

PRIVATE INVESTIGATORS

A Scheme Agent is responsible for the choice of private investigators and for ensuring they behave in a responsible and ethical manner.

Any use of a private investigator should only relate to the investigation of a Claim.

A Scheme Agent must not inform a Worker that unless they cooperate with the private investigator their Claim will not be paid.

A private investigator must not:

- (a) inform anyone that they are on the Scheme Agent's staff or from WorkCover
- (b) impersonate to obtain information
- (c) press a Worker to sign a statement of fact, particularly where the Worker suffers language or literacy problems, or other comprehension difficulties.

A Scheme Agent must provide a Worker with a copy of the statement of facts obtained by the private investigator from the Worker.
