A Charming STORY

One hundred and fifty-seven years ago, Tiffany introduced charms to the world. Enchanted by the tiny talismans, women of all ages coveted and collected them, as they do today. Each charm, in its exquisite, detailed perfection, celebrates love, special occasions and memorable milestones in a way that's quintessentially Tiffany. And like all things Tiffany, these little pieces of luxury are inimitable in style and unparalleled in quality.

START A Collection
BEGIN A TRADITION

A charm bracelet grows with the woman who wears it. Together, they create a personal history. As new charms are added - a birthday, a holiday, a baby - a rich tradition is built that will become a cherished keepsake for future generations.
