Subject: North Korea

Following up on the discussion in yesterday's policy committee meeting about North Korea, I thought some of you might be interested in the following articles:

"North Koreans Use Cell phones to Bare Secrets" New York Times
http://www.nytimes.com/2010/03/2 9/world/asia/29news .html

"North Korean man executed for calling a friend in South Korea on mobile phone"

http://www.dailymail.co.uk/news/ worldnews/article-1 255375/North-Korean-man-executed -calling-friend-Sou th-Korea-mobile-phone.html

I have also attached a very good article (translated) from a Korean publication which describes what is called the "Information Belt" formed along the North Korea-China border.

Anybody with an appetite for more content, let me know and I'll send on high side.

Alec
