TORNADO Safety Rules

When a tornado approaches—your immediate action may mean life or death

Seek inside shelter, preferably in a tornado cellar, underground excavation, or a steel-framed or reinforced concrete building of substantial construction. Stay away from windows!

■ IN CITIES OR TOWNS

In office buildings—stand in an interior hallway on a lower floor, preferably in the basement.

In factories—on receiving a tornado warning, post a lookout. Workers should move quickly to the section of the plant offering the greatest protection in accordance with advance plans.

In homes—the basement usually offers the greatest safety. Seek shelter under a sturdy workbench or heavy table if possible. In a home with no basement, take cover under heavy furniture in the center part of the house. Keep some windows open, but stay away from them!

Mobile homes are particularly vulnerable to overturning during strong winds. Trailer parks should have a community shelter. Appoint a community leader responsible for constant radio monitoring during threatening weather or during watch periods.

■ IN SCHOOLS

Whenever possible, go to an interior hallway on the lowest floor.

Avoid auditoriums and gymnasiums or other structures with wide, free-span roofs.

If a building is not of reinforced construction, go quickly to a nearby reinforced building, or to a ravine or open ditch and lie flat.

■ IN OPEN COUNTRY

Move away from the tornado's path at a right angle. If there is no time to escape, lie flat in the nearest depression, such as a ditch or ravine.

■ KEEP LISTENING

Your radio and television stations will broadcast the latest tornado advisory information.

Call the Weather Service only to report a tornado.

REMEMBER: Tornado watch means tornadoes are expected to develop. Tornado warning means a tornado has actually been sighted.

ACTION NOW

A PROCLAMATION

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

There are certain landmark years in every individual's life -- memorable, significant years of advance and achievement.

This year offers promise of becoming a landmark year in the lives of America's 21 million older citizens.

In December 1971, I met with 3,500 delegates to the White House Conference on Aging. I told the delegates that I did not want their recommendations to gather dust on storeroom shelves. And I promised to join them in making 1972 a year of action for older Americans.

Since that time, we have been reviewing those recommendations -- and a number of action steps have already been taken. For example, we have increased the budget for the Administration on Aging tenfold. I have signed into law a new national nutrition program for older people. We are working to ensure that needed transportation services are included in service projects for the elderly. Programs to involve older people in voluntary service to others are growing. And we are moving forward with other, earlier efforts -- such as our campaign to reform nursing home care and our program to provide hundreds of information centers for older persons at the local level.

All of these endeavors complement our basic program for improving the income position of the elderly. If the Congress approves my recommendations for reforming and expanding social security and other income maintenance programs, the income of older Americans would be increased by some $5.5 billion annually.

Of course, there is much that remains to be done. One important challenge is to help all our people develop a new attitude toward aging, one which stops regarding older Americans as a burden and starts regarding them as a resource. For such an attitude will not only contribute to the dignity of life for older Americans, it will also give our country the immense benefit of their skills and their wisdom.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD NIXON, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate May 1972 as Senior Citizens Month. The theme for this month is ACTION NOW.

I urge officials of government at all levels -- national, State, and local -- and of voluntary organizations and private groups everywhere, to give special attention during this period to the concerns of the elderly, so that it may truly be a high point in a year of action for older Americans.

I also urge each individual American to use this month as a time to make a personal commitment to action on behalf of older people -- so that the last years may be among the best years for all of our countrymen.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this first day of May, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred seventy-two, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred ninety-sixth.

The Air War and Its Costs

Public opposition to the Vietnam war forced Nixon to begin pulling out our ground troops—more than half of them are home now. Maybe you think the war is over. Well, it almost is—for our men. But it isn't over for the Vietnamese—about 300 are dying every day from our air attacks.

As Nixon pulled out troops, he sent in more bombers. Since he took office we've dropped more bombs in this war than both sides used in all of World War II. Nixon has expanded the war into Cambodia and Laos. And now, he has started bombing North Vietnam again.

We know something about what the war cost us—55,000 American dead, over 300,000 wounded—many of them disabled for life. And the war has cost us two hundred billion dollars. Nixon will spend seven billion dollars more on this war this year alone. That is money we needed here, for new schools and hospitals, better medical aid for our people, better education for our children. With that money we could have built eight million new homes, worth $25,000 each—wiping out our slums. Every time we blow up a village in Vietnam we are spending enough money to build a new hospital or library here. While our bombers tear apart Vietnam, this war also tears apart our own nation—because there is not enough money to wage war and also deal with drugs, slums, medical care, housing. The poor and unemployed, the blacks and Puerto Ricans—these have paid the price of this war. Our veterans are coming back to find there are no jobs. And war has brought inflation—you know how much more food costs now than five years ago.

But the Vietnamese are paying the real cost of this war—and they are still paying it today, after our men have begun to leave. We lost 55,000 men—but according to government figures, they have lost over a million persons, a third of them civilians. In Vietnam, Laos, and Cambodia there are over eight million people who have lost all their belongings in the bombings and fled their homes. They are now in refugee camps with little food, no jobs, poor medical care. In North Vietnam our bombers have leveled whole cities. In Laos and Cambodia indiscriminate bombing by our planes have destroyed literally hundreds of villages. In South Vietnam vast areas of farming land have been “killed” with chemicals so deadly that no crop can be grown—and it may be a hundred years before that land comes back to life.

Nixon believes that because the dead are now “invisible,” you and I will let the war go on. The people who die now do not come from our home towns. They are “just Vietnamese,” without names we know or faces we have seen. They are strangers to us, far away.

Is Nixon right? Is it true we don't care anymore, that the war “isn't an issue?” And is this the kind of America you and I want to build—one that kills three hundred people every day in Vietnam because politicians are afraid to admit the war is wrong? Has America become a “war machine” that just keeps killing people so war corporations can make their super profits and generals can keep their jobs?

This war is wrong. The Vietnamese never threatened our nation, never bombed our cities. It is wrong for us to be there, wrong for us to keep a military dictator in power and call that “freedom.” It is, in a very simple way, wrong for us to kill these people as if they were no more than cattle. Friend, the Vietnamese speak a different language than we do, and have a different religion, but they are brothers and sisters to us, part of the human family.

It is time for a new America, one that uses our tax money for the needs of our people, an America that builds housing rather than blowing it up, an America that creates jobs rather than kills people. If this is the America you want, and if you want to end the war now, please get in touch with us and join the movement to turn America around, away from death, and toward life.

Wer steht hinter dem Verbrechen im Olympiadorf?

„Revolutionäre der Welt, vereinigt Euch!“ Diese Parole der palästinensischen Freischärler, des „Schwarzen Septembers“ erinnern uns an die kommunistische Parole „Proletarier aller Länder, vereinigt Euch!“ Sind es nicht Parolen der Weltrevolution Rußlands?

Hinter dem Verbrechen im Olympiadorf und in Fürstenfeldbruck steht nicht etwa der Völkerhetzer auch im Nahen Osten - Rußland? Was sucht Rußland auf dem Mittelmeer und im Nahen Osten?

Rußland ist der Hauptschuldige am Verbrechen im Olympischen Dorf und in Fürstenfeldbruck! Rußland mit Breschnew an der Spitze hat den palästinensischen Freischärlern Waffen gegen Israel geliefert. Rußland hat sie immer wieder gegen Israel gehetzt! Der Anführer der Freischärler wurde in Moskau im mörderischen Handwerk geschult! Nach Angaben der Münchner Polizei waren die Terroristen „mit Maschinenpistolen russischer Herkunft sowie mehreren Handgranaten“ ausgerüstet.

Verurteilt nicht nur die arabischen Freischärler, verurteilt die russischen Auftraggeber!

Rußland hat sich bis jetzt nicht vom Verbrechen distanziert, auch wenn es die Nachricht davon kommentarlos weiterleitete.

Wir fordern: Rußland raus aus den Olympischen Spielen! Ukraine, Litauen, Estland, Lettland, Georgien, Turkestan, Weißruthenien, Armenien, Aserbajdzan, Nordkaukasus und andere Völker sollen als separate Nationen an den Olympischen Spielen teilnehmen!

Wir klagen Rußland mit Breschnew an der Spitze für das letzte Verbrechen im Olympischen Dorf und in Fürstenfeldbruck an! Wir erinnern an den Mord des Leaders der Ukrainischen Nationalen Befreiungsbewegung Stepan Bandera, der auch in München von einem russischen KGB-Agenten ermordet wurde. Der Bundesgerichtshof in Karlsruhe hat als hauptschuldige Mörder Schelepin, Chruschtschow, Woroschilow angeprangert.

Jetzt herrscht eine ähnliche Situation. Für den Tod der unschuldigen Israelis, für den Tod und Verwundungen der Deutschen, und für den Tod der palästinensischen Freischärler sind nicht in erster Linie die Araber schuldig, sondern Rußland der Völkerhetzer und Weltaggressor.

Nieder mit den bolschewistischen Auftraggebern und Mördern!

Title: Who stands behind the crime at the Olympic Village

This is a pamphlet with anti-Russian propaganda.

It urges the public not to merely blame Palestinian Liberation Groups for what has happened at the Olympics in Munich. The real culprit was Breschnew with Russia, who encouraged the terrorists and provide them with arms for the war against Israel. According to the statements of the Munich police the terrorists carried guns of Russian origin. Russia has, up to now, not officially denied her indirect participation in the crime.

The authors of the pamphlet further demand the exclusion of Russia from the Olympics. Ukraine, Lätauen, Estland, etc. should be allowed to participate in the games as separate, individual nations.

Then they point out the similarity of this situation to an earlier one, where the leader of the Ukrainian National Liberation Movement, Stephan Bandera, was killed by a Russian agent in Munich. Then the Federal Court at Karlsruhe officially accused Chruschtschow and Russia ~~for~~ ^{warning} The pamphlet ends with a general call to be aware of the hidden Bolschevic agitators.

Franklin Hotel:

This Drawing, By a Group of U.Ga. Landscape Architecture Students, Shows What The Franklin Hotel Might Look Like if Restored

It Has a Past, But No Future

Hotels played an extremely important role in the domestic life of early 19th Century America. The static nations of Europe didn't need them. But in a dynamic society with an active frontier and a bustling future, the hotel was more important than any other kind of public or commercial construction, ahead of churches, town halls, saloons, stations, schools colleges and most shops.

This is the perspective in which Athens' "Franklin House," one of the two surviving antebellum hotels in Georgia, must be viewed.

"Where the importance of the individual reaches the heights it has in American Democracy," wrote Argentine statesman Domingo Sarmiento as he traveled across the U.S. in 1847, "the temple's power diminishes in proportion to the multiplication of the sects, and the hotel inherits the dome of the ancient tabernacle and takes on the aspects of the baths of emperors."

Though Sarmiento never saw the Franklin House, he did not overdraw the early 19th Century hotel's monumental significance to the social and cultural life of the community.

Franklin House was built on land purchased from the University of Georgia by Maj. William Letcher Mitchell at auction Dec. 28, 1843, for $1,400. According to the deed, the property ran 120 feet along Broad Street, 120 feet on the western side, and 146 feet on the eastern or Thomas Street side. Mitchell was a member of the Board of Trustees of the University of Georgia, and something of a real estate speculator. His new property was adjacent to land and buildings he already owned below Thomas Street. Franklin House was built on lots H, K, and I according to Trustee Minutes (1835-1857) totaling approximately one-half acre.

The precise date of construction can only be estimated. Contemporary newspapers of the community, the "Southern Banner" and the "Southern Whig," give no editorial assistance. However, in the commercial columns of the "Southern Banner" of May 15, 1845, the following advertisement appeared:

"Colored daguerreotype portraits, by S. Broadbent. Rooms over Field and Kings Store, in Mitchell's New Building. Ladies and Gentlemen are respectfully invited to call and see specimens."

In his Athens diary, James P. Waddell mentions Shaw's, Clayton's and J.S. Hull's as early shops in Mitchell's Building (Oct. 15, 1845). Otis Childs, a clock maker, placed an ad in the "Whig" boasting his "new store and new goods in Mitchell's new building" on Oct. 22, 1845. Lamplin and Cobb, old time Athens grocers, announced the opening of their business at No. 1, Mitchell's block on Jan. 14, 1847. It is apparent that the Franklin House began as one in a row of commercial buildings Mitchell erected facing Broad Street between Jackson and Thomas Street.

By the summer of 1847, Franklin House was ready to assume the requisite form and function of an important hotel. On June 3rd, Major Mitchell proclaimed:

"The subscriber would announce to his former visitors and the public at large, that this commodious establishment is now ready for the accommodation of boarders and transient persons. The rooms and passages are large and airy, finished in the best of style, and furnished with every facility for convenience and comfort. The building itself is unsurpassed by any in the state, and the proprietor pledges himself to spare no pains or expense to make all who favor him with a call feel perfectly at home. As a summer retreat, Athens is unequalled by any up-country. The subscriber offers every inducement, both in terms and accommodations, to all who are seeking such a place to give his house their patronage."

The red brick Federal Style building, bigger than any other in Athens at that date, featured a full basement with an alley entrance in the rear, three tall stories facing Broad Street and a full attic under a pitched roof. A one-story castiron facade ran the length of the hotel facing Broad Street. A staircase led to the second floor which opened on to a central hall or vestibule where guests registered and where signs posted "going on" in the vaults. Chambers to the right and left of the hall may have included a reading or smoking room, dining rooms, reception and entertainment salons and office space. The hall opened onto a balcony which overlooked Broad Street. The third floor was divided into sleeping rooms. The open attic provided economy class lodgings.

Before 1860, two wings were added to the rear of the building. One housed a ballroom. The other was the enlargement of an existing kitchen house into additional bedrooms and shops. At one point, the Franklin House had more than 48 rooms. Although seriously deteriorated, most of the architectural details described above are intact. Original mantles, wallpaper, moldings and hardware can still be seen, although the balcony and a second story bridge to another building across Thomas Street have long since disappeared.

In the heyday of the Franklin House (1847-60), many of the Originally known as the "Franklin House," and more recently recognized as the Athens Hardware building, the structure at the corner of Broad and Thomas Streets in Downtown Athens is one of two remaining ante bellum hotels in Georgia. The building is slated for demolition in 1974 unless a buyer can be found. Today's Perspective delves into the history of the old structure.

city's great Greek Revival mansions were built. Cotton turned antebellum Athens into a boom town. The University of Georgia made it the cultural center of the state. The Georgia Railroad brought cheap transportation. Tourists, transients, businessmen, immigrants, horseleaders, planters, educators, statesmen and politicians poured in. The Franklin House Hotel became the hub of an upwardly mobile community.

Alexander Stephens was one distinguished guest, and Howell Cobb, Speaker of the U.S. House of Representatives, and later governor of Georgia, wined and dined at the Franklin House on his frequent trips between Washington and Northeast Georgia.

"He arrived in the place on Thursday last," runs a brief news item in the "Southern Banner." "We have not had the pleasure of seeing Mr. Cobb at the writing of this paragraph, but understand he never appeared in finer health or spirits. We learn he will be at the Franklin House, where he will be greeted by a portion of his admiring and cooling constituency."

Other occupants, according to local legend, include the ghost of a murder victim bricked up in the hotel's foundation when it was being built. A recruiter made his headquarters in the hotel for several weeks in 1846 to attract volunteers for the Mexican War, according to the "Southern Banner." It was here in the spring of 1853 that subscriptions for $3,000 were raised to build Athens' first telegraph link to the outside world, running from the Classic City to the nearest terminal at Union Point, Ga.

The Franklin House was especially popular with itinerant salesman or drummers and professional people. The classified ads are filled in the 1840s and 1850s with the comings and goings of an army of daguerreotype photographers, music teachers, dancing instructors, French teachers, lawyers and dentists. Instructions in the French language cost $10 for three months, a family daguerreotype ran $3 and a piano forte could be tuned for $1.50.

The local newspaper also indicates that the hotel was an important headquarters for Whig politics in North Georgia. Major Mitchell was an influential figure in this party. He lost his job as postmaster, a petronage position, when James K. Polk won the Presidential election of 1844. In addition, important civic organizations, including the Athens Masonic Lodge regularly met in rooms on the second floor.

William Mitchell died in 1860, and all his property and Negroes were sold at public auction. J.W. Nicholson bought the Franklin House for $16,300. When the Civil War ended, he converted the building into a hardware store, which it remained under various owners, until 1972. The empty structure is scheduled for demolition in the spring of 1974 unless a buyer can be found willing to restore the old hotel to some of its former glory.

HELP for VETERANS!

There are approximately 1,300 students attending the University of Georgia this summer that are receiving educational assistance from the Veterans Administration, and it is anticipated that 2,000 students will receive educational assistance from the Veterans Administration during the Fall Quarter. These students are not all veterans, and war orphans and military dependents are included in these figures.

There are three offices at the University that are set up to provide services to students attending the University and receiving educational assistance from the Veterans Administration: the Veterans Office, the Minister to Veterans Affairs, and the Georgia Veterans Union. The first office is run by the University under Student Affairs, and the services offered by the Veterans Office are: assistance in obtaining GI Bill educational assistance from the VA, and general information concerning VA benefits, and information concerning the newly approved Veterans Work-Study Program. The Minister to Veterans Affairs is an office under student government that works in conjunction with student government and state government in the area of Veterans Affairs to insure that the students attending the University are receiving all possible assistance from student government and state government in completing their education. The Georgia Veterans Union is a newly formed organization that was set up to assist the veteran in any way possible while he or she is attending the University. Such services as helping the veteran find a place to live, a part time job, or general problems that confront the veteran as he adjusts to the academic community here, are available through the Veterans Union.

So far this summer veterans have been talking at all summer orientation sessions, counseling new students as to VA benefits, and recruiting veterans for the Veterans Work-Study Program. There also has been close contact with Georgia State Senator Max Cleland, the sponsor of the bill that would provide Vietnam era veterans from the state of Georgia with $150.00 per quarter to be used to pay tuition at any state supported school in the state of Georgia. This bill will come up before the General Assembly in January, and an organized effort from the University in support of the bill could be a determining factor as to whether it passes or not.

There are many services available to the veteran attending the University of Georgia, and the only way these various offices can effectively help the veterans on campus is to hear from the veterans themselves as to the problems that confront them here at the University, the services that could be improved, and services that could be added to offer greater assistance to the veteran while he is here.

Jim Lanzer is presently serving as minister to Veterans Affairs, President of the Georgia Veterans Union, and is working in the veterans office under the Veterans Work-Study Program. If anyone has any problems concerning veterans affairs, VA benefits, or the Veterans Work-Study Program, or if anyone has any suggestions that could improve any of the above offices please contact Jim Lanzer. (542-1901, Student Government); (542-6147, Veterans Office); (742-8870, home).

Our nation, our state, and our city are beset with complex problems varying in such scope and frequency that they often boggle the mind and rack the patience of the most sincere among us. And like the Engineer, I, too, share the belief that most problems can be solved.

No one is more encouraged than I about the emerging role of the Engineer in areas heretofore thought to be the exclusive bailiwick of men and women versed primarily in the social sciences. One of these new roles is in modern government.

Far too many people conceive of the Engineer as someone who works exclusively in industry. On the contrary, more and more individuals skilled in the disciplines of engineering are deeply committed to helping solve people-problems and not just plant problems.

One example of this is found in the series of courses now offered in the Bachelor of Engineering Economics Systems program. The mere fact that this new program concentrates on preparing Engineers to cope with such problems as drug addiction consumer affairs, population control, water and air pollution, housing, land use planning, health and judicial systems should give hope to any community, and especially to a city with one of the nation's most severe crime problems.

City government must work closely with Engineers to help solve problems which plague the urban community. The City of Atlanta can find excellent resources in the students and faculty at Georgia Tech. In my administration, I plan to rely on the abilities of the Tech Community.

I need your help now.....and I will need your help when I become Mayor.

Presenting

EULALIE

By

A biography of one of the first women's libbers, one of the first women in real estate; a story of friendships with the famous and the not so famous.

If there is such a thing as a man's man, then Eulalie (pronounced U'-la-lee) Salley is the female counterpart to that -- she is a woman's woman.

She is both smart and intuitive; ambitious and persevering; strong but intensely feminine. She possesses great passion for life, its simple pleasures as well as its material elegance. She is a real woman who has known hurt and pain, joy and love.

Through the years she has enchanted people with her stories, most of which are true, most of which are improved by her "embroidering", as she likes to call it. "I have no use for people who always tell the truth," she says -- She thinks absolutely truthful people are both dull and cruel. Perhaps she is right; the world is a better place if you enhance it a little here and there.

Eulalie is the embodiment of a fascinating ancestry, weaving together the family strong points and capitalizing on the family's sense of humor. ("My grandfather said the reason Charlestonians talk so funny is because they married their cousins," she recalls.)

Her life takes the reader back into another time; she has lived to see the course of the South and of women change tremendously.

EULALIE is a story of woman suffrage, a giant of a real estate career, and a wealth of friendships full of fun and anecdotes. It is also the story of a fascinating town, unlike any other and soon to be lost to time.

Hers is a story of the conversion of weakness into strength, a story of a love lost and a tolerance for a course once chosen.

The author is the former Emily Lewis of Knoxville. She is the wife of Harcourt Bull III and the mother of two children. She studied radio and television journalism at the University of Tennessee.

Mrs. Bull is a relative newcomer to Aiken. She moved there in 1964 after her husband joined E. I. duPont de Nemours, Inc. located south of Aiken. Having always lived in larger cities, she first thought Aiken a nice place to retire, but too quaint for living; now she cherishes the town as her home.

Mrs. Bull is also a newcomer to writing. She became women's editor of the Aiken Standard newspaper in 1971. She tried her hand at writing in 1969 and one of the first stories she did brought about her introduction to Eulalie Salley.

Cool off in the old fashion ice cream parlor or just sit in the park and enjoy the entertainment from the bandstand. So come back in time to the turn of the century when time was young and let the marigold work its magic. We'll be looking for you.

+ + + + + Church Covenant + + + + +

Having been led, as we believe by the Spirit of God, to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Saviour and, on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, we do now, in the presence of God, and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another as one body in Christ.

We engage, therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit to walk together in Christian love; to strive for the advancement of this church, in knowledge, holiness, and comfort; to promote its prosperity and spirituality; to sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline, and doctrines; to contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expenses of the church, the relief of the poor, and the spread of the gospel through all nations.

We also engage to maintain family and secret devotions; to religiously educate our children; to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintances; to walk circumspectly in the world; to be just in our dealings, faithful in our engagements, and exemplary in our deportment; to avoid all tattling, backbiting, and excessive anger; to abstain from the sale of, and use of, intoxicating drinks as a beverage; to be zealous in our efforts to advance the kingdom of our Saviour.

We further engage to watch over one another in brotherly love; to remember one another in prayer; to aid one another in sickness and distress; to cultivate Christian sympathy in feeling and Christian courtesy in speech; to be slow to take offense, but always ready for reconciliation and mindful of the rules of our Saviour to secure it without delay.

We moreover engage that when we remove from this place we will, as soon as possible, unite with some other church where we can carry out the spirit of this covenant and the principles of God's Word.

THE COMMITTEE FOR DAY CARE NEEDS YOUR HELP!

The Committee for Day Care is an organization of concerned students who feel that we need a day care center at the University. The local day care centers are not geared to the University students' needs (or pocketbooks). A University day care center could provide competent care for our children--it could provide jobs and a low-cost, convenient place for internships for education majors.

The UGA day care center will not require additional fees from you--the SGA already has your fee money. Let them know how you want your money spent. Vote yes for day care in the Student Referendum on Thursday, November 7. Day care can pass, but only if you vote. (You can vote from 9:00 to 4:00 at these locations: Memorial Hall, Park Hall, Grad Studies, Aderhold.) For further information, call 549-7643.

“County Government ought to be worth every penny you pay into it. If I didn’t think so, I wouldn’t be running for County Commission.”

Tom Butler

Tom Butler makes sense for Clarke County.

He makes sense because he knows what it means to be fair — to listen to both sides of a question, then make the decision that will best benefit the majority of the citizens of our county.

That’s going to be important during the next four years, when some difficult decisions have to be made — about property taxes, about Clarke County law enforcement, about our jail facilities; decisions affecting fire protection, water and sewerage services, good zoning practices; decisions about the relationship between city and county government.

Tom Butler thinks the key word is cooperation. “We’ve got to get city and county government working together, for the people of Athens and Clarke County and not just for special interests or somebody’s personal ego.”

Tom Butler believes that folks in Clarke County deserve the best. And he’s willing to work to see that we get the best.

THE PHOTOGRAPHERS WHO'LL BE HERE

John D. Slack began his photographic career in his early teens. His first news assignment was for the Lakeland Florida Ledger shooting the launch of Gemini IV. Since then, he has covered every Gemini, Apollo and Skylab launch. Several of his space program photographs gained national and international recognition, including a Pulitzer Prize nomination. These unique launch photographs were taken with the use of a sound-activated Nikon camera system which he devised and assembled himself.

John has received several other awards while on the photo staff of Today, including awards from the National Press Photographers Association and the Associated Press.

As a free-lance magazine photographer, his photographs have appeared in the World Book, Penthouse, Life, Newsweek, Reader's Digest, and Germany's Stern magazine. His photographs have also appeared nationwide in the Advertising field. As a magazine and advertising photographer, he has traveled extensively to Europe, Central America, and the Caribbean.

He joined Nikon as one of the first instructors of the Nikon School of Photography and has taught more Nikon classes than any other instructor.

His photojournalistic and industrial assignments have led him to travel throughout the United States, the Caribbean, across Europe and North Africa, and to the South Pacific. He has guest lectured on photojournalism and fashion photography at a number of colleges and universities. His work has earned advertising credits with a First Place Award from the American Institute for Graphic Arts; awards from both the New York and New Jersey Art Directors Clubs. Proposed Federal Youth Center:

CITIZENS CONCERNED FOR OFFENDER REHABILITATION

Many well intentioned local residents have voiced opposition to this facility being located in the Athens area. Much opposition has taken the form of emotionalism based on fear and distorted information. The facts which follow have been gathered by a group of responsible citizens who believe that this vocal minority does not fairly represent the citizens of this area.

Who are the inmates? Approximately 400 carefully screened non-violent offenders, sentenced under the Federal Youth Corrective Act after a full investigation by Federal Court Probation Officers. Ages 18 to 25, average length of confinement is 18 months.

Why this type of facility? In addition to assigned work, these young men will participate in academic, personal adjustment, and vocational training programs. The purpose of these programs is to enable these young men to learn a marketable job skill before being released. All are released on parole under supervision and 95% return to their home community.

Will this facility be a threat to the community? Based on experience with similar facilities in Ashland, Kentucky; Englewood, Colo.; Morgantown, West Virginia; and Pleasanton, California there is no rational basis for assuming that the presence of these offenders will represent any threat to the citizens of this area. Security features include: 12 foot fence, 24 hour roving perimeter patrol, advanced electronic surveillance. Escapes do occur; however, in all the escapes from the above noted facilities dating all the way back to 1940, no escapee has physically harmed a local resident.

What are the economic benefits to the community? A $10 to $12 million dollar building complex providing jobs for brick layers, carpenters, painters and other construction workers. Four million dollars annually will provide approximately 125 jobs for local residents with a depression proof annual payroll of $2,275,000 in addition to $1,725,000 in services purchased locally. Home construction stimulated by this facility will offset income lost from removing land from the tax digest.

The success of this rehabilitative effort can be measured by the number of releasees later re-arrested. Compare the following recidivism or re-arrests figures:

All prison systems:	70% re-arrests
U. S. Bureau of Prisons:	33% re-arrests of those released in 1970
	30% estimated recidivism rate 1972,
	(official figures to be released July 1975)

It is hoped that the success rate will increase as new, smaller facilities are placed near educational institutions. BUREAU OF PRISONS OFFICIALS STATED APRIL 4: "IT IS VITAL TO OUR REHABILITATION EFFORT TO LOCATE IN THE UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA AREA".

FOUR HUNDRED YOUNG MEN WITH POTENTIAL FOR REHABILITATION NEED A SECOND CHANCE. IT HAS BEEN SAID BEFORE, "ALL THAT IS NECESSARY FOR DISORDER TO PREVAIL IN OUR SOCIETY IS FOR GOOD MEN TO DO NOTHING." ARE THOSE IN FAVOR READY TO STAND UP AND BE HEARD FROM?

CAN WE AFFORD TO IGNORE THIS MORAL CHALLENGE?

RATIFY THE EQUAL RIGHTS AMENDMENT

"Equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged by the U.S. or any state on account of sex."-- The E.R.A.

Although women constitute 44% of the labor force in the U.S., they earn only 59.4% of what men earn. Across the U.S., state laws are still in force that discriminate against women, such as laws prohibiting women from working certain occupations, laws permitting state colleges to set higher admission standards for women, laws establishing dual pay schedules, laws denying credit for married women, plus many more.

Throughout every woman's educational career, she must contend with texts which stereo-type the roles of women in society and is denied knowledge of the roles women have played throughout history. This is probably due to the fact that although women hold 67% of the public schools teaching positions, we hold only 16% of the administrative positions, and only 2% of all university administrators are women.

WOMEN NEED THE E.R.A. WE NEED YOUR SUPPORT.

“YESTERDAY”

An exhibit of the Dr. W. M. White photographs, (circa 1900), at Roy Ward's, in Watkinsville, on
3 Sundays, Sept. 21, 28, & Oct. 5, 1975

PUBLIC INVITED

“YESTERDAY”

Most of the William M. White photographs were taken in Watkinsville in the 1890's. A number of them were made in Athens, showing his friends, Spanish-American War activities, and the University of Georgia from which he graduated in 1900. In this exhibit, a few of the earliest pictures were taken by his father, Dr. David M. White; and some of the latest ones, such as the portrait of Dr. W. M. White in uniform, were made by Mr. Robert Billups.

We are inexpressibly grateful to Mr. William E. White for lending his grandfather's original negatives for this re-printing. He allowed full freedom in this work; and a long search for a suitable photographer ended with Mr. Kenneth Kay, whose patience and skill cannot be praised enough. Amongst several interested people who generously lent their time and hospitality to the work of identification, I must especially single out Mrs. Clare McRee Branch. That work is not finished; and it is hoped that visitors will enjoy some element of surprise and discovery in helping to continue the work of correct identification.

Dr. White's broad interest was unusual for his time. His zest for recording the local citizenry, buildings, interiors, and such incidents as a trip to Tullulah Falls; make these photographs a record of genuine historical value. His innate taste and artistry have created at least a few really memorable pictures which would hold their own against any of the great photographers of America's past. The "Two Young Negroes with a Guitar" is an eloquent and evocative pastorelle which very nearly brought me to tears.

Watkinsville is a very old town; and some of the buildings pictured still stand. Others have been lost only recently, so they are still in our memory. One regrets that this exhibit could not have been mounted ten years ago, when Miss Julia Johnston could have set us straight on every scene; but one is grateful that it can be done at all.

CONFERENCE

MAN IN THE LANDSCAPE

*November 13-14, 1976
Darien, Georgia*

WILLIAM BARTRAM

the eighteenth century American naturalist, is the pivot around which the conference will revolve. When William Bartram and his father visited the coast of Georgia he observed man's use and dependence on the natural world around him. As we look toward the future, man's relation to the landscape will be of increasing importance.

of the conference is to enquire into ways of harmonious use of the resources of our historic, and natural areas positively, profitably, and to ensure their many values will not be diminished.

More black people have voted for Jimmy Carter in the Democratic primaries than for all the other candidates combined.

On April 13th, the Rev. Martin Luther King, Sr. told why:

“ I know a man I can trust, blacks can trust, and all Americans can trust as their President—that man is Jimmy Carter.

Jimmy, I was with you when you started your long journey, I'm with you now, and I'm going to be with you when you're in the White House.

Jimmy Carter has been for equal justice when it wasn't an easy thing to be for in south Georgia. He was for equal rights long before it was a popular thing to support—and long before he entered the political arena.

Jimmy Carter spoke out in favor of integrating his rural southern church many, many years ago. He and his family had to withstand a fierce economic boycott because they refused to join the White Citizens Council, which almost drove him out of business. His daughter has always gone to integrated public schools.

When he was Governor of Georgia, the first public speech Jimmy Carter made said that the 'time for discrimination is over.' And he proved he meant what he said. He appointed blacks to judgeships and other important positions. He supported social programs to help the poor and disadvantaged. He desegregated the Georgia Real Estate Commission and pushed for and succeeded in having passed Georgia's first fair housing law.

And he gave my son, Martin Luther King, Jr., an honored place in the Georgia State Capitol—against a lot of opposition.

These are the things that tell me what is in Jimmy Carter's mind and in his heart.

Yes, Jimmy Carter has been with black people when it wasn't easy for him. And we're with Jimmy Carter even when the road to the White House has a small bump or two in it. Nothing that is worth achieving in life comes without some hardship—but that hardship will make Jimmy Carter an even greater President. It is wrong to jump on a man for the slip of a tongue that everyone knows does not represent his thinking. I know where Jimmy Carter stands and has always stood because I've been right here to watch him—and so do black Americans.

During your race for President you have told the American people about things that unite us, not that divide us; about the things we can do together. That's why you're winning support from all Americans, black and white.

You, better than anyone, understand the problems of black and white Americans—and they believe in you, now more than ever.

God bless you Jimmy Carter and God-speed on your way to the White House. **”

You can make the difference in Georgia. Vote for JIMMY CARTER in the Democratic Presidential Primary May 4.

Zimmer at the Diggings

It is best to begin in the morning with
The low sun slanting over the cool site.
I brush the dust from the grooves
Of ancient trash, strip down the layers,
Sift, count, dig, date the axeheads.

These are my findings:
Surface—Bones of wild dogs,
Some elm stumps smelling of urine.
Second level—Residue of hemp,
Circular mounds of earth, post holes
Testing of urine, scattered bones of Children, birds, woodchucks, snakes,
The femur of a stupendous cave bear.
Third level—Reasons for the circles,
A ring of inscribed snadstone tablets sunk
Into mounds of cranial fragments, eye teeth,
Delicate shard and fingerbones.

By midafternoon I begin to sweat under
High sun; the sky presses down on my head;
I start to imagine I can join it all.
The axeheads strain like wings.
I begin to glue the shard together,
Rack the teeth, stack the bones
And string them with muscle and sinew.
I breathe on them and listen for voices.

At last, in heat, I wander into the countryside,
Gather the small exquisite things I love:
Maple seeds, phlox petals, flakes of birch bark,
Gypsum pebbles, baby mice, all minute jewels.

In my great warmth and confusion
I put them into my mouth and chew them,
Let my teeth commit their quick atrocities.
Then in highest hopes I swallow them,
Feel their pulp and grit slide delicately
Down my throat into the dark acids.

I return to the shade of the site,
Small beauty pumping out to the edges
Of my body, infusing into my parts.
Amidst the circle of tremendous stones
I feel my cells divide in fragile ecstasy.

ATLANTA NEEDS A NEW CENTRAL LIBRARY

The people of Atlanta deserve:

- 1) Open shelves for free and easy access to all books and other materials;
- 2) Community meeting rooms for groups and organizations of all sizes who are in need of meeting space;
- 3) Safe and adequate parking facilities for library users;
- 4) Drive-in pick up and return facilities;
- 5) Quiet, comfortable, attractive lounge areas where library users can seek the joy of privacy with a good book;
- 6) Plenty of work and seating space for research and reading.

Atlantans started talking about the need for a new Central Library 45 years ago!
Let's do something about it NOW!

CIVIL RIGHTS MARCH

NOV. 25th

The United League asks National Support:

In recent months there has been a new upsurge of the Civil Rights Movement, and Mississippi is again a focal point. The racism of this state is apparent in the depth of poverty, unemployment, lack of health facilities, poor housing, poor educational opportunities, and a feeling of hopelessness and frustration in the Black Community. Since January of this year The United League, a grassroots organization growing in influence, has actively worked for equality under the law. Issues which have precipitated organization have been unequal government, business, school hiring practices, and police brutality of black persons. Marches have been peaceful, nonviolent, and orderly conducted in various cities throughout Northern Mississippi in an attempt to stimulate responsible citizens of the white community. It is hoped that this national march will impact these citizens to take positive action. Most of the participants will be from the Mississippi area but The League is asking support of people around the nation who see their struggle as important,

The UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE ANNOUNCES AN EXAMINATION FOR CLERK & CARRIER

POSITIONS IN THE POST OFFICE AT

JACKSON, GEORGIA 30233

(NAME OF POST OFFICE AND STATE)

THE OPPORTUNITY

Applications are now being accepted, and examinations will be given to establish a register of eligibles or to expand the current register of eligibles from which future clerk and carrier vacancies in this Post Office will be filled. All interested persons who meet the requirements described in this announcement are urged to apply.

QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

No experience is required. All applicants will be required to take a written examination designed to test aptitude for learning and performing the duties of the position. The test will consist of 4 parts: (1) Address Checking, (2) Memory for Addresses, (3) General Abilities (word meaning and reading), and (4) Number Series. The test and completion of the forms will require approximately 3 hours. Competitors will be rated on a scale of 100. They must score at least 70 on the examination as a whole.

DUTIES

Clerks work indoors. Clerks have to handle sacks of mail weighing as much as 70 pounds. They sort mail and distribute it by using a complicated scheme which must be memorized. Some clerks work at a public counter or window doing such jobs as selling stamps and weighing parcels and are personally responsible for all money and stamps. A clerk may be on his feet all day. He also has to stretch, reach, and throw mail. Assignments to preferred positions, such as window clerks, typist and stenographic positions, etc., are filled by open bid and reassignment of the senior qualified clerk.

Carriers have to collect and deliver mail. Some carriers walk, other carriers drive. Carriers must be out in all kinds of weather. Almost all carriers have to carry mail bags on their shoulders; loads weigh as much as 35 pounds. Carriers sometimes have to load and unload sacks of mail weighing as much as 70 pounds.

The duties of newly appointed Clerks and Carriers are at times interchangeable. As representatives of the Postal Service, they must maintain pleasant and effective public relations with patrons and others, requiring a general familiarity with postal laws, regulations, and procedures commonly used.

Employees may be assigned to work in places exposed to public view. Their appearance influences the general public's confidence and attitude toward the entire Postal Service.

Employees appointed under this standard are therefore expected to maintain neat and proper personal attire and grooming appropriate to conducting public business, including the wearing of a uniform when required.

ALL QUALIFIED APPLICANTS WILL RECEIVE CONSIDERATION FOR EMPLOYMENT WITHOUT REGARD TO RACE, RELIGION, COLOR, NATIONAL ORIGIN, SEX, POLITICAL AFFILIATIONS, OR ANY OTHER NON-MERIT FACTOR.

CARRIER POSITIONS REQUIRING DRIVING

Before eligibles may be appointed to carrier positions which require driving, they must demonstrate a Safe Driving record and must pass the Road Test to show they can safely drive a vehicle of the type used on the job.

Eligibles who fail to qualify in the Road Test will not be given the test again in the same group of hires. Those who fail the test a second time will not again be considered as a result of the same examination for appointment to a position that requires driving.

A valid driver's license from the state in which this post office is located must be presented at the time of appointment. Persons who do not have the license will not be appointed but their names will be restored to the register. They may not again be considered for carrier positions until they have obtained the required driver's license. After hire, individuals must also be able to obtain the required type of Government operator's permit.

PHYSICAL REQUIREMENTS

Applicants must be physically able to perform the duties described elsewhere in this announcement. Any physical condition which would cause the applicant to be a hazard to himself or to others will be disqualifying for appointment.

The distant vision for Clerk and Carrier positions not involving driving duties must test at least 20/30 (Snellen) in one eye, glasses permitted, and applicants generally must be able to hear ordinary conversation with or without a hearing aid, but some clerk positions may be filled by the deaf.

For Carrier positions which require driving, applicants must have at least 20/30 (Snellen) in one eye and 20/50 (Snellen) in the other with or without a corrective device, for unlimited operation of motor vehicles. Hearing must be at least 15/20 with or without a hearing aid.

A physical examination will be required before appointment.

AGE REQUIREMENT

The general age requirement is 18 years or 16 years for high school graduates, except for those for whom age limits are waived. For carrier positions which require driving, applicants must be 18 years of age or over. In general, there is no maximum age limit.

CITIZENSHIP

All applicants must be citizens of or owe allegiance to the United States of America or have been granted permanent resident alien status in the United States.

SALARY

Full-Time Employees: Starting salary is $ _____ per year with increases to $ _____ per year

Part-Time Flexible Schedule Employees: Starting salary is $ 6.75 per hour with increases to $ _____ per hour

Employees will be paid 10 percent extra for work performed between 6:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m.

CONSIDERATION

Consideration to fill these positions will be made of the highest eligibles on the register who are available.

HOW TO APPLY

Submit application Form 2479-AB to the postmaster of this office or place designated by him.

Opening date for application MAY 22 1978

CLOSING DATE FOR APPLICATION MAY 26 1978

WRITTEN EXAMINATION

Applicants will be notified of date, time, and place of examination and will be sent sample questions.

THE LAW (39 U.S. Code 1002) PROHIBITS POLITICAL AND CERTAIN OTHER RECOMMENDATIONS FOR APPOINTMENTS, PROMOTIONS, ASSIGNMENTS, TRANSFERS, OR DESIGNATIONS OF PERSONS IN THE POSTAL SERVICE. Statements relating solely to character and residence are permitted, but every other kind of statement or recommendation is prohibited unless it either is requested by the Postal Service and consists solely of an evaluation of the work performance, ability, aptitude, and general qualifications of an individual or is requested by a Government representative investigating the individual's loyalty, suitability, and character. PRIZES
ACADEMIC

THE SALLY BARKSDALE HARGRETT SENIOR PRIZE — $1,000

THE SALLY BARKSDALE HARGRETT JUNIOR PRIZE — $750

These prizes are to be used for the furtherance of the recipient's education.

These two prizes are made possible by an endowed fund established by Felix Hargrett in memory of his wife, Sally Barksdale Hargrett, a 1921 graduate of this institution. Established to encourage academic excellence, the prizes are awarded strictly in recognition of outstanding academic achievement, exceptional promise, and significant contribution to college life.

The prizes will be awarded each spring at Honors Assembly. Those eligible for consideration must be women students who are residents of Virginia and who are rising juniors or rising seniors at the time the prizes are awarded.

Students may not apply for these prizes since they are bestowed as earned honors. Those eligible students most closely epitomizing the high standards established for recipients of these prizes will be nominated by their department chairmen to the Dean of the College in February. The Dean of the College and the Dean of Students will review each nominee carefully, and make the final selection of one rising junior and one rising senior to be honored as prize recipients.

total health

HEALTH is a condition of total well being — not just the absence of pain and disease. Your health is dependent upon many factors — good nutrition, exercise, stress handling, adequate rest and relaxation, a positive attitude, and more. For example, proper breathing increases oxygenation of blood, thereby improving body function and vitality. Athletes, especially runners, recognize just how important correct breathing is to their performance.

But most important, all the systems and organs of your body must function properly and in harmony for the other factors (food, exercise, etc.) to have the most beneficial effect. Otherwise the body breaks down — usually in the weakest part.

total health care

Today there are many “health care” specialties, most of which are really disease care specialties, each with its own approach to treatment once you have a serious problem. Have you ever wished you could find a doctor who is interested in keeping you healthy, a facility dedicated to providing the best of health care?

We are happy to announce the opening of the Atlanta Center for Naturopathic Health Care. We believe that PREVENTION is the most sensible approach to disease. We use only natural substances and treatments in the restoration and maintenance of your health. We offer the following services:

- APPLIED KINESIOLOGY — provides a method of evaluation and correction of musculo-skeletal (structural), neurological, and other functional problems (including athletic injuries or problems like tennis elbow (tendonitis); weak knees, ankles, etc.)
- DETOXIFICATION AND FASTING PROGRAMS — weight loss and a sense of well being are only two of the benefits of an internal cleansing program.
- EXERCISE PROGRAMS — designed to help stabilize and strengthen areas of weakness and stress.
- INFORMATION AND EDUCATION — to keep you informed on the latest research and methods of maintaining your health.
- NEUROLOGICAL ANALYSIS — intended to locate and correct abnormal reflex patterns that cause abnormal function.
- NUTRITIONAL ANALYSIS, TESTING, AND CONSULTATION — good foods and the appropriate supplements are the building blocks of a healthy body.
- POSTURAL AND SPINAL ANALYSIS AND CORRECTION — recognizing that proper structure is necessary for proper function.
- ANALYSIS OF (ACCUPUNCTURE) MERIDIAN ENERGY — ensuring that the meridian energy flows correctly.
- USE OF NATURAL REMEDIES including Herbs; Homeopathics; Protomorphogens; and Physical Therapies.

THE JAMESTOWN PRIZE

$1,500

Awarded annually by the Institute of Early American History and Culture

COMPETITION WILL OPEN on August 1 for the 1980 Jamestown Manuscript Prize, an award of $1,500 offered each year by the Institute for the best book-length, scholarly manuscript in early American history or culture submitted to the Institute Prize Committee.

Eligibility: The prize competition is open only to authors who have not earlier published a book. Previous applicants for the Institute's post-doctoral fellowships are particularly encouraged to submit their revised dissertations for the Jamestown Prize competition. Past or present holders of Institute fellowships are ineligible. The subject of the manuscript must pertain to America before ca. 1815 or to the related history of the British Isles, Europe, West Africa, and the Caribbean.

Procedure for Submission: Manuscripts may be submitted any time between August 1 and September 30, 1979, for the 1980 award. They should be mailed to the Editor of Publications, Institute of Early American History and Culture, Box 220, Williamsburg, Virginia 23185. A letter should be sent separately indicating that the manuscript has been submitted. The manuscript must be a ribbon copy that is entirely double-spaced, including extract quotations and footnotes. Footnotes should be collected at the end of the manuscript and organized by chapter. All submissions are made with the understanding that the Institute has first claim on their publication.

Judging: The Prize Committee will complete preliminary judging within two months of the receipt of a manuscript, returning immediately those submissions not selected for the final round of competition. Authors of manuscripts with unusual promise will be notified that they are in the running for the prize and that final action will be delayed pending the closing of the preliminary judging. The prizewinning manuscript will be chosen before February 30, 1980.

The Award: In addition to the $1,500 cash prize, the winning manuscript will be published by the University of North Carolina Press, in conjunction with the Institute of Early American History and Culture, as part of the Institute's regular publication program. Funding for the prize comes from the Jamestown-Yorktown Foundation, the University of North Carolina Press, and the Institute's two principal sponsors: the College of William and Mary and the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation.

FREE BUSES YOU DON'T WANT TO MISS THE FREE BUSES 2ND GREAT MARCH ON REIDSVILLE

WHEN: 10:00 A.M. -- SATURDAY -- AUGUST 18, 1979
WHERE: FROM THE TATTNALL COUNTY COURTHOUSE
TO THE REIDSVILLE PRISON

WE ARE ALSO MARCHING TO FREE DICK GREGORY!

“W H Y ?”

On last Saturday (August 11th) a Georgia Judge ordered the State Troopers to break up our peaceful March and put all of us in jail who did not cooperate. 67 of our Marchers were snatched up and jailed. Brother Gregory became very upset over the Judge's busting up our peaceful demonstration with State Troopers dragging us off to jail and then just turning all of us loose. Dick screamed, “YOU ARE THE JUDGE, BUT YOU ARE NOT GOD AND I WILL NOT STAND BY AND ALLOW YOU TO GET AWAY WITH PLAYING GOD BY DESTROYING OUR PEOPLE'S RIGHTS.”

THEN DICK LEAD SEVERAL PERSONS BACK TO THE SPOT WHERE THE GEORGIA STATE TROOPERS BROKE UP THE MARCH, AND THEY WERE ARRESTED A SECOND TIME. OTHER PERSONS ARRESTED INCLUDED 2 OF REV. HOSEA WILLIAMS' SONS (HOSEA II and ANDRE), ATTY. KEITH WIMBUSH, HORACE WOODARD, CHRYSANDRA BROWN AND J. W. SPEARS. THE TATTNALL COUNTY JUDGE (James Findley) HAS SINCE GIVEN DICK GREGORY AND SPEARS 20 DAYS IN PRISON; Ms. BROWN 10 DAYS AND HAS BANNED THREE OF THE OTHERS FROM THE COUNTY UNTIL THEIR TRIAL DATE. DICK, SPEARS AND SISTER BROWN ARE CONTINUING TO REFUSE TO EAT ANY FOOD OR DRINK ANY WATER UNTIL THEY ARE FREED (OR DEAD) AND UNTIL THEIR CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS TO PEACEFULLY DEMONSTRATE ARE GUARANTEED. WE MUST NOT LET THEM DIE WE MUST HELP DICK, FOR DICK HAS HELPED SO MANY!!

Rev. Hosea says you should join the Coalition's 2nd march because...

On last Saturday (August 11, 1979) about 500 people from across the United States were stopped from marching near the Reidsville State Prison to have a National Rally -- to “CLOSE IT DOWN; STOP THE DEATH PENALTY; STOP THE RACIST ATTACKS AGAINST BLACK INMATES AND TO FREE THE REIDSVILLE BROTHERS -- by a racist Tattnall County Judge. We must march on Reidsville State Prison to close it down once and for all and put an end to the death penalty. REIDSVILLE DOES NOT STOP CRIME REIDSVILLE IS A CRIME! REIDSVILLE DOES NOT REHABILITATE IT DESTROYS THE FIBRES THAT MAKE UP ONES HUMAN DIGNITY!!

Come bring your family & friends!

WHAT IS A KIRIN?

A Kirin is a benevolent mythical creature whose home is China. Legend has it that a lady called En Chen Tsai was walking in her garden one night 2500 years ago when a Kirin appeared before her. A Kirin looks like a combination of horse and dragon, and this Kirin breathed its sacred breath upon En Chen Tsai. A warm attachment ensued, and two nights departed before the Kirin reluctantly followed suit. Nine months later En Chen Tsai gave birth to a son who became Confucius. Subsequently it was discovered that the mothers of great and saintly men inevitably had similar visitations, and the Kirin became worshipped as a harbinger of good things.

Now that you've learned the legend of the Kirin, you may wish to learn a few facts about Kirin Beer. It is the world's second largest-selling brand . . . created by the world's second largest brewery . . . sold in 60 major international cities. And while the Kirin is an ancient myth, the growing popularity of Kirin Beer is a modern reality.
