Remarkable Nonsense about the Holocaust

Another breakdown in the magically efficient Nazi extermination machinery

Holocaust to be remembered with march

Steve Gold's father survived internment in the Dachau concentration camp, and his mother escaped with her life when the gas chamber to which she had been condemned at Auschwitz failed.

Webmaster note: Remember, we are told that the "Nazi gas chamber" was a huge room with openings through which to throw in the poison, so presumably, this "breakdown" must have been that the SS execution squad couldn't lift the lid off of the opening.
