

PRESS RELEASE:

DAVID IRVING COMES OUT OF THE CLOSET

Immediate release:

- Nazi Historian "Outed"

In 1991-92, a mysterious figure terrified rent boys in Central London. Speaking in a heavy accent, Herman the German lured them back to his Mayfair flat, dressed them up in mock concentration camp uniforms, photographed them, abused them, and, in some cases, carried out acts of depravity we will not describe here. A contemporary report in Capital Gay claimed that Herman the German's fascination with swastikas was connected not with Nazism, but merely with the aura of sado-masochism which surrounds it. Now, we can reveal that the Nazi connection was and is indeed real, for Herman the German is exposed as none other than the Hitler-worshipping historian David Irving.

This is the book Irving will want to ban, so will his powerful protectors, whose identity will surprise you. Order your copy now from ITMA, 93c Venner Road, Sydenham, London SE26 5HU. 150 pages. Illustrated.

Journalists, editors, reviewers, please note. This is a limited printing first edition. The ONLY way to obtain your copy is to send a cheque for £7.99 (made payable to Anglo-Hebrew Publishing) to ITMA at the above address. Overseas orders, UK cheque or sterling only, (send cash at your own risk). Add £1 for surface mail; £2 air mail; £3 registered post all destinations.

Unmasking Irving