at Greenville is 53; the unit at Henderson is 47; the unit at High Point is 11; the unit at Clinton is No. 46; the unit at Goldsboro is 38; the unit at Enfield is No. 39; the unit at Roanoke Rapids is 40; the unit at Biscoe is 27; the Salisbury ladies receive no unit number; the unit at Pittsboro is 19; the Raleigh ladies are given a unit designation of 6. The Wilson unit is No. 31 and the Louisburg ladies unit is No. 9.

Mr. Kornegay, there was put into the record this morning through Mr. Jones a report sent out as a compliment to a letter signed by him, a report on the car from the car committee and yourself as chairman showing that $4,522.59 had been sent in and that there had been paid out $4,522.59. There is a typed signature of "M. R. Kornegay, Chairman Car Committee." The enclosure announced that you were then at that time Grand Dragon of Virginia.

Did you prepare this document which I now hand you?

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

(Documents previously marked "James Jones Exhibits Nos. 18-A and 18-B," respectively. See pp. 1746, 1747.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Kornegay, in a State meeting in March 1965, were you elected to the position of klokard, or reelected to the position of klokard?

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you were present at that State meeting.

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that at that State meeting, James R. Jones was elected Grand Dragon, Grady Mars was elected Grand Klaliff; that you, yourself, were elected grand klokard; that Reverend Roy Woodle was elected grand kludd; that Fred Wilson was elected grand klabee; that Robert Reaves was elected grand kladd; that Mr. Albert Outlaw was elected grand klarogo; that Mr. Clarence Brindle was elected grand klexter; and that Boyd Hamby was elected grand night-hawk.

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Kornegay, were you the originator of the formation of a hospital-surgical insurance plan underwritten by the International Life—

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline—

Mr. APPELL. I haven't finished yet.—the International Life and Accident Insurance Company with the Capital City Restoration Association?

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

(Documents marked "Marshall Kornegay Exhibit No. 5" and retained in committee files. A list of applicants for such group hospitalization policies appears on pp. 1814-1818.)

Mr. APPELL. Were you a member of the Capital City Restoration Association?

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you were a member of the Capital City Restoration Association.

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact that in the adoption of this insurance program—and I ask you to affirm or deny the fact—the Klans within the State, the Klaverns within the State of North Carolina, were told that the first month's premiums would be used to pay the expenses of Grand Dragon Jones and that a portion thereof would revert to the Klaverns.

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that there was paid to you in the form of commissions from November of 1964 through May of 1965, in the form of new commissions and renewal commissions, the total of $3,562.74.

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Kornegay, it is the committee's information that International Life and Accident Insurance Company sold out in early June or July of 1965 to the Life Insurance Company of Florida and that, following this transaction the Life Insurance Company of Florida determined that what was being written was not insurance for what they considered to be a legitimate fraternal organization, but that of the Ku Klux Klan, and that the new owners of the insurance company ordered that the policies be canceled and that refunds be made on all premiums paid covering periods that had not lapsed.

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. WELTNER. What was the date of that action by the owners of the company?

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Weltner, we have a letter here——

The CHAIRMAN. Just give the date.

Mr. APPELL. June 3, 1965. The pro rata refund of unearned premiums and adjustments of commissions would be made on or before June 20, 1965.

Mr. WELTNER. What was the initial date of the coverage?

Mr. APPELL. The initial date of the coverage?

Mr. WELTNER. How long had the plan been in effect?

Mr. APPELL. According to the documents which we subpoenaed and received from Mr. R. B. Royal, a former owner of the International Life and Accident Insurance Company, Mr. Kornegay received premiums or commissions on this from November—and the exact date in November is not stated—1964 through May of 1965.

Mr. WELTNER. Thank you.

Mr. APPELL. November through May of 1965, and total commissions paid to Mr. Kornegay were $3,562.74.

Mr. Kornegay, did this cause a great deal of dissension among the Klansmen in North Carolina, the fact that some of them had paid premiums for 4 or 5 months, had had no illnesses, and all of a sudden their policies were cancelled on them?

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

(Documents marked "Marshall Kornegay Exhibit No. 6" and retained in committee files.)

The CHAIRMAN. Isn't it a fact that there was a considerable ruckus and dissatisfaction among the membership in view of the cancellation of their policies and the small refunds made to them compared to the full amount they had paid?

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Kornegay, according to the files that we received, you had a contract with Mr. R. B. Royal in which you signed a contract to operate in Raleigh, North Carolina, a branch office of the Carolina Insurance Agency.

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that Mr. Royal found it necessary to terminate his contract with you.

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to read into the record a letter dated June 21, 1965, addressed to Mr. M. R. Kornegay, P.O. Box 9183, Raleigh, North Carolina:

Dear Bob:

Shortly after our last visit I took a vacation which lasted for almost two weeks. I arrived in the office again this date and upon examining the reports I find you have not submitted any new business nor have you remitted any renewal premiums. I checked the lapses for April and May and found you had a total of $159.60 in monthly premium. Some of these were advance pay cases, but I broke it down to show our monthly premium losses.

During our last visit we both discussed our future careers and as I told you mine is in the insurance business. I realize you are interested in another cause and I further realize [sic.] a person has to devote their talents to any endeavor they are most interested in. I feel as though you have lost interest in the insurance business, but due to my investment I am going to have to continue to stay in this field. You know the history behind the Raleigh office and I am sure you relize [sic.] this has been a very costly operation from the date of orgin [sic.]. I feel that you can only say that I have treated you fairly and I would like to also feel that we are going to continue to be friends in the future. I am going to either close the office or appoint another person in Raleigh who will devote their full time to my business. If you desire to keep the office you are in I will make arrangements to move the furniture on or before July 1, 1965. Please advise the landlord of your intentions upon receipt of this letter.

Regards,
R. B. ROYAL

Did you receive the original of this letter, Mr. Kornegay?

(Document handed to witness.)

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. That letter, Mr. Kornegay, was dated June 21, 1965.

I read a letter dated Carolina Insurance Agency, Post Office Box 9183, Raleigh, North Carolina, June 25, 1965. "Mr. R. B. Royal, President, Carolina Insurance Agency Ins., Greensboro, North Carolina":

Dear Mr. Royal:

Since receiving your letter of dismissal dated June 21, 1965, I have given a lot of thought to this matter and contacted an attorney and I do not propose to go along with some of the things in said letter.

I this date ask for a conference between your attorney and you, my attorney and me as soon as possible.

Let's try to work this meeting within the next few days and then you can move the furniture.

Very truly yours,
/s/ M. R. Kornegay
M. R. KORNEGAY

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that this is a copy of the original letter which you wrote to Mr. R. B. Royal.

(Document handed to witness.)

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "Marshall Kornegay Exhibit No. 8" and retained in committee files.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Kornegay, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that Mr. Royal paid off for you promissory notes, made good on checks which bounced for insufficient funds, paid for telephone calls that were not insurance business, and that when you left his employment you owed him the sum of $1,435.22.

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Kornegay, I would like to ask you whether you possess any knowledge of how, why, and who had anything to do with the burning of a cross on the lawn of the Governor's Mansion, former Governor Terry Sanford, on August 14, 1964.

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I ask you if you possess any knowledge with respect to the placing and setting off of a cross, the burning of a cross, on February 23, 1965, in front of the Reverend Frank Hutchinson's home, 913 South West Street, Raleigh?

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I have no further questions to ask this witness at this point.

I do have another item, Mr. Chairman.

Mr. Kornegay, I would like to ask you if it is a fact, from the information that the staff has gathered during its investigation, that the reason you were appointed Grand Dragon in Virginia was because of the resentment within the Klan against you in the State of North Carolina?

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I ask you if it is a fact, as our investigation established, that several members of the Klan, because of your conduct, had threatened you personally prior to your going to Virginia?

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Kornegay, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that at a meeting of the Rocky Mount Klavern on March 13, 1965, you addressed the group and spoke concerning Selma, Alabama, racial demonstrations, and that in the course of your presentation, and I will summarize this, you indicated that there was a definite need for mass killing in Selma, Alabama, before things could get back to normal.

I ask you to affirm or deny that.

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I have no further questions.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Pool.

Mr. POOL. Mr. Chairman, in listening to the testimony here, especially the testimony on the actions of the witness in regards to bringing the records before the committee, I don't intend to advise him as counsel. He has a lawyer with him and I respect the lawyer's counseling. But I want to point out that in Arthur McPhaul versus the United States of America, which was decided by the Supreme Court on November 14, 1960, Mr. Justice Whitaker delivered this opinion, and I will just cite the reference to the question we have had before us today.

It was a similar case where the witness had been subpoenaed to bring records and correspondence and things like that pertaining to the organization to a certain committee. This was before the House Committee on Un-American Activities. Mr. Justice Whitaker in his opinion, and the opinion was upheld by the Supreme Court, or, rather, speaking for the court, said this in his opinion:

The Fifth Amendment did not excuse petitioner from producing the records of the Civil Rights Congress, for it is well settled that "[b]ooks and records kept 'in a representative rather than in a personal capacity cannot be the subject of the personal privilege against self-incrimination, even though production of the papers might tend to incriminate [their keeper] personally.' * * *."

Here is another part of his opinion—

“ * * * a decent respect for the House of Representatives, by whose authority the subpoenas issued, would have required that [he] state [his] reasons for non-compliance upon the return of the writ.” * * *

In view of that, I will ask both the witness before us and also his attorney if they care to produce the records?

Mr. CHALMERS. Mr. Pool, may I state that I am thoroughly familiar with that opinion you have just read from, and we have been ordered by the Chairman to deliver the records. He has directed us to do it. We have declined to do it.

Mr. POOL. And you are going to stand on the record as made by you and your client?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Have you anything else, Mr. Appell?

Mr. APPELL. No, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Buchanan.

Mr. BUCHANAN. Mr. Chairman, I have no questions of this witness but I would like to make one statement. This committee is engaged in a solemn legislative purpose. As I understand it, it is our job, and we have had a mandate to do this, to look into an organization or a group of organizations to determine their nature of activities, to see whether there is a need for a legislative action or remedy. This is our purpose as a committee of the Congress.

In line with that purpose, one of the ways in which you understand an organization and come to evaluate that organization is by looking at its leadership and at the character and caliber of its leadership.

It seems to me that we have been doing a good bit of this in the hearings today. I just want to point out that this is a way to evaluate and to come to understand an organization, by taking a look at its leadership. In this connection, Mr. Chairman, I said this in order to say this, that I rather regret personally my earlier slip of the tongue in which I referred to the Imperial Wizard as the “Inferior Lizard,” not particularly because my opinion of Mr. Shelton has changed in the last hour, but because seriously this is not a place, of course, for name-calling or for personal opinion, so much as for developing evidence and hearing testimony to understand an organization.

I think we could say, and I think anyone who has attended these hearings would admit and testify, we have shed light on the nature of the leadership, the character and caliber of the leadership in this organization in the hearings to date.

Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. I understand you overlooked one point, Mr. Appell.

Mr. APPELL. Yes, Mr. Chairman, I overlooked one point.

Mr. Kornegay, the committee subpoenaed from the Branch Bank & Trust Company of Wilson, North Carolina, the checking account of M. R. Kornegay and the Carolina Insurance Agency. An analysis of this account shows that there was paid by check, stamped to identify it as “Carolina Insurance Agency, Inc.,” and “P.O. Box 9001,” it looks like, “Raleigh, North Carolina,” eight checks totaling $415 to J. R. Jones, all signed M. R. Kornegay.

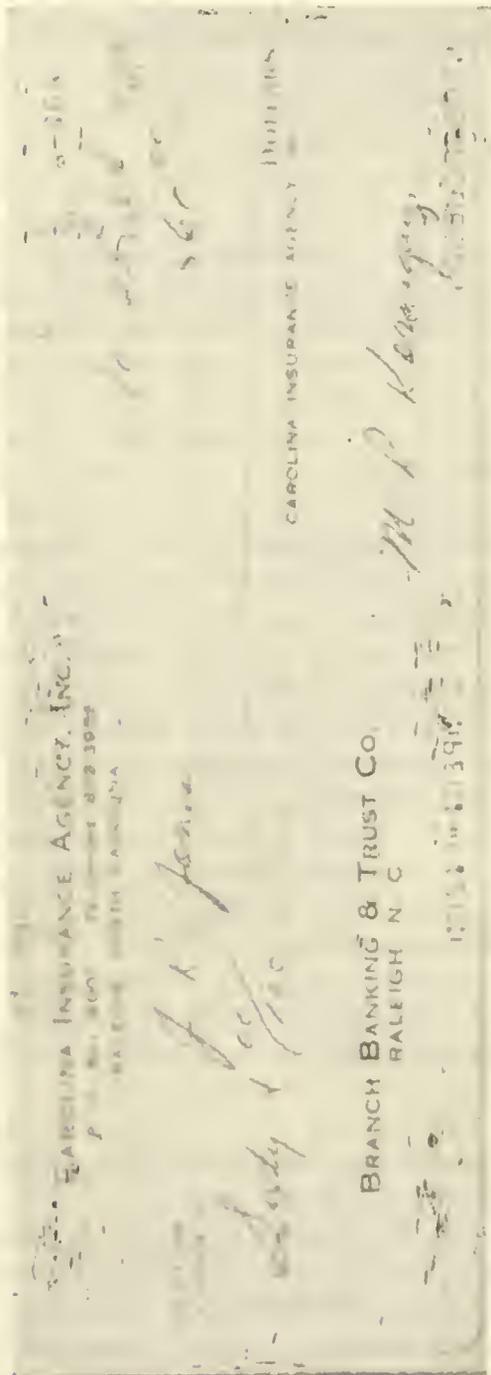

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that there are these eight checks totaling $415 with you as the maker and with the payee as Mr. Jones.

(Documents handed to witness.)

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

(Documents marked "Marshall Kornegay Exhibit No. 9." One of said checks follows; balance retained in committee files.)

MARSHALL KORNEGAY EXHIBIT NO. 9

Mr. APPELL. Were these payments in the form of commissions to Mr. Jones on insurance written under the contract between the Capital City Restoration Association and International Life and Accident Insurance Company?

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I wish to point out, Mr. Chairman, that, as we observed in other parts of the record, two of these checks payable to Mr. Jones, one dated October 23, 1964, and one dated 11-6-64, did not go into any bank account of Mr. Jones, but went to show a further endorsement of the Mill Fabrics, Inc., and as these are 1964 this is additional material purchased by Mr. Jones, of which we do not have a record.

The president of Mill Fabrics explained the discrepancy to us by saying that when a person comes into the store and pays cash he has no invoice and, therefore, he did not have knowledge of additional purchases by Mr. Jones.

Mr. KORNEGAY, I show you a series of checks, all but one on the imprinted check of Carolina Insurance Agency, Inc., all with the maker being M. R. Kornegay, checks dated 11-12-64, 11-25-64, 12-14-64, 12-16-64, 2-2-65, 7-8-65—there are six checks totaling $529, payable to Al or Albert Outlaw, who has been identified in this record as an official of the United Klans of America, Realm of North Carolina.

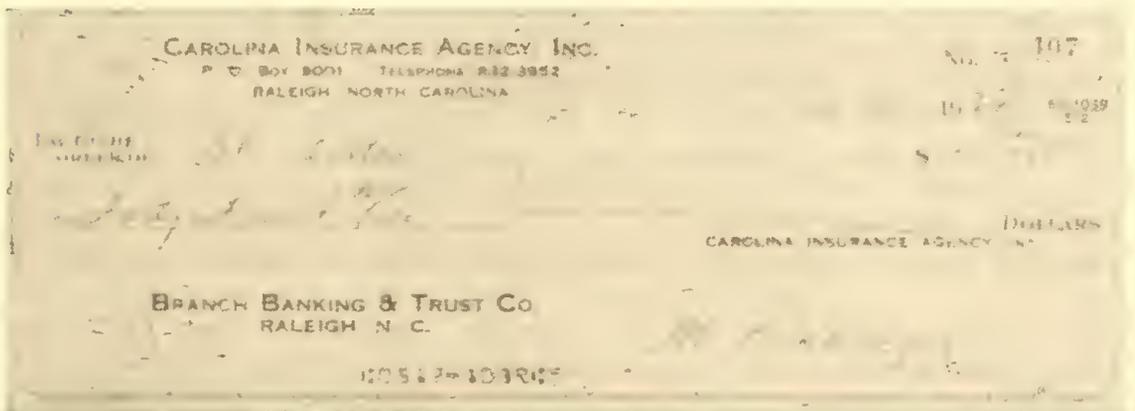

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you are the maker of those checks and that Albert or Al Outlaw is the recipient of the money.

(Documents handed to witness.)

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

(Documents marked "Marshall Kornegay Exhibit No. 10." One of said checks follows; balance retained in committee files.)

MARSHALL KORNEGAY EXHIBIT NO. 10

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that instead of this money going to the Klaverns, that it was really announced as a plan at the start of the program that this money was paid to an official of the Klan, Albert or Al Outlaw as premiums for insurance that he sold.

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. In examining your bank account, Mr. Kornegay, we could only find checks payable to the Farmers & Merchants Bank towards the automobile, the Cadillac, given or donated to Mr. Jones in the amount of $1956.

How was the balance of this money collected by you handled, and what was its depository?

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

(Documents marked "Kornegay Exhibit No. 11." One check follows; balance retained in committee files.)

MARSHALL KORNEGAY EXHIBIT NO. 11

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Kornegay, did any part of the money submitted to you by Klaverns—

The CHAIRMAN. I see there is a whisper between counsel and his client. Let the record note that it is now exactly 5 o'clock, and when that last question was asked, whatever time that was, perhaps a minute or so ago, one of the members was on the telephone, and if the whisper between client and attorney had to do with a lack of a quorum, I ask you to repeat the last question.

Mr. CHALMERS. No, sir; it did not, Mr. Chairman. And may I state to you, sir, that we are not concerned about that.

The CHAIRMAN. On our own, I would adjourn right now if he had not been in the room.

Mr. CHALMERS. We will make no point of it anywhere along the line.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Kornegay, as my last question, I must ask you did any part of the money turned over to you by Klans, Klaverns or individuals in payment of the automobile given to James R. Jones—was any of that money appropriated by you for your own purpose?

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I have no further questions.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Kornegay, what is the Capital City Restoration Association? Honestly, what does it restore? What is the business of it?

Mr. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. I am told by an investigator that our investigation reveals that this is one more front of a Klan organization. It is just a Klavern.

One final question, the same I put to the previous witness: The evidence established that you are the Grand Dragon of the United Klans of America, Inc., for the State of Virginia. Under the constitution and bylaws of the United Klans of America, checks drawn on their account or accounts of the United Klans of America are required to be authorized formally and specifically, as I recall, by the constitution and bylaws of the United Klans of America, requiring that the check be countersigned, with one signer required to be the treasurer, whatever the nomenclature is in the organization, and, as I understand it—and please correct me if I am wrong—as a Grand Dragon you collaborated with, advised with, or sort of acted in some broad form or other capacity with Mr. Shelton.

I ask you, were you aware of the fact that two people in fact signing the checks against the account of the United Klans of America, of which Shelton is the Imperial Wizard, were allegedly a male named James J. Hendrix, who turned out to be Mrs. Shelton, and another man named T. M. Montgomery, who turned out to be Carol Long, and that apparently to me, anyway, this was a ruse and a blind, deliberately or purposely designed to hide?

Were you aware of the fact that these two supposedly men were the ladies I named?

MR. KORNEGAY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

MR. POOL. I have no further question, Mr. Chairman, in view of the fact that we have a reluctant Dragon here before us.

The CHAIRMAN. The committee will stand in recess until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Before Mr. Kornegay leaves, I want to tell you, Mr. Kornegay, that you will remain under subpoena until November 15.¹

We will now stand in recess until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

(Subcommittee members present at time of recess: Representatives Willis, Pool, and Buchanan.)

(Whereupon, at 5:05 p.m., Thursday, October 21, 1965, the subcommittee recessed, to reconvene at 10 a.m., Friday, October 22, 1965.)

The CHAIRMAN. The subcommittee will please come to order, and our guests in the audience will please be seated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to call the Reverend Jack Crum.

The CHAIRMAN. The photographers will have to retire from the room.

Please stand.

Do you solemnly swear that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mr. CRUM. I do.

TESTIMONY OF JOHN (JACK) HAMMOND CRUM

Mr. APPELL. Reverend Crum, will you state your full name for the record, please, sir?

Mr. CRUM. John Hammond Crum. I am known as Jack.

The CHAIRMAN. Now, Mr. Appell. Mr. Crum, we are aware of the fact that you are a minister of the gospel. I think the Chair ought to say this.

We are not interested or concerned with your or anyone else's religious, theological, philosophical, or political beliefs. We are not really concerned with your opinions or anybody else's opinions, likes, or dislikes.

You are here under subpoena as an individual, to give your first-hand knowledge concerning the facts which we regard as pertinent to the subject matter of this inquiry.

I think I ought to make that plain, because that is our standard procedure and policy.

Mr. CRUM. Yes, I understand that, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. All right, proceed.

Mr. APPELL. For the record, Reverend Crum, you are appearing this morning in response to a subpoena served upon you?

Mr. CRUM. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Are you represented by counsel?

Mr. CRUM. I am not.

Mr. APPELL. Do you desire counsel?

Mr. CRUM. No.

Mr. APPELL. Would you please give to the committee—

The CHAIRMAN. Would you speak a little louder, Reverend?

Mr. CRUM. Yes.

Mr. APPELL. Would you please give to the committee your educational background?

Mr. CRUM. I graduated from Emory University in Atlanta, Georgia, in 1951. I graduated from Duke University Divinity School in 1955. I believe that is right.

Mr. APPELL. What is your denomination, Reverend Crum?

Mr. CRUM. I am a Methodist.

Mr. APPELL. Were you in Farmville, North Carolina, on September the 26th of 1964?

Mr. CRUM. Yes, I was.

Mr. APPELL. Reverend, did you attend an open public meeting of the Ku Klux Klan in Farmville, North Carolina, on September 26, 1964?

Mr. CRUM. Yes, I did.

The CHAIRMAN. Now, as I understand, that was a public meeting. That was a public meeting?

Mr. CRUM. Yes, it was, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. And information was disseminated to that effect?

Mr. CRUM. Yes. A friend of mine in Farmville picked up—I don't have with me, but he picked up a piece of the information which said it was a public rally, and the white public was invited.

The CHAIRMAN. All right.

Mr. APPELL. And you attended that rally?

Mr. CRUM. Yes, I did.

Mr. APPELL. Would you relate your experiences at that rally, sir?

Mr. CRUM. May I refer to my notes?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. CRUM. All right.

I went, sir, with my wife and with the Reverend W. S. Taylor, Jr., and with Father Gordon Kendall. We drove out to the site of the rally, just outside Farmville, at the intersection of Highway 264-A and Highway 264.

Later, although we didn't realize it at the time, we found that this was just beyond the Pitt County line, and in Greene County, and I—perhaps this contributed to the policing problem, because the Farmville police could not come. We had expected them to be there.

As we drove up to the rally, what we thought, or what we wondered, what looked like National Guardsmen, directed us to drive off the highway into a field. I thought of staying on the highway, but they were motioning, and so I parked by car off the highway, in the field, as they directed.

Later, Patrolman McCullum of the Highway Patrol said that he also at first thought that these Klans' security guards were National Guardsmen, and they were dressed with military uniforms; with helmets, boots, and insignia, and Mr. Taylor, who accompanied me, said that he saw rifles and billy clubs, also, that some of the security guard possessed.

(At this point Representative Buchanan entered the hearing room.)

Mr. CRUM. We parked the car, and then walked around. I was dressed in a suit and a hat, and I think a raincoat that I have over here, a white raincoat. My wife had on a red topcoat, and I carried a camera, which was outside of my raincoat in full view. We went without pretense. I dressed as I normally do, as I dressed to come here, because the Klans' invitation was a public invitation.

We went to see, by experience, what the Klan meeting was like, for we had read about it in the press.

On one side was the speaker's stand, and on the left of the stand was an American Flag. On the right was the Confederate flag, and in the center was a large picture of Senator Goldwater. To one side of the stand was a large, roped-off field in which stood a telephone pole-sized cross. Robed Klansmen and Klanswomen, the helmeted security guards, and spectators were walking around the field.

Mr. Taylor, who became separated from me, saw a man surrounded by guards, that he saw his films taken from him, and that he was escorted off the field. I did not know about this until later, but apparently this was a newspaperman.

A Klansman also challenged me. This was before the rally actually began. He said, "Is that a camera?" I thought it looked like a camera. I said, "Yes." He said, "We don't allow pictures."

Well, I told him I would be glad to put the camera away. Then a green-robed Klansman—

The CHAIRMAN. When you say "he," do you know who he was?

Mr. CRUM. No, I do not know who this man was. He was robed.

Mr. POOL. Can you further identify him?

Mr. CRUM. Not this particular man.

Mr. APPELL. Was he dressed in a white robe?

Mr. CRUM. He was; yes. But at this particular time, when this other man was questioning me, a green-robed man said it would be all right for me to take a picture of the cross, if I had a security guard with me who monitored the pictures that I took.

As I recall, he said, "If anybody questions you, tell them Bob said it was okay." I didn't know who this was, but I later found out that this man was Grand Dragon J. R. Jones, from Granite Quarry.

Now, I told the security guard who had been assigned to me, apparently, because he followed me everywhere I went, that I thought it would be better if I put the camera back in the car, as I hadn't come to cause trouble at the Klan rally. He wouldn't reply to me. He wouldn't smile; he would only follow and look at me. But I decided that I would put the camera back in my car.

After all, my wife was present. I had come to a public rally. I hadn't come to get in a fight. So I went back to my Volkswagen and raised the hood and put the camera in the trunk.

One robed Klansman walked along beside me and said, "If you do"—that is, if you do take pictures—"that camera won't be here, and you are liable to be beaten up, too."

I do not know the name of this man.

The CHAIRMAN. Was he robed?

Mr. CRUM. Yes, he was.

I rejoined my wife and Father Gordon Kendall, at that time. The rally was opened with an invocation, and in the prayer, there was an appeal, the Lord's Prayer.

The CHAIRMAN. Reverend—

Mr. CRUM. Yes?

The CHAIRMAN. I would prefer that you don't indulge in descriptions of religious expressions. In fact, you used the name of one man; I am sorry you did.

Mr. CRUM. I am sorry.

The CHAIRMAN. I know, you were describing the platform.

Mr. CRUM. Yes.

The CHAIRMAN. All right.

Mr. CRUM. Can I delete that part of the testimony, or what is the procedure?

The CHAIRMAN. Well, we have given it too much prominence at that. That's all.

Mr. CRUM. I will try to be careful.

Now let me ask, Mr. Chairman, about another matter. At this time, as I said—

The CHAIRMAN. There was an invocation?

Mr. CRUM. Yes.

The CHAIRMAN. All right; that's proper.

Mr. CRUM. Then a man, a young man, who said he was from Wilson, spoke. Now, would you like for me to tell anything at all about what he said? I want to cooperate with the committee here. I have a very little bit, but it might be—

The CHAIRMAN. Will you desist for a moment?

(The subcommittee conferred off the record.)

The CHAIRMAN. I think it would be appropriate, if that is the case. I don't know what you are about to say.

Mr. CRUM. Yes.

The CHAIRMAN. Wait a minute. Let me put it this way—

Mr. CRUM. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. If it is true, or if you had in mind saying it, that there were exhortations to violence, fine, but I would prefer for you not to go into a description of racial or political or current issues. If there were exhortations to violence, give a general description in that sense, but I prefer that you not go into political issues, racial issues, because I am interested in what happened to you.

Mr. CRUM. Yes, right.

Well, what I was about to say, perhaps, might include names of people that were ridiculed.

The CHAIRMAN. Well——

Mr. CRUM. It might be past issues now. This was a year ago.

The CHAIRMAN. Well——

Mr. POOL. Mr. Chairman, I don't think that he ought to just have a carte blanche to name off people that were at this rally. The investigator might question him. Would that be better?

The CHAIRMAN. Suppose you respond to questions directed at you.

Mr. CRUM. Yes.

Mr. APPELL. Reverend Crum, after the speeches were made, what was the next course of action that was followed at the rally?

Mr. CRUM. Well, things happened during the rally which, after a couple of speeches were made, the security guard had been following me, apparently was displeased with something my wife was carrying. It was a small telescope. I brought it with me, so we said, well, we didn't want to cause trouble. We went and put it in the car.

But then one of the men dressed as a security guard came up to us, while we were at the car, and we were surrounded by, I guess, I don't know an exact number, I would say 15 of these security guards, and this man said, "We will have to have the film in that camera," referring to the camera that I had previously put in the trunk of the car.

I told him that I hadn't taken any pictures, and that I had put the camera up.

The CHAIRMAN. And you declare under oath that you had not taken any pictures?

Mr. CRUM. Yes, I did.

Mr. POOL. You do. You do declare under oath that you did not take any pictures.

Mr. CRUM. Yes, I do—at this rally. That is what you mean.

The CHAIRMAN. I understand.

Mr. CRUM. Yes. I told him that the pictures that were in the camera were vacation pictures, and, of course, I would like to keep those pictures for their sentimental value.

He replied—and I understood him to be, although I do not know his name—the chief or head security guard at that particular rally—he said, "We want that film." Now they were very positive. I took them to be menacing.

About that time, my two friends, Father Gordon Kendall and Mr. Taylor, came up. Father Kendall demanded, "Where is your warrant?" which I thought was an appropriate question. They did not reply to his question, however. I told them that I would cooperate in opening the trunk of the car, and that I would give them the film. After all, under those circumstances, with my wife beside me, I did not want to get into a fight, and as I said, I came to observe.

I asked if they would send the film back to me. I told them I was here as an open person, would be glad to give them my name and my address, which I did.

While I was doing that, one man——

The CHAIRMAN. Well, now, wait a minute. Did you say—I misunderstood you. Did you say that you offered to surrender, or you did not offer to surrender the film?

Mr. CRUM. Yes. I realize this is an important point. Let me try to get it clear.

The CHAIRMAN. Yes, I missed that.

Mr. CRUM. They demanded of me the film out of that camera. Well, I had the choice, it looked to me like, of opening the trunk voluntarily, and either giving them the camera or keeping my camera and taking the film out of it, and giving it to them, or of having it forced in some way, so I regarded this as force. But I submitted to them. I said, "I will cooperate and give you the film,"—

The CHAIRMAN. All right.

Mr. CRUM. —which I took out of the camera myself and handed to the head security guard. I asked him if he would return the film, which he said he would, when they had ascertained that it was not of the Klan rally, but I have never received it.

The CHAIRMAN. All right.

Mr. CRUM. Are there further questions?

Mr. APPELL. Did they just accept the film from you, and then leave you alone, and let you proceed upon your way?

Mr. CRUM. No, sir.

Mr. APPELL. What action, then, was taken by them?

Mr. CRUM. Well, they wanted to search the trunk of the car, but apparently, Mr. Chairman, they did not want to put their hands into the trunk of the car. This may be a technical legal point. So they stood outside the trunk, and they pointed, and they said, "What is that?"

No, first they said, "What was that other thing you put in the trunk of the car?" They were referring to the telescope.

The CHAIRMAN. Yes.

Mr. CRUM. And so my wife leaned in the trunk and took it out and gave it to them. They opened it up and pulled it out of the case and saw that it was only a telescope, put it back in, and gave it back to us.

Would you want me to tell a humorous bit?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, go right ahead.

Mr. CRUM. My wife was pretty peeved by this time. She leaned in the trunk of the car where she had an extra pair of shoes and stuck out a shoe and said, "Here, you want to search this, too."

The CHAIRMAN. Proceed.

Mr. APPELL. After this, did you leave or did you return to the rally for the purpose of hearing additional speeches?

Mr. CRUM. Well, we observed the attitude which we had tried to observe the whole time, sir, that we had come to a public rally, that we had every right to be there, by their invitation, and that we wanted to observe, and to see, and so we stayed. We stayed until about the end of the rally.

Mr. APPELL. After the speeches, and you were attempting to leave—

The CHAIRMAN. Well, about the speeches, let me ask you the direct question, in a general way: Were there exhortations to violence and reference to racial issues? Just answer the question.

Mr. CRUM. There was certainly reference to racial issues, and by "violence," this I would take to be more implied.

The CHAIRMAN. All right. That is enough. That is fine.

Mr. APPELL. As you returned to your car, were you again approached by the Klan's security guard?

Mr. CRUM. Yes. Mr. Chairman, we were approached at the end of the rally by people who were giving out literature, which I will be glad to submit to the committee, if you would desire.

The CHAIRMAN. Well, we will receive it and take a look at it.

(Documents marked "Jack Crum Exhibit No. 1" and retained in committee files.)

Mr. POOL. You say after the rally?

Mr. CRUM. Well, no, toward the close of the rally this was given out. About the time it was about to adjourn, but it hadn't formally adjourned.

The CHAIRMAN. All right.

Mr. CRUM. We did proceed to the car, or we started to proceed to the car, Mr. Chairman. I think one of us said, "Well, let's go" to the others, and we turned around to go. We saw behind us the security guard that had been with me—I think it was the same one—ever since we had been there. He said, "You are not going anywhere."

The CHAIRMAN. Was that the same individual who had been following you, or was it someone else?

Mr. CRUM. Well, I could not definitely say, but I think so. It was a security guard, dressed in one of the uniforms.

Mr. POOL. Did he have a mask on?

Mr. CRUM. No, sir; North Carolina law does not prohibit masks.

Mr. WELTNER. North Carolina law what?

Mr. CRUM. As I understand it, North Carolina law does not—does prohibit masks. I am very sorry. Thank you for that correction. Does not allow masks, is what I should have said.

Mr. POOL. You couldn't identify the faces. It was too hard, and you saw too many of them. Is that the idea?

Mr. CRUM. Of these particular men; that is true.

The CHAIRMAN. Proceed, Mr. Appell.

Mr. CRUM. Well, we were, of course, upset. The crowd was beginning to leave, and naturally, we did not want to stay. Father Gordon Kendall, as I recall, I think, said, "This is a free land, and we are going," and he started off, and we all started walking, despite what the security guard had said. At this, the security guard blew his whistle, and we were very quickly surrounded by a good number of the security guards, and we were stopped.

We did not know, we were not told, why we were being detained against our wills, upon this property.

Mr. POOL. How did they stop you?

Mr. CRUM. They surrounded us, as a group, from all sides. If we had proceeded, we would have had to push them out of the way.

The CHAIRMAN. All right.

Mr. CRUM. In a few minutes, a man who was called Bob, dressed in a brown sweater, appeared.

Mr. POOL. I didn't get the last word.

Mr. CRUM. A man who was called Bob, dressed in a brown sweater, without a robe, appeared. I recognized him as Grand Dragon J. R. Jones.

He asked about the camera, and we told him what had happened. He said that we were not being threatened. I replied, "One man threatened to beat me up." He asked "Was it a robed Klansman?"

"Yes," I answered. "A man"——

The CHAIRMAN. Now who is "he" in this instance?

Mr. CRUM. Grand Dragon J. R. Jones.

"Yes," I answered, "a man in a white robe." He replied, "If a Klansman said he would beat you up, you had better watch out, for he will do it."

Mr. APPELL. Did Jones then leave, and did the security guard disperse itself, or did they continue to harass you?

Mr. CRUM. Jones left for a few minutes, I do not know why, but then he returned, and we were kept there until he returned. When he came back, he asked Mr. Taylor, the Reverend Mr. Taylor, if he would allow him to search him. Well, again, I don't know the legal terms of the matters here. I am a layman. But with the security guards all around us, and with the crowd leaving the field, Mr. Taylor felt that he was forced to consent by saying "Yes, you can search me," rather than by resisting. He felt he was forced.

He emptied his pockets, at the Grand Dragon's direction. When he refilled them, he also put his glasses in his pocket, which my wife noticed, but I didn't, for he felt like we might be in real trouble, and might have a fight.

Jones then ran his hands down the sides of the Reverend Mr. Taylor, feeling his pockets.

Mr. APPELL. Is this the normal way that you would, like, shake a man down, if you were looking to see if he had any concealed arms or weapons or other instruments on him?

Mr. CRUM. I don't know much about this kind of thing, but I assume so; yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. It is what they call "frisking."

Mr. CRUM. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. And this man was the Reverend Mr. Taylor?

Mr. CRUM. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Yes.

Mr. CRUM. He did not find anything, and Jones told the guards to get us off the field, and at that, we went back to the car.

Mr. APPELL. Now, were you immediately able to drive away, or did you find that you had some additional harassment to you which was unknown to you? Before that, did they require you to empty your pockets, and did they frisk you?

Mr. CRUM. No, they did not.

The CHAIRMAN. How about the third man who was with you?

Mr. CRUM. Father Kendall? No.

Mr. POOL. Father Kendall was not searched.

Mr. CRUM. No, he was not.

Mr. APPELL. But, of course, as I understand, Father Kendall was dressed in slacks.

The CHAIRMAN. Well, it wouldn't make any difference. He wasn't frisked. Proceed.

Mr. APPELL. What did you discover when you returned to your car?

Mr. CRUM. Well, we got in the car, and started driving off, and then it looked like the car was not going along very well, so we got out and looked, and two of the tires had been partially deflated. At that, Father Kendall and Mr. Taylor stayed outside the car, and ran along beside it until we got the car to the highway, where there was a highway patrolman and sheriff's deputies who stayed with us until we had changed one of the tires.

Mr. APPELL. These acts were carried out against you and your companions as you have testified under oath with apparently no provocation on your part, or the part of your companions?

Mr. CRUM. There was no provocation except that they didn't know who I was, recognized me as someone they did not know, I suppose.

Mr. APPELL. Did you have other experiences in your life of which you made a comparison between your treatment at the Klan rally and your treatment that you had experienced previously?

Mr. CRUM. Well—

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Appell, I don't know what that opens up. We don't want any generalities.

Wait a second.

(The subcommittee conferred off the record.)

The CHAIRMAN. Withdraw that question.

Mr. APPELL. I withdraw the question.

Did you make a tour of the Soviet Union?

The CHAIRMAN. Withdraw that question.

Mr. APPELL. I have no further questions, Mr. Chairman.

Mr. POOL. I have no questions.

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Crum, how long were you detained at the Klan rally at Farmville, North Carolina?

Mr. CRUM. Not a long time, sir. I would say 10 to 15 minutes, but I know—I didn't keep a record.

Mr. WELTNER. How many security guards surrounded you on the first instance, when you were trying to move to your car?

Mr. CRUM. I have estimated it as being about 15.

Mr. WELTNER. Thank you.

Mr. CRUM. I am not sure. There were, as I recall, someone counted over 30—30 to 40 security guards on the field.

The CHAIRMAN. Could you estimate or did you try to estimate the numbers of people at the rally?

Mr. CRUM. I can give one accurate figure. Yes, the accurate figure—

The CHAIRMAN. Well, your best estimate, within your knowledge.

Mr. CRUM. There were about 85 robed Klansmen at the time they put on their robes and circled the cross, and then there were other people, of course, who were unrobed. I would have said—I hesitate, but not too many. I hesitate to give a figure. I am not very good at estimating, but not very many. Say a couple of hundred more.

The CHAIRMAN. That is the kind of figure that a witness is expected to give, an honest estimate. That is all right.

Any questions?

Mr. BUCHANAN. No.

The CHAIRMAN. Are there any facts relating to yourself, within your knowledge, occurrences affecting you or your group other than those you have related in general terms?

Mr. CRUM. I am not——

The CHAIRMAN. I mean, were there other, if there were things such as further threats, if there were threats, and further detention or further details along that line, within the framework of what we have been talking about?

Mr. CRUM. Well, there have been telephone calls to me and to friends of mine, and to some of those who went to this particular rally with me——

The CHAIRMAN. That is pertinent.

Mr. CRUM. —of a threatening nature.

The CHAIRMAN. That is pertinent. After the rally?

Mr. CRUM. Yes. Not a great many to me personally, let me say, but to others.

The CHAIRMAN. Let's say to you. You did receive phone calls?

Mr. CRUM. Yes, but not many.

The CHAIRMAN. Well, was there one?

Mr. CRUM. Yes, we will say one.

The CHAIRMAN. Or two or five?

Mr. CRUM. Yes. Right.

The CHAIRMAN. What was the general tenor of the phone calls? Were they in the nature of admonitions or threats or things of that kind?

Mr. CRUM. Generally, they were "You better not do this kind of thing again. You had better not say the things you have been saying about the Klan."

Mr. POOL. This was after the rally?

Mr. CRUM. Yes. But I wouldn't put a lot of importance on this.

The CHAIRMAN. And it is within your personal knowledge that others of your acquaintance received others and more telephone calls of that nature?

Mr. CRUM. I can refer to a man that was referred to in the testimony yesterday, in Raleigh, Frank Hutchinson.

The CHAIRMAN. His name was brought up?

Mr. CRUM. Yesterday, and he has received many more calls than I have.

The CHAIRMAN. And they were along the lines you have indicated.

Mr. CRUM. Yes.

The CHAIRMAN. We do sincerely appreciate your coming here, and we regard your experience, your first-hand knowledge, as being pertinent to the inquiry into the subject matter of this investigation. We appreciate your appearing.

Mr. CRUM. Yes, sir; you are welcome.

The CHAIRMAN. Call your next witness.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to call Joseph G. DuBois.

Mr. DuBois, will you remain standing while the chairman administers an oath, please?

The CHAIRMAN. Please raise your right hand.

Do you solemnly swear that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mr. DuBois. I do, sir.

TESTIMONY OF JOSEPH G. DuBOIS

Mr. APPELL. Mr. DuBois, will you bring the mike in to you?

Mr. DuBois, are you appearing before the subcommittee today in accordance with a subpoena served upon you by a United States marshal at 10:55 a.m. on the 12th day of October 1965?

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. DuBois, are you represented by counsel?

Mr. DuBois. No, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Did you desire counsel?

Mr. DuBois. No, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. DuBois, what is your educational background, sir?

Mr. DuBois. May I have a drink of water, please? I haven't been this nervous since just before going into action on Guadalcanal.

The CHAIRMAN. That is all right. Take your time.

Mr. DuBois. Repeat the question, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Would you give us your educational background, please, sir?

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir.

At an early age, in my teens, my mother and father were separated; they separated. At the age of 15—I have a younger sister—I had to take over support of the family. I had to quit school. I went into CC Camps—most of you gentlemen know what that is—to support my mother and my sister. I had no one to turn to.

After that, while I was in the CC Camp, a Marine recruiter came through; I saw my 16th birthday.

The CHAIRMAN. What grade did you go to? The fact that you have little education is unimportant. We want it for the record. I might say that I have some folks who are uneducated.

Mr. DuBois. If you would let me continue, sir, I think I will answer all your questions.

The CHAIRMAN. All right.

Mr. DuBois. I went into the Marine Corps at the age of 16, after I saw my 16th birthday. I was—a Marine recruiter came through the CC Camp, recruiting Marines. He told me that I could finish my education in the Marine Corps, and learn a trade, so I immediately joined the Marine Corps. I took my training, sir—

Mr. APPELL. May I interrupt you, sir? At what year is that?

Mr. DuBois. This is approximately March 28, 1941. I have documented proof on that, sir.

Mr. APPELL. All right. Now, while you were in the Marine Corps, did you earn what we would call a high school equivalent certificate?

Mr. DuBois. No, sir. Soon after I joined the Marine Corps I was—the war broke out, approximately 9 months. I was with the Fleet Marine Force, which is the fighting unit of the Marine Corps ground units.

Mr. APPELL. We will get to that under your occupational—

The CHAIRMAN. Just answer the question. It will be easier for you. He has notes.

Mr. DuBois. All right, fine.

My 2 years, after I was—in 1948, I went back to night school and completed my high school education, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Thank you very much.

Now, would you please outline for the committee briefly your occupational background?

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir. After going back to night—after finishing, going to night school to finish my education, I was offered a position with a B. F. Goodrich Company tire company. They had checked my records in the school, and they wanted to help me, and I went to Charlotte, North Carolina, with the B. F. Goodrich Company and took training in budget management.

The CHAIRMAN. That was when?

Mr. DuBois. Approximately '49, '48 and '49, somewhere in that neighborhood.

The CHAIRMAN. Let's go back a little bit, Don. Let's go back to his period of service, in the Armed Forces.

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir. What year did you join the CC Corps?

Mr. DuBois. I don't know the exact date, sir, because I never did receive a discharge, since I went to the Marines, in the forties.

Mr. APPELL. Approximately how long?

Mr. DuBois. Approximately 9 months. We had 6 months' service, and I was starting on my second hitch, and the reason I did that, I sent all my money home to my mother and my sister to live off of—

Mr. APPELL. And then you joined the Marine Corps.

Mr. DuBois. The Marine Corps; yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. All right. Now, what period of time were you in the Marine Corps?

Mr. DuBois. I was in the Marine Corps, sir, from March 28, 1941. I was discharged January 26th of 1944, by reason, upon report of a medical survey for disability, with character excellent.

Mr. APPELL. Now, I want to give you the opportunity to put into the record as a part of your employment what service you contributed to your country as a member of the Marine Corps.

Mr. DuBois. Sir, my record speaks for itself. On the bottom of this discharge is listed battles, engagements, skirmishes, and expeditions, and half a page are filled, here. You may inspect it.

Pass it to the chairman, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Wait a second.

Well, this lists very many engagements. I see you were in the Samoan Islands, May 8th to September 4, 1942; the Solomon Islands, September 18, 1942 to January 5, 1943; Australia, January 12 to July 31, 1943; and you were under Japanese naval bombardment, vicinity of the mouth of the Lunga River, Guadalcanal, for a stated period of time here.

Skirmishes with the Japanese armed forces, vicinity of Pioneer Bridge, Lunga River, Guadalcanal, another period of service, 1942, battle of the Japanese Army Forces, vicinity of Mbalo, Guadalcanal area, and vicinity of Point Cruz, Guadalcanal, another engagement, and First Marine Division, operations against the Japanese Army, Unit A. Guadalcanal area, under enemy naval bombardment in October 1942, on Guadalcanal.

Participated in defense of Sector No. 3 in that area, action against Japanese forces in other areas of Guadalcanal engagements, and so on.

It is quite an impressive service. I will tell you that.

Mr. POOL. Is that the First Marine Division?

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir.

Mr. POOL. I had a nephew.

Mr. DuBois. Here is the hometown paper that was put out while I was overseas.

Mr. POOL. I had a nephew in that same outfit.

Mr. DuBois. Thank you, sir. I would like for that to be——

The CHAIRMAN. By the way, this is not theatrics. The audience should understand that.

Here is a picture apparently on the front page called "Goldsboro Boy Gets Nine Japs At One Whack."

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Congratulations.

Mr. DuBois. Gentlemen, here is a writeup after I came back from Guadalcanal. I participated while I was in the hospital in California, some movie stars and other people were entertaining troops, came by the hospital, and they requested that I be able to go with them on the Third War Bond Drive. At that time it was the Third War Bond Drive. In that bottom, you will read it, sir, they gave me credit for selling $500,000 worth of war bonds. That is in the bottom part of that writeup, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Well, here are some of the headings of the papers. "Corporal Joseph DuBois Found Guadalcanal Hot Spot." Another one headed "Corporal DuBois Had 10 Attacks Through Flak," and many others.

Mr. DuBois. Gentlemen, I am not bragging. I didn't bring this information up here to be bragging. I would like to—I feel that my integrity and loyalty has been questioned.

The CHAIRMAN. All right, we will come to that.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. DuBois, we will give you an opportunity.

The CHAIRMAN. Just respond to his questions.

Mr. DuBois. All right.

Mr. APPELL. We will give you an opportunity to say whatever you would like to say for the record, sir.

Mr. DuBois. Do you have my discharge, sir?

Mr. ICHORD. Right here.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. DuBois, I wondered if when you return if you would have a copy of that discharge made and forwarded to us for the record, please.

Mr. DuBois. I will, sir.

(Document marked "Joseph DuBois Exhibit No. 1" and retained in committee files.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. DuBois, then, after you got out of the Marine Corps you went to night school and then you had further employment.

Mr. DuBois. Pardon me. I would like to make one statement, please.

All during this time, while I was overseas fighting, I was sending home money to my mother and sister to live on. They had no welfare help, no help whatsoever, except what I sent them. I would like that part of the record, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. I commend you. He will develop the facts.

Mr. DuBois. Thank you, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. He interviewed you, and he will develop the facts.

Mr. DuBois. Thank you, sir. All right.

Mr. APPELL. Now, in order that the record follow a chronology, after discharge you said that you went to night school for education, so I assume that you took some kind of employment immediately after discharge.

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir. With the B. F. Goodrich. Pardon me. Immediately after discharge, the mayor of our town, Mr. Scott Berkeley, who is deceased now, escorted me personally to the local air base to apply for a job, not a position. My first starting salary was $1500, as a mechanic's helper.

Mr. APPELL. And then——

Mr. DuBois. I worked there until 1946.

Mr. APPELL. And then is it 1946 when you joined the B. F. Goodrich Company?

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir; approximately. Sorry.

No. Well, '46, '7—there is a small length of time in there I worked with Sears, Roebuck in the Budget Department.

Mr. APPELL. Then how long did you remain employed with B. F. Goodrich Company?

Mr. DuBois. I am not sure, sir.

Mr. APPELL. But just your best estimate.

Mr. DuBois. Approximately 6 or 7 months. Under the circumstances, I wasn't being promoted as I felt I should be, through the local store, and I resigned.

Mr. APPELL. What was your next employment, sir?

Mr. DuBois. I operated a Firestone store in Smithfield as manager.

Mr. APPELL. How long did you operate that store, sir?

Mr. DuBois. Until it was sold. Approximately a year or better, until it was sold to an individual.

Mr. APPELL. What was your next employment, sir?

Mr. DuBois. Let's see. My next employment, sir, was with the Dixie Finance Corporation, which was a loan company.

Mr. APPELL. How long did you remain employed by them, sir?

Mr. DuBois. Until I went in business for myself, sir, in 1951.

Mr. APPELL. What business did you enter, sir?

Mr. DuBois. I went into the used car business, buying and selling used cars.

Mr. APPELL. Are you still engaged in that business?

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. At what town is that?

Mr. DuBois. That is Goldsboro, North Carolina.

The CHAIRMAN. All right.

Mr. APPELL. Now, Mr. DuBois, the subpena served upon you calls for you to produce:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and affiliated organizations, namely, the Alabama Rescue Service and Wayne County Improvement Association, in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by you or available to you as an officer or employee of the Wayne County Improvement Association of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

Part 2 calls for you to produce :

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by or available to you, in your capacity as an officer or employee of the Wayne County Improvement Association of the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, which the "Constitution and Laws" of said organization authorize and require to be maintained by you and any other officer of said organization, the same being in your possession, custody or control.

Under the terms of that subpoena, Mr. DuBois, I ask you if you have brought with you the documents called for.

Mr. DuBois. May I make a statement first, sir?

The CHAIRMAN. Surely.

Mr. DuBois. I have been informed by some members of the Klan I should stand on the fifth amendment. I think this is—will not help my record any. At this time, any vows that I took in this organization are secondary to the loyalty to my integrity and loyalty to this Nation. To God is first. Nation is second. Anything after that, I figure is secondary.

I have no intentions of taking the fifth amendment, no matter what happens. I have been informed that possibly I would be held in contempt. I hope and pray that you don't do that. I have come up here to speak the truth. I figure that if the Klan had nothing to hide, the reason I joined it, I thought it was an organization that was according to what I knew about it and what I read, the literature I had read, had been to the betterment of this country.

At this time, under the circumstances of the fifth amendment that the people have been taking on this, I would like to resign as a Klan member, and as treasurer of my local unit, and I have the people—I have nothing against my people of the unit. They are garden variety Americans. As far as I know, there is nothing subversive in it. I have found nothing subversive in it, and if it is found to be subversive, I have already resigned, but I hope that is no reflection on it as being subversive, because I have seen nothing.

The CHAIRMAN. We appreciate your attitude. I don't know who told you what about what you should do or not do, on what issues you should invoke the fifth amendment or not, or whether we would hold you for contempt or not.

We are the judges of that, and I congratulate you for voluntarily saying what you said, and I have no notion of what you are going to say or what you are about to say, and to what you said, I say amen.

Mr. DuBois. Thank you.

The CHAIRMAN. Now perhaps, Don, before he produces the document, don't you want to ask him when he joined, and lead up to it?

Mr. Appell. I will, Mr. Chairman. I was going to ask. However, preliminary to that, with respect to two statements that he just made, one with respect to him being urged to take the fifth amendment, as to the identity of those people who urged him to take the fifth amendment.

Mr. DuBois. Sir, the people that mentioned this to me, I have never seen before. I do not know their names. If I did, I would hate to divulge it.

The CHAIRMAN. But you honestly don't?

Mr. DuBois. I honestly don't, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Was that in the nature of a telephone conversation, or personal appearance?

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir; in difference ways.

The CHAIRMAN. I wish you would describe that.

Mr. DuBois. Well, sir, some of these people are not Klansmen. They are people that are back in my hometown, that know my background, respect me, and they said that "You think you are going to be in trouble, or get in trouble, take the fifth amendment."

The CHAIRMAN. Nobody gets in trouble anywhere in America by telling the truth.

Mr. DuBois. That is the reason I am up here, sir, and that is the reason I am up here without counsel.

The CHAIRMAN. We appreciate it.

Mr. APPELL. Who gave you the advice that the committee might hold you in contempt?

Mr. DuBois. This was also over the phone, and I do not—I personally do not know the people.

The CHAIRMAN. Well, perhaps—

Mr. DuBois. I am a Baptist by faith, and I am a Christian, and I intend to tell the truth. I hope that I am not hurting anybody. I am not out here to blacken anyone's reputation; I don't want mine blackened. I don't want my children—back when I was fighting, I didn't know what I was fighting for. I was 17 years old, and I didn't know then, but now I have a wife and three children. I know what I am fighting for.

There are things that I do not approve of in the government, and being handed down by the government, but I am not hiding to tell it. I imagine that is the reason I am up here. I don't feel that I have anything to hide. There is bound to be some conflict in this country, and there is uprisings and the riots and everything, and I think that these people should come back and make this country as great as it has been, and I think this greatness of this country is not only because of the Government, but in spite of the Government. Individuals.

The CHAIRMAN. Well, I appreciate your views, and if there is one thing sacred in America, it is the right to speak out. Congratulations.

Mr. DuBois. Thank you, sir. I may be persecuted. I haven't been threatened.

The CHAIRMAN. Let me tell you this: I said in my opening statement and I now reiterate, if I have any influence—and the members feel that I do—in this town, if anything occurs to you in the way of threats or anything else, as the result of your appearance here, you just let us know.

Mr. DuBois. Thank you, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. And as I said, knowing of our Government and judicial system, I will let the fur fly.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. DuBois, before I ask for the production of the documents called for in the subpoena, when did you join the Ku Klux Klan?

Mr. DuBois. To give you the exact date, sir, I could not.

The CHAIRMAN. Just about.

Mr. DuBois. Approximately 18 months ago. Approximately. I wouldn't—it could be 12.

Mr. APPELL. To what unit of the Klan were you assigned as a new member?

Mr. DuBois. Sir, I would like to answer this—

The CHAIRMAN. Well, in what town?

Mr. DuBois. —in an honest way. Goldsboro, North Carolina.

The CHAIRMAN. The Klavern located in Goldsboro, North Carolina.

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Now, the reason, Mr. DuBois—and I will tell you this—that you were subpoenaed is because the committee, in the course of its investigation, obtained the bank account of the Wayne County Improvement Association, and it found in an examination of these records that you were a signator to this account.

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir, up until several months ago, when I resigned. They refused my resignation, but my name was withdrawn as a signator. I still have been keeping the books. I also am finance chairman of my church.

The CHAIRMAN. Finance chairman of your church?

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir; of my local church.

The CHAIRMAN. Well, as a matter of fact, you indicated that part of your schooling was some course in finance.

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Do you know whether or not they did file a new signature card with the bank after you told them of your resignation?

Mr. DuBois. I am sure they did, sir, because there have been checks going out since then.

Mr. APPELL. Well, the original signature card contained three names, any two of which were authorized to sign checks.

Mr. DuBois. That is correct, sir.

Mr. APPELL. I am not going to ask you who they are. I am going to state for the record, and if I am wrong I ask you to correct me, that it was J. A. Price, A. H. Barrow, and yourself, Joseph G. DuBois.

Mr. DuBois. I think that is correct, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Now, the name of this account is in the name of the Wayne County Improvement Association.

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Did you know the Wayne County Improvement Association to be the designation of a Klan unit to which Klansmen were assigned?

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Now, I now ask you, Mr. DuBois, to produce for the committee the documents in your possession or control called for by the subpoenas.

Mr. DuBois. May I make a statement also, sir, before doing this? It will concern it, and after that I will.

The CHAIRMAN. And you will produce them?

Mr. DuBois. Yes.

The CHAIRMAN. Yes, go ahead.

Mr. DuBois. On Monday night, the last meeting that we had, I asked, I explained to the people that I represent that I had been subpoenaed, and what had been subpoenaed, and what was in my custody, and I asked that they give me a 100 percent showing to bring that, and every man raised his hand to give me permission to bring this.

I want that known. I don't know these other gentlemen, the higher-ups in the Klan. Mr. Jones I have met on one or two occasions. I have been to two rallies in my home area. I do not have time to attend the rallies, because I have my—still have my mother to support, and my family, and my business to look after, and I can't be running all over the country. And since the—

The CHAIRMAN. Well, I congratulate you and your members on willingness to produce the documents that you are now about to hand in.

Mr. DuBois. And I had the full cooperation of my local unit, and I think that—that is the reason I am producing these documents.

The CHAIRMAN. All right.

Well, let me ask you this question: I understand, therefore, that, and you said as much, because you said you were contacted by phone and by people you don't know—those who suggested that you invoke the fifth amendment are not members of your Klavern?

Mr. DuBois. No, sir.

May I ask—pardon me, sir. May I ask that these be returned to me to return them to my unit at a date—

The CHAIRMAN. They will have to be studied, and excerpts, I suppose excerpts will do for our purposes, but I don't want to—we are not in the business of keeping documents for the sake of keeping documents. We may have to hold them, and scrutinize them a little.

(Documents marked "Joseph DuBois Exhibit No. 3," and retained in committee files.)¹

Mr. DuBois. They were put in my custody, sir, and the people had trust in me that put them in mine, and I would like to see them returned to them.

¹ Copies were made of those documents of interest to the committee, and all originals were returned to witness.

The CHAIRMAN. Well, under those circumstances, I am not going to violate trust. We will reproduce them, but, of course, we are not going to ask you to violate trust, and you are tendering them to us with the condition that they be returned, at least for us to make excerpts of such parts of them as we consider pertinent. That will be understood.

Order. We are still in session.

(The subcommittee conferred off the record.)

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. DuBois, I will tell you the way we will proceed: You hand the documents to Mr. Appell and in your presence he will give a very general designation of each; we won't have time to study them, and then so you know what you handed us, and if there is any misunderstanding about it, because it will be in your presence, it will be itemized.

Then, if agreeable, we will adjourn until 1:30 so we can examine them more closely and then return them to you after 1:30. Will that be agreeable?

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir.

Gentlemen, if there is any way possible, I would like to get out as soon as possible and get back home to my family and business. I have been up here 2 days.

Mr. Pool. Mr. Chairman, I don't think we will have time to make excerpts before 1:30.

Have the investigator read off what they are.

The CHAIRMAN. All right. To the reporter, make a general description of each document, and set them aside, one by one.

All right, I understand you told our general counsel that you are willing to leave them with us for several days.

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Well, we will return them to you. We will make a list right now.

Mr. DuBois. Fine. Thank you, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. But I think it would not—could you, Mr. Appell, enumerate them, one by one, a checkbook, in very general terms, of what appears to be such-and-such?

Mr. DuBois. The only thing you have, sir, is a checkbook and a few receipts, and some deposit slips, which we have been—

The CHAIRMAN. Well, you are entirely familiar with them.

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. And you are not going to demand that we make an inventory of them right now, and you will trust us.

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir. It is time for someone to trust somebody, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Time for someone to trust somebody. You are so right.

You might give a very general description.

Mr. Appell. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Say it is a checkbook, receipts.

Mr. Appell. There are two checkbooks, imprinted checkbooks.

The CHAIRMAN. All right, that is enough.

Mr. Appell. One envelope which contains check stubs.

Mr. DuBois. No check stubs, sir, in there. I haven't had any check stubs. No check stubs returned. That is the checkbook. I am sorry. Same thing. That is the old one.

Mr. Appell. Some individual small checkbooks, and looks like bills which were paid from this account, together with copies of deposit slips, and a zipper case which contains—

Mr. DuBois. There is a quarter in there that was an overage from the last deposit. It is under your checkbook there, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Plus 25 cents, but I will give you back the 25 cents, so that doesn't get lost in the process.

And some blank deposit forms together with deposit books.

These are the items contained in the material produced.

Mr. DuBois. This is items that were in the deposit. After I explained that I had those.

The CHAIRMAN. That is a correct description of this document; is it not?

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Now the committee will stand in recess until 1:30.

The subcommittee will come to order.

Mr. DuBois, we would like you to confer with our investigator about these documents between now and 1:30. Will you do that?

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. The subcommittee is recessed.

(Subcommittee members present at time of recess: Representatives Willis, Pool, Weltner, and Buchanan.)

(Whereupon, at 11:38 a.m., Friday, October 22, 1965, the subcommittee recessed, to reconvene at 1:30 p.m. the same day.)

AFTERNOON SESSION—FRIDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1965

(Subcommittee members present: Representatives Willis, Pool, Weltner, and Buchanan.)

The CHAIRMAN. The subcommittee will please come to order.

I understand you have recalled Mr. DuBois.

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir; we have recalled Mr. DuBois.

TESTIMONY OF JOSEPH G. DuBOIS—Resumed

Mr. APPELL. Mr. DuBois, would you briefly outline to the committee the duties and responsibilities—or let me ask you this. I don't know for sure whether I put it on the record this morning. Within the Wayne County Improvement Association, which you identified to be a club to which members of the Ku Klux Klan were assigned, what specific position did you hold?

Mr. DuBois. Treasurer, sir.

Mr. APPELL. And within the Klan the treasurer is known as the klabee?

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. What are the duties and responsibilities of a treasurer?

Mr. DuBois. Well, the only responsibility and duties I had was to make the deposits and write the checks and then pass them on to everywhere they were to be sent.

Mr. APPELL. Is it true that under the procedures the secretary is the man who receives money, and makes all the written reports, and turns the money over to the treasurer for the treasurer to deposit?

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir. Of course I don't know whether he gets all the money or what the deal is as far as collecting or something. Of course all the money is supposed to be turned into me to make deposits with and then entered on my record, the check stub, so we will know at all times what our balance is.

Mr. APPELL. Let me ask you this. Within the group that you belonged, what was the initiation fee paid?

Mr. DuBois. Well, the membership, my membership fee was $10.00.

Mr. APPELL. What are the monthly dues?

Mr. DuBois. We have no monthly dues, sir. It is quarterly.

Mr. APPELL. Quarterly within your organization, and what were the quarterly dues?

Mr. DuBois. Four and a quarter.

Mr. APPELL. $4.25?

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Now, it is the committee's understanding that the secretary—

The CHAIRMAN. Wait a minute. I wonder if he understood you. $4.25 per quarter?

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Per quarter.

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. The committee's investigation disclosed that the secretary makes up either on a monthly or a quarterly basis that which is known as a kligrapp's report which is forwarded to the state or realm level and also to the imperial level.

This report contains the number of members, and the number initiated, and losses and minuses. The money that is to be transmitted, is this merely the amount requested of you as the treasurer, or are you given a breakdown of membership upon which you write the check?

Mr. DuBois. No, sir; I am not given anything but make a check out for this amount to a certain area.

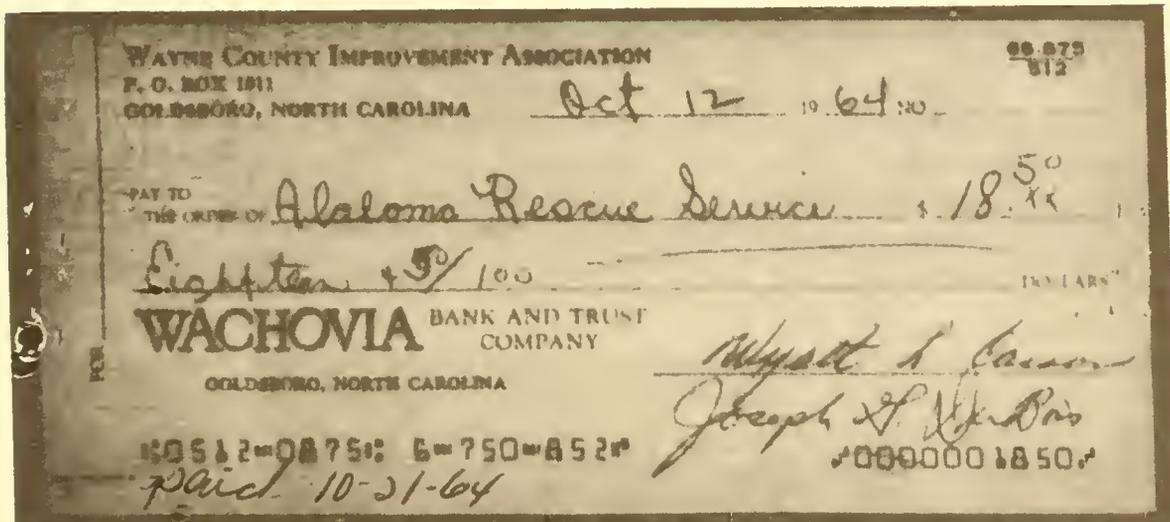

Mr. APPELL. I hand you a series of checks, some endorsed—or showing you as the maker, as a comaker, others without your signature as a comaker. All of these are made payable to the Alabama Rescue Service.

Can you tell the committee what the Alabama Rescue Service is?

Mr. DuBois. Well, sir, I don't know exactly what the Alabama Rescue Service is, but I know that is where we are supposed to send our checks or where we are supposed to answer to.

(Documents marked "Joseph DuBois Exhibit No. 4." One check follows; balance retained in committee files.)

JOSEPH DuBOIS EXHIBIT NO. 4

The CHAIRMAN. I might inform you that the Alabama Rescue Service is a front or cover name that Mr. Shelton uses and his organization uses in connection with the operations of the United Klans of America.

Mr. APPELL. And these checks that were sent or made payable to the Alabama Rescue Service were for what is known as imperial tax?

Mr. DUBOIS. I don't know how they were classified, sir, under the circumstances. I mean I was just keeping the books for the checks, of course for the unit.

Mr. APPELL. But this was a portion of the dues money collected from the membership?

Mr. DUBOIS. I guess so; yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. There were a number of checks in this account drawn to the order of J. R. Jones. Can you tell us what checks payable to J. R. Jones, as a general rule the purpose for which this money was drawn?

Mr. DUBOIS. I think that—of course, as I said, again I don't know the amount or anything about it, but it is just like the same thing that—it is a local or statewide—

Mr. APPELL. State tax?

Mr. DUBOIS. I don't know whether you call it tax or what you would call it. I mean it is to help operate, I guess, for expenses, Mr. Jones and his duties.

Mr. APPELL. You are familiar with this document called Constitution and Laws of the United Klans of America, Incorporated, Knights of Ku Klux Klan?

Mr. DUBOIS. No, sir; I have never seen one before.

Mr. APPELL. According to that document, 25 cents is supposed to go to the state or realm and 50 cents to the imperial. Therefore, checks made payable to Mr. Jones would be the state share and checks to the Alabama Rescue Service would be the imperial share.

Is that your understanding, sir?

Mr. DUBOIS. As I said before, sir, I don't know what amount. The only thing I know we did send checks to them. I don't know what the amount was or what it was used for. I have tried to keep the books where they keep the money straight for them. That is all I have done.

The CHAIRMAN. I am satisfied thus far, and I know it will be true throughout the testimony; it would seem that you are handling your funds all right, but I am asking you this: Do you know what Jones and Shelton do with the money that is received from you?

Mr. DUBOIS. No, sir; I have no way of knowing except it is supposed to be to offset expenses incurred in their operation or in the operation of the Klan.

The CHAIRMAN. Did you know, for example, that under the setup at the Imperial Wizard level, Robert M. Shelton himself, as to monies that are received from you, deposits those funds in a bank in California; that checks he draws against that account are signed by himself and supposedly by a man by the name of James J. Hendrix or a man by the name of T. M. Montgomery, but that in fact there are no such males, and that those persons are thieves, that Hendrix is the wife of Shelton and Montgomery is someone who works for Shelton?

Did you know that before?

Mr. DuBois. No sir; I did not.

Mr. Pool. From what the chairman has told you, what do you suppose would be the reaction of your Klan members back in your Klavern? What would they think of this revelation?

Mr. DuBois. Gentlemen, as I said once before, I don't want to break any sacred trust the people put in me, but I feel that my country, God and my country, comes first and anything else is secondary.

I went to my people at the last meeting and asked them, told them I had my subpoena and what it required me, and asked them permission to bring this checkbook up here and present to you gentlemen.

I said, "As far as I know, we have nothing to hide. We have never, of my knowledge, we have never done anything subversive or destructible or otherwise. We have a common cause, there was some things we don't approve of, and I think the only way that you will get representation is by a majority," and I asked them if I could bring these books up here, and I had a hundred percent in my unit raise their hand and give me their confidence.

Mr. Pool. What I am getting at is this. Well, I don't want to make this statement. The Imperial Wizard is wearing a big diamond ring and driving the car the Klan bought him, and the same way with some of the Dragons.

These revelations should shake up the membership back home when they find these things out. I don't think they have known about it.

Mr. DuBois. Well, in some cases some of the things possibly they do know about. Others they don't know about.

The Chairman. What you are trying to say is that you run your affairs straight?

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir.

The Chairman. You don't know what Jones and others are doing?

Mr. DuBois. Right. I feel about the Klan and the unit I belong to just like I do about my church, or my country, or my income tax. Once I do my part and sent the money in I have done my part and what happens to it is someone else's worry.

Mr. Pool. I understand.

Mr. DuBois. The same way with my church and my tithes to my church. What they do with it, if it is misused or otherwise, my conscience is clear.

The Chairman. It then becomes between them and their God?

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir. I still think I have nothing to hide.

The Chairman. We appreciate that.

Mr. DuBois. And people in my local unit as far as I know, has nothing to hide.

The Chairman. You are not going to be the loser and nothing is going to happen to you for your frank, open way of expressing yourself.

Mr. APPELL. Let me ask you this: Who possessed the records with respect to membership? The treasurer, or secretary?

Mr. DuBois. Well, I can answer this much: The treasurer does not.

Mr. APPELL. You have no records which reflect the membership of your unit?

Mr. DuBois. No, sir.

Mr. APPELL. As a matter of fact, all of the records which were in your possession you presented to the committee this morning?

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. And only as to the financial transactions which are reflected by these records do you have knowledge?

Mr. DuBois. No, sir; only what you see and that what I brought up here is the only thing I have any knowledge of. Of course, we have never been able to hold a regular meeting as far as I am concerned, like it should be held according to the Klan, because public opinion and newspapers and all have been mighty biased on us and have been pushing us from one area to the other, and it has been rather hard to keep an organization together. You are roaming around.

The CHAIRMAN. In other words, the records that you brought are the only records that you have control of?

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Do you have an estimate of the size of your membership?

Mr. DuBois. No, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, due to the fact that the records submitted by the witness, together with the documents subpoenaed by the committee, tell the financial story of this unit and due to the fact that this is the only knowledge possessed by this witness, the staff has no further questions to ask of this witness.

The CHAIRMAN. I just want to tell you this: The committee is very grateful to you. You have displayed a great deal of courage and gumption by coming over here and telling us what you know within your knowledge freely and openly, and I assure you that, whatever information has been given to you to the contrary, this committee is interested only in the facts, not interested in subjecting you or anyone else to harassment or ill treatment for coming over here and voluntarily and under oath saying all they know.

Mr. DuBois. Thank you, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. You have a very wonderful record that you have displayed here in service to your country and your allegiance to God and country first, and the feeling that this is superior to any allegiance to the Klan or anything else, and I admire you for coming here in view of the things that have transpired, that you talked about in this committee room, something no one knew about or expected of you, what you did recite right then and there in public session before a congressional committee.

Now listen carefully. You are under subpoena here.

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. In addition to compelling a person to appear in response to a subpoena, a subpoena issued by a court, grand jury, by a congressional committee, and the like, carries with it the protection of Federal law, meaning that under that law if anyone appears before a court or grand jury or petit jury or congressional committee and testifies under oath, then anyone who threatens that person or who molests him, intimidates him, does anything else, is violating that Federal law.

I am going to continue the subpoena until January 1, 1966. That means two things. That if developments require, you are under compulsion to report back and, number two, it is for your further protection as a voluntary witness before a congressional committee.

If there are any threats, intimidations, recriminations, any acts, verbal or physical, that occur to you or members of your family, so far as I am concerned, as a result of your appearance, you please just let me know.

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir. Thank you.

Mr. BUCHANAN. Mr. DuBois, I want to congratulate you for your military record. We tend to forget that there is freedom in the world today because of what you and other men like you did in World War II, and in my opinion freedom will continue to survive in this world because of what men are doing now to resist tyranny in the same way.

I believe you stated that your reason for testifying before this committee is because you put God first, country second, and other things fall below that.

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir.

Mr. BUCHANAN. And that your loyalty to your country is greater than your loyalty to any such organization as the Ku Klux Klan.

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir.

Mr. BUCHANAN. Is that correct? And that since a law, based firmly on the Constitution of this country, requires you to testify as you have testified and because of loyalty to your country you felt impelled to testify, that you held this to be a higher loyalty and therefore testified before this committee. Is that correct?

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir.

Mr. BUCHANAN. I noticed when you took the oath as a Christian you swore to tell the whole truth, nothing but the truth, so help you God.

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir.

Mr. BUCHANAN. You swore rather than affirming.

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir.

Mr. BUCHANAN. I noted that also. Then, finally, I just want to confirm this fact: That you have testified twice, I think, you joined this organization with no idea of wrongdoing as did other members of your local unit, so far as you are concerned?

Mr. DuBois. That is correct, sir.

Mr. BUCHANAN. You, this day, have resigned from this organization about which certain questions have been raised in this hearing, and not your unit I mean, but you did this day resign?

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir.

Mr. BUCHANAN. From that organization?

Mr. DuBois. Yes, sir.

Mr. BUCHANAN. I want to congratulate you, Mr. DuBois, for your service to the country in the past and the service you have rendered in your testimony today.

Mr. DuBois. Thank you, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Any more questions?

Mr. APPELL. No, Mr. Chairman, the staff has no further questions.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you very much.

Mr. APPELL. Thank you.

The CHAIRMAN. Call your next witness.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to call as our next witness

Mr. Roy Woodle and I would like to request permission for Mr. Philip Manuel, investigator for the committee, to interrogate the witness.

The CHAIRMAN. Raise your right hand.

Mr. Woodle, do you solemnly swear to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mr. WOODLE. I do.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Manuel, proceed.

TESTIMONY OF ROY WOODLE

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Woodle, would you please give your full name to the committee, please?

Mr. WOODLE. Roy Woodle.

Mr. MANUEL. And how do you spell that last name?

Mr. WOODLE. W-o-o-d-l-e.

Mr. MANUEL. When and where were you born?

Mr. WOODLE. In Davidson County, Lexington, North Carolina.

Mr. MANUEL. What is your current occupation?

Mr. WOODLE. Bricklayer.

Mr. MANUEL. Are you appearing here today, sir, in response to a subpoena served upon you on the 6th of October 1965, served upon you by an investigator of this committee, Mr. Raymond McConnon?

Mr. WOODLE. That is right, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Woodle, have you ever been a member of the North Carolina Realm of the United Klans of America?

Mr. WOODLE. Yes, sir; I have.

Mr. MANUEL. When did you become a member of that organization?

Mr. WOODLE. Roughly 8 or 9 months ago. I couldn't recall the date that I became a member of it, but roughly 9 or 10 months ago.

Mr. MANUEL. Would that be approximately December of 1964?

Mr. WOODLE. Somewhere in that area; yes.

Mr. MANUEL. Under what circumstances did you join the UKA or the United Klans of America?

Mr. WOODLE. Why did I join the organization?

Mr. MANUEL. Yes, sir.

Mr. WOODLE. I joined the organization because I was approached that it was an organization to present a program against integration, which I didn't believe in integration, and that it was a Christian organization, and that is what caused me to join the organization.

Mr. MANUEL. Reverend Woodle, do you have a background as a preacher or a reverend for a church?

Mr. WOODLE. Well, I have been preaching for some 3 years now.

Mr. MANUEL. Where do you preach, sir?

Mr. WOODLE. I don't preach nowhere in particular now, just anywhere opportunity, and I preached on the radio for 3 years till recently, about 3 or 4 months ago.

Mr. MANUEL. In what city in North Carolina did you preach?

Mr. WOODLE. The vicinity of Lexington and different churches that call you to speak for them.

Mr. MANUEL. When you became a member of the United Klans of America to what Klavern or unit were you assigned?

Mr. WOODLE. In Lexington.

Mr. MANUEL. To your certain knowledge, do you remember what number or designation that Klavern had?

Mr. WOODLE. No, to the number, and whatever it went by, I never went into that and don't know. I saw in the news one night last week it showed so many different Klaverns and it give the number and I believe this one was No. 9 or some kind of a No. 9—let me think just a minute; some kind of a club or something under that name.

Mr. MANUEL. Upon becoming a member of this Klavern and becoming a member of the United Klans of America, did you take an oath of allegiance—

Mr. WOODLE. I absolutely did.

Mr. MANUEL. To that organization. I would like to at this point hand you a copy of that oath and ask you to the best of your memory to identify it for the committee.

Mr. WOODLE. Well, now, the way the oath was taken—you know, when you get a thing and going down and a man asks a question and you repeat after him, I can't recall just word for word what was said or how it was said.

Mr. MANUEL. Is that an oath similar to the one that you subscribed to?

Mr. WOODLE. It looks like it would be about the same thing, but as far as how it was worded and not worded, I couldn't say because I didn't know. I have never had one. I have never had an oath or never been entrusted to me or nothing. I wouldn't know.

(Document previously marked "Robert Shelton Exhibit No. 4.")

Mr. MANUEL. Upon your subscription to that oath, did it mention God?

Mr. WOODLE. Yes, it did, in some place it did whenever it was given, something to that effect, yes.

Mr. MANUEL. Reverend Woodle, when you joined this organization what kind of an organization did you believe it to be?

Mr. WOODLE. Well, I was told it was a religious organization. They stood for the truth and right and honesty for all, and that is the reason I finally joined.

Mr. MANUEL. During the course of your membership in this organization did you change your original opinion as you have just outlined it?

Mr. WOODLE. Well, let's put it this way: In my way of saying, I was approached that this organization was a very religious organization, it stood for the truth and what was right, and it stood against integration. Now, I stayed in the organization some 8 or 9 months myself and I done what I thought I was supposed to do, try to carry out my duty as a member and what was asked them, everything that was asked reasonable and right, and the whole time I was in I don't find it stood for religion or against integration. If it did I don't know where the program was or where it performed that. Not in the State of North Carolina as I know there was an active program against it, and those was the two main reasons I joined the organization.

The CHAIRMAN. Did they say it was a Christian organization?

Mr. WOODLE. Definitely. When the man comes to me to ask me to join I told him I was afraid it would go against my conviction, and having been a preacher I was afraid it would hurt me, and he told me, "No, sir; we stand for the truth," and what was right, and I believed in that and I believed we ought to have had a program against integration, which every man has a right to believe what he wants to believe, and that was my motive for joining it, and I believe that 98 percent of the rest of the Klan joined for that reason. If they did or didn't, I know not. It is just a personal opinion.

Mr. MANUEL. Reverend Woodle, while a member of this organization did you hold any office or elected position?

Mr. WOODLE. I was elected State chaplain or the State kludd or kludd, or whatever they call it.

Mr. MANUEL. The grand kludd of the Realm of North Carolina; is that correct, sir?

Mr. WOODLE. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Approximately when were you elected to this position?

Mr. WOODLE. January, February, somewhere along there.

Mr. MANUEL. What year, sir?

Mr. WOODLE. This year.

The CHAIRMAN. Let me say this at this point, along the lines of what I said this morning, we are not concerned with religious beliefs, theological, or philosophical, or political beliefs or opinions.

I am permitting you to testify here because you are relating personal experiences as a Klansman and that is competent testimony because you are an official Klansman and official chaplain or kludd of the Realm of North Carolina, and that is important because you are relating an experience.

Proceed.

Mr. MANUEL. Now, Reverend Woodle, at the time you were elected to the position of grand kludd, was Mr. J. R. Jones elected to the position of Grand Dragon for the Realm of North Carolina?

Mr. WOODLE. Yes, sir; that is right.

Mr. MANUEL. What were your main activities while a member of the Realm of North Carolina, United Klans of America?

Mr. WOODLE. I would go around from rally to rally and speak at the rallies.

Mr. MANUEL. Where and how were your speaking engagements arranged?

Mr. WOODLE. Well, we just went to the rallies, and they would invite me up to the—to speak.

Mr. MANUEL. Approximately how many rallies were there at which you were the speaker?

Mr. WOODLE. Well, I spoke at several rallies. I couldn't tell you how many.

I missed the first one they had in the spring, and then I attended them all, up until I resigned.

The CHAIRMAN. You did resign?

Mr. WOODLE. I did resign.

The CHAIRMAN. When was that?

Mr. WOODLE. About 5 weeks ago.

The CHAIRMAN. You might question him more.

Mr. MANUEL. While you were preaching at the Klan rallies, what fund-raising activities were engaged in by the United Klans of America, while the rallies were going on, or immediately upon their conclusion?

Mr. WOODLE. Well, they would just go ahead and take up the offering, like they do, I mean, out in the field, just go ahead and take up their offering, just like ordinarily, I reckon. I don't know what procedure you would call it, but—

Mr. MANUEL. Now, what method did they employ to collect funds?

Mr. WOODLE. Well, they just told the people they needed the money, needed some help, and set out to get it.

Mr. MANUEL. To your knowledge—

The CHAIRMAN. Who would make that plea? Would Jones be one of them?

Not putting words in your mouth.

Mr. WOODLE. I don't recall who made the plea, but in my knowledge I believe that Mr. Dorsett done the most of that out in the field.

Now, I wouldn't say, but if others did or not, I don't know. I don't know who done it. I didn't take notice to keep a record. I didn't dream of such a thing acoming to pass. If I did, why, there might have been different arrangements, earlier.

Mr. MANUEL. Now, would you please further identify Mr. Dorsett, whom you just mentioned?

Mr. WOODLE. Mr. Reverend Dorsett, out in Greensboro, North Carolina, I believe, I can't say. He was most of the time one of the main speakers.

Mr. MANUEL. Did you know him to be an official of the Realm of North Carolina?

Mr. WOODLE. What if he was an official or not, I don't know.

Mr. MANUEL. In collecting funds at rallies, to your direct knowledge, did the Klan employ persons or use persons within the audience who would come to the speakers' stand and donate an unusually large amount of money, in order that other members and other attendees at the rally would then contribute some money?

Mr. WOODLE. A fellow come to me was a Klansman and said he had been planted with $50 to bring it forth, that it might bring others to come forth, but he would get his $50 back.

Now, who he was, I don't know, didn't identify himself, and he come to me, and said he was troubled over it, after what he had done, and he hated he had done it.

Now, who he was, I don't know. He was a Klansman. He approached me later on that stage, and said he felt bad for doing such a thing.

Mr. MANUEL. Are there any other examples of that type of activity on the part of the United Klans, to your direct knowledge, Rev. Woodle?

Mr. WOODLE. No, the man come to me with that, and as far as any more of it, I know not.

The CHAIRMAN. Well, of course, as a churchman, I take it that you don't believe in poker or gambling, but some people like that are called come-see boys, or shills. You wouldn't know about that. The names of them. He didn't tell you.

Mr. WOODLE. No, sir, I don't think no man ought to bow his head and pray, and then try to deceive a man. I believe in just being, if you are going to deceive a man, don't pray and ask God to bless it, and then the man come up and shake his hand say, "May God bless you," and going to get around the corner. Personally, I don't believe in that. The other people can believe what they want to.

Mr. MANUEL. Now, Reverend Woodle, did there come a time when Mr. Bob Jones, the Grand Dragon of the Realm of North Carolina, offered you a job with the United Klans of America?

Mr. WOODLE. Yes, sir, I was offered a job with the United Klans of America.

Mr. MANUEL. And what position, exactly, was that?

Mr. WOODLE. I think it was supposed to be organizer, or something to that effect.

Mr. MANUEL. And did Mr. Jones mention an amount of money or a salary to you at that time?

Mr. WOODLE. $150 a week.

Mr. MANUEL. Did you take that position?

Mr. WOODLE. No, I didn't take it. I was about to take it, but after I come to the conclusion that a man couldn't go under dictatorship without a reason, why, to stand up with principle, a fellow couldn't afford to, and I had to withdraw from it.

I was almost persuaded to do it, but after giving it thought for 2 or 3 days, I couldn't accept it.

The CHAIRMAN. You would say that Mr. Jones and the head people in the Klan have pretty good power of persuasion?

Mr. WOODLE. Anybody who is paying you, most of the time, you have to listen to them. And I don't think a Christian, or any man with any self-responsibility, should have to go under a man that cusses the name of the Lord and a man tries to do halfway right, and I mean, that is just my conviction of people do what they want to do.

In my position, I didn't feel like—I was obligated to God, and my friend to go under dictatorship to no man.

The CHAIRMAN. What do you mean by dictatorship? Do you regard Klan or Klan leaders in such kind of fashion?

Mr. WOODLE. I wouldn't know how to say that.

The CHAIRMAN. Well, say it in your own words, and don't go beyond what—

Mr. WOODLE. I think every man ought to have a right to speak his piece without trouble. Regardless of circumstances. And whenever a man has to live under fear the rest of his life because he had to sleep with hisself at night against his conviction, I don't believe he should go under that. If you have to die, don't go under it. That's my conviction.

Mr. MANUEL. Did Mr. Jones try to persuade you to act other than in accordance with your convictions?

Mr. WOODLE. I don't quite understand your question, sir.

MR. MANUEL. Well, did Mr. Jones or any other leader in the Klan organization try to make you act one way, in disagreement with what you thought was right?

MR. WOODLE. No, not while I was there. Nobody approached me on that, under no—

THE CHAIRMAN. Well, except for tempting you with a salary as an organizer. You didn't think that was right.

MR. WOODLE. Oh, it would have been all right, if I had wanted to do it, but I didn't feel like that that condition, under the conditions that I would have to go under, have to give an account to certain people at certain times, at their call, I don't believe in.

MR. MANUEL. Would you describe that more for the committee, Mr. Woodle?

MR. WOODLE. Well, say, if a man had called me at midnight, I have got to get up and go under all conditions, why I don't—I mean, I just felt like I couldn't be at liberty with that job.

THE CHAIRMAN. Let me ask you: Did you understand that, if you accepted that position, that you would be subject to—

MR. WOODLE. I was chargeable to Mr. Jones. I would have felt like I would have been chargeable to Mr. Jones, if I had of took the job.

THE CHAIRMAN. Then you think you would be under his influence, and would have to respond to whatever he called on you to do?

MR. WOODLE. That would have been my belief, but the reason I couldn't accept it, yes.

MR. MANUEL. Now—

MR. POOL. Just a minute.

And you had some reservations about what Mr. Jones might ask you to do?

MR. WOODLE. Yes. In a broad statement, that would be—you have to consider what could—what it could lead to.

MR. MANUEL. Now, Reverend Woodle, how did you tell Mr. Jones that you would not accept this job?

MR. WOODLE. After I was exposed, was going to accept the job, and then I guess I was talking somewhere that I wasn't going to accept it, and the word got back to him through—I don't know what you would call it. I never was approached or mentioned no more about it.

MR. MANUEL. What happened to you, very briefly, as a result of your refusing to accept this job as organizer for the Realm of North Carolina?

MR. WOODLE. Nothing. That was just the last of it.

MR. MANUEL. Yes. Now, are you still a member of the Realm of North Carolina, United Klans of America?

MR. WOODLE. No, sir.

MR. MANUEL. Would you please inform the committee as to why you left that organization?

MR. WOODLE. Just why I got out of the organization?

MR. MANUEL. Yes, sir.

MR. WOODLE. Well, when I was in the organization, I joined it, as I told you a while ago, for the principle they told me it was standing for. And I joined, of course, those was two things I didn't see no action on whatsoever. And I got a telephone call.

I went to a 3-day rally, and I got a telephone call the next week. I had been talking about resigning several weeks before, on different occasions, about different things, but I was asked to stay on, and stay on, and I felt obligated to the people, to the job I hold.

I did preach the truth to the people, and the Klansmen will verify that, I believe, and so I got a telephone call that I was to be set down, it was my friend acalling me, to "Get set, it's coming," and I just took it for what it's worth, and about 2 days later it come, that I was supposed to not be allowed back on the platform no more, and so you know when something is coming on you, you don't know what it is all about, you get inquisitive, and I tried to ask a few questions why, and some of them said I said something against Mr. Shelton, and I have never said a word against Mr. Shelton. Said I got on the platform at Trenton, Trenton, North Carolina, and talked against Mr. Shelton, therefore I had to go down.

I never got on the platform and said nothing against Mr. Shelton or no other Klansmen, and so I just decided, well, that looks pretty bad, a man—

So I asked for a reason why, and what did I say?

So I called the man, Mr. Jones, and asked him, "What did I say?"

And he said I got on the platform and said something.

I asked them, "What did I say?" and, "We don't know, you just said something."

But then when I figure a man is accusing a man and can't tell him what he is accusing of, a leader of a great religious organization, then it is time to stand for something.

Mr. MANUEL. Did you subsequently find out why they wanted you removed from the platform as a speaker at their rallies?

Mr. WOODLE. Personally, I knew no man's motive, and I don't know why, but I had my opinion, my opinion why, but as far as their motive, why they done it, I don't know. I don't know no man's motive.

Mr. MANUEL. What was the date of your leaving the Klan organization, Reverend Woodle?

Mr. WOODLE. I would say 5, 6 weeks ago.

The CHAIRMAN. Well, if you thought about it, and if what you thought the reasons were, behind the move to stop you from taking the stand, and so on, and you are convinced of that, I would like for you to explain what motivated you, what opinion motivated you.

Mr. WOODLE. When I got in the Klan, people was nice to me, and I found 98 percent of the Klansmen is, I believe to be, honest and sincere people, and they was very nice to me, and my opinion, that was the reason I had to go down, because people was a little too nice to me.

Popularity didn't speak at the right place, in my opinion, and I just felt like that I was being mistreated, and—

The CHAIRMAN. Mistreated, or perhaps—

Mr. WOODLE. Just pushed out without a cause, and I told Mr. Jones, "If I have done anything wrong, you tell me what I have done, and I am subject to a mistake, and I apologize, but if I haven't done wrong, I would like to have a reason for it," and I got the answer, "We don't have to give reasons."

It suited me fine.

Mr. MANUEL. Reverend Woodle, were you actually challenging Mr. Jones for leadership in the Realm of North Carolina?

Mr. WOODLE. I never challenged—I didn't never ask to get on the speakers' platform, I never asked to do nothing. I just tried to do kind of like I was told to do, as a citizen, and was going to have an organization to stand for decency and what was right.

Mr. MANUEL. Now, Reverend Woodle, at the time that you described, and you fell in disfavor with Jones and the other leaders of the Realm of North Carolina—

The CHAIRMAN. Well, let me ask you this question: During this period of time when you were trying to find out why it was that you would not be permitted to take the stand more, and that Mr. Jones told you that he didn't have to tell you why, did you detect that the leaders kind of shunned you, and ignored you, or any attitude like that?

Mr. WOODLE. Well, you see, I got calls from different people, and was telling me to look out, "Get set, it's coming," see, from people was friends of mine, and I figured it must have been a friend, or he wouldn't have told me, so I just took it for granted, and I set guard, and what they said was going to happen did happen, so I figured it must have been the truth.

The CHAIRMAN. Did they indicate what might happen, or—

Mr. WOODLE. What do you mean?

The CHAIRMAN. You said people called you and told you certain things.

Mr. WOODLE. To get set, things was coming, they was going to do away with me.

The CHAIRMAN. Well, that's what I mean. And they were friends of yours?

Mr. WOODLE. Well, they said they was, I mean, a man just calls you on the phone and don't tell you who it is, you consider that.

The CHAIRMAN. And you treated them as friends? You thought they were your friends?

Mr. WOODLE. Definitely.

The CHAIRMAN. And they said that you had better watch out, something would happen to you, or words to that effect?

Mr. WOODLE. They didn't say something was going to happen, but, "Get set, they are taking out against you."

The CHAIRMAN. Did they say anything more about what they meant by that?

Mr. WOODLE. No, not at that time, no.

The CHAIRMAN. Later on?

Mr. WOODLE. Later on, people told me different things, And this story that I had said something against Mr. Shelton didn't go over too good, the people was at the really realized that I didn't get on the platform and say nothing against Mr. Shelton or no other Klansman, and anybody was at that rally can verify that.

Then the story come out that the Government bought me a home, to come in the outfit to break it up, to get my friends against me, see, and that my boy, when he finished school, the Government bought him a car for me to rat on them.

The CHAIRMAN. That was not true?

Mr. WOODLE. The story of my boy's car, he bought him a 1963 Mercury, and we took out an insurance policy when the boy was borned, and when he finished school—it was paid up when he was 10 years old, and he cashed it in and got $300—some on the policy, and to make a down payment on the car, and he is paying People's Finance Company in Lexington, North Carolina, $70 a month for the 30 months to pay for the car.

The CHAIRMAN. And yet they were saying what about your boy?

Mr. WOODLE. About the car and stuff, that I was planted in the outfit to tear it up, and I never did speak to a Government man, no law enforcement officer, under no conditions, till I got this subpoena.

The CHAIRMAN. In other words, they were in effect saying that you were telling things, telling tales, and spying on them, or something?

Mr. WOODLE. That's what my friends that was in the Klans tell me.

This was from rally hall to rally hall. Different people would call me. I would meet with different people, that would tell me that was what was happening.

The CHAIRMAN. What about the home?

Mr. WOODLE. And I just built me a home, and I went to Perpetual Savings and Loan Association and borrowed $15,500 to purchase the home, and that the Government's buying me that to get in the Klan to tear it up, such as that, to try to tear my influence down with the people, because they was nice to me.

That's that great Christian organization I am talking about.

The CHAIRMAN. You think they were planting those things on you?

Mr. WOODLE. To turn the people against me. That's what I believe.

I don't know what the motive was. That was my opinion.

The CHAIRMAN. All right.

Mr. MANUEL. Reverend Woodle, at the time that you—after you left the Klan, did you receive a phone call, from a person whom you know to be a Klansman, threatening you to bodily harm?

Mr. WOODLE. I don't know what if you would call it bodily harm or not. Said he had the authority to do away with me. [Laughter.]

The CHAIRMAN. Well, I would say you could classify it that. [Laughter.]

Mr. MANUEL. To your certain knowledge—

The CHAIRMAN. He wants to say something.

Mr. MANUEL. Go ahead.

The CHAIRMAN. If you want to.

Mr. WOODLE. No, go ahead, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. To your certain knowledge, do you know the identity of the person who so telephoned you?

Mr. WOODLE. Well, the fellow called me and told me a certain man was going to call me, and about an hour later, he did call me.

Mr. MANUEL. And who was that?

Mr. WOODLE. Mr. Hamby, Boyd Hamby.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Boyd Hamby?

Mr. WOODLE. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Did you know at that time that Boyd Hamby was an official of the Realm of North Carolina for the United Klans of America?

Mr. WOODLE. I didn't know that he was. I still don't know that he is. I had heard that he was.

The CHAIRMAN. You heard that he was what? What officer?

Mr. WOODLE. That he was official in the Klan. A full-time man, but what if he was or not, it is just hearsay. I don't know nothing about it.

The CHAIRMAN. Someone phoned you before and said this man would phone you, and he did?

Mr. WOODLE. And said he was going home and call me.

The CHAIRMAN. And he did?

Mr. WOODLE. And about an hour later, I got a call, and he identified himself as that.

Who it was, I don't know, over the phone. I just took it for granted the fellow told me he was going to call, he did call, and I figured that was it.

The CHAIRMAN. Well, the first one who called you to tell you that that second one would call you is a friend of yours?

Mr. WOODLE. He didn't identify himself, but I took him as a friend. I appreciated the man calling me. I was set for it when he called me.

Mr. MANUEL. Reverend Woodle, do you know Mr. Boyd Hamby when you see him?

Mr. WOODLE. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Have you seen him in this hearing room today?

Mr. WOODLE. Yes, sir, he is here.

Mr. MANUEL. Would you stand up and identify Mr. Boyd Hamby?

Mr. WOODLE. The fellow sitting right back there, with the mustache.

Mr. MANUEL. In the front row?

Mr. WOODLE. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Fourth seat?

Mr. WOODLE. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. And that man threatened your life?

Mr. WOODLE. No.

The CHAIRMAN. He said——

Mr. WOODLE. He had the authority——

Mr. MANUEL. To do you in?

The CHAIRMAN. To do away with you?

Mr. WOODLE. Now, I took it for granted. I didn't—for what it said. I didn't—he didn't say he was going to kill me or hurt me, or nothing, but I just kind of tried to get on guard.

Mr. MANUEL. Subsequent to that telephone call, were any other acts of intimidation made upon you?

Mr. WOODLE. Nothing, only a cross was burned in my yard. That's the only other thing.

The CHAIRMAN. When was that about, after that telephone call? If you remember.

Mr. WOODLE. The night after the CBS news report on the Klan, it was burned.

The CHAIRMAN. The night after you appeared on CBS News, they burned the cross?

Mr. WOODLE. Yes, on my lawn.

The CHAIRMAN. On your lawn?

Mr. WOODLE. Yes, sir.

That was some of the money they prayed over to build that cross.
[Laughter.]

The CHAIRMAN. What?

Mr. WOODLE. That money where they used——

The CHAIRMAN. What?

Mr. WOODLE. This money that they prayed over and asked God to bless, they burnt it up in kerosene and cross and burlap bags.

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Woodle, did you say that was the night following the CBS report?

Mr. WOODLE. Yes, sir, I believe that's correct.

Mr. WELTNER. Now, that would be the 22d day of September; would it not?

Mr. WOODLE. I believe that is right, now.

Mr. WELTNER. And tell me, if you will, Mr. Woodle, when you saw the cross burning in your front yard, what did you take that for? You considered that to be a message of some kind? [Laughter.]

Mr. WOODLE. What do you mean, sir, by "message of some kind"?

Mr. WELTNER. What did you interpret that burning cross on your front yard to mean?

Mr. WOODLE. Stupidity. [Laughter.]

Mr. CHAIRMAN. No, the act was stupidity, but do you—I am sorry.

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Woodle, my question is this: When you saw the cross burning on your front yard, did you interpret that as a sign of displeasure, possibly, from whoever erected that cross and set it on fire?

Mr. WOODLE. Undoubtedly, apparently I felt like somebody must have been displeased or something, dissatisfied.

Mr. WELTNER. Well, did that raise any fears in your mind about any possible acts against you or your family?

Mr. WOODLE. No, that didn't bring the worries on, that has been on a few days before that, already, but the reason I didn't even get in the act, a fellow had me on the telephone while the act was going on. That was the onliest reason. I would have saw the act, if it hadn't been for that. Caught me off guard on the telephone.

Mr. WELTNER. Well, what does it mean to an ordinary person who has a cross burned on his front yard?

Mr. WOODLE. I couldn't speak for nobody but myself. I don't know what it would mean to you or some other fellow.

Mr. WELTNER. Thank you.

Mr. POOL. Did the cross-burning on your front yard, did that represent a threat to you or your family?

Mr. WOODLE. I had already had the threat, and when I got this little telephone call, I was—I mean, as far as the cross-burning, it was just—and it was just another thing, as far as its worrying me any more, worry didn't come on to me account of that.

Mr. POOL. You didn't consider that an additional threat, then, or did you?

Mr. WOODLE. No.

The CHAIRMAN. Proceed.

Mr. MANUEL. Reverend Woodle, with further reference to the telephone call which you described, from the person whom you identified as Boyd Hamby, would you tell the committee what else, if anything, was said in that conversation?

Mr. WOODLE. Let me first clarify that I don't know it was Mr. Hamby on the phone. Because he was on the other end of the line, I wouldn't see him.

I just took for granted he was, and he identified himself as that, and I have heard so many times and so many different lies, I don't know what to believe sometimes, so I took it for granted it was him, but I couldn't swear on an oath that it was him.

The CHAIRMAN. He said he was?

Mr. WOODLE. Yes.

Mr. MANUEL. The person on the phone identified himself?

Mr. WOODLE. As Mr. Hamby.

It might not have been. It might have been somebody else.

Mr. POOL. You haven't ever talked to Mr. Hamby on the phone before? You had no way to recognize his voice?

Mr. WOODLE. Yes, I have talked to him before on the phone. It sounded like his voice. Personally, I believe it was, but I have got no way of swearing to it.

Mr. MANUEL. But the person did identify himself as Boyd Hamby?

Mr. WOODLE. Yes.

Mr. MANUEL. Did anything else transpire in that telephone—

Mr. WOODLE. Well, there was a pretty good little conversation going on.

It amounted to several words.

Mr. MANUEL. Would you briefly tell the committee what was said?

Mr. WOODLE. Well, he said that I was ordered to get out and leave us alone, and I asked him who "us" was, and he never told me who "us" was, and I told him we will play the game any way you want to play.

I told him, "My dues is paid, yourn is, and I don't think nobody has got a right to throw a man out without reason."

I told him, "We will play the game any way you want to play it. You name it. We'll play it."

When you get pushed around and pushed around, you know, you can rub a sore too much, and you just take too much.

After I had went out and put my life in an effort to try to be a man of honesty, and I got enough, in that great religious organization.

Mr. MANUEL. Reverend Woodle, when you appeared on the CBS program on the Ku Klux Klan, you were asked, "Do some of the Klan leaders misuse the people's money?"

Will you now please answer that question for the committee?

Mr. WOODLE. It is according to what you call misusing money. I guess they just take it to do what they please with it.

I mean, it's theirs, after they get it, and I don't figure—I guess it is theirs to do what they please. I mean, I don't hardly know how to answer that, but—

Mr. MANUEL. Well, do you have any knowledge of where the money goes, and what it is used for, after it is taken in by the leadership?

Mr. WOODLE. Personally, I got a $20 check one time from Mr. Jones on a 3-day trip for about 250 miles, and for myself, I bought gas on credit to go to ralliēs, and go to ralliēs, and go back and forwards, to try to support, and what they do with it, outside of that $20, I don't know what they do with it.

Mr. MANUEL. Well, does the leadership of the Klan keep their membership informed of their activities? Regularly? To your certain knowledge?

Mr. WOODLE. If they keep the members informed, in their activities? Now, what you mean, I don't quite get it.

The CHAIRMAN. He is talking about finances, I take it.

We are now talking about finances. Is the membership kept informed as to what is done with the money? Do they get a monthly report, or every 6 months, which indicates the realm receives so much money, and here is what they spend it for?

That is what he means, I think.

Mr. WOODLE. Not to my knowledge, there is no way, none of that is——

The CHAIRMAN. And that is why you say from all you know, they do what they please with the money?

Mr. WOODLE. That's right. As far as I know, nothing to that effect. I have no records of nothing, never heard nothing to that effect, that they ever report on nothing, or nothing of the kind.

Mr. POOL. They never do have the treasurer get up and read a treasurer's report, or any thing like that?

Mr. WOODLE. Not to my knowledge, no.

The CHAIRMAN. And you attended many rallies, but besides your own Klavern?

Mr. WOODLE. Yes. I would go to about all the rallies. I felt like that I was wanted, and after I got in the Klan and saw the good people in the Klan, I tried to preach the truth to them, be truthful to them, and honest with the people.

I don't think a Klansman can say I wasn't honest to him, and tried to be truthful with him at all times. I took an oath to be honest, but I didn't take no oath for people to call me up and cuss me and lie on me.

I didn't take no oath for people out taking poor people for their money. I didn't take no oath to that effect, and just go out and lie on people, and accuse them of being in the Government, the Government paying them, I didn't take no oath to stand for nothing like that.

I took an oath to stand like a man, and I think that's what a man ought to stand like—a man.

The CHAIRMAN. And you are standing like a man here today under oath.

Mr. WOODLE. Trying to, doing my best.

The CHAIRMAN. Well, at these rallies, in the field, as you call them, now away from your own Klan, where you had speakers, and where money was raised, and where on one occasion at least a man told you he was given a $50 bill to put in the kitty to——

Mr. WOODLE. Try to lure others.

The CHAIRMAN. Lure others——

Mr. WOODLE. In other words, I say, deceiving them, bewitching them.

The CHAIRMAN. That is right, to deceive them, to bewitch them.

Now, at those rallies, after they picked the money, did they say, well, in all the rallies together, we received so many dollars, and we want to tell you what we did with those dollars? Did they tell you that kind of thing?

Mr. WOODLE. Yes, a couple of occasions, they did. Two or three times, they done that, how much they had received. They sure did.

The CHAIRMAN. Did they put that on a piece of paper, or did they just say it?

Mr. WOODLE. Just said it, or now what they had on the piece of paper, I don't know.

The CHAIRMAN. They didn't give you a statement?

Mr. WOODLE. No.

The CHAIRMAN. Written out, and said, "We received so much money in North Carolina, or in the Klavern, or this month, and here is what we did with the money," and put that in writing?

Mr. WOODLE. Not to my ability.

The CHAIRMAN. Go on.

Mr. MANUEL. Now, Reverend Woodle, as a person who has traveled with other Klan leaders to rallies, and so forth, could you tell the committee how these leaders live when they are on 'the road, traveling?

Mr. WOODLE. What do you mean in "how they live"?

Mr. MANUEL. What kind of—

Mr. WOODLE. Of condition they live?

Mr. MANUEL. That is right.

Mr. WOODLE. First class. Rib eye steaks. Cadillacs.

In my opinion, that's what it is. I mean, it might be different. They might not have it, but in all indications, that's what I seen.

The CHAIRMAN. They lived "high on the hog."

Mr. WOODLE. And then on other occasions, I saw poor men out on the side, can't hardly pay their bills, supporting it, and promising you, "We are going to give you the victory. We are going to stand. We are going to stand," but ain't nobody found out what they are going to stand for.

Burning a cross, I know that. I don't know what else, and I don't appreciate it.

Mr. POOL. Most of them drive Cadillacs?

Mr. WOODLE. And eat rib eye steaks, and live in first class motels. In what I saw.

Mr. POOL. Do very many of them wear diamonds?

Mr. WOODLE. Pretty good-sized ones, yes, and I don't imagine they had to buy theirs on credit, like I did.

Mr. POOL. How about their clothes? Did they go in the best clothes, I guess?

Mr. WOODLE. It looks very good.

But don't misunderstand me. A man's worth is his heart, but don't tell me you are standing against integration and for the Christian religion, and that's two things you never touch. If they do, I don't know—not in North Carolina—know of it.

In my honest opinion, the way I see it, come into town this month, have a rally, get all the money you can get, and get out, and say, "Now, you folks work hard, get all the members you can. We will be back next year for another rally."

And it's not because people really want it that way. People is deceived. It is just like a man that is drowning. They see this thing come along. They grab the first limb coming along.

I am afraid there—there are a lot of good, honest people. If I knowed what I know today, I would have been somewhere else.

I was misled, and I hate that I influenced people to be misled, and a lot of them have come and told me I influenced them to join it, and I hate I done it, and I have saw my mistake, and I hate it.

Not that I don't say we don't need a program. I am for the program, but let's don't say we are doing one thing, and doing something else.

That is where I oppose it at. I think a bricklayer ought to lay brick, and if a man's got a program to oppose something, I think it ought to come forth. I don't think it ought to be rode out in Cadillacs.

Mr. MANUEL. Now, Reverend Woodle, are you, and since the time that you left this organization, are you in fear of your life?

Mr. WOODLE. Well, I am expecting—at any time, anything happens won't surprise me. And I am looking for it.

But I believe the Lord will take care of me. If He's not able, I am ready to go, anyhow. If God will let a God-cusser run over me, I am ready to go.

I believe God will protect me. I believe He will cause the man to stumble, that I can see him first, or something, and with God as my helper, I will have something around.

Mr. MANUEL. Do you have any reason or indication to believe that certain specific individuals would do you bodily harm, either you or your family?

Mr. WOODLE. I believe if a man will deceive a poor man that can't hardly pay his bills, look out for anything.

Mr. MANUEL. Do you feel threatened by any specific individual whom you have known within the Realm of North Carolina or within the whole organization of the United Klans of America?

Mr. WOODLE. I am real suspicious of several people.

Mr. MANUEL. Reverend Woodle, what is the extent of your actual fear, and who is it that you do fear, within the Klan?

Mr. WOODLE. I don't actually fear no man that's openly and that I have been put wise to, that's certain, but you can look for it to come from out of town, or most anywhere.

In my opinion, look for it anywhere. When I go out the door of a morning, I am looking in the bushes to see what might be there. And I am expecting to live that way the rest of my life, but I am ready to stand that way.

The CHAIRMAN. Why are you suspicious?

What?

Mr. WOODLE. Well, when you get a telephone call that people's hired to do away with you, and a cross is being burnt in your yard, and people don't have no respect for children, women, dogs, or people's children with nothing to eat, you have to beware of that.

That's Castro's policy—Communists.

Mr. POOL. Do you know of any acts of violence that these people have committed on other people?

Mr. WOODLE. No, sir.

Mr. POOL. That's not why you are afraid of them? You are afraid of them for these other things?

Mr. WOODLE. On general principles. On just general principles, just take everything and put it in a pot, and that's what you have got.

But don't misunderstand me, now. I believe .98 percent of the people is honest and sincere. I believe the most of them was.

A man kept coming to me and persuading me, "This is the organization. We need you. You will stand; we want you."

And everything he told me about the organization before I got in it, not one thing he told me proved out to be true. Not one item. That the man had gotten me to join the Klan proved to be what he said it was.

Mr. POOL. So you were speaking of some of the leaders in the Klan when you mentioned these things?

Mr. WOODLE. In other words, a leader leads his men to victory. A dictator drives them to captivity, in my opinion. A lot of difference in a leader and a driver.

The CHAIRMAN. Go on.

Mr. MANUEL. Reverend Woodle, while you were a member of the Lexington Klavern, did you buy a robe?

Mr. WOODLE. No, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Was any attempt made to get you to buy a robe?

Mr. WOODLE. Some fellow said they would pay for me a robe, but I told them I didn't want one, but it never did come through.

I told them I didn't do nothing I was ashamed of; about 4 years ago, I quit doing what I was ashamed of, that's the reason I used to hide when I would do something I didn't want nobody to know, and I quit that.

Mr. MANUEL. Now, other than your speaking activities, to rallies and the like would you please inform the committee of your other activities as a member of the Realm of North Carolina UKA?

Mr. WOODLE. Didn't have no other activities.

Mr. MANUEL. That is all you did, was speak?

Mr. WOODLE. At the rallies.

Mr. MANUEL. At the rallies?

Mr. WOODLE. Yes.

Mr. MANUEL. Why were you selected to speak at rallies?

Mr. WOODLE. Well, the fellow just called on me, and I would get up and open the Book and preach.

Mr. MANUEL. And who was it who requested you to speak?

Mr. WOODLE. Well, whoever was taking care of it——

Mr. MANUEL. At each rally?

Mr. WOODLE. Whoever was calling the speakers to the platform. It would be different ones at times.

(Discussion off the record.)

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Woodle, you stated a few moments ago that your only activities with the Realm of North Carolina were to attend rallies, and you have also stated that at the rallies there was an effort made to collect funds from the audience.

Do you know whether any of the money collected at those rallies was ever turned over to the local Klavern, that is, the local unit of the Realm of North Carolina in the vicinity where the rally was held?

Mr. WOODLE. As far as I know, and in the reports, you know, what you hear while you are traveling, you know, it all went one way.

Mr. WELTNER. Which way was that?

Mr. WOODLE. However Mr. Jones—I don't have no knowledge of any local outfit keeping any of the money that is took up at a rally.

You see, in this, I believe that when you get a pearl, then you get a phony; when you get the real Klan, then you get a phony Klan.

That's someone trying to imitate and deceive the people, and they all don't work alike, in my opinion.

Mr. WELTNER. As far as you know, all of the money collected went to the state office, and none of it stayed to promote Klan activities in the area?

Mr. WOODLE. As far as I know, that's right.

Mr. WELTNER. Now, these rallies were held to generate new members and to expand the membership of the local Klans; were they not?

Mr. WOODLE. I believe the rally was. It seemed to be that way, but my opinion, the rallies was held to agitate the people.

Mr. WELTNER. Was there any—to your knowledge, was there any—action taken by the state officers at the rallies to organize locally, or did they just move on to somewhere else?

Mr. WOODLE. In my opinion, just to move on out. Get what you can, and go back, "I'll see you in a few more months, if you can get enough people together to have another rally."

That is my opinion. I don't know. That's how I take it.

Mr. SENNER. Mr. Chairman, I have one question.

Reverend Woodle, at any of these rallies that you attended, did any of the speakers advocate violence against integration or the use of violence by the Klan against integration?

Mr. WOODLE. I believe that's what has got the most of the people deceived. They are using that as a screen. Making the people think they are going to do something about integration. While they are doing the work the other way.

That is my opinion.

Mr. SENNER. I take it, then, your answer is that violence was preached?

Mr. WOODLE. No, not as I know of. That violence, never no indication of it. It is deceit, not violence.

Mr. SENNER. What did they preach? I mean, what did they lecture or talk about, these other speakers, relative to integration?

Mr. WOODLE. Sir?

Mr. SENNER. What did these speakers talk about, as a preventive measure against integration, at these rallies?

Mr. WOODLE. That's what has got the organization caught. Nothing against that, but using that to get their white people to rally behind them.

In other words—

The CHAIRMAN. Mostly for fund-raising?

Mr. WOODLE. In my opinion, just to get what we can out of the people, and you go to—and we are going home.

That's my opinion. I don't know the other man's motive. I don't know your motive, or his, but in my opinion, it's to draw, to agitate the white people, to get them to think we are standing against integration, we are going to stand for right, we are going to give you the victory, we are going to take care of your schools, your churches, they are not going to integrate, join our organizations; but at the end, no plan, nothing to do, for that. Nothing whatsoever, to my ability.

If there is anything in the State of North Carolina to stand against integration, by this United Klans of America, Incorporated, the reason I joined the organization, we have no word of where that takes place.

Mr. SENNER. Well, I take it that apparently the organization in and of itself is using the money, in your opinion, not to carry out the purposes in which they are telling the people at the rally. Is that correct?

Mr. WOODLE. Well, if anywhere they had a plan against integration, I don't know where it's at. You fellows might know, but I don't.

Mr. SENNER. Well, to raise money, do speakers at these rallies, on behalf of the United Klans of America, Incorporated, specifically or generally, outline methods in which they are going to take care of the integration problem in the schools, the hospitals, and other places?

Mr. WOODLE. You will have to ask that again. I didn't catch that.

Mr. SENNER. Do the speakers at these rallies advocate any plan in which they are going to take care of the problem of integration?

Mr. WOODLE. That's where the secret is.

If the poor people that's in it could wake up and see they don't have no plan, that would change the course, they would go join an organization that had a plan to do something.

That's my interpretation.

Mr. SENNER. I understand your opinion, that the United Klans has no plan.

Mr. WOODLE. Not to my ability. Under no condition.

Mr. SENNER. Now, at these local rallies, are there speakers on behalf of the Klan that are advocating some plan?

Mr. WOODLE. Oh, they say, "We are the organization. We are going to do it."

Mr. SENNER. Do they tell how they are going to do it?

Mr. WOODLE. That's where the lack of leadership comes.

You need a platform to go forth, a program. That's the reason. We don't have it, see, and the poor people, just like a man said a while ago, a man drowning, he will be grabbing anything that comes along. and that's what the people is doing, in my opinion, because there is some fine people in that organization, and there is some good Christian people in it, and a lot of people have been misled, like I have, I am afraid.

Mr. SENNER. Well, have you heard any speaker at a Klan meeting or rally advocate violence against integration?

Mr. WOODLE. No.

Mr. SENNER. Have they advocated any type of plan to stop integration?

Mr. WOODLE. Nothing as I know of.

You people know more about it than I do. I know nothing about whether—that's the reason I say, society's wrong somewhere.

A bricklayer ought to—I go out to lay brick, if I never lay none, people will say, "He's a phony." And I believe if the United Klans of America was standing against integration, they ought to have some kind of a program.

People run out here 2 or 3 years, and nothing done. I don't understand it. I mean, it gets me confused.

The CHAIRMAN. Will you yield to me?

Mr. SENNER. Yes.

The CHAIRMAN. What you are saying, as I understand, is that whereas that was your purpose in joining, and that was what was told you was the plan——

Mr. WOODLE. Yes.

The CHAIRMAN. —that instead of putting that plan into effect, they are using the poor members to get more money, and to highball.

Mr. WOODLE. Now, that is my opinion. I don't know the other man's motive. I don't know your motive, or no Klan member's motive, but I had a motive, and I know what my motive was.

It don't work that way. It worked different. I have spent more grief, more sorrow, more aches and pains, since I have been in that organization than I have in the 41 years of my life.

Mr. SENNER. Reverend Woodle, if they burned any crosses at these rallies that you attended——

Mr. WOODLE. Oh, yes.

Mr. SENNER. What was the purpose of burning a cross at the rally? What was the symbolic purpose?

Mr. WOODLE. I guess to kind of excite the people, to bring on excitement, enthusiasm, or whatever.

I mean, I don't know the purpose. That was just my opinion, as far as it taking care of our school situation, or anything, I don't know what good it done.

It might have done somebody some good, but I don't know. Just a little more of that Christian religion, tow sacks and kerosene and crosses.

I don't know the motive. Maybe this could—somebody else, because I don't know.

Mr. SENNER. At these rallies that you attended, did you estimate what the crowds were? They varied from, say, a hundred to more than a hundred?

Mr. WOODLE. No, sir. I have no—I never considered that. The crowds, or—I couldn't estimate it, to start with. Sometimes bigger crowds, smaller crowds, and different crowds.

Mr. SENNER. But it would be—What was the smallest crowd? Fifty or less?

Mr. WOODLE. Wouldn't have the slightest idea.

Mr. SENNER. The largest crowd, would you have an idea?

Mr. WOODLE. No, sir, I wouldn't.

Mr. SENNER. How many of these rallies did you attend?

Mr. WOODLE. Sir?

Mr. SENNER. How many rallies did you attend?

Mr. WOODLE. Well, I attended them all, until about 6 or 8 weeks ago, this year, but the first one, I didn't attend the first one.

Mr. SENNER. All but one, and how many would that be?

Mr. WOODLE. Then I attended the rest until I got out.

Mr. SENNER. Well, could you make an estimate of how many rallies you attended?

Mr. WOODLE. Oh, say, 12, 15.

Mr. SENNER. Thank you very much.

That's all the questions I have, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you very much. We appreciate your appearance.

And you were in the room a while ago when I talked about the meaning of a subpoena? In other words, you were served with a subpoena?

Mr. WOODLE. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. To come here. You did, and you testified under oath.

Mr. WOODLE. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Now, I want to continue that subpoena, till January 1, in case something develops where we might have to call you back.

Mr. WOODLE. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Anybody who would threaten you, or who would do any acts to you or your family, because you came here and testified, they would be violating a Federal law, and if that should happen to you, let me know, and we will handle it.

At least we will take the proper steps to protect you. That is a violation of Federal law, to try to intimidate or to coerce or threaten a person who comes forward and testifies before a court or a jury, or a congressional committee. And I want to see that that law is respected.

With that, thank you. We deeply appreciate your coming here, and your courage, and your contribution to these hearings, by reciting your individual experiences, and we are very grateful to you.

Thank you very much.

Call your next witness.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to call to the stand Boyd Hamby.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Buchanan?

Mr. BUCHANAN. Before this witness is called, Mr. Chairman, I would like to read a portion of a telegram I have just received:

Would appreciate your help in making clear the Alabama Rescue Service mentioned in the KKK hearing is not recognized or known by the Alabama Association of Rescue Squads. The selfless and heroic members of local rescue squads have been somewhat embarrassed by association in the public mind with the KKK front. We fully support hearings.

and so forth.

And that is signed Brandt Ayers, B-r-a-n-d-t A-y-e-r-s, who is managing editor of the Anniston Star, and may I say, Mr. Chairman, that these rescue squads, in many of the smaller communities, especially, render a great public service, and they have no connection whatsoever with the Alabama Rescue Service identified in this hearing.

The CHAIRMAN. Well, you may inform your constituent, the good editor, that the Alabama Rescue Service is a cover name for the United Klans of America.

I appreciate your contribution, and we also appreciate very much the interest and support of that newspaper.

Please raise your right hand.

Do you solemnly swear that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mr. HAMBY. I do.

The CHAIRMAN. Proceed.

Identify both the witness and his counsel.

TESTIMONY OF BOYD LEE HAMBY, SR., ACCOMPANIED BY COUNSEL, LESTER V. CHALMERS, JR.

Mr. APPELL. Would you state your full name for the record, please, sir?

Mr. HAMBY. Boyd Lee Hamby, Sr., sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Henry?

Mr. CHALMERS. H-a-m-b-y.

Mr. APPELL. Are you here in accordance with a subpoena served upon you by a United States marshal at 10:45 o'clock a.m. on the 11th day of October 1965?

Mr. HAMBY. Thereabouts, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Are you represented by counsel?

Mr. HAMBY. Yes, sir; I am.

Mr. APPELL. Will your counsel please identify himself for the record?

Mr. CHAMBERS. Yes, sir. I am Lester V. Chambers, Room 501, First Federal Building, Raleigh, North Carolina.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Hamby, when and where were you born?

Mr. HAMBY. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in the violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by the amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. This is preliminary, a foundation question. I order and direct you to answer it.

Mr. HAMBY. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Hamby, did you know the gentleman who preceded you on the witness stand?

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. HAMBY. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Hamby, you were, as I noted, seated here when he said that—

The CHAIRMAN. Well, name him. When "he."

Mr. APPELL. When Mr. Roy Woodle testified that he received a call from a person whom he identified as Boyd Hamby, and that he was advised by Boyd Hamby that Boyd Hamby had the authority to "do you in."

Did you make such a telephone call to Mr. Roy Woodle?

Mr. HAMBY. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by the amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. I think the actual words of the previous witness were that the gentleman, Mr. Hamby, "had authority to do away with" him. So recast the question. Those words actually are the words.

Mr. APPELL. Did you make a telephone call to Mr. Roy Woodle advising him that you had the authority to do away with him?

Mr. HAMBY. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by the amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Let me make it perfectly clear, Mr. Hamby, that Mr. Woodle, when he made that statement, in your presence, with you in the room, was under oath.

Now, you have the opportunity to deny that statement under oath. And so far as this committee is concerned, it wants the truth, and if you would decide to deny that statement, then obviously we would have two directly contradictory statements under oath and one would be false, and then one of the two would be subject to the pains and penalties of perjury. And let me advise you that I would not hesitate to send the record to the Department of Justice for investigation, and to take appropriate perjury action.

With that statement, I give you the opportunity to deny Mr. Woodle's statement under oath, just made a moment ago.

He doesn't avail himself.

Go on.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Hamby, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you are currently the grand night-hawk of the Realm of North Carolina.

Mr. HAMBY. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the amendments of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Hamby, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that in the position of grand night-hawk, that you have a responsibility with respect to investigations conducted by the Klan in North Carolina, a leadership responsibility in that area.

Mr. HAMBY. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question, based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that heading an advisory committee in your position of grand night-hawk, that such things as the burning of crosses and other things come under your direct responsibility.

TESTIMONY OF JAMES HUEY (SONNY) FISHER, ACCOMPANIED BY COUNSEL, LESTER V. CHALMERS, JR.

Mr. APPELL. State your name for the record.

Mr. FISHER. James Huey Fisher.

Mr. APPELL. Are you popularly know as "Sonny" Fisher?

Mr. FISHER. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer may tend to incriminate me in the violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Of course this answer doesn't hold up. If you admit that you are James, you ought to be able to admit that you are "Sonny." But I won't belabor it, because I will get the same reply, meaning I won't order you to answer.

Mr. APPELL. Are you represented by counsel?

Mr. FISHER. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Will counsel please identify himself for the record?

Mr. CHALMERS. I am Lester V. Chalmers, Jr., attorney at law, Room 501, First Federal Building, Raleigh, North Carolina.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Fisher, your subpoena called upon you to produce:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and affiliated organizations, namely, the Alabama Rescue Service and the Pitt County Improvement Association, in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by you or available to you as an officer or employee of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and Pitt County Improvement Association.

The subpoena called for you to bring with you and produce said documents, and I now demand their production.

Mr. FISHER. Sir, I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 21, 1963, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule IV of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents and records as demanded by the committee in a subpoena dated October 21, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so, the same might tend to incriminate me in violation of my right as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, before I ask for a direction, I would like to ask whether or not Mr. Fisher was here when our opening statement was read.

The CHAIRMAN. Counsel, I understand that our previous stipulations will obtain in this case, namely, that you stipulate that your client was in the hearing room and/or is familiar with my opening statement disclosing the pertinency of these records, and you further stipulate that for reasons previously indicated, the committee does not accept his objection or reasons for refusing to produce those documents, and that we do not in fact accept the refusal. Therefore, the position of the committee is that he subjects himself to a citation for refusing.

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir, it is so stipulated for my client. I conferred with him with respect to that matter and he understands it and we certainly will apply the same stipulation to this.

The CHAIRMAN. And included in the stipulation as previously entered into between counsel and the chairman, is the fact that he is familiar with my opening statement setting forth, also, besides pertinency, the legislative purpose of this hearing, as well as the fact that he is being asked to produce these documents in the representative capacity stated in the subpoena.

Mr. CHALMERS. In the subpoena, yes, sir, and let me say that he is familiar with the opening statement.

The CHAIRMAN. In full?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Counsel, I understand that there is one more document.

Mr. APPELL. We only demand as to paragraph 1.

The CHAIRMAN. Sir, I order and direct you to produce the documents described by Mr. Appell, and order them to be produced pursuant to the subpoena served upon you in the capacity indicated.

Mr. FISHER. Sir, I respectfully decline to deliver to this committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 21, 1965, for that information is not relevant nor germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule IV of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution No. 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents and records as demanded by the committee in a subpoena dated October 21, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so, the same might tend to incriminate me in violations of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Fisher, under section 2 of the attachment which is made a part of the subpoena, you are ordered to produce:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by or available to you, in your capacity as an officer or employee of the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, which the "Constitution and Laws" of said organization authorize and require to be maintained by you and any other officer of said organization, and the Pitt County Improvement Association, the same being in your possession, custody or control.

I now demand that you produce under the terms of the subpoena the documents called for in part 2.

Mr. FISHER. Sir, I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 21, 1965, for that information is not relevant nor germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule IV of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents and records as demanded by the committee in a subpoena dated October 21, 1966, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so, the same may tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Counsel, it is understood that we make the same stipulation relating to this paragraph as we did to paragraph 1?

Mr. CHALMERS. It certainly is; yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. I order you, sir, and direct you to produce the records called for by paragraph 2 in the attachment to subpoena, directing you to produce those records.

Mr. FISHER. Sir, I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 21, 1965, for that information is not relevant nor germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule IV of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution No. 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents and records as demanded by the committee in a subpoena dated October 21, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so, the same may tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Proceed.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Fisher, in accordance with the subpoena duces tecum on the Edgecomb Bank and Trust Company of Tarboro, North Carolina, there was produced certain checks and other records, ledgers and signature cards in connection with an account in the name of the Pitt County Improvement Association. Upon receipt of the documents from the bank, we noted that the first signature card was not included in the documents and had apparently been destroyed. I would like to read to you three paragraphs from a letter addressed to the committee of September 17, 1965:

1. At the inception of this account we honored signatures drawn against this account by two people, both signatures being required, namely R. O. Bryan [B-r-y-a-n] and Sonny Fisher (Exhibit A—check dated 10-20-64 in the amount of $56.00 is an example).

2. Under date of February 24, 1965 a new signature card was executed bearing three names, with the authority to honor any two of the three (Per Exhibit B attached). I believe we mailed you a copy of this signature card. The names appearing on the signature card of 2-24-65 are R. O. Bryan, Sonny Fisher and A. T. Bowen [B-o-w-e-n].

3. The signature card of 2-24-65 is current and still in effect.

I ask you, Mr. Fisher, if the statement reported to the committee by the bank is factual.

Mr. FISHER. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Also there are copies of the lotteries for certain prizes, for which they sold tickets at the rate of $1.00 per ticket.

The CHAIRMAN. The documents will be received at this point. Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to have entered into the record all of the checks made payable to James R. Jones, Wilson County Improvement Association. The CHAIRMAN. They contain the signature required by the signature card previously identified.

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. I think that I have previously directed these to the witness.

Mr. WALSTON. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

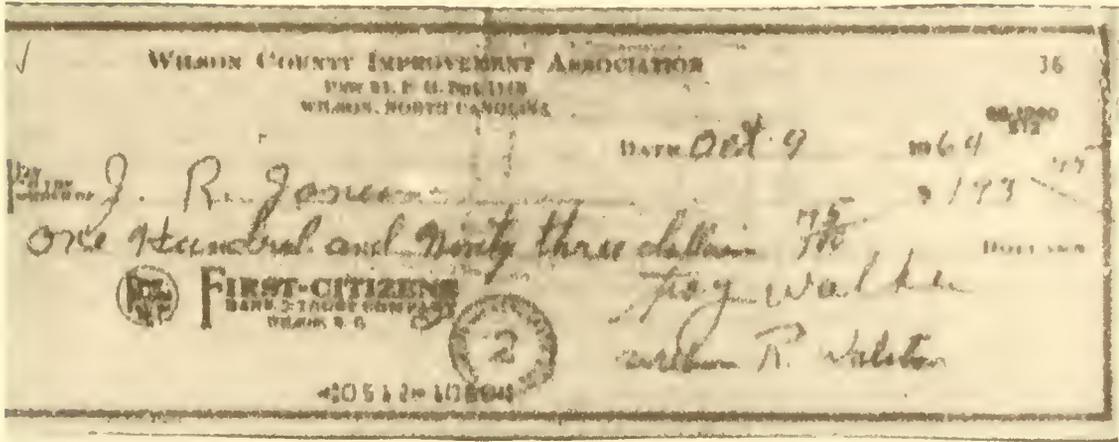

(Documents marked "William Walston Exhibits Nos. 2-A through 2-J," respectively; 2-J appears on p. 1881; balance retained in committee files.)

Mr. WALSTON. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Walston, the Charlotte Observer of September 4, 1964, reporting on Klan activities in the North Carolina area reported that at a Klan rally near Salisbury, on August 8, William R. Walston of Wilson, "demonstrated the same talent" with respect to "going two ways at once," with respect to violence and nonviolence. They quote you as saying:

"We are opposed to violence to the man," he shouted, and then quickly added the qualifier: "But if violence must come, we are ready to a man."

Mr. APPELL. Would you state your full name for the record?

Mr. DAYVAULT. Wayne Dayvault.

Mr. APPELL. Are you appearing before the committee this afternoon in accordance with subpena served upon you at 12:30 o'clock p.m., on the 11th day of October 1965?

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Dayvault, the subpena served upon you called upon you to bring with you documents described on an attachment which was made a part of the subpena, which reads, as part 1, as follows:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and affiliated organizations, namely, the Alabama Rescue Service, Realm (State) of North Carolina, and Rowan Sportsmen's Club in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by you or available to you as Grand Kligrapp (Secretary), Realm (State) of North Carolina, and as an officer of the Rowan Sportsmen's Club of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

Mr. DAYVAULT. I respectfully decline to give to the committee any and all records as requested by the committee under subpoena dated October 21, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule IV of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents and records as demanded by the committee in a subpoena dated October 21, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so, the same might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Counsel?

Mr. CHALMERS. The same stipulations.

The CHAIRMAN. It is stipulated that this subpoena was served on the witness?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. I take it that we now stipulate with you, on behalf of your client, and I, on behalf of the committee, that he is familiar with the contents of my opening statement, pointing out the pertinency of these documents sought by this subpoena, as well as the legislative purpose to be served, and that this subpoena has been served on him in the capacity indicated in the subpoena.

Mr. CHALMERS. It is so stipulated.

The CHAIRMAN. Sir, I now order and direct you to produce the documents demanded by the subpoena in paragraph 1 of the attachment thereto.

Mr. DAYVAULT. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 21, 1965, for that information is not relevant or germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any remedial legislation, nor is such within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule IV of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, of the House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Dayvault, the subpoena called for you to bring with you and to produce items contained in the attachment which was made a part of the subpoena, part 2:

I now demand the production of the documents called for in paragraph 2.

The CHAIRMAN. It is understood that the stipulations made with reference to paragraph 1 apply to paragraph 2?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Sir, I order and direct you to produce the documents referred to and ordered by the subpoena served upon you.

Mr. CHALMERS. Mr. Chairman, if I may, and correct me, sir, there was a demand made but there was no reply to the demand. There was no refusal yet.

Mr. DAYVAULT. Sir, I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by the committee under subpoena dated October 21, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule IV of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents and records as demanded by the committee in a subpoena dated October 21, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so, the same might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Sir, I order and direct you to produce the documents just called for.

Mr. DAYVAULT. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents and records as demanded by the committee in a subpoena dated October 21, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so, the same might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Dayvault, when and where were you born?

Mr. DAYVAULT. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. I order and direct you to answer this question, and I might say that if a contempt citation results from the failure to produce documents in response to a subpoena served upon you, this refusal will be included in the citation.

Mr. DAYVAULT. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in the violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Dayvault, I hand you a copy of the original hotel registration, Dinkler-Tutwiler Hotel, Birmingham, Alabama, for September 4, 1964, and put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you registered at that hotel for the purpose of attending a klonvokation in September of 1964.

Mr. DAYVAULT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

B. Mars, as vice president, and yourself, D. E. Leazer, as secretary, and F. L. Wilson as treasurer.

Mr. LEAZER. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

N. C. DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE, RALEIGH, N. C.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, the committee's investigation establishes that the Rowan Sportsmen's Club with which we have just previously dealt with the preceding witness is known as Klavern Number 1, and was known as Klavern Number 1 during the days of the U.S. Klans under the leadership of Eldon Edwards, and prior to becoming formally known as the Rowan Sportsmen's Club at least as far as its checking account was concerned was known merely as the United Klans of America, Incorporated, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

The CHAIRMAN. Is that the same Edwards referred to before?

Mr. APPELL. He was head of the U.S. Klans prior to 1960.

The CHAIRMAN. He called Shelton on the carpet for financial manipulations?

Mr. APPELL. The same man.

The CHAIRMAN. As a result of which Shelton thereupon created his own organization.

Mr. APPELL. After being removed from the position of Grand Dragon, U.S. Klans, by Imperial Wizard Edwards; yes, sir.

Mr. Leazer, I put it to you as a fact that you were a member of a Klan unit now known as the Rowan Sportsmen's Club, and I exhibit to you a check dated 11-10-1964, imprinted "United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of K.K.K.," Don Leazer, $5.15.

(Document handed to witness.)

Mr. APPELL. I ask you to affirm or deny that fact.

Mr. LEAZER. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. And those checks are drawn on the account you just referred to?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. Leazer, I ask you from what source the money is derived which is placed into this account in the name of the United Klans of America, Incorporated, care of James R. Jones, with the Wachovia Bank and Trust Company, of which there has been deposited from May 13, 1965, through September 19, 1965, $16,903.37. I ask you the source of that?

Mr. LEAZER. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Documents previously marked "James Jones Exhibit No. 7-A.")

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Leazer, as a Klansman, do you carry a concealed weapon?

Mr. LEAZER. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Were you tried for the crime of carrying a concealed weapon on August 27, 1965?

Mr. LEAZER. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to read into the record from a certified copy of a court record, signed by the assistant clerk of the superior court, Rowan Superior Court, Rowan County, North Carolina, Case 166642:

Mr. WELTNER. Thank you.

The CHAIRMAN. What was the concealed weapon? Does the judgment show?

Mr. APPELL. No, it says, "Let the weapon be confiscated and destroyed."

Mr. LEAZER. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "Donald Leazer Exhibit No. 4" and retained in committee files.)

Mr. APPELL. Were these fines and costs adjudged against you paid by the United Klans of America?

Mr. LEAZER. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, before I call my first witness, I would like to ask permission of the Chair to place into the record at the appropriate point in the testimony of Mr. Robert Shelton the documents which we have now received in response to a subpoena duces tecum which related to purchases from the Lorch's Diamond Shop in Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

I would like to bring to the committee's attention that one of these documents appears to be a personal account of Mrs. Robert Shelton, which reflects on its face that her employer, or her occupation, is United Klans of America, and this credit card is signed by Mrs. Betty Shelton.

The CHAIRMAN. The documents will be received and inserted at that point in the record.

TESTIMONY OF ARTHUR C. LEONARD, ACCOMPANIED BY COUNSEL, LESTER V. CHALMERS, JR.

Mr. APPELL. Would you state your full name for the record, sir?

Mr. LEONARD. Arthur C. Leonard.

Mr. APPELL. Are you appearing here this morning in response to a subpoena served upon you by an investigator of the committee, Mr. Ray McConnon, at 9 o'clock a.m. on the 13th day of October 1965?

Mr. LEONARD. I am.

Mr. APPELL. Are you represented by counsel?

Mr. LEONARD. I am.

Mr. APPELL. Will counsel please identify himself for the record, please?

Mr. CHALMERS. Lester V. Chalmers, Jr., attorney at law, Room 501, First Federal Building, Raleigh, North Carolina.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Leonard, would you set forth for the committee when and where you were born?

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. That question is preliminary and is simply laying the foundation. We do not accept your reasons for refusal to answer and I direct you to answer.

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you advised Investigator McConnon at the time he served you with a subpoena that you were born in 1904 at Rowan, North Carolina, Rowan County, North Carolina.

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reasons that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Leonard, would you set forth your educational background?

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you advised the committee investigator, McConnon, that you had completed the first 10 years of school.

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. I ask you, Mr. Leonard, to set forth your employment background.

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you advised Investigator McConnon that you were in the home improvement business and have been since 1948, presently owner of the Southern Awning Manufacture Company, Lexington Road, Spencer, North Carolina, where it has been located for the last 4 years.

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Leonard, under the terms of the subpoena, you were directed to, or commanded to bring with you, and produce before said committee, documents which were called for on an attachment which was made a part of the subpoena. This attachment, consisting of one paragraph, reads:

All books, records, documents, correspondence and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and affiliated organizations, namely, the Alabama Rescue Service, Rowan Sportsmens Club, Realm (state) of North Carolina, in your possession, custody or control or maintained by you or available to you as the former Grand Dragon, Realm (state) of North Carolina, and as a present or former officer Rowan Sportsmens Club, Realm (state) of North Carolina, of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee upon subpoena dated October 4, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents and records as demanded by the committee in its subpoena dated October 4, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so, the same might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Chalmers, do you agree to the following stipulation: (1) That the witness has been furnished a copy of the chairman's opening statement of October 19, 1965, and that he is familiar with its contents; (2) that the directions of the subpoena to produce the documents called for are made to the witness in the official representative capacity described in the subpoena.

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

Mr. Chairman, may I state, sir, I conferred with counsel for the committee earlier this morning, and there was some mistake which he and myself have worked out. Rather than it being Rule IV of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress and House Resolution 8, it is actually Rule XI. I think counsel and myself understand the difference there.

The CHAIRMAN. It appears on page iv?

Mr. CHALMERS. It appears on page vi, actually.

The CHAIRMAN. We understand.

Mr. CHALMERS. I wanted to call it to your attention.

The CHAIRMAN. But the stipulation is entered into?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir; that is correct, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Now, Mr. Leonard, the Chair does not accept your reasons for failing to produce the documents called for in the subpoena, for you to produce them in the capacity indicated, and I now order and direct you to produce them.

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 4, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents and records as demanded by the committee in a subpoena dated October 4, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so, the same might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Proceed.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Leonard, are you currently the holder of the position of klookard for the Rowan County Klavern or the Rowan Sportsmen's Club?

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you advised committee investigator McConnon on the 13th day of October 1965, at the time he served you with the subpena, that you did hold the position of klo kard within your Klavern.

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, the committee subpoenaed from the Security Bank & Trust Co., Spencer, North Carolina, bank accounts relating to the Rowan Sportsmen's Club and accounts under the name of the United Klans of America. The bank forwarded to the committee in compliance with this subpoena duces tecum canceled checks, ledger cards, signature cards, that relate to this.

These cards reflect that the account which was subpoenaed was opened on December 10, 1958, and it was opened in the name of the U.S. Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Box 666, China Grove, North Carolina.

I desire, Mr. Chairman, to read from the signature card of December 10, 1958, and then ask certain questions of the witness.

It appears on top: "2 sig[nature]s required, Dec. 10, 1958. Name U.S. Knights of K K Klan [Address] Box 666 China Grove NC. The following two signatures will both be necessary to withdraw funds."

This is written out in longhand. "A. C. Leonard, Act. Treasurer; W. R. McCubbins, E.C.; C. B. Gobble, Treasure [sic]."

Typed onto this document is that "We prefer to sign cks without using titles."

"% opened by Mr. Leonard & Mr. McCubbins" with a deposit of $121.29.

I hand you this card, Mr. Leonard, and put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you are the A. C. Leonard listed on the signature card.

(Witness made no reply.)

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the bank properly reported that this account was opened by yourself and Mr. McCubbins.

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, the bank records reflect that that signature card remained in effect until 10-11-63.

I am sorry, Mr. Chairman. Until 2-8-60.

This card, which I would like to read into the record, shows: "U.S. Knights of K. K. Klan, J. L. Corriher, Treas., Rt. #4, Box 544, Salisbury, N.C." Two signatures required: "J. L. Corriher, Treas.; W. R. McCubbins, Secr.; F. L. Wilson, V.P."

The card contains the notation that on August 27, 1963, Mr. F. L.—I cannot make out the name clearly enough, Mr. Chairman, to put it into the record—succeeds Mr. O. C. Snider as vice president as of this date, and this contains, as the authority, the signature "Arthur C. Leonard."

I hand you this card, Mr. Leonard, and ask you whether or not the facts that I have just recited to you from this card are facts.

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Leonard, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that this Klavern to which we have established official affiliation on your part was, prior to becoming affiliated with the U.S. Klans, under the leadership of the Imperial Wizard Eldon Edwards; that you were affiliated as a Klavern of the North Carolina Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, which was under the leadership of Grand Wizard James W. "Catfish" Cole.

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, in order that the record may properly understand questions that are going to be asked of the witness, I would like to read into the record a statement on the basis of the committee's investigation to the effect that in the winter of 1955 there was formed an independent Klan group which started out merely by the title of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, but then became known as the North Carolina Knights of the Ku Klux Klan; that this organization was started in Charlotte, North Carolina, and after the leadership of several temporary Grand Wizards, its leadership was taken over by a former carnival pitchman, self-styled Baptist "Free Will" Minister, from Marion, South Carolina, James W. "Catfish" Cole.

Cole's influence until January 1958 when this Klan burned a cross on the outskirts of St. Pauls, North Carolina, in front of the home of an Indian woman who the Klan implied was involved with a white man. They also burned crosses at the residence of Indians who had recently moved into a formerly all-white neighborhood.

On January 18, 1958, Cole's Klan scheduled a rally near Maxton, North Carolina, in spite of warnings by the local sheriff that he lacked the manpower to put down a riot should one occur. On the night of the proposed rally, an estimated 50 to 75 Klansmen gathered around Cole at the rally site carrying shotguns, rifles, and pistols.

Before the rally started, an estimated 1000 armed Indians of the Lumbee Indians gathered along the edge of the highway and charged the unrobed Klansmen and the rally turned into a riot. Cole escaped, leaving his wife and children to be protected by other Klansmen.

On April 8, 1959, Cole was committed to jail in Lumberton, North Carolina, to begin serving an 18-24 month term for inciting the riot at Maxton Klan rally.

I put it to you as a fact, Mr. Leonard, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that it was following this that your Klavern and other Klaverns in the State of North Carolina began negotiations with representatives of Eldon Edwards for the purpose of becoming affiliated with his organization as a realm of the U.S. Klan in the State of North Carolina.

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that George Dorsett, now an official of the United Klans of America, who was the grand kludd, or chaplain, under James W. "Catfish" Cole, became the Grand Wizard of this organization after Cole was committed to serve his term.

Mr. POOL. Was that a Grand Wizard or Imperial Wizard?

Mr. APPELL. This is on a State level, sir; it is the Grand Wizard.

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Leonard, do you know Fred L. Wilson in addition to being treasurer of your Klavern, klabee, to be klabee or treasurer of the Realm of North Carolina?

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Did you know Wayne Dayvault and Don Leazer to be members of your Klavern?

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that when Investigator McConnon interviewed you on October 13, 1965, that after first refusing to discuss these individuals that you identified Fred L. Wilson, Wayne Dayvault, and Don Leazer as members of your Klavern, and that you later admitted to him in the course of the interview the positions which they held within the Klan.

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you identified Leazer as one of Jones' full-time organizers; Wilson to be klabee of the Klavern; and Dayvault to be the kligrapp or secretary.

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Leonard, during the time that your Klan was known as a Klan or Klavern within the U.S. Klan, Unit Number 1, at the time Mr. W. R. McCubbins was the kludd, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that James R. Jones, now Grand Dragon of North Carolina, was the klokann chief of the Klavern.

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that toward the end of 1958 or early 1959, that now Grand Dragon Jones, now Realm Treasurer Wilson, and now Grand Kligrapp or Secretary Leazer were expelled from your Klavern for nonpayment of dues.

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that prior to that time, that now Grand Dragon James R. Jones was disciplined by your Klavern on many occasions for his radical conduct.

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Did you possess knowledge of an organization known as the Black Shirts or Chessmen?

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Leonard, it is the committee's information that following—

The CHAIRMAN. One second, Mr. Appell.

Who did you say was dismissed or expelled for nonpayment of dues?

Mr. APPELL. The present Grand Dragon, James R. Jones. This was in late 1958 or early 1959.

The CHAIRMAN. Now, Mr. Leonard, having expelled or dismissed Mr. Jones for nonpayment of dues, did you expel or did anyone to your knowledge ever expel anyone for acts of violence?

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Leonard, in order to obtain the context of the next question, I would like to make a statement for the record that in the spring of 1959, August W., properly known as "Gus" Holman, the former Imperial Klabee of the U.S. Klan, under the Imperial Wizard Eldon Edwards, formed in Columbia, South Carolina, a Klan-type organization which became known as the Chessmen. The Chessmen quickly moved into North Carolina and merged with an organization called the Black Shirts, which, like the Chessmen, was comprised of former Klansmen who had been expelled from the U.S. Klans for various reasons.

A group of Chessmen damaged a sawmill in Richfield, North Carolina, on April 3, 1959, and thereafter the Chessmen began to disintegrate.

I ask you if you know James R. Jones to have been a member of that organization.

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Leonard, I am going to read you a paragraph from Investigator McConnon's report of interview with you, and after I have read it I desire you to deny it, confirm it, or to give any comment on it that you care to.

"Shelton visited Jones 2 weeks ago, according to subject [referring to yourself] and both welcome the investigation of the Klan by the committee, believing it will bring to light a lot of false thinking about the Klan. Neither Jones or Shelton were worried about the Klan end of the investigation, he related, but Jones was worried about what might be brought out about him in a personal way. Subject clarified this statement by stating that Jones at one time, just after reenlisting in the Army in California, went AWOL due to family problems back home. Subject stated he himself had gone to Washington with Jones in an effort to get Jones his discharge changed from undesirable to honorable. He said the AWOL charge caused Jones to receive this undesirable discharge. They lost out in Washington, however, and Jones was not granted a change in wordage of his discharge. Subject [referring to you] also alluded to Jones being concerned about something that happened in his youth as well, or at least when he was a young man. Subject declined [meaning you] to go any further on that point, however."

Mr. Leonard, I ask you to affirm it, deny it, or make whatever comment you want upon this quoted paragraph from Investigator McConnon's report of interview with you.

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Leonard, over a number of years you were an employer of Mr. Jones; were you not?

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you told Investigator McConnon that you were his employer over a period of many years.

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you advised Investigator McConnon that you were the Grand Dragon immediately preceding the appointment of Mr. Jones to be Grand Dragon for the Realm of North Carolina.

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon grounds previous stated.

Mr. APPELL. With that knowledge, Mr. Leonard, can you in any way explain to the committee an interview given by Mr. Jones to the Winston-Salem Journal on September 6 which appeared in an issue of September 16, 1964, in which Mr. Jones is quoted as advising the reporter that:

Early in the summer of 1963, he called a meeting of some men he thought might be interested in reviving the Klan. After some discussion, they decided to unite with Imperial Wizard Robert M. Shelton of Tuscaloosa, Ala.

Shelton sent Grand Dragon Scoggin up from Spartauburg, and he and Jones went to work.

On Aug. 18, a small nucleus of men met in the Klan's old state headquarters in southern Union County, and Jones was elected to a four-year term as Dragon

Can you explain this in light of your knowledge that you immediately preceded—your statement to the investigator that you immediately preceded Jones as the Grand Dragon of the United Klans of America, Realm of North Carolina?

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that prior to the summer of 1963, and for some time prior to the summer of 1963, that Grand Dragon Jones was a member of the United Klans of America and assigned to the same Klavern that you were a member of.

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I had earlier asked you about the expulsion of Mr. Jones from the Klan in 1958, and I asked you about any comment that appears in this interview, where Mr. Jones says or the reporter reports:

He didn't talk much about his early days in the Klan. He said he joined "about 1954" and "got out about 1958." He said he quit because the Grand Dragon in those day was guilty of "a multitude of sins."

As a member of the Klan in 1958 and as an officer of the Klavern, what multitude of sins was now Grand Dragon Jones referring to at that period of time?

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. As a former employer of Jones over many years, I ask you to comment upon this paragraph which is a direct quote:

Thus far I haven't been paid anything for my work. I've gotten a majority of my expenses paid ever since I was Grand Dragon. In the past 10 years I would think I've got $25,000 tied up in the Klan. I have worn out tires and automobiles going all over the country, and I missed money I'd have made if I had been working.

Mr. Leonard, on the basis of the work and the money reported by Jones as gross income or net income over the years, he could not possibly have made $25,000 in 10 years; could he?

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones also said in this interview, and I quote—and this, I might add, relates to the image of the Klan and the acceptance of the Klan:

The main reason is that people don't understand the Klan People are trying to crucify me because the old Klan did things. I do not and never have belonged to the Ku Klux Klan. I belong to the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. The Ku Klux Klan is on the attorney general's subversive list. This one is not and never has been.

Was Mr. Jones ever a member of a Klan which appeared on the Attorney General's list?

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "Arthur Leonard Exhibit No. 2" and retained in committee files.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Leonard, I show you a blank form of a "Klipgrapp's Quarterly Report" used in the days of the U.S. Klan under the Imperial Wizard Eldon L. Edwards. You will note—well, let me have you examine it.

(Document handed to witness.)

Mr. APPELL. According to this form, under the leadership of Imperial Wizard Edwards, Klans or Klaverns made reports not part to the realm and part to the imperial, but they made their checks payable to the Grand Dragon of the realm, and he took off his slice and forwarded what the imperial was supposed to get directly to the imperial.

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that today, under the United Klans of America, this procedure no longer follows, and that your Klavern sends part of the money due the realm directly to the realm, and to the imperial directly to the imperial. I ask you to affirm or deny that.

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "Arthur Leonard Exhibit No. 3" appears on p. 1911.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Leonard, after Mr. Jones replaced you as Grand Dragon, in January 1964 were you elected to the office of Grand Klaliff, or vice president?

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that at that election held on January 26, 1964, at Granite Quarry, North Carolina, that Jones was elected the Grand Dragon; that Leonard, Arthur C. Leonard, was elected Grand Klaliff; that W. R. McCubbins, who has been identified as a member, whose name appeared on the same signature card that your name appeared on, was elected the grand kludd; that Charles Bud Deese, of Salisbury, North Carolina, was elected grand kilgrapp, or secretary; that Ray Terry, of Durham, North Carolina, was elected the conductor; that Buck House, of Lexington, North Carolina, was elected the inner guard; that Jim McLamb, of Wilmington, North Carolina, was elected outer guard; and that Red Biddle, of Wilmington, North Carolina, was elected as chief of the klokann committee; and that C. J. Brindle—Clarence J. Brindle, was elected grand night-hawk.

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact.

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you also held on the grand level the position of grand klokard.

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Do you know George Dorsett?

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you advised Investigator McConnon that you had heard that George Dorsett was one of the full-time organizers under Jones today.

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Did you discuss with Investigator McConnon Robert Scoggin, the Grand Dragon for the State of South Carolina?

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you stated to Investigator McConnon that you had known Robert Scoggin for a period of 10 years, considered him to have good intentions, but to be a man who lacks the ability to represent the Klan in the best light.

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. As a matter of fact, Mr. Leonard, you knew Mr. Scoggin to also be a Grand Dragon for the Realm of South Carolina under the U.S. Klans during its existence under the leadership of Imperial Wizard Edwards; is that not a fact?

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Leonard, I hand you, although they are not prepared in the form in which the document is being handed to you, a series of oaths (Robert Shelton Exhibit No. 4) which are taken by Klansmen. I ask you to examine this series of oaths to advise the committee whether or not these are the oaths administered to members entering the United Klans of America today.

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. According to Investigator McConnon's report, you have studied the work of the Klan to such a point that you were able to recite to him the provisions of these oaths verbatim. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you did quote to him verbatim sections from these oaths.

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Did you advise Investigator McConnon that in appearing before the committee, you possibly would not be able to testify to the things that you told him about because they would violate your Klan oath?

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I have no further questions to ask of this witness.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Pool?

Mr. POOL. Mr. Leonard, when you were an official of the U.S. Knights of the Ku Klux Klan and had charge of their records for the money received, did you file an income tax return? That is, for the U.S. Knights of the Ku Klux Klan?

Mr. POOL. You kept the records for the U.S. Knights of the Ku Klux Klan?

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. POOL. Were you not the treasurer of the U.S. Knights of the Ku Klux Klan?

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. POOL. And you refuse to answer as to whether or not you filed an income tax return for the U.S. Knights of the Ku Klux Klan?

Mr. LEONARD. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. POOL. That is all, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Weltner?

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Chairman, I don't have any questions of this witness, but I think for the purpose of clarity it might be well to ask Mr. Appell to briefly relate the transition from the date of the North Carolina Knights under "Catfish" Cole to the present Realm of North Carolina under J. R. Jones.

Mr. APPELL. The North Carolina Knights of the Ku Klux Klan started to disintegrate after the conviction of "Catfish" Cole and the riot that grew out of the attack upon the rally by the Lumbee Indians. However, it did not completely disintegrate as an organization, and they still retained some Klaverns, but the bulk of the Klaverns that were in that organization went into the U.S. Klans, some before the Lumbee Indians incident, and others after.

With respect to the Klavern to which Mr. Leonard is a member, it continued in the U.S. Klans until the death of Eldon Edwards, at which time the bulk of the U.S. Klan membership in North Carolina, including the Rowan County Klavern, went into the United Klans of America and were represented at the convention in July of 1961 at which Mr. Robert M. Shelton was elected Imperial Wizard for the United Klans of America.

In a period there, the leadership of the "Cole Klan," the North Carolina Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, attempted to get together with the U.S. Klan elements in order to try to get together and merge into one big organization. They even scheduled a meeting with "Catfish" Cole in the penitentiary to carry this out.

Mr. WELTNER. Was the Rowan Sportsmen's Club then successor Klavern to the North Carolina Knights, the U.S. Knights, and presently in the UKA?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. That is all, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Buchanan?

Mr. BUCHANAN. I have no questions, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. The documents Mr. Appell questioned the witness on will be received in evidence at the respective points where they were exhibited and discussed.

The witness is excused and discharged from his subpoena.

Mr. CHALMERS. Thank you, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. The committee will stand in recess for 3 minutes.

(Whereupon, at 11:25 a.m., the subcommittee recessed, Representatives Willis, Pool, Weltner, and Buchanan being present, and reconvened at 11:30 a.m. with Representatives Willis, Weltner, and Buchanan present.)

The CHAIRMAN. The subcommittee will please come to order.

Call your next witness, Mr. Appell.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to call Mr. Richard Joseph Constantineau.

The CHAIRMAN. Please raise your right hand.

Do you solemnly swear that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. I do.

TESTIMONY OF RICHARD JOSEPH CONSTANTINEAU

Mr. APPELL. Would you state your full name for the record, sir?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Richard Joseph Constantineau.

Mr. APPELL. For the stenographer, would you spell your last name?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. C-o-n-s-t-a-n-t-i-n-e-a-u.

The CHAIRMAN. C-o-n-s-t-a-n-t-i-n-e-a-u.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Constantineau, are you appearing here in accordance with a subpoena served upon you at 6:15 o'clock p.m. on the 14th day October 1965, by Investigator McConnon, a member of the staff of this committee?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Are you represented by counsel?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. No, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Do you require counsel?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. No, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Constantineau, the subpoena served upon you called for you to produce documents described in two sections which were made a part of the subpoena. One is:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan and affiliated organizations, namely, the Alabama Rescue Service, New Hanover Improvement Association, New Hanover Improvement League, Realm (state) of North Carolina, in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by you or available to you as a member or officer of New Hanover Improvement Association, New Hanover Improvement League, Realm (state) of North Carolina, of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

Do you have any of these documents in your possession and are you now prepared to submit them in accordance with the terms of the subpoena?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. I do not have any in my possession as I have never had any in my possession.

Mr. APPELL. Part 2 of the subpoena calls for:

All books, records, registers, accounts, papers and correspondence of the Beacon Gun Works (an unincorporated business in Wilmington, North Carolina, of which you are owner or co-owner), in your possession, custody, or control, including but not limited to such records as are required to be maintained in accordance with the Federal Firearms Act, relating to the purchase and sale of firearms and ammunition, both in local or intra-state commerce and in interstate or foreign commerce, for the period from August 1962 to date.

Mr. Chairman, before asking for a production of the documents—

The CHAIRMAN. And you say those are documents required to be maintained by him? Say that again.

Mr. APPELL. Required to be maintained in accordance with the Federal Firearms Act relating to the purchase and sale of firearms and ammunition.

Prior to making a demand for the production, Mr. Chairman, Mr. Constantineau brought with him all books, records, et cetera, not knowing specifically the interest of the committee. I advised Mr. Constantineau that we are interested in the records of the sale of guns because under the regulations the sale of ammunition can be invoiced only to cash, where the purchase of guns and others must be registered in the name of the individual purchasing.

Therefore, I asked Mr. Constantineau to produce only those documents which relate to the sale of firearms.

Are you prepared to produce those documents, Mr. Constantineau?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. I am.

The CHAIRMAN. Let the record show that the witness has handed to Mr. Appell a bound book, a volume.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to state for the record that after copies of these records can be made, that the originals of these records shall be returned to Mr. Constantineau.

The CHAIRMAN. As an illustration of the pamphlets within that volume, I refer to the first one, which apparently is in compliance with regulations of the Government. It is entitled "Firearms Record From" this one reads "8-25-62 to"; this one reads "5-6-63, 121 Entries. Dealer's name: Beacon Gun Works; address, 5811 Oleander Drive; city, Wilmington; State, North Carolina" for North Carolina.

"License number 56-2776, issued" blank; "expires" with the word "renewable" and at the bottom in print "Courtesy of Remington Arms Company, Inc., sales promotion, Bridgeport, 2, Connecticut."

(Documents marked "Richard Constantineau Exhibit No. 1" and retained in committee files.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Constantineau, I hand you a certified copy of a document obtained from the secretary of state's office of the State of North Carolina which is certified to be true copies of the articles of incorporation of the New Hanover County Improvement Association, Inc.

I hand you this document and ask you if you have ever heard of the organization?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes, sir.

(Document marked "Richard Constantineau Exhibit No. 2." This exhibit will be reproduced in a forth coming report on Ku Klux Klan organizations.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Constantineau, have you ever been a member of the United Klans of America?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes.

Mr. APPELL. When did you join the United Klans of America?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. The date is not clear. It was either late April or early May of 1964.

Mr. APPELL. How did you happen to become interested in joining? What process did you follow in order to become a member of the United Klans of America?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. I received some literature and an application blank which I filled out and returned to the address indicated.

Mr. APPELL. And after returning it, what advice did you receive from the Klan?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. I was told when and where to go.

Mr. APPELL. And where were you told you should go? Or just where. You earlier stated you could not remember when.

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. It was a room over a theater on Second Street.

Mr. APPELL. Do you possess knowledge as to the long-term lessee of the premises?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. No, sir; I have no knowledge of that.

Mr. APPELL. I hand you, but not in the form that it is handed out, a series of oaths (Robert Shelton Exhibit No. 4) and asked you if in review of these, these appear to be a series of oaths which you took at the time you became a member of the Klan?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. It is similar. I cannot truthfully say it is word for word because I cannot remember that far back.

The CHAIRMAN. But in substance that is the form of the oaths?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. When you arrived at this building which you were invited to attend in response to your application or interest in application, were you then and there explained what the Klan stood for as far as attempting to interest you in a formal membership?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Do you know the identity of the man who gave you the lecture on the Klan prior to the administering of any oaths?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Did I know him before the oath?

Mr. APPELL. Do you know the identity of the man——

The CHAIRMAN. Did you know before?

Mr. APPELL. —the man who gave you the lecture before you took any of the oaths?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. I did not know him before I took the oath, no.

The CHAIRMAN. Did you learn who he was afterwards?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. You now know his identity?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Who is he?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. The man that gave the oath I don't know.

Mr. APPELL. The man who lectured to you on the principles of the Klan?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Mr. Chadwick, Warren Chadwick.

Mr. APPELL. Is that Warren J. Chadwick?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. I don't know his middle initial.

Mr. APPELL. Were you at that time after the purposes of the Klan were explained to you given a formal application?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. This is not a reproduction of that formal application in the size, but can you look at this and tell us whether this is similar to the application that you signed?

(Document handed to witness.)

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. This is not the same. The one I signed was postcard size.

Mr. APPELL. I am sorry, I didn't hear you.

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. I said this is not the same. The one I signed was about the size of a postcard.

The CHAIRMAN. He did say it was not the same size, he indicated that. It was not the same size. You say the one you looked at, or the one exhibited to you was in card form. But the point is, is this in the form?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. It is similar. I don't remember exactly what it looked like.

(Document marked "Richard Constantineau Exhibit No. 3" and retained in committee files.)

Mr. APPELL. But other than the card which you signed which you had received in the mail and forwarded in, you were not given a formal application of this format to sign?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. No, sir.

Mr. APPELL. After you agreed to become a member, were you then administered this series of oaths?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. In the administering of this series of oaths, were certain sections, such as the oath of allegiance, Section I, Obedience; Section II, Secrecy; and Section III, Fidelity, read to you, and subscribed to by you, before you were taken into what we shall call, for the want of a better term, the inner chambers of the Klavern?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. And the section of oaths which deals with the Klan-ishness, they were administered to you as a part of the ceremony within the Klavern chamber itself?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Did the Klavern to which you were assigned meet normally in the same building where you presented yourself on the first night as a candidate for membership?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes, sir; normally they met there.

Mr. APPELL. Wasn't this some kind of a labor hall?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. I heard later that it was a union hall. I had never been there before that night.

Mr. APPELL. But later you knew that it was a hall used by one of the local labor unions?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Let me ask you this question.

Let me see the lease. You exhibited to him a lease and he said something about he wasn't familiar with it. You said something about a long-term lease. Didn't you question him about a long-term lease? I thought you had.

What I wanted you to establish, if you had, is that it was my impression you mentioned the words "long-term lease," and he said he didn't know anything about the lease. That is my impression.

I want to ask him, though, not knowing anything about the lease, if that is the case, would the lease be at the same address that he attended meetings at?

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, if I might correct the record, I used the reference to a lease in order to try to establish from the witness at that time that the premises used were in fact those of a labor union organization.

The CHAIRMAN. I am now catching on to that.

Mr. APPELL. And I do not have the lease.

The CHAIRMAN. You don't?

Mr. APPELL. No, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. I am wondering if the address given of the leased premises is the place where he attended meetings. Is that true? Is that your understanding?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. In other words, the lease did cover the union hall, as you say.

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. And that is the place he now says he did attend meetings at.

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Proceed.

Mr. APPELL. Did the Klan or Klavern to which you were assigned carry a designation other than Knights of the Ku Klux Klan?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. And what cover or what designation did it have other than Knights of the Ku Klux Klan?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. New Hanover Improvement Association.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Constantineau, before we leave the place of the meeting, the labor hall, did the Klavern move its place of meeting from there to some other location?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. And where did it move its meeting place to?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. To a motel, a motel meeting room.

Mr. APPELL. And was this the Elberta Motel in Wilmington?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. The committee's investigation establishes that the reason for the moving was that when the trade union body found that this was in fact a Klan group that was meeting there under the name of the New Hanover County Improvement Association, that they refused to permit the group to continue to use its facilities.

Do you know that this was the reason why they moved from that point to the Elberta Motel?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. No, sir; I do not know the reason for the move.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Constantineau, in the articles of incorporation which I show you for the New Hanover County Improvement Association, Inc., the registered agent of the corporation is listed as James H. McLamb.

Did you know McLamb to be a member of the Klan and a member of the New Hanover County Improvement Association?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. The incorporation says that the name and addresses of persons who are to serve as initial directors are, and the first name listed is Warren Chadwick, 212 North Channel Drive, Wrightsville Beach, North Carolina.

Is this the same Warren Chadwick to whom you referred as lecturing you on the advantages of the Klan prior to your taking your first series of oaths?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. The other officer is James H. McLamb, 3850 Peachtree Avenue, Wilmington, North Carolina, and this is the same gentleman who was designated as the agent of the corporation and whom you have identified as a person you knew?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. The third name is Carey Strickland, 232 Lake Forest Parkway, Wilmington, North Carolina.

Did you likewise know Carey Strickland?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. No, sir; I do not know Carey Strickland.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Constantineau, at the time you joined the United Klans of America and were assigned to its Klavern which used the name of the New Hanover County Improvement Association, what was the initiation fee which you paid?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. I believe, though I am not sure, it was $10.00.

Mr. APPELL. Do you possess any knowledge of the distribution of that $10.00 once you turned it over to someone?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. No, sir; I do not.

Mr. APPELL. Do you recall to whom you turned over the $10.00?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Mr. Chadwick.

Mr. APPELL. To Mr. Chadwick.

Within your particular Klavern, that known as the New Hanover County Improvement Association, what was your rate of dues?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. It was either 50 cents or $1.00 a month. I can't remember that far back. I paid 6 months in advance, anyway.

Mr. APPELL. After becoming a formal member of this Klan Klavern, were you required to purchase a robe?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. It was not required.

Mr. APPELL. Did you purchase a robe?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes, I did.

Mr. APPELL. From whom did you purchase your robe?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. I purchased it from Mr. Chadwick. It was ordered somehow.

Mr. APPELL. And how much did you pay for the robe?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. I believe it was $10.00.

Mr. APPELL. Did you have a satin robe or a broadcloth robe?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. A satin robe.

Mr. APPELL. At $10.00?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. I believe that is correct.

Mr. APPELL. Not $15.00?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. I believe it was $10.00.

Mr. APPELL. After you became a member of this Klan group, how active were you as a member?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. I attended approximately one meeting monthly, and during the course of my membership I attended approximately 8 or maybe 10 rallies.

Mr. APPELL. And when did you terminate your membership?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. In the latter part of August 1964.

Mr. APPELL. During the course of your membership, did you ever attend any State meetings?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Did you attend any State meetings at which elections of officers were held?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Were you elected to any State office?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. To what State office were you elected?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. State klokann.

Mr. APPELL. And what advice did you receive as to the duties and responsibilities of the State klokann?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. I was to investigate new applications for membership and clear them for entry into the organization.

Mr. APPELL. Can you recall the identity of any other man elected at that same election for any office within the State of North Carolina?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Mr. Red Biddle, I believe, was elected. I don't know what office he was elected to. And Mr. Hamby, I believe, was elected night-hawk.

Mr. APPELL. This is Mr. Boyd Hamby?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes, sir. The others I do not know.

Mr. APPELL. You say that you were unfamiliar with the organization so that you do not know the identity of the other people elected at that time?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Within the Realm of North Carolina, there are titans which, according to the Constitution and Laws, have the overriding jurisdiction within provinces or which conform to congressional districts.

Do you know the identity of the titan in the district to which the Wilmington Klavern was a part?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. No, sir; I do not.

The CHAIRMAN. Have you asked him when and where the State meeting was?

Mr. APPELL. I failed to.

When and where was that State meeting?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. It was on the outskirts of Salisbury. I don't know the exact location. It is the first time I had ever been there. I don't know the exact date. It was in August 1964.

Mr. APPELL. How long did you carry out the functions as a member of the State klockann committee?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. I resigned the following week.

The CHAIRMAN. The following week? The week following what?

Mr. APPELL. The State meeting, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Does he know when he resigned? Try to establish the date.

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

Prior to your resignation, who do you recall as having held offices within the unit of the Klan to which you were assigned known as the New Hanover County Improvement Association?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Mr. McLamb and Mr. Biddle were the only two I knew that held any office.

Mr. APPELL. Did Mr. Warren Chadwick hold any office at that period of time?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. I heard that he did, but I don't know what it was other than being a local leader.

The CHAIRMAN. A local what?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. The head of the local unit.

Mr. APPELL. Do you recall the identify of any other members of the Klavern to which you were assigned?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Mr. Chadwick, Mr. Biddle, Mr. McLamb are the only ones that I can remember the names of.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Constantineau, W. J. Chadwick, to whom you referred, made a complaint at the sheriff's office that he had purchased a tear gas gun from Milton Finkelstein Music Company. Had you also been charged with the sale of Penguin type tear gas kits?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. What knowledge did you possess at that time with respect to the illegality of the sale of such weapons?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. I had no knowledge whatsoever that they were illegal. They were being sold throughout the State.

Mr. APPELL. Did Warren Chadwick make the complaint against the store that I mentioned following your arrest because no action had been taken against them?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. I believe that is correct.

Mr. APPELL. Do you know that this was a discussion within the Klan, yourself and others, that this is what he should properly do?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. No, sir; I did not know anything about that until after he had done it.

Mr. APPELL. What understanding did you later obtain?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. He just told me that he had bought one and turned it over to the sheriff's department.

Mr. APPELL. You stated that you attended the State meeting in July or August—

The CHAIRMAN. He said he attended a meeting about a week before he resigned.

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. It was the last week in August.

The CHAIRMAN. It was what?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. The last week in August 1964.

The CHAIRMAN. And you resigned when?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. The week following that State meeting.

Mr. APPELL. So that puts your resignation somewhere around the 1st of September?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Of last year; yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir; of 1964.

Why did you resign from the Klan?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. My wife was in very bad health and my business—I was neglecting my business, so to speak, so I felt that I had better stay with my business. My wife was on the verge of a nervous breakdown. That was my reasons for resigning.

Mr. APPELL. Your wife's condition had some relationship to your membership?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes, sir. She was worried of my activities.

Mr. APPELL. Would you, having been in the Klan and out of the Klan, again sign a Klan membership card?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. I don't believe I would at the present time.

Mr. APPELL. Do you care to state any reasons for this?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Well, I don't think that they have a program that satisfies me.

The CHAIRMAN. Do you care to say what you mean by that?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Well, what I mean by that is I don't see where they have anything lined up. I don't know how to express what I mean.

The CHAIRMAN. Were you familiar with how the funds were handled? Did that have anything to do with your dissatisfaction, or an important thing to do with your dissatisfaction?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. No, sir; that had nothing to do with it, and I don't know what the funds were used for, or dues, whatever you call them.

Mr. APPELL. Within the New Hanover County area, there were, over a period of time, during the time of your membership, crosses burned, either at the New Hanover County Courthouse and other places.

Do you possess any knowledge of this?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. No, sir; I do not.

Mr. APPELL. Did you ever participate in any act of violence as a member of the Klan?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. No, sir; I did not.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, the staff has no further questions of the witness.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Constantineau, we appreciate your appearance, as we will have any others who want to cooperate with this committee to testify to individual, firsthand knowledge. This is the first time I knew the substance of what you were to testify to. The investigator interviewed you, and I am sure that, as usual, he questioned you very carefully as to your testimony, the extent of it. We do appreciate your appearance very much.

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Thank you.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Weltner.

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Constantineau, would you kindly examine the documents that you have submitted today in response to the subpoena?

I would like to question you about a couple of entries in there.

On the folder that refers to the date of June 13, 1964, which, as I understand, is 2 or 3 months after you became a member of the Wilmington Klan, there is an entry for W. J. Chadwick purchasing a .38 caliber S & W revolver.

I take it that is a Smith & Wesson revolver.

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes.

Mr. WELTNER. Is that the W. J. Chadwick you referred to as the exalted cyclops of the Klavern of which you were a member?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. Then if you would follow on to September 17, 1964, which, as I understand, is maybe 2 or 3 weeks following your resignation from the Klan, there is another entry that a W. J. Chadwick purchased a .32 caliber S & W revolver, which I take to be a Smith & Wesson revolver. Is that the same W. J. Chadwick?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. Are there any other entries in there to persons whom you know to be members of the Klan?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Mr. Biddle and Mr. McLamb.

Mr. WELTNER. And I believe you testified that those are the only three persons whom you recall to have been members during the time that you were a member?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Constantineau, you began that record on the 25th day of August 1962.

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. And there are 11 books there. The last one is not yet completed, it having some blank space in it. I note there are about 120 entries in each one of those volumes. I would like to point out this brief analysis and ask for your comment on it, whatever relevance you think it might have.

The first volume runs from August 25, 1962, to May 6, 1963, a period of a little less than 9 months, with about 121 entries in it.

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. Entries meaning sales of guns, with a few exceptions, I note, where you purchased a firearm.

The second volume runs from May 6, 1963, to October 14, 1963, about 5 months. The third volume runs from October 15, 1963, to December 27, 1963, a little over 2 months. The fourth volume runs from March 11, 1964, to July 1, 1964, about 4 months.

It was during this period of time that you became a member of the Klan.

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. The fifth volume of about 120 entries runs from July 1, 1964, to August 22, 1964, 1 month. The sixth volume runs from August 22, 1964, to September 23, 1964, and that also is just about 1 month.

Then it was in this period that you resigned as a member of the Klan. Am I correct?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. Then the following volume runs from September 23, 1964, to December 1, 1964, a little less than 2 to 3 months; the next volume from December 1, 1964, to April 17, 1965, 4 months; the next volume from April 17, 1965, to August 28, 1965, about 4 months; and then the following one, which is not yet completed, August 28, 1965, to the present.

It seems to me like during that period of time in which you were a member of the Klan there was a marked increase in the sale of firearms. I am wondering if I am correct in my interpretation of the chronology here and whether or not your membership in the Ku Klux Klan had any reference to or relation to the volume of your business as a dealer in firearms.

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. That is possible. In the gun business it usually is that business starts increasing about July and carries on through to about mid-September and then tapers off until the following year.

Mr. WELTNER. So there is a seasonal upswing in sales at any rate?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. Yes, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. Whether or not there is any specific connection with any organization?

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. That is correct.

Mr. WELTNER. Thank you, Mr. Constantineau.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Constantineau, thanks again for your appearance. You are discharged.

In other words, you have satisfied the terms of your subpoena.

I am sorry.

Let me say that we appreciate your response to the subpoena. As I indicated yesterday, though you may not have been in the hearing room, there is Federal law which states that if a witness appears before a court, grand jury, petit jury, or a committee of the Congress, he is entitled to protection.

If anybody threatens him, coerces him, molests him, or does anything to him, that person may be punished. It is a criminal offense.

I am going to continue this subpoena; we may require your re-attendance upon further inquiry into your activities in this.

If anyone, and I don't care who he is, in high place, middle place, location—anyone—should, because of your appearance here, do anything to you, threaten you, or your family, I invite you to let me know.

Mr. CONSTANTINEAU. All right, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. We are not going to stand for that.

Therefore, the witness is continued under subpoena until January 2, 1966.

The committee will stand in recess until 2:15.

(Subcommittee members present at time of recess: Representatives Willis, Weltner, and Buchanan.)

(Whereupon, at 12:25 p.m., Monday, October 25, 1965, the subcommittee recessed, to reconvene at 2:15 p.m. the same day.)

AFTERNOON SESSION—MONDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1965

(The subcommittee reconvened at 2:25 p.m., Hon. Edwin E. Willis, chairman, presiding.)

(Subcommittee members present: Representatives Willis, Pool, and Weltner.)

The CHAIRMAN. The subcommittee will please come to order.

Mr. APPELL, call your first witness for this afternoon.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to call Fred L. Wilson.

The CHAIRMAN. Please raise your right hand, Mr. Wilson.

Do you solemnly swear that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Did you answer?

Mr. WILSON. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Proceed.

TESTIMONY OF FRED L. WILSON, ACCOMPANIED BY COUNSEL, LESTER V. CHALMERS, JR.

Mr. APPELL. State your name for the record.

Mr. WILSON. Fred L. Wilson.

Mr. APPELL. Are you here today in accordance with a subpoena served upon you at 10:30 o'clock a.m. on the 11th day of October 1965 by a deputy United States marshal?

Mr. WILSON. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Are you represented by counsel?

Mr. WILSON. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Will counsel please identify himself for the record?

Mr. CHALMERS. I am Lester V. Chalmers, Jr., attorney at law, Room 501, First Federal Building, Raleigh, North Carolina.

(At this point Mr. Buchanan entered the hearing room.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Wilson, will you state for the record when and where you were born?

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. I direct you to answer that question.

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. POOL. Were you born outside the United States?

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. POOL. I can't see where American citizenship would incriminate you in any way.

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. POOL. That is, unless you were born outside the United States. That might have some bearing on it.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Wilson, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you were born on April 27, 1898, in Rowan County, North Carolina.

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Wilson, do you operate a business in Salisbury, North Carolina, known as the Council Street Market?

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Wilson, under the terms of the subpoena served upon you, you were demanded to bring with you and to produce before the committee certain items called for in an attachment to the subpoena, which was made a part of the subpoena. Part 1 reads:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and affiliated organizations, namely, the Alabama Rescue Service, Realm (state) of North Carolina, and Rowan Sportsmen's Club in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by you or available to you as Grand Klabee (Treasurer) Realm (state) of North Carolina, and Klabee (Treasurer) Rowan Sportmen's Club, of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

I demand that you produce the records called for in part 1 of your subpoena.

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records requested by this subpoena under subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same will not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents and records as demanded by the committee in its subpoena dated

October 11, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so, the same might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Chalmers, as we have all along, let's say it is agreed, I take it, that we hereby enter into the following stipulations: (1) That the witness has been furnished a copy of the chairman's opening statement of October 19, 1965, and that he is familiar with its contents; (2) that the directions of the subpoena to produce the documents called for are made to the witness in the official representative capacity described in the subpoena.

Is that understood?

Mr. CHALMERS. It is so stipulated, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. I therefore order and direct you, Mr. Wilson, to produce the documents called for by the subpoena duces tecum just described.

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

The CHAIRMAN. And I take it, Mr. Chalmers, so that there won't be any question about it on your part, or on my part, that wherever in the past stipulations identical to this or in substance like this, meaning the same, wherever you refer to Rule IV you mean what?

Mr. CHALMERS. Rule XI.

The CHAIRMAN. Wherever you refer to what?

Mr. CHALMERS. Wherever I referred to Rule IV previously, it was Rule XI.

Thank you, sir.

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents and records as demanded by this committee in the subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so, the same might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Wilson, under part 2 of the subpoena, you are ordered to bring with you and to produce:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by or available to you, in your capacity as Grand Klabee (Treasurer) Realm (state) of North Carolina, and Klabee (Treasurer) Rowan Sportmen's Club of the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, which the "Constitution and Laws" of said organization authorize and require to be maintained by you and any officer of said organization, the same being in your possession, custody or control.

I now ask that you produce those documents.

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to deliver the committee any and all records requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents and records as demanded by the committee in the subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so, the same might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Chalmers, without the necessity of repetition, it is agreed that the same stipulation in two parts we just entered into would apply to this paragraph of the subpoena?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Wilson, I therefore order and direct you to produce those documents.

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

Mr. POOL. Mr. Wilson—

Mr. CHALMERS. He has not completed his answer.

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents and records as demanded by the committee in the subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so, the same might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. POOL. Mr. Wilson, as you have heard previously, your counsel and our chairman have set up stipulations that show we are in disagreement as to whether or not you should bring these documents and produce them to this committee.

I want to tell you, as a member of this committee, speaking only for myself, that your action by refusing to produce these documents here under a valid subpoena, and under that I consider the case law in our favor, that I am going to vote in committee to cite you for contempt of Congress. I am speaking for myself. I don't know what the rest of the committee will do. But that is the way I feel about it.

You can go ahead and answer if you want to or say anything you want to right now. But that is what you are up against. That is a statement. I did not ask for an answer. If you want to answer, I will be glad to hear it. But this is dead serious business and I am trying to be fair with you by stating it that way.

The other day I read some case law to one of the other witnesses. Your lawyer disagrees with the effect of that decision. But in my mind I am convinced that it applies to you and it applies to your action here today in refusing to bring these records in here to this committee and let the people of America as well as Congress know what is in those records.

I think the Congress has a right to know it. I think you are in contempt of Congress if you do not produce them. I am telling you I am trying to be fair to you.

The CHAIRMAN. All right, Mr. Appell.

Mr. APPELL. Under part 3 of your subpoena, Mr. Wilson, you were ordered to bring with you and to produce:

Copies of U.S. Treasury Department, Internal Revenue Service, Form 1040 [which is titled], "U.S. Individual Tax Return," for the calendar years 1958 through 1964, filed by you as an individual taxpayer with the U.S. Treasury Department, Internal Revenue Service.

I ask that you produce these documents.

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents and records as demanded by the committee in its subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so, the same might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Proceed.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Wilson, the committee made certain inquiries of the U.S. Treasury Department with respect to application by one Fred Lee Wilson, of Salisbury, North Carolina, for the purchase of wagering tax stamps. The Treasury Department advised the committee that their records show that Fred Lee Wilson purchased stamps for the fiscal years ended June 30, 1964, and June 30, 1965.

Is that information factual?

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Wilson, were you ever convicted for violating North Carolina lottery laws?

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Wilson, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that on June 27, 1960, you were convicted for violating the lottery laws in the sale and distribution of tip boards; that you were sentenced to 6 months in the Rowan County Jail, which sentence was suspended upon the payment of a $200 fine, and that you be on your good behavior and not violate lottery laws of North Carolina for 2 years.

I ask you to affirm or deny the fact as I have read it to you.

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Wait a moment, unless this question be misunderstood.

Is it not a fact, Mr. Wilson, that according to the tenets of the Klans which, in the open, they proclaim, they are against gambling, drinking, and the like?

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. This is a chance to speak out, Mr. Wilson, because this involves your veracity under oath. I am not directing you to answer. I am describing at least two grounds of pertinency in the question.

Proceed.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Wilson, Investigator McConnon, of our staff, in reporting an interview with Mr. Arthur C. Leonard, reported that Mr. Arthur C. Leonard advised him that you were the State treasurer as of October 12, 1965.

Is this information reported by the investigatory staff factual?

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Wilson, I hand you a signature card drawn on the Wachovia Bank and Trust Company, Salisbury, North Carolina, dated May 13, 1965, in the name of the United Klans of America, Inc., containing three signatures with the notation "2 sig's required," the three names being James R. Jones, Donald E. Leazer, and Fred L. Wilson, care of James R. Jones, mail address: P.O. Box 321, Granite Quarry, North Carolina.

In handing you this I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that this is the official signature card covering a United Klans of America bank account at the Wachovia Bank and Trust Company, Salisbury, North Carolina.

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document previously marked "Donald Leazer Exhibit No. 3." See p. 1894.)

Mr. POOL. Are you through with this trying to establish the fact he is treasurer?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. POOL. Mr. Wilson, did you file income tax returns for yourself individually or in your representative capacity as treasurer of this Klavern? No, you were grand klabee of the Realm of North Carolina, UKA. Did you file income tax returns for that organization?

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. POOL. Did you file individual income tax returns?

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Wilson, the bank account to which we are referring shows that starting with the deposit of May 13, 1965, and concluding with the deposit of September 19, 1965, there was deposited to this account in the form of cash—

The CHAIRMAN. And the account is in the name of what?

Mr. APPELL. The United Klans of America, Inc., care of James R. Jones.

—there was deposited to this account in the form of coins and currency $15,404.45. There was deposited to this account in the form of checks $1,498.92, making a total deposit of $16,903.37.

Would you tell the committee the source from which these funds were derived?

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

(Bank records previously marked "James Jones Exhibit No. 7-A.")

The CHAIRMAN. You have been questioned and it has been established that you were the treasurer, the man handling the money for the Realm of North Carolina. I ask you this question: Did you deposit to this account or any other bank account all the funds handled by you in connection with the activities of the United Klans of America, Realm of North Carolina?

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Wilson, I hand you an envelope containing 12 checks of $150 each for a total of $1,800, made payable to Donald E. Leazer, who Mr. Leonard identified as being the realm secretary.

The CHAIRMAN. I don't think he identified him.

Mr. APPELL. To our investigator.

I ask you if these checks were countersigned by you as payment to Mr. Leazer of a salary from the Realm of North Carolina.

The CHAIRMAN. And those checks are weekly checks or monthly checks?

Mr. APPELL. Approximately weekly, Mr. Chairman. I can read the exact dates of them if you want me to.

Mr. POOL. The will be going into the record anyway.

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Checks previously marked "James Jones Exhibit No. 7-F." See p. 1721.)

Mr. APPELL. I show you a series of checks drawn on the United Klans of America, Wachovia Bank and Trust, made payable to M. R. Kornegay. These checks are July 5, July 10, July 16, July 23, August 1, August 6, August 14, and August 20.

The CHAIRMAN. 1965?

Mr. APPELL. 1965.

And all of these checks are countersigned James R. Jones and Donald E. Leazer, except the last one of August 20, 1965, countersigned James R. Jones and Fred L. Wilson.

Were those checks issued in payment to Mr. Leazer as a paid employee of the United Klans of America—I mean to Mr. Kornegay?

(Documents handed to witness.)

Mr. WILSON. I decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

(Checks previously marked "James Jones Exhibit No. 7-E." See p. 1721.)

The CHAIRMAN. Is that the same Kornegay who appeared here last week?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. POOL. What is the amount?

Mr. APPELL. Eight checks at $150 each, for a total of $1,200.

The CHAIRMAN. Let the reporter note a thing which I have repeated from time to time, that all documents exhibited to and discussed with this witness, as well as others this morning, will be received in evidence at the respective points where they were exhibited or discussed.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Wilson, I note that in reviewing checks payable to Mr. Kornegay, that I have exhibited to you, and checks payable to Donald E. Leazer, that there are seven checks in the amount of $150 each and one in the amount of $100, payable to George Dorsett. There are 16 checks of $150, totaling $2,400—

The CHAIRMAN. For what period? That is, from the first to the last.

Mr. APPELL. The earliest in the case of Grady Mars, who received 16 checks, the first check was June 4, and the last was September 17 (James Jones Exhibit No. 7-D, p. 1720). In the case of George Dorsett, the first check was 7-23-65 and the last was 9-17 (James Jones Exhibit No. 7-B, p. 1720). In the case of Donald Leazer, the first check was July 2 and the last was September 17 (James Jones Exhibit No. 7-F, p. 1721). In the case of Kornegay (James Jones Exhibit No. 7-E, p. 1721), who, Mr. Chairman, the record discloses became Grand Dragon for the Realm of Virginia, it was July 5 through August 20, all of the year 1965.

I notice in reviewing these checks, Mr. Wilson, that some are signed by you as the comaker on the bottom line; some on the top line. Do you sign checks in blank and turn them over to Mr. Jones?

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Wilson, without implying that it would violate your charter and bylaws as to which I am uninformed, I ask you this question: Are the officials, including yourself, of the United Klans of America, appearing before this committee, receiving expenses for your attendance here, as distinguished from the others who have not as high a title in the organization?

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Wilson, the committee's investigation established that in December 1958, or early January 1959, that you were expelled from the Salisbury Klavern for the nonpayment of dues. Is this information factual, sir?

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

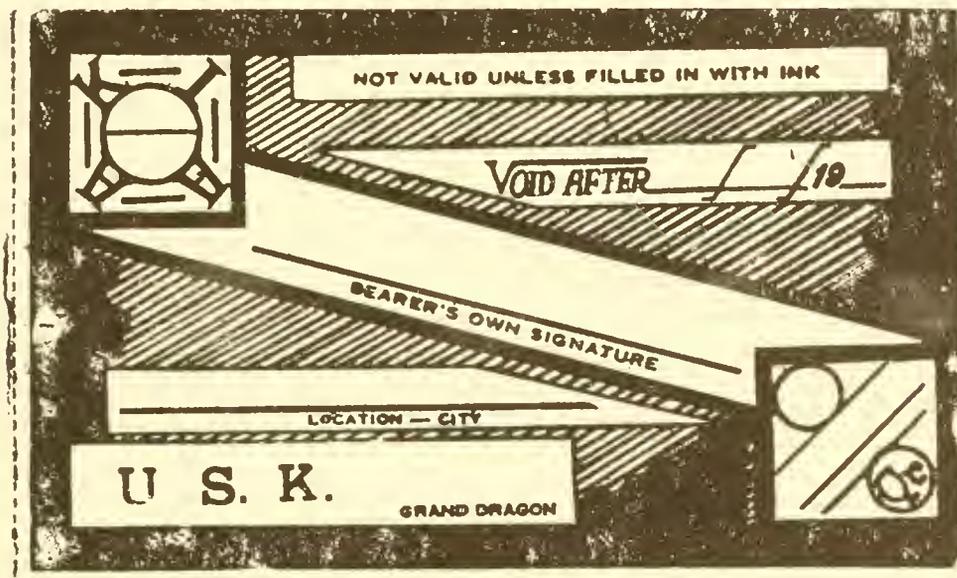

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Wilson, I hand you a form of membership card used by the U.S. Klans. I ask you if you held a membership card similar to that while you were a member?

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

FRED WILSON EXHIBIT NO. 1

Mr. APPELL. The committee's investigation determined that even back in the days of the U.S. Klans a man's membership card and a man was known within his Klavern by a number and by a name, and that within the Realm of North Carolina under the U.S. Klans the number assigned to a Klan member was a 200-series dash, and then a third set of numerals. I ask you if your number was 200-001?

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I ask you if the card that you now carry as a member of the United Klans of America, distinguished from an officer of the realm, is identical to this card except adapted to apply to the United Klans of America rather than the U.S. Klans.

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Do you still carry the number 1?

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Is it not a fact, Mr. Wilson, that when Mr. Shelton and his group formed the United Klans of America and broke away from the U.S. Klans, that there was quite some competition for the old membership of the U.S. Klans, and at the prodding or persuasion of Mr. Shelton and his entourage, a great number, including yourself, belonging to the old organization, then shifted to the Shelton organization?

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. POOL. Mr. Wilson, I have been sitting here watching your appearance. You impress me as a man who is not afraid to say anything. I want to ask you this: Have you been threatened in any manner about your testimony here before this committee today?

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. POOL. This is your chance, if that has happened to you, this would be your chance to lay it on the line. The committee would take appropriate action to see to it that these threats would not be carried out. I am just trying to give you a chance. That has been the impression you have given me since you sat down at the table there.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Wilson, were you again this year elected to the position of klabee or treasurer of the Realm of North Carolina, United Klans of America?

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I hand you a franchise tax report filed with the State of North Carolina, signed by James R. Jones, Grand Dragon, North Carolina, dated July 20, 1965. I ask you if you are the F. L. Wilson, Salisbury, North Carolina, listed by Mr. Jones as the organization's treasurer.

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document previously marked "Donald Leazer Exhibit No. 1." See pp. 1891, 1982.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones sets forth in this document that the officers of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., in North Carolina, having a Post Office Box of 321, Granite Quarry, were himself as president, with an address at Granite Quarry, North Carolina; G. B. Mars, with an address of Warrenton, North Carolina, vice president; with D. E. Leazer, of Salisbury, North Carolina, as secretary; and F. L. Wilson, Salisbury, North Carolina, as treasurer.

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that these are are current officers of the Realm of North Carolina.

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Wilson, the committee's investigation established that during the month of February and in the month of September 1964 the United Klans of America, under the cover name of Alabama Rescue Service, held two klonvokations or conventions at the Dinkler-Tutwiler Hotel in Birmingham, Alabama.

I hand you copies of two registration cards, one of February 8, signed Fred L. Wilson, 610 Little, Salisbury, one of September 2, 1964, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilson, 610 Little, Salisbury, North Carolina.

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that these are true copies of your signature as applied to the registration card when you registered at the Dinkler-Tutwiler Hotel in Birmingham, Alabama, on the dates indicated.

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that at the February klonvokation Robert Thompson from Georgia was elected Imperial Klaliff, or vice president; W. L. Perkins, Tuscaloosa, Alabama, was elected Imperial Kligrapp or secretary; and that Fredrick Smith of Tuscaloosa, Alabama, was elected Imperial Klabee or treasurer. I ask you to affirm or deny that.

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact that, at the September klonvokation, Robert Shelton was unopposed in reelection for the office of Imperial Wizard; that Robert Collins, of Birmingham, was elected Imperial Klokard; that George Dorsett of Greensboro, North Carolina, was elected Imperial Kludd; that R. Hudgins, of Raleigh, North Carolina, was elected Imperial Kladd; that Walter Brown, of Sumter, South Carolina, was elected Imperial Klarogo; and that Robert Korman, of Florida, was elected Imperial Klexter.

I ask you to affirm or deny that.

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Wilson, the committee obtained through subpoena duces tecum the bank account of the United Klans of America from the Security Bank and Trust Company in Salisbury, North Carolina. Included in these documents were documents that are signature cards which were introduced into the record this morning during the appearance of Mr. Arthur C. Leonard.

I hand you each of these cards and put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that these signature cards were authorized by the Klavern and that the current signature card lists Fred L. Wilson as treasurer, with the two other authorized signatures as W. R. McCubbins and Wayne Dayvault. I ask you to affirm or deny it.

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Documents previously marked "Arthur Leonard Exhibits Nos. 1-A through 1-D." See pp. 1902-1905.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Wilson, I hand you checks drawn against this account, all payable to the United Klans of America or James R. Jones or J. R. Jones, all containing your signatures as one of the co-signers, and I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that these checks were drawn in the official capacity of the organization as an affiliate of the United Klans of America, Inc.

The CHAIRMAN. How many checks are you handing him?

Mr. APPELL. Ten, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. What is the date of the first and the last?

Mr. APPELL. The first is September 18, 1963, and the last that is in this group is August 24, 1964.

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like for the record to show that the check—well, I will not worry about the sequence, Mr. Chairman.

A check dated February 13, 1964, made payable to the United Klans of America, is endorsed United Klans of America, and reendorsed James R. Jones, in the amount of $15; check of February 13, 1964, in the amount of $16, the purpose for which drawn is State dues, made payable to James R. Jones, endorsed James R. Jones, with a further endorsement, "For deposit only" at the Rowan Telephone Co., Inc.

The CHAIRMAN. What?

Mr. APPELL. A telephone company, incorporated, of Granite Quarry, but I cannot tell what the official and full name of the telephone company is.

The CHAIRMAN. For deposit to whose account?

Mr. APPELL. The telephone company account.

A check dated March 5, 1964, in the amount of $17.25, marked "Feb. Dues," deposited as a payment of a loan which Mr. and Mrs. Jones had at the Wachovia Bank and Trust Company, Salisbury, North Carolina; a check in the amount of $14.50 made payable to J. R. Jones for State dues, endorsed J. R. Jones, reendorsed for deposit to the account of the Suburban Printing Company; a check of August 24, 1964, to J. R. Jones, in the amount of $22, endorsed J. R. Jones, reendorsed for deposit in Suburban Printing Company; a check dated January 7, 1964, to James R. Jones, $16, N.C. tax.

I can make it clearer now, Mr. Chairman, the telephone company. It is endorsed James R. Jones, for deposit only to the account of the Eastern Rowan Telephone Company.

A check in the amount of $15 to J. R. Jones, dated December 11, 1963, the purpose for which drawn being State tax, endorsed J. R. Jones, with the further endorsement "Deposit Only Food Town #4, Salisbury, N.C."

A check dated November 6, 1963, in the amount of $15, endorsement of James R. Jones, and the second endorsement of an individual whose name cannot be read, but it shows it was not deposited into either of Mr. Jones' many bank accounts; a check dated October 9, 1963, payable to J. R. Jones, $13.50, State tax, endorsed J. R. Jones and further with the second endorsement of Jesse L. Corriher, who is an official of the Klavern to which Mr. Wilson belongs; a check dated September 18, 1963, to J. R. Jones, $12.50, N.C. tax endorsed J. R. Jones, reendorsed by Mrs. Melvin Barringer, and deposited to the account of Stillers & Son, General Store.

The CHAIRMAN. And the point you are making is what?

Mr. APPELL. The point I am making, Mr. Chairman, is that while we have three bank accounts of the United Klans of America, one of which includes the personal account of Mr. and Mrs. Jones, to whom we have established that tax money from Klaverns is deposited, that a detailed examination of those accounts does not reflect all of the money paid to Mr. Jones because, as is evident from this, some checks are cashed at other places for other purposes.

The CHAIRMAN. And do not go either to the Jones' personal account or the Klan account?

Mr. APPELL. Right, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Those, of course, would constitute income.

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. That is, if what you say is correct.

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Wilson, I now show you a check dated February 23, 1965, United Klans of America, in the amount of $57.99, with the purpose for which drawn not shown—

The CHAIRMAN. Before that, some of these checks, 16, I think, in number, were any or all or part of them signed by Mr. Wilson?

Mr. APPELL. Every one, Mr. Chairman, contained Mr. Wilson as one of the signators.

The CHAIRMAN. All right, Mr. Wilson, I ask you: Did you know that the checks which you signed and which are now exhibited and being offered for the record were used by Mr. Jones for purposes not connected with Klan activities?

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Wilson, I hand you this check dated February 23, 1965, United Klans of America being the organization listed on the line of "Pay to the Order of" and it is cosigned by Fred L. Wilson and W. R. McCubbins. I invite your attention to the reverse thereof where you find the endorsement "United Klans of America, Rowan Sportsmen's Club, Fred L. Wilson, Treasurer."

Wasn't this check a part of the deposit which closed out the old account in the name of the United Klans of America and used to start the new account in the name by which the Klavern is now known, namely, Rowan Sportsmen's Club?

(Check marked "Fred Wilson Exhibit No. 4" and retained in committee files.)

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Wilson, I hand you a total of seven checks—let me take them one at a time.

I hand you a check dated September 19, 1964, made payable to the order of Fred Wilson in the amount of $225, with the purpose for which drawn being reimbursement.

Can you advise the committee in what way you were reimbursed?

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I show you a check dated April 20, 1964, payable to Fred L. Wilson in the amount of $95.85, with the purpose for which drawn being "Building Fund." Was the $225 to you and this $95.85 a means whereby the Klavern reimbursed you for money which you advanced to permit them to buy a place in which the Klavern would hold its meetings?

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

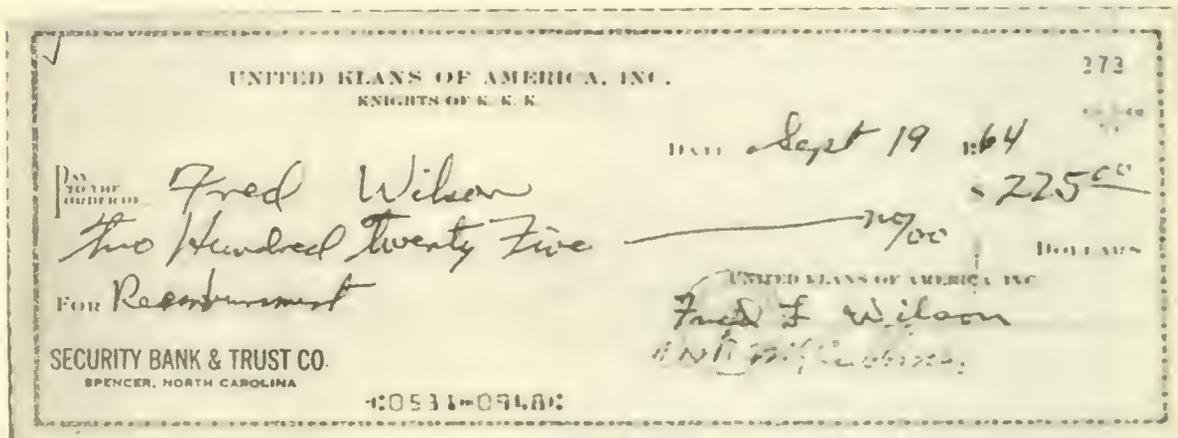

Mr. APPELL. There are five more checks, Mr. Wilson, payable to you either prior to the change of the name to the Rowan Sportsmen's Club and since the change. Would you examine these checks and advise the committee the purpose for which these checks were drawn payable to you?

(Documents handed to witness.)

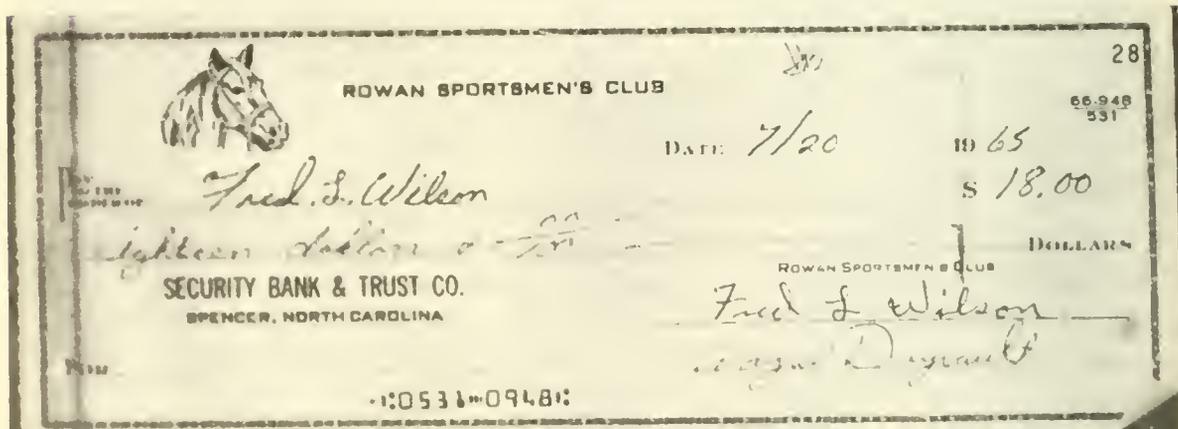

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Checks marked "Fred Wilson Exhibits Nos. 5-A through 5-G," respectively. Exhibits 5-A and 5-G follow; balance retained in committee files:)

FRED WILSON EXHIBIT NO. 5-A

FRED WILSON EXHIBIT NO. 5-G

The CHAIRMAN. Were these checks made payable to you and did you cash them for personal use or for Klan activities duly authorized?

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Wilson, early in the year 1965 a State meeting was held in North Carolina at which the officers, including yourself, were elected. It is the committee's information that Grand Dragon Jones, in the course of a discussion, brought up Raymond Mills, and the fact that he had been arrested in the bombings in New Bern.

I ask you if it is a fact, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that he reported that Mills had not been banished, and asked all units to help financially.

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Did he request at that same time that all moneys for the defense of Raymond Mills be sent to Mr. Grady Mars, General Delivery, Warrenton, North Carolina?

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Did you, on the date of April 20, 1965, on an imprinted check of the Rowan Sportsmen's Club, countersign the check along with Wayne Dayvault, in the amount of $26.60, made payable to Grady B. Mars, and the purpose for which paid marked as "Defence Fund"?

(Document handed to witness.)

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. WELTNER. What was the date of that check?

Mr. APPELL. April 20, 1965.

The CHAIRMAN. Do you know whether Grady Mars did, in fact, remit that amount to Mr. Mills for his defense to the incident he was involved in?

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. WELTNER. What was the date in 1965 when he was arrested?

Mr. APPELL. He was arrested on January 22, 1965, and I think the change of his plea in the trial to guilty was June 3.

Mr. Wilson, I read into the record this morning—

The CHAIRMAN. Wait a moment.

There will appear in the record, I know, that the check made payable to Grady B. Mars was simply endorsed "Grady B. Mars." It bears no other endorsement.

I am not informed as to what it was used for. Here is an opportunity, if you know, to say that Grady B. Mars used the money for the purposes intended. I might tell you, Mr. Wilson, that the committee has information that in certain instances, quite a few, so-called drives for defense funds were made and the funds not given to those accused.

If this is not such a situation, I welcome you to clarify it, if you wish to.

Do you wish to clarify it?

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Wilson, in the course of this morning's presentation there was an allusion made to the creation of an organization in the spring of 1959 known as the Black Shirts which later joined an organization headed by August W. Holman of Columbia, South Carolina, known as the Chessmen.

Were you a member of that organization, sir?

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Wilson, on the 28th day of May 1965, a cross was burned, as were many burned throughout the State of North Carolina on that day, at the Health Center in Salisbury. Do you possess any knowledge with respect to this cross-burning?

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. As a State officer, do you possess knowledge of any of the cross-burnings carried out on May 28, 1965?

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Are you acquainted with the Grand Dragon of South Carolina, Robert Scoggin?

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Isn't it a fact that you knew him to be the Grand Dragon for the Realm of South Carolina of the U.S. Klans under Imperial Wizard Eldon Edwards?

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Isn't it a fact that you now know him to be Grand Dragon of the Realm of South Carolina under Robert M. Shelton?

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I show you a photograph, the glossy print of one, which appeared in the Charlotte Observer of August 30, 1964, and I put it to you as a fact and ask you to affirm or deny the fact that the three men shown, excluding the man on the white horse or the robed horse, are James Robertson Jones, the Grand Dragon of the State of North Carolina; yourself, the treasurer or klabee of the Realm of North Carolina; and Robert Scoggin, although it is here with an s, S-c-o-g-g-i-n-s, the Grand Dragon for the Realm of South Carolina.

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Photograph marked "Fred Wilson Exhibit No. 7." This exhibit will be reproduced in a forth coming report on Ku Klux Klan organizations.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Wilson, without going over this again for the record, because it is already in the record, I wish to show you a report of funds made by Robert Marshall Kornegay relating to the Cadillac which the Klaverns financed and which Mr. Jones is now driving. I ask you to give me the identity of the secretary who transmitted the funds from each of the Klaverns enumerated on this list.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Jones got $33.25. To the Alabama Rescue Service you double that amount, $66.50, and at the rate of 25 cents per member on the realm level, or 50 cents per member on the imperial level, the membership of the Klavern as of the period that this covers was 133.

Mr. POOL. He wasn't trying to cheat the imperial realm; was he? Did he turn in the exact amount he should have, according to their rules?

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Pool, the treasurer of the Klavern has nothing to do with membership records and he draws the check payable on the basis of what the secretary, who maintains the membership records, advises him is due on the basis of membership.

Mr. POOL. There is no discrepancy at this point between the imperial and the state.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Wilson, are you also treasurer for the United Klans of America on a bank account maintained at the Farmers & Merchants Bank in the name of the United Klans of America, care of J. R. Jones?

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. When, as the record pointed out last week, there were two checks drawn against that account in payment for a truck, do you possess knowledge as to whether or not that truck was titled in the name of the United Klans of America, or in the name of J. R. Jones?

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Wilson, in light of the fact that you are the State treasurer, I give you an opportunity to comment upon a statement made to Roy Heddy, an agent of the Internal Revenue Service, who interviewed Mr. Shelton and Mr. Jones in August of 1965, wherein he was advised by them that the Realm of North Carolina is simply a geographical subdivision of the national charter and is used only to identify a given area, that is, the State of North Carolina. It is not an organization and has no funds, income, or expense; therefore, no returns are due.

Mr. WILSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, the staff has no further questions of this witness.

The CHAIRMAN. Would you step aside for a moment, Mr. Wilson, but remain in the room? We may call you back.

Mr. CHALMERS. Mr. Chairman, may I just state that my client informed me that he has a severe heart condition and has an appointment with a physician tomorrow with respect thereto. I would like to call that to the chairman's attention. I am certain that the chairman would want to accommodate him in any way possible.

The CHAIRMAN. I made that suggestion at the suggestion of Mr. Weltner, who said he may have some further interrogation.

Do you have further interrogation?

Mr. WELTNER. No, sir; I don't.

The CHAIRMAN. Then the witness will be excused and discharged from his subpoena.

Mr. CHALMERS. Thank you, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. I want to point out, however, Mr. Chalmers, that this is the first knowledge that the Chair or members of the staff have had concerning Mr. Wilson's condition. It has never been called to our attention before. I don't reproach you or anybody else. I am just stating that as a fact.

Mr. CHALMERS. That is correct, and I am certain that the Chair and no members of the committee had any knowledge of it, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Call your next witness, Mr. Appell.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to call Grady B. Mars.

The CHAIRMAN. Please raise your right hand.

You do solemnly swear that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mr. MARS. I do.

The CHAIRMAN. And his name is what?

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Mars.

The CHAIRMAN. Grady B. Mars.

Proceed.

TESTIMONY OF GRADY BURDELL MARS,¹ ACCOMPANIED BY COUNSEL, LESTER V. CHALMERS, JR.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Mars, will you state your full name for the record, please, sir?

Mr. MARS. Grady Burdell Mars.

Mr. APPELL. Would you spell your middle name?

Mr. MARS. B-u-r-d-e-l-l.

Mr. APPELL. As to the other two parts of your name, Grady and Mars, I spelled them properly, G-r-a-d-y, M-a-r-s?

Mr. MARS. That is correct, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Mars, are you appearing before the committee this afternoon in connection with a subpoena served upon you at 11:40 o'clock a.m. on the 11th day of October 1965?

Mr. MARS. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Are you represented by counsel?

Mr. MARS. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Will counsel identify himself for the record?

Mr. CHALMERS. I am Lester V. Chalmers, Jr., attorney at law, Room 501, First Federal Building, Raleigh, North Carolina.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Mars, when and where were you born?

Mr. MARS. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. I order and direct you to answer that question.

Mr. MARS. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Mars, do you receive a monthly income from the Government of the United States?

¹ According to the Washington Star of Dec. 15, 1965, Grady Mars committed suicide on Dec. 11 at his home in Granite Quarry, N.C.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Mars, under the conditions of the subpoena served upon you on October 11, 1964, you were commanded to bring with you and to produce for the committee documents which were set forth on an attachment which was made a part of the subpoena. Part 1 reads:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and affiliated organizations, namely, the Alabama Rescue Service, Realm (State) of North Carolina and New Bern and Blounts Creek Fund, in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by you or available to you as Grand Klaliff (Vice President), and employee Realm (State) of North Carolina and as an officer of the New Bern and Blounts Creek Fund of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

Mr. MARS. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents as demanded by the committee in a subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so, the same might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Chalmers, I take it that the stipulation which we have been entering into all along, namely (1) that the witness has been furnished a copy of the chairman's opening statement of October 19, 1965, and that he is familiar with its contents, and (2) that the direction of the subpoena to produce the documents called for was made to the witness in the official representative capacity described in the subpoena obtains and applies in this case and is hereby entered into between you and me?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. You, for your client, and me for the committee.

Mr. Mars, I order and direct you to produce the documents testified to, those contained in the subpoena.

Mr. MARS. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee under the subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents as demanded by this committee in the subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so, the same might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Mars, under part 2 of the subpoena which under the conditions of the subpoena you were to bring with you and produce there are set forth:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by or available to you, in your capacity as Grand Klaliff (Vice President) and employee Realm (State) of North Carolina of the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, which the "Constitution and Laws" of said organization authorize and require to be maintained by you and any other officer of said organization, the same being in your possession, custody or control.

I now ask that you produce those documents.

Mr. MARS. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation, and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents as demanded by the committee in the subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so, the same might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Chalmers, is it understood that the stipulation we made a moment ago in two parts applies to this part of the demands of the subpoena?

Mr. CHALMERS. It certainly is; yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. I order and direct you to produce those documents.

Mr. MARS. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents as demanded by the committee in a subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so, the same might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Mars, on July 20, 1965, James R. Jones, signing himself Grand Dragon, North Carolina, filed a domestic corporation franchise tax for the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc.

This document requires a listing of officers and there is listed by Mr. Jones, in Mr. Jones' hand, James R. Jones, Granite Quarry; G. B.

Mars, Warrenton, North Carolina; D. E. Leazer, Salisbury, North Carolina; F. L. Wilson, Salisbury, North Carolina.

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that these are current officers of the United Klans of America, Realm of North Carolina.

(Document handed to witness.)

Mr. MARS. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

(Document previously marked "James Jones Exhibit No. 2." See pp. 1710-1711.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Mars, I hand you checks imprinted with United Klans of America, Inc., P.O. Box 321, Granite Quarry, North Carolina, each in the amount of $150, dated June 4, June 14, 18, 26; July 5, 10, 16, 23; August 2, 6, 14, 20, 28; September 3, 10, 17; 16 checks at $150 each marked salary and expenses, a total of $2400.

These are payable to Grady B. Mars. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that these checks were payable to you as a paid employee of the Realm of North Carolina.

Mr. MARS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. I take it that you reported these checks on your individual income tax.

Mr. MARS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Mars, I hand you back two of these checks and ask you if you can explain to the committee why—

The CHAIRMAN. I am sorry, but it has been called to my attention that these checks were dated in 1965 and are not reportable, therefore, until next year. But take my advice and report them next year.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Mars, I shall hand you back two of these checks, one dated July 5, 1965, which contains as the first endorsement "Grady B. Mars" and the second endorsement "Syble Jones," and the check of August 2, 1965, payable to Grady Mars, containing the first endorsement "Grady B. Mars" and the second endorsement "J. R. Jones."

I ask you if you can explain to the committee why those checks are so endorsed.

(Documents handed to witness.)

Mr. MARS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I hand you a check dated April 24, 1965, drawn on the Davidson County Sportsman Club, Lexington, North Carolina, made payable to cash in the amount of $25.00, endorsed "Grady B. Mars, New Bern & Blounts Creek Fund."

Mr. MARS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Check marked "Grady Mars Exhibit No. 2" appears on p. 1951.)

Mr. APPELL. I show you a check drawn, according to the face of the check, by the Harnett County Improvement Association, dated April 6, 1965, made payable to Grady B. Mars, $100, with the endorsement "Grady B. Mars."

I ask you whether that was a contribution to the Mills Defense Fund and if it was in fact deposited to that account.

Mr. MARS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Check marked "Grady Mars Exhibit No. 3" appears on p. 1952.)

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Mars, I notice that this check made payable to you was endorsed "Grady B. Mars." You could have cashed it, deposited it to cash, in the Defense Fund, or you could have cashed it and handed the cash to Mr. Mills.

Did you do either or did you keep the money?

Mr. MARS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, we subpoenaed from the First National Bank in Henderson, North Carolina, the records which appeared in an account known only by the name of the Keystone Club, with the co-signers to the account James R. Ranes and Robert L. Reaves.

The Henderson Bank did not have available to it the equipment necessary to reproduce the checks by the Recordak system. They therefore made an individual search and presented us with a series of checks drawn against this account which they certify to be accurate.

One of the checks is dated April 15, 1965, and it is payable to Grady B. Mars, according to the bank, in the amount of $20.00, and contains only the endorsement "Grady B. Mars." I ask you what disposition was made of that $20.00, Mr. Mars?

Mr. MARS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Check marked "Grady Mars Exhibit No. 4" appears on p. 1953.)

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Appell, that check has no bank stamp on it?

Mr. APPELL. As an individual certification?

Mr. WELTNER. No; bank stamp.

Mr. APPELL. Do you mean the stamp by which the check was deposited, how it got through the system?

Mr. WELTNER. How did that happen to have apparently no bank stamp on the reverse side of the check?

Mr. APPELL. On most of the checks we have received, the bank has taken a film on which the canceled check appears, and has reproduced copies from the film, from the Recordak film.

The Henderson bank was not equipped to do this. Therefore, they made an individual examination of all the items, the debit items, in the account of the Keystone and made up copies which they in transmittal certify to be the copies of the checks drawn against that account.

Mr. WELTNER. So what you have here is simply a conforming copy of the check that cleared through.

Mr. APPELL. That is correct, sir.

Mr. Mars, did you in fact open an account with The Citizens Bank, Warrenton, North Carolina, their branch at the Arcola Rural Station in the name of the New Bern and Blounts Creek Fund?

April 26

Mr. MARS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. While this account contained both the names of Grady B. Mars and James R. Jones, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the signature of Mr. Jones was never added to the signature card.

Mr. MARS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, the records subpoenaed from the bank show that the account was opened with a deposit—

The CHAIRMAN. What is the name of the account?

Mr. APPELL. The New Bern and Blounts Creek Fund.

The CHAIRMAN. What do you make that to be? Do you know? In other words, to be frank about it, do you assume this to be, perhaps, the Mills Defense Fund?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir; because as we put into the record last week, a check was drawn against this account in the amount of $260 which, according to the bank, contains a notation "90 day note, Lonnie R. Mills."

The CHAIRMAN. All right.

Mr. APPELL. The deposit slip furnished us reflects that with the initial deposit of April 26, 1965, there was deposited cash in the amount of $57.45; a check of $20.00 designated "Henderson"; $25.00, Beulaville; $25.00, Dunn; $100, Dunn; $42.11, Fountain, North Carolina; $26.60, Spencer, North Carolina; $25.00, Williamston, North Carolina; making a total deposit of $321.16.

The CHAIRMAN. And what withdrawals?

Mr. APPELL. May I deal with all the deposits first?

The CHAIRMAN. All right.

Mr. APPELL. On May 3 there was deposited the amount of $137.00, consisting of three checks. I am sorry I cannot read the first location in North Carolina, $50.00; Durham, North Carolina, $57.00; Wilmington, North Carolina, $30.00.

A deposit of May 11, consisting of one or more checks—it is impossible to tell from the deposit slip—totaling $50.00.

A deposit of May 13, 1965, currency in the amount of $62.00, and a deposit on June 1, 1965, three checks, each in the amount of $25.00.

According to the bank records, the check in the amount of $57.00 which was deposited on May 3, 1965, bounced for insufficient funds.

I hand you again this check, Mr. Mars (Grady Mars Exhibit No. 3), and ask you if this $100.00 which you received from the Harnett County Improvement Association is the item contained on the initial deposit of April 26 from Dunn marked $100?

Mr. MARS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

(Bank records marked "Grady Mars Exhibit No. 5" and retained in committee files.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, the bank records show, and these records are in the process of being filmed so that we will have the actual item for the record, that as far as withdrawals from this account there were only two. One was a check dated May 3, 1965, which appears to have been made payable to "Wachovia Bank & Trust," signed by Grady B. Mars, with a notation thereon "90 day note, Lonnie R. Mills, Rt. 2, Vanceboro, N.C." (James Jones Exhibit No. 28, p. 1766.)

There was no other withdrawal from that account until September 9, 1965, when a check was drawn by Mr. Grady B. Mars, and, as the notation from the bank shows, a cashier's check was drawn in the amount of $328.16, and the purpose for which the check was drawn was to close out the account.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Mars, here is an opportunity to explain all that. We have no tricks up our sleeves. Did all that money go to Mills?

Mr. MARS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. On the face of it all, it looks like at least—how much?

Mr. APPELL. $260, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. At least one check for $260 drawn against that account appears, instead of having been given to Mr. Mills for his defense, to have been given to him in exchange for his note.

It looks very bad, unless you explain it. Can you explain that?

Mr. MARS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, Lonnie R. Mills is not the defendant but a relative of the defendant.

The CHAIRMAN. The Mills indicated there is not the defendant?

Mr. APPELL. He is a relative of the defendant, Mr. Chairman.

Mr. WELTNER. The defendant's name is Raymond D. Mills.

The CHAIRMAN. That seems to make it worse.

Go on.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Mars, by September 5, 1965, Mr. Mills had changed his original not guilty plea to guilty, and had been sentenced by the court. Was the $328 which, according to the bank records, a cashier's check was drawn for, was that $328 refunded to the Klaverns that had advanced the money?

Mr. MARS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. What disposition was made of the $328.16?

Mr. MARS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Mars, I think you better assume we will find out the whole truth about this thing. Here is another opportunity for you to explain, if you want to. Do you want to avail yourself of my new offer for you to explain these transactions?

Mr. MARS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. According to a joint bank account maintained in the names of Grady B. and Mary J. Mars, maintained by The Citizens Bank of Warrenton, North Carolina, we find that on May 8, 1964, a check was drawn against this private account to Bob Jones in the amount of $48.00.

Will you advise the committee as to the purpose for which that check was drawn?

Mr. MARS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. On June 5, 1964, a check was made payable to James R. Jones for $16.00. Would you advise the committee the purpose for which that check was drawn?

Mr. MARS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Check marked "Grady Mars Exhibit No. 7" and retained in committee files.)

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Appell, I take it from your analysis of the deposits made in the account, before we move away from it, the account furnished to us by the bank is not in such a shape that you can identify the checks that went into it, and that is why you questioned him about these checks payable to him and simply endorsed? There is no way of checking where the checks that went into that account came from and who deposited them; is that correct?

Mr. APPELL. That is right, Mr. Chairman. We do not have the information.

The CHAIRMAN. All right.

Mr. APPELL. On August 25 there was a check written to James R. Jones in the amount of $16.00. For what purpose was that check drawn?

Mr. MARS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Check marked "Grady Mars Exhibit No. 8" and retained in committee files.)

Mr. APPELL. On January 11, 1965, there was a check payable to Carolina Insurance Agency in the amount of $14.50. Did you take out an insurance policy under the affiliated group of the Capital City Restoration Association?

Mr. MARS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Mars, were you, prior to becoming a paid employee of the Realm of North Carolina, the exalted cyclops of a Klavern known as the Warren County Improvement Association?

Mr. MARS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, the Warren County Improvement Association maintains its account at The Peoples Bank in Norlina, North Carolina.

According to vice president of this bank it was impossible for them to even look, to make searches of their records, and they submitted us only those items which they had on hand. They consist of a check payable to J. R. Jones in the amount of $12.00, dated July 24, 1965, signed by Andrew F. Collins and David A. Hight.

Do you know those gentlemen to be officers of the Harnett County Improvement Association?

Mr. MARS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "Grady Mars Exhibit No. 10" and retained in committee files.)

Mr. APPELL. I ask that the record be corrected to the Warren County Improvement Association.

Mr. Mars, during the course of the committee's investigation it was indicated that you had in your possession or available to you incendiary material. Is this information obtained during our investigation true or false?

Mr. MARS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. I think I ought to state for the record that according to what the investigator tells me, and Mr. Appell used the term "incendiary material," that that is the information that came to us, from the information received from the State Bureau of Investigation of North Carolina.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, the staff has no further questions to ask of this witness.

The CHAIRMAN. The witness is excused and is discharged from his subpoena.

Mr. CHALMERS. Thank you.

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Chairman, I have one question to pose to Mr. Appell, if I might, to somewhat recap this.

Mr. Appell, as I understand, you have placed documents into the record indicating a total of $588.16 which was deposited in the New Bern account, and $260 of that was withdrawn indicating a 90-day loan to Lonnie R. Mills, and $328.16 was withdrawn in September 1965. We have no indication of what disposition was made of a cashier's check when that was withdrawn?

Mr. APPELL. As of this time we do not have any information.

Mr. WELTNER. So far as you have been able to determine, the check is still outstanding?

Mr. APPELL. No, sir; the check drawn against the account was used to purchase the cashier's check.

Mr. WELTNER. Is the cashier's check still outstanding?

Mr. APPELL. We do not possess the knowledge. We have requested the information but it is not forthcoming as yet, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. Thank you.

The CHAIRMAN. The committee will stand in recess for 5 minutes.

(Whereupon, at 4:30 p.m. the subcommittee recessed and reconvened at 4:35 p.m. Present at time of recess and when hearings resumed: Representatives Willis, Pool, Weltner, and Buchanan.)

The CHAIRMAN. The committee will stand in recess until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

(Subcommittee members present at time of recess: Representatives Willis, Pool, Weltner, and Buchanan.)

(Whereupon, at 4:35 p.m., Monday, October 25, 1965, the subcommittee recessed. to reconvene at 10 a.m., Tuesday, October 26, 1965.)

Part 2

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1965

UNITED STATES HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
SUBCOMMITTEE OF THE
COMMITTEE ON UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES,
Washington, D.C.

PUBLIC HEARINGS

The subcommittee of the Committee on Un-American Activities met, pursuant to recess, at 10:15 a.m. in the Caucus Room, Cannon House Office Building, Washington, D.C., Hon. Edwin E. Willis (chairman) presiding.

(Subcommittee members: Representatives Edwin E. Willis, of Louisiana, chairman; Joe R. Pool, of Texas; Charles L. Weltner, of Georgia; John M. Ashbrook, of Ohio; and John H. Buchanan, Jr., of Alabama.)

Subcommittee members present: Representatives Willis, Pool, Weltner, and Ashbrook.

Committee member also present: Representative George F. Senner, Jr., of Arizona.

Staff members present: Francis J. McNamara, director; William Hitz, general counsel; Alfred M. Nittle, counsel; Donald T. Appell, chief investigator; and Philip R. Manuel, investigator.

The CHAIRMAN. The subcommittee will come to order.

The Chair wishes to make this statement:

Yesterday, Mr. Robert Shelton held a press conference during which he made certain statements about the committee's chief investigator, Mr. Appell. I advised Mr. Appell that, personally, I would not dignify these statements with a reply. He, however, so resented the charges that he asked to be permitted to refute them under oath, and as a single member talking to him, I did not wish to deny him that without further reflection.

The committee met this morning, reviewed the pertinent sections of Mr. Shelton's interrogation, expressed its confidence in the fairness with which Mr. Appell had interrogated Mr. Shelton, and decided that Mr. Shelton's statement was obviously designed to divert attention from the facts about his Klan organization developed by the committee and that it should not be dignified by the taking of testimony in answer to it.

An examination of the hearing record reveals, for example, that the charge that Mr. Appell tried to make it appear that Mr. Shelton's diamond ring had been paid for with Alabama Rescue Service funds is completely false. Mr. Appell simply asked Mr. Shelton what certain checks made payable to Lorch's Diamond Shop were for, and when Mr. Manuel was on the stand and introduced checks payable to Lorch's Diamond Shop in the sum of $469.92, he was asked by a member if he had any information on what these were in payment for, and whether they might be for Mr. Shelton's diamond ring.

Mr. Manuel replied under oath "No, sir."

Those are the exact words from the public record of the interrogation. The transcript of that interrogation is available in the committee's office, Room 226, for any member of the press—or anyone else—to examine if they so desire.

I will mention just one other statement made by Mr. Shelton. He claimed that on the evening of his appearance before the committee, he was in a dining room of the Congressional Hotel when Mr. Appell spoke to him, offered him "a half-hearted apology" for the manner in which he had been treated, and then said to him, "We know that you are clean and have not been taking Klan money or failing to report your income."

Mr. Appell has informed the committee that he has never made any such statement to Mr. Shelton, either in the dining room of the Congressional Hotel or anywhere else.

The committee has complete confidence in Mr. Appell's statement.

As far as the other charges made by Mr. Shelton are concerned, I repeat that this interrogation is a matter of public record and that the record is available for inspection by anyone in the committee office. That record refutes his allegations.

In my opening statement I pointed out that this was a legislative inquiry. If the Invisible Empires of the Klans did not try to keep their activities secret and their operations were generally known, there would be no need for this inquiry. Shelton was given a chance to answer many questions about the matters he raised yesterday and about the United Klans of America. He refused, invoking the fifth amendment.

I have nothing further to say on this subject except that, in due time, Mr. Shelton will have another opportunity to explain, under oath, these and other facets of his activities.

Proceed, Mr. Appell.

MR. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to call as the first witness Marion W. Millis.

THE CHAIRMAN. Please raise your right hand.

Do you solemnly swear that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

MR. MILLIS. I do.

TESTIMONY OF MARION W. MILLIS

MR. APPELL. Would you state your full name for the record, please, sir?

MR. MILLIS. Marion W. Millis.

MR. APPELL. When and where were you born, sir?

MR. MILLIS. I was born November 26, 1915, in Wilmington, North Carolina.

Mr. APPELL. Would you briefly outline for the committee your educational background?

The CHAIRMAN. Ask if he is represented by counsel.

Mr. APPELL. I am sorry.

Are you represented by counsel?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Do you desire counsel?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. That is just for the record.

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Would you state your educational background, please, sir?

Mr. MILLIS. Tenth grade.

Mr. APPELL. Would you state your employment background?

Mr. MILLIS. I have been in law enforcement almost 25 years. I served on the city police, Wilmington City Police Department, for almost 10.

The CHAIRMAN. What town?

Mr. MILLIS. Wilmington, North Carolina. I came on the sheriff's department, and came back as deputy and then chief deputy. I ran for sheriff 7 years ago against nine opponents. I was elected the first day.

Mr. APPELL. Are you currently sheriff?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. What is your jurisdiction as sheriff?

Mr. MILLIS. To maintain law and order in the county.

Mr. APPELL. The geographical.

Mr. MILLIS. The chief officer of the county.

Mr. APPELL. The geographical boundaries of what county?

Mr. MILLIS. New Hanover.

Mr. APPELL. Sheriff Millis, there appeared in the Wilmington Morning Star of September 1, 1964, a statement issued by the North Carolina State Bureau of Investigation to the effect that New Hanover County is the home of one of North Carolina's most powerful Ku Klux Klan organizations. As sheriff of New Hanover County, what knowledge do you possess of the extent of Ku Klux Klan activities within your county?

Mr. MILLIS. At this time with reference to the membership, amount, and so forth?

Mr. APPELL. Pick it up at whatever time you desire, sir, in order to give the committee the benefit of your knowledge.

Mr. MILLIS. A couple of years ago I heard rumors there was Klan meetings in various places in the city. I was unable to pinpoint anything. One day Mr. Joe Johnson, he is a deputy of mine, called me and said they were going to have a Klan meeting in the union hall on 4th Street. He said he wanted to go and see what it was all about.

I first told him I didn't think it would be a good idea to go. He said, "Well, we may be able to get some inside information."

I said, "Well, we will get a few of us and we will go up and see what we can find out. We will look on."

WILMINGTON MORNING STAR - 9/1/64

New Hanover Klan One Of Strongest: SBI

By ARNOLD KIRK
Staff Writer

New Hanover County is the home of one of North Carolina's most powerful Ku Klux Klan organizations, the State Bureau of Investigation (SBI) revealed Monday.

An SBI spokesman said the local Klan unit is the largest in Southeastern North Carolina and among the state's top four KKK klaverns.

Resident Agent William S. Hunt believes the New Hanover County Klavern has a membership of more than 250, including some members in nearby Brunswick County. It meets regularly, although surveillance by state and local law enforcement agencies has forced the Klan to periodically change its meeting place.

Unlike most other Klan units, the SBI agent revealed, the local unit boasts of members from nearly all walks of the county's business and civic life. He said respected businessmen and professional people are reportedly supporting the Klan, financially and otherwise.

But despite its many members who are considered as being "respected" in the community, Hunt continued, the majority of those who claim membership in the local Klan may be classified as "rabble-rousers and poorly-educated whites who have turned to the Klan in hopes of maintaining some degree of authority over their darker brethren."

The rebirth of the Ku Klux Klan in New Hanover County began late last fall, the agent remarked, and has mushroomed only recently into one of North Carolina's largest and most influential klaverns. Its early meetings were open to the public, but owing mainly to publicity adverse to the Klan's cause, newsmen and other spectators have been barred from the most recent meetings.

For the past several months, the Klan has been meeting each

Thursday night in a small, ramshackle building just off U. S. Highway 17 northeast of Wilmington.

Topics of discussion of local Klan meetings, according to Hunt, touch on a wide variety of subjects ranging from national politics to local issues. But the discussions always are centered around the Klan's traditional topic — segregation and white supremacy, the agent said.

Some Klan meetings are in the form of "ladies night" affairs and outings that cater to the children of Klansmen. Hunt said he has been informed that the local unit has developed to such an extent as to have a ladies' auxiliary or similar organization composed of Klansmen's wives.

As in most of the other 51 North Carolina counties with active Klan organizations, Hunt explained, the local unit has adopted a secondary name under which it operates in matters requiring a more civil appeal. In such cases here, the Klan is known as the New Hanover County Development Association," the agent revealed.

Several members of the "association" attended a July 20 meeting of the County School Board at which school desegregation was discussed.

Klansmen in Brunswick County have organized under the name of "Supply Improvement Association," Hunt said, and the KKK in Pender County prefers to be known as the "Pender County Improvement Association."

Insofar as the law is concerned, the Ku Klux Klan is entirely legal. Regulations governing its operation, however, have deprived the Klan of much of the freedom it once enjoyed through secrecy.

According to the SBI, Klansmen must not wear hoods over their faces, although they are allowed to wear robes. As another weapon against Klan activities, the law declares that it is illegal to burn a cross, or even display a photograph of a burning cross, if such an act is intended to intimidate a person.

Although the Klan in New Hanover County has reached a high level of membership, Hunt continued, its activities have been all but nil. He said the SBI is "reasonably assured" the KKK was responsible for a cross burned earlier this summer on the courthouse lawn, but it lacked sufficient evidence to assure conviction.

Reports that some members of the local Klan carry firearms also have been added to the SBI's growing portfolio of the New Hanover County klavern.

Klan activities here, as well as elsewhere throughout the state, are being closely watched by the SBI and local law enforcement agencies. And although the local Klan has taken extraordinary precautions to keep the names of its members a secret, the SBI has what it believes is a "fairly accurate" membership list.

Persons who regularly attend KKK meetings would be subject to immediate examination should the Klan violate the law in New Hanover County, the SBI agent warned.

The state agency, in addition to local officers, will be particularly scrutinous of the Klan this fall when New Hanover County schools lower their racial barriers.

As for the future, the Ku Klux Klan in New Hanover County is destined to one of two fates, in the opinion of the State Bureau of Investigation:

"Klan activities will either die down as a result of the recent Civil Rights bill," Hunt predicted, "or it could mushroom into a more powerful organization. We will just have to wait and see what will happen."

We did. We got up there, and Mr. Bob Jones, he was in the union hall. I would say there was between 50 and 60 people there in the union hall.

Mr. APPELL. May I interrupt you here, sir, and ask approximately when this was?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; I don't have the date. I could get the date back home, but I don't have it.

Mr. APPELL. Would this be 1963?

Mr. MILLIS. I think so.

Mr. APPELL. This union hall to which you are referring, where was it located?

Mr. MILLIS. Fourth and Castle Streets in Wilmington, North Carolina, on the corner, an upstairs room.

(At this point Representative Buchanan entered the hearing room.)

Mr. APPELL. Do you know what union had jurisdiction over this hall?

Mr. MILLIS. I think a carpenters' union is one, as far as I know.

Mr. APPELL. This was an AFL-CIO union?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir; I think so. They used the hall—different ones at different times.

Mr. APPELL. Will you describe to the committee the scene of this meeting at the time you and Mr. Johnson and, I think you said, one or two others—

Mr. MILLIS. I can give you the names of the deputies. I believe you talked to me yesterday.

Mr. Joseph E. Johnson, Charles D. Goodwin—they were there. Mike McDonald.

The CHAIRMAN. When you say "they were there," you mean they were there before you got there?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. If I might interrupt you, Sheriff Millis, the reporter will not be able to get these names as you read them unless you will pronounce them slowly and in some cases give us the spellings, sir.

Mr. MILLIS. The first one is Joseph E. Johnson.

Mr. APPELL. J-o-h-n-s-o-n?

Mr. MILLIS. J-o-s-e-p-h J-o-h-n-s-o-n.

R. A. Jarrell.

O. F. Waters.

I don't think you had Mike McDonald on your original list. You did have Mr. Blandon, but he was not there. You had Mr. Bridges, but he was not at the meeting.

Mr. APPELL. You mentioned that it was brought to your attention that there was going to be this Klan meeting at the union hall.

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. And that you ought to go over and get some knowledge about it?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir; that is correct.

Mr. APPELL. At the time you arrived, was the meeting in progress?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; most of them were in the hall, but they hadn't opened up.

Mr. APPELL. They hadn't started?

Mr. MILLIS. They hadn't started.

Mr. APPELL. Will you take it from there and describe what happened that evening as far as you observed?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir. Mr. Jones had another man with him. I don't remember his name. I hadn't seen him before or since. Mr. Jones started talking about the Klan. He said it was the United Klan of America. He said it was a legal organization. He said it had no marks against it whatsoever. He said it was a new Klan and they didn't tolerate any violence. He had a charter there and showed the charter.

The man that was with him went down to his car and got a robe, a green robe, and brought it back up. Mr. Jones showed it to the group and he put the robe on. Then the next person that had anything to say I believe was Colonel McClellan.

Mr. APPELL. Could you give us Colonel McClellan's full name?

Mr. MILLIS. It is Royce, R-o-y-c-e.

Mr. APPELL. Spell his last name, please.

Mr. MILLIS. I think it is M-c-C-l-e-l-l-a-n.

Mr. APPELL. Also being there was Colonel Royce McClellan. By this time, had the meeting started?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, it had. Not the closed meeting. This was an open meeting. This part was completely open. He stood up and give his views on it, that he had checked into it and it was legal, the organization was, and as far as the charter was concerned, he thought it was in order. That is about all I recall him saying at that time.

I think there were some questions asked by various people in the audience. Then Mr. Jones stood up and said, "If anybody is here that don't want to join the organization, if you want to join you are welcome to, or you can leave."

One man spoke for a group and said, "If we don't join now, can we join later?" And he said, "Yes, you can." So a group there, I would say maybe 20 or 25, something like that, were there, and we began to look at one another, the deputies and so forth, and we decided to stay and see what happened in the meeting.

The door was closed, and this man with Mr. Jones stood by the door. Mr. Jones administered the oath. No deputies left. I was in there with these six deputies.

Mr. APPELL. You and the six deputies were still there when the oath was administered.

Mr. MILLIS. We were still there when the oath was administered. Some of them began to talk and wanted to know if they couldn't call it something else other than the Klan. So they decided to call it the New Hanover Improvement Association. That is where that name first started from, right there. They agreed. They said, "Well, in order to elect officers, I believe we will have to have the charter under that, in order to elect our officers officially."

It was just a tentative thing, just temporary, until they decided what to do. They asked me to be the treasurer, and I didn't say anything. I just told them I couldn't do it, that I just had to turn it down completely. A Mr. T. R. Watkins, they elected him as president of the organization.

Mr. APPELL. May I interrupt you there, sir, to ask whether it is Mr. Watkins senior or junior who was elected president?

Mr. MILLIS. This was junior.

Mr. APPELL. Can you give advice as to who was elected as the treasurer?

Mr. MILLIS. Mr. T. R. Watkins, Sr., the best I know. I wasn't there when he was elected, but I understood he did take the job as the treasurer.

Mr. APPELL. This charter that was displayed by Mr. Jones which was declared by Colonel McClellan to be a legal charter, was this a charter drawn in the name of the United Klans of America? Did it have that on the charter?

Mr. MILLIS. The best I recall, that was the words that was on it, "United Klans of America." I believe they said "incorporated." I am not sure about that last.

The CHAIRMAN. A little louder.

Mr. MILLIS. I believe it said "United Klans of America, Inc.," but I am not sure about the "incorporated." It was mentioned, anyway.

Mr. APPELL. Did you happen to observe on this charter whether it had been executed to show that a charter had been issued to a group in New Hanover County, given some numerical designation?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; there was nothing pertaining to New Hanover County about it. That is when they give it the name New Hanover Improvement Association, and then they were going to have a charter drawn.

Mr. APPELL. Did you happen to note the number designation of the group, even though the name might not have been there?

Mr. MILLIS. On the charter?

Mr. APPELL. Yes.

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; I don't recall that. There was quite a bit of reading. They read it at the meeting, but I don't recall it.

Mr. APPELL. Sheriff, I hand you a series of oaths. This is not in the same format that is used, but this was reprinted by us in order to have a quantity. I ask you to examine these and see if these are the series of oaths which were taken by the men that night.

Mr. MILLIS. The best I can recall, it seems to be. I couldn't say about every word, but it is something of that order.

(Document previously marked "Robert Shelton Exhibit No. 4.")

The CHAIRMAN. It is substantially the oath?

Mr. MILLIS. It appears to be. I have never read it before, but I heard the best I could when he was mentioning it.

Mr. APPELL. Sheriff, I would also ask you to look at pages 2 and 3.

Mr. MILLIS. That sounds like it.

Mr. APPELL. Did you also look at page 3, sir?

Mr. MILLIS. I believe that is it. It seems to be, the best I can recall. I believe that is as near as I can recall.

Mr. APPELL. This series of oaths that you believe, without being able to remember the verbatim contents of them, was the series of oaths which you subscribed to?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. About how many others took it?

Mr. MILLIS. How many were in the room at that time?

The CHAIRMAN. Yes.

Mr. MILLIS. Approximately 35.

Mr. APPELL. I would like to ask you whether there remained in the room and also subscribed to this series of oaths the men from your department who you named were there, namely, Joe E. Johnson—

Mr. MILLIS. He was there; yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Charles D. Goodwin—

Mr. MILLIS. That is right.

Mr. APPELL. Mike McDonald—

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Shelby Russ—

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. And R. A. Jarrell.

Mr. MILLIS. That is correct. And O. F. Waters.

Mr. APPELL. O. F. Waters?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. In addition to Mr. Watkins, Jr., who became president, and Mr. Watkins, Sr., who became treasurer, what other men were elected to office within this Klan group which became known as the New Hanover County Improvement Association?

Mr. MILLIS. A man by the name of Skinner. I don't know his initials. I never have known his initials. He runs a barbecue place in New Hanover County.

Mr. APPELL. What is Mr. Skinner's—

Mr. MILLIS. He was the vice president, I think. He was the vice president.

Mr. APPELL. Are you familiar with the positions in Klan terms? The vice president is known as the klaliff.

Mr. MILLIS. I have heard them, but I don't know just how they would come in order.

Mr. APPELL. Did you know him—Mr. Skinner—to later become the exalted cyclops of the unit, or the president?

Mr. MILLIS. Mr. Skinner?

Mr. APPELL. Yes.

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Can you recall others?

Mr. MILLIS. If you want me to, I can tell you what happened from this meeting on.

Mr. APPELL. Please do, in your own way, Sheriff.

Mr. MILLIS. After this meeting was over, the next day one of the men was in the union hall, he was not in the meeting but on the outside, in a small office as you leave the door, and he came to me and said someone had notified the union that he had allowed the meeting to be held in the union hall, which is against their rules, and said he was about to lose his job.

Mr. APPELL. Was that Mr. Florio?

Mr. MILLIS. I don't know. There were two gentlemen there. One of them had glasses on. This was a large man, gray headed, with a little scar somewhere on his face.

I asked him who rented the building and he said a painter. I believe this man he was talking about would be Raymond Chadwick.

Mr. APPELL. Is that Raymond or Warren?

Mr. MILLES. Warren Chadwick came later.

Mr. APPELL. Raymond Chadwick?

Mr. MILLIS. Raymond Chadwick.

Mr. APPELL. Please continue.

Mr. MILLIS. It appeared then that they wouldn't be able to meet there any more, from my conversation with him. A couple of weeks later I heard they would meet at the Elberg Motel. They had a meeting hall there. They said Mr. Shelton would be there. In fact, we found out 2 days before that he was supposed to be there.

I went out there and everybody was milling around the room. I stayed a period of time and I left. I seen Mr. Shelton there. I didn't meet him; I didn't speak to him. What happened at that meeting, I don't know. I heard Mr. Watkins that night, and this was supposed to have been the second meeting, said he had sickness in his family and did not want to be in charge of the group; that he would like to resign. That is the information that came to me.

Then for some time, the information kept coming back to me that he was able to have a meeting, and the deputies would come to me and report to me what was going on. After then the best I can recall, was a man who worked at Sears, Roebuck Company. I don't think he kept it over a night, the best I can recall. Then there was Mr. C. R. Williams. I understand he had it a night or two, just temporary. It wasn't a permanent thing.

Mr. APPELL. We are talking about the presidents succeeding Mr. Watkins, Jr.?

Mr. MILLIS. That is true. The next I understand was a Mr. Burnett.

Mr. APPELL. Is that B-u-r-n-e-y?

Mr. MILLIS. B-u-r-n-e-t-t. I don't know his first name. I know the man when I see him. I think he was involved in some union activity. I heard he had been.

The next time I heard anything about anyone taking over, it was Warren Chadwick.

Mr. APPELL. You mentioned earlier Raymond Chadwick. What is the relationship, if any?

Mr. MILLIS. Raymond Chadwick, I understand that he didn't want him in. At the second meeting they told him they didn't want him in the organization.

Mr. APPELL. But I asked you what is the relationship between Raymond Chadwick and Warren Chadwick.

Mr. MILLIS. I don't think there is any that I know of. I don't think there is any.

Going back to the first meeting, I understand Mr. Skinner didn't attend any more. That was the last meeting he went to. Then Warren Chadwick, I received information that he had become president.

Mr. R. A. Jarrell, he was, that night, the first night, elected the chaplain. He came to me a few days later and said he would rather have somebody else to take his place, and just go ahead and leave us.

The CHAIRMAN. A little louder, please.

Mr. MILLIS. I said, "Well, eventually, that is what I want all of you to do, as soon as we find out everything we can; see that there is no violence or anything. I want everybody to pull out completely."

I think Mr. Jarrell attended two or three meetings. I think he missed the first meeting and the next two I think he attended.

I think not too long after then they had a rally. I believe it was just maybe a couple of months that they had a rally on the Market Street Road. That would be Highway 17 north of Wilmington, North Carolina.

The highway patrol called me and I talked to them about it and discussed having men there, and we were concerned about the yards and driveways and so forth, that someone may be parking in. Some of the deputies went inside the grounds. The general public was invited, people from all walks of life being there. Some officials of the county were there just observing the meeting.

I would say there was 1,500 to 2,000 people there in the cars. Some were in cars that didn't get out. Some men were over on the hill and you could see them who had on some robes. They did some talking. Mr. Shelton did some talking. After a while they began to play "The Old Rugged Cross" and they came down and one man came forward and ignited it.

The CHAIRMAN. Ignited the cross?

Mr. MILLIS. Ignited the cross; yes, sir. And they threw torches at the base of it. That was a public display.

Mr. APPELL. Did you attend this meeting?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir; I went to that meeting to observe, with the other officers that were present, including the highway patrol.

Mr. APPELL. I have two circulars, one announcing that there will be a public rally on May 2, 1964, 6 miles north of Wilmington, North Carolina, 6 miles north on U.S. 17. The second one, the rally of June 12, 4 miles north of Wilmington in the Green Meadows section. Which of these are you referring to, sir?

Mr. MILLIS. The earliest one.

Mr. APPELL. May 2, 1964?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir.

(Documents marked "Marion Millis Exhibits Nos. 2-A and 2-B," respectively, and retained in committee files.)

Mr. MILLIS. Shall I proceed?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. MILLIS. The meeting was over, and we worked traffic along with the highway patrol, and then Mr. Jones, I heard him on the loud-speaker, and he said he wanted to thank the highway patrol for helping with the traffic.

I called the officer that night on the desk to see if there had been any complaints and he said there had not been any. The next morning I told the man to keep his ears open on the desk in case he got any kind of complaints, that I wanted to know it, and we received no complaints at all.

After they had some kind of dispute about the Elberg Motel meeting, they rented it to another group, I believe it was; from my information on the inside, they rented it to another group that the Klan wouldn't have a meeting there, so they dropped that location and went to Second Street in Wilmington between Market and Princess Street, right in the downtown section, upstairs in the hall.

Civic organizations met up there, and I understand they gave the organization a night a week there, every Thursday night. Some of these deputies, maybe two or three at a time, would attend the meetings. I think it was two meetings that was attended by deputies there on Second Street.

They came back—one of them was an open meeting and one was a closed meeting—and they told me that they showed a film, a color film, on Communists. And one night they said the place was full of people; more women than there were men. The public was invited that night.

I told them, I said, "Let me tell you, rumors are getting out that we are participating in this organization. We went in there for the purpose of trying to obtain information to see if it was a nonviolent organization. We haven't seen any. I think it is time to go ahead and notify them, all of you, and get your names off the lists."

So they did. They all withdrew at that time.

Mr. APPELL. What time is this, sir?

Mr. MILLIS. I don't remember the date. It may have been—it was right after the rally, the first rally. They went on Second Street and had a couple of meetings. It must have been about 3 weeks or 4 weeks after this rally.

The CHAIRMAN. In other words, they resigned?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir. I told them I wanted them all to go ahead and take their names off of it and just leave it alone. We would just try to get the information the best way we can.

Mr. APPELL. I gather what you are saying is that you and your men joined for intelligence purposes.

Mr. MILLIS. That was the reason to begin with. I think some of them did begin to kind of get enthused a little bit. That is why I told them to—

The CHAIRMAN. You are very frank, Sheriff.

Mr. MILLIS. The rumors began to start and that is when I told them, "Now is the time to go ahead and forget about it and leave it alone," and they said, "We are told it is a nonviolent organization. It is a legal organization," and I said, "Yes, but I want you to forget about it. Get out of it and we will just have to observe it the best way we can."

Mr. APPELL. Sheriff, the committee obtained from the secretary of state's office a charter for the New Hanover County Improvement Association, Inc., as distinguished from the official Klan charter that you saw. This one is signed June 3, 1964. The officers are indicated as Warren Chadwick, James H. McLamb, and Carey Strickland.

I show you this and ask you if you knew those three to be members of the Klan group known as the New Hanover County Improvement Association.

(Document handed to witness.)

Mr. MILLIS. The information I received from the deputy inside was that Mr. Chadwick was in charge of the New Hanover County Improvement Association, which was the Klan unit. Mr. James McLamb, I didn't know him only by sight before, and heard that he was in the organization, but later had withdrew. And Carey Strickland, I don't know him. He is one I don't know. I thought I would.

Mr. Warren Chadwick I have seen twice after I found out he had taken the position of president of the organization. He became an inspector with the health department. He came into the sheriff's office a couple of times. That is the two or three times I seen him.

Mr. APPELL. Sheriff Millis, you are here this morning in accordance with a subpoena served upon you by the staff of the committee; are you not?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. This subpoena, which contains an attachment made a part of the subpoena, commanded you to bring with you and to produce before said committee:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and affiliated organizations, namely, the Alabama Rescue Service, New Hanover Improvement Association, New Hanover Improvement League, Realm (state) of North Carolina, in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by you or available to you as member or officer of New Hanover Improvement Association, New Hanover Improvement League, Realm (state) of North Carolina, of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

Did you bring any documents that would fall within this description, sir?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; I have never had any in my possession.

Mr. APPELL. Did you have in your possession reports made by yourself and your men which related to the New Hanover Improvement Association?

Mr. MILLIS. The only thing we have had is we have had cross-burnings—

Mr. APPELL. I would like to interrupt you, sir. I would assume from what you have told us that your men who were in the Klan for information purposes filed reports which are a part of your office on what transpired at each of these meetings that they attended in an undercover capacity.

(At this point Mr. Pool returned to the hearing room.)

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; not written reports. They were oral reports only.

Mr. APPELL. Do you mean the files of your office contain no reports in a documented form on what went on at these meetings?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; they didn't have anything in writing. The main thing was to observe and see if anything was fixing to happen as far as any disorder was concerned.

Mr. APPELL. Sheriff Millis, according to the return on the back of this subpoena, this subpoena was served upon you at 11 o'clock a.m. on the 15th day of October 1965 by Mr. Raymond McConnon, a member of the investigative staff of this committee.

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. In the course of serving this subpoena, did Mr. McConnon discuss with you your affiliations with the Ku Klux Klan?

Mr. MILLIS. The only thing that was said, other than the piece about bringing the documents that I would have as a member, was I told him I didn't have any. There wasn't very much said. He didn't question me much about that part, as I recall.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. McConnon—

Mr. MILLIS. He asked me about Colonel McClellan, for one, and C. D. Goodwin, he asked me about him.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. McConnon reports in a memorandum to the office: Subject, referring to yourself, denies any membership in the Ku Klux Klan, either past or present. He says that he has never made application for membership in the Klan, and claims no knowledge of any of his deputies, such as Woody Goodwin—and that is Charles D. Goodwin, who is popularly known as “Woody”—

Mr. MILLIS. That is right.

Mr. APPELL. — or Rudy, who you described in the record as R. A. Jarrell, Rudolph Jarrell, having any connection with the Klan.

Mr. MILLIS. I told him that I wasn't a member and I told him that none of the deputies was. That was the conversation that we had. He didn't go back to any beginning or anything like that; that is, not that I recall. I don't recall him saying anything. I denied the membership, and he said, “Well, I heard you are in it and some of the deputies,” and I said, “No, sir; not members of it.”

Mr. APPELL. Yesterday at noontime you were interviewed by Mr. Manuel on my right, and myself.

Mr. MILLIS. That is right.

Mr. APPELL. You told us at that time that you could not understand why the subpoena was served upon you; that you had never been a member of the New Hanover County Improvement Association.

Mr. MILLIS. The best I can remember is you asked me—well, I read this to you, I believe. You asked me about the records and I said “I am not a member.” I don't know everything that was said. I was a little confused when you were asking me questions.

One time you asked about the Klans and then the New Hanover Improvement Association, and back one way and then the other one. For one thing, of course, I didn't want to reveal what we had tried to do from the law enforcement standpoint in trying to obtain information within the organization. Of course, this will do it. We will not be able to get any inside help, I am sure, after this. Anything done we will have to do the best we can from the outside.

Mr. APPELL. But I understood you to testify a moment or two ago that you ordered all your men to get out of the organization.

Mr. MILLIS. We did; yes, sir. I am talking about now.

The CHAIRMAN. You did say that two became enthusiastic and I didn't press you. Do you want to enlarge on that?

Mr. MILLIS. I think one did in particular, and one did some. I think one really was enthusiastic about it.

Mr. APPELL. When did you issue the orders for your men to get out of the Klan?

Mr. MILLIS. That was after they had attended about two meetings on Second Street. One was a closed meeting and one was an open meeting.

Mr. APPELL. This was prior—

Mr. MILLIS. That was sometime, maybe 3 or 4 weeks or so, after this first rally.

Mr. APPELL. The May 2nd rally?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Did they all get out?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Which ones stayed in?

Mr. MILLIS. I can relate the whole thing so you get a clear picture. I thought that was clear all the way. Then it came out in the Charlotte Observer that some of the members of the sheriff's department of New Hanover County was members or even sympathizers. When that came out, a local news reporter came around to talk to me. He didn't write anything. He just asked me some questions.

He wanted to know—he didn't ask about myself; he asked me about the deputies. He wanted to know if any of them were members, and I said, "Not to my knowledge." He said, "Well, if a man was—if you found a man was in the organization, would you fire him, discharge him?" I told him, "We would have to look into it more, because there is civil rights and it may protect him. I don't know if it is a legal organization."

He went back and wrote a story and I read it, and said that I said that I never did have any deputies in the Klan or no other subversive organization. I didn't use the word "subversive." We hadn't been on subversive.

Further down it said he asked me the question would I fire a man if I found out that he was in the Klan, and he quoted me as saying that it may be discrimination in reverse. I didn't use that statement at all.

He came around the sheriff's office and interviewed some other people and I asked why did he write it, and he admitted then I didn't make that remark. Every newspaper article since then about that statement has been repeated from this same column.

Mr. APPELL. The question I asked you, sir, is the identity of your men who did not get out of the Klan when you ordered them to get out.

Mr. MILLIS. I wanted to get down to it, after this piece came out of the paper. I thought all of them had. Then Mr. Jarrell, a deputy sheriff, came in the office and said, "Sheriff, do you know anything about Charles Goodwin being elected to the State office?" I said "No. I thought all that was over." He said, "Well, apparently not, because I heard that they had elected him to the State office."

The CHAIRMAN. In the Klan?

Mr. MILLIS. In the Klan.

The CHAIRMAN. Do you remember that office?

Mr. MILLIS. I heard the word "organizer." I called Mr. Goodwin in and talked to him and he said he was in a meeting and they wanted to give him a State position, but that he didn't want it. I said, "Have you participated in the office at all?" and he told me he hadn't, the best I can recall.

I said, "Woody, I don't want you to go to any more meetings at all. I want you to leave it alone. That was my orders some time ago. I want you to get completely out of it."

I believe that was the last of any that I can recall.

Mr. APPELL. Now if we can fix this as to date—

Mr. MILLIS. The Charlotte Observer came out with that piece, and I think you have it there, and then the reporter talked to me. He made a piece for the paper. This was about 2 weeks later, 2 or 3 weeks, maybe more. I don't recall.

The CHAIRMAN. Two or three weeks after?

Mr. MILLIS. It could have been. I wouldn't say.

The CHAIRMAN. We don't expect you to know the exact dates, but relative to the paper.

Mr. MILLIS. After I found out he was still in it and everybody else had left, after the piece came out in the paper, some time after is when Mr. Jarrell came in and reported to me that he was still in the organization, and I called him in.

Mr. APPELL. Sheriff Millis, did you, and who I understand to be your chief deputy, Jarrell, ever approach anyone to join the Klan for the purpose of organizing the Klan in Brunswick County?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir. I know what this is about. Mr. Charley Skipper was the deputy sheriff in Brunswick County, a little short fellow who always carries a snub camera in his car wherever he goes when he is working on a case. He had a right good knowledge about the boys he was having trouble with. We had a new deputy and we couldn't get any information because he didn't seem to know too much information about the people over there we were having trouble with.

So we talked to Mr. Skipper one day about these boys as he might have had trouble with them before. At the first meeting a group came from Brunswick County that was already in the act of organizing, to my understanding. They was in a meeting and were supposed to have went along with the unit in New Hanover County for a period of time. Then after everybody was out, and we didn't have the inside information we wanted, the chief deputy asked Mr. Skipper had they organized in Brunswick, because we had heard that this group had went back to Brunswick County and organized a unit.

He said, "No, but I wish they would." He made a remark that he had been down to a place before called Higman's Crossroads and talked to some people down there about organizing. He said the people down there were Klan-minded and he was going back again.

Later on, some time later, they had a rally in Brunswick County and I understand the sheriff was highly disturbed about it. Charley still hadn't gone back to work with the sheriff after the falling out they had. Then he found out how the sheriff felt about the Klan, and that is when he, I understand, told the sheriff over there that we had approached him on this, but he had not been approached at all, not in that fashion, but only to ask had they organized, because we was checking to see if the group from New Hanover County had gone back to Brunswick County.

Mr. APPELL. Deputy Sheriff Skipper, to whom you are referring, advised us that he was first approached by you and your chief deputy, Jarrell, when he was employed with the Smith-Douglas Fertilizer Company in the course of a social visit that he paid on your office some time prior to him ever becoming a deputy sheriff.

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; I did not approach him on it.

Mr. APPELL. He advised us that after he became a deputy sheriff, that you again approached him.

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir. The question was had they organized, had anyone heard anything about an organization in Brunswick County.

Mr. APPELL. Sheriff, you have told us that following this May 1964 rally, that you ordered your men to resign. When did you resign?

Mr. MILLIS. At the first meeting on Fourth Street, and then part of the other meeting at the Elberg and that was the end of it right there.

Mr. APPELL. Did you give them a formal resignation or how did you consummate your resignation?

Mr. MILLIS. Not until I told the deputies to get everything off of the books, and to tell them that we could not mess with it, we had to leave it alone. That is when all of them was ordered out of the organization.

Mr. APPELL. I didn't understand what you said when you said you ordered your deputies to get everything off of the books.

Mr. MILLIS. To get the names off the books and resign and just completely out of it and don't take any part in it.

The CHAIRMAN. Do you mean off the books of the Klan?

Mr. MILLIS. Off the books of the Klan.

Mr. APPELL. Do you mean to remove any evidence from these books that you and your deputies had ever been members?

Mr. MILLIS. Well, I don't know just what kind of records they have. I suppose they have all kinds of records, I suppose.

Mr. APPELL. But were you attempting, by that order, to get any proof of formal membership removed from the books?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; no, sir. It wasn't that idea. It was in order to get out of the outfit completely. That was the intention, and I thought we had until this question came up about C. D. Goodwin.

Mr. APPELL. As a result of the membership of yourself and your deputies, whom else did you determine to be members of the New Hanover County Improvement Association which you have described as being the cover name for the Klan in the Wilmington area?

Mr. MILLIS. Who else that had become members?

Mr. APPELL. Whom else did you know as members?

Mr. MILLIS. Let's see now. I named C. L. Williams. Mr. Watkins had a man with him, but I don't know his name. I didn't get his name.

Mr. APPELL. How about A. B. Riggs?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir; I had information that he belonged to it.

Mr. APPELL. How about Charles Brickhouse?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; I don't know him.

Mr. APPELL. How about Mr. Constantineau, who was a witness here yesterday?

Mr. MILLIS. I met him going out of the hall. He recognized me and spoke to me, but it is the first time I remember seeing him. I understand he had been a member.

Mr. APPELL. Did your deputy sheriff, Frank Waters, to your knowledge, ever become secretary of the unit?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir. For a short period of time he was, to my understanding.

Mr. APPELL. Did your deputy, Frank Waters, use the facilities of your office for the purpose of collecting Klan dues?

Mr. MILLIS. Not to my knowledge, except one time a fellow came in there and was asking about it and I told him to get out of the sheriff's office. A man brought him in there. That is the only time I recall anything about it.

Mr. APPELL. Our investigation establishes that Frank Waters, during the period of time that he was secretary, maintained the Klan books in the sheriff's safe and that he was observed on several occasions with this box described as a little gray box at the sheriff's counter and that he was discussing with people other than members of your department that which related to the cards contained in his box.

Mr. MILLIS. He may have. I wouldn't deny that because I don't know. He may have. I asked the chief deputy one time was he doing anything—I heard it during that time—and Jarrell said, "I'm afraid he is," and I said "Rudolph, if he is, I want him to go ahead and quit it and stop it right now."

This man Raymond Chadwick was there at the counter, and I walked in and seen him there and I heard him say something about the organization. I called Joe Johnson, and said, "Joe, let me tell you, I am not going to have that going on in the sheriff's office. Just go ahead and tell Chadwick to get out of here. You know him. Tell him what the score is. We are not going to have him in the sheriff's office."

Mr. APPELL. You have mentioned Warren Chadwick on several occasions as being the leader of the Klavern or the exalted cyclops. I show you a photograph and ask you if the first hooded or robed man that you see on the left is Warren Chadwick, to whom you are referring.

(Photograph handed to witness.)

Mr. MILLIS. I am pretty sure that is him.

Mr. APPELL. Do you happen to know who the red-robed man is?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; I don't. I can't tell.

Mr. APPELL. The gentleman in the suit, Mr. Chairman, is a reporter for the Charlotte News and [Charlotte] Observer.

(Photograph marked "Marion Millis Exhibit No. 3" appears on p. 1978.)

Mr. APPELL. Sheriff Millis, the description of your office by the Charlotte News and Observer was that approximately half of your 20-man force were either members of the Klan or Klan sympathizers. How factual is that, sir.

Mr. MILLIS. I would say according to this about four must have been.

Mr. APPELL. Sir?

Mr. MILLIS. There must have been about four at that time.

Mr. APPELL. About one-quarter rather than a half?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. What investigation have you made to determine whether or not the other members of your staff whose names I read to you yesterday during the interview were or were not at one time members of the Klan?

Mr. MILLIS. Mr. Blandon, I am pretty sure he has never been. I think somebody got something wrong there because I don't think he has ever been. I think Mr. Bridges later did for a short period of time. That is H. M. Bridges.

Mr. APPELL. H. M. Bridges?

Mr. MILLIS. H. M. Bridges.

Mr. APPELL. Did he attend as an ideological member of the Klan, or does he fall in this category that you described as undercover people?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; he went in—I think he wanted to get in was the reason he went in.

Photograph of United Klans of America parade in Salisbury, N.C., Aug. 8, 1964. Klansman (1) facing camera identified as Warren Chadwick of Wrightsville Beach, N.C.

Mr. APPELL. What is your best understanding as to when he got in?

Mr. MILLIS. The best I can recall, from the information I received, is it may have been maybe 3 weeks after the first meeting.

Mr. APPELL. How about your night chief deputy Whitman?

Mr. MILLIS. I don't recall. He may have been, but I don't recall him being one of the group. He may have. Right after then he had a heart attack and he was in a hospital for a number of months. If he was up there, he never went any more because he did have a heart attack. He may have; I am not denying that.

Mr. APPELL. In discussing the charter of the New Hanover County Improvement Association, the names that were on there, you spoke of Warren Chadwick and you spoke of James McLamb. You did not discuss Carey Strickland.

Mr. MILLIS. It is just like it is being in public office. You see a lot of people that may know you, and I may know him if I see him, but I can't recall him.

Mr. APPELL. He is a barber in Wilmington.

Mr. MILLIS. I don't know him.

Mr. APPELL. How about as a leader of that Klavern a man by the name of Biddle?

Mr. MILLIS. There is a "Red" Biddle, I think, that is connected with it. They call him "Red" Biddle. I can't recall his initials.

Mr. APPELL. He is popularly referred to as "Red" Biddle?

Mr. MILLIS. As "Red" Biddle.

Mr. APPELL. You do not know what his true name is?

Mr. MILLIS. I do not know. I know it is "Red" Biddle.

Mr. APPELL. Sheriff, I discussed with you yesterday during the interview as to whether or not there was being mailed to members of your department, or one member of your department, the official Klan newspaper, the Fiery Cross.

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir; you did.

Mr. APPELL. As I recall, you did not think that this happened, but that you handed out the possibility that it might have been, because a lot of things are mailed to your department.

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir; we do get stuff maybe every week or so. One period of time it come in right regularly. Somebody mailed me a paper one time called the Thunderbolt. I think that was the name of it.

Mr. APPELL. Did the publication of the Fiery Cross come to your deputies or come to yourself because of your membership in the Klan?

Mr. MILLIS. I never got a copy of the Fiery Cross. I understand that there was one there in the office. Who it was mailed to, I don't know.

Mr. APPELL. Our information is that it was mailed to your chief deputy, Rudolph Jarrell.

Mr. MILLIS. It may have been. I don't know if you have to subscribe for them or if you just get them as a member. I don't know.

Mr. APPELL. Sheriff, it was also our information that the original rent on the labor hall and the original negotiations were made by you.

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; that is not true. The hall was rented and we had the information it was there. We went up there and it was opened by someone else. I understand this fellow Raymond Chadwick may have been one that rented the hall. Somebody gave him $10 when they got ready to leave and they went over to tell the man what organization it was. Somebody else had to tell them. Somebody asked me if I had change for $10 and I gave them two fives.

Mr. APPELL. If you joined that organization, are you saying you did not pay and the other men there did not pay the initiation fee?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir; they did.

Mr. APPELL. Of $10?

Mr. MILLIS. That is right.

Mr. APPELL. Did you or your men buy robes?

Mr. MILLIS. Not that I know of. Goodwin did, I am pretty sure. I understand he did.

Mr. APPELL. But you did not?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir?

Mr. APPELL. And did you give them a sum of money which was to be your monthly dues?

Mr. MILLIS. $2 was paid with the initiation fee.

Mr. APPELL. So you gave them a total of $12?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir.

Mr. ASHBROOK. A total of what?

Mr. APPELL. $12.

Sheriff Millis, there was a Klan rally on July 11, 1964, at Supply, North Carolina. This, I understand, is outside of your jurisdiction.

Mr. MILLIS. It is in the neighboring county, the adjoining county.

Mr. APPELL. Present at that meeting in civilian clothes was your deputy, Charles "Woody" Goodwin. I will ask you: Was he there?

Mr. MILLIS. I had information that he did go to the meeting. I believe it was on Saturday night. That Monday morning I called him in and asked him had he been over there, and he said yes, he had, and he admitted that he had drove over there with his wife in his car. He admitted it. I said, "It is best to stay away from it. It is not in our county."

Mr. APPELL. At that rally, this principal speaker, I assume he was the principal speaker, was the Imperial Wizard, Mr. Shelton.

Mr. MILLIS. I don't know who it was.

Mr. APPELL. It is the committee's investigative information that at that rally Mr. Shelton waved in the air for the audience to see a copy of a check payable to David W. Jones of 607 Nun Street, Wilmington, North Carolina. It is the committee's information that Jones had been arrested in Wilmington in 1963.

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir; he was arrested by the city police.

Mr. APPELL. And because they have no jail, he was turned over to your jail.

Mr. MILLIS. Yes.

Mr. APPELL. In his possession was a check in the amount of $339.85 which would have come into your custody as the custodian of the prisoner. I would like to ask you how Imperial Wizard Shelton got a copy of that check in order to display. I hand you a copy of the check.

Mr. MILLIS. I don't know how he got a copy of it. From what I understand, a man brought one to the office and someone had gave him one on the street. It was a copy of it.

(Document marked "Marion Millis Exhibit No. 4" and retained in committee files.)

Mr. ASHBROOK. Speak up, please.

Mr. MILLIS. The first I heard of it a man brought me one into the sheriff's office and said a man on the street gave him one. But I don't know how Shelton got it in his possession.

Mr. APPELL. Your deputy, Woody Goodwin, was at that rally.

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir; he was.

Mr. APPELL. Do you mean to tell me that he didn't come back and report to you "Sheriff, my God, Shelton had one of our checks which we took from a prisoner"?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; he didn't say anything about it.

Mr. APPELL. And you never knew that Shelton had a copy of that check or used it at that rally?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; I didn't know he had a copy of it. I didn't know he had a copy of it and I did not know he used it at that rally.

Mr. APPELL. Until I had advised you of the fact that this did happen, you had no knowledge that Shelton or the Klan had a copy of this check?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; I did not know they had a copy of it.

Mr. APPELL. Will you, Sheriff, attempt to make an investigation to determine how this check was obtained from someone in your department who had this man in custody?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir; I will do that.

Mr. APPELL. And after you do this, will you make a report of it to the committee?

Mr. MILLIS. I will do that. I certainly will.

(At this point Mr. Weltner returned to the hearing room.)

Mr. APPELL. Sheriff——

Mr. MILLIS. Or as a law enforcement officer, anything else you want, I will look into it and see what we can find out. If your men want to come down, we will do anything we can do as law enforcement officers.

Mr. APPELL. Thank you.

Sheriff, there were a series of crosses burned within your geographical boundaries of New Hanover County?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. What investigation did your department make to determine who set off these crosses?

Mr. MILLIS. The one that apparently was attributed to the Klan—the courthouse is in two different buildings and the one the sheriff's office is in faces Third Street; it's right on the Third Street side—no, I will correct that. We face Princess Street, near Fourth. The other side is near Third Street. It is dark on that side, very dark. I understand that some of the deputies was coming down the Third Street hill in the car and seen this fire and they drove up and seen it to be a cross. They immediately called the Wilmington Police Department. It was on the city streets and they called them. So a man came there and said four men had gotten out of a Cadillac, put it on the sidewalk, set it on fire, and took off. They didn't get any description of the people or the license number of the Cadillac.

I called the deputies in and told them I wanted them to work with the city police, and any information they could get on it to let them know. I was very concerned because the sheriff's department was the only office open at that time of night, everything else was closed. I didn't know if it was thrown at me or what the situation would have been.

The next day I did read in the paper that Mr. Bob Jones said something about a number of crosses had been burned over the State simultaneously that night in order to show, I believe, the Klan strength.

Mr. APPELL. This was May 28, 1965, which I understand was a day or two before some primary.

Mr. MILLIS. That is right.

Mr. APPELL. Sheriff, the puzzling thing to the investigation is that a part of the sidewalk had to be torn up, or it was torn up, in order to force this cross——

The CHAIRMAN. In order to what?

Mr. APPELL. A portion of the sidewalk was torn up in order to stand erect this cross which was burned which, according to our investigation, was 6 feet tall with an 18-inch arm on it, wrapped in burlap. This takes considerable time. It seems to me that these people felt pretty safe and confident.

Mr. MILLIS. Well, there is police on the street. They walk beats downtown. Of course, we only have one man in the sheriff's office. He is back of the counter by himself, where the radio is. He don't get out to observe and get around. This was property damage when they damaged the sidewalk. It was a violation of the law to damage city property. The police was concerned about it.

Mr. APPELL. Describe for us the other crosses that were set off in your county.

Mr. MILLIS. Some of the other crosses—some of them was just sticks, tossed together, with kerosene, some had paper and some had rags. We had another one with just small sticks with burlap. We had two some months ago, and one in New Hanover County.

When I found out about it, I called my deputy, Mr. Wolf, and I said, "Take this report, go around to Wrightsville Beach, to the chief, compare your crosses and see if there is a comparison of the two." They didn't seem to think so after they compared the crosses, that they had any similarity.

Mr. APPELL. Do you have any leads which enable you to pursue an investigation looking forward to bringing about a conviction under North Carolina law?

Mr. MILLIS. We haven't been able to obtain the evidence. We have this on record, this report made in our office, of crosses burned near Pine Hill Drive on a girl's front lawn. I understand she had been to Chapel Hill, North Carolina, on some demonstrations with some colored people. The deputies went out and made an investigation and talked with them. At that time she said she didn't believe it was the Klan. She mentioned her husband's name and she said, "We believe he would know." Evidently he had some kind of connection or maybe knew somebody who might have been in it.

Mr. APPELL. If I may interrupt, what you are telling us is someone who might have been in the Klan.

Mr. MILLIS. The girl's father, her daddy, her mother said, "We believe we will be able to find out through somebody he may know," which she insinuated may be in the Klan.

Mr. APPELL. But the father is in the Klan?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; he is not in the Klan, but the father may know someone who had some connection with the Klan, who maybe can tell you, is the way she insinuated, from the words she spoke.

I came in that morning and read the report and I told two of the deputies to go back out to the house and talk to her, to scout around to all the neighbors and see if they heard or seen anything. The grass was burned there.

Then at that time she asked the deputies if they wouldn't investigate the Klan, to see if it possibly would have been. This was her second version, to see if it could have been the Klan. So she must have had a different thought on that. The neighbors, they talked to the neighbors, and also one man who was sitting in a car, I believe now, and they claimed they didn't see anything.

Mr. APPELL. But there is no doubt that the cross was burned?

Mr. MILLIS. There was a cross burned; yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. But, as in the other cases, there has been no evidence or leads obtained by your department that might lead to a conviction under North Carolina law?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; not enough to be able to go on.

Mr. APPELL. This David Jones whose check I exhibited to you was a prisoner in your jail; he was beaten while he was a prisoner in your jail by other prisoners, was he not?

Mr. MILLIS. I would like to be able to tell you everything that I possibly know about it.

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. MILLIS. He was put in that afternoon, late, into the jail, arrested by the city police, and the next day, the next morning, he went to court and was released in court. That afternoon, about 5 o'clock, Mr. Gervay, a colored news editor, called me and told me that Reverend Jones was in his office and said that he was beaten in jail. I said, "Well, send him down and we will make an investigation and get to the rock bottom of it." He did. He sent him down to the office. I talked with him. I called Mr. Johnson down, Mr. Joe Johnson.

Before Mr. Johnson came down, though, the preacher said the prisoner told him that Mr. Johnson or somebody like that told him, and he was with a demonstration, something about maybe beating him, or something to that effect.

Mr. APPELL. You mean you understood that Mr. Johnson——

Mr. MILLIS. No, the preacher had. He said, "I understood from some of the prisoners that they said Mr. Johnson told them to beat him up."

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Johnson, your deputy, is the jailer?

Mr. MILLIS. He is the jailer. So I called Mr. Johnson down and we talked with him and he said he did not tell them any such thing. He did not tell them to beat them up. I told Mr. Johnson, "I am going to get to the bottom of it." I called the jail and I said, "Who has been released from jail this morning other than some of the demonstrators and Mr. Jones?" And they said, "Nobody. Everybody we had this morning is in jail now."

I said, "Well, go ahead and make a lineup. We are going to find out who beat this man." There was two places, just alike, right in there [indicating], right about the end of your finger right there [indicating]. Then I put the phone down and he said, "I would rather not do that." I said, "It is a thing we are going to have to do," and he said, "Well, I don't want to go any further with it. We are going to drop it right where it is."

I said, "Mr. Jones, if we start dropping it where it is at, every time we find out somebody has been beaten in jail; if we tolerate it one time, we will have it other times." He said, "I don't want to go up there and I don't want to put anybody on the spot. Just forget about it."

Mr. APPELL. This is Mr. Jones.

Mr. MILLIS. Mr. Jones himself. I said, "Well, you can certainly identify the man. That is all in the world you have to do." We stayed there and talked some time trying to persuade him to go up into the lineup and he wouldn't do it.

The CHAIRMAN. A little louder, Sheriff.

Mr. MILLIS. We tried to persuade him to go upstairs and observe the lineup so he could pick his man out and he wouldn't do it. We tried for some time. I wanted to clear it up because I was afraid something would come of it.

You know how publicity will happen. I thought the best way in the world was to get to the bottom of it, as we have on other occasions. Sometimes they will refuse to sign a warrant. I don't know how legal it would be, but we went ahead and got one anyway. We would go ahead and make the arrest and take them into court.

MR. APPELL. Did your investigation determine that Mr. Jones had not been beaten?

MR. MILLIS. I wouldn't say he hadn't been beaten, I don't know. But other than him backing out on us—the only thing we could do then was all we had was prisoners.

We asked him if he reported to the jailer when he went over to the court, when he was released from jail, and he said he did not. I asked him if he said anything to the judge about it in court, and he said he didn't.

I talked to the jailer on duty that morning and asked him did he see any black places on his nose, and he said no, he didn't observe any. I talked to the judge and he said he didn't see any marks.

A news reporter was there, Mr. Bill Snyder, and he said he talked with him and there was no sign of any marks on him. He left and the next thing we heard was we got a call from this colored newspaper.

Later on, Mr. Jones had a group around the courthouse and they were singing and making a noise and the court had to stop. The judge ordered the demonstrators up into the courtroom and he began to talk to them about disturbing the court, and he made a remark that the NAACP was worse than the Ku Klux Klan, and said he had no use for either.

Then he told Mr. Jones, "You are responsible for most of this, leading these people like this, coming down disturbing the court." So Mr. Jones beat his hand on the bench and then shook his finger in the judge's face and told him, "You know that is not true." The judge cited him for contempt of court, for 30 days. We had to take him to jail under the direction of the judge.

I told them to put him in a cell by himself, and not put him with the others because if something did happen before, I certainly didn't want it to happen the second time.

When he got ready to be released from the jail, when he was almost ready to leave the jail, Mr. R. A. Jarrell went up to him and asked him how had he been treated in the 30 days, and he said, "I couldn't be treated any nicer." Mr. Jarrell said, "Will you sign a statement to that effect?" And he said, "Yes, I will." He told them what to type and he said, "Bring it back and I will sign it." They typed a short statement and he signed it. I have that statement in my pocket now.

During the time he was there, he had one of those pictures of numbers that you buy from a bookstore, that you paint by the numbers, telling you what color to use. He painted a picture of the Good Shepherd and gave it to Mr. Rooney, one of the jailers. Everything went on just as fine as anything in the world for 30 days. I kept the statement. If you want the statement that he signed, I will give it to you.

MR. APPELL. Yes, sir; we would like to have it.

(Document handed to committee.)

(Document marked "Marion Millis Exhibit No. 5" and retained in committee files.)

Mr. MILLIS. I have some statements here—

The CHAIRMAN. I can't hear you, sir.

Mr. MILLIS. Relating back to the first time that he said he was hit in the jail, he refused to go up to the lineup. I went upstairs and questioned each one of the prisoners and all of them stated that nothing happened in the jail. They were there at the time Mr. Jones came in and when he went out. Of course, I have them here, if you care to have them.

Mr. APPELL. Would you file them with the committee?

(Documents handed to committee.)

(Documents marked "Marion Millis Exhibit No. 6" and retained in committee files.)

Mr. MILLIS. Relating to the jail, the condition of it, we have always gotten it inspected. We have a report from the Federal inspector. Since I became sheriff the improvements have been such that they made it a full-time Federal jail. They were well satisfied with it. It used to be that they only gave the prisoner two meals. I didn't think that was right because the man is not guilty until he is found guilty, and even then he is a human being.

I convinced the commissioners that we should have more money to feed the prisoners three times a day. They are fed at 8 o'clock in the morning and 1 o'clock in the afternoon, and sometimes the city police would bring somebody in at 2 o'clock and that man wouldn't have anything to eat until the next morning.

I have an editorial here, a clipping from the paper, praising the achievement of three meals that I have done. I have a clipping from a newspaper where we have just recently gotten a report of having an excellent jail. I have the report signed by the State Welfare Department as to the conditions and the meals and everything was good. One of them says the jail is operated by a conscientious sheriff and jailer and well managed.

Mr. APPELL. Would you like to leave them for the record also?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes. I can get a copy of these from the Welfare, if I need to.

(Documents handed to committee.)

(Documents marked "Marion Millis Exhibit No. 7" and retained in committee files.)

Mr. APPELL. Sheriff, in the course of your membership in the Klan and the membership of your men, did you learn that within the Klan there might be certain men who are designated to carry out cross-burnings?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; other than I understand they do appoint a man for the cross-burning at the rally. They appointed him.

Mr. APPELL. I am talking about the crosses of intimidation and crosses that are publicity crosses on sidewalks, like in front of the courthouse.

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; I didn't know they selected certain men for it. I didn't know that.

The CHAIRMAN. Sheriff, we have evidence also in other areas, not in your immediate area, that persons are also designated and sometimes they even draw from hats, to be the one who is not only to burn crosses, but to do some bombings. Have you heard of that in your area?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; I haven't heard of anything like that. Other than this cross in front of the courthouse, we haven't had any. It has been very, very quiet and I hope it will remain that way.

Mr. APPELL. With respect to the election of your deputy, Charles "Woody" Goodwin, do you know that he was elected at a State meeting in Granite Quarry, North Carolina, in January of 1964?

Mr. MILLIS. Was elected in Granite Quarry?

Mr. APPELL. At a State meeting of the Klan held at Granite Quarry, North Carolina.

Mr. MILLIS. Is that the time he was supposed to have been elected to the State office?

Mr. APPELL. And that he was elected to the position of Klaliff or vice president?

Mr. MILLIS. The only thing that I heard was that it was a State office. The chief deputy did mention something to me about second man for the State. Then I heard it was just organizer, what his title was.

Mr. APPELL. What did your deputy, Goodwin, tell you?

Mr. MILLIS. When I talked to him to start with, the first time, he said he had been elected but he wasn't going to accept it, and he would take no part in it. I asked him not to. Sometime later on I did have another talk with him and he told me he had accepted it.

Mr. APPELL. The evidence is clear that he attended a great many—not a great many, but he attended rallies, and at the rally of July 11, according to the committee's investigation, he was exercising authority with respect to Klansmen who were patrolling the road. He continued in activity in the Klan, official or semiofficial capacities, long after January. When was it that you talked to him?

Mr. MILLIS. Let's see—I don't recall. To go back to it again, the Charlotte newspaper came out about the deputy being in it, and our news reporter came around after it was in the paper, and sometime after that, this date, if you have our local paper there, is when the chief deputy came to me and told me that Goodwin was still participating in the Klan, and told me that he had been elected a State officer.

Mr. APPELL. Do you mean Goodwin was elected in January?

Mr. MILLIS. No, I don't know when he was elected. I don't know when it took place.

Mr. APPELL. But our investigative knowledge is that he was elected in January.

Mr. MILLIS. He may have been.

Mr. APPELL. When this was brought to your attention, according to your testimony, is several weeks after a public rally held in May. Then you say you discussed it with Goodwin and he said, "I was elected but I am not going to be active, I am not going to accept it," but some 5 months had elapsed when he was in the office. I don't understand how he wasn't going to accept it when he was acting in the office for some 5 months.

Mr. MILLIS. It had apparently been a good while before it came to my attention.

Mr. APPELL. Did you order him then to resign the office and did he?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir; I did. And he said that he was.

The statement that you have in our paper, whatever date that was—and I thought then everybody completely got out of it—it was some time after then that Mr. Jarrell came to me. I was overwhelmed.

Mr. APPELL. Do you mean the statement that appeared in the Wilmington Morning Star which is captioned by a story “Sheriff Denies Deputies Active In Local Klan Unit”? Is that the story?

Mr. MILLIS. I think so.

Mr. APPELL. That story is September 1, 1964, and this rally that I thought we were referring to and the date that we were trying to fix was several weeks after May.

Mr. MILLIS. Is this the first rally?

The CHAIRMAN. What year?

Mr. APPELL. 1964.

Mr. MILLIS. Was this the first rally?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. MILLIS. There was two more after that in New Hanover County. There was two more after that in New Hanover County.

Mr. APPELL. So the time that we are talking about is not May but sometime after September 1?

Mr. MILLIS. That is right, sometime after.

Mr. APPELL. Therefore, when we talk to Mr. Goodwin about his office on a State level, he has been in the office from January 26 until sometime after September 1?

Mr. MILLIS. I don't know the dates. But my understanding was it was a good while. This thing surprised me because it had been such a long time, and I found out he was still in it.

Mr. APPELL. It slipped my mind, Sheriff Millis, but this story which you asked me to refer to states: “Sheriff Marion Millis denied Monday that members of his department have actively engaged in Ku Klux Klan activities in New Hanover County” and then there is a direct quote which reads and I will read it as a direct quote:

“To my knowledge, no deputy in this department has ever been a member of the Ku Klux Klan or any other subversive organization,” Millis declared in an interview.

Mr. MILLIS. Wasn't that a recent column? They copied two columns from the old one that I didn't give them. They copied from that.

Mr. APPELL. This one was obtained just last week from the Wilmington Morning Star. It carries the dateline of 9-1-64.

Mr. MILLIS. The reporter, Kirk, came to my office and was talking to me about the Klan. He didn't ask anything about me ever being a member or my deputy. He wanted to know if I had any in the Klan, and I told him not to my knowledge. That is when he asked me what would I do if I found out I had one in the Klan. He wanted to know if I would fire him. I said, “I don't know.” I don't know too much about a legal organization, if it is legal, and then if I find his purpose—I told him I was not an authority on civil rights and I didn't know whether it would fly back to me or not, under those conditions.

When this statement was made, to my knowledge everything was supposed to have been clear, everybody was supposed to have been out of it. And then time went on until sometime after this, when my chief deputy came to me and asked me if I knew Goodwin was still taking part in the Klan, and I said I certainly did not, and he said, "I understand they have elected him to some kind of a State office." I don't know how long after this it was.

Mr. APPELL. So it is clear from what you are now saying to us that while some of your members were in this order to seek information, some of them were in as ideological Klansmen?

Mr. MILLIS. Evidently. One of them—well, this one in particular, Goodwin was.

(Document marked "Marion Millis Exhibit No. 8" appears on pp. 1989, 1990.)

Mr. APPELL. Sheriff, I am, and I think the record is, confused as to specifically when it was that you ordered your men to get out of the Klan. It was my impression, and I think it is the impression of the record, that it was several weeks following the rally on May 2, 1964.

Mr. MILLIS. Several weeks. I don't know just how long. Of course, at that time they were at the Elberg Motel and then they had some kind of a falling out over the rental of the place and they moved on Second Street.

That was attended at one closed meeting and then the next meeting that was an open meeting.

Mr. POOL. Is that 1965?

Mr. APPELL. 1964, sir.

Mr. MILLIS. That is when they were ordered out of it. Then sometime later, to go back, the Charlotte paper came out with it, and our local reporter came to me and he wrote this article. Of course, at this time all of them were supposed to have been out of it. Then sometime later on, and I don't know just how long, weeks or months, the way time flies—you get busy—and the chief deputy came to me and it looked like he had gone overboard.

Mr. APPELL. Sheriff, it is the committee's information that as late as December 1964 your chief deputy was still attending closed meetings of the Klan.

Mr. MILLIS. 1964?

Mr. APPELL. December.

Mr. MILLIS. I don't think so. I believe if I would get with him and pin him down and see if he did, I believe he would tell me. I really believe he would. If you want to thrash these things out, if you get your man with me, we can go over the whole thing with them down there and give you a complete record. We will be glad to do it. In that way, maybe we can get our dates straight, if you get a complete picture. I want you to have complete and full things all the way through. There has been so much here and there until it is just hard to remember at all.

But before this paper came out, that is when they had the orders, and my understanding was the chief deputy didn't attend but two or three meetings.

Mr. APPELL. Sheriff, where does the New Hanover County Improvement Association now hold its meetings?

Sheriff Denies Deputies Active In Local Klan Unit

Sheriff Marion Millis denied Monday that members of his department have actively engaged in Ku Klux Klan activities in New Hanover County.

"To my knowledge, no deputy in this department has ever been a member of the Ku Klux Klan or any other subversive organization," Millis declared in an interview.

His remarks followed in the wake of a published report that several New Hanover County deputies are either members of the Klan or sympathetic to its cause.

Millis attributed the report at least partially to the fact that deputies, on several occasions, have been assigned to attend KKK meetings that were open to the public. He said deputies have not attended the meetings since local Klan officials have been instructed to bar spectators from KKK sessions.

"The rumor that some of my deputies were Klansmen has been around for the past several months," the sheriff explained. "And before that I received a telephone call from a man who said he had heard members of the sheriff's department were to take part in the freedom march on Washington."

He said he suspected that the rumor linking his department to the Ku Klux Klan "may have been started by political opponents." Millis declined to elaborate on his suspicion, adding only:

"I have been told there is a person who wants to run for sheriff and has started this rumor."

He said an out-of-town newspaperman questioned him a few weeks ago about the rumor and at that time denied any knowledge of cohesion between his department and the Klan.

The report, published in Sunday's (August 30) edition of The Charlotte Observer, follows:

"In New Hanover County, one of the strong centers of Klanism, upwards of half the 20-odd members of the New Hanover County sheriff's department are reported to hold membership in the Klan or are strong Klan sympathizers."

The report did not attribute the accusation to any source, official or otherwise.

Asked if he intended to question his deputies individually concerning the matter, Millis replied:

"That has already been done. When I first heard this rumor I personally asked each of the deputies if they had ever been affiliated with the Ku Klux Klan

"Each said they had not."

Millis also said he did not believe a law enforcement officer could be loyal to his oath of office while pursuing the goals of the KKK, but added:

"If I found out that a deputy was a member of the Klan, I am not certain if I would be within my rights to discharge him for that reason. The civil rights bill can work in reverse, and if I fired a man because he was a member of the Ku Klux Klan the law might determine that I had discriminated against the deputy."

The sheriff said he had been trying to keep abreast of Klan activities but that none of his deputies had been instructed to join the KKK.

Klan Denied Stadium Use, Council Rules

The Wilmington City Council Monday denied the Klu Klux Klan the use of Legion Stadium for a June rally.

Warren Chadwick, a spokesman for The United Klans of America, Knights of the Klu Klux Klan, had made the request for the municipal stadium June 12.

Chadwick said his request this morning to the council was an appeal, after being turned down by City Manager E. C. Brandon Jr.

The Klansman said the ritualistic cross-burning would be taken out of the ceremony after a 1970 city ordinance was read, which outlawed cross-burnings. The Council, however, voted to uphold Brandon's refusal.

Brandon told the council he had denied the use of the stadium because he was afraid a Klan meeting in the city might upset the local racial balance.

Mayor O. O. Allsbrook said he felt the council should not do anything to "add to the confusion" of the racial situation in the south.

"My personal feeling," the Mayor said, "is that we have come a long way in the past few years. I would hate to do anything to pit me against you (Chadwick) or you against anyone."

Chadwick glowered across the council table and said, "Gentlemen, you have made one drastic mistake. You have denied the white people here the right to assemble as guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States."

Chadwick, in deciding not to use the cross-burning, said that is merely part of the ritual and is "not intended to intimidate anyone."

He said the purpose of the meetings are to "inform the public" of certain "situations" in the country.

The Klan, he said, is more interested in exposing the activities of Communists than in inciting racial unrest. "The communists are in back of the problems of this country," he said.

After the council upheld Brandon's refusal for the use of Legion Stadium, Chadwick and three unidentified men left.

But, at the end of the meeting they returned, and Chadwick asked permission to read from the Klan's charter to "clarify a few items" for the council.

Chadwick said the Klan is no more subversive than any other fraternal organization. "Catholics have the Knights of Columbus. Jews have B'nai B'rith. We (white protestants) have the Knights of the Klu Klux Klan."

In closing, he said the purpose of the Klan is to "teach patriotism." He asked the council to reconsider the request for the municipal stadium.

They refused.

Chadwick then asked the procedure for securing a parade permit.

Brandon said anyone could get a parade permit if they complied with the city's laws. He said Chadwick should submit information concerning the length and time of the parade and its route, and if the parade would not unduly inconvenience traffic in town, the permit would be issued.

At the beginning of the meeting the council awarded a $10,068 roofing contract to Hanover Iron Works Inc. The firm will put a new roof on the Sweeney water treatment plant, at Hilton.

The council adopted a three-part proposal of the City Planning Board, presented by Bert Flowers of that board.

He said the city needs three additional minimum housing code enforcement officers. He said the new officers are needed to do the work of the Housing Authority.

Councilwoman Hannah Block handed across the table a packet of pictures of houses in town which do not conform to the minimum code as an explanation of "why we need those officers."

Flowers said the additions to the staff will also be needed to receive funds for urban renewal.

He gave the council a suggested new code for the city, and asked the city to set up a minimum standards board for appeal by property owners from decisions of housing inspectors.

An appeal from that board, he said, would go to the courts. That would take the council from the position of being an appeal board.

Funds for the three additional officers would be a budget item, Brandon said. The code will have to be drawn up by the city attorney.

Former City Manager James R. Benson was appointed to the Board of Adjusters, replacing C. M. Harrington, who left that position to succeed E. S. Capps on the council.

Councilman-elect Luther Cromartie was a guest at Monday's meeting. Yow motioned him to a seat at the table, which he took, murmuring, "I hope I'm not being presumptuous."

The three councilmen elected earlier this month will be sworn in at the May 31 meeting. The ceremony will be at 11:30 a. m.

That meeting will also be the organizational session for the new council.

The new councilmen, Luther Cromartie and Harrington will attend a school for new councilmen in Chapel Hill, June 14 and 15, the council announced.

City police Pvt. W. M. Lewis was promoted to the rank of sergeant.

Councilman John Symmes asked Brandon for an opinion on requesting legislation levying a one-cent retail sales tax in the city. He said such a tax could allow the reduction of property taxes by as much as 50 per cent.

Brandon said the League of Municipalities had considered the sales tax, but felt there was a better chance of getting a bill to return three of the six per cent franchise tax paid by public utilities.

At present, he said, less than one per cent is being returned to the towns by the state.

Mr. MILLIS. It is a place on the inland waterway, by the Carolina Beach Bridge, going over to Carolina Beach, on the right. It is down to the right of the bridge.

Mr. APPELL. Even though you had evidence that at least one of your deputies had not dropped out of the Klan after you had issued orders for your men to drop out of the Klan, what type of surveillance has your office been conducting of the site at which the Klan holds their Klan rallies in order to determine the composition of the Klan as it exists at the present time?

Mr. MILLIS. The place at the present, I don't have any information of any deputies going to this location. I can go right on through and tell you these locations if you want to, of where they have met.

Mr. APPELL. I want to know what kind of intelligence activity your department is carrying out in order to keep yourself fully abreast of Klan activities within your county?

Mr. MILLIS. Well, I have asked the men to go that night and check and observe, and see if anything is going on. I am trying to find out if anyone was still in it, because I was confident there wasn't any more in it after this, after I talked to Goodwin the last time. I was confident they had really gotten out of it.

Mr. APPELL. After you found out that one of your deputies had not gotten out, contrary to your instructions, had you checked with, let's say, the head of the State Bureau of Investigation to determine whether or not they had any evidence?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir. The only time I talked to anyone in the SBI to begin with pertaining to the Klan was when they first started, when they just got organized, and I got Mr. Bill Hunt to go across the street with me and get a cup of coffee. I brought up the Klan and asked him if he knew it was organizing, and he didn't seem to have any knowledge of it. That is the only time that I had talked about it. They didn't seem to be interested and I didn't know if he would be or not. I was under the impression then it was legal and all right to operate.

Mr. ASHBROOK. Mr. Chairman, could I ask one point on this matter of surveillance and investigation?

You have talked extensively, Sheriff Millis, about the intelligence work of your department in regards to Klan activities. Going back to one specific point you raised, which wasn't clarified too much in my mind, the point at which there was a cross-burning in town and you referred to it as a big cross and the evidence indicates that it even required some demolition of the sidewalk to have it repaired, you noted at that point that there were some city policemen around.

Could you tell us on this same point of investigation and surveillance whether, to your knowledge, any of the city police members were in the Klan for the same purpose as yourself?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; I don't think so. I don't think there was.

Mr. ASHBROOK. But the original meeting you attended where the doors were closed, as you put it, after some 25 had left, and the oath was given, there were no city police members there either before or after the doors were closed?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir.

Mr. ASHBROOK. So to the best of your knowledge, no one in the city police force is a member of the Klan for any purpose, whether it be for surveillance or active participation?

Mr. MILLIS. No sir; I don't think they are.

Mr. APPELL. Chief, I am lost to understand the statement you made before Congressman Ashbrook's question, and that is your meeting with Sergeant or Detective Hunt with the SBI.

Mr. MILLIS. He is an investigator.

Mr. APPELL. An investigator for the SBI. And then asking him if he had heard whether or not there was a Klan organized in the community.

Mr. MILLIS. I asked him if he knew there had been.

Mr. APPELL. He knew that?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; he didn't comment.

Mr. APPELL. But why, when you were involved in the original organization of the Klan, did you ask him if he knew it?

Mr. MILLIS. The only thing that they were coming in on is felonies committed, they will come in and assist the local officers on investigations. There are some things that they won't, that you have to call for their assistance. It would have to be a felony. When I mentioned it and he didn't say anything, didn't comment, didn't seem to know anything about it, I didn't say anything else to him.

Mr. APPELL. But were you trying to determine from him—

Mr. MILLIS. Just to see if he had heard, but he didn't comment.

Mr. APPELL. As a security matter against yourself and your men?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; I don't think Mr. Hunt even had come into the picture at all at that time.

Mr. APPELL. Did you advise him that your men had infiltrated the organization?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; I didn't.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, the staff has no further questions of Sheriff Millis.

The CHAIRMAN. Sheriff, I call your attention to the Klanishness section of the oath of allegiance. I will read two paragraphs. The first paragraph reads:

I most solemnly pledge, promise and swear that I will never slander, defraud, deceive or in any manner wrong the * * * * a [Klan]*sman nor a [Klan]*sman's family nor will I suffer the same to be done if I can prevent it.

And then going down I read this paragraph:

I swear that I will keep secure to myself a secret of a [Klan]*sman when same is committed to me in the sacred bond of [Klan]*smanship—the crime of violating THIS solemn oath—treason against the United States of America—rape—and malicious murder—alone excepted.

Mr. Appell, under oath in his opening remarks and relating his experience in this investigation, said:

I have already read into the record the secrecy section of the Klan oath. The wording of this oath indicates that if a law enforcement officer should join the Klan and become a dedicated member of it, placing this oath above all others, he would place himself in the position of not being able to fully discharge his duties as a law enforcement officer.

In general, may I ask you, don't you agree with Mr. Appell's conclusion?

Mr. MILLIS. If he took this oath ahead of everything else in heart, I think he probably wouldn't be able to. But if he took it for other reasons——

The CHAIRMAN. In other words, you agree that such an officer who would take this oath, respecting it for all purposes except treason against the United States, rape and malicious murder, that taking the oath, according to Mr. Appell under oath, would, in his opinion, place that officer in the position of not being able to fully discharge his duties as a law enforcement officer.

Would you not agree with that?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir. That is one reason I made the remark that on account of our oath was the reason that I wanted them to clear the house.

The CHAIRMAN. That oath——

Mr. MILLIS. That is, after we——

The CHAIRMAN. —would embarrass an officer in apprehending a fellow Klansman in, for instance, the burning of a cross, would it not? Or exploding a bomb? That would include acts of violence of that type.

Mr. MILLIS. They would be acts of violence, that is right.

Mr. POOL. Mr. Chairman?

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Pool?

Mr. POOL. I have several questions. Were any other public officials in your county members of this Klan?

Mr. MILLIS. I don't have any knowledge.

Mr. POOL. You have no knowledge of any other public officials in your county being members of it?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir.

Mr. POOL. Were any close relatives of public officials members of the Klan?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir.

Mr. POOL. Would you care to name them?

Mr. MILLIS. My son-in-law. He went one night, I think.

Mr. POOL. Your son-in-law?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir.

Mr. POOL. What is his name?

Mr. MILLIS. J. T. Abbott.

Mr. POOL. He was a member of the Klan?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir.

Mr. POOL. That is the only relative you have?

Mr. MILLIS. The only relative.

Mr. POOL. And you have no knowledge of any other relative of any other public officials?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir. He didn't take part in it. He just left.

Mr. POOL. He wasn't in the Klan to keep touch and report to you?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir.

Mr. POOL. You have these deputies you testified a while ago that you assigned to investigate the cross-burnings in your county. Do you recall who these deputies were?

Mr. MILLIS. One of them was Mr. Paul Wolf.

Mr. POOL. Was he a member of the Klan?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir.

Mr. POOL. Who were some of the others?

Mr. MILLIS. I think O'Sullivan.

Mr. POOL. Was he a member of the Klan?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir.

Mr. POOL. Were any of those officers that you assigned to investigate the cross-burnings members of the Klan?

Mr. MILLIS. There is only one of them, Mr. H. N. Bridges, who was in it who went with another deputy to follow up some investigative work.

Mr. POOL. Did you or your men make a list of the membership of this Klan in New Hanover County?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir.

Mr. POOL. Did you have a chance to make a list?

Mr. MILLIS. Some of them that I imagine was in there could have.

Mr. POOL. Isn't that a pretty good idea, to have a list of the membership in case you have trouble?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, it would have been.

Mr. POOL. But you didn't do it?

Mr. MILLIS. Everybody to my knowledge that was in there at the time is out and I think there has been a complete turnover.

Mr. POOL. Did you take any pictures?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; we didn't have any chance to take a picture.

Mr. POOL. Let me ask you this, then: Did you make an investigative file on the Ku Klux Klan Klavern in your county?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; not on file there.

Mr. POOL. You had no notes or no information?

Mr. MILLIS. We had notes, there were some notes around.

Mr. POOL. Are these notes available to this committee?

Mr. MILLIS. I would have to get the notes from some of the deputies. All of them have notebooks.

Mr. POOL. Each deputy has his own notebook and that is his file?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; they make reports when a law has been violated and we file it away under the classification.

Mr. POOL. There is one question that bothered me a little bit, and that is either you or your men went to this meeting of the Klan for the purpose, I believe you said, that you were going to investigate to see what was going on, or something to that effect.

It is always a good idea when you do something like that to have a backstop in case you get caught. Did you notify the FBI that you were investigating this particular Klan in your county?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir. We thought at that time it was legal and went in to see what it was.

Mr. POOL. You didn't notify the State police agency?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir.

Mr. POOL. The SBI?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir. He is not available all the time. He works in several counties.

Mr. POOL. Did you tell your district judge or your circuit judge?

Mr. MILLIS. Afterwards, I talked to the district judge and I talked to Mr. John Burney, who had just been relieved as district solicitor. The other district solicitor had been relieved.

Mr. POOL. You talked to him?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes.

Mr. POOL. And you told him one of the purposes of going into the Klan was for the purpose of investigating it, keeping an eye on it?

Mr. MILLIS. When I talked to John Burney, he had just resigned. I was talking from the legal points.

Mr. POOL. But you didn't actually—

Mr. MILLIS. He had just been sworn in, and he lives in another county, the new one. He has four counties.

Mr. POOL. You say that you will supply these notebooks?

Mr. MILLIS. Everything that I can get, everything we can do.

Mr. POOL. Can you get your men, from their observations and investigations, to compile a list of the membership of this Klavern?

Mr. MILLIS. We will try to achieve that.

Mr. POOL. Will you furnish that to the committee?

Mr. MILLIS. We will try to achieve that; yes, sir. One reason that some of this wasn't done is everything looked legal. At that time there was no publicity on any Klan activity and no violation that I recall. Of course, sometime later on things did begin to come out.

Mr. POOL. Yet you said you got in to find out what was going on and to keep tab on them.

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir.

Mr. POOL. So we ought to have this information furnished to the committee.

Mr. MILLIS. I think so.

Mr. POOL. That is all.

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Chairman?

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Weltner.

Mr. WELTNER. Sheriff, you are the chief law enforcement officer of New Hanover County?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. And it is your responsibility under the laws and constitution of North Carolina to enforce the laws enacted by the State legislature?

Mr. MILLIS. That is true.

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Sheriff, I have a copy of the oath to be taken by the sheriffs in the State of North Carolina, which I would like to read and ask you whether or not this is the oath that you have taken.

I, ———, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will execute the office of sheriff of ——— County to the best of my knowledge and ability, agreeably to law; and that I will not take, accept, or receive, directly or indirectly, any fee, gift, bribe, gratuity or reward whatsoever, for returning any man to serve as a juror or for making any false return on any process to me directly so help me God.

Do you recall that to be the oath?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. I would like to turn to Section II, the secrecy oath, of the United Klans of America, which was exhibited to you at the outset of this session and read this section:

I most solemnly swear that I will forever keep sacredly secret the signs, word and grip and any and all other matters and knowledge of the * * * * [Ku Klux Klan]—regarding which a most rigid secrecy must be maintained which may at any time be communicated to me and will never divulge same nor even cause same to be divulged to any person in the whole world unless I know positively that such person is a member of this Order in good and regular standing—and not even then unless it be for the best interest of this Order. * * *—I will die rather than divulge same—so help me God—

Does this oath mean that if a Klansman states to another Klansman that he is guilty of offense against the laws of the State of North Carolina, that the party to whom it has been divulged cannot reveal that?

Mr. MILLIS. I never read the oath. I never studied it. All I know is when he administered the oath, it was strung around and I didn't hear everything he said. But the Klan oath is of some self-made organization. It is not law. My oath as sheriff is, and I am certain would override anything that would be in any organization I would join, whether it be fraternal or whatnot.

Mr. WELTNER. Let me ask you this hypothetical question:

As the chief law enforcement officer of Hanover County, if you had a deputy who was under some sort of a self-imposed restraint from imparting any information he might obtain about the Ku Klux Klan, would you feel like he could discharge his duties as your deputy?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir; I do.

Mr. WELTNER. Do you feel that a man can take this oath of secrecy and still be an officer of the law?

Mr. MILLIS. If he took it with the pretense of fulfilling that oath fully and sticking with the Klan, and his heart being in it, then I don't think he could.

Mr. WELTNER. If he meant what he said when he took the oath, he couldn't be an efficient and effective law enforcement officer?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; not if he took it for that purpose.

Mr. WELTNER. So if he sincerely subscribed to the words contained in this oath, it would mean that he would be unfit to exercise the duties of a law enforcement officer?

Mr. MILLIS. I am not an attorney. I don't know fully whether he would or not.

Mr. WELTNER. If he couldn't disclose any information that he might gain as to the commission of a crime, that would make him unfit to be a law enforcement officer; wouldn't it?

Mr. MILLIS. They have done it with me. They have brought information to me.

Mr. WELTNER. Sir?

Mr. MILLIS. They have brought information to me as to what was going on in the organization.

Mr. WELTNER. I am not asking you as to your personal experience. I am asking you as a law enforcement officer of 25 years experience, I believe. If a man is unable to report to you what he learns as to the commission of crimes in your county, then that man cannot be an effective law enforcement officer, acting under you; could he, sir?

Mr. MILLIS. Not if his heart was in it and he felt dedicated in his heart to carry out this oath, he wouldn't be.

Mr. WELTNER. Because he would have a higher duty, would he not?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. He would have a duty to the State of North Carolina pursuant to his oath as a law enforcement officer, and that duty pursuant to this oath is contradictory to the duty to the Klan pursuant to its oath; is that not right?

Mr. MILLIS. Apparently, since I looked it over, it looks like some of it would be.

Mr. WELTNER. It is contradictory?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. Thank you, sir.

Mr. BUCHANAN. Sheriff Millis, growing up in the South and having lived in the South all my life, it has been my distinct impression that the overwhelming majority of the people of the South do not approve of the Ku Klux Klan.

Would you say this to be true on the basis of your 25 years' experience in New Hanover County or not?

Mr. MILLIS. From the publicity it has got I don't think they look up to it much.

Mr. BUCHANAN. I beg your pardon?

Mr. MILLIS. I don't think they approve of it too much.

Mr. BUCHANAN. In trying to understand whatever measure of strength the Klan may possess, or whatever measure of public support and acceptance it may have, and I ask this for my personal information in trying to understand this situation, you have had a good bit to say about the activities of one David W. Jones. Would you say that his activities helped to create sympathy for or opposition to the Ku Klux Klan, or had no particular effect on public opinion towards the Klan?

Mr. MILLIS. At that time there was no Klan in New Hanover County.

Mr. BUCHANAN. There was no Klan at that point?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir.

Mr. BUCHANAN. Thank you, sir.

Mr. MILLIS. I think that boy's heart was in what he was doing. He was doing what he felt like he could do.

Mr. BUCHANAN. I intended no comment on the nature of his activities or the worthwhileness of his activities. I was interested in trying to understand whatever measure of strength and support the Klan might have and what factors might influence it pro or con.

That was the reason for my question.

Thank you.

Mr. SENNER. Sheriff Millis, who did you describe in testimony here who died from a heart attack?

Mr. MILLIS. Who died from a heart attack?

Mr. SENNER. Somebody who died, who is deceased? You said he was in the hospital for several months from a heart attack.

Mr. MILLIS. Mr. Bridges is one. He had a heart attack.

Mr. SENNER. How many cross-burnings have taken place in your jurisdiction, located within your jurisdiction?

Mr. MILLIS. In the city and county, there have been about five or six.

Mr. SENNER. Isn't it a fact that you have concurrent jurisdiction with the city in regards to misdemeanors and felonies?

Mr. MILLIS. We have an agreement with the police department that they will handle all criminal work within the city limits.

Mr. SENNER. Including felonies?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir; everything.

We have other work other than criminal work outside the city limits, and in the city, such as our civil work, our courts, our jail, and so forth.

Mr. SENNER. I take it that your office, in conjunction with working with the various city police departments within the county, has been unable to conclude investigations relative to the burning of a cross within your jurisdiction that would lead to the arrest of any individual; is that correct?

Mr. MILLIS. Do we work together on cases?

Mr. SENNER. Have you been able to conclude who the principals were in the commission of the crime of burning a cross, trespassing on other people's properties, and setting fire to crosses, within your jurisdiction?

Have you been able to solve one of these?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; we have not been.

Mr. SENNER. You have not been able to arrest a single soul?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir.

Mr. SENNER. Is your chief deputy Goodwin still on the force?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir; he is there.

Mr. SENNER. Is he still a member of the Klan?

Mr. MILLIS. Not to my knowledge, he is not.

Mr. SENNER. You testified that you had knowledge that he was a member of the Klan as late as September 1, 1964.

Mr. MILLIS. At one time he was, but I am almost certain he is not. If he is, it is unbeknown to me and it is certainly that he is going against our orders.

Mr. SENNER. Is your chief deputy Goodwin the one who keeps records?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; he is not chief deputy.

Mr. SENNER. What is his name?

Mr. MILLIS. Mr. Waters.

Mr. SENNER. I think your testimony would indicate that you stated when the cross was burned on the county courthouse grounds, in which they removed part of the sidewalk, some of your deputies observed the Cadillac?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; they seen the fire, to my understanding, when they was coming down the Third Street hill. They went up there and seen what happened and immediately called the city police. They started scouting around trying to find anyone who may have seen anything. They talked to a man who said there was four men who got out of a Cadillac and put the cross out and set it on fire and took off. They didn't get a license number or a description of the men.

Mr. SENNER. Did this man indicate how long it took four men to erect the cross on the county courthouse?

Mr. MILLIS. He talked like it took just a few seconds and they were gone.

Mr. SENNER. Even in view of your testimony that they had to remove part of the sidewalk?

Mr. MILLIS. I went out and looked where the cross was burned. It was a little place that already had been broken. There was a little piece of concrete sticking out and it looked like it had been broken.

Mr. SENNER. How deep did they dig the hole to place the cross?

Mr. MILLIS. It had been messed up. I don't know whether someone filled it up or not. But it was practically level when I seen it. Someone must have put the dirt back in.

Mr. SENNER. How did they get the cross to stand up?

Mr. MILLIS. I don't know. They could wedge it there, I suppose, between the sidewalk and the curb.

Mr. SENNER. What does your investigation disclose about how the cross stood, if you recall?

Mr. MILLIS. That it was wedged between the sidewalk and the curb and put into a hole.

Mr. SENNER. How deep was the hole?

Mr. MILLIS. I don't know. When I got there it was leveled off, on account of the people walking.

Mr. SENNER. I assume that your deputies when they contacted the city police went back to the scene of the crime.

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir. They stayed there until the police came.

Mr. SENNER. Wouldn't the report indicate how deep the hole was?

Mr. MILLIS. I can find out. I didn't ask him, but I can find out.

Mr. SENNER. Would you advise this committee?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir; on everything.

Mr. SENNER. Do I take it from your testimony that it is your opinion as a police officer with 25 years experience that that cross was erected in a matter of seconds?

Mr. MILLIS. Well, some people may refer to it as seconds when it may take a minute. He said they wasn't there long and they had erected this cross, set it on fire and took off. It didn't take long. He didn't say exactly how long. We can find this man and talk to him. I talked to a bondsman later on and inquired around, I asked him because his office was across the street. I asked him if he had seen anything, and he said yes, he had.

Mr. SENNER. If our information is correct, that the cross was 6 feet long and 18 inches wide, would they be able to get that in and out of a Cadillac?

Mr. MILLIS. Six feet long? I suppose they had it in the trunk. The end of it may stick out.

Mr. SENNER. I beg your pardon?

Mr. MILLIS. If they had it in the trunk of a Cadillac, the end of it may stick out. Six feet would be a right good, long trunk.

Mr. SENNER. Was it two by four or four by four?

Mr. MILLIS. I think it was four by four.

Mr. SENNER. A pretty heavy cross.

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir.

Mr. SENNER. What did you take the burning of the cross to mean to you or to the courthouse or the people of that county?

Mr. MILLIS. That night I couldn't understand it being in front of the courthouse. We in the sheriff's office was the only office open that night. I didn't know what the point was, until the next day, when it came out in the paper, and they said they burned so many over the State simultaneously. I haven't heard of any arrests being made anywhere in any county, or not to my knowledge.

Mr. SENNER. Sheriff, do you have any unsolved criminal offenses relative to the subject matter of beatings, bombings, burnings, sugar in gas tanks, dead chickens in post office boxes?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir. We have had mail boxes blown up, boys putting firecrackers into the mail boxes and blowing them up. We have made arrests at times, and sometimes it has gone on and we haven't been able to get anything.

Mr. SENNER. Do you think this is the work of the Klan?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; because it has been going on for years, at times, particularly at Christmastime.

Mr. POOL. Did you say mail boxes blown up?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir.

Mr. POOL. Did you report that to the Post Office Department?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir; and they refer it to us to find out something about it.

Mr. POOL. They don't send investigators down there?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir. We have mail boxes broken into and they left it up to us. We caught one recently who got a prison sentence. There was stamps taken, and I believe some post office money, as I can recall. They came out and looked but they left it up to us to investigate.

Mr. SENNER. Sheriff, do I take it from your testimony that on assault and battery cases, relative to, maybe, racial demonstrations of one kind or another, all of these are solved as far as your office is concerned, or do you have some unsolved?

Mr. MILLIS. In the county, outside of the city limits, we haven't had anything to attribute to anything that may be of a civil rights matter. They have in the city, on things that happened. Some have been solved and some haven't. Of course, they have been both ways, whites against colored and sometimes colored against whites. We had one white man beaten to death in front of a grocery store, stabbed in front of the store, about a year ago, Mr. Neil McLamb. An arrest was made in that case. The man was put in our jail and there was no uprising at all. We had an attorney whose brother was beaten by a group of colored boys and they were arrested and put in the jail and we didn't have any uprising at all in the county about it. We had the mother of a 9-year-old girl shot in her presence the day before Christmas Eve in the supermarket. Two was arrested. This happened in another county. Two was arrested and put in our jail and we didn't have any response to that whatsoever.

The white nurses home was broken into by a colored man, and he raped a nurse and then he went on Dock Street and broke in the home of a 14-year-old girl. The city police investigated. He is supposed to have tried to rape her or raped her. I don't remember now. There was no uprising about that.

We had a lady——

Mr. SENNER. Sheriff, what I understand you are talking about now——

Mr. MILLIS. It has been very quiet, with no uprising at all.

Mr. SENNER. —is when a person of Negro ancestry commits a crime, those are solved.

Mr. MILLIS. They are solved and, of course, the city police and all of us have been doing a pretty good job.

Mr. SENNER. What about the other way?

Mr. MILLIS. The other way has been, too, both ways.

Mr. SENNER. How come you haven't been able to solve any of these cross-burnings?

Mr. MILLIS. Most of them have been in the city and down at Rocky Beach. I think we may have had two or three in the county, but we haven't been able to get evidence on them.

Mr. SENNER. You just haven't been able to get that?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir.

Mr. SENNER. Have you asked Chief Deputy Goodwin whether or not he would know who set fire to these crosses?

Mr. MILLIS. Sir?

Mr. SENNER. Have you ever asked your Chief Deputy Goodwin whether or not he would know who set fire to these crosses?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir; we have called him and asked him if he thought it might be any Klan activity.

Mr. SENNER. What has been his response to you relative to this interrogation?

Mr. MILLIS. He didn't seem to think so. The only thing that looked like it might have been was the one in front of the courthouse, and some of the rest were just sticks tied together with kerosene on them, and some of them were just sticks broken that had burlap on them.

Mr. SENNER. In view of the oath of office that you take to uphold the constitution of the State of North Carolina, and the oath that has been administered both to yourself and to your Chief Deputy Goodwin—

Mr. MILLER. He is not the chief deputy.

Mr. SENNER. —and the conflict between these two oaths, are you telling this committee that you believe that you could rely on Mr. Goodwin's answers to you relative to an act of violence?

Mr. MILLIS. I will ask any deputy anything and take what I can get from him, and won't stop at that. That wouldn't be the end of it.

Mr. SENNER. Apparently your Chief Deputy Goodwin—

Mr. MILLIS. He is not chief.

Mr. SENNER. —didn't follow your orders and resign from the Klan.

Mr. MILLIS. He is not a chief deputy. He is a deputy, not a chief deputy.

Mr. SENNER. I thought you described him as chief deputy.

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir. Someone else did.

Mr. SENNER. Who is your chief deputy?

Mr. MILLIS. R. A. Jarrell.

Mr. SENNER. Is he a member of the Klan?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir.

Mr. SENNER. Was he?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir; for 2 or 3 nights he attended meetings.

Mr. SENNER. The same question I submitted to you relative to Goodwin, wouldn't that apply to your chief deputy? How can they follow your instruction, how can they report to you on the activities of the Klan when they conscientiously believe in this organization, and how can you reconcile that with the oath of office that you have taken for the people that elected you to that office, to uphold the laws of the State of North Carolina?

Mr. MILLIS. The laws have certainly been upheld. I believe that since some of this stuff has come out about the Klan activities, even Mr. Goodwin has frowned on it, some of the things that happened. I believe with the type of man he is, I believe he would still go out and make an investigation and would make the arrest.

Mr. SENNER. Sheriff, what time of night did the cross-burning take place on the county courthouse?

Mr. MILLIS. I believe it was about 10 or 11 o'clock. That is the best I can recall. I would have to look at the report.

Mr. SENNER. And you could only find one person on the street that observed this Cadillac?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; the city police and the deputies talked to a man that seen it that night.

Mr. SENNER. What did you do in your individual capacity as sheriff relative to the burning of the cross on the property of the county of New Hanover, belonging to the people of that county?

Mr. MILLIS. It was on the city sidewalk. Of course, the next morning when I seen the report I called the deputies and talked to them. They told me what they could about it. I went out and looked at the spot where it was. I knew there was a bondsman across the street, Mr. Parish, and I talked to him and he said he seen them. I asked him could he get a license number and he said no, and I asked him could he identify the men, and he said no, he could not identify them.

Mr. SENNER. How many Cadillacs do you have in your county?

Mr. MILLIS. There is a number of Cadillacs.

Mr. SENNER. You made no check of the color of the car, the description of the car?

Mr. MILLIS. One said white and one said black. Of course, it is extreme colors, but somebody should get together on it.

Mr. SENNER. And I take it you didn't find one.

Mr. MILLIS. Right.

The CHAIRMAN. Do I understand you have a couple of questions left?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

Sheriff Millis, during the interrogation of Mr. Constantineau yesterday, it was brought out that he holds a Federal Firearms License and sells weapons at his Beacon Gun Shop. Congressman Weltner had swiftly reviewed the records of sales which we subpoenaed from him and noted for the record that several weapons were purchased by Klansmen in the Wilmington area.

I do not recall specifically how many. What investigation has your office made of the sale of weapons by Mr. Constantineau to people whom your department knows to be Klansmen in order to determine whether or not these people are carrying these weapons as Klansmen in violation of North Carolina law?

Mr. MILLIS. I don't know of any Klansman that has bought a permit that I can recall. There may have been, but I don't recall any. The State law says that all they would have to do to satisfy the sheriff of a county is the person's reputation to obtain a permit, if there has never been any kind of trouble. If you have a good reputation, you are bound to get a permit under the State law. I don't know of any particular name of any particular Klansman.

Mr. APPELL. The records that Mr. Weltner referred to of purchases I think were handguns, revolvers, and pistols, and they were Warren Chadwick, McLamb, and Red Biddle. Under the Federal law, Mr. Constantineau has to keep records and these records are available to you. You could examine them and your department could examine them and determine whether or not a person bought a weapon for which a permit must be obtained from your office, and could have carried out an investigation to determine whether or not purchasing that pistol was in violation of the North Carolina law.

What I ask you, sir, is what action has your department taken in order to make these determinations?

Mr. MILLIS. If a person can legally purchase a gun, there is nothing to be done, if he has a good reputation. But the gun is supposed to be for his home protection.

Mr. APPELL. But he has to get a permit from you, I understand.

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir. It is home protection or self-defense, the way the law reads. It says he has to be of good reputation.

Mr. APPELL. But if he doesn't have a permit and did buy a weapon, then he is violating North Carolina law; is that true?

Mr. MILLIS. That is right.

Mr. APPELL. What determination has your department made that these men, who, according to Mr. Constantineau's records, did purchase hand weapons, have or have not obtained licenses or permits from your department?

Mr. MILLIS. I didn't have any knowledge of that. If he did that, he certainly violated the law.

Mr. WELTNER. The testimony on yesterday established that in June 1964, W. J. Chadwick purchased a .38 caliber Smith and Wesson revolver and I think in August 1964 he purchased a .32 caliber Smith and Wesson revolver.

Mr. MILLIS. Unless he had a permit to do it each time he violated the State law.

Mr. APPELL. Will your department, after we return these records to Mr. Constantineau, enforce the law with respect to those people who have purchased weapons and who have not obtained a permit from your department?

Mr. MILLIS. Yes, sir; yes, sir. If it is a violation of law we will do it.

Mr. APPELL. I have no further questions.

Mr. POOL. What criteria do you use in determining if a person is a law-abiding and good citizen?

Mr. MILLIS. One thing is to check his records, to see he has no record. If someone can vouch for him, with a good reputation who we have known for a period of years, if he can vouch for him.

Mr. POOL. If you determine this man is a Klansman, would you approve him the purchase of a gun?

Mr. MILLIS. If he was of good reputation, under the State law we couldn't deny it.

Mr. POOL. Even though he belonged to the Ku Klux Klan?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir. If we have any right, I would like to stop them, if we have any right to do it.

The CHAIRMAN. Sheriff, you said very early in your testimony, I think referring to your second meeting in a motel, if I remember well, that someone was thrown out or expelled or not accepted, told to get out. Who was that?

Mr. MILLIS. It was Raymond Chadwick, I understand.

The CHAIRMAN. It is not this Chadwick we are talking about?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir; not Warren Chadwick.

Mr. SENNER. I just have one more point, Mr. Chairman.

Sheriff, in view of the fact that the oath indicates that a Klansman would not tell any secret on another Klansman except treason, rape, or malicious murder, any other crime committed by a Klansman of which that Klansman had personal knowledge and failed to report it to the police department, would you classify that individual as a person of good reputation?

Mr. MILLIS. Well, I don't think he would be a law-abiding citizen if he didn't cooperate with the law.

Mr. SENNER. Would you classify that person as a law-abiding citizen, who had failed to report any crime committed against the State of North Carolina except treason, rape, and malicious—

Mr. MILLIS. I have never read this oath, but you are bringing some points out now, and I believe if he stuck by this he would be a law-abiding citizen, he would be cooperating with what he ought to do as a citizen.

Mr. SENNER. If he knew a crime was committed in your county and failed to divulge it to you?

Mr. MILLIS. If he failed to report it, I don't think he would be a good or law-abiding citizen.

Mr. SENNER. You don't think he would be?

Mr. MILLIS. No, sir.

Mr. SENNER. Isn't it a fact that every Klansman, if they believe in their oath, would fail, based upon the oath, to disclose to you that a crime had been committed except in those categories that I mentioned?

Mr. MILLIS. If he stuck by that completely, and made it ironclad, he wouldn't be.

Mr. SENNER. In other words, a Klansman is not a law-abiding citizen; is that right?

Mr. MILLIS. At the time this thing was being administered, we had no intention of anything like this at all. The idea was to try to obtain information.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Reporter, you will, as usual, insert into the record at the appropriate points where they were offered and discussed the exhibits referred to.

The Chair would like to say this, Sheriff, that you appeared here without a lawyer and you submitted, I think, an editorial and two or three copies of letters of commendation. I think you are entitled to have them inserted in the record and they will be inserted at the point where you commented on them.

The committee wishes to thank you for the position you have taken before us, and for the cooperation you have given to the committee today.

Thank you very much. You are excused and discharged from your subpoena. However, before that, it is understood, is it, that the committee may send an investigator to see you and you will supply the information and material that you talked about during your testimony?

Mr. MILLIS. We will do that fully.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you very much.

The committee will stand in recess until 2:45.

(Members present at time of recess: Representatives Willis, Pool, Weltner, Ashbrook, and Buchanan, of the subcommittee, and also Representative Senner.)

(Whereupon, at 1 p.m. Tuesday, October 26, 1965, the subcommittee recessed, to reconvene at 2:45 p.m. the same day.)

AFTERNOON SESSION—TUESDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1965

(The subcommittee reconvened at 2:55 p.m., Hon. Edwin E. Willis, chairman, presiding.)

(Subcommittee members present: Representatives Willis, Pool, and Weltner.)

The CHAIRMAN. The subcommittee will please come to order.

Call your next witness, Mr. Appell.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Robert L. Reaves.

The CHAIRMAN. Please raise your right hand.

You do solemnly swear that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mr. REAVES. I do.

TESTIMONY OF ROBERT LEE REAVES, ACCOMPANIED BY COUNSEL,
LESTER V. CHALMERS, JR.

Mr. APPELL. Will you state your full name for the record, sir?

Mr. REAVES. Robert L. Reaves, Robert Lee Reaves.

Mr. APPELL. Will you speak into the microphone, please, sir?

Mr. REAVES. Robert L. Reaves.

Mr. APPELL. Are you appearing here this afternoon in accordance with the subpoena served upon you?

Mr. REAVES. I am.

Mr. APPELL. That was served at 5:50 o'clock p.m., on the 11th day of October 1965?

Mr. REAVES. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Are you represented by counsel?

Mr. REAVES. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Will counsel identify himself for the record?

Mr. CHALMERS. Lester V. Chalmers, Jr., attorney at law, Room 501, First Federal Building, Raleigh, North Carolina.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Reaves, when and where were you born?

Mr. REAVES. I respectfully decline to answer this question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Reaves, what is your employment background?

Mr. REAVES. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Reaves, under the conditions of the subpoena served upon you on October 11, you were commanded to bring with you and to produce items called for in the attachment to that subpoena which are set forth in two parts. I now read part 1:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and affiliated organizations, namely, the Alabama Rescue Service, Realm (State) of North Carolina, and Keystone Club in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by you or available to you as Grand Kladd, Realm (State) of North Carolina, and as an officer of the Keystone Club of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

I request that you produce those documents in accordance with that subpoena.

Mr. REAVES. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents and records as commanded by the subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so, the same might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

(At this point Mr. Buchanan entered the hearing room.)

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Chalmers, I take it that the following stipulation along the lines already entered into is agreed upon, to wit: (1) That the witness has been furnished a copy of the chairman's opening statement of October 19, 1965, and that he is familiar with its contents; (2) that the directions of the subpoena to produce the documents called for are made to the witness in the official representative capacity described in the subpoena.

Is that correct?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir. May I state while I am on my feet, Mr. Chairman, I conferred with counsel this morning, of the committee and, of course, I realize and I am certain each member of the committee realizes, that for them to have to repeat the same thing over each time after Mr. Appell makes the direction and you make the order, if the chairman in his wisdom and experience can help us solve that situation, I will be more than happy to trust his wisdom and his experience in this matter and his fairness to my clients, each of them, if we can start thinking along the same lines, because we have your direction and he will have to read it back, and then we have item 2, which will have to be read back, and Mr. Appell will have to go through his, my clients will have to go through his, the chairman will have to go through his.

(At this point Mr. Ashbrook entered the hearing room.)

The CHAIRMAN. I think the directions will be given, but from now on you can say that your client declines to produce for the reasons previously stated.

In the next paragraph I will order him to produce the documents on the basis of the previously entered into stipulation. We can shorten it that way.

Mr. CHALMERS. All right, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. I now order and direct you to produce those documents.

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. REAVES. I decline to produce those documents for the reasons heretofore stated.

Mr. CHALMERS. May I ask counsel and the chairman, Are we all in accord?

The CHAIRMAN. We are.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Reaves, part 2 of your subpoena reads as follows:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by or available to you, in your capacity as Grand Kladd, Realm (State) of North Carolina, and as an officer of the Keystone Club of the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, which the "Constitution and Laws" of said organization authorize and require to be maintained by you and any other officer of said organization, the same being in your possession, custody or control.

I now ask that you produce the documents called for in part 2.

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. REAVES. I respectfully decline to produce those documents based on the grounds heretofore stated.

The CHAIRMAN. I take it that the same stipulation just entered into applies to this paragraph?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. For the reasons previously stated, I order and direct you to produce the documents.

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. REAVES. I respectfully decline to produce those documents based on the grounds heretofore stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Reaves, are you currently a member of the United Klans of America?

Mr. REAVES. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reasons that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. POOL. What was his answer?

The CHAIRMAN. He declined.

Mr. POOL. On what ground?

The CHAIRMAN. The fifth amendment.

Mr. CHALMERS. It is the same.

Mr. POOL. Would you state your answer again?

Let him state his answer again.

Mr. REAVES. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Reaves, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you have held the position of exalted cyclops, or president, of the Keystone Club, which is a Klan cover name of a Klavern in Henderson, North Carolina.

Mr. REAVES. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. POOL. Mr. Chairman, could we stipulate on that to save time?

The CHAIRMAN. That is up to his counsel.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Reaves, the committee received in response to a subpoena duces tecum of the First National Bank of Henderson, North Carolina, an account maintained by that bank in the name of the Keystone Club, P.O. Box 1069, Henderson, North Carolina.

Together with the ledger cards and canceled checks, there was submitted certain signature cards, which is the authority of the bank to issue checks on any two and three signers listed on these cards. The first one I show you is dated September 11, 1964, which contains the names of R. L. Reaves, J. R. Hicks, B. W. Rivers.

I show you this card and put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that this is the official signature card and that the three names read to you were officers of that organization.

(Document handed to witness.)

Mr. REAVES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "Robert Reaves Exhibit No. 1" appears on p. 2009.)

Mr. APPELL. I show you a second signature card which revised the first and was effective December 18, 1964, containing the signatures of Robert L. Reaves, James L. Ranes, and B. W. Rivers.

I hand you this card and put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that these three names, three individuals, were officers of the Keystone Club, a cover organization for the Klan.

(Document handed to witness.)

Mr. REAVES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "Robert Reaves Exhibit No. 2" appears on p. 2009.)

Mr. APPELL. I show you a third signature card dated July 9, 1965, for the Keystone [Club] Welfare Fund, containing the signatures "Robert L. Reaves," "James L. Ranes," and ask you, as of July—I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that as of July 9, 1965, the two names appearing on the card were known to you as officers of the Keystone Club.

(Document handed to witness.)

Mr. REAVES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I hand you an application blank for the rental of Post Office Box 1069 which, according to the bank records, is the official mailing address of the Keystone Club.

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that Wayne Rivers, in making application for this post office box, did so for a Klan of the United Klans of America.

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. REAVES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, for the purpose of establishing the Keystone Club as a club of the Klan, I desire to exhibit to Mr. Reaves at this time a check dated July 12, 1965, made payable to the "Alb Restcue [sic] Service" in the amount of $36.50, with the rubber stamp appearing over the names of the cosigners, Keystone Club, Henderson, North Carolina, James L. Ranes, Robert L. Reaves, cosigners.

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that this check was forwarded to the Alabama Rescue Service as indicated by the endorsement that appears on the reverse thereof as payment of imperial tax by the Keystone Club.

Mr. REAVES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "Robert Reaves Exhibit No. 5" appears on p. 2012.)

Mr. APPELL. For the same purpose, Mr. Chairman, I exhibit a check dated July 12, 1965, payable to J. R. Jones in the amount of $18.25, with the rubber stamp above the cosigners' names of Keystone Club, Henderson, North Carolina, James L. Ranes, Robert L. Reaves, with the endorsement of J. R. Jones, which was deposited to the joint bank account of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Jones.

Mr. REAVES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "Robert Reaves Exhibit No. 6" appears on p. 2013.)

The CHAIRMAN. Did you know when you sent that check that Mr. and Mrs. Jones would deposit that money to their personal account instead of to the North Carolina Realm account?

Mr. REAVES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, the First National Bank of Henderson, North Carolina, forwarded us copies of the debit items which appeared in their ledger records at the time the subpoena was served upon them.

As to checks dating back to 1964, the bank prepared from the Recordak copies maintained by the bank duplicates of checks drawn against the account of the Keystone Club. According to the records presented to the committee by the bank, certified copies of checks issued by the Keystone Club, a check was issued on June 9, 1965, to Sears, Roebuck & Company in the amount of $85.98. The purpose for which drawn is shown as "Radios."

I exhibit this copy of a check to Mr. Reaves and ask Mr. Reaves if he knows it to be a true copy of a check which he cosigned.

(At this point Mr. Weltner returned to the hearing room.)

(Document handed to witness.)

Mr. REAVES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "Robert Reaves Exhibit No. 7" and retained in committee files.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Reaves, I desire to ask you, and I do ask you, whether or not the radios could have been, by any chance, citizens band radios?

Mr. REAVES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Do you possess knowledge of the use of citizens band radios for the purpose of carrying out Klan activities in the State of North Carolina?

Mr. REAVES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Reaves, do you presently hold the position of grand kladd or conductor for the Realm of North Carolina, United Klans of America?

Mr. REAVES. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, the staff has no further questions to ask of this witness.

The CHAIRMAN. The witness is excused and discharged from his subpoena.

Call the next witness.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to call as the next witness Charles Douglas Deese.

The CHAIRMAN. Please raise your right hand.

You do solemnly swear that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mr. DEESE. I do.

TESTIMONY OF CHARLES DOUGLAS DEESE, ACCOMPANIED BY COUNSEL, LESTER V. CHALMERS, JR.

Mr. APPELL. Would you state your full name for the record, please?

Mr. DEESE. Charles Douglas Deese.

Mr. APPELL. Would you spell your last name?

Mr. DEESE. D-e-e-s-e.

Mr. APPELL. Are you popularly known as Bud Deese?

Mr. DEESE. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that the answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights guaranteed me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. CHALMERS. Mr. Chairman, may I say this, sir: The subpoena reads "Charles Bud Deese" and I will stipulate what the subpoena shows.

The CHAIRMAN. All right. Thank you very much.

Mr. APPELL. When and where were you born, Mr. Deese?

Mr. DEESE. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4 and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chalmers, I do not think I have identified you.

Are you represented by counsel?

Mr. DEESE. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Would counsel please identify himself for the record?

Mr. CHALMERS. I am Lester V. Chalmers, Jr., attorney at law, Room 501, First Federal Building, Raleigh, North Carolina.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Deese, would you give the committee your employment background?

Mr. DEESE. I respectfully decline to answer that question for reasons that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Deese, the subpoena served upon you at 11:15 o'clock a.m. on the 11th day of October 1965 commands you to bring with you and to produce before the committee:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and affiliated organizations, namely, the Alabama Rescue Service, Realm (State) of North Carolina, in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by you or available to you as a former officer, Realm (State) of North Carolina, of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

Mr. DEESE. I respect—

Mr. APPELL. I ask you to produce those documents as called for in the subpoena.

Mr. DEESE. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents and records as demanded by the committee in a subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so, the same might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by the amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Chalmers, I take it that the stipulation made heretofore in the following form: (1) That the witness has been furnished a copy of the chairman's opening statement of October 19, 1965, and that he is familiar with its contents; and (2) that the direction of the subpoena to produce the documents called for are made to the witness in the official representative capacity described in the subpoena.

Is that correct?

Mr. CHALMERS. It is so stipulated.

The CHAIRMAN. I take it that your client understands that the order I am about to make has the meaning that the committee does not agree with his right to invoke the privilege of the fifth amendment and that so far as we are concerned, from our point of view, he is subject to a contempt citation.

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. I order and direct you to produce those documents. (Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. DEESE. I respectfully decline to produce those documents for the reasons heretofore given.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Deese, the committee investigation established that on January 26, 1964, you were elected grand kligrapp, or secretary, of the Realm of North Carolina, United Klans of America. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you were so elected.

Mr. DEESE. I respectfully decline to answer that question for reasons that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights guaranteed to me by the amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Deese, a memorandum of committee investigator McConnon, relating to an interview with Arthur C. Leonard, sets forth that Mr. Leonard advised him that you were arrested in Asheboro, North Carolina, during a Negro demonstration for carrying a concealed weapon.

Is the information given by Mr. Leonard true or false?

Mr. DEESE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(At this point Mr. Weltner returned to the hearing room.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, after reading the exhibit to the witness, I would like to exhibit a document obtained from the Asheboro Police Department, Asheboro, North Carolina, called an Arrest Report.

Mr. Chairman, there has been a hole punched through the month, but I think the month is properly August 15, 1964. At 4:10 p.m., Case No. 15034; name, Charles Douglas Deese; date of birth, 8-21-31; age, 32; address, Route 7, Box 230, Salisbury, North Carolina; occupation, M&M truck, Greensboro; offense: (1) Carrying a concealed weapon; (2) interfering with an officer performing his duty; (3) causing a riot; (4) using indecent and profane language.

The report reads:

At above time and date while assisting in the arrest of demonstrators on Sunset Avenue, front of Little Castle, Mr. Deese called someone—a Son of a Bitch. Arrested him and after placing him in car he passed a .22 cal[iber] pistol to Edward D. Powell. There was about 100 persons at the scene of the demonstrations and after subject was placed in jail.

And I quote this—

Warrant was before C. O. Bulla (J.P.) Bond set at $1,000. Bond signed by Bailright Bonding Co., To be tried 3-17-64.

It must be 2-17.

I show you this report of arrest, Mr. Deese, and ask you if you have any comment to make upon that document.

(Document was handed to witness.)

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. CHALMERS. I don't think that is a question. You asked if he had any comment.

The CHAIRMAN. Is the charge, the report of arrest, true or false?

Mr. DEESE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Was the cost of the bail bond put up by the Bailright Bonding Company, paid by Grand Dragon James R. Jones?

Mr. DEESE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. According to the police department, James R. Jones was seen in the vicinity several times on the day of your arrest. Was he present there with you?

Mr. DEESE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Do you know a Paul E. Bailey?

Mr. DEESE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Did you have in your possession at the time of arrest a KKK membership card with $10 in the name of Paul E. Bailey?

Mr. DEESE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. The man that you passed the pistol to, Edward D. Powell, do you know him to be a member of the Ku Klux Klan?

Mr. DEESE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Deese, was that the first arrest of you by officers, law enforcement officers?

Mr. DEESE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. On December 18, 1962, were you arrested for the assault on a female, discharged upon the payment of a $25 fine?

Mr. DEESE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, at your suggestion, I think it would be better to read into the record—

The CHAIRMAN. You don't have to read it, but sum it up.

Mr. APPELL. The certified copy of the clerk of Superior Court, Rowan County, Salisbury, North Carolina, shows Graham Snider and Margie Hinceuias. According to the same record, assault on female, 6-22-65, Sue Blume, guilty, discharged upon payment of costs.

I ask you if that record as reported on the certified copy of the court record is factual?

Mr. DEESE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I read another entry on this, Mr. Deese, which reads: "B. & E. L. & R."—breaking and entry, larceny and robbery as I interpret it—"Guilty—Let the defendant be confined in the Central Prison for not less than 5 nor more than 7 yrs. to be assigned to hard labor as provided by law."

There were two additional pleas to this case and the 5 to 7 years were suspended for 4 years, not to violate any laws of North Carolina. That is dated 11-21-51.

I ask you if that is factual?

Mr. DEESE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Did you serve the time as stated in the order?

Mr. DEESE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Deese, do you know if you were investigated by the Ku Klux Klan by their investigative procedure at the time they accepted you into this organization?

Mr. DEESE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. What was the question?

Mr. APPELL. Whether or not they investigated his background at the time they accepted him into the organization.

I ask you whether you know if they possessed knowledge of your background at the time they elected you to the office of secretary for the Realm of North Carolina, or kligrapp of the realm.

Mr. DEESE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. While the questions are perfectly obvious, I will point out in my opening statement I said that one of the subjects to be inquired into would be the type of people in position of leadership in Klan organizations.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, the staff has no further questions of this witness.

Mr. ASHBROOK. Mr. Witness, have you at any time received admonishment from the Grand Dragon, Mr. Jones, of your State, as to violence, as to any of the matters which brought you into contact with the police, which meant charges against you?

At any time, has there been any efforts to admonish you about this type of contact?

Mr. DEESE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. The witness is excused and discharged from the subpoena.

Call your next witness.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to call Robert Hudgins.

The CHAIRMAN. Please raise your right hand.

You do solemnly swear that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mr. HUDGINS. I do.

TESTIMONY OF ROBERT EUGENE HUDGINS, ACCOMPANIED BY COUNSEL, LESTER V. CHALMERS, JR.

Mr. APPELL. Would you state your full name for the record, please, sir?

Mr. HUDGINS. Robert E. Hudgins.

Mr. APPELL. Are you appearing here today in accordance with a subpoena served upon you at 4:30 p.m., on the 11th day of October, 1965, at Cary, North Carolina?

Mr. HUDGINS. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Are you represented by counsel?

Mr. HUDGINS. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Will counsel please identify himself for the record, please?

Mr. CHALMERS. Lester V. Chalmers, Jr., attorney at law, Room 501, First Federal Building, Raleigh, North Carolina.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Hudgins, when and where were you born?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. How in the world could a disclosure of when and where you were born incriminate you?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Do you understand that the only justification for invoking the privilege of the fifth amendment is an honest belief on the part of the person invoking it that a truthful answer might incriminate him?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Hudgins, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you were born on August 2, 1933, in Vance County, North Carolina.

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Will you set forth your employment background?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Are you still a salesman for Southern Foods, Inc., Greensboro, North Carolina?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Hudgins, under the provisions of the subpoena served upon you on October 11, 1965, you were commanded to bring with you and to produce before the committee items contained on an attachment which was made a part of the subpoena.

Paragraph 1 reads:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and affiliated organizations, namely, the Alabama Rescue Service, Realm (State) of North Carolina, Capital City Restoration Association, Province #4, Realm (State) of North Carolina, in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by you or available to you as Imperial Kladd—

The CHAIRMAN. What is a Kladd again?

Mr. APPELL. Conductor.

—United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Grand Titan, Province #4, Realm (State) of North Carolina, and as an officer of the Capital City Restoration Association of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

I ask you to produce the documents called for in part 1 of the subpoena.

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents and records as commanded by the committee in a subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so, the same might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. CHALMERS. Mr. Chairman, the same stipulation that you have heretofore read we stipulate to.

The CHAIRMAN. Each witness must contain at least one reading.

The stipulation reads as follows: (1) That the witness has been furnished a copy of the chairman's opening statement of October 19, 1965, and that he is familiar with its contents; (2) that the directions of the subpoena to produce the documents called for are made to the witness in the official representative capacity described in the subpoena.

That stipulation is made?

Mr. CHALMERS. It is so stipulated; yes, sir.

Mr. CHAIRMAN. I order and direct you to produce those documents, which means that we do not agree this time that you have a right to invoke the fifth amendment, and, therefore, that you may be subjected to the citation for contempt.

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to deliver the documents for the reasons heretofore stated.

The CHAIRMAN. I meant to say it was rejected for all the grounds indicated in your opening statement.

Do you understand that?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir; I think the Chairman and myself understand very clearly.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Hudgins, part 2 of the subpoena calls upon you to bring with you and to produce:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by or available to you, in your capacity as Imperial Kladd, United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Grand Titan, Province #4, Realm (State) of North Carolina, and as an officer of the Capital City Restoration Association of the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, which the "Constitution and Laws" of said organization authorize and require to be maintained by you, and any other officer of said organization, the same being in your possession, custody or control.

I ask you to produce those documents.

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. HUDGINS. I decline to produce those records and documents based upon the grounds heretofore stated.

The CHAIRMAN. And the same stipulation we just made applies?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Therefore, I order and direct you to produce those documents.

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully refuse to produce those records and documents based upon the grounds heretofore stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Hudgins, are you presently a member of the Ku Klux Klan?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Hudgins, I hand you a copy of an application for a Post Office Box, No. 10484. The application reads: "Name of applicant, Robert E. Hudgins; name of firm or corporation, Capital City Restoration Association; kind of business, Civic and Fraternal Organization; business address, Same; home address, 411 Dorothy Drive, Cary, North Carolina." It is signed Robert E. Hudgins.

I hand you this document and put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that it is your signature that is contained on that application.

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. What does the Capital City Restoration Association restore?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. How can a restoration association be a civic and fraternal organization?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Isn't the Capital City Restoration Association simply a front or a cover name for a Klavern or a Klan unit?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Why do you have to resort to adopting phony names for a Klan organization if it is a valid civic and fraternal organization?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Chairman?

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Weltner.

Mr. WELTNER. To refresh my memory, am I correct in thinking that the grand titan is the leader of the subdivision within the realm known as a province, which coincides with a congressional district?

The CHAIRMAN. He is the Imperial Kladd.

Mr. WELTNER. I note in the subpoena duces tecum this witness was required to produce certain records of Province No. 4 in North Carolina. I notice that the Province 4 coincides with the congressional district, does it not?

Mr. APPELL. A province, sir?

Mr. WELTNER. What is the investigator's information as to the geographical extent of Province No. 4 for North Carolina?

Mr. APPELL. I have not looked up the boundaries of that district, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. It is in the record as an exhibit on the first day of the hearing.

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir. And again, to straighten the record out, the staff might have made an error in drafting the subpoena. I think it is a typographical error. I think it should have read Province 5 instead of Province 4, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. Is it the committee's information that this witness is the grand titan of a province within the Realm of North Carolina of UKA?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. In addition to being Imperial Kladd and grand kladd?

Mr. APPELL. Not the grand kladd.

Mr. WELTNER. Imperial Kladd?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. That is the title?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Will counsel stipulate that that should be Province 5 instead of Province 4 in the subpoena?

Mr. CHALMERS. If it is within my province to stipulate. I have no knowledge, Mr. Chairman. I imagine sometime the chairman will take a recess this afternoon and we can discuss that.

The CHAIRMAN. All right. We will take a recess for 5 minutes.

(Whereupon, at 3:50 p.m., the subcommittee recessed and reconvened at 3:59 p.m., all subcommittee members being present at time of recess and when hearings resumed.)

The CHAIRMAN. The subcommittee will please come to order.

The Chair states that during the recess the committee checked its files and found out that the subpoena properly describes the geographical territory involved.

Therefore, no stipulation is necessary.

Proceed.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Hudgins, the committee obtained through a subpoena duces tecum from the Wachovia Bank and Trust Company, Raleigh, North Carolina, the records relating to a checking account for the Capital City Restoration Association, P.O. Box 10484, Raleigh, North Carolina.

I hand you one of the documents presented by the bank which shows that the account was opened on 7-10-64 in the name of the Capital City Restoration Association, and that the authorized signatures to this account, with both signatures required on checks, are Harold Gunter and Robert E. Hudgins.

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny this fact, that the signature contained on the signature card is your signature.

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

ROBERT HUDGINS EXHIBIT No. 4

Gentlemen:

This is to advise that Thomas E. Nichols has succeeded Joseph G. Marshburn as Treasurer of Capital City Restoration Association.
This change is to be effective May 12, 1965 and the signature of Joseph G. Marshburn is to be no longer authorized after that date.

You are authorized to honor and charge to this account checks signed by Thomas E. Nichols effective the above date of change. This authorization is to remain in effect until revoked in writing.

Yours very truly,

Robert Hudgins

Robert Hudgins
Title

(Document handed to witness.)

The CHAIRMAN. Is there a question?

Mr. APPELL. No question, sir. I just desired to read it into the record.

Mr. Hudgins, I ask you on the date effective May 12, 1965, if Thomas E. Nichols replaced Joseph—I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that Thomas E. Nichols replaced Joseph G. Marshburn as treasurer or klabee of the Capital City Restoration Association.

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Hudgins, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you were elected Imperial Kladd of the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, at a klonvokation held in Birmingham, Alabama, on September 5-6, 1964.

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that Wayne Shaver, of North Carolina, was a member of the nominating committee which nominated you to office.

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Hudgins, did there build up within the Realm of North Carolina a disagreement between you and Marshall Kornegay over the conduct of affairs of the Realm of North Carolina?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Wasn't Mr. Kornegay going around the State making derogatory statements against you to members of Klaverns which you served?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, for the purpose of establishing the fact that the Capital City Restoration Association is a Klavern of the United Klans of America, I hand Mr. Hudgins two checks, one dated July 21, 1965, in the amount of $7.25; one dated August 5, 1965, in the amount of $7.75. Both checks are imprinted checks of the Capital City Restoration Association. They are both payable to J. R. Jones. They both show—on the July check that it is June tax, on the August check that it is July tax, and they both contain the signature of Mr. Hudgins.

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that these checks were paid to J. R. Jones for the per capita assessment against the membership of the Capital City Restoration Association, a Klan within the Realm of North Carolina.

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Documents marked "Robert Hudgins Exhibits Nos. 6-A and 6-B," respectively.)

Mr. APPELL. For the same purpose, Mr. Chairman, I hand to the witness only one of many checks. This is a check dated July 21, 1965, an imprinted check of the Capital City Restoration Association, payable to the Alabama Rescue Service, in the amount of $14.50, the purpose for which drawn is June tax. The signature of Robert E. Hudgins appears thereon.

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that this check was drawn to pay the imperial tax of the Capital City Restoration Association, a Klan of the United Klans of America.

(Witness confers with counsel.)

The CHAIRMAN. This is a disbursement to the North Carolina Realm?

Mr. APPELL. The last check was to the imperial. The earlier checks were to the state.

Mr. HUDGINS, are you the holder of an ATU gun license?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. WELTNER. By ATU, do you mean Alcohol Tax Unit?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir. They administer and enforce the Federal Firearms Act.

Mr. WELTNER. That is a license issued by the Treasury Department of the United States Government?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. I hand you a copy of an application for license (Federal Firearms Act), dated June 8, 1964, signed Robert E. Hudgins. I ask you if you executed this document?

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "Robert Hudgins Exhibit No. 8" appears on p. 2030.)

(At this point Mr. Ashbrook returned to the hearing room.)

Mr. APPELL. Do you maintain adequate records as required by the law for the sale of weapons?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Are you a source of supply of weapons to Klansmen or to the general public?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. The address on this document, 411 Dorothy Drive, is that your residence, and does it also contain a gunshop?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Have your records of sales been examined by the Alcohol Tax Unit within the last 3 months?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Hudgins, on August 14, 1964, a cross was burned on the lawn of the Governor's mansion, then occupied by Governor Terry Sanford.

Do you possess any knowledge of that cross-burning?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Were you interviewed by agents of the State Bureau of Investigation as to whether or not you did participate in the cross-burning?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Did you disavow any connection with the Ku Klux Klan—

Mr. HUDGINS. Would you repeat the question?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Do you know Clyde Webster?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Were you questioned as to whether or not Clyde Webster assisted you in the burning of that cross?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. On the 23d of February 1965 in front of the Reverend Frank Hutchins' home, 913 South East Street, Raleigh, a cross was burned.

Do you possess any knowledge of the burning of that cross in front of the residence of the Reverend Frank Hutchins, who was Pastor of the East Davies Street Presbyterian Church?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Hudgins, other than aside from the fact that you have a gun license, do you personally own an M-1 carbine, two .303 British Enfield rifles, two shotguns, a 12-gauge and a 20-gauge, and a .38 caliber Smith and Wesson revolver?

Do you own them, sir?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Hudgins, there has been much information placed into this record about the maintenance of a security guard by the United Klans of America. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that prior to the adoption of the Constitution and Laws in September 1964, the United Klans of America was organized along military lines with the Imperial Wizard being the commander in chief.

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. On February 21, 1965, at a State meeting, at the same time you were reelected titan of Province No. 4, were you appointed a lieutenant colonel in the State security guard?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Would you permit me to ask a question?

I see from the report on which Mr. Appell questioned you awhile ago—and this may be repetitious but I want to ask a question—the report indicates you had an M-1 carbine, two .303 British rifles, two shotguns, a 12-gauge and a 20-gauge, a .30 caliber Smith and Wesson revolver, and various tear gas pens.

Do you use these guns or any of them for Klan activities?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Do you use these various tear gas pens as described in this document for Klan activities?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Hudgins, we have observed during our investigation that at times members of the security guard do carry arms.

Do they purchase these arms through you or do you obtain them—well, let me ask that question first.

Do they purchase them through you?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. The committee's information was that you were employed by General Foods, yet you are the holder of an ATU gun license.

Did you apply for a gun license in order to facilitate Klansmen getting arms more easily than going through any non-Klan gun-licensed dealer?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. And according to our records, he is the Imperial Kladd?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. And what position does he hold in the realm or the state level?

Mr. APPELL. Titan is the man in charge of the Klans within a congressional district.

In Greensboro and Snow Hill, North Carolina, during the months of May and June 1963, there was picketing of the McDonald hamburger stand in Greensboro, several theaters, and the S & W cafeteria.

Did you, Clyde Webster, George Dorsett, and others take an active part, as an officer of the Klan, in these demonstrations?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Hudgins, during the interrogation of Mr. Kornegay, we discussed the hospital-surgical policies that were issued in the name of the Capital City Restoration Association and affiliated groups.

When that plan was being presented in the fall of 1964, did you participate in the formation of the plan whereby it became known as the Capital City Restoration Association and Affiliated Groups Policy?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. It is the committee's information gained during the investigation that a portion of the first month's premium was to go back to the Klavern and a portion go towards the payment of expenses of Grand Dragon Jones.

According to the report of commissions paid to Mr. Kornegay, he received commissions in the amount of $3,562.74.

I ask you what amount of those commissions which he received went to Mr. Jones or to any of the Klaverns, including the Capital City Restoration Association?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. An examination of the applications showed that some affiliated organizations in this program were the Harnett County Improvement Association, New Hanover County Improvement Association, Town & Country Sportsmens Club, Warren County Improvement Association, Halifax County Sportsmens Club, Unit No. 55, Unit No. 23, Unit No. 38, Limestone Fishing Club, and the Keystone Fishing Club.

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the only affiliation between these names and the Capital City Restoration Association is the fact that each and every one, including the Capital City Restoration Association, is a Klan group in areas distributed throughout the State of North Carolina.

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the majority of the applicants for insurance who signed their unit name to be the Capital City Restoration Association were not and had never been members of the Capital City Restoration Association as an entity, and I ask you to affirm or deny that statement of fact.

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Hudgins, the committee has information that you are the holder of a citizens band radio license. Is that information correct?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Would you advise the committee what use is made of citizens band radios in the carrying out of actions and activities of the Ku Klux Klan in the Realm of North Carolina?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. As a matter of fact, Mr. Hudgins, you hold two licenses, one KKK 7906, and the other KGH 280. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that they are your call numbers assigned you under your application?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Hudgins, were you responsible for organizing in the Raleigh, North Carolina, area, a very exclusive unit of the Klan which is known by the designation of No. 100?

Mr. HUDGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, the staff has no further questions to ask this witness.

Mr. WELTNER. What is the staff's information concerning the nature of this exclusive Klan organization known as 100?

Mr. APPELL. It is the committee's information that this exclusive unit was one whereby the membership of it would be permitted to visit any Klavern within the State of North Carolina, but that no member not a member of that Klavern could visit Klavern No. 100.

It is a tight security Klavern.

Mr. WELTNER. Thank you.

The CHAIRMAN. Are there any other questions from the committee?

If not, the witness is excused and is released from his subpoena.

The committee will stand in recess until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

(Subcommittee members present at time of recess: Representatives Willis, Pool, Weltner, Ashbrook, and Buchanan.)

(Whereupon, at 4:33 p.m., Tuesday, October 26, 1965, the subcommittee recessed, to reconvene at 10 a.m., Wednesday, October 27, 1965.)

Mr. DORSETT. George F. Dorsett.

Mr. APPELL. Are you appearing before the committee this morning in accordance with a subpoena served upon you at 1 o'clock p.m. on the 15th day of October 1965 by Deputy Marshal Crems?

Mr. DORSETT. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Are you represented by counsel?

Mr. DORSETT. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Will counsel please identify himself for the record?

Mr. CHALMERS. I am Lester V. Chalmers, Jr., attorney at law, Room 501, First Federal Building, Raleigh, North Carolina.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Dorsett, when and where were you born?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by the amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Were you born 48 years ago in St. Louis, Missouri?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by the amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Would you give the committee a résumé of your educational background?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Isn't it a fact that if we use today's terminology, you would be known as a dropout?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by the amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Would you give the committee a complete résumé of your employment background?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Isn't it a fact that your principal background, employment background, is that of a house painter?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Dorsett, the subpoena served upon you commanded you to bring with you and to produce before said committee items called for in two paragraphs. Paragraph 1 reads:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and affiliated organizations, namely, the Alabama Rescue Service, Realm (State) of North Carolina, Province # 5, Realm (State) of North Carolina, in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by you or available to you as Imperial Kludd (Chaplain) United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Grand Titan, Province # 5, Realm (State) of North Carolina, and as an employee of Realm (State) of North Carolina of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

I ask you to produce the documents called for by paragraph 1 of the subpoena.

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee under the subpoena dated October 15, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents as demanded by the committee in the subpoena dated October 15, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by the amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chariman, I ask that the witness be directed to produce the documents.

Mr. POOL. Mr. Chalmers?

Mr. CHALMERS. Mr. Chairman, I think the stipulations that have heretofore been entered with respect to the chairman's order we can make with respect to this witness also.

Mr. POOL. I will read the stipulation: (1) That the witness has been furnished a copy of the chairman's opening statement of October 19, 1965, and he is familiar with its contents; (2) that the directions of the subpoena to produce the documents called for are made to the witness in the official representative capacity described in the subpoena.

Is that the stipulation?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir; that is the same one we have heretofore entered. That is stipulated with respect to this witness also.

Mr. POOL. And you agree to it?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes.

Mr. POOL. Mr. Dorsett, I direct you to produce the records called for in paragraph 1 of the subpoena.

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to deliver to this committee any and all records as requested by this committee under the subpoena dated October 15, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents as demanded by the committee in the subpoena dated October 15, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so might tend to incriminate me in the violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. POOL. Your objection is overruled.

Do you care to make any further answer?

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. POOL. Proceed, Mr. Appell.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Dorsett, under part 2 of the subpoena, you are commanded to bring with you and to produce the documents described as follows:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by or available to you, in your capacity as Imperial Kludd (Chaplain) United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Grand Titan, Province #5, Realm (State) of North Carolina, and as an employee of Realm (State) of North Carolina, of the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, which the "Constitution and Laws" of said organization authorize and require to be maintained by you and any other officer of said organization, the same being in your possession, custody or control.

I ask you to produce those documents called for by your subpoena.

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records requested by the committee under the subpoena dated October 15, 1965, based on the grounds heretofore stated.

Mr. POOL. Mr. Chalmers, the same stipulation that I read a while ago is agreeable for this particular paragraph?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I ask for a demand for the production.

Mr. POOL. Mr. Dorsett, I direct you to produce the books, records, and documents and other items called for under paragraph 2 of the subpoena.

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to produce the documents requested based on the grounds heretofore stated.

Mr. POOL. Your objection is overruled. If you don't care to make any further statement, we will proceed.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Dorsett, when did you first become a member of the Ku Klux Klan?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Wasn't your first Klan affiliation with a Klan group known as the North Carolina Knights of the Ku Klux Klan which was headed in 1958 by James W. "Catfish" Cole?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that as a member of that organization you were the grand kludd or chaplain.

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Dorsett, on January 18, 1958, the North Carolina Knights of the Ku Klux Klan scheduled a rally at Maxton, North Carolina, in spite of warnings by the local sheriff that he lacked the manpower to put down a riot should one occur.

On the night of the rally, an estimated 50 to 75 Klansmen gathered around Grand Wizard Cole carrying shotguns, rifles, and pistols. Before the rally started, an estimated 1000 Lumbee Indians gathered along the edge of the highway, charged the unrobed Klansmen, and the rally did, in fact, turn into a riot.

Were you one of the 50 to 75 Klansmen armed at that rally?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. As a result of the riot on April 8, 1959, Grand Wizard Cole was committed to jail in Lumberton, North Carolina, to begin serving an 18-to-24 month term for inciting the riot.

During the imprisonment of Grand Wizard Cole, did you take over as the acting leader of the North Carolina Knights of the Ku Klux Klan?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Dorsett, prior to the North Carolina Knights' encounter with the Lumbee Indians, many of the Klans or Klaverns of the North Carolina Knights had deserted that organization and affiliated with the U.S. Klans.

Did you, in March 1960, acting as head of this organization, the North Carolina Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, attempt to win back to affiliation with the North Carolina Knights those Klans or Klaverns which had been lost to the other group?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. When the North Carolina Knights of the Ku Klux Klan folded, is it a fact that Imperial Wizard Edwards, because of the knowledge he possessed of you, denied you membership in the U.S. Klans?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. With the breakup of the U.S. Klans following the death of Imperial Wizard Edwards, there was formed the United Klans of America growing out of a splinter of the old U.S. Klans. Did you then become affiliated with the United Klans of America?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Did you become exalted cyclops of a United Klans Klavern in Greensboro, North Carolina?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that in Greensboro, North Carolina, today there is a Klan group, or Klavern, known as the Pinedale Saddle Club No. 10, whose officers are Jesse M. Swain and Milton Henderson?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. POOL. What was the name of that organization?

Mr. APPELL. Pinedale Saddle Club No. 10.

Mr. WELTNER. Is that the major Klavern in the area in the United Klans of America within Greensboro County?

Mr. APPELL. One of them, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. How many Klaverns are there in Greensboro County, North Carolina?

Mr. APPELL. According to our information, that is in Guilford County. There is the Pinedale Saddle Club, Travelers Auxiliary No. 10, and The Travelers Club.

Mr. WELTNER. And each one of those is a Klavern of the United Klans of America in Guilford County, North Carolina?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. Dorsett, I hand you a copy of a check dated September 15, 1965, which was obtained in accordance with a subpoena duces tecum from the North Carolina National Bank, Greensboro, North Carolina.

The check is an imprinted check, Pinedale Saddle Club, P.O. Box 163, Pleasant Garden, North Carolina, dated, as I repeat myself, September 15, 1965, paid to the order of the Alabama Rescue Service, $7, signed Jesse M. Swain and Milton Henderson.

I hand you this check and put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the Alabama Rescue Service is a cover name for the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. Dorsett, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that in addition to being the Imperial Kludd, or chaplain, you are titan of Province No. 5, comprising the boundaries of the Fifth Congressional District of North Carolina, for the United Klans of America, Realm of North Carolina.

I ask you to affirm or deny the fact.

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that J. R. Jones is the Grand Dragon, Grady Mars, the Grand Klaliff; Fred Wilson, the grand treasurer or klabee; that Al Outlaw is the grand klarogo; that Boyd Hamby is the grand night-hawk, and I ask you to affirm or deny the fact.

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you were Grady Mars' opponent for the office of Grand Klaliff, or vice president, and that Grady Mars was elected over you.

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Appell, you are speaking here in each instance about officers of the Realm of North Carolina, designated by the prefix "Grand"?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that at the time you ran for the position of Klaliff, or vice president, that there was nominated for the position of klokard M. R. Kornegay, Jim Hackney, and Ray Woodle, with M. R. Kornegay elected.

I ask you to affirm or deny the fact.

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. WELTNER. That is Roy Woodle, is it not?

Mr. APPELL. Woodle.

Mr. WELTNER. Roy Woodle?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that at the same election there was nominated for the office of grand kludd Roy Woodle and Bill McCubbins, and that Roy Woodle was elected.

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact.

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the State body, assembled in convention, granted to Grand Dragon Jones the authority to appoint the grand kligrapp, or secretary, and that he did in fact appoint Don Leazer to that position.

I ask you to affirm or deny the fact.

I ask you to affirm or deny the fact.

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact that Boyd Hamby was elected without opposition to the position of grand night-hawk.

I ask you to affirm or deny the fact.

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I wonder if you could tell me, Mr. Dorsett, how it is that Boyd Hamby, who I understand is part Indian, was acceptable to you, because he was elected without opposition, when back in the days of your affiliation with the North Carolina Knights of the Ku Klux Klan that which brought upon the attack upon your organization by the Lumbee Indians was because your Klan of that day was burning crosses in front of Indian residences because they were moving into white neighborhoods, or your Klan considered them to be fraternizing with white people.

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. It was at the State convention at which you were elected or you were a nominee for the position of vice president or klaliff, and it was announced to all concerned that the Constitution and the Laws of the United Klans of America were amended so that all imperial and grand officers would thereafter be elected for a period of 2 years.

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. As the Imperial Kludd or chaplain of the organization, you, according to the Constitution and Laws, comprise the governing body referred to in the Constitution and Laws as the Klouncilium. When did the Klouncilium, who had authority under the Constitution and Laws, meet to make this change in the Constitution and Laws?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Dorsett, the Greensboro, North Carolina, News of July 17, 1965, carries a story on the basis of an appearance of you as a speaker before the "O. Henry" Sertoma Club of Greensboro. This newspaper account dealing with your speech talks about what the Klan does. It quotes you as saying that there is within the Klan a Klan Bureau of Investigation :

"The KBI investigates demonstrations and marches like the one on Selma, Alabama," Dorsett said. "We had agents in there taking pictures and making tape recordings.

"And we investigate politicians to see if they're shady. Our aim is to pick out the right candidates and then get out a bloc vote."

The "KBI" also investigates reports of interracial sexual activity, Dorsett said. He said "KBI" investigators had reported their findings to the police in several North Carolina cities.

"But the police don't do anything; their hands are tied," Dorsett said.

Does this newspaper factually report some of your remarks during a speech made before the O'Henry Sertoma Club?

Mr. POOL. Let him look at the paper.

Mr. APPELL. I show you the article so that you might review it before you answer. My quote starts in the next to the last column on the right-hand side as you look at it.

(Document handed to witness.)

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "George Dorsett Exhibit No. 6" and retained in committee files.)

Mr. POOL. Mr. Dorsett, I notice that the headline says "Dorsett: Klan Ready To 'Save' The Nation." I guess you are going to put on sheets and burn crosses and save the Nation. Do you care to make a comment on that?

(No response.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Dorsett, when you told the O'Henry Sertoma Club that the Klan's KBI makes certain investigations and that you report them to the police, who do nothing about them, does the Klan, which proclaims itself to be a law enforcing organization then take the law into its own hands and threaten and intimidate these people?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. The article goes on and says, Mr. Dorsett :

Dorsett, a stocky, dark-haired man with a ruddy complexion, said he gets no salary from the Klan, and said he doesn't even get his expenses [sic] paid. He makes his living painting houses.

Is that a factual quote, Mr. Dorsett?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I show you a series of checks, one in the amount of $100, and seven in the amount of $150 each on the imprinted check forms of the United Klans of America, countersigned by one of the three authorized signatures to that account, James R. Jones and Donald Leazer, or James R. Jones and Fred Wilson, each of these checks marked on their face "Salary and Expense."

I ask you, sir, if you are an unpaid organizer for the United Klans of America?

(Documents handed to witness.)

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Documents previously marked "James Jones Exhibit No. 7-B." See p. 1720.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Dorsett, the first check is July 23, which is a few days following that newspaper story. I desire to ask you whether or not, prior to this first formal check being given to you, you received cash from the United Klans of America which was used by you as salary and expenses.

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Dorsett, we review many press clippings which quote you and other Klan officials, but quote you more directly than others about what the Klan is going to do, and a great emphasis is placed by you in your speeches about communism.

What knowledge do you possess about communism in any of its phases, organization, structure, anything else? What knowledge do you possess?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. POOL. Ask him what knowledge he might have about nazism. That might be more appropriate.

I will ask him.

What knowledge do you have about nazism, Hitler? Have you read books and things like that?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. POOL. Go ahead.

There is no use staring at me. You are not scaring me one bit.

The committee will stand in recess for 3 minutes.

(Subcommittee members present at time of recess: Representatives Pool, Weltner, and Ashbrook.)

(Whereupon, at 11:08 a.m., a brief recess was taken.)

(Subcommittee members present after a brief recess at 11:11 a.m.: Representatives Pool, Weltner, and Ashbrook.)

Mr. POOL. The subcommittee will come to order.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Dorsett, I hand you a series of oaths taken by Klansmen, according to sworn testimony that we have. This is not in the form which they are printed by the Klans, but it is a reproduced form made by us.

I ask you if you have ever taken the series of oaths set forth in this document?

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document previously marked "Robert Shelton Exhibit No. 4.")

Mr. APPELL. In a speech or rally at Supply, North Carolina, on July 11, 1965, did you, in the course of the speech, state that there were many law enforcement officers who wanted to join the Klan but who were afraid because of their jobs?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Dorsett, one oath, one section of an oath, under Section IV, [Klan]* ishness, says:

I most Solemnly Promise and Swear—that I will always, at all Times and in all places,—Help, aid and assist—The duly Constituted officers of The law—in The proper performance of Their Legal Duties.

Did you take that particular oath that I read to you?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Is your respect for law and order modified in that you have respect only for those that agree and contempt for those that disagree?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Did the Klan hold a rally on April 17, 1965, across from the Medlin's Store, on Aycock Road, about 3 miles east of Henderson?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I would like to read to you from a report of coverage of that rally submitted by a member of the staff of the committee. I will read only so much as applies to you and not to the other speakers:

Then Reverend George Dorsett of Greensboro was introduced. He had on his black robe and high hat. He started off quoting some scripture, then he started jumping on the highway patrol. He harped on their taking license numbers of the cars of those attending the rally. He said—

And this is a direct quote of you—

"they must be part 'nigger,' " that if they had any guts, were decent white men, they would take off their guns and badges and be resurrected and join the Klan. Then he lit into the patrol officer in charge of the patrolmen there—Sgt. T. E. Cook.

The report reads that you said that the—— old Sgt. was a disgrace to the human race and a disgrace to the uniform, and the State of North Carolina—that he looked old enough to retire and that he ought to retire, that his pants looked like a "nigger" family had just moved out of them. That his pants were so baggy he ought to find a tailor and get them fixed. That he would be ashamed to go around—

That is you—would be ashamed to go around like this old sergeant looks. Dorsett also stated he hated to see all the State's storm troopers standing around with their big guns on and that there were enough Klansmen there to take the guns off the troopers, but that they would not do this because they believed in law and order. Dorsett then did his usual blasting at Johnson and the Secret Service, the FBI.

Is this report factual, Mr. Dorsett?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "George Dorsett Exhibit No. 7" and retained in committee files.)

Mr. APPELL. Did you participate in a rally at Farmville, North Carolina, on May 23, 1965?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Did you at that rally conduct a wedding?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Do you have authority under the laws of the State of North Carolina to marry a couple?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Did this couple that were married in a ceremony performed in Klan robes have to have another ceremony in order to make their marriage legal?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Dorsett, Roy Woodle testified before the committee last week. And he testified that one incident to his knowledge was that, during a speech that you made for the collection of funds, a Klansman advised him that he was urged to act as a stickman or a shill and to come forward with an advance of money in order to sucker the audience into also making contributions.

Is that true?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Isn't it a fact that the old North Carolina Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, with which you were affiliated, broke up prior to the Lumbee Indian incident because the membership found out that the Grand Wizard, Cole, who had been going around to Klaverns saying "Please give me money. My wife is seriously ill of cancer, and she needs a serious operation"—didn't they split away because they found out that this was not truthful?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. So you worked in a good training ground to carry out such a type of organization as described by Roy Woodle before ever becoming a member of the United Klans of America; did you not?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Let me ask you whether or not the use of people, as Roy Woodle described one man, is a standard operating procedure within the Klan, whether it be in North Carolina, South Carolina, Florida, or Delaware, and if this procedure has the approval of the leadership of the United Klans of America, of which you are an imperial officer and a member of the Imperial Klouncilium?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Have you been used—not used, but have you, as a matter of fact, made collection speeches throughout North Carolina, South Carolina, Florida, and even the rally at Bear, Delaware?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Dorsett, I show you two photographs, one a right profile, the other a left profile, in the military-type uniform with one side showing, the right exposure, a captain's bars; the left exposure showing the cross worn by a chaplain in the military service.

I ask you if you hold the position in the State security guard of the Klan, Realm of North Carolina?

(Photographs handed to witness.)

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Photographs marked "George Dorsett Exhibits Nos. 8-A and 8-B," respectively. Exhibit 8-A retained in committee files; 8-B follows:)

GEORGE DORSETT EXHIBIT NO. 8-B

Photograph which appeared in the Charlotte Observer, September 1, 1964, p. 1 with the following caption: "Passing the bucket—One source of revenue for the Ku Klux Klan is the collection of donations from people who attend the Klan's public rallies. J. Robert Jones of Granite Quarry, the Klan's Grand Dragon, carries several plastic buckets in his car that are passed through the crowd. Here a robed Klan woman passes a bucket to George W. Dorsett of Greensboro, a chaplain in the Klan. Dorsett is wearing a uniform of the Klan's security guard unit. (Observer Photo by Don Sturkey.)"

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Dorsett, in the picture that I showed you, which is the left exposure, the one shadowed the chaplain's cross, there is a woman dressed in a Klan robe holding out a pot of some kind, or a bucket, in which, it is very evident from the photograph, you are tossing in a coin as a contribution.

I hand you another photograph and ask you if the caption is factual, that this is you with Klan robes over the military-type uniform worn by the security guard, and in this one, instead of handing out coins, you are taking in dollars.

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Photograph marked "George Dorsett Exhibit No. 9." This exhibit will be reproduced in a forthcoming report on Klan organizations.)

Mr. APPELL. Taking in dollars, Mr. Dorsett, seems to be your principal occupation in the Klan.

I show you another photograph with you taking in dollars.

(Photograph handed to witness.)

Mr. APPELL. I ask you if that is you in that photograph?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

(Photograph marked "George Dorsett Exhibit No. 10" follows:)

GEORGE DORSETT EXHIBIT NO. 10

George Dorsett in Klan regalia taking in money.

Mr. APPELL. I show you a photograph of a Klansman counting money on a makeshift table.

I ask you if that is you?

(Photograph handed to witness.)

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Photograph previously marked "James Jones Exhibit No. 6." See p. 1717.)

Mr. APPELL. Coverage of rallies shows that at some there is a report made to the assembled people as to how many dollars are collected.

Is the figure reported a truthful figure?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. It has been estimated by Klansmen whom we have interviewed, former Klansmen whom we have interviewed, and by others, that at some of these rallies there has been collected sums in excess of $500.

Can you advise the committee or give the committee any information as to what distribution is made of this cash money collected?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. If the Imperial Wizard is at the rally, does he get a slice of the pie for his travel?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. If Grand Dragons are visiting from other jurisdictions, do they get a share of the money?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. WELTNER. This photograph which I will hand back to the witness appears to be a photograph of the witness dressed in a black robe with a cross appearing over the left breast of the robe.

The photograph shows the witness counting money. I should like him to look at that photograph and refresh his memory, if possible, and tell us how much money was collected on that occasion.

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Dorsett, I hand you a reproduction of a newspaper story which appeared in the Fort Lauderdale, Florida, News, July 4, 1965, referring to a rally held there on July 3, 1965.

I invite your attention to the picture which is captioned: "IMPERIAL CHAPLAIN REV. GEORGE DORSETT TOOK COLLECTION . . . donations were to be used to finance legal battle won Friday in court."

I ask you if that is you and how much was collected at that Fort Lauderdale rally?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "George Dorsett Exhibit No. 11" and retained in committee files.)

Mr. APPELL. According to the newspaper story, in order to get the grounds for the rally, in making the pitch for money, a figure of $500 was mentioned.

Is that what it cost the Klan to use that site at which that photograph was taken?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Dorsett, we have a verbatim transcript of your remarks at a rally in Bear, Delaware, on July 31, 1965. It seems to me from reading this that everyone, and wherever you go, if the police is interested in, for intelligence purposes, learning about the Klan activities, either they or their superiors who order them to carry out this assignment are always referred to by you as "niggers."

Can you give me an explanation for this, Mr. Dorsett?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "George Dorsett Exhibit No. 12" and retained in committee files.)

Mr. APPELL. At the rally in Delaware you—not you, but the Klan—obtained authority to use a location to carry out this rally. The authority was given to you by a man who did not own the property, but who was merely renting it. The owner of the property apparently objected to this and was going to evict, at least, according to what I read in the verbatim transcript of your remarks, was going to evict this man for granting to the Klan the authority to use the field without consulting him.

I wish to quote a portion of your remarks which leads up to a question I want to ask. I am quoting from this verbatim transcript:

There has been a lot of expense to get this rally on the way and there's going to be a lot of expense to set up the office and the work of the Grand Dragon here and the maneuvering and working and carrying out of the Klan in this State. Also there is an eighty-year old gentleman that some man is fixing to ride off of his place because he offered to let us hold a rally on his place. I believe this beast, this cruel man, I believe he operates some restaurants here, doesn't he?

VOICE FROM THE AUDIENCE: Yes.

IMPERIAL CHAPLAIN DORSETT: What is the name of those places? The Robin Hood?

VOICE FROM THE AUDIENCE: Sherwood.

IMPERIAL CHAPLAIN DORSETT: Sherwood Restaurant.

And then your remarks tell what horrible things this owner of the Sherwood Restaurant is going to do by saying:

He is fixing—this eighty-year old man has got to go to court Monday because he offered white people a chance to meet and hold a meeting on his property that he was renting from this man—what is his name—Saienni. Now he is at the point of losing his place there, having to be pushed off of it. So we are going to help bear his court expense there, whatever it might be.

Then you make a pitch for $5, $10, $20, or $100, "whatever you can give, fifty cents, or whatever, in helping to get this Klan on the road in Delaware."

To what expense did the Klan go to in the matter to which you referred?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Wasn't the man who owned the property exercising the right which you claim you are fighting for with respect to the use made of his property?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. When it comes to expenses of rallies, Reverend Dorsett, we have analyzed a lot of bank accounts of the United Klans of America Klaverns, and we have noted without exception that where a rally is held in an area close to an established Klan, that the local Klan pays all the expenses.

I ask you if that is not a fact?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. They put into the pot the meat and the bones and you take home the soup; is that a fact?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. WELTNER. Was there any of the money collected at the Delaware rally that was used to defray the court expenses of the gentleman who permitted the use of that property for the Klan rally?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I show you another photograph, Mr. Dorsett, this one from the Greensboro, North Carolina, Record, of August 19, 1965, and I invite your attention to a photograph that says "Rev. George Dorsett of Greensboro, Ku Klux Klan chaplain, is shown counting money contributed by Klansmen and spectators last night at a rally held in Reidsville."

I would like to ask you if that is your photograph, if the caption is accurate, and what disposition was made of the money collected at that rally?

(Document handed to witness.)

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I invite your attention to an article which appeared in the Danville, Virginia, Bee, August 20, 1965, which says:

Following an appeal by the Rev. George Dorsett of Greensboro, chaplain of the United Klans of America, for contributions, more than 50 persons came forth to hand him paper bills and coins totaling some $171, Klansmen said.

I ask you if the figure reported is factual.

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "George Dorsett Exhibit No. 14" appears on p. 2056.)

Mr. APPELL. I ask you, in showing you the article, what disposition was made of the money collected at that rally?

(Document handed to witness.)

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I hand you a reproduction of a photograph which appeared as part of an article in the High Point, North Carolina, Enterprise, dated August 22, 1965, at a rally at Guilford County, North Carolina. I invite your attention to the center photograph which says "Money is Collected."

I ask you if you are the person shown in the center photograph with paper money in your hand?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "George Dorsett Exhibit No. 15" appears on p. 2057. Exhibits 13, 14, and 15 follow:)

GEORGE DORSETT EXHIBIT No. 14

[Danville, Va., Bee, August 20, 1965]

200 Attend Klan Rally In Caswell

YANCEYVILLE, N. C.—A crowd of some 200 persons, including a sprinkling of women and children, gathered in a rain-soaked pasture in Caswell County last night to hear members of the Ku Klux Klan heap lashing verbal assaults on President Johnson, the Supreme Court and Negroes.

The cross-burning rally, staged as part of the Klan's drive to regain a politically powerful status, signalled the beginning of a membership recruiting drive in the county.

As lightning flashed across the darkened sky, the Klansmen, led by North Carolina Grand Dragon J. R. Jones of Granite Quarry, charged that politicians North and South are allowing Negroes to run the country and mongrelize the races.

Following an appeal by the Rev. George Dorsett of Greensboro, chaplain of the United Klans of America, for contributions, more than 50 persons came forth to hand him paper bills and coins totaling some $171, Klansmen said.

Though their remarks were caustic, the speakers were careful not to advocate violence, apparently aware that FBI agents might be in the audience.

However, all said white persons should be prepared for violence.

Much emphasis was placed on voter registration, and Jones announced that the North Carolina Klan hopes to put a full-time worker in each Congressional district in the state to launch a precinct-by-precinct organization.

Few hoods and robes were in evidence at the rally; in fact, more members of the Klan's "Security Guard" were in sight than robed Klansmen.

The guards, about 15 or 20 strong, wore olive mufti with gold helmets, white belts, paratrooper boots with pants tucked in and, on their shoulders, a patch with the KKK emblem. They directed traffic and parking and distributed membership cards during the rally. None was armed.

Jones, who wore no hood and robe, drew the most response from the crowd with his descriptions of Johnson and Negroes.

He called the President a "tyrant" and "dictator" and charged that "we have the King-Johnson-Humphrey Administration, in that order. We've got 12.5 per cent of our population dictating to us."

Jones contended Martin Luther King is a Communist and said he has a picture of King at a Communist training school to prove it.

He also was critical of ex-North Carolina Gov. Terry Sanford, calling him an "idiot," and of present Gov. Dan K. Moore. He attacked the Raleigh News and Observer and its editor, Jonathan Daniels, saying the latter "doesn't know the meaning of truth."

The Negro, whom Jones consistently referred to as "nigger," "was born to steal," he said. "The only niggers in Caswell County who won't steal are in the graveyards."

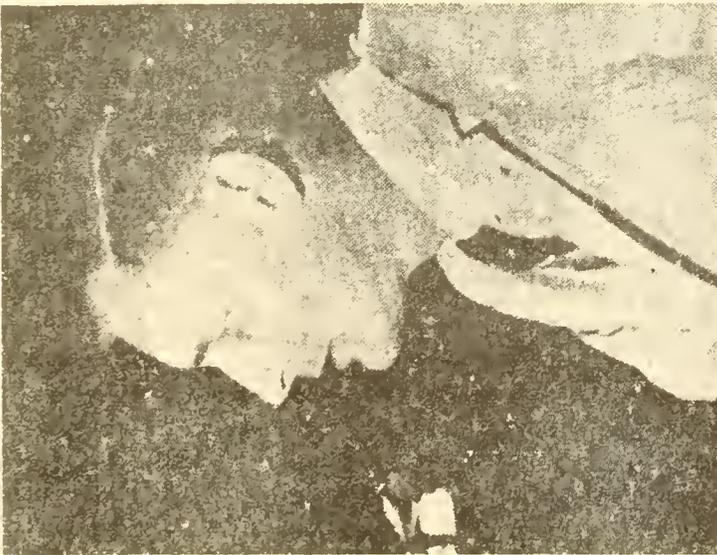

A Pennsylvania klansman told the gathering that the future will find "the white man against the blacks. That's the bare facts. The color of our skin is going to be the color of your uniform."

Dorsett charged that the U. S. Supreme Court has been packed with men who are "Communist-minded" and likened them to termites who, he said, "are destroying the durability of our government. It is high time we used some kind of something to termite-proof our government."

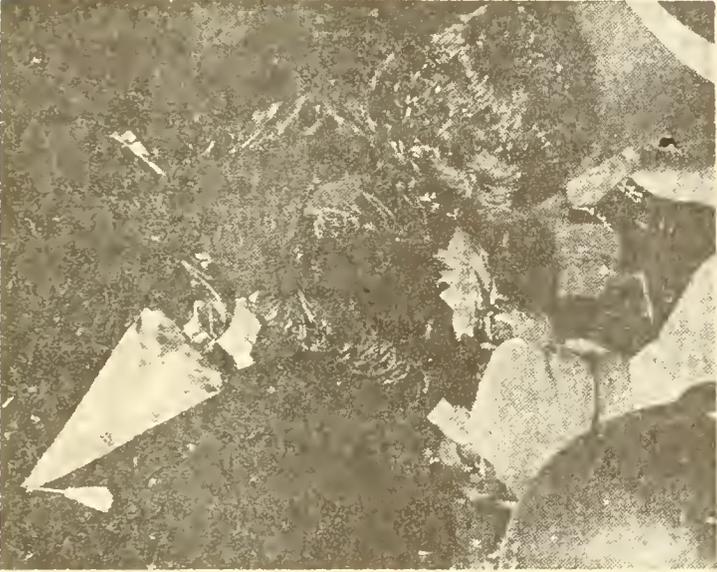

He also urged whites to register and vote for white candidates.

The rally was concluded by a fourth speaker who urged the crowd to support the Klan.

IMPERIAL WIZARD SHELTON SPEAKS

MONEY IS COLLECTED

CROSS IS BURNED

All The Trappings At Klan Rally

All of the increasingly familiar trappings were in evidence Friday night when the Ku Klux Klan held one of its rallies at the Piedmont Drag Strip about 14 miles south of Greensboro in Guilford County.

A crowd of about 1,000 to 1,200 persons heard five speakers over a period of three hours before the rally ended with the Klan's cross burning ceremony.

The speakers were Imperial Wizard Robert Shelton of Tuscaloosa, Ala.; Imperial Kludd

Photos and Story By Art Richardson

George Dorsett of Greensboro, Grand Dragon Robert Jones of Granite Quarry; the grand dragon of Mississippi, who was not introduced by name, and an unidentified youth from Philadelphia, Pa.

The talks were similar. They claimed a Communist conspiracy is behind efforts to integrate the races. President Johnson was denounced in inflammatory, derogatory terms.

The youth from Philadelphia spoke first. He said the people in the North realized now they needed the Klan. "It is not safe on our streets," the youth said.

Speaking next was Dorsett, then Shelton, and finally Jones. He urged that there be no trouble when schools open this fall. "I do not believe in violence, but I do believe in separation of the races," Jones said.

Then, the klansmen burned the cross.

Mr. APPELL. I ask you how much money was collected at that rally and what the disposition was of those funds?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Dorsett, several articles, many articles, as having been obtained—

Mr. POOL. Just a moment, Don.

From an analysis of the evidence you submitted, and the investigation, does it appear that any of the money that comes from these rallies, cash money, was ever deposited in the accounts of the banks under the realm, or did the Grand Dragon or Wizard ever put it into their bank accounts?

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I did not bring the record with me this morning, but we put into the record earlier in this hearing the amount of cash, currency and coin, deposited to an account in the name of the United Klans of America at the Wachovia Bank and Trust Company in Salisbury, North Carolina.

I do not remember the exact deposit in the form of cash and currency starting May 13, 1965, and running through September 9, 1965, but it approximated $15,000. However, the committee has no way of determining, and has not been as yet able to determine, whether this constituted the total take in the form of cash at the various rallies.

Mr. POOL. Go ahead.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Dorsett, several references in newspapers allege that you were ordained as a minister at the age of 20. Is this factual, sir?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I invite your attention to an article which appeared in the Raleigh News and Observer on July 17, 1965. It says, speaking of churches and influence by ministers:

"They want to meet everything with the message of Christian love and never oppose anything—they always follow the same path," he said. "Really, this message of Christian love is a tool in the Communist hands."

Is that a factual quote?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked 'George Dorsett Exhibit No. 16' and retained in committee files.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Dorsett, do you know to what extent Klansmen are armed during their participation in public rallies, sponsored by the United Klans of America, in North Carolina or other places?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. The committee's investigation indicates that it is the consensus of all law enforcement agencies, including the consensus of our investigation, that the Klansmen are heavily armed under their robes, and that this is one of the reasons for the security which local police exercise toward Klan rallies.

Is this factual?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Did you speak at a rally in Greenville or in Burlington, North Carolina, in August of 1965?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. What knowledge did you have of the interest of the South Carolina Police Department, sheriffs, in the organization and activities of the Klan?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. The Greenville, South Carolina, newspaper known as the Piedmont, of August 17, 1965, referring to a rally in a story dated Burlington, North Carolina, states:

Sheriff John H. Stockard was there among the crowd, but the Klan speaker who had been berating him and wanted to point him out couldn't locate him.

The speaker, the Rev. George Dorsett of Greensboro, chaplain of the Klan, was incensed at a KKK rally and crossburning Monday night that deputies had been taking license numbers of cars. He called the Alamance County Sheriff and his deputies "termites and rats," and urged that Stockard not be re-elected.

Another speaker, J. R. Jones of Granite Quarry, state grand dragon, also made derogatory remarks about the sheriff. He also attacked Catholics, Jews, Communist and Negroes.

Jones announced that $328 was collected for the work of the Klan.

Is this story factual, sir?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "George Dorsett Exhibit No. 17" and retained in committee files.)

Mr. APPELL. Is the amount of $328 reported in this article a factual reporting of the amount of money collected?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. What part of that $328 was turned over to the Grand Dragon from South Carolina, Robert Scoggin?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. POOL. I have a question I want to put to the witness.

I have here before me a document called "The Principle of the United Klans of America, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan." On the back page I notice this:

We do not believe in mob violence, but we do believe that laws should be enacted to prevent the cause of mob violence.

Deaths by mob violence have fallen off very materially since the advent of the Klan. The Klan believes in law-enforcement, and if a person has committed a crime the law should take its course.

My question is this: If that is one of the principles of the United Klans of America, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, why do you persist in your statements in your area, in the newspapers which have been shown before this committee this morning, in trying to destroy police officers and other law enforcement officers in their attempts to do their duty? Why do you persist in calling them "termites" and things like that?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, the staff has no further questions of this witness.

Mr. POOL. Mr. Ashbrook?

Mr. ASHBROOK. Mr. Dorsett, I realize the Klan is not comparable to most organizations of which I have knowledge, but it would seem quite interesting that the person who is a chaplain at the same time would be a security guard and dress in the attire of security guard. Would you care to enlighten us on this?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. ASHBROOK. I also note from the pictures, which are part of the documents in the record, Mr. Dorsett, that there is a great similarity in the uniform of your Klan security guard and those of the Rockwell storm troopers. Your boots, gloves, helmets, most of the attire, seems similar.

I also notice that you have S.G., which I take it stands for "Security Guard," on the front and back of the helmets. Is there any particular reason for this type of attire which is, I think, in the minds of most people, certainly similar to the Rockwell type and also to the Nazi storm trooper type? Is there any particular reason for dressing this way? Is it to inject fear or some other reason in the minds of the people who will see these people with the S.G. on their helmets?

Mr. DORSETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. ASHBROOK. No further questions, Mr. Chairman.

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Chairman, I think the document from which you read ought to be placed into the record at this point.

Mr. POOL. It is so ordered.

(Document marked "George Dorsett Exhibit No. 18" and retained in committee files.¹)

Mr. WELTNER. I have no questions.

Mr. POOL. Mr. Appell?

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, the staff, in the progress of this investigation into the North Carolina phase of the Klans, in that realm, has subpoenaed numerous bank accounts of Klaverns within that jurisdiction, many of which have not yet been received.

I ask permission that these bank records, when received, be made a part of the hearing record as they relate to the State of North Carolina.

Mr. POOL. It is so ordered, and also any other documents received here this morning and testified to or brought out by you in your interrogation will be made a part of the record in their proper place.

The committee will stand in recess until 1:45 p.m.

The witness is excused.

Mr. CHALMERS. Excused from his subpoena?

Mr. POOL. That is right.

(Subcommittee members present at time of recess: Representatives Pool, Weltner, and Ashbrook.)

¹This same exhibit was also introduced as Allen Bayne Exhibit No. 1 in the Nov. 2, 1965, hearings. This exhibit will be reproduced in a forthcoming report on Klan organizations.

(Whereupon, at 11:55 a.m., Wednesday, October 27, 1965, the subcommittee recessed, to reconvene at 1:45 p.m. the same day.)

AFTERNOON SESSION—WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1965

(The subcommittee reconvened at 2 p.m., Hon. Edwin E. Willis, chairman, presiding.)

(Subcommittee members present: Representatives Willis, Pool, Weltner, and Ashbrook.)

The CHAIRMAN. The subcommittee will please to come to order.

Call your next witness, Mr. Appell.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to call Mr. Charles Elwood Maddox.

The CHAIRMAN. Do you solemnly swear that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mr. MADDÖX. I affirm.

The CHAIRMAN. Do you solemnly affirm to tell the truth and nothing but the truth?

I understand that a proper affirmation oath leaves out the word "God" according to practice.

Do you solemnly affirm that you will tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth?

Mr. MADDÖX. I do.

The CHAIRMAN. Proceed.

TESTIMONY OF CHARLES ELWOOD MADDÖX, ACCOMPANIED BY COUNSEL, LESTER V. CHALMERS, JR.

Mr. APPELL. Will you state your full name for the record, please?

Mr. MADDÖX. Charles E. Maddox.

Mr. APPELL. Is your middle name "Woody"?

Mr. MADDÖX. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Are you appearing before the committee this afternoon in accordance with a subpoena served upon you at 1 o'clock p.m., the 13th day of October 1965 by a United States marshal?

Mr. MADDÖX. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Are you represented by counsel?

Mr. MADDÖX. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Will counsel please identify himself for the record, please?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir. My name is Lester V. Chalmers, Jr., attorney at law, Room 501, First Federal Building, Raleigh, North Carolina.

Mr. APPELL. When and where were you born?

Mr. MADDÖX. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you were born on March 21, 1936, in Blaney, South Carolina.

Mr. MADDÖX. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Will you please outline for the committee your educational background?

Mr. MADDOX. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Would you kindly outline for the committee your employment background?

Mr. MADDOX. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Is the information contained on the subpoena, placed there by the deputy United States marshal that served you, that you were served at your place of employment, the DuPont Company, RFD, Camden, South Carolina?

Mr. MADDOX. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. CHALMERS. Mr. Chairman, may I say to you and the other members of the committee, whatever the subpoena says we, of course, agree with.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Maddox, the subpoena served upon you commanded you to bring with you and to produce before the committee items which are contained in an attachment which was made a part of the subpoena. These are contained in two paragraphs.

Paragraph 1 orders you to produce:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and affiliated organizations, namely, the Alabama Rescue Service, South Carolina Rescue Service, Realm (State) of South Carolina, in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by you or available to you as Grand Klabee (Treasurer) South Carolina Rescue Service, Realm (State) of South Carolina, of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

In accordance with your subpoena, I ask you to produce those documents.

Mr. MADDOX. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 13, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in any consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents as demanded by the committee in a subpoena dated October 13, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Chalmers, we have agreed heretofore all along on the following stipulation: (1) That the witness has been furnished a copy of the chairman's opening statement of October 19, 1965, that he is familiar with its contents; and (2) that the directions of the subpoena to produce the documents called for are made to the witness in the official representative capacity described in the subpoena.

I take it that this stipulation applies to this witness?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. I order and direct you to produce the documents just called for, and I call to your attention that the significance of that order and direction is that the committee does not agree with the reasons you have assigned for failing to produce those documents, and that from the point of view of the committee, your refusal to produce them subjects you to citation for contempt of Congress.

Mr. MADDOX. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 13, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, or by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents as demanded by the committee in a subpoena dated October 13, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Maddox, part 2 of the attachment which was made a part of the subpoena calls upon you to bring with you and to produce:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by or available to you, in your capacity as Grand Klabeer (Treasurer), South Carolina Rescue Service, Realm (State) of South Carolina of the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, which the "Constitution and Laws" of said organization authorize and require to be maintained by you and any other officer of said organization, the same being in your possession, custody or control.

I ask you in accordance with the terms of the subpoena to produce the documents I have just called for in part 2.

(At this point Mr. Weltner returned to the hearing room.)

Mr. MADDOX. I respectfully decline to produce the documents on the grounds heretofore stated, based on the grounds heretofore stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I ask that the witness be ordered and directed to produce the documents called for in part 2.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Chalmers, is it agreed that the stipulation just entered into with reference to paragraph 1 of the subpoena is applicable to paragraph 2?

Mr. CHALMERS. It is so stipulated.

The CHAIRMAN. I, therefore, order and direct you to produce the documents called for in paragraph 2 of the attachment to the subpoena.

Mr. MADDOX. I respectfully decline to produce the documents on the grounds heretofore stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Maddox, are you an officer of a Klan organization, Klan or Klavern, which is known as The Friendship Club?

Mr. MADDOX. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to read into the record and then show to Mr. Maddox the following document: It is headed "Unincorporated Association Agreement." It is dated November 19, 1964, to The South Carolina National Bank, Camden, South Carolina.

For the purpose of establishing the identity of this Friendship Club as an instrumentality, Klan or Klavern of the United Klans of America, I shall now hand you a copy of an imprinted check dated September 6, 1965, imprinted "The Friendship Club, Pay To The Order Of Alabama Rescue Service $26.00," and the purpose for which drawn is written in "August." Russ, and the check dated September 16, 1965, imprinted as the previous check was described, to the Alabama Rescue Service in the amount of $20, containing the same signatures.

CHARLES MADDOX EXHIBIT NO. 2

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to say that the documents just exhibited were obtained by the committee through subpoena duces tecum.

Mr. Chairman, under Presidential authority to review and examine incorporated and individual returns, a request was made of the Secretary of the Treasury for such corporate tax returns as were filed by the Friendship Lodge, headquarters, Camden, South Carolina.

I would like to read a report concerning Friendship Lodge made to Mr. J. R. Logan, IRS group supervisor in Columbia, South Carolina, signed by Revenue Officer H. L. Cunningham, and dated September 17, 1965:

Contact was made with Charles E. Maddox who was suppose[d] to be the secretary of the Friendship Lodge. He stated that he was connected with the Friendship Club. This club was composed of a group of men employed by the DuPont Company of Camden. Their purpose was purely a social club. The[y] would meet periodically for a "dutch dinner" by use of a catering service. They would ask for donations for the payment of rent of the community center. They have a Christman [sic] Party for the members and their families. He stated that he had never heard of the Friendship Lodge. A check was made with the Postmaster. He knew of the Friendship Club and also knew Charles Maddox since he had been invited to their christmas party.

No returns were secured since this organization was not located. * * *

Mr. Maddox, I ask you whether or not you truthfully described to Revenue Officer Cunningham the composition and purpose of The Friendship Club.

Mr. APPELL. Are all moneys due from the Klavern to the realm which in South Carolina is known by a cover name of the South Carolina Rescue Service, are all of these checks payable to you? Are all of these checks payable to the South Carolina Rescue Service, or are some checks payable directly to Grand Dragon Scoggin?

Mr. MADDUX. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Does the United Klans of America, Realm of South Carolina, have a Klan or Klavern within its jurisdiction known by the cover name of the "Odd Brothers Club"?

Mr. MADDUX. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

I hand you this check and put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the endorsement on the reverse of this check, which is United Klans of America, with the abbreviation for Charles E. Maddox, is your signature?

Mr. APPELL. Do you know among its officers of that Klavern Cole L. Barnhill and Robert W. Goodson, Jr.?

Mr. MADDUX. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, the staff has no further questions to ask of this witness.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Maddox, the committee completely respects your religious beliefs and views, but it is pertinent to the committee and to this inquiry as to whether or not you consider your allegiance to the Klan above your allegiance to your country.

Accordingly, I make the following statement and will then ask you a question.

In your appearance before this committee you affirmed instead of taking an oath, and this is proper. By that I mean you have a right to do that. I have before me a copy of the oath subscribed to by you and other members of the United Klans of America.

In that oath, the subscriber swears "in the presence of God" and "unconditionally" that he will obey the constitution, laws, and regulations of the United Klans of America and also all mandates, decrees, edicts, and rulings and instructions of its Imperial Wizard.

The oath also swears before God complete fidelity to the Klan.

The subscriber also swears, but significantly does not state in the name of God, "unqualified allegiance" to the United States of America.

Is this because a Klansman places loyalty to the Klan above loyalty to the United States and its Constitution?

MR. MADDUX. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document previously marked "Robert Shelton Exhibit No. 4.")

The CHAIRMAN. Is this why you took a Klansman's oath "in the presence of God" and "before God" but would not swear before God in these proceedings?

MR. MADDUX. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Following his appearance before this committee, Mr. Shelton, Robert M. Shelton, the Imperial Wizard of the United Klans of American, said this:

I will not, I cannot, answer any question, no matter how cleverly put, that would violate my oath or affirmation to my fellowmen and to Almighty God.

That is what he said outside, but he did not take an oath here, nor did he swear to Almighty God.

Then he proceeds to say:

Should I do so, I would be false to my religious principles and would deserve the eternal damnation of my soul, which I firmly believe would be my fate.

And then following the appearance of Mr. Dorsett before this committee this morning, who also, like you, affirmed, but did not swear before or in the presence of God, he said more specifically to the press outside:

I have sworn before God Almighty to cling to the high code of ethics and morality that are the guiding principles of the United Klans of America, and I shall remain steadfast and faithful to that oath, knowing full well that should I violate it, I would risk eternal damnation of my mortal soul.

Do you take that position, too?

MR. MADDUX. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. You have a right to do and say anything you want to in this wonderful country of ours, but do you intend after you leave this witness stand to try to distinguish between an oath and affirmation for the public but not talk about it before the committee, to imply that to speak before the committee would violate your oath or affirmation?

You didn't take any oath here, but will you try to paint outside that it is the same thing? Do you intend to make such a statement?

MR. MADDUX. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

MR. WELTNER. Mr. Chairman, I thought it might be in order, in view of some of the statements that have been made outside of this hearing room, to have the record clearly reflect several things. One of them is that Mr. Appell, the investigator, has been under oath since the initiation of these proceedings, and the questions propounded to him have been propounded to him in his capacity as a sworn witness and his answers have been sworn answers, subject to the pains of perjury; secondly, that while this committee, as the chairman states, respects religious convictions, there is only one ground this committee recognizes for failing to testify, and that is the fifth amendment, on the ground that the answer might tend to incriminate the parties.

So when those who fail to testify within the hearing room step outside and claim some higher allegiance, that allegiance is not recognized in this hearing room, but only the constitutional protection contained in the fifth amendment to the Constitution.

The CHAIRMAN. Yes, and I asked that very question of counsel after questioning, I think, either Mr. Shelton or Mr. Jones, because the situation is this: In appearance before this committee these witnesses have relied, as I understand, and as they stated, strictly upon constitutional grounds for failure to answer.

Is that correct?

Mr. CHALMERS. That is my understanding; yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. And I make it clear that if the witnesses have deep faith and abiding allegiance to the Klan oaths, as they proclaim they have, it would appear to me—and I am not asking a question—they should have courage to rely on that oath here in this room so we can test whether that oath is superior to the Constitution of the United States itself and to this Government.

As I understand from counsel, and he is capable, his only reliance as attorney for these witnesses is upon the Constitution and not upon that oath.

Mr. CHALMERS. May I state, Mr. Chairman, I have not at any time discussed with any of the witnesses that I represent their religious beliefs or their affiliations with respect to any oath-taking.

My only purpose in advising them is as to their constitutional rights and nothing else.

The CHAIRMAN. I understand that and I appreciate your position. Now one final statement and a question.

In his statement just made to the press, or made to the press today, the news media, Mr. Dorsett stated: "I have been appalled by the failure of the Committee, a branch of Congress to follow the example of Congress in opening its daily sessions with prayer and a petition to God for guidance."

Are you appalled at that, too? If you are appalled by that fact—and no committee of Congress opens its sessions with prayer reciting as in the House—if that appalls you, as Mr. Dorsett said it did him, then why wouldn't you invoke the oath of God here?

I ask you, are you appalled that this subcommittee of Congress does not open its sessions with a prayer and a petition to God for guidance when you yourself refuse to take the oath before God?

Mr. MADDOX. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. In line with counsel's reliance on the fifth amendment, I cite to him a case which I take it he is probably familiar with, a case from the Supreme Court of Alabama, which I think is their highest court—

Mr. CHALMERS. I am not familiar with any Alabama decisions.

The CHAIRMAN. The Supreme Court of Alabama has held that a Klan officer is properly convicted for contempt for refusing to give the grand jury the names of the members of that organization upon the grounds that his Klan oath of secrecy was not binding.

That is in Ex parte Morris, 42 Southern Reporter, Second Series 17, decided in 1949.

Specifically, your highest court said—

Mr. CHALMERS. No, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. —only privileged communications and facts made so by law, or lawful government regulations, are protected from disclosure.

The identity of the membership of said organization does not fall within such privileged class.

Mr. CHALMERS. May I state, Mr. Chairman, and refresh your recollection, I am not familiar with any decisions of the Alabama courts.

The CHAIRMAN. I am so sorry. I apologize.

It is a decision from the highest court of the State, which we understand to be good law. I agree with your advice to your clients they had only better rely on the good old fifth amendment, rather than their oath.

Mr. ASHBROOK. Mr. Chairman, I would like to associate myself with what you have said. I think the comments you have made are quite appropriate.

If you had been here this morning and had the opportunity to study the record on Mr. Dorsett, to look at his pictures, to hear what some of the staff members have, some of the statements from his speeches, in which he didn't show any of the concern or compassion usually associated with a clergyman, I think you, too, would find his comments were quite out of order.

I, for one, in looking at the pictures of him dressed as he was, in the boots and insignia usually associated with storm troopers, got the feeling that a person like that could hardly level charges against us.

I think quite appropriately you answered this, and I think the record ought to show that the committee supports you in what you have said.

The CHAIRMAN. Is that all?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. The witness is excused and discharged from his subpoena.

Call your next witness.

Mr. APPELL. Ralph Powers.

The CHAIRMAN. Please raise your right hand.

You do solemnly swear that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mr. POWERS. I affirm.

The CHAIRMAN. I am sorry.

Do you affirm that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth?

Mr. POWERS. I affirm.

The CHAIRMAN. You so affirm?

Mr. POWERS. Yes, sir.

TESTIMONY OF RALPH POWERS, ACCOMPANIED BY COUNSEL,
LESTER V. CHALMERS, JR.

Mr. APPELL. State your full name for the record, please.

Mr. POWERS. Ralph Powers.

Mr. APPELL. P-o-w-e-r-s?

Mr. POWERS. Yes.

Mr. APPELL. Are you appearing before the subcommittee this afternoon in accordance with a subpoena served upon you at 3:45 o'clock p.m. on the 13th day of October 1965?

Mr. POWERS. Yes.

Mr. APPELL. Are you represented by counsel?

Mr. POWERS. Yes.

Mr. APPELL. Will counsel identify himself for the record, please?

Mr. CHALMERS. My name is Lester V. Chalmers, Jr., an attorney at law at 501 First Federal Building, Raleigh, North Carolina.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Powers, when and where you born?

Mr. POWERS. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by the amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Will you give the committee your educational background?

Mr. POWERS. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Will you give the committee your employment background?

Mr. POWERS. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by the amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Were you served with your subpoena at R.F.D. Cheraw, South Carolina, while you were on a fishing trip?

Mr. POWERS. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Powers, the subpoena served upon you commanded you to bring with you and to produce before the committee items called for in an attachment which was made a part of the subpoena.

Part 1 of the attachment reads:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and affiliated organizations, namely the Alabama Rescue Service, South Carolina Rescue Service, Chesterfield County Sportsman's Club, Realm (State) of South Carolina, in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by you or available to you as an officer or employee of the Chesterfield County Sportsman's Club, South Carolina Rescue Service, Realm (State) of South Carolina of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

In accordance with the provisions of your subpoena, I ask you to produce the documents called for.

Mr. POWERS. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 13, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents as demanded by the committee in subpoena dated October 13, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by the amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I ask that the witness be instructed and directed to produce the documents called for.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Chalmers, heretofore in connection with all of your clients who previously took the stand we entered into the following stipulation: That the witness has been furnished a copy of the chairman's opening statement of October 19, 1965, that he is familiar with its contents; (2) that the directions of the subpoena to produce the documents called for are made to the witness in the official representative capacity as described in this subpoena.

That stipulation applies to this witness?

Mr. CHALMERS. It applies to this witness; yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. I order you, Mr. Powers, to produce the documents called for in paragraph 1 of the attachment to the subpoena duces tecum served upon you.

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. POWERS. I respectfully decline to produce those documents for the reasons heretofore given.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Powers, under the conditions of the subpoena you were directed to bring with you and produce those items described in the attachment which was made a part of the subpoena, part 2, reading:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by or available to you, in your capacity as an officer or employee of the Chesterfield County Sportsman's Club, South Carolina Rescue Service, Realm (State) of South Carolina of the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, which the "Constitution and Laws" of said organization authorize and require to be maintained by you and any other officer of said organization, the same being in your possession, custody or control.

Under the terms of the subpoena, I ask you to produce those documents.

Mr. POWERS. I respectfully decline to produce those documents for the reasons heretofore stated.

The CHAIRMAN. It is agreed, I take it, that the previous stipulation is now entered into with reference to paragraph 2 of the subpoena.

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Powers, I order and direct you to produce those documents.

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. POWERS. I respectfully decline to produce those documents on the grounds heretofore stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Proceed.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Powers, did you know the gentleman who was a witness immediately preceding you, Mr. Charles E. Maddox?

Mr. POWERS. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Powers, I hand you the same copy of a check that I handed Mr. Maddox, a copy of a canceled imprinted check, of the Chesterfield County Sportsman's Club, payable to S. C. Rescue Service in the amount of $78.00. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the Ralph Powers whose name appears as the cosigner on this check is yourself.

Mr. POWERS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Check previously marked "Charles Maddox Exhibit No. 4." See p. 2069.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Powers, the Peoples Bank of Cheraw, South Carolina, in accordance with a subpoena served upon it, produced certain records and documents maintained by that bank in the name of the Chesterfield County Sportsman's Club. The signature cards reflect that this account was opened on July 13, 1964, and that there was submitted originally the names of Tom B. Busch, W. P. Rivers, Sr., and Frank R. Shirrell, and I ask you whether you knew the three names that I mention to you to have been at that time, July 1964, officers of the Chesterfield County Sportsman's Club?

Mr. POWERS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the Chesterfield County Sportsman's Club is, in fact, a Klavern, Klan or Klavern of the United Klans of America in Cheraw, South Carolina.

Mr. POWERS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. The signature card indicates that a change in the account's authorized signatures was effective on 11-30-64, with the addition of the name Ralph Powers.

I ask you if you are the Ralph Powers whose name was added as of November 30, 1964?

Mr. POWERS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. A copy of the second signature card supplied by the Peoples Bank of Cheraw reflects that on March 31, 1965, a new signature card was filed for the Chesterfield County Sportsman's Club, this time containing the signatures of Ralph Powers, T. E. Hutson, and Francis W. Lide.

I show you a reproduction of both signature cards and ask you if the names which appear on the second signature card were known, the individuals were known, to you as officers of the Chesterfield County Sportsman's Club?

(Documents handed to witness.)

Mr. POWERS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Ralph Powers Francis W. Lide
J. E. Hutson

Mr. APPELL. Do you know R. E. Scoggin to be Grand Dragon of the Realm of South Carolina?

Mr. POWERS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I hand you a copy of a canceled check dated May 21, 1965, payable to R. E. Scoggin in the amount of $51, cosigned Ralph Powers and Francis W. Lide.

I ask you the purpose for which that check was drawn?

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. POWERS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I ask you if that check was drawn to the order of Mr. Scoggin as a part of the official business of the Klavern known as the Chesterfield County Sportsman's Club?

Mr. POWERS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I am wondering if you can advise the committee why Mr. Scoggin, instead of depositing that check in some account, cashed it at a place which is apparently the "Welcome Grille."

Mr. POOL. Place that in the form of a question.

Mr. APPELL. Let me restate that question.

Please advise the committee why this check was cashed and endorsed in the manner as shown on the reverse thereof rather than deposited into an official account of the Realm of South Carolina.

Mr. POWERS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Powers, I hand you a copy of a canceled check of the Chesterfield County Sportsman's Club dated May 21, 1965, payable to the Alabama Rescue Service.

I invite your attention to the endorsement on the reverse side of that check, which contains the initials "ARS, UKA, By R. E. Scoggin." It contains a further endorsement "For Deposit Only. W. F. Eubanks, Spartanburg, S.C."

I ask you if this check was drawn to pay the imperial tax to the imperial office of the United Klans of America, and, instead, endorsed by Mr. Scoggin and apparently cashed by Mr. W. F. Eubanks?

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. POWERS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I hand you a copy of a canceled check dated June 28, 1965, payable to R. E. Scoggin, with Ralph Powers as one of the cosigners, which contains the endorsement "R. E. Scoggin," and shows that it was cashed at the First State Building and Loan Association.

(Witness confers with counsel.)

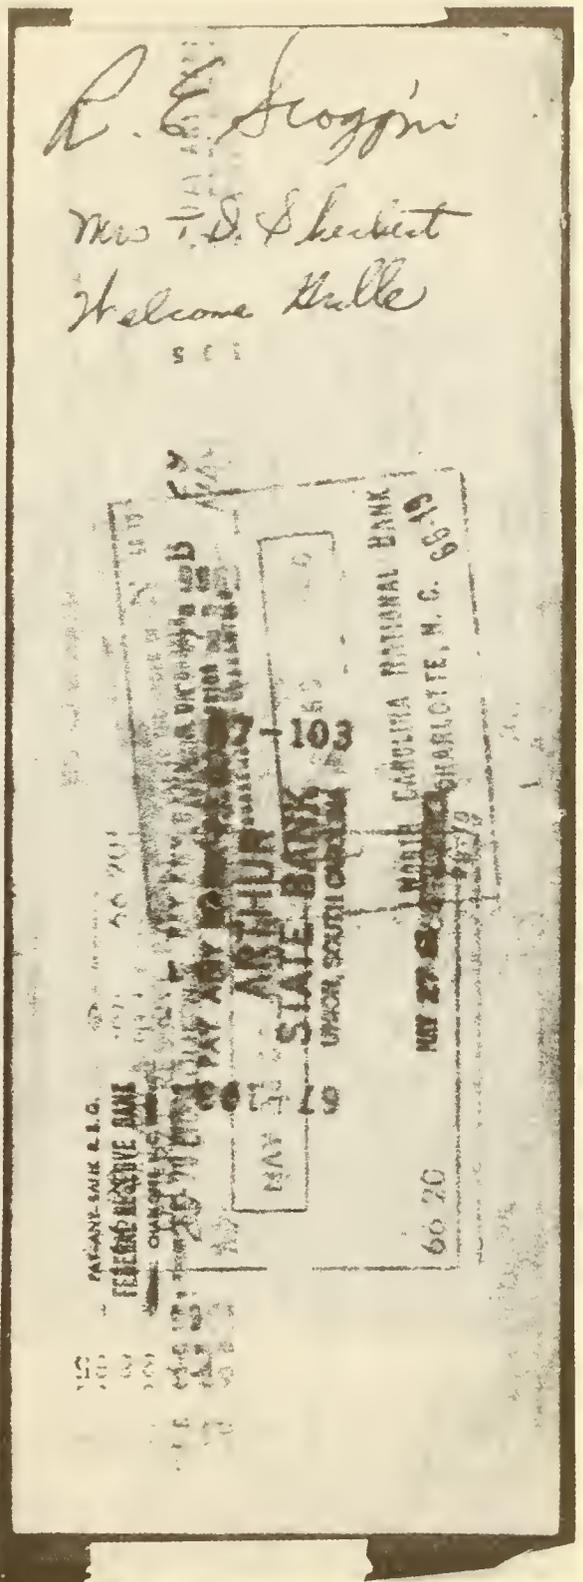

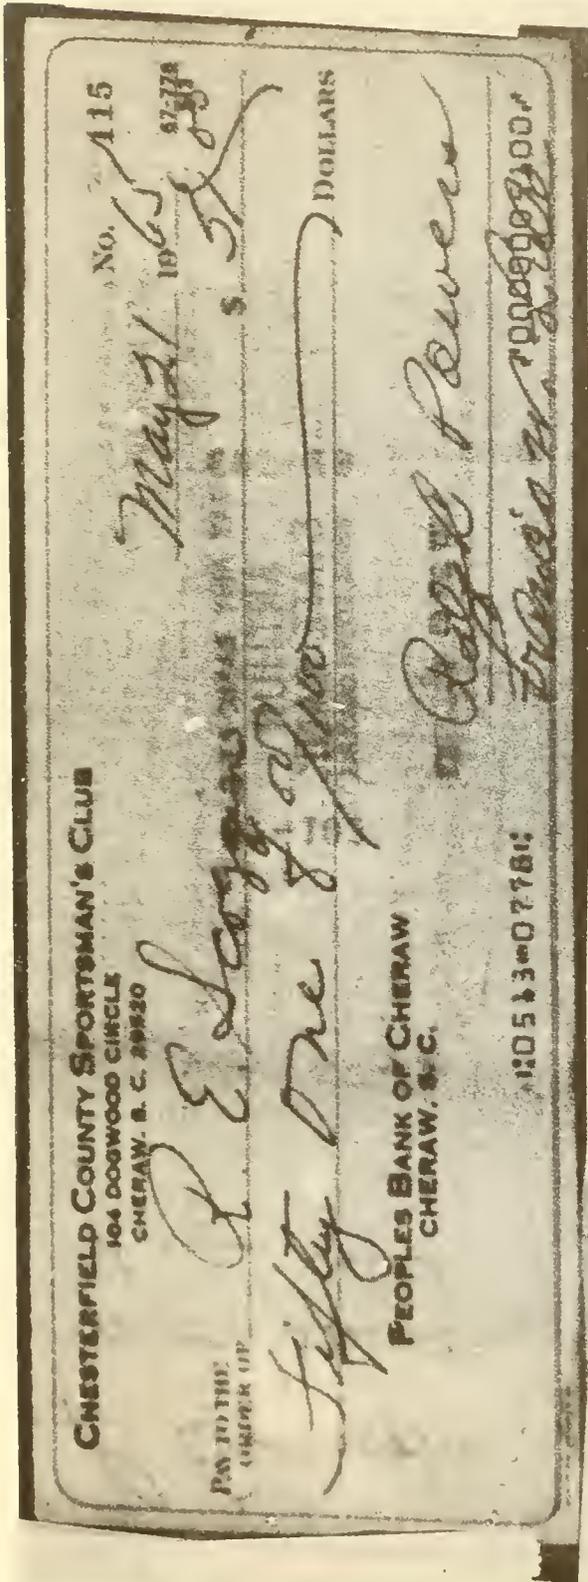

Mr. APPELL. Was that check issued to Mr. Scoggin in connection with the official functions of the Realm of the South Carolina Klan known as the Chesterfield County Sportsman's Club?

RALPH POWERS EXHIBIT NO. 2

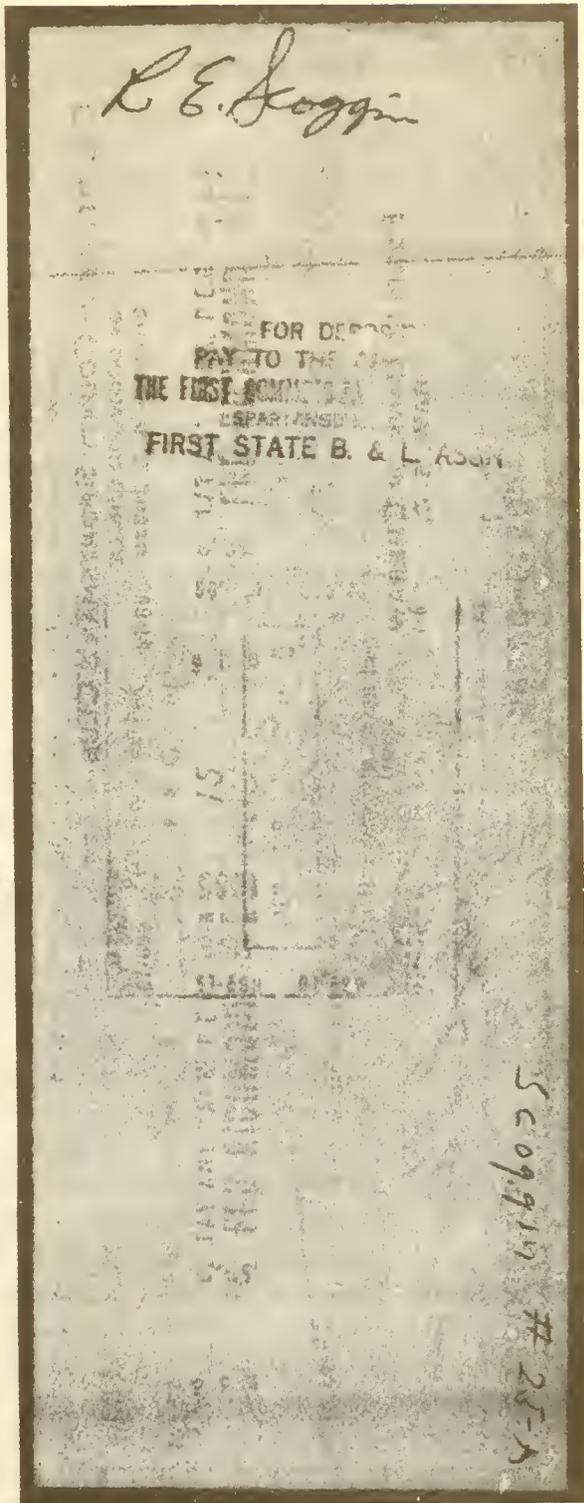

¹ Also used as Robert Scoggin Exhibit No. 25-A in Oct. 28, 1965, hearings.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, the staff has no further questions to ask of Mr. Powers.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Powers, you were in the hearing room when I questioned the previous witness concerning his allegiance to the Klan as against his allegiance to his country and its Constitution; were you not?

Mr. POWERS. I respectfully—
 Mr. CHALMERS. I will stipulate that he was.
 The CHAIRMAN. It is stipulated that he was. I appreciate that stipulation, because I don't want to belabor the point. I am coming to another one.

Would you agree, Counsel, to save going through the same material, may I ask him if his views and his responses are the same concerning the relative allegiance to the United States as against the Klan?

If it will embarrass you, I will ask him.

Your counsel has stipulated—that means he admits—that you were in the hearing room and that you did hear my questions to the previous witness about his affirmation before this committee, and what I had to say about Mr. Shelton and Mr. Dorsett going outside and commenting on their loyalty to the Klan and so on.

I will just ask you, because this leads to another question, do you consider your allegiance to the Klan, under the oath you take as a Klansman, to be superior to your allegiance to your country and its Constitution?

Mr. POWERS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Is your affirmation before this committee instead of the taking of an oath, which you did upon becoming a member of the Klan, a way of your showing your contempt for this committee?

Mr. POWERS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. That leads me to the ultimate question I have in mind.

The committee, with reference to those who affirm instead of swear before God might have to be called upon to make a judgment in its report on these hearings as to what it, the committee, feels is the position of such people.

Don't you worry about it, we will try to get at the bottom of it.

In that connection, I ask you again whether you feel that your allegiance to the Klan is superior to your allegiance to your country and to your obligation, under the decisions of the Supreme Court that I cited in my opening statement, to testify before congressional committees, saving only an honest belief that to so testify would incriminate you?

Mr. POWERS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. POOL. Mr. Powers, do you deny that you hold the position or office set out in the subpoena?

Mr. POWERS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon grounds previously stated.

Mr. POOL. Do you deny that you possess documents required by the subpoena?

Mr. POWERS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon grounds previously stated.

Mr. POOL. That is all.

The CHAIRMAN. Those questions do not weaken the stipulation that we made.

Mr. CHALMERS. And I certainly hope they don't strengthen it.

The CHAIRMAN. Touché.

(At this point Mr. Ashbrook left the hearing room.)

The CHAIRMAN. The witness is dismissed and discharged from his subpoena.

Call your next witness.

Mr. APPELL. Arthur Robert Nix.

The CHAIRMAN. Please raise your right hand.

You do solemnly swear that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mr. Nix. I do.

TESTIMONY OF ARTHUR ROBERT NIX, ACCOMPANIED BY COUNSEL, LESTER V. CHALMERS, JR.

Mr. APPELL. Will you state your name for the record?

Mr. NIX. Arthur Robert Nix.

Mr. APPELL. That is spelled N-i-x?

Mr. NIX. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Are you appearing before the committee in accordance with a subpoena served upon you at the Deering-Milliken Research Corporation, at 12:55 p.m., on the 11th day of October 1965?

Mr. CHALMERS. Mr. Chairman, if I may state, sir, I will stipulate whatever the subpoena shows we will stipulate to.

The CHAIRMAN. If it is important to state for the record—

Mr. APPELL. I asked him, Mr. Chairman, was he appearing in accordance with a subpoena served upon him at the Deering-Milliken Research Corporation at 12:55 p.m., on the 11th day of October 1965?

The CHAIRMAN. Counsel stipulates that the representations of the subpoena are correct?

Mr. CHALMERS. That is correct.

The CHAIRMAN. The representations on the return of the subpoena.

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Nix, are you represented by counsel?

Mr. NIX. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Would counsel please identify himself for the record?

Mr. CHALMERS. I am Lester V. Chalmers, Jr., attorney at law, Room 501, First Federal Building, Raleigh, North Carolina.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Nix, when and where were you born?

Mr. NIX. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. POOL. Mr. Appell, did he give his age?

Mr. APPELL. I just asked him when and where he was born, sir, and he declined to answer.

Mr. POOL. Are you an adult?

Mr. NIX. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Nix, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you were born on March 20, 1944, at Spartanburg, South Carolina.

Mr. NIX. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Nix, under the conditions of the subpoena served upon you, you were ordered to bring with you and to produce:

All books, records, documents, correspondence and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of the Invisible Empire,

United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and affiliated organizations, namely, the Alabama Rescue Service, South Carolina Rescue Service, Realm (state) of South Carolina, in your possession, custody or control or maintained by you or available to you as Grand Kligrapp, South Carolina Rescue Service, Realm (state) of South Carolina, of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

I ask you in accordance with the provisions of your subpoena to produce the documents called for in section 1.

Mr. NIX. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents as demanded by the committee in a subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I request that the witness be ordered and directed to produce the documents called for in paragraph 1.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Counselor, we have previously entered into the following stipulation: (1) That the witness has been furnished a copy of the chairman's opening statement of October 19, 1965, and that he is familiar with its contents; (2) that the directions of the subpoena to produce the documents called for are made to the witness in the official representative capacity described in the subpoena.

That stipulation is now entered into?

Mr. CHALMERS. It certainly is, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Nix, I order and direct you to produce the documents called for by paragraph 1 of the attachment to the subpoena duces tecum served upon you.

Mr. NIX. I respectfully decline to produce those documents based upon the grounds heretofore stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Nix, under the conditions of the subpoena served upon you, you were ordered to bring with you and to produce items called for in an attachment which was made a part of the subpoena, part 2 of which reads:

All books, records, documents, correspondence and memoranda in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by or available to you, in your capacity as Grand Kligrapp, South Carolina Rescue Service, Realm (state) of South Carolina, of the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, which the "Constitution and Laws" of said organization authorize and require to be maintained by you and any other officer of said organization, the same being in your possession, custody or control.

Mr. NIX. I respectfully decline to produce those documents based upon the grounds heretofore stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I ask that the witness be ordered and directed to produce the documents.

The CHAIRMAN. It is stipulated that the previous stipulation as made with reference to paragraph 1 is applied to paragraph 2?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Nix, I order and direct you to produce the documents ordered by the second paragraph of the attachment to the subpoena duces tecum served upon you.

(At this point Mr. Ashbrook returned to the hearing room.)

Mr. NIX. I respectfully decline to produce those documents based upon the grounds heretofore stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Nix, are you the son-in-law of Don Cothran, the Grand Dragon for the Realm of Florida?

Mr. NIX. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Nix, were you a delegate to the supreme klonvokation held by the United Klans of America at the Dinkler-Tutwiler Hotel in Birmingham, Alabama, on September 5 and 6 of 1964?

Mr. NIX. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I hand you a printed form, printed by the Dinkler-Tutwiler Hotel which states: "I will be attending the convention of the Alabama Rescue Ser.," with a request for two double bedrooms. It is signed "Robert Nix & Party, 205 Strange Ct., Sptg.," which I assume is the abbreviation for Spartanburg, South Carolina.

I hand you a copy of the request for hotel registration and ask you if you are the one that filed this with the Dinkler-Tutwiler Hotel?

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Williams, when and where were you born?

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Williams, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you were born on January 7, 1936, in Cherokee County, South Carolina.

Mr. CHALMERS. I will stipulate if it shows that. I am certain that is it.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Williams, the subpoena served upon you calls for you to bring with you and to produce before the committee documents described in three parts:

(1) All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and affiliated organizations, namely, the Alabama Rescue Service, Cherokee Sportsman's Club, South Carolina Rescue Service, Realm (state) of South Carolina in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by you or available to you as present or former official of the Cherokee Sportsman's Club, South Carolina Rescue Service, Realm (state) of South Carolina, of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

I ask you under the conditions of the subpoena to produce the documents called for.

Mr. WILLIAMS. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by the committee under subpoena dated October 13, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents as demanded by the committee in a subpoena dated October 13, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

(At this point Mr. Weltner entered the hearing room.)

Mr. CHALMERS. The same stipulation, please, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. I think I better read it.

Mr. Chalmers, we have made the following stipulation all along: That the witness has been furnished a copy of the chairman's opening statement of October 19, 1965, and that he is familiar with its contents; (2) that the directions of the subpoena to produce the documents called for are made to the witness in the official representative capacity described in the subpoena.

That stipulation applies?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Proceed.

First, I order and direct you to produce the documents called for by paragraph 1 of the attachment to the subpoena duces tecum served upon you.

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. WILLIAMS. I respectfully decline to deliver those documents based upon the grounds heretofore stated.

Under the terms of the subpoena, I ask you to produce the documents called for in part 2.

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. WILLIAMS. I respectfully decline to produce those documents based on the grounds heretofore stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I ask that the witness be ordered and directed to produce the documents called for in part 2.

The CHAIRMAN. The same stipulation just made applies?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. I order and direct you to produce those documents. (Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. WILLIAMS. I respectfully decline to produce those documents based on the grounds heretofore stated.

Mr. APPELL. Part 3 of your subpoena called for you to produce:

Copies of U.S. Treasury Department, Internal Revenue Service, Form 1040, [entitled] "U.S. Individual Income Tax Return," for the calendar years 1958 through 1964, filed by you as an individual taxpayer with the U.S. Treasury Department, Internal Revenue Service.

Under the conditions of your subpoena, I ask you to produce the documents called for.

Mr. WILLIAMS. I respectfully decline to produce those documents based on the grounds heretofore stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Williams, what is your educational background?

Mr. WILLIAMS. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, that your education is that of the 10th grade. I ask you to affirm or deny the fact.

I ask you if this check was given to Mr. Scoggin as it appears on its face as the Klavern tax due to the realm under the Constitution and Laws of the United Klans of America.

Mr. WILLIAMS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Williams, I ask you to look at the reverse of that check and observe the endorsement thereon. Can you advise the committee why this check, payable to "R. E. Scoggins," showing on its face "August—Tax," was apparently later deposited to the account of the Hayne Esso Station, Hayne and Williams Streets, Spartanburg, South Carolina?

Mr. WILLIAMS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. What?

Mr. APPELL. I put it to him as a fact, and asked him to confirm or deny the fact, that in early September of this year the leadership of this Klan changed into the leadership of Joe McCluny.

Mr. Chairman, the staff has no further questions to ask this witness.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I am.

Mr. APPELL. Are you represented by counsel?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I am.

Mr. APPELL. Will counsel please identify himself for the record?

Mr. CHALMERS. I am Lester V. Chalmers, Jr., attorney at law, Room 501, First Federal Building, Raleigh, North Carolina.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Scoggin, when and where were you born?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Scoggin, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you were born on May 12, 1922, in Polk County, North Carolina, and that at the time of your birth your last name was spelled S-c-o-g-g-i-n-s.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Scoggin, will you set forth your educational background?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that in addition to being Grand Dragon for the Realm of South Carolina, you are self-employed as a plumbing and electrical contractor.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Scoggin, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you have acted as the exalted cyclops of a Klavern located in Spartanburg, South Carolina, known as the Twenty-One Club.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you are currently Grand Dragon of the Realm of South Carolina.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Scoggin, under the condition of the subpoena served upon you, on October 11, 1965, you were commanded to bring with you and to produce certain documents which were set forth on the subpoena, an attachment to the subpoena, and which was made a part of the subpoena.

Part 1 reads:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and affiliated organizations, namely, the Alabama Rescue Service, Twenty-One Club, South Carolina Rescue Service, Lodge 21, United Klans of America, Realm (state) of South Carolina, in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by you or available to you as Grand Dragon, South Carolina Rescue Service, Realm (state) of South Carolina, and as an officer or employee of Twenty-One Club and/or Lodge 21, United Klans of America, Realm (state) of South Carolina.

Under the terms of the subpoena, I ask you to produce the documents in your possession.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by the House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents as demanded by the committee in its subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I request that the witness be ordered and directed to produce the documents called for in part 1 of the attachment.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Chalmers, we have entered into the following stipulation in previous instances: (1) That the witness has been furnished a copy of the chairman's opening statement of October 19, 1965, and that he is familiar with its contents; (2) that the directions of the subpoena to produce the documents called for are made to the witness in the official representative capacity described in the subpoena.

That stipulation is now entered into with reference to this witness?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. I am not sure whether you were in the audience all along, Mr. Scoggin. I want to say to you that I am going to direct you, order and direct you, to produce those documents, which carries the meaning that the committee is in disagreement with your invocation of constitutional privileges and your failure to produce these documents would, in our opinion, subject you to a contempt citation.

With that statement, I now order and direct you to produce those documents.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to deliver the documents heretofore requested based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Scoggin, part 2 of the attachment which was made a part of the subpoena calls for you to produce:

All books, records, documents, correspondence and memoranda in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by or available to you, in your capacity as Grand Dragon, South Carolina Rescue Service, Realm (state) of South Carolina and as an officer or employee of Twenty-One Club, and/or Lodge 21, United Klans of America, Realm (state) of South Carolina, of the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, which the "Constitution and Laws" of said organization authorize and require to be maintained by you and any other officer of said organization, the same being in your possession, custody or control.

In accordance with the terms of the subpoena, I ask you to produce the documents called for in part 2.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to deliver the documents heretofore requested based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. The stipulation will apply to this paragraph?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. I order and direct you to produce those documents.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to deliver the documents heretofore requested based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Scoggin, part 3 of the subpoena calls for you to produce:

Copies of U.S. Treasury Department, Internal Revenue Service, Form 1040, [captioned] "U.S. Individual Income Tax Return," for the calendar years 1958 through 1964, filed by you as an individual taxpayer with the U.S. Treasury Department, Internal Revenue Service.

I ask you to produce those documents called for in section 3.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to deliver the documents heretofore requested based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you have never filed an individual tax return.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Scoggin, in this instance the subpoena refers to an individual income tax return. The information indicates that you did not file any. I wish to say that since this refers to your individual income tax return, I will not order you to produce the documents and I respect your right to invoke the fifth amendment.

This draws a distinction between my order a while ago and the situation we are now facing here. In the first two paragraphs you were ordered to produce documents in your possession having to do with the organization. You have no right to invoke the fifth amendment on that.

The reference to your individual income tax returns draws a distinction between our views with reference to your right to invoke the privileges of the Constitution in one case involving individual affairs and in the other involving your possession of documents concerning your organization.

(At this point Mr. Weltner returned to the hearing room.)

Mr. BUCHANAN. Mr. Scoggin, is your failure to produce these records, other than the income tax information which I understand you have invoked the fifth amendment upon because you feel it might tend to incriminate you to produce them—is your failure to produce these other documents because your loyalty to the Ku Klux Klan exceeds your loyalty to the United States, or, in fact, because you feel this might tend to incriminate you?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. BUCHANAN. Is the Invisible Empire, in your mind, an empire to which you owe greater allegiance than the United States?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Proceed.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Scoggin, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you have been a member of the Ku Klux Klan organization since the year 1957.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I hand you a copy of an application for a Post Office Box, 4144, Spartanburg, South Carolina, an application made by R. E. Scoggin for the U.S. Klans, Inc., described on the application as a fraternal organization, signed R. E. Scoggin, 12-29-58.

I put to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you were the applicant for this post office box.

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that in what was known as Spartanburg Unit No. 21 under the U.S. Klans, which was under the leadership of Imperial Wizard Eldon Edwards, that you were the EC of Unit 21, Spartansburg, South Carolina.

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. EC means exalted cyclops?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that within the organization known as the U.S. Klans you held the position of grand titan. I ask you to affirm or deny the fact.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact that within the organization known as the U.S. Klans that you held the position of Grand Dragon for the State of South Carolina. I ask you to affirm or deny the fact.

Shelton was relieved from his office of Grand Dragon for the State of Alabama by Imperial Wizard Eldon Edwards because he failed to make proper accounting of funds received by him in his position of Grand Dragon for the Realm of Alabama. I ask you to affirm or deny the fact.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that with the Grand Dragon of Georgia, Mr. Davidson broke away from the U.S. Klans and formed an organization which was chartered in the name of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., chartered in the State of Georgia.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. And that 50 cents per member was to be remitted by every member within the Invisible Empire embracing a number of States presided over by Imperial Wizard Robert M. Shelton; is that correct?

Mr. APPELL. That is right, sir. However, Mr. Chairman, our files reflect that, as we noted in the record already, the close vote by which this increased assessment was carried at the klonvokation, that many Klaverns did not start complying with the additional increase until sometime in March or April 1965 even though the constitution was amended in September 1964.

Mr. APPELL. Do you still have them in your possession?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Scoggin, the committee's investigation establishes that the United Klans of America uses the opportunities of its public rallies to assemble its Grand Dragons together for the purpose of discussing items of common interest to the United Klans of America.

Were you summoned to Tuscaloosa, Alabama, a few days after I interviewed Imperial Wizard Shelton to discuss what procedure you people would follow in the course of the committee's inquiry into the United Klans of America?

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Scoggin, were you aware of the fact when you were there in November 1964, that there had been a bombing of a residence of a Negro family by the name of Godfrey in Jacksonville, Florida, in February?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. One of the persons arrested in connection with that bombing was named Rosecrans,¹ and he confessed to the fact that he and some others had conspired to bomb this residence because the young Godfrey boy was the first Negro to attend public schools there and was attending school as a result of a court order.

During the time that you were staying at the Capri Motel, did you participate in discussions with respect to Rosecrans?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that a part of the discussion that involved Rosecrans was how to get him out of jail and, thereby, take care of him after you got him out because he gave a confession.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that Robert Creel, the Grand Dragon of Alabama, became so intoxicated at 3 o'clock in the morning on November 22, 1964, he wanted to go into the city and shoot his way into a restaurant in order to get some breakfast.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you people had to subdue him in order to keep him from carrying out his threat.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Scoggin, did you attend a rally or a meeting of Klan leaders on May 15-16, 1965, in Natchez, Mississippi?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you did attend, that you registered at the Eola Hotel, and that you were accompanied by W. S. Cox, an official of the United Klans of America, Realm of South Carolina.

I ask you to affirm or deny the fact.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Does the law of South Carolina require registration?

Mr. APPELL. To my understanding it does, sir, by a foreign corporation.

Mr. Scoggin, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that there was elected to your grand board as the Grand Klaliff, Younger Newton, of Columbia, South Carolina; as grand klokard, James O. Davis, of Sumter, South Carolina; as grand kludd, Wilburn Samuel Cox, of Hemingway, South Carolina; as grand kligrapp, Robert Nix, of Spartanburg, South Carolina; as grand klabee, Charles E. Maddox, of Camden, South Carolina; as grand kladd, William "Bill" Bullock, of West Columbia, South Carolina; as grand klarogo, Carlyle Lewis, Jr., of Sumter, South Carolina; as grand klexter, E. D. Mr. Scoggin, I hand you a reproduction of a newspaper clipping which is dated September 27, 1965, the Rock Hill, South Carolina, Herald, which contains a photograph of a man in a Klan robe identified in the photograph as Steve Sloan; identified in the story as an organizer for the Realm of South Carolina.

I ask you if this identity of Sloan is factual?

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "Robert Scoggin Exhibit No. 5" and retained in committee files.)

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Reporter, you will insert the documents into the record at all times in the order that they were commented upon and/or exhibited to the witness.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Scoggin, in St. Augustine, Florida, in the summer of 1964, one of the principal rabble-rousers for the violence that occurred there, was a man who is at times referred to as Reverend but is known as Connie Lynch.

Do you know Connie Lynch?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you did know Connie Lynch as a Klansman.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that on a personal invitation from you, Connie Lynch spoke at a rally in Spartanburg, South Carolina, on August 17, 1963.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that speaking on the same platform with Connie Lynch was Imperial Wizard Shelton; the Grand Dragon of Georgia, Calvin Craig; the Grand Dragon of North Carolina, James R. Jones; and yourself, introduced as Grand Dragon of South Carolina.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. When I interviewed Mr. Shelton on April 14, 1965, he identified you to me as the Grand Dragon of the Realm of South Carolina.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Shelton also advised that Connie Lynch was a man who would never appear on a United Klans of America platform.

In light of what I read to you, is that information factual?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Scoggin, I earlier mentioned the elections on July 8, 1961, and the election of Alvin Sisk as the Imperial Kligrapp or secretary.

Did you accompany Sisk in an airplane ride which had scheduled as its final destination Washington, D.C., which crashed, and as a result of which Alvin Sisk died?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I have an article which appeared in the Greenville, South Carolina, News, of 8-28-63, which contains as part of the story a photograph of Imperial Wizard Shelton in a hospital bed. It looks like he might have had a broken wrist as a result of the accident.

This states that Alvin Sisk, the pilot, died as a result of injuries sustained; that the other three passengers were identified as Fredrick Smith, Bob Scoggin, and Imperial Wizard Shelton.

I ask you if the story is factual?

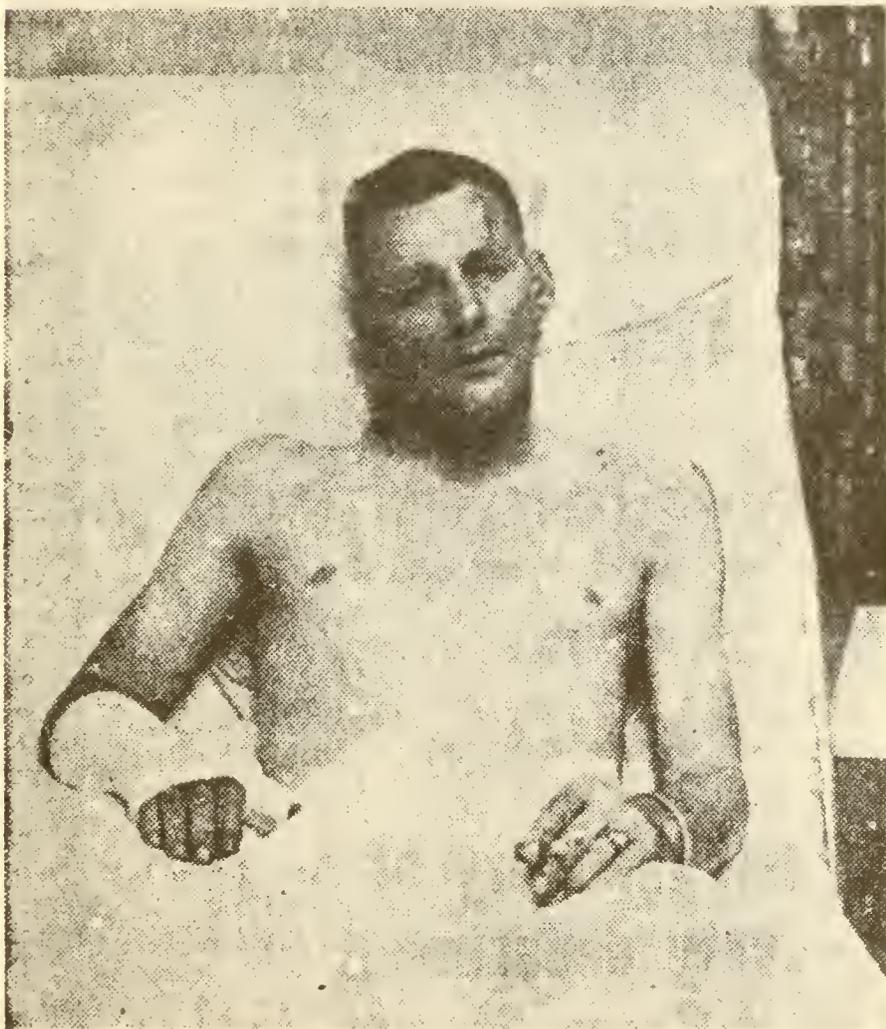

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

SENECA—Imperial Grand Wizard and Grand Dragon Robert M. Shelton of the Alabama Ku Klux Klan, who got a broken arm and other minor injuries in a plane crash near here Monday, is shown in Oconee Memorial Hospital here. Shelton and a companion, Frederick G. Smith, left the hospital Tuesday morning.

Won't Continue To WashingtonKlansman To Go
To Pilot's RitesBy DOUGLAS MAULDIN
News Staff Writer

WALHALLA — A top-ranking Alabama Ku Klux Klan leader, injured in a plane crash near here Monday, was discharged from a hospital Tuesday morning and announced he would not continue to his original destination, Washington, D. C., where a civil rights march is scheduled Wednesday.

Instead, Robert M. Shelton, imperial grand wizard and grand dragon of the Alabama Ku Klux Klan, said he would go to Madisonville, Ky., for funeral services of Alvin D. Sisk, pilot of the ill-fated craft.

Sisk, 350-pound man who escaped barely alive early Monday afternoon with Shelton and Frederick G. Smith, all of Tuscaloosa, Ala., died in Oconee Memorial Hospital in Seneca at 3:15 a. m. Tuesday.

Shelton and Smith, who had lesser injuries, pulled the pilot from the wreckage.

Oconee County Coroner Floyd Owens said Sisk's death was caused by head and chest injuries.

The single engined plane, probing for a break in dense fog cloaking the mountainous area at the time, smashed into trees on Medlin Mountain 25 miles north of Walhalla.

Coroner Owens empaneled a jury but said he did not know whether an inquest would be necessary.

Davenport Funeral Home of Walhalla shipped Sisk's body to his mother's home in Madisonville, according to hospital authorities.

EN ROUTE TO SPARTANBURG

When the Cessna Skylane cracked up about 1:30 p. m. 75 yards off U. S. Highway 107, the three men were en route to Spartanburg, where they said they were to pick up a fourth passenger, identified as Bob Scoggins, active with Piedmont area Klan affairs.

Accompanied by Scoggins, Shelton and Smith appeared at Sheriff D. H. (Buck) Crenshaw's office early Tuesday afternoon. They talked with the sheriff and the coroner and indicated they would be glad to assist in any way possible with investigation of the crash.

They said their immediate concern was with the family of the dead pilot and they planned to attend his funeral services.

Coroner Owens said Shelton and Smith blamed a faulty altimeter with the accident. They said Sisk had dropped the light craft down from 11,000 feet to 4,500 feet searching for an opening in the fog when they suddenly hit the trees, 40 minutes out of Chattanooga, Tenn., their last refueling stop.

The pilot was apparently unaware of the highway's presence, as visibility at ground level Monday afternoon was extremely limited. The plane skimmed over the road by about 100 feet before slicing a path 15 yards wide into the trees.

Investigators of the Federal Aviation Agency and the S. C. Aeronautics Commission came to the scene Tuesday to determine officially why the plane fell.

The roped-off wreckage in a clump of trees was under guard by Civil Defense auxiliary police and Sheriff Crenshaw's deputies all night.

"BUSINESS TRIP"

Shelton nor Scoggins would reveal the purpose of the Washington trip, except to say it was a "business trip."

Scoggins, a Spartanburg plumber, indicated he would continue on to the Capital City, however.

Sheriff Crenshaw said about 75 Ku Klux Klan pamphlets were in the plane's wreckage.

Mr. APPELL. It seems that, according to the story, Mr. Shelton was hospitalized only for 2 days.

Did you receive any compensation as a result of being involved in this plane crash?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. What insurance company made settlement of any filed by you or Mr. Shelton?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Scoggin, I hand you a clipping from the Rock Hill, South Carolina, Herald, of September 2, 1965, which reads:

A Klan rally cancelled last month has been reset for Sunday at 5:00 p.m. on the Hollis Lakes Road between new and old Highway 5; William Duncan, who identified himself as the Kleagle, told the Herald today.

He said that Bob Scoggin of Spartanburg, state Klan leader, would speak and that a cross would be burned.

Is the identity of William Duncan as kleagle or organizer factual?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "Robert Scoggin Exhibit No. 7" and retained in committee files.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Scoggin, we, in interrogating Imperial Kludd or Chaplain Dorsett yesterday brought out that many statements, derogatory statements were made by Imperial Kludd Dorsett against police officials in various States where he has been used by the United Klans of America to make pitches for funds.

Is this a common practice among Klansmen, to tear down the character of people that disagree with the Klan?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. The Florence, South Carolina, News, of April 5, 1965, reporting on a rally held at Hemingway, South Carolina, quotes you, because the mayor of Hemingway opposed the rally, and as a result of some statements of characterization that he made about the Klan, as saying that you said during a part of your speech, "the mayor of Hemingway is an unadulterated liar."

Does the newspaper quote you factually?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "Robert Scoggin Exhibit No. 8" and retained in committee files.)

Mr. APPELL. The Charleston, South Carolina, News and Courier, of April 3, reports on a rally which followed a condemnation of the Klan by Governor Russell, of South Carolina. The newspaper reports:

Gov. Russell's suggestion that Imperial Wizard Shelton could serve no useful purpose in coming to South Carolina for a Hemingway rally drew sharp criticism from Scoggin.

Scoggin pictured Shelton as "a greater patriot than the governor" and said he would be in Hemingway to introduce the imperial wizard.

Does the newspaper quote you factually?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. The newspaper further quotes you as saying, and I quote from a paragraph in the article :

Scoggin, 42-year-old Spartanburg plumbing and heating contractor, declared flatly, "We do have membership in law enforcement agencies in South Carolina."

Are you quoted factually?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I ask you for the identity of any members in a law enforcement agency that you have in South Carolina.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. The newspaper further quotes you as saying, "He"—referring to Scoggin—"said the KKK has 'active lodges' in 31 of South Carolina's 46 counties including Charleston County."

Were you quoted factually?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "Robert Scoggin Exhibit No. 9" appears on p. 2119.)

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that if you made that statement it was not factual.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Scoggin, The State and The Columbia Record, of Columbia, South Carolina, in an issue of June 20, 1965, contains a photo of 75 Klansmen standing on the capitol steps and refers to a rally that was held later.

The story reports on rough treatment given members of the press because they did not follow the accepted procedure when attending a rally.

Is freedom of the press denied to the press by the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, United Klans of America?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "Robert Scoggin Exhibit No. 10" and retained in committee files.)

Mr. APPELL. At that rally, did the Reverend or did George Dorsett make a pitch for funds?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Was the shill method of asking people to contribute money by having people, Klansmen, walk up as strawmen in order to get other people to follow them when donations of $100, $50, $25, or $10, were asked for from the crowd?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. It was reported that there was $350 collected but information in the committee's possession is that the sum was closer to $500.

What was the amount collected at that rally?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Hemingway Sharply Rebuffs Scheduled Meeting Of Klan

By LEVERNE M. PROSSER
Staff Reporter

HEMINGWAY — The Ku Klux Klan and its leaders yesterday were told in blunt language by a solid front of civic, governmental and business leadership that "decent people of Hemingway" are "unalterably opposed" to the hooded society's cross-burning and rally scheduled near here tonight.

Mayor L. Durward Lewis — backed by organizations representing more than 95 per cent of the small tobacco-textile town's population — called on area residents to boycott talks by national Imperial Wizard Robert Shelton of Tuscaloosa, Ala., state Grand Dragon Robert Scoggin of Spartanburg and other KKK leaders.

Strong opposition to the rally and KKK recruiting drive was expressed in a joint telegram sent to President Johnson, U. S. Sens. Olin D. Johnston and Strom Thurmond, Rep. John L. McMillan and Gov. Donald S. Russell.

The protest to the selection of a site near Hemingway for the KKK's first South Carolina meeting of the year was signed by the local Junior Chamber of Commerce, Civitan Club, American Legion, the Hemingway City Council and the Williamsburg County Industrial Development Board and legislative delegation.

Mayor Lewis, speaking for the combined groups, emphasized tonight's meeting of Lodges 15 and 19 of the United Klans of the Ku Klux Klan near Ard's Crossroads "could serve no useful purpose."

"We do not welcome the Klan or any other extreme group," Mayor Lewis continued.

Mayor Lewis said "only a handful of area residents" known to be Klan sympathizers are expected to be involved in the rally.

A poll by the News and Courier of 35 persons representing all walks of Hemingway life yesterday showed Mayor Lewis apparently has wide support for his opposition to the Klan.

Of the 35, only one expressed qualified support for the Klan. After insisting he wasn't a member of the Klan, he said he welcomed the rally "not because I'm a Klan lover, but that I'm a (President) Johnson hater."

An elderly lady said she would pray for a cloudburst to "wash out the rally" and "wash up the dirty Klan" in spite of near record rainfall during the past few days here.

A small group of area white high school students early yesterday posted an estimated 40 anti-Klan signs throughout the Johnsonville - Hemingway - Indiantown sections in protest to the rally.

One sign near Johnsonville read "Stamp out Boll Weevils, Tobacco Worms and the KKK." Almost identical signs reading "KKK, Decent People Don't Want You Here" was posted near the Rehobeth Pentecostal Holiness Church and on the Hemingway city limits sign on the Crook's Crossroad highway.

Mayor Lewis' statement followed an earlier protest to the Klan gathering by Gov. Russell and members of the Williamsburg County delegation.

Gov. Russell's suggestion that Imperial Wizard Shelton could serve no useful purpose in coming to South Carolina for a Hemingway rally drew sharp criticism from Scoggin.

Scoggin pictured Shelton as "a greater patriot than the governor" and said he would be in Hemingway to introduce the imperial wizard.

Federal, state, county and local law enforcement officers are expected to keep a close eye on tonight's activity by the Klan and its "ladies Auxiliary."

SLED agents, state highway patrolmen and the Williamsburg County sheriff's office will keep a lookout for possible vandalism and law breakers.

While the FBI would not comment on what action it would take in connection with tonight's rally, it is known agents of the agency have been investigating Klan activity here for the past three weeks.

Grand Dragon Scoggin, enroute to tonight's rally, said last night members of some law enforcement agencies in the state belong to the KKK.

Scoggin, 42-year-old Spartanburg plumbing and heating contractor, declared flatly, "We do have membership in law enforcement agencies in South Carolina."

Scoggin declined to say which law enforcement agencies he made his comment by telephone.

He said the KKK has "active lodges" in 31 of South Carolina's 46 counties including Charleston County.

Scoggin declared that the rally will be open to the public "and we welcome them (SLED and the FBI) along with other white citizens."

Mr. APPELL. What was the distribution of the funds collected at that rally?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Scoggin, the Columbia, South Carolina, State, in its issue of April 7, 1965, reports on a story of a Negro who was taken from a jail cell and beaten. The newspaper quotes you as saying: "I'm positive it was not any of our United Klan boys"; that you were going to conduct an investigation; and "If we find that it was, I'll state that the due process of law should prevail."

I would like to ask you, did you conduct an investigation as you promised?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "Robert Scoggin Exhibit No. 11" and retained in committee files.)

(At this point Mr. Weltner returned to the hearing room.)

Mr. APPELL. Was it as a result of an investigation conducted by your Klan Bureau of Investigation which brought about the arrest of L. Cornell Wise and Philip Plamkin, a member of the Prosperity, South Carolina, police force, who was not on duty the night he and Wise allegedly took the Negro from his cell?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. As a matter of fact, this arrest came as a result of police investigation and not as a result of any investigation by the Klan; is that not correct?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Scoggin, the Savannah, Georgia, Press of September 7, 1965, carried a story on the rally held at Chester, South Carolina. To be exact, it was 5 miles east of Chester on State Highway 97. It identified among the speakers Robert Scoggin, Grand Dragon, and Younger Newton, of Columbia, the State Klan's Grand Klaliff.

Is the report of the newspaper factual?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "Robert Scoggin Exhibit No. 12" and retained in committee files.)

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that Mr. Younger Newton, the Grand Klaliff, or vice president, of the Realm of South Carolina, operates the Heritage Garment Works, which manufactures Klan robes and other paraphernalia.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Do members of the United Klans of America in South Carolina and Georgia purchase robes from Heritage Garment Works?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Do any profits from the manufacture and sale of these robes accrue to anyone other than the Heritage Garment Works?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Did you attend a rally in Salisbury, North Carolina, on August 8, 1964?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Scoggin, I show you a reproduction of a photograph that appeared in the Charlotte Observer of Sunday, August 30, 1964, and I ask you if you are the individual identified in the caption as "Robert Scoggins," Grand Dragon, South Carolina, pictured along with Fred Lee Wilson, the grand klabeer, or treasurer, of North Carolina, and J., it says here, Robert Jones, though it is Robertson Jones, Grand Dragon for the State of North Carolina?

(Document handed to witness.)

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "Robert Scoggin Exhibit No. 13." Original photograph previously marked "Fred Wilson Exhibit No. 7.")

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Scoggin, do you know Dan Burros¹ who is the Grand Dragon or grand kleagle for the State of New York?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you met with Dan Burros, who traveled from New York to Hemingway, South Carolina, to meet with you over the week-end of September 17-19, 1965.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. According to the Richmond, Virginia, Times-Dispatch, of July 25, 1965, a story datelined Raleigh, North Carolina, July 24, you are quoted as saying that, "There is nothing wrong with this organization," referring to the United Klans of America, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, "let them investigate."

Was that a truthful statement, Mr. Scoggin?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "Robert Scoggin Exhibit No. 14" appears on pp. 2122 and 2123.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Scoggin, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that until a slight increase in membership within the past month or 2 that your Klavern in Spartanburg, South Carolina, has not consisted of more than 25 men.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that in February of 1965, discussing the lack of organization of the United Klans of America in South Carolina, that you reported that you purposely were keeping this organization on a low ebb because you wanted to maintain it small, under strict discipline, with a view to going underground if necessary.

ROBERT SCOGGIN EXHIBIT No. 14

[Richmond, Va., Times-Dispatch, July 25, 1965]

KKK Is Striving for an Image of Respectability

RALPHIGH July 24 (P) The Imperial Wizard of the Ku Klux Klan sat in the backseat of an expensive automobile parked in a North Carolina cow pasture, and predicted.

"By 1968 we will be one of the most powerful voting blocs in the nation."

Robert Shelton, a frail-looking "man" from Tuscaloosa, Ala., added, "We are not an organization of bigots. We are not hatemongers. We don't wear masks. We are not afraid to show ourselves. We will show ourselves often—at the polls."

The Grand Dragon of the North Carolina Klan stood on a platform in a cornfield and said, "The civil rights groups often throw those nonviolent bricks and use those nonviolent lead pipes, but it is the KKK that gets the bad publicity."

ROBERT JONES of Granite Quarry, N. C., added, "Look at that group of Klansmen there in the white robes. They are not the uneducated red-necks of which you read so much about. One owns a grocery store, another a body shop. They are respectable members of the community."

The Grand Dragon of the South Carolina Klan said, "We're going to fight to the death for the white race in every way that is honorable."

Then Bob Scoggin of Spartanburg added "There is nothing wrong with this organization, let them investigate."

The Ku Klux Klan, faced with a federal investigation and determined to become an influential political segment of the nation, is attempting to erase forever its image as a night rider in flowing white robes armed with a whip and a burning cross.

THE KLAN LEADERS publically attack any form of violence. A klansman accused of an automobile bombing in the North Carolina community of New Bern was ousted from the organization and openly criticized at a KKK meeting for his actions.

A former Klansman who had served a prison term was asked to leave the site of a KKK rally because "you endanger the image of the Klan."

The KKK wants the small business man, the white and the blue collar workers.

Klan meetings now are open to the public, where once they were in the shadows of secrecy.

NEWSMEN AND photographers are welcomed, although escorted at all times by steel-helmeted security guards, the police and protective arm of the Klan.

The security guard, with its gray-blue uniforms and paratrooper jump boots, serves a dual purpose for the newsmen. They protect them from any assault by overzealous Klan supporters who question the fairness of the press, and prohibit pictures of anyone in the crowd who objects.

The Klan leaders still give members the right to anonymity.

A Klansman once said, "Sign up. No one will ever know if that's the way you want it."

The KKK makes no bones about its principal purpose—separation of the races, the white apart from the black.

IN RECENT MONTHS, as the Klan increased the tempo of its rallies and the search for money and members, verbal attacks against the Jews and the Catholics have all but disappeared.

The Negro is the target.

Negro demonstrations are pointed to as lawbreaking actions, going unpunished.

ROBERT SCOGGIN EXHIBIT NO. 14—Continued

A sharp line is drawn by the Klan between the white man who aids the civil rights movement and the one who does not.

A Klansman said once in privacy, "The KKK is no land for the homosexual or the Communist. Let the Negro have them. We want the man with the clean shirt and shoes. If they are beards, let them join the civil rights movement."

THE KKK realizes it is opposed by many influential religious leaders and thus has launched a series of stinging attacks against the National Council of Churches.

The council is accused repeatedly of failing under the influence of Communist teachings.

The Klan takes no party lines, although vicious slurs are aimed at President Johnson and especially Vice President Humphrey.

The denunciation of the Vice President, who always is referred to as "Hen-House Humphrey," brings the loudest applause at any KKK rally.

The rallies combine segregation and the Holy Bible.

They are part segregation, part religion.

At Klan meetings, be they in a cornfield, a cow pasture, or a canebrake, liquor is forbidden.

AT LEAST TWO, often three, ministers speak, talking in the fire and brimstone tone of the old tent revivals.

All Klan rallies end with the burning of a giant cross, often 60 to 70 feet tall.

The lights are off, the torches lit, and the Klansmen parade single file around the cross. Suddenly, the torches are tossed forward and the cross, wrapped in burlap bags which have been soaked in kerosene, erupts in flames.

For several hours after the rallies end the flames, casting eerie shadows, can be seen for miles.

To accentuate its desire for new members, the Klan has staged, in recent months, many street walks in cities, towns and country crossroads.

Robed Klansmen, escorted by security guards, and following the flags of the United States and the Confederacy, walk silently down the main streets.

THEY ARE ORDERED by leaders to be silent and peaceful.

As Grand Dragon Jones once said to his Klansmen, "Don't say a word to any of the burr-heads (Negroes) in this town, just let them know we are here."

The Klan also is trying to erase its image as a Southern organization. It is attempting to establish branches throughout the nation, especially in the northeastern and far western states.

Shelton once said, "We are spreading throughout the United States and even now have chapters in England and Canada. In one state alone we are issuing charters at the rate of 40 a week and it takes 25 members to qualify for a charter."

He refused to name the state.

A Klansman, one who works all week and then spends his week ends in KKK activity, was asked why he became a member, why he donated his time free.

He answered:

"Because I am a white man."

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you did make such a report.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. When a few months prior to this the Cherokee Sportsman's Club dissolved and formed an organization known as the Underground, was this action taken with your approval?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Did you discuss with Furman Dean Williams the type of training which his small group would engage in following the termination of the Cherokee Sportsman's Club?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you knew that these men were engaging in explosive demonstrations and equipping themselves with firearms and becoming experts in the use thereof.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Appell, in that connection, I would like to make a statement prior to a question.

I have in my hand a pamphlet called The Klan In Action, with titles of "Leadership, Responsibility, Organization, Method."

On page 21 appears:

INTELLIGENCE COMMITTEE.

This Committee is the eyes and ears of the Klan Army. Upon it depends the knowledge of enemies within and without, upon it rests the duty of furnishing the information upon which all plans must be based. Unless this Committee is effective, the best Klan will * * * fail. * * *

Then under "Members" I see this passage:

The membership of this committee should be kept secret from the members of the Klan and even, if thought advisable, from the other members of the committee itself. In that case the committee would hold no meetings, but each individual member would report individually to the Exalted Cyclops. * * *

Under "Duties" is this passage:

To protect the Klan from the actions of unfaithful members; to investigate members whose actions are suspicious or who seem to show lack of proper regard for any part of their oath.

To protect the Order by advising of spies and enemies within the Klan.

To find the sources of all adverse propaganda reported by the Propaganda Committee.

* * * * *

To investigate other societies and organizations.

Mr. Appell exhibited to you a news article in which you said to him, or in the article it said, you boasted that you had Klan members in law enforcement agencies.

Do members of this intelligence committee try to penetrate and do penetrate law enforcement agencies?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "Robert Scoggin Exhibit No. 15" and retained in committee files.)

The CHAIRMAN. Is it not a fact that within your realm you have a committee of this type, by whatever name it is called?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Under Federal law, a witness before this or any other committee is entitled to be reimbursed at the rate of 7 cents per mile and $9 per day. Not only as a member of this committee, but as a member of the Judiciary Committee, and as a Member of Congress, I have urged passage of a bill introduced to increase the rate of pay to 12 cents per mile and $16 per day.

Some of the witnesses, I am told by the staff, who have appeared thus far have complained, and I think rightly so, that they can hardly get by with this pay.

My question is this: So far as you, Mr. Shelton, Mr. Jones, and other high officials in the realms of the United Klans of America are concerned, is it a fact that you are charging your expenses and hotel rooms to your organizations over which you have jurisdiction, whereas, the other members do not enjoy that special privilege?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Proceed.

First, let me ask another question: If, and I take it ultimately we will get information on it, it is a fact that at the high levels the leadership enjoys the special pay privileges; was that authorized by the membership?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. All right. Proceed.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Scoggin, at a board meeting of the officials of the Realm of South Carolina in November 1964, did you report that you were not able to get by on the 25 cents per man assessment, and therefore you were proposing that dues be raised from $1 a month to $2 a month, and that the per capita assessment to the realm be increased from 25 cents to 50 cents?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Did you report at that meeting that you spent over $2,000 for travel and you had only gotten $300 from the various Klaverns to support you?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. With respect to the amount that you received, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you got much more than that.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Scoggin, do you know the Capital City Sportsmans Club to be a Klan of the United Klans of America within the Realm of South Carolina?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. The signature card filed with the account of the "Capital City Sportsmans Club #9," Columbia, South Carolina, shows that the authorized signatures effective September 11, 1964, were William F. Polk, James D. Shaylor, and Robert E. Owen.

Did you know those three individuals to be officers of a Klan known by the name of Capital City Sportsmans Club?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. The September signature card was revoked on August 17, 1965, when new signatures were submitted: Robert E. Owen, Richard M. Smith, and Bill W. Walters.

Did you know those gentlemen to be officers of a Klan known by the by the name of Capital City Sportsmans Club?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. That card was voided on September 5, 1965, with an additional signature card containing the signatures of Bill W. Walters, James F. Smoak, and D. L. Reed.

I hand you copies of the actual signature cards to which I have referred. I ask you to examine them. Then I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you did know these individuals to be officers of a Klan group known as the Capital City Sportsman Club No. 9.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I show you a check dated 9-14-65, payable to "Robert Scoggins," in the amount of $50, a printed copy of a canceled check, rather, written over the three signatures contained thereon, "Capital City Sportsman Club #9." Purpose for which drawn: "Payment on car."

On the reverse of the check is the signature "Robert Scoggin." Under that a further endorsement "Deposit Only, South Carolina Rescue Service Charles E. Maddox."

I hand you that and I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the information contained on that check is as I read it to you.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Scoggin, are you known within the Klan of South Carolina as "Colonel"?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I show you a check dated January 25, 1965, Capital City Sportsmans Club #9, "Pay to the order of Col. Robert Scoggins," in the amount of $16, endorsed "Col. Robert Scoggin."

Can you explain the designation of "Colonel"?

(Document handed to witness.)

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I show you a check dated August 3, 1965, Capital City Sportsman Club #9, R. E. Scoggin, $67.50, purpose for which drawn shown as "May and June."

I ask you if May and June refers to the per capita tax due to the Realm of South Carolina, which is also known as the South Carolina Rescue Service?

(Document handed to witness.)

Mr. APPELL. I ask you, after answering the question, to look at the reverse of the check.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Having looked at the reverse of the check, Mr. Scoggin, it reads "R. E. Scoggin," and under that, the second endorsement "Shea's," 856 South Pine Street, Spartanburg, South Carolina.

How is this money reportable to the imperial office, which has an obligation to report income by the Realm of South Carolina because it is only a geographical subdivision, when instead of placing this check paid for tax for the months of May and June, you cashed this check at a place called Shea's?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I hand you another check dated September 21—and invite your attention to it—being to Bob Scoggin, in the amount of $9. I invite your attention to the reverse of it, which contains the signature of Bob Scoggin. Then a further endorsement of J. N. Haulbrook, and a third endorsement which shows that it was deposited to the account of the Community Cash Stores.

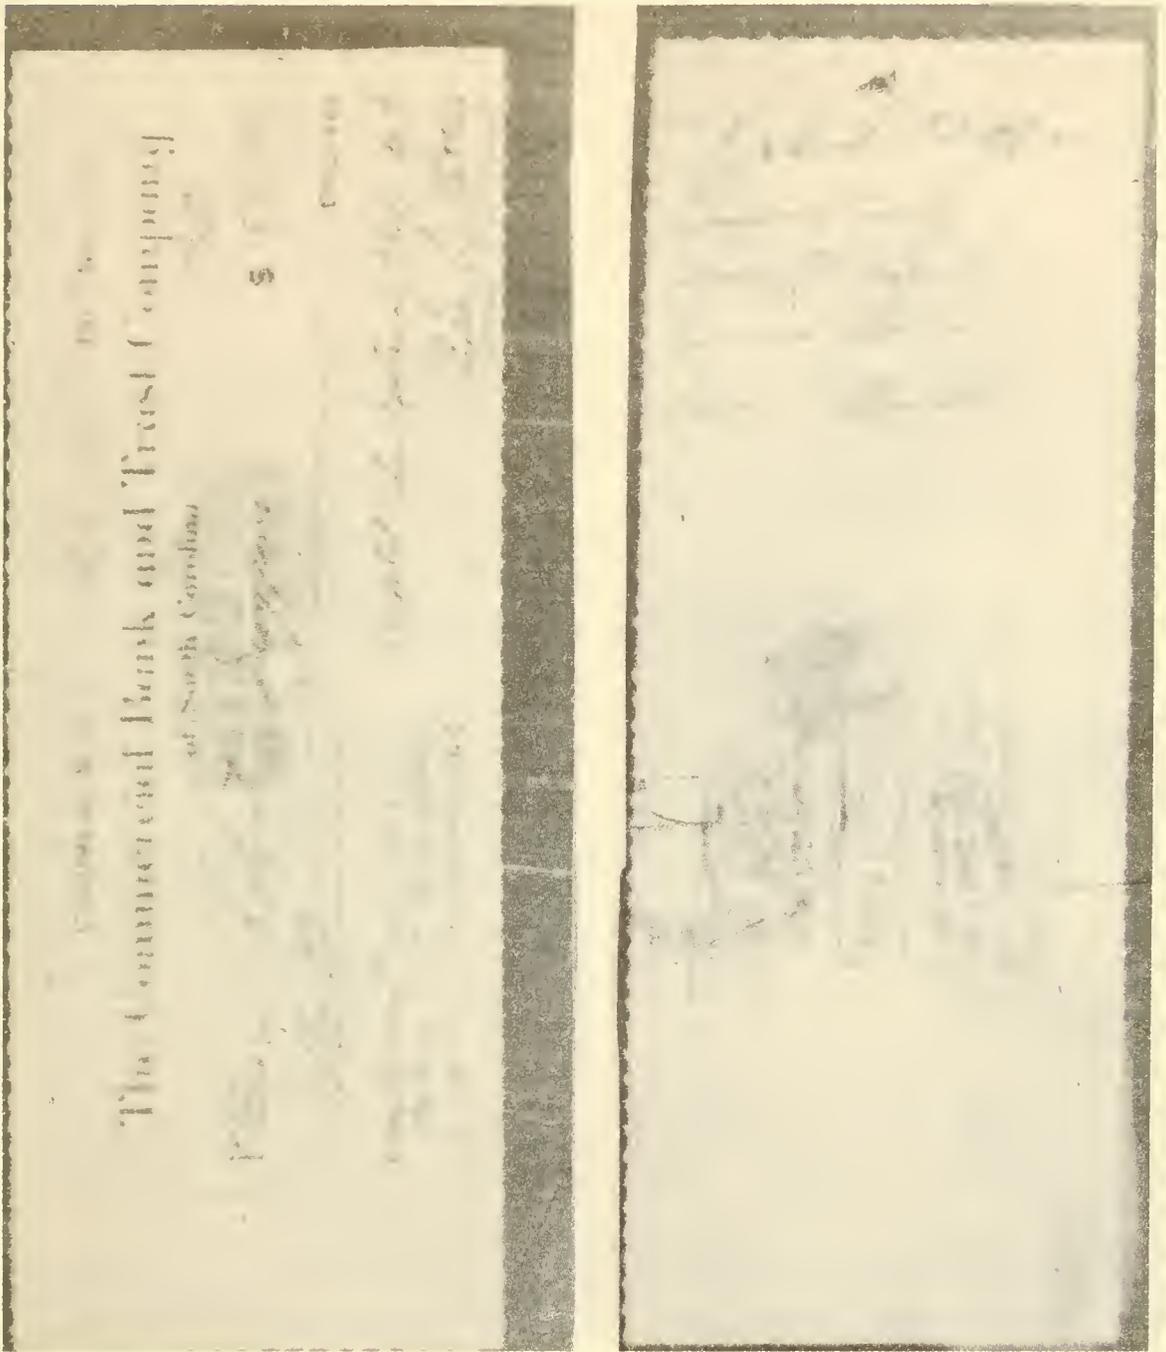

Can you explain that to the committee?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "Robert Scoggin Exhibit No. 22." Recordak copy not reproducible; retained in committee files.)

Mr. APPELL. Yesterday, Mr. Scoggin, when we had as a witness Furman Dean Williams, and we were talking about or discussing on the record the account of the Cherokee Sportsman's Club, I exhibited to him a check on which he was a cosigner, on the imprinted canceled check there being "Cherokee Sportsman Club," in the amount of $9.25.

It says "August—Tax." It contains the endorsement "R. E. Scoggin" and a further endorsement "Hayne Esso Station."

Will you explain to the committee how this is reported to the imperial office, for which they have a tax liability, when you take this check and cash it at Hayne's Esso Station?

(Document handed to witness.)

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

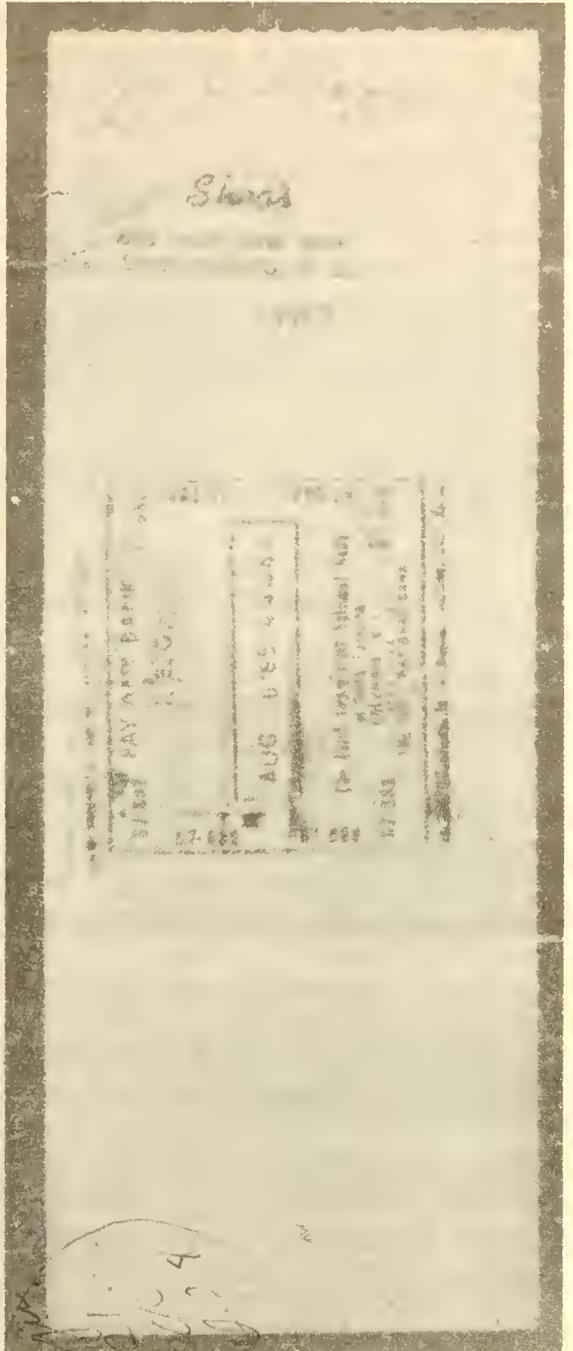

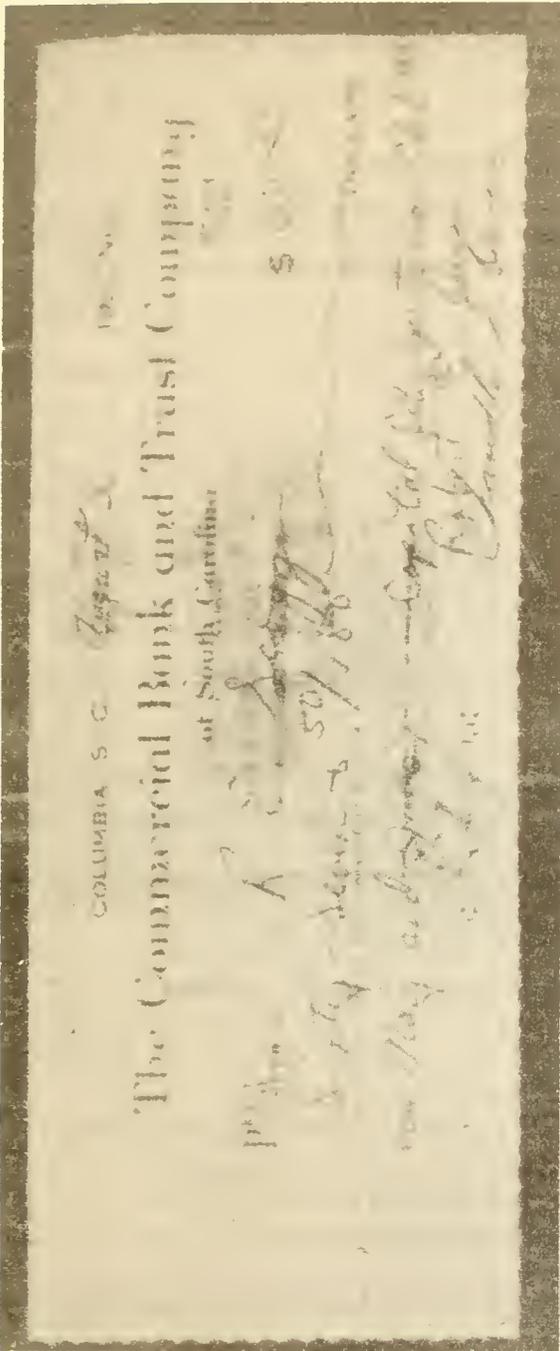

(Document marked "Robert Scoggin Exhibit No. 23. Previously marked "Furman Williams Exhibit No. 2." See p. 2099.)

Mr. APPELL. I ask you the same question with respect to a check in the amount of $17, dated August 27, 1964, also drawn by the "Cherokee Sportsman Club," payable to "R. E. Scoggins," which contains the endorsement "R. E. Scoggin" and a further endorsement "Ross Builders Supply."

How can this be reported to the imperial office if the check is cashed rather than deposited in some account?

(Document handed to witness.)

ROBERT SCOGGIN EXHIBIT No. 21

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "Robert Scoggin Exhibit No. 24." Recordak copy not reproducible; retained in committee files.)

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Scoggin, I have here this volume referred to by the chairman called The Klan In Action, and I note that on the inside of the back cover appears the words "By Proclamation of The Imperial Wizard, Robert M. Shelton," and thereunder is a facsimile signature of Robert M. Shelton, and underneath that facsimile signature the words "Imperial Wizard."

Subsequent to that is the "Office of Imperial Wizard, Suite 401 Alston Bldg., Tuscaloosa, Alabama."

I note on page 11 the following, under paragraph titled "Service":

It is necessary to have some man directly responsible for every person and every foot of territory in the Klanton, and their work co-ordinated by a vigorous and effective military system.

"Military Committee"—and then this language:

This committee is charged with military, or direct line, performance of Klan work, and with maintaining communication from staff to individual members. It has control of the Military Organization, which is as follows:

And then follows the "Klaliff," who is constituted as "Colonel," and there is a breakdown into major divisions and captain divisions.

At the bottom of page 11 is this language:

(Note—It is essential that this organization be perfected and made permanent in every Klan. By it every Klansman is actively enlisted in Klan work and made to realize his personal responsibility for the success of the work and the strength of the Order.)

My question, Mr. Scoggin, is: What is the function of the military and what is meant by this sentence: "This committee is charged with military, or direct line, performance of Klan work."

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. WELTNER. That is all.

The CHAIRMAN. The committee will stand in recess until 1:30.

(Subcommittee members present at time of recess: Representatives Willis, Weltner, and Buchanan.)

(Whereupon, at 12 noon, Thursday, October 28, 1965, the subcommittee recessed, to reconvene at 1:30 p.m. the same day.)

AFTERNOON SESSION—THURSDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1965

(The subcommittee reconvened at 1:40 p.m., Hon. Edwin E. Willis, chairman, presiding.)

(Subcommittee members present: Representatives Willis, Weltner, and Buchanan.)

The CHAIRMAN. The subcommittee will please come to order.

Mr. APPELL. Will Mr. Scoggin please resume the stand?

TESTIMONY OF ROBERT E. SCOGGIN, ACCOMPANIED BY COUNSEL, LESTER V. CHALMERS, JR.—Resumed

Mr. CHALMERS. I would imagine the same oath of this morning carries through.

The CHAIRMAN. Yes.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Scoggin, I hand you two checks on the Chesterfield County Sportsman's Club, one dated June 28, 1965, in the amount of $26.40; the other dated May 21, 1965, in the amount of $51, both checks payable to R. E. Scoggin.

I invite your attention to the endorsement on the reverse thereof. On the check of May 21, 1965, it shows the second endorsement of Mrs. T. D. Sherbert, Welcome Grille; the second by R. E. Scoggin, and a second endorsement of the First State Building and Loan Association.

Having examined them, Mr. Scoggin, how can this amount be reported to the imperial office, which has the tax liability for income of the Realm of South Carolina, when these are not deposited in any account but cashed at the places indicated?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

(Documents marked "Robert Scoggin Exhibits Nos. 25-A and 25-B," respectively. Same exhibits previously marked "Ralph Powers Exhibits Nos. 4 and 2," respectively. See pp. 2085 and 2083.)

Mr. APPELL. The committee has examined many checks payable to the Alabama Rescue Service, and has established that the Alabama Rescue Service has a bank in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, to which checks payable to the order of the Alabama Rescue Service are deposited.

I show you two checks, both payable to the order of the Alabama Rescue Service, one dated March 29, 1965, in the amount of $27; the other dated May 21, 1965, in the amount of $27.

I ask you to explain to the committee how come the only endorsement on the March 29th check is R. E. Scoggin, and the check of May 21, "ARS, UKA, By R. E. Scoggin."

(Documents handed to witness.)

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. These two checks represent funds which were to go to the bank account of The First National Bank in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, which you, contrary to the rules and regulations of the United Klans of America, endorsed and kept for yourself.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

(Documents marked "Robert Scoggin Exhibits Nos. 26-A and 26-B," respectively. Exhibit 26-A appears on p. 2134. Exhibit 26-B previously marked "Ralph Powers Exhibit No. 3." See p. 2084.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Scoggin, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that a Klavern in Rock Hill, South Carolina, known by the name of the R. H. Volunteers of America, is, in fact, a Klavern of the United Klans of America, Realm of South Carolina.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I invite your attention to the bottom check drawn against the account of the R. H. Volunteers of America, a check dated September 26, 1965, paid to the order of the Federal Communications Commission, application for licenses, two-way radios, citizens band.

In showing you this check, I ask you to what use the United Klans of America in South Carolina, under your jurisdiction, use citizens band radios for the purpose of carrying out intimidations by Klans and Klan members.

(Document handed to witness.)

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Scoggin, the Raleigh, North Carolina, News and Observer of June 3, 1965, reports that you were arrested on the preceding Saturday, which would be May 29, for drunken driving and charged with disorderly conduct.

Is that factual?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "Scoggin Exhibit No. 28" appears on p. 2136.)

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Scoggin, the committee obtained from the city of Spartanburg police department, South Carolina, an Arrest Sheet which shows at 12:30 a.m. on 5-29-65, Scoggin, Robert E., 818 Saxon Avenue, South Carolina, white, male, birth date 5-12-22, place born, Polk County, North Carolina, age 43, 6 feet, 150 pounds, occupation, plumber, employed by—self-employed; was arrested while driving under the influence and disorderly conduct.

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the Arrest Sheet from which I have just read is factual.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Scoggin, I invite your attention to a newspaper article, a clipping from the Chicago, Illinois, Sun-Times, referring to a rally in Hemingway, South Carolina, and the story is dated April 5, 1965. After reporting on the events of the rally, the story says, referring to the burning of the cross, following the burning of the cross, it reads:

That done, the Klansmen gathered around Scoggin who denounced the mayor of Hemingway for opposing the Klan's plans to meet near the town and branded President Johnson "a liar" for accusing the hooded men for being disloyal to the nation.

Shelton handed Scoggin the key to a 1965 station wagon bought for him by South Carolina Klansmen as "a token of devotion for a great patriot."

Is the recitation of that story factual, sir?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "Robert Scoggin Exhibit No. 29" and retained in committee files.)

Mr. APPELL. The committee made inquiry of the State Highway Department with respect to the registration of South Carolina license tag F-22409. The supervisor of titles and registration advised the committee by letter dated August 30, 1965:

According to our registration and title files, this license was issued to a 1965 Plymouth, serial number P652204432 in the name of Mrs. R. E. Scoggins, 818 Saxon Avenue, Spartanburg, South Carolina. The vehicle was purchased from Myers Motor Company, Camden, South Carolina, on April 2, 1965, and the title issued records a lien in favor of Commercial National Bank of Spartanburg, Morgan Square, Spartanburg, South Carolina.

I now hand you a copy of a chattel mortgage, a copy of a certificate of title, and an account ledger card of the First Commercial Bank which shows that there was placed a lien against this car in the amount

Klan Chief Charged With Drunken Driving

SPARTANBURG (AP)—Robert E. (Bo) Scoggin, the grand dragon of the South Carolina Ku Klux Klan, was arrested Saturday morning on a charge of drunken driving and disorderly conduct.

A newspaperman came across the warrant at Spartanburg City Hall Wednesday.

The 43-year-old Klan leader had asked for a jury trial on the charges and is free on $125 bond. Scoggin is represented by Atty. C. Kennon Robertson.

No date has been set for a trial, City Recorder's Court Clerk A. H. Bates said Wednesday.

Scoggin's occupation was listed on city police records as self-employed plumber. The KKK leader and organizer was booked at city jail at 12:40 a.m. Saturday.

Scoggin, asked for comment by a newsman, said: "The only thing that I can say is that the charges are not true. . . that's all I can say about it."

City policeman James Henderson said he stopped a 1965 Plymouth station wagon driven by Scoggin after observing the auto run through a traffic light at the intersection of W. Main and Magnolia Streets in the central business district.

Henderson said he was driving a police car behind Scoggin's vehicle and halted the station wagon at the St. John Street intersection with Main Street.

Henderson said the disorderly conduct charge was added after Scoggin became unruly in the city hall booking room. The policeman said Scoggin was told to sit down three or four times. Police finally sat Scoggin down, Henderson reported.

The klan leader was quoted by police as asking them to give him a break because he had been busy with the Wallace (Gov. George of Alabama) for president campaign. Henderson said Scoggin was cursing in the booking room and had a moderate odor of alcohol on his breath.

Warrants have been prepared in the case but had not been signed by police Wednesday afternoon.

of $2,705.40, and at the time the committee subpoenaed these records, only three payments had been made, for the months of June, July, and August.

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that this is the same vehicle which, according to the newspaper clipping, the Klan gave to you because you were such a patriot.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

CHattel Mortgage

1. Whereas Mrs. Robert E. Scoggin hereinafter called the Mortgagor, is indebted to The First Commercial National Bank of South Carolina, hereinafter called the Mortgagee, in the sum of Two-Thousand Seven Hundred Five and 40/100 Dollars ($ 2,705.40), payable in monthly installments, with interest after maturity, as evidenced by the promissory note of the Mortgagor below of even date herewith, which note is a negotiable instrument:

Now, therefore, in order to secure the payment of said note and compliance by the Mortgagor with all agreements and provisions thereof, the Mortgagor hereby bargains, sells and transfers unto the Mortgagee the following described personal property together with the equipment of every kind and nature which is attached or may hereafter become attached to the said property during the life of this mortgage, whether by way of repairs or otherwise, all hereinafter sometimes referred to as "property", to-wit:

| QUANTITY | NEW OR USED | MODEL | DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY | MOTOR AND SERIAL NUMBERS |
|----------|-------------|-------|-------------------------|--------------------------|
| 1 | New | 1965 | Plymouth slawog | P652204432 |

To have and to hold the said property unto the Mortgagee, its successors and assigns forever. Provided, nevertheless, and it is the condition of this mortgage, that if the Mortgagor shall well and truly pay the amounts owing hereunder, in accordance with said note and this mortgage, and shall promptly discharge the obligations and agreements contained herein, time being of the essence hereof, then this mortgage shall be void, otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

2. The Mortgagor hereby warrants that there is no prior mortgage or lien on the above described property, and that the same is free from any encumbrances whatsoever, except as hereto set forth, and that he is the true and lawful owner of the said property, and has full right to sell, transfer and encumber the same.

3. The Mortgagor agrees that he will keep the property in good condition and repair at his own expense, that he will not part with the possession thereof, that he will not sell, rent or hire out the property or remove any equipment therefrom without the written consent of the Mortgagee, that he will produce and exhibit the property to the Mortgagee upon request, and that he will not use or permit the property to be used in violation of any law with respect to intoxicating liquors, narcotics or other articles or otherwise use the property illegally or improperly, that the property will not be attached to the ground, any building or other obstacle and shall at all times be and remain personalty.

4. The Mortgagor agrees to pay all taxes and all assessments of any kind whatsoever on the property, and to keep the same insured against fire and theft for not less than the amount of the unpaid balance due on said note, also to carry comprehensive insurance including collision hazard insurance, satisfactory to the Mortgagee, and to keep the property so insured during the life of the mortgage, the policies of insurance to contain a clause that in the event of loss, payments shall be made to the Mortgagee as its interest may appear. Upon the failure of the Mortgagor in any of these respects, the Mortgagee may at its option, either declare this mortgage in default and the outstanding balance due and payable, or may pay said taxes, or so insure, and the costs thereof shall become a part of the debt secured by this mortgage. The proceeds of any insurance, whether paid by reason of loss, injury, return premium or otherwise, shall be applied toward the repair or replacement of the property or payment of the obligation secured by this mortgage, at the option of the Mortgagee.

5. The Mortgagor further agrees that if default be made to the payment of said note, or any installment of principal or interest thereon, or of any renewal thereof, or if the Mortgagor otherwise fails to comply with any provision or agreement hereof, at the time and in the manner herein specified, or if the property be seized upon mesne or final process issued against the Mortgagor or the property, or if the Mortgagee deems it necessary for his more perfect and complete security at any time, then the Mortgagee is hereby authorized and empowered to enter any premises of the Mortgagor, or other place where the property may be, and take possession of the same, without notice or demand, which are hereby expressly waived (however, notice and demand may be given and made by mailing the same to the Mortgagor at his address herein), and with or without legal process. Such repossession shall not affect Mortgagee's rights, hereby confirmed, to retain all payments made prior or subsequent thereto by the Mortgagor hereunder. The Mortgagee may sell said property and all equity of redemption of the Mortgagor therein, at public or private sale, with or without advertisement thereof, and with or without notice to the Mortgagor, advertisement thereof and notice of the time, place and manner of said sale being hereby expressly waived by the Mortgagor (however, if such notice be given, notice by mail to the Mortgagor's address herein shall be sufficient), and also with or without having such property at the place of sale; and such sale may be made upon such terms and in such manner as the Mortgagee may determine; and the Mortgagee may bid the property in at any sale thereof.

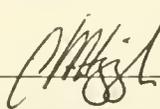

6. From the proceeds of any such sale, the Mortgagee shall deduct all expenses of retaking, repairing and selling such property, including reasonable attorney's fees, and apply the balance to the amount due by the Mortgagor hereunder, paying over to the Mortgagor any surplus, if any there be; in case of a deficiency, the Mortgagor agrees to pay the same with interest. The Mortgagee may take possession of any other property in said vehicle at the time it is repossessed and hold the same for the Mortgagor, without responsibility or liability on the part of the Mortgagee. If the Mortgagor shall fail to take possession of such other property within 30 days, Mortgagee may sell the same at public or private sale as provided above and shall apply the net proceeds of such sale to the balance due on the indebtedness hereunder.

7. This mortgage and said note contain the entire agreement between the parties thereto, and no waiver, change or addition thereto shall be valid unless the same be endorsed hereon and signed by the Mortgagee. Should the Mortgagee accept any installments or part payment after the full amount may have become immediately due and payable, or otherwise grant indulgence to the Mortgagor, this shall not affect the Mortgagor's obligations or the Mortgagee's rights with respect to any subsequent payment or default. The Mortgagee shall have the right to enforce one or more remedies hereunder successively or concurrently. No transfer, renewal, extension or assignment of this mortgage and/or negotiation of said note shall release the Mortgagor from his obligation hereunder; assignee shall be entitled to all the rights of Mortgagee. The Mortgagor shall notify the Mortgagee of any change in the Mortgagor's address shown below. All agreements and provisions hereof shall respectively bind and inure to the benefit of the respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns of both the Mortgagor and the Mortgagee.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Mortgagor has hereunto set his hand and affixed his seal this 5th day of April

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Scoggin, do you receive 100 percent disability compensation from the Veterans' Administration?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, an inquiry by the committee into the compensation received by Mr. Scoggin contains a report of the director of Compensation, Pension and Education Service:

Mr. Scoggin had active service from August 29, 1942 to October 17, 1945 during which he incurred injury to his back and sacroiliac joint. A 10% disability evaluation was initially established from June 15, 1949. This was temporarily increased to 100% from June 12, 1951 because of his hospitalization from May 22, 1951 for generalized rheumatoid arthritis involving the spine. He was released from the hospital on March 28, 1952 at which time his disability was rated as 100% under the 1945 Schedule for Rating Disabilities.

Re-examination on April 7, 1954 resulted in reduction of schedular evaluation to 60% from that date. The total disability rating of 100% was continued, however, based on individual unemployability. Since then, his case has been reviewed at regular intervals, but no rating change was indicated by the medical or employment information reported.

The variations in monthly rates after June 30, 1952 are attributable to increases based on legislation and to changes in the number of dependents.

Mr. Scoggin, I will hand you a document—after I read it into the record—which has the return address of 818 Saxon Avenue, Spartanburg, South Carolina, January 23, 1961, to Adjudication Officer, VA Regional Office, 1801 Assembly Street, Columbia, South Carolina:

Dear Sir:

I have recently heard of benefits of PL 86-663 of the 86th Congress. I am requesting that my claim for disability compensation be considered for benefits under that law. My service-connected disability is a shrapnel injury of my spine which has resulted in arthritis of my spine, neck, hips and legs, and has progressed to where I cannot bend my neck or spine and I am unable to walk without the use of canes.

I feel that perhaps I might be entitled to benefits under this law.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Robert E. Scoggin
ROBERT E. SCOGGIN.

I hand you this document and put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that this is a copy of a document which you sent to the Veterans' Administration.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Documents marked "Robert Scoggin Exhibits Nos. 31-A and 31-B," respectively. See pp. 2141, 2142.)

Mr. APPELL. Was this a true or a false statement to the Veterans' Administration?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. In our inquiry to the city of Spartanburg, we inquired as to whether or not at the time of your arrest you were requiring the use of canes, and we were advised by W. T. Ivey, director of law enforcement:

Our investigation shows that no one in this department knows of Mr. Scoggins ever using a cane, and when arrested on the night of the 29th no canes were being used.

Have you ever used canes as you advised the Veterans' Administration?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Re: Robert E. Scoggins

Dear Mr. Appell:

This subject was arrested by Officer G. E. Kennedy on May 29, 1965, at 12:40 a. m. and charged with driving under the influence and disorderly conduct. Mr. Scoggins has requested a jury trial and has not been tried at this date.

Our investigation shows that no one in this department knows of Mr. Scoggins ever using a cane, and when arrested on the night of the 29th no canes were being used.

When the disposition is made of this case, we will advise you.

If this department can be of any service to your committee, please do not hesitate to call on us.

Yours truly,

WTI/mf

MR. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, as the report I read indicated, Mr. Scoggin's 100 percent disability is based upon his unemployability. Because of that, Mr. Scoggin, and veterans like him, are required to file annually a statement of earnings.

Mr. Scoggin, I intend to show to you, after I read it into the record, an employment questionnaire of the Veterans' Administration which, according to the form, was mailed to them on April 4, 1962. It sets forth—signed, R. E. Scoggin—self-employment during past 12 months as follows:

“Filling out Income tax form, $70; Purchased & resold Junk Brass, $41; Repaired Fishing Reels and Rods, $57.”

Was that a truthful statement, Mr. Scoggin?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked “Robert Scoggin Exhibit No. 33” appears on p. 2145.)

Mr. APPELL. This next form, Mr. Scoggin, which covers the preceding year—

The CHAIRMAN. Preceding or succeeding?

Mr. APPELL. Preceding.

It is dated April 3, 1963, signed R. E. Scoggin. It reads:

“Self-employment during past 12 months: Purchased & resold Secondhand Plumbing Fixturs [sic] $231.00; Bought & Sold Shrubry [sic] $83.00”; total compensation, $314.

I would like to ask you, Mr. Scoggin, after advising you that we have made an analysis of a personal bank account of yours at The South Carolina National Bank, Spartanburg, South Carolina, that you deposited into that account from all sources during the year 1962, the period that this last report covers, you deposited into that account from all sources $11,612.35.

Mr. WELTNER. For what period of time?

Mr. APPELL. For the calendar year 1962.

Mr. Scoggin, did you advise the Veterans' Administration truthfully when you told them that your income from self-employment during the previous year was only $314?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. On December 22, 1964, you supplied an additional form which is signed Robert E. Scoggin. It lists: “Self-employment during past 12 months: I bought and Sold Some used plumbing,” total earnings $264. “I have made and Sold Some hand tied fishing Bugs,” total earnings $103. “I made pot holders and whatnots,” total earnings $134. “Misc. $73.” Total earnings for the previous year, of 1964, $574.

Mr. APPELL. For the year 1964, Mr. Scoggin, there appears to have gone through three bank accounts which the committee located in your name, one at the First Commercial Bank of South Carolina, Spartanburg, South Carolina, the sum of $4,440; into the Spartanburg Bank and Trust Company, $11,250—and by that time you had canceled your account at The South Carolina National Bank. But on those two banks, you ran through that account as credit to that account $15,690.50.

Did you give an honest report to the Veterans' Administration when you reported that your self-employment income during the previous months was $574?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

PENALTY -- The law provides severe penalties which include fine or imprisonment, or both, for the willful submission of any statement or evidence of a material fact, knowing it to be false, or for the fraudulent acceptance of any payment to which you are not entitled.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I do not have the employment questionnaire covering the year 1963, but I wish the record to show that an examination of the account at the Spartanburg Bank and Trust Company in Spartanburg and The South Carolina National Bank of Spartanburg, South Carolina, had deposited to those accounts during the year $12,290.50.

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Appell, during the course of the investigation, has any inquiry been made as to the nature of the deposits in the bank accounts of this witness and the nature of the withdrawals?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir; but not an itemized examination of each item deposited or each item withdrawn therefrom. The analysis of total income to the account is based upon the ledger cards of the accounts, copies of which we have.

Mr. WELTNER. What is the nature of the items deposited to the accounts?

Mr. APPELL. Some of the items deposited to the account are his monthly compensation from the Veterans' Administration. Additional items are income from his electrical and plumbing contracting business. Other checks which are shown payable to him as Grand Dragon of the realm have gone into these accounts in addition to the ones we have dealt with that were cashed at outside places.

This is the general analysis of the accounts. They include basically those three items.

Mr. WELTNER. For instance, in the year 1964, the sum of $15,690, that consisted of compensation from the United States Government, receipts from the plumbing business that he operated—

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. —and checks drawn to him as Grand Dragon of the Realm of South Carolina?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir. And in addition thereto, there is some income into these accounts in the form of loans which he has made in connection with his plumbing and electrical contracting business.

(At this point Mr. Ashbrook entered the hearing room.)

Mr. WELTNER. As to the checks drawn on those accounts, did you make an inquiry into the nature of those items?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. Were any of those checks drawn upon the accounts drawn for purposes of the Klan organization which he heads in South Carolina?

Mr. APPELL. We were unable to find any.

Mr. WELTNER. What was the nature of the items that were drawn against those accounts?

Mr. APPELL. Payments to an employee, payments for uniform rental, payments of household expenses, payments or repayments on loans and notes, and general household expenses.

Mr. WELTNER. Do I understand correctly that the document filed with the Veterans' Administration shows four items which total $574 as total earnings during the year 1964, and your analysis of two bank accounts in the city of Spartanburg, South Carolina, shows deposits over that same period of $15,690?

Mr. APPELL. Yes, sir. The total is $574, and the total deposits to that account is $15,690.50. That is to two accounts.

Mr. WELTNER. Thank you.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Scoggin, the Veterans' Administration has reported to the committee that from December 1, 1949, through June 30, 1965, you have received $47,307.27 as compensation for disability.

I ask you again, in the light of this income that you have received, whether or not the support for this income in the documents that I have read to you was fraudulently filed?

Mr. CHALMERS. Mr. Chairman, may I interpose an objection to the last question propounded to the witness?

The CHAIRMAN. I missed the last question. Read the question.

(The record was read by the reporter.)

The CHAIRMAN. I prefer for you not to object because that is not in the role of counsel.

Mr. CHALMERS. All right, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. I suggest you change the form of the question.

Mr. APPELL. I will strike the question.

First, I shall ask you whether or not it is a fact that I have recited to you that you did, during the year 1962, deposit to The South Carolina National Bank of Spartanburg, South Carolina, total deposits of $11,612.35?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I ask you if it is factual that you deposited to the Spartanburg Bank and Trust Company, Spartanburg, South Carolina, in the year 1963, $4,033.50, and to The South Carolina National Bank of Spartanburg, South Carolina, $8,257, for a total deposit to those two accounts in the year 1963 of $12,290.50.

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I ask you if it is factual that during the year 1964 you deposited to the First Commercial National Bank of South Carolina, Spartanburg, South Carolina, $4,440, and to the Spartanburg Bank and Trust Company, Spartanburg, South Carolina, $11,250, for a total deposit during the year 1964 of $15,690.50?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Now, I shall ask you whether or not the application questionnaires which you filed annually with the Veterans' Administration truly reflected the employment income as set forth in those forms?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I have no further questions.

The CHAIRMAN. Wait a moment.

What was the question you asked about his total receipts from the Veterans' Administration? I wish you would ask that direct question and ask him if that is factual.

Mr. APPELL. I will ask you if it is factual that between December 1949 and June 30, 1965, you received as compensation from the Veterans' Administration $47,307.27?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. SENNER. Mr. Chairman——

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Senner?

Mr. SENNER. Would Mr. Appell put into the record what the monthly compensations were that were received by the witness?

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, for the period 12-1-49 to 6-11-51, the rate was $15 per month.

6-12-51 to 6-30-52, $206 a month.

7-1-52 to 9-30-54, $228.50 a month.

10-1-54 to 9-30-57, $237 a month.

10-1-57 to 7-31-60, $287.

8-1-60 to 8-9-60, $323.

8-10-60 to 2-5-62, $335.

2-6-62 to 9-30-62, $323.

10-1-62 to 10-30-62, $423.

10-31-62 to 8-25-63, $348.

8-26-63 to 11-30-63, $360.

12-1-63 to 2-8-64, $348.

2-9-64 to 3-23-65, $336.

3-24-65 to 6-30-65, $324.

Mr. SENNER. Mr. Chairman, could Mr. Appell also put into the record what the VA limitation of income is before he would be denied benefits from the Veterans' Administration?

Mr. APPELL. I do not have that figure, sir. It is based on unemployment.

Mr. SENNER. Mr. Chairman, I would like to ask a question or two, if I may, of the witness.

Mr. Scoggin, on your Veterans' Administration employment questionnaire, the date it was mailed being April 4, 1962, Budget Bureau No. 76-R351.1, this form being approved, you stated for that period, for the past 12 months, that you were not employed. Is that a true statement?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. SENNER. On your form that you filled out April 3, 1963, Claim No. C-4131359, the same approved form by the Budget Bureau, again in response "Were you employed by others at any time during the past 12 months?" you responded, "No."

Were you, in fact, employed by others during that period of time?

Mr. SCOGGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. SENNER. Would the same hold true for the year 1964, for which you filled out the same form with the same claim number, in which you responded that you were not employed by others?

Mr. SCOGGINS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. SENNER. I direct your attention to the bottom portion of that form, and I will hand you one. It reads:

I hereby certify that the entries made herein are true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

It is signed by you:

April 6, 1963, R. E. Scoggin.

On each one of these forms it has the penalty :

The law provides severe penalties which include fine or imprisonment, or both, for the willful submission of any statement or evidence of material fact, knowing it to be false, or for the fraudulent acceptance of any payment to which you are not entitled.

Did you read that paragraph?

Mr. SCOGGIN. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Chairman, I have no questions, but I have this comment that I would like to offer at this point.

I have been concerned to be sure that this committee is on sound ground so far as directing witnesses to respond to subpoena, as far as this witness is concerned and previous witnesses who may appear here.

I simply wanted the record to show that I, for one, am cognizant of the case of McPhaul versus United States. That is a Supreme Court decision for the October Term of 1960, reported in 364 U.S. 372.

It appears to me that this is a case that is quite pertinent to this inquiry. The question came up on the refusal of a witness to respond to the subpoena issued by this committee. The witness was served in a representative capacity as executive secretary of a group called the Civil Rights Congress. He was directed to produce all records, correspondence, and memoranda pertaining to the organization of, the affiliation with other organizations, and all moneys received or expended by the Civil Rights Congress.

He refused to do so, claiming, among other grounds, that to do so would violate the fifth amendment in that it would require him to incriminate himself. The Court dealt with all of the several objections of the petitioner, and on page 7 of the opinion I find this language :

The Fifth Amendment did not excuse petitioner from producing the records of the Civil Rights Congress, for it is well settled that "[b]ooks and records kept 'in a representative rather than in a personal capacity cannot be the subject of the personal privilege against self-incrimination, even though production of the papers might tend to incriminate [their keeper] personally.' * * *."

Citing in support thereof three other Supreme Court decisions.

So it appears to me that this decision in the McPhaul case is directly applicable here. It deals with the same committee, the same subpoena process, and the same claim of immunity.

Further, I will suggest that, when the time is appropriate, Mr. Chairman, either in executive session or when the chairman so directs, it would be in order to entertain a motion that the transcripts of these proceedings be promptly forwarded to the appropriate offices of the executive branch of the Government of the United States for such action as might be indicated by the content of those transcripts.

THE CHAIRMAN. That certainly will be considered in due time and I appreciate your statement with reference to the Supreme Court case referred to.

Let me say this: The Chair permitted the entry into evidence information on the dealings of this witness with the Veterans' Administration, not because of its pertinency in and of itself, but that evidence is completely appropriate to this inquiry, and pertinent and relevant, because, as I announced in my opening statement, certainly we, and, in turn, the Congress, are interested in developing the type of people in positions of trust and leadership in the various Klan groups.

It is further perfectly competent to hear evidence about the general income and outgo of the sources of revenue of those people and then, too, in the shape of cross-examination, it is always competent to test the credibility of witnesses.

Mr. APPELL. I have no further questions.

The CHAIRMAN. Are there any further questions?

Mr. Scoggin, you are dismissed for today, but you are continued under subpoena until January 1st of next year.¹

The committee will stand in recess for 5 minutes.

(Whereupon at 2:30 p.m. a brief recess was taken. Subcommittee members present at time of recess: Representatives Willis, Weltner, Ashbrook, and Buchanan.)

(The subcommittee reconvened at 2:40 p.m., with the following subcommittee members present: Representatives Willis, Ashbrook, and Buchanan.)

The CHAIRMAN. The subcommittee will come to order.

(At this point Mr. Weltner entered the hearing room.)

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair states that Mr. Philip Manuel will conduct the examination for the balance of the afternoon.

Call your next witness, Mr. Manuel.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, the staff would like to call as the next witness Mr. Calvin Craig.

The CHAIRMAN. Please raise your right hand.

Do you solemnly swear that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth—your right hand.

Do you solemnly swear that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mr. CRAIG. I do.

The CHAIRMAN. Proceed.

TESTIMONY OF CALVIN FRED CRAIG, ACCOMPANIED BY COUNSEL, LESTER V. CHALMERS, JR.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Craig, will you please state your full name for the record, sir?

Mr. CRAIG. Calvin F. Craig.

Mr. MANUEL. When and where were you born, Mr. Craig?

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you were born on May 5, 1928, in Clayton County, Georgia.

¹Mr. Scoggin was not recalled, and on Nov. 29, 1965, was discharged from further appearance under his subpoena.

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Would you please give the committee a résumé of your educational background?

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you attended high school in Clayton County, Georgia, but did not graduate.

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, at this point, I would like to state for the record that the committee investigation has determined that Mr. Craig is the Grand Dragon of the State of Georgia for the United Klans of America, and he has held that position continuously since February of 1961.

Mr. CRAIG. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to deny or affirm the fact, that you are and have been the Grand Dragon of the Realm of Georgia since February 1961.

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Chairman, I think it ought to be clear that Mr. Manuel is under the same oath that he took on the first day of these hearings.

Mr. CHALMERS. I, as counsel for this witness was certain that Mr. Manuel was still under oath.

Mr. WELTNER. Thank you.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Craig, investigation conducted by the committee has established that you originally joined the U.S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, in or about February 1959—

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline—

Mr. MANUEL. I didn't ask you a question. —and that as early as September 1960 you were the Grand Dragon for the State of Georgia of the U.S. Klans.

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you did join the U.S. Klans in February of 1959.

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact that, in September 1960, you held the office of Grand Dragon of Georgia for the U.S. Klans.

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the last election of the Realm of Georgia of the United Klans of America was held in Savannah, Georgia, in July of 1965, and that you were reelected as the Grand Dragon of the Realm of Georgia.

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Craig, are you appearing before the committee today in response to a subpoena served upon you at 8 p.m. on the 11th day of October 1965 by Deputy Marshal O. Davis?

Mr. CHALMERS. Mr. Chairman, I will stipulate that he is here in response to the subpoena, and that the return on the subpoena will speak for itself.

The CHAIRMAN. And is correct?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Craig, this subpoena was delivered to you at 722 Pearce Street, Southwest, Atlanta, Georgia, which is your current residence?

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Craig, an attachment to this subpoena requires you to produce certain documents before the committee. I will now read the first paragraph of that subpoena:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and affiliated organizations, namely, the Alabama Rescue Service, the Georgia Rescue Service, and the State Men's Club in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by you or available to you as Grand Dragon, Realm of Georgia of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

I ask you at this time to produce those books and records called for in paragraph 1 of this subpoena.

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 8, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents as demanded by the committee in the subpoena dated October 8, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United State of America.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, I ask that the witness be directed to produce the books and documents called for in paragraph 1 of the subpoena.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Chalmers, in each previous instance we made the following stipulation: (1) That the witness has been furnished with a copy of the chairman's opening statement of October 19, 1965, and that he is familiar with its contents; (2) that the directions of the subpoena to produce the documents called for are made to the witness in the official representative capacity described in the subpoena.

That stipulation is now made with reference to this witness?

Mr. CHALMERS. It certainly is, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. I now order and direct you to produce the documents called for in paragraph 1 of the attachment to the subpoena, indicating that the committee takes the position that your failure to do so will subject you to contempt citation.

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to deliver the documents heretofore requested based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Craig, paragraph 2 of that subpoena calls for:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by or available to you, in your capacity as Grand Dragon, Realm of Georgia of the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, which the "Constitution and Laws" of said organization authorize and require to be maintained by you and any other officer of said organization, the same being in your possession, custody or control.

I now ask you, Mr. Craig, to produce the documents called for in paragraph 2 of the subpoena.

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to deliver the documents heretofore requested based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, I ask that the witness be directed to produce the documents.

The CHAIRMAN. The same stipulation with reference to paragraph 1 is agreed to as to paragraph 2?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. For the reasons already indicated, Mr. Craig, I order and direct you to produce those documents.

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to deliver the documents heretofore requested based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Craig, paragraph 3 of that subpoena calls for:

Copies of U.S. Treasury Department, Internal Revenue Service, Form 1120, "U.S. Corporation Income Tax Return," and other Federal Income Tax Returns, corporate or otherwise, for the fiscal or calendar years 1961 through June 30, 1965, filed by you with the U.S. Treasury Department, Internal Revenue Service, or in your possession, custody, or control, as Grand Dragon, Realm of Georgia, and being the Federal Income Tax Returns for or of the organizations and affiliated organizations named in item numbered (1) above.

They would be the Alabama Rescue Service, the Georgia Rescue Service, and/or the State Men's Club.

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline—

Mr. MANUEL. I now ask you, Mr. Craig, to produce those documents as outlined in paragraph 3.

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to deliver the documents heretofore requested based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. CHALMERS. The same stipulation, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. The same stipulation is made.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Craig, paragraph—

The CHAIRMAN. I will tell you that the reasons given for your refusal are not accepted. I order and direct you to produce those documents.

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to deliver the documents heretofore requested based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Craig, paragraph 4 of the subpoena calls for:

Copies of U.S. Treasury Department, Internal Revenue Service, Form 1040, "U.S. Individual Income Tax Return," for the calendar or fiscal years 1958 through 1964, filed by you as an individual taxpayer with the U.S. Treasury Department, Internal Revenue Service.

I now ask you, Mr. Craig, to produce those documents called for in paragraph 4.

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to deliver the documents heretofore requested based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. I do not order you to produce those documents because it is a matter involving you personally and you have a right to invoke the protection and the privilege of the fifth amendment.

Proceed.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Craig, a few moments ago I mentioned the last election held of the Realm or State of Georgia, United Klans of America, and told you that the results of the investigation conducted by the committee has established that you were elected the Grand Dragon of the Realm of Georgia.

The investigation conducted by the committee has established that Thomas Jenkins was elected at that convention to the position of Grand Klaliff. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that Thomas Jenkins was elected to the position of Grand Klaliff.

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reasons that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. MANUEL. Investigation conducted by the committee has established that John M. Parker was elected at that convention to the position of grand kligrapp, or secretary.

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that John M. Parker was elected to that position.

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Investigation has revealed that the following persons were elected to the positions which I will identify: James Douglas Newberry was elected to the position of grand klabee, or treasurer; Grady C. Little was elected to the position of grand kladd—

Mr. WELTNER. Do you have the residence addresses of those persons?

Mr. MANUEL. Yes, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. The cities in which they live?

Mr. MANUEL. Yes, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. Would you include that in your question? Start with the first one.

Mr. MANUEL. Thomas Jenkins was identified by our investigation as residing at 2744 Stockbridge Road, Lithonia, Georgia. John M. Parker, whom our investigation has established to be the grand kligrapp of the Realm of Georgia, resides at 162 Prospect Street, in Roswell, Georgia. James Douglas Newberry, who was elected to the position of grand klabee, or treasurer, resides at 656 Mayland Avenue, Southwest, Atlanta, Georgia. Grady C. Little, who was elected to the position of grand kladd, resides at 4918 Glaze Drive, Doraville, Georgia.

Our investigation further reveals that John L. Brock, 3235 Canary Court, De Kalb County, Georgia, was elected to the position of grand klokard; further, that Charles Malcomb Bartlett, of 292 Connelly Road, Forest Park, Georgia, was elected to the position of grand klarogo; further, that Cleveland Eugene Canup, who resides at Route 2, Box 84, Lilburn, Georgia, was elected to the position of grand klexer; further, that J. D. Johnson, whose address is Brown Road, Stone Mountain, Georgia, was elected to the position of grand kludd; further, that David J. Mathis, who resides on Route 3, Lawrenceville, Georgia, was elected to the position of grand night-hawk.

Mr. Craig, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the results of our investigation with regard to the identity of the grand officers is correct.

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Craig, I would like to show you a copy of a charter of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., as the same appears on file in the records of the Office of Secretary of State of the State of Georgia, which was filed on the 21st day of February 1961, and grants corporate existence to the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., and ask you if that was the date when the organization, Invisible Empire, United Klans of America, was established.

(Document handed to witness.)

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Identified, Mr. Craig, as the original incorporators of that organization are Robert Day, 4422 Gregory Road, Decatur, Georgia; George Sligh, of 246 Wayne Avenue, Jonesboro, Georgia; and William A. Daniel, Sr., Post Office Box 455, Mableton, Georgia; and M. Wesley Morgan, Sr., of 27 Gould Street, Southeast, Atlanta 15, Georgia.

Do you know these people, Mr. Craig, to be members of the United Klans of America at the present time?

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Craig, I would like to now show you the annual registration statement filed in the Office of Secretary of State of the State of Georgia for the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., which statement was filed on the 15th day of September 1964, and which identifies the name of the corporation as it exists today as the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., listing the President as Robert M. Shelton, of Suite 401, Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama, and listing the principal office in Georgia as 772 Pearce Street, Atlanta, Georgia, and identifying the authorized agent in Georgia as Calvin F. Craig.

Mr. Craig, I hand you this document and ask you if the information contained on this registration is factual?

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document previously marked "Robert Shelton Exhibit No. 1." See pp. 1602, 1603.)

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Craig, I would like to ask you if you, as Grand Dragon of the State of Georgia, have ever attended or been a party to instructions in the art of demolition, judo, or any other type of military training?

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that in October of 1961 you, as Grand Dragon of the Realm of Georgia for the newly formed organization, United Klans of America, attended such an explosive demonstration and demolition instruction school in the vicinity of Macon, Georgia, on property owned by an individual named O. C. Mixon.

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny that fact.

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the instructors at that demolition school were William B. Crowe, who was assisted by William A. Anderson.

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, at this point, I would like to read into the record the results of our investigation which determined exactly what demonstrations were made that day with regard to explosives and dynamite, and I would like to read each of these demonstrations into the record.

The CHAIRMAN. Proceed.

Mr. MANUEL. Number one demonstration was how to set up a booby trap, using a mercury switch taken from an old washing machine, flashlight batteries, wire, and dynamite.

A demonstration was given showing how these materials can be rigged to explode whenever an object is moved.

The second demonstration was how to rig various types of fuse caps to dynamite in preparation for exploding the dynamite. In connection with this instruction, two types of fuses were demonstrated. One type was for detonation of dynamite using an electrical spark obtained from a flashlight battery. The other type was a safety fuse which detonated the dynamite by lighting the fuse which, in turn, sets off the dynamite.

Various types of this fuse were demonstrated showing the various speeds of the type of fuse.

The third demonstration given was how to rig an explosive charge that will give 3 or 4 minutes getaway time. In this demonstration, a piece of board about 2 feet long and 6 inches wide was used. A stick of dynamite was taped to one end of the board with black friction tape. A short piece of safety fuse was attached to the stick of dynamite and immediately in front of this fuse was placed a wad of cotton impregnated with cigarette lighter fluid. A book of matches was then taped to the board in front of the cotton.

To explode the dynamite, they placed a lighted cigarette between the matches in the matchbook. When the cigarette burned down, it ignited the matches which, in turn, ignited the cotton which ignites the fuse.

In a demonstration which took place of this method, the explosion took place between 5 and 6 minutes after the lighted cigarette was placed.

The fourth demonstration which was taught was how to start an intense fire in an automobile, house or building. In demonstrating this method, instructor William Crowe took a small medicine bottle, about 2 inches tall, which was about two-thirds full of a powdery substance. He said this substance was powdered sugar and potassium chlorate. He then took a gelatin capsule and placed therein one or two drops of sulphuric acid. He said this acid can be obtained from the battery of an automobile.

He then dropped the capsule into a medicine bottle and loosely replaced the lid. About 5 minutes later the bottle burst into an intense blue flame which lasted for several minutes.

Crowe, during this demonstration, talked about the possibilities of using this type of device in department stores who integrate their eating facilities. He said a man could try on a new suit and leave one of these devices in the pocket.

The fifth type of demolition taught was how to destroy an automobile with simple, easy to obtain materials. For this demonstration, Crowe used a quart fruit jar half filled with gasoline. He used adhesive tape to tape a 2-inch firecracker to the side of this jar. He then lit the firecracker and threw the jar into the back seat of a junked automobile which was being used for the demonstration.

When the firecracker exploded, 2 or 3 seconds later, it burst the fruit jar and threw gasoline fumes over the inside of the automobile which, in turn, exploded.

This explosion and fire was so intense that Crowe stated that no person would have a chance to escape from that automobile.

The sixth type of explosion device taught was how to explode a type of fertilizer used by farmers known as sodium phosphate.

Mr. Chairman, investigation shows that upon completion of these explosive instructions and demonstrations which took approximately 3 hours, those present engaged for a short period in practice of the revolver and rifle.

I put it to you as a fact, Mr. Craig, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you, as Grand Dragon of the State of Georgia, along with other members of the United Klans of America, including the Imperial Wizard, Robert M. Shelton, attended that explosive demonstration in October 1961.

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Craig, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that during your tenure as Grand Dragon of the State of Georgia for the United Klans of America many such explosive and judo and karate demonstrations have been given with your full knowledge and approval.

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny that fact.

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, I would like at this time to read into the record another such explosive-judo-karate demonstration which took place on October 17, 1964, held on the farm of Robert L. Bing in Henry County, Georgia.

Bing has been identified by our investigation as the exalted cyclops of the Clayton County Klavern No. 52.

The purpose of this meeting on October 17 was to learn how to assemble and disassemble the M1 rifle, how to make molotov cocktails, using bottles filled with a mixture of gasoline and motor oil, and how to make small bombs from dynamite. A demonstration was given by the instructor in rigging a booby trap using a string stretched across a path in the woods. There was also a demonstration in making various types of fuses with which to ignite dynamite bombs. Included in the instruction was a guerrilla warfare problem in which the group considered problems of taking over a radio station and a power plant.

Our investigation has revealed that the instructors at this explosive and judo demonstration were Daniel Bruce and Charles M. Bartlett, who was previously identified as the grand klarogo of the Realm of Georgia.

Daniel Bruce has been identified by our investigation as an officer of the Clayton County Klavern No. 52.

Mr. CRAIG, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that such an explosion demonstration was given on the farm of Robert L. Bing on October 17, 1964.

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I further put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that this was done with your full knowledge and approval.

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the instructors identified at this demonstration, Daniel Bruce and Charles M. Bartlett, are officers of the United Klans of America, Realm of Georgia.

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Craig, I would like to show you a copy of an order which you disseminated to Klansmen as Grand Dragon of the Realm of Georgia, headed "United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, P.O. Box 10753, Atlanta, Georgia," dated January 17, 1965.

(Mr. Manuel then read the following document, which was marked "Calvin Craig Exhibit No. 1":)

CALVIN F. CRAIG, GRAND DRAGON
 REALM OF GEORGIA

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Craig, I show you this and ask you if this a factual representation of what you sent out to persons you addressed as "Esteemed Klansmen."

(Document handed to witness.)

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Craig, paragraph 4 of the charter which was issued by the State of Georgia for the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., says:

The general purpose of the corporation shall be to teach patriotism, to support the Constitution and Laws of the United States and the several States wherein said corporation may be established, and to maintain the liberty bequeathed to us by our forefathers, and to preserve the American way of life.

Mr. CRAIG, I ask you to explain to the committee how, in light of the explosion demonstrations, judo, and karate which the members of the United Klans of America, Realm of Georgia, engage in that this condition can be satisfied.

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, at this point the staff would like to request that Mr. Craig be temporarily dismissed and recalled at a later date in the Georgia phase of the United Klan hearings.

The CHAIRMAN. Some members might have some questions.

Mr. WELTNER. I have some questions, Mr. Chairman.

Mr. CRAIG, on February 7, which was a Sunday, 1965, did you attend a meeting in the city of Atlanta with other Klan leaders from Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama, and Louisiana?

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. WELTNER. I am looking at a clipping from the Atlanta Constitution, dated Monday, February 8, 1965, and it quotes you and Imperial Wizard Robert M. Shelton to the effect "the Klan is taking its gloves off" and is beginning a "direct action" attack.

I would like to know what was meant by the terms "taking its gloves off" and "direct action."

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "Calvin Craig Exhibit No. 2" appears on p. 2163.)

Mr. WELTNER. Was the training of judo, karate, explosives, demolition, what was meant by direct action? Is this what is meant by taking the gloves off?

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. WELTNER. Where was that meeting held on Sunday, February 7, Mr. Craig?

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. WELTNER. I would like to hand you two documents, one of them being a leaflet saying "HEAR & SEE Robert M. Shelton, Imperial Wizard [and] Calvin F. Craig, Grand Dragon of Ga.," October 17, 1965, Bacon Park at Memorial Stadium, Savannah, Georgia, "Public Invited," United Klans of America, Inc.

I would like to know whether or not that is what it appears to be, a public meeting of the United Klans to be held on that day, October 17, 1965.

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. WELTNER. I hand you also a leaflet entitled "United Klans Of America, Inc., Knights Of The Ku Klux Klan, Realm of Ga., P.O. Box 10753, Atlanta, Georgia," the same post office box previously mentioned in the testimony, and ask you whether or not that leaflet was disseminated and distributed to those who attended that rally on October 17, in the city of Savannah, Georgia?

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "Calvin Craig Exhibit No. 4" and retained in committee files.)

Mr. WELTNER. I hand you a series of photographs which I have marked on the reverse side thereof as 1, 2, 3, and 4.

I state as a fact that these photographs were taken at that meeting on October 17, 1965, and I will ask you whether or not photograph 1 is not a photograph of yourself in attendance at that meeting?

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. WELTNER. And photograph 2 is a picture of a man who is dressed in a robe that is either green or red.

I will ask you the identity of the man who appears in that robe, in the darker colored robe in photograph 2.

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. WELTNER. Photograph No. 3 is a picture, I believe, of a man with glasses and a white robe, having some sort of a distinctive insignia on the front.

'Taking Off Gloves, Mopping Up,' Klan Says

By BILL SHIPP

Constitution State News Editor

The Imperial Wizard of the Ku Klux Klan announced angrily Sunday night that "the Klan is taking its gloves off" in a "direct action" attack against integrationists in Georgia.

"You can call this a mopping-up operation because that's what we are going to do—mop up," said Robert Shelton of Tuscaloosa, Ala., the Klan's Imperial Wizard.

Shelton was in Atlanta for what he described as a "strategy session" with Klan leaders from Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama and Louisiana.

Neither Shelton nor Georgia Grand Dragon Calvin Craig would spell out exactly what they meant by the "gloves-off" policy.

Craig said the closing of Lester Maddox's cafeteria "is the last straw as far as I'm concerned."

Both Shelton and Craig said one target of their attack will be Georgia's white politicians "who have done nothing but give lip service to the white man while they went to bat for the niggers. . . ."

The Klan officials said they were including Sen. Richard Russell and Sen. Herman Talmadge among the politicians they plan to "take action against."

Shelton and Craig said they were confident of wide support for their campaign in Georgia because of the result of the election.

"Just remember this: Dick Russell took off for Europe when the election campaign was going on, and he could have been down here campaigning for the white man," Craig said. "And everytime a nigger is elected to office, little Herman (Talmadge) has to take him down to his farm for a chitterling dinner and pig ear salad."

Shelton also lambasted Fifth District Rep. Charles Weltner and said the Klan would go all out to unseat him. Shelton said he planned personally "to expose Mr. Weltner."

Weltner, a newly appointed member of the House Un-American Activities Committee, has proposed an investigation of the Klan by that committee.

"I don't see how Mr. Weltner can sponsor a dinner for Dr. Martin Luther King, who is a sponsor of a committee to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities," Shelton said.

"You can look for a real upsurge in Klan activities in the next few months. Some of it will be direct action, and some of it may be undercover," the Klansmen said.

The Klansmen said they had planned to have dinner at Lester Maddox's cafeteria Sunday night. When Maddox closed his doors rather than integrate, Shelton said the Klan offered the restaurateur its support.

I will ask you the identity of that man.

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. WELTNER. Photograph No. 4 shows six or seven men in Klansman uniform, and it is, I will state as a fact, taken at that same meeting.

I will ask you to identify the individuals in that photograph.

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Photographs marked "Calvin Craig Exhibit No. 5." Photographs Nos. 2 and 4 follow: Nos. 1 and 3 retained in committee files.)

Mr. WELTNER. All right, sir.

Now, in the document which you were previously handed, entitled "United Klans Of America, Inc.," Realm of Georgia, there is this statement, and I should like to ask you what is mean by this statement: "Georgia won its battle in the last national election, but the war was lost."

I would like to ask what that statement means, Mr. Craig.

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. WELTNER. I have one further question.

The witness is a resident of the Fifth Congressional District of Georgia. Previous testimony here has shown the structure of the Klan to be divided within a realm into provinces which are contiguous with congressional districts.

 Photograph No. 4

Photographs taken at UKA meeting Oct. 17, 1965, in Savannah, Ga.

I should like to know, as a matter of curiosity, the name of the grand titan of the Fifth Province of Georgia?

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. WELTNER. No further questions.

Mr. ASHBROOK. Mr. Chairman, I would like to ask one question.

In the charter which is on file with the secretary of state, which has been referred to previously by counsel, in paragraph 3 your organization states as its purpose that the organization shall be social, fraternal, charitable, and beneficent.

Is it not a fact that the true aims of your organization are not remotely similar to or connected with these high-sounding purposes set out in this charter?

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. ASHBROOK. In the area of "direct action" referred to by Representative Weltner awhile ago, we have already had testimony to the effect that direct action, political action, is being considered against Representative Willis.

Would it be possible that you are considering direct political action of that type against other members of this committee?

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. ASHBROOK. I have no further questions, Mr. Chairman.

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Chairman?

Concerning the question of Mr. Ashbrook, I have one further question.

I am reading a quote from the same paper, the Atlanta Constitution of February 8, 1965. After that I will have a question for the witness as to whether or not this is an accurate quote ascribed to him.

At the meeting which this paper states was held in Atlanta, Georgia, on the 7th:

The Klan officials said they were including Sen. Richard Russell and Sen. Herman Talmadge among the politicians they plan to "take action against."

Shelton and Craig said they were confident of wide support for their campaign in Georgia because of the result of the election.

"Just remember this: Dick Russell took off for Europe when the election campaign was going on, and he could have been down here campaigning for the white man," Craig said. "And everytime a nigger is elected to office, little Herman (Talmadge) has to take him down to his farm for a chitterling dinner and pig ear salad."

Shelton also lambasted Fifth District Rep. Charles Weltner and said the Klan would go all out to unseat him. * * *

I would like to ask, Mr. Craig, if that is an accurate résumé of the conversation of yourself and Mr. Shelton on that occasion in February 1965?

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. WELTNER. That is all.

Mr. BUCHANAN. Mr. Craig, like Mr. Scoggin, you are a part of the Invisible Empire and are in charge of a realm, and their political subdivisions which I understand are called provinces.

In earlier testimony, I understand the word was used that your new members are naturalized into the Klan. You pay taxes to the realm and to the Empire. You take an oath which can come in conflict with the duties of citizenship of your members to the State, to the United States, because they take an oath of secrecy, as I understand, in which they will not violate this secret of another member, except in the case of malicious murder and a few other things, so that all sorts of criminal acts could be committed which their oath of secrecy would forbid them to reveal, even under oath as you are now.

In the light of all of this, I want to ask you what I earlier asked Mr. Scoggin. As a naturalized citizen and leader of the Invisible Empire, does your loyalty to that Empire supersede and is it greater than your loyalty to the United States?

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. BUCHANAN. I would like to say, Mr. Chairman, in response to Mr. Weltner's query, I don't know what the gentleman meant by the victory won in Georgia in the last election.

I would say, however, that any victories won in political elections in Georgia or in my own State of Alabama are by no means attributable to the organization being investigated here, and that the military preparations made by this organization and in connection with which they referred to direct action, of course, have no application in politics.

I am very much interested in exactly whom these military operations are going to be conducted against.

Mr. CRAIG, you are teaching people how to make bombs and all sorts of other military training. Against whom are you going to conduct military operations? The United States, the State of Georgia, or whom?

Mr. CRAIG. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. WELTNER. Let me assure my colleague that I simply asked the question for information as to what was meant by winning the battle in Georgia but losing the war. I make no inference from that.

I simply wanted to know the meaning of that as contained in that pamphlet.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, I ask that the documents exhibited to Mr. Craig at the point of interrogation be made a part of this record, sir.

Mr. ASHBROOK. Including those of Mr. Weltner? I would like to see those as part of the record.

The CHAIRMAN. It is so ordered.

Mr. Craig, we have many more questions to ask of you. You are excused, but you remain under subpoena, to report back before the committee on November 5, 1965, this year.¹

The committee will stand in recess until Monday morning, next, at 10 o'clock.

(Subcommittee members present at time of recess: Representatives Willis, Weltner, Ashbrook, and Buchanan.)

(Whereupon, at 3:34 p.m., Thursday, October 28, 1965, the subcommittee recessed, to reconvene at 10 a.m., Monday, November 1, 1965.)

¹ Mr. Craig was not recalled, and on Jan. 6, 1966, was discharged from further appearance under his subpoena.

Committee member also present: Representative Richard H. Ichord, of Missouri.

Staff members present: Francis J. McNamara, director; William Hitz, general counsel; Alfred M. Nittle, counsel; Donald T. Appell, chief investigator; and Philip R. Manuel, investigator.

The CHAIRMAN. The subcommittee will come to order.

Counsel, call your first witness.

Mr. APPELL. The representative of the Heritage Garment Works.

The CHAIRMAN. Please come forward. Please raise your right hand.

You do solemnly swear that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mr. NEWTON. I do.

The CHAIRMAN. Proceed.

TESTIMONY OF YOUNGER M. NEWTON, ACCOMPANIED BY COUNSEL, LESTER V. CHALMERS, JR.

Mr. CHALMERS. Mr. Chairman, before we do proceed, I think possibly—

Mr. POOL. Mr. Chairman, let's have the man who has been sworn in identify himself.

Mr. CHALMERS. I think that is what we need to do from this standpoint: The subpoena reads to Heritage Garment Works, and does not list anyone specifically. I thought that you and myself could stipulate this man's name and his title with the garment works for any purposes that you see fit.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Chalmers, I understand you will stipulate that the entity named in the subpoena, Heritage Garment Works of Columbia, South Carolina, is a partnership.

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. And the name of the two partners?

Mr. CHALMERS. Mr. Younger M. Newton, who sits here at my right, who is here in response to the subpoena.

Mr. POOL. And the man who was just sworn in?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir. And Mr. G. E. Blizzard is a copartner, also of Columbia, South Carolina.

The CHAIRMAN. And this witness, Younger Newton, is appearing as a representative of the partnership?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir; Younger M. Newton.

The CHAIRMAN. Let's now stipulate. It is stipulated that Heritage Garment Works of Columbia, South Carolina, is a partnership composed of Younger M. Newton and——

Mr. CHALMERS. G. E. Blizzard.

The CHAIRMAN. And that the witness just sworn, Younger M. Newton, is appearing here as a representative of the partnership.

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir; in response to the subpoena.

The CHAIRMAN. In response to the subpoena.

Mr. CHALMERS. When was that served, Mr. Appell?

Mr. APPELL. October 28.

The CHAIRMAN. All right. Proceed.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Witness, do you agree with the stipulation of your counsel that you are Younger M. Newton and appearing in accordance with the subpoena?

The CHAIRMAN. Certainly counsel has a right to enter into the stipulation.

Mr. CHALMERS. I don't have objection to him answering that question.

The CHAIRMAN. All right.

Mr. NEWTON. That is true; yes.

Mr. APPELL. Your appearance here in accordance——

The CHAIRMAN. Identify counsel.

Mr. APPELL. Are you represented by counsel?

Mr. NEWTON. Yes.

Mr. APPELL. Will counsel identify himself for the record, please?

Mr. CHALMERS. I am Lester V. Chalmers, Jr., attorney at law, Room 501, First Federal Building, Raleigh, North Carolina.

The CHAIRMAN. Now that counsel has been identified, the stipulation is reiterated, including the response of his client?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Newton, are you appearing here in accordance with a subpoena addressed to the Heritage Garment Works, 522 Howard Street, Columbia, South Carolina, served by personal service upon Mrs. Evelyn Newton and Mr. Gilbert Edward Blizzard at 1:15 p.m. on the 28th day of October 1965?

Mr. NEWTON. Yes.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Newton, when and where were you born?

Mr. NEWTON. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you were born on July 27, 1915.

Mr. NEWTON. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Other than the partnership known as Heritage Garment Works, do you have other employment?

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. NEWTON. I respectfully decline to answer the question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you are employed full-time by the International Pipe and Ceramic Company, Columbia, South Carolina.

Mr. NEWTON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Newton, under the terms of the subpoena, the Heritage Garment Works was commanded to bring and produce:

Orders, contracts, correspondence, records of payments of all robes (Klansmen, Kleagle, King Kleagle, Titan, Grand Officer, etc.) and Blood Drop Insignia sold to any individual or organization from January 1, 1961, to present.

As a representative of Heritage Garment Works, I ask you to produce the items called for in the subpoena.

Mr. NEWTON. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee in subpoena dated October 28, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such required within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents as demanded by the committee in its subpoena dated October 28, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I ask that the witness be directed to produce the documents called for in the subpoena in his representative capacity.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Chalmers, we have all along in the past entered into the following stipulation: that the witness has been furnished with a copy of the chairman's opening statement of October 19, 1965, and that he is familiar with its contents; that the directions of the subpoena to produce the documents called for are made to the witness in his official representative capacity described in the subpoena.

Mr. CHALMERS. I think possibly we should correct that to be "as so stipulated today."

The CHAIRMAN. And as so stipulated today.

Is that agreeable?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Newton, the committee does not accept the reasons you gave for failing to produce the documents, and you are, therefore, ordered and directed to produce them.

Mr. NEWTON. I respectfully decline to deliver the documents heretofore requested based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. DANIEL. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, at this time I would like to state for the record the results of the committee investigation concerning this witness.

Committee investigation has established that Mr. Daniel was an active member of the Association of Georgia Klans in the early 1950's and was elected to the position of Imperial Kligrapp or secretary of the Association of Georgia Klans at the national klonvokation of that organization in Atlanta, Georgia, on June 20, 1954.

Mr. Chairman, this organization has been designated by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Further, in 1955, Mr. Daniel was one of the original incorporators of the U.S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., and soon became an officer in that organization.

In March of 1956, he was elected Imperial Kligrapp of the U.S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., and held this position until February 1961 when the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, was formed.

Mr. Daniel was also an original incorporator of this organization.

Mr. Daniel became the Imperial Kligrapp of this organization and held the office until July of 1961. Since that time he has been an active member and has been, and is now, exalted cyclops of Nathan Bedford Forrest Klavern No. 1 of the United Klans of America, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. This Klavern, the N. B. Forrest No. 1, is located in the vicinity of Atlanta, Georgia.

Now, Mr. Daniel, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the results of the investigation as outlined by me are correct.

The CHAIRMAN. Proceed.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Daniel, paragraph 1 of that subpoena calls upon you to produce:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of the Invisible Empire United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and affiliated organizations, namely, the Alabama Rescue Service, the Georgia Rescue Service, State Men's Club, Nathan Bedford Forrest Klavern #1, Realm of Georgia, United Klans of America, Inc., in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by you or available to you as Exalted Cyclops, Nathan Bedford Forrest Klavern # 1, Realm of Georgia and one of the original incorporators of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

Mr. Daniel, I now request that you produce the books and documents described in paragraph 1 of your subpoena.

Mr. DANIEL. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee in subpoena dated October 12, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents as demanded by the committee in their subpoena dated October 12, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Chalmers, we have heretofore all along entered into the following stipulation: That the witness has been furnished with a copy of the chairman's opening statement of October 19, 1965, and that he is familiar with its contents; that the directions of the subpoena to produce the documents called for are made to the witness in the official representative capacity described in the subpoena.

Is this stipulation now entered into?

Mr. CHALMERS. It is so stipulated.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Daniel, the Chair and the committee do not accept your reasons for failing to produce those documents. I now order and direct you to do so.

Mr. DANIEL. I respectfully decline to deliver the documents heretofore requested based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. Daniel, I now request that you turn over to the committee all books, records, and so forth, as called for in paragraph 2 of your subpoena.

Mr. DANIEL. I respectfully decline to deliver the documents heretofore requested based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. The stipulation just made applies to this paragraph?

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Daniel, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the Nathan Bedford Forrest Klavern #1 now holds its meetings at 909-911 Stewart Avenue, Northwest, Atlanta, Georgia.

address of the State headquarters of the Realm of Georgia, United Klans of America.

Mr. DANIEL. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Daniel, I will now show you a copy of a charter filed with the State of Georgia, Office of Secretary of State, dated the 24th day of October 1955, which lists the following persons as original petitioners and incorporators of an organization known as the U.S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc.: E. Mr. DANIEL. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(At this point Mr. Weltner returned to the hearing room.)

Mr. DANIEL. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Daniel, I show you now a copy of a charter filed with the Office of the Secretary of State of Georgia for an organization known as the "Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights [of the] Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc.," dated the 21st day of February 1961.

Mr. DANIEL. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Daniel, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that approximately 95 to 97 percent of all former members of the U.S. Klans joined the United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, in the year 1961.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that Mrs. Edwards accused Mr. Craig of misappropriating Klan property.

Mr. DANIEL. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Daniel, did you attend the national klonvokation of the United Klans of America held on September 5 and 6, 1964, at the Dinkler-Tutwiler Hotel in Birmingham, Alabama?

Mr. SLIGH. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Will counsel please identify himself?

Mr. CHALMERS. Lester V. Chalmers, Jr., attorney at law, Room 501, First Federal Building, Raleigh, North Carolina.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Sligh, when and where were you born?

Mr. SLIGH. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Sligh, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you were born on January 26, 1902, in Paulding County, Georgia.

Mr. SLIGH. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, at this time, I would like to state that the committee investigation of this witness has established that in the early 1940's and early 1950's Mr. Sligh was an active member of the Association of Georgia Klans, an organization which has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States under Executive Order 10450; that during the period between 1955 and 1961 Mr. Sligh was an active member of the U.S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klu Klan, Inc. During his time in the U.S. Klans, Mr. Sligh served as a Klavern officer, as a State officer, and in 1960 was appointed a member of the Imperial Klokann Committee.

He has attended numerous meetings of all types held by the U.S. Klans during the period 1955 to 1961. When the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, was formed in 1961, Mr. Sligh changed his affiliation to this group and became Imperial Klavergo of the UKA in March 1961. In his capacity as an imperial officer he has attended numerous meetings in Georgia and other Southern States.

In 1963, Mr. Sligh served as a delegate of the United Klans of America to a meeting of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc.

During 1964, Mr. Sligh served as grand kludd of the Realm of Georgia, United Klans of America. At the present time he does not hold a State or imperial office, but is an active member of the Clayton Klavern No. 52 of the United Klans of America, located at Jonesboro, Georgia.

Further, Mr. Sligh has acted as exalted cyclops on special degree teams which initiate Klan members into the United Klans of America.

Mr. Sligh, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that results of the committee investigation are correct.

Mr. SLIGH. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Sligh, are you appearing before the committee this morning in response to a subpoena served upon you on the 11th day of October 1965, at 2 p.m., by Wallace E. Camp, deputy U.S. marshal?

Mr. CHALMERS. Mr. Chairman, it is so stipulated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Sligh, the subpoena calls upon you to produce in paragraph 1:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and affiliated organizations, namely, the Alabama Rescue Service, Georgia Rescue Service, State Men's Club, Clayton County Klavern No. 52, Realm of Georgia, United Klans of America, Inc., also known as Clayton Civic Club, Inc., in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by you or available to you as former Grand Kludd, Realm of Georgia and member Clayton County Klavern No. 52, Realm of Georgia, of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

At this time, Mr. Sligh, I request that you produce the books, records, and so forth, as outlined in paragraph 1 of your subpoena.

Mr. SLIGH. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for the information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents demanded by the committee in its subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Chalmers, we have made the following stipulation in all previous instances: (1) That the witness has been furnished a copy of the chairman's opening statement of October 19, 1965, and that he is familiar with its contents; (2) that the directions of the subpoena to produce the documents called for are made to the witness in the official representative capacity described in the subpoena.

Is that stipulation now agreed to?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Sligh, the committee does not accept your reasons for refusing to produce those documents.

Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, which the "Constitution and Laws" of said organization authorize and require to be maintained by you and any other officer of said organization, the same being in your possession, custody or control.

Mr. SLIGH. I respectfully decline—

Mr. MANUEL. I now request that you produce those documents as outlined in paragraph 2 of your subpoena.

Mr. SLIGH. I respectfully decline to deliver the documents heretofore requested based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Is the stipulation previously made agreed to?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Sligh, the committee does not accept your reasons for refusing to produce those documents and I now order and direct you to do so.

Mr. SLIGH. I respectfully decline to deliver the documents heretofore requested based upon the grounds previously stated.

(At this point Mr. Weltner returned to the hearing room.)

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Sligh, have you ever received instruction from a person known to you to be a member of the United Klans of America in demolition, judo, or karate?

Mr. SLIGH. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Sligh, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you have attended instructions in guerrilla warfare, instructions on sabotage, instructions on the assembling of the M-1 carbine and .45 caliber automatic pistols, instructions on making Molotov cocktails and making small bombs and booby traps with dynamite.

These instructions were given by members of the Clayton County Klavern No. 52. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact.

Mr. SLIGH. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the instructors at these demonstrations were Charles Malcolm Bartlett and Daniel Bruce, who are members of the Clayton County Klavern No. 52.

Mr. SLIGH. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Sligh, have you ever participated as a Klansman in any acts of intimidation on persons, such as cross-burnings?

Mr. SLIGH. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Sligh, have you ever purchased for members of your Klavern any tear gas pens?

Mr. SLIGH. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Have you ever made the statement at a meeting of the Clayton County Klavern No. 52 that you had received $72 with which to buy such pens?

Mr. SLIGH. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously given.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Sligh, you have been identified as an exalted cyclops of a naturalization team within the Realm of Georgia, United Klans of America.

Would you please explain to the committee what your duties are as the exalted cyclops of that naturalization team?

Mr. SLIGH. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Sligh, did you act as an exalted cyclops of a Klavern supposedly set up in Lithonia, Georgia, for a CBS news special on the activities of the Ku Klux Klan?

Mr. SLIGH. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Sligh, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you did appear and presented yourself as an exalted cyclops of a Klavern at Lithonia, Georgia, which, in fact, was not true.

Mr. SLIGH. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. And during that program, you read what you called the Klan oath to people who were supposed to be new inductees into the Klan.

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the real Klan oath was not read and the persons to whom you read this material were Klan members in the first place.

Mr. SLIGH. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Sligh, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that on October 17, 1964, at the farm of Robert L. Bing, who is the exalted cyclops of Clayton Klavern No. 52, you attended a demonstration with other members of the United Klans of America in which tactical problems and guerrilla warfare were given and also demonstrated were techniques in making Molotov cocktails, small bombs, and instructions in various weapons.

Mr. SLIGH. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(At this point Mr. Buchanan left the hearing room.)

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Sligh, with further reference to the CBS program which I have previously identified and in which you participated, I would like to show you two photographs supplied to the committee by the Columbia Broadcasting System, and ask you, sir, if you are the person shown in those photographs.

(Photographs handed to witness.)

Mr. SLIGH. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Photographs marked "George Sligh Exhibit No. 1" appear on p. 2189.)

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Sligh, have you attended meetings as a representative of the United Klans of America to the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, headed by Mr. James Venable?

Mr. SLIGH. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. When was the last time, sir, that you attended such a meeting?

Mr. SLIGH. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Would you please explain to the committee the degree of cooperation that exists, if any, between the United Klans of America and the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan?

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, the staff has no further questions of this witness.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Weltner.

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Sligh, a few weeks ago on the 19th day of October, following the first day of hearings by this committee, there was a denial by a gentleman who termed himself a member of the Clayton Civic Association in Jonesboro, Georgia, that that club or that organization was a Klan organization.

GEORGE SLIGH EXHIBIT NO. 1

George Sligh in Klan robes.

I would like to know whether or not the Clayton Civic Club, Inc., is a Klan front or another name for a Klavern of the United Klans of America.

Mr. SLIGH. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. Well, do you know whether or not it is a Klan organization?

Mr. SLIGH. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. WELTNER. Will you state that it is not a Klan organization?

Mr. SLIGH. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. I, along with many other persons, saw the "CBS Reports" on the Ku Klux Klan that was broadcast, I think, on the 21st day of September of this year and a substantial portion of that report was comprised of an initiation ceremony. The principal figure in that ceremony was yourself.

I would simply like to ask you, if you are willing to proceed for several minutes on a nationwide television program and to conduct a Klan ritual in full view of television cameras, knowing that it is going to be broadcast throughout the country, why it is that you will not respond to questions put to you by a committee of the Congress of the United States?

Mr. SLIGH. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. No further questions.

Mr. BUCHANAN. Is your refusal to answer based in effect upon the fact that you are ashamed you are a Klansman?

Mr. SLIGH. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. BUCHANAN. I am very interested in this matter of naturalization of people into the Klan. That sounds to me like you are bringing up some kind of citizenship in a realm in which bosses like you apparently have such great loyalty to that empire and that realm that they will not cooperate with this committee of the Congress of the United States and apparently put that loyalty above their loyalty to this country. Is that true?

Mr. SLIGH. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reasons previously stated.

Mr. BUCHANAN. No further questions.

The CHAIRMAN. The witness is excused and discharged from his subpoena.

Call the next witness, Mr. Manuel.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to call as the next witness Mr. James Douglas Newberry.

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Chairman, prior to the witness' attendance, in view of the question that has arisen as to whether or not the Clayton Civic Club, Inc., is a unit of the Ku Klux Klan, I would like to state that following the appearance of witnesses under subpoena I would like to offer a copy of the corporate charter of that organization into the record at the appropriate time. (Introduced as Wesley Bailey Exhibit No. 1, in November 2, 1965, testimony. This exhibit will be reproduced in a forthcoming report on Klan organizations.)

The CHAIRMAN. Please raise your right hand.

You do solemnly swear that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mr. NEWBERRY. I do.

TESTIMONY OF JAMES DOUGLAS NEWBERRY, ACCOMPANIED BY COUNSEL, LESTER V. CHALMERS, JR.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Newberry, would you state your full name for the record, please?

Mr. NEWBERRY. James Douglas Newberry.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Newberry, when and where were you born?

Mr. NEWBERRY. I respectfully decline to——

The CHAIRMAN. Identify the counsel.

Mr. NEWBERRY. —to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Newberry, are you represented by counsel?

Mr. NEWBERRY. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Would counsel please identify himself for the record?

Mr. NEWBERRY. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Newberry, where do you currently reside?

Mr. NEWBERRY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Newberry, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you reside currently at 656 Mayland Avenue, Atlanta, Georgia.

Mr. NEWBERRY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. NEWBERRY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, at this point, I would like to state that the committee investigation has established that Mr. Newberry is currently the grand klabee, or treasurer, of the Realm of Georgia, United Klans of America, and that he also holds the position of klabee of the Nathan Bedford Forrest Klavern No. 1, also located in Atlanta, Georgia.

Mr. Newberry, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny, that the results of the committee investigation are correct.

Mr. NEWBERRY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Newberry, are you appearing before the committee today in response to a subpoena served upon you at 5:30 p.m. on the 11th day of October 1965, by Leonard Herndon, chief deputy marshal, Atlanta, Georgia?

Mr. CHALMERS. It is so stipulated, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. All right, proceed.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Newberry, you are required under paragraph 1 of your subpoena to produce:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and affiliated organizations, namely, the Alabama Rescue Service, Georgia Rescue Service, State Men's Club, and Nathan Bedford Forrest Klavern #1, Realm of Georgia, in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by you or available to you as Grand Klabee (treasurer) and Klabee, Nathan Bedford Forrest Klavern #1, Realm of Georgia, of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

I ask you now, sir, to produce those documents as requested and outlined in paragraph 1 of your subpoena.

Mr. NEWBERRY. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for that information is not relevant or germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents as demanded by the committee in its subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. CHALMERS. The same stipulation, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. I will read the stipulation: (1) That the witness has been furnished a copy of the chairman's opening statement of October 19, 1965, and that he is familiar with its contents; and (2) that the directions of the subpoena to produce the documents called for are made to the witness in the official representative capacity described in the subpoena.

That stipulation is correct?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Newberry, the committee does not accept your reasons for refusing to produce those documents and I now order and direct you to do so.

Mr. NEWBERRY. I respectfully decline to deliver the documents heretofore requested based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Newberry, paragraph 2 of your subpoena calls for you to produce:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by or available to you, in your capacity as Grand Klabe, Realm of Georgia, and Klabe, Nathan Bedford Forrest Klavern # 1, Realm of Georgia of the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, which the "Constitution and Laws" of said organization authorize and require to be maintained by you and any other officer of said organization, the same being in your possession, custody or control.

I now request that you produce the books and records, and so forth, as outlined in paragraph 2 of your subpoena.

Mr. NEWBERRY. I respectfully decline to deliver the documents heretofore requested based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. The same stipulation applies?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir; as to paragraph 2.

1964, filed by you as an individual taxpayer with the U.S. Treasury Department, Internal Revenue Service.

I now ask you to produce those documents.

Mr. NEWBERRY. I respectfully decline to deliver the documents heretofore requested based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHARMAN. Mr. Newberry, I do not order you to produce your individual income tax returns because you have invoked the privileges of the fifth amendment.

I order you to produce the others because they were held by you in your representative capacity, meaning that as to the other items ordered to be produced the committee does not accept the reasons for not producing them, and is of the opinion that you are subjecting yourself to a contempt citation.

Proceed.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Newberry, the results of the committee investigation establish that you were first elected to the position of grand klabee or treasurer of the Realm of Georgia on March 22, 1964.

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the committee investigation is correct.

Mr. NEWBERRY. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Newberry, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that Klaverns make checks payable directly to Mr. Calvin F. Craig for taxes or dues.

Mr. NEWBERRY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Newberry, to your certain knowledge, does Mr. Craig deposit all of those checks in the account of the State Men's Club?

Mr. NEWBERRY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Newberry, as treasurer of the Realm of Georgia, would you please explain to the committee if the Realm of Georgia incurs a tax liability by collecting dues from members in the Realm of Georgia?

Mr. NEWBERRY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Newberry, do you report your income—does the realm report its income from dues and revenues taken up at rallies to the Internal Revenue Service?

Mr. MANUEL. To your direct knowledge as treasurer of the Realm of Georgia, does Mr. Shelton report as income that amount of money taken in, in the Realm of Georgia?

Mr. NEWBERRY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Newberry, on what looks like 4-1-65, from the account of the State Men's Club, a check was made out to cash for the amount of $1,642.11, signed by "C. F. Craig" and "Jim Newberry," endorsed on the reverse side by "J. D. Newberry."

I show you this check and ask you if you are the Jim Newberry who signed that check.

(Document handed to witness.)

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Newberry, the committee has also subpoenaed from the First National Bank copies of your personal account, and I note, and I will show you, that the statement of that bank as of 4-21-65 shows that you deposited to your personal account a check in the amount of $1,642.11, the same as the amount that I showed you from the State Men's Club.

Now, Mr. Newberry, I ask you if you deposited money to your personal account which was taken from the account of the State Men's

Mr. NEWBERRY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, the staff has no further questions of this witness.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Weltner?

Mr. WELTNER. I would like to ask the witness whether or not the deposit of $1,642.11 to his personal account on the 21st day of April 1965 was the check drawn April 1, 1965, on the State Men's Club account at the First National Bank of Georgia for that same amount and countersigned by C. F. Craig and himself.

Mr. NEWBERRY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. WELTNER. No further questions.

The CHAIRMAN. The witness is excused and discharged from his subpoena.

Mr. NEWBERRY. Thank you, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. The committee will stand in recess until 2 o'clock.

(Subcommittee members present at time of recess: Representatives Willis, Pool, Weltner, and Buchanan.)

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Parker, when and where were you born?

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Parker, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you were born on the 7th day of March 1940 in Marshall County, Alabama.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Parker, where do you reside?

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Parker, where are you employed?

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you are currently employed as a mixer by the Precision Paint Corporation, 5275 Peachtree Industrial Boulevard, in Chamblee, Georgia.

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Parker, are you a member of a Ku Klux Klan organization?

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, at this point, I would like to read into the record that the committee investigation shows that Mr. Parker has held the following positions in the United Klans of America:

He has held the position of kligrapp, or secretary, of the Fiery Cross Klavern No. 113 during 1960 and 1961; he has been assistant State kligrapp, or secretary, of the United Klans of America during 1962; he has been a member of the State security patrol of the Realm of Georgia, United Klans of America, and in that organization he is commissioned as a second lieutenant, and that happened in 1963; he has held the position of klabee, or treasurer, of Province 10 of the Realm of Georgia, United Klans of America, during 1963; and he is the realm kligrapp and elected to that position during the latter part of 1964.

Mr. Parker, I ask you now whether the results of the committee investigation are correct.

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Parker, are you appearing before the committee today in response to a subpoena served upon you at 5275 Peachtree Industrial Boulevard, Atlanta, Georgia, at 12:30 p.m. on the 11th day of October 1965, by Deputy Marshal Davis?

Mr. CHALMERS. I will stipulate, Mr. Chairman, he is here as a result of the subpoena served upon him.

The CHAIRMAN. And that the recitation——

Mr. CHALMERS. And that the return thereon speaks for itself; yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Parker, paragraph 1 of that subpoena requires you to produce:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of the Invisible Empire United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and affiliated organizations, namely, the Alabama Rescue Service, Georgia Rescue Service, State Men's Club, and Fiery Cross Klavern #113, Realm of Georgia, in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by you or available to you as Grand

I ask you now, Mr. Parker, to produce those items listed in paragraph 1 of your subpoena.

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents as demanded by the committee in its subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. We have heretofore entered into the following stipulation with respect to other witnesses whom you represent, Mr. Chalmers: (1) That the witness has been furnished a copy of the chairman's opening statement of October 19, 1965, and that he is familiar with its contents; (2) that the directions of the subpoena to produce the documents called for are made to the witness in the official representative capacity described in the subpoena.

I take it this stipulation applies here?

Mr. CHALMERS. It applies to this witness, yes, sir; and it is so stipulated.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Parker, the committee does not accept your reasons for refusing to produce documents mentioned, and I now order and direct you to do so.

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee the documents demanded and ordered by the committee based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Parker, paragraph 2 of your subpoena requires you to produce:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by or available to you, in your capacity as Grand Kligrapp, Realm of Georgia and Kligrapp, Fiery Cross Klavern #113, Realm of Georgia of the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, which the "Constitution and Laws" of said organization authorize and require to be maintained by you and any other officer of said organization, the same being in your possession, custody or control.

I now ask you, sir, to produce those documents as outlined in paragraph 2 of your subpoena.

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee the documents demanded and ordered by the committee based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. CHALMERS. Our same stipulation with respect to paragraph 2, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. That is entered into?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Parker, for reasons previously stated, I now order and direct you to produce those documents.

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee the documents demanded and ordered by the committee based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Parker, paragraph 3 of your subpoena requires you to produce:

Copies of U.S. Treasury Department, Internal Revenue Service, Form 1120, "U.S. Corporation Income Tax Return," and other Federal Income Tax Returns, corporate or otherwise, for the fiscal or calendar years 1961 through June 30, 1965, filed by you with the U.S. Treasury Department, Internal Revenue Service, or in your possession, custody, or control, as Grand Kligrapp, Realm of Georgia, and being the Federal Income Tax returns for or of the organizations and affiliated organizations named in item numbered (1) above.

I now ask you to produce the documents called for in paragraph 3.

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee the documents demanded and ordered by the committee based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. CHALMERS. The same stipulation, Mr. Chairman, with respect to paragraph 3.

The CHAIRMAN. I order and direct you to produce those documents.

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to produce the documents demanded and requested by the committee based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Paragraph 4 of your subpoena requires you to produce:

Copies of U.S. Treasury Department, Internal Revenue Service, Form 1040, "U.S. Individual Income Tax Return," for the calendar years 1958 through 1964, filed by you as an individual taxpayer with the U.S. Treasury Department, Internal Revenue Service.

I now ask you to produce those documents.

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee the documents demanded and ordered by the committee based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Parker, the committee has information that you were reelected grand kligrapp of the Realm of Georgia in July 1965 at Savannah, Georgia. Are the results of the committee investigation correct?

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. MANUEL. The committee investigation shows that also elected at that election in Savannah in July 1965 were Calvin F. Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Parker, would you please tell the committee what your duties are as grand kligrapp of the Realm of Georgia?

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Parker, I would like to show you a copy of an application for citizenship in the Invisible Empire, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, for the United Klans of America.

I ask you to examine both sides of this document and tell the committee whether you come into possession of each and every application that is submitted to the United Klans of America, Realm of Georgia, in your capacity as grand kligrapp or secretary.

(Document handed to witness.)

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document previously marked "Richard Constantineau Exhibit No. 3.")

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Parker, the information contained on the reverse side of this application calls for the prospective candidate for citizenship in the Invisible Empire to fill out certain questions. He is to give three references, and list their addresses. He must list his occupation and he must tell by whom he is employed.

He must give his age, his weight, his height, and then the information contained on the reverse side states: "This applicant was elected to membership in this Order by: Klan No. (blank), Realm of (blank)," dated (blank) and "This applicant was duly naturalized by same," and the date is to be filled in.

The following statement is recorded:

"I certify the above to be correct, Signed (blank) Kligrapp," and then the Klan unit.

Mr. Parker, I ask you again, as grand kligrapp of the State of Georgia, do you fill out the bottom half of the application for citizenship in the United Klans on behalf of the Realm of Georgia?

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Parker, as kligrapp or secretary of the Realm of Georgia, could you tell the committee what investigation the State officers conduct when considering an applicant for membership in the Invisible Empire?

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Is any investigation whatsoever conducted concerning the applicant's background with emphasis on any possible criminal record or any past act of violence?

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Parker, the committee investigation shows that you have held the office of grand kligrapp for the Realm of Georgia since March 1964. Who preceded you in that office, sir?

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that one Tom Gentry preceded you as the grand kligrapp of the Realm of Georgia.

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Parker, are you currently a member of the State security patrol of the Realm of Georgia, United Klans of America, and do you hold the commission of second lieutenant in that security patrol?

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. As a member of the security patrol of the United Klans of America, would you please explain to the committee what your functions or duties are?

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Do members of the security patrol of the United Klans of America, Realm of Georgia, carry weapons in carrying out their assigned functions?

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Parker, under what State official does the security patrol of the Realm of Georgia take its orders and receive its assignments?

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Parker, did you, as a Klansman, attend the Imperial Klonvokation of the United Klans of America held in September 1964 at the Dinkler-Tutwiler Hotel, in Birmingham, Alabama?

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I would like to show you, sir, a copy of the records of the Dinkler-Tutwiler Hotel which states that John M. Parker, of 162 Prospect Street, Roswell, Georgia, occupied Room 1032 for the dates of September 4, 5, and 6, 1964, and I ask you if you are the John M. Parker who was in attendance.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Parker, the committee investigation reveals that during that time, that is, September 5 and 6, 1964, the following persons were elected to hold imperial offices in the United Klans of America:

Robert Shelton, the Imperial Wizard; Robert Collins, the Klokard; Reverend George Dorsett, the Kludd; Robert Hudgins, the Kladd; Walter Brown, the Klarogo; and Robert Korman, the Klexter.

Mr. Parker, is the result of the committee investigation correct?

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Parker, as grand kligrapp or secretary of the Realm of Georgia for the United Klans of America, would you tell the committee whether you have direct knowledge of a karate and judo and explosion-demolition instruction being given by Clayton Klavern No. 52, located in Jonesboro, Georgia?

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Have you, as a member of the security patrol, or as a State officer of the United Klans of America, Realm of Georgia, attended any such classes?

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to answer that question upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, the staff has no further questions of this witness.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Weltner.

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Parker, I notice you live in the city of Roswell, Georgia, in Fulton County. The result of the investigation of this committee is that you hold the office of kligrapp or secretary of the Fiery Cross Klavern No. 113. That Klavern meets in the city of Doraville, Georgia; doesn't it?

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. WELTNER. Doraville is in DeKalb County; is it not?

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. WELTNER. I wonder, Mr. Parker, if you are also affiliated in any way with the Cherokee Klavern No. 92, which meets in Roswell, Georgia.

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. WELTNER. Do you know the name of the Georgia cyclops of the Cherokee Klavern No. 92?

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. WELTNER. As a result of our investigation, we found that sometime during the year 1965 the exalted cyclops of that chapter in Roswell was a man named Herman Wilson. Can you tell us whether or not he is still the exalted cyclops of the Cherokee Klavern No. 92 in Roswell, Georgia?

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. WELTNER. No further questions.

Mr. BUCHANAN. Mr. Parker, as a citizen of the United States, it seems to me to be your clear duty to cooperate with this committee of the Congress to give whatever testimony and whatever records are in your power. You have a constitutional right to plead the fifth amendment in refusing to answer these questions if you feel they may tend to incriminate you, but given your total noncooperation with this committee, I want to ask you, sir, if as a citizen of this Invisible Empire your loyalty to that empire of the Ku Klux Klan is greater than your loyalty to the United States?

Mr. PARKER. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. BUCHANAN. That is all.

The CHAIRMAN. The witness is excused and discharged from his subpoena.

Mr. CHALMERS. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. The committee will stand in recess for 2 minutes.

(Whereupon, at 2:40 p.m., the subcommittee recessed and reconvened at 2:47 p.m., with the following members present at time of recess and when hearings resumed: Representatives Willis, Pool, Weltner, and Buchanan.)

The CHAIRMAN. The hearing will resume.

Call your next witness.

Mr. MANUEL. I would like to call at this time, Mr. Chairman, Grady C. Little.

The CHAIRMAN. Please raise your right hand.

You do solemnly swear the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mr. LITTLE. I do.

The CHAIRMAN. Proceed.

TESTIMONY OF GRADY CALVIN LITTLE, SR., ACCOMPANIED BY COUNSEL, LESTER V. CHALMERS, JR.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Little, would you state your full name for the record, please?

Mr. LITTLE. Grady Calvin Little, Sr.

Mr. MANUEL. Are you represented by counsel, sir?

Mr. LITTLE. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Will counsel please identify himself for the record?

Mr. CHALMERS. Lester V. Chalmers, Jr., attorney at law, Room 501, First Federal Building, Raleigh, North Carolina.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Little, where and when were your born, sir?

Mr. LITTLE. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Little, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you were born on the 9th day of April 1918 in Cobb County, Georgia.

Mr. LITTLE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Little, where do you currently reside?

Mr. LITTLE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, sir, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you currently reside at 4918 Glaze Drive, Doraville, Georgia.

Mr. LITTLE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Little, where are you currently employed?

Mr. LITTLE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, sir, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you are currently employed as a foreman by the Precision Paint Company in Chamblee, Georgia.

Mr. LITTLE. I respectfully decline to answer that question upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Little, are you currently a member of a Ku Klux Klan organization?

Mr. LITTLE. I respectfully decline to answer that question upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, at this point, I would like to state for the record that the committee investigation shows that in July 1959 Mr. Little organized——

Mr. POOL. Are you stating this as a fact?

Mr. MANUEL. Yes, sir. I am stating it for the record.

Mr. POOL. But you didn't state it as a fact.

Mr. MANUEL. As a fact, the committee investigation reveals that Mr. Little organized a Klavern of the U.S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., in the Chamblee, Doraville, Georgia, area. This Klavern, which was known as the Fiery Cross Klavern No. 113, was headed by Mr. Little during the period 1959 to 1961.

In 1960, he was appointed a titan of Province No. 10 of the U.S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., and in the same year he was appointed a member of a statewide public relations committee for that organization.

During the period 1959 to 1961, Mr. Little, our investigation shows, was active in the U.S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., and was in attendance at numerous meetings, cross-burnings, motorcades, and other Klan activities.

Mr. Little, I would like to ask you now at this point whether so far what I have recited of the committee investigation results is correct?

Mr. LITTLE. I respectfully decline to answer that question upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I would like to state again for the record that our investigation further shows as a fact that when the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, was formed in February of 1961, Mr. Little brought his Klavern into this organization and continued to serve as exalted cyclops of Fiery Cross Klavern No. 113 of the United Klans of America.

In 1962, he was appointed a titan of the United Klans of America for Province 10. In 1964, he was elected grand kladd of the Realm of Georgia, United Klans of America, and was reelected to serve in this same position in 1965.

As a member of the State board of the Realm of Georgia, United Klans of America, Mr. Little has attended numerous State board meetings at which policy was formulated for the Realm of Georgia.

Mr. Little has also been active in organizing new Klaverns for the United Klans of America and has been instrumental in setting up at least three additional Klaverns in addition to Fiery Cross No. 113.

Mr. Little, I will ask you at this point whether the results of the committee investigation concerning your Klan background and activities are correct?

Mr. LITTLE. I respectfully decline to answer that question upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Little, are you before the committee today in response to a subpoena served upon you on the 11th day of October 1965, at 12:36 p.m., at 5275 Peachtree Industrial Boulevard, Atlanta, Georgia, by Deputy Marshal Davis?

Mr. CHALMERS. Mr. Chairman, it is stipulated he is here as a result of that subpoena, and that the return thereon speaks for itself.

The CHAIRMAN. By that you mean you accept the validity of the marshal's return?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

May I approach the bench for a moment?

The CHAIRMAN. Yes.

(Discussion off the record.)

The CHAIRMAN. Proceed.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Little, paragraph 1 of that subpoena requires you to produce :

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and affiliated organizations, namely, the Alabama Rescue Service, Georgia Rescue Service, State Men's Club, Province # 10, Realm (State) of Georgia, and Fiery Cross Klavern # 113, Realm of Georgia, in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by you or available to you as Grand Kladd, Titan Province 10, and Exalted Cyclops, Fiery Cross Klavern # 113, Realm of Georgia, of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

I ask you now, sir, to produce those documents.

Mr. LITTLE. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee under the subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents as demanded by the committee in its subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. CHALMERS. Our same stipulation, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Chalmers, I will repeat the stipulation that we have consistently made with reference to other witnesses: (1) That the witness has been furnished a copy of the chairman's opening statement of October 19, 1965, that he is familiar with its contents; (2) that the directions of the subpoena to produce the documents called for are made to the witness in the official representative capacity described in the subpoena.

Is that the stipulation that is applicable here?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Little, the committee does not accept the grounds upon which you refuse to produce those documents, and I now order and direct you to produce them because it is the opinion of the committee that your failure to do so can subject you to contempt citation.

Mr. LITTLE. I respectfully—

The CHAIRMAN. Therefore, I order and direct you to produce those documents.

Mr. LITTLE. I respectfully decline to deliver the documents demanded and ordered by the committee based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Little, paragraph 2 of your subpoena calls for you to produce:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by or available to you, in your capacity as Grand Kladd, Titan Province 10, and Exalted Cyclops, Fiery Cross Klavern # 113, Realm of Georgia, of the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, which the "Constitution and Laws" of said organization authorize and require to be maintained by you and any other officer of said organization, the same being in your possession, custody or control.

I ask you now, sir, to produce the documents as called for in paragraph 2.

Mr. LITTLE. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee the documents demanded and ordered by the committee based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. CHALMERS. Our same stipulation with respect to paragraph 2, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. The same stipulation will apply.

I order and direct you to produce those documents, Mr. Little.

Mr. LITTLE. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee the documents demanded and ordered by the committee based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Little, I would like to show you a document headed "United Klans of America, Inc., P.O. Box 10753, Atlanta 10, Ga.," and dated March 30, 1964.

The document is from Calvin F. Craig, Grand Dragon, Realm of Georgia, which he sent to persons addressed as "Esteemed Klanspeople," and in which he identifies the persons elected to offices in the Realm of Georgia as of March 1964.

In this document it is revealed that Calvin F. Craig was elected the Grand Dragon; Tom Gentry was elected the grand kligrapp; James Douglas Newberry was elected the grand klabee; A. R. Collins was elected grand klarogo; Thomas Jenkins was elected Grand Kaliff; J. D. Johnson was elected the grand klokard; Grady C. Little elected the grand kladd; George D. Mr. Little, I show you this document and ask you if this is a copy of the document which was sent from the office of Calvin F. Craig, Grand Dragon, Realm of Georgia.

(Document handed to witness.)

Mr. LITTLE. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

(Document marked "Grady Little Exhibit No. 1" appears on p. 2211.)

Mr. MANUEL. Are the persons identified by Mr. Craig as having been elected to the respective offices—are these identifications correct, sir?

Mr. LITTLE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Little, the committee investigation has shown that the last election for State officers in the Realm of Georgia UKA was held at Savannah, Georgia, in July of 1965. The results of that election were that Calvin F. Craig remained Grand Dragon, or was reelected to the position of Grand Dragon; Thomas Jenkins was reelected to the position of Grand Klaliff; John M. Parker was elected to the position of grand kligrapp; James Douglas Newberry was reelected as grand klabee; Grady C. Little, yourself, was reelected to

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Chalmers, with respect to other witnesses, we made the following stipulation: (1) That the witness has been furnished a copy of the chairman's opening statement of October 19, 1965, and that he is familiar with its contents; (2) that the directions of the subpoena to produce the documents called for are made to the witness in the representative capacity described in the subpoena.

This stipulation, I take it, applies to this witness?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Brock, the committee does not accept the grounds you urge as a basis for refusing to produce the documents mentioned.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Brock, would you explain to the committee exactly what the organization NACIREMA is?

Mr. BROCK. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, at this point I would like to read into the record that the committee investigation has established that as of July 25, 1961, it was known that this organization, NACIREMA, was composed almost entirely of present and former Klansmen who joined NACIREMA to get more violent action. Two leaders of this organization, who are William Anderson and William Crowe, conducted an explosive school at which instructions were given in the assembling and detonation of explosives and incendiary devices with the use of easy to obtain material.

Mr. BROCK. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Brock, I should like to ask you whether the address 2666 Kelley Lake Road, Atlanta, Georgia, is, in fact, the address of a Klavern of the United Klans of America?

Mr. BROCK. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Brock, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the address 2666 Kelley Lake Road in DeKalb County, outside of Atlanta, Georgia, was the address of a Ku Klux Klan organization.

Mr. BROCK. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Brock, arrested at the same time you were by the DeKalb County Police Department in cooperation with the Atlanta Police Department were Mr. William Crowe, Mr. William Anderson, Mr. Robert Allison Day, and Mr. Billy Wilson.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Brock, I would like to show you a newspaper report dated Tuesday, October 5, 1965, of the newspaper the Washington Post, which describes the arrest of Calvin Craig on the charge of assault on a Negro 17 years of age.

I would like to call your attention to the third paragraph of this report which reads:

While the Klansman tussled with the Negro, some 45 white spectators stood watching nearby. Some shouted to Craig: "Kill him, kill him." Police stood between the Negroes and the whites.

Mr. Brock, I show you this newspaper article and put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you were the one who was shouting "kill him, kill him" to Mr. Craig.

(Document handed to witness.)

Mr. BROCK. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "John Brock Exhibit No. 2" appears on pp. 2218 and 2219.)

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Brock, I show you a photograph taken at a public rally of the United Klans of America, which was held on June 5, 1965, in Atlanta, Georgia. I ask you to look at this photograph and tell the committee whether you are the person pictured in the Klan robes in this photograph.

- JOHN BROCK EXHIBIT No. 2

A 6 Tuesday, Oct. 5, 1965 THE WASHINGTON POST

Associated Press

Crawfordville. Craig, who had grabbed the demonstrator's arm at one point, was arrested later on an assault charge.

Ga. Klan Chief Accused Of Assault on Negro, 17

CRAWFORDVILLE, Ga., Oct. 5 (UPI)—Police arrested Georgia's top Ku Klux Klan leader yesterday and charged him with assault after he seized a Negro teenager, twisted his arm and hurled him against a car during a racial demonstration.

Calvin Craig, a crane operator and Grand Dragon of the Georgia Klan, posted $100 bond on the charge and trial was set for Feb. 18. He charged his arrest was a political "frame-up" arranged by Gov. Carl E. Sanders.

While the Klansman tussled with the Negro, some 45 white spectators stood watching nearby. Some shouted to Craig: "Kill him, kill him." Police stood between the Negroes and the whites.

About 100 Negroes marched two miles from the Friendship Baptist Church to the courthouse later. There were no incidents.

Craig seized Frank Bates, 17, and slammed him against a State Highway patrol car after Bates and 11 other Negroes tried to barge through a line of 20 State troopers in an attempt to board buses hauling white pupils to school.

Bates and a colleague, Alvin Harris, 17, also were arrested and charged with interfering with the operation of a school.

Craig insisted he grabbed Bates to prevent the Negro from striking a State trooper. "His hand was raised as if he were going to hit the officer," the Klansman said.

Negro children have tried to board the segregated white buses here each school day since last Tuesday. Their demonstrations are aimed at protesting the closing of Taliaferro (Crawfordville) County's one white school to avoid desegregation.

The white children have been bussed to schools in nearby counties and Negro pupils have boycotted their own school to attend a "freedom school" sponsored by the "Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

Mr. BROCK. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Photograph marked "John Brock Exhibit No. 4" appears on p. 2220.)

Mr. MANUEL. Did you ever know Mr. McGriff or Mr. Holcombe to be members of the United Klans of America, Realm of Georgia?

Mr. BROCK. I decline to answer that question upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Did you ever know them to be leaders of an operation operating out of the area called Barnesville, called Vigilantes?

Mr. BROCK. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Did you ever know them to be members of an organization called the Black Shirts of the Ku Klux Klan operating out of the vicinity of Barnesville, Georgia?

Mr. BROCK. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Crowe, where and when were you born, sir?

Mr. CROWE. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by the amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Crowe, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you were born on September 13, 1917, in Gwinnett County, Georgia.

Mr. CROWE. I respectfully decline to answer that question upon the grounds previously—based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Crowe, where do you currently reside?

Mr. CROWE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, sir, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you currently reside at 2044 Second Avenue, Decatur, Georgia.

Mr. CROWE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Crowe, are you appearing today before the committee in response to a subpoena served upon you on the 13th day of October 1965, at 2044 Second Avenue, Decatur, Georgia, by Chief Deputy Marshal Leonard Herndon?

Mr. CHALMERS. It is so stipulated, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Crowe, paragraph 1 of the subpoena served upon you requires you to produce:

All books, records, documents, correspondence and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and affiliated organizations, namely, the Alabama Rescue Service, Georgia Rescue Service and State Men's Club in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by you or available to you as a member, former member and/or demolition instructor of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

I now ask you, sir, to produce those documents as outlined in paragraph 1.

Mr. CROWE. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by the committee under subpoena dated October 13, 1965, for the information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents as demanded by the committee in the subpoena dated October 13, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Chalmers, I offer the following stipulation: That the witness has been furnished a copy of the chairman's opening statement of October 19, 1965, and that he is familiar with its contents; that the directions of the subpoena to produce the documents called for are made to the witness in the official representative capacity described within the subpoena.

Is that agreed to?

Mr. CHALMERS. It is so stipulated.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Crowe, the committee does not accept your reasons for failing to produce those documents, and I therefore order and direct you to produce them.

Mr. CROWE. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee the documents demanded and ordered by the committee based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Crowe, paragraph 2 of your subpoena calls upon you to produce:

All books, records, documents, correspondence and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of Nacirema, Inc., in your possession, custody or control or available to you as a member or former member of Nacirema, Inc.

Mr. CROWE. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee the documents demanded and ordered by the committee based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. The same stipulation is agreed to?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Crowe, I order and direct you to produce the documents.

Mr. CROWE. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee the documents demanded and ordered by the committee based upon grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Crowe, do you have a criminal record with the Atlanta Police Department?

Mr. CROWE. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel that my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by the amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. MANUEL. Sir, the records of the Atlanta Police Department reflect that as far back as the year 1941 you escaped from the city stockade; in 1942 you escaped from the city of Atlanta jail; in 1948 you were arrested on a charge of drunk and disorderly in a room with a woman; on April 3, 1950, you were arrested for pointing a pistol at another and resisting arrest.

Is this true, sir?

Mr. CROWE. I respectfully decline to answer that question upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Crowe, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that as of October 1961 you were both a member of the United Klans of America and a member of NACIREMA, INC.

Mr. CROWE. I respectfully decline to answer upon the ground previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Crowe, as a member of the Ku Klux Klan, have you ever given instructions to other Klansmen, including Grand Dragon Calvin Craig and Imperial Wizard Robert Shelton, on the use of explosives and demolition devices?

Mr. CROWE. I respectfully decline to answer that question upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, sir, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that in October 1961, on a farm belonging to a person named O. C. Mixon, outside of the city of Macon, Georgia, on Route 49, you acted as an instructor for a school for Klansmen in explosion and demolition.

Mr. CROWE. I respectfully decline to answer that question on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Further, I put it to you as a fact that your instruction to Klansmen was given in six phases. The first phase was how to set up a booby trap using a mercury switch taken from an old washing machine, flashlight batteries, wire, and dynamite.

The demonstration was given showing how these materials can be rigged to explode whenever an object is moved.

Mr. CROWE. I respectfully decline—

The CHAIRMAN. Wait a minute.

Mr. MANUEL. I ask you to affirm or deny the fact that you did give that particular demonstration to Klansmen.

Mr. CROWE. I respectfully decline to answer the question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Crowe, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that throughout this demonstration you were assisted by William Anderson.

Mr. CROWE. I respectfully decline to answer the question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Crowe, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you knew Mr. Anderson to be a member of the United Klans of America and a member of NACIREMA, INC.

Mr. CROWE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Crowe, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that in the second phase of your demonstration you showed Klansmen how to rig various types of fuse caps to dynamite in preparation for exploding the dynamite.

In connection with this instruction, two types of fuses were demonstrated. One type was for the detonation of dynamite using an electrical spark obtained from a flashlight battery, and the other type was a safety fuse which detonates the dynamite by lighting the fuse which in turn sets off the dynamite.

You demonstrated at this time various types of this fuse, showing various speeds at which they can be employed.

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you did instruct Klansmen as I have explained in this second phase of the demonstration.

Mr. CROWE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Crowe, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that in the third phase of your demonstration you showed Klansmen how to rig an explosive charge that will give 3 or 4 minutes' getaway time. In this demonstration you used a piece of board about 2 feet long and 6 inches wide. A stick of dynamite was taped to one end of the board with black friction tape. A short piece of the safety fuse was attached to the stick of dynamite, and immediately in front of this fuse was placed a wad of cotton impregnated with cigarette lighter fluid. A book of matches was then taped to the board in front of the cotton.

To explode the dynamite, you placed a lighted cigarette between the matches in the matchbook. When the cigarette burned down, it ignited the matches which, in turn, ignited the cotton, which, in turn, ignited the fuse.

In the demonstration which took place of this method, the explosion took place between 5 and 6 minutes after the lighted cigarette was placed.

Sir, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, you did so instruct Klansmen.

Mr. CROWE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds stated previously.

Mr. MANUEL. In the fourth phase of your demonstration, you showed how to start an intense fire in an automobile, house, or building. In demonstrating this method you took a small medicine bottle, about 2 inches long, which was about two-thirds full of a powdery substance. You stated to the Klansmen that this substance was powdered sugar and potassium chlorate.

You then took a gelatin capsule and placed therein one or two drops of sulphuric acid. You then instructed that this acid can be obtained from the battery of an automobile. You then dropped the gelatin capsule containing the acid into the medicine bottle and loosely replaced the lid.

About 5 minutes later the bottle burst into an intense blue flame which lasted for several minutes. During this demonstration you talked of the possibilities of using this type of device in department stores who integrate their eating facilities. You said that a man could easily try on a new suit and leave one of these devices in the pocket.

Is that a truthful recounting of what you said on that day, at that time?

Mr. CROWE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Did you so instruct persons whom you knew to be members of the United Klans of America as outlined in phase No. 4?

Mr. CROWE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. The fifth phase of your demonstration was how to destroy an automobile with simple, easy to obtain materials. For this demonstration you used a quart fruit jar, half filled with gasoline. You used adhesive tape to tape a 2-inch firecracker to the side of this jar, then lit the firecracker and threw the jar into the back seat of a junked automobile which was being used for this particular demonstration.

When the firecracker exploded, 2 or 3 seconds later, it burst the fruit jar and threw gasoline fumes over the inside of the automobile which, in turn, exploded.

This explosion and fire was so intense that you stated that no person would have a chance to escape from that automobile.

I put it to you as a fact, sir, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you did so instruct Klansmen as I have outlined in phase 5.

Mr. CROWE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. The sixth phase of your explosion demonstration was how to explode a type of fertilizer used by farmers known as sodium phosphate.

I put it to you as a fact, sir, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you did so instruct Klansmen.

Mr. CROWE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Crowe, I would like to ask you to explain to the committee exactly what was your purpose in instructing Klansmen in the use of dynamite and detonation devices?

Mr. CROWE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds stated previously.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, sir, that you conducted this demonstration with the knowledge and consent of Grand Dragon Calvin F. Craig of the Realm of Georgia and the Imperial Wizard of the United Klans of America, Robert M. Shelton.

Mr. CROWE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Crowe, I would like for you to explain to the committee exactly what your background is in explosion and demolition devices.

Mr. CROWE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, the staff has no further questions of this witness.

Mr. POOL. In view of the facts that have been brought forth by Mr. Manuel, and they are very serious facts and very seriously attack your reputation, do you have anything to tell this committee in your own words?

Mr. CROWE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, I would like to ask the witness whether he and John Brock, the previous witness before the committee, William Anderson, Robert Allison Day, and Billy Wilson were arrested on the 16th day of March 1963 for operating a disorderly house at 2666 Kelley Lake Road, Atlanta, Georgia?

Mr. CROWE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, sir, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that that address, 2666 Kelley Lake Road, was the address of a Klavern of the United Klans of America, Inc.

Mr. CROWE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, sir, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you knew William Anderson, John Brock, and Robert Day, to be members of the United Klans of America at that time.

Mr. CROWE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, the staff has no further questions of this witness.

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Crowe, I have heard the testimony by the investigator concerning the use of demolitions and explosions. I know of no reason that these instructions would be given other than the willful taking of human lives.

If there is some other reason, I would appreciate your telling me. I wonder if you would tell us, please, is there any reason for these instructions other than the taking of human lives?

Mr. CROWE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. WELTNER. No further questions.

Mr. POOL. Mr. Chairman?

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Pool.

Mr. POOL. Maybe you can answer that question before the television cameras, then.

That is not a question. I am just pointing that out.

The CHAIRMAN. The witness is excused and discharged from his subpoena.

Call your next witness, Mr. Manuel.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, the staff would like to call next Mr. William Anderson.

The CHAIRMAN. Please raise your right hand.

You do solemnly swear that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mr. ANDERSON. I do.

TESTIMONY OF WILLIAM ALLISON ANDERSON, ACCOMPANIED BY COUNSEL, LESTER V. CHALMERS, JR.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Anderson, would you please state your full name for the committee?

Mr. ANDERSON. William Allison Anderson.

Mr. MANUEL. When and where were you born, sir?

Mr. ANDERSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. MANUEL. Now, Mr. Anderson, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you were born on August 10, 1916, in Atlanta, Georgia.

Mr. ANDERSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Anderson, are you represented by counsel, sir?

Mr. ANDERSON. Yes.

Mr. MANUEL. Will counsel please identify himself for the record?

Mr. CHALMERS. I am Lester V. Chalmers, Jr., attorney at law, Room 501, First Federal Building, Raleigh, North Carolina.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Anderson, where do you currently reside?

Mr. ANDERSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Anderson, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you reside at 3444 Orchard Circle, in Decatur, Georgia.

Mr. ANDERSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Anderson, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that as of October 1961, you were a member of the United Klans of America, Realm of Georgia, and also a member of an organization previously identified as NACIREMA, INC.

Mr. ANDERSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Anderson, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that as of March 1964, you were a member of the Imperial Klokann Committee of an organization known as the Improved Order of U.S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, which has its headquarters in Lithonia, Georgia.

Mr. ANDERSON. I respectfully decline to answer the question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Anderson, are you appearing before the committee today in response to a subpoena served upon you at 10:15 o'clock p.m. on the 9th day of October 1965 by Marshal Herndon?

Mr. CHALMERS. Mr. Chairman, it is so stipulated with respect to the subpoena, that he is here as a result of being served with a subpoena.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Anderson, your subpoena in paragraph 1 calls upon you to produce:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and affiliated organizations, namely, the Alabama Rescue Service, Georgia Rescue Service and State Men's Club, in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by you or available to you as a member, former member, or demolition instructor of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

I ask you now, sir, to produce the documents called for in paragraph 1 of your subpoena.

Mr. ANDERSON. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by the committee under subpoena dated October 9, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents as demanded by the committee in subpoena dated October 9, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Chalmers, I offer to make the following stipulation: (1) That the witness has been furnished a copy of the chairman's opening statement of October 19, 1965, and that he is familiar with its contents; (2) that the directions in the subpoena to produce the documents called for are made to the witness in the official representative capacity described in the subpoena.

Is the stipulation agreed to?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Anderson, the committee does not agree that you have the right to refuse to produce these documents and I therefore order and direct you to produce them.

Mr. ANDERSON. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee the documents demanded and ordered by the committee based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. I think that the record ought to show that the witness throughout has been replying, or refusing to reply, to the questions by invoking his privileges indicated by a slow reading to him, and repeating by him, from his counsel. I say that because it is obvious that the witness has very little education.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Anderson, paragraph 2 of your subpoena calls upon you to produce:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by or available to you, in your capacity as present or former member of the Imperial Klokkan Committee of the Improved Order of the U.S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan which the "Constitution and Laws" of said organization authorize and require to be maintained by you and any other officer of said organization, the same being in your possession, custody or control.

I now ask you, sir, to produce the documents as outlined in paragraph 2 of your subpoena.

Mr. ANDERSON. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee the documents demanded and ordered by the committee based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Is the stipulation previously made agreed to?

Mr. CHALMERS. With respect to paragraph 2; yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Anderson, I order and direct you to produce those documents.

Mr. ANDERSON. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee the documents demanded and ordered by the committee based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Anderson, paragraph 3 of your subpoena calls upon you to produce:

All books, records, documents, correspondence and memoranda relating to the organization of and conduct of business and affairs of Nacirema, Inc., in your possession, custody or control or available to you as a member or former member of Nacirema, Inc.

I now ask you, sir, to produce the documents as called for in paragraph 3.

Mr. ANDERSON. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee the documents demanded and ordered by the committee based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. CHALMERS. The same stipulation, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. The same stipulation is agreed to.

I, accordingly, order you, Mr. Anderson, to produce those documents.

Mr. ANDERSON. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee the documents demanded and ordered by the committee based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Anderson, as a member of the United Klans of America, Inc., and also as a member of NACIREMA, INC., in the month of August 1961 did you assist Mr. William Crowe, the previous witness before this committee, in the instruction of explosives and demolition devices to persons known to you to be members of the United Klans of America?

Mr. ANDERSON. I respectfully—

Mr. MANUEL. If I said August, Mr. Chairman, I meant October.

Mr. ANDERSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Anderson, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that this demolition school was held at a farm owned by Mr. O. C. Mixon, and the farm was known as Klansmen's Hill, and it was located approximately 9 miles northeast of Macon, Georgia, on Route 49.

Mr. ANDERSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Anderson, what is your background in the instruction of demolition and explosive devices?

Mr. ANDERSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Anderson, what was your purpose in instructing persons known to you to be members of the Ku Klux Klan organization in the art of demolition and explosion devices?

Mr. ANDERSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Anderson, were you in the room when the previous witness before the committee, Mr. William Crowe, testified?

Mr. ANDERSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Will counsel stipulate that Mr. Anderson was in the room and heard the questions propounded to the previous witness, William Crowe?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Anderson, during the testimony of Mr. Crowe, I read into the record six separate and distinct phases of demolition and explosion instruction which committee investigation has established Mr. Crowe and yourself were the instructors for, for persons known to you to be members of the United Klans of America.

I wish to ask you at this point, Was the result of the committee investigation in this regard correct?

Mr. ANDERSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Anderson, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that present at this instruction were the Grand Dragon of the Realm of Georgia, Calvin Craig, and the Imperial Wizard of the United Klans of America, Robert M. Shelton.

Mr. ANDERSON. I respectfully decline to answer the question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, sir, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you instructed Klansmen as outlined in the committee investigation with the full knowledge and consent of Mr. Craig and Mr. Shelton.

Mr. ANDERSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Anderson, a report of the DeKalb County Police Department indicates that on the 16th day of March 1963, you, Mr. John L. Brock, Mr. Robert Allison Day, and Mr. William Crowe and Mr. Billy Wilson were arrested at 2666 Kelley Lake Road, Atlanta, Georgia, on the charge of maintaining a disorderly house. Is the report of the DeKalb County Police Department correct, sir?

Mr. ANDERSON. I respectfully decline to answer the question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, sir, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the address 2666 Kelley Lake Road, Atlanta, Georgia, is known to you to be a meeting place of a Klavern of the Ku Klux Klan organization.

Mr. ANDERSON. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Anderson, to your direct knowledge, has anyone ever been expelled, including yourself, from membership in the United Klans of America for participation in violent action?

Mr. ANDERSON. I respectfully decline to answer the question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, the staff has no further questions of this witness.

Mr. POOL. I have none.

Mr. WELTNER. No questions.

Mr. BUCHANAN. No questions, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. The witness is excused and released from his subpoena.

All exhibits referred to, identified, and submitted to the witnesses will, of course, as usual, be inserted in the record at the points where they were brought up.

The committee will stand in recess until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

(Subcommittee members present at time of recess: Representatives Willis, Pool, Weltner, and Buchanan.)

(Whereupon, at 4:10 p.m., Monday, November 1, 1965, the subcommittee recessed, to reconvene at 10 a.m., Tuesday, November 2, 1965.)

Mr. BLACKWELL. Well, we had Ku Klux Klan men and also Negroes demonstrating in Griffin at the same time.

Mr. MANUEL. Prior to that demonstration, would you tell the committee what the activity of the Ku Klux Klan was in Griffin, Georgia, as your department knows it?

(At this point Representative Pool entered the hearing room.)

Mr. BLACKWELL. Up until that time I didn't know very much about the Klan. I knew that they had a Klavern there in Griffin. I knew where they met. I knew four or five members, but as to anything about their meetings and so on, I didn't know that.

Mr. MANUEL. Prior to April of 1964, very briefly, would you tell the committee what the activities of these known Ku Klux Klan members were?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Well, the one I knew the best worked at a meat packing place and then his father was a night watchman at the Spalding Junior High School.

Mr. MANUEL. What was the name of the Ku Klux Klan group in Griffin?

Mr. BLACKWELL. It is Ku Klux Klan—I believe it is Number 25.

Mr. MANUEL. Was that Spalding County Unit No. 25?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Did you know this unit to be part of the United Klans of America?

Mr. BLACKWELL. I didn't know for sure. I found out since that it was.

Mr. MANUEL. You found out subsequent to April of 1964?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. In April of 1964, was Griffin, Georgia, the site of some civil rights demonstrations?

Mr. BLACKWELL. It was; yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Would you please explain to the committee the activity that took place in Griffin, Georgia, at that time?

Mr. BLACKWELL. On April 24, 1964, at about 2 o'clock in the afternoon, my office received a call that somebody was burning a cross in front of the Cleanwell Pressing Club, which is a Negro establishment, owned and operated by two brothers.

The CHAIRMAN. What were the names of the two brothers?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Raymond and Otis Head.

Mr. MANUEL. Were the two Head brothers Negroes?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Proceed.

Mr. BLACKWELL. One of my detectives and I got in a car and started over there. We went about two blocks out of the way, because we got the wrong location to begin with, and by the time we got back to this Cleanwell establishment, the fire department had already gotten to the establishment and put out the cross. It was still standing in the street, but it had been extinguished.

Another captain, one of my captains, and his partner had arrived at the scene before we did, and he had found out from a witness the tag number of the automobile involved.

The CHAIRMAN. Would you put the microphone a little closer to you, Chief?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir.

We immediately broadcast a notice to all the other cars to be on the lookout for this car. We gave the tag number and description and so on.

In the meantime, we found out there was a second car involved. At that particular time we didn't know the second car was involved.

After about 30 minutes searching for these two cars, we found them both parked in front of the Newton Coal and Lumber Company, which is across the street from the Klan headquarters and a half block north. From standing on the ground, we could see in the cars and see what we thought was a Thompson submachine gun.

I stationed a lieutenant with these two cars and told him not to let anybody bother them. I and two other captains went across the street to the Klan's headquarters and went up. It was upstairs, up over a dry goods store.

When we got to the head of the stairs, we saw a man run in a restroom and one of my captains went in the restroom behind him. From a description that we had received at the scene, we arrested him.

Mr. MANUEL. Who was that man?

Mr. BLACKWELL. That was a man named Mr. McGriff.

Mr. MANUEL. What is his first name, his full name?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Colbert Raymond McGriff.

Mr. MANUEL. At this point, Chief, did you know Mr. McGriff to be a member of the local Ku Klux Klan unit in Griffin?

Mr. BLACKWELL. No, sir. I didn't know him at all at that time.

Mr. MANUEL. He was a stranger to you?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. But he was at the Ku Klux Klan meeting hall?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes; he was at the meeting hall.

Mr. MANUEL. Proceed with the incident.

Mr. BLACKWELL. From a description of the second party, we arrested a Mr. Oliver Curtis Sanders.

Mr. MANUEL. Did you know Mr. Sanders to be a member of the local Ku Klux Klan unit?

Mr. BLACKWELL. No, sir. I didn't know him at all.

Mr. MANUEL. All right.

Mr. BLACKWELL. Then we went back downstairs to—we placed these two men under arrest—we went back downstairs and over to the automobile. I sent one of my captains over to get a search warrant, or two search warrants for these automobiles. In the meantime, we called a wrecker and had them impounded.

We carried the automobiles to the police department and they were locked so we got a locksmith and told him to make a key where we could get into the cars. When we did get into the cars—

Mr. MANUEL. These were the cars in which you had observed what looked like, to you, a submachine gun?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir. When we got into the cars we found all this arsenal of guns and so on. There was some Ku Klux Klan robes and there was a briefcase, I believe, with some of their records.

Mr. MANUEL. Whom did the briefcase belong to?

Mr. BLACKWELL. It belonged to Mr. McGriff.

Mr. MANUEL. What did the briefcase contain?

Mr. BLACKWELL. I didn't examine it too close. I remember one place in there he had had authority to establish or set up a Klavern in Dothan, Alabama, I believe. It has a list of some people there who had made applications to join the Klan.

Mr. MANUEL. Did the material contained in the briefcase give Mr. McGriff the power to be an organizer for the United Klans of America?

Mr. BLACKWELL. It did; yes, sir.

We placed these men in jail and charged them with disorderly conduct because our statute says anything that is detrimental to the morals, safety, and welfare of our people does constitute disorderly conduct.

Mr. MANUEL. Chief, do your records reflect who were the owners of the cars from which you took the arms?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Would you please give that information to the committee?

Mr. BLACKWELL. A 1956 Chevrolet, bearing Georgia license 1-3055, belonged to Mr. Bayne.

Mr. MANUEL. Give his full name.

Mr. BLACKWELL. Allen Lee Bayne.

Mr. MANUEL. At that time did you know Mr. Bayne to be a member of the local Griffin Unit?

Mr. BLACKWELL. No, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Proceed.

Mr. BLACKWELL. The second automobile belonged to a Mr. Carlyle, Mr. Thomas Royce Carlyle.

Mr. MANUEL. Did you know Mr. Carlyle to be a member of the local Griffin Unit?

Mr. BLACKWELL. No, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. As to the first two people you referred to previously, you said you didn't even know them at all?

Mr. BLACKWELL. No, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. How about these two? Did you know them individually, or did you just not know them as members of the Klan?

Mr. BLACKWELL. I didn't know them at all. They didn't live in Griffin.

The CHAIRMAN. They did not live in Griffin?

Mr. BLACKWELL. No, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. This was prior to the arrest, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. All right.

Mr. MANUEL. Was there another person arrested at that time, Chief?

Mr. BLACKWELL. No, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. I believe you have given the names of four. You have said so far McGriff, Bayne, Carlyle, and Sanders. Was there another?

Mr. BLACKWELL. John Max Mitchell.

Mr. MANUEL. Did you know John Max Mitchell to be a member of the Klan group from Griffin, Georgia?

Mr. BLACKWELL. No, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Again, do you mean you didn't know him at all?

Mr. BLACKWELL. I didn't know him at all; no, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. That is prior to the arrest.

Chief Blackwell, could you give the committee a brief description of the activities of these people prior to their arrest, what they did?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Well, we don't know except, when they were tried, one man—Mr. Mitchell—wanted to make a sworn statement. Of course, when he wished to make a sworn statement, that threw him open for cross-examination. In the questioning by the city recorder, we found out these men had spent the night previously at his place in a county below us, Lamar County.

Mr. MANUEL. Is that in the vicinity of Barnesville?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes. Barnesville is the county seat of Lamar County. They got up that day and came to Griffin and ate lunch on the way up there, and got into Griffin 30 or 40 minutes before this thing happened. Like I say, none of us knew them. We didn't know these people.

The CHAIRMAN. Chief, you said that an individual you named wanted to make a sworn statement and that threw him open to cross-examination. In other words, having volunteered the statement, then you could cross-examine him to find out the facts?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir; that is right.

Mr. MANUEL. Chief, at the time of these five persons being arrested, did you identify them as members of the Ku Klux Klan?

Mr. BLACKWELL. We did, by their paraphernalia in the car.

Mr. MANUEL. And this photograph which you have provided to the committee shows that in the car there was a sign stating "Spalding Co. Klan No. 25, K.K.K.K."; is that correct?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir; that was found in one of the cars.

(Photograph marked "Leo Blackwell Exhibit No. 1." This exhibit will be reproduced in a forthcoming report in Klan organizations.)

Mr. MANUEL. Would you give the committee a full description, as your records reflect, of the arms that were taken from the cars belonging to Mr. Bayne and Mr. Carlyle?

Mr. BLACKWELL. There were three .45 caliber guns similar to a Thompson submachine gun, only it won't shoot automatic fire. It shoots single fire. It is a replica of a Thompson submachine gun. There were three of those. Each one had three clips taped together. Each clip held 50 rounds. They were taped together so that when one was shot out, he could eject it, turn it over and put it back in the gun and shoot 50 more.

Mr. MANUEL. So each submachine gun was capable of shooting 150 rounds single action?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir.

There was one German-made rifle, a .30 caliber rifle, with almost a full case of ammunition.

There were two English .38 caliber pistols. That is the type that breaks down from the top.

There were two Smith & Wesson pistols, one with a 4-inch barrel and the other with a 2-inch barrel.

There was one Army Colt .45 automatic pistol.

There was one Harrington & Richardson .22 caliber pistol.

One .357 Magnum made on the old frontier style.

Mr. POOL. The 2-inch revolver was a .38?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir; in this instance it was.

There were several hundred rounds of ammunition. There were two little, cheap, handy talkie radio sets, little cheap radios that one could walkie-talk to the other one, like our radio.

There were several Klan robes. I don't remember, but there were four or five robes in those two cars. I have a picture of them. There were two signs bearing what you just mentioned, two KKK signs, Spalding County No. 25, one in each car.

There was a little, small black case of papers that belonged to Mr. McGriff. That was about the extent.

Mr. MANUEL. Did your investigation reveal that any of the five persons arrested used these guns to intimidate any individual?

Mr. BLACKWELL. From witnesses at the scene, McGriff sat in the back seat of the first car with one of these guns in his lap and pointed it.

Mr. MANUEL. Which gun did he have?

Mr. BLACKWELL. He had one of these .45 guns made like a submachine gun.

Mr. MANUEL. So actually it looked like a submachine gun?

Mr. BLACKWELL. It looked like a submachine gun.

Mr. MANUEL. And fully operated?

Mr. BLACKWELL. He held this gun on some people in front of the Cleanwell Pressing Club while some other people got out of the car and set up the cross, pouring gasoline or spirits on them and setting it afire, according to the witnesses.

Mr. MANUEL. Who were the two men who set up the cross and set fire to the cross?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Mr. Bayne was the driver of the car. He and Mr. Sanders set the cross up. Mr. McGriff sat in the back seat and kept these people covered with a gun. Mr. Carlyle and Mr. Mitchell were in the second car, the car behind the first car, keeping anybody from getting up close to them. They fled the scene immediately after they fired the cross.

Mr. MANUEL. Chief, did your investigation reveal why these Klansmen picked the Cleanwell Pressing Club as a site to burn a cross at?

Mr. BLACKWELL. We don't know for sure. We think probably it was done because these two brothers, Raymond and Otis Head, are members of a biracial committee there in Griffin and they had been in meetings with white people. If that wasn't the reason, then we don't know why.

Mr. MANUEL. Would you please give the committee a brief description of the picketing that was going on in Griffin at the time? Were there Negroes involved in picketing various business establishments at that time in Griffin, Georgia?

Mr. BLACKWELL. The first picketing we had was a group of Negro boys and girls. They must have been the age of 17, 18, or 19 years old. They were picketing two local chains, five-and-ten-cent stores, because their lunchrooms were not integrated. They picketed, I would say, 2 or 3 weeks, just maybe a couple of hours at a time, and skip a couple of days and come back and picket again. Then the Klansmen began to picket Raymond Head's place, this Cleanwell Pressing Club.

Mr. MANUEL. How many Klansmen were involved in the picketing?

Mr. BLACKWELL. I don't believe there was ever over four at a time.

Mr. MANUEL. At the time the picketing first started, were the Klansmen involved in this action members of the local Griffin Unit?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir; the ones that did the picketing were local. We knew those.

Mr. MANUEL. Likewise, were the Negroes involved in the picketing of the several business establishments—did your investigation determine that they were local persons from Griffin, Georgia?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes; they were local people.

Then it reached the point where the Klan and the Negroes were both picketing. In the meantime, these two stores did integrate their lunch counters. Then the Klan began picketing the stores because they had integrated their lunch counters. We had Klansmen and Negroes picketing at the same time, and in some instances I suppose it was an auxiliary of the Klan, women picketing with the men.

Mr. MANUEL. At this time, Chief, did your department take photographs of both the Negro demonstrators and the Klan demonstrators?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Would you please exhibit them now to the committee?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir.

(Photographs marked "Leo Blackwell Exhibit No. 2," and retained in committee files.)

Mr. BLACKWELL. I don't have but one picture of the Klan. I can identify three men in that picture. That one was made in front of the Cleanwell Pressing Club.

Mr. MANUEL. And the Cleanwell Pressing Club was the site of the cross-burning?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir.

These are pictures of Negroes picketing the two local establishments.

Mr. MANUEL. What precautions did your department take at the time of the initial picketing to see that there was no violence between the Klan group and the Negro group?

Mr. BLACKWELL. I stationed two men at each end. They walked, I would say 100 yards and would turn around and come back. I stationed two men at each end to see that nobody bothered them and to see that they bothered nobody. We stayed with them as long as they picketed.

Mr. MANUEL. How long had the picketing been going on before the arrest of these five individuals whom you have described?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Do you mean that day?

Mr. MANUEL. In a period of time. In the month of April.

Mr. BLACKWELL. I would say they had been walking picket for 3 or 4 months, something like that, just occasionally. Not too often; just occasionally.

Mr. MANUEL. During that time, did your department have any indication that violence would take place?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Well, we didn't know. I sent these men over there to stay with them just in case they did. We didn't have any idea anything was going to happen, because up until then it had always been peaceful.

Mr. MANUEL. The trouble that did occur was because of Klansmen who came into Griffin from outside the Griffin area; is that correct?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir; that is correct.

Mr. MANUEL. The day on which these people were arrested was a Saturday; is that correct?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Saturday afternoon; yes.

Mr. MAUEL. That night, did the prisoners receive any visitors?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir. There was three people that came down and visited them. A Mr. Bing.

Mr. MANUEL. Robert L. Bing?

Mr. BLACKWELL. I don't know. I don't remember his name. I just remember it was Bing. And Mr. Craig and Mr. Bailey.

Mr. MANUEL. At the time Mr. Craig visited the jail, did you know him to be the Grand Dragon of the State of Georgia for the United Klans of America?

Mr. BLACKWELL. I knew he was Grand Dragon, but I didn't know him. That was the first time I met him.

Mr. MANUEL. Who was the third individual?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Mr. Bailey. He is a lawyer from Jonesboro, I believe.

Mr. MANUEL. He was a lawyer from Jonesboro.

Did these individuals introduce themselves as Klansmen?

Mr. BLACKWELL. I don't believe they introduced themselves as Klansmen. Mr. Bailey introduced himself as a lawyer, and I believe he said he would represent them. I don't remember that he introduced himself as a Klansman.

Mr. MANUEL. At the time they visited your jail, did they state the purpose of their visit?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Would you please tell the committee what they told you or what you heard?

Mr. BLACKWELL. They said they wanted to come down to find out what the men were charged with and how much the bond was and to see about getting them out of jail.

Mr. MANUEL. At that time did they give any indication that the men involved and arrested were members of the United Klans of America?

Mr. BLACKWELL. I don't remember if they did. I don't remember if they did or not.

Mr. MANUEL. Did they make any active attempt to get these persons released from jail?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. What were their activities in that regard?

Mr. BLACKWELL. We set bond on them, and these men stayed in jail for about a week. About a week later a local bondsman made bond for them. We set their bond at, I believe it was $800 each, and one of our requirements is that a person who signs the bond must live in the city of Griffin and own property or be a licensed bondsman. It took about a week, I believe, to get somebody to set the bond.

Mr. MANUEL. Regarding the person who was arrested named Colbert Raymond McGriff, what investigation did your department make of his background?

Mr. BLACKWELL. We fingerprinted him and sent it to Washington, and he didn't have a record with the Bureau.

Mr. MANUEL. Did you determine his address at that time, where he was from?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir. He gave his address as Fulton County.

Mr. MANUEL. Fulton County, Georgia?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Regarding the defendant Allen Lee Bayne, what investigation did your department do on his background?

Mr. BLACKWELL. We fingerprinted him and sent his prints to Washington. They sent us back his complete record.

Mr. MANUEL. Would you give the committee the results of that investigation?

Mr. BLACKWELL. The first time Mr. Bayne had been fingerprinted was in 1945. He was investigated for burglary and released. That was in Gadsden, Alabama.

The next time he was fingerprinted was in November 1945, investigated for burglary and grand larceny. It says here in the disposition he was turned over to the State. I don't know from there on what happened to him.

The next time he was fingerprinted was in 1946 and they listed him as a "Navy-Straggler" and he was turned over to the Navy.

The next time he was fingerprinted was in February 1947, charged with theft of an auto, and it states here he was turned over to the State.

Then the next three times he was fingerprinted, in the Department of Corrections in Montgomery. On December 10, 1947, it states here that he received 18 months 10 days for—I guess that is auto theft. He escaped from prison September 13, 1948, and was recaptured September 19, 1948, and was discharged on June 7, 1949.

Then on July 12—no, on March 9, 1949, he was fingerprinted in Montgomery, Alabama, and he received 3 years there for something. It doesn't state in here what for. It says 3 years in the disposition.

Then in 1952, on June 22, 1952, attempted burglary. It says "Hold for Etowah County, Alabama." It doesn't have what happened out of that.

Then the State Board of Corrections at Montgomery, Alabama, fingerprinted him in 1952 and he received 6 months 57 days. I presume that was in connection with this burglary case up there.

Then grand larceny and burglary. He was admitted to the State Board of Corrections in Montgomery, Alabama, in 1952, on a 3-year 1-day term.

Then during that time he escaped and they apprehended him. On July 29, 1957, he received 13 months for escape, it says here on the FBI record.

The next time he was fingerprinted is when we fingerprinted him in Griffin on this cross-burning.

The CHAIRMAN. Who is that individual you are talking about?

Mr. BLACKWELL. That is Allen Lee Bayne.

Mr. MANUEL. And at the time of your first meeting with Allen Lee Bayne he was engaged in an act of intimidation against Negroes as a member of the United Klans of America; is that correct, Chief?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir. That is the first time I met him.

Mr. MANUEL. With further regard to Colbert Raymond McGriff, who you said had no criminal background in Washington, what was his age at the time of arrest?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Twenty years old.

Mr. MANUEL. He was 20 years old?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. And Mr. McGriff was the one who had papers in one of the cars which stated or in effect made him an organizer for the United Klans of America; is that correct, sir?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Now with regard to the defendant Thomas Royce Carlyle, what investigation did you make of his background?

Mr. BLACKWELL. He didn't have a record.

Mr. MANUEL. Before leaving Mr. Bayne, what address did you establish for Mr. Bayne at the time of his arrest?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Fulton County. That is the city of Atlanta.

Mr. MANUEL. Thomas Royce Carlyle did not have any criminal background; is that correct?

Mr. BLACKWELL. No, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. What was his age at the time of arrest?

Mr. BLACKWELL. That was Carlyle?

Mr. MANUEL. Yes, sir.

Mr. BLACKWELL. He gave his age as 28.

Mr. MANUEL. And what was his address?

Mr. BLACKWELL. DeKalb County, Georgia. That is Decatur, that is the county seat of that county.

Mr. MANUEL. With regard to the defendant Oliver Curtis Sanders, what investigation did you make of his background?

Mr. BLACKWELL. He had been fingerprinted one time in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, and he was charged with D&S. I don't know what that is.¹ In the disposition he was released.

Mr. MANUEL. And what age was he at the time of arrest?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Fifty-four.

Mr. MANUEL. With regard to the defendant John Max Mitchell, what investigation did your department make of his background?

Mr. BLACKWELL. He didn't have a record.

Mr. MANUEL. And what was his address at the time of arrest?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Lamar County, Georgia. That would be Barnesville, about 14 miles south of Griffin.

Mr. MANUEL. What address did you establish for Oliver Sanders?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Monroe County; between Griffin and Macon.

Mr. MANUEL. Chief Blackwell, would you please explain to the committee what was the disposition of this case? What happened after they were placed in jail?

Mr. BLACKWELL. They were tried by our city recorder, and he found them guilty and fined them $505 or 10 months. They filed an appeal to superior court. The superior court judge heard the appeal and sent it back to our court.

In the meantime, due to the fact that two of our witnesses had gone—one of these witnesses was a Negro soldier and he was stationed in Germany—and due to that fact they worked out a plan with our city attorney to let them place $100 cash money as a bond and forfeit the bond in city recorder's court.

Mr. MANUEL. Would you further describe the Negro soldier whom you have just mentioned, and what was his connection with this case?

Mr. BLACKWELL. He had gone into this Cleanwell Pressing Club for some reason and started out the door. That was just as these men got out of the car to burn the cross. McGriff covered him with one of these guns and told him to be still, and he did.

Mr. MANUEL. Did he point the weapon right at this Negro soldier?

Mr. BLACKWELL. According to the Negro soldier he did.

Mr. MANUEL. What was the name of the Negro soldier?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Robert C. Brown. He lived at 549 North Sixth Street in Griffin, but at that time he was stationed here in Washington, D.C., and he was in the act of being transferred to Germany.

Mr. MANUEL. And at the time the trial came up, he was unavailable as a witness; is that correct?

Mr. BLACKWELL. The last trial. We held him over in the first trial. He appeared against them in the first trial, but we had to try them again later, after this testimony, and we couldn't get to him at that time. We couldn't get him home.

Mr. MANUEL. You mentioned two trials. Would you please give the committee the results of the second trial?

Mr. BLACKWELL. We charged each one of them with a State statute of pointing a gun at a person. We tried McGriff because we had the best case against him. We tried McGriff in court. It resulted in a mistrial. There was nine members of the jury to find him guilty and three for acquitting him. So it ended up in a mistrial.

Mr. MANUEL. Chief, who served as the attorney for these five defendants in both trials?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Mr. Bailey, from Jonesboro, started the trial with the city, and Mr. Venable, James Venable, came in a little later and he took up the trial, and both together represented the defendants.

Mr. MANUEL. What were the results of the second trial that was held?

Mr. BLACKWELL. The second trial was the one that was held in the State court for pointing a gun, and they both represented them in that. Then the third part of it was nothing to that part except they forfeited $100 bond in court for the disorderly conduct part in connection with the city.

Mr. MANUEL. What happened to the weapons that were confiscated by your department?

Mr. BLACKWELL. They obtained a court order, and we had to turn them back to them.

Mr. MANUEL. This was after the action of the third trial?

Mr. BLACKWELL. After the bond forfeiture in the third case.

Mr. MANUEL. Chief, going back to the original Saturday, April 24, 1964, when this incident took place and you confiscated these arms which you have described, was the fact that these individuals had these arms a violation of the law at that time?

Mr. BLACKWELL. I couldn't say for sure that it would have been a violation. If these weapons had been automatic weapons, it would have been violation of Federal law. But we couldn't find any law where it was a violation of the law for them to possess them.

Mr. MANUEL. In other words, your understanding is that existing Georgia law indicates that possession of this type of weapons in the manner that they were possessed is not a violation as of the time of the arrest; is that correct?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Chief, what happened to these men after they were released from jail?

Mr. BLACKWELL. They came back—do you mean on bond?

Mr. MANUEL. Yes, sir.

Mr. BLACKWELL. I didn't ever see them any more until the day of the trial.

Mr. MANUEL. Has your investigation established that after release from jail they remained members of the United Klans of America?

Mr. BLACKWELL. I don't know that, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Do you have knowledge of a group operating in the vicinity of Barnesville, Georgia, using the name of the Vigilantes?

Mr. BLACKWELL. I have heard that. I don't know for sure. It is hearsay evidence. I have heard that.

Mr. MANUEL. Is it within your knowledge to know that John Max Mitchell and Colbert Raymond McGriff, two persons whom you arrested in Griffin, are among the leaders of this new organization called the Vigilantes?

Mr. BLACKWELL. I understand that, but I don't know for sure. I don't know of my own knowledge.

Mr. MANUEL. That is out of the area of your jurisdiction; is that correct?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir; it is out of the area of my jurisdiction. It is in another county.

Mr. MANUEL. Chief, would you explain to the committee, following the arrest of these five individuals and the disposition of their case, what is the current activity of the Ku Klux Klan in Griffin, Georgia?

Mr. BLACKWELL. They moved outside the city. They are no longer in the city of Griffin. If they have a meeting place, I don't know of it. One of the head men of it runs a truck stop which is 4 or 5 miles north of Griffin. It is in Spalding County, but not in the city of Griffin. I see a little activity around that place. But if they hold meetings there, I don't know of it; my own knowledge.

Mr. MANUEL. Do your records reflect who is the existing leader of group operating in the vicinity of Griffin, Georgia, although not in the area of your jurisdiction?

Mr. BLACKWELL. I would say Johnny Knowles and his father. I don't know which one is bigger, but they are both as big as there is in that organization.

Mr. MANUEL. Are they the same ones who were leaders at the time of the arrest of these five other individuals?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Chief Blackwell, would you please explain to the committee what was the reason for the trial—the second trial of these defendants after the first trial?

Mr. BLACKWELL. The second trial was a violation of a State statute which was tried by the superior court. That involved pointing a gun at a person.

Mr. MANUEL. And what was the result of the trial again, sir?

Mr. BLACKWELL. That was a mistrial.

Mr. MANUEL. On what grounds?

Mr. BLACKWELL. I don't know for sure.

The CHAIRMAN. If it is a jury trial, it was in the minds of the jury. Was it a jury trial?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir; it was a jury trial.

The CHAIRMAN. And it resulted in a hung jury and a mistrial.

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Chief Blackwell, in the photograph which you presented to the committee showing members of the Ku Klux Klan marching in a picket line, you stated that you could identify the three members represented.

I hand you this picture again (Blackwell Exhibit No. 2) and ask you to make those identifications, sir.

Mr. BLACKWELL. The first one in the lavender robe was John W. Knowles. The second one was Mr. H. B. Kendrick. The third one was Mr. Donald Eugene Hudgens.

Mr. MANUEL. You stated that the five defendants were represented by Mr. James Venable; is that correct?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. At the time of the representation, did you know Mr. Venable to be an official of a Ku Klux Klan organization?

Mr. BLACKWELL. I didn't know it for sure. I read it in the paper a lot of times. I didn't know Mr. Venable until this time. But I had read it in the paper for years.

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Chairman, at this point, may I direct an inquiry to the investigator?

James Venable is the Imperial Wizard of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan; is he not, Mr. Manuel?

Mr. MANUEL. That is correct.

Mr. WELTNER. Is he not also chairman of sort of a federation of other Klan organizations?

Mr. MANUEL. The National Association of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan; yes, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. Did he not at one point occupy the position of Imperial Klonsel with the United Klans of America?

Mr. MANUEL. Yes, sir; up until the year 1962.

Mr. WELTNER. Thank you.

Mr. POOL. Chief, in your testimony a while ago, although I might have missed it, did you determine where these guns came from? Was there any way to trace the ownership of the guns?

Mr. BLACKWELL. No, sir.

Mr. POOL. Did you make an effort to trace them?

Mr. BLACKWELL. I know these .45 caliber Eagle guns are made in one of the New England States, either Connecticut or Massachusetts. It is advertised in the local peace officer magazines. I know the Law And Order magazine, the Chiefs' magazine and some other magazines advertise them.

Mr. POOL. Did you discuss this with the FBI and other law enforcement agencies?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. POOL. There is no way to trace them?

Mr. BLACKWELL. No way to trace them.

Mr. POOL. What is your Georgia law on submachine guns? Would you call that a submachine gun? Is it really a submachine gun?

Mr. BLACKWELL. No, sir; it is not a machine gun. If it would shoot automatic fire it would be, but it won't shoot automatic fire.

Mr. POOL. You wouldn't classify it as a submachine gun?

Mr. BLACKWELL. It looks like a machine gun.

Mr. POOL. It is used to scare people?

Mr. BLACKWELL. It has a lot of fire power.

Mr. POOL. What is the Georgia law on submachine guns?

Mr. BLACKWELL. That would be a Federal law, sir.

Mr. POOL. A while ago, I think you said the court ordered these arms to be given back to these people.

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. POOL. What was the judge's name that gave that order?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Judge Magee, in superior court.

Mr. POOL. What is he?

Mr. BLACKWELL. He is a superior court judge.

Mr. POOL. There are not any of them really illegal?

Mr. BLACKWELL. No, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. May I interrupt?

Mr. POOL. Yes.

The CHAIRMAN. In other words, the judge responded to an order made to him and he signed it under existing law.

Mr. BLACKWELL. That is right, sir.

Mr. POOL. But if it had been a submachine gun, he wouldn't have signed it.

Mr. BLACKWELL. No, sir. It would have been a Federal case if it had been a submachine gun.

Mr. POOL. Let me ask you this: These hearings have been going on 2 or 3 weeks here, and we are getting so many witnesses up here taking the fifth amendment that it is refreshing to have a cooperative witness, such as you are, and an outstanding police officer in the South.

Do you have any recommendations to make to the committee about possible new legislation that would help in combating the efforts or activities of the Ku Klux Klan or other organizations like that?

Mr. BLACKWELL. I would be in favor of having records made, even on the weapon I carry, to have it registered with some agency. In that way you could always trace ownership. I would be in favor of making it a little hard for people to get those kinds of guns.

Mr. POOL. Of course, it is quite a controversial issue in the Congress. I recognize there are two sides to the argument. Registration of guns, serial numbers and things like that, would make it easier to trace the ownership.

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. POOL. Well, how about the guns that are stolen and things like that? You would still run into a blank wall; wouldn't you.

Mr. BLACKWELL. That is where, when we find a stolen gun, we would have something to trace it back to. In the case of a murder, a stolen gun used in a murder, we can trace that gun back to the original owner. I think it would be a great thing.

Mr. POOL. One of the purposes of this investigation is to find out if there is a possible loophole in the law that ought to be closed. That is what we are up here for, to try to determine during the investigation, and if we can get recommendations, I appreciate your making the recommendations.

Mr. BLACKWELL. I understand the firearms companies and the National Rifle Association and several people are fighting it.

Mr. POOL. That is all, Mr. Chairman.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, I have one further point.

Chief Blackwell, to your direct knowledge, does any member of the Ku Klux Klan in the vicinity of Griffin, Georgia, hold an elective position in that area?

Mr. BLACKWELL. We have one; yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Would you please identify the member and what position he holds?

Mr. BLACKWELL. His name is J. W. Knowles, and he is a bailiff.

Mr. MANUEL. And he is the head of a local Klan unit?

Mr. BLACKWELL. I wouldn't say he is the head, but he is an officer in it. I believe he is listed as secretary-treasurer of it. But in the last 12 or 13 years he has never had any opposition.

Mr. MANUEL. Where is he a bailiff, sir?

Mr. BLACKWELL. In one of the districts on the west side of the county. I don't remember exactly which one it is.

Mr. MANUEL. It is out of the area of your jurisdiction; is it not?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. POOL. In your job as chief of police, have you ever been threatened or have any efforts been made to intimidate you?

Mr. BLACKWELL. No, sir.

Mr. POOL. No one has tried that?

Mr. BLACKWELL. No, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. Chief Blackwell, I would like to welcome you as a fellow Georgian to this committee, and I want to thank you for appearing and testifying.

I think the committee ought to know that Chief Blackwell enjoys a reputation in our State as one of the outstanding law enforcement officers of the State. The manner in which he discharges his duties is an example that all might well follow.

I thank you for coming.

The photograph you have brought is a very dramatic one. Just so there will be no question about the identification, in the right corner of the picture there appears to be a cross covered with some sort of burlap material which has seemingly been burned. I take it that was the cross?

Mr. BLACKWELL. That was the cross that was burned.

Mr. WELTNER. In front of the Cleanwell Pressing Club on the 24th of April 1964?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. You initiated a case in the municipal court of the city of Griffin. What was the charge stemming from the burning of that cross?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Disorderly conduct. To do an act that is detrimental to the morals, safety, or welfare of the community constitutes disorderly conduct.

Mr. WELTNER. Do you consider burning a cross to be such an act, detrimental to the safety and welfare?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir; I certainly do. The fire could have gotten out of control and burned up the building. People get excited about things like that. I think they violated the laws.

Mr. WELTNER. So there is a fire hazard, but in addition to that, a hazard brought about by the very act of burning a cross?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. I take it that is because of the long connection that a burning cross or flaming cross has with the Ku Klux Klan.

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir. It is a violation of State law to burn a cross on public property, and I understand that in order to burn one on private property you have to have the property owner's permission.

Mr. WELTNER. This was on public property?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir. It was on the city street.

Mr. POOL. Is that under the arson statute?

Mr. BLACKWELL. It is under the State law. I don't think it comes under the arson part of it.

Mr. WELTNER. I believe you testified that picketing there in Griffin had been going on for 3 or 4 months prior to April 24, 1964.

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. And you brought several photographs of individuals who were picketing. I take it they were picketing because of policies pertaining to lunch counters or some such matter, which generated a lot of picketing over the South a year or so ago.

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. Do you know whether these pickets were people from Griffin?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir; each one of the kids there was from Griffin.

Mr. WELTNER. I have here 16 photographs of what appear to be young Negroes bearing placards, and you say that each of these are Griffin citizens?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. Did I gather that you said that each of the five men arrested were residents of either Fulton County or DeKalb County?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Monroe County and Lamar County.

Mr. WELTNER. There were no Spalding County residents there?

Mr. BLACKWELL. No, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. As a Southern man somewhat familiar with some of the difficult situations facing the South, I am also familiar with the reactions that come from situations like this. A very familiar phrase we hear quite frequently is "outside agitators." I wonder who the outside agitators in this instance were?

Mr. BLACKWELL. I don't know. In interrogating these men and so on, we never did find out exactly if they came on their own or if they were sent for by the local Klan, or what. We never did find that out.

Mr. WELTNER. But in any event, the five Klansmen who were arrested in connection with that incident were all from outside of the city of Griffin and county of Spalding?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. Thank you again, Chief Blackwell, for being with us.

Mr. BUCHANAN. I would like to join in expressing appreciation for your testimony, Chief Blackwell. It is a refreshing change.

I would like to say, although I don't have a question for you, in response to my colleague from Texas, on questions about the registration of weapons, since the Constitution does give citizens the right to have and bear arms and since so many sportsmen, gun collectors, and others in this country innocently and without any wrongdoing avail themselves of this constitutional privilege, I personally am pretty sure I would resist any efforts to pass Federal law requiring registration of arms.

But may I say, in the event that the activities of the Klan are a factor in bringing about the passage of such law, I hope the ire of the sportsmen and gun collectors will be properly directed to the Ku Klux Klan rather than the Congress.

Mr. MANUEL. Chief Blackwell, of the items confiscated by your department on the 24th of April 1964, you mentioned, and the photograph shows, several walkie-talkie-type instruments. Did your department observe the use of these by Ku Klux Klan members?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir. During the time that they were picketing, they kept two men at the point where they could observe the picketing. These two men belonged to some kind of branch of it that is supposed to protect the other part of it.

Mr. MANUEL. Were they security guards?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Security guards or something to that effect. I remember they wore some type of helmet and they wore about half of a Sam Brown belt with a flashlight, a great big three-cell flashlight in that Sam Brown, and they had these walkie-talkie radios.

There wasn't any violation, but to us it looked kind of funny, anybody walking around in the daytime with a three-cell flashlight.

Mr. MANUEL. These were used by the Klansmen who were involved in the picketing; is that correct?

Mr. BLACKWELL. No, by the ones who were guarding the ones who were picketing. These men stood around where they could see what was going on. In case anything happened, I suppose they would have gotten into it.

Mr. MANUEL. And there were two-way radios confiscated from the cars which also contained the weapons; is that correct?

Mr. BLACKWELL. That is correct; two.

Mr. MANUEL. Did your department observe those particular two-way radios in use by the defendants?

Mr. BLACKWELL. I don't know if those were the two we had seen prior to this incident, but we had seen other men with radios just like them. Whether or not they had used these particular two, I don't know.

The CHAIRMAN. Chief, we want to thank you for being here today. In my opening statement I referred to the information supplied by our investigators, in whom we have complete confidence. I stated that the vast majority of law enforcement officers in the South are completely devoted to their duty as law enforcement officers.

I understand from what you said that you had some training background with the FBI.

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. As a law enforcement officer?

Mr. BLACKWELL. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. I happen to know of that service rendered by the FBI to local law officers who want to improve their techniques and proper law enforcement procedures. I am glad to say that I have assisted many law enforcement officers in my congressional district to attend that school.

You are a credit to the FBI system. As I say, I am convinced, completely convinced, that the vast majority of Southern law enforcement officers are devoted to duty. From what I know from our investigators, and taking the word of Mr. Weltner from Georgia, you are a particularly outstanding law enforcement officer. Again we thank you very much.

Mr. BLACKWELL. Thank you, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. The committee will stand in recess for a few minutes.

(Whereupon at 11:25 a.m. a short recess was taken with the following subcommittee members present: Representatives Willis, Pool, Weltner, and Buchanan.)

The CHAIRMAN. The subcommittee will be in order.

The Chair announces that the subcommittee will stand in recess until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

(Subcommittee members present at time of recess: Representatives Willis, Pool, and Buchanan.)

(Whereupon, at 11:30 a.m., Tuesday, November 2, 1965, the subcommittee recessed, to reconvene at 2 p.m. the same day.)

AFTERNOON SESSION—TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1965

(The subcommittee reconvened at 2:13 p.m., Hon. Edwin E. Willis, chairman, presiding.)

(Subcommittee members present: Representatives Willis, Pool, and Weltner.)

The CHAIRMAN. The subcommittee will please come to order.

Mr. MANUEL, call your next witness.

Mr. MANUEL. The staff would like to call at this time, Mr. Chairman, Mr. Allen Bayne.

The CHAIRMAN. Raise your right hand.

Do you solemnly swear the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mr. BAYNE. I do.

TESTIMONY OF ALLEN LEE BAYNE, ACCOMPANIED BY COUNSEL, LESTER V. CHALMERS, JR.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bayne, would you state your full name for the record, please?

Mr. BAYNE. Allen Lee Bayne.

Mr. MANUEL. Is that B-a-y-n-e?

Mr. BAYNE. Correct.

Mr. MANUEL. When and where were you born, Mr. Bayne?

Mr. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you were born on the 23d day of January 1928, in Etowah County, Alabama.

Mr. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. MANUEL. What is your occupation, sir?

Mr. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bayne, are you represented today by counsel?

Mr. BAYNE. Yes, I am.

Mr. MANUEL. Would counsel please identify himself for the record?

Mr. CHALMERS. I am Lester V. Chalmers, Jr., attorney at law, Room 501, First Federal Building, Raleigh, North Carolina.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bayne, have you ever been a member of a Ku Klux Klan organization?

Mr. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bayne, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that for a period prior to April 24, 1964, and including April 24, 1964, and for a period of time subsequent to April 24, 1964, you were a member of the United Klans of America.

Mr. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bayne, I hand you a copy of an application for citizenship in the Invisible Empire, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, United Klans of America, Inc., and ask you to examine this document and tell this committee whether you have ever executed a copy of that application.

Mr. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document previously marked "Richard Constantineau Exhibit No. 3.")

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bayne, were you present today during the testimony of Chief Leo Blackwell, of Griffin, Georgia?

Mr. CHALMERS. Mr. Chairman, I am not certain whether he was or was not present. May I inquire of the witness with respect to that point, and state to the chairman?

The CHAIRMAN. Yes.

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. CHALMERS. Mr. Chairman, I am informed that he was not in the committee room; that he was outside in the chamber.

The CHAIRMAN. All right.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bayne, Chief Blackwell testified this morning before the committee that you were arrested on April 24, 1964, as a member of the Ku Klux Klan on the charge of burning a cross in front of a business establishment called the Cleanwell Pressing Club in Griffin, Georgia. Was Chief Blackwell's testimony——

The CHAIRMAN. Distinguish between the city proceedings and the State proceedings. There were two proceedings filed. One was under State law and one was under city ordinance.

Mr. MANUEL. I specifically directed the question to the charge of burning a cross before a business establishment.

The CHAIRMAN. All right.

Mr. MANUEL. My question to you, Mr. Bayne, is, Was Chief Blackwell's testimony correct?

Mr. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bayne, do you have——

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Bayne, the chief of police of Griffin, Georgia, Mr. Blackwell, under oath, like you, and under the pains and penalties of perjury if he didn't tell the truth, did so swear. Now you are being given an opportunity to affirm or deny his testimony.

In this way the record would be made and if your testimony was in the negative, I want to tell you that I wouldn't hesitate to refer the matter to the Department of Justice for perjury prosecution against either you or the chief. Here is your opportunity to speak out while you are under oath.

Do you wish to answer that question?

MR. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

MR. MANUEL. Mr. Bayne, do you have a criminal record?

MR. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

MR. MANUEL. Chief Blackwell provided to the committee from his files a record for Allen Lee Bayne. I would like to call your attention to the last six entries on this record.

That on 10-18-52 you were arrested for burglary in the second degree and grand larceny, sentenced to 3 years and 1 day; on 3-13-57 you were arrested on a charge of grand larceny, sentenced to 1 year and 1 day; 3-14-57 you were arrested on a charge of grand larceny and the sentence was 1 year and 1 day; on the 29th day of March 1957 you were charged with burglary in the second degree and sentenced to 1 year and 1 day; on 7-29-57 you were charged with escape from a penitentiary and sentenced to 13 months in jail.

I hand you this record, Mr. Bayne, and ask you to advise the committee as to whether it is correct or not.

MR. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

MR. MANUEL. Mr. Bayne, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you did, sometime subsequent to 1957, execute an application form for the Invisible Empire, United Klans of America, Inc.

MR. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

MR. MANUEL. In applying for citizenship in the Invisible Empire of the United Klans of America, did you at any time inform any of the leaders or officers of the United Klans of America of your criminal background?

MR. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

MR. MANUEL. To your knowledge, Mr. Bayne, what investigation was made of your background by any leader or officer of the United Klans of America?

MR. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

MR. MANUEL. Mr. Bayne, Chief Blackwell testified this morning that arrested with you on the 24th day of April 1964 were John Mitchell, Colbert Raymond McGriff, Thomas R. Carlyle, and Oliver C. Sanders.

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you knew the four men mentioned as members of the United Klans of America, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

MR. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

MR. MANUEL. Chief Blackwell further testified this morning that, to his knowledge, all five men arrested, including yourself, were from an area outside of Griffin, Georgia.

My question to you, sir, is: Were any instructions given by any leader or officer of the United Klans to any one or all of the five persons involved, including yourself, to go to Griffin, Georgia, to engage in an act of intimidation?

Mr. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Chief Blackwell further testified, Mr. Bayne, that you were one of the persons who got out of a car in front of the Cleanwell Pressing Club and actually lit, or aided in the lighting of, a cross which was burned in front of the Cleanwell Pressing Club.

Is this testimony correct?

Mr. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Bayne, I have before me a pamphlet entitled "The Principle of the United Klans of America, Knights of The Ku Klux Klan." In it, among other subdivisions, is the heading "Ideals of a Klansman," what the Klan believes in, and so on.

I read you this passage, and I take it that this pamphlet is an official document distributed to its members, and on its face it was issued out of the headquarters of the Imperial Wizard, Robert M. Shelton, in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, and the part I read is as follows:

We believe in law and order: In other words, the Klan believes in keeping the laws and in enforcing the laws. Many accusations have been brought against the Klan as law-breakers. These accusations against the order are purely newspaper propaganda. So far we have not heard of a single instance where the Klan, by an official act, has violated any law.

I state to you again that Chief Blackwell, under oath, said that you not only violated the law, but that you were prosecuted for the violation. So it is not a question of the generality of these ideals, but here is an instance of law violation brought against you personally.

Was Chief Blackwell telling the truth or was he falsifying?

Mr. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "Allen Bayne Exhibit No. 1." This exhibit will be reproduced in a forthcoming report on Klan organizations.)

(At this point Mr. Buchanan entered the hearing room.)

The CHAIRMAN. All right.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bayne, Chief Blackwell, in his testimony this morning, further stated that the Cleanwell Pressing Club, in front of which was burned a cross by you, was owned by two brothers, Raymond and Otis Head, whom he further identified as having met with a civil rights council in the city of Griffin prior to April 24, 1964.

Mr. Bayne, I would like to ask you why was the cross burned in front of Mr. Head's business establishment?

Mr. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bayne, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that this cross was burned in front of Mr. Head's business establishment because he was a leader and a member of the biracial committee to integrate certain facilities in Griffin, Georgia, and because he was a Negro.

Mr. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

MR. MANUEL. Chief Blackwell further testified this morning that two cars were involved in this incident. One was a 1956 Chevrolet, two-door, black in color, bearing 1964 Georgia tags number 1-3055. Investigation conducted by his department revealed that that particular automobile was registered in the name of A. Bayne, of 8 Glendale Place, Atlanta, Georgia.

I show you these two documents, Mr. Bayne, and ask you if you are the A. Bayne who owned that 1956 Chevrolet.

(Document handed to witness.)

MR. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "Allen Bayne Exhibit No. 2" and retained in committee files.)

MR. MANUEL. Mr. Bayne, taken from that automobile, taken from the two automobiles, were what the chief described as a small arsenal consisting of the weapons which he showed pictured in a photograph which I now show you.

(Photograph handed to witness.)

MR. MANUEL. My question to you, Mr. Bayne: Were these weapons taken from cars, one of which was owned by yourself?

MR. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Photograph previously marked "Leo Blackwell Exhibit No. 1.")

MR. MANUEL. Chief Blackwell, as further indicated in his records, stated that one of these semiautomatic machineguns was owned by you. Mr. Bayne, I would like to ask you where did you obtain this weapon?

MR. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

MR. MANUEL. Where did the other Klan members obtain their respective weapons?

MR. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

MR. MANUEL. Chief Blackwell further testified that after the disposition of the case the Klansmen came back to Griffin, Georgia, and reclaimed the weapons. Do you know what has happened since to those weapons?

MR. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

MR. MANUEL. Chief Blackwell further testified that after your arrest on Saturday night, you were visited by Grand Dragon Calvin Craig, Mr. Robert Bing, and Mr. Wesley Bailey. What was your conversation with Calvin Craig that Saturday night?

MR. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

MR. MANUEL. Did Calvin Craig advise you and the other defendants that the United Klans of America would aid in your defense?

MR. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

MR. MANUEL. Did Mr. Craig advise you, or did any other member of his party, that is, Mr. Bing or Mr. Bailey, advise you that a fund would be collected from the members of the United Klans of America for your defense?

Mr. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that a fund was raised for your defense.

Mr. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. And that fund was raised by voluntary contributions by other members of the United Klans of America in the Realm of Georgia.

I put it to you as a fact and ask you to affirm or deny that fact.

Mr. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bayne, have you ever been a member of an organization know as the Vigilantes, which operated out of the area of Barnesville, Georgia, in Lamar County?

Mr. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Did you know that Colbert Raymond McGriff and John Mitchell, the two persons arrested with you on the 24th day of April 1964, were leaders of this group called the Vigilantes?

Mr. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Did you know an individual by the name of Johnny Terrell to be a member of the Vigilantes?

Mr. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Did you know Oliver Sanders to be a member of the Vigilantes?

Mr. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Did you know Earl Holcomb to be a member of the Vigilantes?

Mr. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Did you know Joseph Simms to be a member of the Vigilantes?

Mr. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Did you know Cecil Meyers to be a member of the Vigilantes?

Mr. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Do you know of any activity on the part of members of the Vigilantes to collect and store arms in the area of Barnesville, Georgia?

Mr. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Do you know any member of the Vigilantes who has engaged in any acts of intimidation or acts of violence?

Mr. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, the staff has no further questions of this witness.

Mr. POOL. The committee does not appreciate your lack of cooperation here today. You have a right to take the fifth amendment, however, and we recognize that.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Buchanan?

Mr. BUCHANAN. Mr. Chairman, in light of some of the contents which I have just read from this propaganda sheet put in our hands concerning the principle of the United Klans of America, and in light of the evidence that has been brought out concerning the activities of this witness, I want to point to the fact that this paper states:

We believe in God and the tenets of the Christian religion, and that a Godless nation cannot long prosper.

The Christian religion is founded on the teaching of Jesus Christ. An infidel or a person who rejects Jesus Christ and His teachings, cannot be a true Klansman. And the nation that rejects God and His word is sure to reap calamity of some kind.

We believe that a church that is not founded on the principles of morality and justice is a mockery to God and man.

There are churches, so-called, that do not require a high standard of morality and justice from their membership. Men who accept the teachings of such churches cannot be Klansmen, in the true sense of the word. The genuine Christian is both moral and just.

It seems to me that I recall when asked what the greatest commandment was, Jesus Christ said to love God with all your heart, soul, mind, strength, and your neighbor. Then to a question as to who your neighbor was, He responded by pointing to the example of a Samaritan, who to his hearers was a person to whom they felt the same kind of racial prejudice as some people feel toward the Negroes in our country today.

I point that up because a Klansman, it says here, is supposed to follow the teachings of Jesus and cannot be a true Klansman unless he does. I guess this means he should love the colored people.

He said further that "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself."

This being the case, I wonder if your weapons and your activities are an expression of your love toward your neighbor.

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. BUCHANAN. Mr. Chairman, I would like to state that I didn't mean to have a Sunday school lesson here, but if this is an expression of Christianity, may the world be spared from the heathens.

That is all I can say.

Mr. MANUEL. I would like to state for the record that Mr. Allen Lee Bayne is appearing before the committee today in response to a subpoena served by Deputy Marshal Roberts on October 18, at approximately 1 p.m., at Glencoe, Alabama.

Is that correct, Mr. Bayne?

Mr. CHALMERS. It is so stipulated, Mr. Chairman.

Mr. MANUEL. That is all, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Bayne, in this pamphlet I showed you a while ago, "The Principle of the United Klans of America, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan," that organization takes a good deal of credit for the preservation of law and order and enforcement of the statutes, and so on.

It says:

Deaths by mob violence have fallen off very materially since the advent of the Klan. The Klan believes in law-enforcement and if a person has committed a crime the law should take its course.

Do you believe in that?

Mr. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Do you believe that you were unjustly or unlawfully prosecuted?

Mr. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. The pamphlet goes on to say, "We will follow the teachings of the Bible * * *."

Does the Bible have anything to say about it being Christian and good to go around with concealed weapons or in a car carrying weapons for purposes of acts of violence? Is that consistent with the Bible?

Mr. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. I see you take the news media to task in that same pamphlet, which is distributed to your membership:

The press should be free to spread news without coloring it to suit any person or sect: But such is not the case, scarcely a newspaper anywhere dares to publish the truth: the whole truth and nothing but the truth. * * *

Then it goes on to say that the press is controlled by certain religions, and so on.

Do you believe in a free press?

Mr. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Then I have another pamphlet issued out of your Tuscaloosa headquarters. It is entitled "The Seven Symbols of The Klan."

One is the Bible, another the cross, another the flag, another the sword, another the water, another the robe, another the hood. Under the sword, I quote this:

This unsheathed sword of steel is a symbol of law enforcement. It represents the military, or enforcement powers of our government from the president down to the constable. Its presence on our sacred altar signifies that we, as an organization, are solidly behind every enforcement officer in the land * * *.

and so on.

Does the Klan really cooperate with law enforcement officers?

Mr. BAYNE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "Allen Bayne Exhibit No. 3." This exhibit will be reproduced in a forthcoming report on Klan organizations.)

The CHAIRMAN. The witness is excused and released from his subpoena.

Call your next witness.

Mr. MANUEL. At this time the staff would like to call Mr. Wesley Bailey.

The CHAIRMAN. Please raise your right hand.

You do solemnly swear that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mr. BAILEY. I do.

TESTIMONY OF WESLEY GUY BAILEY II, ACCOMPANIED BY COUNSEL, LESTER V. CHALMERS, JR.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bailey, would you state your full name for the record, sir?

Mr. BAILEY. Wesley Guy Bailey II.

Mr. MANUEL. When and where were you born, Mr. Bailey?

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you were born on the 1st day of September 1927 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bailey, are you represented today by counsel?

Mr. BAILEY. Yes, I am.

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Are you currently a member of a Ku Klux Klan organization, Mr. Bailey?

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. The committee will stand in recess for 5 minutes.

(Whereupon at 2:48 p.m. the subcommittee recessed and reconvened at 2:55 p.m. Subcommittee members present at time of recess: Representatives Willis, Pool, Weltner, and Buchanan and when hearings resumed: Representatives Willis, Weltner, and Buchanan.)

The CHAIRMAN. The subcommittee will come to order.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, at this point I would like to state for the record that the committee investigation has established that Mr. Bailey is currently a member of the United Klans of America, Realm of Georgia; further, that he is a member of Clayton County Klavern No. 52; further, that as of January 1965 he held the office of klokard in that Klavern; and, further, he is identified as the treasurer of the Clayton Civic Club, Inc.

Are the results of the committee investigation correct, Mr. Bailey?

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Further, Mr. Chairman, I would like to state for the record that Mr. Bailey was one of the original incorporators of the Clayton Civic Club.

Is that correct, Mr. Bailey?

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bailey, I show you a copy of a charter filed in the Superior Court of Clayton County, State of Georgia, dated 5 January 1965, the first paragraph of which says the following:

The petition of Fred Hand, Route 3, College Park, Georgia; D. E. Bruce, Box 117, Jonesboro, Georgia; W. G. Bailey, 167 Dixie Drive, Jonesboro, Georgia; B. J. Hand, Route 3, Jonesboro, Georgia; Roy Meadows, 114 Lake Drive, Jonesboro, Georgia; Henry Hand, Johnson Road, Forest Park, Georgia; and J. W. Wells, 125 Tanglewood Dr., Jonesboro, Georgia, all of whom are residents of Clayton County, Georgia, respectfully shows to the Court:

et cetera.

I would like to show you this document, Mr. Bailey, and ask you if you are the W. G. Bailey of 167 Dixie Drive, Jonesboro, Georgia, who is listed thereon.

(Document handed to witness.)

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline an answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document marked "Wesley Bailey Exhibit No. 1.")

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bailey, are you appearing before the committee today in response to a subpoena served upon you at 12:30 p.m. on the 11th day of October 1965 by Deputy Marshal Camp?

Mr. CHALMERS. It is so stipulated, Mr. Chairman, that he is here as a result of a subpoena and the return thereon speaks for itself.

(At this point Mr. Pool entered the hearing room.)

The CHAIRMAN. And it states the facts?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bailey, paragraph 1 of that subpoena requires you to produce:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and affiliated organizations, namely, the Alabama Rescue Service, Georgia Rescue Service, State Mens Club, Clayton County Klavern #52, and Clayton Civic Club, Inc. in your possession, custody or control or maintained by you or available to you as an officer of Clayton Civic Club, Inc., and County Klavern # 52 of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

I ask you at this point, Mr. Bailey, to produce the documents as outlined in paragraph 1 of your subpoena.

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated

October 11, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents as demanded by the committee in its subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Counsel, I offer to make the following stipulation: (1) That the witness has been furnished a copy of the chairman's opening statement of October 19, 1965, and that he is familiar with its contents; (2) that the directions of the subpoena to produce the documents called for are made to the witness in the official representative capacity described in the subpoena.

Mr. CHALMERS. It is so stipulated, Mr. Chairman.

(At this point Mr. Weltner returned to the hearing room.)

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Bailey, the committee does not accept your grounds for refusing to produce the documents called for by the subpoena. I accordingly direct you to produce the documents.

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to produce to the committee the documents ordered and demanded by the committee based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Counsel, I take it that the same stipulation applies to this part of his subpoena?

Mr. CHALMERS. With respect to paragraph 1; yes, sir. I don't think there has been a demand or an order with respect to paragraph 2. But with respect to paragraph 1, the stipulation that the chairman and myself have heretofore entered into certainly applies to this witness; yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Under the circumstances, Mr. Bailey, I order and direct you to produce the documents.

Mr. CHALMERS. Mr. Chairman, may I state I believe there has been a demand with respect to paragraph 1; is that correct?

The CHAIRMAN. What he is saying, Mr. Manuel, is that you posed the question but you didn't make the demand.

Mr. MANUEL. I asked him to produce all books, records, and so forth, as outlined in paragraph 1.

Mr. CHALMERS. I think there was a demand with respect to paragraph 1. I think there was an order by the chairman with respect to paragraph 1. I think there was a declination by the witness with respect thereto.

The CHAIRMAN. We can avoid this. Ask him to produce the documents called for in paragraph 2.

Mr. MANUEL. I haven't read paragraph 2 yet.

Mr. CHALMERS. I think you are a little bit premature, Mr. Chairman, we have not gotten to paragraph 2.

The CHAIRMAN. He was directed to answer paragraph 2.

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Now paragraph 2 of your supena calls for you to produce:

All books, records, documents, correspondence and memoranda in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by or available to you, in your capacity as officer of Clayton County Klavern #52, of the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, which the "Constitution and Laws" of said organization authorize and require to be maintained by you and any other official of said organization, the same being in your possession, custody or control.

I ask you now, Mr. Bailey, to produce the documents as outlined in paragraph 2.

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee the documents demanded and ordered by the committee based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. CHALMERS. Mr. Chairman, with respect to paragraph 2 we shall enter into the same stipulation with the chairman that we entered into with respect to paragraph 1 and with respect to the other witnesses that we have also entered into.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you very much.

Under the circumstances, Mr. Bailey, I will order and direct you to produce the documents.

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee the documents demanded and ordered by the committee based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. What is the Clayton Civic Club, Inc.?

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, sir, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the Clayton Civic Club, Inc., is a front organization set up by Clayton Klavern No. 52 of the United Klans of America, Realm of Georgia, and that all officers of the Clayton Civic Club are also members and officers of Clayton Klavern No. 52 of the United Klans of America.

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bailey, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that on February 9, 1965, you were elected treasurer of the Clayton Civic Club at a meeting held in February 1965.

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, sir, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you were installed as the klokar of Clayton Klavern No. 52 of the United Klans of America at a meeting held on January 11, 1965, at Jonesboro, Georgia.

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Chairman?

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Weltner.

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Bailey, I have been concerned over a radio and television report from Atlanta concerning this organization, the Clayton Civic Club, Inc. On October 19, the current investigation opened here and the Clayton Civic Club, Inc., was identified by the investigators as a cover name or front name for a Klavern of the United Klans of America, operating in Clayton County, Georgia.

That evening after that matter was disseminated in the public press, an individual—and I don't know the name of the individual—called into the radio-television media in Atlanta and stated that that was not the case, that the Clayton Civic Club, Inc., was not a front organization for the Ku Klux Klan.

I am most anxious that no error be made in identifying any individual as a member of the Klan when that person is not a member, and I am equally concerned that we do not undertake to identify an organization as a Klan organization when it is not a Klan organization.

I have in front of me the charter that has as one of the incorporators of the Clayton Civic Club, Inc., W. G. Bailey, 167 Dixie Drive, Jonesboro, Georgia.

My question is simply this: Is the Clayton Civic Club, Inc., a unit of the United Klans of America or of any other Klan organization?

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Bailey, this charter is obviously made under the laws of Georgia permitting the incorporation of nonbusiness corporations. This particular one states one of the objectives of the corporation to be:

The corporation is organized and shall be operated for the purpose of promoting the Civic and Social Welfare and the betterment of the County and State; To aid in the future progress of the County and State; to aid in the relief of distress and poverty of the needy; and to assist other charitable, religious, and educational organizations.

The applicants for this charter, according to the petition preceding the recitations of the charter, are stated to be Fred Hand, D. E. Bruce, W. G. Bailey, B. J. Hand, Roy Meadows, and so on.

In instance after instance in these hearings we have had people applying for charters as gun clubs, civic clubs, fishing clubs, and whatever.

The point is that people who are not Klansmen could well have been hoodwinked into believing that group to be what it purports to be when, in fact, it is just a phony, a front, a cover, for a Klan unit. That is the point.

You are a lawyer. Now you are being given the opportunity under oath to say whether or not this is a front, a phony, coverup charter to serve the purposes of a Klan unit.

Is our information, which has been presented to you, true or false? Now is the time to speak, to let the people of the great State of Georgia and the county involved know.

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds as previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bailey, as the treasurer of the Clayton Civic Club, Inc., I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that all officers of the Clayton Civic Club, Inc., are known by you to be members of the United Klans of America, Realm of Georgia.

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. The president of that organization is Mr. Fred Hand. Do you know Mr. Hand to be a member of the United Klans of America, Realm of Georgia?

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Do you know him to be a member of Clayton County Klavern No. 52?

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. With further regard to the Clayton Civic Club, Inc., Mr. Henry Hand is the vice president of that organization. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that Mr. Henry Hand is also a member of the United Klans of America, Realm of Georgia, and a member of the Clayton County Klavern No. 52.

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. J. W. Wells is the secretary of the Clayton Civic Club, Inc. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you know Mr. J. W. Wells to be a member of the United Klans of America, Realm of Georgia, and a member and officer of Clayton County Klavern No. 52.

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that Mr. Wells is the klaliff, or secretary, of Klavern No. 52.

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that Mr. Daniel Bruce, who was also an original incorporator of the Clayton Civic Club, Inc., is known by you to be the klokann chief of Klavern No. 52 and an instructor at the judo school conducted by Clayton County Klavern No. 52.

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that Mr. B. J. Hand is a member of the Clayton Civic Club, Inc., and is known by you to be the klabee, or treasurer, of Clayton County Klavern No. 52.

Mr. MANUEL. Another original incorporator is Mr. Roy Meadows. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that Mr. Roy Meadows is a member of the United Klans of America, Realm of Georgia, and a member of Clayton County Klavern No. 52.

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bailey, have you ever attended and received instruction in judo, karate, and demolition at training courses sponsored by Clayton County Klavern No. 52 of the United Klans of America of the Realm of Georgia?

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you were present at a military training session held by Clayton County Klavern No. 52, United Klans of America, Inc., on August 25, 1963, near McDonough, Georgia, at which session there was a 2-hour 15-minute training and practice in judo.

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. At this point I would like to ask you who were the instructors at that session?

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you were also present at a military training session held by the Clayton County No. 52 Klavern on September 1, 1963, near McDonough, Georgia, at which session there was taught instruction in the use of a knife and how to defend yourself from a knife attack.

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you also attended a military training session in judo held by the Clayton County No. 52 Klavern near McDonough, Georgia, on November 24, 1963.

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Who were the instructors at that training session, Mr. Bailey?

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you were also present at a meeting sponsored by the Clayton County No. 52 Klavern of the United Klans of America on October 17, 1964, which meeting was held on the farm of Robert L. Bing, in Henry County, Georgia.

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that Robert L. Bing is the exalted cyclops of Clayton County No. 52.

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Further with regard to the meeting on October 17, 1964, the committee investigation has established that the purpose of this meeting was how to learn to assemble and disassemble the M-1 rifle, how to make Molotov cocktails using bottles filled with a mixture of gasoline and motor oil, and how to make small bombs from dynamite.

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the result of the committee investigation is correct.

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the instructors on October 17, 1964, were Daniel Bruce and Charles M. Bartlett.

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that Charles M. Bartlett is the grand klarogo of the Realm of Georgia, United Klans of America.

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that Daniel Bruce is the klokann chief of Clayton County Klavern No. 52.

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. With further regard to the demonstration given on October 17, 1964, the committee investigation has established that a demonstration was given by the instructors on that day in rigging a booby trap, using a string stretched across a path in the woods. There also was a demonstration in making various types of fuses with which to ignite dynamite bombs. Included in the instruction was a problem in guerrilla warfare in which the group considered problems of taking over a radio station and a power plant.

I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the results of the committee investigation are correct.

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you participated in a 3-hour military training session held by Clayton County Klavern No. 52 near McDonough, Georgia, on January 31, 1965, at which the training consisted of instruction and practice with pistols, various caliber pistols being used, including a .22, .38, and .45.

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I now show you a copy of a bulletin put out on which the name of Calvin F. Craig, Grand Dragon, Realm of Georgia, is imprinted, with the heading "United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, P.O. Box 10753, Atlanta, Georgia," dated January 17, 1965, stating:

Four (4) trophies have already been purchased by Klayton #52 Klavern. There will be a trophy for each of the above classes.

Everyone who participates in the training MUST sign a release of all responsibilities.

Each participant will pay $2.50 to cover 2½ months of training. This training is sponsored by Klayton #52. Contact #52 for any further information.

Imprinted are the initials "I.T.S.U.B." and the name "Calvin F. Craif, Grand Dragon, Realm of Georgia."

I hand you this, Mr. Bailey, and ask you if you were one of the "Esteemed Klansmen" who received such a notice.

(Document handed to witness.)

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Document previously marked "Calvin Craig Exhibit No. 1." See p. 2161.)

Mr. MANUEL. Did you attend as a member of the Clayton County Klavern No. 52 ———

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question——

Mr. MANUEL. I haven't finished the question.

Have you attended as a member of Clayton County Klavern No. 52 any judo, karate, rifle- or pistol-firing training as initiated by this document?

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bailey, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you were present at a meeting of Clayton County Klavern No. 52 held on June 29, 1964, at the Lake City Community House in Lake City, Georgia.

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that at that meeting there was a discussion of ways of maintaining segregation and preventing integration.

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the discussion at that meeting turned to acts of violence against Negroes, such as arson and bombs.

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you were one of those members present who agreed that acts of violence would be necessary to stop integration.

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. With further regard, Mr. Bailey, to the demolition school held at the farm of Robert Bing on October 17, 1964, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that Robert L. Bing, Jimmy Webb, Daniel Bruce, George Sligh, Fred Hand, and Charles Bartlett were among the members of Clayton County No. 52 Klavern who participated in this demonstration.

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that Mr. Bartlett in giving the demonstration explained that a Klansman should know sabotage and demolition work in the event our country is ever invaded and taken over by an enemy, in which case the Klan would have to work underground.

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Among other things, Mr. Bartlett mentioned in the course of his demonstration that one of the important things about an underground organization is communications and organizational setup.

He then taught Klansman by means of a chart which depicted the setup of an underground group, and he read from several printed pages.

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bailey, I would like to ask you now what is your purpose in attending instruction classes in the art of judo, karate, and explosive devices?

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. What is the intent of the United Klans of America in teaching certain of its members in the art of judo, karate, and explosive demonstrations?

Mr. BAILEY. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, the staff has no further questions of this witness.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Weltner.

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Chairman, I have no questions of the witness, but I did wish to call the attention of my colleagues on the committee to the final page of the document that the chairman distributed called "The Seven Symbols Of The Klan".

I note that this was a document that was apparently drafted during the time of the U.S. Klans and refers to the U.S. Klans throughout the course of it, but it has the legend of the United Klans of America on the bottom of it and apparently has been promulgated by that body.

There is one sentence in there that I think is most appropriate on the last page. It says as follows, speaking about power, "The secret of our power lies in the secrecy of our membership."

I simply want to call that to my colleagues' attention.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you.

The witness is excused and released from his subpena.

The subcommittee will stand in recess until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

(Subcommittee members present at time of recess: Representatives Willis, Pool, Weltner, and Buchanan.)

(Whereupon, at 3:35 p.m., Tuesday, November 2, 1965, the subcommittee recessed, to reconvene at 10 a.m., Wednesday, November 3, 1965.)

The CHAIRMAN. The subcommittee will come to order.

Mr. Manuel, please call your first witness.

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Chairman, prior to the calling of the first witness, I should like to relate to the committee the substance of a telephone conversation I had this morning with Mr. Fred Briggs, who is the news editor of station WSB, Atlanta, Georgia. That is a television station.

The chairman will recall yesterday I propounded questions to Mr. Bailey on the basis of my understanding that an individual, whom I did not then know by identity, had appeared on television station WSB, Atlanta, shortly after the Clayton Civic Club, Inc., was identified by this committee as a Klan organization.

That individual appeared and denied that Clayton Civic Club, Inc., was a Klan front or a Klan cover, and it is my understanding that the individual demanded an apology from this committee.

I have now learned from Mr. Briggs of that station that the individual who thus appeared was Wesley G. Bailey II, the same witness to whom I propounded that question. Mr. Briggs has offered to make available to this committee, if the Chair so desires, a magnetic tape of possibly 10 minutes' duration wherein Mr. Bailey did deny that matter.

I simply bring that to the attention of the committee inasmuch as the same questions were propounded to Mr. Bailey yesterday.

The CHAIRMAN. I don't know that we will require that. We will think about bringing in the tape. But I happen to see Mr. Bailey in the audience, although he has been released from the subpoena. Technically, I could call him now, but I won't do it. However, I now offer him an opportunity to come back to the witness stand and explain this matter under oath if he wants to. If he wants to respond from where he is or talk to his counsel, that is all right with me.

Mr. CHALMERS. Mr. Chairman, after conferring with my client, he has no comment to make.

The CHAIRMAN. Pardon?

Mr. CHALMERS. My client has no comment to make.

The CHAIRMAN. All right.

Call your next witness.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, at this time the staff would like to call to the witness chair Mr. Howard Smith.

The CHAIRMAN. Please raise your right hand, sir.

You do solemnly swear that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mr. SMITH. I do.

TESTIMONY OF HOWARD WILLIAM SMITH

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Smith, would you state your full name for the record, sir?

Mr. SMITH. Howard William Smith.

Mr. MANUEL. What is your occupation, Mr. Smith?

Mr. SMITH. I am chief of the Clayton County Police Department.

The CHAIRMAN. Talk a little louder, Mr. Smith.

Mr. SMITH. I am chief of the Clayton County Police Department.

Mr. MANUEL. Sir, where is the headquarters of the Clayton County Police Department?

Mr. SMITH. It is located in Jonesboro, Georgia.

The CHAIRMAN. Chief, for my information, you are the chief of police of the county?

Mr. SMITH. Yes.

The CHAIRMAN. Wouldn't that be under the jurisdiction of a sheriff? I am just asking about the system in that area. Usually a chief of police has jurisdiction over a city or a town.

Mr. SMITH. We have a county police force which serves as investigating all of the crimes in the county and enforcing the traffic laws. Our sheriff runs two courts plus a jail and serves all the civil papers.

The CHAIRMAN. I see.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Smith, when and where were you born, sir?

Mr. SMITH. I was born September 4, 1913, in Crawford County, Georgia, just out of Knoxville.

Mr. MANUEL. Would you please state for the committee or give the committee a brief résumé of your career as a police officer?

Mr. SMITH. I went to work for Clayton County as a patrolman in 1939. In 1944 I went with the State Revenue Department. I stayed with them until up in part of 1950. At that time I left the force until 1953, when I went back as chief of police of Clayton County.

Mr. MANUEL. How long have you been the chief of police?

Mr. SMITH. I have served as chief a little over—about 10½ years as chief.

Mr. MANUEL. Is your office an elective position?

Mr. SMITH. No, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. By whom are you appointed?

Mr. SMITH. I am appointed by the county commissioners.

Mr. MANUEL. In the course of your duties as chief of police of Clayton County, have you had occasion to investigate the activities of various Ku Klux Klan organizations?

Mr. SMITH. Well, I won't say "various." I investigated a Klan we have in the county.

Mr. MANUEL. Would you please identify that group, sir?

Mr. SMITH. It is the Klan that is meeting there in the Clayton Civic Club.

Mr. MANUEL. Is that also known as Clayton County Klavern No. 52 of the United Klans of America?

Mr. SMITH. That is correct.

Mr. MANUEL. What does the result of your investigation show as far as the year 1964—

The CHAIRMAN. Before that question, I will review what I indicated appeared to be, and I accept it to be, the situation. A group obtained, pursuant to Georgia law, a charter. Under the provisions of the law that we have in Louisiana, they could create an entity for nonprofit purposes.

That group did create the Clayton Civic Club, Inc. On its face, the charter provides for ostensibly worthy, noble, patriotic, civic purposes. I am not at all surprised, or would not be surprised, if people could join that organization based on the recitation of the charter, not knowing what it is.

This is simply another instance of a Klan group hiding behind a legal paper in the shape of a charter, whether it be a gun club, a fishing club, a civic club. They are hiding behind a phony charter and using that charter as a vehicle to cover up what, in fact, is a Klavern.

Since you are under oath and since no one has denied it, and it seems to be proven beyond the shadow of a doubt, this is such an outfit.

Proceed.

Mr. MANUEL. Chief Smith, getting back to the year 1964, do the files of your department indicate where the Clayton County Klavern was meeting for that particular year?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Would you please tell the committee where the Clayton County Klavern met during the year 1964?

Mr. SMITH. They were meeting up at Lake City, which is an incorporated town north of Jonesboro, in the community center up there.

Mr. MANUEL. Is that in the close proximity of Forest Park, which is in Clayton County?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir; just out of the city limits of Forest Park.

Mr. MANUEL. Chief Smith, I would like to show you a copy of a charter filed in the Superior Court of Clayton County, State of Georgia, dated 5 January 1965, the charter for the Clayton Civic Club, Inc.

I would like to ask you, sir, what your investigation has revealed concerning the Clayton Civic Club, Inc.?

(Document handed to witness.)

Mr. SMITH. On the Clayton Civic Club, prior to them buying this property there, they was contemplating buying a house on the outskirts of Jonesboro.

(Document previously marked "Wesley Bailey Exhibit No. 1.")

Mr. MANUEL. Was this after 5 January 1965?

Mr. SMITH. No, sir; that was prior to that time.

Mr. MANUEL. And prior to the incorporation?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir. They bought this particular piece of property from Mr. J. C. Girard Realty Company in Jonesboro. Since they bought it, they have built onto it.

Mr. MANUEL. Let me ask you this: Prior to 5 January 1965, where did the Clayton County Klavern No. 52 hold its meetings?

Mr. SMITH. The only place I knew of was up there at Lake City Community Center.

Mr. MANUEL. After January 1965, where did they hold their meetings?

Mr. SMITH. During 1965, as far as I know, they have held all their meetings at the Civic Club there in Jonesboro.

Mr. MANUEL. Could you be more specific, Chief, as to where the Civic Club is located?

Mr. SMITH. It is located on 54 Highway, between Fifth Avenue and Piney Wood Drive.

Mr. MANUEL. Would you describe the property?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir. They have a long brick building there, and concrete block building, and it houses a tool and die shop in the basement. They have a grocery store operated up at the street level and a barber shop.

Mr. Bailey has an office, Wes Bailey has a law office there, and the Civic Club.

Back in the first part, or the middle of the summer, they did have an agency of the Federal Aviation, the Federal Aviation Agency. They had an office leased there. Whether they are still there or not, I don't know.

Mr. WELTNER. What agency?

Mr. SMITH. The Federal Aviation Agency.

Mr. WELTNER. The FAA?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. They had an office in this building?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Chief Smith, is this building and this property which you have described owned by the Clayton Civic Club, Inc.?

Mr. SMITH. To my knowledge, the best of my knowledge; yes, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. Excuse me, Mr. Manuel. It appears to me now why this charter was obtained, so that there would be a corporate entity to take title to this property.

Is that your evaluation of it?

Mr. SMITH. I am not familiar with that, why they got the charter. I couldn't say.

Mr. WELTNER. But the title is held in the name of that corporation?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. Thank you.

Mr. MANUEL. Chief Smith, before we proceed, would you please tell the committee how, in your capacity as chief of police of Clayton County, you have kept up or surveilled the activities of the Clayton County Klavern No. 52, which operates under the cover of the Clayton Civic Club, Inc.?

Mr. SMITH. The way I have been able to keep up through it is a lot of the members. There are a lot of good men in the organization, and I talk to them from time to time, and they come and tell me what is transpiring.

Mr. MANUEL. So that you have maintained sources inside of this particular Klavern?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Chief Smith, does your investigation show that the Clayton County Civic Club has members other than members of the Ku Klux Klan?

Mr. SMITH. I don't know of any other members.

Mr. MANUEL. Has the Clayton Civic Club, Inc., to your direct knowledge, made any attempt to obtain members who are not members of the Ku Klux Klan?

Mr. SMITH. They haven't to my knowledge.

Mr. MANUEL. To your knowledge has any person attended a meeting of the Clayton County Civic Club who was not a member of the United Klans of America and a member of the Clayton County Klavern No. 52?

Mr. SMITH. That is kind of a double question. I don't know other than the Klan—who attends; I don't know of any civic meeting they have had up there.

Mr. MANUEL. What activities has the Clayton County Civic Club engaged, in to your knowledge?

Mr. SMITH. To my knowledge, I don't know of any.

Mr. MANUEL. Other than Klan activities; is that correct, sir?

Mr. SMITH. Other than the regular Klan meeting; yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. May I say at this point I was very careful to say this charter could be used as an instrument to pull the wool over somebody's eyes. I just said that people not members of the Klan could well have been hoodwinked. I didn't say they were. Now it appears to be just one pure Klan unit.

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Chairman, it appears that, conforming with your suggestion, this charter might very well have deluded individuals and might very well have served to delude the Government of the United States of America, inasmuch as apparently an agency of that Government has become a tenant of the Ku Klux Klan in Clayton County, Georgia.

Mr. MANUEL. Chief Smith, to the best of your knowledge, does the agency of the Federal Government, the FAA, currently maintain offices in the property owned by the Clayton Civic Club?

Mr. SMITH. I have information that the lease was broken, but of my own knowledge I don't know whether it was or not.

Mr. MANUEL. From your direct knowledge, would you please tell the committee how the Clayton Civic Club obtained this property, specifying the amount of money involved, if you possess such knowledge?

Mr. SMITH. All my knowledge would be hearsay from some of the members. They bought it for $35,000. Of course, they are paying for it monthly.

Mr. MANUEL. Do you know from what source they derive their revenue to make the payments on this building?

Mr. SMITH. No, sir; I do not.

Mr. MANUEL. Chief Smith, in the document which I handed you, the copy of the charter of Clayton Civic Club, Inc., there are listed as the original incorporators a Mr. Fred Hand, of Route 3, College Park, Georgia. Do you know Mr. Hand to be a member of the Ku Klux Klan?

Mr. SMITH. Through information.

The CHAIRMAN. Through investigative information?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. In other words, this is information which sources within the Klan have brought to your attention; is that correct, sir?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. D. [Daniel] E. Bruce, of Box 117, Jonesboro, Georgia, is also listed as an original incorporator. Do you know Mr. Bruce to be a member of Clayton County Klavern No. 52?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. W. G. Bailey, of 167 Dixie Drive, Jonesboro, Georgia, is also listed as an original incorporator. Do you know Mr. Bailey to be a member of Clayton County Klavern No. 52 of the Realm of Georgia, United Klans of America?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. B. J. Hand, of Route 3, Jonesboro, Georgia, is also listed as an original incorporator. Do you know B. J. Hand to be a member of Clayton County Klavern No. 52?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, but we don't have a Route 3, Jonesboro.

The CHAIRMAN. You don't have what?

Mr. SMITH. We don't have a Route 3, Jonesboro.

Mr. MANUEL. This is the information that is listed on this document. Whether it is a mistake as to the address, we don't have that information.

Mr. Henry Hand, of Johnson Road, Forest Park, Georgia, is also listed as an original incorporator. Do you know Mr. Henry Hand to be a member of Clayton County Klavern No. 52?

Mr. SMITH. Yes.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. J. W. Wells, of 125 Tanglewood Drive, Jonesboro, Georgia, is also listed as an original incorporator of the Clayton Civic Club, Inc. Do you know Mr. J. W. Wells to be a member of the Clayton County Klavern No. 52 of the Realm of Georgia, United Klans of America?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Chief, has your investigation determined how much, in the way of initiation, prospective members of Clayton County Klavern No. 52 pay?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. How much does a prospective member of Clayton County Klavern No. 52 pay by way of initiation fee?

Mr. SMITH. I believe they call it naturalization. It is $15.

Mr. MANUEL. $15 per person?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Has your investigation determined how much the monthly dues of each member is?

Mr. SMITH. $1.50.

Mr. MANUEL. $1.50 per member.

Has your investigation determined on the average—well, before we get into that, what is the schedule of meetings for the Clayton County Klavern No. 52?

Mr. SMITH. I couldn't give you the exact schedule. I know every third Monday night there is a naturalization night, and other than that, I just ride by—I know every third Monday night is naturalization night.

Mr. MANUEL. Approximately, or on the average, how many people attend the meetings of the Clayton County Civic Club, or the Clayton County Klavern No. 52?

Mr. SMITH. I would say anywhere from 35 to maybe 60 at the most.

Mr. MANUEL. Chief Smith, in the area of your jurisdiction, since you have been the chief police officer concerned with Ku Klux Klan activities, have there been any acts of intimidation or acts of violence committed in your area of jurisdiction?

Mr. SMITH. There hasn't been intimidation. We had an instance of crosses being burned three times. Through investigation, we found out that one of the times it was done by some high school students, and the other two times I talked to some of the members of the Klan, and they denied knowledge. Frankly, I don't believe they burned them.

Mr. MANUEL. Where were these crosses burned?

Mr. SMITH. They were burned at the school superintendent's front yard, J. E. Edmonds, just off the highway. He sits way back off the road.

Mr. MANUEL. When were these crosses burned?

Mr. SMITH. One was burned back several months ago and one last year. That is the only thing we have had since 1959, I believe it was.

Mr. MANUEL. Has your investigation determined why a cross would be burned in front of the school superintendent's property?

Mr. SMITH. No, sir. Mr. Edmonds is superintendent of the county schools and a very efficient man, but he still has a lot of—

The CHAIRMAN. Problems?

Mr. SMITH. That is right.

The CHAIRMAN. Within your investigative knowledge, and you are called here as a legal officer, could you spell out a little bit more what would appear to be the problems?

Mr. SMITH. Do you mean in the schools?

The CHAIRMAN. The superintendent's problem, vis-a-vis the cross-burning by the students.

Mr. SMITH. Mr. Edmonds is superintendent of schools, and we have presently 23,000 kids in school, and he is, I think, a real good administrator, but he is a little fiery. You see, he is an elected official and he has political enemies as well as anyone else. As far as any specific reason, I couldn't give the committee one.

Mr. MANUEL. Chief Smith, did your investigation determine that the crosses were burned at a time when there was an attempt made to integrate school facilities?

Mr. SMITH. No, sir. We integrated our school facilities back in September and we had no incidents whatsoever.

Mr. MANUEL. Chief Smith, has the investigation of your department determined who is the exalted cyclops of Clayton County Klavern No. 52?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Who is that man?

Mr. SMITH. Mr. Robert Bing.

Mr. MANUEL. Robert Bing, B-i-n-g?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Do you likewise know Mr. George Sligh, Mr. Charles Bartlett, Mr. W. B. Parr to be members of the Clayton County Klavern No. 52?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. And also members of the Clayton County Civic Club?

Mr. SMITH. Well, now, the civic club, I would have to clarify this. They meet there and whether they are members of the civic club or not—

Mr. MANUEL. Chief Smith, what has your investigation determined regarding the activities of Charles Bartlett?

Mr. SMITH. He is a public relations man for the Klan. Back, I believe, around the first of the year he was instrumental in that training in Henry County.

Mr. MANUEL. When you say "training in Henry County," could you be more specific on that, sir?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir. They had a place bulldozed out over there where they exploded some dynamite over there, and I understand, through information, that they done some small arms practice over there.

Mr. MANUEL. Was Charles Bartlett ever identified to you as the man who was in charge of the demolition training?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. How did you obtain this knowledge, sir?

Mr. SMITH. Through some of the members.

Mr. MANUEL. Have you ever talked directly to Mr. Charles Bartlett?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Has Mr. Charles Bartlett admitted to you that he was the demolition instructor for this training?

Mr. SMITH. He told me he exploded some over there. Back in the early part of the spring, Charles was having trouble with his eyes and he wasn't fooling with it any more.

Mr. MANUEL. But Charles Bartlett admitted to you that he had been the instructor for demolition for Klansmen; is that correct, sir?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Have you had any conversation with Charles Bartlett subsequent to his subpoena by this committee?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir. I talked to him in the sheriff's office about 10 days ago, and he stated to me and the sheriff that he had talked to, I thought it was, you. I understood you had been in the area. I wasn't contacted at that time. He stated to me and the sheriff that he had talked to one of the investigators and explained what action he had taken and why.

Mr. MANUEL. Did he explain to you, subsequent to receiving a subpoena, what his course of action would be before the committee?

Mr. SMITH. He didn't explain. We was talking there, and he said he was going to tell them; that he wasn't ashamed of it; didn't have anything to hide.

Mr. MANUEL. He told you he was going to be cooperative before the committee?

Mr. SMITH. No, he didn't say he was going to be cooperative. He said he was going to tell the truth. He said other than the secrets of the Klan, I believe he said, he had nothing to hide because he believes in it and he didn't have anything to hide.

Mr. MANUEL. Did he tell you specifically that he would tell the committee that he had engaged in demolition training for the United Klans of America, if he was asked?

Mr. SMITH. He said he was going to tell what part he played in it, and I thought he said Mr. Manuel asked him and he told him, asked him how he learned demolition. He told me he learned it in service.

Mr. MANUEL. We mentioned previously Mr. Daniel Bruce. From your direct knowledge, do you know that Mr. Daniel Bruce has similarly engaged in the training of Klansmen in small arms fire or judo or karate?

Mr. SMITH. I had information through the members that he was instructor in small arms. About judo and karate, I have never heard that mentioned.

Mr. MANUEL. Do you know Mr. Daniel Bruce to be a member of the klokann committee of the Clayton County No. 52 Klavern?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Is it within your knowledge to tell the committee what the duties of the klokann are as you understand them?

Mr. SMITH. No, sir; I don't know the full duties.

Mr. MANUEL. Do members of the klokann committee investigate prospective members?

Mr. SMITH. I have been told that they do; yes, sir.

(At this point Representative Pool entered the hearing room.)

Mr. MANUEL. Chief Smith, would you please tell the committee when you first learned that Clayton County Klavern No. 52 was engaging in training in demolition, judo, karate, and pistol firing, et cetera?

Mr. SMITH. I learned back the first of the year that they had a training ground down in Henry County.

Mr. MANUEL. Our investigation reveals that as far back as sometime in 1963 they started these activities. Well, actually 1961. But the Clayton County Klavern specifically in 1963. You state that your information started in this regard around the first of this year, 1965; is that correct?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir. It could have been a little before the first of the year. It was around the first.

Mr. MANUEL. Has your investigation determined exactly where this training was held?

Mr. SMITH. I have been told by the members. I have never been there. I might add this: After the Saturday Evening Post ran the article, that was in Clayton County, I contacted a boy—well, a boy contacted me from the Atlanta Journal, and I told him and he went down there to it. I told him it was not in Clayton County; it was in Henry County.

Mr. MANUEL. Where, specifically; on whose property?

Mr. SMITH. They tell me on Mr. Bing's farm.

Mr. MANUEL. That is Mr. Robert L. Bing, who is the exalted cyclops of Clayton County Klavern No. 52; is that correct?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. As you stated for the record, Henry County, where the training exercises have taken place, is not in your area of jurisdiction; is that correct, sir?

Mr. SMITH. That is correct.

Mr. MANUEL. Chief Smith, what has your investigation revealed concerning the collection and use of firearms by members of the Clayton Klavern No. 52?

Mr. SMITH. I don't have any knowledge of them collecting firearms. Of course, I do know a lot of them have pistols and hold a pistol toter's license, but as far as collection of firearms, I don't have any knowledge of collecting them.

Mr. MANUEL. How does a Klansman go about obtaining a pistol toter's license?

Mr. SMITH. He has to go to the ordinary of the county, and the ordinary will fill in a blank form for application. Then he brings it down to the police department or the sheriff's department and he is fingerprinted.

Our records are searched for a criminal record. If he has a criminal record, we will attach it to the sheet, and he has to take it back to the ordinary. And if he has a record, the ordinary will not issue him a pistol toter's license. I believe Joe Ames started that about 3 years ago.

Mr. MANUEL. In applying for a pistol toter's permit, is it required to make a statement concerning character, reputation, or past criminal background?

Mr. SMITH. That, I wouldn't know, because on the application all we do is process it and see if he has a criminal record, fingerprint him, and send the prints in to the FBI here.

Mr. MANUEL. Can a person with a past criminal record obtain a pistol toter's license in Clayton County?

Mr. SMITH. According to the judge, no. You see, the judge issues them.

Mr. MANUEL. Is it required that a person state his membership in the Klan in order to obtain a pistol toter's license?

Mr. SMITH. I do not know.

Mr. MANUEL. Chief Smith, yesterday the committee heard testimony from Chief Leo Blackwell, of Griffin, Ga., and the question was raised to Chief Blackwell concerning his recommendations or his opinions on registration of firearms in order to aid law enforcement officers.

Would you tell the committee now what your feelings are with regard to the present laws and any recommendations you might make as a law enforcement officer to aid in your duties in regard to prospective registration or control of firearms?

Mr. SMITH. Yes. I would like to go back a little bit, though, and explain why. You see, in Georgia you can carry a pistol in your glove compartment or under the seat, and most judges will uphold the man. We have holdup men and all types of criminals, and all they have to do is just lay a pistol under the seat or in the glove compartment and they ride around until they get ready to hold up or shoot somebody.

I favor a national registration and control of them, because three fourths of the criminal element has pistols and if they have to register them, if you can catch them in the automobile or illegally, you have a case on them. The way it is now, you do not have a case.

The CHAIRMAN. Would you mind registering your own pistol?

Mr. SMITH. No, sir. I don't think anyone would.

The CHAIRMAN. I didn't think you would.

Mr. SMITH. I don't think any man who owns a pistol and is in a legal business would mind; or any citizen.

Mr. POOL. Do you think it is all right to register them and it is all right to own them? You don't say they shouldn't own pistols?

Mr. SMITH. No, sir; I think they should be registered.

Mr. POOL. New York State has the Sullivan Act, I believe, and you can't possess a pistol. Is that correct for New York?

Mr. SMITH. Unless it is registered. I believe that is right. You can possess one if it is registered up there, if I am not mistaken.

Mr. POOL. I am not familiar with the law. But I was under the impression that you couldn't even own one.

Mr. SMITH. No, sir; I think you can, but it has to be registered.

Mr. POOL. You have to have a permit from the police department in New York, I have been informed, regardless of registration.

Mr. SMITH. It would be a big aid to us.

Mr. POOL. Would you go that far? That is what I am getting at. Would you require that they have a permit?

Mr. SMITH. I would like a permit and all guns to be registered. Then if you have a crime committed where a weapon was used, you would have some leads to go on.

Mr. POOL. You see, you have opposition from these hunters and people like that, especially in the West.

Mr. SMITH. I think the National Rifle Association has built up a good bit of opposition on it, too.

Mr. POOL. You wouldn't go as far as to say they shouldn't have a permit from the police department before they could own a gun?

Mr. SMITH. No, sir; I think they ought to be registered.

Mr. POOL. As long as they are registered, you think that would take care of it?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Sheriff, I am not an expert on this subject and I don't know exactly how to phrase the question because of that fact. Chief Blackwell yesterday described a weapon that had been used in Griffin, Georgia, I think, to point at people while their cohorts were burning a cross, and described that particular weapon as looking like a submachine gun, but that it was single shot.

In other words, you would pull the trigger for each shot. I have since been advised, however, and I want to ask you about it, that that particular arm, that particular weapon, is so designed that by filing down something around the triggering device you can make it automatic, and it would pop off like an automatic.

Are you familiar with that kind of weapon? Do you know of that?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir. We also have our——

The CHAIRMAN. Describe that one. How can it be converted from a single shot to an automatic?

Mr. SMITH. You file some mechanism in there. I don't know. Some of my men know how to do it. I have some carbines bought through Army surplus and you can file an Army carbine, they were semi, and make them fully automatic. There are several types of guns that were used in the war and you can file the mechanism and they will be fully automatic rather than semi.

The CHAIRMAN. As I understand, submachine guns are so equipped that you can trip a trigger or a slide and make it a one-shot weapon and when you remove that it becomes automatic.

Mr. SMITH. That is the M-2 carbine, I believe, that you are talking about.

The CHAIRMAN. The point is, as I understand, that the automatic submachine guns are registerable under Federal law, but those that are single shot, I suppose classified as a rifle or something, are not.

It seems to me that the manufacturer could see to it that if you want an automatic submachine gun you have it, since you just have to file something.

Mr. SMITH. Mr. Chairman, our worst trouble has been the importation of these old guns from across the waters. We have had more people shot and killed, I would say, in the United States, with these $12.00, .22 single-shot German pistols. You can buy them for $12.00 retail and probably get them for $6.00 on the market if you want to get them wholesale.

There have been more people killed, I would say, across the country, with them than any other weapon. But you can buy these Army surplus, the old British, all types of foreign guns that have been sent in here. You can't go to a farmhouse that hasn't got some type of weapon.

The CHAIRMAN. The distinction between the submachine gun described and one that can be made into one, as I understand, is that with the type used in the Army you can switch from automatic to single shot, but with this one—if you filed it—it would be permanently an automatic; is that correct?

Mr. SMITH. That is correct; yes, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. I think these weapons that were confiscated temporarily in Spalding County were .45 caliber weapons and the clips had been taped together so that there would be 150 rounds of ammunition that could be fired single shot unless the pin was filed down to make them automatic.

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir. I talked to Leo about that at the time and after that we discussed those guns.

Mr. WELTNER. Is there any sporting use of a .45 caliber submachine-gun type weapon?

Mr. SMITH. I wouldn't know of any. It would be rightly expensive to shoot.

Mr. WELTNER. Is there any game in Clayton County or Spalding County or Fulton County that takes a .45 caliber slug to bring down?

Mr. SMITH. I don't know of any.

Mr. WELTNER. That is, other than human game?

Mr. SMITH. I don't know of any game.

Mr. WELTNER. You don't have a lot of bears down in your county; do you?

Mr. SMITH. There is not any that I know of.

Mr. POOL. I do want to ask one further question. Do you have any idea, from talking to your men, how long it takes to file this pin down to make it automatic?

Mr. SMITH. It is just a very simple matter.

Mr. POOL. Two or three minutes?

Mr. SMITH. It might take 30 minutes.

Mr. POOL. Thirty minutes?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir. Now, you can do this: Those parts, most of the gunsmiths have them, and you can buy the part and make it interchangeable, the automatic is interchangeable with the semiautomatic. You don't have to file them down.

Mr. POOL. You could carry the part along with you?

Mr. SMITH. You could have; yes, sir.

Mr. POOL. Separate from the gun. It would be a 1-minute change or something like that.

Mr. SMITH. I don't know, but it wouldn't take too long. We have an outfit in Florida, and some of you are probably familiar, which is buying these M-1's and cutting them down to where they are only about that long (indicating), and they are still legal. They have a pistol grip on an M-1 carbine and it will shoot 30 times.

Mr. POOL. Do you have any recommendations regarding these weapons shown in the picture presented yesterday as to Federal laws concerning that kind of a weapon, since they can be converted into an automatic almost immediately?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir. I don't think the public needs that type of gun, period.

The CHAIRMAN. However, if you will pardon me, whether you use the gun as a single shot or a multiple shot, if you are hit you are a candidate for the pearly gates anyway; aren't you?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir; with that .45 caliber if you are hit anywhere in the body, you are in bad shape.

Mr. MANUEL. Chief Smith, I would like to ask you, to your direct knowledge, are there any subordinates in your department in the Clayton County Police Department, or any member of the sheriff's department who are members of the Ku Klux Klan?

Mr. SMITH. No, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. To your direct knowledge, are any officials of Clayton County members of the Ku Klux Klan?

Mr. SMITH. Not to my knowledge.

Mr. POOL. Any of the relatives of any of the officials who are members of the Ku Klux Klan?

Mr. SMITH. To my knowledge, I don't know of any. There might be, but I haven't tried to break it down. I don't know of any.

Mr. MANUEL. Chief Smith, to your direct knowledge, is any former law enforcement officer in Clayton County a member of the Klan?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Would you please identify that man and give his past position?

Mr. SMITH. We have a former sheriff that is a member of the Clayton County Civic Club.

Mr. MANUEL. Who is that, sir?

Mr. SMITH. W. Lloyd Dixon.

Mr. MANUEL. Is he currently active in the Klan organization?

Mr. SMITH. He is attending the meetings; yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Up until what point in time was he the sheriff of Clayton County?

Mr. SMITH. Up until January the 1st of this year.

Mr. POOL. Was he a member of the Ku Klux Klan before that time, while he was sheriff?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir; but of a different Klavern and a different Klan. He was with another, the College Park Klan.

Mr. POOL. Do you know the name of it.

Mr. SMITH. No, sir. It was the College Park Klan. H. J. Jones was one of the wheels in it.

Mr. POOL. The predecessor of the one they have now?

Mr. MANUEL. May I state for the record, Mr. Pool, that the Klan organization to which Chief Smith now refers is the U.S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, of which H. J. Jones was, as of our best information, the Imperial Wizard?

Mr. POOL. What was the name of the Klan when this man was sheriff that he is talking about?

Mr. MANUEL. As I understand it from Chief Smith, he has held dual membership. He, at one time, was a member of the U.S. Klans which met in College Park, which is in Fulton County, and as of the chief's latest information he meets now with the Clayton Civic Club or the Clayton County Klavern No. 52, which is a part of the United Klans of America.

Mr. POOL. For the record, what was the name of the Klan before January 1?

The CHAIRMAN. You are talking about the Klavern?

Mr. POOL. The Klavern.

Mr. MANUEL. January 1st of this year? Clayton County Klavern No. 52 of the United Klans of America, Realm of Georgia.

Mr. POOL. And that is the one that he just testified that the sheriff belonged to when he was sheriff?

Is that correct?

Mr. SMITH. No, sir. Prior to coming with the Clayton County Klan No. 52, he was with a Klan, Jones' U.S. Klans, which met in College Park. What Klavern number, I don't know, because it was in another county.

Mr. POOL. It wasn't in your county?

Mr. SMITH. No, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Chief Smith, since his departure from the job of sheriff in January of this year, does the ex-sheriff hold any honorary police position in Clayton County?

Mr. SMITH. Not to my knowledge; no, sir.

MR. MANUEL. Our investigation reveals that Mr. George Sligh, whom you have identified as a member of Clayton County Klavern No. 52, holds an honorary position with the sheriff's department in Fulton County and in Clayton County. Is that information correct, to the best of your knowledge?

MR. SMITH. Yes, sir. Aside from being an insurance salesman, he also works for Pinkerton Detective Agency, and he has to have a special police permit to work for that agency.

MR. MANUEL. To your knowledge, in applying for the position with the police agency, did he make known his membership in the Ku Klux Klan?

MR. SMITH. I don't have any knowledge, because he is with the sheriff of Clayton County and the sheriff of Fulton County, and I haven't any knowledge whether he did or did not.

MR. MANUEL. To your direct knowledge, other than Mr. Sligh, are there any other Klansmen who hold similar positions in either Clayton County or Fulton County?

MR. SMITH. No, sir. I don't have a list of the special deputies at my disposal. I could get it. I have never asked for them. As far as I know, he is the only one.

MR. MANUEL. Are there any special deputies attached to your particular department whom you know to be members of the Klan?

MR. SMITH. I only have one special police and he is with the tax department in Atlanta.

MR. MANUEL. And he is not a member of the Klan, to the best of your knowledge?

MR. SMITH. No, sir. He works for the State of Georgia.

MR. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, I have no further questions.

MR. WELTNER. Chief Smith, I want to thank you for your appearance here today. It is with considerable pride that I, as a fellow Georgian, note your appearance.

I have this question to ask to you as a law enforcement officer. Under the law of Georgia, any person who has knowledge of the commission of a crime is under a duty to report that to the duly constituted authorities. Under our law, failure to report a crime, having knowledge of it, can result in compounding the felony or misdemeanor; is that correct?

MR. SMITH. Yes, sir.

MR. WELTNER. So it is the duty of all citizens to report to the proper authorities any infractions of the law of which they have personal knowledge.

I would like to read to you sections of a Klan oath which has previously been placed into the record, and to inquire of you on the basis of this. I am reading from page 1 which says:

I most solemnly swear that I will forever keep sacredly secret * * * any and all other matters and knowledge * * * communicated to me and will never divulge same nor even cause same to be divulged to any person in the whole world unless I know positively that such person is a member of this Order, in good and regular standing, and not even then unless it be for the best interest of this Order.

Then it skips down and says: "I will die rather than divulge same."

On page 3, the oath of allegiance to the Klan, states:

I swear that I will keep secure to myself a secret of a [Klan]*sman when same is committed to me in the sacred bond of [Klan]*smanship—the crime of violating THIS solemn oath—treason against the United States of America—rape—and malicious murder—alone excepted.

If that is an oath taken by members of the Klan, I would like to ask you whether, in your opinion as a law enforcement officer, that oath is consistent with the duty of a citizen to report crimes and infractions of law over which he has knowledge?

Mr. SMITH. As long as a fellow Klansman doesn't commit it, I reckon it would be all right. But if a fellow Klansman commits a crime, if he keeps that oath he certainly wouldn't report it.

(Document previously marked "Robert Shelton Exhibit No. 4.")

Mr. WELTNER. A Klansman, then, would be under an oath not to report any infractions or crimes with these exceptions?

Mr. SMITH. That is the way I interpret it.

Mr. WELTNER. Would it be your opinion, then, that a law enforcement officer who also takes an oath could consistently be faithful to his oath as a law enforcement officer and his oath as a Klansman?

Mr. SMITH. No, sir; he couldn't.

Mr. WELTNER. Thank you.

Mr. SMITH. There would be a conflict there.

Mr. WELTNER. Sir?

Mr. SMITH. There would be a conflict. He couldn't.

Mr. WELTNER. It would be an irreconcilable conflict?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir.

Mr. WELTNER. Thank you very much, Chief Smith. Again, I appreciate your being here.

Mr. BUCHANAN. I want to thank you for your testimony, Chief, and say that I am very shocked to learn that an agency of the Federal Government is subject to error, as apparently was the case in this rental of space from the Ku Klux Klan.

Thank you for your testimony.

The CHAIRMAN. Sheriff, before you go, you did say that you thought the lease was broken. Would you have any idea how long ago it was that the FAA broke the lease or got away from it?

Mr. SMITH. I believe—

The CHAIRMAN. Just your best approximation.

Mr. SMITH. Approximately 4 months ago.

The CHAIRMAN. Of course, we would have to ask them direct, and are very, very likely to do so.

Within your investigative knowledge, is it your understanding that the lease was broken because the FAA found out that they were leasing from a Klan Klavern? Did you hear that?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. That is, in the investigative part of your duty.

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir; that is right. I heard it was broken because they found out it was a Klan Klavern.

The CHAIRMAN. Sheriff, I, too, want to add my words of commendation to you. You are a credit to the law enforcement agencies of the State of Georgia and the county that you so ably represent.

We appreciate your appearance. I know you might have problems, but I am tempted to ask you this and I will: You are not afraid of anything happening to you, are you, because you testified here?

Mr. SMITH. No, sir. I might add this: As long—with some of the men that is in that Klan down there, I don't anticipate any trouble?

The CHAIRMAN. I do know from what has been established and from information coming to us that some people, some members, really do honestly feel some elements of fear. But as time goes on, I am quite sure they will feel like you do.

Mr. POOL. Mr. Chairman, I want to also thank the chief for appearing and commend him for giving us his testimony.

I will ask you one last question, which is this: From your experience and from talking to people in the South, would you say that most of the good citizens of the South do not want any part of the Ku Klux Klan?

Mr. SMITH. Well, a Klan is a very small minority. Of course, the membership has grown in the last few months.

Mr. POOL. But most of the people of the South are law abiding and deplore acts of violence, bombings, and things like that, and certainly the only people that get into it are either misguided or are people who are not good citizens?

Mr. SMITH. I will have to back up. I believe, and, of course—

Mr. POOL. I say misguided.

Mr. SMITH. Well, you say misguided. I wouldn't say they wasn't good citizens, because some of them are.

Mr. POOL. The good ones are misled?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir.

Mr. POOL. Thank you very much.

Mr. MANUEL. Chief Smith, I would like to ask you just one more question. Have you ever heard of an organization called NACIREMA, INC.?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir.

Mr. MANUEL. Would you please give the committee a brief account of your knowledge of that organization?

Mr. SMITH. My knowledge is very slim on it because it originated back in, I would say, the early part of 1960 and was supposed to have originated up in Cobb County, around Mableton, Georgia. They have a few bombings in 1960 and 1961 that was attributed to them in DeKalb and Fulton County. Some of the men that was supposed to be the head of it were in Atlanta, there.

Mr. MANUEL. Is it your knowledge that members of NACIREMA, INC., were either members or former members of the Ku Klux Klan?

Mr. SMITH. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Chief, you are excused and we appreciate your appearance.

The committee will stand in recess until 1:45.

(Subcommittee members present at time of recess: Representatives Willis, Pool, Weltner, and Buchanan.)

(Whereupon, at 11:18 a.m., Wednesday, November 3, 1965, the subcommittee recessed, to reconvene at 1:45 p.m. the same day.)

AFTERNOON SESSION—WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1965

(The subcommittee reconvened at 2:10 p.m., Hon. Edwin E. Willis, chairman, presiding.)

(Subcommittee members present: Representatives Willis, Pool, and Weltner.)

The CHAIRMAN. The subcommittee will come to order.

The Chair first wants to state that, through inadvertence, I failed to say that the last witness, Chief Smith, is continued under subpoena until January 1, 1966. We have other matters to take up with him.

Proceed.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, at this time the staff wishes to call Mr. Charles Bartlett.

(At this point Mr. Buchanan entered the hearing room.)

The CHAIRMAN. Please raise your right hand.

Do you solemnly swear that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mr. BARTLETT. I do, sir.

TESTIMONY OF CHARLES MALCOLM BARTLETT, ACCOMPANIED BY COUNSEL, LESTER V. CHALMERS, JR.

Mr. CHALMERS. Mr. Chairman, before we proceed with this witness, may I state to the chairman that I have a subpoena for Mr. Joseph Marvin Holland. He forwarded it to me yesterday by mail, special delivery, and asked that I represent him in connection with a matter before the committee.

I spoke to Mr. Appell earlier this morning and I think I spoke to the chairman yesterday. I have here a doctor's certificate from Dr. Charles G. Green, of Waynesboro, Georgia, who states as follows:

J. M. Holland has been ill for one year. Due to physical conditions, it would be harmful for this patient to travel to Washington, D.C., to appear before the Committee on Un-American Activities.

It is signed "C. J. Green."

I talked with Dr. Green at lunch today, during the lunch hour, and I explained to him the necessity for the witness' appearance if he was at all available to do. Dr. Green explained to me that the witness is suffering from a severe heart condition and that he flatly thought that it would jeopardize his health, and possibly his life, if he were put under such a strain to come up and physically be present and to testify.

I would like to say, sir, if he can be excused, I would appreciate it. If the committee feels like his testimony is such that you could prepare interrogatories for him, I would be happy to see if we couldn't work it out some way or another to have the interrogatories propounded to him and his answer given. It is certainly not an attempt on his part, and I feel the chairman knows it is no attempt on my part—

The CHAIRMAN. You did talk to me about this late yesterday afternoon, and I asked you, in addition to this little doctor's certificate, to phone the doctor to verify the facts and to let me know. You have done that. Of course, the individual—what is his name?

Mr. CHALMERS. Mr. J. M. Holland.

The CHAIRMAN—Mr. Holland would not be expected to report on the date which the subpoena calls for him to be here, which is November 5.

Therefore, looking to all angles of it, at this time he is excused from that subpoena, but I will continue the subpoena, and I wish you would tell him that, until January 1. We will see what happens.¹

Mr. CHALMERS. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. You will communicate that to him?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir. I will contact him this afternoon.

The CHAIRMAN. Proceed.

Mr. MANUEL. Please state your full name for the record, sir.

Mr. BARTLETT. Charles Malcolm Bartlett.

Mr. MANUEL. Are you represented by counsel?

Mr. BARTLETT. Yes.

Mr. MANUEL. Will counsel please identify himself for the record?

Mr. CHALMERS. Lester V. Chalmers, Jr., attorney at law, Room 501, First Federal Building, Raleigh, North Carolina.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bartlett, when and where were you born?

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you were born on the 16th day of November 1926.

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you are a native of Atlanta, Georgia.

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bartlett, where do you currently reside, sir?

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you currently reside at 292 Conley Road, Forest Park, Georgia.

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bartlett, what is your occupation?

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, sir, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you are employed as a bulldozer operator for the B & B Grading Company.

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bartlett, are you currently a member of the United Klans of America?

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Have you engaged in training persons known to you to be members of the United Klans of America in demolition exercises and the use of firearms, military training, judo, and karate?

¹ Not called as witness due to physical condition.

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, at this point I would like to state for the record that investigation conducted by this committee shows that Mr. Bartlett is currently a member of the Realm of Georgia, United Klans of America; further, that he holds the position of grand klarogo of the Realm of Georgia and has held that position at least since July of 1965; that he is a member of Clayton County Klavern No. 52.

Our investigation further shows that Mr. Bartlett has acted as an instructor in training Klansmen in the use of firearms, explosive, military-type training, and judo.

Mr. Bartlett, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the results of the committee's investigation are correct.

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that—

Mr. MANUEL. Excuse me. Before you answer that, Mr. Bartlett, I would like to state further for the record that the committee investigation shows that you are also the titan of Province 6 of the Realm of Georgia, United Klans of America.

Now, including that and the other results of our investigation. I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the results of our investigation are correct.

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(At this point Mr. Buchanan left the hearing room.)

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, I would further like to state for the record that as of the 11th day of October 1965, Mr. Bartlett held the position which our investigation shows he did hold at that time.

I put it to you as a fact, sir, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the results of the committee investigation are correct.

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the ground previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bartlett, are you appearing before the committee today in response to a subpoena served upon you by Deputy Marshal Allen, at 9 o'clock p.m. on the 11th day of October, 1965, at 292 Conley Road, Forest Park, Georgia?

Mr. CHALMERS. Mr. Chairman, it is so stipulated.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you, Mr. Chalmers.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bartlett, paragraph 1 of your subpoena calls upon you to produce:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and affiliated organizations, namely, the Alabama Rescue Service, Georgia Rescue Service, State Men's Club, Clayton County Klavern #52 and the Clayton Civic Club, Inc. in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by you or available to you as Grand Klarogo, Realm of Georgia, Titan Province #6, Realm of Georgia, and judo, firearms and demolition instructor, Realm of Georgia of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

I ask you now, sir, to produce those items called for in paragraph 1 of your subpoena.

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated

October 11, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by the Rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents as demanded by the committee in the subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Counselor, I offer to make the following stipulation along the lines of those previously entered into: (1) That the witness has been furnished with a copy of the chairman's opening statement of October 19, 1965, and that he is familiar with its contents; (2) that the directions of the subpoena to produce the documents called for are made to the witness in the official representative capacity described in the subpoena.

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir; it is so stipulated.

The CHAIRMAN. Therefore, Mr. Bartlett, since we have not agreed to the reasons you have indicated for refusing to produce the documents, I now order and direct you to produce them.

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee the documents demanded and ordered by the committee based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bartlett, paragraph 2 of your subpoena calls for you to produce:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by or available to you, in your capacity as Grand Klarogo, Realm of Georgia, Titan Province # 6, Realm of Georgia, and judo, firearms and demolition instructor, Realm of Georgia of the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, which the "Constitution and Laws" of said organization authorize and require to be maintained by you and any other officer of said organization, the same being in your possession, custody or control.

I now ask you, sir, to produce the documents called for in paragraph 2 of your subpoena.

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee the documents demanded and ordered by the committee based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. Is the same stipulation agreed to?

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. For the reasons previously given, Mr. Bartlett, I order and direct you to produce these documents.

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee the documents demanded and ordered by the committee based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bartlett, did you attend the State convention of the United Klans of America, Realm of Georgia, held in Savannah, Georgia, in July 1965?

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, sir, that you did attend that State convention and that you were elected at that convention to the office of grand klarogo for the Realm of Georgia, United Klans of America.

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Our investigation shows, Mr. Bartlett, that at that convention in July of 1965 in Savannah, Georgia, the following persons were elected to office within the Realm of Georgia, United Klans of America:

Calvin F. Craig, of Atlanta, was elected to the position of Grand Dragon; Thomas Jenkins of Lithonia, Georgia, was elected to the position of Grand Klaliff; John M. Parker of Roswell, Georgia, was elected to the position of grand kligrapp; James D. Newberry of Atlanta was elected to the position of grand klabee; Grady C. Little of Doraville, Georgia, was elected to the position of grand kladd; John L. Brock of DeKalb County, Georgia, was elected to the position of grand klokard; Cleveland Eugene Canup of Lilburn, Georgia, was elected to the position of grand klexter; J. D. Johnson, of Stone Mountain, Georgia, was elected to the position of grand kludd; and David J. Mathis of Lawrenceville, Georgia, was elected to the position of grand night-hawk.

I put it to you as a fact, sir, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the results of the committee investigation are correct.

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bartlett, were you present in the hearing room today when Chief Howard Smith of Clayton County, Georgia, testified? (Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. CHALMERS. Mr. Chairman, upon my advice, he was not here this morning.

Mr. CHAIRMAN. Proceed.

Mr. MANUEL. Chief Smith testified this morning, Mr. Bartlett, that approximately 10 days ago he personally had a conversation with you in his office in Jonesboro, Georgia. Is this testimony correct?

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. During the course of that conversation, Chief Smith stated that you advised him that you had nothing to hide and that you would come to the committee as a subpoenaed witness and tell what you knew about the Klan organization. Is that testimony correct?

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(At this point Mr. Buchanan returned to the hearing room.)

Mr. MANUEL. Chief Smith further testified that in another conversation which he personally had with you, you admitted to him that you were the demolition man for the United Klans of America, Clayton County Klavern No. 52, and that you had conducted for Klansmen certain explosive demolition instructions. Is that testimony correct?

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Chief Smith further testified that you had told him that you had given that same statement, or words to that effect, to an investigator of this committee. Is that testimony correct?

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Chief Smith further testified that it was his recollection of the conversation that the name of Investigator Manuel of the Committee on Un-American Activities came up and that it was his recollection that you had told him that you told Investigator Manuel that you were the demolition man for the United Klans of America, Clayton County Klavern No. 52. Is that testimony correct?

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Have you had, as a matter of fact, any conversation whatsoever with Investigator Manuel of the House Committee on Un-American Activities?

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, sir, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you never had any conversation with Investigator Manuel of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, who happens to be, if you don't know, myself.

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Sir, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you are the instructor in explosives, military-type training, judo, firearms, and karate for the Clayton County Klavern No. 52.

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Our committee investigation shows that on October, 17, 1964, Clayton County Klavern No. 52, United Klans of America, Inc., sponsored a demolition school on the farm of Robert L. Bing, located near Highway 138 in Henry County, Georgia.

I put it to you as a fact, sir, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the results of the committee investigation are correct.

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, sir, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that Robert L. Bing is the exalted cyclops of Clayton County Klavern No. 52.

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Our investigation reveals that on that occasion you were the instructor and you explained in the course of your instruction that a Klansman should know sabotage and demolition work in the event our country is ever invaded and taken over by an enemy, in which case you stated the Klan would have to work underground.

I put it to you as a fact, sir, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the results of the committee investigation are correct.

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I wonder at this time, Mr. Bartlett, if you would tell the committee exactly who is the enemy that you were explaining to the Klansmen so gathered on Robert Bing's farm?

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Our investigation further shows that on that same afternoon, and continuing with the same line of conversation and instruction, you said that one of the most important things about an underground organization is communications and organizational set-up. At that time you showed a chart which depicted the setup of an underground group and you read from several printed pages.

I wonder if you would identify for the committee the printed book, the book from which you were reading?

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I would like to ask you where is the chart from which you depicted the setup of an underground group?

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Our investigation further reveals that later in the demonstration you explained how to make a booby trap and you actually set one off, with a string across a make-believe road. You connected the string to clothes pins which, in turn, were connected to a battery and several sticks of dynamite which had been buried about 150 feet away in a field.

A volunteer Klansman tripped the string and the dynamite in the field exploded.

I put it to you as a fact, sir, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the results of the committee investigation are correct.

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. It is within your knowledge to state, sir, whether exploding dynamite in the State of Georgia is against the law?

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Do you know Daniel Bruce to be likewise an instructor in small arms fire, judo, karate, and demolition equipment and to be a member of the Clayton County Klavern No. 52?

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, sir, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that Daniel Bruce has assisted you in the instruction of explosive devices, small arms fire, judo, and karate.

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bartlett, I would like to inquire of you now as to your background which enables you to be an instructor of explosive devices, judo, karate, and small arms fire.

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bartlett, are you a member of an organization known as the Clayton Civic Club, Inc.?

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, sir, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the Clayton Civic Club, Inc., is a cover for Clayton County Klavern No. 52 and all the incorporators and officers of Clayton Civic Club, Inc., are also officers and members of Clayton County Klavern No. 52.

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bartlett, I would like to show you a copy of a directive sent from Calvin F. Craig, Grand Dragon, Realm of Georgia, headed "United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, P.O. Box 10753, Atlanta, Georgia," dated January 17, 1965, and reading as follows:

Esteemed Klansmen:

We will start Judo, Karate, and Rifle and Pistol firing training on Monday, January 25, 1965 at the Henry County #60 Klavern.

Four (4) trophies have already been purchased by Klayton #52 Klavern. There will be a trophy for each of the above classes.

Everyone who participates in the training MUST sign a release of all responsibilities.

Each participant will pay $2.50 to cover 2½ months of training. This training is sponsored by Klayton #52. Contact #52 for any further information.

It is not signed but imprinted "I.T.S.U.B., Calvin F. Craib, Grand Dragon, Realm of Georgia."

Sir, I hand you a copy of this directive and ask if you have ever seen or received a similar copy?

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bartlett, who appointed you to be the demolition instructor and also the instructor in military training, small arms fire, judo, and karate, which position you actually did hold?

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Did you act as the demolition instructor and also the instructor in rifle, pistol, judo, karate, and military type training with the knowledge and consent of Grand Dragon Calvin F. Craig of the Realm of Georgia?

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, sir, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that Calvin F. Craig knew of and approved of your being the instructor as I have outlined.

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Did Robert L. Bing, the exalted cyclops of Clayton Klavern No. 52, have knowledge of your acting as instructor in matters which I have previously described?

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, sir, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that Robert L. Bing knew of and consented to your being an instructor to Klansmen in the matters that I have previously identified.

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bartlett, I would like now to show you a photograph taken by members of the Atlanta Police Department picturing Charles M. Bartlett and George Sligh. This picture was taken at a United Klans rally on the outskirts of Atlanta in September of 1965.

I show you this photograph, sir, and ask you whether you are pictured therein and whether this was taken at a United Klans of America rally?

(Photograph handed to witness.)

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Is the other person, identified as George Sligh in this photo, known to you to be a member of the United Klans of America, Clayton County Klavern No. 52?

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(Photograph marked "Charles Bartlett Exhibit No. 1" appears on p. 2295.)

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, at this time the staff has no further questions of this witness.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Bartlett, Mr. Manuel brought out that you had stated that you were giving this course of instructions in order to enable members of the Klan to participate underground in the event of an attack by the enemy or an enemy.

Why would you and members of the Klan want to go under ground in case of an attack on this country by anyone?

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. If there was an attack made on this country by anyone, wouldn't you want to defend it openly?

Mr. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. POOL. Mr. Bartlett, in view of your refusal to cooperate, I thought I might point out to you that the power of Congress to investigate anything such as this, the Ku Klux Klan, has been upheld by the Supreme Court of the United States. In fact, the first congressional investigation took place about 3 years after the adoption of the Constitution which you so readily rely upon, the fifth amendment of it. Alexander Hamilton, the Secretary of the Treasury, was investigated one time by Congress. Gerhart Eisler was investigated by this very same committee and skipped out. The Teapot Dome was a congressional investigation. Alger Hiss, the German-American Bund, the Costello underground investigation, the Kefauver drug investigation—all of these things have been done by Congress and this is a committee of Congress sitting here asking you questions, and you are taking the fifth amendment on a very simple question, such as where you were born, and this question that the chairman just put to you.

Frankly, I don't think you look very good to the American people when they read about these things in the paper, all of you gentlemen coming here and taking the fifth amendment all the way through.

CHARLES BARTLETT EXHIBIT NO. 1

Photograph of (1) Charles M. Bartlett and (2) George Sligh, taken at a United Klans rally on outskirts of Atlanta, Ga. in September 1965.

I would hope that you would cooperate with this committee if you have any voluntary statements to make. Maybe you would like to do it that way.

The power of this committee to investigate is based upon the power of Congress to make laws on the recommendations of this committee, to amend laws, to inform the people, and also to look into oversights in the administration of laws and things like that.

It is a very serious purpose we are here for. I certainly would think that you, if you consider yourself a good American citizen, would cooperate with the Congress and cooperate with this committee, which is an arm of the Congress.

Do you have any further statement to make to this committee?

(Witness confers with counsel.)

MR. POOL. I guess he hasn't any, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN. I think that is in the form of a question.

MR. BARTLETT. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

MR. WELTNER. Mr. Chairman, there was some question raised by the questioning of the investigator as to whether he, Mr. Manuel, had ever had conversation with Mr. Bartlett. In order that we might have some affirmative evidence on that, I should like to inquire of Mr. Manuel, and he is still under oath, as to whether or not he has ever had any conversation with Mr. Bartlett.

MR. MANUEL. Sir, I stated for the record that I had none.

MR. WELTNER. That is all I had, Mr. Chairman.

MR. BUCHANAN. Mr. Chairman, I will simply say, in line with what Mr. Pool was saying, that we are here representing the Congress and as Members of the Congress we represent the people of the United States. What we seek to do here is something we are doing for the people of the United States, and he that shows contempt for this committee is in fact showing contempt for the people of this country.

THE CHAIRMAN. The witness is excused and released from his subpoena.

Call your next witness.

MR. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, at this time I would like to call to the stand Mr. Daniel Bruce.

THE CHAIRMAN. Please raise your right hand.

Do you solemnly swear that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

MR. BRUCE. I do.

THE CHAIRMAN. Proceed.

TESTIMONY OF DANIEL EDWARD BRUCE, ACCOMPANIED BY COUNSEL, LESTER V. CHALMERS, JR.

MR. MANUEL. Mr. Bruce, would you please state your full name for the record, sir?

MR. BRUCE. Daniel Edward Bruce.

MR. MANUEL. Are you represented today, Mr. Bruce, by counsel?

MR. BRUCE. Yes.

MR. MANUEL. Will counsel please identify himself for the record?

MR. CHALMERS. Lester V. Chalmers, Jr., attorney at law, Room 501, First Federal Building, Raleigh, North Carolina.

MR. MANUEL. Mr. Bruce, where do you currently reside?

MR. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

MR. MANUEL. Sir, when and where were you born?

MR. BRUCE. I respectfully decline to answer that question on the grounds previously stated.

MR. MANUEL. Mr. Bruce, are you currently a member of a Ku Klux Klan organization?

MR. BRUCE. I respectfully decline to answer that question on the grounds which I previously stated.

MR. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, at this point, I would like to state for the record that, as of the 11th day of October 1965, our investigation shows that Mr. Bruce is a member of the United Klans of America, Realm of Georgia; further, that he is a member of the Clayton County Klavern No. 52, and an original incorporator of the Clayton Civic Club, Inc.; and that he has acted as demolition, judo, and firearms instructor for Klansmen of the United Klans of America, Realm of Georgia.

Mr. Bruce, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the results of the committee investigation as I have outlined them are correct.

MR. BRUCE. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds which I have previously stated.

MR. MANUEL. Mr. Bruce, are you appearing before the committee today in response to a subpoena served upon you by Deputy Marshal Allen on October 11, 1965, at 9:45 p.m., served at Adamson Road and Lake Drive, in Jonesboro, Georgia?

MR. CHALMERS. Mr. Chairman, with respect to the stipulation with regard to the subpoena, I desire with respect to this witness to enter into the same stipulation that we have heretofore entered into with respect to the subpoena.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you.

MR. MANUEL. Mr. Bruce, paragraph 1 of your subpoena calls upon you to produce:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and affiliated organizations, namely, the Alabama Rescue Service, Georgia Rescue Service, State Men's Club, Clayton Klavern # 52 and Clayton Civic Club, Inc., in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by you or available to you as member of Clayton Klavern # 52 and Clayton Civic Club, Inc., and judo, firearms and demolition instructor, Realm of Georgia of the Invisible Empire, United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., also known as the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

I ask you now, sir, to produce those items called for in paragraph 1 of your subpoena.

MR. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee under the subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation, and the same would not aid the Congress in its consideration of any valid, remedial legislation, nor is such within the scope of the authority for the matter to be investigated by Rule XI of the rules adopted by the Congress, or by Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents as demanded in a subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. I am told by counsel of the committee that we better make clear that the stipulation with reference to the return of the subpoena is that the return and time of the services is the return shown by the United States marshal.

Mr. CHALMERS. Yes, sir; on its face; yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. In line with all other instances, I offer to make the following stipulation: That the witness has been furnished a copy of the chairman's opening statement of October 19, 1965, and that he is familiar with its contents; and (2) that the directions of the subpoena to produce the documents called for are made to the witness in the official representative capacity described in the subpoena.

That is agreed to?

Mr. CHALMERS. It is so stipulated.

The CHAIRMAN. In light of that, Mr. Bruce, I order and direct you to produce the documents called for.

Mr. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents demanded and ordered by the committee based upon the grounds which I previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bruce, I hand you a copy of a charter filed in the Superior Court, of Clayton County, State of Georgia, the first paragraph of which lists several names, among them "D. E. Bruce, Box 117, Jonesboro, Georgia."

This is the charter for the Clayton Civic Club, Inc., filed the 5th day of January 1965.

Mr. Bruce, I hand you this document and ask you if you are the D. E. Bruce listed?

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

(Document previously marked "Wesley Bailey Exhibit No. 1.")

Mr. MANUEL. Is Box 117, Jonesboro, Georgia, which is listed after your name, your mailing address?

Mr. BRUCE. I respectfully decline to answer that question on the grounds which I have previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. The committee investigation has revealed that the Clayton Civic Club, Inc., is a cover for the Clayton County Klavern No. 52 of the Realm of Georgia, United Klans of America, and that all officers and members of the Clayton Civic Club, Inc., are also officers and members of the Clayton County Klavern No. 52.

I put it to you as a fact, sir, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the results of the committee investigation are correct.

Mr. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question on the grounds which I have previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. The other incorporators listed on this charter are Fred Hand, Route 3, College Park, Georgia; W. G. Bailey, 167 Dixie Drive, Jonesboro, Georgia; B. J. Hand, Route 3, Jonesboro, Georgia; Roy Meadows, 114 Lake Drive, Jonesboro, Georgia; Henry Hand, Johnson Road, Forest Park, Georgia; and J. W. Wells, of 125 Tanglewood Drive, Jonesboro, Georgia.

Do you know these persons to be members of the Clayton County Klavern No. 52, Realm of Georgia, United Klans of America?

Mr. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, sir, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that those persons whom I mentioned are members of the Clayton County Klavern No. 52, United Klans of America, Realm of Georgia?

Mr. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Since the 5th of January 1965, where has the Clayton County No. 52 Klavern held its meetings?

Mr. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, sir, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that since the 5th of January, 1965, Clayton County Klavern No. 52 has met in a building owned by the Clayton Civic Club, Inc.

Mr. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Were you in the hearing room this morning, Mr. Bruce, when Chief Howard Smith of the Clayton County Police Department testified before the committee?

Mr. CHALMERS. Mr. Chairman, upon my advice he was not present at the hearing this morning.

Mr. MANUEL. Chief Smith testified that to his knowledge the Clayton County Civic Club, Inc., had purchased property which he described for a price of $35,000.

As a member, as original incorporator of the Clayton Civic Club, Inc., could you tell the committee how the financial arrangements were made?

Mr. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. To your knowledge, sir, are there any members of the Clayton County Civic Club, Inc., who are not members of the Clayton County Klavern No. 52, United Klans of America, Realm of Georgia?

Mr. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bruce, have you ever acted as an instructor in the art of demolition, judo, karate, or military training to persons known to you to be members of the United Klans of America?

Mr. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Committee investigation has shown that on October 17, 1964, Clayton No. 52 Klavern of the United Klans of America, Realm of Georgia, sponsored a demolition school on the farm of Robert L. Bing, located near Highway 138 in Henry County, Georgia.

I put it to you as a fact, sir, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the results of the committee investigation are correct.

Mr. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds which I previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bruce, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that Robert L. Bing, upon whose farm the instruction was given, is the exalted cyclops of Clayton County Klavern No. 52.

Mr. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds which were previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, sir, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that on October 17, you acted as an instructor in demolition, small arms firing, judo, and karate on the farm of Robert L. Bing?

Mr. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds which I previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bruce, who appointed you to be a demolition instructor?

Mr. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds which I previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. What background do you have, to be engaged in demolition instruction?

Mr. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds which I previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Our committee investigation has shown that subsequent to the demonstration given by Mr. Bartlett, which I previously described during his testimony, you explained and demonstrated to a group of Klansmen how to set off a fire bomb.

You made a fire bomb and explained it was composed of one third motor oil and two thirds gasoline. You made it up in a quart milk bottle with a cork stopper, over which a rag soaked with gasoline was left protruding from the cork stopper, and you explained and demonstrated that by lighting the rag and throwing the bottle it would explode and also set fire.

Other methods of constructing bombs and detonating explosives were demonstrated, such as one method in which a candle was used and another method in which a cigarette was fixed into a book of matches causing an explosion.

I put it to you as a fact, sir, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that the results of the committee investigation are correct.

Mr. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds which I previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Our committee investigation has shown that among those present were Robert Bing, Jimmy Webb, George Sligh, Fred Hand, Charles Bartlett, and Wesley G. Bailey.

Are the results of our committee investigation correct?

Mr. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds which I previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Our committee investigation has also shown that, in addition to members of the United Klans of America being in attendance on that particular occasion, there were H. J. Jones and Clyde Newburn, of the U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, in attendance also.

Mr. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds which I have previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bruce, have you ever held the office of klokan chief of the Clayton County Klavern No. 52?

Mr. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds which I previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bruce, the committee investigation has revealed that on January 18, 1965, at a meeting of the Clayton County Klavern

No. 52, held in the Clayton County Civic Club building in Jonesboro, Georgia, an announcement was made regarding military training which would begin on January 24, 1965, at the Henry County Klavern No. 60, near McDonough, Georgia, and would extend for a period of 6 weeks.

It was further announced that rifle and pistol training would be under the supervision of Daniel Bruce.

Sir, are you the Daniel Bruce so referred to by our committee investigation?

Mr. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds which I previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. The announcement further made on January 18, 1965, stated that judo and karate training would be held at the Clayton County Klavern No. 52 in Jonesboro, Georgia, 2 evenings a week.

Is the result of the committee investigation correct?

Mr. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds which I previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Bruce, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you acted as an instructor in the activities which I have previously described with the full knowledge and consent of Grand Dragon Calvin F. Craig of the Realm of Georgia.

Mr. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds which I previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I further put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that you so acted with the knowledge and consent of exalted cyclops Robert L. Bing.

Mr. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds which I previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I would like to show you now a copy, the same copy I showed to Mr. Bartlett, the previous witness, of a directive from the office of Calvin F. Craig, Grand Dragon, Realm of Georgia, dated January 17, 1965, reading:

Esteemed Klansmen:

We will start Judo, Karate, and Rifle and Pistol firing training on Monday, January 25, 1965 at the Henry County #60 Klavern.

I show you this document and ask you if you have ever received a copy of that particular document?

(Document handed to witness.)

Mr. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds which I previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. The committee has information that on February 7, 1965 rifle and pistol training was given to Klansmen sponsored by Clayton County Klavern No. 52 at the Henry County No. 60 Klavern near McDonough, Georgia, and that 3 hours of instruction and practice were given in rifle and pistol. Among those present were Charles Bartlett, Daniel Bruce, Jimmy Wells, Fred Hand, and Billy Joe Hand.

Is the result of the committee investigation correct, Mr. Bruce?

Mr. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds I previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Would you tell the committee what your purpose is in acting as an instructor in the art of demolition, judo, karate, and military-type training to persons known to you to be members of the United Klans of America?

Mr. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds which I previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Would you please tell the committee what are the duties of a klokann chief of a Klavern?

Mr. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds which I previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Is it the duty of a klokann chief to investigate prospective members into the Klavern?

Mr. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds which I previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Have you ever investigated any prospective members into Clayton County Klavern No. 52?

Mr. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds which I previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, the staff at this time has no further questions.

Mr. WELTNER. Mr. Bruce, on this document dated January 17, 1965, addressed "Esteemed Klansmen," and announcing the beginning of judo, karate, rifle- and pistol-firing training, it has the name "Calvin F. Craig, Grand Dragon," and before that are the initials "I.T.S.U.B."

I wonder if you would tell us what those initials mean?

Mr. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds which I previously stated.

Mr. BUCHANAN. Mr. Bruce, I notice that you are wearing a triangular pin so designed that if one views it from any side he can read a "K." Since not only you but other witnesses have worn this pin, a number of them, I ask you if it is not a fact that this is a Klan pin you are wearing?

Mr. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds which I previously stated.

Mr. BUCHANAN. I take it from my information that this is in fact a Klan pin. I understand by paying some extra money you can get a blood drop in it. Is that true?

Mr. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds which I previously stated.

Mr. BUCHANAN. What interests me is that you and others have come before this committee and have been unable or unwilling to admit you are a member of the Ku Klux Klan and yet you rather boldly and brazenly wear this Klan pin in this hearing room where you won't admit to being a Klan member.

Mr. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer—

Mr. BUCHANAN. I didn't ask a question, but I will ask if that is not the case, so you can give an answer.

Mr. BRUCE. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds which I previously stated.

Mr. BUCHANAN. No further questions.

The CHAIRMAN. The committee will stand in recess for 1 minute.

(Brief recess.)

The CHAIRMAN. The subcommittee will be in order. The subcommittee will stand in recess until 10 o'clock in the morning.

(Subcommittee members present at time of recess: Representatives Willis, Pool, Weltner, and Buchanan.)

(Whereupon, at 3:14 p.m., Wednesday, November 3, 1965, the subcommittee recessed to reconvene in public session at 10 a.m., Thursday, November 4, 1965.)

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Wells, when and where were you born?

Mr. WELLS. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question for the reason that I honestly feel my answer might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Wells, what is your occupation?

Mr. WELLS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Where do you currently reside?

Mr. WELLS. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. From your appearance and the fact that you didn't even read the last response, I take it that you have some schooling.

Could it be stipulated what that is?

(Witness confers with counsel.)

Mr. CHALMERS. I am certain that your records will reveal that Mr. Wells is a high school graduate.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Wells, are you currently a member of a Ku Klux Klan organization?

Mr. WELLS. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Wells, I put it to you as a fact, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that as of the 14th day of October, you were the klaliff, or vice president, of Clayton County Klavern No. 52, United Klans of America, Realm of Georgia.

Mr. WELLS. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. I put it to you as a fact, sir, and ask you to affirm or deny the fact, that as of 14 October 1964 you were the secretary of the Clayton Civic Club, Inc.

Mr. WELLS. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Parr, do you honestly feel that if you answered regarding the question as to whether the Klan donates Klavern Christmas baskets to needy families that you would incriminate yourself?

Mr. PARR. I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Parr, the committee investigation has established that on the 13th of July 1964 you were present at a meeting of the Clayton County Klavern No. 52 held in Lake City, Georgia, at which the Grand Dragon, Calvin Craig, spoke to the meeting. Is this information correct?

Mr. PARR. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Our investigation shows that at this meeting Mr. Craig commented that he had never known of a Klansman being arrested who had followed his orders. Mr. Craig stated that any Klansman who is arrested obviously is not following his orders.

Is the result of the committee's investigation on the comments of Mr. Craig correct?

Mr. PARR. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, the staff has no further questions of this witness.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Parr, Mr. Manuel described what the committee investigation disclosed and went as far as he was able to because he is under oath. He asked you whether it was not a fact that you attended a meeting about instruction in techniques whereby one would not be caught for committing violence. He further disclosed the committee investigation with reference to the appointment of a security committee within your Klan.

Are those two occurrences connected with an underground operation which was mentioned yesterday whereby, in the event of an attack upon this country, some of the Klans or some of the Klaverns or some of the members would have to go underground to protect the country, as I think they put it, instead of coming out locally and protecting the country above ground?

Mr. PARR. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds previously stated.

(At this point Mr. Pool returned to the hearing room.)

The CHAIRMAN. Are there any questions from members of the subcommittee?

Mr. BUCHANAN. Mr. Parr, in light of the instructions that you wanted to keep certain things from law enforcement officers, you don't keep things from law enforcement officers unless they are not legal; do you? For what reason would you keep from law enforcement officers acts or activities which are legal and constitute no violation of law?

Mr. PARR. Sir, I respectfully decline to answer that question based upon the grounds as previously stated.

The CHAIRMAN. The witness is excused and released from his subpoena.

The committee will stand in recess for 5 minutes.

(Whereupon at 11:15 a.m. the subcommittee recessed and reconvened at 11:20 a.m. with the following subcommittee members: Representatives Willis, Pool, Weltner, and Buchanan, present at time of recess and when hearings resumed.)

The CHAIRMAN. The subcommittee will come to order.

Mr. Manuel, call your next witness.

Mr. MANUEL. Mr. Chairman, the staff would like to call at this time Mr. Robert L. Bing.

The CHAIRMAN. Please raise your right hand.

You do solemnly swear that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mr. BING. I do.

Mr. BING. I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all records as requested by this committee under subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for that information is not relevant and germane to the subject under investigation and the same would not aid the Congress in the consideration of any valid remedial legislation, nor is such inquiry within the scope of that authorized to be investigated by rule XI of the rules adopted by the 89th Congress, by House Resolution 8, adopted January 4, 1965.

I respectfully decline to deliver to the committee any and all documents demanded by the committee in its subpoena dated October 11, 1965, for the reason that I honestly feel that to do so might tend to incriminate me in violation of my rights as guaranteed to me by amendments 5, 1, 4, and 14 of the Constitution of the United States of America.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Chalmers, we have made this stipulation in connection with subpoenas requiring the production of documents: (1) that the witness has been furnished a copy of the chairman's opening statement of October 19, 1965, and that he is familiar with its contents; (2) that the directions of the subpoena to produce the documents called for are made to the witness in the official representative capacity described in the subpoena.

ACTIVITIES OF KU KLUX KLAN ORGANIZATIONS

Part 2

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1965

UNITED STATES HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
SUBCOMMITTEE OF THE
COMMITTEE ON UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES,
Washington, D.C.

PUBLIC HEARING

The subcommittee of the Committee on Un-American Activities met, pursuant to recess, at 1:13 p.m. in the Caucus Room, Cannon House Office Building, Washington, D.C., Hon. Edwin E. Willis (chairman) presiding.

(Subcommittee members: Representatives Edwin E. Willis, of Louisiana, chairman; Joe R. Pool, of Texas; Charles L. Weltner, of Georgia; John M. Ashbrook, of Ohio; and John H. Buchanan, Jr., of Alabama.)

Subcommittee members present: Representatives Willis, Pool, and Weltner.

Staff members present: Francis J. McNamara, director; William Hitz, general counsel; Alfred M. Nittle, counsel; Donald T. Appell, chief investigator; and Philip R. Manuel, investigator.

The CHAIRMAN. The subcommittee will please come to order.

The Chair wishes to make the following statement:

The committee decided at the outset of this investigation that it would go into all the activities of the Klans and their members which were pertinent and germane to its inquiry, provided that, after consultation with the Department of Justice, it was determined that such inquiry would not prejudice the right of any individuals involved in pending criminal prosecutions.

Pursuant to this policy, and with the concurrence of officials of the Department of Justice, the committee had planned to explore, beginning today, the activities of certain Klansmen in the Athens, Georgia, area, including those involved in the killing of Lt. Col. Lemuel Penn, and other acts of violence.

Over the weekend, however, the committee received a request from the Attorney General of the United States that we not proceed with the matters we had intended to explore this week. Under the circumstances, the committee determined this morning to discharge until January 4, 1966, all witnesses summoned to appear before it this week.

At this time, the subcommittee has held 12 days of hearings in which it has received 1400 pages of testimony from 52 witnesses.

Before concluding this session of the subcommittee, I would like to summarize the major facts it has developed to date.

First, we have demonstrated that the Klan movement is not a monolithic one, but that, on the contrary, there are about a dozen different Klan organizations operating today. The hearings show that Klan strength is considerably greater than was generally estimated at the time our investigation began. It was then believed that total Klan membership was about 10,000. It is the committee's present estimate that the actual figure today is four to five times that number.

We have shown that the largest of the Klan groups is the United Klans of America and that this organization, in its corporate tax returns, has not been fully reporting its income on the national or imperial level, and that it has not paid taxes on such income as it has reported. It has not included in its reports to the Treasury Department its Realm and Klavern level income. This was specifically documented in the cases of North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia.

We have revealed that the Klans make extensive use of innocent-sounding cover or front names—such as civic, improvement, or rescue societies, and hunting, fishing, or sportsmen's clubs—to conceal the existence of their Klaverns and bank accounts, and that this device has been sufficiently effective to deceive a Federal agency into innocently renting office space in a Klan-owned building; that on the national level, the leader of the United Klans of America has violated the organization's constitution and bylaws—as well as the laws of the United States of America, I might mention—by maintaining the imperial account not in the name of the Imperial Wizard and the treasurer, or klabee, but under his own and fictitious names—with himself, his wife, and his former secretary writing checks on the account, the better to hide his financial manipulations from the general membership.

The hearings have disclosed that Grand Dragons of three of the major Realms of the UKA—North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia—have not deposited in their Realm accounts many checks received in payment of dues, but have cashed them without making any accounting of them; also that complete and accurate accountings of Realm funds have never been made to Klan members by their Realm officers.

The record has revealed that insurance programs allegedly set up for the benefit of Klan members have been used for the personal gain of Klan officers.

Our hearings has demonstrated that a considerable number of Klan officers and members have criminal records—and some of them extensive records—for carrying concealed weapons, burglary, inciting to riot, holding people at bay with a submachine-style gun while burning a cross for terroristic purposes, breaking out of prison, interfering with law enforcement officers in the performance of their duties, operating disorderly houses, and so on. More important, we have revealed that, despite claims to the contrary, Klan leaders make no real effort to prevent such persons from joining their organization or to expel them once they have joined.

The record reveals that cross-burnings for intimidation purposes are official acts of Klans, that Klan members carry pistols, rifles, carbines, sawed-off shotguns, tear gas dispensers, and other weapons, not only to Klan meetings, but also when engaged in picketing, cross-burnings, and other activities. Our record also demonstrates that Klan units have conducted schools in which their members are taught, in some cases by men with criminal records, how to use rifles, pistols, and guns, the arts of judo and karate, and how to make booby traps, Molotov cocktails, and demolition devices from easily obtainable materials such as farm fertilizers, gasoline, flashlight batteries, fruit jars, and electric light switches.

Klan members and officers speak about burning schools which integrate and setting off intense fires in automobiles and department stores.

We have revealed the existence of secret Klan organizations known by such names as The Vigilantes or Black Knights, The Underground, and The White Band, formed by Klan members for carrying out acts of violence and terrorism. One witness has sworn under oath that after he had quit the Klan and spoken out against it, he received a call from another Klan member who told him that he had been authorized to do away with him.

The record shows that Klan members purchase weapons from other Klan members licensed as gun dealers; that Klan members use citizens band radios for communication purposes.

We have also revealed, I am sorry to say, that while the vast majority of law enforcement officers in Klan areas are sincere, dedicated upholders of the law, there is a small minority who are members of the Klan.

The record reveals, I believe, that the Klan oath is a farce, a device to intimidate and trick rank-and-file Klan members into believing that it comes above all other oaths and can never, under any circumstances, be violated, even if it means death. Despite the alleged sacredness and supremacy of this oath above all others, the highest leaders of the Klan were afraid to risk even a year in jail for contempt—much less die—to preserve and uphold it. In their appearances before the subcommittee, they have in every case resorted to the fifth amendment instead of the oath as a means of protecting themselves and preserving Klan secrets.

Finally, I must point out, in fairness, that there are some basically good and decent American citizens who have apparently been deceived into joining the Klan by its patriotic and noble-sounding propaganda. These men do not subscribe to the violence and other reprehensible means used by other Klan members and leaders, nor do they tolerate the financial double-dealing that goes on in Klan officialdom. This was demonstrated in the testimony of Mr. Joseph DuBois, who had a wonderful record as a Marine in World War II, who turned over to the committee such Klan records as he had, and resigned from the Klan while on the witness stand, saying that, as far as he was concerned, God and country, rather than the Klan, always come first. It was also demonstrated in the testimony of Mr. Roy Woodle, the lay preacher, who became disgusted with the Klan when he learned of the manner in which its leaders were milking the members of their hard-earned money.

Already, there have been positive results flowing from this investigation. The so-called Invisible Empire of the Ku Klux Klans is no longer so invisible. There have been defections from this empire. The Federal Communications Commission has undertaken a study of the misuse of citizens band radios, and I am sure that other agencies of the executive branch will want to take action as a result of some of the facts developed by the committee. It is our intention, in due time, to submit certain parts of our record to the Internal Revenue Service, the FCC, and the Veterans Administration, for example, for appropriate action. We are also considering, of course, the recommendation of contempt citations.

Our hearings are far from completed at this point, but I believe we have developed many facts of great significance for the record, and that by the time the hearings are ended, the Congress will have all the facts it needs for purposes of remedial legislation.

The witnesses subpoenaed to appear before the committee today are continued under subpoena until January 4, 1966.

The committee stands adjourned until further call of the Chair.

(Subcommittee members present at time of recess: Representatives Willis, Pool, and Weltner.)

(Whereupon, at 1:25 p.m., Tuesday, November 9, 1965, the subcommittee adjourned, to reconvene at the call of the Chair.)

Part 3

TUESDAY, JANUARY 4, 1966

UNITED STATES HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
SUBCOMMITTEE OF THE
COMMITTEE ON UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES,
Washington, D.C.

PUBLIC HEARINGS

The subcommittee met, pursuant to recess, at 10 a.m. in the Caucus Room, Cannon House Office Building, Washington, D.C., Hon. Edwin E. Willis (chairman) presiding.

(Subcommittee members: Representatives Edwin E. Willis, of Louisiana, chairman; Joe R. Pool, of Texas; Charles L. Weltner, of Georgia; John M. Ashbrook, of Ohio; and John H. Buchanan, Jr., of Alabama.)

Subcommittee members present: Representatives Willis, Pool, Weltner, and Buchanan.

Staff members present: Francis J. McNamara, director; William Hitz, general counsel; Alfred M. Nittle, counsel; Donald T. Appell, chief investigator; and Philip R. Manuel, investigator.

The CHAIRMAN. The subcommittee will come to order.

This morning we resume hearings on the Ku Klux Klan organizations of the United States. In that connection I refer to my opening statement of October 19, 1965, which is of course already a part of the record.

I assume that each witness to be called today, and thereafter, has received and read a copy of that opening statement. I nevertheless suggest that the one who will conduct the interrogation will ask each witness if that is so. It is my information it is so.

So we will now resume the interrogation of witnesses, and Mr. Appell will please call the first witness.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. John Deason Swenson.

The CHAIRMAN. Please raise your right hand.

Do you solemnly swear that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mr. SWENSON. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Will counsel please have a seat.

TESTIMONY OF JOHN DEASON SWENSON, ACCOMPANIED BY COUNSEL, JAMES R. VENABLE

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Swenson, will you please state your full name for the record.

Mr. SWENSON. Do you want me to stand?

Mr. APPELL. No.

Mr. SWENSON. My name is John D. Swenson.

Mr. APPELL. Is the "D" for Deason?

Mr. SWENSON. That is right.

Mr. APPELL. When and where were you born, Mr. Swenson?

Mr. SWENSON. I was born on June 15, 1910, in Poplarville, Mississippi.

Mr. APPELL. Are you represented by counsel?

Mr. SWENSON. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Would counsel please identify himself for the record?

Mr. VENABLE. James R. Venable, attorney at law, Atlanta, Georgia.

The CHAIRMAN. Will you give your address for the record?

Mr. VENABLE. Walter R. Brown Building, Atlanta 3, Georgia.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Swenson, will you please set forth your educational background?

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, I have a grade school education.

Mr. APPELL. Will you set forth to the committee a brief chronology of your employment background?

Mr. SWENSON. I am in business for myself.

Mr. APPELL. Let's take from the period 1960 to the present time. How have you been employed?

Mr. SWENSON. I respectfully refuse to answer on the grounds this may tend to incriminate me.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Swenson, are you now, or have you ever been, a member of a Ku Klux Klan organization?

Mr. SWENSON. I respectfully refuse, sir, to answer on the grounds it may tend to incriminate me.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Swenson, in 1960, Roy E. Davis, now of Dallas, Texas, organized the old Original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

Did you become an officer in that organization?

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, I refuse to answer on the grounds this answer may tend to incriminate me.

The CHAIRMAN. Do you mean under the provisions of the fifth amendment of the Constitution?

Mr. SWENSON. Yes, sir. May I respectfully say, also the fourth amendment, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Pardon?

Mr. APPELL. He would like to include the fourth amendment.

Mr. SWENSON. I am sorry if I am not talking loud enough.

The CHAIRMAN. That is perfectly all right.

You are invoking constitutional privileges, and it should be spelled out for the record.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Swenson, do you know Mr. Royal V. Young.

Mr. SWENSON. Yes, sir; I have met Mr. Young.

Pardon me, sir. I would like to withdraw that statement, sir. I respectfully refuse to answer this question on the grounds that it may tend to incriminate me.

The CHAIRMAN. And again for the record, you base that refusal on the basis of the fifth amendment?

Mr. SWENSON. The fourth and fifth; yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I suggest that the witness, before withdrawing the answer that he gave, did acknowledge that he knew Royal V. Young, and I suggest serious consideration ought to be given by the committee that he has waived his right to retract the answer and now invoke the fifth amendment.

Mr. POOL. He was advised by his counsel to take the fifth amendment, and I think we cannot argue with that. If counsel wants to advise him that way, we have to respect his wishes.

The CHAIRMAN. I think certainly as a matter of law and in the procedures of the court, he has technically waived his rights to invocation, but for the time being we will pass it up.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Swenson, did you recruit Royal V. Young into the Original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan?

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, I respectfully refuse to answer on the grounds it may tend to incriminate me, invoking the fourth and fifth amendment.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, on July 28, 1965, the committee heard in executive session Mr. Royal V. Young. This testimony the committee voted this morning to release, and I should therefore like to refer to that testimony in the interrogation of the witness.

The CHAIRMAN. That is proper. The committee did this morning vote to release the executive testimony of Mr. Young.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Young was asked:

Mr. APPELL. Who recruited you into membership into the Klan?

Mr. YOUNG. I believe it was Brother Swenson.

Mr. APPELL. Would you identify Brother Swenson fully, by his full name?

Mr. YOUNG. Sir, I don't know his full name. All I know—all I can do is give you his initials.

Mr. APPELL. By whatever identities you can give then.

Mr. YOUNG. It is J. D. Swenson.

Are you the J. D. Swenson that Mr. Young identified as having recruited him into the Klan?

Mr. SWENSON. I respectfully refuse to answer on the ground it might incriminate me.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Young testified further with respect to J. D. Swenson that, at the time he was recruited by J. D. Swenson, J. D. Swenson held the position of Grand Dragon for the Original Knights of Ku Klux Klan.

Is the testimony of Mr. Young truthful?

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, I respectfully refuse to answer on the grounds this question may tend to incriminate me on the fourth and fifth amendment.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Young was asked what positions he held within the Original Knights, and he said that he had held the position of Acting Grand Dragon. He was then asked:

Mr. APPELL. Who appointed you?

Mr. YOUNG. Swenson.

I ask you if that testimony is truthful?

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, I respectfully refuse to answer on the grounds this question may incriminate me.

The CHAIRMAN. And you are invoking that on grounds previously stated?

Mr. SWENSON. Yes, the fourth and fifth amendment.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Young testified that subsequently he was promoted to the position of Imperial Dragon and that this appointment was made by the Reverend Roy E. Davis. Is that testimony truthful?

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, I respectfully refuse to answer on the grounds this answer may incriminate me. I am invoking the fourth and fifth amendment.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Swenson, you testified under oath that you were born in 1910. Where were you born?

Mr. SWENSON. I believe I stated that—Poplarville, Mississippi.

The CHAIRMAN. Poplarville, Mississippi?

Mr. SWENSON. Yes.

The CHAIRMAN. Where do you reside now?

Mr. SWENSON. I reside in Bossier City, Louisiana.

The CHAIRMAN. That is across the Red River from Shreveport?

Mr. SWENSON. Yes, sir; that is correct.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Swenson, Mr. Young was asked this question by me after some talk about you:

Mr. Appell. All right. Now in addition to Grand Dragon, did Swenson hold another office as National Kleagle?

Mr. YOUNG. Yes; that is right.

Did you hold the position of National Kleagle?

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, I respectfully refuse to answer this question on the grounds that it may incriminate me, invoking the fourth and fifth amendment.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Swenson, it is the information of this committee that you can be called what would be known as the father of the modern-day Klan in Louisiana; is that not true?

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, I respectfully refuse to answer your question on the grounds it may tend to incriminate me. In both instances, the fourth and fifth amendment.

Mr. APPELL. As an officer of the Original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Louisiana, I ask you whether this other sworn testimony of Mr. Young is factual; that at the time Mr. Young was appointed the Imperial Dragon, that Mr. Murry H. Martin was appointed the Grand Giant, or the number two man under the Grand Dragon?

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, did you ask that as a question?

Mr. APPELL. Yes. I ask you if his testimony to that effect was truthful?

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, I respectfully refuse to answer on the grounds this testimony may tend to incriminate me.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Young testified, and I ask you if his testimony was truthful, that at the time Murry H. Martin was appointed as Grand Giant, that Mr. Grady Wilder was appointed the Assistant Grand Giant. I ask you if that is true?

Mr. SWENSON. I didn't hear the question. I thought you were reading a statement there.

Mr. APPELL. I ask you if Mr. Young's testimony is truthful to the effect that at the time Murry H. Martin was appointed Grand Giant, that Grady Wilder was appointed the Assistant Grand Giant?

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, I respectfully refuse to answer on the grounds this answer may tend to incriminate me, invoking the fourth and fifth amendment.

Mr. APPELL. I ask you if Mr. Young's testimony is truthful to the effect that Mr. Robert Fuller of Monroe, Louisiana, was appointed to the position of chief of the Klan Bureau of Investigation?

Mr. SWENSON. I didn't hear the question.

Mr. APPELL. If Mr. Robert Fuller was appointed to the position of chief of the Klan Bureau of Investigation?

The CHAIRMAN. Known as the klabee?

Mr. APPELL. No, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. What is the technical name?

Mr. APPELL. KBI, Klan Bureau of Investigation.

Mr. SWENSON. I respectfully refuse to answer on the grounds this answer may tend to incriminate me, invoking the fourth and fifth.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Swenson, Mr. Young appeared, as you now know, before this subcommittee in executive session under oath, under the pains and penalty of perjury, and he chose to answer these questions posed to you, and apparently saw no involvement under the constitutional amendments you refer to.

Can you explain why he felt he could answer these questions freely, while you rely on these amendments?

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, I respectfully refuse to answer your question on the grounds it may incriminate me, invoking the first, fourth, and fifth amendments.

The CHAIRMAN. You now invoke the first also?

Mr. SWENSON. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Swenson—

The CHAIRMAN. Why?

Mr. SWENSON. Sir?

The CHAIRMAN. Why?

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, I believe it might tend to incriminate me. That is the reason I don't answer, respectfully.

The CHAIRMAN. That is why I am curious to know why you are invoking the first amendment. The amendment speaking of incrimination is five.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Swenson, I ask you if Mr. Young's testimony is truthful to the effect that Mr. Charles Pearson was appointed as Mr. Fuller's assistant in the Klan Bureau of Investigation—the assistant chief?

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, I respectfully refuse to answer on the grounds that this answer may tend to incriminate me.

The CHAIRMAN. What are the duties of the KBI—the Klan Bureau of Investigation?

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, I respectfully refuse to answer on the grounds this answer may tend to incriminate me, standing on the fifth amendment.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, may I suggest, if it is agreeable with Mr. Venable's client, if it is agreeable to him, that the witness use the response "Same answer," if it encompasses the amendments to which he has previously referred.

The CHAIRMAN. He may do that.

You may say you refuse to answer on the grounds previously stated.

Mr. APPELL. In the course of the organization of the Original Knights, did you appoint as an assistant to yourself as organizer, with the title of grand kleagle, as testified by Mr. Young under oath, Houston P. Morris of Monroe, Louisiana?

Mr. SWENSON. I respectfully refuse to answer on the grounds that I have heretofore refused to answer.

Mr. APPELL. With respect to the Original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Louisiana, did you have within the organizational structure the position of grand kludd, or chaplain?

Mr. SWENSON. I respectfully refuse to answer on the grounds this may tend to incriminate me.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Young testified under oath that the position of grand kludd was held by his brother, Jack D. Young. Is that truthful?

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, I respectfully refuse to answer on the grounds this answer may incriminate me.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Swenson, as the National Kleagle of the Original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, I will put it to you as a fact that in 1963 you moved across the river into Mississippi and there recruited members for the Original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. I ask you to affirm or deny the fact.

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, I respectfully refuse to answer on the grounds that it may tend to incriminate me.

Mr. APPELL. I put it to you as a fact, and I ask you to confirm or deny the fact, that you organized within the State of Mississippi some five Klaverns.

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, I respectfully refuse to answer on the grounds it may tend to incriminate me.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Swenson, we have been unanimously directed by the full committee to conduct this investigation, and the House of Representatives, by an overwhelming vote, supplied the funds to conduct the investigation. It would be useful, in addition to the information we have gathered, and that is voluminous, if one witness would stand up and spell out in his own words the objectives of klanism. Can you do that?

What is the organization all about?

What are its functions?

What is its program?

What does it stand for?

Certainly, there are all kinds of literature issued along that line. We have that literature. I want to give you that opportunity.

Will you spell out the objectives of your Klan organization and what klanism in general stands for?

Mr. SWENSON. Have you finished?

The CHAIRMAN. Yes.

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, I respectfully refuse to answer on the grounds heretofore stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Swenson, I hand you a copy of a series of oaths administered to members of the Original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and I ask you if you subscribe to those oaths?

Mr. SWENSON. Do you want me to read this?

Mr. APPELL. You read it yourself, and I ask you if that is the oath you subscribe to.

The CHAIRMAN. You may read it. You sound as though you are anxious to do it. It would be perfectly satisfactory for you to read it out loud and let us question you about what you read, if that is your wish.

The question is, Do you subscribe to these oaths?

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, I respectfully refuse to answer on the grounds heretofore stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Swenson, it is the result of the committee's investigation that Roy E. Davis, in reactivating a Klan group in 1960, as a member of the 1915 Ku Klux Klan organization, adopted for his organization that which was used by the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan under William Joseph Simmons.

Did the Original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan follow in toto the naturalization proceedings of the Klan headed by Mr. Simmons?

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, I respectfully refuse to answer on the grounds heretofore stated.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Simmons appeared before the House Rules Committee on October 12 and 13, 1921, and after setting forth the oaths, which are almost verbatim to the oaths that I have shown you, after reading the last oath under "Klanishness," Mr. Simmons said that the naturalization proceedings continued with this language:

Sirs, have you assumed without mental reservation your oath of allegiance to the invisible empire?

According to Mr. Simmons, the candidate answers "Yes," and Mr. Simmons said this statement followed, and I quote from the transcript of the testimony statement read to the candidate:

Mortal man cannot assume a more binding oath; character and courage alone will enable you to keep it. Always remember that to keep this oath means to you honor, happiness, and life; but to violate it means disgrace, dishonor, and death. May honor, happiness, and life be yours.

Was this language taken from the testimony of Mr. Simmons as part of the official proceedings of the 1915 Klan a part of your organization?

Mr. SWENSON. I respectfully refuse to answer on the grounds heretofore stated.

Mr. POOL. May I ask the witness a question?

Are you answering and taking the fifth amendment based on the grounds that your oath as a Klansman takes higher precedent than your obligation to appear before this committee and answer questions?

Is that the reason for it?

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, I respectfully refuse to answer on the grounds heretofore stated.

Mr. POOL. I just asked you the reason for it. You can't get in trouble with that.

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, I have heretofore stated this, that anything I might be asked might tend to incriminate me.

¹These oaths are similar in form to those used by the United Klans of America, Inc. See Robert Shelton Exhibit No. 4, committee report, The Present-Day Ku Klux Klan Movement, pp. 343-346.

Mr. POOL. You are going to look pretty bad back home when you wave the flag and say you will fight for America first. You have not the guts to testify before the committee on the things we are asking. I know you have a right to take the fifth amendment, I know that. Back home, you are not going to look very good. You keep on talking like that and the Ku Klux Klan will be out of existence sure enough, if you are not proud to testify for an organization that you have any connection with.

That is all.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Venable.

Mr. VENABLE. Yes.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Chalmers appeared as counsel for the witnesses previously before this committee. I asked Mr. Chalmers whether, in addition to the invocation of the privileges or whatever constitutional amendments were relied on, the witnesses he represented were relying on their oath of allegiance to the Klan as a reason for refusing to answer. He responded that they did not; they were relying on the constitutional privilege.

I wonder if you would mind giving your views as a lawyer on that. Are you relying on the oaths taken by your client, Mr. Swenson, as a member of the Klan, and I know you are familiar with them—that series of oaths—as a basis for refusal to answer questions before this committee?

Mr. VENABLE. Your Honor, we are relying on the first amendment on the grounds if a person should be compelled to answer, it might indicate that he was a member and, further, it would violate his rights to peacefully assemble, freedom to discuss their grievance under the first amendment. And under the fourth amendment—he invokes it, we invoke it—there are certain matters and things that might compel him, if it pertains to documents and records and books, that that would be a violation of his rights under the freedom to have and retain personal effects, and if you were compelled to produce them and if they would incriminate you, they would incriminate you. The fifth amendment says he shall not be a witness against himself.

Last but not least, the 14th amendment, as I understand the Supreme Court has so held and ruled, if any of your rights are being violated, they would be in violation of the 14th amendment. You would not have equal protection of law under the first, fourth, and fifth. The sixth amendment too.

The CHAIRMAN. My question was whether the basis of your advice to your client for refusing to answer is these constitutional amendments?

Mr. VENABLE. Yes.

The CHAIRMAN. And you are not relying on his oath as a Klansman as a reason for refusing to answer?

Mr. VENABLE. That's right, your Honor.

The CHAIRMAN. That is my question.

Mr. VENABLE. Yes, sir; that's right.

The CHAIRMAN. Meaning what—that you are or are not?

Mr. VENABLE. If he identified that oath and admitted that he took that oath, an oath similar to that oath, then he would admit that he was a Klansman, and if he is part of a machinery or group then some of them would be involved.

The CHAIRMAN. I understand. I think I understand you better than you understand me.

Mr. VENABLE. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. The oath taken by a member of the Klan is, in short, a pledge of secrecy, and conceivably, outside of what the decisions may say—

Mr. VENABLE. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. —conceivably a person, a member of the Klan who has taken that oath, could appear before the committee and say, "I have taken an oath of allegiance and loyalty to my organization. I believe in that oath so firmly that I am not going to say anything about the activities of my organization. I am not relying on the constitutional amendments. I am relying on my fealty of allegiance and dedication to the oath of a Klansman as the reason for refusing."

You are not relying on that oath as a matter of law, as I understand it.

Mr. VENABLE. That is right.

The CHAIRMAN. You are relying on the constitutional amendments?

Mr. VENABLE. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. That is what I wanted. That was the position—

Mr. VENABLE. We are not trying to hide the oath. We are just invoking those constitutional amendments.

The CHAIRMAN. If you relied on the oath, we would have some questions. You are not relying on it as a basis for refusing?

Mr. VENABLE. That is right.

Mr. POOL. Mr. Venable, since you have explained all that very nicely, will you go further and say Congress has no right to investigate anything?

Mr. VENABLE. No, I don't state that. I think Congress should have the right.

Mr. POOL. Where do they have a right to investigate? Where do you limit it?

Mr. VENABLE. They have a field to investigate many things, if your Honor please. Where it involves a person's rights and privileges as guaranteed under the Bill of Rights, then this Congress, this committee, or any other person has no right to compel a person, to make a person produce evidence which might tend to incriminate him in a conspiracy or intend to incriminate him in a law violation.

Mr. POOL. Is the Ku Klux Klan a conspiracy?

Mr. VENABLE. No, it is not a conspiracy. There are 43 separate Klans.

Mr. POOL. You don't know anything about the Ku Klux Klan?

Mr. VENABLE. I know a little bit about it, yes, sir, having been in it quite a while. I am proud of it.

Mr. POOL. You may have good ground for what you are saying. You know more about it than I do. Maybe you are right, that you should plead the fifth amendment. I don't know.

Mr. VENABLE. I am not pleading the fifth amendment myself, as you know. I never have "pled" it and I never will.

Mr. POOL. The Klan pleads it.

Mr. VENABLE. I never invoked the fifth amendment as far as being a lawyer.

Mr. POOL. I am getting tired of sitting here and all these niceties going on. When we get down to basic facts, I will ask questions along that line. We will just get right down to it.

Mr. VENABLE. I thank you. I have a right to advise my client.

Mr. POOL. You certainly do.

Mr. VENABLE. Yes, sir.

Mr. POOL. And I have a right to talk to you, so we will talk a little bit more if you want to.

Mr. VENABLE. Yes, sir.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Swenson, you are appearing before the committee today in accordance with a subpoena served upon you on October 27, 1965, and extended by formal telegrams from the committee?

Mr. SWENSON. Yes, sir; and I turn these in.

Mr. APPELL. You keep them. You are appearing in accordance with that subpoena? You are appearing here this morning because of the subpoena served upon you?

The CHAIRMAN. That is a proper question.

Mr. SWENSON. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. It doesn't involve constitutional questions.

Mr. SWENSON. I am sorry, sir, but I am not an attorney.

The CHAIRMAN. I understand.

Mr. SWENSON. I am appearing here according to this subpoena.

Mr. APPELL. An attachment to that subpoena, which was made part of the subpoena, calls in three paragraphs for you to produce certain books and records. Paragraph 1 calls for you to produce:

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of the Original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan—Louisiana, in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by you or available to you as present or past officer and/or member of the Original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan—Louisiana.

I now demand that you produce those documents called for.

Mr. SWENSON. I am respectfully refusing to produce these records, sir, that they may tend to incriminate me.

Mr. APPELL. Mr. Chairman, I ask for a direction of the production of documents called for in paragraph 1.

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, I am adding to this that this would be in violation of my fourth and fifth amendments of the Constitution.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Swenson, I wanted to ask this question for the record, and I assume counsel will understand. The question is this: You understand, of course, that the part of the subpoena duces tecum just read calls for you to produce those documents in the representative capacity stated in the subpoena; do you not? You understand that? In other words, and I wish counsel would hear this, this part of the subpoena in paragraph 1—and I assume it is true in the succeeding two next paragraphs, so I will not have to repeat everything—calls on you as an officer, or in a capacity stated here, to produce the documents in your possession as stated in that capacity. You understand that; do you?

Mr. SWENSON. Yes.

The CHAIRMAN. Because it makes a difference, to be fair with you, between calling on you to produce, for example, your own income tax return or your own papers, and papers that we say you have or had in a representative capacity. There is a distinction between the two.

I will repeat this—you understand that under this subpoena you are being asked and directed to produce documents in the capacity stated and not as J. B. Swenson, the man. You understand that; do you?

Counsel, do you understand that?

Mr. VENABLE. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. That being the case, I now order and direct you to produce those documents in the capacity stated in the subpoena, and I will try to explain to you as a layman this—I am repeating that this is an order directed to you to submit documents, papers, and records which we say you have, or had, in that representative capacity, and since we do not accept your right to refuse to do so in the capacity stated, that is why I am ordering you to produce them. I am referring now to documents described in paragraph 1 of the attachment to this subpoena.

Mr. SWENSON. May I consult counsel, please?

The CHAIRMAN. Surely.

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, as far as records of the Klan organization, I do not have any of those records. I guess I don't know what you are talking about except it is something that you showed me here, but I don't have any records whatsoever of the Klan in my possession now at all.

I did bring my personal income tax return which you asked for.

The CHAIRMAN. We haven't reached that. I didn't realize it had been asked for, frankly. I just wanted to explain the call of this particular portion of the subpoena.

Mr. SWENSON. I have none, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. You are now saying that you cannot produce those documents called for in the capacity stated because you do not have them?

Mr. SWENSON. No, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. That is the reason you do not produce them?

Mr. SWENSON. That is right.

The CHAIRMAN. And you know you are under oath?

Mr. SWENSON. Yes.

Mr. POOL. Mr. Chairman—did you ever have possession of these documents?

Mr. SWENSON. Mr. Pool, what was the question, sir?

Mr. POOL. Did you ever have possession of these documents that he just asked for under the subpoena?

Mr. SWENSON. I have had no documents since I have been subpoenaed, sir. I have had no documents like this.

Mr. POOL. Did you ever have possession of these documents?

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, you are asking me a direct question? Is that right, sir?

Mr. POOL. Sure I am asking the question.

Mr. SWENSON. I respectfully refuse to answer this question, sir, on the grounds heretofore stated.

Mr. POOL. You just got through testifying the you didn't have possession of them. The proper question then would be whether you ever had possession of these documents. It is a very proper question, and you should answer it.

Mr. Chairman, I ask you to direct him to answer.

The CHAIRMAN. We are now cross-examining you on your previous answer. You said, in answer to my question, that you were not producing those documents for the reason that you didn't have them.

Now, Mr. Pool asked whether you ever had them. That is a proper question.

Furthermore, if you persist in refusing to answer that one, I have two or three of my own I want to ask. So the pending question is this: Did you ever have possession of those documents? I order and direct you to answer that question.

Mr. POOL. Mr. Chairman, I will give him warning on the probability of contempt if he doesn't answer this question.

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, may I get a clarification on that? What records are you speaking of now on this?

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Appell will explain it.

Mr. SWENSON. That you asked me if I ever had.

Mr. APPELL. [Reading:]

All books, records, documents, correspondence, and memoranda relating to the organization of and the conduct of business and affairs of the Original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan—Louisiana, in your possession, custody or control, or maintained by you or available to you as present or past officer and/or member of the Original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan—Louisiana.

The CHAIRMAN. Let me supplement that so it will be completely clear, Mr. Swenson. The subpoena asks you to produce any kind of books, any kind of records, any kind of documents, any kind of correspondence, any kind of memoranda relating to the organization of, and the conduct of, the business and affairs of the Original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, whether those documents were—and as broadened by Mr. Pool—are or ever were, in your possession or under your control or maintained by you or available to you either as present or as a past officer and/or as a member of the Original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Louisiana.

That is a broad question. It is a broad order. This subpoena follows the pattern of subpoenas of this kind, and that is what Mr. Pool's question is. I have ordered you to answer it. Having said that you do not now have them, he is asking you—have you ever had any kind of book, record, document, or correspondence or memoranda in the capacity indicated, whether as a present officer or a past officer or a present member or a past member?

In answer to me, you said you couldn't produce them because you didn't have them.

Well, now, we have the right to ask you—sure you don't have them now, and that is an acceptable answer. I didn't direct you to answer that question. You said you didn't have them, and you are under oath. But now the question is this—you say you don't now have them: What did you do with them? Did you just leave them home or give them to a friend so you would not be called upon to produce them? That is the question we are now asking you.

If you don't have them now the question is, Have you ever had them?

Mr. POOL. Mr. Chairman, I want to ask counsel how long he wants to take. How about the recess?

The CHAIRMAN. What is your answer?

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, I would like to speak to my counsel just a little longer if you don't mind, please.

The CHAIRMAN. The committee will stand in recess for 5 minutes.

(Whereupon, at 11:05 a.m., the subcommittee recessed and reconvened at 11:11 a.m. Subcommittee members present at time of recess:

Representatives Willis, Pool, Weltner, and Buchanan and when hearings resumed: Representatives Willis, Pool, and Weltner.)

The CHAIRMAN. The committee will come to order.

Mr. Swenson, you having consulted with counsel, and I think another one came to your table during this recess, I ask for an answer to the pending question.

Mr. VENABLE. Have the question repeated first so you will understand.

Mr. SWENSON. Will you repeat that question again, sir? I think I understand it, but I want to be sure, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. In answer to my question you said you could not produce books, records, documents, correspondence, and so on, because you don't have them. I accepted that, because you are under oath. I accepted it temporarily, anyway, because that is your position and you are under oath.

Mr. SWENSON. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Pool asked you, and that is the pending question—well, you say you don't have them: Have you ever had them either in your possession or custody or control, and whether you maintained those records or whether they are or were available to you? That is the question.

Having said you don't have them, did you ever have possession, custody, or control of these records? Did you ever maintain them? Were they ever available to you?

(At this point Mr. Buchanan entered the hearing room.)

Mr. POOL. That is the pending question. I will direct you to answer.

The CHAIRMAN. Yes, and I am directing him to answer.

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, the records that you are referring to, I don't know how many or what kind that you have in mind, and so on, but any books, paraphernalia, correspondence, or anything that I had in my possession this past March, a year ago, this all was burned, destroyed completely.

The CHAIRMAN. They were burned and destroyed?

Mr. SWENSON. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Who burned them?

Mr. SWENSON. I burned them.

The CHAIRMAN. All the records?

Mr. SWENSON. All records that I had in my possession.

The CHAIRMAN. All books?

Mr. SWENSON. All books. In other words, everything that I had in my possession; yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Why did you do that?

Mr. SWENSON. I did that so it wouldn't get into the hands of the enemy.

The CHAIRMAN. Who is the enemy?

Mr. SWENSON. I am speaking of the Communists and the elements of communism.

The CHAIRMAN. What do you mean by that?

Mr. SWENSON. I just say I didn't want it to get into the hands of Communists.

The CHAIRMAN. What would make you believe that they would? Are you friendly with the Communists?

Mr. SWENSON. No, sir, definitely not.

The CHAIRMAN. I didn't say you were. I am not being facetious.

Mr. SWENSON. May I say something that does not have anything to do with this, sir?

The CHAIRMAN. You are speaking freely. That is what I want you to do, and we will have a nice time questioning you. I am not saying that as a basis for your not talking. On the contrary, I am delighted.

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, I respect this committee, very, very much. I am not against the committee. I respect it.

The CHAIRMAN. All right.

Mr. SWENSON. I am trying to answer your questions, sir, without incriminating myself.

The CHAIRMAN. When was it that you destroyed them? March of last year, you say?

Mr. SWENSON. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. March of 1965 or 1964? We are just entering 1966.

Mr. SWENSON. March of 1964.

The CHAIRMAN. March of 1964.

Mr. POOL. That is 2 years ago.

Mr. SWENSON. Two years ago approximately.

The CHAIRMAN. That is March of 1964?

Mr. SWENSON. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. I understand you had reference to last year because we are in only the 3d or 4th of January. You were picturing yourself as still being in the year 1965. You destroyed, you burned them in March of 1964?

Mr. SWENSON. Approximately; yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Did you consult with your fellow officers in doing that, or did you take it upon yourself? Or, if that question embarrasses you, I will ask you this—did you consult anyone?

Mr. SWENSON. Sir?

The CHAIRMAN. Did you take it on yourself?

Mr. SWENSON. Did I do what now, sir?

The CHAIRMAN. Did you consult anyone?

Mr. SWENSON. No, sir, I consulted no one.

The CHAIRMAN. You just took it upon yourself to burn those records?

Mr. SWENSON. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. And you say under oath you did that because you didn't want those records to fall into the hands of the "enemy." That is your sworn testimony?

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, I didn't want them stolen, so that's the reason. I had reason to believe that they might be stolen, so I burned them.

The CHAIRMAN. Was there anything in those records which, if they fell into the "hands of the enemy," would be damaging to you as an individual or to your organization?

Mr. SWENSON. You asked me, sir, I believe, why did I—

Mr. APPELL. What documents?

The CHAIRMAN. My question was what, if anything, was contained in those records, whatever they may be, that you felt would be damaging to you or to your organization if they did fall in the hands of "the enemy"? This is another way of saying—what was it that you felt should be destroyed because if the enemy got hold of them and read them that something bad would happen to you, your organization, or you can say to your country? I will allow you to say anything that you have in mind.

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, I don't know of anything definite. It is just that the material that we are speaking of the Communists would like to get their hands on it. Of course, I imagine they have it now. Actually, it just wasn't supposed to be where it could be stolen by any enemy organization of our country.

The CHAIRMAN. I have a very few questions. I don't want to haggle with you. You are under oath and time will tell what happens.

Mr. SWENSON. Yes, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. Was there, in addition to your fear that they might be stolen or used by "the enemy," a feeling on your part that they might be subpoenaed and that you didn't want them subpoenaed in the future?

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, no, sir. No, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. And that is your testimony under oath?

Mr. SWENSON. This was March of 1954, sir.

The CHAIRMAN. 1964.

Mr. SWENSON. 1964; I am sorry.

Mr. POOL. May I ask some questions here? Where did you burn these papers and records and things? Where were you when you burned them?

Mr. SWENSON. You mean the city?

Mr. POOL. Were you in a house, a barn, out in the country? Where were you?

Mr. SWENSON. No, sir; it was in my back yard.

Mr. POOL. Your back yard?

Mr. SWENSON. Yes, sir.

Mr. POOL. Who was there with you?

Mr. SWENSON. No one.

Mr. POOL. Do you have a witness there to say you burned them?

Mr. SWENSON. No one.

Mr. POOL. In the daytime or night?

Mr. SWENSON. In the daytime.

Mr. POOL. Do you remember what day?

Mr. SWENSON. No, sir, I don't.

Mr. POOL. What records did you burn?

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, I burned the records that we were speaking of just now, that he asked me about.

Mr. POOL. Call them off. Did you burn the minutes of the meeting? Did you burn the membership lists? Call off the things. You know what they are.

If you were afraid the Communists would get hold of them you certainly knew what they were.

Mr. SWENSON. Sir, it was just literature or documents. It was no membership list. I haven't had any membership list.
