New Plan for *Maharishi Jyotish*SM and *Maharishi Yagya*SM Programs To Design a Problem-Free Life

On the basis of many years of describing predictions for Maharishi Jyotish programs and closely studying Maharishi Yagya recommendations for averting problems and suffering in life, it is obvious that the whole procedure of prediction and recommendations requires a more elaborated preparation and study of the birth chart (Kundali or horoscope) of the person and his closely-related family members. Also included should be very detailed studies of the planets at different times of the year and throughout the individual's life.

Therefore a new plan of preparing and studying many Kundalis with reference to any individual has been developed. Now, a panel of experts in the Maharishi Jyotish program will be engaged to make an exhaustive study of the whole life of the person and his close relatives, etc. On the basis of this total study of all possible influences on the individual, a holistic life Kundali will be produced.

Kundalis of family members offer their own influence on the Kundali of the person. For example, it is experienced that when a child is born the wealth, glory, fame, etc., of the family rises—or sometimes the opposite of this happens. This shows that for the sake of the proper study of the Kundali of anyone, the influence of relatives should not be ignored. Therefore, the system of a panel of experts in the Maharishi Jyotish program has been established to prepare the Comprehensive Life Kundali of everyone (with reference to many concerned Kundalis).

In order to make more thorough and extensive predictions, it is very important for the panel of experts in the Maharishi Jyotish program to construct the birth charts of the members of the family and examine their influence on the desired Kundali. Therefore for each life Kundali, in addition to birth data for the individual, birth data for the following living relatives should be sent to the experts in the Maharishi Jyotish program: mother, father, husband or wife, children and then their influence on the individual horoscope will be gauged. It is essential that birth times are accurate. If necessary, the correct birth times for family members can be ascertained by a panel of experts in the Maharishi Jyotish program.

As a one-time effort, the panel of experts in the Maharishi Jyotish program makes a Comprehensive Life Kundali from which the details for every year could be calculated. With detailed studies of the planets at different times of the year and throughout the individual's life, a consultation will always be complete and reliable.

The birth data necessary for preparing a Comprehensive Life Kundali is:

- Birth date, time and place of the individual
- Birth date, time and place of the relatives mentioned above

The cost for preparing a Comprehensive Life Kundali, which is done only once for the study of the person's whole life, will be $400 with an extra charge of $300 for each additional relative's Kundali to be incorporated in your Comprehensive Life Kundali.

Having mentioned the principle of analyzing the Kundalis of relatives to provide precision, it will be necessary to consider the desired number of Kundalis in order to prepare anyone's Comprehensive Life Kundali. And predictions should be made on the basis of this Comprehensive Life Kundali.

This Comprehensive Life Kundali of the individual will then be an all-time standard reference. It will be the guiding light for predictions for each year. A copy of this will remain in the library of Kundalis of the Maharishi Jyotish Services Office.
